THE CHRISTIAN MOTHER.

Though man is the head of the family, its life and strength rests in woman. She is the power that counsels man in his doubts, restrains him in his impulses, and urges him in his sloth.

THE CHURCH'S OPPORTUNITY.

(From the Akron Times.) The Catholic Hierarchy of the United States has determined to do what the Protestant Church seems to have declined—if long practical inaction may be so construed—and that is to grapple with the race problem in the south.

Test Gin Pills at Our Expense

A CURE—OR MONEY BACK We don't ask you to buy GIN PILLS—but to try them. We simply want you to see for yourself what GIN PILLS will do for you.

Practically this is so—no matter what professions may be made to the contrary. A passive acquiescence in the lynchings in that quarter, the universal demand for separate cars, separate churches, separate dioceses, the old-time Bible argument for the divine sanction of slavery and the divine appointment of the whip—not a word of which is taken back in theory and all of which is persisted in practically, except as an ungracious and unwilling yielding to repressive law stands in the way—all these are so many evidences of the belief in the soul as well as color inferiority of the negro race.

No voice has been raised from a southern pulpit in reproof of the burnings of black men under such circumstances of accompanying barbarity as might well cause the roasting victim to retort back out of the flames upon the whites the old horrors of his ancestral Dahomey.

Scotch Solicitor-General Hopes For Home Rule It is the belief that the English Liberals have another Irish Home Rule bill in contemplation and that it has received what is regarded as the significant support of Alexander Ure, solicitor-general for Scotland.

THE TRADERS BANK OF CANADA

Proceedings of the Twenty-third General Meeting of the Shareholders, Held at the Banking House at Toronto, on Tuesday, 28th January, 1908.

The chair was taken by the President, Mr. C. D. Warren, and Mr. Stuart Strathy was requested to act as Secretary.

Statement of the Result of the Business of the Bank for the Twelve Months Ending 31st December, 1907.

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Total profit for the year: $569,692 68.

GENERAL STATEMENT 31st December, 1907

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Total assets: $38,719,640 15.

STUART STRATHY, General Manager.

The Secretary having read the foregoing Report, the President addressed the meeting as follows:

In presenting the twenty-third annual general statement of the Traders Bank of Canada, for the year ending 31st December, 1907, your Directors desire to congratulate the Shareholders upon the continued prosperity and advancement it discloses.

The net profits for the twelve months, after making ample allowances for all bad and doubtful debts, and after allowing for any possible depreciation in the value of Dominion and Provincial Government Bonds and Municipal Bonds held by the Bank, amount to $522,822.81, which, with the sum carried from Profit and Loss account, and the premium on new stock, makes a total of $569,692.68 available for distribution.

From the statement it will be observed that the relation of assets to liabilities gives the Bank a most substantial standing. The assets are all of an excellent character.

Mr. Hillary, who becomes Assistant General Manager to Mr. Strathy, has had a large and valuable experience, is shrewd and careful, and has an excellent record as Manager, and, for a time as Directors' Auditor.

Mr. Willis, who succeeds Mr. Hillary as Directors' Auditor, has had many years of experience as Manager, and, for a time, as Bank Inspector, and brings to the important duties of his position qualities which especially fit him for their effective discharge.

There will be submitted at this meeting for your consideration a by-law to increase the number of the Board from six to seven, in order to retain as Directors the services of the retiring General Manager, who has been made a Member of the Board.

I have much pleasure in moving the adoption of the Report.

The Vice-President said: In seconding the motion for the adoption of the Report of the Directors of the Bank, with its accompanying Statement, it gives me much pleasure to endorse the remarks of the President in regard to the satisfactory outcome of the operations of the past year, as the results of careful administration and business-like management.

I may be permitted to add a few observations, to emphasize what has been said.

It must be gratifying to note that prosperous as have been the conditions of the past few years, the profits for the year just closed have been the largest in the life of the Bank. The net profits for the year, with all the usual deductions made, amount to the satisfactory sum of $522,822.81.

The Statement submitted shows the liquid assets of the Bank to be in a satisfactory healthy condition, there being a substantial increase over the amount reported last year.

It is also gratifying to observe that the amount of the notes of the Bank in circulation has been much in excess of that of any other year in the history of the institution, indicating the excellent condition of its general business.

In a word, a careful perusal of the Statement will reveal an advance in practically every account, every department of the operations, and in every interest of the Bank, and such generally good character as to make the Annual Statement very satisfactory.

