The Defending Officer makes the following Plea in Mitigation.

The plea of the defence is that the accused be given the lightest possible sentence for the following reasons:

(a) The charge to to which he has pleaded guilty is one which is normally laid against an individual who has deliberately made away with public property that he might pawn it for his own private gain. Such is not the case here. All the evidence indicates that the motive of the accused was an entirely unselfish one in that he wished to assist, in a small way, in a time of need a Dutch family which had shown kindness to him during the six weeks he was billetted with them.

(b) Secondly, although his thinking on the matter was admittedly muddled and his actions improper, the defence contends that he did not consciously commit the offence to which he has now pleaded guilty. The house to which he took the coal was one in which he had lived for six weeks. The two upstairs rooms were occupied by soldiers, of whom he had been one, until a day or so previous. These two rooms had no stove but were indirectly heated by the stove downstairs and the one pound of coal per day which is authorized for heating a soldier's billets had always been turned over by the men to the family downstairs to supplement its own suppy of fuel. On the 28th of Dec the accused visited his former billet, found the place cold, found that no military coal had been delivered for several days, yielded to a natural impulse on the following day by delivering the section's coal to a place where military coal had a legal right to be, though not this particular 20 pounds, and hoped in some way to make adjustments the next day. The defence contends, in other words, that the accusedmade a mistake in judgement, by trying to do a good thing in the wrong way, but that he did not consciously commit the offence of which he is technically guilty.

(c) In support of the argument advanced above, the defence wishes to draw attention to the accused's record. During his entire period of service he has had a clear record except for an offence about a year ago for which he was reduced in rank from Sergeant to soldier. During the last year, he has won back by efficient service, the rank of Cpl, and is now the Senior Cpl in his unit. At the time of the incident for which he is now charged he stood to gain much by continued good conduct, and it is not reasonable to suppose that, placed as he was, he would deliberately and consciously have jeopardized his position.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

A

In the case of

M25851 Cpl. ROCKWELL, J. F., No. 2 Cdn Provost Coy, 2 Cdn Inf Div, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas.

THE ACCUSED is informed of his rights.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS: L22194 Sjt. MANVEILLER, A., 2 Cdn Provost Coy, 2 Cdn Inf Div, duly sworn, states,

"While at MOOK on the 29 Dec 44 at approx 1400 hrs Cpl ROCKWELL was detailed to draw rations from Coy Hq. Before proceeding to Coy Hq I told Cpl ROCKWELL to draw our ration of coal from the CQMS.

At approx 1630 hrs Cpl ROCKWELL returned to MOOK with the rations. I asked him whether he had drawn any coal and he replied that the quartermaster had not given him any.

On 30 Dec 44 I proceeded to Coy Hq at 1400 hrs and contacted the quartermaster and asked him why he had not given Cpl ROCKWELL a ration of coal. The quartermaster informed me that he had given Cpl ROCKWELL the coal, the amount of which he described as approximately half a sack. I then proceeded to the RSM's office and reported the matter to the RSM.

After reporting, I proceeded to house No. 362 St Jacobslaan, Nijmegen, where Cpl ROCKWELL had stayed previous to moving to MOOK. There were two women and a man there, all civilians, of whom one woman could speak English. I asked her whether anyone had brought any coal to that house that day. She told me that no-one had brought any coal. I then left, picked up my rations for the day and proceeded back to MOOK.

At 1715 hours I summoned Cpl ROCKWELL and asked him what he had done with the coal which he had drawn from the QM the previous day. Cpl. ROCKWELL stated that he had drawn approx 20 lbs of coal and had given it to the people where he used to stay, at 362 St. Jacobslaan, Nijmegen. I then placed Cpl. ROCKWELL under Close Arrest and brought him back to Coy Hq and turned him over to the RSM.

The RSM and myself then proceeded to No. 362 St Jacobslaan, Nijmegen, and I again asked the people whether anyone had brought any coal the previous day. The two ladies then said that ROCKWELL had brought some coal, and showed us some coal which they said "Rockie" had brought. I took a sample of the coal.

CROSS-EXAMINED by The Accused:

Q.1 Whom did you talk to when you went to the house the first time?
A.1 The lady with the black hair.

Q.2 Was there anybody else present at the time?
A.2 Yes, there was. Another lady with blonde hair, a male civilian and L/Cpl DOOL.

Q.3 Did you not speak to them at any time?
A.3 I did speak to them. I could not make out what the civilian man or the blonde haired woman was talking about, so the lady with the black hair did most of the talking.

Q.4 Was the conversation in English or German?
A.4 In English.

Q.5 On the second visit whom did you talk to?
A.5 I first talked to the lady in black hair, in English. After she informed me that Rockie had brought the coal, I spoke to the civilian male in German.

EXHIBIT "A": One piece of coal together with a piece of sacking is admitted here as evidence.

SECOND WITNESS: Wilhelmina Johanna HELDENS, 362 St Jacobslaan, Nijmegen.

Statement taken with the aid of Interpreter Edmond Albert Charles Van ALLEYNNES:

Having been duly sworn, states:

"Rookie brought some coal in a sack, I do not know exactly how much, just enough for two days. I was crying when Rookie came into my home and he asked me what was the matter. I told him I was cold and my two babies were cold as we had no coal. Rookie said "I will bring you some coal from Germany."

That day he was on duty from 1800 hrs to 0600 hrs and the next day he brought the coal. He gave me the coal and said the coal came from Germany.

I used some of my coal to heat the soldiers' room and also to do some of their washing as they had no coal."

THE ACCUSED declines to cross-examine the witness.

E.A.C. Van ALLEYNNES. W. J. HELDENS (DERKSEN)

THIRD WITNESS: Matthaus DERKSEN, 362 St Jacobslaan, Nijmegen, having been duly sworn states:

(Statement taken with the aid of Interpreter Edmond Albert Charles Van ALLEYNNES):

"We were totally without coal, and in the morning my wife tried to fire up the stove but could not do it. I went out with a saw to haul up a tree but could not do. I hailed a [illegible] and brought it to my parents and cut it up in small pieces and brought a small sack full of it home. When I came home in the evening I found that some coal had been brought during the day. My wife told me that they had brought some coal today so I replied that it was very good, now we can build up the fire. I did not know who brought the coal but later my wife told me that it was Rookie. I did not seen him myself. The man Rookie was billetted in my house six or seven weeks."

CROSS-EXAMINED by The Accused:

Q.1 Did you at any time talk to the Sjt when he came to the house?
A.1 He only came very rarely to ask for Rookie. When he asked for Rookie I called him, that was all.

Q.2 Did you talk to the Sjt the night he came to look for the coal?
A.2 When the Sjt came I asked the Sjt if he brought the coal as every man who is billetted in the house is allowed 1 lb of coal per day. I also talked to a little man, a soldier who talks Dutch. The Sjt said he did not know exactly, but he would check and find out if the soldiers had to bring this coal.

Q.3 What time was the Sjt there?
A.3 It was dark, possibly 6 o'clock, or half past seven, I cannot say exactly.

FOURTH WITNESS: H17066 Cpl S. FERGUSON, W.E., 2 Cdn Provost Coy, 2 Cdn Inf Div, duly sworn, states:

"On 29 Dec 44 Cpl ROCKWELL came into the stores for coal. Not having much on hand I gave him what I could spare, approx 15-20 pounds. It was not weighed out. I helped him put it into sack or box, I am not sure which, but believe it to be a sack.

The next day Sjt. MANVEILER came into my stores and asked me if I had issued any coal to any personnel of his section and I told him who had received the coal. I stated that Cpl ROCKWELL was in and had received a little coal and could receive the balance today.

CROSS-EXAMINED by the Accused:

Q.1 Was Sjt. MANVEILER in to see you in the morning or afternoon?
A.1 I could not say for sure whether it was in the morning or afternoon.

FIFTH WITNESS: K24055 A/RSM. OAKES, J.W., 2 Cdn Provost Coy, 2 Cdn Inf Div, having been duly sworn states:

"On 30 Dec 44 at approx 1700 hrs Sjt MANVEILER reported to me that there had been some coal, mislaid or misplaced for his Section. He suggested that it might be down at the house of DENISSEN, M, of 362 St. Jacobslaan, Nijmegen. We both proceeded down there and Sjt MANVEILER questioned the occupants in connection with the coal. One of the girls stated that "ROCKIE" had brought some coal the day before and they took us out to the coal bin and the lad there showed us some coal and said that that was the coal. Later the same girl stated that that was the coal the "ROCKIE" had brought. Sjt. MANVEILER then seized an exhibit of the coal. I identify the coal marked "Exhibit 'A'" as the coal that Sjt MANVEILER seized.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES to cross-examine the witness.

A.4 In English.

Q.5 On the second visit whom did you talk to?
A.5 I first talked to the lady with black hair, in English. After she informed me that "Rockie" had brought some coal, I spoke to the male civilian in German.

Q.6 Was there anybody accompanied me to Coy HQ on 29 Dec 44?
A.6 I think there was but I am not positive. I think that L/Cpl ROBERTS was with you.

SECOND WITNESS: M17066 CQMS. FERGUSON, H.E.
2 Cdn Provost Coy, duly sworn, states:

"On 29 Dec 44 Cpl ROCKWELL came in from the section at MOOK to the QM stores to draw their portion of coal for heating purposes for the section personnel for one day. Being short of coal I could not give him the full allotment for the Section so I gave him approx between 20-30 lbs. I do not recall whether it was a box or sack that Cpl ROCKWELL took the coal in but I believe it was a sack. I helped Cpl ROCKWELL put the coal into the retainer and he continued on his way with the coal.

The following day Sjt MANVEILER came into the Stores and asked if I had issued coal to any personnel of his section. I said I had issued coal to Cpl ROCKWELL. I told him thay I had not issued the full ration of coal, but if he was short could have more.

Previous to this, Cpl ROCKWELL has on several occasions drawn coal from me for his section.

CROSS-EXAMINED by The Accused:

Q.1 Was Sjt MANVEILER in to see you in the morning or afternoon?
A.1 I could not say for sure whether it was in the morning or afternoon.

Q.2 Was there anyone else besides myself who drew coal for the Section?
A.2 Yes.

Q.3 What was the allotment of coal per day per man?
A.3 Up until 1 Dec 44 it was one pound per day and after that it was two pounds per man per day when it was available.

Defending officer.

I would bring to court's attention the accused's excellent record in over 3 yrs in army. He has risen to rank of Sgt (confirmed) Has never been up on any charge in that time.

Having taken the watch he was actuated by fear that he would be charged with theft but it will be seen he never attempted to dispose of it. It was an impulsive act on his part.

Exhibit B

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

NO. M.25851 SERGEANT J.F. ROCKWELL

NO. 11 CANADIAN PROVOST COMPANY - CANADIAN PROVOST CORPS

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness:

L.13182 Sergeant E.C. Hanna, No. 11 Canadian Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps having been duly sworn states:-

On approximately the 20th. of Dec 43, I was showing my wrist-watch which was a "Monroe" 17-jewel gold wrist-watch to Sergeant Bayles of this Company in our Sergeants' Mess. The watch, having a broken crystal, was wrapped in an official envelope. When leaving the Mess, I did not wish to take it with me and left it wrapped in the official envelope on a shelf next to the fire-place. Forgetting it for that day, and remembering it on the morning of Dec 21, 1943, I found it to be missing.

At noon-hour of the same day, I asked every Sergeant of the Mess if they had seen it. None admitted having seen it, and on instructions from R.S.M. Rae of this Company, I had a notification of the loss of my watch placed in Part I Orders.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

E.C. Hanna, Sergeant.

Second Witness:

S.72745 Regimental Sergeant Major J.M. Rae, No. 11 Canadian Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 1300 hours, on Saturday, 12 Feb 1944, I was instructed by the Duty Officer to place the entire camp on "C.B." until a kit inspection had been held. At approximately 1400 hours, I ordered all Sergeants to their rooms to lay out their kits for inspection. At approximately fifteen minutes later, I proceeded to a room, occupied by four Sergeants, accompanied by Lieutenant Dale and Lieutenant Stephen of this Company.

A search of kit was made by the two Officers, and a few moments later Mr. Stephen inquired if I could provide my room, as he wished to interrogate Sergeant Rockwell. He also requested my presence as witness. During the course of the afternoon, Mr. Stephen questioned the a/m Sergeant and at approximately 1630 hours, Sergeant Rockwell admitted having in his possession a watch, the property of Sergeant Hanna. Mr. Stephen requested Sergeant Rockwell to produce the watch. The three of us, Sergeant Rockwell, Mr. Stephen and myself then proceeded to Sergeant Rockwell's room, where he, (Sergeant Rockwell) produced it from a shelf directly above his bed.

- P.T.O. -

Lieutenant Stephen then ordered Sergeant Rockwell to accompany him downstairs to the O.C's office, with a view of obtaining a statement from the Sergeant.

During the course of the kit inspection, I noticed two Part I Pay Books among the Sergeant's effects. I presented these two pay books to Mr. Stephen, who examined them again, asking Sergeant Rockwell various questions as to why he had these two pay books in his possession. Sergeant Rockwell stated, that he had always had them and had filled out the various entries in one of them in a moment of idleness, at night whilst he was Orderly Sergeant. Mr. Stephen then took possession of them.

I have no further knowledge of the case.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Where was one of the Part I Pay Books found?

A. They were found, Sergeant, on the table in your room.

Q. What personal effects did I have laying on the floor, and from where did I get these?

A. I am unable to state what personal effects were on the floor as I did not examine them.

Q. Where did you find the illegal Part I Pay Book?

A. I answered your question before, Sergeant. I found the two Pay Books on the table in your room.

Q. When in your room, did I state that I had made this Part I Pay Book when I was Orderly Sergeant?

A. You stated that during the course of the afternoon.

J.M. Rae, R.S.M.

Third Witness:

Lieutenant N.J.L. Stephen, No. 11 Canadian Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 1300 hours on the 12 Feb 1944, acting on instructions from the O.C., I proceeded to make a physical check of the property of the Sergeants occupying the room in which Sergeant Rockwell is a member, in an endeavour to locate a watch which was suspected of being there. I was accompanied by Lieutenant Dale of the Canadian Armoured Corps, who is attached to this Company, and R.S.M. Rae of No. 11 Provost Company.

All the Sergeants in the room laid out their kits. Mr. Dale and the R.S.M. watching two of the Sergeants and I watching Sergeant Rockwell. Sergeant Rockwell was very slow and I had reason to believe that he knew something of the whereabouts of the missing watch.

In company with R.S.M. Rae, I then took Sergeant Rockwell into the R.S.M.'s room, where I proceeded to question him. After a considerable number of questions had been asked, to

Which Sergeant Rockwell answered he knew nothing, he finally admitted having taken the watch and hiding it in his room. I then asked Sergeant Rockwell to come with me to get the watch.

We proceeded to his room where Sergeant Rockwell stood up on his bed and procured the watch from a crack between a shelf and the wall. I took possession of the watch and we proceeded to the O.C's office, where I cautioned Sergeant Rockwell and obtained a voluntary signed statement from him.

At the time of the kit inspection, Sergeant Rockwell had in his possession two M.B.M's, part I's. This was drawn to my attention in the R.S.M's room by R.S.M. Rae, who brought the Pay Books in. I questioned Sergeant Rockwell concerning the additional M.B.M. Part I which had all his particulars entered in it with the exception of his wife and children's names.

Sergeant Rockwell stated that he had obtained this Pay Book from the Orderly Room of No. 11 Provost Company one night when he was Orderly Corporal.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. How many Sergeants were in the room?

A. Four.

Q. During the kit inspection did you not notice a Part I Pay Book and where was it laying?

A. I noticed a Part I Pay Book laying on the table.

N.J.L. Stephen, Lieutenant.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused elected to give evidence as follows:-

First Witness For Defence:

The accused, M.28851, Sergeant J.F. Rockwell, No. 11 Canadian Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:-

Approximately a month ago, Dec. 20th., 1943, I was roaming around the Sergeants' Mess, when I noticed a wrist-watch laying on the shelf where we kept the books and newspapers. I recognized the watch as that of Sgt. Hanna's, who was also a member of the Sergeants' Mess. I examined the watch, put it in my pocket and went up to my room, where I put the watch in a little tin box which I keep in my kit bag. At supper time, that same night, there was a general discussion at the table concerning the whereabouts of the missing watch.

I did not take part in the conversations. It was my intention of returning the watch to Sergeant Hanna. About two weeks later, I removed the watch from the tin box and placed it in a small space between my shelf and the wall, situated about six feet above my bed. I left it there until a few days ago, when I took it down, intending to return it to the proper owner. I neglected to do that, so I put it in my great-coat pocket until the 11th. of Feb 44 when I put it back between the shelf and the wall, as Sergeant Hanna had left barracks for the week-end.

When I heard that there was going to be a kit inspection for a missing watch, I wished that Sergeant Hanna was here so that I could have returned it to him before the inspection took place. I did not know that I was suspected of having taken the watch. That is why I did not say anything while the inspection was going on.

J. F. Rockwell

J.F. Rockwell, Sergeant.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of four pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

PROSECUTION
First Witness. #43556 Pte.Davis,C.L.,West NSR, having been duly sworn,states:
On April 1,1940 I was Pl Sgt, 17 Pl "D" Coy,West NSR.

Q. Do you know the accused and is he in this room?

A. Yes. I know the accused.(Points him out to the court)

Q. In your duties as Pl Sgt did you have anything to do with the monies?

A. On or about the end of April we were collecting money for Bn pictures and I collected from men, money for pictures and barrack damages and turned it over to my PSM, Sgt.-Maj.Nauss E.E.(Now CSM). After turning money over to him he counted it, sorted barrack damage money from theBn picture money, found it correct from the list of names which I had at the time, placed the money in separate envelopes and took charge of the money.

Q. Did you receive a receipt for this money?

A. No.

Q. How much money was involved?

A. £5/14/6.

Q. Do you know whether pictures were received?

A. Not to my knowledge.

The defence did not wish to cross-examine the witness.

Second Witness. #43555 C.S.M.Nauss, E.E., of Bn.H.Q., West NSR. (Being in hospital is unable to be present to give evidence).

Third Witness. #39656 S/Sgt. Morash, W.L., of H.Q.Coy.,West NSR, having been duly sworn,states:
On or about April 1,1940, I was employed in Bn Orderly Room of West NSR. My duties were making up syllabus charts and other clerical work for the C.O. and Adjutant. I also kept accounts for P.R.I.

Q. Did your duties invlve collecting money?

A. I had no power to collect money but had to keep records of same which would be handed over to me from time to time by P.R.I.

Q. Do you remember receiving money from Sgt.-Maj. Nauss?

A. No.

Q. Did you receive money from A/CSMS Rockwell?

A. No.

Q. From any other member of the regiment?

A. Yes. I was delegated by the Adjutant to take orders and collect money for regimental pictures for any member of West NSR who wanted same.

Q. What sort of records did you keep in connection with money for pictures?

A. When money was turned over to me by anyone wanting pictures, I put it in an envelope and made a record of same on outside envelope and paper which was put in envelope.

Q. Did you keep the same records for barrack damage?

A. No. Barrack damages were collected by P.R.I. and only turned over to me for record purposes, and to make up deposit slips.

Q. To the best of your knowledge you received no money for 17 Pl "D" Coy for photos?

A. That is correct.

Defence cross-examines the witness.

Q. At this time were you handling money for P.R.I.also?

A. That is correct, but only as passed over to me for deposit by P.R.I.

Q. You kept a record of that?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any amount credited to D Coy for barrack damages?

A. Over a period of time, yes, but I do not remember if there was any collected for D Coy on or about the first of April, 1940. I have records to show that.

Fourth Witness. Capt. R.H.Clennett, West NSR, having been duly sworn, states:
On my arrival in England and joining the West NSR here, I was appointed to regimental audit board. I have remained on that board since that date.

Q. Do you remember anything in connection with the collection of money for regimental pictures on or about that date?

A. Yes. I believe before I came across pictures had been taken of the regimentand while I was first here certain monies were collected for purpose of paying for individual pictures. These monies did not pass through the regimental accounts. They were collected and turned in to the Sm orderly room. When the regiment prepared to leave for France, which was approximately the first of June, 1940, this money was forwarded to Panora Ltd. and it was arranged that the pictures would be sent in one parcel to Captain Stedman at the Holdance with the list submitted.

Q. How were barrack damages collected and handled?

A. It was the custom in the regiment to collect from each man at the last pay day of the month, a sum of six pence per month in order to pay for minor repairs such as broken windows, and so reduce the barrack damages when the unit left the billetts. This money was collected and turned into Hq Orderly Room. Prior to my arrival no records of regimental accounts were maintained, but collections for the month ending 30th April 1940, and subsequent collections were turned in to either Maj Ernst, P.R.I., or S/Sgt. Morash.

These collections were to the best of my knowledge, all recorded in regimental books which were set up at that time. Collections were received from all companies for the month ending 30th April 1940, but according to records no collections were received for month ending 30th May 1940, except of "B" Coy.

Q. There was no chance of this picture money being allocated to another account?

A. No. The picture money could not have been placed in another account.

Defence cross-examines the witness.

Q. Have you the records with you?

A. I have the ledger and cash-receipts and payments.

Q. Could I see these books?

The books were produced.

Q. Page C1, 25 Apr 40, D Coy, Credited with £2/16/0 Can you explain that?

A. Yes. That money was collected for barrack damages and was credited to the company for that purpose, Page 3 of ledger.

Q. Has that sum been deducted from the amount mentioned in the charge against A/CQMS Rockwell?

A. No. This sum of money was collected for the month of April and refers to a different transaction.

Witness questioned by accused.

Q. On 25th of April,1940, entry in receipts for £2/16/0 for barrack damages. According to records and my memory,barrack damages were only collected from "D" Coy on one occasion.

A. Barrack damages should have been collected from all companies for month ending 30th of May, 1940, With the exception of "B" Coy, whose payments were later refunded, no monies were received, according to the records, from any company. Therefore,according to the records since I arrived, "D" Coy only turned over barrack damages for the month of April.

Q. Could you locate the person to whom £2/16/0 was paid on the 25th. of April, 1940?

A. No. I can only say it would either be Maj.Ernst or S/Sgt. Morash.

Q. Is there a copy of receipt for this money?

A. I don't believe there is.

Court adjourned until 1400 hours.
Court sits again at 1400 hours.

Defence produced signed statement by Maj.F.B.Courtney, West NSR.
Statement read to the Court.
(Statement marked Appx 1, and attached to the proceedings)

DEFENCE

On the strength of Maj.Courtney's statement,that he received and turned over this money,there is no case against A/CQMS

Rockwell on the second charge.

After deliberations the Accused was brought before the Court and informed that he was found not guilty of the Second Charge.

Closing address of the Defence re first charge:

The error was discovered by the second audit board approximately 18 months after the books had been audited and found to balance except for approximately £4. That error escaped the notice of the officers sitting on the board and they are gentlemen who are supposed to have higher education, wider knowledge and experience, whereas the accused is an N.C.O., probably more liable to make mistakes.

Sgt.Rockwell recognized he was at fault and has already started to pay, to make good the amount. The amount of £28/7/0, which he is willing to pay and has started to pay already, is in itself a severe punishment for his mistake.

In view of these two facts lenience is begged for.

Reply by Prosecution:

It is true the system for calculating was complicated.

In the course of almost one year it is not considered that £6/10 is sufficient indication of intention to repay £28/7/0

President:

Who was to collect £2 per month from A/CQMS Rockwell?

A. So far as I know I.R.I. Sgt's Mess.

President:

Did A/CQMS Rockwell know to whom he was to pay the £2 per month?

A. I do not know. There has been no change in personnel in charge of funds.

Q. Does the accused wish to call evidence as to character?

A. No.

Prosecutor being duly sworn, presents MFM 6 for A/CQMS Rockwell.

Q. Do you wish to address the Court?

A. No.

Q. Do you wish to call other witnesses?

A. No.

President declares Court closed.

Appx.1

24 FEB 1941.

I the undersigned make the following statement on behalf of Sgt Rockwell.
In the early part of April 1940, I took command of "D" Coy. During that month certain sums of money were collected by the platoon commanders and turned over to Sergt Rockwell who was acting as Coy clerk. This money was turned over to me and I in turn handed it over to the Bn and obtained a receipt for the same, from Major Ernst. I firmly believe that there were two seperate lots of money handed over at the same time, but I can not swear to this, nor to what the amounts were. The receipt for this money was unfortunately destroyed along with other papers at the time when the unit was preparing to go to France.
I am prepared to swear however that there was only one time that money was collected, from the time I took command of the Coy, while the Regt was quartered at Guillemount Barracks, and that money was turned over to Major Ernst by me personally and a receipt obtained for the same.

I am willing to make the above statement under oath.

F.B.COURTNEY, Major.

Appx. 2

The reason why the Court has not dealt more severely with the accused, is:

First. It has not been proven to the satisfaction of of the Court, that the neglect was wilful.

Second. That as the records in the case are not available, the Court cannot establish wherein lies the actual fault. However, as the Accused has accepted responsibility for the £28/7/0 and has already paid £6/10/0 the Court is of the opinion that the balance of £21/17/0 still outstanding be made good by the accused.

The Court respectfully submits that this matter could have been settled by a Court of Inquiry and therefore no Court Martial was necessary.

I make the following statement in mitigation of punishment :

The accused had been serving in Les Fusiliers Mont-Royal since 1937. He was a serjeant when the war broke out but resigned his stripes on 1 Jul 41 in order to come overseas. His conduct as a private soldier and as a N C O has always been exemplary, as a perusal of his army record will show.

When his battalion went into action, he was struck off the list of those slated to cross the Channel, as he was then under treatment, but pleaded with his C O who finally accepted him. He fought bravely for nine hours on the shores of Dieppe.

He has retained his American citizenship, and would have liked to be transfered to the United States Navy, having had a few months training with the Sea Cadets. But this was consistently refused him. He is now employed as a storeman. In December he was promised a promotion as C Q M S but after having passed his test successfully, he saw another serjeant get the job in his place.

The foregoing facts might explain, even if they do not justify, his absence without leave.

I respectfully urge the Court to be lenient towards the accused.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF

D-6176, Gnr. RODD, L., 5th Fd Battery, 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A.

Lieut T.H. Montgomery, 5th Fd Regt R.C.A. is directed by the C.O. 5 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A., to take an abstract of evidence in the above case according to the provisions of D.R.O. No. 776, App. "A".

FIRST WITNESS

Capt. E.B. Fry, 13th Fd Regt, R.C.A., stated:

On 4th Dec/41 I was O.P. officer for the 5th Fd Bty., R.C.A. I warned the Ack, who was Gnr Rodd, L., and the driver who were members of the O.P. party, to pick me up at the officers' quarters at Milton Place at 1630 hrs. The truck with the abovementioned personnel was about one half hour late in reporting. I reprimanded the Ack and driver for being late. The Ack, Gnr Rodd, turned away, at the same time murmuring something. I asked him what he had said and he replied, "I don't give a fuck if I am late", or words to that effect.

Second Witness

Capt. H.A. Farthing, 5th Fd Bty, 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A., stated:

I was orderly officer of "B" Troop, 5th Fd Bty, from 1800 hrs 5th Dec. to 1800 hrs 6th Dec/41. I made my rounds at approximately 0230 hrs accompanied by the orderly sergeant, Sergeant Newsome. On examining the gun pits I found that No. 2 gun was improperly laid on its S.O.S. line. I told Sgt Newsome to ask the Troop Command Post, over the Tannoy system, if a change in line had been ordered. Gnr Rodd, the Ack on duty, answered, and either could not or would not supply any information but kept telling Sgt Newsome to refer to the information in the gun pit. I went to the Tannoy system and explained to Gnr Rodd that what we required was the correction of the moment from his latest meteor telegram. He replied that he could not supply this information since he had destroyed all his records. For not carrying out his duties in a proper manner I placed him under open arrest over the Tannoy system.

I then carried out the balance of my rounds and at about 0300 hrs entered the Troop Command Post. When I asked Gnr Rodd why he had destroyed the correction of the moment information, he replied in an insolent manner that he had done this to make his work easier in figuring out the correction of the moment from the next meteor telegram. I remarked that this was quite contrary to the usual procedure and Gnr Rodd made this statement;"Well, now that you have me under arrest, go ahead and push it, since I want to get out of this Regiment anyway," or words to that effect. I stated that the proper way in which he had carried out his duties that night and from his general attitude my opinion of his work had suffered. He then said, "I don not care about your opinion of me or my work, and I want to leave this Regiment," or words to that effect.

D-6033, Sgt Newsome, A., 5th Fd Bty., 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A., stated:

I was orderly sergeant of "B" Troop, 5th Fd Bty, from 1900 hrs Dec. 5 to 1900 hrs Dec 6/41. I accompanied the orderly officer on his rounds at about 0830 hrs. We found a gun improperly laid in one of the gun pits. Capt Parthing, the orderly officer, instructed me to find out from the troop command post, by the tannoy system which operates both ways between the gunpits and the command post, if a change of line had been ordered from the S.O.S. line on which the gun would normally be laid. Gnr Rodd, the A/C on duty in the command post, whose duty it was to have all information, including the correction of the moment, available at all times during his tour of duty answered. He told me at least three times to get the information necessary from the records in the gun pit. Capt Parthing then spoke to him and told him that what we wanted was the correction of the moment worked out from the latest meteor telegram. Rodd replied that he could not supply this since he had destroyed all his records. Capt Parthing then put him under open arrest over the Tannoy system.

After we had made the rest of the rounds we entered the troop command post at about 0300 hrs. Capt Parthing asked Gnr Roddwhy he had destroyed the information we needed. He replied that he had done so to make his work easier when the next meteor came in. When Capt Parthing reprimanded him for doing this, Rodd said,"Well, now that you have me under arrest, go ahead and push it, as I want to get out of this regiment anyway." After some further talk, Capt Parthing told Rodd that his opinion of Rodd's work had suffered, and Rodd replied,"Ido not care what you think about me or my work,and I want to leave this regiment."

The above abstract of evidence was taken by me, in the field, on December 31st, 1941.

The Prosecutor informs the Court that the first charge is withdrawn, and that Capt. R.B. Dry, 13 Cdn Field Regt., RCA will not appear as witness.

The Accused is arraigned and pleads "Not Guilty" to all the charges.

PROSECUTION

First Witness for Prosecution — Capt. H.A. HARTHING, 5 Cdn Fd. Regt., having being duly sworn, states: " At WILTON PLACE, on 6 Dec. at about 0230 hrs I made my rounds as Orderly Officer accompanied by the Orderly Sergeant, Sgt. NEWSOME. Number 2 gun was 10 minutes off line as shown on the record in the pit so I ordered Sgt. NEWSOME to phone the Command Post to find why the gun was not laid on the line shown on the record. He had difficulty in getting information from the Ack, Gnr. RODD, so I went to the Fanney myself and explained that I wanted the correction of the moment data. He said he did not have it as he had destroyed it. I told RODD he was under open arrest and proceeded on my round. When Sgt. NEWSOME and I reached the C.P. at about 0300 hrs I asked Gnr. RODD why he destroyed the information and he replied that it was to make it easier for him to work out the next meteor. I told RODD I was disappointed in him and that my opinion of his work had suffered. He replied " I am not interested in your opinion of me or my work". I realized RODD had been on duty for 48 hours or more and so told him I considered he was tired and that was the reason for his attitude. He replied " That makes no difference, and now that you have me under arrest go ahead and push it as I want to get out of the Regiment."

One of the three troop acks is in hospital at the moment. The guns are in fixed position and necessitate one ack being at the C.P. to work out meteors every four hours. The O.P. is also manned and when it happened that two officers from "B" troop were detailed on successive nights it meant that one ack would be at the C.P., the other at the O.P. On these occasions one or other acks is on duty for at least 48 hrs. This would not be continuous though, as the C.P. ack could sleep between meteors, and the O.P. ack could sleep when not on duty. Meteors come in every 4 hours and it would take Gnr. RODD from 20 to 30 minutes to work one out. The O.P. ack could sleep for the balance of the morning when he came off duty at 0830 hrs. The acks arranged their own relefs during the daytime: quite often the O.P. ack would have special permission granted him to go to Eastbourne, etc., in the afternoon.

In the morning at about 0900 hrs. I called RODD into the office and again told him that I considered it was because he had been on continuous duty that had caused his insubordinate attitude. He repeated that made no difference and added that he was sick and tired of seeing some of the others in the troop trying to curry favour with me and that he did not intend to do it. Further, he added he was not looking for favours from me and that he understood that if he went to Court Martial he might get more than 28 days detention which would automatically strike him off strength of the regiment. I asked him to tell me as one man to another, just why he wanted to leave. After he had told me I suggested he was going the wrong way about it and should apply for a transfer. He stated that his application would be in in a few days. I told him it was to go in thatday and he replied it would go in when he felt like putting it in."

Cross-examined by Def. Officer

Q. You stated that your opinion of Gnr. ROUD had differed. What was your previous opinion?
A. I considered him a good soldier.
Q. When ROUD said he was not interested in your opinion what was his attitude?
A. He was insubordinate and he did not stand up when I was talking to him and was generally lacking in respect.
Q. How did the corrections get to the guns?
A. The ack worked them out and recorded them on boards which he then took to the gun pits.
Q. What written orders define the Ack's duties?
A. There have been only verbal orders. The ack does all meteors and any work pertinent to the guns and answers the tannoy.
Q. When you had the accused in, in the morning, during the latter part you asked him to tell you as man to man why he wanted to leave the regiment. Before the conversation began or during it was there anything in your manner or in what you said that would lead him to beleive that it was a confidential talk?
A. Instead of having him stand I told him to sit down.
Q. If there are no clear cut orders, is it not possible that they may not realize they may sleep between meteors?
A. There are no instructions that they may not sleep in the C.P.

Questioned by the Court

Q. When you examined the board in the pit was there anything to lead you to believe it was itself incorrect?
A. It did not have the time of the meteor omit.
Q. Was the gun actually off line in accordance with the correct meteor?
A. It was.
Q. You stated that at 0030 hrs the C.P. crew may sleep. What is the duty of the C.P. ack?
A. He remains on duty at the C.P.
Q. What time does the C.P. ack go on duty?
A. The acks usually arrange that among themselves.
Q. When you returned to the C.P. and the accused's attitude struck you as generally lacking in respect, did you check him up?
A. No.

Second Witness for the Prosecution — D-0033 Sgt. A. NEWCOMB, 6 Cdn Fd Regt, having being duly sworn states: "At WILSON BLOCK, on 6 Dec at about 0030 hrs I made the round of the troop as Orderly Sgt. with Capt. PARTHING. No. 2 gun was 10 minutes off line and Capt. PARTHING told me to phone the C.P. I didn't seem to be able to get anything out of ROUD so Capt. PARTHING came to the tannoy:

Q. Did you see the accused that night?
A. Yes about 0300 hrs, with Capt. PARTHING. There was quite a bit said and I can't remember everything. Capt. PARTHING seemed to give his opinion of ROUD and ROUD said he didn't care what his opinion of him was. He also stated he wished to get out of the regiment.
Q. What was Gnr. ROUD's attitude during the interview?
A. Kind of insolent.

Cross-examined by Def. Officer

Q. How did you know the gun was 10 minutes off line?
A. It was wrong by the board in the pit.
Q. As a No. 1 would you check the gun with the board on "stand to"?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Would you check it with the C.P. or assume the board was correct?
A. I would take it as correct.
Q. If you were asleep at the C.P. would you hear the buzz of the tannoy?
A. No sir.
Q. When you spoke to the accused through the tannoy, what was his reply?
A. He said the correction was on the board.
Q. Did he say why he couldn't give you the correction?
A. He said he had rubbed it out.
Q. Tell the Court what ROLD did when Capt. FARTHING entered the C.P.?
A. He stood up.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q. Are you sure the noise of a tannoy system would not waken a person under any circumstances?
A. Positively sir.
Q. Are you positive Gnr. ROLD stood when Capt. FARTHING entered the C.P?
A. Pretty positive.

Questions by the Court

Q. You stated that when Capt. FARTHING came into the C.P. Gnr. ROLD stood up. What did he do during the remainder of the conversation?
A. Gnr. ROLD was behind the desk and I beleive he sat down though I wouldn't swear to it.
Q. What exactly, during the conversation, would make you beleive Gnr. ROLD was insolent?
A. There was fire in his eyes.

DEFENCE

Evidence of Accused First Witness of Defence

The Accused states that he will give evidence as a witness on oath.
The Accused takes his stand at the place where other witnesses give their evidence.

The Accused D-6178 Gnr. L. ROLD, 6 Cdn Fd Regt RCA., having being duly sworn, examined by the Defending Officer states: "I was called upon to supply information regarding the exact switch for No. 2 gun. Sgt. WESCOMB asked what the switch and range correction was. I replied that it was on the board. Capt. FARTHING took his place at the tannoy about that time and stated that what he wanted was for me to read out the correction again. I did not have the graph then because when I returned from the previous round of the guns I sat down near the fire for about an hour and a half and then returned to my table and began to rub the figures off the old board. When I finished I found I had rubbed out the graph too. I told Capt. FARTHING I could not give the information at the time but in a few minutes as soon as I could retrace the graph from the correction of the moment form which was not destroyed. He did not seem to want to wait that long and placed me under open arrest until he came to the C.P.
Q. You heard Sgt. WESCOMB's evidence. Do you think the buzz of the tannoy would be heard by someone asleep in the C.P.?
A. No sir.
Q. What do you consider your duties in the time after the boards are taken to the guns, until the next meteor?
A. To receive all intelligence messages from the C.P. and see that these went to the proper places. Also to watch the Gunry and keep in touch with the guns.

Q. What occurred when Capt. PARTRING came to the C.P.?
A. Capt. PARTRING came to the table where I was sitting and demanded to know what was going on. At the time I had started rise with the intention of standing at attention, but due to the limited space I was unable to, and so sat to attention in the chair. I replied I did not understand his question of what was going on, and then explained how the graph had got rubbed out. For some reason Capt. PARTRING became almost furious, his actions were to pick up a couple of boards, and, slamming them violently on the table he told me his opinion of me was falling. By then I was becoming a little red under the collar and said I didn't give a darn what his opinion of me was. Beyond that I don't remember enough to speak of.
Q. What were you doing when Capt. PARTRING arrived?
A. Starting the next meteor.
Q. When do meteors come in?
A. Approximately one hour before every even four hours.
Q. What did you do besides work out the meteor and draw the graph, and how long did it take you?
A. Clean off the old boards and graph, record the new switches and ranges and take them out to the guns. It took about an hour and a quarter.
Q. You stated when you went to stand you were unable to, owing to cramped space, so sat to attention. Who taught you to do this?
A. Major Keefler
Q. Did you consider you had been wrongfully placed under arrest?
A. I considered I was put under arrest for a sarcastic tone of voice.
Q. Capt. PARTRING started to question you and then picked up two boards and plunked them on the table. Were the words which are the substance of this charge before or after that?
A. All that came after that.
Q. When you said you were a bit red under the collar, did you mean "very angry"?
A. No sir.
Q. When Capt. PARTRING called you in later in the morning was there anything that led you to believe it was confidential from start to finish?
A. Yes, his actions and words led me to believe that.
Q. Are you normally an C.P. or C.P. sck?
A. C.P.sck.
Q. Whom have you usually worked for?
A. Capt. PARTRING.

Cross-examined by Prosecutor

Q. How many range s and switches had to be worked out?
A. Sixty degrees right and left and from 10,000' to 4,900'.
Q. Wouldn't the signaller in the C.P. take intelligence reports?
A. Not in "A" troop.
Q. You said you were becoming angry when you made your statement to Capt. PARTRING. Do you consider yourself justified in using such words to your troop commander, by reason of the fact he had just made a gesture of annoyance?
A. I did not say it was a gesture of annoyance.
Q. Did you think you were saying the right thing in what you said?
A. Ninety percent of it, yes.
Q. How long have you worked for Capt. PARTRING?
A. About six months.
Q. Then you were well acquainted with him?
A. No sir, but I could tell almost exactly what his next reaction would be.
Q. Why then did you make the statement you did, knowing his reaction to it?
A. That was only to express my opinion.

Questioned by the Court

Q. What is the average number of intelligence reports in a night?
A. It varies from nil to twelve: usually about three.
Q. How many meteors are worked out daily.
A. Six sir.

The Accused withdraws from the place from which he has given his evidence.

Prosecutor's Final Address

All that has to be proved is that the Accused used insubordinate language as stated. In this connection, may I call attention to M.M.L. page 58 Para 71, and also page 77 para 85. The Accused was calm at the time and meant exactly what he said, and repeated it later in the morning; there was no question therefore of momentary irritation. Whether there was any provocation is up to the Court to decide.

Defending Officer's Closing Address

The prosecution has been very fair and it is only for the court to interpret the evidence as submitted. The fact that six hours had elapsed between the original statement of the Accused and its repetition does not necessarily show that the Accused 'cooled off' as he had remained on duty during that time with nothing to distract him. I suggest also that the action of rubbing out the graph was not incorrect at 0230 hrs with a new meter due at 0300 hrs.

The Court is closed to consider the Finding

Finding: The Court find the Accused D-6176 Gnr. Lloyd RCHD, 5 Cdn Fd Regt, RCA., is NOT GUILTY of the ~~second~~ charge.

After Finding: The Court being re-opened, the Accused is again brought before it, and the Finding on the ~~second~~ charge is read in Open Court. R.P. 45 (c) and R.P. 117 (b) have been complied with.

Evidence as to Character

The Prosecutor files a certified copy of AFM 6 of the Accused which is approved and initialed by the Defending Officer. The document is read, marked "H" signed by the President and attached.

First Witness as to Character: D6006 BQMS. MURPHY, W.A., 5 Cdn Fd Regt., RCA., sworn, states: "I have known the Accused since Dec. 1939 when I was a Sergeant in C Troop 77 Battery. I knew him for twelve to fifteen months. I never gave him an order he didn't obey and so far as I have known him he has always been a good soldier and never answered back.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine this witness.

The Defending Officer, with concurrence of the Prosecutor, files a letter to Gnr. RCHD from Major KNEPLER. This is marked "J", signed by the President and attached.

Statement by Defending Officer in mitigation of sentence:

"As brought out in the evidence, the Accused had one fixed idea in his head; that is, to get out of the regiment. He is young, and perhaps a bit irresponsible and has unfortunately taken the wrong way of going about it."

The Court is closed to consider the Sentence

Dear Reds,

Am very sorry to hear that you are in trouble. I trust it is not as serious as you make out.

I find it hard to believe that you would be in Aintree etc. It is the last thing I would have thought of you. Hard to give you a letter that will be of much use to you is almost impossible. If I were not on my way home to Canada, I'd suggest you subpoena me. If you can use this, do so. In case - good luck.

Lieut. C.J. RODGERS, 7 DWR.

Ref the attached proceedings of GCM.

This Officer was found guilty of a charge under Sec. 40 of the Army Act of improperly drawing his revolver and pointing it at a corporal of the Canadian Provost Corps. He was found not guilty on a second charge under Sec. 19 of the Army Act of drunkenness. He was sentenced to be severely reprimanded and to forfeit a year's seniority. This sentence is one which it is within the power of the GOC-in-C First Canadian Army to confirm under para 6(a) Sec.XIII of 21 Army Group Standing Orders (AG's Branch).

The accused initially pleaded guilty to both charges, but upon hearing the plea in mitigation by his defending officer, the court, in my opinion quite properly, altered his plea to one of not guilty on both charges and proceeded to try the case. As a result the accused was acquitted on the 2nd charge and found guilty on the 1st charge.

In my opinion the proceedings are legally in order and may properly be confirmed.

Attention is drawn to para 20(b)(iii)(C) of Sec. X(A) of 21 Army Group Standing Orders (AG's Branch).

Summary of Evidence in the case of No 1CDN/99 Lieut C. J. Rodgers 7th Bn The Duke of Wellington's Regt.

The Court offr directs that the evidence be taken on oath

1st Witness for the Prosecution — No 157323 Lt J.R. Cannon having been duly sworn states:

I am a platoon comd in B Coy 7 D.W.R. The accused whom I recognise as Lieut C.J. Rodgers is also a platoon comd in the same coy.

On 13 Feb 45, with our coy comds permission, we proceeded to Twinkhout on recreation in the coy jeep.

At 1515 hrs we went to a Café where we had a few drinks of Cheery Brandy. At 1715 hrs Lieut Rodgers went off on his own and did not return until 2300 hrs.

The accused appeared to have been drinking, but he did not show the usual signs of drunkeness as he could walk and talk quite normally. He did, however, behave in a strange manner and was argumentative. He did not appear to know what he was doing, as when I told him to get into the jeep as we were going back to Camp, he did not seem to realise that he had come from a ~~the~~ camp or billet.

After some diffinulty I got him into the jeep and we were just about to move off when, two military policemen came up to the vehicle and demanded to see our identity documents

5th witness for Lieut W.R. Neff.
Prosecution.

Statements by the third, fourth & fifth witnesses are attached
Certified under R.P. 4(4) that the attendance of these witnesses cannot be readily procured and that they are not required by the accused for cross-examination

W.L. Denton Capt.

The accused having been duly cautioned under R.P. 4 (E) elects to give evidence on oath.

CDN/99 Lieut C.J. Rogers having been duly sworn states:
I am of the opinion that I was served with "doctored" liquor, as when I wakened up next morning I had a distinct taste of paraffin in my mouth.
I have never been affected by drink in this way before.

C.J. Rodgers.

Certified that R.P 4(c) (d) (e) (f) & (g) have been complied with.

W.L. Denton Capt.

Dated 22 March 45.

Duke of Wellingtons' Regt. On 13 Feb 45
I was sitting in the back of a jeep in Twumbout with Lieut Cannon. We had been visiting Twumbout on recreation and were just about to leave to return to Camp. The accused was sitting in front of the jeep when an M.P. came up and demanded our identity documents. He then asked for the authority for the journey, whereupon Lieut Rodgers drew his pistol and pointed it at the M.P. saying "This is my authority."
The C.M.P. grasped the revolver and knocked it down. As he did so, it went off and I saw that Lieut Rodgers had been hit in the right leg.
Lieut Rodgers had certainly been drinking but I do not consider that he was drunk, as he could walk and talk without difficulty. He had, however, reached the argumentative stage.
From my previous knowledge of Lieut Rodgers, I do not think he knew what he was doing, as if he had known, he would not have drawn his pistol.

3rd Witness for H-16726 Cpl Johnson G.R.
Prosecution.

4th Witness for L-57877 Walles J.G.
Prosecution

The documents were produced together with A.F.B. 142 of the Vehicle. While examining these documents, one of the C.M.P. were asked us for our authority for the journey, whereupon Lieut Rodgers, who was sitting in front of the Vehicle, drew his pistol and demanded the documents back, pointing his pistol at the C.M.P and saying "This is my authority."

As the accused said these words, the C.M.P. was in the act of leaning over him to pass the documents back to the driver, and on seeing the pistol he knocked it down. a round was discharged hitting Lieut Rodgers in the right leg (thigh). The C.M.P pulled the accused out of the jeep and as he was being pulled out, the accused said "I have got me, Jack," referring to the pistol shot. He seemed to be under the impression that somebody had ~~dele~~ shot him and did not seem to realise that the shot had come from his own pistol.

He was then taken to hospital and I returned to camp.

From Lieut Rodgers condition I consider that he had been drinking "doctored" liquor, because he did not behave in the normal manner of a man who is drunk.

2nd witness for Prosecution. No 3909497 Sgt I. King having been duly sworn states:

I am Intelligence Sergeant of 7 Bn The

To. No CDN/99 Lieut C.J Rodgers.

Take notice that the Prosecution intends to call the following additional evidence under R.P. 76:

No H 16726 Cpl G.R.Johnson who will state:-

1. "While on patrol in the town of Turnhout at approx. 2330 hrs in company with L/Cpls Aynsley, Wallis and Rich, I noticed a 5 cwt vehicle standing in front of the Magic Dance Hall. I stopped to check this vehicle and I spoke to a soldier in the front seat of the vehicle, whom I checked for his identity and his identification card (M.F.M 182) showed him to be Sgt J.C.RODGERS, but he stated he was a Lieutenant.

Not being satisfied with his identification, and owing to the fact that he was a Canadian in vehicle with British markings, I requested that he produce the log Book (A.B.412) for the vehicle. He asked the driver for the Log Book which was produced and handed to me, and while I was checking it, Lieut Rodgers said "Give me that book", and when I looked I saw he was pointing a revolver at me. I handed him the Log Book and at the same time I grasped the barrel of the revolver, and pushed it down, and the revolver went off. I held on to the revolver and pulled it away from him. He said something about being shot in the leg, and I immediately detailed L/Cpl Aynsley to transport this officer to 9 F.D.S and I brought the driver in company of an officer and a Sergeant, who were passengers in the 5 cwt, to our Detachment HQ where their identity and authorisation were checked. Their particulars are as follows:-

Lieut J.R.CANNON.
Reg. No. 3909997 Sgt I King.
Reg. No. 5729486 Pte S.E.Lawes all of "B" Coy 7 Duke of Wellington's Regt, 49 Division, 1st Cdn Army.

~~According to Lieut J.R Cannon, Lieut Rodgers belongs to 7 Duke of Wellington also.~~

~~On L/Cpl Aynsley's return from 9 FDS he informed me that Lieut Rodgers was shot in the leg, and had been admitted to 10 Cdn General Hospital.~~

2. The revolver, No. 585361, Smith & Wesson .038 Calibre, was brought to this Detachment HQ and unloaded in the presence of Lieut Cannon, and Sgt Parrott R.D, and it showed five loaded rounds and one empty cartridge. This revolver and ammunition is being held as evidence."

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF LIEUT J.G. RODGERS

I, Reg't No. H-16726 Cpl Johnson G.R. a member of "PP" Section, No. 7 Cdn Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps after having been duly warned state as follows:-

I distinctly remember the night in question which was 13 Feb 45. This was the date on which I had occasion to disarm Lieut Rodgers J.G. of "B" Coy 7 Duke of Wellington Reg't. At the time of this incident I would say that Lieut Rodgers was not drunk but had been drinking. My reasons for making this statement is that I smelt spirits on his breath. During the time in which I was questioning this officer I was standing approx 2 feet from him. He answered all my questions in an intelligent manner but at times he appeared to ramble and continually mentioned the fact that he had just returned from the front. He also mentioned several times that he had permission of his C.O. to proceed to Turnhout for the night and was on a night out. When I asked him to produce his identification, he produced his identity card NEW 182 without hesitation and explained to me that although his identity card showed him to be a Sgt he was actually a Lieut.

I would not say that Lieut Rodgers was drunk but that he had been drinking. My reason for saying this is the way he was talking. He continually mentioned the fact that he had the night off on permission of his C.O. to have a good time. He repeated this several times. From his general remarks and actions it was obvious to me that he had been drinking.

PROSECUTOR

Capt D.P.Jones	Manchesters J.A.G's. Staff

DEFENDING OFFICER

Lt J.M.Johns[redacted] Solicitor	1 Leicesters

The accused is brought before the Court.

JA Q Are you No. Cdn/99 Lieutenant C. J. Rodgers, 7 Bn Duke of Wellingtons Regt? A. Yes, Sir.

The Judge Advocate reads the Convening Order.

The Convening Order is produced and marked EXHIBIT "G"

JA The Court is satisfied that Major I.H.Stock is not available to serve owing to the exigencies of the service and Capt C.H.Searle, waiting member, will take his place.

COURT Q Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over? A No, Sir.

The President, members and Judge Advocate are duly sworn.

JA Q Do you object to H-9925 Staff Sergeant D.G.Levenick acting as shorthand writer at your trial? A No, Sir.

H-9925 Staff Sergeant D.G.Levenick, CMSC, is duly sworn as shorthand writer.

JA Q The Charge Sheet contains 2 charges. The first one is laid under Section 40 of the Army Act charging ""hen on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he in the field on 13th February 1945 improperly drew his revolver and pointed it at No. H-16726 Cpl G.R.Johnson, 7 Provost Company Detachment, Canadian Provost Corps, who was checking the log book of a jeep in which he (the accused) was a passenger, saying at the same time to the said No. H-16726 Cpl G.R.Johnson "Give me that book" or words to that effect." Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge? A Guilty, Sir.

Q The second charge is laid under section 19 of the Army Act and is in these terms, "When on active service Drunkenness in that he in the field on 13th February 1945 was drunk". Are you guilty or not guilty? A Guilty, Sir.

JA That Charge Sheet is signed by Lt Colonel Hamilton, Commanding 7 Duke of Wellingtons Regt and countersigned by Major Hooper DAAG for General Commanding First Canadian Army.

JA Now before a court can properly record a plea of "Guilty" to a charge the court must be satisfied that an accused personally knows and appreciates two things; first, that the accused appreciates the nature of the offence to which he pleads guilty and also that the accused appreciates the difference in procedure between a plea of "guilty" and one of "not guilty". Suppose a plea of guilty is accepted; it would mean that thereafter the accused would be unable to deny the commission of that offence. ~~All that the court will be concerned with in the case of a plea of guilty is to appreciate the nature of the offence.~~ As only the president will have read the summary the members will have the summary read to them ~~and will~~ appreciate the offence, ~~and~~ will be concerned only in passing a just sentence.

With regard to these charges, the first charge is one of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. That is purely a military offence and the court is advised that they have to be satisfied that the particulars disclose some act which is contrary to both good order and military discipline. If it is contrary to military discipline automatically it must be an act contrary to military good order. You are familiar with the particulars of this charge and

I would be prepared to advise the court that an officer in that situation who would so present a revolver might well be considered to have committed an offence to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. It may be that the court would like to consider whether it does amount to, on the face of it, an offence against good order and military discipline.

In regard to drunkenness, a test of drunkenness, the test of drunkenness I should say, is the same as applied in civilian life. It is what the ordinary man in the street would consider to be drunkenness.

JA Q Do you appreciate the difference in procedure and what is involved in both of these charges? A Yes, Sir, I do.

JA Would the court like to consider in ~~under~~ all the circumstances whether they are prepared to accept plea of guilty on the first charge. I need not bother about drunkenness. Would the court like to close to consider it?

COURT Are the members prepared to accept them? A Yes.

JA The court can particularly assess this kind of ~~trial~~ case out of their military knowledge. I think it would be quite proper to record the pleas of guilty.

Mr. Johns, have you any statement to make with reference to the charges? A I shall have a statement in mitigation.

JA You have no statement to make in reference to the charges? A No, Sir.

The Prosecutor reads the Summary of Evidence.

JA That will be marked "H".

Summary of Evidence ~~produced and~~ marked EXHIBIT "H".

JA Do you wish to make any statement or not or call witnesses? A No, Sir, there are no witnesses to call but I wish to make a statement on behalf of the accused officer.

Do you wish to call the officer in support of the statement? A No, I shall not call the officer.

Defending Officer in Mitigation.

May it please the Court: The accused has plead guilty to two charges and the facts have been read out by the prosecutor relating to the two charges. It would be foolish of me to attempt to decry the severity of the first charge, in particular the drawing of a pistol on a military policeman in the execution of duty. An equal amount of severity must be attached to the second charge. How under those circumstances could an officer of His Majesty's Service come to such a place, to commit these crimes and it is for me to put what facts I can before the court in behalf of the accused for their consideration regarding the penalty the court has in mind.

The accused officer has had five and one-half years service, of which the last two years have been commissioned service. He is, of course, a volunteer. He joined his present battalion in April of last year and proceeded to France with them for the invasion. He was wounded on about 18th of June as a result of a German anti-personnel mine and rejoined the battalion in Holland in November of last year. From that time until the time that he was arrested as a result of this unfortunate incident he acted as platoon commander of a rifle platoon in that battalion.

The circumstances on this particularly unfortunate day were these. Two officers obtained permission from their Company Commander to go to Turnhout, the battalion having moved out of the line the day before to rest. Permission was granted and they went to Turnhout. There the accused officer, instead of remaining in company of his friend, went by himself to various cafes. He can remember very little of what took place but he does know the next morning in waking up in the hospital that he had a peculiar taste in his mouth. It is possible and he is firmly convinced that he was given at some cafe in this town drinks which were not good alcohol, some form of wood alcohol or poison.

JA You mean that it was alcohol being sold at cafes to all comers but of an inferior quality? A Detrimental quality, Sir.

But it was the ordinary drink being sold to persons frequenting that particular cafe? A Probably, Sir. As a result of that dope the accused officer had temporary amnesia, perhaps that word covers the condition.

JA You must be very careful what language you use if you wish to persist in this plea of guilty.

DEF Should I put it like this, Sir, that the accused has only the haziest recollection of the events of that evening.

JA But he did go to cafes and drank liquor in all of them?

DEF Yes, Sir, drank alcohol at a certain cafe but he cannot remember what cafe the liquor he had got of this kind. It would appear there was a cafe selling to all certain doctored alcohol. That is a thing I cannot prove. The accused cannot give me the names of any of the cafes. It is, however, within the knowledge of the court that there is a great amount of selling of this doctored alcohol taking place on the continent. The accused officer is certainly not the first example of it.

Be that as it may he reached a certain condition and then finds himself in this jeep. A policeman quite properly comes along checking up his identity. Some motive prompts the accused to point his pistol. This officer has hitherto enjoyed a character which his Commanding Officer describes as "very good". By what agency does he suddenly fall from that position to the one in which he finds himself now? What influence was there at work that suddenly made this officer, who up to this time was a good capable officer, a practically irresponsible person, threatening possibly the lives of himself and several other people? Is this the act of a man who deliberately intended to fight a military policeman with his firearm or is it more or less the result of a drunken condition, a drunken condition brought about not so much from intemperance or intemperate habits as from other causes? The charge is serious and I would ask the court to consider if a man of his character, his previous character and reputation, if it would be normal or within reasonable possibilities that such an officer would dive off the deep end. If you think that this incident was the result of doctored alcohol it can lie within your duty to say he was more a fool than a knave and in consequence limit the amount of punishment you will give him.

There is another aspect I wish to draw attention to. It is the question of the firearm. There is nothing in the charge that the officer intended to use that pistol.

JA You mean to discharge it?

DEF To discharge it, to use that pistol in its normal way. The military policeman probably actuated the mechanism of the pistol in grabbing it. He was perfectly within his duty and the defence makes no allegation that he was not. It was quite proper that he remove the pistol from the accused. Yes, anyone who produces a pistol must be willing to bear the consequences. I wish, however, to mention that the accused is the only person who suffered and that no-one else was injured or effected by the discharge of the pistol.

There are certain courses open to the court. Two of these can mean the end of this young officers career. He is now 24 years of age. Two courses lie open to this court which can possibly destroy his career, his career in civilian life after his army career is finished. Other courses lie open to the court which will not have such a drastic effect. This is only one incident, an unfortunate one and it is impossible for me to say it is not a serious one, but are you going to effect that drastic determination of his career as a result of one lapse. The power which lies in your hands is very great. So also are your duties. You have here an officer who volunteered to come overseas from Canada, who has not been back for 5 years, attached to the British Army, who has been wounded in action, goes into action again, comes out and goes off to a Belgian town and through no fault of his own drinks doctored liquor, becomes drunk--here you have the whole unfortunate story. At one fell swoop as it were he jeopardized his present career and perhaps his whole career after the war. It is impossible that he should go unpunished; justice demands that some punishment be accorded to him. I have drawn attention to the fact that he has suffered physically and that he was the only one who did. He has not only suffered physically but has had this hanging over his head. Twenty-four years of age and one lapse. Is the court going to terminate his career or are they going to give him a second chance? It is a heavy responsibility for me to put this officer's case in the best light. His own life has no doubt been in peril and there is a certain strain. All front line troops would have gone back for recreation as he did. Many front line troops go back to Turnhout and get doctored liquor and many others get into this condition. I again ask, is he a fool or a knave. If you think the former justice may be satisfied by something else than dismissal from the Service. I would ask the court to consider this in the fullest light and to say that notwithstanding this proven foolishness the country still has need of men like this and still can use them.

