Mitigation Plea

The accused enlisted in 1941 and came to France 6 Jul 44 with H.Q. 2 Corps as a cook, serving thus ever since. He had had no news from home for a year and a half, although he has been supporting his parents by an assignment. He was working night shift and had been for a month and a half, but could not sleep properly during the day. He asked to be put on day-shift but was told he would have to wait. And he had had only one "48" since 6 Jul, and had asked twice for a pass but had been refused.

All this continued to make him feel depressed & discouraged, and so he went A.W.X. to have a rest. Then after 3 or 4 days the British police came to the place where he was staying in Ghent and took his battle dress away, so that all he had to wear was another pair of battle dress trousers and an American jacket. Subsequently the woman with whom he was staying dyed his trousers navy blue without his permission, and he was wearing these when picked up. He wanted to get uniform before returning to his unit, but had not been able to get one.

The accused has volunteered for service with the occupational forces. He has already been in custody 44 days awaiting trial!

In conclusion I would point out that the accused was not with a front line unit, and that there is therefore no question of his evading any fighting.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

PLEA OF MITIGATION for

B15337, Gnr. Robbins, H.A.,
89 Battery, 1st, L.A.A. Reg't.

With reference to the attached Summary Of Evidence of which the accused has pleaded guilty, I would like to bring the following points before the Court for consideration before sentence is passed on the three charges as described therein:-

1. Gnr. Robbins, H.A. spent the period in which he was A.W.L. as stated in Charge 3, making a tour of the local wine shops in company with two other men. They all arrived back at the barracks intoxicated and the subsequent insubordinate actions on the part of his companions in this incident resulted in both being sentenced to terms of detention by the C.O.

2. The accused apparently did not appear to be physically incapable of carrying out his duties but I would ask the Court to take into consideration the fact that he had been drinking "Vino" and it is recognised that this wine has a particularly violent reaction on men not used to drinking it. The accused states that he does not remember his actions at the time the crimes on which he is charged were committed.

3. The attached Crime Sheet (M.F.M.6) does not indicate that the accused was a vicious character or in any way an incorrigible "bad actor" and I would therefore ask the Court to temper their judgement with clemency in passing sentence on the charges to which Gnr. Robbins has pleaded guilty.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First witness for the Prosecution.

G-4066. A/Sgt. McPhail R.W., 90 Bty, 1 Edn Anti-Tank Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn states:

"At 1405 hrs on 12 Nov 42 I was ~~ordered~~ detailed by Capt. A.B. Guard Commander in the R.H.Q. Guard Room when Gnr Robins came to get his pass. I examined his equipment and in his respirator haversack I found one two ounce tin of sugar, one twelve ounce tin of Pork Luncheon Meat, one tin of tea, one pound of National Butter, one two ounce tin of margarine and one two ounce tin of Apricot Jam. I produce the above mentioned articles as Exhibit "A".

I reported this to the R.S.M. who in turn examined the articles and after I made a list of them, he removed them from the Guard Room and ordered me to place Gnr Robins under close arrest."

On his evidence being read to him the witness desires to make the following alterations:

"Instead of 1405 hrs I wish to say approximately 1405 hrs."

"Instead of one two ounce tin of margarine I wish to say a small tin which I understand contain margarine"

"I was not actually on duty at the time."

Lt. W.S. Robins

Second witness for the Prosecution.

G-4102. L/Bdr. Amos N.C.J., 90 Bty, 1 Coln Anti Tank Regt. R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:

At approximately 1405 hrs on 12 Nov 42 I was standing next to the table in the Guard Room at R.H.Q. when Gnr Robins came in to get his pass, before proceeding on leave. L/Sgt. McPhail was sitting down behind the table and told Robins he had to check his kit. Robin handed him his Gnard pack which he opened and checked. While the Gnard pack was being checked Robins said he wanted to go to the Q.M. Stores. He got outside the door before L/Sgt. McPhail stopped him and ordered him to take off his respirator. Robins said again that he had to go to the Quarter Stores and would be right back. After being ordered two or three times to take off his respirator by L/Sgt. McPhail, he finally did so and handed it to L/Sgt. McPhail. By that time he was back in the Guard Room again and L/Sgt. McPhail examined the contents of Robins respirator haversack and I saw him take out of it one two ounce tin of sugar, one twelve ounce tin of Pork luncheon meat, one tin of tea, one pound of National Butter, one two ounce tin of Apricot Jam and one ounce tin of which I could not read the label. I recognize the aforementioned articles as Exhibit "A".

L/Sgt. McPhail went to get the R.S.M. who arrived shortly afterwards, made a list of the articles of food with L/Sgt. McPhail and then removed them from the Guard Room.

"At approximately 1420 hrs, 17 Nov 42, I was called to the Guard Room by the N.C.O. in charge of the Guard, A/Sgt. McPhail who showed me one two ounce tin of sugar, one twelve ounce tin of Pork Luncheon meat, one tin of tea, one pound of National Butter, one two ounce tin of Apricot Jam and one small tin of which I found not read the label. I recognize the aforementioned articles as Exhibit "A". He stated he had found them in the respirator haversack of Gnr Robins who was at the Guard room for the purpose of obtaining his pass before proceeding on Privilage leave. I asked Robins if he owned any of these articles and he said "NO, except for about two ounces of the tea which I brought back with me off pass last week."

I had A/Sgt. McPhail make a list of the articles and I ordered that Robins be detained under close arrest. I collected the articles and handed them to Capt. Burnett in the presence of Major Harkness.

I had previously seen these articles with the exception of the can of tea, on November the ninth at approximately 1000 hrs. At that time they were shown to me in the presence of R.Q.M.S. Doddridge by Gnr Stewart who had reported as relief cook to the Sgts' mess that afternoon. I saw these articles in the kitchen of the Sgts' mess. Robins is the Sgts' mess cook.

Fourth witness for the Prosecution. E.0025 RQMS Doddridge A.C., R.A.O. 1 Can Anti-Tank Regt. R.C.A. having been duly Sworn States:

On 9 Nov 42, between 1600 hrs and 1700 hrs I was called into the Sgts Mess kitchen and shown some rations which had evidently been hidden away in a biscuit tin in the pantry. They consisted of one pound of rations butter, a small two ounce tin of sugar, a two ounce tin of apricot jam, a two ounce tin of margarine, a twelve ounce tin of Pork Luncheon meat and one tin of tea. Instructions were given to have these rations put back into the box and the box replaced where it was found. I saw them put back into the box. I checked the box on 11 Nov 42 and found the aforementioned articles therein with the exception of the tea.

I was informed of Gnr. Robin's arrest at about 1530 hrs. 12 Nov 42 for having been found in possession of rations when going on leave and when I checked the biscuit box in the pantry it was empty.

The articles of food, now called Exhibit "A", are identical to those I saw in the biscuit box in the pantry with the exception of the tin the tea is in.

Question. 1

Do you recognize Exhibit "A" as rations issued to this Regiment?

Answer. 1

Yes, but we have been issued with rations identically the same with the exception of the Pork Luncheon meat which is purchased as NAAFI on the 2½d account.

The second point I'd like to make is ~~Sub~~ Cpl. Robbis civilian trade is cooking and has been so for 15 years. All his service in the army has been spent as a cook and for a man who has worked around food for that length of time a rather proprietary attitude is adopted towards the food they receive and prepare.

A cook proceeding on a 9 day pass with a 12 hour journey by rail quite normally might provide himself with what he considered sufficient food for his own personall use. The value of the articles in question is trifling there is obviously

A6. I don't know, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q7. You have no idea who had left that m/c there?
A7. None at all.

2nd witness) No. C9399, CPL. M. JAMIESON, C.M.P., being for) duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
prosecution)

Q8. Will you tell the court what you know about this case?
A8. I was on duty in Guildford on the 6 Dec 41 at approx 2200 hrs at the Stoke Dance Hall and Pte Robinson approached me and asked if he could have a ride back to Aldershot and I said I would, yes, and for him to be at the station at approx 2230 hrs. I arrived at approx 2230 hrs and picked up my patrol and Pte Robinson was not around, so I pulled out at approx 2235 hrs. On the 7 Dec 41 at approx 1200 hrs Sgt Baizley instructed me to investigate into a case in which one of our motorcycles was stolen on the night of 6 Dec 41. The m/c stolen was CC4366342, a machine assigned to L/Cpl Hartling. I asked L/Cpl Hartling if he suspected anyone and he said a Pte Robinson had been inquiring about a ride. I went to C.B.U. on the 7 Dec 41 and learnt that Pte Robinson was on the Witley run and would not be in until 1230 hrs. I returned at the time stated and asked Pte Robinson how he got home from Guildford how he got home on the night of the 6th and he said he walked. I asked him what time he got in and he said about three in the morning. I asked him if he was wearing that battle dress and he said, "No." I asked him if I could see the one he was wearing and he produced it and I examined it. I noticed about 12 or 15 ins. of the pant leg was full of sand and I turned the trouser leg inside out and found the trousers to be the same inside, which looked as though the wearer of them had been riding on a m/c and in the wind and wet. I questioned him and was quite positive he had ridden a machine, so I went back to my orderly room and informed Sgt Baizley what I had found and he instructed me to go back and escort Pte Robinson to the orderly room, which I did. About 1500 hrs Pte Robinson confessed to the taking of the machine and he voluntarily made a statement and I was present when it was taken. At approx 1400 hrs on the 7 Dec 41 I received a phone call from No 7 Provost saying the machine we had lost was at the C.M.P. Bks, Stanhope Lines, Aldershot. I went down, recognised the machine, and saw where the baker light had been taken off the distributor spark plug and wired together, but apart from that everything was in first class shape. Then, sir, the machine was brought back to our orderly room.
Q9. Do you know definitely if m/c CC4366342 belongs to L/Cpl Hartling?
A9. Yes sir, each man is assigned a machine and nobody else can ride that machine.
Q10. Were you present when Pte Robinson made his statement to Sgt Baizley?
A10. Yes, sir.
Q11. Was he warned?
A11. Yes sir, he was warned and he was told whatever was written down would probably be before the court as evidence.
Q12. Did they tell him it could be used as evidence against him?
A12. Yes, sir.
Q13. And you were a witness to that fact?
A13 Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q14. What time did the accused speak to you in the Stoke Dance Hall in Guildford?
A14. Approx 2200 hrs.

Q15. Are you sure it would not be 2000 hrs?
A15. No sir, it was approx 2200 hrs.
Q16. I notice in your summary of evidence you said he came to yo eight o'clock at night?
A16. Yes, I saw him about eight o'clock, but he never asked me fo ride then.
Q17. I want you to be very careful. In your summary of evidence yo stated 2000 hrs on 6 Dec 41 Pte Robinson approached you at the Stoke Damne Hall in Guildford and asked you for a ride home.
Now will you be sure of the times?
A17. I am sure it was about 2200 hrs.
Q18. You want to change your time then from 2000 to 2200 hrs?
A18. I am sure it was 10 o'clock when Pte Robinson approached me and asked me if he could have a ride home, but I had seen him previous to that.
Q19. The following day you say Sgt Beazley instructed you to go to HQ, CRU, and interview the accused, whom you had suspicions of?
A19. That is right.
Q20. Did he order you to put him under arrest?
A20. No, sir.
Q21. At the time you interviewed Robinson did he seem as though he was inclined to help you, or did he seem inclined to hold anything back from you at all?
A21. He kept saying he had walked home alone.
Q22. That was his original statement, was it?
A22. Yes, sir.
Q23. And then you proceeded back to your own coy H.Q.?
A23. I went back first with Pte Robinson to his bke and examined the battle dress he was wearing the night in question, sir.
Q24. You know for a fact that Robinson is a D.R.?
A24. That is right.
Q25. Would it be possible for Robinson, as a D.R., the day previous in the course of duty to be wearing that battle dress, and if it had rained, could not his trousers have been in that condition?
A25. I asked him if he had used that battle dress for riding a m/c and he said no, that he was keeping it clean for going out.
Q26. After you had examined the condition of his trousers, did you take him back to C.R.U.?
A26. I left him at his bx room and returned to my orderly room.
Q27. Then you came back for him again, did you?
A27. That is right.
Q28. Did you then put him under arrest?
A28. No, sir.
Q29. You say that at approx 1500 hrs Pte Robinson made a confession?
A29. Approx 1500 hrs, yes sir.
Q30. Could it have been 1550 hrs?
A30. It could have been.
Q31. You say he was warned in the regular manner?
A31. Yes, sir.
Q32. What time did you take Robinson over to your office in the first place?
A32. Approx 1430 hrs.
Q33. You say that approx an hour and a half after that time Robinson signed a confession or made a confession?
A33. Yes, he admitted taking the machine.
Q34. What happened between 2.30 in the afternoon and 3.50?
A34. Sgt Bailey was questioning him.
Q35. Was he questioning him all that time?
A35. Yes, sir.

PROSECUTOR: I object to that; he was not present.

Q36. DEFENCE: From 2.30 until 3.50 were you present while the accused was being examined?
A36. While he was being questioned I was.
Q37. Who else was present?
A37. L/Cpl Larocque, L/Cpl Hartling and Sgt Bailey.
Q38. At what time between 1430 and 1550 was the accused warned? Now I want you to be quite clear of this in your mind, and remember you are on oath. At what time was he warned that anything he might say or give in evidence could be used against him?

A38. It was at approx 1600 hrs after he had told the Sgt he had taken the machine the Sgt said, "Do you wish to make a voluntary statement and sign a statement?" and he cautioned him.

Q39. At 1430 hrs the accused was brought into your office and apparently questioned?

A39. Yes, sir.

Q40. But it was not until 1600 hrs or possibly a little later on that he was warned?

A40. That is correct.

Q41. Did the four of you present enter into a general discussion with Robinson on the loss of this motorcycle?

A41. We did not.

Q42. What was Robinson doing all that time?

A42. The Sgt asked him where he had been, how he got home, etc. and everybody had a smoke. We never hurried Robinson; we were quite sure he was the man who took the machine.

Q43. What makes you so sure he took the machine? Did you see him take it?

A43. I did not.

Q44. Did you see him on it at any time?

A44. No.

Q45. Did you see him leave it?

A45. No.

Q46. What made you so sure?

A46. Because Robinson said later on he had taken it.

Q47. But what made you so sure before that?

A47. L/Cpl Hartling phoned our orderly room wanting a truck to come to Guildford Railroad station to pick him up. Our truck went the same route that Robinson claimed he came home by and he claimed he never saw a vehicle.

Q48. Would not that be possible?

A48. Not if he took the same route.

Q49. In any event you don't know for a fact that Robinson had anything whatever to do with the motorcycle that night?

A49. Not at the time I didn't, no.

Q50. So when you suspected him and talked the matter over with him among the four of you and himself, you questioned him on various things, I imagine, and told him he was the guilty person?

PROSECUTOR: I object to that question.

THE COURT: Carry on.

Q51. DEFENCE: What is your answer?

A51. He has asked us for a lift and we have taken him to and from Guildford many times.

Q52. You don't know for a fact, though, that Robinson did take the machine?

A52. I only had my suspicions, sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q53. How long intervened between the time you first brought Robinson to your guard room and the time he made his statement?

A53. I brought him to the guard room at approx 1430 hrs.

Q54. Roughly about how long was he there?

A54. Probably about half an hour or three-quarters of an hour.

Q55. That is before hemade his statement, is that right?

A55. Yes, sir.

Q56. In warning him how long did it take to warn him?

A56. The Sgt cautioned him several times.

Q57. Then he was there approx half an hour or 20 mins before you even started to warn him?

A57. Yes, sir.

Q56. How long was he there before he admitted the fact he had taken vehicle?
A56. I don't know exactly whether half an hour or three-quarters.

PROSECUTOR: Sir, I am trying to prove there was not a lot of time wasted and the man did not have his fingers pulled or his ears twisted in the office, as the defence would suggest. L/Cpl Hartling, whose m/c was stolen, is away on leave and it was impossible to get him.

3rd witness for prosecution) No. D-61092, L/CPL C. LAROCQUE, C.P.C., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q59. On the evening of 6 Dec 41 were you on duty?
A59. Yes, sir.
Q60. Were you on duty with L/Cpl Hartling?
A60. Yes, sir.
Q61. Were you with him all evening?
A61. Yes, sir.
Q62. Do you know the number of his machine?
A62. C04366342.
Q63. How do you know he had that machine?
A63. Because we always have our own machine.
Q64. In other words he is the only person who can use that machine?
A64. Yes, sir.
Q65. What do you know about that vehicle?
A65. At 2230 hrs I was detailed with L/Cpl Hartling to relieve the patrols at Guildford Ry Station, which we did. At approx 2235 hrs I noticed the accused approach L/Cpl Hartling and ask him if our patrol truck was gone, and he said, "Yes." He asked us for a ride home on the back of our bikes and we said it could not be done. At about 0300 hrs we heard a bike go out but took no notice of it. The following morning we went to get our bikes and L/Cpl Hartling's bike was gone and could not be found. We phoned our orderly room and told them what had happened and they came to get us. The following day, the 7th, L/Cpl Hartling and L/Cpl Jamieson had a suspicion the accused took the bike. At 1500 hrs the same day I was in the orderly room when the accused admitted taking our bike. That is all, sir.
Q66. Were you present when the accused was warned and when the accused made his statement?
A66. I was.
Q67. Who warned him?
A67. Sgt Baizley, i/c of the sec.
Q68. How was he warned?
A68. He was told the statement he was giving now would be used against him and the court could use it as evidence when he was tried.
Q69. Did the accused object to giving a statement?
A69. No, sir.
Q70. Was he forced in any way to give that statement?
Q71. No sir, the Sgt said, "You may give it or keep it," and he said, "I might as well come clear, I took the bike," and the Sgt said, "I will write down what you say; after I have written it you may sign it if you want to."
Q72. Did he sign it of his own free will?
A72. Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q73. At approx 1430 hrs the accused was brought to the Provost Sec orderly room?
A73. Yes, sir.
Q74. Were you there at the time?
A74. No sir, I came in about five mins later or something like that.

Q56. How long was he there before he admitted the fact he had taken vehicle?
A56. I don't know exactly whether half an hour or three-quarters.

A72. Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q73. At approx 1430 hrs the accused was brought to the Provost Sec orderly room?
A73. Yes, sir.
Q74. Were you there at the time?
A74. No sir, I came in about five mins later or something like that.

Q75. In your former evidence you said at 1.30 hrs you were in the L of C Provost orderly room?
A75. As I have not a watch I only guessed it, it was only a matter of a few mins though.
Q76. If you were in at 1.30 hrs you would have been there when the accused arrived?
A76. Yes, sir, I was at the door of my garage when I saw them come in and I followed them in after.
Q77. At what time was Robinson warned in connection with any evidence he might like to give?
A77. About 10 mins after he got there.
Q78. Are you quite sure of that?
A78. Yes, sir.
Q79. If I were to say to you that Robinson was not warned until a quarter past three regarding the statement he might make, might I not be correct in giving you that time?
A79. No sir, because his statement was signed before that.
Q80. If Cpl Jamieson says three quarters of an hour later or half an hour later Robinson was warned, would Jamieson be wrong?
A80. I don't know.
Q81. There seems to be quite a discrepancy in the time. You say 10 mins after 2.30 he was warned?
A81. No sir, when I came in it was about 25 mins to the hour and they were talking with the accused about other things.
Q82. What were they talking about?
A82. About the incident that happened and he admitted it as soon as he got in and he said, "I might as well come clean with it," and the Sgt said, "Whatever you say will be written down," and he said afterwards, "What you say will be used against you," and that took about 20 mins.
Q83. That was in the 20 mins following the 2.30?
A83. No, following the 25 mins to the hour.
Q84. In any event, it was before three o'clock in the afternoon?
A84. Yes, sir.
Q85. You had some conversation in that 20 mins with Robinson, didn't you?
A85. I didn't address the accused, sir.
Q86. Did you during the time you were there hear anyone say to Robinson this was a pretty serious case for Hartling having lost his m/c the night before?
A86. I don't remember that, I couldn't swear to that.
Q87. Could a remark like that have possibly been made?

PROSECUTOR: I object to that; he said he didn't hear it.

Q88. DEFENCE: In any event, did you hear anyone say to Robinson that if he were to come clean with this story that you wanted him to give, the whole affair could be arranged between your own C.O. and Robinson's C.O.?
A88. No, sir.
Q89. You say it was some 20 mins then before Robinson was warned?
A89. Yes, sir.
Q90. Do you remember him saying at first that he had walked home?
A90. No sir, I didn't hear that.
Q91. Is there anything you do remember very clearly about that 20 min period imaly after 2.30 or 2.35?
A91. I couldn't exactly say because I have been through so much since in my duties.
Q92. I believe you said you were suspicious of Robinson having taken the m/c?
A92. Yes, sir.
Q93. What made you suspicious of him?
A93. I knew he was a D.R. and he knew something about motorcycles.
Q94. There are a lot of D.Rs. in the Bordon Area?
A94. Yes sir, but he was the only who approached us and when our bike was found at Farnborough our suspicion was on him.

C481

Q95. Would it not be possible for any number of D.Rs. or people who could ride motorcycles to be in Guildford that morning?
A95. Possibly.
Q96. You did not see him take it?
A96. No.
Q97. Did you see him on it?
A97. No, sir.
Q98. Did you see him leave it?
A98. No, sir.

RE EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q99. But you were suspicious of him because he asked for a ride home on the truck?
A99. Yes, sir.
Q100. When Robinson came and asked you for a ride home the evening before, did he also ask you for a ride home on the back of a m/c?
A100. He did.
Q101. And you heard a m/c leaving there shortly after that, did you?
A101. Yes sir, somewhere around 11 o'clock, a short while after the accused asked us for a ride home.
Q102. The accused was not forced to sign that statement, was he?
A102. No, sir.
Q103. Did anyone take hold of him or say, "You sign this statement?"
A103. No, sir.
Q104. Was he thoroughly warned?
A104. Yes, sir.
Q105. Was he told the statement could be used against him?
A105. Yes, sir.
Q106. Are you sure of that?
A106. Yes, sir.
Q107. Did the accused object to sign it?
A107. No, sir.
Q108. Did he want to make the statement himself?
A108. Yes, sir.

Q109. THE COURT: Do you leave your motorbikes unattended?
A109. Yes sir, there is a place in the ply station.
A110. They are immobilised, are they?
A110. Yes, sir.

4th witness) for prosecution) NO. U1576, SGT. R.G. BAIZLEY, C.P.C., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q111. Do you know the accused?
A111. Only by sight.
Q112. Do you recognise him?
A112. Yes, Pte Robinson A.C.
Q113. When last do you recall having seen the accused?
A113. Several times whilst passing through Farnborough Bks.
Q114. Did the accused in connection with this case make a statement to you?
A114. Yes sir, he did.
Q115. Did you warn the accused when he made that statement?
A115. I cautioned him, I explained to him he did not have to make a statement unless he wished to do so, it was entirely up to him, if he wished to give me a statement I would take it down in writing and ask him to sign it, and he gave me the statement and I had it typed out and he signed it voluntary. I warned him it could be used against him if there was a court martial or anything, and he said he would give the statement voluntarily. He said, "I did it, I might as well be truthful about it.
Q116. Did he tell you what to write down or did he give you the story and you write it down?
A116. The propedure was this, I asked him would he mind giving a statement and he replied yes, he would give me a statement.

that he wanted to give a statement. I said, "Very good, if you will just tell me what happened it will all be typed out now." He said, "I don't know how to start it," so I asked him if he had ever given a statement before and he said no. I said, "Would you like me to give you a rough summary of what you have told me previously," and he said, "That will do very good, Sgt, because I am not very well versed in making statements. I explained it to him and I said, "Is that what you have to say?" and he said it was. Then I said I would type it out bit by bit, and if anything was wrong for him to say so. I said, "I will read it while I am typing it." I believe there was a slight mistake at some time and he checked me up on it, and it was corrected immediately.

Q117. Is that the statement (producing document)?
A117. Yes sir, that is the statement.

PROSECUTOR: I present this as an exhibit.

DEFENCE: I know the contents of the statement. I am going to enter an objection on the grounds that it is inadmissible. At the moment I am not objecting to the statement being put in or for the court to see it in any way.

Q116. THE COURT: Is the accused the man mentioned in this statement?
A116. Yes, sir.
Q119. You are under oath, you know?
A119. Yes sir, that is the man.

Q120. PROSECUTOR: Were there any witnesses to this statement?
A120. Yes sir, Jamieson, Hartling and Lapocque: they were all there.

CROSS EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q121. When you sent Cpl Jamieson over to C.R.U. you merely sent him to interview Robinson, is that correct?
A121. That is correct.
Q122. When Robinson returned to the provost orderly room at 9.30 he was not then under arrest, was he?
A122. No, sir.
Q123. Mainly after 9.30 did you have any discussion with Pte Robinson on his activities of the night before?
A123. Yes sir, that is right.
Q124. Can you give us any idea as to the nature of this discussion you had with Robinson?
A124. Not word, but generally speaking when Pte Robinson and Cpl Jamieson walked into the orderly room Jamieson explained to me this was Pte Robinson and he asked him if he would mind accompanying Cpl Jamieson to my orderly room, that he was not under arrest but I just wanted to have a talk with him. I told Pte Robinson to have a seat, which he did. He had often asked me for a ride to Guildford and was never turned down in our truck. I asked him what he knew about a m/c and he said nothing at all. I said one of my men had lost a machine in Guildford the previous night and I said, "He tells me you asked him for a ride on the back of his machine and he refused you." He admitted that. I said, "You never saw his machine before?" and he said, "No, I didn't." I said, "Well then, all right, sit down and have a smoke." I let him sit there about five mins and I carried on with my work and I answered the telephone, and after the telephone call I turned to Robinson and asked him if he would explain his actions during last night. He said, "Sgt, you have been pretty decent with me, you are pretty well known among our D.Rs. I don't know why I should do a trick like this on you; I took your machine last night. I am sorry but I took it and drove it and put it by a tree at North Camp Ry station. I said, "Would you mind giving me a statement to that effect?" He said, "Certainly." I said, "Mind you, you don't have to give me a statement, you are not compelled to do so, it is entirely up to you," and he said, "I might as well give a statement and have it over with." As I previously stated the statement was obtained voluntarily. There was no suggestion of a threat, promise or anything, it was merely like a couple of friends talking about something missing.

Q125. There was a friendly atmosphere all through?
A125. There was.
Q126. Did you at any time suggest to Pte Robinson if he did make any admission there would not be any serious charge arising out of it?
A126. No, sir.
Q127. You did not lead him to believe that the matter would be taken up between his own C.C. and your O.C.?
A127. Robinson asked me what would happen about it and I explained I had to notify my officer and I said, "If I am not mistaken my officer then notifies your officer."
Q128. You didn't say that this would be a matter to be taken up between your officer and my officer and that he would not come up for anything more serious than a charge from his own coy officer?
A128. The man was not charged at that time.
Q129. You say he turned to you and said you were pretty decent about the whole thing?
A129. As a matter of fact, before Robinson left my orderly room he shook hands with me and thanked me.
Q130. Yet when Robinson first entered your orderly room I believe he said he had walked home, is that correct?
A130. He said so, yes sir.
Q131. He also told you he knew nothing at all about the m/c?
A131. Yes.
Q132. How long was it before you actually warned him as to what would happen in the event of him making a statement?
A132. I never warned him about that at all.
Q133. What time did you warn him regarding the statement that he made?
A133. When we started the procedure was approx 1450 hrs, sir.
Q134. It could not be about quarter past three, could it?
A134. No, sir.
Q135. You had three other witnesses then beside yourself?
A135. Yes, sir.
Q136. If you know that one of the witnesses you had present said that this warning was given at quarter past three, would you be prepared to deny that?
A136. Yes, because there was a watch on my desk, I looked at that watch at the time of starting the statement and it read 1450.
Q137. If I were to tell you one of your witnesses in his summary of evidence said it was at 1550 hrs that the accused gave a voluntary statement, what would you say to that?
A137. I would say it was entirely wrong.
Q138. Yet he was present, wasn't he?
A138. He was present.
Q139. You say there was no inducement whatsoever to the accused during that time?
A139. None whatsoever.
Q140. What time did the accused leave the provost orderly room?
A140. I am not quite sure, but it would be some time around 1550, but I am not quite sure about that.
Q141. Now, when did you place the accused under arrest?
A141. I didn't place him under arrest, I warned him in view of the fact the statement he had given me would result in my having to detain him in the guard room until such time as I notified my seniors.
Q142. Isn't that putting him under arrest?
A142. Yes sir, in one way, and he said, "Well, I might just as well finish it off," and I explained as he had admitted taking the m/c and in view of the statement he had given to me I had no choice but to place him in the guard room and send a report through to my C.O., and it was done.
Q143. He was not under arrest up until the time he made the statement to you, though?

A143. No, definitely not, I had nothing to place him under arrest for.
Q144. You had nothing more than suspicions to go on?
A144. All I knew was the m/c was stolen and the driver of it thought it might be Robinson and would I mind talking to him, and as he was one of my men naturally I assisted him.
Q145. There was no officer present during the taking of this statement?
A145. No sir, I am in command of the det.
Q146. Did you ever hear of any CMHQ instructions to the effect that an officer should be present during the taking of a statement?
A146. Unfortunately no sir, we don't get CMHQ R.O.
Q147. But there is a possibility there might be such an instruction?

PROSECUTOR: I object to that; he has stated he does not get CMHQ orders: there is a possibility of anything.

DEFENCE: I will let the question go for what it is worth.

The prosecution is closed.

The Court is closed to consider their decision as to the acceptance or non-acceptance of the signed statement of the accused submitted by the prosecution.

The Court being re-opened, the President announces the acceptance as evidence of the statement above referred to.

The above mentioned statement is signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q148. THE COURT: Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A148. No, sir.
Q149. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A149. No, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

LIEUT. J.T. ROBB, H.Q., C.R.U., being duly sworn, is examined by the Court:-

Q150. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A150. Yes, sir, I produce AF B296 and certified true copy of MFM-6.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q151. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A151. Yes, sir.
Q152. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A152. Yes, sir.
Q153. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A153. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

Q154. THE COURT: Do you wish to address the Court?
A154. DEFENDING OFFICER: If you will refer to the MFM-6 of the accused which is before you, sir, you will find all his cases of crimes have been of a very, very minor nature. The accused himself is very well thought of by his own officers and the men with whom he lives and works. The circumstances and the type of offence being what it is, something that to my mind might have been dealt with very easily by his own C.O. I feel any sentence the Court may see fit to give should be of a minimum nature.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

C 9399. Cpl Jamieson, M. of L.O.C.
Proves sket having been duly sworn states:-

At about 2000 hrs 6 Dec '41 Pte Robinson (the accused) approached me at the State Dance Hall in Guildford and asked if he could have a ride home with the patrols of which I was in charge. I said "yes". He asked me what time I was leaving and I told him to be at the railway station between 2230 and 2300 hrs.

I left the railway station with the patrols about 2235 hrs and left the motorcycle patrols there. Pte Robinson was not around when the trucks pulled out.

I proceeded back to Farnborough.

At approx 1230 hrs 7 Dec '41 I was informed by Sgt Bayley that L/Cpl Hazlewood bicycle was stolen on 6/12/41 and to proceed on investigations.

I asked L/Cpls Hartley and Laroque if they saw anybody in the Guildford Railway Station who might be suspected.

They said that Pte Robinson A.C. (the accused) had been in the station arriving for a ride to Farnborough accompanied by L/Cpl Hartley

I interviewed the accused and asked him if he was in Guildford on 6/12/41. He said "yes". I asked him how he got home. He said that he walked.

I asked him how he was dressed on the night in question. He said in battle dress. I asked him if those were the clothes he had on and he said "no"

I asked to see the clothes he was wearing on the night of 6/12/41 and he said "yes, come to my barracks"

He took me over to his barracks where I examined the battle dress he was wearing on 6/12/41 in Guildford. I found his battle dress trousers ~~[illegible]~~ had on them a large quantity of sand. I also checked his boots and found them sandy.

I then went back to the orderly room and reported to Sgt Bayley the above information. Sgt Bayley then instructed me to bring Pte Robinson to the orderly room.

I escorted Pte Robinson to the orderly room where Sgt Bayley interviewed him.

At approx 1550 hrs on 7/12/41 Pte Robinson voluntarily wrote and signed a statement to the effect that he had taken the motor cycle.

At approx 1430 hrs I proceeded on information telephoned in from T Pworth Esq to Stanhope Lines to fetch up

Motorcycle CC H38634Z which had been found in the mountains.

I examined the motorcycle and found that the insulation had been stripped from the spark plug ~~connector~~ wiring and the wiring joined together to immobilize the motorcycle. The babelite connector had been removed by W/Cpl Hartley when he immobilized his motorcycle

M Jamieson Cpl.

F 44925 L/Cpl Hatling, G. D. having been duly sworn states.

On 6/12/41 at 2230 hrs I left my motorcycle, EC 43563432, at Guildford Railway Station in a shed which was assigned to L/Cs Provost to use. There was no door on this shed.

After putting my motorcycle in there I immobilized it by taking off borelite connection in front plug wiring.

We then relieved the patrols in Guildford Station.

At about 2245 hrs the accused approached me asking if our patrol truck had left Guildford. I informed him that it left about 10 min previously.

He then asked me if I could give him a ride home and I said "No".

He then left the Station and I did not see him again that night.

At about 2300 hrs I heard a motorcycle running but paid no attention as clothing which had been worn on previous night. The clothing showed signs of having ridden a vehicle open to the weather.

We then left the accused and informed Sgt Bradley of our finding.

At 1430 hrs the accused came to our Office in company of Cpl. Jamieson where he was questioned by Sgt Bailey.

At 1450 hrs, after being cautioned, the accused gave a voluntary statement to the effect he had taken the motorcycle along with some one unknown to him and modified the motorcycle - by disconnecting the wires and connecting them together.

He then drove the motorcycle to the vicinity of North Camp station and left it leaning against a tree.

He stated that he was slightly under the influence of liquor at the time of taking the motorcycle.

At 0115 hrs 7/12/41 I finished my duty at the station and proceeded to a/m shed. when I found my motorcycle missing. After looking around and finding no trace of it I notified my unit orderly room. of the loss.

~~The next morning.~~

At about 0900 hrs I informed Sgt Bayley that I suspected the accused. He then detailed Cpl Jamieson and myself to look into the matter.

At 1230 hrs we went to the D.R's office at H.Q. C.R.U. and asked for the accused and were told he would be there at 1300 hrs. At 1300 hrs we met the accused and questioned him on the loss of the motorcycle. He denied knowing anything about it.

With his permission we went to his barrack room and checked his

On returning from the Station we patrolled around Ash and Aldershot but still could not find the motor-cycle

We suspected the accused.

At 1430 hrs. I was in the Orderly room when the accused came in with Cpl Jamieson and Pte Hartley and was cautioned and made his own statement to the effect that he had taken Pte Hartley's motorcycle.

Questions by the accused

Q. Did I not ask you for a ride

A. Yes. and I refused.

Q. Did you hear me ask Pte Hartley for a ride on his motor cycle.

A. I did.

At 2230 hrs 6/12/41 in company with L/Cpl Hartley I relieved the patrols on Guildford Railways Station. At about 2240 hrs I noticed the accused approach L/Cpl Hartley who was near me. I heard the accused asking L/Cpl Hartley if our truck was gone. afterwards he asked L/Cpl Hartley for a ride on his motor cycle. and was refused.

At about 2300 hrs we heard a motor cycle in the Railways Station yard. But did not take any notice of it because that is not uncommon.

At 0115 hrs 7/12/41 we returned to our motor cycles and found that L/Cpl Hartley's was gone. We looked around the Station and could not Taken at approx. 1830 hrs. on the 7-12-41 at Farnborough, Hants.

Having been duly warned under R.P.6 (c) the M/n soldier wishes to make the following statement voluntmary.

I was in Guildford on the 6-12-41 and at approx. 2000hrs I went into the Stoke Dance Hall and inquired from Cpl. Jamieson of the Cdn. Provost Corps as to what time his truck would be leaving Guildford for Farnborough, and stated him if it would be possible for me to obtain a ride back to Farnborough with him, and he replied "yes". I had a couple dances and then I left for the Railway Station. When I arrived at the Railway Station I learned that the Truck had left and that I would have to walk home. When I learned that I would have to walk home I approached L/cpl. Hartling, G.J. who was on duty at the Railway Station and I asked him if he would give me a ride home with him on the back of his machine. He informed me that he could not give me a ride on his machine. I then decided to take the Provost motor-cycle and ride same to my barracks. At approx. 2300hrs I took the motor-cycle and I picked up a chap unknown to me and the two of us proceed on the motor-cycle with me driving, to North Camp Railway Station where I left the motor-cycle leaning against a tree. After I left the x motor-cycle, I walked to my barracks. When I took the motor-cycle I had to connect the wires to-gether in order to start the motor-cycle. I was slightly under the influence of liquor when I took the motor-cycle.
I have read over the above statemmit and I verify same to be the truth.

1ST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- P.C. Const. B. BRADLEY, Surrey Constabulary, Police Station Godalming, having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q1:- Tell the court what happened when you were on patrol on the 23rd. of December.
A1:- About 12.20 AM. on the 24th of December last I was on motor patrol, stationary at Milford cross-roads, in company with P.C. Thatcher. An Army truck passed me at a very fast speed. Not being satisfied with the speed it was travelling at, I gave chase, and caught up with the car before reaching Godalming town. I followed it through Godalming town at an estimated speed of 50 M.P.H. I passed it and drew into the near side. P.C. Thatcher signalled it to stop. This it failed to do. I again gave chase, and putting on my side light, I drew alongside for some distance. PC. Thatcher shouted through the loud speaker fitted to the front of the car, telling him to stop, this the driver of the Army truck failed to do. I drew in behind the Army truck , it being unsafe to drive alongside any further, owing to the driver of the truck swerving from one side to the other of the road. I followed the Army truck through Peasmarsh, Common. I was driving all out with a Woolsey car that makes a speed of 85 m.p.h. The driver drove over Peasmarsh railway bridge which is an "S" bend at a speed which I estimated between 50 and 60 narrowly missing a cyclist I still followed the truck into Guilford. The truck drove down on the correct side of a dual carriageway, I drove on the wrong side and drew across the end of the dual carriageway to block this passage. As I did this the Army truck went into reverse, again into full gear, turned right into Drummond's Road. After this I lost trace of the truck and cruised around Guildford for the space of about one half hour and was about to re-trace the journey I had already covered when I saw an Army truck parked at a side road without lights. I stopped and went to the truck and a soldier was sitting behind the driver's wheel in company with a young lady. I asked him if he was in charge of the truck, he replied "Yes." He said "I have been here two hours". After further questioning, he said he had been there one hour. I felt the radiator of the truck which was very warm. I also felt the tires which were warm. He was asked to get out of the truck where upon he was found very unsteady. He was then placed in the police patrol car and driven by P.C. Thatcher to Guild-ford Police Station. I drove the army truck, following the patrol car to the Guildford Police Station. That is my evidence.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q2:- You said in the summary of evidence signed by you that the car reached a speed of 80 m.p.h. ?

A2:- I followed the car, I did not have a light on the dash.

Q3:- Would you say that this army car did drive at a speed of 80 m.p.h. at any time ?

A3:- Yes, sir. I would.

2ND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Const. R.J. THATCHER P.C. 323, Surrey constabulary, Police Station, Godalming, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-

Q4:- Tell the court what occured on your patrol on the night of 23 - 24 of December 1942 ?

A4:- About 1220 A.M. on the 24th of December I was on patrol car duty in company with P.C. Bradley. We were stationary at Milford, facing towards Godalming. A light army truck passed us at a very high speed. We decided to follow this truck, and got up to it at Catford railway bridge. We followed it then through Godalming at a very fast speed a speed of 90 m.p.h. , and owing to the narrowness of the road, we were unable to pass it there. But further on we drew alongside the truck and I signalled it to pull in to the side with a hand torch. We drew close to the front of the truck into the near side of the road, when the truck passed us at a fast speed. We again took after it and drew level with it, and the police car was fitted with a loud speaker, and I ordered this car to pull into the side of the road with this loud speaker, but he took not notice of it, and we again drew in behind it, as we were afraid he might crash into us. We got behing and followed it over the Peasmarsh Common which is a long straight stretch and there we reached a maximun of 80 m.p.h. I checked this by flashing the torch on the speedometer. The truck rounded the bridge at a terrific speed, about 60 m.p.h., I think. It narrowly missed some cyclists on the near side of the road. We followed the vehicle into Guildford, and all the way the army truck was running criss-cross very dangerously, and we thought it inadvisable to pass it. At Woodlinged road which is a dual passageway, we went down this road on the wrong sides and stopped in the path of the truck at the end of the dual carriage way. This truck stopped behind us, went into reverse, stopped again, then started off a side road to the right. We turned our vehicle around and followed the truck up this side road. We lost sight of it, and for approximately one-half hour we toured that part of the district looking for the truck. We eventually saw an army truck stationary in the Queen's Road. We went to it we saw Robinson sitting behind the steering wheel , and his compenion was a lady. I asked him how long he had been there, and he said an hour, and then later changed the time to one-half hour. I felt the radiator and found it was still very hot, also the tyres were hot. I asked him if he had permission to have the vehicle, and he could not give me a satisfactory reply. I asked him to get out of the truck, and when he got out, he was very unsteady on his feet. I took him to the police station in the police car, where he was examined by a doctor.

Q5:- How did you clock the two vehicles ?

A5:- After the vehicle had started off again, it was driven at such a speed it was dangerous for us to drive by the lights we were using, and we were forced to put on the powerful police light, and by this light I was able to take the number of the vehicle CZ 4209882. We were able to get up close to the rear of the truck, and I took that number down. When I saw the stationary vehicle at Queen's road, I went to the rear of the truck, and compared the number with the number I took, and they were the same.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q6:- During your conversation with the accused, was Const. Bradley in your presence ?

A6:- Not at the time sir.

Q7:- Was he there when you questioned Robinson on how long he had been there ?

A7:- I doubt it sir. There were three of us on the car, and Bradley was driver. As observer, it was my duty to get out first.

Q8:- How many stories did Robinson tell you about how long he had been there ?

A8:- Just two, sir.

Q9:- Then constable Bradley informed us that Robinson said two hours, and then later one hour, so we have three different times.
A9:- He may have.
Q10:- About one-half hour elapsed before you found the truck ?
A10:- Approximately.
Q11:- In that half hour from the time you last sight of the vehicle, until the time you found the same vehicle parked in that place, did you ever see it again ?
A11:- No, sir.
Q12:- What would be the complete length of time that elapsed from the time you lost it until the time you found it ?
A12:- I would say 25 minutes.
Q13:- All you can tell us about the identity of the driver is the fact that you found the canadian soldier, namely Robinson, sitting at the wheel of a parked car ? I suggest that you do not know who drove the vehicle while it was in motion.
A13:- No, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q14:- Can you identify the man you found with the truck in this court room ?
A14:- Yes, sir.

3RD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Miss SYBIL KING, 52 LOWER FARNHAM ROAD, ALDERSHOT, having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q15:- Will you tell the court what occurred after you left work on 23rd of December ?
A15:- I waited on the corner for Miss Meredith and her young man, and we went into the Prince Albert, and there we stayed until closing time. We came out of there, we went to Guildford station and got a train for Farnborough. After that we walked until we came to some barracks, and we waited there until Robby went for a truck. When he came back, Miss Meredith got in the front, and I got in the back with his friend. We drove to where I live, and I got out and bid him good night, and he went in the front of the truck with Miss Meredith and her friend. That is all I know.
Q16:- Tell the court please the names of the two men whom you were with.
A16:- One was Robby, and the other George.
Q17:- You do not know their last names ?
A17:- No.
Q18:- At what time did you go in the Prince Albert ?
A18:- Approximately 7 o'clock, and left at 10 o'clock.
Q19:- At what time did you meet the Accused ?
A19:- 6.30 that evening.
A20:- He seemed very lively to me.
Q21:- What was his speech like, was it thick ?
A21:- I can't say, because they walked behind, and we walked in front.
Q22:- Can you tell me what time you got the train at Guildford station ?
A22:- About 10.35.
Q23:- And you arrived in Farnborough when ?
A23:- About 11 P.M.
Q24:- Did you say that the four of you went through some barracks ?
A24:- Yes,
Q25:- Exactly what happened when you stopped ?
A25:- Robby said " wait there with the girls George".
Q26:- How long was it before he came back ?
A26:- About 5 minutes.
Q27:- Did he walk back ?
A27:- No.
Q27:- How did he come back ?
A27:- With a truck.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q28:- It was dark Miss King when Robby left you ?
A28:- Yes.
Q29:- The time would be somewhere between 11.07 and 11.30. Did I understand that Robinson said wait here until I come back ?
A29:- Yes, sir.
Q30:- And in about five minutes a vehicle turned up ?
A30:- Yes, sir.
Q31:- You and him got in the back ?
A31:- Yes, sir.

Q32:- Do you know who was in the front of the vehicle when it came back ?
A32:- No, sir.
Q33:- Did you see Robinson in the front of that vehicle when it came back ?
A33:- No, sir.
Q34:- Then, Miss King, am I correct that you did not see Robinson in the front of the vehicle, or anywhere near the vehicle ?
A34:- Yes, sir.

4TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Miss Dorothy Ether MEREDITH, 22 Queen's Road, Guildford, HAVING been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q35:- Tell the court what occurred after you left work on the 23 of Dec. ?
A35:- I met Robinson at half past six, and I went up to my lodgings, and then we went down to the Prince Albert. We were drinking there until 10 O'clock. We went down to the station to get a train, and went to North Camp station. Then we went about 25 minutes walk, and Robinson left us. He came back in a truck with someone else. He took Miss King home and took Collins home near Witley, I think. Then we drove to Guildford.
Q36:- Who drove the car ?
A36:- I cannot say.
Q37:- Were you in the front seat ?
A37:- Yes.
Q38:- Was Robinson driving the vehicle ?
A38:- No.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q39:- Miss Meredith, how old are you ?
A39:- 19.
Q40:- How long have you known the accused, Sgman. Robinson ?
A40:- About 10 months.
Q41:- Is it true that you have become very familiar in that time ?
A41:- Yes, sir.

A42:- Yes.
Q43:- How have you found Robinson as a man in his conduct with you ?
A43:- Quite honourable.

A46:- I drank quite a lot.
Q47:- Did Robinson drink a great deal or not ?

A48:- Yes.
Q49:- Was Robinson steady on his feet when he left the pub ?
A49:- No.
Q50:- Was his speech normal or thick ?
A50:- I can't remember.

A51:- Yes.
Q52:- You do remember getting a train ?
A52:- Yes.
Q53:- You caught that train a little after that ?
A53:- Yes.
Q54:- You walked through a barrack area ?

A73:- No, sir.
Q74:- In the statement you said that Robinson did drive that truck, on the way from Aldershot to Guilford, is that correct ?
A74:- Yes, sir.
Q75:- Did you know that that was an untruth when you signed it ?
A75:- Yes.
Q76:- Why did you sign that statement, and then tell us today it was someone else in the car ?
A76:- I was mad at Robby, and wanted to get my own back.
Q77:- Why were you mad at Robinson ?
A77:- Because he annoyed me all the evening when we were drinking.
Q78:- Am I correct in suggesting that while Robinson was drinking, he was paying toomuch attention to another girl ?
A78:- Yes.
Q79:- And it was because of that you said Robinson drove the venicle ?

A86:- No.
Q87:- What occurred the following morning ?
A87:- The civil police came to ask me some questions.

It being 5.30, the court adjourned. Upon reconvening, it will say whether or not it requires this witness furtner.

The court re-opened at 1020 hrs. 14th of January, 1942, at Oudenarde Barracks, Aldershot, Hants., the same members presiding, and a medical certificate of this date was presented to the court.

5TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Capt. J.H. TOWNSEND, Sig. Section, H.Q. C.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q88:- What is your position ?
A88:- I am O.C. Signal section, H.Q. C.R.U.
Q89:- Give your account of the case in question.
A89:- On the 23rd of December, 1942, I was O.C. of the signal section. At approximately 1730 hours I was informed that it was necessary to send the 8 cwt. truck, which is CZ 4209282, which vehicle is the property of the Canadian government, on the establishment of the signal section C.R.U., it was necessary to send that truck to Bordon, to transport one of the signal section, who had been on duty in Aldershot, and also to deliver some personal mail. I gave authority for the truck to proceed to Bordon on this day, and understood that it would be returned to the unit lines by 2030 hours. I did not see the truck again that evening. On the morning of the 24th of December, 1942, at approximately 0930 hours, acting on information received, I proceeded to Guildford and I found at the Guildford Police Station, the Ford 8 cwt truck mentioned above, and Sgmn. Robinson in the custody of the civil police. We brought the truck back to H.Q. C.R.U., and gave orders that Sgmn. Robinson was to be placed under close arrest, pending further investigation. From the evidence received from the civil police, I had Robinson charged.
Q90:- Who, in the signal section, has the authority to authorize trucks to leave that parking lot ?
A90:- Myself, Lieut. Thomas-Peter, and Sjt. Bentley, M.C.O. in charge of the vehicles.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q91:- You say that the only persons who can authorize transport are the three of you ?
A91:- Yes, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT

Q92:- Did you authorize the accused to take or use the truck which you mentioned for any purpose on the 23rd of December ?
A92:- No, sir.

6TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- H 16897 Sjt. Bentley, J.H. Sigs. Section, H.Q., C.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-
Q93:- Will you give us your statement in this case ?
A93:- On the 23rd of December I was M.C.O. in charge of vehicles for H.Q. C.R.U. Under my charge was the W.D. Vehicle mentioned. On the afternoon of the 23rd, I gave authority for one vehicle to proceed to Bordon. The vehicle returned at approximately 2030 hours. After that time I did not issue any authority for the vehicle. The following morning Capt. Townsend and myself went to Guildford and picked up our vehicle. The vehicle had travelled approximately 25 miles, from the time of the last work ticket until the time we picked it up.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

Q94:- Did you issue any authority to the accused to use this vehicle that day ?
A94:- No, sir.
Q95:- Who drove the vehicle to Bordon ?
A95:- Sgmn. Murray, sir.

7TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- A3508o Sgmn. CALLIN, G.B. Sigs. Section, H.Q. C.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-
Q96:- Tell the court what you did on the evening of the 23rd of Dec.
A96:- On the night of the 23rd of December we went to the R.F.D. factory in Guildford, and met our two girl friends. After we met them, Robinson went up to the house with Dorothy Meredith, and when they came back we went into the pub, the four of us. We went into the pub and ordered up Drinks. Robinson bought the first round, two double whiskies and light ales for Robinson and myself, and gin and lime for the girls. We carried on for an evening's drinking. We were drinking heavy. I am not sure of the exact time of leaving the pub, it was around closing time. After leaving the pub things are hazy to me, in fact I do not remember what happened after leaving the pub. I do remember getting into a truck, but what kind of truck or where the truck was from, I don't remember, and I distinctly remember getting out of the truck, and the next morning I found myself in my camp at Witley. I am at 5 C.I.R.U.

Q97:- Can you remember getting out of the back of that truck and getting into the front ?
A97:- No, sir.
Q98:- You have no recollection of anything after leaving the pub ?
A98:- No, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

The defending officer raised the plea that the prosecution had not made a prima facie case.

" There have been 7 witnesses called for the prosecution. I think we can quite safely elimin ate the evidence of the two women and Captain,Townsend, except insofar as lack of authority is concerned. There are three witnesses who can prove the lack of authority, Capt. Townsend, Sjt. Bradley, and the prosecutor. Theevidence of Const. Bradley is totally useless, because at no time in the whole of his evidence did he ever mention the name of the accused, that simply, is the reasonwhy I did not ask him any questions. The evidence of Constable Thatcher is on a slightly better footing, he was at least capable of following the military vehicle which was careening at a terrific speed. Afterwards, they find the accused Robinson and the girl Miss Meredith sitting in that truck. I presume that the taking and the using of a truck means that of actually taking the possession of the truck, and causing it to move, and using it either for the purpose of transporting himself, or for some other purpose. I suggest that the evidence of Constable Thatcher of finding the accused inthe truck does not constitute taking and using the vehicle in the sense of these words, if so it is stretching these words beyong their meaning. That leaves only one other witness. That is the evidence of the girl Meredith. I do not if the Rules of Procedure are thrown to the wind because this is a military court. Miss Meredith told two different stories, which would lead the court to doubt her credulity, but she is the prosecution's witness. That does not mean that the accused is damned, that merely means that the prosecutions case has failed. I am not responsible for what Miss Meredith said, nor am I responsible for the evidence which she gave here, whether she lied or ot. She told me on cross-examination that Robinson did not do the driving. She was an unbreditable witness, produced by the prosecution, at the prosecution's risk. I do not suspect that this court has thrown the rules to the wind, and the burden remains on the prosecution. I therefore apply for dismissal of the charge, and the release of the accused.

Prosecutor:-
On the basis of Constable Thatcher's statement, there is, as you know, far better than on the case where after a man is found in possession of recently stolen property, there is a strong presumption that he stole it. In addition tothat, I called Miss Meredith, who had made an entirely different statement. Which one she lied in is difficult to state, but I put it to the court, that on the basis of her evidence, they all drove to Witley in the front seat, which is a physical impossibility. There is, therefore, on the Basis of Constable Thatcher's evidence, sufficient evidence to show that Robinson was in possession of a W.D. vehicle. The driver of the truck has stated that after turning in his work ticket, he did not drive again that night. I submit that a prima facie case has been established.

The court was closed to consider the Application. The court re-opened the president stated the court refuses the application, and calls the accused for his defense. The court pointed out that there is not enough evidence with the evidence of Const. Thatcher, but there is the evidence of the two female witness, who referring to the actions after arriving at North Camp Station, state as follows:- Miss King.... "Robby went for a truck.....when he came back Miss Meredith got in the front and I got in the back.....Robby said to george, you wait here with the girls.....he came back in about 5 minutes with a truck" Miss Meredith " We got a train and went toNorth Camp Station....then we went for about a 25 minute walk.....Robby left us and he came back in a truck with someone else.....I was in the front seat.. I sat on Robby's knee".

R.P. 40(a) note 2 complied with, and the accused stated he wished to give evidence under oath, and also to call one witness.

A118:- I would say it was not the accused, by the tone of his voice.
Q119 - Are you prepared to swear it was not the accused ?
A119:- I am prepared to swear anytime, that in my opinion, it was not the accused.
Q120:- On what do you base your ability to swear it was not ?
A120:- I have known him for the length of time mentioned, and he has shouted through the wicket almost every day.
Q121:- You know his voice so well, you are prepared to say you could not be deceived by someone else's voice ?
A121:- That's right.
Q122:- Do you know who it was who spoke to you ?

Q140:- You cannot postively identify the truck ?
A140:- No, sir.

5TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Capt. J.H. TOWNSEND, remaining under oath, is recalled by the defending officer:-
Q141:- You have two vehicles on charge to the signals section, H.Q.C.R.U?
A141:- Yes, a 15 cwt., and an 8 cwt.
Q142:- On the night of the 23rd of December, where was the 15 cwt ?
A142:- As far as I know, it was locked up in one end of the garage.
Q143:- Is it not true that the 15 cwt. is normally locked up after duty ?
A143:- Yes, in the garage.
Q144:- What happens to the 8 cwt ?
A144:- At that time it was parked in the yard, because the other end of the garage was being used.
Q145:- It is parked in H.Q. C.R.U. yard ?
A145:- At that time, yes.
Q146:- Is there ever any other vehicle parked in that yard at night, other than your two trucks ?
A146:- Yes, I have seen other vehicles parked there at night.
Q147:- Staff cars ?
A147:- Yes, and trucks too.
Q148:- Tell me definitely, if a signals section 8 cwt. truck was observed to emerge from that yard at 0930, whose 8 cwt. would it be ?
A148:- I cannot say definitely. The chances are it could be any other truck. Previous evidence was that that truck had a white mrke on it. The signals have white above, and blue below.

2ND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE:- The accused, M 17215 Sgmn. ROBINSON, A.C Signal section, H.Q., C.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-
Q149:- You are a member of the signals section, H.Q. C.R.U. ?
A149:- Yes, sir.

A161:- No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q162:- Did you ever at any time offer your services to your commanding officer as a driver ?
A162:- Yes, I asked Capt. Townsend to let me drive, but I had my brother to show me the gear shifts and so on. I never said I could drive a truck.
Q163:- Why did you want to drive ?
A163:- Because I wanted to get off the slippery roads at that time of the year.
Q164:- I put it to you that you did state that you could drive, is that not true ?
A164:- No, sir.
Q165:- Have you ever held a license to drive a four-wheeled vehicle ?
A165:- No, sir.

5TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Capt. J.H.TOWNSEND, remaining under oath, is recalled by the prosecutor in rebuttal:-

Q166:- Did you ever, at any time receive a request from the accused to drive for you a four wheeled vehicle ?
A166:- I would call it an offer. I was using a vehicle for a recreational party, and had difficulty in getting a driver. The accused said " if you want a driver any time, sir, I can drive". I said, you have no license, and he said " well, sir I knew how to drive trucks" and that was the conversation between Sgmn. Robinson and myself.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q167:- Were there other offers given you of a similar nature by D.R.s who wanted to get driving a car ?
A167:- I do not recall any others ?
Q168:- Did Robinson's brother ask you ?
A168:- It may be so, but I don not recall it.
Q169:- Why would they want to drive a truck instead of a motorcycle ?
A169:- It is more comfortable, but carries less pay.

Closing address by the defending officer:-We heard the evidence of the two police, as to the speed with which this 8 cwt. tore through the streets, at a very merry time, Christmas. The speed was mentioned as from 50 to 60 miles per hour, coming around an "S" turn. That the vehicle the police were driving had a maximun speed of 85 miles per hour, and that it was going all out, and allowing for a slight exaggeration, then the speed of this 8 cwt. , was, at some stretch on the road 80 miles per hour. It would be entirely unsafe for the police vehicle to pass or ever take it. I think you knew the road in question The court will remember that it was blackout period, and I submit that only a driver of great skill in possession of all his faculties, who knows the road, could have handled the vehicle at that time. What could not possibly have been Robinson, because he is not qualified to drive an 8 cwt. that speed. He would have wrecked the truck at that time. If he were drunk, he would not have proceeded very far. That casts a doubt as to whether Robinson was driving the car. The evidence of Sgmn O'Leary also casts a doubt. The prosecuter does not need to point out to me that 0930 is not 1130, or subsequent thereto.

I feel sure that they should not overlook that that truck was checked in before 0930 hours, that the work ticket was turned in by Sgmn, Murray, and there was no further authority for the truck to go anywhere. Yet there is the fact that 0930 hours, a signals truck, driven by someone who knew o'Leary, spoke to him, and took that truck out of the yard. It could not have been Robinson. Where was he at that time ? In a pub in Guildford. Don't ask me what the truck did between0930 and 11 o'clock. It is sufficient for me to say this:- that sometime during the evening, someone outside of Robinson had that truck outside the signals yard. It is little things that sway thecourse of justice. It is true he was sitting in the front seat of the car at Guildford, but sitting in it is not using it. And the statement that Robinson went for a truck does not mean that he came back with a truck. They did not know who was in the front seat of it. We have to accept one of Miss Meredith's stories, if the court is going to pay any attention to it at all, which I think they should not.
Some doubt still remains, there is doubt about Robinson's driving the truck. There is evidence that someone else had unauthorized use of it. There is just one proposition; sitting in it in Guildford. I suppose, sir, that if I go and sit on the toilet, I used it, but it does not necessarily follow that I did use it.. I think the charge should be dismissed, by reason of the prosecution having failed to prove their case.

Closing address by the defending officer:-We have proved that it was a Canadian military vehicle, and secondly, he was found in the vehicle Several witnesses have proven that he was in the vehilce.. O'Leary was unable to identify the vehicle he saw leaving the yard, and we also have the fact that he could not have identified the sign on the front of the vehicle as being the sign of his own unit. There is the evidence of the two police constables to the effect that this vehicle was being driven down the road, swerving from side to side, in such a manner as to make it dangerous for them to follow alongside. This might indicate and inexperienced driver. There is the evidence of Miss Meredith, to the effect that Robinson was in the vehicle. You can use a car for a number of things. There is sufficient evidence that he was found in the car, that the car was absent from its authorized place, and that he transported females in it. That is the case for the prosecution.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING.

Q:- By the President:- Have you any evidence to produce as to the particulars of service and statement of character of the accused ?

Capt. J.H. TOWNSEND, O.C. Sigs. Section, H.Q. C.M.U., having been duly sworn, produces AFB 296 and MFM 6, both relating to the accused and states:- The originals are in my possession. The 6 signed by Lieut. Thomas-Peter, an officer authorized to sign. They have been compared with the regimental books, and are true extracts therefrom.

Q:- By the president to the accused:-
Do you wish to call any witnesses as to character ?
A:- No, sir.
Q:- Do you wish to address the court in mitigation of punishment, or will your defending officer speak for you ?
A:- I will leave it to my defending officer;

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICE

The offences mentioned on the M.F.M. 6 are all petty offences. The accused in his statement to me professes no knowledge of the facts of the taking of this car at all. Drunkeness would not excuse this, but so far as his service with the signal service is concerned, he is one of the older D.R.s here. Had it not been for the taking of alcohol, this probably would not have occurred. He would not have been with Capt. Townsend so long as he has been, if he had not been a good man.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE
A shorthand writer being employed, the court expressed its opinion that it was unnecessary to comply with RP 83(BO), no witness desiring such compliance.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF M.17215 Sigmn. ROBINSON, A.C. - R.C.C.S. - on the strength of SIGNAL SECTION, C.R.U.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

Capt. J.H. Townsend - R.C.C.S. - Officer Commanding, Signal Section, C.R.U. having been duly sworn states:

"On 23 Dec 42 I was Officer Commanding, Signal Section C.R.U. At approximately 1730 hrs I was informed by the C.S.M. that it would be necessary to despatch the 8 cwt truck CZ 4209282 which is a vehicle on the establishment of this Section to Bordon for the purpose of transporting one of the N.C.O.'s of this Section from Aldershot to Bordon and also to deliver personal mail. I gave the necessary authority for this trip and understood that the truck would return to the unit lines at approximately 2030 hrs. At 0930 hrs, 24 Dec 42 I was informed by the duty officer at H.Q. C.R.U. that a message had been received that morning from the Surrey Constabulary that M.17215 Sigmn. ROBINSON, A.C. was in civil custody on a charge of operating a vehicle in an improper manner as a result of indulgence in alcoholic beverages. I telephoned the inspector of Police at Guildford and verified that Sigmn. ROBINSON was in civil custody there and that the truck previously mentioned was also being held by the civil police. I went to Guildford at approximately 1100 hrs in company with Sgt. BENTLEY, E.H. and found the truck and Sigmn. ROBINSON at the Guildford Police station. Sigmn. ROBINSON was released in military custody by the civil authorities on a bail of £5-0-0 pending decision as to whether he would be tried by the civil authorities or turned over to the military for disposal of his case. I was later informed by letter by the Surrey Constabulary that all evidence in the case was to be delivered to me and this evidence in documentary form has since been received.
Sigmn. ROBINSON was immediately placed on charge and remanded for Summary of Evidence.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Mr. B. BRADLEY - POLICE OFFICER - Police Station Godalming.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary of evidence.

" On the night of the 23rd and 24th December 1942, I was on car driving patrol duty, in company with P.C. THATCHER and T.C. McCASHEN. At 12.20 a.m. we were stationary at Portsmouth Road Milford when a Military lorry 8 cwt. passed us at a fast speed. I started after this vehicle as he appeared to be travelling at a very excessive speed for that type of vehicle. I caught up with it before reaching Godalming Town, but owing to the fast speed at which we were travelling it was not safe for me to attempt to pass. At Meadrow I did pass the other vehicle, as I ran level with it, P.C. THATCHER signaled it to stop, I drew ahead and into the nearside, but the other vehicle drew out and passed me and went away at a fast speed. I again followed and drew level with it and P.C. THATCHER through the loudspeaker requested the driver to pull into the side, but the other driver did not slacken speed, and I had to draw in behind as we were approaching a corner. I followed it over the Peasmarsh Road where we reached 80 m.p.h. At Peasmarsh Bridge the driver went round the "S" bend at a terrific speed on the wrong side of the road, as he approached this bend he narrowly missed running down some cyclists. I followed it into Guildford, and the driver appeared to be driving blind he was rounding corners on the wrong side of the road, completely ignoring the danger of such driving.

At Woodbridge Road, I proceeded down the wrong side of the dual carriage way and drew across the path of the other vehicle at the end of the carriage way, but the other vehicle, stopped then turned off to the right. I turned my vehicle round and followed but I lost sight of the other vehicle. After searching the roads for half an hour I eventually found the other vehicle stationary in Queens Road. The driver Arnold Clare ROBINSON was sitting in the cabin of the lorry with a girl. When he was asked to get out of the vehicle, he appeared to be unsteady on his feet and we conveyed him to Guildford County Police Station."

Signed (B. BRADLEY - CC 148)
Police Officer,
Police Station, Godalming.

Having regard to the exigencies of the service, the attendance of this witness cannot, in my opinion, be readily procured.

(F.B. Thomas-Peter) Lieut.

The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross examination.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution

Mr. R.G. THATCHER - POLICE OFFICER - Police Station Godalming.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary of evidence.

" I beg to report that at 12.20 a.m. on the 24th Dec 1942, at Portsmouth Road, Milford, while on car patrol in company with P.C. BRADLEY and T.C. McCASHEN. A 8 cwt Military truck passed us at a fast speed, travelling in the direction of Godalming. We started after this vehicle and eventually caught up with it at Ockford Road, Bridge. We followed through Godalming High Street at a fast speed, reaching 50 m.p.h. in places. When at Meadrow we drew level with the other vehicle and I leaned out of the Police car and signaled the other vehicle to stop. I did this by means of a hand torch. We drew just ahead of the other vehicle and we were slowing down on the nearside of the road to stop when the army truck drew away and passed us, accelerating to a very fast speed in the direction of Guildford. We again followed the truck and drew level with it. I then requested the driver to pull into the side, I did this through the loudspeaker, but the driver took no notice, Owing to the terrific speed at which we were travelling, it was necessary for us to draw back behind. Our fog lamp was then switched on and I was able to read the number on the rear of the truck, CZ 4209282. Our speed was very high going across Peasmarsh, where we reached 80 m.p.h. At Woodbridge Road, Guildford, the truck kept to the left side of the road and we proceeded down on the right of the dual carriage was. At the end of the island we drew across to the nearside in the path of the truck and stopped. The driver of the other vehicle stopped, then went into reverse for approximately 50 yards then turned off to the right. We turned our car round then commenced to follow, but we lost sight of the truck. We searched the roads in the vicinity for half an hour and eventually found the army truck stationary in Queens Road at 1.0 a.m. The driver was seated in the cabin with a girly Miss Dorothy Ethel MEREDITH of 28 Queens Road, Guildford The driver of the vehicle was Arnold Clare ROBINSON, M.17216 of the Canadian Army, Edmonton Regiment. At this time I felt the engine of the truck and found it to be very hot and the tyres were still warm.

I informed ROBINSON that I was not satisfied with his driving and his explanation as to how he came in possession of the vehicle. His condition gave me the impression that he was under the influence of drink.

We conveyed him to Guildford County Police Station where he was seen by Doctor Peter MILLIGAN at 1.40 a.m. and he certified him as not being in a fit condition to drive.

On the 24th December 1942 in company with P.C. BRADLEY, we interviewed Dorothy Ethel MEREDITH and she made the attached statement.

I am Sir,
Your obedient servant,

I waited at the corner until Dorothy returned from her lodgings. My boy friend George was with me while waiting. When Dorothy and her boy friend Robby came back we all went to the "Prince Albert" pub, this would be approx 7 p.m. We stayed in the pub till closing time. I did not have any more than two drinks, a Port and a Sherry. The two soldiers were drinking Double Whiskeys and Beer all night, and Dorothy had Port and Sherry. The soldiers were lively but I would not say they were drunk. After we all left the pub at closing time we went to Guildford Station and got the train to North Camp. From North Camp Station we walked for about 20 minutes, I am not quite sure in what direction but went through some barracks.
On arrival at the corner, Robby told the three of us to wait while he went and got a truck. He, Robby, returned in about 5 minutes with the truck. I and George got in the back and Dorothy got in front with Robby. As soon as we left with the truck it came direct to my home on Lower Farnham Road.
I got out of the truck at my home and George got in front with the other two. I bid them good-night and they left for Witley to take George home.

EIGHTH WITNESS for the prosecution — Miss Dorothy Ethel MEREDITH, 22 Queens Road, Guildford Surrey.

A written statement of this witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary of evidence.

"I have been cautioned and wish to make the following statement:

I left the factory at 6.30 p.m. on the 23rd December 1942 at Guildford with Sybil KING, when we got outside the factory we met two of our friends ROBINSON and GEORGE CALLIN, both Canadian soldiers. My young man Robby and myself went to my lodgings at 22 Queens Road, then we went to the Prince Albert, where we again met our friends, Sybil KING and George CALLIN. We arrived at the public house at 7.0 p.m. and we left about 10.0 p.m. While we were there we all had several drinks. I was drinking sherry and the two men were drinking whiskey and light ale.
When we left the public house we all caught the train from Guildford Station at 10.40 p.m. and went to North Camp. When we left the train we went to where ROBINSON is attached as a "D.R." and he said he was going to get a truck. After about 5 or 10 minutes he came back with and Army truck.
We then took Sybil home, Robby was driving and I sat in the front by the side of him and the other two sat in the back. We took Sybil to her home in Aldershot, at 52 Lower Farnham Road.
After dropping Sybil we took CALLIN to Witley Camp, I do not know which road we took. We travelled very fast, but I did not think there was anything wrong with ROBINSON'S driving. We dropped CALLIN right near to the camp. Then ROBINSON said that he would drive me back to Guildford. The first time I remember a car was following us, was after we left Witley Camp and a large car pulled up in front of us and we passed it. We drove pretty fast to Guildford and a car followed us. We went down near Guildford station, then round near the market. A large car passed us in Woodbridge Road, the car was on the wrong side of the road. We then turned up a road to our right after that we got into Queens Road and stopped. Both ROBINSON and myself sat in the lorry all the time, after quite a while the police came up and questioned us.

" On 23 Dec 42 ROBINSON and I had planned to meet in Guildford. I arrived in Guildford at approximately 1800 hrs. I went to where I was to meet Robinson, went on to a pub for a while and then returned to meet him at approximately 1820 hrs. When the girls came out Robinson and Dorothy went off to her house, then came back and we went into the pub together. When we went into the pub we ordered up a couple of double gins and lime, a couple of double whiskeys and some light ale and started off. Robinson bought the first round , I bought the next and we continued drinking until closing time. From there on things are hazy. I remember leaving the pub and I have a hazy recollection of getting into the back of a truck. I could not say what truck it was. I can dimly remember getting out of the truck and the next morning when I awoke I was back in barracks.

On the night of the 23rd and 24th December 1942, I was on car driving patrol duty, in company with P.C. THATCHER and T.C. McCASHEN. At 12.20 a.m. we were stationary at Portsmouth Road Milford when a Military lorry 5 cwt. passed us at a fast speed. I started after this vehicle as he appeared to be travelling at a very excessive speed for that type of vehicle. I caught up with it before reaching Godalming Town, but owing to the fast speed at which we were travelling it was not safe for me to attempt to pass. At Meadrow I did pass the other vehicle, as I ran level with it, P.C. THATCHER signaled it to stop, I drew ahead and into the nearside, but the other vehicle drew out and passed me and went away at a fast speed. I again followed and drew level with it and P.C. THATCHER through the loudspeaker requested the driver to pull in the side, but the other driver did not slacken speed, and I had to draw in behind as we were approaching a corner. I followed it over the Peasmarsh Road where we reached 80 M.P.H. At Peasmarsh Bridge the driver went round the "S" bend at a terrific speed on the wrong side of the road, as he approached this bend he narrowly missed running down three cyclists. I followed it into Guildford, and the driver appeared to be driving drunk. He was rounding corners on the wrong side of the road, completely ignoring the danger of such driving.

At Woodbridge Road, I proceeded down the wrong side of the dual carriage way and drew across the path of the other vehicle at the end of the carriage way, but the other vehicle, stopped then turned off to the right. I turned my vehicle round and followed but I lost sight of the other vehicle. After searching the roads for half an hour I eventually found the other vehicle stationary in Queens Road. The driver Arnold Clare ROBINSON was sitting inthe cabin of the lorry with a girl. When he was asked to get out of the vehicle, he appeared to be unsteady on his feet and we conveyed him to Guildford County Police Station."

Sir,

re Arnold Clare ROBINSON, Drunk in charge of motor vehicle.

I beg to report that at 12.30 a.m. on the 24th December 1942, at Portsmouth Road, Milford, while on car patrol in company with P.C. BRADLEY and T.C. Mc Cashen, A 1/4 cwt. Military truck passed us at a fast speed, travelling in the direction of Godalming. We started after this vehicle and eventually caught up with it at Ockford Road, bridge. We followed it through Godalming High Street at a fast speed, reaching 50 M.P.H. in places. When at Meadrow we drew level with the other vehicle and I leaned out of the Police car and signaled the other vehicle to stop. I did this by means of a hand torch. We drew just ahead of the other vehicle and and we were slowing down on the nearside of the road to stop when the army truck drew away and passed us, accelerating to a very fast speed in the direction of Guildford. We again followed the truck and drew level with it, I then requested the driver to pull into the side, I did this through the loudspeaker, but the driver took no notice. Owing to the terrific speed at which we were travelling, it was necessary for us to draw back behind. Our fog lamp was then switched on and I was able to read the number on the rear of the truck, CZ 42[illegible]202. Our speed was very high going across Peasmarsh, where we reached 80 M.P.H. At Wood[illegible] Guildford, the truck kept to the left side of the road and we proceeded down on the right of the dual carriage way. At the end of the island we drew across to the nearside in the path of the truck and stopped. The driver of the other vehicle stopped, then went into reverse for approximately 50 yards then turned off to the right. We turned our car round then commenced to follow, but we lost sight of the truck. We searched the roads in the vicinity for half an hour and eventually found the army truck stationary in Queens Road at 1.0 a.m. The driver was seated in the cabin with a girl Miss Dorothy Ethel MEREDITH of 22 Queens Road, Guildford the driver of the vehicle was Arnold Clare ROBINSON M.[illegible] of the Canadian Army, Edmonton Regiment. At this time I felt the engine of the truck and found it to be very hot and the tyres were still warm.

I informed ROBINSON that I was not satisfied with his driving and his explanation as to how he came in possession of the vehicle. His condition gave me the impression that he was under the influence of drink.

We conveyed him to Guildford County Police Station, where he was seen by Doctor Peter MILLIGAN at 1.40 a.m. and he certified him as not being in a fit condition to drive.

On the 24th December 1942 in company with P.C. BRADLEY, we interviewed Dorothy Ethel MEREDITH and she made the attached statement.

CASE OF

B-89995 Pte ROBINSON, G. A. 3 CITR

STATEMENT OF ACCUSED
(UNDER OATH)

Sir I joined the reserves on the 29 August 1939(Lincoln and Welland Regt). When war broke out, September 7 I went Active. From the Lincoln and Welland Regt I was transferred to the Royal Regt of Canada. I done my training in 1939 and in the Spring of 1940 I went to Iceland. I was in Iceland approximately 6 months. From there I came to England in November 1940. I remained in the Royal Regt of Canada for approximately 1 month after I landed in England. Shortly after that they formed what they called the 4th Recce Regt. At that time I was in a squadron called 4th Recce. Later I was transferred to what they called the 8th Recce Regt today. Shortly after my transfer I became a Corporal in the latter part of 1940. I was Corporal for approximately 1 year and 9 months. In March 1942 I went back to Canada and on the 1 April of the same year I became a Sergeant. On my return to Canada I found that I had family troubles. I had been married and my wife was pregnant. Shortly after I returned home I was sent out to the West Coast. I was attached to the 31 Alberta Recce Regt. I was home for approximately 1 year and 4 months and in between that time I wanted to return to England. The only way I could do it was to revert to a Trooper. So I reverted from a confirmed rank of Sergeant to the rank of Trooper on transfer to the 30th Recce Regt which was coming overseas. I came back over in July 1943. On my return back I went to the Legal Aid at Pall Mall Street London to make arrangements for a divorce and it has been well over a year ago and since that time I received a letter saying they could not carry on the proceedings because they had not had the money for the lawyers back in Canada. It started praying on my mind and I started being absent. Finally in December 1944 I was on a civilian charge. Charge was breaking into a club. I was on remand for 2 months at the time and finally released because I had no previous record. On my return from London I was up before the Colonel and awarded 21 days FP

B 87995 Pte Robinson, B.A.

Plea ~~for~~ in mitigation

Accused enlisted in Aug 39 serving in Iceland & England. He was promoted to sjt instructor & returned to Canada in Mar 42 for a tour of duty as instructor. However on return he found his wife pregnant & he tried to get a divorce. The lawyers wanted $125 to proceed with the case & as the accused could not obtain it, the resulting worry coming on top of the previous shock upset his stability which led from one small offence to another. He is anxious to ~~go~~ go to the front immediately & is fed up with hanging around. The good service record & promotions during the first 3 years in the Army prove that this man can be a good soldier & should now be given the opportunity to redeem himself. I plead that the man be fined & placed on draft.
This man is A cat, grade 11 educ

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR B-E7995 Pte. Robinson, B.A.

Sirs:

In making this plea of mitigation to the Court I would first of all like to draw the attention of the Court to Pte Robinson's length of service. He enlisted in early November 1939, one of the first to volunteer. In June 1940 he went to Iceland for five months, from there he came overseas until April 1942 at which time he returned to Canada as a Sgt. Instructor. It will be noted that up to that time his record was clear. On arrival in Canada he found that his wife was pregnant. This had a strong adverse affect upon him mentally and his usefulness to the army consequently suffered. He has been separated from his wife since prior to his returning to this country in July 1943 and at present his divorce proceedings are not complete. The divorce proceedingsare in civilian hands and are to cost Pte. Robinson $150.00. Pte Robinson has not the $150.00 and does not feel justified to ask for same from his widowed mother who is blind and who he has been supporting since his wife's allowance was cut off in July 1942. This man has a high point score and should soon be returning to Canada. His loyalty to his country from the beginning has unfortunately led to the domestic difficulties which I have already mentioned which in turn has caused his disturbed sense of responsibility. I submit to the Court that in view of the desire of the Canadian Government to rehabilitate the soldier so that he may pick up the threads of life where he left off on enlistment, that leniency in this case would be of definite advantage to our country as well as to the man.

[illegible] Capt.,
RMO 3 Cdn Anti-Tank Regiment.

Opening Address by the Prosecutor:

As the first charge is one of particularly serious nature and as charges of this sort demand a lengthy list of witnesses and exhibits, I would like first to give a rough outline of the prosecution's case.

First we have Sgt F H Ruddock, 105 Bty, the complainant in the case. Sometime early last fall he wired home for money in anticipation of going on leave. He asked for approx $35.00. Toward the end of Oct, when he had every reason to expect that the money would arrive, the main part of the Bty was at Lydd for firing practice. When he returned he found that the money had not arrived. He was back in his lines for a few days and then went on 14 days leave. He returned approx 18 Nov 43. Still there was no sign of the cheque. He wrote to the branch of the Bank of Montreal in London to see if they had any record of it. The next thing he heard was from his unit PMR who had a cheque that had been cashed on 29 Oct 43. As a result Sgt Ruddock saw that the endorsement on the back of the cheque looked familiar to him so he caused certain inquiries to be made. The Pro were called in and as a result of their investigation a number of specimens of handwriting were collected, which we will produce.

To start with there is the paybook of the accused.

There is the cheque with the endorsement on the back which Sgt Ruddock says is not his handwriting.

There is an exchange form which the cashier of the bank had the presenter complete in his presence.

There is a sample of Sgt Ruddock's handwriting to which he will swear.

There is the sample which Sgt Giles took of Sgt Robinson's writing and an exchange form which he also had Sgt Robinson fill out. This exchange form is also completed in the name of "F H Ruddock" and both give the address as "Sandcote Road, Parkstone, 12 Cdn Fd Regt, RCA".

All these samples were sent to the Metropolitan Police Laboratory in London and Mr C G Daubney, the document examiner, made a report on them. As a result of that report the accused was charged as set forth in the charge sheet. I will not at this point give the conclusions to which Mr Daubney came. I will leave that up to him. But they definitely tie the accused very closely to the matter of this cheque.

The third charge is a more common one of loss by neglect. When the accused returned from being AWL in Feb the normal check was made by the BQMS and he was found to be short the list mentioned in the charge. As this list is very lengthy the prosecution takes it there must have been some very special reason why the accused should lose all this kit.

That briefly is the case for the prosecution.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

G/6008 Sgt F H Ruddock, 3 Cdn A-Tk Regt, RCA, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Did you last year sometime send home for money?

A Yes, sir.

Q Would you tell the court briefly in your own words just what happened?

A Last year I sent home for a cheque. It should have arrived the last part of Oct. Shortly after that I went with the Bty to Lydd for firing practice. I was gone a week. I came back and on 5 Nov 43 went on a 16-day leave. After I came back my cheque had still not arrived. I was worried about it and I had the orderly room write in about it to see whether the bank had seen it or not. Three or four days later the unit PMR sent for me. He had a cheque for me that was made out to me on Lloyd's Bank. It was signed in my name but not in my handwriting.

Q Is that the cheque the PMR showed you?

A Yes, sir.

Lloyd's Bank cheque No CD/626890 made out in the name of "G/6008 Sgt Furber H Ruddock" in the amount of £7/17/0 is placed in evidence as Exhibit "A".

Q Go on.

A When I saw the handwriting it looked familiar to me. It looked like Sgt Robinson's. I had seen his handwriting because he had written some addresses for me previously.

Q You say he had written some addresses?

A Yes, sir.

Q Is that what you refer to?

A Yes, sir.

Paper bearing addresses is placed in evidence as Exhibit "B".

Q Did you check Sgt Robinson's writing on these?

A No, sir, but I will point out the ones he wrote.

Witness marks addresses, the first with an "X", the second with a square, the third with a circle, the fourth with a circle with an "X" superimposed, the fifth with a square with an "X" superimposed.

Q Go on.

A I took these to the unit PMR. That is all I can say, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q What is there about the endorsement on Exhibit "A" that is familiar?

A Just the handwriting in general.

Q How many Sgts are there in the Bty?

A About 25, sir.

Q Can you say that you would recognize the handwriting of any one of them?

A Some of them, sir.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q Is that your signature on the back of the cheque?

A No, sir.

Q When was the first time you saw this cheque?

A When the PMR called me in, sir.

Q Did you ever give anyone authority to write your name for you?

A No, sir.

Re-examination:

Q How long have you known Sgt Robinson?

A Four years in the army and three years before that.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

Victor Herbert Edward Robinson, cashier of Lloyd's Bank, Charminster Road, Bournemouth, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Do you recognize Exhibit "A"?

A Yes, I recognize it.

Q When did you see it before?

A On a certain day when it was brought in to me and shown to me. That was on the day it was cashed by me.

Q The endorsement on the back of it -- did you see that endorsement written?

A Yes, I did.

Q Did you have any other transaction in the cashing of that cheque?

A Yes, I took the usual exchange form.

Q Is that the exchange form that you used?

A Yes.

Exchange form made out in the name of "F H Ruddock, Sandcote Road, Parkstone, 12 Fd Regt, RCA" and bearing a date stamp "29 Oct 1945" is placed in evidence as Exhibit "C".

Q Did the presenter of the cheque make out the exchange form in your presence?

A He completed it in my presence, yes.

Q Did he have any hesitation about the manner in which he completed it?

A No, no hesitation whatsoever.

Q I see on this a date stamp, 29 Oct 1943. Did you place that on there?

A Yes.

Cross-examination:

Q Would you mind giving me the address of the bank in which you work?

A Lloyd's Bank, Charminster Road, Bournemouth.

Q You are employed there now?

A That is my permanent station bank. But I also attend at the Lower Charminster Sub Branch.

Q This Exhibit "A" you recognize as being the cheque in question -- a branch bank would handle a terrific amount of that business in a month or so?

A Yes, sir.

Q And yet you say that you recognize that item there?

A Yes, because that is the only one that would check against the entry in my book.

Q You would put your stamp on a good many cheques in a month?

A Yes, but we would not have a great number of cheques of that same amount on the same day.

Q How do you recognize it?

A First because it is stamped by my bank, and I remember the amount that was cleared by my bank.

Q The item is recognized then by the amount and by the bank stamp and the endorsement does not lead to the recognition at all?

A No, sir.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q Do you recall the particular instance of this cheque being presented?

A Yes, but not to be so very definite as to swear to it.

Q Would you recognize the person who presented it if you saw him again?

A I fail to do so.

Q Then the long and short of it is merely that you did cash this cheque for someone?

A Exactly.

Q Is it right that you have a certain standard practice and you conform to that practice essentially, so that when you say this was cashed in such a way you are basing your statement not on this particular case but on a general practice?

C66

A Yes.

Q In other words, you have a drill?

A Yes. What I did there was a bit of an irregular action and according to the bank rules I should not have done it.

Q In such cases do you ask for any identity?

A Yes. We invariably ask for the paybook.

Q Do you think that in this case you asked for a paybook?

A I marked the exchange slip "Identified". I saw some document. I could not tell you what it was at the present moment.

Q You do not recall the particular means of identification?

A No, I cannot recall.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

H/32052 Sgt T S Giles, 4 Cdn Pro Coy, stationed in Bournemouth, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Toward the end of Dec 43 did you make an investigation at 105 A-Tk Bty in regard to a cheque?

A Yes, sir.

Q Would you tell the court what you did?

A Around 28 Dec 43 I was instr to investigate a cheque alleged to have been forged. It was cashed at Lloyd's Bank, Charminster Road, Bournemouth. I made inquiries there and then went to 105 A-Tk Bty where I saw some members of the unit and obtained specimen copies of their handwriting. Amongst these was that of Sgt Robinson.

Q Do you recognize the accused?

A Yes, sir.

Q Are those the writings you got from Sgt Robinson at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Six copies of the signature "P H Ruddock" written by the accused are placed in evidence as Exhibit "D".

Q Did you actually see him write them?

A Yes, sir. I saw him write them.

Q What else did you see?

A I got a blank exchange form from Lloyd's Bank which Sgt Robinson filled in. He filled it in the same way as when the cheque was cashed.

Q Is that the slip?

A Yes, sir.

Q How do you recognize it?

A My initials are on the back.

Exchange form completed by the accused at the request of Sgt T S Giles is placed in evidence as Exhibit "E".

Q What else did you do?

A I asked for Sgt Robinson's paybook. He produced it. I asked him if the name in it was in his writing. He said "Yes". Also the writing on the following two pages.

Q In his own writing?

A Yes.

Q Did he tell you that?

A When I asked about the signature he said that page was in his writing.

Q Is that the paybook you obtained from him at that time, which he said was his?

A Yes, that is the paybook, sir.

Paybook is placed in evidence as Exhibit "F".

Q Which pages of this did he tell you were in his writing?

A Three, four and five.

Q What did you afterward do with these documents?

A Fwded them to my Coy HQ and asked that they be sent to the SIS in London so that an opinion could be passed on them by a handwriting expert.

Cross-examination:

Q You mention that you started this investigation with regard to infm and instrs you got regarding a forged cheque?

A Yes, sir, alleged to have been forged.

Q You say Sgt Robinson asked you to take his paybook as a sample of his handwriting?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did Sgt Robinson at the time offer to give you his paybook as evidence?

A He offered it to me, sir.

Questioned by the court:

Q Did Sgt Robinson at that time make a statement to you?

A No. He said he had a reason but did not state it, sir.

Q It was a voluntary gesture on his part to give you the book as a sample of his handwriting?

A Yes, sir.

4th Witness for the Prosecution

Charles Gaspard Daubney, MSc, FIC, Document Examiner, Metropolitan Police Laboratory, London, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Have you had much experience in regard to handwriting?

A Yes, I have been doing that work for about eight years and have had wide experience.

Q Are you often called in on various cases to give evidence?

A Yes, I have been to quite a large number of courts martial and ordinary civil courts to give evidence.

Q Did you early in Jan receive a number of documents from the APM First Cdn Army?

A I did.

Q Would you recognize them again?

A Yes.

Q Did you receive this document, Exhibit "A"?

A Yes.

Q And Exhibit "B"?

A Yes.

Q And Exhibit "C"?

A Yes.

Q And Exhibit "D"?

A Yes, right.

Q And Exhibit "E"?

A Yes.

Q And Exhibit "F"?

A Yes. Those are the documents I received on that particular occasion.

Q In connection with these documents were you given any infm or asked to make any inquiry?

A I was asked to examine the signature on the reverse side of the cheque and on the exchange form and to compare it with the specimen of known handwriting which I was given at the same time.

Q Would you tell the court what the results of your investigation were?

A I examined the questioned and the known writings on the various exhibits. Turning first to the questioned writing on the cheque and on the exchange form I found that the writing was characterized by a neat style, the upright stance, the heavy shading on the down strokes and that the writing as a whole had been done with confidence and speed. There was no evidence of hesitation nor of any unusual letter forms. This led me to the opinion that there had been no attempt to disguise the writing nor any attempt at copy forgery. The writing had every appearance of being in the normal hand of the writer. I was satisfied that none of this questioned writing had been written by Ruddock. On examining Robinson's writing his specimens fell into two groups -- one the genuine or collected writing which had been written in the ordinary course of his activities; and second the request writing which had been secured in connection with the investigation. The genuine writing appears on pages 3, 4 and 5 of his paybook and in the various names and addresses on the scrap of paper. The request writing comprised the various signatures and the exchange form which had been written out on request. It was quite obvious that the two sets of writings were not in agreement. The request writing is in a much larger flourishing hand with more shading and a fwd slope whereas the genuine writing showed certain variations which are characteristic of normal handwriting. It was in a round hand with heavy shading, in a neat style and containing characteristic forms of letters. I formed the opinion that these collected genuine specimens of writing would represent Robinson's normal hand whereas the request writing is in an altered style and suggests that he has made an attempt to disguise his handwriting. On comparing the genuine with the request writing there is revealed a very close agreement. I would like to submit in evidence this book of photographs. In it you will find two charts, one of which sets out the request writing surrounded by letters and words appearing in the genuine writing. In the other is the genuine writing set out against the request writing and the known writing of Ruddock.

Book of specimens of handwriting is placed in evidence as Exhibit "G".

The comparison of the genuine writing with the requested reveals a close agreement between the two and this applies to the stance, shading and shape of letters and is particularly noticeable in the case of the capital "P" "R" "S" & "F" and the small "g". From these various findings I reached the following conclusions:

(a) That the writing on the cheque and exchange form are in the normal hand of a writer and that he has not attempted to disguise his hand nor copy a forgery.

(b) That the request writing is not the work of Ruddock.

(c) That the request writing by Robinson affords evidence of an attempt to disguise his handwriting.

(d) That the writing on the cheque and exchange form are in the normal handwriting of Robinson.

Cross-examination:

Q Would you tell me if the handwriting on pages 3, 4 and 5 of the paybook offered as an exhibit is a good sample of the handwriting of the accused?

A I was told that that writing was in the handwriting of Robinson and examination of it shows that it has been carefully but normally written without any apparent difficulty or hesitation and I had no reason to regard it as other than a satisfactory specimen of his handwriting.

Q You say that the conclusions you arrived at are based on your opinion?

A Yes.

Q You further state that there has been no attempt to copy forgery?

A No, there was not.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q In the machinery or mechanics of your analysis do you use the method of the microscope?

A In examining this writing it has been a matter of comparing the general style, the fmn of individual letters, the quality of the writing generally and of individual strokes and generally assessing the value of the findings in the light of my experience. The whole process is not a question of mathematics or exact measurements.

Q What I was referring to is this: I have had in the past experience of handwriting and forgeries and I know that some experts adopt the idea that when a person tries to disguise his handwriting that there are certain sub-conscious strokes in the handwriting which cannot be disguised. Is that right?

A Yes, that is true.

Q You took all those things into consideration?

A Yes.

5th Witness for the Prosecution

G/42503 BQMS M G Gorlick, 3 Cdn A-Tk Regt, RCA, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Will you cast your mind back to the latter part of Oct. When the Bty was at Lydd Camp were you on the rear party?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was Sgt Robinson on the rear party?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you recognize him?

A Yes, sir.

Q How many were on this rear party?

A Twenty all told, sir.

Q A few weeks ago, as BQMS, did you make a kit inspection of Sgt Robinson's kit when he returned from AWL?

A Yes, on 5 Mar 44 in his quarters.

Q Did you find him deficient?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a list that you can produce?

A Yes, sir.

List of kit deficiencies is placed in evidence as Exhibit "H".

Q Did you properly check the kit and find him deficient those articles?

A Yes, sir.

Q Tell the court how you did that.

A I checked with his new MBM 1, Part III, which was a duplicate of his old paybook which he turned into Stores.

Q Where did you obtain the value of those articles?

A From the 1943 price list, sir.

Cross-examination:

Q If a Sgt or senior NCO of the Bty is deficient small articles of kit do you make those up for him? Has that been the practice?

A If he has a good reason why they were lost we try to make up the kit if we can.

Q Your answer is "Yes"?

A Not always, no.

Q Had there been any deficiencies in the kit of Sgt Robinson reported to you prior to the date in question?

A Not to my knowledge, sir.

Q If there had been a deficiency in the case of a NCO it would have been reported to you?

A Yes, sir.

Q But there was not?

A No, sir.

Q Who was with you when you made the inspection on 5 Mar 44?

A I was alone with the two guards.

Q Who were they?

A The escort of Sgt Robinson.

Q Was his room locked at any time?

A I don't know anything about the room, sir.

Questioned by the court:

Q If a Sgt found himself short of certain items of kit, what would be the normal procedure to get it made up or otherwise?

A He would tell his tp storeman and when we got our bulk demand for the month we would try to fix him up.

Q When you made this kit inspection did you tell him he was deficient?

A Yes, sir. We both agreed.

Q Did he explain any of the deficiencies?

A I asked Sgt Robinson at the time if he had any idea where any of the stuff might be. He said "No" and that there was not much sense of having a Bty kit inspection as most of the stuff was not marked and we would not find it.

The accused makes a statement not on oath:

It has always been the policy in our unit for personnel proceeding on leave to turn in their kit to the tp stores. It then became the Tp Sgt's responsibility to look after it. I being the Tp Sgt, when I went on leave I locked my room. I was the only inhabitant of it. I locked the room and gave the key to the house orderly. I deem that through the precautions I took, the kit was not lost through negligence.

Prosecutor sums up:

The court has heard the various witnesses for the prosecution and I think they will have decided that on the evidence adduced that there can be no reasonable doubt as to the proof of the charges against the accused.

On the first charge there is the evidence of Sgt Ruddock that he was expecting a cheque of some $35.00. We have his evidence that he was away from camp for two intervals around about the time he was expecting the money. We have his evidence that he never received any such cheque.

We have the evidence of BQMS Gorlick that the accused Sgt Robinson was present on a rear party at the time when the cheque might conceivably have arrived.

The remainder of the prosecution case on this charge depends entirely on the business of handwriting. We have the evidence of Mr Robinson of Lloyd's Bank, Charminster Road, Bournemouth, at which bank the cheque was presented and cashed. He has pointed out that he saw the cheque and that he saw the endorsement made on the cheque. He has stated that it is their practice to have a stranger make out an exchange form and in this case he saw it completed. We have the fact that on the exchange form the address was given as "Sandcote Road, 12 Fd Regt, RCA", which is most misleading. This is most peculiar. This would strongly bear out the words in the charge "with intent to defraud".

It has been sufficiently proven that the various specimens of handwriting were made by the persons concerned, that they were collected and given to Mr Daubney for examination. Mr Daubney is a most competent witness and he is the document examiner at the Metropolitan Police Laboratory in London. He has stated that he has had considerable experience for the past eight years and has given evidence many times in courts martial and in civilian courts.

I would like to draw the attn of the court to MML, Chap VI, Secs 64 and 67, regarding the opinion of a witness. Normally the opinion of a witness is not worth anything but the opinion of an expert is. (Reads)

"64 The chief exception to this rule relates to the evidence of experts. The opinion of an expert, that is to say a person specially skilled in any science or art, is admissible as evidence on any point within the range of his special knowledge."

"67 With respect to handwriting, it is specially provided by statute that comparison of a disputed handwriting with any writing, proved to the satisfaction of the court to be genuine, is permitted to be made by witnesses, and such writings and the evidence of witnesses respecting the same may be submitted to the court and jury as evidence of the genuineness or otherwise of the writing in dispute. The comparison may be made either by a person acquainted with the handwriting, or by an expert in handwriting, or by the court itself. A witness may be required to read writing or to write in the presence of the court. But it must be borne in mind that writing made for the special purpose of comparison is not unlikely to be disguised. The importance of an expert's evidence in such cases lies not so much in the opinion which he expresses as in the fact that he draws the attn of the court to similarities and dissimilarities which they might not notice without his assistance, but the value of which (when pointed out) they can fully appraise for themselves. Where a question of forgery is to be decided by comparison of handwritings only, the assistance of an expert is most desirable."

I think the court is satisfied that Mr Daubney is such an expert and therefore they must att great weight to his evidence. He has also told the court how he reached his conclusions. He has concluded most definitely, I think, the following point:

(a) That the questioned handwriting on the cheque and on the exchange form are in the normal hand of Sgt Robinson.

(b) That they are not in the handwriting of Sgt Ruddock.

Also in producing the request writing of Sgt Robinson he shows that the accused has attempted to disguise his handwriting. He says those things quite flatly with no doubt whatsoever. If the court accept Mr Daubney's evidence and his opinion then it must surely follow that the accused was the person who forged the endorsement on the back of the cheque, that he was the one who completed the exchange form in the presence of Mr Robinson in the bank and that he was the one who cashed the cheque. Furthermore when Sgt Robinson was asked for samples of his handwriting he tried to falsify his hand.

Upon the last charge we have the evidence of BQMS Gorlick. In the normal course of events it is inconceivable that a senior NCO would lose that much kit. The accused says that he left it in a locked room. He has not stated that his kit and these articles in question were in that room and he does not offer an explanation of what happened to them. As this last charge is not a particularly serious one in comparison with the others, I might say that the main interest in that is to have some decision by the court as to how they will make up for this kit deficiency. I think payment in the normal method of repayment would be a small thing compared with the punishment for the other offences.

Defence sums up:

The point I want to make clear here is that the BQMS has stated there was no deficiency of kit prior to the granting of the leave pass on 16 Feb; and that if there had been deficiencies they would have been reported to him. Therefore there were no deficiencies at the time of the going away and at that time the accused took due precautions to safeguard his kit.

On the first charge we have successfully discredited the argument that the bank cashier recognized the cheque. He simply recognized an amount and the imprint of a date stamp.

Then we have the evidence of Sgt Ruddock who says that he saw the writing on the back of that cheque and recognized it as being that of the accused. Now he lives in a mess with a number of other senior NCO's and admits he would not be prepared to recognize the handwriting of any one of them. Is it not natural to conclude that he would not be prepared to recognize the handwriting of the accused?

The evidence of Mr Daubney is based on personal opinion.

Lastly we have the evidence of the BQMS who admits that there had been no shortages in Sgt Robinson's kit reported to him before he discovered them. The accused says that he was the Tp Sgt and that he took the normal precautions by leaving his kit in a locked room and leaving the key with an orderly.

Judge Advocate sums up:

Before the court closes I must advise the court what the law is with ref to forgery and also with ref to the second and third charges. I will read from MML, Chap VII, Sec 68:

"Forgery is the making of a false document in order that it may be used as genuine. A document is false if it or any material part of it purports to be made by or on behalf of a person who did not make it or authorize its making and in particular if any material alteration by addition, insertion or obliteration has been made on it, or if the whole or some material part of it purports to have been made by or on behalf of a fictitious or deceased person. A document is also considered to be false, though made by a person in his own name, if it is so made with the intention that it should pass as being made by someone else. These definitions must not be taken to be exhaustive.

"For forgery to constitute an offence, there must be an intent to defraud or deceive; in the case of some documents an intent to defraud is essential; in the case of others an intent either to defraud or to deceive must be charged and proved ....."

Now before you could find the accused guilty of the first charge you must be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused acted dishonestly with an intent to defraud. That is when a person makes a misrepresentation with intent to obtain something thereby.

Now regarding the evidence on handwriting the law is well content that that evidence is admissible. The court, however, does not have to accept it. You have seen Mr Daubney, the handwriting expert, here in court. You have noted his demeanor. You may accept his evidence in its entirety or you may refuse it entirely.

Of course if there is any doubt in your minds you must give the benefit of it to the accused.

3rd CANADIAN ANTI/TANK REGT, R.C.A. Page 1.

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.6021 Sgt. C. Robinson, of the 105th Bty, 3 Cdn A Tk Regt.

The C.O. (Lt.-Col. J.P. Phin) of the 3 Cdn A Tk Regt directs that all evidence shall be taken under oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution: G.6008 Sgt. F.H. Ruddock, 105 Bty, 3 Cdn A Tk Regt, having been duly sworn, states:

I am G.6008 Sgt. F.H. Ruddock of the 105th Bty, 3 Cdn A Tk Regt. Last year I sent home for a cheque for $35.00, and it should have arrived in England no later than Nov. 1st 1943. During the latter part of October, I was away with the greater part of the Battery at Lydd Camp. I went on 10 days leave on Nov. 5th and returned on Nov. 15th, and found that the cheque had not yet arrived. A few nights later, I was talking to Sgt. Robinson, whom I recognize as the accused, in a public house. We had a few drinks together, and he asked me if I had received my cheque. When I told him that I hadn't he mentioned to me that Sgt. Powell, while the Bty. was at Lydd, had borrowed his paybook to get a room in a hotel. He suggested to me that perhaps Sgt. Powell had borrowed his paybook in order to copy his handwriting to put on my cheque. This made me suspicious, so I had the Orderly Room clerk write to the Bank of Montreal in London to see if it had been cashed. A few days later the unit paymaster called me into his office and he showed me a cheque drawn on Lloyds Bank payable to me - numbered CD 6D6890. I identify this same cheque as the one marked exhibit one. The endorsement "F.H. Ruddock" is not in my handwriting. The handwriting looked familiar to me so I brought back a paper with some addresses on it, some of which Sgt. Robinson had written out for me a few months previously. I gave this to the paymaster, as I noticed that this handwriting seemed similar to the endorsement on the back of the cheque. I recognized this list of addresses as those marked exhibit # 6, and being the ones I had given to the paymaster. F.H. Ruddock

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness. R.P. 4 (e) has been complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Victor Herbert Edward Robinson, Lloyds Bank, Charminster Road Branch, Bournemouth, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Victor Herbert Edward Robinson, cashier of Lloyds Bank, Charminster Branch, Bournemouth. I identify cheque #CD6D6890 in the amount of £7 - 19 - 0 drawn upon Lloyds Bank, City Office by the Bank of Montreal and marked exhibit one as being a cheque cashed by me and crossed by this Branch on the 30th of October 1943, the payee being Sgt. F.H. Ruddock, and the presenter purporting to be the within mentioned payee. I also identify the Bank Exchange Form, marked exhibit 8 as the form handed to the person for whom I cashed this cheque which form was signed by that person in my presence. The smaller date stamp of the 29th Oct. 1943 on the form was placed thereon by me on the date the cheque was cashed.

V.H.E. Robinson

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness. R.P. 4(e) has been complied with.

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.6021 Sgt. C. Robinson, of the 105th Bty, 2 Cdn A Tk Regt.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: R.320582 Sgt. T.S. Giles, No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the NCO in charge of the section of # 4 Cdn Provost Coy stationed in Bournemouth. On the 28th of December 1945, on instructions received, I interviewed several members of the 105th Cdn A Tk Bty which included G.6021 Sgt. C. Robinson, whom I recognize as the accused, regarding cheque #CD0236890 payable to Sgt. F.H. Ruddock. I asked several men for request specimens of their handwriting. I also obtained several specimens of handwriting of Sgt. Robinson which I identify as those marked exhibit # 3. I saw him write them and I initialed them on the back. On the request of Sgt. Robinson I also took his M.B.K. 1 as he said that pages 3, 4 and 5 were in his handwriting. I also had him fill in a blank exchange form of Lloyds Bank Ltd. which I identify as that marked exhibit # 7, and which I initialled on the back, with wording to correspond with exchange form received from Lloyds Bank made out in the name of Sgt. F.H. Ruddock which I recognize as that marked exhibit #8. I forwarded all these handwriting specimens to my company H.Q. with a request that they be sent to the Special Investigation Section in London.

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.6021 Sgt. C. Robinson, 105th Bty, 3 Cdn A Tk Regt.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution: G.G. Dunbney, M.Sc., F.I.C., Document Examiner, The Metropolitan Police Laboratory, Hendon, The Hyde, N.W. 9.

The following is a copy of this witness's evidence. His written statement, purporting to be signed by him, has been read to the accused. Having regard to the exigencies of the service, the attendance of this witness cannot, in my opinion, be readily procured. The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

"On the 8th January 1944 I received from Major Kidston, A.P.M., Canadian Army, England:

Cheque CD636890 payee Sergt. Ruddock	(1)
Paybook of Robinson	(2)
Six request specimens of writing by Robinson	(3)
Writing by Ruddock	(4)
Writing by Robinson	(5)
Exchange form written by Robinson	(7)
Questioned Exchange form	(8)

The questioned handwriting of the endorsement "F.H.Ruddock" on the cheque CD636890 and of the name and address on the Exchange form dated 29 Oct 1943 have been examined and compared with the request and genuine writings of Ruddock and Robinson.

The questioned writings are characterised by the neat style and upright stance, and the heavy shading of the down strokes and the rounded forms of the letters. Further, there is evidence that the writings have been executed with confidence and speed, there being no sign of hesitancy or the use of unaccustomed letter forms. These qualities at once suggest that there has been no attempt at disguise or copy forgery and that the writings are in the normal handwriting of the author.

Examination of the known handwriting and signature of Ruddock confirms that the questioned writings are not the work of Ruddock.

The submitted specimens of writing by Robinson fall into two groups: (a) genuine or "collected" writings and (b) request writings.

The genuine writings (a) consist of entries on pages 3,4 and 5 of the paybook and the names and addresses on a sheet of paper, whilst the request writings (b) are specimen signatures and a copy of the particulars on the Exchange form. It is at once apparent that these two sets of writing are not in close agreement. The "requests" are in a larger, flourishing style, sloping forward and without shading. The genuine specimens, although shewing certain variations in slope and size, are (with one exception) in a round hand with heavy shading, of neat style together with some characteristic letter formations. These qualities not only reveal Robinson's normal handwriting with its natural variations but shew that the request writings are in an altered style and suggest that in these there has been an attempt at disguise.

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.6021 Sgt. C. Robinson, 105th Bty, 3 Cdn A Tk Regt.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution: C.G. Daubney, M.Sc., F.I.C., Document Examiner, the Metropolitan Police Laboratory, Hendon The Hyde, N.W. 9.(Cont'd).

A comparison of the genuine writing of Robinson with the questioned reveals close agreement. This applies to the stance and shading, to the general shape of the letters and to the formation of certain letters. This agreement is particularly noticeable in the case of the capitals 'P', 'R', 'F' and 'S' and the small 'g'.

A book of photographs is submitted illustrating these findings.

CONCLUSIONS:
From this examination I am of the opinion that:-

(i) The questioned writings are in the normal handwriting of the author with no attempt at disguise or copy forgery.

(ii) The questioned writings are not the work of Ruddock.

(iii) In producing the request writings, Robinson has attempted to disguise his normal handwriting.

(iv) The questioned writing on the cheque and Exchange form is in the normal handwriting of Robinson.

Character Evidence

Lieut L N Ray, 3 Cdn A-Tk Regt, RCA, (defending officer), having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

This man was born in England. He went to Canada at an early age with his parents and as soon as he became of age he joined the Cdn Army. He was in the NPAM for eight years, most of this time as a NCO in the (then) York Regt. Then he decided he would like to become a Gnr and joined the 105 Bty. There he served for three years. Came the war and Sgt Robinson joined an active unit and was rapidly promoted to the rank he now holds, a full Sgt. That gives you a service of 15 years and most of it as a NCO.

During the last two years occasions have arisen where it has been necessary for the senior W O of the unit to be absent and during those periods of absence the OC Bty has not hesitated to call upon Sgt Robinson to act as BSM. This has not arisen once but a number of times and in and in each case the Officer Commanding has found that Sgt Robinson's record has been good enough to warrant entrusting him with the duties of BSM.

To show further the regard in which this man has been held in the unit, he has been interviewed by the Commanding Officer with regard to vacancies for W O in the unit. The vacancy never occurred, however, and the promotion was never made. As late as last summer Sgt Robinson was recommended for a commission. The recommendation did not go through owing to age.

In Dec 43 I was posted to this Bty as Tp Comd. I was given "K" Tp. I knew the Bty and I knew the Tp. I was very glad I was to have a Tp Sgt with a service such as Sgt Robinson's. I found the Tp had been without a Tp Comd for a time and the Tp had an excellent record due to the work of Sgt Robinson. The discipline was excellent. The eqpt and stores were in good order and I found that Sgt Robinson was absolutely invaluable in putting me in the picture.

I would like you to form your opinion of the character of this man from this evidence -- a long record of service, the last five of it in this unit.

The prosecutor does not wish to cross-examine.

Plea in mitigation:

The accused Sgt Robinson was separated from his legal wife in 1936. During the past two years he has found company with a woman in Worthing and in Nov last year she was found to be pregnant. Late in Jan she suffered a miscarriage and was confined to bed. Sgt Robinson obtained leave in order to arrange for her welfare in that he had an experienced woman to act as nurse for her and administer to the daily needs of this patient. That went along satisfactorily until 16 Feb 44 and it was found that the erstwhile arrangements for this woman's care had fallen through, inasmuch as the woman acting as nurse was too busy to carry out these duties. So Sgt Robinson asked for a leave on compassionate grounds so that he could arrange for the welfare of this woman. That was a 48-hr pass. Now this woman was some 40 years of age. This compassionate leave started on 16 Feb 44. Sgt Robinson visited Worthing. In the short time granted him he was unable to arrange proper care. So he wired to his Commanding Officer for an extension of 24 hrs and it was granted right away. The Commanding Officer had no compunction whatever about granting it. That leave expired and there was still no definite arrangement for the care of this woman. Sgt Robinson was faced with a grave situation. What was he to do: Return to his unit and leave an invalid not properly cared for or stay and look after her himself? Sgt Robinson took the latter course. He knew full well that there were other NCO's in the Tp. His duties would be taken care of when he was away. On the other hand, if he left this girl she would not be properly cared for. So he stayed in Worthing. You have the documentary evidence that he was apprehended in Worthing a few days later and was returned here.

Station Borden, Ontario

Date 6 August 1941

Clive McCormack Capt RCAMC
Medical Officer
No. 1 Cdn. Arty. Holding Unit.

