Outcome of Domestic Quarrel—Presbytery Approves basis of Church Union.

HAMILTON, Jan. 3.—(Special).—Clarence Scott, 227 Bold-st., was charged with throwing a teacup at his wife's head, gashing it badly.

As a result of a fall on the sidewalk, John Sweeney, 26 North Catherine-st., had to be taken home this morning, suffering with a dislocated shoulder.

Michael Windwick, an Austrian, has been arrested, charged with aggravated assault on Martha Chapman.

Cornelius S. Cathartes was brought back from St. George and will stand his trial here on a charge of stealing a team of horses belonging to Edward Baugh.

The Hamilton Presbytery met this afternoon and debated the question of church union.

Rev. Dr. Dev. Simcoe, and Rev. Dr. Radcliffe, S. Cathartes was brought back from St. George and will stand his trial here on a charge of stealing a team of horses belonging to Edward Baugh.

How the woman was shot is unknown. The occupants of the house where the shooting took place say that she was fooling with a loaded revolver.

The woman was shot in the back of the head. The wound was not serious.

A CITY OF SIN

Montreal Woman Wants Bad Men's Pictures Published.

MONTREAL, Jan. 3.—(Special).—All men caught in disorderly houses should be "mugged" and their evil countenances, together with their names, addresses and other identifying particulars, published prominently in all of the city papers.

This was one of the remedies advocated by Mrs. John E. Roberts, wife of the secretary of the Dominion Alliance, here this afternoon, in an address before the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in which she declared that Montreal is a city of sin.

Mrs. Roberts hacked deep into the moral reputation of the city, declaring that the men were allowed by a conspiracy of silence to associate with good and evil women alike, and advocated publicly as the cure for hypocrisy.

She porphorosed Dr. Munyon in saying that no penalty is too severe for men who deceive their wives.

PANAMA CANAL LABEL SUIT IS DISMISSED

New York World Wins Out in Famous Indictment Involving Roosevelt and Taft.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—By unanimous decision the supreme court of the United States to-day decided that the federal government could not maintain the so-called "Panama Canal label suit" against The Press Publishing Co., publishers of The New York World.

In effect, the decision was that the federal court had no jurisdiction over the alleged offence, because the case might have been brought in a state court.

In effect, the alleged label was the publication of articles stating that Chas. E. Taft, Douglas Robinson and Wm. Nelson Cromwell, with J. Pierpont Morgan and others, obtained control of the Panama canal route for about $43,000,000, and, by the co-operation of Theodore Roosevelt, then president of the U.S., and brother-in-law of Mr. Robinson, and President Wm. H. Taft, then secretary of war, were enabled to effect the sale of the canal route to the United States at a profit of $38,000,000.

UNIONS STRONG IN WEST

Organizer Flett Also Finds Keener Demand for Labor.

John Flett of this city, organizer for the International Trades Union, has just returned from a seven-month tour of the west, and reports labor conditions very bleak in the prairie provinces.

He says that western workingmen are more enthusiastic over labor unionism than the people of the east, and while away Mr. Flett organized 35 new unions.

He says that the labor demand is greater out there, although wages are not so much higher when the added cost of living is considered.

Organized labor is making a movement to co-operate with the grain growers of the west, he said.

BROUGHT UP HUMAN REMAINS

Work Progressing on Examination of Wreck of the Maine.

HAVANA, Jan. 3.—The first human remains from the wreck of the old battleship Maine were brought to the surface to-day by a dredge. They consisted of two ribs and some small bones, apparently bones of the hand, and they were carefully placed in a special receptacle, to await the recovery of other parts.

The dredge also brought up some three-inch shells, a large quantity of coal and a portion of the coal bunkers, lying apart from the ship, which is considered as possibly confirmatory of the theory of an external explosion under the bunkers.

This, however, cannot be verified without a further examination of the work on the bulk of the ship, continuing without interruption, the men having expressed willingness to await the settlement of the question of overdue pay and other grievances.

OUTGROWING THEIR PIERS

New Liners Will Stick Out Sixty Feet Beyond End of the Longest Dock.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The pier-head line established in New York harbor by the war department has been outgrown by modern ocean liners. Unless the government consents to a lengthening of the docks beyond the line, the latest additions to the trans-Atlantic fleet, the Titanic and Olympic of the White Star fleet, will stick out into the harbor sixty feet or more as they lie in their berths.

The attention of the department is called to this fact by P. A. Frank, vice-president of the International Mercantile Company, in a letter to Secretary Dickinson, made public to-day.

The Titanic will arrive here on her maiden voyage this spring. The company's longest pier is 525 feet, which will leave sixty feet of the steamer unprotected from the harbor traffic and the winter ice floes.

Permission is asked to lengthen the piers 100 feet, but hitherto the government has been inclined to hold that the North River is crowded enough already.

MANAGER TRAVERS MAY OBTAIN RELEASE TO-DAY

His Counsel Declares Mr. Travers a Victim of False Reports—Appearance in Court.

If the expectations of H. H. Dewart, K.C., counsel for W. R. Travers, are realized, the former manager of the Farmers' Bank, who has been in the tight grip of the law since Saturday, will breathe the air of comparative freedom to-day.

"I feel sure that Mr. Travers will be out on bail to-morrow," said Mr. Dewart last night. "He would have been out to-day had there been time, but we will have the surety for $20,000 which the crown has demanded and he will be released. Mr. Orpen still stands upon the original bond of $20,000 upon the former charge and will continue to do so."

"Chapel Rumor," Says Dewart. "There have been many cruel rumors started against Mr. Travers and it will be found that they have no foundation in fact. To me he is innocent and is of good courage."

"If Mr. Travers produces a responsible surety for $20,000 he will be released. This is the amount which the crown has set against his liberty, and when it is produced he will be released. The crown will not ask for any further surety replacing his own bond of $20,000 in the earlier case, and the only action to be taken in that regard is one already under way to return the securities transferred to their original position."

Mr. Travers in Court. William R. Travers was arraigned in police court yesterday morning upon the theft charge upon which he was released Saturday night. There was a striking contrast between this and his earlier appearances. Upon the former occasion he had been in a state of a poise, surrounded by friends, and his bondsman ready to secure his immediate release from custody. Then he walked into the courtroom, step by step, his counsel, who had not yet entered the dock where the common criminals are herded.

Yesterday he came to the court in the jail van, was marched to the dock, and finally returned to the cells. While his counsel, H. H. Dewart, K.C., declared that he could produce the additional $20,000, he did not do so, but contented himself with criticizing the action of the crown in re-arresting his client while upon heavy bail and to an effort to secure an undertaking with Corley, Attorney Corley, who had been asked to take over the case, but who had refused to do so.

