

BEATTY SPEAKS ON COMMAND OF SEA

Britain's Navy Right Never Challenged and Never Would Be.

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Nov. 25.—That the right of the British navy to command of the seas has never been challenged and never would be challenged by any power, was a statement by Admiral Beatty here last night. He said: "Behind the power of the sea the British Empire has been created, with the power of the sea that empire exists, and without the power of the sea that empire will disappear. It is easy to understand in an empire which is flung so wide, whose only communications are on the sea, that the connecting link is the command of the sea, and I fully believe that that is the point which has never, and never will be, challenged."

The admiral was speaking before the Women's Canadian Club. He reinforced his statement by adding that "During the fifteen dark days of the war, when our merchant ships were being sunk in numbers which almost caused despair, we were actually, in the heart of the British Empire, within four weeks of starvation. That is to show you how much the empire is dependent on the navy."

The admiral dined in the evening with Hon. C. C. Bellamy. The dinner was a small formal. He left for Toronto at eleven o'clock.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Admiral of the Fleet Beatty extended his conquests to Toronto today. Here he will be on the centre of the stage for a strenuous hour with Baron Byng of Vimy. Arriving from Montreal this morning, the sea lord was given a formal reception at the station a little after eight o'clock.

LIVELY BOASTING, BUT NO PUTTING UP

When the Bluff Was Called, Discretion Was the Better Part of Valor.

Kentville, Nov. 25.—In a prominent hotel in Kentville yesterday afternoon there was a hot discussion by a party of gentlemen, most of whom were commercial tourists, the remainder some of Kentville's strongest Tories. It finally got warm enough so that something besides talk was needed, and one of the tourists present, who had disputed the Tories' claim that they would carry Kentville by 400 majority, went down into his hotel and pulled out a roll that meant business. He offered to put up with the hotel clerk any amount from one dollar to five hundred that the Tories would not carry Kings county by any old majority, and further would not carry Kentville. The silence of the grave fell on that gathering. There wasn't a single cent of Tory money available.

Sims For Disarmament. Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 25.—The battleship is no longer the backbone of the navy, declared Vice-Admiral Wm. S. Sims, president of the Naval War College, here last night. "The battleship has no defense against airplanes and no offensive power against airplane carriers which have speed enough to keep ahead of it," he declared.

approve of the disarmament programme, because of the tremendous cost of the 1918 building programme is saved and a small portion of the money is expended on airplanes or airplane carriers, the defensive strength of the navy will be greatly increased."

Sir Thomas White. New York, Nov. 25.—Sir Thomas White, Canadian minister of finance during the war, termed the Washington conference "an epochal event in the history of humanity," in an address on Saturday night at the annual dinner of the Canadian Society of New York.

"Reduce armaments—yes," he said, "fairly done and with due appreciation of the needs of each nation. Conferences of this character held periodically, with their proceedings spread before public opinion of the world, must do untold good."

London, Nov. 25.—President Harding's suggestion for a continuing series of international conferences, the conclusions of which would be observed under a "gentlemen's agreement" is given much prominence in the morning newspapers, but there is little comment on it.

The Westminster Gazette thinks that the suggestion like Secretary Hughes' proposal for limitation of armaments "is profoundly important and profoundly right." Admitting, it says, that the present conference possibly will not achieve any great practical results, the possibilities for further meetings are almost unlimited. The newspaper looks hopefully for the development, from such a series of conferences, of some association of nations which would "embody and extend the authority of the present league of nations."

Washington, Nov. 25.—U. S. naval experts presented to the Japanese and British officers detailed answers to questions presented last week as to the Hughes naval reduction programme. The full text of the technical and confidential nature of the arms conference was not in session.

The extensive examination of figures of all three powers as to existing naval strength of each country has not resulted in any change of opinion. The experts in Secretary Hughes' proposal. It was said authoritatively today that no mistake in calculation had been made during the discussion by the experts.

The data submitted today by the United States group had led to a misunderstanding with questions asked by the Japanese as to the exact meaning of certain paragraphs of the reduction plan. A German View.

THE NEW MEN FOR THE NEW ERA

The people of the maritime provinces will be well advised if they pay no attention whatever to the assertions of the Conservatives that the Liberals or the Progressives aim to introduce free trade. Honor has not departed from public life to the extent that Hon. Maclean King, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. A. K. McLean, Sir Lomer Gouin, Hon. T. A. Cregar and men of that stamp would deliberately lie to the people. Every one of them has declared that there is not the slightest intention of introducing free trade. They all stand for a revision of the tariff in the interests of the people. They believe that the cost of living can be reduced without imperiling any industry; and that a proper revision would aid in developing industries based on the natural resources of the country. They would not throw open the Canadian market to the injury and destruction of native industry. They would, however, besides revising the tariff, introduce a policy of economy in administration of the country's affairs, in place of the extravagant policy that came with the war, and has been retained by the present government. They would grapple with the railway problem and endeavor to bring order out of the chaos wrought by the reckless policy of their predecessors, who introduced complications and thrust upon the country enormous additional burdens without getting the people's consent or giving the people's representatives in parliament the information they sought. They would give Mr. James Murdoch the power he seeks to expose the wrongs he asserts were perpetrated upon the people. They would bring in to operation again the Liberal policy of developing Canadian ports and diverting Canadian trade to Canadian channels, to the great and lasting benefit of the maritime provinces. They would realize that to get traffic for the national railways the country must have more people on the land, and would introduce an enlightened immigration policy. They would have a free hand, and none of the old government's aims to answer for, and would not need to consume any time in making explanations regarding their past acts. With improving world-conditions, Canada is entering upon a new era. She needs a new government, a fresh from the people, free from entanglements, and not cursed by its past record. The people should choose that government on Dec. 6.

THAT ALLEGED CONSPIRACY

The general secretary of the Great War Veterans of Canada has heard that there is a conspiracy between the C. P. Bank of Montreal and Wall Street interests to get control of the government of Canada, using Sir Lomer Gouin as their tool. The alleged scheme is to so confuse the public mind on the issue as to prevent any party having a majority in the house, and thereafter to corrupt the members as to force both Mackenzie King and Meighen inside, and form a coalition under the leadership of Sir Lomer Gouin, this coalition to be entirely subservient to the big interests named, and ready to give the national railways over to private ownership. Ever since it was announced that Sir Lomer Gouin would enter the federal arena the Conservatives have sought to alarm the electors of the country by hints of Quebec domination, and Sir Lomer was also described as the servant of the big financial interests centered in Montreal. When the Montreal Gazette declared that he was sound on the tariff and that his entry into federal politics was welcome, its approval was set down as another proof that a dark plot was being hatched. Now, and it is not difficult to discover from what source, comes the rumor made generally public by Grand Secretary Macneil of the Great War Veterans. It may be observed at the outset that nothing in Sir Lomer Gouin's career would lead color to the faintest suspicion that he would be anybody's tool, or that he would betray his leader or his party. In the second place, there is not the slightest danger that the members of either the Liberal or the Progressive party would consent to any deal that would sacrifice the national railways for the benefit of private corporations. In the third place, we may expect during the next week all kinds of rumors to influence the electors and if possible throw them into a panic, and persuade them if possible that the only safety of the country lies in returning the Meighen government to power. It is not a new political trick to represent those who are really allied with the big interests as the only safeguard against them. There is no fear of Sir Lomer Gouin conspiring to oust the Hon. Maclean

Story Bits About Canadian Authors

MADAME ETHEL GREENING PANTAZZI
Author of "Roumania in Light and Shadow."
Some years ago Miss Ethel Greening of Toronto, as she was then, was one of a party conducted by her father, taking a leisurely trip practically around the world. During the trip Miss Greening awakened the interest of a young Roumanian officer of high rank, an interest which was duly reciprocated, and the romance ultimately led to marriage and the establishment of a new home in Roumania. Madame Pantazzi has become a Roumanian patriot and has entered fully into the joys and sorrows of her adopted country, as her interest in the nursing mission is evident. She has had the opportunity of meeting and knowing all types of Roumanian people under most interesting conditions. During and subsequent to the great war Madame Pantazzi's experiences were naturally thrilling as well as interesting. Latterly, for instance, when her husband was in hiding from the Bolsheviks, her home was invaded several times and only by the most strenuous efforts was an escape provided. Madame Pantazzi has a most encouraging love for and faith in Roumania, which is very frequently evidenced throughout the book.

