Poetry.

THE HUNTER OF HUDSON'S BAY. A Hunter came down in our woods to stray— A Hunter and trapper from Hudson's Bay; With a pack of good furs, and a swagging air, As sly as a fox, and as bold as a bear— He was young, he was strong, he was gallant and gay— Came over such hunter from Hudson's Bay? He hunted all over in forest and field, With his rifle in hand and his dog at his heel; He skinned the Grand River ten times a day, And took a hard cruise in his own quiet way— For he shot, and what not, all that came in his way. What a rollicking hunter from Hudson's Bay! But a pair of black eyes on the Grand River shore Was a trap that the trapper never thought of before; He was taken no doubt for a glorious haul, And the black eyes they were never rubbed away. And his sight was so true, in a treacherous way? Alas, for the hunter from Hudson's Bay! For even in hunting, there's rivals in trade,— And his was a sweet bit of black-eyed maid; And surely I fear 'twill be many a day Ere he chooses his rifle for Hudson's Bay! Her smiles, and her wiles, and she gave them full play— Have captured the hunter from Hudson's Bay! And all ye field hunters that come in the way— Especially you from Hudson's Bay— Take heed and beware of a pair of black eyes! For fear they should turn out a trap in disguise! They are glad, they are mad, just to have it to say They captured a hunter from Hudson's Bay!

Delivered Articles.

A Horse of Cosmos, Aug. 15.—Postal Regulations.—In the brief sitting of the house to day, Mr. Labouchere said he could not at present enter into any details on the subject of the postal arrangements, farther than to say that the general character of the report certainly has a recommendation for the transmission and delivery of letters and newspapers on Sunday, that the law which has been lately established should be repealed, and that we should return to the transmission and delivery of newspapers and letters on Sunday, accompanied by such alterations and regulations as would insure to persons employed in the Post-office as much leisure on Sundays as was consistent with a view to the interests of the public; but the Treasury had not yet time to determine the course to be adopted. He had no doubt, however, that the Treasury would be satisfied with the recommendations contained in that report, and that those recommendations would be carried out [hear, hear]. Mr. Locke expressed his gratitude to the Government for the steps they had taken with a view to meeting the wishes of a great body of the public upon this important subject. The members in due order afterwards adjourned to the House of Lords. We understand that Lord Ligon returned from his Northern tour on Wednesday evening the 11th inst., by the "People's Friend" from Penang-shene. His Excellency stopped at Barre on Tuesday night, and on the following morning took the steamer Beaver, which proceeded round Lake Simcoe and arrived at Bradford Landing about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Immediately on his Excellency's arrival at the Landing, he proceeded direct to Toronto, where he arrived at half-past 8 o'clock. On the following evening (Thursday), His Excellency left for New York, en route for Long Island, to join Lady Elgin, who has been for some time enjoying the delightful sea air of that fashionable place of summer resort. Rumour says His Excellency will not return to Toronto, but proceed direct to England. We wish him a safe and speedy voyage across the Atlantic. Perhaps the Globe can inform us when we may expect his successor—and also who is Governor of Canada at the present time?—Colonist. Our Telegraph report of last night announces the arrival of the Gov. General in New York, and says, it is understood His Excellency will leave for Canada to-day.—Globe of Tuesday. Inquest.—An inquest was held on Sunday last, the 8th inst., before George Duggin Esq., on the body of a female, about 35 years of age, named Margaret Boyd, which was found floating in the Bay near Rees's Wharf, at the foot of William Street. It appeared from the evidence adduced that the deceased had only arrived in this city on the day previous and put up at a house on Adelaide Street, kept by Mr. Brown. She complained of a pain in the head, and said that a person on board the boat in which she came passenger told her she was out of her mind. In the course of the day (Saturday) she went and got two pills, from a doctor. During the night when in bed she called out for the police, and about half-past 1 o'clock on the Sunday morning she got up and jumped out of the room window which was about 14 feet from the ground. A sentry on guard at the Commissariat Stores deposed, that about two o'clock on Sunday morning he heard several screams in succession like those of a female under ill usage, which ceased a short time, when another scream proceeded from the same direction, after which all was still. Such noises being very frequent in that neighborhood he paid no attention to it whatever, and took no further notice of the matter than merely mentioning the fact to the next sentry. The body was examined by Dr. King who gave it as his opinion that the deceased must have gone into the water while under the influence of delirium produced by fever—as he observed several marks on the body which led to that conclusion. Verdict.—Drowned by throwing herself into the Bay when in a state of delirium. When the body was taken out of the water in the morning, it had neither shoes or stockings on; a cap was drawn over the face which being removed showed that a deep cut had been inflicted on the head about the temples. Under these circumstances, therefore, we think that a more minute enquiry was necessary, before giving the above verdict.—Colonist. Potato Rot.—We regret to hear that the rot is showing itself in almost every potato field in the County of York. In many places the farmers have turned their hogs into the fields to save what they can eat. From the appearance of the tops it is believed that the rot will be more general and more destructive, than in 1847 and '48. We hear also, that the yield of wheat is not so abundant as was expected before the matter had been tested by the "Thrashing machine."—North American. Reciprocity.—We fancy the doctrine of Reciprocity will not be so popular this fall, as it was last year. We have been favored by the perusal of some letters from large grain dealers on the other side, from one of which we learn that in consequence of the large crops in the West, there is very little probability of any Canadian wheat being bought for the American Market this fall. From another we learn the writer will be prepared to ship wheat at Cleveland at 60 to 65 cents delivered on board.—Montreal Transcript. The British America says that the Plank Road between Woodstock and Hamilton is in bad order, which occasioned, the other day, the death of a respectable farmer of East Oxford, named Atken, a native of the North of Ireland. He had been at Bradford with a load of grain, and on his return, while driving pretty fast, was thrown from his wagon and killed. Cricket.—A Cricket Match between "Canada" and "O. I. Country" evens which was played on the Cricket Ground near this city, was concluded on the 11th inst., in favor of the "O. I. Country" players, who won the match in a single inning with 31 runs to spare. The following is the total score viz:— O. I. Country, 1st Innings, 173. Canada, 1st Innings, 61; 2nd do., 83—147. In favor of the "O. I. Country," 31. The cricket match between the Montreal Club and the 23rd Regiment, was finished on Thursday, on the College grounds, the Montreal Club winning by 59 runs.—Toronto Patriot. Fatal Accident.—On Friday the 5th inst., a young man named Land, of the Township of Zorra, was engaged at mowing in a thrashing machine; his left leg became entangled in the cylinder, causing a severe laceration of the knee joint, also dislocating the arm. Dr. McCarthy of Ingersoll was called in immediately, and performed amputation of the thigh and reduced the dislocation. We are happy to state the patient is doing well up to the present time.—British American. It is said that Mrs. Miller, whose reported suicide at Niagara about a year ago excited so much attention, has suddenly returned to her father's house at Detroit. The stories of her having eloped with some gentleman, and gone to Europe, are totally unfounded. Her mind is evidently disordered, it is said, through unnatural religious excitement, which has induced her extraordinary conduct. Important Arrest.—We learn by telegraph from Cleveland, that Gen. Hunt, the principal agent of the Ohio Stage Company, was arrested on suspicion of having been concerned in the excessive mail robbery which have occurred for some time past in the State of Ohio. The General was not under guard, we are informed, at the Wellfield House, and while the guard was receiving a visit from Mr. Morpous, he managed to step out and turn the key on them, after which he made his escape, and at the last accounts had not been heard from, though diligent search was being made for him. The General is conversant with all the routes in the West, and knows which one is the best to take to elude the officers of justice, which, together with the facilities his official position gives him for traveling, will make him a hard chase.—Noble Conduct of a Woman.—The following incident occurred last week on the Brokenstein river, a branch of the Allegheny:—The stream had been swollen by recent heavy rains, and a flitting family were crossing at the ferry in a flat, when by some accident a boy about six years old was thrown or fell from the lower side of the flat into the stream.—Among a number of persons on the bank was a woman engaged in washing, attracted to the child's danger by the cries of the mother and the exclamation of others on each side of the river. She knew that a short distance below was a rapid, which, if the child entered, it must be lost. Excited by the imminent danger of the child, and more perhaps by the agonizing cries of the mother, and seeing to hope or prospect of relief but what she herself could offer, her resolution was taken, and in a moment she stood disrobed on the bank and plunged into the stream. It was not the first time that she had braved it, and in apparent confidence of her power and skill as a swimmer, made directly for the child, which she seized with one arm, and with the other bore both safely to the shore.—Pittsburgh American. A Suble Plenipotentiary.—The Ambassador from His Imperial Majesty of Haiti, accompanied by his suite, landed yesterday morning at the Battery, New York city under a salute of 17 guns, from the U. S. ship Erie, and proceeded to his apartments at the Astor House, where he was immediately called on by a number of the citizens.

