Wickiam had gone into the dance and I asked the proprietor if he would kindly call Ross' name over the microphone in order to see if he was going to stay or go with us because we could not get in. I stayed there for a few minutes talking to the proprietor and Pte. Warnholz. Then Fowler came out of the door and started pushing me back and saying I would have to move on. I told him I was waiting for my friend that they were announcing over the microphone and that made no difference as far as they were concerned. The next thing I remember was shaking hands with ~~xxxx~~ one of the Provost.

Q. And then what happened? When did you first take your tunic off?

A. I don't remember taking it off but I do remember shaking hands when it was off. One of the Provost, Pte. St. Laurent, refused to shake hands.

Q. What was your general attitude at this time?

A. I was ready to leave and was in a friendly attitude. I asked Pte. St. Laurent if he thought he was too good to shake hands with a common private; his being a Provost. The next thing I remember was my tunic being helped on me and as I was buttoning it up, L/Cpl. Fowler grabbed my wrist.

Q. How did he take hold of your wrist?

A. He roughly took hold of my right wrist.

Q. What degree of strength did he use?

A. Heavy pressure. I continued buttoning my tunic up and we started walking down the street. He then put his left wrist under my right wrist and started to force my hand down over his wrist. He put a lot of pressure on it and it was hurting me quite a bit. I asked him to leave go so I could walk on my own as I did not need any assistance or anybody hurting me. I told him several times in the few minutes we walked. I brought my left arm around and hit him in the face and pushed him away.

Q. Was your left hand clenched?

A. No sir.

Q. Why?

A. Because my 4th and 5th fingers have been broken and I cannot close my fist.

Q. What happened then?

A. As soon as I hit him he let go of the pressure on my wrist and I started to run.

Q. What happened then?

A. I ran down the street towards the main street and I came to the corner where there was traffic coming the opposite way; I swung around the corner grasping a lamp post and ran smack into a policeman.

Q. Where was the policeman?

A. Just around the corner. I ran into the policeman and fell down and when I fell down L/Cpl. Fowler came around the corner grabbing my right arm and kneeling beside me he forced my right arm down to keep me down. I asked him to let me up and he told me to stay where I was. Then the ~~xx~~ 15 cwt. wagon pulled up and the Provost assisted me over to the truck and I landed face down at the back of the truck.

Q. What happened next?

A. The next thing I remember, we were on our way back to Camp and they were cursing me and abusing me.

Q. In what way were they abusing you?

A. They were sitting on both sides of me and kicking me with their feet, not hard but annoying. I asked them to stop but they would not.

Q. What happened next?

A. We arrived in Camp Nawton, 3 C.I.R.U., and went to the guard house. I had been complaining about my wrist and I asked to see the M.O. They took me down and an orderly was there and looked at my wrist and said it was alright but it pained me quite a bit and I asked to see the M.O. The M.O. came in and looked at my wrist and moved my hand a bit and said my hand was alright. It seemed to me that it was swollen so I put my wrist up to show him the difference but he said it was all right.

Q. When did your wrist first bother you?
A. When L/Cpl. Fowler took hold of me when placing me under close arrest. It was at the time he commenced to bend it down with his other wrist.
Q. Do you remember at any time cursing or swearing at the Provost.
A. No sir.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

M-1102 L/Cpl Fowler, J., Canadian Provost Corps, on strength of 7 Canadian Provost Company, having been duly sworn, states:

I am M-1102 L/Cpl Fowler, J., Canadian Provost Corps, on strength of 7 Canadian Provost Company. At approximately 2330 hrs on the 13th of May, 1944, in company with H-195076 L/Cpl St. Laurent, M.I., was in the Royal Hotel, Scarborough on duty to supervise conduct at the dance that evening. While at the dance hall, the proprietor of the hotel called to us to go outside. This we did and found a Canadian soldier, whom I now recognize as the accused, with his battle-dress blouse off and his cap off and who was making a disturbance on the street outside the dance hall by cussing and swearing at the proprietor who refused him admittance to the dance. I spoke to the accused and ordered him to put on his tunic and cap, to behave himself and go away. The accused then started to curse me by saying "You bunch of yellow provosts" - "I can lick you if you want to fight" and he refused to put on his tunic and cap which were laying on the pavement about six or seven feet away. I finally got some soldiers to pick up his tunic and we put it on him. I then asked the accused for his paybook (MBM I Pt III) and he refused to show it to me saying "I won't show my book to any yellow provost son of a bitch". I then placed him under close arrest. While I was escorting the accused down the street to the police station, the accused hit me on the mouth with his left fist which stunned me for a moment. The accused then broke away from my grasp and started running down the street with me and L/Cpl St. Laurent, M., running after him. We chased him about one hundred yards and then I saw a policeman standing at a corner. I yelled to him and he was able to stop the accused and I took him into custody again. The accused then lay down on the sidewalk and refused to get up when I ordered him and he complained then of a broken wrist, which he said had been done by the provost. In a few minutes, our truck came along and with the help of two or three soldiers, L/Cpl St. Laurent and myself lifted the accused into the truck. He was all the time cursing and swearing and a big crowd of civilians and soldiers had gathered around. We then proceeded in the truck to the police station to see if the accused required any medical treatment and after the accused was examined, we were allowed to proceed on our way to Camp, no treatment having been given the accused. We arrived at 3 C.I.R.U. - Newton Camp - at approximately 0230 hours, the 14th of May, 1944. The accused still complained of his wrist. We took him to the guard room and then later to the M.O. We got a statement from the Medical Officer, Capt. Sellars of 3 C.I.R.U. who at the time said the accused was fit for duty.

At approximately 2330 hrs, 13th of May, 1944, I was present at the Royal Hotel, Scarborough, with L/Cpl Fowler, on tour of duty at the Saturday night dance. I was with L/Cpl Fowler continually from the time that the proprietor of the dance hall called to us about a disturbance outside the dance hall where we met the accused until we delivered the accused into custody of the guard at 3 C.I.R.U. at approximately 0230 hours, the 14th of May, 1944. I saw the accused cursing and swearing outside the dance hall where he was standing without his battle dress blouse or cap. I saw him strike L/Cpl. Fowler in the face and break away and run down the street. I saw a Civil policeman in Scarborough apprehend the accused. Then he lay down on the street and refused to get up when ordered, stating he had a broken wrist caused by the provost. I helped load the accused into the truck which was passing and we took him to the Civil Police Station for medical treatment if necessary. RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. I wish to give evidence and to call witnesses. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. YES. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. NO

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex F and Ex G respectively.(3)

EXHIBIT 'A'

1 Canadian Air Survey Company R C E

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF: C 25830 GPL HOWDEN F C., NOW a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Charged with

AA A1: WOAS committing a civil offence, that is to say:- theft, contrary to Sec. (2) of the Larceny Act, 1916, in that he, at approximately 1245 hrs, 28 Dec 44, stole one fur coat, the property of Madame Gabrielle Josephine Daemers from a shop in Ghent known as Maison Oosterlink at 62 Rue de Baguettes Ghent.

The accused is informed of his rights. The D C directs that the evidence of the witnesses be taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution: Madame Gabrielle Josephine Daemers, Maison Oosterlink, 62 Rue de Baguettes, Ghent. Having been duly sworn states:-

I reside at 62 Rue de Baguettes and operate a fur shop in conjunction with Alexander Theodorus de Waegeneire known as the Maison Oosterlink at 62 Rue de Baguettes, Gand. Between 1200 and 1230 of the afternoon of the 28 Dec 44, a soldier came into the store and asked for a box. I recognized this soldier as he had been in my shop on two occasions and purchased some goods. I went into the basement to ask the servant girl to get the box for me and as I was returning up the stairs I heard the entrance door of the shop which is fitted with a bell open and close. On entering the shop proper, the soldier was not there. I looked out of the door to see if the soldier was outside in a vehicle. I then noticed that the inside show window door was open and that one of the stands which normally displayed a brown fur coat was knocked over and that the coat had disappeared. I looked down the street and saw the soldier walking toward Guilard Street. He was the only one in the vicinity. He was carrying a brown fur coat on his left side under his short leather coat. The coat was protruding below the vest and was clearly visible. I shouted for my husband pointed to the soldier and said "He has stolen a coat" or words to that effect. My husband immediately went after the soldier, I followed him. My husband caught up to him just as he was entering a door near the top of Guilard Street almost opposite the Police Station. I was some distance behind when my husband arrived at the door, but as I was approaching I could see my husband trying to open it. I arrived just as the coat was pushed into my husbands arms from the other side of the door. I recognized the coat as the one stolen from my shop. A police officer had arrived on the scene, my husband and I told him the story and the constable told us this was a case for the military. The door was then opened. My husband and I entered. There were several soldiers around and they asked us questions. A soldier then told me to follow him and he led me out of the courtyard and into another doorway of the same building and then into a room. There were several soldiers in the room and the soldier who had stolen the coat was standing before the desk. I pointed to accused and said "That is the man."

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Alexander Theodorus De Waegeneire Maison COSTENLIM, 62 Rue de Baguettes, GHENT., having been duly sworn states:-

I am the owner of a fur shop known as Maison COSTENLIM 62 Rue de Baguette Ghent, between 1200 and 1230 on the 28 Dec I was in the basement of my shop when my wife called me from upstairs to the effect that a soldier had taken a fur coat from the show window. I rushed upstairs into the store to my wife who was there. She pointed out to me the direction in which the soldier was proceeding. I immediately walked after him as fast as I could. There was only one soldier in the street. He was about 100 meters ahead of me as I left my store entrance. The soldier was walking fast and was carrying what looked like a fur coat under the left side of a leather vest. The soldier turned up Guinard Street toward the Police station and I caught up to him just as he was entering a large double door opposite the police station. I started shouting Thief ! Thief ! and kept shouting it. I placed the left half of my body between two doors in order to keep them from closing. The soldier was trying to close the door from the other side and I was face to face with him. He had the fur coat under his arm. We struggled a couple of minutes and then I pushed the fur coat into my arms. I left the door, which was then closed. A Belgian Policeman appeared and asked what had happened. I described the incident briefly to him and he told me that this was a case for the military. Some soldiers opened the double door and I entered and walked into the yard followed by my wife who had arrived. A fattish soldier dressed in a shirt and dirty trousers came out of the building and talked to me in French. Several soldiers gathered around me and asked what the soldier who I was chasing looked like. My wife and I both replied, that he was skinny, dark complexion with moustache, and a fairly large mouth with large lips. Two soldiers took me into the kitchen to look for this man. We did not find him. The two soldiers led me through the building into a room where there were several people. I saw my wife there and the soldier who had taken the coat. I pointed to the soldier and said "that is the man." Somebody told me that my presence was no longer required so I returned to my shop with my wife. We arrived between 1 o'clock and 1.15 pm. The coat that was pushed into my hands was the coat stolen from my store.

The accused wishes to cross examine the witness:

Q 1 How is the owner of the shop so sure that it was between 1200 and 1230 when his wife called him to the effect that a soldier had stolen a fur coat ?

A I always eat between the hrs of 1200 and 12.30 and it was lunch time.

Q 2 Is the owner positive that he placed the left side of his body between the two doors.

A Yes, absolutely.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: Clementius Armanitus KLOY
Police Constable, Belgium
Police, City of Ghent,
No 5 Section. Having been duly sworn states:

I am police constable No 253 No 5 Section City of Ghent, my headquarters are the police station Guinard Straat. About 10 minutes to one o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday 28 Dec 44 I was at my headquarters which was on the same side of the street. I noticed two civilians on Guinard Straat running after a soldier. The soldier was on the opposite side of the street and approaching me. He was about three metres away from the lower entrance of the Stadt School when I first noticed him. He entered that door and immediately closed it and I only caught a glimpse of him. The two civilians were shouting the word "Thief, Thief". The civilian man stood on the outside. I walked over to see what it was all about. The man had his arm through the door and when I arrived he had withdrawn it and was in the possession of a brown fur coat. I asked "What happened" and the civilian men told me that the fur coat which he now possessed had been stolen. I told this civilian that it was not a case for the Belgian police. I walked up to the other entrance where there were several soldiers. I spoke to one of them and told him what had happened. This soldier indicated to me that my presence was no longer required, so I returned to my office.

1 Cdn Air Survey Coy R C E been duly sworn states:-

At between 1240 and 1250 A hrs 28 Dec 44 I was in my room when I heard screaming and yelling in the street outside. Sgt Snow and I ran to the window and looking out we saw the accused running up the alleyway. We went downstairs and were informed that a soldier, who had run up the alleyway to the side door, had stolen a fur coat. Since Cpl P C Robinson was the only one we had seen running through there I mentioned that fact. He was carrying a sten gun over his right shoulder and wearing a leather jerkin, not a greatcoat.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution: F 11129 L/Sgt Snow R W having
1 Cdn Air Survey Coy R C E been duly sworn states:

Between 1230 and 1300 hrs A 28 Dec 44, I was sitting in my room playing cribbage with Sgt Nelson when we heard some screaming outside. We went to the window and saw Cpl P C Robinson running up the back alleyway. Then I went downstairs to find out what the noise was about.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth witness for the Prosecution: C 2419 Sgt Reynolds F A., having been duly sworn states:-

Between a quarter to one and one o'clock 28 Dec 44 I was approaching our billets from the corner and I saw that there was a commotion and on hearing that a man had run into the court of our barracks I immediately went into the court yard and checked the door ~~xxx~~ into the recreation room and found that no one could possibly get through there, the other door into the barracks was locked so I entered the kitchen, the only door unlocked and asked Cpl Marcoux who had come through the kitchen in the last five minutes. He said Cpl Robinson passed through and Pte Dixon verified it. From there I went back to the woman who had come up to the building and asked her to describe the dress of the man. She said he had a leather short coat and I asked her if he had worn chevrons and she replied that he did. Then I called Captain Burton who was witnessing from the window my talk with the woman.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Seventh witness for the Prosecution: R 102047 Pte DIXON W J., having been duly sworn states:-
1 Cdn Air Survey Coy R C E

An incident occurred three or four days ago between 1225 A hrs and 1255 A hrs. I was working in the kitchen at the ~~time~~ time and am unable to state the precise moment. I learned later in the afternoon that the incident concerned the stealing of a fur coat. Some time during the period I have mentioned, Sgt Reynolds came into the kitchen and asked me if I had seen anybody. I replied that I had seen Cpl Robinson walk through the kitchen. Cpl Marcoux was definitely in the kitchen at this time, there were others as well, I think they were Pte Markle and two men from the labour Section.
Cpl Robinson must have come in from the outside door opening from the alleyand passed through the kitchen into the mess hall.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Eighth witness for the Prosecution: R 28320 Cpl MARCOUX E., having been duly sworn states:
1 Cdn Air Survey Coy R C E

At 1250 A hrs 28 Dec 44 I was in the kitchen when I heard a lot of noise outside the back door. I went outside to see what was happening. A very excited civilian man and woman were there, explaining that some soldier ~~xx xxxx~~ had stolen their fur coat. The woman described the soldier as being fair while the man said he had dark hair. I did not ask for any further description of the soldier and went back to the kitchen after seeing Lt McDuell. Shortly after Lt McConnell asked me to go to the front hall to act as interpreter. The two civilians, Cpl Robinson and several others were there. The man identified Cpl Robinson saying "He is the man", while looking around the room to make sure. The woman said she knew the soldier but did not say that he was the man who stole the fur coat. She was very excited.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Ninth Witness for the prosecution; A 20179 CSM PORTER W J having been duly sworn states:
1 Cdn Air Svy Coy R C E

At approximately 1230 hrs 28 Dec 44 I went across to the Corner Cafe opposite the NAAFI. Cpl Robinson was there and we had a glass of beer. Shortly after that Cpl Robinson left. I did not see Cpl Robinson again until approximately twenty minutes after one when I was at the Stadt School.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

No. P 22227 Sgt Robinson, R.E.
4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.)

By direction of the C.O. the evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

No. C70748 Tpr Lowery, F. H., 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.) (sworn) states: At Bn Area on 8 Oct 41 I went down to the car park and Sgt Robinson and driver were there. I left them there and paid no attention to them as they were known to me and took it for granted they had business there. I later returned to my post at the barrier and this truck pulled up with Sgt Robinson and driver. I questioned them and they replied that they were going for a little drive and would be right back.

Q. What was your duty on the night 8/9 Oct 41?
A. I was the vehicle park guard.

Q. At what time were you on duty?
A. From 2320 hrs 8 Oct 41 until 0140 hrs 9 Oct 41.

Q. What were your instructions with regard to unit vehicles leaving the area?
A. I was given no verbal instructions?

Q. Were you given written instructions?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recognize this Vehicle Return as the written instructions given you?
A. That is the one, sir.

Exhibit A

Vehicle Return is entered as Exhibit A

Q. Do you know the number of the truck in which Sgt Robinson was a driver?
A. No, I don't know the number but I know the truck was in charge of the regular driver, Tpr Kelly.

Q. Why did you not enter the name of the driver and his number and rank, and the vehicle number, on the Vehicle Return as required by your orders?
A. I thought the occupants were only going for a little drive and did not think it should be entered.

Q. When the truck approached the barrier, did you halt it?
A. Yes.

Q. What question did you put to the occupants?
A. I asked them where they were going?

Q. Did you ask for a work ticket?
A. No.

Q. What reply did Sgt Robinson make when you asked where they were going?
A. He said in effect that they were going for a little ride and would be right back. It was my own idea that this should not be entered in the vehicle return,

Q. What time did this occur?
A. About midnight.

Q. Did this vehicle return while you were on duty?
A. It returned in about twenty minutes as far as I could judge

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J.H. Lowery

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

A 3529 Tpr Kelly, J. H., 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.) (sworn) states: At Bn Area on night of 8 Oct 41 Sgt Robinson and I went to C Sqn area. We took my truck CZ4212274 along to drive. We returned in a few minutes.

Q. Did you have a properly signed work ticket?
A. No, sir.

Q. On whose authority did you take the truck?
A. On my own, sir.

Q. Approximately what time did you leave the Bn Area?
A. After midnight, I don't know exactly.

Q. How long were you away?
A. Less than half an hour.

Q. Where did you go?
A. To Westerham and back to Oxted and then back to the parking lot.

Q. Why didn't the barrier guard take your particulars?
A. I don't know. I didn't give them to him.

Q. Did you have any conversation with the sentry?
A. I just said I was going out.

Q. Did Sgt Robinson have any conversation with the guard?
A. No, sir.

Q. What was the reason for the trip.
A. No reason.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Pte J.H. Kelly

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

P21390 Sqn.S.M. Stephen, N. 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.) (sworn) states: At reveille 8 Oct 41 No. 11 Tp was duty Tp and on "Stand To", which means that the Tp as a whole is confined to Sqn area for 24 hours. Sgt Robinson was acting Troop Sgt in the absence of Sgt Craven. He was found to be absent from the Sqn area at approximately midnight 8 Oct 41.

Q. Have you any duty roster or written order to show that No. 11 Tp was "Stand To" on Oct 8/9?
A. Only that the Tps do their duty and Stand To in turn. I tell the orderly Cpl of various Tps the day before whether they are duty Tp or not. Each Tp knows it is Duty Tp every fourth day.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4 (E) reserves his defence.

Certified that Rs.P. 4 (C)(D)(E) and (F) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this 11th Day of October 1941, in the Field.

Defending Officer: Lieut D.R. MacD. Neish 4 Can Fuse Bn

Officer's under Instruction:

1. The order convening the court is read in the presence of the accused.

The accused is asked the following question:
"Do you object to be tried by the President or any Members of the Court whose names you have heard read over?

Answer: No.

3. The President, Members, Judge Advocate, Officers under Instruction, Shorthand Writer and Interpreter are duly sworn

4. (A) The accused answers to his name and number, and is duly arraigned on the charges: (1) A.A 40 (2) AA 40 (3) AA 15(1)
(B) The accused having pleaded guilty to all the Charge(s), R.P.36(B) is complied with.

5. ~~The accused is asked the question at the foot of page 2 of A.F.A. 3. and his answer is recorded beneath the question.~~

6. The Prosecutor makes (no) ~~(the Following)~~ opening address:

Explanation Page

Trial of No. P22227 Sgt Robinson, R.E.,
4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.)

Prosecutor - Lieut. J.B. Beveridge,
4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.)

Defending Officer - Lieut. D.R.McG. Neish,
4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.)

The Summary of Evidence is read.

The accused is asked whether he wishes to address the Court, or to call witnesses as to Character.

The accused states:

I realize sir, that I have made a slip and would like the chance to start over again.

Lieut. W.J. Salter, 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.) (sworn) makes the following statement in evidence of Character.

Sgt Robinson has been acting troop Sgt in my troop for two months and I have found that when given a job he has been very willing and efficient. I would like to have him back in my troop.

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation of sentence:-

There are three charges against Sgt Robinson. It all boils down to two charges. Firstly that he used a W. D. vehicle without authority. Secondly that he was absent from his sqn area during"stand to"

Now to look facts squarly in the face. With regards to the use of W. D. vehicle, it is definitly stated in the Summary of Evidence that the driver namely Tpr Kelly took the vehicle on his own authority, granted the accused was a passenger.

In regards to being absent from"stand to" it may also be found in the Summary of Evidence that the driver of this W. D. vehicle notified the Barrier Guard that he would be right back. The accused was back according to the Summary of Evidence within twenty minutes.

I ask the Court to take these facts into consideration in dealing with these charges to which the accused has pleaded guilty.

Now the facts of the case become known. The crime committed does not appear as serious as the charge sheet implies.

In conclusion I wish to remind the court that the accused has stated in his plea he wishes to soldier and that his troop leader wants him back as he states when acting as Character Witness. May the mere fact that his troop leader wants him back be enough to convince the Court to be lenient in their finding.

F 88053 Sgt. Turpin W.J. 4 Cdn. Firm. d/Bde. CWASP. RCEME having been duly sworn states:-

I am transport Sgt. in my unit and was 1/July 45 1/July 45 I was at a dance at Cafe Ter Weele, Hengelo, Holland. at approx 10.45 or 11.00 o'clock P.m. as a result of information obtained from staff Sgt. Pilgrim I informed the accused he was to take a break down and go to Bunde to recce a vehicle. The accused told me he was not ready and he refused my order but that if Cpl. Palmer gave the order he would go. I told him I was laying a charge against him if he refused the order. I looked around and saw L/Cpl. Bloom who was a break down driver. When I went to turn to walk over to L/Cpl. Bloom, the accused said "Wait" just a minute." The accused said I have 3 witnesses here to say I'm under the influence of liquor and before I could do anything he grabbed me by the throat with one hand and hit me with the other. Some one grabbed him and took him away. I recognize the accused. He is a M.T. driver on the break-down.

I received a black right eye and cut on the chest. I had not had anything drinking myself that night.

I am certain that the accused hit me once then in order to defend myself I did up my arm and pulled him in close to me

I had not had any trouble with the accused up to this time and bore no grudge towards him. He knew I was a Sgt.
X-examination -
There was quite a number at the dance.
I don't know if accused had been drinking.
He told me he had been drinking when he said he had witnesses to that effect.
The accused did carry out my order subsequently.
I did not check whether accused was on duty that night.
There was another break down. I was going to send the Pol. down but I didn't get there. The accused is not in my section but in the recovery section. I would consult the CO of recovery section if he were around.
After the War all transport was drawn from all sections and put under me.
When he told me he had been drinking I was going to send someone else.
I did not speak to the CO of duty section.
I gave the order and expected it to be carried out. If I was in the wrong I would be in the wrong.
I laid the charge against the accused.

Defence.

6457083 Sgt Tunnicliffe C. 4 Cdn Armd Bde WASP
R C E - in C - having been duly sworn states:-
On July 45 at Café Sur Wide - I entered the café at approx. 2315 hrs. - I went up to Sgt Turpin and told him about a wrecker being required.
Sgt Turpin turned to the accused told him to take a wrecker and proceed. The accused asked him to get the Col to authorize as he was only the co-driver. There were words which I did not hear after that. Next I heard Sgt Turpin tell the accused he was on the beg. At that time the accused was under the influence of liquor in my opinion.
I turned away then. The next I heard was Sgt Turpin "This is it. If you mean the beg."
The accused then had his hand out and was talking to Turpin but not in a manner to strike a blow. His hand was down.
Then I could hear him say he would go and take the wrecker and bring the jeeps in.
The next I knew - I heard a struggle and turned around - and Sgt Turpin and the accused were up against a counter. Things happened very fast then - the next was the accused leaving the hall with C S/M.
Boyce. The accused came outside and I said
I would go with him and bring in the wrecked jeeps. So we went and dressed wrecker up and brought the jeeps in.

I did not see the accused hit Sgt. Tungsin.
There was not a quarrel by Commodrain - it only lasted a few seconds - no one was concerned but those right by - and very few of those. I did not notice that Sgt Tungsin had anid any injuries until the next morning.
It is hard for me to say if such a blow could have been struck. To know what I saw I would say that no blows were struck. The accused was not in fist & hope of his driving the truck.
I don't know I have no knowledge of Sgt.
Tungsin touching the accused first with his hands. The truck-drivers vehicles were under Col Palmer that night. I don't believe accused truck-driver was in duty that night. Sgt. Tungsin made no attempt to ascertain which truck-drivers was on duty that night.

X-examination.

I was on duty Sgt. on the night in question.
I didn't know there was another truck-driver standing by at relieving sec.
I decided to see Sgt. Tungsin - only one I could think of at the time.
I didn't see Col Palmer in the dance hall when I first went in. I saw him about ½ hour afterwards.
I can't say I heard accused say I have 3 witnesses to prove I am under the influence of liquor.
When my attention was first attracted the accused and Sgt. Tungsin were in a clinch with their arms around each other.

and immediately some of the boys stepped in and that is all there was to it - they just parted. C S re Bys and the accused left the hall together. There was a clinch when I first saw them. I suppose a blow could have been struck before I turned round & don't see how. There wernt words enough for anyone to strike a blow. I cant be sure that no blows were struck - I am just judging it by man to man basis. It is possible that a blow could have been struck without me seeing it.

By the Court -

The accused had his hand out in such a way as though he were talking with his hand. The conversation was normal. Then I turned away. Then my attention was brought back by the scuffle. My attention was distracted for a period of say maybe 5 or 7 seconds.

I had not been drinking that night.

I did not see the accused offer any violence against Sgt Turpin.

Sgt Turpin told him in a normal way to get the jugs - he customarily makes gest ures with his hands when he is talking and did so on this occasion.

The next morning I saw Sgt Turpin he had a small mark on his cheek bone and was slightly dark about the eye.

(RP 835 complied with)

Def

B3853 CSM Bye B/. 4 Can Armd Bde 1644 RCE on E having been duly sworn states:-
I recognize the accused. I have known him since June 1942. I have always found him to be a good soldier. He does his work well. I have never known him to be guilty of anything but a little slack. He has carried out orders well in the unit. As far as I am concerned he has always been willing and done his job.

By the Court -
I was dancing on the evening in question. I first saw the accused when a couple of men had hold of him. I then took him outside. I would say accused had been drinking. I did not see Sgt. Turgeon until about ½ hr. later. Sgt. Turgeon then had a mark on his face. I don't know whether Sgt. Turgeon had mark on his face or not before the disturbance.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Defending Offrs Closing Address.

In respect to the first charge the prosecution has only produced one witness, the complainant, who said the accused struck him. His evidence is unsubstantiated by no other witness.

Sgt. Flynn for the defence gave evidence that he was standing close by and saw no blow struck. There was a scuffle which lasted a short while a matter of half a minute. He also stated that the accused carried out Sgt Keepins order although he the accused was not on duty and had been drinking. I submit that accused was forced to obey against his better judgment the order to drive a vehicle, against his better judgment because accused felt incapable of handling a vehicle.

The complainant apparently received some blow on his face. But who gave him the blow is not known. The accused may have given him the blow, but so could have anyone else. There is no evidence as to who struck the blow or when the blow was struck there.

In respect to the second charge "engaging in affrays, against the evidence is very vague and again there is only the evidence of the complainant for the prosecution. Sgt Flynn for the defence said there was a small scuffle, but there is no evidence as to who started the scuffle. The scuffle only lasted half a minute. There was no fracas. That is evident from the facts of witnesses for the prosecution. There were all kinds of people at the dance yet the prosecution can only produce one witness. The dance was in no way interrupted.

It is my submission that the accused is guilty of neither charge and it would be doing the accused a great injustice to find him guilty of either charge.

Closing address by prosecution:-

Sgt. Turpin stated in his evidence that Cfn. Robinson had definitely struck him with his fist. He did not touch Cfn Robinson except afterwards to hold him and prevent him from hitting him aga[illegible] Sgt. Turpin had not been drinking. Cfn. Robinson, by A/Sgt. Flynn's evidence had been drinking. Sgt. Turpin had no grudge against the accused, before the incident.

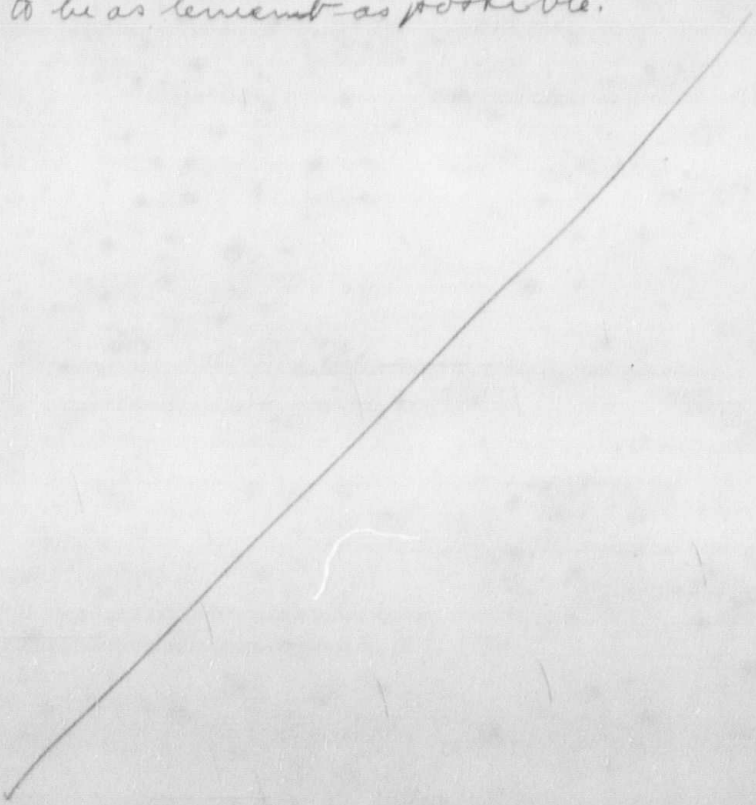
J. A. Summings up.



1. Onus on prosecution throughout.
2. Elements of reasonable doubt explained with examples.
3. Charges are in the alternative - if a finding of guilty on one - the other must be dismissed.
4. First Charge:-
   In order to bring in a finding of guilty the Court must have proved that:-
   (a) There was a disturbance
   (b) That a superior was attacked
   (c) That the person attacking was an inferior in rank.
   (d) That the inferior did not strike the superior in self-defence.
   (e) That the inferior had knowledge that the person he attacked was his superior. In this case there is evidence by same duration by service of both parties in the same unit.
5. Second Charge:-
   Before the Court can make a finding of guilty it must be shown that there was a disturbance - that such disturbance was both to the prejudice of good order and military discipline - that the accused was to some extent responsible for the same.
6. Alternative - as an excuse - p. 106 Manual. Read on this point.
7. Judicial notice - R.P. 74 read.

Plea in mitigation.

There are no charges re W.T. & B against accused for violence or insubordination. There are only three endorsements on conduct sheet all of which are for AWL and they are for short periods only.

I submit that the accused is of good character. This is supported by the evidence of C.S.M. Bye.

Thereafter I should like the Court to be as lenient as possible.

STRIKING HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER BEING IN THE EXECUTION OF HIS OFFICE A.A. Sec 8 (1).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

F-88053 Sjt Turpin H J 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME having been duly sworn states:

I am transport Sjt of 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME. On the night of 1 Jul 45 at about 2330 hrs I was at a unit dance being held at the Cafe Ter Welle, Hengelo, Holland. I told Cfn Robinson to take a Breakdown lorry and go to Bde HQ to pick up a vehicle which had been in an accident. He refused to go telling me that he was off duty and did not have to take orders. He referred me to Cpl Palmer, and said that if Cpl Palmer told him to go he would go. I told him I was giving him an order and that if he refused to obey I was laying a charge against him, of disobeying an order. I happened to look over the dance hall and saw L/Cpl Dean TC and went to turn to go over to see him to send him out on the job when Cfn Robinson said "Just a minute, I have three witnesses to prove that I was drinking intoxicating liquor" He grabbed me by the collar and hit me with his other fist. somebody got hold of him and of me and they took him away.

Q. Do you recognize the accused here as the Cfn Robinson you referred to?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. What is his employment in the unit?
A. He is co-driver of a breakdown lorry.
Q. What injuries did you sustain?
A. A black right eye and a cut on the right cheek bone.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Did I tell you "I am under the influence of liquor and do not feel capable of driving a vehicle?
A. You might have done. I don't remember the exact words.
Q. When I told you I was under the influence of liquor and did not feel capable of driving the vehicle, did you say " I don't care if you're drunk or sober, I gave you an order and intend for you to carry it out."?
A. I do not remember saying that. I intended him to get a driver if he could not drive the vehicle himself. S/Sjt Flynn FC and Robinson did go out on the job. I do not know who was driving.

I am a soldier on strength of 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME On the night of 1 Jul 45 I was working at a unit dance held at the Cafe Ter Welle. At about 2300 hrs Sjt Turpin Cfn Robinson appeared to be arguing and the next I saw of them they were in a tangle and I tried to separate them.

Q. Did you overhear any of the conversation between the two?
A. I did not overhear enough to know what it was about except that it concerned taking out a vehicle. I heard Cfn Robinson say either that he was not going to take it out, or that he was in no fit condition to take it out.
Q. What did you mean, saying "They were in a tangle" ? Who hit whom?
A. I don't know. I did not see any blows struck.

I am a soldier on strength 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME On the night of 1 Jul 45 I was at a unit dance held at the Cafe Ter Welle Hengelo. At about 2315 or 2320 hrs I saw Sjt Turpin come to the accused Cfn Robinson and order him to take out a breakdown lorry. Cfn Robinson told him he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and didn't figure he was in fit condition to handle a breakdown. Cfn Robinson told Turpin to see Cpl Palmer and that there was always a night crew on the breakdown. Sjt Turpin said he was Transport Sjt and he was giving the orders. I did not see Cfn Robinson hit Sjt Turpin as there were people in front of me, and Sjt Turpin and Cfn Robinson moved away into a corner.

Q. Did you actually hear all the starements which you have attributed to Sjt Turpin and Cfn Robinson?
A. Yes Sir, I did
Q. Are there any other witnesses that you know of who saw the alleged offence take place.

A. An X-Ray would only reveal any broken bone, and there are no broken bones in his hands.

FOURTH WITNESS

Q. Could a man under the influence of liquor hit Sjt Turpin hard enough to cause the injuries he sustained?
A. It depends entirely how much under the influence of liquor the man was.

The accused calls the following witnesses in his defence

FIRST WITNESS

B84604 Pte Fountain M T having been duly sworn states:

I am a soldier on strength 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME. On the night of 1 Jul 45 I was at a unit dance held at the Cafe Ter Welle, Hengelo. I don't know the exact time but after the refreshments had been served at the dance, Gaudette, Robinson and I were walking off the floor. When we came off Sjt Turpin came up to us and he told Robinson the accused to take a breakdown lorry to Bde HQ. Robinson told him then that he was in no state to drive as he had been drinking, also that there was a night crew on and to go see Cpl Palm[illegible] besides that he didn't know where Bde HQ was. Turpin told him "I don't give a God-Damn what you say, I am MT Sjt and I' giving you a direct order to take it. I am not running all over the lot looking for someone else. You will on a charge in the morning for disobeying an order" or words to that effect. The next thing I know there was scuffling in the corner. Sjt Turpin had Robinson around the neck and Robinson was lying on the floor. I pulled Sjt Turpin away an the other boys grabbed Robinson.

Q. Did you see Cfn Robinson Strike Sjt Turpin?
A. No sir.
Q. Did you see Cfn Robinson touch Sjt Turpin at all?
A. No sir, I did not.
Q. Could Robinson have struck Sjt Turpin without your knowing it?
A. He might have when they were falling on the floor.
Q. Who was doing the scuffling then?
A. Sjt Turpin and Robinson.
Q. How could they habe been doing that without Robinson touching Sjt Turpin?
A. I suppose he must have been touching him. The way you asked the question I thought you meant did Robinson push Sjt Turpin.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED.

Q. You say Sjt Turpin had me around the neck and that I was underneath on the floor; did you think I could hit Sjt Turpin where I was? Is that right?
A. I said probably his arms could have hit him as he was falling.
Q. Was I really intoxicated while all this was going on?
A. I think the accused was. He had had too much to be walking around on his own. He was in no state to be driving in my opinion.
Q. Was I causing any other disturbances in the dance before this occured.
A. No.