As intimated to the Shareholders last year, an official known as Directors' Auditor was appointed, whose duty it is to co-operate with and assist the Board in the investigation of every transaction, the examination of every account, record or document in connection with the business of the Bank, and to take any course in inspectorial action, under the direction of the Board, or on his own initiative, which they may consider advisable or necessary to protect or promote the interests of the Bank and the Shareholders.

Your Board of Directors, with the Directors' Auditor, have thoroughly examined and checked in detail the entire assets of the Bank at the head office, as comprehended in the Annual Statement, and they have personally and collectively satisfied themselves by individual examination, count and comparison, that these assets correspond in value, in sum and detail, in form and substance, with every individual record in the Statement.

Thus, with a strong and capable official equipment; with all the interests of the institution in a sound, stable and healthy condition, with a fairly justified expectation that the somewhat relaxed conditions of prosperity, commercial, industrial and financial, will be only temporary, it is not unreasonable to anticipate for the Traders Bank a continuation of prosperity, and a repetition in the record of the year to come of the many gratifying features of the excellent Report now submitted for adoption.

The report was adopted unanimously, and a by-law was passed increasing the number of Directors to seven, and another authorizing the Directors to make provision for the retiring General Manager.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Mr. C. D. Warren and Mr. J. R. Stratton were elected President and Vice-President respectively.

CANDLEMAS.

The depth and beauty of the symbolism of the Church appear at their best in the ceremony which gives its name to Candlemas Day. It has been said of the greatest of British political philosophers that his supremacy rests principally in his power of associating transient questions with eternal truths.

The Church on Candlemas Day brings light back to the service of its Creator. "O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God," thus the blessing of candles begins, "Who didst create all things from nothing and by the labor of bees, at Thy command, hast brought this liquid to the perfection of wax."

But light has for us tenderer associations. We admire the splendor of the sun, but it dazzles us. But when that same light is dealt out to us in the candle's gentle beam it becomes our companion and the centre of our family reunions.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the true Light that enlighteneth every man who cometh into this world, pour forth Thy blessing upon these candles and sanctify them with the light of Thy grace, and mercifully grant that as these lights enkindled with visible fire, dispel the darkness of night, so our hearts illumined by invisible fire, that is, by the brightness of the Holy Ghost, may be free from the blindness of every vice; that the eye of our minds being purified, we may discern those things which are pleasing to Thee and profitable to our salvation, so that after the darksome perils of this world we may be found worthy to arrive at the light that never faileth, through Thee, Christ Jesus, Saviour of the world.

SENSATIONALISM MASQUERADING AS CHARITY.

In our last issue we dealt with the problem of the unemployed and the steps to be taken to relieve the present distress and prevent its recurrence. In that article we certainly did not fail to evince sympathy and urge upon all the duty of coming to the rescue of those in need.

Our newspapers deserve the highest praise for the efforts they have made to make our charitably disposed citizens aware of the extent and severity of the destitution in our midst. And the response their appeals have evoked is equally creditable. But even the sacred cause of charity does not justify exaggerations of the wild character published a few days ago in big capitals by one of our papers.

The paper which raised this cry did so, no doubt, in good faith and with the best intentions. It received its information from what it deemed a reliable source. This source ought now to be taken to task and made to apologize for a statement so wildly untrue and calculated to injure the reputation of our city.

Sensationalism is a bad thing in any department, above all in the sphere of charity. The real state of affairs is hard enough. The citizens are awake to their duty. And a by no means unimportant feature of that duty is to prevent the evils of wildly exaggerated statements.

RELIGION IN FAMILIAR CONVERSATION.

Twice we have discussed the sentiments expressed some time ago in one of our Toronto papers under this heading. First, we endeavored to show that prominence in familiar conversation was not a sure test of the position such a subject as religion held in popular estimation. Next, we discussed the common but miserably shallow saying that provided a man's life be right, his creed matters not.

There is much that is incorrect and more that is decidedly shallow in this paragraph. It is not true to say that present conditions are to the past as day is to night. The days in which the Catholic Church attained the zenith of her power in England were, according to Thorold Rogers, the golden age of the workingman in that country. Here is how the arch-Socialist Hyndman describes the conditions which then prevailed: "The books of the conventual establishments show that a large portion of the income derived from their lands was spent by the monks in entertaining strangers, in relieving beggars, in attending the sick, and in other good works."