From the Hamilton Spectator. THE HIGHLAND GATHERING.

On Friday last, the 15th inst., the fifth annual "gathering" of the members of the Highland Society of Hamilton and Canada West, took place in this city. The day was most propitious—the sun shone out gloriously, not a cloud obscured the face of the sky, the air fine, clear and bracing—such was alone our Canadian climate can boast. From an early hour of the morning, the streets were astir with groups of well-dressed strangers, some of whom had come a distance of two, and some of three hundred miles to be present. The city of the different hotels throughout the city were tenanted to their summits in compliment to the Society. The Gay Hotel, the head quarters of the Society, was gaily decked out with banners, some which we not ed four belonging to the St. Andrew's Society of Toronto, which were sent up to grace the proceedings of the day. The splendid banner of the Highland Society floated in the breeze over the doorway of the Hotel. It did not require any logical argument to induce us to be present, and to afford us much encouragement as we could to those who desire to see a man's sports and pastimes peculiar to Scotland. Indeed, no man, with a spark of patriotism in his breast, who ever said of it, "this is my own native land" could resist being present on such an occasion. We started out way down James street a quarter of ten o'clock, the hour of meeting, we were both surprised and pleased to see the immense crowd that had assembled around the heart-stirring strains of the great Highland bagpipes, played by three pipers of the 71st Regt., who, marching in front of the Hotel, were playing in succession a number of delightful Highland dances. Shortly after twelve, the members having all arrived and taken their places, the procession began to move up James street, towards King street, to the Theatre. The procession was headed by the tall, stalwart form of Mr. Grant, ex-king of the French, followed by seven or eight pipers in succession; then by the judges and strangers; and afterwards by the members, nearly all of whom were elegantly dressed in full Highland costume. On entering the Theatre, we were well pleased to see a crowded with a large and fashionable audience. The scene presented on the stage was particularly grand and striking—the judges, the pipers, and competitors all dressed in the costly old Gaelic, were ranged in a semi-circle round the stage; their splendid dresses and ornaments, formidable claymores, battle axes, and spears, eight or ten of the embossed and plated pipes, and a variety of other articles, formed a picture of once elegant and imposing. The business of the day was commenced by commencing for the Piper's races. Mr. McKee, Kingston—was the first to start, followed by seven or eight pipers in succession; then by the judges and strangers; and afterwards by the members, nearly all of whom were elegantly dressed in full Highland costume. and the foot race—all of which were carried out with the best feeling and good humor by the competitors. By this time it was four o'clock, and an immense throng of spectators having assembled, the scene which the park presented was exceedingly animated and picturesque; within the enclosed space where the sports were going on were assembled the Highlanders; each manly figure seemed to lean in to its estate, and the picturesque colors of the tartans, radiant with Charismatic, and other tones of nature, added to the effect—while the pipes marching round the ring, arrayed in all the splendor of silver ornaments, struck up an interlude of the war notes of the clan, or some ditty inspiring Strathguy. At the conclusion of the games the procession returned to the Theatre, to distribute the prizes to the successful competitors. The judges having spent a few minutes in consultation, one of them, Wm. Notman, Esq., M. P. P., addressed the audience in a very eloquent and appropriate speech replete with the happiest remarks; after which the prizes were awarded. The Society afterwards adjourned to the City Hotel, where we understood a very happy hour was spent, and the national spirit began to flow into the end of toasts, till the walls danced to the strains of the bagpipes. The "gathering" as a whole was most successful, the weather was delightful, the arrangements all that could be wished, the only drawback being the want of means for keeping back the crowd, which we hope to see remedied on a future occasion; and we may conclude our hurried and imperfect notice by congratulating the Society on their continued prosperity, and on the imposing appearance they presented on Friday last, and we trust that the next anniversary will show an increased prize list, and an increased number of competitors. We submit a list of the successful competitors, handed us by the Secretary:— Piper's.—1st Prize, John Scott, Pips Major, 71st Regt.; 2nd, F. M. Rae, Kingston. Strathguy and Marches.—1st, Alex. McKee, 71st Regt.; 2nd, Alex. McLean, do. Giltie's Gall.—John Sutherland, Woodstock. Highland King.—Alex. Dingwall, Toronto. Reels.—George Martin, Dublin. Best Dressed Highlanders.—1st, F. From the London Chronicle, Aug. 27. THE DEATH OF LOUIS PHILIPPE, THE LAST KING OF FRANCE.