SECOND WITNESS. G45083 S/Sjt FLYNN F C having been duly sworn states:

I am an NCO on strength 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME. On the night of 1 Jul 45 I was at a unit dance at the Cafe Ter Welle, Bengelo. At about 2315 hrs I went into the dance hall and saw Sjt Turpin and asked him for a wrecker and driver. Sjt Turpin went to the accused Cfn Robinson and told Robinson. "Take your wrecker and go to Bde HQ to pick up a jeep" Robinson told him "Why not get the Cpl of the vehicle. I'M only a co-driver myself." Robinson at that time was under the influence of liquor in my opinion and he didn't want to take the wrecker out. Sjt Turpin gave him an order that he had to take the wrecker. I walked away. There was more conversation which I did not hear. When I came back I heard Sjt Turpin say to Robinson "OK, then, you are on the peg" Robinson then said "OK, I'll get the wrecker and take it out". There was more conversation between Sjt Turpin and Robinson I'm not sure what was said but I did hear Sjt Turpin say again "it's OK, anyway you are on the peg". There was a small scuffle and the next I saw Robinson and Turpin were both against the counter. I did not see anyone strike a blow. Robinson came out of the hall with CSM Bye. Outside I told Robinson I would go with him. We went and picked up the wrecker and brought the wrecked jeep in.

Q. Who drove the wrecker?
A. Cfn Robinson did.
Q. Can you give more details of the scuffle?
A. Robinson and Sjt Turpin were standing close together. Robinson reached out his hand not to strike a blow, his fist was not closed. They got into a clinch and both tumbled against the counter. [illegible]
Q. How do you know Robinson did not intend to strike a blow?
A. By the manner in which he reached out with his hand.
Q. Who touched whom first?
A. I don't know.
Q. Did you see the injuries Sjt Turpin sustained?
A. Not until this morning, sir.

Cross-examined by the accused.

C.P.C. having been duly sworn states.
I am a CO i/c regimental police at 3 Cdn Travel Camp. In my opinion the guard room at this camp was not suitable to hold prisoners. I went to Wijcken and arranged to have four prisoners secured in the jail. I arranged the guards from the Provost personnel attached to 3 Cdn Travel Camp. Two guards were posted on eight hour shifts at Wijcken jail. I drew up special orders, gave them to the R.S.M. ~~who~~ ~~posted them~~
I recognize the accused. I recognize exhibit C as being the orders I drew up.

Question by defence
I do not detail guards. Lieut Slavin laid down eight hour shifts. I examined and eight hour shift satisfactory.
I signed the orders (exhibit C). These are special orders for Wijcken jail

Question by Court.
I was not asked or detailed to write the orders (exhibit C). I inspected Wijcken jail before writing the orders. The prisoners were not escorted by the two guards.

He then locked ~~along~~ to the other cell door and released the two other prisoners. I heard Pte Wong ordering Capt Robinson to throw his pistol on the floor. The four prisoners ordered Capt Robinson and myself to disrobe. We removed all our clothes except our underwear. The prisoners took our uniforms and boots. They bound us with strips of blanket and gagged me with a strip of towel. They locked us in two seperate cells. About ½ hr later I freed myself from the bonds and called, ~~I~~ shouted, and tried to kick open the door. We were finally released by the relieving guard at approx 0700 hrs 17 Feb 46. I have read the orders exhibit C. I did not know the type of prisoners. Both guards are on duty for eight hours. Closing address (defence) 6 of 7

In the Case of {L-84610 PERRINS & {D-118639 ROBINSON.

It is the submission of the defence that the charge of "allowing" prisoners to escape "without reasonable excuse" is NOT substantiated by the ~~insufficient reasons~~ evidence adduced by the Crown and by the Defence. There were reasons and these reasons were decidely sufficient as shown by the evidence adduced.

The Court heard witnesses state that

a) there were four men to be guarded.
b) these four men were in two cells only
c) only two men were to guard these four men from 2300 hrs on the until 0700 hrs the next day.

I am respectfully asking the Court "Is NOT this what we call to look for trouble?"

Regarding orders - I am referring to exhibit "E" ~~appx H~~. It has been established before this court they are simply extracts from NORMAL guard room or detention barracks orders. Some witnesses were aware of them some were NOT. There was NO special provisions for people of the outlaw type like that particular groups of four.

witness states that above orders were posted "in view." No evidence has shown that had they had been read to the new guard. In fact Pte (A/Sgt) Robinson states that he had no knowledge whatsoever of ~~the special~~ orders - let alone any additional precautions covering the case.

Opening the door of a cell to give the inmate water is nothing unusual although in the occurance it proved fatal owing to the character of the said inmate - namely: Pte Wong.

Pte. Perrins reflexes on being grabbed by the arm were NOT, apparently, up to level. this, gentlemen ought to be blamed on the lack of realistic training before Pte Perrins was transfered to the Provost Corps. You have heard him state so under oath.

The same applies, I submit, in the case of Pvt. Robinson.

He struggled with his holster ... Well? We must agree that it was an unusual situation. And it is all very likely that training had something to do with it - or should I say "lack of training."

Above all, gentlemen, we must remember that all this has happened in such a short time -

Considering all the circumstances and, I will emphasize the fact that the guard was NOT adequately organized, I maintain, on behalf of the defendants, that the substance of the charge rests on a number of circumstances which leaves no room for any willful nor neglectfull participation on the part of the accused Robinson and Perrins.

I am, therefore, asking the Court to render a verdict of NOT guilty in both cases.

J.C. Hardy Capt
Defending Officer

~~The defense wishes to bring your attention to the fact that both soldiers had had services of good character only to date.~~

I am K-70818 Pte. DEROCHE, E.I., at present on strength of 3 Cdn Transit Camp. On the night of 17 of February 1946 I was held in WIJCHEN Jail as a prisoner Pte. PERRINS AND L/Cpl. ROBINSON came on shift at approximately 2300 hrs.

After this I went to sleep, having gone to sleep at approximately 2330 hrs. At about 0230 hrs I was awakened by Pte WONG who asked me if I wanted to go. He had in some manner overcome the guards. I put my clothes on and left in company with D-62996 Pte. MONDOUX, L., B-17791 Pte. RANGER, F., K-58117 Pte. WONG, F.W., the guards were then locked in the cells.

There was no one else involved in the escape except ourselves the four prisoners, there was no outside help. I do not know exactly how the other two prisoners overcome the guards. Previous to the escape we had no weapons of any kind.

The accused decline to cross-examine the witness.

The accused were cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath ? you are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.

The accused decline to make a statement and reserve their defence.

Certified that all the provisions of R.P. 4 (c)(d)(e) (f) and (g) have been complied with. Taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this day of March 1946, in the Field.

PLEA OF MITIGATION in the case of D77695 Tpr Robinson W

The accused has been in the Army four years three months. He has been overseas for 3 years and on the continent since 13 Sep 44 when he came over with the RCASC as a driver. He was with them till their particular job was finished and being armoured he came to 34 Coy C.B.R.C. It was from here that he went AWL

In Dec 1944 he found out that the girl that he had been going with in England was pregnant and he immediately went to the Padre to see if he could get compassionate leave to England to get married. His leave and marriage application were sent in. He assumed that everything was OK. for his leave and he assigned money to his fiance. While waiting for his leave he was transferred to 10 Bn C.B.R.C. as a driver and as a result of this he lost contact with the padre at 9 Bn and he heard no more about his leave. He inquired from the padre at 10 bn and got worried when no information was forthcoming and he decided to take it into his own hands to get to England and straighten matters out, so he went AWL. He tried all the ways he had heard of to get to England but none of them were successful. He was interviewed by an officer of the 7th Recce, as he had hopes if he got to a Regiment that possibly he could get leave there. This was all to no avail. So he came back and gave himself up. He realizes now how wrong he was in doing what he did and his intentions of getting married are still the same. He would like to give his child a name if possible. The baby is due in May. He has seen the padre in the last few days. The accused hopes that the court will take all these circumstances into consideration in rendering their verdict.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED:-

D-77695 Cfn. ROBINSON W. of 31 Coy, 9 Bn. 3 C.B.R.G. having been duly sworn states:-

I was stationed at St.Peter's Barracks in Ghent. I had applied for compassionate leave but could get no satisfaction as to when I was getting it. On 1 Jan. 45 I was on excused duty so I had my bed made down because I was lying on it most of the day. I had a touch of dysentry and after I returned from the toilet I found my kit had been removed including my blankets. I found out that some Sgt. whose name I do not know, had ordered the removal of my entire kit, beliving me to be A.W.L. I tried to find the Sgt. but failed to do so. Another Sgt told me that afternoon that he had gone on draft. I was angry and I left the camp. I have in my possession the following articles of equipment: 1 Battle Dress, First Field dressing, discs identity. I have two pair of boots in my kit but I do not know where my kit is being held now. The great coat was taken from me at St Peter's Barracks to supply an out-going draft.

Plea of Mitigation
in the case of W-77695 Tpr. Robinson W.

The Accused has been in the Army four years three months. He has been overseas for 3 years and on the continent since 13 Sept 44 when he came over with the R.C.A.S.C. as a driver. He was with them till their particular job was finished and being Armoured became to 3rd Coy. C.B.R.R; it was from here that he went A.W.L.

In Dec. 1944 he found out that the girl that he had been going with in England was pregnant and he immediately went to the Padre to see if he could get compassionate leave to England to get married. His leave and marriage application were sent in and he assumed that everything was O.K. for his leave and he assigned money to his fiancee. While waiting for his leave he was transferred to 10 Bn C.B.R.R. as a driver and as a result of this he last contact with the Padre at 9 Bn. and he heard no more about his leave. He inquired from the Padre at 10 Bn and got worried when no information was forthcoming and he decided to take it into his own hands to get to England and straighten matters out 30 he went A.W.L. He tried all the ways he had heard of to get to England but none of them were successful. He was interviewed by an Officer of the 7th Recce, as he had hopes if he got to a regiment that possibly he could get leave there, this was all to no avail. So he came back and gave himself up. He realizes now how wrong he was in doing what he did and his intentions of getting married are still the same. He would like to give his child a name if possible. The baby is due in MAY. He has seen the padre in the last few days. The Accused hopes that the Court will take all these circumstances into consideration in rendering their verdict.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED:-

D-77695 Cfn. ROBINSON W. of 31 Coy, 9 Bn. 3 C.B.R.G. having been duly sworn states:-

I was stationed at St.Peter's Barracks in Ghent. I had applied for compassionate leave but could get no satisfaction as to when I was getting it. On 1 Jan. 45 I was on excused duty so I had my bed made down because I was lying on it most of the day. I had a touch of dysentry and after I returned from the toilet I found my kit had been removed including my blankets. I found out that some Sgt. whose name I do not know, had ordered the removal of my entire kit, beliving me to be A.W.L. I tried to find the Sgt. but failed to do so. Another Sgt told me that afternoon that he had gone on draft. I was angry and I left the camp. I have in my possession the following articles of equipment: 1 Battle Dress, First Field dressing, discs identity. I have two pair of boots in my kit but I do not know where my kit is being held now. The great coat was taken from me at St.Peter's Barracks to supply an out-going draft.

Plea of Mitigation of K 1875 Pte Robinson WD.

Sir,

The accused has pleaded guilty and by so doing has not sought to escape punishment by showing justification for absence without leave.

One thing that the defense requests is that the court bear in mind the youth of Pte. Robinson. Youth sometimes signifies impulsiveness and the defense believes that this same impulsiveness may be found in the character of Pte Robinson. It does further believe that this was the predominating factor in the absence of Pte Robinson when he became tired of the monotony of steady training.

The accused now realizes seriousness of absence without leave and the punishment which may follow it. He does not expect to escape punishment but in the interests of Pte Robinson, the defense would request that the court bear in mind that many a good soldier has become soured on the Army by a long period of confinement, where he might have become a first class soldier by intelligent disciplining. The accused Pte Robinson throws himself on the mercy of the Court.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

I, K-1275 Pte Robinson, W. D. desire to have an officer assigned to defend me at my [redacted] Court Martial.

Statement By The Accused

I met a girl in February 1943 in a pub in Manchester. I didn't find out until after the second time I'd met her that she was married and had two children.

In the meantime, I had been quite friendly with this girl and her husband found out through friends of his of our friendship.

Her husband went home on leave in February 1944 and told his wife that he was suing for a divorce. At that ime, regarding the divorce, I didn't really think it would amount to very much and that it would clear itself up in time. Unfortunately, this girl carried on writing to me.

I had forgotten about the divorce proceedings until I received notice from the solicitor whom her husband had seen to appear for him for evidence regarding the divorce. I applied for leave through Col. Pearson, who was at No. 2 C.A.C.R.U., but leaves were cancelled and I could not get away. I was promised that I would get leave at the first opportunity. I was granted leave on 5 September 1944 and decided during this leave to clear up the divorce difficulties with this girl and her husband, as in the meantime, I had met a very nice girl to whom I have become engaged to.

I definitely don't want my fiancée to hear about this past business and I thought by going directly to this girl, the matter could be straightened out. When I arrived there, I saw the solicitor and he was doing his best to get in touch with her husband through telegrams and letters.

Her husband is a sailor and as far as we knew, he was back with his ship, but in any case, we never heard from him.

Unfortunately, I didn't think of applying for an extention as I thought the solicitor would eventually reach her husband and we could settle it once and for all.

When my leave expired I knew that by staying away, I would be A.W.L. and would be punished for it, but everything was so mixed up and my mind was just set on seeing the husband and having it out with him. Unfortunately we didn't get in touch with her husband and we weren't making any headway at all, so I decided that the best thing for me to do would be to return to the Unit and report to the Guardroom, which I did.

STATEMENT OF [illegible]

Sir, I would like to speak in my own ~~defense to them~~ in order to point out that my action in going A.W.O.L. was the result of extreme personal difficulties and that I had, what seemed to me, sufficient reason for not trying to find a solution to my problem by regular channels.

I enlisted in July 1942 in Saskatchewan, and was accepted although, due to faulty eyesight, was E.I category. I did not realize that my low category would condemn me to those classes of work in the army which would, many time, be distasteful and ~~most times~~ which definitely seemed to bar me from the type of work I had hoped to obtain, that is, driving.

In July 1943 I married in Sask. There are no children. Almost a year later, in March 1944, I made earnest attempts either to get overseas or to get my discharge. As a result my category was raised to B3 and I was placed on draft.

In England I was eventually placed on the ~~the~~ WC of 1 Can. Gen. Hosp. but still barred from driving. In June 1944 I took part in the medical evacuation from Normandy, for a period of 2 days before D Day until about 2 weeks after. Then B was returned to 15th C.G.H. (Colchester)

In June 1943 I was transferred to 9 Con Sen Hosp. During this time I was anxious to get to the continent instead of continuing my previous existence at a C.G.H. but did not succeed in doing so. After VE day I volunteered for the Far East and was accepted. Finally this attempt failed after VJ Day.

I submit that my whole career in the army has been a struggle against the barriers put up by my category. It has developed in me a feeling of frustration and a lack of confidence in turning to Army authorities for assistance in a great personal problem that arose later.

While in England I met and kept company with the widow of an English soldier, living at Horsham. As a result of this association while at 9 C.G.H. I was told by her that she was going to have a child by me. The shock of this news threw me into a panic and to increase my difficulty I was moved to No. 1 Con Depot and reported shortly to be placed on draft for Canada. Knowing the serious situation that had been created for the widow, particularly from the eventual loss of her pension, I could not stand further inaction. I felt that I had to take urgent steps to try to make some provision for her before I left England. In the bewilderment of the moment and feeling that the army could do nothing to help me in this matter, I decided to return to Horsham to make what arrangements I could. Unfortunately, the question is no nearer settlement than at the start. My wife will not divorce me and therefore would not give this for me to arrange matters with the widow, I returned to 1 Con Depot Kept and gave myself into custody.

I realize that my actions in going A.W.O.L. was the result of hasty and bad judgment on my part, and I am willing to pay the price involved. In conclusion, I submit that part of my punishment lies in the remorse and worry which this unsolved problem still presents to me, and which will be my first concern upon my release.

First witness for prosecution. D-124731 Cpl Poulin, P.E.

Q1 - Can you identify the accused person?
A1 - Yes sir; he is Pte. Robitaille, Albert.
Q2 - Can you tell the court what you knew in the case of Pte Robitaille.
A2 - On the night of 17 Feb 1944, Pte Robitaille was detailed to go on guard at 2400 hrs. At 2330 hrs I went and woke him up, telling him to get ready to go on guard. But he refused to do so saying he was sick. I told Sgt Eglington about it, who came and ordered Pte. Robitaille to go on guard duty. But Pte. Robitaille kept refusing, still saying he was sick. On the morning of the 18th I accompanied Pte. Robitaille to the Stretcher Bearers of our Coy, having received orders to do so from Lieut Dusseault. I haven't seen him since.
Q3 - Where was Pte. Robitaille supposed to go from the Stretcher Bearer's Post?
A3 - To the R.A.P., sir.

Answering that he wouldn't go, I told him that he would have to report to the R.A.P. in the morning, which he started off for.
Q3 - What else did you tell him when you told him to go on guard duty?
A3 - That we were short of men, and that he had to go just the same.

I was N.C.O., i/c night Regimental Police for 1 Bn, 1 CBRD during the shift 0001 hrs 31 May 44 to 0800 hrs 31 May 44. At 0030 hrs, I checked the two cells in 1 Bn guardroom and the prisoners were all quiet. At about 0430 hrs 31 May 44, Sgt Hooper, Prov. Sgt came in to the guard-room and told me that the bars were broken in the window of one of the cells. I, immediately checked the cells and saw two broken bars in the window of one cell. I counted the prisoners and saw that there were two missing, G.53615 Pte Landry W.R. and E.5597 Pte Robitaille A. When Sgt Hooper returned from outside a few minutes later I reported to him that the two men were Ptes Landry and Robitaille. I was in the guard-room, at all times, from the time I took over my tour of duty till 0800 hrs and I did not hear any disturbance in the cells or any noise until 0300 hrs. We had nine absentees to proceed on draft to Field Units at 0500 hrs 31 May 44. I woke up these men at 0300 hrs, had them wash and dress up, eat their breakfast, and get ready to leave. The bars were probably broken while these men were doing this.

JOINT TRIAL

D-2 Prosecutor's Opening Remarks

Reference the actual articles alleged to have been stolen the facts are not in dispute re these. (1) There were 22 Army issue blankets in 2 bundles (2) Each bundle was tied up.

The Defending Officer does not dispute the above.

D-2. 1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Lieut C H Power, C i/c Ops Hotel, 64 Army Leave Centre, [illegible], Belgium, having been duly sworn states:-

I am now A/Capt C.H. Power. I was it i/c Ops Hotel in Nov 44. At approx 1900 hrs on 24 Nov 44 I was called for at my quarters at Ops HQ HOTEL and summoned to Prosit ROOM which is the Ops hotel. There I had 3 men presented to me and they were identified by Staff Sgt Hiller as Pte BOUTAILLE and BLANCHETTE. Sgt Hiller presented them to me. He accused them of participating in the theft of 2 bundles of blankets. They were present. I saw the bundles. They were in my Ord Rm at the time. I tried to interrogate them but got no satisfaction as one spoke no English and the other spoke very poor English. They were not in possession of my pass so I placed them in protective custody.

Judge Advocate rules that because the accused speak no English that any statements made in their presence is not admissable.

Cross examination:

It would be impossible to say how many soldiers were going in and out of the Hotel between 1700 and 1900 hrs that date. I will say that no one except my Staff and/or guests would be going in or out. It is not impossible for a person without a pass to get into the Centre. Between 5 and 7 P.M. in front of the Centre there may be 2 or 12 going to and fro. It is not a busy thoroughfare. I would say it got dark about 5 p.m. There has always been a blackout but has not been very rigid. It is never as thoroughly checked on as it is in England.

By the Court I had a look at the bundles. I recognize them as being 22 blankets.

pp 23(b) complied with.

The accused declines to have the evidence read back in French.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION M-66663 WEM Le Croix, S.E.A., No.1 Cdn Army Leave Centre having been duly sworn states:

I recall 24 Nov 44 at approx 1900 hrs. I was walking down the street and passing near the end of the Leave Centre Bldg. I noticed two men standing near the Bldg. One was sent out to the edge of the sidewalk and looked up toward the windows. He was wearing a gas cape.

Appx 2 to

I walked past, stopped and looked back. The man had proceeded out to the kerb looked towards and proceeded back in towards the man against the bldg. I walked on further and looked back again. He went to the edge of the sidewalk again. At that time Cpl WHITE and Gnr DODD were coming down the street towards me. I stopped them and told them to keep an eye on the 2 men as they were acting suspicious. I proceeded on my way. I cannot identify these two men. It was dark.

I produce Ex "J" which is a reasonable sketch of the Can Army Leave Centre.

Witness points out bldgs on sketch and show s the court his movements as per his evidence, also indicates movements of the soldier in the gas cape. "A" on sketch is position of soldiers. "BB" is witness' position when he first spotted the soldiers. "CC" is position where witness turned around. "DD" is position where witness turned around 2nd time.

Cross examination:

I was about 10 feet from them when I saw the man for the 1st time. It was raining and dark and I cannot identify them. It was approx 1800 hrs. There was no moon. Not raining very heavy. I live at the Centre and was at that time. Approx 450 to 500 were in the Centre at that time. There were not many people coming in and out. The street was pretty well deserted. There were only 2 civilians near the Centre when I saw the 2 soldiers. The traffic is not usually heavy on that street that time of night. Very few people on the street.

By the J.A. The civilians were men, part of my staff. They were proceeding up the street to the entrance in the opposite direction from me. They spoke to me and that's all.

By the Court.

It was possible to see a man's form about 10 yds away. Lights from the street cars help. I saw the reflection of lights from a street car on the gas cape. When there is no street car you'd have to be 2 ft from the man to see him. There is a street car terminal at the corner.

By the J.A. I could see by mid afstreet car lights the man walking to the edge of the kerb. I was 20 or 25 feet from him when I saw him the 2nd time.

SP 83(b) complied with

The accused decline to have the evidence read back in French.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

C-67360 CPL WHITE, R.M., attd Can Army Leave Centre, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1800 hrs 28 Nov 44, Gnr DODD and myself left the Leave Centre. We met MR LA CROIX down past the Leave Centre. I recognize Ex "A". We met MR LA CROIX at point "D" on the sketch. As a result of what he told us we stayed there and then Gnr DODD went down the street. We were watching 2 soldiers standing along side the Leave Centre.

(Witness points to point "B" on Ex "A" as place where soldiers were standing) Gnr DODD went toward Leave Cent e gate. In the meantime while he was away from me, one soldier crossed the street to the door of the bldg opp the Leave Centre. He was dressed in battle dress. The one that stood beside the Leave Centre was wearing a gas cape. Gnr DODD rejoined me. The man across the street appeared to give signals with his arms. He was standing in the doorway of the bldg. across the street.

(Witness marks this point as "C" on Ex "A") In a few minutes a large bundle was thrown from the upstairs window of the Leave Centre. The soldier at point "B" came across the street, picked up the bundle and started across the street with it. I told Gnr DODD to go after him. Then as he got across the street another bundle was thrown out of the window. I got a look at the last bundle that was thrown out. I didn't know what was in it. I came up to where the 2nd bundle landed and the soldier in the gas cape was standing beside it. The bundle was wrap ed in a blanket. Cpl DODD was across the street with the otherman. I didn't get a good look at the man with the gas cape. Sgt MONROE and Pte DOLBY came along then. I crossed the street. Was speaking to them. I crossed to take the man in charge that Gnr DODD had. I took him in charge and crossed the street with him and rejoined the others. I did not get a good look at him. I wouldn't be able to recognize them again. We all went into the Leave Centre Orderly Room. As soon as we got in there the driver and I left. Pte DOLBY and Sgt MONROE remained. The driver and I went to get Lt (now A/Capt) PYNN. We got him but I didn't go into the Orderly Room. I didn't see the bundles in the Orderly Room. They were brought in after we had gone in.

Cross examination:

I first saw BSM LA CROIX when I went out. Several people passed after that. Perhaps 5 or 6. I can't say if they were soldiers. It is long ago. I left the centre with Gnr DODD. I was employed there since JULY. I can't say how many people were there at that time. Guests dance or go down town at night from the Centre. The largest percentage go downtown, they go down town between 1800 & 2000 hrs. I did not notice many go down town that night. Very few passed us. It was fairly clear that night. I don't think there was any rain. It was not real dark. It got dark about 1730 or 1745 hrs. I am not sure about that. We saw the soldiers for the 1st time at "A" and BSM LA CROIX at Point "B" on Ex "A" We saw BSM LA CROIX first. We walked past the 2 men but took no notice of them. It was not real dark. BSM LA CROIX was the 1st one we spoke to. We could see plainly - about 60 yards. We could see from pt "B" to Pt "A" on Ex "A". The front of the Leave Centre is not a plain wall all along. There is a bit jutsout(marked by witness on Ex "A" in pencil - points "B" and "C".) We were approx 20 feet when BSM told us to keep an eye on the men. I cannot identify the 2 men because I did not see them real close and never took any particular notice. Sgt MONROE told me to get a man who was with Pte DODD. I obeyed that order. I was standing beside the Leave Centre with the other soldier when he told me. I was close to him. That is right. I cannot identify him now because I didn't look at him then. It is not because it was dark. I went to Pte DODD and the other man. I came back with Gnr DODD and the other man. I was walking beside him, about 2 ft away. I cannot identify this man for the same reason. I was in front of the Centre when Sgt MONROE gave me the order. I went across to Gnr DODD and the soldier in front of the Museum. I am positive there was nothing in the street in front of the Museum. I don't know if there were 2 trucks parked in the street not far from the Museum. The 1st bundle was dropped from the window approx 15 minutes after the BSM told us to watch the men. I stood in the same place for those 15 minutes. I noticed no lights coming from trains at the corner. I saw no trans passing.

By J.A. I could see the soldier all the time when he picked up the bundle and walked across the street. When the 2nd bundle was thrown out the other soldier walked up, did not touch it but stood beside it until I came up. It was the same soldier I had been watching. I told Gnr DODD to go after the 1st soldier as soon as he picked up the bundle and started across the street. The soldier with the gas cape was on the Leave Centre side of the street.

By the Court:

Cpl DODD and I left the Centre from the Front Gate. As soon as RSM pointed these soldiers out they were under our continual observation. As far as the one on my side of the street is concerned he was under my observation until taken to the Orderly Room. He went in ahead of me. I didn't get a look at him.
(Pros refers to Summary of Evidence - Witness points out that evidence in Supplementary Summary re man wearing gas cape crossing the street is not correct.)

Pp 93(b) complied with.

The accused declines to have the evidence read back in French.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

E-/5936 Cpl DODD, D.J., No 1 Can Army Leave Centre having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1900 hrs 28 Nov I, Cpl FITCH and I were changed when we left the Leave Centre by RSM LA CROIX, as a result of this meeting we met shed 2 men who were acting suspiciously in front of the Leave Centre.

(Witness examines Ex "A" and points to point "mm")

They were watching the Hotel and standing at point mm. I was standing at point "DD" on Ex "A" and watching them. I went to the Leave Centre main entrance - the front entrance. I met Sgt MONROE at the gate. As a result of my conversation I watched a man in front of the Museum entrance across the street from the Hotel. We must have been one of the two we originally watched because when I returned to Cpl FITCH there was only one in front of the bldg. Then a bundle was thrown from a window in the Centre and the man I was watching came over from the Museum, picked up the bundle and went back to the Museum side of the street with the bundle. I followed. The man placed the bundle behind some bushes beside the Museum wall. I stood at the fence in front of the Museum wall. The man moved down the street a few yards. I stayed at the bundle. The outside wrapper of the bundle was a blanket. I paid no attention to the other man. I never noted the window. Sgt MONROE and Cpl FITCH came over a few minutes later and Cpl FITCH took the man in custody on Sgt MONROE's orders. I did not speak to the man. Sgt MONROE ordered me to take the bundle to the Orderly Room. It was rather large. I did not get a good look at him. I did not get close to him. It was dark. I followed them into the Orderly Room with the bundle. The 2 men who were picked up were there. I could not recognise them. The orderly room is small and it was crowded. Their backs were to me. Somebody else of the party was carrying a bundle too. I saw this other bundle on the street. I did not see it being thrown out of the window. I have seen the accused at the Summary of Evidence. I can't recall seeing him around the Centre.

Cross examination.

I saw RSM LA CROIX first that night. I was coming out from the front gate. I saw the 2 men for the first time as we were walking along the fence of the bldg. When I first saw them they were pointed out to us by the RSM. The RSM was almost opposite the Leave Gate at that time. We walked on the sidewalk along the Leave Centre. It didn't occur to me to notice anyone. It wasn't a black night. Visibility was poor. It had been drizzling. I had been employed there ever since it had been OPENED. I cannot say within a 100 how many were in the centre. Approx between 300 and 400 were guests. Guests mostly stay in, in the Leave Centre. They go to Cinemas, shows etc. The biggest percentage go out at night. They go out between 6 pm and 7 pm. I wouldn't know if many guests went out that night. I was standing at the rear gate watching a man. The front wall of the Centre is not plain. In some places there are stoppings as if some bricks have been added on. I never paid any attention to trans at the corner. There must have been vehicles. I never paid any attention.

That night I could make out an object about 50 yds away. It wasn't like some of these black nights where you walk right into a telephone pole. I paid no attention to vehicles parking in the street that night. It is approx 60 yds from the entrance of the Museum to the place I was watching from. I walked back to the front entrance of the Leave Centre while I was watching. I cannot remember if soldiers came out from the Centre while I was at the front gate. There must have been soldiers and civilians passing in front of the Centre. I was never close at any time to the 1st soldier who put the bundle in the bushes. I was never nearer to him than 4 yards. He was not looking at me. His back was to me. Cpl FRITH took him in charge. While I was watching I walked from the rear gate to the entrance of the Leave Centre and stopped in and had a look. It was not possible at that time to see the man who was standing in front of the Museum door. It is possible that the man who was standing in the door of the Museum changed places. Just I liked inside the door, looked around and we had out of the main entrance. During the time we were watching we talked, looked and watched - Cpl FRITH and myself. We were standing just past the rear gate. We were leaning against the bldg. Cpl FRITH or I was not facing the wall. I was leaning against the bldg. I can't say what his position was. It is about 60 yds from the Museum door. We were together a matter of minutes. After I went to the main entrance I went back to see the Cpl. He was still at the same place. It is possible for a man to get through the gate, come along the Centre bldg and not be seen by a person standing at the place where Cpl FRITH and I were. It had been raining that night.

By J.A. I saw a bundle land on the street. I saw a man pick it up. I followed that man. Until Sgt MONROE came over with Cpl FRITH he was in my sight at all times. I saw Sgt MONROE and Cpl FRITH take the man into custody. There were 4 or 5 on the sidewalk when I walked from the main entrance to rejoin Cpl FRITH. I wasn't paying any attention to that side of the street so I didn't see the man that Cpl FRITH and I had been watching on the Leave Centre side of the street. I never noticed any other people standing around in that neighborhood.
The man in front of the Museum was wearing battledress. I couldn't remember if he was wearing headgear. He was a soldier. The one on the Leave Centre side had a gas cape on. I saw that earlier. He watched them about 15 minutes until the 1st bundle was thrown out. The one on the Museum side was there when I came out from the Main Entrance. I went into the Leave Centre to see if my pals were around to come out and help me watch. Cpl FRITH stayed watching. The man raised no objections to going with the Cpl when the Cpl came over to where I was watching that man and took him in charge. I cannot remember any conversation between them. The 4 or 5 soldiers I met coming from the front entrance to rejoin Cpl FRITH were on the Leave Centre side of the street.

RF 13 (b) complied with.

The accused decline to have the evidence read back in French.

The Court adjourns until 0900 hrs 10 March 45.

The Court reassembles at 0900 hrs 10 March 45, pursuant to adjournment. Present same J.A. and Members.

6th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

F.67150 Sgt MONROE, A.J. Can Army Leave Centre, having been duly sworn states:-

At approx 1815 hrs 28 Nov 44, MR DE KERSEL who was then civil mgr Can Leave Centre spoke to me. As a result of this talk I went outside and saw 1 soldier with a gas cape on leaning against the Leave Centre. Another soldier was across the street by the Museum. I walked past on the Leave Centre side of the street without stopping and located Cpl FRITH and a civilian timekeeper of the Leave Centre. They were standing by the Station Gate or rear gate. I told Cpl FRITH to keep his eye on the man and I went down the road, crossed the street ad came back on the opposite side. One man was still in the Museum doorway. I went inside the Centre to locate Sgt GRAY to tell him to keep his eye on 109,110 and 111 and 203, 204, 205 rooms in the Hotel. I could not find Sgt GRAY. As a result of meeting another civilian I went ou side. Cpl FRITH was standing with one soldier against the Leave Centre bldg. There was a bundle beside them. The soldier had on a gas cape. I picked up Pte ROLFE on the way out and ordered him to take charge of the man that Cpl FRITH was standing b side. I took FRITH across the street. Gnr DODD was standing approx 2 yds from another soldier who was standing at Point "E" on Ex "A". I told Cpl FRITH to bring this man into the Orderly Room. I despatched Gnr DODD to retrieve the bundle. He did this. I saw his get them. I mark Point "F" on Ex "A" - 3rd bush on right of Museum door as point where Gnr DODD retrieved the bundle. I crossed the street again - picked up the other bundle and went to the Leave Centre Orderly Room. I got a good look at these 2 soldiers in the Orderly Room. I would know them if I saw them again. The 2 accused are these two men. I brought them in for questioning. But I could not question them. I sent for It POWER. I was there when It (now Capt) POWER took their names from their Pay books. Their names were BLANCHETTE and ROBITAILLE. One had a gas cape - he was the shorter of the two - BLANCHETTE. The QM and I examined the bundles and counted 22 blankets. I saw only 1 man in the Museum doorway. I saw Gnr DODD jump over the fence by the museum to retrieve the bundle. Before that I saw no one jump over the fence. I saw no one throw a bundle over this fence. I saw a man waving his arms in front of the Museum. When I walked out the first time I saw the man in the doorway with his right hand over his head waving his head (witness demonstrates) I saw other men besides my own group in the immediate area at that time. None of them came into the Orderly Room with me.

Cross examination.

I went out approx 1815 hrs. Darkness came very early those days; at approx 1815 hrs dark fell. There were lootein lights lighted in the Centre. I do not know why. In the front of the Leave Centre is an outside hallway It is on the 1st floor. It is about 100 feet long. There are no blackouts on that hallway. There are blue bulbs which throw a diffused light on the street. The first thing I noticed as I walked along the Leave Centre was a man leaning against the wall with a gas cape on. I could not identify him; he was in a shadow. I could not identify the man standing in front of the Museum. The light was behind him. He was in silhouette. He was facing the Leave C entre. The light from the Museum doorway which was open was behind this man. I wouldn't say that it was raining. The outside blankets were wet when we brought them in. It was not raining after 1815 hrs. Walking toward Cpl FRITH I met very few people. I have no idea how many guests were at the Centre. I am a maintenance man there. I was present when the 2 men were arrested in the Orderly Room. I brought the 2 men in myself to the Orderly Room. I was not outside when the man who was standing across the street picked up the bundle. I was not ou side when the man recrossed the street and put the bundle behind the bush. I will not swear that the person who placed the bundle behind the bush and the person I placed under arrest is the same one. I cannot swear that the person on the sidewa k on the Leave Centre side had something to do with the second bundle of blankets, that was there; I can swear that the person who was standing on the sidewalk by the second bundle is the person who was a rrested, Pte ROLFE did not leave that man until he was brought into the Orderly Room. It is right that I went into the Leave Centre after I was out for the 1st time. It is right that 2 bundles fell to the sidewalk while I was in the Leave Centre. When I came out after that it is right that I saw a bundle of blankets and a person standing approx 4 feet away. When I went in the Centre I was looking for SGT GRAY. His room is between the ground floor and the 1st Floor. It is the 1st door to the left above the office. I stayed inside about 2 minutes. When I came outside the 2nd time I noticed 2 guards between the front entrance and the front gate. I walked from the main entrance to the front gate. I walked from the front gate to the bundle on the Leave Centre side. I can't swear whether I met soldiers and/or civilians. I can't say whether I pas ed anybody or not.

Re-examination:

Our DODD went over the fence to retrieve the bundle at my direction. Cpl FRITH brought in the man by the Museum door. Pte BOLTE brought in man with gas cape, who had been standing by Leave Centre. Pte BOLTE brought in the smaller of the two men.- the one with the gas cape who had been beside the Leave Centre. I recall which was DORTAILLE and which was BLANCHETTE. DORTAILLE was the taller man and BLANCHETTE the shorter man.

By J.A.

You could see a moving object at 50 yards that night in that area. In the shade of the bldg. you have to be on top of him. There were lights on in the Museum. I walked immediately with Pte BOLTE to the bundle. There was a man with a gas cape standing 4 ft from the bundle. I instructed Pte BOLTE to take him in charge. I crossed the street with Cpl FRITH and instructed Cpl FRITH to take the other man in charge. I walked back with Cpl FRITH and the other man toward the Orderly Room. I was present when the blankets were counted. There were 2 bundles of 11 each. In my judgement they were Army blankets. Half of our blankets haven't got the arrow on it. I subsequently learned that some blankets were missing from the rooms in the Leave Centre.

By the Court:

Both bundles had 10 inside with one tied outside in a granny knot. Neither objected to going along with FRITH or BOLTE. There is no rule in the Leave Centre which forbids soldiers wearing gas capes when it rains.

By the J.A.

Pte BOLTE started to walk with the other man toward the Orderly Room. Cpl FRITH walked diagonally across the street to meet him and they went to the Orderly Room. I was with FRITH. I picked up blankets on the Leave Centre side. The man who was in the Museum doorway was with FRITH.

DP 93(2) complied with.

The accused decline to have the evidence read in French.

The Prosecutor does not require Pte BOLTE as a witness.

