Lady Borden Presents Regimental Colors To N. S. Highland Brigade

Presented By
Lady Borden
Wife of the Right Honorable
Sir Robert L. Borden,
G. C. M. G.
To The
85th Overseas Battalion, C.E.F.,
Nova Scotia Highlanders
1916

Such is the legend, as above, inscribed on a silver plate attached to the pole of the regimental colors of the 85th O. S. Battalion, Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. The same legend, with the name and number of each of the other three Battalions (185th, 193rd and 219th) which with the 85th comprise the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, is properly inscribed on a silver plate attached to the poles of their respective colors.

The beautiful, coveted and welcome regimental colors came into possession of the Nova Scotia Highlanders last Monday, being presented in person by the First Lady in the Land, Lady Borden, wife of Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada; and presented amidst impressive religious ceremonies and thrilling military eclat.

For general design the colors show a large centred Maple leaf, topped by the Crown, beneath are a wreath of thistles and Mayflowers, and a scroll with the Brigade motto, "Siol Na Fear Fearail." All this is on a ground of silk, crimson for the 85th, green for the 185th, blue for the 193rd and purple for the 219th. The effect is handsome.

A glorious day of clear blue sky, and sheer sunlight, pleasantly cooled by salubrious breezes made the occasion specially inviting and promised smiles from nature on the happiest event in the homeland experiences and annals of the N. S. Highland Brigade.

Sir Robert and Lady Borden who had arrived from Ottawa Sunday evening at Grand Pre in the Prime Minister's private car, and who spent the night in the Premier's boyhood home, arrived at Aldershot Monday morning, Sept. 25th, where they were met at 10 o'clock by Colonel W. E. Thompson, Camp Commandant, and driven in auto to the saluting base on the field, ready for the impressive functions that were to follow their arrival at that point. In the first car, leading, were Lady Borden, Mrs. Thompson, wife of the Camp Commandant, and Mrs. Stanfield, wife of Lt. Col. John Stanfield, the Brigadier of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. In the second car, immediately following, were Sir Robert Borden, Colonel W. E. Thompson, Camp Commandant, and Colonel Winter, Secretary of the Military Council, Department of Militia and Defence, Ottawa.

Alighting, Sir Robert and Lady Borden, supported by Col. Thompson and Col. Winter, advanced about 100 yards to the acclivity above the saluting base in front of four sets of drums, tiered as altars for the consecration of the regimental colors, and set up facing the respective Battalions which were drawn up in companies in line in the form of a hollow square, with the Chaplains in position at the respective consecration altars of drums to which the colors for each Battalion had been, with due military ceremony, been brought by color-bodies of N. C. O's and on which they were laid awaiting the arrival of Lady Borden, and the supporting high officers of militia. On the arrival of the party, the massed Bands under the direction of Lieut. Dan Mooney, played a salute. Prayers were recited by the various chaplains consecrated the colors, Capt.

Chaplain Ronald MacDonald reading the ritual for the 85th Battalion, Captain Chaplain Michael Gillis for the 185th, Capt. Chaplain J. F. Tupper for the 193rd, and Camp Chaplain Clarence Mackinnon for the 219th.

Then followed the formal presentation of the colors to each Battalion. A line of non-commissioned officers of the Highland Brigade stretched right and left of the saluting base, one each bearing colors of the respective regiments. An officer called out in proper sequence the name of each unit and the color party into whose hands the colors were to be delivered marched up to where Lady Borden stood, who addressed a few felicitous words to the delegated wardens, expressing her pleasure at the opportunity and honor of presenting colors to the Battalions. The Highlanders lowered the colors, Lady Borden touched them lightly with her right hand, and they were handed to their rightful bearers who marched proudly away to the front of their own special detachment in the square. The first to receive colors was the senior battalion of the brigade, the 85th, then followed the 185th, 193rd and 219th.

When the whole of the parties had received their colors and returned to line inside of the square, the order was given "salute your colors." This was an impressive moment. On the order, the Brigade saluted the colors, which were then brought by the color-bodies of N. C. O's to the respective Battalions, advancing in slow-march tempo to the music of the National Anthem played by the massed bands.