One more strange incident in the annals of a strange house! A King, for whom a nation offered three a denary, has died an exile! Louis Philippe, ex-king of the French, expired yesterday morning at eight o'clock, at Claremont, in the presence of the ex-Queen and the following members of his family:—The Duchess of Orleans, the Comte de Paris, the Duke de Chartres, the Duke and Duchess de Nemours, the Prince de Joinville, the Duke and Duchess d'Anjou, and the Duchess Augusta de Saxe Cobourg. The King had been made aware of his approaching dissolution early the previous day, and receiving with calmness the awful intimation, thus first broken to him, prepared for the final arrangements he wished to make. After a conversation with the Queen, he dictated, with a remarkable clearness, a conclusion to his memoirs, in order to complete a history which illness had for some months compelled him to suspend. He then caused to be summoned his chaplain, the Abbé Guille, his children and grandchildren, who were at Claremont at the time, and in the presence of the Queen and his family, he received the last rites of his Roman Catholic Church. He then remained for some time surrounded by his family. Towards seven o'clock in the evening the delirium from which he had been suffering disappeared, and in his more lucid moments, which continued during the night with much violence, but without disturbing the composure of mind which never abandoned him. At the hour we have named, the fever had reached its height, and the King expired. The Paris Ordre says:— The King, to the last moment, retained a calmness, a presence of mind, and a strength of soul which inspired all present with tender and respectful admiration. At half-past seven his breathing became more oppressed, and, in half an hour afterwards, he expired. The Queen, in a transport of grief, strained within her arms the lifeless body of her husband; she then took a last embrace, and rising with sublime resignation, and turning towards her children, who were all assembled around the death-bed, and who all, by a simultaneous movement, drew around her, she said to Louis: "Promise me to remain always united in remembrance of your father, as you have been during his lifetime." "We will for you as we have always been for him," was their reply, and this affecting scene was closed by embraces and by tears. The Duchess of Orleans, her sisters-in-law, and the princess, were present at the last moments of the old King; they all witnessed the agonies of his death; they all deposed the affecting scene was closed by embraces and by tears. THE FUNERAL.

The remains of the royal exile will be removed to-morrow morning (Saturday) at an early hour, from Claremont, for interment in the Roman Catholic Chapel of St. Charles Borromeo, Waymouth, four miles from Claremont, and will ultimately be removed to their final resting-place in Paris. The service will be conducted by Dr. Witty, in the absence of Dr. Wemyss, who has gone to Rome, assisted by the Abbé Guille, the chaplain to the household of the deceased, and the local Roman Catholic clergy. The coffins (there are four) have been manufactured by Mr. Chittenden, furnishing under taker, of Greek street, Soho. The inner one, containing the remains, is manufactured of the best Spanish mahogany, lined throughout with white satin, and covered with lead of unusual thickness; the third coffin is also of mahogany, highly polished; the exterior or stave coffin is of the same material, covered with rich black Genoa velvet, thickly studded with silver nails and ornaments, with handles of the same metal, most elaborately chased. On either side are the arms of the house of Orleans, in bas-relief. The plate on the lid is surmounted by a royal crown, underneath which are three fleurs-de-lis, (the arms of the Orleans branch.) The inscription is as follows:—

LOUIS PHILIPPE Ier,
Roi des Français,
Né à Paris,
Le 6 Octobre, 1773,
Mort à Claremont
[Conte de Surrey, Angleterre.]
Le 26 Août, 1850.
The funeral will be as private as possible.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.

The steamer Canada arrived at Halifax, at half-past five o'clock yesterday morning. She left Liverpool on Saturday, the 7th inst.

The steamer Pacific, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on Wednesday forenoon, the 4th inst., at 4 o'clock.

The harvests have all been secured in good order.

No change in wheat or flour—full prices obtained.

The steamer Centria arrived at Liverpool on the 2nd inst.

The Queen is sojourning in the Highlands of Scotland. The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland is making a tour, to ascertain the condition of agriculture. The repeal agitation has been revived, but the attempt proved an abortion.

