Resolution on Salaries Brings on Severe Comments—Dr. Michael Clark Charges "Economic Antics."

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Sept. 19.—The new board of commerce appointed by the government to curb profiteering and take other steps for decreasing the cost of living in Canada came in for some severe criticism at the hands of members on both sides in the house of commons today.

Dr. Michael Clark of the Ontario Liberal Party, who is considered one of the greatest living authorities in civics and social surveys, with work in cooperation with Mr. Weizmann, head of the British Zionist Commission.

While in Palestine he will organize a department of sociology and civics for Bombay University and in the cold season will carry out the Indian relief work, with which he was previously employed.

Mr. Donald Sutherland thought that an inquiry should be made into statements appearing in the newspapers and credited to Commissioner W. F. O'Connor. He declared that the prohibition of the export of hides and wool from the United States where hides commanded a higher price.

Mr. E. W. Nesbitt asserted that one member of the board reminded him of a bushy-tailed woodpecker who went about roaring what he was going to do. "I hope he will not be so keen in advertising what he is going to do but will go and do it," added Mr. Nesbitt.

On the opposition side Mr. J. A. Robb intimated that the commissioners, who were appointed to suppress profiteering, were themselves something of profiteers. One of them had threatened to put farmers in jail if they put up the price of milk.

Mr. A. R. McMaster also made some adverse comments on the handling of the milk situation.

Defends Robson. Judge Robson, chairman of the board, was defended by Mr. R. L. Richardson as a man who had proven his reliability and capability. He thought that Mr. O'Connor would probably learn his lesson from his experience with the chairman, if he were given a little time.

Mr. D. D. McNamee had a good word for the commissioners and said that the board must make it known in the country that it existed. Conditions might even force the commissioners to prohibit the export of certain articles.

Referring to Mr. O'Connor, he said that the commissioner was not the kind of man to blow his own horn unless he had been spooled since coming to Ottawa.

Hon. C. J. Doherty suggested that in order to be perfectly fair to the commissioners the house should not rely on newspaper reports without further evidence.

The bill was finally given first reading, and the house adjourned at six o'clock.

Criticizes Commerce Board. Criticisms of the board of commerce were voiced at the afternoon's sitting of the house. There was a bill in committee of the whole to fix the salary of the chief commissioner of the board at $10,000, and of the other commissioners at $8,000.

30-HOUR WEEK IS DEMAND OF MINERS

Matter Will Come Up at U. S. Mine Workers' Convention.

Cleveland, Sept. 19.—The wage scale demands to be presented to the soft coal operators in the central competitive field of Ohio, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, which will serve as the basis of relative wage scales in all the bituminous fields of the country, will be submitted to the convention of the United Mine Workers of America Monday or Tuesday morning at the latest.

Attempts will be made to make the instructions of the convention on the principal demands regarding the amount of increase (presumably about 10 per cent.) and the shortening of working time to six hours daily five days a week absolutely mandatory upon the miners' representatives in the joint scale conference at Buffalo, Sept. 25, and to direct them either to obtain recognition of these principal demands without change or to call the bituminous miners of the country in a general strike Nov. 1.

An amendment to the constitution making the six-hour day instead of the eight-hour day one of the aims of the organization was today adopted. It reads: "Not more than six hours shall be worked by members of our organization." This is the form in which the demand will probably be presented to the operators.

tions in favor of the creation of a bureau to promote the establishment of joint industrial councils, and also the establishment of joint plant and industrial councils, was then received.

It was as follows:

"Your committee is of the opinion that there is urgent necessity for greater co-operation between employer and employee. We believe that this co-operation can be furthered by the establishment of a joint industrial council. Your committee does not believe it is wise or expedient to recommend any set plan for such councils.

Report is Adopted.

"We, therefore, recommend that a bureau should be established by the department of labor of the federal government to gather data and furnish information whenever required by employers and employees or organizations of employers and employees that whenever it is desired to voluntarily establish such councils the fullest assistance should be given by the bureau."

The report was unanimously adopted before the conference rose for the noon recess.

Armistice Day.

At the afternoon meeting R. A. Riggs for the employees moved that the conference endorse the Pedlow bill setting the second Monday of every year as Thanksgiving and armistice day. Action of this kind by the conference would serve as an indication of its feeling on the proposal, he said, and would be valuable, as the bill was before the house of commons. S. R. Parsons, of Toronto, approved the motion and thought that the armistice might be better commemorated if the definite date of November 11 was set. The secretary was instructed to convey to Mr. Pedlow the approval of the speakers.

State Insurance.

James Simpson, Toronto, then presented the report of the committee on insurance, unemployment, sickness and old age, which was as follows:

This committee unanimously endorses the recommendations of the royal commission on industrial relations that a board or boards be appointed to inquire into the subjects of state insurance against unemployment, sickness, invalidity and old age.

For the effective carrying out of the above this committee recommends:

1. That such board or boards shall be representatives of interests participating in this conference, viz., the government, the public, the employer and employee and shall include a representative of the women of Canada.
2. That in order to collect data the government shall forthwith attach to the proper branches of the labor or other department concerned, experienced investigators, who shall do the necessary research work and furnish the results of their investigations.
3. That the government shall set a time limit for the receipt of the report and recommendations as to the advisability of enacting legislation.
4. While this committee has been appointed to consider only the questions of state insurance against unemployment, sickness, invalidity and old age, it respectfully recommends that the subject of "widows' pensions" be added to the committee.

One of the chief obligations of the government, said Mr. Simpson, should be to investigate the conditions which might make state insurance necessary. The whole plan should be investigated by experts who would report to the government. Eastern States, he said, he said, that the conference should endorse any particular plan of unemployment insurance. It asked, however, that a careful investigation be made. Unemployment sometimes became a serious problem. At one time in the city of Toronto there were 18,000 unemployed. In 1918 the percentage of unemployment in organized labor was one-half of one per cent. Anything that would minimize unemployment was a good thing, and unemployment insurance had been found satisfactory in other countries.

