REPORT OF ROAD COMMISSIONER.

Reporting: I. That work on all the contracts let at last meeting of council was progressing, and he hoped to be able to report at December session that all were completed in proper time.

2. Sundry necessary repairs had been carried out, details of which are here-with given; and an examination of other bridges shows the usual amount of small repairs necessary, of which he recommends the following: A new foundation under Hall's bridge, as the old one is very much decayed; a portion of the approach to Holmesville bridge has been washed away, should be repaired at once; the 18-mile river bridge, lake shore road is in same condition.

3. The Clerk of Osborne, on May 28th, called attention to an accident which had occurred at Kirkton bridge, on the boundary between Uxbridge and Blanshard, by which a lady had her leg broken. An examination of the bridge was made on June 1st with the warden of this county and the commissioner of Perth and the bridge found to be in very good condition. From what could be learned the accident was due more to the intricateness of the horses than to any defect in the bridge or its approaches.

4. I recommend that the iron bridges at Goderich be repaired and the braces tied so as to prevent them striking together.

5. Orders have been issued on the following accounts for the sums stated: from Dec 31st to date of this report: W. P. Kelly, work on approaches and dressing sand stones at Brussels bridge, $7; W. Turner, clearing jam and cutting ice at Turner's bridge, $7 50; J. McFarland, clearing jam from Rathwell's bridge, $5; C. Storch, repairing approaches to Clinton bridge, $6; Arthur Cook, repairing Rathwell bridge, $10; Robert Small, clearing jam from Wingham prairie bridge, $3; Mark Cassels, repairing washout and fences at prairie bridge, $5; L. Hardy, repairing bridge on Uxborne and Hibbert boundary, Huron's one-half, $3.

6. Recommend that the roof of the Court House be repaired to prevent leaking. The estimated cost of attaching a sidewalk to Maitland bridge at Goderich is as follows: 5 feet wide, $650; 4 feet wide, $600. The cost of bridges and approaches, and repairs to county buildings, will not likely exceed $12,000 for the year 1888.

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

THE RAILWAY QUESTION.

Now that it has been decided by a public meeting that so far as the interests of Goderich are concerned, the route via Listowel, Brussels and Rhyd is preferable to all others, we hope to see the opposition to that line, which has heretofore existed in certain quarters, discontinued at once and forever.

should continue burdening themselves further when they are already overburdened. To this end, we hope an early arrangement will be made so that a committee for the advancement of railway interests will be formed from the strongest elements of our progressive business men, be they councillors or those outside of that body, and that the work of further promoting the enterprise be entrusted to the hands of that body.

LOD STANLEY, of Preston, the new Governor-General has been duly sworn in, and will earn his salary during the next few weeks by fishing for trout on the Cisopadia. The country is true.

The public meeting on Monday evening settled the fact that Goderich favors the route by Listowel, Brussels and Rhyd. And what will the New Era say now, poor thing!

ALREADY the number of applications from athletes, pipers and dancers give evidence that the Caledonian games to be held in Goderich on Monday, July 2nd, will far outstrip all previous records.

The New Era weeps and will not be comforted because Goderich does not join it in its new railway project, but favors the northern route. It grows indignant and waxes worthy, and makes senseless threats. It won't have anything to say to Goderich in the matter of railways heretofore, but will divert future schemes to Bayfield, Port Blake and other lake ports. See there!

THEY these sporting men preserve their youthfulness is something wonderful. Away back in 1872 the writer had the privilege of meeting W. G. Grace, the renowned cricketer, who was then about thirty-five years of age; to whom we observe by the daily press that Mr. Grace is only in his fortieth year. Over twenty years of age, we saw a big, square-headed cotton-headed, young fellow named Amson playing third-base for Capt. Addy's Forest City club of Rockland, Ill., which started through Canada at that time.

THEY these sporting men preserve their youthfulness is something wonderful. Away back in 1872 the writer had the privilege of meeting W. G. Grace, the renowned cricketer, who was then about thirty-five years of age; to whom we observe by the daily press that Mr. Grace is only in his fortieth year.

