

TERCENTENARY OF CHAMPLAIN.

Anniversary of the Discovery of the Lake Bearing That Name.

New York, Vermont and Canada Join in Celebration.

Indian Drama Enacted and Dress Parade of U. S. Troops.

Port Henry, N. Y., July 5.—With the crumbling ruins of Forts Amherst and Frederick forming a historic setting, the first of a series of events celebrating the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of Lake Champlain by the famous French explorer, navigator and colonizer, Samuel De Champlain, took place to-day at Crown Point, where Champlain with his Canadian and Indian allies of the Huron and Algonquin tribes, first met the Iroquois in battle. The celebration was arranged jointly between the States of New York and Vermont, and will continue throughout the week, representatives of France, England, Canada and the Indian aborigines joining with those of the States and of the Federal Government in the exercises commemorative of the history making struggles throughout the Champlain Valley.

The discovery of Lake Champlain in July, 1609, antedates the discovery by the whites of any other portion of the territory now comprised in the States of New York, and deeming it an event worthy of commemoration in the annals of the State and nation.

The Indian drama Hiawatha, which formed a picturesque part of the day's programme, was produced by 150 Indians—original descendants of the Algonquins and Iroquois who participated in Champlain's battle—under the direction of L. O. Armstrong, of Montreal, on a floating island constructed on barges. The island, which is several hundred feet in length, depicts among other scenic effects a stockade, a scene of attack in the battle by the besieging bands of Indians who reached the beach in canoes. Late in the day there will be a dress parade of the Tenth Regiment, following which the gubernatorial party will leave on a steamer for Iconorago, which will be the scene of tomorrow's observances. Wednesday at Plattsburg will be the big day of the celebration. Thursday Burlington, Vt., will be the centre of interest, and Friday exercises will be held at Isle La Motte, in the northern part of the lake. As each of these places Indian pagodas will be presented, the floating island having been so constructed that it can be towed from place to place on the lake.

AT LONDON.

Pen Picture of Rev. Mr. Whiting at First Church.

Rev. R. Whiting began his pastorate at First Methodist Church, London, yesterday. The Free Press has this sketch of him:

Rev. R. Whiting, B. A., preached his inaugural sermons at the First Methodist Church yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Whiting, who came from Hamilton to accept the pastorate of the First Methodist Church here, is a splendid specimen of well developed manhood. His six feet of powerful frame is augmented by a massive pair of shoulders, which convey the impression of a veritable tower of strength. And a tower of strength he is, with piercing dark eyes, which command with piercing expression, a strong, masterly, clean-shaven face and thick, dark hair, plentifully sprinkled with grey, brushed back from a high forehead. Rev. Mr. Whiting is a person that one could not see or hear the approaching car until the two were at the point of meeting. There was no chance to cross ahead; the only thing left to do was to take to the deep ditch on the north side of the road, and this was done. The auto struck the opposite bank like a battering ram, throwing Mrs. Thompson clean over the glass protection, and jumbling all except Mr. Thompson in wild chaos. Mrs. Thompson probably received the most severe injuries to her back and limbs, and the other occupants had such a bruising experience that they will likely remember the accident for some time to come. All the injured were taken back to the city on the electric car. The machine had come within an ace of turning turtle in the ditch.

SAFE HARBOR.

Capt. Crawford Has Tied Up on the Other Shore.

Captain A. W. Crawford, of 1 6Boswell avenue, Toronto, died at his residence late on Saturday afternoon. He had been ill for some time, suffering from a general breakdown. Captain Crawford was born in Bowmanville 55 years ago. For nine years he was with the Hamilton Steamboat Company and was for a number of years commander of their fleet. He helped to organize the Turbine Steamship Company, and went to the old country to oversee the building of the vessel. He brought her over to Hamilton, and commanded her for one season.

An Old Soldier

Will tell you of the torture he has gone through from sore feet while on duty. British Army Foot Powder relieves and cures all tired, aching and sweaty feet; makes walking easy. Be sure and say British Army, and get the genuine in sprinker top cans; 25c per tin. Parke & Parke, druggists.

A Nice Short Smoke.

Smoked Snikes are made of fine, selected, imported tobacco and make a nice, short smoke. They are sold in a pack of 10 cents at peace's cigar store, 177 King Street East.

HYDRO SCHEME NOT MAKING PROGRESS.

Commissioners Will Not be Able to Deliver Power Till Long After Time Set.

While Hon. Adam Beck is telling London people that they will be penalized at the rate of $200 per day for their share of cost and maintenance of the transmission lines if the city is not ready to take power by March 19, there is good evidence that things are not moving as fast behind the scenes as the Hydro-Electric champions would have the municipalities believe. It is doubtful if London or any other place will get Niagara power before a year from the date fixed, if even then. The Toronto Star, which has been very friendly to the project, on Saturday printed the following:

If all that is being said is true, there is a hitch somewhere in connection with the construction of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission's Niagara power lines. Some attribute this to the difficulty of securing right of way; others darily whisper the word "politics," but the fact remains that since the tower test in March, very little progress has been reported. There are those who hint that opposition of a provoking kind is making itself felt.

There was once some talk of completing a portion of the line this year, but this seems an improbability at the present rate of progress. Not a tower is yet standing to herald the completion of one of the most popular projects ever approved by the people of Ontario.

The work so far done, so far as can be learned, consists of laying foundations for towers in the neighborhood of Rymal. This is a point south of Hamilton, and from there to the Falls the line is now in progress of construction, a process which is still at the tower-foundation stage. The June report of construction will soon be available, and this will show accurately exactly what has been done. Nothing was done during May. It is claimed at the contractors' office that there is no hitch so far as they are concerned, and that matters are being delivered to different points on the line as fast as it can be secured.

The centre of telephone operations is Okville, where about a mile of poles have been erected and strung, extending each way from the village.

The Power Committee on Saturday afternoon decided to engage the firm of Holman, Drayton & Monahan, of Toronto, to assist City Solicitor Waddell in protecting the city's interests in the proceedings brought by Robert S. Morris to restrain Hamilton from entering into a contract with the Hydro-Electric Commission. When the committee met the Mayor explained that the word had been received from W. E. Middleton, who was the choice of some members of the committee. In conversation over the telephone with Corporation Counsel Fullerton the latter highly recommended Mr. Drayton, who is expected as likely to be Toronto's new City Solicitor. A resolution to engage Mr. Fullerton was moved by Ald. Aulan and seconded by Ald. Peregrine. Ald. Morris moved in amendment, seconded by Ald. Cooper, that Mr. Middleton be engaged. This should be done, he thought, because they knew exactly where Mr. Middleton stood. Hamilton did not want an independent man, but one favorable to the Hydro-Electric, in view of the Council being Hydro-Electric. Ald. Justice voted for the motion, however, and Ald. Morris' resolution was declared lost.

Notwithstanding the fact that there was a general understanding that the trustees would act on the recommendation of the new Principal, J. G. Witton, all kinds of wires have been pulled for the appointments to the teaching staff of the new Technical School, which will be made by the special committee to-night. Mr. Witton has been continuing his studies at the Ann Arbor University, but he was asked to be on hand to-night. Friends of William McPherson, Superintendent of the waterworks department, a position which, it is reported, the new City Engineer intends abolishing, say that he is almost sure to have charge of printing department in the Technical School. Mr. McAndrew learned the business in the Times job department, and was later in the Herald. David Fairclough, of the Herald's mechanical staff, is also said to be a contender for the position.

For the position of head of the machine department applications have been received from John Laund, of the Hamilton Steel & Iron Company, Charles Linklater, of the Westinghouse Company; Arthur McPherson, and R. J. Wilson.

Mr. John Billings, chairman of the Board of Hospital Governors, wrote Mayor McPherson today calling attention to the overcrowded condition of the

Ten Killed

Port Au Prince, Haiti, July 5.—General Antoine Simon, the President of Haiti, had a narrow escape in a serious railroad accident near Beaudet last night. The presidential train collided with a freight. Ten soldiers were killed while a number of others sustained injuries. The president was not hurt and after caring for the injured he mounted a horse and rode back into Port Au Prince.

A RESCUE.

The Herald admits that its charges against the Mayor were founded on gossip. Somebody told it that he heard from a friend who was told by a man who got it from another person that Ald. Morris thought he heard the Mayor say so. What do you think of it? Ald. Juttien complains of the abuse he gets from the press. He shouldn't forget that the paper that is now knifing him used to slobber all over him. Ald. Morris, too, should be careful. What did you think of the sermon yesterday? Poor stuff or what? Do you ever compliment the minister when he gets off a pretty good sermon? I sometimes do. A few words of that sort act like a tonic on the good man. Buffalo Bill and the bookies must have carried out of the city money enough to keep us all over the winter. When women have votes, as they will have some day, a law will be passed making it compulsory on all young men to get married before they reach the age of 25, or give good reasons for not doing so. There are too many old maids in Canada for the good of the country. Did you help mother to put down the strawberries? If you have your health be thankful.

CORNER-STONE.

M. W. Bro. Freed Officiated at Ceremony in Toronto.

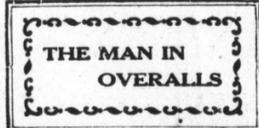

The corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple at the corner of Annette and Azil streets, Toronto, was laid on Saturday afternoon with suitable ceremonies. The Grand Master, M. W. Bro. A. T. Freed, of this city, and the Deputy Grand Master, Judge MacWatt, of Sarnia, were in attendance, as well as other Grand Lodge officers and prominent members of the craft in the Toronto district. The Grand Master congratulated the local lodge on their enterprise. "Masonry," he said, "is outgrowing its temples the world over." A silver trowel was presented to M. W. Bro. Freed, whose address was explanatory of the principles of the order.

SUNDAY MORNING FIRE.

Early yesterday morning fire broke out in a frame stable at 84 Garth street, used by Henry Foley, and a shed owned by J. White, next door. The wood blazed rapidly, and before the firemen could get their hose connected with a hydrant the structures had almost been destroyed. The damage was not large as, with the exception of a buggy, nothing of value was stored in the barn.

G. J. GIBBON, Winner of the Times' Cup at the Beamsville Dominion Day Athletic Meet.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

How much of your money did the bookies carry away? A $300,000 Labor Temple would be just about right. No trouble to raise the money, either. What a lot of time is frittered away which might be put to good use? The School Board is the easy boss. Where does it get all that money? Somebody will be taking out a writ of certiorari or habeas corpus or something against that Patriotic Fund. Can you blame them? When the Herald once gets cornered it is apt to say anything. Notice how it wriggles when the Mayor prods it. When Rev. Mr. Going gets going as a going concern, I was going to say. But I suppose the reverend gentleman has heard all that before. In the meantime keep the matches out of reach of the children. For the benefit of Ald. Morris it may be mentioned that the Herald has a habit of turning and rending its friends. Beware!

Wilful Murder

London, July 5.—A verdict of wilful murder has been rendered against the East Indian student who shot Lt.-Col. Wylie at a public gathering here on July 1. Records found in the student's room showed that he had been practicing steadily with a pistol since last January. The notebook gave the results of his shots at varying distances.

LADY GREY

Ill of Scarlet Fever—Capt. Newton Also Sick With It.

Lady Grey, who returned from Toronto on Thursday last, after attending the meeting of the International Council of Women, was on Saturday found to be ill with scarlet fever, and Capt. Newton, A. D. C., who attended Her Excellency in Toronto, is ill with the same disease. Both patients are reported this morning to be doing favorably.

BURNED OUT.

Woolverton Block at Grimsby Destroyed This Morning.

Fire of unknown origin did considerable damage at Grimsby this morning. The Woolverton block, on Main street, was badly gutted. The fire started about 9.45 in rear of the men's furnishing store of W. F. Maddox. It worked its way into a Chinese laundry adjoining; into Schwab & Gilmore's barber shop; and into the Grimsby Club, and also scorched Culp's harness shop. The building was a long one, having a frontage of about 150 feet. It was of frame, with a covering of sheet iron. Mr. Maddox's stock was greatly damaged by fire, and the contents of the other places suffered by water. By 11.30 the fire was out. The loss has not yet been estimated.

BE GOOD

For Nothing Else Will be Allowed at Oakland's.

Mr. J. Merick, manager of the amusement department at Oakland Park, was sworn in this morning before Judge Mosek as a county constable. Some young men have apparently taken it into their heads that they can do as they please in the park, but the park committee are determined to impress upon them that such actions are not to be tolerated, and that the moral standard will be kept at a high level.

WRITS ISSUED.

Acting on behalf of the Canadian Writer Press Co., Mr. S. F. Washington, K. C., issued a writ this morning against the Hew. R. Wood Co., of Toronto, to restrain that company from infringing on the patent right of a writing machine belonging to the plaintiff.

GOOD SWIMMER'S BOAT DRIFTED.

Charles Green, a Fine Young Man, Lost His Life In Lake Ontario.

A sad fatality occurred near Burlington Beach on Saturday afternoon, when Charles Green was drowned in the lake about a quarter of a mile out from shore, while swimming from a boat. The drowning happened about 4 o'clock and had one eye-witness, Miss Isabel Cameron, a nurse employed by Mr. Ernest Lazier, who, unfortunately, did not see the young man's predicament in time to send assistance to him. Green was employed by the Cataract Power Company as a metre reader, and after finishing his work at noon on Saturday he went to the Beach, where he resided with his mother. After lunch he did some work in the garden and then decided to go for a row. Borrowing a boat from a friend named Frock, he asked his mother if she would like to go with him. She replied that she was not feeling well and would rather stay at home. Green did not press her, and taking his bathing suit, jumped in the boat and went alone. Rowing out until he was about a mile from shore, he changed his clothes for his bathing suit and detached into the water. Whether the lake was too cold for him and he became distressed with cramps or whether he swam too far from the boat and could not reach it again will never be known, but it is thought that as there was a high wind blowing the boat might have drifted a considerable distance and caused him to become exhausted and sink before he could reach it. This latter theory is the most probable, as, according to an experienced man, who was watching the boat, it was drifting almost as fast as a man could swim. It was just before the unfortunate young man sank that Miss Cameron first saw him, and at that time he was swimming towards the boat and seemed to be in difficulty. She immediately gave the alarm and Mr. Ackland got his boat out to assist him. Before he had gone a dozen feet, however, the struggling man had disappeared and was not seen again. Mr. Ackland, on being unable to find any trace of the young man, seized the boat and towed it to shore. A suit of clothes and a hat were found in the bottom.

CHARLES GREEN.

Popular young man who was drowned in the lake on Saturday.

There with his mother, who is a widow. Green's only other surviving relatives are his brother, Burge Green, and his uncles, Ira Green, and his brothers, of this city. Deceased was a corporal in H Company, Ninety-first Highlands, and had passed examinations this spring as a sergeant. He was a member of the Burlington Methodist Church, and sung in the choir.

Green was a popular young man, and leaves a host of friends who will sincerely regret his untimely death. He was considered a good swimmer and had been known to swim two miles on one occasion.

Coroner Speers, who was notified, said that should the body be recovered, it would not be necessary to hold an inquest.