Sir Robert and Lady Borden with Col. Thompson and Col. Winter now returned to the saluting base for the March Past. The Brigade formed up in columns of companies, and, bearing the colors, marched past in splendid dress and step to the music of the various regimental tunes, played by the massed bands under the direction of Lieut. Mooney, and returned to their original positions. Then the Brigade advanced in review order, and gave a general salute. Sir Robert addressed the Brigade briefly, noting the significance of the colors and signaling his confidence and that of Lady Borden that the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade would maintain the honor and preserve the splendid ideals which had been set by the soldiers of Canada who had already brought glory on our broad Dominion.

Sir Robert called for three cheers for His Majesty, King George and then for three cheers for the Governor General, Lieut. Col. F. P. Day, who acted in command for the Brigadier, Lt.-Col. Stanfield, called for three cheers for Sir Robert and Lady Borden.

Sir Robert and Lady Borden, following the close of the presentation of the colors and accessory functions, were entertained at luncheon by Colonel W. E. Thompson, Camp Commandant. The guests were Colonel Winter, Mrs. Thompson, wife of the Commandant, the personal staff of the Commandant, with their ladies, the Brigadier and staff with their ladies, and the Officers Commanding, with their ladies. The 85th Band, under the direction of Lieut. Mooney, played a special concert program during the luncheon. After the luncheon, Lady Borden and party visited the hospital and inspected the camp. They were also given an opportunity of witnessing mimic trench warfare, and a bayonet charge by the Highlander boys in training. Sir Robert and Lady Borden entrained for Ottawa at 4 p. m.

How He Had An Hour's Sickness Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. MARRIOTT, 73 Leas Ave., Ottawa, Ont., August 29th, 1915.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 21 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives', and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

How Many Bullets To Kill Soldier

One Hundred Pounds of Lead Or 3,500 Bullets to Take Single Life

It has been estimated that only one bullet in every hundred that is fired hits a man, and of those men hit only in thirty-five succumb. In other words, it takes, 3,500 bullets to kill a single soldier.

In view of the awful slaughter that has taken place during the present war these figures sound rather startling, yet they are well within the mark.

Such calculations as these refer to averages only. An enemy advancing in close formation, as the Germans have been doing recently before Verdun, may be mown down wholesale by rifle and machine-gun, and in such cases the average of fatal casualties, compared with the number of rounds expended, will be considerably higher.

Shell fire is, as a general rule, even less destructive than rifle or machine-gun fire. A modern high explosive shell makes no end of a row when it bursts, kills possibly a couple of men if it explodes inside a trench, frightens a lot more, and—that is about all. The ruined walls of Rheims Cathedral will testify for many years to come that the shell that shattered one statue seldom hurts its next door neighbor.

Shrapnel is more dangerous, provided the fuse is timed just right, and the gunner who fires it knows his business. A shrapnel shell contains a number of small round bullets, each about the size of a marble. What execution a shell of this sort can do, given a favorable opportunity, was shown at the "Battle of the Landing," in Gallipoli.

An attack was about to be launched against the British left, and a fold in the ground hid the attacking Turks from our troops. They were, however, observed by the Queen Elizabeth far out at sea, and a projectile from one of her big guns was dropped right plump in the midst of them.

It was a shrapnel shell weighing 1,800 lbs. and holding 13 bullets. The attack was smashed, and 250 Turks were killed. This works out at one man per fifty-two bullets, and it probably represents the maximum efficiency of shrapnel fire, during the present, or any other war.

There are many remarkable instances of shell fire—even concentrated and prolonged shell fire—accomplishing little or nothing in the direction of destroying life. During one of the tremendous preparatory bombardments, for example, that ushered in the early stages of the Battle of Verdun, the Germans fired between 20,000 and 30,000 shells of all calibres against the French lines, in the short space of five hours. Yet the fatal casualties amounted to fewer than a hundred, out of about 18,000 men engaged. One reason for this is, of course, that modern armies, when acting on the defensive, dig themselves in so deeply that they are practically immune from other than very high angle fire.