Marshal Haynau has met with a rough reception in England. He went to visit the great brewery of Barclay & Perkins, when some one employed on the premises discovered who he was, and they commenced an attack upon him. He was assailed by all sorts of missiles, and had his clothes all torn off his back, and it was with the greatest difficulty the Austrian butler made his escape.

The crops had been nearly all harvested, and proved a fair average.

The potato crop is much sounder than was expected.

It was reported that the Chancellor of the Exchequer has determined to advise the abolition of the stamp duty on newspapers, and the duties on advertisements.

LORD JOHN RUSSELL.—We hear that Lord John Russell has taken apartments in Birnam Hotel, near Dunkeld, for a few weeks, during her Majesty's sojourn at Balmoral. Mr. Maule's residence is on the opposite side of the road. The communication with Balmoral is by Blairgowrie and Glenishe—about five hours' ride.

—Perth Courier.

A CROOKED MATRIMONIAL CONTRACT.—It is reported that the King of Denmark, on the 7th inst., formed a matrimonial alliance par la main gauche with a Madlle Rasmussen. The ceremony was performed by the Bishop of Seeland. The lady, it is said, was formerly a milliner, and well known to the corps of officers in Copenhagen. This union is spoken of as being of some political importance, as it is presumed to render the extinction of the royal line of Denmark a matter of certainty.

DEATH OF THE REV. DR. JUDSON.—We are in receipt of a telegraphic communication from the Baptist Mission Room at Boston, conveying the mournful but not altogether unexpected intelligence of the death of the Rev. Dr. Judson, the well known missionary to Burmah. He died at sea, on the 12th of April, nine days from Maulmain. His departure upon the voyage was touchingly described in a letter from Mrs. Judson to his children recently published in our columns. By this calamity an excellent lady, "Fanny Porter," of American literature, is left a widow.

FRANCE.—The death of the Ex-King has crossed much attention. It is said that the dispute in the Bourbon family will be healed, and an effort made to place the Prince de Joinville at the head of the Republic.—The President is on another tour.

DENMARK AND THE DUCHIES.—Nothing important has transpired this week with regard to the two armies.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR.—A Telegraphic dispatch from Berlin, of the 3rd inst., states that the demoficial papers of that date announce, that in consequence of a resolution which the Council of Princes agreed to on the 23rd ult., all the Governments of the League have invited the example, of Prussia in declining to attend or assent to the Austrian federal diet at Frankfurt.

Lord Palmerston addressed another note to the Prussian Cabinet with the view to induce Prussia to join and assist the execution of the Protocol of 4th July. We find that this request has met with a peremptory refusal by the Court of Prussia.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.

The steamer Hibernia sailed from Boston at noon, with 20 passengers for Liverpool and 19 for Halifax. The steamer Ohio sailed to-day for Chagres, with 75 passengers. The representatives of the New York Firemen assembled to-day and passed resolutions of thanks to Jenny Lind, for her munificent donation of $3000 to the Firemen's Fund.

The Turkish Ambassador, Amin Bey, has been at Washington; also Sir H. L. Bulwer, who has been travelling East, and came here to pay his respects to the Governor General of Canada. The excitement of the Jenny Lind Concert last night surpassed its predecessors. Never was there a larger audience gathered together in this city, or on the continent for such a purpose. It is calculated that there were at least 9000 persons present, and their enthusiasm knew no bounds; hundreds were actually on the roof of Castle Garden, trying to get a glimpse through the skylights.

GUELPH HERALD.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1850.

THE QUEEN'S VISIT.

We have Scotch papers to the 4th inst., which are almost entirely filled up with details of Her Majesty's progress from Osborne House to her Highland home at Balmoral. We can only find room for the following summary from the North of Scotland Gazette, of the 3rd inst.:

The Queen is now at Balmoral. In the space of one short week her Majesty pays a visit to her uncle in Belgium; returns to her summer residence at the Isle of Wight; spends a few days there; leaves for the north on the Tuesday; pays a visit of condolence to the family of the late Louis Philippe at Claremont; skirts London; takes luncheon at Wolverton in Warwickshire; speeds onwards in the iron racer, and dines at Howard Castle in Northumberland in the evening; spends Wednesday among the romantic grounds of the Howards; leaves on Thursday for Berwick; opens a railway bridge across the Tweed, which now appropriately bears her Majesty's name; enters her ancient kingdom of Scotland, and arrives at Edinburgh amid the joyous acclamations of her loyal people; spends Friday in the enjoyment of Holyrood and "Auld Reekie"; leaves on Saturday for "St. Johnstone" by rail; passes through the sylvan scenery of Strathmore; drives up the Spital of Glenishe; and through the wilds of Braemar into the pastoral scenery of Crathie; and as the shades of evening begin to gather around the summit of Lochnagar, is comfortably seated with her husband and family in her own Highland home. There for a time, her Majesty will enjoy the sweets of retirement, and freed from the cares and anxieties of public life, realize the happiness of her "ain freidie."

THE CONVENTION.

Ever since the prorogation of Parliament, the organs of the Clear Grits have been urging the public to the adoption of Mr. Peter Perry's scheme of a General Convention of Delegates to frame a new Constitution; and the York County Council have been induced not only to adopt the plan themselves, but to direct their Warden to urge the other County Municipalities to the same course. It would seem, however, from the annexed correspondence, that all are not alike happy in the cause.

—Circular.

WARDEN'S OFFICE, Toronto, Sept. 16, 1850.

Sir, I have the honor, pursuant to a resolution of the Municipal Council of the County of York, to transmit to you a copy of their resolutions relative to the holding a General Convention of Delegates, and have respectfully to request that you will be pleased to lay the same before your County Council at their next meeting, with a view to their united action in carrying out the object of the resolutions.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Your most obedient servant,

FRANKLIN JACKS, Warden Co. of F. L. & A.

To D. Rolin, Esq., Warden Co. of F. L. & A.

