The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

INTRODUCTORY LESSONS AND EXERCISES.

FIRST LESSON. OF NOTATION.

NOTATION is the visible expression of sounds. Musical notes are written upon, and between, five parallel lines, called a Stave, and named after the first seven letters of the alphabet; these letters are repeated as the notes ascend or descend; thus:

When the notes extend beyond the compass of the stave, short lines, called Ledger Lines, are added, as in the above example.

The precise sound and situation of the notes on the stave, are determined by characters called Clefs; of which there are three. The Treble, or G Clef;

the Tenor, or C Clef; and Bass, or F Clef. The other notes on the stave take their names from their relation to these clefs. For example; the Treble Clef is placed upon the second line of the stave, and gives the name of G to that note; consequently, one degree above will be A, and one degree below F: the Tenor Clef is placed upon the fourth line, which makes that note C; and the Bass upon the fourth line, when the note takes the name of F. Thus:

The best way of committing them to memory is the following:

Treble Clef:

Bass Clef:

The Tenor or C Clef is placed upon the fourth line for tenor voices, and upon the third line for alto or counter-tenor voices. The only Clefs used in the present work are the treble and bass. Some musicians insist upon the introduction of the tenor clef into popular collections of Music; but I agree with those who think it unnecessary. The former allege as a reason, that it is indispensable to a just appreciation of harmony. Upon this it may be remarked, that the musician understands it written in either way; and he who is not, can comprehend it in neither. Some persons are much puzzled with such directions as the following: "The tenor and counter-tenor parts, being written on the treble clef must be sung an octave lower." This is not the case. They are sung precisely as written, by male voices, as the words tenor and alto signify; and they are the exact pitch intended.

SECOND LESSON.
OF TIME.

Notes have various forms and names to mark their relative proportion to each other in point of time or duration. Thus: \circ , a Semibreve; P , Minim; C , Crotchet;

Q , Quaver; S , Semiquaver; D , Demisemiquaver.

Commit the following table to memory:

One semibreve \circ is equal to two minims, P or P
 four crotchets, C or C
 eight quavers, Q or Q
 sixteen semiquavers, S or S
 thirty-two demisemiquavers, D or D

Each note has a corresponding character of silence called a Rest. Thus: — , semibreve rest; — , minim rest; ┘ , crotchet rest; ┘ , quaver rest; ┘ , semiquaver rest; ┘ , demisemiquaver rest.

A Dot after a note makes it a half longer. Thus:

A dot after a rest it affects it in the same manner.

Music is divided into certain equal portions, called Bars, by perpendicular lines drawn across the staff. Thus: ||| ; the line is also called a Bar.

Of these divisions there are two kinds, viz.: Common Time, where each bar contains an equal quantity (as two minims, or two crotchets); and Triple Time, when the quantity is unequal (as three minims, or three crotchets). These two kinds are divided into Simple and Compound, and expressed by the following figures: simple common time, by C , C , $\frac{2}{4}$; compound common time, by $\frac{6}{4}$, $\frac{6}{8}$, $\frac{12}{4}$, $\frac{12}{8}$; simple triple time by $\frac{3}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{3}{8}$; compound triple time by $\frac{9}{4}$, $\frac{9}{8}$.

To understand this perfectly, remember that C signifies that each bar contains a semibreve or its equivalent, and that the figures refer to certain portions of a semibreve contained in a bar; as $\frac{2}{4}$ signifies that each bar contains two fourth parts of a semibreve, or two crotchets; $\frac{3}{2}$ three halves of a semibreve, or three minims; $\frac{3}{4}$ three crotchets, &c. Having become familiar with this, practise the following manner of beating time:

In simple common time of four crotchets in a bar, raise the right hand as high as the head, and at the beginning of every bar bring it down upon the palm of the left, striking the palm with the first finger of the right hand, that marks the first crotchet; then follow with the right hand the outline of the annexed diagram, for the remaining crotchets in the bar:

In simple triple time thus:

When the student is acquainted with this, he will find little difficulty in singing in concert, so far as keeping good time is concerned.

THIRD LESSON.

MISCELLANEOUS CHARACTERS.

A Sharp, #, raises the note before which it placed a semitone. A Flat, b, lowers a note a semitone. A Natural, ♮, restores a sharpened or flattened note to its original sound. The sharps or flats which are placed at the beginning of a piece of music, are called its signature; those which occur throughout the piece, accidentals. The former have effect from the beginning to the end; the latter only in the bar in which they are placed.

A Slur, , over two or more notes, signifies that they are to be sung to one syllable.

A Pause over a note or rest, thus, , shews that the note or rest is to be held longer than its real length. To increase the sound, the mark is thus, < ; and, to diminish, > .

Three notes, in this manner, , are called a Triplet, and are to be sung in the time of two of the same kind.

FOURTH LESSON.
OF THE SCALE.

A Scale is a succession of notes, ascending or descending, in whole tones and half tones, or in half tones only. The former is called the Diatonic Scale; the latter, the Chromatic. Of the diatonic scale there are two kinds, viz.: the Major and Minor: the difference between which consists in the places where the half tones occur. In the major, the half tones occur between the third and fourth, and seventh and eighth. Thus:

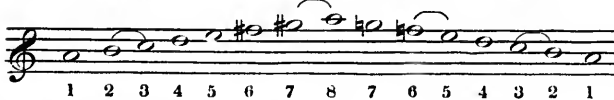

Half tone. Half tone. Half tone.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

In the minor, between the second and third and seventh and eighth, ascending; and between the fifth and sixth and second and third, descending. Thus:

Half tone. Half tone. Half tone. Half tone.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

This is a very important part of the subject, and should be thoroughly understood.

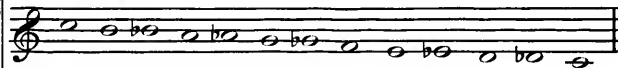

There is in reality no difference between one major scale and another, or one minor scale and another, but that of pitch: every note bears the same relation to the first or key note in one scale that it does in another. This is the ground-work of transposition, and of singing at sight. To attempt to learn this without a master, would be tedious and unprofitable. However, the following rules may suffice as a guide. A diatonic scale may be formed upon any note of the following

CHROMATIC SCALE.

Ascending.

Descending.

