TORPEDO DESTROYER WAS SUNK WHEN IT HIT GERMAN MINE

Story of German Loss on August 5—Big Battle is Expected in The Baltic—Reports of the Fighting.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Aug. 12, 9.30 a.m.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "It is ascertained that the German torpedo boat destroyer, which was reported to have been sunk by the explosion of one of her boilers off South Gedeser on August 5, really was destroyed by a mine laid by a German warship. "The Danish and Swedish steamers, it is reported, ceased running as a result of information that the Germans had laid contact mines in the North Sea. "The Russian commander of the fortress of Sveaborg, Finland, has ordered all the inhabitants of that place and Helsingfors to leave, as a battle or a bombardment is thought to be imminent.

GERMAN ACCOUNT. LONDON, Aug. 12, 9.10 a.m.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at Rome says that a despatch from Berlin gives an official statement by General Von Stein regarding the siege of Liege. The German commander denies the loss of 20,000 men, but does not give figures of his losses. He says that only a small number of German troops were engaged, in order to mask the movements of the bulk of the army. The enemy's advance attacking force, he says, was completely annihilated, and while admitting that the forts are in tact, explains this by saying: "The Emperor did not wish to sacrifice life unnecessarily, but so soon as the heavy artillery arrives the forts will be taken without the loss of a man." General Von Stein admits that the capture of the forts is a difficult problem because of the unfavorable ground about them, and further because the population of the town, including the women, shot at the German troops from behind, firing indiscriminately, hitting the surgeons and the wounded. The German commander concludes with the remark that "it must not be forgotten that the Belgian force is numerically superior to ours."

AEROPLANE OVER BRUSSELS. BRUSSELS, Aug. 11, 10 p.m.—Via Official Report, Aug. 12, 6.50 a.m.—An official report states that communication has been restored with Landen, a village in the province of Liege, seven miles southeast of Tirlmont. The Belgians blew up several bridges at their front in that vicinity, which gave rise to the report of an artillery engagement. No news has arrived showing that such an action took place. A German aeroplane flew over Brussels to-day at a height of 2,000 feet. Civil guards fired several shots at the airship, but they fell short. There is no fear regarding the food supply of Belgium.

An earlier despatch from Brussels said that German troops had seized the station at Landen, and after driving out the railway employees burned the building.

Graphic Story How The Germans Entered Belgium

[By Special Wire to the Courier] NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The New York Tribune publishes the following cable from the Maastricht correspondent of the London Standard: "Fugitives from the German army, operating against Liege have given me details of the advance into Belgium and the attack on Liege from the invaders' point of view. They belonged to a detachment which was overpowered by Belgian cavalry and fled into Holland to escape capture. "They were disarmed by the Dutch, and I understand they intend to emigrate to America. They have had enough of campaigning and a country in which militarism is rampant. Here is the story of the march on Liege as related to me by the most intelligent one: "We went by train to Herbenthal, the last German town, the outskirts of which touch the frontier. We travelled in open goods trucks and the journey was like a triumphal progress, everywhere acclaimed by the people. Old men came out to bless us, and women and girls passed alongside the train in stations, encouraging us with kind words and more substantial gifts of food and drink. "At Herbenthal we took to the road and advanced into Belgian territory. On the frontier itself there was absolutely no resistance, though I believe a few stray shots were fired at our cavalry scouts who preceded the main body. "After occupying the first Belgian town at Lamburg, where locomotives and rolling stock were found, we continued our advance to Verviers, which was cleared of Belgian troops by our cavalry before our arrival. The inhabitants of Verviers watched our march into the town with terror, withdrawing into their houses and peeping from behind closed shutters, evidently fearing we would commit outrages. "Nothing of the kind happened and we marched to the offices of the municipality and tore down the Belgian flag, which was replaced by a German flag amid the cheers of our men. A proclamation of the annexation of Verviers and the district was read in French outside the town hall and posted in all parts of the place. Martial law was proclaimed and the residents were warned that any resistance to the German military authorities would be punished by summary execution. "A German officer took over the administration of the town and began requisitioning food and other supplies and various kinds of substance for the German troops. His orders were carried out meekly, even zealously, by the citizens of Verviers, who told some of our men quartered in the houses that they had received instructions from Brussels to offer no opposition. "Among the regulations enforced, was one compelling the townspeople to be within doors by sunset and not leave their houses before sunrise. They were forced to find quarters for our men and hand over the bread from the bakeries, which were kept working day and night, also to yield stored meats, groceries and eatables of all kinds to such an extent that the Belgians themselves were left in a sorry plight. Any kind of violence against the civilian inhabitants was

NO ENEMY STRONG ENOUGH TO MAKE ENGLISH INVASION

British Fleet is Bulwark of Strength in Time of Need—How Naval Expert Sizes Up the War Situation.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—In a cable from London, the New York World quotes Archibald H. Hurd a naval expert, writing for The Daily Telegraph as follows: "Whatever change has occurred in the last few days in the naval and military situation certainly does not weaken the arguments as to the impossibility of an invasion of England. "An invasion across the North Sea must be preceded by a battle in the North Sea and a German victory. Only a sailor can appreciate the obstacles in the way of such an adventure, carried out in the face of a superior naval force. It involves the enemy handicapping his fleet with large numbers of transports crowded with soldiers. "If small and of light draught the transports could approach fairly close to the point of disembarkation, but such small vessels can carry only a few men. Should large transports be employed, large numbers of troops can be carried, but these vessels must keep well off shore during the process of disembarkation, owing to the depth of water they should draw. "With every port on the English coasts guarded by land and sea, it is difficult to perceive what object could be served by landing a few thousand German troops in a country which has over half a million men under arms. "Such an adventure would not cause more than a temporary panic in the district directly affected, and this speedily would give place to a feeling of confidence, that in a very short time the invaders would be shot down or captured. "Nevertheless, it is possible that such raids might be attempted, because many Germans believe that if one or more of them were successfully carried out and troops landed on the British coast, a feeling of panic would thereby be created in this country which would have an appreciable effect here and on the continent."

GERMAN SHIPS NOT FAR FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Two Cruisers Sighted by Merchant Vessels Arriving in Port.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—Captains of several vessels making port here stated positively that they had both the German cruisers Leipzig and Nurnberg at a distance of 30 miles of the Farallon Islands yesterday. The Nurnberg was supposed to be in the Far East. At 2.30 p.m. yesterday the British Barque Colony spoke to the Nurnberg, twenty-five miles south of the Farallones, her captain said. The captain of the fishing tug Henrietta also reported sighting the Nurnberg at the same time and place. Capt. R. E. Corey of the fishing tug Pedro Costa, said he passed between Nurnberg and the Leipzig at five p.m., sufficiently near the Nurnberg to head her name on the stern. At this time the Nurnberg and Leipzig were about thirty miles apart, the Nurnberg being within five miles of the Farallones, which are thirty-five miles due west of San Francisco harbor.

Captain Anstruther Nann of the British Bark Colony, which arrived at this port to-day in ballast from Cruz Grande, Chile, reported that he passed close to the German cruiser Nurnberg, about twenty-five miles south of the Farallones Islands yesterday. Captain Mann said he was in communication with Captain Schoenberg of the hostile warship through a megaphone, and that when the German learned the sailing vessel was without cargo he was given permission to proceed to San Francisco. The Canadian cruiser Rainbow and the sloops Shearwater and Algerine are supposed to be in these waters.