Wants Jury Trial. To the charge of stealing $40,000 of the bank's funds in January last, Travers, thru his counsel, pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by a jury. Mr. Dewart asked for permission to examine certain books, but was told that these were in the possession of the prosecutor and were therefore inaccessible.

Mr. Dewart objected to the refusal of the jail attendants to give the prisoner a knife and fork with his meals, and that this is merely a jail regulation, he says also that Mr. Travers has never asked for one. There are those who place another construction upon it.

Speaking of the matter of bail, Crown Attorney Corley declared that since entering into the personal bond of $20,000, Mr. Travers has been obliged to give up everything he possessed to A. M. Orpen, his bondsman. Magistrate Denison wanted to know why, when the amount of the bond had been stolen, he would not have been willing to accept half that sum as bail. Mr. Dewart declared that it was the surety agreement, the man's appearance and trial which should count and that $20,000 would be as effective as $40,000.

The case was remanded till Friday, when the other charge of making false returns to the last case, will also come up, and when it is expected that some of the evidence will be heard.

PROFITED BOTH WAYS

Sugar Trust Overvalued Its Exports and Undervalued Imports.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—U.S. Attorney Henry A. Wise will forward to the treasury department in Washington a report on the sugar trust, which is a sugar trust, in the so-called "drawback" case. If the government will abandon its protest against the percentage of the "drawbacks" to which it is legitimately entitled. Accompanying the offer will be a certificate of deposit in the U. S. treasury here of $700,000. In previous restitutions the company has already paid into the U. S. treasury more than $2,000,000.

The government charges the company overvalued its exports of sugar products, as it had undervalued its imports, thereby drawing back a heavier return of duty already paid, and profiting on both ends of the bargain.

LAST OF HOLIDAY TRAFFIC

Railway Officials Are Now Worrying Over Snow Problem.

To-day sees the close of the cheap rail-traffic season. Yesterday was the return limit for over New Year's Day, and to-day the fare and one-third rate extending over the Christmas week ends.

Yesterday and the Saturday preceding Christmas proved the heaviest days for the officials and staff at the Union Depot. The season was the heaviest in the history of the road, and the railway company earned three shares of the general prosperity which has marked the year 1910.

Deep snow throughout the province has added to the railway's troubles at this period, and yesterday the snow was piled up here at 3:31 was two hours late, and the Grand Trunk train from Chicago was also delayed for several hours.

TORONTO FIREMEN'S BALL GREAT SUCCESS

Aurora Carried Every Bylaw—City Vote Killed Local Option in Scarborough.

NORTH TORONTO, Jan. 3.—(Special).—Few events in town have ever been attended by more genuine pleasure than the annual ball held under the auspices of the North Toronto Volunteer Firemen's Brigade, held last night. Altogether about forty couples were in attendance, and the accompaniment of good orchestra and music and happy surroundings.

Chief Collins was delighted with the success attending the social function of his evening, and well he might be. His words, Mayor Brown, was among the crowd during the evening. It is not thought likely that any preliminary meetings will be held during the week, but on Monday night, it is probable that the first committee meeting will take place.

Now that the smoke and din of battle has all cleared away and the victors are making their equanimity, there is a general disposition on the part of the citizens of North Toronto to clear the decks for action, looking toward bigger and better things for the year 1911.

The council of 1910 have rendered good service and the incoming members give promise of even better. While the overwhelming vote of Monday will be a tremendous factor in bringing about a greater expansion than ever before, in many quarters of the city to-day the opinion was freely expressed that in the view of the almost unanimous wish of the people of North Toronto for annexation, the prospects were very bright for some time to come.

Along that line, Mayor Brown, who has long been a level headed man, North Toronto people may rest assured that they will receive every consideration as they see fit to exercise their franchise, said President T. W. Banton of the North Toronto Ratepayers' Association, on Monday night, following the declaration of the result.

Everything went off in the way of bylaws. The defeat of the sewerage bylaws was in a way regrettable, but after all it was the quickest way to get over the trouble. The sewerage just as "badly as ever," he said.

There is no doubt that the work of the ratepayers' association was of great service in voicing the views of the ratepayers, and it is not in the least probable that they will hold any further meetings at the present time, they will always be available at the call of the president.

It is a long while since we have had a happy New Year's celebration in the city. The happy relations between teacher and class, following an evening of unalloyed pleasure in games and amusements of various kinds, refreshment were served, and the happy company dispersed.

The address was as follows: Dear Teacher: We, the scholars of your Bible class, have met here in this merry Christmas season to offer with our heartiest wish a small token of our regard for both yours and your interest in us. We feel that it is only just that we should show our esteem for you in many kindly thoughts of us all, both spiritually and socially, and our sincere wish is that we may meet again for many Sabbaths to come to the benefit from the many truths and helpful thoughts you have so ably given us. We ask you to accept this hanging lamp, it is a small token of our esteem for you and trust you will find it may live many years to use it. We all join in wishing you and your family a happy and prosperous new year.

Signed on behalf of your loving scholars: L. Burrows, W. Tennyson, E. Burrows.

In the scuffle Mrs. Donner's arms were severely injured. The magistrate remanded him to jail for a week.

SCARLET FEVER EPIDEMIC.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 3.—An epidemic of scarlet fever, which is apparently being controlled by the local health officers, is reported among the foreign-born population between Leveson, Winnipeg and Manitoba, Woodlands, Teulon and St. Laurent being the districts principally affected. The provincial authorities are expected to appoint Dr. Musgrove. The principal difficulty is proper enforcement of quarantine among foreigners.

CHRISTIE'S.

C. H. Watson Kindly Remembered by His Class.

CHRISTIE'S, Jan. 3.—(Special).—A delightfully informal and enjoyable event was the visit of the members of Charlie Watson's Bible class on Friday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, where the reading of an address and the presentation of a beautiful memento were the features of the happy occasion.

Mr. Watson has been for some time the teacher of the Bible class at Christie's Church, and the address, which was read by Miss Tennison, testified in some slight measure to the happy relations between teacher and class. Following an evening of unalloyed pleasure in games and amusements of various kinds, refreshment were served, and the happy company dispersed.

GREATEST OF WINTER SPORTS.

"For a host of business men," says The Meriden Journal, "winter begins the day the ball parks close or the golf clubs are taken home. Some game should be invented that would keep men and women out of doors thru the winter."