Yet the power of the modern shell is tremendous. If the charge of one of the large calibre ones—say a German "Jack Johnson"—were burned away quickly, it would send some millions of cubic feet of gas into the air. But instead, it is detonated in a thousandth part of a second, and these millions of cubic feet of gas, with their steel castings, crush everything in their immediate vicinity to the finest powder. Yet men even especially if they are lying down and under some sort of cover, however slight, usually escape with their lives at all events, and more frequently than otherwise they are not even injured.

New Light On Magnanimity

Importance of High-Souled Spirit and Conduct Discussed at Bible Class

The Brigade Bible Class on Sunday took the form of a discussion on magnanimity as revealed in the character of Christ. It was agreed that boundless good will must be characteristic of all truly great men, and that it was not antagonistic to high-souled indignation. To practice magnanimity it was not necessary to condone wrong but to direct ones anger at the deed, not at the doer, and to think of him with pity for his state of life which made the deed possible.

The growing adoption of these principles as given by Jesus, which was seen in the reforming of prison systems with a view not to punish the criminal but to save him from crime, was proof that magnanimity was a practical virtue. It was also thought that it greatly conserved life to be able to live in trying circumstances and not become sour and grouchy.

At the close of the Class fourteen new members were enrolled in the Soldier's Service League.

McNutt Family Has Done Nobly

Three of the McNutt Boys in 193rd—Another in 106th—Another Fell a Hero

Brothers all, and three of the best soldiers in the 193rd Battalion, Ptes. Elmer McNutt, Arthur McNutt and Barlow McNutt, of "B" Company, come of a family that has given five sons to the colors. One other brother went overseas with the 106th. He was Pte. Homer McNutt and the biggest, finest looking soldier of the five was Pte. "Charlie" McNutt, who died a hero's death at Kemmel on the West Front, last March. In charge of the Machine Gun Section of the 26th Battalion, Charlie McNutt was a daring soldier who met death as a son of this soldier-family could meet death.

The McNutt boys are natives of Wallace, Cumberland County, where their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McNutt reside. It was a family that was never broken up till the war came. Then the five brothers left the plow in the furrow and donned the King's Khaki.

There is another brother left at home. It is not his fault that he is not with the colors. He has tried, but could not pass the test.

It is a family record of which this Province may well stand proud.

WEDDING BELLS

Marriage of Captain Ralph McDougall, P. M. 185th.

Capt. McDougall, formerly of the 85th O.S. Battalion Pay Office, now Paymaster, 185th Cape Breton Highlanders, was married last week to Miss May Webb of Port Mulgrave, N. S. Capt. McDougall was formerly manager of the Royal Bank at that place. After the wedding the bride and groom spent some time at Whyocomagh, C. B. Capt. McDougall's home, after which they returned to Kentville. Mrs. McDougall has already received a most hearty welcome into the Battalion's social life, and the Highlander extends its very best wishes to them both.

A WORD TO THE KAISER

(From Winnipeg Free Press) His Imperial Majesty Wilhelm II, before 1914, was wont to preach to his troops, taking his texts from a pocket Bible, his constant companion. Either for discourse or for meditation, he may fruitfully refer to these passages of Holy Writ.

Psalm iii, 1-2: "Lord, how are they increased that trouble me! Many are they that rise up against me. Many there be which say my soul, There is no help for him in God, Selah!"

Proverbs xiv, 12: There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are ways of death.

Isaiah xxxiii, 1: Woe to thee that spoilest and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously and they dealt not treacherously with thee!

Exodus xx, 7: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Exodus xx, 12: Thou shalt not kill.

Exodus xx, 15: Thou shalt not steal.

Exodus xx, 16: Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Exodus xx, 17: Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's.

St. Luke xiv, 31: What king going to war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he is able with the ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand. Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador and desireth conditions of peace?