GOD OF THE OPEN AIR

There are things I prize
And hold of dearest worth;
Light of the sapphire skies,
Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forests, comfort of the grass,
Music of birds, murmur of little rills,
Shadows of cloud that swiftly pass,
And after showers,
The smell of flowers
And of the good, brown earth—
And best of all, among the way, friendship and mirth.
So let me keep
These treasures of the humble heart,
In true possession, owning them my lot,
And when at last I can no longer more
Among them freely, but must part
From the green hills and waters clear,
Let me not creep
Into some darkened room and hide
From all that nature would so brightly and dearly
But throw the windows wide
And welcome in the light,
And while I clasp a well-beloved hand,
Let me more have sight
Of the deep sky and the far smiling land
And breathe my body back to Nature's care,
My spirit out to thee, God of the open air!
—Henry Van Dyke.

GRAVES OF PIONEERS

Remembering Men Who Cleared Away
The Bush.
(Montreal Gazette.)
Returning from a distance to Huntsville recently, a former resident found his brother's grave carefully kept and expressed great surprise that so little respect is paid to the last resting place of pioneers of Muskoka. There are many other districts in older Ontario where conditions are not what they should be, but Col. Hugh Clark, M. P., in his "Muskoka Review," draws attention editorially to one fine exception, the Lochalsh cemetery, which is being restored. In the Lochalsh district the messengers of death entered the bush and opened settlement in 1837 and faced the community with the necessity of selecting a common burial place. The site chosen an admirable one on the southern side of the highway between Huron and Bruce counties, on the brow of the ridge that follows the eastern shore of Lake Huron and overlooking the lake at a distance of about six miles. Energetically the men of the district set to work to clear the trees and to set things in order for the reception of the remains of Mrs. Donald B. Mackenzie.

The fathers of the community forgot the care of this plot of ground. The sentiment which held Abraham Isaac and Jacob to the Cave that was in the field of Machpelah was not wanting in them. And it was their wont to gather annually to tend it and to keep in working order their organization of trustees and secretary. It is now several years since the board of trustees set to work to terrace the west side of the plot and otherwise to level the ground and so to make manifest to men that they are not forgotten in Lochalsh who pass from out the bourne of time and place. Later in order to complete the scheme land to the south and east was purchased, was neatly fenced and divided into lots. Gradually the scheme is being completed and this little country graveyard presents a quiet, restful scene that reads a lesson to all who pass that way.

CAMP FOR UNEMPLOYED

Unmarried unemployed men in Vancouver will be provided for this winter by the establishment of a military camp at Hastings Park. The camp will be equipped with military supplies and is prepared to give board and lodging to men at $5.60 a week. Two days' work at forty cents an hour, or $5.00 a week, will be guaranteed each man, with free baths and laundry. The men will have the rest of the week in which to look for work. They will be required to register in and out of the camp, and will be under discipline enforced by officials of the police department. The preparation of a nine-hole municipal golf course and general work in city parks will provide employment, the cost of which will be borne, one-third each, by the city, the provincial government and the federal government.

PATRONAGE—GONE

(London Advertiser.)

Hon. Arthur Meighen is on the way West, and his speeches contain that last-chance appeal all the way through. Once in the west the premier is apt to forget what has taken place in the east. He speaks of the abandonment of one who knows he is not going over the ground again. In his own riding, Portage La Prairie, he made use of these words, government organs carrying this report: "Today patronage gone," Mr. Meighen asserted, dealing with the promise of the government to abolish this evil. If these words were used in the heat of the contest by some irresponsible ward worker, the matter might be allowed to pass with little or no notice. But the man making use of these words is the Premier of the Dominion, and the leader of one of the great political parties seeking the indorsement of the electors. It is quite fair, then, to expect that he will speak with an eye on facts. So patronage has gone. Since when? Go back over a few months and let us see what element of truth there is in the statement of the premier. De Witt Foster, former member for Kings, N. S., the man who was read out of the Conservative party by Hon. Robert Borden because of his business dealings with war supplies, was appointed to represent the Canadian National Railways in Chicago. The man Garland, who shared the same "reading out"—which, by the way, seems quite painless—was given the preference by the Conservative party in Carlton over Sir Henry Drayton. In Nova Scotia, it has been a time-honored custom, instituted by Liberals, that the sheriffs be the returning officers. This had been followed irrespective of politics. Now, every appointee is a Conservative. Following the same line the present election gave scope for similar party patronage, and it was handed out to the faithful. There are plenty of returned men all over the country who would have been glad of a chance to earn a few dollars in this way. The men who got these appointments right through, for registration, and for the holding of the contest, are Conservatives. Unionists have found they do not exist in the eyes of the present administration where any appointment is concerned. In Toronto only a week or so ago Hon. Edmund Bristol, fearing that some of these appointments might slip through between the fingers of expectant Conservatives, announced his intention of resigning in protest if the appointment did not go to the Conservatives.

The statement was probably bluff from start to finish, for Hon. Edward Bristol knew mighty well there was no chance of anything except a straight partisan appointment being made by Ottawa. Then we have the spectacle of the member for Calgary resigning in order to go to the judiciary. Four members of the Conservative Cabinet, with the sound of a new government in their ears, are taken by this patronage-juggling outfit at Ottawa, and nicked safely into the Senate, where nothing can hurt them, and where they safely interrupt at any time the will of the people as expressed by the Commons. Hon. J. D. Reid found safety in this way, and the electors of Granville will not be worried about him any more. Hon. Sir George E. Foster, of North Toronto, a life-long Tory, was the second in the string. Sir E. K. Clegg, another Toronto member, was the third—a straight Tory appointment. Hon. J. A. Calder makes the quartette complete. Each one of these was a straight piece of party patronage. The list could be extended almost indefinitely. And yet, in face of these facts, the premier has the hardihood to take the stand of the political partisan and say—"Patronage is gone."

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR ROTARY CLUBS

Arriving more than a score of nations for greater service to themselves and to the individual communities among them as well as to the world at large is the way the members of the constitutional convention committee of Rotary International call the work they concluded at the Chicago Beach Hotel, Chicago, Ill., midnight Sunday, November 20, when they agreed on a draft for a new constitution and a set of by-laws for their organization. For one solid week, working night and day, representatives of every Rotary district in the United States and of England, Ireland, Scotland, Canada, and of Cuba toiled over the various aspects of the "where-as" and "it is ordained" that go into every well-considered constitution. And at the conclusion of the work, in shirt sleeves and with the beads of sweat and ruffled locks of the honest worker they declared they had fought a good fight and had turned out what they believe will be a real constitution and a real set of by-laws that will serve the international movement of service for many years to come. The constitution and by-laws they have evolved after the week of toil will be submitted to the individual Rotary clubs of the world for comment and advice and then will go before the annual international convention of the organization which is to be held this year in Los Angeles. The meeting of the committee was an international gathering in every sense of the word. The Rotary Clubs of Great Britain sent three representatives to this country to attend the gathering, and the clubs of Cuba sent one. From all sections of Canada and the United States the other delegates came. Meetings at the same time were the international board of directors of Rotary and the international committee on re-districting the United States and Canada and extension to foreign countries. The advisory board of the Canadian clubs also met at the same time and place.