RAIN A BLESSING HAILEYBURY, Ont., Aug. 12.—A heavy rain yesterday extinguished all the bush fires in the north. The rain was the heaviest that has fallen this year.

SHIPPING IS TIED UP AND MEN SUFFER

New York Will Have 12,000 Unemployed to Look After Unless Change Ensues.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—At a special meeting to-morrow of the New York Chamber of Commerce, a special committee appointed to consider means for opening up export trade will make its report. The committee has held conference with merchants and bankers by many of whom it has been contended that the risk of shipment to European ports is not so great as has been supposed. It was generally believed by the committee members and others that the shipping situation would be relieved in a few days. The piers of the Hamburg-American and the North German-Lloyd lines in Hoboken, N.J., where several liners of each company are tied up as a result of the war, there is a general suspension of work. It is estimated that 5,000 longshoremen are out of employment and 200 teamsters and about 1,000 freight handlers have been discharged by the large steamer companies. Business in the shipping district of this city is also at a standstill. The poor commissioner of Hoboken estimated to-day that of the 5,000 men employed on the piers while they are in full operation, 3,000 live in that city. This means, he said, that about 12,000 persons would have to be provided for by the city unless the shipping situation was speedily relieved.

FULL WAGES FOR THE SOLDIERS AT THE FRONT

"That is the Way to Win," Says Churchill of Generosity of English Employers.

LONDON, August 12.—The Corporation of the City of London and the best class of English employers are giving full weekly wages during employees absence on foreign service. Others are giving half pay. The promise of reinstatement after the war is general. Many firms are providing a maintenance allowance for wives and children. When Winston Churchill learned these details he replied: "This is the way to win."

INFUX OF LABOR TO AMERICA WILL GET A SET-BACK FOR YEARS

Unskilled Workmen Will be at a Premium on Account of the War—Heads of Corporations are Greatly Worried.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The falling off in steerage passengers from abroad last week, as compared with the same week a year ago, was 300,069, which, according to steamship agents and contractors, means a corresponding decrease in the supply for the labor market. Should the war continue any length of time, the impression prevailed that unskilled labor will be at a premium for some time to come. Already the heads of corporations employing large forces of laborers, contractors and city officials engaged in public works are worried over the effects of the European war on the labor market. It is generally conceded that immigration for a year or more will be seriously affected by the war, which will work hardships on that class of laboring men in Europe who are most needed here for sub-way and other construction work. These men are bound to suffer, it is said, because the war will close industries and without wages the peasants cannot save the money necessary to pay their passage to the United States. Of the immigration to this country last year more than a third came over in the steerage. The immigrants represented all nationalities, the greater number coming from those parts in France, England, Germany, Belgium and Holland, which are now practically closed to commerce. The port of Rotterdam at last reports was open, but the difficulty in reaching that city from other parts of Europe is such that the immigration from there will be inconsiderable.

LUSITANIA NEAR HOME. NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The Cunard Lusitania which left here at 1 o'clock last Wednesday morning for a dash across the Atlantic reached Fastnet approximately 300 miles from Liverpool between 8 and 10 o'clock this morning. Cunard line officials announced that they had received cable advices from Liverpool to this effect to-day. She should reach Liverpool to-night. CREAM OF SERVICE TORONTO, Aug. 11.—The very cream of ex-service men in the city are being chosen to make up the 400 that Toronto is asked to send the Princess Patricia. Eight hundred very best men are accepted. Every one of them has been active service in India, South Africa or elsewhere, and is in the pink of physical condition. Men under 5 feet 8 inches are refused.

Prospectors Will Be Taken Care Of

[By Special Wire to the Courier] HAILEYBURY, Ont., Aug. 11.—Every prospector who enlists for service in the Canadian contingent will be fully protected regarding assessment work by an order in council of the Ontario legislature. A wire was received last night assuring every claim owner of this recognition. Scores of prospectors and claim owners who had assessment work falling due will now enlist in the volunteers for active service. Hon. Mr. Heart wired from Cochrane as follows: "The government of Ontario deeply appreciates the patriotism of the prospectors of Cobalt and Haileybury as evidenced by their desire to serve the empire in this, her supreme hour of trial and all necessary extensions of time for performance of assessment work will be granted to enable prospectors to carry out this very laudable desire." A general extension of three months on all assessment work on mining claims is also being asked, owing to the financial stress in which the country is now hovering. This is now being taken up by Mr. Hearst and will likely be granted. It will apply on all mining claims in Ontario. More than two hundred volunteers have enlisted in Cobalt, Haileybury and New Lis-bord for active service and if a second call were made hundreds of miners and prospectors are ready to serve the country. The enlistment closed yesterday and the volunteers expect to leave for Quebec on Wednesday.

THROUGH HEART OF BELGIUM

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13 (via London 11.20 a.m.)—The German army is being detached from its position before Liege and is advancing through the heart of Belgium. The main body of the German cavalry is engaged in a forward movement all along the front of the allied armies.

MILITIA DEPARTMENT IS INUNDATED WITH THE CANADIAN ENLISTMENTS

From Coast to Coast the Desire is to Fight the Common Foe—Many Americans Would Join the Contingent.

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—The first units of the Canadian contingent for Europe will leave for Val Cartier about the middle of next week. In two weeks the whole division is expected to be mobilized there, as stated by Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia very fast and Col. Hughes stated that the Toronto division alone has furnished enough men for the whole contingent. Dr. Nasmith, city bacteriologist of Toronto, will be in Ottawa to-day to advise the Militia Department as to the water supply at Val Cartier. The Minister states that he has received enough offers from American citizens in different parts of the United States to compose four companies to go to the front. This is in addition to the offer received from Los Angeles, where there are 200 Britishers anxious to fight. Among those who will go with the contingent are Garnet Hughes, of Victoria, son of the War Minister; Hon. Frank Cochrane's son, and a son-in-law of the Hon. A. E. Kemp. On application being made by his son to Col. Hughes, the latter refused to till the consent of Mrs. Garnet Hughes to her husband's volunteering had been secured. Mrs. Hughes wired that she not only consented, but considered it her husband's duty to go. Fine Anonymous Offers Following the offer of an anonymous Montrealer of $500,000, Colonel Hughes to-day received an offer of $100,000 from another citizen, who wishes to remain unknown. It is probable that Sir Robert Borden will establish some system in regard to such offers in the future by which they may be received and utilized to the best advantage. Another splendid offer was that conveyed to the minister last night by Mayor McVeity representing the City of Ottawa. The mayor has offered, subject to the ratification at a special meeting of the city council to be called, that Ottawa will equip a machine gun battery of four guns mounted on rapid motor trucks with steel protective shields. It will cost $100,000, be operated by 30 men and will be equal in effectiveness to a complement of 500 infantry. The capital is the first city in Canada to make an offer of this kind, though other cities have offered to raise infantry. An order-in-council was passed yesterday officially recognizing the regiment to be raised by Hamilton, Gault, of Montreal, acting in conjunction with R. B. Bennett, M.P., of Calgary. A new regiment in Prince Rupert was organized yesterday, while a regiment which has been in

Empire Day At Toronto

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

TORONTO, Aug. 11.—Friday next will be "Hospital Ship Day" in Toronto. The local Daughters of the Empire at their meeting last night decided that they will personally canvass the streets of this city from 8 a. m. until midnight on that day and receive subscriptions to help swell the total of $100,000 required to equip a hospital ship for the British admiralty. Subscriptions amounting to four or five thousand dollars were pledged at the meeting last night in closing twenty-five dollars from a Los Angeles member of the order. Telegrams poured in upon the meeting from all over Canada telling of the activity of the women of the Dominion Representatives were selected to attend the meeting to-night of the local Council of Women, who will then decide what form the contribution of that organization shall take.