SAFE SAVING. This Corporation is the most extensive Land Mortgage Company in the Dominion and one of the oldest, largest and strongest financial institutions in Canada or the United States. Its exceptionally strong financial position constitutes it an unusually safe Depository for Savings.

The general employment which, as landlords resident amongst the people, they afforded—in addition to their action as public alms-givers, teachers, doctors, and nurses—shows what useful people many of these much-abused monks and nuns really were. The "drones" who slept away their lives in comfort and ease at the expense of other men's labor were no more ignorant and superstitious than a Church of England parson or a Wesleyan preacher, and were less dependent on the labor of their fellows than Baptist orators or Radical capitalists of to-day.

INTEREST IN FOREIGN MISSIONS. We have already contrasted what our Catholics do in the matter of contributing to Foreign Missions, with what non-Catholics do in this respect, and what they themselves would do were they trained in this regard. After making all allowances for the hardships Catholics in English-speaking countries have had to endure for centuries, and the leeway to be made up when their civil disabilities were removed, there remains the fact that wealthy parishes contribute a mere pittance to the great cause of bringing the light of faith to those who still sit in darkness, and they do so because of lack of education in this matter.

THE TORONTO BIBLE CONFERENCE.

The much-heralded and widely advertised Bible Conference which met recently in Toronto, has come and gone, leaving behind it a number of big letter advertisements on the bill boards and another proof of the hopeless divisions and utter powerlessness of Protestantism to meet present conditions. Speakers of continental reputation were heralded as speakers. And yet from the fullest newspaper reports we failed to catch one illuminating idea in the whole series of addresses. Modern Biblical criticism seemed to be the one subject under discussion. And even on this topic no attempt was made, as far as reports, the correctness of which was vouched for, go, to give a clear definition of the nature, province and limits of legitimate as distinguished from wanton criticism.

Death of Rev. Mother Mary Berchmans, Chatham, Ont.

At half-past three on the morning of January 22nd, the soul of Mother Mary Berchmans, Religious of the Ursuline Community of the Pines, Chatham, Ont., passed happily to its eternal reward. Mother Mary Berchmans was very widely known in Western Ontario and in many parts of the States, and the news of her death has caused deep sorrow to her innumerable friends.

sacrifice of her life greatly consoled and edified those who were in assistance beside her. The deceased religious was born in Fergus, Ont., and entered the Ursuline Convent, at Chatham, when but in her sixteenth year. She made her religious profession in 1872, and during the thirty-five years of her religious life has been one of the ablest and most devoted members of the community. The high esteem in which her superior talents were held by her Sisters asserted itself in their constant choice of her to fill the highest offices of trust and responsibility in the community.

Who Said It?

We find the following statement, ascribed to the "Christian Advocate (Protestant)": "In countries where Catholicism is in competition with Protestantism it is said to be difficult to secure boys from the more intelligent families to study for the priesthood?" Who says it, and will attempt to prove the preposterous claim? In the United States alone the Catholic Church had at the beginning of the present year 5,697 students for the priesthood, and numerous from well-to-do families. Intelligence is a prerequisite. Can any Protestant denomination show anything remotely resembling these figures of our quality?—The Pilot.

Clippings From Ottawa

Rev. Father Barette of Hull is at present spending a well-earned vacation. He will resume his duties in the Church of Our Redeemer in two week's time.

A Forty Hours' Devotion was held in St. Joseph's Church during last week. The service was well attended by the members of the congregation.

Rev. Father Lavergne of Breboeuf, Que., has been appointed parish priest of L'Ascension, from which Rev. Father Corbeil was recently transferred to La Tuque.

Rev. Father Lalonde of the Jesuit Order, Montreal, who recently delivered a splendid lecture in this city, will preach during the Lenten services at the Basilica.

Rev. Father O. Lalonde, of the Basilica, has been appointed chaplain of the Men's Sodality of the Murray Street Chapel. In this position he replaces Rev. Father Carrier, who has been transferred to Hull.

Rev. Father E. Carbeil, formerly parish priest of L'Ascension, Que., passed through Ottawa recently on his way to La Tuque, a newly established parish to which he has been appointed.

In consideration of the fact that many parents have been objecting of late, as to the amount of home-work, which is obligatory on the part of the pupils, it is probable that the Separate School Board will discuss the matter at its next meeting.