Minimum Wages.

The report of the committee on minimum wages followed.

Whereas, it is expedient that minimum rates of wage should be fixed throughout Canada for women and children, whether employed at a time rate or according to any other method of remuneration;

Whereas minimum wages for women and children have been enacted in five and are now in operation in four of the provinces;

Therefore, be it resolved that this industrial conference recommends to the government of these provinces that they have not adopted minimum wage laws for women and children, the speedy investigation of the necessity for such laws, and, if so found, the enactment of such legislation.

It is further recommended that the various provinces through the Dominion adopt a uniform method of application, but that in all cases the minimum of wages for women and children is to be determined from time to time, due regard being given to local living conditions.

Wages of Unskilled.

It is the opinion of this conference that the Dominion government should appoint a royal commission, composed equally of representatives of labor, employers, and the public, to investigate wages of unskilled workers and issue a report.

Representation has been made to the committee that the remuneration paid to female school teachers in one of the larger provinces of the Dominion is so low that it is necessary to the employment of its citizens. Your committee recommends that the various provincial governments be asked to investigate conditions in the respective provinces, to the end that the children of all provinces of the Dominion may have equal educational opportunities.

To Solve Housing.

James B. Fraser, Montreal, moved a resolution recommending increasing efforts by Dominion and provincial governments to solve the housing problem. A. Flett, for labor, concurred in the need for better housing conditions and seconded the adoption of the resolution.

E. Farnell, Winnipeg, referred to the need of houses in Winnipeg and other western cities.

E. B. Woodward feared that much of the money voted for housing schemes, and also for returned soldiers, was finding its way into the hands of speculators. He would, therefore, refuse to vote either way.

Mr. C. A. Magrath, who was in the chair, said all the conference could do was to refer the resolution to the miscellaneous committee, and this was done.

Housing Resolution.

The housing resolution follows:

"Resolved, that this conference, recognizing that much industrial unrest, economic loss and social suffering has resulted from poor land speculation and insufficient housing and high rents, heartily commends the action of the Dominion and provincial governments in their efforts to improve housing conditions and provide facilities for the proper and satisfactory housing of our people, and recommends increased co-operation and investigation by the Dominion and provincial governments to find a satisfactory solution of the problem."

Major M. A. McInnes, Saskatoon, giving the report of committee No. 3, said that the resolutions on the subject of equal educational opportunities with compulsory education up to and including the fourteenth year, with two years more in cities and towns, and that by making all education free, was urged by the committee.

For Freedom of Press.

The resolution on education was carried, and Major McInnes then read his second resolution, dealing with the freedom of the press and liberty of speech. Unless such restrictions were of vital necessity they were to be dropped.

R. C. McCutcheon, Winnipeg, said the question of sedition was vital one in the west today. If it was a sedition act to speak at public meetings and advocate certain changes in economics he would not attend such a conference. It meant the denial of individual right to country a theory, then Canada would not progress far.

He referred to the eight men indicted in Winnipeg for sedition. They had spent 28 days in jail and he could not see that other labor leaders were not guilty of their only crime was that they were members of the labor movement, said Mr. McCutcheon, and if there was to be any result from this conference, the charges against these men should be wiped out. That would allow the suspicion now in the minds of many workers.

DANFORTH RATEPAYERS FAVOR EXTRA GRATUITY

District Community Hall Needs Co-operation of School Trustees.

A well-attended meeting of the Danforth Park Ratepayers' Association was held recently in Gledhill Mission, Danforth, occupied by the school trustees. The question of the district was discussed at considerable length. The secretary read a communication from Hon. G. S. Henry, pointing out that the community hall act requires three acres for playground in connection with a community hall in any district.

D. McCarthy said the terms of the act put the proposition beyond the reach of the ratepayers' association and could only be accomplished with the co-operation of the school trustees of school section 26. He explained that such a building, if erected, could be used in part for school purposes, there are at present over 200 children between the ages of five and eight years for whom there is no school accommodation.

It was decided to interest the school trustees in the matter, and the following were appointed a committee to wait upon the school board: W. Curtis, president; D. McCarthy; J. Moore, W. Groh and William Studholme.

Question of Soldiers' Tax Exemption.

The question of soldiers' tax exemption in special cases, under recent legislation, was next discussed, and it was decided to take a census of the returned men in the district coming to look the record of men who were pointed to investigate.

In connection with the $2,000 gratuity for soldiers after some discussion, the meeting went on record as being heartily in favor of the grant.

A deputation to wait upon the East Danforth Ratepayers' Association at their next meeting regarding the threatened closing of Colridge avenue was appointed as follows: W. Curtis, J. Moore, D. McCarthy and W. Groh.

As requested by the Hydro-Electric Commission, it was decided to furnish electric light through the district, and a request for immediate installation will be forwarded.

CHATHAM WELCOMES SIR ARTHUR CURRIE

Speaking at Banquet Tells of Canadian Army's Big Achievements.

Special to The Toronto World. Chatham, Sept. 19.—General Sir Arthur Currie, inspector of militia, was enthusiastically welcomed at a Canadian Club banquet held here this evening, following which he gave a graphic picture of the last 100 days of the war, and the important part in which Canadian fighting men were called upon to take part. He related the tactics adopted by the Canadians in the final battles, and showed that the surprise attack on the Heights at Amiens by Canadian troops turned the German invasion into the complete rout which resulted in the final crushing of Prussian militarism on Nov. 11. It represented an advance of 155,000 yards, the capture of 220,000 prisoners, 600 guns, without the single loss of a Canadian man, and the defeat of 47 German divisions, and the release of 200,000 French prisoners.

In Every Household.