Laid at Rest

The Late Mrs. Iowan

The death of Mrs. Joseph Rowan took place in Toronto Friday evening Aug. 7th. Mrs. Rowan was formally a resident of this city, having resided at 23 High street. The funeral took place at Paris, on the arrival of the 3.15 train to the Paris cemetery. The pall bearers were four brothers of deceased, Robert, George, Joseph and John Wall, and C. Bullock, brother-in-law, Paris, and Wm. Louden, nephew, of this city. There was a wealth of beautiful flowers which showed a high esteem in which Mrs. Rowan was held by her many friends. Besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn her loss three daughters, Miss Alice Hawley of 23 Buffalo St., this city, and Miss Nellie and Clara and one son, Fred, the three latter residing at home in Toronto, besides two sisters and four brothers. Much sympathy will be extended to these friends in their sad bereavement.

Lawn Tennis

Bell View first team performed excellently yesterday when they defeated two Toronto cracks in the manner. The game, one of doubles was between W. A. Christy and G. Wood of the Queen City, and R. S. Moyer and J. D. Ansell. Playing great tennis the Bell View members overcame their opponents in two straight sets of 6-3.

The same team, aided by Miss A. Cox and R. Waterous will oppose Terrace Hill on Saturday evening. St. Jude's Tennis Club have an interesting fixture with St. Marys on Saturday. It is to be noted that St. Jude's have not yet met with a reverse (sweeping all before them).

Will Donate Hospital Ship

The women of Canada have found an ally in Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in their undertaking to provide a hospital ship for the use of the Imperial navy during the present war. It was announced at the mass meeting of the Local Council of Women held in Toronto last night that Sir Thomas would contribute the ship and that the women of the country would furnish the equipment for it.

Sir Thomas' gift will represent many thousands of dollars, and the women of Canada propose to supplement it by at least $100,000. Various organizations throughout Ontario are working zealously to raise the required sum, and on Friday they will make their greatest effort to procure subscriptions.

Obituary

Late Mrs. Jane Biggar

The many friends of Mrs. Jane Biggar will be sorry to learned her death last night at Mount Pleasant after a brief illness at Mount Pleasant after a brief illness of four days. The deceased was in her 83rd year, and was the widow of the late John Biggar, a well known farmer of the district. The late lady leaves a large family to mourn her demise.

GERMANS HUNGRY.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—A despatch to the Times from Charleroi, Belgium, describes the fighting of the Germans as altogether lacking spirit. Even the officers are suffering from hunger, according to the correspondent, who adds that two German officers of high rank, captured on the French frontier, said they had nothing to eat for three days.

The Appreciation of Diamonds

More and more diamonds are bought, sold and worn every year. And this in spite of the fact that the tendency of diamond prices is steadily upward.

Which last fact makes the purchase of a good diamond a worth-while investment.

Our diamond display to-day is away above the average. We import our diamonds direct from the cutters and set them in our own workshop.

We are positive we can save you money.

U.S. Consuls Will Protect All Germans

In Canada and Elsewhere—Justice for Those Accused of Spying.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—German citizens in Canada are to receive the same protection as are British subjects in Germany. Having assumed responsibility for the welfare of these citizens, the state department has sent instructions to all United States consular officers in Canada to look after the Germans and Austrians there precisely as it has sent similar instructions to the embassies in London, Paris and St. Petersburg. Absence of an American diplomatic representative in Canada, obliged the state department to address itself directly to its consular officers.

It is expected that American diplomatic and consular officers everywhere save in the few neutral countries, are going to be very busy in extending protection to hundreds of unfortunates who are being denounced as spies, it is said, merely because they happen to speak the language of the enemy. No doubt is felt here that every effort will be made to secure justice for every person so accused.

MILITIA DEPARTMENT GERMANY AND BRITAIN CENTER

Through U. S. Ambassador Over Treatment of Merchant Ships.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Gazette today publishes the details of the negotiations between Great Britain and Germany regarding the status of their merchant shipping in ports of the enemy.

A despatch from Berlin received here yesterday said that the German and British Governments had requested the United States to intervene in Berlin for the purpose of fixing the time in which the merchantmen of the two countries must quit the ports of the enemy.

From the matter published by the 'Gazette' it appears that Germany on August 4, proposed to the British Government the mutual liberation of interned ships. A reply to the proposal within forty eight hours was requested.

Apparently no reply was made to the German communication, but the British Government through the United States Ambassador Page, made known to Germany the decision of this government regarding the treatment of enemy ships and asking whether this would meet the views of Germany.

The negotiations continued through the intermediary of the American ambassador at Berlin and Stockholm, but no communication was received from Berlin and the British Government has no knowledge of the treatment being accorded to British ships and cargoes in German ports.

German Fleet to Take Offensive

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The military expert of the Times deduces from the latest copy of the Lokalanzeiger received in London that the German navy is about to take the offensive in co-operation with the army against England, and warns his readers to prepare for a desperate enterprise on the part of the German fleet, both from the North Sea and the Baltic. He anticipates that the attempt will be made within a fortnight.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Look Years Younger! Try Grandma's Recipe of Sage and Sulphur and NoJody Will Know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the faded, straggled or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

South Africans Support Britain

LONDON, Aug. 12.—A Cape Town despatch to the Morning Post shows that Dutch leaders there are intent on supporting the Imperial Government in the present crisis. A meeting, attended chiefly by Dutch Afrikaners, sent to General Botha a despatch to the Imperial Government a resolution declaring that the local Afrikaners could be depended upon to defend the Union Jack to their last cartridge.

The convenor of the meeting stated that he himself had been a rebel and that many of those present had also been rebels. The union with Great Britain suited them so well that they would shed the last drop of their blood for the British flag and for South Africa. He added that the ex-rebels in Aliwal wanted the Germans to know that Britain could firmly rely on them.

The proceedings began and ended with the singing of the National Anthem and "Rule Britannia," a thing almost unheard of in Aliwal North.

Von der Horst, most prominent of Hertzogites, has issued a manifesto expressing the readiness of his party to support the Imperial Government in order that the cause of right should prevail.

The Royal Edward sailed from Montreal with 500 French reservists on board.

A WAR MAP.

Realizing the fact that during the war an up-to-date map is one of the necessities in order to intelligently follow the trend of events, the Courier at an early period of hostilities wired Rand, McNally & Co. of Chicago for copies of a "war map" which they have just issued.

It will be the best and latest production of the kind on the market, for the firm is recognized as producing the best maps in the world.

The first consignment is expected in a day or so. Further particulars will be given later.

THE SITUATION.