JA I am a little bit uneasy about your plea in mitigation; whatever course this case takes it is bound to be of assistance to the accused. I would refer you first of all to paragraph 9 of page 106 of MML which says the crime must be taken into consideration together with the other facts proved in order to determine whether or not he had that intent."

> "Temporary intoxication (from liquor or drugs)---as distinct from mental disease, which alcoholism, &c., may bring on--- is not (if voluntary) in itself an excuse for crime; but evidence of drunkenness whichrendered the accused incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the

Are you admitting that the accused consciously pointed his revolver at Cpl Johnson of the Provost Company. You see it is not clear from the language, from your language, in the Plea in Mitigation whether you are admitting that. It is true that in the evidence he answered questions quite rationally but you refer to "doctored" liquor and that the accused did not remember actually what he did do. If you had a state of insensibility then he would not be guilty of the first charge, would he, or in a state of madness?

DEF I appreciate it is a proper question but the light I consider this point is this. This is a charge where intent is not necessary and there is no question of intent in the mind of the accused.

JA But there must have been a consciousness of the pointing of the pistol; the accused must not have been an automaton.

DEF I appreciate that. I cannot tell the court that. In view of the evidence before the court of the military police that he could answer question. It is not for me to say that he did not know. I cannot say that but I can say that as a result of this liquor he did things which he would not otherwise have done in his normal habits and that this condition was brought about not by intemperance but otherwise.

JA Let us concentrate on the first charge. You do not say that he was an automaton but that he did point the pistol in a sense conscious but in a condition when his senses were dulled by his being drunk? Is that what you are saying in regard to the first charge.

DEF Exactly, Sir, in a certain sense his irresponsibility had been induced as a result of some liquor which did not leave him in an unconscious state.

JA Now then, go to the second charge. You have admitted a charge of drunkenness but you have repeatedly used the words "doctored liquor". Suppose this were a case in which a man was drinking ordinarily in a cafe and suddenly was affected by some deleterious matter in the drink put there after the person drinking had been served by the cafe people and the accused was then rendered mad or abnormal by reason of this agent alone, and then he went out of the cafe and behaved like this, then it would seem to be a clear defence to both charges. Suppose there might be a clear defence to the two charges. Your position is that he went into a cafe in Turnhout and he drank there quite freely and voluntarily the liquor supplied by the cafes, which was liquor of poor quality, that it was not the sort of liquor that you would expect to be in a Mess but the sort of liquor there is always the danger of buying in a low cafe in a foreign town, but doctored only in that sense. Is that the position?

DEF Yes, Sir. I cannot make out that the effect of the liquor was to render him unconscious.

JA I quite understand that. What I am trying to elucidate is that the accused voluntarily consumed this liquor in the sense he was prepared to buy what this particular cafe provided as liquor.

DEF Voluntarily, Sir, in the sense that he went into the cafe of his own accord and was brought the normal liquor in the respective cafes. He bought it considering it to be reasonably harmless alcohol but found out later it was not. Again I cannot say the alcohol had a completely blackout effect on him.

JA I am speaking only on the point of "doctored". If you say this man was a normal person with normal capacities and actions and he drinks doctored liquor which renders him irresponsible because of it we ought to try this accused on the second charge.

DEF Again the accused said in his answers before Lt Neff that he did not remember the cafes he went to and if the charges were altered, I should say the pleas, I would have to produce all evidence of those cafes and offer something more substantive.

JA You can always call the accused. He is entitled to ~~being~~ be believed as any other witness.

DEF I should have to prove this question of "doctored" liquor. I appreciate it and I know what I say when I tell the court that, and the accused knows it.

JA The court is with you in the sense that it was the lowest grade liquor and as long as you are admitting that liquor in those cafes would be the same as you or I might be faced with if we were to go to these cafes then in that sense the plea is not inconsistent with a plea of guilty.

DEF Yes, and the effect on the accused was greater than it was normally, bearing in mind his normal standard and temperment.

JA That is a matter of mitigation. A man is bound to keep within his capacity.

DEF Within the reasonable condition that the alcohol served to him is that with which he has some experience. If I drank whiskey and someone told me afterwards it had been methylated spirits I would be terribly annoyed.

JA Might I ask the prosecutor if he has any observation on this plea?

PROS I was a little disturbed on the question of whether or not the Defending Officer had made it clear that it was voluntary or otherwise, which is the point you have taken up. As I understand it the defence are saying that the accused went into cafes and drank and then became drunk after having consumed quantities of liquor. It may be that the liquor was of lower grade that he was used to or it may be that it was of a different type. As I understand it the defence are putting forward that he went on consuming liquor and he would have been able to stop at any stage but nevertheless he went on having another drink and eventually it made him drunk.

DEF No-one present at the cafes is available and it is difficult to say what took place but it is within the bounds of possibility that he went on drinking without clear knowledge of what he was doing and went further than he should have of this particular alcohol. I cannot say what I don't think anyone else can say. We can only take his condition in the jeep and that was a certain limited ability, to produce his identity card to the military police and so on. These things were carried out normally. Obviously something got ahold of him. He became peculiar. Part of that is the pulling or the pistol which was done consciously but not with malice than possibly would appear at first sight. To the question of malicious intent behind it that if there was malice it was most limited.

If the matter is stripped down to the accused taking doctored liquor and being rendered abnormal, so abnormal-he cannot have mens rea for the first charge then he should be acquitted of both charges.

JA On the same grounds.

DEF But you are not putting that forward as a defence. You are not saying that doctored liquor rendered him unconscious.

JA I cannot, Sir. The evidence reads, the evidence indicates certain movements, actions of a certain kind which do not support that.

DEF We are left with this point whether he voluntarily consumed what you call "doctored" liquor. One fact in the case is that he went to these cafes where there was low grade liquor which would be served to you or to me or anyone who went there and he quite freely consumed that liquor risking its characteristics

JA Are you admitting that?

DEF In this sense, admitting that he must be held responsible for entering the cafe which sold that liquor. Each one of us could go into a cafe and have a similar experience. If, as he is now accused of, this officer had drawn a pistol on a military policeman obviously the penalty accorded to him would be most severe. If he were unconscious or what we sometimes say "blotto" it is very doubtful if he would have had the physical condition required to draw the pistol. In between these two positions is the accused officer on that night at the time he returned to the jeep and by the time the military policeman came along he was in a certain condition; he was presumably getting better as time went on, returning to his normal completely sober condition. In between these two stages the officer finds himself and it is in that light I ask the court to judge him.

JA I will ask the court to close to consider this before we go any further with this case.

The court closes to consider.

The Court re-opens.

COURT The court have decided that the case should be tried on both charges.

JA Q I have one formal question. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A No, Sir.

JA Have you anything to say or wish to make an opening address, Captain Jones?

PROS In view of the circumstances and the fact that the Summary has been read I do not propose to open.

DEF I take it that the status at present is that the accused has pleaded "Not Guilty"?

JA Yes, the court direct that pleas of "not guilty" shall be entered. That is the position.

(The witness withdraws)

Lieutenant J.R. Cannon, 'D' Company, 7th Bn. The Duke of Wellington's Regiment, having been duly sworn is examined by Captain D.P. Jones:

Q. You are Lieutenant J.R. Cannon? A. Yes.

Q. And your unit is 'B' Company, 7th Bn. The Duke of Wellington's Regiment? A. Yes.

Q. Do you know Lieutenant Rodgers? A. Yes.

Q. Do you recognise him here? A. Yes.

Q. Who did you go with? A. Mr. Rodgers, Serjeant King and a driver in a Jeep.

Q. You all went in the Jeep? A. Yes.

Q. What time did you get to Turnhout approximately? Was it morning or afternoon? A. Afternoon.

Q. What time? A. Between one and two. I am not certain of the time.

Q. Early in the afternoon: where did you go? A. We went to do the business we had at the Officer's Shop and outside of Turnhout to the Field Cashiers to draw money.

Q. Did you go back to Turnhout? A. Yes.

Q. Did you and the accused go anywhere together? A. Yes.

Q. Where did you go? A. To the Officer's Club and then we went and had a drink at a cafe.

Q. By the J.A. Did you have a drink at the Officer's Club? A. Yes, One I think - a whisky. Q. A double whisky? A. No single whisky.

Q. By Capt Jones. Then you went to a cafe? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember what was drank by the accused at the cafe? A. I remember, but you mean what was he drinking?

Q. What and how many? A. We drank Cherry Brandy. I should think we had four or five Cherry Brandies each there.

Q. Then after that did you continue together? A. No, Mr. Rodgers left me. I think it would be between five and six. More near five, I should think.

Q. About five o'clock the accused left you? A. Yes.

Q. Did he say where he was going? A. No.

Q. When did you see him again? A. At about eleven o'clock.

Q. You did not see him between five and eleven? A. No.

Q. When you saw him at eleven o'clock did he tell you where he had been? A. No.

Q. Could you describe what his manner was like when you saw him again? A. When I saw him at eleven o'clock at first I thought he was pretty drunk.

Q. Why did you think that? A. Because of his argumentative mood. I varied my opinion a little later on.

Q. Well at first, what was his speech like? A. His speech was fairly clear.

Q. Fairly clear? A. Yes.

Q. Was he talking sensibly or not? A. No, he was not talking very sensibly.

Q. Was he talkative or taciturn? A. Fairly talkative.

Q. Was he talking about anything in particular? A. I cannot remember what we were talking about. I was trying to get him into the Jeep.

Q. What was his walking like? A. His walking. He could walk fairly straight. Not as a drunk man would walk.

Q. Fairly straight. You mean he walked in a normal sober way, or not? A. Not quite in a normal way. He just rolled a little but certainly did not stagger.

Q. Could he walk alright by himself? A. Yes.

Q. You began to say you were getting him back to the Jeep. What did you say to him then? Do you remember? A. I do not remember what I actually said to him.

Q. What was the general tenor? A. I used the normal manner to get an argumentative man into a Jeep who did not want to do so.

Q. You mean he did not want to get into the Jeep? A. No, he did not.

Q. But did you manage to persuade him then? A. Yes.

Q. Did you tell him where you were going? A. I did'nt tell him at that time. I assumed he knew we were going home. Later on he did'nt seem to know where he was going.

Q. How much later? A. About a quarter of an hour or so.

Q. Was he in the Jeep then? A. In a quarter of an hour: He just got into the Jeep and I assumed he knew we were going home back to our unit.

Q. Yes? A. Then a little later I told him he was going home and he did'nt seem to realise where home was.

Q. Do you remember what he said? A. I do not remember his exact words, but he didn't seem to know where he belonged.

Q. Where was the Jeep at the time? A. Outside the Cafe Magic.

Q. Who else was in the Jeep? A. Serjeant King and Driver Lawes.

Q. Where were you sitting? A. The driver, Private Lawes, was in the driver's seat. Mr. Rodgers was beside the driver in front and Serjeant King and I in the back. I was sitting behind Mr. Rodgers.

Q. Did you start off in the Jeep? A. We were just about to start off when the military policemen came along.

Q. Was did the military policemen say? A. First he wanted to know what we were doing and it seems there was a curfew on and we were late. He wanted to know why we were there and we told him. Then he wanted our identifications.

Q. Did you show them? A. I showed him my identity card and he asked for the 412.

Q. Did the accused show his anything? A. I cannot remember.

Q. Then what did the military policeman ask for? A. The A.B. 412 of the Jeep.

Q. Who did he ask for that? A. He asked the driver: he addressed the question to the driver and the driver had it.

Q. Did the driver produce it then? A. Yes.

Q. Did he hand it over to him? A. Yes.

Q. Did the military policeman examine it? A. Yes.

Q. What happened at that stage? A. Well, he was examining the book and while doing so he asked for my authority for being in Turnhout so far away from my unit. I told him that I had no written authority but I had permission from the Adjutant and the Company Commander and at the same time Mr. Rodgers pulled out his pistol and said that was his authority.

Q. Wait a minute. Mr. Rodgers drew his pistol. What exactly did he say at that time? A. 'This is my authority'.

Q. Were those the first words he used? A. Those were the only words I heard him say.

Q. What did the military policeman do? A. The military policeman looked and saw the pistol and at the same time handed the log book back to the driver, reaching over Mr. Rodgers. When he had reached and handed it over Mr. Rodgers, he dropped the book and at the same time he brought his hand down and knocked the pistol down downwards and it went off.

Q. Was the accused injured? A. Yes.

Q. What happened after that? Did you get out? A. The military policeman, I think it was a corporal, at the same time as the pistol went off pulled Mr. Rodgers out of the Jeep on to the pavement.

Q. Did the accused say anything? A. Yes, something that they had got me.

Q. Give his exact words. A. Yes - 'They have got me Jack', or 'They have hit me Jack'. I think it was 'They have got me Jack'. I am almost sure it was.

Q. Did he say anything besides that? Did he say what he was referring to? A. No.

Q. Then after that was the accused taken away to the F.D.S? A. Yes.

Q. Did you and Serjeant King and the driver go to the Provost Headquarters? A. Yes.

Cross-examined by Lieut. Johns.

Q. Those words Mr. Cannon 'They have got me Jack', I know everything was happening in a hurry, but what did you think the accused was referring to? A. I thought he was referring to the C.M.P's. He thought they had shot him. I don't think at the time he realised his own pistol had gone off.

Q. Now you say you thought that he was drunk at the start when you met him at the Jeep, but later you revised your opinion? A. Yes.

Q. What length of time would that be? A. When I first saw him I thought he was drunk and when I had been arguing with him trying to get him into the Jeep and walking around the Jeep, I did not think he was drunk, that he was drunk on normal stuff because I have been with Mr. Rodgers quite a little, especially at the Christmas Season and I Have never seen normal liquor do the same as whatever he had been drinking there.

Q. In other words he was a man who could hold his liquor? A. Definitely

Q. Do you think he was peculiar at the time? A. I would, because his head seemed to be so very incapable, yet he could talk normally and walk straight.

Q. That condition did not change the whole time up to the shooting incident? A. No sir.

Q. He didn't cool down. A. No.

Q. And you gather he did not know it was his pistol that fired the shot? A. That was what I gathered at the time.

Q. When the pistol was drawn did you see it drawn? A. No sir.

Q. You just saw it pointed? A. Yes.

Q. What were your own reactions at that? A. For a moment I was astounded and things happened so quickly that before I could do anything it had gone off.

Q. Would it be possible for you to say whether in your own judgement the accused was deliberately trying to impress the Corporal with the revolver? A. I don't think I can answer that one very well. I don't know.

Q. Were you afraid? A. No.

Q. Why not? A. Because I saw it and I was going to tell him not to be such a bloody fool and then it was knocked down and went off.

Q. You were not unduly alarmed then. Would it be correct to say that? A. I was not alarmed in the sense that he was producing the pistol but I thought the circumstances might be a little awkward. That was the only sense.

Q. Did you think there would be a shooting fracas? A. No, not for a moment. I did'nt think he was going to shoot with it.

Q. In other words you thought he was going to be a bloody fool? A. Yes that was it.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with Rule of Procedure 83(B).

(The witness withdraws)

Capt. Jones. I present Serjeant King as my next witness for cross-examination.

Lieut. Johns. Serjeant King: I don't require him.

Lieutenant W.R. Neff, 7 Canadian Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps. is duly sworn:

Capt. Jones I tender this witness for cross-examination.

Cross-examined by Lieut. J.M. Johns:

Q. Mr. Neff, I believe you visited the accused in the hospital? A. That is right.

Q. I believe you cautioned him? A. Yes.

Q. Having cautioned him, did he say this:

'At approximately 1830 hours I left Lieut. Cannon. After visiting one or two cafes I don't remember anything until I awoke in hospital on the morning of 14 February 1945' ?

A. That is correct.

Q. Did he make any other reference as to the drink he had consumed that evening? A. No sir. Not that I recall.

Q. He did not refer to doctored drink? A. Yes, I believe there was.

Q. What did he say? A. He said 'I don't remember anything at all'. That he might have had doctored liquor.

Q. By the J.A. Did you administer the usual caution? A. Yes.

Q. Before you had this conversation with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. By Lieut. Johns He referred to this doctored liquor: he referred to a taste in his mouth? A. It was in the conversation.

Q. That was before you administered the caution or after? A. It was after the caution.

Q. The caution preceded everything. Do you know Turnhout? A. We have had several cases of that. We have confiscated liquor, taken it to the civilian authorities and we have had charges laid against civilians, usually proprietors of cafes selling liqour to soldiers.

Q. What type is it? A. A very cheap Cognac. I believe there was wood alcohol put in or something.

Q. What is the effect of it? A. Amazing at times. A man hitherto mild in temperament under the influence of this liqour often becomes obnoxious and seems to lose his ability to control himself in any manner.

Q. Would it be true to say a man who is normal and can hold a reasonable amount of liquor of a good type (when I say good liquor, I mean clean) would find himself a different personality. A. Yes. Often he is totally different.

Q. In Turnhout you say there have been several cases? A. Yes, I know of at least three to my own knowledge. There are others I have heard.

Q. There is a tendency on the part of the person to become violent? A. Yes, some become very voilent. Others just pass out altogether.

Q. Hit the pavement? A. After a surprisingly few drinks.

Q. How many drinks will get you in this condition? A. I don't know. I have heard them say two or three drinks but I cannot say.

Q. It is no test. No normal test for a man's capacity? A. No.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with Rule of Procedure 83(B).

(The witness withdraws)

Captain W.L. Denton, 7th Battalion, The Duke of Wellington's Regiment, having been duly sworn is examined by Captain D.P. Jones:

Q. Are you Captain W.L. Denton? A. Yes sir.

Q. Attached to 7th Battalion, The Duke of Wellington's Regiment? A. Yes.

Q. Did you take the summary of evidence in this case? A. Yes.

Q. On the 22nd March 1945? A. Yes.

Q. When the witnesses for the prosecution had given their evidence did you address certain words to the accused? A. Yes.

Q. Can you remember what those words were? A. I told the accused that he had no need to make a statement unless he wished to do so, but any statement he did make I would take down in writing and it could be given in evidence afterwards.

Q. After administering the caution what did he do? A. He made a statement on oath.

Q. Is that the original signed by him? (Prosecutor hands document to witness) A. Yes.

Statement is read by the Prosecutor:

I am of the opinion that I was served with 'doctored' liquor, as when I wakened up next morning I had a distinct taste of paraffin in my mouth. I have never been affected by drink in this way before.

(Statement of accused produced and marked 'Exhibit I')

The defending officer declines to crossexamine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with Rule of Procedure 85(B).

Prosecutor That is the case for the prosecution.

J.A. The case for the prosecution is closed. You can now make your defence. There are three courses which you may take: you may give sworn evidence: you may make a statement, or say nothing. If you give sworn evidence, you will be sworn like any other witness and you will be cross-examined and questioned by the court. That is the effect of giving sworn evidence. If you make a statement no-one can put any questions to you. In addition you can call witnesses to fact or character. In making up your mind the court is likely to attach greater weight to sworn evidence than a statement made not on oath as you can then be cross-examined. Would you like to confer with your defending officer before I put the questions?

Accused. No sir.

Q. Do you apply to give sworn evidence. A. No sir.

Q. Do you wish to call any witnesses. A. No sir.

Prosecutor's closing address.

May it please the court. I would like to make a few observations. I do not think it is necessary for me to say a great deal. The position is that the accused is charged with two charges, one, the essence is that he is guilty of condust to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in pointing a pistol at Corporal Johnson of the Canadian Provost Corps, saying at the same time 'Give me that book'. The other charge is being drunk at the same time.

The evidence which has been called for the prosecution is essentially that Corporal Johnson and Lieutenant Cannon, both of whom were present during the whole of the relevant time and saw and heard whathappened. The question of pointing a pistol has been fully substantiated by the evidence I submit. Corporal Johnson gave you a clear account which was substantially corroborated by Mr. Cannon. On those points there was little cross-examination and I suggest that the evidence is quite sufficient to satisfy you beyond reasonable doubt that the accused did point his pistol and did what he is specifically charged to have done. If you are so satisfied, then I would say that such conduct was prejudicial to good order and military discipline. It is clearly conduct which is of a kind which is quite inconsistent with proper behaviour by an officer, as between an officer, and indeed any other person, and an N.C.O. of the military police.

With regard to the second charge of drunkenness, you have the evidence of Mr. Cannon that when the accused arrived back at eleven o'clock he came to the conclusion that he was drunk. He changed his opinion a little while afterwards. You may think that was based some on the former knowledge of the officer rather than on his behaviour at that time, and Mr. Cannon told you in evidence that the accused's behaviour was strange; that he was argumentative; that he did not know where he was going or where he had come from. All these things are matters of behaviour which should be taken into account in assessing whether the accused was drunk. There is no satisfactory definition of drunkenness. It has been said that it is a condition which can be recognised by the ordinary sensible, reasonable man on the street. Corporal Johnson told you the accused had been drinking, but was not drunk. Lance corporal Wallis gave a rather stronger account and stated that he did not think the accused was drunk. It is a matter for the court, taking into account the descriptions of the conduct and behaviour of the accused, to say if he was under the influence of alcoholic liquor or whatever he had been drinking in the ordinary sense of the word. In addition, the defending officer brought out the fact that the accused on being cautioned said that he had visited one or two cafes and he remembered nothing until he awoke the next morning. You may consider that that statement is not inconsistent with the accused being drunk that evening. Again on the summary the accused said he had doctored liquor and when he woke up next morning he had a taste of paraffin in his mouth.

It is my submission that those are matters you should consider in deciding whether the accused was drunk at the time in question and I submit there was evidence on which you can so find. Whichever conclusion you may come to with regard to the second charge may in turn affect your view on the first, but I do say there has been abundant evidence for you to be satisfied on the first charge, and there is some evidence on the second charge. It is for the prosecution to satisfy you beyond reasonable doubt and not for the accused to prove his innocence. In this case I put it that the onus on the prosecution has been discharged by the evidence which has been produced.

Defending Officer's closing address.

I have nothing much over and above what I have previously said before adjournment, except that I would refer the court's attention to the evidence of Lieut. Cannon, an officer who had known the accused for some considerable time, who said, when he was asked whether the accused was drunk or not, that there was a considerable amount of doubt in his mind. He had known the accused for some time and he was not an officer of drunken habits and that there were some peculiarities about his condition. The question of drunkenness is surrounded with a certain amount of doubt. There was doubt on the part of more than one witness, whether they felt it due to a misguided sense of loyalty, I do not know. This officer has himself stated on oath before the Adjutant at the taking of the summary that he had been given doctored liquor. He told the same story after having been cautioned by the A.P.M., Lieutenant Neff. You have heard the A.P.M. describe the effect of this doctored liquor and that there is more than one cafe in this town that have had proceedings taken against them for the sale of such liquor. If it is possible, and I think there is a possibility that doctored liquor was administered to this officer, I may say that while it does not prescribe conviction on the charge of drunkenness, it goes a long way to mitigate not only that charge but also the charge which sprang out of it - the most serious charge of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he drew his revolver.

If you find that he had doctored liquor and, having had doctored liquor, he had reached a state where he did not know that he drew his pistol, you will see that this means to a certain extent that the accused has been a victim of most unfortunate circumstances and it would be wrong that he should suffer the full penalty for such an offence.

Judge Advocate sums up.

It is now my duty to sum up the case.

In this, as in all criminal cases, there is a heavy burden on the prosecution. The prosecution has to satisfy the court beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused has been proved guilty on the evidence of the charges laid against him before you can convict. By a reasonable doubt is meant that doubt that would prompt you to action or refrain from action in dealing with some matter of importance in your private affairs. This court is not going to find this officer guilty of either offence unless the evidence compels them to do so. The defending officer does not appear to be asking for an acquittal on the first charge but it is my duty and the court's duty to sift this matter to the bottom and to look at aspects which may not have been raised by either the defence or the prosecution.

It may appear that if this accused consumed unwittingly some very deleterious substance and that induced in him a state of active derangement of his faculties so that he did not really know what he was doing, then there would be, I would advise you, a complete defence to both of these charges. Now it is a matter entirely for you, and this case will really be decided by common sense and military knowledge, did anything the accused consumed amount to more than cheap grade liquor? If it was something different from that, something in the nature of a bad oyster, if I may use that expression, then it is a defence here. Suppose you believe the accused unwittingly got this, or if you are in reasonable doubt, if he may have taken on board this peculiar deleterious substance - I mean peculiar in a sense quite different from low grade liquor - if you think that was so, or are in reasonable doubt, it would be your duty and your power to acquit the accused on both charges.

Coming in detail to these charges, the first is laid under Section 40 of the Army Act:

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE, in that he,

in the field on 13 February 1945 improperly drew his revolver and pointed it at No. H-16726 Corporal G.R. Johnson, 7 Provost Company Detachment, Canadian Provost Corps, who was checking the Log Book of a Jeep in which he (the accused) was a passenger, saying at the same time to the said No. H-16726 Corporal G.R. Johnson, 'Give me that book' or words to that effect.

The court has heard me advise the accused about the nature of a Section 40 Charge with a special reference to the particulars in this case, and the court, out of their military knowledge, might reasonably come to the conclusion I have mentioned, that is, that pointing the revolver at the Provost Company Corporal was an act prejudicial to good order and military discipline.

You will see that certain language in the particulars has been borne out by Corporal Johnson today. The words 'Give me that book'. Lieutenant Cannon gives a somewhat different version of the words. You may not think that that is of such importance to deal with that fact by special finding if you come to a finding adverse to the accused.

These charges will be considered separately, but supposing you thought the accused was drunk or under the influence of drink, that would not be a defence to the first charge, but of course it would have great effect in mitigation of the charge. If a person is drunk it does not automatically absolve him from responsibility. I only ask you to consider that aspect of the matter if you are completely satisfied on the first point that we discussed at the outset.

The second charge is laid under Section 19 of the Army Act:

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE DRUNKENNESS,

in that he,

in the field on 13 February 1945 was drunk.

A good definition of drunkeness has not really been defined. The test is what the ordinary man in the street would consider drunk. You have had the evidence of several witnesses here and none of them has said that in his opinion the accused was drunk. You are not bound by their opinions if there are other factors in the case that the evidence shows that, in spite of what these witnesses say, the accused was drunk. The first witness, Corporal Johnson, said that he could smell alcohol and that the accused had been drinking, but no more. The second witness, Lance corporal Wallis, also a police witness, said that he noticed the accused was under the influence of liquor from the way he made his statement about his Commanding Officer giving him permission to be in Turnhout. He also said that the accused's speech was thick and slurred, but he did not consider that the accused was drunk. If you are going to come to the conclusion that the accused was drunk, you would have to do so upon what these first two witnesses, Corporal Johnson and Lance corporal Wallis, say they observed about the accused's condition, because Lieutenant Cannon only says the accused was not drunk, although his first impression was that he thought the accused was 'pretty' drunk. Lieutenant

Cannon has said the accused was not drunk because he exhibited such very peculiar symptoms. He has been in the company of the accused and they have both been taking drink and Lieutenant Cannon says the accused did not present his normal symptoms on taking drink. He also has said the accused was a sober person.

That is what you have to consider.

The fact of pointing a revolver at the Provost Company Corporal is not contested. It is really the accused's responsibility for that act that is in question. The accused has made two statements. One of them to Lieutenant Neff and the other at the taking of the summary. In both of these statements the accused has stated that he does not remember what happened, but when he woke up next morning he had a distinct taste of paraffin, and the accused's opinion was that the liquor had been doctored. There is no reason to doubt the accused's honest impression that the liquor was doctored, nor the honest impression of Mr. Cannon that the liquor was doctored, but it just rests on impressions. I can only advise you that you put the test to this point of doctored or un-doctored liquor in the terms I suggested to you. Was it then just ordinary low grade liquor purchaseable in all cafes, or was it low grade liquor which had been specially doctored and specially inferior and deleterious in the sense that the Police Lieutenant told us had given trouble in several cases in Turnhout at just about that time.

I think I can assist the court no further.

The Court closes to consider its findings.

The Court re-opens.

COURT: The court's finding is Not Guilty of the second charge. As regards the first charge, the court has no announcement to make.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to ~~apply~~ comply with R.P. 83 B during this trial.

First Witness for the prosecution. Having been duly sworn States:

I am Surgeon Lieutenant M. KIRWAN, R.N.V.R., Bught Park Camp, Inverness.

Q. Did you have occasion to treat a Canadian soldier early in the morning on Sunday, 7 May 44? Tell the court how you came to treat him, and what condition he was in at that time.
A. I believe the man came in walking, and he was brought up to my Sick Bay, and I was called to see him. He had an extensive injury to the left side of the face, and some minor cuts. He explained to me he had been knocked down by a car outside the gate, and that he knew one of the people in the car. He had cutson his face, and minor lacerations on his hands.

Q. You say that he had cuts on his face and minor lacerations on his hands. What was there about him to indicate that he was hurt? Were the cuts very visible?
A. Yes sir, especially the ones on the face. He was covered with blood. His face was covered with blood, and the blood was on his tunic.

Q. Did this man appear to be under the influence of liquor?
A. No sir.

Q. What did you do then?
A. I gave him the usual first aid treatment, and then I got him in a car and sent him to the hospital.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENCE

Second Witness for the Prosecution. Having been duly sworn states:

I am 2815735 Pte. FORSYTHE, R., of the Seaforth Highlanders.

Q. Do you recognize the accused before the court?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you with the Accused during the night of 6-7 May 44?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Tell the court where and how you came to meet him, and under what circumstances, and any incidents that happened between that time and the time you finally left him.
A. On the night of 6-7 May, I was in company with Sgt Hodger and another fellow in the Transit Camp Mess. We had been drinking together off and on that night, and it was after 12 o'clock that the accused told me he had missed the liberty truck. As I had a car at my disposal, I said "Jump in the car and I will drive you home. It will only take about 20 minutes and I will drive you there". They did so. We were driving along the road, near Clachnaharry Bridge, when I heard a clatter on the rear mud guard. I realized that somebody had run into me. I stopped the car and got out and then I saw a Canadian soldier picking himself up, and he had a bicycle. I tried to assist him, but he would not allow me. He was bleeding profusely from the side of the face and eye. I offered to tie his head up. He was dabbing his face with a kharki handkerchief, and I had a white one, so I offered to let him use my white one. He would not let me near him. I then told him to jump in the car, and I would take him to his camp, which I understood to be a camp on the road before you reached this one, so he could get assistance, and then we walked up the road to the car. I told him to get in, and some words arose. I do not know what was said. Then he said "I will not go with you people, you are all drunk".

As I was on a scheme, and didn't have any spare time, I did all I could to assist him. I then drove off, and left the two Sgts. off at the bottom of the road coming up to this camp.

Q. In what condition was Sgt Rodger when you left Inverness?
A. We had been drinking, but in my opinion he was not drunk.

Q. Where was Sgt. Rodger sitting in the car?
A. To the best of my knowledge he was in the back seat, but that I could not swear to, because I never paid any attention.

Q. How was he conducting himself?
A. There was no talking, he was just sitting there. I was simply driving and watching the road.

Q. You made a statement that the injured man was bleeding from the eye. Is that correct?
A. Yes sir. He was bleeding from the eye.

Q. Do you know why he would not let you give him any assistance?
A. I thought he was perhaps afraid that I might hurt him. He just would not let me do anything for him.

Q. Did this injured man appear to be drunk?
A. I thought he was, or that he had been drinking at least, otherwise he would not have run into me.

Q. And is it not so that because he refused assistance and because you were in a hurry to get back to the scheme, that you just left him by the road?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did Sgt Rodger say anything to the injured man?
A. Yes. We all spoke to try and find out where he belonged to.

Q. Was Sgt Rodger in a position to see the injured man?
A. Hardly. He was sitting on the near side of the car, and we were on the off side. I doubt if he could see from the window, as the light was really wrong.

Cross examined by defending Officer

Q. You say that you were in Inverness with Sgt Rodger and you were doing some drinking. How much drinking did you actually do with Sgt Rodger?
A. We probably had about two or three. I was not in the mess the whole evening.

Q. But there was certainly evidence that he had been drinking?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it reasonable to suppose that he would have enough drink to make him sleepy after he had got into the car?
A. It is quite reasonable to suppose that.

Q. The position is that in the Transit Camp Mess you offered Sgt. Rodger a ride in your car. Is that correct?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Then his status in your car was that of a passenger?
A. Yes sir.

Q. The responsibility of the car was assumed by you as driver?
A. It was entirely in my hands.

Q. Up to the time the car proceeded to the scene of the accident, was there any conversation whatever?
A. No sir. None whatever.

Q. Sgt. Rodger never said a word?
A. No sir.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Q. I suggest that Sgt. Rodger was asleep. Would that be reasonable under the circumstances? Is that what you thought his position was?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it your opinion then that Sgt Rodger was asleep?
A. It is my honest opinion that he was asleep.

Q. At the scene of the accident, did Sgt Rodger get out of the car?
A. No sir.

Q. When the accident occurred, you described the sound as a clatter, which caused you to stop. Was there a jar?
A. No sir. I could just feel the glance of the fellow striking the rear mud guard.

Q. The impact of the car striking the bicycle was slight, if anything?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it possible that the people in the back of the car would not detect it at all?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You told the court something about Butler's reluctance to come with you. Do you suppose that perhaps he knew he was right next door to this Naval First Aid Station and that he probably preferred to go there? Did that thought occur to you at all?
A. I did not know there was such a place.

Q. You say it was a dark night, and you couldn't see without your headlights. Was it raining, or was there a scotch mist?
A. It was a dark and heavy evening.

Q. As far as you remember you were the only man who had any contact with Butler?
A. Yes sir. As far as I can remember.

Q. You were the driver and took control of the situation, and you sized it up. Actually Sgt Rodger was, if at all, nothing more than a by-stander as a passenger in your car?
A. That is right, sir.

Q. After the accident occured, was there any conversation at all up to No 10 Coy CPC?
A. No so far as I can remember. I simply jumped in the car and said that I had to get going, and drove to the end of the road.

Q. Then you didn't say anything to Sgt Rodger about any accident that may have occured?
A. No sir.

Q. You say he didn't get out of the car, and that it was a dark night. Is it not possible that Sgt Rodger might not have known that there was an accident?
A. Yes sir. It is quite possible.

Q. Did you tell the court that you had heard some conversation between Sgt Rodger and Pte Butler, because if you said that, I would like to point out that we have a summary of evidence in which you say they didn't speak at all. Are you sure who really said anything to who?
A. I am not sure. The point is I could not swear to anything in that respect. You must remember that it was a week after this thing happened that this was brought up.

Q. Did you hear Sgt Rodger say to Pte Butler "If you don't like what we are doing for you you can get out?".
A. Definitely not sir.

Q. Do you remember any conversation of a definite nature between Sgt Rodger and Pte Butler?
A. None whatever, sir.

Re-examined by the Prosecution

Q. To clarify my two points brought out in the position in the car, I would like to ask this. The witness made the statement in his first evidence that he was not aware of Sgt Rodger's position in the car. Is that correct?
A. I said I would not swear to it where they were sitting, but on second thought I am sure he was in the rear.

Q. Some conversation had taken place between the injured person and the others in the car. Did you hear any talking going on between the injured and the passengers in your car?
A. As far as I can remember, I got in myself, and I thought I heard some words.

Q. When you left the injured person, did you have to leave him to open the door or your car?
A. No. I was on the driving side, on the right hand side. I was stopped on the left hand side of the road. We walked up from the accident.

Q. Which side of the car was the injured man, after the car had stopped?
A. He was on the right side of the car.

Q. And did you expect him to get in the back? Was the door open for him?
A. No sir. I told him to jump in, and I got in, and expected him to get in behind me.

Q. Then if both doors were closed, could any conversation have taken place?
A. The windows were down, sir.

Cross examined by the Court

Q. Were you a Sgt. at that time?
A. I was a Sgt., acting Sgt. Major, at the time of the accident. I am now a private.

Third witness for the Prosecution. Having been duly sworn states:

I am K-41333 Pte BUTLER, G.H., No 10 Coy CPC.

Q. Do you recognize the accused before the court?
A. I never recognized this man in the car, the night of the accident.

Q. But do you recognize that Sgt. sitting at that table?
A. I recognize him now.

Q. When did you first know him?
A. I have seen him in camp before the accident?

Q. Do you recognize the accused, then?
A. Yes sir.

Q. On the night of 6-7 May 44, you had an accident, and sustained a slight injury thereby. Tell the court the circumstances leading up to it.
A. I left Inverness around 1 o'clock Sunday morning on my bicycle.

Q. Had you been drinking during the evening?
A. No sir.

Q. Then what happened?
A. I was just coming through Inverness coming back to camp, and just as I got out of town a truck passed me with some soldiers in the back of it, and just after this truck passed me I looked back and saw this car approaching me, after the truck with the soldiers in it had passed me. I naturally got in close to the wall. The very next thing I knew after that was this car hitting as it came past me. It caught me and threw me into the car for about half a minute, then it threw me out, and I smacked right into the wall. My face was bleeding pretty bad, and my eye was closed. As I got up from the bicycle I saw the car had stopped some distance along the road, So I started to go towards it. Then a soldier got out of the car and came towards me. When I got up to him he said "Where were you going? I never saw you". I said "Well, you came in too close and threw me into the wall. It looks as if I am cut pretty bad". So he looked at me and said "it is not very bad. It is a little cut under your eye". I thought my eye had been knocked out. By that time I had reached the car. I said "You had better take me to a hospital, because I am covered with blood". He said that he had just came from that way, and that he was going to Dockfur. I said "You can't leave me here, I am bleeding. You have got to do something for me. You should call the police". As I said that I opened the door at the back of the car and then I noticed the Sgt. in front was from No 10 Coy C[illegible]C. He was in the front seat. When I said "You had better call the police" this Sgt. in front of the car said "Wait a minute. We had better get organized here". I got in the car and sat in the back seat. There was a soldier sitting there in the back seat, but I nver recognized him. He turned and said "What are you kicking about? If you don't like it get the hell out". Then I said "It doesn't look as if you want to do anything for me". I then got out of the car. The driver was then in the seat behind the steering wheel, and as I stepped out of the car he threw in the clutch and just disappeared down the road. He left me standing on the road, so I walked back to the Naval Camp and the guard came and took me into the Sick Bay. They got the doctor and they fixed me up and then sent me to the hospital.

Q. Was it the driver of the car that came back and spoke to you?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he appear to be sober?
A. No he did not.

Q. Did he offer to do anything for you?
A. No he did not. He just said that it wasn't a very bad cut.

Q. Did you tell him what camp you came from?
A. No sir.

Q. You say you stepped into the car. In what condition would you say the man in the seat beside you was?
A. As soon as he spoke and the way he spoke I could tell that he had been drinking.

Q. Did you recognize him?
A. No sir.

Q. Did you see him?
A. Yes sir. I did.

Q. Did you see his face and features?
A. No sir. He was sitting in the corner opposite me with his coat collar turned up. My eye was bleeding pretty bad, and I could not see very much of anything.

Cross examined by the defending Officer

Q. You say that you got into the back seat of the car and there was a man in the back seat who was slouched in one corner with his coat collar turned up. I put it to you that that attitude you have just described to the court is exactly the position for a man that has been asleep, or has just been aroused from his sleep, and is not aware of what has happened? In this case does that seem reasonable to you?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you think that this probably was his position in the car?
A. I would not like to say that.

Q. You went directly back to this Sick Bay, didn't you?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was it very far?
A. It just took me about three or four minutes.

Q. Did you know it was there?
A. Yes sir. I knew there was a camp there, so I naturally expected them to have a sick bay there too.

Q. It has occurred to me that perhaps you knew that sick bay was there and you most certainly preferred to go there?
A. No I did not. I preferred to be taken straight to a hospital because I was bleeding pretty bad.

Q. As I understand it, you told this court that this Sgt. from No 10 Coy CPC had said "Let's get organized here". You have previously stated that someone replied "Let's get organized here", by which I infer that you are not at all sure?
A. I am positive sir. I have no doubt whatever.

Q. Did somebody say to you "If you don't like it you can go?"
A. Somebody said that. I don't know who said it. All that I know is that it was the man in the back seat.

Q. Are you sure that he said that?
A. I am positive.

Q. What was Forsythe doing all this time?
A. He had got back in the car by then. He didn't say anything after that. I will admit that after the man in the back seat said something the other men said some words, but I didn't quite catch them. It just seemed to me that they just wanted to get rid of me and pretty quick at that.

Q. Do you recognize the accused as the one who was in the back seat of the car?
A. No sir.

Q. You could not have been very close to him then, were you?
A. I was sitting next to him. He was sitting in the corner. One of my eyes was closed. I did see him, but I didn't know who it was. I did not recognize him.

Q. Did he recognize you?
A. No sir.

Q. Did he know how you got there?
A. No sir. He didn't know how I got there.

Q. You couldn't recognize him, so he couldn't recognize you, is that correct?
A. Yes sir.

E.R.H.

Q. He didn't even know how you got there?
A. I don't suppose he knew how I got there.

Q. These words that you say he spoke could have been used in a case where you were probably getting a lift in the car. Is that not possible?
A. There must have been something wrong with him if he couldn't see what was wrong with me.

Q. These words that were said in this particular instance could have been used by this man, if he said them at all, in such a situation where there was a little confusion. You got into the car and he didn't see you. Could they not have been used in such a situation as this?
A. No sir.

Q. It was so dark the conditions were such that this man could not distinguish you by your features, in the same way that you could not distinguish his, but yet you tell this court that these words could not have been applied in this case?
A. These words only applied to what they meant.

Q. You take one inference, but another person could take another inference? Is that correct?
A. He told me to get out of the car.

Cross examined by the Court

Q. These remarks of yours in regard to your condition after you came up to the car. Where were these remarks made that you had been hurt?
A. I was a little ways from the car, and as I walked back to the car, this man said "Oh, you are a Canadian, I have two of your boys here in the car".

Q. Were you actually in the car?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you make any remark in the car in regard to your condition?
A. I said "I am bleeding pretty bad, and it looks as if you have knocked my eye out. I am covered with blood".

Q. What type of car was it?
A. It was a four seater car.

Re-examined by the defending Officer

Q. You said something about being covered in blood. Now you have just told the Court that you were in the car when you made this statement. At the beginning of the trial you said that you said it out on the road.
A. I said it both times, repeating it in the car.

Q. Why did you just think of this all of a sudden? Why didn't you give this in your statement? Are you telling the truth?
A. Certainly I am telling the truth. I know everything that happened.

Q. Who did you say that to, that you are covered in blood?
A. To the men in the car, but not to any particular person.

Q. We now have two statements by you about being covered in blood. You said that you said it to Forsythe outside, and so now you said it again?
A. Yes sir.

Fourth witness for the Prosecution. Having been duly sworn states:

I am L-9006 Arm/Sgt LOCKHART, H.A., RCEME., attached to No 10 Coy CPC as in W.E.

Q. Do you recognize the accused before the court?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you in his company on the night of 6-7 May 44?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you return to camp with him on that night?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Tell the court how you came to be with him, and how you got back to camp.
A. Sgt. Rodger had been attached to No 10 Coy CPC a short time prior to the dates in question, and on the Saturday, the 6th of May, we decided we would go into Inverness for the afternoon or evening. We left this camp at approximately 1530 hours and got into Inverness and then we went to a cafe for lunch. During the evening we had been drinking in the Transit Camp Mess in Inverness and were offered a ride home by a C.S.M., so we left the Transit Camp in his car and the next thing I remember is arriving at this camp at the bottom of the hill.

Q. In what condition were you when you left Inverness?
A. I was pretty tight.

Q. Are you in a position to state Sgt Rodger's condition?
A. No sir.

Q. Do you know with any certainty what position that you and Sgt Rodger occuped in the car?
A. I was in the front seat and I am quite sure that Sgt. Rodger was in the back seat.

Q. Have you any recollection of any stop being made on the road back to camp, or any accident on the road back to camp?
A. No sir.

Cross examined by defending Officer

Q. Do you recall the afternoon of Saturday, 6 May? Were you in your Sgts. Mess at that time?
A. We were in there with CSM McLeod, and we all had a few drinks together.

Q. Was there any conversation in this mess at the time in regard to your going to Inverness?
A. Nothing, except possibly the fact arose that we were going.

Q. Then the CSM knew you were going?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was there any talk of a pass at all?
A. No sir. It was the common practise for a Sgt. going into Inverness without a pass, in this Company.

Q. You remember drinking pretty heavily in the afternoon and you remember being in the Transit Camp Mess. Did Forsythe voluntarily give you a ride in his car?
A. Yes sir. He offered to take us up to camp.

Q. Then yours and Sgt Rodger's position was that of a passenger in his car?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Can you remember an accident that occured?
A. No sir.

Q. Can you remember any conversation that took place about the time the accident occured?
A. No sir.

Q. I suggest to you that you and Sgt Rodger must have been asleep. Is that possible?
A. It is quite possible.. We had been drinking quite heavily. I do not recollect stopping at all.

Q. Do you remember anything at all about this man Butler?
A. No sir. I know Butler, and if I had seen him I would have spoken to him.

Q. As far as you know, did CSM Forsythe, now Pte Forsythe, say anything to you about an accident?
A. No sir.

Q. Does Sgt Rodger live in the mess with you?
A. He has just been attached for a short time. He lives in the mess for the present time.

Q. Have you noticed anything wrong with Sgt Rodger's eyes?
A. I have seen that there is something wrong with them. He squints. When we play cards he holds them right up close in his hands and squints his eyes.

Q. Do you know whether he went to see a specialist about his eyes?
A. I believe he did.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution. Duly sworn and states:

I am Lieut C.E. LEATHERBY, Adjutant, No 10 Coy CPC.

Q. Do you recognize this document? If so read it to the court.
A. It is a certified true copy of para 3 of No 10 Coy, CPC's standing orders, dated 23 March 43. Camp Bounds - All areas outside a four mile radius of the camp are out of bounds, also all places so marked. Certified true copy.

IDENTIFIED AND SUBMITTED AS EXHIBIT 2

Cross examined by defending Officer

Q. Is there anything in your standing orders in regard to the position of Sgts. and their passes?
A. No sir.

Sixth witness for the prosecution. Having been duly sworn states:

I am K-77215 A/CSM McLEOD, W.H., No 10 Coy CPC

Q. Do you recognise the accused before the court?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was he attached to this company on Saturday, 6 May 44?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was he issued with a pass to leave this camp and go to Inverness on that day?
A. No sir, he was not.

Cross examined by defending Officer

Q. Is it not the common practise in this Company that Sgts. do not usually have to have a pass to go to Inverness?
A. Some of them do not ask for a pass, but they have been told that it is their own responsibility if they are caught without a pass. I have told them all that at different times.

Q. Is this the first case upon which you have brought a Sgt. before the C.O. for being in Inverness without a pass?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it a rule that is very frequently adhered to?
A. There are a lot that have done it before. It is therefore company practise that they don't have a pass to go to Inverness. Most of them do ask for a pass to go to Inverness, though.

Cross examined by the Court

Q. How long have you been CSM of this Company?
A. A year ago April.

Q. During that time have you had, to your knowledge, any charges from the Canadian Provost Corps of Sgts being in Inverness without a pass?
A. I do not recall any in my time.

Re-examined by defending Officer

Q. In Inverness, the Provost Corps very seldom check Sgts. for passes, is that right?
A. That is quite right, sir.

Case for Prosecution is closed

COURT ADJOURNED AT 1145 HOURS - - COURT OPENED AT 1300 HOURS

First Witness for the Defence (Accused) K-90030 Arm/Sgt Rodger, J. Having been duly sworn states:

I am K-90030 Arm/Sgt RODGER, J., R.C.E.M.E., Reinforcement Section CPC.

Q. Do you recall the 6 May 44? Tell the court what happened on that day. Were you in the Sgts Mess in the afternoon of Saturday, 6 May 44?
A. Yes sir.

Q. In company with whom?
A. Sgt Lockhart and CSM McLeod.

Q. Was it known to CSM McLeod that you were going to Inverness?
A. Yes sir. He knew because I told him. He raised no question of my going.

Q. Did you have anything to drink in the mess?
A. We had one or two bottles of beer. It was a mixture of strong ales and ordinary beer.

Q. Do you recall being in the Transit Camp Mess in Inverness on that day?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you recall meeting a CSM, who is now Pte Forsythe?
A. I do not recall individuals. The place was full of people when I went there.

Q. Did you have anything to drink there?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you recall getting into a car?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Tell the court what happened after you got into this car.
A. I got into the rear of the car in the yard at the back of the Transit Camp of the Sgts Mess. After driving and talking I fell asleep in the back of the car. I do not recollect the journey itself, but the next morning I had an idea that the car had stopped, and that someone had wanted to be taken to hospital, and that we wanted to take him to Dochfur.

E.R.H.

I do not know who it was and I did not definitely know whether it was something that had actually happened or whether it was something I had imagined or dreamt. It was not until the following Wednesday that Major Carlisle called me in his office and wanted to know if I had been in the car with Sgt. Lockhart. It was then that I realized probably what had been going through my mind. Something had actually occurred, and it was not something that I had imagined. From then on I have been worrying and trying to understand things better, but I cannot get anything more out of it, that just sticks in my mind. I do not know if anything else happened then or not. I know the rest of the ride was done while I was asleep and I do not remember anything.

Q. Do you think you must have been asleep before the car stopped?
A. I was asleep before the car started. I do not remember the car leaving the yard, it was so dark.

Q. What kind of a car was it?
A. It was a small dark coloured sedan.

Q. Will you tell the court something about the condition of your eyes?
A. They are very weak, and I have to wear glasses to read. In fact, I have to wear glasses for most of my work.

Q. Do you have trouble focusing especially after drinking?
A. I have had difficulties in that line. I asked to be sent to a specialist, because my glasses didn't seem to be any good.

Second witness for the defence. Having been duly sworn states:

I am K-79869 Sgt. PARSONS, W.L., Transport Sgt., No 10 Coy CPC

Q. How long have you been in No 10 Coy CPC?
A. I came here to No 10 Coy on 6 May 1945.

Q. Are you in a habit of going into Inverness quite frequently?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Can you tell the court what the practise is in this company in regard to Sgts having passes to go to Inverness?
A. It is not necessary for a Sgt to put in for a pass, and it is only on one or two occasions that I ever did put in for a pass myself. On numerous occasions I have been in town and talked to the Provost when I have never had a pass.

Q. Can you tell the court then that it is the usual practise for you Sgts to go to Inverness without a pass?
A. Yes sir. That is quite right.

Cross examined by prosecution

Q. Are you speaking for all Sgts?
A. I am speaking for the majority of Sgts.

Q. Are you acquainted with the camp standing orders?
A. Fairly well, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with that part of the camp standing orders that was submitted as an exhibit to this court? That all areas over four miles radius are out of bounds?
A. I have heard something to that effect, Sir, but I didn't think that it was necessary, because most of the Sgts don't bother putting in for a pass.

Q. Are you aware, then, of this camp standing order that areas over four miles are out of bounds?
A. No sir.

Re-examined by defending Officer

Q. Is that standing order ever drawn to the attention of the Sgts?
A. No sir.

Q. And yet it is known by the company that Sgts go into Inverness without a pass in spite of this order?
A. I am sure it must be known.

TRIAL THEN PROCEEDED AS SHOWN IN RECORD FORM B

Character witness for the Accused. Having been duly sworn states:

I am Major John R. HANBURY, Officer Commanding, No 10 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes. Sgt. Rodger.

Q. How long have you known him?
A. I have known him since September 1940, when he was first attached to No 1s Coy CFC, at the inception of the company in Canada, until the present time.

Q. Knowing him that length of time, is his character such that you would consider him to be an inhuman or unkind man, in regard to his relation with soldiers?
A. Definitely not.

Q. Have you any specific instances of consideration that he has shown for the men?
A. Yes. In the past three years there have been several. Sgt Rodger's position in the company was such that he had a great deal of free time on his hands. His duties were not so great that he was kept busy the whole day. He occupied his spare time by doing a great deal of studying himself in mathematics, and he was always willing and often did help a great many men who also wished to further their knowledge in mathematics, in his own time. He was always willing to help and coach any man in weapons or arms, while he was not required to do it, and he always volunteered for instructional work on military training. He carried out his duties as an Armourer Sgt in a fashion which was completely exemplary. He is a very skilled armourer. I have never found an occasion for anybody to complain about his work, and I have never definitely heard a complaint on his treatment of men. I have always classed him as one of the keener and better N.C.Os.

Closing address by defending Officer

I would like to deal with the second charge, and with charge three. The prosecution has put forward as an exhibit a copy of the camp standing orders, but I am bound to say, that he has failed to prove one thing - that Inverness is out of bounds. We do not know that. As far as this order is concerned, it has not applied in this case at all. In the second place, it has been testified that the custom in this camp, and we know that it is the custom in most of our camps, is that Sgts going to nearby cities do not require to have a pass. It has been shown in this case that Sgts do not take a pass for Inverness and do not expect to be charged with absence without leave when they are in Inverness without a pass. I do not see how, if that is the practise, this man can be found guilty of absence without leave. The second charge amounts to neglect to aid a soldier, and if I may, I would like to read from MML, page 112, para 31.

It says "A person is not ordinarly considered to cause injury to another by the mere omission to do an act; thus, if a man sees another drowning and is able to save him by holding out his hand, but omits to do so, even in the hope that the other may be drowned, still he is not criminally responsible". Also may I read from MML, chapter 7, para 9, page 106 which says "Temporary intoxication (from liquor or drugs) - as distinct from mental diseases, which alcoholism,etc., may bring on - is not (if voluntary) in itself any excuse for crime; but evidence of drunkenness which rendered the accused incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime must be taken into consideration together with the other facts proved in order to determine whether or not he had that intent". I say it must be shown that his man intended to leave Butler where he was. I submit that it has not been shown that Sgt Rodger was the man who was responsible for Butler being left on the road. I submit that there is a great deal more evidence that the driver of the car, Forsythe, the man who is responsible for the car, the man who had the most to do with him, he was the man who is responsible and not Sgt Rodger. On the basis of Forsythe's evidence, we have these facts. It was a dark night, there was no pronounced impact when the car struck the bicycle, and there was no conversation before the accident occurred or after, in regard to the accident, and lastly, in the opinion of Forsythe, Sgt. Rodger was asleep. I am referring also to the evidence brought forward about Sgt Rodger's seeing ability, which appears to be very poor, and remind the court that it was a very dark night. I would also like to refer to Butler himself, who could not recognise Rodger at all. Therefore, how on earth could Rodger recognize Butler, or recognize that he was an injured man? I have very little to say about Butler, except that his evidence is perogatory to that of Forsythe's. Butler said that he got in the back of the car, and the man in the back said "What the hell are you kicking about?". I maintain, that Sgt Rodger, sitting in the back of the car, being awakened after having been drinking a long time, and having been asleep, could have made that remark about any disturbance that may have occured to rouse him from his sleep, and I will close with this remark, that there is a very very reasonable doubt, and if a reasonable doubt exists, the man must be aquitted, and I say that there is a reasonable doubt that Sgt Rodger knew that this man was hurt and needed assistance.

Closing address by the prosecuting Officer

The accused appears on three charges. To the first he has pleaded guilty. I would like to refer to the evidence on the second charge. We had a statement made by Surgeon Lieut. Kirwan, who treated the injured man shortly after the accident, and according to his testimony there was no doubt whatever that Pte Butler was injured, and so visibly injured that his face was smeared with blood, blood on his tunic, and his hands cut. There has been some confliction in the evidence, but none of it takes away the fact that Sgt Rodger was there at the time. In fact, he admitted this himself in his own statement. The point of the charge is simply that being there he should have done something. The Court, I know, is aware of the various sections of the Army Act, referring to crimes committed whilst being drunk. Although drunkenness may justify a court-martial, chapter 3 section 48 states that drunkenness is no excuse for crime. Surely under the circumstances which have been brought out, there is probably a great deal to be grateful for that the evidence has not been more serious.

1st Witness

L.9006 Arm/Sgt. Leckhart, H.A., R.C.O.C., attached to No. 10 Company, Cdn. Forestry Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

About 2200 hours on Saturday 6th May 1944, I remember going into the Sergeant's Mess at the Transit Camp, Inverness, for a drink, round about 2300 hours, I remember seeing Sergeant Rodger, of my unit in there, and we both had drinks together. I distinctly remember drinking with two Sergeant Majors there. I should say that I spent about £3 on drinks with these Sergeant Majors.

Sergeant Rodger and I stayed in the Mess till about 0030 hours, 7th May 1944, when we left with one of the Sergeant Majors. I know we were pretty drunk at the time. The Sergeant Major volunteered to take us to our camp and clearly remember getting into a car outside the Mess and drive off. I was sitting in the front with the Sergeant Major and Sergeant Rodger was sitting in the back of the car. I remember that I took notice that the front seat of the car was very low as I could hardly see in front of me through the window.

The next thing I can remember was getting out of the car at the end of the road leading to our camp and Rodger and I going to the kitchen for something to eat.

Q. Have you any recollection at all of the car stopping before it reached camp?

A. No Sir.

Q. You deny having any knowledge of seeing or speaking to an injured man while on the way home?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Did you go to the kitchen for a hot drink before turning in?

A. I am sure I did but I am not sure if Sgt. Rodger did.

Q. What kitchen did you go to?

A. I tried the Sgts. Mess first but it was closed and I went to the Mens Kitchen.

Q. Do you remember who was on duty in the Men's kitchen or who was there when you were there?

A. I think McCaig, Methie and Lee were there.

2nd Witness

2815735 Sgt. Forsyth, R., Seaforths, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night in question I met Sgt. Lockhart and Sgt. Rodger, in the Sgts. Mess of the Transit Camp in Inverness, somewhere about midnight. Sgt. Lockhart told me that they had missed their truck back to camp. We were having a few drinks together. I was on duty that night in connection with the exercise "CRAB" and had a car at my disposal. I undertook to take them back to their camp. In my opinion when we left the Transit Camp the two Sergeants with me were fit for duty. They were not drunk. On the way there an accident occurred. I stopped the car and got out to see what had happened. There I found a Canadian soldier picking himself off the road. He was bleeding profusely from the eye. I offered to tie his head up and he would not let me. I said "Jump in the car and I will take you to your billet.", which was at some other camp. I jumped in the drivers seat, thinking he was getting in the back. The fellow was outside and said "I will not go with you. You are all drunk." being on this exercise I could not waste any time and I did all I could and offered to do anything, but he would not accept any assistance, so I drove off. I delivered the two Sergeants to the bottom of the road at their camp and then returned to Inverness.

Q. What happened that you stopped the car?

A. I felt something hit the back of the car.

Q. How were the two Sergeants with you conducting themselves in the car?

A. They were just sitting down. One was in the front and one in the rear.

Q. Were they talking?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Were they asleep?

A. I was driving and could not say.

Q. Do you know which of the Sergeants was beside you and which was in the back seat?

A. I never paid much attention. I could not say.

Q. You said you offered to help the injured man and he would not let you. Do you know why?

A. I do not know why he would not let me go near him. It may have been fear of pain on his part but I could not say. I did think he was drunk.

Q. Appreciating the fact that you were anxious to return to duty, was it in your opinion that the wounded man did not required immediate attention and was able to take care of himself?

A. Yes. It is my opinion and that is why I left.

Q. Did you see the injured man's bicycle?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Was it carrying a tail light?

A. It had a head light, but I did not see any tail light. The lights were not burning.

Q. Do you recall any conversation that took place between the injured man and the Sergeants in the car?

A. As far as I am concerned they may not have spoken at all.

The accused declines to question the witness.

3rd Witness

K.41333 Pte. Butler, G.H., No. 10 Coy., C.P.C. (now H.Q.,C.P.C.) 'Y' 3 List' having been duly sworn, states:-

I went to Inverness from No. 10 Coy. camp by bicycle leaving camp at about 1830 hours Saturday 6 May 44. I spent the evening in Inverness. I left Inverness on bicycle to return to camp at about 0100 hrs. Sunday 7 May 44.