M-10578, Gnr. Robinson, W.R., No. 1 Cdn. Arty. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Bordon, Hants., on the 6th day of August, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. R.H. Evans
Defending Officer - Lieut. A.E. Bruce

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 S/Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, H.Q., C.B.U., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Not guilty, sir.

Prosecutor -- By agreement with the counsel for the defence the facts in this case are not in dispute as they are covered by a statement by the accused which was voluntary and the defending officer has consented to my placing that before the Court and the only issue before the Court will be whether the facts disclosed by the statement support a charge of desertion or being away without leave. I believe the charge of a.w.l. is admitted by the defence, but not desertion. I produce in evidence the statement signed by the accused. That closed the case for the prosecution.

Lieut. R.H. Evans, No. 1 Cdn. Arty. Holding Unit, is duly sworn and submits in evidence the statement of Gnr. Robinson, W.R., which is accepted by the Court.

Defending Officer -- Sir, the accused is charged with deserting His Majesty's Forces. As the prosecution has pointed out, on a charge of desertion it may be found that he may be found not guilty of desertion but guilty of a.w.l. We are prepared to admit the accused is guilty of a.w.l. but not guilty of desertion. It is distinctly a matter of law and it is laid down in the M.M.L., which is our Bible, that on Page 19 the criterion of desertion is intention. The prosecution has closed its case without attempting to show any intention of desertion and since no intention has been shown I submit that the accused is not guilty of desertion.

Prosecutor -- The only evidence available to the prosecution has been submitted to the Court and the only evidence was purely the length of time the accused was away. With that in mind the charge was laid as desertion and there is no other evidence than length of time.

Defending Officer -- Just to enlarge slightly more I will quote Para. 18, on the same page. The accused certainly went on leave and had quite a considerable sum of money, about £38. He took to drinking and had numerous friends in Ireland and he stayed more or less drunk the best part of the time. I would like to quote Para. 18, Page 19, beginning Line 7. The relevant part is that length of absence should not be taken into consideration to convict this man of desertion. Again I would refer you to Page 26, at the top of the page commencing at line 4.

Prosecutor -- For the Court's guidance, Section 56 of the Army Act covers that.

Defending Officer -- That is all the defence has to say regarding the plea of not guilty. I will place the accused on the stand in mitigation of sentence after the finding of the Court.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Lieut. R.H. Evans, No. 1 Cdn. Arty. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q4 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A4 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.
Q5 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A5 - Yes, sir.
Q6 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A7 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q8 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A8 - (Defending Officer) The accused will make a statement under oath.

M-10578, Gnr. Robinson, W.R., No. 1 Cdn. Arty. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q9 - I want you to tell the Court in your own words about the circumstances which have arisen and resulted in this court-martial.
A9 - Gentlemen, I have had a lot of family trouble which I tried to clear up in Winnipeg with the Paymaster concerning the misconduct of my wife. I have two children in the Salvation Army Home, Patsy and Margaret and my wife has been receiving an allowance from Ottawa for herself and the two children. Shortly before I came over I received a message to certify that no payments towards the up-keep of these children xxxxx were being made and I have never been settled regarding the welfare of the children. There are two other children, Kathleen and William. William, I had to hand him over to my first wife's brother and Kathleen, who is eighteen, is being taken care of by the Child Welfare, and this woman, this wife of mine, has caused a lot of trouble. I went to Belfast on the 21st March and was drinking very, very heavily. I reported back to Belfast docks on the 22nd July and certified I was a.w.l. and the corporal told me to go to the Northern Counties Railway. There they told me I would have to go by boat and told me to call between seven and seven-thirty on the 23rd. The boat was overloaded. I reported at ten past seven and they gave me an embarkation ticket and then they told me I had to have a ticket and I reported to the R.T.O. to the Military Police, Sgt. Edwards, and he told me he would get in touch with my unit. I would like to know, if possible, if something can be done to settle this dispute between my wife and myself. My sincere intention is to do the right thing. I would like to have some sort of a home when I get back. If she is not paying the home there will be a great bill against me when I get back.
Q10 - Robinson, were you ever charged with anything in civilian life?
A10 - No, sir.
Q11 - I notice you are wearing service stripes.
A11 - Yes, sir, I was overseas from the 28nd November, 1915, to 1919 at Mons and was at Waterloo with the 49th Battalion, sir.
Q12 - You never had a record on your crime sheet?
A12 - No, sir.

The prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

I have been cautioned by B.S.M. Knowles, J.H. , No. 1 Canadian Artillery Holding Unit, in the presence of Bdr. W. R. Robinson

I went on nine days' leave, on, I think, the 21st of March, 1941, to Belfast Ireland. I should have returned on about the 30th March, but I did not. I was staying at the Y.M.C.A. in Belfast and was drinking pretty heavy and did not feel like coming back as I was very ill as a result of this.

I continued like this and stayed on at the Y.M.C.A. and at my sister's home - her name is Mrs. McFADDEN and the address is 30 Cornsbrook Ave., Belfast - a few times. I did not go there very much as she was trying to get me to return to my unit. I have never received anything from her.

I had about £38-0-0 in my posession when I left and this lasted me while I have been away. I have always been drinking pretty heavy but seldom had to pay for the drinks as there were plenty of friends to buy it for me.

I stayed around the same section of Belfast all the time and was never asked for a pass. I just spent my time drinking and walking around.

I was married to my first wife, now deceased, in Edmonton, in 1922. We had six children, KATHLEEN, now aged 19, MARGARET, aged 17, PATSY, aged 16, BILLY, aged 8, LORRAINE, aged 7, and JOHN ANDREW who was killed in a playground accident at school in 1933 when he was 8 years old.

My wife died in 1935 on 5th Feb. and about 4 months later a man named Walter STOKES, a conductor on the Canadian Pacific Railway adopted my youngest daughter, LORRAINE, and she has had a very comfortable home. BILLY, my youngest son is being taken care of by my dead wife's brother, David GRIERSON, Lacombe, Alta. MARGARET AND PATSY are being taken care of at the Salvation Army Home, 17th Ave., West, Calgary. KATHLEEN is under the care of the Calgary Child's Welfare Board and is staying with the wife of an employee of the General Post Office. I do not know her address but I write to her in care of Mrs. Clifford RUBY, 424 - 27th Ave.N.W. Calgary who has taken upon herself to be a mother to KATHLEEN.

I married my present wife, LORENDA in September 1936. She was a widow and her first husband was Arthur COLEGRAVE, a Great War Veteran.

Continuation of Statement of M-10578, Gnr. ROBINSON, W.R.

She has never been a good wife to me and would not take care of my children, MARGARET, PATSY, and BILLY who were at home when I married her.

Soon after the marriage I sent BILLY to his present home where he is well looked after and later took the other two away and put them in the Salvation Army Home when I saw that she was neglecting them.

I continued to live with my present wife however, until May 1940 when I enlisted for Active Service but since then I have had nothing to do with her.

According to the last reports that I have had, the two children at the Home are not receiving the money allotted to them by the Government, or the benefit of it. My wife is receiving the money and is not handing it over to the Home. I saw the Paymaster of my unit when we were at Winnipeg to see if he could arrange to have the money paid direct to the Home but he told me that it was no concern of his and that any arrangements like that would have to be made between the Home and my wife as she is my legal wife and there is no separation agreement.

I have written to the Salvation Army Home asking them to send me full details of what money they are receiving for the children but as I have been A.W.L. almost ever since I wrote the letter and have therefore received no mail I do not know whether they have answered or not.

During the last ten years or so I have been employed about half the time and when I could secure no work I have been on relief. I have been unable to secure steady employment.

I served 3 years and 7 months in France during the last war, with the 49th Edmonton Regiment and received honourable discharge.

The last I heard of my wife she was living at 523, Spence Street, Winnipeg. I have not written to her since leaving Canada.

I have never intended to desert the Army. I am sorry for my actions of the past months.

On the 22nd of July 1941, I went to the Belfast Docks to try and get a boat to return to my unit. A C.M.P. Sgt. told me that I could not get one that day and told me to come back next day. I came back the next day and was placed under arrest as an absentee by the C.M.P. and held for escort from the Canadian Provost Corps.

This statement has been read over to me and it is true.

SECOND WITNESS (Capt A. Verdicchio, RCAMC, Medical Officer, 2 Bn, for (1 CMRD, having been duly sworn, is examined by Prosecution (the Prosecutor

Q.14 Are you a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.14 Yes sir.

Q.15 Do you recall the 2nd of August ?
A.15 Yes, I do.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.16 This year ?
A.16 Yes.

Prosecutor:

Q.17 Will you tell the Court in your own words why you recall that particular night ?
A.17 On that particular night after dozing off to sleep, I was suddenly awakened from my sleep on hearing a couple of shots. A few minutes later I was called downstairs to the roadway in front of the entrance to 2 Bn. Officers' Mess, and there saw a soldier lying face downwards on the pavement.

Q.18 Will you point out on this sketch, (Exhibit "C"), the approximate point where you found the soldier lying ?
A.18 This point I am indicating is the spot where I found this Private soldier face downwards. (Marks point X on sketch).

Q.19 How would you describe this approximate position in relation to the Mess ?
A.19 The approximate position is about ten yards from the stairs leading up to the Mess.

Q.20 Will you describe your examination of the body ?
A.20 I examined the man and found his head lying in a pool of blood. I removed his hat and immediately noticed a large wound on his forehead to the right of the mid-line. He was breathing well and his pulse was fair. I examined the remainder of his head and felt a wound at the back of his skull which was dripping blood into my hand. I didn't examine any further then. I called for shell dressings, bandaged his head and called for a stretcher and a vehicle from the unit. A man took him to the MIR. There I examined his chest. The full particulars of the man were noticed on his identity discs. His name was obtained from the discs for the hospital records in order to fill out the admittance slip. The vehicle then arrived and I despatched him with my Corporal to No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.21 What time was that ?
A.21 I didn't notice the time at the start, but when the patient had been sent to the hospital, I noticed it to be about 2330 hours.

Q.22 You mentioned a wound in this man's head. Where was that wound ?
A.22 The wound that I saw was on the forehead up close to the hair line to the right of the mid-line.

Q.23 Where was the second wound ?
A.23 The second wound which I felt was in the back of his skull. I didn't see the second wound.

Q.24 What unit did this man belong to ?
A.24 His shoulder flashes showed him as Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.

Prosecutor's Opening Address

There will be put in evidence a plan of Canada Barracks to assist the Court, followed by such medical evidence as is now available. Following the medical evidence, there will be evidence offered to show that the accused was recognized near the scene of the crime a short time before, and when his quarters were searched, a weapon was found hidden away near his bed, that weapon belonging to the accused and showing signs of having been recently fired. There will be evidence offered that one Pte Willcock was held up about an hour before the body of Dillon was found, and his Glengarry and a fountain pen were removed from his person. Evidence will also be adduced to show that the pen taken from Pte Willcock was found on the person of the accused. I think you will find the evidence will more or less flow together to establish the prosecution's case.

Cross-examined:

Q.25 Will you describe a little more fully the description of the body as you saw it first ?

A.25 Yes. As I saw him first, the patient was lying flat on his face: as we say, in a prone position, with his left cheek lying on the pavement in this position. (Indicates).

Q.26 How do you determine which is the point of entry and which is the point of exit of a wound ?

A.26 On detailed examination, the point of entry is usually described as being small fairly clean point on the top of the wound. The point of exit of a through and through wound shows more fragmentation and is larger.

Q.27 What is the first time you examined him to establish his identity ?

A.27 I examined his identity discs in the middle of the road as soon as we got him on the stretcher.

Q.28 That is the only means you had of identifying him ?

A.28 That is all, sir.

Q.29 Did you check his paybook ?

A.29 I did not.

Q.30 I suggest to you that you had something to do with another set of identity discs that evening ?

A.30 That is true. I saw some other identity discs that evening.

Q.31 Where did you see them ?

A.31 I saw them in the hand of Capt McKee.

Q.32 And was that out on the roadway of Canada Barracks or was it some where else ?

A.32 I saw them in my own room.

Q.33 What were the circumstances of your seeing these identity discs ?

A.33 The discs were offered to me as a means of identifying a patient by Capt McKee.

Q.34 Did you handle the identity discs at all ?

A.34 As far as I recall, I did.

Q.35 Is there any possibility that this body was shot while lying on the ground ?

A.35 The possibility always remains, sir.

Q.36 Why do you say that ?

A.36 It could have happened.

Q.37 What opinion did you come to as a result of the examination of the wounds ?

A.37 The opinion I came to was that this man had been shot through the head and fell face downward on the roadway.

Q.38 Having regard to the size of the wound that you saw, is it probable that the wounded man walked for some distance or was thrown right down on the roadway ?

A.38 I would consider it unlikely that he walked for any distance at all.

Q.39 Do you think it possible, from that type of wound, for a man to fall and try and get up again or not ?

A.39 He became unconscious the moment he was wounded.

Q.40 Did you check the fingernails of this man ?

A.40 No, I didn't.

Q.41 Can you tell us what happened to the beret when you took it off ?

A.41 When I took the beret off I held it up and handed it to someone among the bystanders.

Q.42 Where did you see the beret again ?
A.42 After the patient had gone to hospital, the beret was brought into the MIR by a Lieutenant. I believe he was the Guard Commander.

Q.43 What happened to it then ?
A.43 Well, I looked at it, noticed a hole in the back, one in the front. The inside was filled with blood.

Q.44 Now in applying your shell dressing would you touch the wound at the front or rear ?
A.44 I didn't make any attempt to clean up the wound.

Re-examined:

Q.45 The identity discs that you examined on the wounded man, how were they attached to him ?
A.45 They were attached, but I cannot recall whether it was by a piece of string or by a chain. Whether they were attached in the appropriate manner I cannot say. They were around his neck.

Q.46 What did you do with them ?
A.46 I merely looked at them , took the information from them, name and number, and left them in place.

By the Court:

Q.47 Will you indicate on your own head the point of entry and the point of exit on your own head ?
A.47 There was a wound there and a wound there as far as I can remember. (The witness indicates a wound in the forehead and a wound in the back of the head, the latter wound being lower than the former).

Q.48 Were there any other marks on the face or elsewhere ?
A.48 None that I saw or took the trouble to look for.

Q.49 Any powder burns ?
A.49 No, Ididn't see any obvious powder burns.

Q.50 Can you give the Court the approximate time when the wounded man was moved to the hospital ?
A.50 It would be around 2300 hours. That is an approximation.

Q.51 In your opinion, which of the two wounds did you consider to be the wound of entry ?
A.51 My first impression when I saw him and examined him, - not having seen but merely felt the wound at the back - was that the large wound in the forehead was the wound of exit.

Q.52 Have you had any cause to change your opinion from your own examination ?
A.52 I have had no opportunity of examining the patient further.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.53 Was the wounded man conscious ?
A.53 He was unconscious.

Q.54 Did he regain consciousness when he was in your hands ?
A.54 No.

Q.55 What was the name you saw stamped on the identity discs which were around the wounded man's neck ?
A.55 Pte Dillon.

Q.56 And the number ?
A.56 I don't recall the number.

Q.57 The initials ?
A.57 No.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

THIRD WITNESS for Prosecution (K52039 Cpl Stewart, R. 2 Bn, 1 CBRD (having been duly sworn (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.58 What are your duties, Corporal ?
A.58 My duties - I am the Medical Corporal in the MIR.

Q.59 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.59 I do, sir.

Q.60 Will you tell the Court in your own words what happened that night ?
A.60 As to the approximate time, I think it was around 2330 hours. I was in my bed and shortly after retiring I heard some shots being fired. Of course I didn't think anything of it at the time. Shortly afterwards I was awakened and was told .....

Judge Advocate:

You cannot repeat conversations that you had with anybody unless the accused, Pte Robinson, was present. You can state that you had conversation, and as a result of such conversation you did something or were ordered to do something. You can state that somebody gave you orders and then you can tell what you did after that.

By the Prosecutor:

Q.61 Will you point out to the Court where you were in relation to the spot marked "X" on Exhibit "G" ?
A.61 Here. (Witness indicates the spot where he was).

Q.62 What did you do when you arrived at that spot ?
A.62 I immediately applied a field dressing to the injured man's head. As I put the bandage on, I found there was more blood coming from the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing to his head at the back. He was then placed on a stretcher and carried into the MIR. When he was in the MIR, we wrote out the admittance slip for him to be admitted to the hospital. I read off from the identity discs the number, rank and name of the wounded man to the Medical Officer. Then when transportation came I went with the patient to the hospital. When we arrived there, I believe it was Major Davidson who looked into the case. I am not certain whether it is Major Davidson or Major Howard. I was opposite Major Davidson when the dressings were taken off.

Q.63 What hospital was this ?
A.63 The hospital was No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp, sir.

Q.64 Where were the identity discs ?
A.64 The identity discs were on his neck, sir.

Q.65 What were the particulars you read off those discs ?
A.65 His number and his rank and name was on it.

Q.66 What was the name ?
A.66 The name was "Dillon".

Q.67 Do you recall the number ?
A.67 No sir, I don't.

Q.68 Why did you read the particulars to the Medical Officer ?
A.68 The light in the MIR is very poor. At the time he couldn't find out who this man was. That was when I looked for his identity discs.

Q.69 Why did you read them out to the Medical Officer ?
A.69 The light was very poor. He couldn't see it.

J.A.G.

Q.70 Did you not read them out to the Medical Officer in order to give the particulars to him ?
A.70 Yes sir.

Cross examined:

Q.71 When you read out those particulars, did Capt Verdicchio fill out the hospital admission slip ?
A.71 Yes sir.

Q.72 The only information that Capt Verdicchio had of the wounded man was something you told him ?
A.72 From the identity discs.

Q.73 You read out the name and number from the identity discs to Capt Verdicchio, is that correct ?
A.73 Yes sir.

Q.74 Then you read out the particulars on the hospital admission slip?
A.74 Yes sir.

Q.75 Then, the only information as to the identity of the wounded man on the hospital slip was something you told Capt Verdicchio ?
A.75 Yes, sir.

Q.76 You say you applied a shell dressing ?
A.76 Yes sir.

Q.77 What was Capt Verdicchio doing ?
A.77 He applied the first one and I applied the second. I saw more blood on the back of his head. I tore up the first shell dressing and gave it to Capt Verdicchio.

Q.78 Did you notice which wound was the larger of the two ?
A.78 The wound on the forehead was larger than the one on the back of the head.

Q.79 You saw that yourself.
A.79 Yes sir.

No Re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.80 In the MIR were you the only one who examined the patient ?
A.80 There was another officer. On account of the bad light he couldn't make head or tail of the identity discs that is when I looked at it myself.

Q.81 Did you see the MO examine the patient ?
A.81 Yes sir.

Q.82 Will you describe to the Court how he examined the patient ?
A.82 When I got there Capt Verdicchio was there ahead of me. That is when we applied the first field dressing.

Q.83 In the MIR ?
A.83 The shell dressings were all on him.

Q.84 Were there any further examinations of the patient at that time ?
A.84 Not that I remember.

Q.85 You mentioned hearing shots fired. Did Pte Dillon have any weapon near him ?
A.85 I didn't see any, sir.

Q.86 Did you see the MO examine the identity discs about the neck of the patient ?
A.86 No sir.

W.G.B.

Q.87 Who did you say applied the first dressing and the second dressing ?
A.87 Capt Verdicchio applied the first one. That is when I saw the blood at the back coming through the bandage.

Q.88 Now describe what you saw on the identity discs ?
A.88 On his identity discs, all I remember seeing was the number, rank and name.

Q.89 You saw his number, rank and name ?
A.89 Yes, sir.

Q.90 Did you recognize the initials ?
A.90 The initials also.

Q.91 Anything else ?
A.91 No sir.

Q.92 Do you recall what initials were on the disc ?
A.92 No, I can't recall that at all.

Q.93 Do you recall how many initials ?
A.93 No, I don't recall that at all.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.94 Who took charge of the wounded man when he arrived at No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp ?
A.94 Major Davidson took over, I believe, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Q.96 Will you explain to the Court what "A & D" mean ?
A.96 Admission and despatch of patients, sir.

Q.99 What day ?
A.99 The 2nd of August.

Q.100 1944 ?
A.100 Yes sir.

Q.101 What happened that night ?
A.101 At approximately 2330 hours a truck drove up to the A & D and a stretcher patient was brought in. I took his regimental particulars and 'phoned for a Medical Officer, the Surgical Officer, Major Davidson.

Q.102 Where did you get the particulars from ?
A.102 Read the rank, name and initials and religion from the identity discs on the body, sir.

Q.103 Did you examine the discs ?
A.103 No sir.

Q.104 What were the names read out ?
A.104 Pte Dillon.

Q.105 What happened to that patient ?
A.105 He was sent to the Surgical Officer, sir, and then transferred to 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.106 How did he go to the hospital ?
A.106 He was sent in an ambulance, sir.

Q.107 What is the practice at your hospital when a patient is sent out ?
A.107 His discharge papers are typed, sir, and he is put in the ambulance and sent out. That is all, sir.

Q.108 Will you explain to the Court what happened that night when you admitted that patient ?
A.108 He was brought in the A & D on a stretcher.

Q.109 Who brought him in ?

A.113 Yes.

Q.114 What documents ?
A.114 The hospital admission slip and any other papers the Surgical Officer writes up.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

FIFTH WITNESS(Major J.R. Davidson, 3 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC

Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.115 You are a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.115 I am.

Q.116 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.116 I do.

Q.117 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.117 At approximately 2330 hours, I was called to the admitting room to see a man who had suffered from a through and through wound of his skull. He was unconscious. I removed the dressing which had been applied and examined the patient. I found a through and through wound of the skull. Brain tissue was exuding from the wound in the forehead. I re-applied fresh dressings and ordered the man to be taken to No 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.118 In your opinion what caused the wound.
A.116 In my opinion it was caused by some sharp missile, probably a rifle or a revolver bullet.

Q.119 Will you point out on your own head where the two wounds in the head were ?
A.119 As closely as I can remember, sir, the one was approximately on the back of the head, and the other was on the forehead. (The witness indicates the position of the two wounds; the one at the back of the head being the lower down than the one on the forehead).

Cross-examined:

Q.120 Do you know who this patient was ?
A.120 No sir. I believe it was Pte Dillon. I just heard his name mentioned from his documents. It is more important for a medical man working in a hospital to treat the patient than to find out who he is.

Q.121 Did you at any time take any specific steps to establish the identity of this patient in your own mind ?
A.121 No sir.

Q.122 How do you determine which is the point of entry and the point of exit ?
A.122 It is generally believed that the wound of entrance of a bullet entering the skull is what might be termed a clean-cut hole, while the wound of exit usually shows fragmented bone.

Q.123 If any difference of opinion arises between the opinion formed by the medical officers first attending a wounded man and the doctor conducting a post-mortem examination, subsequently, which would you suggest to the Court would be more accurate ?
A.123 Do you refer to a man examining the wound after he had been operated on ?
Q.124 If there had been previous interference by a surgeon, would you explain the difference in the wounds then ?
A.124 It is possible, had there been previous treatment, the wounds of exit and entrance might be confused.

A.125 Just as to his general condition, checking his pulse.

Q.126 Did you check his fingers or fingernails ?
A.126 No, I did not.

A.128 That is the bone at the back of the head, part of the skull.

Q.129 How would you describe the right frontal bone ?
A.129 The right frontal bone refers to the case of the skull. The right frontal bone would be on the right side of the mid-line, beneath which lies the frontal lobe of the brain.

A.314 About 10 seconds.

Q.315 You were in motion leaving the Guard Room. How soon would you have a view of the scene and be able to see any person running away from the area in which the body was found?
A.315 In the first place I didn't know where the body was. It would take at least 30 seconds to focus.

Q.316 Leaving the office at point "E" on the sketch, I suggest to you that it would be still impossible to take 15 seconds before getting a view of the square. How long did you take?
A.316 10 or 15 seconds. I was walking at the time.

Q.317 You told the Court you were in motion. Are you still satisfied that you would take 15 seconds to get a view after you were in motion on the way out?
A.317 After hearing the first shot it wouldn't take that long. I would think it would take me from 5 to 10 seconds to get out of there.

Q.318 Do you know whether or not there had been a pay day on that evening or before that evening?
A.318 I know that there was one on the 30th of the month.

Q.319 You suggested that there were a lot of drunks about. Does that give you any stimulus to bring back the recollection of a pay day?
A.319 In 1 Bn there are a good many drunks at all times at night; not during parade hours.

Q.320 You have told the Court you saw a body fall?
A.320 No sir, I didn't say that.

W.A.S.

Q.321 What did you say?
A.321 I told the Court that I saw a body trying to get up.

Q.322 Are you sure you didn't see a body falling?
A.322 No sir, it wasn't falling.

Q.323 What makes you so sure?
A.323 I could see the body.

Q.324 Are you positive?
A.324 Yes sir, definitely.

Q.325 How can you suggest to the Court, when it took so long to get your eyes focused?
A.325 I didn't say that.

Q.326 What did you say?
A.326 It took five or ten seconds.

Q.327 What particular stimulus was registered in your mind when you first saw this man getting up?
A.327 In my mind I thought he had been drinking.

Q.328 Then thinking he had been drinking, you immediately turned to see if you could see anyone running away from this particular area?
A.328 No sir, I didn't say that.

Q.329 Having seen this body crouched, and having come to the conclusion it was a drunk, you immediately went towards the Borden Block?
A.329 Yes sir.

Q.330 Why were you so anxious to see if anyone was running away if you thought he was drunk?
A.330 I always search the area of 1 Bn.

Q.331 Why do you do it?
A.331 I said I was searching it to find some one.

Q.332 Do you remember giving evidence in the Summary of Evidence?
A.332 Yes sir.

Q.333 You stated in the Summary, "I didn't know there was a drunk about. I looked around to see if there was anything." Do you want to change it?
A.333 No sir.

Q.334 Have you one reason why you thought someone was running away from this particular scene?
A.334 Because I heard a shot fired.

Q.335 Did you happen to see any of the drunks around the gate the day of the firing?
A.335 No sir.

Q.336 Did it occur to you as a possibility?
A.336 No sir.

Q.337 I suggest to you that it is not unusual to hear shots fired?
A.337 It is not unusual.

Q.338 A common occurrence?
A.338 It has happened before, sir.

Q.339 What did you do after you found that the man was injured?
A.339 After the body was picked up, sir?

Q.340 By how many people?
A.340 There was confusion, sir.

Q.341 How soon after was the body lying there? Did you go over to it?
A.341 I was there when it was picked up.

Q.342 Then you were satisfied that the Guard Comd still had the situation well in hand?
A.342 Yes sir.

Q.343 What investigation did you make? Did you find weapons or missiles of any kind or empty cartridge cases?
A.343 I searched the area where the body was found and never found anything.

Q.344 How soon after hearing the shots was your search made?
A.344 Approximately five or 10 minutes after.

Q.345 Was it a thorough search of the immediate vicinity?
A.345 As thorough as a flashlight would allow.

Q.346 And what distance from the body did you search?
A.346 I searched right around the entrance of the Sgts' Mess 1 Bn.

Q.347 Where would that be?
A.347 Right here, sir. (The witness marks the point with an "F" on sketch.)

Q.348 What were you searching for at the time?
A.348 I was searching for a weapon and also empty cartridges.

Q.349 Did you find any?
A.349 No sir.

Q.350 Now, do you remember whether a draft had recently arrived prior to the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.350 I am pretty sure there was, sir.

Re-examination:

Q.351 To your knowledge did anyone else search the area before you made your search?
A.351 No sir.

By the Court:

Q.352 You stated you went from your Guard Room to the entrance of the Borden Block direct?
A.352 That is right, sir.

Q.353 What direction did you take, to go from the Guard Room to the Borden Block?
A.353 I am sorry sir, my Guard Room is in the Borden Block and not in the Ottawa Bldg.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.354 Did you or did you not examine the man whom you found lying on the ground?
A.354 No sir, I did not.

Q.355 When you told Capt Rose in re-examination that to your knowledge no other search was made prior to the search which you made, did you mean that you knew that no other search had been made or that you didn't know?
A.355 I didn't know, but to my knowledge nobody had.

Q.356 How did you arrive at your estimate of the approximate time that you heard the shots?
A.356 There had been a few instances of men jumping or falling out of windows. I had made it a point of looking at anything that happened, so I looked at my watch.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

TWELFTH WITNESS(Lt (A/Capt) T.E. McKee (PPCLI) 8 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution(is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.357 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.357 I do.

Q.358 Will you tell the Court what happened on that evening?
A.358 On the 2nd of Aug 44, at about 2250 hrs, I was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess 1 CBRD having a lunch. I heard two shots fired outside. They sounded to be quite close. I got up and walked out to the porch outside. I could smell powder burning. I looked around and saw a body lying on the pavement about eight yds from the porch.

Q.359 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you point out that spot on the sketch?
A.359 The porch is here and the body was lying there. (The witness marks the point with an "H" on the sketch.)

I saw the body lying on the pavement. So I went down to the body. It was a man lying face downwards with his arms stretched out at his side.

Q.360 Would you demonstrate?
A.360 Like this. (Witness demonstrates)

Q.361 What was his condition?
A.361 He was breathing. It sounded quite heavily to me. There was some blood on the pavement which was coming from a hole in his head. I immediately went to 2 Bn RAP and sent the orderly for the Medical Offr. Then I returned to the scene of the accident. There was a number of offrs and men around there by now. I thought the man may have shot himself so I took a look for the weapon. I found nothing. In his left hand I found a set of identity discs which I took and put in my pocket. By this time the MO was removing the body to the MIR. I went into the MIR where I turned the identity discs over to the Adjt 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I just glanced at the discs and saw the name "Robinson" on them.

Q.362 I produce two identity discs. Do you recognize them?
A.362 I would say they are the same discs.

Q.363 Would you read to the Court the name on the discs?
A.363 B.144333, Pte Robinson, Presbyterian, Canadian. (One red and one green identity disc, admitted and marked Exhibit "J".)

Q.364 How were these discs found in the wounded man's hand?
A.364 They were in the left hand of the man who had been shot, clenched tight, with the fingers closed.

Q.365 Were the discs entwined in his hand?
A.365 I could not say, sir, that they were both in his hand. There was one in his hand, and I take it both were held by the string.

Q.366 What did you use a light for?
A.366 I had no light. The moon was shining. It wasn't very dark. I could see the name on the discs.

Q.367 What was the light outside?
A.367 It was a full moon. The stars were shining and the moon was out. You could see a man walking about 100 yards away.

Cross-examined:

Q.368 How much time had elapsed from the time you heard the shots until the time you got outside on the porch?
A.368 It would not be over a minute.

Q.369 Which part of the Mess were you in?
A.369 I was in the part where we eat/at the end table.
sitting

Q.370 And that is in the part of the Mess nearest the door?
A.370 That is right.

Q.371 Would you have taken a minute to get outside?
A.371 No, it would not if I had jumped right up. I got up and walked out the door.

Q.372 About how many feet was it from where you were sitting to the door?
A.372 Approximately 16 feet.

Q.373 Did you estimate the paces taken as you walked out of the door?
A.373 I just walked over at a normal pace to the door.

Q.374 Did you take about five seconds?
A.374 Not any more.

Q.375 Did it take another second or two to open the door?
A.375 It would take another second or two to get on the porch?

Q.376 Did that not take 15 seconds?
A.376 It wouldn't take more than 15 seconds from the time I started moving until I got out.

Q.377 Why do you say you could have seen a man who was running away from the immediate vicinity of the body?
A.377 If a man had been close - very close - and running out in the open across the parade square, I think I could have seen him.

Q.378 You told the Court you could see a man 100 yds away?
A.378 Right.

Q.379 So within the 15 seconds you could have seen a man running away?
A.379 If he had run along by the building, I may not have seen him.

Q.380 Have you studied ballistics to any extent?
A.380 No.

Q.381 Have you studied the normal amount of ballistics in the "Weapon Training" pamphlet?
A.381 That's right.

Q.382 Was it a very still night or was there any breeze at all?
A.382 I don't think there was very much because I didn't notice it windy at all.

Q.383 I suggest to you that if you were able to smell powder recently burnt from the time you got out on the porch, it would have been fired from the spot on which you were standing. Do you agree with that suggestion?
A.383 I would say that it hadn't been fired very far away from the doorway. It could have been up to 25 yds away.

Q.384 I suggest that you are imagining the smell of that powder. As a result of the information you subsequently learned, you are imagining you smelledit and didn't actually smell it?
A.384 I am convinced that I smelled powder.

Q.385 I suggest that it was a physical impossibility to smell it; impossible according to ballistic ------
A.385 I still say I smelled it.

Q.386 Then you suggest to the Court that it was powder from the bullets you heard fired?
A.386 I cannot say what bullet the smell of the powder came out of as I didn't see it fired.

Q.387 Were you in a particularily mentally alert stage when you were on the porch?
A.387 I would say that I was in my normal mental condition.

Q.388 Was it influenced by a considerable quantity of liquor?
A.388 It was not.

Q.389 I suggest that you had quite a bit to drink prior to the shooting incident, is that correct?
A.389 On the evening of the shooting incident, I had very little to drink.

Q.390 I am not trying to discredit you. Will you tell the Court what quantity you had that evening?
A.390 Throughout the evening I would say I had possibly four drinks of gin and lime.

Q.391 Doubles or singles?
A.391 Singles. I think I could have had four.

Q.392 What directed you to the identity discs?
A.392 In the man's hand?

Q.393 You found a set of identity discs?
A.393 I was actually looking for a weapon. I thought the man had shot himself. While looking for a weapon I was kneeling down at his left side. I saw his hand and something in his hand. When I pulled it, I found a set of identity discs.

Q.394 Did you have any definite instructions for removing the set of identity discs?
A.394 No.

Q.395 They came out easily?
A.395 Fairly easily.

Q.396 Can you, by taking this (hands witness Exhibit "J"), show the Court by putting your hand on the floor, the approximate position of the string?
A.396 I cannot actually sir. His hand was lying right at his left side. I noticed something in it and pulled it out and it was a set of identity discs. (Witness demonstrates the manner in which he found the identity discs in the hand of the injured man.)

Q.397 How much of the string outside of the man's hand was visible to you?
A.397 I cannot say.

Q.398 Are you sure you noticed the identity discs prior to pulling the string?
A.398 I said there was something in his hand. I didn't know they were discs.

Q.399 The string directed you?
A.399 I didn't know there was a string.

W.B.B.

Q.400 Would you describe to the Court whether the string was all in his hand or all out?
A.400 I can't.

Q.401 Describe to the Court whether it was all in or all out?
A.401 That it was all pulled from his hand, no.

Q.402 The normal action of a man struck from behind is to fall forward with his hands stretched, isn't it?
A.402 Yes, I would think that if you were struck from behind you might fall with your hands outstretched on being shot from behind with a .45.

Q.403 You are estimating?
A.403 Yes.

Q.404 Is it normal for a man being struck from behind to have his hands stretched out?
A.404 Yes, it is normal.

Q.405 Now what gave you the idea that this man was shot with a.45?
A.405 The reason I had the idea that he was shot with a .45 was that he had a hole in his head - the doctor states two holes - and some of them found .45 slugs in the area. That is the only reason I have for assuming it.

Q.406 Was your reason for coming to that conclusion based on your own investigations?
A.406 No.

Q.407 You didn't know for sure?
A.407 The doctor said so in the MIR to the others and to myself while a number of men were in there. The .45 shells, I referred to, were shown to me that evening as having been picked up on the scene of the incident.

Q.408 Something like this? (Defending Officer produces a brass casing.)
A.408 Something like it.

Q.409 Anything like this? (Defending Officer produces a steel casing.)
A.409 Yes. (42 WCC brass casing and 42 steel casing admitted and marked Exhibits "K" and "L", respectively.)

Q.410 Did you examine those casings very carefully?
A.410 I don't know.

Q.411 Now were the identity discs held in a very firm grip, as if the wounded individual was hanging on to them for dear life?
A.411 No, I didn't need to exert pressure to remove them.

Q.412 Was it possible that someone could have put or forced anything into his hand?
A.412 It is quite possible.

Q.413 Why did you say these (indicates Exhibit "J") are the same discs you gave to Capt Snell?
A.413 I still say they look like the same discs.

Q.414 Similar?
A.414 Yes.

Q.415 Did you mark the discs when you found them in the hand of the wounded man for purposes of identification?
A.415 I did not.

Q.416 When you found these discs on him did you attach any importance to them?
A.416 No. When I took them, I thought they belonged to the man that was shot.

Q.417 And what did you do?
A.417 I put them in my pocket.

Q.418 And how long afterwards - that evening - was it that you again produced them?
A.418 It would be, I would say, not over three-quarters of an hour.

Q.419 How do you know they are the same ones you took from the hand of the wounded man?
A.419 Because I had taken them from his hand and put them in my pocket. They were still there when I took them out again.

Q.420 What was the impulse that caused you to take them out again?
A.420 When they were trying to find out the names of different people. The Medical Offr said that he had checked the discs of the man who had been shot, and his name was "Dillon". Then I recalled the discs I had in my pocket and turned them over to the Adjt of 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I saw the name "Robinson" on the discs.

Q.421 I suggest to you that you didn't find the identity discs in the hand of the wounded man: that they became apparent to you only at such time as they started to move the body. Do you agree?
A.421 No, I had nothing to do with the moving of the body. I had the discs in my pocket when they started to move the body.

Q.422 Then, if I am under the impression that they were about to move the body when you took the identity discs, I am labouring under a misapprehension?
A.422 They could have been about to move the body, for they did so shortly after.

Q.423 How shortly after, moments, seconds?
A.423 A matter of minutes because they carried the body out on a stretcher after I had the discs.

Q.424 After you got the discs, what amount of time elapsed before the body was moved or carried away?
A.424 I can't say the exact time.

Q.425 Do you know what happened to the beret that the wounded man was wearing?
A.425 I do not.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.426 At the scene of the accident - how many people were around the body?
A.426 I would say there would be six or seven at least. There could have been more around, but right beside the body I would say at least six or seven.

Q.427 Did you speak to anybody about the discs or draw them to their attention?
A.427 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

THIRTEENTH WITNESS (Lt A.J.B. Mills (Perth R) 3 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.428 Do you recall the night of 2 Aug 44?
A.428 Yes sir.

Q.429 Will you tell the Court what you were doing?
A.429 I was having lunch in the 2 and 3 combined Offrs' Mess when I heard three shots. I went outside to see what was going on. On the steps I found a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge on it.

Q.430 Would you describe this Glengarry?
A.430 It was an ordinary 48th Glengarry with red dice checks on it.

Q.431 Did you examine the Glengarry immediately?
A.431 I went over and looked at the wounded man. I saw him lying on the ground. Someone handed me a beret which I took to be the wounded man's as there was blood dripping from it. Then I looked at the Glengarry closer and saw the name "A.H. Wilcock" on it.

Q.432 I produce a Glengarry, (Prosecutor shows Exhibit "H") do you recognize it?
A.432 That is the same Glengarry.

Q.433 Where was the man that you saw lying?
A.433 Approximately 15 feet from the door leading into the Mess.

Q.434 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you look at it closely and point out where you saw the body lying?
A.434 About here. (The witness marks point with an "H" on the sketch.)

Q.435 Did you examine the body?
A.435 No, I just looked at the man and saw a pool of blood around his head.

Q.436 At what time was that?
A.436 2240 hrs approximately.

Q.437 As a result of finding the Glengarry what did you do?
A.437 I took it to Capt Cameron, the Coy Comd, and then accompanied Capt Cameron to the 48 Highrs quarters where Wilcock was brought to me and later turned over to the 2 Bn Guard.

Q.438 Did you examine the scene of the accident?
A.438 Yes, quite thoroughly.

Q.439 Did you find anything?
A.439 I didn't find anything myself. I noticed blood on the ground everywhere, and on the steps going into the Mess where I picked up the Glengarry.

Q.440 When you had the beret in your hands, did you examine it?
A.440 I did not examine the beret. I just looked at it and then turned it over to the Guard Comd.

Q.441 Where did you turn it over?
A.441 Outside, at the scene of the accident.

Cross-examined:

Q.442 Did you see the blood on the steps where the Glengarry was found at the same time as you saw the Glengarry?
A.442 No, when I went back.

Q.443 Was that on returning from the body?
A.443 No, on my return from having seen Capt Cameron and Pte Wilcock.

Q.444 Can you tell the Court whether or not the blood was there when you found the beret?
A.444 I am sure I saw the blood. I cannot make a definite statement as to that.

Q.445 What lead you to that conclusion?
A.445 The only thing I can say is that the beret was not carried up the steps by myself or anyone else. The blood may have been there from some other reason.

Q.446 Then your explanation of the blood on the steps is that it did not come from the beret?
A.446 Yes.

Q.447 Did you go out on the porch?
A.447 Yes sir, the porch of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.448 Where was Capt McKee when you got to the beret?
A.448 I didn't see him myself.

Q.449 How long after you heard the shots did youappear on the scene?
A.449 Roughly three minutes.

Q.450 Can you tell us why you did not take less than three minutes?
A.450 Yes. I made a sandwich. After I had the sandwich made, I started to eat it and then walked out of the Mess.

Q.451 What were the ingredients of the sandwich?
A.451 It was ------

Q.452 What was the base of the sandwich?
A.452 Bread.

Q.453 Were there any onions in it?
A.453 Yes.

Q.454 A large amount or small?
A.454 A large amount.

Q.455 Do you remember whether or not there was any bully beef?
A.455 Definitely. There was no bully beef.

Q.456 What time is lunch served for offrs of 2 and 3 Bns?
A.456 It is put on the table at 9 o'clock.

Q.457 When you got on the porch, could you smell any powder burning?
A.457 No sir.

Q.458 How did you arrive at the conclusion it was 2240 hrs when you heard the shots?
A.458 The Mess closes at 2230 hrs. It was closed when I started to make the sandwich.

Q.459 Is there any other method of identifying the Glengarry and badge except for the name on the inside?
A.459 The name on the inside is the way I identified it.

Q.460 Did you see a set of identification discs removed from the hand of the wounded man?
A.460 No, I didn't.

Q.461 How many people were around the body when you arrived?
A.461 Quite a number.

Q.462 Could you give us any help as to the number?
A.462 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.463 Was there a certain amount of confusion around the body? Was there chaos and excitement?
A.463 Oh yes.

Q.464 How close were the people coming to the body when they were having a look around?
A.464 Not more than a foot from the body.

Q.465 Would it be very difficult for any of the people around to put anything in the hands of the wounded man?
A.465 I would say it would be very difficult without anyone seeing it.

Q.466 Would it have been possible for others to come up to the body without being noticed by those around?
A.466 Yes, there is a possibility.

10.6.60.

Q.467 Do you know of any fights that might have taken place in the area of 2 or 3 Bn Mess?
A.467 No sir.

Q.468 Do you know what happened to the beret?
A.468 After I had it, it was turned over to Capt Snell, Adjt 2 Bn.

Q.469 You say you saw one drop of blood at the door. Is that correct?
A.469 Yes, that is correct.

Q.470 On the floor of the door or on the door?
A.470 On the ground at the base of the door.

Q.471 Could you assist us by stating whether it was a drop or trail of blood or a pattern?
A.471 It appeared to be a trail of blood part way up the steps, then there was no blood and one drop right at the base of the door.

Q.472 What kind of a night was it as you recollect?
A.472 Very bright.

Q.473 And what was the normal visibility for seeing - across or towards the parade square?
A.473 You could see right across the parade square.

Q.474 Could you have distinguished people, if there had been any between the Ottawa Bldg and the Kingston Bldg? Could you see immediately north?
A.474 Yes.

Q.475 On the left, as you stood on the porch, could you distinguish bodies between yourself and that building?
A.475 Yes.

Q.476 Could you distinguish bodies between yourself and the Borden Block?
A.476 Yes.

Q.477 If you had arrived at the scene where the body was within a matter of seconds of the shooting, could you have seen anyone running across the parade square?
A.477 I could have seen anyone that was running, yes.

Q.478 What type of weapon did you think had been fired when you heard the shots?
A.478 I thought it was a Tommy Gun.

Q.479 Why did you think it was a Tommy Gun?
A.479 From the sound.

Q.480 Any other reason?
A.480 No.

Q.481 Had there been any Tommy Gun firing prior to this on the evening of 2nd August?
A.481 Not that I know of.

Q.482 Had you not heard of any weapon firing at nights?
A.482 Yes, I have heard weapons firing at nights on occasions.

Q.483 In the area of Canada Bks?
A.483 Yes and outside the area of Canada Bks.

Q.484 Is it unusual for shots to be fired at that hour of the night?
A.484 It is unusual, but it has happened.

Q.485 It could not have been very unusual if it took you three minutes to get out to see it?
A.485 I wasn't terribly startled.

Q.486 When you had the beret, did you notice how many holes in it?
A.486 No, I didn't.

Q.487 How long had you been in Canada Bks prior to the 2nd of Aug?
A.487 About one month.

Q.488 Were 48 Highrs' Glengarries unusual sights around that area at that time?
A.488 No.

Q.489 And around the parade/square on 2 Aug, was it unusual to see Seaforth flashes?
A.489 No.

Q.490 Have you been having any previous trouble or heard of any previous trouble or holdups prior to this evening?
A.490 I had not heard of anything.

Q.491 Will you tell the Court whether or not there had been a draft in prior to 2nd Aug 44?
A.491 Yes.

Q.492 And were there quite a number of rfts at the time or a dearth such as now?
A.492 Quite a number.

Q.493 Now can you give us any opinion as what value .45 pistols were in the eyes of the rfts at that time?
A.493 I have no information as to that.

Q.494 In your eyes has an American .45 pistol a certain souvenir value?
A.494 Yes sir.

Q.495 In your experience had you noticed they have a greater value to the rfts recently arrived than to the rfts who have been over for a month or two?
A.495 Yes they have.

Q.496 Did you form any opinion as to what direction these shots were fired from?
A.496 I never formed any opinion.

Q.497 Did you, yourself, make a search for anything in the immediate vicinity immediately after the shooting for a weapon, or did you ignore the issue?
A.497 Yes, we made a search.

Q.498 Can you tell the Court how dilligently that search was conducted?
A.498 There were several members of the Guard and a couple of offrs conducting it. The search was quite thorough.

Q.499 Have you any opinion as to whether or not Thompson Sub Machine Carbines were in good supply around 2 Aug - that is to the personnel of Canada Bks?
A.499 We fired Tommy Guns on the ranges almost daily at that particular time.

Re-examination:

Q.500 What type of ammunition does a Tommy Gun generally fire?
A.500 .45 rimless.

Q.501 I show you Exhibits "K" and "L". Will you examine them? What type of ammunition is that?
A.501 .45.

p.66.

Q.502 Is that the type you use in a Tommy Gun?
A.502 Yes sir.

Q.503 Do you know anything about ballistics?
A.503 No.

Q.504 Do you know anything about a Colt automatic?
A.504 No.

Q.505 Have you fired one?
A.505 Only a .45.

Q.506 What type of ammunition does it use?
A.506 Same as a Tommy Gun.

Q.507 Therefore, that type and that used by Colt are the same?
A.507 Yes sir.

Q.508 In your cross-examination you said that there was "excitement" around the body. Would you tell the Court what you meant?
A.508 I didn't mean excitement. There was quite a number of people around the body, and until the Guard Comd dispersed the crowd there was some confusion.

Q.509 What do you mean by confusion?
A.509 People talking; walking here and there. Nobody seemed to be doing anything.

Q.510 Did you see the Medical Offr arrive?
A.510 I wasn't there when the Medical Offr came.

Q.511 Did you mention in the cross-examination that the blood on the steps could have been caused by someone walking through the pool of blood and on up the steps?
A.511 No, it did not appear so.

By the Court:

Q.512 Did you examine the floor inside the doorway for evidence of blood?
A.512 Yes sir.

Q.513 And what did you find?
A.513 There was none.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

Court adjourned at 1655 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1000 hrs, 22 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecution produced Medical Certificate.

FOURTEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (B.51982 Cpl Ferguson E. Carlt & York R, 1 Bn, (1 CBRD, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.514 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.514 Yes sir.

Q.515 What were you doing on that evening?
A.515 On that evening I was .....

Q.516 Will you tell the Court what happened that night?
A.516 At approximately 2230 hrs a man from the 48th Highrs Coy, Pte Wilcock, reported to the Guard Room. I took Pte Wilcock to the Seaforth Coy Office where I spoke to the Coy Sgt Major. I came back downstairs and showed Pte Wilcock where his billets were.

WBS.

Q.517 Where were his billets?
A.517 At the far end of the camp. I do not know the name of the building. the 48th Highrs were stationed there.

Q.518 I show you Exhibit "G". Where were you when Pte Wilcock reported?
A.518 Here sir. (Witness points to spot "E" on the sketch.)

Q.519 Where did you take Pte Wilcock after he reported to you?
A.519 To the Coy Office of the Seaforths on the second floor of the Petawawa Bldg. (Witness marks spot with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.520 From there where did you take Wilcock?
A.520 After I spoke to the Sgt Major of the Seaforths I brought Pte Wilcock to the opposite side of the Petawawa Bldg. I told him the way to his billets.

Q.521 Where were they?
A.521 The Debert Block. (Indicates on Exhibit "G")

Q.522 Are you sure those are the billets?
A.522 I am not exactly sure, but I took him there to his billets.

Q.523 What else happened that night?
A.523 I was on that side of the building. Pte Wilcock had just left me when I heard two shots fired.

Q.524 Could you say whether it was some distance away or quite close?
A.524 It came from the direction of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.525 What did you do then?
A.525 I returned to the Guard Room.

Q526 What did you do when you returned to the Guard Room?
A.526 I went to where a man had been injured.

Q.527 Where was that?
A.527 In front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.528 What did you do when you went to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.528 When I got to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a pool of blood in front of the steps and half of a sandwich amongst the blood.

Q.529 I show you a sketch, Exhibit "G". Point out where you saw this pool of blood?
A.529 Here sir. (Witness points to point "H" on sketch.)

Q.530 When you arrived there what did you do?
A.530 Well, I tried to determine where the shots had been fired.

Q.531 Did you determine that?
A.531 No, in my hunt I found a .45 casing.

Q.532 What type of casing?
A.532 A .45 calibre.

Q.533 Can you describe the marks on it?
A.533 There weren't any but there was a dark colour on it.

Defending Officer:

I am not satisfied with the method in which the Exhibits are being presented. I feel that there is going to be a lot of irregularity here. I would like the Prosecuting Offr to have the witness properly describe each Exhibit to my satisfaction before it is presented in evidence.

Prosecutor:

There is no doubt in my mind that certain articles were found. I feel that the witness, having found some article, has a right to identify that article if possible.

Subb.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Rose, could you get the witness to describe, if possible, in every detail, the article which he found before producing it to him in Court?

Prosecutor:

Q.534 Will you describe to the Court where you found this article?
A.534 I picked up a .45 casing about ten feet from the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. It was lying against the curb.

Q.535 Will you point out on the sketch, Exhibit "G", where you found this casing?
A.535 I found it right about there. (Witness marks point with letter "J" on sketch.)

Q.536 Will you describe in detail to the Court the casing that you found?
A.536 There was no difference between it and any other .45 casing. No special marks that I can identify it with.

Prosecutor:

In view of the fact that he cannot describe it correctly I cannot ask the witness to identify it.

Judge Advocate:

He may be able to identify the casing.

Prosecutor:

Q.537 I show you two cartridge cases: marked EC 43 and EC respectively. The number on the latter is unreadable. Are they similar to the ones you found?
A.537 This one is sir.

Q.538 Is this the one you picked up?
A.538 This is the one, yes sir. (Steel casing marked EC 43 admitted and marked Exhibit "M".)

By the Court:

Could I see the two casings shown to the witness? I am fairly certain that later in the proceedings the Court will be able to see them.

Judge Advocate:

It is not permitted to see the other one at this stage. It is not yet in evidence, Major Brown.

Court:

I have a particular reason. There are two distinct types that any witness could identify; a steel casing and a brass casing. The point I wish to establish is whether these two cartridge casings that were shown to the witness were both brass or one brass and one steel.

Judge Advocate:

The witness was shown two casings which were described by number. He picked out one which is marked Exhibit "M". The other, unless identified and produced in evidence, cannot be seen by the Court.

Prosecutor:

Q.539 After you found this casing what action did you take?
A.539 I turned the casing over to the Offr of the Guard.

Q.540 Who was that?
A.540 Lt Dolan who was present at the time.

Q.541 What else did you do?
A.541 After turning over the casing, I reported to the Guard Room.

Q.542 What time was this?
A.542 Approximately 2230 hrs.

Q.543 How did you establish the time?
A.543 Well, I am not sure. At nine o'clock the guard relief came on. From then until one o'clock we act as Regtl Police. Men coming in after curfew, approximately 10 or 10:15 o'clock, report to the Guard Room. About 10 minutes after curfew Pte Wilcock reported to the Guard Room.

Q.544 What time was it when you found the casing?
A.544 About 2245 hrs.

Q.545 After you returned to the Guard Room where did you go?
A.545 Well, after I returned to the Guard Room, we went out in different groups to look over the Camp and see if the hold-up man could be found.

Q.546 Did you find him?
A.546 No sir.

Q.547 Then what did you do?
A.547 We came back to the Guard Room. I proceeded back to the scene of the shooting.

Q.548 What did you do there?
A.548 There were several guards and offrs still around. One of the guards was still looking around and found a second .45 casing.

Q.549 What else happened?
A.549 It was turned over to one of the offrs present.

Q.550 What did you do about it?
A.550 I did nothing as the offrs seemed to take charge.

Q.551 What did you do after that?
A.551 We returned to the Guard Room. The following morning Lt Dolan sent me to the Seaforth Bldg to get Pte Wilcock's number and name.

Q.552 Did you go to the Seaforth Office?
A.552 Yes, but I did not obtain the number.

Q.553 Did you find anything there?
A.553 I reported and then I went down the steps of the bldg where I picked up a second .45 casing.

Q.554 I show you Exhibit "G". Where did you find the second casing?
A.554 On the steps going out of the billets in the Petawawa Bldg. I was coming out of the building, going down the steps. I found it on the steps about here. (Witness marks point with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.555 Will you describe to the Court the casing you picked up?
A.555 The casing I picked up was not perfect. It had been stepped on. It was similar to the first casing except that it had been stepped on.

Q.556 I now show you a cartridge casing EC, apparently steel. Is that the casing you found?
A.556 Yes sir, I would say it was. (Admitted and marked Exhibit "N".)

Q.557 What did you do with that casing?
A.557 I brought it back to the Guard Room and reported to my offr, Lt Dolan.

Cross-examined:

Q.558 Why did you say so definitely that this (Exhibit "N") is the casing you found?
A.558 I am not saying that it was.

Q.559 Your words were, "That is the casing I found"?
A.559 I don't believe I said that.

Q.560 Then you say it is similar to the casing you found?
A.560 Yes.

Q.561 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". By looking at the base can you notice any similarity of manufacture by company and by year?
A.561 It doesn't look like it.

Q.562 When you looked at the base of them did you notice the initials of the manufacturer on the back?
A.562 Both have the same number and year on the back.

Q.563 You saw that they are of the same manufacture, and that they apparently came in the same package?
A.563 Yes sir.

Q.564 In unloading a magazine isn't it usual to pick out cartridges bearing the same number and year?
A.564 Yes sir.

Q.565 Do you realize that when an automatic pistol is fired the empty cartridge is ejected?
A.565 Yes sir.

Q.566 You heard two shots?
A.566 Yes sir.

Q.567 Did you make any estimate as to the distance of the ejection from the automatic weapon?
A.567 No sir.

Q.568 Did you know that if you fired two shots from the same weapon the distance of ejection of the casings would be the same?
A.568 Yes sir.

Q.569 What is the distance between points "J" and "I" on Exhibit "G"?
A.569 I would say about 100 yds.

Q.570 Right. Then would you say that the person firing the pistol had sufficient time to get from one spot to the other?
A.570 Well sir ------

Q.571 Was there sufficient time for the man to cover that distance between the two explosions?
A.571 No sir, not over that distance.

Q.572 So that there could not be any relation between the two casings and the two shots?
A.572 That depends if it was the last shot of the weapon.

Q.573 You do not know. You said the time elapsing between the firing of the two shots was not sufficient for a person to cover the distance between the two casings. Was there sufficient time?
A.573 No sir.

hdb.

Q.574 You showed Wilcock where his billets were?
A.574 Yes sir.

Q.575 Did he require your assistance?
A.575 Pte Wilcock had been drinking and was excited.

Q.576 Was he a little bit irrational?
A.576 Yes sir.

Q.577 Were you in the building when you heard the shots?
A.577 I was in the open when I heard the shots fired.

Q.578 From where you were standing when you heard the shots fired, did you have a clear view of the entrance of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.578 No sir.

Q.579 You were outside of the Petawawa Bldg?
A.579 Yes sir.

Q.580 How long did it take you to get around to have a view of the front of the building?
A.580 About half a minute, sir.

Q.581 30 seconds is a long time?
A.581 Yes sir.

Q.582 Did you speed up?
A.582 Yes sir.

Q.583 Then you still think it took 30 seconds?
A.583 I imagine it was about that.

Q.584 What type of a night was it?
A.584 A medium night - neither bright nor dark.

Q.585 What would be the approximate distance of visibility for moving bodies?
A.585 From about 40 to 50 yards.

Q.586 What were your duties as Guard Comd at Canada Bks with reference to unusual occurrences?
A.586 My duties are to see that something is being done about it. At that time I had an Offr of the Guard and Guard Sgt.

Q.587 What were your duties when you heard the shots? Did you do the things you ought to have done?
A.587 When I heard the shots I went in the direction of the shots.

Q.588 Did you go to the entrance of Canada Bks at that time?
A.588 Yes sir. I went to the Guard Room first and then to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.589 Was it unusual to hear shots fired at that time?
A.589 No sir, it wasn't.

Q.590 It might have been fired by any gun or might have been fired by the Guard at Italians?
A.590 No sir. They have nothing to do with the Italians except if they come through the gate. The guard has to help look after the gate and the Regtl Police picquet the walls of the Camp.

Q.591 We have been told there were a number of drunks coming in. Is that right?
A.591 It is generally that way every night. There was no difference that night.

Q.592 Were there a number of drunks?
A.592 I don't know sir. I wasn't on the gate.

10th.

Q.593 I suggest to you that when you saw the casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", that it was apparent to you that they had both been exposed to the elements for some time?

A.593 I didn't tell you that.

Q.594 Take Exhibit "M" which I show you. Why do you say that is the first one you found that night in the bks?

A.594 Yes sir.

Q.595 Would you examine it? Is it apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements and lying on the ground for some time?

A.595 I didn't examine it closely.

Q.596 I show you Exhibit "N" which you picked up the following morning. I suggest that it was apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements for some considerable time?

A.596 I can't answer that. I don't know.

Q.597 (Witness is shown Exhibits "M" and "N".) Will you examine the marks made by the firing pin and tell the Court if there is any similarity between the marks of the two firings?

A.597 Both marks are similar except one is very deep.

Defending Officer:

I don't want to labour the Court but I want facts. I suggested before that there is no similarity between the cartridge casings. I am endeavouring to explain to the Court by this examination of the witness. I leave it to you, gentlemen.

Cross-examination (continued):

Q.598 Have you taken your normal common-to-all-arms training in the infantry?

A.598 Yes sir.

Q.599 Are you acquainted with the lessons on the theory of small arms fire?

A.599 Fairly well, sir.

Q.600 Therefore, you know that the firing pin of a pistol will make an identical mark on any cartridge case fired from that particular pistol?

Prosecutor:

It is not proved that this soldier knows anything about a .45 pistol. That doesn't come in "Small Arms Training".

The Court:

I don't think there is much harm done.

Defending Officer:

Q.601 You know that every firing pin, when fired, makes the same kind of a mark?

A.601 I never said so, sir.

Q.602 Will you state from your military knowledge whether or not the firing pin is the same in all guns?

A.602 No sir. The firing pin in weapons don't all look the same.

Q.603 I am speaking of a specific weapon. Will it or will it not leave an identical mark on the casing of the cartridge it expels, other things being equal?

A.603 I don't know sir.

W.D.H.

Q.604 When you found the sandwich by the pool of blood what was your reaction?
A.604 Well, I presumed the man had dropped it there when he had been attacked by the other man.

Q.605 Did you make any check to ascertain if this was so?
A.605 No sir.

Q.606 Is it possible that a man could eat a sandwich with one hand and pull the identity discs off with the other?
A.606 No sir.

Q.607 When that sandwich was found, approximately how many inches was it away from the body?
A.607 There were several pieces, some in the blood and some away from it.

Q.608 How far were the farthest pieces away from the body?
A.608 About four or five inches.

Q.609 Did you examine the body on any occasion?
A.609 I did not see the body.

Q.610 You did not see the body?
A.610 No sir.

Q.611 Do you know of anyone who reported this matter, or anyone who suggested that an investigation should be made?
A.611 No sir.

Q.612 Did you report the matter of this shooting that evening for investigation?
A.612 No sir, I did not.

Re-examined:

Q.613 What light did you use when you were looking about the front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.613 Well, I used a few matches that I had. There were also flashlights there.

Q.614 When you found the cartridge casing, Exhibit "M", what light did you use?
A.614 I forget whether it was a flashlight or match. I don't know.

By the Court:

Q.615 Was Pte Wilcock wearing any headgear when he reported to you?
A.615 No sir.

Q.616 Have you ever before seen casings lying about Canada Bks similar to those which you found?
A.616 Yes sir.

Q.617 When you took Pte Wilcock to the Coy Office and reported the incident to the WO, why was it necessary to accompany him to his own billets?
A.617 I took him to the Seaforths office.

Q.618 Why was it necessary to show him to his billets?
A.618 He did not seem to know how to get to his billets.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

W.B.W.

FIFTEENTH WITNESS (B.73385 Cpl De Harte, WL (48 Highrs) 3 Bn 1 CBRD for Prosecution (having been duly sworn (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.619 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd August, 1944?
A.619 Yes sir.

Q.620 What happened on that evening?
A.620 At about 2130 hrs I entered the Main Gate of 1 CBRD with two of my friends. We had been downtown and had a few drinks. When we got to the gate, we met a man from the Hast & PER who stopped us and started to talk to us. He appeared to be quite drunk. After a minute or two an argument started between the Hasty P and one of my friends.

Q.621 Do you know the name of this Hast & PER man?
A.621 Yes sir.

Q.622 What was his name?
A.622 His name was "Dillon".

Q.623 What happened then?
A.623 As it appeared that a fight might start, I soon got my friends to their billets and then tried to persuade the Hasty P man to go to his billets. He seemed to be on his way so I went to my Orderly Room and reported to my duty NCO. Then I returned to my billets which, at that time, were in 1 Bn Bldg.

Q.624 What was the name of the building?
A.624 I don't know the name of the building. The people of 1 Bn were in it.

Q.625 I show you Exhibit "G", a sketch of Canada Bks. Will you point out the building?
A.625 This is the building. (Witness indicates the Borden Block.)

Q.626 Will you carry on with your statement?
A.626 While crossing the main parade square to the Borden Block, I ran into the Hasty P man again. He was just starting an argument with a stranger. I sent the stranger to his billets. While I was doing so, the Hasty P man ran into another party and started to argue with him. I also sent this other party to his billets, and once more tried to convince the Hasty P man to go to his billets. After a few minutes a man came up who was wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge.

Q.627 Now, do you know this man you saw?
A.627 The new man sir.

Q.628 Yes?
A.628 Yes sir.

Q.629 Who was the new man?
A.629 He was the accused, sir.

Q.630 Is he in Court?
A.630 Yes sir.

Q.631 Where?
A.631 Sitting at this table, sir. (Indicates the table where the accused and Defending Offr are sitting.)

Q.632 What happened then?
A.632 The accused said, "Have you any money?".

Q.633 Who did he say that to?
A.633 The Hasty P man, sir.

W.A.B.

Q.634 What happened after that?
A.634 The Hasty P man asked "Why"? The Seaforth man then said "Give me a buck, I want a Buck" in a demanding voice.

Q.635 What did you do about this?
A.635 I decided that another argument was about to start. As I was having too much trouble trying to get the Hasty P man to keep out of trouble; and that seemed impossible, I returned to my billets. A few moments after I was in my room I heard a shot fired, followed by another. As that was frequent around Canada Bks at night, I paid no attention to it.

Q.636 What was the light like that night?
A.636 The moon was out. While I was on the parade square it was shining brightly.

Q.637 Do you recall what state of moon it was?
A.637 No sir.

Q.638 Could you recognize the Glengarry the accused was wearing that night?
A.638 You mean the Glengarry ..... ?

Q.639 Yes.
A.639 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.640 Cpl, why did you look around the room before stating that the accused was on my left? Was he the man on the parade square in this little part of your story?
A.640 I was asked if the accused was in the room. I have never been in this room before so I looked around to make sure that the man was in it and had not left it by another door.

Q.641 Why did you start looking from the right? The first person you looked at was the accused. Then you came back and looked to my left. Why that performance?
A.641 I did not at first notice that the accused was sitting on your left, sir.

Q.642 How often have you seen the accused since the night of 2 Aug?
A.642 Four or five times sir.

Q.643 Now tell the Court the first time you saw him?
A.643 The first time was at the Court of Inquiry on the morning of Aug 3rd.

Q.644 What time in the morning ?
A.644 Somewhere between 0930 and 1030 hrs.

Q.645 Where was the accused?
A.645 Standing between his escort in the hallway of the Admin Wing of 1 CBRD.

Q.646 He didn't have a hat on?
A.646 Yes sir.

Q.647 Did you not observe him for at least 30 to 45 minutes?
A.647 Yes sir.

Q.648 Then there should be no difficulty in identifying the accused?
A.648 No sir.

Q.649 How often have you seen him since?
A.649 I saw him again at the Summary of Evidence which was held in the Guard Comd's Room at 1 CBRD a few days later.

Q.650 Now to go back to the morning of the 3rd of Aug; you knew him as the accused before you knew him as "Robinson"?
A.650 Yes sir.

Q.651 Were you ever asked to identify him at a proper identification parade?
A.651 Yes sir. Major Morgan paraded five or six men into the CO's Office of 3 Bn and asked me to identify the man.

Q.652 You had seen him several times before this identification parade?
A.652 Yes sir.

Q.653 How much information about the accused did you have prior to the identification parade?
A.653 He was involved in some transaction on the 2nd of Aug. I had heard that a Hast & PER man had been shot on the night of the 2nd of Aug, and that a 48 Highrs Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting. So I reported to my Comd that I had left a Hast & PER man and a Seaforth man wearing a Glengarry in an argument on 1 Bn parade square.

Q.654 After you left Dillon arguing on the parade square, did you see the other man again?
A.654 No sir.

Q.655 Were you ever asked to identify him?
A.655 No sir.

Q.656 Howwell did you know Dillon?
A.656 While trying to argue him into going back to his billets I said I would meet him the next day and try to go into this idea he had that everyone was against him. I asked him his name and arranged to meet him the next day. He said his name was "Dillon".

Q.657 Then you can't tell the Court you were the last person who saw the man who was arguing with the man who gave his name as "Dillon"?
A.657 No sir.

Q.658 Then in point of fact there was no relationship that you could give between the argument and the incident of the shooting?
A.658 Yes sir.

Q.659 Why do you say "yes"?
A.659 Because the 48th Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting.

Q.660 Are you sure it was at the scene of the shooting?
A.660 Certainly sir.

Q.661 How did you find out it had been found on the parade square?
A.661 I had been told that a Hasty P man had been shot and the 48th Glengarry was found at the scene of the shooting. I had also been told that Pte Wilcock had been robbed of a Glengarry the night before. The combination of a Seaforth flash and a 48th hat badge appeared to me the answer.

Q.662 You told the Court quite clearly that you had the accused under observation before being asked to identify him on a proper identification parade, is that correct?
A.662 Yes sir.

Q.663 Then there is no excuse for making any mistake about it?
A.663 No sir.

Defending Officer:

I seek the advice of the Judge Advocate. I wish to register a complaint about the method by which the accused was identified.

b.b.b.

Judge Advocate:

That is more a matter for argument. You have a strong talking point.

Defending Officer:

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS (Capt J.H. Snell, 2 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.780 Will you state to the Court your appointment and unit?
A.780 I am the Adjt of 2 Bn.

Q.781 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.781 Yes sir. I recall it.

Q.782 Will you tell the Court, to your knowledge, what happened that evening?
A.782 I returned to Canada Bks at approximately 2315 hrs and found a few soldiers and offrs crowding around the entrance of the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. I went to the 2 Bn MIR where I found Capt Verdicchio, 2 Bn MO, and Capt McKee, PPCLI. From information I received, I ascertained that a soldier had been shot on the main square outside the entrance of the Offrs' Mess. While still in the MIR, Capt McKee gave me a set of identity discs bearing the name of "Pte Robinson", number - "B.144333".

Q.783 I show you Exhibit "J". Do you recognize this?
A.783 I recognize the discs as the ones given to me by Capt. McKee.

Q.784 What did you do then?
A.784 Major Bernier, Paymaster, 2 Bn, who was present at the MIR, and I, endeavoured to find the owner of the discs through the card index system of 3 Bn. It appeared that they would have some bearing on the incident. We found the owner of the discs to be a Seaforth soldier. The number corresponded to one of the Seaforth cards in the 2 Bn Card Index. Major Bernier accompanied me to the Seaforth Office in the Seaforth billets. I found that Pte Robinson was billeted in the Seaforth quarters. The NCO got a candle as there was not sufficient light, and we went to the soldier's bed, which was an outside bed in one of the bays where the soldiers were sleeping. I found the soldier asleep on his face on the bed. I awakened him and asked him his name.

Q.785 Is that soldier in this Court Room?
A.785 Yes, I recognize Pte Robinson as the soldier I awakened on finding him in the Seaforth building. I noticed at the time that Pte Robinson's lips were cut and his face scratched. I told the Orderly NCO, Cpl Shaw, to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn RP. Major Bernier and myself searched the kit of Pte Robinson while he was still there. We found a .45 automatic, Army pattern, at the top of Pte Robinson's bed. I observed the magazine, finding that the gun was empty. I smelled the gun and detected a smell of cordite powder as if it had been recently fired.

Q.786 Will you fully describe the pistol in question?
A.786 The pistol was a .45 model; American make, .45 automatic. It was rusted slightly and not in very good condition. The number I first took from it was M.1911 which I later found was the model number only. The pistol was identical with an Army pattern .45. The only distinct feature I can recollect is that it was slightly rusted and did not appear in good shape. The number I ascertained xxxxxxxxxx at a later time. The pistol remained in my possession for a period of time. I am sure it was the same pistol.

Q.787 What was the number of the pistol?
A.787 I don't recall.

Q.788 Have you got any memoranda on your person?
A.788 I jotted down a few points; the number of the pistol and a few witnesses present on the evening of the Incident.

Q.789 When did you make these notes?
A.789 I made these notes in the Bn Orderly Room while the Summary of Evidence was being prepared.

Q.790 Was the pistol out of your possession at that time?
A.790 Yes. The pistol was turned over to Major Morgan of 3 Bn who completed the Court of Inquiry. It was returned to me personally with the exhibits on completion of the Court of Inquiry. The exhibits were then placed under lock and key and specifically turned over to Lt Murphy who had them at various times until the completion of the Summary of Evidence. They were then returned for safe-keeping to 2 Bn.

Q.791 I am producing this weapon for your inspection. I want you to state to the Court if that weapon is the one you found on the night of the incident or not?
A.791 To the best of my knowledge that pistol is the same pistol I found on the night of the incident.

Q.792 How do you identify the pistol?
A.792 I recognize the pistol from its rusty appearance, also the corrosion contained in the barrel which I originally noticed at the time the pistol was found. (.45 automatic pistol, stamped "United States Property M1911 AI US Army No.948416 Remington Rand Inc, Syracuse, N.Y., USA", admitted and marked Exhibit "Q".)

Q.793 After the revolver was found did you make any further inspections?
A.793 Yes, we searched the kit.

Q.794 Was the accused present at the time?
A.794 Yes, to the best of my knowledge the accused was present.

Q.795 Did you find anything?
A.795 The holster was found.

Q.796 Did you find the holster?
A.796 Major Bernier found the holster.

Q.797 Was the accused present at the time?
A.797 As far as I can recall the accused was present.

Q.798 Would you describe the holster?
A.798 To the best of my knowledge, the holster was a typical American one.

Defending Offr:

It is important to note that the witness eludes the Court by answering "To the best of my knowledge". I am convinced, myself, that the kit inspection was not carried out in the presence of the accused.

Judge Advocate:

I think the Court will object if they feel convinced that the manner in which a witness answers is unfair to the accused.

Defending Offr:

I am a little anxious that the Court should find out why he says "To the best of my knowledge".

Judge Advocate:

Will the witness please give specific answers? Capt Rose, would you establish whether or not the accused was present when his kit was searched?

Prosecutor:

Q.799 Was the accused present when you searched the kit alleged to belong to the accused?
A.799 Yes.

Defending Offr:

This witness was not present and did not search thekit himself. If the Court were to adjourn, the Court would see from the .....

The accused was lying on his bed. I was standing near his bed. I awakened the accused. Major Bernier was going to search his kit. I was questioning the accused as to who he was. I assisted Major Bernier in the search of the man's kit. The man was present.

Q.800 To whom do you refer when you say, "The man was present"?.
A.800 Pte Robinson.

Q.801 What did you find in his kit?
A.801 I found it was the ordinary soldier's kit. I didn't find the pistol. I didn't find the holster.

Q.802 Who was present when either the pistol or the holster were found?
A.802 Major Bernier and Cpl Shaw of the Seaforths were present.

Q.803 Where were you and where was the accused?
A.803 The accused was sitting up on his bed. I was sitting down on the left side of his bed. Major Bernier was on my left. The NCO was standing behind Major Bernier, to his left, in the hallway between the bays.

Q.804 Did you see either the automatic or the holster found?
A.804 I saw Major Bernier find the pistol at the top of Pte Robinson's bed.

A.B.to.

Q.805 Did you see the holster found?
A.805 I didn't see it found, the spot, but Major Bernier produced the holster there. It was found in the kit.

Q.806 After these articles were found what did you do?
A.806 I told the Cpl to place Pte Robinson under close arrest and take him to the RP of 2 Bn, informing him I would be over later.

Q.807 Did you see the accused later?
A.807 Yes.

Q.808 Where?
A.808 At the RP 2 Bn.

Q.809 What happened at that time?
A.809 Major Bernier and I proceeded to the RP 2 Bn and tried to find out more about this incident. I got hold of the RP Sgt - Sgt Leclerc, and told him to bring the accused to me. The accused was brought to me.

Q.810 What did you do then?
A.810 I warned Pte Robinson. This was in 2 Bn Detn Room.

Q.811 Where were you sitting?
A.811 I was sitting at the table in the office of the detn barrack. The accused was standing in front of me.

Q.812 What did you say to the accused?
A.812 Major Bernier was sitting on my left. Sgt Leclerc was standing to the left of the accused. I warned the accused or said to the accused that he could make a voluntary statement under oath, and that it would be taken down in writing and perhaps later be used as evidence. As far as I can recall, these are the words I used.

Q.813 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.813 No threats or promises were made to the accused with the exception that I offered him some cigarettes which he smoked.

Q.814 Was any violence offered to the accused?
A.814 No.

Q.815 Was the accused in any manner, shape or form given any indication that if he made a statement things would be easier for him?
A.815 No.

Q.816 Was there a statement made?
A.816 I prepared a statement in pencil.

Q.817 Will you detail to the Court exactly what you did?
A.817 I asked the accused if he minded telling some of the events that happened during the evening. He made no objection. I asked the accused if he was aware of the order concerning the wearing of identity discs.

Defending Offr:

I object to the answers of the accused being admitted because the witness must have made up his mind to lay a charge against the accused at this stage. The statement must have been obtained in accordance with "The Judges Rules" as set out in para 78 MML p.81. I also object to any verbal answers the accused made as they are equally a part of the statement made by the accused.

Judge Advocate:

Do you object to both written and oral statements?

w.h.b.

Defending Offr:

Yes sir.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Snell, the result of the objection is that at this stage you may not, until the Court decides it is admissable, tell the Court what were the contents of the written statement the accused made. The Court may hear what went on between you and the accused when making the statement. Nothing he said or the contents of the statement can be given in evidence until the Court rules that they are admissable.

Prosecutor:

Q.818 Will you tell the Court in what manner you obtained this statement or any statement from the accused?
A.818 I obtained the statement by asking the accused two or three questions which I wrote down. I received answers to those questions which I wrote down in the accused's own words. On the completion of the statement, I read it back to the accused in the presence of the witnesses I have mentioned. Then I asked him to sign it.

Q.819 Did you cross-examine the accused on his statement?
A.819 No I did not.

Prosecutor:

I submit that the statement of the accused given to the witness should be admitted into evidence.

Judge Advocate:

The Defending Offr has the right to cross-examine this witness on the manner of obtaining the statement. You may call other witnesses who were present at the time of the taking of the statement. The accused has the right to give evidence if he so wishes. This is what is known as a "Trial within a Trial".

Cross-examined:

Q.820 Have you seen the statement since you first took it on the night of 2 August?
A.820 Yes.

Q.821 Do you recall it? It seems to be in four or five different paras?
A.821 Yes.

Q.822 And each of these paras is the answer to a specific question you wrote down?
A.822 Yes.

Q.823 These questions were not asked by you merely to clear up an ambiguity or were they to .....
A.823 Clarify please.

Q.824 The questions you asked were not questions to clear up something you had learned of the incident from what the accused had just told you?
A.824 No.

10.8.80.

Q.825 What was the condition of the accused? Had he been drinking?
A.825 Yes.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.826 You say he had been drinking: to what extent in your opinion?
A.826 I say he had been drinking because I could smell liquor on his person. But he was standing perfectly upright and was in full possession of his faculties. Therefore, I took the statement.

Defending Offr:

I would like to ask a couple of questions of the witness.

Judge Advocate:

I have a few to ask myself. I will question the witness. If I do not cover the precise points you have in mind, the Court will put your questions for you.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.827 When the accused was brought to you by Sgt Leclerc in the Detn Room office, did you explain to him that you were investigating the shooting which occurred in Canada Bks earlier that evening?
A.827 Yes. First I warned the accused. I told him there had been a shooting. After the warning, I asked him what he knew of it. He didn't .....

Q.828 I take it there was a reply to this preliminary question?
A.828 Yes.

Q.829 Did you at any time form an opinion in your mind as to the accused being guilty or likely guilty of doing this shooting?
A.829 No. I wouldn't say that sir. I had a confused impression of the whole affair and was merely investigating.

Q.830 What period of time elapsed from the time that Cpl Shaw took the accused away from his quarters until the accused was brought before you again?
A.830 I would say a matter of five or ten minutes, fifteen minutes at the outside.

Q.831 Did you or did you not, before you asked the accused to sign this statement, ask him to read it over in order to make any corrections in it if he so wished?
A.831 I read the statement I had written to the accused and asked him if he wanted to say anything else or put anything else down.

By the Court:

Q.832 In the presence of the accused at the bedside, was there any confusion regarding ownership of the pistol?
A.832 I don't remember.

Defending Offr:

I would like the Court to put a question to the witness - whether or not he had made up his mind to lay a charge.

A.B.B.

By the Court:

Q.833 Capt Snell, did you make up your mind to lay a charge against the accused when you found the pistol in the bed clothes of the accused's bed?

A.833 No, I felt that in my capacity as Adjt, an investigation should ensue before any charges could be laid. At the time we merely held Robinson in safe custody.

Q.834 Do you know whether or not a charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the pistol?

A.834 Yes.

Q.835 When was it laid?
A.835 On the completion of the Court of Inquiry?

Q.836 When did that take place?
A.836 I don't remember - about one or two days later.

Q.837 Who laid the charge?
A.837 We laid it - 2 Bn. I laid it.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS(Major J. Bernier, RCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CERD, for (having been duly sworn,
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the Court at this moment is only concerned with ascertaining the facts leading up to the obtaining of a certain statement or statements from the accused. The previous witness has given evidence that a statement was obtained. He has described or given his version of the manner he obtained it. The Defending Offr has objected to the admissibility of the accused's answers and the statement. So we are only concerned with what transpired up to the obtaining of the statement.

Q.838 Will you give the Court your appointment?
A.838 I am Paymaster of 2 Bn.

Q.839 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd Aug 44?
A.839 I do.

Q.840 Were you in 2 Bn Detn Bks that night?
A.840 I was.

Q.841 Who else was there?
A.841 Capt Snell, the Adjt of 2 Bn, along with several witnesses in connection with the accident that happened that night and the accused whom I now recognize in this Court Room.

Q.842 Will you tell the Court what was said to the accused but not what the accused said in reply? You were in this room; where were you?
A.842 I was sitting next to Mr Snell at a desk in the Guard Room.

Q.843 You spoke to the accused?
A.843 I didn't. No sir.

Q.844 Did anyone else speak to the accused?
A.844 Capt Snell told the accused that he could make a statement or give evidence on oath, and that what he would say was to be taken down in writing and used in evidence.

W.B.B.

Q.845 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.845 No.

Q.846 Were any promises held out?
A.846 No.

Q.847 Was there any duress of any sort whatever?
A.847 No, none at all.

Q.848 Was there a suggestion that if he made a statement things might become easier for him?
A.848 Nothing like that, that I recall.

Q.849 After the statement was made, did Lt Snell read it to the accused?
A.849 I don't recall whether he read/or showed it to the accused to read before signing. it

Q.850 Was there any inducement made to the accused to sign the statement?
A.850 None that I recall.

Cross-examined:

Q.851 What words did Capt Snell use when he wanted the signature?
A.851 I cannot recall the actual words.

Q.852 I suggest to you it was in the form of a command, "You sign here".
A.852 No, I would not say it was in the form of a command. It was shown to him.

Q.853 Were those words used?
A.853 No, I don't recall that.

Q.854 Do you recall anything of the methods used in obtaining the signature?
A.854 As far as I recall, it was pointed out to him that it was a rather important document, and that it would be better for him to sign it.

Q.855 The information which Capt Snell wrote down after he gave the caution was obtained by asking the accused questions and listing answers, was it not?
A.855 Yes.

Q.856 The questions were not put merely for the purpose of clearing up any misunderstanding in Capt Snell's mind but to elicit specific information?
A.856 Yes.

Q.857 Had the accused been drinking?
A.857 Yes.

Q.858 Capt Snell has told the Court the relevant positions of himself, yourself, the Sgt, and the accused. Would you tell the Court the relevant positions?
A.858 Capt Snell was sitting at the desk. The accused was immediately in front of him. I was sitting at Capt Snell's right. I am not sure of the Sgt, but I believe he was sitting fairly well back near the door which was on the right of the desk.

W.B.L.

Q.859 Some cigarettes were offered to the accused while the information was obtained from him?
A.859 Yes.

Re-examination:

Q.860 Who stated that it might be better for the accused to sign this statement?
A.860 I don't recall that that was exactly my answer. The Offr for the Defence asked me in what way the demand was made. As far as I recall it was made in the line of advice.

Q.861 Who gave this advice?
A.861 Capt Snell.

By the Court:

Q.862 Had the accused been told before he started to give his statement that it would be taken down in writing, and he would be expected to sign it?
A.862 He was warned.

Q.863 But not told that he had to sign it?
A.863 Not that I recall.

Q.864 You stated the accused had been drinking?
A.864 Yes sir.

Q.865 Do you think that his reasoning or understanding was affected at that time?
A.865 Not in my opinion.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.866 Were the cigarettes offered to the accused or did he ask for them?
A.866 They were offered.

Q.867 By whom?
A.867 By Capt Snell.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Judge Advocate:

Does the accused wish to give evidence?

Defending Offr:

No sir.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Sir, I object to the statement being put in evidence on the basis that the information obtained was made after the Bn Adjt - the investigator - decided to lay a charge or charges against the accused. The caution was not properly administered, and it was not a proper caution. From the evidence, the Court can readily infer that the statement was given under duress. Consider that a private soldier, who, in the opinion of the interrogator had been drinking, was awakened and marched, under the escort of a Sgt, no less, to the Guard Room. In any event the Sgt was available throughout the interrogation. It was not sufficient for them to obtain merely a L/Cpl from the unit to get the statement. Capt Snell must also have the assistance of a Field Offr to help him. All of these things must have thrown a little fright into the accused. Therefore he was under duress. There is evidence of Capt Snell being the "big brother" of the accused. There is evidence of an inducement, the giving of the cigarettes. Major Bernier states that Capt Snell tried to influence the accused with the advice that it might be better if the accused signed it. This is sufficient evidence from which the Court can draw the inference that there was a threat. I would like to draw the Court's attention specifically to sub-para 7 on page 92 in MML which covers the accused's particular case. This statement is a set question and answer statement and, therefore, inadmissable. I quote: (reads MML Chap VI p.91 sub-para 7). I would draw the Court's attention to the fact that the accused, in the eyes of the person obtaining the answers, had been drinking. Great care must be taken in demanding statements from people who have been drinking, whether little or much. I refer to MML p.93 para 79 which reads as follows: (reads para 79). I wish the statement thrown out.

Prosecutor's Answer:

There is no evidence before the Court from which it can be inferred that a charge was to be laid against the accused. I suggest that the statement was obtained in accordance with the rules laid down by the Judges of the King's Bench Division, found in para 78 at p.91 of MML. In particular, I quote: (reads sub-para 1, MML, p.91). There is no indication, either, in the evidence that the accused was cross-examined as the Defending Counsel suggested. I will read you sub-para 7 on p.92 of MML again. (reads sub-para 7) In any event the caution which was given, I believe, comes well within the ruling of the Court, which in the past decided the form in which the caution should be given. This individual offr gave the exact words used. His failure to put the caution in the exact words of the Rule indicates merely he was not qualified, you might say, in obtaining confessions. He is, you might find, in the capacity of a police offr. There is no evidence of any inducement, threat or promise made to the accused. It was between ten and fifteen minutes from the time he was placed under close arrest in his billets before he was questioned in the detn room of 2 Bn. He was given cigarettes. In fact the attitude of the offr taking the statement was, as far as the accused was concerned, in my opinion, a helpful one. He wanted to make the accused as comfortable as possible. The cigarettes were not offered - there is no suggestion they were offered as an inducement to the accused. There is no evidence before the Court to indicate that the accused was, in any shape or form, drunk. There is some evidence that he had been drinking which is the most ambiguous term. The signature was obtained after the accused had made the statement and had either read it over or had it read over to him. At that time he had the opportunity to delete or make any corrections in the statement if he so desired. I submit that the statement should be admitted in evidence.

The Defending Offr made no reply.

The Court closed to consider the Submission. The Court was re-opened.

Judge Advocate:

Pte Robinson, I am directed by the Court to advise you that the submission made by your Defending Offr has been allowed. In consequence of that, the statement will not be admitted in evidence, and no answers to questions which were put to you during the investigation at 2 Bn Detn Room Office will be admitted.

W.A.B.

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (Capt J.H. Snell, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, recalled, already sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.868 Did you make any examination of the accused's person at the time you awakened him?
A.868 Yes.

Q.869 Will you describe to the Court what you found?
A.869 I noticed the accused's lips were bruised and cut and that there were scratches on the front of his neck below the chin.

Q.870 Describe these bruises, cuts and scratches?
A.870 Well, the bruises on his face were similar to bruises or cuts one would get in a fight. I would not say he had been in a fight that night. The scratches on his neck were two or three long scratches running diagonally down from his chin and approximately 2½ inches long.

Q.871 Do you recall how many scratches there were?
A.871 Two or three.

Q.872 Was the accused properly dressed when you saw him?

Defending Offr:

I object to the form of that question.

Prosecutor:

Q.873 Describe how the accused was dressed at the time or a few minutes after he was awakened?
A.873 The accused was dressed in trousers with his boots off but his socks on. I would say he also had on some sort of undershirt.

Q.874 Did the accused put on any article of dress at the time you were with him there?
A.874 I don't remember.

Q.875 Could you tell the Court of any other article of dress that the accused had on at the time?
A.875 He might have had on a pair of shorts.

Q.876 You said he had trousers on?
A.876 Trousers, socks and a white undershirt.

Q.877 What were the condition of the clothes?
A.877 His clothes were quite dirty.

Q.878 When you next saw the accused, will you describe his dress?
A.878 The accused had on a bush shirt and shoes but no hat.

Q.879 Will you describe the condition of the bush shirt?
A.879 The bush shirt was dirty. That is all I recall.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, do you wish to proceed with your cross-examination now? Would it prejudice your case if the Court were to adjourn until tomorrow morning?

Defending Offr:

I have made fairly complete notes which I wish to study tonight. I won't be prejudiced if the Court is adjourned until tomorrow.

Court adjourned at 1355 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1000 hrs, 23 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

Cross-examined:

Q.880 Capt Snell, when did you make up your mind that serious charges would be laid as a result of the shooting?
A.880 On completion of the Court of Inquiry at 3 Bn.

Q.881 Had you not formed a complete conclusion as to the guilt of the accused when you found the pistol and identity discs during your investigation?
A.881 I was confused about the evidence. I had formed no definite opinion.

Q.882 What made you place him under arrest?
A.882 I placed him under arrest because of the circumstances surrounding him. He might be involved. I placed him in safe custody to further the investigation.

Q.883 How soon after the shooting did you make up your mind that this was not a case of suicide ?
A.883 I didn't arrive at that conclusion.

Q.884 Didn't you consider that a possibility?
A.884 I didn't consider any possibilities. My mind was confused - muddled.

Q.885 Didn't you think it was a little ridiculous that decision?
A.885 My opinion was my own opinion. I heard a lot of things. I was not present at the body or even near the shooting. I found a Seaforth soldier who had been drinking with a pistol in his possession, the .45 automatic which I identified. Certain empty .45 calibre casings were found. All of which seemed to point to the fact that he was lying.

Q.886 You came to the conclusion that he was lying?
A.886 That was my opinion. As it was so late, I thought I had better place him in safe custody. I thought, in my own mind, that he might have been lying.

Q.887 It was a definite conclusion on your part?
A.887 Yes.

Q.888 It was a definite conclusion that he was very closely linked with the shooting?
A.888 Yes.

Q.889 Can you tell the Court how soon after the incident the Court of Inquiry was in your hands?
A.889 The Court of Inquiry was delivered to me the night of the following day, 3 Aug 44.

Q.890 How soon after the shooting did you say the charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the weapon?
A.890 I received the Court of Inquiry. As it seemed quite a long case and in my opinion it would come to a Summary of Evidence, the charge was placed against Robinson.

A.Bfb.

Q.891 Was he dealt with and punished?
A.891 Yes he was charged and given 28 days.

Q.892 Detention?
A.892 Detention.

Q.893 When you read the Court of Inquiry, did you see the recommendations made by the offr of 3 Bn?
A.893 I did.

Q.894 In view of these recommendations, you still felt you should lay the charge of improper possession?
A.894 Yes.

Q.895 In view of what was contained therein, hadn't you now come to the conclusion that the accused was guilty of the shooting?
A.895 No.

Q.896 Have you ever received instructions in your capacity as Adjt, or heard that the Judge Advocate does not want a multitude of charges laid?
A.896 Yes.

Q.897 Did you think that laying a charge against the accused was in accordance with those instructions?
A.897 Yes I do.

Q.898 How long have you been in the Army, Capt Snell?
A.898 I have been in the Army for about four years.

Q.899 Who was your Commanding Offr on the 2nd of Aug?
A.899 Colonel Lent.

Q.900 Did you know whether or not he has legal qualifications?
A.900 Yes he was a lawyer.

Q.901 Did you consult him?
A.901 I did.

Q.902 How often have you read the evidence you gave at the Summary of Evidence?
A.902 I have read it very little. I read it yesterday morning.

Q.903 Just prior to coming into Court?
A.903 Yesterday, not this morning.

Q.904 This morning?
A.904 No, not this morning.

Q.905 You did, in your evidence yesterday, identify Exhibit "J", the identity discs handed to you by Capt McKee. Are you convinced that they are the same or different?
A.905 I state specifically, they are the same.

Q.906 On what identifying marks, do you base this opinion?
A.906 The cord is similar.

Q.907 The type?
A.907 No. The cord is the same cord. It is short and won't go around a person's neck. The marking and stamping on the discs is rough. The name is the same. The way the discs are tied is exactly the same as they were tied. It bears the same number, rank and name as before. They are the same discs.

wbb.

Q.908 There is one distinct peculiarity about the identity discs in connection with the letters of the name. Can you tell the Court what that peculiarity is?

A.908 I don't recall.

Q.909 You examined them and you didn't see this distinct peculiarity? There is something peculiar about one of these discs - something in connection with the numbering which is not very often found on identity discs?

A.909 Possibly.

Q.910 Do you still say you gave them a microscopic inspection?

A.910 I didn't give them a microscopic inspection. I examined them.

Q.911 Still you gave the Court a microscopic description of them as you recalled them, did you not?

A.911 I stated that I recalled them.

Q.912 Examine Exhibit "J". Will you tell the Court how the initial on the top disc is placed in relation to the one on the bottom disc?

A.912 They are joined. The "D" runs into the "PTE".

Defending Offr:

The initial and the "PTE" run into one another. I draw the Court's attention to Exhibit "J" - to the top identification disc and to the lettering "PTED".

Q.913 When you received a copy of the Court of Inquiry, did you implement any of the recommendations made by the Commanding Offr of 3 Bn?

A.913 Yes there were. I have seen the Court of Inquiry very little. As I recall in the findings several charges were suggested. From that it was decided in 2 Bn to place a charge of improper possession against Pte Robinson. The Commanding Offr, 3 Bn, recommended the investigation of several rather serious offences.

Q.914 Did you or did you not take steps to implement these recommendations?

A.914 Yes. After Pte Robinson was charged, it was suggested that we send the pistol to some ballistic experts in Rome. Major Morgan of 3 Bn contacted them through Pd Security. That fell through.

Q.915 How did it fall through?

A.915 Apparently they could not find or locate this ballistic expert in Rome. The pistol was returned to 3 Bn and turned over to him again. This took a certain period of time. It was decided that a Summary of Evidence would have to be taken. Mr Murphy was detailed to round up any persons who might have information concerning the event.

Q.916 Is there any MP force in your Bn?

A.916 Yes.

Q.917 Were there any MP offrs and personnel available to assist you in the investigation?

A.917 Yes.

Q.918 Did you request such assistance?

A.918 No.

Q.919 Why did you not obtain the assistance of their trained personnel?

A.919 I had a variety of reasons. I was very busy with the drafts at the time.

W.G.B.

Q.920 You were busy with drafts?
A.920 I was very busy. I had an offr working at 2 Bn Orderly Room who devoted his whole time to the preparation of Summaries of Evidence, Courts of Inquiry, etc. I had an administrative offr to assist me. I turned over the investigation to this offr as I could not spare the time myself to help Mr Murphy.

Q.921 What is the other of the two reasons?
A.921 I suggested to Mr Murphy that he contact the Judge Advocate which I know he did - due to the seriousness of these charges.

Q.922 Is it the duty of the Judge Advocate to assist in advising you as to whether or not there is sufficient evidence or to assist in investigating the case?
A.922 He is there to clarify certain points. It is not the Judge Advocate's job to direct police investigations.

Q.923 The impression I got was that on various points that arose, on points of law, the Judge Advocate assisted -----

Judge Advocate:

To clarify this for the benefit of the Court: I was not then acting as a Judge Advocate. I was acting in my capacity as ADJA Gp HQ. I am here today as Judge Advocate.

Defending Offr:

Q.924 When did you first consult Capt Bate, ADJA Gp HQ?
A.924 I cannot give you the date. It was four or five days afterwards. Mr Murphy could tell you better.

Q.925 And when Capt Bate was first consulted, was Mr Murphy in possession of any of the information given to the Court these last three days?
A.925 No.

Q.926 You are satisfied in your mind that Mr Murphy sought the best advice that he could obtain and was capable of completing a murder investigation?
A.926 Yes.

Q.927 Had Mr Murphy any recent experience to your knowledge?
A.927 No.

Q.928 Had Mr Murphy any previous experience in murder investigations?
A.928 Not to my knowledge. Mr Murphy spent a period in England and here on Courts of Inquiry and Courts Martial work. He has turned in very efficient work with few repercussions of any sort, and he was quite qualified to deal with this case.

Q.929 You gave evidence yesterday that you and Major Bernier decided to obtain particulars of the owner of the discs that were handed to you by Capt McKee?
A.929 Yes.

Q.930 What did Major Bernier have to do with the discs?
A.930 The decision to pursue the tracing of the discs was simultaneous. He was to check the Pay records and I was to check the Card Index which were in the Bn offices.

Q.931 So you and Major Bernier set yourselves up as an amateur detective office?
A.931 Yes.

J.A.B.

Q.932 When you first went to the bed in which you found the accused that night, you stated that it was by candle light?
A.932 ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ I think there were two candles.

Q.933 You were not in a particularly observant mood that night?
A.933 Quite. Yes.

Q.934 The NCO who was present previously told the Court that he brought a lantern along. Is he right or are you?
A.934 He may have been right. He might have gone back for the lantern, but there were candles when we first went to the bed.

Q.935 What do you say? When you first got there with the NCO, was there a lantern or candles?
A.935 Candles when I first went in as far as I can remember.

Q.936 You are not sure?
A.936 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.937 If you are not sure of such a small detail, how could you be sure that your specific identification of the discs is any more accurate?
A.937 Yes, I am. My attention was centered on them. My attention was not centered on the light. There was light around the bed.

Q.938 How can you tell the Court you saw scratches on the face or the neck of the accused when you saw him on 2 Aug 44? What conclusion did you come as to how these scratches were incurred?
A.938 My impression?

Q.939 Yes?
A.939 In the RP the soldier ------

Q.940 At the bed?
A.940 When this soldier, who was lying on his face, turned over, his face was bruised - lips bruised and face damaged. On his neck were scratches that had no significance at the time. He was not wearing discs when found in bed. As he was Robinson and I had Robinson's discs, it occurred to me on the way over to the RP that his scratches had some significance. On arrival at the RP I asked Cpl Shaw, in the presence of the accused, if he had noticed scratches on Pte Robinson around his neck. He said "No". I sent the Cpl into the cell where Pte Robinson was. I said take a look at his neck. He came back and I -------

Q.941 You first stated you had this conversation in the presence of the accused. Now which is it?
A.941 Not in his presence. We were told by Cpl Shaw that the scratches resembled scratches which might have been put on his neck by fingernails.

Q.942 Was there any difference in the length and width of the individual scratches? Were they of the appearance of having been put on by fingernails?
A.942 Yes. They looked like scratches.

Q.943 Now, to the best of your knowledge, was any attempt ever made to examine Dillon's fingernails to see if any blood was clotted in them?
A.943 To the best of my knowledge I never heard of any.

Q.944 Don't you think that would be the best way to link Dillon with the accused?
A.944 I would say that that would be a very good method.

W.B.G.

Q.945 Do you agree that that would be the usual police method?
A.945 I am not versed with police methods.

Q.946 Would you tell the Court if a draft had arrived recently from England - just prior to the 2nd Aug?
A.946 Yes.

Q.947 Was there a fair number of Seaforths in camp around 2 Aug 44?
A.947 Yes, there was quite a number.

Q.948 A number of 48th Highrs?
A.948 Yes.

Q.949 And quite a few Hast & PER?
A.949 Yes.

Q.950 When you found the accused asleep in bed with the pistol, was any attempt made to find out whether the accused had been recently seen in possession of the pistol by any of the people in the Bks?
A.950 Taking into consideration .....

Q.951 Forget the time limit that evening. Were any specific steps taken to determine whether or not the accused was seen in possession of that particular pistol?
A.951 I don't know.

Q.952 Did you yourself give that any consideration?
A.952 Mr Murphy and I discussed it.

Q.953 Did you discuss the investigation with him?
A.953 I don't remember what matters were discussed.

Q.954 Did you, in that discussion, consider obtaining the assistance of the police?
A.954 Yes, I 'phoned the Fd Security Offr with reference to the pistol: asked if he had anything to report on it and found out this expert was not available. I frequently asked Mr Murphy how the Summary was getting on and if further assistance was needed. I don't remember telling him specifically to contact the Local Provost or any other police personnel.

Q.955 Who suggested the trip to Rome for ballistic purposes?
A.955 3 Bn instigated it if I remember correctly.

Q.956 Who is Capt Allan, W.C.?
A.956 I think he is OC or 2IC of the Fd Security Sec.

Q.957 Did you ever hear of the American ballistics people at Naples?
A.957 No. We were endeavouring to find out.

Q.958 Did you contact the DAPM, the L of C Pro or the SIB of the CMP?
A.958 No.

Q.959 I would like to direct the Court's attention to the next one or two questions and ask them to try and recall the method in which Exhibit "O" was put in by this witness yesterday. When you were handed the pistol, Exhibit "O", yesterday by the Prosecuting Offr, do you recall the method in which you presented it to the Court - how much you handled it?
A.959 Fairly well.

Q.960 Capt Rose handed it to you; then you identified it and then you looked at it?
A.960 I broke it.

J.O.B.

Q.961 Will you take it and break it exactly the same as you did yesterday?
A.961 If I didn't I should have.

Q.962 You made a statement that you did?
A.962 I don't think I did. I looked at it.

Q.963 You looked at it and could see the corrosion on it?
A.963 I examined the features of the pistol and noticed it was corroded.

Q.964 Can you tell from there that the barrel is corroded?
A.964 The light was shining on it. I can see it.

Q.965 How much did you see? Did you look at it that closely?
A.965 I did. I also recall seeing it on the table, and on examination it had corrosion in the barrel.

Q.966 Did you inspect it in the same manner?
A.966 It is not hard to see the corrosion.

Q.967 Can you examine a barrel without looking down it?
A.967 Not in the true sense of the word, not to examine it.

Q.968 The amount of examination in detail that you did is evidence on which someone may be convicted of a serious offence. If the evidence is going to be as sloppy as that identification of yours, there will be a miscarriage of justice. Now, what do you say?
A.968 I identified the pistol.

Q.969 You smelled the gun on the night of 2 Aug?
A.969 Yes.

Q.970 And as a result of that smell you came to the conclusion that the pistol had been recently fired?
A.970 Yes.

Q.971 Take Exhibit "O" and tell the Court if the smells from it are any different than those of 2nd Aug?
A.971 It smells of oil now and didn't the other day.

Q.972 How would the oil get there?
A.972 I assume it has been cleaned.

Q.973 How would the oil get there?
A.973 A certain amount of oil remains on certain parts of the mechanism for some time.

Q.974 Now, when you told the Court the pistol had been recently fired, what period of time do you mean by "recently"?
A.974 Recently fired?

Q.975 What do you mean by "recently fired"?
A.975 Recently fired could be a short period.

Q.976 Would it be less than an hour?
A.976 Possibly.

Q.977 Take the time you want .....
A.977 1½ hours.

Q.978 What is the time you meant?
A.978 No one could state the exact time that cordite in any weapon would last.

W.B.Bo.

Q.979 How could you say it was recently fired?
A.979 It smelled quite fresh. The impression I got was that it had been recently fired.

Q.980 You say it had been recently fired. I want an estimate as to how recently?
A.980 The smell of powder from a weapon that had been fired might last a day or only two hours. I would think, from my experience, that where a weapon had been fired the smell would last for some time. My impression from smelling it, when handing it to Major Bernier, was that it had been fired within the last three or four hours.

Q.981 The shooting only occurred approximately one hour before the pistol was in your hands?
A.981 Possibly.

Q.982 Did you look for any other pistols that may have been fired that evening?
A.982 Yes. We enquired about any .45 automatics around. There were a few around the barracks. Several offrs had them. Their pistols were not fired.

Q.983 How and when did you make that check?
A.983 In conversation. I saw two pistols.

Q.984 Don't you feel ridiculous about the way you made your check?
A.984 It was hard to find pistols in all the various places.

Q.985 There were lots around?
A.985 Not of that particular type.

Q.986 There were a lot of souvenir weapons in the hands of soldiers at that time. It was a very popular pastime to collect weapons, was it not?
A.986 Yes.

Q.987 Did you find any difference in the souvenir value of weapons to soldiers just here for the first few days and two or three months after? Are they more anxious to obtain pistols when they first arrive?
A.987 I would say so. I would say that they had it in mind to collect a pistol and carry it as long as they possibly could.

Q.988 If I were to tell you that a pistol fired at 0845 hrs has the same smell at 1000 hrs as it would have at 4:30 o'clock, would you agree that was possible?
A.988 Everything is possible.

Q.989 I only want your opinion from your military experience. Would you agree to the possibility?
A.989 There is the possibility. In my experience, a fresh smell of cordite departs and afterwards you smell corrosion.

Q.990 Was the soldier you found in bed at 2230 hrs asleep?
A.990 He was lying on his face. I assumed he was asleep.

Q.991 Did you turn him over?
A.991 I awakened him.

Q.992 Did he have the appearance of a sleeping man? Did you come to the conclusion he had been sleeping? Did you have to awaken him?
A.992 Yes. I assumed he had been sleeping. My first impression was that he was drunk. I smelled liquor on his breath when he was talking.

W.B.B.

Q.993 When was the first identification parade to let the witnesses pick out the accused?
A.993 Major Morgan held the identification parade preceding the Court of Inquiry.

Q.994 Who found the pistol?
A.994 To the best of my memory Major Bernier found the pistol at the top of the bed in the clothing the accused used as a pillow. It was a simultaneous finding. I was searching the kit, and he probably got his hands on it first.

Q.995 Was it in the man's pillow or by his head or in his kit?
A.995 Underneath the clothing used for a pillow on top of his head.

Q.996 Why did you arrange a second kit inspection?
A.996 Because our inspection had been cursory so I decided that a thorough search should be made. The kit was taken to the RP so that nothing could be taken away from it.

Q.997 You took the regular Infantry Training for an offr?
A.997 Yes.

Q.998 Have you handled rifles or pistols to any great extent?
A.998 Yes.

Q.999 Have you fired a large number of shots from a rifle or pistol or some weapon? Is it not correct that the firing pin on the explosion of the cartridge makes an identical mark on each cartridge?
A.999 Yes.

Q.1000 In order to get the casings out, the ejector is used?
A.1000 Yes.

Q.1001 The ejector makes marks on the cartridge as it ejects the cartridge?
A.1001 Yes.

Q.1002 Have you at any time examined the firing pin mark on cartridges after shots have been fired?
A.1002 I have.

Q.1003 Did you notice any similarity in the marks made in the firing?
A.1003 Yes, three.

Q.1004 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". Is there any similarity in the firing pin marks?
A.1004 There is a difference.

Q.1005 From your experience, is there anything here to make you come to the conclusion that these cartridges were fired by different weapons?
A.1005 There are two possibilities. One is that they were fired by different weapons. The other is that the spring firing the trip, due possibly to the condition of the pistol, didn't strike hard enough on that particular cartridge.

Q.1006 Examine Exhibits "M" and "N". Is the head the same in each casing or different?
A.1006 There is a difference.

Q.1007 You admit there is a difference?
A.1007 It appears that way.

L.B.B.

Q.1008 That being the case, the conclusion to come to is that they were fired from different weapons?
A.1008 I am not a pistol expert. I cannot say.

Q.1009 Did you examine any of the cartridges for ejector marks?
A.1009 No, I did not.

Q.1010 Supposing you did not find the pistol on Robinson's bed but found it in some other place; is there any way in which you could have linked up that particular pistol with the accused?
A.1010 I am not sure -----

Q.1011 Had the pistol not been found in or near Robinson's bed but found elsewhere, would there have been any possibility of connecting the pistol with the accused?
A.1011 Not unless he attempted to conceal it.

Q.1012 Is there any way to prove it?
A.1012 By fingerprints?

Q.1013 Was it tested for fingerprints?
A.1013 No, I don't think so.

Q.1014 Did you give any such instructions?
A.1014 No.

Q.1015 Do the police have such facilities available in this theatre?
A.1015 If the pistol hadn't been handled by about 20 individuals we could have tried it.

Q.1016 The pistol was not on charge to Robinson?
A.1016 No.

Q.1017 Did you examine Dillon's conduct sheet?
A.1017 No.

Q.1018 Did you check to find out if there had been any previous bad feeling between Dillon and Robinson?
A.1018 No.

Q.1019 Was it given consideration by anyone you knew of?
A.1019 I heard that 3 Bn gave it consideration. It was only hearsay.

Q.1020 So that, if the weapon had been found in the middle of the parade square, there wouldn't have been any link between the body of Dillon and the accused?
A.1020 No.

Q.1021 If the identity discs were not found near or by the body of Dillon, you would not have any way of linking Robinson with this incident whatever?
A.1021 No.

Q.1022 Can you suggest to the Court any motive for this shooting on the part of Robinson or anyone else?
A.1022 The motive?

Q.1023 The motive. Can you suggest any motive which you found in your investigation?
A.1023 Any one of several.

Q.1024 I want you to be very careful in answering that. Did you find any motive, to your knowledge, of linking the accused with the shooting of Dillon?
A.1024 No.

R.B.B.

Q.1025 In your opinion was the argument they had, the motive?
A.1025 No.

Q.1026 Was any consideration given as to how this shooting took place, having reference to the position of the body and the shots fired?
A.1026 Yes.

Q.1027 What consideration that you know of?
A.1027 Various theories. Lots of people mentioned them and most of them were discarded.

Q.1028 Would you tell the Court one of your theories?
A.1028 The theory that he was fired at and shot in the front of the head. There was a discussion by the MOs, but they couldn't make up their minds as to the correct theory. Another theory was that he was shot while running away.

Q.1029 When you considered that the man might have been shot from the front while standing, did you try to find out where the other person might have stood to fire the shot?
A.1029 I did.

Q.1030 And did you take into consideration that the first empty cartridge casing, Exhibit "M", was found approximately some eight feet from the body? Realizing where the cartridge casing was found and that it was fired from an automatic weapon, did you try to reconstruct that? What did you find, was the normal ejection distance?
A.1030 A .45 throws right. The casing is ejected straight up and drops three or four feet from the pistol.

Q.1031 What if it fell on a hard surface?
A.1031 It might bounce.

Q.1032 You said you carried out a test?
A.1032 I said I fired several .45s.

Q.1033 What I am trying to do now is to keep to the specific case dealing with the incident on the 2nd of Aug. You said several theories were advanced. I want to test whether you agree with these theories of this shooting. Were any of these theories discarded?
A.1033 We have been discarding them.

Q.1034 Did you reconstruct the shooting out in front of the Offrs' Mess in the area where the body was found?
A.1034 We reconstructed the shooting at the time and discussed how he was shot, in front or rear. It was thought at that time it was from behind. We were merely investigating the scene of the shooting for more information.

Q.1035 Did you examine any walls for slugs?
A.1035 We did.

Q.1036 Did you go over those walls very closely?
A.1036 We did.

Q.1037 What walls?
A.1037 The walls in front of the Offrs' Mess.