Let us take D, for example, and write:

Now, if care be taken that every note is distant from the preceding two half tones, except the third and fourth, and seventh and eighth (where the distance must be only one half tone), the scale will appear thus:

3 4 7 8

That is, it requires F# and C# to make it in every respect the same as the scale of C, except the pitch.

FIFTH LESSON.
ON SINGING.

The first object in singing is the formation of the voice. There is no voice, however fine by nature, that has not many imperfections, requiring the skill of a master to eradicate. The most common of these (and the most difficult to get rid of) is the thick guttural tone, which proceeds from a bad position of the mouth and tongue. It is frequently affected by some, under the notion that it gives smoothness to the voice. The best way of acquiring the desired purity of tone, as pursued by the best masters and greatest artists, is the persevering practice of the diatonic and chromatic scales; first, to the sound of A, as heard in far; and then to the Sol Fa.

In the following diatonic scale, commence every note with a moderate degree of strength; swell it out, but not to excess; then diminish to the softest piano. If this is continued until every note within the compass of the voice can be held firm and unflinching, the student will have made considerable progress in the art of singing.

DIATONIC SCALE.

Ah!

Do Re Mi Fa Sol La Si Do Si La Sol Fa Mi Re Do

In the chromatic scale, sing the number of notes in each bar to one breath.

CHROMATIC SCALE.

Having practised thus far for some days, the student should (supposing him to be acquainted with the preceding lessons) transpose the diatonic scale into as many keys as will embrace the compass of his voice; for example: the bass should practise the scale of G, beginning upon the first line in the bass; then in A, the tone above; in Bb, C and D. The treble and the tenor, should begin with the one given above, C; then in D, E, F and G. The counter-tenor should begin with A, second space; then Bb, B \sharp and C.

The only other branch of the art that it is necessary to treat of here, is Pronunciation. The rule is, that only the first sound of a syllable should be sung: for example; in the words far and hear, it is the sound of e that should sustain the note, the ar being pronounced shortly as the word is finished. In the words sight and bright, when sung to two or more notes, the same sound must be heard in both, or all the notes, and not made into syllables, as si-ight, bri-ight. The article the before a word beginning with a consonant, is pronounced thah, as "thah Lord;" and never like the pronoun thee, except before a vowel, as "the earth." My is always pronounced so in sacred music; but, in secular, it is mae, as "mae Father," except when emphatic or opposed to thy. Care must also be taken not to dwell upon consonants, such as l, m, and the like, a practice which is destructive of all elegance; in short, it is not a rare thing to hear a well-educated person and correct speaker pronounce, in singing, very little better than the illiterate.

SIXTH LESSON.

ON SINGING AT SIGHT.

The following Exercises are for the practice of the various intervals: they should be sung without the assistance of an instrument.

Sing each bar twice over, first with the little notes, then without. Having continued this for some time, until the intervals are certain, sing them straight through. They should then be transposed into various keys, and practised in the same manner.

PSALM 92, vv. 1, 2, 4.
Tener.

ST. ANN'S. C. M.

DR. CROFT.

The musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are for voices: the first is labeled 'Tener.' and the second is labeled 'Alto.'. The bottom two staves are for organ: the third is labeled 'Trebble.' and the fourth is labeled 'Bass.'. The organ part is indicated by the word 'ORGAN.' written vertically on the left side of the page. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, aligned with the notes.

How good and plea-sant must it be To thank the Lord most high! And with re-peat-ed hymns of praise His name to mag-ni - - fy!

With every morning's early dawn
His goodness to relate;
And of his constant truth each night
The glad effects repeat.

For through thy wondrous works, O Lord,
Thou mak'st my heart rejoice;
The thoughts of them shall make me glad,
And shout with cheerful voice.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

O Lord, the Sa - viour and de - fence Of us thy cho - sen race, From age to age thou still hast been Our sure n - bi - ding place.

Thou turnest man, O Lord, to dust,
Of which he first was made;
And when thou speak'st the word, return,
'Tis instantly obey'd.

F - in thy sight a thousand years
Are like a day that's past:
Or like a watch in dead of night,
Whose hours unmined waste.

So teach us, Lord, th' uncertain sum
Of our short days to mind,
That to true wisdom all our hearts
May ever be inclin'd.

Lord, hear my pray'r and to my cry Thy won - ted au - dience lend; In thy ac - eus - tom'd faith and truth A gra - cious an - swer send.

Nor at thy strict tribunal bring
Thy servant to be tried;
For in thy sight no living man
Can e'er be justified.

Thy kindness early let me hear,
Whose trust on thee depends:
Teach me the way where I should go:
My soul to thee ascends.

O, for the sake of thy great name,
Revive my drooping heart:
For thy truth's sake, to me distress'd,
Thy promis'd aid impart.

With my whole heart, my God and King, Thy praise I will pro-claim; Be-fore the gods with joy I'll sing, And bless thy ho-ly name.

Thou graciously inclin'dst thine ear,
When I to thee did cry;
And, when my soul was press'd with fear,
Didst inward strength supply.

For God, although enthroned on high,
Does thence the poor respect:
The proud, far off, his scornful eye
Beholds with just neglect.

Though I with troubles am oppress'd,
He shall my foes disparage,
Relieve my soul, when most distress'd,
And keep me safe from harm.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I From truth shall ne'er de-part; In rev-rence to thy sa-cred name De-vout-ly fix my heart.

Thee will I praise, O Lord, my God!
Praise thee with heart sincere;
And to thy everlasting name
Eternal trophies rear.

Thy boundless mercies shown to me
Transcend my pow'r to tell;
For thou hast oft redeem'd my soul
From the west depths of hell.

O bounteous Lord, thy grace and strength
To me, thy servant, show;
Thy kind protection, Lord, on me,
Thine handmaid's son, bestow.

God's faith-ful prom-ise I will praise, On which I now re-ly; In God I trust, and trust-ing hiu, The arm of flesh do-fy.

I'll trust God's word, and so despise
The force that man can raise;
To thee, O God, my vows are due,
To thee I'll render praise.

Thou hast retriev'd my soul from death,
And thou wilt still secure
The life thou hast so oft preserved,
And make my footsteps sure:

That thus, protected by thy pow'r,
I may this light enjoy,
And in the service of my God
My lengthen'd days employ.