Just before reaching the Naval Camp I turned and saw a car coming towards me in the same direction in which I was travelling. I got in close to the stone wall on the left side of the road and as the car passed me the side of the car caught me and threw me into the stone wall. I was dazed momentarily and felt blood streaming down my face. I looked up and saw that the car was stopping just ahead of me. The car stopped beyond the Naval Gate, the driver left the car and walked back towards me. He asked me "Where did you come from? Where were you ? " I said " I was cycling along here close to the wall and you side swiped me." By that time I had reached the car. The driver said "Oh you are a Canadian, I have two of your boys in the car." I said "You had better take me to the hospital. It looks as if my eye is badly hurt" or words to that effect. The driver said "We mustn't have just come from that way and are going to Dochfour" I said "You can't leave me here bleeding like this. You've got to do something. You had better call the police. " Someone replied "wait a minute. Let's get organised here" and with that I opened the car, got in the back seat and sat down and then I asked "Well what are you going to do about it?" Then the man in the back seat whom I did not recognise, he had his coat collar turned up and his face away from me said "What the hell are you kicking about. We are doing all we can for you." I said "It don't look as if you are going to do much, it looks as if you want to get rid of me." Then one of them said, I don't know which one, "If you don't like what we are doing, then get out. " They all three said something to the same effect. I stepped out of the car and as I took my foot from the running board to the ground, the driver released the clutch and drove off in the darkness leaving me in the roadway. I went back to the Navy Gate and to the sentry on duty then I was taken to the sick bay and later removed to Raigmore Hospital.

Q. Did you have lights burning both front and back on your bicycle?
A. There was a light on the front and a red reflector on the back.

Q. Had you been drinking in Inverness that night?
A. No Sir.

Q. When the driver of the car came towards you, did he appear to be sober?
A. No, I could tell he had been drinking from the way he spoke and from his actions.

Q. Did he offer to tie up your head for you?
A. No. He said when he came towards me "Oh it's only a little cut under the eye."

Q. Did you tell him what camp you belonged to?
A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. Did he ask where you were going or offer to take you you anywhere?
A. He asked nothing and offered nothing but said he was going to Dochfour and suggested ~~xxxxxx~~ in a sort of way that he would take me there.

Q. Did you recognize either of the two Canadians in the car?
A. Yes, I recognized Sgt. Lockhart in the front seat beside the driver.

Q. Do you recognize Sgt. Rodger as having been in the car at that time?
A. No, sir.

Q. In what condition did you consider the man in the back seat of the car to be in?
A. I considered that he had been drinking.

The accused does not elect to question the witness.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4(e), elects to make the following statement:-

We left camp on the Company truck which left at 1530 hours on 6 May 44. We got off the truck at the stopping place which is the Post Office and Sgt. Lockhart and I went to Stewart's Restaurant where we met an American, a Sgt. We had something to eat there and then we, Sgt. Lockhart, the American Sgt. and myself proceeded to the Sergeant's Mess in Inverness, off Rose Street, close to the lorry park. We had a few drinks there. We left there shortly after five o'clock and went to a Public House called the 'Phoenix Bar' and we had one drink there, then the American Sergeant and I took Sgt. Lockhart to the R.C.A.F. Hostel, opposite the Empire Theatre, on Academy Street, where Sgt. Lockhart went to bed. I left him there and when I came back down the American Sgt. had gone. I went back to the R.C.A.F.Hostel at about 2130 hours and found that Sgt. Lockhart had left. I came across him at the same Messxxxxxxxxxx that we had encntered earlier in the day, that is the Sergeant's Mess off Rose Street, at about shortly after 2200 hours. He and the American Sergeant were both there, so I joined them. We drank there and remained there until we left to come home. I think someone offered to take us home in a car. We left from the yard in the car. The person that drove the car is unknown to me. Sergeant Lockhart was sitting in the front and I was sitting in the back of the car and the next thing I knew the car was stopped on the highway and there was a man at the door wanting to be taken to hospital. He was standing there, but I do not know if there was blood on his face or not, I could not see. My impression was that we wanted to take him to camp and thxt have him fixed up, but apparently that did not satisfy him and he walked off. This is as much as I remember about the accident, then I think we drove off. We got out of the car at the bottom of the hill and walked up and I went to my hut.

He had a large laceration of left side of face which was bleeding profusely. His whole face was covered with blood and also the front of his tunic. He also had some minor lacerations of his hands both of which were blood stained.

TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF C.58322 CPL (L/SGT) ROGERS, L.M., X-4 LIST ATT C SQN 25 CDN ARMD DEL REGT HELD AT ST. NICHOLAS BELGIUM 17 NOV 44

A.7 (1) - Officer Under Instruction - Lt. J. Eager, 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt

D. 3 The Evidence for the Prosecution is taken

1st Witness for the Prosecution, Mme Van Haute Caroline de Backer, 49 Hemelaerstraat, St. Nicholas, Belgium, having been duly sworn in Flemish is examined by the Prosecutor through the interpreter.

Q. 1 - What is your correct name?
A. 1 - Van Haute Caroline married to Omer de Backer
Q. 2 - Where do you live?
A. 2 - 47 Hemelaerstraat
Q. 3 - Do you recall some time in the afternoon of 3 Oct 44?
A. 3 - Yes, the afternoon of Oct 3rd
Q. 4 - How do you remember that day?
A. 4 - Do I have to tell it?
Q. 5 - Yes
A. 5 - Shall I give all details?

Judge-Advocate - I would suggest that she tell us in full detail and in the order in which the events occurred

Q. 6 - Tell us the whole story as it happened
A. 6 - A soldier entered my house while I was busy cleaning about a quarter to two and he asked me something
Q. 7 - Do you know that soldier?
A. 7 - No
Q. 8 - Could you recognize him?
A. 8 - Yes
Q. 9 - Is he here?
A. 9 - Yes
Q.10 - Will you point to him?
A.10 - The gentleman in the middle of the three (the accused).
Q.11 - Will you go on from there?
A.11 - He asked me something but I didn't understand him. Then he came in and closed the door. Then he pushed me in the room next to the entrance. Then he showed me by signs to undress. As I was unwilling he showed signs to beat me. Then he started pulling my dress. He pushed me onto the ground. Being frightened I didn't resist any further. While he was engaged in taking off his shoes I ran away from him
Q.12 - Did the soldier do anything to you?
A.12 - Can the question be put a little more clearly?
Q.13 - When he pushed you to the ground what did he do then?
A.13 - He violated me
Q.14 - What do you mean by that?
A.14 - He tried to do a sexual act
Q.15 - You must be more clear. What do you mean by that?

Defending Officer - Just a minute. It seems to me, sirs, that the witness is at this stage being quite clear. She is not saying what my friend expected her to say but what she is saying is that the accused tried to commit a sexual act. I am sure that the court knows what a sexual act is and there is no evidence required on that Prosecutor - I don't quite agree with my learned friend. I don't think you can have military knowledge of what is a sexual act

Judge-Advocate - I think it is clear as far as it goes but if the court is going to be able to function properly in a case of this character the witness will have to translate what she says into physical terms, to say what actual physical acts were done by the accused and it is for the court then to decide whether there was a sexual act or not. (To interpreter) Would you explain to the witness that it is necessary that she tell the court exactly what was done by the accused and by her and if she has to use unpleasant words we want to use plain language in physical terms. If she tellsexactly what was done, what movements were made, if there was any physical contact and if there was not and if so to what extent and if there was any physical contact between them the extent of that contact and its exact character

This is translated to the witness by the interpreter

A.15 - There has been a penetration but no coition
Q.16 - What do you mean that he pulled at your dress?
A.16 - He pulled it out
Q.17 - Did he pull it out?
A.17 - Yes, he pulled it off partially and I undressed further being frightened
Q.18 - Was anybody else in the house at the time?
A.18 - Two children sleeping upstairs
Q.19 - Your children?
A.19 - Yes
Q.20 - Did you consent to these actions?

Defending Officer - That is not a proper question
Judge-Advocate - No, that is something the court will have to decide

Q.21 - Madame, what do you mean by "He showed signs to beat me"?
A.21 - He lifted up his hands and showed he would beat me
Q.22 - How did he show he would beat you? Show us how
A.22 - He took me by the throat as well
Q.23 - How did he take you by the throat - with what hand?
A.23 - He took me with the left hand by the throat and showed me he would beat me with his right hand
Q.24 - Were you scared?
A.24 - Yes, I was scared to death
Q.25 - Madame, what do you mean when you say "He tried to do a sexual act"?
A.25 - At first I didn't want to lie still because he wanted to penetrate and in the end out of fright I kept still and the penetration took place
Q.26 - What do you mean by "penetration"?
A.26 - At the beginning there was a contact
Q.27 - A contact between what?
A.27 - A contact of both sexes
Q.28 - Now, madame, will you tell us what you mean by this soldier trying to do a sexual act?
A.28 - I intended saying that he first tried to violate me and later did
Q.29 - How did he try to violate you?
A.29 - He first put my legs at a certain distance and took my arms and then a penetration took place
Q.30 - A penetration of what?
A.30 - A penetration of his masculine sex into my sex
Q.31 - How long did he stay with you?
A.31 - Do you mean how long did he stay in the house?
Q.32 - Yes?
A.32 - About half an hour's time I think before he left
Q.33 - Did you leave before him?
A.33 - Yes
Q.34 - Tell us how you left?
A.34 - While he was untying his shoes I ran away
Q.35 - Where did you run to?
A.35 - I left by the front door and entered into the house of a neighbour
Q.36 - Who was the neighbour?
A.36 - The name is Maria van Landeghem

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.37 - Mme de Backer, I understand that you are the wife of Sir de Backer?
A.37 - Yes
Q.38 - Is he alive?

A.38 - Yes, sir
Q.39 - How long have you been married to him?
A.39 - Five years
Q.40 - How many children have you?
A.40 - Two
Q.41 - On the afternoon of 3 Oct you have stated that you were in the hall of your house cleaning?
A.41 - Yes
Q.42 - Was the street door open or closed?
A.42 - Open
Q.43 - Was there any special reason for it being open?
A.43 - Yes, because I was cleaning the hall towards the front door
Q.44 - Now, Mme de Backer, do you remember an earlier occasion on which you were questioned about this case?
A.44 - Yes
Q.45 - On the 17th of October?
A.45 - I have been questioned previously but I don't remember whether that was the 17th
Q.46 - The occasion to which I refer was when the Summary of Evidence was taken by a military officer?
A.46 - Yes
Q.47 - Do you remember saying that "A drunken Canadian soldier entered my house and without speaking a word he pushed me in the corridor"?
A.47 - I always declared that he asked me something and that I didn't understand him
Q.48 - That is not what you said before?
A.48 - I declared the same thing
Q.49 - Do you understand any English?
A.49 - No, sir
Q.50 - None at all?
A.50 - Just a very little
Q.51 - You said that when the soldier arrived in your house he said something to you and then what happened?
A.51 - I showed by signs I didn't understand him
Q.52 - What kind of signs?
A.52 - I shrugged my shoulders. I may have said "Please" or a couple of words
Q.53 - Did anything occur then?
A.53 - He asked me something else which I didn't understand. He entered and shut the front door. I cried for help but no one heard it
Q.54 - The first time that the soldier spoke to you where was he?
A.54 - He had one foot in the entrance when he first spoke to me
Q.55 - In the hallway?
A.55 - Yes, his first foot in the hall
Q.56 - Was he sober or drunk?
A.56 - He was very drunk
Q.57 - How do you know?
A.57 - He smelt of drink
Q.58 - Well, as I understand the story now the soldier came and put one foot inside the house and said something to you in English. Is that correct?
A.58 - That is correct
Q.59 - "I shrugged my shoulders to show that I didn't understand". Is that correct?
A.59 - I shrugged my shoulders that I didn't understand and asked him "Please?"
Q.60 - Were you scared?
A.60 - Not at first because I thought he was asking for his way or asking something which I didn't understand. At first I was not scared
Q.61 - I understand, Mme de Backer, that the soldier pushed you into a room off the hall?
A.61 - Yes
Q.62 - You have also stated that he made signs to you to undress. What were those signs?
A.62 - Made this sign (waving both hands palm upwards)
Q.63 - Is that a sign to undress?

A.63 - He first pulled my dress
Q.64 - Did you comply with that request?
A.64 - No
Q.65 - Had the accused touched you in any way at that moment?
A.65 - Not at that moment
Q.66 - When you refused to comply with his gestures by taking your clothes off did he attempt to take any of your clothes off?
A.66 - Yes, he pulled at my dress
Q.67 - He pulled at your dress?
A.67 - Yes
Q.68 - Did he take off your dress?
A.68 - He didn't pull it off completely but I was so frightened that I finished myself taking it off
Q.69 - Did he tear your dress?
A.69 - He didn't tear my dress
Q.70 - I understand, Mme de Backer, that you were later found in an overcoat and nothing else?
A.70 - Yes, that is quite true
Q.71 - How did you come to be in that condition?
A.71 - After taking off my dress he threatened me to undress further and he took me by my throat again so I undressed further Q.72 - These menacing gestures you refer to, what were they?
A.72 - Trying to take me by the throat
Q.73 - Well, how do you associate the action as of somebody who wanted to take you by the throat with someone who wanted to take your clothes off? What convinced you that he wanted you to take your clothes off?
A.73 - He showed by signs and further he had opened his trousers showing part of his physical anatomy
Q.74 - Did you attempt to get away at that stage?
A.74 - I couldn't try even because he was in front of the door
Q.75 - Were you standing up all this time?
A.75 - While I was undressing, yes
Q.76 - I want to make it quite clear. It was you that undressed and not he that undressed you?
A.76 - It is quite clear that I undressed. He did not undress me first
Q.77 - Well, now, Mme de Backer, the situation is that you and the accused are in this room and you have no clothes on. Did he throw you on the floor?
A.77 - He pushed me to the floor
Q.78 - Had you struggled with him at all up to that moment?
A.78 - I didn't dare any more at the time because being with child of seven months -
Q.79 - I asked had you struggled with him up to that time?
A.79 - Yes, I resisted up to then but once I was undressed I didn't dare to resist any more
Q.80 - What were you resisting?
A.80 - I couldn't do much to resist. I couldn't beat him
Q.81 - You are not understanding the question. I will give this very slowly. You have told us that the accused pushed you on the floor and that you had no clothes on at that moment?
A.81 - Yes, that is correct
Q.82 - Up to that time had you offered any resistance to the accused?
A.82 - Yes, but I didn't resist which way?
Q.83 - The question is very simple. Had you offered any resistance to the accused?
A.83 - Naturally, but I don't know how to say it. I told him I was expecting a baby and I told him I didn't want to come to him but of course I don't expect he understood it
Q.84 - You have not yet answered my question. What I mean by resisting is physical resistance. Did you offer any physical resistance?
A.84 - No, I didn't fight with him
Q.85 - Well, now, going back to the moment when the accused is stated to have pushed you on the floor, what happened next?
A.85 - He separated my legs and a penetration took place?
Q.86 - How did he separate your legs?
A.86 - With his hands
Q.87 - With his hands?

A.87 - Yes
Q.88 - Are you a woman of average strength, Mme de Backer?
A.88 - I think so
Q.89 - I suggest that it would be very difficult for anyone to open an average woman's legs with his hands. What do you think if you were trying to resist?
A.89 - Maybe. At that moment I did not think of resisting
Q.90 - Well, when he had your legs separated with his hands, as you say, did you leave your legs in that position or did you attempt to close them?
A.90 - He let himself down with his legs between mine so that I could not put them together any more Q.91 - Did you try?
A.91 - I don't think so
Q.92 - Now you say, Madame, that at this stage there was a penetration?
A.92 - Yes
Q.93 - Are you perfectly certain?
A.93 - As far as I can remember, yes. As far as I know, yes
Q.94 - Is there any possibility whatever that you might be mistaken?
A.94 - That is a possibility

RE-EXAMINATION BY PROSECUTOR

Q.95 - Mme de Backer, you said "Maybe I could resist but I didn't think of resisting". Why didn't you think of resisting?

Judge-Advocate - I don't think you should go into reasons, Mr. Macdonald She has given her answer.
Defending Officer - I feel that the prosecution cannot seek to vary the evidence of his own witness in any way
Judge-Advocate - Also he is going into a question of her mental state
Defending Officer - I am in the hands of the court, I am afraid. I am not expert enough on that matter

QUESTIONS BY JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.96 - Mme de Backer, in your evidence you said that the accused pushed you down to the floor and afterwards separated your legs with his hands?
A.96 - Yes
Q.97 - Now, would you tell the court what he did next?
A.97 - He was on his knees when he separated my legs and then he was lying down on me
Q.98 - And where were your arms?
A.98 - Alongside of myself
Q.99 - After your legs were separated in what relation were they to the floor? Were they straight out or were the knees up?
A.99 - I think they were stretched out flat on the ground
Q.100- Where were the arms and hands of the accused?
A.100- I think he took me by my shoulders but I am not sure. I don't remember so well
Q.101- And for about how long were you on the floor with the accused on top of you?
A.101- Certainly not long - a matter of seconds, maybe a minute
Q.102- and you said the accused was on his knees. Then he did or did not come forward on top of you?
A.102- He was on his knees between my legs and then was lying down on top of me
Q.103- And at this time what, if any, clothes did you have on Mme de Backer?
A.103- At the moment I was wearing no clothing
Q.104- What clothes did the accused have on?
A.104- He didn't wear a blouse
Q.105- Was he wearing trousers?
A.105- Yes, he was wearing his trousers but no blouse
Q.106- Were his male parts inside or outside his trousers?
A.106- Outside his trousers
Q.107- Did or did not any part of his male organ enter your female organ?

Defending Officer - I object to this question very strenuously. The question has already been gone into at length and the witness has said yes there was been a penetration and in answer to a question asked by me she said that it was a possibility that she was mistaken. I object very strenuously to the court going into this question. My submission, sir, is that the court's powers to question are to clarify doubtful matters and possibly to fill in gaps in the evidence but it is not any part of the court's duties to ask any question that may have as its result the contradiction of other statements.

Judge-Advocate - Well, I suggest, Major de Marler, on the answers as they stand now it is very doubtful what the witness intended by her answer and it is very questionable precisely what she means when she speaks of "penetration". It is rather unfortunate, I think, that the term was used at all

Defending Officer - She said it, sir. She was asked "What do you mean by penetration" and she gave the answer "His male sex was in my female sex". Anyone would know what was meant but I think the President said the court was satisfied as to what she meant

Court - That was followed by your question which left the issue pretty much in doubt

Defending Officer - I do not attempt to explain her answers; I merely draw them to your attention. My recollection of the record is that she said there was an entry of the male sex into the female sex and at a later time she said she might possibly be mistaken

Judge-Advocate - Well, my own view, Major de Marler, is that taking the evidence that has been given in that connection it is still not too clear what the evidence of the witness is, what she intends and I feel it is a question which is entitled to be put on behalf of the court and if the court wishes me to put it

Court - We do

Defending Officer - Well, my objection, I hope, is recorded and I take it is overruled. Is that correct?

Judge-Advocate - It is correct, yes

Defending Officer - And it is overruled?

Judge-Advocate - Correct

Stenographer reads back Q.107

A.107 - Yes
Q.108 - At what stage was that?
A.108 - While he was lying on me
Q.109 - To what extent did his male organ enter your female organ?
A.109 - Only to a certain extent
Q.110 - Can you indicate the approximate extent?
A.110 - I couldn't say to which extent. Maybe a centimetre
Q.111 - Then what happened?
A.111 - He stood up again, took off his shoes and asked for a bed
Q.112 - How long was that period, from the time you say his male organ entered your female organ until he stood up again?
A.112 - Maybe one second
Q.113 - And you say he asked for a bed. Was that in words or gestures or both?
A.113 - He said "un lit"
Q.114 - What did you do or say then?
A.114 - I said "No" and then I ran away
Q.115 - And where was he while you were running away?
A.115 - He was sitting on the carpet taking off his shoes
Q.116 - Did he make any effort to stop you?
A.116 - He was shouting. He did nothing else. He shouted

DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT

Q.117 - Are you sure that what entered your female organ might not have been the accused's hand?
A.117 - In a state of over-excitement it is not an impossibility

QUESTIONS BY JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.118 - Mme de Backer, as I remember your evidence you told the court that you left while the accused was taking off his shoes?

A.118 - I then left the house
Q.119 - And what were you wearing at that time when you left the house?
A.119 - He only had his blouse taken off
Q.120 - I'm sorry. You misunderstood the question. What were you wearing when you left the house?
A.120 - I took an overcoat of my husband's and put it on and then left the house
Q.121 - Where did you go?
A.121 - I went into a neighbour's house where the woman at the time was standing on the doorstep
Q.122 - And who was this neighbour woman?
A.122 - A lady called Maria van Landejhaem
Q.123 - And did you see the accused any further on that afternoon?
A.123 - Yes, when he left the house
Q.124 - Your house?
A.124 - Yes, when he left my house
Q.125 - Where were you then?
A.125 - A policeman came to fetch me when I was next door in order that I might come and see
Q.126 - Did you go back to your own house with the policeman?
A.126 - I went back to my house by myself
Q.127 - And how long was it between the time you left your own house until the policeman came to get you? How long were you away from your own house?
A.127 - I think between fifteen and twenty minutes approximately Q.128 - Who was at your house when you returned?
A.128 - I don't think there was anyone in my place when I came back
Q.129 - Did you see the accused again that afternoon?
A.129 - I didn't see him except when heleft the house as I have said
Q.130 - When he left the house were you back at your own houseor at your neighbour's house?
A.130 - I was standing at the door of my own house
Q.131 - Well, who was in or around the house at that time that you saw? If you saw the accused was there anyone with him?
A.131 - Apparently an English policeman who took him away
Q.132 - Was there anyone else there at that time?
A.132 - Around the door there were plenty of people but no one inside

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, Maria van Landejhaem, Hemelaerstraat 45, St. Nicholas, Belgium, having been duly sworn in Flemish, is examined by the Prosecutor through the interpreter.

Q.133 - Would you give your name and address please?
A.133 - Maria van Landejhaem
Q.134 - The name of your husband?
A.134 - Karel van Stienkiste
Q.135 - Where do you live?
A.135 - Hemelaerstraat 45
Q.136 - Do you know Van Haute Caroline de Backer?
A.136 - Yes, that is Mme de Backer
Q.137 - Where do you live in relation to Mme de Backer?
A.137 - Just neighbours - we didn't mix at all
Q.138 - Do you remember the afternoon of 3 Oct?
A.138 - Yes, that is the date when it happened
Q.139 - What do you mean by "It happened"?
A.139 - Some time - it mayhhave been two minutes before or two minutes after 2 o'clock on that day a soldier asked me while I was on my way home where he could obtain some food. I took the soldier into my house in order to prepare some food for him. The soldier came into the house and I asked him to sit down so that I could prepare some food for him. While we were preparing the food he left again. We were surprised at his way of doing this and I told my husband - -

Judge-Advocate - Not what she told her husband

A.139 (con) - Just to finish this sentence, I thought it was funny for him to leave while we were preparing it

Judge-Advocate - Not what you thought

Q.140 - Did you see him leave the house?
A.140 - I went to the door and some people called to me saying "He entered Mme de Backer's" - -

Judge-Advocate - Mme you cannot tell what someone told you or what you thought

A.140(con) - I went to the door to see Mme de Backer because some people had told me something and a passing policeman was called by me to help me as the door was not open

Q.141 - Did you see the soldier after he left the house?
A.141 - I saw the soldier when he was brought out of the house next door
Q.142 - Whose house was that?
A.142 - Mme de Backer's house
Q.143 - Was Mme de Backer in the house?
A.143 - At that time Mme de Backer was at my house without any clothes on

Q.144 - Did you see Mme de Backer at your house?
A.144 - I took Mme de Backer into my house while she was crying and in a state of nervousness

Q.145 - Did Mme De Backer say anything to you?

Defending Officer - I object to this evidence

A.145 - She was crying for her children

Prosecutor - I submit, sir, that even though it would be hearsay evidence there is a special rule in the case of rape and in Phipson at p.480 you will find it stated: "On charges of rape and similar offences against females, the fact that the prosecutrix made a complaint shortly after the outrage, together with the particulars of the complaint, are admissible to confirm her testimony and disprove consent"

Judge-Advocate - What are the grounds of your objection Major de Marler?
Defending Officer - The usual one, sir, that this appears to be evidence of a conversation between the witness and a third party at which the accused was not present

Judge-Advocate - What have you to say as to the rules applicable in the case of rape? The rule appears to be set out at p.86 in MML at para 53

Defending Officer - That is all very well, but how do you know that in answer to this question the witness will restrict her remarks to that subject? She might say anything

Judge-Advocate - Well, you can never be sure of the answer. All you can do is put the question. I think the time is fixed by previous evidence as somewhere around the time that this is alleged to have occurred and the rule seems to be quite clear in MML at p.86 para 53 that in evidence of an immediate complaint in cases of rape the terms of the complaint may be given so far as they relate to the charge. Now, when we are dealing with the question of the objection, I would like to direct the attention of the court to that paragraph: "---This is admissible, not as being evidence of the facts complained of, but for the purpose of showing that the conduct of the person against whom the offence was committed was consistent with the story told by her in the witness box", so it is admitted but for a very limited purpose. You will find the same rule in Archbold, 31 ed at p.1023 in almost the same wording with cases and authorities quoted to support it and there is this further matter added in Archbold's which is the law that "Such complaint cannot be regarded as corroboration of the story of the prosecutrix and it is a misdirection to refer to it as such". So that might be kept in mind if subsequently the question of whether or not there is corroboration in the legal sense arises. Evidence of any complaint cannot be used as corroboration

At request of the court stenographer reads back Q.145

A.145 (con) - Mme de Backer said that she did not dare to cry because the soldier was taking her by the throat and struck here on the head and - -

Defending Officer - You see, this does not help the point
Judge-Advocate - Not very much - no

Q.146 - Did she say anything else?
A.146 - No, she did not say anything further
Q.147 - You say "that soldier". Do you know who the soldier was?
A.147 - Yes, that is the soldier (points to accused)
Q.148 - There are three of them there?
A.148 - The middle one
Q.149 - Is that the soldier that was at your house?
A.149 - That is the soldier that went into the house
Q.150 - Into whose house?
A.150 - He came to my house and also to Mme de Backer's
Q.151 - But you didn't see him going into Mme de Backer's house

Judge-Advocate - That is leading. Wait a moment. I think that point is sufficiently clear now but in any event you cannot ask the question that way

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Defending Officer - Before I do commence any cross-examination the point that I made before about that question as to what Mme de Backer had said to the witness becomes very much more pointed. Exactly what I feared might happen did happen. She has interjected now hearsay evidence of complaints by Mme de Backer along a completely different direction
Court - Well, the court cannot consider that as evidence, can it? That is the point the Judge-Advocate made
Judge-Advocate - It can be used for a limited purpose
Defending Officer - But only for the purpose you mentioned
Judge-Advocate - Yes, for the purpose mentioned in the rule it can be admitted and brought before the court for that purpose - that is evidence of immediate complaint.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

3rd Witness for the Prosecution, Dr. Helebaut, G., Station Street 37, St. Nicholas, Belgium, having been duly sworn in Flemish, is examined by the Prosecutor through the interpreter.

Q.152 - Would you give your name, please?
A.152 - Dr. Helebaut
Q.153 - And your address?
A.153 - Statiestraat 37, St. Nicholas
Q.154 - Do you know Mme de Backer?
A.154 - Yes
Q.155 - Are you her doctor?
A.155 - Yes
Q.156 - You have attended her before?
A.156 - Yes

Q.157 - Have you been called to attend her recently?
A.157 - Not of late
Q.158 - When was the last time?
A.158 - At the time when she was attacked by a soldier was the last time I was called Q.159 - Can you tell us around the date roughly?
A.159 - About a month ago
Q.160 - Were you called in?
A.160 - Yes
Q.161 - Did you examine her?
A.161 - Yes
Q.162 - Can you tell the court the results of your examination?
A.162 - Yes, I see scratches on the right side I think of the neck and scratches on the belly - light scratches. On the right side of the throat I think there were three or four scratches. I examined her further but I could not say anything further
Q.163 - Now, this was about a month ago?
A.163 - Yes
Q.164 - Were the scratches recent?
A.164 - Yes
Q.165 - Can you get that time a little better? About a month ago would be sometime in October?
A.165 - I could find the exact date in my appointment-book
Q.166 - Had you attended Mme de Backer before this?
A.166 - Yes, her first confinement and at the second confinement and this is the third baby that she is awaiting Q.167 - And how long has she been pregnant?
A.167 - Eight months now
Q.168 - As a medical man could you tell what caused the scratches?

Judge-Advocate - Just a moment. I think that is going pretty far Mr. Macdonald. He could give his opinion as to how they had been caused but that is as far as you should go
Prosecutor - He could give an expert opinion; he has been treating this woman
Defending Officer - But aren't you getting a little out of the scope of this man's ability?
Prosecutor - Well, the point is there are differences between scratches. He could tell that she did not fall on a rusty nail or get stabbed with a bayonet. He could give his opinion

Q.169 - Can you give your opinion as to what caused these scratches? What was the cause of them?
A.169 - I think nails because there are three or four scratches one next to the other - three or four Q.170 - That is by nails?
A.170 - Yes, but it was not scratches from a long distance. It was only scratches from one centimetre. They were not scratches from anything but from nails
Q.171 - What do you mean by "nails", doctor?
A.171 - Fingernails
Q.172 - And on the belly?
A.172 - On the belly also I think there was only one scratch. Maybe it is not intentional

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.173 - Dr. Halsbaut, these scratches about which you have been speaking and which you say could have been caused by fingernails - could they have been caused otherwise? Could they not have been caused otherwise?
A.173 - I don't think so, sir, because these scratches were at the normal finger distance on the throat
Q.174 - Did anyone suggest to you that they had been caused by fingernails?
A.174 - I made a thorough examination but I didn't ask any reason for the original of the scratches - just to confirm my examination
Q.175 - In other words, you were told by Mme de Backer that these scratches were caused by fingernails. Is that correct?
A.175 - Yes, I asked her if he had taken her by the throat which she confirmed

Defending Officer - That is very objectionable evidence
Judge-Advocate - Yes, but you asked for it and you got it and I don't see how the court can help you

Q.176 - You say you made a complete physical examination of Mme de Backer?
A.176 - Yes
Q.177 - Was there any evidence that would suggest to you that she had been violated?
A.177 - Not for the fact that she had been violated but for the fact that she had been attacked

QUESTIONS BY JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.178 - Doctor, are you able to tell us now when that examination of Mme de Backer that you have referred to took place?
A.178 - Between 7 and 7.30
Q.179 - On what day?
A.179 - A Tuesday
Q.180 - On what day of the month?
A.180 - I have written it in my book it was a Tuesday but I don't know if it was the 3rd, If Tuesday is the 3rd, then it is very right
Q.181 - Well, doctor, would you then look up the records that you made at the time of your visit and having refreshed your memory you will be recalled later
A.181 - Yes

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

4th Witness for the Prosecution, Policy Agent Noppe, Arthur, Dalstraat 130, St Nicholas, Belgium, having been duly sworn in Flemish is examined by the Prosecutor through the interpreter.

Q.182 - Your name and occupation?
A.182 - Noppe, Arthur, Policy Agent
Q.183 - Address?
A.183 - Dalstraat 130, St. Nicholas
Q.184 - Did you go to a dwelling on Hemelaerstraat on the 3 Oct?
A.184 - Yes I did
Q.184 - Where did you go? To what house in this straat did you go?
A.184 - I went to three houses, 43, 45 and 47
Q.185 - Who lives in 43?
A.185 - A lady called van Landeghaem
Q.186 - And in 45?
A.186 - Mme de Backer
Q.187 - What was the nature of your call at the home of de Backer - 45?

Judge-Advocate - Now, just a moment, Mr. Macdonald

Q.188 - What time did you go to the dwelling of de Backer?
A.188 - Approximately at 1.35 p.m.
Q.189 - What did you do when you got there?
A.189 - I don't understand how the question is intended "when I arrived there". I was not called there. I was passing and was called in Q.190 - What did you do when you went to the de Backer house?
A.190 - The door was locked so I rung the bell
Q.191 - What then?
A.191 - I rung several times but the door was not opened. As I have no right to arrest military persons I went to the sergeant - "Bill" of the 15 Field Security Section and asked him - -

Judge-Advocate - Not what you asked him to do

Q.192 - What did you do then?

A.192 - I asked the sergeant to come with me

Judge-Advocate - You cannot tell what you told someone else when the accused was not present

Q.193 - What did you do then?
A.193 - We went back to Hemelaerstraat 45
Q.195 - What then? Go on
A.195 - Then we noticed that Mme de Backer went into the house of No. 43. We went to house 45. The door was locked. We rung the bell and the door was not opened. We went into house 47, the backside of the house, went over the wall and found the accused in a state of drunkenness in the house
Q.196 - Who is the accused?
A.196 - That is the person I found in the house
Q.197 - Point him out?
A.197 - The middle one of the three persons (the accused)
Q.198 - What did you do then?
A.198 - The accused wanted to prevent us from opening the front door. He wanted to find a way to get away by the back of the house. Next he invited me to drink from a bottle which contained - I don't know which drink but certainly spirits. I opened the bottle and I called his attention to the fact that on one of the furniture pieces standing behind the table there were glasses which he should take so that we could drink. While he was drinking I took the opportunity to open the front door
Q.199 - What happened when you opened the door?
A.199 - When the front door was opened the sergeant that came with me from the Field Security Section came into the house. The sergeant told me to bring Mme de Backer in the presence of the accused which I did. I went over to No. 43 and took Mme de Backer to No. 45. In my absence - -

Defending Officer - No, wait

Q.200 - You went over to bring back Mme de Backer. Did you bring her back?
A.200 - Yes, sir
Q.201 - Who was there then?
A.201 - The accused, the sergeant that came with me and two military police
Q.202 - And was Mme de Backer there?
A.202 - Mme de Backer was with me, not in the house but at the door
Q.203 - She didn't go in?
A.203 - She went in later
Q.204 - Did Mme de Backer say anything?
A.204 - At the moment when the accused was brought into the hall Mme de Backer declared him "That is the man who violated me"
Q.205 - Who did she mean by "That is the man"?

Defending Officer - Wait a moment. That is objectionable

Q.206 - Did Mme de Backer give any indication as to who she meant when she said that?
A.206 - As far as she could use her hands because she wore the overcoat of her husband she indicated that the accused was the man who had violated her and that there was no one in the house when I entered

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.207 - You say when you got to the house of de Backer and you went in the back door you found the accused inside in a drunken condition. Is that correct?
A.207 - It is correct
Q.208 - Was he able to stand up?
A.208 - I found him standing. He was able to walk
Q.209 - You say he hindered you from getting out the front door. What do you mean by that?

A.209 - We went together to the front door. I tried to open it and he pulled my arm and said "Don't do that"
Q.210 - And did he shake the finger like that at you?
A.210 - Yes
Q.211 - Did he say anything to you?
A.211 - He wanted to go back with me through the back door and over the wall to the next house which he tried. When I was preparing to help him to cross over the wall he did not want me to because he didn't want to be touched
Q.212 - Do I understand that the accused offered you a drink from this bottle which he had?
A.212 - Yes
Q.213 - Did you take one?
A.213 - No
Q.214 - What was his mood - was he savageor friendly?
A.214 - Prudent - careful
Q.215 - I don't quite understand what you mean by that?
A.215 - He was not using force. He was not rude but the fact that he went with me to prevent me opening the door showed that he intended to be prudent, careful
Q.216 - The fact that somebody offers you a drink is normally a friendly act, isn't it?
A.216 - Or a convention
Q.217 - Exactly. In other words there was nothing savage about the man at the time
A.217 - I never declared that
Q.218 - Is that so or is it not so?
A.218 - It is so. I never declared that
Q.219 - What you mean is that he was not savage?
A.219 - At that moment, no sir

A.220 - Tuesday, 3 Oct

A.221 - 7.15
Q.222 - And that is the examination you referred to in your evidence before today?
A.222 - Yes, sir

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

5th Witness for the Prosecution, K.52613 Sgt. Hamlyn, W.W.L., 15 Cdn FS Sec, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.223 - Will you give your number, name and unit, please?
A.223 - K.52613 Sgt Hamlyn, W.W.L.
Q.224 - Your unit?
A.1224- 15 Cdn Fd Sec Section
Q.225 - Are you stationed here in St. Nicholas?
A.225 - Not at present but I was up to Nov. 7th
Q.226 - Do you know St. Nicholas well?
A.226 - Yes, sir
Q.227 - Do you know Haemlaerstraat?

A.227 - If you mean Hae[illegible]
Q.228 - Were you ever call[illegible]straat, I do, sir
A.228 - Yes, sir, on the 3rd [illegible] to that street? informed that there was [illegible]tober at approximately 1330 hrs I was Judge-Advocate - Not what you were [illegible]thing doing down there [illegible]rmed

A.228 (con) - It was reported to me

Judge-Advocate - Not what was reported to you. Presumably you did something. You received a report and then t[illegible] what you did

A.228 (con) - After receiving a report I went down to [illegible]5 Hamelaerstraat and found the doors both front and back closed. I went into the next house which is 43 and tried to get in through an upper-storey window. I could not do that either. While in 43 I saw the woman de Backer with a coat slung over her back. She was crying and in a very nervous condition. Seeing as I couldn't get in through the front or back I sent a civilian down to call the Provost because there were no other military around at all. Just before they arrived the policy agent Noppe Arthur was able to get in by the rear door and came out together with Sgt. Rogers by the front door. Then we entered the house together again and upon entering the sitting room we found all the woman's clothes spread all over the sofa and the floor. We told him he was under arrest - -
Q.229 - Told who?

A.236 - Yes, sir and the Policy Agent Noppe Arthur asked her if that was the man
Q.237 - Who do you mean by that?
A.237 - If Sgt. Rogers was the man
Q.238 - How did he phrase this question - "Is that the man?"
A.238 - Well, I don't know the exact words he used

Defending Officer - I don't think it is competent of this witness to state how he phrased the question

A.239 - Not personally but after that date I have known him
Q.240 - Would you recognize him?
A.240 - Yes, sir
Q.241 - Is he here

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

May it please the court. At this time I am not going to take up any more of the court's valuable time with a rehash of the facts (certainly in the last two days we have had an adequate presentation of them) nor even more so am I going to attempt to talk law as that is the province of the Judge-Advocate.

The accused, Sgt. Rogers, is charged with the very serious offence of rape and I submit the prosecution has, in the past two days, brought forward witnesses to show that the accused did in fact rape Van Haute Caroline de Backer, the complainant. If I may crave the indulgence of the court I would like only to touch on what I consider the facts and the salient facts in this case.

I think that it is uncontradicted that Sgt. Rogers, the accused, did go to the home of Mme de Backer about 1340 hrs on the 3 Oct 44 and that he was in an intoxicated condition. The door of the house was open and Mme de Backer was cleaning up. I also think it is uncontradicted that Sgt. Rogers made improper advances to Mme de Backer which Mme de Backer, to use the old expression, spurned. She herself, you have heard her say, was scared and terrified. She was "scared to death" I think were the words, by these advances and under this state of fear he induced her to undress. When she was undressed Mme de Backer was pushed to the floor by the accused. You then have her evidence that her legs were spread apart and that Sgt. Rogers got between them, that he had his own male private parts out and that he joined his male part to hers.

Now I will, at this moment, admit the fact that the defence has brought out that Mme de Backer cannot swear whether there was actual penetration as the law knows penetration but, at the same time, I will say that that is the main element of the offence and it certainly is for you gentlemen to decide.

Now, the other witness, Mme Landejhaem, I called only to show the consistency of Mme de Backer's statement. I only called her in accordance with the special rule in the case of rape to show that according to the old Law Books Mme de Backer did make hue and cry at the earliest opportunity. The family doctor also was called to show that Mme de Backer's statement was consistent and that she was assaulted.

Now, gentlemen, as I said at the outset I am not going to attempt to rehash the whole case for you but it is my very strong submission that the prosecution has brought forward enough evidence to show that the accused improperly attacked Mme de Backer and that if there was no rape, then there was very certainly a very indecent assault upon her and certainly strong evidence of an attempt itself. As I said before the question of penetration is for you to decide and it is for you to decide whether or not there was rape.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

May it please the court. My friend's opening remarks were that he would not rehash what he termed glowingly to be an adequate presentation of his case. I confess that while that is gilding the lily somewhat gentlemen, I think in his own summary he has probably given a more adequate presentation to them than any of the witnesses have been able to do for a variety of reasons. I agree with my friend completely when he says it is up to the court to decide whether or not there was in this case penetration but the Judge-Advocate will tell the court shortly that the elementsrequired to constitute the offence of rape are (a) carnal knowledge (b) the fact that the woman must be not the accused's wife and (c) that she must not have consented. In the absence of evidence on any one of these elements the charge must fail. That is the first proposition. The second proposition is that in the English system of law every person is presumed to be innocent until it is shown beyond any reasonable doubt that he is guilty.

Now, let me rehash the evidence for you on the subject of penetration. We had two statements, one first of all by the complainant in answer to a question put to her by the prosecutor in which she said yes there had been penetration. In cross-examination she said to me that there was a possibility that she had been mistaken. You will remember that over my objection the court then re-opened that inquiry and put the question straight to her again "Had there been penetration of her female organ by the accused's male organ?" and I think she again said "Yes". In answer to a further question suggested by myself and put by the court "Was it not possible that what had penetrated her was not the accused's organ but his hand" the answer came out "Yes".

Now, in those circumstances, Mr. President and gentlemen of the court, I suggest very strongly that you cannot accept the prosecutor's contention that he has established the fact of penetration. There remains at the very worst, at the very worst, a reasonable doubt that penetration did occur and in view of the law as I have quoted it to you and as the Judge-Advocate will confirm you are bound to interpret any reasonable doubt in favour of the accused

All the factors seem to me to point that way. The evidence is not clear owing in part to the difficulties of interpretation and partly due to the super-excitation of the complainant but the following seemed to me to come out quite clearly and that is that the space of time in which this penetration could have occurred was a matter of seconds. I submit that in view of that fact coupled with the doubt in the complainant's own mind, I suggest that you can't come to a conclusion that there was penetration.

If the court agree with me on that proposition, then they are bound to dismiss this charge against the accused and come to some lesser offence of which they may find him guilty.

The prosecution has, in an old-fashioned way described the by-play that was going on between the complainant and the accused and he dignifies it with the expression "the spurning of his improper advances". I would say from the evidence we have here today that that is all it was. It is not only an old-fashioned description but it is an accurate one. There seems to have been little outward show of active resistance and in answer to a question which I directed to the complainant she replied that at the point when she had been pushed onto the floor - up to that point she told me that she had not resisted it. She went on to say from that point on the accused was lying on top of her and offered that fact as an excuse for the absence of future resistance.

Now, we get through to the state then that there were these no doubt very improper advances which however, were not physical and not actively resisted by this woman. I want to make that point quite clear because it will have a bearing on what I have to say in a moment.

Now, the second offence of which the accused may be found guilty is the crime of attempting to commit rape. The attempt to commit rape. I suggest to the court in order to be guilty of an attempt to commit rape you have to actually attempt the crime itself. The imperfect commission of any other offence cannot be assumed an attempt to commit rape.

Now as in all crimes and in all attempts to commit crimes there must be in the mind of the accused the desire to commit that crime and in the case of an attempt the desire to commit rape. Now, is it too much to suggest - is it too much to think that in the absence of any overt resistance by this woman and I suggest that it was established that there was not very much and to use a colloquial expression "she raped very easily if she raped at all" may I suggest that there was not in the accused's mind the idea that he would have to overcome resistance. Now, if there was not that resistance - if there was not what the lawyers call "mens rea" which means a guilty intent then again I suggest to the court that it cannot find evidence of an attempt to commit rape. No doubt there was an attempt to commit something else and almost a very successful one but the attempt, I suggest, was not an attempt to rape.

Now, neither this court nor any other court can, on an attempt to commit crime (a) or as I say an imperfect commission of crime (a) find a man guilty of an attempt to commit crime (b). It seems to me in order to reach any conclusion as to the guilty intent of the accused you must imagine the position he was in. Heaven knows why he went into this particular house but he did. He suggested to this girl that she take her clothes off by pulling her dress and she takes them off. She can't understand English; he can't understand Dutch. There may have been a conversation between them. She may have said "Get out of here" or whatever it was. He couldn't understand. Again there is no overt show of any resistance. Now the evidence of the complainant is that with his hands he parted her legs. Again no show of resistance. Again, therefore, no intent on his part to overcome resistance because resistance had not yet occurred.

Now, in those circumstances, gentlemen, I would find it exceedingly difficult to justify any conclusion that the court may reach that there was either (a) rape which I submit we have thoroughly disposed of or (b) the attempt to commit the same crime. It was undoubtedly an attempt to have connection with this woman. It is not so clear that in the mind of the accused the thing was an illegal connection. All the witnesses who spoke of the fact at all all confirm that the accused was drunk. I don't put that forward for any excuse for the commission of any offence that he may have committed but I do mention it as tending to support the suggestion that his reasoning powers, the powers of inference from the acts that he saw may have been somewhat distorted and befuddled. If, therefore, you imagine the case of a befuddled man seeking to have connection with a woman, a woman who cannot understand a word he says but who complies with all the signs he makes, who lets her legs be separated, then I suggest that it is not too clear that there is guilty intent on the part of the accused.

The second alternative - the third offence of which the accused might be found guilty is, I believe, the crime of indecent assault. I am not, unfortunately, prepared to talk technically about the crime of indecent assault but the remarks I have just completed about the attempt to rape apply with equal force. I think that the Judge-Advocate should advise the court that before a man can be found guilty of any offence he must have a guilty intent.

Judge-Advocate - There must be some mens rea. There will be an instruction on it

To avoid, therefore, boring you by repitition I will only say again what I have just said, namely, that the circumstances might have been such to eliminate any guilty intent on his part.

The character evidence which I adduced before the court is in the accused's favour. It shows him to be a good fighting man and to all observers a good soldier. As I sit down I wish to remind the court again of the elementary principle that the prosecution must prove its case and that any reasonable doubt must be interpreted in favour of the accused.

Before closing I should like to warn the President of the court and also perhaps the Judge-Advocate against any reliance whatever being placed upon the Summary of Evidence which I consider a grossly distorted document. The President has it before him and has had instructions to read it I know. I know the President will agree with me that it does not condemn put the thing very accurately and has a very great many irrelevancies.

I ask, gentlemen, for the dismissal of this charge against the accused and that he be found not guilty of the second alternative and the third alternative charges upon which the court might, within their powers, find him guilty

THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE MAKES THE FOLLOWING SUMMING UP:

May it please the court. It is now my duty as Judge-Advocate to sum up and in doing so may it be understood that questions of fact including all questions as to the credibility of witnesses and the weight to be attached to the evidence of any particular witness are entirely for the court. The function of the Judge-Advocate is to explain the law; that of the court to apply that law to such facts as it finds have been proved in evidence.

The accused is charged with one offence, namely, rape. It is the duty of the court to make a finding of guilty or not guilty of that charge. On a charge of rape, however, if the court comes to the conclusion that the accused is not guilty of rape but is guilty of attempted rape it may so find. The court also have the legal power, if the evidence so warrants, to find the accused not guilty of rape but guilty of carnal or attempted carnal knowledge of a girl under 16, an imbecile or an idiot, or of indecent assault or of incest. While I mention these possible findings of guilty of charges other than the one on the charge sheet for the sake of completeness, having regard to the evidence I intend to confine my discussion to the charge of rape as laid and also to pointing out to the court the difference betwean what facts are necessary to establish rape and what is necessary to constitute the offence of an attempt to rape.

You will find rape defined and discussed at MML p.113 Ch VII. The pertinent part of that paragraph reads as follows:-

> "Rape is the act of a man having carnal knowledge without her consent of a female who is not his wife. Penetration is considered toconstitute carnal knowledge. It must therefore be proved that there was actual penetration of the female organ by some part of the male organ. The slightest penetration will be sufficient. It is not necessary to prove that there was such penetration as would be sufficient to rupture the hymen. Whether there was an emission of semen or not is immaterial. It is not an excuse that the woman was a common prostitute or the concubine of the ravisher if the offence was committed by force or against her will, though proof of such facts is admissible and is of course important in considering whether or not she is likely to have consented. Consent, to be an excuse, must be actual consent, and not mere submission, and it must be voluntary, and not extorted by force or duress or fear of immediate bodily harm. Thus if an idiot submits to a man having connection with her without actually permitting it, this is no consent; but if she actually permits the act, though from mere sexual instinct, and without really understanding its nature, this is a sufficient consent, and therefore the man is not guilty of rape. A man who induces a woman to permit him to have connection with her by personating her husband is guilty of rape".

A standard work on criminal law, Archbold's Criminal Pleadings, Evidence and Practice at page 1018 defines rape as follows:

> "Rape is the unlawful carnal knowledge of a woman without her consent by force, fear or fraud".

It will be seen from the above definitions and the notes to MML which have just been read that the two principal questions which the court have to decide are, first,

> "Did the accused in fact have carnal knowledge of the complainant in the sense that there was actual penetration of the female organ by some part of his male organ?"

If the answer to that question is "No" or remains in doubt the accused must be acquitted unless the court comes to the conclusion that it should make one of the alternative findings mantioned above.

If the court comes to the conclusion that the accused did have such carnal knowledge it must then go on to decide whether or not that carnal knowledge was with the consent of the female complainant or whether it was obtained by force, fear or fraud. Before it may properly convict the court must also be satisfied that the female complainant is not the wife of the accused but that does not seem to be in dispute.

Turning now, for a moment, to the offence of attempting to commit rape, you will find attempts dealt with at MML p.108 para 22 which reads as follows:

"An attempt to commit or to procure the commission of an offence is in itself an offence and renders a person criminally responsible even though the attempt is unsuccessful".

"A mere intention to commit an offenceunaccompanied by acts will not amount to an actual 'attempt' nor will acts themselves if they are merely preparatory to the commission of the offence. For instance, if a man goes to Birmingham to buy dies to make bad money, the mere going there is not an attempt to make bade money. Some act must be done which is more than an intention or preparation, and which is a real step towards the commission of the act; thus, if the man had not only gone to Birmingham, but had actually bought the dies, he would have been guilty of an attempt to make bad money".

"It is no defence to a charge of attempting to commit a crime that it was legally or physically impossible for the offender to have committed the full offence".

"Where a person is charged with committing a felony or misdemeanour but the evidence shows merely an attempt to commit that offence, a jury may convict him of the attempt to commit the offence charged. A court-martial has the same power as a jury in this respect".

In the present case having regard to the evidence I would suggest that if you have occasion to consider the offence of attempting to commit rape that the simplest way to explain it is this: that, if you conclude that the prosecution has proved the full case of rape in all other respects applying the law and the definitions as I have explained it to you and the further law applicable which I will explain but that the one of carnal knowledge in the sense of actual penetration has not been proved, then a finding of not guilty of the offence itself but guilty of the attempt would be appropriate.

The further observations I am going to make on the law are equally applicable to the offence of attempting except insofar as they concern that one question of penetration.

Although in strict law a court may convict in such a case as the present one, on the uncorroborated testimony of a female complainant, it is my duty to warn you that it would be most dangerous to do so. The corroboration which should be required in such cases is independent evidence which confirms in some material particular not only that the crime has been committed but also that the accused committed it.

In the present case, in my opinion the evidence of the doctor as to scratches and the evidence of Hamlyn as to the state of dress and condition of the complainant and what he saw in the house of the complainant if fully investigated by the court would be regarded as corroboration in law. In that connection I don't intend to suggest to the court whether or not it should accept them but that it would constitute, if believed what the law requires in that respect.

As to identity, the evidence of Maria van Landeghaem as to the identification of the accused as the person who was at her house and who she subsequently saw leaving the house of the complainant and the evidence of the Belgian Policy Agent Noppe, Arthur stand in the same position. In this connection I also wish to direct you most particularly that the evidence that was admitted of a complaint made by the complainant shortly after the offence is alleged to have occurred is not regarded in law as corroboration. As I believe I explained to you at the time that evidence is only admissible for the purpose of showing that the conduct of the person against whom the offence was committed was consistent with the story told by her in the witness box. It is not to be looked upon as evidence of the facts stated and is not in law corroboration.

It is a principle of law that the intent and the act must both concur to constitute a crime. Therefore, subject to certain exceptions with which you are not at present concerned, before a court may properly convict it must be satisfied not only that the accused did the acts complained of but that he did so with some mens rea, that is, some guilty mind or some wrongful intent. However, such intent is seldom capable of positive proof and in most cases can only be inferred from overt acts. As a general rule a person is presumed in law to have intended the natural and probable consequences of his act. That principle and the bearing on it of evidence tending to show either drunkenness or insanity as a defence is discussed at HHL p.105 Ch. V11, para 6 and the following paragraphs. As it may be some help to you I will read paras 6 to 9 inclusive:

"6. The general rule is that a person is responsible for the natural consequences of his acts. But there are cases in which it would be obviously unfair to make a person criminally responsible for doing a particular act, though in ordinary circumstances such an act would be anboffence."

"7. A child is considered to be incapable of committing an offence before the age of eight years, and any act of a child between the ages of eight and 14 can only be held to be an offence if it can be shown affirmatively that the child had sufficient capacity to know the nature and consequences of his act and to appreciate that he was doing wrong."

"8. A person cannot be convicted on a criminal charge in respect of an act done or omission made by him if it is proved that at the time when he did the act or made the omission he was labouring under such defect of reason through disease of the mind as made him incapable of knowing the nature and quality of the act he was doing or, if he did know it, that such an act was wrong. Thus, if a man kills another under the insane delusion that he is breaking a jar he will not be criminally responsible".

"Every person is, however, presumed to be sane and to be responsible for his acts until the contrary is proved and it must, therefore, be clearlyestablished by the defence that the accused is brought within the terms of the exceptionsas above laid down before he can have the benefit of it. Unless a person is brought strictly within the terms of the exception, it is no excuse whatever to show that his mind is affected by disease. For instance, the fact that a person is under the delusion that his nose is made of glass will not in any way excuse him if he commits an offence, unless he can prove that the delusion had a connection with the offence."

"It is immaterial whether the unsoundness of mind is permanent or only temporary, whether it is due to natural imbecility or produced by disease, or whether the disease itself is due to the sufferer's own dissipation as, for instance, in the case of delirium tremens".

"9. Temporary intoxication (from liquor or drugs) - as distinct from mental disease which alcoholism etc may bring on - is not (if voluntary) in itself any excuse for crime; but evidence of drunkenness which rendered the accused incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime must be taken into consideration together with the other facts proved in order to determine whether or not he had that intent".

"Evidence of drunkenness falling short of a proved incapacity in the accused to form the essential intent and establishing merely that his mind was affected by drink so that he more readily gave way to some violent passion does not rebut the ordinary presumption that a man intends the natural consequences of his acts".

I don't intend to review the evidence in any detail. That has already been very capably done by both the prosecutor and the Defending Officer and in any case that is the province of the court. There are, however, two or three observations of a very general character that I would like to make with respect to the evidence and hope it may be of some assistance to the court.

As the court will understand from the definitions of rape which have been read, consent is one of the essential ingredients. That is a matter which the court must decide from all the evidence before it. In his address to the court the Defending Officer very properly stressed the resistance or rather the lack of resistance put up by the complainant. Evidence of that character has a very vital bearing on that question of consent but I would like to remind the court that on that question of resistance that such evidence is offered for its bearing on consent and the court must also take into consideration the other acts that took place at the same time and also the physical condition of this woman and her capacity to resist particularly having regard to the evidence of pregnancy which is before the court. It is entirely a matter for the court but I mention that because the amount of resistance that might reasonably be expected to negative consent in a person in feeble health or in a woman who is pregnant might reasonably be considered by a court to be radically different than what might be expected from a woman in good health and not in that condition.

The other matter on which I feel there should be some comment is that of penetration. The only evidence before the court on that question is the evidence of the complainant herself. Penetration is an absolutely essential element of the full offence of rape and the burden of establishing that beyond any reasonable doubt rests on the prosecution. The complainant in her evidence as was pointed out by the Defending Officer I think on two occasions gave evidence that she was not sure or something to that effect and while there has been some evidence of penetration and while it is a question the court must decide I would like to point out to the court that I think on that evidence it might be exceedingly dangerous to regard it as proved.

Now, I would like to return for a moment to some principles of law which are applicable to all cases if this character. The burden of proof in all such cases rests throughout on the prosecution. The most fundamental principle of British criminal law is that a person is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty. Therefore, the onus of proving his guilt rests throughout on the prosecution. If after hearing all the evidence you find yourselves in doubt on the charge or on any essential ingredient thereof the accused must be acquitted on that charge. The prosecution must satisfy the court beyond any reasonable doubt before the accused can be found guilty and unless the court is so satisfied it must acquit.

"Reasonable doubt" has been variously defined. One judge has said: -

> "To warrant an acquittal the doubt must not be light nor capricious, such as timidity or passion prompts, and weakness and corruption readily adopts; it must be such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will suggest to an honest heart, the conscientious hesitation of minds that are not influenced by party, preoccupied by prejudice nor subdued by fear".

Mr. President, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the court?

President - No, I think not

Mr. Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the court?

Prosecutor - No, I think everything is very clear

Mr. Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the court?

Defending Officer - No, sir

E. 3 - Statement in Mitigation of Punishment.

Accused - Yes, sir. I would ask for leniency and the clemency of the court. I have a clean record up until now in the Army and I am a married man with two children and I would point out too that when I was wounded in France and returned to England I did not have to come back over here. I was made Acting Sergeant and Instructor and could have remained there but I volunteered to come back over again. I would also like to say that when I do get off this I would like to get into the service again.

Defending Officer - May I be permitted to add two observations, there. There is one point I would really like to draw to the court's attention. That is that the accused has been awaiting trial in close custody for 45 days now which appears in the record before the President, which I respectfully submit should be taken into account in determining the quantity of punishment, if any. Another small point, sirs, is the fact that the accused is only twenty-four years old and thebfact that I mentioned before I think that he had been drinking rather excessively which I agree is not an excuse but might be taken into account.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of C/88322 L/Sgt Rodgers, L H, X-4 List att "O" Sqn 25 Cdn Armd Del Regt, Cdn Army Overseas, charged with:

1 Sec 41 Rape
2 Sec 41 Wounding with intent to do grievous bodily harm

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Van Haute Caroline de Backer, wife of Sir de Backer, having been duly sworn states:

I am Van Haute Caroline de Backer, wife of Sir de Backer. On 3 Oct 44 about 1540 hrs I was in the corridor of my house while the street door (front door) was open. A drunken Cdn soldier entered my house and without speaking a word he pushed me in the corridor and closed the door, whereupon I called for aid. Thereon he takes me by the throat and with the other hand he strokes me on the head. He spoke to me in the English language, which I did not understand. He pushed me in the forepart and showed me by signs to put off my clothes. I refused and thereupon he began to pull off, to snatch, all my clothes from my body until I was whole naked. Because I resisted he continually strokes me. He threw me on the ground, mastered me with his arms and abused me. It was impossible for me to resist furthermore because I am already in a state of pregnancy during seven months. Thereafter the soldier rose up and took two bottles of drink out of his pocket, put them upon the table while he was holding me by the arm. Then he would put off his shoes and at that occasion I could take advantage to take the overcoat of my husband and to escape out of doors. Penetration actually occurred but no act of sexual intercourse was consummated.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

(Sgd) Van Haute Caroline de Backer

Second Witness Dr G Hellebaut of St Nicholas having been duly sworn states:

I am Dr G Hellebaut of St Nicholas. I examined Van Haute Caroline de Backer, wife of Sir de Backer, on 3 Oct 44 at 1930 hrs. A light scratch was on the right side of the throat. Light scratches also were on the abdomen. These scratches would be of no consequence but because this woman is seven months pregnant I cannot say what the after-effects will be, but it is possible the birth may be premature. Also I cannot state at the present time the possibilities of venereal diseases.