NAPASKEE, September 9, 1850.

Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your circular of the 6th inst., transmitting certain resolutions lately passed by the Municipal Council of the County of York, with a request that I would lay the same before our County Council, with a view to their united action in carrying out the objects of the said resolutions.

In reply I beg to inform you that the Council over which I have the honor to preside, (as well as its predecessor the late District Council) has heretofore found quite enough to do in attending to the legitimate business for which Municipal Institutions were established, and I think I may safely predict such will continue to be the case, and that its members have no desire to make a political arena of the Court Chamber, to "strike up constitutional keels," or what appears to be the present object, assist in casting some ones.

You will therefore distinctly understand, that so far as the third resolution relates to me as Warden of those Counties, I decline acting as there requested. I adopt this course, because I am perfectly satisfied no good and sufficient reasons exist for getting up an agitation in our peaceful and prosperous Province, merely to gratify and serve the purpose of a few designing and disappointed individuals, whose objects can only lead to anarchy and confusion.

The institutions of our country, as well as the form of Government, are fortunately placed (I think, however, to those who would not vainly endeavor to overthrow them) upon a just, true, and fair basis; and should our Government for the true being, no matter of what particular party, do wrong, the people have but to apply the proper and constitutional remedy and remove them, and place those in power who will faithfully represent them and carry out their wishes; and to suppose that in this free Province the people cannot trust an Executive Government or Council responsible to themselves with the management of their affairs, without the absurd transposition of these resolutions, appears to me supremely ridiculous.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Your most obedient servant,

D. ROLIN, Warden Co. of F. L. & A.

To F. Jackson, Esq., Warden of York County Council.

It is scarce doubtful that a Convention, of the nature and for the purposes contemplated by Mr. Perry and his party, would be illegal; at all events, the project is better fitted for the meridian of the Republic France, where Constitutions are in continual demand, than for that of any part of the British Empire, the inhabitants of which seem rather tenacious of the old article handed down from their sires, notwithstanding it is somewhat the worse for the wear—not being particularly apparent to them that their neighbors have much improved their polity or social condition by the hundred and one new constitutions they have tried on. It is to be observed, however, that the Clear Grits have no small confidence in the popularity of their schemes, and are thus anxious to put them to the test of public approval, while the old Baldwin and LaFontaine party, and the satellites of the press which still continue to revolve around the Globe are sagely anxious to prevent the meeting of the proposed Convention, least the discordant views of the members should produce more disunion in the Reform ranks; that is to say, resolved themselves to hang in the skirts of the "High Priest of Reform" to the last, they are unwilling the doings of the Ministry should be laid bare by the Convention, and resolutions be adopted which could only be carried out by the pressure from without compelling the present emicible and self-serving set to resign.

CRICKET MATCH.—GALT vs. GUELPH.

On Friday, the Galt and Guelph Clubs had a friendly contest on the ground of the latter. The weather was quite propitious and the proceedings were conducted most harmoniously, and although our townsmen had the fortune to beat their opponents in a single innings, the play of the gentlemen from Galt considering the short time the club has been in existence, was highly creditable.

At the conclusion of the game, the Guelph players entertained their Galt friends at Dinner, in the British Hotel.—A. Turner, Esq., in the chair, F. Maroon, Esq., Vice—when the evening was spent in friendly conviviality.

PROVINCIAL SHOW.

We extract from the Spectator and Globe particulars of the recent Exhibition at Niagara, with such parts of the Prize List as will be most interesting to our readers. It will be noticed that Guelph has well sustained her former reputation for superior horsemanship, Messrs. Howitt, Hodgskin, & Co. having carried off a very fair proportion of the prizes in that class.

From the Hamilton Spectator.

We had the pleasure of attending this annual gathering, at Niagara, on Wednesday and Thursday last, and have no hesitation in saying that it far exceeded its predecessors, in every respect, save, perhaps, in the number of spectators. The weather was delightful, and the good people of Niagara had made extensive and very complete arrangements for the accommodation of their thousands of guests. The show grounds were located on a level plain, commanding a magnificent view of the lake and river, as well as the neighboring American villages. A spot better adapted for the purpose could not be found in the Province, whilst the spacious enclosure itself was arranged in a manner that reflects the highest credit on the local Committee.

We are quite unable to point out the merits of the many articles exhibited, and shall attempt very little in that way, as the prize list subjoined will give those of our readers who were not present a correct account of all that was most deserving of notice.

The arrangements made by the Secretary, Mr. Buckland, and his assistants, were deservedly commended by all, and afforded a marked contrast to the negligence and inattention which distinguished previous exhibitions, ere the society had secured the valuable services of Mr. B.

Commodious stalls for the cattle, &c., were erected around the walls of the enclosure, and we were glad to notice that they were nearly all well filled. The show of stock was unusually large, and has never been equalled in the Province. The sheep were also fine, although not so numerous as might have been expected, and of the hogs, there were many fine specimens.

The array of thoroughbred Stallions was very formidable, and would do credit to any country in the world. The judges, indeed, admitted that they had no trifling difficulty in arriving at a decision as to the merits of the different animals.

Labor saving machines in endless variety were distributed about the grounds, many of which had been sent over by enterprising Manufacturers in Albany and Rochester, and we were glad to perceive that some of these implements commanded the attention of the farmers, and were likely to change hands as soon as they could be spared from the exhibition.

Three or four exceedingly well made cages from an establishment at Drummondville were admired. They were quite equal to anything we have seen on the other side of the lines, and our neighbors are known to be adopting at that description of work.