The annual financial report of St. Patrick's parish, is contained in a recent number of the Calendar, the official organ of the parish. It shows a considerable increase in the parochial work, there being 710 Masses and 19,600 communicants during 1907.

The revenue for the past year amounted to $11,007.51, which is an increase of $491.93 over 1906. Despite the fact that considerable repairs were made in the building, the mortgage was reduced by $3,000. Reference was made by Rev. Father M. J. Whelan, the parish priest to the probability of another church being erected, and a parish established, in the southern portion of St. Patrick's, as the congregation has grown too numerous for the present edifice.

The children of St. Patrick's Orphan's Home, under the auspices of Division No. 3, Ladies Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, have held a very successful concert. The programme also contained a pleasing operetta, and a large number of friends of the institution were present. The clever manner in which the little ones presented the various numbers of the entertainment reflected credit on their director, Mrs. McGarr.

Very Rev. Canon Campeau of the Basilica visited Notre Dame De Garde, Que., recently, where he began arrangements for the establishment of a new parish there. At present it is but a mission, situated at some distance from Buckingham, and is without the services of a regular pastor. The mission has grown considerably of late and as a result the people have requested that the district be organized. It is probable that a new church will be built. The establishment of the new parish will reduce the boundaries of La Salle, and will necessitate the appointment of a parish priest.

Rev. Father Wm. Murphy, rector of Ottawa University, has received a despatch from the Provincial of the Oblate Order in Montreal, in which is announced the death of Rev. Father Lavillardiere, Superior-General of the Order at Rome, Italy. Father Lavillardiere was born at Voie, France, in 1844, and was elected to the Superior-Generality in September, 1906. He was then Superior of the Oblate Order at Lyons. Until his successor

CARDINAL RICHARD DEAD

Atheistic French Government Hastened the End.

His Eminence Cardinal Francois Marie Benjamin Richard, Archbishop of Paris, died on Tuesday of congestion of the lungs after a short illness.

Cardinal Richard was the oldest of the Cardinals by about nine years. He was not, however, the senior member of the Sacred College. He was sixth on the list of Cardinal priests, Cardinal Gibbons, who is much younger, being two places above him. The deceased French prelate was nearly 89 years old, but down to the time of the enforcement of the separation law he was vigorous and active. The nervous strain of the last year, however, broke down his nerves and his strength.

He accepted the hospitality of Deputy Cochon, who had offices and a private oratory constructed in his house, when he was forcibly turned out of the archiepiscopal palace on December 17, 1906. The expulsion was made the occasion of a public demonstration. An assemblage of more than 5,000 persons, including many members of the nobility and clergy, gathered in the street outside the palace and sang hymns while Cardinal Richard, Monsignor Amette, the Co-adjutor-Bishop and the two Vicars-General seated themselves in the waiting carriage.

Cardinal Richard was so moved by the demonstration that he stood up and blessed the multitude while the crowd knelt and chanted. After the prelate reseated himself the leaders in the crowd unhitched the horses attached to his carriage and themselves dragged it through the streets amid cries of "Long live the prelate!" The Cardinal had been ill for only a few days, although he had been gradually failing in health for many months. On January 15th he received the Augustinian Sisters of Charity at the Church of Notre Dame du Bon Secours after their expulsion from the Hotel Dieu under the separation law.

The palace has been made the headquarters of the Ministry of Labor. Francois Marie Benjamin Richard was born at Nantes on March 1, 1849. He came of a family of the old nobility of France and spent his childhood in the chateau of Lavergne. He entered the Seminaire St. Sulpice in 1849, was for several years Vicar-General of Nantes and in 1871 was appointed Bishop of Belley. He became coadjutor to Archbishop Guinet of Paris in 1875 and succeeded the latter in 1886. He was made a Cardinal May 24, 1889.

The attempt of the government to divorce Church and State in France brought Cardinal Richard to the front as the leading official defender of the Church's position in the controversy that is still agitating France.

Death of Michael Tracey, St. Catharines

Michael Tracey, an old and highly respected citizen, passed away recently at his home near the Grand Trunk Railway station after a prolonged illness. Mr. Tracey was a native of the County of Tipperary, Ireland, where he was born in 1824—eighty-four years ago, and for a number of years was in the service of the old Great Western Railway, being promoted to the responsible position of baggage-man, in which capacity he served during twelve years. He then quitted the service of the Great Western and forty-seven years ago entered the hotel business at the G.T.R. station, in the hotel in which he died. He held the license for his hotel ever since, and was known and respected by thousands who have travelled during that period on the line named.