These wounds prove that the woman struggled with someone but do not prove as to whether there was any penetration.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

(Sgd) G Hellebaut

Third Witness Maria Van Landeghem, 45 Hemelserstraat, St Nicholas, having been duly sworn states:

I am Maria Van Landeghem, 45 Hemelserstraat, St Nicholas. On 3 Oct 44 at 1345 hrs I saw a Cdn soldier who was drunk enter the house of Sir de Backer, 47 Hemelserstraat, St Nicholas. Knowing that Lady de Backer was alone in her home and knowing also that the woman was in a state of pregnancy and that the soldier had entered with bad intentions I called the police.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

(Sgd) Maria Van Landeghem

Fourth Witness K/52613 Sgt Hamlyn, W W L, 15 Cdn Pd Secy Sec, Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am K/52613 Sgt Hamlyn, W W L, 15 Cdn Pd Secy Sec, Cdn Army Overseas. Whilst visiting the city hall at St Nicholas, Belgium, at 1345 hrs 3 Oct 44, a policeman (Noppe Arthur, No 46) came to me and said that a soldier, Cdn or Polish, had entered a house on Hemelserstraat and was acting like a beast toward a woman who was in the family way. I went with him to the address and found the door locked on the inside whilst the woman, Maria Van Landeghem, was in the house next door, No 45, clothed only in an overcoat. She said that the soldier had entered her house and after tearing off all her clothes had attacked her. I tried to get into the house by the back door after climbing over a concrete wall, only to find that the back door was locked. I then sent a civilian for assistance, which came in the form of two members of the Cdn Provost Corps and five civil police. Just as they came in the soldier, who turned out to be C/58322 Sgt Rodgers, L W, First Hussars, 2 Cdn Armd Bde, opened the door and started to come out. We went in and put him under arrest, finding all the woman's clothes thrown on a couch in the living room. Whilst we were looking to see if the Sgt had done any other damage in the house, he attempted to escape and was recaptured after a struggle, during which the property mentioned in the police report was broken.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

(Sgd) W W L Hamlyn, Sgt

Fifth Witness Police Agent Noppe Arthur, St Nicholas Police Force, having been duly sworn states:

I am police agent Noppe Arthur of the St Nicholas Police Force. On 3 Oct 44 at 1345 hrs I have been informed by Maria Van Landeghem, dwelling at 45 Hemelserstraat, St Nicholas, that a Cdn soldier who was drunk had entered the house of Sir de Backer, 47 Hemelserstraat. Van Landeghem, Maria, knowing that Lady de Backer was alone in her home and knowing also that the woman was in a state of pregnancy and that the soldier had entered with bad intentions, the woman Maria Van Landeghem called for my aid. At my several rings at the house of de Backer, there was nobody who opened so that at my turn I called for the aid of the Pd Secy. In the company of one of the men of this service I returned to the house of de Backer. At our arrival the woman, de Backer, was already in the house of Van Landeghem, Maria, and we found her with only an overcoat on from her husband, which she had put on her shoulders, and further she was naked. The soldier was still in the house of de Backer and had closed the door on the inside. At our several rings he refused to open. Through the house, No 40, I entered by the back into the house of de Backer. I found the soldier in a complete state of drunkenness and the soldier hindered me to open the door (the street door). I succeeded thereafter to open the street door and then the member of the Pd Secy entered accompanied by two other members of the M P. I was begged by the member of the Pd Secy to bring the woman, de Backer, into his presence. At my absence the soldier tried to escape but was retained fighting, with the consequence that the following pieces were broken -- one service, one picture holder, one mantel looking glass.

The clothes of the woman, de Backer, were torn, also a table carpet. I did not know at the moment what had happened but I heard the woman, de Backer, say to the Cdn soldiers in the Flemish language: "It is that soldier who has abused me (qui m'a viole)," while she showed the soldier to us whom I had found in her house.

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q How long does it take to walk from the Police Station to Hemelserstraat?

A Five min each way.

(Sgd) Noppe Arthur

Sixth Witness P/22265 L/Cpl Cessford, D, 13Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am P/22265 L/Cpl Cessford, D, 13 Cdn Pro Coy. At approx 1415 hrs 3 Oct 44, while on mobile patrol accompanied by Pte Langford, I was stopped by a Cpl of 2 Cdn Corps HQ Pd Secy who notified me that a drunk was causing a disturbance.

On the Market Square of St Nicholas I was met by a civilian police who also had been told of the offence that was being committed. The police directed me to the house. Upon arriving on the scene I found a Pd Secy Sgt and a civilian policeman there.

The Sgt informed me that the man he had retained had committed rape. He also showed me the woman's clothing in the front room.

While I was being shown the clothing the accused man made a break to get away from us. I chased and caught him in the kitchen of the house.

I then proceeded to the Police Station in St Nicholas where the man is being held.

The a/m man is C/88322 Sgt Rodgers, L M, 6 Cdn Armd Regt.

I reported this case to Sgt Hewitt, "D" Sec 12 Cdn Pro Coy.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

(Sgd) D Cessford, L/Cpl

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Q Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A I do not wish to make a statement or to give evidence at this time.

(Sgd) L M Rodgers, L/Sgt

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence, consisting of four pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that R P 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) & (G) [illegible] been complied with.

Evidence in the Trial of C 4590, Pte. RODGERS, Percy - Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment

President - Do you wish to make any statement.

Answer - Yes.

Having been duly sworn in C 4590, Pte. RODGERS, Percy, makes the following statement:-

"On the 29 June received letter from my wife saying not well. I went to C.O. to apply for 36 hours compassionate leave. The O.C. turned it down so I decided to go, so I went, when she got better I returned. After I was in guardhouse I received a letter and telephone call saying she was ill again. So I went again. When she got better I returned. Then received another letter and at present am still worried but can do nothing about it. That's all I have to say. I would like to add that both times I returned voluntarily and at all times, while away, I was with my wife.

Counsel for the Defence

Gentlemen:

The defence does not attempt to condone this man's actions. In the army no man can take the law into their own hands without punishment. However, before passing sentence, I would ask you to consider carefully the following facts:

Firstly, that due to the illness of his wife, the accused was suffering considerable anxiety.

Secondly, that he applied for compassionate leave for only 36 hours in order that he might visit her at her home, and the request was refused.

Thirdly, that he spent the whole of his time with his wife.

Fourthly, that when he was reassured as to her condition he voluntarily gave himself up.

Finally that although the accused's conduct sheet shows many offences, all but three are for being A.W.L. for four days or less.

That is all I have to say except that at this time, when all Canadians are urgently needed in the fighting zones, it would be regrettable if this man were to be too long prevented from doing what he voluntarily joined up to do.

Plea in Mitigation

The accused is 27 yrs of age - married with a wife and family in Canada. He has over five years army service, almost all of which was with 21 C A T C. He saw action with Armd Cavalry Regt from Jany to this year and of war. I draw your attention to A F B 296 and on 1176 which show no entries of any kind during that long period of service. I would also like to point out that for this long period of satisfactory service his accumulated Total of 180 de-merit points and is actually running on a report that was lost for Wid of this week.

I would also like to point out that as mentioned by Mr. Brock in summary of evidence. You will note that the accused was returned to Regt from Fd. Detachment to be detached on privilege leave. The Rangers has not had privilege leave since August 1944 - nearly a year. However you will also note in same statement that he was not detached on leave.

I do not ask the Court to condone this action he took. He is guilty and no doubt but I would ask the Court to carefully consider the long period he had gone without blame only to be disappointed after having been warned.

I point out Too his excellent record of service and feel that he is due for consideration.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

C 58257 Sgt. William John RODGERS, 21 Cdn Armd Regt (GGFG)(CA).

Charge: Absenting himself without leave.

The Officer Commanding directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness: C 40012 S.S.M. Brown, C.W., 21 Cdn Armd Regt (GGFG) having been duly sworn states:

"I am C 40012 S.S.M. Brown, C.W. I am Sqn Sgt.Major of 2 Squadron 21 Cdn Armd Regt (GGFG). Prior to 9 July 1945, C 58257 Sgt. Rodgers, W.J. to my knowledge was in charge of a guard detail at Erbeek, Holland. This detachment was ordered to return to the Squadron and did so at 1200 hours 9 July 1945. On neither the 7th or 8th of July 1945 did Sgt Rodgers, W.J. report to me nor did I see him in the Squadron area on those days. Sgt. Rodgers did not return with the detachment on 9 July, 1945. On 9 July 1945 I looked through the Squadron area and could not find him. At 2330 hours 16 July 1945 Sgt Rodgers reported to me. Between that time and 1200 hrs 9th July 1945 Sgt Rodgers was not in the Squadron area."

On 5 July 1945 I despatched Sgt Rodgers to 2 Squadron 21 Cdn Armd Regt (GGFG) in order that he might go on leave. On the evening of 6 July 1945 Sgt Rodgers reported back to me having not been despatched on leave. As I did not wish to retain Sgt Rodgers under my command, on 7 July 1945 at about 0830 hours, I despatched Sgt Rodgers in a truck with orders to report back to the regiment. The guard of which I was in charge returned to the regiment on 9 July 1945, and between the 7 July 1945 and the 9 July 1945 Sgt Rodgers did not again report to me at Erbeek."

Plea in mitigation in the case of C5513 Pte Rodrigues C. J. Hast & P & Rgt. tried by J. G. C. M. 2 Aug 44

(Hdqrs. Regt.)

Sir. I hereby submit plea of mitigation of sentence in the case of C5513 Pte. Rodrigues C. J.

The accused is well known to me having had him in my platoon in the H & P & Rgt for a considerable time and known him as being in the same company while serving in Sicily. I have been discussing the accused with an officer who was his platoon commander during the fighting in Sicily. He assured me that C5513 Pte Rodrigues C. J had done extremely good work in action, was entirely dependable and loyal to him and the battalion during even the most difficult engagements.

The officer concerned thought well enough of him to promote him to the rank of L/Cpl. in charge of the mortar group. The accused in the time that I have known him has always been of an extremely argumentive and belligerent nature. This has been confirmed by the report of the S.P.O. who has already recommended him for return to Canada on the grounds of emotional instability. Since the accused came overseas in AUG 41940 nearly all his claims in the army have been as result of an argument followed by a fight of some description. Since he left his regiment in Sept 1943 due to a foot wound which categorized him as L-2, he has been in numerous hospitals and convalescent depots which is partly why intolerable for a man of his temperament and particular type of irritability. An example of this happened in Dec 1943 when he had an argument with a member of the Provost Corps thus losing his stripe.

He returned to England only a short time ago thoroughly frustrated off yet with an earnest desire to help out in any trouble for the sake of his wife and child at present living in England. He also fears that has sure a punishment will mean the break up of his home.

Final address in trial by F.G.C.M. of C5513 Pte Rodrigues C. P.

Mr. President and Members of the Court. Page(1)

(1) If marked arms from evidence heard this morning that several blows were struck during the encounter but the accused is the only one bearing marks of the struggle. I also think that the accused has had enough army experience to think twice before striking a Provost.

(2) When the accused was ordered to produce his pay book he did so without hesitation. After being put under arrest he walked quietly to the lavatory and then when returning received a blow in the jaw that would make anyone struggle to avoid receiving another.

(3) With this gentlemen, I sincerely hope the Court may come to a decision finding the accused not guilty.

G. H. Hoey Lieut
Defending Officer.

The accused pleads not guilty to the first charge.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

The case for the prosecution will be simply to prove what is alleged in the charge; namely to prove that the accused, while under arrest, resisted by struggling & kicking. The witnesses will speak for themselves.

FIRST WITNESS For the Prosecution

B 61927 L/Cpl Giebner, G.F., Canadian Provost Corps, on strength of No. 1 Detachment, 7 Cdn Provost Coy, "D" Group, Cdn Reinforcement Units, having been duly sworn, states.

Q1 Do you recognize the accused?
A1 Yes Sir.

Q2 Tell the Court what you recall as regards the accused on what happened July 26 1944.
A2 While on patrol in Helmsley, in company with L/Cpl Nixon, we were requested by the proprietress of the Crown Hotel at about 2235 hrs on the night of 26 Jul 44, to order 3 Canadian Soldiers from the Hotel, as she had called time at the Bar. She asked them to drink up their beer and leave, which they refused to do. On entering the hotel, the accused and two other Canadian Soldiers were arguing with a Sergeant and another Private. The Sgt was trying to persuade the accused to leave. On entering the room I told the Sgt that we would take over and asked the Sgt to leave, which he did. The accused was very loud in his language, stating he had just come back from Italy. Considering this, I asked him to drink his beer and leave the Hotel without causing any further disturbance. Before leaving the Hotel he asked me for permission to speak to the proprietress. The remark that he said was: I have just come back from Italy, fighting for the likes of you, but after tonight I would rather fight for Heinie. On this remark I helped the accused out of the Hotel. He still argued outside. As I was still considering that he came from Italy, I was still lenient with him. Two Canadian Officers standing in front of the Swan Hotel on recognizing the three soldiers, came over and stated: "I know these men, I'll take charge of them". I saluted and L/Cpl. Nixon and myself went to the town lavatory across the square. Upon coming back across the square and stopping in front of the Town Hall, I was again approached by the accused. He still wished to argue, which I did not want to do, feeling I had been lenient enough. I asked for his MBM I. Upon taking his particulars I then placed him in close arrest. Having no vehicle of our own present and recognizing Cpl. Popinesu, whom I knew, and who was in charge of a vehicle, I asked permission to use his vehicle to take the accused to No. 4 CIRU Guard Room. I opened the vehicle door and ordered the accused inside, which he refused to do. I asked "Why?" and he stated after hesitation, I want to take a piss I stated in two minutes time he could take a piss in the guard-room. He still refused to get in the vehicle, so I accompanied him to the Lavatory of the Royal Oak Hotel. On going to the lavatory, we were accompanied by the two men and a third soldier whom the accused was drinking with. Upon coming from the lavatory I asked him to move along to the vehicle, but the other three soldiers interfering claimed I could not take the accused without taking them. I asked them not to interfere as it did not concern them. I asked them for their MBM I, and also placed them under close arrest. L/Cpl. Nixon attempted to escort Pte. Sturgeon. Upon doing so, he was taken hold of by the accused who stated: "Let go of him". L/Cpl. Nixon stated: "You let go of me", which he did. Seeing a disturbance would follow, he asked for the assistance of Cpl. Sharp of our Detachment, again taking hold of Pte. Sturgeon, he was struck on the right eye by the accused. Cpl. Sharpe then took hold of the accused, and, with my assistance

FIRST WITNESS (Cont'd)

A 2 (cont'd) took him to the vehicle still resisting. I was then attacked from the rear by an unknown soldier. In the disturbance which followed I had to take care of myself. Cpl. Sharp still had the accused. When I got here myself Cpl. Sharp summoned L/Cpl Nixon and myself to help him put the accused into the vehicle, as he was still resisting. Being a high vehicle it took considerable force to put the accused into it. Cpl Sharp said to turn him into the guard room and get a body receipt for him. Upon going to the guard room the accused still wished to be violent. I ordered him to behave himself and had to use force to keep him in the vehicle.

A3 At 2235 hours, 26 July 1944, we were called to the Crown Hotel, Helmsley, by the proprietress, who complained that there were four Canadian Soldier's there who refused to leave. Upon entering the public house, L/Cpl Giebner and myself told the four soldiers to drink their beer and leave. Before leaving, the accused told the proprietress; I have just come back from Italy, fighting for people like you. Now I would sooner fight for Heinie himself. L/Cpl. Giebner then forced them out of the Pub. Two Canadian Officers came along and said they would take charge of the four soldiers, so we agreed to that. We went over to the Public House in Helmsley and then came to the front of the NAAFI. The accused then came up to L/Cpl. Giebner again. L/Cpl. Giebner asked him for his Pay Book, which he gave up. L/Cpl. Giebner took all his particulars and told him he was under close arrest. He asked a Cpl. who was driving a Canadian Vehicle if he would transport the accused to the Guard Room at #4 CIRU. He told the accused to get into the vehicle and the accused said: I have to go to the lavatory. So L/Cpl. Giebner took him to the lav. behind the Royal Oak Hotel. There were a number of Soldiers come up and said we could not take the accused unless we took them also, so I asked the man who made the statement for his Paybook. He refused, so I started shoving him up the stairs. One soldier grabbed me by the arm and said: you cant do that to that fellow. I then called Cpl. Sharp and came back to take my man in. I shoved him to one side and he struck me over the right eye. Cpl. Sharp then dealth with him and I took my man away. Cpl. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C 5513 Private Cecil Frank RODRIGUEZ, Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, on the strength of No 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

For the Prosecution

B 61927 L/Cpl Giebner, G.F., No 1 Detachment, 7 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

I am B 61927 L/Cpl Giebner, G.F., of No 1 Detachment, 7 Prov Coy, Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at H.Q., "D" Group, C.R.U. While on patrol in Helmsley on 26 Jul 44 at approximately 2235 hrs with L/Cpl Nixon, we were requested by the proprietress of the Crown Hotel to order three Canadian soldiers to leave, as it was past closing time. The accused, whom I now recognise, was one of the soldiers. We asked them to drink up their beer and leave. The accused said he had just come back from Italy and considering this we wished to be lenient. After much persuasion and delay they drank their beer. As we were going out the accused said to the proprietress "I have just come back from Italy fighting for the likes of you but after tonight I would rather fight for Heinie", or words to that effect. After leaving the Hotel two Canadian Officers came over and said they knew the men and would take charge of them. L/Cpl Nixon and I then walked across the square to the lavatory behind the Royal Oak Hotel. Later, in front of the N.A.A.F.I., I was approached by the accused. He still wished to argue which I did not want to do, and ordered him to produce his pay book which he did. I took his particulars and placed him in close arrest. I detailed a vehicle and ordered the accused into it but he refused. When I asked for the reason he said he wanted to go to the lavatory. I told him he would be at the Unit Guard Room in a few minutes and he could wait. He still refused to get into the vehicle so I escorted him to the lavatory behind the Royal Oak Hotel. I was followed by the other two Canadian soldiers who had been with the accused in the Crown Hotel earlier. On leaving the lavatory I was interfered in my duties by the other two soldiers. They said I could not take him unless I took them too. I warned them not to interfere but they persisted. I asked them for their pay books which they refused to produce. I then placed them in close arrest. While L/Cpl Nixon attempted to hold one of these soldiers, he was grabbed by the accused who said "Let him go". L/Cpl Nixon told him to let go and went for the assistance of Cpl Sharp and when he returned took hold of the same soldier. On doing so he was struck on the eye by the accused. Cpl Sharp took charge of the accused. I assisted in putting the accused into a vehicle, as he still refused to get in himself. During the journey to the guard room the accused still struggled and I had to use force to retain him in the vehicle.

G F Giebner

(B 61927 L/Cpl Giebner, G.F.)

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.1. Did you see anyone strike me?
A.1. No.

SECOND WITNESS

For the Prosecution

M 17171 L/Cpl Nixon, M.E., No 1 Detachment, 7 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

I am M 17171 L/Cpl Nixon, M.E., 1 Det, 7 Prov Coy, Canadian Provost Corps, stationed at H.Q., "D" Group, C.M.U. At approximately 2235 hrs 26 Jul 44 L/Cpl Weibner and myself were called to the Crown Hotel, Helmsley, by the proprietress, who complained that there were four Canadian Soldiers who would not leave the hotel. We asked them to drink up their beer and leave but they seemed to take their time but left with us. On the way out the accused, whom I now recognize, asked to speak to the proprietress. He said to her "I have just come back from Italy fighting for people like you but now I would sooner fight for Heinie himself", or words to that effect. I told him never to make a statement like that again. As we came out of the Hotel two Canadian Officers came up and said they would take charge of the soldiers and we agreed. L/Cpl Giebner and I went across the Square to the lavatory. On coming back, in front of the N.A.A.F.I., the accused came up to us, and L/Cpl Giebner asked to see his pay book, as he had not gone along with the officers previously referred to. The accused produced his pay book without any hesitation. The accused was then ordered into a vehicle to be conveyed to his Unit Guard Room, but he said he first wanted to go to the lavatory. There were quite a number of Canadian soldiers about and one of them said we could not take the accused to the Guard Room. I asked the soldier who said this for his pay book and he refused. As I tried to take him to the vehicle I was grabbed by the arm and I called to Cpl Sharp, No 1 Det, 7 Prov Coy, for assistance, and went back to take my man in. At this time the accused grabbed me by the arm and I shoved him to one side. He then struck me over the right eye and Cpl Sharp dealt with him from then on. The accused was later placed in a vehicle by force and taken to the Unit Guard Room of 4 C.I.R.U.

For the Defence

C 5516 Pte Masters, K.F., North Shore (NB) Regiment, on the strength of No 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am C 5516 Pte Masters, K.F., of "A" Wing, 4 Cdn Inf Rft Unit. On 26 Jul 44 I was in the Crown Hotel with the accused whom I now recognize, and the [illegible] to leave. We had just bought two beers and we told [illegible] we would go as soon as we had finished our beers. A Sgt whom I did not recognize said we had to get out right away, and we told him we would leave as soon as we had finished our beer. Two Provosts came in and ordered us out. When we got outside one of the Provosts asked the accused for his pay book. The accused produced his pay book without any hesitation. The provosts took the accused to the lavatory behind the Royal Oak Hotel and Pte Turgeon and I went down into the yard by the lavatory and asked the Provosts to let him go. They told us to go away. I then saw a Cpl of the Provosts whom I now know to be A/Cpl Sharp of No 1 Det 7 Prov Coy, Cdn Prov Corps, go down into the yard and I saw Cpl Sharp strike the accused with his fist and cut him over the eye. There did not appear to be much of an argument going on before the blow was struck. The accused started to hit back. The three Provosts then brought the accused up to the street and a number of other people gathered around and I saw someone strike Cpl Sharp. I did not recognize the person who struck him. Cpl Sharp did not look around for the man who had struck him but started hitting another soldier and knocked him down several times. I and another soldier went over and picked him up, and told the Provosts to leave him alone. The Provosts went away with the accused and put him in a truck. At no time did they ask me to produce my identification but the next afternoon I was sitting in my hut and a L/Cpl of the Provosts whom I now know to be L/Cpl Wiebner of 1 Det 7 Prov Coy, Cdn Prov Corps, asked me for my pay book and told me I was under close arrest and to go outside. He also told another soldier in the hut to go outside. After we got outside the other soldier asked the Provost what the charge was and the Provosts said "You should know - you were one of the men in the pub last night". The other man denied this, but said he had seen the incident. The Provost said to me "Isn't this the fellow who was with you in the pub"? and I told him "No". The Provost then asked me if I was one of the men in the pub and I told him I was.

On 26 Jul 44 at approximately 2230 hrs I was with the accused and Pte Masters in the Crown Hotel and the Provosts came in and asked us to leave. After we had left two officers came along and told the Provosts to go away which they did. I went with the accused and Masters towards the NAAFI and one of the Provosts said something to the accused, who said he wanted to go to the lavatory. He went down to the lavatory in the yard behind behind the Royal Oak Hotel followed by a L/Cpl Provost whom I now know to be L/Cpl Glebner of 1 Det 7 Prov Coy, Cdn Prov Corps. I saw a Cpl of the Provosts whom I now know to be Cpl Sharp of the No 1 Det 7 Prov Coy, Cdn Prov Corps, go down into the yard and just as the accused came out of the lavatory Cpl Sharp struck the accused. I was standing about 15 feet away on the ramp leading down into the yard. Cpl Sharp held on to the accused and L/Cpl Glebner struck the accused several times on the back of the neck. I came back up to the Square and saw the Provosts put the accused into a truck.

ADDITIONAL SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Additional Summary of Evidence in the Case of C 5513 Private Cecil Frank RODRIQUEZ, Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, on the strength of No 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

THIRD WITNESS for the Defence. C 5492 Private Kennedy, M. Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, on strength 4 Cdn ~~Rx~~ Inf Rft Unit having been duly sworn, states:

I am C 5492 Pte Kennedy M. On 26 July 44 at approx 2240 hrs. I was in the town of Helmsley, near the NAAFI building, when I saw the accused, whom I now recognize, go down into the yard behind the Royal Oak Hotel, accompanied by a L/Cpl of the Canadian Provost Corps. Several other Canadian soldiers followedthem down. Shortly after I saw a Corporal of the Cdn Provost Corps, whom I now know to be A/Cpl Sharp, go down into the yard, there was an argument, and I saw Cpl Sharp strike the accused. Cpl Sharp then held the accused and the L/Cpl, whom I now know to be L/Cpl Geibner, struck the accused several times on the neck. Both the Provosts then brought the accused up out of the yard on the street, and there was a further commotion. I saw Cpl Sharp strike another soldier, and I went to his assistance, as he did not appear to have taken any part in the affair up to that time.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....[5]

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ..... , initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Fix here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath but is not so made does not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

B33123 Sgt. Roe F.H.

1. The m/n N.C.O. was under my direct command when I was carrying out the duties as Technical Maintenance Officer, Sigs. 1 Cdn. Corps during the period Dec. 42 until May 43. At that time serjeant Roe was a signalman electrician signals or instrument mechanic.

2. During my command of this section Sigmn. Roe's ability both as a tradesman and a leader came to my notice and I instigated his initial promotion from signalman to acting corporal. He proved his ability both as a tradesman and a N.C.O. and his confirmation was made three months after his initial promotion. During my six months command of this section, it was never necessary to check this N.C.O. for his conduct as an N.C.O. or as a supervisor in his trade. His work was always of the highest order.

3. In due course he was promoted to acting lance serjeant and continued to carry out his duties in an excellent manner so much so that when a section serjeant's vacancy occured in the Armoured Car Signal Troop, he was recommended for it and obtained this further promotion.

4. In my opinion this N.C.O. was an excellent soldier on parade as well as off parade and was one who could carry his liquor very well, though he did not drink heavily in my estimation, nor did he ever let his drinking interfere with his work which normally consisted of a get together of the section that part which was off duty, at the local pub on pay nights, where singing and a few drinks helped to break the monotony that most of us went through while waiting in England.

5. If ever I was to take up the duties as unit Technical Maintenance Officer, I would endeavour to acquire the services of this N.C.O. knowing that I had an N.C.O. whom I could depend on to do his work to the best of his ability and who would carry out his duties as an N.C.O. similarly.

In the case of

B 28185 Sgt Roe W H, RCCS Troop Attached 1 Cdn Armd C Regt (RCD), Canadian Army Overseas, C E F.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

I B4619 Sgt Zaverganietz W, 1 Cdn Armd C Regt (RCD), CEF, having been duly sworn, states:

" At approximately 2330 hrs 18 Mar 44, while lying in my pup-tent, I heard some noise in the direction of the Signals quarters, such as cans being knocked around and someone talking in a very loud voice. A few minutes later I heard someone approaching my tent and calling my name. The voice sounded heavily under the influence of liquor, it was Sgt Roe. I at once started dressing to investigate what was wrong. When I got into the yard [redacted] Hearing Cpl Wilson's story I called two Sgts to assist me, located Sgt Roe and placed him under close arrest. His breathe smelt heavily of alchol, his voice was thick and he had difficulty in walking and getting up to his quarters even with the help of the two Sgts."

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. When you found me was I creating a disturbance?

A. When I found you, you were either talking or arguing with one of your men. I was not able to determine whether you were talking or arguing as a motor was running.

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution

B 52002 Cpl Wilson G P, RCCS Troop att 1 Cdn Armd Regt (RCD), C E F, having been duly sworn, states:

"At approximately 2100 hrs, 18 Mar 44, the accused Sgt Roe came into the Signals quarters in a very disorderly manner. It was quite apparent that he had been drinking heavily. His voice was thick and smelt of alcohol and he was staggering. He seemed to want to pick an argument with someone and Signm Lane and myself were present so he chose us, chiefly Signm Lane. It was only when that we decided that he was drunk and was not responsible for his statements. We proceeded to humour him and tried several times to put him to bed all to no avail. After some time he seemed to get worse and directed his arguments and threats toward Signm Lane. Realizing his condition we did not attempt to antagonize him except when after challenging Signm Lane he insisted that he fight saying, "I'll knock hell out of you". He was however disuaded from this fairly easy. Further attempts were made to put him to bed. He then began giving a number of orders such as ordering Signm Lane to bed, the time being 2130 hrs precisely. I intervened and he threatened to put Signm Lane under close arrest. He left the quarters saying," I'll get Zaverganietz to place Lane in the Guard Room". After an elapse of about five m minutes Lane and myself went out after Sgt Roe with two ideas in mind. Firstly to make an attempt to find him and br me him back and put him to bed. Secondly if we could not find him, my intentions were to see Sgt Zaverganietz and to tell him not to put Lane under close arrest and not to take any unnecessary action, that Sgt Roe was drunk and not responsible for any orders towards Lane. We could not find Sgt Roe but could hear him calling "Zavie". I then went alone to Sgt Zaverganietz's tent and explained the situation about Lane and that Sgt Roe was out of control. Sgt Roe during the hours of 2100 hrs and 2230 hrs was not responsible for anything he said or did."

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution (cont'd)

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. On any occasion have I antagonized any of my men or created a disturbance while I was sober?

A. No.

"At approximately 2100 hrs on 15 Mar 44, Sgt Roe came into the Sigs quarters. He was argumentive, disagreeable and had been drinking as he smelt of alcohol, his voice was quite thick and he was staggering about. Usually he comes in good spirits but on this night he decided to pick an argument with Cpl Wilson and myself. He ended up by picking it mostly with me. He made threats saying, "I'll knock hell out of you" or words to that effect. Cpl Wilson and the boys tried to prevent this. He never touched me. He gave me an order to go to bed saying it was a direct order. The time was 2130 hrs. As I did not go he said that he would get the Provost Sgt and have me placed under close arrest, then he went out. A few minutes later Cpl Wilson and I decided to go out, find him and bring him back before he got into trouble elsewhere. Cpl Wilson and I could not find him. Cpl Wilson decided to go to Sgt Zaverganietz and tell him that Sgt Roe was wandering around hollering and looking for him."

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. You have been with the troop since I've been here?

A. Yes.

Plea of Mitigation

re the case of B 89219 Pte W.J.M. Roe.

Pte Roe enlisted in the Canadian army in Sept 1940 at the age of 28 and served with the Royal Regiment of Canada, in Normandy being wounded 13 July during the drive on Caen.

Pte Roe's history is one that precluded him from having a normal childhood and normal maturing. When he was eight, his family was broken up, and he went with his father who was a traveller in the U.S.A. His life, until he was sixteen was spent travelling with his father, his education being neglected completely. At the age of sixteen, he left his father and struck out on his own. At seventeen he joined the army of the U.S.A. and served with them for two years, with a good record. He came back to Canada in 1936 and went to live with his mother in Toronto. He settled down for the first time in his life, got a job, and in 1939 got married. He has one son who has spent the past two years in hospital, having had four major operations during that time.

Pte Roe's wife apparently has decided that the responsibility is too much for her and has stopped writing to him. As a result, he has little knowledge of his sons condition, which has caused him great worry. It was in this condition that he went A.W.L. I respectfully request the court to be as lenient as possible and that Pte Roe be given an opportunity to see the necessary authorities in order to get his affairs straightened out.

Remarks for attention of Convening Officer —

Sir

It is noted in the evidence given by the accused that he claims to have made various attempts and even two unit postings in order to find a solution to rectify his domestic troubles which he states are the root of his numerous absences without leave.

The Court was not in a position to check his statement, nor was defence counsel capable of bringing forth corroboration. However the Court felt that if this man applied in the proper manner to his former platoon Company Commander for help in adjusting his home affairs and was never given a reply, as his evidence implies, then the officer responsible should be censured and the neglect rectified.

Whether such neglect exists or not it was not possible for the Court to establish as the accused pleaded guilty and did not decide to make a statement early enough in the proceedings to allow adjournment whilst proceedings.

prejudice to the validity of the Court. If neglect exists such a fact would in the opinion of the Court establish slight provocation which might have extenuating effect on confirmation of the sentence as it stands. If on the other hand no such neglect exists, and it is considered that fact can easily be established between you HQ and 3 CDR, then the Court respectfully submit that justice will have been served to all possible extent.

Statement of Accused:-

"I can't soldier in the mental condition I'm in. Have applied for compassionate leave twice due to worries at home. Just after middle of Aug 42 I received word that my boy was in hospital and had several operations. I applies for leave at this time. When I got hit in France, I nearly went crazy. My wife isn't doing as she should. I have received word my boy is out of hospital and there is no home for him as my mother wrote regarding this. The boy is eight years old now.

I thought/I'd go A.W.L. I'd get a Court-Martial and bring the whole thing out but I've found if from my lawyer since it will gain me nothing. I don't enjoy being A.W.O.L. and came back myself, but I feel there is an injustice here.

I've been to every Padre I've had and am always told it is being investigated. The pension board has notified me of a special grant for hospita l bills. My wife writes asking me why I don't get home and don't I care.

My medical category is still "A". Shrapnel wounds in chest--I've never been re-boarded.

That's all, Sir."

Rules of Proced. 83 B has been complied with.

STATEMENT FOR THE DEFENCE.

The accused has given evidence on oath stating his marital difficulties and the mental anguish that her conduct combined with his invalid son's unfortunate circumstances have caused him. Also for nearly two years he has constantly tried to obtain a compassionate leave or posting so that he could settle the situation but without success. I ask the court to consider the effects on his morale and his usefulness to the Army

He has been completely miserable while on duty. He has been equally miserable while absent. He fought bravely in France, but there especiall y his misfortunes hampered him. Since he was wounded he has worried more and more. The army has done nothing to help him.

He mistakenly thought that by committing an offence which would be tried by Court-Martial he could bring matters to a head and obtain some redress. We know that this is not the correct way to go about it, but the accused considered this to be his last chance. As proof that this was his purpose, is the fact that he voluntarily surrendered after a period of absence which is the minimum normally tried by a court-martial.

I think the Court will agree that if not excusable, the accused's conduct is at least understandable. I therefore ask for leniency, so that another effort through the proper channels may be made, and a good soldier restored to the Army.

Statement of Witness Croydon Station "Z" Division
2 May 1941.

Name: William Spinks.

Occupation: Police Constable 803 "Z".

Statement: At 4.15 p.m. on 2nd May 1941, I was on Traffic Patrol duty with P.C.330"Z" Hooper in Police Car C.U.C.216, Fleet No.297 "T",in Mitcham Road Croydon, when I saw an Army solo motor cycle being driven in an eratic manner.

I stopped the driver and asked him his name and he replied,"I haven't got my pay book but I'll tell you my name". He then gave me his name as Pte.B.7896 Jim Allen of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals stationed at Blindley Heath. There was also a pillion passenger on the machine who gave his name as Pte B22301 K.Ray,Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, stationed at Blindley Heath.

I then asked Allen who gave him authority to use the vehicle and he said,"Cpt Egan. I saw him at 3 o'clock and he said that we could use it ". I examined the machine and was unable to find a W.D.number thereon or any distinguishing number.

I told both men that I was not satisfied with their explanation and conveyed them to Croydon Police Station for enquiries to be made.

On arrival at the Police Station Allen said to Ray,"Lets tell them". Ray gave his correct name as Pte K.Rogal,H16263 P.P.C.L.I.stationed at Godstone. Allen gave his correctb name as Pte 16151 G.P.Morettin. P.P.C.L.I. stationed at Godstone. I then asked Morettin where he got the vehicle he said,"I found it in a hedge between Godstone and Bletchingley. I explained to him that he was not covered by Insurance also that he had no driving licence, the vehicle was not taxed and that he had no index plates.

Morettin made no reply.

Neither men had respirators or steel helmets.

Both men were then detained for escort.

1ST. WITNESS FOR PROS.

Gerardus Riessenbeek of Groesbeeksewck 227 Nijmegen, sworn states, — At one o'clock I came home and dinner was not ready so I went into garage and standing at door watching traffic on street. I was there for a couple of minutes and suddenly I heard a shot behind me. I looked around and saw a fellow lying on the ground and another soldier went to him and he asked me to call the other soldiers. I did so and the two came from the house to the garage. Then I saw the bullett wound in his (the prisoner's) chest. The victim was sitting on a bench when I went in and I saw some pieces of the pistol lying on the table. The other soldier was standing at the other end of the table but I could not see what he was doing for it was pretty dark. I did not hear any conversation before or after the shot was fired ~~he said~~ ~~the hintent~~ One of the two soldiers who came from the house was putting a dressing on the victim's wound.

I did not see anything in the other soldier's hands or anything else on the table.

The same 2 people were still in the garage after the shot was fired. The wound was on the left side of the victim.

I could recognize the wounded man afterwards but not the other person.

2ND. WITNESS

K53861 Rfn Moulton K.O., R. W.R., sworn, ~~state~~, The day of the accident I was sitting in the front room of the house in which I was billeted talking to Sgt. Smith. I heard the report of a shot but did not pay any attention to it until a young civilian who lives in the house came in and told us one of our men had been shot. Sgt. Smith and I went out into the garage. I saw Pfn. Romaniskey lying on the floor and Pfn. Rogan was kneeling over him. I then went for a field dressing and assisted Pfn. Rogan to dress the wound.

I did not see any other weapons outside of a pistol laying on the table that had been stripped. I have known the two men for about 2 yrs. They were always the best of friends. There was nobody else in the garage outside of Pfn. Rogan and Romaniski when I entered after having been called by the civilian.

Before the accident I did not see Pfn. Rogan handling any weapon.

I can identify the 1st. witness as the civilian who called me.

It was impossible for a shot to be fired from the stripped weapon on the table, due to its ~~bein~~ stripped condition.

3RD. WITNESS

H40796 L/Sgt. Smith E. G., R.W.R., sworn, states,—

On the 18 Nov. 44 at approx. 1330 hrs I was sitting in the front room of the house when a civilian came in and told me that one of the boys had been shot. I ran out into the garage and saw Pfn. Romaniski lying on the floor. Pfn. Rogan was kneeling beside him holding up his head and undoing his tunic. He asked me to get a field dressing when Pfn. Houston came in and said he would go after one and I would go for an ambulance. I ran up 3 houses and told Sgt. Koshick that Komarnicke had been shot and he went down to the garage and I went for a D.R. to summon the ambulance. I then returned to the garage and they were applying the dressing etc. I stayed around until the ambulance arrived.

I saw two pistols lying on the table. One was in pieces and the other was together except for the butt plates which were missing. I recognized the pistol without the grips as belonging to Pfn. Rogan.

I saw Pfn. Rogan making grips for the pistol but did not see him handling the pistol itself. I do not know whether it was in working order. The 2 pistols were P38's.

I recognize this pistol (Exhibit B) as that of Pfn. Rogan's.

~~There is no possible~~

4TH. WITNESS

H41187 Sgt. Meyers, R.W.R., sworn, states, —

At about 1315 hrs I was leaving in a truck for rations. At that time one of the D.Rs. came to me on a W/C. and said that Pfn. Komarnicki had been shot. I sent the D.R. for an ambulance and went to see Pfn. Komarnicki. When I arrived I looked at Pfn. Komarnicki and he seemed to be in great pain. Sgt. Koshik mentioned if he had morphine, he would give the victim a shot of it. I had a phial of morphine in my pocket rssued to me by the M.O. I administered the phail to Komaniski's arm. I had on another occasion administered morphine before.

I saw a pistol on the table in the garage and also some parts of a pistol but cannot say whether these parts belonged to ~~the~~ the pistol. I don't know who owned the pistol. Previous to the accident I never saw the pistol known as Exhibit C. I did not see the accused handling a weapon and do not recognize Exhibit C as the pistol lying on the table.

5TH. WITNESS

H 40530 Sgt. Kochick J., R. W. R., sworn states

On the day of the accident at apbox 1315 hrs I was in my room when Sgt Smith came in notified me that Pte Komaniski had been shot. We ran down towards the building and on the way I told Sgt. Smith to notify pl. H.Q. and to get an ambulance. I then went into the building and saw Pte. Rogan applying a bandage to Pte Komaniski. By that time one of my corporals had come in and I asked the two men either to lift the victim or turn him over so I could see whether the bullet had passed through the body. Upon inspection I did not find any wound in the back. I then got blankets and a pillow and comforted the wounded man. By that time Sgt. Meyer had arrived and I asked him for morphine which he administered to the victim. After that I waited for the ambulance. I saw two weapons on the table when I went into the building. One pistol was in pieces and the other was intact except for the lack of pistol grip plates. I recognize Exhibit B as Pfn. Rogan's pistol. I cannot say whether Rogan's pistol was in working order. The pistol known as Exhibit B appears to be the same one as that lying on the table after the accident.

I have known the 2 men for approx. ~~two~~ three years and have never known two men to get along better than they did. I did not see Pfn. Rogan handle the weapon before the accident.

~~PROSECUTOR~~ DEFENDING OFFICER

In my opinion the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused therefore the case should be dismissed

1ST. CHARACTER WITNESS

(DS) LIEUT. ~~X~~ G.R. WYBOURNE, RWR.

I have known Pfn. Rogan for approx. 4 yrs. since April '41. During that time I have been a Pfn, NCO. and officer. Also for 10 mos. of that time Pfn. Rogan was my driver. I know him to be an excellent soldier, dependable conscientious hard worker, and as good a soldier as we had in the platoon. As a man he is honest and of a happy nature. Since I have known him I have never heard of him having a serious argument of ~~opinion~~ difference of opinion with anyone. He is not of a mean nature. His vehicle was always in perfect shape when he was driving. I would not regard him as careless but rather a steady worker.

H40530 Sgt Roshick, J., Royal Winnipeg Rifles, having been duly sworn states:

I am H40530 Sgt Roshick, J., of No 1 Sec, Sgt of the Carrier Pl, R Wpg Rif. I was first notified of the accident by Sgt Smith. He told me that Rfn Komarniski had been shot and on the way down I told him to notify Pl HQ and see about an ambulance. When I came into the garage I noticed Rfn Rogan applying a dressing to the wounded man. We raised him up and I checked his back for any signs of the bullet having come out. I then got some blankets and a pillow and made him as comfortable as possible. During that time Sgt Meyers had come in and I asked him for some morphine, which he administered to Rfn Komarniski. I noticed two pistols on the table. One was stripped and the other one wasn't. The unstripped one I recognized as belonging to Rfn Rogan because the pistol grips were not on it, (attached as Exhibit "B").

Question: Have you knowr Rogan and Komarniski long?
Answer: Yes, I have known them about three years. They were two of the best men I had and I have never known them to quarrel or have any disagreements.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of three pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

In case of B86622 Capt. Rogers G. —

Capt. Rogers has proven himself on past occasions to be a reliable N.C.O. and very capable. He was considered one of the better N.C.O.'s. He is in front of the Court Martial for a breach of discipline as shown by the charge. He has no past black up that we can to treat but merely that he is a confirmed corporal. I ask you to deal with the case on its merits.

in case of, B 86622 Cpl Charles Rogers,
2 Cdn Div Sup Coy (6Coy)

Cpl.Rogers is charged with and has pleaded guilty to to taking a C.M.-M/C without proper authority,this as is defending officer I do not condone. But due to circumstances which I would like to point out,he Cpl Rogers did nothing more than you or I would do. He has for many months being trying to obtain a divorce,this I can confirm because I was his Echelon Commander some months ago and I had attempted to help him,his case being one that warranted help.
On the day in question Sept 9th 1942 when he was in Hove on the bread draw he having finished his duty of Transport Cpl (not having any duty until the lorrys were loaded) went one and a half miles into Brighton to try and see a lawyer.On his arrival at the lawyers office he found that he had not arrived,not wanting to be away from his convoy too long he returned immediatly. On his return journey in an attempt to avoid hitting a civilian who was jay walking he hit a lamp standard. He was badly injured and was in hospitals for 60 days these injuries being sustained with no thought of himself but by regard for others.
Another point I would like to bring to the courts attention is Cpl Rogers crime sheet(N.F.W.6) absolutely clean an excellent record as his attestation was 16-4-40 32 months without any crime at all. That gentlemen should mean a lot in awarding punishment.
You have heard the statement made by his Commanding Officer that speaks for itself.
So if it may please the Court I ask on behalf of Cpl Rogers the greatest leniency that they can possibly show.

Abstract of Evidence

In the case of no B 866222 Corporal Charles Rogers 2 Can. Div. Sup. Coy. (6 Coy) R.C.A.S.C.

1st witness for the prosecution

No B 85917 A/Sergeant John A.H. Laird 2 Can. Div. Sup. Coy (6 Coy) RCASC States on 9 Sep 42 I was administration Sergeant in no 2 Transport Platoon the 2 Can. Div Sup. Coy. and B 866222 Cpl C Rogers was in charge of no 4 section of this platoon. On 8 Sep 42 I detailed Canadian Motor cycle 10-40103 for the bread draw, this meant that the Cpl having this Motor cycle in his charge took the bread convoy to Hoos. On 9 Sep 42 Canadian Motor cycle was on the charge of B 866222 Cpl Rogers. His duty while in charge of the bread convoy called for him to take the convoy from his Station at Arundel to Hoos, to supervise the loading then bring the convoy back, his duty did not call for him to be in Brighton.

2nd witness for the prosecution

No B 866410 A/Corporal John Sullen 2 Can. Div. Sup. Coy. (6 Coy) RCASC States on 9 Sep 42 as private in no 2 Transport Platoon I was detailed and went on the bread draw. Abstract of Evidence

3rd witness for the Prosecution

E. H. Botting 28 Crown Street Brighton Sussex

At about 9 o'clock on Wednesday 9th September I was walking East on Western road and was on the North side of the road. Coming from the East on this road was a soldier on a motor cycle travelling about 20 to 25 m.p.h. Just then I saw a man start to cross the road without looking from South to North. The cyclist made an effort to avoid the man by swerving but could not and knocked him down.

4th witness for the Prosecution

Captain Robert W Scott 2 Cdn. Div. Sup. Coy. (6 Coy-1) R.C.A.S.C. Sussex

I am a headquarters Captain in 2 Div. Sup. Coy. and as such know that person such as the head man have no reason to go to Brighton as it is not on the route, the route being from Sup Coy Quarters in Worthing to Poole. I also know that the N.C.O. in charge of the convoy has to supervise the loading of his trucks. On 9 Sept 42 Cpl Rogers who was in charge of his section trucks was not at Hove Co-operative at about 0900 hrs where his duty required him to be.

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following questions:

1. Q. Do you object to being tried by me as President or by any of the other Members of the Court?
1. A. No, sir.

2. Q Do you object to S/Sgt. Spence taking down the evidence in shorthand?
2. A. No, sir.

3. The President, Members of the Court and Shorthand writer are sworn.

4. The accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the two charges.

The accused pleads "Not Guilty by reason of an unbalanced mind"

5. R. P. 39(A) is complied with and the accused answers "No".

6. THE COURT IS ADJOURNED FOR THE PURPOSE OF HAVING THE ACCUSED MENTALLY EXAMINED.

7. The Court is re-opened and the first witness for the Prosecution, Major F. H. Van Nostrand, 11 Cdn Fd. Amb., R.C.A.M.C., is sworn:

Q 1 Will you tell the Court what qualifications you hold in your profession?
A 1 M. D. Toronto, 1927, B.Sc. Toronto, 1929. I have been general psychiatrist for the Department of Pensions and National Health for about 12 years. From September 1, 1939 until coming to the 11 Cdn Fd. Amb. on the 15th of May 1941. I was neuro-psychiatrist to the 15th General Hospital, Bramshott.
Q 2 And you are of the opinion that the accused is mentally and physically fit to stand trial by Court Martial?
A 2 Yes, I have made out a certificate to that effect.

MAJOR LAZIER: Mr. President, in the circumstances I don't feel that I can competently act for the accused. I have not prepared any defence along these lines and I have no knowledge of the conditions that he must be relying upon to make this plea. As far as I, myself, am concerned I am quite willing to accept Major Van Nostrand's certificate, but I think possibly the accused either better ask for another defending officer, or maybe he would like to look after this part of the case himself.

THE PRESIDENT: Pte. Rogers, do you wish to cross-examine Major Van Nostrand?

THE ACCUSED: I don't believe that it can be ascertained by swap judgment in a short period of time such as Major Van Nostrand has made, whether or not a man is of balanced or unbalanced mind.

BY THE ACCUSED

Q 3 Major Van Nostrand what physical check did you make of my condition just now?

A 3 I made a very brief physical examination for two reasons, the chief one was that I had made a much more lengthy examination of the prisoner on May 24th and I have here in my own handwriting the findings of that date, of which this Court has a certified copy. Today's examination was brief, in that the man was stripped and I listened to his heart and to his chest and I noted the tremor of his extended fingers, his bitten finger nails and increased sweating and increased heart. In my certificate I am certifying that he is mentally and physically fit to stand trial and not, as you notice, fit or otherwise to do such things as strenuous manual labour or Field Punishment. If I had not examined Pte. Rogers more fully as of that date I would have conducted a more detailed examination today, but in the brief examination I did conduct there was nothing to indicate that there was anything that would render him unfit to stand trial.

Q 4 Isn't it true that this examination today was purely a physical one, sir?

A 4 No, I asked you a group of questions, one of them being the date and place. You said you had been told repeatedly today that it was the 13th. You answered all questions in a rational manner. In other words you were able to recollect xx as to who you are, where you are, the time of day and the week and the date. The other answers to all questions were not that of a man in a deranged mental condition. If you had answered a single question abnormally, or shown what I consider beha viour delusions the examination would not have been of ten minutes duration.

Q 5 Isn't it true that my answer to one of your questions was: "What the Hell's the use of talking"?

A 5 I believe so

Q 6 Would you consider that a normal answer by a private to a question by a high ranking officer?

A 6 In a psychiatric examination the difference in rank is overlooked by the examining physician, because at the time of that examination he is a physician rather than an officer and to obtain the information necessary he acts as a physician and ignores things that he would not condone on the parade ground. The reason for that is obvious. If a private is brought before a fairly senior officer and is checked for every small statement he makes the information which the physician is trying to obtain is not divulged.

Q 7 Isn't it true, sir, that in cases of insane persons, even persons who have been committed to an institution for the insane, that certain cases are known where a man may be violently insane and perfectly all right at times, that is, that he may be of unbalanced mind one day and perfectly all right the next?

A 7 Yes.

THE PROSECUTOR: I object to that question and the answer. The problem is whether he is fit to be tried today.

THE PRESIDENT: The Court is interested in finding out whether you are fit to stand trial, which involves pleading guilty or not guilty. Now for that reason we are letting you cross-examine Major Van Nostrand. Do you wish to call any witnesses to support your plea of insanity?

THE ACCUSED: Pte. Stone, sir.

The Witness, as to mental fitness, D91913, Pte. Allan A. Stone, RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the accused:

Q 8 Pte. Stone at approximately what date did you first make my acquaintance?

A 8 It would be sometime in April, 1940.

Q 9 Shortly after you joined the army?

A 9 Yes, I joined the Army on the 29th of March.

Q 10 That was in Montreal, Canada?
A 10 Yes.
Q 11 At that time what was your opinion of me-- I mean to say on the mental angle-- was I abnormal?

THE PROSECUTOR: I am not sure that this witness can give opinion evidence as to his mental condition. He can state facts.

Q 12 What was the general opinion, getting to facts, the opinion of the other men in our Company, the 11 Cdn Fd. Amb. details, so called, in that time in Montreal, about me, was I regarded as quite normal at the time?
A 12 Well, you kept by yourself quite a bit, but I don't know if anybody ever thought about you being abnormal at that time.
Q 13 Did I have any moods of depression, or appear as I appear now at that time?
A 13 No, I think you were perfectly all right at that time.
Q 14 How long ago would you say that you noticed a change, or did you notice a change since then?
A 14 Well, yes, about the middle of January, 1941 you were in detention and I used to come over and see you quite often-- as many as sometimes three times a day and your behaviour was very-- well, very unusual anyway. You seemed to be unusually worried about the whole thing and about the confinement. Well, you just didn't make sense.
Q 15 Is it true that at that time you and I were the best of friends?
A 15 Yes, I would say we were the best of friends at all times.
Q 16 Is it true that at some times when you came to see me you were unable to get a word out of me, and then only a bare yes or no?
A 16 Yes, quite often.
Q 17 And at other times I was quite talkative?
A 17 No, I would say you were never very talkative.
Q 18 Did I complain to you about the close confinement in the detention cells in the R.H.L.I. Guard House?
A 18 Yes, many times.
Q 19 Did I say that I hated the horrible nights? When the door was locked?
A 19 Yes, practically every day, every time I saw you
Q 20 Did I say I was pretty tired and worn out at that time and I wasn't sleeping at nights?
A 20 I don't remember you mentioning about being tired but I do remember that you said you didn't sleep nights.
Q 21 Is it true that I complained to you about waking up in the night with nerve twitches?
A 21 Yes, you did.
Q 22 And at various times you have already said I have appeared quite irrational and you, yourself, were worried as to what was the matter with me?
A 22 Yes, I was, very much.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE EVIDENCE ON INSANITY.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE PLEA OF INSANITY IS DISALLOWED BY THE COURT

THE COURT IS ADJOURNED UNTIL 0900 HOURS THURSDAY, 19 JUNE 1941.

THE COURT INFORMED THE ACCUSED THAT A SUITABLE DEFENDING OFFICER WITH LEGAL QUALIFICATIONS WOULD BE PROVIDED TO REPLACE MAJOR LAZIER.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AT 0900 HOURS THURSDAY, 19 JUNE 1941.

LIEUT. T. H. MONTGOMERY HAS BEEN APPOINTED AS DEFENDING OFFICER, REPLACING MAJOR H. F. LAZIER.

LIEUT. T. MIRSKY IS APPOINTED PROSECUTOR, REPLACING LIEUT. J. H. BROUGHALL.

THE CERTIFICATE AS TO MEDICAL FITNESS IS PRODUCED.

The 2nd Witness for the Prosecution, B37063, Pte. R. J. Greenaway, R.H.L.I., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q 23 What were your duties on 17 Feb 41?
A 23 I was guard on the R.H.L.I.
Q 24 Would you please tell the Court any interesting incident that you know took place on that particular date?
A 24 One of the prisoners which I was guarding escaped.
Q 25 What was the prisoner's name?
A 25 Private Rogers.
Q 26 Is that the accused?
A 26 Yes, sir.
Q 27 Would you please tell the circumstances involved in the escape, as far as you were concerned?
A 27 I was ordered by the Sgt. of the Guard to escort Pte. Rogers to the R.A.P.
Q 28 At what time was this?
A 28 Between the hours of nine and ten.
Q 29 In the evening?
A 29 Yes, sir.
Q 30 Yes?
A 30 And on arriving at the R.A.P. there was no M.O. there and so we had to wait until the M.O. came and during that time there was two orderlies there and they took Pte. Rogers' temperature and said he would have to wait until the M.O. came and in the meantime Pte. Rogers made an excuse he had to go to the latrines and on doing so he got up and went to the latrines.
Q 31 How far from the R.A.P. were the latrines?
A 31 He could either have gone upstairs to the latrines, so he said, and anyway he got there before me. I saw where he went but I couldn't see--
Q 32 Do you mean he got up and walked out absolutely by himself to go to the latrines?
A 32 He got to the door ahead of me and it was one of those nights you couldn't see your hand in front of your face.
Q 33 Did you make any attempt to follow him?
A 33 Knowing he had gone we immediately searched the building.
Q 34 In the interval of time which elapsed between the time he left the building and the time you searched for him, how long would that be?
A 34 About half a minute.
Q 35 Yes?
A 35 And then I immediately reported to the Guard Sergeant.
Q 36 Who was that?
A 36 Sgt. Bishop.
Q 37 After you reported to Sgt. Bishop what did you do?
A 37 That was left in the sergeant's hands. He got the Orderly Officer.
Q 38 Did you assist in the search for Rogers?
A 38 Yes, sir.
Q 39 How long did you search?
A 39 Between five and ten minutes.
Q 40 Were any statements made in the presence of Pte. Rogers by the orderlies concerning Pte. Rogers' condition?
A 40 I believe one of the orderlies said he still had a temperature of 100 and something.
Q 41 Can you be more exact?
A 41 It is pretty hard to recall, it has been quite some time.
Q 42 How was he dressed at the time of this incident?

A 42 He had on his uniform and I believe he had a great coat-- I am not sure whether he had a respirator and steel helmet with him or not
Q 43 Did you have any instructions regarding releasing him?
A 43 No, sir.
Q 44 Did you know Pte. Rogers at the time you were acting as escort for him?
A 44 Only his name from being a prisoner.
Q 45 Had you seen him before that time?
A 45 No, sir.
Q 46 Have you seen him since the time he made the alleged escape and the 17th of February, 1941 and the 24th of April, 1941. Did you see him in between these two times?
A 46 I couldn't say, that is the only time I seen him from the time he escaped was when he was brought back, when I was in the 11 Fd. Amb. Orderly Room.
Q 47 About what date was that?
A 47 They summonsed me to go to the 11th Field. It could be checked up.
Q 48 Can you state it was after the 24th of April?
A 48 I coudn't swear to itxxxx exactly.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 49 You say one of the Orderlies said that Pte. Rogers had a temperature of over a hundred?
A 49 Yes, sir.

The 3rd Witness for the prosecution, A27191, Sgt. Peakes, H. 11 Cdn Fd. Amb., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q 50 Sgt/ What were your duties on 17 Feb 41?
A 50 I was on duty the 17th of Feb 41, if that is the date Pte. Rogers escaped.
Q 51 Have you ever seen Pte. Rogers before?
A 51 Yes, sir.
Q 52 Will you describe the times you saw him and what took place at these particular times?
A 52 He came sometimes in the morning after sick parade and had his temperature taken, perhaps again in the afternoon and sometimes in the evening.
Q 53 How long ago was this?
A 53 I couldn't remember but it was just previous to his escape.
Q 54 Previous to the time you had heard of his escape?
A 54 He was practically in every day for a check.
Q 55 Did he come in himself or was he escorted?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I don't think this is relevant; apparently these ocasions had nothing to do with the time of his escape.

THE PROSECUTOR: If Mr. Montgomery is going to use the accused's physical condition in the course of his argument I only want the Sgt.'s evidence as to his physical condition.

Q 56 Now, you said that he had made frequent visits to the R.A.F. regarding the state of his health, and you made some intimation that these visits were frivolous?
A 56 He was not ill, sir, at any time. At one time he wasn't very well that was in the afternoon around 4:30.
Q 57 Did Pte. Rogers ever make any statement about the visits, these visits being frivolous?
A 57 He said he liked to get out and get some fresh air.
Q 58 You mean that is the only reason he came up to the R.A.F.?
A 58 That is the way I took it, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q 59 You said that the accused was ill at one time?
A 59 Yes, he said he wasn't very well at one time.
Q 60 He wasn't always pretending not to be well?
A 60 That is correct.
Q 61 Over how long a period did this business of visiting the R.A.F. last?
A 61 Well, if you will tell me how long he was in the Guard House before he escaped/

(Cross-Examination concluded)

The 4th witness for the prosecution, A27162, Pte. C.W. Miller, 11 Cdn Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q 62 Would you tell the Court what your duties consisted of on 17 Feb 41?
A 62 I was on duty at the R.A.P. We had no patients, we were just there.
Q 63 What was the nature of your duties?
A 63 We were looking after patients.
Q 64 Were there any other soldiers in the R.A.P.
A 64 No, sir.
Q 65 Have you ever seen Pte. Rogers before?
A 65 Not until that night.
Q 66 Would you tell the Court what happened that particular night?
A 66 He and the guard came up and came in the R.A.P. He said he wanted some cough medicine and I went over to the dispensary and looked in the room, but he wasn't there and I said if they would come back in about an hour he would be back, so they came back in about an hour and the Sgt. still wasn't there, but the second time he had a fever, so I took his temperature; it was around 99 and he said he had to go upstairs to go to the toilet and he went upstairs and he never came down.
Q 67 Did you xxi aid in the search for Rogers?
A 67 We checked upstairs.
Q 68 Have you seen Rogers since the 17 Feb 41 until the 24 Apr 41?
A 68 I am not sure, sir.
Q 69 Have you noticed him about the barracks?
A 69 No, sir.
Q 70 When was the last time you saw Pte. Rogers?
A 70 In the 11th Fed. Amb. Guard room
Q 71 At the time of the Court of Inquiry?
A 71 Yes, sir.
Q 72 What is the normal temperature of an individual?
A 72 98.
Q 73 Would you call 99 excessive, in your own experience?
A 73 I don't think he would be very sick with 99.
Q 74 Are you on duty regularly in the R.A.P.?
A 74 I was for three weeks.
Q 75 Before that?
A 75 Yes, sir.
Q 76 You hadn't seen Rogers there before?
A 76 No, sir, that was the first time.
Q 77 Could anybody have heard you saying his temperature was over 100 at that time?
A 77 I don't think so.