All yesterday was spent in a vain attempt to recover the body by grappling. The operations were resumed this morning and will be continued while there remains a possibility of finding the body.

FATALITIES OF THE FOURTH.

Fewer Independence Day Casualties Than Formerly, But Many Die From Fireworks Explosions and Burning.

Prominent Louisville Man Succumbs to His Injuries.

Camden, N. J., July 5.—Ruth T. Knowles, 7 years old, was burned about the back and neck when her dress caught fire from fireworks and died in the Cooper Hospital yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—The first death in this city from fireworks was recorded last night, when Mary Guercy, 2 1/2 years old, died from burns received on Saturday. Her clothing had been ignited by a firecracker.

GRAM FIGURES.

Chicago, July 5.—Statistics compiled by the Tribune regarding the Fourth of July casualties throughout the country indicate a much smaller list of fatalities and injuries than in any preceding year. The figures procured after the first day of celebration follow:

Dead 10; by fireworks and resulting fires, 5; by cannon, 1; by firearms, 3; by gaspuffer 2; by toy pistols, 1. Injured 421—by fireworks 100; by cannon 51; by firearms, 62; by gaspuffer 39; by toy pistols, 9; by bomb caps, 3; by runaway, 14. Fire loss $69,200.

TETANUS CLAIMS ONE.

New York, July 4.—It is estimated that the human traffic afford in the vicinity of the harbor for the national birthday totalled 200,000 people.

The first case of death by tetanus was recorded to-night, and the list of minor injuries is growing hourly. Twelve distributors of anti-toxine have been appointed, and all the hospitals have had in extra supplies.

MORE CASUALTIES.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 5.—An over-charged cannon exploded last night in North Wilkesbarre for the national birthday. The explosion killed two men and so badly injured that two of them may not recover. Michael McNulty's left hand was blown off, Thomas Callahan lost an eye and James Dougherty and Anthony Pockowitz were perhaps fatally burned.

Exploding firecrackers set fire to the dress of 12-year-old Rosa Lituanke, and she was fatally burned.

BOY DROWNED.

Madison, Ill., July 5.—Frank Dixon, 14 years old, son of Geo. Dixon, of St. Louis, was drowned yesterday in Horseshoe Lake, near Madison. He was frightened by the explosion of a cannon cracked behind him and fell from the bank on which he had been dozing. The youth and his two brothers had been sent here by their father to avoid the possibility of their being injured by fireworks in St. Louis.

PROMINENT MAN A VICTIM.

Louisville, Ky., July 5.—The unenviable distinction of having made the most notable sacrifice to patriotism by reason of Independence Day celebration this year, will probably fall to Louisville. (Continued on Page 10.)

BOY KILLED.

Fell Off a Wagon and Crushed to Death Under Wheels.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Kingston, Ont., July 5.—Russell Gummer, aged 14, son of William Gummer, inventory, cast of here, met death this afternoon in a tragic manner. In company with Howard Keyes, he was riding on the wagon of George Hunter, who was drawing cheese to Kingston. A box of cheese rolled off on the horses, causing them to run away. Young Gummer was thrown under the wheels, his back being broken. Dr. Freeman was called, but the boy died in twenty minutes.

LIVED HERE.

Mr. Brill, Killed at Tacoma, Buried Here Yesterday.

Mr. Brill, who was killed at the Puget Sound Iron & Steel Works, Tacoma, was a brother of Mr. John Brill, who resides at 86 Magill street this city. Mr. Brill received a telegram notifying him of his brother's death on the 28th, and wired back for the body to be shipped to Hamilton. He received another telegram stating that the remains had been shipped, and would arrive in this city about Saturday morning, but they did not reach the city until yesterday. The deceased formerly worked at the rolling mills in this city, but for the past few years has been in Tacoma. Upon the arrival of the remains yesterday morning they were taken to Dwyer's undertaking rooms, and the funeral took place from there yesterday afternoon at St. Mary's Church, thence to Holy Sepulchre cemetery. Rev. Father Hinchey officiated, and the pall-bearers were: Mike Pomoke, J. Cleaver, V. Lookey, T. Whittories, J. Dellaville and John Smith.

WANTS HIS PAY.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 5.—Jonas Tomason, an Icelandic, charges that Moore, a farmer of this neighborhood, after keeping him in his employ for three years, turned him adrift without paying him anything. As a result, Moore has been summoned to appear in the Police Court on Wednesday. Missions, having no money, Tomason is being looked after by the local police.

WAYS OF MALAY PIRATES.

The Population That Lived by Piracy is Estimated at 60,000.

Singapore is agitated just now by a tale of piracy, one of the old sort, a Chinese junk was boarded near Johore, that is within sight of the island if not of the city, and seven men were killed besides the captain, spared for torture until he surrendered his valuables. Police, blue-jackets and volunteers are searching for the miscreants.

Perhaps there is no case on record so outrageous within such a trifling distance from the men of war in Singapore roads, but elsewhere in the Chinese seas it would have been remarkable less than fifty years ago "Malay pirates" are so closely identified with fiction of the boys' adventure class that sceptics have doubted their existence in plain fact. But the wildest romances, says Frederick Boyle in the Mail Magazine, would not dare to describe them as they actually were in their great day.

About 1850 Rajah Brooke put the number of those who swept the coasts of Borneo alone, going and returning with monsoons, at 5,000. When Consul at Brani somewhat later St. John estimated the population which lived as one may say by piracy at 60,000. And if "casuals" had been included, their women and children, it would have been vastly larger.

The judicious reader, instantly repelled by the trade name, would not be so promptly under this infliction. But the ruffians did not depend on plunder. It was welcome, but they sought slaves—and blood inexplicably that word is used in the parlance, though mostly Mohammedans, regarded their employment as a calling or profession to which they were born. With no thought of wrong-doing, apparently, they murdered harmless fishermen, sailors, or peasants dwelling on the shore, or took to the sea, or were transported and tortured those whom they carried off. Among the most dreaded pirates also were the Seribas and Sakarran Dyaks Rajah Brooke's future subjects who wanted head and both arms, but plundered the shore as well as the sea.

It is not very surprising to learn that the worst Malay pirates were not Malays at all, but unfortunate races of people with many imputations which it does not deserve. The Lanuns, or Illanuns, dwell originally in Mindanao, a great island of the Philippines, where Dampier found them peaceable enough, working gold. They were driven to piracy by the chiefs, though the chiefs had their gorgeous barges. The Balinini came from Sulu; in fact that was a piratical name for the islanders, otherwise called Sulu.

Perhaps it was they who started the abominable practice of Indian slavery, which provoked into sending an expedition against them so early as 1559. It failed, as did many another; "and from that time," says the old historian Zuniga, it is incredible what a number of Indians (Filipinos) have been taken prisoners, what villages have been destroyed and what vessels have been captured." But the Spaniards succeeded at length in making Mindanao too hot to hold the Lanun freebooters, and a squadron of settlements up and down the China Sea, each of which became a centre of piracy.

One can understand that this way of life fosters courage and enterprise as well as seamanship. The daring of these two peoples especially was superb. In their praus of fifty to a hundred tons burden they started every year with the monsoon for a cruise of six or twelve or even eighteen months. Nothing daunted them until the treacherous European in-terlopers came. Once the Lanuns sent a formal challenge to Batavia, inviting the Dutch fleet to a duel en regle; they did not turn up at the rendezvous, but experts believe that the cartel was delivered in good faith. The length of their cruises were scarcely credible. Willace says the Sulus not infrequently reached Seram and New Guinea. They were brave to madness, full of life and energy. Some boys were taken in the fight between the Rainbow and a squadron of Lanuns in 1862, of which Bishop MacDougal wrote a famous account in the Times. Carried to Sarawak, these urchins instantly put themselves at the head of the native youth and organized it for mischief.

Once heard the commandant say to Rajah Brooke: "We shall never have good order in the town again until you send those Lanun brats away!" It is a question whether these rascals took to piracy because they were more intelligent of stronger character than their neighbors or whether piracy developed their faculties; but certainly they were the most vigorous and hopeful of the people called Malay. Crawford admits that the Sulus had attained a "considerable civilization" of this sort; in fact Hunt's report on the main island, drawn up for Sir Stamford Raffles, pictures it a garden, admirably cultivated by a free and happy people. Doubtless the pirates were law abiding and industrious at home. But the high prosperity represented by the shore was taken to an end under the repeated attacks of Spanish, Dutch and British squadrons. In 1878 the Spaniards were able to conquer Sulu. That incursion has been removed happily, and we may hope that the former pirates will show their capacity as leaders in the march of progress under American rule.

A MODEL BUILDING.

Eight Hundred Windows Provide Light But Not Air.

In the new $750,000 five-story fire-proof office building which the Armour's have put up in Chicago for their office force of 1,200 the latest ideas for such construction have been incorporated. Light being the most important single factor in office efficiency, the structure takes the shape of the letter E. On all the exposed sides there are windows, except for the outside of the short middle stroke, which holds the vaults. Each floor contains 140,000 square feet, yet the furthest distance of any desk from a window is 40 feet.

The ceilings are about 15-12 feet high. Eight hundred tall windows break the walls, placed in sets of three or six feet on all four sides of the building. Partitions have been eliminated as far as possible. Broad aisles alone make the divisions between departments. In the private offices are glass walls, extending down to the ceiling, and that, says System, private offices are not only for a few executive heads, who have many conferences or confidential work, but also for the needs of secretarial departments. Fifteen hundred electric glow lamps set close to the ceiling nine feet apart and controlled in groups from several switchboards set into the walls on each floor at convenient locations furnish the artificial light. This arrangement was carefully studied. Four ninety candle-power lamps are spaced equidistantly in each bay, and twelve feet above the desks and provide abundance of light. At each switchboard a meter shows the current used in each group.

Windows here have but one purpose. They let in the light and provide the ventilation. Except for the middle window of each set they are double sashed and immovable. A complete system of tile ducts in the walls carries fresh air to the rooms through registers in the walls near the ceiling and leads away the foul air through similar openings near the floor.

Fresh filtered air is pumped into the distributing system of ducts by a fan in the basement. The air is drawn through a bank of pipes through which cold water or steam is sent, depending upon whether the cool or warm air is necessary. This purifies the air and heats it in winter-cools it in summer. Another big fan on the roof draws out the foul air.

INTERNATIONAL TEMPLE.

The regular weekly meeting of the above Juvenile Good Templar Lodge was held in the C. O. O. F. hall on Saturday afternoon. In the absence through illness of the superintendent, Mrs. C. A. Hardy, assistant superintendent, presided, and was assisted by Miss Addie Eyd, Chief Templar. The following programme was presented: Piano solo, Miss Nellie Morrison; song, Miss Alice Greaves; recitation, Master Frank Cramp; song, Mrs. C. A. Hardy; recitation, Miss Mabel Austin. The song by the acting superintendent proved a great hit, and an encore had to be responded to.

Next Saturday afternoon, owing to the adult lodge picnic, there will be no meeting of the temple, but on the following Saturday Miss Mabel Austin, the zealous young secretary of the temple, will provide a programme of rare char-

LADY ABERDEEN.

Irish Say Her Tuberculosis Campaign Hurts Tourist Trade.

Dublin, July 3.—Lady Aberdeen, with a coterie of friends, is waging an anti-consumption campaign, with the result that the Irish people are now wishing she had stuck to fostering cottage industries.

Summer tourists in Ireland have been few and the reason given is that Lady Aberdeen and her friends have spread the idea that Ireland is a hotbed of consumption and dangerous to visit. They also declare that the campaign has affected the domestic servant industry, as English mistresses are now afraid to employ Irish girls.

The inhabitants of several seaside tourist resorts are vigorously opposing the erection of sanatoria proposed by the consumption crusaders, so they think they would ruin the neighborhood.

FATAL DRINK.

Child Finds Liquor in Bedroom and Swallows Half a Pint.

North Tonawanda, July 4.—Paul, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerhardt, of 73 Robinson street, died this evening from the effects of whiskey.

The child got a bottle containing the liquor this morning from a bedroom where his parents kept it and drank about half a pint of the stuff.

It was not long after that the youngster staggered from the room in a stupor and a few minutes later he lost consciousness. Dr. A. J. Martin, coroner, was summoned.

From 9 o'clock in the morning until death the child was unconscious. Every means known to the medical profession were resorted to in an effort to arouse the boy from the stupor, but not once did the little fellow show a sign of reviving.

ENDED HER LIFE.

Aged Resident of Hastings Takes Paris Green.

Hastings, July 3.—Mrs. James Stevenson, of this town, died this morning as a result of taking Paris green yesterday morning. After she had taken the poison she crossed the road to the house of her daughter and told her what she had done. Medical aid was at once summoned, and every possible effort made to save her, but without success, and she died early this morning. She was a woman of about sixty years of age, and her health had been poor for some time. It is supposed that she took the poison in a fit of temporary insanity.

ANOTHER BODY.

Niagara River Gives Up Fourth Within a Week.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., July 3.—The river this afternoon gave up its fifth body within a month and the fourth within a week. Never before in the history of the river have so many bodies been found floating in the lower Niagara in a week, and the record of 1908, when thirteen suicides occurred at or near the Cataract, bids fair to be broken. The body recovered today is that of a man about forty years old, five feet nine inches in height, weight about 140 pounds; nude except for a pair of black socks and one black shoe. Identification may be established by the teeth, which contained considerable gold.

OFFICIALS EVERYWHERE.

In France They Number One to Ninety of Population.

Paris, July 3.—It has been calculated that there are at least 440,000 civil servants in France, which is at the rate of one for every ninety of the entire population, and now it is announced that the salaries of these people amount to 700,000,000 francs, or $140,000,000, at the smallest estimate. This, as has just been pointed out, means an average of $220 for each. Public education, with its 121,600 "functionaries," alone takes $10,000,000. How all these posts are sought after will be seen when it is mentioned that 2,356 female school teachers have been candidates for 150 situations, and that the Prefecture of the Seine contains applications amounting to 28,260 for berths as road menders or cleaners, when there is an average of only thirty-two vacancies a year. Seventeen hundred women have actually competed for a single post reserved for the fair sex.

Hats for Horses.

Experiments made by Baron Henri d'Anchald, a French scientist, have resulted in proving that the well-met practice of affixing straw hats to the heads of horses, for the purpose of protecting them from the sun's heat, not only fails to accomplish its purpose, but actually aggravates the suffering of the animals.

The experiments were made when the temperature of the atmosphere was 79 degrees in the shade. Bareheaded horses standing in the sun were found to have a temperature of 86 under their forelocks. When straw hats were put on them, their temperature under the forelocks rose to 103. A horse moving in the sun had a temperature of 83. Under a straw hat the temperature rose to 91, and under cloth to 100.

The explanation is that the covering prevents the free movement of air and serves to accumulate heat. The head that is covered by the hat is therefore, in the result of these experiments, not only fails to accomplish its purpose, but actually aggravates the suffering of the animals.

THE FARM

POULTRY POINTS.

An old-time theory said that hens without the attention of a male would lay just as well, but not be so apt to become broody, as those mated. Our records show they will lay as well, but unmated flocks are not broody-proof by any means. The past season our unpaired birds, with a few exceptions, became broody first, while two-year-old hens were the last to show any signs.

