A BETTER SITUATION.

Petrograd, Wednesday, May 16—Via London, May 17.—After an all-day discussion between the cabinet and representatives of the Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates the Ministerial crisis was still unadjusted at a late hour tonight and no definite Ministerial appointment has been made. Nevertheless, as the result of two important events today, the prospects of a coalition ministry being formed were materially Improved. A BETTER SITUATION.

Large Concessions.

First, the Constitutional Dem vatic party, which practically controls the Government, has consented to its two ministers, Professor Manuiloff, minister of public persons and professor Manuiloff. of public instruction, and A. I. Shingaroff, minister of agriculture, remaining in office. This, in spite of the resignation of Foreign Minister Milukoff, which is now definite. The second new factor is that the temporary Government has made large concessions to the council of deputies on questions of general policy which hitherto have been the most serious obstacle to a settlement.

Threat To Resign.

The Government today drafted a Threat To Resign.

The Government today drafted a declaration describing these concessions, and it is understood that this declaration has been handed to the council with a threat that in the event of non-acceptance the entire cabinet will resign. The most important points covered are in connection with the foreign policy. The document begins with a statement that the Government's aim is the attainment of a general peace without conquest of other nations, depriving them of their national sovereignty or their territory. In a word, peace without annexations or contributions.

Will Stand By Allies.

The declaration further meets the council's demands by promising to take steps toward the attainment of an agreement with the Allies, which will realize the Government's declaration of April 9. The Government, however, is convinced that Russia's defeat in the war would be a great misfortune to all nations and, while willing to make a general peace on the above foundations, believes firmly that revolutionary Russia will not permit the defeat of its allies in the west.

The Government consents to the countries of the countr The Government consents to the council's demand for the democratization of the army, but desires to combine it with a strengthening of Russia's fighting forces. The declarations meet half-way the council's Strictions a strengthening of Russia's fighting forces. The declarations meet half-way the council's Socialist program by promising further control over the production, transport, sale and distribution of products; measures for the better protection of labor; the right to a sectlement of the land question by the constituent assembly; increased direct taxation of wealth; development in a democratic direction of local self-government and the hastening of preparations for the constituent assembly. the Government demands such full confidence and support as will enable it not only to fight a reactionary counter-revolution, but also to take measures against the anarchists of the etxreme left. A new feature was injected into the situation by the demand of the peasant congress, which began its sessions here yesterday, that its representatives participate in the discussions. The Government and council agreed, and it is stated that five peasant representatives will join the conference. CANADA IN PERIL OF ALIENS, SAYS VETERAN MILL HAS NO WHEAT.

Days of Muddle in the Mesopotamian Campaign Are No More.

British Army Headquarters in Mesopotamia, April 16 .- (British Eyewitness)-Nothing more efficient than the ness)—Nothing more efficient than the lines of communications and supplies serving the British forces in Mesoptamia can well be imagined. The days of muddle are ended and order has been evolved out of chaos. All that human agency can do has been and is being done to turn past failures to success and prevent future breakdowns in organization.

Communications by road, railway and river, have been laid out and developed on a well-thought-out plan. Facilities for the loading and unloading of vessels at Basra are now on an adequate scale. NATIONALISTS ACCEPT OFFER FOR HOME RULE CONVENTION:

London, May 17 .- John Redmord, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the House of Commons, today rejected the proposal of Premier Lloyd George for a settlement of the home rule question, but accepted the proposal for the immediate calling of a convention to decide on a government for Ireland.

ACCEPTS CONVENTION OFFER.