The Journal is absent-minded. It forgets that royal winter sport, that noble pastime, that glorious exercise calling into play more muscles and more faculties than the baseball bat—which is a game played by proxy—the tennis racket or the golf club, that elevating—usually about two feet—and unselfish hour or two in the crisp and invigorating air popularly known as shoveling a path. Is there anything in all the realm of frost-land that so stimulates the person engaged in this beneficent and health-giving amusement? The blood tingles in his veins, the zero gives him the glad hand, with a sincere and unmistakable grip he is welcomed as an active member and lineal descendant of the husky children of the cold. It is sport of contradiction. While the impressive initiation gives him a frightful grip, it also confers upon him the gift of eloquence and he talks about many things with fluency and vigor, using with facile ease names of many kinds and of strange import.

And after a half hour of this thrilling exercise, in which a few points have been scored against the wind, perhaps a local record made, what an intense appreciation of the joy of living comes to the player, enhanced by finding at the goal a hungry tramp contentedly waiting for the completion of the game in order that he may score an unearned run in the shape of a handout at the kitchen door.

And as you rest upon your shovel what a cheery grin there is to the smiling neighbor's "Merry Christmas!"

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, if you will, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless, the symptoms are all the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of protest against all business, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what else is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY.

'Twas a Three-Cornered Nip-and-Tuck Battle—Also Close in Sixth.

The official returns issued by City Clerk Littlejohn yesterday indicated that Marmaduke Rawlinson was not elected to council in the third ward, consequently the three old members, Ald. Maguire, Heyd and McBride, retain their seats.

A spectacular fight in the ward was anticipated, and the figures show the belief well founded. Ald. Maguire led Ald. Heyd by 871, but the latter's vote of 2581 was only 4 above Ald. McBride's, while Ald. McBride had but 28 majority over Mr. Rawlinson.

The official returns by the bylaws and referendum will be made known today.

A ruling was given permitting T. M. Scott and the Dominion Bank to appeal from Mr. Justice Sutherland's decision of their action against the Merchants' Bank for $10,000. The appeal is conditional on the plaintiffs amending their pleadings.

REFORM OF TAXATION.

Sir James Whitney has one more great step to take to endear himself to Ontario and to write his name as the friend of all, even as he is now regarded as the friend of most. It is in the reform of taxation incidence. We believe Sir James has not given the question his own personal attention, but has been content to rely in this matter on the opinions of others. So much advance has been made in Britain and other countries in their policies of taxation, not to mention the tendency in other Canadian provinces and the colonies generally, that Ontario is decidedly behindhand in a matter in which the banner province ought to be foremost.

The St. John, N. B., Telegraph, commenting on Vancouver, illustrates what the Dominion feeling is from end to end. The whole country is alive to the necessity of exempting improvements and placing taxation where it belongs, on land values. The Telegraph says further:

The system has been established in Vancouver, Prince Rupert, Sumnerland, Nanaimo and Edmonton. These places get the principal part of their income from land value taxes, a tax on liquor, which is a Dominion tax; a tax on dogs because they do not want dogs, and a tax on land because they do not want unused.

The second month after the law went into effect in Vancouver contracts were made by citizens for $1,750,000 of new buildings. This in a city which has less than twice the population of St. John means something. Vancouver is rapidly drawing population from nearby American cities which collect their taxes in the old way, markedly from Seattle, which loses five families a week to the Canadian town.

THE HARBOR STAR.

Our jocular evening contemporary, The Star, persistently opposed the harbor improvement bylaw, one of its favorite arguments being that unless the Dominion was prepared to make a large grant in aid, the harbor should remain a city department. It was careful to point out that the federal government had shown no inclination of this kind and therefore called for the defeat of the bylaw. Now that the electors have in unmistakable fashion declared in favor of commission administration irrespective of the action of the Dominion Government, The Star discovers that the electors made it a condition that a federal grant should be made. Unless this is obtained, quoth The Star, the commission falls to the ground. Our contemporary twinkles excellently when it is in the vein.

VIADUCT VERY MUCH ALIVE.

Little jubilation over the defeat of the Bloor-street viaduct is shown by its opponents, indeed, has rather been conspicuous by its absence. This restraint is easily explained by the reduction of the adverse majority to about a third of that cast last January, and the fact is a clear intimation that when next submitted it will carry easily despite the efforts of certain interests to prevent the proper development of the east end of the city. The Globe opines that 1911 should be a year of practical work, not for the launching of new projects. Unfortunately for its immediate connection, the Bloor-street viaduct is not a new project, but an old, and so plainly necessary that it has won its way, notwithstanding the unwholy alliance of various city newspapers that spend the rest of their time in abusing each other. The viaduct proposal is not killed, not even scotched, and won't have long to wait to materialize.

SHOULD REMAIN PUBLIC ROAD.

Western grain growers ought assuredly to press their demand that the Hudson Bay Railway shall be not only constructed but operated by the Dominion or by a public commission. What they want is cheaper and quicker freight transportation to European ports, but that is precisely what it is not in the interest of any of the railway companies to give. To hand the Hudson Bay road over to company operation would defeat the very object which it is to secure. So long as it is a public road it will act as a curb on the companies, since any attempt to prevent its proper utilization could easily be met by its extension right into the grain-growing territory. Presumably the Dominion Government is satisfied of the feasibility of the Hudson Bay route, and that being so, no more fatuous policy could be imagined than to deprive it of its public character. Talk of effective control over private operation after the experiences of the past is mere imbecility.

GERMANY AND PUBLIC OWNERSHIP.

In an editorial yesterday on the new movement in German politics, The Globe remarked that "most of the contentions put forward by the Socialist debaters in parliament would be regarded in this country and in Britain as parts of a moderately Liberal propaganda." This coupling of Canadian and British Liberalism as practically identical is ridiculous. Take, for example, the position of Britain, and Germany also, in regard to state and municipal ownership of public services and utilities, which in both countries is a cardinal principle of their progressive parties, and is indeed supported by many who are classed as Conservatives. British preference for public ownership is too well-known to require notice—how strongly it is favored by the British Liberal party is exemplified by the fact that on one occasion The London Daily News doubted whether an opponent of it could be properly classed as a Liberal at all. In Germany state ownership is now further advanced, and civic ownership equally so. Out of fifty of the largest towns in that country, as given in the "Kommunales Jahrbuch" or "Municipal Year Book," forty-eight own their own water supply; fifty their gas supply; forty-two their electric supply, and twenty-three their street railways. Britain beats these figures considerably in street railways and slightly in electricity, in water and gas Germany leads. Compare the attitude of the German and British governments and legislatures in these matters with that of the present "Liberal" government and parliament in Canada, with their hostility to public ownership in all its forms.