D-3 Defending Officer's Address - attached p-27

The fourth witness; Sgt WOODS came in the box this morning ready to give full evidence but he did not see a thing of the incident. He was at the Leave Centre when the bundle was thrown out of the window. He cannot swear the man he arrested on the Eastern side of the street is the same who crossed the street with the bundle. He cannot swear that the man standing four or five feet of the bundle had something to do with the bundle on the sidewalk near the Centre.

We submit that on account of darkness, on account of the way Cpl SMITH and Pte DODD carried out their duties, on account of the facing of the Leave Centre that a reasonable doubt of the identity of the suspicious persons and that the relation between the accused and the suspicious persons has been established by a person who came on the scene of the incident afterward and has seen nothing and therefore can only submit that he arrested two soldiers.

SUMMING UP OF JUDGE ADVOCATE

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as JA to sum up the evidence and advise the court on the law. The court is however the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say now, only represents my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The Court are the court alone in the sole judge of the facts. I wish briefly to sum up the evidence.

Lt nor Capt C.W. Power arrived in the Orderly Room of the Ons leave centre at approx 1900 hrs 22 May 44. He saw two men whom he identified by their pay books to be PRITTAILLE and BLANCHARD, he does not not recognize the accused. He looked at the bundles and recognize them as WD blankets.

Sgt Lacroix at approx 1800 hrs in front of the leave centre saw two men standing near the bldg, one wearing a Gas Cape went to the edge of the sidewalk and looked up, he did this twice. He ordered Cpl Firth and Gnr Dodd whom he met to keep his eye on the two men. He states it was very dark, raining and he could see only by aid of trem lights. He saw two civilians near the Hotel.

Cpl Frith was with Gnr Dodd. They saw watching two soldiers near the leave centre -- Frith saw one of the soldiers cross the street, he was dressed in Battle Dress. The one near the leave centre had a Gas Cape -- saw across street gave signals a few minutes later a large bundle was thrown from upstairs window. Soldier across street came over picked up bundle and carried back, Gnr Dodd followed him. Another bundle was thrown out, soldier on leave centre side moved closer to second bundle. Sgt Munroe and Pte Wolfe came along. He crossed street and took man in charge Gnr Dod was with. He can identify neither of the men. Between 1700 to 1900 hrs the majority of guests leave the hotel to go down town. He did not notice any thing -- night it was dark but you could distinguish and object at 50 yds. The front of the leave centre is not plain parts lit out. The witness says he as mistaken in the summary of evidence re t a man waving the Gas Cape crossing the street.

Gnr Dodd: He corroborates evidence of Cpl Firth. His job was to watch the man in the museum side across from the leave centre. He admitted going into the leave centre as the man across the street was not in his observation at all times. He did see the bundle thrown from the leave centre and the man across the street came over and picked it up. He followed him and saw him hide it. The outside of the bundle was a blanket. He watched the man until Cpl Frith took him in charge. He then took in bundle into the leave centre orderly room. He cannot identify either man. He did not see the man until pointed out to him by Cpl LaCroix. there were approx 200-300 guests in the centre the his eye percentage go downtown from 1700 to 1900 hrs. He could see an object at 50 yds away. There must have been soldiers and civilians pass by while watching. He was sorry at any time close to the soldier who put the bundle in the bushes.

Sgt Munroe He saw a soldier with a Gas Cape leaning against the leave centre wall and the man in the museum doorway. Went into leave centre to speak to a Sgt whom he could not find, on way out he got Pte Wolfe. Saw Cpl Frith standing beside a soldier on leave centre side with abundle near them. He ordered Pte Wolfe to take the man in charge. He took Cpl Frith across the street to where man Gnr Dodd was watching and ordered Cpl Frith to take that man in charge. He picked bundle from leave centre side. He later opened bundles with Cpl and states there were 11 WD blankets in each bundle. He recognizes the accused as the man in the orderly room. This witness states that there was some light from the leave centre and also some from the museum. You could not see a man in the shadow of the bldg but you could see a moving object at 50 yds. Neither man placed into custody objected.

The charge here is Theft of Public Property with an alternative of Improper Possession. With regard to the first charge the Prosecution must prove that the accused stole WD property, namely, 22 blankets. The law relating to stealing is found in MML p.22, .118, 119 --- Archbold p.181-190 (extracts read).

I wish also to direct the courts attn to the doctrine of Recent Possession MML p.73. With regard to possession, if the court should find that the accused or one of them was acting with a common design or common intent with a person or persons unknown, then possession by that person or persons would be possession of all, even though one of the persons may never have been in physical possession at any time. With regard to the law of common intent I would ref p.107 and also the Sec dealing with assisting in the commission of an offence.

Inasmuch as the offenses in this case is to some extent circumstantial I direct the court to the law with regard to circumstantial evidence. The charge of improper possession means that he misused circumstantial evidence. The charge of improper possession means that he misused was improperly in possession but that some element necessary in the first charge is not proven, such an intention to permanently deprive the owner thereof. And finally I advise the court that under English law no one is guilty until found guilty and the onus of proving his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt rests upon the prosecution. The accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I say reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the court and not some doubt which is purely imaginary. If the court has reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused are entitled to that doubt.

That is all I wish to say. Unless the court or prosecution or defending officer require some explanation on any question I may have overlooked.

Prosecution have you any questions? "No"
To Prosecution have you any questions? "No"
To Defending Offr have you any questions? "No"

At approximately 1815 hrs 28 Nov 44 I was standing in the main hallway of the Cdn Leave Centre when I was informed about two men acting suspiciously outside. I went outside and saw two soldiers, one man standing in the doorway of the museum across the street and the other near the building. I walked past the car without stopping and located Cpl PATRY and a civilian. I went further down the street and crossed over, walking past the man standing in the doorway of the museum. He was still there. I decided to go inside the building. Just as I was entering the building I was informed that bundles were thrown from the window. I took Pte BOLTE with me and I had the two men and the two bundles brought inside. The bundles were placed in the Quartermaster's office where the QM counted the blankets in my presence. There were 22 blankets, 11 in each bundle. The two men were Pte HUNTAILLE and Pte BLANCHETTE.

You are not obliged to say anything or give any evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you may give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

having been duly sworn, states:

I am F-/2230 Pte BLANCHETTE, G. R de Quad, on strength 13 CBn Base ROT Bn. At approximately 1930 hrs 30 Dec 44 I proceeded to the latrine and on returning noticed the door of the cellblock open, and, noticing another soldier going out the door, I followed him out.

On the night of 28 Nov 44 I was coming along the street. I was coming down the right side of the street and when I came to the Leave Centre, I heard something fall on the ground. I could not see what it was as it was too dark. When I was passing in front of the door of the museum I saw a soldier standing in the door way and two other soldiers pass on the other side. When the two others soldiers passed in front of that man they said something which I did not understand as it was in English. A soldier who was standing in the door jumped over the fence and hid himself in a little bush there. At that moment I stopped and looked on the other side of the street. I thought a man had fallen from the window as some people were standing there. I stopped for about one minute and a soldier came up to me and said "come with me". I went with the soldier into the leave centre. ROBITAILLE was brought in at the same time in company with three soldiers. I knew him as he was in the same regiment. I did not know he had been on the other side of the street. The Lieutenant asked us some questions and then we were taken to 11 Bn.

Lieut C N Power, O i/c OR's Hotel, Caen Army Leave Centre, Ghent, Belgium having been duly sworn states:
I am now a/Capt C.N. Power. I was Lt i/c OR's Hotel in Nov 44. At approx 1900 hrs 28 Nov 44 I was called for at my quarters at Coer St. Geo. Hotel and summoned to Normal School which is the OR's Hotel. There I had 2 men presented to me and they were identified by their Pay Books as Pte Robitaille and Blanchette. Sgt Monroe presented them to me. He accused them of participating in the theft of 2 bundles of blankets. They were present. I saw the bundles. They were in my Ord Rm at the time. I tried to interrogate them but got no satisfaction as one spoke no English and the other spoke very poor English. They were not in possession of any pass so I placed them in protective Custody.

Judge Advocate rules that because the accused speak no English that any statements made in their presence is not admissable.

Cross examination:

It would be impossible to say how many soldiers were going in and out of the Hotel between 1700 and 1800 hrs that date. I will say that no one except my staff and/or guests would be going in and out. It is not impossible for a person without a pass to get into the Centre. Between 5 and 7 p.m. in front of the Centre there may be 2 or 12 going to and fro. It is not a busy thorofare. I would say it got dark about 5 p.m. There has always been a blackout but it has not been very rigid. It is never as thoroughly checked on as it is in England.

By the Court:

I had a look at the bundles. I recognize them as being WD Blankets.

RP 53(b) complied with.

The accused decline to have the evidence read back in French.

M 66663 RSM La Croix, C.F.A., No. 1 Cdn Army Prisoner Centre having been duly sworn states:

I recall 28 Nov 44 at approx 1800 hrs I was walking down the street and passing near the end of the Leave Centre Bldg. I noticed two men standing near the Bldg. One man went out to the edge of the sidewalk and looked up toward the windows. He was wearing a gas cape. I walked past, stopped and looked back. The man had proceeded out to the kerb, looked upwards and proceeded back in towards the man against the Bldg. I walked on farther and looked back again. He went to the edge of the sidewalk again. At that time Cpl Firth and Gnr Dodd were coming down the Street towards me. I stopped them and told them to keep an eye on the 2 men as they were acting suspicious. I proceeded on my way. I cannot identify these two men. It was dark.

I produce "Ex A" which is a reasonable sketch of the Calw Army Leave Centre.

Witness points out Bldgs a sketch and shows the Court his movements as per his evidence, also indicates movements of the soldiers in the gas cape. "A" in sketch is position of soldiers. "B" is witness' position when he first spotted the soldiers. "C" is position where witness turned around "D" is position where witness turned around 2nd time.

Cross-examination:

I was about 10 feet from them when I saw the men for the 1st time. It was raining and dark and I cannot identify them. It was approx 1800 hrs. There was no moon. Not raining very heavy. I live at the Centre and was at that time. Approx 450 to 500 were in the Centre at that time. There were not many people coming in and out. The street was pretty

Wall deserted. There were only 2 civilians near the Centre when I saw the 2 soldiers. The traffic is not usually heavy on that street that time of night. Very few people on the street

By the JA.

The civilians were near part of my staff. They were proceeding up the street to the entrance in the opposite direction from me. They spoke to me and that's all.

By the Court.

It was possible to see a man's form about 10 yds away. lights from street cars help. I saw the reflection of lights from a street car on the gas tape. When there is no street car you'd have to be 2 ft. from the man to see him. There is a street car terminal at the corner.

By JA.

I could see by aid of street car lights the man walking to the edge of the kerb. I was 20 or 25 feet from him when I saw him the 2nd time.

RP 83(B) complied with.

The accused decline to have the evidence read back in French

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

R.M. [illegible]

H 87360 Cpl Feith, ~~Asst Provost Marshal~~, attd Cdn Army Leave Centre, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1800 hrs 28 Nov 44, Gnr Dodd and myself left the Leave Centre. We met RSM La Croix down past the Leave Centre. I recognize "X" "A". We met RSM La Croix at point "D" on sketch. ~~He told us to~~ As a result of what he told us we stayed there and then Gnr Dodd went down the street. We were watching 2 soldiers standing along side

The Leave Centre.

(Witness points to point "B" on Ex "A" as place where soldiers were standing) Gnr Dodd went inward Leave Centre gate. In the meantime while he was away from me, one soldier crossed the street to the door of the bldg. Opp. the Leave Centre. He was dressed in battle dress. The one that stood beside the Leave Centre was wearing a gas cape. Gnr Dodd rejoined me. The man across the street appeared to give signals with his arms. He was standing in the doorway of the bldg. across the street. (Witness marks this Print as "E" on Ex "A") In a few minutes a large bundle was thrown from the upstairs window of the Leave Centre. The soldier at point "E" came across the street, picked up the bundle and started across the street with it. I told Gnr Dodd to go after him. Then as he got across the street another bundle was thrown out of the window. I got a look at the last bundle that was thrown out. I didn't know what was in it. I came up to where the 2nd bundle landed and the soldier in the gas cape was standing beside it. The bundle was wrapped in a blanket. Cpl Dodd was across the street with the other man. I didn't get a good look at the man with the gas cape. Sgt Monroe and Pte Rolfe came along then. I crossed the street after speaking to them. I crossed to take the man ~~RSM~~ in charge that Gnr Dodd had took him in charge and crossed the street with him and rejoined the others. I did not get a good look at him. I wouldn't be able to recognize them again. We all went into the Leave Centre Orderly Room. As soon as we got in there the driver and I left. Pte Rolfe and Sgt Monroe remained. The driver and I went to get Lt (Now A/Capt) Rowan. We got him but I didn't go into the Orderly Room. I didn't see the handles in the Orderly Room. They were brought in after we had all gone in.

Cross examination.

I first saw RSM Vallerois when I went out. Several people passed after that. Perhaps 5 or 6. I can't say if they were soldiers. It is long ago. I left the Centre with Gnr Dodd. I was employed there since July. ~~There were~~ I can't say how many people were there at that time. Guests dance or go down town at night from the Centre. The largest percentage go downtown. They go down town between 1800 + 1900 hrs. I did not notice many go down town that night. Very few passed us. It was fairly clear that night. I don't think there was any rain. It was not real dark. It got dark about 1730 or 1745 hrs. I can not swear about that. We saw the soldiers for the 1st time at "A" and RSM Vallerois at Point "D" on Ex "A"

We saw RSM Mc Cross first. We walked past the 2 men but took no notice of them. It was not real dark. RSM Mc Cross was the 1st one we spoke to. We could see plainly about 50 yards. We could see from Pt "D" to Pt "A" on Ex "A." The front of the Reave Centre is not a plain wall all along. There is a bit juts out (marked by witness on Ex "A" in pencil - points "F" and "G.") We were appox 20 feet when RSM told us to keep an eye on the men. I cannot identify the 2 men because I did not see them real close and never took any particular notice. Sgt Monroe told me to get a man who was with Pte Dodd. I obeyed that order. I was standing beside the Reave Centre with the other soldier when he told me. I was close to him. That is right. I cannot identify him now because I didn't look at him then. It is not because it was dark. I went to Pte Dodd and the other man. I came back with Gnr Dodd and the other man. ~~The other man~~ was. I was walking beside him, about 2 ft. away. I cannot identify this man for the same reason. I was in front of the Centre when Sgt Monroe gave me the order. I went across to Gnr Dodd and the soldier in front of the Museum. I am positive there was nothing in the street in front of the Museum. ~~There~~ I don't know if there were 2 trucks parked in the street not far from the Museum. ~~The~~ 1st bundle was dropped from the window approx 15' minutes after the RSM told us to watch the men. I stood in the same place for those 15 minutes. I noticed no lights coming from trams at the corner. I saw no trams passing.

By J.A.

I could see the soldier all the time when he picked up the bundle and walked across the street. When the 2nd bundle was thrown out the other soldier walked up, did not touch it but stood beside it until I came up. It was the same soldier I had been watching. I told Gnr Dodd to go after the 1st soldier as soon as he picked up the bundle and started across the street. The soldier with the gas cape was on the Leave Centre side of the street.

By the Court.

Gnr Dodd and I left the Centre from the Front Gate. As soon as RSM pointed these soldiers out they were under our continual observation. As far as the one on my side of the street as concerned he was under my observation until taken to the Orderly Room. He went in ahead of me. I didn't get a look at him.

(Res refers to Summary of Evidence – Witness points out that evidence in Supplementary Summary re man wearing gas cape crossing the street is not correct).

RP 83 (B) complied with.

The accused declines to have the evidence read back in French.

4th Witness for the Prosecution

K 45786 Gnr Dodd D. J. No 1 Coln Army Leave Centre having been duly sworn states:

At appx 1800 hrs 28 Nov 44 Cpl Firth and I were stopped when we left the Leave Centre by RSM La Croix. As a result of this meeting we watched 2 men who were acting suspiciously in front of the Leave Centre.

(Witness examines Ex "A" and points to point "B".)

They were watching the Hotel and standing at point "B". I was standing at point "D" on Ex "A" and watching them. I went to the Leave Centre main entrance - the front entrance. I met Sgt Howse at the gate. As a result of my conversation I watched a man in front of the Museum entrance across the street from the Hotel. He must have been one of the two we originally watched because when I returned to Cpl Firth there was only one in front of the bldg. Then a bundle was thrown from a window in the Centre and the man I was watching came over from the Museum, picked up the bundle and went back to the Museum side of the street with the bundle. I followed. The man placed the bundle behind some bushes beside the Museum wall. I stood at the fence in front of the Museum wall. The man moved down the street a few yards. I stayed at the bundle. The outside wrapper of the bundle was a ~~wrapper~~ blanket. I paid no attention to the other room. I never watched the windows. Sgt Monroe and Cpl Firth came over a few minutes later and Cpl Firth took the room in custody on Sgt Monroe's orders. I did not speak to the man. Sgt Monroe ordered me to take the bundle to the Orderly Room. It was rather large. I did not get a good look at him. I did ~~not~~ look at him close to him. It was dark. I followed them into the orderly room with the bundle. The 2 men who were picked up were there. I could not recognize them. The orderly room is small and it was crowded. Their backs were to me. Somebody else of the party was carrying a bundle too. I saw him ~~the other~~ bundle on the street. I did not see it being thrown out of the window. I have seen the accused at the Summary of Evidence. I can't recall seeing them around the Centre.

Cross-examination:

I saw RSM Le Cocq first that night. I was coming out from the front gate. I saw the 2 men for the first time as we were walking along the face of the bldg. ~~It was dark when~~ I first saw them, they were pointed out to us by the RSM. The RSM was almost opposite the Rear gate ~~then~~ at that time. We walked on the sidewalk along the Leave Centre. It didn't occur to me to notice anyone. It wasn't a black night. Visibility was poor. It had been drizzling. I had been employed there ever since it had been in Ghent. I cannot say within a 100

One

How many were in the centre. Approx between 500 & 400 were guests. Guests mostly stay in, in the Leave Centre. They go to Cinemas, shows etc. The biggest percentage go out at night. They go out between 5 pm and 7 p.m. I wouldn't know if many guests went out that night. I was standing at the rear gate watching a man. The front wall of the Centre is not plain. In some places there are outcroppings & of course bricks have been added on. I never paid any attention to trams at the corner. There must have been vehicles. I never paid any attention. That night I could make out an object about 50 yards away. It wasn't like some of these black nights where you walk right into a telephone pole. I paid no attention to vehicles parking in the street that night. It is approx 60 yds from the entrance of the Centre to the place I was watching from. I was/have walked back to the front entrance of the Leave Centre while I was watching. I cannot remember if soldiers came out from the Centre while I was at the front gate.
There must have been soldiers & airmans passing in front of the Centre. I was never alone at any time to the soldier who put the bundle in the bushes. I was never nearer to him than 4 yards. He was not looking at me. Her back was to me. Cpl Firth ~~arrested~~ took him in charge.
While I was watching I walked from the rear gate to the entrance of the leave centre and stopped in and had a look. It was not possible at that time to see the man who was standing in front of the Museum door. It is possible that the man who was standing in the door of the Museum changed places. I just looked inside the door, looked around and walked out of the main entrance. During the time we were watching we talked, smoked and walked — Cpl Frith and myself. We were standing just past the west gate. We were leaning against the bldg. Cpl Frith or ~~me~~ I was not facing the wall. I was leaning against the bldg. I can't say what his position was. It is about 60 yds from the Museum door. We were together a matter of minutes. After I went to the main entrance I went back to see the Cpl. He was still at the same place. It is possible for a man to get through the gate, come along the Centre bldg and not be seen by a person standing at the place where Cpl Frith and I were. It had been raining that night

By J.A. I saw a bundle land on the street. I saw a man pick it up. I followed that man. Until Sgt Monroe came over with Cpl Frith he was in my sight at all times. I saw Sgt Monroe and Cpl Frith take the man into custody. There were 4 or 5 on the sidewalk when I walked from the main entrance to rejoin Cpl Frith. I wasn't paying any attention to that side of the street so I didn't see the man that Cpl Frith and I had been watching on the Reserve Centre side of the street. I never noticed any other people standing around in that neighborhood.

The man in front of the Museum was wearing battledress. I couldn't remember if he was wearing headgear. He was a soldier. The one on the Leave Centre side had a gas cape on. I saw that earlier. We watched them about 15 minutes until the 1st bundle was thrown out. The one on the Museum side was there when I came out from the Main Entrance. I went into the Leave Centre to see if my pals were around to come out and help me watch. Cpl Frith stayed watching. The man raised no objections to going with the cpl when the cpl came over to where I was watching that man and took him in charge. I cannot remember any conversation between them. The 4 or 5 soldiers I met coming from the front entrance to reform Cpl Frith were on the Leave Centre side of the street.

RP 53(B) complied with.

The accused decline to have the evidence read back to them.

The Court adjourns until 0900 hrs. 10 March 45.

The Court ~~opens~~ reassembles at 0900 hrs 10 March 45 pursuant to adjournment. Present same JA and Members.

5? Witness for the Prosecution

K 61180 Sgt Munro, A. T. Cdn Army Leave Centre having been duly sworn states:

At approx 1815 hrs 28 Nov 44, Mr. De Kassel who was then civil mgr Cdn Leave Centre spoke to me. As a result of this talk I went outside and saw 1 soldier with a gas cape on leaning against the Leave Centre. Another soldier was across the street by the Museum. I walked part on the Centre side of the street without stopping and located Cpl Frith and a civilian Leave keeper of the Leave Centre. They were standing by the Ration Gate or rear gate. I told Cpl Frith to keep his eye on the man and I went down the road, crossed the street and came back on the opposite side. One man was still in the Museum doorway. I went inside the Centre and to locate Sgt Gray to tell him to keep his eye on 109, 110 and 111 and 203, 204 205 – rooms in the Hotel. I could not find Sgt Gray. As a result of meeting another civilian I went outside. Cpl Frith was standing with one soldier against the Leave Centre bldg. There was a brindle beside them. The soldier had on a gas cape. I picked up the Rolfe on the way out and ordered him to take charge of the man that Cpl Frith was standing beside. I took Frith across the street. Gnr Dodd was standing approx 4 yds from another soldier who was standing at Point "E" on "A". I told Cpl Frith to bring this man into the Orderly Room. I despatched Gnr Dodd to retrieve the brindle.

He did this. I saw him get them. I mark Point "F" on "Ex "A" — 3rd Bush on right of Museum Door as point where Gnr. Dodd retrieved the bundle. I crossed the street again, picked up the other bundle and went to the Leave Centre Orderly Room. I got a good look at these 2 soldiers in the Orderly Room. I would know them if I saw them again. The 2 accused are those two men. I brought them in for questioning. But I could not question them. I sent for Lt Power. I was there when Lt (now A/Capt) Power took their names from their Pay Books. Their names were Blanchette and Robitaille. One had a gas cape — he was the shorter of the two — Blanchette. ~~I did not look any much at the 2 bundles.~~ The QM and I examined the bundles and counted 12 blankets. I saw only 1 man in the Museum doorway. I saw Gnr Dodd jump over the fence by the museum to retrieve the bundle. Before that I saw no one jump over the fence. I saw no one throw a bundle over this fence. I saw a man waving his arms in front of the Museum. When I walked out the first time I saw the man in the doorway with his right hand over his head waving his hand (witness demonstrates). I saw other men besides my own group in the immediate area at that time. None of these came into the orderly room with me.

Cross examination:

I went out about 1815 hrs. Darkness came very early those days; at about 1815 dusk fell. There were electric lights lighted in the Centre. I do not know why. In the front of the Leave Centre is an outside hallway. It is on the 1st floor. It is about 100 feet long. There are no blackouts on that hallway. There are blue bulbs which throw a diffused light on the street. The first thing I noticed as I walked along the Keave Centre was a man leaning against the wall with a gas cape on. I could not identify him; he was in a shadow. I could not identify the man standing in front of the Museum. The light was behind him. He was in silhouette. He was facing the Keave Centre. The light from the Museum doorway which was open was behind this man. I wouldn't say that it was raining. The outside blankets were wet when we brought them in. It was not raining after 1815 hrs. Walking toward opp Bath I met very few people. I have no idea how many guests were at the Centre. I am a ~~maintenance~~ maintenance man there. I was present when the 2 men were arrested in the Orderly Room. I brought the man in myself to the Orderly Room. I was not outside when the man who was standing across the street picked up the bundle. I was not outside when the man crossed the street and put the bundle behind the bush. I will not swear that the person who placed the bundle behind the bush and the person I placed under arrest ~~was~~ was the same one. I cannot swear that the person on the sidewalk on the Keave Centre side had something to do with the second bundle of blankets that was there; ~~the one that remained on the~~ SAV ~~sidewalk~~ SAV I can swear that the person who was standing on the sidewalk by the second bundle is the person who was arrested. Pte Rolfe did not leave that man until he was brought into the Orderly Room. It is right that I went into the Leave Centre after I was out for the 1st time. It is right that a bundle fell to the sidewalk while I was in the Leave Centre. When I came out after that it is right that I saw a bundle of blankets and a person standing approx. 4 feet away. When I went in the Centre I was looking for Sgt Gray. His room is between the ground floor and the 1st floor. It is the 1st door to the left above the office. I stayed inside about 2 minutes. When I came outside the 2nd time I noticed 2 guards between the front entrance and the front gate. I walked from the main entrance to the front gate. I walked from the front gate to the bundle on the Leave Centre side. I can't swear whether I met soldiers and/or civilians. I can't say whether I passed anybody or not.

Re-examination:

Sgt Dodd went over the fence to retrieve the bundle at my direction. Pte Rolfe Cpl Faith brings in the man by the N warn door. Pte Rolfe brings in man with gas cape who had been standing by Leave Centre. Pte Rolfe brought in the smaller of the two men - the one with the gas cape who had been beside the Leave Centre. I recall which was Robitaille and which was Blanchette. Robitaille was the taller man and Blanchette the shorter man.

By D.D.: You could see a moving object at 50 yards that night in that area. In the shade of the bldg you have to be on top of him. There were lights on in the Museum. I walked immediately with Pte Rolfe to the bundle. There was a man with a gascape standing 4 ft from the bundle. I instructed Pte Rolfe to take him in charge. I crossed the street with Cpl Faith and instructed Cpl Faith to take the other man in charge. I walked back with Cpl Faith and the other man toward the Orderly Room. ~~Pte~~ Rolfe ~~united with the other man until I joined them~~ (CMD) I was present when the blankets were counted. There were 2 bundles of 11 each. In my judgement they were army blankets. Half of our blankets haven't got the arrow on it. I subsequently learned that some blankets were missing from the rooms in the Leave Centre.

By the Court: Both bundles had 10 winds with one tied ontride in a granny knot. Neither objected to going along with Faith & Rolfe. There is no rule in the Leave Centre which forbids soldiers wearing gas capes when it rains.

by the JA:

Pte Rolfe started to walk with the other man toward the Orderly Room. Cpl Frith walked diagonally across the street to meet him and they went to the Orderly Room. I was with Frith. I picked up blankets on the leave centre side. The man who was in the Museum doorway was with Frith.

Prosecutor's Closing Address

RSM Lacroix has his suspicions aroused by the presence of two men on the street in front of the leave Centre. At the time he saw them one of the men left the side of the building and walked out to the curb to look up at upstairs windows of the leave centre. Lacroix orders Frith and Dodd to keep these men under observation.

Two bundles are seen coming out of a window in the centre and landing in the street. One man who Frith had seen crossing to the museum side of the street comes across to pick up the first bundle which landed. Other man under observation remained by leave centre wall.

Man by leave centre was dressed in a yoke cape.

Dodd sees man who brought bundle to museum side like it in bundles. Dodd later retrieved this bundle at direction of Sgt Munro and brought it into the orderly room.

Frith accosted man who was about to pick up other bundle and ~~brought~~ Rolf detailed to bring him into the orderly room. Munro says that man who ~~Rolfe~~ brings in is dressed in yoke cape and was ~~this~~ the Blanchette. Frith was detailed to bring man by museum in. This was man whom Dodd detailed to watch. Munro sent Dodd after hidden bundle and Frith brought man inside. Munro discovers this man to be Robitaille.

Both men presented to Capt Power who identifies them as Robitaille & Blanchette from their pay books.

At the instigation of Lacroix at least 4 men concerned in conducting the apprehension and observation of the two men who were acting suspiciously.

There is no evidence to show that man who had bundle over fence was not man who was eventually led in to orderly room and identified as Robitaille.

There is no evidence to show that man arrested by Smith and brought in by Rolfe from in front of Leave centre was not man eventually identified as Blanchette.

There is here a series of facts which the prosecution submits are causally connected in such a way as to eliminate any suggestion that the two accused are not the same soldiers who were handling or about to handle the two bundles of WD property.

The bundles were tossed out of the window i.e. taken from WD premises - and to all intents and purposes the bundles passed into possession of the two arrested men. The prosecution submits that these two men are the two accused and that the necessary elements of theft are present. In the absence of positive explanation the elements of the offence of improper possession are at least existing.

in the case of Pte Blanchette and Robitaille. –

May it please the Court,

The defence in the present case as to deal with an alternative charge of stealing or being found in improper possession of public property, that is to say, Pte Blanchette, among issues. –

There is quite a difference existing between steal of something and the illegal possession. The defence respectfully refers the members of this Court to section 40 A.H. footnote for the illegal possession and to Chap. M.M.L. page 22 section 32, 33 for robbing or theft of military articles. –

The defence submits that a person will have an illegal possession of an article if the said person has control of this same article without the permission of its owner. – So the person can use this article for a while at his discretion because the said person has full control. – The elements of illegal possession are first of all the absolute control, secondly no permissions of the owner, thirdly no intentions defined "to be owner of his title of property. –

The elements of theft are: 1) illegal possession
2) intentions to consider the article as its owner, or the illegal possessor and the said article, he can even destroy it because he considers himself as owner. –
3) intentions to deprive the real owner of his title of property. –

Now let us see the facts: –

The first witness is R.S.M. Leroux. – He stated that the incident happened at night. There was no moon and it was dark. – He saw two suspicious persons because of the light of a streetcar. Otherwise he would have passed their presence near the Arcans Quarters. – Plus took place on the 28 November 1944. – "It was dark he said" and without the light of the streetcar it was impossible to see a man farther than two feet away." – At that time there were 400 to 500 guests at the Arcans Quarters. – I submit that this statement is quite good and exact with the conditions at that time. – At the end of november the days are short and the darkness comes earlier at night and it continuously. – That night it was dark also because the sky was covered with clouds. "It was raining a little" said if R.S.M. Leroux states that without the help of the light coming from streetcars he could not see "anything" farther than two feet I submit that he tells the truth. – Anybody on this earth, by his own experience, can believe the statement of R.S.M. Leroux. – I tried that myself last night, for my own benefit I will not tell the Court the result of my experience because I cannot be a witness. –

The record will show that R.S.M. Leroux cannot identify the suspicious male persons. – He is 6 pi 2 inch. – He is ordered by R.S.M. Leroux to watch two persons. – He concentrated on one only, the one that stood on the sidewalk along the leaves Quarters. – He stated that "it was not too dark on the 28 November 45. – But he also stated that on the order of Sgt Munro he crossed the street to pick up a person standing near the streetcars. – He cannot identify this person because it was too dark and they were walking side by side. – We submit if it was impossible to identify somebody when walking side by side it is because at that time complete darkness bear comes). - We submit also as a deduction from this fact that it was almost impossible to see at long distances and keep a constant sight on a man for fifty or sixty yards away. - Pte Smith was standing along a building and near the building and Pte Dodd station as sentry, was able to point out the front gate and house along the Centre [illegible] Pte Dodd on account of the [illegible] shape of the [illegible] Centre. - Sur Dodd is the next witness. He was with Pte Smith the beginning. He is not able to identify the suspicious men either. This is the way he acted. He was speaking to Pte Smith they were standing along a civilian building. He looked to see the front gate as he said, He passed along the Leave Centre and noticed 4 or 5 men walking along the sidewalk He went into the Leave Centre himself. He had to watch the men standing in the door of the Museum. - I submit that this job done by Sur Dodd was not continuous and he cannot swear that the man on the front door was not relieved by somebody else. -

The fourth witness Sgt Munro came in the box this morning ready to give a full evidence but he did not see a thing of the incident. He was at the Leave Centre when the trouble were thrown out the window. He cannot swear the men he arrested on the Museum side of the street is the same who crossed the street with the bundle. - He cannot swear that the man standing for a few feet of the bundle had something to do with the bundle or the Centre. -

We submit that on account of deafness, on account of the way Pte Smith and Pte Dodd carried out their duties, on account of the firing of the Leave Centre, that as reasonable doubt of the identity of the ~~about~~ suspicious persons and that the relation between the accused and the suspicious persons and that the relation a person who passed on the scene of the incident afterwards and has seen nothing and therefore can only submit that he arrested two soldiers. -

Maurice Pouliotte Capt

SUMMING UP OF JUDGE ADVOCATE:

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as JA to sum up the evidence and advise the court on the law. The court is however the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say now, may previously have said and may say indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The court and the court alone is the sole judge of the facts. I wish briefly to sum up the evidence:

Lt now Capt C.M. Power arrived in the Orderly Room of the Gas leave centre at approx 1900 hrs 28 Nov 44. He saw two men whom he identified by their pay books to be ROBITAILLE and BLANCHETTE, he does not now recognize the accused. He looked at the bundles and recognized them as WD blankets.

RSM LaCroix at approx 1800 hrs in front of the leave centre saw two men standing near the bldg, one wearing a Gas Cape went to the edge of the sidewalk and looked up, he did this twice. He ordered Cpl Frith and Gnr Dodd whom he met to keep his eye on the two men. He states it was very dark, raining and he could see only by aid of tram lights. He saw two civilians near the Hotel.

Cpl Frith was with Gnr Dodd. They were watching two soldiers near the leave centre--Frith saw one of the soldiers cross the street, he was dressed in Battle Dress. The one near the leave centre had a Gas Cape--man across street gave signals--a few minutes later a large bundle was thrown from upstairs window. Soldier across street come over picked up bundle and started back, Gnr Dodd followed him. Another bundle was thrown out, soldier on leave centre side moved closer to second bundle. Sgt Munroe and Pte Rolfe came along...He crossed street and took man in charge Gnr Dodd was with. He can identify neither of the men. Between 1700 to 1900 the majority of guests leave the hotel to go down town. He did not notice many that night it was dark but you could distinguish an object at 50 yds. The front of the leave centre is not plain ports jut out. The witness says he was misstaken in the summary of evidence re the man wearing the Gas Cape crossing the street.

Gnr Dodd: He corroborates evidence of Cpl Frith. His job was to watch the man in the museum side across from the leave centre. He admitted going into the leave centre once so the man across the street was not in his observation at all times. He did see the bundle thrown from the leave centre and the man across the street came over and picked it up. He followed him and saw him hide it. The outside of the bundle was a blanket. He watched the man until Cpl Frith took Him in charge. He then took the bundle into the leave centre orderly room. He cannot identify either man. He did not see the men until pointed out to him by RSM LaCroix. There were approx 300-400 guests in the centre the biggest percentage go downtown from 1700 to 1900 hrs. He could see an object 50 yds away. He stated there must have been soldiers and civilians pass by while watching. He was never at any time close to the soldier who put the bundle in the bushes.

Sgt Munro: He saw a soldier with a Gas Cape leaning against the leave centre wall and the man in the museum doorway. Went into leave centre to speak to a Sgt whom he could not find, on way out he got Pte Rolfe. Saw Cpl Frith standing beside a soldier on leave centre side with a bundle near them. He ordered Pte Rolfe to take the man in charge. He took Cpl Frith across the street to where man Gnr Dodd was watching and ordered Cpl Frith to take that man in charge. He picked bundle from leave centre side. He later opened bundles with QM and states there were 11 WD Blankets in each bundle. He recognizes the accused as the men in the orderly room. This witness stated that there was some light from the leave centre and also some from the museum. You could see a man in the shadow of the bldg but you could see a moving object at 50 yds. Neither man placed into custody objected.

The charge here is Theft of Public Property with an alternative of Improper Possession. With regard to the first charge the Prosecution must prove that the accused stole WD property, namely, 22 blankets. The law relating to stealing is found in MML p.22, p.118, 119---Archbold p.484-490 (extracts read).

I wish also to direct the courts attn to the doctrine of Recent Possession MML p.73. With regard to possession, if the court should find that the accused or one of them was acting with a common design or common intent with a person or persons unknown, then possession by that person or persons would be possession of all, even though one of the persons may never have been in physical possession at any time. With regard to the law of common intent I read MML p.107 and also the Sec dealing with assisting in the commission of an offence.

Inasmuch as the evidence in this case is to some extent circumstantial I direct the court to the law with regard to circumstantial and read MML p.81 dealing with circumstantial evidence. The charge of improper possession means that the accused was improperly in possession but that some element necessary in the first charge is not proven, such as intention to permanently deprive the owner thereof. And finally I advise the court that under English Law no man is guilty until found guilty and the onus of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt rests upon the prosecution. The accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt, I say a reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the court and not some doubt which is purely imaginary. If the court has reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused are entitled to that doubt.

That is all I wish to say unless the court or prosecution or defending offr require some explanation on any question I may have overlooked.

Mr President have you any questions? "No".
Mr Prosecutor have you any questions? "No".
Mr Defending Offr have you any questions? "No".