Q.1038 Did you go over carefully the west side of the Borden Block? I show you Exhibit "G" for reference.
A.1038 I examined the wall of the Ottawa Bldg, but I didn't examine the wall of the Borden Block. The reason I examined the side of the Ottawa Bldg and the Offrs' Mess was because I thought that the shots had been fired from the sports ground in front of the Ottawa Bldg. Another reason for examing the wall was the position of the pool of blood. We happened to find a bullet in the wall of the bldg. There were several bullet holes, all of which might have been made by .45 slugs. It was impossible to find out which was the bullet.

W.R.B.

Q.1039 Did you find any .45 slugs?
A.1039 No.

Q.1040 Did the bullet taken from the man's head give you any indication as to where the shot was fired from?
A.1040 I didn't know that a bullet came from his head.

Q.1041 Did you ask for information on those lines?
A.1041 I assumed it would be included in the medical interpretation.

Q.1042 Did you come to any conclusion as to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1042 I would say close up.

Q.1043 On what did you base this conclusion?
A.1043 From the size of the bullet-hole in the head.

Q.1044 A case of largeness or smallness?
A.1044 Largeness.

Q.1045 Are you suggesting to the Court that the size of the bullet-hole related to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1045 Definitely. A steel bullet makes a small hole and a lead bullet makes a large hole. It was a case of the size of the bullet-hole.

Q.1046 You came to the conclusion that it was fired from close range?
A.1046 Not having seen the body but knowing a small part of the evidence given by the doctors .....

Q.1047 You didn't know the size of the hole?
A.1047 No.

Q.1048 So you jumped to conclusions. When you and Major Bernier found the identity discs and the pistol which you linked closely with the accused, you both jumped to the conclusion that he was guilty?
A.1048 No, I would not say that.

Q.1049 Whether or not you jumped to that conclusion, it appeared to have something to do with the incident, something closely to do with the incident?
A.1049 It would appear that way.

Q.1050 Were any steps taken to find out whether or not Dillon was left handed or right handed?
A.1050 I don't recall.

Q.1051 Wouldn't it have been of some assistance, seeing that the identity discs were in his left hand to determine whether he was left handed or not?
A.1051 I was not there.

Q.1052 Did anyone make inquiries to find out what room Dillon slept in or whether he wore a wrist watch or not?
A.1052 I don't think so.

Q.1053 Was Pte Robinson told he didn't have to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1053 I think Major Morgan told him that. I wasn't present.

Q.1054 To your knowledge, was any assistance given Robinson as far as his legal rights were concerned, apart from your own advice?
A.1054 I can't tell you that.

Q.1055 You don't know?
A.1055 No.

W.B.L.

Q.1056 You have the Orderly Offr's Report for the 3rd of Aug?
A.1056 No.

Q.1057 Have you examined it to see what information it contained?
A.1057 The Orderly Offr's Report?

Q.1058 Yes. Did you examine it - the Orderly Offr's Report for 3rd Aug? Have you examined it?
A.1058 Some time ago.

Q.1059 Do you recall if Lt Manahan was Duty Offr that day?
A.1059 He was.

Q.1060 Was there any report of this incident made in the Orderly Offr's Report for the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1060 No, there was no reason for it.

Q.1061 Give a reason why there wasn't one?
A.1061 Taking into consideration the fact that there were the proper lengthy notes incorporated in the Court of Inquiry, made .....

Q.1062 Do you think that the Court will believe that? Is that the reason?
A.1062 Clarify the question.

Q.1063 You are trying to tell us about something that was done much later. I suggest to you that there was no Orderly Offr's Report. I suggest to you that it was some time later that he made a specific report of the incident?
A.1063 He made a written statement of the incident, I believe, the next morning.

Q.1064 I suggest it didn't come in with the Orderly Offr's Report?
A.1064 I don't remember. Everyone was quite aware that there had been a shooting.

Q.1065 Are you suggesting seriously that because everyone knew about it, no report was made? You are aware that it is evidence you must give in this Court. Don't make silly remarks.
A.1065 (Witness does not answer.)

Q.1066 Where was the holster found?
A.1066 In the kit of Pte Robinson.

Q.1067 Did you find it?
A.1067 No.

Q.1068 Doesn't it strike you as rather queer that the pistol and the holster were not in the kit together?
A.1068 It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1069 This accused?
A.1069 Yes. It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1070 Doesn't it strike you as queer that the holster was found in the kit bag and the pistol found by the pillow or articles used as a pillow?
A.1070 Not queer.

Q.1071 Does it strike you as unusual?
A.1071 It doesn't strike me as unusual.

Q.1072 You are trying to be a big help .....
A.1072 You are asking me. Some people don't keep their pistols in their holsters and others do.

W.B.L.

Q.1073 I suggest to you that after the pistol and holster and identity discs were found, you were trying to prove him guilty?
A.1073 The evidence seemed very certain from the sequence of events that came out that evening.

Q.1074 Wouldn't it be quite unusual for Robinson to keep the pistol, assuming he was connected with the shooting that evening?
A.1074 Yes.

Q.1075 Doesn't it strike you as unusual that you found it under his pillow and not in his kit?
A.1075 It might be -----

Q.1076 Was it found when he was asleep?
A.1076 If he was asleep.

Q.1077 Don't be technical. Do you dislike the accused?
A.1077 I have no feelings one way or the other.

Q.1078 You had been looking after the investigation right throughout. Apart from the medical assistance - there had been no provost assistance - were you not trying to find a solution to the shooting without any professional assistance?
A.1078 No, I don't think so.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.1079 You stated yesterday that you took the smell of cordite as evidence that the revolver had been recently fired. At what time did you smell it?
A.1079 Shortly after it was found. A matter of minutes.

Q.1080 At approximately what time did you smell it?
A.1080 It took 10 or 15 minutes to find out about Robinson. We went directly to Robinson's bed, and it was somewhere between 11:25 and 11:45 o'clock when the pistol was found - around that time approximately.

Q.1081 In other words 2355 hrs?
A.1081 Approximately.

Q.1082 You specifically examined the Orderly Offr's Report after this incident?
A.1082 Yes sir.

Q.1083 Did you see the Tattoo Roll Call for the night 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1083 I saw it the following morning. I didn't see it that night. I don't recall now if Robinson was marked as in that night or not. We checked on it the following morning.

Q.1084 Why the check in the following morning? Was Pte Robinson marked absent at Tattoo Roll Call?
A.1084 I can't verify that from memory.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1085 I think, Capt Snell, you said that when you saw the accused in bed his clothing was dirty?
A.1085 Yes sir. I remember they were dirty.

Q.1086 What do you mean by dirty? Oily, muddy, dusty or what?
A.1086 I would say dusty but I can't verify the type of dirt.

W.B.B.

Q.1087 You have in the course of your evidence referred to the accused's kit. How do you know it was his kit?
A.1087 I am not positive that it was his kit, but it was in his bed and around his bed. It is normal to find a man's kit around his bed.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS (Major J. Bernier, RCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, recalled, for Prosecution (already sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the decision of the Court was that the written statement and the answers by the accused to the questions when he was before Capt Snell in the 2 Bn Detn Room would not be admitted in evidence. So don't repeat any part of them, please.

Prosecutor:

Q.1088 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.1088 I do.

Q.1089 Will you tell the Court, as simply as possible, what happened on that evening?
A.1089 On the night of 2 Aug 44 I was reading in my room, immediately above the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.1090 I think it might be important if the Court were shown just where Major Bernier's room is on the sketch, Exhibit "G".
A.1090 My room is facing the one storey wing of the Ottawa Bldg on the second floor - the last room. (Witness marks spot with letter "L" on sketch.)

Q.1091 Carry on?
A.1091 At approximately 2300 hrs I heard a shot and then two other shots. I jumped up: went downstairs and found a group of offrs standing around a body sprawled in front of 2 Bn Mess entrance.

Q.1092 I would like you to indicate on Exhibit "G" the position of the body?
A.1092 Here. (Witness points to letter "H" on sketch.)

Q.1093 Will you tell the Court what was the attitude of the body?
A.1093 I only saw him for a brief moment. I remember the man was lying on his stomach. It seems to me his arms were outstretched and not at his side.

Q.1094 In what direction was he facing?
A.1094 His head was facing the Borden Bldg and his feet towards the Petawawa Bldg.

Q.1095 Will you carry on, please?
A.1095 The 2 Bn Orderly Offr, Lt Manahan, seemed to have the situation well in had so I left the scene. As I thought there might be an armed robbery, I went to my office and found everything in order. Then I returned to the general area of the incident. I was shown a set of identity discs by Lt McKee, who said .....

Q.1096 Carry on, but don't repeat conversations.
A.1096 The discs appeared to belong to B.144333 Pte D. Robinson and had the abbreviation for "Presbyterian" and "Canadian" on them.

Q.1097 Was there anything else, any other points of identification on these discs?
A.1097 They were two normal discs, tied together the way they should be, but the cord or string had been broken and, if I remember correctly, the discs had different information as to initials or rank. One had full initials and one had just one initial. I am not sure of this.

Q.1098 I now produce to you Exhibit "J". Can you identify these discs?
A.1098 Yes, these are the discs I was shown on that night.

Q.1099 Carry on, please.
A.1099 I went to Nos 1, 2 and 3 Bns to see if they had any record of Pte Robinson. We finally traced him at the Seaforth Coy Office of 2 Bn. I reported the fact to Capt Snell who had also found out the same information. I accompanied Capt Snell to the Seaforth billets. We found Pte Robinson in his proper bay, sleeping in his blankets. We awakened him. Pte Robinson's face and lips were bruised. There were scratches on his neck and his face. I went through his kit and found an American model .45 calibre revolver under the part of his blankets which formed a pillow. The revolver was empty and had, from the smell of powder, been recently fired.

Q.1100 Will you give to the Court any information you know about that revolver?
A.1100 It was American - I did not notice the make - of .45 calibre. It was in a rusty condition or unpolished in appearance. The number, model or issue was blurred. It had 1911 on it but I did not take the number until the following day. That is about all the information I know except that the magazine was on and was empty. There were no cartridges in the chamber.

Q.1101 Could you identify the revolver if you saw it again?
A.1101 I could.

Q.1102 How?
A.1102 From its general appearance and from its condition because I have a good memory.

Q.1103 I produce Exhibit "O". Will you examine this exhibit and tell the Court whether that is the same revolver or not?
A.1103 (Witness examines pistol) Yes, that is the same revolver.

Q.1104 At what time did you find this revolver?
A.1104 Approximately 2330 to 2345 hrs.

Q.1105 What did you do then?
A.1105 I looked through the rest of the kit and found a holster, presumably the one for the revolver in question. I found it in Pte Robinson's kit bag. I found no other fire arms or ammunition except his rifle which was hanging on the wall and had not been fired. I handed the revolver and holster to Capt Snell for safe custody.

Q.1106 How do you know the kit belonged to Pte Robinson?
A.1106 Because when he was sitting up in his bed, he acknowledged the fact that it was his kit.

Q.1107 How did he acknowledge it?
A.1107 I told him I was going to look through his kit. I asked him if it was his kit and he said, "Yes".

R.G.B.

Q.1108 What was the holster like?
A.1108 It was a light brown holster, not well polished. It had quite a few stains on it but no marks that I recall, no issue or serial number of any sort.

Q.1109 I produce a holster. Can you identify it?

Defending Offr:

In my opinion the methods of introducing the exhibit is objectional. The witness has not identified it by a proper description.

Judge Advocate:

He was only asked whether he was able to identify it or not. The Court will decide on the sufficiency of the identification, in due course.

(examination cont'd)

A.1109 I identify it from its badly polished condition.

Q.1110 Do you recognize that holster?
A.1110 I do recognize it.

Q.1111 What holster is it?
A.1111 That is the holster I found in the kit. (Brown leather holster stamped "US", admitted and marked Exhibit "P".)

Q.1112 Did you make any examination or search of the person of the accused?
A.1112 I did not.

Q.1113 What did you do then?
A.1113 Capt Snell had the accused placed under close arrest. Then the Cpl on duty was ordered to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn Guard Room and make a methodical search of the general area where Pte Robinson slept. I later accompanied Capt Snell to 2 Bn Guard Room while he questioned the accused and other witnesses as to the shooting.

Q.1114 Can you point out the accused in this Court Room?
A.1114 The accused is here (pointing) sitting by the Offr for the Defence.

Cross-examined:

Q.1115 Major Bernier, giving evidence before this Court has caused you considerable worry, hasn't it?
A.1115 I call it nervousness.

Q.1116 You have been worried about giving evidence?
A.1116 I am not used to the formality of the Court.

Q.1117 You are a little bit worried about the questions I am about to ask you?
A.1117 If I tell the truth I have nothing to worry about.

Q.1118 Since you found out I was the Defending Offr, haven't you been a little bit nervous and worried about the questions I would ask?
A.1118 I knew it would mean a lot of cross-examination.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, you wouldn't be flattering yourself by any chance?

W.B.B.

Defending Offr:

May I have that on the record, sir?

Q.1119 With the result that you have, since the taking of the Summary, read and re-read the evidence you gave in the Summary?
A.1119 I read it only once.

Q.1120 Thoroughly?
A.1120 Just once was the only time. I probably asked other witnesses ....

Q.1121 Have you ever referred to it in an attempt to refresh your memory?
A.1121 Just that once.

Q.1122 Did you memorize the statement you gave at the Summary?
A.1122 No. I had already repeated the story I knew five or six times. I have a photographic memory for certain of the details of what happened.

Q.1123 You saw the accused on his bed on the night of the incident, on the 2nd of Aug. What happened that night since you have such a photographic memory for detail?
A.1123 Only for certain details.

Q.1124 Have you the same photographic memory of what happened between 1130 and 1140 hrs this morning?
A.1124 Partly, yes.

Q.1125 Apart from the conversation you had in the presence of Capt Rose and myself, did you have a conversation with anyone else out there?
A.1125 I talked to the Cpl about the duration of the trial.

Q.1126 Did you talk to Capt Snell at all or have any words with him?
A.1126 I asked him whether he had been sitting down when giving his evidence.

Q.1127 Did you discuss the identification of the exhibits?
A.1127 No.

Q.1128 Did you discuss the questions asked him?
A.1128 No.

Q.1129 Why did you so anxiously point out the difference of a letter in the identity discs in the initials of the two discs?
A.1129 As far as I can recall, I noticed it on the night of 2 Aug when I was trying to find the initials for record purposes. I didn't get all the actual details.

Q.1130 Is that the only peculiarity in the initials on either one of them?
A.1130 That is all I remember. I have only seen the discs a few times.

Q.1131 You had the discs in your hand a few moments ago .....
A.1131 The only way I remember them is by the difference in the initials and rank on both of the discs.

Q.1132 What is the difference of initials and rank? Specify it?
A.1132 One has no initial or only has the initial "D".

Q.1133 Are you sure there is no difference in the type of the "PTE" or the position of the initials?
A.1133 I cannot say.

Q.1134 Will you tell the Court if when you first saw the identity discs you examined the string to see whether it was cut or broken?
A.1134 I did not.

Q.1135 Did you examine the type of knot?
A.1135 I did not.

Q.1136 You gave these identity discs a close examination?
A.1136 I gave them an examination as to rank, name and initials.

Q.1137 Then you can't say that these are the same identity discs because of any other mark of identification?
A.1137 They only bore the same number and name. In my opinion they are the same discs I saw that night.

Q.1138 That is a big difference. Now the holster, the only way you can identify it is that the holster is not polished?
A.1138 Yes.

Q.1139 How could you pick it out of a thousand holsters?
A.1139 By its form.

Q.1140 Could you be sure?
A.1140 Yes.

Q.1141 Are you prepared to state that that is the specific holster you took out of the kit of the accused - identify it specifically? Are you prepared to have your identification checked? Could you pick it out of a large group of holsters of the same size, shape and quality?
A.1141 Frankly, no.

Q.1142 So you cannot identify it specifically?
A.1142 Frankly, no.

Q.1143 Now, if I gave you a number of American .45 pistols of the same type and army serial numbers as Exhibit "O", all a little rusty and dirty and which had been fired, could you pick that one (points to Exhibit "O") out of a very large number?
A.1143 Yes.

Q.1144 And what is the specific thing you would use to identify it?
A.1144 One side of the grip is smooth and the other rough.

Q.1145 Is that unusual?
A.1145 Both sides should be the same.

Q.1146 When did you first memorize the number of the identity discs?
A.1146 The next morning I knew that I would have to establish the number in identifying the discs so I examined them thoroughly.

Q.1147 Capt Snell told us he asked the accused questions. Is that not true?
A.1147 Yes.

Q.1148 How did Robinson have a chance to tell you which was his kit - which kit to examine?
A.1148 As far as I recall there were only a few questions asked him. I had time to ask him a few.

Q.1149 Did you ask him during the actual questioning, before the questioning started or after the questions were asked?
A.1149 I can't say.

W.B.B.

Q.1150 Are you sure you can't remember?
A.1150 I remember I asked the accused where his large pack was. His large pack was at his head and his small pack to the left. I asked him which part of the kit belonged to him and made him show me where it was. He said, "Yes".

Q.1151 How did you and Capt Snell go about doing this?
A.1151 I don't know. I asked the questions.

Q.1152 In Capt Snell's presence?
A.1152 Yes.

Q.1153 As soon as you got hold of the identity discs and looked at the pistol, you made up your mind the accused was guilty, didn't you?
A.1153 No, I did not.

Q.1154 You didn't make up your mind. When did you first decide the accused was guilty?
A.1154 I would like to reserve my opinion. It was a matter of investigation.

Q.1155 Did you form a definite opinion that the accused was guilty of something or other?
A.1155 Yes, of something.

Q.1156 On what occasion did you change your opinion?
A.1156 I would not say.

Q.1157 When you first arrived at the body would you say there was a group around it?
A.1157 Yes.

Q.1158 How many?
A.1158 Five or six.

Q.1159 Were there any offrs?
A.1159 Some were offrs and some were guards and others.

Q.1160 Were there any spectators?
A.1160 Some of the offrs had rushed out of the Mess and there were people from the Guard Room. Whether there was anyone who had nothing to do with the business, I couldn't say.

Q.1161 You say the offrs rushed out?
A.1161 I don't know. I was on the second floor.

Q.1162 How long did it take you to get out?
A.1162 Less than a minute.

Q.1163 When you arrived at the doorway of the Offrs' Mess did you go right to the point where the body was?
A.1163 Yes.

Q.1164 What made you think that you were going to have a burglary in the Pay Office?
A.1164 I have always been safety-conscious. That has been stamped into me.

Q.1165 Did you check up other Pay Offices as well as your own?
A.1165 No, I was concerned with my own only.

Q.1166 You told the Court that in your opinion the revolver had been recently fired?
A.1166 Yes.

Q.1167 Do you know anything about revolver ballistics?
A.1167 No, I don't.

A.G.L.

Q.1168 Can you tell the Court the approximate time that elapsed between the firing and when you found the pistol?
A.1168 No.

Q.1169 Have you any evidence to link up the revolver with the shooting?
A.1169 The strong smell of burning powder.

Q.1170 Are you sure of the smell?
A.1170 Yes.

Q.1171 Can you estimate how recently the pistol had been fired?
A.1171 No.

Q.1172 Then there is no way of linking the shooting up with the pistol?
A.1172 No.

Q.1173 What makes you think the revolver you found had been fired?
A.1173 There was a smell of powder about that pistol that made me come to the conclusion that it had been fired.

Q.1174 Did you examine the accused's rifle?
A.1174 Yes.

Q.1175 How many cartridges were in the magazine?
A.1175 Ten.

Q.1176 What did you find on the examination of the barrel? Was it a thorough examination?
A.1176 Nothing. I didn't examine the barrel thoroughly.

Q.1177 You know the only way you could find out whether the barrel had been recently cleaned was from an examination of the pull-through?
A.1177 No.

Q.1178 You must have been particularly observant?
A.1178 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.1179 Why was it that you took such a prominent part in this investigation?
A.1179 I don't call it prominent. I found whose identity discs they were and where he was from.

Q.1180 You were a bright investigator weren't you?
A.1180 I was helping out.

Q.1181 You were helping out and took an extensive part in the investigation?
A.1181 I would not say that.

Q.1182 Why was there such a further kit inspection after you had taken the gun from the kit yourself?
A.1182 Because we just went through the kit. There were other men sleeping in the bay and we didn't want the other men disturbed.

Q.1183 Did you examine the scratches on the accused?
A.1183 I saw them.

Q.1184 Were they scratches which might have been made by fingernails?
A.1184 Yes.

Q.1185 Was there any attempt, to find out from Dillon's body, whether he had any blood under his fingernails?
A.1185 Not that I know of.

Q.1186 Did you know if the MPs or the DAPM or the British Special Investigation Bureau were sent for to assist in this case?
A.1186 I don't know.

R.H.B.

Q.1187 Do you know if any ballistic's information was received from the American ballistic people in Naples?
A.1187 I don't know.

Q.1188 Don't you agree that it was strictly an amateurish job as far as investigation was concerned?
A.1188 It was a preliminary investigation of the shooting.

Q.1189 Don't you agree it was amateurish?
A.1189 Other people took it up the next morning.

Q.1190 Don't you think it was an amateur investigation?
A.1190 It was a rough examination.

Q.1191 You have no specific qualifications?
A.1191 I report facts.

Q.1192 Have you any special experience or qualifications in conducting investigations?
A.1192 No.

Q.1193 Could you tell by an examination of Exhibit "J", the identification discs, whether or not the cord attached to them has been broken in the way which a string would break if pulled from the neck of a person wearing it?
A.1193 I would say it is possible.

Q.1194 Do you know how long the string is?
A.1194 Ten inches or a foot.

Q.1195 You have never measured it yourself, have you?
A.1195 No.

Q.1196 Do you suggest it was broken?
A.1196 Here and here is the point of two breaks; one here and one here. (witness indicates on cord of Exhibit "J")

Q.1197 Then you are stating that there are two breaks, one here and one at the other end. By that do you mean there is a piece missing?
A.1197 I don't know if a piece is missing.

Q.1198 The cord is not long enough to go around a man's neck? (demonstrates)
A.1198 No.

Q.1199 Then there is a piece of the string missing?
A.1199 Possibly.

Q.1200 Is it possible that this piece of string is the only part of the string that was around his neck?
A.1200 No, it isn't.

Q.1201 There must be a piece missing?
A.1201 Yes.

Q.1202 Therefore on a pull of the identity discs from the neck, there is apt to be only one break?
A.1202 That depends on the condition of the string.

Q.1203 The point of the string where the first force is exerted, is where the break occurs, isn't it?
A.1203 Yes, or also where there had been a knot and where the cord may have ....

Q.1204 Then, where there is a knot there will likely be a break?
A.1204 (Witness does not answer.)

9086.

Q.1205 I want an answer to the question?
A.1205 As I am not an expert .....

Q.1206 Do you know anything about it?
A.1206 I don't know.

Q.1207 Did you examine the shoes and socks of the accused when you got to his bed?
A.1207 I don't ..... no.

Q.1208 You can't tell how recently they had been taken off?
A.1208 No.

Q.1209 Did you go into that?
A.1209 No.

Q.1210 What light was used when you first got to the accused's bed?
A.1210 Candle light.

Q.1211 The Orderly Cpl says he got a lantern and took you and Capt Snell to the bay. Is that correct?
A.1211 I can't remember. I only remember what I said.

Q.1212 You don't remember about the light?
A.1212 No.

Q.1213 Then your photographic memory doesn't recall what kind of light there was on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1213 I don't remember.

Q.1214 I also suggest to you that you are not sure of the quarters in which you found Robinson - that it was the correct one as to bay and bed?
A.1214 I am sure.

Q.1215 Did a new draft come in recently?
A.1215 Yes.

Q.1216 Was it a fairly large draft?
A.1216 Not too large. We had had two drafts; one from the UK and one from the Armoured Corps - tradesmen and drivers from every arm of the service - transfers.

Q.1217 Wasn't it correct that Capt Snell had been out a good part of the night of the shooting and was a little "happy" when he came home?
Q.1217 He didn't appear that way.

Q.1218 He had had a few drinks?
A.1218 Yes.

Q.1219 What about you?
A.1219 I had not had a drink.

Q.1220 You had not?
A.1220 No.

Q.1221 Did you have a fairly clear view of Dillon's body as it lay on the parade square?
A.1221 No.

Q.1222 Did you have a chance to examine him?
A.1222 No.

W.B.L.

Q.1223 Were his sleeves up or down?
A.1223 I don't know.

Q.1224 Were his hands outstretched?
A.1224 Slightly clenched like this (witness indicates). I can't remember other details.

Q.1225 Were you able to see his wrist watch on his left wrist?
A.1225 No.

Q.1226 The finding of the body didn't excite or arouse you to remember details?
A.1226 There were five or six offrs present, and they had just called the doctor. It wasn't my business to interfere.

Q.1227 With your photographic memory, do you recall the condition of the body?
A.1227 Just the position of the body.

Q.1228 The only way you link the pistol with the accused is by the finding of it by or near his body, right?
A.1228 No.

Q.1229 Was there any difference in the type of scratches on the neck of the accused when you saw them? Did you see them?
A.1229 Yes, I did.

Q.1230 Were they a type of scratch that would have been made by fingernails?
A.1230 Yes.

Q.1231 There was no difference in length or width?
A.1231 Yes.

Q.1232 They were all scratches?
A.1232 Yes.

Q.1233 Were these three shots you heard fired in fairly rapid order?
A.1233 No, I would say they would be about three seconds apart.

Q.1234 Would you say that they sounded like the normal sound of a shot fired from a Tommy Gun?
A.1234 Not being an expert .....

Q.1235 You have fired weapons?
A.1235 Yes.

Q.1236 Was there some space or time that would elapse between the normal firing of a Tommy Gun?
A.1236 Yes.

Q.1237 What kind of books do you like reading?
A.1237 Anything - detective stories, travel and adventure stories.

Q.1238 You like detective stories?
A.1238 Yes.

Q.1239 Do you read Conan-Doyle?
A.1239 Not for a long time.

Q.1240 Can you estimate the period of time you stood at or near the body lying outside 2 Bn Offrs' Mess that particular evening?
A.1240 About half a minute. As I said before, the Duty Offr seemed to have everything in order; the MO was coming so I ran over to see that my money was all right.

W.B.B.

Q.1241 What clothing mainly did you find in the accused's kit?
A.1241 I didn't find anything unusual.

By the Court:

Q.1242 Would you describe how the accused was dressed when you found him?
A.1242 He was sitting up in bed so I can only give what appeared above the bed clothes. His underwear appeared to have been torn. He had no discs. That is all I can say.

Q.1243 You say there were three shots that you heard?
A.1243 As far as I can recall.

Q.1244 Were they close together?
A.1244 A spacing of one, two or three seconds.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1245 Major Bernier, there has been some questioning of your methods and of the part in which you played in the investigation. Did you do it from your sense of duty?
A.1245 Yes I did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

The Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

The Court re-opened at Sorrento at 1400 hrs, 28 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

NINETEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (Capt R.P. Jepson, 5 Mobile Neuro-Surgical Unit, RAMC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1246 You are attached to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. Is that right?
A.1246 That is right.

Q.1247 That hospital is located where?
A.1247 Naples.

Q.1248 Are you a Medical Doctor?
A.1248 Yes. I have medical degrees.

Q.1249 From what University?
A.1249 The University of Manchester.

Q.1250 Are you a licensed practitioner?
A.1250 Yes.

Q.1251 Will you give the Court your degrees?
A.1251 MB Manchester and BSc Manchester.

Q.1252 Are you licensed by the Medical Association?
A.1252 Yes.

Q.1253 Do you recall the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1253 The early morning of the 3rd of August.

Q.1254 What happened that morning?
A.1254 I was sleeping in my flat, situated not far from the Hospital, and a message came which called me to the Hospital. I then went to the Hospital and examined a patient who was referred to me as Dillon. He was suffering from a through and through bullet wound of his head which had entered the right frontal bone and came out through the right occipital bone.

Q.1255 What time was this?
A.1255 I saw him at 0230 hrs on the 3rd of August, according to my notes.

Defending Offr:

I wish to raise an objection. The witness said, "I see from my notes". What evidence is there that these are the notes in question?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1256 When were those notes made?
A.1256 At the time I first saw the man.

Defending Offr:

When did he last see the notes he made?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1257 When did you last see those notes?
A.1257 The notes were completed on the day he died. I think he died on the 7th or 8th of August.

Defending Offr:

This matter should be cleared up to the satisfaction of the Court. You will notice that the witness has in his hand a certain document - certain memoranda - and has not the permission of the Court to refer to them.

Prosecutor:

The witness has not referred to them in the Court.

Defending Offr:

The witness used the words, "I see by my notes", and referred to the notes in his hand.

Judge Advocate:

Q.1258 Is the document, which you are holding in your hand, the notes which you mentioned?
A.1258 Yes.

Q.1259 Who made them?
A.1259 They are not the original notes.

Q.1260 Who copied them?
A.1260 Col. Ashcroft.

Defending Offr:

The witness is not entitled to refer to that document.

Prosecutor:

His is not referring to it except to refresh his memory.

Defending Offr:

I don't wish to be difficult, but I know the witness received these particular notes outside this Court Room and carried them in .....

Prosecutor:

I am not intending to establish .....

Defending Offr:

The evidence, this witness is giving, is evidence that he has got from certain pieces of paper which he did not have a hand in making.

(examination continued)

Q.1261 Would you mind pointing out to the Court on your own head where the wound of entry was and where the wound of exit was?
A.1261 The wound of entry was roughly here and the exit roughly here: the line between the two being more or less horizontal. (the witness pointed first to the middle of the right forehead and then to the back of his head in line with the first point)

Q.1262 What caused this wound?
A.1262 A high velocity missile.

Q.1263 What happened to the patient after you first saw him?
A.1263 He was given a blood injection and was recussitated by having a tube put into his stomach for the purpose of administration of fluid.

Q.1264 Did you have anything more to do with the patient?
A.1264 Yes, I saw him again at 8:30 in the morning and operated on him at 0900 hrs.

Q.1265 What further attention did you give him?
A.1265 I saw him afterwards, perhaps two or times a day until he died.

Q.1266 What did he die from?
A.1266 He died from the effects of a severe brain injury and secondary bronchial-pneumonia.

Q.1267 Is bronchial-pneumonia a common sequence to a severe head injury?
A.1267 Where a patient is in a ~~comma~~ coma. from an injury to the head, you frequently get a lung condition which becomes infected causing pneumonia.

Q.1268 Do you know whether or not any person was treated in that hospital that night for wounds of that nature?
A.1268 Not to my knowledge. I would certainly have been called to see him if he had come in.

Q.1269 After the patient died, did you have any further dealings with him?
A.1269 No.

Cross-examined:

Q.1270 Apart from this particular head injury which you described as caused by a high velocity missile entering the right frontal bone, were there any other wounds in the head or body of the person you examined?
A.1270 No.

Q.1271 None apparent to you?
A.1271 No.

Q.1272 Did he have any bruises on his face or body?
A.1272 Not that I know of.

R.B.B.

Q.1273 Is secondary bronchial-pneumonia caused by a bug or a bullet?
A.1273 A combination of the two.

Q.1274 Does the bullet bring the bug?
A.1274 No.

Q.1275 You stated to the Court that the bullet travelled through the head of this person in a horizontal line?
A.1275 Yes.

Q.1276 Can you tell whether the front or rear bone was on a horizontal plane?
A.1276 No, I cannot answer that.

Q.1277 Would you say there was the slightest difference in that line?
A.1277 I didn't pay that much attention to it.

Q.1278 You realize how important it is to the Court in testifying what was the actual line from the standpoint of the entry of the wound?
A.1278 Yes.

Q.1279 I suggest this to you; that if a bullet is fired from a pistol, from a reasonably close range, at someone else, the entry wound would be slightly higher if he were shot from the rear than if shot from in front?
A.1279 It would depend on the angle of the head. If his neck was flexed and the man was holding the pistol down here (indicates), it would be in a perfect horizontal line.

Q.1280 How could it be a perfect horizontal line if he fired from behind and the head is forward at an angle? Then, if the shot was fired from behind, the wound of exit would be much higher?
A.1280 If the man was firing from behind, yes.

Q.1281 I am meaning with regard to the normal position of the bodies?
A.1281 Then, if his head is bent forward, the exit wound would be higher than the entry wound. You realize that by horizontal plane is meant the line taken between the ear and the eye.

Q.1282 Could you describe to the Court the type of wound that a piece of string would leave on a reasonably tender part of the skin if the piece of string were jerked from the neck?
A.1282 It depends on the violence of the jerking.

Q.1283 Would you say that, if it were a violent jerk, the resulting wound would be a scratch or a welt?
A.1283 If it was a violent jerk it would be a burn.

Q.1284 Doctor, I want to assume that you have a set of identity discs around your neck, and that they are pulled sharply away from your throat. Would the string, in breaking, leave two or more identical burns on the skin?
A.1284 It again depends on the amount of friction between the string and the skin. If it were a very good piece of string that would not break without a great pull; if it required great violence, you probably would get burns on both sides of the neck.

Q.1285 Could you tell the Court - describe the amount or type of burns which you referred to? Would it be a burn or a welt?
A.1285 In which order?

Q.1286 You realize perhaps that you are giving evidence before a Canadian Court, and you may be using the word "burn" in a different sense than the Court would understand it?
A.1286 Perhaps if I gave an example: say a rock climber, who after falling, say five or ten yards, is brought to a sudden stop by the rope, he would get second degree burns.

Q.1287 A second degree burn leaves quite a scar?
A.1287 No scar. Just a bruise.

Q.1288 And that would be .....
A.1288 That depends on the amount of skin surface covered by the string.

Q.1289 Could you tell the Court anything as to the range at which this missile was fired?
A.1289 No, I don't remember seeing powder marks on the skin.

Q.1290 Do you know how far away the pistol has to be held - how close to the body to leave powder marks?
A.1290 No.

Q.1291 How many doctors were there in the staff of 65 Brit Gen Hosp on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1291 You mean the whole of 65 Gen Hosp, both medical and surgical?

Q.1292 Yes, approximately how many?
A.1292 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.1293 Did you notice any bruises on the left forehead of the person you examined?
A.1293 No.

Q.1294 What is the usual medical method of determining which is the point of entry, and which is the point of exit in a case of this kind?
A.1294 I always tell by ascertaining where there is greater fragmentation of bone.

Q.1295 But had you seen the wound immediately after being inflicted, what would you look for to find the wound of entry and exit?
A.1295 Firstly, powder marks on the skin and then the relative size of the exit and entry wounds.

Q.1296 Which would be the larger?
A.1296 The exit wound is usually the larger.

Q.1297 If one wound is smaller than the other, both are exuding blood, then that would indicate to you that the small wound is the wound of entry and the larger is the wound of exit?
A.1297 Yes, it would be.

Q.1298 Now, is this small wound of entry and large wound of exit characteristic of both pistol and rifle bullet wounds?
A.1298 I believe so.

Q.1299 If there had been previous interference; if the wound had been previously dressed on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 by a surgeon; would it be possible that you could make a mistake as to which was the wound of entry or exit?
A.1299 I had no doubt at the time.

Q.1300 I used the word "interference"?
A.1300 That depends as to what you mean by "interference".

W.B.B.

Q.1301 If there had been interference in the surface dressings or inside the wound itself? If both front and rear wounds had been cleaned up?
A.1301 After a complete and formal operation, I could not tell.

Q.1302 How far would a complete and formal operation have to go?
A.1302 Would you like the details?

Q.1303 When you first treated this patient, you concentrated on the head injury?
A.1303 His general condition was first seen to .....

Q.1304 How far did you go?
A.1304 Took his pulse, checked his blood pressure and response to pain, and if he could talk.

Q.1305 When did you first examine his chest?
A.1305 At the time when I first saw him.

Q.1306 How far did you go?
A.1306 The usual examination was made.

Q.1307 With a stethescope?
A.1307 Yes, with a stethescope.

Q.1308 When you say you examined the patient referred to you as Dillon, you gained that information from a medical document?
A.1308 Yes.

Q.1309 Did you take any other steps for the identification of that particular body?
A.1309 No.

Q.1310 Did you take any further notice of the body?
A.1310 Not particularily, no.

Q.1311 Did you find any foreign skin or blood substance under his fingernails?
A.1311 No.

Re-examined:

Q.1312 What were the comparative sizes of the wounds of entry and exit?
A.1312 From memory I should say the entry wound size was about the size of a sixpence and the exit would was between the size of a shilling and a florin.

By the Court :

Q.1313 Doctor, from the appearance of the wound, did it seem if the shot was fired from a short or long distance away?
A.1313 I don't think you could tell.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1314 What was the date of this patient's death?
A.1314 The 7th or 8th.

Q.1315 Of August 1944?
A.1315 Yes.

W.B.B.

Q.1316 If we were to suppose that this patient had received no medical treatment before you saw him except to have two field dressings applied to his head on the occasion when he was discovered shot and then later had these dressings renewed, would you be able to determine the wound of entry and the wound of exit?

A.1316 At the time of the operation, yes.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

TWENTIETH WITNESS (Lt B.J. Dolan, 3 Bn 1 CBRD, for Prosecution (having been duly sworn, (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1317 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?

A.1317 Yes sir.

Q.1318 What were you doing that evening?

A.1318 On 2 Aug 44 I was Gd Comd, 1 CBRD.

Q.1319 What, if anything, happened that evening?

A.1319 At approximately between 1030 and 1100 o'clock in the evening I heard a shot, I immediately ordered the guard to stand to. While this was happening two more shots were fired. I got a party together to investigate the shooting. In front of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a body lying there. There was an offr in charge. He had the situation under control. I immediately took my party to investigate the buildings in the area. I found nothing out of the ordinary. I came back where the body was lying. He had been evacuated. We looked around the area and the Cpl of the Guard found an empty .45 casing. He turned it over to me. Later I turned the casing over to the Adjt, 2 Bn. That's all, sir.

Q.1320 Was that the only incident that night?

A.1320 No sir. Later I was called out again to investigate the case of a Sgt from the Cdn Dental Corps who had fallen out of an upstairs window in his quarters.

Q.1321 What was the name of the Cpl of the Guard?

A.1321 Cpl Ferguson, sir.

Q.1322 Will you describe the casing which he turned over to you?

A.1322 It was a casing that had been scraped, greyish in colour and not the ordinary .45 casing.

Q.1323 What type of a .45 casing was it?

A.1323 I do not know.

Q.1324 If there were several casings handed to you, similar in colour, would you be able to pick out the casing Cpl Ferguson handed to you?

A.1324 I have sworn by Almighty God, about two minutes ago, to tell the truth. I don't think I am capable of doing so, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.1325 You told the Court that a Dental Sgt had fallen out of a window in the barracks?

A.1325 I don't believe I said inside Canada Bks. The Dental Barracks are immediately outside on the road to Montefore.

Q.1326 That is outside, just at the end of the west wall of Canada Bks?

A.1326 It is immediately outside the west wall.

W.B.G.

Q.1327 On the road to Naples?
A.1327 Yes.

Q.1328 Did you form the opinion that the Dental Sgt had been drunk?
A.1328 When I got over there the Medical Offr was there. I questioned the men and found out what had happened.

Q.1329 As a result of the questioning, were you able to form any opinion?
A.1329 No sir.

Q.1330 You knew at that time there had been a shooting at Canada Bks?
A.1330 Yes sir.

Q.1331 Did you make any attempt to search the barracks of this Sgt to find a pistol?
A.1331 No sir.

Q.1332 Did you try to connect this incident of the fall of the Sgt with the shooting incident?
A.1332 No sir.

Q.1333 By that time the shooting was old history was it?
A.1333 Yes sir.

Q.1334 You say that you heard three shots fired?
A.1334 Yes sir.

Q.1335 Did you or did you not hear one and then two more?
A.1335 I heard one shot and called the guard. There was one or more after that.

Q.1336 How long did it take you to get the guard called out after the first shot?
A.1336 Approximately a couple of minutes, sir.

Q.1337 The main idea was for you and your guard to identify the person and catch him?
A.1337 We did not know what it was. In the past month in that barracks there had been shooting every night. We thought it was another case of a guard shooting at a man going over the fence or something.

Q.1338 It wasn't unusual to hear shots at this time?
A.1338 No sir.

Q.1339 Do you remember handling three cartridge casings?
A.1339 No sir.

Q.1340 How many did you handle?
A.1340 On the 2nd of Aug one was found. The next morning my Cpl passed me another one he found in the area.

Q.1341 He told you he found them?
A.1341 Yes sir.

Q.1342 Were you present with the Cpl when he found the first casing?
A.1342 Yes sir.

Q.1343 How close were you to him when he found it?
A.1343 Approximately two feet.

Q.1344 While you had the casings in your possession did you at any time mark them for specific identification?
A.1344 No sir.

W.B.B.

Q.1345 Did you handle any identification discs that evening?
A.1345 No sir. I recall something about some identification discs, but I didn't see them.

Q.1346 You made a search in the Records Office of the Seaforths for a certain name and number?
A.1346 Yes sir.

Q.1347 Where did you get the information as to the name and number?
A.1347 There was a Senior Offr present.

Q.1348 Did someone tell you what was on the identity discs?
A.1348 Yes sir.

Q.1349 That is the only way you got the information?
A.1349 Yes sir.

Q.1350 Now, having information as to the finding of the identity discs, did you come to the conclusion that the person referred to on the identity discs was guilty of the shooting?
A.1350 No sir.

Q.1351 Did you keep an open mind?
A.1351 Yes sir.

Q.1352 Did you form the conclusion that he had a strong connection with the case?
A.1352 No sir.

Q.1353 No conclusion at all?
A.1353 No sir.

Q.1354 Were there any fights in and around the gate at that time?
A.1354 No sir.

Q.1355 Apart from the Sgt falling out of the window and the shots you heard fired, was there anything unusual that evening?
A.1355 No sir.

Re-examined:

Q.1356 How far away was the building the Sgt fell out of from the Gd Room?
A.1356 At least 500 yards.

Q.1357 In what direction?
A.1357 On the road to Monteforte.

Defending Offr:

I think there is some confusion. We should refer to the sketch.

By the Court:

Q.1358 The building is on the road to Monteforte between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp?
A.1358 Yes sir. Between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp on the road to Montefore.

Q.1359 You stated there was shooting every night?
A.1359 Yes sir.

Q.1360 On what do you base that statement?
A.1360 From what I have seen.

Q.1361 Are you in the Barracks every night?
A.1361 No sir. I have been in the Barracks for a month.

Q.1362 You stated that it might have been one of the guards firing at somebody going over the fence?
A.1362 Yes sir.

Q.1363 To your knowledge has that ever happened?
A.1363 I could not swear to it, but I believe it has happened.

Q.1364 You don't know?
A.1364 No sir.

Defending Offr:

Sir, your questions were limited to soldiers. Was there any incident of Italians being fired at?

By the Court:

Q.1365 Were there any instructions given to you as Guard Commander that you keep out civilians or unrecognized persons from entering the front of Canada Bks?
A.1365 Not to my knowledge; no sir.

Q.1366 In other words the sentry uses his own judgment?
A.1366 Yes sir.

Q.1367 Can you tell the difference between a car back-firing and a shot?
A.1367 No sir.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1368 Lt Dolan, do you know the name of the offr whom you said had the situation under control where the body was found in front of the 3 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.1368 Truthfully, no sir.

Q.1369 Do you know the name of the 2 Bn Adjt to whom you gave the .45 casing?
A.1369 Yes sir.

Q.1370 Who was it?
A.1370 At that time, Lt Snell, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

TWENTY-FIRST WITNESS (Lt H.J. MacComb (48 Highrs), 3 Bn 1 CBRD for Prosecution (having been duly sworn,
(is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1371 Do you recall 3 Aug 44?
A.1371 Yes I do.

Q.1372 To what unit did you belong at that time?
A.1372 3 Bn 1 CBRD.

Q.1373 What happened that day as far as you were concerned?
A.1373 I was on a Court of Inquiry.

Q.1374 Will you tell the Court what you did as a result of receiving instructions from the President of that Court of Inquiry?
A.1374 I went over to the Gd Room.

Q.1375 What did you do in the Gd Room?
A.1375 I searched the belongings of the accused and the accused's person. I found two fountain pens which I turned over to the President of the Court.

W.B.B.

Q.1376 Who was this person you searched?
A.1376 I don't know his name but I would know him to see him.

Q.1377 Is that person in this Court Room?
A.1377 Yes he is.

Q.1378 Will you point him out to the Court?
A.1378 There sir. (witness points to the accused)

Q.1379 Will you describe to the Court the fountain pens that you took off the accused on the morning of 3 Aug 44?
A.1379 I cannot describe them closely. I know that they were two grey pens. One was light grey and one darker grey.

Q.1380 By "light grey" what do you mean?
A.1380 Fairly light; nearly white.

Q.1381 I propose to show you two pens, and all you are required to do is to say "yes" or "no".

Defending Offr:

I am going to object to the witness being shown the pens on the ground that there is not a real test being made. Have him pick these pens out of a group of pens. I am going to object to his answering "yes" and "no". If he feels the proper answer is not "yes" or "no", he is allowed, I believe, to give his answer as he sees fit. The person asking the witness is bound by the whole of the reply which is elucidated from the question.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, I see no objection to the witness being shown two pens and asked if he is able to identify them. He has described two pens which he claims to have found in the accused's kit or person - one being light grey in colour and the other being dark grey in colour. The witness is not prepared to go further in his identification. The Court will give due regard to the sufficiency of his identification. If the witness is prepared to identify them, I think the pens should be admitted,- if you like, subject to your objection.

Defending Offr:

I want the identification to be subject to my objection, sir.

Prosecutor:

Q.1382 I now show you three pens. Can you identify any of them?
A.1382 This is definitely one. (witness indicates light pearl grey fountain pen) These two I can't be sure of. (witness indicates fountain pen marked Exhibit "I" and a grey fountain pen similar in appearance to Exhibit "I")

Q.1383 These two you cannot be sure of?
A.1383 No. (fountain pen, light pearl grey in colour admitted and marked Exhibit "Q")

Q.1384 Where did you find these pens?
A.1384 They were on the accused's person. He gave them to me himself.

Q.1385 When you said you could not be sure what did you mean?
A.1385 The other two pens look alike. I cannot swear to either one of them.

K.B.B.

Cross-examined:

Q.1386 Why did you say that the pen, Exhibit "Q", is definitely one that you could identify?

A.1386 I do not understand.

Q.1387 Why did you say, "this is definitely one"?

A.1387 It is the same pen I picked up that day. That is the only pen I have ever seen of that colour. I am pretty sure that this is the same one.

Q.1388 Did you mark either of the two pens specifically for future identification?

A.1388 There is one definite mark on one of the pens. One had tooth marks on it.

Q.1389 On the bright white pen?

A.1389 Yes.

Q.1390 On the white pen?

A.1390 I don't know. I think it is on the white pen. It is so long ago that I -----

Q.1391 Did you yourself put any specific identification mark on either of these two pens?

A.1391 I didn't.

Q.1392 Who handled the two pens next?

A.1392 The President of the Court.

Q.1393 Who was that?

A.1393 Major Morgan.

Q.1394 Did you ever see the pens again before to-day?

A.1394 I saw them the next day.

Q.1395 Under what circumstances?

A.1395 Pte Wilcock, a 48 Highr, claimed he had had one stolen from him and wanted to identify his.

Q.1396 Was that in connection with your duties on the Court of Inquiry?

A.1396 Yes sir.

Q.1397 Did you see them again after that?

A.1397 No, I didn't.

Q.1398 You never have?

A.1398 I have never seen them since.

Q.1399 When were you first told you would be giving evidence on a subsequent trial?

A.1399 I was never told I was going to give evidence.

Q.1400 Were you advised by Capt Snell as to what evidence you were going to give?

A.1400 No.

Q.1401 How did he know what you were going to say in Court to-day?

A.1401 That is right, there was a 'phone call to Naples that I would have to identify the pens.

Q.1402 If I put the pen, Exhibit "Q", in with a group of 15 or 20 other identical pens, would you definitely be able to pick it out?

A.1402 I would not be sure.

A.A.G.

Q.1403 Now, when you went to the accused to get these pens, you had him indicated to you at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1403 I don't remember whether it was before or after.

Q.1404 Had you seen the accused or had him under observation for some little time prior to to-day?
A.1404 I just saw him the day I went to the Court of Inquiry; the day we had him at the Court of Inquiry.

Q.1405 The accused was given quite a grilling at your Court wasn't he?
A.1405 The Major asked him a few questions.

Q.1406 What do you mean by "a few"?
A.1406 About 15 or 20, I imagine.

Q.1407 Did Major Morgan or any member of the Court administer the caution to the accused that he need not answer questions that would criminate him at any time prior to giving evidence?
A.1407 I don't remember.

Q.1408 Would you have remembered if that had been done?
A.1408 I cannot say.

Q.1409 Wasn't the accused at that time ever told by any members of the Court that he was under oath when giving evidence?
A.1409 Not that I remember.

Q.1410 You didn't let Robinson go until you were satisfied that you had got all the information out of him? Is that not correct?
A.1410 That is correct.

Re-examined:

Q.1411 In your cross-examination, you stated that Wilcock identified the pen. Was the accused present when Wilcock made the identification?
A.1411 No, I don't think so.

Q.1412 You stated that one of the pens had a tooth mark on the nib, right?
A.1412 That is right.

Judge Advocate:

He did not say that. I think he just said tooth marks and nothing about a nib.

Defending Offr:

Having asked the last question, it is rather useless to ask it in a different way now.

By the Court:

Q.1413 When the accused was being searched by you in the presence of the other people in the Gd Room, was there any conversation between you and him when the pens were found?
A.1413 No, there wasn't.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1414 You mentioned a Court of Inquiry which was held on 3 Aug 44, and you also stated that Major Morgan was President of a Court. Is that the same Court of Inquiry you first mentioned?
A.1414 Yes.

Q.1415 When you went to the Gd Room to make this search, was that before or after the accused had given evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1415 I am not sure. I think it was after.

Q.1416 What particular Gd Room was it that you went to?
A.1416 2 Bn Gd Room.

Q.1417 And I think you told the Court you found these two pens on the person of the accused?
A.1417 That is right.

Q.1418 In what manner?
A.1418 They were handed to me by the accused himself.

Q.1419 Where did he get them?
A.1419 He took them out of his inside pocket.

Q.1420 What did you say to the accused that made him reach into his pocket and hand them to you?
A.1420 I asked him to empty his pockets. He did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

The Prosecution is closed.

Court adjourned at 1540 hrs.

Court re-opened at Avellino at 1000 hrs, 29 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

Defence did not require Major J.R.H. Morgan for cross-examination.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Mr. President, I wish to make a motion pursuant to the provisions of fn 1 to RP 40. The evidence adduced by the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused, having regards to the facts alleged in the charge sheet. The accused, therefore, should not be put upon his defence. At this time, as the Judge Advocate will probably advise you, the only question which the Court has to consider is whether or not the offence alleged has been proven. The question of a special finding or conviction of a lesser offence does not arise. I will, in the course of my remarks, make certain allegations against the Prosecution. I would, at this time like the Court to be firmly convinced that these allegations are not against the Prosecuting Offr in this case. When I use the term "Prosecution", I refer to the investigation which started on the night of the 2nd of August and which lead to the evidence which has been submitted to the Court in the past few days. I would further state that the conduct of the Prosecuting Offr, in my mind and in the mind of the accused, has been most fair. When I use a loose expression, such as "the Prosecution", I refer entirely to the history of this case which started some time between 2330 hrs and 2345 hrs, 2 Aug 44, and also to the amount of investigation, both legal and special, which is on the record and which the Court must examine. I may also state that both I, as Defending Offr, and the accused, who is on trial, consider that the Court which is judging the guilt or innocence of the accused has been completely fair. The Defence has not been hampered by the Court in any way shape or form. The accused has had a considerate and kindly hearing. However, I intend to castigate the prosecution for their sins of omission, rather than their sins of commission. These remarks I hope the Court will interpret as a castigation of the individuals who first took charge of this investigation. You have had one reference by a witness for the Prosecution that legal advice was sought in completing or preparing the case against the accused. That reference deals entirely with the assistance sought of Capt Bate in his capacity as ADJA at HQ 1 CBRGp. The whole Court has sufficient Army experience to know that Capt Bate, in his official capacity as ADJA, considers the Summary of Evidence and charge sheet before trial. Therefore, the Court must accept the fact that his responsibility is the technical and legal responsibility to decide that the written or typewritten sheets discloses an alleged offence. The ADJA on any HQ is neither an amateur or professional detective. He is the legal assistant to the Comd. Therefore, any evidence as to the assistance which the Prosecution sought from his department should naturally be depricated. When one considers that he is not, nor ever was intended to be, a "Sherlock Holmes", I submit that the reference which the witness, namely Capt Snell, made to his "assistance" should be discarded completely. Capt Bate gave his assistance to these incompetents by virtue of the kindness of his heart and not because of the duties which naturally flow from his particular appointment. The evidence submitted by the Prosecution is purely circumstantial. It may be felt by the Court to be quite strong circumstantial evidence. I refer the Court to MML Chap VI, para 42, pp 91-2. (reads para 42) The entire history of this case has been full of sins of omission, perhaps the grossest of which is the failure of supposedly competent and qualified offrs, with normal mental capacity and education, to call upon any military police - either Canadian, British, or American to assist them. Had this been done, the Court would undoubtedly have been supplied with certain expert ballistic evidence as to whether the pistol, Exhibit "O", had been recently fired and whether or not the two empty cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", had been ejected from that pistol. At this stage in the trial, the cartridge casings have not been connected with the pistol in any way. In view of the evidence before the Court, the normal assumption must be that they were, in fact, not fired from the same weapon. It does not take expert evidence to see that the mark made by the firing pin on Exhibit "M" is different from the mark on Exhibit "N". Nor does it take expert evidence to see that had Exhibits "M" and "N" been the spent cartridge casings which were ejected as a result of the last two shots that were fired that night from the same weapon, the person firing the weapon must have been flying a Spitfire in order to cover the distance between the places the casings were found - a space of some 200 to 250 yards in approximately two seconds. I suggest to the Court it is a matter of their common knowledge, and a matter of which they can take judicial notice; that a pistol ejecting two spent cartridge casings would eject them in roughly the same area, providing no mechanical defects between the first and second shots. The Prosecution has made no attempt to explain the relevancy of the cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", either to the specific weapon or to the specific shooting. This tends to confuse rather than to assist the Court. Until such time as Exhibits "M" and "N" are related in some way to the accused and to the offence charged, these exhibits should not be admitted in evidence. In fact, from the evidence before the Court, it is much more likely that these cartridge casings came from some other weapon and from a prior shooting. The evidence before the Court shows that the firing of weapons in Canada Bks at that time of night was not unusual; that according to the only Guard Commander examined, apart from Lt Dolan, shooting at 2200 hrs nightly was a notorious fact; that there were a large number of drunks around the gates and in the area of Canada Bks on the night of the 2nd of Aug 44; that around the 2nd of August, Thompson Machine Carbines were being fired daily on the ranges; and that Thompson Machine Carbines

W.B.B.

were in good supply at that time. Therefore, any soldier who had surplus ammunition and who did not fill his magazine completely could have quite easily put some extra rounds into his pocket. There has been a certain amount of cross-examination on what might be termed ballistics evidence. Yet in my cross-examination I have attempted, on this point, to limit it to that type of ballistics evidence which could be defined as matters that come within the Court's general military knowledge. In that way I have avoided the calling of expert ballistic witnesses. As the Judge Advocate will probably advise you later, ballistic evidence comes well within the general military knowledge of the members of the Court, who are commissioned offrs of the Canadian Army. Therefore, that evidence complies with RP 74. The Court has three specific problems to decide in the matter of identification alone. First they must have a corpus delecti, and he must be identified as the person described in the charge sheet. Secondly, the accused must be identified with the offence. Thirdly, there must be specific identification of the exhibits tendered in evidence. This has not been done in the case of any of the three. Dealing with the first; the Court only has evidence that a set of identity discs were buried. There is no proper identification of the person described in the charge sheet with the person who was certified dead and subsequently buried. Without labouring this particular point, if the Court will only refer to the evidence concerning a certain medical document; the document which admits a soldier to hospital, it will recall that the name and number of the person on that document was put on it by Capt Verdicchio as a result of what someone told him. The certificate concerning the person treated and the certificate as to the person buried is an identification only by virtue of what someone told someone else - statement made not in the presence of the accused. Look at Capt Tootell's evidence. The Court can well remember that I examined him as to the time he saw the patient as recorded in his diary. He gave a fairly unsatisfactory explanation. He could not have seen that person before 0200 hrs 3 Aug 44 as the admission paper shows it was at 0145 hrs. He has told you that he buried someone whose name he assumed was Dillon, by virtue of information he received concerning a person admitted on the 2nd of August 44. He was checked carefully as to this. Therefore, according to his evidence, the person he buried on 8 Aug 44 is a person who was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp prior to the time the person who was shot at Canada Bks could have got there.

One observation I would like to make is, that it is not the duty of the Court either to correct the mistakes made by the Prosecution or to fill in the gaps left by either the Defence or the Prosecution when you have persons with legal qualifications assisting the Court in presenting the evidence to it. It is well known that it is a principle of British justice that it is better that nine to ten guilty men should go free than for one innocent man to be hung. The Court must look to the Prosecuting Offr and to the Defending Offr to assist them in examining all the angles involved in any offence; particularly in a case like this which presents more than the usual difficulties encountered in ordinary Field General Courts Martial. The Defending and Prosecuting Offrs are charged with presenting a case, properly investigated, to the best of their ability. The Court will decide on the guilt or innocence of the accused person on the evidence adduced and admitted on the record. To carry on with the identification details encountered in this particular case; there is only one instance of any specific identification of the accused with the alleged shooting of Dillon. This is evidence of Cpl De Harte. Cpl De Harte stated that he saw the accused on the parade square arguing with the man who supposedly gave his name as "Dillon".

De Hart went further. He identified the accused specifically as the man who was arguing with this nebulous Dillon. De Harte's evidence shows that the argument between Dillon and the accused was the third argument, I believe I am correct, with which he had occasion to interfere that evening. He could not identify the other two people that he stopped arguing before he had words with the person he identified as the accused. Why? I ask the Court to disregard completely the identification evidence given by Cpl De Harte, especially in view of the subsequent history of that identification he gave in cross-examination. De Harte has himself told the Court that before he was asked to identify the accused he had the accused under observation for some 45 minutes while the accused was waiting to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry. There the accused stood between two escorts, without a hat on. So that, before De Harte was called on specifically to identify the accused, he had had him under observation for some time. According to his own evidence, he came to the conclusion that the accused was closely linked with the shooting on the night of 2 Aug 44. Bearing in mind this period of observation, the Judge Advocate will advise you as to the degree of reliability to be attached to such identification evidence. I submit the accused should be granted all the rights and privileges afforded an accused by the civil and criminal courts in Canada. When a man puts on a uniform and becomes a soldier, nevertheless, when charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act of committing a civil offence, he should be given the benefit of the rights extended to him in Canadian civil and criminal courts. He should not be deprived of his civil rights merely by virtue of the fact that he has offered his services to his country and now wears khaki and not zombie garb. Dealing more specifically with De Harte's evidence;- let us analyse the psychological features of the human mind. You are acquainted with people who, as a result of subsequent consideration of what they saw, come to the conclusion that because certain facts should be so, they are so. As a result of that subsequent consideration, they suffer from the hallucination that it actually is so. I throw a challenge to you as individuals, to consider whether you are satisfied in your minds that De Harte saw the accused, as he said, or came to that conclusion as a result of having the accused under observation subsequent to 2 Aug 44. Can you, as reasonable individuals, accept his statement beyond a reasonable doubt? I strongly protest against the unfair and incompetent manner in which the accused was handled prior to the proper identification parade. I protest against the manner in which the accused was publically paraded under escort before a proper identification was made. The Court must consider very carefully the amount of reliability which can be placed on De Harte's identification. I submit that there is a sufficiently strong doubt to disregard that identification entirely. Its reliability has been completely upset. I request the Judge Advocate, in his summing up, to refer to the usual proper criminal methods of identification in civilian courts and specifically to mention the number of cases and the type of cases which the Courts have thrown out because of improper and incompetent identification. The identification of the exhibits is unreliable and incomplete. In only one instance has a specific exhibit been identified. That was when Major Bernier identified the pistol, Exhibit "O", by means of the difference in the sides of the handle or butt grip. The right hand grip, as you noticed, is smooth; whereas, the left hand grip is rough - the ordinary grip. Major Bernier, however, did not bring out that specific means of identification in his examination. It was not until he was closely questioned in cross-examination that he finally remembered. That pistol passed through many hands. That pistol, in the hands of competent people, would have been closely studied for any specific features as well as the serial number. No one yet has identified that pistol in the proper manner by its serial number. Major Bernier, as an after thought, imagined the difference in the sides of the butt plate. Never, at any time prior to the taking of the Summary of Evidence, were any of the exhibits specifically marked . No one, therefore, can say that the exhibits, that have been tendered in evidence, are the objects found on the 2nd or 3rd of August. The Court is now in the position of having before it exhibit evidence of no specific or substantial value. The doubt which must arise in their minds negatives the evidentiary value of those exhibits. Therefore, they are valueless in linking the accused with the offence alleged in the charge sheet. You will, no doubt, be advised by the Judge Advocate that no matter how amateur our Canadian Police are - how amateur they may be in investigating an offence - they always tag an exhibit. It is immediately marked for identification and kept in safe custody until it is presented in evidence at trial. I refer to a case at which the present Judge Advocate sat as Judge Advocate; which I think was tried on the 21st or 22nd of December, 1943. I was defending. There were two main exhibits, one of which was a beer bottle. The original handling of that exhibit was incompetent. It was a question of identifying certain fingerprints on that bottle as having been made by the accused. The bottle was not marked by the first person finding it. It subsequently came into the hands of the civilian police and was properly kept in safe custody until the trial. But its evidentiary value was negatived because of the incompetence of the first person examining it. In the English Courts - I say this from personal knowledge - it seems that exhibits do not have to be marked with the same care that they do in the Canadian Courts. But I draw your attention to the fact that you, as president and members of this Court, are Canadians trying a Canadian soldier. Therefore, you should allow him the same consideration which a Canadian criminal court would allow him in deciding him guilty or not guilty of this offence. The history of this case indicates that the handling of these exhibits has been amateurish. I submit that the prosecution witnesses had seen them time and time again before they identified them before this Court. There is evidence that a Court of Inquiry was held prior to this trial. You had a Summary of Evidence taken and you have had this trial. There may have been some check made, but there has been no instance of a proper identification. The Court will realize that, because the Prosecutor and the Defending Offr had neither the chance nor the opportunity of controlling the type of investigation these individuals conducted, the evidence has not been presented as it would be in civilian life. Some of you may consider that we give up these civil rights and privileges by virtue of serving our King and Country. It does not matter one iota whether a man serves with a base unit or serves for months in the front line. The fact that he has signed an attestation paper makes him liable to be sent into any theatre of operations if His Majesty, through his representatives, deems fit. I don't want the Court to be prejudiced for one minute because this individual came from a Base Unit, or that he should be given any different consideration because this incident did not happen within a few yards of the German trenches. Without labouring too much the identification of the exhibits - the guilt or innocence of the accused is to be determined by offrs who have had normal training: what is known as "training common-to-all-arms". So without going into expert ballistic evidence, let us deal specifically with Exhibits "M" and "N", the spent cartridge casings. The distinct features in the identification of spent cartridge casings are the company which manufactured them; the year in which they were manufactured; the mark made by the firing pin, especially its size and position; and the marks made when the empty casings are ejected. There are many other ways in which an expert can identify a spent casing, but the ways I have cited are known to the amateur. There are also matters which come well within the Court's general knowledge, and, therefore, judicial notice can be taken of them pursuant to RP 74. The absence of proper identification, under any of the three headings I have mentioned, would be sufficient for a Judge of a Canadian Criminal Court to refuse to admit such exhibits in evidence. Then consider the ridiculous evidence that was tendered to the Court the other morning by Capt Snell and Major Bernier when they stated that the pistol which was found in the area of the accused's bed had been fired. Yet the Court is left hanging in the air because they could not state specifically or even attempt to explain in hours what they meant by "recently fired". None of us has any idea as to time elapsed or assumed time elapsed from the word "recently". Yet according to their evidence, had the pistol which was found been the pistol which was used in the firing of the shots which the witnesses refer to in their evidence, it must have been in their hands in less than 45 minutes from the firing of that particular weapon. Any person with the slightest knowledge of weapons and who has made tests will realize that a pistol smells identically the same four hrs after it has been fired as it smells 15 or 20 minutes later. These two witnesses dare to offer their evidence, in spite of the fact that one is a member of the Pay Corps, completely lacking the experience of a normal regimental offr in the field; while the second, Capt Snell, had been on a party and had been drinking. That Capt Snell drinks is not unusual - but he had been at a party. No reflection is intended in referring to that drinking. Yet it is a notorious fact according to medical science that indulgence in alcoholic stimulants dulls all senses, including the sense of smell. The responsibility of passing a death sentence based on the nebulous memories of these two witnesses as to the events of the evening of 2 Aug 44 is a responsibility not to be taken lightly. If such a sentence were put into effect, it might well be the cause of nightmares and many future sleepless hours for the members of the Court. Dealing with certain parts of the medical evidence - the Court must give careful consideration as to the cause of the death of Pte Dillon, the person named in the charge sheet. That consideration must include whether or not the wound of entry was in the front or in the back of the head. Here again the Court must look to the Defence and not to the Prosecution for assistance. No attempt has been made to establish which was the wound of entry and which the wound of exit. It is important for the Court to determine whether this person was shot from behind while walking in an upright position, by someone across the roadway at Canada Bks, or was he knocked down by an assailant, and when falling, reached out, grabbing at the assailant and clutched the set of identity discs, pulling them off and was he still holding them firmly while unconscious after having been shot? The presence of the identity discs must be satisfactorily explained by the Prosecution. What is the interpretation that is to be placed on it, taking into consideration the marks on the neck, and under the chin of the accused that were observed when he was subsequently examined?

W.B.B.

The latter seems to be the theory of the Prosecution. Yet it has one inconsistency. It is, as suggested, Dillon, in his last moment of consciousness, grasped these identity discs from the neck or throat of the accused at the time he was shot. I think there is medical evidence to the effect that he would have held on to them for dear life. Capt McKee would have found them tightly clenched in his hands and would not have had too easy a time removing them. Had they been grasped a moment or two before the shot was fired then the shot must have been fired from behind as the man fell forward on his face. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Major Davidson was that he was shot from in front. Had the deceased first got hold of the discs and had afterwards been hit by the bullet he would have instinctively made a last movement - put his hands out to break his fall. The evidence is that the identification discs were found in his hand, but ordinarily if his fingers had been outstretched to break his fall, the identity discs would have dropped and fallen in close proximity to his left hand. Then consideration must be given to the manner in which Capt McKee told the Court the way in which the identity discs were found in the hands of the deceased. You will recall that he could not say definitely whether both identity discs were covered by the palm, but he made a point of holding them in this manner, indicating that they had been picked up or handled some time prior to the bullet entering Dillon's head. What other explanation can the Court reasonably take of the manner in which these identification discs came into the hand of the deceased? In order to make it easier for the Court to reach a satisfactory determination, let us consider the effect of seven, eight or 12 people milling around that body when it was first found. You will well realize the confusion which must happen over the finding of a body seriously wounded at a base area where enemy action is not expected or contemplated. Did or did not someone who came within a foot of the body lean down, examine the body and put the identity discs there? That is something that must be given consideration and only discarded on specific evidence and for specific reasons. The Court must reconstruct this shooting. They must find a satisfactory answer as to what happened and come to a conclusion beyond a reasonable doubt. The explanation, which the Court must make as to the finding of these identity discs, must be an explanation, not only that the accused committed the crime, but one that is inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. This may not be in strictly chronological order, but let me draw your attention to two even greater inconsistencies respecting the identity discs in order to show you that they could not have been pulled from the neck of Robinson by Dillon immediately prior to the alleged shooting. If you examine the string you will see that the part that would go round the neck is only 11½ inches long. To verify this measurement the Court may take a ruler and check. That obviously is not long enough to go around the neck of the accused. Therefore, the string must have been broken in two places. If it was broken when pulled from the accused's neck, then only one break would occur . It is a matter of notoriety that, when a piece of string is pulled sharply, it breaks at the point of resistance, normally. It may also break at a point close to a knot. This string shows no presence of a knot. The first resistance would normally be at the back of the neck equidistant from the top of the identity discs and, all other things being equal, would break at that point of first resistance. I suggest that this piece of string is not broken sufficiently close to the knot to have been broken in two places at the same time. Therefore, had the string been broken in two places by the deceased, Dillon, in his last dying grasp, the other piece of string which is missing should have been readily found. Now dealing with the next point, the Court must bear in mind that I knew we were going to have an adjournment. The Judge Advocate will probably tell you that as Defending Offr it is up to me to represent the accused in the best manner I can and therefore, in doing that, I must save my ammunition as long as I can. That must be apparent to the Court from my examination of Capt Jepson, the last medical witness. In order that I might not indicate to the Prosecution too clearly what I was searching for in establishing the type of wounds observed on the neck of the accused on the night of the 2nd of August, I refrained from asking questions as to the type of scar or burn or wound which would be left by a piece of string being pulled sharply against a piece of tender skin. It does not matter whose evidence the Court believes. All the people who gave evidence as to the type of bruises or scratches on the neck of the accused, stated that they were of the type of scar or wound left by fingernails.. They also stated that, apart from the length and width of these scratches, there was no difference in them. Therefore, there is no evidence before the Court that the deceased pulled these identity discs from the neck of the accused. Therefore by virtue of the lack of that evidence, the Court cannot find that Dillon grasped these identity discs and pulled them from the accused's neck on the night of the incident. Without labouring the point any further, the medical evidence tendered yesterday by Capt Jepson was that there were no marks or bruises or scratches on Dillon when he examined him. It is rather ridiculous to say that he could have beaten up the accused, Robinson, and put all these scratches, marks and bruises on his face and not have received one blow in return. Yet the inference is there;- that, in spite of all that, Robinson shot him while standing face to face with him. That is a conclusion which cannot be rationally substantiated. The people who examined Robinson were unanimous that the scratches were of the same type. There was no welt suggested, such as would be produced by the string being pulled sharply across his skin. I suggest to the Court that any competent police offr, once having found the scratches on the neck and throat of the accused, would immediately have an investigation made to find the wounded individual and examine his fingernails in order to see if any foreign substance, such as skin or blood, was found under his fingernails. This was not done and the Court has been deprived of the opportunity of having this evidence to assist them in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. To complete the remarks on the medical evidence, I feel that a post mortem report should have been submitted in evidence by the Prosecution. The Court well knows there was a post mortem report. I have it. It was readily available. On that post mortem report and according to Capt Jepson, there were two causes of death. Has the first, the pneumonia been satisfactorily explained? Did Dillon have the pneumonia bug prior to the examination at 65 Brit Gen Hosp? Neither Verdicchio, Davidson or Grossman, as medical offrs examined the chest and lungs of Dillon. All I can say in this regard is that pneumonia is caused by a bug and not by a bullet. It is now the Court's responsibility to decide, from the evidence adduced, what part was played by pneumonia in the death of Dillon. There are several medical features to the case which have not been explained. It has not been satisfactorily established what the medical terms imply. The medical evidence is completely unsatisfactory. The sins of omission in the medical case history of the deceased must prevent the Court's coming to a definite finding beyond a reasonable doubt. Assuming for a moment that the accused handled the lethal weapon that evening, his subsequent conduct, knowing that he had committed a felonious act, is inconsistent with the normal and rational conduct of any human individual in the circumstances. Could he have been found on the parade square at 2250 hrs with a lethal weapon and, after committing a felony, be found asleep at 2350 hrs when he was found by Capt Snell and Major Bernier? I draw the Court's attention to the way in which Capt Snell and Major Bernier gave their evidence as to whether or not the accused was asleep. They, as individuals, were not prepared to give the accused the benefit of the doubt. They became technical and said that he appeared to be sleeping. I think it a fair conclusion to say that once the identity discs, and the pistol had been found by Major Bernier and Capt Snell, the accused, in the eyes of these two offrs, had been found guilty and hung, drawn, and quartered. There is no other rational explanation as to why he should be placed under immediate arrest by Capt Snell when the pistol was found. Now the Court must also consider the place where the pistol was found and must bear in mind that the holster which seemed to relate to that pistol, allegedly was found in the kit of the accused. The holster, sir, is usually used to keep a pistol in. Therefore, if the pistol had been taken out that night and brought back, it would normally have been placed in the holster. The only reason that the pistol would have been taken out and placed under the pillow was that the accused probably carried a considerable amount of money with him. This was not given in evidence - the results of searching the accused. Therefore, your normal assumption would be that he would take the pistol out, bring it back and replace it in the holster. The important point to consider about the pistol is that, in Army phraseology, it was a buckshee weapon. It is not on charge to the accused and apart from the serial number, cannot be linked with the accused. Therefore, the normal reaction of the accused, following the shot or shots and knowing that someone had been injured, would be to throw away or get rid of that particular weapon. He is certainly not going to keep it so close to him that he is immediately connected with the shooting when it is found. That is, however, an inconsistency that the Court must consider. The general investigating offr, Capt Snell, has made no attempt to check the conduct sheet of the deceased at any time. Yet it is a firmly established fact that he ought to have done so. I refer to page 177, Phipson on Evidence, 8th Edition. There has been no attempt to investigate the bed and quarters of the deceased in spite of the fact that evidence has been given that the person by the name of Dillon was belligerent and drunk on the parade square at Canada Bks on the night of 2 Aug 44.

Prosecutor:

I think that the defence should quote the section he is referring to.

Defending Offr:

I have found it. I refer to para (3) at p.177, headed "Character as Affecting States of Mind" (reads para). The members of the Court have been in this theatre of operations long enough to know that one of the first things the new, shall I say, private arriving in this theatre wants is a souvenir to send home. I think one of the first souvenirs

R.B.B.

they want to get is an enemy weapon, and with them must be included the weapons of our co-belligerents, the Italians. Another popular type of weapon is the American .45 automatic which at one time in this area the Americans seemed to have in particularly good supply. Therefore, consideration must be given to the fact that a new draft had arrived at Canada Bks a few days prior to this incident, and any one of them might have had occasion to beg, borrow, buy, or steal anyone of these types of weapons. Next consider the effect that Italian liquor, commonly described as "Mussolini's secret weapon", has on the individual when drinking it for the first time. A new draft arrival, having borrowed, bought, or stolen an automatic weapon and coming back to Canada Bks after indulgence in Italian stimulants, might well have carelessly discharged his weapon thus causing the wounding of Dillon: especially when you realize that it seems to be a notorious fact that the shots at Canada Bks or discharging of weapons at Canada Bks around and after tattoo roll call are a common practice. With that evidence it seems hard to find, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the accused fired the weapon which caused the wound. In order to convict the accused, that is the decision which the Court must reach beyond a reasonable doubt. The question of "reasonable doubt" the Judge Advocate will explain later. I can not, in fairness to the accused, omit to draw the Court's attention to the evidence respecting the action taken by the C.O. of 2 Bn 1 CBRD, Col Lent. It has been established that he is a man of legal qualifications. He, above all others, should realize the duties and responsibilities affecting a person accused of a serious crime. He decided, after getting the proceedings of the Court of Inquiry, to have the accused up on a charge of improper possession of a pistol, part of the incident of the night of the 2nd of August, and to sentence the accused to 28 days' detention: done apparently with the sole purpose of keeping the accused in custody. Had this happened in civilian life, if any magistrate or judge of a criminal or quasi criminal Court had dealt with the accused in such manner, such injustice would have been screamed from the editorials of every leading paper in Canada. But apparently Col Lent sought sanctuary in the Army Act and MML. He found the accused guilty of an offence, in connection with the same transaction out of which rose the present charge. He apparently felt the accused was guilty, although the accused had not yet had the benefit of a trial by a competent Court.

Prosecutor:

There is no evidence before the Court as to what Colonel Lent felt.

Defending Offr:

I said apparently, sir. It is a question of interpretation. In summing up I can only interpret these things as I see them. I expect the Judge Advocate will deal with certain witnesses, and the amount of reliability to be attached to their evidence. I don't propose to take any more time in dealing with it. The Court has a transcription of the evidence, apart from the evidence heard yesterday, which is sufficiently fresh in their minds, and can refer to it to see what is proved and what is not proved. However, I have dealt with one of these four witnesses. The remaining three I shall deal with now. I want to draw attention particularly to Cpl Shaw's evidence. The Court will have to consider his mentality and size up the reliability of his evidence. He said, as I recollect it, without special reference to the transcript, although he was loath to tell the Court - that he had reported the accused to be in bed. Cross-examination specifically proved that he had reported the accused in bed at tattoo which was very shortly before the shots were heard. When questions were put to him, he also seemed to have a personal desire to see the accused convicted of this offence. That is an example of the attitude of the people at Canada Bks resulting from their preliminary investigations. I have tried - and I think it is realized by certain members of the Court - not to throw too much mud in this trial. But I think it is reasonable to show up the attitude of the witnesses from the evidence they gave. As a result of finding the identity discs and pistol, they came to the irrevocable conclusion that the accused was guilty of the alleged offence. It was not necessary to do much more. They convicted him before he ever got before the Court, without the benefit of a finding. I want to take up the activities of Capt Snell and Major Bernier before I go on. The next point I think is one that occurred to every member of the Court as well as myself, and that is, why no military police assistance was called in in this case. The incident happened on 2 Aug 44. The Summary of Evidence was completed by 30 Aug 44. Yet in all that time no one at 2 Bn had occasion to call in the assistance of the MP or the SIB. Why had they not done it? We all know that that is what they are for. They are usually called to assist the offrs of a unit in obtaining the evidence in any criminal investigation. The unfairness to the accused for this omission, naturally may result in a miscarriage of British justice. The accused had been called before a Court of Inquiry. He was apparently given no information as to his rights. Lt MacComb stated on cross-examination that the accused was not allowed to leave after giving his evidence until the Court was satisfied that they had obtained all the information that they wished to obtain from him. The manner of taking the evidence before that Court of Inquiry, and the interrogation of the accused can be justified only on the technical ground that evidence taken in a Court of Inquiry is not admissible at a Court Martial. Now the accused gave evidence at that Court of Inquiry without the benefit of legal assistance. The Court knows and I know that if the defence is called on, the evidence for the defence must be exactly that contained in the Court of Inquiry, because the accused gave evidence on oath. The accused has been forced to disclose his defence in advance. It is again unheard of that, because a person assumes new obligations on joining the Army, he should lose his civilian right of having the benefit of legal assistance and can be compelled at a Court of Inquiry to answer questions which in civil lefe he would not have to answer. Capt Snell stated that the only reason he didn't call in military police assistance was because he was too busy with drafts. The lack of interest he has taken in the legal and technical investigation of this case shows either a complete lack of mental competence and responsibility of his duties as adjutant or a persecuting complex which gave no benefit of the doubt to the accused. I don't propose to say any more about that, sir. I would like to point out one particular feature in the conduct of this case. That is the lapse between some of the witnesses giving their evidence and the others. When evidence is a little cold it has lost a great deal of its value. I would like to draw the Court's attention to the excuses offered for pushing this case on at the time it was - namely, it was necessary to get people away on draft. Some of the people they were so anxious to get away on draft were still in Canada Bks as recently as 24 hrs ago. I feel that is to the prejudice of both the Court and myself. Therefore, I feel that the Court should take these things into consideration in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. I want the Court to understand that the accused has pleaded not guilty to this offence. Should he be called on for his defence, in all probability the case for the Prosecution will be weakened considerably. That, however, does not justify the Court in calling on the accused for his defence. They must make up their minds where there is sufficient evidence without a reasonable doubt to convict. To find the accused guilty on a charge of murder, there must be evidence of malice of forethought. There is no evidence of such malice in any of the evidence brought out by the Prosecutor. Such malice is not necessarily presumed from a mere unethical act. Now because the accused was found with a pistol under his pillow, which is an offence only under Routine Orders, is it proper to assume that the only conclusion from that act is that the accused fired the pistol used in the killing of Dillon? The witness who claims to identify the accused on the parade square saw no evidence of any violence, nor suspected any violence, nor did he see any sign of any lethal weapon in possession of the person he claimed was the accused. I refer you to Archbald's "Criminal Pleading, etc", 31st edit, p.900, under the heading: "Evidence for the Defence". (quotes: "The prisoner may show ------ or witnesses called by the Defence.") I contend that my cross-examination has elicited enough evidence to prove either that the murder was not committed by the accused or that it is doubtful if the offence alleged was murder. Only the evidence which has been submitted by the Prosecution ~~that~~ can be taken into consideration. Referring again to Archbald, p.64, under the heading "Express Malice" (quotes: "To amount to murder the killing --------- aforethought"). I contend that there is no evidence whatsoever of any malice aforethought which can connect the accused with the shooting incident on the night of the 2nd of August. I am not going to deal with the facts any further. I merely wish to remark upon certain things - certain irregularities, in connection with Canada Bks that night:- the evidence respecting shots being fired and the prevalence of drunks. The conduct of a particular commanding offr is not a matter which concerns the Court or which it must explain. If irregularities are occurring then it is not your function either to justify them or cover them up. You must decide the guilt or innocence of the accused on this charge of murder solely on the evidence before you. You should not consider how it may read to some Offr in superior authority. The Prosecution has given you facts; the Defence has tested those facts. Is Pte Robinson guilty of murder according to those facts? - guilty beyond a reasonable doubt? I have throughout made reference to the Prosecution. I would like to state that the accused is quite satisfied that he has had a very fair trial, and that every consideration has been given to his Defending Offr. I would also like to state that the Prosecutor has been exceptionally fair to the Defence, and the Court has been exceptionally patient all through the trial.

W.D.B.

W.B.W.

Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1400 hrs, the same members being present.

Prosecutor's Answer:

Mr. President, I would like to make it a point at this moment to bring your attention to the fact that this morning in Court it was said the Prosecution was rather unfair to the accused in that it hastened this trial. Yet certain witnesses had not left until yesterday morning. That is quite true. But at that time Higher Authority were demanding the presence of these personnel at their field units. It was only fair in the interests of the service to expedite their return. This was done at the earliest possible moment; the men going out on the first draft after the adjournment of the Court on Saturday morning. It is, sir, the duty of the Prosecutor to bring out every fact available in the case to assist the Court in every way possible. It matters not to the Prosecutor whether, having obtained all these facts in evidence, what the decision of the Court may be. We only represent the Crown. It is a well known fact that the Crown is only interested in justice being done. The Court must be guided solely by the laws of England which you will find referred to in Army Act, Sec 41. The law of Canada, while similar, is not the law under which the accused is being tried. All the Prosecution has to do at this stage of the proceedings is to establish a prima facie case. It does not have to do anything except prove the accused guilty of the crime charged: merely to bring sufficient evidence before the Court to satisfy you that the accused is guilty of the offence, the offence he is charged with. It may be weak; it may be overwhelming. For this proposition I draw your attention to MML, p.644, RP 40, fn 1. With regard to circumstantial evidence, I draw your attention to MML, Chap VI, para 4, p.70, which in effect states that circumstantial evidence is indirect evidence. I shall read it for the benefit of the Court. (quotes: "There is no difference ------ did or did not happen (indirect evidence)".) This again is referred to in MML at p.81, para 41. (quotes: "In connection with the rule ------- not of degree but of kind.") It is a recognized practice for Courts to accept substantial evidence. I think from the para I have just read, there is really no doubt about that. Now as to the action taken by the Commanding Offr of 2 Bn 1 CBRD with reference to the accused of having in his possession a weapon without authority and sentencing him to 28 days, that is a recognized procedure in the Civil Courts. I can refer you to one case in the Courts in Ontario in 1939. I cannot cite the exact report, but it was known as Rex vs. Thompson in which the accused man was sentenced to 18 months for perjury on obtaining a marriage certificate. He said he was a single man. His wife was still living and was found some months later brutally murdered. It was established that her death was caused within several days after the marriage license was obtained. He was charged with perjury and sentenced to, I believe, 18 months, in order really, to allow the police to gather sufficient evidence to bring him before the Courts later on a charge of murder. The action, therefore, taken by Col Lent was without doubt entirely right. There is, in this case, evidence of malice. Evidence has been given that the accused shortly before Dillon's death demanded from Dillon "a buck" in a rather surly manner, indicative of a hold-up. I feel there has been a slur cast upon the offrs of 2 Bn in this case. The Court can come to no other conclusion that these offrs acted with the best of intentions. While they may not have been wise in not calling in police assistance, nevertheless, their actions were, I believe, beyond reproach.

W.R.B.

Now, coming to the identity of the deceased, it is normal practice - the recognized practice in the Canadian Army - to identify a deceased or wounded soldier by his identity discs. This is particularily applicable to actual fighting - to the field. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Cpl Ferguson, Medical Offr and Medical Cpl respectively, of 2 Bn, was to the effect that they had both examined the discs around the neck of the deceased person while in the MI Room of that Bn. There can be no doubt from the evidence that this body was taken to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and later to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. The admitting doctor, Capt Grossman, stated that no other patient, suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to that hospital either that night or early in the morning of 3 Aug 44, while he was on duty as Medical Orderly Offr. He stated that he would have seen any such admission. Capt Jepson's evidence indicates that he attended, as he says, the only person admitted on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 that was suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head; that he knew this person from the records as Dillon, and that that patient whom he attended regularly from 0230 hrs in the morning of the 3rd of August until he died either on the 7th or 8th of August was the same man whom he knew as Dillon. He stated the cause of this man's death was a gun-shot wound of the head and bronchial-pneumonia. He stated that the bronchial-pneumonia is directly caused as a result of the gun-shot wound in the head. It may happen to persons suffering from a head wound, due to the fact that they lie upon their backs and the respiration is affected by the head wound. In short, the gun-shot wound that Dillon suffered from, was directly the cause of his death. The question as to whether or not the shot entered the head from in front or behind is, I think, more likely to be decided correctly by the medical offr who operated and attended the wounded man. A more correct and detailed study of the wound would, of necessity, have to be made by that doctor. Neither Capt Verdicchio nor Major Davidson could or would have been expected to make a very thorough check of the wound. They realized that they would not be in a position to assist the man, and that it was their duty to get that man to a brain specialist, who, apparently, was stationed at 65 Brit Gen Hosp. In short, they were more interested in helping the wounded man than trying to determine the size of the various wounds. Let us briefly go over the evidence of the various witnesses, other than the medical witnesses. We have Pte Wilcock going into the Gd Room and stating that his Glengarrry, with the 48th Highr badge on it, had been removed from his head somewhere around 2215 hrs on the night of 2 Aug 44 by a man wearing Seaforth flashes and carrying a gun, what he believed, was an automatic. We have the evidence of Lieut Mills who tells of finding the Glengarry , which Wilcock identified, on the steps of the Offr's Mess. Mills also states that Pte Dillon was lying within a few yards of these steps. We have the evidence of the Gd Cpl who states that he accompanied Pte Wilcock in the direction of the latter's billets: that on his way back from this trip he heard a shot or shots fired, and a very few minutes later was at the scene of the shooting. Therefore, Wilcock cannot, in any way, be connected with the crime. We have the evidence of Cpl De Harte. While some of his actions may well be criticized, there is one thing established, namely, that this Cpl on the morning of the 3rd, after hearing of the shooting, went to his superior offr and offered certain information. He stated in Court that he had seen Pte Dillon at approximately 2230 hrs embroiled in an argument with a man whom he recognized as the accused. Why did he recognize him? Simply and solely because he saw him wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry which had a 48th Highrs badge on it. You will recall that Cpl De Harte was a member of the 48th Highrs. The most normal and natural thing is for any soldier to take a very good look at someone he finds wearing his own regiment's headdress and badge and yet wearing different shoulder flashes. De Harte states that within three or four minutes after arriving in his billets he heard some shots. I suggest to the Court it is a fair inference from the evidence in which only two or three shots were mentioned as having been fired during the period in question, that these were the shots that De Harte heard and were responsible for the wounding of Dillon. We come to Capt McKee's evidence. I don't think that the Court could conclude that he was giving it for any other reason than it was his duty to tell what he knew to this Court. You will recall that he could not say the exact way Dillon was holding the identity discs that had the name 'Robinson' on them and he refused to be tied down. He was sure of one thing; that at least one disc was firmly in the hand of Dillon. His was the only medical evidence, if such you might call it, as to how a man shot through the head would fall. Cpl Shaw, one had to admit, was not the best of witnesses, but his attitude was the same in reply to the Prosecution, in reply to the Defence, and, I might say, in reply to the Court. Whether he held any grudge against the accused, neither I nor any other person can tell. But he did state that he saw scratches and other marks upon the accused's face and neck. He got into quite a bit of difficulty about the tattoo report. It is clear from his evidence that he did not call the roll, and that he had no knowledge of the accuracy of the tattoo report turned in by the various platoon sergeants. He did, however, state that tattoo roll call is made about ten o'clock or 2200 hrs. The evidence of Capt Snell is to the effect that at 2330 hrs, 2 Aug 44, he, together with Major Bernier, went to the bedside of the accused. The accused was lying down, face down, on his bed. Neither Capt Snell nor Major Bernier, in fact, Cpl Shaw could say more than that the accused was apparently asleep. I do not think that it calls for any argument to prove that point. If a person desires to feign sleep, few people can prove otherwise. An automatic, .45 colt, was found under the blankets at the head of the accused's bed or as the witnesses described it, if I recall it right, under some clothes that were used as a pillow. They found that the accused was suffering from scratches and bruises, and that he was not wearing his identity discs. On looking at the revolver they both stated that they smelled burnt powder from it. By the smell of burnt powder the identification of that automatic is firmly established. It was established even more firmly on the cross-examination of Major Bernier. The Court may well consider that cross-examination. The evidence given by the witness on his cross-examination is even better evidence than that given on his examination-in-chief. Lieut Bolan gave certain evidence. His evidence, however, was of very little value. He, however, admitted that he could not tell the difference between a back-fire and shots. Now there are certain theories which I propose to advance. I forgot to mention that Major Bernier, in addition to finding the automatic, also found a holster of the type used to carry an automatic similar to that which was found under the head of the accused's bed. He also stated that the undershirt of the accused was torn. Now there is a theory which I suggest in deciding the reason why the holster and the pistol became separated. The accused, coming into his billet, no doubt agitated by what he had just done, afraid to be seen by other men putting the pistol into the holster along with his kit, jammed it under the head of his bed, climbed into bed and made every effort to appear asleep. To do so he lay face downwards. I suggest that in his haste to hide that automatic he placed it under his blankets and, as a result, the fumes of burning powder remained in the barrel of that pistol long enough for them to be smelled by Capt Snell and Major Bernier. As to the question of the identity discs: it is, I think, a fair inference from the evidence we have heard from Cpl De Harte, that the accused and Dillon got into a struggle, maybe not punching particularly, but they were struggling. I suggest that in the course of that struggle, Dillon grabbed at the accused's throat, laying hold of his identity discs and yanked them. As the Court will notice the cord on these discs is old and rather worn. They broke away. As they were breaking away the accused grabbed the string. In a further struggle the second piece of string broke off. The accused retained it in his hand and later threw it away. The theory that I put forward to the Court is that in this struggle Dillon, somehow, picked the Glengarry off the head of the accused and threw it away. It landed on the steps of the Offrs' Mess or near them. In the struggle to break away, Dillon staggered backwards with Robinson's identity discs in his hand. Whether or not he fell or remained upright I cannot say. The accused, who was carrying a revolver in his pocket, pulled it out and fired it. Dillon on being hit would no doubt spin around and fall face downwards. There is no possible suggestion in the medical evidence as to how the man was wounded when he fell. I feel the members of the Court must, in their military experience, have seen men shot: have seen them spin partly around as a result of a heavy slug entering the head. How the accused got away is not difficult to understand. I will attempt to explain it. It is true that he had something like 100 yards to go across the parade square to his billets. But I suggest to the Court that there are four buildings around the parade square, near the Offrs' Mess to which the accused might well have got to. In fact he might well have gone to the corner of the Offrs' Mess, a matter of only 10 yards. Once in the shadow of the buildings, he could easily have walked back to his billets without being seen. Admittedly, the evidence does not show the actual manner in which Dillon was murdered. Rarely is the guilty person seen to do the act. In fact, I suggest to the Court that it would be an exception to the usual rule to get any direct evidence of the actual slaying of a person. I suggest to the Court that there has been ample evidence adduced to put the accused on his defence. That is all that the prosecution at this stage is required to do. The Prosecution has produced the necessary evidence to call upon the Defence to offer evidence to rebutt it. The Court is not at this time determining the guilt or innocence of the accused. It is merely asked to decide whether or not the Prosecution has produced enough evidence to indicate that the accused, Robinson, did, on or about 2250 hrs, on the night of 2 Aug 44, so wound one Pte Dillon, that this Pte Dillon did, on or about 7 Aug 44, die as a direct result of that wounding.

Defending Offr's Reply:

Sir, the opening remarks of the Prosecutor seem to be in defence of the Offrs and certain other personnel of 2 Bn 1 CBRD. They are not on trial before this Court. He is not responsible for their conduct, and he need not apologize for their incompetence or misdemeanours. I also stated in my opening argument that I had no fault to find in the Prosecutor in his conduct of this case. He acted in good faith. He was given instructions by Higher Authority. But such Higher Authority has no place in judging the guilt or innocence of the accused unless a member of the proper Military Court. Their conduct does not come within the jurisdiction of the Court. I strongly feel, however, that the Prosecutor has misled the Court by his remarks. I trust the Judge Advocate will remark upon the statement that the accused is being tried in accordance with the laws of England. This was true up to the year 1867. But reference to Section 69 of the Militia Act, which is Appendix I to K.R. (Can) states that the Army Act, only insofar as it is consistent with the provisions of K.R. (Can) and Cdn law, applies. Therefore the rules of evidence, by which this Court is governed, are those rules laid down in the Canada "Evidence Act". This Court is a Canadian Court. Then there is the suggestion that all the Prosecution has to do is to establish a prima facie case against the accused: that his guilt or innocence is not to be decided at this stage. I do not agree. That is a matter on which you will receive full and complete instructions from the Judge Advocate. I suggest we are in this position. If I were to stop now, offering no evidence in defence, you cannot deny my motion unless you are prepared to find the accused guilty of murder on the evidence which you have heard. The Prosecutor cited the case of Rex vs. Thompson. From the facts which he gave you, it seems that the accused, Thompson, was convicted on a charge of perjury as a result of improperly obtaining a marriage certificate, and that, subsequent to obtaining the marriage certificate, he was accused of brutally murdering his wife. These were two separate prosecutions and not connected in any way apart from the fact that the facts respecting the improper obtaining of the marriage certificate might be acceptable in evidence before a Court trying the murder charge. The Prosecutor did not seem to think an investigation into the character of the deceased was in point - that it had no bearing on the possible guilt of the accused. He omitted, however, to tell you that the purpose in presenting the character of the deceased in evidence was to determine whether or not he had been guilty of any previous acts of violence or if there had been any previous exhibitions of quarreling between the deceased and the accused.

Prosecutor:

I may be mistaken, but the impression I got was that the Defending Offr said that was a matter for the Defence.

Defending Offr:

It is not a question for the Defence at this time. It might be later. The reference to Phipson on Evidence shows that this is one of the matters to be investigated by the proper investigating authorities.

Prosecutor:

Such an investigation was indicated by the evidence of Cpl De Harte.

Defending Offr:

What has Cpl De Harte to do with the case?

Prosecutor:

He gave evidence that the accused demanded "a buck" from the deceased.

Defending Offr:

What has that to do with the character of the deceased? I am dealing with his previous history. I am not dealing with any incident alleged in connection with this case. If the Court accepts that "a buck" was demanded by the accused of the deceased,

w.b.b.

then they must also accept De Harte's statement there was never any question of any violence between them. When the Prosecutor used the word "embroiled" to describe the argument that took place, he is using a word which I don't think he meant. The Prosecutor also stated that the identity of the deceased was properly established by means of the identity discs because it is done that way in the field. I presume by that he meant in action. There, with the bullets falling right and left; in the midst of heavy shell fire we accept certain practices, but we also know that mistakes in identification are made. But when you are back as far as we are, we must, in fairness to the accused, be a little more thorough in our identification. Which was the point of entry and the point of exit of the gun-shot wound will cause the Court a great deal of concern, for the simple reason that the theory suggested by the Prosecutor, indicates that the wound of entry must be in the right frontal bone or forehead, and the wound of exit in the right occipital bone. He stated that there is no evidence as to what would happen to a person on receiving a wound of this kind. I checked Capt Verdicchio's evidence. I refer to the transcript of evidence, question and answer, no. 38. (quotes) That is the only fair inference which the Court may accept. The body either twisted or spun around at the moment of impact of the bullet. According to the Prosecution, the accused was agitated and, in his moment of agitation, slipped the pistol under some blankets or clothing. Yet right afterwards the accused climbed into bed and went to sleep. The Court must examine the evidence of the witnesses called by the Prosecution in the light of their method of giving evidence. It was highly prejudiced against the Defence. They have stated the accused appeared to be asleep. Now to go to sleep so soon after consciously shooting another person is absolutely inexplainable. References were made to Capt McKee's evidence. I think the Court was favourably impressed by his evidence in most instances; but did the Court fail to notice one very weak point in his method of giving evidence? In order to protect himself and give himself loads of time to think before giving his answer, he turned to the Court stenographer, spoke slowly, chose his words carefully, and made sure he said the right thing. Has the Court, along with all these other matters, considered the significance of the Dental Sgt falling out of the window? The Court, from an examination of Exhibit "G", can readily see that the bullet that wounded Dillon might have been fired from that house providing Dillon was walking in the direction of the Borden Building and was shot from behind. The Court cannot accept the theory advanced by the Prosecutor as to how Dillon was shot without finding obvious faults with that theory. Had Dillon taken that hat from the head of his assailant, he would more likely have held on to it instead of throwing it away. The fact that he had time to throw it away shows that he must have been shot by someone who was not standing directly in front of him. Otherwise he would not have had time to throw the hat some considerable distance. Then there is the suggestion that the accused carried the pistol in his pocket. We know that a pistol raises a considerable bulge. De Harte was cross-examined as to whether or not any pistol or weapon was apparent in the hands or clothing of the person talking to Dillon. He said "No". The whole assumption in the theory advanced by the Prosecution is that Dillon was shot through the front of the head. You must consider the evidence of the first persons who superficially examined him. They saw a small hole at the back and a larger hole at the front from which brain tissue was protruding. Obviously he was shot from behind. It is now the Court's problem to decide which was the wound of entry and which was the wound of exit. I feel that the Prosecutor has apologized sufficiently for his presentation of the case. I strongly suggest that the Court accept these apologies and throw this case out. They cannot find the accused guilty on circumstantial evidence unless they are satisfied, not only that the circumstances are consistent with the accused having committed the act, but that they are inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. I submit the Prosecution has failed to link the accused with the offence alleged.

Judge Advocate's Summing Up:

Mr President and gentlemen, it is not laid down, as far as I know, in the Rules of Procedure that the Judge Advocate should sum up in open Court at the conclusion of a motion of this nature. But since the Court wishes it, and, in view of the serious nature of the charge which the accused is facing , I feel that it is not only desirable, but my duty to do so. The accused is charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act with committing the civil offence of murder, the allegation being that on the 2nd of August of this year, he murdered one Pte Dillon, J.W.M. A charge of murder can be tried by Court Martial when we are out of the United Kingdom by virtue of Sec 41 of the Army Act. This raises a point mentioned by the Defending Offr. I quote Sec 69 of the Militia Act, R.S.C. 1927, Chap 132, found in K.R. (Can) at p.292 (reads). Now the effect of that is that the accused is to be tried by the English Criminal Law and, according to the English law of evidence, not by the Canadian Criminal Code nor Canadian Law respecting evidence. The Defending Offr contends that the Prosecution has failed to establish a prima face case. What does that mean? I refer to the MML, Chap VI, para 12 and part of para 13, pp 72-3. (quotes para 12 and lines 1-3 of para 13) It goes on to give examples which are not applicable to this case. It should not be necessary for me to remind the Court that it is the sole judge of the facts; that is to say, the evidence which has been adduced before this Court and only that evidence. If the Court has in its mind a reasonable doubt as to the accused's guilt then it must find him not guilty. A reasonable doubt is not one based on whimsy sentiment or anything of that nature, but it is a doubt such as the members of the Court might entertain in the conduct of their own personal affairs. It is the duty of the Judge Advocate to advise the Court, to the best of his ability, of the law involved. Any opinion which he has or expresses with respect to the facts are not binding on the Court. The accused is charged with having committed murder. I refer the Court to MML, Chap VII, para 42, p.115. (reads) I also refer the Court to Archbold "Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice", 1943 edit, p.859. (reads para headed 'Murder') Then on the same page, the para headed "The Person Killing". (reads lines 1-4 of the para) I refer you also to Archbold, p.860, the para headed "The Person Killed", (quotes lines 1-3 of the para): also on p.861 to the para headed "The Manner of Killing" (quotes lines 1-3 of the para). I would refer you also to the opening sentence of the second para on p.864 of Archbold (reads). Also at p.879 under the heading "Killing without intention whilst doing another act" (reads lines 1-3 of the para). In order to find a person guilty of murder it is essential to prove malice on the part of the alleged murderer. I refer the Court to Archbold p.864 (reads para: "Express malice") and to p.865 under the heading "Implied malice" (reads lines 1-8 of para). Referring again to Archbold pp 868-9 under the heading of "Quarrels" (reads lines 1-4 of para). Now we are not, at this stage, concerned with the defences to a charge of murder. You have to consider the Prosecution's case in order to decide whether or not the

A.G.B.

Defending Offr's submission should be allowed. I have endeavoured to prepare a time table, if you wish to call it that, which may be of some assistance to the Court. On 2 Aug 44 at 2130 hrs Cpl De Harte and some of his comrades entered the main gate at Canada Bks. There they met a Hast & PER soldier who was drunk and argumentative. Cpl De Harte ascertained that this soldier's name was Dillon. At 2215 hrs Pte Wilcock was held up by another soldier wearing Seaforth flashes. He was robbed of his Glengarry with the name "A.H. Wilcock" inside (Exhibit "H") and his fountain pen which bore some tooth marks (Exhibit "I"). Sometime between 2215 hrs and 2230 hrs, Cpl De Harte came upon this soldier Dillon arguing with two other soldiers on two separate occasions, and then he found Dillon and the accused in an argument. The accused made a demand for money. Cpl De Harte says that he recognized the accused because it was not usual to see a man with Seaforth flashes wearing a 48 Highrs Glengarry. At 2230 hrs Cpl De Harte left them still arguing. At the same time Pte Wilcock reported to Cpl Ferguson in the Gd Room and was then shown to his billets. Sometime between 2230 hrs and 2250 hrs, two or three shots were heard by the following people: Sgt Whynot, who was in the Gd Room, Capt McKee who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, Lt Mills who was also in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, Cpl Ferguson, Cpl De Harte who was in his billets, Major Bernier who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, and Lt Dolan who was in the Gd Room. Certain of these people went promptly to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess where they found a body, wounded in the head, allegedly identified as Pte Dillon, lying face downwards. Capt McKee stated that he smelled powder burning as he left the Mess. Lt Mills found the Glengarry (Exhibit "H") on the Mess steps. Cpl Ferguson found a .45 casing on the point "J" on Exhibit "G". Major Bernier, Lt Dolan, Capt Verdicchio, and Sgt Whynot were also on the scene around that time. Sometime after 2250 hrs, Capt McKee discovered the identity discs with the broken cord (Exhibit "J") and turned them over to Capt Snell. Lt Mills found blood spots on the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. Major Bernier and Capt Snell set off to trace the owner of the discs that Capt McKee said he found in the injured man's hand. The injured man was taken to 2 Bn MIR and from there to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp by Cpl Stewart. About the same time Major Bernier and Capt Snell had completed their investigations. They got Cpl Shaw who took them to the accused's quarters, which they reached at approximately 2340 hrs. In other words, about one hour after the shots were first heard fired, Major Bernier and Capt Snell arrived at the accused's bedside and stated they awakened him as he appeared to be asleep. His kit was searched and also his blankets. The .45 automatic (Exhibit "O") was found. Major Bernier and Capt Snell stated that in their opinion it had been recently fired. Major Bernier also found a United States type holster (Exhibit "P") in the accused's kit, the kit which the accused admitted was his own. The accused had scratches on his neck similar to fingernail scratches; no identity discs, and his face appeared bruised. He was placed under arrest at 2355 hrs. Pte Stewart took the patient, named Dillon, from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp in an ambulance to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. Sometime after 2250 hrs Lt Dolan investigated the case of the Dental Sgt who had fallen out of a window of his billets near Canada Bks. At 0145 hrs, 3 Aug 44, a patient named Dillon, conveyed in an ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and suffering from a through-and-through gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. The evidence in support of that is the testimony of Sgt Fieldhouse, Capt Grossman and, to some extent, H/Capt Tootell, the padre. At 0230 hrs a patient named Dillon was examined by Capt Jepson, who stated that there were no other persons admitted to the hospital that night with similar injuries. Later that day, the Court of Inquiry, at which the accused gave evidence, was held. Lt Dolan searched the accused and his kit in 2 Bn Gd Room. The accused, on being ordered to empty his pockets, handed over two fountain pens of which the light grey one (Exhibit "Q") was identified by Mr Dolan. He was unable to identify the other one beyond stating that it had tooth marks on it. Capt Jepson, who had been attending the patient Dillon, stated that he died on the 7th or 8th of Aug. Padre Tootell said he buried him in the British Military Cemetery in Naples. I think that is a fair summing up of the evidence brought out by the Prosecution. Now as the Defending Offr has quite properly pointed out, that evidence is largely circumstantial. In that connection I would like to refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 42, pp 81-2. (reads para 42) The Defending Offr has asked me to say something to the Court about the identification of exhibits and about the proper method of identifying an accused person. As to the latter, the usual civil practice is to have the suspect picked out of a line-up of persons who are, as nearly as possible, similar to him in size, appearance and dress by the person who is called on to identify him. The suspected person must be given an opportunity of changing his place in the line-up if more than one person is called upon to identify him. In this case, as far as Cpl De Harte is concerned, any identification that he made was made before any such parade took place. In other words, one of the things that you will have to decide is whether Cpl De Harte's identification of the accused is due to his recalling the oddity of seeing a Seaforth soldier with a 48 Highrs Glengarry or whether, as the Defence contends, it was due to the fact that he had ample opportunity to memorize the features of the accused while he had him under observation prior to the Court of Inquiry on the morning of 3 Aug 44. Now as to the identification of the discs: I refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 112, p.100. (reads) Reference has also been made in argument to what is called "Judicial knowledge" - "Military experience" and similar expressions. I would refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 11, p.72. (reads para) In other words, the examples quoted are all examples of things which are of general knowledge. They do not apply to particular evidence which is of an expert or quasi-expert nature. I have nothing further to add, sir, except that I think I should again call your attention to the final sentence of para 12 on p.72 of MML (quotes). If you think that has not been done in this case, then you must allow the submission of the Defending Offr and find the accused "Not Guilty".

Judge Advocate (to Defending Offr):

Is there anything else you wish me to add?

Defending Offr:

I asked you, sir, to make some reference to the method with which Capt Rose introduced the exhibits. You read a para in MML, but I think it would be better --------

Judge Advocate:

I take it you are referring to the civil police methods?

Defending Offr:

I am referring to the police methods of obtaining exhibits and submitting them in Court.

W.B.D.

Judge Advocate:

The practice, as I understand it, is that once an article is taken into possession by the police it should be marked in some way by the person who finds it. It may be tagged: it may be initialled - some mark may be scratched on it - something of that nature. The point is that this should be done as soon after the finding as possible. Otherwise, a proper identification becomes a difficult matter if the article passes from one hand to another before being submitted to the Court.

Summary of Evidence

Summary of Evidence in the case of B144 333 Pte Robinson, D.J.F., of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on strength of 2 Canadian Base Reinforcement Battalion, 1CBRD, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

B72921 Pte Wilcock, A.H., 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1CBRD, having been duly sworn, states

"I am B72921 Pte Wilcock, A.H. of the 3 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn, 1CBRD. On the night of August 2nd 1944 at approximately 2215 hrs I was over on the west side of the Petawawa Building, about half way down, and a chap appeared to put a gun against my left side and I turned around and saw a Seaforth Flash. He took off my Glengarry. I can recognize my Glengarry by my name inside and the checks in the hat have the appearance of pin pricks (Glengarry produced and marked Exhibit "A"). I recognize the Glengarry marked Exhibit "A" as the Glengarry that was taken from me on the night of 2nd August 1944. He also took my Waterman's pen, a grey one. I can recognize my pen because the original name has been scratched off and there is a tooth mark on the nib. (Waterman's pen produced and marked Exhibit "B". I recognize the Waterman's pen marked Exhibit "B" as my pen. It is the pen that was taken from me on 2nd August 1944. After taking my Glengarry and pen he turned around and walked behind me towards the M.I. Room. I saw some chap walking over from the garage to the Main Gate. I hollered to the chap. He just hollered back something and then started to walk away and I hollered again. He came over to my right side and I grabbed his arm and held him close to me. We were walking just about in front of 1 Bn Officers' Mess, and I could not feel the gun any more, so I turned around and the chap who had the gun had disappeared. Then I went right over and reported the incident at the Guard Room. The officer in charge was Lt. Dolan. Then a Guard and myself went outside and searched the area and found nobody around the vicinity of the Officers' Mess, 1 Bn. I then went to my billet and went to bed. I was awakened in the morning about 0200 hrs by Capt Mills and Capt. Cameron, and proceeded to No. 2 Bn. Guard Room and stayed there the night. I do not recognize the accused as the man who held me up with the gun."

Cross examined by the accused:

Q.1. "The gun that you recognized as yours, do you consider it grey in colour?"

A.1. "It is not all grey, it is streaked with white. I have always called it a "grey gun."

