

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph

ST. JOHN, N. B. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1902.

NO. 95.

VOL. XL.

TREMBLING HANDS OF AGED PRELATE PLACE CROWN ON HEAD OF BRITAIN'S KING.

Dramatic Incident Attends Coronation-- Archbishop of Canterbury Almost Faints As He Crowns the Monarch-- Supported by His Majesty.

Seven Thousand People in the Abbey Make a Wonderful Scene-- The King Gives Way to the Father and Heartily Shakes the Hand of Wales-- His Majesty's Gift to the Nation.

HIS MAJESTY KING EDWARD VII.

London, Aug. 9--Edward VII., R. I., by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, was today crowned without hitch...

Wonders of the coronation were witnessed by seven thousand people in the Abbey...

Intensely dramatic scene. Brought tears to many eyes. King forgotten in the father when Prince of Wales pays homage.

The Queen's anxiety was keen. The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

Earl Roberts, commander-in-chief of the army, was once more the hero of the hour and next to the king himself received the warmest welcome of the assembled crowds.

Wonderful scene in Westminster Abbey. In Westminster Abbey the scene was nothing less than marvelous. Nearly 7,000 members of the nobility, the clergy and the gentry had gathered with foreign envoys, ambassadors, colonial rulers, Indian potentates and leaders from the furthest quarter of the globe...

The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

The Queen's anxiety was keen. The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

Earl Roberts, commander-in-chief of the army, was once more the hero of the hour and next to the king himself received the warmest welcome of the assembled crowds.

Wonderful scene in Westminster Abbey. In Westminster Abbey the scene was nothing less than marvelous. Nearly 7,000 members of the nobility, the clergy and the gentry had gathered with foreign envoys, ambassadors, colonial rulers, Indian potentates and leaders from the furthest quarter of the globe...

The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

The Queen's anxiety was keen. The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

gates at 11 a. m. amidst wild cheering, which their majesties acknowledged by repeated bowing. Their majesties arrived at the abbey annex at 11.15 a. m. The street barriers were closed at 10 o'clock. Prime Minister Balfour and Lord Rosebery were caught outside. They were obliged to alight from their carriages and walk to the Abbey.

The service at the Abbey. After the procession reached the Abbey the Archbishop of Canterbury took his seat in front of the coronation chair and the Earl of Halsbury, the lord high chancellor, seated himself by his side. Several minutes elapsed, however, before the king and queen came in sight of those gathered about the throne. Suddenly "Vivat Alexandra" was shouted by the boys of Westminster and the king, walking slowly to the left of the throne, gained her chair and knelt at a silver prie-dieu, her magnificent train of cloth of gold and ermine draped over her shoulders.

Placed upon the throne. After singing "Be strong and play the Man" in representation of the Bible, the king advanced and knelt while he received the benediction. He then walked to the great throne, where he stood on the dais for the first time surrounded by nobles. The Archbishop of Canterbury followed the king, being obliged to stand while awaiting the arrival of the archbishop. Having placed the king into his new throne, the archbishop knelt and paid homage, the aged prelate scarcely being able to rise until the king assisted him and himself raised the archbishop's hand from the steps of the throne.

The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

The Queen's anxiety was keen. The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. The procession to the Abbey was witnessed by great throngs of people.

Handwritten notes and numbers on the right margin.

pearance of the king and queen, accompanied by Princess Henry of Prussia and the Crown Prince of Denmark and attended by a large following of the royal household.

King and Queen Attend Service.

The procession drove along the Mall to St. James Palace without receiving any notable demonstration from the people. Admission to the Chapel Royal had been sparingly granted. The choir boys who took part in the service in the chapel were clad in quaint gowns of crimson and gold lace. The service was very simple and there was no sermon; prayers for the occasion, however, were read. The service lasted about one hour and was brought to a close by the congregation, still upon its knees, singing slowly and softly the first verse of the national anthem.

An almost identical service was the one held at the Chapel Royal of St. James was conducted at Marlborough House chapel and attended by the Prince of Wales and his family and other royal hood, at Windsor, and having also strong home ties in Norfolk which have existed since the king feels he will be unable to make adequate use of Osborne House as a royal residence and he has determined to offer the property as a gift to the nation. As Osborne House is sacred to the memory of the late queen, it is the king's wish that, with the exception of those apartments which were in the personal occupation of her majesty, his people shall always have access to the house, which must ever be associated with her beloved name. As regards the rest of the building, the king hopes it may be devoted to national purposes and be converted into a convalescent home for officers of the navy and army, whose health has been impaired in rendering service to their country.

ST. JOHN CELEBRATION.

Corner Stone Laid at Memorial Park--The Processions and the Crowds.

Fine weather and a programme of attractions sufficiently varied to suit all classes of citizens combined to make Coronation Day an enjoyable holiday at least as far as St. John was concerned. Saturday morning broke fine and clear and the public was early astir. By 9 o'clock the crowds of holiday makers were pouring into the streets evidently prepared to enjoy the day and all that offered to the utmost. Private picnics and pleasure parties were much in evidence and all the outgoing trains and boats had their full quota bound for various points adjacent to the city.

Soon after, the streets upon the line of march of the Orange and military processions commenced to be lined with people and the boom of fire crackers, the joyful acclaim of the small boys, floating flags and gay banners proclaimed to all that St. John had commenced to celebrate.

All the attractions in the morning and afternoon were well attended and when the shades of evening fell the people gathered in the vicinity of the stations from which the fireworks were to be exhibited, and along the streets through hood, at Windsor, and having also strong home ties in Norfolk which have existed since the king feels he will be unable to make adequate use of Osborne House as a royal residence and he has determined to offer the property as a gift to the nation. As Osborne House is sacred to the memory of the late queen, it is the king's wish that, with the exception of those apartments which were in the personal occupation of her majesty, his people shall always have access to the house, which must ever be associated with her beloved name. As regards the rest of the building, the king hopes it may be devoted to national purposes and be converted into a convalescent home for officers of the navy and army, whose health has been impaired in rendering service to their country.

With bonnets flying, led by the Carleton Cornet Band with two standard-bearers bearing the Union Jack, the procession left the Orange Hall and passed along Germain to King Street via Prince William, St. James, Sydney and Broad Streets to St. James' church. With bands beating each passed into the church while the band played the national anthem. Inside the church the men occupied the centre pews.

The service was the one presented throughout the empire for the coronation services in the Church of England. The sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Dewdney was appropriate and powerful. At the close the Orangemen returned to their hall by way of Osmaston and Sydney around King square and down King Street to Germain to the hall where they disbanded. During the service Miss Lucy Tonge sang solos very acceptably.

LAYING OF CORNER STONE.

Success of Ceremony at the Memorial Park Saturday Morning

With appropriate ceremonies Riverside Memorial Park was formally dedicated and the corner stone of the monument to the fallen Canadian volunteers was laid on Saturday morning by His Worship Mayor White. The city militia, practically all of the returned South African soldiers, the Fenian Band Veterans' Association, the Scots Companies, the North End W. C. T. U., members of the common council and a multitude of citizens with their wives and families were present.

Apart from the ceremony of laying the corner stone, stirring speeches were delivered by Mayor White, Doctor Gleibist and the orator of the day, Rev. J. de Soyres. St. John has not frequently had the opportunity of witnessing such an imposing military parade as that of Saturday morning. Both regiments--the 2nd and 3rd R. C. R.--were up to creditable strength, and their admirable marching together and their precision and smartness with which they obeyed orders won admiration. It was a brigade turnout with Lieut. Col. George Jones as brigadier. Major Sturdee was second in command, and in immediate command of his own regiment, the 62nd Fusiliers. A detachment of the 8th Hussars, under command of Major Markham, and the bearer corps under Surgeon-Major MacLaren, added materially to the appearance of the turnout.

Success of Ceremony at the Memorial Park Saturday Morning

The parade was headed by a squadron of khaki-clad troopers--returned men of the C. M. R.'s--lusty, tanned and looking especially suggestive of the South African plains. The men wore the broad pony hats, also the service bandoliers. The horses were well-groomed, sprightly and indeed this part of the turnout catered perhaps to the popular taste as effectively as any other. Sergeant Fred Beale was in charge. With the squadron were the detachment of 8th Hussars. Just behind came a bandone with Edward Senior, William Donohue. This was followed by a large party--possibly 40 or 50--of returned South African soldiers on foot. The detachment comprised those from the 1st contingent and the men who arrived recently on the Oceanian. The former wore the khaki with belts and fanny caps, the latter the same dress with pony hats and spurs.

Directly behind marched the 2nd R. C. A., which was followed by the 62nd Regt. The fall in was sounded at the Barracks Square and the brigade in the above formation marched off to the music of the regimental bands, about 10.30 o'clock. The route was along Sydney street, down Broad, up Charlotte, down King and thence along Dock, Mill, Main and Douglas streets to the park, where the mounted men, the 62nd and the R. C. A. first formed upon the road and facing the park. The returned soldiers, who marched on foot proceeded inside and formed about the corner stone, which was ready to be placed in position and gay with color. Near here the band stand and platform had been erected.

Dr. James Gleibist, president of the monument directorate, presided, and with Mayor and Mrs. White, Alderman Bilyard, Alderman McGoldrick, Rev. J.

de Soyres, Mrs. Babbey, Mrs. Gleibist, and others occupied seats on the platform. A brief opening address was given by Doctor Gleibist. He complimented Mrs. Babbey and traced the history of the movement, sketched the exertions made to raise the necessary money and referred to the gallantry of the front of the Canadian volunteers. He dwelt upon the purchase of the lots of land, made reference to the benefit which would doubtless come as a result of the park and concluded with a short, stirring, program, with loyalty to king and queen and devotion to country. Doctor Gleibist was applauded and as he retired Mrs. Babbey, stepping forward, presented Mayor White with a silver travel, engraved, the gift of George McAvity. The mayor graciously accepted the trophy and with a few brief remarks proceeded to spread the mortar over the masonry upon which the corner stone was laid. On its completion

HON. A. F. PETERS, P. E. ISLAND PREMIER.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER, PREMIER OF CANADA.

he delivered a short but lucid and strong address. He made eloquent reference to the part played by Mrs. Babbey in the work of presenting a park and monument and expressed his great pleasure at having been given the privilege of laying the corner stone. He drew attention to the object of the day, which had been chosen to formally inaugurate it, and spoke eloquently of the valor of the Canadian troops in South Africa. His worship then pro-

HON. GEORGE H. MURRAY, NOVA SCOTIA'S PREMIER.

ceeded to lay the stone well and truly laid. The troops returned arms and the corned bands played the national anthem. The orator of the day, Rev. John de Soyres, then spoke for about 15 minutes. In his opening words he spoke of the deferred ceremony which was that morning taking place at Westminster Abbey. The crown placed upon the head of King Edward VII signified an antiquity of descent and an extent of domain which none could rival. Three causes of joy added to the national gratitude and to the solemnity of the day. Victory had been given by God in a righteous struggle; peace had been established upon terms just and generous; and the coming of age of the British empire had attained to herself full consciousness of her power, her responsibilities and her destiny. The day's ceremony, the laying of the monument, the corner stone, was testimony to those who came after, of New Brunswick's faithfulness to the national cause. It would tell them of those of their kind whose ashes rested far away upon the plains of Africa. But Canada had taught the whole empire other lessons. Another type of soldier had been shown in the colonial contingent, different from those men who had been recounted in the time of Wellington. The citizen soldier of such men as the late Corporal Withers, men who gave up responsible positions to serve their country, intending that God permitted, to return as active citizens once more--those men were the intelligent strength of a national force, representing the ideal of righteous warfare--a nation armed in a just cause. It had been truly said that the hero's death was the coronation of his life. He lived in the memory of a grateful people, in the annals of history and in that rest, full of peace and joy, granted to his tomb by One who said "He that faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."

Rev. Mr. de Soyres' oration concluded shortly before noon, after the minute of 12 o'clock, the four detachments of artillery under Capt. Beverley Armstrong commenced firing the royal salute. Between each of the three salutes of seven guns each, a feu de joie was fired by the troops, and the ceremony of the morning was over.

The troops regimined and to the lively notes of the British Grenadiers, marched down the avenue, along Main and thence to the Barrack Square, where they were dismissed.

The majority of the houses along the avenue were thronged and the sidewalks thronged with spectators, many of whom accompanied the parade in its turnout.

The park is as yet in its primitive stage. The site is about half way out Douglas avenue upon the northwestern side. The view embraces a commanding stretch of river, wood-hills, and miles of forest land. The sweep of Marble Cove, the bend of the river, as it rounds Pleasant Point and flows toward the gorges at the bridges, as far as natural beauty goes, the scene is captivating, and for those whose tastes incline toward beholding a country's industries, one can also form a fairly reliable idea--from the summit of the park--of what St. John does in the lumber line. The park slopes, in a steep hillside down to the shores of Marble Cove--a steep at present, thick with tangled woods--but as difficulties are made only to be overcome--at least in the case of Mrs. Babbey and the park directors--this condition of affairs will not be of very long duration.

The monument will be about five feet six inches square, and in height 13 feet 10 inches. It will be moulded in white being of a design very tasteful and artistic. The monument will bear medallions showing the more prominent generals in the Boer war. The whole will be surmounted by the figure of a man in khaki, standing on the lookout. The work is given to a Connecticut firm, whose charge will be above $1,000.

