CAPITOL PROVIDED FOR TO-DAY'S PAGEANT

Immense Throng at Washington to See the Inauguration of the 27th President of the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—A vast army of people to-night thronged the streets of the national capital in downpour of rain in eager expectancy of the nation's greatest of all pageants, the presidential inauguration.
The spirit of celebration is supreme and everything is in complete readiness for the great quadrennial event.

Mr. Taft will be the 27th president of the United States. He will be the fifth president to be elected from Ohio and the sixth president produced in that state.

The rush of visitors from all parts of the country continued unabated today and the city is in the usual preparatory state of congestion. It is estimated that fully 200,000 people are already here. Trains from all points are being run at intervals of a few minutes, in order to accommodate the crowds, and railroad officials estimate that upwards of 80,000 persons arrived here to-day by rail up to midnight.

Numerous military and civic organizations arrived during the day, among them the famous Troup A. Cleveland Ohio, which will act as Mr. Taft's escort.

The program of the inaugural ceremonies provides that the president and vice-president-elect, accompanied by the joint committee of congress, will proceed from the White House to the capital in carriages at 10 a. m. They will be followed in carriages by members of the cabinet, the secretary to the president and the vice-president arriving at the capital at 10.23, the president and president-elect will be escorted to the president's private room in the senate, and the vice-president and vice-president-elect to the vice-president's private room, also on the senate side, to await the inaugural ceremonies. Promptly at noon Vice-President-elect Sherman will take the oath of office in the senate chamber and then address that body, whereupon the senate will organize.

The latest estimate of the number of men who will march is placed at 50,000, not the least of which will be the governors of 14 states, each accompanied by his cabinet.

Having encircled the globe with the battleship fleet, 3,000 blue jackets are here to take part in the parade.

Men who have been 50 years in the White House have no recollection of scenes such as manhood of women.
They declared it was unprecedented in the number of persons who called to exchange farewells with the retiring chief executive. Altho no exact count of the number of visitors was kept, it is estimated that between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. there were at least 250,000 of them.

The president stood the test with the hardihood and joyousness that made his greetings to every man or woman more pleasant than any he would not sign bills coming in from congress or to attach his name to photographs brought to him. He was engaged in both houses working under high pressure. President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft slept under presentament roof after a strenuous day spent in receiving callers. All the members of the cabinet resigned in accordance with custom, and the laborers of the inaugural ceremony were completed.

The salary of President Taft will be $75,000 a year, according to an agreement reached to-day by the conference on the legislative, executive and judiciary appropriation bill. In the sundry civil bill there is an amendment giving the president $20,000 additional for traveling expenses, and if this is agreed to Mr. Taft's annual compensation as president will be $100,000.

WILL BANQUET MR. BORDEN.
Behind closed doors the senate to-day paid to Vice-President Fairbanks ever-given to a presiding officer. He was presented with a magnificent silver service, costing $125,000, the gift of the entire body of senators, and with a loving cup, as the president of the Democratic members. The gift was to the cause which they dearest to speeches made, and Mr. Fairbanks, in replying, exhibited deep feelings.

The Departure of Roosevelt

To-day's demission of office by Theodore Roosevelt, brings to a close presidency that will rank high in the annals of the United States. Indeed in the sectional and enthusiastic tributute paid the other day by the ingenious occupying of the White House Mr.
Taft declared that the accomplishments of the last seven and a half years will place President Roosevelt's term of office only below those of Washington and Lincoln.

Roosevelt has been in many ways one of the most democratic of presidents, as well as one of the most masterful. And in nothing was his mastery more evident than in his disregard for convention and his pursuit of the interests of the country as he appeared to him to require it.
As was aptly remarked the other day, Mr. Roosevelt has been a thing more than another during his administration of the White House, he has been the president of the now and not of the yesterday or the after-to-morrow.

The president who lays down his mantle to-day inaugurates a new era for the people of the great republic. He had the wit to see that the most formidable menace to the future prosperity of the United States lay in unchecked operation of the huge combinations and corporations that had been evolved by modern conditions.
With the wit to see he had the resolute courage and implacable determination requisite to vindicate the supremacy of the state—that is, the people—whose executive chief he had become. By doing this he gave a clarion call which inspired a patriotic concourse and rallied every patriotic citizen under his flag. Furthermore, he has quickened zeal for disinterested and patriotic service and kindled a flame which under wise and prudent guidance must purify every department of the national life.