The German advance along a front of about 60 miles means that very heavy fighting may be expected between them and the French forces in a few hours. Russia, which is always more or less lethargic before getting into action, has now commenced to take action. The rank and file, once they get going, are splendid and obstinate fighters. They demonstrated their qualities in the Crimea, when for nearly two years they stood off the combined forces of Great Britain, France and Turkey. The siege of Sebastopol alone took eleven months before there was capitulation.

One feature in connection with the trifling naval events thus far recorded is the excellent gunnery of the British. It only took four shots to sink the German cruiser which was laying mines, and details of the destruction show that two shots did the business. The first hit the periscope, which showed just above the water. It was shattered, and the boat, which thus became blinded, had to come to the surface, and was promptly sunk by another splendidly-placed shot. The rest of the flotilla then fled.

Canadian patriotism is still aflame from one end of the Dominion to the other, and without question will remain so. Here, as in all the overseas dominions everything has been spontaneous. There has been no drafting by the Mother Land, or anything else of that nature, but a whole-hearted rally by the children of John Bull to his side. Never before was such an Empire spectacle presented to the world.

And while many go to the front, those of us at home have a plain duty. It is to see that those depending on the brave defenders are looked after in proper style during the absence of the bread-winners. Not one of them should leave with any misapprehension in that regard. Only yesterday the Mayor was able to reassure one man summoned to report at once for service in the respect named, and later he will call a meeting so that the whole matter can be taken up on a comprehensive plan.

A UNITED FRONT.

The following is taken from a late London exchange. "When the orders for the second reading of the Irish Amending Bill were reached, the Speaker announced that the Prime Minister desired to make a statement; but, although the Standing Orders of the House did not provide for discussion, he thought that owing to the exceptional occasion, no doubt, the House, anxious to hear what he had to say, would waive the rules of procedure.

The Prime Minister, reading from a carefully prepared typewritten statement, said:—"I do not propose to make the motion that stands in my name. I bring to the notice of the House that we meet here to-day in a crisis of gravity almost unparalleled in the experience of every one of us. The issues of peace and war are hanging in the balance, and with the risk of catastrophe of which it is impossible to measure either the dimensions or the effect.

"In these circumstances, it is of vital importance, in the interests of the whole world, that this country, which has no interest of its own directly at stake, should present a united front, and act with the authority of an undivided nation. If we were to proceed to the second reading of the Amending Bill we should inevitably, unless the debate was conducted in an artificial tone, be involved in acute controversy with regard to domestic differences whose importance to ourselves no one in any quarter of the House is disposed at this stage to deny.

"I need not say more than that such use of our time at such a moment might be injurious, and lastingly injurious, in its effect on the international situation. I have had the advantage of a consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, who, I know, shares the views which I have explained.

"We shall, therefore, propose to put off for the present the consideration of the second reading of the Amending Bill, without prejudice for the future, in the hope that by postponing discussion the patriotism of all parties should contribute to the utmost of our power, if not to avert, at least to circumscribe, the conflict that threatens the world."

Mr. Bonar Law said: "As the Prime Minister has informed the House, it was with our concurrence that he has made the suggestion we have heard."

"At a moment like the present even those of us who do not share the secrets of the Cabinet feel that the state-ments of the Prime Minister is true, that peace or war may be trembling in the balance, and I think it is of the utmost importance that it may be made plain to everybody that whatever our domestic differences may be, they do not prevent us presenting a united front in the councils of the world.

"I would like to add, in order that it may be plain to the outside world, that I speak not only so far as I am entitled to speak for the Unionist party, but for Ulster, with the concurrence of the right honorable gentleman the member for Trinity College (Sir Edward Carson)."

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

GLORY AND GOODNESS.

We can't all rise to shining heights of glory, if we can make our lives all hunkydory, and worth the while, if we will but be good. The lust for wealth bespeaks the spirit's blindness; when I am dead I'd rather have folks say, "His heart possessed the milk of human kindness," than have them speak of scads I put away. A little fame too often makes us hangy, makes us forget that we've but common mud, and we swell up, until becoming dotty, we take a fall, and make a sick'ning thud. When we've success in sordid worldly matters, we feel contempt for all the one who fail; we view with scorn the poor man's rags and tatters, and heedless hear the hungry orphan's wail. We waste our lives in tawdry triumphs winning, for useless gawds we strive and toil and grind; and even now, as at the world's beginning the kind heart beats the proud and mighty mind. Let us be good, be kind, oh man and maiden, let us be true, and squarely play the game, and we'll stack high among the hosts of Aiden, and that will beat your little Hall of Fame.

WALT MASON.

HOCH DER KAISER!

Rear-Admiral Coughlan, of the United States navy, who has just retired, will be chiefly remembered because he recited "Hoch Der Kaiser" at a dinner of the Union League Club a couple of years ago, and almost created international complications by doing so. The verses are as follows: Der Kaiser von das Fatherland Und Gott und I all dings command; Ve two—ach! Don't you understand? Meinsel—und Gott!

Vile some men sing der bower divine, Mein soldiers sing "Die Wacht am Rhein." Und drink der health in Rhenish wine Of me—und Gott! PRINCE NOT THERE.

LONDON, Aug. 12, 9.30 a.m.—A despatch from Rotterdam says that the Maasticht correspondent of the Rotterdam Courant has been positively assured by German officers at Vise that the Crown Prince's regiment crossed the River Meuse some days ago without the Prince. A petition may be filed to void the election in South Oxford for the Ontario Legislature.

strictly prohibited, except when we were attacked. Then we had orders to shoot without hesitation in self defence.

"After a few hours the Belgians got over the first fright and fraternized with the invaders as far as possible with a difference of languages. They followed with astonishing rapidity the advance to Liege, the first part of the journey being done by train, but not far.

"Threatening Belgians soon began to tear up the permanent way, so we had to take the road again and march. The use of the railway to send beyond Verviers caused our sudden appearance before Liege.

"Then we went through days of horror. I took part in the earlier attacks on the Belgians defending Liege, and though I am not a coward, the sights I saw and the wholesale slaughter of our men filled me with dread. Again and again we advanced, always in close formation, lying and shooting at an elevation given us by officers, running forward and dropping again on our stomachs, continuing to fire and advancing once more, always nearer, nearer to the lines of our enemy.

"As we pressed forward, our ranks became thinner and thinner. Shells burst among us, killing and wounding, and such wounds were far worse than death itself while the rifle fire of the Belgians mowed down our men in dozens, scores, hundreds.

"Have you ever been under fire, ever pushed forward against the invisible enemy, with comrades dropping either dead or mutilated all around you? Ever seen the effect of human beings? Ever seen heaps of dead and heaps of wounded all mixed together? Ever heard the cries of fallen soldiers who were obliged to leave in their sufferings in order to continue the battle? If not you cannot imagine what we went through at Liege. Some of our attacks were by day and others by night.

their advance into the jaws of death was a sheer impossibility. After the first assaults with their disastrous endings, the spirit of the attackers was broken. Deep depression followed the buoyant charge with which we marched into the enemy's country. The lack of enthusiasm spread through the ranks and retarded success, yet with relentless discipline we were required to hurl ourselves repeatedly at lines which seemed unbreakable.

"Then when only a fraction of our regiment survived, we moved to a different part of the battlefield while fresh troops were brought up to go through the same course of action. It was common talk among our men that hundreds of wounded were left for hours without any kind of adequate attention, for the simple reason it was impossible to reach them without almost certain death.

