FLED IN TAXI-CAB

George I. Collier and Wife Paid $100 For Trip From City

AFTER a night drive by taxi cab from Saint John to Woodstock, George I. Collier and his wife, Jane, were awakened from their sleep in the Woodstock Hotel about 8 o'clock this morning and placed under arrest, charged with the theft of $2,300 in $100 bills, the property of Mrs. James Levine, alleged taken from her home at 112 Pond street, last night.

According to the police, the alleged robbery took place about 9 o'clock last evening, but it was not until after midnight, some time after the Colliers had left Saint John, that the detectives were notified.

MISS AT PARTY

Detectives Kilpatrick and Saunders, who answered the call sent to police headquarters were told that, during a party held in the Levine home, which Mr. and Mrs. Collier were present, Mrs. Levine went to her room and found that $2,300 of $100 bills which she had placed in a trunk there, had disappeared. Returning to the party, she noticed that the Colliers had left.

COUPLE FLEES

According to the police Mrs. Levine was having a party last night and the Collier couple were staying with her. She went into her bedroom to get something about nine o'clock and when she returned to the party the Colliers were gone.

DETECTIVE KILPATRICK ascertained that they had hired a taxi, promising the driver $100 to drive them to Woodstock, leaving town about 12:10 a.m. He immediately sent wires to Fredericton and Woodstock with the result that they were arrested in Woodstock this morning.

$100 FOR TAXI

William Donahue, in a statement to The Times-Star this morning said that the Collier couple had come to his home at midnight last night and asked him to drive them to Quebec, as Collier's mother had been sick and was dying there, and he wanted to get to her as soon as possible. Mr. Donahue told them that he never took parties out of the province but he could give them a man who would take them as far as Woodstock. Collier repeated his story of the dying parent but accepted Donahue's offer of the trip to Woodstock and paid $100. They left about 12:10 a.m. Mrs. Levine refused this morning to discuss the robbery.

WOODSTOCK ARREST

In a telephone message at noon from Chief of Police Kelly of Woodstock The Times learned that Geo. Collier and his wife, who were arrested there this morning, were taken by Chief Kelly at about 8 a.m.

Chief Kelly received a phone call about 4 this morning from Detective Woodstock that Geo. Collier and his wife, who were arrested there this morning, were taken by Chief Kelly at about 8 a.m.

Cream Puff Wrecks Fast

Jean Wally started out to show French folks he could go without food, drink and sleep for 28 days. But after he spent 12 days in the glass show case shown above, a girl munching a cream puff stopped to look at him. And it was too much! Wally smashed the glass with the chair in which he is shown seated, and rushed wildly out. Police then carried him away in a straw jacket.

TWO GIRLS AND MAN THROUGH ICE IN MILL DAM

Harrison Masceau Nearly Exhausted When Rescued

PERILIOUS TASK

Mildred Meade and Mary Donovan, Pulled From Water, Suffer Little

WILLIAM BACON, a young man of Bellevue avenue, in the Indiantown district, was the means of saving the lives of Mildred Meade, aged 18, also of Bellevue avenue, daughter of Harry Meade; Mary Donovan, a companion of the Meade girl and daughter of Patrick Donovan, Bellevue avenue, as well as Harrison Masceau of Spar Cove road, fireman on the steamer Majestic. All three were rescued yesterday from the waters of Indiantown Creek, the ice of which had been deemed strong enough for skating.

There were about 20 people skating at the time on this narrow width of ice between the rocky hills of Spar Cove Road and the rear of Victoria street, which is known as the Lower Milldam, a creek considered dangerous for skating purposes because of its proximity to Indiantown harbor, depth of salt water and the influence of flowing and ebbing tides upon the stability of the surface.

FOUR THROUGH ICE

John Lannoy, a resident of Spar Cove Road, had crashed through the ice at a point near his own home and William Bacon was hurrying towards his friend to help him out of the water, which was shoulder-high at this point. Noticing that Lannoy was wading ashore unassisted, Bacon skated upstream again. As he approached the upper Milldam he noticed Mildred Meade disappear through a hole in the ice and in reaching clutch the outstretched hand of Miss Donovan. Both girls were immediately immersed in nine feet of water.

Mr. Masceau, who happened to be near the girls when they went through, skated close to the edge and reached towards them as far as he could. The strain upon the ice in his efforts to save the crowd had another collapse of the surface and Masceau too was also soon struggling in the water. In these few seconds of danger Masceau rushed to the large hole and, lying down, reached with a three-foot stick to save the girls.

PRECARIOUS RESCUING

Foot by foot the ice gave way under the rescuer and he was forced to recede as he drew the girls to the edge of the ice, finally getting a foothold strong enough to lift them clear of the water. In the meantime the remainder of the crowd had sought safety on shore as the ice was bending and cracking in all directions. Masceau, who was still in the water assisting the girls, had become so benumbed that he could not clutch the little life-saving stick that Bacon extended to him. Somebody shoved a plank offshore and the almost hapless man wrapped his arms around it and thus drawn to safety.

NO ILL EFFECTS

All parties in this near tragedy of Sunday were revived in their own homes nearby and today the girls

NEW COMMUNITARIAN CHORUS FORMED

Choral Organization Now Has About 100 Voices—Wants 200

F. J. Joyce Chosen President—Father Cloran Patron—Plan City Wide

As an outgrowth of the efforts put forth by the Rev. James Cloran, C. S. R., rector of Saint Peter's church, North End, to inspire a love for community singing such as enjoyed in larger cities on this continent and in the Old Country, a new choral organization has been instituted and for several weeks has been in training for a series of three concerts to be given during the winter. Mr. Courtwright Ewing is the conductor and any profits resulting from the proposed concerts will be devoted to charitable objects on broad lines.

A RE-ORGANIZATION

At a business session of the new organization held last evening, Fred J. Joyce of West Saint John was elected rector, Harold Gillies of Fairville, vice-president; Miss Dorothy Hansen of North End, secretary and Frank De Grasse and Miss Gertrude Ryan of the main section of the city, librarians. The constitution of the singing club states that it is unimpartial and invites the heartiest spirit of co-operation from all who like to sing. It is frankly a move in the direction of good hearty citizenship music.

CHOIRS MERGED

It is natural at the outset that a large number of the new choral organization's members should be members of Saint Peter's parish choir. They were identified with the splendid society under Rev. Father Cloran's baton last season and heard with much acceptance in the Opera House and at the Saint John exhibition. This society has been absorbed, as it were, by the newer body with the addition of vocalists from other religious communities.

WANTS 200 VOICES

There are at present about 100 voices in the new organization and the objective is 200. Happily there is a well-balanced choir with its early date and the endeavor will be to maintain this proper proportion of sopranos, altos, tenors and basses until the complement is reached. The selections in study at the present time are chiefly operatic and of the popular standard class. One religious number—being learned as well, and several pretty carols. Those who have heard the effect of the voices already in training predict some very enjoyable concerts when the new organization makes its public appearance.

FATHER CLORAN RETIRES

Rev. Father Cloran, because of demands made upon his time as rector of the large North End parish, has been forced to relinquish active participation in the work of the new choral body and at yesterday's meeting he was elected patron of the community-singing idea because of his activities last season in proving that such a scheme was practicable. In this work he has had the support of the Rotary Club and other public-spirited bodies. Now that the original choir has been merged with the general-public effort, Father Cloran feels a good start has been made to permanent community work for the betterment of vocal musicianship in Saint John at large.

are back at work. Miss Meade is a clerk in James Murphy's fruit and confection store opposite the car barn site, Main street, Indian town. All the rescued proxy express their heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Bacon for his prompt aid and cool-headed assistance and say their lives were saved through his address. The girls are also thankful to Mr. Masecur for his attempt to save them and his assistance while they were all in the water together.

A WARNING

Residents in the locality of Indian Creek have always warned their children against skating on these waters during high tide as the salty mixture of the stream, mixed with the influence of the outer harbor, does not make good ice and the heave and drop of the surface when the tide flows and ebbs weakens the ice materially.

UNCHANGED TODAY

The condition of His Honor Judge J. R. Armstrong, who is quite ill at his home, King street east, was reported to be unchanged this afternoon.

Gives Report On Unemployment Here

That employment was more prevalent here this month than for the same period last year was said this morning by William J. Ryan, superintendent of the Employment Service of Canada. The fact that two large manufacturing plants had laid off more than 175 employees during the last week had made conditions worse. The continued wet weather during November also played a part as it forced lumbering operations in low lands to be stopped.

Mr. Ryan said that 186 women and 138 men had been placed during the month. The larger portion of the work for the men had been in the casual labor jobs around the city. The only prospect at present, he said, was for a good winter port as little construction work is in evidence. There were 323 persons on the books, he declared, and this represented only about one-third of the men out of work in the city at present. During October there had been a gain of one per cent in employment over 1924 but, he said, the November result would be adverse.

A. C. D. BLANCHARD ON WITNESS STAND

Ingewood Case Goes on This Afternoon—Likely Finish This Week

A. C. D. Blanchard, hydraulic engineer of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, was the first witness for the defence Saturday afternoon before Mr. Justice LeBlanc in the arbitration hearing of the claim against the Commission by the Ingewood Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd. for compensation in connection with the Musquash development. Mr. Blanchard's evidence was largely of a technical nature. The hearing is to be resumed this afternoon here and is expected to finish some time this week.

ENGINEER ON STAND

Mr. Blanchard said he was employed by the commission in 1924. In answer to J. D. P. Lewis, who conducted the examination, he gave figures in regard to run-offs and precipitation. He gave as his opinion that Sherwood Lake would yield 40,000,000 gallons of water to the development and estimated dam construction there at $87,000. A power house, pipe line etc., would run $200,000 or around $800 per h.p. Cross-examination was conducted by G. H. Montgomery, C. C. leading counsel for the company. Mr. Blanchard was on the stand when the hearing adjourned Saturday afternoon.

TELLS OF RECENT WINNIPEG MEETING

J. D. McKenna Addresses Rotary Club on Splendid Work of Maritime Delegation

Declaring that more good work had been accomplished in three days than there would be in parliament in the next three months, J. D. McKenna told the Rotary Club members at their luncheon today of the achievements at the recent conference of Boards of Trade held at Winnipeg.

DEEPLY IN EARNEST

There never was a more earnest body of men than the score that represented the Maritime Provinces, said Mr. McKenna, and it was to their credit that the feeling that the Maritimes were complaining had been overcome, and had been able to show the delegates from the rest of Canada that the Maritimes had a just claim to recognition and a right to a fair share in the fruits of Confederation.

TRANSPORTATION

The whole question, declared Mr. McKenna, was one of transportation. He pointed to the greater volume of traffic slated to come over the Canadian railways through Eastern Canada ports this winter, and emphasized the economic importance of over 80 additional sailings scheduled during the winter season at Saint John.

THE EMPEROR STEAMSHIPS

The steamer Emperor of Frederick arrived yesterday and immediately went to the dry dock at Courtenay Bay to undergo some engine repairs. She will sail later this week to inaugurate the Canada-Cuba Line service between this port and Cuba. The Emperor of Havana of this line is due here tomorrow from Cornerbrook, Nfld., and the Emperor of Saint John on Wednesday from Montreal for this company. The other vessels of this service will also be here soon.

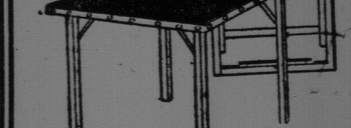

MRS. ELLEN RYAN IS DEAD

The death of Mrs. Ellen Ryan, widow of Michael Ryan, occurred at an early hour this morning at her residence, 201 Duke street, after a short illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Ryan was a daughter of the late Timothy and Mary Slavin. She is survived by two sons, John, of Los Angeles, and Stephen, at home, and three daughters, Kathleen, of Boston, and the Misses Annie and Mary, at home. Mrs. Ryan was well known and will be missed by a large circle of friends. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning.

X-RAY TAKEN

Mrs. George Weldon, who was hit by the engine of the suburban train Saturday at Hampton and brought to the General Public Hospital for treatment, was reported to be resting fairly comfortably today. An X-ray was taken this morning to determine the extent of the injuries received, but the report had not been received at noon.

CHURCH ELDERS ARE DICTATED

Dr. C. G. Corbet and James Scott at St. Matthew's Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison Speaks of Their Office at Morning Service

"Magnific God, Who of His mercy hath called you to rule within His church. Be faithful to your vocation. Show yourself zealous to promote virtue, fear not the faces of the wicked, but rebuke their wickedness. Be merciful to the poor, and support them to the uttermost of your power, and so shall you receive the benediction of God, present and everlasting." It was with these stirring words of John Knox that Rev. J. A. Morison concluded his address to the newly inducted elders in Saint Matthew's church yesterday morning.

The elders having answered in the affirmative, the following question was put to the members of St. Matthew's church, and they signified their assent by standing.

"Do you, the members of this church, receive these brethren as ruling elders, and do you promise to yield them all that honor, encouragement and obedience in the Lord to which their office according to the Word of God and the constitution of the church entitles them?"

The induction prayer was offered by the minister, and the right hand of fellowship extended to the newly inducted elders by the session.

ADDRESSES ELDERS. In the course of his address to the elders, Rev. Dr. Morison said, in part: "As in the Old Testament the elders exercised an honorable office of government among the people of God, so also in the New Testament the apostles ordained elders in every church, commanding that they that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in word and doctrine; therefore this church from the beginning included in her government not only ministers who are to preach the gospel and administer the sacraments in the name of Christ and as His representatives, but also ruling elders, chosen by the people to represent them and to be joined with the ministers in the exercise of government and discipline in the church."