VOICE OF THE OSTRICH

Like many other birds, ostriches lose or cease to use their voices in captivity, and very few visitors to the Zoo know that they have voices at all. In their natural surroundings, however, they are far from dumb, for they have a "song" like the roar of a lion. In fact, Dr. Livingston said he could only tell the difference between the two by the fact that the ostrich's roar is by day and the lions by night. Just as boys' voices "break," so the voices of some birds, or, although they have discovered, change from youthful to adult tones. The voice of the young buzzard is about an octave higher than that of its parents, and in certain owls it is as much as two octaves

DEAD AT 115.

Ontario Woman Saw Village of Buffalo Burned by British in 1814.

Bridgeburg, Ont., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, colored, of Fort Erie, died on Saturday at the age of 115. She was an eye witness of the burning of the village of Buffalo by the British troops in 1814. Her father was killed in that engagement. Mrs. Clark was born in Virginia, the daughter of free parents.

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Tansman took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, J. Tansman, 22 Clarence street. Interment was made in the Jewish cemetery at Fernhill.

HALIFAX CRADLE OF LITERATURE IN CANADA

Dr. MacMechan's Interesting Address on Literary Primacy of the City.

(Halifax Chronicle).
"I shall have little difficulty in proving to you that Halifax is the cradle of Canadian literature," said Doctor Archibald MacMechan, Professor of English at Dalhousie University, in an address before the Commercial Club at their weekly luncheon in the Green Lantern yesterday.

Dr. MacMechan said that the best definition of a professor that he had ever heard was "A man who reads books and makes two dollars do the work of one." The fact that a teacher was meeting the Merchant Guild of the city was a significant one in itself. There was a movement on foot this week to make Canadian people realize that there really was such a thing as Canadian literature. He would have no difficulty in proving that Halifax was the cradle of Canadian literature.

The year 1780 was the year of the French Revolution, which marked the beginning of the era of the rights of man. Six years before 25,000 people had been transported to this country for no other offense than loyalty to a just cause.

These people organized a University, a Bishop's See, and a magazine.
The First Magazine.
The first magazine published in Halifax was called the "Halifax Magazine," and was published monthly, and consisted of eight double column pages. The first issue was published in 1826. It was a historical and patriotic. From publication only lasted four years. From 1830 to 1831, the Nova Scotia and Brunswick Magazine was published. In 1832, the "Acadian Magazine" was published, whose contributory articles were written by Halifax and Nova Scotian writers.

An ambitious publication known as the Halifax Monthly Magazine, was published from 1830 to 1832, numbers of which contained a picture of the Duke of Kent, and of that magnificent old building which nobody regarded in those days—the Province Building, which was the finest of its kind in Canada. He found an article dealing with the possibility of a time when a railway would sweep across Canada, which he thought was from the pen of Joseph Howe.

First History Published.
The first magazine was printed by John Howe, the father of Joseph Howe, a Loyalist from Boston, Nova Scotia, who had the honor of producing the first history of Nova Scotia, which was printed in 1826. T. C. Haliburton began contributing to the "Nova Scotian" little sketches of Nova Scotia. Haliburton conceived here in Halifax his famous character, "Sam Slick, the Clock Maker," hence American humor had its birth in Halifax. Haliburton was the first man to get a hearing outside his native province. James deMille wrote thirty different books, which was first published in Harper's Magazine. The "American Baroo" was translated into French, and in 1890, Michael Williams came to Halifax a mere boy, and afterwards wrote "The Last Romance," the finest contribution of all to the literature of Halifax, and one of the most charming stories ever written in this country. The literature of Canada began in Halifax, and Halifax had not lost its power to inspire.

BRITAIN'S COLONIAL REVOLUTION

The War Has Given the Dominions a New Status in the Empire, but No Right of Secession.

(Manchester Guardian.)

A comparison of the position of Australia or Canada as they were ten years ago with their position today shows that the British Commonwealth has passed through a revolution. This revolution resembles other British revolutions in the sense that it has not been the deliberate application of a set of ideas or the definite expression of a new temper. The new relationship has long been implicit in the old, though, if there had been no war, it might have developed much more gradually and perhaps reluctantly. The war, with its problems, its experiences, and its consequences, has brought the dominions from the position in which, according to Gen. Smuts, they were still "subject provinces of Great Britain" into the position they occupy today—of "absolute equality and freedom with the other nations of the world."

It was the final act of the war, the making of the peace, that really set the seal on the new position of the dominions. In 1917 and 1918 they had declined to take any share in the control of British foreign policy or the burden of the defence of the empire. In 1919 and 1920 they were not consulted about the Peace Conference at the Hague. At the Colonial Conference of 1921 Australia had protested against British policy in the matter of fishing rights, and in 1920 the Commonwealth of Australia made a formal protest against the conclusion of the Declaration of London without consultation with the dominions. In 1921 the British government was anxious to arrange for co-operation and mutual consultations, but the dominions were lukewarm and difficult.

Like Sovereign States. Then came the war. The dominions had nothing to do with the declaration of war, though that declaration involved them in a state of war with a great power. They might have withheld their co-operation, but they threw themselves into the struggle, and were more

MRS. MARY WILHELM, Pittsburg, Pa.

"No matter what I should say about Tanlac, it wouldn't be half good enough," said Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 716 Mint Way, South Side, Pittsburg, Pa. "I never dreamed it possible for a medicine to restore me to the splendid health I now enjoy. In fact, I had almost resigned myself to being an invalid, as I could see I was losing weight and strength every day, and no relief was in sight. For three years stomach trouble, headaches and nervousness made my life miserable. The first bottle of Tanlac acted almost like magic, and it wasn't long until I was so well and strong that I could hardly realize I had ever known a sick day. I am like a different person in every way now, eating, sleeping, feeling and looking better than in years."

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

and more consulted as time went on. From 1917 their representatives took part in the deliberations of the War Cabinet, and at the Peace Conference they had a position indistinguishable from that of a sovereign state. The history of these developments, with a full account of their consequences and implications, is to be found in an admirable volume published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace ("War Government of the British Dominions"). The writer, Dr. A. B. Keith, is, of course, a well-known authority on his subject.

In commercial conventions the right of the dominions to separate representation had been recognized before the war, and after some discussion it was decided that the dominions should send their own representatives to Paris. It is interesting to notice that Canada was specially anxious for this, and that Australia was less eager, though she had protested against the conduct of the British government in assenting to the armistice terms without consulting her. It was agreed finally that Canada, Australia, and South Africa should each have two representatives and New Zealand one. The dominions have a recognized position as nations. As members of the League of Nations they send delegates to that assembly who are quite independent of British influence, and the assembly, which elects four members of the council, may elect a dominion representative if it desires. Parliament Not Supreme.

The dominions differ, of course, in their political arrangements. Canada and Australia are true federal constitutions. South Africa, New Zealand and Newfoundland have single parliaments, though in South Africa there are provincial councils. Then the powers of the Canadian and Australian parliaments are limited by the rights of local legislatures. What of the rights of the Imperial parliament? Gen. Smuts laid down in a debate on the Peace Treaty in September, 1919, that "as a result of the new status of the dominions the parliament of the United Kingdom had no right to legislate for the Union, and that the royal veto was obsolete with regard to dominion legislation." To the last doctrine, however, he made one exception of the highest importance in the case of a law proposing the secession of

MOTHER!

Move Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mothers! You must say "California" or you get an imitation fig syrup.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur bring back its vigor, color, gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautiful, dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is thinning, falling out, or becoming bald. The Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to use a bottle of "Wella's Sage and Sulphur Compound." This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray faded hair is not vital, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wella's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you can do so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hair is disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Sloan's Liniment

There is clearly no doubt of secession in the sense that a dominion may remove itself from the British Commonwealth by a simple act of its parliament to be ratified as a matter of course like any other act of a duly constituted parliament. A good deal of confusion in other countries would have been avoided if this had been understood.