PSALM 34, vv. 1-2, 3, 4, 8.

HUDDERSFIELD. C. M.

DR. MADAN.

Through all the chang-ing scenes of life, In trou-ble and in joy, The prais-es of my God shall still My heart and tongue em-ploy.

Of his deliv'rance I will boast,
Till all that are distress'd,
From my example, comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.

O! magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name:
When in distress to him I call'd,
He to my rescue came.

O make but trial of his love,
Experience will decide
How bless'd they are, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.

How bless'd are they, who al - ways keep The pure and per - fect way! Who ne - ver from the sa - cred paths Of God's com - mand - ments stray!

How bless'd, who to his righteous laws
Have still obedient been!
And have with fervent, humble zeal,
His favour sought to win.

O then, that thy most holy will
Might o'er my ways preside!
And I the course of all my life
By thy direction guide.

So to thy sacred laws shall I
All due observance pay:
O then forsake me not, my God,
Nor cast me quite away.

O ren - der thanks, and bless the Lord; In - voke his sa - cred name; Ac - quaint the na - tions with his deeds, His match - less deeds pro - claim.

Sing to his praise in lofty hymns,
His wondrous works rehearse;
Make them the theme of your discourse,
And subject of your verse.

Rejoice in his Almighty name,
Alone to be adored:
And let their hearts o'erflow with joy,
That humbly seek the Lord.

Seek ye the Lord, his saving strength
Devoutly still implore:
And, where he's ever present, seek
His face for evermore.

How just and mer - ci - ful is God! How gra - cious is the Lord! Who saves the harm - less, and to me Does time - ly aid af - ford.

Then, free from peni - ve cares, my soul,
Resume thy wonted rest;
For God has wondrously to thee
His bounteous love express'd.

When death alarm'd me, he removed
My dangers and my fears;
My feet from falling he secured,
And dried my eyes from tears.

Therefore my life's remaining years,
Which God to me shall lend,
Will I in praises to his name,
And in his service spend.

PSALM 23, vv. 1, 3, 4, 6.

YORK. C. M.

MILTON.

The Lord him - self, the mighty Lord Vouch - safe to be my guide; The Shep - herd by whose con - stant care My wants are all sup - plied.

He does my wand'ring soul reclaim,
And to his endless praise,
Instruct with humble zeal to walk
In his most righteous ways.

I pass the gloomy vale of death,
From fear and danger free;
For there his aiding rod and staff
Defend and comfort me.

Since God does thus his wondrous love
Through all my life extend;
That life to him I will devote,
And in his temple spend.

The strong foun - da - tions of the earth Of old by thee were laid; Thy hands the beau-teous arch of heav'n With won - drous skill have made.

Whilst thou for ever shalt endure,
They soon shall pass away;
And like a garment often worn,
Shall tarnish und decay.

Like that, when thou ordain'st their change,
To thy command they bend;
But thou continuest still the same,
Nor have thy years an end.

Thou to the children of thy saints
Shalt lasting quiet give,
Whose happy race, securely fix'd,
Shall in thy presence live.

O Thou, to whom all crea-tures bow, With - In this earth-ly frame; Thro' all the world how great art thou! How glo - rious is thy name!

In heav'n thy wondrous acts are sung,
Nor fully reckon'd there;
And yet thou mak'st the infant tongue
Thy boundless praise declare.

When heav'n, thy beautiful work on high,
Employs my wond'ring sight;
The moon that nightly rules the sky,
With stars of feebler light;

What's man (say I) that, Lord, thou lov'st
To keep him in thy mind?
Or what his offspring, that thou prov'st
To them so wondrous kind?

In thee I put my stead-fast trust, De-fend me, Lord from shame; In-cline thine ear, and save my soul, For right-cous is thy name.

Therefore with psaltery and harp
Thy truth, O Lord, I'll praise;
To thee, the God of Jacob's race,
My voice in anthems raise.

Then joy shall fill my mouth, and songs
Employ my cheerfu' voice;
My grateful soul, by thee redeem'd,
Shall in thy strength rejoice.

My tongue thy just and righteous acts
Shall all the day proclaim;
Because thou didst confound my foes,
And brought'st them all to shame.

The Lord from heav'n be-holds the just With fa-vour-n-ble eyes; And, when dis-tress'd, his gra-cious ear Is o-pen to their cries.

Deliv'rance to his saints he gives,
When his relief they crave:
He's oigh to heal the broken heart,
And contrite spirits save.

The wicked from their wicked arts
Their ruin shall derive;
Whilst righteous men, whom they detest,
Shall them and theirs survive.

For God preserves the souls of those
Who on his truth depend;
To them and their posterity
His blessings shall descend.

Hap-py the man whose ten-der care Re-lieves the poor dis-tress'd; When trou-bles com-pass him a-round, The Lord shall give him rest.

The Lord, his life with blessings crown'd,
In safety shall prolong;
And disappoint the will of those
That seek to do him wrong.

If he in languishing estate
Oppress'd with sickness lie;
The Lord will easy make his bed,
And inward strength supply.

Let, therefore, Israel's Lord and God
From age to age be bless'd;
And all the people's glad applause
With loud Amens express'd.

The lips that with de- ceit a-bound Can ne- ver pros-per long; God's right-cous ven- geance will con-found The proud blas-phem-ing tongue.

In vain those foolish boasters say,
"Our tongues are sure our own;
"With doubtful words we will betray,
"And be controll'd by none."

The word of God shall still abide,
And void of falsehood be,
As is the silver, sev'n times tried,
From drossy mixture free.

The promise of his aiding grace
Shall reach the purpos'd end;
His servants from this faithless race
He ever shall defend.

I strive each ac - tion to ap - prove To his all - see - ing eye: No dan - gers shall my hopes re - move, Be - cause he still is nigh.

Therefore my heart all grief defies,
My glory doea rejoice;
My flesh shall rest in hope to rise,
Wak'd by his pow'ful voice.

Thou, Lord, when I resign my breath,
My soul from hell shalt free;
Nor let thy holy one in death
The least corruption see.

Thou shalt the paths of life display,
That to thy presence lead;
Where pleasures dwell without alloy,
And joys that never fade.

PSALM 1, vv. 1, 2, 3, 6.

ST. DAVID'S. C. M.

RAVENS CROFT.