"These ruling elders in each congregation, together with the ministers, constitute the session, to whom it is committed to admit and exclude members, to regulate the worship, guard the doctrine, direct the activity, and conserve the interests of the congregation. The elders are also to represent their brethren in presbyteries, synods, and general assemblies, when commissioned thereto."

Dr. Morison spoke of the Catholicity of the Presbyterian Church and traced vividly but briefly some of the great services rendered by her to the cause of civil and religious liberty. His discourse at times was critical. Some matters usually discussed among theologians were elucidated under his scholarly treatment. He spoke of the work of the church in Europe and America and referred to the fact that the constitution of the United States of America was very largely modelled after that of the Presbyterian Church. Particularly appealing was the indiction hymn sung by the large vested choir.

"Wisdom and zeal and faith impart, Firmness with meekness from above, To hear Thy people on their heart And love the souls whom Thou hast loved."

BAPTISM. The Sacrament of Baptism was administered to Constance Doreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Roberts. The congregation was large, filling nearly every seat in the church. For the first time the new pipeless furnace was in use, and it demonstrated its ability to warm the auditorium most comfortably.

WINS $125,000 PRIZE AND KILLS HIMSELF. MUNICH, Nov. 30.—An Italian merchant, living in Munich, won the equivalent of $125,000 as first prize in a lottery, but, soon after receiving news of his winning, he committed suicide in despair.

It appears that, when he bought his lottery ticket as a joke, he signed a statement before witnesses that in case he should win he would give half of his prize to the Society of Munich Chimney-sweeps and the rest of it to the breweries.

CAT BLAMED FOR DEATH OF OWNER FROM GAS. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A pet cat is believed to have caused the death of Ansdale Davis, 63, and the illness of his wife, Rose, 60, who were found unconscious from gas in the bedroom of their apartment in Brooklyn. A patrolman who broke into their apartment, succeeded in getting Mrs. Davis to respond to treatment, but her husband was beyond help.

A curious case of animal friendship is reported from Plymouth, England, where "Laddie," a greyhound, recently caught a young fox. The fox has now become fast friends with all the dogs in the kennels on the estate of Laddie's master. The picture shows the fox and one of the smaller pets.

ONE PER CENT OF WORLD JEWISH

Total Number on Globe is Placed at 14,163,543

Small Percentage Returning to Palestine Under English Mandate

GENEVA, Nov. 30.—The Jewish population of the entire world is now placed at 14,163,543 according to statistics compiled in Jewish circles here. This constitutes about 1 per cent of the entire population of the world. Of this total Jewish population 9,232,576 inhabit Europe, being divided amongst the various European countries as follows: Poland, 2,829,456; Russia, 5,283,324; Ukraine, 1,772,449; Roumania, 834,344; Germany, 575,000; Hungary, 473,000; Czechoslovakia, 354,842; Austria, 300,000; Great Britain, 280,000; France, 160,000. The Jewish population of the United States is placed at 9,500,000. Out of this world-wide Jewish population a certain percentage, although small, is returning to Palestine in the effort to establish a national Jewish home under the English mandate. It is apparent however that this can never embrace more than an almost insignificant percentage of the entire race. At the time of the armistice in 1918 the Jewish population of Palestine was estimated at 35,000. This has now increased to 125,000. Against this Jewish element the Arabs in Palestine number something like 645,000. The Jewish population, however, is rapidly establishing itself in all of the branches of commerce, industry, agriculture and finance in the little state.

MAYNES APPOINTED RHODES SCHOLAR

Saint John Student of Saint F.X. University Chosen in N. S.

HALIFAX, Nov. 29.—William J. Maynes, of Saint John, has been appointed Nova Scotia's Rhodes Scholar for 1926, according to an announcement made here tonight by Chief Justice Harris, chairman of the provincial committee. Mr. Maynes is a well known athlete, having been a member of Canada's 1924 Olympic team. He studied at the University of St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, N. B., and at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N. S., graduating from the latter in Arts in 1924. He was editor-in-chief of the St. Francis Xavier Nexus, a year book, last year. He taught school at Lewisville, Me., and since his graduation has studied botany and anthropology at Harvard University.

There were 12 applicants for the scholarship awarded to Mr. Maynes. It was learned in a message received here yesterday from Halifax. These applicants represented St. Francis Xavier, Dalhousie, King's and Acadia universities.

The news that Maynes had been selected was received with delight here. He has long been prominent in athletics, and has many friends and admirers. He has not done any running since the Irish games, which he entered after the Olympics last year, being occupied largely with teaching and post-graduate studies at Harvard, but he will likely take to the sinder path again when he goes to Oxford next fall.

THE WINTER PORTS.

Saint John looks forward confidently to an exceptionally busy winter port season. The number of sailings scheduled for the regular liners is much larger than last year, and it is anticipated that the number of tramp steamers coming to the port between now and April will also be greater.

and it will be sure that it will "bear." There is no more healthful exercise, and in our climate the sport is attractive and exhilarating. With due precautions early in the season it should be possible for the young folk to have their seasonal joy and still avoid the peril which is usually greatest at the time of the first cold snap.

MONTE ROSE HAS GOOD VOYAGE TO START SEASON

First Passenger Liner for 1925-26 Docks at Saint John

BUSY SCENE AT WEST END PIER

Family Detained as Child is Ill—Winterport Workers Welcomed

The C. P. S. liner Montrose, Captain E. Landy in command, arrived yesterday morning from Liverpool via Belfast and Greenock, and is the first passenger ship for the 1925-26 season to reach this port.

The officers of the Montrose are: E. Landy, commander; W. Prentice, chief officer; E. H. Stanley, chief engineer; G. Crawford, purser; E. W. Drury, surgeon; R. H. Kirkpatrick, chief steward; Mrs. G. Horton, conductress; J. T. Campbell, rail lines ticket agent.

IMMIGRATION EXAMINATION. The big liner had good weather during almost the entire voyage, and nothing of an unusual nature happened on the trip, which was enjoyed by all on board.

TWO SPECIAL TRAINS. The work was handled promptly by all officials with the result that in the early afternoon the westbound passengers were being carried to their destinations on two special C. P. R. trains.

A woman and four children were detained by Dr. Rutherford, the port physician and taken to the detention hospital on Partridge Island because one of the children was ill.

After landing passengers, mails and baggage at Nos. 2 and 3 berths, South Point, the Montrose was shifted across the slip to No. 6 berth, where she will discharge and load general cargo.

As soon as the large liner was successfully docked, steamship and railway officials became actively engaged arranging for the disembarkation of the passengers and the handling of their baggage.

FOR TRAIN JOURNEY. In the large P. building, Miss Tremaine, H. N., and her family were on hand caring for the wants of mothers and their little ones, while downstairs in the spacious baggage room a large staff of employees were hurrying around sorting and arranging baggage and making preparations for the two outgoing special trains.

AMONG THE PASSENGERS. Prominent among the passengers were J. W. Hobbs, of Toronto; H. T. Jamieson, Dr. W. H. Hinks, Col. Walter Gow, K. C., also of Toronto; W. J. Moore, of Montreal; N. Z. L. E. Harcourt, of Hartlepool; J. M. Roe, of Winnipeg; R. H. Judson and R. T. Judson, of Chicago; E. G. Dew, of London; Sir G. A. Thomas and party of bedouin players from London; M. M. Bernstein, of Montreal; A. Briggs, of Oldham; Miss B. B. B. of Dartmouth; Mrs. W. N. Dawson, of Huddersfield; Rev. A. Flagberg, of Oslo, and Miss A. M. Ricard, of Montreal.

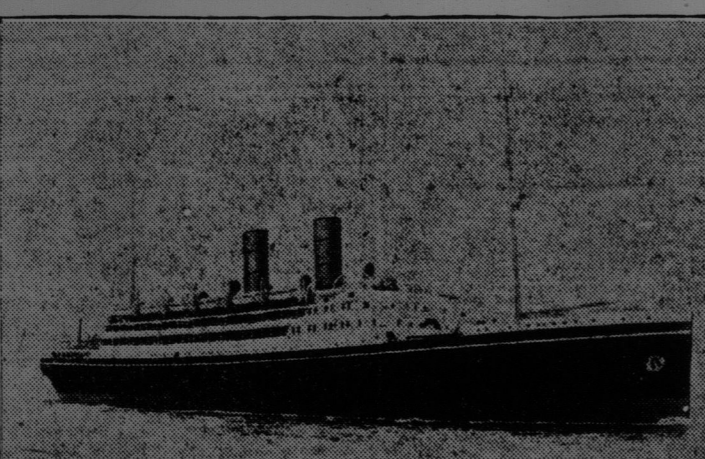

YOUTHFUL TRAVELERS. Among the passengers were seven unaccompanied children—Sadie Hoos, aged nine years was en route to Sevens, Sask.; Richard and Dennis McCluskie, aged 15 and 18, for Qu'Appelle, Sask.; John Henry Grant, aged 11, for Kitchissippi, Ont.; Edna May Byron, aged 16, for Fort William; Ernest Murphy, aged 17, for Detroit, and Maggie Elliott, aged 17, for Montreal.

LOOKS GOOD FOR SHEEP. W. J. Moore, of Makuri, New Zealand, another prominent passenger on his steamer, said that he came to Canada because it is so much shorter than any other possible route to his distant home. He had been in England visiting relatives and friends and is now returning to continue his work of caring for some large ranches. At the present time he runs over 8,000 sheep and has hundreds of acres of land tilled for farming purposes.

Speaking of Canada, he said it is a wonderful country and he intends to advise all his friends in New Zealand to visit here. Speaking about the sheep raising industry in New Zealand, he said their exports last year reached the ten million mark and their wool exports fifteen millions. From what he could see of New Brunswick during his trip up the Bay of Fundy, he said it should be an ideal place for sheep raising.

PARENTS NEW BRUNSWICKERS. Another prominent passenger was H. L. Harrison, who was a member of the

Weddings

Barton-Evans. A pretty wedding took place on Saturday evening in St. Mary's church when Harry W. Barton and Helen Evans were united in marriage by the Rev. R. Taylor McKim.

The bride is the daughter of the late Capt. George E. Evans and was employed by the Mutual Life Insurance Company as cashier. Mr. Barton is an employe of the Saint John Globe, lay-reader in St. Bartholomew's church, Collibrook, and member of St. Mary's Band. The church was very prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums and potted plants and ferns.

O'Neil-McLean. NEWCASTLE, Nov. 29.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock Thursday morning by Father Burns, when Miss Lillian McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loran McLean, Chelmsford, and Stanley O'Neil, son of Mrs. and the late Peter O'Neil, Chelmsford, were married.

She leaves her husband, eight sons, James, John, Harry, William, George, Walter, Joseph and Arthur, and one daughter, Mrs. William Golding, all of Saint John; one brother, Robert J. Malcolm, and two sisters, Mrs. Annie Arsenau, of Saint John, and Mrs. Mary Callen, of Hartford, Conn. She leaves also 80 grandchildren.

Mrs. M. Hilton. Mrs. Margaret Hilton, a well known citizen of the North End, passed away last night at her home following an illness of about two years. She was the last of an old and respected North End family and the news of her death will be heard with regret by many.

Rev. T. C. Mellor. ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Nov. 29.—Rev. Thomas C. Mellor, 64, rector of St. Luke's Anglican church in Annapolis, died today in Toronto, following a prolonged illness, according to word received here tonight.

LOCKY JUDGE IN ROOM. BRENTFORD, Eng., Nov. 30.—A man here locked the judge and counsel of the Brentford County Court in a room at the top of a building. He was arrested and sentenced on a charge of contempt of court. The sentence was rescinded when the man apologized.

UNDERGROUND LAKE. ATHENS, Nov. 30.—An underground lake of considerable size has been discovered under the surface of 2,000 acres of land near Gropo. Scientists are puzzled as to the manner in which the thin crust of earth has withstood collapse. Part of the underground lake is thought beneath the sea.

LONDON MEAT BILL CUT. LONDON, Nov. 30.—London citizens are losing their reputation as big meat eaters. Figures issued by the London Central Meat Markets show that the sale of meat in London for the first half of the present year decreased by 14,963 tons, or five per cent. over a similar period of the preceding year.

RIDES FAST SCOOTER. LONDON, Nov. 30.—Sidney Russell, age three and a half years, decided to go for a pleasure spin on his scooter and traveled more than four miles before he was discovered missing from his home. Little Sidney says he wants to be an auto racer when he grows up.

WOMEN WANT SCHOOLS. CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 30.—Enrollment at Constantinople College for Women is the highest in history. Of the 398 students one-third are Turkish. This is taken as indicative of the growing freedom of Turkish women.

TEA SUCCESSFUL. The annual tea and sale held by the Trinity Church Girls' W. A. was a general success Saturday. The decorated convener was Miss Bertha Holder, and the tea convener was Miss Dorothy Robson. The fancy work table was in charge of Miss Paton, the candy table under Miss Alice Hoyt, while the home cooking table was presided over by Miss Ida Northrup. The tea was poured by Mrs. C. Gordon Lawrence and Mrs. D. A. Schofield, and the ices were cut by Mrs. H. H. Pickett and Mrs. J. Robertson.