Deceased is survived by his widow; five daughters, Mrs. John Carty, Misses Minnie and Annie Tracey of this city, Miss Josephine Tracey of New York, and Sister Marie Dorothea of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, and three sons, Michael of Wheeling, W. Va., John of Albany, N.Y., and Joseph P. of this city; one sister, Mrs. M. Sullivan of Welland, and one brother, Thomas O. Carquette, Mich. Mrs. Tracey was formerly Elizabeth Bradley, and if deceased had lived until February 2nd, they would on that date have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Deceased was a devout and consistent Roman Catholic, a member of the congregation of St. Mary's church, and a staunch Liberal. While holding his own belief and opinions with the steadfastness and tenacity born of sincere conviction, he was never illiberal nor did he deny to others the right of opinion he exercised himself. Many of his best and warmest friends were those who held views directly at variance with his own. Large-hearted and genial, generous to a fault, he was ever foremost in good works, ever a ready and cheerful giver, and did not restrict his good deeds to those of his own religious or political belief. He was for some years a Separate School Trustee, and it is recalled by those who knew him best, that in the olden days "the children would often have suffered from the bitter winter weather had he not provided and paid for the wood that was used in the school."

The members of the bereaved family have the deep and sincere sympathy of the entire community in their heavy affliction, but the name of him who has gone will long be green in the memory of all who knew him—St. Catharines Exchange.

The Dominion Bank

With such an excellent statement as they had to present it must have been with the completest confidence that the directors of the Dominion Bank met the Shareholders in annual session recently. The profits for the year, as shown by the statement, were $635,235.51, an increase of $95,875.15 on those of the previous year, which at the last annual meeting were accepted as a most excellent result. The net profits are thus nearly 18 per cent of the average capital for the year 1907. The Profit and Loss Account in detail shows profits for the year of $635,235.51; brought forward from last year, $28,793.35; premium on new stock, $933,456.87; a total of $1,597,485.71. Out of this there has been paid dividends (four quarterly payments of 3 per cent.), $429,893.23; $933,456.87 has been transferred to Rest Account and the large amount of $235,140.61 has been carried forward to the credit of the Profit and Loss Account. The reserve fund and undivided profits of the bank are now $1,235,000 more than the paid-up capital.

The Missal and Layman

Preaching in St. Louis on a recent Sunday, Archbishop Glennon eloquently demonstrated the value of the missal in the hands of the layman.

"This day," said His Grace, "the first Sunday in Advent, marks the commencement of the ecclesiastical year.

"Time was in the Church's history when it would not be necessary for me to make these announcements, for they were already known to the laity;

"But it was not for the knowledge it gave them of feast or fast that these people valued their treasures.

"How can this be done, however, under the conditions that exist to-day, when the laity do not understand and consequently cannot, even if they would, directly associate themselves in the celebration of the Mass, hence the movement and the meaning of the sacrifice is by the laity partially lost, while the beauty of its litany and its prayers and through them also the sublime character of the sacrifice can only in the faintest way be understood.

"But with the Catholics of the past it was entirely different. With them you could take your missal, translated into the vernacular of your place before the altar, whether it be by the railing or the door it matters not, repeat with the priest the very words that enshrine the mystery and majesty of the great and only sacrifice of the new law; then you will go into the altar of God and recite the Psalm wherewith the ceremony commences;

"You will speak again the words of faith and the lessons of piety that furnish the prelude of the sacrifice. You will speak the praise of the Lord in the preface and join with the choir of angels in reciting the triple 'Sanctus,' 'Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of Hosts.' You will read again the message given to the churches of Rome, Antioch and Ephesus. You will see again the morning of the Saviour's life brought with the angels' hymn, 'Gloria be to God, on high, and peace on earth to men of good will.'"

"You will stand around with the candles lighted to hear some portion of the Saviour's life recorded in the Gospel of the day; some miracle He wrought, or lesson He taught, or the good that He has done in the years of His earthly ministrations. Thus with your missal containing the Epistles and Gospels, you profess that the faith as taught in these writings is yours, and from it you recite the creed. In that profession step by step you move from creation's dawn onward to the blessed Saviour's coming among men, His life, His death and His resurrection. You speak the words of cheer that brighten our future and light humanity on through the resurrection unto life everlasting. And now, your profession of faith ended and your creed recited, you bow your head at the Canon of the Mass and recite with ever-increasing solemnity the words that move you nearer to the centre of the sacrifice. The living Church springs before your mind, and you pray that the living Church now before its Master and Lord may live in peace and unity under the Master's supreme rule. Step by step, from Pope to Bishop and Bishop to parish and parish to people, you will include all in this prayer of peace and union, and especially would you include all those who with you join in that sacrifice; and thus you make your commemoration for the living.