Old hens make the best mothers, but the pullets are the better layers. Shells, grit and charcoal should be accessible to the fowls at all times. The laying stock in one coop should all be of the same age. Hens and pullets do not mix well together.

To gain knowledge of chicken growing we must read and profit by the experience of others. One cannot learn it all in one year.

Plain, common-sense business management is the way to make money in raising poultry. Don't attempt to do much at a cost. Increase the flock as you grow in knowledge.

In buying beef scrap be sure to buy only the best grade. A cheap beef scrap is a very expensive purchase in the end. Better to pay $4.00 a hundred than $2.00.

It is better to have the brooder hover a little too warm than to let the heat get down. If too warm, the chicks will stick their heads out; if too cold they will crowd.

Eggs for hatching should be kept on racks in a cool place. Turned hatching eggs must be turned three times a week until ready to place under the hen.

The people who get the most eggs are not the ones who are all the time counting their steps and consulting their watches.

Successful poultry raising and egg production go hand in hand with good care and shelter.

If the poultry business is worth doing at all, it is worth doing right. The mongrel thing of the past in profitable poultry raising is gone.

Give the hen a clean and comfortable house, wholesome food and pure water, and she is a money-maker for farmers.

Cure for Ivy Poisoning.

The person who takes ramblings through the woods at twilight, changing lace-socks thereafter with itching hands, and suffering real agony, from ivy-poison, Poison oak and ivy are much like the copper-head snakes in bills in that both seem to try hard to torture human beings with their poison, and will do so if they come too close, especially in the spring. A physician once told me that there was nothing that would cure ivy-poison quickly, but that doctoring it and letting it alone took about equal time; so he advised washing the parts quite often and letting it take its course.

Now, the cure consists in a very simple remedy. A physician once told me that there was nothing that would cure ivy-poison quickly, but that doctoring it and letting it alone took about equal time; so he advised washing the parts quite often and letting it take its course.

DISALLOW IT!

The confederate legislation passed by the Whitney Government in the Cobalt Lake case, and the acts passed to close the courts of justice against private citizens seeking adjudication of their rights in that case and in the Hydro-Electric power matter have been productive of much adverse criticism. These cases involve such a serious breach of faith and such an attack upon the security of property and the right to access of the courts that it is not to be wondered at that they have attracted attention in Great Britain, the effect being to weaken confidence in the safety of investments made in the Province where laws impairing the obligation of contracts are tolerated by the people. Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, while severely stigmatizing legislation of the kind, did not in the Cobalt case advise its disallowance, holding it to be within the competence of the Province, however vicious or unjust it might be. The statutes depriving citizens of access to the courts in the power matter are still subject to be disallowed, and there is a very strong sentiment in favor of such a course. A number of questions bearing on this subject have been submitted to A. V. Dicey, K. C., LL. D., Vinerian Professor of English Law, University of Oxford, perhaps the best authority on such matters in the United Kingdom, and his replies very clearly set forth his views on the subject. As might be expected, he regards with something akin to horror the outrage upon private rights involved in this class of legislation. Professor Dicey is not prepared to say that under the B. N. A. Act, which empowers the Legislatures to make any law in relation to "property and civil rights in the Province," such Legislature is not empowered to deprive individuals of their property rights without compensation. He points out that there is nothing in the act providing "that a law passed by a provincial Legislature shall not be palpably unjust." The United States constitution "imposing the obligation of contracts"; but no such safeguard is provided in the B. N. A. Act. Professor Dicey finds the only safeguard against such injustice in the power of disallowance. This power of disallowance he regards as unlimited, and he adds that "it is surely intended to be exercised to prevent the enactment of unjust laws, especially where such injustice may, as in the cases submitted to me, work gross injury to the whole people of the Dominion."

As to the validity of the power legislation staying action in the London power case, and closing the courts to suits against the Power Commission, Professor Dicey says: "I answer this question with some hesitation. On the whole I am of opinion that they are valid, i. e., they are not beyond the power conferred by the B. N. A. Act, 1867, s. 92, s. 13, on a Provincial Legislature; but it is right to add that these acts, taken as a whole, and PARTICULARLY THE POWER COMMISSION ACT, 1909, s. 2, s. 8, seem to me practically to have an effect so STRANGE AND MANIFESTLY UNJUST that it is possible the court—say the Privy Council—might be inclined to hold them invalid."

As to the Power Commission legislation, Professor Dicey is, as have been all students of law and equity, shocked at the manifest injustice of the action of the Legislature. He declares that "the injustice and impolicy of these Acts is almost patent. It is clear, further, that though they may directly affect only property and civil rights in a particular Province, THEY MUST AFFECT THE CREDIT AND INTEREST OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA AS A WHOLE." The Power Commission Act, 1909, appears to be, if there be any difference, rather more opposed to the ordinary rules of just legislation than even the acts relied upon in the Cobalt case. But he is not sure that the power of disallowance being vested in the Dominion, the Privy Council would hold the legislation to be invalid. He says:

"The idea, indeed, naturally suggests itself that a so-called law which without compensation confiscated the property of an individual or of designated individuals, or imposed upon an individual or such designated individuals, liability for a contract into which he or they had not in fact entered might be held invalid as not being a law at all, i. e., as lacking that generality which some writers ascribe to a law (see, e. g., Pollock, First Book of Jurisprudence, p. 25), and that, e. g., the Power Commission Act, 1909, s. 2, s. 8, might thus be treated by a court as falling outside s. 92 altogether on the ground that it was not a law at all. But I doubt greatly whether this position could be maintained with success before the Privy Council."

The remedies for such infamous abuse of legislative power as that of which the Whitney Government has been guilty in this connection are thus stated by Professor Dicey:

1. They may, if a given act, e. g., the Power Commission Act, 1909, is still liable, as I believe from the papers sent me it is, to disallowance by the Governor-General, petition for its disallowance. IT IS HARDLY, I MAY ADD, POSSIBLE TO CONCEIVE A STRONGER CASE IN FAVOR OF DISALLOWING AN ACT.

2. They may influence the public opinion of Canada, so as to induce the Governor-General, or in effect the Ministry of the day, to disallow Provincial Acts which do injustice to individuals and shake the credit of the whole Dominion.

3. They may obtain from the Imperial Parliament an amendment of the B. N. A. Act, limiting the power of Provincial Legislatures to interfere with acquired rights and with the validity of contracts. Such an amendment, however, would, as things now stand, hardly be obtained from the Imperial Parliament unless it were obviously desired by the people of Canada.

The proper remedy, and that which might be looked for from an honest government, is the prompt repeal of the vicious legislation. The fact, that such Acts were ever placed on our statute books is a disgrace to the Province, but there is no probability that the Whitney Government, bent upon consummating the injustice, will undo the evil which it has enacted into law. The obvious, the only practical remedy and guarantee for private rights and the sacred obligations of contract, lies in the power of disallowance, that power should be exercised by the Dominion at once. The good fame of Ontario is at stake. Justice and the safeguarding of the rights of the citizen urgently demand it.

NOW, SETTLE THE MATTER.

Now that the Special Power Committee has decided upon counsel to assist City Solicitor Waddell in opposing the power injunction proceedings instituted by Mr. R. S. Morris, it is to be hoped that there will be a speedy disposition of the matter which has already caused so much waste of time to the Council, and money to the ratepayers. Holman, Drayton & Monahan, the firm selected, has a reputation which is a guarantee that the city's case will be well presented. The City Solicitor's position is not an enviable one, he being practically given the task of picking flaws in his own work and seeking to render it of no effect. In the somewhat remarkable circumstances, it might perhaps have been well for the Council to have relieved Mr. Waddell of such a duty. It would, at least, have been graceful and considerate. Holiday season in the courts, and the absence of so many judges and lawyers make it difficult to go on with cases like this without more than the usual delay; but the interests of all parties concerned will be served by securing as much expedition as possible.

LABOR LEGISLATION.

The achievements of the Liberal Government in legislation for the benefit of the working classes make a chapter upon which the people of Canada may justly look with pride. The policy which has just been crowned by the creation of a Ministry of Labor, to which Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King has just been appointed, has been productive of many excellent measures, and has given Canada a proud pre-eminence in its care for the welfare of our industrial masses. The Halifax Chronicle recalls some of the principal labor enactments along the line of this policy, to show the scope and activity of the Liberal Administration in connection with the industrial interests of the country:

The establishment of a Department of Labor.

The publication of a monthly journal known as "The Labor Gazette."

Abolition of the sweating system in connection with Government contracts.

Adoption of a fair wages policy with regard to all Government contracts.

Enactment of the Conciliation Act, 1900.

Enactment of the Railway Labor Disputes Act, 1903.

Enactment of the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, 1907.

Enactment of the Alien Labor Act, 1897, and amendments of 1898 and 1901.

An act to prevent false representation to induce immigrants to come to Canada, 1903.

Sending Mr. King to England to urge the British Government to enact legislation upon similar lines to the above, which legislation was enacted in 1905.

Royal Commission in 1900 to inquire into the effect of Chinese and Japanese immigration.

Imposition of $500 head tax on Chinese coming into Canada as a result of recommendations by this commission.

Royal Commission to investigate methods by which Oriental laborers were induced to come to Canada.

Special mission of Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Minister of Labor, to Japan in the interests of restrictive legislation and the satisfactory results of this mission.

Mission of Mr. King, Deputy Minister of Labor, to England, resulting in complete prohibition of Hindoo contract labor.

Legislation to protect the health of workmen and women.

Legislation for the prevention of accidents on railways and the appointment of an officer to investigate causes of all railway accidents.

Investigation in 1907 into conditions of employment of the operatives of the Bell Telephone Co., resulting in material improvement in the conditions of labor of hundreds of women and young girls.

Other important measures such as were protecting railway crossings, the Lord's Day Act, suppression of opium traffic in Canada, increase of salaries to the civil servants, increase of pay to postmen, letter carriers and others in the public service.

In the light of the facts of legislative and administrative record, it is not hard to account for the Laurier Government's popularity with the industrial masses of the country. Never before, in any country, has there been a Government which devoted such careful attention to the welfare of all the people, and took such a deep interest in securing to the men who work their full rights before the law, and their proper share of influence in public affairs. With Hon. Mr. King as Minister of Labor, this policy will be continued and elaborated.

To-day our neighbors across the line celebrate "the glorious Fourth." Already an early case or two of celebration lock-jaw is reported. In New York City an organized corps of tetanus anti-toxine distributors has been sent out. Celebrations of this kind are very costly to human life and property.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Four bodies have been taken from lower Niagara within a week. Who knows how much of life's tragedy lies behind these finds?

There is a rumor abroad that the recent operation on Caruso's throat has changed his voice into something like a bass. A sort of debasing performance, so to speak.

The maximum and minimum provisions of the United States tariff bill have been adopted by the Senate. These features will become effective on March 31st, 1910.

According to the returns of the Rhodessa Chamber of Mines, the gold output of the territory last year was $2,526,007. For the month of May this year the output was $225,032.

Lord Strathcona has given another half million to McGill-University. He is becoming a sort of Canadian Carnegie. Wouldn't some of our local institutions like to have such a fairy godfather?

A lot of New York and Chicago women have set out to do Europe. Their baggage being by agreement limited to a suitcase. What? No peach-basket hats, even? The day of powder, pad and tooth brush travel may be near.

Highfield School, Hamilton, won the second annual open inter-school rifle competition by a score of 211, leading its next highest competitor by 21 points. Hats off to Highfield School! Its target practice has not been in vain.

Motor boating is not entirely without its dangers. The Turbina lost considerable time on Saturday afternoon rescuing two men in a disabled launch and taking them into Oakville. By so doing, she was probably the means of averting a drowning disaster.

Now a prominent member of the German Reichstag is striving to alarm Germany against "the American peril." United States "designs on Canada" are, he thinks indicated in the cultivation of bad feelings between Germany and Great Britain.

The Philadelphia Sabbath Association is planning a fall campaign against Sabbath violation. It is proposed to divide the city into districts and to undertake the enforcement of the Sunday Blue Laws of 1794, which are still on the State statute books.

The New York Herald says at least one down east community requires all public school pupils to learn to swim. It is a useful accomplishment. There are times when the boy or girl who can swim has a great advantage over the one who can wreathe sticks or even jabber bad Greek.

The man illegally arrested by Manitoba Provincial officers on the day of the Dominion election, and locked up in a cell till, as he was told, he could not "pay his fine," has been awarded $100 damages. Surely the Provincial Government healers could have got a vote cheaper than that.

The Cobalt sufferers from fire are being well cared for. The money loss will probably approximate $300,000, which will mostly fall upon the owners, as the insurance companies, fearing confiscation, had recently cancelled nearly all their policies in that district of the town. Cobalt needs building restrictions.

Sir Thomas Lipton is willing to make another try for the America's Cup, giving the New York Yacht Club the choice of any rule, European or American, with a boat of any size the defenders may prefer. There is little chance of Sir Thomas obtaining conditions that will be fair to the challenging boat; but perhaps he will get some advertising out of the attempt.

The cable informs us that Lord Rosebery is to quit the Liberal party. His Lordship is one of the largest beneficiaries of the "unearned increment" and the new taxes which take a portion of this increment in land values for the benefit of the community are said to be very distasteful to him. Even if Lord Rosebery, he cannot hinder the advance of the policy indicated in that feature of the new budget.

Rev. J. W. Pedley, Toronto, had something to say about Sir Hugh Graham's speech at the Press Conference, in which he said that Canada had been sponging on the taxpayers of Great Britain for naval defence. He vigorously denied this accusation, which he characterized as "flunkeyism; toadyism; tuft-hunting."

After the arrest he said Fraser was not the only one he wanted to shoot, and at the preliminary hearing, after confessing to the murder, he said his only regret was that he had been captured before he could satisfy the grudge he bore against his other neighbors. The murderer is 26 years of age, and a native of Stafford, Ont.

Chinese Sues Railway. New York, July 3.—Chung Ling Chow, who describes himself as a promoter, is suing the New York Central Railroad to recover $10,000 as damages for being put off one of the defendant's trains without reason on April 10th last. According to the Chinese, he purchased a Pullman sleeper ticket that day, intending to go to Chicago, but when the train reached Buffalo he was unceremoniously ejected, for no other apparent reason than that he was of the Celestial race. He is said to be a large land-owner in Canada.

By blocking all resolutions that pointed in the direction of effective action in the matter of participation by the overseas dominions in imperial defence the reverend editor of the Globe may have imagined he was expressing Canadian sentiment as of press conference. CEMENT MILLS. (London Advertiser.) Altogether there are twenty-three cement mills in Canada; fifteen are located in Ontario, three in Quebec, two in Alberta and one each in Nova Scotia, Manitoba and British Columbia. Worked full time, these mills have a capacity of ten million barrels per year, which as yet is far in excess of the country's needs.

FROM DEATH TO LIFE. (Toronto Star.) A fifteen-year-old boy in Brantford, after having been under water for ten or fifteen minutes, was brought to shore and resuscitated by members of a fire brigade, who, during the past winter, took lessons in the work of reviving the apparently drowned. When the boy was brought ashore the attempt to bring him around seemed hopeless, but after ten minutes of hard and intelligent work signs of life were given. Presently he moved an arm, and one can imagine the relief of the bystanders when the youth announced his complete recovery by lustily shouting for help. Although twenty or twenty-five minutes had elapsed, his consciousness resumed at the exact point where it had left him.