H-87360 Cpl. FRITH, R.M. (attached to the Cdn Leave Centre) having been duly sworn states:

I am H-87360 Cpl. FRITH, R.M. attached to the Cdn Leave Centre. At approx 1815 hrs, 28 Nov 44, Gnr Dodd and myself were leaving the leave Centre. Past the end of the Leave Centre near the gate we met R.S.M. LaCroix, who was standing there. He ordered us to wait there and observe the actions of two soldiers standing beside the Leave Centre. A couple of minutes later, Gnr. Dodd returned to the Leave Centre gate. While he was away one of the soldiers crossed the street. He was the soldier who was wearing a gas cape. (Cpl. Frith marks on Exhibit "A" where the one soldier went). This soldier stood in the Museum doorway and waved his arms, as though he was signalling someone. Gnr Dodd then rejoined me. Shortly after a bundle was thrown from an upstairs window. The man who was standing in the doorway across the street came back to the Leave Centre side and picked up the bundle. He returned to the Museum side of the street. As this soldier left, I told Gnr. Dodd to follow him. Gnr. Dodd left. As he was crossing the street a second bundle was thrown from the window. I left my position and moved to the second bundle. The second soldier had moved to the edge of the side-walk near the bundle. Sgt. Munro and Pte. Relfe came up then. Sgt. Munro gave me orders to cross the street and take charge of the other soldier, whom Gnr. Dodd had followed. I brought the man back to Sgt. Munro and Pte. Relfe. (Cpl. Frith marks his movements in blue pencil). We all came into the Leave Centre together. Sgt. Munro, Pte. Relfe, myself and the two men.

At that time I walked as far as the entrance to the building, turned around and went out where I met Sgt. Munro at the gate. He told me to keep an eye on the man at the entrance to the museum. I walked back to Cpl. Frith passing the one man near the building in the same spot. A few minutes later a bundle was thrown from the Leave Centre. The man from across the street moved over to the bundle which he picked up and returned to the other side. I followed him. I saw him place the bundle behind a bush against the museum building. (Gnr. He stooped there and stayed there until Cpl. Frith picked him up. He did not attempt to leave. I picked up the bundle and took it in the Leave Centre.

I am H 87360 Cpl FRITH, RM, attached to the Cdn Army Leave Centre. On 28 Nov 45 at approximately 1815 hrs Gnr DODD and myself were going out the gate when we were stopped by RSM LaCROIX, who ordered us to wait down the street and observe the actions of two soldiers who were standing beside the leave centre. One of the soldiers was standing in a doorway across the street from the leave centre and appeared to be making signals to someone upstairs in the leave centre. He was signalling with his arms. I do not know what the signals were but they appeared to be definite signals to someone on the upper floor. At approximately 1830 hrs a bundle was thrown from an upstairs window. The soldier who had been signalling crossed the street and picked up the bundle. He started to leave with it. Gnr DODD went after him and stopped him. I moved closer to the building and the other man was standing along the wall beside the Leave Centre. A few minutes later a second bundle was thrown from the window. The soldier standing near the building was about to pick it up when I stopped him. We turned the men over to Sgt MUNRO who came up to us immediately after the bundles had been thrown out of the window. I was present when the bundles were brought to the Leave Centre. They were blankets.

THIRD WITNESS Cont'd

At approximately 1815 hrs 28 Nov 44 while walking in front of the Leave Centre in company with Cpl FRITH, we were stopped by RSM LaCROIX. He ordered us to keep an eye on two men who were acting suspiciously in front of the building. We took up post at the end of the Leave Centre. The men were watching the windows as if expecting someone to appear or something. One of these men moved over to the museum side of the street. I walked down the street beside the Leave Centre keeping an eye on this man until I reached the gate. There I men Sgt MUNRO who told me to rejoin Cpl FRITH at the other end of the building and continue to watch the men. It was dark. Shortly after this one bundle was thrown from an upstairs window. A second bundle was thrown out almost immediately after the first. The soldier from across the street came over to the Leave Centre and picked up one of the bundles. He returned to the museum side with it and placed it behind the bushes near the museum building. I followed him and took up a position near the bundle and he moved a few yards down the street. He stopped there and a little later Cpl FRITH came across and took him in charge. He did not attempt to move away so I did not say anything to him. I picked up the bundle and took it into the Leave Centre. The bundle was a number of blankets tied together.

The Summary of Evidence

The accused, having been cautioned as follows :'Do you wish to make any statement or to give any evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give any evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you may give will be taken down in writing and may be [redacted] given in evidence'

having been duly sworn, states :

I am E 42230 Pte BLANCHETTE, O. R de Chaud on strength 10 Cdn Base Rft Bn. At approximately 1900 hrs 10 Dec 44 I proceeded to the latrine and on returning noticed the door of the cellblock open, and, noticing another soldier going out the door, I followed him out.

On the night of 28 Nov 44 I was coming along the street. I was coming down the right side of the street and when I came to the Leave Centre, I heard something fall on the ground. I could not see what it was as it was too dark. When I was passing in front of the door of the museum I saw a soldier [redacted] standing in the doorway and two other soldiers pass on the other side. When the two others soldiers passed in front of that man they said something which I did not understand as it was in English. A soldier who was standing in the door jumped over the fence and hid himself in a little bush there. At that moment I stopped and looked on the other side of the street. I thought a man had fallen from the window as some people were standing there. I stopped for about one minute and a soldier came up to me and said 'come with me' I went with the soldier into [redacted] the leave centre. ROBITAILLE was brought in at [redacted] the same time in [redacted] company with three soldiers. I knew him as he was in the same regiment. I did not know he had been on the other side of the street. The Lieutenant asked us some questions and then we were taken to 11 Bn.

I CERTIFY THAT THE FOREGOING SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE CONSISTING OF FOUR (4) PAGES WAS TAKEN DOWN BY ME IN THE PRESENCE AND HEARING OF THE ACCUSED.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B.139634, Pte. Robitaille, M.D., South Saskatchewan Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The C.O. has directed that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution.
Having been duly sworn states:
I am Mrs. Kerseboom-Pearce proprietress of a cafe in Willebrook, Belgium. These two boys, Pte. Caldwell and Pte. Robitaille, came into the kitchen. There were 5 other boys. There came about 20 boys into the pub, and my husband had to shave 2 or 3 of them, and I had to leave the boys alone in the kitchen to go out and tap the beer. During that time my husband changed money out of the box in the cupboard. I was in the bar. Later they were going home out the back and I told them they couldn't go out the back as there was no entrance. They went to the front door, came back again into the kitchen, and said they were going to the lavatory. I asked my husband to see what they they were doing there. The garden gate was open, and my husband saw Pte. Robitaille, M.D., take the box out from under the manure. As I had a breakdown I had to remain in the house. Later an armed soldier, a neighbor and myself reported the incident to an officer of the South Saskatchewan Regiment at the Odeon Theatre.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

(Sgd) Mrs Kerseboom Pearce
Mrs. Kerseboom-Pearce

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution:
Having been duly sworn states:
I am Mr. Kerseboom-Pearce proprietor of a cafe in Willebrook, Belgium. Pte. Caldwell and Pte. Robitaille came into the kitchen along with 5 others. We invited them in the kitchen because there was a fire and it was warm. I was back and forth between the bar and the kitchen where I was cutting hair for some of the men, during which time I was changing money from the cash box in the cash box where the seven men were. They were still there when my wife had a nervous breakdown. These two men left and there were only three others in the kitchen, but these two returned immediately. Pte. Caldwell and Pte. Robitaille then went out the back. They were gone a long time so my wife asked me to go out and see what they were doing. I went out and looked through the gate and saw Pte Robitaille digging in the manure, and take out our cash box. I said, "What are you doing there?" I could not understand what they answered. Pte. Caldwell was urinating. He came over and slammed the gate jamming my head between the gate and the post. I wasslightly stunned and went back into the house and told my wife that I had nearly been killed out there. I locked the doors when I came back in. Then my wife, a neighbor, an armed soldier, and myself went out in the back to search, but there was no sign of anyone. Before going out to search, I checked on the cash box but it was gone. My wife, the nieghbor, and the armed soldier reported it to a South Saskatchewan Regiment officer at the Odeon Theatre.

Cross-Examined by the accused:

Q.1. Was I present when you were changing money from the cash box?
A.1. Yes.
Q.2 How did you know it was me by the manure?
A.2. Pte. Caldwell and Pte. Robitaille were the only ones that went out to the back and Pte. Caldwell came close to me and I recognized him and thought the other was Pte. Robitaille.

Q.3. How do you know we were the only ones to leave the kitchen by the back door?
A.3. As far as I know you were the only ones that went out in the back.
Q.4. Is it not true that some soldiers left the cafe by the back door to go elsewhere?

Mr. Kerseboom-Pearce

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with RP 4 (e), says:
I am B.139634, Pte. Robitaille, M.D., South Saskatchewan Regiment. On the evening of 4 Nov 44 I went into a cafe operated by Mr. Kerseboom-Pearce and was in the bar for about 15 minutes and Mrs. Kerseboom-Pearce invited me into the kitchen. Pte. Caldwell was in the kitchen drinking beer with 6 other soldiers. I was there for several hours and during that time I also went upstairs with the girl who was there. I came down and we drank some more beer. During the several hours we were there quite a number of soldiers were in and out of the kitchen. Mrs. Kerseboom-Pearce had a nervous breakdown while we were there so we decided to leave their cafe. We went out the back way and we stopped to urinate and then went on to another cafe.

Defending Officer's plea in mitigation of punishment

The accused has pleaded guilty but there are two points I wish to bring up. In the charge the damage is set out at the full cost of a tyre. I submit that the tyre has a salvage value and this should be taken into account. Accused admits damaging the tin hut not completely. Secondly, the accused after the parade did admit the whereabouts of the lorry and admit his guilt. He was not required to do so. By his admission he has saved the coy considerable time and money. I submit that this should be taken into account.

The prosecuting officer informs the court that the triad was scraped off the tire by the bumper but not down to the second lining.

CASE OF

D-3 B.139719 Private (A/Corporal) ROBSON, C.G. 1 CASCRU

L-89668, L/Cpl NEALE, W.A., No. 4 VRD, No. 1 CCOD, sworn, states:-

Q. Tell the Court what you know about an accident that happened on 14 Mar 45?
A. I was driving a Michigan crane from No. 4 VRD upon taking it to No. 1 VRD over the Headley Rd on 14 Mar 45 at approx 1500 hrs. I was driving up a hill towards Headley just around a bend when I saw a tank transporter coming in the opposite direction. The road was very narrow; so I crowded over to the left side of the road, as far as possible. There appeared to be enough room for both of us to pass by. As the tank transporter neared me, the front bumper of my lorry caught the rear right wheels of the tank transporter, causing an accident.

Q. What was your approximate speed at the time?
A. Five to eight miles an hour, Sir.

Q. What was the approximate width of the road?
A. Just off the road it would be 18 feet wide.

Q. Did you measure the width of the accused's lorry?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Was is the width of your own?
A. 8 feet, Sir.

Q. Would you look at this diagram and tell the Court if it fairly sets out the situation at that point of the road.
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. In what direction were you going according to this diagram?
A. I was going towards Headley from Bordon (pointing to the road leading to Headley on the diagram). There is a very long curve there, Sir. The accident took place going up the hill about 50 yards from the right-hand turn to Liphook which I had just passed.

PROS OFFR TO THE COURT

I'd like to submit this diagram as an exhibit?

COURT TO DEF OFFR

Have you any objection?
No, Sir.

(FILED AND MARKED EX "A")

Q. On what part of the road were you driving?
A. On the left-hand side, Sir.

Q. How close were you to your left-hand side?
A. When I came around the bend, I wouldn't say that I was close to the bend but when I did see the transport, I crowded towards the bend to the left side.

Q. Would the rear part of your lorry be out further when your front part was turning in?
A. No, Sir, that wouldn't be out.

Q. At the moment you saw the approaching vehicle, would the end of your vehicle be in the centre?

A. It might have been for a few feet until I straightened it out.

Q. Are there any embankments on the sides of this road?
A. Yes, Sir, about 9 to ten feet high and almost straight up, that is where the accident happened.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. How long have you been driving this kind of vehicle?
A. That was the first time I had driven that type of vehicle.

Q. On seeing the tractor approaching was there any doubt in your mind that the two vehicles could pass safely?
A. There appeared to be room for both of us, Sir.

Q. Have you driven over that particular road before?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did the tractor appear to be driven without care or caution to you?
A. No, Sir, it appeared to be driven with care.

Q. In what position was the boom of the crane at the time of the accident?
A. It was directly in front of ~~it~~. It was in a forward posn.

Q. Did you see the learner sign displayed on the tractor as it approached you?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. What disciplinary action has been taken against you in this accident?
A. I was paraded before my CO and I have asked for a CM.

BY RESIDENT OF THE COURT TO THE ACCUSED

~~By~~ - The Court shews it have been informed of the before'
(President of the Court read para 95 of Chap 6 of the MML)

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Would you just describe the vehicle that you were driving?
A. It's a vehicle with a o'f long crane to lift heavy eqpt. The boom is about 30 feet long and it is on top of the truck. It is not sticking very high. There is no cab for the dvr. It is a left-hand drive vehicle and the boom lays right along the side of the dvr when not in use posn and it is right over the top of the motor.

Q. What kind of body has this vehicle?
A. Just a chassis. The crane is operated from a little cab at the rear of the vehicle.

Q. How long is the vehicle overhaul?
A. Same length as a 3/4cwt lorry.

Q. What is it from the front to the rear?
A. I would say about 15 feet, Sir.

Q. Shorter than a station wagon?
A. Approximately the length of a 3/4cwt lorry, Sir.

Q. Did you notice any damage on the other vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir; the rim of the back wheel and the two tires were damaged; the rim was slightly bent outwards and there was a cut on the two tires. They didn't deflate.

Q. Was the vehicle still able to run?
A. Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

SECOND WITNESS

D-91606, NSM BALLER, P.P., No. 1 CASCRU, sworn, states:-

Q. On 14 Mar 45 were you driving with the accused?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Just before the accident, was the accused on his own side of the road?
A. Yes, Sir, just about as far as he could get.

Q. Did you meet another vehicle?
A. Yes.

Q. Was the other vehicle over the centre line prior to the accident?
A. That I couldn't say, it must have been to cut into the two rear tires.

Q. Where were you looking at the time?
A. I was looking ahead.

Q. Did you see the other vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir, it was about 40 feet ahead of us. It was pretty close to the centre of the road at the time; that is, the front was, Sir.

Q. What is the approximate width of the lorry in which you were driving?
A. 7 feet.

Q. Did you hear the accused blow his horn on that day?
A. No, Sir.

Q. How many wheels on that lorry?
A. 8, Sir.

Q. Are they flush with the chassis of the vehicle?
A. With the side of the body, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. Did you consider it your duty as a senior NCO to order the accused to be careful or to take certain precaution in this case?
A. No, Sir, I had every confidence in the accused's driving.

Q. Did you notice the posn of the boom of the crane?
A. Yes, Sir, it was in a forward posn.

Q. Do you consider that the posn of the boom might have presented an obstruction to the crane dvr's vision?
A. It could, Sir.

Q. Explain to the Court the relative clearance between the greatest overhaul width of the accused's vehicle and the width of the front tires?
A. It was an inch/on each side of the two front mudguards wider than the rear tires.

Q. In your own opinion, could it have been reasonable for the accused to assume rear clearance of his vehicle after the front fender had passed an obstruction?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was the accused driving without care or caution at the time of the accident?
A. No, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. If you had been driving, would you have done anything different?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Was the accused under instructions?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Was there an "L" sign on the vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did this have anything to do with the dvr?
A. No, Sir, he is the instr on the vehicle.

Q. Did you measure the road?
A. I took the approximate width, Sir; I had nothing to measure it with.

Q. What was the accused's vehicle width?
A. It was about 7 feet, Sir. I had nothing to measure it.

Q. Was the accused's vehicle a left or right-hand drive?
A. A left-hand drive, Sir.

Q. Were you watching the space between the two vehicles?
A. Yes, Sir, as close as I got.

Q. Where was the accused?
A. Over by the bank.

Q. Did you see anything that would cause you to tell him to stop?
A. No, Sir, both dvrs seemed to be driving with care.

Q. Did you see what points collided?
A. No, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

THIRD WITNESS

Lt J.H. Tappin, No. 1 CASCRU, sworn, states:-

Q. (Pointing to Ex "A") Did you make this drawing?
A. Yes, Sir, it is the drawing of the portion of the road between Gordon and Headley as the place was indicated to me by the Road Accident Report.

Q. Are the facts true on Ex "A"?
A. Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P 83 (B).

FOURTH WITNESS

D-91702, MSS JOHNSTON, W., No. 1 CASCRU, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you tell the Court what your job is at No. 1 CASCRU?
A. I am Mech S/Sgt employed in the workshop and we do the repairs.

Q. What are your qualifications?
A. I am an MVA Fitter.

Q. On or about the 14 March, did you check up the damages on MV CH4017440?
A. I cannot remember.

Q. You gave the number of a vehicle on the taking of the summary is that number correct?
A. I cannot say, Sir.

Q. On or about the 14 Mar, did you see the accused drive the vehicle into you?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did he ask you to check the vehicle?
A. Not the accused but Lt Marshall.

Q. Did you check it?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. What did you find wrong with the vehicle?

A. The two rear tires were cut and the fender and the rim were bent.

Q. Can you estimate what it will cost to repair these?
A. I cannot remember.

Q. Do you remember giving evidence at the taking of the summary?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Is that evidence correct?
A. I can't say, Sir, I signed some slips at the time.

Q. Were they correct?
A. I don't know, I didn't check if they were right.

Q. (Showing him some figures) Did you at any time make this list of figures?
A. No, Sir.

(The witness retired to refer to his memo)

Q. Can you now give the Court your estimate of the cost of repair?
A. I estimate that to vulcanize the two tires would cost £8-19-00 and the labour for straightening the fender 1½ hr or 4/6, making a total of £9-3-6.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Have these repairs been done?
A. I believe so, Sir.

Q. What did they actually cost?
A. I don't know, Sir.

Q. Do you know that the accused straightened out the rim and fender himself?
A. I believe he did, Sir.

STATEMENT BY THE DAT OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

I submit there is no case against the accused. He is charged with negligence (Read Note to AA 40). Nothing in the evidence even suggests negligence. On the contrary the evidence shows that the accused drove slowly and carefully, was fully over on his own side of the road, and the road, while narrow, was wide enough for both to safely pass. There was inadvertently some slight accident but in no way due to any culpable negligence. The accused was on the left-hand side of the vehicle. He was relying on his Sr NCO i/c the vehicle, who was on the right-hand side, who said the accused was going slowly and carefully. This NCO says he was satisfied they could safely pass. He was watching closely as he was sitting nearer to the middle of the road and he saw no occasion to tell Robson to stop. He states he would have done what Robson did. I submit this is not evidence of any negligence.

STATEMENT BY THE PROS OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

We submit that there is a good charge and that we have brought the evidence out, taking into consideration the width of Neale's vehicle, 8 feet wide, and the accused's vehicle, approx 7 feet wide, and the other conditions, namely that the road was approx 15 feet wide, which by pure arithmetic would leave no space at all for the vehicles to pass. Neale was over the centre of the road; with this being so it was a physical impossibility for the two vehicles to pass each other. Therefore, the accused drove at his own peril when he proceeded on down the road and without stopping. I will go back to a certain law case, Sir. It was Davis versus Brewster. An oncoming dvr saw and proceeded right over a donkey in the middle of a road and killed it. The Court held that the oncoming dvr should have stopped. The oncoming dvr had the last chance of avoiding the accident. So it is with this case. The oncoming vehicle should have stopped. We have Neale over the centre of the road. We have a lorry 8 feet wide. We have the accused's lorry 7 feet wide; that coupled with the fact that Neale was coming around the corner and it was natural for him to swing out and the natural swing for him would be to go towards the centre of the road. On the other hand, it was natural for the accused to hold the outside of the road. Would you see that Neale was coming up a grade and couldn't pull off quickly? Would you also see that it would be a very tough squeeze for him to get pass and that again must be coupled with the fact that Robson was on the left-hand side of his vehicle and being an instr he should have stopped then. He, in fact, gave Neale no chance whatsoever. The Common Law also lays down that accidents are inevitable unless due allowance is made for possible errors on the part of others. We say that Neale was in the wrong in two places, in that he was over the centre of the road. Also, if one was driving at 10 mi per hour and the accused was going between 5 and 6 mi per hour they would pass each other at about 16 mi and the prosecution claims it was too fast if all these points are taken into consideration. The prosecution submit that Neale was over the centre of the road and we are submitting that the accused was on his own side of the road; we do not deny that. The accused had the last chance of avoiding the accident, had he stopped. It is contributory neglect. In this case Robson had the last chance of avoiding the accident, had he stopped and giving Neale a fair chance of pulling in. Actually they did meet. "Accidents are inevitable unless due allowance is made on the part of others". What allowance did Robson give for the errors on the part of Neale?

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF B.139719 Pte. (a/Cpl) Charles Garnet Robson, RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st WITNESS (For the prosecution) L.59665 Pte. (a/L/Cpl) Neale, W.A., RCOC, on strength of # 4 V.R.D. (CCOD), having been duly sworn states:-

I am L.59665 Pte. (a/L/Cpl) Neale, W.A., RCOC, on strength of # 4 V.R.D. (CCOD). I was driving Cl-4276391 from 4 VRD to 1 VRD on 14 Mar 45 at approx 1500 hrs. I was on the road between Linford and Headley, travelling towards Headley. I had just rounded a sharp curve on the road when I came upon a Diamond T Tractor without trailer and bearing an "L" sign. I was going up hill in second gear at a speed of approx 5 to 8 mph. Although the road is narrow there appeared to be sufficient room to pass and as the vehs neared each other I crowded over to the left side of the road as far as possible. There are high embankments on each side of the road which leaves no room for any road shoulder. We had almost past each other when the right wheel of the other veh caught the front bumper of my veh. Both of us stopped and on getting out I paced off the road where we collided and it was approx 15' wide and the width of the Diamond T was 7'

I am D.91606 M.S.M. Baller, D., RCASC, on strength of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. While riding as spare driver in WD Veh No CH-4217445 travelling from Headley to Borden at approx 1500 hrs 14 Mar 45 did witness an accident at MR-25275568 as follows;

At the point along the road indicated by MR-25275568 the road bends and is very narrow allowing just enough room for two fair sized vehicles to pass this point at one time. As we reached the bend we met a Michigan Crane coming from the opposite direction. Cpl Robson, driver of WD veh No CH-4217445 in which I was riding drove his veh as close to the bank on his side of the road as possible in order to allow sufficient room for the other veh to pass, but the bumper of the Crane was protruding too far over the right side of the road and as a result caught the two rear tires of our vehicle cutting them both. Our speed at the time of the accident was approx 10 mph.

1st Witness for the Prosecution, M.9626 L/Cpl Gentry, R.D., R.C.C.S., No.1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit, having being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q4 - Will you give the Court your number, rank, name, initials and your unit?
A4 - I am L/Cpl Gentry, R.D., M.9626 of No.1 Cdn Sigs Holding Unit.
Q5 - I want you to tell the Court the story of what happened on the 10th day of July, 1941, as you saw it?
A5 - On the afternoon of 10th of July, I was working in my larder. I heard an argument in the kitchen. I walked out to see what it was, thinking that some of the fatigue men were arguing. As I came out past the tables I found Sgt. Robson and Pte. Reilly arguing. I didn't see the start of it. By the time I got around the end of the table Pte. Reilly had a hold of Sgt. Robson by the shirt. I took a hold of Sgt. Robson and pulled him apart. By that time there were a couple of blows struck. I don't know who struck the first blow. Then Sgt. Robson told me to go down to the Orderly Room with him. Pte. Reilly went along with us. When we were going down the road Pte. Reilly said: "This is just what I wanted."
Q6 - What happened after that?
A6 - We went down to the Orderly Room.
Q7 - Were you with Sgt. Robson going down the road?
A7 - Yes, sir. Sgt. Robson and I were going down to the Orderly Room. Pte. Reilly went to the Medical Officer and we continued over to the Orderly Room. Sgt. Robson went into the Orderly Room and I stayed outside.

Q8 - What did he go there for?
A8 - I don't know sir.
Q9 - He didn't tell you?
A9 - No, sir.
Q10 - Do you know anything else?
A10 - No, sir, except that Sgt. Robson warned Pte. Reilly around 0900 hrs in the morning to quit talking behind his back.
A11 - The same day?
A11 - Yes, sir. He told Pte. Reilly to quit talking behind his back, in the mess hall, in the Soldiers' Club or anywhere else.
Q12 - What time of the day did you happen to see the fight?
A12 - Approximately 2.15 in the afternoon.
Q13 - You say that you were in the pastry room?
A13 - No, sir, in the larder room, next to my meat room.
Q14 - What attracted you to go outside?
A14 - Raised voices.
Q15 - Did you hear any particular voice?
A15 - No, sir, I just heard high voices. It is quite a distance between the larder room, and the place where the argument was going on.
Q16 - Did you recognize any voice?
A16 - No, sir.
Q17 - You came out to see what the trouble was?
A17 - Yes, sir, I was 2 i/c of the kitchen.
Q18 - After you had got around the table how far were you away from Sgt. Robson?
A18 - About six to eight feet.
Q19 - Reilly was there?
A19 - Yes, sir.
Q20 - You are about six to eight feet from Sgt. Robson now, do you recognize him?
A20 - Yes, sir.
Q21 - He was the man?
A21 - Yes, sir.
Q22 - Were there any people around?
A22 - Yes, sir.
Q23 - How many were there?
A23 - I couldn't tell you, there were a number of fellows, and more came as I came around the table.
Q24 - Surrounding the two of them?
A24 - Yes, sir,
Q25 - You didn't see very much?
A25 - No, sir.
Q26 - You heard voices?
A26 - Yes, sir, I couldn't understand them.
Q27 - You say you separated them?
A27 - Yes, sir.
Q28 - You went behind the table?
A28 - There were two tables. I went between them.
Q29 - You went around this little crowd of men between you and the accused?
A29 - Yes, sir.
Q30 - What happened when you did get around the crowd and actually saw Robson and Reilly full on. Did you heard any words spoken?
A30 - No, sir. When I got around I grabbed Robson from behind and a couple of the other boys caught Reilly and we pulled them apart.

Q31 - Will you explain what made you grab Sgt. Robson?
A31 - Well, he was closest to me and I figured if I could grab one of them I could stop the fight.
Q32 - What happened was you grabbed Sgt. Robson. Did you hear any words after that?
A32 - No, sir.
Q33 - Nobody said a word?
A33 - No, sir, because I pulled him apart and a couple of others grabbed Reilly and I think Robson said something to Reilly about going to the orderly room.
Q34 - But you couldn't swear to anything else?
A34 - No, sir.
Q35 - Previous to this disturbance you said Sgt. Robson warned Reilly to stop talking behind his back?
A35 - Yes, sir.
Q36 - Did that have any connection?
A36 - I think so, sir.
Q37 - How?
A37 - Sgt. Robson warned Reilly around nine o'clock in the morning to stop talking about him behing his back in the Soldiers' Club, the kitchen or anywhere else.
President - You heard him say that?
Witness - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q38 - One thing I want to clear up. During the disturbance....The question that was asked, I think you misunderstood it.....These people that were milling around, you didn't mean the people responsible for the fight, you meant the men next to you?
A38 - Yes, sir.
Q39 - You said you didn't know who struck the first blow. I suggest it might have been Reilly.
A39 - It might have been, I couldn't say.
Q40 - You mentioned that you saw Reilly grab Sgt. Robson by the shirt?
A40 - Yes, sir.
Q41 - Would you say it was a deliberate movement?
A41 - I don't know whether he was protecting himself or making a grab at Sgt. Robson.
Q42 - Was it a definite movement?
A42 - He kind of swung his arm; whether he meant to hit him or hold him by the arm I don't know.
Q43 - The possibility is you might think it could have been the beginning of a blow?
A43 - It could have, sir.
Q44 - What do you think Reilly meant when, after he had been struck by Sgt. Robson, he said "That is just what I want."
A44 - He has said before in the kitchen, it is quite a while ago, that he would strip him. Whether it was just talk or not I don't know.
Q45 - Would you say Reilly is a trouble maker?
A45 - Very erratic, sir, I have heard him bawl men out at the steam table and at the tables.
Q46 - Has he ever been in any other fights?
A46 - Not to my knowledge. I have heard of one or two others but I have only heard of them.

Questions by the Court.

Q47 - Somewhere at the first of your evidence you said you didn't know who struck the first blow. Did you see any struck?
A47 - Arms were swinging but I couldn't see whose was the first blow.
Q48 - Did you see each man striking?
A48 - Both arms were striking back and forth.
Q49 - You are quite sure they were hitting each other?
A49 - I think so.
Q50 - But you are not sure?
A50 - No, sir, I am not sure.

Second witness for the prosecution, C-5175, Pte. Reilly, R., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q51 - Would you identify yourself by giving your number, name and rank to the Court?
A51 - C-5175, Pte. Reilly, R., Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment, on the strength of No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit.
Q52 - Will you tell us what happened on the 10th July, Pte. Reilly?
A52 - Yes, sir, just exactly what happened on the 10th July. I was in the kitchen in the pastry room helping to make up some buns and I took the pan of buns to the steam table. I closed the door there and walked around to get an empty pan and on my way back Sgt. Robson was using abusive language to Carrignan.
Q53 - How far away from you was he?
A53 - About five feet, sir, between five and six feet.
Q54 - Did you hear what he was saying?
A54 - I didn't hear. All I did hear was he was swearing and he left Pte. Carrignan and came over to me and shook his finger in front of my face and said "You cock-sucking son of a bitch, I will tear your fucking heart out." And I said having the rank he had that was no way to talk and he said "I don't give a fuck" and he struck me. On the way from the kitchen after the scrap was over, Sgt. Robson, L/Cpl. Gentry and myself came out and he used quite a lot of slang words which I paid no attention to and he left me at the barracks on the parade square there and instead of me going to the orderly room I let him go and I followed on. I followed on because I was going down to the other hut and thought I would change my shirt and when I got inside the hut I said "I guess I will keep it on and go just the way I am" which I did. I paraded myself in front of C.S.M. Clarke and he paraded me in front of Capt. Kennedy.
Q55 - This shirt that you mention; I have a shirt here which I want you to identify. Will you absolutely -- does this look like a shirt you have seen before?
A55 - Yes, sir, that looks like my shirt.
Q56 - Tell me about this shirt. Whose shirt is it?
A56 - It belongs to me.
Q57 - How can you identify it?
A57 - There are no marks but it is mine.
Q58 - Have there been any tears in that shirt since it was handed in to the adjutant and put in his custody?
A58 - That is quite a hard thing to say, sir.

The prosecutor produces in evidence a torn under-shirt which is alleged to be the property of Pte. Reilly. This evidence is accepted by the Court.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q59 - Before you came down to the kitchen that afternoon where had you been?
A59 - I was in the club and had one glass of beer.
Q60 - I have just asked where you had been. Had you been in the Soldiers' Club?
A60 - Yes, sir.
Q61 - Was anybody with you?
A61 - No, sir, I was drinking alone.
Q62 - Drinking alone?
A62 - Definitely. I just had the price of one glass of beer and that was all I had.
Q63 - Have you ever had any fights in the cookhouse?
A63 - Not what you could call a fight.
Q64 - What do you consider a fight?
A64 - Blow for blow.
Q65 - That is the only one you have had?
A65 - That is the only one I have been in.
Q66 - When you first joined the unit it was at Tournay lines?
A66 - Yes, sir.
Q67 - Did you not have the impression when you came there that you were to take charge of the cookhouse?
A67 - I definitely didn't.
Q68 - You didn't?
A68 - No.

Re-examination by the prosecutor.

Q69 - Will you tell the Court who struck the first blow?
A69 - Sgt. Robson struck the first blow and I think he got me with the ring on his finger and when he drew blood I caught hold of him to defend myself.
Q70 - You have said this was the first fight in the cookhouse?
A70 - Yes, sir.
Q71 - Blow for blow?
A71 - Right.
Q72 - Did you give a blow for every blow you received?
A72 - I didn't strike him once because in the first place I have only two fingers on this hand and a thumb, and only three and a thumb on this. I swear I never touched him if God were to crack me dead right here.
Q73 - Have you any reason why this should happen to you?
A73 - I had no reason to think it was coming.

Third witness for the prosecution, D-23308, C.S.M. Clarke, A., No. 1 Cdn. Signald Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q74 - Will you identify yourself by giving your number, name and rank to the Court?
A74 - D-23308, C.S.M. Clarke, A., Headquarterw Company, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit.
Q75 - Will you tell your story of what happened in this case?
A75 - I am C.S.M. of Headquarters Company. Pte. Reilly came to the orderly room with his shirt torn and I immediately asked him what he was doing going around barracks in that condition and he said he wished to lay a charge against Sgt. Robson for tearing his shirt and hitting him on the forehead. He had a cut over his right eye. I questioned him as to what it was all about and he said he had got into a fracas and Sgt. Robson had hit him and torn his shirt. I paraded him before the acting company commander and showed him the condition he was in. I was detailed to go to the kitchen and investigate Sgt. Robson's condition. I did so. I questioned Sgt. Robson and told him he was charged with striking Pte. Reilly and tearing his shirt. I reported back to Capt. Kennedy.
Q76 - Does that look like the shirt Reilly had on? (Indicates exhibit)
A76 - Yes, sir, that looks like it.
Q77 - Was it torn that much?
A77 - Torn on the right shoulder.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q78 - When Pte. Reilly came down to the company orderly room Capt. Kennedy asked you to investigate the case. Did you hear Sgt. Robson's side of the story?
A78 - Yes, sir.
Q79 - When?
A79 - In the cookhouse when I went to investigate.

Q82 - Do you recognize the accused, Sgt. Robson?
A82 - I do, sir.

A83 - On this date in the morning we were working around the cookhouse and Sgt. Robson came around and warned each individual in the cookhouse and every man in the cookhouse if they didn't stop talking about him both in the cookhouse and outside he would bring it to a head. In the afternoon at the particular time the incident occurred I was baking buns in the large baking oven and Pte. Reilly came out and put them on the steam table and was walking back to the pastry room when Sgt. Robson said "Come here, Reilly, I want to talk to you." Reilly said "If you have anything to say to me, say it right here in front of everyone here." Sgt. Robson warned him to not talk about him behind his back anywhere. At this time there was an argument back and forth between the two. I didn't catch all the argument and the next thing Reilly reached to grab Sgt. Robson by the arm and grabbed him by the shirt front and he held his hand up in this manner (indicates) whereupon Sgt. Robson warned him and there was a good deal of cursing on both sides and I can't remember the exact words and Sgt. Robson warned him and said "I am warning you" and after that he struck Reilly three or four blows and the boys got in between, including myself, and the next thing they were walking down the road.

Q84 - You saw all these actions?
A84 - Yes, sir.
Q85 - You said Reilly had his hand up here? (indicates)
A85 - Yes, sir.
Q86 - He made the first movement did he?
A86 - I would say so, sir.

Q89 - Did you feel at the time his action was one of defending himself?

Q155 - Then you don't know, do you?
A155 - No, sir.

Defending Officer - I intend to offer a defence if my application is denied, but in view of the contradiction between the witnesses and in view of the fact that the mere movement of the arm of Reilly as happening first constitutes common assault as laid down in Chapter Seven of the Manual (Reads) and as the evidence as offered by the prosecution shows that Reilly made the first movement, therefore I ask for dismissal on the ground that there was common assault against Sgt. Robson and therefore any act of Robson's part was in self-defence.

Prosecutor - It is for the Court to judge which witnesses were discredited. One, Gnr. Ashcroft, was not discredited. He stated that Reilly did not strike Sgt. Robson. There is the fact that it is claimed that Reilly was defending himself. The defence claims that Sgt. Robson was defending himself from common assault. Sgt. Robson showed his intention by his threatening attitude towards Carignan which was proven and not discredited and by his attitude and words used to Reilly. This points to the fact that the accused had in the back of his mind putting into effect what he actually said. The second point, even if the man did put up his arm in an effort that might have been thought of by the accused as an attack upon himself, Sgt. Robson is an n.c.o. and they do not strike signalmen. It was pointed out that Sgt. Robson warned him first and then struck him. He warned him about something. What he should have done was warn him and he could have ordered any one of a number of cooks to fall in as an escort. If there was any cause for discipline, Sgt. Robson seems to have taken it into his own hands.

Defending Officer - There is a very old saw that sticks and stones may break my bones.....No matter what threatening language may have been used, it does not constitute an assault. Capt. Millar points out that one witness out of eight says this was unprovoked. One witness that didn't see the arm go up. That arm going up, I submit as a point of law, is assault and many people may feel that if an arm is put in front of their face they are jum py and hit back. Then an n.c.o. never striking a signalman. I know very well if a signalman attacked me I would soon hit him. Self-defence is one of the first laws. I submit, rather than take up the time of the Court any further, this case be dismissed now as not proven; not sufficient evidence.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the motion.

The Court being re-opened the President states as follows:

President - The Court has duly considered the motion of the defending officer and has ruled that the motion for dismissal shall not be accepted and the trial will proceed.

Q156 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A156 - Yes, sir.
Q157 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A157 - Yes, sir.
Q158 - Is he a witness as to character only?
A158 - No, sir, facts.

First witness for the defence, M-9090, Sgt. Robson, J., No. 1 Odn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q159 - Will you give your number, name, rank and unit, please?
A159 - M-9090, Sgt. Robson, J., no. 1 Odn. Signals Holding Unit.
Q160 - I want you to tell the story in your own words, starting from why you objected to remarks being passed about you down to the time this argument started.