The British Commonwealth is now a federation of nations, united by the crown. It rests on common tradition and common convenience, and it can never rest permanently on any other basis. Force could not keep any member within the circle, but separation would not be one single impulsive act; it would be the result of a considered resolution following on a careful discussion of all the consequences to the state proposing it and to the other members of the Commonwealth.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION.

Classes Now in Operation in Thirteen Places in New Brunswick.

Miss Sarah Barnett, who has returned to Fredericton from a visit to Grand Falls and Edmundston in the interests of vocational education, reports that the night classes in Edmundston have been started recently with a good attendance in each department. The class in general education has an enrollment of twenty-five. This class is divided, giving two courses, one in French and one in English. There are twenty-two students in the sewing class.

The classes recently started at Lower Charlo, Restigouche county, have a total enrollment of thirty-two. Of this number fourteen are enrolled in the class for general education, while nine are enrolled in each of the plain sewing and dressmaking classes.

These vocational classes have been established in this centre in the province and are proving successful. Classes have been established at Charlo, Jacques River, Bathurst, Sackville, Minto Station, South Minto, Newcastle Creek, Newcastle Bridge, Fredericton, Devon, Maryville, McAdam and Edmundston.

At last the perfect yeast combination has been discovered! No longer will it be necessary for people to put up with all the objectionable features of eating ordinary baking yeast for health. For yeast may now be taken in convenient tablet form, combining to get the best benefit from yeast.

This preparation is called Ironized Yeast, and is the approved vitamin tonic treatment for run-down conditions, loss of weight, nervousness, lack of energy, poor appetite, skin eruptions and other run-down symptoms.

The reason Ironized Yeast is bringing such splendid results everywhere is because it contains highly concentrated vitamins, which is far richer in vitamins than ordinary baking yeast. As we know, as one of the most essential of all food elements—yet

THE COUGH WITH THAT TICKLING SENSATION

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry, hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have lost a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had been hoarse all night.

NORWAY PINE SYRUP

is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on account of its soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

DR. WOODS writes: "I have suffered for years, off and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief, in fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions. I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first bottle and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TAKE YEAST THE BEST WAY—WITH IRON

If Weak, Thin or Run-Down Take Ironized Yeast, the Great New Vitamin Tonic Treatment in Tablet Form.

At last the perfect yeast combination has been discovered! No longer will it be necessary for people to put up with all the objectionable features of eating ordinary baking yeast for health. For yeast may now be taken in convenient tablet form, combining to get the best benefit from yeast.

This preparation is called Ironized Yeast, and is the approved vitamin tonic treatment for run-down conditions, loss of weight, nervousness, lack of energy, poor appetite, skin eruptions and other run-down symptoms.

The reason Ironized Yeast is bringing such splendid results everywhere is because it contains highly concentrated vitamins, which is far richer in vitamins than ordinary baking yeast. As we know, as one of the most essential of all food elements—yet

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1921

Stirring Campaign in Western End of County

Intensive campaigning in the western section of St. John county constituted the week-end Liberal platform programme for this constituency. Dr. W. P. Broderick and H. R. McLellan, the Liberal candidates, and E. R. McAlpine, K.C., addressed a fine meeting at Lorneville over which W. E. Scully, M.P.P., presided. J. Fred Belyea and Dr. J. B. Gosnell dealt particularly with topics of intimate concern to the people of that locality. A similar programme was carried out at Chance Harbor where Curran Owens and E. R. Hansen spoke. All the meetings were well attended and the audiences showed keen enthusiasm expressing their appreciation of the telling points made by the speakers in hearty applause.

At Lorneville.

A surprisingly large gathering turned out to the Liberal meeting in Lorneville. The crowd which filled the lower floor of the Orange hall and overflowed into the gallery remained until 11 o'clock to listen to the important issues of the campaign presented by the Liberal speakers.

The enthusiasm of the meeting took tangible form in the decision to create a Liberal organization in Lorneville. The suggestion of Mr. Scully to form such an organization was followed by the appointment of Mr. Galbraith as chairman. He will superintend the further business in connection with forming the Liberal organization in Lorneville.

LLOYD GEORGE BUYS ESTATE IN SURREY

Gets a Nice Property With the Choice of Two Golf Courses.

London Nov. 28.—Lloyd George has purchased from Lord Ashcombe a portion of the Churt estate, about five miles from Farnham, in Surrey and forty miles from London. It is situated in the midst of the most beautiful part of a heavily wooded district. He possesses other attractions which will appeal to Lloyd George. The Hartley Common Golf Links, which has just been extended to eighteen holes, is quite handy, while not more than three miles away is the Hindhead course of eighteen holes, said to be the most natural course in the south of England. Whatever changes the political future may have in store for Lloyd George, he will thus be able to avail himself of the consolations of golf.

HIGH TEA IS WELL OPENED

Y. M. C. I. Rooms and Supper Tables Attractive—The Mysterious Lady was Not Identified.

The Cathedral high tea in the Y. M. C. I. on Saturday night was a great success and a large number were present to enjoy the turkey supper. The fancy booths and wheels were the eye of the crowd and were well patronized. The prize winners on Saturday night were—Door prize, a load of hardware, won by Miss Eva McCourtly, 115 Union street. Miss McCourtly guessed 130, the actual number being 131. Ice cream ticket 4, unclaimed. A pair of chickens was the prize on the peanut booth, won by Miss Grace Holmes, 139 Rothesay street. Valentine booth prize of a barrel of apples, ticket 60, was unclaimed. Between 200 and 300 people were served at the high tea when turkey was the chief item of the bill of fare, and none of the "highs" were omitted. Six long tables, bright with flowers and gleaming silver, were each in charge of a separate organization with different conveners, as follows:—A. O. H. table, Mrs. H. M. Nealis, convener; St. Anne Society, Mrs. J. O'Hagan; Immaculate Conception, Mrs. Edward Finnigan; Propagation of the Faith, Mrs. T. L. Murphy; Red Cross, Mrs. John Stach; St. Vincent de Paul, Mrs. Edward Hasey. The pies and cakes were in charge of Mrs. Mary Hurley; meats, Mrs. John Holland; and coffee, Mrs. W. Emery. The coffee was kindly donated. There were many busy waitresses.

The doll booth was most attractively decorated with purple and yellow, and offered a dazzling display of dressed dolls of all kinds. The convener was Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, and her assistants were—Miss Nan McBurnett, Mrs. E. J. Mooney, Mrs. Edward Henneberry, Miss Helen Flood, Miss Jean Kelly, Mrs. George McCluskey, Miss Sadie McLaughlin, Miss Lettie Conlon and the Misses Melliday. St. Vincent's Alumnae conducted a popular "expectation" booth in country store style with very effective decorations of fir branches and unmettable letters. Miss Muriel Corbett, the president, was general convener, and those who are sub-conveners in charge each night are named as follows:—Saturday, Miss Ellen T. Reed; Monday, Miss Anna Gosnell; Tuesday, Mrs. McCann; Wednesday, Miss Catherine O'Neill; Thursday, Miss Veda Waterbury; Friday, Miss Katie Hegan; Saturday, Miss Frances Traynor.

The home-cooking booth, which was daintily arranged with white trimmings and maple leaves as decoration was in charge of the Catholic Women's League with Mrs. M. Bohan as convener, and assistants, Mrs. J. H. Dooly, Mrs. L. Comeau, Mrs. T. Fox, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. P. P. Brennan and Miss S. Godson. The children of Mary had charge of the fancy work booth, which was most artistically decorated with the society's colors, blue and white, and which offered some very beautiful wares. Miss Annie McCarthy, the convener, was assisted by Miss Florence Nugent, Miss Agnes Foley, Miss Agnes McGuire, Miss Gertrude Riley, Miss Mabel Kelly, Miss Roxie McIntyre, Miss Susie McWilliams, Miss Lilley Foley and Miss Ella Lee. The ice cream booth, tastefully arranged with red, white and blue trimmings, was in charge of Mrs. M. A. Donovan, assisted by Miss M. Morrison, Miss M. O'Neill, Miss Gertrude Cougle, Miss Vera Sullivan, Miss Alice Sullivan, Miss Agnes Bardsley and Miss N. Crenin.