"The reason I tell this story is because I want it known in every Canadian household," said Gen. Currie. "I have made Canadian history. They have written our country's name high on the world's roll of honor. They have made Canada a nation of men, younger generations, inspired by the example of their fathers and brothers in this war will know what it means to be a British subject. They know that there is such a thing as service to one's country. It means a great deal in these days of unrest when selfishness under so many names is striking at the root of civilization, to look the record of men who, without a single thought of their personal safety, went to the battlefields of Europe and fought for the liberty of the world."

Noble Sacrifice.

It means a great deal to think of the noble sacrifice of the 60,000 Canadian dead. Their example to this and future generations is more priceless to this country than any material gain we may secure from the war. We have a great and glorious history as a result of this war, which must give impetus to the national spirit.

General Sir Arthur Currie was welcomed by the Chatham branch of the Canadian Club, on behalf of the city, the Canadian Club and kindred organizations. Lady Currie was also present at the reception. Lady Currie will be the guests of the former's cousin, Thomas Patterson of this city.

LADIES' DRIVING BEST IN CANADA

Fall Fair Produces Keen Competition in Harness Classes.

Oakville, Sept. 19.—Today was the second day of the fair and horse show, and in spite of the unfavorable weather a large number of people attended. The day was devoted chiefly to farmers. Cattle were judged in the special ring by Professor G. E. Day, who said that many individual entries were good, but that the entire exhibit was not. L. H. Lipsett, Stratfordville, had the best harness class and some rather good entries of Hobbies. Arabians and Jerseys were noted. The sheep show was the strongest yet seen in Oakville.

As was the case yesterday the performance in the harness class was the attraction of the horse show, the outstanding class being teams of three and four. There were five entries, and the first prize went to Etna's Farm, with fourth prize going to Geo. Beardmore. Crow & Murray had a special good entry in the class for high stepping harness pair, and the first prize went to the same pair. The ladies' driving competition was again the best seen at any fall fair in Canada. Special interest was taken in the girl riders and pony turnout, both of which were won by Miss Eaton.

A high class display of flowers, fruit and vegetables was made in the new horticultural building, and the exhibitors being accorded first place among the flowers. Pears and grapes were considered the best exhibit of the fruits, and corn and squash the best among the vegetables.

A feature of the day was the parade of 700 school children, who marched behind the town band from Oakville to the grounds.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 20.

Hydro for Eastern Ontario.

It was announced yesterday that a letter had been sent to the mayors of all cities between Oshawa and Ottawa, asking if any reason was known why Hydro power, from one end of Ontario to the other, should not be pooled. If Mr. R. F. Elliott, who signs the letter, does not know of any such reason, his study of Hydro-Electric affairs has been superficial indeed. The first and obvious reason is that a flat rate cannot be charged for passenger fares all over Ontario. It might be possible to introduce a zone rate, similar to the single fare with transfer in cities, but a flat rate to cover the same for a journey from Oshawa to Ottawa and Oshawa to Whitby, would be laughed at, even by Mr. Elliott.

In distributing power by the Hydro system, the nearest possible approach to a zone system has been adopted. The several districts pool their charges on main lines and pay their local charges. As a result electric power is distributed more cheaply than anywhere else in the world, over corresponding distances.

If eastern Ontario has not received as much benefit from the Hydro system as the western part of the province it is the fault of the eastern municipalities, who were sceptical of the benefits offered and refused to take advantage of the system.

As it is, the Hydro-Electric Commission has been preparing estimates for some time past for submission to a number of the municipalities, and in the case of about twenty places these estimates are about ready to be submitted.

On the agreement of the municipalities to take a certain amount of power the Hydro Commission arranges for its generation and distribution, the province lending the money and holding a lien against the municipalities until the liability is cancelled when the property belongs to the municipalities which have met the cost.

It is the investment of the municipalities on money borrowed from the province, and secured by the municipalities to the province, that has enabled the system to be developed. It is in this sense that the province loaned the money on good security, and with the extinction of the liability the whole system will belong not to the province but to the municipalities.

Poets in Politics.

With Paderewski as the leading man in Poland, and D'Annunzio taking the lead for Italy at Fiume, the world may begin to think that the men of art and letters possess some measure of what the rest of the world outside artistic circles calls practical ability. The fact is, that with certain exceptions, not more numerous than in other classes of humanity, the so-called artistic classes have fully as much practical ability as the organizing, constructive, executive and administrative orders as men in commerce.

Because the statement of Mr. Cockshutt, M.P., read now as follows: "Switzerland a country which was busy lining its frontiers with the blood of its struggling soldiers," and "Switzerland a country which during the war was busy lining its pockets with the gold of struggling neighbors."

As for the accusation of making money out of the suffering nations at war, let it be named: The Swiss Red Cross. The international agency of benevolence, which is receiving millions of requests about missing soldiers of all nations, answering, working free of charge, helping, saving.

Speaking of nearer home work here in Canada: In Toronto the member may hear as evidence from any of the thousands of requests made by families about their missing sons, fathers, brothers—prisoners of war in Germany that done free of charge, even at the personal expense of the president of the committee of the Swiss Red Cross, Prof. J. Cusin, 605 Temple building, Toronto, who wrote over 2000 letters on behalf of Canadian families "Honor to whom honor is due."

"ALL MOONSHINE," SAYS ATTORNEY-GENERAL. "When I cannot get elected in Centre Grey, I will go out of politics," said Hon. I. B. Lucas, attorney-general, yesterday, when discussing a report in "The Farmer's Sun" to the effect that owing to the United Farmers' opposition in his constituency he would "seek a safe riding, possibly in Toronto."

"It is all moonshine," was Mr. Lucas' comment on that point.

T. W. Williams of California has returned to Toronto and will commence his fall and winter course of Sunday evening lectures at the Latter Day Saint Church on Soho street next Sunday night. Subject: "Is There a God?" Hear him!