Torchlight Procession. It was a long wait the people on the crowded streets had for the procession which was expected to be the principal attraction of the evening. Whether the citizens expected more than they had reason to be not material, but at any rate the consensus of opinion forcibly expressed in many quarters was that these expectations were not totally realized. The procession started from the rink and proceeded by way of City Road, Brussels, Union and Sydney streets to the North Side of King Square, around the square and down King Street to Market Square, through Dock and Mill streets and Paradise Row to the rink.

Although advertised to go toward Lower Cove as far as Queen Square it did not and in consequence large numbers who had gathered in that part of the city to view it were disappointed. The procession consisted of the Artillery and Carleton Cornet bands, a squad of boys and men in grotesque costumes and wearing false faces, some khaki clad soldiers and about 100 boys carrying torches. Three or four banners graced the parade and these bore typical mottoes such as "One with Britain, Heart and Soul," etc. As far as the parade went it was very good.

The special service in St. Mary's was at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. O. Raymond preached and the order of service was that used in Westminster Abbey. A children's service was held at 3 o'clock, when Rev. Mr. Raymond spoke to the Sabbath school. At 7 o'clock the regular service was held.

St. Stephen's Church. Rev. G. D. Ireland preached at both services in St. Stephen's church. There was no special observance of Coronation Day beyond singing the national anthem.

Tabernacle Baptist. In Tabernacle Baptist church the coronation service was in the morning. Rev. Howard Rouch preached a special sermon.

St. Paul's (Valley) Church. In St. Paul's church the musical service was of the usual nature morning and evening. Rev. A. G. H. Decker preached special sermons of an appropriate nature.

Centenary. At Centenary the services were appropriate to the occasion. In the morning Rev. Dr. Campbell referred to the coronation of King Edward in both prayer and sermon. The text of the sermon was Our Lord Jesus Christ blessed and only potentate, King of Kings and Lord of Lords. The hymns were appropriate to the occasion. In the afternoon the Sabbath school service was contracted so that a special service might be held. Two beautiful pictures of the king and queen given to the Sunday school by an unnamed friend were presented by John E. Irvine, and during their unveiling the school sang the national anthem. Morton Harrison, assisted by a piano and clarinet, furnished the accompaniment. Miss Emily Smith recited and an impressive quartette sang. The school room was decorated in patriotic colors. In the evening the service was especially appropriate. The music was carefully chosen. The pastor preached a sermon of great depth and beauty of thought from Deuteronomy vi-8, 7, 8: Thou art holy people unto thy God. Thy faith chosen thee to be a special people unto himself above all people that upon the face of the earth.

Trinity Church. A special coronation service was held in Trinity church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Canon Richardson preached an eloquent sermon from Psalms lxxxv-2: "Hear, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of our anointed." His theme was the meaning of the coronation and lessons to be learned from it. The execution office and prayers were the same as used in Westminster Abbey Saturday. The choir under R. Percy Strand sang the following service: Processional--O, God, Who in the dawn of old. Anthem--Sign a Song of Praises--Sir John Staiker. Introit--Psalm v-2. Te Deum--Hopkins in G. Recessional--God Save the King.

The programme of services was printed upon a neat pamphlet with parchment cover in red and gold. It contained orders of the king of Trinity church (exterior and interior views), and of the last of Queen Victoria and the royal coat of arms.

St. John's Church of England. In St. John's (stone) church Rev. J. de Soyres preached an excellent sermon in the morning, and the Psalms and prayers were those authorized by use in the diocese of Prestertown on the date originally named as Coronation Day. Large personages. Another official service, attended by William Court Gully, speaker of the house of commons, members of the house and the ministers was held at St. Margaret's church, Westminster. The mayor and corporation of Westminster in their official robes were at the service.

SIR FREDERICK BORDEN, CANADA'S MINISTER OF MILITIA.

The most interesting of all the services was that held at St. Paul's. This was essentially a people's service in gratitude and thankfulness that the sovereign had been restored to health, and it presented a striking contrast to the sad service of supplication held there in June on the day the coronation should have taken place. Today the public was freely admitted and the great edifice was crowded. The lord mayor of London and the corporation of the city attended in state, and in the choir were seated Princess Henry of Saxe-Coburg, the Duchess of Fife and the Duchess of Albany, with the royal children, a large number of diplomats, as well as the Earl of Dudley, Lord Rosebery, the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, a number of prominent colonial visitors and others. The very elaborate and which the Polynesian procession was advertised to pass. It was a bustling, jolly crowd, on the street Saturday night and if they finally wended their way home tired, the people at least were satisfied that they had had an enjoyable day. The Orangemen at Service. In the morning the Orangemen were early together at their common home--the Orange Hall, Germain street. Before the start, Hon. C. N. Skinner briefly spoke to the assembly in words appropriate and well chosen. Charles Belva was director of ceremonies and shortly after the address by Mr. Skinner the parade took position outside the hall. S. E. Morrill as county master, was in charge. The procession was in the following order: King Edward Lodge No. 30, Ezekiel McLeod, master; Carleton True Blue Lodge, prolonged service included several of the musical numbers which were performed at Westminster Abbey yesterday, and the celebration of holy communion. The sermon was preached by the Bishop of London. The officiating clergy wore copes of cloth of gold, which, with the robes and insignia of the members of the corporation of the city and the brilliant dresses of the ladies made a striking picture. The scene was especially impressive when at the close the vast gathering joined in singing the national anthem.

HON. L. J. TWEDDIE, PREMIER OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

London, Aug. 19--King Edward has signalled his coronation by the magnificent gift to the nation of Osborne House, one of the favorite residences of the late Queen Victoria. The gift is made in a message to his people, addressed to Prime Minister Balfour, and which says Osborne House estate is the private estate of the sovereign. Having spent a considerable part of the year in the capital of the kingdom and in its neighbor-but it did not go far enough, either as far as concerns route of procession or the make up of the parade. It is regrettable that the arrangements were not more complete or that there was not time to make the procession a better one.

HON. W. S. FIELDING, CANADA'S FINANCE MINISTER.

Special Services in City Churches. Special services were held in many of the city churches Sunday. In some (notably the Episcopal) the services were elaborate and the same offices of celebration were used as in the service in historic Westminster when upon the head of England's Edward was placed the crown of his ancestors.

Trinity Church. A special coronation service was held in Trinity church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Canon Richardson preached an eloquent sermon from Psalms lxxxv-2: "Hear, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of our anointed." His theme was the meaning of the coronation and lessons to be learned from it. The execution office and prayers were the same as used in Westminster Abbey Saturday. The choir under R. Percy Strand sang the following service: Processional--O, God, Who in the dawn of old. Anthem--Sign a Song of Praises--Sir John Staiker. Introit--Psalm v-2. Te Deum--Hopkins in G. Recessional--God Save the King.

The programme of services was printed upon a neat pamphlet with parchment cover in red and gold. It contained orders of the king of Trinity church (exterior and interior views), and of the last of Queen Victoria and the royal coat of arms.

St. John's Church of England. In St. John's (stone) church Rev. J. de Soyres preached an excellent sermon in the morning, and the Psalms and prayers were those authorized by use in the diocese of Prestertown on the date originally named as Coronation Day. Large but it did not go far enough, either as far as concerns route of procession or the make up of the parade. It is regrettable that the arrangements were not more complete or that there was not time to make the procession a better one.

HON. W. S. FIELDING, CANADA'S FINANCE MINISTER.

Special Services in City Churches. Special services were held in many of the city churches Sunday. In some (notably the Episcopal) the services were elaborate and the same offices of celebration were used as in the service in historic Westminster when upon the head of England's Edward was placed the crown of his ancestors.

Trinity Church. A special coronation service was held in Trinity church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Canon Richardson preached an eloquent sermon from Psalms lxxxv-2: "Hear, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of our anointed." His theme was the meaning of the coronation and lessons to be learned from it. The execution office and prayers were the same as used in Westminster Abbey Saturday. The choir under R. Percy Strand sang the following service: Processional--O, God, Who in the dawn of old. Anthem--Sign a Song of Praises--Sir John Staiker. Introit--Psalm v-2. Te Deum--Hopkins in G. Recessional--God Save the King.

The programme of services was printed upon a neat pamphlet with parchment cover in red and gold. It contained orders of the king of Trinity church (exterior and interior views), and of the last of Queen Victoria and the royal coat of arms.

St. John's Church of England. In St. John's (stone) church Rev. J. de Soyres preached an excellent sermon in the morning, and the Psalms and prayers were those authorized by use in the diocese of Prestertown on the date originally named as Coronation Day. Large ally appropriate. The music was carefully chosen. The pastor preached a sermon of great depth and beauty of thought from Deuteronomy vi-8, 7, 8: Thou art holy people unto thy God. Thy faith chosen thee to be a special people unto himself above all people that upon the face of the earth.

HON. M. ROSS, PREMIER OF ONTARIO.

Germain Street Baptist. In Germain street Baptist church Mr. Curry of Pitt (Miss.), preached both services. No special observance of the coronation, excepting evening service which fervent were offered for the king.

Carleton Street Methodist. In Carleton street Methodist Rev. Mr. Hamilton preached a sermon in the morning, and the Psalms and prayers were those authorized by use in the diocese of Prestertown on the date originally named as Coronation Day. Large

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

P. Fletcher, of Truro, rendered two beautiful selections on the chorale.

St. Andrew's. At St. Andrew's church Rev. L. G. Macneil conducted both services. The sermon in the morning was from 1st Samuel 24: "And all the people shouted and said, God save the king."

At the Cathedral. At 9 o'clock masses, Bishop Casey referred to the coronation. He pointed out the people's duty of loyalty to the sovereign and spoke of how the prayers for his majesty's recovery from this illness had been heard, and urged the prayers of his people for a blessing upon King Edward's reign.

North End Churches. The formal coronation service was held at the Mission church Saturday morning. At yesterday morning's service in Victoria street Rev. David Long spoke from the text, "He searched his course into a blessing because he loved them."

THE DAY WE'VE SPENT ALL OVER THE DOMINION.

The country gave the city pointers on how to fitly celebrate a king's coronation. At all the suburban resorts on Saturday loyalty gave itself enthusiastic expression in a day of rejoicing. As if to make up for what the city was not doing in the way of holiday, these near-by hamlets on all the lines of travel let themselves out a peg for the occasion.

At Drury Cove. Perhaps the most enthusiastic hilarity prevailed at Drury Cove that could be found in any hamlet in the empire of its size. If 80 people could have any better time than the Covetees did, they must have used more than one day for the purpose.

At the C. P. R. The day was enthusiastically kept at the numerous party spots along the C. P. R., where smaller excitement was witnessed by celebrators in every back lane of the country and set down somewhere while the rustics were gambling in pure, sheer joy at the crowning of a king.

At Fredericton. Fredericton, Aug. 9.—(Special)—The coronation was loyal and enthusiastic in its celebration in this city today. Glorious weather prevailed, the city was thronged with visitors and the extensive programme arranged for was carried out without hitch and in a manner highly creditable to the citizens' committee.

At the C. P. R. At noon a squad of 18 men from the R. C. R., under Captain Lyburn, gave a capital exhibition of the bayonet exercise on the Officers' square. The presence of 2,000 people, and long service medals were presented by Colonel Wadmore to Major Cropley and Sergeant Thomsen, two old-time Fredericton militia men, until very recently identified with the 7th Regiment. Both were heartily applauded by the spectators.

At the C. P. R. At noon a squad of 18 men from the R. C. R., under Captain Lyburn, gave a capital exhibition of the bayonet exercise on the Officers' square. The presence of 2,000 people, and long service medals were presented by Colonel Wadmore to Major Cropley and Sergeant Thomsen, two old-time Fredericton militia men, until very recently identified with the 7th Regiment. Both were heartily applauded by the spectators.

At the C. P. R. At noon a squad of 18 men from the R. C. R., under Captain Lyburn, gave a capital exhibition of the bayonet exercise on the Officers' square. The presence of 2,000 people, and long service medals were presented by Colonel Wadmore to Major Cropley and Sergeant Thomsen, two old-time Fredericton militia men, until very recently identified with the 7th Regiment. Both were heartily applauded by the spectators.

A detachment of men from the R. C. R. all uniformed in khaki. The parade float was one prepared by the F. O. M. W. Club of this city, representing "Guarding the Crown," and driven by four grooms. The float carried a large, ornate canopy under which sat Miss Edith Hyland, costumed to represent Britannia.

Amherst, Aug. 10.—(Special)—The coronation was celebrated yesterday in a most elaborate manner. A trades procession and Polymonia parade took place. The parade was headed by a band of 400 members of the Amherst Police Band, followed by a large number of citizens.

Halifax Celebration. Halifax, Aug. 10.—Halifax celebrated yesterday in loyal style. The Government house was in gay attire and in the evening an official reception was held. The British warship Andromeda and the United States warship Indiana were fully decorated.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Coronation was quietly observed in Montreal. The only official observance was the royal salute fired at 5 o'clock. The city was in a festive mood.

At Canada's Capital. Ottawa, Aug. 10.—(Special)—The coronation celebration yesterday passed off without a hitch. There was a military regatta in the evening. The coronation was observed at the churches today and the Te Deum sung in the Basilica.

Annapolis Has a Girl Day. Annapolis, N. S., Aug. 9.—(Special)—Coronation day was a gala day in this old historic town. Many people in town, and a number of the city's best citizens, were present.

At the C. P. R. The coronation of King Edward VII, which took place Saturday, has aroused a peculiar interest, not only throughout the British Empire, but throughout the entire world.

At the C. P. R. The coronation of King Edward VII, which took place Saturday, has aroused a peculiar interest, not only throughout the British Empire, but throughout the entire world.