Mr. Redmond, in a letter to Premier Lloyd George, accepts on behalf of the Irish party the proposal for "assembling a convention of Irishmen of all parties for the purpose of producing a scheme of Irish self-government," on condition that the "basis on which the convention is to be called a great to the content of the c that the "basis on which the convention is to be called is such as to insure that it is fully and fairly representative of Irishmen of all creeds, interests and parties, and, secondly, that the convention be summoned without delay." Mr. Redmond said Premier Lloyd George's proposal for an Irish Government would, in the opinion of the members of the Irish party, find no support in Ireland. They, therefore, were irreconciliably opposed to it, and any measure based on that proposal would meet with their vigorous opposition. But, Mr. Redmond continued, the "second alternative, namely, the assembling of a convention of Irishmen, has much to recommend it. I trust it may be found possible of realization. My colleagues and I will place no obstacle in the way, and are prepared to recommend the proposal most strongly to our countrymen.'

STATEMENT BY MAURICE

British and French Offensive Has Compelled Heavy Sacrifice by the Enemy.

London, May 17—2:45 p.m.—The British and French have forced the Germans to use virtually all the fresh reserves which they had at the beginning of the battle of Arras, Major-Gen, F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, said today. When the British offensive began the Germans had 49 reserve divisions on the western front. The British onslaught at Arras and the more recent French offensive have compelled the Germans to employ all but four of these divisions.

Discussing the Italian offensive, General Maurice said it was launched partly because of the allied successes in the west. The Germans had been forced to keep their troops along the western front, thereby leaving Italy free.

Strong Measures Needed To Restore Army Discipline.

Petrograd, May 17-Via London. Gens. Alexieff, Dragomiroff, Gurko and Brussiloff arrived in Petrograd today for a conference on the military situation. THE WAR SITUATION

The Germans have piled high their dead before the British lines, but have failed to stop the British advance. The most furious and sustained counter-attacks have withered before the blast of the British artillery, and the sapping of the Hindenburg line goes on, slowly but without halt. Can't Stop British.

The tremendous efforts made by Field Marshal von Hindenburg to stem the tide of victory which was steadily setting against him have give the Battle of Arras an appearance of ebb and flow, but the net result is that the most violent efforts of the Germans to regain the initiative have failed. Von Hindenburg apparently used every ounce of strength at his command to wrest from the British the villages of Roeux and Bullecourt, and the outcome is summed up in the almost monotonous repetition by the British war office of the statement: "Our troops made progress in the Hindenburg line." Italy Strikes Hard Possibly more ominous for Berlin, in view of the wobbly condition of her Austrian ally, is the news of the great blow struck by Italy in the direction of Triest. The Italians have opened their spring offensive in brilliant fashion, attacking on a wider front, and with a single or the structure of the structure. parently greater forces than at any other previous operation. Three Assessments.

It seems that in this section there are three entries in the assessment books. One is the valuation of Assessment Commissioner Grant on all property there. Then there is the London Township assessment of 1911. The third is the London Township assessment, plus the assessment for improvement since annexation. It is on this latter valuation that the 15-mill tax rate is struck.

For patriotic purposes, however, the tax is made on Mr. Grant's valuation. One concrete example is a place assessed for $1,300 under the London Township's assessment, and on which the tax of 15 mills is placed, but which Mr. Grant values at $7,000. The owner must pay $28 for the soldiers' insurance, etc., at 4 mills, which is almost as much as the owner would pay into the general rate on a 15-mill rate at the assessment of $1,300.

EMPIRE DAUGHTERS PLEDGE SELVES TO TWO MEATLESS DAYS

Municipal Chapter Commends Appeal of National Executive.

DISCUSS EMPIRE DAY

Military and Civic Dignitaries Will Be Invited To Presentation of Flag.

A resolution with regard to thrift and production in view of the food shortage and imminience of world famine, sent down by the executive of the National Chapter, I. O. D. E., to the Municipal Chapter, was presented and strongly commended at a meeting called specially for the purpose of the Municipal Chapter yesterday in Cronyn Hall. The resolution urges upon the members of the order in Canada to exercise economy in every possible way, and to pledge themselves to two meatless days a week, Wednesday and Friday, and two potatoless days, and to do all in their power to promote the increase of production of foodstuffs.