1 Kings, xx, 11: Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast as he that putteth it off.

Psalm vii, 15: He made a pit and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

St. Matthew xxvi, 52: Then Jesus said unto him, Put up thy sword into its place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR GOOD HAY PRICES

The season of 1916 was an excellent one for a good hay crop and our farmers have a goodly store in their barns. It will be pleasing news to them to learn that in a very short time the government repressing plant will again be in operation and buyers will be going throughout the County and other parts of the Valley purchasing hay for the requirements of the war office. We have no idea of the price that will be offered but those who have hay to dispose of can depend upon good fair prices being paid, and a ready market made for all the hay there is to dispose of.

While the war is calling for many sacrifices and the saving of everything possible may be a necessity yet our farmers are reaping the benefit of extra high prices for all their produce and generally are prospering as much as in former years when peace prevailed.

BENEFIT FOR DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT FUND

Last Saturday afternoon at the Wolfville Rink a supper and fair was given by the ladies of Wolfville under the leadership of Mrs. Fitch wife of Mayor Fitch. It was an unqualified success and the sum of $300 was realized for the fund, over expenses.

The train from Kentville and Aldershot was crowded and the music of the 85th Band was inspiring. The fair was well patronized by the Seminary and Academy. Every lady who had a part to perform did her duty and contributed to the success. In raising such a large sum for the Duchess of Connaught's War Prisoners Fund.

RECEPTION FOR SOLDIERS.

There will be a reception for the soldiers at Citizens Hall, Port Williams, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4th. A special program will be provided. The Purple Feather Quartette and other outside talent will be heard. Refreshments will be served. All friends of the boys in khaki are invited to attend.

RECEPTION FOR WOUNDED HERO

On Friday evening Canard and vicinity gave a reception in the hall to Corporal Kenneth Eaton son of Mr. Albert Eaton. The large hall was crowded with eager participants and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Rev. A. J. Prosser presided and gave every assistance to the program as follows.

Music by Purple Feather quartette and violin music by Miss Miller and one of the quartette. Readings by Miss Irene Eaton, and Mrs. Leander Eaton, addresses by Revs. F. H. Bone, J. D. Hull, Messrs John Donaldson, N. W. Eaton and H. G. Harris.

Mr. Prosser presented Corp. Eaton with a fine wrist watch and he responded with most appropriate remarks in thanks. He felt he had only done his duty. His description of the hard fight in which he received his terrible wounds was most interesting.

Corporal Eaton expects to return to England before long to resume his duties in the work of the pay office there. While he has already done his share for his country he feels it a duty to give further service.

Refreshments were served to all and the evening was one to be long remembered.

It is expected that a tablet will be placed in the Baptist church at Canard in honor of the brave boys who fell in Flanders, Harry B. Dickie and Arthur Hutchinson.

A TRIBUTE FROM NEWFOUNDLAND TO THE LATE LT. F. C. MELLOR

Whiteway Lodge, No. 3541, R.E. A. F. and A. M. . . . St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 25, '16
Rev. T. C. and Mrs. Mellor, Kentville, N. S.

Dear Sir and Madam:—
At our last regular monthly convocation held on Sept. 22nd, all business was suspended, and the enclosed Resolution was proposed by Wor. Bro. Hon. J. A. Robinson, P. M., seconded by Wor. Bro. R. F. Goodridge, P. M. and passed by the Brethren standing, whilst the Dead March in Saul was played by Brother Organist.

I regret I cannot convey to you the eloquent speech with which the Worshipful Brother introduced his motion; his remarks touched the hearts of all present and made us realize more than ever, all that our gallant fighters are enduring, even to the Supreme Sacrifice itself, to uphold the Honor of our Empire.

Fraternally yours,
W. BARKER, P. M., Secretary.

BE IT RESOLVED that at this convocation of Lodge, No. 3541, E. C. A. F. and A. M., the first held since the battle of Beaumont Hamel, in which the First Newfoundland Regiment enriched the Newfoundlanders' heritage by their courage, loyalty and devotion, the Lodge express its gratitude and pride, and also its deep sorrow because of the lives lost and the suffering endured. Especially does the Lodge grieve because of the promotion of two of its most valued and beloved members, Captain Eric S. Ayre and Lieut. Frederick C. Mellor, both of whom fell heroically on the field of honor whilst facing overwhelming odds in the forefront of the fray on July 1st, 1916, a day which will ever remain memorable in the history of this Island and of this Lodge for the gallantry of her sons and of our brethren, who counted not their lives dear unto them, when weighed in the balance against the liberties and the honor of the Empire, its safety and the happiness of its people.