How bless'd is he who ne'er con - sents By ill ad - vice to walk; Nor stands in sin - ners' ways, nor sits Where men pro - fane - ly talk.

But makes the perfect law of God
His business and delight;
Devoutly reads therein by day,
And meditates by night.

Like some fair tree, which, fed by streams,
With timely fruit does bend,
He still shall flourish, and success
All his designs attend.

For God approves the just man's ways,
To happiness they tend;
But sinners, and the paths they tread,
Shall both in ruin end

At - tend, O earth, whilst I de - clare God's un - con-troll'd de - erce: "Thou art my Son, this day, my heir, "Have I be - got - ten thee.

"Ask and receive thy full demands;
"Thine shall the heathen be;
"The utmost limits of the lands
"Shall be possess'd by thee.

"Thy threat'ning sceptre thou shalt shake,
"And crush them every where,
"As massy bars of iron break
"The potter's brittle ware."

Learn then, ye princes, and give ear
Ye judges of the earth;
Worship the Lord with holy fear,
Rejoice with awful mirth.

To ce - le - brate thy praise, O Lord, I will my heart pre - pare; To all the list'-ning world thy works, Thy won - drous works de - clare.

The thought of them shall to my soul
Exalted pleasure bring;
Whilst to thy name, O thou Most High,
Triumphant praise I sing.

God is a constant, sure defence,
Against oppressing rage;
As troubles rise his needful aids
In our behalf engage.

All those who have his goodness prov'd,
Will in his truth confide,
Whose mercy ne'er forsook the man
That on his help relie-d.

COMPTON. C. M.

Let all the just to God with joy Their cheer-ful voices raise; For well the right-eous it be-comes To sing glad songs of praise.

For faithful is the word of God,
His works with truth abound;
He justice loves, and all the earth
Is with his goodness crown'd.

Let earth, and all that dwell therein,
Before him trembling stand;
For when he spake the word, 'twas made,
'Twas fix'd at his command.

Whate'er the mighty Lord decrees
Shall stand for ever sure;
The settled purpose of his heart
To ages shall endure.

PSALM 86, vs. 8, 9, 10.

STROUDWATER. C. M.

PURCELL.

A-mong the gods there's none like thee, O Lord, a-lone di-vine! To thee as much in-fe-rior they, As are their works to thine.

Therefore, their great Creator thee
The nations shall adore;
Their long misguided pray'rs and praise
To thy blest name restore.

All shall confess thee great, and great
The wonders thou hast done:
Confess thee God, the God supreme,
Confess thee God alone.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

How hap - py then are they, to whom The Lord for God is known! Whom he from all the world be - sides, Has cho - sen for his own!

'Tis God who those that trust in him
Beholds with gracious eyes:
He frees their soul from death, their want
In time of dearth supplies.

Our soul on God with patience waits,
Our help and shield is he:
Then, Lord, let still our hearts rejoice,
Because we trust in thee.

The riches of thy mercy, Lord,
Do thou to us extend;
Since we, for all we want or wish,
On thee alone depend.

As pants the hart for cool - ing streams, When heat - ed in the chase, So longs my soul, O God, for thee, And thy re - fresh - ing grace.

For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O when shall I behold thy face,
Thou majesty divine?

Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
I hope still and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

The Lord, the on - ly God is great, And great-ly to be prai'd In Zi - on, on whose hap-py mount His sa - cred throne is rais'd, His sa - cred throne is rais'd.

According to thy sov'reign name,
Thy praise through earth extends:
Thy pow'ful arm, as justice guides,
Chaotica, or defends.

Let Zion's mount with joy resound,
Her daughters all be taught
In songs his judgments to extol,
Who this deliv'rance wrought.

This God is ours, and will be ours,
Whilst we in him confide:
Who, as he has preserv'd us now,
Till death will be our guide.

PSALM 78, vv. 4, 5, 6, 7.

OLDHAM. C. M.

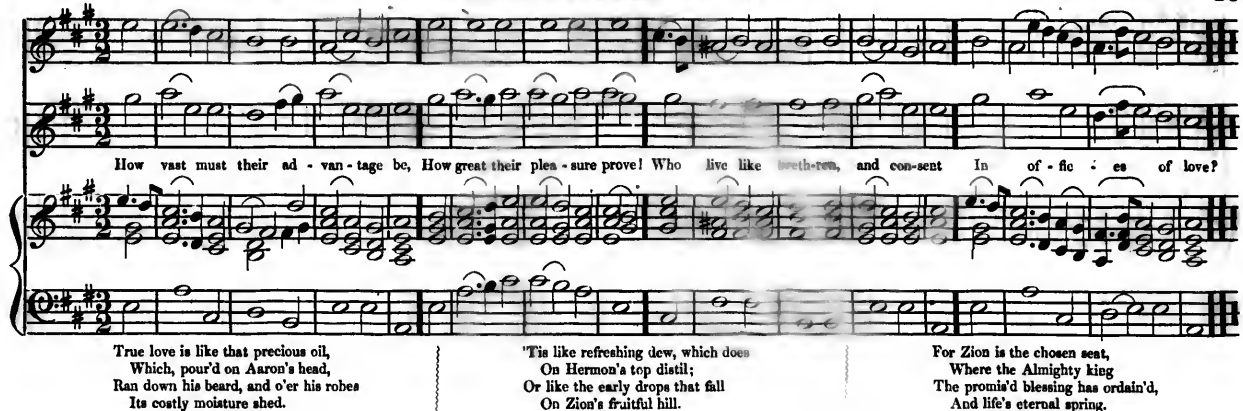

J. LEACH.

We will not hide them from our sons, Our off - spring shall be taught The prais-es of the Lord, whose strength Has works of wonder wrought—Has works of wonder wrought.

For Jacob he this law ordain'd,
This league with Israel made,
With charge to be from age to age,
From race to race convey'd.

That generations yet to come
Should to their unborn heirs
Religiously transmit the same,
And they again to theirs.

To teach them that in God alone
The way securely stands;
That they should not forget his works,
And keep his precepts.