"Their sufferings were heartrending beyond the powers of description and there were sights and sounds that even amid the din of battle shook our nerves and struck terror to our hearts. The bravest of men may well be full of fear on a modern battlefield.

The young German who told me this tale of war was well educated and refined, a conscript from a middle class family. His companions had similar things to relate. All agreed the courage of the German rank and file was superhuman and they were needlessly exposed to a hostile fire when different tactics would have diminished the sacrifice of life.

The wholesale cremation of bodies of German soldiers killed in the fighting before Liege, also was described by the German fugitives, who have crossed the frontier in Holland. During two or three successive nights after the fearful carnage around the forts of Liege the Germans collected their dead and piled them in heaps of twenty or thirty each.

Officers explained to the men that it was necessary to burn the bodies in order to prevent them becoming a menace to the living and that there was nothing disrespectful to those who had died for their country in this disposing of their remains. A short funeral service was conducted over each heap and military salutes were given by firing parties. In cases where the dead were lying too close to the Belgian forts for this process the bodies were dragged under cover of darkness and pitched into the river Meuse, to float seaward.

Sanitary considerations were not the sole reason for removing the dead as rapidly as possible. German officers realized that the sight of so many victims demoralized the German troops as they advanced to fresh attacks.

BUT TWO SHOTS AND ONE GERMAN SUBMARINE SINKS

Eyewitness of First Naval Engagement Describes the Fight

EDINBURGH, August 12.—The Scotsman yesterday printed the story of an eyewitness of the naval battle between the British cruisers and German submarines in which the submarine U-15 was lost.

The cruiser squadron on Sunday," the story runs, "suddenly became aware of the approach of the submarine flotilla. The enemy was submerged, only the periscopes showing above the surface of the water.

British Cool. "The attitude of the British in the face of this attack was cool and the enemy utterly misled, when suddenly the cruiser Birmingham, steaming at full speed fired the first shot. This shot was carefully aimed not at the submerged body of the submarine but at the thin line of the periscope.

The gunnery was superbly accurate and shattered the periscope. Thereupon the submarine, now a blinded thing rushed along under water in imminent danger of self destruction from collision with the cruisers above.

The Second Shot. "The sightless submarine was then forced to come to the surface, whereupon the Birmingham's gunner fired the second shot of the fight. This shot struck at the base of the conning tower, ripping the whole of the upper structure clean and the U-15 sank like a stone.

"The remainder of the submarine flotilla fled."

A HEAVY LOSS. LONDON, Aug. 11.—10.30 a.m.—A news despatch from Brussels says that it is officially announced that the German loss in Belgium in the recent fighting was 2,000 dead, 20,000 wounded and 7900 prisoners.

A GREAT PRIZE. LONDON, Aug. 11, 4.50 a.m.—A despatch from Lisbon, published in the Times, says that the Hamburg American Line steamer Caportegal, reported captured by a British warship, was taken off Oporto, Portugal, Sunday night. The liner carried $5,000,000 in specie and sailed from Buenos Ayres for Southampton on July 16.

EMPIRE IN THE HANDS OF NAVY. Period of "Watching and Waiting" Tremendous Strain on Officers and Men. MONTREAL, August 12.—Windermere cables the star as follows: London, August 12.—The military correspondent of The Times, who is recognized as an authority, says that Lord Kitchener now has between 500,000 and 600,000 men under arms, counting the national reserves of any troops which may be sent abroad. He adds: "We should, therefore, view the situation with comparative equanimity not to be turned in any resolves by threat of an assault by the German navy. Our navy is ready to strike. These are ideal conditions for us. The recruits for the army are pouring in faster than they can be examined. The critical stage of the war is during the next few weeks."

Strain on the Navy. The Times editorial says in the North Sea our people look towards ships of which they must learn nothing. Any battle for the maintenance of naval supremacy will be a strain upon officers and men alike. During this period of watching and waiting the strain must be intense to know that they hold in their hands the fate of the empire. The nation understands and sympathizes with their dreaded responsibility and believe in them to the uttermost and is quietly convinced that when the great day dawns they will be victorious. The attack by the German submarines on Sunday, when one was sunk and none did any damage, may be a prelude to a larger challenge. The military policy dominates the German navy and the German navy and the main armistice of the foe will soon be ready to strike.

Prepare for Worst. "The public must wait events by sea and land coolly and calmly, ready, if necessary, to hear alarming incidents without excitement, remembering always this world-wide war cannot be rapidly settled, but that with the odds now arrayed against her, Germany cannot hope for ultimate triumph."

SAME OLD COMPLAINT. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 12.—It is announced from government sources that thirty six prominent Russians who spent the summer at health resorts in the south of Germany, including the Countess Vorontzow-Dachwitz of the vicerey of the Caucasus, her two daughters, M. Schebeko, a member of the council of the empire, and other titled personages suffered great hardships at the hands of German officials. According to this report some of these were temporarily imprisoned during their journey to the frontier, which, owing to frequent hindrances, occupied seven days. It is asserted that the aristocratic ladies were roughly handled by police and members of the military.

Courier's New Serial THE STORY OF WAITSTILL BAXTER BY KATE DOUGLAS WIGGINS. There is nothing commonplace or tiresome in the characters which the authoress has made to exemplify the old-fashioned personages in the charming recital of "The Story of Waitstill Baxter." Strength and interest of quiet lives in the New England of three-quarters of a century ago provide the framework—that is, the skeleton—of the story. The flesh and blood of human beings, living and loving in a world of their own that is a miniature picture of the greater world outside, are also there. The story is a cross-section of life as seen and described by a woman who has been well called "America's greatest living woman novelist." Amid the hills of New England are many men and women like Waitstill and Patience Baxter, and their father, Ivory Boynton, and his afflicted mother, and funny Cephas Cole, who woos hopefully, but with small chance of success. They find their way into books but seldom, for it takes a master hand to describe faithfully the doings of real people. That is the reason why "Waitstill Baxter" has won highest praise from critics who know a good story when they see one. "WAITSTILL BAXTER" WILL COMMENCE IN THE COURIER TO-MORROW

CROWDS, HAPPY AND GAY, BUT NOT ROUGH, SWARMED THE STREETS

It was a big, happy good-natured crowd that thronged the downtown streets last evening. Traffic around the market square was completely blocked several times. Confetti and ticklers of a mild form, were in evidence, but both were accepted good naturedly by the crowd. The shows on the market square did a splendid business all evening, and the different booths on the streets were better patronized than on Monday night.

A big crowd gathered at the station to bid good-bye to C. Smith, ex-navy man, who has volunteered for service on the H. M. S. Niobe. Mayor Spence and several of the city's most prominent citizens were present at the depot to bid the volunteer good-bye, while the Dufferin Rifles band dispersed patriotic airs.

The announcement that the calithumpian parade was to take place at 7:30 brought a large crowd out. Shortly after 7:30 the bands of the Dufferin Rifles and the Brant Dragoons assembled in front of the headquarters, on Dalhousie street, and soon there was a great crowd around. The calithumpian parade soon formed up, though there were few entries in it, what there were was good. About fifteen young fellows with blackened faces and wearing grotesque clothing, formed themselves into a colored band, while others secured a drum and decorated it with a clothes reel with the washing out on it.