That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Rev. T. C. and Mrs. Mellor of Kentville, N. S., the loyal and self-sacrificing parents of the loyal and heroic young officer, whose sojourn of six years in our midst has been crowned by the willing gift to our Country and the Empire of his bright young life; and that the resolution be accompanied with the assurance that not only amongst his bereaved brethren of the Craft, but by the people of Newfoundland generally, the name and memory of their gallant son will be held in love and honor.

Kentville's Contribution to the Militia Y. M. C. A.

Since the recent visit to Kentville of Mr. A. S. McAllister general territorial secretary for the Maritime Provinces, and the exposition of the work of the Y. M. C. A. in connection with the Militia life, made from the different pulpits on Sunday, a vigorous campaign for contributions towards the general fund has since been prosecuted by wives of the officers of the Highland Brigade.

Three teams are undertaking to canvas Kentville and the captains report fairly satisfactory progress.

For the past few months Kentville has been reaping a very great benefit from the thousands of soldiers in training at Aldershot. The amount of money put into circulation by a pay roll equal to a City of 35,000 inhabitants has directly benefitted business in all lines, and indirectly helped everyone living in our Town.

The need of supporting such a worthy cause as the Y. M. C. A. represents, and the work undertaken by it for the benefit, not only of the soldier life in the training camps of our own Country but at the battle fronts, should be recognized by all, and it is only right that Kentville should give liberally as she has profited. Amherst's contribution two weeks ago was over $1,000, Yarmouth $1500, Fredericton $5000. A complete list of individual giving as made to the different teams, will be published shortly, as well as amounts subscribed at the Sunday evening meeting held in the Methodist Church, Canning.

The canvas in Kentville will not be complete for a few days yet thus affording everyone a chance to respond. The captains of the three teams are Mrs. Maj. Miller, No. 1; Mrs. Capt. McDonald, No. 2; and Mrs. Colonel, Stanfield, No. 3.

Either of these ladies would be glad to receive the contributions of anyone who has been missed in their canvas, or who has reconsidered a refusal to do their part in supporting a work meaning so much to the boys and men who are fighting our battles. The privilege should be that of the public to give.

Mr. A. M. Borden has moved to the dwelling at Canard Corner lately occupied by Mr. Delancey, Sheffield.

A sad death took place here on Tuesday last. Mrs. Uniacke Delancey of South Williamston was visiting her brother Mr. Leander R. Burbidge and was in apparently good health. On that day she dropped dead, without any warning of the end being so near. Mr. W. B. Burbidge, Canning, and Mrs. W. E. Eaton, Upper Canard, are brother and sister of deceased.

PAY VISIT TO CAPE BRETON
Give Farewell Concerts in Several Towns—Delight
Audiences—Royally
Received

The 185th Pipe Band who were away on a weeks leave to Cape Breton arrived back at Camp Saturday much delighted over their trip. It will be remembered that long ere the mobilization of the regiment took place the people of Cape Breton in whom the spirit of their forbears is so wonderfully preserved in the sturdy descendants of the "Gael" keenly felt that the Cape Breton Highland Regiment should have an efficient pipe band, that their Highland lads as of yore, would march to war cheered by the strains of the pibroch. As a result shortly after its mobilization the instruments were presented to the Battalion and the work of raising a band was immediately entered on. Anyone not having any experience in band work can scarcely realize the tact, patience, perseverance, necessary and the difficulty to be overcome, before an efficient band can be turned out in the short time of a few months. Such was the case with the present pipe band. Although the ranks were composed of men to whom the music of the pipes was soul inspiring, there was but few skilled performers. A competent instructor was sought for at once and after much difficulty secured the services of Piper A. Bowes of Louisburg. The band although under training only about three months is a pride to the regiment, and a credit to the people of Cape Breton.