Mrs. Niven, regent of the Municipal Chapter, urged upon regents of primary chapters to enlist the interest and cooperation of their members in this definite thrift movement.

The returned soldier pleaded not guilty to being drunk but admitted that he was under the influence of liquor. "I will hear the evidence then and if you were capable of going home the policeman had no business in bringing you to the station," said the magistrate.

Two patrolmen testified that they found the soldier at midnight, hugging the electric light post at Rlehmond and Dundas streets. Commons Votes Down Proposal of Pacifist.

AS SNOWDEN URGES

LONDON. May 16 .- The House of Commons tonight, after application of closure, voted down without division a resolution proposed by Philip Snow-den, Socialist, welcoming the repudia-tion by the Russian Government of all proposals for imperialistic conquest and aggrendanizement, and calling on the British Government to issue a similar declaration in behalf of the British democracy. democracy.

The necessity of thus voting down the resolution was explained by Lord Robert Cecil as a technicality, inasmuch as it presented an amendment to the consolidated fund bill, and expressions of regret that the House should thus be compelled seemingly to slight Russian aspiration were voiced by Lord Robert, Former Premier Asquith and others, who declared their sympathy with Russia, but deprecated the views of the small body of pacifists moving the resolution in such a manner as necessitated its rejection.

Lord Robert Cecil on behalf of the Government, and Mr. Asquith, were emphatic in their statements that it was impossible at the present stage to enter into negotiations with Germany, and declared that the war aims of the Entente Allies as previously announced still held good.

Not Handing Back,

Paying warm tribute to the manner in which the Russian revolution had been brought about. Lord Robert, commenting on the Socialist plan for peace without annexation, alluded to the German colonies.

"While it is true," he said, "that we did not take them in order to rescue the natives from German rule, but as a part of the war operations, having rescued them, are we going to hand them back?" (Cheers). He then read a long account of the shocking been brought about, Lord Robert, commenting on the Socialist plan for peace without annexation, alluded to the German colonies.

"While it is true," he said, "that we did not take them in order to rescue the natives from German rule, but as a part of the war operations, having rescued them, are we going to hand them back?" (Cheers). He then read a long account of the shocking treatment suffered by the natives in both German East Africa and German West Africa, and said:
"If there is any measure of success n the war, I should regard with horror he idea of returning natives who have een freed from a Government of the state of the success of the said."

Then there were Poland, Alsace-Lorraine and Italia Irredenta. Could Great Britain commit herself to a policy of non-annexation in these cases? Lord Robert referred to Turkish crueity and oppression in Arabia, Armenia and Syria, and said he wished to impress upon Mr. Snowden and his friends that, while there might not be good ground for going to war to accomplish facts of reparation and justice, yet, having lone that by war, the nation could hardly be asked to abandon the fruits of such desirable achievements.

U. S. DESTROYERS IN BRUSH WITH SUB

Flotilla Which Crossed Atlantic Quickly Gets Into Action.

QUEENSTOWN, May 16.—A squadron of America torpedoboat destroyers has safely crossed the Atlantic and is patrolling the seas in war service.

The American navy's actual entry into the war zone has already been productive of a brush between a destroyer and a German underwater boat, according to an announcement by the British admiralty, but the result of it has not been made public.

The destroyer squadron arrived in Queenstown after an uneventful voyage across the Atlantic, but also immediately after a formal exchange of greetings with the British naval officers put to sea again for the hard work that is before it.

The commander of the British flotilla was waiting on board his ship and sent wireless greetings to the American units as soon as they have in sight of Queerstown, steaming in a long line into the harbor.

After the exchange of shore greetings and the British commander had congratulated the American officers on their safe voyage, he asked:

"When will you be ready for business?"

"We can start at once," the American commander replied promptly.

to, the American ships at once put out to sea.