PEOPLE AND LEGISLATURE.

Over in New Jersey State a struggle is now in progress which illustrates both the need of reform in the mode of electing United States senators and the cause of public discontent with the existing system. At the primary, when the Democrats of the state had their opportunity to indicate their preference for the party nominee for the senatorship, Mr. James E. Martine received roundly 48,000 out of the 70,000 votes cast. This expression of opinion would naturally be deemed decisive and readily accepted by the New Jersey Legislature. But despite the popular choice, Mr. James Smith, who failed to secure the confidence of the Democratic electors, is vigorously pushing his claim, and it is not by any means certain that his manipulation of the legislature will be unsuccessful.

Dr. Woodrow Wilson, late president of Princeton University and governor-elect of the state, attracted a large measure of public attention during his electoral campaign on account of the high quality of his public addresses and his adherence to sound Democratic principle. Attempts have been made to line him up with the reactionary section of the party that is pressing for Mr. Smith's election, but he has absolutely refused to be used for that purpose. In a statement made last month he said:

I know that the people of New Jersey do not desire James Smith, and I should be sent again to the senate. If he should be, he will not go as their representative. The only means I have of knowing whether they desire to represent them is the recent primaries, where 48,000 Democratic voters, a majority, declared their preference for Mr. Martine of Union County. For me should be for every member of the legislature.

It will be interesting to learn whether every member of the legislature will see the position in that light. But what a system that is which permits legislatures to be manipulated to defeat the popular will!

WHAT FARMERS AND CONSUMERS NEED.

Editor World: It is a mistake to say that good roads will give us cheap fruits and vegetables by making it more easy for the farmer to get into the city with his goods when there is a bylaw in force practically prohibiting farmers from selling their products in less than wholesale quantities to the consumer. Merchants who have built suburban palaces, having succeeded in eliminating competition of farm products within city limits, evidently wish Toronto taxpayers to foot the bill for good roads for their autos. Another reason that would keep farmers off the road with their horses, no matter how good the roads were. The most urgent need of the times is public owned suburban car and express lines radiating in all directions from the city to the benefit of both the farmer and consumer, but which monopolists and combines do not wish to see.

LOCAL OPTION LOSES OUT.

The result of the local option campaigns throughout Ontario on Jan. 2 indicates, in the opinion of those who have followed the matter closely, that the sentiment for the restriction of the liquor traffic through the Province of Ontario has been overstrained and is now on the wane. As one man put it yesterday—and perhaps he was somewhat partisan—"The pendulum has begun to swing the other way. It has swung the other way in the United States. Last November in many states the question of prohibition was voted on and almost invariably defeated. Even in our own country, in the Province of Saskatchewan, an effort was made to carry local option in December, but the people loved liberty more and more. It is all along the line, that where municipalities have rested under too grievous liquor restrictions they have taken a recent opportunity to strike a blow for liberty of action and conscience."

A scrutiny of the figures available indicates that hardly a place in the Province of Ontario of outstanding importance carried local option on Jan. 2. True, Alexandria, Bracebridge, Beaverton and Rodney voted for local option, but in Bracebridge there were only five votes over the 50 per cent. and in Beaverton there was only one vote. On the other hand, a large number of towns and communities defeated local option on a straight vote. This was true of at least twenty towns. A strenuous campaign was put up in the County of Welland in favor of local option. The advocates of this sort of legislation were doubtless sincere, imbued with the best possible motives, but in spite of all argument, in the County of Welland, seven places defeated local option on an even vote. Fort Colborne defeated it by 110, Fort Erie by 101, Welland town by 14, Bertie by 59, Thorold by 46, Willoughby Township by 14, and the Township of Crowland had but one vote over the necessary 50 per cent. to carry local option.

In Thorold Township local option was carried by two votes, but that vote was disputed owing to the fact that the ballot was not properly made out. There were two bylaws to be voted on in that municipality, but the ballots were made out so that they were cast against the bylaw, and the wording should have been "for local option" or "against local option." These facts seem to indicate that for a time at least temperance reform is stayed. Casting about for a reason for this, it may be found in the fact that the people of the Province of Ontario wish to see the liquor traffic regulated, but they do not wish to be dragged into total abstinence. It may result in a milder and more reasonable form of alcoholic regulation, such as the sale of light wines and beer for stronger alcoholic beverages. This would not be a bad scheme.

Local Option Results.

DEFEATED IN BURK'S FALLS. BURK'S FALLS, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Burk's Falls in a straight vote beat the local option bylaw by 8 votes on Jan. 2. The vote was 104 against and 96 for.

Falled in Mara.

ATHLETIC, Jan. 2.—The local option bylaw failed to carry in the Township of Mara on Monday, the voting being about even.

QUEBECKERS ATTENDED OPERA.

Didn't Take Archbishop's Pronouncement as a Positive Prohibition. QUEBEC, Jan. 3.—The eight-day visit of the Montreal Opera Company came to an end last night amid scenes of extraordinary enthusiasm. The pronouncement of Archbishop Begin has been very generally regarded in the light of a warning to the faithful to beware of accepting the morals portrayed in the various operas as a standard of their own action, rather than in the light of a positive instruction against attendance at the performances. This view was expressed openly by leading Catholic clergymen, who point out that his grace could not have intended to make it a sin to do in Quebec what Archbishop Beaudry's flock has done in large numbers in Montreal, without any objection from clerical authority. Edmond Clement, the leading tenor of the Paris Opera Comique, and a member of the Montreal Company, did not sing here in "Manon," owing to the expectation of clerical objection to the garb of the priesthood on the stage, but in "Carmen," he aroused the Quebecers to a remarkable pitch of enthusiasm. The company proceeds to Ottawa, where Mr. Grey has promised to attend all five of the performances. The Toronto engagement opens a week from next Monday.

FUSS AND FEATHERS. OH, NO!

Inauguration of Rhode Island Governor Rivals "Effete Monarchies." PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 3.—The present system of indirect election of U. S. senators was favored by Governor Aram J. Pothier, a French-Canadian, in his annual message, upon being inducted into office for a third time today.

With Governor Pothier there were also inaugurated the other state officers and the members of the general assembly, which attracts much interest every year. Troopers with shouldered carbines patrolled the corridors of the state house. Following the swearing in of each officer, a deputy sheriff with a sack, cockaded sash and mace, made official proclamation of the fact from the state house balcony, facing the city, and when Governor Pothier had been sworn in, a salute of 17 guns, boomed out the announcement.

The Future City.