A160 - B[illegible] several [illegible] camp and I had w[illegible] had come into the unit over Reilly who was one of the cooks and over the kitchen and he seemed [illegible] me stripped. This had been going on for [illegible] to have Reilly taken out of the kitchen and replaced and this wasn't done. I had him placed over inthe Sergeants' Mess to save inconvenience and to save trouble in the cookhouse of the men's mess. The day in question, it was in the morning time the day before, I had heard Reilly using criticizing and provoking remarks and they were hard to take and got under my skin and I went to him and said "For Christ's sake, this has got to fucking well stop, I don't want to charge you." He has a sneering way and at this time just gave me a laugh and I let it go. Around the noon hour, 1245, I enquired where Reilly and two or three other cooks were and they said over in the Soldiers' Club. When they came back in I paid no attention. I have a cousin working in the club who was reared by my parents and she writes to my wife and she has told about him calling me a rotter and has asked why I worked the boys so hard, she has asked me on several occasions why and I told her I had to have the food produced. Around half past one or two o'clock I seen Reilly just before putting the pans in the oven and I said "Reilly, you had better stop talking about me behind my back" and he said very quietly in a sneering remark "Oh, go fuck yourself". When I came over later he gave me another sneer and I said "You are going to stop talking about me or I will take you down before the colonel" and I said "Come here, I want to talk to you anyway." I wanted to draw him over by the french fry out of the way to one side and he said in a low voice, "Fuck you" and he said in a loud voice "Say what you have to say here." I started to use abusive language and told him what I thought of him, that he was a rat and he then grabbed a hold of my shirt and raised his hand seemingly to strike me. In my excitement when he raised his hand, and in the second when he grabbed my shirt and raised his hand, I struck him first. I was excited and the boys came and drew me away. This had been leading up for several months and he had threatened to strip me.

Q161 - You say you sent Reilly to the Sergeants' Mess; why didn't he stay there?

A161 - There was the same trouble over there and the sergeant-major had me take him out of there.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q162 - These irritating remarks, were they personal or could you indicate?

A162 - They were very personal to me as a sergeant cook. I had to see these men fed and if Reilly didn't do his work I had to pull him up and he had the idea in his head that I was a rotter and a dirty cur and a rotter and had been going over to the Soldiers' Club and had been criticizing and telling my cousin that I was a no-good and a rotter and not fit to be a sergeant and things like that. It was common knowledge throughout the camp that it was this man's attitude.

Q163 - You knew this was going on. I know you would have to have food produced and the pressure was turned on all cooks. You might have thought you needed Reilly, but did you need him so much that you stood it and refused to bring him up?

A163 - In the cookhouse we have to take a lot of things into consideration. I asked that Reilly be taken out of the cookhouse and Capt. Kennedy couldn't see his way clear. I sent him to the sergeants' mess to make it an easier kitchen for everyone concerned.

Questions by the Court.

Q164 - Have you any idea why he should make these remarks about you?

A164 - I was with the General Holding Unit which comprised all holding units at the beginning of last May and when the Signals was formed they more or less formed the cookhouse with it and I was with the General Holding Unit and previously with the Signals. When they formed up they went to Tournay Barracks and the corporal cook was in charge while I was at the General. Reilly had the idea he was being taken A160 - Sir, as sergeant I come over Reilly who was one of the cooks and several times he had made agitating remarks behind my back in my camp and I had warned him but it seemed to be of no use. Reilly had come into the unit under the impression that he was to take over the kitchen and he seemed to be out to get me and out to have me stripped. This had been going on for months and I had asked to have Reilly taken out of the kitchen and replaced and this wasn't done. I had him placed over inthe Sergeants' Mess to save inconvenience and to save trouble in the cookhouse of the men's mess. Q164 - Have you any idea why he should make these remarks about you?

A164 - I was with the General Holding Unit which comprised all holding units at the beginning of last May and when the Signals was formed they more or less formed the cookhouse with it and I was with the General Holding Unit and previously with the Signals. When they formed up they went to Tournay Barracks and the corporal cook was in charge while I was at the General. Reilly had the idea he was being taken to be in charge of the kitchen. Then he had the idea that someone was going over his head. I had the same trouble in Tournay and I asked Capt. Kennedy to have him taken out of the kitchen. He has got a spiteful nature and every time I have pulled him up for coming up late it seemed to come out of him when I wasn't there or when he had a chance to get at me.

Q165 - Have you been sergeant of this cookhouse all the time?
A165 - Yes, sir.
Q166 - Ever since Reilly was taken on? You were there before him?
A166 - Originally, sir, with the R.C.C.S. in Canada. I came over with my brigade which formed the General Holding Unit and some were picked up by General Ashton when the General Holding Unit was formed. I was with the General Holding Unit until the colonel -- Col. Tyner -- had me brought back to the ~~xxxxxxx~~ Signals when the Signals formed as a holding unit by themselves.
Q167 - When did Reilly come in?
A167 - Just previous to that. I was held back with the General Holding Unit until six weeks after the Signals was formed. Cpl. Simcox was in charge.
Q168 - You were sergeant right from the beginning over him?
A168 - I was sergeant with the General Holding Unit and he was in the kitchen and he figured he was in charge of the cookhouse.
Q169 - Was he ever in charge at any time?
A169 - No, sir, the only time he could be in charge was when an n.c.o. was missing.

Re-examination by the defending officer

Q170 - From the very beginning and before you came, Cpl. Simcox was in charge and Reilly was under him?
A170 - Yes, sir.

Questions by the Court.

Q171 - Are you a lance-sergeant?
A171 - No, sir.
Q172 - You are confirmed in your rank?
A172 - Yes, sir.

Second witness for the defence, H-3570, Sgt. Simcox, J., No. 1 Gdn. Engineer Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q173 - Will you give your number, name, rank, unit and what you are doing?
A173 - I am H-3570, Sgt. Simcox, J., No. 1 Engineer Holding Unit, sergeant cook.
Q174 - Where were you before you went to the Engineer Holding Unit?
A174 - No. 1 Signals Holding Unit, sir.
Q175 - What was your rank?
A175 - Corporal cook.
Q176 - How long had you been corporal cook at Signals?
A176 - Eight months.
Q177 - Were you the corporal cook who opened the kitchen at the beginning?
A177 - Yes, sir.
Q178 - Did you have Pte. Reilly with you at the start?
A178 - Yes, sir.
Q179 - Did you have any trouble with Pte. Reilly with regard to control in the kitchen? If so, tell us.
A179 - Reilly reported to me the first morning there and I ordered him to do something and he said he didn't see why he had to take orders from me and he said he had been sent to take charge and he didn't see why he should take orders from me.
Q180 - Did you ever hear Reilly threaten Sgt. Robson when he came six weeks after?
A180 - A couple of weeks afterwards he threatened to have him stripped. He was going to have a fight with him one afternoon.
Q181 - What kind of an influence did you find Reilly?
A181 - Very trying to get along with at times.
Q182 - Did you ever have any personal trouble with him?
A182 - Not at Tournay Barracks.
Q183 - On March 1st?
A183 - Yes, sir.

Q184 - What happened?
A184 - We got into an argument.
Q185 - What kind?
A185 - A fist fight.
Q186 - Blow for blow?
A186 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q187 - How do you happen to remember it was March 1st when you had this fist fight?
A187 - I went to the Engineer Holding Unit on the 25th March and it was two or three weeks before.
Q188 - That was a long time ago and yet the evidence given here is on oath. The information we want here is to clear up a case. You are here to help operate the thing. You are not the accused, you are purely giving evidence. We don't want concocted evidence.
A188 - I have not concocted any evidence, sir.

Third witness for the defence, D-32015, Pte. Povey, G., Canadian Training School, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q189 - Will you give your name, rank, number and unit?
A189 - Pte. Povey, G., D-32015, C.T.S.
Q190 - What do you do at C.T.S?
A190 - I am working in the cookhouse at Signals.
Q191 - Do you know Pte. Reilly in the Signals Holding Unit?
A191 - Yes, sir.
Q192 - Tell me what you know about Reilly.
A192 - As far as I know we got along pretty well but we had an argument. We had been drinking at the Soldiers' Club and went back to the cookhouse and had a little argument there and I hit him once and Sgt. Simcox came in and separated us.
Q193 - Is that all you know about Reilly?
A193 - We worked together ever since October.
Q194 - But you had a fight in the cookhouse?
A194 - I would say an argument, not what I would call a fight.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q195 - You say you had a fight?
A195 - An argument, I hit him once.
Q196 - Just a family squabble among cooks?
A196 - Yes, sir.
Q197 - What caused it?
A197 - He said something to me and I said something and he picked it up again and I can't remember what he said.
Q198 - You say you had both been drinking?
A198 - It was seven-thirty when we went in and closing time when we came out.
Q199 - How long ago was that?
A199 - Five months ago; I have been away three months.
Q200 - You haven't forgotten that occasion?
A200 - No, sir.
Q201 - Did Reilly seem to have trouble with the corporal cook or anyone in charge at that time?
A201 - No, sir, not to my knowledge.
Q202 - Did he go around the country trying to be obnoxious?
A202 - No, sir.

Re-examination by the defending officer.

Q203 - Did Reilly not strike back?
A203 - No, he never struck back.

Defending Officer - I have called this witness and in view of the fact he is not giving the story he gave me before, I wish to have him declared a hostile witness by the Court.

Witness - This morning when you were over you asked me if he raised his hand to hit back.

Q204 - Did you have a fight?
A204 - If I remember rightly I said I hit him once. He walked around the side of the table and he said he would hit me but I got in the first blow.

Defending Officer - This witness isn't telling the same story as this morning but I don't want to squabble about it.

Fourth witness for the defence, L-22441, Sigmn. Foley, W.A., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q205 - You are L-22441, Sgmn. Foley, W.A., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit?
A205 - Yes, sir.
Q206 - What do you do in the holding unit?
A206 - Cooking.
Q207 - Where do you work?
A207 - In the cookhouse.
Q208 - Do you know Sgt. Robson?
A208 - Yes, sir.
Q209 - Do you know Pte. Reilly?
A209 - Yes, sir.
Q210 - Have you ever heard Pte. Reilly say anything regarding Sgt. Robson and, if so, what?
A210 - On one occasion he came in one night with Cpl. O'Brien and Sgmn. Innes and I were night cooks and Sgmn. Drury was in the kitchen and he came in with Cpl. O'Brien and Reilly was in a bad mood and looking for Sgt. Robson and said he was going to tear him to pieces. They waited for a while and Cpl. O'Brien said "Come down to bed" but he said he was going to wait and then started after O'Brien and then went down to Sgt. Robson's room because we were in bed next day, Innes and I, and Reilly was talking to us and Sgt. Robson said someone told him that he was going to tear him to pieces. On another occasion, on a Sunday, Sgt. Robson had spoken to Reilly regarding cooking that hadn't been done properly and he was in a bad mood that day and he was making a lot of threats.
Q211 - Did you ever know Reilly to make any out-burst which was uncontrollable?
A211 - When he was drinking he generally had more to say than when he was sober.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q212 - What was the reason for Reilly making all these remarks about Sgt. Robson?
A212 - Well I couldn't give you any reason unless there always seemed to.... It seems that Reilly used to work in the Sergeants' Mess and was moved to the men's mess but I don't know if they had any argument before that but I think he resented that and when he had a drink or two he became nasty.
Q213 - Did Reilly like working in the cookhouse?
A213 - I couldn't tell you that, sir.
Q214 - Are you happy in the cookhouse?
A214 - I have got along quite well with Sgt. Robson. He has always been very fair with me and I have never heard him run down any of his men.

Fifth witness for the defence, C-64457, Sgmn. Innes, O.R., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q215 - Will you give your name, number, rank and unit?
A215 - C-64457, Sgmn. Innes, O.R., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit.
Q216 - Do you know Pte. Reilly who works in the cookhouse?
A216 - Yes, sir.
Q217 - What do you know about him?
A217 - I have worked with him in the kitchen.
Q218 - How does he react towards authority?
A218 - How do you mean?
Q219 - How does he like authority over him?
A219 - He doesn't get along any too well with Sgt. Robson. He seems to back-bite him and threatens him.
Q220 - Threatens what?
A220 - To get him.

Q221 - Other than this fight we are dealing with now, do you know of anything else?
A221 - I did, sir, one night he came in to the cookhouse between nine and ten and said you have just missed the fun.
Q222 - Who was the fight between?
A222 - I don't know, I wasn't there.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q223 - You say Reilly was back-biting and making a lot of remarks. Just what kind of remarks?
A223 - I couldn't tell you the exact words, I just heard him talking.
Q224 - Can you give us even one word?
A224 - He was talking with other guys and saying this and that.
Q225 - Did he say anything to you that you know of?
A225 - Well, he came into the kitchen one night and said "I wish he was in here now, I'd punch his nose in." I think that was what he said.
Q226 - Had he been drinking?
A226 - Just a little I suppose. He had a few beers and was mad and I quietened him down.
Q227 - Do you think Reilly had any reason for saying that?
A227 - None at all, the sergeant never done anything that I know of to make him [redacted].
Q228 - Yet you say he was back-biting. I can't see any facts which would show he was slandering Sgt. Robson. Do you understand what I mean? Have you got any actual case where Reilly would say something which really was harmful to Sgt. Robson?
A228 - I just can't say that but I think I can remember him talking. I don't remember what the words were.

Re-examination by the defending officer.

Q229 - I am not going to ask you for definite words, but I am wanting to know if the general trend of the conversation that was generally held as far as Reilly was concerned was nasty?
A229 - At times I have heard it.

Questions by the Court

Q230 - Did Reilly have any reason to talk about the sergeant?
A230 - I don't know.
Q231 - Was Reilly the only person going about talking about Sgt. Robson?
A231 - No, I wouldn't say that as other guys were talking about him too.
Q232 - When Reilly does his grousing or back-biting does he refer to anyone in particular?
A232 - Just grumbling.

Lieut. H.S. Smith, defending officer, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, produces statement of evidence by Capt. C. Kennedy, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit. The submission of this document is not contested by the prosecution and it is accepted in evidence by the Court.

Sixth witness for the defence, M-9001, R.S.M. Watt, K.M., No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q233 - Would you give your name, rank, number and unit to the Court?
A233 - M-9001, R.S.M. K.M. Watt, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit.
Q234 - Did you have, at one time, a Pte. Reilly as cook in the Sergeants' Mess?
A234 - Yes, sir.
Q235 - Would you kindly tell us why he left?
A235 - We found, or at least believe, that he could be a little better and we had a number of complaints from members of the mess that he tended to be slightly insolent. We had no personal complaints but he proceeded on leave and we got a replacement and found him to be doing a good job at the time Reilly came back and he never came in again.
Q236 - Do you recognize that document and that signature? (Shows witness Capt. Kennedy letter)
A236 - Yes, sir.
Q237 - Whose signature is that?
A237 - Capt. Kennedy, A.D. Officer, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit. That is your signature.

Q236 - Where was that taken?
A236 - Mons Barracks, Aldershot.

Questions by the Court.

Q239 - In what capacity was Reilly working in the Sergeants' Mess?
A239 - Cook in charge.
Q240 - Then it was quite a come-down to be put in the men's mess?
A240 - We didn't know the cooks very well at that time and I didn't wish to recommend anybody until we knew what it was all about. I am a firm believer in making a man earn any rank he gets. As a matter of fact did pay him in addition to his regular pay.

Defending Officer

Q241 - He had worked in the men's mess before going to the sergeants' mess?
A241 - Yes, sir.
Q242 - So that would be quite a step-up too?
A242 - Yes, sir.

Closing address by the defending officer.

I think it has been proven that Reilly has been causing the trouble. He has been an insolent and disturbing influence practically everywhere he has gone. Sgt. Robson has been tolerant and I think we all know that a men's mess is not a parade ground and it has to be run somewhat on civilian lines. He, Reilly, lied in his evidence. He said he had never had a fight in the kitchen. He also stated he never had any idea when he came to Tournay Barracks that he was to take over the cookhouse. He made continuous threats to have Sgt. Robson stripped and has been carrying tales, whatever they are, to someone a close relative of Sgt. Robson who is in communication with his relatives at home. He irritated Sgt. Robson and Sgt. Robson spoke to him about it. Sgt. Robson is a very good man in the mess and through his not being in the mess at present people are suffering in the way of food. There hasn't been sufficient evidence brought forward to show there was no common assault. It is very doubtful that Sgt. Robson struck the first blow out of malice. There is all sorts of evidence to show this man raised his hand in such a way as to make him believe he would be struck and therefore he defended himself. The witnesses, some for the prosecution, were not quite as credible as they might be. Working under a strain is likely to fray anyone's nerves and I might say the dog days might excuse Reilly but they don't as a fomenter of trouble and a liar he has placed a sergeant on trial before a court. A sergeant who has done his job and he has taken up the time of the court and I feel the case isn't proven against Sgt. Robson and I feel the case should be dismissed. Well, I won't say anything about Reilly.

Closing address by the prosecutor.

The charge reads Section 37(1) which is before the Court. Striking a private soldier in that he at Guadaloupe Barracks did strike Pte. Reilly cutting his forehead and tearing his shirt. Credibility of witnesses presented on both sides is for the Court to judge. Whether or not from those witnesses the Court can judge whether it was common assault against Sgt. Robson, that is also for the Court to decide. It might have been aggravated, but it still remains that Sgt. Robson did strike a private soldier and the evidence is there to prove it. The fact was brought out by the defence that Sgt. Robson's absence from the 10th July from the cookhouse is noticeable. That is not brought forward in evidence. I suggest that it be deleted. The fact still remains that he did commit an offence under Section 37(1) of the Army Act.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Capt. A.M. Millar, No. 1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q243 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A243 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.
Q244 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A244 - Yes, sir.

Q245 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A245 - No, I have not, Mr. Smith is our Records Officer and he, I believe, has done so but I am not sure. I can only identify the adjutant's signature.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q246 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A246 - (Defending Officer) The fact that the accused is a sergeant speaks for itself. He must have gained the confidence of his superiors to become a sergeant. Not only that, but he is a confirmed sergeant. He has done a very fine job with the unit. He has two crimes one of which is only a matter of thirty-six hours and the other a crime for which a great many of us might fall by the way-side and have pinned on us. There is nothing very much more I have to offer, his record speaks for itself and I hope the Court will consider this in their finding and consider that the people who are over him have a great confidence in him.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

"I am C-41531 Sgmn Derby,A., No.1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit, On the afternoon in question, I was standing in the south east corner of the men's mess and heard a row by the second table. I looked up and saw Sigmn Reilly trying to protect himself from three or four blows delivered by Sgt. Robson, by putting up his arm. I did not see any of the row before this, nor did I hear any of the conversation passed. L/Cpl Gentry and Sgmn Cooke separated the two men

Question by Accused: "Did you hear more than one voice?"

Answer: "No."

Question "Did Pte Reilly have hold of my shirt?"

Answer: "No."

Question "When his arm was raised, had I struck him before then?"

Answer: "No, not to my knowledge."

Question: "Did he have his hand on my shirt?"

Answer: "Yes, it was on your shoulder."

~~M-9626~~ ~~E-6179~~ L/Cpl Gentry,H.D., (R.C.C.S.) No.1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit, Canadian Army (Overseas) having been duly sworn, states:

"I am ~~M-9626~~ ~~E-6179~~ L/Cpl Gentry, H.D. No.1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit. I was working in the larder at about 1415 hours on 10 Jul when I heard raised voices out in the kitchen. I walked out around the stove and steamer and between the first two tables and found Sgt. Robson and Pte Reilly each holding the other by the shirt. There was some swearing going on but no threatening language. I grabbed Sgt. Robson and held him. At the same time, blows were struck but I could not say by whom in the excitement. I could not swear which man did the striking. I did not see any of the fighting until I actually arrived by the table. I thought it was a couple of the fatigue men until then. The shirt, which Reilly had on (a white P.T. shirt) was ripped from shoulder to the waist.

Question : (Court) "Did you hear anything that would indicate the cause of the quarrel?"

Answer: "No.

Question (Accused: "Previous to this, have you ever heard Pte Reilly make

Answer: "No, the only thing I have heard him say, is that you were crazy and I have heard many of the men say that, in fact, I have myself, but it was only when you raised your voice or something like that in the mess."

Question: "Do you think Reilly irritable or aggravating?"

Answer: "Yes, I have heard him jump on the men who were getting served."

Question: Were you present on the morning of this incident, when I warned Pte Reilly to stop talking behind my back and backbiting?"

Answer: "Yes, I overheard you do so--you said something about stopping the talk behind your back, here, or over at the Soldiers' Club or anywhere else."

Court: "Have you heard Reilly say anything to or about Sgt. Robson which could be considered more than the usual soldiers remarks?"

Answer: "No."

Accused: "Did you hear Reilly s ay anything after we left the mess?"

Answer "Yes, on the way down, I heard Reilly say something which sounded like, this was just what I wanted."

Qourt: "Did you see any sign of a cut or wound on Pte.Reilly?"

C-5175 Pte Reilly, R. No.1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit, Canadian Army, Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am C-5175 Pte Reilly, R., No.1 Cdn. Signals Holding Unit. I was in the pastry room just before this thing happened, helping Sgmn Chantigny to make buns. I came out with a pan full and put them in one of the steamers. I then walked round to get another pan. I saw Sgt Robson bawling Carrignan out. Sgt Robson came over to me and shook his finger in front of my face and used abusing and threatening language to me. He then struck me and I grabbed him with both hands by the shirt on both sides of his shoulders. He struck me several times. I definitely did not strike him. We were separated by L/Cpl Gentry and Pte Cook.. We then both left the building with L/Cpl Gentry. I was going down to change my shirt, which was badly torn, but changed my mind and went to the Company Office and reported to C.S.M. Clarke and he paraded me in front of Capt Kennedy. This is the shirt which I had on at the time and which was torn by Sgt Robson when he grabbed a hold of me, and this is the cut which I received from a blow by Sgt.Robson. (Note: The shirt, a white undershirt, with tears on the shoulder was taken and retained. A small cut was observed over Reilly's right eye)

Capt Kennedy instructed me to investigate the case and find out whether there was evidence to support the charge. Reilly replied that if he had anything to say, to say it here in front of the others. Sgt Robson took Reilly by the arm as if to guide him away. They talked for a moment and Reilly grabbed Sgt Robson by the shirt. They argued for a moment and Sgt Robson said I am warning you apparently meaning that he didn't want any trouble as far as a fight was concerned. Then Sgt Robson struck Reilly four or five times. They were then pulled apart by several of the boys. I got in between them. There was swearing and threatening language but as I did not leave the stoves until the blows were struck, I could not say who said it. When I heard the beginning of the arguement, I watched the two of them until they were separated."

Court: "Didn't you think it strange that Reilly refused to go over to Sgt Robson when he was asked?"

Question: "Did you see Pte Reilly strike Sgt Robson at any time?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "When he had a hold on my shirt, did you see him

"I am D-36688 Gnr Caine, N.C. No.2 Company, No.1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit.
At the time I was returning with a broom from near the coal room and I heard Sgt Robson say to one of the men, a little French lad, that if he had any more from him he would take him outside and beat him up and then put him up for orders. The man replied that he could ~~xxx~~ do it any time he liked. Sgt Robson then spoke to Pte Reilly, and said "I want to see you outside." Pte Reilly said "If you want to talk to me, you can do it here." Sgt Robson swore at him and said he would beat his head off at the same time he shook his finger in his face. Reilly put his arm up in front of his face and then Sgt Robson struck him. Reilly grabbed the Sgts Shirt with both hands and then Sgt Robson hit him several times. The corporal and several of the boys grabbed Sgt Robson and I grabbed Reilly but he did not need holding as he did not make any attempt to go on, so I let him go. They walked out arguing.

Accused: "Could it appear that when Reilly put his arm up that he was going to strike me?"

Answer: "No, because you had threatened the french lad and then threatened Reilly, and if anyone had spoken to me in the same way I would have felt it necessary to protect myself."

Question: "Did not Reilly have a hold of my shirt when I struck him?"

Answer: "No, you struck him when he only had his arm up."

Question: "Did you hear Reilly make any remarks afterwards?"

Answer: "No."

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

H-17106 Private Robson, W.

Having been found guilty, it is the desire of the accused that the following be brought forward on his behalf.

Date of Enlistment: 24 Apr 40

Arrived Overseas: Aug 40

Reason For Enlisting: The accused firmly believed that he would be taking part in active operations against the enemy. Due only to the nature of this war he was not afforded the opportunity.

Employed and Trained as an Infantryman with the PPCLI until approximately July 41. Due to shortage of Cooks in Cdn Army at the time, he was persuaded to try his hand at cooking and eventually qualified as a Cook "C".

Injured. The accused broke his shoulder while on duty with the PPCLI in Apr 42. He spent six months in hospital and upon return to his unit found that cooks were no longer hard to get. Consequently, he was moved from unit to unit, eventually being transferred to ASC.

Family Trouble. The accused's mother had undergone and operation for cancer in 1933 and had been more or less an invalid since then. Just before Christmas, 1943 the accused heard that his mother was ill again and bed-ridden with Shingles and Gall-stones. He himself was being troubled by his injured shoulder, but all attempts on his part to obtain treatment were discouraged. (Exhibit "D")

SUMMARY:

The accused had been living a very unhappy life since his injury in April 42 and unfortunately had fallen into the category of the Army's "Forgotten men". A man who had once belonged to the PPCLI now found himself a man without a unit. He began to drift from unit to unit in the Army and could find no one who would take enough interest in him, even to obtain proper medical treatment for his injured and still painful shoulder. He was offered a lower medical category but the accused was not interested in this. He wanted his shoulder treated and restored to its original usefulness so that he could rejoin his old unit. This was denied him. After months of this treatment, the accused's morale and mental condition was very poor indeed.

However, he had found true friends in this country - civilian friends. When things became unbearable he went to these friends and after having listened to their words of comfort and advice returned to the Army voluntarily and gave himself up. The accused now desires only a fair chance to serve his country after he has undergone whatever punishment this Court sees fit to adjudge.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

DRAFT PROCEEDINGS OF COURT MARTIAL

FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL

A Field General Court Martial, Members as under, has convened at Delville Barracks, Cove, at 1000 hours Thursday, 30th October, 1941, for the purpose of trying one, A.21283 Pte. Paul Henry Rock of No. 1 Cdn. Gen. Holding Unit, :-

PRESIDENT: Major J.W. Wilkinson, No. 2 Arty Holding Unit

MEMBERS: Capt. D.F.Storey, No. 3 Infantry H. U.
Lieut. W.G. Shirk, No. 3 Infantry H.U.
Lieut. T.W. Macdonald, No. 2 Artillery H.U.

QUESTION: I will show you a document which purports to be a soldiers Pay Book issued to A.21283, Pte. Rock, Paul Henry. Do you recognize that document?

ANSWER: I Capt. R.F. Farniger, R.C.A.P.C., Paymaster, No.1 Cdn. General Holding Unit recognize this document as the Pay Book of Pte. Rock, P.H. On the 2nd October, 1941, I had this soldier paraded to my office to cancel an assignment of pay to the amount of $16.00 in favour of the Receiver General of Canada War Savings Certificates. On examination of the book, on pages 16 and 17, I noticed that the pay for July, August and September, 1941, had been entered in the Pay Book and that the name of B.M. Alway, Captain, appeared after these entries, purporting to be the signature of B.M. Alway, Captain. I recognized that this was not the signature of Captain B.M. Alway from previous knowledge of his signature and comparison with signatures on previous pages of the pay book.

I then turned to page 4 of the Pay Book and saw that the assignment of $16. in favour of the Receiver General of Canada War Savings Certificates had been deleted with lead pencil. I questioned the accused in the presence of my Corporal, Cpl. H. Fortnum, asking him who had made these entries in the Pay Book. He admitted that he had made the entries on pages 16 and 17 under reference and had signed the name of B.M. Alway, Captain. He also admitted that he had deleted the record of assigned on page 4.

QUESTION: What Captain, would be the effect if the entries being seen by the Paymaster who did not know the case?

ANSWER: The effect of the cancellation of the assigned pay on page 4 would be that he would still continue to receive the War Savings Certificates to the amount of $16. from the Receiver General of Canada each month and at the same time for the months of July, August and September. The amount credited to deferred pay would be released to reduce the debit balance caused in his pay book after forfeiture of pay covering approximately those three months.

QUESTION: Would a Paymaster, acting as a reasonable person, act on the entries you are referring to?

ANSWER: Paymasters are presumed to take reasonable precautions but with the volume of work which we are expected to do, it is impossible to check up on every entry, and, if on the face of things, the pay book appears to be correct, we have to reason to check up on previous entries.

QUESTION: Did you caution the accused before questioning him on this matter? Did you offer any inducements if he would tell you about the entries?

ANSWER: I did not.

QUESTION: Did you place him under any duress at all?

ANSWER: I did not.

QUESTION: Is it usual for a Paymaster to sign one signature for three months in a Pay Book.

ANSWER: It is not correct, but it is frequently done.

QUESTION: If a Paymaster signed the way it is signed in the pay book and then just filled in the first line would that not leave two lines open which might be filled in by any body and covered by his signature?

ANSWER: That is possible, but not the case in this instance.

QUESTION: Why?

ANSWER: That signature covers three lines.

QUESTION: The Paymaster does not pay three pays at once does he.

ANSWER: That depends upon where the man has been. I have seen cases where a soldier has been in a British Hospital and the pay has been entered for three successive months or more at one time.

QUESTION: A signature across three lines in the pay book is not strictly speaking, correct.

ANSWER: It is not, although I have seen hundreds of cases of the same thing being done.

QUESTION: On page 4, is it not usual that where an entry on assignment of pay or a cancellation of it is made, is it not usual for the entry or cancellation to be initialled by the officer making the entry?

ANSWER: It is not.

QUESTION: You stated that the effect of these alterations would be that the accused would continue to receive $16.00 from the same source or other and at the same time his $20.00 entry as deferred pay would be used to retire forfeiture of pay.

ANSWER: I do.

QUESTION: Is a soldiers pay book the only record of assignment of pay and deferred pay which a Paymaster relies upon?

ANSWER: In England, yes. That is, insofar as the Paymaster and the soldier are concerned. There are periodic audits of the pay books by treasury and these would eventually turn up when the pay book was forwarded for audit.

QUESTION: Then, if a soldier chose to strike out the amount and the name of the assignee on page four, would he do it with a new Paymaster who did not know his case? That Paymaster would rely on these strokes without further investi ation in handling that man's pay.

ANSWER: In the case of single personnel no further investigation would necessarily be entailed for the simple reason that in the United Kingdom all other ranks have their deferred or assigned pay according to their rank, and if the amount according to the rank was not withheld in the assigned pay column, it would be withheld in the deferred pay column.

QUESTION: I suggest that the pay book such as this in which there is no

deferred pay entered for June, or most of the preceding months, and on which page four the $18.00 and date after it is cancelled is pencil, and where one signature is used to cover three months, would not in fact, mislead a Paymaster who was being reasonably careful, so as to enable the accused to take advantage of the faults of the case?

ANSWER: Examination of this pay book shows that deductions have been made for deferred pay previous to June, 1941, and this amount and these amounts credited to deferred pay for July, August and September, 1941 would be released to reduce a debit balance for the forfeiture referred to in my previous evidence.

QUESTION: I did not mean, Sir, that if relied upon by the Paymaster, the accused could derive a deficiency, I mean to enquire whether in effect he would be likely to deceive a Paymaster in order that the accused derive a deficiency?

ANSWER: The policy is, in cases of forfeiture, to release a portion of the deferred pay for the period covered by the forfeiture. In other words, if a man had a forfeiture for the months of July, August, and September, and had deferred pay of $20.00 each month, the entire $60.00 would be released to reduce the debit caused by the forfeiture.

QUESTION: A Paymaster would take this book on its face value and release the funds as you have stated.

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: He would consider himself acting with reasonable care in taking this book at its face value without any further investigation?

ANSWER: As Paymaster of a Holding Unit, thousands of pay books pass through my hands each month and it is only reasonable to assume that it is a physical impossibility to check each and every entry and in view of the fact that on page 2 of the Pay Book, para. 3. states that "This pay book is the property of the Canadian Government and a soldier who loses it by neglect or alters any official entry in the same or makes any unauthorized entries therin, may be charged with a serious offence under the Army Act." That is placed there for our protection to deter soldiers from making any unauthorized entries in their Pay Books.

QUESTION: You were not in effect, fooled by this pay book?

ANSWER: Knowing the accused, I was not.

QUESTION: So Then the accused has not in fact defrauded anybody.

ANSWER: He has not defrauded anybody owing to the fact that I know the history of the case, and being on strength of No. 1 Cdn. General Holding Unit as Paymaster, I would have to make the necessary release from deferred pay in his Pay Book QUESTION: Had this pay book been presented to you on a regular Pay Day, might you have made payments on the strength of the entries which have been referred to?

ANSWER: Yes, if I had not known the case.

Second Witness B.83758, Cpl. Fortnum, H. No. 1 Cdn. General Holding Unit.

QUESTION: Do you recognize the accused.

ANSWER: I had to fetch the prisoner from the Guard Room to the Pay Office to have his assignment stopped.

QUESTION: What did you do?

ANSWER: I took the accused into the Paymaster, Capt. Farlinger.

QUESTION: What do you recollect of the interview?

ANSWER: The Captain asked me to be pay attention while he asked the accused a question.

QUESTION: What was that question?

ANSWER: He asked the accused who made the entries on pages 16 and 17 of his pay book.

QUESTION: What did the accused answer?

ANSWER: He said yes, he had made the entries.

Page 6 follows:

ANSWER: That is the Pay Book.

QUESTION: Did Captain Farlinger promise the accused anything if he would answer questions in regard to the pay book?

ANSWER: No Sir:

QUESTION: Did he threaten him in any manner?

ANSWER: No Sir.

QUESTION: Did he use any force in order to obtain information?

ANSWER: No.

Third Witness: Major Bruce Mowbrey Alway, No. 1 Cdn. Armoured Corps Holding Unit.

QUESTION: Do you recognize the accused in this Court?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: As whom?

ANSWER: As Pte. Rock.

QUESTION: I will show you a document which purports to be a soldier's Pay Book, issued to A.81283, Pte. Rock, Paul Henry. Do you recognize that document?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: When have you had occasion to see it?

ANSWER: It would be around January or February of 1941.

QUESTION: On what occasion?

ANSWER: At that time as 2 i/c of the 4th Recce. Squadron and when I also acted as Paymaster.

QUESTION: Is your signature in that Pay Book?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: Will you describe where?

ANSWER: On page 15 on the dates 15th February, 28th February, 8th and 15th March, 1941.

QUESTION: Is your signature on page 17 of the book?

ANSWER: No.

QUESTION: Does your name appear there?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: Does it purport to be your signature?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: At one time you acted as a Paymaster?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: If a soldier came to you in such circumstances that he had a large forfeiture of pay and his Pay Book were signed in this manner across three lines showing three months deferred pay, but showing three months deferred pay and preceding cancellation such as that on page 4, would you, acting with reasonable care, take steps to have the deferred pay shown applied to this large forfeiture on the strength of that book alone? In short, would this book fool a Paymaster acting with reasonable care?

ANSWER: No.

QUESTION: Major, if you accepted the entries for July, August, and September which entries are made on pages 16 and 17 of the Pay Book as correct, would you make payment to a soldier who tendered you that Pay Book.

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: Is it quite usual for the Pay Book to be signed one signature for five entries?

ANSWER: No. We get a signature often covering two entries, but it is yet unusual to use one signature covering five entries.

QUESTION: Does the accused wish to give evidence on his own behalf as to fact?

ANSWER: No Sir.

QUESTION: Do you intend to call any witnesses as to character?

ANSWER: No Sir.

SUMMARY

SUMMARY

The second charge in this case has been laid under Section 41 of the Army Act. In other words it is a civil offence that is charged. I refer the Court to Chapter 1 and to para 68 in that chapter which defines the civil offense of forgery, namely the charge now before the court. The essence of the charge is intention to defraud and it is not essential to the Court that the following documents when these are completed, should be in such a form as would be binding in law, so that in the present case it is not necessary that the entries in the Pay Book be strictly in accordance with the instructions which have been issued to Paymasters in order that the document will be a false one and such as might be acted upon. It is not necessary for the prosecution to show that anyone has in fact, been defrauded or have been deceived by the entries. I only need to say the intention that the document that should be used or acted on is a genuine document or that someone might be influenced by a belief that it was genuine. The evidence which has been brought out shows that these entries were capable of defrauding or capable of deceiving the Paymaster in making payments. There has been put before this Court no evidence to any contrary intention. There has been evidence that the accused omits having made the entries. The reasonable inference other than this evidence is that the accused made the entries and that at that time he had the intention to defraud. Whether or not he ever subsequently acted in such a manner as to defraud is not material. Only his intention at the time of the making of the entries is important. The only evidence as to who made the entries has been that of the accused person, rather his omission and in that regard, I have shown that these omissions were given voluntarily.

DEFENCE SUMMARY

Sir: There is no question that the accused made false entries. There is no evidence that he did in fact defraud anybody. There has been no evidence that he intended to defraud anybody. The prosecution has relied on the faults of occasions, information giving a presumption or an inference of intention to defraud. At the bottom of page 185 of the Manual of Military Law, it is stated: "If a person is charged with the forgery of any particular instrument, it must be shown that the document has such a resemblance to it as would be likely to deceive an ordinary person. I submit that the law as to forgery goes little further than that and that where the altered document can only be used to defraud, a particular class of persons that it must have such a resemblance to the true one as will be likely to deceive a member of that class of persons.