At the C. P. R. The coronation of King Edward VII, which took place Saturday, has aroused a peculiar interest, not only throughout the British Empire, but throughout the entire world.

At the C. P. R. The coronation of King Edward VII, which took place Saturday, has aroused a peculiar interest, not only throughout the British Empire, but throughout the entire world.

BAYSWATER.

Bayswater, Aug. 8.—Miss Annie Stewart is resident at the Baywater. The coronation was celebrated yesterday in a most elaborate manner. A trades procession and Polymonia parade took place.

HAMPTON.

Hampton Village, Aug. 8.—St. Paul's church Sunday school, which held its annual picnic yesterday, was notwithstanding the inclement weather, a decided success. The children had a day in before the rest of the world.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, Aug. 8.—Through the efforts of our local representatives the services of the steam roller have been engaged to haul the stones for the new road on Main street to the terminus and arrangement of horses.

ANNAPOLIS.

Annapolis, Aug. 9.—(Special)—A very interesting coronation was held in the First Baptist church on the place today, which was largely attended. The coronation was observed at the churches today and the Te Deum sung in the Basilica.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Albert county, Aug. 10.—A successful and well attended garden party was held on the grounds of Hon. A. M. B. Black, at Hopewell Hill, Friday evening.

HALIFAX.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 8.—(Special)—Robert Webster, one of the best known young men in Kentville, lost his life at Annapolis beach this afternoon while endeavoring to save two little boys from drowning. The boys were saved.

PENOBSCQUIS.

Penobscquis, Aug. 11.—The base ball team of this place played two games with the Stars of St. John here on Coronation day. A large crowd of people witnessed both games. Veteran Jack Morton was at the receiving end for the home team and Bert Corey at the other end.

SALISBURY.

Salisbury, Aug. 7.—Miss Fannie McClaren, of the Victoria school, Moncton, paid a short visit to her friend, Mrs. Stephen Taylor, this week. Mrs. Taylor is at present on a visit to her home in Hampton this week after a pleasant visit with Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

AMHERST.

Amherst, Aug. 11.—The coronation of King Edward VII was celebrated in Amherst on Saturday. The coronation was observed at the churches today and the Te Deum sung in the Basilica.

ANNAPOLIS.

Annapolis, Aug. 9.—(Special)—A very interesting coronation was held in the First Baptist church on the place today, which was largely attended. The coronation was observed at the churches today and the Te Deum sung in the Basilica.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Albert county, Aug. 10.—A successful and well attended garden party was held on the grounds of Hon. A. M. B. Black, at Hopewell Hill, Friday evening.

HALIFAX.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 8.—(Special)—Robert Webster, one of the best known young men in Kentville, lost his life at Annapolis beach this afternoon while endeavoring to save two little boys from drowning. The boys were saved.

St. John, N. B., August 13, 1902.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH is published every Wednesday and Saturday at 2:00 p.m. in advance by The Telegraph Publishing Company, of St. John, a company incorporated by act of the Legislature of New Brunswick.

C. J. MILLIGAN, Manager.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary commercial advertisements taking the run of the paper. Each insertion $10.00 per inch.

Advertisements of Wants, For Sales, etc., 50 cents for insertion of six lines or less.

Notice of Births, Marriages and Deaths at 50 cents for each insertion.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Owing to the considerable number of complaints as to the miscarriage of letters alleged to contain money remitted to this office we have to request our subscribers and agents when sending money for The Telegraph to do so by post office order or registered letter, in which case the remittance will be at our risk.

FACTS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

Without exception, names of new subscribers will not be entered until the money is received.

Subscribers will be required to pay for papers sent them, whether they take them from the office or not, until all arrears are paid.

There is no legal discontinuance of a newspaper subscription until all that is owed for it is paid.

It is a well-settled principle of law that a man must pay for what he has. Hence who ever takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to him or somebody else, must pay for it.

RULES FOR CORRESPONDENCE.

Be brief.

Write plainly and take special pains with names.

Attach your name and address to your communication as an evidence of good faith.

THIS PAPER HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

AUTHORIZED AGENTS.

The following agents are authorized to canvass and collect for The Semi-Weekly Telegraph, viz: W. A. FERRELL, St. John.

Subscribers are asked to pay their subscriptions to the agents when they call.

Semi-Weekly Telegraph

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 13, 1902.

LACK OF COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

Strong arguments in favor of compulsory education may be adduced from the facts of so many youth having recently been attracted here for serious crimes.

In places where compulsory education exists police officers have the right to access any boy or girl of school age found on the street during school hours and ascertain their excuse for absence.

If no satisfactory excuse is afforded, the individuals are marked and their record is engraved into the youths being thus brought directly under civic control when they may be out of their parents' sight.

The difference between such a system and merely free schools at which attendance is not compulsory is that the children in the latter case are not subject to any public surveillance and are liable to drift into all sorts of idle habits, including the practice of deceit upon their parents or guardians and the cultivation of mischief. It is to be feared that the laxity of compulsion here may have been responsible for some of the present instances of misguided boys and that possibly a compulsory law might have a good effect upon some of the girls as well.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND IRON.

The report that Newfoundland is to place an export duty on iron ore has been again revived by the London correspondent of Hardware and Metal, a Montreal trade paper, who says:

"I have just been informed by one of the Canadian ministers now in London that during one of the conferences between the colonial premiers, Sir Robert Bond, the Newfoundland premier, remarked that his government intended placing an export duty on iron ore."

"Sir Robert holds," said the Canadian minister, "that the islands, by getting very little from the enormous beds of iron ore, and that as the Dominion Iron and Steel Company bought the mines at a comparatively low figure and is mining the ore at a very low cost, it can afford to pay a moderate export duty."

It will be remembered that this rumor was started last winter and was believed to have emanated from the St. John's Herald, which, being a government paper, may have given place to the statement as a feeler. The export duty then proposed was 25 cents per ton, but the statement was denied by several eminent Newfoundlanders with apparent authority. It is conceivable that the rumor is now revived in order to use it as a leverage to secure the best possible terms for confederation, but although a tax of 25 cents would of course greatly add to the cost of ore, the iron and steel manufacturers of Cape Breton would, as cheaper than any of their competitors on this continent. This is possible through the use of mining the ore, the small cost of floating it to Sydney and the inexhaustible supply of coal there for its manufacture.

The present workings of iron deposits in Newfoundland, which have become so famous of late years are on Bell Island, about 25 miles from St. John's. The ore consists of small regular blocks of red hematite, which are piled one upon another to an average depth of about eight feet, and extending to an average of nearly 1,000 acres. The quantity of ore in this island is estimated to be nearly 40,000,000 tons. The cost of mining the ore and packing it on board ship is estimated at 25 to 30 cents per ton. Both the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company and the Dominion Iron and Coal Company, draw the greater proportion of their supplies from the Bell Island deposits. The mines were at one time owned by the former company, but the latter secured an interest two or three years ago for which it paid about $1,200,000. In the year purchased by the Dominion Iron and Coal Company there are estimated to be 28,000,000 tons of ore. According to the trade and navigation returns of the Dominion the imports of iron ore from Newfoundland during the fiscal year 1901 were about 520,000 cwt., the value of which was $185,000.

A SILLY CANARD.

The Sun yesterday in its Hampton correspondence prints a malicious misstatement of facts in connection with the road-work being done by the local government between Hampton Station and Hampton Village. The Sun in big headlines says:

"HAMPTON. Significant Sign of a General Election Pretty Soon."

"Half a Mile of Questionably Constructed Highway that Cost Thousands of Dollars."

"The big provincial steam roller was placed on a car today and is to go to Sussex to be used on the roads there. It is rumored that the large grant of $3,000 for the road between the station and village has been expended. Result: Less than half a mile of very questionably constructed road bed."

The only truth in this silly yarn is that the roller "is to go to Sussex to be used on the roads there." As the Sun's correspondent doubtless knew, the steam roller will be back in Hampton inside of a week to complete the work on the Hampton road. Out of the 5,900 feet of roadway to be constructed between the Station and the Village, 2,900 feet has been already built at an expense of not quite half the original grant of $3,000, and it is expected to complete the work with the remainder of the money. The result instead of being very questionably constructed is a splendid piece of work, and when the roadway is completed will be a credit to Kings county and equal to anything in the province. The steam roller has simply been borrowed for a few days to work on a piece of road at Sussex upon which gravel has been laid, and which required rolling to complete it. The publication of such silly canards as this has no other effect than to discredit the paper which publishes them, and to disgust all decent people with their claim to the suffrages of the electorate. An apology is in order from the Sun.

THE MURDER CLIMAX.

The dramatic denouement last Monday in the murder case which has thrilled St. John with deepest interest since the discovery of the deed, caused a climax which has seldom been equaled in the local sphere of news. For just a week the city was eager with all varieties of suspicions and amateur detectiveism became rampant.

When day after day passed without any arrest being made for what was a prima facie case of bold murder, indignation was freely expressed at the laxity of the police and there was open talk of the wisdom of bringing in detectives more skilled in the unraveling of crime. The very fact that such expressions should be made, however, is rather good testimony to the character of St. John, for if our local police have had little practice hitherto in the unraveling of murder mysteries it has been because there were so few such mysteries to unravel, and the popular sentiment in the present instance is so strong as to show with what horror the affair is regarded as having occurred in our midst.

Of the truth of the case as told by the lad Goodspeed there seems at present no reasonable doubt, and his evidence was abundant to convince the coroner's jury. But it must not be forgotten that as yet the lad Higgins has not been tried and convicted for the crime. The story told in the present proceedings last evening, and fully reported in our columns today, together with the circumstantial features of the case, are very strong against the accused and it seems hardly possible that any defence can be effectively established. Yet in this country the full measure of justice must be accorded every person and until Higgins is arraigned upon his trial and is afforded every opportunity to present his side of the case, no one has a right to authoritatively pronounce him guilty. This is the privilege that attaches to him as a British subject and it is eminently proper that full, calm, judicial and dispassionate consideration of the matter be given it. Many men have been summarily lynched elsewhere upon less evidence than that which the unfortunate lad is now obliged to combat, but in this country no thought of such a course as that of those pitiful boys, sympathy for his parents and satisfaction that what was evidently a most pernicious association of youthful desperadoes has been brought to light.

The boy who told the galvanizing story of the inquest last evening, Freddie Goodspeed, may be thankful in being blessed with an evidently good mother who, it is believed, will obtain other boys spared, will not permit the lesson of the case to be lost. The worst fault of the evidence so far adduced, seems to have been the common failing of repeating too much confidence in their boy and allowing him too much liberty without inquiry as to his movements. The awful lesson of this tragedy however will not be lost upon parents generally and will no doubt impress itself upon all boys, that honor and upright and integrity are absolutely essential for success and good citizenship, and that open association with boys suspected of crime, and which cannot bear the light of day in the telling of it is not the part of wisdom.

But the end of the case is not yet. The trial of the boy may elicit incidentally evidence of other crimes which have been variously alluded to in mystery. In case to obtain all such evidence possible the police will of course use every means possible and follow up every clue which presents itself. In this they will be ably aided by all good citizens, who should co-operate forward with any information in their power, rather than with criticism and idle suggestions. And if the evidence against Higgins is sustained and completed upon trial, no sentimental considerations should be allowed to interfere with a complete and thorough course of the law. Capital punishment is not pleasant to contemplate, but neither are capital crimes, and the going to death of the lad Doherty was certainly one of the most cold-blooded atrocities of modern history.

WHY NO INQUEST?

Isn't it rather extraordinary that no inquest should be held in last Saturday's drowning event on Lake Monard? In a case of this kind it is always impossible to accurately determine the cause for blame unless the evidence is officially collected and authoritatively summarized. Here is a case of two young men in the prime of health losing their lives. Certainly there is no charge of foul play, but it is self-evident that if the young men had not gone in the boat on that occasion they would not have lost their lives. In the details of the affair the stories differ. One is that the boat had been made up by having had so much extra weight placed upon her deck and so much ballast inside that when she was given to tilt to the water over her gunwale, as any boat is liable to do, she could not recover, but went over until she filled. Another story is to the effect that one of the occupants of the boat, the one who was steering her, was carelessly sitting on the gunwale and when the boat slid out from the shelter of a cove into which she had tacked, and was struck by the freer force of wind, he lost his balance and fell overboard, thereby causing the boat to lose control of her helm. If the latter statement be correct, however, an ordinarily safe boat should not have gone down.

A competent investigation to sift all such evidence and obtain also the opinions of expert boatmen, would be valuable not only in determining the cause of death of the victims of the unfortunate occurrence, but in affording to other amateur sailors evidence which might be the means of saving their lives. If the owner of the lost boat was to blame for having made her unsafe, he should be charged with culpable negligence. The principle is the same as that upon which a city may be held liable for damages for not providing warnings of danger at dangerous places, but in this case it is worse, for the occupants of the boat, if she should be shown to be unsafe, were invited into deliberately danger when she was given them for sailing. The point of investigation also avers not only of a judicial aspect, but of the same aspect as the English Board of Trade enquiries into marine disasters—so point lessons for the benefit of other shipowners and masters that those directly interested in the disasters. Likewise it might be remarked that if coroners were as enterprising here as in Mark Twain's days on the Mississippi, they wouldn't miss the opportunity of the occasion and the fees, to say nothing of the discharge of the official duty. Inquests do not necessarily by any means imply the elucidation of crime.

NOT A NEGRO PROBLEM SOLUTION.