TO show that the salt business of Ontario has not increased as it should have done, and how it would have boomed under free trade relations with the United States, the following simple statement is submitted for the consideration of the thoughtful reader. The salt industry of Michigan had its beginning in 1860, in which year the production was only 4,000 barrels. In 1870 it was 621,352 barrels, in 1880 it was 2,685,588 barrels, and in 1886 it was 3,677,257 barrels per annum.

OUR SALT TRADE.

Give Us a Free Market and It Will Boom Once More.

A Comparison of the Trade in Michigan and Canada—Our Salt Trade is Triplicated by Restrictions. The Toronto "Mail" on Canadian Salt.

Three weeks ago we called attention to the extent of our trade in the saline product, and the excellent character of Canadian salt in both cheese and butter making, as attested by the highest authority. We then claimed that all that was necessary for the full development of the salt business of this district was free trade in that article with the United States.

Reciprocity with the United States, we repeat, is a necessity of the hour. If it be unrestricted reciprocity, we are ready for it, for it will be of undoubted benefit to this section of Ontario. And if it be more limited, and takes the shape of reciprocity in natural products only, we will still welcome it, for a half loaf is better than no bread.

Standing on the brow of the hill overlooking our half-deserted harbor, and calling to mind the rush of business which prevailed on the waters at our feet under the old Reciprocity Treaty, we can plainly see where our natural market lies.

We are working and shouting for more railway accommodation, and will do so until the rails of the new line are laid, but reciprocity will do for us as much or more than will a new, competing railway. Indeed, with reciprocity, a new railway would be hastened along by the management as rapidly as the town could endorse it. "Where the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together."

To show that the salt business of Ontario has not increased as it should have done, and how it would have boomed under free trade relations with the United States, the following simple statement is submitted for the consideration of the thoughtful reader.

The salt industry of Michigan had its beginning in 1860, in which year the production was only 4,000 barrels. In 1870 it was 621,352 barrels, in 1880 it was 2,685,588 barrels, and in 1886 it was 3,677,257 barrels per annum.

The salt industry in Huron, Bruce and Lambton, now on its last legs, can be revived by the removal of the customs duty on salt from the west, as Toronto, the Ontario salt men would make money. But it is equally certain that the fishermen of Eastern Canada would lose by the protection laws afforded the home article; and, considering that they are compelled to sell their fish, first paying the duty in New England and to buy their manufactured goods at high tariff prices in Montreal, the disadvantages under which they labour are already grave enough. The opening of the American market to Ontario salt would enable our people to increase their output enormously for a relatively trifling addition to their running expenses.

THEY these sporting men preserve their youthfulness is something wonderful. Away back in 1872 the writer had the privilege of meeting W. G. Grace, the renowned cricketer, who was then about thirty-five years of age; to whom we observe by the daily press that Mr. Grace is only in his fortieth year.

HYMNS and HYMNALOGISTS.—The Young People's Society of North-St. Methodist church which meets at 8 o'clock Friday evenings, give tonight Hymnology and hymnologists. Essays will be read by members upon some of the noted composers of hymns and their productions.

SMALL BLACK BAG LOST.—Mr Steinbach, of Zurich, while in Goderich last week, and when driving home, lost a small black bag. He sent an advertisement to THE SIGNAL, giving particulars of the loss, but in some way the advertisement was mislaid. The owner of the bag will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

DELEGATE TO GUELPH.—At a meeting of the citizens' committee held on Saturday evening, Mr. Joseph Williams was selected to attend the delegation to Guelph from the points along the line. The result of his gleanings will be found in the report of his speech at the Monday evening meeting, published elsewhere in this issue.

THEFT.—On Monday night last week, a number of tools were stolen from McKenzie's planing factory, Clinton, and offered for sale in Holmesville the next day. The thieves were employees discharged from the circus while it was here. A couple of persons were arrested in Goderich, on suspicion of being the guilty ones, brought to Clinton by Constable Paisley, and committed for trial by Police Magistrate Williams on Thursday last week.