ANCASTER MAN. Death of Mr. John H. Miller at Springfield.

The death occurred at Springfield last week, of Mr. John H. Miller, a former Ancaster resident, who had for years been general manager of the Springfield Railway Company. Mr. Miller was in the prime of life, 44 years. He was born in Ancaster in October, 1864; was left an orphan at the age of seven and had fought his way to the top against long odds. He gained a common school education in Ontario and, at the age of 15 went to Winnipeg, where he held the first book-keeping position. For some time he was with the Bell Telephone Company and managed to save enough money to put himself through the Worcester, Mass., technical school, graduating with high honors. He then came west to Bloomington, Ind., where he became connected with the Thompson-Houston Electric Company and until 1890 was engaged in the erection of electric plants all over the country. In that year he went to Springfield to take a position with the Light and Power Company and was shortly afterwards made manager. In 1900 this company was merged with the Springfield Street Railway Company and Mr. Miller became general manager.

On January 29 last, he was stricken with paralysis and had a second stroke shortly after. Up to a week ago Friday it was hoped he would recover. A week ago to-day complications arose and he sank into a comatose state from which he never recovered.

Mr. Miller was a prominent Mason and a member of all the bodies of the Scottish Rite and of the Commandery. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Gibbs, of Terra Haute, Ind., and two children, Elizabeth, aged 13, and Gibbs, aged 9; also three sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. W. L. Smith, of Glanford, Mrs. Robert Ralph, of Arlington, and Mrs. F. K. (Dr.) Armstrong, of Eden, N. Y. The brothers, Oliver and William Miller, are both in Ontario. Mrs. Smith was with him and his family when the end came.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH. Sanford Hainer in Jail at Prince Albert.

Prince Albert, Sask., July 4.—Sanford Hainer, who brutally murdered A. D. Fraser from ambush on the latter's homestead at Margo on July 1, is now in jail here, having been arrested by Mounted Policeman Abich. The murderer claims the crime was the result of a financial dispute, as he says Fraser owed him money which he would not pay. The prisoner was captured at his shack, where he had hidden himself with his Winchester rifle. The place was surrounded, and after an exchange of shots he surrendered.

After the arrest he said Fraser was not the only one he wanted to shoot, and at the preliminary hearing, after confessing to the murder, he said his only regret was that he had been captured before he could satisfy the grudge he bore against his other neighbors. The murderer is 26 years of age, and a native of Stafford, Ont.

Good Short Stories

"Yes, sir," said the pale, youthful author, "I have come to ask you for your daughter's hand. She is fair as lilies, sweet as honeysuckle, tender as a violet, charming." "Is that Mary you are talking about?" asked papa. "Yes, sir. It is a mere formality, I know, this asking for your daughter's hand; but we thought it would be pleasing to you if it were observed." "Mary's papa stiffened," he asked, "who suggested that asking my consent to Mary's marriage was a mere formality?" "You may, sir," replied the young man, simply. "It was Mary's mother." "Tit-Bits."

When Dominico Esposito was questioned in the United States District Court to test his qualifications for citizenship he showed a lack of careful coaching. "What is the Constitution of the United States?" Esposito was asked. "The biggest ship," was the reply. "What is the meaning of the Fourth of July?" "That is day Easta Riv' froze over." "Who was George Washington?" "George Washington was a big Tammany man. Had much contract." "Is Governor Hughes a State or a national officer?" "Yes, I dunno. He stop much horse race. I guess he want Teddy's job." "Do you believe in anarchy?" "I dunno. Me from Sicily. Never heard of him." "Are you willing to take up arms at any time to destroy the United States?" "Any time that I can."

The late commander, General Shafter, although a man of corpulence, had a deep dislike to fat soldiers. "They're no use," he would bluster in his tremendous bass. "They pant, they wheeze, they snort, they choke, they grunt, they groan, they waddle, they slouch the world! Not a particle of good on earth, fat soldiers!" "But—yourself—you would not exactly call yourself slight, would you, colonel?" a major once asked Shafter, after one of these outbursts. "Slight? No!" Shafter thundered in reply. "I've been a fat old nuisance ever since the day I tipped the beam at over two hundred pounds, and then I ought to have been court-martialed and cashiered for outrageous and malicious adiposity, sir—for scandalous corpulence to the prejudice of military discipline!"

An excited, middle-aged lady bounded into the local police station the other day and accosted the inspector on duty. "Where's my Jim?" she demanded. "Bel pardon, madam—dog, I presume," said the officer. "Don't you dare to presume nothing of the kind," snapped the lady. "Dog, indeed! No, sir, husband—my husband. He's missing, disappeared, de-camped."

"You don't say so!" "But I'd have you to understand that I do say so, young man. How dare you sit there and flatly contradict a ratepayer?—leastways, the lawful wife of one. I'll report you! Where's my husband?" "My dear madam—"

"How dare you call me your dear madam? Do you think I come here to be insulted? I tell you my husband has disappeared, and you sit there like a dummy. What do you think of that?" "Well, madam," responded the polite inspector, "I haven't the pleasure of your husband's acquaintance, but I should say he's a wise man. Constable Blunt, show this lady out."—Tit-Bits.

NEIL LECKIE. Induction at Kirkwall Took Place Last Week.

The induction of Rev. Neil M. Leckie, B.A., B.D., as pastor of the Beverly Presbyterian Church, Kirkwall, took place on Wednesday last. Rev. S. W. Fisher, P.A., who acted as moderator during the vacancy, presided and conducted the induction services.

Rev. John Young, of this city, preached the sermon. Rev. Dr. Dickson, of Central Church, Galt, addressed the new minister and kindly counsel and Rev. D. M. Robertson, B.A., of Strabane, addressed the congregation on their duties to the new relationships which that day had been formed. He congratulated the congregation on the happy settlement and knew from the past history of the people that they would not fail in their duties to their minister. At the close of the service, Mr. Leckie was taken to the vestibule of the church by Mr. Fisher and was introduced to the members of his congregation as they retired.

After the induction services in the church the people repaired to the beautiful grounds of Mr. John Riddell where a sumptuous repast had been provided by the ladies of the congregation.

There the people from far and near assembled for the reception in the evening and a most delightful time was spent. In the early evening the young people enjoyed their sports and when the evening programme began, there were several bright and instructive addresses by the ministers who remained for the afternoon services and by others who offered their congratulations in felicitous remarks. Mr. J. H. Cameron of Toronto, delighted the audience with his songs, character sketches, funny sayings and recitations.

The choir of the church had also made special preparation and greatly assisted the services by their choice selections. Miss Beattie Renwick is organist and leader and deserves much credit for the success of the music.

U. S. PERIL.

GERMAN STATESMAN WARRING AGAINST THE UNITED STATES. Canada is to be the Prey—Great Britain and Germany Should Unite for Mutual Defence—United States Threatened the Whole World With Her Wealth.

Berlin, July 3.—Judge Wilhelm Schwarz, a prominent member of the Reichstag and of the Prussian House of Representatives, seized upon America's eleven-hour use of moral force to secure participation in the Chinese railway loan as a pretext for a fresh and vigorous warning against "the American peril."

Writing in Der Tag, under the caption "Europe for Europeans," the learned Judge urges that England and Germany abandon their mutual suspicions, trade competition, and naval rivalries, and league themselves without further delay against their common enemy from across the water.

America declares the jurist and politician, "is the peril not only for England and Germany, but for all Europe. Instead of arriving at common ways and means for combating the still latent danger, England and Germany are preparing to tear each other to pieces. In order to make the danger acute, Greater Britain and Greater Germany would go to smash on account of the United States."

"Europe should realize this in time to preserve what is still to be preserved. The yellow peril is altogether secondary. Our imperial cousin in America is the greatest danger. The dollar is the bigger. It will annihilate the shilling and the mark unless Europe sets up its own Monroe doctrine of Europe for Europeans. This doctrine must eventually take the form of an economic alliance of all Europe, including England, otherwise America will be the conqueror of the world and will exhaust Europe. The cause of this war would be the supremacy of the sea and the world markets. No matter who won, America would be the eventual and the supreme gainer."

"It is high time to explode the notion that England and Germany are the chief rivals for world trade dominion, and that whoever is defeated the other would attain it. The competitors are not England and Germany. America is not only the competitor of England and Germany alone, but of both of them together."

"Let us not be deceived by the fact that the American merchant marine at present is no match for the English and German mercantile fleets. That is a circumstance due, not to the inability of America to have such a fleet, but simply because it has hitherto not wanted one."

AFTER BILL BROWN. Was Arrested at Alymer For Stealing a Horse.

St. Thomas, July 4.—Bill Brown, Providence, R.I., lately connected with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, is under arrest at Alymer, charged with stealing a horse from Neil McIntyre, St. Thomas. On Friday night, when Brown and McIntyre had been drinking together, Brown drove off with the animal before McIntyre's eyes, and between the city and Sumner's Corners, three miles east of Alymer, he travelled at a furious rate of speed. At towns and villages en route the residents, who had been notified by telephone, tried to stop Brown, but failed in every case. Henry Allen, grocer, Yarmouth Centre, had two ribs fractured when he attempted to stop Brown at that place. The Alymer police finally arrested the man by giving chase in an automobile.

Two Dundas Men Were Fined $25 Each For It.

Dundas, July 5.—The funeral of the late A. W. Fisher, of the third concession of West Flamboro, took place yesterday, and was very largely attended. Interment was in Grove Cemetery, Dundas. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bennett, of Christ's Church, Bullock's Corners. The pallbearers were James Hill, George Hill, John Offield, James Hill, Robert Tunnicliffe and John Keirwell. Deceased, who was in his eightieth year when he died, came to Canada from New York State in 1860, and for a time lived near Christie's Corners. About thirty-six years ago he bought and moved to the farm where he spent the remainder of his days. Deceased had one son and two daughters. The son is Elmore E. Fisher, of Dundas, the only child by his first wife, who came to Canada with him and died in 1879. The daughters (twins) are Ethel at home and Edna, a teacher in the Streetsville school. The second wife of deceased was Ann M. Binkley, daughter of the late Samuel Binkley. She died about two years ago. Deceased was widely known and very highly esteemed, as was evidenced by the large attendance at his funeral. He was somewhat eccentric in some respects, as is shown by the fact that although he had been in Canada nearly fifty years and his family were all born here, he had never become a British subject, and had never voted. This probably led to his being familiarly called "Yankee" Fisher. By his children and grandchildren, who mourn his departure, he was greatly beloved, and the township has lost an old sturdy and good citizen.

when he had become one of the richest men in the States, he erected a large mill and adorned it like a palace. It was built of mahogany and costly woods, and erected solely as a memorial of his youthful attachment. His only pleasure was to contemplate this palatial mill and to gloat over the man who had spurned him for his poverty.—Harry Furniss in the July Strand.

ADGIE AGAIN.

Fine Free Attraction Continues at Maple Leaf Park.

Now that the races are over, Hamiltonians will be looking for some other amusement and the management of Maple Leaf Park will try to make the people forget the ponies for a time. The park is in good shape and all this week Adgie and her lions will give a big free act in front of the stand each afternoon and night. The animals will be fed after each evening performance and Adgie will be pleased to explain the habits of the inhabitants of the jungle to women and children each afternoon after the matinee.

The regular weekly matinee of the Hamilton Driving Club will be held on Wednesday afternoon and this week's feature will be a pony race. The park will be the scene of some big demonstrations during the next two months, as several pieces from outside points have been booked.

ESCAPE DEATH.

Six Nightriders of Tennessee Get New Trial.

Jackson, Tenn., July 3.—The cases of the eight night riders, six of whom were under death sentence charged with the murder of Captain Quentin Rankin at Walnut Log, on Reelfoot Lake, October 9 last, were reversed by the Supreme Court to-day and were remanded for new trials.

Two principal reasons were assigned—that the grand jury which found the indictments was not selected in a proper manner, and that the State did not allow the defendants a sufficient number of challenges.

Drowned Yachtsmen Found.
Montreal, July 4.—The bodies of Harry Shaw and Archie Crossley, the two yachtsmen who were drowned on Wednesday near Sorel by the capsizing of the yacht Red Feather, were found near the scene of the accident to-day. A verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

VEILED IN MYSTERY.

Alleged Suicide May Have Been Murdered.

New York, July 3.—A court order was issued to-day for the disinterment of the body of Alfred Burt, a well-to-do Mineola, L. I., farmer, who was found in the attic of his home Thursday apparently a suicide from hanging.

Consul for Sarah A. Titus, an aunt of Burt, applied for the order and informed the court that he had evidence warranting the belief that Burt died from poison, and his body had been taken to the attic and suspended from a rafter. Burt left an estate estimated at $100,000 or more, and Mrs. Titus has applied for letters of administration thereon.

Burt was thirty-five years of age, and was married about a month ago to Miss Gertrude Albrecht, of Elmont. A week ago the couple quarrelled and Mrs. Burt left him. This was generally believed to be responsible for the supposed suicide.

Lake Huron and Lake Superior.

A magnificent summer trip is enjoyed by taking this "fresh water sea voyage" from Sarnia, Ont., to Fort William, Ont., through the great inland seas. The steamers run in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway System, and all particulars, rates and descriptive literature, etc., can be had for the asking by applying to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto, Ont.

She Was the Champion.

A colored woman of generous proportions was on the witness stand in the Superior Court before Judge Weir, and she made such a good witness for the plaintiff that the attorney for the defence planned to throw "cold water" on what she said by finding fault with her character.

"Let me see, you have been arrested, haven't you?" the attorney asked in cross examination.

"Now, look ahead," said the witness, getting angry, "do you think I am going to tell you all my private business? I guess not."

FAMILIAR TRAGEDIES.

Full many a man has found,
On wedding his affinity,
That there were others 'round
Somewhere in the vicinity.

Bewailing his sad fate,
He moves amid the thick of them,
Convinced, when 'tis too late,
He hasn't got the pick of them.

Things go from bad to worse;
His case is quite deplorable.
He gets a quick divorce
And weds a new adorable.

It isn't a divinity.

RIGHTS AND LEFTS.

"Am I on the right road to Egypt?"
Inquired the traveller.
"No, sir," replied the farmer, "you'd ought to have turned to the left at the brick house a couple of miles back."

"But I was told I'd have no trouble in finding the way if I kept on the right road."
"That's right."
"So when I came to two roads I turned to the right."
"That was wrong."
The traveller was becoming irritated.

"Then the right road was the wrong one, was it?" he asked.
"You're right."
"How can a thing be both right and wrong?"

"That only shows, mister," said the farmer, calmly chewing a straw, "that you've never milked a cow. If you had you'd know that her right side is her wrong side."

The missing link scratched his—or its—head in deep perplexity.
"I'm certainly close to the people," mused the creature—or phase of development—"but where are the people? I don't see any!"