One of the attempted solutions of the negro problem in the Southern States has been that of emigration back to Africa. In this we find that Bishop Turner, of the African Methodist church, is still a leading spirit and that the endeavor to increase the population of Liberia, the black republic of Africa, is still being fostered under this aim. The practical effect of the movement however has not been to any marked extent successful—in fact the reverse. Missionaries have gone among the southern blacks repeatedly, holding up to view the alleged glories of Liberia and persuaded vessel-loads of them from time to time to sell their little belongings and return to the land of their forefathers. But the result generally has been that the Americanized negro has found himself quite unfit for the work ahead of him. His simple-minded conception of conditions awaiting him have been rudely shattered and if possible he has in a majority of cases drifted back to "the sunny south," where his immediate ancestors in slavery became so dependent upon the benign of the white man as to incapacitate them for sturdy individuality of race. So conspicuous have been some examples of the harm wrought to the negroes themselves by unscrupulous agents for Liberian emigration that the exodus has been frowned upon by many of the best thinkers as not offering a desirable solution of the race problem. In fact it is held that the darkies of America today are only liable to further add to the darkness of the dark continent if set adrift among it.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Long life to their majesties.

The empire has now a full-fledged king and Queen, and business may proceed.

The people made a goodly holiday of it, in spite of the indifference of the civic government.

Frederician people can hardly be blamed for believing that their city can get an official jig on.

The public will not be very greatly surprised if the boys under arrest for the Doherty murder should confess to being its perpetrators.

There is said to have been quite a jam in London in spite of the postponement of the coronation, but they didn't have an "O fortunatus quorum jam."

In view of the good service of the United States immigration officials at Vancouver in detaining the lads Higgins and Goodspeed, they may perhaps aspire for positions on our police force.

The superstitious people who knew Edward VII. would never live to be crowned are entitled to one more guess. Fortune tellers don't seem to know any more about kings than they do about common people.

The Toronto Globe suggests that it might be a good idea to adopt a distinctively Canadian uniform for our militia forces and thinks a domestic tweed would prove not only efficient, but economical and patriotic.

Appendicitis may be avoided, says Sir Frederick Truvel, physician to His Majesty, by regular meals and thorough mastication. It is not an accidental disease, he says, but the result of carelessness in diet.

Rather an odd philanthropy, but a none the less worthy one is that of Senator Goddard, of Williamsport, (Pa.) who proposes to pave one of the city streets with his own expense. This, it is safe to say, will not be a way paved merely with good intentions.

Saturday's sad drowning accident at Loch Monard was apparently due to an open boat being made unsafe through being too heavily ballasted in order to stand a heavier press of sail than she was built for, a fault in which one unfamiliar with the craft might readily be detected.

The Winnipeg Free Press takes occasion to most favorably comment upon the action of the Manitoba provincial government this year in taking charge of the task of handling the distribution of harvest laborers. It ought to prove a worthy stroke of enterprise.

The Zeigler-Baldwin polar expedition seems to have got a lot of advertising for nothing. Baldwin is reported to have given up the search for the North Pole before he got well started. His patron, Mr. Zeigler, refused to be interviewed. Probably his thoughts are too deep for words.

Few people in St. John would have conceived it possible that such a crime as that told by young Goodspeed last evening could have occurred here. Hence it is little wonder that all sorts of other theories in regard to the murder had been constructed.

Dynamic on one side and bayonets on the other constitute a poor arbitration committee for settling the coal miners' strike, remarks a contemporary. A good blowing up certainly has a tendency to make a man see the point, but it isn't the point of the bayonet that the blowers want to see.

Before the city father let the contract for building the McLeod wharf it would be the part of wisdom to ascertain whether the wharf when completed will be a deep-water wharf. If not it will be an expensive luxury, especially if the Lawton wharf property has to be bought to prevent a law suit.

The government crop bulletin for the Northwest Territories gives the following estimates as of July 20: Wheat, 14,487,000 bushels; oats, 10,961,700 bushels; barley, 906,000 bushels. The actual yields last year were: Wheat, 12,800,447 bushels; oats, 9,716,132 bushels; barley, 765,100 bushels. The area under wheat this year is 284,988 acres, an increase of 80,191; under oats, 276,152 acres, an increase of 49,381; under barley, 29,772 acres, an increase of 5,670.

The Sydney Record has expressed doubt of the statement which recently appeared in these columns that "man is primarily and essentially an animal." A little reflection however will surely convince it that if man is not a good animal he can't be much good for anything else. A splendid physique almost invariably characterizes the world's greatest workers and The Master invariably laid stress in His teachings upon all that conduce to the greatest life, physical as well as spiritual. The Record was merely chaffing when it said that "Bet you a mugshot beer on it."

Early Sunday evening tug Joseph ran aground at the Narrows. Her position is not believed to be very dangerous.

Benjamin P. Fries, aged 76, a former resident of St. John, died on Sunday, August 3rd, in Waterford (Mass.).

The schooner Lecca, before reported ashore at Miramichi, was floated Sunday under the supervision of John Jackson and towed into the Market slip by the tug Frederick. She will make temporary repairs and will proceed to Noel (N.S.), where her owner A. E. O'Brien, will thoroughly repair her.

It is stated that a large English company is being formed in England to acquire the Tobruk iron district and establish furnaces at Tobruk or Annapolis (N. S.). The idea being to bring the coal from Springfield. It is claimed that iron can be smelted there as cheaply as at Sydney.

The Canada-Jamaica Steamship Company will have a space at the St. John exhibition. Jamaica fruit will be shown. Among other articles will be a Jamaican orange tree laden with fruit. To transplant the tree from its tropical home and place it in position intact is a delicate and expensive undertaking, and for this reason alone it should prove an attraction.

The money market column of the London Times of July 25 has the following: "The Hon. C. A. Duff-Miller, agent-general for New Brunswick, has been appointed to a seat on the London Board of the Colonial Mutual Life Assurance Society (Limited). Mr. Duff-Miller succeeds the late lieutenant-general the Hon. Sir Andrew Clarke, K. E., who held a seat on the London board for 15 years." The other directors are Sir Robert Herbert, G. C. B. (late permanent secretary of the colonial office) and Ernest Bagley, J. P. The former directors on the London board were Lord Brabourne and Sir Henry Berkeley.

Digby Burglary.

House of J. M. Melanson Robbed; $115 Stolen.

Digby, N. S., Aug. 11 (Special)—A burglary took place at Gilbert's Cove, Digby county, yesterday morning between 10 and 12 o'clock. White J. M. Melanson, who lives near St. George's church, was attending service some one gamed an entrance to his house and, ransacking the premises, pilfered three wallets containing $115. Mr. Melanson says that local parties were suspected of the robbery. A man arrived in town today to lay the matter before the proper authorities and have the parties brought to justice. Petty thieving has been going on for a number of months in the county.

United States Crop Reports.

Washington, Aug. 11—The monthly crop of the department of agriculture shows average conditions: Spring wheat, 89.7; winter wheat, average yield, 13.8. Average condition, corn, 86.5. Average condition, oats, 89.4; oats in farmers' hands estimated 4.2 per cent.

Burned at Tracadie.

Charlottetown Schooner Destroyed Last Thursday.

Bathurst, N. B., Aug. 11 (Special)—Schooner Charlie, of Charlottetown, 64 tons, Captain T. Desroche, laden with flour and canning supplies, was burnt to the water's edge at the entrance to Tracadie Harbor (N. B.), on Aug. 7th.

Oddfellows' Grand Lodge at Charlottetown.

The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of the maritime provinces will meet at Charlottetown (P.E.I.), Wednesday, and the G. Encampment on Tuesday at the place. A. D. Smith, Thomas F. W. R. B. Emmons, H. E. Colner, C. B. John Long, R. Stevens, George P. Thomas Green, I. E. Smith, Percy D. B. Doig, M. D. Brown, Harris J. Charles Harper, S. A. Morrill, Stammers, A. G. Baskies and Will Fraser. Messrs. C. B. Allan and Smith left for the island yesterday present at the meeting of the campment.

Make Use of Our Store When in the City!

Exhibition time will soon be here. You no doubt intend coming to see it. In making your appointments have your friends to meet you here—every one knows where OAK HALL is. When here look around, ask as many questions as you please—you shall be answered courteously, intelligently. Examine the stocks, know the prices, make comparisons, get posted. We want you to feel at home, to enjoy the conveniences of this bright, cheerful, pleasant shopping place where everybody is glad to make your interest his own. And please remember that you are welcome whether you come to meet a friend, to buy or to look—looking entails no obligation to buy.

Clothing for Men and Boys in Fall Styles is now here.

GREATER OAK HALL, SCOVIL BROS. & CO.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

open boat being made unsafe through being too heavily ballasted in order to stand a heavier press of sail than she was built for, a fault in which one unfamiliar with the craft might readily be detected. The Winnipeg Free Press takes occasion to most favorably comment upon the action of the Manitoba provincial government this year in taking charge of the task of handling the distribution of harvest laborers. It ought to prove a worthy stroke of enterprise. The Zeigler-Baldwin polar expedition seems to have got a lot of advertising for nothing. Baldwin is reported to have given up the search for the North Pole before he got well started. His patron, Mr. Zeigler, refused to be interviewed. Probably his thoughts are too deep for words. Few people in St. John would have conceived it possible that such a crime as that told by young Goodspeed last evening could have occurred here. Hence it is little wonder that all sorts of other theories in regard to the murder had been constructed. Dynamic on one side and bayonets on the other constitute a poor arbitration committee for settling the coal miners' strike, remarks a contemporary. A good blowing up certainly has a tendency to make a man see the point, but it isn't the point of the bayonet that the blowers want to see. Before the city father let the contract for building the McLeod wharf it would be the part of wisdom to ascertain whether the wharf when completed will be a deep-water wharf. If not it will be an expensive luxury, especially if the Lawton wharf property has to be bought to prevent a law suit. The government crop bulletin for the Northwest Territories gives the following estimates as of July 20: Wheat, 14,487,000 bushels; oats, 10,961,700 bushels; barley, 906,000 bushels. The actual yields last year were: Wheat, 12,800,447 bushels; oats, 9,716,132 bushels; barley, 765,100 bushels. The area under wheat this year is 284,988 acres, an increase of 80,191; under oats, 276,152 acres, an increase of 49,381; under barley, 29,772 acres, an increase of 5,670. The Sydney Record has expressed doubt of the statement which recently appeared in these columns that "man is primarily and essentially an animal." A little reflection however will surely convince it that if man is not a good animal he can't be much good for anything else. A splendid physique almost invariably characterizes the world's greatest workers and The Master invariably laid stress in His teachings upon all that conduce to the greatest life, physical as well as spiritual. The Record was merely chaffing when it said that "Bet you a mugshot beer on it." Early Sunday evening tug Joseph ran aground at the Narrows. Her position is not believed to be very dangerous. Benjamin P. Fries, aged 76, a former resident of St. John, died on Sunday, August 3rd, in Waterford (Mass.). The schooner Lecca, before reported ashore at Miramichi, was floated Sunday under the supervision of John Jackson and towed into the Market slip by the tug Frederick. She will make temporary repairs and will proceed to Noel (N.S.), where her owner A. E. O'Brien, will thoroughly repair her. It is stated that a large English company is being formed in England to acquire the Tobruk iron district and establish furnaces at Tobruk or Annapolis (N. S.). The idea being to bring the coal from Springfield. It is claimed that iron can be smelted there as cheaply as at Sydney. The Canada-Jamaica Steamship Company will have a space at the St. John exhibition. Jamaica fruit will be shown. Among other articles will be a Jamaican orange tree laden with fruit. To transplant the tree from its tropical home and place it in position intact is a delicate and expensive undertaking, and for this reason alone it should prove an attraction. The money market column of the London Times of July 25 has the following: "The Hon. C. A. Duff-Miller, agent-general for New Brunswick, has been appointed to a seat on the London Board of the Colonial Mutual Life Assurance Society (Limited). Mr. Duff-Miller succeeds the late lieutenant-general the Hon. Sir Andrew Clarke, K. E., who held a seat on the London board for 15 years." The other directors are Sir Robert Herbert, G. C. B. (late permanent secretary of the colonial office) and Ernest Bagley, J. P. The former directors on the London board were Lord Brabourne and Sir Henry Berkeley. Digby Burglary. House of J. M. Melanson Robbed; $115 Stolen. Digby, N. S., Aug. 11 (Special)—A burglary took place at Gilbert's Cove, Digby county, yesterday morning between 10 and 12 o'clock. White J. M. Melanson, who lives near St. George's church, was attending service some one gamed an entrance to his house and, ransacking the premises, pilfered three wallets containing $115. Mr. Melanson says that local parties were suspected of the robbery. A man arrived in town today to lay the matter before the proper authorities and have the parties brought to justice. Petty thieving has been going on for a number of months in the county. United States Crop Reports. Washington, Aug. 11—The monthly crop of the department of agriculture shows average conditions: Spring wheat, 89.7; winter wheat, average yield, 13.8. Average condition, corn, 86.5. Average condition, oats, 89.4; oats in farmers' hands estimated 4.2 per cent. Burned at Tracadie. Charlottetown Schooner Destroyed Last Thursday. Bathurst, N. B., Aug. 11 (Special)—Schooner Charlie, of Charlottetown, 64 tons, Captain T. Desroche, laden with flour and canning supplies, was burnt to the water's edge at the entrance to Tracadie Harbor (N. B.), on Aug. 7th. Oddfellows' Grand Lodge at Charlottetown. The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of the maritime provinces will meet at Charlottetown (P.E.I.), Wednesday, and the G. Encampment on Tuesday at the place. A. D. Smith, Thomas F. W. R. B. Emmons, H. E. Colner, C. B. John Long, R. Stevens, George P. Thomas Green, I. E. Smith, Percy D. B. Doig, M. D. Brown, Harris J. Charles Harper, S. A. Morrill, Stammers, A. G. Baskies and Will Fraser. Messrs. C. B. Allan and Smith left for the island yesterday present at the meeting of the campment.