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

F39716 Sgt. Whynot, R.H., 1 Cdn Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am F39716 Sgt. Whynot, R.H., 1 Cdn Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. At approximately 2245 hrs, 2nd August 1944 while in No 1 Guard Room making out my Guard report, I heard a shot fired in the direction of the main parade square outside of Borden building. I immediately ran out of the Guard Room, and on my way out I heard two more shots fired. Just as I arrived at the main entrance to Borden building I could see a body lying in front of the Officers' Mess, 2 Bn. I did not know whether it was a drunk, so I looked around to see if I could see anyone running, and could see nobody. I then proceeded to where the body lay, and when arriving there the Corporal of the Guard, Cpl Ferguson, and the Officer of the Guard, Lt. Dolan were there. In my estimation the shots sounded like they had come from the direction of the S.L.I. and C.Y.R. quarters. Then I first saw out I saw a man in a crouched position trying to get up. It was the same man I saw later."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. G.E. McKee, "6" Coy, 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt. G.E. McKee, "6" Coy, 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of August 2nd, 1944 about 2250 hrs. I was sitting in the Officers' Mess, 2 Bn, 1 CBRD. I heard two shots fired outside. They sounded to be very close, so I got up and walked out of the Mess to have a look around. When I arrived at the porch outside the door of the Mess I saw a body lying on the pavement about eight yards from the porch. I walked over to see a man lying face down on the pavement with his hands stretched out at his side. He was not dead but was bleeding from two ~~holes~~ in the head, one in the front and one in the back. I went over to 2 Bn. M.I.R. and sented an orderly for the Medical Officer. I then went back to the scene of the accident. By this time there was a number of officers and men collected around the wounded man. I thought the man may have shot himself, so I started to look for a weapon. I found no weapon, but in his left hand I found a set of identity discs. These discs I turned over to the Adjutant, 2 Bn. 1 CBRD, Capt. Snell. I just glanced at the discs and saw the name "Robinson" on them but cannot remember the number. (Identity discs produced and marked Exhibit "C"). I would say that the discs marked exhibit "C" are the same discs I took from the hand of the man that was shot and gave to Capt. Snell. By this time the Medical Officer was there and had moved the body to the M.S.R. I stayed there until the man was placed in a vehicle and then went to my quarters."

Cross examined by the accused:

Q.1. "Sir, you said that you recognize the name on the discs. Are you positive?"

A.1. "Yes"

Q.2. "Was it dark outside when you saw the discs.

A.2. "Yes, it was dark outside. I looked at the discs inside the M.S.R. when I gave them to Capt Snell the adjutant."

Thos. C. McFee

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution.

Capt. A. Verdicchio, Medical Officer at 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn, IC.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt A. Verdicchio Medical Officer at 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn, ICBRD On the night of the 2nd August 1944 I was in bed dozing off to sleep and was suddenly awakened and heard gun shots. I think there were two shots. As a result of information received I went down stairs and out to the road in front of 2 Bn Officers' Mess and there found a soldier lying face down about ten yards from the entrance to the Mess. His head was lying in a pool of blood. He was breathing quite well and his pulse was fair. I removed his beret and as I did I noticed that it was filled with blood. I examined his head and found a fairly large wound on his forehead with brain tissue exposed. I then felt around the rest of his skull, including the back of his head and felt a smaller wound which was dropping blood into my hand. I came to the conclusion, then, that the wounds were apparently Gun Shot in origin. I called for some shell dressings and dressed the wounds and asked someone to get a vehicle from the unit. Whilst waiting I took the injured man to the M.D.R. on a stretcher.

While in the M.D.R. adjusting his dressings his identity discs were examined for information for hospital records. The name on the discs was Pte Dillon. His shoulder flashes revealed the name of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. The vehicle arrived in a very few minutes and I sent the man to No 3 Canadian General Hospital, accompanied by Cpl. Stewart. After I had despatched him to the hospital I noticed the time to be about 2330 hrs"

A Verdicchio Capt.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

K52039 Cpl Stewart, R., 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am K52039 Cpl Stewart. R, medical Corporal at M.D.R, 2 Cdn. Base Rft Bn. ICBRD. On the night of 2nd August 1944 I was awakened out of my bed and as a result of information received I immediately got up got a stretcher and medical supplies. I went to a spot immediately in front of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess and found a soldier lying on the ground.

When I first saw him he had a wound on his forehead, to which I immediately applied a shell dressing. I noticed later that the blood was saturating through the bandage at the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing on the back of his head. He was then put on a stretcher and carried into the M. D. R. The Medical Officer made out his hospital Admission slip from his identity discs. I read off his particulars from his identity discs. We then evacuated him to the 3 Canadian General Hospital. I accompanied him. When we arrived at the hospital I assisted the admitting Officer, Major Davidson, in removing the bandages. I saw a few small fragments of brain tissue on the shell dressing. After he had received further dressings I returned to Canada Barracks. The particulars I read from the identity discs were "B 135 5 5 2 Pte Dillon, J."

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution.

Major J. R. Davidson, 3 Can. General Hospital, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Major J. R. Davidson, in charge of surgery No. 3. Can. Gen. Hospital. On the 2 August 1944 at approximately 2330 hrs I was called to the admitting room to see a patient who was suffering from a compound fracture of the skull. The patient was unconscious. There was a wound of entry over the occiput and a wound of exit in the middle of the frontal bone. Some brain tissue was exuding from the wound of exit. I would be of the opinion that the wound was caused by a high explosive missile. After examination of the patient's general condition the wounds were re-dressed and I called the Roman Catholic padre to administer the last rites. The patient was immediately transferred by ambulance to No. 65 British General Hospital.

his identity discs. The particulars I took were: "B138252 Pte Dillon, J.W.M.", (R.C.) Romans Catholic" I saw Major Davidson examine the patient. I saw the patient, Pte Dillon, placed in an ambulance for transfer to 65 Br. Gen. Hospital at approximately 2355 hrs, 2 August 1944. I saw Pte Shelusk enter the ambulance to accompany the patient as medical orderly.

I operated on the patient at approximately 0900 hrs. 3 Aug. 1944. I only knew the patient as "Kellow". The patient died on the 7 August 1944. I certified the death of the patient.

Thirteenth Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut A J B Mills, 3 Cdn. Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lieut A.J.B. Mills, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. At approximately 2240 hrs, 2 Aug 1944 I was having lunch in the Officers' Mess when I heard three shots. I went out to see what was going on and on the steps going out of the Mess I picked up a Glengarry with a 1/8th Highlander badge on it. I recognize the Glengarry marked exhibit "A" as the one found on the steps on the 2 Aug 1944. I then had a look at the wounded man, who was lying face down approximately twenty feet from the entrance to the 2 and 3 Bns. Officers' Mess. He had been shot through the head and there was quite a pool of blood where he was lying. A crowd had gathered, including the Guard Commander, Lt Dolan and the Guard Corporal, Cpl Ferguson, also the Provost Sgt. from 1 Bn, Sgt. Whynot. Someone handed me a beret with a Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment badge on it which apparently belonged to the wounded man as there was blood dripping from it. I handed the beret over to Lt. Dolan. Lt. Dolan dispersed the crowd and I aided him in a search of the area. One .45" calibre casing was found approximately eight feet from where the wounded man had been lying. On further investigation of the Glengarry which I had found on the steps of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess I found the name of "H.H. Wilcock" on the inside. After investigation I went to Capt. Cameron's quarters and turned the Glengarry over to him. He immediately got dressed and I accompanied him to the 48th Highlanders' quarters where Wilcock was brought to him and was later turned over to the 2 Bn. Guard Room. I returned to the scene where the wounded man had been lying and in company with some of the Guard made a further search for empty cartridge casings. During the search one more .45 calibre casing was found by the Guard. As Lt. Dolan was not available the casing was turned over to the Orderly Officer of 3 Bn with instructions to take same over to the Adjutant of 2 Bn, Capt Snell, who by this time was in possession of the other casing which had been found. During the second search I noticed a few drops of blood on the steps of the Officers' Mess and also one drop of blood right at the door of the officers' Mess. Two of the casings marked exhibit "D." are similar to the two found at the scene of the shooting.

R.J.B. Mills.

Fourteenth Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut B.J. Dolan, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lieut B.J. Dolan, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 CBRD. I was officer in charge of the Guard from 0700 hrs, 2 Aug 1944 to 0700 hrs 3 Aug 1944. At approximately 2240 hrs, 2 Aug 1944, a soldier later identified as Pte Wilcock of the 48th Highlanders entered the Guard Room. He was quite excited. I sent a corporal out with Wilcock to investigate the matter. A few minutes later I heard a shot. I told the Guard to "stand to" and then heard two more shots. I took the sergeant and two men and started out to investigate the matter. I saw a group of people standing in front of 2 Bn Officers' Mess. Going in that direction I saw a man laying on the ground. I continued my investigation and tried to find out where the shots came from. I made a tour of all the buildings in 1 Bn area and discovered nothing. Going back to where the man was lying I found that quite a crowd had gathered. I sent those not on duty to bed. Looking further a .45" empty casing was found by Cpl. Ferguson. He turned it over to me. A set of identity discs bearing the inscription "B 144 333 Pte Robinson D." were found. On the suggestion of Capt. Snell we went to Head Records Office of 1 CBRD. We discovered the record of a man fitting the inscription of the identity discs at 2 Bn. Later Capt. Snell entered the Guard Room and upon obtaining a receipt I turned over to him the .45 casing. One of the casings produced and marked Exhibit "D" is similar to the one I turned over to Capt. Snell."

Fifteenth Witness for the Prosecution

B51982 Cpl Ferguson, E., 1 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

I am B51982 Cpl Ferguson, E., 1 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of 2 August 1944 at approximately 2230 hrs. a 48th soldier reported to the Guard Room. I took the soldier, whom I learnt to be Pte Wilcock, to the Seaforth coy office. I made arrangements there that any man carrying an unauthorised weapon be reported to the Guard Room. Pte Wilcock and myself came back downstairs from the Seaforth office. I showed him the way down to his billets. I was on the other side of the Petawawa Building when I heard two shots fired. The shots seemed to come from the direction of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess. I came back to the Guard Room and then proceeded to the scene of the shooting. I saw a pool of blood and a half-eaten sandwich of onions. I tried to find where the shots had come from and I found a spent .45 cartridge casing, approximately ten feet away from the steps of the Officers' Mess. I handed this over to Lt. Dolan who was officer of the Guard. Later a second casing was found by one of the guards about fifteen paces from where the first one had been found. The following morning I was sent by Lt. Dolan to the Seaforth coy office to get Pte Wilcock's name and number, which I did not obtain. On my way down from the Seaforth office I picked up a

~~spent 1 of 5 casing on the steps leading~~
~~out of the Petawawa Building. I~~
~~reported this to Lt. Nolan on my~~ ~~return to the Guard Room. (Casing~~
~~produced and marked Exhibit " ").~~

I recognize two of the casings produced as exhibit "D." as the ones I found. The best one I found on the stairs of the Petawawa Building.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Sixteenth Witness for the Prosecution

Major J. Bernier, R.C.A.P.C., Paymaster of 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Major J. Bernier, R.C.A.P.C., paymaster of 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of the 2nd August 1944 I was reading in my room above 2 Bn. Officers' Mess. At approximately 2300 hrs. I heard a shot, then a second shot, then another. They seemed to be revolver shots in the immediate vicinity of the Mess. I slipped my trousers over my pyjamas and went down to investigate. Several officers were standing around the body, sprawled on the road immediately in front of 2 Bn Officers' Mess entrance. It was the body of a man who had been wounded by Gun Shot. The Bn. Orderly Officer, Lt. Manahan, seemed to have the situation well in hand, so I left the scene. I then went to my office as I thought there might have been an attempted robbery of my cash. I found everything in order. I then returned to the scene of the accident and was shown a set of identity discs by Capt. T. E. McKee, P.P.C.L.I. They were not the wounded man's. They bore the following information: "B144333 Robinson, D., Pres., C.D.N." I now recognize the discs marked Exhibit 'C' as the discs shown to me by Capt McKee. I then went to nos. 1, 2, and 3 Bns' Pay Offices to find out if Robinson belonged to any of these Bns. We traced him to the Seaforth Coy of No. 2 Edm Base R.R. Bn. I then accompanied Capt. Snell, Adjutant of 2 Bn. to the Seaforth billets at approximately 2330 hrs. We found Pte Robinson, whom I now recognize as the accused, apparently sleeping in his blankets. We woke him up. He had been drinking but in my opinion was in full possession of his faculties. His lips and nose were bruised.

There were scratches on his neck and his vest was torn. He was not wearing identity discs. On searching his kit I found under the head of his blankets an empty .45 calibre automatic revolver, the property of the United States Army, bearing the serial 978416 and the figures M1911 which I presumed to be the model or issue no. (Revolver produced and marked exhibit "E".) I recognize the revolver marked Exhibit "E" as the one I found in Pte Robinson's kit. From the smell of powder I would say that the revolver had been fired recently. I found the holster of the revolver in Pte Robinson's kit bag. (Holster produced and marked Exhibit "F"). I recognize the holster marked Exhibit "F" as the one I found in Pte Robinson's kit bag on the night of the 2nd August 1944. I handed both the revolver and the holster to Capt. Snell for safe custody. Pte Robinson's rifle was hanging on a nail by his bed. It had not been fired. I found no other fire arms, ammunition, cleaning rods, etc. Capt. Snell had Pte Robinson placed under close arrest and sent to 2 Bn. Guard Room. The duty Corporal of the Seaforth Coy was ordered to make a minute search of Pte Robinson's bed and of the area in which he slept. I then accompanied Capt Snell as witness when he took statements from Pte Robinson and other persons involved in the shooting. I was present when Capt. Snell cautioned Pte Robinson as follows: "Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath, you are not obliged to do so but if you do it will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence." Pte Robinson made a statement. (Statement produced and marked Exhibit "G".) I recognize the statement marked as Exhibit "G" as that which was taken down by Capt. Snell and which was signed by Pte Robinson in my presence. I recognize both signatures as the accused's. The accused was not forced to give the statement. In fact he was given cigarettes to smoke while he made his statement.

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q1. Where did you find my holster?

A.I. I found it in your kit bag by your bed.

Jan Bernier Major.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness further.

Seventeenth Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. J. H. Snell, Adjutant, 2 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt J. H. Snell adjutant, 2 Cdn Base Rft Bn., 1 CBRD. At approximately 2315 hrs., 2 August 1944 I entered Canada Barracks and because of information received I contacted the Guard Commander, Lt. Dolan, and the Orderly Officer, Lt Marsden, to get information and instigate an investigation. I met Major Bernier, Paymaster, 2 Bn., 1 CBRD and as a result of what he told me I contacted Capt. Mc Kee, P.P.C.L.I., who gave me a set of identity discs bearing the name of a soldier "B 144 333 Pte Robinson, D." Major Bernier and I went through the card index systems of all three Bns to ascertain the whereabouts of the soldier whose name was on the identity discs. I recognize the discs marked Exhibit "C" as the pair handed to me by Capt McKee, on the night of 2nd August 1944. I e found that Pte Robinson was on strength 2 Bn, Seaforth Coy. I contacted the Orderly Corporal on duty at Seaforth Coy and he directed me to Pte Robinson's bed. I placed the soldier, whom I now recognize as the accused under close arrest, directing that he be taken to the Regimental Police, 2 Bn. ICARD I noticed at the time that the accused's face was bruised, his lips were cut, and there were several scratches on his neck. I searched the kit of the accused and I found a .45" automatic pistol, M1911 / 948416, under his pillow. I recognize the pistol marked Exhibit 'E' as the one found by me on the night 2nd August 1944 under Pte Robinson's pillow. The holster for the pistol was found in the small pack of the accused. I recognize the holster marked Exhibit "F" as the one found in the small pack of the accused. The pistol was empty but I would say it was fired recently because the barrel was corroded and smelt of powder. I instructed the Orderly Corporal, Cpl Shaw, to bring the complete kit of Pte Robinson to 2 Bn. Guard Room. I paraded Pte Robinson, cautioning him as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or give any evidence on oath, You are not obliged to say anything or give any evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

No promises, violence, or duress of any kind was made to the accused with the exception of cigarettes offered to him whilst I was taking down his statement. I recognize the statement marked Exhibit "G" as the signed statement taken down by me on the night 2nd August 1944. I recognize both signatures as those of the accused. I read the statement back to the soldier and had him sign it. The accused was not wearing a set of identity discs. He recognized the pistol M1911/948416 as his property. He acknowledged knowing the order concerning the wearing of identity discs as contained in the statement signed by him. On returning to the scene of the incident one casing of a .45 calibre bullet was turned over to me by Lt. Dolan. At approximately 0730 hrs. 3 Aug 1944, two other .45 calibre casings were turned over to me by the Assistant adjutant, Lt. Rumbaell., of 3 Bn. I recognize the casings marked Exhibit "D" as the casings turned over to me. I instructed the Orderly Officer Lt. Marshon, to report the incident through the proper channels.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q1. Where did you find my holster?

A1. The holster was found in the small pack of the accused."

"As President of a Court of Inquiry on the 3 August 1944 I heard evidence and as a result had the effects of Pte Robinson, whom I now recognize as the accused, searched. Two fountain pens were discovered on his person. The two pens marked Exhibit "B" are the same two pens taken from the person of the accused on the 3rd August 1944."

Nineteenth Witness for the Prosecution

B73385 Cpl. DeHarte, W. L., 3 Cdn. Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B73385 Cpl. DeHarte W.L., 3 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 CBR.D. On the night of 2 August 1944 at approximately 2130 hrs I entered the Main Gate of 1 CBRD in the company of two friends. We met a Hastings and Prince Edward soldier and stopped to talk. The three of us had been drinking a little and the Hastings man appeared quite drunk. I persuaded my two friends to go to their billets and tried to convince the Hastings and Prince Edward man to return to his. I then proceeded to my Coy Orderly Room and checked in with my Coy Orderly N.C.O. Returning across 1 Bn Parade Square to my billets, which were then in 1 Bn. building I encountered the Hastings and Prince Edward man again in attempting to pick an argument with a stranger. I persuaded the stranger to proceed to his billets. Then while doing so the Hastings and Prince Edward man became involved in an argument with another man and I chased him to his billets also. I argued with the Hastings and Prince Edward man for some time, endeavoring to make him return to his billets. While I was asking him to leave the square another shop approached, wearing Seaforth shoulder flashes and a Glengarry with a 4/8th Highlanders badge. I now recognize the accused as this man. This man's first words were: "Have you any money?" The Hastings and Prince Edward man answered, "Why?" The Seaforth, the accused, replied, "Give me a buck. I want a buck," in a demanding tone. I decided it was useless to try to keep the Hastings and Prince Edward man out of trouble and returned to my billets. This last meeting took place in the centre of 1 Bn's Sports Field. I had just returned to my billets when I heard a shot fired, followed shortly by another shot. I took no notice of these shots as such sounds are fairly frequent in the barracks. At the last meeting the strange appearance of a 48th Highlanders badge and the Seaforth Highlander flashes caused me to look very closely at the man and because of that I can recognize him again."

Cross examined by the accused:

Q1. On the night of 2 August 1944 you state that you could recognize a Seaforth wearing a 48th Glengarry and Seaforth flashes.

A1. "Yes."

Q2. In what way could you recognize the man?"

A2. By his general features.

Q.3. Explain general features.

A.3. A man of medium height, quite huskily built. I have a good memory for faces and remember a man's face.

Q.4. To get a good look at a man's face on the 2 August 1944

was it moonlight night or a dark night?

A.4. It was a bright moonlight night.

Q.5. Was there nothing about the man that you saw on 2 August 1944 that would stand out.

A.5. Yes, there was a dark mark running upward from the left hand corner of his mouth.

Q.6. In your statement you said you had been drinking and that you more or less admitted you were feeling better than your friends. So how could you say by the light of the moon that the party was the man that you identified on 2 August 1944.

A.6. I said in my statement that my friends and I had been drinking and that the Hastings and Prince Edward men appeared to be quite drunk. I was sober enough to know everything that was going on and had all my faculties about me.

Q.7. How can you identify a man by the light of the moon when you have been drinking.

A.7. I had not had sufficient to drink to dull any of my senses and further I was quite able to see this man and his face, and remember it.

Q.8. Would you or would you not sooner take a man's word when he is sober rather than when he has been drinking on an identification.

A.8. That depends upon the amount the man has been drinking. If he is still in full possession of his faculties it makes no difference.

Q.9. Would you commit yourself to say that you had full control of yourself when you have been drinking.

A.9 If moderately, yes. On the night in question I had had three or four ten litre glasses of vermouth.

Q.10. Did you identify any of the other men who were engaged with the Hastings and Prince Edward soldier on the night of the 2 Aug 1944 other than the accused?

A.10. I have had no opportunity of seeing all the men at I.C.B.R.D. Neither of these men were wearing shoulder flashes and I cannot identify their units.

Q.11. Do you identify everyone by their shoulder flashes?

A.11. No.

Q.12. How is it that you identified the accused by his shoulder flashes?

A.12. The fact that the man was wearing Seaforth flashes and a 48th badge caused me to look at him more closely than I might have otherwise.

Q.13. How close were you to the man you saw wearing Seaforth flashes and 48th Highlander Glengarry?

A.13. From two to three feet.

Q.14. Was the man you saw wearing Seaforth flashes and 48th Highlander Glengarry on the 2 August 1944 drunk?

A.14. He appeared to have been drinking but was not drunk.

"On the night of 2nd August 1944 I was employed as Coy Orderly Corporal and at approximately 2330 hours Capt Snell and the Paymaster came into "S" Coy Orderly Room. I was shown a set of identity discs. I looked at them and checked them with our nominal roll and found that they corresponded with the name and number of Pte Robinson, the accused, whom I now recognize. I then directed Capt Snell and the Paymaster to the bed of Robinson where I saw him sleeping. On instructions, I awoke Robinson and noticed that his lips were swollen; there was blood on his face, scratches on his neck and his identity discs were missing. Capt Snell ordered me to place him under close arrest and I had him taken to 2 Bn Detention Room. I was also directed to check this man's full kit and place it in the custody of the Regimental Police of 2 C.B.R.Bn. I checked the kit in "S" Coy Orderly Room and found nothing but a normal kit."

Q.5 What are your duties at 7 Bn ?
A.5 Draughtsman and sign painting.

A.6 I did, sir.

Q.7 I show you a sketch here. Is that the sketch you prepared of Canada Barracks ?
A.7 It is, sir.

A.8 Yes sir.

Q.9 Is it reasonably accurate ?
Q.10 Yes sir.

Q.11 There are two copies ?
A.11 Yes sir.

Q.12 Will you describe to the Court the meaning of the part coloured pink ?
A.12 The pink is the roadway.

Q.13 And the dotted lines ?
A.13 The dotted lines show where the roadway is, and these three spots here are parade squares. The dotted lines include the parade squares. The straight lines are the buildings themselves.

SECOND WITNESS for Prosecution (Capt A. Verdicchio, RCAMC, Medical Officer, 2 Bn (1 CBRD, having been duly sworn, is examined by (the Prosecutor

Q.14 Are you a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.14 Yes sir.

Q.15 Do you recall the 2nd of August ?
A.15 Yes, I do.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.16 This year ?
A.16 Yes.

Prosecutor:

Q.17 Will you tell the Court in your own words why you recall that particular night ?
A.17 On that particular night after dozing off to sleep, I was suddenly awakened from my sleep on hearing a couple of shots. A few minutes later I was called downstairs to the roadway in front of the entrance to 2 Bn. Officers' Mess, and there saw a soldier lying face downwards on the pavement.

Q.18 Will you point out on this sketch, (Exhibit "G"), the approximate point where you found the soldier lying ?
A.18 This point I am indicating is the spot where I found this Private soldier face downwards. (Marks point X on sketch).

Q.19 How would you describe this approximate position in relation to the Mess ?
A.19 The approximate position is about ten yards from the stairs leading up to the Mess.

Q.20 Will you describe your examination of the body ?
A.20 I examined the man and found his head lying in a pool of blood. I removed his hat and immediately noticed a large wound on his forehead to the right of the mid-line. He was breathing well and his pulse was fair. I examined the remainder of his head and felt a wound at the back of his skull which was dripping blood into my hand. I didn't examine any further then. I called for shell dressings, bandaged his head and called for a stretcher and a vehicle from the unit. A man took him to the MIR. There I examined his chest. The full particulars of the man were noticed on his identity discs. His name was obtained from the discs for the hospital records in order to fill out the admittance slip. The vehicle then arrived and I despatched him with my Corporal to No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.21 What time was that ?
A.21 I didn't notice the time at the start, but when the patient had been sent to the hospital, I noticed it to be about 2330 hours.

Q.22 You mentioned a wound in this man's head. Where was that wound ?
A.22 The wound that I saw was on the forehead up close to the hair line to the right of the mid-line.

Q.23 Where was the second wound ?
A.23 The second wound which I felt was in the back of his skull. I didn't see the second wound.

Q.24 What unit did this man belong to ?
A.24 His shoulder flashes showed him as Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.

Prosecutor's Opening Address

There will be put in evidence a plan of Canada Barracks to assist the Court, followed by such medical evidence as is now available. Following the medical evidence, there will be evidence offered to show that the accused was recognized near the scene of the crime a short time before, and when his quarters were searched, a weapon was found hidden away near his bed, that weapon belonging to the accused and showing signs of having been recently fired. There will be evidence offered that one Pte Willcock was held up about an hour before the body of Dillon was found, and his Glengarry and a fountain pen were removed from his person. Evidence will also be adduced to show that the pen taken from Pte Willcock was found on the person of the accused. I think you will find the evidence will more or less flow together to establish the prosecution's case.

Cross-examined:

Q.25 Will you describe a little more fully the description of the body as you saw it first ?
A.25 Yes. As I saw him first, the patient was lying flat on his face; as we say, in a prone position, with his left cheek lying on the pavement in this position. (Indicates).

Q.26 How do you determine which is the point of entry and which is the point of exit of a wound ?
A.26 On detailed examination, the point of entry is usually described as being small fairly clean point on the top of the wound. The point of exit of a through and through wound shows more fragmentation and is larger.

Q.27 What is the first time you examined him to establish his identity ?
A.27 I examined his identity discs in the middle of the road as soon as we got him on the stretcher.

Q.28 That is the only means you had of identifying him ?
A.28 That is all, sir.

Q.29 Did you check his paybook ?
A.29 I did not.

Q.30 I suggest to you that you had something to do with another set of identity discs that evening ?
A.30 That is true. I saw some other identity discs that evening.

Q.31 Where did you see them ?
A.31 I saw them in the hand of Capt McKee.

Q.32 And was that out on the roadway of Canada Barracks or was it some where else ?
A.32 I saw them in my own room.

Q.33 What were the circumstances of your seeing these identity discs ?
A.33 The discs were offered to me as a means of identifying a patient by Capt McKee.

Q.34 Did you handle the identity discs at all ?
A.34 As far as I recall, I did.

Q.35 Is there any possibility that this body was shot while lying on t ground ?
A.35 The possibility always remains, sir.

Q.36 Why do you say that ?
A.36 It could have happened.

Q.37 What opinion did you come to as a result of the examination of the wounds ?
A.37 The opinion I came to was that this man had been shot through the head and fell face downward on the roadway.

Q.38 Having regard to the size of the wound that you saw, is it probable that the wounde man walked for some distance or was thrown right down on the roadw
A.38 I would consider it unlikely that he walked for any distance at al

Q.39 Do you think it possible, from that type of wound, for a man to fa and try and get up again or not ?
A.39 He became unconscious the moment he was wounded.

Q.40 Did you check the fingernails of this man ?
A.40 No, I didn't.

Q.41 Can you tell us what happened to the beret when you took it off ?
A.41 When I took the beret off I held it up and handed it to someone a the bystanders.

Q.42 Where did you see the beret again ?
A.42 After the patient had gone to hospital, the beret was brought into the MIR by a Lieutenant. I believe he was the Guard Commander.

Q.43 What happened to it then ?
A.43 Well, I looked at it, noticed a hole in the back, one in the front, The inside was filled with blood.

Q.44 Now in applying your shell dressing would you touch the wound at the front or rear ?
A.44 I didn't make any attempt to clean up the wound.

Re-examined:

Q.45 The identity discs that you examined on the wounded man, how were they attached to him ?
A.45 They were attached, but I cannot recall whether it was by a piece of string or by a chain. Whether they were attached in the appropriate manner I cannot say. They were around his neck.

Q.46 What did you do with them ?
A.46 I merely looked at them , took the information from them, name and number, and left them in place.

By the Court:

WB13 Q.47 Will you indicate ~~on your own head~~ the point of entry and the point of exit on your own head ?
A.47 There was a wound there and a wound there as far as I can remember. (The witness indicates a wound in the forehead and a wound in the back of the head, the latter wound being lower than the former).

Q.48 Were there any other marks on the face or elsewhere ?
A.48 None that I saw or took the trouble to look for.

Q.49 Any powder burns ?
A.49 No, Ididn't see any obvious powder burns.

Q.50 Can you give the Court the approximate time when the wounded man was moved to the hospital ?
A.50 It would be around 2300 hours. That is an approximation.

Q.51 In your opinion, which of the two wounds did you consider to be the wound of entry ?
A.51 My first impression when I saw him and examined him, - not having seen but merely felt the wound at the back - was that the large wound in the forehead was the wound of exit.

Q.52 Have you had any cause to change your opinion from your own examination ?
A.52 I have had no opportunity of examining the patient further.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.53 Was the wounded man conscious ?
A.53 He was unconscious.

Q.54 Did he regain consciousness when he was in your hands ?
A.54 No.

Q.55 What was the name you saw stamped on the identity discs which were around the wounded man's neck ?
A.55 Pte Dillon.

Q.56 And the number ?
A.56 I don't recall the number.

Q.57 The initials ?
A.57 No.

WB

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of R/ 83(B).

THIRD WITNESS(K58039 Cpl Stewart, H. 2 Bn, 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.58 What are your duties, Corporal ?
A.58 My duties - I am the Medical Corporal in the MIR.

Q.59 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.59 I do, sir.

Q.60 Will you tell the Court in your own words what happened that night ?
A.60 As to the approximate time, I think it was around 2330 hours. I was in my bed and shortly after retiring I heard some shots being fired. Of course I didn't think anything of it at the time. Shortly afterwards I was awakened and was told .....

Judge Advocate:

You cannot repeat conversationsthat you had with anybody unless the accused, Pte Robinson, was present. You can state that you had conversation, and as a result of such conversation you did something or were ordered to do something. You can state that somebody gave you orders and then you can tell what you did after that.

By the Prosecutor:

Q.61 Will you point out to the Court where you were in relation to the spot marked "X" on Exhibit "G" ?
A.61 Here. (Witness indicates the spot where he was).

Q.62 What did you do when you arrived at that spot ?
A.62 I immediately applied a field dressing to the injured man's head. As I put the bandage on, I found there was more blood coming from the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing to his head at the back. He was then placed on a stretcher and carried into the MIR. When he was in the MIR, we wrote out the admittance slip for him to be admitted to the hospital. I read off from the identity discs the number, rank and name of the wounded man to the Medical Officer. Then when transportation came I went with the patient to the hospital. When we arrived there, I believe it was Major Davidson who looked into the case. I am not certain whether it is Major Davidson or Major Howard. I was opposite Major Davidson when the dressings were taken off.

Q.63 What hospital was this ?
A.63 The hospital was No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp, sir.

Q.64 Where were the identity discs ?
A.64 The identity discs were on his neck, sir.

Q.65 What were the particulars you read off those discs ?
A.65 His number and his rank and name was on it.

Q.66 What was the name ?
A.66 The name was "Dillon".

Q.67 Do you recall the number ?
A.67 No sir, I don't.

Q.68 Why did you read the particulars to the Medical Officer ?
A.68 The light in the MIR is very poor. At the time he couldn't find out who this man was. That was when I looked for his identity discs.

Q.69 Why did you read them out to the Medical Officer ?
A.69 The light was very poor. He couldn't see it.

Q.70 Did you not read them out to the Medical Officer in order to give the particulars to him ?
A.70 Yes sir.

Cross examined:

Q.71 When you read out those particulars, did Capt Verdicchio fill out the hospital admission slip ?
A.71 Yes sir.

Q.72 The only information that Capt Verdicchio had of the wounded man was something you told him ?
A.72 From the identity discs.

Q.73 You read out the name and number from the identity discs to Capt Verdicchio, is that correct ?
A.73 Yes sir.

Q.74 Then you read out the particulars on the hospital admission slip?
A.74 Yes sir.

Q.75 Then, the only information as to the identity of the wounded man on the hospital slip was something you told Capt Verdicchio ?
A.75 Yes, sir.

Q.76 You say you applied a shell dressing ?
A.76 Yes sir.

Q.77 What was Capt Verdicchio doing ?
A.77 He applied the first one and I applied the second. I saw more blood on the back of his head. I tore up the first shell dressing and gave it to Capt Verdicchio.

Q.78 Did you notice which wound was the larger of the two ?
A.78 The wound on the forehead was larger than the one on the back of the head.

Q.79 You saw that yourself.
A.79 Yes sir.

No Re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.80 In the MIR were you the only one who examined the patient ?
A.80 There was another officer. On account of the bad light he couldn't make head or tail of the identity discs that is when I looked at it myself.

Q.81 Did you see the MO examine the patient ?
A.81 Yes sir.

Q.82 Will you describe to the Court how he examined the patient ?
A.82 When I got there Capt Verdicchio was there ahead of me. That is when we applied the first field dressing.

Q.83 In the MIR ?
A.83 The shell dressings were all on him.

Q.84 Were there any further examinations of the patient at that time ?
A.84 Not that I remember.

Q.85 You mentioned hearing shots fired. Did Pte Dillon have any weapon near him ?
A.85 I didn't see any, sir.

Q.86 Did you see the MO examine the identity discs about the neck of the patient ?
A.86 No sir.

Q.87 Who did you say applied the first dressing and the second dressing ?

FIFTH WITNESS (Major J.R. Davidson, 3 Can Gen Hosp RCAMC for Prosecution (having been duly sworn (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.115 You are a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.115 I am.

Q.116 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.116 I do.

Q.117 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.117 At approximately 2330 hours, I was called to the admitting room to see a man who had suffered from a through and through wound of his skull. He was unconscious. I removed the dressing which had been applied and examined the patient. I found a through and through wound of the skull. Brain tissue was exuding from the wound in the forehead. I re-applied fresh dressings and ordered the man to be taken to No 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.118 In your opinion what caused the wound.
A.118 In my opinion it was caused by some sharp missile, probably a rifle or a revolver bullet.

Q.119 Will you point out on your own head where the two wounds in the head were ?
A.119 As closely as I can remember, sir, the one was approximately on the back of the head, and the other was on the forehead. (The witness indicates the position of the two wounds; the one at the back of the head being the lower down than the one on the forehead).

Cross-examined:

Q.120 Do you know who this patient was ?
A.120 No sir. I believe it was Pte Dillon. I just heard his name mentioned from his documents. It is more important for a medical man working in a hospital to treat the patient than to find out who he is.

Q.121 Did you at any time take any specific steps to establish the identity of this patient in your own mind ?
A.121 No sir.

Q.122 How do you determine which is the point of entry and the point of exit ?
A.122 It is generally believed that the wound of entrance of a bullet entering the skull is what might be termed a clean-cut hole, while the wound of exit usually shows fragmented bone.

Q.123 If any difference of opinion arises between the opinion formed by the medical officers first attending a wounded man and the doctor conducting a post-mortem examination, subsequently, which would you suggest to the Court would be more accurate ?
A.123 Do you refer to a man examining the wound after he had been operated on ?
Q.124 If there had been previous interference by a surgeon, would you explain the difference in the wounds then ?
A.124 It is possible, had there been previous treatment, the wounds of exit and entrance might be confused.

Q.125 Now, did you make any other examination of this patient apart from the head injury ?
A.125 Just as to his general condition, checking his pulse.

Q.126 Did you check his fingers or fingernails ?
A.126 No, I did not.

Q.127 What, Doctor Davidson, was the extent of your interference with that wound - the amount of treatment ?
A.127 There was no interference apart from applying fresh dressings to the skull and bandaging the head.

Q.128 Now, for the purpose of getting a little technical information across the Court, is there such a bone as an occipital bone ?
A.128 That is the bone at the back of the head, part of the skull.

Q.129 How would you describe the right frontal bone ?
A.129 The right frontal bone refers to the case of the skull. The right frontal bone would be on the right side of the mid-line, beneath which lies the frontal lobe of the brain.

Q.130 I would like you to answer the next two questions, if possible, by merely stating "yes" or "no". Have you ever heard of injury by contracoup.
A.130 Yes.

Q.131 Has this injury by contracoup ever been satisfactorily explained by medical science ?
A.131 I cannot answer that question "yes" or "no".

WPB

Q.132 Injury by contrecoup is still a contentious question in medical science ?
A.132 I don' think that is a fair way of putting it.

No Re-examination.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.133 When you were indicating the position of the wound, front and rear, with your finger, am I to assume that at the front that was the approximate position in the wounded man's forehead.
A.133 I cannot state definitely, only approximately.

Q.134 From what medical school did you graduate ?
A.134 McGill.

Q.135 In what year ?
A.135 1929.

Q.136 You have been practising medicine and surgery ever since ?
A.136 Yes.

Q.137 Which of the two wounds was the wound of entrance?
A.137 In my opinion the entrance was at the back.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Q.139 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.139 Yes, sir.

Q.140 What happened that evening ?
A.140 I was just having supper. At approximately 2330 hours a case came in which we attended to. At approximately 2355 hours we put him in an ambulance, and I went down to 65 British Gen Hosp with him.

Q.141 Who was this patient ?
A.141 According to his papers, it was Pte Dillon.

Q.142 What did you do when you got him at 65 British Gen Hosp ?
A.142 We took him in to the A & D room and they looked after him there.

Q.143 Did you examine this patient ?
A.143 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.144 The only way you know who this patient was is from his papers he carried ?
A.144 Yes sir.

Q.145 The only method ?
A.145 Yes sir.

A.149 During the night, about a quarter to two, Pte Dillon was brought into the hospital with a gun shot wound in the head. He was sent to the Duty Officer and admitted to 65 Gen Hosp.

Q.150 Who brought the patient in ?
A.150 An ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp brought the patient in. I don't quite recall whether there was an orderly or just the driver with him. There was definitely someone who brought him in and handed him over.

Q.151 How did you obtain the particulars of this man ?
A.151 From his documents.

A.152 Yes sir. Admitted him from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.165 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.165 At about a quarter to two in the morning I was called to see a patient who was admitted to 65 British Gen Hosp, transferred to that hospital from No 3 Gdn Gen Hosp. The patient was suffering from a through and through gun wound on the right side of his head. He was deeply unconscious. He did not respond to any questions or pain. I arranged his resuscitation and transferred him to the Resuscitation Ward. I also informed the surgeon on duty from the Neurosugical Unit who took over this case immediately.

Q.166 Will you describe to the Court where these wounds were in this man's head, either by pointing out or - - - ?

Q.168 How many cases did you admit that night ?

C.72375 Pte Louis Frederick ROBICHEAU NNS

NOTE E.3

In the case of accused, I wish to bring before the court, Pte Robicheau enlisted in April 43. From that itme until present he has 5 crimes. All these occured while in England. He came to his unit on 13th Oct 44 during fighting in Sheld Estuary. He served with the unit until Div moved to Ghent for rest. While in Ghent with unit he decided that he would spend French money in his possesion, so crossed border to France and came back on 9 Nov to rejoin unit. The unit had moved. Accused heard that unit had moved to HOLLAND so followed but found no trace. He returned to Ghent and heard rumour, that unit was at St Deinz which is about 20 kil from Ghent. The unit had moved again so accused returned to Ghent where he stayed until surrendering on 30th Dec 44 to R.P. This story ~~that he was absent for the~~ shows that it was not intentional that he was absent for the first time, but that he made an honest effort to rejoin his unit.

Pte Robicheau is single but has dependent mother. He wishes to return to his coy as soon as possible so I offer this plea to the court, that his story be considered and that he be granted his wish.

(R. of P. 83 (B) complied with.)

SECOND WITNESS for Prosecution (Capt A. Verdicchio, RCAMC, Medical Officer, 2 Bn, (1 CBRD, having been duly sworn, is examined by (the Prosecutor

Q.14 Are you a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.14 Yes sir.

Q.15 Do you recall the 2nd of August ?
A.15 Yes, I do.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.16 This year ?
A.16 Yes.

Prosecutor:

Q.17 Will you tell the Court in your own words why you recall that particular night ?
A.17 On that particular night after dozing off to sleep, I was suddenly awakened from my sleep on hearing a couple of shots. A few minutes later I was called downstairs to the roadway in front of the entrance to 2 Bn. Officers' Mess, and there saw a soldier lying face downwards on the pavement.

Q.18 Will you point out on this sketch, (Exhibit "G"), the approximate point where you found the soldier lying ?
A.18 This point I am indicating is the spot where I found this Private soldier face downwards. (Marks point X on sketch).

Q.19 How would you describe this approximate position in relation to the Mess ?
A.19 The approximate position is about ten yards from the stairs leading up to the Mess.

Q.20 Will you describe your examination of the body ?
A.20 I examined the man and found his head lying in a pool of blood. I removed his hat and immediately noticed a large wound on his forehead to the right of the mid-line. He was breathing well and his pulse was fair. I examined the remainder of his head and felt a wound at the back of his skull which was dripping blood into my hand. I didn't examine any further then. I called for shell dressings, bandaged his head and called for a stretcher and a vehicle from the unit. A man took him to the MIR. There I examined his chest. The full particulars of the man were noticed on his identity discs. His name was obtained from the discs for the hospital records in order to fill out the admittance slip. The vehicle then arrived and I despatched him with my Corporal to No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.21 What time was that ?
A.21 I didn't notice the time at the start, but when the patient had been sent to the hospital, I noticed it to be about 2330 hours.

Q.22 You mentioned a wound in this man's head. Where was that wound ?
A.22 The wound that I saw was on the forehead up close to the hair line to the right of the mid-line.

Q.23 Where was the second wound ?
A.23 The second wound which I felt was in the back of his skull. I didn't see the second wound.

Q.24 What unit did this man belong to ?
A.24 His shoulder flashes showed him as Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.

Proceedings on Plea Not Guilty.

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A))

Question: Q.4 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer: A.4 No sir.

The prosecutor makes an opening address (xxxx

Prosecutor's Opening Address

There will be put in evidence a plan of Canada Barracks to assist the Court, followed by such medical evidence as is now available. Following the medical evidence, there will be evidence offered to show that the accused was recognized near the scene of the crime a short time before, and when his quarters were searched, a weapon was found hidden away near his bed, that weapon belonging to the accused and showing signs of having been recently fired. There will be evidence offered that one Pte Willcock was held up about an hour before the body of Dillon was found, and his Glengarry and a fountain pen were removed from his person. Evidence will also be adduced to show that the pen taken from Pte Willcock was found on the person of the accused. I think you will find the evidence will more or less flow together to establish the prosecution's case.

Cross-examined:

Q.25 Will you describe a little more fully the description of the body as you saw it first ?
A.25 Yes. As I saw him first, the patient was lying flat on his face: as we say, in a prone position, with his left cheek lying on the pavement in this position. (Indicates).

Q.26 How do you determine which is the point of entry and which is the point of exit of a wound ?
A.26 On detailed examination, the point of entry is usually described as being small fairly clean point on the top of the wound. The point of exit of a through and through wound shows more fragmentation and is larger.

Q.27 What is the first time you examined him to establish his identity ?
A.27 I examined his identity discs in the middle of the road as soon as we got him on the stretcher.

Q.28 That is the only means you had of identifying him ?
A.28 That is all, sir.

Q.29 Did you check his paybook ?
A.29 I did not.

Q.30 I suggest to you that you had something to do with another set of identity discs that evening ?
A.30 That is true. I saw some other identity discs that evening.

Q.31 Where did you see them ?
A.31 I saw them in the hand of Capt McKee.

Q.32 And was that out on the roadway of Canada Barracks or was it some where else ?
A.32 I saw them in my own room.

Q.33 What were the circumstances of your seeing these identity discs ?
A.33 The discs were offered to me as a means of identifying a patient by Capt McKee.

Q.34 Did you handle the identity discs at all ?
A.34 As far as I recall, I did.

Q.35 Is there any possibility that this body was shot while lying on the ground ?
A.35 The possibility always remains, sir.

Q.36 Why do you say that ?
A.36 It could have happened.

Q.37 What opinion did you come to as a result of the examination of the wounds ?
A.37 The opinion I came to was that this man had been shot through the head and fell face downward on the roadway.

Q.38 Having regard to the size of the wound that you saw, is it probable that the wounded man walked for some distance or was thrown right down on the roadway ?
A.38 I would consider it unlikely that he walked for any distance at all.

Q.39 Do you think it possible, from that type of wound, for a man to fall and try and get up again or not ?
A.39 He became unconscious the moment he was wounded.

Q.40 Did you check the fingernails of this man ?
A.40 No, I didn't.

Q.41 Can you tell us what happened to the beret when you took it off ?
A.41 When I took the beret off I held it up and handed it to someone among the bystanders.

Q.42 Where did you see the beret again ?
A.42 After the patient had gone to hospital, the beret was brought into the MIR by a Lieutenant. I believe he was the Guard Commander.

Q.43 What happened to it then ?
A.43 Well, I looked at it, noticed a hole in the back, one in the front, The inside was filled with blood.

Q.44 Now in applying your shell dressing would you touch the wound at the front or rear ?
A.44 I didn't make any attempt to clean up the wound.

Re-examined:

Q.45 The identity discs that you examined on the wounded man, how were they attached to him ?
A.45 They were attached, but I cannot recall whether it was by a piece of string or by a chain. Whether they were attached in the appropriate manner I cannot say. They were around his neck.

Q.46 What did you do with them ?
A.46 I merely looked at them , took the information from them, name and number, and left them in place.

By the Court:

Q.47 Will you indicate on your head the point of entry and the point of exit on your own head ?
A.47 There was a wound there and a wound there as far as I can remember. (The witness indicates a wound in the forehead and a wound in the back of the head, the latter wound being lower than the former).

Q.48 Were there any other marks on the face or elsewhere ?
A.48 None that I saw or took the trouble to look for.

Q.49 Any powder burns ?
A.49 No, Ididn't see any obvious powder burns.

Q.50 Can you give the Court the approximate time when the wounded man was moved to the hospital ?
A.50 It would be around 2300 hours. That is an approximation.

Q.51 In your opinion, which of the two wounds did you consider to be the wound of entry ?
A.51 My first impression when I saw him and examined him, - not having seen but merely felt the wound at the back - was that the large wound in the forehead was the wound of exit.

Q.52 Have you had any cause to change your opinion from your own examination ?
A.52 I have had no opportunity of examining the patient further.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.53 Was the wounded man conscious ?
A.53 He was unconscious.

Q.54 Did he regain consciousness when he was in your hands ?
A.54 No.

Q.55 What was the name you saw stamped on the identity discs which were around the wounded man's neck ?
A.55 Pte Dillon.

Q.56 And the number ?
A.56 I don't recall the number.

Q.57 The initials ?
A.57 No.

Q.58 What are your duties, Corporal ?
A.58 My duties - I am the Medical Corporal in the MIR.

Q.59 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.59 I do, sir.

Q.60 Will you tell the Court in your own words what happened that night ?
A.60 As to the approximate time, I think it was around 2330 hours. I was in my bed and shortly after retiring I heard some shots being fired. Of course I didn't think anything of it at the time. Shortly afterwards I was awakened and was told .....

Judge Advocate:

You cannot repeat conversations that you had with anybody unless the accused, Pte Robinson, was present. You can state that you had conversation, and as a result of such conversation you did something or were ordered to do something. You can state that somebody gave you orders and then you can tell what you did after that.

By the Prosecutor:

Q.61 Will you point out to the Court where you were in relation to the spot marked "X" on Exhibit "G" ?
A.61 Here. (Witness indicates the spot where he was).

Q.62 What did you do when you arrived at that spot ?
A.62 I immediately applied a field dressing to the injured man's head. As I put the bandage on, I found there was more blood coming from the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing to his head at the back. He was then placed on a stretcher and carried into the MIR. When he was in the MIR, we wrote out the admittance slip for him to be admitted to the hospital. I read off from the identity discs the number, rank and name of the wounded man to the Medical Officer. Then when transportation came I went with the patient to the hospital. When we arrived there, I believe it was Major Davidson who looked into the case. I am not certain whether it is Major Davidson or Major Howard. I was opposite Major Davidson when the dressings were taken off.

Q.63 What hospital was this ?
A.63 The hospital was No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp, sir.

Q.64 Where were the identity discs ?
A.64 The identity discs were on his neck, sir.

Q.65 What were the particulars you read off those discs ?
A.65 His number and his rank and name was on it.

Q.66 What was the name ?
A.66 The name was "Dillon".

Q.67 Do you recall the number ?
A.67 No sir, I don't.

Q.68 Why did you read the particulars to the Medical Officer ?
A.68 The light in the MIR is very poor. At the time he couldn't find out who this man was. That was when I looked for his identity discs.

Q.69 Why did you read them out to the Medical Officer ?
A.69 The light was very poor. He couldn't see it.

P.W.C.

Q.70 Did you not read them out to the Medical Officer in order to give the particulars to him ?
A.70 Yes sir.

Cross examined:

Q.71 When you read out those particulars, did Capt Verdicchio fill out the hospital admission slip ?
A.71 Yes sir.

Q.72 The only information that Capt Verdicchio had of the wounded man was something you told him ?
A.72 From the identity discs.

Q.73 You read out the name and number from the identity discs to Capt Verdicchio, is that correct ?
A.73 Yes sir.

Q.74 Then you read out the particulars on the hospital admission slip?
A.74 Yes sir.

Q.75 Then, the only information as to the identity of the wounded man on the hospital slip was something you told Capt Verdicchio ?
A.75 Yes, sir.

Q.76 You say you applied a shell dressing ?
A.76 Yes sir.

Q.77 What was Capt Verdicchio doing ?
A.77 He applied the first one and I applied the second. I saw more blood on the back of his head. I tore up the first shell dressing and gave it to Capt Verdicchio.

Q.78 Did you notice which wound was the larger of the two ?
A.78 The wound on the forehead was larger than the one on the back of the head.

Q.79 You saw that yourself.
A.79 Yes sir.

No Re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.80 In the MIR were you the only one who examined the patient ?
A.80 There was another officer. On account of the bad light he couldn't make head or tail of the identity discs. That is when I looked at it myself.

Q.81 Did you see the MO examine the patient ?
A.81 Yes sir.

Q.82 Will you describe to the Court how he examined the patient ?
A.82 When I got there Capt Verdicchio was there ahead of me. That is when we applied the first field dressing.

Q.83 In the MIR ?
A.83 The shell dressings were all on him.

Q.84 Were there any further examinations of the patient at that time ?
A.84 Not that I remember.

Q.85 You mentioned hearing shots fired. Did Pte Dillon have any weapon near him ?
A.85 I didn't see any, sir.

Q.86 Did you see the MO examine the identity discs about the neck of the patient ?
A.86 No sir.

W.B.

Q.87 Who did you say applied the first dressing and the second dressing ?
A.87 Capt Verdicchio applied the first one. That is when I saw the blood at the back coming through the bandage.

Q.88 Now describe what you saw on the identity discs ?
A.88 On his identity discs, all I remember seeing was the number, rank and name.

Q.89 You saw his number, rank and name ?
A.89 Yes, sir.

Q.90 Did you recognize the initials ?
A.90 The initials also.

Q.91 Anything else ?
A.91 No sir.

Q.92 Do you recall what initials were on the disc ?
A.92 No, I can't recall that at all.

Q.93 Do you recall how many initials ?
A.93 No, I don't recall that at all.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.94 Who took charge of the wounded man when he arrived at No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp ?
A.94 Major Davidson took over, I believe, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

A.100 Yes sir.

FIFTH WITNESS(Major J.R. Davidson, 3 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC for Prosecution (having been duly sworn (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.115 You are a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.115 I am.

Q.116 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.116 I do.

Q.117 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.117 At approximately 2330 hours, I was called to the admitting room to see a man who had suffered from a through and through wound of his skull. He was unconscious. I removed the dressing which had been applied and examined the patient. I found a through and through wound of the skull. Brain tissue was exuding from the wound in the forehead. I re-applied fresh dressings and ordered the man to be taken to No 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.118 In your opinion what caused the wound.
A.118 In my opinion it was caused by some sharp missile, probably a rifle or a revolver bullet.

Q.119 Will you point out on your own head where the two wounds in the head were ?
A.119 As closely as I can remember, sir, the one was approximately on the back of the head, and the other was on the forehead. (The witness indicates the position of the two wounds; the one at the back of the head being the lower down than the one on the forehead).

Cross-examined:

Q.120 Do you know who this patient was ?
A.120 No sir. I believe it was Pte Dillon. I just heard his name mentioned from his documents. It is more important for a medical man working in a hospital to treat the patient than to find out who he is.

Q.121 Did you at any time take any specific steps to establish the identity of this patient in your own mind ?
A.121 No sir.

Q.122 How do you determine which is the point of entry and the point of exit ?
A.122 It is generally believed that the wound of entrance of a bullet entering the skull is what might be termed a clean-cut hole, while the wound of exit usually shows fragmented bone.

Q.123 If any difference of opinion arises between the opinion formed by the medical officers first attending a wounded man and the doctor conducting a post-mortem examination, subsequently, which would you suggest to the Court would be more accurate ?
A.123 Do you refer to a man examining the wound after he had been operated on ?
Q.124 If there had been previous interference by a surgeon, would you explain the difference in the wounds then ?
A.124 It is possible, had there been previous treatment, the wounds of exit and entrance might be confused.

Q.125 Now, did you make any other examination of this patient apart from the head injury ?
A.125 Just as to his general condition, checking his pulse.

Q.126 Did you check his fingers or fingernails ?
A.126 No, I did not.

Q.127 What, Doctor Davidson, was the extent of your interference with that wound - the amount of treatment ?
A.127 There was no interference apart from applying fresh dressings to the skull and bandaging the head.

Q.128 Now, for the purpose of getting a little technical information across the Court, is there such a bone as an occiptal bone ?
A.128 That is the bone at the back of the head, part of the skull.

Q.129 How would you describe the right frontal bone ?
A.129 The right frontal bone refers to the case of the skull. The right frontal bone would be on the right side of the mid-line, beneath which lies the frontal lobe of the brain.

Q.130 I would like you to answer the next two questions, if possible, by merely stating "yes" or "no". Have you ever heard of injury by contracoup.
A.130 Yes.

Q.131 Has this injury by contracoup ever been satisfactorily explained by medical science ?
A.131 I cannot answer that question "yes" or "no".

Q.132 Injury by contracoup is still a contentious question in medical science ?
A.132 I don't think that is a fair way of putting it.

No Re-examination.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.133 When you were indicating the position of the wound, front and rear, with your finger, am I to assume that at the front that was the approximate position in the wounded man's forehead.
A.133 I cannot state definitely, only approximately.

Q.134 From what medical school did you graduate ?
A.134 McGill.

Q.135 In what year ?
A.135 1929.

Q.136 You have been practising medicine and surgery ever since ?
A.136 Yes.

Q.137 Which of the two wounds was the wound of entrance?
A.137 In my opinion the entrance was at the back.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Q.140 What happened that evening ?
A.140 I was just having supper. At approximately 2330 hours a case came in which we attended to. At approximately 2355 hours we put him in an ambulance, and I went down to 65 British Gen Hosp with him.

Q.141 Who was this patient ?
A.141 According to his papers, it was Pte Dillon.

Q.142 What did you do when you got him at 65 British Gen Hosp ?
A.142 We took him in to the A & D room and they looked after him there.

Q.143 Did you examine this patient ?
A.143 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.144 The only way you know who this patient was is from his papers he carried ?

A.145 Yes sir.

A.149 During the night, about a quarter to two, Pte Dillon was brought into the hospital with a gun shot wound in the head. He was sent to the Duty Officer and admitted to 65 Gen Hosp.

Q.150 Who brought the patient in ?
A.150 An ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp brought the patient in. I don't quite recall whether there was an orderly or just the driver with him. There was definitely someone who brought him in and handed him over.

Q.151 How did you obtain the particulars of this man ?
A.151 From his documents.

Q.152 And you said the Orderly Officer admitted him ?
A.152 Yes sir. Admitted him from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.164 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.164 Yes.

W.B.B.

Q.165 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.165 At about a quarter to two in the morning I was called to see a patient who was admitted to 65 British Gen Hosp, transferred to that hospital from No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp. The patient was suffering from a through and through gun wound on the right side of his head. He was deeply unconscious. He did not respond to any questions or pain. I arranged his resuscitation and transferred him to the Resuscitation Ward. I also informed the surgeon on duty from the Neurosugical Unit who took over this case immediately.

Q.166 Will you describe to the Court where these wounds were in this man's head, either by pointing out or - - - ?
A.166 I did not disturb his dressings, but the wound appeared to be on the right side of the forehead and the right side of the back of the head.

Q.167 What were your particular duties with this man ?
A.167 Only Orderly Medical Officer.

Q.168 How many cases did you admit that night ?

Q.173 Those are the characteristics of pistol or revolver wounds ?
A.173 Yes sir.

Q.174 Did you get any information about the wounds after the surgical dressings were removed ?

A.212 On the night of 2nd August at about 2015 o'clock I was walking along the west side of the Petawawa Bldg going south. About half way down a fellow came up and put a gun in my side. Then, he looked at me and saw my Glengarry and said, "I could do .....

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.285 Would you point out on Exhibit "G" the location of the Guard Room to which you went?
A.285 Here sir. (Witness indicates point "E" on sketch.)

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

ELEVENTH WITNESS (K.30716 Sgt Whynot, R.H. (WEST NSR) 1 Bn 1 CBRD for Prosecution) (having been duly sworn) (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.286 What duties do you perform at your unit?
A.286 Provost Sgt 1 Bn.

Q.287 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.287 Yes sir.

Q.288 What happened?
A.288 At approximately 2245 hrs on the 2nd Aug 44, I was in my Guard Room making out my Guard Report. I heard one shot fired. I immediately left my work and ran from the Guard Room.

Q.289 Where did the shot come from?
A.289 From my estimation it seemed to come from the direction of the Carleton & York and Hast PER Bks.

Q.290 Would you point out where these bks are, please?
A.290 (The witness points to the Kingston Block.) I thought the shots came from the Kingston Block.

Q.291 Where were you at that time?
A.291 I was here. (Marks point with an "E" on the sketch.)

Q.292 After you left the Guard Room what happened?
A.292 When I was outside I heard two more shots fired.

Q.293 Where did they come from?
A.293 The same direction I thought.

Q.294 When you got outside did you notice anything unusual?
A.294 No sir. There were quite a few drunks around that night.

Q.295 What did you do then?
A.295 I stopped for a moment at the entrance of the Borden Block looking around to see what I could see. It was then I noticed a soldier in front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess trying to get up.

Q.296 What did you do?
A.296 Well, due to the fact that there were a good many drunks that evening I didn't do anything immediately.

Q.297 Did you further investigate this body?
A.297 Yes sir.

Q.298 What did you find out in the investigation?
A.298 When I saw everyone running towards the body, I ran to the body myself.

Q.299 Who was present?
A.299 The Guard Commander and the Cpl of the Guard were present.

Q.300 Where was this body?
A.300 The body was at the main entrance of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess in the Ottawa Bldg.

A.301 It was towards the Borden Block.

Q.302 How far?
A.302 About 15 feet from the entrance.

Q.303 Will you point this spot out on Exhibit "G"?
A.303 Here sir. (Witness points to Point "X" on the sketch.)

Q.304 Did you find out who this man was from your own investigation?
A.304 The Guard Comd and Cpl of the Guard had the situation well in hand.

Q.305 Did you recognize the man?
A.305 No sir, I didn't.

Q.306 What type of a night was it?
A.306 A moonlit night, sir.

Q.307 How far could you see?
A.307 I could see approximately 100 yards that night, sir.

Cross-examined:

A.308 Definitely, sir.

Q.309 Were you out of the Guard Room on hearing the second and third shots?
A.309 No sir.

Q.310 Were you still inside?
A.310 I was on my way out.

Q.311 Were you in motion?
A.311 I was.

Q.312 How long did it take to get a clear view?
A.312 Approximately 15 seconds to get a clear view.

Q.313 How long to get into the area?
A.313 A matter of seconds.

Q.314 How many?
A.314 About 10 seconds.

Q.315 You were in motion leaving the Guard Room. How soon would you have a view of the scene and be able to see any person running away from the area in which the body was found?
A.315 In the first place I didn't know where the body was. It would take at least 30 seconds to focus.

Q.316 Leaving the office at point "E" on the sketch, I suggest to you that it would be still impossible to take 15 seconds before getting a view of the square. How long did you take?
A.316 10 or 15 seconds. I was walking at the time.

Q.317 You told the Court you were in motion. Are you still satisfied that you would take 15 seconds to get a view after you were in motion on the way out?
A.317 After hearing the first shot it wouldn't take that long. I would think it would take me from 5 to 10 seconds to get out of there.

Q.318 Do you know whether or not there had been a pay day on that evening or before that evening?
A.318 I know that there was one on the 30th of the month.

Q.319 You suggested that there were a lot of drunks about. Does that give you any stimulus to bring back the recollection of a pay day?
A.319 In 1 Bn there are a good many drunks at all times at night; not during parade hours.

Q.320 You have told the Court you saw a body fall?
A.320 No sir, I didn't say that.

hAB

Q.321 What did you say?
A.321 I told the Court that I saw a body trying to get up.

Q.322 Are you sure you didn't see a body falling?
A.322 No sir, it wasn't falling.

Q.323 What makes you so sure?
A.323 I could see the body.

Q.324 Are you positive?
A.324 Yes sir, definitely.

Q.325 How can you suggest to the Court, when it took so long to get your eyes focused?
A.325 I didn't say that.

Q.326 What did you say?
A.326 It took five or ten seconds.

Q.327 What particular stimulus was registered in your mind when you first saw this man getting up?
A.327 In my mind I thought he had been drinking.

Q.328 Then thinking he had been drinking, you immediately turned to see if you could see anyone running away from this particular area?
A.328 No sir, I didn't say that.

Q.329 Having seen this body crouched, and having come to the conclusion it was a drunk, you immediately went towards the Borden Block?
A.329 Yes sir.

Q.330 Why were you so anxious to see if anyone was running away if you thought he was drunk?
A.330 I always search the area of 1 Bn.

Q.331 Why do you do it?
A.331 I said I was searching it to find some one.

Q.332 Do you remember giving evidence in the Summary of Evidence?
A.332 Yes sir.

Q.333 You stated in the Summary, "I didn't know there was a drunk about. I looked around to see if there was anything." Do you want to change it?
A.333 No sir.

Q.334 Have you one reason why you thought someone was running away from this particular scene?
A.334 Because I heard a shot fired.

Q.335 Did you happen to see any of the drunks around the gate the day of the firing?
A.335 No sir.

Q.336 Did it occur to you as a possibility?
A.336 No sir.

Q.337 I suggest to you that it is not unusual to hear shots fired?
A.337 It is not unusual.

Q.338 A common occurrence?
A.338 It has happened before, sir.

Q.339 What did you do after you found that the man was injured?
A.339 After the body was picked up, sir?

Q.340 By how many people?
A.340 There was confusion, sir.

Q.341 How soon after was the body lying there? Did you go over to it?
A.341 I was there when it was picked up.

Q.342 Then you were satisfied that the Guard Comd still had the situation well in hand?
A.342 Yes sir.

Q.343 What investigation did you make? Did you find weapons or missiles of any kind or empty cartridge cases?
A.343 I searched the area where the body was found and never found anything.

Q.344 How soon after hearing the shots was your search made?
A.344 Approximately five or 10 minutes after.

Q.345 Was it a thorough search of the immediate vicinity?
A.345 As thorough as a flashlight would allow.

Q.346 And what distance from the body did you search?
A.346 I searched right around the entrance of the Sgts' Mess 1 Bn.

Q.347 Where would that be?
A.347 Right here, sir. (The witness marks the point with an "P" on sketch.)

Q.348 What were you searching for at the time?
A.348 I was searching for a weapon and also empty cartridges.

Q.349 Did you find any?
A.349 No sir.

Q.350 Now, do you remember whether a draft had recently arrived prior to the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.350 I am pretty sure there was, sir.

Re-examination:

Q.351 To your knowledge did anyone else search the area before you made your search?
A.351 No sir.

By the Court:

Q.352 You stated you went from your Guard Room to the entrance of the Borden Block direct?
A.352 That is right, sir.

Q.353 What direction did you take, to go from the Guard Room to the Borden Block?
A.353 I am sorry sir, my Guard Room is in the Borden Block and not in the Ottawa Bldg.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.354 Did you or did you not examine the man whom you found lying on the ground?
A.354 No sir, I did not.

Q.355 When you told Capt Rose in re-examination that to your knowledge no other search was made prior to the search which you made, did you mean that you knew that no other search had been made or that you didn't know?
A.355 I didn't know, but to my knowledge nobody had.

Q.356 How did you arrive at your estimate of the approximate time that you heard the shots?
A.356 There had been a few instances of men jumping or falling out of windows. I had made it a point of looking at anything that happened, so I looked at my watch.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

TWELFTH WITNESS(Lt (A/Capt) T.E. McKee (PPCLI) 8 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution(is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.357 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.357 I do.

Q.358 Will you tell the Court what happened on that evening?
A.358 On the 2nd of Aug 44, at about 2250 hrs, I was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess 1 CBRD having a lunch. I heard two shots fired outside. They sounded to be quite close. I got up and walked out to the porch outside. I could smell powder burning. I looked around and saw a body lying on the pavement about eight yds from the porch.

Q.359 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you point out that spot on the sketch?
A.359 The porch is here and the body was lying there. (The witness marks the point with an "H" on the sketch.)

I saw the body lying on the pavement. So I went down to the body. It was a man lying face downwards with his arms stretched out at his side.

Q.360 Would you demonstrate?
A.360 Like this. (Witness demonstrates)

Q.361 What was his condition?
A.361 He was breathing. It sounded quite heavily to me. There was some blood on the pavement which was coming from a hole in his head. I immediately went to 2 Bn RAP and sent the orderly for the Medical Offr. Then I returned to the scene of the accident. There was a number of offrs and men around there by now. I thought the man may have shot himself so I took a look for the weapon. I found nothing. In his left hand I found a set of identity discs which I took and put in my pocket. By this time the MO was removing the body to the MIR. I went into the MIR where I turned the identity discs over to the Adjt 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I just glanced at the discs and saw the name "Robinson" on them.

Q.362 I produce two identity discs. Do you recognize them?
A.362 I would say they are the same discs.

Q.363 Would you read to the Court the name on the discs?
A.363 B.144333, Pte Robinson, Presbyterian, Canadian. (One red and one green identity disc, admitted and marked Exhibit "J".)

Q.364 How were these discs found in the wounded man's hand?
A.364 They were in the left hand of the man who had been shot, clenched tight, with the fingers closed.

Q.365 Were the discs entwined in his hand?
A.365 I could not say, sir, that they were both in his hand. There was one in his hand, and I take it both were held by the string.

Q.366 What did you use a light for?
A.366 I had no light. The moon was shining. It wasn't very dark. I could see the name on the discs.

Q.367 What was the light outside?
A.367 It was a full moon. The stars were shining and the moon was out. You could see a man walking about 100 yards away.

Cross-examined:

Q.368 How much time had elapsed from the time you heard the shots until the time you got outside on the porch?
A.368 It would not be over a minute.

Q.369 Which part of the Mess were you in?
A.369 I was in the part where we eat/at the end table.
sitting

Q.370 And that is in the part of the Mess nearest the door?
A.370 That is right.

Q.371 Would you have taken a minute to get outside?
A.371 No, it would not if I had jumped right up. I got up and walked out the door.

Q.372 About how many feet was it from where you were sitting to the door?
A.372 Approximately 16 feet.

Q.373 Did you estimate the paces taken as you walked out of the door?
A.373 I just walked over at a normal pace to the door.

Q.374 Did you take about five seconds?
A.374 Not any more.

Q.375 Did it take another second or two to open the door?
A.375 It would take another second or two to get on the porch?

Q.376 Did that not take 15 seconds?
A.376 It wouldn't take more than 15 seconds from the time I started moving until I got out.

Q.377 Why do you say you could have seen a man who was running away from the immediate vicinity of the body?
A.377 If a man had been close - very close - and running out in the open across the parade square, I think I could have seen him.

Q.378 You told the Court you could see a man 100 yds away?
A.378 Right.

Q.379 So within the 15 seconds you could have seen a man running away?
A.379 If he had run along by the building, I may not have seen him.

Q.380 Have you studied ballistics to any extent?
A.380 No.

Q.381 Have you studied the normal amount of ballistics in the "Weapon Training" pamphlet?
A.381 That's right.

Q.382 Was it a very still night or was there any breeze at all?
A.382 I don't think there was very much because I didn't notice it windy at all.

Q.383 I suggest to you that if you were able to smell powder recently burnt from the time you got out on the porch, it would have been fired from the spot on which you were standing. Do you agree with that suggestion?
A.383 I would say that it hadn't been fired very far away from the doorway. It could have been up to 25 yds away.

Q.384 I suggest that you are imagining the smell of that powder. As a result of the information you subsequently learned, you are imagining you smelledit and didn't actually smell it?
A.384 I am convinced that I smelled powder.

Q.385 I suggest that it was a physical impossibility to smell it; impossible according to ballistic ------
A.385 I still say I smelled it.

Q.386 Then you suggest to the Court that it was powder from the bullets you heard fired?
A.386 I cannot say what bullet the smell of the powder came out of as I didn't see it fired.

Q.387 Were you in a particularily mentally alert stage when you were on the porch?
A.387 I would say that I was in my normal mental condition.

Q.388 Was it influenced by a considerable quantity of liquor?
A.388 It was not.

Q.389 I suggest that you had quite a bit to drink prior to the shooting incident, is that correct?
A.389 On the evening of the shooting incident, I had very little to drink.

Q.390 I am not trying to discredit you. Will you tell the Court what quantity you had that evening?
A.390 Throughout the evening I would say I had possibly four drinks of gin and lime.

Q.391 Doubles or singles?
A.391 Singles. I think I could have had four.

Q.392 What directed you to the identity discs?
A.392 In the man's hand?

Q.393 You found a set of identity discs?
A.393 I was actually looking for a weapon. I thought the man had shot himself. While looking for a weapon I was kneeling down at his left side. I saw his hand and something in his hand. When I pulled it, I found a set of identity discs.

Q.394 Did you have any definite instructions for removing the set of identity discs?
A.394 No.

Q.395 They came out easily?
A.395 Fairly easily.

Q.396 Can you, by taking this (hands witness Exhibit "J"), show the Court by putting your hand on the floor, the approximate position of the string?
A.396 I cannot actually sir. His hand was lying right at his left side. I noticed something in it and pulled it out and it was a set of identity discs. (Witness demonstrates the manner in which he found the identity discs in the hand of the injured man.)

Q.397 How much of the string outside of the man's hand was visible to you?
A.397 I cannot say.

Q.398 Are you sure you noticed the identity discs prior to pulling the string?
A.398 I said there was something in his hand. I didn't know they were discs.

Q.399 The string directed you?
A.399 I didn't know there was a string.

W.G.

Q.400 Would you describe to the Court whether the string was all in his hand or all out?
A.400 I can't.

Q.401 Describe to the Court whether it was all in or all out?
A.401 That it was all pulled from his hand, no.

Q.402 The normal action of a man struck from behind is to fall forward with his hands stretched, isn't it?
A.402 Yes, I would think that if you were struck from behind you might fall with your hands outstretched on being shot from behind with a .45.

Q.403 You are estimating?
A.403 Yes.

Q.404 Is it normal for a man being struck from behind to have his hands stretched out?
A.404 Yes, it is normal.

Q.405 Now what gave you the idea that this man was shot with a.45?
A.405 The reason I had the idea that he was shot with a .45 was that he had a hole in his head - the doctor states two holes - and some of them found .45 slugs in the area. That is the only reason I have for assuming it.

Q.406 Was your reason for coming to that conclusion based on your own investigations?
A.406 No.

Q.407 You didn't know for sure?
A.407 The doctor said so in the MIR to the others and to myself while a number of men were in there. The .45 shells, I referred to, were shown to me that evening as having been picked up on the scene of the incident.

Q.408 Something like this? (Defending Officer produces a brass casing.)
A.408 Something like it.

Q.409 Anything like this? (Defending Officer produces a steel casing.)
A.409 Yes. (42 WCC brass casing and 42 steel casing admitted and marked Exhibits "K" and "L", respectively.)

Q.410 Did you examine those casings very carefully?
A.410 I don't know.

Q.411 Now were the identity discs held in a very firm grip, as if the wounded individual was hanging on to them for dear life?
A.411 No, I didn't need to exert pressure to remove them.

Q.412 Was it possible that someone could have put or forced anything into his hand?
A.412 It is quite possible.

Q.413 Why did you say these (indicates Exhibit "J") are the same discs you gave to Capt Snell?
A.413 I still say they look like the same discs.

Q.414 Similar?
A.414 Yes.

Q.415 Did you mark the discs when you found them in the hand of the wounded man for purposes of identification?
A.415 I did not.

Q.416 When you found these discs on him did you attach any importance to them?
A.416 No. When I took them, I thought they belonged to the man that was shot.

W.F.B.

Q.417 And what did you do?
A.417 I put them in my pocket.

Q.418 And how long afterwards - that evening - was it that you again produced them?
A.418 It would be, I would say, not over three-quarters of an hour.

Q.419 How do you know they are the same ones you took from the hand of the wounded man?
A.419 Because I had taken them from his hand and put them in my pocket. They were still there when I took them out again.

Q.420 What was the impulse that caused you to take them out again?
A.420 When they were trying to find out the names of different people. The Medical Offr said that he had checked the discs of the man who had been shot, and his name was "Dillon". Then I recalled the discs I had in my pocket and turned them over to the Adjt of 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I saw the name "Robinson" on the discs.

Q.421 I suggest to you that you didn't find the identity discs in the hand of the wounded man: that they became apparent to you only at such time as they started to move the body. Do you agree?
A.421 No, I had nothing to do with the moving of the body. I had the discs in my pocket when they started to move the body.

Q.422 Then, if I am under the impression that they were about to move the body when you took the identity discs, I am labouring under a misapprehension?
A.422 They could have been about to move the body, for they did so shortly after.

Q.423 How shortly after, moments, seconds?
A.423 A matter of minutes because they carried the body out on a stretcher after I had the discs.

Q.424 After you got the discs, what amount of time elapsed before the body was moved or carried away?
A.424 I can't say the exact time.

Q.425 Do you know what happened to the beret that the wounded man was wearing?
A.425 I do not.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.426 At the scene of the accident - how many people were around the body?
A.426 I would say there would be six or seven at least. There could have been more around, but right beside the body I would say at least six or seven.

Q.427 Did you speak to anybody about the discs or draw them to their attention?
A.427 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

THIRTEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (Lt A.J.S. Mills (Perth R) 3 Bn 1 CBRD (having been duly sworn (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.428 Do you recall the night of 2 Aug 44?
A.428 Yes sir.

Q.429 Will you tell the Court what you were doing?
A.429 I was having lunch in the 2 and 3 combined Offrs' Mess when I heard three shots. I went outside to see what was going on. On the steps I found a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge on it.

Q.430 Would you describe this Glengarry?
A.430 It was an ordinary 48th Glengarry with red dice checks on it.

Q.431 Did you examine the Glengarry immediately?
A.431 I went over and looked at the wounded man. I saw him lying on the ground. Someone handed me a beret which I took to be the wounded man's as there was blood dripping from it. Then I looked at the Glengarry closer and saw the name "A.H. Wilcock" on it.

Q.432 I produce a Glengarry, (Prosecutor shows Exhibit "H") do you recognize it?
A.432 That is the same Glengarry.

Q.433 Where was the man that you saw lying?
A.433 Approximately 15 feet from the door leading into the Mess.

Q.434 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you look at it closely and point out where you saw the body lying?
A.434 About here. (The witness marks point with an "H" on the sketch.)

Q.435 Did you examine the body?
A.435 No, I just looked at the man and saw a pool of blood around his head.

Q.436 At what time was that?
A.436 2240 hrs approximately.

Q.437 As a result of finding the Glengarry what did you do?
A.437 I took it to Capt Cameron, the Coy Comd, and then accompanied Capt Cameron to the 48 Highrs quarters where Wilcock was brought to me and later turned over to the 2 Bn Guard.

Q.438 Did you examine the scene of the accident?
A.438 Yes, quite thoroughly.

Q.439 Did you find anything?
A.439 I didn't find anything myself. I noticed blood on the ground everywhere, and on the steps going into the Mess where I picked up the Glengarry.

Q.440 When you had the beret in your hands, did you examine it?
A.440 I did not examine the beret. I just looked at it and then turned it over to the Guard Comd.

Q.441 Where did you turn it over?
A.441 Outside, at the scene of the accident.

Cross-examined:

Q.442 Did you see the blood on the steps where the Glengarry was found at the same time as you saw the Glengarry?
A.442 No, when I went back.

Q.443 Was that on returning from the body?
A.443 No, on my return from having seen Capt Cameron and Pte Wilcock.

Q.444 Can you tell the Court whether or not the blood was there when you found the beret?
A.444 I am sure I saw the blood. I cannot make a definite statement as to that.

Q.445 What lead you to that conclusion?
A.445 The only thing I can say is that the beret was not carried up the steps by myself or anyone else. The blood may have been there from some other reason.

Q.446 Then your explanation of the blood on the steps is that it did not come from the beret?
A.446 Yes.

Q.447 Did you go out on the porch?
A.447 Yes sir, the porch of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.448 Where was Capt McKee when you got to the beret?
A.448 I didn't see him myself.

Q.449 How long after you heard the shots did youappear on the scene?
A.449 Roughly three minutes.

Q.450 Can you tell us why you did not take less than three minutes?
A.450 Yes. I made a sandwich. After I had the sandwich made, I started to eat it and then walked out of the Mess.

Q.451 What were the ingredients of the sandwich?
A.451 It was ------

Q.452 What was the base of the sandwich?
A.452 Bread.

Q.453 Were there any onions in it?
A.453 Yes.

Q.454 A large amount or small?
A.454 A large amount.

Q.455 Do you remember whether or not there was any bully beef?
A.455 Definitely. There was no bully beef.

Q.456 What time is lunch served for offrs of 2 and 3 Bns?
A.456 It is put on the table at 9 o'clock.

Q.457 When you got on the porch, could you smell any powder burning?
A.457 No sir.

Q.458 How did you arrive at the conclusion it was 2240 hrs when you heard the shots?
A.458 The Mess closes at 2230 hrs. It was closed when I started to make the sandwich.

Q.459 Is there any other method of identifying the Glengarry and badge except for the name on the inside?
A.459 The name on the inside is the way I identified it.

Q.460 Did you see a set of identification discs removed from the hand of the wounded man?
A.460 No, I didn't.

Q.461 How many people were around the body when you arrived?
A.461 Quite a number.

Q.462 Could you give us any help as to the number?
A.462 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.463 Was there a certain amount of confusion around the body? Was there chaos and excitement?
A.463 Oh yes.

Q.464 How close were the people coming to the body when they were having a look around?
A.464 Not more than a foot from the body.

Q.465 Would it be very difficult for any of the people around to put anything in the hands of the wounded man?
A.465 I would say it would be very difficult without anyone seeing it.

Q.466 Would it have been possible for others to come up to the body without being noticed by those around?
A.466 Yes, there is a possibility.

Q.467 Do you know of any fights that might have taken place in the area of 2 or 3 Bn Mess?
A.467 No sir.

Q.468 Do you know what happened to the beret?
A.468 After I had it, it was turned over to Capt Snell, Adjt 2 Bn.

Q.469 You say you saw one drop of blood at the door. Is that correct?
A.469 Yes, that is correct.

Q.470 On the floor of the door or on the door?
A.470 On the ground at the base of the door.

Q.471 Could you assist us by stating whether it was a drop or trail of blood or a pattern?
A.471 It appeared to be a trail of blood part way up the steps, then there was no blood and one drop right at the base of the door.

Q.472 What kind of a night was it as you recollect?
A.472 Very bright.

Q.473 And what was the normal visibility for seeing - across or towards the parade square?
A.473 You could see right across the parade square.

Q.474 Could you have distinguished people, if there had been any between the Ottawa Bldg and the Kingston Bldg? Could you see immediately north?
A.474 Yes.

Q.475 On the left, as you stood on the porch, could you distinguish bodies between yourself and that building?
A.475 Yes.

Q.476 Could you distinguish bodies between yourself and the Borden Block?
A.476 Yes.

Q.477 If you had arrived at the scene where the body was within a matter of seconds of the shooting, could you have seen anyone running across the parade square?
A.477 I could have seen anyone that was running, yes.

Q.478 What type of weapon did you think had been fired when you heard the shots?
A.478 I thought it was a Tommy Gun.

Q.479 Why did you think it was a Tommy Gun?
A.479 From the sound.

Q.480 Any other reason?
A.480 No.

Q.481 Had there been any Tommy Gun firing prior to this on the evening of 2nd August?
A.481 Not that I know of.

Q.482 Had you not heard of any weapon firing at nights?
A.482 Yes, I have heard weapons firing at nights on occasions.

Q.483 In the area of Canada Bks?
A.483 Yes and outside the area of Canada Bks.

Q.484 Is it unusual for shots to be fired at that hour of the night?
A.484 It is unusual, but it has happened.

J.A.B.

Q.485 It could not have been very unusual if it took you three minutes to get out to see it?
A.485 I wasn't terribly startled.

Q.486 When you had the beret, did you notice how many holes in it?
A.486 No, I didn't.

Q.487 How long had you been in Canada Bks prior to the 2nd of Aug?
A.487 About one month.

Q.488 Were 48 Highrs' Glengarries unusual sights around that area at that time?
A.488 No.

Q.489 And around the parade/square on 2 Aug, was it unusual to see Seaforth flashes?
A.489 No.

Q.490 Have you been having any previous trouble or heard of any previous trouble or holdups prior to this evening?
A.490 I had not heard of anything.

Q.491 Will you tell the Court whether or not there had been a draft in prior to 2nd Aug 44?
A.491 Yes.

Q.492 And were there quite a number of rfts at the time or a dearth such as now?
A.492 Quite a number.

Q.493 Now can you give us any opinion as what value .45 pistols were in the eyes of the rfts at that time?
A.493 I have no information as to that.

Q.494 In your eyes has an American .45 pistol a certain souvenir value?
A.494 Yes sir.

Q.495 In your experience had you noticed they have a greater value to the rfts recently arrived than to the rfts who have been over for a month or two?
A.495 Yes they have.

Q.496 Did you form any opinion as to what direction these shots were fired from?
A.496 I never formed any opinion.

Q.497 Did you, yourself, make a search for anything in the immediate vicinity immediately after the shooting for a weapon, or did you ignore the issue?
A.497 Yes, we made a search.

Q.498 Can you tell the Court how dilligently that search was conducted?
A.498 There were several members of the Guard and a couple of offrs conducting it. The search was quite thorough.

Q.499 Have you any opinion as to whether or not Thompson Sub Machine Carbines were in good supply around 2 Aug - that is to the personnel of Canada Bks?
A.499 We fired Tommy Guns on the ranges almost daily at that particular time.

Re-examination:

Q.500 What type of ammunition does a Tommy Gun generally fire?
A.500 .45 rimless.

Q.501 I show you Exhibits "K" and "L". Will you examine them? What type of ammunition is that?
A.501 .45.

Q.502 Is that the type you use in a Tommy Gun?
A.502 Yes sir.

Q.503 Do you know anything about ballistics?

A.506 Same as a Tommy Gun.

Q.507 Therefore, that type and that used by Colt are the same?
A.507 Yes sir.

Q.508 In your cross-examination you said that there was "excitement" around the body. Would you tell the Court what you meant?
A.508 I didn't mean excitement. There was quite a number of people around the body, and until the Guard Comd dispersed the crowd there was some confusion.

Q.509 What do you mean by confusion?
A.509 People talking; walking here and there. Nobody seemed to be doing anything.

Q.510 Did you see the Medical Offr arrive?
A.510 I wasn't there when the Medical Offr came.

Q.511 Did you mention in the cross-examination that the blood on the steps could have been caused by someone walking through the pool of blood and on up the steps?
A.511 No, it did not appear so.

By the Court:

Q.512 Did you examine the floor inside the doorway for evidence of blood?
A.512 Yes sir.

Q.513 And what did you find?
A.513 There was none.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

Court re-opened at 1000 hrs, 22 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecution produced Medical Certificate.

FOURTEENTH WITNESS (B.51982 Cpl Ferguson E. Carlt & York R, 1 Bn, for (1 CBRD, having been duly sworn, Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

A.515 On that evening I was .....

Q.516 Will you tell the Court what happened that night?
A.516 At approximately 2230 hrs a man from the 48th Highrs Coy, Pte Wilcock, reported to the Guard Room. I took Pte Wilcock to the Seaforth Coy Office where I spoke to the Coy Sgt Major. I came back downstairs and showed Pte Wilcock where his billets were.

Q.517 Where were his billets?
A.517 At the far end of the camp. I do not know the name of the building. the 48th Highrs were stationed there.

Q.518 I show you Exhibit "G". Where were you when Pte Wilcock reported?
A.518 Here sir. (Witness points to spot "E" on the sketch.)

Q.519 Where did you take Pte Wilcock after he reported to you?
A.519 To the Coy Office of the Seaforths on the second floor of the Petawawa Bldg. (Witness marks spot with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.520 From there where did you take Wilcock?
A.520 After I spoke to the Sgt Major of the Seaforths I brought Pte Wilcock to the opposite side of the Petawawa Bldg. I told him the way to his billets.

Q.521 Where were they?
A.521 The Debert Block. (Indicates on Exhibit "G")

Q.522 Are you sure those are the billets?
A.522 I am not exactly sure, but I took him there to his billets.

Q.523 What else happened that night?
A.523 I was on that side of the building. Pte Wilcock had just left me when I heard two shots fired.

Q.524 Could you say whether it was some distance away or quite close?
A.524 It came from the direction of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.525 What did you do then?
A.525 I returned to the Guard Room.

Q526 What did you do when you returned to the Guard Room?
A.526 I went to where a man had been injured.

Q.527 Where was that?
A.527 In front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.528 What did you do when you went to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.528 When I got to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a pool of blood in front of the steps and half of a sandwich amongst the blood.

Q.529 I show you a sketch, Exhibit "G". Point out where you saw this pool of blood?
A.529 Here sir. (Witness points to point "H" on sketch.)

Q.530 When you arrived there what did you do?
A.530 Well, I tried to determine where the shots had been fired.

Q.531 Did you determine that?
A.531 No, in my hunt I found a .45 casing.

Q.532 What type of casing?
A.532 A .45 calibre.

Q.533 Can you describe the marks on it?
A.533 There weren't any but there was a dark colour on it.

Defending Officer:

I am not satisfied with the method in which the Exhibits are being presented. I feel that there is going to be a lot of irregularity here. I would like the Prosecuting Offr to have the witness properly describe each Exhibit to my satisfaction before it is presented in evidence.

Prosecutor:

There is no doubt in my mind that certain articles were found. I feel that the witness, having found some article, has a right to identify that article if possible.

Adj.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Rose, could you get the witness to describe, if possible, in every detail, the article which he found before producing it to him in Court?

Prosecutor:

Q.534 Will you describe to the Court where you found this article?
A.534 I picked up a .45 casing about ten feet from the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. It was lying against the curb.

Q.535 Will you point out on the sketch, Exhibit "G", where you found this casing?
A.535 I found it right about there. (Witness marks point with letter "J" on sketch.)

Q.536 Will you describe in detail to the Court the casing that you found?
A.536 There was no difference between it and any other .45 casing. No special marks that I can identify it with.

Prosecutor:

In view of the fact that he cannot describe it correctly I cannot ask the witness to identify it.

Judge Advocate:

He may be able to identify the casing.

Prosecutor:

Q.537 I show you two cartridge cases: marked EC 43 and EC respectively. The number on the latter is unreadable. Are they similar to the ones you found?
A.537 This one is sir.

Q.538 Is this the one you picked up?
A.538 This is the one, yes sir. (Steel casing marked EC 43 admitted and marked Exhibit "M".)

By the Court:

Could I see the two casings shown to the witness? I am fairly certain that later in the proceedings the Court will be able to see them.

Judge Advocate:

It is not permitted to see the other one at this stage. It is not yet in evidence, Major Brown.

Court:

I have a particular reason. There are two distinct types that any witness could identify; a steel casing and a brass casing. The point I wish to establish is whether these two cartridge casings that were shown to the witness were both brass or one brass and one steel.

Judge Advocate:

The witness was shown two casings which were described by number. He picked out one which is marked Exhibit "M". The other, unless identified and produced in evidence, cannot be seen by the Court.

Prosecutor:

Q.539 After you found this casing what action did you take?
A.539 I turned the casing over to the Offr of the Guard.

Q.540 Who was that?
A.540 Lt Dolan ~~who was present~~ at the time.

Q.541 What else did you do?
A.541 After turning over the casing, I reported to the Guard Room.

Q.542 What time was this?
A.542 Approximately 2230 hrs.

Q.543 How did you establish the time?
A.543 Well, I am not sure. At nine o'clock the guard relief came on. From then until one o'clock we act as Regtl Police. Men coming in after curfew, approximately 10 or 10:15 o'clock, report to the Guard Room. About 10 minutes after curfew Pte Wilcock reported to the Guard Room.

Q.544 What time was it when you found the casing?
A.544 About 2245 hrs.

Q.545 After you returned to the Guard Room where did you go?
A.545 Well, after I returned to the Guard Room, we went out in different groups to look over the Camp and see if the hold-up man could be found.

Q.546 Did you find him?
A.546 No sir.

Q.547 Then what did you do?
A.547 We came back to the Guard Room. I proceeded back to the scene of the shooting.

Q.548 What did you do there?
A.548 There were several guards and offrs still around. One of the guards was still looking around and found a second .45 casing.

Q.549 What else happened?
A.549 It was turned over to one of the offrs present.

Q.550 What did you do about it?
A.550 I did nothing as the offrs seemed to take charge.

Q.551 What did you do after that?
A.551 We returned to the Guard Room. The following morning Lt Dolan sent me to the Seaforth Bldg to get Pte Wilcock's number and name.

Q.552 Did you go to the Seaforth Office?
A.552 Yes, but I did not obtain the number.

Q.553 Did you find anything there?
A.553 I reported and then I went down the steps of the bldg where I picked up a second .45 casing.

Q.554 I show you Exhibit "G". Where did you find the second casing?
A.554 On the steps going out of the billets in the Petawawa Bldg. I was coming out of the building, going down the steps. I found it on the steps about here. (Witness marks point with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.555 Will you describe to the Court the casing you picked up?
A.555 The casing I picked up was not perfect. It had been stepped on. It was similar to the first casing except that it had been stepped on.

W.B.B.

Q.556 I now show you a cartridge casing EC, apparently steel. Is that the casing you found?
A.556 Yes sir, I would say it was. (Admitted and marked Exhibit "N".)

Q.557 What did you do with that casing?
A.557 I brought it back to the Guard Room and reported to my offr, Lt Dolan.

Cross-examined:

Q.558 Why did you say so definitely that this (Exhibit "N") is the casing you found?
A.558 I am not saying that it was.

Q.559 Your words were, "That is the casing I found"?
A.559 I don't believe I said that.

Q.560 Then you say it is similar to the casing you found?
A.560 Yes.

Q.561 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". By looking at the base can you notice any similarity of manufacture by company and by year?
A.561 It doesn't look like it.

Q.562 When you looked at the base of them did you notice the initials of the manufacturer on the back?
A.562 Both have the same number and year on the back.

Q.563 You saw that they are of the same manufacture, and that they apparently came in the same package?
A.563 Yes sir.

Q.564 In unloading a magazine isn't it usual to pick out cartridges bearing the same number and year?
A.564 Yes sir.

Q.565 Do you realize that when an automatic pistol is fired the empty cartridge is ejected?
A.565 Yes sir.

Q.566 You heard two shots?
A.566 Yes sir.

Q.567 Did you make any estimate as to the distance of the ejection from the automatic weapon?
A.567 No sir.

Q.568 Did you know that if you fired two shots from the same weapon the distance of ejection of the casings would be the same?
A.568 Yes sir.

Q.569 What is the distance between points "J" and "I" on Exhibit "G"?
A.569 I would say about 100 yds.

Q.570 Right. Then would you say that the person firing the pistol had sufficient time to get from one spot to the other?
A.570 Well sir ------

Q.571 Was there sufficient time for the man to cover that distance between the two explosions?
A.571 No sir, not over that distance.

Q.572 So that there could not be any relation between the two casings and the two shots?
A.572 That depends if it was the last shot of the weapon.

Q.573 You do not know. You said the time elapsing between the firing of the two shots was not sufficient for a person to cover the distance between the two casings. Was there sufficient time?
A.573 No sir.

W.B.

Q.574 You showed Wilcock where his billets were?
A.574 Yes sir.

Q.575 Did he require your assistance?
A.575 Pte Wilcock had been drinking and was excited.

Q.576 Was he a little bit irrational?
A.576 Yes sir.

Q.577 Were you in the building when you heard the shots?
A.577 I was in the open when I heard the shots fired.

Q.578 From where you were standing when you heard the shots fired, did you have a clear view of the entrance of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.578 No sir.

Q.579 You were outside of the Petawawa Bldg?
A.579 Yes sir.

Q.580 How long did it take you to get around to have a view of the front of the building?
A.580 About half a minute, sir.

Q.581 30 seconds is a long time?
A.581 Yes sir.

Q.582 Did you speed up?
A.582 Yes sir.

Q.583 Then you still think it took 30 seconds?
A.583 I imagine it was about that.

Q.584 What type of a night was it?
A.584 A medium night - neither bright nor dark.

Q.585 What would be the approximate distance of visibility for moving bodies?
A.585 From about 40 to 50 yards.

Q.586 What were your duties as Guard Comd at Canada Bks with reference to unusual occurrences?
A.586 My duties are to see that something is being done about it. At that time I had an Offr of the Guard and Guard Sgt.

Q.587 What were your duties when you heard the shots? Did you do the things you ought to have done?
A.587 When I heard the shots I went in the direction of the shots.

Q.588 Did you go to the entrance of Canada Bks at that time?
A.588 Yes sir. I went to the Guard Room first and then to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.589 Was it unusual to hear shots fired at that time?
A.589 No sir, it wasn't.

Q.590 It might have been fired by any gun or might have been fired by the Guard at Italians?
A.590 No sir. They have nothing to do with the Italians except if they come through the gate. The guard has to help look after the gate and the Regtl Police picquet the walls of the Camp.

Q.591 We have been told there were a number of drunks coming in. Is that right?
A.591 It is generally that way every night. There was no difference that night.

Q.592 Were there a number of drunks?
A.592 I don't know sir. I wasn't on the gate.

Q.593 I suggest to you that when you saw the casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", that it was apparent to you that they had both been exposed to the elements for some time?

A.593 I didn't tell you that.

Q.594 Take Exhibit "M" which I show you. Why do you say that is the first one you found that night in the bks?

A.594 Yes sir.

Q.595 Would you examine it? Is it apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements and lying on the ground for some time?

A.595 I didn't examine it closely.

Q.596 I show you Exhibit "N" which you picked up the following morning. I suggest that it was apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements for some considerable time?

A.596 I can't answer that. I don't know.

Q.597 (Witness is shown Exhibits "M" and "N".) Will you examine the marks made by the firing pin and tell the Court if there is any similarity between the marks of the two firings?

A.597 Both marks are similar except one is very deep.

Defending Officer:

I don't want to labour the Court but I want facts. I suggested before that there is no similarity between the cartridge casings. I am endeavouring to explain to the Court by this examination of the witness. I leave it to you, gentlemen.

Cross-examination (continued):

Q.598 Have you taken your normal common-to-all-arms training in the infantry?

A.598 Yes sir.

Q.599 Are you acquainted with the lessons on the theory of small arms fire?

A.599 Fairly well, sir.

Q.600 Therefore, you know that the firing pin of a pistol will make an identical mark on any cartridge case fired from that particular pistol?

Prosecutor:

It is not proved that this soldier knows anything about a .45 pistol. That doesn't come in "Small Arms Training".

The Court:

I don't think there is much harm done.

Defending Officer:

Q.601 You know that every firing pin, when fired, makes the same kind of a mark?

A.601 I never said so, sir.

Q.602 Will you state from your military knowledge whether or not the firing pin is the same in all guns?

A.602 No sir. The firing pin in weapons don't all look the same.

Q.603 I am speaking of a specific weapon. Will it or will it not leave an identical mark on the casing of the cartridge it expels, other things being equal?

A.603 I don't know sir.

W.D.B.

Q.604 When you found the sandwich by the pool of blood what was your reaction?
A.604 Well, I presumed the man had dropped it there when he had been attacked by the other man.

Q.605 Did you make any check to ascertain if this was so?
A.605 No sir.

Q.606 Is it possible that a man could eat a sandwich with one hand and pull the identity discs off with the other?
A.606 No sir.

Q.607 When that sandwich was found, approximately how many inches was it away from the body?
A.607 There were several pieces, some in the blood and some away from it.

Q.608 How far were the farthest pieces away from the body?
A.608 About four or five inches.

Q.609 Did you examine the body on any occasion?
A.609 I did not see the body.

Q.610 You did not see the body?
A.610 No sir.

Q.611 Do you know of anyone who reported this matter, or anyone who suggested that an investigation should be made?
A.611 No sir.

Q.612 Did you report the matter of this shooting that evening for investigation?
A.612 No sir, I did not.

Re-examined:

Q.613 What light did you use when you were looking about the front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.613 Well, I used a few matches that I had. There were also flashlights there.

Q.614 When you found the cartridge casing, Exhibit "M", what light did you use?
A.614 I forget whether it was a flashlight or match. I don't know.

By the Court:

Q.615 Was Pte Wilcock wearing any headgear when he reported to you?
A.615 No sir.

Q.616 Have you ever before seen casings lying about Canada Bks similar to those which you found?
A.616 Yes sir.

Q.617 When you took Pte Wilcock to the Coy Office and reported the incident to the WO, why was it necessary to accompany him to his own billets?
A.617 I took him to the Seaforths office.

Q.618 Why was it necessary to show him to his billets?
A.618 He did not seem to know how to get to his billets.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

FIFTEENTH WITNESS(B.73385 Cpl De Harte, WL (48 Highrs) 3 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution(is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.619 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd August, 1944?
A.619 Yes sir.

Q.620 What happened on that evening?
A.620 At about 2130 hrs I entered the Main Gate of 1 CBRD with two of my friends. We had been downtown and had a few drinks. When we got to the gate, we met a man from the Hast & PER who stopped us and started to talk to us. He appeared to be quite drunk. After a minute or two an argument started between the Hasty P and one of my friends.

Q.621 Do you know the name of this Hast & PER man?
A.621 Yes sir.

Q.622 What was his name?
A.622 His name was "Dillon".

Q.623 What happened then?
A.623 As it appeared that a fight might start, I soon got my friends to their billets and then tried to persuade the Hasty P man to go to his billets. He seemed to be on his way so I went to my Orderly Room and reported to my duty NCO. Then I returned to my billets which, at that time, were in 1 Bn Bldg.

Q.624 What was the name of the building?
A.624 I don't know the name of the building. The people of 1 Bn were in it.

Q.625 I show you Exhibit "G", a sketch of Canada Bks. Will you point out the building?
A.625 This is the building. (Witness indicates the Borden Block.)

Q.626 Will you carry on with your statement?
A.626 While crossing the main parade square to the Borden Block, I ran into the Hasty P man again. He was just starting an argument with a stranger. I sent the stranger to his billets. While I was doing so, the Hasty P man ran into another party and started to argue with him. I also sent this other party to his billets, and once more tried to convince the Hasty P man to go to his billets. After a few minutes a man came up who was wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge.

Q.627 Now, do you know this man you saw?
A.627 The new man sir.

Q.628 Yes?
A.628 Yes sir.

Q.629 Who was the new man?
A.629 He was the accused, sir.

Q.630 Is he in Court?
A.630 Yes sir.

Q.631 Where?
A.631 Sitting at this table, sir. (Indicates the table where the accused and Defending Offr are sitting.)

Q.632 What happened then?
A.632 The accused said, "Have you any money?".

Q.633 Who did he say that to?
A.633 The Hasty P man, sir.

W.t.P.

Q.634 What happened after that?
A.634 The Hasty P man asked "Why"? The Seaforth man then said "Give me a buck, I want a Buck" in a demanding voice.

Q.635 What did you do about this?
A.635 I decided that another argument was about to start. As I was having too much trouble trying to get the Hasty P man to keep out of trouble; and that seemed impossible, I returned to my billets. A few moments after I was in my room I heard a shot fired, followed by another. As that was frequent around Canada Bks at night, I paid no attention to it.

Q.636 What was the light like that night?
A.636 The moon was out. While I was on the parade square it was shining brightly.

Q.637 Do you recall what state of moon it was?
A.637 No sir.

Q.638 Could you recognize the Glengarry the accused was wearing that night?
A.638 You mean the Glengarry ..... ?

Q.639 Yes.
A.639 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.640 Cpl, why did you look around the room before stating that the accused was on my left? Was he the man on the parade square in this little part of your story?
A.640 I was asked if the accused was in the room. I have never been in this room before so I looked around to make sure that the man was in it and had not left it by another door.

Q.641 Why did you start looking from the right? The first person you looked at was the accused. Then you came back and looked to my left. Why that performance?
A.641 I did not at first notice that the accused was sitting on your left, sir.

Q.642 How often have you seen the accused since the night of 2 Aug?
A.642 Four or five times sir.

Q.643 Now tell the Court the first time you saw him?
A.643 The first time was at the Court of Inquiry on the morning of Aug 3rd.

Q.644 What time in the morning?
A.644 Somewhere between 0930 and 1030 hrs.

Q.645 Where was the accused?
A.645 Standing between his escort in the hallway of the Admin Wing of 1 CBRD.

Q.646 He didn't have a hat on?
A.646 Yes sir.

Q.647 Did you not observe him for at least 30 to 45 minutes?
A.647 Yes sir.

Q.648 Then there should be no difficulty in identifying the accused?
A.648 No sir.

Q.649 How often have you seen him since?
A.649 I saw him again at the Summary of Evidence which was held in the Guard Cond's Room at 1 CBRD a few days later.

JvBC

Q.650 Now to go back to the morning of the 3rd of Aug; you knew him as the accused before you knew him as "Robinson"?
A.650 Yes sir.

Q.651 Were you ever asked to identify him at a proper identification parade?
A.651 Yes sir. Major Morgan paraded five or six men into the CO's Office of 3 Bn and asked me to identify the man.

Q.652 You had seen him several times before this identification parade?
A.652 Yes sir.

Q.653 How much information about the accused did you have prior to the identification parade?
A.653 He was involved in some transaction on the 2nd of Aug. I had heard that a Hast & PER man had been shot on the night of the 2nd of Aug, and that a 48 Highrs Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting. So I reported to my Comd that I had left a Hast & PER man and a Seaforth man wearing a Glengarry in an argument on 1 Bn parade square.

Q.654 After you left Dillon arguing on the parade square, did you see the other man again?
A.654 No sir.

Q.655 Were you ever asked to identify him?
A.655 No sir.

Q.656 How well did you know Dillon?
A.656 While trying to argue him into going back to his billets I said I would meet him the next day and try to go into this idea he had that everyone was against him. I asked him his name and arranged to meet him the next day. He said his name was "Dillon".

Q.657 Then you can't tell the Court you were the last person who saw the man who was arguing with the man who gave his name as "Dillon"?
A.657 No sir.

Q.658 Then in point of fact there was no relationship that you could give between the argument and the incident of the shooting?
A.658 Yes sir.

Q.659 Why do you say "yes"?
A.659 Because the 48th Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting.

Q.660 Are you sure it was at the scene of the shooting?
A.660 Certainly sir.

Q.661 How did you find out it had been found on the parade square?
A.661 I had been told that a Hasty P man had been shot and the 48th Glengarry was found at the scene of the shooting. I had also been told that Pte Wilcock had been robbed of a Glengarry the night before. The combination of a Seaforth flash and a 48th hat badge appeared to me the answer.

Q.662 You told the Court quite clearly that you had the accused under observation before being asked to identify him on a proper identification parade, is that correct?
A.662 Yes sir.

Q.663 Then there is no excuse for making any mistake about it?
A.663 No sir.

Defending Officer:

I seek the advice of the Judge Advocate. I wish to register a complaint about the method by which the accused was identified.

G.G.G.

Judge Advocate:

That is more a matter for argument. You have a strong talking point.

Defending Officer:

Q.664 When you left the last two men arguing on the parade square, there was never any thought in your mind that any violence would ensue?
A.664 None other than fisti-cuffs.

Q.665 There was nothing in the conduct of these two individuals which in your opinion would warrant you, as a reasonable NCO, to stay and see that nothing happened?
A.665 No sir.

Q.666 Can you give me the approximate time you left the two men arguing?
A.666 Some time about 2230 hrs.

Q.667 Now you, as an NCO, are responsible to see the soldiers get in on time. Is that not true?
A.667 I was not on duty at that time.

Q.668 Do you not do anything but what you are told to do? Have you no initiative of your own?
A.668 Yes sir.

Q.669 Can you tell the Court whether or not this incident was after the normal body check or roll call at Canada Bks?
A.669 After sir.

Q.670 How much after?
A.670 Half an hour after.

Q.671 Are you sure you are not getting stuck with something and are qualifying your answers?
A.671 I don't understand.

Q.672 Why do you say it was half an hour after the body check?
A.672 Normal Tattoo is at 2145 hrs and takes until approximately 2200 hrs. It was at 2230 hrs that I left the two soldiers on the parade square.

Q.673 When you saw this individual wearing the Glengarry on his head, did you see articles in his hands or on his person?
A.673 No sir.

Q.674 Was there anything to indicate that he might be carrying a weapon?
A.674 No sir.

Q.675 Could you tell the Court whether or not a new draft arrived from England a few days before the 2nd Aug?
A.675 Yes sir.

Q.676 It did?
A.676 Yes sir.

Q.677 Were the billets at Canada Bks rather crowded at that time?
A.677 Yes sir.

Q.678 What would you say that the normal visibility was at 10 o'clock that night?
A.678 There was a bright moon.

Q.679 You mentioned a bright moon. Elaborate?
A.679 I would say the visibility of a moving body would be 75 to 100 yds. Detailed recognition at 10 to 15 yds.

W.B.B.

Q.680 Visibility of a normal moving body at 75 to 100 yds?
A.680 Yes sir. Silhouette.

Q.681 Are the times you gave the Court, estimates?
A.681 That is right.

Q.682 What was your condition? Had you been drinking?
A.682 Yes sir.

Q.683 You and your companions were in a happy mood?
A.683 No sir. We had only four or five glasses of vermouth.

Q.684 Were you not in a jovial frame of mind?
A.684 No sir.

Q.685 Were you completely cold sober?
A.685 Yes sir.

Q.686 How much had you had to drink?
A.686 Four or five glasses of vermouth at 10 lire a glass.

Q.687 When did you arrive at Canada Bks? How long have you been there?
A.687 From 26 Jun 44 sir.

Q.688 Have you noticed that new drafts coming to this country are anxious to obtain weapons or souvenirs?
A.688 No sir.

Q.689 You have had no experience?
A.689 No sir.

Q.690 Have you had any requests from soldiers for American or Italian weapons?
A.690 No sir. Only from men of my unit who work with field units.

Q.691 Would you say that at Base there is a desire on the part of soldiers to obtain German or American weapons?
A.691 I have not had any such experience. I had heard of men of the Merchant Navy wanting them.

Q.692 Not Canadians?
A.692 No sir.

Q.693 Do you get around very much?
A.693 No sir.

Q.694 Did you notice the condition of any of the soldiers returning to Canada Bks while you were returning - whether there were many drunks or not?
A.694 There were quite a few men coming back to camp under the influence of liquor of some sort.

Q.695 The time limit, you gave in evidence, was from 10 to 10:30 o'clock?
A.695 No sir, 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Q.696 Would you say the men under the influence were happy and carefree?
A.696 Yes sir.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.697 What time elapsed from the time you left the two arguing until the time the shots were fired?
A.697 Three or four minutes.

Wkb.

Q.698 You left them walking across the parade square and walked to your room on the third floor?
A.698 Yes sir.

Q.699 What were you doing when you heard the shots?
A.699 Getting into bed.

Q.700 Can you point out on Exhibit "G" where the conversation took place between the man you said was "Dillon" and the other individual who you stated had on a 48 Highrs Glengarry and Seaforth flashes?
A.700 Yes sir. They were on 1 Bn Sports Field. (Witness marks point with letter "K" on sketch.)

Q.701 Also you stated that you were talking to a Hast & PER man at the gate who was in an argument with one of your friends?
A.701 Yes sir.

Q.702 Later you were crossing the parade square when you saw this person whom you believed to be the same individual in another argument?
A.702 Yes sir.

Q.703 Didn't you state that there was another argument with the individual you identified wearing a 48th Glengarry and Seaforth badges?
A.703 That was a fourth man.

Q.704 That was the fourth argument you had with the person presumed to be Dillon that night? You are a Cpl, but you didn't feel he was sufficiently under the influence of liquor or behaving in a manner to warrant assistance?
A.704 No sir.

Q.705 Had you ever seen or had the occasion to observe the accused prior to the night of 2 Aug 44?
A.705 No sir.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.706 In your evidence, Cpl, you stated that you had been downtown with friends on the 2nd Aug. What place do you refer as downtown?

A.707 About three feet.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (B).

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS(Capt J.H. Snell, 2 Bn I CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution(is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.780 Will you state to the Court your appointment and unit?
A.780 I am the Adjt of 2 Bn.

Q.781 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.781 Yes sir. I recall it.

Q.782 Will you tell the Court, to your knowledge, what happened that evening?
A.782 I returned to Canada Bks at approximately 2315 hrs and found a few soldiers and offrs crowding around the entrance of the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. I went to the 2 Bn MIR where I found Capt Verdicchio, 2 Bn MO, and Capt McKee, PPCLI. From information I received, I ascertained that a soldier had been shot on the main square outside the entrance of the Offrs' Mess. While still in the MIR, Capt McKee gave me a set of identity discs bearing the name of "Pte Robinson", number - "B.144333".

Q.783 I show you Exhibit "J". Do you recognize this?
A.783 I recognize the discs as the ones given to me by Capt. McKee.

Q.784 What did you do then?
A.784 Major Bernier, Paymaster, 2 Bn, who was present at the MIR, and I, endeavoured to find the owner of the discs through the card index system of 3 Bn. It appeared that they would have some bearing on the incident. We found the owner of the discs to be a Seaforth soldier. The number corresponded to one of the Seaforth cards in the 2 Bn Card Index. Major Bernier accompanied me to the Seaforth Office in the Seaforth billets. I found that Pte Robinson was billeted in the Seaforth quarters. The NCO got a candle as there was not sufficient light, and we went to the soldier's bed, which was an outside bed in one of the bays where the soldiers were sleeping. I found the soldier asleep on his face on the bed. I awakened him and asked him his name.

Q.785 Is that soldier in this Court Room?
A.785 Yes, I recognize Pte Robinson as the soldier I awakened on finding him in the Seaforth building. I noticed at the time that Pte Robinson's lips were cut and his face scratched. I told the Orderly NCO, Cpl Shaw, to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn RP. Major Bernier and myself searched the kit of Pte Robinson while he was still there. We found a .45 automatic, Army pattern, at the top of Pte Robinson's bed. I observed the magazine, finding that the gun was empty. I smelled the gun and detected a smell of cordite powder as if it had been recently fired.