TO BE CONSIDERED.
"Yes, sir," said the rural mail carrier,
"you must let it go any further, for this is strictly confidential, but I'm for Roosevelt in 1912."
"Why so?" asked the cross roads philosopher.

"Because I've been taking stock of his enemies. Every corporation, every trust that's trying to bleed the people, everybody that he has offended by calling him a liar, every nature fakir, everybody that's prejudiced against the big stick, and all the fellows that are trying to get rich quick by hook or crook are everlastingly down on him."

Scrap Book Poetry

THE OLD-FASHIONED GULL.

A house with a garden where hollyhocks grow,
And all the sweet simples bloom, row
after row;
Phlox and geranium and lavender sweet,
And buttercups bright in the grass at your feet;
A boxwood border that leads to the gate
Where roses of June with the lilacs still wait;

And there in the door, with a little side
curl,
That vision—a beautiful, old-fashioned girl!

Ah, the silk of her shoon and the pink of her cheek,
And the red of her lips where the honeybees seek
The next love left when on bloom-laden wing
He passed and just touched them with honey of spring!

Oh, the blue of her eyes, and the mold of her face,
And the poise of her head, and the charm of her grace,
As we dream of the days of the little side curl!

In that beautiful dream of an old-fashioned girl!
O sweethearts of song, have ye all passed away
With those gardens that bloomed in a lost yesterday?
Oh, sweet country daughters, with red lips of June,
And simple, sweet lives, and the soft silk of shoon,
Do ye sing, do ye dance, do ye dream
once again
Of the horn on the hills and the days of brave men,
When down the box border, with hearts
in a whirl,
They flew to you—beautiful, old-fashioned girl!

Bethesda

There was a very large gathering of friends at the beautiful home of Mr.
Fred Flostman last Wednesday to pay their last tribute to his son, Edward.
Rev. M. Webster, Presbyterian minister, conducted the funeral service at the house, after which the remains were laid away in the cemetery a short distance away. Edward was a very promising young man, but had been a great sufferer for a long time. He was nearly twenty years old and will be greatly missed in the home. He leaves a father and mother, five sisters and three brothers. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful.

LAUDER'S BULLDOG

Mrs. Harry Lauder Terribly Bitten by Vicious Animal.

London, July 4.—An extraordinary adventure befell Mrs. Harry Lauder, the wife of the well known comedian. She was conveying a bulldog from Willesden station to her home at Footing when she was ferociously attacked by the animal, and so badly mauled that she had to be taken to St. Thomas' Hospital.

Mr. Lauder had bought the bulldog on the previous day in Blackburn and consigned it to Euston Square. Breaking loose at Euston, it attacked porters there, two being severely bitten.

In response to a telephone message
Mrs. Lauder went to Willesden in a motor brougham driven by her brother,
Mr. Henry Vallance. On the way to Footing the bulldog savagely attacked
Mrs. Lauder, fastening its teeth in her leg and tearing open the limb. Mr. Val-lance went to the assistance of the lady,

RELIEF SENT INTO COBALT.

Money and Supplies in Liberal Quantities.

Girl Had Just Arrived to Marry Man Killed.

To Rebuild on Better Plans—Street to be Widened.

Cobalt, July 4.—The sufferers from the fire that swept over the northern part of the town on Friday and destroyed over 150 buildings that gave shelter to 2,000 people are being well taken care of. They are lodged in tents, and in various buildings in town, and at the mines. There is little hardship, the most serious trial being the long wait in the rain on Friday, beside their household goods, while preparations were being made to house the refugees.

There is no verification of any loss of life, other than that already reported. The man who lost his life by rushing into a house at the moment when it was being blown up with dynamite has been identified as Carleton Dontrie, an Italian, who had been a resident of Cobalt for only two weeks. He has two brothers in camp, was unmarried, and well to do. At the inquest held yesterday a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

The money loss will not be so great as estimated on Friday night. The best opinion is that it will be in the neighborhood of $300,000.

Both the Provincial Government, through Mine Inspector E. E. Corkill, at the instigation of Hon. Frank Cochrane, and the Federal Government, at the suggestion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, have come to the assistance of the sufferers with commendable alacrity. Mr. Kirkill arrived early in person, with tents and blankets.

Mayor Oliver responded nobly with seven carloads of supplies, rushed here with a record run. Cash is pouring in liberally. The Mayors of numerous Canadian cities, including Mayor Lang to advise what help is needed.

Definite building arrangements have not been made. Nipping officials will in all probability, prospect certain sections of the ground before allowing buildings to be re-erected. The road will be widened ten feet at least, which will be a wonderful improvement to the former narrow thoroughfare.

One of the most pathetic cases of the catastrophe was revealed when Angelina Guinaldo, a pretty young woman of 18 years, identified the remains of the dead man as that of her sweetheart, Miss Guinaldo only arrived from the sunny shores of Italy on Thursday afternoon, and the young couple were to have been married in the Catholic church yesterday morning at 8 o'clock.

"Carmine came here two years ago from Italy," said the broken-hearted maiden, "and he accumulated enough money in the fruit trade to send for me, and we were to be married to-day. I will try and get back to my native land as soon as I can communicate with my parents in Italy." Miss Guinaldo, as a result of her sad experience, is under the care of a physician.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

A Detroit Woman Aeronaut Dies on Live Wire.

Detroit, Mich., July 4.—Entangled in a network of live wires, many of them carrying high voltage electricity, Mrs. Delia Meixell, a female aeronaut, aged about forty years, met a horrible death at Lowell, Mich., yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Meixell's balloon ascension was one of the features of a Fourth of July celebration. The big gas bag was inflated in a vacant lot near the Masonic temple. In spite of a stiff wind the woman aeronaut elected to make the trip to the clouds, and when all was ready, she gave the word to cast off. The balloon rose gracefully from the earth, but before it could reach a safe height, a gust of wind struck it and drove it at a high rate of speed towards a network of wires on the main street of the town.

Mrs. Meixell saw her danger, and as the parachute bar neared the wires, she let go and caught the topmost cable. She missed her hold, but fell with her body directly across it, and hung as though dead, her feet extended in a mass of smaller wires below. Someone had presence of mind to telephone to the electric power plant to shut off the current, which was done with all possible speed. In the meantime, however, a small spiral column of smoke began to rise from the woman's body where it came in contact with the wires, and there were horrified cries from the spectators, who were compelled to look on while the current continued its deadly work.

When the electricity was finally shut off the body of the unfortunate woman dropped to the ground forty feet below. Doctors found life in the inanimate form, but it was so slight that the woman died shortly after midnight. One hand was burned almost entirely off, and she was otherwise injured. Mrs. Meixell has been making balloon ascensions for many years with her husband, both being considered experts in their line of business.

FROM BOSTON.

Infant Prodigy Gets B. A. Degree at Age of Fourteen.

Boston, July 4.—According to Professor Leo Wiener, Norbert Wiener, his son, fourteen years old, who recently took his Bachelor of Arts degree at Tufts College, is due for several more degrees and years of study. In the fall he will enter Harvard and take up biology in the senior class, so as to graduate in 1910 from Harvard with another A. B. He will then study biology at some German university, and following that will pursue studies for the Ph. D. and M. D. degrees either at Harvard or abroad.

Railway Wreck Near Chatham.

Chatham, July 3.—Shortly after 11 o'clock this morning No. 12 C. P. R. train going west left the tracks at the G. T. R. crossing, west of here. The tender, combination car and front trucks of the car following left the track completely and turned up the roadbed for a considerable distance.

"Life a Perfect Burden"

Untold Sufferings from Bilioussness, Headaches and Indigestion Cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills

To produce such striking evidence such satisfying proof as Mrs. E. D. Dupont gives in her letter, makes it self evident that in Dr. Hamilton's Pills every suffering man and woman is offered a real cure for all stomach ailments. From her home at Oak Point, Mrs. Dupont writes a vivid and touching account of her four years of torture with biliousness and indigestion. "My trouble was first manifested with blinding headaches and feeling of dizziness and fullness in the head. Such dreadful turns of dizziness came over me that at times I reeled and staggered. These attacks were accompanied with violent pains in the stomach and distension of the liver. Spots flitted before my eyes, and to think of eating made me miserable. I was unable to digest my food, lost weight and got sleepless. When so low spirited and despondent that I despaired of getting well, I read of how Mrs. Holton had been so wonderfully cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills and got five boxes at once. To my delight the first box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me relief. I began to eat, sleep and enjoy my meals. The stomach and liver pains passed away. I improved steadily, and when five boxes of Dr. Hamilton's Pills were used I was a new woman, cured, happy, well and strong." To regulate the system, to prevent and cure all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys no remedy can boast of the number of successful cures accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills: 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. Beware of substitutes and imitations. By mail from The Catarrhzone Company, Kingston, Ont.

TRAMP KILLS FOUR.

WIPES OUT ENTIRE SOUTH DAKOTA FAMILY.

Farmer, His Wife, Daughter and Hired Man Shot by Stranger Who Expected to Find Large Sum of Money in the House.

Aberdeen, S. D., July 3.—J. W. Christie, a farmer living near Rudolph, his wife, his daughter Mildred, aged eighteen years, and a farm hand, were murdered to-day by a tramp whose name is not known yet. It is supposed that the murders were a result of an attempt to get a large sum of money supposed to have been in the Christie home.

The murders were discovered when John T. Romaine, the father of the young man who was murdered, went to the Christie home to visit his son, Mr. Christie, who was a grain buyer and one of the most prosperous farmers in the northwest, was milking a cow in his barnyard when the unknown person or persons shot him dead.

The murderers hurried to the house, and finding Mrs. Christie and her daughter and the Romaine boy, who was visiting at the house, they began firing upon them. The first shots took effect, and the two women and the boy fell dead. It is supposed the men who committed the crime were acquainted to some extent with the Christie family, for few people knew that Christie kept large sums of money in his house. It is believed he had several thousand dollars in his house at the time of the murder.

Emil Victor was arrested the same evening in Northville, twenty miles south of the scene of the murder, and brought to Aberdeen. Victor worked in Rudolph up to a week ago, when he had published in Aberdeen newspaper that he was about to take a trip to visit his father, proprietor of a large department store in Buffalo. He is said to have had on his person some small articles partly identified as belonging to the Christie family.

HIS REMORSE.

Suicide of Arthur Graham Near St. Stephen, N. B.

St. Stephen, N. B., July 2.—Remorse over his conduct while under the influence of liquor caused the suicide of a heretofore respected man. Last Saturday some liquor was taken into Woodland, Me., and Arthur Graham, an employe of the pulp mill, partook too freely of it and strayed into the bushes nearby. Two little girls were passing by and were accosted by him with indecent language. When the parents learned of what had been said to their girls, the father issued a warrant for Graham's arrest. It is understood that he received information which led him to believe that he would have to face the charge of his improper conduct during his intoxicated condition, so he went to the foreman of the mill and asked to be allowed a few days off.

It was generally thought that he would disappear for a time until the excitement subsided. He shortly afterwards disappeared, and soon whispers of probable drowning were heard, and a search in the millpond was made to-day, with the result that Graham's body was found. He was about fifty years of age, and was married.

FALLS FROM BALLOON.

Daring Aeronaut Hangs From Seventh Storey Until Rescued.

Boston, July 3.—The fire department was called out at midnight to rescue a daring aeronaut, James J. Gannon, of Boston, who had fallen with his balloon and was hanging suspended over an alleyway between two seven and five-story business blocks. The man had made an ascension an hour earlier in a hot-air balloon as the closing feature of a church fair in Cambridge. He was taken down by an extension ladder by the firemen and found to be uninjured.

TIMES PATTERNS.

8544 TWO PRETTY CORSET COVERS.

8544—These attractive corset covers may be made of handkerchief linen, embroidered flouncing or other material. Their making is a very simple matter, as will be seen at a glance. The fullness at the neck and waist is regulated by ribbon-run beading. If preferred, worked button holes may take the place of the beading for running the ribbon through. The pattern is cut in three sizes—small, medium, large.

These two patterns will be sent to any address upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver.

LUMPS LIKE IRON ON HIS FINGERS.

Peculiar Trials of a Westerner That Neglected His Rheumatism.

This is no ordinary case—five doctors endeavored to relieve and cure Mr. J. E. Germaine, Port Arthur, and all failed to bring in this awful suffering even temporary relief. "I am over sixty years of age," writes Mr. Germaine, "and as far back as I can remember I have always suffered from rheumatism. It was principally on the large muscles of my back, but extended to my limbs and made me quite a cripple and I found it very difficult to get work. I am a grain shoveller, and any work seemed to make matters worse. I did very little towards a cure till last fall when my case became very acute. I was unable to stand the chilling winds and outdoor exercise at all. I went from one doctor to another—five in all—but got no relief. My muscles and joints stiffened, ached intensely and hard lumps came out on the tendons of my fingers and wrists.

In blank despair I went to the drug store and got five bottles of Nerviline—paid one dollar for the five. I took it internally and used it outward as a rub. Two days made a change—a week saw an improvement—four weeks saw me well. I was cured, free of stiffness, pain and suffering. Nerviline did it all—how I do wish all other sufferers would use Nerviline also. I'm sure it will cure them all.

Thousands of cases just like this could be told—nothing else is so certain in rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and lumbago as Nerviline. Refuse substitutes and try a 25c bottle to-day.

149 LIVES LOST.

Only 27 Men Saved From a Burning Jap Steamer.

Victoria, B. C., July 4.—One hundred and forty-nine lives were sacrificed by the burning of the Japanese steamer Nihonkai Maru. Details of the disaster have been brought by the Empress of India. The victims were the entire crew, 16 men in all, together with 132 father folk, both men and women. The disaster occurred on June 14th, near Aomori, and what made the tragedy more pitiful was the fact that the vessel was so close to shore that there need have been no fatalities but for the fact that fog obscured the burning vessel. The cause of the fire will never be determined.

The first intimation of danger received by those aboard, the majority of whom were fishermen returning to their homes in Japanese villages, was when the flames burst from the bunkers and drove those aboard for temporary safety to the rigging. From there many dropped into the sea, exhausted or overcome by the smoke, while others dropped overboard to meet a more merciful death by drowning, while still others were literally roasted to death.

There were two boats aboard the steamer, but no life buoys and the former were rendered useless, being carried away through clumsiness in lowering and the over-eagerness of the panic-stricken passengers to secure places therein.

The fog eventually lifted for a short time. It was noticed during the interval from the village of Motech that a vessel was on fire off the coast and the steamship Benton-Maru was hurriedly dispatched to the rescue. This vessel found the object of her search with some difficulty, but too late. Of the 172 on board but 27 were rescued, all of them suffering more or less severe burns and other injuries.

It is reported in Liverpool to-day that the Cunard company is going to make its long-expected change from Liverpool to a Channel port at the beginning of next month with the Lusitania.

demn wrongdoing. I have no sympathy with that mindless sentimentality which transforms the criminal into the hero. Well nerved and stout should be the arm that smiteth wrong, but the eagerness with which men will pick up the stones to pelt the man or woman who is down, is what I deeply deplore and righteously arraign.

Large congregations greeted Rev. E. B. Lanceley, who began his ministry in First Methodist Church yesterday, and his two earnest and eloquent sermons delighted a congregation which has for many years been accustomed to the best of preaching.