HUGE AIRSHIP PLANNED. MOSCOW, Nov. 30.—It is said here that the Soviet government through the Inventions Commission has agreed to provide funds to build a giant metal airship capable of carrying 1,000 people.

NEAR DEATH IN PLUNGE OF AUTO

Mrs. Rebecca Wood and Daughter in Accident at Acamac

Car, Crowded to Side, Goes Into Brook—Rescue is Timely.

Mrs. Rebecca Wood and her daughter, 122 Princess street, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon when their crowded automobile, No. 8,510, went over the end of the bridge at Acamac and turned over in the brook below. Mrs. Wood and her daughter were the only occupants of the car and luckily escaped with a shaking up and a drenching. They were assisted from the wrecked car by Raymond Findley and Frank Keating of Acamac, and brought to their home in an automobile which was passing. The car was brought to the city by a wrecking car from the M. and M. Motors Co.

Message To Empire Issued By His Majesty

People Told King Receives Help in Sorrow From Flood of Sympathy Reaching Him; He Rejoices That His Mother Enjoyed Constant and Warm Affections of Subjects

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Nov. 29.—Responding to the many expressions of condolence on the death of his mother, Dowager Queen Alexandra, King George today issued a message to the Empire, reading as follows:

"To my people: "In my great sorrow I am helped by the flood of sincere and generous sympathy reaching me from every quarter of the British Empire and indeed from all parts of the world. While deeply grateful for these expressions of good will, I also rejoice that my beloved mother enjoyed the constant and warm affection of my people. It is such proofs of allegiance to my throne and family that have given me confidence and strength in the many anxious days I have had to face during the last 15 years. (Signed) "George R. I."

War on Rats Being Waged in Hull. LONDON, Nov. 30.—In two days 166 rats were killed by three workmen with three dogs in a suburban store yard, and within a short time in a further attack on the same premises 141 rats were caught. A few days ago 22 rats were caught in a private house. A baby's woollen cap was found under the floor by the rat catcher. In a wholesale provision warehouse 15 bags of sugar and ground rice were ripped open by rats and wasted.

RICH, DIES IN POVERTY. LONDON, Nov. 30.—When an elderly woman died in her scantily-furnished rooms in Reform road, Maidenhead, a relieving officer found more than $10,000 hidden in a corded box in the room. The woman had received parish and medical relief, but seldom spoke to those about her, living the life of a recluse.

A Happy Marriage is What Every Human Heart Craves, and While Few May Be Lucky Enough to Find Their Ideal Mate, Yet Imperfection and the Consolation Prize of Children are Worth the Gamble.

"IF YOU want to be happy, is it better to marry or stay single?" asks a correspondent. To marry.

In spite of the fact that marriage has in it the potentialities of heaven or hell, and that one marriage out of every twelve ends in divorce, the risks are worth taking.

There is no other happiness in the world to be compared with that of the man and woman who are really mated, who find in each other a satisfying comradeship; who know that between them exists a love that will endure while life lasts and who give to each other a perfect loyalty and tenderness and sympathy and understanding.

It is what every heart craves. It is what every man and woman seeks, and a few are lucky enough to find it. It is because the capital prize in the matrimonial lottery is so great and rich that it makes it worthwhile to take a chance in the greatest gamble on earth.

DOROTHY DIX BUT even those whose matches were not made in heaven, even those who get a pretty poor sort of makeshift, husbands and wives are, as a rule, happier than they would be single. The Creator, looking upon the world, is not satisfied with the lot of the man and woman who are not mated. Paradise was not made for him unless there was a woman in it, and so Adam was given a wife equipped with all the faults and virtues that have characterized wives ever since.

She lost the man his Garden of Eden home, and yet he was happier working and earning his bread by the sweat of his brow and blaming all of their troubles on Eve than he was at a rich and careless single man living a lonely life of luxurious ease.

AND that state of affairs is typical still of the old maid and the old bachelor. The men and women who do not marry play safe. They take no risk on getting incongruous husbands and wives. Their freedom is absolute. No nagging wife nor tyrannical husband can raise ructions about their comings and goings. They can spend their money in gratifying their own desires, instead of having it go for the support of a family. On the other hand, however, they know the loneliness of those who have no ties. They are free because nobody cares whether they live or die. They have no obligations to others, but they neither love nor are loved. They have their cake, but it has no flavor because they are forced to eat it alone.

No selfish, self-centred person is ever happy. No matter how much we worship ourselves, it is not enough. We must have human ties, we must have love. We must have the interest of others, and we must love and be interested in other people. Our soul's satisfaction demands it, and that is why many men and women who are happier married than single, even if they have failed in getting their heart's desire in their wives and husbands.

AND there are the consolation prizes in the children. The woman who has her baby's head upon her breast, the man who gets the thrill of clinging little arms about his neck, have tasted a joy that the old maid and the bachelor never know. Many a marriage that is a failure, so far as bringing the individual husband and wife any happiness, a grand and glorious success in the children. They give them, and they get a joy out of their splendid boys and girls that nothing else in the world could have brought them.

Marriage is an education in the humanities. The unmarried know only the outside of life, but the married piece it to its centre. Marriage brings out all that is best and worst in people, and only husbands and wives know the heights of nobility to which human nature can reach and the depths of depravity to which it can fall.

Under the stress of matrimony the cowards and the weaklings turn quitters, but in those of stronger fiber it develops all that is best in their characters. It is the fire that burns out the dross and leaves the fine gold. The sacrifices it demands; the unselfishness, the labor, the patience and the forbearance it enforces makes fine porcelain out of common clay and often turns ordinary people into saints and martyrs.

THE men and women who have endured thirty or forty years of unhappy wedlock, who have borne with peevish, fretful, complaining wives or surly, stingy, abusive husbands may not have had a happy life, but they are heroes whose courage puts that of any bemedaled soldier to shame, and they will have stars in their crown in heaven that will make those of the old maid and the old bachelor philanthropist look like tin-pan halos.

Kipling says "they travel the fastest who travel alone" toward the goal of success. This is true for women, but not for men. The woman who wishes to succeed should not marry because husbands and homes and babies are not compatible. Marriage handicaps a woman, but it is a spur in the side of a man.

MANY a man who has little ambition for himself strives for power and place in order to give it to the woman he loves. Many a man is driven on to make the effort that carries him to fortune by the necessities of his family and his desire to give his wife and children the best of everything.

Call the roster of great men and you will find that nearly all of them are married. So, taking it by and large, married people are happier and more successful than single ones. Marriage is worth trying once, anyway. DOROTHY DIX. Copyright by Public Ledger Company.

SEE-SAWING up and down Broadway and they tell me he was an honored guest at a night club named after one of the southern states. . . . Saw Wm. K. Vanderbilt playing host to a large party at the Club Mirador. . . .

BROADWAY is getting the Florida bug. Waiters, entertainers, orchestras, cafe owners, salesgirls, actors, millionaires or what have you have started such a trek that the night life of the great winter resorts soon will be flooded with Broadwayites.

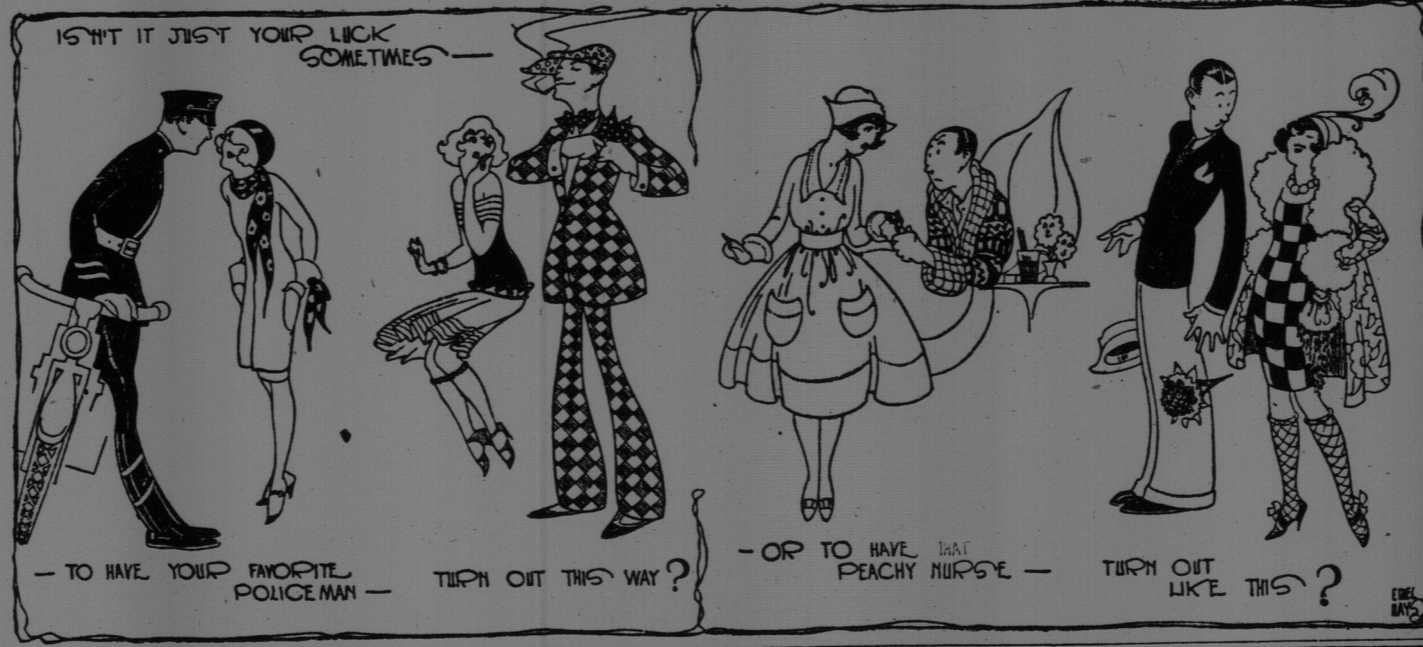

Wise ones wink and predict that many will come walking back. Competition is likely to be so strong that only the hardest will survive, they say.

However, some already are splitting large sums said to have been made in real estate. I am told that Florence Mills, the amazing young colored entertainer, has cleaned up something like $200,000 and that Thomas Meighan, the movie star, has been fishing a bit and caught something like $100,000.

JAMES W. DEAN. MISSIONS APPEALS. Yesterday was observed in the Anglican churches of the city both as Advent Sunday and as the Sunday nearest St. Andrew's Day, on which there is special intercession for missions. Special appeals were made for support of missionary and extra-parochial funds.

CALLED HOME. Miss Gladys Baxter, of New York, and Dr. Murray Baxter, of Fredericton, N.L., arrived on Saturday at the home of their parents, 105 Union street, being called here on account of the serious illness of their father, Dr. G. O. Baxter.

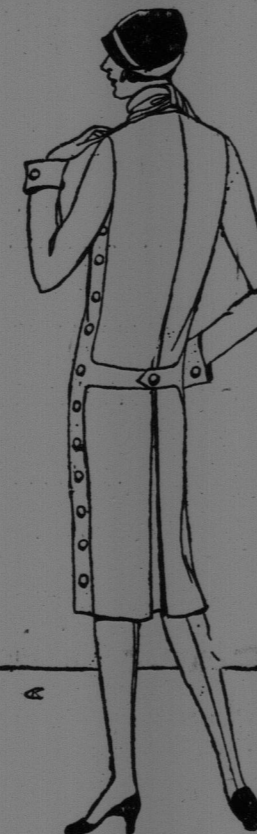

Life's Uncertainties

Your Birthday

November 30—You are hasty-tempered, but you are not obstinate. You have good brain-power, and will succeed in most things. You have a good circle of friends who respect and like you. Your home life should be most happy. Your birth-stone is the topaz, which means fidelity. Your flower is the chrysanthemum. Your lucky color is grey.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

TWEED coats are the smartest things to wear shopping in town. This vogue was started by the Parisienne, and it is a most attractive one.

The coat above, or plain gray tweed, tailored on mannish lines, is a smart example. There is enough feminine charm about it, to be sure, given in part at least, by the buttons covered in gray tweed which extend down the side of the coat.

Note the inverted pleat at the back for extra fullness.

Family Menus

- Breakfast: Fresh Fruit, Wheat Cereal, Cream, Pancakes, Maple Syrup, Bacon, Luncheon, Sorrel Soup, Croutons, Macaroni, "Gonoforoni", Cottage Cheese, Currant Jelly, Endive Salad, Crackers, Tea, Honey, Dinner, Fried Chicken, Baked Potatoes, Boiled Endive, Sliced Beets in Vinegar and Caraway Seeds, Dinner Rolls, Baked Apples, Whipped Cream, Tea.

TODAY'S RECIPES.