To forge an Army Pay Book you must do a job likely to deceive a reasonably competent paymaster. Where it is a question of a considerable amount as in the case of this forfeiture, I suggest that the Paymaster will take reasonable care if the amount is owing to him before he acts on the Pay Book. Capt Farlinger admitted that the way in which this Pay Book was signed was not correct but he stated that in the press of business it might be acted upon. Major Alway answered plainly and bluntly that no one asked if it would be acted upon without further investigation. Further, he stated if it were believed that the accused could from it, but he had just denied that it would be believed on the contention that the prosecution has failed to show that the Pay Book was falsified in the way this one has been, that one signature covering several entries and assignments of pay or cancelled similarly by the stroke of a pencil unverified by a Paymasters' initials or any other manner is not likely to deceive a Paymaster exercising reasonable care, In the light of the circumstances that a man has a very considerable forfeiture to pay. Proving that is essential to showing the necessary intent to prove the crime of forgery. I suggest to the Court that the accused should be found guilty of the military offense charged under Section 40 of the Army Act and not guilty of the special offence of forgery.

QUESTION: Pte. Rock, you have pleaded guilty to absenting yourself without leave from the 20th day of June until apprehended at 1815 hours 7th day of July, 1941. Do you fully understand the nature of this plea?

ANSWER: Yes Sir, I do.

QUESTION: It is the duty of this Court, if you are not clear, to explain to you that the Court to find you guilty of the first offense you are charged with. Has the evidence any objection to the Civil Boards descriptive return marked Exhibit "B"?

ANSWER: No.

QUESTION: Pte. Roch, do you wish to have a summary of the evidence read to you; you were present when it was taken down? Are you familiar with its contents? You do not wish it read to you again?

ANSWER: No Sir.

QUESTION: On a plea of guilty on any charge the summary of evidence is attached to the evidence as there is no other evidence presented before this court.

PRESIDENT: No. A.21283 Pte. Paul Henry Rock, the Court finds you not guilty of the third charge of conduct to the predjudice of good order and military discipline.

I Lieut. F.D. Egener, Lorne Scots Company, No. 1 General Holding Unit, do present to the Court a certified copy of the conduct sheet of the accused. I have verified that this conduct sheet does refer to the accused. It has been certified by the officer in command of the Records, No. 1 General Holding Unit, the Accused's unit.

QUESTION: Do you recognize this signature?

ANSWER: It is that of Lieut. McPhee of No. Cdn. General Holding Unit.

I produce to the Court a statement of the character and particulars of service of the accused which has been signed by

Lieut. F.M. Pardee as Adjutant of No. 1 Cdn. General Holding Unit. I have myself checked the entries in this document and find them to be correct and I have verified that the numbers refer to the accused.

QUESTION: Does the defence wish the contents of A.F.B.296 read?

ANSWER: No Sir, it does not.

QUESTION: Do you recognize the signature on this form.

ANSWER: I do recognise the signature of Lieut. F.M. Pardee.

QUESTION: Does the defence wish to give any evidence as to good character.

ANSWER: No Sir.

QUESTION: Does the defence wish to say anything in mitigation of punishment?

ANSWER: Yes Sir, I would like to point out to the Court that the second charge of Forgery did in fact produce no [illegible] in any way, that the army was notdefrauded in connection with the accused be delivered,so that for whatsoever reasons alternatives are made, the results in no way go beyond tampering with the documents and that this should be taken into consideration in determining the sentence.

Certified that this transcript is, to the best of my knowledge and ability, true.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF
A21283 PTE.Paul Henry ROCH, No.1.
CANADIAN GENERAL HOLDING UNIT.

Directed by Lt.-Col. R.W.Frost D.S.O., Commanding Officer, No.1.Canadian General Holding Unit that a summary of evidence in this case be taken by Lieut F.T.Egener, Lorne Scots, No.1. Canadian General Holding Unit and directed that the evidence be taken upon oath.

FIRST WITNESS — Lieut. F.M. Pardee, A/Adj., No.1. Canadian General Holding Unit. having been duly sworn, states:

I produce Army Form B 115 being a true copy of the "Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry assembled at Bordon, Hants on the 19th day of July 1941, for the purpose of investigating and recording the absence, without leave from his duty, and the deficiency, if any, in the Arms, Ammunitions, Equipments, Instruments, Regimental Necessaries, or Clothing of No.; A-21283, Private Roch, H."The original record is in my possession as Adjutant of No1.C.G.H.U..

I also produce Army Form O1618 being a Descriptive Return of Paul Henry Roch A-21283.

I have verified that these two documents relate to the accused and they are evidence that the accused illegally absented himself without leave at Bordon, Hants, on the 20th day of June 1941 until apprehended at 1815 hrs. the 7th day of July 1941 and that on the 19th day of July 1941 he was deficient of certain articles totalling in value £3 11s. 5d.
(A.F. B115, produced, marked Ex.A; A.F. O1618, produced, marked Ex.B)

F.M. Pardee Lt.

The accused declined to question this witness.

SECOND WITNESS — H-11176, C.Q.M.S. Friell T., No.1. Canadian General Holding Unit having been duly sworn, states:

On the 26th Sept.1941 I inspected the kit of the accused and found him to be deficient articles totalling in value £1 8s. 10½d as listed in the statement which I now produce and which is signed by me.
(Statement marked Ex.C)

Thomas Friell CQMS.

The accused declies to question the witness.

THIRD WITNESS — Capt. F.E.Farlinger, Paymaster, No.1. Canadian General Holding Unit having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused as the man who came to my office and identified the document which I now produce as his pay book -- M.B. M1 Part 11 (Received as Ex. D.) I questioned him regarding the entries made on pages 16 and 17 for July, Aug. and Sept. pay and the entries for deferred pay for the same three months; which entries purport to be signed by "B.M.Alway, Capt.". He admitted that he had made the entries and written the name "B.M.Alway, Capt.". I noticed that the amount of $20.00 per month was shown as deferred pay and knowing from from my official records that an assignment of 16 dollars per month was in effect payable to the Receiver General of Canada War Savings Certificates I turned to page four of his pay book which shows a record of assigned pay and an examination of this shows the assignment of 16 dollars to have been crossed out. I questioned the accused as to who had done this and he told me that he had done it. The effect of the crossing out of this assignment on page four of the pay is that the accused would continue to receive the War Savings Certificates from the Receiver General of Canada and at the same time the same amount would be released from deferred pay to reduce any debit balance in his pay book caused by forfeiture of pay. I know from my records that the accused was subject to forfeitures of pay during July, August and Sept. I did not caution the accused before questioning him. I offered him no inducement conditional upon his telling me about his pay book. I placed him under no duress whatever; his answers to my questions were voluntary.

H Darlinger Capt.
(H.W. DARLINGER) Capt.

The Accused declined to question the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS B-83758, Cpl. Fortnum, H, No. 1 Canadian General Holding Unit, having been duly sworn, states:-

I took the accused in to see Capt. Darlinger the paymaster Thurs. Oct. 2 1941 and I remained in the office the whole time he was there. Capt. Darlinger questioned the accused regarding the accused's pay book and asked him as to who made the entries on pages 16 and 17 and the accused admitted that he had. The accused answered voluntarily. Capt. Darlinger asked me whether I heard the accused admit that he had made the entries mentioned and I verified that I had. I do not recall any questions regarding entries on page four. The accused was not placed under duress at any time nor was he offered any reward.

H Fortnum
(H. FORTNUM) Cpl.

The Accused declined to question the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS

Major B.M. Alway, No.1. Cdn. Armoured Corps Holding Unit., having been duly sworn, states:

(Having been shown exhibit 4) The signature on page seventeen covering July, Aug. and Sept. pay is not mine. It is my name but is not my signature. The exhibit is the pay book of Cpl. Hoch whom I recognize as the accused. I have no write acquainted with the writing in this pay book and in particular on pages 12 and 13. The signatures on page 13 are mine. In July, Aug. and Sept. I did not have the rank of Capt. I held the rank of Major. The accused was not in No.1. C.A.C.H.U. during those months. When the accused last knew me in the 8th Recce. Bn. I held the rank of Lt.

B.M. Alway Maj.

Question by the accused; Were you a Captain in the month of June?
A No.

The accused declined to question the witness further.

I certify that I have complied with R.P.4(C),(D), (E) & (F).

After having been duly warned in the manner required by R.P. 4(E) the accused declined to make a statement or to give evidence.

Taken down at Cove, Hants in the presence of and within the hearing of the accused.

Plea for Mitigation.

Gnr. Roche has pleaded guilty. He realizes that he did wrong and that a certain penalty will be imposed. I point out to the Court that the accused had been drinking and for that reason was in an uncertain frame of mind as well as because he was returning to camp after a leave. The trouble started due to a misdirected sense of loyalty.

It is difficult to analyze the motives behind the actions of a lot of our men but at least we can appreciate that there are reasons for these actions.

His detachment commander under oath has shown that he has rendered worth-while service whilst in uniform.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

NW521
G.42211 Gnr. CLARENCE HERBERT BOCHE, 35 Battery, 1 Con Lt.A.A. Regiment R.C.A.

Taken under oath at the direction of the Commanding Officer.

D.10611 Sgt. WOELAN, A.S., 35 Battery, 1 Con Lt.A.A. Regiment, R.C.A. having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, D.10611 Sgt. WOELAN, A.S. while on leave on March 17, 1944 at 8th Army Rest Camp, San Spirito, at approximately 2100 hrs. arrived at Leese wing office with my kit for the purpose of returning to my Unit. On arriving there, I saw L/Bdr. Morphy, another member of the leave party from my Unit, and of whom I asked if anyone was present. He replied, "No. Sgt. Duncan is not here yet." I suggested we take a look around and give a yell for him as it was dark and a lot of men were standing around. L/Bdr. Morphy and I proceeded in different directions to see if we could locate Sgt. Duncan and failing to do so within a couple of minutes, we both returned to the front of Leese wing office where I suggested to L/Bdr. Morphy that we try to arrange to leave regardless of Sgt. Duncan not being there. Sgt. Duncan was in charge of the party. At this point, Gnr. BOCHE, C.S. spoke up declaring that he was not going to leave without Sgt. Duncan. At the same time saying to me, 'You wouldn't let a fellow down, a member of your own Unit. I'm not going without Sgt. Duncan.' I replied that it was of no interest to me whether he waited for Sgt. Duncan or not. I was going to arrange to leave if it were possible. After a few minutes some person unknown to me came along and stated that he had seen Sgt. Duncan in his hut about five minutes ago. I replied that I had just come down from the hut a few minutes ago. At this point Gnr. BOCHE, C.S. interrupted saying, 'Tell Him the truth, tell him the truth. You've been down here quite a few minutes, five minutes.' I replied to Gnr. BOCHE, C.S., whether I have been down here two minutes, a few minutes, or five minutes is none of your business. And then I said, I am going to leave without Sgt. Duncan being here. Where he is is not my business or your business. He is responsible for his own actions. At this point Gnr. BOCHE, C.S. dropped whatever he was holding in his hands and approached me in a threatening manner at the same time saying, 'So its none of my business, eh, well [illegible] goddam soon show you. At this point the witnesses, which are Sgt. RICHARDS, C.A., L/Bdr. MORRIS, R., Sgt. MCCALD, D., and Sgt. DOUGLAS, G.H., demanded that this man be put under arrest which I did. Gnr. BOCHE, C.S. then slipped out into the darkness before we were able to provide escorts. The aforesaid witnesses then went in search of the accused and returned him to the front of Leese wing office. At this point there was interference by Gnr. KINCH, W.H. who tried to get me to drop the charge but I told Gnr. KINCH, W.H. to go away and mind his own business.

No. 1 WITNESS for the prosecution: (Contd.)

The accused evaded us again going out into the dark but was once more brought back to the front of the Leese wing office where Sgts. RICHARDS, C.A., DONALD, D. and DOUGLAS, G.H. detailed escorts to take him to the Guardhouse. Gnr. KINCH, T.H. again interferred but was again told by me to go away and mind his own business but was insistent and finally got abusive so I put him under arrest also. As soon as I put Gnr. KINCH, T.H. under arrest I went into Leese wing office to take down the names of witnesses. While doing so L/Bdr. MORRIS, H. came in and said, 'The two accused had evaded the escort.' Then I went out to help look for the accused but failing to locate them in a few minutes, returned to Leese wing office and carried on with taking the names of the witnesses. A few moments later, that is approximately 2115 hrs. Gnr. ROGERS, C.E. was brought into Leese wing office where he was detained until transportation was provided to San Spirito station. While making the journey to the station, the accused tried to make me a figure of ridicule by stating, 'Where's Ma Whelan. Get Ma Whelan the hot-water bottle. His rheumatism is bad.' and at one time offering me a cigarette which was refused. The accused then said 'Touch and I'll break your arm.' From then on there was no more trouble or abusive language from the accused. The accused was not drunk at the time of the offence but had been drinking."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

2nd Witness:- 3967494. Sgt. Richards, C.A. - 1st Bn. Welch Regt., having been duly sworn, states:-

I, No. 3967494. Sgt. Richards, 1st Bn. Welch Regt. was on duty at Eighth Army Rest Camp, SAN SPIRITO, on 17th March, 1944, at approximately 2115 hrs. and was outside Leese Wing Office trying to control the soldiers who were going back to their Units by train. When I passed Cpl. Roche and Sgt. Whelan I could not help but overhear Roche using obscene language to the Sgt. So far as I can remember the accused referred to Sgt. Whelan as a "cock-sucking yellow bastard." I told Sgt. Whelan to put the accused under close arrest and Sgt. Donald came up then and he detailed off two men to act as escort. Whilst he was getting the two men to fall in, Roche, the accused, ran behind the office and disappeared. I did not see the accused again until I saw Sgt. Donald bring him back approximately 10 minutes later. I was in the same truck as the accused, and although I heard several remarks passed against Sgt. Whelan, I cannot identify them, as the truck was dark.

3rd Witness:- 908844. Sgt. Donald, W. - R.A. having been duly sworn, states:-

I, No. 908844. Sgt. Donald, D. - R.A. was on duty on 17 Mar. '44, at Eighth Army Rest Camp, SAN SPIRITO. I was on duty at Leese Wing Office at approximately 2100 hrs. when I heard Cpl. Roche call Sgt. Whelan a "cock-sucking bastard." That statement, together with a stream of obscene language, was repeated several times and directed towards Sgt. Whelan. The accused was placed under close arrest by me. I turned around to detail two men to act as escorts and when I turned back the accused had disappeared. It took us approximately 15 to 20 minutes to find him. When I found the accused he was hiding behind a tree very close to the office. I took him into the office and warned him he was under close arrest. At approximately 2200 hrs. I saw the accused get on to a vehicle to be transported to SAN SPIRITO station. I was in the same vehicle. During the entire trip to the station I did not hear the accused make any slighting remarks to Sgt. Whelan. I have nothing further to add.

Question? Are you sure I was hiding behind a tree?

Answer. Definitely.

4th Witness:- 7882725. Sgt. Douglas, C.N. - 8th Army Rest Camp, having been duly sworn, states:-

I, No. 7882725. Sgt. Douglas, C.N. was on duty at Leese Wing Office, on 17th. Mar. '44. At approximately 2100 hrs. I was assisting Sgt. Richards, and Sgt. Donald on the departure of leave personnel from Leese Wing. I was standing with Sgt. Donald outside the Leese Wing Office when I heard Gnr. Roche using very obscene language to whom I thought at the time was another private. Then I saw that the man whom he was addressing was a Sergeant. I heard the accused say to Sgt. Whelan, "You're only a cock-sucking bastard." Sgt. Whelan looked round and saw Sgt. Richards, Sgt. Donald and myself. He asked us if we heard that remark. I said "Yes." He then placed the accused under open arrest and then he said "No, close arrest." I accompanied Sgt. Donald & Sgt. Richards to the accused and began to escort him into the Wing Office when he broke away from us and disappeared into the crowd who were around the office. Approximately 10 minutes later Sgt. Donald returned to the office with the accused. He was held in the Wing Office until approximately 2200 hrs. when a vehicle arrived to take him to the station. I was on the accused's truck, being one of the escorts, on the journey to the station where he was handed over to the O.C. of the train. Sgt. Richards asked this officer if he was O.C. the train, and the officer replied "Yes." During the trip to the station and in the interval before the departure of the train I did not hear the accused directly pass any remarks to Sgt. Whelan. I have nothing further to add.

J Douglas Sgt

7882725. Sgt. Douglas, C.N.,

Question:- Are you sure it was Sgt. Whelan who put me under close arrest?

Answer:- Yes.

5th Witness:- 14295076. L/Bdr. Morris, H. - 8th Army Rest Camp, having been duly sworn, states:-

I, No. 14295076. L/Bdr. Morris, H. - 8th Army Rest Camp, SAN SPIRITO, was on duty 17th Mar. 1944. At approximately 2115 hrs. I was standing outside Leese Wing Office. I heard Gnr. Roche ask Sgt. Whelan, "Why can't you wait for Sgt. Duncan?" Sgt. Whelan replied, "I am looking after this." The accused said to Sgt. Whelan, "You are always causing trouble in this regiment." The accused used obscene language towards Sgt. Whelan. Sgt. Whelan said, "I've stood enough of all this. I put you under arrest." When he said that the accused disappeared into the crowd. Sgt. Donald returned in approximately 5 minutes with the accused. I was then instructed by Sgt. Richards to get the C.M.P. which I did. I returned at approximately 2135 hrs. with 2 C.M.P. personnel who were then told by the Leese Wing Commander that they were not needed as he wanted the accused returned to his unit that night. The accused was in the Wing Office when I returned with the C.M.P. At approximately 2145hrs. I went to SAN SPIRITO station in a vehicle as escort to the accused. There were slighting remarks passed on Sgt. Whelan, but I cannot identify who said them. I have nothing further to add.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Third day of June, 19 42.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Royal Canadian Artillery 2 Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

* Omit if not applicable.

*[I am unable to appoint :—

*(1. ~~Three Officers to form the Court~~)

*(2. ~~A Field Officer as President~~)

*(3. ~~Three Officers having more than one year's service~~) for the following reasons, namely :—]

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of these rules inconsistent with appendix "A" to D.R.O. 7/2 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

THE second witness, Lieutenant V.G. Sinclair, 1st Light A.A. "I, 2/Lieut. R.J. Davies, 11 Station Transport, R.A.S.C., was in the ballroom of the Red Lion Hotel in conversation with a lady at 2300 hours on Saturday 18 April 42 - a Miss Everett. A Canadian soldier stepped between us and started to fumble with the breasts of the aforementioned lady. I cautioned him by saying "Stop what you are doing and move along". He turned around to me and said "Who the hell do you think you're talking to?" I replied "You". He then said "Well don't fucking well speak to me like that." I again cautioned him by saying "Do you realize you are talking to an officer?" He replied "I don't give a fuck for my own officers, let alone you. Who the hell do you think you are, just because you are dressed up in that bloody uniform. If you think you're big enough to throw me out bloody well try it." I made no comment. He then made the remark "Come outside and then tell me to move along." At the same time his fists were clenched and all these remarks were made in a loud and clear voice. I then left the ballroom. That is the conclusion of my evidence."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

On Saturday 18 April 1942 at the Red Lion Hotel we had just finished dancing, an English officer and myself."

Q.1 Do you remember his name?

A.1 No.

Q.2 Would you know him if you saw him?

A.2 Yes.

A.3 Yes.

Q.4 Did the accused use any obscene language?

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution

K.53171 Cpl. McHARDY, W.J., No.6 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, Cpl. McHardy, W.J., K.53171, No.6 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, state that at Colchester on the 18 April 42 at about 2330 hours I was on duty at Canadian Provost Corps Headquarters, Colchester. In answer to a phone call received I went to the Red Lion Hotel in company with L/Cpls. Campbell, Amer and Arsenault. We arrived there at about 2345 hours. There was a brawl in the lobby of the hotel. Gnr. Roche was present. I told Gnr. Roche to stay out of the brawl as he was trying to get into it. He adopted a fighting attitude in that he took off his coat and raised his arms to a fighting position. He said, in words to this effect, "Let me at that Corporal" and it was only through the intervention of Lieut. Sinclair and L/Cpl. Campbell that he was prevented from attacking me. Lieut. Sinclair held him by force. Owing to the conduct of the troops that were present and their behaviour I thought it would be better part of discretion to arrest him at a later date."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

M.16913 L/Cpl. CAMPBELL, No.6 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, L/Cpl. Campbell, M.16913, No.6 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, state that at approximately 2330 hours 18 April 42 our Headquarters at Goojerat Barracks received a phone call that there w as a riot at the Red Lion Hotel. We, Cpl. McHardy, L/Cpl. Amer and L/Cpl. Arsenault, tried to stop the riot in the lobby of the hotel and clear the soldiers out. During the course of our duty I happened to come in front of Gnr. Roche who asked me the question "Who are you?" I replied "A provost." He then made as if to pass me and said to this effect "Let me at that two-striper." A Canadian officer which I later identified as Lieut. Sinclair, stepped in front of Gnr. Roche. I said at the same time words to this effect, "Not to-night, Roche." Gnr. Roche quietened down and stood behind Lieut. Sinclair. We had cleared the soldiers out by that time and started back for barracks."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

L/Cpl. Campbell

L/Cpl. Campbell, M.16913.

FIFTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut. V.G. SINCLAIR, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A.
having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Lieut. V.G. Sinclair, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A.
At approximately 2330 hours on 18 Apr 42 the man who takes tickets at the dance in the Red Lion Hotel informed me that some of my men were fighting and asked me if there was anything I could do. I went into the lobby and there was a lot of pushing and shoving. Gnr. Roche was there with other members of the Regiment. They were all in a fighting mood and when the Provost R.C.O.s came into the lobby they, the N.C.O.s, attempted to stop the rowdyism.

Roche adopted a threatening attitude and was going to strike somebody. I intervened and succeeded in partially quietening him. Roche just wouldn't be quietened. I would say he had been drinking but I would not say he was drunk. In more than one instance he used the expression "Let me at that guy." I don't know who it was but it was not me. The Provost R.C.O. was standing behind me at that time. Eventually after a lot of shoving and talking Roche quietened down and finally left the hotel. I did not see Roche strike anyone. That was approximately 1215 hours. I know Roche didn't have a pass for that hour."

The witness is cross-examined as follows:-

Q.1 I asked Mr. Sinclair on Monday morning if he had seen and Canadian Provost in the lobby and he said "No."

A.1 While the pushing and shoving was going on the Provost had their hats off and I did not recognize them as being Provosts. When Cpl. McHardy came to see me the next day I recognized him as being one of the men in the fight. There were "Red Caps" there but they were English and were doing nothing.

The accused declines to further cross-examine the witness.

V.G. Sinclair

(V.G. Sinclair, Lieut.)

SIXTH WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut. T.E. CLARKE, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Lieut. T.E. Clarke, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A. I was attending a date at the Red Lion Hotel on 18 Apr 42. A scuffle was taking place in the ante room of the dance hall and I went to investigate. I found 3 or 4 gunners holding L/Sgt. Manley in a corner and Gnr. Bryant in another corner. The situation seemed under control so I left. Ten or fifteen minutes later a fresh scuffle developed on the stairs and an officer of the English Army asked me would I try and get them out of the hotel. I got a number of Gunners to leave the building and came into difficulties with one Gunner on the stairway. One, the accused Gnr. VanBuskirk, took this man downstairs. I went back to the dance hall and asked some more Canadian Gunners who were standing around would they please leave. When I came down stairs again Gnr. VanBuskirk was in the lobby of the hotel swinging wildly at everyone in sight but I didn't see him hit anyone. I remember seeing Lieut. Sinclair holding back Roche at some time or other. I cannot remember during which scuffle but it was sometime after I came downstairs."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

T.E. Clarke

(T.E. Clarke, Lieut.)

FIRST WITNESS for the Defence

G.8133 Gnr. HENRY, L.J., 89 Battery, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"Gnr, Reid and I were in town on the Saturday evening 18 April. We met Gnr. Roche about 6 o'clock. We went to a pub - the Little Dan - we stayed drinking till about 8.30 and then went to the "Angel" and kept on drinking till close to 10 o'clock. I could see that Gnr. Roche was pretty drunk at the time so we tried to take him home. He wouldn't listen to us and walked away. We went home to barracks. I've known Gnr. Roche for a year and it's the first time I've seen him in that state."

Q.1 What state were you in?

A.1 I had only been drinking a little.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

L J Henry

(G.8133 Gnr. Henry, L.J.)

SECOND WITNESS for the Defence

F.16412 Gnr. MARKLEY, M.L., 89 Battery, 1 Lt. A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I met Gnr. Roche at the dance at the Red Lion on Saturday 18 Apr 42. I met him in the dance hall and he invited me out to the bar to have a drink. About 2245 hours. After that I saw him again, dancing, and later I was where I could hear him when he was annoyed by two or three people and Mr. Sinclair held him. He wanted to be let go but I never heard him use profane language before or after, and I never saw him putting his hands up to any woman or anybody. I will say he was heavily under the influence of liquor but he never appeared to be in a pugilistic mood. I spoke to Gnr. Roche and asked him to come home and he said he was going home but he was not given a chance."

Q.1 Did you see Gnr. Roche fight or hit anybody?
A.1 No, I did not.

Q.2 How did the trouble start with the two or three other people?
A.2 I don't know how it started but I saw Gnr. Roche grabbed by Mr. Sinclair and some others I don't know.

Q.3 Did you see any of the Provost there?
A.3 Yes.

Q.4 Were they mixed up at all with Gnr. Roche?
A.4 No, sir. I never saw them near Gnr. Roche. All this was about eleven-thirty.

Q.5 Did you see Gnr. Roche talking to an English officer?
A.5 No, sir, but there were some officers around him. There was a crowd of them everywhere.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, as the case may~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1] and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) and to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[3]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No D.Y. [5]

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (~~not~~) to advise accused to change his (~~their~~) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ~~3.xx.x~~ charge(s). The accused is (~~not~~) so informed, ~~and he (they) (changes) his (their) plea(s) on (changes)~~. ~~Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character, or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

RIS

The accused, G44211 Gnr Roche C E,
having been duly sworn, states:

On 2 Dec 44 I was taken out of the line as a reinforcement to the Artillery. Instead of going to the Artillery they sent me to No.4 Bn. They told me when I came to 4 Bn that I would be on the first draft to go out to the field, but when the draft came out I was not on that draft. Another draft came out to the field and I was not on that. In the meantime a fellow came into the Holding Unit from my regiment, 2 Cdn LAA Regt, and said that there was more reinforcements going out to it at Cattolica so I left here on Monday morning and went out to Cattolica and went to the rear party of the 54th Bty, 2 Cdn LAA Regt, and the Sgt told me to wait around a couple of days as the officers would be down for stores and I might be taken on strength back to the Regt. So I waited for 3 or 4 days and the officers never showed up. After that I started up to the line myself. I got up as far as Ravenna and was turned back because I did not have a pay book so I came back to Cattolica and stayed around there with the rest of the boys for the holiday. After the holiday was over I came back and reported in to "D" Coy of 4 Bn.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Gnr Roche enlisted in the army on 4 May 40. He was taken on strength in England on 23 Dec 40, and he came to Italy in Sept 44 and went into the line with 2 Cdn LAA Regt, 54 Bty. He was with them from Sept until 2 Dec 44. He was then taken out of the line due to the regt being over strength and was sent back to go out as a reinforcement for field artillery. Somehow or other he got sent to 4 Bn and he was told from 4 Bn he would be going forward as a field artillery reinforcement in a matter of two or three days. While he was here two drafts went out to the field artillery with him being on neither. During the course of that time he heard that 2 Cdn LAA Regt, from which he came, was being reinforced by RCE due to shortage of artillery reinforcements. On hearing this he went up to the reinforcement base at Cattolica, got in touch with a Sgt whom he knew and the Sgt's advice was that he wait there until such time as the O C came back, telling him that there was a good chance of his being taken back on strength. As it happened, this did not work out, and being there at Cattolica and having all his friends there, he decided to stay over the Christmas holidays, knowing full well at the time he was A.W.L. But directly after Christmas he reported back on his own free will to 4 Bn. There is also the fact that the Sgt at Cattolica, knowing that Gnr Roche was A.W.L. should have apprehended him rather than advise him to wait there at his unit. I would like those points to be taken into consideration.

Plea in Mitigation.

The accused, Pte Roche, by his plea of guilty, has in effect declared that he submits no justification for the offence which he has committed. But no man can be fairly judged by one act alone, especially where, as in this instance, that action is inconsistent with the man's total record.

The accused is not and never has been a "confirmed trouble-maker", a frequent offender. On the contrary, he has been a first-class soldier, willing and alert, well-liked by his superiors, in and out of action. In evidence of his superiors' estimate of his qualities as a soldier, I submit the statement of character made by his own section 2CO, set. vous. in addition, it will be seen from Pte.Roche's A.F.W.6 that during his service with the Lor.H.Hon.Gent.Regt. since its formation in July 1944, he has had a spotless record.

It is, in fact, difficult to accounts for this crime by a soldier with so good a record. The events leading up to his absence, however, shed some light on the problem. He went into action with the Regiment early in December, for by no means the first time, and fought for three weeks. When the going became tougher and the unit's strength was depleted, he fought with the forward ~~inf~~ rifle platoons as a rifleman and acquitted himself well, despite a natural unfamiliarity with that type of fighting. Then, just prior to Christmas, the regiment came out of the line for the holiday; all the members of this Court will be familiar with the usual reactions to such a rest - an end of strain and an immediate release of nervous energy; life becomes, for several days, an endless party. Perhaps because it was Christmas, Pte Roche overdid his celebrations and decided he needed a holiday.

While there can be no justification for the actions of the accused, there are undoubtedly Dismissed.

good grounds for a strong plea for leniency. Pte Rocke has an excellent record; he has been a willing and capable soldier, living his work and doing it well; he has always been, prior to this offense, a credit to his Regiment. And it would appear that he can best make amends by returning to the regiment with a little delay as possible; in that he can more that his record prior to this offense was well-observed, and that the carving of his superiors was fully merited.

Capt B.G. Douglas, 4 Sub Depot CBOD having been duly sworn states: The accused has been under my command about one year. No entries on crime sheet in that time. Employed as a driver and checker and recently recommended for a stripe. In my opinion he was a good soldier. The delay in his getting the stripe was on account of an establishment.

The Defending Officer: Accused has been in the unit for about 17 months. I have been with the accused on convoys and always found him reliable and conscientious. He is an American citizen. Came to Canada in Sept. 1940 to join up and came overseas the following Spring. In civil life he earned about $150.00 per month. Having received hospitality from a family in Worcester he felt badly about not being able to return it and finally committed this deed to help him repay some of the hospitality. The time he has spent in custody should be taken into consideration.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-89409 Private Robert Leo HOCHE, taken by direction of Lt.-Col. C. Raynor Smith, Officer Commanding, No. 4 Sub Depot, 1 C.B.O.D., R.C.O.C., Louisburg Barracks West, Bordon, Hants.

1st WITNESS GEORGE JOHN HUMPHRIES states:-

I am Managing Director of T.J. Daniels Ltd., Motor Engineers, The Motor House Garage, Bath Road, Worcester, and I reside at 63, Timberdine Avenue, Worcester.

At about 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, the 5th December, 1942 I was standing on my office steps at the Motor House, when I saw a Canadian soldier talking to my foreman, in the garage.

I saw the soldier had a haversack in his hand.

I went to them, and he said to me, "Are you the boss?" I replied, "Yes. What do you want?"

He replied, "Do you want to buy some tools?" I said, "Whose are they?" He replied, "They're mine." I then said, "Let me have a look at them."

He then accompanied me to the office, where he undid his haversack and laid the tools, produced, out on the office desk, but placed one of the inspection lamps on one side.

I said to him, "What do you want for them? I suppose about £2." He replied, "That will do." He then suggested to me that he would take £2.15.0 including the other inspection lamp, and I agreed to that amount.

I asked the soldier if they were his property, and he stated that they were.

I caused the receipt produced to be typed out; the soldier signed it, and I then handed him £2.15.0.

As he was leaving the office, I said to him, "Where have you come from?" He replied, "I can't tell you that." I said to him, "Where did you get the tools from?" He replied, "I brought them over with me."

The soldier then left the garage, and I became suspicious, so I telephoned the Police Office.

Shortly afterwards the soldier was brought back to the garage by two Police Officers, and he handed to me the £2.15.0 which I had paid him for the articles. I handed the articles enumerated on the attached receipt to P.C. Collins.

(Signed) G.J. HUMPHRIES.

George John Humphries was not called to attend as a witness due to the expense and loss of time involved, and a written statement of his evidence signed by him was read into the proceedings.

The statement was read to the accused and the accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

2nd WITNESS J.H. COLLINS, Police Constable 23, states:

Sir,

I respectfully beg to report that o
Saturday, the 5th December, 1942, I was
Police Office, when I received a teleph
Mr. G.J. Humphries, Managing Director of Bath Road, Worcester, who informed me that he purchased a quantity of new motor tools from a soldier, and that the soldier was walking in the dir of the City.

I immediately went with Detective Inspector Beasley,
To Sidbury, Worcester, where we saw a Canadian soldier.

I stopped him and said, "We are Police Officers, and I believe you have just sold some new motor tools and two Inspection Lamps to a man at a garage in Bath Road, in the city." He replied, "Not me, I have just been in a public house, trying to buy a bottle of whiskey; do you know where I can get one from?"

Not being satisfied with his explanation, I asked him to accompany us to the Motor House garage, upon arrival there he said to me, "I will tell you the truth." I cautioned him, and he said, "I did not like to tell you in the street, but I stole them from a tool box at Bordon Camp, where I am stationed."

I then interviewed Mr. George John Humphreys, who handed to me two inspection lamps, one brush, two sets of open ended spanners, one screw driver, one file, one ring spanner, one roll of insulated tape, one coil of copper wire, two A.C. spark plugs, one bulb box containing four bulbs, and three pairs of pliers, all of which were new.

Mr. Humphreys showed me a receipt for £2.15.0 enumerating the tools, and which was signed 'R. Roche'.

The £2.15.0 was handed back to Mr. Humphreys, by Roche.

I took Roche into custody, and made an examination of his pay book and found his particulars to be as follows.

Private No. B. 89409, Robert Leo Roche, No. 4, Sub Depot, No. 1 Canadian Base Ordnance Depot, Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, Bordon, Hants.

Roche said he would like to make a statement. I cautioned him. He then made a voluntary statement, which I wrote down in my pocket book, and which was read over and signed by him. (See copy attached.) — Exhibit "A".

I communicated with P.C. Stratton of the Hants. Constabulary, Bordon, and later a reply was received from him, to the effect that Roche's Commanding Officer had been seen, and requested that Roche be handed over to the Canadian Military Police, and that copies of the evidence be forwarded direct to the Commanding Officer.

In consequence of a telephone message sent to the Provost Marshal No. 6, Company, London, an escort was sent and Roche was handed over, together with the stolen property, to Corporal Weidner of the Canadian Military Police, at 5.30 p.m. on the 6th December, 1942.

2nd WITNESS J.H. COLLINS, Police Constable 23, states:

Sir,

I respectfully beg to report that at 12.45 p.m. on Saturday, the 5th December, 1942, I was on duty at the City Police Office, when I received a telephone message from Mr. G.J. Humphries, Managing Director of The Motor House, Bath Road, Worcester, who informed me that he had just purchased a quantity of new motor tools from a Canadian soldier, and that the soldier was walking in the direction of the City.

I immediately went with Detective Inspector Beasley, To Sidbury, Worcester, where we saw a Canadian soldier.

I stopped him and said, "We are Police Officers, and I believe you have just sold some new motor tools and two Inspection Lamps to a man at a garage in Bath Road, in this City." He replied, "Not me, I have just been in a public house, trying to buy a bottle of whiskey; do you know where I can get one from?"

Mr. Humphreys showed me a receipt for £2.15.0 enumerating the tools, and which was signed 'R. Roche'.

The £2.15.0 was handed back to Mr. Humphreys, by Roche.

I took Roche into custody, and made an examination of his pay book and found his particulars to be as follows.

Private No. B. 89409, Robert Leo Roche, No. 4, Sub Depot, No. 1 Canadian Base Ordnance Depot, Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, Bordon, Hants.

Roche said he would like to make a statement. I cautioned him. He then made a voluntary statement, which I wrote down in my pocket book, and which was read over and signed by him. (See copy attached.) -- Exhibit "A".

I communicated with P.C. Stratton of the Hants. 2nd WITNESS (CONT'D)

I respectfully suggest that copies of the evidence, together with the statement made by Roche, be forwarded to the Commanding Officer, as requested.

3rd WITNESS Capt. W.A. Miles, No. 4 Sub Depot, 1 C.B.O.D., R.C.O.C.

Capt. W.A. Miles, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Captain W.A. Miles, Officer i/c Kit Stores, No. 4 Sub Depot, 1 C.B.O.D.

We handle tools and equipment of vehicles received in this Unit and for use with Canadian manufactured vehicles.

Q.1. I show you a haversack containing a number of tools. What can you tell me about these tools?
Ans. These tools are exactly the same in appearance as those we have in our Kit Stores for use with vehicles manufactured in Canada.

Tools issued for use with British make vehicles are different from those used on Canadian made vehicles due to the fact that nuts and bolts on British vehicles are of different size from those used on Canadian vehicles. These tools which I have been shown are for use on Canadian manufactured vehicles.

I, Private Robert Leo Rooke, 27 years, No. B.89409, of No. 4 Sub Depot, No. 1 C.E.O.D., Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps, Bordon Camp, Hants., make this statement voluntary after being cautioned by P.C. Collins, Worcester City Police.

About a week ago, I went to a large tool box which is situated near to the Military Transport Stores at Bordon Camp where I am stationed.

I took from the box 2 inspection lamps, 1 brush, 2 sets of open ended spanners, 1 screw driver, 1 file, 1 ring spanner, 1 coil copper wire, 1 roll of insulating, 2 A.C. Spark plugs, 1 bulb box with four bulbs and 3 pairs pliers.