It is expected that many more will join in the fancy dress parade to night, which will form up on Dalhousie street at the headquarters at 7:30, and headed by the two city regimental bands, will proceed to the armories where valuable prizes will be given.

DARING THIEF ROBBED LOCAL STORE WINDOW

Smashed Glass and Then Extracted Both Money and Watch.

The first robbery of the Old Home Week of any account, occurred last night when some of the prize money and a valuable watch was stolen from the window of Mr. VanLane's Shoe Store window. The large sheet of glass was broken by a huge stone, which was cast aside and through the hole a number of bills were extracted. It was really a very easy, but daring burglary. The constable on his beat passed at 1:30 and nothing was then broken and all was intact. Some time later, Thomas Rees was passing and noticed the hole and the broken glass. He informed the police and they took the matter in hand, but as yet, no arrests have been made. It is peculiar that no one seems to have heard the breaking glass, for it is certain that many people have been lurking around the shows across the street.

Mr. VanLane when he arrived, said that the bills taken, were prizes on exhibition and amounted to $25 in all, besides which there was a $40 gold watch. He did not notice anything else that had been taken.

The stone with which the window was broken, was lying upon the pavement and it is easy to imagine the act of robbery was of the crudest type.

IRISH RESENT ACTION OF N. Y. COMPATRIOTS

Letter Expressed the Hope That Germany Would Triumph Over Great Britain.

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—Strong expectation is taken by Dr. Walter Kennedy, president of the Montreal St. Patrick's Society, to a resolution embodied by the First Regiment of Irish Volunteers in New York last Sunday, expressing the hope that the arms of Germany would triumph over those of Great Britain.

Dr. Kennedy stated that the sentiment of Irishmen throughout Canada was entirely in sympathy with Great Britain in her present situation.

MANY WERE THERE

Industrial Exhibition at the Armories Attracted Great Crowds Yesterday.

Thousands yesterday visited the Industrial Exhibition in the Armories when many exclamations of surprise were heard as the spectators saw things that they had never dreamed could be made in Brantford. Perhaps the willow workers of the right aisle attracted most attention, for their stall was not discernable when the crowd collected to see the basket-makers plying their trade. It was really new to the watchers. The cut glass workers collected a large number of onlookers and they surprised many with the manner in which they handled the bowls, jugs and decanters. The Ham and Nott hive of Italian bees was well surrounded as the attendant explained all and the mattress making wire working machine caused wonderment to many.

All were agreed that the exhibits were astonishing and that Brantford must be in the fore front of the manufacturing cities in Canada.

The first class reservists are likely to be called at any moment, and are expecting any hour a summons to the front. Cobden will both leave immediately, while there will be some fifty or sixty civilians also accompanying them.

SEND OFF GIVEN NAVAL RESERVIST

Charlie Smith was given a rousing send off last night when he took his departure for the front. He is an ex-navy man and has served 10 years in the British navy and had volunteered at the beginning of the proceedings and yesterday he was notified that his immediate services were accepted. The occasion was commemorated by the many friends whom Smith has made since his arrival in the city some three years ago. Mayor Spence was present to give the best wishes of the city, while Norman Andrews spoke a few words of cheer and courage for those gathered. The Dufferin Rifles band was also in attendance and gave Smith a patriotic send off, playing Rule Britannia as the train sailed out of the G. T. R. station.

Smith was quite modest about his leaving and said he only intended to do his duty and do it well.

GOLD AT OTTAWA

Bank of England Will Establish a Reserve in the Capital.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Bank of England has made arrangements through which it will be prepared to receive gold in Ottawa and make payments against it in London. It is not understood that a branch bank will be opened in the Canadian capital, but the gold will be deposited with the Minister of Finance at Ottawa. The effect of the arrangement will be to provide means of remittance from North America to London without the shipment of the gold across the Atlantic.

The plan is capable of extension to other places outside the regions which are under the control or might come to be under the control of the enemy.

They will not depend when encountering war vessels on the guns that they are equipped with, twelve six-inch quick firers, but on their ability to outfoot the enemy. They can weave the liveliest wake ever foaming astern of a merchantman, covering under stress more than 27 knots.

The steering gear and rudders of the twin Cunarders are protected sufficiently to prevent the probability of any ordinary warship doing them harm except at close range. The regular commanders of both slippery ships will be superseded by naval men, but will act as navigating officers, and what a Cunard captain does not know of the Atlantic is hardly worth mentioning.

TIGERS MAUL THE TECUMSEHS

American Leaguers Apply Willing to Three London Pitchers—Score 15-8.

LONDON Aug. 12.—Gen. Hughie Jennings and his celebrated tribe of Belgians among them Sam Crawford, Kavanagh, Veach and others, bombarded, shot up, hammered, smothered, beat up, slammed around, kicked them in the chest; in fact, did almost everything but kiss "Doc" Reising's outrageous Uhlans yesterday afternoon in the ball park in the presence of some of the best people in this vicinity. The score was 15 to 8 to be exact, but nobody cared. There was a big crowd of youth and beauty and fatness on the job, make no mistake, and they went home with their feelings somewhat ruffled. It was a most inhuman slaughter, and will not likely be forgotten.

It is not our wish to pick out any individual who was treated worse than another, but we must put in a word for Cy Reidy. If this boy ever starts in a marathon we will back him for any German silver seeds against anybody in the universe. Cy travelled 647 miles yesterday afternoon on high gear, giving such an exhibition of speed and endurance as possibly has not been equalled since that Greek chase from Thermopylae to tell the folks that company was coming. It was positively cruel, that's what it was, and Jennings actually laughed.

Cobb and Bush Absent. The Tigers came without Ty Cobb and Donnie Bush. Tyrus was injured on Sunday carving some inches of cuticle from his knee with his spikes. As a result the Temperamental cT-r-r decided to remain at home, and grow some more skin on his knees. This may be a good thing for Tyrus but it was rather disappointing to the bugs, who came several miles, some of them, to gaze on his gazelle, or whatever he is called. D. Bush was also an absentee, but outside of these the team was pretty fair.

However Sam Crawford lived up to expectations, and this in part atoned for the absent Georgian. The Wahog Waloper had a great day. He fanned with the bases filled, hit a single, followed it with a three bagger, and when getting the proper range, shot the ball over the right field fence for a real ign George V. home run. The populace were right smart pleased with Sam, and he will carry a hat home, just to show the home folks that he was there.

Long Base Hits Prevail. As an exhibition of long distance clouting the affair was a great success. Nobody seemed to care for singles, but simply slammed the ball so hard that the sign boards in the gardens looked as if they had been bombard- ed. Most of this heavy hitting was done by the Tigers, but the Tecumsehs did some. Whitcraft was the luminary, getting a home run and a two base hit. Nelson got a two base blow and Snyder did the same. Whitcraft fielded brilliantly and Linn- born handled ten chances without a bobble. Lamy, Thomas and Reidy made some fine catches.

The Royal Northwest Mounted Police force is to be strengthened at once by the addition of 500 men, former members to be given the prefer- ence.

WAS A GREAT GAME WITH PHILADELPHIA

Baseball is a Funny Old Sport—World's Champions Won 3-2 After 15 Innings of Real Battling.