DOUBLE DROWNING.

Chester McClaskey and Walter Pyne Go Down to Death in the Waters of Loch Lomond.

CORONATION DAY TRAGEDY.

There are two families in St. John to whom the memory of Coronation Day will but serve to recall an occurrence that is deep tragedy...

WALTER C. PYNE.

Both Messrs. Pyne and McClaskey were executive young men, favorites socially, beloved at home...

The race upon the lake was the only one of a sporting kind which had been decided upon between Commodore Wright's yacht...

The starting point of the race was in front of the Ben Lomond House and a comparatively short distance away from the wharf...

WHO IS LISTENING TO HIS STORY?

the other. All was sent overboard, the intention being to mark the spot where the bodies had sunk.

"The theory of a sudden squall striking the Alexandria is in my opinion, correct. The wind, all along was gentle...

"The lanch, after the disaster, put back for a while the other boat remained near the scene of the tragedy. Information was telephoned into the city...

"The grating operations were without cessation and the first body to be recovered was that of Walter Pyne, which was brought to the surface at 7:30 o'clock...

"I could not distinguish McClaskey anywhere. Pyne, the boats momentum was so great that we shot past. As we did so we used a long pike-pole, and leaning far out over the side...

McCLASKEY FELL OVERBOARD.

I am not sure whether he got a grip on it or not, but this I do remember. I can all but see him now. It seemed as if he had made a strong effort, and came up out of the water...

Story of an Eye-witness-Pyne, Seeing the Boat Flipping, Dove into the Lake.

Joseph W. Hazehurst, of Spring Street, and his son William, at the time of the accident were in a small boat fishing at a spot off what is known as Dead Brook...

BRIDGES AND WHARVES.

MUCH WORK BY PROVINCIAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Bridges Carried Away by the Late Freshet Being Replaced as Rapidly as Possible—Many Contracts Awarded for Permanent Structures.

Hon. C. H. LaBrosse, chief commissioner of public works, arrived in the city Monday morning from Fredericton. He made the trip by the steamer David Weston in order to ascertain the condition of wharf accommodation along the river...

During the trip, Hon. C. H. LaBrosse expressed his complete satisfaction with the work done by the public works department in the reconstruction of the bridges...

Contracts have been awarded by Chief Commissioner LaBrosse for the reconstruction of the Victoria bridge, the LaSalle bridge, the York bridge, the Jones bridge, and the Taylor bridge...

For the rebuilding of the Victoria bridge, the contract was awarded to Messrs. G. J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove, and J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove...

For the rebuilding of the LaSalle bridge, the contract was awarded to Messrs. J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove, and J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove...

For the rebuilding of the York bridge, the contract was awarded to Messrs. J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove, and J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove...

For the rebuilding of the Jones bridge, the contract was awarded to Messrs. J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove, and J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove...

For the rebuilding of the Taylor bridge, the contract was awarded to Messrs. J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove, and J. D. MacIntyre, of Mill Cove...

HUNTING HARVEST HELP.

R. LA TOUCHE TUPPER FROM MANITOBA IN THE CITY.

R. La Touche Tupper, of Selkirk (Man.), representing the Manitoba Government, is at the Royal Hotel, and will make a tour of the maritime provinces...

This Year's Monsoon Wheat Outlook—25,000 Men Wanted—Increasing Cultivation of Flax—Not Enough Railways Says Mr. Tupper.

"The official report on crops, live stock, etc., issued by the department of agriculture for 1920 shows the following: Wheat—25,000 men wanted...

"When I left last Wednesday, the crop was looking splendid. The wheat yield in 1920 is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than in 1919...

"Last year 20,000 men were asked for last year's new system will be used in the next year. The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

"The government will be asked to provide the necessary railway facilities for the export of wheat. The current year's wheat crop is estimated to be 25,000 bushels more than last year's...

Home Insurance Co'y.

NINETY EIGHTH SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT, JULY, 1920. Cash Capital $3,000,000.00. Reserve Premium Fund 5,000,000.00. Unpaid Losses 718,700.00. Unpaid Re-insurance and other Claims 675,000.00. Reserve for Taxes 90,000.00. Net Surplus 6,008,087.35.

A CHURCH NURSERY.

Tabernacle Baptist Church Inaugurating a Scheme New to St. John.

The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

"The Tabernacle Baptist church is inaugurating a scheme in connection with its regular Sunday morning service which will at least leave the children of novelty in this part of the country...

REVIEW OF THE WEATHER.

Conditions of Temperature and Figures of Rainfall in July—Notice to Mariners.

The following information appears on the Monthly Map for July, published by the Canadian Meteorological Service:— Highest and lowest temperatures in the maritime provinces: Charlottetown, 88, 44; Chatham, 88, 42; Sydney, 84, 38; Halifax, 87, 45; Yarmouth, 82, 44; St. John, 78, 48; Antigonish, 70, 39; Summerside, 80, 47; Hamilton, 70, 42; Murray River, 83, 47; Fredericton, 84, 42; Moncton, 83, 41; Dalhousie, 84, 39; Parrsboro, 84, 41; Dalhousie, 85, 31; Port Hastings, 78, 45; Bathurst, 86, 45.

In all parts of Ontario east of Lake Superior the rain fall was largely above the average amount, especially from Georgian Bay south to Lake Erie, where in nearly all localities the average was exceeded by from three to five inches and over...

The following information appears on the Monthly Map for July, published by the Canadian Meteorological Service:— Highest and lowest temperatures in the maritime provinces: Charlottetown, 88, 44; Chatham, 88, 42; Sydney, 84, 38; Halifax, 87, 45; Yarmouth, 82, 44; St. John, 78, 48; Antigonish, 70, 39; Summerside, 80, 47; Hamilton, 70, 42; Murray River, 83, 47; Fredericton, 84, 42; Moncton, 83, 41; Dalhousie, 84, 39; Parrsboro, 84, 41; Dalhousie, 85, 31; Port Hastings, 78, 45; Bathurst, 86, 45.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

"The prevailing winds in August are westerly, and in the lower St. Lawrence and Gulf they frequently reach the force of a strong breeze. The latter part of the month is the height of the hurricane season in the West Indies, and not infrequently these storms affect our Atlantic coast; some pass directly over, or so near the coast as to be felt, and on some occasions to do considerable damage to the property of the coast, and in some cases they result in loss of life.

SCHOONER ASHORE.

The Lena Lost at Mispic—Crew Were Saved.

News reached the city Friday afternoon that the schooner Lena, 92 tons, Captain Holt, went ashore at Mispic Thursday night, and now lies full of water. The Lena sailed from St. John for Noel (N.S.) with general cargo...

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

The Lena was of the class known as a bay coaster, and had been trading between this port and Nova Scotia ports. It is understood the vessel is owned in Nova Scotia.

RESULTED FATALLY.

John Smith, Injured Thursday, Dies at the Hospital.

The death occurred in the General Public Hospital Friday evening of John Smith, the victim of Thursday's accident in A. Cushing & Company's mill, where he had his leg caught in machinery.

From the first Mr. Smith's injuries were considered very serious, as the leg was being badly broken, was terribly lacerated and was very sore.

Deceased was 65 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children—all of whom reside at Milford. He has one brother, Edward, resident of St. John, and two brothers who belong at Grand Bay.

To obtain employment at the English naval dock yards in future men will have to allow themselves to be vaccinated or able to show that they have recently undergone the operation.

To obtain employment at the English naval dock yards in future men will have to allow themselves to be vaccinated or able to show that they have recently undergone the operation.

To obtain employment at the English naval dock yards in future men will have to allow themselves to be vaccinated or able to show that they have recently undergone the operation.

To obtain employment at the English naval dock yards in future men will have to allow themselves to be vaccinated or able to show that they have recently undergone the operation.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Charles E. Hilyard.

Letters of administration were granted to Charles S. Hanington under a power of attorney from the widow of the deceased, who resides in Boston (Mass.). The value of the estate is $300 personal property. A. H. Hanington, C. K. Carpenter for the petitioner and Barnhill & Sanford for the next of kin.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

In the estate of Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott letters of administration were granted to John Abbott, the husband of the deceased. The estate is valued at $1,400 personal property; Thomas P. Regan, executor.

The Natural Fruit Acid in Lime Juice is an excellent corrective for many minor ills. FOREIGN LIME JUICE is strong in natural fruit acid, and when properly diluted with water, and sweetened to taste, makes a delicious refreshing drink for all seasons. Refined by SIMONS BROS. CO. LTD., HALIFAX, N.S. All Grocers sell it.

FREE. FREE. A GUARANTEE. I will send you a letter guarantee to cure you, and I have cured thousands of cases of Eczema, Dermatitis, Psoriasis, and all troubles which are caused by the action of the acid in the blood. Write me today for my free illustrated book telling all about my wonderful belt and men's dress suits. It cost nothing, and you will find it very interesting and an eye opener. THE TWENTIETH CENTURY BELT. My improved belt is the most modern and most perfect in the world. It is stronger than any other. It will last longer than any other belt, and it can be kept clean, and it is so easy to put on and take off that it is a real boon to every man. Write me today for my free illustrated book telling all about my wonderful belt and men's dress suits. It cost nothing, and you will find it very interesting and an eye opener. Dr. A. M. Macdonald Electric Co., 2269 St. Catherine Street, Montreal.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B. AUGUST 13, 1902.

GOODSPEED'S SWears HIGGINS KILLED DOHERTY.

Boy Tells Coroner's Jury the Secret of Friday Afternoon Near Rockwood—Four Shots Fired, Then Doherty Said: "My God, Higgye, You've Shot Me."

Mercilessly Pounded With Revolver As He Lay in Death Agony—Goodspeed Says Higgins, Under Threat of Death, Made Him Stand His Ground—Says Murder Was Suggested Weeks Ago.

(From Tuesday's Daily Telegraph.)

"If you go and get a doctor, so help me God, Fred," he said, "I'll say it was an accident," thus said Willie Doherty as in his death agony turned his dying face to the boy soon after the death of Willie Doherty when the damp dew of death were gathering on his brow the unfortunate young lad still displayed a spirit of loyalty towards his associate, and his last words were, "If— you — go — and — get — a — doctor, so help — me — God — I'll say — it — was — an — accident."

It was a motley throng that assembled last night in the court house where the inquiry was resumed by Coroner Berrymann into the death of Willie Doherty, found murdered in Rockwood Park a week ago yesterday. Young man and boys chiefly composed the crowd on hand, and the door was open and as the inquiry progressed the room was filled with curiosity. A young man was seated on every bench, and for the beginning of the inquiry, for somehow a feeling was abroad that the night would be a sensational one.

Mrs. Goodspeed to See Her Boy.

On a corner of the long table in the center of the room sat a lady in black whom few recognized as Mrs. Doherty, the mother of one of the boys arrested on Saturday.

Early in the afternoon word was conveyed by Mrs. Goodspeed by the Telegraph that Freddie would give evidence during the evening and the mother naturally availed herself of getting even this glimpse of her boy's face. No hope was held out that she would be permitted even a word with him, but news that the lad was ill had deepened her grief and she even begged permission to see him, as he was led to the witness stand by his mother, and with delight by the anxious mother.

Would Be Brave.

Before the crowd assembled Coroner Berrymann remarked to a reporter that he thought it advisable for Mrs. Goodspeed to withdraw—in fact strongly advised it—but when this was communicated to her Mrs. Goodspeed declined to go and said, "I will stay here until I see Freddie. I will be very brave whatever it is—but I must see Freddie."

The Police Officials.

The silence was broken at intervals by the rough jostling of those near the door, a noisy group of men who were not members of the inquiry or an occasional speculation as to what young Goodspeed would say. The worried air which has hung around Chief Clerk of late seemed to have entirely disappeared as he sat at the head of the table and throughout the inquiry turned frequently to address a remark to the boy.

A Touch of Nature.

Detective Killen was near the rear of the room and his demeanor, too, showed that the strain of the past week had been in a measure relieved. Because of his proximity to Mrs. Goodspeed, where he could witness her nervousness, but chiefly because of the big heart which beats in his bosom, "Faddy" did one of those kindly, humorous acts which make the heart of the ordinary individual beat faster, and which clearly showed that touch of nature which makes the whole world kin.

The Earlier Witnesses.

The two witnesses who proceeded young Goodspeed told of having seen young Doherty in company with two boys on Friday afternoon, August 1st, and though Higgins was recognized by them, neither knew young Goodspeed. What makes giving evidence it became generally known outside that Freddie Goodspeed would take the stand, and the people crowded more closely into the room. More than once the cry of "Silence in the Court" was heard, and when young Baird, the second witness, had finished his evidence, as disappeared in the crowd, a hush, deep and profound, enveloped the assemblage.