One Way to Cut High Cost of Things

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

There have been so many commissions appointed by the government for the good of the citizens of the country that it seems to us the officials might get busy and appoint a royal few to sit on the question of the foreigner.

Today the soldiers are fighting for more money. The housewives are fighting to feed their families on the money they are receiving. The men have to get by and as the laws of nature desire that they should. Yet while our cities are infested with persons who do not care a rap about the welfare of the country nor the folks in it such trouble must exist.

While there are foreign men willing and anxious to take whatever money they can get for their particular brand of work, the home-grown variety need expect nothing in the way of better conditions.

In this city foreigners are permitted to start in any business they wish without any effort on their part to become citizens of the country. In the retail fruit and grocery business, the latter having come into fame since the grocers began the early closing, there are families who will take out their naturalization papers. They are not loyal to this flag, and they never intend to be. Yet the authorities allow them to blossom forth and take the "broad" out of the mouths of the people to whom it belongs.

If English-speaking people cannot make a living in this country, surely it is not right for foreigners to be able to make a good one. There are any number of foreign fruit dealers running around in expensive motor cars. Are the English people in the same circumstances able to do likewise?

This food control business is no doubt an excellent thing, that is, it will be if the examiners ever get down to business or that part of it which concerns the consumer. But what is the use of plucking the fruit and allowing the root to still remain? If the farmers were working under the same conditions as the foreigner, the high cost of living would have at least a goodly part of the sting taken out of it. And until such a time does arrive, there is no going to be the slightest hope for the citizens of the country nor the men who would like to be the leaders.

Therefore we ask, why does the government not appoint one more commission, which will sit upon and also act against the foreign question? In suggesting the commission, we only do so because it appears to be the right thing for the Ontario and Ottawa highroads to do, especially when the chairman of the commission is successful in putting the fear of the Lord in the hearts of the witnesses, which he never will be in ours. Anyway, let's have the round table gag, and let's hope it will be a good one.

OTHER PEOPLES' OPINIONS

The World will gladly print under this heading any article, or series of articles, dealing with current topics. As space is limited they must not be longer than 200 words and written on one side of the paper only.

SWITZERLAND'S WAR EFFORT.

Editor World: That a Canadian member of parliament bearing a well-known name should have made a speech in the house so antagonistic to the selection of Geneva as center of the league of nations in Switzerland, backing his views with accusations as vile as false, is a deep wound deep into the hearts of the Swiss people.

W. Cockshutt, M.P., according to the press of Sept. 17, states: "Switzerland did not send a soldier to the war." Now, let the member know that Switzerland kept an army of 350,000 soldiers, day and night, during the whole war, on guard along her frontiers, keeping a stern and true neutrality, looting by the thousands her soldiers falling dead from the "flu" in the trenches.

The statement of Mr. Cockshutt, M.P., read now as follows: "Switzerland a country which was busy lining its frontiers with the blood of its struggling soldiers," and "Switzerland a country which during the war was busy lining its pockets with the gold of struggling neighbors."

As for the accusation of making money out of the suffering nations at war, let it be named: The Swiss Red Cross. The international agency of benevolence, which is receiving millions of requests about missing soldiers of all nations, answering, working free of charge, helping, saving.

PASSENGERS' FATE ON MISSING SHIP STILL A MYSTERY

Divers Find Hull of a Vessel But No Trace of 450 People.

Key West, Fla., Sept. 19.—Imbedded in quicksand under 40 feet of water off Rebecca Shoals tonight, divers today found the hull of a vessel believed to be the Spanish passenger liner Valbanera, which has been missing since the eastern portion of the Gulf of Mexico was swept by a hurricane ten days ago.

The divers employed by the Cuban consul here after the sunken wreck was discovered by United States coast guard vessel, reported that the name Valbanera could be made out clearly, but no trace was found of the 300 passengers and 150 members of the crew reported aboard the Spanish liner when she left Spain for Havana.

The Valbanera appeared off Morro Castle, Havana, Sept. 9, but was unable to put into port on account of the storm. Within an hour the faint wireless calls, supposed to be from the Valbanera, have been picked up here and at Havana. The signals, as received here, however, were so weak as to prevent any attempt to locate their source.

Two Cuban boats today were engaged in searching along the northern shore of the island of Cuba and in the Bahamas for some trace of her. In marine circles tonight it was considered probable that some of the Valbanera's survivors might have sent the calls, using improvised apparatus taken from the vessel and set up on land or on a raft.

POLITICAL NOTES

It is not alone that all the signs point to an announcement of the provincial election date on Monday or Tuesday next. Very positive statements are made by persons professing cabinet second sight, in the assurance that the writs are ready and the government notices prepared. The date is Oct. 20, the same as the retrocession.

The reasons in favor of an announcement early next week are these: The electors must receive twenty-three clear days' notice of the government's permission that they elect their representatives to the Ontario legislative assembly. The government could not do the notice before the 23rd of this week. But there must be some selling of curt and arbitrary treatment of the people. For this reason the announcement will be made at the beginning of the week, instead of at its end.

They might as well call Monday the first of the week as Tuesday. Therefore, it is probable the announcement will come Monday. Meanwhile the faithful will get the compulsion of being in the "know" before the official word is given. The members of the cabinet of the Conservative machine meet in Toronto tonight. They will be taken in the closed circle of confidence first and told to get a two-day start of the Philippines. This is the privilege of the cognocenti.

Premier Hearst will be back from Ottawa, where the word is passed to the Toronto workers tonight. The premier is supposed to be advising with the members of the cabinet. Some members of the cabinet are expected to see the Borden cabinet to the provincial battle call in Ontario just now. Hon. Mr. Rowell may desire to see the legislature on the term of extension it accorded itself by the Hearst-Proffitt agreement. But Premier Hearst knows several influential members of his own party who would rise up in the legislature and say that the members of the cabinet had any right to meet again when all the soldiers are back. It might end in a "No Confidence" vote.