- Sorrel Soup—Cut up one cup of sorrel leaves. Put in iron frying pan with two level tablespoons butter. Let heat for a few minutes till water does not brown. Add three cups milk and enough flour to make like thick cream. Salt, pepper to taste. Macaroni Gonoforoni—Boil macaroni in salted water. Drain and saute a large chopped onion in four tablespoons of olive oil or oil substitute. When a light brown add mushrooms (if dried, soak for one hour), cook two minutes. Then stir in macaroni a can of tomato soup or the equivalent in raw tomatoes. Heat and serve. Grated cheese may also be added. Honey Toast—Butter a dripping pan. Dip buttered stale bread quickly in milk, spread with honey and brown in hot oven. Ox Eyes—Cut circles from inch thick slices of bread. Hollow out centre and break an egg in each. Add salt, pepper, bits of butter. Cover with milk and bake until brown. Pumpkin Tarts—Two cups pumpkin cooked, strained and well browned in an iron kettle, two cups rich milk, two eggs, one cup sugar, one teaspoon ginger, two teaspoons cinnamon, one tablespoon butter melted and browned. Line muffin tin with rich pastry, fill with above mixture and bake. This recipe will make twelve to sixteen large tarts. Serve plain or topped with whipped cream and a dab of jelly.

Jackie Coogan's Older But He's Still Good

THE succession of Jackie Coogan's pictures, the latest of which is "Old Clothes," have a two-fold interest. They invariably entertain. And they afford a rare opportunity to watch the development, from the bud of a gifted personality seemingly destined to stand dramatically eminent in maturity. Each new offering shows him seemingly an inch taller and certainly of larger stature as an actor. The transition from the intuitive dramatic expression of precocious childhood to the self-conscious behavior of the young actor has been noticeably speeded up in his last two performances, "The Rag Man" and "Old Clothes," its sequel.

But for a youngster of Coogan's years, this self-consciousness is remarkably subdued. Even in the awareness itself there is the realization of how he can emotionally sway others, and why. Jackie is already a master of pantomime. He has a canny knowledge of how emotions are agitated, in terms of laughter. And this has enabled him completely to outdistance those other bewildered children of the movies whose fond mammae sought to hitch them to Jackie's cinematic cart.

Timely Views On World Topics

ASKING whether China could not obtain justice at the hands of the nations of the world without strife and the development of military power, Dr. Fung Wen Kuo, president of Nanking University was applauded at a recent speech in this country.

"It has been said that there is no stable government in China," said Dr. Kuo. "China cannot develop a stable government as long as there is foreign interference. Give her free hand and see what she can do. Who will do this interference? Will it be the foreign powers that have a hold in China or will the people themselves have a right to determine when that interference will stop? Why is it that these things have happened in China? Why do the people allow these injustices? The answer is plain, China's military incompetency. China is a peace loving country. Her philosophers have taught us peace and the greatest advantage of peace. If China must become a military nation like Japan to obtain many of these things, then China must grow strong.

China Capable of Self-government. "Isn't there another answer? I think there is. Can't we appeal to reason, to the conscience of nations and their sense of right and wrong?"

The Chinese, Dr. Kuo continued, felt deeply their loss of power and to them it was a national disgrace. They have, however, learned many lessons, and it was because of these lessons, and it was because of these lessons, that they have set about reforming and "the tide has turned." The greatest reform of reform, he said, was the overthrow of the old monarchy in 1911. Other reforms undertaken, Dr. Kuo continued, were the reorganization of the educational system, the sending of many students abroad, the building of good roads and the reform of the judicial system. He added that the present troubles in China should not be taken as meaning that China was not capable of self-government.

Tiresome. (G. K. Chesterton.) "It seems to me that people have found out that certain things give them pleasure, and go on doing those same things until they become tiresome, and even torturing. It's as if a person who admired the colors in a picture splashed those same colors all over the wall on which the picture was hung. Such people, it seems to me, have discarded as old-fashioned the instincts by which our fathers found their way to enjoyment, and have invented a psychology of enjoyment, with, apparently, very distressing results."

"How to deal with this unhappy and undisciplined generation is a difficult matter, but Chesterton is clear on one point—that the laudator temporis acti principle is of no avail. "It is defensible to say to a young lady who makes up her face at the dinner-table, and denies the existence of God between the puffs of her cigarette, that she is slightly ridiculous; but it is dangerous, and certainly useless, to tell her that her grandmother was a far nicer person."

A Thought

Wee unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth.—Isaiah 54:11.

With The Women of Today

THE devastating days of the world war almost erased from people's minds the lesser but hardly less bitter war that the militant suffragist in England was waging to gain the vote for women. The names of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and her daughters, Christabel and Sylvia, were frequently seen in print in connection with acts of violence, arrests, hunger strikes, etc., all for "the cause." The great war engulfed England and the militant suffragists joined their milder sisters in patriotic work for their country.

In a recent article Sylvia Pankhurst traced the growth of women's position since those pre-war days, and the benefits that accrued through the efforts of the militants. "After a great struggle," she says, "to women and they obtained the right to practice medicine and surgery, but not to be barristers or solicitors. Then the government granted women the vote. The vote was won after 52 years of continuous agitation, but the franchise is not yet equal. English women cannot vote until they are 30 years old, and even then a woman must be a householder or the wife of a householder; or she must occupy land or premises of the yearly value of five pounds; or be the wife of a man who does; or she must hold a university degree."

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

ALI BABA'S GARDEN.

"Is there more to the story about All Baba?" Nick asked the picture lady. "I should say there is," replied Morgiana, for that was her name. "Why, I have scarcely begun! Let me see, I got to the place where All Baba went into the Robbers' cave after they had gone, and helped himself to their gold, didn't I?" "Yes," said Nancy eagerly. "What happened then?" "Well, All Baba went home and told his wife. But she let the secret out to Cassim, All Baba's brother. "Now Cassim was rich," went on Morgiana, "but he was greedy, too, and he wanted more gold. "So he hunted up the rock cave himself and said the magic words, 'Open Sesame,' and got in. "But when he had filled his bags with the robbers' gold, and started to leave, he had forgotten the magic words to open the door. And there he had to stay. "When the robbers returned they found him there and killed him."

"My goodness!" exclaimed Nancy. "That was too bad!" "Yes, it was," sighed Morgiana, "and when All Baba went to hunt for him and found him, he felt perfectly terrible. "But he took him home to bury him, and that's the way the robbers found out where All Baba lived. They knew that someone had taken part of their gold and when they found that it was All Baba, they decided to kill him, too!" "Oh, goodness!" said Nancy. "I hope they didn't!" "No, I saved him," said Morgiana proudly. "It was this way. The captain of the thieves had a lot of big jars made. Indeed, these are the very jars here that you see in the garden. Inside of each jar he hid a thief, all except one jar, which he filled with oil. Then he rubbed all the other jars with oil on the outside as though they were filled with it, too. "Then he dressed himself up like an oil merchant. That night he loaded the jars on mules and came to All Baba's gate. All Baba had a fine house now and a big garden with a well around it. This is the garden that you are in now."

"What happened then?" asked Nick eagerly. "The robber captain begged All Baba to take him in for the night," said Morgiana, "and to make room in his garden for the mules and oil-jars. It was really just a trick to get inside the gate. "Poor Mister All Baba consented gladly, and took him in and gave him a good room and bed. "But that night my lamp went out," said Morgiana, "and I thought of the merchant's oil-jars. So out I went to the garden to get a little. There I discovered that instead of oil the big jars held thieves. I knew then that they had come to kill my master."

"Oh, what did you do?" asked Nick. "I didn't like to do it," said Morgiana, "but I had to save All Baba some way. I heated the oil and poured a little in each jar and fastened the lids down tight. That put an end to the robbers. The captain got away, however."

"Is that all?" asked the Twins. "Just about," smiled Morgiana. "If you ever come back, I'll tell you the rest again. But there is Mister Blue Cap. You must go now."

AMHERST MINISTER DELIVERS SERMONS

Rev. W. H. Heartz Heard in East Saint John by Large Number

The United church at East Saint John observed its first anniversary yesterday. Large congregations assembled at both services to hear the stirring messages of Rev. W. H. Heartz, D. D., of Amherst, N. S., who was the special preacher of the day.

63 YEARS A MINISTER.

Rev. W. H. Heartz has been 63 years in the active ministry, and despite his advancing years, preaches with vigor. Some 38 years ago he was pastor of Exmouth street church. He was one of a committee who had to do with the organizing of the Y. M. C. A. in the city of Saint John. At the present time he holds the relationship of conference evangelist.

The young congregation of the United church at East Saint John was formed one year ago and during this time has done splendid work and advanced in all parts of its church organization. It has a flourishing Sunday school, a Woman's Missionary Society, a Ladies' Aid, A. C. G. I. T., and a Girls' Club. The outlook for the future is very bright.

Preceding the evening service there was a song service of familiar hymns led by Miss Fernie Pepper, organist of the church.

PROGRAM ENJOYED.

The King's Daughters' musical afternoon held yesterday at the Old adieu Home was a great success. The choir of Tabernacle Baptist church rendered anthems and solos were sung by Miss Ethel Ketradeal, Peter Murray and others. Nice duets were sung by Mrs. Goggin and Miss Snodgrass, followed by the Misses Evangeline and George McKay. The program was provided by the Good Cheer Circle.

LOSES MANUSCRIPT.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The only manuscript of a new musical comedy was lost, somewhere in London. It was that of a play by P. G. Wodehouse and Guy Bolton, and contained many adaptations for its presentation as a musical show.

North Shore Division C.G.I.T. Hold Successful Conference; Saint John Woman Presides

Miss Mary Bond, of Campbellton, Elected President—Delegates Enjoy Three-Day Program—Miss Marjorie Trotter, of Saint John, Chairman

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 29.—The North Shore division of the C. G. I. T. held a conference in the St. Andrew's United Hall Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Delegates and leaders from Chatham, Bathurst, Charlo, Dalhousie, Tide Head, Flatlands, Matapedia, Oak Bay Mills and the Campbellton Baptist, Wesley United and St. Andrew's United were present.

This conference is the eighth of a series of 14 to be held in the Maritimes and was presided over by Miss Marjorie Trotter, secretary for girls' work, Maritime Religious Education Council, of Saint John. Chatham was represented by 12 delegates under the leadership of Mrs. M. S. McDonald and Miss Vernie Stewart; Bathurst had six delegates under the leadership of Mrs. McMillan, Miss Ruth Gifford and Miss Branch; Charlo had four delegates; Dalhousie had two; Tide Head had eight, under Mrs. E. V. Forbes; Flatlands and Matapedia had two representatives each; Oak Bay Mills, represented by two, under Mrs. H. F. Fair.

The Campbellton churches, Baptist, Wesley United and St. Andrew's United, were represented by 60 delegates under Mrs. W. S. Godfrey, Mrs. W. H. Sharpe, Mrs. R. B. Gerrard, Mrs. D. J. Dewar, Mrs. B. Sumner, Mrs. H. McEneaney and Miss M. E. Keith, who acted as registrar. The conference was opened Friday evening at 7 o'clock with the registration of the different delegates. At the close of the registration, Miss Lillian Sadler, of Chatham, told a story of Helen Montgomery, the noted authoress.

Velma Fitzgerald, of Tide Head, told a story of Jennie Lynn, the Swedish singer. Mary Kane, of Campbellton, told a story of Pauline Johnson, the Indian story teller. The closing exercises next took place.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

In the election of officers, Miss Mary Bond, of Bathurst, was elected president and Miss Dorothy Miller, of Campbellton, was elected secretary.

WINDOW BROKEN.

Police Constable Durning reports that at 6:20 o'clock last evening a plate glass window in the Olympic Fruit store at 10 Dock street was broken when a drunken man had fallen against it. Shortly after two men were arrested on Union street and it is believed that one of them is responsible for the damage. The officer notified an employee of the store who attended to the boarding up of the window.

PHILLY POPULATION OF NEGROES GAINS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—Philadelphia will have the largest negro population of any city in the United States within five years, according to Forester B. Washington, of the state welfare department. The negro population of the city which amounts to 7 1/2 per cent of the total, has doubled within the last 10 years.

Boy Caught In Belt Is Close To Death

FREDERICTON JUNCTION, Nov. 29.—Tyler, 12-year-old son of Newton Artis, narrowly escaped instant death yesterday at the railway coal plant here. When crawling under a box covering part of the belt between the power house and the coal house as a short cut he was caught on a screw projecting from the under side of the belt. His clothing was almost completely torn off and his back and arm bruised. The casing of the belt prevented his body moving. He will be around in a few days.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY MEN AT ST. DAVID'S

Rev. Dr. MacKinnon Delivers Sermon in Honor of Saint's Day

TRIBUTE PAID TO SCOTTISH PEOPLE

Rev. Dr. Morison Speaks on Saint at St. Matthew's Service

The members of St. Andrew's Society met at 10:30 o'clock on their rooms, Germain street, yesterday morning and headed by two pipers marched to St. David's church. There was a large turnout of the members, the largest for some years. The members of the society along with the president of St. George's Society, R. G. Schofield, occupied the front pews of the church which had been reserved for the society. Each member wore beside a badge a sprig of heather.

St. David's large choir rendered the beautiful anthem by Spohr—"As Pants the Hart." Mr. Blake Ferris singing the organ. Also a mixed quartette, Mrs. Ferris, Miss Stevens, Mr. Case and Mr. McGowan, "Some Blessed Day." The large congregation joined heartily in old familiar psalms and hymns.

On the platform with Rev. Hugh Miller, chaplain of the society, were Rev. Clarence Mackinnon, D.D., principal of Pine Hill College Halifax, and Rev. David Lang, a former minister of St. Andrew's church, who read scripture lessons and pronounced the benediction.

HIS TEXT.

Rev. Dr. MacKinnon took for his text Isaiah 63:14: "So didst Thou lead Thy people, to make Thyself a glorious name." He gave some wonderful pictures of the debt Canada owes to the nations of the Old Land, particularly to the Scotch of the "Glas and hills" area who left the old land years ago to settle in Canada.