AT ZION TABERNACLE. At Zion Tabernacle yesterday morning Rev. A. H. Going, B. A., preached his initial sermon as pastor before a congregation that filled every available seat.

Later there follows a description of a ship. "It is as deep as our two-storied house and as wide as the King's roomed house and it is as long as the Katikiri's fence to the gate of the King's enclosure. It has three tall poles in it and a big throat out of which comes smoke, which is as wide as the new drum in the church at Namirembo. The rooms in it go down three stories and the boards of these I cannot describe to you, for such have not been seen before. There is a lot of metal work about them, too, but these also I cannot describe, for it is so fine. There are children on board, and a flock of sheep, and places to wash in attached to every place where a chief sleeps, such as even our King has never possessed."

O. AND S. Hamilton and Toronto Joint Picnic at Oakville.

The Orkney and Shetland Society of Hamilton held a joint picnic with the Toronto society on July 1 at Oakville. It proved a most successful and enjoyable one. The day being fine, a large crowd turned out, to the number of 200 or more. The picnic was opened by the stirring strains of the bagpipes, manipulated in true Scottish style by Messrs. Muir and McLeod, of Toronto. In addition to the regular list of games, races, etc., which the committee had arranged, there was a special prize given by the Hamilton society to the lady member with the youngest baby, from the Toronto society, the winner being Mrs. Fred Bremner. Also a special prize given by the Toronto society to the lady member with the largest family from the Hamilton society, the lucky member being Mrs. James Cuthbert. The prizes were numerous and useful. The tables were bountifully spread with all manner of dainty things, including many good old fashioned hampocks, soft cakes, etc., which were all heartily partaken of, after which speeches were given by Mr. Irvine, President of the Toronto society, and Mr. Deane, President of the Hamilton society. Mr. Scott was then called upon to give a speech relating to the joint picnic of twenty years ago. The young people indulged in a dance. The music was very much appreciated by all, being given by Messrs. Muir, McLeod and Aitken. The Toronto society then marched to the station, followed by a few of the Hamilton society, headed by the pipers.

Suburban Scheme. "How do you get your husband to cut the grass so regularly?" "Well, you know, he's absent-minded. I fix a lace top cover over the lawn mower, and he thinks he's pushing the baby's buggy."—Cleveland Leader.

WIDOWS HOLD PICNIC

Forty-Six of All Ages Assemble in Annual Outing.

Wilkesbarre, Penn., July 3.—Forty-six widows, from 23 to 77 years old, from Berwick and vicinity, held their fifth annual reunion at Fairchild's Park. Each year the widows assemble to enjoy a day of mutual sympathy. There was not a man in the park—not because they would not have been allowed so much as because they did not come.

There are rumors that the widows of Berwick will organize, and that next year there will be a joint picnic. Another rumor says the widows are uneasy and will not join in the picnic.

$60,000 Fire in Winnipeg. Winnipeg, July 4.—Fire started at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the Manitoba Gypsum Co.'s plant, and resulted in the total loss of building and plant, amounting to $60,000, which is entirely covered by insurance. The plant is isolated on William avenue in the city limits, beyond the water pressure, and little could be done to save it.

Sheephead Bay, July 4.—S. C. Hildreth's Delmatian, quoted at 7 to 1 in the betting, won the great Irish Stakes, six furlongs, at Sheephead Bay Saturday, defeating a high class field of youngsters, including J. R. Keene's hitherto unbeaten Sweep. The defeat of the colt Sweep was a great surprise to the public, as he was looked upon by many as being a second Colton. Sweep broke in front at the start, but was at once joined by Lovette. These two went out to set the pace, and ran heads apart to the turn into the main track. Here Scoville drew his whip on Sweep to make the colt keep up, but to no avail, as the steady drive of Lovette, the Delmatian, and in a hard drive the Hildreth colt won by a nose, with Lovette five lengths before Sweep.

The Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes, 1 1/2 miles, was a walk over for Fitzherbert. The Latoria meeting closes to-day. Jockey Walter Miller has received a riding license in England. Trainer Tully Couler will henceforth do most of the riding for C. S. Hildreth. Wm. Garth gave the top price at the Ellerslie yearling sale last week, $12,500, for a brother to T. S. Martin.

The Sheepeathe Jack stewards have suspended Jockey G. Lynch and Trainer Tully Couler on account of the in and out performance of Couler's horse, Beaulieu. The Canadian Racing Association refused the application of W. ("Red") Shields, Kay Spence and L. C. Shobe for trainers' licenses, and also turned down those of Jockeys J. Finn and George Mountain.

St. Thomas.—Market very brisk to-day. Live hogs, $7.60; dressed hogs, $12; loose hay, $11; baled hay, $10; straw, $7; wheat, $1.25; eggs, 19c to 20c; butter, 24 to 25c; but, 20c.

(Continued from Page 9.) John E. Madden, who last week sold twenty yearlings to R. T. Wilson, jun., president of the Saratoga Association, has decided to bring back Plaud from France. He thinks the sire of King James will be more useful in Kentucky.

John Dymette's yearling purchases at New York last week included the brother to Star Wave, at $500. He also got the Star Shoot yearling colt for $400, and the Sir Dixon yearling colt for $100. Philo Lamb gave $450 for the filly by Ben Strome—Sly Nun.

English advices say that J. B. Joel recently refused an offer of $175,000 for the four-year-old Your Majesty, by Per-simmon—Yours, which was the chief winner on the English turf last year, with a total of $96,430. The offer is said to have been made by a French owner.

William K. Vanderbilt heads the list of winning owners of flat races run in France between March 12 and June 30, the total of his winnings being $160,400. He has won the Prix de St. Germain, $121,200, and Edmond Blanc, $75,500. H. B. Duryea, an American owner, is thirty-second in the list of ninety-eight owners of winning horses, with total winnings of $6,600.

The Louisiana Supreme Court decided that the action of the Governor in appointing a relative to act as district attorney and prosecute Mark Boasberg, or "Jack Sheehan," was without authority, and that the case against Boasberg was null and void. The district attorney having refused to prosecute, on the ground that he did not intend to violate the law, the Governor in his eagerness to establish himself as dictator, appointed a relation to undertake the action, with the result that it has all been thrown out of court. The decision was based entirely on this point.

In a league game of lacrosse, played between the fast Burlington Juvenile Lacrosse team, and the Tigers of Hamilton, the Tigers received a very bad thrashing in the final score standing, 10-1 in favor of Burlington. Although the game was very one sided, it was very fast in the first and last quarters. The Tigers holding Burlington team to 1 goal in the first quarter, breaking even in the last, 1 to 1. The Tigers forgot their combination plays in the second quarter and Burlington played all around them, drawing the Tigers' defence away from their goal. The third quarter was somewhat better. The Tigers checked their men much better and only allowed 2 goals. With a little more practice in combination plays, the Tigers will be greatly improved.

The Tiger Lacrosse team practice Monday night at Victoria Park. All players are requested to be on hand, as this is the only practice before their game with the Capitals on Wednesday night on J. Faskin MacDonald's field.

LAWN BOWLING TOURNEY

FOR THE TIMES' TROPHY.

A meeting of the representatives of the City Lawn Bowling Clubs was held at the Thistle Club rooms, with Mr. Geo. S. Glasco in the chair, for the purpose of arranging for the second annual tournament for the Times' city trophy. The question of inviting clubs outside the city was taken up and discussed, but it was decided that, owing to the lack of accommodation, and also to the difficulty of drawing a line without giving offence, it would be better to continue the contest along the same lines as those of last year. The tournament will commence on Thursday, July 29th, at 4 p. m. Saturday, July 31st, at 2.30 p. m., and Monday, August 2, (Civic Holiday), at 9.30 a. m. In addition to the Times trophy competition, there will also be a consolation series as well as doubles and singles. Individual prizes will be awarded to the trophy winners and runners-up, to the winners of the consolation series, and first and second prizes in the singles. Entry fee $4 per rink, covers both trophy and consolation series; doubles $1 per pair, singles, 50c per player. Entries for the trophy competition, accompanied by fee, must be in the hands of the secretary, W. H. Davis, Federal Life Assurance Co., not later than 9 a. m. Tuesday, July 27. Entries for singles and doubles to be decided later. The draw for the rink competition will be made at the Thistle Club on Tuesday, July 27, at 8 p. m.

Fifteen ends will be played in trophy matches. Seventeen ends in final game. Thirteen ends will be played in consolation matches. Fifteen ends in final game. Twelve ends in doubles. Thirteen points in singles. Mr. W. H. Davis is secretary of the tournament.

SCRAPS OF SPORT

San Francisco, July 5.—Two more confident men never entered a ring than Stanley Ketchel, champion middleweight of the world, and Billy Papke, challenger of the title, when they prepared for their 20-round battle in Coffey's Mission, St. Arena to-day. Although the odds remained 2 to 1 against him, Papke was supremely confident of his ability to knock out the champion. No fight since the Burns-Squires battle and his last two contests between Jos Gans and Battling Nelson has attracted so much attention here.

Buffalo, July 5.—Play began to-day in the three-day tournament for the golf championship of Western New York on the links of the Buffalo Country Club. The entry list was the largest in the history of any golfing event in the western end of the continent and included golfers from many cities in the U. S. and Canada. Walter J. Travis, of the Garden City Golf Club, former international champion, was among his starters.

Honolulu, July 5.—In the International Marathon race here, Hilo, of Japan, was the winner, with a New Zealand athlete in second place. Other competitors were from China, Portugal and America.

DIARY Of a New Suit From Monday Through to Saturday.

Monday—He put me on for the first time to-day and when he rode home on the El he wouldn't sit down because he was afraid of creasing me. Every time he saw anything on me he dusted it off; every time he walked past a store he looked in the window to see how I fitted, and every time we passed a nice-looking girl he threw his chest out and coughed behind his hand.

Tuesday—This morning as we were leaving the house his wife called after him. "You've left your pipe," he said. "I know I have," he said. "I'm not going to carry that pipe any more. It bulges for necks and creases me."

He stood up on the El again to-day and when he reached the office he took the coat off and hung it on a hanger.

Wednesday—This evening, coming home, he said down on the El, but as soon as he reached the house he found a brush and went all over me. "You've got to keep that dog in his place more," he told his wife. "He gets all over everything."

Thursday—He left me home to-day because it looked like rain. Friday—He was in a hurry this morning and he put a handful of keys in one of my trouser pockets, a handful of small change in the other, a notebook in one hip pocket, a wallet in the other, a watch in one of my waistcoat pockets, a handful of cigars in a second, a handful of pencils in a third, a double handful of papers in my inside coat pocket, a pair of gloves and a handkerchief in my breast pocket, a pouch of one of my side pockets and a pipe and a box of cigars in the other. He sat down on the El and crossed his legs at that.

Saturday—This afternoon when we came home he made such a noise that his wife looked out of the kitchen. "What are you doing down on the floor like that?" she said. He rolled his head out from under a chair and laughed. "Can't you see?" he said, "I'm playing with the dog."

And as for necks, I think I see my finish.—From the Evening Sun.

With the Cricketers

The Niagara Falls Cricket Club failed to keep the engagement with the St. George's for a match on the local race Saturday afternoon. However, picked teams were got together and an interesting game played, which ended in a tie. The teams were captained by Back, Sen, and Stewart, and the former, winning the toss, decided to bat, and before being retired his side had run the score up to 102. Stewart and Walker got off to a good start and though several of his side retired to enable every one to have a batting, the inning ended at 102, thus making a tie game.

Some good cricket was shown by both teams and the fielding was sharp. The score: Back, c. A. Back, jun, b Stewart 16 A. Harford, run out 9 Manklow, b Back, jun 9 F. L. Rastrick, c Erel, b Back 9 F. Gossip and Comment Much regret was felt here on Saturday afternoon when the news arrived from London that Bobby Kerr, the Hamilton runner, who held the British championship at 220 yards, had failed to retain his title.

Sammy Howland, president of the Washington Jockey Club, was married secretly in San Francisco the other day. This is important, inasmuch as it was the first time that Sammy ever did without the knowledge and sanction of August S. Belmont.

Now that the race meet is over, the Contrary Club will resume its semi-weekly meetings, perhaps.

Who says Hamilton is not a horse city?

Back to the trotters on Wednesday at Maple Leaf Park.

What is an amateur? All depends on what sport you are engaged in.

In a college athlete, you are not supposed to have ever contested for money, not even for a nickel offered by your grandpa when you were a kiddie of five.

If a trap shooter, you can compete for money, but you must never have sold powder, or guns or had any firm pay your expenses.

If a golfer, you are barred if you have ever competed for money, made golf clubs for a living or acted as a professional instructor for a club, but you can play in tournaments with professionals.

In every sport there is a different idea of what an amateur sportsman is.

To say the least, it is confusing. The colleges are supposed to be the most strict, but even there some professionalism is allowed to creep in in a roundabout way.

A college athlete may work all summer in a harvest field and return a clean amateur, but if he plays one game of baseball and takes a cent he is barred from amateur circles.

That is, if they can prove it on him.

Over in England they have been calling a simon-pure amateur the man who played for the pure love of the sport and who did not work for a living.

We do not go that far in America. If we did, Harry Payne Whitney and young Jay Gould would be about the only amateur sports on the job.

But what is an amateur, asks the Buffalo Times.

In the City League at Maple Leaf Park at 2 o'clock, the Broadviews defeated the Maple Leafs by a score of 11-6.

Broadviews scored in nearly every inning, and had little difficulty in winning, although at some stages of the game the Leafs looked dangerous.

The teams lined up as follows: Broadviews (1)—Dandee 2b, Sullivan 1b, Beattie 3b, Curtis 3b, Buckingham r.f., Percy l.f., Held s.s., Sheridan r.f., Bothen p.

Maple Leafs (6)—Moyer, Morton, Lucas, Teeter, O. Smith, Bulger, Neules, Smith, Gulbin.

The second game, between the Alerts and Baysides, was won by the Alerts by a score 9-3. Up to the fourth inning the teams played a rattling good game.

In the latter part the Alerts started to score and piled up enough runs to win the game. Skin Lucas was the star artist for the Alerts, and he scored a brilliant game.

The Alerts lined up as follows: Alerts (9)—Byrd r.f., Davidson 1b, Simmons c, Glassford c.f., Lucas p, Spence l.f., Burns s.s., Arnold 2b, Crossen 3b.

Baysides (3)—Sheridan 1b, Montgomery s.s., Carter p, Greenwood 1b, Potter r.f., Worley r.f., Dreyce l.f., Reid 3b, Prelich c.

At Britannia Park on Saturday afternoon in the Inter-City series the West End Pleasure Club defeated the St. Patrick's team by a score of 3 to 2.

The St. Patrick's did little till the ninth inning, and during this round looked dangerous. They started to elude the ball, and it was through poor coaching that they did not score.

Southon, for the West Enders, pitched a brilliant game. His benders were well announced after the game that he had had enough of the Inter-City League.

Smith did the heavy lifting for the Irish men, and despite the fact that his arm was sore, stuck gamely to his task till the ninth, when he withdrew in favor of McGavin.