Q.786 Will you fully describe the pistol in question?
A.786 The pistol was a .45 model: American make, .45 automatic. It was rusted slightly and not in very good condition. The number I first took from it was M.1911 which I later found was the model number only. The pistol was identical with an Army pattern .45. The only distinct feature I can recollect is that it was slightly rusted and did not appear in good shape. The number I ascertained ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ at a later time. The pistol remained in my possession for a period of time. I am sure it was the same pistol.

Q.787 What was the number of the pistol?
A.787 I don't recall.

Q.788 Have you got any memoranda on your person?
A.788 I jotted down a few points: the number of the pistol and a few witnesses present on the evening of the incident.

Q.789 When did you make these notes?
A.789 I made these notes in the Bn Orderly Room while the Summary of Evidence was being prepared.

Q.790 Was the pistol out of your possession at that time?
A.790 Yes. The pistol was turned over to Major Morgan of 3 Bn who completed the Court of Inquiry. It was returned to me personally with the exhibits on completion of the Court of Inquiry. The exhibits were then placed under lock and key and specifically turned over to Lt Murphy who had them at various times until the completion of the Summary of Evidence. They were then returned for safe-keeping to 2 Bn.

Q.791 I am producing this weapon for your inspection. I want you to state to the Court if that weapon is the one you found on the night of the incident or not?
A.791 To the best of my knowledge that pistol is the same pistol I found on the night of the incident.

Q.792 How do you identify the pistol?
A.792 I recognize the pistol from its rusty appearance, also the corrosion contained in the barrel which I originally noticed at the time the pistol was found. (.45 automatic pistol, stamped "United States Property M1911 A1 US Army No.948416 Remington Rand Inc, Syracuse, N.Y., USA", admitted and marked Exhibit "C".)

Q.793 After the revolver was found did you make any further inspections?
A.793 Yes, we searched the kit.

Q.794 Was the accused present at the time?
A.794 Yes, to the best of my knowledge the accused was present.

Q.795 Did you find anything?
A.795 The holster was found.

Q.796 Did you find the holster?
A.796 Major Bernier found the holster.

Q.797 Was the accused present at the time?
A.797 As far as I can recall the accused was present.

Q.798 Would you describe the holster?
A.798 To the best of my knowledge, the holster was a typical American one.

Defending Offr:

It is important to note that the witness eludes the Court by answering "To the best of my knowledge". I am convinced, myself, that the kit inspection was not carried out in the presence of the accused.

Judge Advocate:

I think the Court will object if they feel convinced that the manner in which a witness answers is unfair to the accused.

Defending Offr:

I am a little anxious that the Court should find out why he says "To the best of my knowledge".

Judge Advocate:

Will the witness please give specific answers? Capt Rose, would you establish whether or not the accused was present when his kit was searched?

Prosecutor:

Q.799 Was the accused present when you searched the kit alleged to belong to the accused?
A.799 Yes.

Defending Offr:

This witness was not present and did not search the kit himself. If the Court were to adjourn, the Court would see from the .....

The accused was lying on his bed. I was standing near his bed. I awakened the accused. Major Bernier was going to search his kit. I was questioning the accused as to who he was. I assisted Major Bernier in the search of the man's kit. The man was present.

Q.800 To whom do you refer when you say, "The man was present"?.
A.800 Pte Robinson.

Q.801 What did you find in his kit?
A.801 I found it was the ordinary soldier's kit. I didn't find the pistol. I didn't find the holster.

Q.802 Who was present when either the pistol or the holster were found?
A.802 Major Bernier and Cpl Shaw of the Seaforths were present.

Q.803 Where were you and where was the accused?
A.803 The accused was sitting up on his bed. I was sitting down on the left side of his bed. Major Bernier was on my left. The MCO was standing behind Major Bernier, to his left, in the hallway between the bays.

Q.804 Did you see either the automatic or the holster found?
A.804 I saw Major Bernier find the pistol at the top of Pte Robinson's bed.

A.A.G.

Q.805 Did you see the holster found?
A.805 I didn't see it found, the spot, but Major Bernier produced the holster there. It was found in the kit.

Q.806 After these articles were found what did you do?
A.806 I told the Col to place Pte Robinson under close arrest and take him to the RP of 2 Bn, informing him I would be over later.

Q.807 Did you see the accused later?
A.807 Yes.

Q.808 Where?
A.808 At the RP 2 Bn.

Q.809 What happened at that time?
A.809 Major Bernier and I proceeded to the RP 2 Bn and tried to find out more about this incident. I got hold of the RP Sgt - Sgt Leclerc, and told him to bring the accused to me. The accused was brought to me.

Q.810 What did you do then?
A.810 I warned Pte Robinson. This was in 2 Bn Detn Room.

Q.811 Where were you sitting?
A.811 I was sitting at the table in the office of the detn barrack. The accused was standing in front of me.

Q.812 What did you say to the accused?
A.812 Major Bernier was sitting on my left. Sgt Leclerc was standing to the left of the accused. I warned the accused or said to the accused that he could make a voluntary statement under oath, and that it would be taken down in writing and perhaps later be used as evidence. As far as I can recall, those are the words I used.

Q.813 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.813 No threats or promises were made to the accused with the exception that I offered him some cigarettes which he smoked.

Q.814 Was any violence offered to the accused?
A.814 No.

Q.815 Was the accused in any manner, shape or form given any indication that if he made a statement things would be easier for him?
A.815 No.

Q.816 Was there a statement made?
A.816 I prepared a statement in pencil.

Q.817 Will you detail to the Court exactly what you did?
A.817 I asked the accused if he minded telling some of the events that happened during the evening. He made no objection. I asked the accused if he was aware of the order concerning the wearing of identity discs.

Defending Offr:

I object to the answers of the accused being admitted because the witness must have made up his mind to lay a charge against the accused at this stage. The statement must have been obtained in accordance with "The Judges Rules" as set out in para 76 MML p.81. I also object to any verbal answers the accused made as they are equally a part of the statement made by the accused.

Judge Advocate:

Do you object to both written and oral statements?

W.B.to.

Defending Offr:

Yes sir.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Snell, the result of the objection is that at this stage you may not, until the Court decides it is admissable, tell the Court what were the contents of the written statement the accused made. The Court may hear what went on between you and the accused when making the statement. Nothing he said or the contents of the statement can be given in evidence until the Court rules that they are admissable.

Prosecuter:

Q.818 Will you tell the Court in what manner you obtained this statement or any statement from the accused?
A.818 I obtained the statement by asking the accused two or three questions which I wrote down. I received answers to those questions which I wrote down in the accused's own words. On the completion of the statement, I read it back to the accused in the presence of the witnesses I have mentioned. Then I asked him to sign it.

Q.819 Did you cross-examine the accused on his statement?
A.819 No I did not.

Prosecutor:

I submit that the statement of the accused given to the witness should be admitted into evidence.

Judge Advocate:

The Defending Offr has the right to cross-examine this witness on the manner of obtaining the statement. You may call other witnesses who were present at the time of the taking of the statement. The accused has the right to give evidence if he so wishes. This is what is known as a "Trial within a Trial".

Cross-examined:

Q.820 Have you seen the statement since you first took it on the night of 2 August?
A.820 Yes.

Q.821 Do you recall it? It seems to be in four or five different paras?
A.821 Yes.

Q.822 And each of these paras is the answer to a specific question you wrote down?
A.822 Yes.

Q.823 These questions were not asked by you merely to clear up an ambiguity or were they to .....
A.823 Clarify please.

Q.824 The questions you asked were not questions to clear up something you had learned of the incident from what the accused had just told you?
A.824 No.

10.8.80

Q.825 What was the condition of the accused? Had he been drinking?
A.825 Yes.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.826 You say he had been drinking: to what extent in your opinion?
A.826 I say he had been drinking because I could smell liquor on his person. But he was standing perfectly upright and was in full possession of his faculties. Therefore, I took the statement.

Defending Offr:

I would like to ask a couple of questions of the witness.

Judge Advocate:

I have a few to ask myself. I will question the witness. If I do not cover the precise points you have in mind, the Court will put your questions for you.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.827 When the accused was brought to you by Sgt Leclerc in the Detn Room office, did you explain to him that you were investigating the shooting which occurred in Canada Bks earlier that evening?
A.827 Yes. First I warned the accused. I told him there had been a shooting. After the warning, I asked him what he knew of it. He didn't .....

Q.828 I take it there was a reply to this preliminary question?
A.828 Yes.

Q.829 Did you at any time form an opinion in your mind as to the accused being guilty or likely guilty of doing this shooting?
A.829 No. I wouldn't say that sir. I had a confused impression of the whole affair and was merely investigating.

Q.830 What period of time elapsed from the time that Cpl Shaw took the accused away from his quarters until the accused was brought before you again?
A.830 I would say a matter of five or ten minutes, fifteen minutes at the outside.

Q.831 Did you or did you not, before you asked the accused to sign this statement, ask him to read it over in order to make any corrections in it if he so wished?
A.831 I read the statement I had written to the accused and asked him if he wanted to say anything else or put anything else down.

By the Court:

Q.832 In the presence of the accused at the bedside, was there any confusion regarding ownership of the pistol?
A.832 I don't remember.

Defending Offr:

I would like the Court to put a question to the witness - whether or not he had made up his mind to lay a charge.

W.B.H.

By the Court:

Q.833 Capt Snell, did you make up your mind to lay a charge against the accused when you found the pistol in the bed clothes of the accused's bed?
A.833 No, I felt that in my capacity as Adjt, an investigation should ensue before any charges could be laid. At the time we merely held Robinson in safe custody.

Q.834 Do you know whether or not a charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the pistol?
A.834 Yes.

Q.835 When was it laid?
A.835 On the completion of the Court of Inquiry?

Q.836 When did that take place?
A.836 I don't remember - about one or two days later.

Q.837 Who laid the charge?
A.837 We laid it - 2 Bn. I laid it.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 82(B).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (Major J. Bernier, RCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CERD, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the Court at this moment is only concerned with ascertaining the facts leading up to the obtaining of a certain statement or statements from the accused. The previous witness has given evidence that a statement was obtained. He has described or given his version of the manner he obtained it. The Defending Offr has objected to the admissibility of the accused's answers and the statement. So we are only concerned with what transpired up to the obtaining of the statement.

Q.838 Will you give the Court your appointment?
A.838 I am Paymaster of 2 Bn.

Q.839 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd Aug 44?
A.839 I do.

Q.840 Were you in 2 Bn Detn Bks that night?
A.840 I was.

Q.841 Who else was there?
A.841 Capt Snell, the Adjt of 2 Bn, along with several witnesses in connection with the accident that happened that night and the accused whom I now recognize in this Court Room.

Q.842 Will you tell the Court what was said to the accused but not what the accused said in reply? You were in this room; where were you?
A.842 I was sitting next to Mr Snell at a desk in the Guard Room.

Q.843 You spoke to the accused?
A.843 I didn't. No sir.

Q.844 Did anyone else speak to the accused?
A.844 Capt Snell told the accused that he could make a statement or give evidence on oath, and that what he would say was to be taken down in writing and used in evidence.

w.b.b.

Q.845 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.845 No.

Q.846 Were any promises held out?
A.846 No.

Q.847 Was there any duress of any sort whatever?
A.847 No, none at all.

Q.848 Was there a suggestion that if he made a statement things might become easier for him?
A.848 Nothing like that, that I recall.

Q.849 After the statement was made, did Lt Snell read it to the accused?
A.849 I don't recall whether he read/or showed it to the accused to read before signing. it

Q.850 Was there any inducement made to the accused to sign the statement?
A.850 None that [redacted]

Cross-examined:

Q.851 What words did Capt Snell use when he wanted the signature?
A.851 I cannot recall the actual words.

Q.852 I suggest to you it was in the form of a command, "You sign here".
A.852 No, I would not say it was in the form of a command. It was shown to him.

Q.853 Were those words used?
A.853 No, I don't recall that.

Q.854 Do you recall anything of the methods used in obtaining the signature?
A.854 As far as I recall, it was pointed out to him that it was a rather important document, and that it would be better for him to sign it.

Q.855 The information which Capt Snell wrote down after he gave the caution was obtained by asking the accused questions and listing answers, was it not?
A.855 Yes.

Q.856 The questions were not put merely for the purpose of clearing up any misunderstanding in Capt Snell's mind but to elicit specific information?
A.856 Yes.

Q.857 Had the accused been drinking?
A.857 Yes.

Q.858 Capt Snell has told the Court the relevant positions of himself, yourself, the Sgt, and the accused. Would you tell the Court the relevant positions?
A.858 Capt Snell was sitting at the desk. The accused was immediately in front of him. I was sitting at Capt Snell's right. I am not sure of the Sgt, but I believe he was sitting fairly well back near the door which was on the right of the desk.

N.Z.S.A.

Q.859 Some cigarettes were offered to the accused while the information was obtained from him?
A.859 Yes.

Re-examination:

Q.860 Who stated that it might be better for the accused to sign this statement?
A.860 I don't recall that that was exactly my answer. The Offr for the Defence asked me in what way the demand was made. As far as I recall it was made in the line of advice.

Q.861 Who gave this advice?
A.861 Capt Snell.

By the Court:

Q.862 Had the accused been told before he started to give his statement that it would be taken down in writing, and he would be expected to sign it?
A.862 He was warned.

Q.863 But not told that he had to sign it?
A.863 Not that I recall.

Q.864 You stated the accused had been drinking?
A.864 Yes sir.

Q.865 Do you think that his reasoning or understanding was affected at that time?
A.865 Not in my opinion.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.866 Were the cigarettes offered to the accused or did he ask for them?
A.866 They were offered.

Q.867 By whom?
A.867 By Capt Snell.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Judge Advocate:

Does the accused wish to give evidence?

Defending Offr:

No sir.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Sir, I object to the statement being put in evidence on the basis that the information obtained was made after the Bn Adjt - the investigator - decided to lay a charge or charges against the accused. The caution was not properly administered, and it was not a proper caution. From the evidence, the Court can readily infer that the statement was given under duress. Consider that a private soldier, who, in the opinion of the interrogator had been drinking, was awakened and marched, under the escort of a Sgt, no less, to the Guard Room. In any event the Sgt was available throughout the interrogation. It was not sufficient for them to obtain merely a L/Cpl from the unit to get the statement. Capt Snell must also have the assistance of a Field Offr to help him. All of these things must have thrown a little fright into the accused. Therefore he was under duress. There is evidence of Capt Snell being the "big brother" of the accused. There is evidence of an inducement, the giving of the cigarettes. Major Bernier states that Capt Snell tried to influence the accused with the advice that it might be better if the accused signed it. This is sufficient evidence from which the Court can draw the inference that there was a threat. I would like to draw the Court's attention specifically to sub-para 7 on page 92 in MML which covers the accused's particular case. This statement is a set question and answer statement and, therefore, inadmissable. I quote: (reads MML Chap VI p.91 sub-para 7). I would draw the Court's attention to the fact that the accused, in the eyes of the person obtaining the answers, had been drinking. Great care must be taken in demanding statements from people who have been drinking, whether little or much. I refer to MML p.93 para 79 which reads as follows: (reads para 79). I wish the statement thrown out.

Prosecutor's Answer:

There is no evidence before the Court from which it can be inferred that a charge was to be laid against the accused. I suggest that the statement was obtained in accordance with the rules laid down by the Judges of the King's Bench Division, found in para 78 at p.91 of MML. In particular, I quote: (reads sub-para 1, MML, p.91). There is no indication, either, in the evidence that the accused was cross-examined as the Defending Counsel suggested. I will read you sub-para 7 on p.92 of MML again. (reads sub-para 7) In any event the caution which was given, I believe, comes well within the ruling of the Court, which in the past decided the form in which the caution should be given. This individual offr gave the exact words used. His failure to put the caution in the exact words of the Rule indicates merely he was not qualified, you might say, in obtaining confessions. He is, you might find, in the capacity of a police offr. There is no evidence of any inducement, threat or promise made to the accused. It was between ten and fifteen minutes from the time he was placed under close arrest in his billets before he was questioned in the detn room of 2 Bn. He was given cigarettes. In fact the attitude of the offr taking the statement was, as far as the accused was concerned, in my opinion, a helpful one. He wanted to make the accused as comfortable as possible. The cigarettes were not offered - there is no suggestion they were offered as an inducement to the accused. There is no evidence before the Court to indicate that the accused was, in any shape or form, drunk. There is some evidence that he had been drinking which is the most ambiguous term. The signature was obtained after the accused had made the statement and had either read it over or had it read over to him. At that time he had the opportunity to delete or make any corrections in the statement if he so desired. I submit that the statement should be admitted in evidence.

The Defending Offr made no reply.

The Court closed to consider the Submission. The Court was re-opened.

Judge Advocate:

Pte Robinson, I am directed by the Court to advise you that the submission made by your Defending Offr has been allowed. In consequence of that, the statement will not be admitted in evidence, and no answers to questions which were put to you during the investigation at 2 Bn Detn Room Office will be admitted.

W.H.B.

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS (Capt J.H. Snell, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, recalled, for (already sworn,
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.868 Did you make any examination of the accused's person at the time you awakened him?
A.868 Yes.

Q.869 Will you describe to the Court what you found?
A.869 I noticed the accused's lips were bruised and cut and that there were scratches on the front of his neck below the chin.

Q.870 Describe these bruises, cuts and scratches?
A.870 Well, the bruises on his face were similar to bruises or cuts one would get in a fight. I would not say he had been in a fight that night. The scratches on his neck were two or three long scratches running diagonally down from his chin and approximately 2½ inches long.

Q.871 Do you recall how many scratches there were?
A.871 Two or three.

Q.872 Was the accused properly dressed when you saw him?

Defending Offr:

I object to the form of that question.

Prosecutor:

Q.873 Describe how the accused was dressed at the time or a few minutes after he was awakened?
A.873 The accused was dressed in trousers with his boots off but his socks on. I would say he also had on some sort of undershirt.

Q.874 Did the accused put on any article of dress at the time you were with him there?
A.874 I don't remember.

Q.875 Could you tell the Court of any other article of dress that the accused had on at the time?
A.875 He might have had on a pair of shorts.

Q.876 You said he had trousers on?
A.876 Trousers, socks and a white undershirt.

Q.877 What were the condition of the clothes?
A.877 His clothes were quite dirty.

Q.878 When you next saw the accused, will you describe his dress?
A.878 The accused had on a bush shirt and shoes but no hat.

Q.879 Will you describe the condition of the bush shirt?
A.879 The bush shirt was dirty. That is all I recall.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, do you wish to proceed with your cross-examination now? Would it prejudice your case if the Court were to adjourn until tomorrow morning?

Defending Offr:

I have made fairly complete notes which I wish to study tonight. I won't be prejudiced if the Court is adjourned until tomorrow.

Court adjourned at 1655 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1000 hrs, 23 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecuter produced Medical Certificate.

Cross-examined:

Q.880 Capt Snell, when did you make up your mind that serious charges would be laid as a result of the shooting?
A.880 On completion of the Court of Inquiry at 3 Bn.

Q.881 Had you not formed a complete conclusion as to the guilt of the accused when you found the pistol and identity discs during your investigation?
A.881 I was confused about the evidence. I had formed no definite opinion.

Q.882 What made you place him under arrest?
A.882 I placed him under arrest because of the circumstances surrounding him. He might be involved. I placed him in safe custody to further the investigation.

Q.883 How soon after the shooting did you make up your mind that this was not a case of suicide ?
A.883 I didn't arrive at that conclusion.

Q.884 Didn't you consider that a possibility?
A.884 I didn't consider any possibilities. My mind was confused - muddled.

Q.885 Didn't you think it was a little ridiculous that decision?
A.885 My opinion was my own opinion. I heard a lot of things. I was not present at the body or even near the shooting. I found a Seaforth soldier who had been drinking with a pistol in his possession, the .45 automatic which I identified. Certain empty .45 calibre casings were found. All of which seemed to point to the fact that he was lying.

Q.886 You came to the conclusion that he was lying?
A.886 That was my opinion. As it was so late, I thought I had better place him in safe custody. I thought, in my own mind, that he might have been lying.

Q.887 It was a definite conclusion on your part?
A.887 Yes.

Q.888 It was a definite conclusion that he was very closely linked with the shooting?
A.888 Yes.

Q.889 Can you tell the Court how soon after the incident the Court of Inquiry was in your hands?
A.889 The Court of Inquiry was delivered to me the night of the following day, 3 Aug 44.

Q.890 How soon after the shooting did you say the charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the weapon?
A.890 I received the Court of Inquiry. As it seemed quite a long case and in my opinion it would come to a Summary of Evidence, the charge was placed against Robinson.

A.Bfs.

Q.891 Was he dealt with and punished?
A.891 Yes he was charged and given 28 days.

Q.892 Detention?
A.892 Detention.

Q.893 When you read the Court of Inquiry, did you see the recommendations made by the offr of 3 Bn?
A.893 I did.

Q.894 In view of these recommendations, you still felt you should lay the charge of improper possession?
A.894 Yes.

Q.895 In view of what was contained therein, hadn't you now come to the conclusion that the accused was guilty of the shooting?
A.895 No.

Q.896 Have you ever received instructions in your capacity as Adjt, [illegible] that the Judge Advocate does not want a multitude of charges laid?
A.896 Yes.

Q.897 Did you think that laying a charge against the accused was in accordance with those instructions?
A.897 Yes I do.

Q.898 How long have you been in the Army, Capt Snell?
A.898 I have been in the Army for about four years.

Q.899 Who was your Commanding Offr on the 2nd of Aug?
A.899 Colonel Lent.

Q.900 Did you know whether or not he has legal qualifications?
A.900 Yes he was a lawyer.

Q.901 Did you consult him?
A.901 I did.

Q.902 How often have you read the evidence you gave at the Summary of Evidence?
A.902 I have read it very little. I read it yesterday morning.

Q.903 Just prior to coming into Court?
A.903 Yesterday, not this morning.

Q.904 This morning?
A.904 No, not this morning.

Q.905 You did, in your evidence yesterday, identify Exhibit "J", the identity discs handed to you by Capt McKee. Are you convinced that they are the same or different?
A.905 I state specifically, they are the same.

Q.906 On what identifying marks, do you base this opinion?
A.906 The cord is similar.

Q.907 The type?
A.907 No. The cord is the same cord. It is short and won't go around a person's neck. The marking and stamping on the discs is rough. The name is the same. The way the discs are tied is exactly the same as they were tied. It bears the same number, rank and name as before. They are the same discs.

wbb.

Q.908 There is one distinct peculiarity about the identity discs in connection with the letters of the name. Can you tell the Court what that peculiarity is?

A.908 I don't recall.

Q.909 You examined them and you didn't see this distinct peculiarity? There is something peculiar about one of these discs - something in connection with the numbering which is not very often found on identity discs?

A.909 Possibly.

Q.910 Do you still say you gave them a microscopic inspection?
A.910 I didn't give them a microscopic inspection. I examined them.

Q.911 Still you gave the Court a microscopic description of them as you recalled them, did you not?

A.911 I stated that I recalled them.

Q.912 Examine Exhibit "J". Will you tell the Court how the initial on the top disc is placed in relation to the one on the bottom disc?

A.912 They are joined. The "P" runs into the "PTE".

Defending Offr:

The initial and the "PTE" run into one another. I draw the Court's attention to Exhibit "J" - to the top identification disc and to the lettering "PTED".

Q.913 When you received a copy of the Court of Inquiry, did you implement any of the recommendations made by the Commanding Offr of 3 Bn?

A.913 Yes there were. I have seen the Court of Inquiry very little. As I recall in the findings several charges were suggested. From that it was decided in 2 Bn to place a charge of improper possession against Pte Robinson. The Commanding Offr, 3 Bn, recommended the investigation of several rather serious offences.

Q.914 Did you or did you not take steps to implement these recommendations?

A.914 Yes. After Pte Robinson was charged, it was suggested that we send the pistol to some ballistic experts in Rome. Major Morgan of 3 Bn contacted them through Fd Security. That fell through.

Q.915 How did it fall through?
A.915 Apparently they could not find or locate this ballistic expert in Rome. The pistol was returned to 3 Bn and turned over to him again. This took a certain period of time. It was decided that a Summary of Evidence would have to be taken. Mr Murphy was detailed to round up any persons who might have information concerning the event.

Q.916 Is there any MP force in your Bn?
A.916 Yes.

Q.917 Were there any MP offrs and personnel available to assist you in the investigation?

A.917 Yes.

Q.918 Did you request such assistance?
A.918 No.

Q.919 Why did you not obtain the assistance of their trained personnel?
A.919 I had a variety of reasons. I was very busy with the drafts at the time.

W.A.B.

Q.920 You were busy with drafts?
A.920 I was very busy. I had an offr working at 2 Bn Orderly Room who devoted his whole time to the preparation of Summaries of Evidence, Courts of Inquiry, etc. I had an administrative offr to assist me. I turned over the investigation to this offr as I could not spare the time myself to help Mr Murphy.

Q.921 What is the other of the two reasons?
A.921 I suggested to Mr Murphy that he contact the Judge Advocate which I know he did - due to the seriousness of these charges.

Q.922 Is it the duty of the Judge Advocate to assist in advising you as to whether or not there is sufficient evidence or to assist in investigating the case?
A.922 He is there to clarify certain points. It is not the Judge Advocate's job to direct police investigations.

Q.923 The impression I got was that on various points that arose, on points of law, the Judge Advocate assisted -----

Judge Advocate:

To clarify this for the benefit of the Court; I was not then acting as a Judge Advocate. I was acting in my capacity as ADJA Gp HQ. I am here today as Judge Advocate.

Defending Offr:

Q.924 When did you first consult Capt Bate, ADJA Gp HQ?
A.924 I cannot give you the date. It was four or five days afterwards. Mr Murphy could tell you better.

Q.925 And when Capt Bate was first consulted, was Mr Murphy in possession of any of the information given to the Court these last three days?
A.925 No.

Q.926 You are satisfied in your mind that Mr Murphy sought the best advice that he could obtain and was capable of completing a murder investigation?
A.926 Yes.

Q.927 Had Mr Murphy any recent experience to your knowledge?
A.927 No.

Q.928 Had Mr Murphy any previous experience in murder investigations?
A.926 Not to my knowledge. Mr Murphy spent a period in England and here on Courts of Inquiry and Courts Martial work. He has turned in very efficient work with few repercussions of any sort, and he was quite qualified to deal with this case.

Q.929 You gave evidence yesterday that you and Major Bernier decided to obtain particulars of the owner of the discs that were handed to you by Capt McKee?
A.929 Yes.

Q.930 What did Major Bernier have to do with the discs?
A.930 The decision to pursue the tracing of the discs was simultaneous. He was to check the Pay records and I was to check the Card Index which were in the Bn offices.

Q.931 So you and Major Bernier set yourselves up as an amateur detective office?
A.931 Yes.

W.B.

Q.932 When you first went to the bed in which you found the accused that night, you stated that it was by candle light?
A.932 ~~xxxxxxxxxxx~~ I think there were two candles.

Q.933 You were not in a particularly observant mood that night?
A.933 Quite. Yes.

Q.934 The NCO who was present previously told the Court that he brought a lantern along. Is he right or are you?
A.934 He may have been right. He might have gone back for the lantern, but there were candles when we first went to the bed.

Q.935 What do you say? When you first got there with the NCO, was there a lantern or candles?
A.935 Candles when I first went in as far as I can remember.

Q.936 You are not sure?
A.936 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.937 If you are not sure of such a small detail, how could you be sure that your specific identification of the discs is any more accurate?
A.937 Yes, I am. My attention was centered on them. My attention was not centered on the light. There was light around the bed.

Q.938 How can you tell the Court you saw scratches on the face or the neck of the accused when you saw him on 2 Aug 44? What conclusion did you come as to how these scratches were incurred?
A.938 My impression?

Q.939 Yes?
A.939 In the RP the soldier ------

Q.940 At the bed?
A.940 When this soldier, who was lying on his face, turned over, his face was bruised - lips bruised and face damaged. On his neck were scratches that had no significance at the time. He was not wearing discs when found in bed. As he was Robinson and I had Robinson's discs, it occurred to me on the way over to the RP that his scratches had some significance. On arrival at the RP I asked Cpl Shaw, in the presence of the accused, if he had noticed scratches on Pte Robinson around his neck. He said "No". I sent the Cpl into the cell where Pte Robinson was. I said take a look at his neck. He came back and I -------

Q.941 You first stated you had this conversation in the presence of the accused. Now which is it?
A.941 Not in his presence. We were told by Cpl Shaw that the scratches resembled scratches which might have been put on his neck by fingernails.

Q.942 Was there any difference in the length and width of the individual scratches? Were they of the appearance of having been put on by fingernails?
A.942 Yes. They looked like scratches.

Q.943 Now, to the best of your knowledge, was any attempt ever made to examine Dillon's fingernails to see if any blood was clotted in them?
A.943 To the best of my knowledge I never heard of any.

Q.944 Don't you think that would be the best way to link Dillon with the accused?
A.944 I would say that that would be a very good method.

W.B.G.

Q.945 Do you agree that that would be the usual police method?
A.945 I am not versed with police methods.

Q.946 Would you tell the Court if a draft had arrived recently from England - just prior to the 2nd Aug?
A.946 Yes.

Q.947 Was there a fair number of Seaforths in camp around 2 Aug 44?
A.947 Yes, there was quite a number.

Q.948 A number of 48th Highrs?
A.948 Yes.

Q.949 And quite a few Hast & PER?
A.949 Yes.

Q.950 When you found the accused asleep in bed with the pistol, was any attempt made to find out whether the accused had been recently seen in possession of the pistol by any of the people in the Bks?
A.950 Taking into consideration .....

Q.951 Forget the time limit that evening. Were any specific steps taken to determine whether or not the accused was seen in possession of that particular pistol?
A.951 I don't know.

Q.952 Did you yourself give that any consideration?
A.952 Mr Murphy and I discussed it.

Q.953 Did you discuss the investigation with him?
A.953 I don't remember what matters were discussed.

Q.954 Did you, in that discussion, consider obtaining the assistance of the police?
A.954 Yes, I 'phoned the Pd Security Offr with reference to the pistol; asked if he had anything to report on it and found out this expert was not available. I frequently asked Mr Murphy how the Summary was getting on and if further assistance was needed. I don't remember telling him specifically to contact the Local Provost or any other police personnel.

Q.955 Who suggested the trip to Rome for ballistic purposes?
A.955 I instigated it if I remember correctly.

Q.956 Who is Capt Allan, W.C.?
A.956 I think he is OC or 2IC of the Pd Security Sec.

Q.957 Did you ever hear of the American ballistics people at Naples?
A.957 No. We were endeavouring to find out.

Q.958 Did you contact the DAPM, the L of C Pro or the SIB of the CMP?
A.958 No.

Q.959 I would like to direct the Court's attention to the next one or two questions and ask them to try and recall the method in which Exhibit "O" was put in by this witness yesterday. When you were handed the pistol, Exhibit "O", yesterday by the Prosecuting Offr, do you recall the method in which you presented it to the Court - how much you handled it?
A.959 Fairly well.

Q.960 Capt Rose handed it to you; then you identified it and then you looked at it?
A.960 I broke it.

W.B.

Q.961 Will you take it and break it exactly the same as you did yesterday?
A.961 If I didn't I should have.

Q.962 You made a statement that you did?
A.962 I don't think I did. I looked at it.

Q.963 You looked at it and could see the corrosion on it?
A.963 I examined the features of the pistol and noticed it was corroded.

Q.964 Can you tell from there that the barrel is corroded?
A.964 The light was shining on it. I can see it.

Q.965 How much did you see? Did you look at it that closely?
A.965 I did. I also recall seeing it on the table, and on examination it had corrosion in the barrel.

Q.966 Did you inspect it in the same manner?
A.966 It is not hard to see the corrosion.

Q.967 Can you examine a barrel without looking down it?
A.967 Not in the true sense of the word, not to examine it [redacted]

Q.968 The amount of examination in detail that you did is evidence on which someone may be convicted of a serious offence. If the evidence is going to be as sloppy as that identification of yours, there will be a miscarriage of justice. Now, what do you say?
A.968 I identified the pistol.

Q.969 You smelled the gun on the night of 2 Aug?
A.969 Yes.

Q.970 And as a result of that smell you came to the conclusion that the pistol had been recently fired?
A.970 Yes.

Q.971 Take Exhibit "O" and tell the Court if the smells from it are any different than those of 2nd Aug?
A.971 It smells of oil now and didn't the other day.

Q.972 How would the oil get there?
A.972 I assume it has been cleaned.

Q.973 How would the oil get there?
A.973 A certain amount of oil remains on certain parts of the mechanism for some time.

Q.974 Now, when you told the Court the pistol had been recently fired, what period of time do you mean by "recently"?
A.974 Recently fired?

Q.975 What do you mean by "recently fired"?
A.975 Recently fired could be a short period.

Q.976 Would it be less than an hour?
A.976 Possibly.

Q.977 Take the time you want .....
A.977 1½ hours.

Q.978 What is the time you meant?
A.978 No one could state the exact time that cordite in any weapon would last.

W.B.Bo.

Q.979 How could you say it was recently fired?
A.979 It smelled quite fresh. The impression I got was that it had been recently fired.

Q.980 You say it had been recently fired. I want an estimate as to how recently?
A.980 The smell of powder from a weapon that had been fired might last a day or only two hours. I would think, from my experience, that where a weapon had been fired the smell would last for some time. My impression from smelling it, when handing it to Major Bernier, was that it had been fired within the last three or four hours.

Q.981 The shooting only occurred approximately one hour before the pistol was in your hands?
A.981 Possibly.

Q.982 Did you look for any other pistols that may have been fired that evening?
A.982 Yes. We enquired about any .45 automatics around. There were a few around the barracks. Several offrs had them. Their pistols were not fired.

Q.983 How and when did you make that check?
A.983 In conversation. I saw two pistols.

Q.984 Don't you feel ridiculous about the way you made your check?
A.984 It was hard to find pistols in all the various places.

Q.985 There were lots around?
A.985 Not of that particular type.

Q.986 There were a lot of souvenir weapons in the hands of soldiers at that time. It was a very popular pastime to collect weapons, was it not?
A.986 Yes.

Q.987 Did you find any difference in the souvenir value of weapons to soldiers just here for the first few days and two or three months after? Are they more anxious to obtain pistols when they first arrive?
A.987 I would say so. I would say that they had it in mind to collect a pistol and carry it as long as they possibly could.

Q.988 If I were to tell you that a pistol fired at 0845 hrs has the same smell at 1000 hrs as it would have at 4:30 o'clock, would you agree that was possible?
A.988 Everything is possible.

Q.989 I only want your opinion from your military experience. Would you agree to the possibility?
A.989 There is the possibility. In my experience, a fresh smell of cordite departs and afterwards you smell corrosion.

Q.990 Was the soldier you found in bed at 2230 hrs asleep?
A.990 He was lying on his face. I assumed he was asleep.

Q.991 Did you turn him over?
A.991 I awakened him.

Q.992 Did he have the appearance of a sleeping man? Did you come to the conclusion he had been sleeping? Did you have to awaken him?
A.992 Yes. I assumed he had been sleeping. My first impression was that he was drunk. I smelled liquer on his breath when he was talking.

R.B.B.

Q.993 When was the first identification parade to let the witnesses pick out the accused?
A.993 Major Morgan held the identification parade preceding the Court of Inquiry.

Q.994 Who found the pistol?
A.994 To the best of my memory Major Bernier found the pistol at the top of the bed in the clothing the accused used as a pillow. It was a simultaneous finding. I was searching the kit, and he probably got his hands on it first.

Q.995 Was it in the man's pillow or by his head or in his kit?
A.995 Underneath the clothing used for a pillow on top of his head.

Q.996 Why did you arrange a second kit inspection?
A.996 Because our inspection had been cursory so I decided that a thorough search should be made. The kit was taken to the RP so that nothing could be taken away from it.

Q.997 You took the regular Infantry Training for an offr?
A.997 Yes.

Q.998 Have you handled rifles or pistols to any great extent?
A.998 Yes.

Q.999 Have you fired a large number of shots from a rifle or pistol or some weapon? Is it not correct that the firing pin on the explosion of the cartridge makes an identical mark on each cartridge?
A.999 Yes.

Q.1000 In order to get the casings out, the ejector is used?
A.1000 Yes.

Q.1001 The ejector makes marks on the cartridge as it ejects the cartridge?
A.1001 Yes.

Q.1002 Have you at any time examined the firing pin mark on cartridges after shots have been fired?
A.1002 I have.

Q.1003 Did you notice any similarity in the marks made in the firing?
A.1003 Yes, three.

Q.1004 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". Is there any similarity in the firing pin marks?
A.1004 There is a difference.

Q.1005 From your experience, is there anything here to make you come to the conclusion that these cartridges were fired by different weapons?
A.1005 There are two possibilities. One is that they were fired by different weapons. The other is that the spring firing the trip, due possibly to the condition of the pistol, didn't strike hard enough on that particular cartridge.

Q.1006 Examine Exhibits "M" and "N". Is the head the same in each casing or different?
A.1006 There is a difference.

Q.1007 You admit there is a difference?
A.1007 It appears that way.

W.B.B.

Q.1008 That being the case, the conclusion to come to is that they were fired from different weapons?
A.1008 I am not a pistol expert. I cannot say.

Q.1009 Did you examine any of the cartridges for ejector marks?
A.1009 No, I did not.

Q.1010 Supposing you did not find the pistol on Robinson's bed but found it in some other place; is there any way in which you could have linked up that particular pistol with the accused?
A.1010 I am not sure -----

Q.1011 Had the pistol not been found in or near Robinson's bed but found elsewhere, would there have been any possibility of connecting the pistol with the accused?
A.1011 Not unless he attempted to conceal it.

Q.1012 Is there any way to prove it?
A.1012 By fingerprints?

Q.1013 Was it tested for fingerprints?
A.1013 No, I don't think so.

Q.1014 Did you give any such instructions?
A.1014 No.

Q.1015 Do the police have such facilities available in this theatre?
A.1015 If the pistol hadn't been handled by about 20 individuals we could have tried it.

Q.1016 The pistol was not on charge to Robinson?
A.1016 No.

Q.1017 Did you examine Dillon's conduct sheet?
A.1017 No.

Q.1018 Did you check to find out if there had been any previous bad feeling between Dillon and Robinson?
A.1018 No.

Q.1019 Was it given consideration by anyone you knew of?
A.1019 I heard that 3 Bn gave it consideration. It was only hearsay.

Q.1020 So that, if the weapon had been found in the middle of the parade square, there wouldn't have been any link between the body of Dillon and the accused?
A.1020 No.

Q.1021 If the identity discs were not found near or by the body of Dillon, you would not have any way of linking Robinson with this incident whatever?
A.1021 No.

Q.1022 Can you suggest to the Court any motive for this shooting on the part of Robinson or anyone else?
A.1022 The motive?

Q.1023 The motive. Can you suggest any motive which you found in your investigation?
A.1023 Any one of several.

Q.1024 I want you to be very careful in answering that. Did you find any motive, to your knowledge, of linking the accused with the shooting of Dillon?
A.1024 No.

A.B.G.

Q.1025 In your opinion was the argument they had, the motive?
A.1025 No.

Q.1026 Was any consideration given as to how this shooting took place, having reference to the position of the body and the shots fired?
A.1026 Yes.

Q.1027 What consideration that you know of?
A.1027 Various theories. Lots of people mentioned them and most of them were discarded.

Q.1028 Would you tell the Court one of your theories?
A.1028 The theory that he was fired at and shot in the front of the head. There was a discussion by the MOs, but they couldn't make up their minds as to the correct theory. Another theory was that he was shot while running away.

Q.1029 When you considered that the man might have been shot from the front while standing, did you try to find out where the other person might have stood to fire the shot?
A.1029 I did.

Q.1030 And did you take into consideration that the first empty cartridge casing, Exhibit "G", was found approximately some eight feet from the body? Realizing where the cartridge casing was found and that it was fired from an automatic weapon, did you try to reconstruct that? What did you find, was the normal ejection distance?
A.1030 A .45 throws right. The casing is ejected straight up and drops three or four feet from the pistol.

Q.1031 What if it fell on a hard surface?
A.1031 It might bounce.

Q.1032 You said you carried out a test?
A.1032 I said I fired several .45s.

Q.1033 What I am trying to do now is to keep to the specific case dealing with the incident on the 2nd of Aug. You said several theories were advanced. I want to test whether you agree with these theories of this shooting. Were any of these theories discarded?
A.1033 We have been discarding them.

Q.1034 Did you reconstruct the shooting out in front of the Offrs' Mess in the area where the body was found?
A.1034 We reconstructed the shooting at the time and discussed how he was shot, in front or rear. It was thought at that time it was from behind. We were merely investigating the scene of the shooting for more information.

Q.1035 Did you examine any walls for slugs?
A.1035 We did.

Q.1036 Did you go over those walls very closely?
A.1036 We did.

Q.1037 What walls?
A.1037 The walls in front of the Offrs' Mess.

Q.1038 Did you go over carefully the west side of the Borden Block? I show you Exhibit "B" for reference.
A.1038 I examined the wall of the Ottawa Bldg, but I didn't examine the wall of the Borden Block. The reason I examined the side of the Ottawa Bldg and the Offrs' Mess was because I thought that the shots had been fired from the sports ground in front of the Ottawa Bldg. Another reason for examing the wall was the position of the pool of blood. We happened to find a bullet in the wall of the bldg. There were several bullet holes, all of which might have been made by .45 slugs. It was impossible to find out which was the bullet.

H.A.R.

Q.1039 Did you find any .45 slugs?
A.1039 No.

Q.1040 Did the bullet taken from the man's head give you any indication as to where the shot was fired from?
A.1040 I didn't know that a bullet came from his head.

Q.1041 Did you ask for information on those lines?
A.1041 I assumed it would be included in the medical interpretation.

Q.1042 Did you come to any conclusion as to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1042 I would say close up.

Q.1043 On what did you base this conclusion?
A.1043 From the size of the bullet-hole in the head.

Q.1044 A case of largeness or smallness?
A.1044 Largeness.

Q.1045 Are you suggesting to the Court that the size of the bullet-hole related to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1045 Definitely. A steel bullet makes a small hole and a lead bullet makes a large hole. It was a case of the size of the bullet-hole.

Q.1046 You came to the conclusion that it was fired from close range?
A.1046 Not having seen the body but knowing a small part of the evidence given by the doctors .....

Q.1047 You didn't know the size of the hole?
A.1047 No.

Q.1048 So you jumped to conclusions. When you and Major Bernier found the identity discs and the pistol which you linked closely with the accused, you both jumped to the conclusion that he was guilty?
A.1048 No, I would not say that.

Q.1049 Whether or not you jumped to that conclusion, it appeared to have something to do with the incident, something closely to do with the incident?
A.1049 It would appear that way.

Q.1050 Were any steps taken to find out whether or not Dillon was left handed or right handed?
A.1050 I don't recall.

Q.1051 Wouldn't it have been of some assistance, seeing that the identity discs were in his left hand to determine whether he was left handed or not?
A.1051 I was not there.

Q.1052 Did anyone make inquiries to find out what room Dillon slept in or whether he wore a wrist watch or not?
A.1052 I don't think so.

Q.1053 Was Pte Robinson told he didn't have to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1053 I think Major Morgan told him that. I wasn't present.

Q.1054 To your knowledge, was any assistance given Robinson as far as his legal rights were concerned, apart from your own advice?
A.1054 I can't tell you that.

Q.1055 You don't know?
A.1055 No.

WBL

Q.1056 You have the Orderly Offr's Report for the 3rd of Aug?
A.1056 No.

Q.1057 Have you examined it to see what information it contained?
A.1057 The Orderly Offr's Report?

Q.1058 Yes. Did you examine it - the Orderly Offr's Report for 3rd Aug? Have you examined it?
A.1058 Some time ago.

Q.1059 Do you recall if Lt Menahan was Duty Offr that day?
A.1059 He was.

Q.1060 Was there any report of this incident made in the Orderly Offr's Report for the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1060 No, there was no reason for it.

Q.1061 Give a reason why there wasn't one?
A.1061 Taking into consideration the fact that there were the proper lengthy notes incorporated in the Court of Inquiry, made .....

Q.1062 Do you think that the Court will believe that? Is that the reason?
A.1062 Clarify the question.

Q.1063 You are trying to tell us about something that was done much later. I suggest to you that there was no Orderly Offr's Report. I suggest to you that it was some time later that he made a specific report of the incident?
A.1063 He made a written statement of the incident, I believe, the next morning.

Q.1064 I suggest it didn't come in with the Orderly Offr's Report?
A.1064 I don't remember. Everyone was quite aware that there had been a shooting.

Q.1065 Are you suggesting seriously that because everyone knew about it, no report was made? You are aware that it is evidence you must give in this Court. Don't make silly remarks.
A.1065 (Witness does not answer.)

Q.1066 Where was the holster found?
A.1066 In the kit of Pte Robinson.

Q.1067 Did you find it?
A.1067 No.

Q.1068 Doesn't it strike you as rather queer that the pistol and the holster were not in the kit together?
A.1068 It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1069 This accused?
A.1069 Yes. It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1070 Doesn't it strike you as queer that the holster was found in the kit bag and the pistol found by the pillow or articles used as a pillow?
A.1070 Not queer.

Q.1071 Does it strike you as unusual?
A.1071 It doesn't strike me as unusual.

Q.1072 You are trying to be a big help .....
A.1072 You are asking me. Some people don't keep their pistols in their holsters and others do.

W.L.R.

Q.1073 I suggest to you that after the pistol and holster and identity discs were found, you were trying to prove him guilty?
A.1073 The evidence seemed very certain from the sequence of events that came out that evening.

Q.1074 Wouldn't it be quite unusual for Robinson to keep the pistol, assuming he was connected with the shooting that evening?
A.1074 Yes.

Q.1075 Doesn't it strike you as unusual that you found it under his pillow and not in his kit?
A.1075 It might be -----

Q.1076 Was it found when he was asleep?
A.1076 If he was asleep.

Q.1077 Don't be technical. Do you dislike the accused?
A.1077 I have no feelings one way or the other.

Q.1078 You had been looking after the investigation right throughout. Apart from the medical assistance - there had been no provost assistance - were you not trying to find a solution to the shooting without any professional assistance?
A.1078 No, I don't think so.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.1079 You stated yesterday that you took the smell of cordite as evidence that the revolver had been recently fired. At what time did you smell it?
A.1079 Shortly after it was found. A matter of minutes.

Q.1080 At approximately what time did you smell it?
A.1080 It took 10 or 15 minutes to find out about Robinson. We went directly to Robinson's bed, and it was somewhere between 11:25 and 11:45 o'clock when the pistol was found - around that time approximately.

Q.1081 In other words 2355 hrs?
A.1081 Approximately.

Q.1082 You specifically examined the Orderly Offr's Report after this incident?
A.1082 Yes sir.

Q.1083 Did you see the Tattoo Roll Call for the night 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1083 I saw it the following morning. I didn't see it that night. I don't recall now if Robinson was marked as in that night or not. We checked on it the following morning.

Q.1084 Why the check in the following morning? Was Pte Robinson marked absent at Tattoo Roll Call?
A.1084 I can't verify that from memory.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1085 I think, Capt Snell, you said that when you saw the accused in bed his clothing was dirty?
A.1085 Yes sir. I remember they were dirty.

Q.1086 What do you mean by dirty? Oily, muddy, dusty or what?
A.1086 I would say dusty but I can't verify the type of dirt.

Neb.R.

Q.1087 You have in the course of your evidence referred to the accused's kit. How do you know it was his kit?
A.1087 I am not positive that it was his kit, but it was in his bed and around his bed. It is normal to find a man's kit around his bed.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS (Major J. Bernier, RCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, recalled, for Prosecution (already sworn, (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the decision of the Court was that the written statement and the answers by the accused to the questions when he was before Capt Snell in the 2 Bn Detn Room would not be admitted in evidence. So don't repeat any part of them, please.

Prosecutor:

Q.1088 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.1088 I do.

Q.1089 Will you tell the Court, as simply as possible, what happened on that evening?
A.1089 On the night of 2 Aug 44 I was reading in my room, immediately above the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.1090 I think it might be important if the Court were shown just where Major Bernier's room is on the sketch, Exhibit "G".
A.1090 My room is facing the one storey wing of the Ottawa Bldg on the second floor - the last room. (Witness marks spot with letter "L" on sketch.)

Q.1091 Carry on?
A.1091 At approximately 2300 hrs I heard a shot and then two other shots. I jumped up: went downstairs and found a group of offrs standing around a body sprawled in front of 2 Bn Mess entrance.

Q.1092 I would like you to indicate on Exhibit "G" the position of the body?
A.1092 Here. (Witness points to letter "H" on sketch.)

Q.1093 Will you tell the Court what was the attitude of the body?
A.1093 I only saw him for a brief moment. I remember the man was lying on his stomach. It seems to me his arms were outstretched and not at his side.

Q.1094 In what direction was he facing?
A.1094 His head was facing the Berden Bldg and his feet towards the Petawawa Bldg.

Q.1095 Will you carry on, please?
A.1095 The 2 Bn Orderly Offr, Lt Manahan, seemed to have the situation well in had so I left the scene. As I thought there might be an armed robbery, I went to my office and found everything in order. Then I returned to the general area of the incident. I was shown a set of identity discs by Lt McKee, who said .....

Q.1096 Carry on, but don't repeat conversations.
A.1096 The discs appeared to belong to B.144333 Pte D. Robinson and had the abbreviation for "Presbyterian" and "Canadian" on them.

Q.1097 Was there anything else, any other points of identification on these discs?
A.1097 They were two normal discs, tied together the way they should be, but the cord or string had been broken and, if I remember correctly, the discs had different information as to initials or rank. One had full initials and one had just one initial. I am not sure of this.

Q.1098 I now produce to you Exhibit "J". Can you identify these discs?
A.1098 Yes, these are the discs I was shown on that night.

Q.1099 Carry on, please.
A.1099 I went to Nos 1, 2 and 3 Bns to see if they had any record of Pte Robinson. We finally traced him at the Seaforth Coy Office of 2 Bn. I reported the fact to Capt Snell who had also found out the same information. I accompanied Capt Snell to the Seaforth billets. We found Pte Robinson in his proper bay, sleeping in his blankets. We awakened him. Pte Robinson's face and lips were bruised. There were scratches on his neck and his face. I went through his kit and found an American model .45 calibre revolver under the part of his blankets which formed a pillow. The revolver was empty and had, from the smell of powder, been recently fired.

Q.1100 Will you give to the Court any information you know about that revolver?
A.1100 It was American - I did not notice the make - of .45 calibre. It was in a rusty condition or unpolished in appearance. The number, model or issue was blurred. It had 1911 on it but I did not take the number until the following day. That is about all the information I know except that the magazine was on and was empty. There were no cartridges in the chamber.

Q.1101 Could you identify the revolver if you saw it again?
A.1101 I could.

Q.1102 How?
A.1102 From its general appearance and from its condition because I have a good memory.

Q.1103 I produce Exhibit "O". Will you examine this exhibit and tell the Court whether that is the same revolver or not?
A.1103 (Witness examines pistol) Yes, that is the same revolver.

Q.1104 At what time did you find this revolver?
A.1104 Approximately 2330 to 2345 hrs.

Q.1105 What did you do then?
A.1105 I looked through the rest of the kit and found a holster, presumably the one for the revolver in question. I found it in Pte Robinson's kit bag. I found no other fire arms or ammunition except his rifle which was hanging on the wall and had not been fired. I handed the revolver and holster to Capt Snell for safe custody.

Q.1106 How do you know the kit belonged to Pte Robinson?
A.1106 Because when he was sitting up in his bed, he acknowledged the fact that it was his kit.

Q.1107 How did he acknowledge it?
A.1107 I told him I was going to look through his kit. I asked him if it was his kit and he said, "Yes".

W.B.B.

Q.1108 What was the holster like?
A.1108 It was a light brown holster, not well polished. It had quite a few stains on it but no marks that I recall, no issue or serial number of any sort.

Q.1109 I produce a holster. Can you identify it?

Defending Offr:

In my opinion the methods of introducing the exhibit is objectional. The witness has not identified it by a proper description.

Judge Advocate:

He was only asked whether he was able to identify it or not. The Court will decide on the sufficiency of the identification, in due course.

(examination cont'd)

A.1109 I identify it from its badly polished condition.

Q.1110 Do you recognize that holster?
A.1110 I do recognize it.

Q.1111 What holster is it?
A.1111 That is the holster I found in the kit. (Brown leather holster stamped "UG", admitted and marked Exhibit "P".)

Q.1112 Did you make any examination or search of the person of the accused?
A.1112 I did not.

Q.1113 What did you do then?
A.1113 Capt Snell had the accused placed under close arrest. Then the Cpl on duty was ordered to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn Guard Room and make a methodical search of the general area where Pte Robinson slept. I later accompanied Capt Snell to 2 Bn Guard Room while he questioned the accused and other witnesses as to the shooting.

Q.1114 Can you point out the accused in this Court Room?
A.1114 The accused is here (pointing) sitting by the Offr for the Defence.

Cross-examined:

Q.1115 Major Bernier, giving evidence before this Court has caused you considerable worry, hasn't it?
A.1115 I call it nervousness.

Q.1116 You have been worried about giving evidence?
A.1116 I am not used to the formality of the Court.

Q.1117 You are a little bit worried about the questions I am about to ask you?
A.1117 If I tell the truth I have nothing to worry about.

Q.1118 Since you found out I was the Defending Offr, haven't you been a little bit nervous and worried about the questions I would ask?
A.1118 I knew it would mean a lot of cross-examination.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, you wouldn't be flattering yourself by any chance?

S.A.B.

Defending Offr:

May I have that on the record, sir?

Q.1119 With the result that you have, since the taking of the Summary, read and re-read the evidence you gave in the Summary?
A.1119 I read it only once.

Q.1120 Thoroughly?
A.1120 Just once was the only time. I probably asked other witnesses ....

Q.1121 Have you ever referred to it in an attempt to refresh your memory?
A.1121 Just that once.

Q.1122 Did you memorize the statement you gave at the Summary?
A.1122 No. I had already repeated the story I knew five or six times. I have a photographic memory for certain of the details of what happened.

Q.1123 You saw the accused on his bed on the night of the incident, on the 2nd of Aug. What happened that night since you have such a photographic memory for detail?
A.1123 Only for certain details, [redacted]

Q.1124 Have you the same photographic memory of what happened between 1130 and 1140 hrs this morning?
A.1124 Partly, yes.

Q.1125 Apart from the conversation you had in the presence of Capt Rose and myself, did you have a conversation with anyone else out there?
A.1125 I talked to the Cpl about the duration of the trial.

Q.1126 Did you talk to Capt Snell at all or have any words with him?
A.1126 I asked him whether he had been sitting down when giving his evidence.

Q.1127 Did you discuss the identification of the exhibits?
A.1127 No.

Q.1128 Did you discuss the questions asked him?
A.1128 No.

Q.1129 Why did you so anxiously point out the difference of a letter in the identity discs in the initials of the two discs?
A.1129 As far as I can recall, I noticed it on the night of 2 Aug when I was trying to find the initials for record purposes. I didn't get all the actual details.

Q.1130 Is that the only peculiarity in the initials on either one of them?
A.1130 That is all I remember. I have only seen the discs a few times.

Q.1131 You had the discs in your hand a few moments ago ....
A.1131 The only way I remember them is by the difference in the initials and rank on both of the discs.

Q.1132 What is the difference of initials and rank? Specify it?
A.1132 One has no initial or only has the initial "D".

Q.1133 Are you sure there is no difference in the type of the "PTE" or the position of the initials?
A.1133 I cannot say.

W.B.B.

Q.1134 Will you tell the Court if when you first saw the identity discs you examined the string to see whether it was cut or broken?
A.1134 I did not.

Q.1135 Did you examine the type of knot?
A.1135 I did not.

Q.1136 You gave these identity discs a close examination?
A.1136 I gave them an examination as to rank, name and initials.

Q.1137 Then you can't say that these are the same identity discs because of any other mark of identification?
A.1137 They only bore the same number and name. In my opinion they are the same discs I saw that night.

Q.1138 That is a big difference. Now the holster, the only way you can identify it is that the holster is not polished?
A.1138 Yes.

Q.1139 How could you pick it out of a thousand holsters?
A.1139 By its form.

Q.1140 Could you be sure?
A.1140 Yes.

Q.1141 Are you prepared to state that that is the specific holster you took out of the kit of the accused - identify it specifically? Are you prepared to have your identification checked? Could you pick it out of a large group of holsters of the same size, shape and quality?
A.1141 Frankly, no.

Q.1142 So you cannot identify it specifically?
A.1142 Frankly, no.

Q.1143 Now, if I gave you a number of American .45 pistols of the same type and army serial numbers as Exhibit "O", all a little rusty and dirty and which had been fired, could you pick that one (points to Exhibit "O") out of a very large number?
A.1143 Yes.

Q.1144 And what is the specific thing you would use to identify it?
A.1144 One side of the grip is smooth and the other rough.

Q.1145 Is that unusual?
A.1145 Both sides should be the same.

Q.1146 When did you first memorize the number of the identity discs?
A.1146 The next morning I knew that I would have to establish the number in identifying the discs so I examined them thoroughly.

Q.1147 Capt Snell told us he asked the accused questions. Is that not true?
A.1147 Yes.

Q.1148 How did Robinson have a chance to tell you which was his kit - which kit to examine?
A.1148 As far as I recall there were only a few questions asked him. I had time to ask him a few.

Q.1149 Did you ask him during the actual questioning, before the questioning started or after the questions were asked?
A.1149 I can't say.

WBB.

Q.1150 Are you sure you can't remember?
A.1150 I remember I asked the accused where his large pack was. His large pack was at his head and his small pack to the left. I asked him which part of the kit belonged to him and made him show me where it was. He said, "Yes".

Q.1151 How did you and Capt Snell go about doing this?
A.1151 I don't know. I asked the questions.

Q.1152 In Capt Snell's presence?
A.1152 Yes.

Q.1153 As soon as you got hold of the identity discs and looked at the pistol, you made up your mind the accused was guilty, didn't you?
A.1153 No, I did not.

Q.1154 You didn't make up your mind. When did you first decide the accused was guilty?
A.1154 I would like to reserve my opinion. It was a matter of investigation.

Q.1155 Did you form a definite opinion that the accused was guilty of something or other?
A.1155 Yes, of something.

Q.1156 On what occasion did you change your opinion?
A.1156 I would not say.

Q.1157 When you first arrived at the body would you say there was a group around it?
A.1157 Yes.

Q.1158 How many?
A.1158 Five or six.

Q.1159 Were there any offrs?
A.1159 Some were offrs and some were guards and others.

Q.1160 Were there any spectators?
A.1160 Some of the offrs had rushed out of the Mess and there were people from the Guard Room. Whether there was anyone who had nothing to do with the business, I couldn't say.

Q.1161 You say the offrs rushed out?
A.1161 I don't know. I was on the second floor.

Q.1162 How long did it take you to get out?
A.1162 Less than a minute.

Q.1163 When you arrived at the doorway of the Offrs' Mess did you go right to the point where the body was?
A.1163 Yes.

Q.1164 What made you think that you were going to have a burglary in the Pay Office?
A.1164 I have always been safety-conscious. That has been stamped into me.

Q.1165 Did you check up other Pay Offices as well as your own?
A.1165 No, I was concerned with my own only.

Q.1166 You told the Court that in your opinion the revolver had been recently fired?
A.1166 Yes.

Q.1167 Do you know anything about revolver ballistics?
A.1167 No, I don't.

W.B.B.

Q.1168 Can you tell the Court the approximate time that elapsed between the firing and when you found the pistol?
A.1168 No.

Q.1169 Have you any evidence to link up the revolver with the shooting?
A.1169 The strong smell of burning powder.

Q.1170 Are you sure of the smell?
A.1170 Yes.

Q.1171 Can you estimate how recently the pistol had been fired?
A.1171 No.

Q.1172 Then there is no way of linking the shooting up with the pistol?
A.1172 No.

Q.1173 What makes you think the revolver you found had been fired?
A.1173 There was a smell of powder about that pistol that made me come to the conclusion that it had been fired.

Q.1174 Did you examine the accused's rifle?
A.1174 Yes.

Q.1175 How many cartridges were in the magazine?
A.1175 Ten.

Q.1176 What did you find on the examination of the barrel? Was it a thorough examination?
A.1176 Nothing. I didn't examine the barrel thoroughly.

Q.1177 You know the only way you could find out whether the barrel had been recently cleaned was from an examination of the pull-through?
A.1177 No.

Q.1178 You must have been particularly observant?
A.1178 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.1179 Why was it that you took such a prominent part in this investigation?
A.1179 I don't call it prominent. I found whose identity discs they were and where he was from.

Q.1180 You were a bright investigator weren't you?
A.1180 I was helping out.

Q.1181 You were helping out and took an extensive part in the investigation?
A.1181 I would not say that.

Q.1182 Why was there such a further kit inspection after you had taken the gun from the kit yourself?
A.1182 Because we just went through the kit. There were other men sleeping in the bay and we didn't want the other men disturbed.

Q.1183 Did you examine the scratches on the accused?
A.1183 I saw them.

Q.1184 Were they scratches which might have been made by fingernails?
A.1184 Yes.

Q.1185 Was there any attempt, to find out from Dillon's body, whether he had any blood under his fingernails?
A.1185 Not that I know of.

Q.1186 Did you know if the MPs or the DAPM or the British Special Investigation Bureau were sent for to assist in this case?
A.1186 I don't know.

Q.1187 Do you know if any ballistic's information was received from the American ballistic people in Naples?
A.1187 I don't know.

Q.1188 Don't you agree that it was strictly an amateurish job as far as investigation was concerned?
A.1188 It was a preliminary investigation of the shooting.

Q.1189 Don't you agree it was amateurish?
A.1189 Other people took it up the next morning.

Q.1190 Don't you think it was an amateur investigation?
A.1190 It was a rough examination.

Q.1191 You have no specific qualifications?
A.1191 I report facts.

Q.1192 Have you any special experience or qualifications in conducting investigations?
A.1192 No.

Q.1193 Could you tell by an examination of Exhibit "J", the identification discs, whether or not the cord attached to them has been broken in the way which a string would break if pulled from the neck of a person wearing it?
A.1193 I would say it is possible.

Q.1194 Do you know how long the string is?
A.1194 Ten inches or a foot.

Q.1195 You have never measured it yourself, have you?
A.1195 No.

Q.1196 Do you suggest it was broken?
A.1196 Here and here is the point of two breaks; one here and one here. (witness indicates on cord of Exhibit "J")

Q.1197 Then you are stating that there are two breaks, one here and one at the other end. By that do you mean there is a piece missing?
A.1197 I don't know if a piece is missing.

Q.1198 The cord is not long enough to go around a man's neck? (demonstrates)
A.1198 No.

Q.1199 Then there is a piece of the string missing?
A.1199 Possibly.

Q.1200 Is it possible that this piece of string is the only part of the string that was around his neck?
A.1200 No, it isn't.

Q.1201 There must be a piece missing?
A.1201 Yes.

Q.1202 Therefore on a pull of the identity discs from the neck, there is apt to be only one break?
A.1202 That depends on the condition of the string.

Q.1203 The point of the string where the first force is exerted, is where the break occurs, isn't it?
A.1203 Yes, or also where there had been a knot and where the cord may have ....

Q.1204 Then, where there is a knot there will likely be a break?
A.1204 (Witness does not answer.)

WJRB.

Q.1205 I want an answer to the question?
A.1205 As I am not an expert .....

Q.1206 Do you know anything about it?
A.1206 I don't know.

Q.1207 Did you examine the shoes and socks of the accused when you got to his bed?
A.1207 I don't ..... no.

Q.1208 You can't tell how recently they had been taken off?
A.1208 No.

Q.1209 Did you go into that?
A.1209 No.

Q.1210 What light was used when you first got to the accused's bed?
A.1210 Candle light.

Q.1211 The Orderly Cpl says he got a lantern and took you and Capt Snell to the bay. Is that correct?
A.1211 I can't remember. I only remember what I said.

Q.1212 You don't remember about the light?
A.1212 No.

Q.1213 Then your photographic memory doesn't recall what kind of light there was on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1213 I don't remember.

Q.1214 I also suggest to you that you are not sure of the quarters in which you found Robinson - that it was the correct one as to bay and bed?
A.1214 I am sure.

Q.1215 Did a new draft come in recently?
A.1215 Yes.

Q.1216 Was it a fairly large draft?
A.1216 Not too large. We had had two drafts; one from the UK and one from the Armoured Corps - tradesmen and drivers from every arm of the service - transfers.

Q.1217 Wasn't it correct that Capt Snell had been out a good part of the night of the shooting and was a little "happy" when he came home?
Q.1217 He didn't appear that way.

Q.1218 He had had a few drinks?
A.1218 Yes.

Q.1219 What about you?
A.1219 I had not had a drink.

Q.1220 You had not?
A.1220 No.

Q.1221 Did you have a fairly clear view of Dillon's body as it lay on the parade square?
A.1221 No.

Q.1222 Did you have a chance to examine him?
A.1222 No.

W.B.

Q.1223 Were his sleeves up or down?
A.1223 I don't know.

Q.1224 Were his hands outstretched?
A.1224 Slightly clenched like this (witness indicates). I can't remember other details.

Q.1225 Were you able to see his wrist watch on his left wrist?
A.1225 No.

Q.1226 The finding of the body didn't excite or arouse you to remember details?
A.1226 There were five or six offrs present, and they had just called the doctor. It wasn't my business to interfere.

Q.1227 With your photographic memory, do you recall the condition of the body?
A.1227 Just the position of the body.

Q.1228 The only way you link the pistol with the accused is by the finding of it by or near his body, right?
A.1228 No.

Q.1229 Was there any difference in the type of scratches on the neck of the accused when you saw them? Did you see them?
A.1229 Yes, I did.

Q.1230 Were they a type of scratch that would have been made by fingernails?
A.1230 Yes.

Q.1231 There was no difference in length or width?
A.1231 Yes.

Q.1232 They were all scratches?
A.1232 Yes.

Q.1233 Were these three shots you heard fired in fairly rapid order?
A.1233 No, I would say they would be about three seconds apart.

Q.1234 Would you say that they sounded like the normal sound of a shot fired from a Tommy Gun?
A.1234 Not being an expert .....

Q.1235 You have fired weapons?
A.1235 Yes.

Q.1236 Was there some space or time that would elapse between the normal firing of a Tommy Gun?
A.1236 Yes.

Q.1237 What kind of books do you like reading?
A.1237 Anything - detective stories, travel and adventure stories.

Q.1238 You like detective stories?
A.1238 Yes.

Q.1239 Do you read Conan-Doyle?
A.1239 Not for a long time.

Q.1240 Can you estimate the period of time you stood at or near the body lying outside 2 Bn Offrs' Mess that particular evening?
A.1240 About half a minute. As I said before, the Duty Offr seemed to have everything in order; the MO was coming so I ran over to see that my money was all right.

W.B.B.

Q.1241 What clothing mainly did you find in the accused's kit?
A.1241 I didn't find anything unusual.

By the Court:

Q.1242 Would you describe how the accused was dressed when you found him?
A.1242 He was sitting up in bed so I can only give what appeared above the bed clothes. His underwear appeared to have been torn. He had no discs. That is all I can say.

Q.1243 You say there were three shots that you heard?
A.1243 As far as I can recall.

Q.1244 Were they close together?
A.1244 A spacing of one, two or three seconds.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1245 Major Bernier, there has been some questioning of your methods and of the part in which you played in the investigation. Did you do it from your sense of duty?
A.1245 Yes I did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

The Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

The Court re-opened at Sorrento at 1400 hrs, 28 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

NINETEENTH WITNESS for Prosecution (Capt R.P. Jepson, 5 Mobile Neuro-Surgical Unit, RAMC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1246 You are attached to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. Is that right?
A.1246 That is right.

Q.1247 That hospital is located where?
A.1247 Naples.

Q.1248 Are you a Medical Doctor?
A.1248 Yes. I have medical degrees.

Q.1249 From what University?
A.1249 The University of Manchester.

Q.1250 Are you a licensed practitioner?
A.1250 Yes.

Q.1251 Will you give the Court your degrees?
A.1251 MB Manchester and BSc Manchester.

Q.1252 Are you licensed by the Medical Association?
A.1252 Yes.

Q.1253 Do you recall the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1253 The early morning of the 3rd of August.

Q.1254 What happened that morning?
A.1254 I was sleeping in my [illegible] situated not far from the Hospital, and a message came which called me to the Hospital. I then went to the Hospital and examined a patient who was referred to me as Dillon. He was suffering from a through and through bullet wound of his head which had entered the right frontal bone and came out through the right occipital bone.

W.G.K.

Q.1255 What time was this?
A.1255 I saw him at 0230 hrs on the 3rd of August, according to my notes.

Defending Offr:

I wish to raise an objection. The witness said, "I see from my notes". What evidence is there that these are the notes in question?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1256 When were those notes made?
A.1256 At the time I first saw the man.

Defending Offr:

When did he last see the notes he made?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1257 When did you last see those notes?
A.1257 The notes were completed on the day he died. I think he died on the 7th or 8th of August.

Defending Offr:

This matter should be cleared up to the satisfaction of the Court. You will notice that the witness has in his hand a certain document - certain memoranda - and has not the permission of the Court to refer to them.

Prosecutor:

The witness has not referred to them in the Court.

Defending Offr:

The witness used the words, "I see by my notes", and referred to the notes in his hand.

Judge Advocate:

Q.1258 Is the document, which you are holding in your hand, the notes which you mentioned?
A.1258 Yes.

Q.1259 Who made them?
A.1259 They are not the original notes.

Q.1260 Who copied them?
A.1260 Col. Ashcroft.

Defending Offr:

The witness is not entitled to refer to that document.

Prosecutor:

His is not referring to it except to refresh his memory.

Defending Offr:

I don't wish to be difficult, but I know the witness received these particular notes outside this Court Room and carried them in .....

W.B.B.

Prosecutor:

I am not intending to establish .....

Defending Offr:

The evidence, this witness is giving, is evidence that he has got from certain pieces of paper which he did not have a hand in making.

(examination continued)

Q.1261 Would you mind pointing out to the Court on your own head where the wound of entry was and where the wound of exit was?
A.1261 The wound of entry was roughly here and the exit roughly here: the line between the two being more or less horizontal. (the witness pointed first to the middle of the right forehead and then to the back of his head in line with the first point)

Q.1262 What caused this wound?
A.1262 A high velocity missile.

Q.1263 What happened to the patient after you first saw him?
A.1263 He was given a blood injection and was recussitated by having a tube put into his stomach for the purpose of administration of fluid.

Q.1264 Did you have anything more to do with the patient?
A.1264 Yes, I saw him again at 8:30 in the morning and operated on him at 0900 hrs.

Q.1265 What further attention did you give him?
A.1265 I saw him afterwards, perhaps two or times a day until he died.

Q.1266 What did he die from?
A.1266 He died from the effects of a severe brain injury and secondary bronchial-pneumonia.

Q.1267 Is bronchial-pneumonia a common sequence to a severe head injury?
A.1267 Where a patient is in a ~~comma~~ coma from an injury to the head, you frequently get a lung condition which becomes infected causing pneumonia.

Q.1268 Do you know whether or not any person was treated in that hospital that night for wounds of that nature?
A.1268 Not to my knowledge. I would certainly have been called to see him if he had come in.

Q.1269 After the patient died, did you have any further dealings with him?
A.1269 No.

Cross-examined:

Q.1270 Apart from this particular head injury which you described as caused by a high velocity missile entering the right frontal bone, were there any other wounds in the head or body of the person you examined?
A.1270 No.

Q.1271 None apparent to you?
A.1271 No.

Q.1272 Did he have any bruises on his face or body?
A.1272 Not that I know of.

W.B.D.

Q.1273 Is secondary bronchial-pneumonia caused by a bug or a bullet?
A.1273 A combination of the two.

Q.1274 Does the bullet bring the bug?
A.1274 No.

Q.1275 You stated to the Court that the bullet travelled through the head of this person in a horizontal line?

A.1275 Yes.

Q.1276 Can you tell whether the front or rear bone was on a horizontal plane?

A.1276 No, I cannot answer that.

Q.1277 Would you say there was the slightest difference in that line?
A.1277 I didn't pay that much attention to it.

Q.1278 You realize how important it is to the Court in testifying what was the actual line from the standpoint of the entry of the wound?

A.1278 Yes.

Q.1279 I suggest this to you; that if a bullet is fired from a pistol, from a reasonably close range, at someone else, the entry wound would be slightly higher if he were shot from the rear than if shot from in front?

A.1279 It would depend on the angle of the head. If his neck was flexed and the man was holding the pistol down here (indicates), it would be in a perfect horizontal line.

Q.1280 How could it be a perfect horizontal line if he fired from behind and the head is forward at an angle? Then, if the shot was fired from behind, the wound of exit would be much higher?

A.1280 If the man was firing from behind, yes.

Q.1281 I am meaning with regard to the normal position of the bodies?
A.1281 Then, if his head is bent forward, the exit wound would be higher than the entry wound. You realize that by horizontal plane is meant the line taken between the ear and the eye.

Q.1282 Could you describe to the Court the type of wound that a piece of string would leave on a reasonably tender part of the skin if the piece of string were jerked from the neck?

A.1282 It depends on the violence of the jerking.

Q.1283 Would you say that, if it were a violent jerk, the resulting wound would be a scratch or a welt?

A.1283 If it was a violent jerk it would be a burn.

Q.1284 Doctor, I want to assume that you have a set of identity discs around your neck, and that they are pulled sharply away from your throat. Would the string, in breaking, leave two or more identical burns on the skin?

A.1284 It again depends on the amount of friction between the string and the skin. If it were a very good piece of string that would not break without a great pull; if it required great violence, you probably would get burns on both sides of the neck.

Q.1285 Could you tell the Court - describe the amount or type of burns which you referred to? Would it be a burn or a welt?

A.1285 In which order?

L.L.B.

Q.1286 You realize perhaps that you are giving evidence before a Canadian Court, and you may be using the word "burn" in a different sense than the Court would understand it?
A.1286 Perhaps if I gave an example: say a rock climber, who after falling, say five or ten yards, is brought to a sudden stop by the rope, he would get second degree burns.

Q.1287 A second degree burn leaves quite a scar?
A.1287 No scar. Just a bruise.

Q.1288 And that would be .....
A.1288 That depends on the amount of skin surface covered by the string.

Q.1289 Could you tell the Court anything as to the range at which this missile was fired?
A.1289 No, I don't remember seeing powder marks on the skin.

Q.1290 Do you know how far away the pistol has to be held - how close to the body to leave powder marks?
A.1290 No.

Q.1291 How many doctors were there in the staff of 65 Brit Gen Hosp on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1291 You mean the whole of 65 Gen Hosp, both medical and surgical?

Q.1292 Yes, approximately how many?
A.1292 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.1293 Did you notice any bruises on the left forehead of the person you examined?
A.1293 No.

Q.1294 What is the usual medical method of determining which is the point of entry, and which is the point of exit in a case of this kind?
A.1294 I always tell by ascertaining where there is greater fragmentation of bone.

Q.1295 But had you seen the wound immediately after being inflicted, what would you look for to find the wound of entry and exit?
A.1295 Firstly, powder marks on the skin and then the relative size of the exit and entry wounds.

Q.1296 Which would be the larger?
A.1296 The exit wound is usually the larger.

Q.1297 If one wound is smaller than the other, both are exuding blood, then that would indicate to you that the small wound is the wound of entry and the larger is the wound of exit?
A.1297 Yes, it would be.

Q.1298 Now, is this small wound of entry and large wound of exit characteristic of both pistol and rifle bullet wounds?
A.1298 I believe so.

Q.1299 If there had been previous interference; if the wound had been previously dressed on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 by a surgeon; would it be possible that you could make a mistake as to which was the wound of entry or exit?
A.1299 I had no doubt at the time.

Q.1300 I used the word "interference"?
A.1300 That depends as to what you mean by "interference".

W.B.B.

Q.1301 If there had been interference in the surface dressings or inside the wound itself? If both front and rear wounds had been cleaned up?
A.1301 After a complete and formal operation, I could not tell.

Q.1302 How far would a complete and formal operation have to go?
A.1302 Would you like the details?

Q.1303 When you first treated this patient, you concentrated on the head injury?
A.1303 His general condition was first seen to .....

Q.1304 How far did you go?
A.1304 Took his pulse, checked his blood pressure and response to pain, and if he could talk.

Q.1305 When did you first examine his chest?
A.1305 At the time when I first saw him.

Q.1306 How far did you go?
A.1306 The usual examination was made.

Q.1307 With a stethescope?
A.1307 Yes, with a stethescope.

Q.1308 When you say you examined the patient referred to you as Dillon, you gained that information from a medical document?
A.1308 Yes.

Q.1309 Did you take any other steps for the identification of that particular body?
A.1309 No.

Q.1310 Did you take any further notice of the body?
A.1310 Not particularily, no.

Q.1311 Did you find any foreign skin or blood substance under his fingernails?
A.1311 No.

Re-examined:

Q.1312 What were the comparative sizes of the wounds of entry and exit?
A.1312 From memory I should say the entry wound size was about the size of a sixpence and the exit would was between the size of a shilling and a florin.

By the Court :

Q.1313 Doctor, from the appearance of the wound, did it seem if the shot was fired from a short or long distance away?
A.1313 I don't think you could tell.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1314 What was the date of this patient's death?
A.1314 The 7th or 8th.

Q.1315 Of August 1944?
A.1315 Yes.

Q.1316 If we were to suppose that this patient had received no medical treatment before you saw him except to have two field dressings applied to his head on the occasion when he was discovered shot and then later had these dressings renewed, would you be able to determine the wound of entry and the wound of exit?

A.1316 At the time of the operation, yes.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

TWENTIETH WITNESS (Lt B.J. Dolan, 3 Bn 1 CBRD, for (having been duly sworn, Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1317 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.1317 Yes sir.

Q.1318 What were you doing that evening?
A.1318 On 2 Aug 44 I was Gd Comd, 1 CBRD.

Q.1319 What, if anything, happened that evening?
A.1319 At approximately between 1030 and 1100 o'clock in the evening I heard a shot, I immediately ordered the guard to stand to. While this was happening two more shots were fired. I got a party together to investigate the shooting. In front of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a body lying there. There was an offr in charge. He had the situation under control. I immediately took my party to investigate the buildings in the area. I found nothing out of the ordinary. I came back where the body was lying. He had been evacuated. We looked around the area and the Cpl of the Guard found an empty .45 casing. He turned it over to me. Later I turned the casing over to the Adjt, 2 Bn. That's all, sir.

Q.1320 Was that the only incident that night?
A.1320 No sir. Later I was called out again to investigate the case of a Sgt from the Cdn Dental Corps who had fallen out of an upstairs window in his quarters.

Q.1321 What was the name of the Cpl of the Guard?
A.1321 Cpl Ferguson, sir.

Q.1322 Will you describe the casing which he turned over to you?
A.1322 It was a casing that had been scraped, greyish in colour and not the ordinary .45 casing.

Q.1323 What type of a .45 casing was it?
A.1323 I do not know.

Q.1324 If there were several casings handed to you, similar in colour, would you be able to pick out the casing Cpl Ferguson handed to you?

A.1324 I have sworn by Almighty God, about two minutes ago, to tell the truth. I don't think I am capable of doing so, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.1325 You told the Court that a Dental Sgt had fallen out of a window in the barracks?

A.1325 I don't believe I said inside Canada Bks. The Dental Barracks are immediately outside on the road to Montefort.

Q.1326 That is outside, just at the end of the west wall of Canada Bks?

A.1326 It is immediately outside the west wall.

10.6.46

Q.1327 On the road to Naples?
A.1327 Yes.

Q.1328 Did you form the opinion that the Dental Sgt had been drunk?
A.1328 When I got over there the Medical Offr was there. I questioned the men and found out what had happened.

Q.1329 As a result of the questioning, were you able to form any opinion?
A.1329 No sir.

Q.1330 You knew at that time there had been a shooting at Canada Bks?
A.1330 Yes sir.

Q.1331 Did you make any attempt to search the barracks of this Sgt to find a pistol?
A.1331 No sir.

Q.1332 Did you try to connect this incident of the fall of the Sgt with the shooting incident?
A.1332 No sir.

Q.1333 By that time the shooting was old history was it?——.
A.1333 Yes sir.

Q.1334 You say that you heard three shots fired?
A.1334 Yes sir.

Q.1335 Did you or did you not hear one and then two more?
A.1335 I heard one shot and called the guard. There was one or more after that.

Q.1336 How long did it take you to get the guard called out after the first shot?
A.1336 Approximately a couple of minutes, sir.

Q.1337 The main idea was for you and your guard to identify the person and catch him?
A.1337 We did not know what it was. In the past month in that barracks there had been shooting every night. We thought it was another case of a guard shooting at a man going over the fence or something.

Q.1338 It wasn't unusual to hear shots at this time?
A.1338 No sir.

Q.1339 Do you remember handling three cartridge casings?
A.1339 No sir.

Q.1340 How many did you handle?
A.1340 On the 2nd of Aug one was found. The next morning my Cpl passed me another one he found in the area.

Q.1341 He told you he found them?
A.1341 Yes sir.

Q.1342 Were you present with the Cpl when he found the first casing?
A.1342 Yes sir.

Q.1343 How close were you to him when he found it?
A.1343 Approximately two feet.

Q.1344 While you had the casings in your possession did you at any time mark them for specific identification?
A.1344 No sir.

W.B.P.

Q.1345 Did you handle any identification discs that evening?
A.1345 No sir. I recall something about some identification discs, but I didn't see them.

Q.1346 You made a search in the Records Office of the Seaforths for a certain name and number?
A.1346 Yes sir.

Q.1347 Where did you get the information as to the name and number?
A.1347 There was a Senior Offr present.

Q.1348 Did someone tell you what was on the identity discs?
A.1348 Yes sir.

Q.1349 That is the only way you got the information?
A.1349 Yes sir.

Q.1350 Now, having information as to the finding of the identity discs, did you come to the conclusion that the person referred to on the identity discs was guilty of the shooting?
A.1350 No sir.

Q.1351 Did you keep an open mind?
A.1351 Yes sir.

Q.1352 Did you form the conclusion that he had a strong connection with the case?
A.1352 No sir.

Q.1353 No conclusion at all?
A.1353 No sir.

Q.1354 Were there any fights in and around the gate at that time?
A.1354 No sir.

Q.1355 Apart from the Sgt falling out of the window and the shots you heard fired, was there anything unusual that evening?
A.1355 No sir.

Re-examined:

Q.1356 How far away was the building the Sgt fell out of from the Gd Room?
A.1356 At least 500 yards.

Q.1357 In what direction?
A.1357 On the road to Monteforte.

Defending Offr:

I think there is some confusion. We should refer to the sketch.

By the Court:

Q.1358 The building is on the road to Monteforte between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp?
A.1358 Yes sir. Between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp on the road to Montefore.

Q.1359 You stated there was shooting every night?
A.1359 Yes sir.

Q.1360 On what do you base that statement?
A.1360 From what I have seen.

Q.1361 Are you in the Barracks every night?
A.1361 No sir. I have been in the Barracks for a month.

W.L.S.

Q.1362 You stated that it might have been one of the guards firing at somebody going over the fence?
A.1362 Yes sir.

Q.1363 To your knowledge has that ever happened?
A.1363 I could not swear to it, but I believe it has happened.

Q.1364 You don't know?
A.1364 No sir.

Defending Offr:

Sir, your questions were limited to soldiers. Was there any incident of Italians being fired at?

By the Court:

Q.1365 Were there any instructions given to you as Guard Commander that you keep out civilians or unrecognized persons from entering the front of Canada Bks?
A.1365 Not to my knowledge; no sir.

Q.1366 In other words the sentry uses his own judgment?
A.1366 Yes sir.

Q.1367 Can you tell the difference between a car back-firing and a shot?
A.1367 No sir.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1368 Lt Dolan, do you know the name of the offr whom you said had the situation under control where the body was found in front of the 3 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.1368 Truthfully, no sir.

Q.1369 Do you know the name of the 2 Bn Adjt to whom you gave the .45 casing?
A.1369 Yes sir.

Q.1370 Who was it?
A.1370 At that time, Lt Snell, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(8).

TWENTY-FIRST WITNESS(Lt H.J. MacComb (48 Highrs), 3 Bn 1 CBRD for Prosecution (having been duly sworn, (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1371 Do you recall 3 Aug 44?
A.1371 Yes I do.

Q.1372 To what unit did you belong at that time?
A.1372 3 Bn 1 CBRD.

Q.1373 What happened that day as far as you were concerned?
A.1373 I was on a Court of Inquiry.

Q.1374 Will you tell the Court what you did as a result of receiving instructions from the President of that Court of Inquiry?
A.1374 I went over to the Gd Room.

Q.1375 What did you do in the Gd Room?
A.1375 I searched the belongings of the accused and the accused's person. I found two fountain pens which I turned over to the President of the Court.

Q.1376 Who was this person you searched?
A.1376 I don't know his name but I would know him to see him.

Q.1377 Is that person in this Court Room?
A.1377 Yes he is.

Q.1378 Will you point him out to the Court?
A.1378 There sir. (witness points to the accused)

Q.1379 Will you describe to the Court the fountain pens that you took off the accused on the morning of 3 Aug 44?
A.1379 I cannot describe them closely. I know that they were two grey pens. One was light grey and one darker grey.

Q.1380 By "light grey" what do you mean?
A.1380 Fairly light; nearly white.

Q.1381 I propose to show you two pens, and all you are required to do is to say "yes" or "no".

Defending Offr:

I am going to object to the witness being shown the pens on the ground that there is not a real test being made. Have him pick these pens out of a group of pens. I am going to object to his answering "yes" and "no". If he feels the proper answer is not "yes" or "no", he is allowed, I believe, to give his answer as he sees fit. The person asking the witness is bound by the whole of the reply which is elucidated from the question.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, I see no objection to the witness being shown two pens and asked if he is able to identify them. He has described two pens which he claims to have found in the accused's kit or person - one being light grey in colour and the other being dark grey in colour. The witness is not prepared to go further in his identification. The witness is not prepared to go to the sufficiency of his identification. The Court will give due regard prepared to identify them, I think the pens should be admitted,- if you like, subject to your objection.

Defending Offr:

I want the identification to be subject to my objection, sir.

Prosecutor:

Q.1382 I now show you three pens. Can you identify any of them?
A.1382 This is definitely one. (witness indicates light pearl grey fountain pen) These two I can't be sure of. (witness indicates fountain pen marked Exhibit "I" and a grey fountain pen similar in appearance to Exhibit "I")

Q.1383 These two you cannot be sure of?
A.1383 No. (fountain pen, light pearl grey in colour admitted and marked Exhibit "Q")

Q.1384 Where did you find these pens?
A.1384 They were on the accused's person. He gave them to me himself.

Q.1385 When you said you could not be sure what did you mean?
A.1385 The other two pens look alike. I cannot swear to either one of them.

Cross-examined:

Q.1386 Why did you say that the pen, Exhibit "Q", is definitely one that you could identify?
A.1386 I do not understand.

Q.1387 Why did you say, "this is definitely one"?
A.1387 It is the same pen I picked up that day. That is the only pen I have ever seen of that colour. I am pretty sure that this is the same one.

Q.1388 Did you mark either of the two pens specifically for future identification?
A.1388 There is one definite mark on one of the pens. One had tooth marks on it.

Q.1389 On the bright white pen?
A.1389 Yes.

Q.1390 On the white pen?
A.1390 I don't know. I think it is on the white pen. It is so long ago that I -----

Q.1391 Did you yourself put any specific identification mark on either of these two pens?
A.1391 I didn't.

Q.1392 Who handled the two pens next?
A.1392 The President of the Court.

Q.1393 Who was that?
A.1393 Major Morgan.

Q.1394 Did you ever see the pens again before to-day?
A.1394 I saw them the next day.

Q.1395 Under what circumstances?
A.1395 Pte Wilcock, a 48 Highr, claimed he had had one stolen from him and wanted to identify his.

Q.1396 Was that in connection with your duties on the Court of Inquiry?
A.1396 Yes sir.

Q.1397 Did you see them again after that?
A.1397 No, I didn't.

Q.1398 You never have?
A.1398 I have never seen them since.

Q.1399 When were you first told you would be giving evidence on a subsequent trial?
A.1399 I was never told I was going to give evidence.

Q.1400 Were you advised by Capt Snell as to what evidence you were going to give?
A.1400 No.

Q.1401 How did he know what you were going to say in Court to-day?
A.1401 That is right, there was a 'phone call to Naples that I would have to identify the pens.

Q.1402 If I put the pen, Exhibit "Q", in with a group of 15 or 20 other identical pens, would you definitely be able to pick it out?
A.1402 I would not be sure.

90 L.b.

Q.1403 Now, when you went to the accused to get these pens, you had him indicated to you at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1403 I don't remember whether it was before or after.

Q.1404 Had you seen the accused or had him under observation for some little time prior to to-day?
A.1404 I just saw him the day I went to the Court of Inquiry; the day we had him at the Court of Inquiry.

Q.1405 The accused was given quite a grilling at your Court wasn't he?
A.1405 The Major asked him a few questions.

Q.1406 What do you mean by "a few"?
A.1406 About 15 or 20, I imagine.

Q.1407 Did Major Morgan or any member of the Court administer the caution to the accused that he need not answer questions that would criminate him at any time prior to giving evidence?
A.1407 I don't remember.

Q.1408 Would you have remembered if that had been done?
A.1408 I cannot say.

Q.1409 Wasn't the accused at that time ever told by any members of the Court that he was under oath when giving evidence?
A.1409 Not that I remember.

Q.1410 You didn't let Robinson go until you were satisfied that you had got all the information out of him? Is that not correct?
A.1410 That is correct.

Re-examined:

Q.1411 In your cross-examination, you stated that Wilcock identified the pen. Was the accused present when Wilcock made the identification?
A.1411 No, I don't think so.

Q.1412 You stated that one of the pens had a tooth mark on the nib, right?
A.1412 That is right.

Judge Advocate:

He did not say that. I think he just said tooth marks and nothing about a nib.

Defending Offr:

Having asked the last question, it is rather useless to ask it in a different way now.

By the Court:

Q.1413 When the accused was being searched by you in the presence of the other people in the Gd Room, was there any conversation between you and him when the pens were found?
A.1413 No, there wasn't.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1414 You mentioned a Court of Inquiry which was held on 3 Aug 44, and you also stated that Major Morgan was President of a Court. Is that the same Court of Inquiry you first mentioned?
A.1414 Yes.

Q.1415 When you went to the Gd Room to make this search, was that before or after the accused had given evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1415 I am not sure. I think it was after.

Q.1416 What particular Gd Room was it that you went to?
A.1416 2 Bn Gd Room.

Q.1417 And I think you told the Court you found these two pens on the person of the accused?
A.1417 That is right.

Q.1418 In what manner?
A.1418 They were handed to me by the accused himself.

Q.1419 Where did he get them?
A.1419 He took them out of his inside pocket.

Q.1420 What did you say to the accused that made him reach into his pocket and hand them to you?
A.1420 I asked him to empty his pockets. He did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

The Prosecution is closed.

Court adjourned at 1540 hrs.

Court re-opened at Avellino at 1000 hrs, 29 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

Defence did not require Major J.R.H. Morgan for cross-examination.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Mr. President, I wish to make a motion pursuant to the provisions of fn 1 to RP 40. The evidence adduced by the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused, having regards to the facts alleged in the charge sheet. The accused, therefore, should not be put upon his defence. At this time, as the Judge Advocate will probably advise you, the only question which the Court has to consider is whether or not the offence alleged has been proven. The question of a special finding or conviction of a lesser offence does not arise. I will, in the course of my remarks, make certain allegations against the Prosecution. I would, at this time like the Court to be firmly convinced that these allegations are not against the Prosecuting Offr in this case. When I use the term "Prosecution", I refer to the investigation which started on the night of the 2nd of August and which lead to the evidence which has been submitted to the Court in the past few days. I would further state that the conduct of the Prosecuting Offr, in my mind and in the mind of the accused, has been most fair. When I use a loose expression, such as "the Prosecution", I refer entirely to the history of this case which started some time between 2330 hrs and 2345 hrs, 2 Aug 44, and also to the amount of investigation, both legal and special, which is on the record and which the Court must examine. I may also state that both I, as Defending Offr, and the accused, who is on trial, consider that the Court which is judging the guilt or innocence of the accused has been completely fair. The Defence has not been hampered by the Court in any way shape or form. The accused has had a considerate and kindly hearing. However, I intend to castigate the prosecution for their sins of omission, rather than their sins of commission. These remarks I hope the Court will interpret as a castigation of the individuals who first took charge of this investigation. You have had one reference by a witness for the Prosecution that legal advice was sought in completing or preparing the case against the accused. That reference deals entirely with the assistance sought of Capt Bate in his capacity as ADJA at HQ 1 CBRGp. The whole Court has sufficient Army experience to know that Capt Bate, in his official capacity as ADJA, considers the Summary of Evidence and charge sheet before trial. Therefore, the Court must accept the fact that his responsibility is the technical and legal responsibility to decide that the written or typewritten sheets discloses an alleged offence. The ADJA on any HQ is neither an amateur or professional detective. He is the legal assistant to the Comd. Therefore, any evidence as to the assistance which the Prosecution sought from his department should naturally be depricated. When one considers that he is not, nor ever was intended to be, a "Sherlock Holmes", I submit that the reference which the witness, namely Capt Snell, made to his "assistance" should be discarded completely. Capt Bate gave his assistance to these incompetents by virtue of the kindness of his heart and not because of the duties which naturally flow from his particular appointment. The evidence submitted by the Prosecution is purely circumstantial. It may be felt by the Court to be quite strong circumstantial evidence. I refer the Court to MML Chap VI, para 42, pp 91-2. (reads para 42) The entire history of this case has been full of sins of omission, perhaps the grossest of which is the failure of supposedly competent and qualified offrs, with normal mental capacity and education, to call upon anymilitary police - either Canadian, British, or American to assist them. Had this been done, the Court would undoubtedly have been supplied with certain expert ballistic evidence as to whether or not the two empty cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", had been recently fired and whether or pistol, Exhibit "O", had been ejected from that pistol. At this stage in the trial, the cartridge casings have not been connected with the pistol in any way. In view of the evidence before the Court, the normal assumption must be that they were, in fact, not fired from the same weapon. It does not take expert evidence to see that the mark made by the firing pin on Exhibit "M" is different from the mark on Exhibit "N". Nor does it take expert evidence to see that had Exhibits "M" and "N" been the spent cartridge casings which were ejected as a result of the last two shots that were fired that night from the same weapon, the person firing the weapon must have been flying a Spitfire in order to cover the distance between the places the casings were found - a space of some 200 to 250 yards in approximately two seconds. I suggest to the Court it is a matter of their common knowledge, and a matter of which they can take judicial notice; that a pistol ejecting two spent cartridge casings would eject them in roughly the same area, providing no mechanical defects between the first and second shots. The Prosecution has made no attempt to explain the relevancy of the cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", either to the specific weapon or to the specific shooting. This tends to confuse rather than to assist the Court. Until such time as Exhibits "M" and "N" are related in some way to the accused and to the offence charged, these exhibits should not be admitted in evidence. In fact, from the evidence before the Court, it is much more likely that these cartridge casings came from some other weapon and from a prior shooting. The evidence before the Court shows that the firing of weapons in Canada Bks at that time of night was not unusual; that according to the only Guard Commander examined, apart from Lt Dolan, shooting at 2200 hrs nightly was a notorious fact; that there were a large number of drunks around the gates and in the area of Canada Bks on the night of the 2nd of Aug 44; that around the 2nd of August, Thompson Machine Carbines were being fired daily on the ranges; and that Thompson Machine Carbines were in good supply at that time. Therefore, any soldier who had surplus ammunition and who did not fill his magazine completely could have quite easily put some extra rounds into his pocket. There has been a certain amount of cross-examination on what might be termed ballistics evidence. Yet in my cross-examination I have attempted, on this point, to limit it to that type of ballistics evidence which could be defined as matters that come within the Court's general military knowledge. In that way I have avoided the calling of expert ballistic witnesses. As the Judge Advocate will probably advise you later, ballistic evidence comes well within the general military knowledge of the members of the Court, who are commissioned offrs of the Canadian Army. Therefore, that evidence complies with RP 74. The Court has three specific problems to decide in the matter of identification alone. First they must have a corpus delecti, and he must be identified as the person described in the charge sheet. Secondly, the accused must be identified with the offence. Thirdly, there must be specific identification of the exhibits tendered in evidence. This has not been done in the case of any of the three. Dealing with the first; the Court only has evidence that a set of identity discs were buried. There is no proper identification of the person described in the charge sheet with the person who was certified dead and subsequently buried. Without labouring this particular point, if the Court will only refer to the evidence concerning a certain medical document; the document which admits a soldier to hospital, it will recall that the name and number of the person on that document was put on it by Capt Verdicchio as a result of what someone told him. The certificate concerning the person treated and the certificate as to the person buried is an identification only by virtue of what someone told someone else - statement made not in the presence of the accused. Look at Capt Tootell's evidence. The Court can well remember that I examined him as to the time he saw the patient as recorded in his diary. He gave a fairly unsatisfactory explanation. He could not have seen that person before 0200 hrs 3 Aug 44 as the admission paper shows it was at 0145 hrs. He has told you that he buried someone whose name he assumed was Dillon, by virtue of information he received concerning a person admitted on the 2nd of August 44. He was checked carefully as to this. Therefore, according to his evidence, the person he buried on 8 Aug 44 is a person who was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp prior to the time the person who was shot at Canada Bks could have got there.

W.B.B.

One observation I would like to make is, that it is not the duty of the Court either to correct the mistakes made by the Prosecution or to fill in the gaps left by either the Defence or the Prosecution when you have persons with legal qualifications assisting the Court in presenting the evidence to it. It is well known that it is a principle of British justice that it is better that nine to ten guilty men should go free than for one innocent man to be hung. The Court must look to the Prosecuting Offr and to the Defending Offr to assist them in examining all the angles involved in any offence: particularly in a case like this which presents more than the usual difficulties encountered in ordinary Field General Courts Martial. The Defending and Prosecuting Offrs are charged with presenting a case, properly investigated, to the best of their ability. The Court will decide on the guilt or innocence of the accused person on the evidence adduced and admitted on the record. To carry on with the identification details encountered in this particular case; there is only one instance of any specific identification of the accused with the alleged shooting of Dillon. This is evidence of Cpl De Harte. Cpl De Harte stated that he saw the accused on the parade square arguing with the man who supposedly gave his name as "Dillon".

De Hart went further. He identified the accused specifically as the man who was arguing with this nebulous Dillon. De Harte's evidence shows that the argument between Dillon and the accused was the third argument, I believe I am correct, with which he had occasion to interfere that evening. He could not identify the other two people that he stopped arguing before he had words with the person he identified as the accused. Why? I ask the Court to disregard completely the identification evidence given by Cpl De Harte, especially in view of the subsequent history of that identification he gave in cross-examination. De Harte has himself told the Court that before he was asked to identify the accused he had the accused under observation for some 45 minutes while the accused was waiting to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry. There the accused stood between two escorts, without a hat on. So that, before De Harte was called on specifically to identify the accused, he had had him under observation for some time. According to his own evidence, he came to the conclusion that the accused was closely linked with the shooting on the night of 2 Aug 44. Bearing in mind this period of observation, the Judge Advocate will advise you as to the degree of reliability to be attached to such identification evidence. I submit the accused should be granted all the rights and privileges afforded an accused by the civil and criminal courts in Canada. When a man puts on a uniform and becomes a soldier, nevertheless, when charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act of committing a civil offence, he should be given the benefit of the rights extended to him in Canadian civil and criminal courts. He should not be deprived of his civil rights merely by virtue of the fact that he has offered his services to his country and now wears khaki and not zombie garb. Dealing more specifically with De Harte's evidence;- let us analyse the psychological features of the human mind. You are acquainted with people who, as a result of subsequent consideration of what they saw, come to the conclusion that because certain facts should be so, they are so. As a result of that subsequent consideration, they suffer from the hallucination that it actually is so. I throw a challenge to you as individuals, to consider whether you are satisfied in your minds that De Harte saw the accused, as he said, or came to that conclusion as a result of having the accused under observation subsequent to 2 Aug 44. Can you, as reasonable individuals, accept his statement beyond a reasonable doubt? I strongly protest against the unfair and incompetent manner in which the accused was handled prior to the proper identification parade. I protest against the manner in which the accused was publically paraded under escort before a proper identification was made. The Court must consider very carefully the amount of reliability which can be placed on De Harte's identification. I submit that there is a sufficiently strong doubt to disregard that identification entirely. Its reliability has been completely upset. I request the Judge Advocate, in his summing up, to refer to the usual proper criminal methods of identification in civilian courts and specifically to mention the number of cases and the type of cases which the Courts have thrown out because of improper and incompetent identification. The identification of the exhibits is unreliable and incomplete. In only one instance has a specific exhibit been identified. That was when Major Bernier identified the pistol, Exhibit "O", by means of the difference in the sides of the handle or butt grip. The right hand grip, as you noticed, is smooth; whereas, the left hand grip is rough - the ordinary grip. Major Bernier, however, did not bring out that specific means of identification in his examination. It was not until he was closely questioned in cross-examination that he finally remembered. That pistol passed through many hands. That pistol, in the hands of competent people, would have been closely studied for any specific features as well as the serial number. No one yet has identified that pistol in the proper manner.by its serial number. Major Bernier, as an after thought, imagined the difference in the sides of the butt plate. Never, at any time prior to the taking of the Summary of Evidence, were any of the exhibits specifically marked . No one, therefore, can say that the exhibits, that have been tendered in evidence, are the objects found on the 2nd or 3rd of August. The Court is now in the position of having before it exhibit evidence of no specific or substantial value. The doubt which must arise in their minds negatives the evidentiary value of those exhibits. Therefore, they are valueless in linking the accused with the offence alleged in the charge sheet. You will, no doubt, be advised by the Judge Advocate that no matter how amateur our Canadian Police are - how amateur they may be in investigating an offence - they always tag an exhibit. It is immediately marked for identification and kept in safe custody until it is presented in evidence at trial. I refer to a case at which the present Judge Advocate sat as Judge Advocate; which I think was tried on the 21st or 22nd of December, 1943. I was defending. There were two main exhibits, one of which was a beer bottle. The original handling of that exhibit was incompetent. It was a question of identifying certain fingerprints on that bottle as having been made by the accused. The bottle was not marked by the first person finding it. It subsequently came into the hands of the civilian police and was properly kept in safe custody until the trial. But its evidentiary value was negatived because of the incompetence of the first person examining it. In the English Courts - I say this from personal knowledge - it seems that exhibits do not have to be marked with the same care that they do in the Canadian Courts. But I draw your attention to the fact that you, as president and members of this Court, are Canadians trying a Canadian soldier. Therefore, you should allow him the same consideration which a Canadian criminal court would allow him in deciding him guilty or not guilty of this offence. The history of this case indicates that the handling of these exhibits has been amateurish. I submit that the prosecution witnesses had seen them time and time again before they identified them before this Court. There is evidence that a Court of Inquiry was held prior to this trial. You had a Summary of Evidence taken and you have had this trial. There may have been some check made, but there has been no instance of a proper identification. The Court will realize that, because the Prosecutor and the Defending Offr had neither the chance nor the opportunity of controlling the type of investigation these individuals conducted, the evidence has not been presented as it would be in civilian life. Some of you may consider that we give up these civil rights and privileges by virtue of serving our King and Country. It does not matter one iota whether a man serves with a base unit or serves for months in the front line. The fact that he has signed an attestation paper makes him liable to be sent into any theatre of operations if His Majesty, through his representatives, deems fit. I don't want the Court to be prejudiced for one minute because this individual came from a Base Unit, or that he should be given any different consideration because this incident did not happen within a few yards of the German trenches. Without labouring too much the identification of the exhibits - the guilt or innocence of the accused is to be determined by offrs who have had normal training: what is known as "training common-to-all-arms". So without going into expert ballistic evidence, let us deal specifically with Exhibits "M" and "N", the spent cartridge casings. The distinct features in the identification of spent cartridge casings are the company which manufactured them; the year in which they were manufactured; the mark made by the firing pin, especially its size and position; and the marks made when the empty casings are ejected. There are many other ways in which an expert can identify a spent casing, but the ways I have cited are known to the amateur. There are also matters which come well within the Court's general knowledge, and, therefore, judicial notice can be taken of them pursuant to RP 74. The absence of proper identification, under any of the three headings I have mentioned, would be sufficient for a Judge of a Canadian Criminal Court to refuse to admit such exhibits in evidence. Then consider the ridiculous evidence that was tendered to the Court the other morning by Capt Snell and Major Bernier when they stated that the pistol which was found in the area of the accused's bed had been fired. Yet the Court is left hanging in the air because they could not state specifically or even attempt to explain in hours what they meant by "recently fired". None of us has any idea as to time elapsed or assumed time elapsed from the word "recently". Yet according to their evidence, had the pistol which was found been the pistol which was used in the firing of the shots which the witnesses refer to in their evidence, it must have been in their hands in less than 45 minutes from the firing of that particular weapon. Any person with the slightest knowledge of weapons and who has made tests will realize that a pistol smells identically the same four hrs after it has been fired as it smells 15 or 20 minutes later. These two witnesses dare to offer their evidence, in spite of the fact that one is a member of the Pay Corps, completely lacking the experience of a normal regimental offr in the field; while the second, Capt Snell, had been on a party and had been drinking. That Capt Snell drinks is not unusual - but he had been at a party. No reflection is intended in referring to that drinking. Yet it is a notorious fact according to medical science that indulgence in alcoholic stimulants dulls all senses, including the sense of smell. The responsibility of passing a death sentence based on the nebulous memories of these two witnesses as to the events of the evening of 2 Aug 44 is a responsibility not to be taken lightly. If such a sentence were put into effect, it might well be the cause of nightmares and many future sleepless hours for the members of the Court. Dealing with certain parts of the medical evidence - the Court must give careful consideration as to the cause of the death of Pte Dillon, the person named in the charge sheet. That consideration must include whether or not the wound of entry was in the front or in the back of the head. Here again the Court must look to the Defence and not to the Prosecution for assistance. No attempt has been made to establish which was the wound of entry and which the wound of exit. It is important for the Court to determine whether this person was shot from behind while walking in an upright position, by someone across the roadway at Canada Bks, or was he knocked down by an assailant, and when falling, reached out, grabbing at the assailant and clutched the set of identity discs, pulling them off and was he still holding them firmly while unconscious after having been shot? The presence of the identity discs must be satisfactorily explained by the Prosecution. What is the interpretation that is to be placed on it, taking into consideration the marks on the neck, and under the chin of the accused that were observed when he was subsequently examined?

The latter seems to be the theory of the Prosecution. Yet it has one inconsistency. It is, as suggested, Dillon, in his last moment of consciousness, grasped these identity discs from the neck or throat of the accused at the time he was shot. I think there is medical evidence to the effect that he would have held on to them for dear life. Capt McKee would have found them tightly clenched in his hands and would not have had too easy a time removing them. Had they been grasped a moment or two before the shot was fired then the shot must have been fired from behind as the man fell forward on his face. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Major Davidson was that he was shot from in front. Had the deceased first got hold of the discs and had afterwards been hit by the bullet he would have instinctively made a last movement - put his hands out to break his fall. The evidence is that the identification discs were found in his hand, but ordinarily if his fingers had been outstretched to break his fall, the identity discs would have dropped and fallen in close proximity to his left hand. Then consideration must be given to the manner in which Capt McKee told the Court the way in which the identity discs were found in the hands of the deceased. You will recall that he could not say definitely whether both identity discs were covered by the palm, but he made a point of holding them in this manner, indicating that they had been picked up or handled some time prior to the bullet entering Dillon's head. What other explanation can the Court reasonably take of the manner in which these identification discs came into the hand of the deceased? In order to make it easier for the Court to reach a satisfactory determination, let us consider the effect of seven, eight or 12 people milling around that body when it was first found. You will well realize the confusion which must happen over the finding of a body seriously wounded at a base area where enemy action is not expected or contemplated. Did or did not some one who came within a foot of the body lean down, examine the body and put the identity discs there? That is something that must be given consideration and only discarded on specific evidence and for specific reasons. The Court must reconstruct this shooting. They must find a satisfactory answer as to what happened and come to a conclusion beyond a reasonable doubt. The explanation, which the Court must make as to the finding of these identity discs, must be an explanation, not only that the accused committed the crime, but one that is inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. This may not be in strictly chronological order, but let me draw your attention to two even greater inconsistencies respecting the identity discs in order to show you that they could not have been pulled from the neck of Robinson by Dillon immediately prior to the alleged shooting. If you examine the string you will see that the part that would go round the neck is only 11½ inches long. To verify this measurement the Court may take a ruler and check. That obviously is not long enough to go around the neck of the accused. Therefore, the string must have been broken in two places. If it was broken when pulled from the accused's neck, then only one break would occur . It is a matter of notoriety that, when a piece of string is pulled sharply, it breaks at the point of resistance, normally. It may also break at a point close to a knot. This string shows no presence of a knot. The first resistance would normally be at the back of the neck equidistant from the top of the identity discs and, all other things being equal, would break at that point of first resistance. I suggest that this piece of string is not broken sufficiently close to the knot to have been broken in two places at the same time. Therefore, had the string been broken in two places by the deceased, Dillon, in his last dying grasp, the other piece of string which is missing should have been readily found. Now dealing with the next point, the Court must bear in mind that I knew we were going to have an adjournment. The Judge Advocate will probably tell you that as Defending Offr it is up to me to represent the accused in the best manner I can and therefore, in doing that, I must save my ammunition as long as I can. That must be apparent to the Court from my examination of Capt Jepson, the last medical witness. In order that I might not indicate to the Prosecution too clearly what I was searching for in establishing the type of wounds observed on the neck of the accused on the night of the 2nd of August, I refrained from asking questions as to the type of scar or burn or wound which would be left by a piece of string being pulled sharply against a piece of tender skin. It does not matter whose evidence the Court believes. All the people who gave evidence as to the type of bruises or scratches on the neck of the accused, stated that they were of the type of scar or wound left by fingernails.. They also stated that, apart from the length and width of these scratches, there was no difference in them. Therefore, there is no evidence before the Court that the deceased pulled these identity discs from the neck of the accused. Therefore by virtue of the lack of that evidence, the Court cannot find that Dillon grasped these identity discs and pulled them from the accused's neck on the night of the incident. Without labouring the point any further, the medical evidence tendered yesterday by Capt Jepson was that there were no marks or bruises or scratches on Dillon when he examined him. It is rather ridiculous to say that he could have beaten up the accused, Robinson, and put all these scratches, marks and bruises on his face and not have received one blow in return. Yet the inference is there;- that, in spite of all that, Robinson shot him while standing face to face with him. That is a conclusion which cannot be rationally substantiated. The people who examined Robinson were unanimous that the scratches were of the same type. There was no welt suggested, such as would be produced by the string being pulled sharply across his skin. I suggest to the Court that any competent police offr, once having found the scratches on the neck and throat of the accused, would immediately have an investigation made to find the wounded individual and examine his fingernails in order to see if any foreign substance, such as skin or blood, was found under his fingernails. This was not done and the Court has been deprived of the opportunity of having this evidence to assist them in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. To complete the remarks on the medical evidence, I feel that a post mortem report should have been submitted in evidence by the Prosecution. The Court well knows there was a post mortem report. I have it. It was readily available. On that post mortem report and according to Capt Jepson, there were two causes of death. Has the first, the pneumonia been satisfactorily explained? Did Dillon have the pneumonia bug prior to the examination at 65 Brit Gen Hosp? Neither Verdicchio, Davidson or Grossman, as medical offrs examined the chest and lungs of Dillon. All I can say in this regard is that pneumonia is caused by a bug and not by a bullet. It is now the Court's responsibility to decide, from the evidence adduced, what part was played by pneumonia in the death of Dillon. There are several medical features to the case which have not been explained. It has not been satisfactorily established what the medical terms imply. The medical evidence is completely unsatisfactory. The sins of omission in the medical case history of the deceased must prevent the Court's coming to a definite finding beyond a reasonable doubt. Assuming for a moment that the accused handled the lethal weapon that evening, his subsequent conduct, knowing that he had committed a felonious act, is inconsistent with the normal and rational conduct of any human individual in the circumstances. Could he have been found on the parade square at 2250 hrs with a lethal weapon and, after committing a felony, be found asleep at 2350 hrs when he was found by Capt Snell and Major Bernier? I draw the Court's attention to the way in which Capt Snell and Major Bernier gave their evidence as to whether or not the accused was asleep. They, as individuals, were not prepared to give the accused the benefit of the doubt. They became technical and said that he appeared to be sleeping. I think it a fair conclusion to say that once the identity discs, and the pistol had been found by Major Bernier and Capt Snell, the accused, in the eyes of these two offrs, had been found guilty and hung, drawn, and quartered. There is no other rational explanation as to why he should be placed under immediate arrest by Capt Snell when the pistol was found. Now the Court must also consider the place where the pistol was found and must bear in mind that the holster which seemed to relate to that pistol, allegedly was found in the kit of the accused. The holster, sir, is usually used to keep a pistol in. Therefore, if the pistol had been taken out that night and brought back, it would normally have been placed in the holster. The only reason that the pistol would have been taken out and placed under the pillow was that the accused probably carried a considerable amount of money with him. This was not given in evidence - the results of searching the accused. Therefore, your normal assumption would be that he would take the pistol out, bring it back and replace it in the holster. The important point to consider about the pistol is that, in Army phraseology, it was a buckshee weapon. It is not on charge to the accused and apart from the serial number, cannot be linked with the accused. Therefore, the normal reaction of the accused, following the shot or shots and knowing that someone had been injured, would be to throw away or get rid of that particular weapon. He is certainly not going to keep it so close to him that he is immediately connected with the shooting when it is found. That is, however, an inconsistency that the Court must consider. The general investigating offr, Capt Snell, has made no attempt to check the conduct sheet of the deceased at any time. Yet it is a firmly established fact that he ought to have done so. I refer to page 177, Phipson on Evidence, 8th Edition. There has been no attempt to investigate the bed and quarters of the deceased in spite of the fact that evidence has been given that the person by the name of Dillon was belligerent and drunk on the parade square at Canada Bks on the night of 2 Aug 44.