The Scotch laid great importance on education and religion, he said, and "cannot we Canadians learn some lessons from the history of Scotland in its pride in education and religion?" he asked.

He paid a glowing tribute to the Scottish thrift. In closing he made an earnest appeal to the members of the society to go forward, believing that there is no home so humble, but ought to be touched with the Christian religion that that the school house should be placed in every hamlet.

VOTE OF THANKS.

The society on return to their rooms, passed a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. MacKinnon, Rev. Hugh Miller, session trustees and choir of St. David's church and also to the two pipers.

AT ST. MATTHEW'S

Last evening Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison, preaching in Saint Matthew's church before a large congregation spoke of the life and influence of Scotland's patron saint, Saint Andrew.

After reviewing all the references in the holy writ to this Apostolic hero the doctor recited the interesting legends which cling about his name, and reminded his hearers that outside of Scripture there were many such legends in the Apocryphal Acts of the Apostles edited by Tischendorf in the Acts of Andrew and Matthew they are told, he said, that Christ sent Saint Andrew to rescue Saint Matthew who was held a prisoner in the land of the Anthropopagi, where Saint Andrew was tortured. The legend told that Saint Matthew was released whereupon a flood overwhelmed the city and many conversions resulted. This legend occurred in the Euphratic Syria and in the Anglo Saxon and it was with the latter that they as students of English literature were most concerned.

Dr. Morison then referred to the Exeter Book and the Versill Book with the pieces by Cynewulf about St. Hiden, the brother of Constantine and also a well known poem on the Fates of the Apostles. In the Miracula Andree Gregory of Tours spoke of his missionary labors in the land of the Anthropopagi, Sinope, Nicaea, Nicomedia, and Patrea in Achaia where his martyrdom took place.

The traditions of the martyrdom of this saint were fairly constant. It had been said that in the year 1210 Cardinal Peter of Capua brought his remains from Constantinople to Amalfi. They were brought from Patrea to Constantinople about 337 A. D. His cross of the decussate or saltire form was of late origin, for example in the 13th Century in the statue of Amiens he held the upright cross. It was also a tradition that Saint Regulus brought

English Farmers Oppose Use of Good Land For Bombing

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Interest and opposition has been aroused in Lincolnshire by an Air Ministry scheme for the establishment in the Holbeach Marsh and Gedgey Marsh Districts, off the Wash, of a new range for aerial firing practice, including bombing.

About 400 acres of the best land in the district are to be acquired, and a danger zone (roughly a mile all around the targets) created, in which no one will be allowed to enter. The land to be acquired is not to be cultivated, and on the ground that it would be a waste of good food-producing land, local landowners are opposing the scheme.

One farmer whose land is wanted has fixed the price at $750 an acre. It is also understood that opposition will be forthcoming from the Holbeach Rural District Council, who have been written to by the Board of Trade.

the arm of Saint Andrew to Scotland in the fourth or fifth century.

MISSIONARY TO HOME

Gathering up the abiding lessons of his life Dr. Morison said that Saint Andrew was one of the first great apostolic missionaries to the home. He brought his own brother to the Master, and that was none less than Saint Peter and the church of the centuries told what had meant for Christendom and the world. More than that Saint Andrew possessed a meek and humble spirit. He was more concerned in fidelity to the Master than in making for himself a great name in the religious world. He was abundantly willing to occupy a secondary place so long as the cause of the Master flourished. In all this he had thought and inspiration by all who in every religious circle would endeavor to bring the world nearer to God.

He anticipated the words of Christ: "Give me the lowest place—Not that I dare Ask for that lowest place—But thou hast died That I might live and share thy glory by Thy side Give me the lowest place—or if for me That lowest place too high—make one more low Where I may sit and see, my God, and love thee so."

VOTE OF THANKS.

The society on return to their rooms, passed a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. MacKinnon, Rev. Hugh Miller, session trustees and choir of St. David's church and also to the two pipers.

Is Your Back The Weak Point Then get your kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Very few people are in perfect health. There is a weak spot somewhere. When you get tired or your system gets a little run down you feel the effects at your weak spot.

If your weak spot is your back, then you may suspect that your kidneys are not in perfect order. The back aches or aches; there will be dryness of the skin, pains in the limbs and disorders of the bladder.

The quickest way to regulate the kidneys is by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are bound to be effective because they arouse the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby ensure the elimination of poisons from the system.

Knighthood For Chamberlain, Rumor
LONDON, Nov. 30.—There is general expectation that a signal honor will be paid to Mr. Chamberlain to mark the success of the Locarno Conference.

It is rumored that he may be made a Knight of the Garter. This is the most ancient of the British Orders of Chivalry, was conferred a few months ago on the Earl of Oxford and Aiquith, and is also worn by two other ex-Premiers, the Earl of Rosebery and the Earl of Balfour.

The confinement of the Order on a commoner has a precedent in the case of Viscount Grey; who received the Knighthood before he was elevated to the Peersage.

GAMBLING CRAZE HITS GERMANY

Berlin Spending More Than $5,000,000 a Year on New Game

BERLIN, Nov. 30.—Berlin has caught a curious gambling craze, and is spending money at the rate of over $5,000,000 per annum on this new excitement.

It is called the "Bajazzo Spiel." Bajazzo automatic machines are to be found all over the city and crowds besiege them from morning till night, each person eager to try his or her luck.

A coin, equal to about a penny, is put in the slot. This releases a little ball, the direct fall of which is interfered with by a number of projecting pins. Below is the figure of "Bajazzo," or clown, holding out his hand. This figure can be moved by the player by means of a handle.

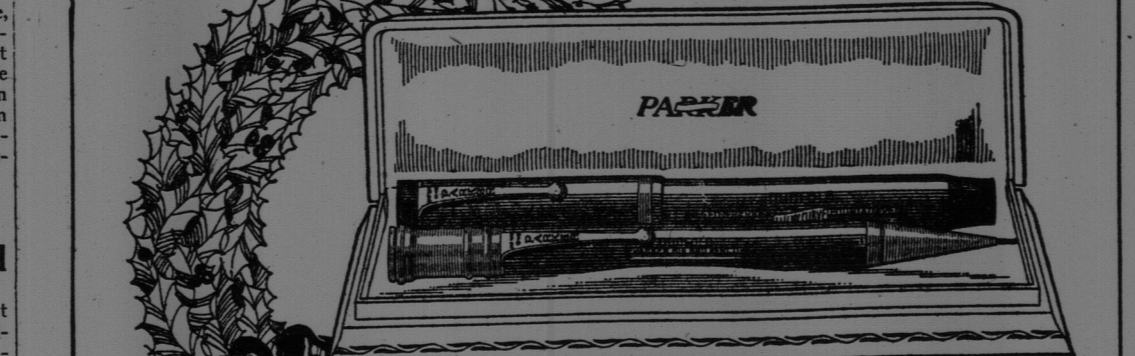

English Channel Was Choked With Herring
LONDON, Nov. 30.—Part of the English Channel is so choked with millions of herrings that local fishermen are unable to cope with them.

A 17-foot punt with two fishermen was towed ashore here in a sinking condition. The boat was piled high with nets which overlapped with shimmering fish.

"Not since the time of Adam," declared one of the men, "has it been known for a small 17-foot punt to bring ashore 16,000 herrings."

RUSSIAN MUSICIANS HERE ON MONTROSE

One Carries 'Cello Worth $10,000 on Which Wonderful Repairs Made

Among the passengers who arrived here yesterday on the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose from Liverpool were three world famous musicians, Mischel, Leo and John Chermavsky, of Russia. This trip has been touring the world for the last 25 years, having started out as boys. They have played over 2,000 concerts, 500 of which were given in different parts of the Dominion when they had with him his world-famous 'cello, which was made by Joseph Guernard, an Italian, in the year 1730.

On their recent return from a tour in South Africa this old instrument was smashed into pieces when a porter let it fall in front of a moving vehicle which passed over it. The pieces were collected and the finest repairer in England were engaged to repair it. Their efforts were so successful that it would be almost impossible to discern with the naked eye the many breaks and fractures. This 'cello is one of three still in existence and cost the owner $10,000.

AUTO OVER PIER AND 4 OF FAMILY DROWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Four members of one family were drowned when a light touring car in which they were returning from a party in Brooklyn to their home in White Plains struck a bulkhead one foot high at Jay street, Brooklyn, and turned turtle as it dived into the water.

There were five persons in the car. The only one rescued was the chauffeur, Mike Gentile of White Plains. The curtains of the car were closed except the one next to the chauffeur's seat. He scrambled through it as the car settled upside down in the mud, and swam to the surface.

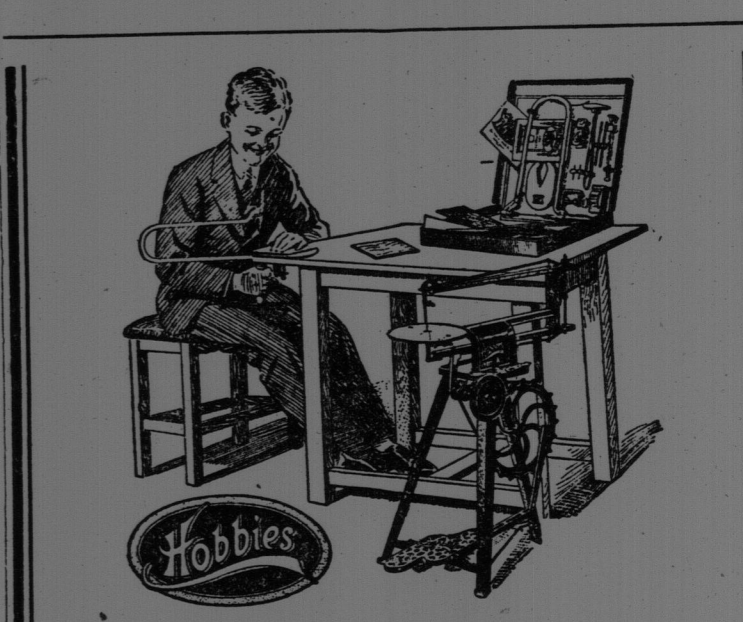

The four drowned were members of a family named Consigo. They were the father, about 55 years old; the mother, 50; a daughter, 22, and a son, 14.

WORLD ORIGIN NOT EXPLAINED BY EVOLUTION

Contention of Rev. Dr. MacKinnon of Pine Hill College

ALL THINGS MUST START WITH GOD

Science Fails to Tell Whence Thought and Its Growth Come

Declaring that evolution traced back the history of the world to the beginning but that it failed to explain that beginning, Rev. Dr. Clarence Mackinnon, president of Pine Hill College and President of the Maritime Conference of the Church of Canada, gave an interesting address yesterday afternoon at a men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on the subject, "Evolution and the Universe."

John McKinnon, chairman of the religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A., presided. The address was read and prayer were offered by Rev. H. A. Goodwin and Rev. Hugh Miller gave the benediction. C. R. Mercereau sang a solo.

Rev. Dr. Mackinnon, in opening his remarks, likened some rudimentary organs, or vestigia, to the unused buttons on the back of dress coats in that both had once had uses. It was the place of science to trace back from these things to find the history of things as they were at present.

He called on his hearers to remember that, although this theoretical history might be interesting, it was an explanation of how things began. To get such an explanation they must go back to God.

Dr. Mackinnon divided his remarks into three branches, those of matter, life and man.

THEORY EVOLVED.

In speaking of matter, as the earth itself, the planets and other material inorganic things, scientists had evolved a theory that in the beginning there was nothing but hydrogen and that atoms of this hydrogen had combined in various numbers and proportions to make other elements and chemical combinations that had led to the earth, planets, sun and other things as they were known now.

This was all right as a history, he said, but did the people believe that these atoms sorted themselves into their present shapes. There must have been in the original atom all the potentialities to make the splendid organisms. Who had put them there, he asked, if God had not.

Life was said by the scientists to have been the outcome of one life germ which, in its struggle for existence, had spread out and divided in a manner similar to that which the single cell of a rose embryo increased and divided until it became a plant.

But, said Dr. Mackinnon, the first cell must have contained all the possibilities of life as it existed in its manifold vegetable and animal forms today. Who but God could have given it this power, he asked.

He had touched on the inorganic world, the organic world and was now entering the world of man, or the world of thought, the speaker continued. He asked his hearers to think of what mind had done, of the great bridges, railways, ships and things it had built, at the principles it had discovered for the greater development of the human race.

Science could trace the history of thought and the growth of thought but could not explain where it had come from.

Summing up, he declared that evolution could map out the history of the universe but could not explain its beginning or the forces that were behind it. To do this they must go back to God.

TO SEARCH AGAIN FOR BURIED GOLD

New Expedition Will Try For $70,000,000 Treasure, Secret of Cocos Island

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Despite scores of failures and disappointed hopes, one more expedition is about to endeavor to wrest the romantic secret of Cocos Island and recover the $70,000,000 treasure known to be buried there.

Its leader is Lieutenant F. W. Kealey, who organized the Pacific expedition which recently returned to England in the steam yacht St. George. He will adopt novel methods, will use the latest scientific appliances, and will draw on the most recent scientific discoveries. In this way he hopes to succeed where others have been defeated.