McGavin, Mac was just in long enough to knock a two-bagger, scoring two runs. Ed. Dore was the umpire, and he had a thankless job.

Both teams made many objections to his decisions, and he announced after the game that he had had enough of the Inter-City League.

VERITYS WERE BEATEN. Brantford, July 5.—(Special).—A great game was fought out here Saturday between the home teams in the Inter-City League, when the Good, Shapley & Muir team defeated Veritys in a twelve-inning battle by the score of 3-2.

Wild throws practically allowed every one of the winners' runs, while Veritys hit the ball for extra bases, and up to the ninth played much snappier ball than their opponents.

The Windmillers scored one run in the first, ninth and twelfth innings, while Veritys annexed two in the fourth. Simpson and McGavin were the opposing pitchers, and the ball outplay worked well.

Simpson was hit for four extra base hits, including two three-baggers, while the best of the Windmillers could do with McGavin was a few scattered singles of the scratch order.

Peakneukle Canella scored for the first when he made a dash for third on Burke's bunt. McHugh threw wide, and the Italian scored.

In the ninth the score was tied by Carbut's miff of McHugh's throw to the plate, which was somewhat low. Burke scored the run, and although three men were on, McCaig disposed of the next two batters.

In the twelfth Bardgett singled to center and went to second on Bradley's poor return. McCallum right field to Arturs, who threw into right field on catch Bardgett off a pop for a double play. The runner scored. In the fourth inning O'Reilly's three-bagger scored Bradley and McHugh. The score:

BOBBY KERR BEATEN TWICE

London, July 4.—The amateur athletic championship meeting held at Stamford Bridge on Saturday was international in character, as the entries included athletes from the United States, Canada, South Africa and the continent.

The attendance was large. N. J. Cartmell, of the University of Pennsylvania, won his heat in the hundred yards dash, but in the final he succumbed to R. E. Walker, the Olympic champion, who beat him by one foot.

Robert Kerr, of Hamilton, the Canadian champion, was third. Walker's time was 10 seconds flat.

Cartmell won the 220 yards dash. He beat Kerr by three yards in this event, in 22 seconds flat.

The performance today generally were mediocre, and no records were broken.

A factor in the victory of Cartmell was his luck in drawing the inside start, which is a big advantage. Inches only divided Walker, Cartmell and Kerr in the sprint in 10 seconds.

Cartmell beat Kerr in the 220 yards by four yards in 22 flat, which is a British championship record.

Events at Toronto. Toronto, July 5.—The man who beats "Chuck" Skene at Winnipeg in the Canadian mile championship will have to tramp some. Saturday at Varsity field the Irish-Canadian miler stepped off his favorite distance in 4:30 under conditions none too favorable.

This is getting pretty close to the Canadian record of 4:21 4/5, made many years ago by George Orton.

Frank Schofield again demonstrated that he is the hardest five-miler hereabouts by winning the open event at that distance from a good field. He did the distance in 25:07 and acted as though he could have bettered the mark a little had he been put to it.

Holden, of West End, ran well, but fell away the last mile. He finished in 25:36.

Summaries: Running broad jump (closed)—1, Brichell, 21.67 4; 2, Archibald, 20.12; 3, Marshall, 19.11 1/2; 4, Franks, 19.11.

The time by miles was 4:51, 10:09, 15:35, 20:56 1/5, 26:7. 1 mile (open)—1, Skene, L. C. A. C.; 2, Neilson, West End; 3, Richardson, West End. Time, 4:30.

50-pound weight (closed)—1, Franks, 2; Archibald, 19 feet 10 inches; 3, Sibley, 17 feet 9 1/2 inches.

Pole vault (closed)—1, Archibald, 11 feet; 2, Elliott, 9 feet 6 inches; 3, Code, 8 feet 6 inches.

Half-mile walk (closed)—1, Archibald; 2, Boylan; 3, Kitchen. Time, 3 minutes 52 1/2 seconds.

16-pound hammer (closed)—1, Franks; 2, Archibald; 3, Sibley. Distance, 118 feet 4 1/2 inches.

1 mile race (closed)—1, Neilson; 2, Conlter; 3, McKendrick. Time, 4:59.

Following were the points earned by the leaders in the day's events: Marshall, 40 1/2; Bricker, 30.80; and Sibley, 24.81.

Owing to his sustaining an injury to his leg Brickers was unable to make a showing in some of the events, and his all-around points were therefore lower than was anticipated.

MINTZ SOLE MANAGER. Montreal, July 5.—Tom Longboat's contract, which was held by Mr. Pat Powers, of New York, has been sold by him, and is taken up by Sol Mintz, of Philadelphia, who has himself now owned probably part of his contract.

After the recent litigation he put up a thousand dollars in the hands of W. J. Little, of The Montreal Star, as a forfeit for his new contract with Mr. Powers.

He says that he has been well used by the New York manager since the contract was entered into, and he wished to have the management transferred to Canada, and allowed his readiness to pay half the purchase price of buying it from Mr. Powers. Negotiations were accordingly entered into, and last evening Mr. Little received notice to hand over the thousand dollars deposit to Longboat.

RECORDS AT BRANDON. Brandon, July 4.—The smashing of provincial records and sensational performances of L. J. Sebert, of Toronto, were the features of the Manitoba athletic championships, which were successfully conducted before a good attendance at the Brandon Fair grounds this afternoon.

It was the first real test of effort that the Wheat City had made to pull off anything so large in the athletic world of Western Canada, and left to work out their own salvation the officers of the local athletic clubs proved they were equal to the task by making the meeting a success.

That the western cracker will have but little chance of success at the Dominion meet to be held in Winnipeg in two weeks' time was made very apparent by the performance of the Toronto sprinter, Sebert.

The easterner competed in four events, and won on every occasion. He captured two cups and four gold medals, so that the tour so successfully begun already seems successful.

He took back to Toronto Lieutenant-Governor McMullan's trophy and the J. S. McArthur cup, which was hung up many months ago for the athlete breaking the Manitoba record in the shorter distance sprints.

Sebert really won the cup twice, as his time of ten seconds flat in the 100 yards and 22 seconds flat in the 220 yards, the latter the best time he ever made at the distance, earned the silverware.

Hundred yards, final heat—L. J. Sebert, 1; H. Orr, 2; L. Ward, 3. Time, 10 seconds.

Two hundred and twenty yards—L. J. Sebert, Toronto, 1; H. Orr, 2; G. P. Thompson, Brandon, 3. Time, 22 seconds.

Four-forty yards—L. J. Sebert, Toronto, 1; H. Marples, Winnipeg, 2; V. Lee, Brandon, 3. Also competed: A. E. H. Coe, Winnipeg; J. W. G. Logan, C. Mulligan, Brandon; M. J. Rutledge, Winnipeg. Time, 52 1/5 seconds.

220 yards, hurdles—L. J. Sebert, Toronto, 1; V. E. Lee, Brandon, 2. Also competed: M. J. Rutledge, Winnipeg. Time, 28 1/5 seconds.

NEW RECORD AT N. Y. New York, July 5.—Daniel Ahearn, of the Irish-American Athletic Club established a new American record of 50 feet 3 3/8 inches for the hop step and jump or two-hops and jump at Celtic Park, L. I., yesterday.

The former American record of 49 feet and 1/2 inch was held by J. B. Connolly, of Boston, and the world's record is 50 feet 2 inches, made by Daniel Shanahan at Limerick, Ireland, 21 years ago.

H. Hudson, Jackson, Western Stars—Ludney, Aiton, Leonard, McCall, Ashur, Russ, White, Dalgreish, Baber.

The excursions and holidays affected the Eureka's, who had put on a patched team, and with the Blue Labels, they made the majority of their runs in the first inning.

After that the Blue Labels picked up on all the others, but were unable to overcome the five runs made in the first inning. Final score was 6-3, in favor of Eureka's.

The following players took part: Eureka's—Leonard, Barham, McCall, White, Russ, Dalgreish, Becker, Marble, Blue Labels—Moss, Benzie, Jackson, Langton, Thornton, Hyslop, Seers, Savoy, Frenchie.

The soft ball team known as the Victoria Avenue Barbits are beginning to really show rival teams what material they are made of, and some examples have been handed out in the last few days.

On July 1st, at the Victoria Avenue Church picnic to the Brant House, they surprised many onlookers by defeating both the married men and the church officers and Sunday school teachers in two straight victories.

Also on Saturday they beat the Granites at Norton's Park by the score of 13-11. The winners kept the ball. Any team of average age of 17 to 19 will be willingly played at any time.

ROSE QUEEN'S PLATE.

Handicap Steeplechase Went to Steve Lane. Getaway Day Saw Big Crowd at H. J. C. Canadian Derby at Fort Erie Today.

The spring meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club, the most successful meet held by that progressive organization, came to a close on Saturday afternoon, when an immense crowd saw a good card of seven races run off.

While the fields were smaller than on any day of the meeting, on account of horses being shipped to Fort Erie, the racing was kept and of a high order.

The weather was cool and the track a little sticky, so no records were broken. The All-Hand was on the members' lawn, and played an interesting programme.

The feature events were the Wentworth Plate, at six furlongs, and the Toronto handicap, a race tarruga race, which brought out five jumpers.

In the race for the silver Rose Queen, who was the best sprinter at the track, won handsily, in 1:13. She beat Centre Shot a length and a half and had a nice lead at all stages.

The history of the Wentworth Plate is as follows: 1907—La Purcelle, 5, 109 (Moreland), value $870; time, 1:15 1/5. 1908—Braggadoo, 3, 110 (J. Baker), value, $670; time, 1:14 3/5.

1909—Rose Queen, 3, 107 (Mentry), value, $1,000; time, 1:13.

The steeplechase handicap furnished the best race of the day. Andrew Summers showed the way for the first turn of the field. Steve Lane followed.

John Dillon got his nose in front after the last jump, but quite badly when challenged by the winner, Steve Lane. Andrew Summers was third.

Previous to the races John Shields, acting for Carruthers and Phelan, offered William Walker $10,000 for Stanley Fay and Bellweather, but Walker refused to close the deal at that figure.

J. C. Shobe purchased the jumper, Dr. Keith, yesterday and will ship him with Centre Shot and Cloisterer to Fort Erie.

Andrew Summers was permitted to start in Saturday's steeplechase because he was entered in that event before the stewards made the ruling against W. G. Wilson.

Following is the summary of Saturday's races: First race, selling, $400 added, 6 furlongs—Cooney K., 106 (J. Reid), 7 to 1, 3 to 1 and 8 to 5, 1; Fulford, 104 (Herbert), 2 to 1, 4 to 5 and 4 to 2; John A., 104 (J. Foley), 10 to 1, 4 to 1, and 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1:14 2/5. Sinter, Phillips, Spion, Mozart, Joe Galens, Darlington, Sir Edward and Babbler, Brook, also ran.

Second race, selling, $400 added, 1 1/16 miles—Zipango, 106 (Daventry), 3 to 1, 6 to 5 and 3 to 5, 1; Ida May, 99 (Gean), 5 to 1, 2 to 1 and even, 2; Dredger, 109 (Howard), 15 to 1, 6 to 1 and 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:48 2/5. The Earl, Bitter Hand, Belle of Jassamine, Oberon and Hiecko also ran.

THE LEADING OWNERS. A remarkable feature of the Hamilton meeting just closed is the fact that J. H. Doane, with only two horses, Plaudmore and Star Wave, is at the top of the list.

He won four races, two of them being stakes which put him in the lead at the start. Then comes Charles Boyle, of the Woodstock stable, with two horses who are right up at the top.

The winning of the Hamilton Derby did this for him, while the other horse got a third. Of the United States owners Pat Gill is the nearest the top with a good lead on all the others.

P. T. Chinn is next, while another Canadian is Allan Case, who headed the list of Canadian owners last fall with two horses, is close up. The leading winners are:

HOW THE JOCKS STAND. Up to the time Musgrave was set down for fouling a horse in the last race on Wednesday it was a great race between him and Reid for the riding honors at the H. J. C. meeting.

They were within a point of one another each day until the set down. This gave Reid, who is now under contract to P. M. Civil, the lead, and he went on increasing it to the jockeys at Toronto and Montreal, has shown a great reversal of form. This boy has become careless or has lost his nerve.

Horse Bit Off Her Ear. Woodstock, Ont., July 4.—Mrs. Butler, wife of R. E. Butler, head of the R. E. Butler Lumber Company, was getting her horse in the garden yesterday when the animal got her ear between its teeth and bit the greater part of the member off. The ear was found afterwards on the ground, and an endeavor will be made to graft it on again.

SECRET DOOR IN THE ATTIC

And William Smith Was Found Secreted Behind It.

He Will be Prosecuted as a Vagrant To-morrow.

Mixed Up Affair Between Hunter Street Families.

On Saturday evening last the police started out on a moral reform crusade, and raided two houses, arresting the inmates. William Smith, 127 Cannon street west, was accused of being the keeper of an immoral place and Emma Jackson and Violet Smith were charged with being inmates. The raid was made about 11 o'clock by Sergeant Pinch and a squad of policemen. P. C. Gibbs gained an entrance into the house in plain clothes and then proceeded to hold the door open while the other officers entered. No trouble was experienced in catching the two women, but Smith was not to be found. After vainly searching the lower floors, the police ascended to the attic. No person could be found there and they were about to descend, when P. C. Gibbs noticed something suspicious about the paper on one of the walls. He investigated and found that it was a secret door, cunningly covered over with wall paper. Gibbs rapped on the door, saying, "Come on, we know you are in there." He got no response. He called again and threatened to break down the wall with an axe if Smith didn't appear. One of the officers was then sent for an axe, but before he came back Smith had decided to show himself, rather than run the chance of being cut up with the axe. He was handcuffed, put in the patrol wagon and driven to the police station with the two women.

At the Police Court this morning A. M. Lewis, who appeared for Smith, pleaded not guilty. P. C. Gibbs, who watched the house previous to the arrest, told of seeing men going in and out individually and in pairs. According to a list he carried, from fifteen to twenty men visited the place every night.

The defendant swore that he had only been staying at the house intermittently, and did not know anything about anything wrong had been going on there since his wife had been sent down a month ago. He said he paid none of the bills there, and received no money from the women who were living there.

"Did your wife ask you to look after the house?" asked the magistrate.

"No. It was against her wishes that I was there. She had me arrested for trespass about a year ago," replied Smith.

In view of this the Magistrate did not think that the defendant could be found guilty of keeping a house for immoral purposes, and he thought Smith should be arrested as a vagrant. The chief asked for a remand until to-morrow, which was granted.

Emma Jackson did not appear, and a warrant will be made out for her arrest. Violet Smith, the other alleged inmate, said that she had just come to this city on Dominion Day from Tonawanda to get some things which she had left at Mrs. Smith's. As she had a return ticket to Tonawanda the Magistrate allowed her to go.

Mrs. Gerwin, Catharine street north, was also charged with keeping an immoral house. Her place was raided on Saturday night by Sergt. Walsh and a squad of police. She pleaded not guilty. Evidence was given by three policemen who watched the house. J. L. Scheller, counsel of the defence, called Mrs. Gerwin Henderson, a neighbor who testified that she had never seen anything wrong about the house. The Magistrate reserved judgment.