Light and energy will be conveyed by electricity. Petrol and oxygen will supply heat. Liquid air will keep up refrigeration in every larder. In addition to heat radiators there will be cold radiators which will enable each house to be kept at the required temperature. By this power it will be possible to provide in each house one or more health chambers closed by close fitting double windows and doors in which the overworked occupant on his return from town will find all the hygienic conditions which now he can obtain only by taking an annual holiday. Thus speaks Eugene Howard, the noted municipal architect. Every prediction is based upon a scientific idea that is sure to be unfolded in the sweet by and by. And that will not be very far off either; perhaps inside of a century all these things will come to pass. The outlook is enough to make a man feel that he was born too soon.

RALPH NORTON'S ADVICE TO REVIVAL WORKERS

Great Evangelists Helpless Without Co-operation—Sunday Meetings.

Personal workers and others who are interested in the welfare of the coming Chapman-Alexander evangelistic campaign gathered in force in Carlton-street Methodist Church last night to hear the ways and means of work as expounded by Ralph C. Norton, one of the picked company of evangelists who are coming here from the United States.

Mr. Norton dwelt especially on the positive necessity of earnest personal work, emphasizing the point above all others. "Altho specially blessed, evangelists, like those who are coming, gave their best work for you," he said. "They would be almost impotent without the efforts of the people." While he realized that personal work of this kind was often very disagreeable to sensitive people, it was work that must be done, and work that always repaid greatly for the effort. He showed that all thru the history of the churches it was these people who were scabbers and kicked the conductors of the train. He had found most useful for his purposes.

Looking at the practical side of this personal work, Mr. Norton declared that punctuality and good attendance of the workers were very important points, and advised all the workers to be on hand before the meetings opened. The workers would be scabbers and kicked the conductors of the train. He had found most useful for his purposes. Mr. Norton also went thoroughly into the matter of the workers' work. The workers, with a red badge, the assistant chief with a lavender badge, and the workers with yellow badges, all formed a very important part in the services. Many a service had been partly spoiled at the psychological moment, declared the speaker, by careless workers who were allowing tardy comers to walk to the front of the church when the evangelist might be making his appeal. "And all of you," finished Mr. Norton, "must attempt to do precisely what the evangelist is trying to accomplish publicly."

Sunday Mass Meetings. A union meeting of the Massey Hall District Executive and the central executive of the Chapman-Alexander campaign was held in the committee rooms yesterday, and it was decided to hold a mass meeting in Massey Hall on Sunday afternoon, January 8, at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday evenings. Dr. Chapman will address the afternoon meetings. The evening meetings will be for men only, and will be held in the churches. The churches will be admitted, as it is the idea of the committee to have these meetings especially for the workers. These meetings will not interfere with the regular series in any way.

In every city district, with the exception of Massey Hall, the meetings will be omitted on Saturday evening, in order to give the workers an opportunity to recuperate from their strenuous work. In Massey Hall the day of the meetings will be Wednesday, thus assuring an extra large attendance here every Saturday evening.

The executive offices of the movement have been moved from the headquarters to the basement of Massey Hall, thus bringing the hub of the movement nearer to the central scene of action, and also providing for considerably more room. The telephone numbers have been installed, Main 5816-7-8, to answer the many enquiries that will come in during the campaign.

Because She is a Woman. There is a conflict in Paris over the admission of Mme. Curie to the French Academy of Sciences. It has been the custom of this academy, which is the most distinguished of the century, it might be supposed that science would not indulge a prejudice against a woman scientist more than any man of the age to elevate this department of knowledge. Mme. Curie has done wonders. She has made a discovery that has changed the very foundations of chemistry and rivaled Huxley, Tyndall, Faraday in the extent and importance of her investigations. She has divided the atom into parts, and found in these parts the most wonderful properties of matter, that have given to substance a new meaning and to all science a new vision. Because she is a woman she cannot be admitted into the academy. Well, if that is the sort of institution the academy is, Mme. Curie is therefore more by her own merit than she can give her no distinction. Her name will shine in history when the members of the academy have faded into oblivion.—Columbus, O., State Journal.

Defeating a Wedding. Is it lawful for a man of 40 to marry a widow of 80? On the eve of a wedding of that sort, the man was arrested and put into prison on a charge of vagrancy, says The Columbus, O., State Journal. In court this charge did not seem to justify itself, and so those who were trying to defeat the marriage put in two new complaints: 1st, that the bride-to-be was mentally incompetent, and 2nd, that the aspiring bridegroom was marrying the old lady for her money.

Of course the insanity allegation is comprehensible, but the other accusation that the man was marrying the woman's money, is a new point entirely. The case was not decided at last accounts, but if the marriage is defeated, because the man is after the old lady's money, there will be a meteoric change in our jurisprudence. But when one gets down to raisins, as Lincoln used to say, why isn't that a pretty good reason for preventing a marriage? Why should not the law rule out so selfish a purpose? The public is interested in happy marriages—would that be one? When the man got the money what would become of the love. We pause for a reply.

Single Court.

Before Middleton, J. Aziz v. Solomon—A. C. McMaster, for plaintiff. Motion by plaintiff for an injunction. Injunction granted until 5th inst., restraining defendants, Solomon Brothers from possession, management, control, or receipt, disposing, or otherwise dealing with, or any part of the assets, estate, property or effects belonging now or lately to S. Solomon, and restraining Abraham Solomon and Charles Solomon from dealing with, disposing of, any goods and chattels mentioned in two certain bills of sale, except in regular course of retail business and upon keeping an account of such sales. Plaintiff to serve short notice of motion for receiver, and to continue injunction, and also with liberty to file and use further material on return of motion.

Trial.

Before Falconbridge, C.J. Shaw v. Board of Education of St. Thomas—C. S. C. Leitch (St. Thomas), for plaintiff. T. W. Crothers, K.C., for defendant. The plaintiff is sanitary inspector and trustee officer in and for the City of St. Thomas. The bylaw appointing him provided that besides performing the several duties imposed upon sanitary inspector by the Public Health Act, he shall at all times assist the medical health officer and perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the board of health or its chairman, or by any resolution or bylaw of the council. In early part of 1910, diphtheria was epidemic in the city, and plaintiff was entrusted by the chairman of the board of health to make an inspection of the schools. Plaintiff went to Myrtle street school, and while searching for the janitor, fell into the unguarded well or ash pit, sustaining personal injuries, for which he sues.

Judgment: The chairman of the board of health testified that in his opinion there should have been a light and a cord in place to protect the pit. The present and previous janitor had Dr. Lipsey called as a medical witness, who was also a member of the board of education and the chairman of the board of health to make an inspection of the schools. Plaintiff went to Myrtle street school, and while searching for the janitor, fell into the unguarded well or ash pit, sustaining personal injuries, for which he sues. Divisional Court.