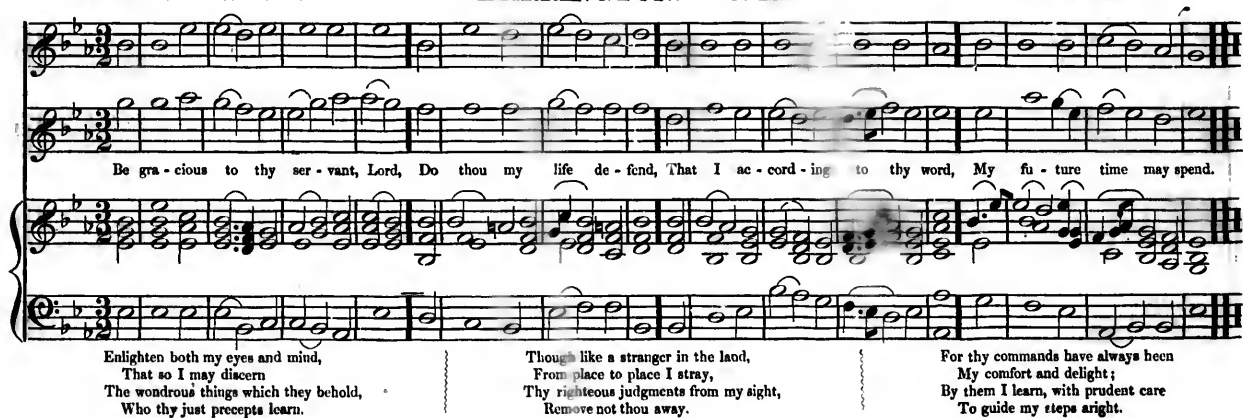

How vast must their ad - van - tage be, How great their plea - sure prove! Who live like breth - ren, and con - sent In of - fices of love?

True love is like that precious oil,
Which, pour'd on Aaron's head,
Ran down his beard, and o'er his robes
Its costly moisture shed.

'Tis like refreshing dew, which does
On Hermon's top distil;
Or like the early drops that fall
On Zion's fruitful hill.

For Zion is the chosen seat,
Where the Almighty king
The promis'd blessing has ordain'd,
And life's eternal spring.

Be gra - cious to thy ser - vant, Lord, Do thou my life de - fend, That I ac - cord - ing to thy word, My fu - ture time may spend.

Enlighten both my eyes and mind,
That so I may discern
The wondrous things which they behold,
Who thy just precepts learn.

Though like a stranger in the land,
From place to place I stray,
Thy righteous judgments from my sight,
Remove not thou away.

For thy commands have always been
My comfort and delight;
By them I learn, with prudent care
To guide my steps aright.

Sing to the Lord a new-made song, Who won-drous works has done; With his right hand and ho-ly arm The con-quest he has won.

The Lord has through th' astonish'd world
Display'd his saving might,
And made his righteous acts appear
In all the heathens' sight.

Of Israel's house his love and truth
Have ever mindful been:
Wide earth's remotest parts the pow'r
Of Israel's God have seen.

Let, therefore, earth's inhabitants
Their cheerful voices raise,
And all, with universal joy,
Resound their Maker's praise.

PSALM 147, vs. 1, 3-4, 5-6, 7.

GAINSBOROUGH. C. M.

JAS. SMITH.

O praise the Lord with hymns of joy, And cel-e-brate his fame; For plea-sant, good, and come-ly 'tis To praise his ho-ly name.

He kindly heals the broken hearts,
And all their wounds doth close;
He tells the number of the stars,
Their sev'ral names he knows

Great is the Lord, and great his pow'r,
His wisdom has no bound;
The meek he raises, but throws down
The wicked to the ground.

To God, the Lord, a hymn of praise
With grateful voices sing:
To songs of triumph tune the harp,
And strike each warbling string.

Thee I'll ex-tol, my God and King, Thy end-less praise pro-claim; This tri-bute dai-ly I will bring, And e-ver-bless thy name—And e-ver bleas thy name.

Thou, Lord, beyond compare art great,
And highly to be prais'd:
Thy majesty with boundless height
Above our knowledge rais'd.

Renow'd for mighty acts, thy fame
To future times extends:
From age to age thy glorious name
Successively descends.

Whilst I thy glory and renown,
And wondrous works express;
The world with me thy might shall own,
And thy great pow'r confess.

The Lord, who made both heav'n and earth, And all that they con-tain, Will ne-ver quit his stead-fest truth, Nor make his pro-mise vain.

The poor, oppress'd from all their wrong,
Are e-ned by his decree:
He gives the hungry needful food,
And sets the pris'ners free.

By him the blind receive their sight,
The weak and full'n he rears;
With kind regard and tender love
He for the righteous cares.

The God that does in Zion dwell,
Is our eternal King:
From age to age his reign endures;
Let all his praises sing.

Con - ti - nue, Lord, to hear my voice, When - e'er to thee I cry; In mer - cy my com - plaints re - ceive, Nor my re - quest de - ny.

When us to seek thy glorious face
Thou kindly dost advise,
"Thy glorious face I'll always seek,"
My grateful heart replies.

Then hide not Thou thy face, O Lord,
Nor me in wrath reject;
My God and Saviour, leave not him
Thou didst so oft protect.

God's time with patient faith expect,
And he'll inspire thy breast
With inward strength: do thou thy part,
And leave to him the rest.

In mer - cy my com - plaints re - ceive, Nor my re - quest de - ny.

NEW CAMBRIDGE. C. M.

Let all the lands with shouts of joy To God their voices raise:

Sing psalms in ho - nour of his name, And spread his glo-rious praise— And spread his glo-rious praise—And spread his glo - rious praise.

Through all the earth, the nations round
Shall thee their God confess;
And with glad hymns their awful dread
Of thy great name express.

O come, behold the works of God,
And then with me you'll own,
That he to all the sons of men
Hath wondrous judgments shown.

O, all ye nations, bless our God,
And loudly speak his praise;
Who keeps our souls alive, and still
Confirms our steadfast ways.

O 'twas a joy-ful sound to hear Our tribes de - vout - ly say, Up, Is-ra-el, to the tem - ple haste, And keep your fes - tal day.

'Tis thither, by divine command,
The tribes of God repair,
Before his ark to celebrate
His name with praise and pray'r.

O pray v' then for Salem's peace,
For they shall prosperous be,
Thou holy city of our God!
Who bear true love to thee.

May peace within thy sacred walls
A constant guest be found;
With plenty and prosperity
Thy palaces be crown'd.