THE DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS:

The 5th Witness for the Prosecution, D91386, Sgt. R.F. Colthorpe, R.C.A.S.C., att'd as in W.L. to 11 Cdn Fd. Amb., having been duly sworn, is examined:

A 78 Yes, sir.
Q 79 Did any incident involving Pte. Rogers take place on that particular date?
A 79 Yes, sir.
Q 80 Would you please tell the Court what happened?
A 80 I had returned from my quarters on that date. I met the accused man in the premises. At that time it was the R.A.P., and I asked him how was he doing and he said he was a little unwell and I went upstairs to my quarters and left him downstairs in the R.A.P.
Q 81 When was the next time you saw him?
A 81 When he returned to Camp after he had been A.W.L.
Q 82 Could you give the approximate date?
A 82 I would say the 27th of April.

Q 83 How did you become aware of the fact that he had returned to barracks?
A 83 One of my corporals reported to me that he had seen him in the lines-- Cpl. Frost.
Q 84 And then what did you do?
A 84 I gave him an order to go and get the man and put him in detention and I seen the man later that afternoon when I was detailed to take him to Bordon with an escort.
Q 85 How was he dressed?
A 85 Civilian clothing. He had on a pair of boots which I would say were military boots and no hat of any description.
Q 86 Did he make any remarks as to where he had been?
A 86 Not to me-- in general.
Q 87 Did he make any remarks to you that would enable you to make any suggestions as to where he had been?
A 87 Yes, his remarks were that he had gone to Liverpool and from there he had been in Ireland, both north and south, and then he had been on a vessel, a liner of some description to get back to Canada, but after he got some 200 miles from shore the boat was supposed to have been torpedoed and they were picked up and brought back to the shores of England and then they made their way back to Aldershot
Q 88 You heard this statement yourself?
A 88 Yes, sir, right out of the accused's mouth.

THE DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS

The 6th witness for the Prosecution, D92036, Cpl. Frost, S. W., 11 Cdn Fd. Amb. having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q 89 The 24th of April should be a significant date in your mind. Will you please tell the Court anything that took place on that date?
A 89 I was ordered by Sgt. Colthorpe to take two men down and place them under arrest.
Q 90 Just a minute, start right from the beginning?
A 90 I seen them first and then reported to Sgt. Colthorpe.
Q 91 Who was he with?

A 92 No, sir. And I reported to Sgt. Colthorpe and he told me to take two men down and place him under arrest.
Q 93 How was he dressed?
A 93 Civilian clothes.
Q 94 Did he make any statement as to where he had been?
A 94 Ireland.
Q 95 Would you repeat to the Court what statement he made as to his previous whereabouts?
A 95 He said he had been to Ireland. He had been out at sea 400 miles and they were torpedoed and brought back.
Q 96 Did he say where he was going at the time?
A 96 He said he was going home to turn himself in.
Q 97 That is the essence of the statement-- he was going home to turn himself in?
A 97 Yes, sir.
Q 98 Did he make any other statements as to his whereabouts, or as to his intention?
A 98 No, sir, not that I remember.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q 99 Is it not true Corporal Frost that the accused said to you, at the time you asked, that he and his companion were going to give themselves up in Canada and get it off their chests?
A 99 Yes, sir.

The 7th Witness for the Prosecution, A27002, S/Sgt. Tipping, C.G., 11 Cdn Fd. Amb., having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q 100 What are your duties with the 11 Cdn Fd. Amb.?
A 100 Orderly Room sergeant.
Q 101 Were you in complete charge of the Orderly Room?
A 101 Yes, sir.
Q 102 The senior N.C.O.?
A 102 Yes, sir.
Q 103 Tell the Court what happened on 17 Feb 41 as regards the accused?
A 103 At about 1930 hours on that day I was in the Orderly Room and the guard from the R.H.L.I. came over and told me Pte. Rogers had broken away from his escort--

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Just a minute, this is hearsay evidence.

Q 104 In your position as senior N.C.O. in the orderly room you are familiarx with part II Orders. What was the exact status of Pte. Rogers on 17 Feb 41?
A 104 According to a copy of the part II Orders of No. 2 Petrol Coy. on the 10th of February he was on the strength of the Holding Unit. He wasn't on our strength on 17 Feb 41.
Q 105 To your knowledge, what was Pte. Rogers status on 17 Feb 41?
A 105 He was on strength of No. 1 Holding Unit, R.C.A.S.C., through the 2 Cdn Div. Petrol Coy. He was awarded 35 days detention and was automatically struck off strength of our unit back th the 2nd Div. Petrol Coy. and through them to the Holding Unit.
Q 106 You also made the entry regarding his return, after being taken on strength?
A 106 Yes, sir.
Q 107 Would you tell the Court, and you will subsequently confirm this with the part II Order?
A 107 He was taken back on strength on a special order issued by records. He was automatically to be taken back on his original unit, and if necessary carried supernumerayy to the strength. Pte. Rogers returned at 1530 hours on 24 Apr 41, in civilian clothes.
Q 108 Did you see him in civilian dress?
A 108 No, sir, I kdidn't see him until 1600 hours, but I had come back from leave that day and the first greeting I had was that Ptes. Rogers and Stone had returned.
Q 109 But in any event Pte. Rogers returned, to your knowledge, on the 24th day of April?
A 109 That is according to Part II Orders.

THE DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE PROSECUTOR:

That is the evidence for the prosecution.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

D E F E N C E

R. P. 40 is complied with and the accused elects to give evidence under oath.

The 2nd Witness for the Defence, D105518, Pte. Charles Allan Rogers, the accused, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q 110 What were you doing in civilian life before joining the army?
A 110 Immediately before joining the army I was employed by the Coca-Cola Coy. of Rhode Island, U.S.A.
Q 111 What were you doing for them?
A 111 I was doing a combined advertising and selling job, known as a sign spotter.
Q 112 Both advertising and selling?
A 112 Yes, sir.
Q 113 How long were you working at that job?
A 113 I worked at that job from 1937, in June, until February, 1940, when I left Providence to go to Montreal.
Q 114 Making a total time of--
A 114 Almost three years.
Q 115 What about before that?
A 115 I was employed as salesman in the New England States. I had part of New Hampshire and Massachussetts, and part of the state of Maine.
Q 116 What Company?
A 116 Stilson Coy., Inc., Providence, R.I.
Q 117 What education have you had?
A 117 High school and three years University at Brown University, Providence.
Q 118 How did you come to join the Canadian Army?
A 118 It was never my intention of going to Canada to join the Canadian Army, but my intention was to volunteer for air crew duties with the R.C.A.F.
Q 119 How did you happen to get into the 11 Cdn Fd. Amb?
A 119 On arriving in Montreal I found that the R.C.A.F. at that time were not recruiting for air crews and I had maintained myself in Montreal for appoximately five weeks, during which time I went down to the recruiting offices practically daily and always received the same answer, that they were not recruiting for air crews that day. During this time I got acquainted with a M.P.A.M. officer and he, at that time was attached to the 4th Divisional Signals at the armoury on Bleury Street in Montreal. He suggested that where my ambition was to get into flying that I attend a class at the Bleury St. Armoury which he was conducting, in elementary Morse. I did so join his M.P.A.M. class in elementary Morse and continued for three nights each week for a period of a month. At the end of that time I was becoming increasing impatient about the delay in getting into active service with the Air Force and on his suggestion to me that the solution of my problem was to join a Canadian unit that was slated to go overseas very soon, with the object that once I had arrived here in England that, with my qualifications, my having had elementary ground training in the US.A. in flying and proper educational qualification, and in view of the fact that I fell within the right age group to become a pilot, I would have not have any difficulty once I was here in England, in being transferred, or at least being released from the Canadian Army to volunteer for flying or crew duties with the Royal Air Force.
Q 120 Did you follow that suggestion?
A 120 I did, sir, I went to M.D.4 recruiting depot at Place Viger Hotel in Montreal and checked with the officer i/c recruiting there and on his advice, in accordance with the advice that had been given me, the officer concurred with the suggestion, and he expressed all confidence that once I was in England I would have no difficulty in transferring from one service to the other, and I followed his suggestion.
Q 121 Did you come overseas with that unit then?
A 121 Yes, they were recruiting at that time the M.T. Sections, or at or at least the details for the three Field Ambulances in the 2nd Division. I was attested first and then taken to St. Helen's Island and there sworn in and assigned to the 11th Field Ambulance.

Q 122 When you got here did you make any effort to be transferred to the R.A.F.?

A 122 Yes, sir, immediately on arrival in England, the first or second week, I obtained a week-end pass and went, in company with Pte. Stone, to London, to the Air Ministry at Astral House, in Kingsway, in London.

Q 123 Did you have any success there?

A 123 We went there mainly to enquire as to the proper procedure to go about being released and getting into the R.A.F.

Q 124 What did they tell you?

A 124 We were there told by the Information Bureau that it was being done, transfers were being made in several cases, although they were not numerous and that the proper procedure was for us to make application to our O.C. of our Unit and if the O.C. approved he would forward it on to Divisional Headquarters and they in turn would approve it.

Q 125 Did you apply to your O.C.?

A 125 I did.

Q 126 What happened after that?

A 126 My application was taken into the O.C. and he approved it, seemed quite enthusiastic about it and gave me a good recommendation. He said it was necessary I sign certain waivers, waiving rights of transportation back to Canada, any compensation or credit from the Canadian Army, which I actually did. These papers were made out and attached to my application which was forwarded to 2 Cdn Div. H.Q.

Q 127 Did you hear anything more about it?

A 127 About two months later I was paraded to our orderly room to find out if anything had come of it yet and was told that nothing had come through. This application originally went in, I should say, around the latter part of September, or the 1st of October, 1940 and then it was around just previous to Christmas that I inquired about it

Q 128 At about what time did you absent yourself from the Unit?

A 128 On the 17 Feb 41.

Q 129 At that time then you had received no further word on your application?

A 129 No, sir.

Q 130 What was your physical condition at the time of absenting yourself?

A 130 For two or three days immediately previous to the 17th I was running an extremely high temperature and was in an extremely nervous state. I was sleeping very little at night.

Q 131 When you left and went to Ireland what was the object you had in view. What did you intend to do?

A 131 In my mind at that time I felt that it was useless to wait any longer for any application on this transfer into the Air Force. I felt in my own mind that the sentence which I was serving at the time of leaving was unjust. My intention was to go back to Canada and present my case to as high a military circle as possible in Canada. I hopes that they might still see fit to transfer me into the R.C.A.F.

Q 132 So you wanted to get back to Canada to get to the root of the matter and effect your transfer there. Is that the case?

A 132 Yes, sir, it always struck me on this side that the only chance I had was to get back to Canada and put my case to the authorities there. I felt that the authorities here were too busy with other matters, our orderly room was always busy, they were flooded with applications for transfers and I felt that months would drag on.

Q 133 Have you any evidence to put forward to show that while you were in Ireland you intended to remain a part of the Army.

A 133 The fact that I always carefully retained my Pay Book. I made no attempt to rid myself of it. On the contrary I always kept it very safely, either on my person or among my effects, while at the same time not knowing how the Government of Eire would regard a person of my status. It might be said that if I were picked up, simply claiming American Citizenship, as I was, with that in my pocket, it would prejudice my standing in the eyes of the Irish Government.

Q 134 Why did you take off your Uniform? And get yourself civilian clothes?

A 134 I took off my uniform in Belfast, after crossing the Irish Sea from Stranear, Scotland, to Belfast and going from there by train to Belfast I knew that it was quite necessary, on entering a neutral country, to be in civilian clothes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q 135 Rogers you said that you enlisted in April, 1940?
A 135 That is right.
A 136 Therefore, at the time of your trip to Ireland you had been in the army approximately a year?
A 136 Yes, sir.
Q 137 You were aware of the fact that you could even appeal from the Commanding Officer to a higher authority?
A 137 Yes, sir.
Q 138 Therefore, if you had any grievances you were fully aware of the right method of rectifying them?
A 138 Yes, sir.
Q 139 Instead, you chose another method, namely trying to contact the higher authorities in Canada?
A 139 Just for the reason I had several rather startling experiences in trying to reach my Commanding Officers here.
Q 140 Would you like to enumerate some of these experiences?
A 140 I had often asked to be paraded and was never taken seriously by the N.C.O.
Q 141 Are you sure you weren't properly paraded?
A 141 No, sir.
Q 142 You never at any time had contact with officers concerning your desire to join the R.C.A.F.?
A 142 Yes, sir, I have been paraded on several occasions.
Q 143 You have no reason to state, then, that your request wasn't properly forwarded by the officers?
A 143 No, sir.
Q 144 Well, then as far as you are concerned you had no reason to resort to other methods, when you are not objecting to the methods being properly carried out?
A 144 I only objected to the long delay of four months.
Q 145 Now, during this year's service in the army you got acquainted with army discipline?
A 145 Yes, sir.
Q 146 What date did you arrive in Ireland?
A 146 I should say 25 Feb 41.
Q 147 And what date did you leave Ireland to come back to England?
A 147 I left Eire on April 21st or 22nd.
Q 148 In other words you were in Ireland nearly a month?
A 148 Nearly two months.
Q 149 At what date did you arrive back to Ireland after your unfortunate attempt to cross the Atlantic Ocean?
A 149 I believe it was the 8th of April.
Q 150 How soon after you got back to Ireland did you attempt to get back to England?
A 150 Not until the 22nd.
Q 151 It was nearly two weeks?
A 151 Yes, sir.
Q 152 Did it take you that length of time in order for you to decide to do the right thing?
A 152 No, sir, during that length of time that elapsed during the 8th and 22nd we were attempting to ascertain what to do.
Q 153 You mean you were attempting to decide in your own mind, or were you doing something towards getting back?
A 153 We were trying to decide in our own minds.
Q 154 It took you two weeks of sitting around Ireland to decide whether you should come back to England or not?
A 154 That was quite a decision to make.
Q 155 During that time how did you occupy yourself?
A 155 In reading and checking on the possibility of getting another boat.

Q 156 Were you deprived of any opportunities for reading during your stay in the 11 Cdn Fd. Amb.?
A 156 Only while in detention. I could have bought periodicals on the outside.
Q 157 There was plenty of literature of all types if you had wanted it?
A 157 Not of all types. Plenty of pulp magazines.
Q 158 Did you ever try Boots Rental Libraries A 158 Yes,sir.
Q 159 Were you satisfied with the quantity of material there?
A 159 Yes, sir. When I could afford it.
Q 160 Did you find that your surroundings were such that they stunted your hunger for learning?
A 160 Yes, sir.
Q 161 And you state the reason for that is that literature wasn't available?
Q 162 That is right.
Q 163 And where did you try to get this literature?
A 163 At every opportunity and when I had the money I bought it on the outside.
Q 164 Did you ever approach the Canadian Legion War Services?
A 164 No, sir.
Q 165 Did you ever approach the Hunter's Library over here?
A 165 No, sir.
Q 166 Where did you sail from Scotland?
A 166 Stranear.
Q 167 How did you pass the authorities there?
A 167 With a fabricated pass.
Q 168 And where did you get that pass?
A 168 We made them up while in Liverpool overnight
Q 169 Where did you get the forms?
A 169 At a stationer's, they weren't regulation army forms.
Q 170 You have said in evidence given in the Court of Inquiry that you made these forms on passes you had from Camp Borden. Did you get your forms in Camp Borden, Ontario?
A 170 I was carrying several long out-dated passes.
A 171 Where did you get these?
A 171 Camp Borden.
Q 172 Why did you take these extra forms at Camp Borden, Ontario?
A 172 They were expired passes
Q 173 Why were you carrying them?
A 173 I think if a check were made, I think most every fellow has some. I was carrying them for no nefarious purpose; they could not have been altered.
Q 174 But you subsequently used them?
A 174 No, sir, we didn't use these passes.
Q-175 Were you at any time A.W.L. from your unit prior to this last occasion?
A 175 Yes, sir, I believe the MP.M. 6 will show two A.W.L. remarks
Q 176 In other words you have been A.W.L. twice and you have been charged with being a deserter the third time and on the basis of that you still insist that you had no intention of using this Camp Borden passes?
A 176 I don't think they could be used as a pass.
Q 177 Now, you stated you kept your Pay Book?
A 177 Yes,sir.
Q 178 Is it not true that some of the money you obtained in Ireland and your transportation was obtained on the basis of your presenting your Pay Book?
A 178 Only an amount of five shillings,obtained in Belfast.
Q 179 Well, you obtained your ticket from the R.T.O., did you not, on presenting your service book?
A 179 No, sir.
Q 180 You didn't present your service book to obtain your ticket from the R.T.O.?
A 180 No, sir.
Q 181 You couldn't get money without it,isn't that right?
A 181 We had plenty of money.
Q 182 Where did you get the money?
A 183 By cable from America
Q 184 Where did you intend to go from Ireland?

A 184 To Canada to report to the Military authorities there
Q 185 Where was the ship bound?
A 185 New York, but we intended to go on to Montreal by rail.
Q 186 Assuming you would have been able to obtain transport across the Atlantic would you still have returned to England?
A 186 You mean after the torpedoing?
A 187 Yes?
A 187 I couldn't say what my intention was.
Q 188 How do you know there were no other ships available?
A 188 We were told that.
Q 189 And you made no further attempt to cross to America?
A 189 We knew perfectly well there were no more ships.
Q 190 Now, you made a statement: "Pte. Stone and I hereby appeal to whatever properly constituted authority of the Canadian Army Overseas, on the grounds we are both unlikely to become efficient soldiers, our whole desire is to return to civilian life"?
A 190 Yes, sir.
Q 191 Now, on the basis of this statement, did you intend on arrival in Canada to remain in the Canadian Army?
A 191 Yes. That was, of course, up to the Canadian Army.
Q 192 What did you intend to do when you got to Canada?
A 192 Report to the military authorities and appeal for a discharge.
Q 193 Why didn't you adopt that method here?
A 193 We found it impossible, sir.
Q 194 Well, at any rate, when you escaped detention here, you intended, or did you intend to leave the army?
A 194 No, sir.
Q 195 Will you just repeat your intention?
A 195 My intention at no time was to desert the army and return to the United States and just let the thing hang over my head.

BY THE COURT:
Q 196 You borrowed ten shillings from the Trade Commissioner?
A 196 I presume you refer to the time at Belfast when we obtained, I think five shillings each from, I believe it was a fund that was set up there by the Canadian Bureau of Trade, or whatever it was called there in Belfast.
Q 197 Why did you borrow this money?
A 197 Because at that time we were running short of our initial money, that was before we were able to send a cable to America.
Q 198 Did you borrow any money subsequently?
A 198 Yes, before we left Ireland we presented ourselves to the Acting High Commissioner for Canada in Dublin, who advanced us 1o shillings for incidental expenses, along with the ticket.
Q 199 Why did you need the 10 shillings?
A 199 Because at that time we were rather low in funds between cables.
Q 200 How many cables did you send?
A 200 I believe we received five lots of money while we were there, in all a total of over $200.
Q 201 You went to the Salvation Army and you claim you left your uniforms there and got civilian clothes?
A 201 Yes.
Q 202 What was your reason for doing that?
A 202 Because we knew it was impossible to cross into Eire in uniform.
Q 203 And not having a pass you were willing to take a chance.
A 203 Well, actually I did have a pass that I knew then would stand scrutiny.
Q 204 Why did you go to Eire?
A 204 To get a boat, it was a neutral port.
Q 205 You know there are several more neutral ports on the way to Belfast?
A 205 No, sir, not that I know of.
Q 206 There are more ships go from Belfast than any other port in Ireland?
A 206 That is true, but we were told in Liverpool. That is true, but we were told at the time that there were several neutral boats in Eire. We knew at that time that it would be practically impossible to ship as seamen on a British boat, because of the necessity of being a member of the British Merchant Navy.
Q 207 Are you aware that neutral ships were more liable to be calling at Belfast than at Dublin?

A 207 No, sir.
Q 208 You claim you were torpedoed. Do you remember what kind of a boat picked you up?
A 208 Yes, it was what I would describe as a small destroyer; about the smallest destroyer I have ever seen.
Q 209 What nationality?
A 209 I assumed and I still believe it was British.
Q 210 You didn't see any colours flying?
A 210 No.
Q 211 Where were you landed?
A 211 At a point near Claway.
Q 212 What did the sailors have on their hats?
A 212 I think, as far as I can recall, simply "H.M.S."
Q 213 What time was it you arrived at Galway?
A 213 It was in the evening, very nearly dark
Q 214 Did you have to produce any credentials before they allowed you to proceed?
A 214 Only American birth certificates.
Q 215 Did you produce any credentials aboard the destroyer?
A 215 Yes, someone looked at my birth certificate aboard the destroyer/ And again on landing the authorities ~~xhx~~ checked each man's papers before allowing us to go on our way.
Q 216 Did you show your Pay Book then?
A 216 No, sir.
Q 217 But you had your Pay Book?
A 217 Yes, sir.

2nd WITNESS
A27017 S/SGT. WILSON, A.M. 11th CDN. Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., after being duly sworn, states:-

Q. What evidence can you give regarding these charges against Pte. Rogers?
A. I was called on the evening of February 17th to see Pte. Rogers, who was reporting sick at the R.A.P., and when I came down to the R.A.P., Pte. Rogers had gone. The Guard told me that he had gone to the toilet. About 5 minutes later the Guard discovered that Pte. Rogers had left the R.A.P. altogether. That is all I know sir. I didn't see the man at all.

Q. You say this happened on the night of Feb. 17th?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. About what time would that be when he reported to the R.A.P. and you were notified?
A. I should think about 2230 hours.
Q. Had you been on duty at the R.A.P?
A. I wasn't on duty. I was relieving Sgt. Peaker, who was away, and I was relieving for that evening.
Q. Just that evening?
A. I was relieving him while he was on leave. I was doing duty in the evening for Sgt. Marshall at the R.A.P. I was in my quarters.
Q. Had you seen Pte. Rogers before in the R.A.P?
A. Not that I am aware of sir. Not that day or evening. I may have seen him previously.
Q. Do you remember definitely whether you had seen him previously?
A. No, I can't sir.
Q. About how long after you got the message was it before you arrived at the R.A.P?
A. It was just a matter of the time it took me to come down stairs. I live in the room above the R.A.P.
Q. Did you hear anything going on?
A. No, I didn't sir.
Q. Did you hear anybody come in just previous to the time you were notified that there was a patient down in the R.A.P?
A. I could have heard a door open and closing. I could have heard anybody going into the building. I wouldn't be positive where they were going. I wouldn't be positive that I heard anybody go into the R.A.P.
Q. Did you hear anybody leave?
A. No, sir.

D105518 Pte. Rogers, C.A. declined to question the Witness

Lee Wilson

3rd WITNESS
B37004 SGT. BISHOP J.H.E. R.H.L.I. of Canada, after being duly sworn, states:-

Q. Were you in charge of the Guard Room of the R.H.L.I. at that time, the 17th Feb.?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many men are in the Guard?
A. 12 men, sir.
Q. Had Pte. Rogers been confined to the Guard Room?
A. Yes, sir. He had been confined for some time. I was on Guard on several occasions, and he was still there.
Q. Could you say how long the accused had been confined?
A. No, sir. I could'nt.
Q. Do you recall that on the 17th Feb. he was in the Guard Room at some time during the day?
A. He was in the Guard Room when I took over the Guard at 7 o'clock that day.
Q. Could you tell us what happened after you took over the Guard?
A. I should say approximately around 1930 he said that he was sick. He had been previously during the day to the R.A.P. and had a temperature. I sent him to the R.A.P. again under escort. The escort brought him back and reported him with a temperature of over 100, and to report again around 9 o'clock when the M.O. would be present. I sent him out again a little after 9 o'clock, under another escort, and they must have been gone approximately 20 minutes to a half hour, when my escort returned and said that the prisoner had escaped. That is all I can give on my own knowledge, sir. I then notified this Orderly Room, and also the R.H.L.I. Orderly Room.
Q. How many times, as far as you know, was the accused escorted to the R.A.P. during that time?
A. Twice to my knowledge, sir.
Q. Can you state the times?
A. Yes, sir. The first time was about 1920 or 1930, just after I took over the Guard, and it would be around 2100 hours, because my Cpl. had just changed the sentries that I sent him up the 2nd time.

Q. How many escorts did you send with Pte. Rogers?
A. One, sir.
Q. Was there any particular reason for having one?
A. I figured a man with a temperature over 100 would be in no condition to escape, otherwise I would have sent 2.
Q. What made you believe this man had a temperature?
A. My man, the first escort, came back from the R.A.P., and reported that to us, when they told the sentry at the R.A.P. to bring him back again. The reason the same escort didn't go back again was because he had been posted as a sentry at that time.
Q. Was all of Pte. Rogers' equipment with him at the Guard House?
A. I couldn't say about that sir. Different Sgts. take over each day, and the equipment is generally taken charge of by the Police when the man is turned into the Guard Room.
Q. Was there any equipment there after he left?
A. Not to my knowledge, sir. He only had just a towel and soap.
Q. Do you mean that that was left when he escaped?
A. That was all I could find, and I turned that over to the other Sgt.
Q. Did you see Pte. Rogers yourself just previous to leaving the 2nd time for the R.A.P?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was he wearing at that time?
A. Serge and an overcoat and a cap, sir.

Questions by D105518 Pte. Rogers, C.A.
Q. Wasn't it true that on the date of Feb. 17th, regulations were in force at the R.H.L.I Guard House that each prisoner committed there from an outside Unit was to be accompanied by his full equipment, including 4 blankets, and that such equipment must be taken with him into his cell, less the blankets, which were stored on a rack in the main Guard Room?
A. As far as that goes, I don't know whether or not any orders were issued to that effect. Any man coming into the Guard Room, his equipment is generally taken from him and stored in a room by the Police, and all he has in his cell with him is his Respirator, Steel Helmet, and shaving and washing materials.
Q. That is the regulation in effect at the present date, but at that time was not the reverse true, namely that he must have all equipment in the cell?
A. Not to my knowledge.

D105518 Pte. Rogers, C.A. declines to question the Witness further.

.....J.H.F. Bishop, Sgt.....

4th WITNESS
B37063 PTE. GREENAWAY, R.J., R.H.L.I. of CANADA, after being duly sworn, stateas-

Q. Were you on Guard in the Guard Room of the R.H.L.I. on Feb. 17th, 1941?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember Pte. Rogers?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was he a prisoner in Detention?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What can you tell me regarding (as far as evidence goes) these charges?
A. I was ordered by the Guard Sgt. to escort Pte. Rogers over to the R.A.P. and in doing so he escaped.
Q. Who ordered you to take the accused over to the R.A.P?
A. The Sgt. of the Guard.
Q. At what time would this be?
A. It would be between 2100 and 2200 hours.
Q. Were you the lone escort?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Can you tell us exactly what happened at the R.A.P?
A. When I entered the R.A.P., there were 2 Orderlies there, and one of them proceeded to take Roger's temperature, and then there was quite a bit of stalling around, they said that he had to wait for the M.O. to arrive, so we sat there for quite some time and Pte. Rogers made the excuse that he had to go to the latrine. In doing so he got to the door first and he could have either gone upstairs or out to the side door, and being so dark I could not see exactly which way he went. We searched upstairs, went down outside to the latrines, and then one of the Orderlies took me to his room and still we could find no trace of Rogers. Therefore I reported to the Guard Sgt. as soon as possible.

Q. Do you know whether or not Pte. Rogers had any temperature?
A. His temperature was taken as soon as we got there, and one of the Orderlies remarked that it was still up. That is why we were waiting for the M.O.
Q. How long did you search for Pte. Rogers?
A. About 10 minutes.
Q. You mentioned that you searched his room, which room, in the Barracks, or in the Detention?
A. In the Barracks. The Orderly went through the room.
Q. I understood you to say you searched the R.A.P, and upstairs. Is that right?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know who the Orderlies were?
A. I don't know their names, sir.

5th WITNESS.
A27002 A/S/SGT. TIPPING, C.G. 11th CDN. Field Ambulance, after having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Can you tell me anything as far as records go regarding Pte. Rogers?
A. All I know is at about 2130 hours on the 17th February, a Guard Commander of the R.H.L.I. (I happened to be in the Orderly Room at the time) reported that Pte. Rogers had escaped. I made a note of it, and that was all that was done that night. The next day descriptions were made out and sent to the R.H.L.I. That is allm I know regarding the escape from the escort. Regarding the Desertion, a record shows this man was S.O.S. this Unit on the award of 35 days Detention on the 10th February. He escaped from the escort, occurring on the 17th, did not obligate this Unit making any records, but in conjunction with the Adjutant of the R.H.L.I., records were made to the Pay Office, and certain articles of Kit left in the Guard Room were sent over to #1 Holding Unit. On his return at 1330 hours on the 24th April, he was T.O.S., Supernumerary to Establishment, and placed under Close Arrest. These records were entered in Part II Orders, and the Pay Office notified of his return.
Q. You stated that he was S.O.S. What Unit was he S.O.S. to?
A. #1 Holding Unit, R.C.A.M.C.
Q. Was it to that Unit that his equipment went?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was a Court of Inquiry held?
A. Not in this Unit. Not at that time. Later there has been.
Q. Was that after his return?
A. Yes, sir. After his return.
Q. So far as our Records show, this man was not on our strength at the time of his escape?
A. No, sir. He was S.O.S. on the 10th February 1941.

D91366 SGT. COLTHORPE, B.P., R.C.A.S.C., attached as in W.E. to 11th CDN. Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., after being duly sworn, states:-

Q. What can you tell us regarding these charges against Pte. Rogers?
A. On the 17th February, sir, I had returned from Leave, which was after dark, approximately after 2100 hours, when I met the accused in the hall of the Sgts. sleeping quarters over the R.A.P. I asked him how he was getting along. He replied he wasn't feeling well. I then went over to the Sgts' Mess, and after a short time, a Private from the R.H.L.I. came over and asked me if I knew where the accused was. My reply was no, he should be in the Guard Room. That was the last I heard of the accused until I ordered him to be put under arrest when he returned to Camp. At that time he was wearing civilian clothing. Suit, topcoat, and no hat. That is my story on that, sir.

Q. When ~~were~~ you were notified of his disappearance on February 17th, did you search for him?
A. Yes, sir. I went to look around his quarters, through the garden, and up in the rooms of the Sgts' Quarters or the R.A.P., and saw no signs of him.
Q. Did he previous to his disappearance given any indications whatsoever that he might disappear?
A. No, sir.
Q. When he returned, did he tell you where he had been, or why he had gone, or why he came back?
A. Nothing direct to me.
Q. Do you mean nothing that you had heard, or was it just to a group around you?
A. It was to a bunch of people.
Q. So far as you know, did he bring any equipment of a Military nature with him when he returned?
A. No, sir. I am just under the impression that he had heavy Army Boots.
Q. Why do you think so?
A. They were a large pair of boots, and they were not polished. They looked like Army boots to me.
Q. Do you recall the date he returned?
A. It was the 24th, and just after Roll Call. As close as I can remember it would be 1345 hours.
Q. When you saw Pte. Rogers in the R.A.P., on the night of February 17th, was his escort with him?
A. The escort was standing in the door way on the right going into the R.A.P Room proper.
Q. Did he go upstairs?
A. Not at that time, sir.
Q. Which way did he seem to be going?
A. Just standing, sir. Waiting around.
Q. He wasn't actually moving when you saw him?
A. No, sir.
Q. So far as you know he may have gone upstairs before you arrived?
A. Yes, he could have gone all over the building.
Q. Do you know whether or not he went upstairs after you had been speaking to him?
A. No. I couldn't state that sir.
Q. Did you know Pte. Rogers had been in Detention?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Just previous to the time of his disappearance?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell me anything in relation to these charges against Pte. Rogers, particularly concerning his equipment and clothing?
A. When Pte. Rogers was admitted to the R.H.L.I. Guardhouse, we took his ammunition, and rifle, bayonet and scabbard and frog from him, and everything else went with him to the Guardhouse. That is the last I saw of him. He took everything as far as I know that belonged to him.
Q. Did he take everything with him with the exception of his rifle, bayonet, scabbard, frogand ammunition?
A. Yes, sir. It is the custom when a man goes to Detention Barracks. We check his Kit at that time, and not before, and with Pte. Rogers, he wasn't due to go to Detention Barracks, his kit had not been checked by us.
Q. Can you tell me what happened to his rifle, bayonet, scabbard, frog and ammunition?
A. We have that in the Stores. It hasn't been re-issued to him yet, sir.
Q. Do you know anything, I mean as far as you yourself are concerned about his disappearance?
A. No, sir.
Q. When did you see him on his return?
A. When they were paraded to our Stores. In Rogers case, we issued a suit of denim to work in.

Q. Did you see him before that at any time?
A. No, sir.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had Pte. Rogers been over to the R.A.F. previous to his disappearance?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How often would you say?
A. It just got to be a nuisance how often he came over. Sometimes twice a day.
Q. Had he been seen by an M.O?
A. Yes, sir. Captain Norris was the M.O.
Q. Had Captain Norris told you what was the matter with him?
A. No, sir. Capt. Norris and the Staff of the R.A.F. found nothing wrong with him. One time he got 2 aspirins.
Q. Had Capt. Norris told you he found nothing the matter with him?
A. No, sir.
Q. So far as you know, did Pte. Rogers ever have an elevation of temperature, just previous to his disappearance?
A. At no time did he have an elevation of temperature.
Q. What makes you think Pte. Rogers wasn't sick?
A. He admitted himself that he just came up to get some fresh air.

Questions by D105518 Pte. Rogers, C.A.
Q. Did you take my temperature, or even see me on February 17th, or for 2 days previous?
A. I can't say that. I know you were over quite a lot.

9th WITNESS
A27162 PTE. MILLER, C.W. - 11th CDN. Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., after being duly sworn, states:-

Q. What can you tell me about this incident that happened allegedly on the 17th February 1941?
A. Pte. Rogers and a Guard came up, and he wanted some medicine. First they were over in the Dispensary part, and I was on duty in the R.A.F. They came over there and asked me if I knew where Sgt. Peaker was, to get some medicine. I went over to the Dispensary when they came, to see if Peaker was in his room, and he wasn't there. I told them if they came back in half an hour or an hour he might be here, so they came back the 2nd time, and Peaker still wasn't there. He still didn't know what kind of cough medicine he wanted. He said he had a fever, so I took his temperature, which was around 99 I think. Then they were there for a little while waiting for Sgt. Marshall. Pte. Rogers said he was going upstairs for a leak, and the Guard was there all the time with him. After about 5 minutes he didn't come down, so the Guard and me went up to look for him, but he wasn't there.

Q. Previous to that night, 17th, had you had much experience taking temperatures?
A. Yes, sir. I took quite a few.
Q. Did you actually take his temperature yourself?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Are you convinced in your own mind that you can take a temperature and read the thermometer accurately?
A. I am quite sure, sir.
Q. Was there anyone else on duty with you at that time?
A. No, sir. I was alone.
Q. Do you remember about what time Pte. Rogers came in earlier in the evening?
A. I am not quite sure, I imagine it was around 7 o'clock.
Q. Did he have any elevation of temperature the first time?
A. I never took his temperature the first time. He didn't say he had a fever. He just wanted some medicine.
Q. What time, as nearly as you can remember, did he come in the 2nd time?
A. I would say it was about an hour later.
Q. Was it then that you took his temperature?
A. Yes, sir.

Questions by Pte. Rogers, C.A.
Q. Do you recall the exact thermometer reading at the time, when you took my temperature on the night of the 17th February?
A. As far as I recall it was 99.
Q. Did you remark to Sgt. McCullough, of the M.T., who was present at the time, saying, "It is away up over 100".?
A. No, I can't remember that I did.
Q. Do you recall that Sgt. McCullough was present?
A. Yes, he was there for a minute.
Q. Do you recall any conversation between Sgt. McCullough, yourself and myself?
A. What I told him was if he should see Peaker down there, to send him up.
Q. Is that all you can recall remarking to him?
A. That is all that I can say that was necessary to say to him.
Q. Are you positive of this figure 99?
A. I read the thermometer, and that is what it said.
Q. That is, to the best of your recollection, after the lapse of a period of 3 months?
A. Right.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE GIVEN BY D105518 PTE. ROGERS, C.A. R.C.A.S.C., attached as in W.E. to 11th CDN. Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C.

D105518 Pte. Rogers, C.A. requested that his statement not be made under oath.

I, D105518, Pte. Rogers, C.A. 11th CDN. Fd. Amb. RCAMC., RCASC. attached as in W.E., do readily admit to having left the Unit Lines and area on February 17th, as alleged, and that this act, and subsequent actions having to do with these 2 charges were done while I was of an unbalanced and errational mind. Friday the 17th February, 1941 co-incides with the date of the Promulgation of the award of the D.C.M. sitting at Lille Barracks, Aldershot, February 10th, 1941. By the terms of said award I was sentenced to 35 days in Detention. For a period of 30 days previous to this date, i.e. February 17th, I was detained under Close Arrest, pending the aforementioned Court Martial.

Since Childhood I have suffered from a form of mental derangement, known to psychiatrists as Claustrophobia - fear of enclosed or confined spaces. The pronouncement of this sentence on February 17th, I refer to this sentence of 35 days Detention, was to me the culmination of several weeks brooding over injustices, real or fancied, as may be proven. The effect of this 30 days confinement in a room having the dimensions of 8' square had caused acute mental suffering, finally resulting on February 16-17th when my running extremely high temperatures. My nerves were acutely upon edge, and at times I was unaware of my own movements and surroundings. In this state of mind, I submit that I would not have taken thought as a normal person might of a multitude of details and possible consequences of my acts. I submit further that the above outlined mental state was not of a temporary nature, a matter of a moment, but has continued ever since that time. In support of this claim, I appear for an examination by the proper authorities of #1 CDN. Neurological Unit.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL
COURT MARTIAL HELD AT LITTLE BARBADOS,
ALEXANDRIA, HANTS ON 10 FEBRUARY 1941

Trial of No. D106811, Pte. Charles Allan Rogers, R.C.A.S.C.

Prosecutor: Lieut. J. D. Harrison, 4 Cdn. Fd. Sect.

Defending Officer: Major H. F. Lazier.

1. The Order convening the court is read in the presence of the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following question:
"Do you object to be tried by the President or any of the Members of the Court, whose names you have heard read over?"
Answer: "No."

3. The President, the Members and the Shorthand Writer are duly sworn.

4. (a) The accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

(b) The accused pleads "not guilty" on all three charges set out in the charge sheet.

5. The accused is asked the question at the foot of page 2 of A.F.A.S, and his answer "No" is recorded beneath the question.

6. Opening address of Prosecutor: "With the Court's permission I will give a brief summary of what I propose to bring forth. The accused is charged with being in control of a vehicle when he is in a improper condition, firstly under the Civil Act and secondly under Section 40, Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, and the facts which I propose to bring out are that the accused was driving an ambulance on the day in question; that he went from his Main Dressing Station, and is properly under orders, to [illegible] where he picked up some personnel, then he was to return to the A.D.S. He then proceeded to Outlaw and other places, where he was returning from there he was stopped by an officer of his own unit; was told to get into the car in which the officer had been driving, and the officer drove the ambulance back to the unit, where the accused was placed under close arrest. Subsequently in the guard house certain events took place, the result of which the accused is charged with, the third charge; c.c.: malicious damage.

The 1st Witness for the Prosecution, D00043, Pte. Ewing, G. E., A.S.C., R.C.A., having been first duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q 1 Pte. Ewing, you are attached to the 11 Cdn Fd. Ambulance?
A 1 Yes, sir.
Q 2 And you are a driver, I believe?
A 2 That is right.
Q 3 On the night of 29 Jan 41 you were driving Mr. Rogers in the Staff car?
A 3 Yes, sir.
Q 4 What sort of a car is that?
A 4 Ford Sedan.
Q 5 Now, will you tell the Court how you came to be driving Mr. Rogers and what happened?
A 5 I was driving him from Staplefield to Terry's Boss, approximately 15 miles, when I happened to see this ambulance ahead. Going to overtake it he asked me to check up and see what ambulance it was. He said to pull alongside and pass it, and then it passed us again, we let it do that. When he passed us I pulled up behind it close to try and see the number on the back. The number was pretty well blacked out on account of the mud. I then pulled alongside and blew the horn for the ambulance to stop and he pulled out of the car and pulled into the curb and walked back to us.

ambulance. Private Rogers was dismounting from the ambulance at the time.

Q 6 Pte. Rogers was driving the ambulance at the time was he?
A 6 He had been, yes.
Q 7 Did you hear Mr. Kimbold say anything when he came to the ambulance?
A 7 I can't remember whether I did or not.
Q 8 In any event, Rogers was pulled out?
A 8 Yes, sir.
Q 9 And what happened then?
A 9 Mr. Kimbold got into the ambulance and told me to take Pte. Rogers back to Stapleford.
Q 10 And did Rogers go with you into the sedan?
A 10 Yes, sir.
Q 11 And was there anybody else in the sedan at that time?
A 11 No, sir.
Q 12 Did anybody else get into the sedan later on?
A 12 Yes, sir.
Q 13 Who was that?
A 13 Private Emanuel.
Q 14 From the passenger side of the ambulance in front.
Q 15 Just tell the Court now in your words what happened?
A 15 The ambulance stopped and Emanuel got out to relieve himself and while he was relieving himself Mr. Kimbold told me to get back in the car with me.
Q 16 When Rogers got into the car which you were driving did you notice anything about his condition?
A 16 He had been drinking, sir.
Q 17 How could you tell?
A 17 By smell and actions.
Q 18 And did anything unusual happen you on your way back.
A 18 He was sick, sir, on the way back.
Q 19 And was there a strong odour of liquor in the car after he got in?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Now, just a minute, I haven't objected to all these leading questions, but surely--

A 19 Not that I can recall now, sir.
Q 20 You said Rogers was sick, was he sick in the car?
A 20 No, sir, he informed me and I stopped the car and he opened the door and got out.
Q 21 There was no question in your mind that he was drunk?
A 21 No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER:

Q 22 What were the weather conditions along the road on this night?
A 22 It was a fair driving night, sir; it was dark, but it was a fair driving night.
Q 23 What was the condition of the surface of the road?
A 23 I believe it was dry, sir, but I wouldn't swear to that.
Q 24 Any fog?
A 24 Not that I can recall, sir.
Q 25 At what rate of speed was the ambulance being driven?
A 25 I would say twenty to twenty-five miles an hour.
Q 26 Anything unusual about the manner in which it was travelling?
A 26 No, sir.
Q 27 It was only the fact that it was one of your own ambulances that drew your attention to it, was it?
A 27 That is right, sir.
Q 28 Did you form any opinion as to whether Rogers was in a fit condition to drive a car or not?
A 28 I believe I did, sir.
Q 29 What was your opinion?
A 29 I don't think at the time he was fit to drive an ambulance, sir.
Q 30 What would you say as to whether he was intoxicated or not?
A 30 I believe I said in the first statement that I didn't think he was what you would call intoxicated. When he was sick in the car it seemed that while he had been drinking it wasn't a case of his being drunk. He had had a few drinks and I have been the same way when I have had a few drinks. I have felt sick myself.
Q 31 Well, then, by that do you mean that you didn't consider him drunk or intoxicated?

A 31 No, I wouldn't say that, sir. I don't know how to explain it myself, but he had been drinking, and in my estimation he wasn't fit to be driving.

Q 32 Well, the ambulance was being driven all right?

A 32 It was, sir, to an extent where it started to pass me, it hesitated before passing me, though, but until I saw Rogers it made no impression of being badly driven.

Q 33 And other than the fact that Rogers smelt of liquor, have you anything on which to base your opinion?

A 33 No, sir, I cannot.

The 2nd Witness for the Prosecution, Ammore, Pte. Davis, R., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q 34 You are attached to 11 Gen. Fd. Amb.?

A 34 Yes, sir.

Q 35 And sometime prior to January 20th of this year I believe you had been sent to Bramshott, suffering with--

A 35 Influenza or bronchitis, sir.

Q 36 And how long before January 20th was it that you had been sent to Bramshott?

A 36 About a week.

Q 37 And do you remember how long you had been in bed?

A 37 Yes, sir, it was about three days.

Q 38 And then you had been up for three days?

A 38 Yes, sir.

Q 39 And you got your discharge papers from Bramshott on January 20th?

A 39 Yes, sir. I was discharged from the hospital.

Q 40 And told to return to your unit?

A 40 Yes, sir.

Q 41 What arrangement was made for transporting you back to your unit?

A 41 I reported to the Administration Building and was informed by Pte. Maguret that I was to proceed back to the unit in their ambulance.

Q 42 And did you do that?

A 42 Yes, sir.

Q 43 Do you remember what time you left Bramshott?

A 43 Not exactly, sir. Approximately a quarter to one or so.

Q 44 And where did you go to from Bramshott?

A 44 To Guildford.

Q 45 Did you stay there?

A 45 Yes, sir.

Q 46 And what was the purpose of that stop?

A 46 Pte. Rogers and Pte. Maguret stated that they wanted nothing to eat and they got out of the ambulance and proceeded down the street.

Q 47 What time did you get to Guildford, do you remember?

A 47 About half past two, sir.

Q 48 And you saw them proceed down the street?

A 48 Yes, sir.

Q 49 Did they take anything with them when they left?

A 49 No, sir.

Q 50 And how long were they gone?

A 50 About two hours.

Q 51 What time did you leave Guildford?

A 51 Around five o'clock.

Q 52 Were you talking to Pte. Rogers when he returned to the ambulance?

A 52 No, sir.

Q 53 Where did you go from Guildford?

A 53 From Guildford we stopped at Dorking again, sir.

Q 54 And how long did you stay there?

A 54 About 15 minutes.

Q 55 What did you stop there for?

A 55 For Pte. Maguret and Pte. Rogers and McPherson to proceed to the Laundry.

Q 56 Did you leave the ambulance?

A 56 No, sir.

Q 57 They were gone about 15 minutes?

A 57 Yes, sir.

Q 58 Were you talking to Rogers then?

A 58 No, sir, just to McPherson.

Q 59 Did you make any objection to that stop?
A 59 I just asked that not be too long and said I was feeling kind of chilly.
Q 60 In any event, you got started again in about 15 minutes?
A 60 Yes, sir.
Q 61 And what happened?
A 61 We proceeded along the road and we stopped in order to urinate along the road.
Q 62 Just somewhere on the side of the road?
A 62 Yes, sir.
Q 63 And then you proceeded again; did you stop after that?
A 63 Yes, sir. We stopped at Dandarawa Hotel.
Q 64 And what happened there?
A 64 Pte. McPherson and Pte. Lamarat went to the hotel and I got out of the ambulance and objected to them going in there and Pte. Lamarat said that they wouldn't be long, so they went into the hotel and about ten minutes later I asked Pte. Rogers to proceed to the hotel with me to get the others. I entered the hotel with Pte. Rogers.
Q 65 And did you find Lamarat and McPherson in the hotel?
A 65 Yes, sir.
Q 66 Where were they?
A 66 In the barroom
Q 67 And did you and Rogers go in then?
A 67 Yes, sir.
Q 68 And what was said then?
A 68 I asked Lamarat how long he was going to be. I said I thought I had been held up long enough on the road. I told him I thought I had a temperature and he said we would be through right away and I left the hotel
Q 69 Was there anybody left with the ambulance when you and Rogers went into the hotel?
A 69 No, sir.
Q 70 Did Rogers take anything with him from the ambulance?
A 70 No, sir.
Q 71 And what happened then?
A 71 I waited until they returned.
Q 72 Did they come back together or separately?
A 72 I believe they all came back together.
Q 73 And about how long was that after you left?
A 73 10 or 15 minutes.
Q 74 And when you were talking to Rogers at the ambulance did you notice anything out of the ordinary, as far as he was concerned?
A 74 His speech was kind of slurred, sir.
Q 74 Did you notice any smell of liquor?
A 75 Yes, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Mr. President, that is a very leading question; the Prosecutor shouldn't suggest answers like that. It is most unfair.

THE PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q 76 In any event, you say you waited about ten minutes and then they returned?
A 76 Yes, sir.
Q 77 And then what happened?
A 77 Then we proceeded on our way to the M.D.3.
Q 78 Just before we get on further -- you say you proceeded towards the M.D.3. and what occurred next?
A 78 We proceeded on the highway and we were stopped by Lieut. Eckhold.
Q 79 And what happened then?
A 79 Lieut. Eckholds took the ambulance over and proceeded back to the M.D.3. and we were put under close arrest when we arrived back.
Q 80 What was the last -- you were in the back of the ambulance, but you didn't see anything?
A 80 No, sir.
Q 81 Did you overhear anything that was said when the ambulance was stopped?
A 81 No, sir.
Q 82 Now, what was the nature of the driving during this trip?
A 82 It was, as we neared to our destination, it was jerky and we stopped and jerked.

Q 85 Well, then, you were all four of you put under close arrest?
A 85 Yes, sir.
Q 84 And I believe you were subsequently released and sent on to your destination?
A 84 Yes, sir.
Q 85 You were taken to the guard house with Rogers and McPherson and Knaurat?
A 85 Yes, sir.
Q 86 Did there seem to be anything unusual about Rogers when you were at the Guard House, or when you finally arrived at the M.D.S.?
A 86 He was a little talkative.
Q 87 How long were you in the guard house?
A 87 About five minutes, sir.
A 88 And then you and McPherson left?
A 89 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING COUNSEL:

Q 90 You were riding in the back of the ambulance all the way?
A 90 Yes, sir.
Q 90 Could you see out at all?
A 90 Yes, sir.
Q 91 Were you watching?
A 91 Just twice, sir.
Q 92 When was that?
A 92 At Guildford and at Dorking.
Q 93 And you did mention that the only thing about the driving was a light darkness
A 93 Yes, sir.
Q 94 And you don't know whether that was caused by traffic or not?
A 94 No, sir.

The 3rd witness for the Prosecution, A7/7000, Sgt. G.A. McCullough, 11 Cdn. Fd. Amb., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q 95 You are attached to the 11 Cdn. Fd. Amb.?
A 95 Yes, sir.
Q 96 And you were at the M.D.S. on the night of January 20th?
A 96 Yes, sir.
Q 97 When Mr. Bothold, I believe, drove up with an ambulance, followed by Ewing in the staff car?
A 97 Yes, sir.
Q 98 Will you tell the Court what happened to your knowledge at that time?
A 98 The door was opened. Mr. Bothold came out and called me to put Pte. Rogers and Pte. Knaurat under close arrest.
Q 99 And did you do that?
A 99 I went back to the hall, sir, and Cpl. Good was there and got two escorts to take them to the guard house.
Q 100 And at that time did you notice anything about Rogers' condition?
A 100 Not particularly, sir, not at that time.
Q 101 Did you have any idea of why he was being put under arrest?
A 101 Yes.
Q 102 Why?
A 102 Because his ambulance had been out longer than it should have been and I figured that that was the reason for the below put under close arrest.
Q 103 That was the only thing that crossed your mind?
A 103 Yes, and the acting of Pte. Rogers when he was brought in.
Q 104 And did you subsequently go to the guard house?
A 104 Not at that time, but later on.
Q 105 What was the reason for that?
A 105 There had been some commotion down there and the orderly came up and told me that Rogers wanted to get outside in the fresh air.
Q 106 You say there had been a commotion down there?
A 106 Yes, sir.
Q 107 And did you go down to the guard house then?
A 107 Yes, sir.
Q 108 And what did you find?
A 109 Rogers was quite quiet, but he wanted outside for some fresh air.
Q 109 Did you notice anything about his condition at that time?
A 109 He wasn't acting naturally. I figured he had had a few drinks.

Q 110 You say he wanted to get out?
A 110 Yes, sir.
Q 111 How was he acting, sitting down and saying "would you mind taking me outside," or what was this suggestion?
A 111 It had happened before I arrived there and he asked me if I would let him outside and I said no.
Q 112 What happened then?
A 112 He walked over and put his fist through the window, sir.
Q 113 How do you mean?
A 113 He walked over and as he was going past just went like that (indicating A 114 Do you mean he went over and put his fist through the window deliberately?
A 114 I don't know whether it was done deliberately or by accident; I don't know.
Q 115 Well, then what happened?
A 115 Well, he cut his hand and we called the M.O. to look after it.
A 116 And what happened when the M.O. arrived?
A 116 They attempted to bind his hand up for the M.O. to do.
A 116 They attempted to bind his hand up for the M.O. to do.
said it wasn't serious enough to bother with.
Q 117 And was it a pane of glass?
A 117 Yes, sir.
Q 118 Just tell the Court how that was done?
A 118 He laid down on the bed there, sir and I held his wrist and another fellow held his shoulder.
Q 119 Where did you say he was?
A 119 Just what we call biscuits on the floor.
Q 120 Did you have any difficulty at that time with him?
A 120 Well, we did, sir, he didn't want to have his hand bandaged at all.
Q 121 Did he say anything at that time?
A 121 He was just complaining about his hand; he didn't care to have it bandaged.
Q 122 How long did you stay there?
A 122 I was there for perhaps, oh, ten minutes.
Q 123 And you left then?
A 123 Yes, sir.
Q 124 And Rogers was left in the custody of the guards, maybe?
A 124 Yes, sir.
Q 125 And did you see Rogers again?
A 125 Not until next morning.
Q 126 Was there anything said at that time?
A 126 I met him in the hall downstairs; he had been up for a wash and he said "I guess I caused a bit of trouble last night," and he was quite sorry to have caused it.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 127 Was the reason that Rogers objected to having his hand bandaged because he thought it was too trivial?
A 127 He said he thought it wasn't worthwhile.
Q 128 But after Major Thomson had been there and said it should be done, he submitted then, didn't he?
A 128 Not altogether, sir, he still didn't want that hand bandaged.

6th Witness for the Prosecution, Lieut. H. V. Nichols, RA
(On Pd. Amb.),

Q 129 You are an officer of 11 Cdn. Fd. Ambulance?
A 129 Right.
Q 130 Will you tell the Court just what happened on the day of January 30, in connection with this case, as far as you know?
A 130 On the day, January 30th, at approximately 7:30 p.m. I had occasion to go to Perry's dress to one of our A.D.S. I proceeded down the Brighton Highway towards this A.D.S. and about a mile from the Road-cross Station, the first road block toward Brighton we caught up with a Canadian ambulance. I couldn't tell who it could be because as I had just left the Main dressing station I was pretty sure that no ambulances had been called out before I had left. We pulled up close behind this vehicle in an attempt to read the T.D. number on the rear. As it was covered with dirt and mud it was impossible to do this. We then passed the ambulance, still trying to read the numbers on it, but we were unable to do so. After pulling past it we stopped a distance ahead of this ambulance. The ambulance caught up with the staff car and appeared to slacken speed, but it continued straight on. We started up again, this was after catching up to the ambulance, and holding even with it, it gradually slackened off speed and pulled over to the side of the road. I got out and went to the staff car case as he was going to move at once. It was a dark night and the side curtain was up and I couldn't see the driver. I asked who the driver was and the answer came "Rogers". I ordered him to get out of the ambulance, which he did, and I told him to get into the staff car, and as we walked from the ambulance to the staff car he paused in front of the lights of the ambulance and I could see that he was unsteady on his feet. Also in the manner in which he answered me I could tell that he had been drinking. I turned the ambulance around and headed back to the M.D.S., with Rogers following me in the staff car. At the M.D.S. the ambulance orderly [illegible] stopped, came up and informed me that he thought that there were two men in the back of the ambulance, so I went them got into the staff car, along with Rogers, and we carried on to the M.D.S.. On reaching the M.D.S. the back door of the ambulance opened and two men, Pte. Davis and Pte. McPherson, got out, and Rogers and the ambulance Orderly got out of the staff car. I opened the door to see if Sgt. McCullough and Cpl. Good were there and called them out and told them to get an escort and put all four men in the guard house under close arrest. After seeing them safely to the guard room I reported the matter to the Orderly Officer of the day.

Q 131 Did you have any conversation with Rogers when you stopped the ambulance?

A 131 I believe, yes, I asked him where he was going. He said he was going to rejoin his unit near Hendrecea. I told him he had gone past that point. At the time I didn't know he had two passengers, who should have gone to the A.D.S. at Leney's Grove.

Q 132 And did you notice anything out of the ordinary in that conversation?

A 132 Nothing other than the way in which he spoke.

Q 133 Just describe that to the Court?

A 133 Rogers speaks very slowly, his enunciation is quite decent and the conversation that came up -- his speech was -- had a tendency to be slurry, which was very unlike his regular manner of speaking.

Q 134 That is where, I think you said you saw him in the beam of light and he was unsteady?

A 134 Yes, he was unsteady on his feet.

Q 135 And when you got into the barracks you placed him under close arrest? Why did you do that?

A 135 He was on duty and he evidently had been drinking.

Q 136 What is your opinion, insofar as his driving is observed?

A 136 Well, I don't think that any man who has been drinking should drive; that is, a man who seemed to have had as much to drink as Rogers had.

Q 137 Well, now the driver of an ambulance-- what are the responsibilities when one is driving an ambulance. Are they greater than when driving an ordinary car?

A 137 I would say yes, the ambulance driver is responsible for the patients, for men who possibly can't take care of themselves.

Q 138 And I suppose that your ambulance men must always be ready to take in any emergency job at any time?

A 138 We keep our ambulances as prepared as we possibly can.

Q 139 So that if you had just passed a serious accident, you might have been expecting to call upon this ambulance--

THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Harrison, you are continually suggesting as your answers. Please don't do that.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 140 How long has Rogers been in your M.T. Company?

A 140 Since I joined the unit in August, 1940.

Q 140 And had Rogers been in before your joining?

A 140 Yes.

Q 141 What is Rogers' record with the Platoon?
A 141 I have had no trouble.
Q 142 Has he been a good driver?
A 142 He has been a very good driver.
Q 143 Have you any idea of the approximate distance from Guildford to where you stopped this ambulance?
A 143 It may be thirty miles.
Q 144 And as far as you know Rogers had driven the ambulance that distance without any trouble?
A 144 Well I couldn't say that he had had no trouble.
Q 145 When you saw the ambulance it was being driven properly?
A 145 It was on its own side of the road, right in a straight line.
Q 146 Was it being driven properly as far as you know?
A 146 Yes, sir.
Q 147 So that you wouldn't have stopped the ambulance apart from the fact that you recognised it as one of your own ambulances?
A 147 No.