"They are certainly a fine body of men, and what's more, their craft look just as fit," said the British commander, as he watched the destroyers file seaward. One of the American destroyers began war duty even before reaching this side of the Atlantic. This was when it picked up and escorted through the danger zone one of the largest of the Atlantic liners. This action so pleased the British passengers on board that they sent a message of greeting and appreciation to the commander of the destroyer.

LL GERMAN official speeches, A explanations or appeals are based on this bare-faced lie, "we did not go forth to war," with its sequel that Germany is only fighting for national existence. Poor Germany! First of all her national existence was threatened by Serbia, when the heir to the Austrian throne was murdered by an individual assassin having no connection with the Government at Belgrade. Just how this affected Germany, no one but the kaiser and his war clique knows but that was the beginning. Then, when Russia objected to Austria forcing Serbia into war by an ultimatum which refused arbitration or any settlement short of battle, Germany again felt the menace. She was being bullied. How? There will not be peace in Europe unless the present Government of Germany is radically changed, so that war and peace do not rest with one man. OTTAWA, May 16.—Friday Parliament and Canada will be told what happened at the imperial war conference. Sir Robert Borden at the opening of today's sitting announced his formal statement for that day.

There were some interesting indications given concerning election possibilities and a change in the system of voting from the provincial franchise status to a Dominion election law. There was also a hint concerning the proposed application for the extension of the term of Parliament.

Sir Wilfrid wanted votes for women in the Dominion elections. The prime minister expressed the view that all of the women of Canada should have the franchise extended to them, that they may vote in the next Dominion election. His speech indicated that this must be done through the enactment

Sir Robert described the formal presentation of the mace in the council chamber of Guild Hill, and asked the speaker to duced, a feature of which will be an appeal to the people. If the extension of the parliamentary term is obtained, there will be no Dominion franchise measure brought down this session. A number of Liberals favored votes for women in all of the provinces.

And, in this emblem which has been presented to us we see the evidence of parliamentary institutions established. It seemed wrong that a widow of a Canadian soldier who had died at the front, should not have corded to foreigners who had come to Canada from enemy countries.

Wants Dominion Act.

William Wright of Muskoka, Con-William Wright of Muskoka, Con-servative, stated that he had always dence of parliamentary institutions, especially that we are now under fire in favored votes for women and that a Dominion franchise act would be better than the present plan of voting on provincial franchise lists. Sir Wilfrid Laurier held that in his interpretation of the law the minister of justice had been too narrow and too technical. Demand Not Universal.

The women of England had fought strenuously for the franchise, while their sisters in France, just across the channel, had made no such effort. The matter was largely a matter of social and domestic conditions. Last session the Legislature of Ontarlo had unanimously granted the franchise to women, but had declined to make women eligible for membership in the Legislature. Nova Scotia had rejected the female franchise which Ontario had adopted. Quebec had not given the women the franchise, because they had not asked it; did not desire it; in fact, many of them were opposed to it. Therefore, while he favored federal franchise for women in provinces which had adopted it, he claims and counter-claims by each side and will endeavor to effect a com-promise of the strike.

But while Alberta and Saskatchewan had extended the franchise to women, the Dominion law limited the right of the vote in those provinces to "male persons." The time had passed when it was necessary to argue that women had the mental and moral qualifications to vote.

Hon. Judge Doherty, minister of justice, said that Parliament had adopted the plan of having ballots cast on provincial lists and provided that are women of Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia had the right to vote in Federal elections as they had been qualified to vote provincially. Chicago, May 17.—Wheat prices broke as much as 16c a bushel today, on account, main'y, of assertions that Great Britain and other Entente governments would self back huge amounts of future delivery that they bought in the United States. The circumstance that the United States Government would be expected to guarantee in return that the British and other Allied governments would receive when needed adequate supplies from this side did not prevent the reports of contemplated immense reselling from having an immediate sensational bearish effect. Opening prices, which ranged from 7c to 16c lower, with July at $2 14@2 22, and September at $1 95@2; was followed by many fluctuations within that range, but then by relative steadiness at the initial top figures.