The League of the Sacred Heart had a novel booth, featuring the "A-Tish-Of" a novel booth, featuring the "A-Tish-Of" up a multitude of handkerchiefs, the number of which was the secret of a guessing competition. Aprons, as well as handkerchiefs, were on sale there. Miss K. E. Lawlor was convener and was assisted by Miss K. A. Cotten, Miss K. Higgins, Miss H. Coughlan, Miss Ethel Flaherty and Miss M. McGrath.

The candy booth was in charge of the Y. M. C. I. and striking and very pretty all white decorations with many artificial white flowers. The candy booth was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Sheehan was convener and her assistants were Mrs. William Donovan, Mrs. Fred Lynch, Miss Kathleen Gorman, Miss Helen Flood and Miss Mary Flood. In the small room of the main hall the Catholic Women's League had charge of the soft drinks. The whole room was brightly decorated with Christmas favors, holly and pine branches and a miniature Christmas tree, all trimmed. Those in charge on Saturday were: Mrs. J. E. Owens, convener; Mrs. Miss Ida Flood, Miss Gertrude Cougle, Miss Helen Flood, Miss Clara McGee, and Miss Stella McMahon.

The peanut booth had very gay decorations of pink and white with many fluttering pink butterflies and bright Chinese lanterns. The convener, Miss Rita Dwyer, was assisted by Miss Rita Dwyer, Miss Frances Connolly and Miss Annie Flood. The corn board was in charge of Miss Florence Dillon, Miss Grace Holmes and Miss Gertrude Ryan. The Valentine booth was most ornamental and was profusely decorated with red hearts on white. Many leopards were also used to decorate it. Miss Carvella Nugent was the convener and her assistants were Miss Kathleen Flood, Miss Helen Dolan and Miss Miss Keen.

The tickets were sold by Miss Myrtle McCarthy and Miss Dorothy Lydon. The stock room was in charge of Harry Cobhan and the cashier was Miss Harry Ward. The punch board booth had attractive decoration of yellow with bunches of purple violets. It was in charge of Mrs. Winslow, Miss Helen Lydon, Miss Kathleen McGillivray, Miss Clara McGee and Miss M. Flood.

The five ball tiffany was in charge of Jack McAuliffe, L. Riverton, Arthur Burns, Thomas Beck, Miss Mary Flood, Miss Frances Higgins, Miss Nellie Callaghan and Miss Evelyn Breen. The different wheels and contests and those in charge were as follows: Variety, W. J. Stack, N. F. Jenkins, Thomas Killen, Harry Gibbons and Leo Holland; percentage, J. Flood, I. Breen and E. Beck; spindles, Harry O'Leary and J. Fitzpatrick; two lay downs, B. McIntyre, Dennis McCarthy, F. Nixon, Timothy Mahoney, Larry Cullinan, George Flood, H. LeClair and H. Driscoll; pool table, C. Mitchell and H. M. Nealis; voting contest, B. McIntyre, J. Kennedy and L. Henneberry. Tickets were taken by P. Clarkins, I.

THE NEW RHODES SCHOLAR.

(Fredericton Mail.) Joseph W. Sears of Barker's Point, New Brunswick, is taking an active part in the Liberal campaign in York-Sunbury in the interest of Col. W. J. Osborne, having spoken at several meetings. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sears of Barker's Point, and has had a brilliant scholastic and university course. Last season he played goal on the U. N.

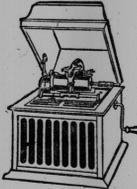

B. hockey team also was on the debating team.

At the last convocation, at which he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Mr. Sears was winner of the governor-general's gold medal for general proficiency in fourth year subjects. During his university course he was on the staff of the University Monthly. He has displayed unusual ability as a speaker and his friends look for a brilliant course for him at Oxford, where he will study law, taking up his residence next autumn. He is twenty years of age and prior to entering U. N. B. was at Fredericton High School.

FOR EAST END BOYS.

The members of the east end boys' club had their first night at the Y. M. C. A. for this season on Saturday and they enjoyed to the utmost the entertainment they received. Once a month during the season the Y. M. C. A. extends its hospitality to the boys and they look forward to the monthly recurrence with visions of great pleasure. There were eighty-five boys in charge of Miss Heffer and Walter Evans, the new physical instructor for the club. The boys were admitted by ticket and then commenced a splendid programme; first there were moving pictures, then came gymnasium work and games and last but not least, a swim in the tank and a shower bath.

Rev. J. McCandlish, C. S. S. R., delivered an interesting and eloquent lecture before the members of St. Peter's Y. M. A. yesterday afternoon. His subject was "Missions in Newfoundland."

$2 Places the New Edison DIAMOND AMBEROLA

With 12 Records of Your Own Selection—in Your Home

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE to have Edison's New Diamond Amberola—the family phonograph that plays songs and selections—all the latest and old favorites—and plays them as they should be played. Jazz for the young folks; classical music, vocal and instrumental—the Amberola plays them with all the clarity of tone and mellowness that music lovers appreciate.

And it is so easy for you to own an Amberola. The terms are so easy you'll scarcely notice them, if you take advantage of this

Special Club Offer:
$2 and $2 a week—and no interest charge—until you have paid. $72.80

Then think of the other and great advantages of buying your Amberola right from us. It goes to your home on a trifling deposit ($2.00), no waiting, no express charges. If repairs are ever necessary, we have an Edison-trained expert, of wide experience, right here at our store where we can make prompt repairs and send back your Amberola with least delay.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF. Come in and hear the New Edison Diamond Amberola. Its clear, mellow music is a revelation to all who have heard the harsh, mechanical shrillness of ordinary "talking machines." The music of the Amberola is the true music of the artist, and whether vocal or instrumental, it is reproduced with all the harmony and feeling of the original.

ONLY FIFTY AMBEROLAS to be sold on these special terms—and the offer holds good only till Christmas.

Come in and hear the Amberola, and avail yourself of this limited offer which means the most extraordinary phonograph value on the market.

FRANCE TRAINING YOUTH.

Physical Education Staff in Hands of Army.

Physical education in France is practically an outgrowth of military activities, says a bulletin of the United States Bureau of Education. Credit primarily for war purposes the system was gradually extended to serve in the time of peace. It is still in the hands of the army until such a time when the universities departments and townships shall be ready to play their part. Physical education is carried out along the following lines. The commander-in-chief of each army corps gives his attention to the organization of physical education for young people in the district under his command and works in touch with the heads of the different sports clubs and other similar institutions. He places at the disposal of educational establishments instructors and such other means as may have to promote physical education. He organizes instruction courses for teachers and assures himself that the system adopted at his regional center in conformity with the type of instruction generally given, and that the officers and instructors have the necessary pedagogical and technical qualities. He fixes the date, length and nature of the regional center. He lays down rules for the organization of holiday physical education courses and assures himself that such education is given in the manner prescribed by ministerial orders in all the establishments to which military instructors have been assigned. In 1920 the government appropriated $500,000 francs for the promotion of physical education. This sum was distributed to twenty-six federations and to approximately 3,000 clubs, which have received government approval. The government programme for physical education comprises: 1. Obligatory physical education. 2. The standardization of such training. Law voted by the senate on July 10, 1920, making physical education and preparation for military service obligatory, has just been voted by the Chamber of Deputies, says the bulletin. In order to co-ordinate the action of different ministerial departments and of the different federations, a bill for the creation of a national office of physical education and sports, already voted by the Chamber of Deputies, is now before the senate. As far as the second part of the government programme is concerned, the above mentioned law provides for the establishment of a higher school for teaching physical education which will provide male and female civilian as well as military instructors.