"Then, turning to the history of sacrifice, you would bring to mind the Blessed Mother, who stood by that

STORY THAT WON PRIZE.

The following is the story that won a prize in the Young People's Circle of the Globe...

"I remember now that we sent all the cookies Rhoda made that day to the sale for the benefit of poor Mrs. Loosing..."

It was just three weeks before Christmas, and Ella's little heart was sad. She was an only child...

"And now I'll wear a ribbon till my finger gets large enough for the ring," said Pauline, looking at the pretty gift that had been gone so long.

Many inherit weak lungs, and as disease usually assails the weakest point, these persons are continually exposed to attacks of cold and pulmonary disturbances.

HOW DOLLY LEARNED THE COLORS.

Dolly was a little girl, and she had the yellowest hair, the reddest lips, and the bluest eyes ever seen.

One day when she was in the kindergarten, the teacher showed the children some pretty yellow balls, and the little children all looked straight at Dolly and cried, "See these are exactly the color of Dolly's hair."

But her mother replied, "Why I think yellow hair is lovely. Just look at the sun and the buttercups in the yard; they are the color of your hair! I am sure yellow is a beautiful color."

Then little Dolly was happy again. The next day the teacher showed the kindergarten children some red balls, and the little boys and girls all looked at Dolly again and said, "See, these are just the color of Dolly's lips!"

But her mother said, "Why, just look at the pretty cherries on the trees and the poppies in the garden. They are red, and what a lovely color they are!"

And little Dolly felt comforted. The next time she went to school the children were given some pretty blue balls to play with, and they all looked at Dolly and said, "Oh, look, these are just the color of Dolly's eyes!"

Then Dolly cried and shut her blue eyes very tight. When she told her mother about it, her mother said, "Just look at the beautiful sky, and the ocean that you love to sail on; they are both blue, and how lovely they are!"

Then little Dolly opened her eyes very wide, and was happy once more. Dolly's mamma bought her some nice new bronze shoes, and the very day she wore them to school the teacher showed the children some bright orange balls. And they looked at Dolly's shoes and cried, "See, the balls are almost the color of your shoes!"

Then Dolly ran home very fast, so that they could not see her shoes, and told her mother. Mamma took Dolly up in her lap and said, "Don't you know that you eat pretty color oranges that you eat, and how you like to watch the bright clouds at sunset? The clouds are sometimes orange color, and I think that they are beautiful."

Then Dolly laughed and got down, and thought her shoes were just the nicest she had ever had. One day Dolly wore a new hat to school. It was a pretty hat, trimmed with violets and green leaves.

Dolly was late that morning, and when she got there, the children were playing with some green balls and violet balls, which the teacher had just given them. When they saw Dolly's hat, they laughed and said, "Oh, look, Dolly's hat looks like our green and violet balls."

Dolly almost cried for a minute, and then she said, "Well, God makes the violets violet-color, and the leaves green, and I am glad to have them in my hat, and I love violets!"

After that the children did not tease Dolly any more, and Dolly found that all the pretty colors were everywhere in the world and she was really happy that she knew their names. —Little Folks.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the District in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans: (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on residence land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

A CORRECTION. In the list of Peter's Pence contributed by the city parishes a mistake was made regarding that of St. Peter's. The figures given were $53.00. They should have read $60.00, this being the amount subscribed.

CANDLEMAS DAY. Candlemas Day, which was also the Feast of the Purification, was observed at the late Masses on Sunday, when the Feast was solemnized and the candles blessed and distributed to the congregation.

FEAST OF ST. BLASE. Monday, the Feast of St. Blase, saw the churches crowded several times throughout the day with congregations participating in the ceremony of "blessing the throat." In some parishes the Feast was anticipated, many throats being blessed on the day previous.