COMMITTED.—On Wednesday afternoon, last week Geo. Andrews, an employee of W. F. Kelly, Brussels was arrested by Constable Scott for the theft of scrap iron from E. Scott's blacksmith shop, and selling it to H. Harris and Wm. Arnott, dealers in scrap iron, from London. The evidence went to show that Andrews went after dark with a horse and cart and took the iron, which Scott identified as his. The prisoner was committed to stand his trial and Constable McComb took him to Goderich on Thursday.

EXCURSIONS.—To Brantford June 20. Grand Firemen's Entertainment, 6000 friends expected. The circus, fancy drill, fireworks, &c. Tickets good to go 19th and 20th and return 21st, fare only $1.90. June 19th last half fare excursion of the season, to the Western and North-western States, first class tickets, good for 30 days, via Chicago route. Best time of the season to see the great West at small cost. Tickets and full particulars can be had from H. Armstrong, Ticket Agent, Agents of Allan and Canada Ocean steamers, G.N.W. Telegraph office, West-St. Goderich.

TOO LENIENT.—Clinton New Era.—Dr Williams, police magistrate, may not be aware of the fact, but fact is nevertheless, that his judgements, especially in cases of drunkenness or assault, have given a good deal of dissatisfaction among people who look upon these decisions as being altogether too lenient, and calculated rather to encourage lawlessness than otherwise. The safety and interests of a community are always endangered by those of an individual, and it is just possible to show mercy where it is undeserved; anyhow, we know good many people who would like to see wrong-doers more rigorously dealt with.

HORSE AND RIG STOLEN.—Saturday last a long-legged, dark-colored, black-flecked yellow halting from Clinton, and giving his name as Scott, hired a horse and rig at Reid's livery stable, and went for a drive. Since that time neither Scott nor the horse and rig have been seen, and on Tuesday it dawned upon Mr. Reid that a horse had been kept through him. He at once put himself in communication with the authorities at various points, but up to the time of going to press no trace or tidings of the man, horse or vehicle had been discovered. Mr. Reid had just purchased the livery business from Mr. Knox, and his loss under the circumstances is a heavy one.

A SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.—D. M. Buchanan, of Exeter, and recently a student of the Goderich high school, has passed the third year examination of Toronto University, taking 1st class honors in civil polity, and 2d class in moral philosophy, and standing second highest in the class in civil polity. This alone shows creditable work but it is still more praiseworthy in Mr. Buchanan's case considering that during the session he has taken almost a double course; for, in addition to his university work, he took a full year of theology in Knox College, with the exception of one subject, taking the exceptionally high mark of an average of 88% at his Knox examination.

A TRAVELER FOR CANADA.—Manager Clarke of the San Francisco Minister, called in to see us yesterday. He says he is well satisfied with the result of his tour east. Everywhere his company has been well received by press and public, and the managerial pocket-book has increased its circumference accordingly. His present visit to New York was to order the paper and to sign a contract with Mr. W. G. Davis (manager of Joe Murphy), under whose auspices his company play a limited engagement through Canada previous to their return to their western home. The merit of the company, combined with Mr. Davis' knowledge of Canadian territory, must make this engagement profitable to all concerned.—N. Y. Mirror. They will appear in the Grand Opera House on Saturday, June 16th.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Knox Church Mission Band entertainment was held on Friday evening in the lecture room of the church, Rev. J. A. Anderson presided. The room was well filled with young and old, who were highly entertained by members of the Band and others who rendered an attractive musical and literary program. The reading and recitations were very appropriate to the occasion, and the singing of the Band was good and reflected credit on their teacher, Mr. Cook, the organist of the church. Miss Blair and Miss E. Wilson, who have had the Band under their charge for some time, and under whose management the entertainment was held, are to be congratulated on the success of their untiring efforts. A collection amounting to $7 was taken up at the close.