It was feared the time being so short and the training of the band so urgent the people of Cape Breton wouldn't have an opportunity of listening to the pipe band. But a leave of eight days was granted and on the 15th they boarded the train and arrived in Sydney Saturday morning the 16th.

A program was arranged whereby the band would give a concert every evening in the different towns. The arrangement which was carried out successfully was briefly as follows:

On Monday evening the band was at Sydney Mines, and the people of that patriotic little town gave them a splendid reception. After the band played a few selections Major McCormick addressed the crowd in a very appropriate speech, presenting the band in behalf of the people with a sum of money as a work of appreciation.

On Tuesday the Ladies of the Green Feather, Sydney, requested the pipe band to attend the tea given in aid of the wounded soldiers in the Convalescent Home this was consented to and the pipers attended giving a splendid performance in front of the Hospital between three and four o'clock after which the ladies served out refreshments and then the band proceeded to Wentworth Park where a large crowd gathered; the band played for two hours to a very appreciative audience on Wednesday the band was to proceed to Glace Bay but the request of Major Richards and Lieut. Chirwin they gave a concert at North Sydney instead. In North Sydney the large crowd that had assembled to hear the stirring Highland airs, gave the pipers a rousing welcome, Mayor Kelly then addressed the crowd, and presented the band with a sum of money collected among the crowd to aid the pipe band; after which the band was entertained to supper by the Ladies of the Green Feather, and treated them to smokes of all kinds.

On Thursday morning the band journeyed to Louisburg, the Dominion Coal Co., providing free transportation. Arriving at the station they played throughout the main street where the same expression of welcome and generosity was shown after which they enjoyed a fine dinner at the kindness of the Mayor. At 2 o'clock they gave a concert; a large and appreciative crowd was present. The Mayor then presented the band with a handsome purse, subscribed by the people to meet the various expenses of the band. Large crowds followed the pipers to the station as they went aboard the train. Arriving at Glace Bay the band paraded through the principal streets much to the delight of the citizens, Mayor Cameron kindly provided ourmen with a delicious lunch, after which they paraded to the band stand where hours before the crowds had commenced to assemble. The reception to the band in Glace Bay was splendid—fully four thousand people cheered as the band stirred their emotions with strains of the "Highland Laddie." Mayor Cameron addressed the crowd and likewise presented a purse from the people to the band to help defray the expenses of the trip, after which the band dismissed and the following evening entertained for Aldershot, very thankful for the generous way they were treated.

SOCCER VICTORY FOR 185TH TEAM

Green Feather Lads Had Easy Time With Composite Battalion.

The 185th soccer team added another victory to their already long list when they defeated the Composite Battalion team on the Wanderer's grounds, Halifax, Saturday of exhibition week. The 185th won the toss and got the advantage of a straight breeze during the first half. Ptes. Thomas and Hiscock by pretty combination got the first score, which was soon followed by another shot by Corp. Lindsay. The third score was after a fine run by Pte. J. Lindsay. The half backs then took matters into their hands and Thomas again scored. The half ended 6-0 in favor of the Green Feather who had things pretty much their own way. The Composite defence made many brilliant saves but the 185th combination was the best yet played by them.

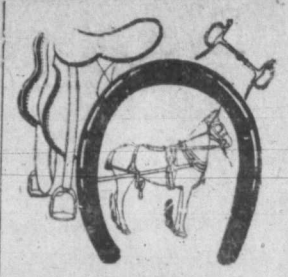

Play started very slow in the second half but with Pte. P. McManus as center half the pigskin was forced up to the home goal again and by a fine pass from Pte. J. Lindsay, Pte. Lynn added one more. With a good half defence our full backs had a rather easy time. L. Corp. Kerr was called upon once or twice and made some fine saves. When time was called another victory of 7-0 for the Green Feather was registered. The Composites took the boys to their quarters at Wellington Barracks and gave them the best of attention. The sports of Aldershot are looking forward with interest to the return match at Aldershot.