GERMAN HOPE OF CANCELLATION OF PART WAR DEBTS

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Cancellation of half of the allied war debt to the U. S., which is expected here would result in a revision of the amount of indemnity Germany must pay, would not appreciably affect the indemnity, according to figures published by the Tagblatt.

Instead of the yearly payments approximately $200,000,000, Germany's payments, it is estimated, would be reduced to $200,000,000.

The newspaper believes that Great Britain would approve of such a plan more readily than the other nations, but doubts whether the U. S. Congress would approve of the cancellation or whether France would give her "imperialistic policy" for the benefit of Germany's financial and economic crash.

World's Coal Output.

According to the United States Geological Survey, the world's output of coal, including brown coal and lignite, in 1920 was 1,200 million metric tons, of which Great Britain and the British Empire produced 22 per cent, and the United States 46 per cent. Germany produced 19 per cent, and other countries totalled 16 per cent.

A SERVANT OR A MASTER?

How many men labor all their lives for the comfortable little fortune that shall mean liberty from care—only to find that the dollars bring their own bondage? What with collecting interest, watching the market, re-investing maturing investments, looking after real estate, the little fortune is almost as much work to take care of as it was to accumulate.

If you have a little money, let it serve you, not master you. For a fraction of what your time is worth to you THE CANADA PERMANENT TRUST COMPANY will take charge of your investments, collect your income, invest or reinvest your money, according to your instructions—or according to our best judgment, if you prefer to leave it entirely in our hands.

Because of this Company's wide experience, judgment, financial standing, and perfect trustworthiness, you are assured both leisure and peace of mind, when you place your affairs in the hands of

BEST SUGAR OUTPUT HIGHER.

The sugar beet is slowly coming back to its proper share in the world's sugar production. Twenty years ago, says the National City Bank, in a survey of the world's sugar production, two-thirds of the sugar of the world, the percentage of world sugar output produced by beets having ranged from 62 to 66 per cent in the period 1897-1902, though this was in a period in which the world's sugar production was unusually low. Normally, indeed, the bank's statement, the best supplied just more than half of the world's production of sugar.

Then, with the outbreak of the World War, there was a sharp decline in the world's chief beet sugar producer—the share which the United States had taken in 1913 to 29 per cent in 1918 and 22 per cent in 1919-1920.

In the low record year, 1919-1920, Europe's output of best sugar had fallen, according to the statistics of the world, against 5,341,000 tons in the sugar year 1912-13. In the sugar year 1920-21 the United States, which has been producing about 650,000 tons of best sugar a year, suddenly increased its output to 1,019,000 tons, while Europe also increased its output to 3,719,000 tons, bringing the total output of the world to 5,368,000 tons, or about 17 per cent more than the output of the world in 1912-13.

The statistics of the world's total sugar output for the crop year 1921-22, continues the bank, are as follows: The United States, 1,019,000 tons, or 19 per cent of the total; Europe, 3,719,000 tons, or 69 per cent of the total; and the rest of the world, 1,630,000 tons, or 30 per cent of the total.

The output of best sugar under the American flag in the crop year 1921-22 is estimated by the above quoted statistics at 1,019,000 tons, out of the total estimated total of 5,368,000 tons, the cane output of Louisiana and Cuba being 291,000 tons, and the Hawaiian Islands 450,000; Porto Rico, 415,000; and the Virgin Islands 60,000.

This estimate, if justified by future developments, would put the output of the circuit crop year at about 17 per cent of the world's total.

The output of best sugar under the American flag in the crop year 1921-22 is estimated by the above quoted statistics at 1,019,000 tons, out of the total estimated total of 5,368,000 tons, the cane output of Louisiana and Cuba being 291,000 tons, and the Hawaiian Islands 450,000; Porto Rico, 415,000; and the Virgin Islands 60,000.

CATHERINE CALVERT

IN VITAGRAPH SPECIAL PRODUCTION

In the heart of Maryland, the state, one spring night in 1861, the heart of Maryland, the girl, was under peaceful siege by Major Alan Kendrick, of the Ninth Cavalry, United States Army. The two had been companions from childhood. They were neighbors and had grown up together. It was the wish of both their parents that the two should wed and naturally they had grown to look upon the union as inevitable. But on this night sad news was brought by an intimate friend of the lovers. It's better to see the picture—it tells its own story.

SEIZE NEARLY 3,000 QUARTS OF CANADIAN BEER

Yacht and Auto Also Taken in Ohio—A Large Liquor Seizure in Moosomin.

Toledo, Nov. 26—Nearly 3,000 quart bottles of Canadian nine per cent. beer were confiscated here yesterday, an hour after the cargo had been hauled into the freight ship in Maumee Bay.

A lake-going yacht also was seized, together with an automobile, said by police to belong to an alleged run-runner. The crew of the yacht escaped.

Several hours after the seizure George Dittman was arrested and held without bail. He is believed by the police to have been head of the smugglers.

Regina, Nov. 26—A stock of liquor worth $10,000 and seized by officials of the Saskatchewan liquor commission in the warehouse of the Northern Liquor

Co., Moosomin, on October 31, was ordered confiscated by Magistrate Sarver at Moosomin, on Saturday. It was held that the liquor was owned by the Regina Wine and Spirit Co. and in transferring it to the Northern Liquor Co. the law had been violated.

REGISTERED MAIL SACK STOLEN IN ONTARIO

Toronto, Nov. 28—The theft of a sack of registered mail, said to contain cash and securities valued at $10,000, from a mail car on the Toronto and Northern Ontario Railroad on Nov. 26, became known here on Saturday. The authorities refuse to divulge who they have learned.

An alarm was rung in from box 12 about 6:40 last night for a fire in the house of William Colwell on Main st. The fire started from a fire in the upper flat, but was checked before much damage was done.

Regular tonight, Prince Edward College Academy.

THE PARIS CASE

Further Evidence Regarding Gasoline Sales Taken on Saturday.

At the Saturday afternoon session of a trial of John Paris at Circuit Court a cross-examination of Stanley Nichols was resumed. On the opening of the session counsel argued as to the admissibility as evidence of the entry of purchase of gasoline. The court ruled that it could not be placed in evidence. Nichols was closely cross-examined by the attorney-general, particularly about the uoline purchase. The attorney-general produced a telegram to the Truro chief of police which read as follows: "Bought five gallons of uoline from John Paris Aug. 2 or 3. Ignod, J. S. Nichols." The witness said that he did not remember sending this telegram. The telegram was placed in evidence. The witness said that he had discovered it was on Aug. 2 as soon as he had asked for his books. At the trial he did not have the books. At the time of the trial he did not know if he had bought gasoline on Aug. 1 or 2 or Aug. 2 or 3. In reply to a question as to the hour he had bought the gasoline from Paris, he replied that it was in the afternoon, about five hours after purchasing the uoline from the oil company. He did not suspect the gasoline was stolen. He did not see the gasoline when it was taken from the oil company. He did not see the oil company thirty-nine cents a gallon, exclusive of the war tax, and Spencer's garage. Bagwell would know what day Paris was at Spencer's garage to sell gasoline. Mr. Byrne asked the witness if a "2" of the date of another entry in the book had not been changed. The witness replied that it had not been changed. The man had run dry and he had made the figure over. At this stage the court allowed the book to be placed in evidence. The witness said that on Aug. 2 he

WAS TROUBLED WITH HER LIVER FOR OVER 4 MONTHS

When the liver becomes slow, sluggish and torpid, it is not working properly and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, and live troubles follow among which are, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, pain under the right shoulder, coated tongue, bad breath, yellow eyes, etc. MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS quickly remove the secretions, clear away the effete and waste matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood. Mrs. Alice Mehil, Napanee, Ont., writes—"I was very badly run down for over four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials and I am a different person today. I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to any one troubled with liver troubles." Price, 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHURCH SERVICES