These are the splendid results of his own strenuous devotion to duty, which not his occasionally robust methods but his constant form of expression has sufficed to obtain.

The United States, when President Roosevelt stepped down, does not stand where it did when he handed him the reins of power. To him unquestion-ably belongs the responsibility of making the republic a world power, in the widest sense of that term. His acquisition of the Panama Canal, the spectacular voyage of the fleet round the world, his intervention in the Russo-Japanese war and in the European embroglio over Morocco, stand evidence of his high sense of the maintenance of the status quo in the far east and as one of his last acts the inauguration of the great conservation of natural resources, all definitely signalize the entry of the United States upon the international field.
Time is needed to place the performances of Theodore Roosevelt in their true perspective, but he has blazed a road in this, his successor has pledged himself to make a highway for the masses of the people, ensuring the most complete measure of protection and security against predatory interests.

Notwithstanding the inseparable companionhip of the "big stick," cause of the transparent honesty and with high regard for the man who wielded it possibly at times too indiscriminate a sweep, Mr. Roosevelt has written his name upon the history of his countrymen.

By WILLIAM TAFT, president-elect, in Collier's Weekly for March 6.
"Mr. Roosevelt and I came to know each other when he was chairman of the civil service commission, and I was solicitor-general, in 1890 and 1892, in Washington. We were both subordinates in the Harrison administration.
I lived on the same part of Washington, he on 19th street, near the British embassy, and I on Dupont circle. Our wives knew each other well, and some of our children were born about the same time.

"We found, after discussion, that we agreed in quite a marked way in our views of proper political ideals and proper political methods. We were emphatic in the judgment that the political reformer who was not willing to accept conditions as they were, as the basis of any work to work for the better things that were practical, without achieving all that he would like to achieve, was rather a hindrance to his help to progress and merely assisted the permanent control of the boss and the machine. This, I think, had been the moving principle of Mr.
Roosevelt's career. He has believed in practical progress, and not in ideals which make for no real advancement.

"After these two years I went upon the bench and left Washington, and only occasionally met him, from time to time, as changes came in his career.
We carried on a correspondence, and as crises would arise he would not infrequently write me to secure my judgment on particular situations.

"No one associates with Mr. Roosevelt without having the strongest possible affection for him. His mind, his disposition and his temperament are all of that class that would rather agree than disagree with those with whom he comes in contact. But this is not to say that he does not enjoy a controversy and a fight according to the rules of the game, if he does. He believes as strongly as possible in team work, and I never served under any man, or hope to serve under another, who so generously tried to uphold and so generous in his acceptance of the full responsibility for his subordinates in the work, as Theodore Roosevelt. I never served under another man who was as generous in his praise of those who worked with him and who was as willing to share the blame for their doings with the men who were shoulder to shoulder with him in the fight. That characteristic of his has been calculated to the benefit of his followers. I never saw a man who showed his appreciation of his services in this fashion.

CHICAGO AMAZED BY VOGT'S CHOIR

Large Audience Enraptured and the Captious Critic Enthused by the Mendelssohn Singers.

CHICAGO, March 3.—(Staff Special.) —No band of troubadours ever vent forth lindays of old to gather generous garlands of victory from worthy rivals and met with such hasty acclaim and unalloyed praise as the Mendelssohn Choir has received in Chicago.

The reputation that preceded Dr.
Vogt from Buffalo and New York made the task of impressing a Chicago audience a doubly difficult one. The audience, which filled the Orchestra Hall to-night was a keenly critical one, largely of a class to whom the best music is familiar as routine, and the man on the street, and with a strong professional element present. If the prolonged applause and the encores accepted, and the conductor, who had the comment between the two parts and after the concert wholly removed any lurking opinion that the slightest dissatisfaction remained.

"It is wonderful," said a newspaper man, "every voice is under his absolute control. I never heard anything like it." The conductor, through the dramatic quality, the power and virility, the delicacy and sweetness all alike excited comment as one number after another reviewed.