Before Meredith, C.J., Teetzel, J., Sutherland, J. Re College of Physicians and Surgeons and Stinson—E. G. Foster, K.C., for plaintiff. J. W. Curry, K.C., for the college. E. Bayly, K.C., for the crown. An appeal by Dr. Stinson from the order of Riddell, J., in chambers of Nov. 29, 1910. The order in question was made on a motion by Dr. Stinson for an order prohibiting the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario and the discipline committee thereof from taking any further proceedings in the matter of a complaint against the doctor for performing criminal operations insofar as the same concerns the investigation or trial and imposition of any punishment or penalty therefor, and refused the prohibition asked. Judgment: On the argument we disposed of two of the grounds of appeal and expressed our agreement with the judge who made the order as to them; the third and main ground of appeal remains to be dealt with. Three contentions are made on behalf of appellant on this ground. We think the first two of these are not entitled to prevail. We have found more difficulty in reaching a conclusion as to the third contention, and in this connection it strikes one that it would be unfair and contrary to the principles of British law that where the act which is charged involves guilt of infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, and also amounts to a crime, and the person charged has been acquitted of the crime, he should be liable to have his name erased from the register because he may on an enquiry by the council be found guilty of the act. We are not prepared to say that the conclusion of the judge who made the order is wrong. It may be that the appellant was acquitted not on the merits but on some technical ground. We are inclined to think also that the appellant's application as far as this last point is concerned, was premature. The fact of his acquittal, if an answer at all, is a defence to the charge that has been made against him, and should be presented to the tribunal whose duty it is to make the enquiry. It would, we think, be improper to stop the enquiry at the threshold, and the court ought not to assume that if the appellant were an answer to the charge the council would not give effect to the answer when it was made to appear that the acquittal had taken place. We have the less hesitation in affirming the order of the judge because the appellant is entitled to appeal from the decision of the council. As Riddell, J., has pointed out, the appellate court may be depended upon to see that no injustice is done to the appellant. Appeal dismissed with costs.

Scott v. Merchants' Bank—G. K. Blacklock, K.C., and F. G. G. K.C., for plaintiff. G. C. Gibbons, K.C., and G. Gibbons (London), for defendants. An appeal by plaintiff from the judgment of Sutherland, J., of July 23, 1910. This was an action by plaintiff, formerly manager of the Dominion Bank at Berlin, for $10,000 on a cheque for that amount drawn by one C. N. Huether, on the defendants and initiated by the defendants' manager at Berlin, but as defendants aver, without authority to do so. At the trial judgment was entered for the defendants with costs. Judgment: The circumstances surrounding the whole transaction are most suspicious. Huether, the called, was asked nothing save the one question: "Did you take this cheque to the Dominion Bank?" His answer was not called. The state of the account in the Merchants' Bank is not clearly shown. All is left to the imagination aided by the declaration of counsel. Neither formally in the law nor informally upon the argument do the plaintiffs ask any indulgence, and it is not without much misgiving that we think it proper to now give them a right to elect to accept a new trial, if they see fit, such new trial to be based upon an appropriate amendment of the pleadings to present this aspect of the case and to be confined to it. Our adverse judgment upon the other branches of the case to be regarded as final. If the plaintiffs elect to avail themselves of the option, the costs of the last trial, the appeal and

Work Will Proceed Thruout Winter Regardless of Storms. Chairman Englehart of the T. and N. O. R. The work may be slowed up somewhat by bad weather, but it will be proceeded with right thru the winter."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Fines aggregating $8,100 were imposed upon six New Yorkers today in the supreme court of the District of Columbia, after pleas of guilty had been entered by them to the charge of conspiracy to violate the law against conducting bucket shops in the District of Columbia. Jail sentences of two years each were imposed upon three of the men, Richard E. Preusser, Leo Mayer and George Turner, but sentence was suspended on condition that they do not again engage in bucketshop business. The fines were paid promptly. E. S. Boggs, J. Robinson and Humphrey Owen were the other three men fined.

WASHINGT Wage Advances of $7,000,000 Urged as Justification of Increased Rates.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Wage advances aggregating $7,000,047 annually, and the asserted necessity for increased income in order to meet the public demand for improved and extended operating facilities, are the principal arguments of the railroads in support of their proposed increase in freight rates.

These arguments are set forth in full in a brief, filed with the Interstate commerce commission by counsel for the roads, Geo. Stuart Ferguson, Francis I. Gowen and Geo. V. Massey. It is argued by the attorneys that unless it be admitted that the present rates are excessive by at least $7,000,000 a year, the additional amount in round figures paid in wages, the proposed advances in rates must be regarded as reasonable. It is maintained that the present rates are too low. The claim is advanced that the long distance class rates have not been yielding excessive earnings, and in fact that "they have not been contributing their share of reasonable earnings."

English Ladies Play Lacrosse

Lacrosse has caught on with the ladies of England and the following story shows how they have taken up the game: In an age when physical training enters so largely into woman's education and a girl is as keen on games as her brothers, it is of little use to speculate on the advisability of the modern girl indulging in violent exercises. So long as she does so under proper supervision, and can be persuaded to forego her sport when it imposes too much strain upon her, there is no reason why she should not indulge in competitive pastimes provided these are of a nature suited to her powers and do not deprive her of that feminine grace of movement which is the ideal game for the sex should give her.

In such pastimes as punting, scullery and fencing there is plenty of freedom of action, but it has not been so easy to find a perfect team game. The desirable attributes of such a game for boys or men are those which test speed, stamina, skill and pluck, and we need not insist on every attribute of the man who plays games being that of the sculptured Greek athlete. For girls a game is required which enables a player to be not only skillful and plucky, but also graceful.

Obviously football is unsuited to ladies, and the athletic girl who pined for hard winter work welcomed the introduction of hockey as a pastime, which she could enjoy to the full in the winter months. Hockey has been enjoyed splendidly by ladies, is well played by many experts, and has some excellent qualities, but it is scarcely a graceful game or perfect from the point of view of physical training, for many of its movements are somewhat cramped and compare in this respect unfavorably with the modern rival of hockey—lacrosse.