YARMOUTH. C. M. J. P. CLARKE.

Up Is-ra-el to the tem-ple haste, And keep your fes-tal day.

Hark the glad sound! the Sa- viour comes, The Sa- viour pro-mis'd long, The Sa-viour pro-mis'd long; Let ev-'ry heart ex-ult in praise, And ev-'ry voice in song. Let ev-'ry heart ex-ult in praise, And ev-'ry voice in song.

He comes from thickest fims of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eye, oppress'd with night,
To pour celestial day.

He comes the broken heart to bind,
The wounded soul to cure,
And with the riches of his grace
To bless the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heav'n's eternal arches ring
With thy most honour'd name.

PSALM 19, vv. 8, 12, 13, 14.

ST. STEPHEN'S. C. M.

REV. MR. JONES.

The sta-tutes of the Lord are just, And bring sin-cere de-light; His pure com-mands in search of truth As-sist the fee-blest sight.

But what frail man observes how oft
He does from virtue fall?
O! cleanse me from my secret faults;
Thuu God that know'st them all.

Let no presumptuous sin, O Lord,
Dominion have o'er me;
That, by thy grace preserv'd, I may
The great transgression flee.

So shall my pray'r and praises be
With thy acceptance bless'd;
And I secure, on thy defence,
My strength and Saviour, rest.

G

While shep-berde watch'd their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground, The an-gel of the Lord came down, And glo-ry shone a-round.

Fear not, said he, (for migh-ty dread Had seiz'd their trou-bl'd mind,) Glad ti-dings of great joy I bring To you and all man-kind.

To you in David's town this day
Is born, of David's line,
The Saviour who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:
The heav'nly babe you there shall find
To human view display'd,
All meanly wrapp'd in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.

Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appear'd a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus
Address'd their joyful song:
"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
God will henceforth from heav'n to men
Begin, and never cease."

Bless'd is the man whom thou, O Lord, In kind-ness dost chas-tise; And by thy sa-cred rules to walk Dost lov-ing-ly ad-vise.

This man shall rest and safe-ty find In sea-sons of dis-tress; Whilst God pre-pares a pit for those That stub-born-ly trans-gress.

For God will never from his saints
His favour wholly take;
His own possession and his lot
He will not quite forsake.

Thus my defence is firmly placed
In God the Lord most high;
He is my rock, to which I may
For refugio always fly.

HEMPLE. C. M. D.

But thou, O Lord, art my de-fee-ee, On thee my hopes re-ly; Thou art my glo-ry, and shalt yet Lift up my head on high.

Since, when-so-e'er in like dis-tress To God I made my prayer, He heard me from his ho-ly hill, Why should I now des-pair.

Guarded by him I laid me down,
My sweet repose to take;
For I through him securely sleep,
Through him in safety wake.

Salvation to the Lord belongs,
He only can defend;
His blessing he extends to all
That on his pow'r depend.

High let us swell our tune - ful notes, And join th' an - gel - ic throng, For an - gels no such love have known, T' a - wake a cheer - ful song. Good will to sin - ful men is shown, And peace on earth is giv'n; For, lol th' in - ear - nate Sa - viour comes With mes - sa - ges from heav'n.

Justice and grace, with sweet accord,
His rising beams adorn;
Let heav'n and earth in concert join,
"To us a child is born."

Glory to God in highest strains,
In highest worlds be paid;
His glory by our lips proclaim'd,
And by our lives display'd.

MARTYR'S. C. M.

Dark was the night, and cold the ground On which the Lord was laid; His sweat like drops of blood ran down, In a - go - ny he pray'd:

"Father, remove this bitter cup,
 "If such thy sacred will;
 "If not, content to drink it up,
 "Thy pleasure I fulfil."

Go to the garden, sinner, see
 Those precious drops that flow!
 That heavy load he bore for thee—
 For thee he lies so low.

PSALM 22, vs. 1, 14, 16, 18.

ST. MARY'S. C. M.

RATHIEL.

My God, my God, why leav'st thou me When I with an - guish faint? O why so far from me re - mov'd, And from my loud com - plaiat?

My blood like water 'a spill'd, my joints
 Are rack'd and out of frame;
 My heart dissolves within my breast
 Like wax before the flame.

Like bloodhounds to surround me they
 In pack'd assemblies meet;
 They pierc'd my inoffensive hands,
 They pierc'd my harmless feet.

As spoil my garments they divide,
 Lots for my vesture cast:
 Therefore approach, O Lord, my strength,
 And to my succour haste.

To my com-plaint, O Lord my God, Thy gra-cious ear in-cline; Hear me, dis-tress'd and des-ti-tute Of all re-lief but thine!

Do thou, O God! preserve my soul,
That does thy name adore;
Thy servant keep, and him, whose trust
Relies on thee, restore.

To me, who daily thee invoke,
Thy mercy, Lord, extend:
Refresh thy servant's soul, whose hopes
On thee alone depend.

Thou, Lord, art good—not only good,
But prompt to pardon, too;
Of plenteous mercy to all those
Who for thy mercy sue.

How long wilt thou for-get me, Lord? Must I for ev-er mourn? How long wilt thou with-draw from me, Oh! nev-er to re-turn?

How long shall anxious thoughts my soul,
And grief my heart, oppress?
How long my enemies insult,
And I have no redress?

Since I have always plac'd my trust
Beneath thy mercy's wing,
Thy saving health will come, and then
My heart with joy shall spring.

Then shall my song, with praise inspir'd,
To thee, my God, ascend,
Who to thy servant in distress
Such bounty didst extend.

OLD LONDON. C. M.

How loog wilt thou he an - gry, Lord? Must we for ev - er mourn? Shall thy de-vour-ing, jeal - ous rage, Like fire for ev - er burn?

O think not on our former sins,
But speedily prevent
The utter ruin of thy saints,
Almost with sorrow spent.

Thou, God of our salvation, help,
And free our souls from blame;
So shall our pardon and defence
Exalt thy glorious name.

So we, thy people, and thy flock,
Shall ever praise thy name;
And with glad hearts our grateful thanks
From age to age proclaim.

HYMN 63, vv. 1, 2, 4, 5.

PUPCELL.

When youth and age are snatch'd a - way By death's re - sist - less hand, Our hearts the mourn - ful tri - bute pay, Which friend - ship must de - mand.