The Methodist ministers' pulpit exchanges were made yesterday morning as follows:—Rev. Neil MacLaughlin, of Queen square, exchanged with Rev. H. B. Clarke, of Portland; Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary, exchanged with Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Exmouth street; Rev. J. Heaney, of the Carleton church, exchanged with Rev. J. M. Rice, of Fairville, and Rev. E. E. Styles, of Carmarthen street, exchanged with Rev. J. K. King, of Zion church. The Boy Scouts of the First Presbyterian church, participated in service yesterday morning and made a fine showing. The boys, numbering about thirty-five, formed up in their parade ground in the vestry of the church and marched in a body to their seats in the church. The scoutmaster, W. W. Allingham, and the scouts' chaplain, addressed himself particularly to the boys in his sermon on "Be-loopers." He held up for the admiration and emulation of the boys the best habits of industry. Rev. Swin was the preacher in the Victoria street Baptist church yesterday morning. He continued his remarks on the history of the present church which will be vacated this week. Mr. Swin's connection with the Victoria street church, of which he has been a member and former pastor, dates back for the period of thirty-eight years. The new church will be dedicated next Sunday. The old building will be used as a Sunday school and hall. In the afternoon Miss Martha Clark spoke at the church in a stirring sermon. Rev. G. D. Hudson was the pastor. The annual corporate service of St. Andrew's society was held in Knox church yesterday morning, when Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, pastor of the church, and chaplain-general of the Covenanter, presided. The members of the society marched from their hall to the church in the strains of bagpipes and music, and with Lieut-Colonel A. McMillan at their head. The first scripture lesson, Psalm 126, the war song of the Covenanters at the battle of Drumclog, was read by S. R. Jack, president-elect. The second scripture reading was read by A. Wilson, history-leader. For the text of his sermon, Mr. Legate took 11 Chronicles, 12-12. He told what the Covenanters stood and asked all to try and perpetrate their virtues. Last night was missionary evening in the Ludlow street Baptist church and the address by the pastor was on "The Great Commission." Mrs. J. E. Rupert presided over the programme which followed the regular service, including the presentation of prizes for an essay competition. Miss Martha Clark told her work in India and a collection was taken up for the W. M. S.

MONDAY-TUESDAY William Fox presents DUSTIN FARNUM

The Primal Law

by E. Lloyd Sheldon Directed by Bernard Durning "The Primal Law" a William Fox photoplay dealing with the wonderful life of a child and the bitter struggle of men for the possession of valuable oil lands in the West. Presenting Dustin Farnum in the stellar role, will be the attraction at the PALACE THEATRE, MON. DAY and TUESDAY. This star long has been popular in a wide variety of characters, winning fame as a matinee idol as well as in the roles of rugged adventurers. His popularity in western drama is pronounced. In "The Primal Law" Dustin Farnum appears as half owner of Wild-Ranch, a property sought for some mysterious purpose by a band of unprincipled conspirators. He becomes involved in fierce fighting and an interesting romance. Throughout he is the big pal of little Bobbie Carson, the motherless son of his party, whom he is pledged to guard against the strange menace of circumstances. The element of mystery is effectively developed, and suspense admirably sustained. The arrival of a young eastern girl presents the possibility of a love theme, which develops in dramatic fashion, intermingled with stirring events growing out of the activities of the plotters. The role of Brian Wray is one of versatility and dramatic ability. He is supported by Harry Dunlop, Philo McGilgough, Frank Lee, Mike, Marshall and others.

"WAY DOWN EAST"

Two Exhibitions Daily—2.30 and 8 p. m. (Car Call at Night 10.30) "WAY DOWN EAST" REPRESENTS A THOUGHT which had been in Mr. Griffith's mind for some time. It is "an evening's entertainment," not an ordinary attraction. It is full of appeal. The pathetic little Anna Moore demands the full sympathy of the audience throughout. The screen seldom presents an appeal as strong as this. From the pathos of the first scene, the director has built up a character with a wealth of detail. As Anna moves from one phase of life to the next, the appeal becomes stronger, until she is the most pathetic of creatures. In that moment, Lennox, the villain, is forgotten, and at odd moments, through her despair, we see Anna glad because the big love of her life has dawned upon her. Interest centres upon the web of gossip being woven about Anna, and when she is driven from her haven of refuge among those who loved her, and whom she loved, one refuge among several of his characters with a distinct appeal—Mrs. Bartlett, the Squire, Martha, David, so admirably played by Richard Barthelmess; and Lillian Gish, who does the best work of her career as Anna Moore.

TREMENDOUS, OVERPOWERING CLIMAX! IN A RAGING RIVER OF ICE! Every mood and temperament of this wonderful depiction is brought into the story by the specially-written musical score. SCALERS SHOW LUMBER-CUT IS INCREASING

Small Operations Will Produce Fair Total in New Brunswick. (Fredericton Mail.) It is reported that indications at the present point to the cut of lumber on crown lands in the Province of New Brunswick being much larger than was expected at the beginning of the logging season. These indications are most gratifying, as it had been thought that with a period of depression in the lumber market the cut on the crown lands would be exceedingly light. Conditions are very similar to those of last season, when it was forecasted that the season would be exceedingly light. The season as it progressed saw operations of considerable magnitude undertaken and a total cut of some two hundred million feet produced. The scalers' reports from various parts of the province show that operators are getting on well and it is probable that before the winter is far advanced a very respectable total will be shown from the crown lands. The operations generally are in the central and north of the province and although small in comparison with some seasons a few years ago, go a considerable distance toward solution of the problem of unemployment. The southern portion of the province shows little activity, as all operators are waiting for improvement in the market. Well, Done, Doctor Joe. Moncton Transcript: One of the most successful football coaches in Upper Canada is Dr. Joe Donnelly, a former St. John, N. B. athlete. At McGill, where Dr. Donnelly studied medicine, he was recognized as one of the finest footballers developed in years, and on a recent Saturday the Westmount Inter-mediate, coached by him, captured the Quebec championship by defeating the Montreal A. A.'s rugby team. Regular tonight, Prince Edward Dancing Academy. 11-29

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Two children were burned to death, others were injured and a loss of about $20,000 was sustained in a fire which broke out in a block of buildings on 19th avenue, Montreal, yesterday. Etie and Walter Langley, aged six and four years, were the children burned. Nine houses were destroyed. Latest developments from the foundering of the steamer City of New York near Stony Point show that eight lives have been lost. Five bodies were found in the yawl by the steamer Iaballe, and three are still missing. The bodies in the yawl were all fully dressed and death was attributed to exposure. Sir Douglas P. Cameron, former lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, died in the General hospital, Toronto, Saturday night from pneumonia, following an operation for mastoid. He was sick for about two weeks. Sir Douglas was a lumberman and a millionaire. He was a Liberal. Fire broke out from an unknown origin last night in the theatre building of the Ontario Reformatory, Guelph, and although two brigades fought the flames they were not got under control until the building was practically gutted. A visitor to the city who has had a unique experience is Miss E. M. Trent, missionary, on furlough from Japan, who has been stationed at Nagoya for twenty-seven years and who is still for only woman missionary in that community of 80,000. Miss Trent is very enthusiastic in speaking of the opportunities for evangelism of the younger generation in Japan at the present time, and she became keen and enlightened. A foreigner was at liberty to go anywhere without fear. Her own work consists of the evangelization of woman and sick and parish visiting.

DEATH OF CHILD.

Friends of David McInerney of St. Martins were sorry to learn of the death of his young son, George A. which occurred on last Friday, aged sixteen months. Burial was in Fernhill on Saturday.

OFF FOR THE WINTER.

The ferry steamer Governor Carleton is off the route for the winter, so Commissioner Bullock said today. It was intended to replace her with the Ludlow early in December, but the accident to her driving gear yesterday caused her to be out of service. Repairs will be made while she is laid up.