Lacrosse is best. As a man's game lacrosse is every bit as exciting and manly as football or hockey, while it is certainly faster than either, because the ball is more often off the ground than on, and because there are fewer stoppages for breaches of rules. As a ladies' game it is played with the roughest points of the man's game eliminated and the possession of all the necessary qualities of a team game, and at the same time its main movements are distinctly graceful. Lacrosse is now played in many of the best ladies' schools in England, and a knowledge of it has become a part of the education of a games mistress. Within the last five years it has made such rapid progress that there are probably more lady than men players in the south of England at the present time. County as well as inter-school games are decided, and a good average of skill is shown by the best players. In fact, I have seen a few lady lacrosse players who could give many men some useful lessons in handling a lacrosse.

Pictures speak better than words in advocating the claims of lacrosse for elegance of movement and for the provision of a succession of healthy, free exercises which must appeal to any believer in physical training. In the single figure studies the graceful actions in catching and carrying a lacrosse ball are shown by a clear exponent of the game, giving just the right sense of ease and freedom of action which the followers of lacrosse claim as its chief advantages over rival pastimes.

As well as illustrating these important features the pictures are an object lesson to the young player—man or girl—who aims at accuracy in the various points of the game. The novice, of course, will not attain such skill at once. She (or he) will be apt to be wooden in catching, pushing the cross out stiffly in front and dropping the ball, because the arms and cross do not give when the ball arrives; will carry the cross when running as if it were something to be kept at arm's length as a dangerous weapon and dropped as soon as possible; throw weakly because there is no swing of the body, and hit the ball along the ground instead of picking it up smartly and throwing it and cross are not lowered simultaneously and the cross is not held at the right angle to snap up the ball on the run. In the hands of the expert the cross becomes part of the player; cross, arms and body work together as part of one machine, and so there results a perfection of action and graceful movement possessed by no other team game.

England Follows Canada. Lacrosse has many anxious moments for the novice, who is not always an example of elegance when learning to catch and throw the ball; but perfection is to be obtained by regular practice, and is worth the trouble, for there is a glorious satisfaction in being able to hold a high pass, taken with the cross at full stretch above the head, to pass rapidly and accurately to a fellow-player, to shoot hard and straight and generally feel that one is a master (or mistress) of the loosely-strung, light, and handy stick, which is the modern development of the curious old weapons of the grand game which England owes to Canada.

When the mysteries of cross handling have been mastered—and these are much less formidable with the modern than with the old type of cross—the player will be delighted to find that there are few rules to worry about in the game itself and that the whistle is not being blown constantly for "out side," because no such impediment to quick play exists in lacrosse. Instead of the opposing teams of twelve being placed on either side of a centre line each team is spread out in a line across the field, with the goalkeepers are the only two players who are free, the others being in pairs. The possession of all the necessary qualities of a team game, and at the same time its main movements are distinctly graceful. Lacrosse is now played in many of the best ladies' schools in England, and a knowledge of it has become a part of the education of a games mistress. AND "FRUIT-A-TIVES" CURED MRS. CADIEUX.

Plantagenet, Ont., Jan. 31, 1910. About March 1, 1909, I was taken deathly sick with Stomach Trouble, Backache and General Breakdown. I failed from 125 pounds down to 80 pounds, and was confined to bed for eight weeks, and was unable to eat or digest anything on my stomach. The doctors said they could do nothing for me, and as a last resort, one doctor told me to try "Fruit-a-tives" if they would not cure me nothing would.

I started taking "Fruit-a-tives" at once, and inside of ten days I was able to leave my bed. My stomach got strong and I could not retain my food. I gained rapidly, and soon had my usual good health back again and I do feel as well as ever—125 pounds.

Public Amusements

The cast that will be in "Seven Days," when Messrs. Wagenthal and Kemper present this comedy at the Princess Theatre this week, is composed of players who have been in the Astor Theatre in New York, where this piece has run for over 400 nights. A feature of this run is that it went through the distinction of being the only comedy that has ever remained all Sunday in New York. This shows that "Seven Days" has greater popularity than any other comedy has ever had. Speaking of "Seven Days," Van Norden's magazine said: "Everyone is compelled to laugh for two hours and a half, into which the eventful week is condensed upon the stage. A marvelous amount of fun is manufactured in 'Seven Days' all sorts of fun of this farce in words. It must be seen to be appreciated."

The company is the same one which played "Immediately after his engagement" here in Buffalo, Cleveland and Detroit. It is said to be the best of the five companies engaged in presenting the play this year in the States and Canada. George Barr McCutcheon's "Beverly" is the offering at the Grand next week. It is the story of an American girl in Europe, and kind of amusing and dramatic adventures happen to her. She is first deserted by her escort high up in the wild mountains on the frontier of Graun.

PRESEBYTERY NOT GREED AS TO BASIS OF UNION

After Earnest Debate, Question Was Laid Over Until Next Meeting.

Church union came in for another warm discussion at the meeting of the Toronto Presbytery yesterday, but despite many arguments for and against the basis proposed by the general assembly, the matter was not far enough advanced at the close of the afternoon to warrant a vote being taken. The question has been hanging fire for several weeks, and discussions have taken place at four meetings, but the opinion of the members differ so broadly that it is difficult to decide whether to accept or reject the basis. It was the mind of the presbytery yesterday, however, that a straight vote should be taken, but this is made very difficult, as the remit was sent down by the general assembly, under the terms of the charter act, which makes it impossible for a local assembly to amend or to express the mind of the meeting on the subject, but these were all laid upon the table. It was agreed, finally, to postpone the discussion to a later date, and that subject will be decided at the next meeting of the presbytery on Feb. 7 next. The application of Chester congregation for leave to change the name of North Broadview Presbyterian Church to "The Church of the Holy Spirit" and the report will be issued at the next meeting.

Incommunicado: A closed form. Caballero: A mounted warrior. Cavalry: Two or more of the above. Prisoner: A man who can't run fast enough. News: What the censor cuts out. Pursuit: Two armed forces running in the same direction. Running Fight: Two armed forces running in opposite directions. A. A. A.: A fortress; a rook. Fortissimo: A large rook. Caramba: The enemy. Retirada: A retreat; a Marathon race. Defeat: Defeat; overtaken by the enemy. Victorious: Victorious; the enemy is distanced. No Sabé: An interpreter. Furgiasio: War. Inferno: Peace—St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Nagging.

We read in an article about the raising of children that a child that is nagged never holds itself well. The bearing of the child, its deportment, its attitude and form of the body is much determined by the treatment. If it is continually nagged, scolded, and found fault with, it naturally loses its manly and cheery carriage and seems to go slinking and suspicious along its way. There are so many parents that do not know the effects of their tyranny upon a child. A rough, angry word goes into his mind and makes a new and bad habit. It has been made to feel a sort of guilt, that it carries along with a hanging head and a slurring step. We talk about the close relation of the soul and body, and fail to suspect that an attack on the sensibilities of the child is a blow at the body.