What Critic Says.
In his criticism of the concert given by the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto this evening, W. L. Hubbard, the noted musical critic, writes the Tribune, comments in part as follows:

"Mr. Vogt is a jolly-visaged, smooth-faced, quiet-mannered little man, inclined to portliness, with a beard unlike a kindly, merry priest. He directs with little movement of the body and there is not a motion of arms or hand that does not denote its full value. He dominates his singers absolutely and they keep their eyes fairly glued on his patterned cap. And "And how do they sing! Wonderfully, wonderfully, at least so far as technical perfection is concerned, their precision was amazing in shading and phrasing, their exactness in pronunciation and enunciation and the surety of their total placing sustaining a pariable to nothing save similar excel-lences found in the performances of an orchestra of the finest kind."

"Their work in a perfection in choral singing which it had scarcely been deemed possible human voices could attain. Their public mechanism in their performance has been brought to such completeness and such certainty that the singers are nothing less than superbly trained. In their receptor's hands—an instrument instantaneously responsive, unfailingly true as regards tonal utterance and wonderfully sensitive.

The Great Feature.
"The choruses great specialty is its obtainment of pianissimo effects. Its fortissimo most splendidly soaring, vibrant and alive, but in its graduating of a tone down to the finest possible point, and yet keeping the melody in the most perfect measure of the house so soft, so pure and ethereal that it seemed fairly disembodied, the product not of human voices, but of the ethereal of heaven."

A Veritable Triumph.
"Toronto visitors were wretchedly delighted with the performance. The most acute hyper-criticism on the part of the home authorities failed to detect anything worse than a slight nervousness on the part of one of the singers in the first act, which was entirely remedied by the end of the first act. The performance was a triumph."

"From the first moment in Lotti's Crucifixus, when the faint devotional whisper of the music crept over the rooftops of the audience like dusk stealing over the evening lake, till the last thunderous chords of the Wagner Chorale, the choir never lost a point in gaining the favor of Chicago."

The audience held itself in judicial reserve as long as it could, and yet in spite of itself was won to prolonged approbation, which gathered into an ovation at the close. For a minute and a half Dr. Vogt bowed and bowed and then turned to the choir. The audience, thinking another encore was coming, settled back to listen, but the applause broke out once more, and was maintained until Dr. Vogt again mounted the rostrum. Further applause as possible in team work, and I never
acceptance of the full responsibility
for his subordinates in the work, as Theodore Roosevelt. I never served
with him in the fight. That charac-
of his services in this fashion.

"BIG BILL" AT THE BAT

TAFT: Thanks, Teddy; but I think I'd better play "off my own bat."

SENATORS CLAIM CREDIT

While Commoners Haven't—Railway Committee to Consider.

OTTAWA, March 3.—(Special.)—The Lancaster level crossings bill was given its second reading in the senate to-day and sent on to the railway committee.

Sensor Ellis had charge of the bill, and when the second reading was carried he moved that the bill be read again to-morrow, but that was on friendby the name of James Gordon Baum,

spoken of by her acquaintances in the south, and Baum is also given a good reputation. He professed yesterday to having learned for the first time of the tragedy of last week.

"Mr. Kinrade declined yesterday to allow any one to interview Miss Kinrade, but stated that he was aware that she had been on the stage."

"My daughter had a position singing in the Manchester Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Va.," said Mr. Kinrade.
"She was a good musician, and was always fond of music. One night she was singing in the church choir, and the manager of an amateur theatrical company heard her. He offered her $20 a week to come and sing a couple of songs. As her duties in the church choir were not onerous, she was pleased with the opportunity of supplementing her income of $7 or $8 a week, which was paid by the church, which made her work all the more agreeable.

There were several developments of interest in the Kinrade murder mystery yesterday.

Despatches from Virginia tell of Miss Florence Kinrade having appeared on the stage of the Orpheum Theatre at Portsmouth, with the stage name of "Mildred Dale"; that she was on friendly terms with a young actor mechanic by the name of James Gordon Baum.

two or three weeks she broke the engagement because of her affections for

BACK TO OLD ROUTES AT MAYOR'S REQUEST
And Because Mr. Fleming Would Not Like to Have "Transfers" Waiting in the Snowdrifts.

The Winchester, College and Yonge and Bloor and McCaul cars will be back on the old routes this morning.

This was the assurance given by Mayor Fleming last night. The decision was due to two circumstances, an urgent appeal from Mayor Oliver and the heavy fall of snow. According to Mr. Fleming, the company relented when it thought of the unfortunate holders of transfers waiting in the snowdrifts at the corners while the long lines of cars struggled to negotiate the down-town loops.