There are at least three vast plate hoards in Cocos—a little island, 14 miles in circumference, 600 miles west of Panama. Doubloons, bars of gold and silver, sword hilts, encrusted with precious stones, church plate, and a life-size golden figure of the Virgin are among the treasures which await discovery. One of the hoards has been found and lost again.

The objects of the new expedition to Cocos are twofold. There will be a systematic search for the buried treasure, and also an exhaustive scientific examination of the island.

LOGGE'S COSMIC THEORY. LONDON, Nov. 30.—Sir Oliver Lodge has summed up his cosmic beliefs as follows: "I believe that creation is continual creation in the depths of space. Things may happen whereof we can have no conception. When one considers that we are receiving the light of stars which shone thousands of years ago and that this self-same light is only reaching us now, it can only testify to the unity of mind that created and is creating it."

NEW RAILWAY METHODS FOR CHINA

Forecasting a new period of industrial activity and commercial enterprise in the backward, old world country of China, several brilliant Chinese students are in Montreal at present at the head office of the Canadian Pacific Railway investigating the systematic organization which is to be introduced into China.

Efficient transportation is now considered a vital factor in the development of the country and the Chinese Government Railways have given the students instructions to study all branches of railroading. The thirteen Chinese have divided between them their tasks consisting of learning the various branches of mechanics, accounting, freight and passenger traffic, operating, stores and supplies. They will remain here for about a year and a half, having arrived on September 14.

Many of the methods used in this country are certain to be impractical in China, but it is understood that of the vast store of railroad knowledge these students will acquire, they will be able to pick out many plans adaptable in their country. From Canada they intend to go to the United States for a few weeks, then to Europe for two months, before returning to their home where they will take up allotted tasks in the service of the Government Railways.

Several White Deer Killed in Grand Manan, Says Resident

SEVERAL white deer have been killed on Grand Manan Island this fall, according to a resident who writes to The Telegraph-Journal. One skin which he saw was an explanation of how things began. To get such an explanation they must go back to God.

Dr. Mackinnon divided his remarks into three branches, those of matter, life and man.

In speaking of matter, as the earth itself, the planets and other material inorganic things, scientists had evolved a theory that in the beginning there was nothing but hydrogen and that atoms of this hydrogen had combined in various numbers and proportions to make other elements and chemical combinations that had led to the earth, planets, sun and other things as they were known now.

This was all right as a history, he said, but did the people believe that these atoms sorted themselves into their present shapes. There must have been in the original atom all the potentialities to make the splendid organisms. Who had put them there, he asked, if God had not.

Life was said by the scientists to have been the outcome of one life germ which, in its struggle for existence, had spread out and divided in a manner similar to that which the single cell of a rose embryo increased and divided until it became a plant.

But, said Dr. Mackinnon, the first cell must have contained all the possibilities of life as it existed in its manifold vegetable and animal forms today. Who but God could have given it this power, he asked.

He had touched on the inorganic world, the organic world and was now entering the world of man, or the world of thought, the speaker continued. He asked his hearers to think of what mind had done, of the great bridges, railways, ships and things it had built, at the principles it had discovered for the greater development of the human race.

Science could trace the history of thought and the growth of thought but could not explain where it had come from.

Summing up, he declared that evolution could map out the history of the universe but could not explain its beginning or the forces that were behind it. To do this they must go back to God.

$100,000 LOSS IN MONCTON FIRE

Old Commercial Block Blaze Gives Firemen Two Hour Fight

Considerable Stock and Furniture Are Saved From Flames

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 30.—Fire that caused a loss of between $75,000 and $100,000 broke out here last night about 10.30 in the two-storey wooden block known as the old Commercial Hotel block, situated on Main street just west of the post office, and was not under control until 12.30 this morning.

The main part of the building on the east end is owned by the C. F. Harris estate, while the second storey is owned by the A. Robichaud estate. The east end of the building was pretty badly wrecked. The first floor of the block was occupied by stores, T. Marache, dry goods; L. Gorber, groceries; H. Howard, confectionery, and the Robichaud estate, while the second storey was occupied by the Moncton Hotel, Frank Melanson, boarding house keeper, and Poirier, employment agent, and two or three other tenants.

MERCHANT LOSSES HEAVY. Marache's dry goods store received perhaps the greatest damage. He carried the value of his stock carried at $40,000 with insurance of $8,000. Howard's confectionery stock was valued at $2,000 or $3,000 with about $1,000 worth salvaged.

Robichaud estate carried $15,000 worth of stock but was not greatly damaged except by water. The loss is probably covered by insurance.

A great deal of the furniture was taken out of the second storey. It is said the building is insured, but for what amount cannot be definitely ascertained.

Adjoining the wooden block on the east is the three-storey stone building owned by Fiewelling Wilbur and occupied by the post office and customs department. There was some damage to this building, and the post office and customs department also suffered to some extent.

Trappers Run Amuck; 2 Slain And One Hurt

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29.—Mike Lascesko, a section laborer, and William Lefebvre, a trapper, were shot dead and C. Astrin, section foreman, was wounded when two trappers ran amuck at Graham, Ont., yesterday. Raul St. Germain, a trapper, has been placed under arrest on the charge of murder, according to a message received here. Canadian National Railways investigation department officials say St. Germain and Lefebvre came into Graham from a trapping expedition. Evidently under the influence of liquor, the two police say, pulled guns and began to shoot, killing Lascesko and wounding Astrin.

St. Germain then turned his gun on his partner, Lefebvre, and killed him.

LOCOMOTIVE HITS WOMAN IN HAMPTON

Mrs. George Weldon Cut and Bruised—Taken to Saint John Hospital

HAMPTON, Nov. 29.—Mrs. George Weldon, of Hampton, was knocked down and received several bruises and cuts about the head and shoulders when she was struck by the engine of the suburban train at Hampton Saturday afternoon. She is now in the General Public Hospital, Saint John.

Mrs. Weldon, who is quite deaf, was walking along the platform at Hampton and, it is believed, did not hear the suburban as it came. She was struck by the side of the engine and was thrown down to the platform, receiving bruises and cuts. Her injuries were attended to by Doctors A. T. Leathersbarrow and J. Newton Ross and a nurse, Miss Marjorie Ross, accompanied her to Saint John, where she was brought on the suburban on its return trip.

At the hospital Sunday night it was reported that she was resting as comfortably as could be expected. Her condition was not regarded as serious.

WANT EXAMS.

TOKYO, Nov. 30.—More than 50 influential educational organizations in Tokyo have started a vigorous campaign to abolish entrance examinations to middle schools. At the present time, more students are desiring to enter middle schools than can be admitted and the resulting effects are that many of the applicants are afflicted with nervous breakdowns due to overwork, studying for competitive tests.

HARD TIMES, FEW FAGS.

TOKYO, Nov. 30.—Hard times have reduced cigarette smoking to a large extent in Japan. The consumption of one popular brand has dropped from 1,100,000,000 a year to 100,000,000.

The Real Cause Of Constipation Is A Bad Liver

Mrs. Jean Bonheur, Nelson, B.C., writes:—"For many years I have been troubled with my liver, and suffered terribly with constipation. I HEARD ABOUT MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS and have been greatly improved since I started to take them. I cannot recommend them too highly to any one who is troubled with their liver."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are not a new and untried remedy. They have been on the market for the past 12 years, put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In One Hour This sparkling drink flushes out the poisons

Some mornings bring to some of us deplorable conditions. They mean days of dullness, depression or unfitness. They result from clogging of the system with poisons and waste. Find out how easy it is to correct them. Drink a glass of water, hot or cold. Add a little Jad Salts. It will make a sparkling, pleasant drink. That drink will flush the intestines. In an hour all conditions will change. Instead of a lost day, you will have a day at your best. The results come in a gentle, natural way. They come from acids of lemon and grape with lithia, etc. And they are at your command every hour of the day—whenever you feel the need. Ask your druggist for Jad Salts today.

DR. JAS. ROBERTSON TELLS OF RED CROSS

Says That Peace Time Policy is Greatest in World

A large congregation at the regular evening service of the Centenary United church listened with great attention to an able address by Dr. James W. Robertson, C. M. G., on the peace-time mission of the Red Cross.

Dr. Robertson, in his opening remarks, quoted the text "I am come that ye might have life more abundantly," the purpose in the main of the peace-time mission of the Red Cross—to help bring about this prediction and promise. Life, he said, abundantly manifests itself in the welfare of the nation, humanity in general and the well-being of families and individuals. This well-being rests upon and arises from quality of life and quality of living.

To illustrate his point Dr. Robertson quoted from nature and the farmer collecting sun-power in the wheat plant and by intelligent care and cultivation giving it its proper setting in life, making a strong, sturdy plant able to produce more and more of its kind. In a successful farm in the Old Country as an experiment the farmer had left alone one portion and in three years an immense deterioration was shown, no proper setting being given.

EXAMPLE OF WAR. The war brought an examination into the work of the society and it was found that, for three physically fit, there were three physically weak, two physically infirm and one chronic invalid. Within a month of the Armistice, the Governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and the United States, at a meeting at Cannes, had asked the Red Cross to continue with a program of disease prevention and health promotion. A clause had been added to the League of Nations covenant amending the purpose of the Red Cross for peace time work.

He gave a series of figures on the cutting of the infant mortality rates through the work of the society and said that the aims in Canada was to bring the figure still lower. For the purpose of teaching the means to better health, the Red Cross had the Junior Red Cross, the home nursing classes, the hospital outposts and the public health nurses.

In conclusion, Dr. Robertson said, "The peace-time policy of the Red Cross is the greatest thing given to the world since the time of Christ."

MAN FOUND DEAD IN WOODS IN N. S.

Stomach Ordered Sent to Halifax for Examination—Drank Beer

SHELBURNE, Nov. 29.—The body of Arthur Bower, 22, of this town, was found in the woods about nine miles from here Saturday afternoon. He was last reported alive on Friday evening when, in company with Clarence Cameron, he left for a Christmas dinner in search of some Christmas cider and had some beer at a house on the outskirts of the town.

An inquest was held here this afternoon before S. K. Greenwood, Justice of the Peace, when it was decided to send the dead man's stomach to Halifax for examination.

MISERABLE AND ALWAYS IN PAIN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help to Mothers

Port Greville, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headaches. I seemed to float all over, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing my baby—the first one of four I could nurse. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I had heard so much of it and I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of medicine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with trouble like mine and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT McCULLY, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing. Many, many letters are received giving the same sort of experience as is given in this letter. Not only is the mother benefited, but these good results pass on to the child. No harmful drugs are used in the preparation of this medicine—just roots and herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother. 38 out of every 100 women reported benefit from using a recent course among women users of this medicine.

Home. Next morning, he stated, when Bower did not return, he decided to go and search for him. While so engaged he encountered Ralph and Gilbert Deschamps who stated they had found Bower's dead body in the woods about nine miles from Shelburne.

WHY WERE "BLUE." LIVERPOOL, Nov. 30.—The scientific reasons for the common feeling known as "blue" are that during damp weather we do not perspire normally and our bodies retain the waste products which are otherwise thrown off. A non-energetic feeling follows. Also during this kind of weather, the air does not contain an ordinary supply of oxygen. Oxygen is the body's fuel, and we cannot fully assimilate our food without a full supply. Hence the "heavy" feeling. Want a Second-Hand Piano? Use the want ad. page.

OBJECTED TO GAS LIGHT.

HAMBURG, Germany, Nov. 30.—When gas lighting was installed here a century ago many German papers opposed the innovation with astonishing arguments. It was said that lighting up of the darkness was a profane interference with the divine order. Danger to health and morals was predicted, lovers would stay out too long, colds would be caught, horses would shy, burglars would be assisted.

Morning Stock Letter
NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—There was nothing unusual about the break in prices on Saturday. The market had been very strong on previous two days and there were some very good profits. Realizing sales were heavy for a time, but the market showed signs of going dull on the selling. We think the trend of prices for some stocks at least is still upward, but there has been a reduction in the short interest, which will cause less urgent buying and may lead to some irregularity this week. On the other hand, we believe the stocks that we have been recommending are purchases. General Motors was the particular weak spot Saturday and it may be subject to further weakness. At the same time, we think it will sell higher and take Fisher Body with it.

Brokers' Opinions
NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Hornblower—Action of rails indicates important banking accumulation. Buy oils at the market. Buy Oil Steel Pfd and Midland Steel Pfd. "Most of the good steel continues to be strong. RBC. will be one of the next to gain ground. Clark Childs' steel interest is very large and will be a continuing factor. Tobey & Kirk—"U. S. Steel will probably be bought prior to the favorable tonnage report due next month."

DECIDE TO ASK WORK AT PETTINGILL END; WIGMORE OPPOSES

Bullock Says Berths Are Needed—Engineer Gray Declares Ten Days Would Finish Work—Effect at Ottawa Feared

The City Council decided this morning, sitting in committee of the whole, to ask the Public Works Department of Canada to stop the work being done at Pettingill wharf, as the berth was needed at once for vessels. Commissioner Wigmore expressed the opinion that this action was a step backward and would militate against the city getting the Government to do work in the future. Alexander Gray, Public Works Engineer, wrote to the Council that he believed the work would be completed at the contract date, December 20.