"Call Frederick Goodspeed!" was the order, and those in front fell back a little to get the first glimpse of the young lad over whom hung so dark a cloud of suspicion. There was a parting in the crowd, a little buzz of expectancy, a hurried whisper from Mrs. Goodspeed of "Is it Freddie?" A sudden turning of every head towards the door. What they saw first were the faces of Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen towering above the crowd and between them a boy checked, dark-eyed boy looking fully two years younger than his age. Such a small little chap, he seemed, to have any connection whatever with so horrible a crime, that every heart was touched, and it is safe to say that many a prayer went up that he might be able to vindicate himself. As the boy was hurried along by the officers he brushed close against his mother and the latter put out her hand, drew the boy towards her and kissed him.

"O, Freddie be a good boy, and be sure and tell the truth," implored the mother, who even then had no idea of what the boy was going to say.

"Yes, mother, I'll tell the truth," whispered back the lad's father as Deputy Chief Jenkins in his gentle manner withdrew the lad's arm from around his mother's neck, and conducted him to the witness stand on the first floor.

Know What an Oath Meant.

"Do you know the meaning of an oath?" asked the coroner.

"Yes," was the answer, "it means to take an oath to God—to tell the truth." Then the examination proceeded, and the lad of honor to every heart. Young Goodspeed's evidence disclosed a frightful crime, and one which probably would be hard to parallel in the history of boy criminals.

"Get a doctor and so help me God I'll say it was an accident," was what poor Willie Doherty, according to Goodspeed's story, begged of his murderer, even while in the grasp of death. The narration of this incident was a dramatic event of the evening and one that drew forth a shower of horror from the crowd.

Only once was there the faint suggestion of a smile, flickering across the face of the lad, as he said that when the trio of which he was one, made their way to the park, a boy jumping on the side of the road asked if any girls had gone out that way, and young Goodspeed said: "A sporty looking fellow like you shouldn't have any trouble getting a girl."

The Mother and Son Together.

It is now when he told that Higgins, at the point of the revolver, made him help in hiding the body that the mother of the lad broke down and her tears flowed freely. Mrs. Doherty's face was a picture of evidence, Mrs. Goodspeed left the room, and in the corridor received word through Scott E. Morrill that Attorney General Berrymann had granted permission for a moment's conversation with her boy in the police guard room. Coroner Berrymann also so instructed Deputy Chief Jenkins.

Burly Policemen Wept.

It was no shame to Deputy Chief Jenkins' manhood that his tears flowed freely, nor was it to the discredit of big burly officers, familiar with sorrow and distress in every form, that they turned aside to hide their feelings. Almost the lad's first words were: "I'll be a good boy to my mother, indeed I will. I never thought anybody was as bad as that," and they were repeated frequently during his mother's brief visit.

There was an ominous rattle of keys—an intimation that the interview must end—the great door leading into the jail yard swung back, and the little prisoner, with Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen, disappeared in the soft, warm twilight of the falling night; the boy was led back to his cell and the little party in the guard room dispersed. There was unspeakable sadness in the hearts of all, and deepest pity for the other misguided boy in his lonely cell.

FRED GOODSPEED, Whose Sensational Evidence Started the City Monday Night.

FRANK HIGGINS, Against Whom Terrible Charge Was Made by Goodspeed.

BOYS SLEPT SOUNDLY.

The Telegraph Saw Higgins and Goodspeed in Their Cells Monday Night.

Despite the shadow grim and dark which hovers over him, young Higgins slept calmly as a little child last night. It was shortly after 10 o'clock when Turnkey Cunningham unlocked the big iron gates of the new wing of the jail and with two Telegraph representatives, walked down the corridor to where Higgins' cell is located. Deep silence reigned, the steps of the party making strange echoes in the high broad halls; the darkness was illuminated by a lamp carried by one of the visitors. As the party drew near the boy's cell the gas was turned on and flooded the place with light. It fell on the sleeping boy, looking strong, but who stretched full length on his cot and covered by a grey blanket which was partly drawn up over his face, leaving only his forehead, looking strong, but who slept calmly on, and with a thrill of intense pity the watchers turned sadly away.

DETAILS OF EVIDENCE.

Inquest Proceedings Were Most Sensational—Goodspeed, Baird, George Patterson and Chief Clerk Testified.

George Patterson was the first witness called. He said: "I am 20 years of age. I reside at 15 Castle street. I was in the public park on Friday. I was there between 2 and 2:30 o'clock and remained there until about 5 o'clock. I went by way of Gilbert's lane and the new road which leads to the park, and then crossed down the track where the street railway runs and went to Sandy bank and Higgins threw the revolver in the creek. Then, as we came up the track and I called along the track home and left him at the foot of Carleton street, and went home then."

"I have known Higgins for some time. He made a proposal to me two or three weeks ago to do away with Doherty. I said: 'Do you like Willie Doherty?' I said: 'Yes, I like him just as well as I do any of the other boys.'

"He said: 'I don't like him; will you help me to kill him?'

"He never asked me after that. Higgins was the only one who knew where it was and he blamed Doherty for taking it. He told me to go to Brownville (Me.), with Hollis and Will Doherty and stole about $300 worth of goods and money and they were chased by the sheriff. When Willie Doherty threw his things over into the water Frank Higgins told me about his things and had them in an old house or barn. He didn't tell me where."

John Baird, Who Saw the Boys Going to the Park.

John Baird was the next witness called, and said: "My age is 22 years. I reside at 17 Brunswick street. I recollect Friday the first day of August, and the afternoon of that day. At 12 o'clock noon I was sitting on a doorstep on Brunness street. I went home then and got dinner. Left home at 12:30 and went back and sat on the same steps until 1:50 o'clock. I then went down Brunness street towards Gilbert's lane. In Gilbert's lane I met three boys, near Jackson's house. One was Doherty, the other Higgins. I don't know Higgins' first name."

"Doherty asked me for a cigarette. Don't know the other boy. Would not recognize it. I lay down under a tree near the Davenport school and saw the three going towards the park. It was between 1:30 and 2 o'clock when I saw them. The smallest fellow would look to be about 14, and Higgins about 17 or 18 years. Known Doherty perfectly well, as he lived on Brunness street three or four times."

GOODSPEED'S TERRIFYING STORY.

Cool, Apparently Unmoved by Description of the Awful Scene, the Lad Gave His Testimony.

Fred Goodspeed was next called. He said: "I was 14 years old last April. I know what an oath is; it is an oath to God. It is an oath to tell the truth. I will be 15 years old next birthday. I remember Friday a week ago. I got my dinner at home on Friday as usual, after 12 o'clock. I left home immediately after dinner, and about 1:30 o'clock arrived at

HIGGINS NOT CALLED.

Attorney-General, the Coroner, and Mr. Mullin Heard on the Point.

When Goodspeed left the stand, Attorney-General Pugsley, addressing the court, said he was present not as attorney-general, but as a private citizen. He was general to be disappointed of anything done in the proceedings so far. He was present because he was aware of the evidence Goodspeed would give. As to Higgins, it would be only right, if he desired it or his counsel advised him to make a statement, that he should do so. He would not insist that Higgins be compelled to come and give evidence before the inquest.

Recovery of the Revolver.

Chief of Police W. Walker Clark was the next to be called. He said he had been chief about 12 years. "I heard the evidence of young Goodspeed where he told of the throwing of the revolver into the creek. I endeavored to secure a diver to work in the creek to obtain the revolver. It was there but he could not get it. I then tried to get a diving suit for some person who could use it, but was unable to. The bottom of the creek where the revolver is said to be is soft and muddy and I did not want to disturb it without being able to get at the place in a proper manner."

Coroner's Address.

Coroner Berrymann then made a brief address to the jury. He said: "Mr. Foreman and gentlemen—A week ago tonight the attention of the authorities was called to the fact that the body of a young man was found in the park or adjacent to the park. The police and I went to the scene, we viewed the body, the place where the body was found, and the surroundings. The body was brought into the city and placed in the morgue. I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

"I don't think that any person at that time questioned the police or myself as to the evening two boys came up to the morgue and one of the two did not feel willing to look at the face of the corpse and was taken to a private home. It is my duty to call attention to the fact that the police and myself were present at the scene."

JENKINS AT DORCHESTER.

Deputy Chief of Police Seen in Town.

Deputy Chief Jenkins returned to the city yesterday from Dorchester penitentiary, where he had been interviewing young Tobin and Helm, who are serving a sentence for stealing. These prisoners had been associates of Doherty and Higgins, and it was thought they might have been able to throw some light on the case now pending, but it is reported little or no information was received from them.

Deputy Chief of Police Seen in Town.

Deputy Chief Jenkins returned to the city yesterday from Dorchester penitentiary, where he had been interviewing young Tobin and Helm, who are serving a sentence for stealing. These prisoners had been associates of Doherty and Higgins, and it was thought they might have been able to throw some light on the case now pending, but it is reported little or no information was received from them.

Arrangement of Higgins Wednesday.

Hon. H. A. McKewen, when asked as to the proceeding to be adopted by the court and Higgins will probably be arraigned on Wednesday morning before the police magistrate for his preliminary examination. If committed for trial he will come before Judge Laidley in the supreme court on Sept. 2.

King and Kelly.

Movements of the Boys Who Were With Higgins, Goodspeed and Doherty in the Graveyard.

Clifford King, who with Harry Kelly was mentioned in Goodspeed's evidence as having been in conversation with Higgins, Doherty and Goodspeed in the old burying ground on that fatal Friday afternoon, was seen by the Telegraph last night. Asked to explain his movements after the murder, King said that he and Kelly left Higgins, Doherty and Goodspeed in the graveyard and walked to Kelly's house on Union street. Kelly went in the house and King waited about the Opera House entrance for a few minutes. Then he went to his work. He got in the store about 1:50 o'clock that afternoon. About 7 o'clock he was sent to Bay shore with a parcel and did not get back until 9 o'clock when he went home and to bed. The reporter called at Kelly's house on Union street but he was not at home. Mrs. Kelly, when seen, said Harry came home at 1:10 o'clock on Friday and went to bed as he was not well. He slept until 6:20 o'clock. She was quite positive about the time and equally positive that he had not been out of the house all afternoon.

Faroe Islands Sustain Government.

Copenhagen, Aug. 12—The landing elections in the Faroe Islands resulted in a complete ministerial victory. The unionist triumph on the side of the Danish West Indies to the United States, and the government captured all opposition wards. The treaty will be taken up after the opening of the readag in October.

NATURES REMEDY FOR ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

In 90 percent of cases remedies to have on hand are sure cures for all Summer Complaints, Diarrhoea, Cramps and Pain Buy a Bottle of Fuller's Blackberry Cordial today, there is no remedy 'just as good.' It is tried and tested for over twenty years and is regulated by the laws and relief is promptly 'used' by all children and adults. Prepared by The Baird Company, Limited.

Murdered Lad as He Lay in Death Agony Was True to Chum and Said: "If You Send for a Doctor, So Help Me God, I'll Say it Was an Accident."

Gives as Motive that Higgins Believed Doherty Stole Money He Hid—Revolver Thrown Away—Higgins Sleeping Peacefully, Seen by the Telegraph—Goodspeed in Mother's Arms—Inquest—What Will Be Done Now.

IN THE HIGGINS HOME.

Father and Mother Talk of the Boy Against Whom Terrible Charge is Made.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last evening a little store on St. Patrick street was entered by The Telegraph in search of information. The store was owned by Charles Higgins, father of Frank. Inside the door all was still for a moment or two, and then steps were heard slowly approaching the door leading into the private apartment. When they ceased, Mrs. Higgins, with tear-stained face, marked with worry, stood in the door. Mr. Higgins was asked for and came out into the store.

"I have nothing to say at all," he said. "I have been informed that Frank has been found guilty. I can't believe it. But now he must run his own drive and be dexterous; what he has done. All I can say is that he was brought up honest and upright."

"He was as good a boy as ever the Lord put on earth," put in the mother, with emphasis, "and whatever mischief he took hold of I don't know."

"He was," moaned the father. "I thought he started to go with young Doherty we noticed a changed look in his face, as if he was worn in his head. He wanted to learn hypnosis from Doherty. I don't think he could do such a thing; no, I didn't. God help us. We were just talking about the change in Frank to-night, little dreaming of what was to come. Of course we never thought he was a child to commit murder. We thought he was entirely innocent, so unconcerned he was about the house this last week. About 30 minutes ago some boys came in from the inquest and told us that any boy Frank was guilty. How I never mentioned a word and never mentioned a word."

"Did he ever hint at any knowledge of the affair before his arrest, Mr. Higgins?"

"Never mentioned a word and never questioned him. I never once thought that he could do such a thing. Of course, so I say, he deserves what he got all right, but I don't think it is wrong in his head, I don't know."

"When were you informed that Goodspeed turned King's evidence, Mr. Higgins?"

"It was about half an hour ago, wasn't it?" turning to his wife, who sat with her hand to her forehead and her face ashen. "Yes, it was about half an hour ago. I don't think I can ever show my face to the public again."

"Yes, Frank always seemed to me to be as promising young boy as ever I saw. I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

home at 1:10 o'clock on Friday and went to bed as he was not well. He slept until 6:20 o'clock. She was quite positive about the time and equally positive that he had not been out of the house all afternoon.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last evening a little store on St. Patrick street was entered by The Telegraph in search of information. The store was owned by Charles Higgins, father of Frank. Inside the door all was still for a moment or two, and then steps were heard slowly approaching the door leading into the private apartment. When they ceased, Mrs. Higgins, with tear-stained face, marked with worry, stood in the door. Mr. Higgins was asked for and came out into the store.

"I have nothing to say at all," he said. "I have been informed that Frank has been found guilty. I can't believe it. But now he must run his own drive and be dexterous; what he has done. All I can say is that he was brought up honest and upright."