The manager dropped in at the mayor's office yesterday afternoon and chatted with his worship on sundry matters having no relation to the stranded situation. Later in the afternoon the mayor sent the following hurry-up requisition to Mr. Fleming:
"Owing to the very great dissatisfaction expressed by the citizens in connection with the recent changes in the routes of the various lines of street cars, I must respectfully request you to kindly restore the routes as they existed prior to Monday, March 1."

Mr. Fleming speedily called a conference of superintendents to roadmasters and it was decided that the restoration should take place next day, while the service was not in a proper shape to-morrow morning, we think it far better to make the change in consideration of the inconvenience now being caused the public and while the snow will make worse," he said.
"The public are being packed like hertings on the Yonge-street cars, while Winchester cars and the cars on Mc-Caul street are nearly empty. The city was 300,000 people out here. We are sorry the public have had to suffer."

TWO NEW COURTS CREATED AND APPEALS IS LIMITED

Certain Branches of High Court to be Merged Into New—Four Features in Gov-

for Law Reform.

Main Features of Law Reform.
The abolition of appeals to the present divisional court.
Limitation of appeals to privy council.
Increased jurisdiction for county and district courts.
Contracts between solicitors and clients made possible.
Two branches of supreme court of judicature established to embrace divisional courts.

The government's long-expected measure of law reform was introduced into the legislature yesterday by Attorney-General Foy, who moved the first reading of "An Act for the better administration of justice, to lessen the number of appeals and the cost of litigation, and for other purposes." Hon. Mr. Foy explained that the bill was not prius to the privy council; the increase of jurisdiction of county and district courts, and the rendering permissible of contracts between solicitors and clients.

The bill, which is lengthy, is couched in technical language, and is entirely unintelligible to the layman. The increase of jurisdiction of county and district courts, and the rendering permissible of contracts between solicitors and clients.

The bill has four main features: The abolition of appeals to the present divisional court; the limitation of appeals
clients.

Skin Diseases.

A diseased or disfigured skin will always leave its stamp on the mind of the individual. Many people suffering from disfiguring skin diseases avoid society and lose all pride in their personal appearance.

Mrs. J. J. Magee, Jr., Kinmount, Ont., writes: "In the spring of 1906 I was troubled with a Rash that broke out all over me. It was the worst on my face and head, and I tried every remedy that I could get, but it would not get better until I used the Burdock Blood Bitters."

Mrs. Harvey Barkhouse, Gold River, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with skin disease on my face and finally became so bad I had to go to the doctor about it, but he could do nothing to help me."

MARKETS SHOW SNAP SEVERAL STOCKS ADVANCE

Trethewey and Chambers Firm and High-Rumor on Nova Scotia Has Little Effect on Market. World Office, Wednesday Evening, March 3. The two local mining exchanges today showed considerable more snap than they did on the two previous days of the week, the trading being stimulated by a sharp upward movement in Trethewey, a portion of which was not held until the close of the market.

OPERATORS and PROSPECTORS

The present opportunities for investing in real mining properties at real values have never been surpassed in the history of the great mining camps. This is but natural under present conditions--every day bringing forth new and valuable discoveries in the great silverland. Our business is to secure these properties direct from the prospectors and investors in the field, and our representatives on the ground have enabled us to secure some of these on very favorable terms and at reasonable prices.

PROPERTIES FOR SALE

We submit herewith a partial list of properties. In addition to the following we have two or three companies holding large acreage of silver shares. One of these has issued 25,000 out of a million shares. The other has issued 150,000 out of a million shares. These can be purchased on reasonable terms. We are also negotiating for control of a shipping mine in Coleman with large bodies of ore blocked out.

PROSPECTORS

We have unexcelled facilities for handling mining properties, and have an extensive clientele in Canada, the United States and Great Britain. This clientele is daily increasing, and we are desirous that it should. In order, however, to maintain the position of leadership we have established for sale of mining properties, we believe it advisable to state openly so that all claim-holders may understand the information we have forwarded to many prospectors who have written to us to sell their claims.

MAPS

We have the most complete and up-to-date map of Gowganda and the Silver Lake district. This we mail to out-of-town customers upon receipt of order, $1.25. Every owner and prospector should have one.