Solution:

Whereas, about twenty-five million dollars are spent annually in connection with horse racing.

Whereas, all race courses have been closed in England for the period of the war, and in many of the states of the union horse racing is prohibited.

Whereas, the present shortage of food is so serious that every city, fown, village and township are organizing to speed up production and prevent waste. Whereas, the race track is an economic waste as well as a moral burden.

WOMAN RECRUITER VISITS POOL ROOMS AND DANGING HALLS

Urges Young Men Seeking Pleasure to Don Khaki.

Unexpected visits last evening to Dayton & McCormick's dance hall and to the National pool-room by Capt. W. H. Parsons of Toronto are expected to lating recruiting. The first visit was made to the dance hall, where a big crowd was on the floor. In a few moments dancing was stopped, and the young people gave Mrs. Parsons a most attentive hearing and at times loudly appauded the straight-fromthe-shoulder talk she gave them. She reminded them in opening that would seem, to look at the carefree crowd, that no great war in which the Empire's future is jeopardized was raging. Every young man, she said, who could possibly be spared is needed the battle line, and yet any numer of them, instead of running to their country's defence, were putting in hours of pleasure, and not even helping in any way either to win the war or provide means in the way of ammunition for those who are in the thick of the struggle. Every young man who can go, she declared, should go at once, and she declared it would not be well after the war was over for those who should go and did not. Mrs. Parsons made a special appeal to the women present, also picturing some of the horrors that have been perpetrated in Beigium and warning them what might be expected here if Prussian militarism wins.

In the poolroom Mrs. Parsons was given an equally attentive hearing. The management had all games of bowling, etc., stopped, and absolute quiet prevailed for the twenty minutes during which Mrs. Parsons urged the men she found there to don the khaki. At both the dance hall and poolroom Sergt. Rawlings in a brief address stated that he had repeatedly asked the doctors to let him go back, but they refused.

"I want a man to take my place: who will go?" he pleaded, but no one came forward.

A squad of soldiers also visited Victoria Park during the evening, and surrounding every young man they found in civies, whether he was accompanied by a lady friend or not, made a strong plea for him to sign up. helping in any way either to win the the glorious field day held in the afternoon at Springbank Park.

The address of Capt. (Rev.) Arthur Carlisle, graduate of '02, who went overseas with the 18th Battalion, was listened to attentively. Capt. Carlisle paid numerous striking tributes to the Canadian Tommy who has become famous throughout the British army for his adaptability to all and any circumstances. All the time that he had been at the front he never saw a sign of nervousness from the men, although the noise could be likened to 10,000 thunderstorms multiplied by 10,000,000 more.

The speaker also paid his respects to those ministers of the gospel who have been agitating for the curtailing of the soldiers' rum supply.

Through all the cannonading, cold rain and mud, enough to shatter anyone's nerves, few cases of nervous breakdown had come under his notice, which was convincing testimony of how the men lived at the front.

"If those people who give so much attention to the drink question at the front would give their attention to those who have returned, it would be of more importance than such terrible efforts to deprive the boys of their rum and cigarettes. (Applause.) Capt. Carlisle also alluded to the unfailing cheerfulness of the Canadians under all conditions.

Dr. Fred Campbell read the Med. valedictory, while Floyd Maine, B. A. spoke on behalf of the Arts graduates.

There was no truth in the reports that the vestern grain growers obtained high prices for their crops, he said, and daimed that many of them got less han a dollar a bushel last fall, many ecciving only 86 cents. This, he said, was the result of grading. Government aspectors at the elevators graded the armers' wheat, and they could sell it only at the prevailing prices for that rade. The elevator operators, on the ther hand, did not have the grain raded by Government officials, and auch of that which they bought as rade three was sold as grade two, while quantities bought as grade two, while quantities bought as grade two rere sold as grade one.