CALEDONIAN GAMES.—The prize list in connection with the Caledonian games to be held in Goderich on July 2nd has been printed and makes a big hole in $1000. Already communications have been received from many noted athletes, pipers and dancers, and the indications are for a great piece of platform work and a big athletic field. The games this year will be held on the new Northwest corner Exhibition grounds, fitted up for the occasion under the supervision of Mr. W. L. Horton. A special feature this year will be free seats, and the seating accommodation will be disposed of on the principle of first come first served. The railway arrangements at all points are of the best, and the concert in the evening promises to be the best yet held under the auspices of the society. Get your Kilmarnock and tartan and feather ready for the occasion.

CRICKET TO THE FRONT.—The Brussels Field says: Last Tuesday evening the cricket club entertainment was held in the town hall as announced at 5 o'clock, the president of the club, E. E. Wade, made a few preliminary remarks after which the program, as outlined in last issue, was closely adhered to, Jas. Blashill, who was detained owing to the illness of his father, being the only performer wanting. The instrumental and vocal selections were rendered in excellent style and encores were the rule instead of the exception. At the conclusion of the 1st part of the program the comedy "His Last Legs" was presented and was carried through quite successfully. Mr. Andrews, of Goderich, took the leading part and was well supported by the humorist. There were a number of good hits and the character of the were well personated, some of them extra well. The entertainment concluded with the pantomime "The babes in the wood" in which two "dear little baby" (elephants) appeared and after weeping sorely, died under the evergreen trees and were covered over with leaves by "Robin Redbreast." The drop curtain did not work well, so one of the "babes" had a speedy resurrection to pull down the "blinds." The proceeds of the evening amounted to about $40.

A GODERICH ESTABLISHMENT WORTHY OF INSPECTION.—At the corner of Hamilton street and "The Square" over the extensive stores of Mr. Chas. Nairn, are the reception rooms and studio of one of the foremost artists. A half hour's acquaintance with the artist of the town and neighborhood, for in every part of the style may be seen admirable likenesses of while the picturesque scene from all windows, now that summer has asserted any way is not to be surpassed by the town on either side of the Atlantic. But though the proprietor, Mr. George Stead, is naturally gratified with the success of his past labors, as reception rooms, he is not at all unwilling to conduct the caller to his spacious studio and show the means by which so Here, among other things, he is commendably proud of an splendid lens lately imported from Germany, which does unequalled work, especially with groups. By its aid, forty-three members of our County Council, beside three other large week, and this speaks volumes for the capacity of the instrument, and the large dimensions of the studio. Attention is also directed to a very recent imported photographic accessories, which so that the lady can be reproduced in her drawing room, the business man in love-rick, Juliet on her balcony, and the etc. A parting glance at some faithful life-size portraits in crayons and oils, Stead is not only a photographer, but an artist of the highest sense of the word, and that by superior merit he has deserved the continued success which has hitherto attended him.

PHIL SHERIDAN'S DASH.

HIS PERSONAL APPEARANCE DURING THE EARLY DAYS OF THE WAR.

Lost West-Halleck, Buell and Rosecrans in the West-A Caged Tiger-The Very Incarnate of Battle-The Northern Stonewall Jackson.

Gen. Phil Sheridan always had about him more of the dash, more of the magnetism of a general than any of the others who in the end came out the great leaders of the war.

When Sheridan was commanding a division in the Army of the Cumberland he was not the stocky person he is afterward.

He weighed about 180 pounds; his figure was small, his face rather thin.

Gen. Horace Porter has given in The Century Magazine for November, 1887, a vivid picture of Sheridan as he appeared at one of the closing scenes of the war.

"At 4 o'clock the formation was completed and the order for the assault was given, and the struggle for Picket's entrenched line began."

"Sheridan rode Kiama, the famous horse that had once carried him twenty miles from Winchester."

"There is no such picture as this of any of the great leaders of that period."

"The venerable and world famed Irish correspondent, Thomas Mooney, more familiarly known to every one in this country interested in the cause of Irish freedom."

BISHOP OF SOUTHERN OHIO.

Rev. William A. Leonard, who has been selected the appointment.

Rev. William A. Leonard, who has been selected Episcopal Bishop of Southern Ohio, was born in Southport, Conn., July 15, 1848.

Rev. W. A. Leonard was educated at Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., St. Stephen's college, Annandale, N. Y., and Berkeley school, Middletown, Conn.