The worst enemy a boy can have is a parent who nag constantly. He will nag him and follow him up with angry criticism. It is a handicap that a child never gets over. The poor parent doesn't know this. He thinks authority is a sort of virtue that cannot be abused. He had better think again.—Columbus, O., State Journal.

THE EDISON BATTERY.

Mr. Edison has, it is reported, so perfected his long-expected storage battery that it can be used on street railways of smaller cost than the trolley system. It is said that the Erie, which had demonstrated its practicability by experiment and will use it for its suburban system thru the important district of New Jersey. If this be true, then Mr. Edison has overcome the objection of excessive weight and high cost, which have been until now the great obstacles to the adoption of storage batteries for propulsive purposes. The storage battery cell, like the use of street railways would do away with overhead wires, side poles, etc., thus adding not only to the tightness of streets, but also making for safety from fallen wires and for convenience in the extinguishing of fires.—N.Y. A Cold Name for a Warm Song

"WINTER"

Its lively, ringing air fairly makes the blood tingle. Exhilaration in every line of "Winter"—a song that you will enjoy singing or hearing sung. Read the chorus: Winter, winter, when the snow is softly falling, That the time to squeeze, when it starts to freeze, In October and November and December just remember Winter, winter, when your sweetheart comes a-calling, By the fire, so bright, you'll sit and tease her, That's the time to squeeze her, when it's Winter.

"LOVE DREAMS." Whenever a beautiful melody is coupled with a lyric that contains a true love sentiment it is bound to become popular, and nowhere is a song of this kind more appreciated than in the great metropolis. "LOVE DREAMS," by that popular lady composer, Henrietta Blanche Belcher, is one of the best songs written in years. It is bound to become a popular classic, and today it is the one song that has reached all classes, and is sung in parlors and homes. It is the feature of every vaudeville performance, and the patrons of the elite restaurants demand it repeatedly while at their "after the theatre" suppers.

"On Mobile Bay"

A new song of the Southland; beautiful melody and pleasing verses. One of the greatest male quartette numbers ever published. Latest ballad by the writer of "Garden of Dreams." Stars vaudeville artists are featuring the "Vale of Dreams" this season.

(From The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) Dr. Hiram C. Cortlandt, the well-known theologian of Des Moines, Ia., said in a recent address: "Thomas A. Edison tells us that he thinks the soul is not immortal; but after all, what does this great wizard know about souls? His forte is electricity and machinery, and when he talks of souls he reminds me irresistibly of the young lady who visited the Baldwin Locomotive Works and then told him a locomotive is made. 'You pour, she said, 'a lot of sand into a lot of boxes, and you throw old stove lids and things into a furnace, and then you empty the molten stream into a hole in the sand, and everybody yells and swears. Then you pour it out and let it cool and pound it, and then you put it in a thing that bores holes in it. Then you screw it together, and paint it, and put steam in it, and it goes splendidly; and they take it to a drafting room and make a blue print of it. But one thing I forgot—they have to make a boiler. One man gets inside and one gets outside, and they pound rightfully; and then they tie the other thing and you ought to see it go!'"

ROSES—HOW TO GROW THEM

Interesting Discussion at Horticultural Society Meeting. At the monthly meeting of the Toronto Horticultural Society last night, in St. George's Hall, President W. G. MacKendrick read a paper, "Roses, and How to Grow Them." He dealt largely with hybrid perpetual roses, hybrid tea roses and climbing roses. Hybrid perpetual roses are named unfortunately. Their bloom only once in the season, but may bloom again and are hardy.

Climbing roses are the easiest of all to grow, he said, owing to their bright, shining leaves, look well all season against a fence, a stone pile, an old stump, a verandah or the side of a house. They are also prolific bloomers and cost the least to grow. Varieties are "Tawny-tinted," pink with yellow centres; "Hawthorn," red with white eye; "Queen Olga of Wurtemberg," as well as the well-known pink, pink Dorothy Perkins and Lady Gay, and such reds as "Crimson Rambler" and "Flower of Fairfield." In the discussion following the paper Mrs. Allen Baines laid emphasis on the necessity of drainage for the roses, quoting the late Dean Hole's authoritative statement that "the rose dislikes wet feet." Roderick Cameron of the parks department method named roses that he has recently been planted in the city rose gardens, among them Betty, Col. R. S. Williamson and Mildred Grant. Mr. Cameron recommended the use of wood ashes as a fertilizer, stating that

PROTESTED THE ELECTION

Much Corruption Alleged in Winnipeg Mayoralty Contest. WINNIPEG, Jan. 3.—A petition was today formally filed against the reelection of Mayor Sanford Evans on the usual charge of impersonation and corrupt practices. In connection with the attitude on segregation, it is interesting to note the attitude of the police commission, which the mayor is ex-officio chairman, and Magistrate Daly is a member. The other member is Alderman Douglas, who replaces Ald. Willoughby, who marked his majority of the police commission by resigning last November. It is stated on good authority that this action is not directed against the mayor, but to force an investigation into the charges of impersonation and other corrupt practices, which during the municipal election are stated to have been on a scale hitherto unparalleled in Canada.

Baby Nearly Died with Itching Rash

Mrs. M. C. Maitland, of Jasper, Ont., tells in the following letter of her child's remarkable cure by the Cuticura Remedies: "When my boy was about three months old his head broke out with a rash which was very itchy and ran a watery fluid. We tried everything we could but he got worse all the time, till it spread to his arms, legs, and then to his entire body. He got so bad that he could not sleep. The rash would itch so that he would scratch till he would draw a thin yellowish stuff, which would all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to keep him from scratching. He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws. When I had about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies, I had not laid him down in his cradle in the daytime for a long while. I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura ointment and he was soothed that he could sleep. You don't know how glad I was he felt better. I took one box of Cuticura Ointment and pretty near one cake of Cuticura Soap to cure him. I think our boy would have died but for the Cuticura Remedies. He shall always remain a firm friend of them. He was cured more than twenty years ago and there has been no return of the trouble." (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Maitland, Jasper, Ont.

And it Will Lead You to an Important Sale of Furs at the Simpson Store To-morrow

According to Lord Strathcona, the last chapter in the romance of Furs is now being written. In other words, the great trapping grounds are nearly exhausted. Each year the animals are scarcer and the prices of the skins higher.

Green Tags with the lowered price marked in plain figures will be attached to every piece in the sale. The old tags, with the regular prices, will also be left on.