The ratification of the peace treaty may help the provincial government. It will enable those who have the price stuck up with imported hard liquor before the prohibition clarion can again be sounded in the federal arena.

FARMERS OF FONTENAC WILL NOMINATE TODAY

Special to The Toronto World. Kingston, Ont., Sept. 19.—The United Farmers of Frontenac County have called a convention at the court house tomorrow afternoon to select a candidate for the provincial legislature and there is much speculation as to who will be the nominee. Reeve Dr. George Masson, of Wolfe Island, offered to run as the candidate, but says there is a movement to have Anthony Rankin selected. He is a prominent farmer living at Collins Bay. If the farmers stick to Rankin there is no telling just what may happen.

KINGSTON LABOR MEN ENTER POLITICAL FIELD

MENTION AID, ANDREWS TO RUN IN BRANTFORD

Special to The Toronto World. Brantford, Ont., Sept. 19.—Announcement today was made that Ald. W. N. Andrews, who has been the chief enumerator for South Brant for the referendum vote, had handed in his resignation as a member of the board of trustees of the public schools of the town who had served the war, among them being Brigadier-General W. B. King.

From Port Colborne, Dr. Cody proceeded to Niagara Falls, and inspected Frontier College, where a course of instruction is being given by university students with a consignment of workmen engaged on the Chippawa canal.

FIRST AERIAL SHIPMENT OF WATCHES

J. L. Younghusband arrived at the lake airbase at 7:50 Thursday evening with a consignment of Waltham Watches for delivery to a well known Toronto wholesale jewelry house.

He left Montreal at 11 a.m. and landed at Prescott two hours later for gasoline and luncheon. At Prescott he had the plane refueled and an extra pair of gloves as the cold at an altitude of 7,000 feet was most intense.

The next stop was Deseronto for more gasoline and from that point the trip to Toronto was made without further stop.

At 7:45 the plane arrived at Toronto and delivered the Waltham Watches to the consignees, the actual flying time being 5 hours and 25 minutes.

INUNCTION STOPS BORROWING.

Ottawa Separate School Board yesterday at Osgoode Hall sought modification of an injunction against the board granted by Justice Lennox five years ago. This injunction restrained the board from borrowing money till it complied with a regulation devised to make it possible for children of English-speaking parents to secure an education in English.

The board sought leave to borrow $75,000 to buy coal, to make repairs to the building under unsatisfactory conditions. E. R. E. Chevry, counsel for the board, confessed that the injunction had brought it to penury. He said that the regulation could not be complied with all at once, but that the board was getting closer to it.

After-war conditions, and the telephone, No. 3

Improved Conditions—Better Service

TELEPHONE service, like other public services, undoubtedly suffered through the war.

From our staff of skilled telephone workers, 846 went overseas. Many highly efficient operators sought temporary positions in munitions plants. Telephone material became almost unobtainable.

Abnormal conditions are now passing. More than five hundred of our men are back from the front. In most places the supply of competent operators is normal.

There is now the task of restoring the proper margin of reserve plant and of overtaking arrears in repair and maintenance work. The moving season is always difficult. At some exchanges an avalanche of orders for moves comes in—over 13,300 this year at one exchange alone, which meant somewhat of a set-back in getting our plant back to normal.

But the work is progressing. Our plans involve an outlay for the year on extensions and replacements of over $7,000,000. We are giving intensive training in our operators' schools to scores of young women to prepare them for central office positions.

Skilled workers, adequate equipment, a resolve to do the best work possible while realizing that we are all servants of the public—these are the factors which we hope will result in the maintenance of the pre-war standard of telephone service.

And we ask the co-operation of all telephone users.

SECOND CONVICTION FOR STEALING AUTOMOBILES

John Murphy and William Winfield were convicted yesterday morning in the city police court of attempting to steal an automobile which had been left standing outside the Exhibition grounds. Murphy had been sentenced in September, 1918, to two years in Kingston penitentiary, but had been let out on parole when it was found that he was too young to serve the sentence.

All the lots in the block, of Kendal, from St. Clair to Headly street, is owned by J. W. Walker, who is erecting six apartments on the property, which is the half of the frontage. Most of these apartments are in the township, as the boundary comes pretty close to St. Clair at this point. Walker, who is the beneficiary of the block, has also the benefit of lower township taxes, he also gets all the conveniences from the city, such as water, sewer, light and gas. The block at the corner of St. Clair and Kendal will be about 150 feet square.

Another well-known motor car, the Nash, will be assembled in the vicinity of Toronto very shortly for a Canadian, and perhaps for the British market. The car is built in Oskosh, Wisconsin. The Canadian market is expanding, and the company has decided to establish a plant here. C. W. Nash came to Toronto at the time of the Canadian National Exhibition, and while here looked over several possible sites, but no decision has yet been reached. Sites have been inspected at Whitby, but the Toronto resident agent told The World yesterday that they would likely keep fairly close to Toronto. "We are still looking for a site," he concluded.

Uncle Wiggily and the Wooden Man

BY HOWARD R. GARIS. Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Uncle Wiggily, are you going to have much to carry when you come home this afternoon?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy...

"This is a wooden man," answered the mouse clerk. "It's a little wooden man." "He doesn't look like one," spoke the bunny...

"Oh, but he is, just the same," went on the nice little mouse girl. "See this round piece of wood is for his head. These long, thin pieces are his legs..."

"No, I don't need anything," Nurse Jane answered. "But if you could manage to stop in the eight-and-nine-cent store, and bring home something for Sammie Littlelall I know he'd like it."

"Why, what's the matter with my little rabbit nephew?" asked the bunny gentleman. "Why should he want something from the eight-and-nine-cent store?"

"Because Sammie is home from school with the toothache," answered Nurse Jane. "I was just over to his house and his mother doesn't know what to do to keep Sammie amused..."

"Did they have Dr. Possum?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Yes, but he says it will be all day before the ache stops, and, moreover, while, Sammie wants to be amused..."