I took these articles to my locker in the barrack room.

I kept them there until about 1.45p.m. on Friday, the 4th December, 1942, when I was given 48 hours leave. I took the tools with me and came by train to Worcester where I stayed the night with some friends.

At about 12.30p.m. on Saturday, the 5th December, 1942, I went to a garage in Bath Road, Worcester, and sold the articles to a man at the garage for £2.15s.0d.

Later the same morning, I was stopped by two Police Officers in Worcester and questioned about having sold some tools.

I accompanied them to the garage, where I received back the tools and paid the £2.15s.0d. to the man I had received the money from.

This statement has been read over to me. I understand it and it is true. (Signed) R.L. Rooke.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider this statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

I was acting on information from another officer and came to the scene. There was a soldier whom I recognize as the accused. We used one hand on wheel (steering). I asked him what he was doing (wheel & steering). I asked him what he was doing on the jeep. "I'm getting ready to leave & take him to the radar and back to A-1
Q. 1 - Was he drunk?
A. 1 - He was under the influence of drink, because his eyes were glassy and he could not talk properly.

S.P. 831(4) complied with.

Submission of defense for dismissal of 1st charge

Upon making investigation, it seems that the accused was under the influence of liquor. It seems that the accused didn't require the improper use of the vehicle as his presence being under the influence of liquor. There is no evidence that the accused attempted to steal the jeep or even intended to do so. I ask the court to dismiss the charge.

FIRST WITNESS

No. 33009513 P.f.c. Walter J. Zawislak, 295 M.P. Company, Detachment 'A' A.P.O. 228, United States Army having been duly sworn states,

"I was inducted into the United States Army at Fort Meade, Maryland, April 16, 1942. I have been with my present outfit for the last two years.

While I was on duty at the Information Desk, H.Q. 295 M.P. Coy, Detachment 'A' United States Army, Brussels, Belgium on 5 November 1944, acting on information received I took my flashlight and went out of the Information Office to the street and found a Canadian soldier seated at the wheel of our Jeep, a Military Police vehicle bearing United States Military Police sign and veh number 20383795. He had his left hand on the steering wheel.

I asked him what he was doing in the jeep. He answered, "I am getting ready to leave." I said, "You will not leave in this jeep." I took him by the arm and dragged him out of the seat, and brought him into our Headquarters."

Q.1 Do you now recognize the accused in this room as the Canadian soldier who was in the jeep on the night of 5 November 1944?

A.1 Yes sir.

Q.2 Did you hear the accused trying to start the vehicle?

A.2 No, but as the vehicle was immobilized with the rotor removed, it would not start.

Q.3 Would you say that the accused was drunk and if so, how could you determine this fact?

A.3 I would say he was under the influence of drink because his eyes were glassy and he could not talk properly, and when he tried to walk into our H.Q. I had to help him.

The accused cross-examines the witness,

Q.1 How could you tell in the dark that I was trying to start the vehicle?

A.1 I flashed my light on you and your head was turned to right looking for the starter or some of the switches and your left hand was on the wheel.

Q.2 Did you think I was too drunk to drive the vehicle?

A.2 Yes.

1st Witness for The Prosecution

G.28072 RQMS Sansom, T.W., No. 2 Cdn Conv. Depot, RCAMC having been duly sworn states;

I recall the a.m. of 22 Jan 45. I was employed as RQMS at 2 Conv. Depot. On that a.m. about 1000 hrs I was walking from my office to Central Hotel down the dock street in Knocke-sur-Mer.

I produce sketch of section of town of Knocke-sur-Mer which is Exhibit "A".

My office faces on the sea and I walked down Rue Leopold II to rear entrance of Central Hotel. My office is in Grand Hotel and my Q M stores are next to the office. As I drew near to the rear door of the Central Hotel I saw 2 blankets lying on the sidewalk. They were ordinary army blankets. As I arrived at the blankets, the accused came out from the hotel. I recognize the accused as the man who came out of the Hotel. The accused picked up a blanket. I inquired what he was doing with the blanket; he told me he had just stepped out and saw the blankets there. We looked up at the windows and talked casually of how they happened to be there. I then told him to stay with the blankets until I came back. I went to Div. Orderly Room in Central Hotel. It is Orderly Rm of 2 Div. of Comm. Depot Org. I called to CSM Peterson who is in the Ord. Rm. I just stepped to the door. He came with me to the rear door and the accused and the blankets were gone. I saw nobody that I noticed particularly - the corridor when I went for CSM Peterson. CSM Cannon came behind us. I noticed him as we got back to rear door of Hotel. I went back to QM office. When CSM Peterson and I went to where the blankets had been there was nothing to be seen. It took me about 2 minutes to get from rear door of hotel to door of Ord Rm and back to rear door again. CSM Peterson came immediately. I didn't see CSM Cannon in the corridor when I went to get CSM Peterson. I beckoned to Peterson and said come here. I don't know what tone of voice I used.

Cross Examination:

The blankets were 20 ft. away from me when I first noticed them. The accused was not on the sidewalk at that time. He was coming out of the Capital Hotel door when I first saw him. He lived there at that time. I spoke to him as he was picking up a blanket. I asked him what he was doing. He said he had just stepped out and had seen the blankets there. He didn't seem to be nervous. The approx length of the hall inside the Capital Hotel from back door to front door is 75 yds. CSM Peterson's office is off that corridor. It has a door. When I got there the door was partly open I think there was someone else in the office beside CSM Peterson. I said when I arrived at the office: "Pete will you come here a minute please." He came immediately. There were soldiers in the corridor at that time. I don't know how many. I had no difficulty reaching the office. Just before I left to go to CSM Peterson's office I said to the accused "Stay with the blankets until I come back." He said nothing to me at that time. I cannot be sure the accused understood the order I gave him. From my office to

The back door of Central Hotel is approx. 200 yards. From front door of Central Hotel to my Office is about the same distance. I did not see the accused after I left him with the blankets. The accused and I both looked at the windows of the 1st, 2nd & 3rd stories of the Central Hotel. We saw nothing. I did not see the accused run away with blankets that day. He was not in improper possession as far as I know.

Re examination:

C&M S McKinnon is in charge of issuing blankets to in-coming patients. They are issued from Q.M. Stores. Q.M. Stores face on the sea. Blankets are kept in rear of stores entrance on Rue du Congo. The proper place to "turn in" blankets is at the blanket section but he could turn them in through the Q.M. office.

By the Court:

I did not check the accused's kit. It was checked by C.S.M. Cannon. The Central Hotel is used for patients. I do not know which floor the accused was living on. I do not know how long he had been a patient. I did not know him before this occasion. The Depot has been losing quite a few blankets in the last few months. He actually picked up a blanket when I spoke to him. He did not hesitate at all before he picked up the blankets. One blanket was near the bldg and one in the centre of the sidewalk. They were about 3 or 4 feet apart.

RP 83(B) complied with.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution.

CSM Peterson F. J. —G-28089— No 2 Can Const. Depot having been duly sworn states:

I am CSM of B Coy – 2 Div at Const. Depot. On 22 Jan 45 at approx 1030 hrs checking the Coy lines I met the accused and asked him his name and what he was doing in my coy lines. He didn't give me a very satisfactory answer. I then told him to report to his own coy lines. I completed my tour at approx 1045 hrs I reported to Div Ord Room. It is 2 Div Ord Rm. I recognize the sketch Exhibit "A". I recognize the Div Ord Room on Exhibit "A". The coy lines are in Central Hotel. The coys belong to 2 Div. Each coy had a different floor. My coy, B Coy, had 1st floor. I did not know what floor the accused should have been on. I had just arrived at Div Ord Rm when RQMS Sansom reported to me that a soldier was at the rear entrance. He also told me there were 2 blankets there and that he instructed the man to wait until he had returned. We immediately proceeded to rear entrance. The soldier and blankets had disappeared. CSM Cannon came behind me. I saw no one I remember in the corridor. I did not see the accused in the corridor. I saw no one carrying a couple of blankets in the corridor. I then proceeded from the rear entrance through the corridor to the front entrance alone. I walked from the rear entrance to Rue Coil Rue and ran from there to front entrance. I ran because I thought if the man with the blankets went around the hotel from the rear that I could catch him at the front of the hotel. I saw the soldier with blankets under his arm at the front of the hotel. The accused is that soldier. I saw him with blankets under his arm. He was across the street and slightly to the right of the front entrance. I mark the position on "sketch A". He would be on the right side of an imaginary line running through the corridor from front to rear and extended to the block opposite. I shouted to him to come back. He came back. I took him to Rue Coil Rue and placed him under close arrest. I did not ask nor did he say where he was going. Blankets are drawn from Blanket Dept in the rear of QM Stores. There is an entrance to Blanket Stores from Rue du Congo. Blankets are turned in there. I have conducted groups of patients to drawing and turning in blankets.

I take them from Central Hotel to Rue du Congo entrance of Blanket Dept. I have never taken them to front door of QM Office. I have seen individuals turn in ~~blankets~~ but never blankets. ~~other~~ other equipment in QM Office when RQMS Sansom called me I was standing in ~~the~~ office. He did not come in the room. I could see out in the corridor. The door was open I saw no one in the corridor going by as I was talking to Sansom. I didn't notice CSM. Cannon until we arrived at rear entrance. We walked there. We spent about 2 minutes at the rear entrance looking for him. There is a clear ~~entrance~~ view both ways to each corner. The accused's room is not on my corridor floor.

Cross Examination:

I arrested the accused. At that time I wouldn't say that he was out of breath. I was in Div Ord Rm when Sansom came to me. There is another room on that floor used by CSM. It is CSM's office. It is not possible to go from rear to front of bldg. except thru by the corridor. I cannot say how far it is from rear of bldg. via Rue Leopold II and Rue Tabora and Main St to where the accused was when I first saw him. The main routes by army pers from Central to Grand Hotel (HQ Com Depot) is by the Main Street. It is possible to go from rear of Central Hotel to QM Stores quite easily. Going to QM Stores from Central Hotel you may take either route. I don't know how many were in the Ord Rm when Sawson called me. I had just arrived. I did not look towards the front door when I came out of the Ord Rm. We walked to rear door. I don't know the approx distance between Ord Rm & rear door. Lights are always on in the corridor from Div Ord Rm back. He was to my right across the street. I don't know how far to the right. When I saw him first in my coy lines he had no blankets. There were no blankets reported missing to me that day. I spoke to the accused when I arrested him. I don't remember if I asked him why he was carrying blankets. I asked him if he were the same man I talked to earlier in the morning in my lines and he replied yes. I did not ask him where he was going with the blankets.

By the Court:

The patients would be on parade at that time in the a.m. They were on parade when I inspected coy lines. I didn't notice any other patients in coy lines when I saw the accused. We have a sanitation squad. We had no line or hut orderly. We have them now. The accused was walking towards the sea when I saw him on Main Street. He was at the Jct of Main St and Ave de la Reine when I stopped him. There are no billets etc of Conv. depot on Ave de la Reine. The Rue Tabora is just an ordinary street.

RP 83(B) complied with.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

L-22062 CSM Cannon T., No 2 Coy Conv. Depot having been duly sworn states: I am in charge of Conv. Depot. At approx 1030 hrs on 22 Jan 45 I was in CSM's office in Central Hotel. I recognize the office on Exhibit "A". Previous to that Pte Rochefort, the accused whom I now recognize, was absent off parade. The parade was at 0830 hrs. After the parade was over I went to his quarters which was in Room 108 on 2nd floor at the back of the Central Hotel. The bottom floor is the ground floor. (Witness marks accused's room on Exhibit "A") It is directly over the rear entrance. It faces on Rue Leopold II. He was in bed. I asked him why he was in bed. he replied that he was on excused duty. I informed him that he was not

On excused duty and he was to report to me in the CSM's office. In the meantime I had admin work to do which prevented me from remaining in CSM's Office. I was in the Office when at approx 1030 hrs. I came outside the Office and was there approx 5 minutes. I was speaking to a patient for about 2 or 3 minutes. I was on my own for awhile when RQMS Sawson went to Div Ord Rm on [redacted] for CSM Peterson. They went out to back entrance. I saw RQMS Sawson go to the entrance of the Ord Rm from where I was standing outside the CSM's Office. I went to the rear of the hotel as a result of the conversation I overheard between Sawson and Peterson I did not see the accused. I was immediately behind the RQ and CSM. I did not see the accused on the way. I saw no one with any blankets. When I got to the rear of the hotel the RQ said "There is the place" I left the men with the blankets". We searched around the rear of the Hotel. CSM Peterson left us and went to the front of the Hotel through the corridor. When we found no trace of a soldier with blankets I returned to Div Ord Rm where I Saw CSM Peterson with the accused and 2 blankets. I recognized the accused as a patient in my coy. After CSM Peterson had placed him under close arrest I proceeded to the accused's quarters. He did not come with me. I went to the accused's bed and found he was 1 blanket short. They were issued with 4 and he had 3. I checked the bed opposite and on the lower bunk were 2 blankets missing. The accused had been in my coy about 4 days. There is no guard in the corridor of the bldg in the day time. I went direct from ~~Div Cmd Rm~~ CSM's Office to back of hotel.

Cross examination:

When I saw the accused in bed that a.m. he was the only one in the room. I think he was asleep. I was in the Cmd Rm, the CO's Office and CSM's Office. I ~~was~~ am almost sure I did not leave the bldg between the time I saw the accused in bed and followed CSM Peterson to the ~~rear~~ of the Hotel. I did not spend part of my time on the 1st floor. I was in the CO's Office ~~about~~ only 3 minutes. I was in Div Cmd Rm maybe 10 or 15 minutes. By approx 1030 I mean it wasn't 1000 or 1100 hrs. It was around 1030 hrs. I have a sense of time. I searched the back of the Hotel not more than 5 minutes. CSM Peterson left the Rm and myself when we started to search. From the rear to front door via Tabora St is approx 100 to 125 yds. It is 50 to 75 yds through the Hotel. It is not more than 150 yds via Tabora St.

By the Court.

I told the accused to get out of bed and report to me at the Office. It was about 0700 hrs.

4th Witness for the Prosecution

14-93444 Pte Carr J N, X-3 Unit RNZAC, patient in 2 Conv Depot having been duly sworn states:

I was patient in 2 Conv Depot 22 Jan 45. I sleep in Room 108. I recognize the accused. He slept in my room. I was on parade 23 Jan 45. On that a.m. I went on parade at 0835. I had 4 blankets and I know this because I made my bed and we're supposed to have 4. Came back to room at 1130 hrs. I went to my bed. I noticed 2 blankets missing. All beds were made up at 0835 except Pte Pakefort who was still in bed. Everyone makes own bed at all times. There is no room orderly. I was not in my room between parade and 1130. My kit was on my bed and my big pack was down flat. I reported the missing blankets to CSM Cannon. I did not see the accused after 0825 hrs ~~that~~ until that day. CSM Cannon had 2 blankets in his office which he gave me. They were army blankets.

Cross examination:

There are 6 in the Room 108 altogether. I have no reason to believe the accused took my blankets. I did not know him until I had been to Conv. Depot. On the a.m. of 23 Jan 45 the 4 other soldiers were with me at the Casino doing P.T. They were with me all the morning. I was not called any time since 22 Jan to identify blankets.

By the Court:

I did not recognize the 2 blankets CSM Cannon gave me as 2 I had lost. They were just 2 blankets. The blankets on my bed were folded separately and piled one on top of the other.

RP 83(B) complied with.

1st Witness for the Defence

The accused, B 55631 Pte D Rochefort Alq Regt att. 2 Can Corps Depot having been duly sworn states:

On 22 Jan 45 I had understood from the MO that I was to be excused duty that day. At the a.m. I didn't get up. CSM Cannon woke me. Told me to report to CSM's Office. I went down as soon as I dressed to wait for Sgt Major. I noticed I had no gloves. I started back upstairs to get them. Without thinking, instead of going up to my floor I followed the 1st floor and met CSM Peterson. I walked through to the end and turned around to come back. CSM Peterson asked what I was doing. I told him I had missed my floor. I went up to my floor and came downstairs again. I was walking up & down the corridor on the ground floor waiting for CSM Cannon. He wasn't around. I thought he was outside. I opened the back door to see if he was there. I noticed 2 blankets on the sidewalk. I walked over to them. I saw a Sgt Major. I didn't know at the time who he was.

I examined them to see how many there were. He asked me what I was doing. I answered I had just got there as he did. We both looked at the windows then he talked but I couldn't understand very well. It was something about where they were coming from and then he opened the door and went into the hotel. I waited for awhile. I didn't know what to do. Then picked up the blankets, walked through the corridor up to CSM's office. Nobody was in there. Thought of taking the blankets to QM Stores. Wasn't on side. I wasn't sure where the blanket section was. I knew the general direction but wasn't positive. We had drawn blankets there 2 days before. I was just about to cross the street when the CSM called me back. Then he brought me to the Old Run and put me under close arrest. He asked me if I remembered meeting him awhile before. I said yes. I was alone in the main floor of the hall. There was a soldier walking up and down the hall. There was a soldier in the lounge. The lounge is the 1st door on the right hand side as you come in the rear door. I couldn't say if there was a CO's Parade. I've been in the Army since Sept 1941. Landed in France 4 June. Was in front line from then to end of Dec. I was Coy runner in the Regt. I have not been wounded. I was in ~~Con Depot~~ Hosp because I had nervous breakdown. I arrived in Hosp around 22 Dec. I reached Conv Depot on 16 Jan.

Cross examination:

I waited outside with the blankets about 5 minutes before I decided to take them to QM Stores. On the way through the corridor I stopped in CSM's Office. I did not see RQ in the corridor. I don't know if his Bed Room door was open. I did not see CSM Cannon in front of his office nor in the Office. I wasn't too sure where the Blanket Stores are. I went across the street to see if I get some information where the stores were. I drew blankets from a kind of garage. I went across the street to get a good look at the area. I went down to the right because there was traffic. I wanted to go toward the sea. I don't think I was far down the street to the right. I wouldn't be so crazy to walk in the street with blankets and soldiers around. I did not see any Sgts Major in the corridor. I never have passed them without seeing them. I did not go around the block via Rue Tabora. I'm positive I didn't. I'm positive I went through the corridor. I've never noticed that my room is directly above the door at the rear of the hotel.

By the Court:

I landed with the Algonquins. I was with them up to the time I went to Hyps. I was a runner for a Rifle Coy. The M.O. told me I didn't have to go on duty that a.m. He told me the a.m. before on Sick Parade. The M.O. doesn't give any slips to excuse duty. I was 4 or 5 ft. from R.Q.M.S. when we were talking. It is a windy town and I only got a wool blanket here and there. I had 4 when I left the a.m. I had only 3 at 1500 hrs. We eat in Central Hotel.

Re Rochefort. 5 May 45
FGCM

Prosecution - Summing up:

Samson accused standing by two blankets at rear of hotel, then walks into corridor and asks for Peterson at Div orderly room.

Peterson says that he immediately accompanied Samson to rear of hotel.

Cannon at this time was outside of his office, in corridor and overheard request for Peterson.

As a result all three CSM's proceed to rear of hotel where accused has left with blankets also missing.

All three CSM's fail to see accused go through corridor with blankets under his arm.

Peterson walks halfway and runs halfway back through corridor and arrives at front door. He sees accused across street at a point to the right of an imaginary centre line as you look out of the front door. He then calls accused back and places him under arrest for being in possession of the two blankets.

Prosecution has produced 3 witnesses who all claim to have been in corridor at approximately time accused states he passed through. This applies particularly to evidence of CSM Cannon who was standing outside of his office door when Samson called for Peterson. It is up to the Court to decide whether from this evidence, accused is correct in his statement that he did pass through. If he did it is the prosecution's submission that a man about to proceed left to Grand Hotel would not go to his right. accused was across street to the right as you look from front hotel door accused says that he was across there so that he might get a better view of Grand Hotel in order to recall portion of that building which contained blankets stores. On this point the prosecution suggests that accused would get a much better view of Grand Hotel by going down the street to his right. Each step to the right would decrease the angle of vision which accused really wanted. The prosecution suggests to the court that the evidence shows that the accused could not have gone through the corridor in question. It is for the court, in its cross examination, tools and the correctness or plausibility to query the explanation on the part of the accused of another explanation. The prosecution has produced evidence to the effect that these 3 CSM's were in a position to see the accused go thru the corridor and in fact never saw him. It is the prosecution's contention therefore that the accused did not adopt this route and was not disposing of the blankets in a manner which could be expected of an ordinary, reasonable soldier acting in the same circumstances. It is further intended that the accused's method of disposing of these blankets was in fact an improper handling of the army property.

1st Lt Cullin Jr
Prosecutor.

(Closing Address)

By the Defending Officer — re: B-55637 Pte Rockefort Arrested. —

May he please the Court,

The Defence put out that the evidence given by the accused and all the witnesses corroborates and that there is not proof enough in that evidence to find the accused guilty.

The first witness states in his testimony that he does not think that the accused was ever in improper possession of 2 army blankets this testimony is corroborated by Pte Carr who says "I have no reason to think that the accused took my blankets." Cpl Allen more Carr was never asked to identify the blankets that were on the sidewalk. —

C.S.M. Peterson was called by Cannon to go to the back door and checked about two blankets and the accused with one nor the other and Peterson got in again and run to the front door to have a look, he saw the accused on the sidewalk across the street proceeding forward to the rear front. — He was not out of breath, he said so he did not surely had time to walk all around the block and he found in front of the Central Hotel. —

The third witness for the prosecution gave the reason why the accused was on the main floor around 10.30 hrs that morning. He gave himself a specific order to the accused to be get out of bed and come down on the main floor and report to him. — I think anything wrong from the part of the accused to be on the spot and have a look around for C.S.M. Cannon. — Then C.S.M. Cannon woke the accused and told him to report on the main floors.

C.S.M. Cannon does not know exactly at what particular time he was at the door of his office. — In cross examination this morning he said that he was there between 10 and 10 hrs, but he cannot swear that he was positively there at 10.30 hrs. He might have been there at 10 2 5 hrs, or 10 2 5 hrs he is not sure. —

I am inclined to say that the accused is a victime of circumstances, because he was ordered to report there, on the main floor, his duty was on the main floor, he was ordered to take care of the blankets and he did. I cannot imagine why after having ordered to take care of those two blankets he is now put under arrest because he is in possession of the same. —

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. B.86637 Private ROCHEFORT Armand, a patient at No.2 Convalescent Depot, R.C.A.M.C., X-S List Algonquin Regiment, C.I.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, is charged with Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline in that he was in improper possession of public property, i.e. two (2) army issue blankets. (A.A.Sec.40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness: G.88078 H.W.S.Sansom, T.M., of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, R.C.A.M.C., sworn states:-

I am H.W.S. of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, R.C.A.M.C. I was walking along the street between 1030 hours and 1100 hours, Monday, 22 Jan 45. As I approached the rear of the Central Hotel, one of the unit billets, I noticed two army blankets lying on the sidewalk. At the same time, the accused, whom I recognise, came out the door of the Central Hotel. As I reached him he was in the act of picking up one blanket. I asked him what he was doing with the blankets as I had done myself. He spoke together casually, wondering where the blankets had come from. I then asked him to remain with the blankets until I came back. I went directly to the Divisional Orderly Room and asked C.S.M. Peterson to step outside with me. When we arrived outside where the accused and the blankets had been, the accused and the blankets had gone.

Cross-examined by accused:-

Q. Are you sure you told me to remain there, as I have no recollection of your doing so?

A. I definitely remember saying for you to remain where you were.

The accused declined to further cross-examine the witness.

H.W.Sansom

Second Witness: C.88099 C.S.M. Peterson, R.C., of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, R.C.A.M.C., sworn, states:-

I am a C.S.M. with No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot. Private Rochefort is in my Division. At about 1030 hours, I was making a tour of my Company lines. I noticed the accused and questioned him as to what Company he belonged and what he was doing in my lines. He did not give me a very satisfactory answer. I then told him to return to his own lines. On finishing my tour of duty, I returned to the Divisional Orderly Room, at approximately 1040 hours. It was then that H.W.S. Sansom brought to my attention that there was a soldier at the rear entrance of the Central Hotel with two army blankets. I asked him if the soldier was still there. He said that he had told the soldier to stay with the blankets until he returned. When we arrived at the rear entrance, both the blankets and the soldier had gone. I immediately proceeded from the rear entrance to the front entrance where I saw the same soldier whom I had been talking to earlier in the morning in my Company lines. He was across the street from his billets proceeding away from the same with the blankets. I shouted to him to come back and immediately placed him under close arrest. I took him to the Divisional Orderly Room and reported to the acting R.S.M. and then turned the soldier over to Sergeant Baker of the Unit R.P.

Second Witness (Cont'd)

Cross-examined by accused:-

Q. On what floor did you see me earlier in the morning?
A. The First Floor.

Q. Did the R.S.M.S. report to the Orderly Room or to the C.S.M's office?
A. To the Divisional Orderly Room.

The accused declined to further cross-examine the witness.

R. Peterson

Third Witness: L.22062 C.S.M. Cannon, T. of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, N.C.A.M.C.

I am a C.S.M. with No.2 Division of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, Private Rochefort is in my division. At approximately 1045 hours on the 28 January 1940 I was in the hall of the ground floor of the Central Hotel when R.S.M.S.Sanson came in to report that there was a soldier at the back entrance of the hotel with two army blankets. R.S.M.S. Sanson and myself in company with C.S.M. Peterson proceeded to the back entrance of the Hotel to see the soldier with the blankets. When we arrived there, the soldier was gone. Also the blankets. R.S.M. Sanson and myself searched the back area whilst C.S.M. Peterson went through the hall to the front of the hotel. The R.S.M.S. and myself not finding anything went back into the hotel where we saw C.S.M. Peterson with Private Rochefort and the two blankets in the Divisional Orderly Room. The R.S.M.S. recognised Private Rochefort as the soldier he had told to stay with the blankets. I recognised Private Rochefort as a soldier of my Company.

The accused at this point was asked if he wished to cross-examine the witness.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

J. Cannon

Fourth Witness: H.93444 Private Carr, J.A. of X-8 List N.C.A.M.C., a patient at No. 2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, N.C.A.M.C., sworn, states:-

I am a convalescent with No.2 Division of No.2 Cdn Convalescent Depot, I sleep in the room 106 at the Central Hotel. When I went on parade at 0845 hours on the 28 January 1940, there were four blankets on my bed. On returning from parade at 1130 hours, there were only two. I reported this to C.S.M. Cannon, my Company commander.

Cross-examined by accused:

Q. Have you any reason to believe that I took your blankets?
A. No. It could have been anyone.

Q. Was there any mark on your blankets that you could recognize them by?
A. No, there was no mark.

The accused declined to further cross-examine the witness.

J A Carr

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.
A. I want to make a statement.

Q. On oath or not on oath?
A. On oath.

The accused having been duly sworn, states:-

At about 1030 hours on the 22 January 1945, I was downstairs waiting for C.S.M.Cannon. He had told me a few minutes before to wait for him there. I was walking up and down the corridor. I opened the back door and saw something lying on the ground and walked over to where it was. Then I saw a C.S.M. coming up the street. I have since learned that it was R.Q.M.S.Cannom. He asked me who owned the blankets. We both looked at the windows of the building. Then, without saying anything, he opened the door and walked into the Central Hotel. I stood there and did not know what to do. I waited there for some time and no one came back. I picked up the blankets and walked through the corridor to the front of the hotel. Before getting to the front of the hotel I looked into the C.O.M's office and no one was there. I stayed at the front door and saw no members of the staff there. I then decided to take the blankets to Quartermasters stores. I had gone a short distance from the door when the other Sjt.Major called me back. I came back and gave him the blankets.

The accused does not call any witnesses. A Rockfort

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of three pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and the R.P.(C),(D),(E),(F) have been complied with.

Monday21st. May 1945

Mrs. the President

Gentlemen of the court.

You have to day in front of you an old soldier. Soldier Hecheleau is in the army since the 23rd of April 1940. He has served five years simple time service ever seas. He has been in Iceland with the Fus Mit and he also took part of the raid at Dieppe in 1942 and he spend the seventh first months of action with us without a reproach.

He crossed with us the 6th of June 1944

Since the establishement of a carrier platoon, in an infantry regiment, pte. Hecheleau is a carriers' driver. He never had done anything else, but driving a carrier.

After a 28 hrs. pass granted to him in decembet,(not for his misconduct I am sure) pte. Hecheleau had to be evacuated to the hospital. When he came back few days after his coy. Comd. told him: "You are not to drive the coy. carrier any more, you will report to pl.no.10 section one." Then pte. Hecheleau asked the permission to have an interview with the C.O. This permission was granted to him. Then he explained to the colonel his case, he told him: " I never have done any infantry in my life and I never had any training for this purpose, so I would like you to transfer me in my old platoon, platoon no. 4 in the sup. coy. What it proves that pte. Hecheleau had the good will of serving again in the best of his capacities. But the only answer he has was, " I AM THE BOSS HERE AND YOU WILL DO WHAT I WILL PLACE YOU "

Discouraged by this answer pte. Hecheleau didn't know what to do. As of course, pte. Hecheleau, didn't want to be killed crassly, and may be have some of his camarades killed for him because he didn't know his job.

When he was paraded en charge in front of the C.O. he put the same request, then the C.O. gave him 0 hrs. to change his mind. When he was paraded again 0 hrs. later he told the C.O. I AM READY TO SERVE IN THE CARRIER PLT AND DO MY BEST. EVEN I ALWAYS DONE out I feel incapable to served like a rifle man due to the fact that I don't know anything about it. What it proves that pte. Hecheleau didn't refuse to served his centry with the best of his capacities, but only feel merely incapable to serve as a rifleman.

So gentlemen of the court, before you pronounce your verdict, I would like you to consider the following facts.

1) The long service of this soldier.
2) The good conduct of this soldier in his five years of service.
3) That Recheleau have never done anything else but" DRIVING A CANNON
4) The way he was treated for an old soldier of the regiment.
5) The good will he proved till the last moment to served his country with the best of his capacities.
6) Is a little fact who seems funny to me, "WHY WAS HE KEPT THREE MOONTHS IN DETENTION BEFORE HE HAD HIS COURT MARTIAL?"

I thank you gentlemen, this is all I have to say.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Plea of Mitigation for the Defence

D-139607 Pte Joseph Maurice Albert ROCHETTE

The accused is 24 years of age, single
He enlisted 25 Feb 43 arrived in U K
3 Sep 43.
He came to France with his unit
6 July 44, was wounded on 21 July 44
and sent back to hospital in England for two months. He then returned to his unit and served with them to 18 Jan 45. He had fought continuously with his unit and was given a 48 hr
pass from Holland to go to Brussels.
Pte Rochette had asked for a pass five times before but had been refused while many in his unit with a musch less period of service had been granted passes.
He had also requested to transfer to Sp Coy in his unit but had been reused.
For these reasons Pte Rochette was not satisfied and decided to take a few extra days leave additional to his 48 hr pass.
He did not intend to stay away as long as he did but was afraid to give himself up because he did not know what would happen
This soldier has a clear crime sheet
and has served well in the line.
He wishes to return to his unit as quickly as possible
I ask the Court to show as much leniency towards this man who has committed his first offense.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. NO.(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Plea of Mitigation for the Defense

D-139607 Pte Joseph Maurice Albert ROCHETTE

The accused is 24 years of age, single
He enlisted 25 Feb 43 arrived in UK
3 Sep 43.

He came to France with his unit
6 July 44, was wounded on 21 July 44
and sent back to hospital in England for two months. He then returned to his unit and served with them to 18 Jan 45. He had fought continuously with his unit and was given a 48 hr
pass from Holland to go to Brussels.
Pte Rochette had asked for a pass five times before but had been refused while many of his unit with a much less period
of service had been granted passes.
He had also requested to transfer to Sp Coy in his unit but had been refused.
For these reasons Pte Rochette was not satisfied and decided to take a few extra days leave additional to his 48 hr pass.
He did not intend to stay away as long as he did but was afraid to give himself
up because he did not know what would happen.
This soldier has a clear crime sheet
and has served well in the line
He wishes to return to his unit as quickly as possible.
I ask the Court to show as much leniency towards this man who has committed his first offense.

CERTIFIED A TRUE RECORD OF THE TRIAL, this 10th day of July, 1943.

G. Williamson Captain
Judge Advocate

ADDRESS BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER

With regard to the first charge--striking a superior officer, who was in the execution of his duty--the accused has shown that he was unaware of doing this. The evidence we have heard from L/Cpls Bruce and Rutherford was somewhat conflicting in that L/Cpl Bruce maintained that the accused spoke in a sensible manner whereas L/Cpl Rutherford says the accused had to be helped in the truck. L/Cpl Robins says the accused got in the truck himself. It is quite conceivable that he did not show much judgment on the part of the two men as to what condition this man was in.

In my mind this charge is a serious one and if this man was drunk, that charge is sometimes less serious than if he were sober. The evidence certainly bears out that he was in an intoxicated condition. Mr. Hanging [illegible] might also bear out the fact that the accused was suffering from the effect of alcohol. This [illegible] charged and tried with drunkenness, as was brought out in the evidence, and he was convicted. I feel that under the circumstances, this charge of striking a superior officer, is absolutely bound up with the charge [illegible] against Pte Whalen. From the evidence they were drinking together, their stories did not jive on the amount of money spent but I cannot understand why one charge was laid against a man and an altogether different one against the other man. The defence does not make out that the accused did not strike his superior officer and I think their condition should be taken into consideration.

About creating a disturbance, there is a lot of conflicting evidence. L/Cpl Bruce tells us that the Engish police arrested the accused first. L/Cpl Rutherford's evidence does not bear that out and the evidence of L/Cpl Robins was to the effect that the CMP did not have any contact with the accused. If the CMP went up to the accused in the first place, there was likely to be trouble as the average Canadian soldier is antagonistic towards them.

The story as to what they were doing is likewise quite conflicting. L/Cpl Bruce says they were hammering on the door, L/Cpl Rutherford says they were just knocking on the door, while L/Cpl Robins says they were on the side walk. If they had been hammering or banging on the door, I cannot see how anyone could not have heard them doing so. This is very confusing for some of the witnesses however.

The last point I should like to bring up with regard to the first charge is that some say he spoke sensibly. L/Cpl Bruce says the accused spoke sensibly and when asked to get in the truck got in himself. L/Cpl Robins says he helped him in the truck and I would again point out that their stories do not jive.

In summing up I believe that the first charge should have been reduced as I feel that it was just a case of drunkenness and a drunken brawl for they obviously had been drinking too much and that was what led to trouble.

ADDRESS BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE

The first charge is under Sec 8(1) of the Army Act which I would like to read to you (reads), in this case striking a superior officer in the execution of his office. I need hardly point out to you that any NCO is a superior officer of a private soldier.

Now then the accused's main defence to that charge is, as I understand, the defence of drunkenness. There is no serious attempt made from the evidence and from the Defending Officer's remarks to show that the accused did not strike L/Cpl Bruce. I might say that the best thing I could do is to read to you the remarks contained in MML regarding this defence. First of all I would like to read para 48 on page 25 (reads). In addition to this I want to read to you para 9 on page 106 (reads). That part I have read to you gives the law on the defence of drunkenness and the Court will have to determine whether the evidence of drunkenness is sufficient to show that the accused was unable to form the intent to strike the provost. Was he, by reason of the amount of liquor he had drunk, unable to form the intent essential to constitute the crime as charged? In coming to your conclusion you will consider the evidence. I should advise the Court to consider the defence of drunkenness with great care for it would be a very handy thing if an accused, in any case, could simply say he was so drunk he had no recollection of what happened. They must regard that defence with a great deal of care, otherwise there might be a great many cases where guilty men might go free when they should have been convicted.

With regard to the second charge, you will, of course, merely consider the charge on the evidence you have heard today. I think there was some mention that a disturbance had taken place in the neighbourhood where the accused was found. Whether or not there was a disturbance or whether the accused was involved in it, is up to you gentlemen to decide. You will consider the evidence merely from the time the provost arrived at the scene. The point is whether the accused was then creating a disturbance. The defence on this charge is that what he was doing did not amount to creating a disturbance but you will judge from the evidence whether or not the accused was creating a disturbance on that occasion. I take it also that if the Court finds there was a disturbance, the defence raises the issue of drunkenness in this charge as well. Assuming that you find the accused was creating a disturbance, you will have to consider the drunkenness defence.

With regard to the third charge, there is no evidence before the Court which would warrant a conviction and I advise you to enter a finding of Not Guilty.

It only remains to add that the accused is innocent unless you consider that the prosecution has proved him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this First day of October, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Royal Canadian Artillery 2 Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

* Omit if not applicable.

*[I am unable to appoint:—

*(1. [illegible])

*(2. [illegible])

*(3. [illegible] service.)

for the following reasons, namely:—]

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE in the case of P.7425 Gnr. ROCHFORT, C.N., 13 Cdn Fd Bty, R.C.A., 6 Cdn Fd Regt, R.C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

First Witness
H12052 B.S.M. Davidson, G.H., 13 Cdn Fd Bty, 6 Cdn Fd Regt., R.C.A. states:

Gnr. Rochfort was detailed in Bty Orders for duty on the Bty Exchange on 14 Sep 42. He did not report for duty at his appointed time 1600 hrs.

Later, approximately 1830 hrs, I saw him and asked him where he had been. He said he had been absent so I told him to report to L11054 Sgt. Stewart, W.J. (Signal N.C.O.) for duty.

Later I saw Sgt. Stewart and enquired as to Gnr. Rochfort and was informed that Gnr. Rochfort had reported and then disappeared. I never saw him again until after 1800 hrs 16 Sep 42 when he reported back to the Bty on his own accord.