Commodious tents, which had been made proof against both sun and rain, were filled with mechanical and agricultural productions, and the floral hall, which stood near the centre of the grounds, was fitted up or furnished in a very tasteful and ingenious manner by the ladies of Niagara. We must not omit to notice, however, that the effect of the display was in a great measure destroyed, by an abominable apology for a statue, intended, we suppose, to represent Justice. How a huge, misshapen mass of wood, encased in tin, and dabbed with paint, could possibly find a place among the most beautiful productions of nature and art, is truly unaccountable. There it stood, however, appearing more hideous the longer it was examined.—Otherwise the "floral hall" must have commanded the admiration of the most fastidious. The walls were hung with oil paintings, a few of which were very well executed, engravings, embroidery, fancy netting, and a multitude of useful and ornamental articles, the production of the fair ladies of Canada. The fruit here displayed was very fine, as might have been expected from the reputation enjoyed by the Niagara District. Messrs. Ellwanger and Barry, of Rochester, had also some fine apples on show. The grapes were magnificent. The vegetables were equally deserving of attention, and it will be seen by the prize list that some of the competitors had sent their productions a long distance. Within this hall were some exceedingly well executed specimens of wood graining and imitation marble, from Toronto.

In the Mechanic's hall we noticed some splendid blankets and carpets from the manufactory of Mr. W. Gamble, but there was very little competition in this branch. A large number of stoves, of different descriptions were ranged along the enclosure; but the only specimen which attracted our notice was a hot stove, patented by Mr. Sheriff Rutan, who has devoted a great deal of attention to the ventilation of buildings, and has invented an apparatus for the purpose, which is highly prized by those who have tested it. The stove we are noticing appears admirably adapted for the purpose intended, and we have no doubt that Mr. Rutan will have many orders now that his stove has been brought prominently under the notice of the public.

An enormous quantity of Canadian Manufactured leather was displayed, and appeared to be an excellent article. Some very good harness was also on view, and a few Saddles. The premium for the latter was carried off by Messrs. McGivern & Sullivan of this City. Mr. Brainerd had a dozen of his brooms, in this hall, which appeared to be greatly admired.—They were the very best that we have seen, and will we hope, find their way to the great exhibition of 1851, together with a couple of specimens of splendid walnut from "glorious old Norfolk." Mr. Bleazard, of Hamilton, had a machine for wringing and mangling clothes, which will doubtless come into use generally ere long.

In the Agricultural hall the display was very extensive, as our readers will readily understand when we tell them that there were no less than 27 competitors for the premium for Winter Wheat. The Goro District was, however, once more victorious. It produces as good wheat probably, as is to be met with in the world.—In addition to the large display of the staple article, there was an immense quantity of rye, oats, potatoes, turnips, in fact of everything which the country produces. Some monstrous pumpkins near the door attracted a great deal of attention. They were considered larger than those exhibited at the New York State fair two years ago.

From the Globe.

The display of horses is very large, but the specimens are not of so fine a character as Upper Canada can and ought to produce on such an occasion. There is a goodly array of very useful agricultural stallions—the favorite apparently being The Marquis of Clydesdale, owned by Mr. Somerville of Burford. The matched horses are not first-rate, nor numerous. Mr. Young of Indiana exhibited a very handsome pair of brown carriage horses.

The show of blood horses is good—a three-year old, thoroughbred of Mr. Dickson, M. P., is especially noticeable. A grey horse in single harness, of the same gentleman, is also highly commended.—A trim little donkey attracts a full share of attention.

The show of horned cattle is very large and fine; nothing approaching to it has ever been witnessed in the Province, and many good judges talk sturdily of its comparing with the New Yorkers. Durhams, Devons, Ayrshires and common stock were there in abundance, and not a few remarkable fine specimens. The Durhams are especially numerous.—A pen containing two thoroughbred Durham cows and two calves, and a bull of the same breed, owned by the Hon. Mann Ferguson, drew much notice. The bull calf of six months old is said to be a prodigy. Mr. E. W. Thompson's Durham bull and cow are highly praised, and Mr. Howitt's white bull not less so. Mr. J. B. Ewart's display of Ayrshires is as fine as usual, and even more numerous than on previous occasions. A white grade half-Durham cow is generally commended, and, with the uninitiated, passes easily for a thoroughbred. Mr. Mason's Devon bull is much admired, and Mr. Nightingale's Durham bull. This suspicious of the very fine animal, but suspicious of the thoroughness of his pedigree have heretofore excluded it from competition among the pure Durhams. The stock of the late lamented Mr. Wetenthal is not exhibited. A fat ox, bred by Mr. Vanderlip, of Niagara, attracted all eyes by its prodigious size. It is six or seven years old, and is a perfect monster—3000 lbs. weight.—Two yearling Durhams and two others two years old, from Mr. Howitt's farm, it is said, are all admirable specimens.—Matched oxen are scarce, and but poor. A pair of white steers of Mr. Bates, of Toronto, gained high admiration. Of common cattle there is a very large show, embracing many fine specimens.

The display of sheep is excellent, probably better than ever before seen here.

The Leicesters especially are deserving of notice. Mr. Dickson of Clarke exhibits a very fine yearling ram imported by him from Dumfriesshire. Mr. John Wilson of Oshawa has a pen of first-rate ewes of Cade's blood. Mr. Wm. Miller of Pickering has a splendid ram on the ground, and Mr. Geo. Miller two very fine fat wethers. There are besides several pens of very fine Leicesters, but we could not learn the names of the owners. The Merinos are few in number, but some of them are very good. Good Southdowns are exhibited in abundance. Mr. Spencer of Whitby's pen of this breed is first-rate; he imported the stock two years ago from the Duke of Richmond's farm.

Hogs of the best breeds and in any quantity came next. The specimens are as good as possible—Yorkshires and Berkshires. Those of Robert McNeil of Vaughan, D. Smith of Trafalgar, and Mr. Wheeler of Scarborough, are all that could be desired for their several breeds.

The show of fowls is better than at any previous fair, and there are some very fine birds in it.