We are having a map of the Montreal River section, including James, Smyth, Micka, etc., specially prepared for our customers. This we will sell at $1.25. We also have latest township maps at 75c.

GROUND FLOOR SYNDICATE

I have been watching the development of the new silver fields carefully and trying to get some good property that I could ask my friends to join me with. I find it hard to secure at a reasonable price, property with fair showing. My judgment is that PROSPECTS carefully selected and offered at reasonable prices are the BEST BUYING. If they turn out no good the loss is small. I have a well located claim in Gowganda, quite near the good ones, with good veins, good formation, title right, assessment work done and low price. I am forming a small syndicate of 100 shares of $50 each to pay for same, and $1000 of this money will be used to test the claim. If considered worthy after that is expended, a company will be formed and the syndicate holders will be on the ground floor. Write for particulars.

Wednesday Evening, March 3.
A species of rftness pervaded the whole market on the Toronto Exchange to-day. Business in the speculative department was dull, the one active feature being Sao Paulo, which was sold in moderate amounts right from the opening until the close, the operations representing a decline for the day of two points. Other speculative shares, while not equally as heavy, were still inclined to sag, and sales are almost entirely restricted to a discount from previous transactions.
C. P. R. was quite active at the morning board here, with sales six points below the price of the shares before they became ex-dividend. Nova Scotia Steel, Dominion Steel and Dominion Coal all sold fractionally lower.
The South American market, the exception of Sao Paulo, were dull. There were only two trades in Rio, one a full board lot selling at 95.
Twin City, despite the bullish opinion which is held, or presumably held by traders, was decidedly dull to-day, the whole transactions being concentrated in a deal of five shares, and this at 105 compared with yesterday's price of 106 3/4.
Toronto Railway had practically all of yesterday's advance, and the saying was not for local consumption. In the investment department business was equally dull, the prices were steady and in one or two instances small advances occurred on purchases which actually came into the market.
Wall Street Pointers.
N. Y. City bond issue four times over-subscribed and expected to average slightly over 101-1/2, which is considered rather disappointing.
Strike talk slightly improves demand for hard coal.
Ship subsidy bill defeated in congress.
Some improvement in consumers' demand for copper reported in past few days.
Railway Steel Spring officials deny reported cut in prices.
New York: Twenty-six million pounds of copper were sold to-day in the local market.
J. P. Morgan & Co., the First National Bank and the National City Bank, are offering for public subscription at 70 and accrued interest, $21,335,000 Southern Railway Co. development and general mortgage four per cent. gold bonds, series A, recently purchased from the company.
Western interests of high repute today insist that Atchison will get a higher dividend in the near future. The increasing gross earnings of railroads in the territory involved are giving color to this outlook. The high-class tonnage moved is productive of large profits. The west is said to be recovering itself rapidly. Atchison is earning twice as much as is necessary to pay a dividend of six per cent. on the common stock, according to latest reports, and with increasing traffic this percentage may advance rapidly.—Town Topics.
Continuance of special bullish operations in the stock market is indicated for to-day in anticipation of favorable Washington inaugural developments to-morrow. Daily traders should purchase conservatively on slight recessions for turns at least. The trend of Atchison and B. R. T. is aggressively upward, as was suggested by the removal of offerings at certain limits. Favorable Traktion developments are hinted. Further buying of Southern Pacific and Union Pacific should follow the good January earnings publication.—Financial Bureau.
The American Woolen Co. issued its statement of earnings for the year ended Dec. 31, showing that net sales had decreased $1,390,988, and net profits only $1,280,705, a decrease of $2,145,901. After deducting the preferred dividend there is a deficit left of $1,369,295. Nothing was appropriated for depreciation, also last year $2,000,000 was set aside for that item. The company now has a surplus of $8,045,705. Orders received during the first two months of the present year are equal to 70 per cent. of the business done during the year, for which the report is made. The number of shareholders in the company has increased ten per cent. during the year, which compares with an average of 45 per cent. in the preceding 12 months.
A reactionary market is suggested for to-day, London prices for American stocks being heavy with declines of a point in Amalgamated, Steel and Union Pacific, presumably representing sales from this side. The news is not depressing and the outlook generally reflects the fact that the recovery from last week's break had eliminated a lot of short contracts. Speculators like Atchison, where there is talk of Pennsylvania acquisition, may be advanced, but we would discriminate for the time

SPECULATIVE STOCKS UNSETTLED.