ENGINEER GRAY WRITES
The letter from Mr. Gray was as follows: "On completion of the Canadian National Railways elevator in 1918, the Dominion Government was requested by the Canadian National Railways and Express berths to a depth of 30 feet below low water, in order that regular steamers could load grain at these wharves. Subsequently, your council has on several occasions requested the Dominion Government to proceed with this work in order that the facilities for shipping at the berths might be improved. From the completion of the Canadian National Railways elevator to date it has been impossible for regular steamers to load grain at these berths.

Plans were prepared and tenders advertised to have this work carried out to the depth requested by the Canadian National Railways. Copies of the plans have been in possession of the city officials for some time previous to calling for tenders, and the City Council in May, 1922, gave to the Dominion Government a release for any damages that might be caused to the city property by the carrying out of the work. It is assumed that the City Council were well informed as to the extent of the work, and the depths to be dredged.

A contract amounting to approximately $45,000 was let in October for carrying out the work, the time allowed being three months, which expire on 20th December next.

IN TIME LIMIT
The contractors have worked continuously since commencement of work, and notwithstanding 25 per cent. delays on account of storms, it is expected that the work will be fully completed within the time limit. McLeod Wharf is fully completed. Pettingill Wharf will be completed in about 10 days' time. The rock drilling at this wharf is about completed, and the dredge commenced work this morning removing the blasted material. The Express berths has not yet been touched, but will not take much time to complete.

Old Time Fighter Dead in Boston
James McKay, proprietor of a tavern in Dock street many years ago and well-known in historic circles here at that time, died recently in Boston at the age of 88. He was born in London, England, and was a pupil of the famous Jim Mace. He came to the United States about 1868 and after settling in Saint John. About 80 years ago he returned to the United States.

AUDITING BOOKS
W. G. H. Jephcott, C. A., resident manager of the Toronto branch of P. S. Ross and Sons, Montreal, arrived in the city yesterday and this morning began the annual audit of the books of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission for the fiscal year, which ended October 31, last.

BUILDING REPORT
No permits for new buildings were issued during November here but there was considerable activity in repairs and alterations. 51 permits being issued for this class of work.

Under date of Oct. 4, 1924, the city, petitioned the Public Works of Canada to blast out the ledge rock at Pettingill Wharf. After a long delay the work was commenced September 17, 1925. The work has been dragging along and is uncompleted at this date. It is the fact that the work was started too late in the season. Only four drills some of the time—late only three machines drilling, much time unavoidably lost due to wind and weather conditions. The dredge worked the best part of one week and has since been removed. This dredge could not work in close to the wharf and no other dredge is in readiness—furthermore considerable time has been consumed by the plant operating on the adjoining areas. Some of the grain conveyor legs are out of alignment, once adjusted further blasting may interfere with the grain conveyor system being kept in use. Accommodation is being urgently wanted by the C. N. Rys. for grain cargoes, also coal and potato shipments, as well as other further operations in that area and that the city engineer be instructed to have the bottom of the berth at Pettingill examined and soundings taken to ascertain the present depth of water and that he report his findings in writing and without delay to the Commissioner of Harbors."

SUGGESTS FINISHING
Commissioner Wigmore said it seemed to him a pity that this clash had occurred in view of Mr. Gray's statement that the work would be completed he thought it would be better for the Commissioner and Mr. Gray to confer and see if they could not come to some arrangement to have the work completed. Should the council order the work stopped now it would give the Government a chance to say Saint John did not want work done when it asked for it and it would be harder to get Government expenditures here in the future. If waiting until December 20 would give two additional berths with 30 feet of water he thought it was worth getting.

The motion to adopt the report of Commissioner Bullock passed with Commissioner Wigmore voting nay.

HYDRO BOND ISSUE
A request of the Civic Power Commission for a bond issue of $12,000 for the following items was presented: Clearing interferences between the distribution systems of the Commission and New Brunswick Power Co., $2,800.24; transformers, $3,019.00; meters, $2,333.23; line material, $1,205.82; extensions, $1,344.51. The issue was recommended to the council.

Commissioner Bullock asked if there had been any repayment made by the Civic Power Commission on the $40,079 borrowed in the summer. Commissioner Fris, enquired of the chairman and was informed that the interest had been paid but there had not been anything paid on the principle.

Rev. John M. Murchison, secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, was the preacher in the Fairville Baptist church last evening. He gave an interesting address on the work of the Bible Society. At the evening service in the Fairville United church, the pastor, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton also gave an address on the work of the Bible Society.

4 FOLD PROTECTION For You and Yours

There are four emergencies against which you must provide if the future of yourself and your family is to be secure. These emergencies—one or more of which is bound to be a factor in every man's life, are:

- 1. Death from natural causes.
- 2. Death from accident.
- 3. Total disability and loss of earning power.
- 4. Old age.

The wise man, both for his protection and his peace of mind, provides against all four. You can do this to-day with one complete North American Life Policy—a policy that pays four ways.

A "four-way" contract for $10,000 pays your estate: At your death, $10,000. Should death be accidental, $20,000. In case of total disability, an income of $100 a month. No further premiums are necessary, and at your death your estate receives $10,000. In old age an income to secure your comfort. Send the attached coupon for further information about this complete insurance plan.

NINETEEN PENALTIES GIVEN AS PITTSBURG BEATS CANADIENS

VEZINA TAKEN OUT FIRST TIME IN 18 YEARS

Bruins Batter St. Pats as Ottawa Beats Maroons

At Ottawa-Ottawa 3, Montreal Maroons 2.
At Montreal-Pittsburg 1, Canadiens 0.
At Toronto-Bruins 3, St. Patricks 2.

MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—The spectators saw typical early season hockey in Saturday night's encounter between Canadiens and Pittsburg, won by the latter 1 to 0, on a goal by Tex White, substitute forward. The game was of the loose variety with little of the smoothness and team play in evidence which is characteristic of mid-season hockey. But there was plenty of action in the hour the teams were on the ice, through the brilliant individual efforts of some of the players, and the hacking and slashing which predominated in the first two periods, and ended in a fistic encounter between Morenz and Springs, both of whom drew major penalties. This flare up toward the end of the second session, ended practically what had been a steady parade to the penalty bench in the first 35 minutes of play, no less than 19 penalties being awarded.

But the high spot of the evening for the Canadian supporters came at the beginning of the second period, when Lacroix, former United States Olympic goal keeper, went into the Canadian net in place of Vezina. The veteran goal keeper started the game with a high temperature. He was pale and haggard looking, as he turned shots aside in the first period. At the interval it was decided to replace him and for the first time since he took up hockey, eighteen years ago, the veteran goalie was forced to drop in place of play. Lacroix was in the net when Pittsburg scored their winning goal. But he could not be blamed for the tally. The shot by White was made from a tangle of players, right in front of the posts, and Lacroix did not have a chance to see it speeding by. Roy Worters, Pittsburg's goal keeper, brought Pittsburg the victory. Many smart goal keepers have been seen in action on local ice, in the past few years, but it is doubtful if any have surpassed the Pirate net guardian for spectacular play. He stopped a regular bombardment of terrific drives during the hour he was in the net. Morenz, in particular, sent in a fusillade of shots in the last session, as he whirled around the ice in an effort to bring victory to his team. But Worters turned the ball aside, arms, hands, elbows, or chest, it was all the same to him how he stopped them.

From the first watched player on the ice, Lionel Conacher, former star footballer, but not rated as a high class performer around Eastern Canada, Conacher surprised the Bruins by his brilliant play. He carried a trifle awkwardness effectively, and he snarled to the referee it generally takes time to hold him out.

AT ST. PATRICKS LOSE.
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 30.—St. Patricks lost to Boston Bruins 3 to 2, following their two games with Victoria, whom they twice defeated, was very disappointing. While they more than held their own in the first period, and had about an even break in the second, the Bruins left them far behind in the fatal third.

Play opened very fast for a few minutes, in the first. Boston fairly matched the speed of the Toronto team. Play got rough and for a few minutes there was a procession to the penalty box. As the word went on the play became listless.

OTTAWA WON.
OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 30.—Unable to get away from the persistent worrying and back checking of the visitors, the Senators failed to hit the visitors, they showed against Victoria, except in flashes in their 3 to 2 victory over the Montreal Maroons, here Saturday night.

Grange Does His Stuff As Team Wins Before Crowd of 29,000 People

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP.

MAYNES—RHODES SCHOLAR.
AT the Dominion track and field championships at Halifax in the fall of 1923, the 440 yard event attracted considerable interest. Entered in it was a youth by the name of Dave Johnson, then of McGill, who was looked on as one of Canada's best bets in the 400 metres at the Olympics in 1924.

He was the creature of all eyes because in addition to his athletic prowess, it was pretty well settled then that he would be the next Rhodes Scholar from his university, Johnson was expected to win—and he did.

They lined up for the start, four of them all told. One, a fraill-looking youth, made a false start and was set back. Crack—went the pistol and away they went, Johnson dashing into the lead. At a gruelling pace, they circled the inside of the final along the straightaway, Johnson still leading. Coming into the final stretch with the McGill boy eating up distance with powerful strides it looked like an easy win when the spectators got the thrill of their lives.

The fraill-looking youth was becoming a menace to the redoubtable Johnson inch by inch, he was creeping up on the flying leader and Johnson barely swept into the tape—a winner by scant inches. It was a wonderful exhibition after such a disastrous start against the acknowledged peer in Canada.

Today, that fraill-looking youth is a Rhodes Scholar, just as his famed rival soon after became. His name is "Billy" Maynes, of Saint John.

There is nothing very frail about "Billy" Maynes outside his looks. Any boy who can figure among the best over the 440 yards is no subject for a rest home and in this particular event, young Mr. Maynes has been a topnotcher ever since he sprang into notice several years ago here.

We have known "Billy" Maynes ever since he first started running here and he has ever displayed the highest type of sportsmanship. Quiet, modest and unassuming, he will maintain the high standard set at Oxford by Canadian boys and we look to see him shine as an athlete over there just as he did hereabouts.

Maynes was candidate last year for the Rhodes Scholarship but the award went to a nephew of Sir Robert Borden's. Not discouraged, Maynes earned enough money through the year by teaching school and to better himself he took courses in botany and anthropology at Harvard. This year, among 12 candidates, he was selected for this honor. It is a rather object lesson that instead of dawdling around and HOPING the committee would select him this year Maynes dug in himself. And, there you have the secret of "Billy" Maynes' success as a runner and as a scholar.

The Times-Star, on behalf of the local sport fraternity, extends sincere congratulations to Mr. Maynes on his well-merited selection.

CANUCKS WIN TIE BY ONE TRY SATURDAY

Sherwood's Touch-down is Converted By Peters

GRABBING a loose ball out of a five-yard scrim near the Nationals' line and plunging over for the lone touch-down of the game, Sherwood gave the Fairville Canucks the 1925 intermediate championship of the city and second leg on the Harding Trophy in another bitterly-fought contest on the Sand Cove road grounds Saturday afternoon in the second attempt to settle the issue this year. The deciding game was as closely played as the others this season, although its enjoyment for the spectators was marred by the fact that it did not start until nearly 6 o'clock and the crowd was kept waiting throughout the cold until some of the National players showed up.

When the game got under way both teams took matters seriously and fought fiercely. With the wind at their backs the Canucks rushed the play into the National territory, but the Nationals carried the play beyond the field by some good punting and several back-line runs. The Canucks again went on the attack and by some nice work almost behind the posts for the only try of the game. The angle was fairly easy and Peters converted, making the score 5 to 0.

With about ten minutes to play in the period the Nationals bucked up and put the Canucks on the defence. Good kicking relieved the situation until the Canucks again had the Nationals on the defence. Several good punts by Curtis robbed the Canucks of any further opportunities to score in this period.

FORWARDS WIN GAME.
The Canucks forwards were the factor that won the game for Fairville. They got the ball from the scrimmages well over half the time which gave the backs the opportunity to attack, and they followed well and tackled hard. The Canucks halves were always on the ball, while Campbell and Snodgrass on the three-quarter line made some heavy gains by their speed.

Sarazan Stages Comeback

Sarazan, pride of Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt 2nd, lowered the Bowie (Md.) track record for a mile when he won the $15,000 Gadsden D. Bryan Memorial Handicap. The picture shows the finish, with Edward F. Whitney's Joy Smoke at Sarazan's heels. Sarazan returned to the form he showed when he outran Epland.

Several British Boxers Are Cold Weather Rapidly Forging Ahead Aids Skaters

THE coldest November day since many years ago brought with it a dandy ice surface, and the boys, headed by Charlie Gorman, are losing no time in getting in some practice. On Hilton Belyea's rink, Saturday, it looked as though a meet were in progress. Mr. Belyea announced this morning that school children would be admitted free after school and that on Wednesdays during the Christmas holidays the rink would be free to children. This cold snap is going to put the local skaters in great fettle for the coming meets.

NAVIGATION ON RIVER CLOSED

Steamer Majestic Had Memorable Trip Saturday—Encountered Much Ice

1925 Season Longest in Ten Years—River Open 242 Days

Jarvis Purdy, of the Crystal Stream Steamship Company, said yesterday that Saturday was the last trip of the season for the company's fleet. The Majestic left here Friday last for Fredericton and after arriving there unloaded, and immediately proceeded to Lower Jemseg on the return trip, discharging freight and remaining there over night.

A great deal of drift and packed ice was encountered, which decided the officials against keeping the season open any longer.