"I'm going to the ten-and-eleven-cent store as fast as I can jump," was the answer. "I'm going to get Sammie something to play with. I'm not going to bother looking for an adventure today..."

"I did not take Uncle Wiggily long to get to the twelve-and-thirteen-cent store, and there he saw many things which might amuse a rabbit boy with the toothache."

"Uncle Wiggily had not quite made up his mind whether to get a spinning top, painted red, green and yellow, or a jumping-jack with a blue nose, when a little mouse girl who was working behind one of the counters, said: 'Here is something very nice for a little boy or girl...'"

"This," and the little mouse girl clerk held up a box of what seemed to be round and square and three-cornered bits of wood, with sticks mixed in with them.

"Oh, thank you, little mouse girl," said the bunny with a smile that made his ears wobble. "But Sammie, the rabbit boy, who has the toothache, is too big to play with wooden blocks that are only four inches long..."

"These aren't building blocks for babies," said the mouse girl. "What are they, then?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"What are they, then?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "These are the pieces of wood that make up a wooden man," said the mouse girl.

"Hello!" answered Uncle Wiggily. "You didn't expect to see me, did you?" asked the fox. "No, I did not," answered the bunny. "But here I am!" went on the fox...

"There's a wooden man in the box," said Uncle Wiggily. "A wooden man? Poo! Nonsense! It couldn't be!" snarled the fox. Uncle Wiggily opened the box. He took out the wooden man's head, the wooden man's legs, his arms, his hands and his feet...

"Hello!" answered Uncle Wiggily. "You didn't expect to see me, did you?" asked the fox. "No, I did not," answered the bunny. "But here I am!" went on the fox. "And here you are! Now you'll have to come with me, I'm going to take you off to my den and then—Hello! What's in that box?" he asked, seeing one under the bunny's paw.

"There's a wooden man in the box," said Uncle Wiggily. "A wooden man? Poo! Nonsense! It couldn't be!" snarled the fox. Uncle Wiggily opened the box. He took out the wooden man's head, the wooden man's legs, his arms, his hands and his feet. Uncle Wiggily put the wooden man together from his head to his feet.

TORONTO'S OVERDRAFTS CAUSE UNEASINESS

Finance Commissioner Bradshaw, in a statement which he placed before the board of control yesterday, gave a reminder of Toronto's overdrafts. He wrote: "The alarming extent of the overdrafts which have thus far been permitted, when practically only two-thirds of the year have passed, is such as to cause the greatest uneasiness as to the consequences, and again compel me to urge that under no circumstances shall your board sanction the expenditure of further moneys which were not provided in the estimates of the year."

Two-thirds of Mill. "The aggregate of the overdrafts at the present time is practically $400,000, and represents, apart from any increase in the 1920 estimates, an addition of about two-thirds of a mill on the assessment. At the same time, it must be remembered that the 1920 tax rate will also be increased, as has been previously pointed out, thru debt charges resulting from the large authorized capital expenditures for which bylaws were passed at a recent meeting of council. The taxpayer of 1920, even at the present time, cannot but entertain a most uncomfortable feeling as to what the tax rate of that year will probably be."

Booze Costs Years of Life

Insurance Records Prove Moderate Drinking Increases Death-rate 35%

FOR ages folly has accredited "a short life but a merry one" to those who made free with alcohol. Plain truth shows that the misery outweighs the "merriment." Life Insurance figures prove that the excess of deaths among moderate drinkers over abstainers runs from 11% to 74%.

And the highest percentage applies to men in the prime of life.

It is the business of Life Insurance Companies to know the risks a man takes when he uses liquor. Actuaries of the big companies, with access to records of many years and covering hundreds of thousands of lives, have tabulated your chances of death by the great law of averages. And these chances vary according to your use of alcohol.

Actuarial Comparison of Death Records

Table with 4 columns: Age, Total Abstainers, Moderate Drinkers, Excess Deaths Among Moderate Drinkers. Rows for age groups 20-30, 30-40, 40-50, 50-60, 60-70.

From tables prepared by R. H. Moore, Actuary of the United Kingdom Temperance and General Insurance Company, based on Records of over 60 years' experience.

These insurance men have no theories to prove and no doctrine to preach. Their figures are as cold as ice, and they make you pay for the risks you run. To them it is simply business—a matter of dollars and cents. But to you it is a matter of life and death.

Are You Willing to Die Before Your Time for Sake of Booze?

BY actual experience of the United Kingdom Temperance and General Insurance Company covering a period of sixty years the number of deaths among moderate drinkers averaged 35% higher than among abstainers.

All insurance companies prefer risks upon lives of total abstainers. Some companies charge lower rates to abstainers. Other companies allot a larger share of the participating profits to policy-holders who abstain from alcohol.

Certain companies in Canada, several companies in the United States, England and elsewhere specialize on Temperance Insurance. Their records invariably show a lower percentage of deaths among abstainers, the average for the Canadian Companies being only 31.5% of ordinary expectation.

Every insurance company wants to know your alcoholic habits before issuing your life insurance policy. If you are and have been a drinker to excess, no Company will insure you.

If during the working years of your life you have habitually taken two glasses of whiskey per day or the alcoholic equivalent in beer or other intoxicating beverages, your chances of dying before your time are double those of total abstainers.

If when you apply for a policy your present alcoholic habits are satisfactory to the company, but your history records excessive drinking in the past, the company deducts four years from your life chances.

And it has been costing total abstainers yearly millions of dollars in premiums to help pay for excessive deaths among drinkers!

Ontario has suffered the loss of 25,000 men killed in battle. We have entered upon a period of Reconstruction. Human life is the nation's greatest asset. In the face of this enormous wastage Ontario cannot afford to lose a single life, or a single year or a day of life, because of beer or whiskey or any other form of alcoholic intoxicant. Ontario's men and women should be 100% efficient.