A mixed up case was that of Sarah Froman, 233 Hunter street east, who was charged by William Dwyer with assault. The charge was against one to one laid by Mrs. Froman. The evidence was very contradictory. The trouble, said Mr. Dwyer, arose out of the fact that Mrs. Froman ill-treated his child. Mrs. Froman was found guilty, and fined $5 and costs. The charge against Dwyer was dismissed.

Edward Losee was given judgment for $56 wages against Robert Stroud, Dundas road.

Albert Barnes, Thomas Secord, Thos. Spears, John Scott, Frank Flaherty, Frank Edwards and Louis Abraham were fined $2 each for being drunk on Saturday night.

Joseph Dixon was assessed $3 for being disorderly.

Harold Williams, a colored man, was charged with being a vagrant. He produced credentials to show that he had employment as a cook, and was allowed to go.

7,000 TO STRIKE.

Dominion Coal Co. Refuses to Recognize the Union.

Halifax, July 5.—The long-threatened failed to respond to the request of the employ of the Dominion Coal Company has been ordered at last. It will commence to-morrow, and 7,000 men will be involved. The Dominion Coal Company failed to respond to the request of the U. M. W. to send a representative to a conference to discuss the questions at issue, and the calling of the strike is the result. The Dominion Coal Company declares it is determined not to recognize the U. M. W. in any way.

SENTENCE TOO LONG.

Toronto, Ont., July 5.—Otto Rost, alias Victor Oik, was released from the Central Prison to-day on an order issued at Osgoode Hall by Mr. Justice Britton. Rost's lawyer argued that, under the code, a term exceeding six months was illegal, as the amounts were under $10, and the judge upheld the contention.

The Summers Stock Co. will present this week a new comedy drama, entitled "Woman Against Woman," with Miss Belle Stevenson in one of her strongest roles and the entire company in the cast. Special scenery has been prepared and the patrons can look for one of the feature bills of the season. The venture between acts will all be new and up to date.

Wellington Street Methodist Sunday School, Brantford, held its annual picnic at Oaklands to-day, and about two hundred of the members took in the trip. The excursion was over the R. & E. line to the Terminal station, where it was transferred to the street railway line, which carried them to the ferry dock. They were then conveyed across the bay to Oaklands on the ferry boat.

OBITUARY.

Funeral of Chester Wilson—Late Miss Heslop.

The funeral of Chester Wilson took place on Saturday afternoon from his parents' residence, 11 Wood street east, and was largely attended. Rev. E. N. R. Burns conducted a memorial service at St. Luke's Church, and also officiated at the grave. The pall-bearers were: Bertie Hobson, Ernest Brown, Arthur Irwin, Walter Lewis, Harry Worsley and E. Brown. A large number of floral tributes were received, including the following: Gates ajar, father and mother; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham; anchor, Robert Wilson; harp, Mr. and Mrs. Scodden; basket of flowers, Joseph and George Anderson; casket, Robert Hanley; casket of roses, Hammond and Mattie Murphy; sickle, Irene and Myrtle Dunn; cross, Olive and Robert Walton; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Jobborn; sprays, Francis McMahon, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. William Knox, Francis and Edwin Thompson, Walter Seddon, Bertie Hobson, Mrs. P. W. Donnelly, Frank Regeon, Harry and Fred Eggleston, and Fred Kenrick.

The death occurred on Saturday of John W. Sullivan, infant son of Robert and Mrs. Sullivan, at the parents' residence, 435 MacNab street north. The funeral took place this afternoon from the parents' residence, and interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

I. M. U.

This Is Fiftieth Anniversary of Its Formation.

This is the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the International Iron Moulders' Union, and in honor of the event the local I. M. U. has the British and American flags flying at its hall, corner of King and Walnut streets. When the union was organized in 1859 it had a membership of 1,500, and to-day it has 150,000.

In honor of the jubilee the Hamilton and Toronto unions have organized to hold a monster picnic at the Mountain View Park here on August 14. It is expected that 10,000 people will be here for the event, excursions having been arranged from Detroit, Buffalo, Guelph, Galt, Berlin, Preston, London and other places.

BICYCLES FOR LAND OR SEA.

The amphibicycle is equally at home in water and on land. It is the invention of a Frenchman, of Lyons, and has a pair of cylindrical floats, a propeller and a rudder. On leaving the water the cylinders and nautical gear are lifted up so as to allow the wheel to run on the ground. The cyclist can then pedal his machine in the usual way. As the cylinders can be made of thin sheet metal, they need not be heavy. In the water the machine makes five or six miles an hour.

The floats, which end in a conical point, are attached to the bicycle frame by jointed supports so that they can be raised and lowered as desired, and can be fastened in place when the cycle is on the road. For operating a propeller a rubber covered friction wheel is employed, which is behind the tire of the rear cycle wheel, the small wheel's motion being transmitted by a bevel gearing to the propeller shaft. By using the proper combination of gearing the propeller can be reversed.

A small rudder is mounted at the front and is controlled by a rod passing from the front cycle fork into the water. The two cylinders are braced across by a rod in the rear of the machine. The amphibicycle as constructed at present weighs about 270 pounds and is about eight feet long and three feet six inches wide. The cylinders are about one foot in diameter.

scarlet fever wards in the City Hospital. He pointed out that at the present time there are 22 cases and the institution affords accommodation for only 15. This is a fair sample of conditions which have prevailed for the past six months, and during that time, twelve nurses have been ill on account of the lack of proper accommodation. Mayor McLaren, replying to Mr. Billings, pointed out that a large proportion of the medical men of the city opposed the recent hospital by-law, and therefore they must take the blame.

Som ultra Hydro men announced this morning that if no one else could be secured to oppose Mayor McLaren next January, Ald. A. J. Wright would be nominated.

City Engineer Macallum was painfully injured yesterday in a runaway accident at East Toronto. With another man, who was driving, they were going down a rather steep hill when the horse bolted. Mr. Macallum was thrown out and severely cut and bruised. A gash in his side required four stitches. His friend escaped uninjured. Mr. Macallum was at his office this morning.

An offer from the American Street Lighting & Supply Company which had the street lighting contract for natural gas lamps, to dispose of its plant to the city, will be laid before the Board of Works to-morrow night. Other business to be considered includes the Engineer's report on the T. H. & B's application to construct a siding on premises of the Bird & Son works; also the proposed spur line to the Westinghouse works; a complaint about smoke from the Eagle Knitting Company's premises, and an application from M. Levy & Sons to cross Laroline street, near Barton, with a switch.

The Sewers Committee will meet to-morrow night to clean up a lot of small business. Petitions have been filed against the construction of sewers on Simcoe street west and on Ferris street between Victoria avenue and Emerald street. A report from the City Engineer and Solicitor as to connections with city sewers in the township of Barton and a draft by-law governing private sewers will be considered.

NEW HALL.

Young Men Excavating For One in the East End of the City.

Things looked busy on Dominion Day at the corner of Barton and Ruth streets, and many passersby stopped to watch a happy crowd of young men, numbering about 25, who were excavating for a new hall for gospel and Sunday school work.

A tent was pitched on the grounds, and the ladies had a good time waiting for the workers when the bell rang at 12 o'clock. It was a tired but merry party that sat down to supper in the tent at 5. A short service was held at noon hour.

ESCAPING GAS

Almost Suffocates Forty People Now in Hospital.

Hoerde, Westphalia, July 4.—Many lives will probably be the cost of a unique accident which has occurred here. A big ventilator connected with the gas conduit from a blast furnace in operation became disarranged last night. The superintendent in charge of the furnace ordered the workmen to permit the accumulated gas to escape into the air while the ventilator was being repaired. The gas from the furnace was heavier than the air, and instead of escaping upward, it instantly displaced the surrounding air and filled the houses in the vicinity of the furnace.

Forty victims, mostly women and children, have been removed to the hospital, and it is declared that a majority of them will die from inhaling a volume of the carbon gas.

BEES ON BALD HEAD. Pittsburg, July 4.—A cloud of bees in Allison Park yesterday spoiled the unappreciated beauty of T. L. Honey, a constable for Ald. Cain, and started to swarm on the unprotected cranium.

Ald. Cain came to the rescue with gunny sacks, and Hanney succeeded in "getting out from under" after ten minutes' unpleasant experience.

Bystanders picked a few stingers out of his scalp, and he spent the rest of the night bathing his head with ammonia.

BILL BROWN'S CASE.

Aylmer, Ont., July 5.—Bill Brown, formerly with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, who was arrested for stealing a horse from Neil McIntyre, St. Thomas, came up here for preliminary hearing. The court decided to send him to St. Thomas for trial.

CHINESE SUFFER

White People Not Patronizing Them In New York.

Delegation Going to Washington to Protest Against Treatment.

New York, July 4.—Chinese here and elsewhere are having a hard time reaping the aftermath of the Sigi! murder. A week ago a friend of Chu Gai, the proprietor of the Port Arthur chop suey house on Mott street, said that the notoriety that he got and the whitewashing that he had received would be worth $5,000 to him.

To-day the men who stand around the streets of Chinatown said that the Chinese are having a hard time to pay the rent. White people come by in automobiles and hackmen, cast wondering looks around at the signs made familiar in the newspaper stories and start back uptown.

A PROTEST. Washington, July 4.—The delegation of Chinese merchants from New York which came to Washington to call on Minister Wu to urge him to take up with the State Department the question of protecting Chinese throughout the country from many degraded indignities from which they claim to have suffered since the murder of Elsie Siegel will be disappointed when they call at the Chinese legation.

The delegation which was appointed at a mass meeting of Chinatown merchants, consists of Charles Fong, Pong Gung, Tom and Chu Sik Chee. They did not visit the legation to-day but when they do they will find that Dr. Wu is in Peru, to which country he is accredited also. They will confer with Dr. Wei Ching Yen, second secretary, who is in charge of the legation. Dr. Yen will listen to their story of woe and inform them that the case will be taken under advisement.

Crisis in Swiss Watchmaking. In investigation made recently by the Swiss government shows that the watchmaking industry of Switzerland is passing through a severe crisis, which affects no less than 70,000 persons. The workmen who have been able to retain their employment have been compelled to consent to great reductions in wages. Skilled workers, who were receiving from $10 to $15 a week, are now paid only $6. The chief cause of the depression is to be sought in foreign competition, as France, Germany and the United States have successfully undertaken the manufacture of cheap watches, in silver, nickel and steel cases. The Swiss manufacturers of chronometers and fine watches do not appear to feel the depression as severely as the makers of cheap watches.

ville, through the death at Seymour, Ind., early to-day of Arthur Granville Langham, former President of the Providence Life Assurance Society. Mr. Langham never recovered from the effects of having had his right hand shattered by the explosion of a cannon cracker, late last night.

He was one of the party of fashionable Louisville folk who were spending the week end at the home, near Seymour, of John K. Peter, Mr. Langham's brother-in-law. A cannon cracker, thrown lighted upon the lawn, failed to explode, and Mr. Langham took it in his hand and re-lighted it. The cracker burst in his grasp, mangleing the hand frightfully. He was operated upon at once, but never regained consciousness.

Mr. Langham was a member of an insurance firm in Louisville, when he assumed National financial prominence in 1908 by gaining control of the Providence, then a point of difference between Gov. Hughes and Insurance Commissioner Otto Kelsey, of New York. Later he was elected president.

AT BURLINGTON. Burlington, Vt., July 5.—Bright skies and clear bracing air favored the tercentenary observance of the discovery of Lake Champlain here to-day.

The celebration began at 9 a. m. with a sunrise salute of cannon and the ringing of the church bells, followed by band concerts in City Hall Park during the forenoon, when also there were two parades. The first was made up of decorated automobiles, in which the children from the Providence Hospital Auxiliary and the Home for Destitute Children were given a ride through the flag draped streets of the city. The other was a military and civic parade which was the principal feature of to-day's festivities.

At the exercises in City Hall Park this morning Congressman D. J. Foster, of Burlington, presided, and Governor Geo. H. Prouty, Right Rev. A. C. Hall, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Vermont, and Rev. A. G. G. Atkins, of Detroit, Mich., made addresses.

JAPS AND THE FOURTH. Philadelphia, July 5.—Ambassador Takahira, delivering the oration for the day at the Fourth of July exercises in Independence Hall to-day, practically extended an invitation from Japan to the United States to help Japan's neighboring countries to improve themselves and to enjoy the advantages of modern civilization, as the United States helped the land of the Mikado to do.

"Introduced into the family of nations through the agency of American diplomacy, and always encouraged by it in various ways as she advanced in her progressive movement," he said, "Japan would indeed be glad to see the United States act toward our neighboring countries which we are using every effort in our power to help, as she acted toward us."

THE DAY IN NEW YORK. New York, July 5.—Cool weather prevailed here to-day for the celebration of Independence Day. Young America and his elders, of a noisy demonstrative type, were early at their work of racket making. The record of three deaths on the advance day of the celebration yesterday was not reassuring, and led to fears that the demonstration would be no less deadly than usual. The first hours of to-day brought a stream of accident cases, resulting from the handling of explosives, into the hospitals for treatment, but the almost unprecedented exodus from the city to the countryside, to which the crowded traction routes bore evidence, left the streets far less thronged and considerably quieter, on the whole, than ordinarily.

GO TO JAIL. Two Men Imprisoned For Selling Liquor to Indian. (Special Despatch to the Times.) London, Ont., July 5.—Isaac Gow was sentenced to two months in prison at hard labor and Willis Moxley to one month for selling liquor containing a very large percentage of wood alcohol to Indians. One of the Indians, Solomon Green, was so ill for a time that his life was despaired of, and it was only after a night's hard work that physicians brought him around.

SCHEME OF PICKPOCKETS. Of all the unique schemes ever evolved by pickpockets, one that was exposed in the middle west a couple of years ago easily carries off the honors. A certain street car company had been playing the medium-sized towns and so that big crowds were attracted. Inward-bound were their free outdoor attractions daily during the organization's stay in any town the police were deluged with complaints from persons who had been robbed. But no arrests were made, although, as is always the case, the word was passed on to the police of the next town. Finally, an unusually astute sleuth saw a man connected with the show picking pockets, but was cunning enough not to make an arrest at the time. The man was shadowed, however, until he led the police to a rendezvous of a round dozen of other showmen who were surprised while sharing up about a bushel of watches, jewelry and other loot. One of the dips weakened under the "third degree" at police headquarters, and the truth was out. The star attraction with the carnival company was a high-diver who plunged from a lofty trestle into a small tank of water. It was during his act that the dipping was done. It developed that the high-diver was actual chief of the pickpockets. Instead of receiving a salary for his hazardous work, he turned over to the management of the company a share of the spoils under the arrangement that the latter were not to molest the pickpockets at work. Several of the dips were convicted, but it was impossible to get sufficient evidence against the show managers.—From "The Science of the Dip" in the July Bohemian.

A Careful Man. "I notice you are very cautious in what you say about people?" "Yes." "Why is this?" "Well, I ain't prominent enough to claim I was misquoted."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