On the completion of his course of theological study he went abroad, where he traveled a great deal and completed his general education.

On May 31, 1871, Bishop W. A. Leonard, being then a little less than 23 years of age, he was ordained a deacon by Bishop Williams, at Middletown, Conn., and on July 21, 1872, at Stamford, Conn., the same bishop ordained him a priest.

BISHOP OF DETROIT.

Rev. John S. Foley, who was recently appointed.

Rev. John S. Foley, D. D., the new bishop of the diocese of Detroit, has for a number of years been one of the best known and most successful clergymen in the Catholic Church.

His family is one of the most prominent of Baltimore, and his brother was the late Bishop Thomas Foley, of the diocese of Chicago.

He was then given a charge of the church at Elkton, Md., where his success was so pronounced that he was transferred to Baltimore city as the assistant of Mgr. McColgan at St. Peter's church.

Rev. Edwin Thompson, one of the original anti-slavery agitators of New England, who died recently at East Walpole, Mass., was born at Lynn, Mass., of Quaker parents, in 1801.

He was advised by Wendell Phillips to devote himself to the cause. While speaking in New Bedford the celebrated ex-slave Fred Douglass listened, and was induced by Mr. Thompson's eloquence to bestir himself in behalf of his race.

THE FASHIONS.

Red wool dresses as smooth as muslin, or else crinkled like crepe, have intricate borders of black embroidery.

The daisy has gone out of fashion—no use any more of dashes, nooses, bows, loops, and camelias are worn in a number on ball dresses.

New lace pins are quite large, and simulate perfectly, in size and appearance, elegant blossom, two or three saw-tooth flowers, or a half blown rosebud.

A handsome dozen in scent bottles is a flat crystal flask, having a stopple of red blue enamel, upon which are forgotten me-nots with tiny diamond centres.

Narrow colored ribbons, with picot edges, are now flat, in rows, upon the pretty chas and mousseline de laine.

For the ornamentation of ball gowns a vest leaf, has been brought out, the veining well painted, with large beads falling from the points, and they are used to secure drooping.

Some of the prettiest new bonnets have the front filled in with what used to be called a "cup" of soft tissue, arranged in such minute folds as to give the effect of marsh-bird feathers, than which nothing is more becoming.

An empire dress of black net has gold embroidery and spangles covering the front, while the back is of black net with graduated dots in stripes upward from the foot; the half-low, round short waist has the net lapped in front and back; and a mousseline sash is added with gold balls at the end.

In jewelry new and fanciful designs are shown for pendants and lace pins. Among the dainty devices is a spray of thistles, with the round base of the blossom of a single large pearl, and the filaments of large diamonds.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best, most prompt and safest cure for Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Sick Stomach, Champs, Colic, Diarrhoea and Cholera Infantum.

A Valuable Discovery.

F. P. Tanner, of Neebing, Ont., says he found it not only found B. B. B. a sure cure for Dyspepsia, but he has also found it to be the best medicine for regulating and invigorating the system that he has ever been taking.

By six qualities may a fool be known—anger without cause; speech without purity; change without motive; enquiry without an object; putting trust in a stranger, and capacity to discriminate between a friend and a foe.

Quite correct.

I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of wild strawberry and found it the best remedy I ever used for Dyspepsia and all Summer Complaints among children, and I think no household should be without it.

Trials are moral ballast that often prevent our progress.

The ravages of Cholera Infantum, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Dysentery and other summer complaints among children during the hot weather, might be almost totally prevented by having recourse to nature's sovereign remedy for all the ailments of the stomach.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy life in ease and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents. Cowly.

What maintains one vice would bring up two children.

Hay fever is a type of catarrh having peculiar symptoms. It is attended by an inflamed condition of the living membranes of the nostrils, tear-ducts and of the throat.

Mr. Thompson was a member of the convention which formed the first temperance society, in Essex county, Mass., and he was also interested in the first total abstinence movement in the state, and was connected with the first society of that cause organized in the state, the Massachusetts Temperance Union.
