In the Wall Street Market—Local Speculation Divulges Down to One Specialty.

World Office, Saturday Evening, Nov. 25.

Similar tenacity to that previously witnessed against all and every unfavorable factor has been witnessed on Wall Street.

Money rates in so far as day to day loans are concerned have been followed by a more liberal policy.

The events in Wall Street recently have been announcements of increases in the price of gold.

Repeat European developments have had a bearing in accounting for money rises and falls in value since the beginning of the year.

The publication of the October Canadian statistics has brought lower prices, but not in the present apathy in Canadian securities.

From this it will be seen that the ability of the banks to do business has been further expansion would have to be striven for.

Speculation through the week has centered primarily in Mackay Common, which at this time exhibited the most active movement.

Pay for quality. That's the argument we use to make customers our everlasting friends.

You will find out that in the long run it does pay to pay for quality—especially in furs.

Persian Lamb Jackets must be made of real, whole, solid fur or they soon lose their lustre and become old and badly worn garments.

Our Persian Lamb Jackets are made of selected skins, purchased by our agents in Russia, and are manufactured into garments on the premises.

We have three hundred beautiful Persian Coats, ranging from $15 to $250.

For Boys $4.95 Or Men $5.95

Let us talk first to the mothers who have overcoats to buy for boys. This is a good "boys' store." We buy and sell such an immense quantity of clothing for both boys and men that our position in the clothing market of Canada is absolutely unique.

Now about Men's Overcoats. Changes in the cutting, shaping, tailoring and finishing ready-to-wear clothing have wrought an immense improvement within the last few years. One manufacturer, competing with constant eagerness for supremacy, is bound to perfect some detail to better advantage than his rivals in business.

Here are two underprice inducements for an overcoat inspection here to-morrow: 55 Boys' Heavy Winter Overcoats, the long kind, same style as the men's for this season, medium and dark grey; cheviot and cheviot finished friezers, also light and dark patterns in fancy tweeds, some made with the belt at back, all well lined and tailored, sizes 27-33, regular $5.00 to $7.50. Tuesday 4.95

75 Men's Fall Weight Raincoats, consisting of fine English covert cloths, fancy tweeds and worsteds, made up in the long, loose single-breasted Chesterfield style, Italian cloth body lining and haircloth sleeve lining, splendid fitting garments, well tailored, sizes 34-44, reg. $8.50, $9.00, $10.00, $10.50 and $12.00, to clear Tuesday 5.95

Men's Furs and the Common Sense of Fur

Men's Store prices are a consideration when you come to buy furs. We make no vast pretensions. We don't claim the honor of trapping the fur we sell. Nor do we care where or by whom it is done. Nor would it avail us a farthing's worth if we did send trappers and agents into the woods. The point is we sell good fur. You can't beat it at the money. Nothing fancy about it—no $600 silver foxes. Just good, honest fur of prime quality, winter killed. We collect it from dealers wherever it offers good enough. It comes to us. We don't chase it. And it comes at reasonable figures—we see to that.

All this works to the average man's advantage who buys furs from us. No fairy story goes with our fur—just FUR MERCHANDISE—bought right and sold right. We talk thus forcibly because so much nonsense goes with fur ordinarily that we want to make sure none of it clings to the Men's Store fur. Let us show you some Persian Lamb goods to-morrow: Men's Persian Lamb Gauntlets, Gloves or Mitts, extra choice glossy curls, fur linings and calf kid palms, very best finish, Tuesday for 15.00

The Simpson Shoe for Men

More popular this season than ever. The Victorious army is filled with recruits, and loses no strength by deserters. Have you yet to buy the Victors? Do it now—the advice was never better. ALL POPULAR SIZES, WIDTHS AND STYLES. $3.50