Prosecutor:

I think that the defence should quote the section he is referring to.

Defending Offr:

I have found it. I refer to para (3) at p.177, headed "Character as Affecting States of Mind" (reads para). The members of the Court have been in this theatre of operations long enough to know that one of the first things the new, shall I say, private arriving in this theatre wants is a souvenir to send home. I think one of the first souvenirs

D.G.G.

they want to get is an enemy weapon, and with them must be included the weapons of our co-belligerents, the Italians. Another popular type of weapon is the American .45 automatic which at one time in this area the Americans seemed to have in particularly good supply. Therefore, consideration must be given to the fact that a new draft had arrived at Canada Bks a few days prior to this incident, and any one of them might have had occasion to beg, borrow, buy, or steal anyone of these types of weapons. Next consider the effect that Italian liquor, commonly described as "Mussolini's secret weapon", has on the individual when drinking it for the first time. A new draft arrival, having borrowed, bought, or stolen an automatic weapon and coming back to Canada Bks after indulgence in Italian stimulants, might well have carelessly discharged his weapon thus causing the wounding of Dillon: especially when you realize that it seems to be a notorious fact that the shots at Canada Bks or discharging of weapons at Canada Bks around and after tattoo roll call are a common practice. With that evidence it seems hard to find beyond a reasonable doubt, that the accused fired the weapon which caused the wound. In order to convict the accused, that is the decision which the Court must reach beyond a reasonable doubt. The question of "reasonable doubt" the Judge Advocate will explain later. I can not, in fairness to the accused, omit to draw the Court's attention to the evidence respecting the action taken by the C.O. of 2 Bn 1 CBRD, Col Lent. It has been established that he is a man of legal qualifications. He, above all others, should realize the duties and responsibilities affecting a person accused of a serious crime. He decided, after getting the proceedings of the Court of Inquiry, to have the accused up on a charge of improper possession of a pistol, part of the incident of the night of the 2nd of August, and to sentence the accused to 28 days' detention; done apparently with the sole purpose of keeping the accused in custody. Had this happened in civilian life, if any magistrate or judge of a criminal or quasi criminal Court had dealt with the accused in such manner, such injustice would have been screamed from the editorials of every leading paper in Canada. But apparently Col Lent sought sanctuary in the Army Act and MML. He found the accused guilty of an offence, in connection with the same transaction out of which rose the present charge. He apparently felt the accused was guilty, although the accused had not yet had the benefit of a trial by a competent Court.

Prosecutor:

There is no evidence before the Court as to what Colonel Lent felt.

Defending Offr:

I said apparently, sir. It is a question of interpretation. In summing up I can only interpret these things as I see them. I expect the Judge Advocate will deal with certain witnesses, and the amount of reliability to be attached to their evidence. I don't propose to take any more time in dealing with it. The Court has a transcription of the evidence, apart from the evidence heard yesterday, which is sufficiently fresh in their minds, and can refer to it to see what is proved and what is not proved. However, I have dealt with one of these four witnesses. The remaining three I shall deal with now. I want to draw attention particularly to Cpl Shaw's evidence. The Court will have to consider his mentality and size up the reliability of his evidence. He said, as I recollect it, without special reference to the transcript, although he was loath to tell the Court - that he had reported the accused to be in bed. Cross-examination specifically proved that he had reported the accused in bed at tattoo which was very shortly before the shots were heard. When questions were put to him, he also seemed to have a personal desire to see the accused convicted of this offence. That is an example of the attitude of the people at Canada Bks resulting from their preliminary investigations. I have tried - and I think it is realized by certain members of the Court - not to throw too much mud in this trial. But I think it is reasonable to show up the attitude of the witnesses from the evidence they gave. As a result of finding the identity discs and pistol, they came to the irrevocable conclusion that the accused was guilty of the alleged offence. It was not necessary to do much more. They convicted him before he ever got before the Court, without the benefit of a finding. I want to take up the activities of Capt Snell and Major Bernier before I go on. The next point I think is one that occurred to every member of the Court as well as myself, and that is, why no military police assistance was called in in this case. The incident happened on 2 Aug 44. The Summary of Evidence was completed by 30 Aug 44. Yet in all that time no one at 2 Bn had occasion to call in the assistance of the MP or the SIB. Why had they not done it? We all know that that is what they are for. They are usually called to assist the offrs of a unit in obtaining the evidence in any criminal investigation. The unfairness to the accused for this omission, naturally may result in a miscarriage of British justice. The accused had been called before a Court of Inquiry. He was apparently given no information as to his rights. Lt MacComb stated on cross-examination that the accused was not allowed to leave after giving his evidence until the Court was satisfied that they had obtained all the information that they wished to obtain from him. The manner of taking the evidence before that Court of Inquiry, and the interrogation of the accused can be justified only on the technical ground that evidence taken in a Court of Inquiry is not admissible at a Court Martial. Now the accused gave evidence at that Court of Inquiry without the benefit of legal assistance. The Court knows and I know that if the defence is called on, the evidence for the defence must be exactly that contained in the Court of Inquiry, because the accused gave evidence on oath. The accused has been forced to disclose his defence in advance. It is again unheard of that, because a person assumes new obligations on joining the Army, he should lose his civilian right of having the benefit of legal assistance and can be compelled at a Court of Inquiry to answer questions which in civil lefe he would not have to answer. Capt Snell stated that the only reason he didn't call in military police assistance was because he was too busy with drafts. The lack of interest he has taken in the legal and technical investigation of this case shows either a complete lack of mental competence and responsibility of his duties as adjutant or a persecuting complex which gave no benefit of the doubt to the accused. I don't propose to say any more about that, sir. I would like to point out one particular feature in the conduct of this case. That is the lapse between some of the witnesses giving their evidence and the others. When evidence is a little cold it has lost a great deal of its value. I would like to draw the Court's attention to the excuses offered for pushing this case on at the time it was - namely, it was necessary to get people away on draft. Some of the people they were so anxious to get away on draft were still in Canada Bks as recently as 24 hrs ago. I feel that is to the prejudice of both the Court and myself. Therefore, I feel that the Court should take these things into consideration in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. I want the Court to understand that the accused has pleaded not guilty to this offence. Should he be called on for his defence, in all probability the case for the Prosecution will be weakened considerably. That, however, does not justify the Court in calling on the accused for his defence. They must make up their minds where there is sufficient evidence without a reasonable doubt to convict. To find the accused guilty on a charge of murder, there must be evidence of malice of forethought. There is no evidence of such malice in any of the evidence brought out by the Prosecutor. Such malice is not necessarily presumed from a mere unethical act. Now because the accused was found with a pistol under his pillow, which is an offence only under Routine Orders, is it proper to assume that the only conclusion from that act is that the accused fired the pistol used in the killing of Dillon? The witness who claims to identify the accused on the parade square saw no evidence of any violence, nor suspected any violence, nor did he see any sign of any lethal weapon in possession of the person he claimed was the accused. I refer you to Archbald's "Criminal Pleading, etc", 31st edit, p.900, under the heading: "Evidence for the Defence". (quotes: "The prisoner may show ------ or witnesses called by the Defence.") I contend that my cross-examination has elicited enough evidence to prove either that the murder was not committed by the accused or that it is doubtful if the offence alleged was murder. Only the evidence which has been submitted by the Prosecution can be taken into consideration. Referring again to Archbald, p.64, under the heading "Express Malice" (quotes: "To amount to murder the killing --------- aforethought"). I contend that there is no evidence whatsoever of any malice aforethought which can connect the accused with the shooting incident on the night of the 2nd of August. I am not going to deal with the facts any further. I merely wish to remark upon certain things - certain irregularities, in connection with Canada Bks that night:- the evidence respecting shots being fired and the prevalence of drunks. The conduct of a particular commanding offr is not a matter which concerns the Court or which it must explain. If irregularities are occurring then it is not your function either to justify them or cover them up. You must decide the guilt or innocence of the accused on this charge of murder solely on the evidence before you. You should not consider how it may read to some Offr in superior authority. The Prosecution has given you facts; the Defence has tested those facts. Is Pte Robinson guilty of murder according to those facts? - guilty beyond a reasonable doubt? I have throughout made reference to the Prosecution. I would like to state that the accused is quite satisfied that he has had a very fair trial, and that every consideration has been given to his Defending Offr. I would also like to state that the Prosecutor has been exceptionally fair to the Defence, and the Court has been exceptionally patient all through the trial.

W.B.B.

W.A.B.

Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1400 hrs, the same members being present.

Prosecutor's Answer:

Mr. President, I would like to make it a point at this moment to bring your attention to the fact that this morning in Court it was said the Prosecution was rather unfair to the accused in that it hastened this trial. Yet certain witnesses had not left until yesterday morning. That is quite true. But at that time Higher Authority were demanding the presence of these personnel at their field units. It was only fair in the interests of the service to expedite their return. This was done at the earliest possible moment; the men going out on the first draft after the adjournment of the Court on Saturday morning. It is, sir, the duty of the Prosecutor to bring out every fact available in the case to assist the Court in every way possible. It matters not to the Prosecutor whether, having obtained all these facts in evidence, what the decision of the Court may be. We only represent the Crown. It is a well known fact that the Crown is only interested in justice being done. The Court must be guided solely by the laws of England which you will find referred to in Army Act, Sec 41. The law of Canada, while similar, is not the law under which the accused is being tried. All the Prosecution has to do at this stage of the proceedings is to establish a prima facie case. It does not have to do anything except prove the accused guilty of the crime charged: merely to bring sufficient evidence before the Court to satisfy you that the accused is guilty of the offence, the offence he is charged with. It may be weak; it may be overwhelming. For this proposition I draw your attention to MML, p.644, RP 40, fn 1. With regard to circumstantial evidence, I draw your attention to MML, Chap VI, para 4, p.70, which in effect states that circumstantial evidence is indirect evidence. I shall read it for the benefit of the Court. (quotes: "There is no difference ------ did or did not happen (indirect evidence)".) This again is referred to in MML at p.81, para 41. (quotes: "In connection with the rule ------- not of degree but of kind.") It is a recognized practice for Courts to accept substantial evidence. I think from the para I have just read, there is really no doubt about that. Now as to the action taken by the Commanding Offr of 2 Bn 1 CBRD with reference to the accused of having in his possession a weapon without authority and sentencing him to 28 days, that is a recognized procedure in the Civil Courts. I can refer you to one case in the Courts in Ontario in 1939. I cannot cite the exact report, but it was known as Rex vs. Thompson in which the accused man was sentenced to 18 months for perjury on obtaining a marriage certificate. He said he was a single man. His wife was still living and was found some months later brutally murdered. It was established that her death was caused within several days after the marriage license was obtained. He was charged with perjury and sentenced to, I believe, 18 months, in order really, to allow the police to gather sufficient evidence to bring him before the Courts later on a charge of murder. The action, therefore, taken by Col Lent was without doubt entirely right. There is, in this case, evidence of malice. Evidence has been given that the accused shortly before Dillon's death demanded from Dillon "a buck" in a rather surly manner, indicative of a hold-up. I feel there has been a slur cast upon the offrs of 2 Bn in this case. The Court can come to no other conclusion that these offrs acted with the best of intentions. While they may not have been wise in not calling in police assistance, nevertheless, their actions were, I believe, beyond reproach.

W.R.B.

Now, coming to the identity of the deceased, it is normal practice - the recognized practice in the Canadian Army - to identify a deceased or wounded soldier by his identity discs. This is particularly applicable to actual fighting - to the field. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Cpl Ferguson, Medical Offr and Medical Cpl respectively, of 2 Bn, was to the effect that they had both examined the discs around the neck of the deceased person while in the MI Room of that Bn. There can be no doubt from the evidence that this body was taken to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and later to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. The admitting doctor, Capt Grossman, stated that no other patient, suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to that hospital either that night or early in the morning of 3 Aug 44, while he was on duty as Medical Orderly Offr. He stated that he would have seen any such admission. Capt Jepson's evidence indicates that he attended, as he says, the only person admitted on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 that was suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head; that he knew this person from the records as Dillon, and that that patient whom he attended regularly from 0230 hrs in the morning of the 3rd of August until he died either on the 7th or 8th of August was the same man whom he knew as Dillon. He stated the cause of this man's death was a gun-shot wound of the head and bronchial-pneumonia. He stated that the bronchial-pneumonia is directly caused as a result of the gun-shot wound in the head. It may happen to persons suffering from a head wound, due to the fact that they lie upon their backs and the respiration is affected by the head wound. In short, the gun-shot wound that Dillon suffered from, was directly the cause of his death. The question as to whether or not the shot entered the head from in front or behind is, I think, more likely to be decided correctly by the medical offr who operated and attended the wounded man. A more correct and detailed study of the wound would, of necessity, have to be made by that doctor. Neither Capt Verdicchio nor Major Davidson could or would have been expected to make a very thorough check of the wound. They realized that they would not be in a position to assist the man, and that it was their duty to get that man to a brain specialist, who, apparently, was stationed at 65 Brit Gen Hosp. In short, they were more interested in helping the wounded man than trying to determine the size of the various wounds. Let us briefly go over the evidence of the various witnesses, other than the medical witnesses. We have Pte Wilcock going into the Gd Room and stating that his Glengarrry, with the 48th Highr badge on it, had been removed from his head somewhere around 2215 hrs on the night of 2 Aug 44 by a man wearing Seaforth flashes and carrying a gun, what he believed, was an automatic. We have the evidence of Lieut Mills who tells of finding the Glengarry , which Wilcock identified, on the steps of the Offr's Mess. Mills also states that Pte Dillon was lying within a few yards of these steps. We have the evidence of the Gd Cpl who states that he accompanied Pte Wilcock in the direction of the latter's billets: that on his way back from this trip he heard a shot or shots fired, and a very few minutes later was at the scene of the shooting. Therefore, Wilcock cannot, in any way, be connected with the crime. We have the evidence of Cpl De Harte. While some of his actions may well be criticized, there is one thing established, namely, that this Cpl on the morning of the 3rd, after hearing of the shooting, went to his superior offr and offered certain information. He stated in Court that he had seen Pte Dillon at approximately 2230 hrs embroiled in an argument with a man whom he recognized as the accused. Why did he recognize him? Simply and solely because he saw him wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry which had a 48th Highrs badge on it. You will recall that Cpl De Harte was a member of the 48th Highrs. The most normal and natural thing is for any soldier to take a very good look at someone he finds wearing his own regiment's head-dress and badge and yet wearing different shoulder flashes. De Harte states that within three or four minutes after arriving in his billets he heard some shots. I suggest to the Court it is a fair inference from the evidence in which only two or three shots were mentioned as having been fired during the period in question, that these were the shots that De Harte heard and were responsible for the wounding of Dillon. We come to Capt McKee's evidence. I don't think that the Court could conclude that he was giving it for any other reason than it was his duty to tell what he knew to this Court. You will recall that he could not say the exact way Dillon was holding the identity discs that had the name 'Robinson' on them and he refused to be tied down. He was sure of one thing; that at least one disc was firmly in the hand of Dillon. His was the only medical evidence, if such you might call it, as to how a man shot through the head would fall. Cpl Shaw, one had to admit, was not the best of witnesses, but his attitude was the same in reply to the Prosecution, in reply to the Defence, and, I might say, in reply to the Court. [illegible] held any grudge against the accused, neither I nor any other person can tell. But he did state that he saw scratches and other marks upon the accused's face and neck. He got into quite a bit of difficulty about the tattoo report. It is clear from his evidence that he did not call the roll, and that he had no knowledge of the accuracy of the tattoo report turned in by the various platoon sergeants. He did, however, state that tattoo roll call is made about ten o'clock or 2200 hrs. The evidence of Capt Snell is to the effect that at 2330 hrs, 2 Aug 44, he, together with Major Bernier, went to the bedside of the accused. The accused was lying down, face down, on his bed. Neither Capt Snell nor Major Bernier, in fact, Cpl Shaw could say more than that the accused was apparently asleep. I do not think that it calls for any argument to prove that point. If a person desires to feign sleep, few people can prove otherwise. An automatic, .45 colt, was found under the blankets at the head of the accused's bed or as the witnesses described it, if I recall it right, under some clothes that were used as a pillow. They found that the accused was suffering from scratches and bruises, and that he was not wearing his identity discs. On looking at the revolver they both stated that they smelled burnt powder from it. By the smell of burnt powder the identification of that automatic is firmly established. It was established even more firmly on the cross-examination of Major Bernier. The Court may well consider that cross-examination. The evidence given by the witness on his cross-examination is even better evidence than that given on his examination-in-chief. Lieut Dolan gave certain evidence. His evidence, however, was of very little value. He, however, admitted that he could not tell the difference between a back-fire and shots. Now there are certain theories which I propose to advance. I forgot to mention that Major Bernier, in addition to finding the automatic, also found a holster of the type used to carry an automatic similar to that which was found under the head of the accused's bed. He also stated that the undershirt of the accused was torn. Now there is a theory which I suggest in deciding the reason why the holster and the pistol became separated. The accused, coming into his billet, no doubt agitated by what he had just done, afraid to be seen by other men putting the pistol into the holster along with his kit, jammed it under the head of his bed, climbed into bed and made every effort to appear asleep. To do so he lay face downwards. I suggest that in his haste to hide that automatic he placed it under his blankets and, as a result, the fumes of burning powder remained in the barrel of that pistol long enough for them to be smelled by Capt Snell and Major Bernier. As to the question of the identity discs; it is, I think, a fair inference from the evidence we have heard from Cpl De Harte, that the accused and Dillon got into a struggle, maybe not punching particularly, but they were struggling. I suggest that in the course of that struggle, Dillon grabbed at the accused's throat, laying hold of his identity discs and yanked them. As the Court will notice the cord on these discs is old and rather worn. They broke away. As they were breaking away the accused grabbed the string. In a further struggle the second piece of string broke off. The accused retained it in his hand and later threw it away. The theory that I put forward to the Court is that in this struggle Dillon, somehow, picked the Glengarry off the head of the accused and threw it away. It landed on the steps of the Offrs' Mess or near them. In the struggle to break discs in his hand. Whether or not he fell or remained upright I cannot say. The accused, who was carrying a revolver in his pocket, pulled it out and fired it. Dillon on being hit would no doubt spin around and fall face downwards. There is no possible suggestion in the medical evidence as to how the man was wounded when he fell. I feel the members of the Court must, in their military experience, have seen men shot; have seen them spin partly around as a result of a heavy slug entering the head. How the accused got away is not difficult to understand. I will attempt to explain it. It is true that he had something like 100 yards to go across the parade square to his billets. But I suggest to the Court that there are four buildings around the parade square, near the Offrs' Mess to which the accused might well have got to. In fact he might well have gone to the corner of the Offrs' Mess, a matter of only 10 yards. Once in the shadow of the buildings, he could easily have walked back to his billets without being seen. Admittedly, the evidence does not show the actual manner in which Dillon was murdered. Rarely is the guilty person seen to do the act. In fact, I suggest to the Court that it would be an exception to the usual rule to get any direct evidence of the actual slaying of a person. I suggest to the Court that there has been ample evidence adduced to put the accused on his defence. That is all that the prosecution has produced the necessary evidence to call upon the Defence to offer evidence to rebutt it. The Court is not at this time determining the guilt or innocence of the accused. It is merely asked to decide whether or not the Prosecution has produced enough evidence to indicate that the accused, Robinson, did, on or about 2250 hrs, on the night of 2 Aug 44, so wound one Pte Dillon, that this Pte Dillon did, on or about 7 Aug 44, die as a direct result of that wounding.

Defending Offr's Reply:

Sir, the opening remarks of the Prosecutor seem to be in defence of the Offrs and certain other personnel of 2 Bn 1 CBRD. They are not on trial before this Court. He is not responsible for their conduct, and he need not apologize for their incompetence or misdemeanours. I also stated in my opening argument that I had no fault to find in the Prosecutor in his conduct of this case. He acted in good faith. He was given instructions by Higher Authority. But such Higher Authority has no place in judging the guilt or innocence of the accused unless a member of the proper Military Court. Their conduct does not come within the jurisdiction of the Court. I strongly feel, however, that the Prosecutor has misled the Court by his remarks. I trust the Judge Advocate will remark upon the statement that the accused is being tried in accordance with the laws of England. This was true up to the year 1867. But reference to Section 69 of the Militia Act, which is Appendix I to K.R. (Can) states that the Army Act, only insofar as it is consistent with the provisions of K.R. (Can) and Cdn law, applies. Therefore the rules of evidence, by which this Court is governed, are those rules laid down in the Canada "Evidence Act". This Court is a Canadian Court. Then there is the suggestion that all the Prosecution has to do is to establish a prima facie case against the accused: that his guilt or innocence is not to be decided at this stage. I do not agree. That is a matter on which you will receive full and complete instructions from the Judge Advocate. I suggest we are in this position. If I were to stop now, offering no evidence in defence, you cannot deny my motion unless you are prepared to find the accused guilty of murder on the evidence which you have heard. The Prosecutor cited the case of Rex vs. Thompson. From the facts which he gave you, it seems that the accused, Thompson, was convicted on a charge of perjury as a result of improperly obtaining a marriage certificate, and that, subsequent to obtaining the marriage certificate, he was accused of brutally murdering his wife. These were two separate prosecutions and not connected in any way apart from the fact that the facts respecting the improper obtaining of the marriage certificate might be acceptable in evidence before a Court trying the murder charge. The Prosecutor did not seem to think an investigation into the character of the deceased was in point - that it had no bearing on the possible guilt of the accused. He omitted, however, to tell you that the purpose in presenting the character of the deceased in evidence was to determine whether or not he had been guilty of any previous acts of violence or if there had been any previous exhibitions of quarreling between the deceased and the accused.

Prosecutor:

I may be mistaken, but the impression I got was that the Defending Offr said that was a matter for the Defence.

Defending Offr:

It is not a question for the Defence at this time. It might be later. The reference to Phipson on Evidence shows that this is one of the matters to be investigated by the proper investigating authorities.

Prosecutor:

Such an investigation was indicated by the evidence of Cpl De Harte.

Defending Offr:

What has Cpl De Harte to do with the case?

Prosecutor:

He gave evidence that the accused demanded "a buck" from the deceased.

Defending Offr:

What has that to do with the character of the deceased? I am dealing with his previous history. I am not dealing with any incident alleged in connection with this case. If the Court accepts that "a buck" was demanded by the accused of the deceased,

W.B.B.

then they must also accept De Harte's statement there was never any question or any violence between them. When the Prosecutor used the word "embroiled" to describe the argument that took place, he is using a word which I don't think he meant. The Prosecutor also stated that the identity of the deceased was properly established by means of the identity discs because it is done that way in the field. I presume by that he meant in action. There, with the bullets falling right and left; in the midst of heavy shell fire we accept certain practices, but we also know that mistakes in identification are made. But when you are back as far as we are, we must, in fairness to the accused, be a little more thorough in our identification. Which was the point of entry and the point of exit of the gun-shot wound will cause the Court a great deal of concern, for the simple reason that the theory suggested by the Prosecutor, indicates that the wound of entry must be in the right frontal bone or forehead, and the wound of exit in the right occipital bone. He stated that there is no evidence as to what would happen to a person on receiving a wound of this kind. I checked Capt Verdicchio's evidence. I refer to the transcript of evidence, question and answer, no. 38. (quotes) That is the only fair inference which the Court may accept. The body either twisted or spun around at the moment of impact of the bullet. According to the Prosecution, the accused was agitated and, in his moment of agitation, slipped the pistol under some blankets or clothing. Yet right afterwards the accused climbed into bed and went to sleep. The Court must examine the evidence of the witnesses called by the Prosecution in the light of their method of giving evidence. It was highly prejudiced against the Defence. They have stated the accused appeared to be asleep. Now to go to sleep so soon after consciously shooting another person is absolutely inexplainable. References were made to Capt McKee's evidence. I think the Court was favourably impressed by his evidence in most instances; but did the Court fail to notice one very weak point in his method of giving evidence? In order to protect himself and give himself loads of time to think before giving his answer, he turned to the Court stenographer, spoke slowly, chose his words carefully, and made sure he said the right thing. Has the Court, along with all these other matters, considered the significance of the Dental Sgt falling out of the window? The Court, from an examination of Exhibit "G", can readily see that the bullet that wounded Dillon might have been fired from that house providing Dillon was walking in the direction of the Borden Building and was shot from behind. The Court cannot accept the theory advanced by the Prosecutor as to how Dillon was shot without finding obvious faults with that theory. Had Dillon taken that hat on to it instead of throwing it away. The fact that he had time to throw it away shows that he must have been shot by someone who was not standing directly in front of him. Otherwise he would not have had time to throw the hat some considerable distance. Then there is the suggestion that the accused carried the pistol in his pocket. We know that a pistol raises a considerable bulge. De Harte was cross-examined as to whether or not any pistol or weapon was apparent in the hands or clothing of the person talking to Dillon. He said "No". The whole assumption in the theory advanced by the Prosecution is that Dillon was shot through the front of the head. You must consider the evidence of the first personswho superficially examined him. They saw a small hole at the back and a larger hole at the front from which brain tissue was protruding. Obviously he was shot from behind. It is now the Court's problem to decide which was the wound of entry and which was the wound of exit. I feel that the Prosecutor has apologized sufficiently for his presentation of the case. I strongly suggest that the Court accept these apologies and throw this case out. They cannot find the accused guilty on circumstantial evidence unless they are satisfied, not only that the circumstances are consistent with the accused having committed the act, but that they are inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. I submit the Prosecution has failed to link the accused with the offence alleged.

Judge Advocate's Summing Up:

Mr President and gentlemen, it is not laid down, as far as I know, in the Rules of Procedure that the Judge Advocate should sum up in open Court at the conclusion of a motion of this nature. But since the Court wishes it, and, in view of the serious nature of the charge which the accused is facing , I feel that it is not only desirable, but my duty to do so. The accused is charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act with committing the civil offence of murder, the allegation being that on the 2nd of August of this year, he murdered one Pte Dillon, J.W.M. A charge of murder can be tried by Court Martial when we are out of the United Kingdom by virtue of Sec 41 of the Army Act. This raises a point mentioned by the Defending Offr. I quote Sec 69 of the Militia Act, R.S.C. 1927, Chap 132, found in K.R. (Can) at p.292 (reads). Now the effect of that is that the accused is to be tried by the English Criminal Law and, according to the English law of evidence, not by the Canadian Criminal Code nor Canadian Law respecting evidence. The Defending Offr contends that the Prosecution has failed to establish a prima face case. What does that mean? I refer to the MML, Chap VI, para 12 and part of para 13, pp 72-3. (quotes para 12 and lines 1-3 of para 13) It goes on to give examples which are not applicable to this case. It should not be necessary for me to remind the Court that it is the sole judge of the facts; that is to say, the evidence which has been adduced before this Court and only that evidence. If the Court has in its mind a reasonable doubt as to the accused's guilt then it must find him not guilty. A reasonable doubt is not one based on whimsy sentiment or anything of that nature, but it is a doubt such as the members of the Court might entertain in the conduct of their own personal affairs. It is the duty of the Judge Advocate to advise the Court, to the best of his ability, of the law involved. Any opinion which he has or expresses with respect to the facts are not binding on the Court. The accused is charged with having committed murder. I refer the Court to MML, Chap VII, para 42, p.115. (reads) I also refer the Court to Archbold "Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice", 1943 edit, p.859. (reads para headed 'Murder') Then on the same page, the para headed "The Person Killing". (reads lines 1-4 of the para) I refer you also to Archbold, p.860, the para headed "The Person Killed", (quotes lines 1-3 of the para); also on p.861 to the para headed "The Manner of Killing" (quotes lines 1-3 of the para). I would refer you also to the opening sentence of the second para on p.864 of Archbold (reads). Also at p.879 under the heading "Killing without intention whilst doing another act" (reads lines 1-3 of the para). In order to find a person guilty of murder it is essential to prove malice on the part of the alleged murderer. I refer the Court to Archbold p.864 (reads para: "Express malice") and to p.865 under the heading "Implied malice" (reads lines 1-8 of para). Referring again to Archbold pp 868-9 under the heading of "Quarrels" (reads lines 1-4 of para). Now we are not, at this stage, concerned with the defences to a charge of murder. You have to consider the Prosecution's case in order to decide whether or not the

R.A.B.

Defending Offr's submission should be allowed. I have endeavoured to prepare a time table, if you wish to call it that, which may be of some assistance to the Court. On 2 Aug 44 at 2130 hrs Cpl De Harte and some of his comrades entered the main gate at Canada Bks. There they met a Hast & PER soldier who was drunk and argumentative. Cpl De Harte ascertained that this soldier's name was Dillon. At 2215 hrs Pte Wilcock was held up by another soldier wearing Seaforth flashes. He was robbed of his Glengarry with the name "A.H. Wilcock" inside (Exhibit "H") and his fountain pen which bore some tooth marks (Exhibit "I"). Sometime between 2215 hrs and 2230 hrs, Cpl De Harte came upon this soldier Dillon arguing with two other soldiers on two separate occasions, and then he found Dillon and the accused in an argument. The accused made a demand for money. Cpl De Harte says that he recognized the accused because it was not usual to see a man with Seaforth flashes wearing a 48 Highrs Glengarry. At 2230 hrs Cpl De Harte left them still arguing. At same time Pte Wilcock reported to Cpl Ferguson in the Gd Room and was then shown to his billets. Sometime between 2230 hrs and 2250 hrs, two or three shots were heard by the following people: Sgt Whynot, who was in the Gd Room, Capt McKee, who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, Cpl Ferguson, Cpl De Harte who was also in Bn Offrs' Mess, and Lt Dillon, lying face downwards. Capt McKee identified as Pte Dillon, lying face as he left the Mess. Capt McKee stated that he smelled powder burning in the head, allegedly identified as Pte Dillon, lying face promptly to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess where they found a body, wounded Dolan who was in the Gd Room. Certain of these people went billets, Major Bernier who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, and Lt "H") on the Mess steps. Cpl Ferguson found a .45 casing on the point "J" on Exhibit "G". Lt Mills found the Glengarry (Exhibit Verdicchio, and Sgt Whynot were also on the scene around that time. Sometime after 2250 hrs, Capt McKee discovered the identity discs with the broken cord (Exhibit "J") and turned them over to Capt Snell. Lt Mills found blood spots on the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. Major Bernier and Capt Snell set off to trace the owner of the discs that Capt McKee said he found in the injured man's hand. The injured man was taken to 2 Bn MIH and from there to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp by Cpl Stewart. About the same time Major Bernier and Capt Snell had completed their investigations. They got Cpl Shaw who took them to the accused's quarters, which they reached at approximately 2340 hrs. In other words, about one hour after the shots were heard fired, Major Bernier and Capt Snell arrived at the accused's bedside and stated they awakened him as he appeared to be asleep. His kit was searched and also his blankets. The .45 automatic (Exhibit "O") was found. Major Bernier and Capt Snell stated that in their opinion it had been recently fired. Major Bernier also found a United States type holster (Exhibit "P") in the accused's kit, the kit which the accused admitted was his own. The accused had scratches on his neck similar to fingernail scratches; no identity discs, and his face appeared bruised. He was placed under arrest at 2355 hrs. Pte Stewart took the patient, named Dillon, from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp in an ambulance to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. Sometime after 2250 hrs Lt Dolan investigated the case of the Dental Sgt who had fallen out of a window of his billets near Canada Bks. At 0145 hrs, 3 Aug 44, a patient named Dillon, conveyed in an ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and suffering from a through-and-through gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. The evidence in support of that is the testimony of Sgt Fieldhouse, Capt Grossman and, to some extent, W/Capt Tootell, the padre. At 0230 hrs a patient named Dillon was examined by Capt Jepson, who stated that there were no other persons admitted to the hospital that night with similar injuries. Later that day, the Court of Inquiry, at which the accused gave evidence, was held. Lt Dolan searched the accused and his kit in 2 Bn Gd Room. The accused, on being ordered to empty his pockets, handed over two fountain pens of which the light grey one (Exhibit "Q") was identified by Mr Dolan. He was unable to identify the other one beyond stating that it had tooth marks on it. Capt Jepson, who had been attending the patient Dillon, stated that he died on the 7th or 8th of Aug. Padre Tootell said he buried him in the British Military Cemetery in Naples. I think that is a fair summing up of the evidence brought out by the Prosecution. Now as the Defending Offr has quite properly pointed out, that evidence is largely circumstantial. In that connection I would like to refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 42, pp 81-2. (reads para 42) The Defending Offr has asked me to say something to the Court about the identification of exhibits and about the proper method of identifying an accused person. As to the latter, the usual civil practice is to have the suspect picked out of a line-up of persons who are, as nearly as possible, similar to him in size, appearance and dress by the person who is called on to identify him. The suspected person must be given an opportunity of changing his place in the line-up if more than one person is called upon to identify him. In this case, as far as Cpl De Harte is concerned, any identification that he made was made before any such parade took place. In other words, one of the things that you will have to decide is whether Cpl De Harte's identification of the accused is due to his recalling the oddity of seeing a Seaforth soldier with a 48 Highrs Glengarry or whether, as the Defence contends, it was due to the fact that he had ample opportunity to memorize the features of the accused while he had him under observation prior to the Court of Inquiry on the morning of 3 Aug 44. Now as to the identification of the discs: I refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 112, p.100. (reads) Reference has also been made in argument to what is called "Judicial knowledge" - "Military experience" and similar expressions. I would refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 11, p.72. (reads para) In other words, the examples quoted are all examples of things which are of general knowledge. They do not apply to particular evidence which is of an expert or quasi-expert nature. I have nothing further to add, sir, except that I think I should again call your attention to the final sentence of para 12 on p.72 of MML (quotes). If you think that has not been done in this case, then you must allow the submission of the Defending Offr and find the accused "Not Guilty".

Judge Advocate (to Defending Offr):

Is there anything else you wish me to add?

Defending Offr:

I asked you, sir, to make some reference to the method with which Capt Rose introduced the exhibits. You read a para in MML, but I think it would be better --------

Judge Advocate:

I take it you are referring to the civil police methods?

Defending Offr:

I am referring to the police methods of obtaining exhibits and submitting them in Court.

C.119

Judge Advocate:

The practice, as I understand it, is that once an article is taken into possession by the police it should be marked in some way by the person who finds it. It may be tagged: it may be initialled - some mark may be scratched on it - something of that nature. The point is that this should be done as soon after the finding as possible. Otherwise, a proper identification becomes a difficult matter if the article passes from one hand to another before being submitted to the Court.

Summary of Evidence.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B 144 383 Pte Robinson, D.J.F., of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on strength of 2 Canadian Base Reinforcement Battalion, 1 CBRD, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

B 72921 Pte Wilcock, A.H., 3 Cdn Base Rft. Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B 72921 Pte Wilcock, A.H. of the 3 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn, 1 CBRD. On the night of August 2nd 1944 at approximately 2215 hrs I was over on the west side of the Petawawa Building, about half way down, and a chap appeared to put a gun against my left side and I turned around and saw a Seaforth flash. He took off my Glengarry. I can recognize my Glengarry by my name inside and the checks in the hat have the appearance of pin pricks (Glengarry produced and marked Exhibit "A"). I recognize the Glengarry marked Exhibit "A" as the Glengarry that was taken from me on the night of 2nd August 1944. He also took my Waterman's pen, a grey one. I can recognize my pen because the original name has been scratched off and there is a tooth mark on the nib. (Waterman's pen produced and marked Exhibit "B". I recognize the Waterman's pen marked Exhibit "B" as my pen. It is the pen that was taken from me on 2nd August 1944. After taking my Glengarry and pen he turned around and walked behind me towards the M.I. Room. I saw some chap walking over from the garage to the Main Gate. I hollered to the chap. He just hollered back something and then started to walk away and I hollered again. He came over to my right side and I grabbed his arm and held him close to me. We were walking just about in front of 1 Bn. Officers' Mess, and I could not feel the gun any more, so I turned around and the chap who had the gun had disappeared. Then I went right over and reported the incident at the Guard Room. The officer in charge was Lt. Dolan. Then a guard and myself went outside and searched the area and found nobody around the vicinity of the Officers' Mess, 1 Bn. I then went to my billet and went to bed. I was awakened in the morning about 0200 hrs by Capt Mills and Capt Cameron, and proceeded to No. 2 Bn. Guard Room and stayed there the night. I do not recognize the accused as the man who held me up with the gun."

Cross examined by the accused:

Q.1. "The gun that you recognized as yours, do you consider it grey in colour?"

A.1 "It is not all grey; it is streaked with white. I have always called it a "grey gun".

A.W. Alcock

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

F39716 Sgt. Whynot, R.H., 1 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am F39716 Sgt. Whynot, R.H., 1 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. At approximately 2245 hrs, 2nd August 1944, while on No. 1 Guard Room making out my Guard report, I heard a shot fired in the direction of the main parade square outside of Borden building. I immediately ran out of the Guard Room, and on my way out I heard two more shots fired. Just as I arrived at the main entrance to Borden building I could see a body lying in front of the Officers' Mess, 2 Bn. I did not know whether it was a drunk, so I looked around to see if I could see anyone running, and could see nobody. I then proceeded to where the body lay, and when arriving there the Corporal on Guard, Cpl Ferguson, and the Officer of the Guard, Lt. Dolan were there. In my estimation the shots sounded like they had come from the direction of the S.L.O. and C.Y.R. quarters. When I first ran out I saw a man in a crouched position trying to get up. It was the same man I saw later."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. T.E. McKee, "6" Coy, 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt. T.E. McKee, "6" Coy, 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of August 2nd, 1944 about 2250 hrs. I was sitting in the Officers' Mess, 2 Bn, 1 CBRD. I heard two shots fired outside. They sounded to be very close, so I got up and walked out of the Mess to have a look around. When I arrived at the porch outside the door of the Mess I saw a body lying on the pavement about eight yards from the porch. I walked over to see a man lying face down on the pavement with his hands stretched out at his side. He was not dead but was bleeding from two ~~wholes~~ holes in the head, one in the front and one in the back. I went over to 2 Bn. M.I.R. and posted an orderly for the Medical Officer. I then went back to the scene of the accident. By this time there was a number of officers and men collected around the wounded man. I thought the man may have shot himself, as I started to look for a weapon. I found no weapon, but in his left hand I found a set of identity discs. These discs I turned over to the Adjutant, 2 Bn. 1 CSR'D. Capt Snell. I just glanced at the discs and saw the name "Robinson" on them but cannot remember the number. (Identity discs produced and marked Exhibit "C"). I would say that the discs marked exhibit "C" are the same discs I took from the hand of the man that was shot and gave to Capt. Snell. By this time the Medical Officer was there and had moved the body to the M.D.R. I stayed there until the man was placed in a vehicle and then went to my quarters.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q.1. "Sir, you said that you recognize the name on the discs. Are you positive?"

A.1. "Yes."

Q.2. "Was it dark outside when you saw the discs."

A.2. "Yes, it was dark outside. I looked at the discs inside the M.D.R. when I gave them to Capt Savill the adjutant."

Thos. E. McNeil

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution.

Capt. A. Verdicchio, Medical Officer at 2 Cdn. Base Rft. Hsp., 1C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt A. Verdicchio Medical Officer at 2 Cdn Base Rft. Hsp. 1C.B.R.D. On the night of the 2nd August 1944 I was in bed dozing off to sleep and was suddenly awakened and heard gun shots. I think there were two shots. As a result of information received I went down stairs and out to the road in front of 2 Hsp Officers' Mess and there found a soldier lying face down about ten yards from the entrance to the Mess. His head was lying in a pool of blood. He was breathing quite well and his pulse was fair. I removed his beret and as I did I noticed that it was filled with blood. I examined his head and found a fairly large wound on his forehead with brain tissue exposed. I then felt around the rest of his skull, including the back of his head, and felt a smaller wound, which was dripping blood into my hand. I came to the conclusion, then, that the wounds were apparently gun shot in origin. I called for some shell dressings and dressed the wounds and asked someone to get a vehicle from the unit. Whilst waiting I took the injured man to the M.D.R. on a stretcher.

While in the M. D. R. adjusting his dressings his identity discs were examined for information for hospital records. The name on the discs was Pte Dillon. His shoulder flashes revealed the name of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. The vehicle arrived in a very few minutes and I sent the man to No. 3 Canadian General Hospital, accompanied by Cpl. Stewart. After I had despatched him to the hospital I noticed the time to be about 2330 hrs."

Verdrecchus Capt.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

K 52039 Cpl Stewart, R., 2 Cdn Base Rft Bn., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am K 52039 Cpl Stewart, R, medical Corporal of M. D. R, 2 Cdn. Base Rft Bn. ICBRD. On the night of 2nd August 1944 I was awakened out of my bed and as a result of information received I immediately got up got a stretcher and medical supplies. I went to a spot immediately in front of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess and found a soldier lying on the ground.

When I first saw him he had a wound on his forehead, to which I immediately applied a shell dressing. I noticed later that the blood was saturating through the bandage at the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing on the back of his head. He was then put on a stretcher and carried into the M. D. R. The Medical Officer made out his hospital admission slip from his identity discs. I read off his particulars from his identity discs. It was then evacuated him to the 3 Canadian General Hospital. I accompanied him. When we arrived at the hospital I assisted the admitting Officer, Major Davidson, in removing the bandages. I saw a few small fragments of brain tissue on the shell dressing. After he had received further dressings I returned to Canada Barracks. The particulars I read from the identity discs were "B/135552 Pte Dillon, J."

C.H. Stuart R.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Cpl. W Stuart for the Prosecution.

Major J.R. Davidson, 3 Can. General Hospital, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Major J.R. Davidson, in charge of surgery No. 3 Can. Gen. Hospital. On the 2 August 1944 at approximately 2330 hrs I was called to the admitting room to see a patient who was suffering from a compound fracture of the skull. The patient was unconscious. There was a wounds of entry over the occiput and a wound of exit in the middle of the frontal bone. Some brain tissue was exuding from the wound of exit. I would be of the opinion that the wound was caused by a high explosive missile. After examination of the patient's general condition the wounds were re-dressed and I called the Roman Catholic padre to administer the last rites. The patient was immediately transferred by ambulance to No. 65 British General Hospital.

his identity discs. The particulars I took were: "B13855 2 Pte Dillon, J. W. M.", (R.C.) Roman Catholic" I saw Major Davidson examine the patient. I saw the patient, Pte Dillon, placed in an ambulance for transfer to 65 Br. Gen. Hospital at approximately 2355 hrs, 2 August 1944. I saw Pte Shelusk enter the ambulance to accompany the patient as medical orderly.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Thirteenth Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut A.J.B. Mills, 3 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lieut A.J.B. Mills 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. At approximately 2240 hrs, 2 Aug 1944 I was having lunch in the Officers' Mess when I heard three shots. I went out to see what was going on and on the steps going out of the Mess I picked up a Glengarry with a 7 8 1/4" Highlander badge on it. I recognize the Glengarry marked exhibit "A" as the one found on the steps on the 2 Aug 1944. I then had a look at the wounded man, who was lying face down approximately twenty feet from the entrance to the 2 and 3 Bns. Officers' Mess. He had been shot through the head and there was quite a pool of blood where he was lying. A crowd had gathered, including the Guard Commander, Lt. Dolan and the Guard Corporal, Cpl Ferguson, also the Provost Sgt. from 1 Bn. Sgt. Wright. Someone handed me a beret with a Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment badge on it which apparently belonged to the wounded man as there was blood dripping from it. I handed the beret over to Lt. Dolan. Lt. Dolan dispersed the crowd and I aided him in a search of the area. One .45 calibre casing was found approximately eight feet from where the wounded man had been lying. On further investigation of the Glengarry which I had found on the steps of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess I found the name of "A.H. Wilcock" on the inside. After investigation I went to Capt. Cameron's quarters and turned the Glengarry over to him. He immediately got dressed and I accompanied him to the 48th Highlanders' quarters where Wilcock was brought to him and was later turned over to the 2 Bn. Guard Room. I returned to the scene where the wounded man had been lying and in company with some of the Guard made a further search for empty cartridge casings. During the search one more .45 calibre casing was found by the Guard. As Lt. Dolan was not available the casing was turned over to the Orderly Officer of 3 Bn with instructions to turn same over to the Adjutant of 2 Bn, Capt Snell, who by this time was in possession of the other casing which had been found. During the second search I noticed a few drops of blood on the steps of the Officers' Mess and also one drop of blood right at the door of the Officers' Mess. Two of the casings marked exhibit "D" are similar to the two found at the scene of the shooting.

G/S B Wilcox

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

Fourteenth witness for the Prosecution

Lieut B.J. Dolan, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lieut B.J. Dolan, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 CBRD. I was officer in charge of the Guard from 0900 hrs, 2 Aug 1944 to 0900 hrs, 3 Aug 1944. At approximately 2240 hrs, 2 Aug 1944, a soldier later identified as Pte Wilcox of the 4th/14th Highlanders entered the Guard Room. He was quite excited. I sent a corporal out with Wilcox to investigate the matter. A few minutes later I heard a shot. I told the Guard to "stand to" and then heard two more shots. I took the pergeant and two men and started out to investigate the matter. I saw a group of people standing in front of 2 Bn Officers' Mess. Going in the direction I saw a man laying on the ground. I continued my investigation and tried to find out where the shots came from. I made a tour of all the buildings in 1 Bn area and discovered nothing. Going back to where the man was laying I found the guns & pickaxe had gathered. I sent those not on duty to bed. Looking further a .45 empty casing was found by Cpl. Ferguson. He turned it over to me. A set of identity discs bearing the inscription "B 144 333 Pte Robinson D." were found. On the suggestion of Capt Snell we went to Head Records Office of 1 CBRD. We discovered the record of a man fitting the inscription of the identity discs at 2 Bn. Later Capt Snell entered the Guard Room and upon obtaining a receipt I turned over to him the .45 casing. One of the casings produced and marked Exhibit 'D' is similar to the one I turned over to Capt. Snell."

B. J. Nolan Lieut

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifteenth Witness for the Prosecution

B51982 Cpl Ferguson, E., 1 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

I am B51982 Cpl. Ferguson, E., 1 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of 2 August 1944 at approximately 2230 hrs. a 48th soldier reported to the Guard Room. I took the soldier, whom I learn to be Pte Wilcock, to the Seaforth coy office. I made arrangements there that any man carrying an unauthorised weapon be reported to the Guard Room. Pte Wilcock and myself came back downstairs from the Seaforth office. I showed him the way down to his billets. I was on the other side of the Petawawa Building when I heard two shots fired. The shots seemed to come from the direction of 2 Bn. Officers' Mess. I came back to the Guard Room and then proceeded to the scene of the shooting. I saw a pool of blood and a half eaten sandwich of onions. I tried to find where the shots had come from and I found a spent .45 cartridge case, approximately ten feet away from the steps of the Officers' Mess. I handed this over to Lt. Dolan who was officer of the Guard. Later a second casing was found by one of the guards about fifteen paces from where the first one had been found. The following morning I was sent by Lt. Dolan to the Seaforth coy office to get Pte Wilcock's name and number, which I did not obtain. On my way down from the Seaforth office I picked up a spent .303 casing on the steps leading out of the Petawawa Building. I pointed these to Lt Nolan and they returned to the Guard Room. (Casings produced and marked Exhibit " ").

I recognize two of the casings produced as exhibit "D" as the ones I found.
The best one I found on the stairs of the Petawawa Building.

Sixteenth Witness for the Prosecution.

Major J. Bernier, R.C.A.P.C., Paymaster of 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Major J. Bernier, R.C.A.P.C., paymaster of 2 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D. On the night of the 2nd August 1944 I was reading in my room above 2 Bn. Officers' Mess. At approximately 2300 hrs. I heard a shot, then a second shot, then another. They seemed to be revolver shots in the immediate vicinity of the Mess. I slipped my trousers over my pyjamas and went down to investigate. Several officers were standing around the body, sprawled on the road immediately in front of 2 Bn Officers' Mess entrance. It was the body of a man who had been wounded by Gun Shot. The Bn Orderly Officer, Lt. Manahan, seemed to have the situation well in hand, so I left the scene. I then went to my office as I thought there might have been an attempted robbery of my cash. I found everything in order. I then returned to the scene of the accident and was shown a set of identity discs by Capt. S. E. McKee, P.P.C.L.I. They were not the wounded man's. They bore the following information: "B144393 Robinson D., Pres., C.W.N." I now recognize the discs marked Exhibit "C" as the discs shown to me by Capt McKee. I then went to Nos. 1, 2, and 3 Bns' Pay Offices to find out if Robinson belonged to any of these Bns. He traced him to the Seaforth Coy of No. 2 Edm Bde Rft. Bn. I then accompanied Capt. Snell, adjutant of 2 Bn to the Seaforth billets at approximately 2330 hrs. We found Pte Robinson, whom I now recognize as the accused, apparently sleeping in his blankets. We woke him up. He had been drinking but in my opinion was in full possession of his faculties. His lips and nose were bruised.

There were scratches on his neck, and his vest was torn. He was not wearing identity discs. On searching his kit I found under the head of his blankets an empty .45 calibre automatic revolver, the property of the United States Army, bearing the serial 948416 and the figures M1911 which I presumed to be the model or issue no. (Revolver produced and marked exhibit "E".) I recognize the revolver marked Exhibit 'E' as the one I found in Pte Robinson's kit. From the smell of powder I would say that the revolver had been fired recently. I found the holster of the revolver in Pte Robinson's kit bag (Holster produced and marked Exhibit "F"). I recognize the holster marked Exhibit 'F' as the one I found in Pte Robinson's kit bag on the night of the 2nd August 1944. I handed both the revolver and the holster to Capt. Snell for safe custody. Pte Robinson's rifle was hanging on a nail by his bed. It had not been fired. I found no other fire arms, ammunition, cleaning rods, etc. Capt. Snell had Pte Robinson placed under close arrest and sent to 2 Bn Guard Room. The duty Corporal of the Seaforth Coy was ordered to make a minute search of Pte Robinson's bed and of the area in which he slept. I then accompanied Capt Snell as witness when he took statements from Pte Robinson and other persons involved in the shooting. I was present when Capt Snell cautioned Pte Robinson as follows: 'Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath, you are not obliged to do so but if you do it will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.' Pte Robinson made a statement. (Statement produced and marked Exhibit "G".) I recognize the statement marked as Exhibit "G" as that which was taken down by Capt. Snell and which was signed by Pte Robinson in my presence. I recognize both signatures as the accused's. The accused was not forced to give the statement. In fact he was given cigarettes to smoke while he made his statement.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q1. Where did you find my holster?

A.1. I found it in your kit bag by your bed.

Jan Bernier Major.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness further.

Seventeenth Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. J. H. Snell, Adjutant, 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn. 1 C.B.R.D. having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Capt J. H. Snell adjutant, 2 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 CBRD At approximately 2315 hrs., 2 August 1944 I entered Canada Bmacks and because of information received I contacted the Guard Commander, Lt. Dolan, and the Orderly Officer, Lt Manahan, to get information and instigate an investigation. I met Major Bernier, Paymaster, 2 Bn. 1 CBRD and as a result of what he told me I contacted Capt. Mc Kee, P.P.C.L.I., who gave me a set of identity discs bearing the name of a soldier "B 144 333 Pte Robinson, D." Major Bernier and I went through the card index systems of all three Bns to ascertain the whereabouts of the soldier whose name was on the identity discs. I recognize the discs marked Exhibit "C" as the pair handed to me by Capt McKee, on the night 2nd August, 1944. I found that Pte Robinson was on strength 2 Bn, Seaforth Coy. I contacted the Orderly Corporal on duty at Seaforth Coy and he directed me to Pte Robinson's bed. I placed the soldier, whom I now recognize as the accused under close arrest, directing that he be taken to the Regimental Police, 2 Bn, 1 CARD. I noticed at the time that the accused's face was bruised, his lips were cut, and there were several scratches on his neck. I searched the kit of the accused and I found a .45 automatic pistol, M1911 / 948416, under his pillow. I recognize the pistol marked Exhibit 'E' as the one found by me on the night 2nd August 1944 under Pte Robinson's pillow. The holster for the pistol was found in the small pack of the accused. I recognize the holster marked Exhibit 'F' as the one found in the small pack of the accused. The pistol was empty but I would say it was fired recently because the barrel was corroded and smelt of powder. I instructed the Orderly Corporal, Cpl Shaw, to bring the complete kit of Pte Robinson to 2 Bn. Guard Room. I paraded Pte Robinson, cautioning him as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or give any evidence on oath, you are not obliged to say anything or give any evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."
No promises, violence, or duress of any kind was made to the accused with the exception of cigarettes offered to him whilst I was taking down his statement. I recognize the statement marked Exhibit "G" as the signed statement taken down by me on the night 2nd August 1944. I recognize both signatures as those of the accused. I read the statement back to the soldier and had him sign it. The accused was not wearing a set of identity discs. He recognized the pistol M1911/948416 as his property. He acknowledged knowing the order concerning the wearing of identity discs as contained in the statement signed by him. On returning to the scene of the incident one casing of a .45 calibre bullet was turned over to me by Lt. Dolan. At approximately 1130 hrs. 3 Aug 1944, two other .45 calibre casings were turned over to me by the Assistant adjutant, Lt. Rumbell, of 3 Bn. I recognize the casings marked Exhibit "D" as the casings turned over to me. I instructed the Orderly Officer Lt. Marsden, to report the incident through the proper channels.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q1. Where did you find my holster?

A1. The holster was found in the small pack of the accused."

Eighteenth Witness for the Prosecution

Major J.R.A. Morgan, 2nd in command, 3 Cdn Base Rft Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"As President of a Court of Inquiry on the 3 August 1944 I heard evidence and as a result had the effects of Pte Robinson, whom I now recognize as the accused, searched. Two fountain pens were discovered on his person. The two pens marked Exhibit "B" are the same two pens taken from the person of the accused on the 3rd August 1944."

Nineteenth Witness for the Prosecution

B73385 Cpl. DeHarte, W.L., 3 Cdn. Base Rft. Bn., 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B73385 Cpl. DeHarte W.L. 3 Cdn Base Rft. Bn., 1 CBRD. On the night of 2 August 1944 at approximately 2130 hrs I entered the Main Gate of 1 CBRD in the company of two friends. We met a Hastings and Prince Edward soldier and stopped to talk. The three of us had been drinking a little and the Hastings man appeared quite drunk. I persuaded my two friends to go to their billets and tried to convince the Hastings and Prince Edward man to return to his. I then proceeded to my Coy Orderly Room and checked in with my Coy Orderly N.C.O. Returning across 1 Bn. Parade Square to my billets which were then in 1 Bn. building I encountered the Hastings and Prince Edward man again attempting to pick an argument with a stranger. I persuaded the stranger to proceed to his billets. Then while doing so the Hastings and Prince Edward man became involved in an argument with another man and I chased him to his billets also. I argued with the Hastings and Prince Edward man for some time, endeavoring to make him return to his billets. While I was asking him to leave the square another shop approached, wearing Seaforth shoulder flashes and a Glengarry with a 48th Highlanders badge. I now recognize the accused as this man. This man's first words were: "Have you any money?" The Hastings and Prince Edward man answered, "Why?" The Seaforth, the accused, replied, "Give me a buck. I want a buck," in a demanding tone. I decided it was useless to try to keep the Hastings and Prince Edward man out of trouble and returned to my billets. This last meeting took place in the centre of 1 Bn's Sports Field. I had just returned to my billets when I heard a shot fired, followed shortly by another shot. I took no notice of these shots as such sounds are fairly frequent in the barracks. At the last meeting the strange appearance of a 4/8th Highlanders badge and the Seaforth Highlander flashes caused me to look very closely at the man and because of that I can recognize him again.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q.1. On the night of 2 August 1944 you state that you could recognize a Seaforth wearing a 4/8th Glengarry and Seaforth flashes.

A.1. "Yes."

Q.2. In what way could you recognize the man?"

A.2. By his general features.

Q.3. Explain general features.

A.3. A man of medium height, quite heavily built. I have a good memory for faces and remember a man's face.

Q.4. To get a good look at a man's face on the 2 August 1944

was it moonlight night or a dark night?

A.4. It was a bright moonlight night.

Q.5. Was there nothing about the man that you saw on 2 August 1944 that would stand out.

A.5. Yes, there was a dark mark running upward from the left hand corner of his mouth.

Q.6. In your statement you said you had been drinking and that you more or less admitted you were feeling better than your friends. So how could you say by the light of the moon that the party was the man that you identified on 2 August 1944.

A.6. I said in my statement that my friends and I had been drinking and that the Hastings and Prince Edward men appeared to be quite drunk. I was sober enough to know everything that was going on and had all my faculties about me.

Q.7. How can you identify a man by the light of the moon when you have been drinking.

A.7. I had not had sufficient to drink to dull any of my senses and further I was quite able to see this man and his face, and remember it.

Q.8 Would you or would you not sooner take a man's word when he is sober rather than when he has drinking on an identification.

A.8. That depends upon the amount the man has been drinking. If he is still in full possession of his faculties it makes no difference.

Q.9. Would you commit yourself to say that you had full control of yourself when you have been drinking.

A.9 If moderately, yes. On the night in question I had had three or four ten litre glasses of vermouth.

Q.10. Did you identify any of the other men who were engaged with the Hastings and Prince Edward soldiers on the night of the 2 Aug 1944 other than the accused?

A.10 I have had no opportunity of seeing all the men at 1 C.B.R.D. Neither of these men were wearing shoulder flashes and I cannot identify their units.

Q.11. Do you identify everyone by their shoulder flashes?

A.11 No

Q.12 How is it that you identified the accused by his shoulder flashes?

A.12. The fact that the man was wearing Seaforth flashes and a 4th badge caused me to look at him more closely than I might have otherwise.

Q.13. How close were you to the man you saw wearing Seaforth flashes and 4/8th Highlander Glengarry?

A.13. From two to three feet.

Q.14. It was the man you saw wearing Seaforth flashes and 4/8th Highlander Glengarry on the 2 August 1944 drunk?

A.14. He appeared to have been drinking, but was not drunk.

Cpl. Th. DeHart

The accused was cautioned as follows:

I then directed Capt Snell and the Paymaster to the bed of Robinson where I saw him sleeping. On instructions, I awoke Robinson and noticed that his lips were swollen; there was blood on his face, scratches on his neck and his identity discs were missing. Q.14 Are you a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.14 Yes sir.

Q.15 Do you recall the 2nd of August ?
A.15 Yes, I do.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.16 This year ?
A.16 Yes.

Prosecutor:

Q.17 Will you tell the Court in your own words why you recall that particular night ?
A.17 On that particular night after dozing off to sleep, I was suddenly awakened from my sleep on hearing a couple of shots. A few minutes later I was called downstairs to the roadway in front of the entrance to 2 Bn. Officers' Mess, and there saw a soldier lying face downwards on the pavement.

Q.18 Will you point out on this sketch, (Exhibit "G"), the approximate point where you found the soldier lying ?
A.18 This point I am indicating is the spot where I found this Private soldier face downwards. (Marks point X on sketch).

Q.19 How would you describe this approximate position in relation to the Mess ?
A.19 The approximate position is about ten yards from the stairs leading up to the Mess.

Q.20 Will you describe your examination of the body ?
A.20 I examined the man and found his head lying in a pool of blood. I removed his hat and immediately noticed a large wound on his forehead to the right of the mid-line. He was breathing well and his pulse was fair. I examined the remainder of his head and felt a wound at the back of his skull which was dripping blood into my hand. I didn't examine any further then. I called for shell dressings, bandaged his head and called for a stretcher and a vehicle from the unit. A man took him to the MIR. There I examined his chest. The full particulars of the man were noticed on his identity discs. His name was obtained from the discs for the hospital records in order to fill out the admittance slip. The vehicle then arrived and I despatched him with my Corporal to No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.21 What time was that ?
A.21 I didn't notice the time at the start, but when the patient had been sent to the hospital, I noticed it to be about 2330 hours.

Q.22 You mentioned a wound in this man's head. Where was that wound ?
A.22 The wound that I saw was on the forehead up close to the hair line to the right of the mid-line.

Q.23 Where was the second wound ?
A.23 The second wound which I felt was in the back of his skull. I didn't see the second wound.

Q.24 What unit did this man belong to ?
A.24 His shoulder flashes showed him as Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.

A.7 It is, sir.

Q.8 Is that according to the plan of the barracks ?
A.8 Yes sir.

Q.9 Is it reasonably accurate ?
Q.10 Yes sir.

Q.11 There are two copies ?
A.11 Yes sir.

Q.12 Will you describe to the Court the meaning of the part coloured pink ?
A.12 The pink is the roadway.

Q.13 And the dotted lines ?
A.13 The dotted lines show where the roadway is, and these three spots here are parade squares. The dotted lines include the parade squares. The straight lines are the buildings themselves.

No cross-examination.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Prosecutor's Opening Address

There will be put in evidence a plan of Canada Barracks to assist the Court, followed by such medical evidence as is now available. Following the medical evidence, there will be evidence offered to show that the accused was recognized near the scene of the crime a short time before, and when his quarters were searched, a weapon was found hidden away near his bed, that weapon belonging to the accused and showing signs of having been recently fired. There will be evidence offered that one Pte Willcock was held up about an hour before the body of Dillon was found, and his Glengarry and a fountain pen were removed from his person. Evidence will also be adduced to show that the pen taken from Pte Willcock was found on the person of the accused. I think you will find the evidence will more or less flow together to establish the prosecution's case.

Cross-examined:

Q.25 Will you describe a little more fully the description of the body as you saw it first ?
A.25 Yes. As I saw him first, the patient was lying flat on his face: as we say, in a prone position, with his left cheek lying on the pavement in this position. (Indicates).

Q.26 How do you determine which is the point of entry and which is the point of exit of a wound ?
A.26 On detailed examination, the point of entry is usually described as being small fairly clean point on the top of the wound. The point of exit of a through and through wound shows more fragmentation and is larger.

Q.27 What is the first time you examined him to establish his identity ?
A.27 I examined his identity discs in the middle of the road as soon as we got him on the stretcher.

Q.28 That is the only means you had of identifying him ?
A.28 That is all, sir.

Q.29 Did you check his paybook ?
A.29 I did not.

Q.30 I suggest to you that you had something to do with another set of identity discs that evening ?
A.30 That is true. I saw some other identity discs that evening.

Q.31 Where did you see them ?
A.31 I saw them in the hand of Capt McKee.

Q.32 And was that out on the roadway of Canada Barracks or was it some where else ?
A.32 I saw them in my own room.

Q.33 What were the circumstances of your seeing these identity discs ?
A.33 The discs were offered to me as a means of identifying a patient by Capt McKee.

Q.34 Did you handle the identity discs at all ?
A.34 As far as I recall, I did.

Q.35 Is there any possibility that this body was shot while lying on t ground ?
A.35 The possibility always remains, sir.

Q.36 Why do you say that ?
A.36 It could have happened.

Q.37 What opinion did you come to as a result of the examination of the wounds ?
A.37 The opinion I came to was that this man had been shot through the head and fell face downward on the roadway.

Q.38 Having regard to the size of the wound that you saw, is it probable that the wounde man walked for some distance or was thrown right down on the roadw
A.38 I would consider it unlikely that he walked for any distance at al

Q.39 Do you think it possible, from that type of wound, for a man to fa and try and get up again or not ?
A.39 He became unconscious the moment he was wounded.

Q.40 Did you check the fingernails of this man ?
A.40 No, I didn't.

Q.41 Can you tell us what happened to the beret when you took it off ?
A.41 When I took the beret off I held it up and handed it to someone a the bystanders.

Q.42 Where did you see the beret again ?
A.42 After the patient had gone to hospital, the beret was brought into the MIR by a Lieutenant. I believe he was the Guard Commander.

Q.43 What happened to it then ?
A.43 Well, I looked at it, noticed a hole in the back, one in the front. The inside was filled with blood.

Q.44 Now in applying your shell dressing would you touch the wound at the front or rear ?
A.44 I didn't make any attempt to clean up the wound.

Re-examined:

Q.45 The identity discs that you examined on the wounded man, how were they attached to him ?
A.45 They were attached, but I cannot recall whether it was by a piece of string or by a chain. Whether they were attached in the appropriate manner I cannot say. They were around his neck.

Q.46 What did you do with them ?
A.46 I merely looked at them , took the information from them, name and number, and left them in place.

By the Court:

WBB Q.47 Will you indicate ~~xxxxxxxxxxx~~ the point of entry and the point of exit on your own head ?
A.47 There was a wound there and a wound there as far as I can remember. (The witness indicates a wound in the forehead and a wound in the back of the head, the latter wound being lower than the former).

Q.48 Were there any other marks on the face or elsewhere ?
A.48 None that I saw or took the trouble to look for.

Q.49 Any powder burns ?
A.49 No, Ididn't see any obvious powder burns.

Q.50 Can you give the Court the approximate time when the wounded man was moved to the hospital ?
A.50 It would be around 2300 hours. That is an approximation.

Q.51 In your opinion, which of the two wounds did you consider to be the wound of entry ?
A.51 My first impression when I saw him and examined him, - not having seen but merely felt the wound at the back - was that the large wound in the forehead was the wound of exit.

Q.52 Have you had any cause to change your opinion from your own examination ?
A.52 I have had no opportunity of examining the patient further.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.53 Was the wounded man conscious ?
A.53 He was unconscious.

Q.54 Did he regain consciousness when he was in your hands ?
A.54 No.

Q.55 What was the name you saw stamped on the identity discs which were around the wounded man's neck ?
A.55 Pte Dillon.

Q.56 And the number ?
A.56 I don't recall the number.

Q.57 The initials ?
A.57 No.

Q.58 What are your duties, Corporal ?
A.58 My duties - I am the Medical Corporal in the MIR.

Q.59 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.59 I do, sir.

Q.60 Will you tell the Court in your own words what happened that night ?
A.60 As to the approximate time, I think it was around 2330 hours. I was in my bed and shortly after retiring I heard some shots being fired. Of course I didn't think anything of it at the time. Shortly afterwards I was awakened and was told .....

Judge Advocate:

You cannot repeat conversationsthat you had with anybody unless the accused, Pte Robinson, was present. You can state that you had conversation, and as a result of such conversation you did something or were ordered to do something. You can state that somebody gave you orders and then you can tell what you did after that.

By the Prosecutor:

Q.61 Will you point out to the Court where you were in relation to the spot marked "X" on Exhibit "G" ?
A.61 Here. (Witness indicates the spot where he was).

Q.62 What did you do when you arrived at that spot ?
A.62 I immediately applied a field dressing to the injured man's head. As I put the bandage on, I found there was more blood coming from the back of his head. I then applied another shell dressing to his head at the back. He was then placed on a stretcher and carried into the MIR. When he was in the MIR, we wrote out the admittance slip for him to be admitted to the hospital. I read off from the identity discs the number, rank and name of the wounded man to the Medical Officer. Then when transportation came I went with the patient to the hospital. When we arrived there, I believe it was Major Davidson who looked into the case. I am not certain whether it is Major Davidson or Major Howard. I was opposite Major Davidson when the dressings were taken off.

Q.63 What hospital was this ?
A.63 The hospital was No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp, sir.

Q.64 Where were the identity discs ?
A.64 The identity discs were on his neck, sir.

Q.65 What were the particulars you read off those discs ?
A.65 His number and his rank and name was on it.

Q.66 What was the name ?
A.66 The name was "Dillon".

Q.67 Do you recall the number ?
A.67 No sir, I don't.

Q.68 Why did you read the particulars to the Medical Officer ?
A.68 The light in the MIR is very poor. At the time he couldn't find out who this man was. That was when I looked for his identity discs.

Q.69 Why did you read them out to the Medical Officer ?
A.69 The light was very poor. He couldn't see it.

Q.70 Did you not read them out to the Medical Officer in order to give the particulars to him ?
A.70 Yes sir.

Cross examined:

Q.71 When you read out those particulars, did Capt Verdicchio fill out the hospital admission slip ?
A.71 Yes sir.

Q.72 The only information that Capt Verdicchio had of the wounded man was something you told him ?
A.72 From the identity discs.

Q.73 You read out the name and number from the identity discs to Capt Verdicchio, is that correct ?
A.73 Yes sir.

Q.74 Then you read out the particulars on the hospital admission slip?
A.74 Yes sir.

Q.75 Then, the only information as to the identity of the wounded man on the hospital slip was something you told Capt Verdicchio ?
A.75 Yes, sir.

Q.76 You say you applied a shell dressing ?
A.76 Yes sir.

Q.77 What was Capt Verdicchio doing ?
A.77 He applied the first one and I applied the second. I saw more blood on the back of his head. I tore up the first shell dressing and gave it to Capt Verdicchio.

Q.78 Did you notice which wound was the larger of the two ?
A.78 The wound on the forehead was larger than the one on the back of the head.

Q.79 You saw that yourself.
A.79 Yes sir.

No Re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.80 In the MIR were you the only one who examined the patient ?
A.80 There was another officer. On account of the bad light he couldn't make head or tail of the identity discs That is when I looked at it myself.

Q.81 Did you see the MO examine the patient ?
A.81 Yes sir.

Q.82 Will you describe to the Court how he examined the patient ?
A.82 When I got there Capt Verdicchio was there ahead of me. That is when we applied the first field dressing.

Q.83 In the MIR ?
A.83 The shell dressings were all on him.

Q.84 Were there any further examinations of the patient at that time ?
A.84 Not that I remember.

Q.85 You mentioned hearing shots fired. Did Pte Dillon have any weapon near him ?
A.85 I didn't see any, sir.

Q.86 Did you see the MO examine the identity discs about the neck of the patient ?
A.86 No sir.

Q.87 Who did you say applied the first dressing and the second dressing ?
A.87 Capt Verdicchio applied the first one. That is when I saw the blood at the back coming through the bandage.

Q.88 Now describe what you saw on the identity discs ?
A.88 On his identity discs, all I remember seeing was the number, rank and name.

Q.89 You saw his number, rank and name ?
A.89 Yes, sir.

Q.90 Did you recognize the initials ?
A.90 The initials also.

Q.91 Anything else ?
A.91 No sir.

Q.92 Do you recall what initials were on the disc ?
A.92 No, I can't recall that at all.

Q.93 Do you recall how many initials ?
A.93 No, I don't recall that at all.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.94 Who took charge of the wounded man when he arrived at No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp ?
A.94 Major Davidson took over, I believe, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Q.100 1944 ?
A.100 Yes sir.

Q.101 What happened that night ?
A.101 At approximately 2330 hours a truck drove up to the A & D and a stretcher patient was brought in. I took his regimental particulars and 'phoned for a Medical Officer, the Surgical Officer, Major Davidson.

Q.102 Where did you get the particulars from ?
A.102 Read the rank, name and initials and religion from the identity discs on the body, sir.

Q.103 Did you examine the discs ?
A.103 No sir.

Q.104 What were the names read out ?
A.104 Pte Dillon.

Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.115 You are a qualified Medical Doctor ?
A.115 I am.

Q.116 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.116 I do.

Q.117 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.117 At approximately 2330 hours, I was called to the admitting room to see a man who had suffered from a through and through wound of his skull. He was unconscious. I removed the dressing which had been applied and examined the patient. I found a through and through wound of the skull. Brain tissue was exuding from the wound in the forehead. I re-applied fresh dressings and ordered the man to be taken to No 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.118 In your opinion what caused the wound.
A.118 In my opinion it was caused by some sharp missile, probably a rifle or a revolver bullet.

LJT&B

Q.119 Will you point out on your own head where the two wounds in the head were ?
A.119 As closely as I can remember, sir, the one was approximately on the back of the head, and the other was on the forehead. (The witness indicates the position of the two wounds; the one at the back of the head being the lower down than the one on the forehead).

Cross-examined:

Q.120 Do you know who this patient was ?
A.120 No sir. I believe it was Pte Dillon. I just heard his name mentioned from his documents. It is more important for a medical man working in a hospital to treat the patient than to find out who he is.

Q.121 Did you at any time take any specific steps to establish the identity of this patient in your own mind ?
A.121 No sir.

Q.122 How do you determine which is the point of entry and the point of exit ?
A.122 It is generally believed that the wound of entrance of a bullet entering the skull is what might be termed a clean-cut hole, while the wound of exit usually shows fragmented bone.

Q.123 If any difference of opinion arises between the opinion formed by the medical officers first attending a wounded man and the doctor conducting a post-mortem examination, subsequently, which would you suggest to the Court would be more accurate ?
A.123 Do you refer to a man examining the wound after he had been operated on ?
Q.124 If there had been previous interference by a surgeon, would you explain the difference in the wounds then ?
A.124 It is possible, had there been previous treatment, the wounds of exit and entrance might be confused.

Q.125 Now, did you make any other examination of this patient apart from the head injury ?
A.125 Just as to his general condition, checking his pulse.

Q.126 Did you check his fingers or fingernails ?
A.126 No, I did not.

Q.127 What, Doctor Davidson, was the extent of your interference with that wound - the amount of treatment ?
A.127 There was no interference apart from applying fresh dressings to the skull and bandaging the head.

Q.128 Now, for the purpose of getting a little technical information across the Court, is there such a bone as an occiptal bone ?
A.128 That is the bone at the back of the head, part of the skull.

Q.129 How would you describe the right frontal bone ?
A.129 The right frontal bone refers to the case of the skull. The right frontal bone would be on the right side of the mid-line, beneath which lies the frontal lobe of the brain.

Q.130 I would like you to answer the next two questions, if possible, by merely stating "yes" or "no". Have you ever heard of injury by contracoup.
A.130 Yes.

Q.131 Has this injury by contracoup ever been satisfactorily explained by medical science ?
A.131 I cannot answer that question "yes" or "no".

W7843

Q.132 Injury by contracoup is still a contentious question in medical science ?
A.132 I don' think that is a fair way of putting it.

No Re-examination.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.133 When you were indicating the position of the wound, front and rear, with your finger, am I to assume that at the front that was the approximate position in the wounded man's forehead.

A.133 I cannot state definitely, only approximately.

Q.134 From what medical school did you graduate ?
A.134 McGill.

Q.135 In what year ?
A.135 1929.

Q.136 You have been practising medicine and surgery ever since ?
A.136 Yes.

WB13 Q.137 Which of the two wounds was the wound of entrance?
A.137 In my opinion the entrance was at the back.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Q.139 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.139 Yes, sir.

Q.140 What happened that evening ?
A.140 I was just having supper. At approximately 2330 hours a case came in which we attended to. At approximately 2350 hours we put him in an ambulance, and I went down to 66 British Gen Hosp with him.

Q.141 Who was this patient ?
A.141 According to his papers, it was Pte Dillon.

Q.142 What did you do when you got him at 65 British Gen Hosp ?
A.142 We took him in to the A & D room and they looked after him there.

Q.143 Did you examine this patient ?
A.143 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.144 The only way you know who this patient was is from his papers he carried ?
A.144 Yes sir.

A.145 Yes sir.

Q.146 Did you see the patient when he came into 3 Gen Hosp.

Q.149 Did anything happen that night ?
A.149 During the night, about a quarter to two, Pte Dillon was brought into the hospital with a gun shot wound in the head. He was sent to the Duty Officer and admitted to 65 Gen Hosp.

Q.150 Who brought the patient in ?
A.150 An ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp brought the patient in. I don't quite recall whether there was an orderly or just the driver with him. There was definitely someone who brought him in and handed him over.

Q.151 How did you obtain the particulars of this man ?
A.151 From his documents.

Q.152 And you said the Orderly Officer admitted him ?
A.152 Yes sir. Admitted him from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp.

A.160 The University of Prague.

Q.161 Are you licensed as a Medical Officer ?
A.161 Yes sir.

Q.162 Where ?
A.162 At the General Medical Council in London.

Q.163 When was that ?
A.163 In 1936.

Q.164 Do you recall the night of the 2nd of August, 1944 ?
A.164 Yes.

Q.165 Will you tell the Court what happened that night ?
A.165 At about a quarter to two in the morning I was called to see a patient who was admitted to 65 British Gen Hosp, transferred to that hospital from No 3 Cdn Gen Hosp. The patient was suffering from a through and through gun wound on the right side of his head. He was deeply unconscious. He did not respond to any questions or pain. I arranged his resuscitation and transferred him to the Resuscitation Ward. I also informed the surgeon on duty from the Neurosugical Unit who took over this case immediately.

Q.166 Will you describe to the Court where these wounds were in this man's head, either by pointing out or - - - ?
A.166 I did not disturb his dressings, but the wound appeared to be on the right side of the forehead and the right side of the back of the head.

Q.167 What were your particular duties with this man ?
A.167 Only Orderly Medical Officer.

Q.168 How many cases did you admit that night ?
A.168 I admitted only one case of gun wound of the head.

Cross-examined:

Q.169 If you did not disturb the surgical dressings, Doctor, then you didn't see the actual holes in the head that evening ?

A.171 Yes.

Q.172 How do you determine which is the point of entry and the point of exit of a bullet ?
A.172 The exit wound is usually far bigger than the entry wound. The exit wound is more extensive than the entry wound. You can also sometimes determine the entry wound by finding powder grains from the actual bullet.

Q.173 Those are the characteristics of pistol or revolver wounds ?
A.173 Yes sir.

Q.174 Did you get any information about the wounds after the surgical dressings were removed ?
A.174 No sir.

A.182 I can't remember the time I was called to him.

Q.183 To whom were you called to see?

Q.184 Did you see Dillon again?
A.184 I was called to the boy Dillon. I attended to him. He was unconscious.
I visited him frequently until I went to bed.

Q.185 What hospital was this?
A.185 He was in No 65 British Gen Hosp.

Q.186 What ward was he in?
A.186 He was in Ward I and later was moved to Ward 3.

Q.187 Did you have anything further to do with this man Dillon?
A.187 Nothing at all.

Q.188 When did you cease to see the patient?
A.188 I saw him on the 2nd of August. We always keep visiting a patient until he regains consciousness. The actual time of his death, I can't remember.

Q.189 Do you recall the date of his death?
A.189 The date I have for his death - the 7th, the day he was buried. I buried him on the 7th.

Q.191 Under what name did you bury him?
A.191 Dillon.

Cross-examined:

Q.192 Padre, are you positive that it was the 2nd of August that you saw him?
A.192 I looked in my diary after seeing the patient and made the entry.

Q.193 Did you make this entry in the diary either at the time you saw him or shortly afterwards?

Q.194 That entry that you have made there, is a reasonably accurate entry? I want you to be satisfied that it is right in your own mind?
A.194 Yes.

Q.195 In making up your entries in your diary, does a new day start after midnight, or if you made an entry a few minutes after midnight, would you make the date of the entry the day before?
A.195 As soon as I attend to the patient, if it is that day, the 2nd of August, I should say the 2nd of August. If it was three o'clock in the morning, I would make the entry on the third.

Q.196 But the individual or patient that you saw on the 2nd of August, is that the patient you buried on the 8th?
A.196 Yes.

Q.197 Then, did you bury him on the 7th?

A.206 I can't remember. I don't make reference in my diary to time.

Q.207 You do not refer to your watch when making entries in your diary. Then, if it was during the night how do you know it was before or after midnight to establish the 2nd? You wouldn't know if it was a minute to 12 or a minute after 12?
A.207 I do not wish to make a definite statement as to the time when I saw the patient.

By the Defending Officer: (with the Court's permission)

Q.208 I want the Court to be satisfied that there is no mistake in the entry in his date book. He has already stated to the Court that it was the 3rd of August. If you saw that man at two o'clock in the morning, you would make that entry on the 3rd?
A.208 Yes sir.

Q.209 You are very satisfied that you saw this body sometime prior to the 3rd of August?
A.209 Yes.

A.290 (The witness points to the Kingston Block.) I thought the shots came from the Kingston Block.

Q.291 Where were you at that time?
A.291 I was here. (Marks point with an "E" on the sketch.)

Q.292 After you left the Guard Room what happened?
A.292 When I was outside I heard two more shots fired.

Q.293 Where did they come from?
A.293 The same direction I thought.

Q.294 When you got outside did you notice anything unusual?
A.294 No sir. There were quite a few drunks around that night.

Q.295 What did you do then?
A.295 I stopped for a moment at the entrance of the Borden Block looking around to see what I could see. It was then I noticed a soldier in front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess trying to get up.

Q.296 What did you do?

Q.297 Did you further investigate this body?
A.297 Yes sir.

Q.298 What did you find out in the investigation?
A.298 When I saw everyone running towards the body, I ran to the body myself.

Q.313 How long to get into the area?
A.313 A matter of seconds.

Q.314 How many?
A.314 About 10 seconds.

Q.315 You were in motion leaving the Guard Room. How soon would you have a view of the scene and be able to see any person running away from the area in which the body was found?
A.315 In the first place I didn't know where the body was. It would take at least 30 seconds to focus.

Q.316 Leaving the office at point "B" on the sketch, I suggest to you that it would be still impossible to take 15 seconds before getting a view of the square. How long did you take?
A.316 10 or 15 seconds. I was walking at the time.

Q.317 You told the Court you were in motion. Are you still satisfied that you would take 15 seconds to get a view after you were in motion on the way out?
A.317 After hearing the first shot it wouldn't take that long. I would think it would take me from 8 to 10 seconds to get out of there.

Q.318 Do you know whether or not there had been a pay day on that evening or before that evening?
A.318 I know that there was one on the 30th of the month.

Q.319 You suggested that there were a lot of drunks about. Does that give you any stimulus to bring back the recollection of a pay day?
A.319 In 1 Bn there are a good many drunks at all times at night; not during parade hours.

Q.320 You have told the Court you saw a body fall?
A.320 No sir, I didn't say that.

A.326 It took five or ten seconds.

Q.327 What particular stimulus was registered in your mind when you first saw this man getting up?
A.327 In my mind I thought he had been drinking.

Q.328 Then thinking he had been drinking, you immediately turned to see if you could see anyone running away from this particular area?
A.328 No sir, I didn't say that.

Q.329 Having seen this body crouched, and having come to the conclusion it was a drunk, you immediately went towards the Borden Block?
A.329 Yes sir.

Q.330 Why were you so anxious to see if anyone was running away if you thought he was drunk?
A.330 I always search the area of 1 Bde.

Q.331 Why do you do it?
A.331 I said I was searching it to find some one.

Q.332 Do you remember giving evidence in the Summary of Evidence?
A.332 Yes sir.

Q.333 You stated in the Summary, "I didn't know there was a drunk about. I looked around to see if there was anything." Do you want to change it?
A.333 No sir.

Q.334 Have you one reason why you thought someone was running away from this particular scene?
A.334 Because I heard a shot fired.

Q.335 Did you happen to see any of the drunks around the gate the day of the firing?
A.335 No sir.

Q.336 Did it occur to you as a possibility?
A.336 No sir.

Q.337 I suggest to you that it is not unusual to hear shots fired?
A.337 It is not unusual.

Q.338 A common occurrence?
A.338 It has happened before, sir.

Q.339 What did you do after you found that the man was injured?
A.339 After the body was picked up, sir?

Q.340 By how many people?
A.340 There was confusion, sir.

WGB

Q.341 How soon after was the body lying there? Did you go over to it?
A.341 I was there when it was picked up.

Q.342 Then you were satisfied that the Guard Comd still had the situation well in hand?
A.342 Yes sir.

Q.343 What investigation did you make? Did you find weapons or missiles of any kind or empty cartridge cases?
A.343 I searched the area where the body was found and never found anything.

Q.344 How soon after hearing the shots was your search made?
A.344 Approximately five or 10 minutes after.

Q.345 Was it a thorough search of the immediate vicinity?
A.345 As thorough as a flashlight would allow.

Q.346 And what distance from the body did you search?
A.346 I searched right around the entrance of the Sgts' Mess 1 Bn.

Q.347 Where would that be?
A.347 Right here, sir. (The witness marks the point with an "S" on sketch.)

Q.348 What were you searching for at the time?
A.348 I was searching for a weapon and also empty cartridges.

Q.349 Did you find any?
A.349 No sir.

Q.350 Now, do you remember whether a draft had recently arrived prior to the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.350 I am pretty sure there was, Mr.

Re-examination:

Q.351 To your knowledge did anyone else search the area before you made your search?
A.351 No sir.

By the Court:

Q.352 You stated you went from your Guard Room to the entrance of the Borden Block direct?
A.352 That is right, sir.

Q.353 What direction did you take, to go from the Guard Room to the Borden Block?
A.353 I am sorry sir, my Guard Room is in the Borden Block and not in the Ottawa Bldg.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.354 Did you or did you not examine the man whom you found lying on the ground?
A.354 No sir, I did not.

Q.355 When you told Capt Rose in re-examination that to your knowledge no other search was made prior to the search which you made, did you mean that you knew that no other search had been made or that you didn't know?
A.355 I didn't know, but to my knowledge nobody had.

W-136

Q.356 How did you arrive at your estimate of the approximate time that you heard the shots?
A.356 There had been a few instances of men jumping or falling out of windows. I had made it a point of looking at anything that happened, so I looked at my watch.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 85 (B).

TWELFTH WITNESS (Lt (A/Capt) T.E. McKee (PPCLI) 8 Bn 1 CBRD for (having been duly sworn Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.357 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd of August, 1944?
A.357 I do.

Q.358 Will you tell the Court what happened on that evening?
A.358 On the 2nd of Aug 44, at about 2350 hrs, I was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess 1 CBRD having a lunch. I heard two shots fired outside. They sounded to be quite close. I got up and walked out to the porch outside. I could smell powder burning. I looked around and saw a body lying on the pavement about eight yds from the porch.

Q.359 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you point out that spot on the sketch?
A.359 The porch is here and the body was lying there. (The witness marks the point with an "H" on the sketch.)

I saw the body lying on the pavement. So I went down to the body. It was a man lying face downwards with his arms stretched out at his side.

Q.360 Would you demonstrate?
A.360 Like this. (Witness demonstrates)

Q.361 What was his condition?
A.361 He was breathing. It sounded quite heavily to me. There was some blood on the pavement which was coming from a hole in his head. I immediately went to 2 Bn RAP and sent the orderly for the Medical Offr. Then I returned to the scene of the accident. There was a number of offrs and men around there by now. I thought the man may have shot himself so I took a look for the weapon. I found nothing. In his left hand I found a set of identity discs which I took and put in my pocket. By this time the MO was removing the body to the MIR. I went into the MIR where I turned the identity discs over to the Adjt 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I just glanced at the discs and saw the name "Robinson" on them.

Q.362 I produce two identity discs. Do you recognize them?
A.362 I would say they are the same discs.

Q.363 Would you read to the Court the name on the discs?
A.363 B.144333, Pte Robinson, Presbyterian, Canadian. (One red and one green identity disc, admitted and marked Exhibit "J".)

Q.364 How were these discs found in the wounded man's hand?
A.364 They were in the left hand of the man who had been shot, clenched tight, with the fingers closed.

Q.365 Were the discs entwined in his hand?
A.365 I could not say, sir, that they were both in his hand. There was one in his hand, and I take it both were held by the string.

Q.366 What did you use a light for?
A.366 I had no light. The moon was shining. It wasn't very dark. I could see the name on the discs.

WRB

Q.367 What was the light outside?
A.367 It was a full moon. The stars were shining and the moon was out. You could see a man walking about 100 yards away.

Cross-examined:

Q.368 How much time had elapsed from the time you heard the shots until the time you got outside on the porch?
A.368 It would not be over a minute.

Q.369 Which part of the Mess were you in?
WBB A.369 I was in the part where we eat/at the end table.
sitting

Q.370 And that is in the part of the Mess nearest the door?
A.370 That is right.

Q.371 Would you have taken a minute to get outside?
A.371 No, it would not if I had jumped right up. I got up and walked out the door.

Q.372 About how many feet was it from where you were sitting to the door?
A.372 Approximately 15 feet.

Q.373 Did you estimate the paces taken as you walked out of the door?
A.373 I just walked over at a normal pace to the door.

Q.374 Did you take about five seconds?
A.374 Not any more.

Q.375 Did it take another second or two to open the door?
A.375 It would take another second or two to get on the porch?

Q.376 Did that not take 15 seconds?
A.376 It wouldn't take more than 15 seconds from the time I started moving until I got out.

Q.377 Why do you say you could have seen a man who was running away from the immediate vicinity of the body?
A.377 If a man had been close - very close - and running out in the open across the parade square, I think I could have seen him.

Q.378 You told the Court you could see a man 100 yds away?
A.378 Right.

Q.379 So within the 15 seconds you could have seen a man running away?
A.379 If he had run along by the building, I may not have seen him.

Q.380 Have you studied ballistics to any extent?
A.380 No.

Q.381 Have you studied the normal amount of ballistics in the "Weapon Training" pamphlet?
A.381 That's right.

Q.382 Was it a very still night or was there any breeze at all?
A.382 I don't think there was very much because I didn't notice it windy at all.

Q.383 I suggest to you that if you were able to smell powder recently burnt from the time you got out on the porch, it would have been fired from the spot on which you were standing. Do you agree with that suggestion?
A.383 I would say that it hadn't been fired very far away from the door way. It could have been up to 25 yds away.

WBB

Q.384 I suggest that you are imagining the smell of that powder. As a result of the information you subsequently learned, you are imagining you smelled it and didn't actually smell it?
A.384 I am convinced that I smelled powder.

Q.385 I suggest that it was a physical impossibility to smell it; impossible according to ballistic ------
A.385 I still say I smelled it.

Q.386 Then you suggest to the Court that it was powder from the bullets you heard fired?
A.386 I cannot say what bullet the smell of the powder came out of as I didn't see it fired.

Q.387 Were you in a particularily mentally alert stage when you were on the porch?
A.387 I would say that I was in my normal mental condition.

Q.388 Was it influenced by a considerable quantity of liquor?
A.388 It was not.

Q.389 I suggest that you had quite a bit to drink prior to the shooting incident, is that correct?
A.389 On the evening of the shooting incident, I had very little to drink.

Q.390 I am not trying to discredit you. Will you tell the Court what quantity you had that evening?
A.390 Throughout the evening I would say I had possibly four drinks of gin and lime.

Q.391 Doubles or singles?
A.391 Singles. I think I could have had four.

Q.392 What directed you to the identity discs?
A.392 In the man's hand?

Q.393 You found a set of identity discs?
A.393 I was actually looking for a weapon. I thought the man had shot himself. While looking for a weapon I was kneeling down at his left side. I saw his hand and something in his hand. When I pulled it, I found a set of identity discs.

Q.394 Did you have any definite instructions for removing the set of identity discs?
A.394 No.

Q.395 They came out easily?
A.395 Fairly easily.

Q.396 Can you, by taking this (hands witness Exhibit "J"), show the Court by putting your hand on the floor, the approximate position of the string?
A.396 I cannot actually sir. His hand was lying right at his left side. I noticed something in it and pulled it out and it was a set of identity discs. (Witness demonstrates the manner in which he found the identity discs in the hand of the injured man.)

Q.397 How much of the string outside of the man's hand was visible to you?
A.397 I cannot say.

Q.398 Are you sure you noticed the identity discs prior to pulling the string?
A.398 I said there was something in his hand. I didn't know they were discs.

Q.399 The string directed you?
A.399 I didn't know there was a string.

WEB

Q.400 Would you describe to the Court whether the string was all in his hand or all out?
A.400 I can't.

Q.401 Describe to the Court whether it was all in or all out?
A.401 That it was all pulled from his hand, no.

Q.402 The normal action of a man struck from behind is to fall forward with his hands stretched, isn't it?
A.402 Yes, I would think that if you were struck from behind you might fall with your hands outstretched on being shot from behind with a .45.

Q.403 You are estimating?
A.403 Yes.

Q.404 Is it normal for a man being struck from behind to have his hands stretched out?
A.404 Yes, it is normal.

Q.405 Now what gave you the idea that this man was shot with a.45?
A.405 The reason I had the idea that he was shot with a .45 was that he had a hole in his head - the doctor states two holes - and some of them found .45 slugs in the area. That is the only reason I have for assuming it.

Q.406 Was your reason for coming to that conclusion based on your own investigations?
A.406 No.

Q.407 You didn't know for sure?
A.407 The doctor said so in the MIR to the others and to myself while a number of men were in there. The .45 shells, I referred to, were shown to me that evening as having been picked up on the scene of the incident.

Q.408 Something like this? (Defending Officer produces a brass casing.)
A.408 Something like it.

Q.409 Anything like this? (Defending Officer produces a steel casing.)
A.409 Yes. (42 WCC brass casing and 42 steel casing admitted and marked Exhibits "K" and "L", respectively.)

Q.410 Did you examine those casings very carefully?
A.410 I don't know.

Q.411 Now were the identity discs held in a very firm grip, as if the wounded individual was hanging on to them for dear life?
A.411 No, I didn't need to exert pressure to remove them.

Q.412 Was it possible that someone could have put or forced anything into his hand?
A.412 It is quite possible.

Q.413 Why did you say these (indicates Exhibit "J") are the same discs you gave to Capt Snell?
A.413 I still say they look like the same discs.

Q.414 Similar?
A.414 Yes.

Q.415 Did you mark the discs when you found them in the hand of the wounded man for purposes of identification?
A.415 I did not.

Q.416 When you found these discs on him did you attach any importance to them?
A.416 No. When I took them, I thought they belonged to the man that was shot.

Q.417 And what did you do?
A.417 I put them in my pocket.

Q.418 And how long afterwards - that evening - was it that you again produced them?
A.418 It would be, I would say, not over three-quarters of an hour.

Q.419 How do you know they are the same ones you took from the hand of the wounded man?
A.419 Because I had taken them from his hand and put them in my pocket. They were still there when I took them out again.

Q.420 What was the impulse that caused you to take them out again?
A.420 When they were trying to find out the names of different people. The Medical Offr said that he had checked the discs of the man who had been shot, and his name was "Dillon". Then I recalled the discs I had in my pocket and turned them over to the Adjt of 2 Bn, Capt Snell. I saw the name "Robinson" on the discs.

Q.421 I suggest to you that you didn't find the identity discs in the hand of the wounded man: that they became apparent to you only at such time as they started to move the body. Do you agree?
A.421 No, I had nothing to do with the moving of the body. I had the discs in my pocket when they started to move the body.

Q.422 Then, if I am under the impression that they were about to move the body when you took the identity discs, I am labouring under a misapprehension?
A.422 They could have been about to move the body, for they did so shortly after.

Q.423 How shortly after, moments, seconds?
A.423 A matter of minutes because they carried the body out on a stretcher after I had the discs.

Q.424 After you got the discs, what amount of time elapsed before the body was moved or carried away?
A.424 I can't say the exact time.

Q.425 Do you know what happened to the beret that the wounded man was wearing?
A.425 I do not.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.426 At the scene of the accident - how many people were around the body?
A.426 I would say there would be six or seven at least. There could have been more around, but right beside the body I would say at least six or seven.

Q.427 Did you speak to anybody about the discs or drew them to their attention?
A.427 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83 (E).

Q.428 Do you recall the night of 2 Aug 44?
A.428 Yes sir.

Q.429 Will you tell the Court what you were doing?
A.429 I was having lunch in the 2 and 3 combined Offrs' Mess when I heard three shots. I went outside to see what was going on. On the steps I found a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge on it.

WBB

Q.430 Would you describe this Glengarry?
A.430 It was an ordinary 48th Glengarry with red dice checks on it.

Q.431 Did you examine the Glengarry immediately?
A.431 I went over and looked at the wounded man. I saw him lying on the ground. Someone handed me a beret which I took to be the wounded man's as there was blood dripping from it. Then I looked at the Glengarry closer and saw the name "A.H. Wilcock" on it.

Q.432 I produce a Glengarry, (Prosecutor shows Exhibit "H") do you recognize it?
A.432 That is the same Glengarry.

Q.433 Where was the man that you saw lying?
A.433 Approximately 15 feet from the door leading into the Mess.

Q.434 I show you Exhibit "G". Would you look at it closely and point out where you saw the body lying?
A.434 About here. (The witness marks point with an "H" on the sketch.)

Q.435 Did you examine the body?
A.435 No, I just looked at the man and saw a pool of blood around his head.

Q.436 At what time was that?
A.436 2240 hrs approximately.

Q.437 As a result of finding the Glengarry what did you do?
A.437 I took it to Capt Cameron, the Coy Comd, and then accompanied Capt Cameron to the 48 Highrs quarters where Wilcock was brought to me and later turned over to the 2 Bn Guard.

Q.438 Did you examine the scene of the accident?
A.438 Yes, quite thoroughly.

Q.439 Did you find anything?
A.439 I didn't find anything myself. I noticed blood on the ground everywhere, and on the steps going into the Mess where I picked up the Glengarry.

Q.440 When you had the beret in your hands, did you examine it?
A.440 I did not examine the beret. I just looked at it and then turned it over to the Guard Comd.

Q.441 Where did you turn it over?
A.441 Outside, at the scene of the accident.

Cross-examined:

Q.442 Did you see the blood on the steps where the Glengarry was found at the same time as you saw the Glengarry?
A.442 No, when I went back.

Q.443 Was that on returning from the body?
A.443 No, on my return from having seen Capt Cameron and Pte Wilcock.

Q.444 Can you tell the Court whether or not the blood was there when you found the beret?
A.444 I am sure I saw the blood. I cannot make a definite statement as to that.

Q.445 What lead you to that conclusion?
A.445 The only thing I can say is that the beret was not carried up the steps by myself or anyone else. The blood may have been there from some other reason.

Q.446 Then your explanation of the blood on the steps is that it did not come from the beret?
A.446 Yes.

Q.447 Did you go out on the porch?
A.447 Yes sir, the porch of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.448 Where was Capt McKee when you got to the beret?
A.448 I didn't see him myself.

Q.449 How long after you heard the shots did you appear on the scene?
A.449 Roughly three minutes.

Q.450 Can you tell us why you did not take less than three minutes?
A.450 Yes. I made a sandwich. After I had the sandwich made, I started to eat it and then walked out of the Mess.

Q.451 What were the ingredients of the sandwich?
A.451 It was ------

Q.452 What was the base of the sandwich?
A.452 Bread.

Q.453 Were there any onions in it?
A.453 Yes.

Q.454 A large amount or small?
A.454 A large amount.

Q.455 Do you remember whether or not there was any bully beef?
A.455 Definitely. There was no bully beef.

Q.456 What time is lunch served for offrs of 2 and 3 pns?
A.456 It is put on the table at 9 o'clock.

Q.457 When you got on the porch, could you smell any powder burning?
A.457 No sir.

Q.458 How did you arrive at the conclusion it was 2240 hrs when you heard the shots?
A.458 The Mess closes at 2230 hrs. It was closed when I started to make the sandwich.

Q.459 Is there any other method of identifying the Glengarry and badge except for the name on the inside?
A.459 The name on the inside is the way I identified it.

Q.460 Did you see a set of identification discs removed from the hand of the wounded man?
A.460 No, I didn't.

Q.461 How many people were around the body when you arrived?
A.461 Quite a number.

Q.462 Could you give us any help as to the number?
A.462 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.463 Was there a certain amount of confusion around the body? Was there chaos and excitement?
A.463 Oh yes.

Q.464 How close were the people coming to the body when they were having a look around?
A.464 Not more than a foot from the body.

Q.465 Would it be very difficult for any of the people around to put anything in the hands of the wounded man?
A.465 I would say it would be very difficult without anyone seeing it.

Q.466 Would it have been possible for others to come up to the body without being noticed by those around?
A.466 Yes, there is a possibility.

WEB

Q.467 Do you know of any fights that might have taken place in the area of 2 or 3 Bn Mess?
A.467 No sir.

Q.468 Do you know what happened to the beret?
A.468 After I had it, it was turned over to Capt Snell, Adjt 3 Bn.

Q.469 You say you saw one drop of blood at the door. Is that correct?
A.469 Yes, that is correct.

Q.470 On the floor of the door or on the door?
A.470 On the ground at the base of the door.

Q.471 Could you assist us by stating whether it was a drop or trail of blood or a pattern?
A.471 It appeared to be a trail of blood part way up the steps, then there was no blood and one drop right at the base of the door.

Q.472 What kind of a night was it as you recollect?
A.472 Very bright.

Q.473 And what was the normal visibility for seeing - across or towards the parade square?
A.473 You could see right across the parade square.

Q.474 Could you have distinguished people, if there had been any between the Ottawa Bldg and the Kingston Bldg? Could you see immediately north?
A.474 Yes.

Q.475 On the left, as you stood on the porch, could you distinguish bodies between yourself and that building?
A.475 Yes.

Q.476 Could you distinguish bodies between yourself and the Borden Block?
A.476 Yes.

Q.477 If you had arrived at the scene where the body was within a matter of seconds of the shooting, could you have seen anyone running across the parade square?
A.477 I could have seen anyone that was running, yes.

Q.478 What type of weapon did you think had been fired when you heard the shots?
A.478 I thought it was a Tommy Gun.

Q.479 Why did you think it was a Tommy Gun?
A.479 From the sound.

Q.480 Any other reason?
A.480 No.

Q.481 Had there been any Tommy Gun firing prior to this on the evening of 2nd August?
A.481 Not that I know of.

Q.482 Had you not heard of any weapon firing at nights?
A.482 Yes, I have heard weapons firing at nights on occasions.

Q.483 In the area of Canada Bks?
A.483 Yes and outside the area of Canada Bks.

Q.484 Is it unusual for shots to be fired at that hour of the night?
A.484 It is unusual, but it has happened.

(4-1313)

Q.485 It could not have been very unusual if it took you three minutes to get out to see it?
A.485 I wasn't terribly startled.

Q.486 When you had the beret, did you notice how many holes in it?
A.486 No, I didn't.

Q.487 How long had you been in Canada Bks prior to the 2nd of Aug?
A.487 About one month.

Q.488 Were 48 Highrs' Glengarries unusual sights around that area at that time?

Q.491 Will you tell the Court whether or not there had been a draft in prior to 2nd Aug 44?
A.491 Yes.

Q.492 And were there quite a number of rfts at the time or a dearth such as now?
A.492 Quite a number.

Q.493 Now can you give us any opinion as what value .45 pistols were in the eyes of the rfts at that time?
A.493 I have no information as to that.

Q.494 In your eyes has an American .45 pistol a certain souvenir value?
A.494 Yes sir.

Q.495 In your experience had you noticed they have a greater value to the rfts recently arrived than to the rfts who have been over for a month or two?
A.495 Yes they have.

Q.496 Did you form any opinion as to what direction these shots were fired from?
A.496 I never formed any opinion.

Q.497 Did you, yourself, make a search for anything in the immediate vicinity immediately after the shooting for a weapon, or did you ignore the issue?
A.497 Yes, we made a search.

Q.498 Can you tell the Court how dilligently that search was conducted?
A.498 There were several members of the Guard and a couple of offrs conducting it. The search was quite thorough.

Q.499 Have you any opinion as to whether or not Thompson Sub Machine Carbines were in good supply around 2 Aug - that is to the personnel of Canada Bks?
A.499 We fired Tommy Guns on the ranges almost daily at that particular time.

Re-examination:

Q.500 What type of ammunition does a Tommy Gun generally fire?
A.500 .45 rimless.

Q.501 I show you Exhibits "K" and "L". Will you examine them? What type of ammunition is that?
A.501 .45.

Q.507 Therefore, that type and that used by Colt are the same?
A.507 Yes sir.

Q.508 In your cross-examination you said that there was "excitement" around the body. Would you tell the Court what you meant?
A.508 I didn't mean excitement. There was quite a number of people around the body, and until the Guard Comd dispersed the crowd there was some confusion.

Q.509 What do you mean by confusion?
A.509 People talking; walking here and there. Nobody seemed to be doing anything.

Q.510 Did you see the Medical Offr arrive?

A.514 Yes sir.

Q.515 What were you doing on that evening?
A.515 On that evening I was .....

Q.516 Will you tell the Court what happened that night?
A.516 At approximately 2230 hrs a man from the 48th Highrs Coy, Pte Wilcock, reported to the Guard Room. I took Pte Wilcock to the Seaforth Coy Office where I spoke to the Coy Sgt Major. I came back downstairs and showed Pte Wilcock where his billets were.

Q.517 Where were his billets?
A.517 At the far end of the camp. I do not know the name of the building. the 48th Highrs were stationed there.

Q.518 I show you Exhibit "G". Where were you when Pte Wilcock reported?
A.518 Here sir. (Witness points to spot "E" on the sketch.)

Q.519 Where did you take Pte Wilcock after he reported to you?
A.519 To the Coy Office of the Seaforths on the second floor of the Petawawa Bldg. (Witness marks spot with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.520 From there where did you take Wilcock?
A.520 After I spoke to the Sgt Major of the Seaforths I brought Pte Wilcock to the opposite side of the Petawawa Bldg. I told him the way to his billets.

Q.521 Where were they?
A.521 The Debert Block. (Indicates on Exhibit "G")

Q.522 Are you sure those are the billets?
A.522 I am not exactly sure, but I took him there to his billets.

Q.523 What else happened that night?
A.523 I was on that side of the building. Pte Wilcock had just left me when I heard two shots fired.

Q.524 Could you say whether it was some distance away or quite close?
A.524 It came from the direction of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.525 What did you do then?
A.525 I returned to the Guard Room.

Q526 What did you do when you returned to the Guard Room?
A.526 I went to where a man had been injured.

Q.527 Where was that?
A.527 In front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.528 What did you do when you went to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.528 When I got to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a pool of blood in front of the steps and half of a sandwich amongst the blood.

Q.529 I show you a sketch, Exhibit "G". Point out where you saw this pool of blood?
A.529 Here sir. (Witness points to point "H" on sketch.)

Q.530 When you arrived there what did you do?
A.530 Well, I tried to determine where the shots had been fired.

Q.531 Did you determine that?
A.531 No, in my hunt I found a .45 casing.

Q.532 What type of casing?
A.532 A .45 calibre.

Q.533 Can you describe the marks on it?
A.533 There weren't any but there was a dark colour on it.

Defending Officer:

I am not satisfied with the method in which the Exhibits are being presented. I feel that there is going to be a lot of irregularity here. I would like the Prosecuting Offr to have the witness properly describe each Exhibit to my satisfaction before it is presented in evidence.

Prosecutor:

There is no doubt in my mind that certain articles were found. I feel that the witness, having found some article, has a right to identify that article if possible.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Rose, could you get the witness to describe, if possible, in every detail, the article which he found before producing it to him in Court?

Prosecutor:

Q.534 Will you describe to the Court where you found this article?
A.534 I picked up a .45 casing about ten feet from the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. It was lying against the curb.

Q.535 Will you point out on the sketch, Exhibit "G", where you found this casing?
A.535 I found it right about there. (Witness marks point with letter "J" on sketch.)

Q.536 Will you describe in detail to the Court the casing that you found?
A.536 There was no difference between it and any other .45 casing. No special marks that I can identify it with.

Prosecutor:

In view of the fact that he cannot describe it correctly I cannot ask the witness to identify it.

Judge Advocate:

He may be able to identify the casing.

Prosecutor:

Q.537 I show you two cartridge cases: marked EC 43 and EC respectively. The number on the latter is unreadable. Are they similar to the ones you found?
A.537 This one is sir.

Q.538 Is this the one you picked up?
A.538 This is the one, yes sir. (Steel casing marked EC 43 admitted and marked Exhibit "M".)

By the Court:

Could I see the two casings shown to the witness? I am fairly certain that later in the proceedings the Court will be able to see them.

Judge Advocate:

It is not permitted to see the other one at this stage. It is not yet in evidence, Major Brown.

Court:

I have a particular reason. There are two distinct types that any witness could identify; a steel casing and a brass casing. The point I wish to establish is whether these two cartridge casings that were shown to the witness were both brass or one brass and one steel.

Judge Advocate:

The witness was shown two casings which were described by number. He picked out one which is marked Exhibit "M". The other, unless identified and produced in evidence, cannot be seen by the Court.

WWII 18

Prosecutor:

Q.539 After you found this casing what action did you take?
A.539 I turned the casing over to the Offr of the Guard.

