CRUSADING WOMEN. MANSLAUGHTER.

this morning at 11 o'clock, by his honor, Judge Tuck; Judge King is to preside

Tremont Temple presented yesterday afternoon a wonderful scene, filled, as it was, with an immense audience of men and women, gathered to hear Lady Henry Somerset, the flower of England's Christian womanhood, preach to the great dual convention of the World's and the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union its annual sermon.

The platform was reserved for the foreign delegates and the officers of the union; the floor, balconies and galleries, open to the public, were filled as probably never before.

Judge Ring is to preside later.

The grand jurors summoned to attend were Messrs Arthur Everitt, Henry Maher, Henry A. McCollough, W. E. A. Wroom, Charles McLaughlan, James Ready, James Masson, J. M. Taylor, G. H. Waterbury, Samuel Crothers, T. N. Robertson, A. Sinclair, H. S. Gregory, Robert M. May, Alex. A. Watson, Joseph A. Magilton, Isaac Erb, J. R. Calhoun, C. W. Hutchings, William Young, William Robb, Ward C. Pittfield, Frank H. Flewelling and William Welsh. Mr. T. N. Robertson was elected foreman of the grand jury.

open to the public, were filled as probably never before.

The immense congregation, which filled the Temple for hours before the services began, occupied a portion of the time of waiting with a praise service and a "testimony meeting." At 3 o'clock the devotional exercises immediately preceding the sermon were conducted by Miss Elizabeth W. Greenwood, superintendent of the evangelistic department of the National W. C. T. U.

A portion of the 11th chapter of the brews was read by Miss Greenwood, the 24th to the 28th verses, including the text of Lady Henry Somerset's sermon. Hannah Whitall Smith of London, Bible reader, made the prayer, especially asking for blessing upon the speaker of the afternoon.

Miss Willard spoke of one phase of the conductive services in the grand jury.

The petit jurors summoned were Robt. Richie, Uriah Drake, Thomas L. Reed, Charles E. Lordly, Asa L. Blakeslee, John L. Lord, Charles F. Tilley, Michael O. Mahoneyi Richard Whiteside, Daniel Hayes, John Mullin, Thomas C. Clark, G. C. Carman, Cromby Robertson, Isaac Stevens, James Simpson, James F. Carpenter, Edward N. Spragg, David S. Stewart, John Stewart and John Fleming.

His Honor Judge Tuck in opening the court addressed the Grand Jury as follows:

Mr. T. N.

The petit jurors summoned were Robt.

manner the incidents of the murder tears rolled down Almys cheeks and an occasional nervous twitching of his face was noticeable. At the conclusion of the county solicitor's argument witnesses were sworn.

Mrs. Warden took the stand and told in detail the circumstances of the shooting, substantially as has been published. Mrs. Warden took the stand and told the story of the murder when Christie's body was found shelwas lying on her back with her legs crossed. Witness found her dress skirt and underskirt off and lying some twelve feet away from the body. They were badly torn. While these garments were being shown to Judge Doe Almy broke down and wept.

Death of Joseph Sullivan.

Joseph Sullivan died at his residence, High street last evening. He had been in poor health for the past couple of years but was able to move about the streets up to a few weeks ago. Mr. Sullivan was a native of this city. For many years he was foreman in Hilly yard's shipyards and he also worked for several of the leading shipbuilding firms of a quarter of a century ago. Deceased Witness found her dress skirt and underskirt off and lying some twelve feet away from the body. They were badly torn. While these garments were being shown to Judge Doe Almy broke down and wept.

Our Ministers find it necessary to purchase many books, but only few of them feel that they can afford to pay from $150 to $200 for an expensive Encyclopedia. This is a progressive age. THE GAZETTE offers the "Encyclopedia Britannica, Revised and Amended," which is acknowledged to be the very best work ever published, in connection with a year's subscription to the paper for the small sum of clergy men in the Dominion. You cannot afford to do without it. Call at our office and see it, or write us and we will send you a descriptive circular.