(H12052 BSM Davidson, G.H.)

Second Witness
L11054 Sgt. Stewart, W.J., 13 Cdn Fd Bty, 6 Cdn Fd Regt., R.C.A. states:

Gnr. Rochfort was detailed in Bty Orders for duty on the Bty Exchange. As Signal Sergeant I detailed him to go on duty at 1600 hrs 14 Sep 42. He did not report at that time so I had to detail another Operator to take his place.

Later, at about 1830 hrs, I saw Gnr. Rochfort in the Bty Orderly Room and asked him where he had been and if he knew he had been detailed for duty, to which he replied "yes, and I have already seen the B.S.M.".

Any further questioning was useless as he would not give any intelligent reply.

(L11054 Sgt. Stewart, W.J.)

Third Witness
H12047 Sgt. Ryan, A.E., 13 Cdn Fd Bty, 6 Cdn Fd Regt., R.C.A. states:

I was Orderly Sergeant on 16 Sep 42. Gnr. Rochfort reported to me at 1800 hrs 16 Sep 42. I placed him under open arrest and told him to remain in his lines.

Gentlemen,

First of all I wish to thank the Prosecutor. He has gone to the trouble of getting witnesses for me yesterday, he went out of town to get Rochon's brother to come here.
We are dealing with a very young boy of 17 and it is quite possible that some of the strictest provisions of Military Law were not meant for a boy of that age.
The first charge is that of leaving his guard without permission. I think that I have proved that there was a certain amount of slackness in the supervision of the guard room. Rochon probably took advantage of that slackness. Although he had hadpermission twice to leave, the third time technically he had not permission to leave the guard room. But that permission was not always asked for and so I would think that it is possible to bring a man to Court Martial for this charge.

Now the 2nd charge; I will insist on the fact that the second charge is a direct result of the first one. We willhave to go into the legal aspect of the question. Rochon is accused of using threatening language. I have copied out of the M.M.L. two pragraphs - Page 58, chap 5, para. 5 and page 59 should be carefully considered.
We french people are great talkers, we talk a great deal but we do extremely little. I am sure that it happens twenty times a day one our Bn. that a man says to another man: "I am going to crack your nut" or something of that effect. We do talk alot but we don't mean it. This kid found that it was unjust to jump on him so hard for having gone next door in the Salvation Army Hut near the R.H.L.I. lines and in a moment of anger he said to his serjeant something which he should not have said. I am quite convinced that the serjeant-major was not frightened by this remark.
I think that the whole thing is absurd.
It really doesn't make sense, Rochon never intended to do a thing like that. Pte. Vincent summoned up the whole situation when he told Rochon not to make a fool of himself. Rochon was behaving like a fool and like a big kid.

Now we come to the third charge, that of disobeying an order. Maybe he failed to obey but he did not disobey. The circumstances were explained by the witnesses.
Rochon went digging, he had gone on the morning in his fatigue suit but was so wet that he came back and changed into his new suit.
He went back home for lunch then went back in the afternoon. He changed into his new suit. After that he was careful with this suit, he wanted to spare that new suit. His next door neighbour carelessly splashed him so in disgust, he threw his shovel away. The others were not working and he was one of the men working. They only shoveled a few shovels full. The day was so bad and rainy that orders came from the H.Q. of the Company that they were to stop digging.
There is no need for me togo more deeply into that case as I said when I started, the age of the man should be a very important declaration. I don't feel that he should be sent to hard labour or prison.

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

May it please the Court, as I said at the beginning of this trial the Prosecutor is an officer charged with helping the Court in the administration of justice. His duty is to establish by means of reliable witnesses that the accused has doneor omitted what he was charged with. It is the duty of the prosecutor to assist the accused, in this sense, that the prosecutor should try to make the issue as clear cut as possible. I submit to the court that the corpus, the general body of evidence presented by the prosecution is sufficient to establish that the accused was charged under proper sections of the Army Act and that these reppective charges have been proven to be imputable to the accused and that therefore there remains to the court only the easier part of its task, namely, considering the findings.
The age of the accused the prosecutor will admit; in fact the prosecution would have admitted as ture his own statement of his age; but where I believe the Court will differ in considering the age of the accused is in this: that youth is precisely the best time in which to help in the formation of a strong and reliable character by salutary discipline.
If we permit our judgments on actions of a younger person to be warped by a bit of sentimentality we are not being kind, we are not being fair, to that young person, for it is precisely control, and if need be, sanction of a just discipline that youth requires.
The defence has admitted what I may call the material guilt of the accused; and by "material" I mean the bare fact that the accused, in the first place, was absent without permission from the Guard Room, for a comparatively short time from 2130 to 2210 hours.
The Defence has also admitted the physical fact that the accused did use language which is insulting to hissuperior officer, his Acting Coy Serjeant-Major, who considered it sufficiently menacing to justify his placing the accused under close-arrest.
The Defence made merry of the supposed fear that Serjeant-Major may have felt by the threats of the accused but may I point out that it is not the important element involved; it is the uttering of threatening language quite irrespective how it affects the superiorofficer to whom, it is addressed. If we dismissed every case in which the accused is charged with using threatening language on mere ground that the superior officer so threatened is not frightened thereby, I am afraid that it would lead toaserious slackening of discipline. The superior officer in this case was but fulfilling a duty in charging this man with use of threatening language, moreover witnesses have definitely established that the accused made useof this threatening language immediately to his superior officer without any previous provocation.
Coming back for a moment to the first charge, with permission of the Court, I would refer to the testimony of one of the Regt'l police that there were some guard commanders who insisted that a specific permission be asked each time a member of the guard wished to leave the guard room and that other guard commanders were less conscientious. We have the present case, the testimony of the guard commander himself, that he demanded that permission be obtained each time; that he took an occasional roll call of names of members of the guard who were supposed to be in the guard room, so that implication of considerable slackness in the guard room may have been true on certain occasions, but from the testimony of the guard commander of 31 May there was no slackness during his tour of duty.
To corroborate this, the accused himself stated that he had obtained permission on the first two occasions that he left the guard room; he asked permission on the first time to leave with the kitchen fatigues and the second time to go with a man undergoing field punishment; this shows that he knew that a permission was necessary and that he could not leave the guard room whenever he so felt inclined.
To the third charge, I agree with the defence, as to the disagreeable circumstances of the work. Several witnesses recalled that picture of a rainy day, of a hard morning's work and of the very difficult circumstances that afternoon.
What I would point out with permissionof the Court is that there was practically a whole coy engaged in the same disagreeable work and I beg to recall that this was first pointed out, by witnesses for the prosecution.
The accused gave evidence of a considerable hard headedness to say the least he was the onlyman of the Coy who could so little tolerate with inclement weather, a circumstance over which we have no control, that he had to hurl his shovel away. This hurling away his shovel a considerable distance, I do not claim to be a very serious offence, but I do point out that refusal an order repeated three times to pick up the shovel is obviously refusin to obey an order, easily understood and easily obeyed.

I wish to end my address by the same note used by the counsel for the Defence, namely ~~that~~ the ~~xxxxxxx~~ admitted youth of the accused. But to that note I would suggest another tone. This Court would not be doing an act of kindness to the accused in condoning the offences which have been proved against him on account of his immaturity. But rather let the Court weigh well the truism that youth is the proper period of life for wholesome discipline and whereas the prosecution will gladly learn that this Court has mitigated what would be a just sentence on account of the youthfulness of the accused, the accused himself after being adequately punished for the charges proved against him will doubtlessly some time in the future look back upon his treatment by this Court as having contributed its salutary share to the formation of a strong and reliable character.

I thank you,

(E.H. LaPierre), Lieutenant, Prosecuting Officer.

ENQUETE PRELIMINAIRE.

Dans la cause de:

No. D-56464, Soldat Lucien Hochon, Cie. B, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, Canadian Army Overseas.

PROSECUTION.

First Charge:

1er témoin:

No. D-56101, Sergeant Jean Ladouceur, Cie. B, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O.S.), ayant été dûment assermenté, dépose et dit:

Le 31 mai, 1941, à Aldershot, Hants, Angleterre, en tant qu'acting C.S.M. de la Cie. B, j'ai détaillé le Soldat Hochon L. No. D-56464, pour le devoir de garde qui devait commencer à 1600 heures ce jour-là.

Vers 1530 heures, j'ai personnellement constaté, lorsque la garde s'est montée, que le Soldat Hochon était à son poste.

Ce devoir de garde durait de 1600 heures le 31 mai, 1941, à 1600 heures le 1er juin, 1941, sans arrêt.

Lorsque les soldats sont sur ce devoir, ils n'ont aucunement le droit de s'absenter soit de leur poste de garde ou de la salle de garde sans une permission de commandant de garde:- C'est un devoir continus de 24 heures.

Entre 2200 et 2230 heures le 31 mai, 1941, j'ai vu le Soldat Hochon en face de sa hutte, la hutte "C", Cie. B,; il était habillé en "walking out", accompagné de son cousin le Soldat Provost.

Je lui ai demandé d'où il venait et comment il se faisait qu'il n'était pas à son devoir de garde; il m'a répondu qu'il venait de la ville.

Je lui ai donné ordre d'aller mettre son accoutrement et de retourner à son devoir de garde en lui disant que je le paraderais le lendemain matin. Il s'est alors mis à me menacer: J'ai fait venir deux escortes, et je l'ai envoyé dans le glink après l'avoir mis "close-arrest."

Moi, le soussigné, D-56407, Cpl. Chaloux, B. de la Cie. B, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, C. A.(O.), ayant été dument assermenté dépose et dis:

Le 31 mai, 1941, j'agissais comme Sgt. de Garde dont faisait partie D-56464, le Soldat Hochon, L. Vers les 1800 heures j'ai fait un appel de ma garde - c'est-à-dire de ceux qui devaient être à ce moment dans la salle de garde. J'ai constaté que D-56464, le Sdt. Hochon, L. ici présent manquait à l'appel et qu'il n'était pas à la salle de garde. Vers 2210 D-56464, le Sdt. Hochon, L. est rentré dans la salle de garde sous escorte; l'escorte m'a fait rapport qu'il était aux arrêts de rigueur et le l'ai fait renfermé dans la salle de détention.

-SECOND CHARGE-

1er témoin:

No. D-58101, Sergeant Jean Ladouceur, Cie. B, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O.), ayant été dûment assermenté, dépose et dit:

Je connais bien l'accusé ici présent, comme faisant partie de la Cie. B, dont je suis un des sergeants et j'agis comme sergeant-major depuis le 1er mai, 1941.

Le 31 mai, 1941, à Aldershot, Barrosa Barracks, j'étais à parler en face de ma hutte, no. "G", avec le sergeant Desjardins qui était N.C.O. ce jour-là, et le soldat P. E. Turgeon, qui était N.C.O. lorsque le Soldat Rochon s'amena à nous accompagné de son cousin, le Soldat René Provost, de Witley; il était environ 2200 ou 2250 heures.

Le Soldat Rochon faisait partie de la garde, ce jour-là. Le voyant à la hutte, je lui ai demandé ce qu'il faisait là; il m'a répondu: "Je viens de la ville." Je lui ai alors dit: Rendstoi à la salle de garde, et tu peux parler pour cela" - Il riposta: "Ne me parle pas si rough et un de ces bons jours, on ira au front et là, je t'arrangerai."

Il partit alors pour aller dans sa hutte; je l'ai rappelé, mais il refusa de venir à moi: j'ai alors vu deux gardes qui descendaient de la hutte; je leur ai donné ordre d'escorter Rochon, car je le mettais sous close-arrest.

Sgt. Ladouceur J.

2ième témoin:

No. D-58057, Sergeant Jacques Desjardins, Cie. C, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, C.A.(O.), ayant été dûment assermenté, dépose et dit:

Le 31 mai, 1941, à Aldershot, Barrosa Barracks, j'exerçais comme N.C.O. J'étais à causer avec le Sergeant Ladouceur en face de la hutte G, (No. 8,-), il était environ 2200 heures.

L'accusé Rochon est arrivé à cette hutte avec un autre soldat.- Le Sergeant Ladouceur lui a alors demandé ce qu'il faisait là, comment il se faisait qu'il n'était pas à son poste à la salle de garde. L'accusé a alors répondu: "Ne me parle pas si rough, et un de ces jours, on ira au front et là, je t'arrangerai."

Je suis alors parti pour aller à mon devoir.

Je reconnais l'accusé ici présent comme étant le même soldat qui le 31 mai, 1941, au soir, a prononcé les paroles plus haut mentionnées, à l'égard du sergeant Ladouceur:-

Trième témoin:

Je, le soussigné, ayant été dûment assermenté dépose et dit:

Je suis D-Capit. le L-Cpl. Turgeon, P. E., de la Cie. B, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, C.A. (O.), Le 31 mai, 1941, j'agissais comme caporal de la semaine (C.O.C.). Entre 0800 heures et 0830 heures je me trouvais tout près de la caserne "C" qui est habitée par la Cie. B; j'étais debors et je parlais avec D-Soldat, le Sgt. Ladouceur, Jean qui était dans sa chambre à l'étage inférieur; la fenêtre de cette pièce était ouverte, ce qui nous permettait de causer l'un à l'intérieur et l'autre à l'extérieur. D-Capit. le Sgt. Hochon, L, habillé en tenue de promenade ("walking out") et accompagné d'un autre soldat vint à la caserne

Le Sgt. Ladouceur sortit de la caserne et donna ordre au Sdt. Hochon de monter à sa chambre et de mettre son équippement puisqu'il faisait partie de la garde. Le Sgt. Hochon répondit, "Je ne fiche de toi, et si ce n'était pas de ton trois barres, je t'arrangerais." Alors il mat monté à l'étage supérieur et moi je suis parti pour me rendre à la salle de garde. Quelque temps après je suis retourné au même endroit. Je remarquai que le Sgt. étant rentré à sa chambre préparait une formule d'accusation (Crime Sheet); le Sdt. Hochon descendit d'en haut, sortit de la caserne et vint se placer près de moi à la fenêtre ouverte du Sgt. Ladouceur. Le Sdt. Hochon demanda avec insistante de voir la formule d'accusation (Crime Sheet) que préparait le Sgt. Ladouceur. Celui-ci lui dit de se rendre à la salle de garde, mais le Sdt Hochon répondit, "Je ne partirai pas avant d'avoir vu le Crime Sheet". Alors le Sgt. Ladouceur appela deux hommes qui étaient dans la caserne. Un de ceux-ci était Sgt. Mc. D-Gregor, vinrent. ... Le Sgt. Ladouceur leur ordonna de L'ouvrage n'était pas agréable à faire puisqu'il-y-avait beaucoup de boue. Le Sdt. Rochon argumentait avec un autre soldat; je ne sais pas à quel propos. Je le vis lancer sa pelle à peu près deux pieds. Je lui donnai ordre de la ramasser; il m'a refusé j'ai répété l'ordre encore deux fois mais il persistait à refuser. B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans ..... (5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....

Prosecution makes no opening address.

Prosecution:-

1st Witness Major N.C.Dawson sworn states:-

My work at 1 Cdn Disciplinary Centre is to prepare documents and gather evidence for preparation of Court Martials. I identify the accused as Pte Rock. I had dealings with the accused in that he came to the office and made a voluntary statement. The accused was cautioned in the usual way i.e. I made my identity known to him and warned him that he need not say anything but that anything he did say would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. To show the accused understood he signed the warning. I recognize the statement shown to me as the one voluntarily given to me and witnessed by myself. Submitted to the court, signed and attached as exhibit "A".

Cross-Ex

He came to the office, purely voluntarily requesting to make a statement and no promises, pressure or any argument was used.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

Certificate of apprehension dated 10 Apr 45 signed and attached as Exhibit "B".

Prosecution closes

Defence makes no submission.

Defence:- The accused elects to give evidence on oath. The accused sworn states:

From the time I went AWL out of each week the re was 6 days in which I visited at Leopold Barracks in Ghent for a period of form 1 to 4 hours each day. I can get several N.C.O.s who were stationed there at the time to verify this fact, that they saw me there daily. This fact along with the fact I remained in Ghent for a prox 5 months, where I was in daily contact with Provosts, should establish the fact that I had no intention of deserting. Also the fact I signed a voluntary statement concerning my pay book knowing it could be used against me. Instead of bothering to tamper with my paybook, I could have put on civilian clothes and remained at home indefinitely. I was staying with civilians in Ghent. There were several places where I could have procured civilian clothes.

Cross Ex: I used my paybook to get by the Provosts as they checked to see when I was last paid. I tried to avoid the Provost because K knew I would be punished quite heavily for a little time as a long one and just put off that time as long as possible. Having a good time while I could. I did no work while away and required very little money to get by on as the civilian gave me bed and lodgings. I planned to return to the unit with two of my chums.

Court: I used to go to Leopold Barracks to see friends, visit the canteen and get cigarettes. My unit was at rest just outside Ghent when I went away. I just wanted a holiday and so I went AWL. I had leave on 6th July 44. Came to Eng 21 July 44. Came to France in Aug 44. I saw about 3 months action. I had a girl friend where I stayed. I used to go to cinimas, visit with the boys, go out with my girl friend, swimming bowling alleys etc. I was slightly wounded twice, I definitely intended to return to my unit. I did expect to be up on a charge of desertion, when arrested. I definitely was determined to get away, but later when I heard the penalty I planned to return to avoid a D.D. After I had been away for a short time I thought I would be tried for desertion so thought it might as well be for a long time as a short one.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with. "GBC"

Court closes to consider the finding - Finding of NOT Guilty of Desertion but Guilty of AWL. Defence calls no character Witness.

Prosecution submits MFM 6 & AF 296.

Plea of mitigation.

I was continuously with my unit from on or about 17 Aug 44 until at 0900 hrs 11 Nov 44 I went AWL. I was apprehended at 0845 hrs 14 Nov 44. I again went AWL at approx 1300 hrs the same day, that is 14 Nov 44 and have remained AWL until apprehended by the CPC at 0845 hrs 10 Apr 45.

I was placed under close arrest and escorted to the Guardroom of 4 Bn 3 CBRG, then under escort brought to L C.D.C. on 12 Apr 45, where I have been held ever since.

Since I went AWL in Nov 44 I have made entries in my paybook and signed a fictitious name as paymaster for the sole purpose of avoiding being apprehended by the CPC. I have never drawn any pay under these signatures. The last pay I drew from the Cdn Army was on or about Nov 4, 44.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

(1st Charge)

CHARGE against A-9602 Pte Rock, C. A., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A.S.F., Louisburg Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

"A SOLDIER OF THE C.A.S.F. While on Active Service, disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer, in that he when ordered by Sgt. McDonald, N.C.O. i/c Convoy and later by Sgt. Steele, Orderly Sergeant, to dismount from his vehicle, refused to dismount." A. A. Sec. 9 (2)

The Accused pleads "NOT GUILTY".

1st WITNESS: D-91995 Sgt. McDonald, J. A., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., RCASC, CASF.

On the night of Saturday, 9th November, 1940, I was informed that Pte. Rock had returned with a vehicle and in attempting to put it into the Park, the vehicle's left wheels went into a ditch which had been opened that day. Pte. Rock seemed to be making no headway so I ordered him down to his quarters. He refused to get down from the vehicle. I sent for the Orderly Sergeant, Sgt. Steele and ordered him to place Pte. Rock under arrest. Sgt. Steele also ordered Pte. Rock down. He finally did descend from the vehicle.

Que. 1 You say this took place in the Vehicle Park?

Ans. In the entrance to the Vehicle Park.

Que. 2 You have reference to the Vehicle Park of No.1 M.T.V.R.D.?

Ans. Yes, sir, the storage park of this Unit.

Que. 3 Located to the North of the Spider Hutments in Louisburg Barracks, West?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 4 Was the ditch, to your knowledge, there prior to the accident?

Ans. No, sir.

Que. 5 Were there any lights on it?

Ans. No, sir.

Que. 6 When you ordered the Accused to dismount, did he have any remarks to make at that time?

Ans. Yes, sir.

2.

Que. 7 What were the remarks?

Ans. He said that he was perfectly capable of taking the truck out himself; that he was in charge of the truck, and refused to dismount until he had got it out.

Que. 8 Then you called the Orderly Sergeant?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 9 Who was the Orderly Sergeant?

Ans. Sgt. Steele.

Que.10 Did Sgt. Steele give any orders?

Ans. He also ordered the Accused out of the truck.

Que.11 What was the Accused's response to Sgt. Steele?

Ans. I don't believe I heard it all.

Que.12 You heard the order given by Sgt. Steele?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que.13 How long elapsed between the order being given and his alighting from the truck?

Ans. I don't quite know.

Que.14 You don't know of your own knowledge?

Ans. No, sir.

Que.15 How long a time elapsed from the time you gave the order until Sgt. Steele arrived and gave him the second order to dismount.

Ans. From three to five minutes.

Que.16 When Sgt. Steele arrived you explained the situation to him and he gave the order?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que.17 Then you went on about the investigation of the truck?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que.18 You don't actually know the time he alighted from the truck?

Ans. I did see him alight from the truck. It was a matter of from six to seven minutes after he had been given the order.

Que.19 Was he warned?

Ans. I ordered him to get down from the truck, and then that he would be placed under arrest.

10

Que.20 How many times did you give the order?

Ans. Twice.

Que.21 Was he warned on the first or second time?

Ans. On the second.

Que.22 On Sgt.Steele's arrival, did you ask him to place this man under open or closed arrest?

Ans. Open arrest.

Que.23 Did you hear exactly what Sgt.Steele's order was?

Ans. No.

John G. McDonald D.7.9.45

(The Accused declines to cross-examine)

2nd WITNESS H-3777 Sgt. Steele, D. E., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., RCASC, CASF.

Que. 1 You were Orderly Sergeant on the date in question?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 2 What was your tour of duty?

Ans. From Monday, 4th November, at 0600 hours to 0600 hours, Monday, 11th November.

"It was approximately 2200 hours, 9th November, 1940, when I heard the sound of a vehicle which might have been in trouble, so I came out of the Sergeant's Mess located in the Spider Hutments, West Louisburg Barracks, being the Hutments occupied by this Unit, and proceeded to the West end of Barrack Room No. 7, where I found a truck with Pte. Rock in the driver's seat. He was in a rut and Sgt. McDonald asked him to get out of the truck. He definitely refused to do so. Sgt. McDonald turned to me and said, "I want that man out of that truck." So I came across to the truck and I said, "Rock, get out of the truck and let someone else drive it and get out of this hole. He definitely refused to do so. I came to him a second time and said, "Rock, this is not a request, this is an order." I had to do the same thing again and he eventually got out of the truck."

Que. 3 On your arrival at the scene, did you or Sgt. McDonald give any order?

Ans. I heard him tell Pte. Rock to get out of the truck.

Que. 4 Was there any reply?

Ans. He said, "I am in charge of this truck and I refuse to get out."

Que. 5 Was it after that, that Sgt. McDonald asked you to take action?

Ans. Yes, immediately.

Que. 6 You first requested him?

Ans. Yes, sir. I said, "Come on, Rock, get out of the truck."

Que. 7 Did you have any reply, in words?

Ans. In words. He said, "I will not get out of it."

Que. 8 What was the next thing you said?

Ans. I said, "This is not a request, this is an order."

Que. 9 Was there any verbal reply?

Ans. An absolute dead refusal, verbally. I repeated it the second time.

Que.10 Approximately what time elapsed from the time Sgt. McDonald gave the order, until he dismounted?

Ans. Roughly speaking, I would say about three minutes from the time Sgt. McDonald gave the order, until he dismounted.

Que. 11 Did you at that time advise him he was under arrest?

Ans. Yes, sir. I told him he was under open arrest before he dismounted.

Que. 12 Was there any reply?

Ans. He said, "That's all right."

Que. 13 And then he dismounted?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 1 Then what happened?

Ans. 1 (Cont'd) Then I told the men to take Pte. Rock to the guard room.

Witness Sgt. Steele asked permission to amend statement given in respect of the charge of using threatening language, as set forth in Charge No. 2, and the Accused registered no objection to him doing so.

AMENDMENT: "It was after I had ordered Pte. Rock under close arrest that he took his greatcoat off and threw it on the ground and resisted the idea of being placed under close arrest."

CHARGE against A-9602 Pte.Rock,C.A., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A.S.F., Louisburg Barracks,Bordon,Hants.

~~"A SOLDIER OF THE C.A.S.F. While on Active Service, offering violence to his superior officer, in that he when ordered into close arrest by Sgt. Steele, Orderly Sergeant, removed his greatcoat and resisted the escort who were ordered to remove him to the Guard Room" A. A. Sec. 8 (2).~~

The Accused pleads "NOT GUILTY".

The Accused states that he desires to have an Officer assigned to represent him at the trial.

1st WITNESS H-3777 Sgt.Steele, D.E., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A.S.F., Louisburg Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

Que. 1 At the time Pte. Rock used this language towards Sgt. McDonald, had he at that time been placed under close arrest?

Ans. No, sir. Under open arrest.

Que. 2 After using this language towards Sgt. McDonald, you ordered him placed under close arrest?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 3 Then you called Pte. Dillon and went into Barrack Room No. 6 to get Pte. Wren as the second escort?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que. 4 On the arrival of Pte. Wren, what efforts were made to conduct Pte. Rock to the Guard Room?

Ans. I fell one man in on each side of Pte. Rock and told Pte. Rock he was under close arrest, and to come with me to the Guard Room.

Que. 5 What was the result?

Ans. The result was that Pte. Rock put up quite a tussle for a minute or two, after removing his greatcoat.

Que. 6 When you told him he was under close arrest, he took off his greatcoat?

Ans. I called Pte. Dillon and Pte. Rock had his greatcoat on. Pte. Dillon came and I advised him he was under close arrest. Then I left and got Pte. Wren. When I returned his coat was still on. Then I ordered Pte. Wren also to mount guard and ordered him to the detention room. I then againadvised Pte. Rock he was under close arrest, and Ans.6 Cont'd to come to the Guard Room.

Que. 7 Did Pte. Rock go?

Ans. He said, "I will not go," and took his greatcoat off and threw it on the ground.

Que. 8 Did he go quietly after that?

Ans. No, there was quite a little mix-up for a minute.

Que. 9 In what manner did he resist arrest?

Ans. I told Pte Dillon and Pte.Wren to take him to the guard room, and that if it was necessary and they had to use force, it was O.K. They each took hold of one of Pte. Rock's arms and even at that he still resisted, until Pte. Wren made the remark, "Come on, Rock, go quietly you are only making it tougher for yourself."

Que.10 Some force was brought to bear in order to take Pte.Rock to the guard detention room?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que.11 Once they got Pte. Rock started toward the detention room was there any further resistance?

Ans. No, sir. I think that once Pte. Rock realized that he was under close arrest definitely, we had no trouble. There was no resistance when he got into the guard room Que.12 I went in and asked to see the Orderly Officer.

A Gattie H/3777

2nd WITNESS H-3702 Pte Wren, M., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A.S.F., Louisburg Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

"We were called out by Sgt. Steele who was Orderly Sergeant at the time. I went out by the truck where Pte. Rock was standing and was told to take him to the guard room. The only argument he put up was that he wanted to be placed under open arrest, not close arrest. We took him to the guard room and turned him over to Sgt. Sloan, sergeant of the guard at that time.

Que. 1 At approximately what time were you called to act as guard?

Ans. It was later than 2230 hours, the lights were out.

Que. 2 When you went out, what did you find?

Ans. I found Pte. Rock alongside the truck, with Sgt. McDonald, Sgt. Steele,, and Pte. Dillon. He had his coat off. I don't know where it was.

Que. 3 What happened during the course of the argument as to whether he should be placed under open or close arrest?

Ans. He tried to push us away. He said he did not have to be dragged.

Que. 4 Did you have hold of him?

Ans. No, sir. He said he would go up himself. He knew he was under close arrest and he argued the point and we then took him by the arms to get him started. After we took hold of his arms there was no resistance.

H.3702 Sgt. M. Wren

(The accused declines to cross-examine)

3rd WITNESS D-91999 Pte. Dillon, W. J., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A.S.F., Louisburg Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

"I don't know much about the case. I went with Sgt. McDonald up to the far bush with the sandwiches for the men at approximately 2130 hours. Then I came back with Sgt. McDonald in the van. I put the van away and we both went into the kitchen. We were talking to Cpl. Stewart when I heard a truck pull in. The truck stopped and there was some talking which I could not hear distinctly. I was still in the kitchen. Sgt. McDonald left the kitchen before I did. I stood there for a few minutes after hearing the truck pull in. I could not understand the talking from the inside, and I went outside to see what was going on and Sgt. Steele ordered me to act as an escort for Pte. Rock. His order was for me and Pte. Wren to take him up to the Guard House. Pte. Rock did not want to be put under close arrest. He wanted to be put under open arrest. So I went over to Pte. Rock with Pte. Wren, to bring him to the guard house. As I went to take his arm he pulled from me and his arm slipped out of his overcoat. I then gripped his arm, holding on to the coat with one hand. I then let the coat go as Sgt. Steele took the coat. I placed an arm lock on Pte Rock and Pte. Wren took his other arm and we marched him off. After I had the arm lock Pte. Rock made no resistance and came to the guard house. We escorted him to the guard house and I saw him locked in his cell?

Que. 1 You mentioned that you took hold of his arm. Which arm?

Ans. The right arm.

Que. 2 What part of the arm?

Ans. The wrist.

Que. 3 Why did you grab him at all?

Ans. He did not want to go the guard house under close arrest, he wanted to be under open arrest.

Que. 4 Why did his coat come off?

Ans. His coat came off because I did not get a firm grip on his wrist. As he was withdrawing his arm from my grip his arm came out of the sleeve.

Que. 5 How did his other sleeve come off?

Ans. We took the coat from him, then Sgt. Steele took hold of the coat.

Que. 6 Where did he put the coat?

Ans. I couldn't say, it was kind of dark.

Que. 7 Did Pte. Wren take the other arm at the same time?

Ans. Pte.Wren moved to the other side of Pte. Rock, and I can't say whether he grabbed his arm at the same time or not.

Que. 8 Did Pte. Rock himself take his coat off and throw it on the ground?

Ans. No, sir, he did not.

Que. 9 In order to conduct him to the guard room, you were forced to take the arm lock?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Que.10 Did he continue to resist?

Ans. There was no resistance after the arm lock. He said he would go quietly.

Que.11 Did you here any conversation betwwen Pte. Rock and Sgt. McDonald?

Ans. No, sir, I heard nothing.

Que.13 Have you any knowledge of what went on prior to the order given by Sgt.Steele to be an escort?

Ans. No, sir.

Cross-exam: Know nothing about gun after accid. Cleaned gun at 0700 & stood in corner. ~~replaced~~ cleaned gun, put bolt forward, did not cock it — cleaned gun, don't know if cleaned face of bolt, put it together, pointed it to ceiling & pulled trigger - stood it in corner & replaced mag -

Can't know if touched later.

Previous to 17 had not fired since left Eng. Have not put shell in barrel & taken it out.

Had cleaned gun couple of days before Capt Osdaridge & accid borrowed gun few days after accid about 1400 hrs - previous to this occasion had cleaned day or two days previous - Stand ~~got~~ about every 3rd day. Cleaned it, stood ~~got~~ & had not cleaned it since. Sometimes do clean face & under extractor of bolt. Cross-exam:- 17 Feb is correct. On that day requested accd to exam weapons - then at C Hqs. had exam at least 24 in different bldgs before this. E3 gun crews, the last gun crew to be inspected. Had examined more than 50 weapons in my Hqs. Accd approx 1435 hrs Procedure - as a rule, sometimes he picked up; sometimes the gnr + once 2 handed him ~~[illegible]~~ but he ~~[illegible]~~ him in other cases he removed loaded mags from gun, inspected chamber, pulled neck + then bore. He examined chamber immed after removal of ~~exam~~ mag by pulling bolt back + then had it fwd. Then generally removed bolt + pulled neck. First thing letting bolt go fwd is testing spring + partially - ~~[illegible]~~ operating chamber. Last thing to look thru bore. Previously when exam when pulling neck the gun pointed to floor + also to floor when exam chamber - to check bore put bolt to window.

Have never seen him point guns at anybody. In my opinion based on my observations he does always observed safety precautions. So carried non-automatic fire arms.

Clear gun by cocking twice which should extract anything in breech — It is sufficient to clear gun.

Could have been faulty extraction, dirty chamber, weak spring or dirty bolt head, defective round. Shell would remain in chamber. Have never had happen before such a faulty extractor. Point possibility of P.S not used much & 2 shows shotguns not used.

Testing for spring, striker protusion & extraction & cleanliness. Test is a drill carried out in all arms.

Gun was pointing towards floor as I demonstrated. Did not pay any attn to Bde Insp. I thought it must have been a recoil from angle & distance — I was about center of Rm. Recall only 2 positions that is the 45° angle & straight up in air when I dropped it. Examined gun after & it did same thing as stated by Capt Doddridge — in closing:- Reads charge - Reviews of fact - Most telling TSMG - knew position of various people - evidence as to angle at which gun pointing directly at Geer - Precautions should be such that weapon entirely clear of personnel. Room was unusual & conditions unusual - normal outdoor precautions not sufficient here as shewn by fact that man wounded. Accd used same procedure as always - until floor of type chance of ricco very great & course impossible to predict - Thus altho no direct evidence to shew that bullet direct ricco but urgent that sufficient precaution not taken. Was a window & if TSMG pointed in that direction unlikely to cause accid - shooting occurred because proper thought not given to conditions under which exam taking place.

Defence closing :- Boils down to one simple question i.e. whether sufficient care taken under the circs. 2 or 3 men in room showing inspected B.H.B in morning + in afternoon at E Sqn. submit accd if there was negligence he responsibility for men being there not on accds shoulders. Evidence also that comm. offr present with him + examined. under control of offr. If offr sees fit to exam arms there it is his responsibility. Men had been in line - many times on active service here to be done - In aldershot no one would be allowed in room but not enough room here, cramped quarters + no place else to go. They were trying to make selves comfortable + handle arms being examined. They should have left on them put out by offr.

Charge is not general - alleges pointing of gun at person - no evidence to that effect. No direct evidence that pointing gun any direction. Know how inspections carried out. Mr S says accd took all precautions.

Gun was cleared + have evidence to this effect corroberatory accds own evidence

Pros :- failed to prove anything :- that regard. Accd has right to benefit of doubt. No evidence of neglect other than men being in room + responsibility for that not accds. No question of wilfulness or malice aforethought accd took degree of care has been accustomed to take for 4 years during surrounding circs into consideration accd not guilty.

Bdr Teer was lying on the floor in front of him. I went to Bdr Teer and with S/Sgt Rockburn gave him first aid, and then I took him to 13 F.D.S. TRIAL OF

K.35459 Gunn BROCKWELL IM ------ 4 CDN REPAT DEPOT

BY

_ DEF OFFR _ _ _

The accused has pled guilty for being AWL for a very considerable period of time. As is shown on his RFP 6 it is only his second offence in a period of over six years. The accused has been overseas for a period of 4 years 11 months. Went to Italy with the First Div Sigs for one year and 4 months then went to France with the First Division, served through Holland, Belgium and into Germany and was then returned to England due to his high point score to go home in June of this year. When he arrived in this country one of the reasons for sending him here was that he had already made application for compassionate return to Canada but decided to drop it and go home on his points. The reason for his application was that during his service overseas, his only son who was eleven died, and very shortly afterwards his wife was shot in a hunting accident and was in hospital for a considerable length of time and was expected to die and has since partially recovered. When the accused arrived in this country he was on draft and was due to leave almost immediately. An error was made in his district depot form with the result that he was taken off draft and posted to transient strength. On first arriving at this country he had just completed a period of RLA leave and was given a period of 9 days leave. On being posted to Transit strength he was in the same boat as a lot more people who were posted to transit strength, nobody knew what to do with him and he proceeded on a succession of leaves between five and six leaves, all this time he was exceedingly worried about his family circumstances. He had himself paraded to the CO and got the usual story that there were no ships and that when there were ships he would be sent home.. Finally on the last leave he was on he did stay away two or three days, then he decided that since he had been away two or three days he might just as well stay away a few more days which is in many cases of AWL the reason for a lengthy AWL, the man goes absent, he may be absent only a day, he thinks to himself well I have had it, so what will I do now, so he stays away a few more days. The longer he stays away the more temptation he has to stay away and this is exactly what happened to the accused. He realized the longer he stayed away the more difficulties he would get into and being extremely worried and dissatisfied with the delay in sending him home he stayed away and before he knew it he had been away 21 days and having been in the Army a long time he knew that he was a deserter and knew what the judgement would be and by this time he didn't know what to do and intended to stay away until he got nerve enough to go back to the unit. The causes of it all are as I said, firstly the fact that he never got home, secondly that his nerves were shot, partly by the strain of long service, partly by the strain of anxiety for his family circumstances, he couldn't get home and there was nothing he could do about it and finally he is in the position he finds himself now. The accused is a man of 40 years of age, he has been a long time in the army. He is a man with a good record. His civil occupation is a telegraph operator a job which is a fairly responsible one. He is not the type of man who is going to desert the army, he is very obviously a respectable soldier, one AWL and that a matter of hours and this is a pretty fair record. I do not feel in this case the Court would be justified in proceeding to the extremes which the length of AWL would indicate because normally a long line of AWL's is behind it or else a precedent history of minor trouble. Here you have a man who up to the beginning of this happening has been a responsible citizen, a good soldier, a man who has finally cracked under the succession of strains and who got himself into a very serious situation. This is one of the cases which I think the court would be justified to deal with extreme leniency. They are not dealing with a man given to breaking Army rules or a hardened criminal.