Vote "No" to repealing the Ontario Temperance Act. Vote "No" to 2.51% beer (equal to 5.46% proof spirits) in Government Liquor shops. Vote "No" to the sale of 2.51% beer (5.46% proof spirits) in standard Hotel Bars. Vote "No" to sale of whiskey, beer, and all spirituous and malted liquors in Government shops for consumption in the home.

Beer of the Ballot

The public should be warned that the Beer proposed in the ballot and described as "light" beer is intoxicating. It is 118% stronger than the beer allowed by the Ontario Temperance Act, and over five times as strong as the limit allowed for beer defined as non-intoxicating in Great Britain and the United States.

Beer 2.51% Alcohol by weight equals 5.46% Proof Spirits as compared to 2.50% proof spirits now permitted.

"The difference between those who drink beer and those who drink water is unmistakable, while the loss on beer drinkers has been almost the same as among wine and spirit drinkers." From the report of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, New York, after an investigation of classified death records among policy holders over a period of fifteen years.

M'INTYRE SHOWS GAIN IN RESERVES

Annual Report Emphasizes Importance of New Discoveries Made at Depth.

The ore reserves of McIntyre Porcupine Mines, Ltd., are now valued at $4,777,224 as compared with $4,490,482 a year before, and the cash surplus has increased from $82,000 to $1,163,000. These are features of the annual report covering the fiscal year ended June 30 last. The tonnage of reserves is estimated at 438,057 as compared with 459,276 at June 30, 1918, but the average value is now placed at $11.00 a ton as compared with $9.80 a year ago. In this connection President J. P. Bickell says: "The improvement in the grade of ore noticeable at depth is most gratifying, and augurs well for the future prospects. The excellent ore developed on the 1,125-foot level—now opened for a distance of 900 feet—has materially enhanced the value per ton of the ore reserves, which now stand at $11.00, being $1.20 higher than a year ago. The management feels confident, provided that nothing unforeseen occurs, that the earnings shown for the last four months of this period will be maintained throughout the ensuing twelve months."

In the light of the above assurance is of considerable interest to shareholders. In February production amounted to 465,487, while in March there was a jump to 588,788. The other months were April $84,500, May $89,687, and June $92,588.

The president announces that the development program for the year contemplates the continuous sinking of the main shaft which has already reached a depth of 1,400 feet.

The number of tons of ore milled was 179,874 during the year, of an average value of $9.78 per ton, a gross value of $1,759,827 and a net revenue of $1,671,646, which compares with 178,327 tons milled in the previous year of an average value of $10.05 per ton; a gross value of $1,793,197 and a recovery of $1,714,358.

During its life the McIntyre has produced 791,399 tons of ore averaging $12.40 per ton, from which has been received $7,951,039, or $8.90 per ton.

The net profit for the year was $633,350, which compares with $689,861 in the year previous. To this has been added previous balance of $844,469, making a total of $1,527,760, out of which have come $364,028 in dividends, leaving a balance at credit of surplus account of $1,163,731. A year ago the surplus amounted to $372,172.

Best Find Yet Made.
General Manager R. J. Ennis reports that 6,637 feet of development work was done during the year. He says: "On the 1,125-foot level No. 5 vein was opened up 900 feet, assaying 418 over a width of 9.5 feet. The east end of this drift is now on the Jupiter claim and shows ore of excellent grade. The 1,125-foot level is opening up in a very satisfactory manner, showing a more continuous length, width and higher average grade of ore than any previous level opened up on the property."

The mill has been operated continuously during the year, breaking 179,874 tons with an extraction of 95.2 per cent.

Mr. Ennis adds: "Operating conditions have improved slightly over the preceding period and we look forward to a gradually declining supply and material market, and an improvement in the labor situation. This will be reflected in lowered cost of operation and will permit development in territories which we have been unable to touch during the war period, and in which are known to exist ore bodies of medium grade."

ends, leaving a balance at credit of surplus account of $1,163,731. A year ago the surplus amounted to $372,172.

Best Find Yet Made.
General Manager R. J. Ennis reports that 6,637 feet of development work was done during the year. He says: "On the 1,125-foot level No. 5 vein was opened up 900 feet, assaying 418 over a width of 9.5 feet. The east end of this drift is now on the Jupiter claim and shows ore of excellent grade. The 1,125-foot level is opening up in a very satisfactory manner, showing a more continuous length, width and higher average grade of ore than any previous level opened up on the property."

The mill has been operated continuously during the year, breaking 179,874 tons with an extraction of 95.2 per cent.

Mr. Ennis adds: "Operating conditions have improved slightly over the preceding period and we look forward to a gradually declining supply and material market, and an improvement in the labor situation. This will be reflected in lowered cost of operation and will permit development in territories which we have been unable to touch during the war period, and in which are known to exist ore bodies of medium grade."

TO TAKE SECRET BALLOT.
Kirkland Lake, Sept. 20.—Information received through reliable channels tends to show that at a meeting of the strikers held on Wednesday night it was agreed that a secret ballot would be taken next Sunday. Should such prove to be true it may result in a result in bringing about the end of the strike.

STRIKE CLOSE
ON STRIKE OUTLOOK

U. S. Steel Makes Low Record for Week—Liberty Bonds Strong.

New York, Sept. 19.—Apart from its frequent pauses in the heavy selling movement at the close, today's stock market received with apparent indifference the news that the labor leaders had ordered a general strike of steel workers.

Reports and gossip current in the district hinted that joint action might yet be taken by representatives of capital and labor to postpone or defer indefinitely the proposed walk-out, but these were not credited in foremost financial quarters.

Prices were irregular at the outset, were developing moderate heaviness, but returned to a confident undertone, some when the shorts found that stocks were not pressed of the session until the final half-hour the market moved slightly higher, but with a confident undertone, the so-called "strike" stocks holding firm when not comparatively strong.