"He was as good a boy as ever the Lord put on earth," put in the mother, with emphasis, "and whatever mischief he took hold of I don't know."

"He was," moaned the father. "I thought he started to go with young Doherty we noticed a changed look in his face, as if he was worn in his head. He wanted to learn hypnosis from Doherty. I don't think he could do such a thing; no, I didn't. God help us. We were just talking about the change in Frank to-night, little dreaming of what was to come. Of course we never thought he was a child to commit murder. We thought he was entirely innocent, so unconcerned he was about the house this last week. About 30 minutes ago some boys came in from the inquest and told us that any boy Frank was guilty. How I never mentioned a word and never mentioned a word."

"Did he ever hint at any knowledge of the affair before his arrest, Mr. Higgins?"

"Never mentioned a word and never questioned him. I never once thought that he could do such a thing. Of course, so I say, he deserves what he got all right, but I don't think it is wrong in his head, I don't know."

"When were you informed that Goodspeed turned King's evidence, Mr. Higgins?"

"It was about half an hour ago, wasn't it?" turning to his wife, who sat with her hand to her forehead and her face ashen. "Yes, it was about half an hour ago. I don't think I can ever show my face to the public again."

"Yes, Frank always seemed to me to be as promising young boy as ever I saw. I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

"Yes," said Mrs. Higgins. "but it wasn't only with us he was a favorite, but outside, too, they liked him."

"I took such an interest in him here some time ago. He was always the favorite with both me and his mother about all other boys."

BIRTHS. RUSSELL—An Vancouver, on August 8th...

DEATHS. RICHARDSON—in this city, on the 8th...

SHIP NEWS. PORT OF ST. JOHN. Arrived. Friday, Aug. 8...

FOREIGN PORTS. Boston, Aug 6—Arr. Mrs. Uthala, from Liverpool...

On suspicion of being implicated in the murder of William Doherty.

Higgins and Goodspeed, the latter very sick, are in jail—Arrested at Vanceboro, but pretty near slipped—Their plausible story—What they have to say.

Arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of William Doherty...

When the officers arrived at the police station with the prisoners they were apprised...

Mr. Higgins was questioned about his knowledge of the prisoners called at the police station...

How the Boys Got Away. About 10:30 o'clock Friday morning Goodspeed left the store of Henderson...

The Prisoners Searched. Detective Kellen searched the prisoners and found very little of value on Goodspeed...

His Appearance. Freddie Kellen is a sharp featured boy looking about 16 years of age...

SPOKEN. Ben Pritchof, from Chatham (N.B.) for Dartmouth...

BLEAN OF A DETESTABLE WORM. Always of a same size, pleasant and effectual remedy.

and a little later told me he was going up to a candy kitchen where he heard they wanted a boy...

When the officers arrived at the police station with the prisoners they were apprised...

Mr. Higgins was questioned about his knowledge of the prisoners called at the police station...

How the Boys Got Away. About 10:30 o'clock Friday morning Goodspeed left the store of Henderson...

The Prisoners Searched. Detective Kellen searched the prisoners and found very little of value on Goodspeed...

His Appearance. Freddie Kellen is a sharp featured boy looking about 16 years of age...

SPOKEN. Ben Pritchof, from Chatham (N.B.) for Dartmouth...

BLEAN OF A DETESTABLE WORM. Always of a same size, pleasant and effectual remedy.

and a little later told me he was going up to a candy kitchen where he heard they wanted a boy...

A Big Blaze! E. B. Eddy's HEADLIGHT PARLOR MATCH is now used in thousands of homes in the Maritime Provinces...

SCHOFIELD BROS. Selling Agents, St. John, N.B. The E. B. Eddy Co., Limited, Hull, P.Q.

DERRICK WENT DOWN. SERIOUS ACCIDENT HAPPENED AT NEWCASTLE, N.B. Plugged Thir y-fvft Feet from New Bridge Structure to the Water—Three Workmen Jumped Clear; the Fourth Was Carried With Derrick.

BISHOP FARLEY LIKELY. New York, Aug. 11—Although no official notification has been received from Rome...

Farm Laborer's Excursion. C. B. Foster, district passenger agent of the C. P. R., has issued the following to maintain province ticket agents...

ST. ANDREWS, CELEBRATION. Monday Taken for Observance of the Coronation. St. Andrews, Aug. 11—(Special)—The postponed coronation celebration was carried out in part today...

Blacksmith Killed at His Smithy. Keene, N. H., Aug. 11—Horbert Coon, a blacksmith of Marlboro, was killed, probably by lightning, at his smithy this afternoon...

Colpitts Family Reunion. A gathering of the Colpitts family will be held here on Wednesday, August 27, on the farm originally settled by Ralph Colpitts...

Castoria. Castoria is for Infants and Children. Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup...

THE FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURE OF Charles H. Fletcher APPEARS ON EVERY WRAPPER.

POOL DOCUMENT 33

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 13, 1902.

MARKET REPORTS.

Saint John Wholesale Market.

If you fish and Eggs show advance; flour and meal firm; sugar in U.S. advance; but no advance here yet.

PROVISIONS

Ami clear pork, per bbl	24.00 to 28.00
Pork, mess	23.50 to 23.50
F #1 primo mess.	23.00 to 23.00
Pork, fat	18.00 to 18.00
Extra plate beef	17.00 to 18.00
Chase, factory, new, No. 1	15.00 to 15.00
Butter, daisy, lb	0.15 to 0.15
Butter, creamery, 90 to 22	0.15 to 0.15
Lard, tubs, pure	0.15 to 0.15
Lard, compound, 0.10 to 0.11
Eggs, per doz, fresh	0.17 to 0.18
Beans, white, 1.70 to 1.75
Beans, Y. R., 2.75 to 3.00
Onions, No. 1, per lb.	0.04 to 0.04

Rigging chains, per lb. 0.44 to 0.50
Yellow metal, per lb. 0.15 to 0.15
Refined, 100 lb or ordinary 2.10 to 2.20

LIME

Casks, 1.90 to 1.90
Bbla, 0.70 to 0.70

TAR AND PITCH.

Domestic coal tar	4.25 to 4.50
Coal tar pitch	2.75 to 2.90
Wilmington pitch	2.75 to 3.00
Acacia, per gal.	2.25 to 2.50

COALS.

Old Mines Sydney per chald	7.50 to 7.50
Springhill road	8.50 to 8.50
Reserve Mine	6.80 to 6.80
Calcutta	6.80 to 6.80
Arcadia	0.00 to 0.00
Pictou	7.00 to 7.00
Joggins	6.00 to 6.00
Foundry	0.00 to 0.00
Broken, per ton	7.00 to 7.00
Egg	7.00 to 7.00
Slove nut	7.00 to 7.00
Chestnut	7.00 to 7.00

LUMBER

Spruce deals, Bay Fundy 10 00 to 10 50
City Mill 11 00 to 10 50
Aroostook P B Nos 1 & 2	40.00 to 45.00
No. 3	30.00 to 35.00
No. 4	30.00 to 35.00
Aroostook shipping 15.00 to 16.00
Common 12.00 to 13.00
Spruce boards	8.50 to 9.00
Spruce scantling (over 4)	10.00 to 10.00
Spruce dimensions 10.00 to 12.00
Pine Clapboards, extra	32.00 to 40.00
No. 1	30.00 to 30.00
No. 2	20.00 to 30.00
No. 3	11.00 to 12.00
Laths, spruce	0.00 to 1.00
Laths, pine	0.00 to 1.00
Palings, spruce	4.00 to 8.00
New York laths	1.75 to 2.25
Boston	0.00 to 2.00
Sound ports, calling V R	2.00 to 2.00
Barbadoes (50 c)	5.00 to 5.00
North side Cuba (gid)	5.00 to 5.00
New York piling per foot	0.00 to 0.00
New York lime, nom	0.00 to 0.00
Canada lime	5.00 to 5.00
Boston lime nominal	0.00 to 0.12

GRAIN.

Oats, Ontario, 0.57 to 0.58
" Provincial, 0.00 to 0.00
Split Peas, 4.00 to 4.10
For Barley, 5.00 to 5.10
Hay, grossed, 13.00 to 13.50

TOBACCO.

Black, 10's, 0.55 to 0.58
Black, 10's, short stock	0.00 to 0.00
Black, 10's, 0.54 to 0.54
Bright, 0.55 to 0.60
Canadian 10's, 0.55 to 0.44

RICE.

Armasa, ovs, 0.04 to 0.05
Patas, 0.04 to 0.05
Seeds, 0.04 to 0.06

SUGAR.

Granulated, bbl, 3.75 to 3.85
Granulated Dutch, 3.55 to 3.65
Bright Yellow, 3.45 to 3.55
No. 1 Yellow, 3.15 to 3.25
White lump, boxes, 0.04 to 0.05
Pulverized, 0.04 to 0.04

OLDS.

American Water White, 0.18 to 0.18
Canadian Water White, 0.18 to 0.18
Asolight, 0.18 to 0.18
Canadian prime white No. 1	0.17 to 0.17
Liquid oil, hollow, 0.48 to 0.48
do do, raw, 0.48 to 0.48
Transparent, 0.48 to 0.48
Canter oil, com. lb, 0.48 to 0.48
Olive oil, gal, 0.85 to 0.85
Extra best oil, 0.54 to 0.54
No. 1 best oil, 0.50 to 0.52
Seed oil, steam refined, 0.47 to 0.47
do, pale, 0.45 to 0.45
Cod oil, 0.33 to 0.33

RAIBINS.

London Layers, 0.00 to 0.00
Black Sausage, 2.50 to 2.50
Loon Mashed, 0.00 to 0.00
Valencia Layer, 0.00 to 0.00
Valencia, 0.00 to 0.00
Curry, 0.00 to 0.00
Curry, bbl, 0.00 to 0.00
Curry, boxes, 0.75 to 0.08
Curry, cleaned, 0.75 to 0.08

APPLES.

Apples, bbl, 0.00 to 0.00
Dried apples, 0.00 to 0.00
Evaporated Apples, 0.00 to 0.00
Evaporated Apples, 0.12 to 0.14
Evaporated Peaches, 0.05 to 0.05
Prunes, 0.05 to 0.05
Lemons, box, 4.50 to 5.00
Figs, 0.10 to 0.12
Dates, box, 0.00 to 0.00
Grapes, Can, 0.00 to 0.00
Peas, Ann, 0.00 to 0.00
Valencia Oranges, 1.00 to 2.25
Spasans, 0.00 to 0.00
Orange Jamaica, 0.00 to 0.00
Orange Jamaica per bbl, 1.50 to 2.00
Pineapples per doz, 0.00 to 0.00
Canadian Onions, per bbl, 2.00 to 4.75
Onions local, 0.00 to 0.00
do do do, 1.25 to 3.75

MOLASSES.

Barbadoes, new, 0.24 to 0.38
Demarara, 0.00 to 0.00
New Orleans, 0.28 to 0.28
Porto Rico, 0.21 to 0.28

WHEAT AND MEAL.

Canadian, 3.30 to 3.35
Midlands, bags free, 0.00 to 0.00
Manitoba Patent, 4.70 to 4.80
Canadian High Grade Flour, 4.25 to 4.35
Medium Patents, 4.90 to 4.95
Osborne Roller, 5.35 to 5.45

SALT.

Liverpool, sack or store, 0.64 to 0.66
Butter salt, cook factory, 1.00 to 1.10
do do, bled, 1.00 to 1.10

PEPPERS.

Nutmegs, 5.50 to 7.75
Cassia per lb. ground, 0.15 to 0.28
Clove whole, 0.90 to 0.92
Clove ground, 0.22 to 0.22
Cherry ground, 0.18 to 0.22
Pepper, ground, 0.18 to 0.22

COFFEE.

Condensed, 1 lb cans, per doz, 3.00 to 3.00
Oak Brand, 3.00 to 3.00
Condensed 1 lb cans, per doz, 3.00 to 3.00
Shawbrook, 2.50 to 3.00
Java, per lb. gram, 0.24 to 0.24
Jamaica, 0.24 to 0.28

MATHEWS.

Green, 0.40 to 0.43
Parlor, 144 pkgs, 4.00 to 4.00
Kilguba, 80 pkgs, 5.00 to 5.00

CANDLES.

Mould per lb, 0.11 to 0.11
----------------------------	--

TEAS.

Ceylon, 0.18 to 0.18
Ceylon, per lb common, 0.14 to 0.18
Orange, 0.20 to 0.20
Coona, finest, 0.22 to 0.22
Southern, 0.20 to 0.20
Osama, 0.20 to 0.20

NAILS.

Oct, 80 ds, & 80 ds, per 100 lb, 2.25 to 2.65
Wire nails, 10 ds, 3.45 to 3.75
Ship nails, 3.30 to 4.00

OKUM.

English Navy or U.S. Navy, per lb, 0.45 to 0.45
English Navy per lb, 0.05 to 0.05
English hand-pled, 0.05 to 0.05

PAINTE.

White lead, Standard No. 1, B. B. per 100 lb, 6.35 to 6.25
Yellow pale, 7.00 to 7.00
Black, 7.00 to 8.00
Putty, per lb, 0.25 to 0.27

IRON, ETC.

Anchors, per lb, 0.5 to 0.05
Chain cables, per lb, 0.44 to 0.06

DEALS. O. D.

Liverpool intake mess, London, 31 3
London Channel, a. d., 31 3
West Coast Ireland, 31 3
Dublin, 31 3
Wareport, 31 3
Belast, 31 3
York, 31 3

Country Market.