RAILWAY RATES.

The secretary of the board of trade has received Order No. 381 of the Canadian Board of Railway Commissioners, amending paragraph one of Order No. 350, dated November 24, 1921, which was published last week, regarding rates on cordwood, slabs, edgings, and mill refuse for fuel purposes to be returned to the basis in effect prior to September 13, 1920.

CASE DISMISSED.

In admiralty this morning Chief Justice Hazen dismissed the case of Kouas vs. the Steamer Maplecourt an action for wages. His Honor finding that the claim was for a less amount than should have been brought in Admiralty. He allowed no costs. J. F. H. Teed, appeared for the plaintiff and Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., for the defendant.

NO PARKING ORDER.

On account of the difficulties which might be encountered in the moving of fire apparatus in case of fire, Commissioner Thornton said today that orders had been issued prohibiting the parking of automobiles in north and south Market streets. He said that parking places had been allotted on both sides of King Square, and in future the streets near the market must not be obstructed.

INCREASE COST OF STREET LIGHTING

Letter from Power Company at Council Meeting.

Sum of $18,000 Received for Snow Removal—Transfer of Fire Apparatus—Other Matters Taken Up.

A further increase in the cost of street lighting in the city was forecasted in a letter from the New Brunswick Power Co. read at a meeting of the city commissioners this morning. The company also expressed the intention of replacing broken lamps only four times in a calendar year, and replacements more than that number to be charged to the city. Commissioner Frink announced the receipt of $18,000 for snow removal from the power company. The mayor presided and all the commissioners were present.

Commissioner Thornton read a letter from the N. B. Power Co., regarding street lighting, stating that they would be allowed to make abatement for charges for lights out. It was stated that the company maintained a system of inspection and policemen should notify the company of lights reported out and replacements would be made. In reply to a letter from the commissioner, the company wrote that the new regulations should go into effect on Dec. 1.

The company said that they would discuss with the commissioner the matter of rates for 1922, but it was anticipated that there would be an increase. They also thought that lighting charges should not be subject to a 1/2 per cent. discount, as it was not felt that the company should pay taxes on the service to the city.

Commissioner Thornton said that no written agreement was made with the company regarding lighting rates. He thought that the company did not display a spirit of co-operation in giving such short notice of impending charges. According to a verbal agreement, the commissioner said, the company was to be allowed a reduction for lights being out. He said the additional replacements were no doubt due to some extent at present to breakage from rowdiness. He said he would notify the company that the present agreement should not be changed this year, and would report back to the council.

Overhead Crossing.
The mayor reported that Mr. Mountain engineer for the railway commission, was in the city last week and looked over the site of the proposed overhead crossing in Douglas avenue.

He said he had word from the power company regarding their refusal to contribute a portion of the cost of the crossing.

The mayor said he would report on Thursday regarding the letter received from the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission.

Commissioner Frink reported that the work on the Marsh road had been shut down. There was still a short piece near the One Mile House uncompleted.

Commissioner Thornton reported plans to remove the horse-drawn chemical from No. 1 station to No. 6 on the west side. He thought this should induce the fire underwriters to reduce the insurance money in West St. John.

Money for Snow Removal.

Commissioner Frink said that he had received $18,000 from the power company for snow removal and he would be able to carry on the work with some of the unexpended. He said the men engaged were being paid $3.50 a day, except the watchmen who received $3.00.

The mayor thought that, for emergency work, the rate for temporary help should be less. If the $3.50 rate had to be adhered to, he thought that the work should be divided up. He said that snow shovellers from his office or the memorial work shops charged forty cents an hour, but he had sent some men out on emergency work at $2.50 a day.

The mayor said he hoped to get cleared up tomorrow the matter of claims of returned men for half pay during the time they were overseas.

THE WINTER PORT SEASON OPENED

Tunisian at Sand Point With 144 Passengers.

Stormy at Times on the Way from Glasgow—New Concerns Fine Looking Assemblage—Two More Liners Due on Wednesday.

With the arrival of the C. P. O. S. liner Tunisian this morning from Glasgow the winter port season was opened and Sand Point again presented a scene of activity after many months of idleness. The large liner was due to arrive yesterday afternoon, but encountered a heavy snow storm which delayed her at Bay of Fundy and was delayed. Although forced to battle against strong head winds she encountered no difficulties and made remarkably good time, more especially as one of her boilers was out of commission. She left Glasgow on November 19, and for the first two days averaged close to 380 miles a day, later, when heavy weather was encountered the chart only showed 275 miles. She brought from Glasgow 144 passengers, forty-eight cabin and ninety-six third class; in addition to 620 tons of cargo, of which 206 were billed for St. John, 1480 bags of mail and 1102 packages of parcel post, of which ninety-four bags of mail are for St. John post office and thirty-seven packages.

The passengers did not seem to mind the storm and lined the decks as the large liner emerged from the bank of fog and snow, and was slowly worked into No. 3 berth. The gang-plank was sent up at eleven o'clock and none of the passengers disembarked until after they had luncheon. They were all a fine looking set of people and manifested considerable curiosity as they wandered their way through the freight sheds to the immigration building.

During the passage across nothing eventful happened, although one fireman named Sibbald, whose home is in Kirkcubright, Scotland, took ill and had to be removed to the hospital after the steamer docked.

Aside from a quantity of "happy thought" (as one of the members of the crew termed it), or liquor, the only freight worthy of note were three goats and five hampans poultry destined for Upper Canada.

Among the passengers were: Mr. and Mrs. D. MacLean, and Messrs. D. J. D. and A. MacLean, of Riverside, N. B.; Dr. J. E. C. Henderson of Zephyr, Ontario; Rev. J. A. Macdonald of Bala, Ontario; and F. B. Foster of Montreal.

The S. S. Tunisian is in charge of Commander G. W. Hodder, who has as assistants, M. Murray, chief officer; P. H. Moore, first officer; H. Atherton, purser; J. Cassidy, chief engineer; T. Holmes Scott, surgeon; and H. Monkhouse, chief steward.

Two C. P. O. S. liners are due here Wednesday. The Caerta, which will inaugurate the service between this port and Italy, is due with twenty-two cabin and 160 third class passengers, in addition to 360 tons of general cargo and eight bags of mail.

The Sicilian is due from London with 1221 tons of general cargo, 307 from London, of which forty-five tons are billed here; and 1214 tons from Antwerp for various parts of Canada.

MAGISTRATE DID NOT LIKE IT

Matter of Prisoners Released on Deposit Causes Remarks in Court.

In the police court this morning one man, charged with drunkenness, pleaded guilty and was remanded.

Two others were arrested over the weekend on like charges. On the magistrate calling for them this morning it was discovered that they had been let out on deposits and had not shown up. The clerk said the chief had told him he knew nothing about the matter. His Honor then demanded that the pulling of strings be stopped and said he wasn't afraid of the commissioners, the premier, the mayor or the government and meant to treat all alike. He asked that the chief be sent for to come upstairs, and said that the deposits had been taken by someone who had no legal right to take them.

Robert H. Carlin, charged with refusing to move when ordered to do so by the police and with creating a disturbance, pleaded not guilty. Policeman Goodie told of seeing three men talking together in Main street and telling them to move along. He saw the accused refused to move and said he was waiting for a union bus. He had been waiting for one of Percy Thomson's cars he would not have been told to do this.

Policeman Lindsay corroborated this evidence.

Carlin swore he had been peacefully waiting for a car and had refused to move when ordered as he thought he had a right to stand there. He told the policeman it was not one of Percy Thomson's cars but a union bus he wanted.

On motion of E. E. Ritchie, counsel for the defence the case was postponed until tomorrow at 11 o'clock. His Honor said that as this man had been held in jail over the week-end and not allowed out on deposit as had the other two, he would allow him to go on his word to reappear.