Q.540 Who was that?
A.540 Lt Dolan who was present at the time.

Q.541 What else did you do?
A.541 After turning over the casing, I reported to the Guard Room.

Q.542 What time was this?
A.542 Approximately 2230 hrs.

Q.543 How did you establish the time?
A.543 Well, I am not sure. At nine o'clock the guard relief came on. From then until one o'clock we act as Regtl Police. Men coming in after curfew, approximately 10 or 10:15 o'clock, report to the Guard Room. About 10 minutes after curfew Pte Wilcock reported to the Guard Room.

Q.544 What time was it when you found the casing?
A.544 About 2245 hrs.

Q.545 After you returned to the Guard Room where did you go?
A.545 Well, after I returned to the Guard Room, we went out in different groups to look over the Camp and see if the hold-up man could be found.

Q.546 Did you find him?
A.546 No sir.

Q.547 Then what did you do?
A.547 We came back to the Guard Room. I proceeded back to the scene of the shooting.

Q.548 What did you do there?
A.548 There were several guards and offrs still around. One of the guards was still looking around and found a second .45 casing.

Q.549 What else happened?
A.549 It was turned over to one of the offrs present.

Q.550 What did you do about it?
A.550 I did nothing as the offrs seemed to take charge.

Q.551 What did you do after that?
A.551 We returned to the Guard Room. The following morning Lt Dolan sent me to the Seaforth Bldg to get Pte Wilcock's number and name.

Q.552 Did you go to the Seaforth Office?
A.552 Yes, but I did not obtain the number.

Q.553 Did you find anything there?
A.553 I reported and then I went down the steps of the bldg where I picked up a second .45 casing.

Q.554 I show you Exhibit "G". Where did you find the second casing?
A.554 On the steps going out of the billets in the Petawawa Bldg. I was coming out of the building, going down the steps. I found it on the steps about here. (Witness marks point with letter "I" on sketch.)

Q.555 Will you describe to the Court the casing you picked up?
A.555 The casing I picked up was not perfect. It had been stepped on. It was similar to the first casing except that it had been stepped on.

WBB

Q.556 I now show you a cartridge casing EC, apparently steel. Is that the casing you found?
A.556 Yes sir, I would say it was. (Admitted and marked Exhibit "N".)

Q.557 What did you do with that casing?
A.557 I brought it back to the Guard Room and reported to my offr, Lt Dolan.

Cross-examined:

Q.558 Why did you say so definitely that this (Exhibit "N") is the casing you found?
A.558 I am not saying that it was.

Q.559 Your words were, "That is the casing I found"?
A.559 I don't believe I said that.

Q.560 Then you say it is similar to the casing you found?
A.560 Yes.

Q.561 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". By looking at the base can you notice any similarity of manufacture by company and by year?
A.561 It doesn't look like it.

Q.562 When you looked at the base of them did you notice the initials of the manufacturer on the back?
A.562 Both have the same number and year on the back.

Q.563 You saw that they are of the same manufacture, and that they apparently came in the same package?
A.563 Yes sir.

Q.564 In unloading a magazine isn't it usual to pick out cartridges bearing the same number and year?
A.564 Yes sir.

Q.565 Do you realize that when an automatic pistol is fired the empty cartridge is ejected?
A.565 Yes sir.

Q.566 You heard two shots?
A.566 Yes sir.

Q.567 Did you make any estimate as to the distance of the ejection from the automatic weapon?
A.567 No sir.

Q.568 Did you know that if you fired two shots from the same weapon the distance of ejection of the casings would be the same?
A.568 Yes sir.

Q.569 What is the distance between points "J" and "I" on Exhibit "G"?
A.569 I would say about 100 yds.

Q.570 Right. Then would you say that the person firing the pistol had sufficient time to get from one spot to the other?
A.570 Well sir ------

Q.571 Was there sufficient time for the man to cover that distance between the two explosions?
A.571 No sir, not over that distance.

Q.572 So that there could not be any relation between the two casings and the two shots?
A.572 That depends if it was the last shot of the weapon.

Q.573 You do not know. You said the time elapsing between the firing of the two shots was not sufficient for a person to cover the distance between the two casings. Was there sufficient time?
A.573 No sir.

C.S

Q.574 You showed Wilcock where his billets were?
A.574 Yes sir.

Q.575 Did he require your assistance?
A.575 Pte Wilcock had been drinking and was excited.

Q.576 Was he a little bit irrational?
A.576 Yes sir.

Q.577 Were you in the building when you heard the shots?
A.577 I was in the open when I heard the shots fired.

Q.578 From where you were standing when you heard the shots fired, did you have a clear view of the entrance of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.578 No sir.

Q.579 You were outside of the Petawawa Bldg?
A.579 Yes sir.

Q.580 How long did it take you to get around to have a view of the front of the building?
A.580 About half a minute, sir.

Q.581 30 seconds is a long time?
A.581 Yes sir.

Q.582 Did you speed up?
A.582 Yes sir.

Q.583 Then you still think it took 30 seconds?
A.583 I imagine it was about that.

Q.584 What type of a night was it?
A.584 A medium night - neither bright nor dark.

Q.585 What would be the approximate distance of visibility for moving bodies?
A.585 From about 40 to 50 yards.

Q.586 What were your duties as Guard Comd at Canada Bks with reference to unusual occurrences?
A.586 My duties are to see that something is being done about it. At that time I had an Offr of the Guard and Guard Sgt.

Q.587 What were your duties when you heard the shots? Did you do the things you ought to have done?
A.587 When I heard the shots I went in the direction of the shots.

Q.588 Did you go to the entrance of Canada Bks at that time?
A.588 Yes sir. I went to the Guard Room first and then to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.589 Was it unusual to hear shots fired at that time?
A.589 No sir, it wasn't.

Q.590 It might have been fired by any gun or might have been fired by the Guard at Italians?
A.590 No sir. They have nothing to do with the Italians except if they come through the gate. The guard has to help look after the gate and the Regtl Police picquet the walls of the Camp.

Q.591 We have been told there were a number of drunks coming in. Is that right?
A.591 It is generally that way every night. There was no difference that night.

Q.592 Were there a number of drunks?
A.592 I don't know sir. I wasn't on the gate.

W 12/3

Q.593 I suggest to you that when you saw the casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", that it was apparent to you that they had both been exposed to the elements for some time?

A.593 I didn't tell you that.

Q.594 Take Exhibit "M" which I show you. Why do you say that is the first one you found that night in the bks?

A.594 Yes sir.

Q.595 Would you examine it? Is it apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements and lying on the ground for some time?

A.595 I didn't examine it closely.

Q.596 I show you Exhibit "N" which you picked up the following morning. I suggest that it was apparent to you that it had been exposed to the elements for some considerable time?

A.596 I can't answer that. I don't know.

Q.597 (Witness is shown Exhibits "M" and "N".) Will you examine the marks made by the firing pin and tell the Court if there is any similarity between the marks of the two firings?

A.597 Both marks are similar except one is very deep.

Defending Officer:

I don't want to labour the Court but I want facts. I suggested before that there is no similarity between the cartridge casings. I am endeavouring to explain to the Court by this examination of the witness. I leave it to you, gentlemen.

Cross-examination (continued):

Q.598 Have you taken your normal common-to-all-arms training in the infantry?

A.598 Yes sir.

Q.599 Are you acquainted with the lessons on the theory of small arms fire?

A.599 Fairly well, sir.

Q.600 Therefore, you know that the firing pin of a pistol will make an identical mark on any cartridge case fired from that particular pistol?

Prosecutor:

It is not proved that this soldier knows anything about a .45 pistol. That doesn't come in "Small Arms Traini g".

The Court:

I don't think there is much harm done.

Defending Officer:

Q.601 You know that every firing pin, when fired, makes the same kind of a mark?

A.601 I never said so, sir.

Q.602 Will you state from your military knowledge whether or not the firing pin is the same in all guns?

A.602 No sir. The firing pin in weapons don't all look the same.

Q.603 I am speaking of a specific weapon. Will it or will it not leave an identical mark on the casing of the cartridge it expels, other things being equal?

A.603 I don't know sir.

Q.604 When you found the sandwich by the pool of blood what was your reaction?
A.604 Well, I presumed the man had dropped it there when he had been attacked by the other man.

Q.605 Did you make any check to ascertain if this was so?
A.605 No sir.

Q.606 Is it possible that a man could eat a sandwich with one hand and pull the identity discs off with the other?
A.606 No sir.

Q.607 When that sandwich was found, approximately how many inches was it away from the body?
A.607 There were several pieces, some in the blood and some away from it.

Q.608 How far were the farthest pieces away from the body?
A.608 About four of five inches.

Q.609 Did you examine the body on any occasion?
A.609 I did not see the body.

Q.610 You did not see the body?
A.610 No sir.

Q.611 Do you know of anyone who reported this matter, or anyone who suggested that an investigation should be made?
A.611 No sir.

Q.612 Did you report the matter of this shooting that evening for investigation?
A.612 No sir, I did not.

Re-examined:

Q.613 What light did you use when you were looking about the front of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.613 Well, I used a few matches that I had. There were also flashlights there.

Q.614 When you found the cartridge casing, Exhibit "M", what light did you use?
A.614 I forget whether it was a flashlight or match. I don't know.

By the Court:

Q.615 Was Pte Wilcock wearing any headgear when he reported to you?
A.615 No sir.

Q.616 Have you ever before seen casings lying about Canada Bks similar to those which you found?
A.616 Yes sir.

Q.617 When you took Pte Wilcock to the Coy Office and reported the incident to the WO, why was it necessary to accompany him to his own billets?
A.617 I took him to the Seaforths office.

Q.618 Why was it necessary to show him to his billets?
A.618 He did not seem to know how to get to his billets.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

FIFTEENTH WITNESS (B.73385 Cpl De Harte, WL (48 Highrs) 3 Bn 1 CBRD for Prosecution (having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.619 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd August, 1944?
A.619 Yes sir.

Q.620 What happened on that evening?
A.620 At about 2130 hrs I entered the Main Gate of 1 CBRD with two of my friends. We had been downtown and had a few drinks. When we got to the gate, we met a man from the Hast & PER who stopped us and started to talk to us. He appeared to be quite drunk. After a minute or two an argument started between the Hasty P and one of my friends.

Q.621 Do you know the name of this Hast & PER man?
A.621 Yes sir.

Q.622 What was his name?
A.622 His name was "Dillon".

Q.623 What happened then?
A.623 As it appeared that a fight might start, I soon got my friends to their billets and then tried to persuade the Hasty P man to go to his billets. He seemed to be on his way so I went to my Orderly Room and reported to my duty NCO. Then I returned to my billets which, at that time, were in 1 Bn Bldg.

Q.624 What was the name of the building?
A.624 I don't know the name of the building. The people of 1 Bn were in it.

Q.625 I show you Exhibit "Q", a sketch of Canada Bks. Will you point out the building?
A.625 This is the building. (Witness indicates the Borden Block.)

Q.626 Will you carry on with your statement?
A.626 While crossing the main parade square to the Borden Block, I ran into the Hasty P man again. He was just starting an argument with a stranger. I sent the stranger to his billets. While I was doing so, the Hasty P man ran into another party and started to argue with him. I also sent this other party to his billets, and once more tried to convince the Hasty P man to go to his billets. After a few minutes a man came up who was wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry with a 48 Highrs badge.

Q.627 Now, do you know this man you saw?
A.627 The new man sir.

Q.628 Yes?
A.628 Yes sir.

Q.629 Who was the new man?
A.629 He was the accused, sir.

Q.630 Is he in Court?
A.630 Yes sir.

Q.631 Where?
A.631 Sitting at this table, sir. (Indicates the table where the accused and Defending Offr are sitting.)

Q.632 What happened then?
A.632 The accused said, "Have you any money?".

Q.633 Who did he say that to?
A.633 The Hasty P man, sir.

W.B.

Q.634 What happened after that?
A.634 The Hasty P man asked "Why"? The Seaforth man then said "Give me a buck, I want a Buck" in a demanding voice.

Q.635 What did you do about this?
A.635 I decided that another argument was about to start. As I was having too much trouble trying to get the Hasty P man to keep out of trouble; and that seemed impossible, I returned to my billets. A few moments after I was in my room I heard a shot fired, followed by another. As that was frequent around Canada Bks at night, I paid no attention to it.

Q.636 What was the light like that night?
A.636 The moon was out. While I was on the parade square it was shining brightly.

Q.637 Do you recall what state of moon it was?
A.637 No sir.

Q.638 Could you recognize the Glengarry the accused was wearing that night?
A.638 You mean the Glengarry ..... ?

Q.639 Yes.
A.639 No sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.640 Cpl, why did you look around the room before stating that the accused was on my left? Was he the man on the parade square in this little part of your story?
A.640 I was asked if the accused was in the room. I have never been in this room before so I looked around to make sure that the man was in it and had not left it by another door.

Q.641 Why did you start looking from the right? The first person you looked at was the accused. Then you came back and looked to my left. Why that performance?
A.641 I did not at first notice that the accused was sitting on your left, sir.

Q.642 How often have you seen the accused since the night of 2 Aug?
A.642 Four or five times sir.

Q.643 Now tell the Court the first time you saw him?
A.643 The first time was at the Court of Inquiry on the morning of Aug 3rd.

Q.644 What time in the morning?
A.644 Somewhere between 0930 and 1030 hrs.

Q.645 Where was the accused?
A.645 Standing between his escort in the hallway of the Admin Wing of 1 CBRD.

Q.646 He didn't have a hat on?
A.646 Yes sir.

Q.647 Did you not observe him for at least 30 to 45 minutes?
A.647 Yes sir.

Q.648 Then there should be no difficulty in identifying the accused?
A.648 No sir.

Q.649 How often have you seen him since?
A.649 I saw him against the Summary of Evidence which was held in the Guard Comd's Room at 1 CBRD a few days later.

WBG

WB18

Q.650 Now to go back to the morning of the 3rd of Aug; you knew him as the accused before you knew him as "Robinson"?
A.650 Yes sir.

Q.651 Were you ever asked to identify him at a proper identification parade?
A.651 Yes sir. Major Morgan paraded five or six men into the CO's Office of 3 Bn and asked me to identify the man.

Q.652 You had seen him several times before this identification parade?
A.652 Yes sir.

Q.653 How much information about the accused did you have prior to the identification parade?
A.653 He was involved in some transaction on the 2nd of Aug. I had heard that a Hast & PER man had been shot on the night of the 2nd of Aug; and that a 48 Highrs Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting. So I reported to my Comd that I had left a Hast & PER man and a Seaforth man wearing a Glengarry in an argument on 1 Bn parade square.

Q.654 After you left Dillon arguing on the parade square, did you see the other man again?
A.654 No sir.

Q.655 Were you ever asked to identify him?
A.655 No sir.

Q.656 How well did you know Dillon?
A.656 While trying to argue him into going back to his billets I said I would meet him the next day and try to go into this idea he had that everyone was against him. I asked him his name and arranged to meet him the next day. He said his name was "Dillon".

Q.657 Then you can't tell the Court you were the last person who saw the man who was arguing with the man who gave his name as "Dillon"?
A.657 No sir.

Q.658 Then in point of fact there was no relationship that you could give between the argument and the incident of the shooting?
A.658 Yes sir.

Q.659 Why do you say "yes"?
A.659 Because the 48th Glengarry had been found at the scene of the shooting.

Q.660 Are you sure it was at the scene of the shooting?
A.660 Certainly sir.

Q.661 How did you find out it had been found on the parade square?
A.661 I had been told that a Hasty P man had been shot and the 48th Glengarry was found at the scene of the shooting. I had also been told that Pte Wilcock had been robbed of a Glengarry the night before. The combination of a Seaforth flash and a 48th hat badge appeared to me the answer.

Q.662 You told the Court quite clearly that you had the accused under observation before being asked to identify him on a proper identification parade, is that correct?
A.662 Yes sir.

Q.663 Then there is no excuse for making any mistake about it?
A.663 No sir.

Defending Officer:

I seek the advice of the Judge Advocate. I wish to register a complaint about the method by which the accused was identified.

Judge Advocate:

That is more a matter for argument. You have a strong talking point.

Defending Officer:

Q.664 When you left the last two men arguing on the parade square, there was never any thought in your mind that any violence would ensue?
A.664 None other than fisti-cuffs.

Q.665 There was nothing in the conduct of these two individuals which in your opinion would warrant you, as a reasonable NCO, to stay and see that nothing happened?
A.665 No sir.

Q.666 Can you give me the approximate time you left the two men arguing?
A.666 Some time about 2230 hrs.

Q.667 Now you, as an NCO, are responsible to see the soldiers get in on time. Is that not true?
A.667 I was not on duty at that time.

Q.668 Do you not do anything but what you are told to do? Have you no initiative of your own?
A.668 Yes sir.

Q.669 Can you tell the Court whether or not this incident was after the normal body check or roll call at Canada Bks?
A.669 After sir.

Q.670 How much after?
A.670 Half an hour after.

Q.671 Are you sure you are not getting stuck with something and are qualifying your answers?
A.671 I don't understand.

Q.672 Why do you say it was half an hour after the body check?
A.672 Normal Tattoo is at 2145 hrs and takes until approximately 2200 hrs. It was at 2230 hrs that I left the two soldiers on the parade square.

Q.673 When you saw this individual wearing the Glengarry on his head, did you see articles in his hands or on his person?
A.673 No sir.

Q.674 Was there anything to indicate that he might be carrying a weapon?
A.674 No sir.

Q.675 Could you tell the Court whether or not a new draft arrived from England a few days before the 2nd Aug?
A.675 Yes sir.

Q.676 It did?
A.676 Yes sir.

Q.677 Were the billets at Canada Bks rather crowded at that time?
A.677 Yes sir.

Q.678 What would you say that the normal visibility was at 10 o'clock that night?
A.678 There was a bright moon.

Q.679 You mentioned a bright moon. Elaborate?
A.679 I would say the visibility of a moving body would be 75 to 100 yds. Detailed recognition at 10 to 15 yds.

W-818

Q.680 Visibility of a normal moving body at 75 to 100 yds?
A.680 Yes sir. Silhouette.

Q.681 Are the times you gave the Court, estimates?
A.681 That is right.

Q.682 What was your condition? Had you been drinking?
A.682 Yes sir.

Q.683 You and your companions were in a happy mood?
A.683 No sir. We had only four or five glasses of vermouth.

Q.684 Were you not in a jovial frame of mind?
A.684 No sir.

Q.685 Were you completely cold sober?
A.685 Yes sir.

Q.686 How much had you had to drink?
A.686 Four or five glasses of vermouth at 10 lire a glass.

Q.687 When did you arrive at Canada Bks? How long have you been there?
A.687 From 26 Jun 44 sir.

Q.688 Have you noticed that new drafts coming to this country are anxious to obtain weapons or souvenirs?
A.688 No sir.

Q.689 You have had no experience?
A.689 No sir.

Q.690 Have you had any requests from soldiers for American or Italian weapons?
A.690 No sir. Only from men of my unit who work with field units.

Q.691 Would you say that at Base there is a desire on the part of soldiers to obtain German or American weapons?
A.691 I have not had any such experience. I had heard of men of the Merchant Navy wanting them.

Q.692 Not Canadians?
A.692 No sir.

Q.693 Do you get around very much?
A.693 No sir.

Q.694 Did you notice the condition of any of the soldiers returning to Canada Bks while you were returning - whether there were many drunks or not?
A.694 There were quite a few men coming back to camp under the influence of liquor of some sort.

Q.695 The time limit, you gave in evidence, was from 10 to 10:30 o'clock?
A.695 No sir, 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Q.696 Would you say the men under the influence were happy and carefree?
A.696 Yes sir.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.697 What time elapsed from the time you left the two arguing until the time the shots were fired?
A.697 Three or four minutes.

W12/13

Q.698 You left them walking across the parade square and walked to your room on the third floor?
A.698 Yes sir.

Q.699 What were you doing when you heard the shots?
A.699 Getting into bed.

Q.700 Can you point out on Exhibit "G" where the conversation took place between the man you said was "Dillon" and the other individual who you stated had on a 48 Highrs Glengarry and Seaforth flashes?
A.700 Yes sir. They were on 1 Bn Sports Field. (Witness marks point with letter "K" on sketch.)

Q.701 Also you stated that you were talking to a Hast & PER man at the gate who was in an argument with one of your friends?
A.701 Yes sir.

Q.702 Later you were crossing the parade square when you saw this person whom you believed to be the same individual in another argument?
A.702 Yes sir.

Q.703 Didn't you state that there was another argument with the individual you identified wearing a 48th Glengarry and Seaforth badges?
A.703 That was a fourth man.

Q.704 That was the fourth argument you had with the person presumed to be Dillon that night? You are a Cpl, but you didn't feel he was sufficiently under the influence of liquor or behaving in a manner to warrant assistance?
A.704 No sir.

Q.705 Had you ever seen or had the occasion to observe the accused prior to the night of 2 Aug 44?
A.705 No sir.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.706 In your evidence, Cpl, you stated that you had been downtown with friends on the 2nd Aug. What place do you refer/as downtown?

Q.757 Did Robinson have the appearance of a man asleep when you first saw him at 2330 hrs?

A.765 When the battalion report is turned in to the RSM. That was the only report.

Q.766 What did you say to the offr?

Re-examination:

Q.767 What time was the Tattoo roll call made?
A.767 Ten o'clock.

Q.768 Who made the Tattoo Report?
A.768 The Sgt of that Platoon.

A.772 I just told the offr that I had seen the Tattoo Report.

Q.773 At what time did you tell this to the offr?

A.779 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS(Capt J.H. Snell, 2 Bn 1 CBRD
for (having been duly sworn
Prosecution(is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.780 Will you state to the Court your appointment and unit?
A.780 I am the Adjt of 2 Bn.

Q.781 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.781 Yes sir. I recall it.

Q.782 Will you tell the Court, to your knowledge, what happened that evening?
A.782 I returned to Canada Bks at approximately 2315 hrs and found a few soldiers and offrs crowding around the entrance of the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. I went to the 2 Bn MIR where I found Capt Verdicchio, 2 Bn MO, and Capt McKee, PPCLI. From information I received, I ascertained that a soldier had been shot on the main square outside the entrance of the Offrs' Mess. While still in the MIR, Capt McKee gave me a set of identity discs bearing the name of "Pte Robinson", number - "B.144333".

Q.783 I show you Exhibit "J". Do you recognize this?
A.783 I recognize the discs as the ones given to me by Capt. McKee.

Q.784 What did you do then? W-1313
A.784 Major Bernier, Paymaster, 2 Bn, who was present at the MIR, and I, endeavoured to find the owner of the discs through the card index system of 3 Bn. It appeared that they would have some bearing on the incident. We found the owner of the discs to be a Seaforth soldier. The number corresponded to one of the Seaforth cards in the 2 Bn Card Index. Major Bernier accompanied me to the Seaforth Office in the Seaforth billets. I found that Pte Robinson was billeted in the Seaforth quarters. The NCO got a candle as there was not sufficient light, and we went to the soldier's bed, which was an outside bed in one of the bays where the soldiers were sleeping. I found the soldier asleep on his face on the bed. I awakened him and asked him his name.

Q.785 Is that soldier in this Court Room?
A.785 Yes, I recognize Pte Robinson as the soldier I awakened on finding him in the Seaforth building. I noticed at the time that Pte Robinson's lips were cut and his face scratched. I told the Orderly NCO, Cpl Shaw, to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn RP. Major Bernier and myself searched the kit of Pte Robinson while he was still there. We found a .45 automatic, Army pattern, at the top of Pte Robinson's bed. I observed the magazine, finding that the gun was empty. I smelled the gun and detected a smell of cordite powder as if it had been recently fired.

Q.786 Will you fully describe the pistol in question?
A.786 The pistol was a .45 model: American make, .45 automatic. It was rusted slightly and not in very good condition. The number I first took from it was M.1911 which I later found was the model number only. The pistol was identical with an Army pattern .45. The only distinct feature I can recollect is that it was slightly rusted and did not appear in good shape. The number I ascertained at a later time. The pistol remained in my possession for a period of time. I am sure it was the same pistol.

Q.787 What was the number of the pistol?
A.787 I don't recall.

Q.788 Have you got any memoranda on your person?
A.788 I jotted down a few points: the number of the pistol and a few witnesses present on the evening of the incident.

Q.789 When did you make these notes?
A.789 I made these notes in the Bn Orderly Room while the Summary of Evidence was being prepared.

Q.790 Was the pistol out of your possession at that time?
A.790 Yes. The pistol was turned over to Major Morgan of 3 Bn who completed the Court of Inquiry. It was returned to me personally with the exhibits on completion of the Court of Inquiry. The exhibits were then placed under lock and key and specifically turned over to Lt Murphy who had them at various times until the completion of the Summary of Evidence. They were then returned for safe-keeping to 2 Bn.

Q.791 I am producing this weapon for your inspection. I want you to state to the Court if that weapon is the one you found on the night of the incident or not?
A.791 To the best of my knowledge that pistol is the same pistol I found on the night of the incident.

Q.792 How do you identify the pistol?
A.792 I recognize the pistol from its rusty appearance, also the corrosion contained in the barrel which I originally noticed at the time the pistol was found. (.45 automatic pistol, stamped "United States Property M1911 AI US Army No.948416 Remington Rand Inc, Syracuse, N.Y., USA", admitted and marked Exhibit "O".)

Q.793 After the revolver was found did you make any further inspections?
A.793 Yes, we searched the kit.

Q.794 Was the accused present at the time?
A.794 Yes, to the best of my knowledge the accused was present.

Q.795 Did you find anything?
A.795 The holster was found.

Q.796 Did you find the holster?
A.796 Major Bernier found the holster.

Q.797 Was the accused present at the time?
A.797 As far as I can recall the accused was present.

Q.798 Would you describe the holster?
A.798 To the best of my knowledge, the holster was a typical American one.

WWB

Defending Offr:

It is important to note that the witness eludes the Court by answering "To the best of my knowledge". I am convinced, myself, that the kit inspection was not carried out in the presence of the accused.

Judge Advocate:

I think the Court will object if they feel convinced that the manner in which a witness answers is unfair to the accused.

Defending Offr:

I am a little anxious that the Court should find out why he says "To the best of my knowledge".

Judge Advocate:

Will the witness please give specific answers? Capt Rose, [redacted] whether or not the accused was present when his kit was searched?

Prosecuter:

Q.799 Was the accused present when you searched the kit alleged to belong to the accused?
A.799 Yes.

Defending Offr:

This witness was not present and did not search the kit himself. If the Court were to adjourn, the Court would see from the .....

A.799 (continued):

The accused was lying on his bed. I was standing near his bed. I awakened the accused. Major Bernier was going to search his kit. I was questioning the accused as to who he was. I assisted Major Bernier in the search of the man's kit. The man was present.

Q.800 To whom do you refer when you say, "The man was present"?.
A.800 Pte Robinson.

Q.801 What did you find in his kit?
A.801 I found it was the ordinary soldier's kit. I didn't find the pistol. I didn't find the holster.

Q.802 Who was present when either the pistol or the holster were found?
A.802 Major Bernier and Cpl Shaw of the Seaforths were present.

Q.803 Where were you and where was the accused?
A.803 The accused was sitting up on his bed. I was sitting down on the left side of his bed. Major Bernier was on my left. The NCO was standing behind Major Bernier, to his left, in the hallway between the bays.

Q.804 Did you see either the automatic or the holster found?
A.804 I saw Major Bernier find the pistol at the top of Pte Robinson's bed.

W1313

Q.805 Did you see the holster found?
A.805 I didn't see it found, the spot, but Major Bernier produced the holster there. It was found in the kit.

Q.806 After these articles were found what did you do?
A.806 I told the Cpl to place Pte Robinson under close arrest and take him to the RP of 2 Bn, informing him I would be over later.

Q.807 Did you see the accused later?
A.807 Yes.

Q.808 Where?
A.808 At the RP 2 Bn.

Q.809 What happened at that time?
A.809 Major Bernier and I proceeded to the RP 2 Bn and tried to find out more about this incident. I got hold of the RP Sgt - Sgt Leclerc, and told him to bring the accused to me. The accused was brought to me.

Q.810 What did you do then?
A.810 I warned Pte Robinson. This was in 2 Bn Detn Room.

Q.811 Where were you sitting?
A.811 I was sitting at the table in the office of the detn barrack. The accused was standing in front of me.

Q.812 What did you say to the accused?
A.812 Major Bernier was sitting on my left. Sgt Leclerc was standing to the left of the accused. I warned the accused or said to the accused that he could make a voluntary statement under oath, and that it would be taken down in writing and perhaps later be used as evidence. As far as I can recall, these are the words I used.

Q.813 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.813 No threats or promises were made to the accused with the exception that I offered him some cigarettes which he smoked.

Q.814 Was any violence offered to the accused?
A.814 No.

Q.815 Was the accused in any manner, shape or form given any indication that if he made a statement things would be easier for him?
A.815 No.

Q.816 Was there a statement made?
A.816 I prepared a statement in pencil.

Q.817 Will you detail to the Court exactly what you did?
A.817 I asked the accused if he minded telling some of the events that happened during the evening. He made no objection. I asked the accused if he was aware of the order concerning the wearing of identity discs.

Defending Offr:

I object to the answers of the accused being admitted because the witness must have made up his mind to lay a charge against the accused at this stage. The statement must have been obtained in accordance with "The Judges Rules" as set out in para 78 MML p.91. I also object to any verbal answers the accused made as they are equally a part of the statement made by the accused.

Judge Advocate:

Do you object to both written and oral statements?

Defending Offr:

Yes sir.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Snell, the result of the objection is that at this stage you may not, until the Court decides it is admissable, tell the Court what were the contents of the written statement the accused made. The Court may hear what went on between you and the accused when making the statement. Nothing he said or the contents of the statement can be given in evidence until the Court rules that they are admissable.

Prosecutor:

Q.818 Will you tell the Court in what manner you obtained this statement or any statement from the accused?
A.818 I obtained the statement by asking the accused two or three questions which I wrote down. I received answers to these questions which I wrote down in the accused's own words. On the completion of the statement, I read it back to the accused in the presence of the witnesses I have mentioned. Then I asked him to sign it.

Q.819 Did you cross-examine the accused on his statement?
A.819 No I did not.

Prosecutor:

I submit that the statement of the accused given to the witness should be admitted into evidence.

Judge Advocate:

The Defending Offr has the right to cross-examine this witness on the manner of obtaining the statement. You may call other witnesses who were present at the time of the taking of the statement. The accused has the right to give evidence if he so wishes. This is what is known as a "Trial within a Trial".

Cross-examined:

Q.820 Have you seen the statement since you first took it on the night of 2 August?
A.820 Yes.

Q.821 Do you recall it? It seems to be in four or five different paras?
A.821 Yes.

Q.822 And each of these paras is the answer to a specific question you wrote down?
A.822 Yes.

Q.823 These questions were not asked by you merely to clear up an ambiguity or were they to .....
A.823 Clarify please.

Q.824 The questions you asked were not questions to clear up something you had learned of the incident from what the accused had just told you?
A.824 No.

WBB

Q.825 What was the condition of the accused? Had he been drinking?
A.825 Yes.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.826 You say he had been drinking: to what extent in your opinion?
A.826 I say he had been drinking because I could smell liquor on his person. But he was standing perfectly upright and was in full possession of his faculties. Therefore, I took the statement.

Defending Offr:

I would like to ask a couple of questions of the witness.

Judge Advocate:

I have a few to ask myself. I will question the witness. If I do not cover the precise points you have in mind, the Court will put your questions for you.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.827 When the accused was brought to you by Sgt Leclerc in the Detn Room office, did you explain to him that you were investigating the shooting which occurred in Canada Bks earlier that evening?
A.827 Yes. First I warned the accused. I told him there had been a shooting. After the warning, I asked him what he knew of it.

Q.828 I take it there was a reply to this preliminary question?
A.828 He didn't .....
Yes.

Q.829 Did you at any time form an opinion in your mind as to the accused being guilty or likely guilty of doing this shooting?
A.829 No. I wouldn't say that sir. I had a confused impression of the whole affair and was merely investigating.

Q.830 What period of time elapsed from the time that Cpl Shaw took the accused away from his quarters until the accused was brought before you again?
A.830 I would say a matter of five or ten minutes, fifteen minutes at the outside.

Q.831 Did you or did you not, before you asked the accused to sign this statement, ask him to read it over in order to make any corrections in it if he so wished?
A.831 I read the statement I had written to the accused and asked him if he wanted to say anything else or put anything else down.

By the Court:

Q.832 In the presence of the accused at the bedside, was there any confusion regarding ownership of the pistol?
A.832 I don't remember.

Defending Offr:

I would like the Court to put a question to the witness - whether or not he had made up his mind to lay a charge.

By the Court:

Q.833 Capt Snell, did you make up your mind to lay a charge against the accused when you found the pistol in the bed clothes of the accused's bed?
A.833 No, I felt that in my capacity as Adjt, an investigation should ensue before any charges could be laid. At the time we merely held Robinson in safe custody.

Q.834 Do you know whether or not a charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the pistol?
A.834 Yes.

Q.835 When was it laid?
A.835 On the completion of the Court of Inquiry?

Q.836 When did that take place?
A.836 I don't remember - about one or two days later.

Q.837 Who laid the charge?
A.837 We laid it - 2 Bn. I laid it.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of HP 83(3).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS(Major J. Bernier, RCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, for (having been duly sworn,
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the Court at this moment is only concerned with ascertaining the facts leading up to the obtaining of a certain statement or statements from the accused. The previous witness has given evidence that a statement was obtained. He has described or given his version of the manner he obtained it. The Defending Offr has objected to the admissibility of the accused's answers and the statement. So we are only concerned with what transpired up to the obtaining of the statement.

Q.838 Will you give the Court your appointment?
A.838 I am Paymaster of 2 Bn.

Q.839 Do you recall the evening of the 2nd Aug 44?
A.839 I do.

Q.840 Were you in 2 Bn Detn Bks that night?
A.840 I was.

Q.841 Who else was there?
A.841 Capt Snell, the Adjt of 2 Bn, along with several witnesses in connection with the accident that happened that night and the accused whom I now recognize in this Court Room.

Q.842 Will you tell the Court what was said to the accused but not what the accused said in reply? You were in this room; where were you?
A.842 I was sitting next to Mr Snell at a desk in the Guard Room.

Q.843 You spoke to the accused?
A.843 I didn't. No sir.

Q.844 Did anyone else speak to the accused?
A.844 Capt Snell told the accused that he could make a statement or give evidence on oath, and that what he would say was to be taken down in writing and used in evidence.

Q.845 Were any threats made to the accused?
A.845 No.

Q.846 Were any promises held out?
A.846 No.

Q.847 Was there any duress of any sort whatever?
A.847 No, none at all.

Q.848 Was there a suggestion that if he made a statement things might become easier for him?
A.848 Nothing like that, that I recall.

Q.849 After the statement was made, did Lt Snell read it to the accused?
A.849 I don't recall whether he read/or showed it to the accused to read before signing. it

Q.850 Was there any inducement made to the accused to sign the statement?
A.850 None that I recall.

Cross-examined:

Q.851 What words did Capt Snell use when he wanted the signature?
A.851 I cannot recall the actual words.

Q.852 I suggest to you it was in the form of a command, "You sign here".
A.852 No, I would not say it was in the form of a command. It was shown to him.

Q.853 Were these words used?
A.853 No, I don't recall that.

Q.854 Do you recall anything of the methods used in obtaining the signature?
A.854 As far as I recall, it was pointed out to him that it was a rather important document, and that it would be better for him to sign it.

Q.855 The information which Capt Snell wrote down after he gave the caution was obtained by asking the accused questions and listing answers, was it not?
A.855 Yes.

Q.856 The questions were not put merely for the purpose of clearing up any misunderstanding in Capt Snell's mind but to elicit specific information?
A.856 Yes.

Q.857 Had the accused been drinking?
A.857 Yes.

Q.858 Capt Snell has told the Court the relevant positions of himself, yourself, the Sgt, and the accused. Would you tell the Court the relevant positions?
A.858 Capt Snell was sitting at the desk. The accused was immediately in front of him. I was sitting at Capt Snell's right. I am not sure of the Sgt, but I believe he was sitting fairly well back near the door which was on the right of the desk.

Q.859 Some cigarettes were offered to the accused while the information was obtained from him?
A.859 Yes.

Re-examination:

Q.860 Who stated that it might be better for the accused to sign this statement?
A.860 I don't recall that that was exactly my answer. The Offr for the Defence asked me in what way the demand was made. As far as I recall it was made in the line of advice.

Q.861 Who gave this advice?
A.861 Capt Snell.

By the Court:

Q.862 Had the accused been told before he started to give his statement that it would be taken down in writing, and he would be expected to sign it?
A.862 He was warned.

Q.863 But not told that he had to sign it?
A.863 Not that I recall.

Q.864 You stated the accused had been drinking?
A.864 Yes sir.

Q.865 Do you think that his reasoning or understanding was effected at that time?
A.865 Not in my opinion.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.866 Were the cigarettes offered to the accused or did he ask for them?
A.866 They were offered.

Q.867 By whom?
A.867 By Capt Snell.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

Judge Advocate:

Does the accused wish to give evidence?

Defending Offr:

No sir.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Sir, I object to the statement being put in evidence on the basis that the information obtained was made after the Bn Adjt - the investigator - decided to lay a charge or charges against the accused. The caution was not properly administered, and it was not a proper caution. From the evidence, the Court can readily infer that the statement was given under duress. Consider that a private soldier, who, in the opinion of the interrogater had been drinking, was awakened and marched, under the escort of a Sgt, no less, to the Guard Room. In any event the Sgt was available throughout the interrogation. It was not sufficient for them to obtain merely a L/Cpl from the unit to get the statement. Capt Snell must also have the assistance of a Field Offr to help him. All of these things must have thrown a little fright into the accused. Therefore he was under duress. There is evidence of Capt Snell being the "big brother" of the accused. There is evidence of an inducement, the giving of the cigarettes. Major Bernier states that Capt Snell tried to influence the accused with the advice that it might be better if the accused signed it. This is sufficient evidence from which the Court can draw the inference that there was a threat. I would like to draw the Court's attention specifically to sub-para 7 on page 92 in MML which covers the accused's particular case. This statement is a set question and answer statement and, therefore, inadmissable. I quote: (reads MML Chap VI p.91 sub-para 7). I would draw the Court's attention to the fact that the accused, in the eyes of the person obtaining the answers, had been drinking. Great care must be taken in demanding statements from people who have been drinking, whether little or much. I refer to MML p.93 para 79 which reads as follows: (reads para 79). I wish the statement thrown out.

Prosecutor's Answer:

There is no evidence before the Court from which it can be inferred that a charge was to be laid against the accused. I suggest that the statement was obtained in accordance with the rules laid down by the Judges of the King's Bench Division, found in para 78 at p.91 of MML. In particular, I quote: (reads sub-para 1, MML, p.91). There is no indication, either, in the evidence that the accused was cross-examined as the Defending Counsel suggested. I will read you sub-para 7 on p.92 of MML again. (reads sub-para 7). In any event the caution which was given, I believe, comes well within the ruling of the Court, which in the past decided the form in which the caution should be given. This individual offr gave the exact words used. His failure to put the caution in the exact words of the Rule indicates merely he was not qualified, you might say, in obtaining confessions. He is, you might find, in the capacity of a police offr. There is no evidence of any inducement, threat or promise made to the accused. It was between ten and fifteen minutes from the time he was placed under close arrest in his billets before he was questioned in the detn room of 2 Bn. He was given cigarettes. In fact the attitude of the offr taking the statement was, as far as the accused was concerned, in my opinion, a helpful one. He wanted to make the accused as comfortable as possible. The cigarettes were not offered - there is no suggestion they were offered as an inducement to the accused. There is no evidence before the Court to indicate that the accused was, in any shape or form, drunk. There is some evidence that he had been drinking which is the most ambiguous term. The signature was obtained after the accused had made the statement and had either read it over or had it read over to him. At that time he had the opportunity to delete or make any corrections in the statement if he so desired. I submit that the statement should be admitted in evidence.

The Defending Offr made no reply.

The Court closed to consider the Submission. The Court was re-opened.

Judge Advocate:

Pte Robinson, I am directed by the Court to advise you that the submission made by your Defending Offr has been allowed. In consequence of that, the statement will not be admitted in evidence, and no answers to questions which were put to you during the investigation at 2 Bn Detn Room Office will be admitted.

A.868 Yes.

Q.869 Will you describe to the Court what you found?
A.869 I noticed the accused's lips were bruised and cut and that there were scratches on the front of his neck below the chin.

Q.870 Describe these bruises, cuts and scratches?
A.870 Well, the bruises on his face were similar to bruises or cuts one would get in a fight. I would not say he had been in a fight that night. The scratches on his neck were two or three long scratches running diagonally down from his chin and approximately 2½ inches long.

Q.871 Do you recall how many scratches there were?
A.871 Two or three.

Q.872 Was the accused properly dressed when you saw him?

Defending Offr:

I object to the form of that question.

Prosecutor:

Q.873 Describe how the accused was dressed at the time or a few minutes after he was awakened?
A.873 The accused was dressed in trousers with his boots off but his socks on. I would say he also had on some sort of undershirt.

Q.874 Did the accused put on any article of dress at the time you were with him there?
A.874 I don't remember.

Q.875 Could you tell the Court of any other article of dress that the accused had on at the time?
A.875 He might have had on a pair of shorts.

Q.876 You said he had trousers on?
A.876 Trousers, socks and a white undershirt.

Q.877 What were the condition of the clothes?
A.877 His clothes were quite dirty.

Q.878 When you next saw the accused, will you describe his dress?
A.878 The accused had on a bush shirt and shoes but no hat.

Q.879 Will you describe the condition of the bush shirt?
A.879 The bush shirt was dirty. That is all I recall.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, do you wish to proceed with your cross-examination now? Would it prejudice your case if the Court were to adjourn until tomorrow morning?

Defending Offr:

I have made fairly complete notes which I wish to study tonight. I won't be prejudiced if the Court is adjourned until tomorrow.

Court adjourned at 1655 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1000 hrs, 23 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

Cross-examined:

Q.880 Capt Snell, when did you make up your mind that serious charges would be laid as a result of the shooting?
A.880 On completion of the Court of Inquiry at 3 Bn.

Q.881 Had you not formed a complete conclusion as to the guilt of the accused when you found the pistol and identity discs during your investigation?
A.881 I was confused about the evidence. I had formed no definite opinion.

Q.882 What made you place him under arrest?
A.882 I placed him under arrest because of the circumstances surrounding him. He might be involved. I placed him in safe custody to further the investigation.

Q.883 How soon after the shooting did you make up your mind that this was not a case of suicide ?
A.883 I didn't arrive at that conclusion.

Q.884 Didn't you consider that a possibility?
A.884 I didn't consider any possibilities. My mind was confused - muddled.

Q.885 Didn't you think it was a little ridiculous that decision?
A.885 My opinion was my own opinion. I heard a lot of things. I was not present at the body or even near the shooting. I found a Seaforth soldier who had been drinking with a pistol in his possession, the .45 automatic which I identified. Certain empty .45 calibre casings were found. All of which seemed to point to the fact that he was lying.

Q.886 You came to the conclusion that he was lying?
A.886 That was my opinion. As it was so late, I thought I had better place him in safe custody. I thought, in my own mind, that he might have been lying.

Q.887 It was a definite conclusion on your part?
A.887 Yes.

Q.888 It was a definite conclusion that he was very closely linked with the shooting?
A.888 Yes.

Q.889 Can you tell the Court how soon after the incident the Court of Inquiry was in your hands?
A.889 The Court of Inquiry was delivered to me the night of the following day, 3 Aug 44.

Q.890 How soon after the shooting did you say the charge was laid against the accused for being improperly in possession of the weapon?
A.890 I received the Court of Inquiry. As it seemed quite a long case and in my opinion it would come to a Summary of Evidence, the charge was placed against Robinson.

Q.891 Was he dealt with and punished?
A.891 Yes he was charged and given 28 days.

Q.892 Detention?
A.892 Detention.

Q.893 When you read the Court of Inquiry, did you see the recommendations made by the offr of 3 Bn?
A.893 I did.

Q.894 In view of these recommendations, you still felt you should lay the charge of improper possession?
A.894 Yes.

Q.895 In view of what was contained therein, hadn't you now come to the conclusion that the accused was guilty of the shooting?
A.895 No.

Q.896 Have you ever received instructions in your capacity as Adjt, or heard that the Judge Advocate does not want a multitude of charges laid?
A.896 Yes.

Q.897 Did you think that laying a charge against the accused was in accordance with those instructions?
A.897 Yes I do.

Q.898 How long have you been in the Army, Capt Snell?
A.898 I have been in the Army for about four years.

Q.899 Who was your Commanding Offr on the 2nd of Aug?
A.899 Colonel Lent.

Q.900 Did you know whether or not he has legal qualifications?
A.900 Yes he was a lawyer.

Q.901 Did you consult him?
A.901 I did.

Q.902 How often have you read the evidence you gave at the Summary of Evidence?
A.902 I have read it very little. I read it yesterday morning.

Q.903 Just prior to coming into Court?
A.903 Yesterday, not this morning.

Q.904 This morning?
A.904 No, not this morning.

Q.905 You did, in your evidence yesterday, identify Exhibit "J", the identity discs handed to you by Capt McKee. Are you convinced that they are the same or different?
A.905 I state specifically, they are the same.

Q.906 On what identifying marks, do you base this opinion?
A.906 The cord is similar.

Q.907 The type?
A.907 No. The cord is the same cord. It is short and won't go around a person's neck. The marking and stamping on the discs is rough. The name is the same. The way the discs are tied is exactly the same as they were tied. It bears the same number, rank and name as before. They are the same discs.

WRB

Q.908 There is one distinct peculiarity about the identity discs in connection with the letters of the name. Can you tell the Court what that peculiarity is?
A.908 I don't recall.

Q.909 You examined them and you didn't see this distinct peculiarity? There is something peculiar about one of these discs - something in connection with the numbering which is not very often found on identity discs?
A.909 Possibly.

Q.910 Do you still say you gave them a microscopic inspection?
A.910 I didn't give them a microscopic inspection. I examined them.

Q.911 Still you gave the Court a microscopic description of them as you recalled them, did you not?
A.911 I stated that I recalled them.

Q.912 Examine Exhibit "J" and explain to the Court how the initial on the top disc is placed in relation to the one on the bottom disc?
A.912 They are joined. The "D" runs into the "PTE".

Defending Offr:

The initial and the "PTE" run into one another. I draw the Court's attention to Exhibit "J" - to the top identification disc and to the lettering "PTED".

Q.913 When you received a copy of the Court of Inquiry, did you implement any of the recommendations made by the Commanding Offr of 3 Bn?
A.913 Yes there were. I have seen the Court of Inquiry very little. As I recall in the findings several charges were suggested. From that it was decided in 2 Bn to place a charge of improper possession against Pte Robinson. The Commanding Offr, 3 Bn, recommended the investigation of several rather serious offences.

Q.914 Did you or did you not take steps to implement these recommendations?
A.914 Yes. After Pte Robinson was charged, it was suggested that we send the pistol to some ballistic experts in Rome. Major Morgan of 3 Bn contacted them through Fd Security. That fell through.

Q.915 How did it fall through?
A.915 Apparently they could not find or locate this ballistic expert in Rome. The pistol was returned to 3 Bn and turned over to him again. This took a certain period of time. It was decided that a Summary of Evidence would have to be taken. Mr Murphy was detailed to round up any persons who might have information concerning the event.

Q.916 Is there any MP force in your Bn?
A.916 Yes.

Q.917 Were there any MP offrs and personnel available to assist you in the investigation?
A.917 Yes.

Q.918 Did you request such assistance?
A.918 No.

Q.919 Why did you not obtain the assistance of their trained personnel?
A.919 I had a variety of reasons. I was very busy with the drafts at the time.

WBB

Q.920 You were busy with drafts?
A.920 I was very busy. I had an offr working at 2 Bn Orderly Room who devoted his whole time to the preparation of Summaries of Evidence, Courts of Inquiry, etc. I had an administrative offr to assist me. I turned over the investigation to this offr as I could not spare the time myself to help Mr Murphy.

Q.921 What is the other of the two reasons?
A.921 I suggested to Mr Murphy that he contact the Judge Advocate which I know he did - due to the seriousness of these charges.

Q.922 Is it the duty of the Judge Advocate to assist in advising you as to whether or not there is sufficient evidence or to assist in investigating the case?
A.922 He is there to clarify certain points. It is not the Judge Advocate's job to direct police investigations.

Q.923 The impression I got was that on various points that arose, on points of law, the Judge Advocate assisted -----

Judge Advocate:

To clarify this for the benefit of the Court; I was not then acting as a Judge Advocate. I was acting in my capacity as ADJA Gp HQ. I am here today as Judge Advocate.

Defending Offr:

Q.924 When did you first consult Capt Bate, ADJA Gp HQ?
A.924 I cannot give you the date. It was four or five days afterwards. Mr Murphy could tell you better.

Q.925 And when Capt Bate was first consulted, was Mr Murphy in possession of any of the information given to the Court these last three days?
A.925 No.

Q.926 You are satisfied in your mind that Mr Murphy sought the best advice that he could obtain and was capable of completing a murder investigation?
A.926 Yes.

Q.927 Had Mr Murphy any recent experience to your knowledge?
A.927 No.

Q.928 Had Mr Murphy any previous experience in murder investigations?
A.928 Not to my knowledge. Mr Murphy spent a period in England and here on Courts of Inquiry and Courts Martial work. He has turned in very efficient work with few repercussions of any sort, and he was quite qualified to deal with this case.

Q.929 You gave evidence yesterday that you and Major Bernier decided to obtain particulars of the owner of the discs that were handed to you by Capt McKee?
A.929 Yes.

Q.930 What did Major Bernier have to do with the discs?
A.930 The decision to pursue the tracing of the discs was simultaneous. He was to check the Pay records and I was to check the Card Index which were in the Bn offices.

Q.931 So you and Major Bernier set yourselves up as an amateur detective office?
A.931 Yes.

CW-13.43

Q.932 When you first went to the bed in which you found the accused that night, you stated that it was by candle light?
A.932 I think there were two candles.

Q.933 You were not in a particularly observant mood that night?
A.933 Quite. Yes.

Q.934 The NCO who was present previously told the Court that he brought a lantern along. Is he right or are you?
A.934 He may have been right. He might have gone back for the lantern, but there were candles when we first went to the bed.

Q.935 What do you say? When you first got there with the NCO, was there a lantern or candles?
A.935 Candles when I first went in as far as I can remember.

Q.936 You are not sure?
A.936 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.937 If you are not sure of such a small detail, how could you be sure that your specific identification of the discs is any more accurate?
A.937 Yes, I am. My attention was centered on them. My attention was not centered on the light. There was light around the bed.

Q.938 How can you tell the Court you saw scratches on the face or the neck of the accused when you saw him on 2 Aug 44? What conclusion did you come as to how these scratches were incurred?
A.938 My impression!

Q.939 Yes?
A.939 In the RP the soldier ------

Q.940 At the bed?
A.940 When this soldier, who was lying on his face, turned over, his face was bruised - lips bruised and face damaged. On his neck were scratches that had no significance at the time. He was not wearing discs when found in bed. As he was Robinson and I had Robinson's discs, it occurred to me on the way over to the RP that his scratches had some significance. On arrival at the RP I asked Cpl Shaw, in the presence of the accused, if he had noticed scratches on Pte Robinson areund his neck. He said "No". I sent the Cpl into the cell where Pte Robinson was. I said take a look at his neck. He came back and I -------

Q.941 You first stated you had this conversation in the presence of the accused. Now which is it?
A.941 Not in his presence. We were told by Cpl Shaw that the scratches resembled scratches which might have been put on his neck by fingernails.

Q.942 Was there any difference in the length and width of the individual scratches? Were they of the appearance of having been put on by fingernails?
A.942 Yes. They looked like scratches.

Q.943 Now, to the best of your knowledge, was any attempt ever made to examine Dillon's fingernails to see if any blood was clotted in them?
A.943 To the best of my knowledge I never heard of any.

Q.944 Don't you think that would be the best way to link Dillon with the accused?
A.944 I would say that that would be a very good method.

WT313

Q.945 Do you agree that that would be the usual police method?
A.945 I am not versed with police methods.

Q.946 Would you tell the Court if a draft had arrived recently from England - just prior to the 2nd Aug?
A.946 Yes.

Q.947 Was there a fair number of Seaforths in camp around 2 Aug 44?
A.947 Yes, there was quite a number.

Q.948 A number of 48th Highrs?
A.948 Yes.

Q.949 And quite a few Hast & PER?
A.949 Yes.

Q.950 When you found the accused asleep in bed with the pistol, was any attempt made to find out whether the accused had been recently seen in possession of the pistol by any of the people in the Bks?
A.950 Taking into consideration .....

Q.951 Forget the time limit that evening. Were any specific steps taken to determine whether or not the accused was seen in possession of that particular pistol?
A.951 I don't know.

Q.952 Did you yourself give that any consideration?
A.952 Mr Murphy and I discussed it.

Q.953 Did you discuss the investigation with him?
A.953 I don't remember what matters were discussed.

Q.954 Did you, in that discussion, consider obtaining the assistance of the police?
A.954 Yes, I 'phoned the Pd Security Offr with reference to the pistol: asked if he had anything to report on it and found out this expert was not available. I frequently asked Mr Murphy how the Summary was getting on and if further assistance was needed. I don't remember telling him specifically to contact the Local Provost or any other police personnel.

Q.955 Who suggested the trip to Rome for ballistic purposes?
A.955 3 Bn instigated it if I remember correctly.

Q.956 Who is Capt Allan, W.C.?
A.956 I think he is OC or 2IC of the Pd Security Sec.

Q.957 Did you ever hear of the American ballistics people at Naples?
A.957 No. We were endeavouring to find out.

Q.958 Did you contact the DAPM, the L of C Pro or the SIB of the CMP?
A.958 No.

Q.959 I would like to direct the Court's attention to the next one or two questions and ask them to try and recall the method in which Exhibit "O" was put in by this witness yesterday. When you were handed the pistol, Exhibit "O", yesterday by the Prosecuting Offr, do you recall the method in which you presented it to the Court - how much you handled it?
A.959 Fairly well.

Q.960 Capt Rose handed it to you; then you identified it and then you looked at it?
A.960 I broke it.

Q.961 Will you take it and break it exactly the same as you did yesterday?
A.961 If I didn't I should have.

Q.962 You made a statement that you did?
A.962 I don't think I did. I looked at it.

Q.963 You looked at it and could see the corrosion on it?
A.963 I examined the features of the pistol and noticed it was corroded.

Q.964 Can you tell from there that the barrel is corroded?
A.964 The light was shining on it. I can see it.

Q.965 How much did you see? Did you look at it that closely?
A.965 I did. I also recall seeing it on the table, and on examination it had corrosion in the barrel.

Q.966 Did you inspect it in the same manner?
A.966 It is not hard to see the corrosion.

Q.967 Can you examine a barrel without looking down it?
A.967 Not in the true sense of the word, not to examine it.

Q.968 The amount of examination in detail that you did is evidence on which someone may be convicted of a serious offence. If the evidence is going to be as sloppy as that identification of yours, there will be a miscarriage of justice. Now, what do you say?
A.968 I identified the pistol.

Q.969 You smelled the gun on the night of 2 Aug?
A.969 Yes.

Q.970 And as a result of that smell you came to the conclusion that the pistol had been recently fired?
A.970 Yes.

Q.971 Take Exhibit "O" and tell the Court if the smells from it are any different than those of 2nd Aug?
A.971 It smells of oil now and didn't the other day.

Q.972 How would the oil get there?
A.972 I assume it has been cleaned.

Q.973 How would the oil get there?
A.973 A certain amount of oil remains on certain parts of the mechanism for some time.

Q.974 Now, when you told the Court the pistol had been recently fired, what period of time do you mean by "recently"?
A.974 Recently fired?

Q.975 What do you mean by "recently fired"?
A.975 Recently fired could be a short period.

Q.976 Would it be less than an hour?
A.976 Possibly.

Q.977 Take the time you want .....
A.977 1½ hours.

Q.978 What is the time you meant?
A.978 No one could state the exact time that cordite in any weapon would last.

Q.979 How could you say it was recently fired?
A.979 It smelled quite fresh. The impression I got was that it had been recently fired.

Q.980 You say it had been recently fired. I want an estimate as to how recently?
A.980 The smell of powder from a weapon that had been fired might last a day or only two hours. I would think, from my experience, that where a weapon had been fired the smell would last for some time. My impression from smelling it, when handing it to Major Bernier, was that it had been fired within the last three or four hours.

Q.981 The shooting only occurred approximately one hour before the pistol was in your hands?
WBB A.981 Possibly.

Q.982 Did you look for any other pistols that may have been fired that evening?
A.982 Yes. We enquired about any .45 automatics around. There were a few around the barracks. Several offrs had them. Their pistols were not fired.

Q.983 How and when did you make that check?
A.983 In conversation. I saw two pistols.

Q.984 Don't you feel ridiculous about the way you made your check?
A.984 It was hard to find pistols in all the various places.

Q.985 There were lots around?
A.985 Not of that particular type.

Q.986 There were a lot of souvenir weapons in the hands of soldiers at that time. It was a very popular pastime to collect weapons, was it not?
A.986 Yes.

Q.987 Did you find any difference in the souvenir value of weapons to soldiers just here for the first few days and two or three months after? Are they more anxious to obtain pistols when they first arrive?
A.987 I would say so. I would say that they had it in mind to collect a pistol and carry it as long as they possibly could.

Q.988 If I were to tell you that a pistol fired at 0845 hrs has the same smell at 1000 hrs as it would have at 4:30 o'clock, would you agree that was possible?
A.988 Everything is possible.

Q.989 I only want your opinion from your military experience. Would you agree to the possibility?
A.989 There is the possibility. In my experience, a fresh smell of cordite departs and afterwards you smell corrosion.

Q.990 Was the soldier you found in bed at 2230 hrs asleep?
A.990 He was lying on his face. I assumed he was asleep.

Q.991 Did you turn him over?
A.991 I awakened him.

Q.992 Did he have the appearance of a sleeping man? Did you come to the conclusion he had been sleeping? Did you have to awaken him?
A.992 Yes. I assumed he had been sleeping. My first impression was that he was drunk. I smelled liquor on his breath when he was talking.

WBB

Q.993 When was the first identification parade to let the witnesses pick out the accused?
A.993 Major Morgan held the identification parade preceding the Court of Inquiry.

Q.994 Who found the pistol?
A.994 To the best of my memory Major Bernier found the pistol at the top of the bed in the clothing the accused used as a pillow. It was a simultaneous finding. I was searching the kit, and he probably got his hands on it first.

Q.995 Was it in the man's pillow or by his head or in his kit?
A.995 Underneath the clothing used for a pillow on top of his head.

Q.996 Why did you arrange a second kit inspection?
A.996 Because our inspection had been cursory so I decided that a thorough search should be made. The kit was taken to the RP so that nothing could be taken away from it.

Q.997 You took the regular Infantry Training for an offr?
A.997 Yes.

Q.998 Have you handled rifles or pistols to any great extent?
A.998 Yes.

Q.999 Have you fired a large number of shots from a rifle or pistol or some weapon? Is it not correct that the firing pin on the explosion of the cartridge makes an identical mark on each cartridge?
A.999 Yes.

Q.1000 In order to get the casings out, the ejector is used?
A.1000 Yes.

Q.1001 The ejector makes marks on the cartridge as it ejects the cartridge?
A.1001 Yes.

Q.1002 Have you at any time examined the firing pin mark on cartridges after shots have been fired?
A.1002 I have.

Q.1003 Did you notice any similarity in the marks made in the firing?
A.1003 Yes, three.

Q.1004 I show you Exhibits "M" and "N". Is there any similarity in the firing pin marks?
A.1004 There is a difference.

Q.1005 From your experience, is there anything here to make you come to the conclusion that these cartridges were fired by different weapons?
A.1005 There are two possibilities. One is that they were fired by different weapons. The other is that the spring firing the trip, due possibly to the condition of the pistol, didn't strike hard enough on that particular cartridge.

Q.1006 Examine Exhibits "M" and "N". Is the head the same in each casing or different?
A.1006 There is a difference.

Q.1007 You admit there is a difference?
A.1007 It appears that way.

WBB

Q.1008 That being the case, the conclusion to come to is that they were fired from different weapons?
A.1008 I am not a pistol expert. I cannot say.

Q.1009 Did you examine any of the cartridges for ejecter marks?
A.1009 No, I did not.

Q.1010 Supposing you did not find the pistol on Robinson's bed but found it in some other place; is there any way in which you could have linked up that particular pistol with the accused?
A.1010 I am not sure -----

Q.1011 Had the pistol not been found in or near Robinson's bed but found elsewhere, would there have been any possibility of connecting the pistol with the accused?
A.1011 Not unless he attempted to conceal it.

Q.1012 Is there any way to prove it?
A.1012 By fingerprints?

Q.1013 Was it tested for fingerprints?
A.1013 No, I don't think so.

Q.1014 Did you give any such instructions?
A.1014 No.

Q.1015 Do the police have such facilities available in this theatre?
A.1015 If the pistol hadn't been handled by about 20 individuals we could have tried it.

Q.1016 The pistol was not on charge to Robinson?
A.1016 No.

Q.1017 Did you examine Dillon's conduct sheet?
A.1017 No.

Q.1018 Did you check to find out if there had been any previous bad feeling between Dillon and Robinson?
A.1018 No.

Q.1019 Was it given consideration by anyone you knew of?
A.1019 I heard that 3 Bn gave it consideration. It was only hearsay.

Q.1020 So that, if the weapon had been found in the middle of the parade square, there wouldn't have been any link between the body of Dillon and the accused?
A.1020 No.

Q.1021 If the identity discs were not found near or by the body of Dillon, you would not have any way of linking Robinson with this incident whatever?
A.1021 No.

Q.1022 Can you suggest to the Court any motive for this shooting on the part of Robinson or anyone else?
A.1022 The motive?

Q.1023 The motive. Can you suggest any motive which you found in your investigation?
A.1023 Any one of several.

Q.1024 I want you to be very careful in answering that. Did you find any motive, to your knowledge, of linking the accused with the shooting of Dillon?
A.1024 No.

WTB/B

Q.1025 In your opinion was the argument they had, the motive?
A.1025 No.

Q.1026 Was any consideration given as to how this shooting took place, having reference to the position of the body and the shots fired?
A.1026 Yes.

Q.1027 What consideration that you know of?
A.1027 Various theories. Lots of people mentioned them and most of them were discarded.

Q.1028 Would you tell the Court one of your theories?
A.1028 The theory that he was fired at and shot in the front of the head. There was a discussion by the MOs, but they couldn't make up their minds as to the correct theory. Another theory was that he was shot while running away.

Q.1029 When you considered that the man might have been shot from the front while standing, did you try to find out where the other person might have stood to fire the shot?
A.1029 I did.

Q.1030 And did you take into consideration that the first empty cartridge casing, Exhibit "M", was found approximately some eight feet from the body? Realizing where the cartridge casing was found and that it was fired from an automatic weapon, did you try to reconstruct that? What did you find, was the normal ejection distance?
A.1030 A .45 throws right. The casing is ejected straight up and drops three or four feet from the pistol.

Q.1031 What if it fell on a hard surface?
A.1031 It might bounce.

Q.1032 You said you carried out a test?
A.1032 I said I fired several .45s.

Q.1033 What I am trying to do now is to keep to the specific case dealing with the incident on the 2nd of Aug. You said several theories were advanced. I want to test whether you agree with these theories of this shooting. Were any of these theories discarded?
A.1033 We have been discarding them.

Q.1034 Did you reconstruct the shooting out in front of the Offrs' Mess in the area where the body was found?
A.1034 We reconstructed the shooting at the time and discussed how he was shot, in front or rear. It was thought at that time it was from behind. We were merely investigating the scene of the shooting for more information.

Q.1035 Did you examine any walls for slugs?
A.1035 We did.

Q.1036 Did you go over those walls very closely?
A.1036 We did.

Q.1037 What walls?
A.1037 The walls in front of the Offrs' Mess.

Q.1038 Did you go over carefully the west side of the Borden Block? I show you Exhibit "G" for reference.
A.1038 I examined the wall of the Ottawa Bldg, but I didn't examine the wall of the Borden Block. The reason I examined the side of the Ottawa Bldg and the Offrs' Mess was because I thought that the shots had been fired from the sports ground in front of the Ottawa Bldg. Another reason for examing the wall was the position of the pool of blood. We happened to find a bullet in the wall of the bldg. There were several bullet holes, all of which might have been made by .45 slugs. It was impossible to find out which was the bullet.

WTBB

Q.1039 Did you find any .45 slugs?
A.1039 No.

Q.1040 Did the bullet taken from the man's head give you any indication as to where the shot was fired from?
A.1040 I didn't know that a bullet came from his head.

Q.1041 Did you ask for information on those lines?
A.1041 I assumed it would be included in the medical interpretation.

Q.1042 Did you come to any conclusion as to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1042 I would say close up.

Q.1043 On what did you base this conclusion?
A.1043 From the size of the bullet-hole in the head.

Q.1044 A case of largeness or smallness?
A.1044 Largeness.

Q.1045 Are you suggesting to the Court that the size of the bullet-hole related to the distance from which the shot was fired?
A.1045 Definitely. A steel bullet makes a small hole and a lead bullet makes a large hole. It was a case of the size of the bullet-hole.

Q.1046 You came to the conclusion that it was fired from close range?
A.1046 Not having seen the body but knowing a small part of the evidence given by the doctors .....

Q.1047 You didn't know the size of the hole?
A.1047 No.

Q.1048 So you jumped to conclusions. When you and Major Bernier found the identity discs and the pistol which you linked closely with the accused, you both jumped to the conclusion that he was guilty?
A.1048 No, I would not say that.

Q.1049 Whether or not you jumped to that conclusion, it appeared to have something to do with the incident, something closely to do with the incident?
A.1049 It would appear that way.

Q.1050 Were any steps taken to find out whether or not Dillon was left handed or right handed?
A.1050 I don't recall.

Q.1051 Wouldn't it have been of some assistance, seeing that the identity discs were in his left hand to determine whether he was left handed or not?
A.1051 I was not there.

Q.1052 Did anyone make inquiries to find out what room Dillon slept in or whether he wore a wrist watch or not?
A.1052 I don't think so.

Q.1053 Was Pte Robinson told he didn't have to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1053 I think Major Morgan told him that. I wasn't present.

Q.1054 To your knowledge, was any assistance given Robinson as far as his legal rights were concerned, apart from your own advice?
A.1054 I can't tell you that.

Q.1055 You don't know?
A.1055 No.

WB13

Q.1056 You have the Orderly Offr's Report for the 3rd of Aug?
A.1056 No.

Q.1057 Have you examined it to see what information it contained?
A.1057 The Orderly Offr's Report?

Q.1058 Yes. Did you examine it - the Orderly Offr's Report for 3rd Aug? Have you examined it?
A.1058 Some time ago.

Q.1059 Do you recall if Lt Hanahan was Duty Offr that day?
A.1059 He was.

Q.1060 was there any report of this incident made in the Orderly Offr's Report for the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1060 No, there was no reason for it.

Q.1061 Give a reason why there wasn't one?
A.1061 Taking into consideration the fact that there were the proper lengthy notes incorporated in the Court of Inquiry, made .....

Q.1062 Do you think that the Court will believe that? Is that the reason?
A.1062 Clarify the question.

Q.1063 You are trying to tell us about something that was done much later. I suggest to you that there was no Orderly Offr's Report. I suggest to you that it was some time later that he made a specific report of the incident?
A.1063 He made a written statement of the incident, I believe, the next morning.

Q.1064 I suggest it didn't come in with the Orderly Offr's Report?
A.1064 I don't remember. Everyone was quite aware that there had been a shooting.

Q.1065 Are you suggesting seriously that because everyone knew about it, no report was made? You are aware that it is evidence you must give in this Court. Don't make silly remarks.
A.1065 (Witness does not answer.)

Q.1066 Where was the holster found?
A.1066 In the kit of Pte Robinson.

Q.1067 Did you find it?
A.1067 No.

Q.1068 Doesn't it strike you as rather queer that the pistol and the holster were not in the kit together?
A.1068 It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1069 This accused?
A.1069 Yes. It strikes me that he wanted it under his pillow.

Q.1070 Doesn't it strike you as queer that the holster was found in the kit bag and the pistol found by the pillow or articles used as a pillow?
A.1070 Not queer.

Q.1071 Does it strike you as unusual?
A.1071 It doesn't strike me as unusual.

Q.1072 You are trying to be a big help .....
A.1072 You are asking me. Some people don't keep their pistols in their holsters and others do.

Q.1073 I suggest to you that after the pistol and holster and identity discs were found, you were trying to prove him guilty?
A.1073 The evidence seemed very certain from the sequence of events that came out that evening.

Q.1074 Wouldn't it be quite unusual for Robinson to keep the pistol, assuming he was connected with the shooting that evening?
A.1074 Yes.

Q.1075 Doesn't it strike you as unusual that you found it under his pillow and not in his kit?
A.1075 It might be -----

Q.1076 Was it found when he was asleep?
A.1076 If he was asleep.

Q.1077 Don't be technical. Do you dislike the accused?
A.1077 I have no feelings one way or the other.

Q.1078 You had been looking after the investigation right throughout. Apart from the medical assistance - there had been no proven t assistance - were you not trying to find s[illegible] shooting without any professional assistance?
A.1078 No, I don't think so.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Q.1079 You stated yesterday that you took the smell of cordite as evidence that the revolver had been recently fired. At what time did you smell it?
A.1079 Shortly after it was found. A matter of minutes.

Q.1080 At approximately what time did you smell it?
A.1080 It took 10 or 15 minutes to find out about Robinson. We went directly to Robinson's bed, and it was somewhere between 11:25 and 11:45 o'clock when the pistol was found - around that time approximately.

Q.1081 In other words 2355 hrs?
A.1081 Approximately.

Q.1082 You specifically examined the Orderly Offr's Report after this incident?
A.1082 Yes sir.

Q.1083 Did you see the Tattoo Roll Call for the night 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1083 I saw it the following morning. I didn't see it that night. I don't recall now if Robinson was marked as in that night or not. We checked on it the following morning.

Q.1084 Why the check in the following morning? Was Pte Robinson marked absent at Tattoo Roll Call?
A.1084 I can't verify that from memory.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1085 I think, Capt Snell, you said that when you saw the accused in bed his clothing was dirty?
A.1085 Yes sir. I remember they were dirty.

Q.1086 What do you mean by dirty? Oily, muddy, dusty or what?
A.1086 I would say dusty but I can't verify the type of dirt.

WBB

Q.1087 You have in the course of your evidence referred to the accused's kit. How do you know it was his kit?
A.1087 I am not positive that it was his kit, but it was in his bed and around his bed. It is normal to find a man's kit around his bed.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(b).

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS(Major J. Bernier, MCAPC, 2 Bn 1 CBRD, recalled, for (already sworn, Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Judge Advocate:

Major Bernier, the decision of the Court was that the written statement and the answers by the accused to the questions when he was before Capt Snell in the 2 Bn Detn Room would not be admitted in evidence. So don't repeat any part of them, please.

Prosecutor:

Q.1088 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.1088 I do.

Q.1089 Will you tell the Court, as simply as possible, what happened on that evening?
A.1089 On the night of 2 Aug 44 I was reading in my room, immediately above the 2 Bn Offrs' Mess.

Q.1090 I think it might be important if the Court were shown just where Major Bernier's room is on the sketch, Exhibit "G".
A.1090 My room is facing the one storey wing of the Ottawa Bldg on the second floor - the last room. (Witness marks spot with letter "L" on sketch.)

Q.1091 Carry on?
A.1091 At approximately 2300 hrs I heard a shot and then two other shots. I jumped up; went downstairs and found a group of offrs standing around a body sprawled in front of 2 Bn Mess entrance.

Q.1092 I would like you to indicate on Exhibit "G" the position of the body?
A.1092 Here. (Witness points to letter "H" on sketch.)

Q.1093 Will you tell the Court what was the attitude of the body?
A.1093 I only saw him for a brief moment. I remember the man was lying on his stomach. It seems to me his arms were outstretched and not at his side.

Q.1094 In what direction was he facing?
A.1094 His head was facing the Borden Bldg# and his feet towards the Petawawa Bldg.

WTB13

Q.1095 Will you carry on, please?
A.1095 The 2 Bn Orderly Offr, Lt Manahan, seemed to have the situation well in hand so I left the scene. As I thought there might be an armed robbery, I went to my office and found everything in order. Then I returned to the general area of the incident. I was shown a set of identity discs by Lt McKee, who said .....

Q.1096 Carry on, but don't repeat conversations.
A.1096 The discs appeared to belong to B.144333 Pte D. Robinson and had the abbreviation for "Presbyterian" and "Canadian" on them.

WTB13

Q.1097 Was there anything else, any other points of identification on these discs?
A.1097 They were two normal discs, tied together the way they should be, but the cord or string had been broken and, If I remember correctly, the discs had different information as to initials or rank. One had full initials and one had just one initial. I am not sure of this.

Q.1098 I now produce to you Exhibit "J". Can you identify these discs?
A.1098 Yes, these are the discs I was shown on that night.

Q.1099 Carry on, please.
A.1099 I went to Nos 1, 2 and 3 Bns to see if they had any record of Pte Robinson. We finally traced him at the Seaforth Coy Office of 2 Bn. I reported the fact to Capt Snell who had also found out the same information. I accompanied Capt Snell to the Seaforth billets. We found Pte Robinson in his proper bay, sleeping in his blankets. We awakened him. Pte Robinson's face and lips were bruised. There were scratches on his neck and his face. I went through his kit and found an American model .45 calibre revolver under the part of his blankets which formed a pillow. The revolver was empty and had, from the smell of powder, been recently fired.

Q.1100 Will you give to the Court any information you know about that revolver?
A.1100 It was American - I did not notice the make - of .45 calibre. It was in a rusty condition or unpolished in appearance. The number, model or issue was blurred. It had 1911 on it but I did not take the number until the following day. That is about all the information I know except that the magazine was on and was empty. There were no cartridges in the chamber.

Q.1101 Could you identify the revolver if you saw it again?
A.1101 I could.

Q.1102 How?
A.1102 From its general appearance and from its condition because I have a good memory.

Q.1103 I produce Exhibit "O". Will you examine this exhibit and tell the Court whether that is the same revolver or not?
A.1103 (Witness examines pistol) Yes, that is the same revolver.

Q.1104 At what time did you find this revolver?
A.1104 Approximately 2330 to 2345 hrs.

Q.1105 What did you do then?
A.1105 I looked through the rest of the kit and found a holster, presumably the one for the revolver in question. I found it in Pte Robinson's kit bag. I found no other fire arms or ammunition except his rifle which was hanging on the wall and had not been fired. I handed the revolver and holster to Capt Snell for safe custody.

Q.1106 How do you know the kit belonged to Pte Robinson?
A.1106 Because when he was sitting up in his bed, he acknowledged the fact that it was his kit.

Q.1107 How did he acknowledge it?
A.1107 I told him I was going to look through his kit. I asked him if it was his kit and he said, "Yes".

Q.1108 What was the holster like?
A.1108 It was a light brown holster, not well polished. It had quite a few stains on it but no marks that I recall, no issue or serial number of any sort.

Q.1109 I produce a holster. Can you identify it?

Defending Offr:

In my opinion the methods of introducing the exhibit is objectional. The witness has not identified it by a proper description.

Judge Advocate:

He was only asked whether he was able to identify it or not. The Court will decide on the sufficiency of the identification, in due course.

(examination cont'd)

A.1109 I identify it from its badly polished condition.

Q.1110 Do you recognize that holster?
A.1110 I do recognize it.

Q.1111 What holster is it?
A.1111 That is the holster I found in the kit. (Brown leather holster stamped "US", admitted and marked Exhibit "P".)

Q.1112 Did you make any examination or search of the person of the accused?
A.1112 I did not.

Q.1113 What did you do then?
A.1113 Capt Snell had the accused placed under close arrest. Then the Cpl on duty was ordered to take Pte Robinson to the 2 Bn Guard Room and make a methodical search of the general area where Pte Robinson slept. I later accompanied Capt Snell to 2 Bn Guard Room while he questioned the accused and other witnesses as to the shooting.

Q.1114 Can you point out the accused in this Court Room?
A.1114 The accused is here (pointing) sitting by the Offr for the Defence.

Cross-examined:

Q.1115 Major Bernier, giving evidence before this Court has caused you considerable worry, hasn't it?
A.1115 I call it nervousness.

Q.1116 You have been worried about giving evidence?
A.1116 I am not used to the formality of the Court.

Q.1117 You are a little bit worried about the questions I am about to ask you?
A.1117 If I tell the truth I have nothing to worry about.

Q.1118 Since you found out I was the Defending Offr, haven't you been a little bit nervous and worried about the questions I would ask?
A.1118 I knew it would mean a lot of cross-examination.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, you wouldn't be flattering yourself by any chance?

Defending Offr:

May I have that on the record, sir?

Q.1119 With the result that you have, since the taking of the Summary, read and re-read the evidence you gave in the Summary?
A.1119 I read it only once.

Q.1120 Thoroughly?
A.1120 Just once was the only time. I probably asked other witnesses ....

Q.1121 Have you ever referred to it in an attempt to refresh your memory?
A.1121 Just that once.

Q.1122 Did you memorize the statement you gave at the Summary?
A.1122 No. I had already repeated the story I knew five or six times. I have a photographic memory for certain of the details of what happened.

Q.1123 You saw the accused on his bed on the night of the incident, on the 2nd of Aug. What happened that night since you have such a photographic memory for detail?
A.1123 Only for certain details.

Q.1124 Have you the same photographic memory of what happened between 1130 and 1140 hrs this morning?
A.1124 Partly, yes.

Q.1125 Apart from the conversation you had in the presence of Capt Rose and myself, did you have a conversation with anyone else out there?
A.1125 I talked to the Cpl about the duration of the trial.

Q.1126 Did you talk to Capt Snell at all or have any words with him?
A.1126 I asked him whether he had been sitting down when giving his evidence.

Q.1127 Did you discuss the identification of the exhibits?
A.1127 No.

Q.1128 Did you discuss the questions asked him?
A.1128 No.

Q.1129 Why did you so anxiously point out the difference of a letter in the identity discs in the initials of the two discs?
A.1129 As far as I can recall, I noticed it on the night of 2 Aug when I was trying to find the initials for record purposes. I didn't get all the actual details.

Q.1130 Is that the only peculiarity in the initials on either one of them?
A.1130 That is all I remember. I have only seen the discs a few times.

Q.1131 You had the discs in your hand a few moments ago .....
A.1131 The only way I remember them is by the difference in the initials and rank on both of the discs.

Q.1132 What is the difference of initials and rank? Specify it?
A.1132 One has no initial or only has the initial "D".

Q.1133 Are you sure there is no difference in the type of the "PTE" or the position of the initials?
A.1133 I cannot say.

Q.1134 Will you tell the Court if when you first saw the identity discs you examined the string to see whether it was cut or broken?
A.1134 I did not.

Q.1135 Did you examine the type of knot?
A.1135 I did not.

Q.1136 You gave these identity discs a close examination?
A.1136 I gave them an examination as to rank, name and initials.

Q.1137 Then you can't say that these are the same identity discs because of any other mark of identification?
A.1137 They only bore the same number and name. In my opinion they are the same discs I saw that night.

Q.1138 That is a big difference. Now the holster, the only way you can identify it is that the holster is not polished?
A.1138 Yes.

Q.1139 How could you pick it out of a thousand holsters?
A.1139 By its form.

Q.1140 Could you be sure?
A.1140 Yes.

Q.1141 Are you prepared to state that that is the specific holster you took out of the kit of the accused - identify it specifically? Are you prepared to have your identification checked? Could you pick it out of a large group of holsters of the same size, shape and quality?
A.1141 Frankly, no.

Q.1142 So you cannot identify it specifically?
A.1142 Frankly, no.

Q.1143 Now, if I gave you a number of American .45 pistols of the same type and army serial numbers as Exhibit "O", all a little rusty and dirty and which had been fired, could you pick that one (points to Exhibit "O") out of a very large number?
A.1143 Yes.

Q.1144 And what is the specific thing you would use to identify it?
A.1144 One side of the grip is smooth and the other rough.

Q.1145 Is that unusual?
A.1145 Both sides should be the same.

Q.1146 When did you firstmemorize the number of the identity discs?
A.1146 The next morning I knew that I would have to establish the number in identifying the discs so I examined them thoroughly.

Q.1147 Capt Snell told us he asked the accused questions. Is that not true?
A.1147 Yes.

Q.1148 How did Robinson have a chance to tell you which was his kit - which kit to examine?
A.1148 As far as I recall there were only a few questions asked him. I had time to ask him a few.

Q.1149 Did you ask him during the actual questioning, before the questioning started or after the questions were asked?
A.1149 I can't say.

Q.1150 Are you sure you can't remember?
A.1150 I remember I asked the accused where his large pack was. His large pack was at his head and his small pack to the left. I asked him which part of the kit belonged to him and made him show me where it was. He said, "Yes".

Q.1151 How did you and Capt Snell go about doing this?
A.1151 I don't know. I asked the questions.

Q.1152 In Capt Snell's presence?
A.1152 Yes.

Q.1153 As soon as you got hold of the identity discs and looked at the pistol, you made up your mind the accused was guilty, didn't you?
A.1153 No, I did not.

Q.1154 You didn't make up your mind. When did you first decide the accused was guilty?
A.1154 I would like to reserve my opinion. It was a matter of investigation.

Q.1155 Did you form a definite opinion that the accused was guilty of something or other?
A.1155 Yes, of something.

Q.1156 On what occasion did you change your opinion?
A.1156 I would not say.

Q.1157 When you first arrived at the body would you say there was a group around it?
A.1157 Yes.

Q.1158 How many?
A.1158 Five or six.

Q.1159 Were there any offrs?
A.1159 Some were offrs and some were guards and others.

Q.1160 Were there any spectators?
A.1160 Some of the offrs had rushed out of the Mess and there were people from the Guard Room. Whether there was anyone who had nothing to do with the business, I couldn't say.

Q.1161 You say the offrs rushed out?
A.1161 I don't know. I was on the second floor.

Q.1162 How long did it take you to get out?
A.1162 Less than a minute.

Q.1163 When you arrived at the doorway of the Offrs' Mess did you go right to the point where the body was?
A.1163 Yes.

Q.1164 What made you think that you were going to have a burglary in the Pay Office?
A.1164 I have always been safety-conscious. That has been stamped into me.

Q.1165 Did you check up other Pay Offices as well as your own?
A.1165 No, I was concerned with my own only.

Q.1166 You told the Court that in your opinion the revolver had been recently fired?
A.1166 Yes.

Q.1167 Do you know anything about revolver ballistics?
A.1167 No, I don't.

WBB

Q.1168 Can you tell the Court the approximate time that elapsed between the firing and when you found the pistol?
A.1168 No.

Q.1169 Have you any evidence to link up the revolver with the shooting?
A.1169 The strong smell of burning powder.

Q.1170 Are you sure of the smell?
A.1170 Yes.

Q.1171 Can you estimate how recently the pistol had been fired?
A.1171 No.

Q.1172 Then there is no way of linking the shooting up with the pistol?
A.1172 No.

Q.1173 What makes you think the revolver you found had been fired?
A.1173 There was a smell of powder about that pistol that made me come to the conclusion that it had been fired.

Q.1174 Did you examine the accused's rifle?
A.1174 Yes.

Q.1175 How many cartridges were in the magazine?
A.1175 Ten.

Q.1176 What did you find on the examination of the barrel? Was it a thorough examination?
A.1176 Nothing. I didn't examine the barrel thoroughly.

Q.1177 You know the only way you could find out whether the barrel had been recently cleaned was from an examination of the pull-through?
A.1177 No.

Q.1178 You must have been particularly observant?
A.1178 (Witness makes no reply.)

Q.1179 Why was it that you took such a prominent part in this investigation?
A.1179 I don't call it prominent. I found whose identity discs they were and where he was from.

Q.1180 You were a bright investigator weren't you?
A.1180 I was helping out.

Q.1181 You were helping out and took an extensive part in the investigation?
A.1181 I would not say that.

Q.1182 Why was there such a further kit inspection after you had taken the gun from the kit yourself?
A.1182 Because we just went through the kit. There were other men sleeping in the bay and we didn't want the other men disturbed.

Q.1183 Did you examine the scratches on the accused?
A.1183 I saw them.

Q.1184 Were they scratches which might have been made by fingernails?
A.1184 Yes.

Q.1185 Was there any attempt, to find out from Dillon's body, whether he had any blood under his fingernails?
A.1185 Not that I know of.

Q.1186 Did you know if the MPs or the DAPM or the British Special Investigation Bureau were sent for to assist in this case?
A.1186 I don't know.

WBB

Q.1187 Do you know if any ballistic's information was received from the American ballistic people in Naples?
A.1187 I don't know.

Q.1188 Don't you agree that it was strictly an amateurish job as far as investigation was concerned?
A.1188 It was a preliminary investigation of the shooting.

Q.1189 Don't you agree it was amateurish?
A.1189 Other people took it up the next morning.

Q.1190 Don't you think it was an amateur investigation?
A.1190 It was a rough examination.

Q.1191 You have no specific qualifications?
A.1191 I report facts.

Q.1192 Have you any special experience or qualifications in conducting investigations?
A.1192 No.

Q.1193 Could you tell by an examination of Exhibit "J", the identification discs, whether or not the cord attached to them has been broken in the way which a string would break if pulled from the neck of a person wearing it?
A.1193 I would say it is possible.

Q.1194 Do you know how long the string is?
A.1194 Ten inches or a foot.

Q.1195 You have never measured it yourself, have you?
A.1195 No.

Q.1196 Do you suggest it was broken?
A.1196 Here and here is the point of two breaks; one here and one here. (witness indicates on cord of Exhibit "J")

Q.1197 Then you are stating that there are two breaks, one here and one at the other end. By that do you mean there is a piece missing?
A.1197 I don't know if a piece is missing.

Q.1198 The cord is not long enough to go around a man's neck? (demonstrates)
A.1198 No.

Q.1199 Then there is a piece of the string missing?
A.1199 Possibly.

Q.1200 Is it possible that this piece of string is the only part of the string that was around his neck?
A.1200 No, it isn't.

Q.1201 There must be a piece missing?
A.1201 Yes.

Q.1202 Therefore on a pull of the identity discs from the neck, there is apt to be only one break?
A.1202 That depends on the condition of the string.

Q.1203 The point of the string where the first force is exerted, is where the break occurs, isn't it?
A.1203 Yes, or also where there had been a knot and where the cord may have ....

Q.1204 Then, where there is a knot there will likely be a break?
A.1204 (Witness does not answer.)

Q.1205 I want an answer to the question?
A.1205 As I am not an expert .....

Q.1206 Do you know anything about it?
A.1206 I don't know.

Q.1207 Did you examine the shoes and socks of the accused when you got to his bed?
A.1207 I don't ..... no.

Q.1208 You can't tell how recently they had been taken off?
A.1208 No.

Q.1209 Did you go into that?
A.1209 No.

Q.1210 What light was used when you first got to the accused's bed?
A.1210 Candle light.

Q.1211 The Orderly Cpl says he got a lantern and took you and Capt Snell to the bay. Is that correct?
A.1211 I can't remember. I only remember what I said.

Q.1212 You don't remember about the light?
A.1212 No.

Q.1213 Then your photographic memory doesn't recall what kind of light there was on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1213 I don't remember.

Q.1214 I also suggest to you that you are not sure of the quarters in which you found Robinson - that it was the correct one as to bay and bed?
A.1214 I am sure.

Q.1215 Did a new draft come in recently?
A.1215 Yes.

Q.1216 Was it a fairly large draft?
A.1216 Not too large. We had had two drafts; one from the UK and one from the Armoured Corps - tradesmen and drivers from every arm of the service - transfers.

Q.1217 Wasn't it correct that Capt Snell had been out a good part of the night of the shooting and was a little "happy" when he came home?
Q.1217 He didn't appear that way.

Q.1218 He had had a few drinks?
A.1213 Yes.

Q.1219 What about you?
A.1219 I had not had a drink.

Q.1220 You had not?
A.1220 No.

Q.1221 Did you have a fairly clear view of Dillon's body as it lay on the parade square?
A.1221 No.

Q.1222 Did you have a chance to examine him?
A.1222 No.

WBB

Q.1223 Were his sleeves up or down?
A.1223 I don't know.

Q.1224 Were his hands outstretched?
A.1224 Slightly clenched like this (witness indicates). I can't remember other details.

Q.1225 Were you able to see his wrist watch on his left wrist?
A.1225 NO.

Q.1226 The finding of the body didn't excite or arouse you to remember details?
A.1226 There were five or six offrs present, and they had just called the doctor. It wasn't my business to interfere.

Q.1227 With your photographic memory, do you recall the condition of the body?
A.1227 Just the position of the body.

Q.1228 The only way you link the pistol with the accused is by the finding of it by or near his body, right?
A.1228 No.

- - - -

Q.1229 Was there any difference in the type of scratches on the neck of the accused when you saw them? Did you see them?
A.1229 Yes, I did.

Q.1230 Were they a type of scratch that would have been made by fingernails?
A.1230 Yes.

Q.1231 There was no difference in length or width?
A.1231 Yes.

Q.1232 They were all scratches?
A.1232 Yes.

Q.1233 Were these three shots you heard fired in fairly rapid order?
A.1233 No, I would say they would be about three seconds apart.

Q.1234 Would you say that they sounded like the normal sound of a shot fired from a Tommy Gun?
A.1234 Not being an expert .....

Q.1235 You have fired weapons?
A.1235 Yes.

Q.1236 Was there some space or time that would elapse between the normal firing of a Tommy Gun?
A.1236 Yes.

Q.1237 What kind of books do you like reading?
A.1237 Anything - detective stories, travel and adventure stories.

Q.1238 You like detective stories?
A.1238 Yes.

Q.1239 Do you read Conan-Doyle?
A.1239 Not for a long time.

Q.1240 Can you estimate the period of time you stood at or near the body lying outside R En Offrs' Mess that particular evening?
A.1240 About half a minute. As I said before, the Duty Offr seemed to have everything in order; the MO was coming so I ran over to see that my money was all right.

Q.1241 What clothing mainly did you find in the accused's kit?
A.1241 I didn't find anything unusual.

By the Court:

Q.1242 Would you describe how the accused was dressed when you found him?
A.1242 He was sitting up in bed so I can only give what appeared above the bed clothes. His underwear appeared to have been torn. He had no discs. That is all I can say.

Q.1243 You say there were three shots that you heard?
A.1243 As far as I can recall.

Q.1244 Were they close together?
A.1244 A spacing of one, two or three seconds.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1245 Major Vernier, there has been some questioning of your methods and of the part in which you played in the investigation. Did you do it from your sense of duty?
A.1245 Yes I did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(3).

The Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

The Court re-opened at Sorrento at 1400 hrs, 28 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

NINETEENTH WITNESS (Capt R.P. Jepson, 5 Mobile Neuro-Surgical Unit, RAMC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor. for Prosecution

Q.1246 You are attached to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. Is that right?
A.1246 That is right.

Q.1247 That hospital is located where?
A.1247 Naples.

Q.1248 Are you a Medical Doctor?
A.1248 Yes. I have medical degrees.

Q.1249 From what University?
A.1249 The University of Manchester.

Q.1250 Are you a licensed practitioner?
A.1250 Yes.

Q.1251 Will you give the Court your degrees?
A.1251 MB Manchester and BSc Manchester.

Q.1252 Are you licensed by the Medical Association?
A.1252 Yes.

Q.1253 Do you recall the night of 2/3 Aug 44?
A.1253 The early morning of the 3rd of August.

Q.1254 What happened that morning?
A.1254 I was sleeping in my flat, situated not far from the Hospital, and a message came which called me to the Hospital. I then went to the Hospital and examined a patient who was referred to me as Dillon. He was suffering from a through and through bullet wound of his head which had entered the right frontal bone and came out through the right occipital bone.

WRB/B

Q.1255 What time was this?
A.1255 I saw him at 0230 hrs on the 3rd of August, according to my notes.

Defending Offr:

I wish to raise an objection. The witness said, "I see from my notes". What evidence is there that these are the notes in question?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1256 When were those notes made?
A.1256 At the time I first saw the man.

Defending Offr:

When did he last see the notes he made?

Judge Advocate:

Q.1257 When did you last see those notes?
A.1257 The notes were completed on the day he died. I think he died on the 7th or 8th of August.

Defending Offr:

This matter should be cleared up to the satisfaction of the Court. You will notice that the witness has in his hand a certain document - certain memoranda - and has not the permission of the Court to refer to them.

Prosecutor:

The witness has not referred to them in the Court.

Defending Offr:

The witness used the words, "I see by my notes", and referred to the notes in his hand.

Judge Advocate:

Q.1258 Is the document, which you are holding in your hand, the notes which you mentioned?
A.1258 Yes.

Q.1259 Who made them?
A.1259 They are not the original notes.

Q.1260 Who copied them?
A.1260 Col. Ashcroft.

Defending Offr:

The witness is not entitled to refer to that document.

Prosecutor:

His is not referring to it except to refresh his memory.

Defending Offr:

I don't wish to be difficult, but I know the witness received these particular notes outside this Court Room and carried them in .....

WTBNB

Prosecutor:

I am not intending to establish .....

Defending Offr:

The evidence, this witness is giving, is evidence that he has got from certain pieces of paper which he did not have a hand in making.

(examination continued)

Q.1261 Would you mind pointing out to the Court on your own head where the wound of entry was and where the wound of exit was?
A.1261 The wound of entry was roughly here and the exit roughly here: the line between the two being more or less horizontal.
(the witness pointed first to the middle of the right forehead and then to the back of his head in line with the first point)

Q.1262 What caused this wound?
A.1262 A high velocity missile.

Q.1263 What happened to the patient after you first saw him?
A.1263 He was given a blood injection and was recussitated by having a tube put into his stomach for the purpose of administration of fluid.

Q.1264 Did you have anything more to do with the patient?
A.1264 Yes, I saw him again at 8:30 in the morning and operated on him at 0900 hrs.

Q.1265 What further attention did you give him?
WBB A.1265 I saw him afterwards perhaps two or times a day until he died.

Q.1266 What did he die from?
A.1266 He died from the effects of a severe brain injury and secondary bronchial-pneumonia.

Q.1267 Is bronchial-pneumonia a common sequence to a severe head injury?
WBB A.1267 Where a patient is in a coma from an injury to the head, you frequently get a lung condition which becomes infected causing pneumonia.

Q.1268 Do you know whether or not any person was treated in that hospital that night for wounds of that nature?
A.1268 Not to my knowledge. I would certainly have been called to see him if he had come in.

Q.1269 After the patient died, did you have any further dealings with him?
A.1269 No.

Cross-examined:

Q.1270 Apart from this particular head injury which you described as caused by a high velocity missile entering the right frontal bone, were there any other wounds in the head or body of the person you examined?
A.1270 No.

Q.1271 None apparent to you?
A.1271 No.

Q.1272 Did he have any bruises on his face or body?
A.1272 Not that I know of.

WBB

Q.1273 Is secondary bronchial-pneumonia caused by a bug or a bullet?
A.1273 A combination of the two.

Q.1274 Does the bullet bring the bug?
A.1274 No.

Q.1275 You stated to the Court that the bullet travelled through the head of this person in a horizontal line?
A.1275 Yes.

Q.1276 Can you tell whether the front or rear bone was on a horizontal plane?
A.1276 No, I cannot answer that.

Q.1277 Would you say there was the slightest difference in that line?
A.1277 I didn't pay that much attention to it.

Q.1278 You realize how important it is to the Court in testifying what was the actual line from the standpoint of the entry of the wound?
A.1278 Yes.

Q.1279 I suggest this to you; that if a bullet is fired from a pistol, from a reasonably close range, at someone else, the entry wound would be slightly higher if he were shot from the rear than if shot from in front?
A.1279 It would depend on the angle of the head. If his neck was flexed and the man was holding the pistol down here (indicates), it would be in a perfect horizontal line.

Q.1280 How could it be a perfect horizontal line if he fired from behind and the head is forward at an angle? Then, if the shot was fired from behind, the wound of exit would be much higher?
A.1280 If the man was firing from behind, yes.

Q.1281 I am meaning with regard to the normal position of the bodies?
A.1281 Then, if his head is bent forward, the exit wound would be higher than the entry wound. You realize that by horizontal plane is meant the line taken between the ear and the eye.

Q.1282 Could you describe to the Court the type of wound that a piece of string would leave on a reasonably tender part of the skin if the piece of string were jerked from the neck?
A.1282 It depends on the violence of the jerking.

Q.1283 Would you say that, if it were a violent jerk, the resulting wound would be a scratch or a welt?
A.1283 If it was a violent jerk it would be a burn.

Q.1284 Doctor, I want to assume that you have a set of identity discs around your neck, and that they are pulled sharply away from your throat. Would the string, in breaking, leave two or more identical burns on the skin?
A.1284 It again depends on the amount of friction between the string and the skin. If it were a very good piece of string that would not break without a great pull; if it required great violence, you probably would get burns on both sides of the neck.

Q.1285 Could you tell the Court - describe the amount or type of burns which you referred to? Would it be a burn or a welt?
A.1285 In which order?

WBB

Q.1286 You realize perhaps that you are giving evidence before a Canadian Court, and you may be using the word "burn" in a different sense than the Court would understand it?
A.1286 Perhaps if I gave an example: say a rock climber, who after falling, say five or ten yards, is brought to a sudden stop by the rope, he would get second degree burns.

Q.1287 A second degree burn leaves quite a scar?
A.1287 No scar. Just a bruise.

Q.1288 And that would be .....
A.1288 That depends on the amount of skin surface covered by the string.

Q.1289 Could you tell the Court anything as to the range at which this missile was fired?
A.1289 No, I don't remember seeing powder marks on the skin.

Q.1290 Do you know how far away the pistol has to be held - how close to the body to leave powder marks?
A.1290 No.

Q.1291 How many doctors were there in the staff of 65 Brit Gen Hosp on the 2nd of Aug 44?
A.1291 You mean the whole of 65 Gen Hosp, both medical and surgical?

Q.1292 Yes, approximately how many?
A.1292 I would say about ten or twelve.

Q.1293 Did you notice any bruises on the left forehead of the person you examined?
A.1293 No.

Q.1294 What is the usual medical method of determining which is the point of entry, and which is the point of exit in a case of this kind?
A.1294 I always tell by ascertaining where there is greater fragmentation of bone.

Q.1295 But had you seen the wound immediately after being inflicted, what would you look for to find the wound of entry and exit?
A.1295 Firstly, powder marks on the skin and then the relative size of the exit and entry wounds.

Q.1296 Which would be the larger?
A.1296 The exit wound is usually the larger.

Q.1297 If one wound is smaller than the other, both are exuding blood, then that would indicate to you that the small wound is the wound of entry and the larger is the wound of exit?
A.1297 Yes, it would be.

Q.1298 Now, is this small wound of entry and large wound of exit characteristic of both pistol and rifle bullet wounds?
A.1298 I believe so.

Q.1299 If there had been previous interference; if the wound had been previously dressed on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 by a surgeon; would it be possible that you could make a mistake as to which was the wound of entry or exit?
A.1299 I had no doubt at the time.

Q.1300 I used the word "interference"?
A.1300 That depends as to what you mean by "interference".

WTB/B

Q.1301 If there had been interference in the surface dressings or inside the wound itself? If both front and rear wounds had been cleaned up?
A.1301 After a complete and formal operation, I could not tell.

Q.1302 How far would a complete and formal operation have to go?
A.1302 Would you like the details?

Q.1303 When you first treated this patient, you concentrated on the head injury?
A.1303 His general condition was first seen to .....

Q.1304 How far did you go?
A.1304 Took his pulse, checked his blood pressure and response to pain, and if he could talk.

Q.1305 When did you first examine his chest?
A.1305 At the time when I first saw him.

Q.1306 How far did you go?
A.1306 [illegible] was made.

WJB Q.1307 With a stethescope?
A.1307 Yes, with a stethescope.

Q.1308 When you say you examined the patient referred to you as Dillon, you gained that information from a medical document?
A.1308 Yes.

Q.1309 Did you take any other steps for the identification of that particular body?
A.1309 No.

Q.1310 Did you take any further notice of the body?
A.1310 Not particularily, no.

Q.1311 Did you find any foreign skin or blood substance under his fingernails?
A.1311 No.

Re-examined:

Q.1312 What were the comparative sizes of the wounds of entry and exit?
A.1312 From memory I should say the entry wound size was about the size of a sixpence and the exit would was between the size of a shilling and a florin.

By the Court :

Q.1313 Doctor, from the appearance of the wound, did it seem if the shot was fired from a short or long distance away?
A.1313 I don't think you could tell.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1314 What was the date of this patient's death?
A.1314 The 7th or 8th.

Q.1315 Of August 1944?
A.1315 Yes.

WJB

Q.1316 If we were to suppose that this patient had received no medical treatment before you saw him except to have two field dressings applied to his head on the occasion when he was discovered shot and then later had these dressings renewed, would you be able to determine the wound of entry and the wound of exit?
A.1316 At the time of the operation, yes.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

TWENTIETH WITNESS(Lt B.J. Dolan, 3 Bn 1 CBRD, for (having been duly sworn,
Prosecution (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1317 Do you recall the evening of 2 Aug 44?
A.1317 Yes sir.

Q.1318 What were you doing that evening?
A.1318 On 2 Aug 44 I was Gd Comd, 1 CBRD.

Q.1319 What, if anything, happened that evening?
A.1319 At approximately between 1030 and 1100 o'clock in the evening I heard a shot, I immediately ordered the guard to stand to. While this was happening two more shots were fired. I got a party together to investigate the shooting. In front of 2 and 3 Bn Offrs' Mess, I saw a body lying there. There was an offr in charge. He had the situation under control. I immediately took my party to investigate the buildings in the area. I found nothing out of the ordinary. I came back where the body was lying. He had been evacuated. We looked around the area and the Cpl of the Guard found an empty .45 casing. He turned it over to me. Later I turned the casing over to the Adjt, 2 Bn. That's all, sir.

Q.1320 Was that the only incident that night?
A.1320 No sir. Later I was called out again to investigate the case of a Sgt from the Cdn Dental Corps who had fallen out of an upstairs window in his quarters.

Q.1321 What was the name of the Cpl of the Guard?
A.1321 Cpl Ferguson, sir.

Q.1322 Will you describe the casing which he turned over to you?
A.1322 It was a casing that had been scraped, greyish in colour and not the ordinary .45 casing.

Q.1323 What type of a .45 casing was it?
A.1323 I do not know.

Q.1324 If there were several casings handed to you, similar in colour, would you be able to pick out the casing Cpl Ferguson handed to you?
A.1324 I have sworn by Almighty God, about two minutes ago, to tell the truth. I don't think I am capable of doing so, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q.1325 You told the Court that a Dental Sgt had fallen out of a window in the barracks?
A.1325 I don't believe I said inside Canada Bks. The Dental Barracks are immediately outside on the road to Montefore.

Q.1326 That is outside, just at the end of the west wall of Canada Bks?
A.1326 It is immediately outside the west wall.

BNB

Q.1327 On the road to Naples?
A.1327 Yes.

Q.1328 Did you form the opinion that the Dental Sgt had been drunk?
A.1328 When I got over there the Medical Offr was there. I questioned the men and found out what had happened.

Q.1329 As a result of the questioning, were you able to form any opinion?
A.1329 No sir.

Q.1330 You knew at that time there had been a shooting at Canada Bks?
A.1330 Yes sir.

Q.1331 Did you make any attempt to search the barracks of this Sgt to find a pistol?
A.1331 No sir.

Q.1332 Did you try to connect this incident of the fall of the Sgt with the shooting incident?
A.1332 No sir.

Q.1333 By that time the shooting was old history was it?
A.1333 Yes sir.

Q.1334 You say that you heard three shots fired'
A.1334 Yes sir.

Q.1335 Did you or did you not hear one and then two more?
A.1335 I heard one shot and called the guard. There was one or more after that.

Q.1336 How long did it take you to get the guard called out after the first shot?
A.1336 Approximately a couple of minutes, sir.

Q.1337 The main idea was for you and your guard to identify the person and catch him?
A.1337 We did not know what it was. In the past month in that barracks there had been shooting every night. We thought it was another case of a guard shooting at a man going over the fence or something.

Q.1338 It wasn't unusual to hear shots at this time?
A.1338 No sir.

Q.1339 Do you remember handling three cartridge casings?
A.1339 No sir.

Q.1340 How many did you handle?
A.1340 On the 2nd of Aug one was found. The next morning my Cpl passed me another one he found in the area.

Q.1341 He told you he found them?
A.1341 Yes sir.

Q.1342 Were you present with the Cpl when he found the first casing?
A.1342 Yes sir.

Q.1343 How close were you to him when he found it?
A.1343 Approximately two feet.

Q.1344 While you had the casings in your possession did you at any time mark them for specific identification?
A.1344 No sir.

WRB

Q.1345 Did you handle any identification discs that evening?
A.1345 No sir. I recall something about some identification discs, but I didn't see them.

Q.1346 You made a search in the Records Office of the Seaforths for a certain name and number?
A.1346 Yes sir.

Q.1347 Where did you get the information as to the name and number?
A.1347 There was a Senior Offr present.

Q.1348 Did someone tell you what was on the identity discs?
A.1348 Yes sir.

Q.1349 That is the only way you got the information?
A.1349 Yes sir.

Q.1350 Now, having information as to the finding of the identity discs, did you come to the conclusion that the person referred to on the identity discs was guilty of the shooting?
A.1350 No sir.

Q.1351 Did you keep an open mind?
A.1351 Yes sir.

Q.1352 Did you form the conclusion that he had a strong connection with the case?
A.1352 No sir.

Q.1353 No conclusion at all?
A.1353 No sir.

Q.1354 Were there any fights in and around the gate at that time?
A.1354 No sir.

Q.1355 Apart from the Sgt falling out of the window and the shots you heard fired, was there anything unusual that evening?
A.1355 No sir.

Re-examined:

Q.1356 How far away was the building the Sgt fell out of from the Gd Room?
A.1356 At least 500 yards.

Q.1357 In what direction?
A.1357 On the road to Monteforte.

Defending Offr:

I think there is some confusion. We should refer to the sketch.

By the Court:

Q.1358 The building is on the road to Monteforte between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp?
A.1358 Yes sir. Between Canada Bks and 3 Cdn Gen Hosp on the road to Montefore.

Q.1359 You stated there was shooting every night?
A.1359 Yes sir.

Q.1360 On what do you base that statement?
A.1360 From what I have seen.

Q.1361 Are you in the Barracks every night?
A.1361 No sir. I have been in the Barracks for a month.

WJB

Q.1362 You stated that it might have been one of the guards firing at somebody going over the fence?
A.1362 Yes sir.

Q.1363 To your knowledge has that ever happened?
A.1363 I could not swear to it, but I believe it has happened.

Q.1364 You don't know?
A.1364 No sir.

Defending Offr:

Sir, your questions were limited to soldiers. Was there any incident of Italians being fired at?

By the Court:

Q.1365 Were there any instructions given to you as Guard Commander that you keep out civilians or unrecognized persons from entering the front of Canada Bks?
A.1365 Not to my knowledge; no sir.

Q.1366 In other words the sentry uses his own judgment?
A.1366 Yes sir.

Q.1367 Can you tell the difference between a car back-firing and a shot?
A.1367 No sir.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1368 Lt Dolan, do you know the name of the offr whom you said had the situation under control where the body was found in front of the 3 Bn Offrs' Mess?
A.1368 Truthfully, no sir.

Q.1369 Do you know the name of the 2 Bn Adjt to whom you gave the .45 casing?
A.1369 Yes sir.

Q.1370 Who was it?
A.1370 At that time, Lt Snell, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(3).

TWENTY-FIRST WITNESS for Prosecution (Lt H.J. MacComb (48 Highrs), 3 Bn 1 CBRD (having been duly sworn, (is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1371 Do you recall 3 Aug 44?
A.1371 Yes I do.

Q.1372 To what unit did you belong at that time?
A.1372 3 Bn 1 CBRD.

Q.1373 What happened that day as far as you were concerned?
A.1373 I was on a Court of Inquiry.

Q.1374 Will you tell the Court what you did as a result of receiving instructions from the President of that Court of Inquiry?
A.1374 I went over to the Gd Room.

Q.1375 What did you do in the Gd Room?
A.1375 I searched the belongings of the accused and the accused's person. I found two fountain pens which I turned over to the President of the Court.

WWB/B

Q.1376 Who was this person you searched?
A.1376 I don't know his name but I would know him to see him.

Q.1377 Is that person in this Court Room?
A.1377 Yes he is.

Q.1378 Will you point him out to the Court?
A.1378 There sir. (witness points to the accused)

Q.1379 Will you describe to the Court the fountain pens that you took off the accused on the morning of 3 Aug 44?
A.1379 I cannot describe them closely. I know that they were two grey pens. One was light grey and one darker grey.

Q.1380 By "light grey" what do you mean?
A.1380 Fairly light; nearly white.

Q.1381 I propose to show you two pens, and all you are required to do is to say "yes" or "no".

Defending Offr:

I am going to object to the witness being shown the pens on the ground that there is not a real test being made. Have him pick these pens out of a group of pens. I am going to object to his answering "yes" and "no". If he feels the proper answer is not "yes" or "no", he is allowed, I believe, to give his answer as he sees fit. The person asking the witness is bound by the whole of the reply which is elucidated from the question.

Judge Advocate:

Capt Bergman, I see no objection to the witness being shown two pens and asked if he is able to identify them. He has described two pens which he claims to have found in the accused's kit or person - one being light grey in colour and the other being dark grey in colour. The witness is not prepared to go further in his identification. The Court will give due regard to the sufficiency of his identification. If the witness is prepared to identify them, I think the pens should be admitted, - if you like, subject to your objection.

Defending Offr:

I want the identification to be subject to my objection, sir.

Prosecutor:

Q.1382 I now show you three pens. Can you identify any of them?
A.1382 This is definitely one. (witness indicates light pearl grey fountain pen) These two I can't be sure of. (witness indicates fountain pen marked Exhibit "I" and a grey fountain pen similar in appearance to Exhibit "I")

Q.1383 These two you cannot be sure of?
A.1383 No. (fountain pen, light pearl grey in colour admitted and marked Exhibit "Q")

Q.1384 Where did you find these pens?
A.1384 They were on the accused's person. He gave them to me himself.

Q.1385 When you said you could not be sure what did you mean?
A.1385 The other two pens look alike. I cannot swear to either one of them.

Cross-examined:

Q.1386 Why did you say that the pen, Exhibit "Q", is definitely one that you could identify?

A.1386 I do not understand.

Q.1387 Why did you say, "this is definitely one"?

A.1387 It is the same pen I picked up that day. That is the only pen I have ever seen of that colour. I am pretty sure that this is the same one.