8th Witness for the Prosecution, ARWOOD, L/Cpl. Member, R., having been duly sworn, testified as follows, (Interpreter):

Q 148 On the night of January 30th I believe you were duty N.C.O. of 11 Gds Coy. Ambulance?
A 148 Yes, sir.
Q 149 And did you see the accused, Pte. Rogers, that evening?
A 149 Yes, sir. I was sitting up in the picquet room at approximately 2020 hours I heard a disturbance down in the guard room downstairs. I went down to investigate and I found the accused under escort in charge of the Cpl. Good of the M/P Company. Cpl. Good informed me that the man was under close arrest and then he went out of the room. A little later o he came back again. I went in and out of the room and in the meantime the accused had been shouting for fresh air. Owing to the blackouts making it necessary to have the windows shuttered, I couldn't open the door, because I would have to put the lights out. I offered to have the accused taken out under escort, in order that he might get fresh air but he refused.
Q 150 Now, you said this "disturbance". Just what was going on, or what occurred?
A 150 Well, sir, there was an excessive noise in the guard room and I went down to investigate and I found Pte. Rogers under escort of Cpl. Good and a number of them were talking quite loudly together.
Q 151 Did you notice anything out of the ordinary about the condition of Rogers?
A 151 It seemed to me that he was rather, well, I would say, sir, in an intoxicated condition.
Q 152 And just on what did you come to that conclusion?
A 152 On the fact of his speech and the way he was acting. I would say he wasn't in a fit condition to drive an ambulance.
Q 153 And you say that he said he wanted to get some fresh air and you offered to take him outside and he refused?
A 153 I offered to take him outside under escort, sir.
Q 154 I think you said you couldn't open the door on account of the blackout?
A 154 I did, sir; I couldn't just open the door and leave it open.
Q 155 And what else happened while you were there?
A 155 I refused to allow the door to be opened. The accused became a little violent in his actions. He started to swing his arms around and he turned and came in towards the room again. At the time when he was nearing the door and I was standing with my back to the door and he turned in towards the room and started swinging his arms around and his fist came in contact with a pane of glass running along the wall.
Q 156 Was that a window?
A 156 No, sir, it was a sliding partition; it had been used as a sanitary, and there was a partition there which closed off a narrow aisle, only about a foot wide and there was a wall right behind the glass partition all the way along.
Q 157 And did it break the glass?
A 157 Yes, sir.
Q 158 And what happened then?
A 158 I and the escorts take him away from the partition and Cpl. Good came in and I left him in charge while I went up and got the Orderly Officer.

Q 159 And did you subsequently return?
A 159 I returned with the Orderly Officer, who also acted as M.O.
Q 160 Who was that?
A 160 Major Thomson.
Q 161 And what happened when you got back?
A 161 The patient didn't want to have his hand dressed which, as I saw was bleeding profusely quite necessitated me going up to get the M.O.
Q 162 Where was the accused at that time?
A 162 He was in the guard room, sir.
Q 163 And was his hand dressed?
A 163 Yes, sir.
Q 164 Exactly what happened?
A 164 The accused initially refused to have his hand dressed, so I had the escorts hold him and I handcuffed, while his hand was dressed.
Q 165 And what was the position of the accused at that time?
A 165 He was in a prone position, on the palliasses, on the floor.
Q 166 And you say you had the guard hold him while his hand was dressed?
A 166 Yes, sir.
Q 167 And did the accused have anything to say at that time?
A 167 He spoke a few garbled words, sir. I couldn't make it out.
Q 168 And what happened next?
A 168 After he had his hand dressed the orderly officer left and then he submitted to going outside under escort for fresh air.
Q 169 And did you remain there?
A 169 I remained there for approximately an hour and a half after, sir.
Q 170 And what went on?
A 171 The accused had refused to have his hand dressed and then at this time he was quite passive, and at other times he, by his actions, swinging his arms around, and when he was walking around, and at other times he appeared to be normal.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER:

Q 172 What time was it when you first went down?
A 172 2000 hours approximately.
Q 173 And what was the accused doing at that time?
A 173 He was walking around the room and just causing a general disturbance.
Q 174 What-- by just walking around the room?
A 174 No, he was swinging his arms around and didn't like the idea of being under close arrest.
Q 175 You said you judged him to be in an intoxicated condition by his actions. What were these actions you are referring to?
A 175 Well, sir, yes and on account of his speech.
Q 176 You don't think it could have been brought on by xxxi excitement at feeling that he was wrongfully put under close arrest?
A 176 I very much doubt it, sir.
Q 177 Was he quite excited about it, sir.
A 177 He seemed to be, yes, sir.
Q 178 And I believed that you volunteered the opinion that he wasn't fit to drive an ambulance?
A 178 I would say so, sir.
Q 179 Do you know that he drove an ambulance all the way from [illegible] Ford to Maidenhead, in the dark, without any trouble?
A 179 Yes, sir.
Q 180 And in the face of that you still make that statement?
A 180 I make that statement on my own opinion, sir, I don't think I would care to ride in an ambulance with a man in his condition driving.
Q 180 Now, after his hand was dressed and he was did get the fresh air, what happened then?
A 180 He subsided to the extent that he lay down on the palliass and then in about an hour's time he fell asleep.
Q 181 Did you go out with him when he went to get the fresh air?
A 181 No, sir Cpl. Good went out.
Q 182 What was the condition of the guard room, was it hot and stuffy, or cold?
A 182 Well, I wouldn't say it was-- I would say it was normal.
Q 183 What is normal?
A 183 Well, normal temperature.
Q 184 I suppose the blanket prevented the possibility of a draught of fresh air in the room?
A 184 It did, sir.

Sixth witness for the prosecution, A/CPT. Pte. Bryan, R. F., having been first duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:

Q 198 How long a court was it?
A 198 I would say it was about approximately from here to the door (indicating).
Q 194 How many people were in the guard room?
A 194 At that time, sir, I couldn't just say.
Q 195 Have you any idea at all?
A 195 I believe there were three or four of them. There was Sgt. McCullough came in and went out again, I believe. There was six or so altogether

Q 196 You are attached to the 21 Det. Pte. Bryan?
A 196 Yes, sir.
Q 197 On the night of January 30th you were on guard?
A 197 That is right, sir.
Q 198 And what time did you go on, approximately?
A 198 Between 8:00 and 9.
Q 199 And did you report to the guard house?
A 199 Yes, sir.
Q 200 And what did you find there?
A 200 I found Pte. Rogers and Pte. Shaurett.
Q 201 And I suppose there were other personnel, too?
A--201 There were two or three as well, there, sir.
Q 202 Did you notice anything peculiar about Rogers' condition?
A 202 Not very much, sir.
Q 203 Did you notice anything?
A 203 Just that he was wanting air all the time, that is about all, sir.
Q 204 Were you speaking to Rogers at all?
A 204 No, sir.
Q 205 Where was Rogers, in the guard house?
A 205 Just walking around when I came in.
Q 206 And did anything occur after you came in?
A 206 Just that he was trying to get out and get some fresh air, that was all, sir.
Q 207 Nothing else occurred at all?
A 207 No, sir.
Q 208 You went on guard the same time you did?
A 208 Yes, sir.
Q 209 Anybody else come in the guard room while you were there?
A 209 Corporal Hood was there and Sgt. McCullough.
Q 210 When did he come?
A 210 Well, he was there when I got there.
Q 211 Did anybody come in afterwards?
A 211 Capt. Boyd and Major Thomson.
Q 212 Did you see them come in?
A 212 They came down to dress his hand.
Q 213 Was his hand cut when you got there?
A 213 It wasn't exactly cut.
Q 214 Was it cut when you got to the guard room?
A 214 No, sir.
Q 215 How did it get cut?
A 215 He put his hand through one of these windows in the guard room.
Q 216 Will you just describe how he did that?
A 216 He just walked over and he was swinging his arms around and it just went through the window, that was all. I don't know whether it was intentional or accidental.
Q 217 And you say that Major Thomson and Capt. Boyd came down to dress that cut?
A 217 They were called down.
Q 218 And did they dress that hand?
A 218 Yes, sir.
Q 219 Will you just describe to the Court what went on at that time?
A 219 Pte. Rogers was lying on these biscuits when Major Thomson came down and he wanted fresh air and he didn't want his hand dressed because he didn't think it was bad enough to have it dressed and Major Thomson said he had better have it dressed as a kind of a precaution for infection and then he had it dressed after that.

Q 229 Was there anything unusual in this dressing?
A 229 No, sir, not that I could see.
Q 231 Did you take any part in it?
A 231 No, sir, I was standing behind Capt. Boyd when he was dressing the wound.
Q 232 Why did Rogers want air?
A 232 I don't know what he wanted it for. He was asking for air all the time.
Q 233 And you weren't talking to him during the evening?
A 233 No, sir.

THE DEFENSE DESIRES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

The seventh witness for the prosecution, Pvt. Mc 40 Pt. Bowlde, A.,having been duly sworn, is examined by Prosecut

Q 231 You are attached to the 11 Gen Hd. Amb?
A 231 Right, sir.
Q 232 Now, on the night of January 20th I believe you were on duty as guard?
A 232 Right, sir.
Q 233 And what time did you go on duty-- approximately-- do you remember?
A 233 About 9:30, sir.
Q 234 And what did you find when you got to the guard house?
A 234 I heard a lot of noise in the guard room and I opened the door and walked in and I seen Privats Rogers and Mille Maurer carrying on a little bit of rampus and then I understood they wanted to get some air and then Pte. Rogers threw up his hands and broke a window there.
Q 235 And did you notice anything peculiar about Rogers then?
A 235 Only an awful sweat on his face.
Q 236 Was that the only peculiar thing you noticed?
A 236 Yes, sir.
Q 237 Did he give you any indication of why this condition existed?
A 237 I got hold of him to try and quieten him and I smelt liquor
Q 238 Were you talking to him?
A 238 Yes.
Q 239 Was there anything peculiar about that?
A 239 His speech was a bit slurred.
Q 240 Was there anything else peculiar about his actions.
A 240 I hadn't seen him acting that way before since I have known him.
Q 241 What did you think had happened to him?
A 241 It is pretty hard to say, Sir.
Q 242 And how did he break this window?
A 242 Rogers or Less, he threw up his hands and his hand connected with the window.
Q 243 And what happened then?
A 243 I went over and looked at his hand and told him I had better get the M.O. It was bleeding pretty bad.
Q 244 And was the M.O. sent for?
A 244 Yes, sir.
Q 245 And was it attended to?
A 245 It was.
Q 246 Under what circumstances?
A 246 Well, sir, we held him down and he had his hand closed. He didn't want it dressed. It wasn't big enough and I had to hold his hand while it was dressed.
Q 247 And did Rogers say anything at this time?
A 247 No, he only kept repeating that he didn't want it dressed. It was only a small trifle and we were making a big thing out of a small trifle.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING COUNSEL:

Q 248 What was the temperature in the room?
A 248 It was quite warm, sir.
Q 249 Did you go outside with Rogers when he was taken out?
A 249 No, sir.

The eighth witness for the Prosecution, Major [illegible], having been first duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:

R.C.A.M.C.,

Q 250 You are the S 1/C of the 11th Cdn Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.?
A 250 Yes, sir.
Q 251 And on the night of January 20th, were you called down to the guard room of your barracks?
A 251 At Stapleton.
Q 252 And what did you find when you got there?
A 252 I found the accused with an injured hand, a lacerated left hand, that apparently had been caused from pushing it through a pane of glass in a glass door.
Q 253 Where was that door?
A 253 It was in the wall of this building where we had our guard room.
Q 254 Did it have a number?
A 254 No, it was just a doorway.
Q 255 And what did the Court see with respect to the medical inspection room, and I want you to tell the Court what happened then?
A 255 Capt. [illegible], who was with the prisoner when I arrived, came down and helped to lift him from the floor, where he was on the floor struggling with some other men and he was restrained by his escorts and it was difficult for us to get in with the dressing and clean up the wound. However, after a time, we got him properly restrained and got his hand cleaned with water and then thoroughly disinfected with Iodine and put a dressing on.
Q 256 Did you notice anything peculiar about the accused then?
A 256 He was trying to struggle and get away from his escort and in an ugly mood.
Q 257 Any reason for that that you could ascertain?
A 257 Well, this hasn't been mentioned by me; there was a strong odour of alcohol about him.
Q 258 You say he seemed to be in an ugly mood?
A 258 Yes, very.
Q 259 He was on the floor, you say, at this time?
A 259 Yes, sir.
Q 260 And would you tell the Court who restrained him?
A 260 His escorts.
Q 261 And just in what way was it necessary for them--
A 261 They had to get right on top of him, almost. His legs and arms were flying around.
Q 262 Would it be your opinion that his condition could be termed by the accident which he had had to his hand?
A 262 No, I don't imagine that there would be a great deal of pain from that, because the would was too superficial. We had only minor lacerations.
Q 263 And you noticed a strong odour of alcohol?
A 263 Yes.
Q 264 Were you talking to the accused?
A 264 As little as possible.
Q 265 Was there anything peculiar in his speech?
A 265 I can't recollect a great deal about that, I think, the single person that I was trying to avoid getting into conversation with him. He spoke, of course, some of the time; he was asking for help, and his speech was, of course, [illegible] actually to his speech, or to the particular suffocated feeling which he had his head. He had his head sore of turned down on a pillow, held up by a post or something, and he was yelling for air all the time. At the same time he was cutting off his own air by burying his head, so I really don't know whether the speech was garbled or not.
Q 266 From what you saw what would be your opinion as to his fitness to drive an ambulance?
A 266 When I went in there he was lying on the floor, though we did get him up to take him to the door, pressure by two men, he wouldn't even help himself. When they let him up he just let his weight hang on his escorts and he wanted to go out alone, so when they gave him the opportunity to go out under escort, he wouldn't go.
Q 267 From your observation of the conduct of the accused that is your opinion as to his fitness at that time to drive an ambulance?

A 267 Well, of course, we consider any man who has been drinking alcohol in any quantity is not fit and he wouldn't be allowed to drive the ambulance. Whether he is physically fit to drive or not. That is a very hard question for a medical man to answer because it involves more than one thing, because different people react differently to alcohol. Some people might be fit to drive an ambulance and others might not. I don't know in this case whether that man wouldn't be fit,but if we knew he had been drinking he wouldn't be allowed to.

Q 268 Can you distinguish between, say, being physically capable of driving and being a proper person to be in charge of an ambulance?

A 268 He certainly wouldn't be a proper person to be in charge of an ambulance

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 269 You are a medical officer, are you not?

A 269 Yes,sir.

Q 270 I suppose in your experience you have some knowledge of the effect of alcohol and other things on the human system?

A 270 Yes, sir.

Q 271 If a person consumes a quantity of alcohol, within, oh, three-quarters of an hour and he then eats something and is shortly afterwards violently ill, and vomits, will he get rid of most of that alcohol, or will it affect him

A 271 How long did you say?

Q 272 Supposing you had three drinks over a period of 45 minutes and then you eat something, and apparently it disagreed with you and you vomited very violently--

A 272 How long after you had eaten?

Q 272 Practically immediately?

A 272 He would get rid of some of the alcohol, no doubt, but he certainly wouldn't get rid of it all, because alcohol is absorbed into the stomach. If he took three or four drinks on a partially empty stomach he would absorb a lot of his alcohol before he ate; of course, he wouldn't absorb it all.

Q 274 I suppose without knowing the quantity of alcohol that was taken you couldn't give your opinion as to how long the effects would last?

A 274 Yes, I would have to have more knowledge.

Q 275 And if that occurred-- supposing there was something wrong with the food or the combination, would the tendency to cause the illness, would that produce similar effects to having consumed too much alcohol?

A 275 I want to get your question clear.

Q 276 If either there was something wrong with the alcohol or with the food, or with the combination, that didn't agree with the person-- made them ill-- would the illness, suppose we say this poisoning, produce effects on the person, as well as from the alcohol-- I mean insofar as feeling ill, perspiring greatly?

A 276 When I saw the man he wasn't ill.

Q 277 I am not asking about that; I am asking about--

A 277 Yes, those are possibilities.

Q 278 What time did you see this man?

A 278 I would say it was between 2130 and 2200 hours; it might have been earlier than that.

Q 279 You say that at the time you saw Rogers he wasn't ill?

A 279 I wouldn't call him ill.

Q 280 You don't know whether he had been ill previously or not?

A 280 No.

Q 281 Would you say that his condition couldn't have been owing to the fact that he had been previously ill?

A 281 That question to me is rather ambiguous. Do you want my opinion of whether his illness previously was responsible for his condition at that time?

Q 282 Yes?

A 282 No, I don't think so.

Ninth witness for the Prosecution, Capt. J. W. Boyd, C.D.C., having been duly sworn,is examined by the prosecutor:

Q 283 You are, I believe a dental officer, attached to the 11 Cdn Fd. Amby

A 283 Yes, sir.

Q

Q 284 And on the night in question you were at the M.D.S. of that unit?
A 284 Yes, sir.
Q 285 And I believe that you went to the Guard Room during the evening of that day, with Major Thompson?
A 285 I followed him down.
Q 286 A6 about what time was that, do you remember?
A 286 I don't recall the hour, it was in the early evening.
Q 287 And will you just tell the Court what you found when you got to the guard room?
A 287 Major Thomson had gone on ahead of me and when I got down there he was dressing the wound in Rogers' hand. Rogers was on the floor and Major Thompson was trying to put the dressing on his hand. There was someone sitting on Rogers' feet, I think, and someone had his head, holding him down while the wound was being dressed. He was rolling around the floor.
Q 288 And were you speaking to him at all, or did you overhear any talking he was doing?
A 288 I overheard some conversation and I was talking to him directly later on, after the wound was dressed, not at the time Major Thompson was dressing the wound.
Q 289 Did you notice anything peculiar about his condition?
A 289 Yes, I did. I felt that he was probably under the influence of alcohol; he was rolling around the floor a bit, which would give me the impression that he was under the influence of alcohol.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 290 Do you recall any statement that you made in the guard room about the condition of Rogers?
A 290 To whom?
Q 291 Well, I don't know whether it was to the escort or to the guard. Did you make any at all, that you can recall?
A 291 I don't recall having made any.
Q 292 You don't recall making the statement-- referring to Rogers-- he isn't drunk, he is just sick, working himself into a lather. Leave him alone?"
A 292 Oh, yes, I said-- I don't think I said he wasn't drunk. I think I said directly to Rogers, to be quiet, because he was just working himself into a state by rolling around the floor, but I don't think I said he wasn't drunk.
Q 293 Are you positive that you didn't, or not?
A 293 No, I am not positive, but I don't think I felt that way about it.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q 294 How did you feel about it?
A 294 As I said before, from his behaviour, I felt he wasunder the influence of liquor.

[illegible]

Statement made by the accused at the taking of the summary of evidence is admitted in evidence upon the admission by the defence that the accused had been properly warned, and formal proof of this document is unnecessary.

(Exhibit P. 1)

THE CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

D E F E N C E

THE PRESIDENT: Rogers, do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: First of all, I am going to submit that Pte. Rogers has no case to answer; that the charges have not been substantiated.

THE PREISDENT: Are you making an address in defence--

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, I am making a submission that we have no case to answer, that the charges haven't been proved. The first charge is that "When on active Service committing a civil offence, that is to say, when in charge of a motor vehicle on a road, was wrongfully under the influence of drink, contrary to Sec 15(1) of the Road Traffic Act, 1930." Now, we have no evidence whatsoever that Pte. Rogers was in charge of a motor vehicle on the 20th of January, or any other day, in the first place. Also that he was wrongfully under the influence of liquor, contrary to Sec. 15(1) of the Road Traffic Act. There has been no introduction of the Road Traffic Act and I don't know what the Road Traffic Act is, or what it says and it is up to the prosecution to prove that fact, which they haven't done. I also submit that the second charge: "That he rendered himself unfit for driving by reason of previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulants." Now, the only evidence we have of that is Pte. Rogers' own statement and his own statement has to be taken as a whole. If you accept the part about his having drinks, you must also accept the part where he says he didn't start out until he was in a fit condition to drive. And as far as the third charge is concerned, there is absolutely no evidence about malicious damage to substantiate the third charge. Of all the witnesses nobody says it was done deliberately. It was apparently done in one of Pte. Rogers' attempts to get some fresh air when he felt ill.

THE PRESIDENT: The Court will be closed while this is being considered.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED

THE PRESIDENT: The motion is denied and the charges stand. Rogers, do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
THE ACCUSED: Yes, sir.
THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I have another witness first.

Q 7 Now, will you tell the Court what happened on your way from Bramshott until you were finally placed under close arrest at Staplefield?
A 7 We left Bramshott approximately at two o'clock and proceeded to Guildford. Pte. Masuret and Rogers went out to get something to eat and they returned in a couple of hours, about five o'clock, I should say, and we proceeded on to the M.D.S. at Handcross and stopped--
Q 8 Wait a minute, where was the first place you stopped after you left Guildford?
A 8 At the side of the road, sir, a small place.
Q 9 Do you remember the name of it?
A 9 No, sir.

Q 10 What did you stop for?
A 10 To ~~urinate~~urinate urinate.
Q 11 Did you stop at Dorking?
All Yes, sir.
Q 12 What happened there?
A 12 We went in to urinate, sir.
Q 13 And where did you stop next, after Dorking?
A 13 Handcross.
Q 14 Go all the way from Dorking to handcross without stopping?

Q 19 And it was shortly after Handcross that you were stopped by Mr. Eckold.
A 19 I heard his voice.
Q 20 Now, on any occasion that you stopped between Guildford and Staplefield did Pte. Rogers go in anywhere and have anything to drink?
A 20 Not that I saw.
Q 21 Do you know whether he did or not?
A 21 Not to my knowledge.
Q 22 He was driving. Were you at all nervous about riding with Pte. Rogers?
A 22 No, sir.
Q 23 Was the ambulance driven in a proper manner?
A 23 Yes, sir.
Q 24 Did either you or Davis at any time make any complaints about the manner in which the ambulance was being driven?
A 24 I didn't sir.
Q 25 Did Davis?
A 25 Not to my knowledge.
Q 26 He was riding in the back with you, wasn't he?
A 26 Yes, sir.
Q 27 What was the condition of Pte. Rogers during the trip from Guildford to Handcross?
A 27 As far as I saw him, sir, he was all right.
Q 28 Quite all right?
A 28 Yes, sir.
Q 29 What time did you leave Guildford?
A 29 I should say about five o'clock.
Q 30 And what time was it when Mr. Eckold stopped you?
A 30 I couldn't say, sir, I haven't any idea.

THE PROSECUTION DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

The 2nd Witness for the Defence, A27211, Pt. Masuret, R. P., 11 Cdn. Pd. Amb., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defence:

Q 31 Do you recall the night of the 20th January last?
A 31 Yes, sir.
Q 32 On leaving Bramshott you went first of all to Guildford?
A 32 Yes, sir.
Q 33 Will you tell the Court what took place in Guildford?
A 33 As it was late in the day we decided to stop and get some lunch.
Q 34 Approximately what time was it?
A 34 Approximately 2:30. So we stopped and went to this restaurant and ordered a sandwich and coffee and in the course of waiting for our order we met a soldier who was playing a guitar and singing and he invited us to have a drink. We had possibly two drinks and Pte. Rogers became quite ill and went to the toilet at the back, to be sick. When he came back I had another drink and Pte. Rogers not feeling well, he took another drink to see if it wouldn't make him feel a little better and it made him ill again. We had a fourth drink and I told Pte. Rogers he had better wait until he felt better before carrying on to Terry's Cross and Brighton. We were there approximately two hours until Pte. Rogers felt a little better and we decided to carry on back to the units.

Q 35 So you left somewhere around 5:30, did you?
A 35 Yes, sir.
Q 36 And what took place on the way back, how many stops did you make?
A 36 Three in all, sir.
Q 37 What happened at those stops?
A 37 Well, at two of the stops we stopped to urinate, and at the third stop at Handcross we stopped to go into the hotel, Pte. McPherson and myself, and Pte. Rogers was inquiring the best road through to Terry's Cross.
Q 38 At either of the first places ~~XXXX~~ where you stopped to urinate, were there any hotels?
A 38 None that we went to, but there might have been, but we went to the railway station.
Q 39 And did Pte. Rogers come into the hotel at Handcross after you were in there?
A 39 No, sir.
Q 40 You didn't see him?
A 40 No, sir.
Q 41 Do you know whether or not Pte. Rogers had anything to drink after he left Guildford?
A 41 I know he did not.
Q 42 What was his condition?
A 42 Well, he seemed to be sick to his stomach, as though he had probably eaten or taken something that had upset his stomach.
Q 43 How was his driving?
A 43 His driving was perfectly all right. It was such a dark, rainy and slippery night we proceeded very slowly.
Q 44 You weren't at all nervous about driving with Pte. Rogers?
A 44 Not a bit, sir.
Q 45 Were you in the guard room with Pte. Rogers?
A 45 Yes,sir.
Q 46 Did his condition in there change from what it had been previously, while driving down?
A 46 No, I still think he wasn't feeling very well, sir.
Q 47 What was the temperature in the guard room?
A 47 It was very hot, sir. I don't know exactly what it might be but it was very close and hot.
Q 48 Have you any idea, approximately, of the distance from Guildford to where Mr. Eckold stopped you?
A 48 I imagine it must be fifty some odd miles.
Q 49 How long did it take you to make that journey?
A 49 Oh, about two and a half hours, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q 50 I believe on this trip when you started out you were the ambulance orderly?
A 50 Yes, sir.
Q 51 And Rogers was the driver in charge of the vehicle?
A 51 Yes, sir.
Q 52 And when you got to Handcross you say you and McPherson went into the hotel?
A 52 Yes, sir.
Q 53 And had a beer, is that right?
A 53 Yes, sir.
Q 54 And did you see Pte. Davis at that time?
A 54 Pte. Davis was waiting with the ambulance.
Q 55 Are you quite sure that Pte. Davis and Rogers didn't come into the hotel while you were there?
A 55 Davis came into the hotel.
Q 56 But you didn't see Rogers?
A 56 I didn't see Rogers in the hotel, no sir.
Q 57 What would you say if Davis said he did come in with him-- that Davis was lying?
A 57 No, I wouldn't say that.
Q 58 To the same extent you don't know whether he had a drink or not?
A 58 Not to my knowledge sir, he didn't.
Q 59 Do you know?
A 59 Not to my knowledge, I couldn't say so.

Q 60 Davis had been in hospital, I think, with a

Q 68 And you considered calling another driver at that time?

Q 69 And when you finally did start off you started pretty slow, did you?
A 69 He drove approximately 20 miles an hour all the way.
Q 70 And did Rogers feel a little sick from time to time while he was driving?
A 70 Well, he wasn't up to his best form.
Q 71 Well then what was your own condition-- how did these four drinks affect you?
A 71 I had a very bad headache, sir, and a little nausea.
Q 72 Is it fair to say that you were somewhat intoxicated?
A 72 No, sir, I had more of a headache than anything else.
Q 73 You felt the influence of the liquor?
A 73 I had a headache, sir.
Q 74 Well, then after Mr. Eckold stopped the ambulance and Rogers got in the staff car, subsequently on the way up the road the ambulance was stopped again, while you got out to relieve yourself, and then you got into the staff car, is that right?
A 74 Yes, sir.
Q 75 And I suppose you and Rogers were rather worried at that time?
A 75 Yes, sir.
Q 76 And what was Rogers' condition in the staff car?
A 76 Well, he was upset about being stopped, because he figured had they known we had to go Bo Brighton and to Terry's Cross we wouldn't possibly be returning to the M.D.S. on our scheduled time.
Q 77 Did Rogers have his rifle with him in the cab of the car?
A77 I couldn't say, sir.
Q 78 You didn't see him with a rifle all day?
A 78 No, I didn't see the rifle;it is generally kept in the can of the car.
Q 79 Was the vehicle immobilized at any time?
A 79 What do you mean, exactly, sir.
Q 80 Was it immobilized; did he do anything to the engine to render it impossible to drive it?
A 80 No, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q 81 Was the vehicle ever left alone?
A 81 No, sir. At no time, sir.

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q 82 When you knew you had to go to Terry's Cross and Brighton-- how did you know?
A 82 They told us at Brmashott.
Q 83 How far is Brighton from Terry's Cross?
A 83 I couldn't tell you, I don't know the miles.
Q 84 Do you know just exactly what was that drink you had?
A 84 No, sir, it was something I had neverhad before.

Q 60 Davis had been in hospital, I think, with an attack of influenza?
A 60 I don't recall, I think it was some ear trouble, sir.
Q 61 And do you remember him objecting to the length of time this trip was taking?
A 61 He did say once to hurry up, if possible, but on account of Pte. Rogers being ill I didn't think it was advisable to move on until he felt better
Q 62 Now, you told us that Pte. Rogers had a couple of drinks in Guildford and that he was then ill, after he had had a couple of drinks?
A 62 Yes, sir.
Q 63 And then he came back and tried to consume some more of the same medicine?
A 63 Yes, he had another.

The 3rd witness for the defence, the accused, D105558, Pte. Rogers, C. A., 11 Cdn Fd. Amb., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defence:

Q 85 Do you recall the 20th of January?

A 85 I do.

Q 86 You have heard the other witnesses giving evidence right up to the time when you left Guildford, but first, when you reached Guildford at about two o'clock in the afternoon?

A 86 Yes, sir.

Q 87 You tell the Court what you did from that time until you were stopped by Lieut. Eckold?

A 87 The time of our arrival in Guildford was 2:30. We went to the restaurant at approximately a quarter to three and we had given our order for a lobster sandwich each. We had been there perhaps five minutes when we first talked to this sergeant of the R.C.E. and he immediately produced this bottle that I assumed to be wine, about 40 ounces, of which about one-third had been consumed. He offered us a drink and poured it out in what I believe to be an 8 oz. glass and I should say he would have poured out an inch to an inch and a half in the bottom of this water glass. The Sgt. said that it was sherry wine. However, its colour was a very pale amber and I thought as I tasted it it had been adulterated with something else-- Scotch whiskey, I thought at the time. It had a very peculiar taste. I had another drink or two, possibly three, along with the sandwich. It is not correct to say that I had two drinks, then was sick and then came back and took some more drinks. After going to the toilet and vomiting I never had another drink at any time that day. I vomited two or three times and everything that was in my stomach seemed to come up, and although subsequently I attempted to vomit-- retched-- nothing more ever came up. This vomiting occurred between 3:15 and 3:30, after which time Pte. Masuret and I had this conversation regarding the advisability of 'phoning to have another driver come out and replace me. Pte. Masuret and I agreed that if we were to delay starting until this feeling of intense nausea passed that I would then be in a fit condition to carry on with me duty as driver. So, after a lapse of approximately an hour and a half, having emptied my stomach, we returned to the ambulance and proceeded straight through to Rygate before stopping. No stop was made at Dorking Private Davis evidently has this confused with Rygate and the distance I should say would be approximately 18 miles. In Rygate we stopped and Ptes. Masuret and McPherson did leave the ambulance to go to what they told me was the railway to urinate. However, I didn't go more than twenty feet from the cab of the ambulance.. I simply went ahead of the ambulance to ascertain whether the next corner was the proper corner for me to turn south on to the proper highway for Brighton, and returned to the cab and was sitting at the wheel when Ptes. McPherson and Masuret returned. We then proceeded to Handcross, with perhaps a short stop that would only actually take a minute, along that road. There was a light fog coming in in waves, necessitating my slowing down in several instances which may have given McPherson and Davis the impression of jerky riding. On stopping in Handcross I made this stop primarily to make sure that I was getting on the right fork to continue south to Terry's Cross. Once I had stopped McPherson got out, was joined by Masuret and they went into the hotel. I remained standing by the car with Pte. Davis, who had also gotten out of the body of the ambulance. We discussed which fork it was-- there are several at that point. Private Davis did ask me to go to the Hotel, and ask Masuret and McPherson to hurry along, but I did not go inside the hotel. I became engaged in conversation with a civilian on the sidewalk just outside the door of the Saloon Bar, ascertaining from him that I was taking the right fork. After Masuret and McPherson returned to the ambulance we proceeded along for approximately two miles before being overtaken by Lieut. Eckold. During all of this trip from Guildford to this point where Lieut. Eckold overtook us I was at all times in complete control of my faculties and of the vehicle.

I recall snatches of conversation I had with Masuret in connection with turnings in the road and I discussed various landmarks which appeared in the dark. At no time, after leaving Guildford which, it may be borne in mind, was at 1630 hours, until being put in the guard room at approximately 2030 hours, did I have anything more to drink, nor would it have been possible for me to do so without having been observed by Masuret.

On arrival in the guard house I found the room, which has the approximate dimensions of 12 x 15 feet, to be extremely hot and stuffy. This tended to cause to recur my former condition of nausea. On arriving there in the guard house it became immediately apparent to me that the guards all took it for granted that I was intoxicated. They made a lot of joking remarks regarding that and I would say that any semblance to a state of intoxication that I may have shown while in that guard house was purely feigned on my part. I simply felt that I should cooperate in a good joke. I recall vividly everything that transpired there, and was at no time in a condition of intoxication. Resistance to the dressing of my hand was purely verbal and made to the guards, and not to the medical officer, Major Thompson. As concerns the broken glass, I submit that that was done entirely accidentally and with absolutely no malicious intention. That is all.

Q 88 How far is it from Guildfrod to where you were stopped?
A 89 I would estimate it to be 40 miles, more or less.
Q 90 By the road you took?
A 90 Yes, sir.
Q 91 That is the most direct road, is it?
A 91 No, sir, it would be possible to go through Fleet and Reading. That way it would be possible to go threre in 30 miles. The only thing is they are very secondary roads and roads which would have been entirely unfamiliar to me.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q 92 When you got to Handcross, Davis objected to that stop?
A 92 No, sir, not to me directly.
Q 93 Weren't you talking to him after Masuret and McPherson went into the hotel?
A 93 Yes, sir.
Q 94 And didn't he object to that stop there?
A 94 He insinuated in this way "I wish they would hurry up. I would like to get back. I am hungry and I don't feel well."
Q 95 How far away was this hotel?
A 95 Directly across the street from the spot where we were stopped.
Q 96 And you heard Davis give evidence here to the effect that you and he want in to find Masuret?
A 96 That is incorrect. I wasn't inside the door. I went as far as the sidewalk-- perhaps he imagined I was behind him-- but I spoke to this civilian and asked him if this were the right fork, just as we got to the door.
Q 97 When you met this sergeant, he said this drink he had was sherry?
A 97 Yes, sir.
Q 98 And you thought it was something like Scotch whiskey?
A 98 Yes, sir, or some sort of an adulterant.
Q 99 So you had about four drinks of this?
A 99 That would be the total, sir, four.
Q 100 Now, Masuret said you had a couple of drinks, you were feeling ill, you went out to the lavatory, vomited and came back and had a coupl more?
A 100 That is incorrect.
Q 101 You think Masuret isn't telling the truth?
A 101 Well, of course, there was a certain amount of confusion regarding my being sick immediately.
Q 102 When you say immediately feeling sick, you had been there for some 45 minutes after you had had these drinks. You didn't knock down four drinks right one after another?
A 102 As I recall it I had two of these drinks before the sandwich arrived-- it was a lobster sandwich.

Q 103 I suggest they were good strong drinks?
A 103 They were an inch or an inch and a half in an 8 oz. water glass.
Q 140 Just drink it neat?
A 140 Yes, it tasted more like wine than any hard liquor.
Q 141 Well, then in any event, after about 45 minutes you became sick?
A 141 Yes, sir
Q 142 And at that stage of the game--
A 142 I thought I was poisoned.
Q 143 You thought you were poisoned, and I suppose you agree with me you were in no fit condition to drive an ambulance?
A 143 Not right at that moment; I couldn't drive an ambulance when I was vomiting.
Q 144 You were feeling pretty dizzy?
A 144 Yes, sir, this was combined dizziness and nausea.
Q 145 Have you ever experienced that before?
A 145 Yes, sir.
Q 146 And then you made the statement that you got to the guard house, in your sick and unsteady condition--
A 146 I think that I said being confined in these close quarters caused a recurrence of my sick and nauseated condition.
Q 147 Yes, that is what you started out to say. I suggest that you felt dizzy and you were nauseated from time to time after you left Guildford?
A 147 Along the road, sir?
A 148 From time to time after you left Guildford, before you got to the guard house?
A 148 I never was sick.
Q 149 Did you feel sick?
A 149 Well, more or less a hangover from this vomiting.
Q 150 A hangover from the drinking?
A 150 I think I was sick, rather than intoxicated. I know I didn't feel high or do any singing.
Q 151 You said in your statement of evidence; "several short stops were made along this road both to enquire directions and to stop until I felt less dizzy." I suggest to you you felt dizzy from time to time as you were driving along?
A 151 Yes, sir and I thought it would be in the interests of safety.
Q 152 Now, you heard the evidence of Pte. Ewing here, driving the staff car. He said that he stopped after Masuret got in, and you indicated you were going to be ill and he stopped so that you could be sick?
A 152 He stated, I believe, that I simply retched. Nothing came up.
Q 153 In any event, that was about the way you were feeling?
A 153 Yes, sir, I believe there was one stop where I felt like retching.
Q 154 Now, then, when you got into the guard house, you have made this rather extraordinary statement, "any semblance of intoxication on my part was feigned. I thought I should participate in a good joke. Is it your intention to have your impression that your entire conduct in the guard house was feigned?
A 154 Absolutely, sir.
Q 155 Was simply an act you were putting on?
A 155 Absolutely, sir.
Q 156 And yet you said in your statement; "I presume that in a fit of temper I rushed for the door and in passing struck the window"?
A 156 Yes, sir.
Q 157 So you were in a bad temper?
A 157 I wanted some fresh air.
Q 158 We have had two witnesses who say that they offered to take you out under escort, what do you say as to that?
A 158 That wasn't true.
Q 159 I suggest that you were so much under the influence of liquor that you don't know what happened there?
A 159 No, sir.
Q 160 You say that at no time, prior to your cutting your hand, or after Major Thompson came in to dress your hand, that they offered to take you out, under escort?
A 160 I believe it is L/Cpl. Howden that makes that statement, which I would challenge absolutely, as being untrue.

Q 161 Major Thompson makes that statement, too. What would you say as to that?

A 161 I believe that Major Thompson formed an opinion through Max Howden or some of the guards saying they offered to take me out, but they didn't.

Q 162 And you want us to believe that in the presence of the second in command of your unit, that you put on a show such as you did, requiring two men to hold you down, while Major Thompson dressed your hand?

A 162 What is that again?

Q 163 Are you suggesting that we should believe that in the presence of the 2nd in command of your unit, that was simply an act, put on, and that notwithstanding the presence of the 2 i/c you continued to put this show on, requiring two men to enable Major Thompson to dress your hand?

A 163 I think perhaps that I could paint the picture a little more clearly One witness has stated that there were only four or five guards in that room--

Q 164 Four or five persons?

A 164 At the time Major Thompson was there there were at least ten persons in that room, who were crowding around me, shoving out their hands, crowding in front, close over me, causing a lot of confusion and my natural reaction to that, on being made to do all this was to not disappoint them and cooperate a bit with them. They wanted to make me out drunk, so I thought I would play ball.

Q 165 And you were quite happy about it?

A 165 I think I would be a spoil sport of I simply lay there and did nothing.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATIONOF FINDING.

After Finding:

The Prosecutor files M.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6 in connection with the accused.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I would just like to point out that Mr. Eckold, his Company Commander, states that he had a good previous record, had given no trouble, and that the only things on his conduct are minor things, and that he has already spent 21 days in custody, awaiting trial on this charge.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE

46A

AA Sec. 18 - D 105518 Pte. Rogers C.A. "MT" Coy.,11 CDN Fd Amb RCAMC

The accused after being Duly warned states:-

I D105518 Pte. Rogers C.A. a member of "MT" Coy.,11 Cdn. Fd.Amb. RCAMC., was one of the duty Ambulance Drivers on 20th January 1941 at a Field Position. I received a call at 0930 hours from Cpl.Marshall in the Medical Inspection Room ordering me to proceed to "H" Coy A.D.S. at Preston Road, Brighton. We arrived at A.D.S. and were given a Pneumonia patient with instructions to proceed back to the M.D.S. On arriving there the patient was not removed from the Ambulance. Captain Pugh the Medical Officer of the Day instructing me to proceed to No. 15 General Hospital at Bramshot, which I did,leaving the M.D.S. at 1050 and arriving there at approximately 1330 hrs. The patient was received and admitted to Hospital and Pte Masuret the ambulance orderly received a stretcher and blankets in exchange for the ones we had brought in. Just as we were about to leave No.15 General Hospital to return to the M.D.S. Pte. MacPherson saw Pte. Masuret and told him that he and Pte. Davis were being discharged from Hospital and asked if it would be possible for them to get a lift back to the M.D.S. with us. I believe that Pte Masuret told Ptes. MacPherson and Davis that we would be glad to give them a lift back with the permission of the Hospital Authorities. This permission was obtained on Pte.Masuret's signature.

On our departure from Bramshot Ptes. Masuret, MacPherson, Davis and myself discussed stopping for a lunch along the way,Pte. Masuret and myself having had no dinner. At no time whatsoever did I, in my own mind, regard Ptes MacPherson and Davis as patients entrusted in my care. Hospital discharge papers for both men,which I saw, recommended return to duty.

We left Bramshot at approximately 1400 hours and proceeded without stopping to Guildford, where it had been agreed that we would stop for something to eat.

I parked the Ambulance at approximately 1430 hours, on a quiet side street and asked Ptes. MacPherson and Davis if either or both would stay with the Ambulance while Pte Masuret and I want to eat. Both did so. Masuret and I went to a resturant which I knew well, having visited it several times. We ordered food and while waiting for it to be served, got into conversation with a Sergeant of the R.C.A. who was there playing a guitar and singing. The Sergeant had what I believed to be a 40 oz.bottle of wine. He invited Masuret and I to have a drink. I We had 4 over a period of approximately 45 minutes, along with our food. The wine had an immediate effect on me. I became very dizzy and sick to my stomach, and told Masuret that I had better wait for awhile till I felt better before attempting to drive. The total length of time spent in the resturant was approximately two hours, at the end of which time we returned to the ambulance and proceeded on toward the A.D.S. at Terry's Cross, which was Davis' destination.

I still felt rather sick but was capable of driving and proceeded very slowly. We left Guildford at 1630 hours, passed through Ringate at approximately 1800 hoursand proceeded down the Brighton highway. Several short stops were made along this route, both to inquire directions and to stop until I felt less dizzy.

At approximately two miles south of Handcross, Lieut.Mckold, in a staff car overtook us. I stopped. He inquired if I had been drinking and I admitted I had. He requested me to ride in the staff car driven by Pte. Ewing, while he(Lieut.Mckold) drove the ambulance. Both vehicles proceeded to the M.D.S. On our arrival at M.D.S. Pte. Masuret and myself were placed under close arrest.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE

A A Sec 18 - Lieut. D.H. Eckold "MT" Comy. 11 CDN Fd Amb.

THE FIRST WITNESS - Lieut. D.H.Eckold States:-

I Lieut D.H. Eckold, Officer in charge of "MT" Company 11 CDN. Field Ambulance, RCASC attached as in W.E. left the M.D.S. at approximately 1930 hours on 20 Jan 1941 and proceeded down the Brighton highway on my way to A.D.S. at Terry's Cross. About a mile or so on the Staplefield side of the first road block on the Brighton road, we Pte.Ewing(Staff Car driver) and myself passed a Canadian Ambulance. On seeing this particular vehicle I wondered who was in charge of it because I could not see the numbers as they were covered with an accumulation of dirt and mud and also as I had just left the M.D.S. , I was pretty sure none of our ambulances had received a call.

I decided to investigate . Pte.Ewing and myself passed the ambulance and stopped by the side of the road some distance ahead. No signals were given to the driver at this time . The ambulance appeared to slacken speed but continued on past. My reason for stopping and not giving signals being that the driver of the vehicle would have seen the unit serial number and in all probability would stop.

After the Ambulance passed as we were parked at the side of the road we started away again, caught up with the ambulance and drove beside it. It was dark, the side curtain was up and I was unable to see who was the driver. The speed of the ambulance gradually decreased and finally came to a stop against the left side of the road.

The Staff car stopped and I got out and Ewing pulled ahead in front of the ambulance. I walked over to the vehicle and opened the door and asked "Who is this". The first thing that came to my attention was the very strong odour of liquor. The answer to my first question was "Rogers". From the odour in the cab and the way the driver answered my question, I realized that he (the driver) was under the influence of liquor. I ordered Rogers from the wheel of the cab and told him to get in the staff car. I xlimbed behind the wheel of the ambulance, turned the vehicle around and headed back to the M.D.S. with Ewing following me in the staff car. The Ambulance orderly whom I later found out to be Pte Masuret was also under the influence of alchol.

About three miles from Staplefield, Masuret had been muttering , insisting that he be allowed to get out in order to urinate. I brought the Ambulance to a stop and allowed him to get out. Ewing came up to me and reported that he thought someone was in the back of the Ambulance. I did not know anyone was in the back. I did not investigate but carried on to the M.D.S.

On arriving I opened the door of the MDS and called Sgt. McCullough and seeing Cpl.Good called him also. The back of the Ambulance was opened and I saw Pte Davis and another Private who dismounted and all four men were taken into the M.D.S. and placed under close arrest in charge of Sgt.McCullough who was the senior N.C.O. present.

After seeing that the four men had been put in the Guard Room, I immediately reported the matter to the Orderly Officer of the day Major Thompson. I then resumed my trip to the A.D.S. at Terry's Cross. Pte Rogers had signed out for a trip to Bramshot at 0900 hours the same morning and had not been seen or heard of until 2000 hours when we found them on the Brighton Highway.

Q. You were not aware Sir, that my call at 0900 hrs 20 Jan 41 was to proceed to the A.D.S. at Brighton?
A. No.
Q. Did you check the sheet that I had signed out Sir?
A. I was told you had gone to Bramshot. The time was 0900 hours.
Q. You did not personally read Bramshot on that sheet Sir?
A. No.
Q. You were then unaware Sir, that this call first necessitated my proceeding to Brighton, waiting for a patient and returning to M.D.S. a matter of approximately 35 miles before proceeding thence to Bramshot?
A. I did not know that.
Q. At the time you first noticed this as yet unidentified ambulance travelling in front of your staff car, was it in your opinion, at that time being operated in an improper manner?
A. The distance with the ambulance covered at that time would be about 200 or 300 yards, and in that time I could perceive nothing wrong in the way it was being handled.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE

A A Sec 18 - Lieut. D.H. Eckold, MT Coy 11 CDN Fd Amb. (

Q. The speed was not excessive?
A. No.
Q. Did anything give you reason to suspect that it's driver might have been drinking?
A. No.
Q. Upon opening the Cab door and noting the odour of liquor, did this odour strike you as being like the breaths of a person who had been ill or sick and vomiting or was it that of freshly consumed liquor.?
A. I would say that the odour in the cab was due to freshly consumed liquor because it was so strong.
Q. Could the odour have emenated from either of the two persons in the cab?
A. There is no doubt in my mind that the odour in the cab was due to the two people riding in it. Their speech was inclined to be thick and when Rogers got out and went to the staff car he had a tendency to walk unsteadily.

Pte. Rogers declines further questioning.

THE SECOND WITNESS - D92042 Pte. Ewing,G.E. states:-

I D 92042 Pte. Ewing G.E. a member of "MT" Company, 11 CDN Fd.Amb. RCASC attached in W.E. was on duty as staff car driver on Jan 20, 1941 I was driving Lieut.Eckold from M.D.S. to A.D.S. Terry's Cross between 2015 and 2030 hours. While on the way we met an ambulance. Recognizing the same as one of our own I asked Lieut Eckold who it would be.

I was then told by Lieut Eckold to pull ahead and stop. The Ambulance passed me . I then started up again and drew along side of the ambulance and blew the horn for it to stop. The ambulance stopped and Lieut Eckold got out of the car and told Rogers to get out of the ambulance. Then he got in the ambulance and told me to take Rogers back to the M.D.S. in the Staff Car, which I did.

Q. Was there any question of me refusing to get out of the Ambulance?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Did I step out of the Ambulance without being ordered to ?
A. I can't say for sure, because, when Lieut Eckold got out of the car I pulled ahead to the curb and walked back to the ambulance.
Q. Do you mean you did not hear Lieut Eckold give me an order to get down from the Ambulance?
A. No, I did not hear any such order.

Pte. Rogers declines further questioning.

I was discharged from 15 Gen. Hospital at approximately 1400 hrs and proceeded into the ambulance for my trip back to the Unit. We stopped at Guildford for about 2 hours and we left there at about 1700 hrs. We made a coulpe of other stops for the purpose of urinating. Then we resumed to the M.D.S. We were put under close arrest and remained there a short while.

We were paraded before Major Thompson. He released us and told us to get something to eat. After which we were returned to A.D.S. at 251 Preston Road, Brighton.

Q. Were you at Bramshot as a bed patient, an out patient or for observation?
A. I was there for an X-ray of left wrist and after cast had set was allowed up and out. I was there from Friday to Monday. The cast was put on on Saturday morning.
Q. How did you happen to contact Pte. Masuret to get this ride back to the Unit in our ambulance?
A. I was told to report at the Administration Building at 1330 hours. A few minutes later I met Pte.Masuret bringing in a stretcher. I asked him what he was doing and he said he was going back to the Unit. I then got in touch with the clerk and he advised me to return to my Unit with Pte. Masuret.
Q. To your knowledge was there any prearranged plan that you and Pte.Davis should return in our ambulance?
A. I saw Pte. Davis and told him we would likely go back with Pte.Masuret and he said it was satisfactory to him.
Q. Did the Hospital Authorities plan to send you back in our ambulance before you inquired of Pte Masuret if it would be possible for yourself and Pte. Davis to do so?
A. No.
Q. I assume then that we were simply a means of transportation back to the Unit ?
A. Yes, the Hospital was short of ambulances.
Q. At the time you entered the ambulance did you consider yourself a sick patient?
A. No, I did not as I was told by Major White I could return to my Unit and carry on my regular work as a dispenser.

A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Were you aware that we had been overtaken by Lieut Eckold on the highway and that he had taken over the driving of the ambulance?
A. I heard Lieut. Eckold's voice but I did not know who was driving till after we arrived at the M.D.S.

At 1330 hours I reported to the Administration Office for my discharge papers. When I arrived at the office I met Pte. Masuret and MacPherson. Pte Masuret informed me that he was going to take MacPherson and myself badk to the Unit.

Leaving the hospital at approximately 1400 hours we proceeded toward the Unit area. Pte. Masuret told me he was going to stop in Guildford, asking me if I had any objections of them stopping there for something to eat. I stated to Pte. Masuret that it did not matter as long as he was not too long. He said that he would only be 20 minutes.

When we arrived at Guildford Ptes.Masuret,Rogers and MacPherson left the ambulance and proceeded down the street for something to eat. They were in Guildford for two hours. Leaving Guildford at approximately 1700 hours. We made three stops; stopping at Dorking Ptes. Rogers, MacPherson and Masuret left the ambulance to go to a lavatory and returned in a short time. Our next stop was farther along the road.

As we were near the M.D.S. Ptes. Masuret and MacPherson left the ambulance and proceeded to an Hotel which was at Handcross. Pte. Rogers and myself stood outside the ambulance talking about the road to A.D.S. "B", while Ptes.MacPherson and Masuret were in the hotel for some time. I asked Pte. Rogers to go to the hotel with me to get Masuret and MacPherson to come and go on to the A.D.S. I cannot state whether Masuret and MacPherson were drinking. Pte.Rogers did not have a drink in the hotel at Handcross.

Proceeding from there along the Highway towards Brighton we were stopped by Lieutenant Eckold, who, taking over the ambulance, drove it back to the M.D.S. When we arrived we were placed under arrest. Pte. MacPherson and I were taken before the Major and were released to go back to our Company. During all the trip Pte. MacPherson and myself were riding in the back of the Ambulance.

Insert 1. Rogers normal speech is clear, and his enunciation perfect, and when he replied to my first question, it was done in an obviously slurred and peculiar manner, which together with the fumes in the cab made me come to the difinite conclusion that this man had been drinking and for that reason was unfit to drive.

Insert 2. Roger's during the time I saw him drove 3-4 hundred yards down the Brighton Highway, which was a straight road at this particular point.
When Rogers got out of the Ambulance and walked to the Staff Car, he was lit up by the headlights of the Ambulance. He was definitely unsteady as he walked toward the Staff Car.

As this incident regarding breaking of the glass occurred one day before leaving it was not and has not yet been possible to get an exact estimate but in my opinion the damage would be approximately £1-0-0.

I was on duty at the M.D.S. when Lieut Eckhold called to the door to come and arrest Pte. Rogers and Masuret. I came out, and Rogers was just getting out of the Staff Car. Rogers and Masuret came into the hallway. I then told them to stay right where they were. I noticed Roger's breath was smelling of alcohol. He was complaining aloud that someone else was placed in charge of the Ambulance. In the hallway Rogers and Mazuret started to clown. Cpl. Good, R.E. and 2 escorts then took the men away to the Guard Room. When I saw Rogers he did not appear to me to be much out of the normal. When Rogers started to fool around with Masuret, I was surprised to see him do that, because normally he was a well conducted chap, and I have known him for a long time.

I was detailed to arrest Rogers. When I searched him for weapons, I was satisfied he had no liquor on his person, and I am satisfied that he could not get any liquor in the Guard Room in which he was placed. I saw that he was taken to the Guard Room and left in there in charge of the 2 temporary escorts. About half an hour later I returned with 2 permanent Guards. At that time Rogers was demanding to see an Officer. His speech was different from normal. He was somewhat unsteady in his gait and manner. I went back to the Guard Room, and I stayed there for awhile. I came and went back several times. On my 3rd trip of the evening to the Guard Room I saw that Roger's hand was bleeding Major Thompson came in too, and dressed his hand. Rogers was lying down, first on his back and then on his stomach. He resisted his hand being dressed, and I had to hold down one hand, and others assisted in keeping Rogers in the position so that his hand could be dressed. He was asking for air and finally he said, "Alright, you can dress my hand". During this time he was commenting on the various Officers, whether he thought them good or bad. His remarks were definitely insubordinate. The 2nd time I went into the Guard Room, I noticed that he had difficulty in keeping his head up. After his hand was dressed, the lights were turned out and the door opened. Later I took the accused outside. There he retched, but nothing came up. He came back and his speech became clear, and he had less difficulty in holding up his head. Then he settled down for the night. The Guard Room was hot and stuffy, without proper ventilation. Cpl. Howden came into the Guard Room while I was there with the 2 [redacted] Guards, and he remained there for some time.

5th Witness - AP7004 L/Cpl. Howden, R. being recalled, and after being duly sworn, states:-

I have known Rogers for some time, and how he normally acts. Down in the Guard Room he seemed to swing his arms about in a strange manner. I did not smell his breath. At times his speech was slurred and different. Normally he speaks precisely and clearly. He seemed at times to have difficulty in keeping his head erect. While I was there Rogers put his hand through the window. He had previously been asking for air, and I told him I could not open the door on account of the blackout. On 2 or 3 different occasions he walked around the room, swinging his arms, and resisting attempts to quieten him down. At times he seemed to walk alright, and at other times his knees seemed to buckle under him. I cannot swear that it was owing to his behaviour or whether it was a deliberate act that the window was broken. Also because his back was turned to me, I could not closely observe what happened at the time. I had previously offered, when refusing to open the window, to take his outside under escort, and he had declined to do so. When the accused hurt his hand, I, leaving the accused in charge of Cpl. Good, went up to get Major Thompson, who was Acting Orderly Officer that night.

The accused declines to question the witness at this time.

6th Witness. A3077, Pte. Brine, E.J. 11th Cdn. Fd. Amb. RCAMC CASF (RCASC) after having been duly sworn, states:-

On the night of Jan. 20th, 1941 at approximately 2030 hours I went on guard in the Guard Room. Pte. Rogers and Pte. Masuret had been placed in detention some time previous. Pte. Rogers seemed to me to be dizzy and complaining of the lack of air. At times he was choking, and seemed to be mad because the door could not be opened because of the blackout precautions. In my estimation Pte. Rogers had been drinking, but I would not say he was drunk, but I think his behaviour was due to lack of fresh air. He got mad and put his fist through the window.

Q. Did he object to having his hand dressed?
A. He objected for a minute, because he did not think it was worth while going to all the trouble of putting a bandage on. Then Major Thompson thought he had better because of possible infection, and then he did not object any longer. He held his hand out, and Major Thompson dressed it. After we took him outside for fresh air, he came in and laid down on the bed, and went to sleep. He was outside for about 5 minutes.

Masuret came into the bar with me, but I did not know whether he had a drink or not. Davis said 2 or 3 times during the trip that he felt miserable, and did not want to be delayed on the trip. As far as I can place it, before we stopped at Mandeross, he said he thought he had a temperature, and wanted to get on the way. He objected to the slow way the Ambulance was being driven. We stopped for 10 or 15 minutes at the Mandeross Hotel. The Ambulance was being driven much slower than usual, but in a jerky manner. I did not smell any alcohol on his breath. I wasn't looking for it. When Rogers and Masuret returned from lunch at Guildford, they just looked in and said they had been detained, and closed the door and drove on.

When Pte. At Dorking and Handcross I had objected to being detained any longer than necessary. When we stopped at Handcross I told all of them that I thought I had a temperature and wanted to go on. Masuret stopped in town, and he and MacPherson went to the Hotel at Handcross. Rogers and I waited for about 5 minutes and went to get them from the Hotel. We found Masuret and MacPherson and Sgt. Marshall standing up by the bar. They were not drinking at the time, but there were empty glasses in front of them. There was nobody else at the bar at the time. I asked Masuret to come along, [illegible] was not feeling well, and wanted to get going, and Masuret said he would be along in a few minutes. Then I left. Then Masuret and MacPherson came to the Ambulance about 15 minutes later. Rogers stayed behind at the Hotel with Masuret and Sgt. Marshall. At Handcross I noticed that Roger's speech was slurred. He did not seem unsteady on his feet. Rogers was quite talkative, and he seemed to pay no attention to what we said to him, which was unusual for Rogers to do so. His breath smelled of alcohol. Rogers drove the Ambulance very slowly. He frequently stopped in a jerky manner along the road.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

We both went that way - behind the kitchen. As I was going behind I tripped and fell on my knee. We sat down on the kerb and was going to pull up my trouser leg to see if my knee was bleeding. A couple of R.P.'s came along and shone their lights on us and told us to pick up that bundle and come with them. I didn't know the bundles were there until they told us to pick them up. They took us to the guard room and they placed a charge against us of being in possession of these articles.

A. I wanted to see the direction in which they were going light on the articles. One man was sitting down on the articles and I do not know on what the other was sitting. We told them to take their stuff and bring it to the guard room. The accused opened the bundle and I saw some articles to be blankets and white cloth. That is all I saw.

Q. Do you recognize the articles - Exhibit A, you see where to be the same ones you saw that night?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you know who was setting on the bundles?
A. No because it was dark and I was behind them.

A. I wouldn't say but I think they were sitting alongside it.
Q. Do you know what the equipment was?
A. No sir, I think there was a sheet and blankets and pillow cases.
Q. What did you do?
A. We took them to the guard room.

Cross Exam None

R.P. 83 (B) is complied with.

Address by Prosecution

The court has heard the three first witnesses and saw Pte Rogers with the articles which are proved by a CQMS who has a lot of experience in his work , to be public property. The accused never denied that they were in possession of these articles so I ask the court that Pte Rogers be found guilty and justice be made in the case.

Defending officer submits that evidence for the prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge because no evidence has been produced by the witnesses of the Prosecution establishing his identity in this court.

THE COURT DISALLOWS THIS SUBMISSION.