Wholesale.

Beef, butchers, carcasses	0.08 to 0.12
do, country, 0.08 to 0.12
Lamb, per carcass, per lb.	0.08 to 0.08
Veal, per lb.	0.08 to 0.08
Hog, per 100 lbs.	0.10 to 0.12
Shoulders, per lb.	0.10 to 0.12
Ham, per lb.	0.12 to 0.14
Breakfast bacon, 0.12 to 0.14
Hall bacon, 0.12 to 0.14
Hall butter, 0.12 to 0.14
Butter, tub, per lb.	0.12 to 0.14
Eggs, case	0.12 to 0.14
Wool, per 100 lbs.	0.12 to 0.14
Turkey, per lb.	0.12 to 0.14
Chickens, per doz.	0.12 to 0.14
Potatoes, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Carrots, per dozen bunches.	0.12 to 0.14
Beets, per dozen bunches.	0.12 to 0.14
Turnips, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Onions, per doz.	0.12 to 0.14
Wheat, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Barley, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Maize, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Peas, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Beans, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Apples, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Pears, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Oranges, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Lemons, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Figs, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Dates, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Grapes, per bush.	0.12 to 0.14
Peas, Ann, 0.12 to 0.14
Valencia Oranges, 0.12 to 0.14
Spasans, 0.12 to 0.14
Orange Jamaica, 0.12 to 0.14
Orange Jamaica per bbl, 0.12 to 0.14
Pineapples per doz, 0.12 to 0.14
Canadian Onions, per bbl, 0.12 to 0.14
Onions local, 0.12 to 0.14
do do do, 0.12 to 0.14

The Fish Market.

Haddock, per lb.	0.12 to 0.14
Cod, per lb.	0.12 to 0.14
Haddock, 0.12 to 0.14
Haddock, 0.12 to 0.14
Mackerel, 0.12 to 0.14
do do, 0.12 to 0.14
Coastal, large, 0.12 to 0.14
Coastal, medium, 0.12 to 0.14
Coastal, small, 0.12 to 0.14
Pollack, 0.12 to 0.14
Sockeye, 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, L. W., 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, medium, 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, extra, 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, Grand Marston, 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, best, 0.12 to 0.14
Smoked herring, No. 1, 0.12 to 0.14
Mackerel, No. 1, 0.12 to 0.14
Mackerel, No. 2, 0.12 to 0.14

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

New York, Aug. 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Midsummer quiet has gone from the market, but the stimulus of ready cash has produced a recovery in many lines. The market is strong in tone. Bullish manipulation continues. Forward action is very firm at 4 3/4 for demand and sterling July $100.00 specie was shipped to Europe. A rise in exchange rates on London at Paris checking the gold movement from New York.

Fine prospects, large receipts and the downward drift of cereal values.

It has been an adverse market for cotton, spot and futures rising and falling with weather reports. Nervousness as to a possible August corner is still reported. Dry goods are in better demand. At Boston, food and shoe shipments, though lighter than last week, are still firm. Those of last year, hides of all kinds are taken as fast as received. High prices for leather products seem probable.

The weight of imported iron is pressing on domestic sentiment, though no perceptible effect is yet seen on prices for pig iron which is still in active request for next year's delivery.

Bank clearings for the week ending Aug. 7 aggregate $2,023,401, a decrease of 8 per cent from last week but an increase of 2 per cent over this week a year ago.

Business failures for the week ending Aug. 7 number 120, an increase of 18 last week, 285 in this week last year, 172 in 1900, 136 in 1899 and 67 in 1898.

Wheat, including four, exports for the week ending Aug. 7 aggregate 4,261,300 bushels against 4,887,244 bushels last week and 4,331,170 bushels in this week last year. Corn exports aggregate 70,811 bushels against 28,466 bushels last week and 99,714 bushels last year. For the fiscal year corn exports are 44,221 bushels against 4,738,301 bushels last season.

Canadian Trade.

Canadian trade is of fair volume and the outlook is encouraging because of good crop prospects. Clearings for the week aggregate $2,404,414, a decrease of 2 per cent from last week but a gain of 16 per cent on last year's. Failures for the week number 14 as against 15 last week, 23 in this week a year ago, 29 in 1900 and 23 in 1899, and 30 in 1898.

HAPPY HALIFAX EVENT.

The Groom a Native of New Brunswick, But New Pastor of a Western Church.

Halifax, Aug. 7.—A very pretty home wedding was that which occurred yesterday (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. Martin Smith, of Young avenue, this city, when her daughter Lillie and Rev. Warren Hastings McLeod, were united in the holy bonds.

The marriage was celebrated in the presence of a number of relatives of both bride and groom, among whom was Miss Alta McLeod, of Norton (N. B.), the groom's sister. The bridesmaid was Miss Elsie Smith, sister of the bride. Lillie Elsie, daughter of Major Hart, of Canada, and niece of the bride, was a tiny maid of honor. The groom was supported by Sydney Dummer, as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Hugh Joubert, and was to have been participated in by Dr. W. W. Weeks, of Toronto, but the momentary circumstances unavoidably prevented. The parlors presented a handsome appearance. Plants and flowers enhanced the brightness of the occasion. The bride wore a wedding dress of white satin, with lace and ribbon, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride and groom were escorted by her elder brother, Howard, who gave her away. The bride looked charming in a costume of soft white silk and bridal veil with flowers, carrying in her hand a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses. The bride and groom were escorted by her elder brother, Howard, who gave her away. The bride looked charming in a costume of soft white silk and bridal veil with flowers, carrying in her hand a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses.

"Sunshine" Furnace

It will extract more heat from a shovelful of coal, and keep your home at an even temperature with less work than any other heater.

Its dome and radiators are extra large and so constructed that every inch is a direct radiating surface.

McClary's Special" grates dump all the ashes and retain all the inherent coal which is saved.

Other good furnaces are sold so cheap as the "Sunshine."

Sold by all enterprising dealers. Write for catalogue.

McClary's "Sunshine" Saves Fuel.

London, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver and St. John N. B.

SPORTING EVENTS OF A DAY.

St. Stephen Races Saturday.

St. Stephen, N. B., Aug. 9.—(Special)—A fine day, fair track and small crowd greeted the contents in the 2.27 and 2.30 classes at the horse race on St. Stephen Park this afternoon. The judges were Thomas Doyle, F. A. MacFarlane, J. S. MacFarlane, J. S. Osborne, J. H. McManis and M. A. MacManis.

The 2.27 class was called first to horses in the following positions: Fred Lance, Harry Marborough, Dufferin, Wheelwright, Flora Bella. They were given a good start, but the heat was a walkover for Dufferin, the others making a series of breaks except Fred Lance, who took the home stretch with a slight lead, Marborough fourth, Flora Bella last. Time, 2:27.

The 2.30 started with the horses as follows: Harry Marborough, Dufferin, Wheelwright, Flora Bella. They were given a good start, but the heat was a walkover for Dufferin, the others making a series of breaks except Harry Marborough, who took the home stretch with a slight lead, Dufferin second, Flora Bella third, Wheelwright fourth. Time, 2:30.

The second heat of the 2.27 class was brought on with a change in the drivers of the horses: Fred Lance, Harry Marborough, Dufferin, Wheelwright, Flora Bella. They were given a good start, but the heat was a walkover for Fred Lance, the others making a series of breaks except Harry Marborough, who took the home stretch with a slight lead, Dufferin second, Flora Bella third, Wheelwright fourth. Time, 2:27.

The third heat of the 2.27 class showed Harry Marborough in front of the other horses, who were given a good start, but the heat was a walkover for Harry Marborough, the others making a series of breaks except Harry Marborough, who took the home stretch with a slight lead, Dufferin second, Flora Bella third, Wheelwright fourth. Time, 2:27.

The 2.30 class, Trot or Pace, Purse, $100. Harry Marborough, P. M. Murchie, 1:11.2; Dufferin, H. W. Barker, 1:11.2; Harry Marborough, P. M. Murchie, 1:11.2; Dufferin, H. W. Barker, 1:11.2; Harry Marborough, P. M. Murchie, 1:11.2; Dufferin, H. W. Barker, 1:11.2.

A Great Bargain In Elm Bedroom Suits at Only $13.90.

We are now offering this special Bedroom Suit as illustration, at the low price of $13.90. This suit is made of well seasoned wood, is thoroughly and strongly put together and exceptionally well finished. Mirror is German plate and perfectly true.

Of Elm, Golden finish, Dresser 37 inches long, 18 inches wide; Bevel edge Mirror, 16x20 inches, shelf and three drawers. Commode is 30 inch wide with splasher back. Bed is 4 feet 2 inches wide.

This price of $13.90 is special value and cannot be duplicated.

Manchester Robertson & Allison

English Cambric and New Dress Goods for Fall Wear

English Cambric in dark and light grounds, fancy figures and stripes, 30 in. wide at 10c yard.

English Cambric in light and medium grounds, stripes and small checks, good heavy goods, 32 in. wide, at 12c yard.

English Cambric, very fine quality, best printing, light and dark grounds, 32 in. wide, at 14c yard.

Scotch Zephyr in pinks, blues and old rose, 29 to 31 inches wide, at 14c to 22c yard.

Scotch Zephyr in checks and stripes—all goods up to 35c yard at one price, 15c yard.

Wanted: Good hustlin Agents in every unrepresented district to sell The Daily Telegraph. Here is chance for wide awake boy to make some money.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

Annual Meeting of Canadian Association at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 11.—(Special)—The Canadian Wholesale Druggists' Association met here today. These officers for the ensuing year were elected: Honorary president, Henry H. Lyman, Montreal; president, W. S. Kerry, Montreal; secretary, M. Watson, London; treasurer, W. S. Kerry, Montreal; H. W. Barker, St. John, was elected on the board of management. The next place of meeting will be Toronto. The members are being royally entertained here.

WANTED.

The Best Selling Book that we are offering to agents just at present is "The War in South Africa." The complete history of the war in its most dramatic and interesting phases, including 125 pages of half-tone engravings, and a special portrait of the Marquis of Londonderry, who went to South Africa. There is now a big demand for a complete record of the war such as this and agents now at work are taking large orders. Carrying out and full particulars mailed to agents who are prepared to push the sale of the above school. For particulars inquire of Jarvis Johnson, Secretary to Trustees. 7-23-02

HOOKED MATS: HOOKED MATS: HOOKED MATS! Beautiful patterns just designed. "The Secret." "The Ivy." "The Water Lily." Satisfying and artistic. The three for 1. J. Adams, St. Croix, Hants County, (N. S.).

WANTED! A Second-Class Female Teacher of some experience, in District No. 2, parish of Lunenburg, Virginia County District class No. 2, parish of Lunenburg, Virginia County District in receipt of poor aid. Apply, stating salary, to Charles T. Eaton, Clarendon, Charlotte County, Secretary to Trustees. 7-23-02

Wanted: Good hustlin Agents in every unrepresented district to sell The Daily Telegraph. Here is chance for wide awake boy to make some money.

Fredericton Business College

DOES NOT CLOSE

During the Summer Months. You may enter at any time. TEACHERS should take advantage of our Summer Session.

Year Book containing full particulars on application.

W. J. OSBORNE, - Principal.

Fredericton, N. B.

James Collins, 208 and 210 Union Street St. John, N. B.

LAZY LIVERS AND SLUGGISH KIDNEYS.

When these organs fail to perform their proper functions the body becomes poisoned and a general ailment commences. This can be cured by keeping your vitally active organs working, the blood rich and pure by taking a Ferrero's Kidney and Liver Cure. It is a medicine for the blood, and will cure all ailments arising from impure blood, such as Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, and all ailments of the blood.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cure Biliousses.

Overly Wendall Holmes' Appointment.

Oliver Wendall Holmes (The President of the Supreme Court) is now chief justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts, to be associate justice of the United States supreme court, vice Justice Gray.

A GREAT SUPPLEMENT CURED.

Mr. Edmund Dixon, of Leeds, Ont., was cured of Malaria, Rheumatism, and other ailments by the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. He writes: "I have been suffering from Malaria, Rheumatism, and other ailments for many years, but I have been cured by the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I can now do my work as usual, and I am very much obliged to you for the cure you have given me."

OBITUARY.

John Quigg.

The death occurred on Thursday of John Quigg, an old resident of Pisanoon. Two sons and two daughters survived. Mr. Quigg was aged 85 and had lived 60 years in Pisanoon.

Chas F Beard of St. Stephen Dead.

St. Stephen, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Charles F. Beard died Saturday night. He was a son of the late Hon. Allison Beard, ex-governor of the province. He was a native of St. John, N. B., and was a brother-in-law.

Ebenezer Harrington.

Ebenezer Harrington died at his home at Sable River, St. John County (N. B.), on Saturday evening last, aged 91 years. He removed to Sable when but 16 years old and engaged in shipbuilding. He had the honor of being the largest vessel ever launched on that river. He possessed his faculties in a remarkable degree up to the very last. He was a Liberal in politics, and was highly esteemed.—Yarmouth Times.

Miss Minnie Calhoun.

Miss Minnie Calhoun, the 16-year-old daughter of John C. Calhoun, of Albertville, died yesterday, after a two-months' illness of consumption. The deceased had many friends, who deeply regret her sad death. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on city, town, village or country property in amounts to suit at low rate of interest. H. E. Pickett, solicitor 28 Putnam Street St. John.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

Wanted: Good hustlin Agents in every unrepresented district to sell The Daily Telegraph. Here is chance for wide awake boy to make some money.