SANCTUARY BOYS GIVE TO THE POOR. The Sanctuary Boys of St. Peter's, have had their annual outing in the way of a sleigh-drive, but the supper that usually accompanied it was this time missing, the boys having generously determined to make the sacrifice of sending the amount which would have gone to this purpose to the subscription for those in need now being taken up by the Globe.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. MURPHY. The funeral of Mr. J. Murphy, of 247 Parliament street, an old resident of St. Paul's parish, took place on Monday morning. Deceased, who was 76 years of age, has been ailing for some time, when released by death. The funeral was largely attended, a son employed with the Pease Foundry Co., Ottawa, being amongst those present, and the Army and Navy Veterans being largely represented. R.I.P.

THANKS FROM SUNNYSIDE. The sincere thanks of the Sisters in charge of the Sacred Heart Orphanage, Sunnyside, are tendered the pastors and people of the following missions for their generous contributions: Port Colborne, $103.50; Merriton, $21.00; Alliston, $118.45. The Sisters also desire to thank any who may have been overlooked during the Christmas season and the year just closed. The benefactors are so numerous as to make individual thanks impossible, yet all may rest assured that none are unappreciated or forgotten in the prayers of the many little ones whom the charity of the benefactors helps to support, and who without this support would miss much of what now makes life both pleasant and profitable.

DEATH OF ALICE SULLIVAN. A dear child, the light of a household, went from earth to the land beyond, when Alice Sullivan, the little twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, of 109 Simpson avenue, passed away on Thursday morning of last week. Alice was a bright pupil of St. Joseph's school, wise beyond her years, and the close of her life while yet in its early springtime, has caused sincere regret amidst her schoolmates and the many to whom her quaint ways and affectionate disposition endeared her. Though never robust, study was her greatest pleasure and in music she had made considerable proficiency, and to watch the little fingers run over the keys of the piano as they gave forth the airs of Old Erin, under the deft touch of little Alice, was one of the greatest joys of the now bereaved household. Weeks of suffering, alleviated by all that home-love and the ministrations of a kindly pastor, could suggest, preceded the end, when the young girl, attired as on the day of her First Communion, and adorned with the scarlet badge, which proclaimed her membership in the Sodality of those Holy Angels whose faces perhaps she even then beheld, was visited for the last time by those who had loved her in life. Generous spiritual offerings and floral tributes spoke of the general sympathy and regret. The funeral took place on Saturday, the High Mass of Requiem being sung by Rev. Father Canning at St. Joseph's church, whence the cortege proceeded to St. Michael's cemetery, where Father Canning also officiated. To the parents and sister, Miss Margaret Sullivan, employed with the Catholic Register, the sincere sympathy of all is tendered. R.I.P.

DELIGHTFUL LECTURE BY REV. DOCTOR O'BRIEN. The lecture which for some time had been eagerly anticipated by the Catholic Young Ladies' Literary Association, came off on Wednesday evening of last week, and proved in the reality even more pleasure-giving and satisfying than had been anticipated. Despite the cold, the beautiful Greek theatre of the Margaret Eaton School of Expression, was filled with the Society and their friends, who on every side expressed their enjoyment of the evening's entertainment. Not for years, if ever before, has there been shown in Toronto a collection of views of Italy and Rome, as fine as those thrown on the canvas by Dr. O'Brien, and the running commentaries which accompanied these, together with the pictures themselves, showed the familiarity of the Rev. lecturer with his subject and proved a great source of information to his audience. Father O'Brien is to be congratulated on the possession of so fine a collection and on the fund of information as evinced by the readiness and clearness which come to a lecturer only with a full knowledge of his subject. Supplementary to the lecture were violin solos by Miss Florence McMullen, a young player of marked ability, accompanied on the piano by our well-known accompanist, Miss Mollie O'Donoghue; a finely executed duet by Mr. James Dickinson, Mus.Doc., and Mrs. Dickinson, readings by Miss Marguerite Dunn and vocal solos by Miss Charlebois. Miss Dunn was at her best and her imitation of the London dialect in "How the La Rue States were won" was pronounced by a competent critic present as so very fine in its approach to the real thing, as to be extraordinary. The singing of Miss Charlebois was a revelation to many to whom before the singer was unknown. This young lady has a voice of exceptional range and beauty, the timbre and music of which are best expressed by the adjective soulful. Greater things may be prophesied for this rising singer. On the whole the evening was one of the most pleasant and profitable, amongst the many of pleasure and profit which mark the career of the Catholic Young Ladies' Literary Association.