Q.1388 Did you mark either of the two pens specifically for future identification?

A.1388 There is one definite mark on one of the pens. One had tooth marks on it.

Q.1389 On the bright white pen?

A.1389 Yes.

Q.1390 On the white pen?

A.1390 I don't know. I think it is on the white pen. It is so long ago that I -----

Q.1391 Did you yourself put any specific identification mark on either of these two pens?

A.1391 I didn't.

Q.1392 Who handled the two pens next?

A.1392 The President of the Court.

Q.1393 Who was that?

A.1393 Major Morgan.

Q.1394 Did you ever see the pens again before to-day?

A.1394 I saw them the next day.

Q.1395 Under what circumstances?

A.1395 Pte Wilcock, a 48 Highr, claimed he had had one stolen from him and wanted to identify his.

Q.1396 Was that in connection with your duties on the Court of Inquiry?

A.1396 Yes sir.

Q.1397 Did you see them again after that?

A.1397 No, I didn't.

Q.1398 You never have?

A.1398 I have never seen them since.

Q.1399 When were you first told you would be giving evidence on a subsequent trial?

A.1399 I was never told I was going to give evidence.

Q.1400 Were you advised by Capt Snell as to what evidence you were going to give?

A.1400 No.

Q.1401 How did he know what you were going to say in Court to-day?

A.1401 That is right, there was a 'phone call to Naples that I would have to identify the pens.

Q.1402 If I put the pen, Exhibit "Q", in with a group of 15 or 20 other identical pens, would you definitely be able to pick it out?

A.1402 I would not be sure.

WJB/B

Q.1403 Now, when you went to the accused to get these pens, you had him indicated to you at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1403 I don't remember whether it was before or after.

Q.1404 Had you seen the accused or had him under observation for some little time prior to to-day?
A.1404 I just saw him the day I went to the Court of Inquiry; the day we had him at the Court of Inquiry.

Q.1405 The accused was given quite a grilling at your Court wasn't he?
A.1405 The Major asked him a few questions.

Q.1406 What do you mean by "a few"?
A.1406 About 15 or 20, I imagine.

Q.1407 Did Major Morgan or any member of the Court administer the caution to the accused that he need not answer questions that would criminate him at any time prior to giving evidence?
A.1407 I don't remember.

Q.1408 Would you have remembered if that had been done?
A.1408 I cannot say.

Q.1409 Wasn't the accused at that time ever told by any members of the Court that he was under oath when giving evidence?
A.1409 Not that I remember.

Q.1410 You didn't let Robinson go until you were satisfied that you had got all the information out of him? Is that not correct?
A.1410 That is correct.

Re-examined:

Q.1411 In your cross-examination, you stated that Wilcock identified the pen. Was the accused present when Wilcock made the identification?
A.1411 No, I don't think so.

Q.1412 You stated that one of the pens had a tooth mark on the nib, right?
A.1412 That is right.

Judge Advocate:

He did not say that. I think he just said tooth marks and nothing about a nib.

Defending Offr:

Having asked the last question, it is rather useless to ask it in a different way now.

By the Court:

Q.1413 When the accused was being searched by you in the presence of the other people in the Gd Room, was there any conversation between you and him when the pens were found?
A.1413 No, there wasn't.

By the Judge Advocate:

Q.1414 You mentioned a Court of Inquiry which was held on 3 Aug 44, and you also stated that Major Morgan was President of a Court. Is that the same Court of Inquiry you first mentioned?
A.1414 Yes.

Q.1415 When you went to the Gd Room to make this search, was that before or after the accused had given evidence at the Court of Inquiry?
A.1415 I am not sure. I think it was after.

Q.1416 What particular Gd Room was it that you went to?
A.1416 2 Bn Gd Room.

Q.1417 And I think you told the Court you found these two pens on the person of the accused?
A.1417 That is right.

Q.1418 In what manner?
A.1418 They were handed to me by the accused himself.

Q.1419 Where did he get them?
A.1419 He took them out of his inside pocket.

Q.1420 What did you say to the accused that made him reach into his pocket and hand them to you?
A.1420 I asked him to empty his pockets. He did.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it was unnecessary to comply with the provisions of RP 83(B).

The Prosecution is closed.

Court adjourned at 1540 hrs.

Court re-opened at Avellino at 1000 hrs, 29 Sep 44, the same members being present.

Prosecutor produced Medical Certificate.

Defence did not require Major J.R.H. Morgan for cross-examination.

Defending Offr's Submission:

Mr. President, I wish to make a motion pursuant to the provisions of fn 1 to RP 40. The evidence adduced by the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused, having regards to the facts alleged in the charge sheet. The accused, therefore, should not be put upon his defence. At this time, as the Judge Advocate will probably advise you, the only question which the Court has to consider is whether or not the offence alleged has been proven. The question of a special finding or conviction of a lesser offence does not arise. I will, in the course of my remarks, make certain allegations against the Prosecution. I would, at this time like the Court to be firmly convinced that these allegations are not against the Prosecuting Offr in this case. When I use the term "Prosecution", I refer to the investigation which started on the night of the 2nd of August and which lead to the evidence which has been submitted to the Court in the past few days. I would further state that the conduct of the Prosecuting Offr, in my mind and in the mind of the accused, has been most fair. When I use a loose expression, such as "the Prosecution", I refer entirely to the history of this case which started some time between 2330 hrs and 2345 hrs, 2 Aug 44, and also to the amount of investigation, both legal and special, which is on the record and which the Court must examine. I may also state that both I, as Defending Offr, and the accused, who is on trial, consider that the Court which is judging the guilt or innocence of the accused has been completely fair. The Defence has not been hampered by the Court in any way shape or form. The accused has had a considerate and kindly hearing. However, I intend to castigate the prosecution for their sins of omission, rather than their sins of commission. These remarks I hope the Court will interpret as a castigation of the individuals who first took charge of this investigation. You have had one reference by a witness for the Prosecution that legal advice was sought in completing or preparing the case against the accused. That reference deals entirely with the assistance sought of Capt Bate in his capacity as ADJA at HQ 1 CBRGp. The whole Court has sufficient Army experience to know that Capt Bate, in his official capacity as ADJA, considers the Summary of Evidence and charge sheet before trial. Therefore, the Court must accept the fact that his responsibility is the technical and legal responsibility to decide that the written or typewritten sheets discloses an alleged offence. The ADJA on any HQ is neither an amateur or professional detective. He is the legal assistant to the Comd. Therefore, any evidence as to the assistance which the Prosecution sought from his department should naturally be depricated. When one considers that he is not, nor ever was intended to be, a "Sherlock Holmes", I submit that the reference which the witness, namely Capt Snell, made to his "assistance" should be discarded completely. Capt Bate gave his assistance to these incompetents by virtue of the kindness of his heart and not because of the duties which naturally flow from his particular appointment. The evidence submitted by the Prosecution is purely circumstantial. It may be felt by the Court to be quite strong circumstantial evidence. I refer the Court to MML Chap VI, para 42, pp 91-2. (reads para 42) The entire history of this case has been full of sins of omission, perhaps the grossest of which is the failure of supposedly competent and qualified offrs, with normal mental capacity and education, to call upon anymilitary police - either Canadian, British, or American to assist them. Had this been done, the Court would undoubtedly have been supplied with certain expert ballistic evidence as to whether the pistol, Exhibit "O", had been recently fired and whether or not the two empty cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", had been ejected from that pistol. At this stage in the trial, the cartridge casings have not been connected with the pistol in any way. In view of the evidence before the Court, the normal assumption must be that they were, in fact, not fired from the same weapon. It does not take expert evidence to see that the mark made by the firing pin on Exhibit "M" is different from the mark on Exhibit "N". Nor does it take expert evidence to see that had Exhibits "M" and "N" been the spent cartridge casings which were ejected as a result of the last two shots that were fired that night from the same weapon, the person firing the weapon must have been flying a Spitfire in order to cover the distance between the places the casings were found - a space of some 200 to 250 yards in approximately two seconds. I suggest to the Court it is a matter of their common knowledge, and a matter of which they can take judicial notice; that a pistol ejecting two spent cartridge casings would eject them in roughly the same area, providing no mechanical defects between the first and second shots. The Prosecution has made no attempt to explain the relevancy of the cartridge casings, Exhibits "M" and "N", either to the specific weapon or to the specific shooting. This tends to confuse rather than to assist the Court. Until such time as Exhibits "M" and "N" are related in some way to the accused and to the offence charged, these exhibits should not be admitted in evidence. In fact, from the evidence before the Court, it is much more likely that these cartridge casings came from some other weapon and from a prior shooting. The evidence before the Court shows that the firing of weapons in Canada Bks at that time of night was not unusual; that according to the only Guard Commander examined, apart from Lt Dolan, shooting at 2200 hrs nightly was a notorious fact; that there were a large number of drunks around the gates and in the area of Canada Bks on the night of the 2nd of Aug 44; that around the 2nd of August, Thompson Machine Carbines were being fired daily on the ranges; and that Thompson Machine Carbines were in good supply at that time. Therefore, any soldier who had surplus ammunition and who did not fill his magazine completely could have quite easily put some extra rounds into his pocket. There has been a certain amount of cross-examination on what might be termed ballistics evidence. Yet in my cross-examination I have attempted, on this point, to limit it to that type of ballistics evidence which could be defined as matters that come within the Court's general military knowledge. In that way I have avoided the calling of expert ballistic witnesses. As the Judge Advocate will probably advise you later, ballistic evidence comes well within the general military knowledge of the members of the Court, who are commissioned offrs of the Canadian Army. Therefore, that evidence complies with RP 74. The Court has three specific problems to decide in the matter of identification alone. First they must have a corpus delecti, and he must be identified as the person described in the charge sheet. Secondly, the accused must be identified with the offence. Thirdly, there must be specific identification of the exhibits tendered in evidence. This has not been done in the case of any of the three. Dealing with the first; the Court only has evidence that a set of identity discs were buried. There is no proper identification of the person described in the charge sheet with the person who was certified dead and subsequently buried. Without labouring this particular point, if the Court will only refer to the evidence concerning a certain medical document; the document which admits a soldier to hospital, it will recall that the name and number of the person on that document was put on it by Capt Verdicchio as a result of what someone told him. The certificate concerning the person treated and the certificate as to the person buried is an identification only by virtue of what someone told someone else - statement made not in the presence of the accused. Look at Capt Tootell's evidence. The Court can well remember that I examined him as to the time he saw the patient as recorded in his diary. He gave a fairly unsatisfactory explanation. He could not have seen that person before 0200 hrs 3 Aug 44 as the admission paper shows it was at 0145 hrs. He has told you that he buried someone whose name he assumed was Dillon, by virtue of information he received concerning a person admitted on the 2nd of August 44. He was checked carefully as to this. Therefore, according to his evidence, the person he buried on 8 Aug 44 is a person who was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp prior to the time the person who was shot at Canada Bks could have got there.

WBB

One observation I would like to make is, that it is not the duty of the Court either to correct the mistakes made by the Prosecution or to fill in the gaps left by either the Defence or the Prosecution when you have persons with legal qualifications assisting the Court in presenting the evidence to it. It is well known that it is a principle of British justice that it is better that nine to ten guilty men should go free than for one innocent man to be hung. The Court must look to the Prosecuting Offr and to the Defending Offr to assist them in examining all the angles involved in any offence; particularly in a case like this which presents more than the usual difficulties encountered in ordinary Field General Courts Martial. The Defending and Prosecuting Offrs are charged with presenting a case, properly investigated, to the best of their ability. The Court will decide on the guilt or innocence of the accused person on the evidence adduced and admitted on the record. To carry on with the identification details encountered in this particular case; there is only one instance of any specific identification of the accused with the alleged shooting of Dillon. This is evidence of Cpl De Harte. Cpl De Harte stated that he saw the accused on the parade square arguing with the man who supposedly gave his name as "Dillon".

WBB

De Hart went further. He identified the accused specifically as the man who was arguing with this nebulous Dillon. De Harte's evidence shows that the argument between Dillon and the accused was the third argument, I believe I am correct, with which he had occasion to interfere that evening. He could not identify the other two people that he stopped arguing before he had words with the person he identified as the accused. Why? I ask the Court to disregard completely the identification evidence given by Cpl De Harte, especially in view of the subsequent history of that identification he gave in cross-examination. De Harte has himself told the Court that before he was asked to identify the accused he had the accused under observation for some 45 minutes while the accused was waiting to give evidence at the Court of Inquiry. There the accused stood between two escorts, without a hat on. So that before De Harte was called on specifically to identify the accused, he had had him under observation for some time. According to his own evidence, he came to the conclusion that the accused was closely linked with the shooting on the night of 2 Aug 44. Bearing in mind this period of observation, the Judge Advocate will advise you as to the degree of reliability to be attached to such identification evidence. I submit the accused should be granted all the rights and privileges afforded an accused by the civil and criminal courts in Canada. When a man puts on a uniform and becomes a soldier, nevertheless, when charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act of committing a civil offence, he should be given the benefit of the rights extended to him in Canadian civil and criminal courts. He should not be deprived of his civil rights merely by virtue of the fact that he has offered his services to his country and now wears khaki and not zombie garb. Dealing more specifically with De Harte's evidence;- let us analyse the psychological features of the human mind. You are acquainted with people who, as a result of subsequent consideration of what they saw, come to the conclusion that because certain facts should be so, they are so. As a result of that subsequent consideration, they suffer from the hallucination that it actually is so. I throw a challenge to you as individuals, to consider whether you are satisfied in your minds that De Harte saw the accused, as he said, or came to that conclusion as a result of having the accused under observation subsequent to 2 Aug 44. Can you, as reasonable individuals, accept his statement beyond a reasonable doubt? I strongly protest against the unfair and incompetent manner in which the accused was handled prior to the proper identification parade. I protest against the manner in which the accused was publically paraded under escort before a proper identification was made. The Court must consider very carefully the amount of reliability which can be placed on De Harte's identification. I submit that there is a sufficiently strong doubt to disregard that identification entirely. Its reliability has been completely upset. I request the Judge Advocate, in his summing up, to refer to the usual proper criminal methods of identification in civilian courts and specifically to mention the number of cases and the type of cases which the Courts have thrown out because of improper and incompetent identification. The identification of the exhibits is unreliable and incomplete. In only one instance has a specific exhibit been identified. That was when Major Bernier identified the pistol, Exhibit "G", by means of the difference in the sides of the handle or butt grip. The right hand grip, as you noticed, is smooth; whereas, the left hand grip is rough - the ordinary grip. Major Bernier, however, did not bring out that specific means of identification in his examination. It was not until he was closely questioned in cross-examination that he finally remembered. That pistol passed through many hands. That pistol, in the hands of competent people, would have been closely studied for any specific features as well as the serial number. No one yet has identified that pistol in the proper manner.by its serial number. Major Bernier, as an after thought, imagined the difference in the sides of the butt plate. Never, at any time prior to the taking of the Summary of Evidence, were any of the exhibits specifically marked . No one, therefore, can say that the exhibits, that have been tendered in evidence, are the objects found on the 2nd or 3rd of August. The Court is now in the position of having before it exhibit evidence of no specific or substantial value. The doubt which must arise in their minds negatives the evidentiary value of those exhibits. Therefore, they are valueless in linking the accused with the offence alleged in the charge sheet. You will, no doubt, be advised by the Judge Advocate that no matter how amateur our Canadian Police are - how amateur they may be in investigating an offence - they always tag an exhibit. It is immediately marked for identification and kept in safe custody until it is presented in evidence at trial. I refer to a case at which the present Judge Advocate sat as Judge Advocate; which I think was tried on the 21st or 22nd of December, 1943. I was defending. There were two main exhibits, one of which was a beer bottle. The original handling of that exhibit was incompetent. It was a question of identifying certain fingerprints on that bottle as having been made by the accused. The bottle was not marked by the first person finding it. It subsequently came into the hands of the civilian police and was properly kept in safe custody until the trial. But its evidentiary value was negatived because of the incompetence of the first person examining it. In the English Courts - I say this from personal knowledge - it seems that exhibits do not have to be marked with the same care that they do in the Canadian Courts. But I draw your attention to the fact that you, as president and members of this Court, are Canadians trying a Canadian soldier. Therefore, you should allow him the same consideration which a Canadian criminal court would allow him in deciding him guilty or not guilty of this offence. The history of this case indicates that the handling of these exhibits has been amateurish. I submit that the prosecution witnesses had seen them time and time again before they identified them before this Court. There is evidence that a Court of Inquiry was held prior to this trial. You had a Summary of Evidence taken and you have had this trial. There may have been some check made, but there has been no instance of a proper identification. The Court will realize that, because the Prosecutor and the Defending Offr had neither the chance nor the opportunity of controlling the type of investigation these individuals conducted, the evidence has not been presented as it would be in civilian life. Some of you may consider that we give up these civil rights and privileges by virtue of serving our King and Country. It does not matter one iota whether a man serves with a base unit or serves for months in the front line. The fact that he has signed an attestation paper makes him liable to be sent into any theatre of operations if His Majesty, through his representatives, deems fit. I don't want the Court to be prejudiced for one minute because this individual came from a Base Unit, or that he should be given any different consideration because this incident did not happen within a few yards of the German trenches. Without labouring too much the identification of the exhibits - the guilt or innocence of the accused is to be determined by offrs who have had normal training: what is known as "training common-to-all-arms". So without going into expert ballistic evidence, let us deal specifically with Exhibits "M" and "N", the spent cartridge casings. The distinct features in the identification of a spent cartridge casings are the company which manufactured them; the year in which they were manufactured; and the mark made by the firing pin, especially its size and position. There are many other ways in which an expert can identify a spent casing, but the ways I have cited are known to the amateur. There are also matters which come well within the Court's general knowledge, and, therefore, judicial notice can be taken of them pursuant to RP 74. The absence of proper identification, under any of the three headings I have mentioned, would be sufficient for a Judge of a Canadian Criminal Court to refuse to admit such exhibits in evidence. Then consider the other morning when the Court is left hanging in the air because the pistol which was found in the area of the accused's bed had been tampered to the extent that they stated that the pistol which was found in the area of the accused's bed had been fired. Yet the Court is left hanging in the air because they could not state specifically or even attempt to explain in hours what they meant by "recently fired". None of us has any idea as to time elapsed or assumed time elapsed according to their evidence. Any from the word "recently". Yet according to the witnesses refer to in their evidence, it must have been in their hands in less than 45 minutes from the firing of the shots which the pistol which was used in the firing of the pistol which was found been the particular weapon. Any person with the slightest knowledge of weapons and who has made tests will realize that a pistol smells identically the same four hrs after it has been fired as it smells 15 or 20 minutes later. These two witnesses dare to offer their evidence, in spite of the fact that one is a member of the Pay Corps, completely lacking the experience of a normal regimental offr in the field; while the second, Capt Snell, had been on a party and had been drinking. That Capt Snell drinks is not unusual - but he had been at a party. No reflection is intended in referring to that fact. Yet it is a notorious fact according to medical science that indulgence in alcoholic stimulants dulls all senses, including the sense of smell. The responsibility of passing a death sentence based on the nebulous memories of these two witnesses as to the events of the evening of 2 Aug 44 is a responsibility not to be taken lightly. If such a sentence were put into effect, it might well be the cause of nightmares and many sleepless hours for the members of the Court. Dealing with certain parts of the medical evidence - That death of Pte Dillon, the person named in the charge sheet. Court must give careful consideration as to the cause of the Court must include whether or not the wound of entry was in the front or in the back of the head. Here again the Court must look to the Defence and not to the Prosecution for assistance. No attempt has been made to establish which was the wound of entry and which the wound of exit. It is important for the Court to determine whether this person was shot from behind while walking in an upright position, by someone across the roadway at Canada Bks, or was he knocked down by an assailant, and when falling, reached out, grabbing at them off and was he still holding them firmly while unconscious after having been shot? The presence of the identity discs must be satisfactorily explained by the Prosecution. What is the interpretation that is to be placed on it, taking into consideration the marks on the neck, and under the chin of the accused that were observed when he was subsequently examined?

expert ballistic evidence, let us deal specifically with Exhibits "H" and "H", the spent cartridge casings. The presence of the identity discs must be satisfactorily explained by the Prosecution. What is the interpretation that is to be placed on it, taking into consideration the marks on the neck, and under the chin of the accused that were observed when he was subsequently examined?

WTB13

The latter seems to be the theory of the Prosecution. Yet it has one inconsistency. It is, as suggested, Dillon, in his last moment of consciousness, grasped these identity discs from the neck or throat of the accused at the time he was shot. I think there is medical evidence to the effect that he would have held on to them for dear life. Capt McKee would have found them tightly clenched in his hands and would not have had too easy a time removing them. Had they been grasped a moment or two before the shot was fired then the shot must have been fired from behind as the man fell forward on his face. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Major Davidson was that he was shot from in front. Had the deceased first got hold of the discs and had afterwards been hit by the bullet he would have instinctively made a last movement - put his hands out to break his fall. The evidence is that the identification discs were found in his hand, but ordinarily if his fingers had been outstretched to break his fall, the identity discs would have dropped and fallen in close proximity to his left hand. Then consideration must be given to the manner in which Capt McKee told the Court the way in which the identity discs were found in the hands of the deceased. You will recall that he could not say definitely whether both identity discs were covered by the palm, but he made a point of holding them in this manner, indicating that they had been picked up or handled some time prior to the bullet entering Dillon's head. What other explanation can the Court reasonably take of the manner in which these identification discs came into the hand of the deceased? In order to make it easier for the Court to reach a satisfactory determination, let us consider the effect of seven, eight or 12 people milling around that body when it was first found. You will well realize the confusion which must happen over the finding of a body seriously wounded at a base area where enemy action is not expected or contemplated. Did or did not someone who came within a foot of the body lean down, examine the body and put the identity discs there? That is something that must be given consideration and only discarded on specific evidence and for specific reasons. The Court must reconstruct this shooting. They must find a satisfactory answer as to what happened and come to a conclusion beyond a reasonable doubt. The explanation, which the Court must make as to the finding of these identity discs, must be an explanation, not only that the accused committed the crime, but one that is inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. This may not be in strictly chronological order, but let me draw your attention to two even greater inconsistencies respecting the identity discs in order to show you that they could not have been pulled from the neck of Robinson by Dillon immediately prior to the alleged shooting. If you examine the string you will see that the part that would go round the neck is only 11½ inches long. To verify this measurement the Court may take a ruler and check. That obviously is not long enough to go around the neck of the accused. Therefore, the string must have been broken in two places. If it was broken when pulled from the accused's neck, then only one break would occur . It is a matter of notoriety that, when a piece of string is pulled sharply, it breaks at the point of resistance, normally. It may also break at a point close to a knot. This string shows no presence of a knot. The first resistance would normally be at the back of the neck equidistant from the top of the identity discs and, all other things being equal, would break at that point of first resistance. I suggest that this piece of string is not broken sufficiently close to the knot to have been broken in two places at the same time. Therefore, had the string been broken in two places by the deceased, Dillon, in his last dying grasp, the other piece of string which is missing should have been readily found. Now dealing with the next point, the Court must bear in mind that I knew we were going to have an adjournment. The Judge Advocate will probably tell you that as Defending Offr it is up to me to represent the accused in the best manner I can and therefore, in doing that, I must save my ammunition as long as I can. That must be apparent to the Court from my examination of Capt Jepson, the last medical witness. In order that I might not indicate to the Prosecution too clearly what I was searching for in establishing the type of wounds observed on the neck of the accused on the night of the 2nd of August, I refrained from asking questions as to the type of scar or burn or wound which would be left by a piece of string being pulled sharply against a piece of tender skin. It does not matter whose evidence the Court believes. All the people who gave evidence as to the type of bruises or scratches on the neck of the accused, stated that they were of the type of scar or wound left by fingernails. They also stated that, apart from the length and width of these scratches, there was no difference in them. Therefore, there is no evidence before the Court that the deceased pulled these identity discs from the neck of the accused. Therefore by virtue of the lack of that evidence, the Court cannot find that Dillon grasped these identity discs and pulled them from the accused's neck on the night of the incident. Without labouring the point any further, the medical evidence tendered yesterday by Capt Jepson was that there were no marks or bruises or scratches on Dillon when he examined him. It is rather ridiculous to say that he could have beaten up the accused, Robinson, and put all these scratches, marks and bruises on his face and not have received one blow in return. Yet the inference is there;- that, in spite of all that, Robinson shot him while standing face to face with him. That is a conclusion which cannot be rationally substantiated. The people who examined Robinson were unanimous that the scratches were of the same type. There was no welt suggested, such as would be produced by the string being pulled sharply across his skin. I suggest to the Court that any competent police offr, once having found the scratches on the neck and throat of the accused, would immediately have an investigation made to find the wounded individual and examine his fingernails in order to see if any foreign substance, such as skin or blood, was found under his fingernails. This was not done and the Court has been deprived of the opportunity of having this evidence to assist them in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. To complete the remarks on the medical evidence, I feel that a post mortem report should have been submitted in evidence by the Prosecution. The Court well knows there was a post mortem report. I have it. It was readily available. On that post mortem report and according to Capt Jepson, there were two causes of death. Has the first, the pneumonia been satisfactorily explained? Did Dillon have the pneumonia bug prior to the examination at 65 Brit Gen Hosp? Neither Verdicchio, Davidson or Grossman, as medical offrs examined the chest and lungs of Dillon. All I can say in this regard is that pneumonia is caused by a bug and not by a bullet. It is now the Court's responsibility to decide, from the evidence adduced, what part was played by pneumonia in the death of Dillon. There are several medical features to the case which have not been explained. It has not been satisfactorily established what the medical terms imply. The medical evidence is completely unsatisfactory. The sins of omission in the medical case history of the deceased must prevent the Court's coming to a definite finding beyond a reasonable doubt. Assuming for a moment that the accused handled the lethal weapon that evening, his subsequent conduct, knowing that he had committed a felonious act, is inconsistent with the normal and rational conduct of any human individual in the circumstances. Could he have been found on the parade square at 2250 hrs with a lethal weapon and, after committing a felony, be found asleep at 2350 hrs when he was found by Capt Snell and Major Bernier? I draw the Court's attention to the way in which Capt Snell and Major Bernier gave their evidence as to whether or not the accused was asleep. They, as individuals, were not prepared to give the accused the benefit of the doubt. They became technical and said that he appeared to be sleeping. I think it a fair conclusion to say that once the identity discs, and the pistol had been found by Major Bernier and Capt Snell, the accused, in the eyes of these two offrs, had been found guilty and hung, drawn, and quartered. There is no other rational explanation as to why he should be placed under immediate arrest by Capt Snell when the pistol was found. Now the Court must also consider the place where the pistol was found and must bear in mind that the holster which seemed to relate to that pistol, allegedly was found in the kit of the accused. The holster, sir, is usually used to keep a pistol in. Therefore, if the pistol had been taken out that night and brought back, it would normally have been placed in the holster. The only reason that the pistol would have been taken out and placed under the pillow was that the accused probably carried a considerable amount of money with him. This was not given in evidence - the results of searching the accused. Therefore, your normal assumption would be that he would take the pistol out, bring it back and replace it in the holster. The important point to consider about the pistol is that, in Army phraseology, it was a buckshee weapon. It is not on charge to the accused and apart from the serial number, cannot be linked with the accused. Therefore, the normal reaction of the accused, following the shot or shots and knowing that someone had been injured, would be to throw away or get rid of that particular weapon. He is certainly not going to keep it so close to him that he is immediately connected with the shooting when it is found. That is, however, an inconsistency that the Court must consider. The general investigating offr, Capt Snell, has made no attempt to check the conduct sheet of the deceased at any time. Yet it is a firmly established fact that he ought to have done so. I refer to page 177, Phipson on Evidence, 8th Edition. There has been no attempt to investigate the bed and quarters of the deceased in spite of the fact that evidence has been given that the person by the name of Dillon was belligerent and drunk on the parade square at Canada Bks on the night of 2 Aug 44.

Prosecutor:

I think that the defence should quote the section he is referring to.

Defending Offr:

I have found it. I refer to para (3) at p.177, headed "Character as Affecting States of Mind" (reads para). The members of the Court have been in this theatre of operations long enough to know that one of the first things the new, shall I say, private arriving in this theatre wants is a souvenir to send home. I think one of the first souvenirs they want to get is an enemy weapon, and with them must be included the weapons of our co-belligerents, the Italians. Another popular type of weapon is the American .45 automatic which at one time in this area the Americans seemed to have in particularly good supply. Therefore, consideration must be given to the fact that a new draft had arrived at Canada Bks a few days prior to this incident, and any one of them might have had occasion to beg, borrow, buy, or steal anyone of these types of weapons. Next consider the effect that Italian liquor, commonly described as "Mussolini's secret weapon", has on the individual when drinking it for the first time. A new draft arrival, having borrowed, bought, or stolen an automatic weapon and coming back to Canada Bks after indulgence in Italian stimulants, might well have carelessly discharged his weapon thus causing the wounding of Dillon: especially when you realize that it seems to be a notorious fact that the shots at Canada Bks or discharging of weapons at Canada Bks around and after tattoo roll call are a common practice. With that evidence it seems hard to find, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the accused fired the weapon which caused the wound. In order to convict the accused, that is the decision which the Court must reach beyond a reasonable doubt. The question of "reasonable doubt" the Judge Advocate will explain later. I can not, in fairness to the accused, omit to draw the Court's attention to the evidence respecting the action taken by the C.O. of 2 Bn 1 CBRD, Col Lent. It has been established that he is a man of legal qualifications. He, above all others, should realize the duties and responsibilities affecting a person accused of a serious crime. He decided, after getting the proceedings of the Court of Inquiry, to have the accused up on a charge of improper possession of a pistol, part of the incident of the night of the 2nd of August, and to sentence the accused to 28 days' detention: done apparently with the sole purpose of keeping the accused in custody. Had this happened in civilian life, if any magistrate or judge of a criminal or quasi criminal Court had dealt with the accused in such manner, such injustice would have been screamed from the editorials of every leading paper in Canada. But apparently Col Lent sought sanctuary in the Army Act and KRL. He found the accused guilty of an offence, in connection with the same transaction out of which rose the present charge. He apparently felt the accused was guilty, although the accused had not yet had the benefit of a trial by a competent Court.

Prosecutor:

There is no evidence before the Court as to what Colonel Lent felt.

Defending Offr:

I said apparently, sir. It is a question of interpretation. In summing up I can only interpret these things as I see them. I expect the Judge Advocate will deal with certain witnesses, and the amount of reliability to be attached to their evidence. I don't propose to take any more time in dealing with it. The Court has a transcription of the evidence, apart from the evidence heard yesterday, which is sufficiently fresh in their minds, and can refer to it to see what is proved and what is not proved. However, I have dealt with one of these four witnesses. The remaining three I shall deal with now. I want to draw attention particularly to Cpl Shaw's evidence. The Court will have to consider his mentality and size up the reliability of his evidence. He said, as I recollect it, without special reference to the transcript, although he was loath to tell the Court,- that he had reported the accused to be in bed. Cross-examination specifically proved that he had reported the accused in bed at tattoo which was very shortly before the shots were heard. When questions were put to him, he also seemed to have a personal desire to see the accused convicted of this offence. That is an example of the attitude of the people at Canada Bks resulting from their preliminary investigations. I have tried - and I think it is realized by certain members of the Court - not to throw too much mud in this trial. But I think it is reasonable to show up the attitude of the witnesses from the evidence they gave. As a result of finding the identity discs and pistol, they came to the irrevocable conclusion that the accused was guilty of the alleged offence. It was not necessary to do much more. They convicted him before he ever got before the Court, without the benefit of a finding. I want to take up the activities of Capt Snell and Major Bernier before I go on. The next point I think is one that occurred to every member of the Court as well as myself, and that is, why no military police assistance was called in in this case. The incident happened on 2 Aug 44. The Summary of Evidence was completed by 30 Aug 44. Yet in all that time no one at 2 Bn had occasion to call in the assistance of the MP or the SIB. Why had they not done it? We all know that that is what they are for. They are usually called to assist the offrs of a unit in obtaining the evidence in any criminal investigation. The unfairness to the accused for this omission, naturally may result in a miscarriage of British justice. The accused had been called before a Court of Inquiry. He was apparently given no information as to his rights. Lt MacComb stated on cross-examination that the accused was not allowed to leave after giving his evidence until the Court was satisfied that they had obtained all the information that they wished to obtain from him. The manner of taking the evidence before that Court of Inquiry, and the interrogation of the accused can be justified only on the technical ground that evidence taken in a Court of Inquiry is not admissible at a Court Martial. Now the accused gave evidence at that Court of Inquiry without the benefit of legal assistance. The Court knows and I know that if the defence is called on, the evidence for the defence must be exactly that contained in the Court of Inquiry, because the accused gave evidence on oath. The accused has been forced to disclose his defence in advance. It is again unheard of that, because a person assumes new obligations on joining the Army, he should lose his civilian right of having the benefit of legal assistance and can be compelled at a Court of Inquiry to answer questions which in civil lefe he would not have to answer. Capt Snell stated that the only reason he didn't call in military police assistance was because he was too busy with drafts. The lack of interest he has taken in the legal and technical investigation of this case shows either a complete lack of mental competence and responsibility of his duties as adjutant or a persecuting complex which gave no benefit of the doubt to the accused. I don't propose to say any more about that, sir. I would like to point out one particular feature in the conduct of this case. That is the lapse between some of the witnesses giving their evidence and the others. When evidence is a little cold it has lost a great deal of its value. I would like to draw the Court's attention to the excuses offered for pushing this case on at the time it was - namely, it was necessary to get people away on draft. Some of the people they were so anxious to get away on draft were still in Canada Bks as recently as 24 hrs ago. I feel that is to the prejudice of both the Court and myself. Therefore, I feel that the Court should take these things into consideration in deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused. I want the Court to understand that the accused has pleaded not guilty to this offence. Should he be called on for his defence, in all probability the case for the Prosecution will be weakened considerably. That, however, does not justify the Court in calling on the accused for his defence. They must make up their minds where there is sufficient evidence without a reasonable doubt to convict. To find the accused guilty on a charge of murder, there must be evidence of malice of forethought. There is no evidence of such malice in any of the evidence brought out by the Prosecutor. Such malice is not necessarily presumed from a mere unethical act. Now because the accused was found with a pistol under his pillow, which is an offence only under Routine Orders, is it proper to assume that the only conclusion from that act is that the accused fired the pistol used in the killing of Dillon? The witness who claims to identify the accused on the parade square saw no evidence of any violence, nor suspected any violence, nor did he see any sign of any lethal weapon in possession of the person he claimed was the accused. I refer you to Archbald's "Criminal Pleading, etc", 31st edit, p.900, under WTBB the heading: "Evidence for the Defence". (quotes: "The prisoner may show ------ or witnesses called by the Defence.") I contend that my cross-examination has elicited enough evidence to prove either that the murder was not committed by the accused or that it is doubtful if the offence alleged was murder. Only the evidence which has been submitted by the WTBB Prosecution ~~xxxx~~ can be taken into consideration. Referring again to Archbald, p.64, under the heading "Express Malice" (quotes: "To amount to murder the killing --------- aforethought"). I contend that there is no evidence whatsoever of any malice aforethought which can connect the accused with the shooting incident on the night of the 2nd of August. I am not going to deal with the facts any further. I merely wish to remark upon certain things - certain irregularities, in connection with Canada Bks that night:- the evidence respecting shots being fired and the prevalence of drunks. The conduct of a particular commanding offr is not a matter which concerns the Court or which it must explain. If irregularities are occurring then it is not your function either to justify them or cover them up. You must decide the guilt or innocence of the accused on this charge of murder solely on the evidence before you. You should not consider how it may read to some Offr in superior authority. The Prosecution has given you facts; the Defence has tested those facts. Is Pte Robinson guilty of murder according to those facts? - guilty beyond a reasonable doubt? I have throughout made reference to the Prosecution. I would like to state that the accused is quite satisfied that he has had a very fair trial, and that every consideration has been given to his Defending Offr. I would also like to state that the Prosecutor has been exceptionally fair to the Defence, and the Court has been exceptionally patient all through the trial.

Court adjourned at 1245 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1400 hrs, the same members being present.

Prosecutor's Answer:

Mr. President, I would like to make it a point at this moment to bring your attention to the fact that this morning in Court it was said the Prosecution was rather unfair to the accused in that it hastened this trial. Yet certain witnesses had not left until yesterday morning. That is quite true. But at that time Higher Authority were demanding the presence of these personnel at their field units. It was only fair in the interests of the service to expedite their return. This was done at the earliest possible moment; the men going out on the first draft after the adjournment of the Court on Saturday morning. It is, sir, the duty of the Prosecutor to bring out every fact available in the case to assist the Court in every way possible. It matters not to the Prosecutor whether, having obtained all these facts in evidence, what the decision of the Court may be. We only represent the Crown. It is a well known fact that the Crown is only interested in justice being done. The Court must be guided solely by the laws of England which you will find referred to in Army Act, Sec 41. The law of Canada, while similar, is not the law under which the accused is being tried. All the Prosecution has to do at this stage of the proceedings is establish a prima facie case. It does not have to do anything except prove the accused guilty of the crime charged: merely to bring sufficient evidence before the Court to satisfy you that the accused is guilty of the offence, the offence he is charged with. It may be weak; it may be overwhelming. For this proposition I draw your attention to MML, p.644, RP 40, fn 1. With regard to circumstantial evidence, I draw your attention to MML, Chap VI, para 4, p.70, which in effect states that circumstantial evidence is indirect evidence. I shall read it for the benefit of the Court. (quotes: "There is no difference ------ did or did not happen (indirect evidence)".) This again is referred to in MML at p.81, para 41. (quotes: "In connection with the rule ------- not of degree but of kind.") It is a recognized practice for Courts to accept substantial evidence. I think from the para I have just read, there is really no doubt about that. Now as to the action taken by the Commanding Offr of 2 Bn 1 CSRD with reference to the accused of having in his possession a weapon without authority and sentencing him to 28 days, that is a recognized procedure in the Civil Courts. I can refer you to one case the Courts in Ontario in 1939. I cannot cite the exact report, but it was known as Rex vs. Thompson in which the accused man was sentenced to 18 months for perjury on obtaining a marriage certificate. He said he was a single man. His wife was still living and was found some months later brutally murdered. It was established that her death was caused within several days after the marriage license was obtained. He was charged with perjury and sentenced to, I believe, 18 months, in order really, to allow the police to gather sufficient evidence to bring him before the Courts later on a charge of murder. The action, therefore, taken by Col Lent was without doubt entirely right. There is, in this case, evidence of malice. Evidence has been given that the accused shortly before Dillon's death demanded from Dillon "a buck" in a rather surly manner, indicative of a hold-up. I feel there has been a slur cast upon the offrs of 2 Bn in this case. The Court can come to no other conclusion that these offrs acted with the best of intentions. While they may not have been wise in not calling in police assistance, nevertheless, their actions were, I believe, beyond reproach.

W3B

Now, coming to the identity of the deceased, it is normal practice - the recognized practice in the Canadian Army - to identify a deceased or wounded soldier by his identity discs. This is particularily applicable to actual fighting - to the field. The evidence of Capt Verdicchio and Cpl Ferguson, Medical Offr and Medical Cpl respectively, of 2 Bn, was to the effect that they had both examined the discs around the neck of the deceased person while in the MI Room of that Bn. There can be no doubt from the evidence that this body was taken to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and later to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. The admitting doctor, Capt Grossman, stated that no other patient, suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to that hospital either that night or early in the morning of 3 Aug 44, while he was on duty as Medical Orderly Offr. He stated that he would have seen any such admission. Capt Jepson's evidence indicates that he attended, as he says, the only person admitted on the night of 2/3 Aug 44 that was suffering from a gun-shot wound in the head; that he knew this person from the records as Dillon, and that that patient whom he attended regularly from 0230 hrs in the morning of the 3rd of August until he died either on the 7th or 8th of August was the same man whom he knew as Dillon. He stated the cause of this man's death was a gun-shot wound of the head and bronchial-pneumonia. He stated that the bronchial-pneumonia is directly caused as a result of the gun-shot wound in the head. It may happen to persons suffering from a head wound due to the fact that they lie upon their backs and the respiration is affected by the head wound. In short, the gun-shot wound that Dillon suffered from, was directly the cause of his death. The question as to whether or not the shot entered the head from in front or behind is, I think, more likely to be decided correctly by the medical offr who operated and attended the wounded man. A more correct and detailed study of the wound would, of necessity, have to be made by that doctor. Neither Capt Verdicchio nor Major Davidson could or would have been expected to make a very thorough check of the wound. They realized that they would not be in a position to assist the man, and that it was their duty to get that man to a brain specialist, who, apparently, was stationed at 65 Brit Gen Hosp. In short, they were more interested in helping the wounded man than trying to determine the size of the various wounds. Let us briefly go over the evidence of the various witnesses, other than the medical witnesses. We have Pte Wilcock going into the Gd Room and stating that his Glengarrry, with the 48th Highr badge on it, had been removed from his head somewhere around 2215 hrs on the night of 2 Aug 44 by a man wearing Seaforth flashes and carrying a gun, what he believed, was an automatic. We have the evidence of Lieut Mills who tells of finding the Glengarry , which Wilcock identified, on the steps of the Offr's Mess. Mills also states that Pte Dillon was lying within a few yards of these steps. We have the evidence of the Gd Cpl who states that he accompanied Pte Wilcock in the direction of the latter's billets; that on his way back from this trip he heard a shot or shots fired, and a very few minutes later was at the scene of the shooting. Therefore, Wilcock cannot, in any way, be connected with the crime. We have the evidence of Cpl De Harte. While some of his actions may well be criticized, there is one thing established, namely, that this Cpl on the morning of the 3rd, after hearing of the shooting, went to his superior offr and offered certain information. He stated in Court that he had seen Pte Dillon at approximately 2230 hrs embroiled in an argument with a man whom he recognized as the accused. Why did he recognize him? Simply and solely because he saw him wearing Seaforth flashes and a Glengarry which had a 48th Highrs badge on it. You will recall that Cpl De Harte was a member of the 48th Highrs. The most normal and natural thing is for any soldier to take a very good look at someone he finds wearing his own regiment's head-dress and badge and yet wearing different shoulder flashes. De Harte states that within three or four minutes after arriving in his billets he heard some shots. I suggest to the Court it is a fair inference from the evidence in which only two or three shots were mentioned as having been fired during the period in question, that these were the shots that De Harte heard and were responsible for the wounding of Dillon. We come to Capt McKee's evidence. I don't think that the Court could conclude that he was giving it for any other reason than it was his duty to tell what he knew to this Court. You will recall that he could not say the exact way Dillon was holding the identity discs that had the name 'Robinson' on them and he refused to be tied down. He was sure of one thing; that at least one disc was firmly in the hand of Dillon. His was the only medical evidence, if such you might call it, as to how a man shot through the head would fall. Cpl Shaw, one had to admit, was not the best of witnesses, but his attitude was the same in reply to the Prosecution, in reply to the Defence, and, I might say, in reply to the Court. Whether he held any grudge against the accused, neither I nor any other person can tell. But he did state that he saw scratches and other marks upon the accused's face and neck. He got into quite a bit of difficulty about the tattoo report. It is clear from his evidence that he did not call the roll, and that he had no knowledge of the accuracy of the tattoo report turned in by the various platoon sergeants. He did, however, state that tattoo roll call is made about ten o'clock or 2200 hrs. The evidence of Capt Snell is to the effect that at 2330 hrs, 8 Aug 44, he, together with Major Bernier, went to the bedside of the accused. The accused was lying down, face down, on his bed. Neither Capt Snell nor Major Bernier, in fact, Cpl Shaw could say more than that the accused was apparently asleep. I do not think that it calls for any argument to prove that point. If a person desires to feign sleep, few people can prove otherwise. An automatic, .45 colt, was found under the blankets at the head of the accused's bed or as the witnesses described it, if I recall it right, under some clothes that were used as a pillow. They found that the accused was suffering from scratches and bruises, and that he was not wearing his identity discs. On looking at the revolver they both stated that they smelled burnt powder from it. By the smell of burnt powder the identification of that automatic is firmly established. It was established even more firmly on the cross-examination of Major Bernier. The Court may well consider that cross-examination. The evidence given by the witness on his cross-examination is even better evidence than that given on his examination-in-chief. Lieut Dolan gave certain evidence. His evidence, however, was of very little value. He, however, admitted that he could not tell the difference between a back fire and shots. Now there are certain theories which I propose to advance. I forgot to mention that Major Bernier, in addition to finding the automatic, also found a holster of the type used to carry an automatic similar to that which was found under the head of the accused's bed. He also stated that the undershirt of the accused was torn. Now there is a theory which I suggest in deciding the reason why the holster and the pistol became separated. The accused, coming into his billet, no doubt agitated by what he had just done, afraid to be seen by other men putting the pistol into the holster along with his kit, jammed it under the head of his bed, climbed into bed and made every effort to appear asleep. To do so he lay face downwards. I suggest that in his haste to hide that automatic he placed it under his blankets and, as a result, the fumes of burning powder remained in the barrel of that pistol long enough for them to be smelled by Capt Snell and Major Bernier. As to the question of the identity discs: it is, I think, a fair inference from the evidence we have heard from Cpl De Harte, that the accused and Dillon got into a struggle, maybe not punching particularly, but they were struggling. I suggest that in the course of that struggle, Dillon grabbed at the accused's throat, laying hold of his identity discs and yanked them. As the Court will notice the cord on these discs is old and rather worn. They broke away. As they were breaking away the accused grabbed the string. In a further struggle the second piece of string broke off. The accused retained it in his hand and later threw it away. The theory that I put forward to the Court is that in this struggle Dillon, somehow, picked the glengarry off the head of the accused and threw it away. It landed on the steps of the Offrs' Mess or near them. In the struggle to break away, Dillon staggered backwards with Robinson's identity discs in his hand. Whether or not he fell or remained upright I cannot say. The accused, who was carrying a revolver in his pocket, pulled it out and fired it. Dillon on being hit would no doubt spin around and fall face downwards. There is no possible suggestion in the medical evidence as to how the man was wounded when he fell. I feel the members of the Court must, in their military experience, have seen men shot: have seen them spin partly around as a result of a heavy slug entering the head. How the accused got away is not difficult to understand. I will attempt to explain it. It is true that he had something like 100 yards to go across the parade square to his billets. But I suggest to the Court that there are four buildings around the parade square, near the Offrs' Mess to which the accused might well have got to. In fact he might well have gone to the corner of the Offrs' Mess, a matter of only 10 yards. Once in the shadow of the buildings, he could easily have walked back to his billets without being seen. Admittedly, the evidence does not show the actual manner in which Dillon was murdered. Rarely is the guilty person seen to do the act. In fact, I suggest to the Court that it would be an exception to the usual rule to get any direct evidence of the actual slaying of a person. I suggest to the Court that there has been ample evidence adduced to put the accused on his defence. That is all that the prosecution at this stage is required to do. The Prosecution has produced the necessary evidence to call upon the Defence to offer evidence to rebutt it. The Court is not at this time determining the guilt or innocence of the accused. It is merely asked to decide whether or not the Prosecution has produced enough evidence to indicate that the accused, Robinson, did, on or about 2250 hrs, on the night of 2 Aug 44, so wound one Pte Dillon, that this Pte Dillon did, on or about 7 Aug 44, die as a direct result of that wounding.

LWB&B

Defending Offr's Reply:

Sir, the opening remarks of the Prosecutor seem to be in defence of the Offrs and certain other personnel of 2 Bn 1 CSRD. They are not on trial before this Court. He is not responsible for their conduct, and he need not apologize for their incompetence or misdemeanours. I also stated in my opening argument that I had no fault to find in the Prosecutor in his conduct of this case. He acted in good faith. He was given instructions by Higher Authority. But such Higher Authority has no place in judging the guilt or innocence of the accused unless a member of the proper Military Court. Their conduct does not come within the jurisdiction of the Court. I strongly feel, however, that the Prosecutor has misled the Court by his remarks. I trust the Judge Advocate will remark upon the statement that the accused is being tried in accordance with the laws of England. This was true up to the year 1867. But reference to Section 69 of the Militia Act, which is Appendix I to K.R. (Can) states that the Army Act, only insofar as it is consistent with the provisions of R.N. (Can) and Cdn law, applies. Therefore the rules of evidence, by which this Court is governed, are those rules laid down in the Canada "Evidence Act". This Court is a Canadian Court. Then there is the suggestion that all the Prosecution has to do is to establish a prima facie case against the accused: that his guilt or innocence is not to be decided at this stage. I do not agree. That is a matter on which you will receive full and complete instructions from the Judge Advocate. I suggest we are in this position. If I were to stop now, offering no evidence in defence, you cannot deny my motion unless you are prepared to find the accused guilty of murder on the evidence which you have heard. The Prosecutor cited the case of Rex vs. Thompson. From the facts which he gave you, it seems that the accused, Thompson, was convicted on a charge of perjury as a result of improperly obtaining a marriage certificate, and that, subsequent to obtaining the marriage certificate, he was accused of brutally murdering his wife. These were two separate prosecutions and not connected in any way apart from the fact that the facts respecting the improper obtaining of the marriage certificate might be acceptable in evidence before a Court trying the murder charge. The Prosecutor did not seem to think an investigation into the character of the deceased was in point - that it had no bearing on the possible guilt of the accused. He omitted, however, to tell you that the purpose in presenting the character of the deceased in evidence was to determine whether or not he had been guilty of any previous acts of violence or if there had been any previous exhibitions of quarreling between the deceased and the accused.

WBB

Prosecutor:

I may be mistaken, but the impression I got was that the Defending Offr said that was a matter for the Defence.

Defending Offr:

It is not a question for the Defence at this time. It might be later. The reference to Phipson on Evidence shows that this is one of the matters to be investigated by the proper investigating authorities.

Prosecutor:

Such an investigation was indicated by the evidence of Cpl De Harte.

Defending Offr:

What has Cpl De Harte to do with the case?

Prosecutor:

He gave evidence that the accused demanded "a buck" from the deceased.

Defending Offr:

What has that to do with the character of the deceased? I am dealing with his previous history. I am not dealing with any incident alleged in connection with this case. If the Court accepts that "a buck" was demanded by the accused of the deceased, then they must also accept De Harte's statement there was never any question of any violence between them. When the Prosecutor used the word "embroiled" to describe the argument that took place, he is using a word which I don't think he meant. The Prosecutor also stated that the identity of the deceased was properly established by means of the identity discs because it is done that way in the field. I presume by that he meant in action. There, with the bullets falling right and left; in the midst of heavy shell fire we accept certain practices, but we also know that mistakes in identification are made. But when you are back as far as we are, we must, in fairness to the accused, be a little more thorough in our identification. Which was the point of entry and the point of exit of the gun-shot wound will cause the Court a great deal of concern, for the simple reason that the theory suggested by the Prosecutor, indicates that the wound of entry must be in the right frontal bone or forehead, and the wound of exit in the right occipital bone. He stated that there is no evidence as to what would happen to a person on receiving a wound of this kind. I checked Capt Verdicchio's evidence. I refer to the transcript of evidence, question and answer, no. 38. (quotes) That is the only fair inference which the Court may accept. The body either twisted or spun around at the moment of impact [illegible]. According to the Prosecution, the accused was agitated and, in his moment of agitation, slipped the pistol under some blankets or clothing. Yet right afterwards the accused climbed into bed and went to sleep. The Court must examine the evidence of the witnesses called by the Prosecution in the light of their method of giving evidence. It was highly prejudiced against the Defence. They have stated the accused appeared to be asleep. Now to go to sleep so soon after consciously shooting another person is absolutely inexplainable. References were made to Capt McKee's evidence. I think the Court was favourably impressed by his evidence in most instances; but did the Court fail to notice one very weak point in his method of giving evidence? In order to protect himself and give himself loads of time to think before giving his answer, he turned to the Court stenographer, spoke slowly, chose his words carefully, and made sure he said the right thing. Has the Court, along with all these other matters, considered the significance of the Dental Sgt falling out of the window? The Court, from an examination of Exhibit "O", can readily see that the bullet that wounded Dillon might have been fired from that house providing Dillon was walking in the direction of the Borden Building and was shot from behind. The Court cannot accept the theory advanced by the Prosecutor as to how Dillon was shot without finding obvious faults with that theory. Had Dillon taken that hat from the head of his assailant, he would more likely have held on to it instead of throwing it away. The fact that he had time to throw it away shows that he must have been shot by someone who was not standing directly in front of him. Otherwise he would not have had time to throw the hat some considerable distance. Then there is the suggestion that the accused carried the pistol in his pocket. We know that a pistol raises a considerable bulge. De Harte was cross-examined as to whether or not any pistol or weapon was apparent in the hands or clothing of the person talking to Dillon. He said "No". The whole assumption in the theory advanced by the Prosecution is that Dillon was shot through the front of the head. You must consider the evidence of the first persons who superficially examined him. They saw a small hole at the back and a larger hole at the front from which brain tissue was protruding. Obviously he was shot from behind. It is now the Court's problem to decide which was the wound of entry and which was the wound of exit. I feel that the Prosecutor has apologized sufficiently for his presentation of the case. I strongly suggest that the Court accept these apologies and throw this case out. They cannot find the accused guilty on circumstantial evidence unless they are satisfied, not only that the circumstances are consistent with the accused having committed the act, but that they are inconsistent with any other rational conclusion. I submit the Prosecution has failed to link the accused with the offence alleged.

WBB

WBB

WBB

Judge Advocate's Summing Up:

Mr President and gentlemen, it is not laid down, as far as I know, in the Rules of Procedure that the Judge Advocate should sum up in open Court at the conclusion of a motion of this nature. But since the Court wishes it, and, in view of the serious nature of the charge which the accused is facing, I feel that it is not only desirable, but my duty to do so. The accused is charged under Sec 41 of the Army Act with committing the civil offence of murder, the allegation being that on the 2nd of August of this year, he murdered one Pte Dillon, J.W.M. A charge of murder can be tried by Court Martial when we are out of the United Kingdom by virtue of Sec 41 of the Army Act. This raises a point mentioned by the Defending Offr. I quote Sec 69 of the Militia Act, R.S.C. 1927, chap 132, found in K.R. (Can) at p.292 (reads). Now the effect of that is that the accused is to be tried by the English Criminal Law and, according to the English law of evidence, not by the Canadian Criminal Code nor Canadian Law respecting evidence. The Defending Offr contends that the Prosecution has failed to establish a prima face case. What does that mean? I refer to the MML, Chap VI, para 12 and part of para 13, pp 72-3. (quotes para 12 and lines 1-3 of para 13) It goes on to give examples which are not applicable to this case. It should not be necessary for me to remind the Court that it is the sole judge of the facts; that is to say, the evidence which has been adduced before this Court and only that evidence. If the Court has in its mind a reasonable doubt as to the accused's guilt then it must find him not guilty. A reasonable doubt is not one based on whimsy sentiment or anything of that nature, but it is a doubt such as the members of the Court might entertain in the conduct of their own personal affairs. It is the duty of the Judge Advocate to advise the Court, to the best of his ability, of the law involved. Any opinion which he has or expresses with respect to the facts are not binding on the Court. The accused is charged with having committed murder. I refer the Court to MML, Chap VII, para 42, p.115. (reads) I also refer the Court to Archbold "Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice", 1943 edit, p.859. (reads para headed 'Murder') Then on the same page, the para headed "The Person Killing". (reads lines 1-4 of the para) I refer you also to Archbold, p.860, the para headed "The Person Killed", (quotes lines 1-3 of the para): also on p.861 to the para headed "The Manner of Killing" (quotes lines 1-3 of the para). I would refer you also to the opening sentence of the second para on p.864 of Archbold (reads). Also at p.879 under the heading "Killing without intention whilst doing another act" (reads lines 1-3 of the para). In order to find a person guilty of murder it is essential to prove malice on the part of the alleged murderer. I refer the Court to Archbold p.864 (reads para: "Express malice") and to p.865 under the heading "Implied malice" (reads lines 1-8 of para). Referring again to Archbold pp 868-9 under the heading of "Quarrels" (reads lines 1-4 of para). Now we are not, at this stage, concerned with the defences to a charge of murder. You have to consider the Prosecution's case in order to decide whether or not the

Defending Offr's submission should be allowed. I have endeavoured to prepare a time table, if you wish to call it that, which may be of some assistance to the Court. On 2 Aug 44 at 2100 hrs Cpl De Harte and some of his comrades entered the main gate at Canada Bks. There they met a Nast & PER soldier who was drunk and argumentative. Cpl De Harte ascertained that this soldier's name was Dillon. At 2215 hrs Pte Wilcock was held up by another soldier wearing Seaforth flashes. He was robbed of his Glengarry with the name "A.H. Wilcock" inside (Exhibit "H") and his fountain pen which bore some tooth marks (Exhibit "I"). Sometime between 2215 hrs and 2230 hrs, Cpl De Harte came upon this soldier Dillon arguing with two other soldiers on two separate occasions, and then he found Dillon and the accused in an argument. The accused made a demand for money. Cpl De Harte says that he recognized the accused because it was not usual to see a man with Seaforth flashes wearing a 48 Highrs Glengarry. At 2230 hrs Cpl De Harte left them still arguing. At the same time Pte Wilcock reported to Cpl Ferguson in the Gd Room and was then shown to his billets. Sometime between 2230 hrs and 2250 hrs, two or three shots were heard by the following people: Sgt Whynot, who was in the Gd Room, Capt McKee who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, Lt Mills who was also in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, Cpl Ferguson, Cpl De Harte who was in his billets, Major Bernier who was in 2 Bn Offrs' Mess, and Lt Dolan who was in the Gd Room. Certain of these people went promptly to 2 Bn Offrs' Mess where they found a body, wounded in the head, allegedly identified as Pte Dillon, lying face downwards. Capt McKee stated that he smelled powder burning as he left the Mess. Lt Mills found the Glengarry (Exhibit "H") on the Mess steps. Cpl Ferguson found a .45 casing on the point "J" on Exhibit "G". Major Bernier, Lt Dolan, Capt Verdicchio, and Sgt Whynot were also on the scene around that time. Sometime after 2250 hrs, Capt McKee discovered the identity discs with the broken cord (Exhibit "J") and turned them over to Capt Snell. Lt Mills found blood spots on the steps of 2 Bn Offrs' Mess. Major Bernier and Capt Snell set off to trace the owner of the discs that Capt McKee said he found in the injured man's hand. The injured man was taken to 2 Bn MIR and from there to 3 Cdn Gen Hosp by Cpl Stewart. About the same time Major Bernier and Capt Snell had completed their investigations. They got Cpl Shaw who took them to the accused's quarters, which they reached at approximately 2340 hrs. In other words, about one hour after the shots were first heard fired, Major Bernier and Capt Snell arrived at the accused's bedside and stated they awakened him as he appeared to be asleep. His kit was searched and also his blankets. The .45 automatic (Exhibit "O") was found. Major Bernier and Capt Snell stated that in their opinion it had been recently fired. Major Bernier also found a United States type holster (Exhibit "P") in the accused's kit, the kit which the accused admitted was his own. The accused had scratches on his neck similar to fingernail scratches; no identity discs, and his face appeared bruised. He was placed under arrest at 2355 hrs. Pte Stewart took the patient, named Dillon, from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp in an ambulance to 65 Brit Gen Hosp in Naples. Sometime after 2250 hrs Lt Dolan investigated the case of the Dental Sgt who had fallen out of a window of his billets near Canada Bks. At 0145 hrs, 3 Aug 44, a patient named Dillon, conveyed in an ambulance from 3 Cdn Gen Hosp and suffering from a through-and-through gun-shot wound in the head, was admitted to 65 Brit Gen Hosp. The evidence in support of that is the testimony of Sgt Fieldhouse, Capt Grossman and, to some extent, H/Capt Tootell, the padre. At 0230 hrs a patient named Dillon was examined by Capt Jepson, who stated that there were no other persons admitted to the hospital that night with similar injuries. Later that day, the Court of Inquiry, at which the accused gave evidence, was held. Lt Dolan searched the accused and his kit in 2 Bn Gd Room. The accused on being ordered to empty his pockets, handed over two fountain pens of which the light grey one (Exhibit "Q") was identified by Mr Dolan. He was unable to identify the other one beyond stating that it had tooth marks on it. Capt Jepson, who had been attending the patient Dillon, stated that he died on the 7th or 8th of Aug. Padre Tootell said he buried him in the British Military Cemetery in Naples. I think that is a fair summing up of the evidence brought out by the Prosecution. Now as the Defending Offr has quite properly pointed out, that evidence is largely circumstantial. In that connection I would like to refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 42, pp 81-2. (reads para 42) The Defending Offr has asked me to say something to the Court about the identification of exhibits and about the proper method of identifying an accused person. As to the latter, the usual civil practice is to have the suspect picked out of a line-up of persons who are, as nearly as possible, similar to him in size, appearance and dress by the person who is called on to identify him. The suspected person must be given an opportunity of changing his place in the line-up if more than one person is called upon to identify him. In this case, as far as Cpl De Harte is concerned, any identification that he made was made before any such parade took place. In other words, one of the things that you will have to decide is whether Cpl De Harte's identification of the accused is due to his recalling the oddity of seeing a Seaforth soldier with a 48 Highrs Glengarry or whether, as the Defence contends, it was due to the fact that he had ample opportunity to memorize the features of the accused while he had him under observation prior to the Court of Inquiry on the morning of 3 Aug 44. Now as to the identification of the discs: I refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 112, p.100. (reads) Reference has also been made in argument to what is called "Judicial knowledge" - "Military experience" and similar expressions. I would refer the Court to MML, Chap VI, para 11, p.72. (reads para) In other words, the examples quoted are all examples of things which are of general knowledge. They do not apply to particular evidence which is of an expert or quasi-expert nature. I have nothing further to add, sir, except that I think I should again call your attention to the final sentence of para 12 on p.72 of MML (quotes). If you think that has not been done in this case, then you must allow the submission of the Defending Offr and find the accused "Not Guilty".

Judge Advocate (to Defending Offr):

Is there anything else you wish me to add?

Defending Offr:

I asked you, sir, to make some reference to the method with which Capt Rose introduced the exhibits. You read a para in MML, but I think it would be better --------

Judge Advocate:

I take it you are referring to the civil police methods?

Defending Offr:

I am referring to the police methods of obtaining exhibits and submitting them in Court.

C.119

Judge Advocate:

The practice, as I understand it, is that once an article is taken into possession by the police it should be marked in some way by the person who finds it. It may be tagged; it may be initialled - some mark may be scratched on it - something of that nature. The point is that this should be done as soon after the finding as possible. Otherwise, a proper identification becomes a difficult matter if the article passes from one hand to another before being submitted to the Court.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

TRIAL OF

M.106013 Gnr ROBINSON EG 5 Cdn Repat Dep

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

R.88788 Sgt SHARABURA WW, 5 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 11 Jul 45 I came into camp about 10.30 off pass and went to the Mess for a cup of tea and then I came into my room. There was nobody else on the bottom floor and I got undressed and took a towel and some soap and went to the bathroom where I remained for 5-10 mins when I heard someone come through the door and ask for a match. I didn't know who it was because I never heard that voice before. He must have gone away then and I came back to my room and I heard the door to my room slam shut. I opened the door and the accused, whom I now recognize, was inside my room hiding behind the door. I asked him "what are you doing here". I saw some of my stuff was on the floor which had been inside my closet inside my kit bag. The accused tried to get around and past me to get out the door. I just had my shorts on and I dropped the towel and soap and we had a scuffle but he got away. As it was public outside I didn't follow him.

Q. Tell us about the condition of your room?
A. I have quite a big kit bag and it was inside the closet in my room and I keep it fairly neat. I knew right away that something was wrong when the things were strewn around.

Q. Did you have a knife and where did you keep it?
A. Yes, and I kept it on the shelf with some toilet articles. It is a "Jerry" knife, a pocket knife, and it is a very sturdy one. At the very tip of the blade there are about 4-5 little nicks.

Q. Did you see your knife when looking around your room?
A. No, and when I left the room to go to the washroom it was there and when I came back it was not there. I checked amongst my stuff lying around the floor and it wasn't there and next morning I made a complete checkup and it wasn't there.

Q. Do you recognize this knife?
A. Yes, there is no doubt at all that it is my knife.

KNIFE MARKED EXHIBIT 1

Q. Did you report it?
A. I told the SM about it, the DSM, and next morning I reported it to Sgt Wood of the RP.

Q. What happened the next morning?
A. The SM and Sgt Wood advised me to go to the pay parade on 13 Jul, and I went there after 1 in the afternoon. I recognized the accused going through the line with his head bent down. After he was paid I walked up to him with Sgt Wood as I was still a little doubtful as to whether it was him or not; I didn't say anything to him and just as I walked toward him slowly he said it was him.

Q. What did you say?
A. I just forget my exact words, but if the SM hadn't come along I would have fixed it up with him.

Q. What did he say to you?
A. "Yes, it was me".

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you notice anything strange about the accused the night before when you saw him in your room?

A. In which way?

Q. Was he acting normal?
A. He knew exactly what he was doing.

Q. How did you notice that?
A. By the scuffle I had with him.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you notice that night whether or not the accused had been drinking?
A. He may have been, Sir, but I didn't smell any liquor on him.

Q. Was there anything peculiar about his walk or speech that you noticed?
A. He wasn't gatabling around, Sir.

[redacted]

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 93(A)

SECOND WITNESS

H.15184 Sgt WOOD, JH, 5 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

Q: Will you tell us what you know about this case?
A. Yes, Sir. I was approached at 0900 hrs 12 Jul by Sgt Sharabure who reported the loss of a knife to me. He gave me a full description of the man that was in his room and that description so given to me definitely fits the accused whom I now recognize. Sgt Sharabura described his knife and the description he gave me of the knife, fits the knife, Exhibit 1. On 13 Jul, the following day, I stood watching a Pay Parade and I asked Sgt Sharabura if he recognized anyone. He said he wasn't quite sure and I asked him to take particular note of this man coming through, who was the accused, and on a second look Sgt Sharabura said he thought that it was the man and I said, "we had better approach him". He did so and as we approached him the accused said "O.K. Sgt, it was me, but I didn't know what I was doing, I was drunk". I took the accused then under close arrest, and later I reported the case to an offr, Lt Done, and I searched the accused's quarters in the presence of the accused, and amongst his kit in his kit bag, was Exhibit 1, and I asked Lt Done to hold it for evidence.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 93(B)

THIRD WITNESS

Lt HE DONE, 2 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On the afternoon of 12 Jul at approx 1400 hrs I was sent to search the kit of the accused whom I now recognize. I took Sgt Sharabura and Sgt Wood with me and in the presence of the accused we went through his kit and I found a knife which opens into a dagger with a model plastic handle. This, Exhibit 1, is the knife I refer to. I recognize it on account of its general appearance and some nicks on the point of the blade. I asked the accused if it was his property and he said it was a souvenir that he had brought from Italy with him a year previous. He could not suggest to me anyone who had seen it in his possession, and said it had always been in his kit bag.

FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on the night of 11 Jul?
A. Just shortly before 6 o'clock I went to Aldershot to the pub and went in as soon as it opened up and I don't believe I came out until after closing time and I don't know what I did between then and when I woke up in the morning.

Q. Can you tell the Court what happened the next day on the Pay Parade?
A. I got my pay and I walked out and Sgt Sharabura said to me he would like to see me a minute. He looked at my face and asked me how my lip was. When I woke up that morning I noticed I had a swollen face and a cut on my lip, and I thought I had been in a fight the night before downtown perhaps, and I said "yes, it was me". Just then Sgt Wood stepped up and I was arrested.

A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

DEF OFFR TO PRESIDENT:

I have a statement, Sir, from K.76041 Cnr INGLIS who is not here today, as he has signed up for the Pacific Force.

PRESIDENT:

Would you read it to the Court?

(DEF OFFR READS STATEMENT)

PRESIDENT: While this is not strictly admitted in law I am willing to take it on behalf of the accused.

STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT 'E'

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFR ON THE FINDING

I don't think the accused was responsible for his acts that night. I have brought in witnesses that prove this, and that he was actually drunk, and one of them said he could not recognize him that night and another one said he had to help him to bed, and the accused himself under oath says he couldn't remember anything that happened the night before.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

I am of the opinion that if the accused is a man of such a character by going out and getting drunk to the extent that he doesn't know what he is doing, then I am in sympathy with him, but I cannot understand how he can struggle with a man who is so much bigger than himself in that condition and then get away?

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT FINDS THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY ON THE SECOND CHARGE.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Drunkenness is a strong mitigant as the accused in that condition would not be so clear as to what he was doing as he would be if sober and might yield more readily to temptation in that condition. The accused is young, his M&T'S is quite good, and I ask the Court to take all these things into consideration when passing sentence.

My

Receipt for Exhibit

I acknowledge receipt of the knife, Exhibit 1, which I agree to hand to the Adjt who will hold until further order.

[illegible] Lt.
Prosecution.

K-76041 Gnr Inglis, D.I. "B" Wing, 2 CCRU, a soldier of the Cdn Army, Overseas s, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 11 Jul 45 myself and two friends, Gnrs Lemoine and Tpr Armand Quesnel at 1930 hrs went into the Wellington Pub, Aldershot to have a drink of beer. Here we met Gnr Robinson who had been in the pub previous to our coming into the pub. To me and my chums he seemed quite drunk. We drank beer with Gnr Robinson until 2130 hrs and consummed a goodly amount of beer. When we left, Gnr Robinson at 2130 hrs he was really well drunk and was reeling around, incapable of knowing what was going on around him. To me he was drunk, not sober.

"Q" 1. Have you ever seen Gnr Robinson drunk before?
"A" 1. Yes, while in 2 CARU at Bramshott, I have on numbrous occassions seen him being helped into the hut and put to bed while under the influence of liquor. The next morning he never remembered what he had been doing or where he had been drinking as he used to ask those of us around him whom had put him to bed and what he had been doing during the night.

"Q" 2. Would you say he was a big drinker?
"A" 2. Any time I have seen him with any money he was usually on his way to the pub and usually came home drunk.

"Q" 3. Have you ever seen or heard of him stealing?
"A" 3. Never to my knowledge.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of M 106013 Gunner Robinson, E.C., on strength of No 5 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

B 22788 Sjt SHARABURA, W.W. on strength of No 5 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"At about 2255 hrs, Wednesday 11 Jul 45, I was in the downstairs bathroom of the Seargeant's Quarters, Beaumont Barracks. At the time I was alone and was not aware that there was anyone else downstairs in the building. I heard a voice ask for a match and replied that I did not have one. I did not see this person but heard footsteps and presumed that he had left. As I was returning from the bathroom, the door of my room, which I had left open, was closed. I opened the door and saw Gnr. Robinson, whom I now recognize, in my room. I asked, "What are you doing here?" I do not remember his reply. I was still in the doorway to my room when I noticed that my kit bag, which I had last seen inside the cabinet in my room about 2250 hrs the same evening, was strewn all over the floor. Gnr Robinson made a break for the door. I tried to stop him. We struggled for about a minute but he got away, running out through the door. As I was dressed only in my underwear, I did not give chase. On looking around I discovered that a knife, which I kept on a shelf in my cabinet, was missing. I reported the incident to Sjt Wood of the R.Ps. and to B.S.M. Loghrin of "C" Wing, No 5 Cdn Repat Depot and they advised me to attend pay parade and I might find the man who was in my room. At about 1315 hrs 12 Jul 45 I met Sjt Wood and stood there looking each man over as he was paid. I recognized Gnr Robinson as being the man in my room the night before. I told Sjt Wood that this was the man and we approached him. As I came up to him he said, "It was me". Sjt Wood placed him under arrest. At about 1430 hrs I was questioned by Lieut Done about my missing knife. I described it to him in detail."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

(W.W. SHARABURA) Sjt., B 22788.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

H 15124 Sjt WOOD, J.H., NCO i/c Regimental Police, on strength of No 5 Canadian Repatriation Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"At approximately 0900 hrs on Thursday 12 Jul 45, Sjt Sharabura reported to me that he had found a man in his room around 2300 hrs. He reported that he had challenged the man when he discovered him in his room and that the man had tried to make a break and had escaped after a short struggle. He described this man to me as being 5'4" tall, about 135 lbs., light complexion and possibly carrying a scar as there was blood on the floor of his quarters after the struggle. He informed me that he had so far not checked his kit thoroughly but knew that a knife was missing. This knife he described as having a plastic handle of various colours, signle blade and corkscrew. I decided to check all parades. At approximately 1315 hrs the same day, I, along with Sjt Sharabura, checked the M.T. Pay Parade. I asked Sjt Sharabura if he thought that there was any difference in the description of the man he gave me and Gnr Robinson, whom I now recognize and who was on Pay Parade. He replied that that was the man. We approached Gnr Robinson and before anything could be said, he, Gnr Robinson stated, "O.K. Sjt, it was me but I didn't know what I was doing." I placed him under arrest. At approximately 1400 hrs, acting under instructions of Lt-Col. Myatt, accompanied by Lieut. Done and Gnr Robinson, I went to Robinson's quarters to inspect his kit. Robinson turned out all his kit which Lieut. Done inspected. Amongst the kit was a knife of the description given to me by Sjt Sharabura. This I asked Lieut Done to hold onto as evidence. We then returned Gnr Robinson to the Guard Room where Lieut Done interviewed him."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

Sir:

At approximately 1400 hrs this date acting on the orders of Lt Col E J Wyatt and accompanied by the Regt Police Sgt I searched the effects of Gnr Robinson E J reg no M106013

I found therein a distinctive type of pocket knife, and, as a pocket knife had been among articles mentioned as stolen from the Sgts mess quarters, I took the knife as a possible piece of evidence. Pte Robinson maintained that the knife was his own property and that he had brought it with him as a souvenir from Italy some time ago. He could not however produce, or mention, anyone who had ever seen the knife before

Later on the afternoon, before seeing the knife in question, Sgt Skarabura described it to me in great detail even mentioning various tiny "nicks" on the blade

I submitted the knife to the Regt'l Police Sgt as evidence

I swear this statement to be a true statement so help me God

Plea attached at B/2

Plea of Mitigation for B-62 Tpr. Robinson, E.H.

Tpr. Robinson has been in the Army for 4½ years, and since 1943 has seen action both the Mediterranean and the European theatres. When he returned to the U.K. on repatriation, he was given leave and at that time became involved with a young lady. He soon discovered she was in trouble and in a misguided way set out to help her, a step which influenced his staying away from the unit.

In mitigation I would like to point out that Robinsons' conduct sheet had been clean for two years prior to the time that he made this unfortunate acquaintance.

Also Robinson at that time was on a [redacted] very keen to get back to Canada, consequently this action has already meant a certain amount of sacrifice.

MEDICAL OFFICERS REPORT

I certify that B-43867 Pte. Robinson, T. 1st Canadian Special Service Battalion, 3rd Company, 3rd Regiment, First Special Service Force is fit to undergo trial by Court-Martial.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment in Case of Pte Robinson.

He enlisted in the Can Army Sept 42. He transferred to Final Sqn de Force 28 Sept 43 at Burlington, Vermont, U.S.A., and outside of a short time spent in hospital has been fighting with them ever since. His war record to date is an excellent one. It proves that Pte Robinson's loyalty can not be disputed. In view of the evidence of the two witnesses called and of this M.F.M. 6 I would submit that he deserves lenient treatment and request that the Court consider this in ~~fixing~~ their sentence.

Q- 5 Tell us what you know, of Pte Robinson's character, and why you are qualified to make this statement.

A- 5 I have known the accused, Pte Robinson, since he joined the Corps at Fort Ethan Allen, when we were there last, a little over a year ago. He became a member of my platoon at that time, and has remained in my platoon since that time, with the exception of some short periods spent in hospital.

W.W.

He has caused no trouble what so ever, in the platoon, and his character has always been P-1.

He has been P-1 in combat, and acted as ammunition carrier on my mortar crew, carrying a heavy load at all times. His feet bothered him, and his ankles kept swelling up, but in spite of that, he stayed on the job. Cachat Augie, deceased, is a very good man to have on patrol, because he remained alert, and kept me posted as to what was happening in his sector.

The Prosecution declines to cross-examine. Rule of Procedure 83 (B) is complied with, and the witness with draws.

Second Witness for the defense, # 6972663 1st Sgt. Paine Wm D. 3rd Cav Brg Regt. F.A.S.S. having been duly sworn states. I am # 6972663, 1st Sgt. Paine Wm D. 3rd Cav Brg Regt. F.A.S.S.

Q-6 Will you tell the Court what you know about the character of the accused

Wm

A-6 I recognise the accused as 15th Robinson who has been in our Coy. for a little more than a years. As first Sgt of the Coy. he has not, to my knowledge caused any trouble at any time, and has been a very good soldier in the front line. The prosecution declines the cross examine. R.P. 83-(2) is complied with, and witness withdraws.

Third Witness. Major J.D.J. Bisson adm. officer 1st Cdn. Sp. Svc Bde. is now called, and having been duly sworn states. I am Major J.D.J. Bisson adm officer 1st Cdn Sp Sv. Bde.

Q-7 Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused.

A-7 Yes. I produce a statement as to character and particulars of service of the accused, and a certified true copy of his AFM 6.

W.W.

The above Statement (revised schedule of convictions) and MFM 6 are read, marked App. "E" & "F" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q- 8 Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard?

A- 8 Yes Sir.

Q- 9 Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the Regimental Books?

A- 9 Yes Sir.

Q- 10 Are they true extracts from the Regimental Books, and is the statement of entries in the Conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries

A- 10 Yes Sir.

The Defending officer declines to cross examine.

In the Opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with R P 83 (B) and witness withdraws.

H.F.M.

Q - 11 Do you wish to address the Board,

A - 11 No Sir.

The Court is closed for consideration of sentence.

The Court sentence the accused # B. 43467 Pte Thomas Robinson, 1st Cdn Inf. Bn. 3rd Cay 3rd Regt. R.C.A.S.C.

Johann Mannott said he recognized the accused and saw him at 0630 hrs 12 May 1945 in the kitchen of Mrs Anna Liebe house and that the accused offered him liquor to drink on 2 occasions. This evidence is not disputed by evidence of the defense. The defense witnesses do not negative the fact that the accused was at his billets in the early hours of 12 May 1945. Summary of evidence in the case of M-35303 Gunner ROBINSON, F.W. 81 Field Battery 14 Field Regt., Royal Canadian Artillery 3rd. Canadian Division CAC charged with

(a) Fraternization (A.A. 40)- (alternative)
(b) Indecent assault (A.A. 41)

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. Johann Mannott, 110 Sandhorst, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a farmer, father of miss Berta Mannott and live at 110 Sandhorst. On the night of 11/12 May my Daughter came home and shouted, "Father, open the door". My Wife opened the door and my daughter said to us. "Father, one Canadian Soldier has raped me and there are two more who want to do the same". We then sent her to bed, locked the door and retired.

I got up the following morning at six o'clock, took my bycycle and went to the home of Mrs. Anne Siebels where my daughter was employed, to get information about the incident of the early morning. When I entered the Kitchen of Mrs. Siebels home at approximately 0610 Hours, there were two Canadians, Mrs. Gliech and Mrs. Siebels in the kitchen. One soldier was completely dressed, the other sat with his jacket off. One soldier whom I thought was intoxicated, offered me a drink of gin which I refused. The other offered me a cigarette. I accepted. The soldier who offered me the gin is the one here. (pointing to the accused)

I remained a few minutes in the kitchen and then walked towards the barn to do some chores which my daughter does normally. Mrs. Siebels followed me and then the two soldiers. The same soldier who offered me the drink in the kitchen followed me into the barn and offered me a second drink, which I refused. He then walked out of the barn and with the other soldier, disappeared.

Signed,
Mr. Johann Mannott

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. Miss Bertha Mannott, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am the servant girl, daughter of Mr Johann Mannott and work for Mrs Siebels 124 Sandhorst. Approximately 2300 Hours on the 11 May I heard a knock on the door. Mrs. Siebels, Mrs Gliech and three children were the other occupants of the house at this time. I went to Mrs. Gliech's room to ask what to do and she advised me not to open the door. I looked out the window and saw three soldiers. I heard one say in German, "open the door we are going to search the house for weapons". Mrs Gliech said, "open the door". Meantime we were all dressed and Mrs. Siebels opened the kitchen door. I was standing near the kitchen table and Mrs. Gliech was standing at the entrance of her bedroom. Three soldiers entered, a tall soldier who did not speak German approached and touched my hair. The German speaking one said, "my job is to search for weapons." He had a revolver in his hand. Mrs. Siebels and I told them there were no weapons in the house but they could search. The soldier who touched my hair went to the kitchen cupboard and opened the drawers, he then approached me again.

Cont'd,

Second Witness for the Prosecution (Cont'd)

The German speaking soldier said I would become his (the tall soldier) wife for the night. I said I did not understand. He asked me again 3 or 4 times and threatening me with the revolver said to me, "if you don't understand you will be shot". Then the German speaking soldier asked "Where are the beds?" At that time there was one child sleeping in eahh of the two beds built into the Kitchen wall. The German speaking soldier took one child and put him in bed with the other child and told me to enter the empty bed. I refused and he demanded it. At this time the tall soldier made a gesture with his knife. I then went into the bed. While this was taking place Mrs. Glisch, Mrs. Siebels and the other soldier disappeared from the kitchen. The German speaking soldier told me to undress, the tall soldier came into the bed with me and the German speaking soldier was walking around the kitchen. The tall soldier laid on the bed a few moments then got sick and left the bed. I attempted to leave the bed at this time but the German speaking soldier approached and said, "my comrade is sick, could I do his part?" I said no. Then he opened his belt and came into the bed. He forced my legs apart and sexual intercourse took place. I shouted for help, the tall soldier came back and was sitting on the edge of the bed. He put his hand on my mouth to prevent me from shouting. After the German speaking soldier raped me, the tall soldier then came into bed. He took off his boots and shirt and lay down. The German speaking soldier who was still standing in front of the bed told me I had to remain in bed with him (the tall soldier) and that I had to awaken him at 6 o'clock. He then told me not to worry because the other two soldiers had no weapons and they would remain until morning. He then went away. The tall soldier was sick again so I pretended to get something for him and fled to my parents home. When I arrived home my Mother came to the door and I told her I had been raped. My father was in the bedroom, My Mother told me to go to bed and I did. That is the first sexual experience I had.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

Mrs. Aurora Gliech 124 Sandhorst, having been duly sworn, states: -

I am Mrs. Gliech. I am a pomeranian refugee and live at the home of Mrs. Anne Siebels with my grandson. On the evening of 11 May I was sleeping with my grandson when we heard voices outside the house. It was approximately 2300 Hours. Mrs. Siebels came to me and asked me what to do. The soldiers knocked at my window. I asked, "what's going on here". Then one soldier shouted in German, "open the door we have come to search the house for weapons". I told Mrs. Siebels to open the door. I stood at the entrance to the kitchen and my bedroom when the three soldiers entered. A German speaking soldier said he was going to search the house. The Soldier had a revolver and talked to the girl. A couple of minutes later the German soldier told Mrs. Siebels and I to disappear. I went directly to my bed and remained there. Mrs. Siebels son came in a few minutes later screaming something and Mrs. Siebles put her son in my bed. The German speaking soldier came in some time later and said he was going away. I was very excited and cannot remember any of the conversations that took place. On the following evening 12 May I was visiting my daughter-in-law and was called by Mr. Johann Siebels and told that a German Speaking Soldier was at the house and wanted to know something of the night before. I told him the same as stated above. He handed Mr. Johann Siebels the revolver, then Weert Siebels then myself in turn, asking each of us to shoot him. We all refused. I handed him back the revolver then went back into my daughter-in-law's room.

4th. Witness for the Prosecution

Mrs. Anna Siebels 124 Sandhorst, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a married woman, whose husband is missing on the Eastern Front. I live at 124 Sandhorst St. and with me in the house are Mrs. Gliech and her grandson, my two sons and my employee Miss Berta Mannott. We were in bed on the night of 11/12 May when, approximately 2300 Hours we heard a noise outside the house. I went to Mrs. Gliech's room to ask her advice. Mrs. Gliech shouted, "what's going on here"? A German speaking soldier answered "open the door we have come to search the house for weapons". Mrs. Gliech told me to open the door. Three soldiers entered the kitchen and the German speaking one said, "we were told there are weapons in the house" "We are going to search". A slim middle sized soldier walked to the cupboard and opened the drawers talking in English to the others. Coming from the cupboard, the tall soldier approached Miss Mannott. The German speaking soldier said to Miss Mannott that the tall soldier will sleep with her. Miss Mannott answered that she would have to see her father. Then the German Speaking soldier told me and Mrs. Gliech to disappear from the Kitchen. Mrs. Gliech and I left the room, went to the adjoining room and then to Mrs. Gliech's bedroom. One soldier followed us. I could not recognize him if I saw him. We were standing there in the bedroom for about three or four minutes.

Cont'd,

4th. Witness for the Prosecution (Cont'd,)

Mrs. Gliech went directly to bed. I heard Miss Mannott crying. My two sons were in the kitchen beds and when Miss Mannott started to cry one of them came into me and told me the soldiers were going to kill Miss Mannott. I put him in bed with Mrs. Gliech. The soldier who followed me into the bedroom put his arm around me and tried to take my frock off. I resisted. He then layed on the other bed and fell asleep. I saw him asleep and took for granted he would remain that way and layed down beside him.

After a while the German speaking soldier entered the room and Mrs. Gliech said to him, "Now are you going to harm me?" He answered "No", I am going home, and left. Everything was quiet until morning. I awoke about five o'clock and made coffee. At six o'clock I awakened the soldiers. They got up and asked for something to drink. I gave them coffee and they sat in the kitchen and remained there until Mr. Mannott arrived around 0615 Hours. Personally I don't think the soldiers have done much wrong and they should go unpunished this time.

1. Ref is made to Part I Order No 443 dated 23 Feb 45.

2. Non-fraternization means having nothing whatever to do with German people except the minimum contact required for the execution of military duty.

3. All acts of fraternization are absolutely forbidden; the following are examples:

(a) Shaking hands with Germans.
(b) Permitting children to climb into motor vehs or to congregate in areas around military premises.
(c) Associating on familiar terms, especially with women.
(d) Visiting German houses.
(e) Drinking with Germans.
(f) Playing games or sports with them.
(g) Making or accepting gifts of any sort (even to or from children).
(h) Attending German dances, entertainments or other social events.
(i) Accompanying Germans on the streets, in theatres, taverns, hotels, or elsewhere, except on official business.
(j) Communicating with Germans on any subject except on official business.

The above examples are not exhaustive.

4. Disciplinary action will be taken in all cases of fraternization.

5. Fraternization offences may be minor or serious in character.

Examples of Minor Cases
Speaking to women or girls (except in cases of absolute necessity); shaking hands with Germans, small gifts to Germans (incl children); permitting children to climb on vehs or Germans to congregate about military premises.

Examples of Serious Cases
Associating with women or girls; visiting German homes; drinking with Germans; playing games or sports with them; giving or accepting gifts (except for the most trivial nature provided for above); attending German dances or other social events; accompanying Germans on the streets, in theatres, taverns, hotels or elsewhere (except on official business; discussions and arguments with Germans especially on politics or on the future of Germany.

6. Sexual intercourse with German women is a flagrant breach of the "Non-fraternization" directive and will always be dealt with by Court Martial. Due to propaganda German women may be in fear of Allied soldiers and may consent to intercourse through fear of the consequences of refusal. Where consent to intercourse results from fear, the crime of rape is committed. In cases of sexual intercourse with German women, where the circumstances indicate the woman's consent was induced either by force or fear, a charge of rape should be considered with (in the case of offrs) alternative "Fraternization" charge under Sec 40 AA."

my address by the Def (10 etc

The Defence admit that the accused was absent without leave for the period alleged - but contend that the Prosecution have not made out a case for desertion.

The accused chose to leave his unit while it was out of the line - and not while in action, where he served for some considerabl time. Hence it may be presumed that he was not attempting to avoid action, other things being equal.

The Prosecution brought evidence to show that the troop had been warned. The Defence contended that these statements were inadmissable unless it could be shown that the accused was present wh the warnings were given - firstly, they were irrelevant unless the accused was there and, secondly, there is a strong possibility that it was hearsay evidence. See MML p 84 Sec 47 - it is a "statement with reference to the accused" in that he was included in the troop that was expected to go into action; "relative to the charge"; and "made in his absence".

The burden of proof never shifts from the Prosecution. The Defence contend that no prima facie case has been made out. At the stage of proceedings when the Prosecution closed their case, they showed warnings had been given, but had brought no conclusive evidence that the accused was present on any occassion.

The accused answered questions very frankly and admitted being at the Christmas dinner - but in a drunken condition - that there was a lot of noise - and that he didn't hear the CO give any warning about going into action. The Court, from their knowledge of Canadian Army Christmas dinners will surely realize that this is quite plausible. It is probably true that many soldiers, without meaning disrespect to their CO, hear very little of what is said by the CO at a Christmas dinner. In any event, the accused is entitled to the benefit of any doubt. Certainly a reasonable doubt exists here.

The accused, on oath, has sworn that he never heard any warning, and has accounted reasonably for his whereabouts on the occasions when the warnings were given. A witness was available to corroborate the sworn testimony of the accused, but was not called when the Court said they would accept the evidence of the accused at its face value; the Prosecution was agreeable to this.

The evidence showed that there were no roll calls on Dec 25 or Dec 26. Surely a better procedure for warning the troop would have been to have a proper parade with a roll call - rather than warning small groups that were available - and trusting to word of mouth methods for advising the remainder.

The whole basis of the charge is in the phrase "after being warned". No other circumstances such as being found in "civilian clothes" or "boarding a ship" have been shown - hence no intent not to return can be presumed.

The Defence submit that a finding of desertion is not proper under the circumstances, and that the Court should bring in a finding of Not Guilty of desertion but guilty of absence without leave.

(11)

Closing address of Prosecution
In the Case of Tpr Tucker.

Sir:

I have already pointed out to the Court the manner in which I consider the surrounding circumstances may be taken into consideration in order to decide the presence or absence of the intention of the accused to desert the Majesty's service.

Dealing briefly with the Evidence in the Record, I would draw the attention of the Court to the fact that the accused was present at the Christmas dinner and spent at least one full evening with other members of his troop, that the troop had been warned of the impending action. I submit to the Court that these facts are sufficient evidence to draw the conclusion that the accused did in fact have the intention of deserting when he left the unit lines.

If however the Court does not feel that the Prosecution has proved desertion, the facts of the absence without leave are fully proved as set out in the charge.

Capt

CCF.

E.3 Address by defence. Statement and Conduct sheet and in mitigation of punishment

The accused is charged on report of an absence of 2 days 8 hours. He has been in military custody for 4 days. He has no entries on his conduct sheet. Normally apart from the charge of desertion one would be tried by the CO he is first offender for a short absence without leave and would have received a maximum of 28 days. I point out that the sentence of the court will run from today and that the 4 days he has already served should be taken into account. I point out to whom with the accused. He just turned 21 before this charge arose.

The evidence has brought out what he probably thought a reason for going AWOL as he knew it was cancelled and that he had promised to get his mother souvenirs from Rome.

I would like to make a plea for leniency on behalf of the accused on the following grounds:-

1. The man by his own confession lost his temper at the time of the incident he was upset by the incidents that took place just previous to Sgt Cutler ordering to the mess deck (see summary of evidence accused's statement.)

2. I am that Sgt Cutler chose to order the man who was farthest from the door both to close the same, it would indicate that Sgt Cutler was using his authority to vent his personal feelings against the accused

3. I am that this man has never before been charged with refusing to obey an order in the course of his 3 yrs of active service in the army. I maintain that the incident was as much a reflection on the ability of Sgt Cutler as a corporal as it was on the Robinson as a disciplined soldier.

B1. The President ~~or JA if any~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Plea in Mitigation by Defending Officer.

Mr. President and gentlemen this accused when asked how he feels about this wound has replied. "I want to go back - thatis where I want to be". This is consistent with Capt Johnson's report where, in the "Summary" he states he was impressed by this man's honesty, straightforwardness, by the fact that he was and genuinely upset by the accusation of SIW. You will also note there is no Evidence of psychiatric disability. This man case to France on "D" day ie 6 June and he was in action right up tillthe 23 July a period of 47 days. I think this case is deserving in consideration of recommending suspended sentence. I ask the Court to view it on that basis.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of C120541 Pte Gordon John ROBINSON, Stormont Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders attached No 7 Canadian General Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness

C 42000 Sgt Gibbs LA, No 1 SIS HQ First Cdn Army, sworn states :-

I am C 42000 Sgt Gibbs LA, No 1 SIS HQ First Cdn Army. On 12 Sep 44 the accused, whom I recognise as C120541 Pte Robinson GJ, was interviewed by Sgt Harrison JT, No 1 SIS and myself. He was informed that we were members of the SIS and that we were investigating SIW cases. The accused was then cautioned in the following manner: - "You are not obliged to say anything unless youwish to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence". The accused understood this caution. He volunteered to make a statement which was reduced to writing. After the statement was reduced to writing it was read over to him by Sgt Harrison. He then signed the statement. I produce the statement as evidence and I recognise the signature on the statement as that belonging to the accused. There were no threats, promises of reward or inducements held out to the accused to obtain this statement. The accused was not under arrest at this time.

J A Gibbs
Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Second Witness

Capt WE Armour, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn states:-

I am Capt WE Armour, medical officer at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. Pte ROBINSON was admitted to my care on the 26 Jul 44 suffering from a wound of the left foot which occurred on the 25 Jul 44 according to medical records accompanying him. The wound traversed the foot from the medial malleolus through the tarsus to the lateral side of the sole as is usual in fractures of this type and also some comminution by infection which has now cleared up. He is still in a walking plaster cast and will probably not be fit for duty for six weeks more and will need a lowering of category due to his wound. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. I cannot say at what distances from the wound the weapon was fired.

W Edward Armour
Witness

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

Third Witness

Capt AM Johnson, RCAMC, No 10 Cdn Gen Hosp.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service not readily procurable and a written statement of his evidence signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached herego as Exhibit "B"

J W G Thompson Lt-Col

Officer Taking Summary

I do not require the attendance of Capt AM Johnson for the purpose of cross-examination.

G J Robinson

Accused

The accused is cautioned as follows :-

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

There is nothing I have to say now.

The accused does not wish to call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down before me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

'I have been cautioned by Sgt. Harrison J.T. of No: 1 Special Investigation Section that I do not have to say anything, unless I wish to do so, but what ever I do say, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

(Sgn) C.J. Robinson.

I arrived at my unit on 'D' day and was in action constantly right up to the 23rd July 44. I had been through so much shelling and mortaring from the time that I came to France that on the 22nd my nerves broke down. On that day my officer Lieut. Fagan suggested that I be sent back for a rest. I decided that I could stand it longer, and I tried to, but on the 23 Jul 44 my nerves completely broke down and I did'nt hardly realise what I was doing, but I shot myself in the left foot with my rifle. Had I been able to see my officer that day, I should have asked him to send me back because I could stand it no longer. Pte. Waite was in a slit trench with me when it happened, but I do not know if he saw me do it or not. I realise I should not have shot myself, but I am willing as soon as I am able to get back to my unit.

Army - Enjoyed the army - always got along well - did full training - two minor crimes - morale and volitions are high.

Habits - single, VD once, doesn't drink - makes good friends.

H.P.I. - Went in D-day by his own request - claims he carried on well in action - ate and slept well - claims he was one of the coolest ones in the platoon - gives convincing story of accidental wounding.

Pte J. H. Robinson
A-11011

Sir:

The accused Pte. J. H. Robinson A-11011 has been charged by the prosecutor with absenting himself without leave for 8 days, 4 hrs., 30 min., however I would ask the court to consider this mans reason before passing sentence.

The only reason for the accused absenting himself was to make sure that his wife, who is expecting a baby, and whom he has not heard from for some time, was well. At the time the accused left to see her, it was expected she would have the baby, however after getting there, he has been assured by the doctor in charge of the case, that it will not be until next month.

The accused had been told by the army Medical Officer that his category which is 2 under 11, would prevent him from going to the field, on these conditions he had his wife move closer to him, in order that they may see more of one another during this period. However no sooner had he got his wife moved, than he was told his category would not keep him from going to the field, as a result he had to leave his wife, and not hearing from her, it only natural that he would worry.

This man joined the army at the outbreak of the war in Sept. 1939, so I don't think there is much doubt as to his sincerity in wanting to be a good soldier, in spite of the charges marked against him, only one of which I think you will agree is of a very serious nature.

I do not say the accused was perfectly justified in absenting himself, but in view of the circumstances, I would ask the court to duly consider the position the accused was placed in before passing sentence.

Plea in mitigation by defending officer

Plea of Mitigation D76838 Spr (L/Cpl Robinson, James Frederick

L/Cpl Robinson was mobilized on 26 Aug 39 with the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders in the City of Cornwall, Ont. This unit was acting as a Canal Guard but was demobilized 5 Nov 39.

From this time until 1 Dec 39 L/Cpl Robinson spent consierable time in Ottawa attempting to enlist in the RCAF but was unsuccessful. On 1 Dec 39 he went to Montreal where he enlisted with the Royal Montreal Regiment. He proceeded overseas with this unit 6 Dec 39.

L/Cpl Robinson remained with the RMR until 1942 when he was transferred to the RCEngineers coming to 2 Cdn Drilling Coy RCE in July of that year.

During the first two years of service L/Cpl Robinson had a clean crime sheet and since that time has had only minor crimes with one major AWL charge for which he spent some time in detention.

Since May 1944 L/Cpl Robinson has been L/Cpl clerk in 7 Platoon of which I am Platoon Officer. He has always done his work quite faithfully and has undertaken more than was actually required of him. During that time he has had no crimes other than one AWL which is practically concurrent with the present charge.

L/Cpl Robinson is 33 years of age and is unmarried.
Sir, may I ask that the length of L/Cpl Robinson's service, his years of service without crime and the few crimes of the past years be given due consideration in determining the punishment which is to be given.

Re: Application for Discharge

D 74838 Dpr (Tr/Cpl) Robinson, James Frederick

Tr/Cpl Robinson was mobilized on 26 Aug 39 with the Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Highlanders in the City of Cornwall, Ont. Here unit was acting as a Canal Guard but was demobilized 5 Nov 39.

From this time until 1 Dec 39, Tr/Cpl Robinson spent considerable time in Ottawa attempting to enlist in the R.C.A.F. but was unsuccessful. On 1 Dec 39 he went to Montreal where he enlisted with the Royal Montreal Regiment. He proceeded overseas with this unit 6 Dec 39.

Tr/Cpl Robinson remained with the R.C.H.A. until April 2, when he was transferred to the R.C.E. engineers coming to 2 Can Tunnelling Coy R.C.E. in July of that year.

During the first two years of service Tr/Cpl Robinson had a clean crime sheet and since that time has had only minor crimes with one major A.W.L. charge for which he spent some time in detention.

Since May 1941 Tr/Cpl Robinson has been Tr/Cpl clerk in 7 Platoon of which I am Platoon Officer. He has always done his work quite faithfully and has undertaken more than was actually required of him. During that time he has had no crimes other than one A.W.L. which is practically concurrent with the present charge.

Tr/Cpl Robinson is 22 years of age and is unmarried.

This may I ask that the length of Tr/Cpl Robinson's service, five years of service without crime and the few crimes of the past years be given due consideration in determining the punishment which is to be given.

Some about six months this plea

a son of a col., who rose from the ranks in the last war, a well educated man, who is ultimately office material to be sent to the rate of fusilation in the army that he should go A.W.L.

I ask the court when passing sentence to remember this man had and bore a good conduct stripe and that by mismanagement we have driven him to go home after he had done a good job for two years. I would ask if we are not punishing the wrong person for this crime. If we have not committed a bigger crime for which we are responsible for these years.

All the statements I have made would seem to be endorsed by the action of withdrawing the cert of law of hist by the C.E.R.O. before this man stands for Court Martial.

Joseph [illegible] ROBINSON, 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl RCE

First Witness for the Prosecution: Lieutenant G W Lawson, 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl RCE, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecution:-

Q-1 Mr Lawson, will you tell the court exactly what happened on the night of 29 Oct 44?

A-1 On the night of 29 Oct 44 at approx 2345 hours, I came out of the orderly room and was walking down the lines when I noticed the 15 cwt vehicle was missing from the vehicle park. As no vehicles were allowed out without the permission of the OC, who was Captain Carson at that time, Sergeant Borse[illegible] the regimental sergeant, and myself, I inquired of the OC and of the regimental sergeant and discovered that no permission had been given for the vehicle to leave the yard. They know nothing about it so I decided to sit up for the vehicle to return. At approx 2345 hours the guard, Spr Dauphinais, and myself were standing by the entrance to the unit lines when the 15 cwt drove into the yard. The guard ordered the vehicle to stop and when it did I went up to the vehicle and asked who the senior person in the 15 cwt was. Sergeant Robinson replied that he was and I noticed then that Cpl Hollis was the other occupant of the vehicle. He was driving it. I asked them if they had permission to have the vehicle out and the Sergeant replied "No". I then put him under open arrest and told him he would be up for oders in the morning. I then went to my tent and was undressing when Sergeant Robinson and Corporal Hollis asked permission to see me. They came in and Sergeant Robinson asked why he was under open arrest and I told him and Cpl Hollis asked to be placed under open arrest. I noticed at that time that they had been drinking and I told them to see me in the morning and we would straighten things out then. Sergeant Robinson then asked to see the OC and as Captain Carson was asleep in the same tent I woke him up and explained the situation. Captain Carson told Sergeant Robinson and Corporal Hollis that he would straighten the situation out in the morning. The sergeant and the corporal then left and I went to bed. At approx 2:30 in the morning I was awakened by the sound of gunfire and the guard, Sapper Dauphinais, came running into the tent saying that someone had stolen the 15 cwt. I got up and with Sergeant Borse, the Regimental sergeant, we looked in the billets and found that Sergeant Robinson was absent and that his kit was gone. All that remained was a couple of shoe brushes. We also found that Cpl Hollis was absent and that his bed roll and personal kit was missing. We then took my jeep and reported to a section of the canadian [illegible] and Cpl Hollis were AWL and that a 15 cwt had been stolen from our vehicle park.

Q-2 Was there a set of keys to the 15 cwt or just the switch?

A-2 Just the switch.

Q-3 Who drives the 15 cwt now?

A-3 Spr Wallet at the present time. At the time it was stolen it was Spr Dauphinais, the guard.

Q-4 How was this order published that no one was allowed to use the vehicles without permission of the OC, yourself, or the regimental sergeant?

A-4 It was necessary to have permission of the OC, myself, or the regimental sergeant for recreational trips in the unit vehicles. Ordinary runs were handled by the MT Cpl and I always knew of them. There was no order published but it was laid down very definitely to the NCOs.

XX'd by the Defence

Q-5 How long have you been with the Mech Equip Pl?
A-5 Since June, sir.

Q-6 Have any standing orders with regard to use of transport, and regulations regarding the use of transport been published in your unit insofar as you know?
A-6 No, sir. It is not on our standing orders.

Q-7 Do you use work tickets?
A-7 No, sir.

Q-8 How is Cpl Hollis employed in the platoon -- that is at the time of the incident?
A-8 He was transport Cpl.

No re-x'm

In the opinion of the Court it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B). THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: H-63791 Spr C. Dauphinais, 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl, RCE, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution:

Q-9 Will you identify yourself to the Court?
A-9 I am H-63791 Spr C. Dauphinais, 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl RCE.

Q-10 Will you tell us what happend on 29 Oct 44 when you were on guard in your unit transport lines?
A-10 I was performing my duty as guard walking up and down when suddenly I heard a motor starting. A 15 cwt started to pull outside the camp and I ordered it to stop. It did not stop. I yelled out again. It did not stop so I fired. Right after that I reported to Captain Carson. He was in bed at the time. I told him what happened.

Q-11 Earlier in the evening you were on guard from what hour?
A-11 I can't say what time I was on guard.

Q-12 Roughly could you tell us?
A-12 I would say it was around ten o'clock that I went on guard.

Q-13 Did you see Mr Lawson during the evening you were on guard?
A-13 Yes, sir, I did. He was waiting for a truck to come in.

Q-14 Did this truck come in while he was with you?
A-14 Yes, the truck came in. Mr Lawson asked who the senior NCO was. Sergeant Robinson said, "I am, sir.". Mr Lawson put him under open arrest. Sergeant Robinson parked the truck in the parking lot and that is all I saw of the matter. I went on with my duty.

Q-15 You definitely heard Mr Lawson put the sergeant under open arrest?
A-15 Yes, I was right by the truck.

XX'd by the Defence

Q-16 You stated to the court that you can't remember when you went on guard that night? Is that correct?
A-16 Well, sir, I was supposed to be on the first shift at 8 o'Clock but I wasn't on it. I was in bed.

Q-17 Why were you not on the first shift?
A-17 I just forgot about it.

Q-18 You didn't go out on the first shift?
A-18 No, Mr Lawson put me under open arrest and said to go on the second shift.

Q-19 When does the second shift go on guard?
A-19 The second shift starts at 11:20 until 3:20 in the morning.

Q-20 So that you went on the second shift? You did not go on at 10 o'clock in that case. You went on at 11:20?
A-20 It wasn't very long after lights out that I went on.

Q-21 Do you know what time you came off guard?
A-21 I can't say -- I just woke up the other guard. I haven't any watch so I don't know.

Q-22 Do you remember making a statement when the summary of evidence was take.
A-22 Mr Wild asked me about the matter and I told him about it. I signed this statement a day or so later in the orderly room. It had been typed out.

Q-23 Do you know what you signed?
A-23 I signed a report which was the statement I had made to Mr Wild. It had been typed out.

Q-24 In that statement did you say to Mr Wild th t you had been on guard on that particular night from 2230 hours until 0240 hours the following morning?
A-24 Yes, sir. I said that.

No re-x'm

In the opinion of the Court it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

Def Offr to Court

I object to the AFB 296 submitted by the prosecution in that it discloses one charge of drunkeness under AA Sec 19 and two offences under AA Sec 40 where the MFM 6 discloses not entries whatsoever.

President to Def Offr.

The court will proceed on the presumption that there are not entries against the accused.

Submission by Defence that No prima facie case has been established.

The whole question of the second charge evolves around what constituates permission and we have in cross examination brought out from the first witness for the prosecution that no standing orders were in effect which required permission to be obtained from the OC, from Mr Lawson, or from the regimental sergeant. He is the only witness who has made any statement to the effect that permission must be obtained and he has not shown why permission must be necessary.

Reply by the prosecution to submission of no prima facie case

The whole thing evolves on the point that there is no standing orders in the unit that an NCO must not take out vehicles without permission. I wonder how many units in the field have standing orders, that is, something down on paper that certain persons wont take vehicles without permission of an officer or particular NCO. I know it doesn't exist in my unit or in the unit I have just recently left. Mr Lawson said that it was a recognized rule in the unit that vehciles were not to be taken without permission and the court will knows that a unit cannot have anybody running out with their trucks.

The only facts we can prove and that Mr Lawson has brought out is that it is definitely a rule in the unit although nothing is laid down on paper that anybody using a vehicle must obtain permission of Mr Lawson, the regimental sergeant or the OC. It is not a standing order and there is nothing written down. My point is that there are very few units in the field that do have standing orders regarding the use of vehicles.

Statement in Mitigation by Defending Offr.

I would like to say a few words in regard to this charge on which the accused has been found guilty - that of AWL.

It is noted from the evidence of the third witness in the summary of evidence brought by the prosecution that Sergeant Robinson surrendered himself himself seven days after the offence was committed. Bearing in mind the fact that Sergeant Robinson was placed under open arrest on his return to camp on the evening of 29 Oct 44, and that in view of the way he felt about this I suggest that in the heat of anger he committed the offence of going AWL and when he had had time to think this over he surrendered himself.

His conduct sheet speaks for itself. He has been a sergeant since Sep 43 and has performed his duties satisfactorily. Sergeant Robinson joined the army on 28 May 40. He came to Sicily on 13 Jul 43 and has served continuously in the Field since that time.

He has had no leave since coming to Italy and while it is realized that these probably do not provide extenuating grounds for a misdemenour, I would ask the court to take into consideration his record, the fact that he has been rather foolish and that he obviously realized that and gave himself up to the provost and came back to take his punishment.

Summary of evidence in the case of M5384 Sgt. Robinson, J.R. 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl., R.C.E. 1 Cdn Corps Troops. CA(CMF).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st witness for the prosecution

Lieut. G.W. Lawson of 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl., R.C.E. having been duly sworn states:

I am Lieut G.W. Lawson, 2 i/c of 5 Cdn Mech Equip Pl., R.C.E. On the night of the 29 Oct. 44 I was walking down the Platoon lines and noticed a 15 cwt vehicle missing from the vehicle park. As no vehicles were allowed out of the lines without permission of the O.C. myself and the Platoon regemental Sgt. I enquired from the Sgt and O.C. if permission had been granted for any person to take out the 15 cwt. As they knew nothing about the absence of the vehicle I decided to stay up and wait for the vehicle to return. At approx 2345 hrs as the guard, Spr. Dauphinais and myself were standing at the entrance to the unit lines the 15 cwt approached and I ordered it to stop. I asked who the Senior person in the vehicle was and Sgt Robinson replied that he was. Cpl Hollis was the other occupant of the vehicle. I then asked if he had permission to have the vehicle out. He replied, "No". I then told him that he was under open arrest and would be up for orders in the morning. I then went to my tent and was undressing when Sgt. Robinson and Cpl. Hollis came into the tent and asked permission to see me. Sgt. Robinson asked why he was under open arrest and Cpl. Hollis also asked thathe, Cpl. Hollis, be put under open arrest as well. I told them that we would straighten things out in the morning. I noticed that both Sgt Robinson and Cpl Hollis were talking in a manner that would indicate that they had been drinking. Sgt Robinson then asked if he could see the O.C. I then woke Capt. Carson who was sleeping in the same tent and Capt. Carson told them that he would straighten things out in the morning. Sgt Robinson and Cpl Hollis then left the tent.

At approx 0230 in the morning I was awakened by the sound of small arms fire and the guard Spr. Dauphinais came running in to the tent saying that they had fired at the 15 cwt as it pulled out of the yard after ordering it to halt. I then got dressed and with Sgt Borse we discovered that Sgt. Robinson and Cpl. Hollis were missing, Sgt. Robinson with complete kit and Cpl. Hollis all his but one kit bag. We then went out of the yard in a jeep and tried to overtake the 15 cwt. We soon found that as it was dark and nobody was around to notice which direction the 15 cwt had gone that it was useless. We then reported to the Provost that a 15 cwt had been stolen and Sgt. Robinson and Cpl. Hollis had gone A.W.O.L.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question 1: What makes you think that I took all my kit?

Answer 1: Sgt. Borse and I went to your bed in the billets and noticed that all your kit including blankets was missing. The only thing left was your bed and a shoe brush.

Question 2: Do you know Sir where Cpl. Summerfield got my kit bag, rubber coat and miscellaneous articles?

Answer 2: No.