While pity prompts the rising sigh,
With awful pow'r imprest,
May this dread truth, "I too must die,"
Sink deep in ev'ry breast.

The voice of this instructive scene
May ev'ry heart obey!
Nor be the faithful warning vain,
Which calls to watch and pray!

O let us to that Saviour fly,
Whose arm alone can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

The Lord from heav'n be-holds the just With fa-vour - a - ble eyes; And, when dis-tress'd, his gra-cious ear is o - pen to their cries— Is o - pen to their cries.

And contrue spirits save.

The wicked from their wicked arts
Their ruin shall derive;
Whilst righteous men, whom they detest,
Shall them and theirs survive.

For God preserves the souls of those
Who on his truth depend;
To them and their posterity
His blessings shall descend.

O God, our Sa - viour, all our hearts To thy o - be - dience turn; That, quench'd with our re - pent - ing tears, Thy wrath no more may burn.

For why should'rt thou be angry still,
And wrath so long retain?
Revive us, Lord, and let thy saints
Thy wonted comfort gain.

Thy gracious favour, Lord, display,
Which we have long implor'd;
And, for thy wondrous mercy's sake,
Thy wonted aid afford.

God's answer patiently I'll wait,
For he, with glad success,
(If they no more to folly turn)
His mourning saions will bless.

My God, and is thy ta - ble spread, And doth thy cup with love o'er - flow? Thith - er be all thy chil - dren led, And let them all thy sweet-ness

Hail, sacred feast, which Jesus makes,
Rich banquet of his flesh and blood!
Thrice happy he, who here partakes
That sacred stream, that heavenly food,

Why are its bounties all in vain
Before unwilling hearts display'd?
Was not for you the victim slain!
Are you forbid the children's bread?

O, let thy table honour'd be,
And furnish'd well with joyful guests;
And may each soul salvation see,
That here its sacred pledges tastes.

Bless God, my soul; thou, Lord, a - lone Pos - sess - est em - pire with - out bounds;

With hon - our thou art crown'd, thy throne E - ter - nal ma - jes - ty sur - rounds—E - ter - nal ma - jes - ty sur - rounds.

How various, Lord, thy works are found,
For which thy wisdom we adore!
The earth is with thy treasure crown'd
Till nature's hand can grasp no more.

In praising God, while he prolongs
My breath, I will that breath employ;
And join devotion to my songs,
Sincere, as is in him my joy.

While sinners from earth's face are hurl'd,
My soul, praise thou his holy name;
Till with my song the list'ning world
Join concert, and his praise proclaim.

Thy mer - cies, Lord, shall be my song, My song on them shall e - ver dwell; To a - ges yet un-born my tongue Thy ne - ver fail - ing truth shall tell.

I have affirm'd, and still maintain,
Thy mercy shall for ever last;
Thy truth, that does the heav'n sustain,
Like them shall stand for ever fast.

For such stupendous truth and love,
Both heav'n and earth just praises owe;
By choirs of angels sung above,
And by assembled saints below.

With reverence and religious dread
His saints shall to his temple press;
His fear through all their hearts should spread,
Who his almighty name confess.

Hark! from the tombs a dole - ful sound, My ears at - tend the cry— "Ye liv - ing men, come, view the ground "Where you must short - ly lie.

"Princes, this clay must be your bed,
"In spite of all your tow'rs;
"The tall, the wise, the rev'rend head
"Must lie as low as ours."

Great God! is this our certain doom?
And are we still secure?
Still walking downwards to the tomb?
And yet prepared no more?

Grant us the pow'r of quick'ning grace,
To fit our souls to fly:
Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
We'll rise above the sky.

PSALM 100, vv. 1-2, 3, 4, 5.

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

CLAUDE LE JENNA.

With one con - sent let all the earth To God their cheer - ful voic - es raise; Glad ho - mage pay with aw - ful mirth, And sing be - fore him songs of praise.

Convine'd that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock that he vouchsafes to feed.

O enter then his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press,
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.

For he's the Lord, supremely good,
His mercy is for ever sure:
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

The first system of musical notation for Psalm 139. It consists of a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style.

Thou, Lord, by strict-est search hast known My ris - ing up and ly - ing down; My se-cret thoughts are known to thee, Known long be - fore con - cei'd by me.

The second system of musical notation for Psalm 139, continuing the vocal line and piano accompaniment from the first system.

Thine eye my bed and path surveys,
My public haunts and private ways:
Thou knowst what 'tis my lips would vent,
My yet unutter'd words' intent.

Surrounded by thy pow'r I stand,
On ev'ry side I find thy hand;
O skill for human reach too high!
Too dazzling bright for mortal eye!

Search, try, O God, my thoughts and heart,
If mischief lurks in any part;
Correct me where I go astray,
And guide me in thy perfect way.

The first system of musical notation for Psalm 57. It consists of a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on grand staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style.

O God, my heart is fix'd, 'tis bent, Its thank-ful tri - bute to pre-sent, And, with my heart, my voice I'll raise, To thee, my God, in songs of praise.

The second system of musical notation for Psalm 57, continuing the vocal line and piano accompaniment from the first system.

Awake, my glory, harp and lute,
No longer let your strings be mute!
And I my tuneful part to take,
Will with the early dawn awake.

Thy praises, Lord, I will resound:
To all the list'ning nations round:
Thy mercy highest heav'n transcends,
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

Be thou, O God, exalted high;
And, as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth display'd,
Till thou art here, as there, obey'd.

Ye prin - ces that in might ex - cel, Your grate - ful sa - cri - fice pre - pare; God's glo - rious ac - tions loud - ly tell, His won - drous pow'r to all de - clare.

To his great name fresh altars raise,
Devoutly due respect afford;
Him in his holy temple praise,
Where he's with solemn state ador'd.

'Tis he that with amazing noise
The wat'ry clouds in sunder breaks;
The ocean trembles at his voice,
When he from heav'n in thunder speaks.

God rules the angry floods on high;
His boundless sway shall never cease;
His saints with strength he will supply,
And bless his own with constant peace.

PENITENCE. L. M.

J. P. CLARKE.

Save me, O God! from waves that roll, And press to o-ver-whelm my soul: With pain - ful steps in mire I tread, And de - lu - ges o'er - flow my head.