First Witness Defence

F54888 Pte Charles Bernard ROGERS, being duly sworn states:

On the evening of Aug 4 I was in company with Pte Wilson and proceeded to the town of Avellino together to a vino shop and remained there until it closed at approx 2200 hrs. We immediately went home and were coming accross the square in Canada Barracks and I asked Wilson to go with me to the kitchen to see if we could get a cup of tea. We both went that was - behind the kitchen. As I was going behind I tripped and fell on my knee. We sat down on the kerb and was going to pull up my trouser leg to see if my knee was bleeding. A couple of R.P.s came along and shone their lights on us and told us to pick up that bundle and come with them. I didn't know the bundles were there until they told us to pick them up. They took us to the guard room and they placed a charge against us of being in possession of these articles.

Cross-Exam by Prosecution

Q. Does the kitchen give tea to men at that hour of the night?
A. No.

Address by Defence in Litigation

I would like the court to take into consideration the following facts:

The accused got married in 1935 and is the father of three children. He enlisted voluntarily on 2 Sept 1939. He came overseas to England on 30 Dec 1939. He made the landing in Sicily on 10 July 1943. with his unit the West Nova Scotia Regt., and was still with his Unit until the beginning of May 1944. During that time he was evacuated three time for Malaria and got only two charges against him during that time. I ask the court to take into consideration that the accused has a family and I ask the clemency of the Court for the accused.

First witness for prosecution.

F40181, Sgt Bennett, R. W., "C" Coy, V. & S. Regt. being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am a member of "C" Coy, C. Gds. Regt. On 28 Nov. 43 I was in charge of "C" Coy Guard, also in charge of the men undergoing Field Punishment in the Coy. About 1500 hrs. Pte. Rogers, G. L., the Accused, who was undergoing Field Punishment started to leave the Guard Room. I asked him where he was going and he said "I am going for a wash". I asked him who had given him permission and he said "A Corporal". He didn't state any name. I told him he couldn't go out without an escort, but he just kept on going. I told him to come back, and I repeated that order two or three times. He kept on going and said "I will not come back". I reported the incident to the next guard commander when the guard was changed.

When I first ordered Rogers to come back he was about two or three yards away from me.

The Defence declines to cross-examine.

F40312, Pte. Devereux, E.A., "C" Coy, C.W.H.S. Regt., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:—

I was on guard on the afternoon 28 Feb. 43, when Pte. Rogers, the Accused came back from the Range. He was a prisoner in the guard room. He started to go out, and the Corporal in charge asked him where he was going. Cpl. Bennet asked him who had given him permission to go out, and he answered "Some Corporal." Cpl Bennet told him to go back to his room, and he just kept on going. Cpl Bennett told him again to go back to his room. He said that he would not, as he was going to have a wash, and he kept on going.

When Cpl Bennet ordered Pte. Rogers to return, Pte. Rogers was about twenty feet away. Cpl Bennet spoke in a loud voice. I was six feet from Cpl Bennet.

On 28 Feb. 43 I returned from the Range where I was on a Working Party and we all jumped off a truck. I ran up to my room, got my soap and towel and shaving gear and came downstairs, passing by the guard-room door. [illegible] was standing in the doorway. There were no guards in sight, although he may have been inside.

C de Bennet waited until I got down on the sidewalk, about forty or fifty feet from him, and then I heard him call out. I turned around and he asked "Where is your escort?" or words to that effect. I said "There are none up there". He asked me if I gave me permission to go out and wash and I said "The Corporal who was in charge of us". I heard him say something else after that, but I couldn't hear what it was. Then he put his hand up, and beckoned with his finger for me to come back. I didn't say anything. I just turned around and went in and washed. After five or ten minutes one of the guards came in and said I was wanted up at the Guard Room. I saw the guard went in to play cards and I went up to the Guard Room. No escort had been appointed to me while I was there. I had no escort while on the Working Party. I had had an escort on Saturday.

D3

I had been in the Corner House three days.

Cross-Examined by Prosecutor.

Plea in mitigation:-

The accused joined the Army in 1940, coming overseas in 1941. He has had three years service, and from that time his conduct sheet bears only two entries, which shows that he has been a good soldier.

This episode was partly due to a misunderstanding, through his not knowing that S/Sgt Bennet was in charge of him. He had no intention of committing a crime.

I would ask the Court to take into consideration when dealing with this case.

Summary of Evidence
in the case of

F 40774 Pte. George Leslie ROGERS, West Nova Scotia Regt, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas), stationed in the field,

He said "I am going for a walk". I told him he could not go without permission. He said "I am going". I said "come back". He paid no attention. I repeated "Come back" about three times, with no result. He did not come back. While I was still within hearing distance, I heard him say "I will not come back". He disappeared from sight, and I reported the matter to L/Cpl. Robichaud, who was just taking over as guard commander.

Rogers kept on going and L/Cpl Bennett repeated "Come back" two or three times, but Pte. Rogers walked out into the sidewalk. The second time that L/Cpl Bennett said "Come back" I heard Pte Rogers say "I'll be back" in going forward. What I said I heard him say. He had not returned when I came off guard between five and ten minutes later.

Edward Dewan

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness. No. D76209 Sgt. Sutherland W.B., R.M.R.(MG), having been duly sworn, states;

On Saturday 31 May 41 I was Coy. Orderly Sgt. After supper parade Cpl. Leatherbarrow came to me and asked me if there were any blankets missing from 15 Pl., I told him that there were none that I knew of at the time. I then asked him what he meant by this inquiry. He said that a 14 Pl. driver had been used to convey Pte. Rogers, whom I now recognise and a bundle down town.

Owing to the fact that 15 Pl. was Bn. Duty Pl., I decided to wait until the next day at 1600 hrs. before making a blanket inspection in the platoon. During that inspection I found that Pte. Rogers was missing two blankets. I immediate ly placed him under close arrest and reported to Capt. Lewis for further instructions.

Sgt. Sutherland W.B.

2nd Witness No D76430 Cpl. Davies M.I., R.M.R. (MG), having been duly sworn, states;

I have a sleeping-out pass and rarely use my blankets. Every morning I check over my equipment and found nothing amiss until Capt. Lewis requested me to see if I had the right number of blankets. On checking I found the right number there, but one of them was not mine. I knew that because I had sewn tabs on each blanket and on the substitute blanket there was no tab. The next day in our Coy. Office Capt Lewis asked me if I could identify a blanket which he produced. I recognised the blanket as the one on which I had sewn my number tab.

I told Mrs. Edney I was a Police Officer making enquiries respecting Army blankets which I had reason to believe she had bought from a Canadian Soldier on Saturday afternoon. She said "I am glad you have come. I phoned the Station last night." She then produced four blankets and said "Here they are."

I said to her "Would you care to explain how you came to buy these from a soldier?" She said "I did not know they were Army blankets. I asked him if they were his own. He said 'Yes'. I certainly would not have bought them had I known they were Army blankets. I thought they were always brown. I gave him 14/- for them"

I took possession of the blankets and took them to Sutton Police Station where I later handed them to Captain Lewis.

Later the same day I applied for a summons against Mrs. Edney for the following offence:-

"On 31st May, 1941, at 38, Carshalton Road West, did unlawfully buy or receive four Army blankets to the value of £2.12.0, the property of H.M. Canadian Government."
Contrary to Sec. 156 (1), Army Act, 1881."

This summons will be for hearing at 9.30 a.m. on 12th June, 1941, at Sutton Petty Sessions, Court House, Lodge Road, Sutton.

T. Cunningham
Det. Sergt. "Y".

Summary of Defence on behalf of:

B-137475 Pte Rogers. John Edward.
1 Can Ord Depot.

In endeavouring to bring out all the facts of the case the Prosecution has neglected to show that the accused had been drinking and that he probably was in a drunken condition when in the MESS Tap Room. The evidence of the C.M.P. to the contrary is not conclusive.

If Pte Rogers had been in his right and normal state he would not have resisted a C.M.P. Representative even although they approached him in molesting manner which can be seen by the evidence.

As to the charge of kicking, ~~The C.M.P.~~ the C.M.P Representative accounts that this was done in the struggle before he was placed under arrest. The kick was received in the struggle when the Provost were grappling with him and could only be expected as the inevitable result of not being out of the way of the feet.

Pte. Rogers being accustomed to carrying a revolver which incidentally had not been removed from him by a person in authority, did wear it from force of habit more than anything else just as the officers used to do when pistols were our personal weapons.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT.

No. B-137475 Rfn. Rogers, J.E.
1 Cdn Ord Demob Depot,
Canadian Army Overseas.

The Court will have reviewed the evidence presented before it by the Prosecution against this young Soldier possibly with some doubts as to the type of individual that they are having to deal with. It is quite apparent in the first place that the Accused is not to be considered a hardened offender regardless of his present misdemeaners.

Rfn. Rogers is but yet a youth of only 20 years who has been in the Army for nearly three years, having joined when he was but 17 years old. In this time he has had a good record as his crime sheet shows. He has not become involved in any serious army offence.

Rfn. Rogers comes from Toronto, where his parents are still living. He has one young Sister and a Brother who is also in the Canadian Army Overseas. The Family is of the working class and the young man is proud of their position as anyone might well be who considered the enormous contribution made by the Workers of Canada in winning the War.

Questioned on his intentions upon return to Civilian Life again Rogers feels the need of further schooling and technical training and is happy that the Government have planned to make it possible for him to go back to school. At the same time he feels that it is high time that he got out on his own to make an honest living. We hope that our competent advisers can persuade him to take the former course. He has already had a period of employment in Canada's Munitions Plants and knows what it is like to earn one's own living.

D Day plus 1 was the date on which Rfn. Rogers came to the continent. He was then in the thick of the fighting with the Queen's Own Rifles of the Third Cdn Inf Div. and he served with them until the division was within a couple of miles of the now famous Falais Gap. At that time he had performed a number of patrols and had undergone the continuously telling strain of attacks and waiting periods. He became an exhaustion case and was taken out to be put into one of the special employment coys.

Before coming to the Ordnance Maintenance Coy in December 1944 he was drafted once again to the Cdn. Inf. Corps but was not called. It should be mentioned as relevant to his service in the Queen's Own Rifles that before going into action Rogers has undergone only limited training and had not passed through a battle innoculation course. This was due to the fact that he had been employed on the Tank Proving Grounds at Camp Borden in Canada and that Overseas he had been transferred to the Cdn Inf Corps.

Cfn. Rogers's service with the Ordnance Corps for the past year has included general duty work of practically all kinds as well stretch after stretch of guard duty. Although his duties have probably been thankless at best during this period he has performed his duties faithfully as his conduct sheet has no entries for the period.

Finally, it is to his credit to explain that he was anxious to go before this Court with a plea of guilty to all charges and to request the Court to deal him his due. He is completely repentant for what he has done. The Defence Officer feeling that such an accused could not rightly admit blindly to something about which he has no recollection, not the slightest intention, has persuaded him to this presentation of his case.

May it please the Court to deal lightly in sentencing this young man. He has offered his country his life and now deserves to repatriated as soon as possible and to be given the best guidance obtainable in his rehabilitation program. It is our plea that he be returned to civilian life not a further casualty due to disciplinary measures.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX "A"

Statement of EVIDENCE in the case of:
B/137475 Rfn ROGERS, J.E.
1st. Canadian Ordnance Demob. Depot.
Vote 9 Spare Parts,
NIJMEGEN.

This is referred to in the Summary of Evidence in the case of B/137475 Rfn ROGERS, J.E. dated this 29 day of Nov 1945.

See Shall Capt. off typing Summary.

Sir,

At TILBURG on the 29th. OCTOBER at about 2115 hrs., I was on duty accompanied by L/Cpl. CHURCHER, C.M. Police, in the HEUVEL, when I was called into the NAAFI-canteen to deal with two CANADIAN soldiers, who were alledged to be causing a disturbance with drawn pistols. On entering the first floor of the premises, I saw the s/n. soldier with the butt of a pistol protruding from his open BATTLE DRESS BLOUSE.

I asked him what he was doing with a pistol in his possession, he did not reply, but took a pace back and struck me in the face. I took a pace towards him and he drew a SMITH and WESTON 38 CALIBRE W.D. No. V-586128. On drawing it the butt caught in his blouse and was wrenched from his grasp. As the soldier was being escorted from the N.A.A.F.I. by L/Cpl. CHURCHER and myself, he tripped us on the stairs. When picking the soldier up he kicked L/Cpl. CHURCHER in the face. I told him, he was under arrest and detained him in the MILITARY POLICE INFORMATION POST until transport arrived. He was then taken to the GUARD ROOM at BREDA and handed over to the N.C.O. i/c. GUARD to be detained.

He had no means of identification, so I took his particulars verbally and verified them from his unit by telephone.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 709.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

(Canadian Reinforcement units Routine Order No. 3, para 27, d/6 Jan 42)

Sir.

This man joined the army in Dec 1914. He came overseas with the Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment and has been with them ever since. He got posted to a reinforcement unit and missed going with his unit into action. This has made him very discontented and accounts for the crime which he has committed.

I wish to draw to your attention the fact that the man was away two days and twenty three hours and after this short period gave himself up which proves that his intention was not to absent himself but to draw attention to his case.

I am going to ask the court to be very lenient with this man and to give him all possible help to rejoin his unit by shortening his sentence.

Respectfully your [illegible] Lieut

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT
MARTIAL HELD AT "ROEDEAN", BRIGHTON
ENGLAND ON THE 13th DAY OF JANUARY 1941

Trial of No. B66580 - Private Rogers, Stephen, R. Regt. C., C.A.S.F.

Prosecutor: - Lieut. L. M. Howell, R. Regt. C.

Defending Officer: - Capt. A. C. Carter

1. The Order Convening the Court is read in the presence of the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following question:
Q Do you object to being tried by the President or any Members of the Court whose names you have heard read over?
A No.

3. The President, Members, Judge-Advocate and Shorthand Writer are duly sworn.

4. (a) The accused answers to his name and number, and is duly arraigned on the charges:
(b) The accused pleads not guilty to the first charge of disobeyance of a lawful command, and guilty to the second charge of striking his superior officer.

5. The accused is asked the question at the foot of page 2 of the A.F.A.3 and his answer "No" is recorded beneath the question.

6. Rule 35 B is complied with in connection with the plea on the second charge.

7. The Prosecutor makes no opening address.

1st Witness for the Prosecution, B67080, Cpl. Finch, W. G., 1st Bn. R. Regt. C., having been first duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q 1 Were you present at Mandora Barracks on 13 Dec 40?
A 1 I was, sir.
Q 2 Were you present on a fatigue at that time?
A 2 No, sir.
Q 3 Where were you at the time of the alleged offence?
A 3 In the kitchen.
Q 4 And will you just describe to the Court the events and the order in which they happened?
A 4 I wasn't on the fatigue party at the time I was on permanent duty on the sanitation. To carry on from there, at the time and date stated I was in the kitchen on my own duties and it was informed to me by one of my assistants--
THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE: You can't say what anybody tells you unless it was in the presence of the accused. You can say as to any consequences of what you were told. Was the accused present at the time?
A 5 Yes, sir.
Q 6 It was in his hearing?
A 6 Yes, sir. It was informed to me by my helper that Pte. Rogers refused to empty a swill pail. On doing so I went to Pte. Rogers, which was approximately two steps away and informed him that he must empty that pail immediately. He said to me that he couldn't empty it, that there was no way to empty it. So I said he would have to empty it, I didn't care how he did it, but he would have to do it. And he again refused to do so, saying he would like to see his own Corporal.
BY THE PROSECUTOR:
Q 7 Just explain to the Court what he meant by his own Corporal?
A 7 His own Corporal was Corporal Bigson and he was in charge of a fatigue party to work in the kitchen. He wasn't present at that particular spot at that moment. I told him to go ahead and see his own Corporal but he had to empty the pail. He then turned away and went to see his own Corporal. At the same moment I saw his Corporal going by and called to him. Provate Rogers went and spoke to him, at the time coming to the place of were I informed him to empty the pail, which was in the washroom part of the kitchen. His Corporal told him in my presence that he must empty that pail. Pte. Rogers then refused to do so, at the same time stating that he had no way to empty it.

Q 8 Who was that Corporal?
A 8 Corporal-- I just can't exactly remember his name, sir.
Q 9 Was it Corporal Edgson?
A 9 That is the name, sir. He started to argue with Cpl. Edgson, so immediately Cpl. Edgson placed him on open arrest.

THE PROSECUTOR: I don't want you to go on in your description of events past the refusal, whatever refusal you were present at.

Q 10 Is it in the normal course of your duties as permanent kitchen Corporal to order people on these fatigues to empty things?
A 10 I am not on a permanent kitchen fatigue. I am on permanent sanitation for the battalion.
Q 11 Is it in the course of your duties on permanent sanitation to do things like this?
A 11 Yes, sir.
Q 12 And did the accused, in your presence, empty the pail, as ordered to do?
A 12 No, sir.
Q 13 At any time, even subsequently. did he empty the pail?
A 13 No, sir.
Q 14 And did you hear Cpl. Edgson order him to empty the pail?
A 14 I did, sir.
Q 15 Was there any specific mention to you of his having to use his hands to empty the pail. I mean run the garbage through his hands?
A 15 No, sir.
Q 16 Was there some other means of emptying the pail without using his hands-- I mean without running swill through his hands. Could he have used a plate?
A 16 There is no other way with a plate, but there is a dozen ways he could have done it.
Q 17 Is it a normal thing for men on kitchen fatigue to do, to empty these pails?
A 17 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE

Q 18 When you had occasion to speak to Pte. Rogers, after having been informed by one of the members of your squad that he didn't want to sift the swill through his hands, did you say to him "empty the swill buckets," or did you say "you were ordered to empty the swill buckets or swill pails, go ahead and do it," or words to that effect?
A 18 On being informed by one of my squad I ordered Pte. Rogers to empty that pail.
Q 19 Do you remember the exact words you used?
A 19 No, sir. I don't remember the exact words.
Q 20 In other words you are not certain that you said "empty the swill buckets," or "you were ordered to empty the swill buckets"?
A 20 No, sir, I wouldn't.
Q 21 Did you instruct Pte. Cuthgrave to give him the original order to empty the swill buckets?
A 21 My men in my squad, in charge of anything like that they have command of anything in that line.
Q 22 Under whose authority are they placed in charge of privates?
A 22 Myself, sir.
Q 23 You placed this particular man in charge of that room on that day?
A 23 Yes, sir.
Q 24 So it can be inferred then by the fact that you had placed him in that room in that charge that the man in charge had the authority to give that definite order?
A 24 Yes, sir.
Q 25 Was Pte. Rogers aware that Pte. Cuthgrave was temporarily in charge of that room that day?
A 25 I am afraid I can't make the statement, sir.
Q 26 Can it be assumed that Pte. Rogers would be aware that another Pte. could give him an order to him?
A 26 It could be assumed, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q 27 Do you remember what you said to Pte. Rogers with regard to this pail of swill?
A 27 Yes, sir.
Q 28 What were your words?
A 28 I said "you go ahead and empty that pail of swill.

BY THE PRESIDENT:
Q 29 From the time that you gave your order to the accused to empty the swill pail until the time that he was placed under arrest for some conduct that subsequently occurred, what would be the lapse of time?
A 29 Close arrest or open arrest?
Q 30 Perhaps it hasn't been fully brought out-- he was placed under arrest--
A 30 On the first charge open arrest.
Q 31 Was he placed under arrest for anything--
A 31 On the first charge he was placed under arrest for refusing to obey an order.
Q 32 Right at that time?
A 32 Yes, sir.
Q 33 And how long after the time you gave him the order was he placed under arrest?
A 33 Approximately five minutes.
Q 34 He was placed under close arrest five minutes after the time you gave the order?
A 34 Open arrest.
Q 35 He continued with his work in the kitchen?
A 35 No, sir.
Q 36 What happened to him?
A 36 He started to argue.
Q 37 And then something else occurred and he was placed under arrest?
A 37 Immediately.
Q 38 And then what happened to him?
A 38 That was the second charge.
Q 39 Was he taken out of the cookhouse somewhere else?
A 39 Excuse me, sir, you have got him on the second charge.
Q 40 Just tell us what happened. What we want to know is what opportunity the accused had to carry out the order you gave him?
A 40 Immediately after he was put on open arrest, Cpl. Edgson, he making a statement to the said Corporal, "that will be the day you can place me on open arrest." His own Cpl. turned around starting to walk away and immediately Pte. Rogers struck him on the left side of the head.
Q 41 Following that was he placed under close arrest?
A 41 Immediately.
Q 42 And he was under close arrest about five minutes after you gave him the original order?
A 42 Yes, sir.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, B67341, Cpl. Edgson, A.J.R., 1st Bn. The R. Regt. C., having been first duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q 43 What is your name?
A 43 Cpl. Edgson, sir.
Q 44 And your number?
A 44 B67341
Q 45 Were you present at a fatigue on 13 Dec 40 at Mandora Barracks in Aldershot?
A 45 Yes, sir.
Q 46 And was the accused present on that fatigue?
A 46 Yes, sir.
Q 47 And just tell the Court what happened?
A 47 On the day and date stated I was in command of the kitchen and dining room fatigue at Mandora Barracks. Cpl. Finch called my attention to the fact that Pte. Rogers--
Q 48 Was that in Pte. Rogers' hearing?
A 48 Yes, sir.

Q 49 I mean that Pte. Rogers heard everything that Cpl. Finch told you at this time?
A 49 Yes, sir.
Q 50 Carry on?
A He reported to me that Pte. Rogers had refused to carry out an order. I told Pte. Rogers that even though Cpl. Finch was not directly in charge of him he should have carried out the order. I immediately ordered him to carry out the order and he argued about it and I told him unless he carried out this order he would be up for Company office the following morning. He replied to me: "That will be the day when you can bring me up for Company Office." I said to him "if that is the attitude you are taking you are definitely up for Company Office in the morning and in the meantime he turned away from me and that is the last I remember.
Q 51 Do you remember the words you used to Pte. Rogers first; that is with regard to the pail of swill?
A 51 I told him he would have to empty it. I don't remember the exact words I used.
Q 52 That was the substance; he had to empty it?
A 52 Yes, sir.
Q 53 And was that part of the duties of your fatigue, to empty those buckets of swill?
A 53 Yes, sir, on that particular job that he was assigned to that was part of the duties.
Q 54 And did you mention to him any particular way he had to empty it?
A 54 No, I don't think I did. I just said the job had to be done and it was up to him to do it.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q 55 Cpl. Egson, how long have you served with the regiment?
A 55 Ever since the start of the war, sir.
Q 56 Have you ever found the accused to be the type of soldier that would refuse to obey an order at any time?
A 56 No, sir. I couldn't understand it at the time and that was the reason I gave him a chance by me turning away and not putting him under arrest at the time. I thought, well, he was probably a little excited or upset about something or other and when he realized the seriousness he would carry out the order and that was the reason I turned away from him, to give him a chance to do it.
Q 57 The Prosecutor has asked you if you remember the words. Did you give him a direct order-- did you use words along these lines: "You have been ordered to empty out the pail of slops or swill and get ahead with it, or if You don't I will know the reason why?"
A 57 As close as I can recollect I told him that he definitely had to do the job, the job that he was told to do and that I wouldn't stand any more arguing about it and he was just to get on with it
Q 58 Did you understand at the time that the order was to empty a bucket of slops or that he was to empty the bucket of slops with his hands?
A 58 The way I understood it he had to drain the water off it and of course he could have used another dish to help empty the slops in the bucket in order to drain it off or use his hands, or which ever way he found most convenient.
Q 59 As I understand it, these swill buckets are pretty heavy?
A 59 Yes, sir.
Q 60 And that normally two men would best empty these buckets, if they were being drained as well as emptied?
A 60 In that particular case the most of the stuff could have been dipped out.
Q 61 Had he the tools to dip it out?
A 61 There are plenty of bashs and pots.
Q 62 No strainers?
A 62 I didn't see any strainers.
Q 63 Have you [illegible] antagonistic

A 63 Well, the only thing I could say in that respect when he came on the job in the morning he seemed to be under the impression that he shouldn't have been on the job, but that someone else should have. But as he had been detailed to me that didn't interest me.
Q 64 What you mean, of course, is that he thought he was doing it out of his turn?
A 64 Yes, sir.
Q 65 Not on the duty roster?
A 65 Yes, sir.

RE-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTION:
Q 66 Was Pte. Rogers detailed to be on this fatigue definitely?
A 66 Yes.
Q 67 Are you Pte. Rogers Section commander?
A 67 No, sir, but I am in the same Platoon.
Q 68 Persuant of that fact did you know he was detailed for the job?
A 68 The Orderly Sergeant told me Pte. Rogers had been detailed, sir.

RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE
Q 69 Did Pte. Rogers have time to comply with your oders?
A 69 After I gave it to him?
Q 70 Yes?
A 70 Do you mean-- well, of course he didn't have time to comply with it as far as I can remember up to the point. I don't remember any further.
Q 71 You have stated before this Court that Pte. Rogers refused to carry out the Order. Can you tell the Court his words in refusing so to do?
A 71 N o, sir, I don't remember his exact words but the purport of it was that he wasn't going to do that particular job and that is when I ordered him to do it or suffer the consequences.
Q 72 And you still say that you directly ordered him to empty the pail of slops?
A 72 Yes, sir.
Q 73 You didn't say "you were ordered to empty the pail of slops and if you don't I will know the reason why"?
A 73 No, I said he would be up for Company office, in any case in the meantime to get on with the job and do it.

BY THE PRESIDENT:
Q 74 Did you order him to do it immediately or at some future time?
A 74 Immediately.
Q 75 You can't remember whether he said to you "I won't do it," or words to that effect?
A 75 It was words to that effect.
Q 76 You don't remember what the words were?
A 76 No, I am not clear on that point, excepting he definitely refused.

Third Witness for the Prosecution, B67536, Pte. Seago, A., 1st Bn. The R. Regt. C., having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q 77 Were you at Mandora Barraks, Aldershot on 13 Dec 40?
A 77 Yes, sir.
Q 78 And were you present there on kitchen fatigue?
A 78 Yes, sir.
Q 79 Just describe to the Court what happened on that fatigue?
A 79 I went in the kitchen, I was in the potatoes but I went in the kitchen to get the potato strainer to strain my potatoes. I heard Cpl. Finch give Pte. Rogers an order to empty a swill pail and I didn't pay much attention to it. I turned around and was coming back with my strainer and I heard Cpl. Finch say to Pte. Rogers, "go and see your Corporal," so Pte. Rogers went to see his Corporal and I just happened to glance over at the steam table--
Q 80 I don't want you to go any further into the events leading up to what subsequently happened to Cpl. Edgson. Did you hear Cpl. Finch give an order?
A 80 I just couldn't understand, it was over the swill pail. He was told he was to empty it.
Q 81 Did you hear Cpl. Finch tell him to empty it?
A 81 I couldn't exactly hear the words of it.

Q.82 What did you hear?
A 82 I heard Pte. Rogers refuse this job.
Q 83 Did you hear Cpl. Finch giving an order to Pte. Rogers?
A 83 It was like "empty the swill pail."
Q 84 Any order for that matter?
A 84 Not an exact order.
Q 85 In other words, you didn't hear what was going on?
A 85 No, sir.
Q 86 Then what happened after that?
A 86 I went back to my work; I happened to look over to this steam table and I seen a whole gang across there and I thought that Cpl. Finch was in a fight or something so I ran across there--
Q 87 Did you hear any conversation at the steam table?
A 87 No, sir. I just heard what had happened.
Q 88 You didn't hear anything yourself?
A 88 No, sir. All I heard was just Cpl. Finch put Pte. Rogers under arrest.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q 89 Pte. Seago, you say either that you heard Cpl. Finch give an order to Pte. Rogers or that you heard some kind of an order given to Pte. Rogers?
A 89 Yes, sir.
Q 90 Might it not have been possible that Cpl. Finch didn't actually give him an order when he told him; that he told him to obey an order that somebody else had given him?
A 90 It could have been.

RE-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTION
Q 91 If you state that you didn't hear what was said at the time is that correct?
A 91 Yes, sir.

BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE:
Q 92 Tell us exactly, as far as you remember, all that you remember hearing Cpl. Finch tell the accused at this incident on 13 Dec 40 over the swill pail, from the time you went to get this potato strainer?
A 92 I went to get that potato strainer and I just couldn't understand the words Cpl. Finch was giving Pte. Rogers in emptying this swill pail, so I didn't pay much attention, I didn't think it would end up in anything so I got my strainer and went back to work.

4th Witness for the Prosecution, B66807, Pte. Barr, Walter, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor as follows:

Q 93 Were you present at Mandora Barracks, Aldershot, on 13 Dec 40?
A 93 I was, sir.
Q 94 And were you on kitchen fatigue on that date?
A 94 I was, sir.
Q 95 Will you just describe to the Court what happened at that time?
A 96 We were on kitchen fatigue in the kitchen and Cpl. Finch ordered Pte. Rogers to empty the swill pail. Pte. Rogers refused to do so so he called Cpl. Edgson. Cpl. Edgson ordered Rogers to empty this swill bucket and he still refused to after being told five or six times to go ahead and do it. He still refused to do it so finally Cpl. Edgson told him if he didn't carry out the order he would be taken to Company Office and Pte. Rogers said something about "that will be the day when you can takeme to Company Office." and just after saying that he turned to walk away and Pte. Rogers hit him on the side of the head.
Q 97 Do you see Pte. Rogers in this room?
A 97 Yes, sir.
Q 98 Pte. Barr, do you remember the words that Cpl. Finch used in his order to Pte. Rogers?
A 98 No, I don't sir.
Q 99 What did you gather from the words he used?
A 99 Well, from what I could make out he wanted him to drain the water off the swill in this bucket.
Q 100 Did it sound like an order to you?
A 100 Yes, it did.

Q 101 And what you are saying is that you don't remember the exact words he used?
A 101 No.
Q 102 And were you present when Cpl. Edgson appeared on the scene?
A 102 Yes.
Q 103 Was Pte. Rogers there?
A 103 Yes, sir.
Q 104 And what did Cpl. Edgson say, if anything, after Cpl. Finch--
A 104 He told Rogers then to carry out his duty.
Q 105 Who do you mean by "he"?
A 105 Cpl. Edgson.
Q 106 Do you remember the words Cpl. Edgson used?
A 106 No, I don't sir.
Q 107 You say there were no facilities there; were there any basins or plates?
A 107 The only thing that was there, sir, was just the buckets. He could have drained it, I suppose by dipping the bucket
Q 108 Could he have got a plate or a basin or a ladle or a dipper of any kind?
A 108 Yes.

BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE:
Q 109 Did you hear Cpl. Finch telling Pte. Rogers to go and see his Cpl.?
A 109 No, I didn't, sir.
Q 110 How long did this matter last from the time you heard Cpl. Finch giving his first order to empty the bucket of swill until the time that he spoke to Cpl. Edgson?
A 110 I would say approximately five or six minutes.
Q 111 What took place in that five minutes, as far as you remember?
A 111 The orders were given, sir, and failed to be carried out and there was an argument and Cpl. Edgson was struck and fell to the floor and Pte. Rogers was put under arrest.
Q 112 That alltook place in that five minutes?
A 112 In approximately five minutes.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE:
Q 113 How long did it take in your estimation for Cpl. Edgson to be fetched after Cpl. Finch had finished arguing with the accused? He wasn't in the room at the time, was he?
A 113 I don't think so, sir.
Q 114 He was in the swill room?
A 114 Not exactly.
Q 115 He was outside the door?
A 115 Yes.
Q 116 Would it take any length of time to call him?
A 116 Yes.
Q 117 How long?
A 117 Two or three minutes.
Q 118 So the argument took place in about two minutes?
A 118 Approximately, yes.

THE PROSECUTOR: That is the case for the prosecution.

BY THE PRESIDENT TO THE ACCUSED:
Q 119 Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A 119 Yes.
Q 120 Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
A 120 Yes.
Q 121 Is he a witness as to character only?
A 121 No sir.

The 1st Witness for the Defence, the accused, B66580, Pte. Rogers, S., 1st bn. The R. Regt. Co, having been first duly sworn, testifies as follows:

Q 122 You are Pte. Rogers, are you not?
A 122 Yes, sir.
Q 123 Do you remember the exact words that Cpl. Finch used when he came into the room-- he was called into the room?
A 123 Yes.
Q 124 You are sure of that?
A 124 Yes.
Q 125 Do you remember his exact words?
A 125 Yes, "you were told to empty this swill bucket, if you don't I will know the reason why."
Q 126 You are sure of that?
A 126 Yes.
Q 127 Did you make any reply to that at that time?
Q 128 What did you then?
A 128 I went and finished a job I had in hand.
Q 129 What were you doing at that time?
A 129 Scraping pots.
Q 130 After you had finished scraping pots what did you do?
A 130 I went to get Cpl. Edgson.
Q 131 You went to find him?
A 131 Yes, sir.
Q 132 And when Cpl. Edgson came in you flew off the handle; you lost your temper?
A 132 Yes, sir.
Q 133 And you were immediately placed under close arrest?
A 133 No, sir. Not then.
Q 134 But in a few minutes?
A 134 Yes, sir.
Q 135 Did you have time to comply with the order after you flew off the handle?
A 135 No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE:

Q 136 Did Cpl. Finch tell you to empty the pail of swill?
A 136 What Cpl. Finch said was that I was told to empty the pail, but he didn't tell me to myself.
Q 137 Did he later tell you to empty the swill?
A 137 No, sir.
Q 138 He didn't, at any time, tell you to empty the swill?
A 138 No, sir.
Q 139 Did Cpl. Edgson tell you at any time to empty the swill?
A 139 No, he just said Cpl. Finch gave me an order to empty it and I had to carry it out.
Q 140 Do you remember what his exact words were?
A 140 "Cpl. Finch gave you the order to empty that pail, now go and do it."
Q 141 Would you consider that an order?
A 141 Not from Cpl. Edgson.
Q 142 He used the words you have just used?
A 142 Cpl. Edgson told me that Cpl. Finch had ordered me to empty the swill pail--
Q 143 And you were to go ahead and do it, are those the words he used?
A 143 Yes.
Q 144 Didn't you consider that an order to empty the swill?
A 144 Unless Cpl. Edgson was speaking for Cpl. Finch.
Q 145 When you were told these words by Cpl. Edgson did you consider that an order to empty the swill, -- "go ahead and do it."?
A 146 I guess so.
Q 147 I want a direct answer?
A 147 Yes.
Q 148 And did you comply with that order?
A 148 No, sir.
Q 149 Why did you not comply with that order?
A 149 Because I asked Cpl. Edgson one question.
Q 150 Was that why you didn't comply with the order?
A 150 I didn't have time.

Q 151 Explain that?
A 151 I was placed under close arrest before I could carry it out.
Q 152 Why were you placed under close arrest?
A 152 For striking Cpl. Edgson.
Q 153 Do you mean to say that you didn't carry out the order and you then struck a Corporal and you were put under close arrest and you say you didn't have time to carry it out?
A 153 No, sir.
Q 154 Would you have had time?
A 154 Yes, because I wouldn't be under arrest then.
Q 155 If you had emptied the pail immediately, instead of arguing would you have had time then to empty it, providing you hadn't done anything further in the way of creating a disturbance?
A 155 No, because it required two men for that pail.
Q 156 Had you ever emptied one of these pails before?
A 156 No, sir.
Q 157 Had you ever been on this job before?
A 157 No, sir.

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q 158 Why did you go to Cpl. Edgson?
A 158 Because to ask him what my job in the kitchen was.
Q 159 You felt that he was the man you were responsible to, did you?
A 159 Yes, sir.
Q 160 And you went to find out if you had to carry out this order that Cpl. Finch had given you?
A 160 Yes, sir. But he never gave me an order, sir.
Q 161 He didn't give you an order?
A 161 No, sir.
Q 162 But Cpl. Edgson did?
A 162 I hardly call that an order at that time, sir.
Q 163 Well, it wasn't advice, was it?
A 163 No, sir.

2nd Witness for the Defence, B67303, Pte. Cotgreave, Albert, 1st Bn. R. Regt. C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defence as follows:

Q 164 Were you on duty in the kitchen of the Royal Regiment at Mandora Barracks on the 13th December 1940, do you remember?
A 164 Yes, sir.
Q 165 Do you remember there was a disturbance there at the time; perhaps that is why you remembered you were there?
A 165 Yes, sir.
Q 166 Did you give an order to Pte. Rogers, the accused here, to do anything?
A 166 I did.
Q 167 What was the order?
A 167 I asked him to drain the water off some swill.
Q 168 You asked him to drain the water from the swill?
A 168 Yes, sir. I asked him.
Q 169 By what authority did you give him this job?
A 169 Well, sir, I am put in charge of the washing room, washing out pans and washing dishes and I am left in charge while the Corporal has left with the other men. I am given charge of the work, though not to order them
Q 170 And you think you have authority by the fact that you are put in a room to order another private?
A 170 I didn't order him, sir, I just asked him to do it.
Q 171 Well, in other words, you considered you were responsible for that room?
A 171 I am sir; I am held responsible.
Q 172 You say your order was that he was to empty the pail of swill?
A 172 Drain the water off.
Q 173 How was he going to drain it?
A 173 Just drain it, sir, and you put your hand over the lip of the container and pour the water off.
Q 174 What is usually in these swill barrels?
A 174 Just bread and meat and stuff off the plates.
Q 175 Any grease?
A 175 Well, no, not an awful lot, the grease is mostly left in the containers that they serve the stuff in.

Q 176 But still there is grease in the pails, normally?
A 176 Yes, there is a certain amount.
Q 177 And you considered it was quite allright to ask a man to lift a swill bucket that is normally lifted by two men, to drain it himself, with his hands?
A 177 No, sir these pails are just small buckets that we carry the tea in.
Q 178 Can one man handle them; lift them and drain them?
A 178 Yes, sir, they would only take about a gallon, sir, at the most.
Q 179 But still he has to drain it with his hands?
A 179 Yes, sir.
Q 180 You say he refused to do that?
A 180 That is correct.
Q 181 What happened then?
A 181 I didn't do anything. I just went to my Corporal-- Corporal Finch and I told him I had asked a man to drain it off and he refused and I let him take on from there.
Q 182 Do you remember the words that Pte. Rogers used when he refused?
A 182 He said he wasn't going to use his hands to drain it off, or he wasn't going to do it.
Q 183 And then you called Cpl. Finch?
A 183 Yes.
Q 184 Cpl. Finch states that he gave an order to Pte. Rogers to carry out what you had told him to do, is that right?
A 184 That is correct, sir.
Q 185 Did he say, do you remember, "empty the pail of swill" or did he say, "you have been told to empty a pail of swill, do what you are told"?
A 185 I couldn't swear to that, sir. I wasn't right there. I left there and let them have it out between them.
Q 186 Youdidn't actually hear what he said, then?
A 186 No.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q 187 Which fatigue are you on, the sanitation fatigue?
A 187 Sanitation, sir.
Q 188 And what are the duties of the sanitation fatigue?
A 188 To see that the floors are washed down, clean the tops of the tables and scrub them, see that all the refuse is taken off the tables, see that the washing up room is clean.
Q 189 Is what you ordered Pte. Rogers to do part of what the sanitation fatigue is responsible for?
A 189 It is our job to see that it is done, that the kitchen fatigue are to do it.
Q 190 Did you tell him that he had to use his hands or did you just tell him to do it?
A 190 I didn't tell him what to use; I just asked him to do it.
Q 191 He could have used a plate or anything else?
A 191 He could have used anything, sir.
Q 192 Now, as I understand what you have just said, you don't remember the conversation between Cpl. Finch and Pte. Rogers?
A 192 That is correct.
Q 193 How long did you remain after Cpl. Finch came on the scene?
A 193 I just showed him who refused my request and I saw them talking and I went about my job.
Q 194 You didn't remain with Cpl. Finch?
A 194 No, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q 195 Was Private Rogers aware that you were supposed to be in charge of the room?
A 195 He did know I was in charge there, because the Corporals told the men in that washroom that I have the responsibility of that room.

On the 15 Dec 40 I was in charge of the kitchen and dining room fatigues, Sanders Barracks, Aldershot. I do not remember the time now, but Cpl. Hugh reported to me that Pte. Rogers had refused to obey an order. Rogers was there at the time. I told Pte. Rogers, Cpl. Hugh being a N.C.O., the order should have been obeyed, and I ordered Rogers to carry out the order, which was to grab the water from ~~with~~ the A.E. of A.E.
Bowerswell, and Pte. Rogers refused to do so, so I told him he would be up for coy. office the following morning. He replied by saying, "That will be the day when you can put me up for coy. office," and I said, "If that is the way you look at it you are definitely up for coy. office tomorrow morning, one in the meantime get on with the job." I turned away, and that is the last I remember until I regained consciousness in the Gn. Hospital.

Cpt. Kirkpatrick: Any questions? The accused No, sir.

The ACCUSED: I will make a statement without being sworn.

[illegible] No. [illegible], Pte. RUSSELL E., "D" Coy, 1st Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada, C.A.(N.A.).

I was detailed for kitchen fatigue on Friday, 13 Dec 40, and was placed in the kitchen, where I had to wash and clean up the pots and pans. I was doing my job all right there until a private who was supposed to be Cpl. Finch's assistant, came up to me and told me I was to empty the water out of the garbage. I asked him what I was going to do it with and he said, "Your hands," and I told him where to get off at. He brought Cpl. Finch over and Cpl. Finch said I would do as I was told and not to argue, and I said my job was to wash pots and pans and clean them out, and I didn't see why I had to do the men's jobs, as the other fellow was put in there, and Cpl. Finch turned away and I kept on doing what I was doing. Then I went over to see if I could find Cpl. Edgson, who was in charge of the kitchen fatigue. Cpl. Edgson came over by the warming counter, and I asked him what my job in the kitchen was and he said it was washing pots and pans and doing any other jobs around there, and I said, "Why do I have to do any job around there when I am the only man in the kitchen from the P.P.C.L.I. men there," and he told me not to give any back talk and I told him to answer my question, and he told me to shut up or I would be up for coy. office. After he made I was for any. office, I was not at that time and I left him. He tell down, but I did not see his head hit the counter.

Witness: Pte. L. Rogers

PROCEEDINGS of a Court of Inquiry assembled at Aldershot, Hants.

on the 2nd day of March, 1941.

by order of Brig. C.B.Topp, D.S.O.,M.C. - Bde.R.O.85 dated 1-3-41.

for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting on the loss of the proceedings of two F.G.C.M. on B.66580 Pte. Rogers, S., and B.66923 Pte. Bulpit, J.O., both of R.Regt.C.

PRESIDENT

D. F. MacRae, Capt. 4 Cdn Inf Bde.

MEMBERS

Lieut. R.G. Young, R.Regt.C.
Lieut. R.C. Bowery, R.H.L.I.

The Court having assembled pursuant to order, proceed to examine the witnesses.

First Witness.
Capt. P.E.R. Wright being duly sworn states:-

"I am the Acting Staff Captain of 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. in accordance with Bde Routine Order 466 dated 2 Jan 41

When we were in the Brighton area a number of court martials were convened by Bde R.O. 12, F.G.C.M. These duly assembled and two men Pte. Rogers and Pte. Bulpit among others were tried. I prepared the convening order and in company with the J.A.G. supervised completion. Proceedings were duly sent to 2 Cdn. Div. and the findings and the sentence of the Court were confirmed by the G.O.C. as appears in Div. R.O. 101 and 105.

I now produce a letter 2DC-5-4-1 dated 22 Jan 41, and 4 CIB 5-4-1 dated 22 Jan 41, underwhich the proceedings duly confirmed were passed from 2 Cdn.Div. through H.Q. 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. to R.Regt.C. in the case of Pte. Rogers. I also produce similar correspondence in the case of Pte. Bulpit."

The Court having examined these documents are satisfied that the proceedings mentioned above were received at H.Q. 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. Exhibit I and II.

The witness continues: "At this time over 10 proceedings of courts martial were handled within the Bde and it was not noticed that these particular proceedings had not been returned until it was brought to my attention by 2 Cdn. Div. on or about 14 Feb 41.

A search was at once commenced and, on the documents not being found here, I referred the matter to the Adj. R.Regt.C. who forwarded a copy of a letter dated 23 Jan 41 returning these proceedings. A most thorough search of all files, the secret boxes and vaults and all records dealing with the receipt and forwarding of mail was then made both by the clerks familiar with the matter and by myself, but no record of the return of these documents were found. In 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. H.Q. all incoming "A" and "Q" mail is entered in an "A" and "Q" incoming register and no letter dealing with these proceedings appear in that register and I verily believe no such letter was received. Upon these searches being completed efforts were made to find extra copies of the convening order, charge sheets, summaries of evidence, and verbatim proceedings, all of which were secured and have been copied. I am familiar with the state of the proceedings and am in a position to certify that these copies are true copies of the original proceedings."

Second Witness.
Major F.E. West being duly sworn states:-

"I am acting as Adj. 1st Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada during the absence on command of Capt. G.S.N. Gostling. On 22 Jan 41, proceedings of courts martial on Ptes Bulpit and Rogers were received from H.Q., 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. I made extracts from these proceedings, the soldiers concerned were paraded at Bn Orderly Room, and I then completed and signed the certificate of promulgation in each case. During this period the proceedings had been handled at all times by myself. When I had signed the certificate I dictated a covering letter which I signed on behalf of the Commanding Officer and the original of which I personally attached to the proceedings. I produce the carbon copy of the covering letter. I then handed the proceedings which I had replaced in the envelope in which they had been received from H.Q. 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. and handed the envelope to the mailing clerk for addressing and forwarding by D.R.L.S. I produce the correspondence register in which the letter a/m is registered. As the Signal Office is actually a large cupboard off the Orderly Room the envelope was handed directly to the Signal Office by the mailing clerk."

The Court examined the covering letter referred to above, namely 5-4-2 dated 23 Jan 41, and examined the correspondence register in which was found an entry of a letter 5-4-2 dated 23 Jan 41 relating to F.G.C.M. Proceedings on Pte Bulpit and Pte Rogers. According to the register this correspondence was addressed to H.Q. 4 Cdn. Inf. Bde. and was entered as serial No. 6836. Exhibit III.

The witness continues: "On or about 14 Feb 41 I received a telephone call from the Acting Staff Captain, 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde., inquiring as to the whereabouts of the a/m proceedings. I informed him that they had been forwarded on 23 Jan 41, and forwarded a copy of the copy of the covering letter. He then informed me that there was no record of their receipt at 4 Cdn.Inf.Bde. H.Q. whereupon I made a thorough personal search of all files keptby the Bn and in addition had a search conducted of the Orderly Room and of the Signal Office but was unable to find any trace of the documents. As Signal Office records are destroyed in accordance with Signal procedure I am unable to produce a receipt for the docket but I am satisfied that the docket actually left the Bn Orderly Room."

Third Witness.
Lieut. J.E. Gold, 2 Cdn. Div. Sigs. being duly sworn states:

"I am the Acting O.C., J Sec. 2 Div. Sigs. during the absence on a course of Lieut. D.E. Warner."

Question 1. "What is the procedure as regards the destruction of Signal Office Records?"

FINDINGS

We, the undersigned members of the Court, find as follows:

1. According to the sworn evidence of Major F.B. WEST, the proceedings concerned were received by the R. RHQT. C. where the proper entries were made.

2. The proceedings were prepared for return to H.Q. 4 CDN. INF. BDE. by Major F.B. WEST and according to his evidence were handed to the Sigs. Office for despatch.

I Sgt. Lt. W. A. Magill 1 Bn. Black Watch duly sworn, is examined.

I am Cmdr 16 Plns. C Coy, Rec. whom I recognise as a member of my Plns. On 6 June 44, at 1600 hours C Coy was formed up for parade. Pte. Rogers was there. I noticed some fooling & heard Cpl. Gale call out to stop it. The fooling was between Ptes. Dupont & Robinson. It then developed into a fight during which Rees rifle was knocked from his hand & it struck the ground. Gale then stepped between Rec & Dupont. I ordered Gale to place them both on charge. I called Plns. Battle Dress & inspected weapons. Pte. Rogers rifle - the muzzle cap was partly covered with dust & grit part of which had entered the muzzle.

This was a Coy parade. Rifle was being held between half port & on guard. Ought to have been at stand easy. Rec had been warned to take proper care of weapons

Cross Ex - Fooling only between these two at the time. Another man was fooling. Whole Coy was on parade. They were standing easy. There was only dust on the muzzle cap. The dust and grit was the direct result of striking the ground

No Re Ex Court - The two were jostling about. They had broken from their ranks. The Coy was formed up in three ranks at the time. I did not see the C.S.M. Cpl. Gale was senior NCO on parade. The rifle is in Coy. lines. I saw it the next day and it had been cleaned. Cpl. Gale saw the rifle too.

2 Dvr List. D83063 Cpl. Gale, G.R., 1 Bn
Black Watch, sworn in examined -

On 8th June about 1600 hrs the Pln were on weapon inspection Parade. We were standing easy when some fooling occurred in the ranks. Pte's Dupont and Reardon were fooling. There were out of their place in the ranks. I said to cut it out. We stopped some few minutes later I heard scuffling & I saw Rec & Dupont scuffling together. I walked over to stop it & Dupont knocked rifle of Rec. to the ground. I stepped between them & told them to get back to their places. Rec picked up rifle and returned to Dupont. Later Pte Magill found the rifle of the Rec dirty & said I was to charge Rec I did so. All could hear me tell them to stop fooling. I had to go over to stop it. Both had broken ranks by their fooling and scuffling. The outside of the rifle was dirty. I don't know if it had been properly cleaned before coming on parade.

Cross Ex We had been fallen in & were standing easy. I yelled out to them to keep quiet

No Re Ex The dust from the road made the rifle dirty.

Defence.

Rec. duly sworn is examined:-

On 8 June 1600 hrs we were standing easy. There was nothing going on in the ranks between Dupont & Reardon. It was a sort of flat lot floorie between Reardon & Dupont. I was talking to Pte. Boudreau. My rifle was slung on my right shoulder. Dupont had been stepping wrong twice. He did it again so I gave him a push. Dupont must have been off balance as he fell against the other members of the section. Dupont grabbed me by the shoulder & we started wrestling. I stepped clear of the ranks. In getting away the rifle slipped to the ground. I asked Dupont what he was doing. He said he was looking and at that time Opl. Gale appeared on the scene. Lt. Magill ordered Opl. G. put me on charge when he saw the rifle. I did not hear Gale give a preparatory orders. I had cleaned my rifle before going on parade.

Cross Ex – No. 1
Court – The rifle was dirty when it was inspected.

grd ~~Pte~~ Lit. D140010 Dupont D.D.L. Rlt.C. sworn is examined:-

Before parade on 8 June I saw Rec. clean his rifle. Reardon & I were looking. I stepped on Rec's toe. I happened to step on it later and he gave me a push. I stumbled over my Brens & got up & pushed him back. By doing this I caused him to drop his rifle. Then Cpl. Gale appeared.

Cross Ex I didn't hear Sgt give a prior order to stop looking. We had come out of billets. No roll call had been taken. We were standing easy at the time We shouldn't have been looking. I was in the wrong

2nd Dsf. Wit. DC 45705 Boudreau, L.D. RHC. sworn is examined

On 8 June before inspection I was talking to Rogers. Dupont stepped on his foot twice. The 2nd time he pushed Dupont who stumbled over his Rifle.

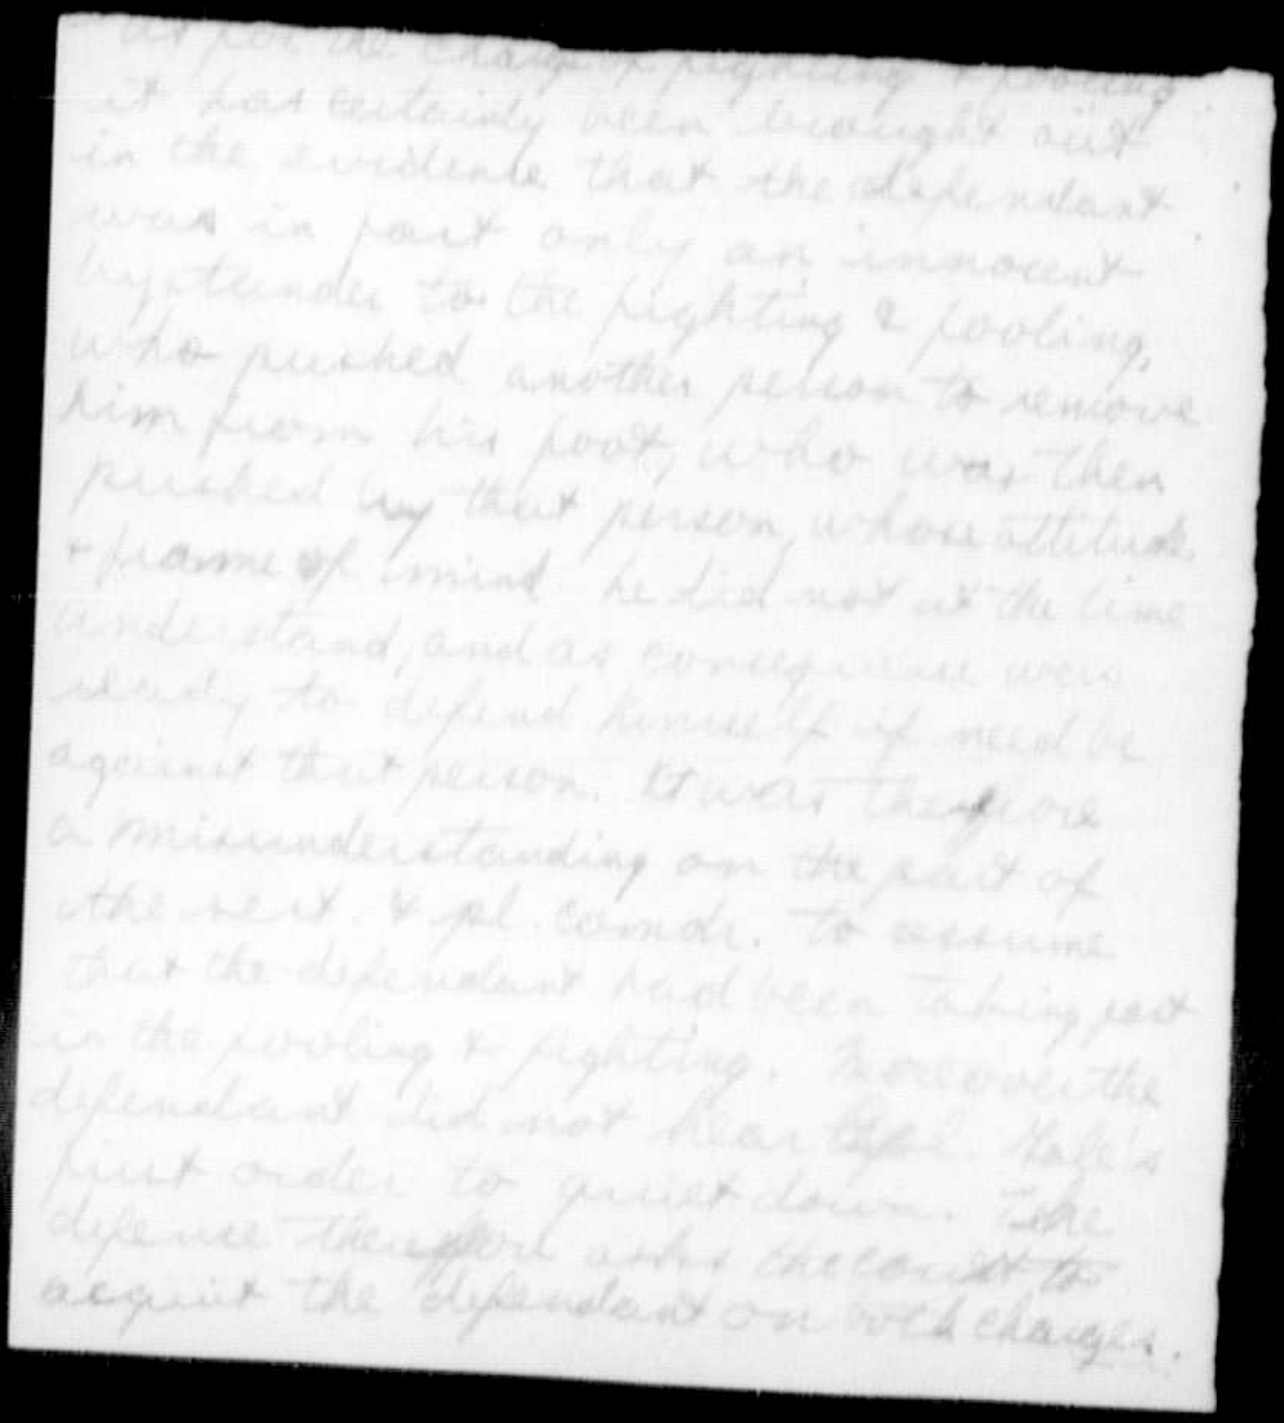
J – A Sum up

Charges are entirely matter of fact. Must decide if facts proved constitute Conduct to the Prejudice etc. Such conduct must be prejudicial to both good order and military discipline

Little else I can say in case of Drunkenness. Accused must be convicted unless proved beyond reasonable doubt.

Any question of credibility of witnesses to be decided by Court members

Any questions from Pros. Def or Court.



No questions.

Fifthly: the defence intends to make clear to the court, although this part has no direct bearing on the case, that the defendant was elected trial by court-martial on charges which are obviously not of a nature to warrant court-martial, not through any desire whatever on his part to appear malicious or "smart", nor to embarrass his superior officers by trying to "beat a rap" as it were, but solely & simply because he sincerely believes that through misunderstanding & lack of proper investigation on the part of those who laid the charges he has been accused of crimes of which he is completely innocent, and for which purpose, in justice to himself, he cannot [illegible] to discipline the section, and as a consequence was unjustly accused of the offence.

T. A. Marianelli

On the charge of a duty rifle, the prosecution is certainly in some doubt as to whether the rifle had been properly cleaned prior to the accused's coming on parade when the defence has proved by witnesses that it certainly had. The dirt and dust on the muzzle caps would therefore certainly caused by the rifle's fall, as brought out in the evidence on the next charge, could not possibly be avoided because the rifle fell through no fault of the defendant, and even if the fault had been the defendant's the charge of a dirty rifle could not be admitted since [illegible] that it fell muzzle down on a very dusty sword, and since that part is included in the second charge of pooling & fighting, and in part a part of that charge. the right

Closing address by the prosecutor -

The Case is actually very straight forward it has been proven that the accused was on a Coy parade and should have been standing easy - it has been proved that the accused had broken ranks and was fooling and fighting, it has also been proven and admitted by the accused that his Rifle was dirty when inspected by the Pl Commander - these facts prove the charges as laid against the accused -

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of number B-136571 Private Thomas Arthur ROGERS, 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada , a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on Active Service.

Charges: AA Sec 40. Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.
AA Sec 40. Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The accused is informed of his rights

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution: Lieut. W.A. Magill, 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, sworn states:

I am Lieut W.A. Magill, 14 Pl Commander, "C" Coy, Pte Norman Arthur ROGERS, whom I recognize is a member of my platoon. On 8 Jun 44 at [redacted] having been duly warned, "C" Coy was formed up at the appointed place, the accused was present on parade. I noticed that there was some fooling about about going on between the accused and Pte Dupont D.D.D. I heard Cpl Gale call out to them to quieten down, at that time they did not quieten down - a few seconds later the fooling developed into a fight, during the course of which the rifle belonging to the accused was knocked to the ground, the rifle struck the ground forceably nose cap and and muzzle foremost, Cpl Gale at that time intervened by placing himself between the accused and Pte Dupont, I then ordered Cpl Gale to place both the accused and Pte. Dupont on charge - I then called the platoon to attention and proceeded to inspect the weapons - on inspection of the rifle belonging to the accused I found that the nose cap was partially covered with dust and grit, had entered the muzzle of the rifle, I then ordered Cpl Gale to put Pte Rogers on charge for dirty rifle.