After leaving Jemseg on Saturday morning, the Majestic arrived here Saturday night. On Thursday she will be taken to Hillyard's dock where she will have a new stern-bearing put in and will be repainted from stem to stern. The Purdy will go to Driscoll's slip where she will be recaulked and repainted.

MEMORABLE TRIP.

Incidentally it was one of the most memorable trips ever made on the Saint John River. For 60 miles of her trip from Saint John the Majestic had to plow her way through ice, and for a considerable distance the broken ice through which she had to make her way, was piled in from three to four feet thick, which made it both difficult and dangerous to get along.

It was also found impossible to make many of the scheduled landings because the wharves were found to be piled high with broken ice, one of the re-

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin, Undeveloped Kids

Children Love Them Because They Are Sugar Coated and as Easy to Take as Candy

It's your duty, Mother, to see that the frail, peaked, sticky youngster grows up to be strong in body, keen in mind and robust in health.

Extracted from the livers of the lowly codfish are the health, weight and strength producing vitamins that are found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South America.

Doctor's know about them and so do Ross Wassons two stores, Ross Drug Co., Wm. Hawker & Son, and if your children need building up ask for these tablets today if you want to give your loved ones a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones. But be sure and get McCoy's.

They are not expensive—60 tablets—60 cents and if you are not pleased with the improvement after 30 days—your money back.

A very sickly child, age 9, gained 12 pounds in seven months and is strong and healthy.

One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days.

results of the abnormal fall freshets conditions that exist along the river.

THE 1925 SEASON.

The 1925 season of navigation opened on April 1 this year, and if Saturday proves to be the closing day, it will make the season 242 days in length, the longest reached in ten years. The last time the season went over 240 days was in 1915, when the river opened April 12 and remained open for 248 days, until Dec. 12.

Reaffirm Marriage After Sixty-five Years

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 30—Marriage vows made in the dark days before the civil war granted them emigration have been formally reaffirmed by Willis B. Black, colored, and his wife, Mary Ann Seymour.

Both are 85 and have been married for 65 years.

Black was born on a plantation in Boone county, Kentucky, in 1840, and while still a babe in arms was sold to Winfield Hayden, Jessman county, Ky. He married Miss Seymour when they were 20. After the war they were released from slavery and came to Indianapolis.

Listened To 50,000 Speeches, Yet Never Caught Napping

LONDON, Nov. 30—Lord Ullswater, for nearly 16 years, as J. W. Lowther, Speaker of the House of Commons, declares, in a book of memoirs just published, that during the whole of the time he sat in the Speaker's chair, for hours at a stretch, he never indulged in a nap.

He estimates that he heard 50,000 speeches, and that during his Speakership more than 1,000 Acts of Parliament were placed on the Statute Book.

Played with Kaiser.

Lord Ullswater was in Berlin when his father was a diplomat there, and he says: "The Crown Princess of Prussia, our Princess Royal, was on close terms of intimacy with my mother. Naturally my brother and sister and I were brought into frequent contact and communication with her Royal Highness' children, including Wilhelm, subsequent-Kaiser.

"My recollection of him is that, even then, he did not readily brook contradiction, was master in our children's games, insisted upon always commanding our toy army.

"He would also insist upon my brother, Gerald, dipping his finger into the ink-pot so that Wilhelm should not be the only one to have, as he had, a black nail on his withered hand."

Goods Worth $500 Stolen In Moncton

MONCTON, Nov. 29—The store of Max Mendelson, clothier, was entered Friday night and goods valued at more than $500 were stolen. The articles included silk shirts, silk scarves, silk ties, silk handkerchiefs, blue serge suits and a pair of shoes, in addition to four or five traveling bags.

The store was entered apparently through the rear door. The burglars, having broken a pane of glass in the door, reached in and turned the lock. The lock on the inner door was smashed as well. In both cases a chisel or a "jimmy" was used, as the woodwork is smashed.

NO SCHOOL BEFORE 7.

LONDON, Nov. 30—Dr. H. B. Savage, house surgeon at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, says children should not go to school before they are seven years of age. Children younger than that, he says, are overtaxed by school work, which causes trouble in later life.

Rheumatic Pains Go; Smaller Joints Vanish

Thousands of sufferers have freed themselves from the bondage of rheumatism; rid themselves of the torturing pain; reduced the swollen joints; thrown away canes and crutches, and from helpless beings became able to work and be of use to themselves and their families.

They took Rheuma; the modern enemy of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, arthritis, and chronic neuralgia. Don't be skeptical about Rheuma. You will know in a few hours after beginning the treatment that the poisonous waste matter is leaving your system through the natural channels. You will feel better in a day; you will know you are going to be helped in less than a week.

There is no guess work about Rheuma bringing you back to health. That's why Wassons two stores and druggists everywhere sell it with guarantee of money back if it does not give quick relief.

DEVIL DANCERS REVEL.

PEKING, Nov. 30—It is recorded that while Rome burned, Nero played the fiddle; it has been recorded here that while China staggers under the weight of external and internal difficulties the Tibetan enjoys his Devil Dance. This year the dance was held at the Yellow Lamastery regardless of the continued reports of break fighting in the country.

OFFICIALS ARE READY FOR RUSH

Customs and Excise Officers Allotted to Winter Stations

One in General Charge; One on Each Side of Harbor, With Staffs

The advent of the winterport season brings the usual heavy demands on the local customs and excise staff but practically all the preparations have been completed for the busy time here. Each harbor berth has a special officer in charge, and the men have been allotted their particular sections and it is expected that every man will be at his post by the middle of this week. S. W. Wilkins, customs surveyor, has charge of arranging for this work.

W. G. HASLAM IN CHARGE

The men on both sides of the harbor will be under the supervision of William G. Haslam. He is assisted by an officer in charge on each side of the harbor. On the east side all the officers and stations are handled by Senior Customs and Excise Examiner, F. J. Abbott. This section of the service is maintained the year round as all the east side wharves are in fairly steady use, as well as the station at the Union Depot. Officers on duty on the West Side are under Senior Customs and Excise Examiner J. E. Dinsmore. All men called for night duty on the West Side come under Customs Officer John J. Jenkins.

MANIFEST STATION

A manifest station will be maintained on the West Side and there all import manifests for goods going through this port in bond are handled and sent through their destinations. Senior Customs and Excise Examiner T. Hefferman is in charge of this station assisted by Customs Officers T. Morrissey, J. D. Cameron and D. A. Munro. Officer Munro is on night duty exclusively at this station. During the busy winter season the staff handles more than 5,000 manifests a month. Customs Officer C. E. Herington is in charge of the baggage room.

WEST SIDE PIERS

The officers are distributed among the West Side piers as follows: No. 1, O. Cole; No. 2, G. H. Hayter; No. 3, Arthur Codrre; No. 4, C. W. Folkins; No. 5, D. T. Thompson; No. 6, W. T. Lanyon; No. 7, E. J. Puddy; No. 14, W. L. Smith; No. 15, P. A. Lavoy; and No. 16, C. P. Wills. Owing to the prospects of a very busy season it is expected that there will be a large amount of night work this winter and the following officers will look after this additional work: W. B. Abel, J. A. Boyle, E. J. Fulton, M. Kelly, W. P. McCormack, J. Stanton, H. C. McKee, R. E. Anderson, J. McCoubrey, C. S. March, G. F. Hazewood, J. J. Butler and A. W. Gillen.

RECORD DESPATCH GIVEN VALEMORE

Captain Griffith Says Steamship Handled in Fine Style at Saint John

"The quickest despatch I ever got at any port" was the statement made by Captain Griffith on his departure from this port late on Saturday night in charge of the steamer Valemore. This steamer arrived last Wednesday from London via Halifax and discharged 840 tons of inward cargo. She then shifted to the refinery wharf where 3,250 tons of refined sugar were loaded in record time, after which the vessel returned to the west side and loaded general cargo and a large quantity of deals. This is despite the fact men were forced to knock off work on Friday night owing to the storm. The captain was greatly pleased with the manner in which the work was speeded along including the two shifts he had to make from one berth to another. The Valemore is en route to London and Hull and she will call at Halifax to load apples.

SCHOONER IS NOT GREATLY DAMAGED

Local Firm Receives News From A. F. Davison Bound to Saint John

A despatch has been received by Kerrison & Linton, local agents for the schooner, A. F. Davison, relative to the grounding of the vessel, reported that the schooner struck at East Tarnaulin Cove and was towed into Vineyard Haven by the lighthouse keeper's tender. The damage was not considered serious. The schooner loaded some little time ago at Bridgewater, N. S., with pulp for Chester, Pa. After discharging there she went to Newport News and loaded coal for Saint John, and it was while on passage here that the mishap occurred. The local agents are awaiting further particulars.

WILL INVESTIGATE

James Leweson, 64, of Quebec, was this morning charged in the Police Court with being a vagrant, having no visible means of support. Sgt. Detective Powers told the court that the man had been in the Public Hospital for a fortnight and since his release from there had been going to the Police station each night for protection. His Honor said that the court would see what could be done for the case.

NO SIGN OF PROWLERS

A phone call was received last night from a resident in Union street, to the effect that a man was seen prowling about an alleyway nearby. The call was answered by the police, but no one could be found. Another phone call was received this morning at about 2:30 from a pay station that a suspicious character was seen at the corner of Charlotte and Duke streets, but when the police got there, not even the person who made the call could be found.

BETTER ACCOMMODATION

In order to provide more berth accommodation this winter it has been decided to have the mail boats use No. 6 berth for their inward as well as outward cargo. This will leave Nos. 2 and 3 berths available for cargo steamers with the exception of a couple of times while the mail boat is discharging her passengers and mails. Up to this year it has been the custom for the passenger boats to discharge cargo at Nos. 2 and 8.

THEFT IS CHARGE

Walter Fleet, of Edward Fleet, and Stella McIntosh were remanded until Wednesday afternoon, in the Police Court today on their pleas of not guilty to charges of theft of $105 from the Foster Fleet was also charged with keeping a bawdy house in Main street, and Stella McIntosh with being an inmate. They pleaded not guilty to this charge. Foster said he had been thrown out of the house last night and had given the information to the police, was held as a material witness.

As Hiram Sees It

TORONTO. — I guess I didn't tell you about the morning I was in Winnipeg that I remembered something I just when I had finished breakfast and was waitin' fer the other feller. I hopped up an' run out 'er the dinin' room without settlin' up. The waiter feller he run after me—I think I'd done a trick like that I give him a hull quarter. Yes, sir, I'm glad Hanner wasn't there — for she's been tellin' me fer years that I'd ferget my head if it wasn't fastened onto me. When I was comin' away I went out to the taxi an' left some of my things behind— an' just found 'em in time to holler an' run back. Just as like as not I'll ferget my credentials when I go up to St. Peter an' try to git through the gate. Well, sir — we all hev our weaknesses. Now, there's Maclure Selanders—he could no more stop tellin' about Noo Brunswick— an' them trout brooks around Penobscus—than he could eat breakfast without porridge. You orto hex heard him an' Walter Harrison blowin' about the salmon they got with 'em at Noo River. Half o' Canada'll be down east fishin' next summer— Yes, sir.

PRELECTS BIG TOURIST RUSH

Eastern S. S. Co.'s General Passenger Agent Visits City

Says Eastern United States to Send Many to Maritimes in 1926

PRELECTS BIG TOURIST RUSH

Eastern S. S. Co.'s General Passenger Agent Visits City

Says Eastern United States to Send Many to Maritimes in 1926

That the Maritimes Provinces of Canada are now on the threshold of a new era as an international playground—particularly in summer—and that transportation companies are planning for this development of traffic, was a statement made with very definite emphasis by S. T. Oldfield, general passenger agent of the Eastern Steamship Company, who arrived today from Boston for a few days' respite in a woodland camp after a strenuous season.

FINE NEW STEAMSHIP

Mr. Oldfield supplemented his opinion with the news that the Eastern S. S. Co. has decided to build a twin-screw turbine oil-burning steamer for the Boston-Yarmouth route at a cost of $1,850,000. It will be one of the most modern and speediest tourist and freight craft plying Atlantic coastal waters and will have an especially large accommodation of automobile transportation.

Speaking of the tourist season of 1925 the visiting G. P. A. reports that the Eastern S. S. Co. executive consider it to have been especially heavy in the face of so many barriers set up by immigration laws, chiefly American. Canadians who took up residence in the States prior to 1924 and had never paid the $8 head tax and $10 consular fee, evidently considered this extra $18 too much of an extra expense in coming back home for a summer visit. There was no doubt, Mr. Oldfield thinks, that this American regulation had a deterring effect upon many last summer.

New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, the Boston transportation man holds, are now in line for a tremendous influx of visitors from Eastern United States. Their close proximity and the numerous vacationing advantages are being discovered by additional thousands each season, and these, with the homeward trek of former down-easters will make a mightier army each succeeding year.

CONTINUE AT HEAD OF BOARD OF TRADE

L. W. Simms President and A. E. Massie to be Vice-president Another Year

At a special meeting of the Board of Trade this morning a report by the nominating committee was received and nominations made for members of the council and president and vice-president. The president and vice-president, L. W. Simms and A. E. Massie, were nominated for another year and as they have no opposition, will fill these offices for 1926. The committee nominated for the council Messrs. W. E. Anderson, A. F. Blake, A. L. Foster, J. G. Harrison, A. F. Paterson, F. W. H. H. C. Schofield, A. H. Wetmore, G. E. Barbour and A. E. Everett.