In a game scintillating with real baseball, an exhibition affair, with thrills thrown in, which is going some for exhibition games, the world's champion Philadelphia Athletics conquered the Brantford Red Sox Canadian League tail-enders by 3-2, and it required 15 innings to do it. Again, as on Monday, the weather was threatening in the morning, but again Old Sol, high up in the heavens, came to the rescue and cleared things up. A more favorable day could not have been chosen. There were exactly 2451 paid admissions to the game, and the management scarcely broke even, as the books of the park commissioners show, the commissioners' share making a heavy deduction from the total. Every available seat in the grandstand and bleachers was taken, while there was a large crowd gathered on the field and on the fence, besides many in automobiles around the track.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the procession of automobiles, headed by the Dufferin Rifles and Brent Dragoons bands, left the headquarters on Dalhousie street and paraded to the grounds. And the game deserved a good crowd, for no better exhibition game of baseball was ever staged in this province. The general opinion among local fans was that the Red Sox would prove mince-meat for the Athletics, but they were anything but that. The Athletics admit themselves that they have never fought so hard in an exhibition game. And they did fight. There was absolutely nothing appearing like any frame-up to the game. Oldring, the Athletics' left fielder, was heard to remark as he walked out on the field in the eighth inning, that he didn't care who won the game so long as it was finished.

Both teams used two pitchers in the game. Jack Coombs commenced for the Athletics and lasted five innings, when he was replaced by Wyckoff, who finished the game. Coombs is but a shadow of his former self, having recently undergone a severe operation, and this was plainly evident in the five innings that he pitched. During those five innings the Red Sox got to him for six hits, and the only two runs that they scored.

Eddie Taylor commenced for the Red Sox and pitched good steady ball, the Athletics getting only one hit and two runs off him, tying the score, which remained tied until McLinnis brought the winning run in for the Athletics in the fifteenth innings. But to Chase one must hand it. To say that he surprised everyone is putting it mildly. His splendid exhibition of ball puts him in the position of a very likely draft for the major leagues next year. His holding the Athletics scoreless from the time he entered in the seventh until the fifteenth was splendid. The Red Sox lost a good chance to score in the fifth, when, with three men on by three hits, they failed to come across. Chase was backed up by splendid support. Lamond's fine throwing to second, getting two out of three out, was fine baseball. Long, Fried and Roth all fielded splendidly, and one wonder how in the world the same team ever went down to defeat in the morning by Erie to the tune of 7-1. Through Rube being momentarily asleep, McLinnis scored the winning run for the Athletics in the fifteenth. But even at that it was plain that Lamond dropped the ball, and Miller could do nothing else than call him safe.

Collins was out to Nasher, Kopp got caught at first, McLinnis doubled and scored on Strunk's single, thrown late by Rube to Lamond. That is the story of that last inning. For a good live kisser one must hand it to Thomas, who had charge of the team in Connie Mack's absence. Ira sure has the real goods in the kidding line, and he kept the crowd and the players in continued good humor.

Football A REAL GAME

Sporting Editor, Courier. Sir—After the exhibitions of Hooliganism that have disgusted lovers of football in this city recently, it is refreshing to find that the fine old game really can be played here, as it is at home. Those who witnessed the Tutela vs. Duffs game on Saturday have come to this conclusion. This was a match between too strong teams, the struggle was hard, and the laurels went to the victors on sheer merit alone. This is surely infinitely better than one team leaving the field discontentedly, grumbling over "what might have been," or "what should have been." It was undoubtedly one of the cleanest games seen this season. Yours faithfully, 'SPORTSMAN'

BEGINNING TO SOLVE MATHEWSON'S CUNNING

Cards Defeated Giants When Thunderstorm Broke Up the Game.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—St. Louis defeated New York yesterday 3 to 2, in a game which was broken up by a thunderstorm as St. Louis went to bat in the sixth inning. A single by Miller drove in the victor's winning run in the third inning. It was the first time this season that Mathewson had suffered two consecutive defeats. The score: St. Louis 3; New York, 2.

Thirteen Innings no Score. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Boston and Cincinnati played thirteen innings to a scoreless tie yesterday. Ames had the better of a pitching duel with Tylet. Superb support saved the game for the latter. The score: Boston 0, Cincinnati 0.

"Zimny" and Roger Fought. BROOKLYN, Aug. 12.—Brooklyn won from Chicago in the rain yesterday by 3 to 2. The winning run came in the fifth inning on O'Mara's scratch hit, Daubert's sacrifice and errors by Derrick and Saier. Pierce was sent to the clubhouse for talking from the bench and Bresnahan and Zimmerman for engaging in a fist fight. The score: Chicago 2; Brooklyn 3.

Chased O'Toole to Cover. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Philadelphia won yesterday's game from Pittsburgh 5 to 4 by hard hitting. In the eighth the home team drove O'Toole off the rubber, by making four singles before a man was put out. Goveelman took O'Toole's place and a single by Luderus sent in Magee with the winning run. The score: Pittsburgh 4; Philadelphia, 5.

BURRELL AND SCHULTZ HAVE BEEN RELEASED

TORONTO, Aug. 12.—First Baseman Schultz of Pittsburgh and Outfielder "Buster" Burrell were released by the Toronto Canadian League last night.

There will be a double-header between the Beavers and Peterboro' at the Island Stadium on Thursday. Friday has been set apart as ladies' day. The Beavers are making a hard fight to make their first division berth secure. They have many games at home during the remainder of the season.

CIRCUIT CLIPPINGS

Ottawa Free Press: In the motorcycle races at the Toronto Motor-drome on Wednesday night, two riders jostled each other while travelling at the rate of eighty miles an hour. Likewise they kidded one another just as though they were momentarily expecting to see one or the other hurled into the next world.

Beat Ottawa. Throughout the Canadian League circuit is an almost unanimous desire to see London beat out Ottawa for the Canadian League pennant. The one exception is Hamilton where they are so bitter against the Cockneys, they would rather see any team win than Reising's men. Brantford, St. Thomas and Peterboro papers are fairly pleading for other clubs to whale the Senators. Brantford, whose cheese team lost eleven out of twelve to the Cockneys and practically placed London where it is to-day, is yelling hard for London to win the pennant. It will therefore be seen the Senators have their hands chuck full to win out with the opposition they will encounter till the end of the season.

Ottawa Free Press: The report that the Brooklyn National League club has signed young Ollie O'Mara, the sensational shortstop for two years, recalls that Ottawa missed getting this infield phenom last summer, by just thirty minutes. It was at the time the Senators' infield was all busted up and Shaughnessy appealed to Frank Navin of Detroit, for a good man to place at short. The reply came back as follows: "Your wire came half an hour too late. Could have let you have Ollie O'Mara, but turned him over to Erie Haute a few minutes ago." Another youngster whom Louie Cook passed up in the middle of the season of 1912, is now playing regularly with the Chicago White Sox. He is Jimmy Breton, team mate of Frank Smejkal, Fred Herbert and the late Jimmy Louden at the University of Illinois. Cook had the choice of Louden or Breton and took the former.

Big Dolan, the ex-Indianapolis Federal Leaguer, playing first for Peterboro, is reckoned the hardest hitter in the Canadian League. He is also very dangerous in the pinches. Jack White has pinched twice in the recent series with Hamilton and each time cracked out a two-bagger. One scored two runs and the other three.