The late reversal was coincident with rumors that the president of the American Federation of Labor had indicated to the steel unions, having failed to change the attitude of the United States Corporation, that he would not support a general strike.

U. S. Steel moved within a narrow range most of the time, but made its low record of the week toward the end, dropping to 10 1/2. Liberty bonds, which had been 1 1/2 points higher with equipment, shipping and lead issues, early features of strength, yielded under the heavy buying of speculative investors. Sales amounted to 775,000 shares.

The market for Liberty bonds was again active and strong. Second 4 1/2's were sold at 107 1/2, and the first 4 1/2's at 107 1/2. Reports that the government was buying in some of the substantial amounts of Liberty bonds and industrial bonds were irregular, and sales (par value) aggregated 11,250,000.

BIG MARKET IN CANADA CEMENT

Tuckets, Ames-Holden, Iron, Tooke and Steamships Other Strong Features.

Canada Cement, having been neglected while other industries were being marked up briskly in price, evidently appealed to speculative cliques in Montreal as offering a good opportunity for bullish manipulation. The stock was the center of a big demonstration in both the Montreal and Toronto markets yesterday, more than 1900 shares changing hands locally. A strong opening at 70 1/2 was followed by a spirited rise to 73 1/2, but afterwards came out freely, and the price receded at the close to 72, leaving the net gain at 2 1/2.

While Cement fairly overshadowed other stocks in activity, Tuckets enjoyed the distinction of scoring a bigger advance. Tuckets had a big day in Montreal as well as in Toronto, with no explanation of the movement other than the repetition of the report that current earnings are very large. On the local market, the price rose 2 1/2 to 41 1/2, finishing at 39 1/2. Ames-Holden common supplemented the big gain of Thursday with an advance of 1 1/2 to 75 1/2, and Tooke, also a notable performer on Thursday, rose another 1/2 to 37, with 8 1/2 bid for more. In the case of both Ames-Holden and Tooke, the rise of more than 10 points in the former and 12 in the latter in two days is understood to be due to a squeeze of the short interest, which was considerable in Montreal. Dominion Iron firm had a point to 83 and Steamships 62 1/2. It is rumored that Montreal that there is a connection between the heavy buying of Thursday and Steamships, it being said that influential British interests which are largely interested in Steamships are also buying Iron and Atlantic Sugar sold a point higher at 59, while Canada Bread, which had another active day, eased slightly to 22. It is said that a large Montreal interest in the company exists, and that this group is seeking to get control of the block of stock held by the estate of the late C. W. Mulock. The block is said to be sufficient large to carry control of the company, and according to Montreal gossip, the purchase of the shares by the group there may result in the removal of Tooke Bros. common from the Montreal and the listing of the securities on the Montreal stock exchange.

The war loans were fairly active and steady. The day's transactions: Shares, 4572; war loan, $296,700.

FIND RICHER ORE AT DEPTH IN MCINTYRE

Hamilton B. Wills, in his weekly market letter, says: "Since June 30 of this year underground developments at the McIntyre have been crowned with remarkable success, and the 1500-foot level, an ore body of inestimable size, showing a width of about 30 feet and gold values running over $14 to the ton, has been opened up. The McIntyre is a body of approximately 900 feet. Not one ore body of high-grade will suit on its way to the 1500-foot level, whereas diamond drilling has proven exceptionally rich ore exists. It is also the confirmed opinion of the management, as well as an experienced engineer, that between the 1500 and the 2500-foot levels spectacularly rich gold values will be found."

BUSINESS IN TORONTO MOVES BRISKLY ALONG

Trade in Wholesale Drygoods Specially Lively—Building Materials Are Scarce.

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's that trade in general is very brisk especially in the wholesale drygoods lines, but that the retailers are buying far ahead of their requirements. Since the first of the month many large western buyers, who are in the habit of importing direct from the west, have been buying from the manufacturers. The firms of the market, especially in the textile lines, are buying for the fall orders for spring delivery than had been anticipated. The wholesale houses are placing larger orders for all classes of textiles in the next few years. They now look for a continuation of present conditions for some time.

Collections are still good, but in some cases there is not the same promptness as a month or so ago. The building trade continues very brisk both in Toronto and the surrounding towns. The one big check in securing materials, lumber, is the best grades is very scarce. Bricks are not as plentiful as under normal conditions, and labor is still scarce.

AMES-HOLDEN TO FORE IN MONTREAL MARKET

Canada Cement and Tuckets Also Advance Sharply on Heavy Trading.

Montreal, Sept. 19.—Business on the local exchange today increased by about 6000 shares, to 22,615, the most active trading since the active markets of early August. The closing prices of the market gains exceeded the net losses. The most active trading was again in Ames-Holden common, with transactions over 8000 shares. The stock was erratic than for any day, fluctuating between 70 and 76, with the close a large fraction of a point higher, at 75 1/2. Another large gain was that made by Tuckets, which advanced a large fraction of a point, to 39 1/2, a net gain of 2 1/2.

Next in activity was Tuckets, with sales of 2900 shares. Buying of the stock was much stronger than in the others, and the close at 39 1/2, while on a small fraction under the high for the day, showing a net gain of 2 1/2 points, the largest individual gain for the day.

Another large gain was that made by Dominion Steel, which advanced a large fraction of a point, to 39 1/2, a net gain of 2 1/2 points, the largest individual gain for the day.

NEW YORK CURE RALLIES

New York, Sept. 19.—The general market opened irregular, but during the second hour a strong tone developed which was well maintained. Caden Oil, the close at 49 1/2, the former buying was in evidence in Allied Oil and Home Oil. Quiet accumulation continues in progress in the leading Toronto stocks, although the trading has been rather restricted, due to the uncertainty of the strike situation.

Taking the market as a whole, the traders are waiting to see how the threatened strike for next Monday shapes up, and there was no particular feature.