With restless cries my spirits faint,
My voice is hoarse with long complaint;
My sight decays with tedious pain,
Whilst for my God I wait in vain.

Reproach and grief have broke my heart;
I look'd for some to take my part—
To pity, or relieve my pain—
But look'd (alas!) for both in vain!

With hunger pin'd, for food I call,
Instead of food they give me gall;
And when with thirst my spirits sink,
'They give me vinegar to drink.

Whom then in heav'n, but thee a - lone, Have I whose fa - vour I re-quire? Through-out the spa-cious earth there's none That I be - sides thee can de-sire.

My trembling flesh and aching heart
May often fail to succour me,
But God shall inward strength impart,
And my eternal portion be.

For they that far from thee remove,
Shall into sudden ruin fall;
If after other gods they rove,
Thy vengeance shall destroy them all.

But as for me, 'tis good and just
That I should still to God repair;
In him I always put my trust,
And will his wondrous works declare.

Praise ye the Lord; our God to praise My soul her ut - most pow'r shall raise: With pri - vate friends, and in the throng Of saints, his praise shall be my song.

His works for greatness though renown'd,
His wondrous works with care are found
By those who seek for them aright,
And in the pious search delight.

His works are all of matchless fame,
And universal glory claim;
His truth, confirm'd through ages past,
Shall to eternal ages last.

By precepts he has us enjoin'd
To keep his wondrous works in mind,
And to posterity record,
That good and gracious is our Lord.

With glo - ry clad, with strength ar - ray'd, The Lord that o'er all na - ture reigns, The world's foun - da - tion strong - ly laid, And the vast fa - bric still sus - tains.

How surely 'establish'd is thy throne!
Which shall no change or period see;
For thou, O Lord, and thou alone,
Art God from all eternity.

The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
And toss the troubled waves on high;
But God above can still their noise,
And make the angry sea comply.

Thy promise, Lord, is ever sure;
And they that in thy house would dwell,
That happy station to secure
Must still in holiness excel.

O ren - der thanks to God a - bove, The foun - tain of e - ter - nal love; Whose mer - cy firm through a - ges past, Has stood, and shall for e - ver last.

Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vast but numberless?
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise?

Happy are they, and only they,
Who from thy judgments never stray;
Who know what's right, nor only so,
But always practise what they know.

Extend to me that favour, Lord,
Thou to thy chosen dost afford;
When thou return'st to set them free,
Let thy salvation visit me.

The Lord a - bounds with ten - der love, And un - ex - am - pled acts of grace; His wak - en'd wrath does slow - ly move, His wil - ling mer - cy flows a - pace.

God will not always harshly chide,
But with his anger quickly part;
He loves his punishments to guide
More by his love than our desert.

As high as heav'n its arch extends
Above this little spot of clay,
So much his boundless love transcends
The small respects that we can pay.

As far as 'tis from east to west,
So far has he our sins remov'd;
Who, with a father's tender breast,
Has such as fear him always lov'd.

Thy arm is might - ty, strong thy hand, Yet, Lord, thou dost with jus - tice reign; Pos - sess'a'd of ab - so - lute com - mand, Thou truth and mer - cy dost main - tain.

Happy, thrice happy they, who hear
Thy sacred trumpet's joyful sound;
Who may at festivals appear,
With thy most glorious presence crown'd.

Thy saints shall always be o'erjoy'd,
Who on thy sacred name rely;
And, in thy righteousness employ'd,
Above their foes be rais'd on high.

For in thy strength they shall advance,
Whose conquests from thy favour spring;
The Lord of Hosts is our defence,
And Israel's God our Israel's King.

My soul, in-spir'd with sa-cred love, God's ho-ly name for e-ver bless, Of all his fa-vours mind-ful prove, And still thy grate-ful thanks ex-

And after sickness makes thee sound;
From dangers he thy life retrieves,
By him with grace and mercy crown'd.

The Lord abounds with tender love,
And unexampled acts of grace;
His waken'd wrath does slowly move,
His willing mercy flows apace.

But with his anger quickly part;
He loves his punishments to guide
More by his love than our desert.

His chariots numberless, his pow'rs
Are heav'nly hosts that wait his will;
His presence now fills Zion's tow'rs,
As once it honour'd Sinai's hill.

Ascending high, in triumph thou
Captivity hast captive led,
And on thy people didst bestow
The spoil of armies once their dread.

Ev'n rebels shall partake thy grace,
And humble proselytes repair
To worship at thy dwelling place,
And all the world pay homage there.

SICILIAN HYMN. P. M.

Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by 'raptur'd saints above;
Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
While I sing redeeming love.

Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God;
Thou, to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with thy blood.

By thy hand restor'd, defended,
Safe through life thus far I'm come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heav'nly home.

Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

Devoting them to thee;
Imploring that, as we are thine,
Thine may our offspring be.

Truth, on which the hungry feed;
Truth, the minister of joys;
Truth, that makes us free indeed.

 Thou, Lord, art present to my mind,
 And when I wake in dead of night;
 Because thou still dost succour bring,
 Beneath the shadow of thy wing

67

The first system of the hymn features a vocal line in the upper staff and a piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The music is in a common time signature and a key signature of one flat. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The piano accompaniment starts with a forte dynamic marking.

Sun and moon re - joice be - fore him, Praise him all ye stars of light. Praise the Lord! for he hath spok-en, Worlds his migh - ty voice o - bey'd;

The piano accompaniment for the first system consists of two staves: a right-hand staff with a treble clef and a left-hand staff with a bass clef. The music is written in a common time signature and a key signature of one flat. The right-hand part features a series of chords and moving lines, while the left-hand part provides a steady bass line. The dynamic marking is forte (f).

The second system of the hymn continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line remains in the upper staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the lower staff. The music maintains the same time signature and key signature as the first system.

Laws which nev - er shall be bro - ken, For their guid - nance hath he made — For their guid - ance hath he made.

The piano accompaniment for the second system continues with two staves. The right-hand staff has a piano dynamic marking (p) at the beginning, which changes to mezzo-forte (mf) and then forte (f) as the system progresses. The left-hand staff continues with a steady bass line.

Praise the Lord! for he is glorious,
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious,
Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation!
Hosts on high his pow'r proclaim;
Heav'n and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify his name.