The Toronto Globe must certainly be edited by an Irishman, for it is always replete with blunders. That paper of Saturday announces that the "Ambassador of his Imperial Majesty of Haverly, (the black king) had arrived at New York, and landed under a salute of 17 guns." &c. The Globe undoubtedly refers to the arrival of the Turkish Ambassador, Amin Bey.—Rochester Daily Advertiser.

The tickets for her Concert which took place on the evening of the 17th inst. were all sold at 9 o'clock that morning, and the excitement in the city continued unabated.

JENNY LIND'S SECOND CONCERT.—Five thousand tickets for the second Concert were disposed of at auction, at prices ranging from nine to three dollars. The average being about four dollars per ticket. The New York Herald remarks, that the seats for which $225 were paid the first Concert, brought only $3 at the second Concert.

Perhaps they'll have enough of it before they get through.

With such inducements to individual exertion, and such incentives to an excited and patriotic zeal, as are given in the desire to secure to the Province the high position to which it is entitled amongst the Colonies of Great Britain, the Commissioners feel assured that the result will be such as occasion merits.

The Commissioners accordingly rely with confidence upon the energetic co-operation of all classes competent to aid and promote the undertaking, by which co-operation alone can the Commissioners hope to bring it to a successful and honorable issue.

Prize Lists may be obtained by application to the Mayors of Cities and Incorporated Towns, the Wardens of Counties, or to the Secretary of the Commission.
By Order of the Commissioners,
FRED. CUMBERLAND,

Poetry.
There is not a Scotchman, 'fron Maideukirk to John o' Grant's," to whom Mickle's "Nae luck about the house," one of the most heart-affecting pictures of domestic love ever pened, is not as a household word; nor are there many Scotchmen or the descendants of such in other lands, by whom it is unknown or unappreciated.
It may not, however, be of equal notoriety to our readers, that the only son of the talented author, (C. J. MICKLE, Esq., the zealous promoter of every good work,) has been for many years President of the Guelph Total Abstinence Society, helping onward with heart and hand that great moral reformation. At the opening of the New Temperance Hall here on the evening of the following stanzas were sung by the Choir, in compliment to the venerable President of the Society, who occupied the Chair on the occasion.

NAE LUCK ABOUT THE HOUSE.
[SOLD WATER EDITION.]
And has my Colin ta'en the pledge?
And are ye sure it's true?
There's nae a blyther wedded wife
This night in Waterloo.
I wat there's few mair leal or free
Than Colin in the lae;
It's only for the "barley bree"
I'd fa' my ain gudeman.
CHORUS.
For there's nae luck about the house,
There is nae luck ava;
There's little pleasure in the house
When Alcohol gie's law.
When Colin dwalt by Benvenue,
In days o' auld lang syne,
He'd seldom prie the "mountain dew"—
A wao drap at a time.
But wae betide this country side!
At ilka kin o' work—
In barn or field, or harvest field—
It's gog frae drap to dark.
The frost may tak' the bairnies' tees,
The wives may tak' the gees;
Though both be neat o' meal an' claes,
The men mean ha'e their spees.
The weary gog pits folk a' fey,
Keeps ilk thing in a stour;
There's never peace for half a day,
Nor shift for half an hour.
But a' things nae will tak' a turn,
My heart's aboon ane an' a;
I'll press the card, an' ca' the chura,
That Colin we'd may fare.
The rot will spore the tates nae,
The wae'f' rust the wheat;
Nor Colin a'er again get fae,
Nor Joan ha'e cause to greet.
CHORUS.
We'll hae nae luck about this house
As Speed side never saw;
We'll thrive an' fast an' love an' crooze,
Non Alcohol's awa'.