Lucky for National That First Sackers Need Not Go to War (Ottawa Free Press) If the ball players of German extraction should ever come to the decision to lay aside the bat for the musket and desert the diamond for the real battlefield the National League would be in a bad way for first basemen.

Of the eight first sackers there are seven who would be welcomed in the army of the German Emperor, while the other would have to remain neutral.

United States Scarcity of Tidings To Double Taxes From the Front

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Ways and means will be considered at a conference to be held Thursday for raising revenue for the Government to make up for the deficiency in receipts caused by the cut in Customs resulting from the war. The conference will probably be held at the Treasury Department and will be attended by Secretary McAdoo and Leader Underwood of the House. It was decided that a revenue bill should be passed but the details have not yet been perfected. While none of the officers charged with framing the legislation will talk and coffee. There is no present intention of increasing the rates of the income tax. Returns under this act are not collectable until the close of the currency calendar year. It is admitted now even by such leaders as Underwood, who last week expressed doubt that Congress would not be required to act on a war revenue bill at this session, that such a measure will have to be passed. It may be stated on good authority that the proposed war revenue bill will increase the tax on beer from one to two dollars a barrel; that the internal revenue rates on tobacco products will be advanced and that in all probability the internal revenue rates on proprietary articles will be raised. To what extent these stamp taxes will be applied has not been decided. From the single item of about those in a position to raise the increased rate proposed, just double the amount collected on the product in the last fiscal year. Tobacco products are expected to increase the revenue at least $40,000,000. c

LONDON August 12.—The scarcity of news from the front that there are big events in the making. Nothing comes from Berlin, little from Paris, and less from the War Office here of the movements of the armies. If the French army invading Alsace is making a serious attempt to force through Strasbourg once a battle may be expected near Neubresach, but there is a suggestion in the minds of military authorities that at present a French move in that province has for its chief object the prevention of a concentration of the German troops now there with those which are invading France by way of the gap north of Verdun. If this supposition is true there may be nothing decisive from Alsace until the success or failure of the German invasion of France has been decided. The British War Office says nothing about the whereabouts of the numbers of the British troops which are now in Belgium co-operating with the Belgians and French. It is understood that these are now at or near Namur, preparing to make a stand at that heavily fortified city whenever the German army of the Meuse at last shall have conquered the Liege forts which have held it back for days. Meanwhile it is reported that French and Belgian field armies are seeking to cut off the Germans east of Liege, and a serious conflict is probable in that vicinity. Even less definite news is obtainable about those on land. The closing of the North Sea to British fishermen, the succession of reports that the great sea battle between the British and German fleets which has been expected since the declaration of war, may be at hand. Whether it is of any significance or not, a despatch from Rotterdam yesterday says that the Holland-American Steamship Line has placed its premises on the Hook of Holland at the disposition of the Dutch Red Cross society yesterday, with a special view to hospital needs in the North Sea. c

Old Boys Will Hold Parade

At a meeting of the Old Home Week executive held this morning, it was decided to hold a general Old Boys parade to-morrow (Thursday) evening instead of the Scotch night, scheduled on the programme. The Old Boys parade promises to be one of the leading features of the week. Every old boy now in the city is invited and expected to turn out in the parade. The great majority will march on foot, though those who have autos are of course welcome. The parade will form up at the headquarters at Dalhousie street at eight o'clock, and every old boy in the city is expected to take his supper in a hurry and be on hand sharp on time. The Dufferin Rifles and Brant Dragoons band will both be in the parade. c

Big Day Is On

To-day is one of the biggest days of old home week, Fraternal Day. Over 5000 members of the various local societies will take part in the big parade at 12.45 noon to-day. The reception committee of the Fraternal Day was busy all morning welcoming the incoming brethren at the G. T. R. and T. H. & B. Stations, assisted by the local regimental bands. Up in the headquarters in the Temple Building every visitor was registered by Mr. A. B. Lee, the secretary of the Fraternal Committee. Weather conditions are perfect and everything points to a great day's program. c

Charged With Pick Pocketing

One pickpocket was found at work yesterday on Dalhousie street and charged with the offence. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded until Tuesday. High Constable Fred Kerr was outside a big show on Dalhousie street, yesterday afternoon, when he noticed Harry E. Andrews acting suspiciously and watching him the officer alleges he saw him endeavoring to steal a watch, while he also tried several hip pockets. Losing no time after this evidence, Fred Kerr landed his man. He proved to have come from London and was practically penniless. He had not any proceeds upon him. From his appearance and the general manner of his attempts to rob, it was evident that he was an amateur. There were several complaints made to the police of pickpockets doing business, but the chief is satisfied that there are no experts about, otherwise complaints would have landed in thick and fast. Broke Window. On arriving at his office this morning, City Tax Collector Frank Benedict found the west window in the office broken. It looks very much like an attempt to break in to the office, but the intruder's plans were baffled by the presence of the big desk up against the window. c

WOMAN'S BODY IS FOUND UNDER TREES

BROCKVILLE, Aug. 12.—Children playing on the Howison property, in the west end of the town, found the body of Mrs. Wm. Kelly, a resident of Brockville, lying under some bushes. Mrs. Kelly disappeared from her home last Friday. She was supposed to be visiting friends, so no alarm was sent out for her. There is nothing to indicate foul play. David Bellevue, a patient at the Eastern Hospital for the Insane, disappeared Saturday last, and to-day his body was found hanging from the limb of a tree on the farm of Daniel Brennan, five miles east of Brockville. He came from Ottawa. c

AUSTRIAN INVASION

LONDON, Aug. 12.—4.05 p.m.—A Central News despatch from Vienna by way of Amsterdam says the Austrian troops have occupied Metchow in Russian Poland, ten miles within the border, after defeating a body of Cosacks, whose losses are given as 400 killed and wounded, while those of the Austrians are said to be 140 wounded. c

SESRVIA'S SUCCESS

LONDON, Aug. 12.—Not an Austrian soldier is now on Serbian soil, according to the Serbian legation in London. An official of the legation added that seven attempts by the Austrians at different points to invade Serbian territory had failed, and the Austrians had abandoned the offensive and were hurriedly entrenching themselves on their own frontier in the expectation of a Serbian counter attack. c

DETAINED AT GUELPH

GUELPH, Ont., Aug. 11.—Twelve Austrian reservists applied to the G. T. R. to-day for transportation to Austria, where they would join the Austrian army. The agent here refused under instructions to sell tickets. They are under surveillance. c

BERMUDA IS BOTTLED UP BY BRITISH

Martial Law There, and 1000 man Reservists Are Held. (By Special Wire to The Courier) NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The German tank steamer prize probably worth a quarter million dollars, by a prize crew of the British steamer Suffolk, are upwards of 100 German prisoners in Bermuda as prisoners of war confirmed by Captain R. L. of the Royal Mail Steam Pacific, which arrived this morning. Similar confirmation brought by the Bermudian of the Steamship Company. "On the second day out of Bermuda voyage last week," said Daniels of the Caribbean, "I was chased by an unknown cruiser the officers of the warship at were satisfied with our identity that exception, our experience been practically uneventful. war north we saw nothing warships and had no wireless except the report of Admiral Christopher Craddock of the cruiser Suffolk, to the effect was safe for shipping in the Atlantic.