World Office.
Wednesday Evening, March 3.
The Toronto stock market presented an unsettled appearance to-day. Trading did not show any increase, and it was due principally to liquidation and realizing that operations in the speculative stocks attained the volume they did. Without notice and from motives only known to the sellers Sao Paulo was heavily sold from the opening, and at one time at a decline of about eight points from the price made by the pool recently. Yesterday's statement that speculative stocks were harder to sell than to buy was not confused by to-day's business, and it must be presumed that many bids in the market were only present because outside holders are not immediately pressing stock for sale.

SYSTEMATIC WORK DONE BY REGAL MINING CO.

Shaft Sunk to 75 Feet and a Nice Vein Was Picked Up at 23-Ft. Level.

ELK LAKE, March 3.—(From the Man up There).—J. H. Means of Detroit has been here a few days inspecting the work and looking after the interests of the Regal Mining Company, Limited, whose property consists of forty acres situated about two miles from Elk Lake, in James Township, adjoining the Motherlode and Big Six.
I visited this property and was agreeably surprised at the evidences of systematic, energetic and intelligent work that had been accomplished under the management of their superintendent, Neil R. Morrison, who has been in charge since the beginning of operations, work here begun about the middle of October.
I found a camp complete, consisting of five houses, all admirably suited for the purpose. A shaft had been sunk seventy-five feet, and at the time of my visit about seventy-five feet of drifting had been done. The corner of the forty acre claim, and has been sunk on an alluvial vein about four inches wide, running east and west across the property. At the twenty-three-foot level a calcite vein was picked up running northeast and southwest. This vein has increased in width at the seventy-five foot level to from two to eight inches and Mr. Morrison, who was the original contractor on the Motherlode tunnel, believes that at greater depth this vein will undoubtedly prove to be the Motherlode vein. I found that Mr. Morrison and his force of nine men, nearly all of whom are stockholders in the company, are confident that the Regal will ultimately develop into a valuable property.
There is also a native silver vein on the property south of the present workings running from three to ten inches in width, which has been struck about one hundred feet.
The Regal is essentially a Detroit organization, and the board of directors consists of nine representative business men of that city. The management of the company, is certainly to be commended. There is no property in this district, considering the time and the amount of money spent, that can show as much development work for the purpose, whose office is 1061 1/2 Broadway, New York City.

ELK LAKE DISCOVERY MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION

Superintendent Says New Find is Equal to Anything in Cobalt.
T. G. Harris, mining superintendent of the Elk Lake Discovery Mine in the Montreal River silver district, is in town for a few days. He had a rapid trip out from the mine, taking only 3-1/2 hours to drive on a splendid road to Charlton, thence by train to Toronto.
Superintendent Harris reports the finding on the Elk Lake Discovery of a beautiful vein of silver. It is only one inch wide, but for four feet it is solid silver. The vein has been stripped for ten feet. It has been traced and trencned across the mine for 350 feet.
At present on the mine Mr. Harris is sinking a shaft. Already it is down forty feet, but before long will have established a record for depth. The plants in the Otisae and the Otisacque, however, will be working in a few days.
Mr. Harris reports that 18 plants have been ordered for the Miller Lake, Elk Lake and Gowganda districts within the past ten days.
"That one-inch vein of silver of ours," said Mr. Harris, "is as good as any vein found in Cobalt."

TO MOVE MACHINERY FOR THE BARTLETT MINES.

COBALT, March 3.—A contract of considerable importance not only in its business attitude but because of its bearing on Gowganda has been made by Mr. Brewer with the Bartlett Mines to transport, from Charlton to their plant, a large quantity of machinery for development and active operations with 160 horse-power. The carrying out of the contract is a matter of urgency in order that everything possible might be hauled in before the break-up of the ice. Accordingly Mr. Brewer has arranged to lease three teams to do the work and outside of the teamsters accompanying them will be about 15 other men employed on the contract.
Brewer emphasized the great necessity of lumber, through the shutting down of the mill, and the dragging to the road, however, he considered it, after a little soft weather last week, it was naturally broken up to some extent.
"How about accommodation now?" was asked.
"Well, places are overcrowded," was the reply, "and it is difficult to obtain any for man or horses. That is where the value of lumber would at once come in, for buildings which are greatly needed cannot be erected."