Miscellaneous.
From the Niagara Mail.
The Grand Temperance Demonstration at the Niagara Falls.
A few months ago the first Division of the Order of the Sons of Temperance was opened in this District. And since that time the Order has been spreading rapidly, so that there are now between fifteen and twenty Divisions organized with upwards of one thousand members, pledged to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors, or from dealing or trafficking in the same. And in addition to the Sons, there are also numerous associations of the Daughters of Temperance, in our opinion a more important branch if possible than the Sons. For the children of the present day must soon take the places of the men, and how important is it to have correct habits formed in the morning of life! And it may be confidently predicted that the next generation, will see a great change for the better in the morals of the people. But of the demonstration.
The weather was most propitious on the morning of the third, and the heavy rains of the previous Sunday had laid the dust, and cooled the air. The Niagara Division—many of the brothers accompanied by a "daughter," formed in procession in carriages near Butler's Barracks, about 8 in the morning. The popular Rife Band (kindly placed at the disposal of the General Committee by Col. Muter) taking the lead in a mammoth music wagon prepared for the occasion by the Niagara Division. Then followed the Banner, the several officers and brethren. The party then drove through town, and took the St. Davids road, many carriages joining in the country. Just before we arrived at St. Davids the Thorold and St. Catharines party passed up the mountain, with beautiful banners. When we got on the mountain top we found the road as far as could be seen completely filled with vehicles, from the four horse coach to the bachelor's sulky. It was necessary that old Niagara should go ahead of St. Catharines, just then, as she had the Band, and after a great deal of exertion the Marshalls of the day, got the advance party to halt, and at the wide part of the road in the beautiful Village of Stamford our party managed to go by, the Band playing, the ladies smiling, and waving their handkerchiefs as we went along, occasionally a more than usual crusty Saint shaking his head at us and trying in vain to look sour, their mouths however in general wearing a smile in spite of them. Our comrade declared that he had seen "some pretty gals in his day in the old world, but never so many in a flock, as the St. Catharines and Thorold parties ha' brought along." He hasn't seen half the District yet either! When we arrived at Drummondville, we found that most of the District Divisions had arrived. A party of the Order from Buffalo, with the Buffalo City Band having also come in a boat chartered for the occasion. There was likewise a Division of the Order from the American side of the Falls, with representatives from the several Divisions of the American frontier, and a company of the Order of the "Temple of Honour." About 12 o'clock the various Divisions were marshalled on the green opposite the Pavilion Hotel, each having its banner floating in the breeze. Some of the Divisions carrying their Charter, before them. Here could be seen our own glorious Union Jack, the golden Eagle, on the banner of the Americans. On the very spot where the Eagle and the Lion had a few years ago met in deadly conflict, might now be seen the banner of the Angel of Peace. In that procession were men of all creeds, countries and shades of politics, united in bonds of brotherhood that will not be easily broken! The procession soon began to move, the several Bands playing, when after marching through the principal streets of the beautiful village of Drummondville, the party proceeded to the grove, where the speeches were to be delivered, and where dinner was prepared. Thirteen tables each 75 feet in length, were groaning under the profusion of good things tastefully arranged by the ladies, and it was pretty evident that they had formed no inconsiderable part of "the committee of preparation and arrangement." After the tables had been attended to, there was a general movement toward the speaker's stand. Seats had been prepared for the ladies, in front of the stand, which were speedily filled. The Rifle Band was stationed on the right of the speakers, and at intervals, enlivened the exercises by soul-stirring strains. After the Chair had been taken by Duncan McFarland, Esq., M. P., the Rev. Mr. Hewson opened the services by prayer. Messrs. Barnham, D. G. W. P. of the Niagara District, Prof. Segur and J. C. Winterbottom addressed the people. We regret we were not prepared to report Professor Segur's able speech. It is truly refreshing to listen to men of his stamp. We came away early in the evening, and cannot therefore give further details. Suffice it to say, that every body seemed highly delighted with the day's proceedings, and the Sixes may well be proud, when they reflect that although only in their infancy, as yet, their first demonstration is acknowledged by all, to be greater than ever came off in the District. There is a heaven-born and glorious cause. Engaged as they are in shielding, uplifting and bettering man, the blessing of God must go with them. It is a glorious work to be engaged in, the work of spreading the blessing of Temperance, and every good man in our land should make himself acquainted with the principles by which the fraternity is governed, and if he is convinced that it is a good institution let him join it, and perhaps by the influence of his example cause the blessings of Sobriety to be enjoyed in the now cheerless houses of those whose strong drink is fast hurrying to the doubly dark doom of the drunkard. But Temperance will prosper. And although the laws of our land smile on intemperance and encourage it, altho' those who should be friendly, go Levitic-like, by on the other side, when invited to assist in the raising of the downtrodden, and although the usages of society and the force of habit may crush Temperance to the earth, yet as Hers is the cause of Eternal Truth she will rise above all opposition.

We should have mentioned that there were several Clergymen in the procession in full regalia of the Order. It is calculated that there were between six and seven thousand persons at the Falls on the occasion. The only drawback to the pleasure of the Niagara Division, was caused by the illness of their worthy Patriarch, H. P. Hart, who would have, we are certain enjoyed himself had sickness not prevented his attendance. We are happy to say that he is now recovering rapidly.

Fire-Proof Point.—A little book setting forth its excellencies, with an account of its discovery, extraordinary qualities, &c., &c., has been published in New York. The following is the account given of the discovery of the article:—"About two years ago, near the town of Akron, Ohio, a singular substance was discovered at the bottom of a brook, resembling in its character and appearance, flakes of the purest indigo, and of the consistency of hard clay or soft tallow. This was at first regarded with but little interest, until some individuals attracted by its singular qualities and appearance, were induced to make some experiments with it. Subsequent to this, however, it was also found to exist in greater quantities at some considerable depth from the surface of the earth, and being taken from the mine and exposed to the atmosphere, it became completely indurated, resembling slate or lumps of Anthracite coal. This was finally ground and mixed with linseed oil, and applied as a paint, and it was wholly hardened until it changed to stone, perfectly protecting the substance it covered from moisture and fire. Experience soon showed that it was also susceptible of a beautiful polish. Coming to the notice of some intelligent men, who were desirous of testing its real character, it more than realized their expectations, and exceeded all that had been reported concerning its merits.
The Bile and the Buffet.—Our friend, James Beaty, of Leather and Road note, publishes in the Patriot of Tuesday, an advice to "Bachelors and others," to which is appended the following racy nota bene:—"The Globe will give the above three insertions, although 'no great admirer of it in any shape."
There is something at once novel and refreshing in this method of criticising the public press. One advantage results from the practice, that it will in many cases secure for the straggler a patient and meek hearing. In these hard times, few publications will be rejected because they are not overly clean. We need hardly add that the Globe eat its leek in silence, and published the advertisement without note or comment. The worthy editor, doubtless, remembered the honest Caledonian saying—"Smie a dog with a bone, and he will not howl!"—Streetsville Review.

NEW BOOT & SHOE ESTABLISHMENT.

GEORGE GOW & JAMES BENZIE (lately in the employ of Gow & Orme) respectfully announce to the inhabitants of town and country, that they have commenced business in the above line, in Wyndham Street, immediately opposite Mr. Daniel Linderman's Blacksmith Shop, under the firm of "Gow & Benzie."
As G. & B.'s Boots and Shoes will be entirely of their own workmanship, or manufactured under their immediate inspection, they believe the quality will be such as to insure a preference over Imported Sale Work, though offered at lower prices.
Long experience in some of the best shops in the Metropolis of England, by one of the firm, enables them to offer
Gentlemen's Dress Boots of a style and quality which have never been surpassed in Guelph; and the long practice of the other in Ladies' Dress Boots gives them good grounds to anticipate a liberal share of public patronage.
STRONG BOOTS AND SHOES, of all sizes, and of the best material and workmanship, made to order.
LEATHER AND PEGS by Retail, for Cash only.
HIDES and TALLOW taken in exchange.