Reception to 185th Brides

At Aldershot on Thursday afternoon Sept. 21st a very pleasing function was observed by the officers of the 185th Battalion and their wives. The occasion was a formal welcome to Mrs. J. McIsaac and Mrs. T. D. A. Purves and the presentation to each of a chest of silver. A speech was made by Col. F. P. Day who extended to these popular young brides a cordial welcome to the circle of good fellowship that had existed for many months past among the officers and their wives. Lieut. Purves' mother and aunt were guests as well as Mrs. Miller of Truro, an aunt of Mrs. Purves. Tea and cake were served and a pleasant hour spent in social fellowship. The 185th band was present and played suitable and varied selections.

"THE ANGELS AT MONS"

(From N. S. Highlander.)

Announcement that Capt. Chaplain MacKinnon was to deliver his famous address, "The Angels of Mons" at the Y. M. C. A. Annex on Friday night, Sept. 22, and that Miss Helen Knowles, teacher of vocal and instrumental music, Kentville, was to sing, brought a throng of men to the hall even before the half past seven hour. After Miss Knowles had willingly sung "Keep the Home Fires Burning" in which the men joined heartily, "When You Come Home" and "I'm Wearin' Awa, Jean," with such pleasure to her listeners, Capt. MacKinnon, accompanied by Capt. Gillis of the 185th Battalion, ascended the platform. Following is a summary of Capt. MacKinnon's address:

In introducing his subject Capt. MacKinnon said there was naturally wide diversity of opinion about the apparition witnessed by the British Soldiers on their historic retreat from Mons. It was remarkable how many testimonies converged to prove its reality. On the other hand, a distinguished Canadian preacher who had been at the front had written, "After the Story of the Angels of Mons, any old yarn will pass."

The speaker went on to build up the argument on the side of the angels. All agreed in the existence of a Supreme Mind. The universal order and symmetry of nature witnessed to His presence. All would equally agree that in a world of such infinite variety it was very unlikely that the human race alone possessed intelligence. It was probable that Mars was peopled and even that round about us there might be spiritual beings whom our earthly senses could not discern.

The Bible spoke of angels as the ministering spirits of God. Elisha unfolded to the vision of his young companion a whole mountain "filled with horses and chariots of fire." Paul was caught up into Paradise and heard "unspeakable words which it was not lawful for a man to utter." Hamlet rebuked our materialistic theories by saying to his friend Horatio, "There are more things in Heaven than are dreamed of in your philosophy."

History testifies to the extraordinary agencies the Divine Being employs at times in the accomplishment of His purposes. It was a dream that induced Alexander the Great to spare Jerusalem and so preserve the people of God. It was a flaming cross, seen in the sky, that converted Constantine the Great and induced him to publish the Edict of Toleration that delivered the church from the most terrible persecution she has known.

The credibility of the Angels at Mons depends upon whether the world is passing through so momentous a crisis that one might expect extraordinary intervention on the part of God to protect all that is most sacred and valuable in human life. The speaker believed that such indeed was the case. Many atrocities had been committed in the past; but they were perpetrated by narrow, bigoted souls who vainly thought they were doing good service. No such excuse could be offered on behalf of the Kaiser and his war lords, their scepticism was too rank for that. Religion and the nobler human sentiments were only so many popular illusions, which might be made to bolster the Hohenzollern dynasty. The Kaiser is probably the most notorious liar and hypocrite the world has known. Insisting on the orthodoxy of the German pulpit of Britain. He holds his peace while Kurds massacre the Armenians. His prayers and pious pretences are humbug and mockery.

It was this avalanche of scepticism and plunder that the British soldiers withstood at pit, he yet holds out a fraternal

A late cable from London states:—A baseball game for the benefit of the Canadian Widows' and Orphans' Fund was played at Kensington on Saturday before a crowd of two thousand spectators, including the Duchess of Devonshire, and Major-General Sir Sam Hughes. The latter opened the game by pitching the first ball.

The contestants were a Canadian soldier team and a team of United States residents of London. The latter was comprised largely of college players. The Canadians, who won by 9 to 1, were as follows: Doyle, Latham, Roberts, Richmond, Blackadder, Kosco, Glover, Rolands and Cragg.

Two Millions Every Month

That is What Canada is Now Paying For Soldiers' Separation Allowance

Ottawa, Sept. 30—Canada is now paying about twenty-five million dollars per year to the wives and dependents of the soldiers who have gone to the front. Separation allowances which a year ago totalled about one million per month have now reached over two millions per month.

In addition to this amount paid monthly by the Dominion treasury, the Patriotic Fund is expending about one million per month, distributed among some 75,000 families, whose normal source of income has either been cut off or seriously diminished by the enlistment of wage earners.

OBITUARY

William Murphy

The death of William Murphy an aged and highly respected citizen took place at his residence Northville on Thursday, Sept 7th aged 80 years. The funeral service was held on the following Saturday and was largely attended burial at Kentville, St. Joseph's burying grounds.

Mr. Murphy was unmarried and had resided all his life at Northville as well as his father before him. He leaves four sisters, Mrs. Moran, of Boston; Mrs. James Quigley of South Alton and Misses Anastasia and Elizabeth Murphy at home in Northville.

Everett M. Rottler.

It is with deep sympathy we record the death of one of the popular young men of Kentville in the person of Everett M. Rottler, which occurred last Thursday morning at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax. Death followed an automobile accident which took place in Kentville, twenty-three days previously in Hiltz's Garage, where the deceased young man was fixing a bolt on an automobile, his car being struck by another car. Realizing the seriousness of the injuries sustained, Mr. Rottler was taken to Halifax on a special train, where he was operated on at the hospital. The operation was successful, but complications set in resulting in death.

The remains were brought to Kentville on Thursday evening, and the funeral services were conducted on Sunday from his late home. Rev. T. C. Mellor officiated and the interment was in the Oakes Cemetery. Many friends assembled at the service and numerous floral tributes were received, all of which testified to the high esteem in which the departed young man was held by the community. Among the flowers received were beautiful pieces from the family, the Peerless Garage, Town Boys, Kentville Chauffeurs, and many friends both in Kentville and suburbs.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age, and had always resided in Kentville.

He is survived by his parents, Mr and Mrs A Rottler, 2 brothers, Arthur, residing in Waverley, Mass., and Roy, at home, and one sister, Miss Gladys at home, to all these is extended much sympathy in their sad bereavement.

James Everett Eaton

In the death of James Everett Eaton, which took place at his home on Main Street Wednesday morning, of heart disease, following an active life, the citizens of Collingsville feel that they have lost one of the best of their number. Born in Nova Scotia 68 years ago, Mr. Eaton came to Collingsville 28 yrs. ago and all of that time has been employed by the Collins Company. He was quiet and minded his own business to rare degree. While this was true all felt that they were dealing with a man of rare intelligence and who was very kind hearted. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Sophia Bentley, and seven children, ten grandchildren, three brothers and two sisters.

The children are L. E. Eaton of Derry, New Hampshire; Mrs. W. A. Stewart, of New York; Mrs. William Schott, of Irving, N.J.; A. Harold Eaton of Collingsville; Mrs. Herbert Clark, of Newark, N.J.; Mrs. Leighton Lawson, of Unionville and Lieutenant Philip Eaton, who is on the United States Revenue Cutter, in Alaskan water. The brothers are A. W. Eaton, of Pittsfield, Mass.; D. O. Eaton, of Philadelphia; and W. E. Eaton, of Sheffield Mills; and the sisters are Mrs. T. W. Offen, of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, and Mrs. F. W. Thomas, of Upper Canard, Nova Scotia.

The funeral was very largely attended at his late home in this village Friday afternoon at 2.30 and the service was conducted by Rev. G. F. Bailey. The bearers were W. U. Chapin, Walter Reid, M. Stanley Neal, Frank W. Fellows, Frank Borden and Jerry Hosford; all holding responsible positions in the Collins Company works. Mr. Eaton was a member of the Baptist church and was also a member of a Royal Arcanum lodge in Hartford.—Farmington Valley Herald, Collingsville, Conn.