Question by officer detailed to take summary:

Q. In your opinion had the rifle been properly cleaned before the accused came on parade?

A. A direct answer to this is difficult due to the fact that the pavement which the rifle struck was comparatively dusty being on the side of the road.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

(W.A. Magill) Lieut.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution: D-83063 Cpl Gale, G.M. 1st Bn The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, sworn states:

I am D-83063 Cpl. Gale G.M. section commander of #6 section, 14 Pl, "C" Coy. On 8 Jun at approx 1600 hrs the Pl was on the coy parade for weapon inspection, while waiting we were standing at easy, there was some fooling in the ranks, I told the men to cut it out or words to that effect, and the fooling ceased. A few moments later on hearing scuffling I turned around and saw Pte Thomas Arthur ROGERS fooling with Pte Dupont, I went over to stop them, Pte Dupont knocked the rifle belonging to the accused out of his hand which fell on the road, both parties looked quite angry and as if they were coming to blows, I stepped between them and told them to stop it, or words to that effect, and to get back to their places, the accused picked up his rifle and returned to his place as did Pte Dupont - Mr Magill in charge of the parade told me that both men would be up on charge, I warned the accused and Pte Dupont of this. On the weapon inspection the rifle of the accused was found to be in a dirty condition, Mr Magill told me to lay another charge against the accused which I did.

The accused wishes to cross-examine.

Q. What was the condition of our pl on the right flank?

A. They were on parade quiet and orderly.

Q. What was the condition of the left flank of the Pl?

A. They seemed quiet and orderly until fooling started.

Q. Did you notice whether or not I was fooling the first time you turned around and ordered the fooling to cease?

A. I don't think you were, the command was given to the whole body.

Q. When you came up to us, did we cease sparring immediately on your command?

A. Almost immediately.

Q. Did you hear any words passed between Pte Dupont and I?

A. No, I did not hear any.

PLEA OF MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT
In the case of
F.33080 Pte Rogers T.E.

On behalf of F.33080 Pte Rogers, T.E., I beg to present to the Court the following plea of mitigation of punishment:

The accused showed his willingness to serve his country by volunteering for overseas service on 12 Feb 43 while only 18 years of age. He was held in Canada until he reached the age for service overseas, proceeding overseas in Dec 43.

After the invasion of Europe by the Allied Forces he on 4 Jul 44 joined the North Nova Scotia Highlanders and served with them in action.

In June 1945 he volunteered to serve in the Pacific, showing again his willingness to serve his country.

Although having served in the Army since 12 Feb 43, he has had no privilege leave or furlough, and the embarkation leave of 8 days which he was given in Canada permitted only 3 days leave at home, the remaining 5 days being spent as travelling time.

It has not been possible to check the service of the accused with his documents as they are not up to date so that exact dates of service cannot be given.

In view of his willingness to serve his country, which he has shown by volunteering to do his share in action; his youth on joining the army; and his lack of ever having had privilege leave or furlough, which would tend to have influenced his actions which have brought him before this Court this day; I earnestly beg the Court to show leniency in the sentence which they are about to impose.

PLEA OF MITIGATION

I would like to address te Court on behalf of Pte Rogers T.E. He joined the Unit in July 4th and from that time on the Bn went through some of the hardest fighting on the Western front from CAEN to FALAISE.

He felt himself slipping and knew that some time sooner of later he would not be able to stand it any longer. He asked to LOB but his requests were ignored. Then he thought the only way out was to go AWL, which he did to get clear of the next big battle. After it was over he surrendered to the Provost, but still nothing was done about his physical condition so he went absent again.

If some one had looked after the man at the very first this would not have happened. Should this man suffer for because some one else had fallen down on the job.

His past record in action was good and no serious charge on his conduct sheet, and for these reasons I hope the Court will consider the case and do all in their power to give this man a fair break.

Charge Pleads not guilty.

First witness for prosecution

B-41443 Sgt Fletcher A, 11 C.F.A. R.C.A. (4 Bty.) — sworn States;

The accused is Gnr. Rogerson. He was to go on duty at 2200, 20 Oct at switchboard. He did not appear until 2345 hrs. 20 Oct. 44. Questioned him as to why he was late, he said he thought he was on duty. He seem impaired at the time when I found him. I warned him for office & ordered him to duty. At 0020 hrs 21 Oct Sgt Kenyon woke me & informed me something about accused. I found accused asleep at switchboard & reported him.

I examined accused & found him to be under the influence of liquor. He took approx. 10 minutes to ~~wake~~ arouse. I placed the accused under close arrest and turned him over to the guard.

Operations (3) table fixed two shifts of switchboard operators. Rogerson had been on such duty for approx one month. Experience the system. I had warned him previously of his duty & this day & he clearly understood.

I was at the exch at 2200 and at 2345 hrs. 20 Oct. Rogerson seemed normal at 2345 hrs and I left him to carry on his duties. I did not know where he had been but I knew he had been drinking from the smell.

At 0020 Rogerson was slumped over in the chair when I came to the switchboard. He did not appear to be in a normal sleeping position.

When I finally aroused him, he seemed to come back to normal. I told him he was under arrest for being drunk on duty. He appeared OK next morning.

Cr-exam. The accused was not drunk at 2345 and was fit for duty. There was no indication of drinking ~~from~~ near the exch between 2345 and 0020 hrs. He complete his duties as ~~was~~ calls ~~came in~~ ~~right~~ though the exch was busy at 2345 and 0020 hrs 21 Oct. seemed rather ~~operating~~ at 2345 and 0020 hrs 21 Oct.

I don't know exactly why Rogerson had been previously relieved from the exch.

Re-exam. I know the operators family well and their habits. Rogerson was a good worker and steady. I appear to think too much. I had not previously had to relieve Rogerson of his duties for reasons of drunkenness.

I thought Rogerson was drunk due to his position and the difficulty in waking him up. He seemed quite normal on awakening. He did not seem unwell. I don't know if anyone else was near the exch between 2345 20 Oct and 0020 21 Oct but it is possible.

Operators change 0800 - 1200 - 1700 - 2200. This order has been adhered to for approx. three or four weeks.

Rule 83(3) complied with.

[illegible] hrs.

Second witness for the prosecution

B-11173 A/Sgt. Lewan C.R. 12 C.F.R. R.C.A. (11 Bty), sworn, states:

I was signaller on duty at 11 Bty. Command Post, on night 20/21 Oct. 44. The officer in the C.P. called the accd. approx. 00.20 hrs 21 Oct. time. There was no reply. I went to the exch. & found Gnr. Rogerson, the accused, asleep. I notified Sgt. A. F. Letcher.

My hour of duty was from 2200 hrs. 20 Oct. to 0000 hrs. 21 Oct. The exchange was approx. 15 feet from the C.Post. I was not aware of the exchange at 2200-2345. I made no calls on the telephone between 2345 and 0020 hrs. We can hear the exch. bell ring and did on this occasion when the officer used his 'phone at 0020 hrs. The accd. did not reply. When I went to Rogerson was slumped on the chair asleep. I shook him vigorously & light & Letcher I went back to the exch. & called Sgt. A. F. Letcher. I went back to the command post.

John I think any calls were put through between 2345 and 0020. I did not see Rogerson awakened. He had always given satisfaction.

Cross-Exam: None

Re-exam: I noticed nothing abnormal about the accused when I tried to awaken him.

R.P. 83(1) complied with.

Third witness for the prosecution

A-28473 Gnr. O'Brien R.H. 12 C.F.R. R.C.A. (11 Bty) sworn, states:

The accused is Gnr. Rogerson. I was on guard at 11 Bty. lines between 0001 and 0200 hrs. 21 Oct. I was detailed by Sgt. A. F. Letcher, to take the accused in my charge as he was under close arrest. I handed him over to the next shift at 0200 hrs. Rogerson was turned over to me at the C.P. where the light was dull. I saw Rogerson well. He was quite sober when I took him over. He looked alright in the morning.

Cross-Exam: I had seen Rogerson previous to 0020 hrs.

I had Rogerson by the arm and noticed nothing peculiar and no smell. I took him about 100 yds. over muddy ground and had no trouble with him.

Re-exam: None.

R.P. 83(1) complied with.

D6 First witness for the defence. 1097 (3)

The accused 6-6920 Gnr. C.T. Rogerson 12 C.F.A. R.C.D. (11 Bty.) sworn, states:-

On the night of 20 Oct. I was in Middelgem with my chum Gnr. Knowles, we were at a cafe where we ate. We had a few drinks and at 2030 hrs. I mentioned to Gnr. Knowles that we had to go as I had a shift to take at 2200 hrs. at the wash. [redacted] We left the cafe at 2100 and on leaving I was struck on the mouth and Gnr. Knowles in the eye by some soldiers who had been creating a disturbance inside the cafe. A fight started and I took a punch at one of them but missed. I then started back to camp to go on duty. I went straight to the exchange. I met Sgt Fletcher. I felt alright and a little later on I began to feel dizzy. The next thing I knew the S.M. woke me and put me under observation. I was [redacted] I slept till morning.

(Sgt. and) happening to think I got light. I felt tired and upset after the fight I had. I have felt O.K. lately. I have been drinking much since my return to the regiment. I had been evacuated from the regt. for contributed nerves. [redacted]

I was tired when I woke up at the wash.

Cross-Exam. I went into Middelgem between 1700 & 1900 hrs. Knowles has a watch but I have not. I was in the cafe from approx 1830 to 2100 hrs. I had a couple jeopuers & a few beers. When I was to go on duty at 2200 I didn't think I needed to go to a doctor after the trouble. I didn't go back with Knowles. I did not go back using any funds. It takes about half an hour to walk from Middelgem to the battery.

I didn't clearly understand Sgt Fletcher when I first came in. I didn't think I was late. He told me I was up for office. I did not question him.

I looked through a couple of magazines when I first came to the exchange. I don't know what they were.

I did not try to get help from the provost.

Re-Exam. None.

I went by Knowles' watch that the time was 2030 in the pub. At that time the landlady asked me to help to get rid of some soldiers who were [illegible]. There were Knowles and I and two others put the three men out from 4th Med Bty. and

The pub is near the town hall. There seemed to be [illegible] about seven or eight of the four of us outside the pub. I was fighting about 20 minutes when I got to where the others with the row was. We went most over the cobbles. I followed him from about half a mile. We started from the town hall and I think he emptied his magazine. When I came back no one was there. I came home on the same route as we went down. I saw Knowles next morning. I had been in the cafe with Knowles before.

Proof witness for defence (contd)

Proof nothing about all this to Sgt. Fuller when I came in. No further interference in all the affray.
R.P.83 complied with.

Proof witness for the defence.

B-11284 Pte. Rowan W.C. 12 CFR R.C.D. (11 Bty) sworn.
states:

I was with Rogerson drinking from 6 to 8 p.m. We left about nine o'clock. A fight broke out and we were asked to help. I helped put them out, finished our drink & started for home at 2055 hrs. We were 1/4 hr on leaving the cafe. A fight started and we heard shots. Rogerson said "I'm going after that man" and left. I do not know what of him that night.
We had about 4 beers and 2 cognacs. We were in the pub about 1945.
We had been in twice before. I don't know how many people were inside.

Cross-Examn. I have a watch. Pubs closed at 2100 hrs. We left about 2100 or 2105 hrs. I had been with Rogerson to that cafe three times at the most. None of them had any more outside fighting - four, six or more. As far as I know there was no one but me in my circle of the fight. The fight broke out then minutes. During this time the shooting started. I walked for Rogerson but could not find him. I don't think they found him in the time I was back. about six shots were fired and there was a lull - then shooting.

Re-Exam. None
I got back to camp about 2140 hrs. approx.
The fight didn't last five minutes and ended when the shooting started at about 2105-2110 hrs.
R.P.83 complied with.

Character Witness.

B-11000 RSM Snider C.J. 12 CFR R.C.D. (11 Bty) sworn.
states:

I have known the accused for about four years & he has been fairly satisfactory. He has not given much trouble by drinking. He has done well over here and has had battle-expiration once.

Cross-Exam. None
R.P.83 complied with.

Re Evening Orders by Defending Officer

D6

The accused intended to return to duty at the proper time but was involved in a disturbance through no fault of his own. He had had some drinks but was not drunk.
He was forbidden to leave camp after the soldier with the number 7[illegible] was late for his shift but there are extenuating circumstances.
As to the charge of drunkenness. I think there has been no proof of drunkenness brought forward. He was not drunk at 2345 hrs and was not drunk at 0020, 21st. Sgt. Fletcher was only able to say that he was hard to wake up.
As to the third charge. This man had once been warned for battle exhaustion which shows that he had suffered from nervous strain. He had been under a hustle and became confused and tried and this, no doubt, contributed to his falling asleep.

Reply of Prosecution

The accused is guilty on charge one, as he knew his duties, the times for them and he did not appear until an hour and forty-five minutes after his duties started.
Evidence is conflicting on charge two. There is some doubt about Sgt. Fletcher's evidence. The details of the night's happenings do not agree - the story is vague. The accused took a few pints of stong and got mixed up in it. If not drunk he was at least well under the influence of alcohol.
When he came back to the battery and went to the orderly he passed out.
He is obviously guilty on the third charge.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ..., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Will not give evidence on oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. No.

CASE OF

B.143232 Pte ROGERSON L.E. Wpg Gren

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

Lt G. Lapalme, CIC, att 1 Bn Wpg Gren, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on 18 Oct I was 2IC of "D" Coy for the route march. On that date there was a route march of D Coy and after we continued about 7 miles a truck arrived with some men including the accused. As soon as they debussed I told them to go and rejoin their sections which were ahead of where they were. Pte Rogerson's pln No. 16 pln was in front of the coln. I formed them into 2 ranks and led them for a distance a bit faster than the main part of the route march in order to pass and catch up with their sections. I noticed the accused staying in the rear and I told him to catch up with the file I was leading, which he did. A short while after I had to drop behind and when I looked back I saw the accused opposite Pte Stevenson about where I had left them. I can't say exactly the distance I had covered but I'd say it was 5 mins marching. I told them to rejoin their section and when I noticed they made no effort to do so I told them to report to me at the noon break. At the noon break they reported to me and Pte Stevenson asked me what for and I told him it was for drill and Pte Stevenson then said "have you a gd room?" and I said "yes" and he said "put me in it then". I turned towards the accused then and he said "put me in too". The third man said he would drill. I then placed both Stevenson and Rogerson under arrest and escort. A few mins later I went to see them while under escort and told them both there was still time to do some drill and neither of them replied.

Q. What time did you have your noon break?
A. I can't say exactly as I didn't have a watch, but I imagine it was near 10 to 12.

Q. Did the accused complete the route march?
A. Yes.

Q. Where was he when he completed the route march?
A. The last man of the coln a short while after the rest.

Q. Did the accused ask to go to the MO when it was completed?
A. Yes, but I don't know if he did go to the MO.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS ~~UNNECESSARY~~ TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

A.3155 Cpl WOODWARD HW, 1 Bn Wpg Gren, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on 18 Oct 44 while on a route march after Stevenson had requested Mr Lapalme to put him in the gd house the accused added "put me in there too" to Mr Lapalme.

Q. Did he make any attempt to fall in?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Was the order given to you to fall these men in or by Lt Lapalme to the men?

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

On 16 44 I returned from a parade and heard that I had to go on a route march, and I went to see the Orderly Sjt, Cpl McLean. I enquired if I could see the MO and it was refused. He gave me an order to get on my eqpt and fall in with the rest of the fellows.

Q. Why did you want to see the MO?
A. I had a sore ankle and this would have been the first route march in a year and half. When the coy had other route marches I was either in Sick Bay, on sick parade, or on light duty. I was in Sick Bay 16 days and I have a certified report to this effect, which gives the date of admission as 18 Sep and discharge 2 Oct. While in Sick Bay I had a touch of pneumonia. When McLean refused to let me see the MO I went to the Orderly Room to see the Sjt-Maj, but before I got a word in with the S.M. McLean asked me as he came in the door of the Orderly Room what the hell I was doing there and said "I thought I told you to get on your eqpt and fall out with the rest of the fellows?". Seeing then that it was no use going any further I went back to my hut and put on my eqpt and fell out with the rest and went to catch up with the route march in a truck. We caught up with the coy about 7 miles out of camp, we debussed and were ordered to catch up to our respective gps by Lt Lapalme. This was after we had debussed at the rear of the colns. We started up the rd and then I saw I could not keep up the pace and started to lag behind as my ankle was bothering me. Pte Croll could not keep up the pace either. I can't remember how many times we were ordered to step up the pace, but I do know we were in files and I recollect there would be 6 or 9, and I had to go to the front of the coln to my pln, pln 16. We marched approx 5 mins and then Lt Lapalme dropped behind. We broke up then and 3 of us marched together. We were still passing the fellows and I'd say were about half way up on the second section when 5 mins elapsed and Lt Lapalme caught up with us and warned us to report to him at the break. When they broke off by the time I got up to where they were all broken off I had rejoined my pln. Lt Lapalme then asked before lunch for the 3 men and I fell out along with the other 2, and when I got to where Lt Lapalme was he was detailing a Cpl and I couldn't make out what he was telling the Cpl exactly. I then heard Stevenson ask Lt Lapalme what the drill was for and he answered "it is to make up for the 7 miles you missed". Then Stevenson asked him if he had a gd house and Lt Lapalme replied yes, and Stevenson said "well you had better put me in it" and Lt Lapalme then turned and started to walk away and I said "Sir, you had better put me in too" because I figured at the time that it was all I could do to make it back to camp let alone try to do drill. At the time I had no intentions of disobeying an order, Sir. Stevenson and I were marched away under escort shortly after that. After awhile Lt Lapalme came up to us and asked us if we wanted to do the drill and I did not answer.

Q. Did you finish the march to camp?
A. I dropped out, Sir, and was overtaken by Pte Croll.

Q. But you did come in?
A. Yes.

Q. Under escort?

A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you go on sick parade Wed morning?
A. No.

Q. What time is it held?
A. Sometime around 6.

Q. Did you know you were to go on a route march Wed morning?
A. No.

Q. When did you expect to do this drill?
A. The way he spoke to Pte Stevenson it was intended to be right then.

Q. After Stevenson said "put me in the Gd Room" you said "put me in too"?
A. Yes.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

H.7003 CQMS BROWN JC, Wpg Gren, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the CQMS of A Coy. I recognize the accused and have checked his boots this morning. I found that he was wearing a pr of civilian boots and his foot measures size 9. I examined both his army issues and one pair is size 8½ and the other a considerably larger pair, I can't say the size as the number had been worn off. In my opinion neither of these pr of boots that this man has had issued to him, fit him. I did not put them on him but I measured his foot with a regulation army foot stick.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THIRD WITNESS

A.71139 Cpl McLEAN, M, D Coy Wpg Gren having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Do you remember the accused making a request to go to the MO on a certain Wed morning?
A. Yes, out in front and back of the Coy Office.

Q. Remember him going into the office after that and you ordering him out?
A. Yes, sick parade is at 6.30 and the accused whom I now recognize reported to me around 7.30 and I refused to let him go on sick parade.

Q. Know anything about his foot?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. At the time you ordered him out of the office were you aware that he had any specific complaint to make to the MO?
A. No.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. Did he not mention his complaint?
A. Yes, he had a sore foot.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT ON THE FINDING

The prosecution has proven that the accused was twice given an order by his superior officer; that upon both occasions this man failed to comply with these orders. I submit that upon both occasions he was aware that he had been given a specific order, and that by his answering in the second case in particular his response to that order was such as to show that he disobeyed a lawful command by his superior officer. The defense has not I think proven that the speed of the march was too great, especially since the man was overburdening troops were tired while he was sick. The prosecution has shown that regarding the second charge the accused was given a specific command which he failed to comply with

DEF OFF ON THE FINDING

On the first charge it has been pointed out that his section was at the front of the coln and that he did catch up with his section. It has also been brought out that he spent some time in the Sick Bay, and also that he was wearing civilian boots. On the second charge he made the statement that there was no order given and it would seem that the order was given to the Cpl and the mention of the gd room to the other accused sort of made it difficult for the witnesses to remember just exactly what the instructions were. This man had no intention of disobeying a lawful command.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

THE DEFENDING OFFR STATED THAT HE HAD NOTHING TO SAY TO THE COURT IN MITIGATION OTHER THAN THAT WHAT HE HAD SAID IN HIS STATEMENT ON THE FINDING, and added:

I had intended to call the MO but he is absent and so I wish to file this report of the accused's attendance at the MIR which supports his statement that he has been ill.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In The Cases of

No. B.143232 Private Rogerson, L.E. 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers, and No. B.144153 Private Stevenson, R.W. 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers, Soldiers of the Canadian Army Overseas, both charged with disobeying a Lawful Command given by their Superior Officer. (AA 9) (3).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Evidence is taken on Oath.

First Witness

Lieut G Lapalme, Canadian Infantry Corps, attached to the 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers, having been duly sworn states:

I am a platoon Commander of "D" Coy, 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers and Pte Rogerson and Pte Stevenson are members of that Coy. On the 18th of October 1944 I was Acting 2 i/c of "D" Coy. On that date the Coy was on a route march. Some men of the Coy were detained in camp for various reasons and they rejoined the Coy in the Field about 1115 hrs. At that time the Coy had walked about 7 miles when these men caught up to us by truck, they debussed at the rear of the column.

The Coy at that time had been through a few obstacles so they were quite closed up.

I told the men who had just debussed to rejoin their sections which were not over 300 yards ahead.

Most of them had already moved off to their sections but about 6 did not do so and were staying behind, I told them again to step out and catch up with their sections, but they still remained in the rear. When I noticed that, I formed them in file putting myself at their head to catch up with the sections. I had to drop behind the whole Coy so I left them at the head of the last section of the Coy on their own to catch up and rejoin their sections.

A short while afterwards I noticed there were only three of the original six who had not rejoined their sections and who remained in the rear, and were walking abreast, I told them again to rejoin their sections and when I saw they did not extend themsleves or make effort to do so I told them to report to me at the breakoff.

At the breakoff they reported to me and I told them to fall in. Pte Stevenson asked me "Why", and I replied, "It was to do some drill". He replied "Have you a Guard Room", I replied "Yes". He then said "You better put me in". I turned towards Pte Rogerson to ask him what he was going to do. He answered by saying "Put me in too". I asked the third man what he intended to do and he answered by saying "I'll drill".

Ptes Stevenson and Rogerson having refused an order given by a Superior Officer, I put them in close arrest.

A short while after I went to see Ptes Stevenson and Rogerson and told them that if they wanted to do the drill the charge would be dropped or words to that effect. They did not answer.

Witness Cross-examined by: B.144153 Private Stevenson, R.

Q. Sir, you stated that there were six men left behind when the rest rejoined their sections, are you sure there wasn't nine instead of just six?

A. There may have been more than six and probably nine.

Q. Sir, was there any man who stayed behind all of the platoons until the breakoff at noon, besides we three.

A. Not knowing the people of the last platoon it is impossible for me to state definitely. Had I known there were personnel not belonging to that platoon, I would have sent them forward.

Q. Sir, what was the definite time of the breakoff at noon.

A. Having no watch I cannot give the exact time of the breakoff but following the rules of marches of that nature we stop at ten minutes to the hour and that would make it ten minutes to twelve.

Q. Sir, what platoon was I in when the noon break came?

A. I couldn't say.

Q. Sir, how far do you estimate we marched from 1115 hrs, when we caught up to you by truck, until the noon break?

A. About two miles.

Q. When I said "You had better put me in the Guard Room" what did you do?

A. I put you under close arrest.

No. B.143232 Pte Rogerson, L.E. declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness

A.3155 Cpl Woodward, H.W. 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers having been duly sworn states:

I am section commander of #3 section, number 17 platoon "D" Coy, 1st Bn Winnipeg Grenadiers and Pte Stevenson is in my section.

On the 18th of October 1944 at about 1155 hrs in the Field I was ordered by Lieut Lapalme to give Ptes Stevenson and Rogerson some drill.

Lieut Lapalme then ordered Ptes Stevenson and Rogerson to fall in to take the drill.

Pte Stevenson asked Lieut Lapalme "Have you a Guard Room" Lieut Lapalme replied "Yes". Pte Stevenson said "Put me in it then". Lieut Lapalme then turned to Pte Rogerson and Rogerson said "Put me in too"

No. B.144153 Pte Stevenson, R.W. declines to cross-examine this witness.

Witness cross-examined by B.143332 Pte Rogerson, L.E.

Q. Cpl, did the Officer detail us two or us three for drill?

A. No, there was another man there, and I believe his name is Pte Walker.

Q. Cpl, did the Officer detail us to go on parade or did you detail us to go on parade?

A. I did not give the Command.

Q. Cpl, did the Officer not detail you to drill us?

A. Yes he did.

Q. Cpl, after they took us away did they not drill Pte Walker?

A. Pte Walker's reply was "I'll do it". Then Lieut Lapalme said "Breakoff and join your platoon".

Q. Cpl, did we state that we would not drill?

A. No, Pte Stevenson said "Put me in the Guard Room" and you said "Put me in there too".

Q. Cpl, did Pte Stevenson and myself to your knowledge disobey an order by making that request?

A. You did not carry out the order therefore you must have disobeyed it.

H.W. Woodward

The accused were cautioned as follows:

Q. Do you wish to make any statements or give Evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give Evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any Evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in Evidence.

A. The accused declined to make a statement and reserved their Defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of 3 pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the Accused and that R.P.4(c)(d)(e)(f) and (g) have been complied with.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No.

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked A, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. L/Cpl Kinney, HK No.G.17945 being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Evidence appended hereto and marked AA1.

The prosecution advised the court that the second witness for the prosecution on the summary, Capt.D.R.Sharpe of the C & Y R was unable to appear at the trial herein to give evidence due to necessary duties in the front line and that as the evidence that would have been given by Capt Sharpe was merely formal and documentary, he, the prosecutor, would be sworn as a witness and produce such evidence as assistant adjt, of the C & Y R.

The court then advised the accused and his defending officer of his rights to demand the attendance of Capt Sharpe at the trial or to ask for an adjournment if the accused desired. The accused through his defending officer advised the court that he did not feel himself prejudiced as a result of the above facts and did not require the attendance of the said Capt Sharpe at the trial herein, and that he did not desire an adjournment and that he did not object to the documentary and formal evidence being produced by the prosecuting officer as assistant adjutant of the C & Y R.

Second witness for the prosecution Lt W.E.Smith, C & Y R, CAO, having been duly sworn states: " I am assistant adjutant of the C & Y R, and produce herewith a certificate of apprehension marked AA2." The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

RP 85(b) complied with.

Q1 Do you recognize the accused?
A1 Yes Sir, he is F32449 Pte Aubrey Sydney Rolfe.

The witness continues:

Further questioned by the prosecution as follows:

Q1 How did you know that the accused was missing at 1300 hrs?
A1 I formed up my sec and checked it and found the accused absent.

Q2 Has the accused returned to you since that time?
A2 Yes, Sir, he returned about two weeks ago after he had been apprehended.

Q3 Was the accused sober when you warned him that you were to move?
A3 Yes, Sir.

Questioned by the court as follows:-

Q1 How many times did you warn the Sec?
A1 Once, Sir.

Q2 Was the accused present when you warned the Sec?
A2 Yes, Sir.

RP 83(B) complied with.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

RP 40 to 2 complied with.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. No.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. No.

Instruction.

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

Final argument by defending officer appended hereto and marked Exhibit "A"4.

"W.McG." President.

Unsworn statement of the accused in his own defence.
F-32449 Pte A.S. Rolfe:

The night before the move we had a party. I was drinking. Next morning I had a few more drinks. I got the vino right in my billet. At 0800 hrs Sgt Carrol of my pl came in and told us to get packed up, but did not tell me what time we were going to move off. After that I drank more as there wasn't much to do. There were two houses over the hill from where we were stationed. I stayed in one of these houses that night and reported back next morning to find my Coy gone and only English troops there. I kept drinking until I gave myself up to the provost in Ortona.

Final argument by defending officer.

Pte Rolfe was drunk when given final warning to move into contact with the enemy. He does not recall being warned, if he was warned. MML Sec 48 Ch III says that where intention is the substance of a charge drunkenness may be considered to place the act under a less serious heading. Rolfe did not intend to avoid the enemy. He was too drunk to be responsible. He returned as soon as he sobered up but his company had moved. He went again since there seemed nothing else to do - he finally surrendered himself.

Attention is brought to the fact that only 1/Cpl Kenney's evidence supports the claim that the accused was warned, and understood the warning. Surely more witnesses were available if Rolfe were present with the whole section.

The above statement (with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with) is read, marked E1 & E2 signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President.

Unsworn statement of the accused, in his own defence
F 32449 Pte A.S. Rolfe.

The night before the move we had a party. Iwas drinking. Next morning I had a few more drinks I get the vino right in my billet. At 0800 hrs. Sgt Carrol of my Pl. came in and told us to get packed up, but did not tell me what time we were going to move off. After that I drank more as there wasn't much to do. There were two houses over the hill from where we were stationed . I stayed in one of these houses that night and reported back next morning to find my Coy. gone and only English Troops there. I kept drinking until I gave myself up to the provost in Ortona.

A 4
"D Mc G Archibald"

Final argument by defending officer

Pte Rolfe was drunk when given final warning to move into contact with the enemy.. He does not recall being warned if he was warned M M L sec 48 Ch III says that when intention is the substance of a charge drunkenness may be considered to place the act under a less serious heading. Rolfe did not intend to avoid the enemy. He was too drunk to be responsible. He returned as soon as he sobered up but his company had moved. He went again since there seemed nothing else to do. He finally surrendered himself.

Attention is brought to the fact that only L/Cpl Kenney's evidence supports the claim that the accused was warned and understood the warning. Surely more witnesses were available if Rolfe were present with whole section.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Doktor Theodor Kiess, Surgeon, Peter Friedrich Ludwig Hospital, Oldenburg, Germany, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor, through the interpreter:

Q.1 Doctor Kiess will you give your name and your occupation?
A.1 Theodor Kiess, Surgeon at the Peter Friedrich Ludwig Hospital, Oldenburg.

Q.2 Now Doctor Kiess, will you tell the Court just exactly what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.2 Frau Rohse was admitted to the hospital in the surgical ward on the Eighteenth of May at about sixteen hours. She suffered through an accident pretty heavy injuries. When admitted to the hospital she was unconscious, the pulse was bad, her face pale, and the breath slow. I could find the following injuries: Heavy concussion, fracture of the left shoulder blade, fracture in the right elbow joint and abrasion of the chest. She was treated immediately. I looked at the shoulder and the right elbow was fixed. The left arm and the left shoulder was bandaged and put in order. On the head she had an ice pack. She got injections for the heart.

Q.3 Doctor Kiess, did Mrs Rohse die from the direct injuries received in that accident?
A.3 Yes sir.

Q.4 And what time did she die?
A.4 On the Twenty-First of May 1946 at Ten-Fifty in the morning.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.5 Doctor Kiess, were you her ordinary physician?
A.5 I am the chief of the hospital.

Q.6 Yes, but did you treat Frau Rohse ordinarily as her family physician?
A.6 No.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.7 Do you remember who took the patient to the hospital? Who accompanied her?
A.7 No, I don't know.

Q.8 Did you see her husband at the hospital?
A.8 Yes sir.

Q.9 Would you recognize her husband?
A.9 Yes sir.

Herr Wilhelm Rohse is brought before the Court.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.10 Do you recognize this man?
A.10 Yes sir, that is Herr Rohse.

Herr Wilhelm Rohse retires.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.11 Was Frau Rohse unconscious all the time - from the time she was admitted to the time she died?
A.11 Yes. Some times she was not in such a heavy unconscious state as at other time, but she never gained consciousness again.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrawn.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

B.130095, Sgt Sutton, WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.12 Will you give your name and number and rank and unit?
A.12 B.130095 Sergeant Sutton, WE 2 MAC, RCASC, CAOF.

Q.13 How will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May 46?
A.13 At Three-Fifteen on the Eighteenth, Private Williams reported to me that Private Rolfe and Private Finnan had driven off in an ambulance from the company vehicle park. I went and got a motorcycle and proceeded to look for them. I reported the incident to the Provost information bureau in Oldenburg and then went in search of the ambulance. When I came to the Bremen-Osnabruk corner I stopped and I asked two soldiers there if they had seen an ambulance. They said they'd not seen one go by in the last ten minutes while they were there. As I was sitting there on the motorcycle trying to decide which way to go to look for them the ambulance pulled up at the corner. Private Rolfe was driving and Private Finnan was in the spare driver's seat. They couldn't get by me because of the way I was turning around. Then I started to lead them back to the camp and about a mile from where I had picked them up, a jeep came up and the driver told me to stop the ambulance and that it had been in an accident. I stopped them and asked Private Rolfe if he had been in an accident and he said didn't know anything about an accident. I then took them back to the scene of the accident and got the information of the accident and took them back to camp. When I got back to camp I placed them in the Regimental guard house about Sixteen-Ten hours. It was about three-quarters of an hour from the time when I went out until I got back. They had been drinking but not enoughto affect Private Rolfe from driving.

Q.14 When you picked the ambulance up, was there any damage done to it?
A.14 There was no damage done to it that I could see. Actually I inspected it closely and I noticed that the front end was scratched - some of the paint was scratched and the front was peppered with broken glass.

Q.15 Rolfe was definitely driving when you picked them up?
A.15 Yes, Private Rolfe was driving.

JA: Captain Turner, try not to put your questions in such a leading manner.

The Prosecutor continues with the examination of the witness:

Q.16 And approximately what time did the ambulance drive up behind you?
A.16 About Fifteen-Forty-Five sir.

Q.17 Fifteen-Forty-Five?
A.17 Fifteen minutes before Four.

Q.18 When you got to the main intersection, where the traffic lights are, what did you see there?
A.18 The centre of the road was covered with broken glass and a car was facing the wrong direction on the right-hand side of the road. When you are going from the Beaver Club towards the intersection, the car was on the right-hand side of the road heading in the opposite direction. The right-hand side of the car was damaged and both side windows were out. They had lifted the lady out that was hurt and put her on a stretcher and an ambulance took her to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital.

Q.19 Were there any civilian police there at the time?
A.19 Yes, one civilian policeman there.

Q.20 What was he doing?
A.20 He was taking down all the information and he was measuring the road from where the accident happened to where the car had stopped and taking down the particulars of the vehicle and the owner of the vehicle and all the necessary information.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.21 Sergeant Sutton, you say the accused had been drinking. What made you think so?
A.21 Well when I questioned him whether he had been in an accident or not I could smell liquor on him. That's the only way I could tell. I just could smell it sir.

Q.22 There was no other evidence of him being drunk?
A.22 No sir, there was no other evidence.

Q.23 To your knowledge - -- did any witness at the scene of the accident identify him - did any witness at the scene of the accident identify the vehicle that Private Rolfe was driving as the vehicle involved in the accident?
A.23 The civilian policeman did, sir.

JA: What's that question again?

Q.24 Did anybody at the scene of the accident identify the vehicle that Private Rolfe was driving as the vehicle that was involved?

JA : I don't think the witness is capable of answering that unless he did it himself. He wasn't there.

Witness: When I brought the vehicle up, the policeman told me that was the vehicle.

JA: This is hearsay evidence. We'll have the witness himself.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.25 Can you identify Private Rolfe?
A.25 Yes sir, that's Private Rolfe there. (Witness indicates accused)

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.26 I would like to know why this was reported to you?
A.26 I was the closest sergeant that Williams found sir.

Q.27 You weren't a duty sergeant?
A.27 No, not at the time sir.

Q.28 Do you know who the man in the jeep, the jeep that you met up with, were?
A.28 No sir, I don't.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.29 On what corner did you first come into contact with the ambulance?
A.29 On the Bremen-Osnabruk crossroads sir.

Q.30 And who was driving the vehicle at the time?
A.30 Private Rolfe sir.

Q.31 Were there any tactical signs on the vehicle?
A.31 Yes sir.

Q.32 What was it?
A.32 1345 on white letters on a red and green Army Service Corps

background, on the driver's side of the vehicle. On the off-side was a blue patch with a gold maple leaf and the white edge.

Q.33 Did you notice the WD number?
A.33 Yes sir.

Q.34 Will you give it to the Court?
A.34 CA 5668660.

Q.35 Who was in the ambulance with the driver?
A.35 Private Finnan was sitting in the off-side seat.

Q.36 Who drove the vehicle from there?
A.36 Private Rolfe sir.

Q.37 Did you ask him to follow you?
A.37 Yes sir.

Q.38 Now, did you notice any damage at all on the ambulance?
A.38 Outside of the paint being scratched sir and the broken glass - after I inspected the vehicle I couldn't see any great damage. There was no metal pushed in and no headlights' broken.

Q.39 On what place on the ambulance was it scratched?
A.39 On the off side of the vehicle - on the left-hand side as you are sitting in it.

Q.40 Had you seen Private Rolfe at 2 MAC that afternoon, before?
A .40 No, I hadn't seen him before that.

Q.41 And other than the smell of alcohol, he looked normal to you?
A.41 He looked absolutely normal. He showed no physical signs of being intoxicated, outside of the smell of drink on his breath.

Q.42 And he drove the ambulance back to the unit?
A.42 Yes sir, he did.

Q.43 Following you?
A.43 Yes sir.

Q.44 In what condition was the other man, in the ambulance?
A.44 I don't know, sir.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.45 What is your official capacity, sergeant?
A.45 I was a platoon sergeant, sir.

With the permission of the court, the following questions are asked by the Defending Officer:

Q.46 Did Private Rolfe get out of the ambulance and walk?
A.46 Yes sir, he did.

Q.47 And he could walk?
A.47 Yes sir.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B)

The witness withdrew.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

L.107047 Pte Williams, WN, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.48 Will you give the Court you number, rank and name and unit?
A.48 L.107047, Private Williams, WN, 2 MAC.

Q.49 Do you know Private Rolfe if you saw him?
A.49 Yes sir.

Q.50 Is he in this room?
A.50 Right there sir. (Witness indicates accused)

Q.51 Now, will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.51 I was on post at the company vehicle park and I opened the barrier to let a TCV that was on test out and right behind the TCV was an ambulance. A.88 My name is Oberwachmeister Dietrich Boedecker, born on the Three-Two-Ten. I work at the Police Station.

Q.89 Will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May?

A.89 On the Eighteenth of May from Fifteen to Sixteen hours I was on duty at the crossing Ullmann. At about Fifteen-Thirty-Five hours the following accident happened. The car 14090 came from the Staulinie and drove in the direction Heiligengeiswall. From Heiligengeistrasse in the direction Langestrasse came a Canadian ambulance number 1345. On the crossing this ambulance collided with the car which had already gone on the crossing. The ambulance touched the car on the right-hand side near the door and pushed the car about sixty metres in front of it so that the car came pointed with its front end to the Heiligengeistrasse. I myself stood at this moment in front of the house Heiligengeistrasse 2. As I saw the accident I went immediately to the car which was driven by Frau Priebe. Beside her sat Frau Rohse as passanger. This person was injured through the accident. I immediately asked two men to phone the First Police Station and also for the ambulance of the Fire Service. From the First Police Station the criminal police was notified. From the First Police Station Provosts. I myself first looked after Frau Rohse and at this time the ambulance stopped for a very short time and immediately went on again in the direction of Langestrasse. I wanted to free Frau Rohse out of her position but I could not do it as the right door was pushed in completely. With the help of some Canadian soldiers the door was broken open. I tried to help Frau Rohse and Frau Rohse was laid on to the stretcher. In the meantime had arrived the ambulance of the Fire Service and Frau Rohse was taken to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital. The witness Muehlenbrock saw the end number of the Canadian ambulance --

JA: Is he a witness?

Pros: He is coming.

Def Offr: It's hearsay and I object to it.

JA: Just tell the Court what you saw and not what you heard.

The witness continues:

A jeep immediately trailed the ambulance. After this I started taking up investigations of the accident. As I took up the different things of the accident a driver of the Provost came along and I asked him to go. In the meantime stopped the ambulance on the Staulinie. I finished taking up the different information and investigation of the accident and went back to the Police Station in order to write out my report. I have finished.

Q.93 Would you recognize the driver?
A.93 No, I cannot recognize him.

A.94 No, it sometimes happens that some of the lights burn out.

Q.95 At the time of this occurrence are you sure that the lights were working?
A.95 Yes sir, I am quite sure that all the lamps were in working order.

Q.96 And did this ambulance go against the light?
A.96 As the light was red the ambulance passed the corner.

Q.97 On Exhibit 'E' you put down a number of one vehicle. What is your evidence that that number is right?
A.97 As I was sitting in the car of Frau Priebe questioning her after the accident somebody brought the ambulance around the corner on its way back and then I took the number which is CA 5668660.

Q.98 That's the number of the vehicle that came back?
A.98 Yes sir, it is the number of the car that stopped there.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.99 How many did you see in the ambulance at the time of the accident?
A.99 I cannot say how many were in it, the accident happened at such a speed that I first looked after the injured. I could not say.

Q.100 Approximately what speed was the ambulance going?
A.100 I cannot say the exact speed of the ambulance.

Q.101 Fast or slow?
A.101 Fast.

Q.102 Did you notice anything particular about the ambulance at the time of the accident - any signs?
A.102 No, I have not noticed anything on the ambulance.

A.104 I could not notice any injuries at the moment. She was not conscious but was not quite unconscious.

Q.105 You said that you saw an ambulance later, some time after the accident. Did you notice any damage on that ambulance?
A.105 No. I only saw the ambulance halt on the corner Staulinie - Heiligengeistrasse. As I went there myself he drove off.

JA: I didn't quite get that.

The witness repeats:

I sent a motorcyclist over, I think he was from the Provost but I cannot quite say so. I asked him to go after this ambulance which had stopped on the corner of Staulinie and Heiligengeistrasse.

JA: That's right after the accident. My question was - he saw an ambulance - you saw an ambulance come back later?

Witness: I never saw one come back I only saw one stopped on the corner Staulinie - Heiligengeistrasse and the witness Muehlenbrock told me "This is the ambulance."

Q.106 You didn't examine the ambulance then?
A.106 No, I have not examined it.

Q.107 Do you recognise these photographs? Tell the Court what they are.
A.107 These pictures are made by the Criminal Inspector.

Q.108 What do they represent?
A.108 (Exhibit 'A') This photograph where the X is on the photograph it shows where the car collided with the ambulance. This is the spot where the glass was lying. The second X a bit further up on the top left-hand corner that is the spot where the car stood turned around facing towards the crossing again. This picture was taken from upstairs from the last floor of the house on Langestrasse which is the corner house.

(Exhibit 'B') This photograph has been taken as the driver of the ambulance would have seen it coming along. The view of the driver coming along from Number Two Police Station.

(Exhibit 'C') This is a view out of Frau Prisbe's car coming towards the crossing - straight across the crossing.

(Exhibit 'D') The last photograph is the photograph from the opposite direction to the driver of the ambulance and also where I was standing at the time of the accident. I was standing on the right-hand corner where the man is standing, in front of house number 2 where one can get a glimpse of the door and his view is shown there.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.109 And in this picture the ambulance would be coming down this way, would it?
A.109 Coming up this way yes sir, that is right.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrawn.

A.112 I was standing right here. The policeman stood on the same side but further back - about three metres further back.

Q.113 Will you continue?
A.113 Then the light was red from Staulinie to Heiligengeistrasse. On the Staulinie facing to Heiligengeistrasse stood the car OLD 14090 and the light was red. At the green light the car started in the direction of Heiligengeistwall. As the car was at the second half of the street came a British Red Cross car from the direction of the Wehrgemacht and passed the red light and collided with the car on the right-hand side of the door and pushed the car along and turned it around so that it faced in the direction of Heiligengeistrasse and then the ambulance stopped a very short time and drove on again. Then the Oberwachmeister stopped a British car and asked him to trail the ambulance which had gone off again. Then the Oberwachmeister turned his attention to the car which was in the accident and tried to get the woman out of the car from the side where the driver sat. He could not manage it and then he tried to get the door off the other side. He could not manage it on his own and then came two British officers and they together ripped the door open and in the meantime Oberwachmeister Boedecker had told a civilian to inform the Fire Service in order to get an ambulance. The ambulance arrived in a very short time. They lifted the woman carefully out of the car and then took her to the hospital. About Fifteen-Fifty hours this particular ambulance stood again in front of the red light on the Staulinie.

JA: How do you know it is the same ambulance?

Then a motorcyclist - I cannot describe the motorcycle - which was an Allied soldier drove up to this ambulance and took the particulars of the driver. I also saw how the driver showed his papers to this motor-cyclist. He took the papers out of his pocket and put them back in his pocket. Then the motorcycle and also the ambulance drove off in the direction of the Wehrgemacht.

Q.125 And that was back or front?
A.125 On the back.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.126 How many were in the ambulance at the time of the accident - in the front?
A.126 I cannot say. I could not see so quickly.

Q.131 And will you also tell us the name of your wife?
A.131 Martha Rohse.

Q.132 Will you explain to the Court of your visit to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital - how many times you saw your wife?
A.132 At half-past seven I was informed of the accident that had happened to my wife. I then went immediately to the hospital and found my wife in room Sixty-Six. I was told that my wife had concussion and a double fracture of the left shoulder bone and also injuries to the elbow joint. I could not speak to my wife very well because she could not breathe properly and she also could not speak properly. I then asked to put my wife into a room on her own because in her room she was in were quite a number of people and there was quite a lot of disturbance. On Sunday morning I visited my wife again and found her in room number Fifty-Seven. He condition was not worse than the day before but she had pains. On Sunday afternoon I went again with her for one and a half hours to two hours. On Monday morning I visited her again and I did not like her looks. Her fingers had the colour bluish-grey. Then I was told by the surgeon, Doktor Keiss that the condition of my wife was more grave than it was thought before. According to the doctor my wife got internal injuries at the collision. On Monday afternoon I went again to my wife. I then saw that the hard breathing eased off a bit. Her speech was better than in the morning. I asked her if she felt better and she said 'yes'. She always wanted something to drink. She was very thirsty. I said good-bye to her at Seven and I told her that I would be there the next morning between Ten and Ten-Thirty. I could not go at this time but only came at Eleven o'clock next morning. I was too late. My wife died ten minutes before. I don't know anything else.

A.138 I cannot understand. I was ill myself. My wife wanted to get some - a few things from the bakery and such like which I myself usually did. At this Frau Priebe offered to my wife to take along my wife in order to get her home quicker back to me.

Q.139 You said that your wife was conscious while you visited her. Did she say anything about the accident, or the circumstances?
A.139 No, she could not because she could not speak very easily. It was very difficult with her to speak and she had very great pains and it was very hard for her to get her breath. I have only exchanged a few words with her and I never touched the subject of the accident. When my son was there, which came at Ten-Thirty on the Twenty-First to see my wife he was told by the sister that the condition of his mother was not very good. Just before she died she said to my son that he should sit down and suddenly she said a few seconds later everything was getting darker and she just laid back and a few minutes later she was dead.

just at half-past three and the accident must have happened two or three minutes later after this. She waved to me from the car and said to me "I shall be back in half an hour"

Q.142 Who was driving the car?
A.142 Frieda Priebe.

Q.143 The woman you saw this morning?

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE:

Capt Y.E. Pieuse, RCAMC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.310 Captain Pieuse will you tell us whether it is possible for a man having imbibed say half a bottle of gin and a bottle of schnappe during a morning to be in possession of his physical ability but not of his mental faculties?
A.310 Did he take only one bottle?

Q.311 And a half a bottle of gin.
A.311 He took that in the morning?

Q.312 Yes.
A.312 It is possible.

Q.313 What would be the effect on a man to drink half a bottle of gin and a bottle of schnappe between the hours of Nine and One o'clock. What would be the effect on his physical ability and mental faculties at say Three-Thirty in the afternoon?
A.313 It depends on the man.

A.314 Yes sir.

Q.315 He could even driver a vehicle?
A.315 Yes sir.

Q.317 Would the use of alcohol over a period of time harden a man to such an extent that he could drink more and retain his capabilities?
A.317 If he is used to drink he can usually take more than a man who takes drink only once in a while.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.318 Supposing a man in that condition, who had lost his mental ability, would it show on his person if he were met by an absolutely sober man. Would this man be able to form an opinion that the man was lacking in his mental ability?

A.318 If he speaks to him.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.319 Could a man under these circumstances be lacking his mental ability and in possession of his physical ability over a period lasting as long as three hours?
A.319 In my opinion it should be for just a short period.

Q.320 You state that three hours is too short a period?
A.320 That is a long period - three hours.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.321 What would be the next reaction after that? What would happen to that man?
A.321 He would feel sleepy after a depressing period.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.322 Do you think that if a man is kept at work during that period he would regain his mental faculties?
A.322 If a man can do his work.

Q.323 I believe the question that was asked to start with was whether a man could retain his physical ability and carry on and lose his mental ability.
A.323 Yes, for a short time.

Q.324 If that man - I ask now if the man, having reached that condition was kept at work during the better part of those three hours -
A.324 If he is fit to carry on for three hours he would not be in that condition.

Q.325 In other words if he had reached that condition he would not be able to work for three hours?
A.325 No.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(3).

The witness withdrew.

A.380 Not that I know of sir. I left the guard room after that. I was in the building down below.

Q.381 Would you say that he was drunk?
A.381 Well, they had a drink but I don't know - they were walking back to their cell when I told them to. That's the only thing - I never spoke to them myself.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.382 You have no evidence that they were drunk but on the other hand you have no evidence that they were sober?
A.382 I didn't talk to them. I smelled their breath of liquor and I locked them in the guard room sir.

Q.383 They could have been drunk and you not know it?
A.383 Well they were walking when I told them to go in the cell.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.384 Who brought them to you?
A.384 Sergeant Sutton, sir.

Q.385 Did you see them arrive at the airport?
A.385 They walked into the guard room. That's the only place I paid any attention to him at all. Sergeant Sutton said to look them up and that's what I did.

Q.386 Did they have anything to do that evening?
A.386 Yes sir, they went for supper.

Q.387 Both of them?
A.387 Yes sir.

Q.388 Around what time?
A.388 Around Four-Thirty to Five. I'm not sure exactly.

Q.389 Was Captain Turner in to see them later?
A.389 I wont say for certain because I went down below and Corporal MacLennon was the one that was taking them over to the cell.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.390 Did you say someone else took them over to supper?
A.390 MacLennan.

Q.391 He took them over to supper?
A.391 He was in there with them when they were having supper.

Q.392 Corporal MacLennon?
A.392 Yes sir.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.393 Did they appear normal to you when they came in the guard room?
A.393 I couldn't see anything wrong with them. I didn't see them walking very far, I told them to get in the cell and I locked them up.

Q.394 Did they have anything to say?
A.394 I couldn't say.

Q.395 Did they speak to each other?
A.395 No, I don't remember them speaking to anyone at all.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrew.

THIRD WITNESS CALLED BY THE PROSECUTION IN REBUTTAL:

D.84817, Cpl MacLennan, M, 2 Cdn Demob Depot, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.396 Will you give your name and number and unit please?
A.396 D.84817, Corporal MacLennan, M, 2 Demob Depot.

Q.397 Corporal, will you tell us what you know about the Eighteenth of May.
A.397 The Eighteenth of May sir, it was my day off. I was RP at the airforce guard room and I got up at approximately a quarter to four in the afternoon and I went out and I was asked by the Corporal on duty if I would take the prisoners over to eat supper at Four-Thirty. I told him I would. I was in charge of the party and I didn't notice anything wrong until after when Captain Turner was in and he was talking to Rolfe and Finman and making them walk a straight line up and down along the corridor. And that's all I know.

Q.398 That was immediately after supper?
A.398 At approximately Five o'clock, sir.

Q.399 Did they walk the straight line?
A.399 I didn't see anything out of order at all sir. I sat across from Rolfe at the supper table and I didn't notice anything whatever wrong.

Q.400 You can't say that he had a drink or maybe two or maybe ten?
A.400 Well sir, I have no reason to believe that he was drunk.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.401 Would you repeat your last statement? You have no reason to believe he was drunk?
A.401 That's right, sir.

Q.402 You have no evidence that he was in full possession of his faculties?
A.402 I couldn't say whether he had been drinking or whether he hadn't sir.

Q.403 So that your evidence is nil.
A.403 I don't know anything about the case at all sir.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(3).

The witness withdraws.

At 1610 hours the Court is adjourned.

At 1649 hours the Court is re-opened, pursuant to adjournment, present the same members and Judge Advocate as upon adjournment.

The accused is brought before the Court.

The Defending Officer makes the following closing address:

Mister President, we have heard a lot of evidence that Private Rolfe was out in the afternoon in a vehicle and also evidence that an accident took place in Oldenburg, but no evidence has been adduced to connect Private Rilfe with the accident. The vehicle involved in the accident may or may not have been the one that he took out but there is no evidence at all that he was driving that vehicle or any other vehicle at the time of the accident.

As to his movements during the afternoon, nothing tangible has been produced because no evidence could be found to testify as to his movements. He had been drinking and we have had an expert witness to say that it was quite possible for a man to be in possession of his physical ability and to lose for a period his mental faculties. Now the period that is a blank is from the time he turned the corner about Fifteen-Ten hours until he pulled up behind Sergeant Sutton - a period of Thirty-Five minutes and according to Captain Pleese's evidence that is entirely possible. That Private Rolfe be convicted of reckless driving I would not contest because he was drunk and was seen driving out of the camp at Fifteen Hundredd hours. There was ground for a charge there, of reckless driving because he was under the influence of liquor but I contend that there is no ground to convict him of the charge that is laid against him so on that basis gentlemen, I see no reason why Private Rolfe should be found guilty as charged.

As to his state of mind, Corporal Jack said that he was all right but then on cross-examination he says that he doesn't remember and when he was asked what he was doing he said he was playing cards. Well, could he swear that? No, he couldn't but that's what the people usually did at noon and that was on what he based his statement that they were playing cards and that is no testimony.

I saw that Private Rolfe was not driving the vehicle which was involved in the accident.

The Prosecutor makes the following closing address:

The Defence has brought up several points - who was driving the vehicle? There were two men seen going out in the vehicle at Fifteen-Fifteen hours. Rolfe was driving it. The same two men were picked up in that vehicle within ten minutes of the accident, the glass still on the front of the vehicle. There is a faint possibility but it is almost impossible that these two would get some other individual to drive and then be involved in an accident and the switch over after the accident.

As regards the number of the vehicle, 1345 is the - 2 MAC is the only unit with 1345 and Hermann Mahlenbrook saw 1345 and he also saw the first figure of the HQ number and the last two. Later, Sergeant Sutton, shortly after the accident, within ten minutes, picked up the vehicle and gives the whole number, the first number being 6 and the last two, 60. I think there is enough evidence that he was driving the vehicle at the time of the accident and that he kept on going.

Now his claim is that he doesn't remember. It seems to me that he remembers what he wants to remember and doesn't remember what he doesn't want to remember.

The Defence has brought in an MO as a witness that a man can be physically capable and mentally incapable. But he also says that the reverse is true, that he can be mentally capable and physically incapable. The accused admitted to me that he didn't remember walking a line and that was about Five o'clock in the afternoon so that the period of blank was considerably longer than Forty-Five minutes.

As to the statement of Corporal Jack about playing cards. I think if the evidence was read that that was at noon. He periodically went downstairs to the QM Stores and these two men were working with the QM Staff.

Taking these points into consideration I maintain that Private Rolfe is guilty of the charge and is not guilty of being as drunk as he is trying to make out. JK(Can) says that drunkenness is no excuse for crime but if he is drunk it should be brought out. Nobody has proved that he was as drunk as he would like us to think.

The Judge Advocate makes the following summing-up:

Mister President and members of the Court, it is now my duty as Judge Advocate to advise you as to the law applicable to the case you have just heard. My presence here is merely in an advisory capacity and I have no saying whatsoever in the decision that you will be called upon to make as to whether the accused is guilty or not of the offence with which he is charged. If I have expressed any personal opinion as to the facts during the trial or if I do so during my summing-up, it is your duty to disregard it. You alone are the judges of the facts and the decision rests entirely upon you.

Now, the accused before you is charged with manslaughter which is defined as follows: It is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either express or implied. There are two kinds of manslaughter, one voluntary and the other one involuntary. The case before the Court would fall in the latter category. Involuntary manslaughter is that which is committed by a person who brings about the death of another by acting in some unlawful manner but without any intention of killing or committing an act likely to kill. This act, in its nature, may be lawful but nevertheless may be done so recklessly as to result in the death of another person. The type of manslaughter arising out of motor car accidents is usually caused by negligence. Where death results in consequence of a negligent act it would seem that to create criminal responsibility, the degree of negligence must be so gross as to amount to recklessness. That is what you will have to consider once you are satisfied that the death of Frau Rohse was definitely caused by the collision of the car in which she was a passenger and the ambulance and once you are satisfied, also that that ambulance was the ambulance driven by the accused. You must be satisfied that the negligence of the driver of the ambulance was so gross as to be reckless. Now, in explaining to the juries the test which they should apply to determine whether the negligence in a particular case amounts to gross negligence, many epithets are used such as 'culpable', 'criminal', 'gross', 'wicked', 'clear', 'complete'. But whatever epithet be used and whether an epithet be used or not, in order to establish criminal liability, the facts must be such that, in the opinion of the jury, the negligence of the prisoner went beyond a mere matter of compensation between subjects and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and conduct deserving punishment. Another test that we find is in Kenny's Outline of Criminal Law as follows: "Must the prisoner by his conduct be deemed to have intended to cause bodily harm to someone or to have been indifferent or reckless as to the obvious risk of bodily harm to which his conduct was exposing someone." Now, this is the law on what a manslaughter consists of and the type of negligence to be proved in order to find a man guilty of that offense.

In this case as you know, the onus is upon the Prosecution to prove the offence alleged against the accused. The following evidence has been brought out by the Prosecution. The accused was seen driving out of the camp area in company with a fellow comrad; he was driving an ambulance. There is no direct evidence connecting the accused with the scene of the accident. One witness however, who was an eye-witness to the accident stated that although he could not identify the accused as being the driver of the ambulance, he saw on the ambulance the tactical number 1345 which number as it was brought out was the tactical number of the ambulance which the accused was seen driving out of the camp and later also was seen driving, shortly after the accident. That witness also saw part of the WD number on the ambulance, that is the first and last two figures. These figures also corresponded to the figures - the WD number of the ambulance which the driver took out of the camp and which he was driving shortly after the accident. This is not direct evidence but you may interpret it as strong circumstantial evidence. Another item of circumstantial evidence was adduced by Sergeant Sutton who stated that a very short time after the accident he came in contact with the accused, then driving an ambulance, and he noticed on the front of the ambulance that the paint had been scratched and that there was some broken glass. The report of the accident as you have heard it, is that the ambulance came in contact with the right-hand side door of a car. From this you would naturally expect some broken glass of that window to be found on the front of the ambulance. This is also circumstantial evidence. Now, in order to find the accused guilty of manslaughter, apart from the type of negligence I have just mentioned, not only must you be satisfied that it is the ambulance driven by the accused that collided with the civilian car but you must also be satisfied that the death of Frau Rohse resulted from the collision. On the latter point you have evidence that she was taken to the hospital immediately after the accident where she received proper medical attention and that she died at that hospital a few days after the accident. Unless her death was a consequence of the accident there could not be any manslaughter.

The Defense alleged that the accused was drunk on that afternoon from approximately one o'clock till some time in the guard room around Five o'clock. This was corroborated by another witness for the Defence who apparently was in the same state; the latter even remembers less than the accused himself. Drunkenness as you know, is no excuse for crime. A man intends the natural consequences of his acts and if he goes and gets drunk he is responsible for whatever ensues. "Intoxication, whether produced by alcohol or by drugs, is ordinarily no excuse for the commission of a criminal act, even though it have produced for the time great aberration of mind. For unlike insanity, it has been produced voluntarily and to produce it was wrong, both morally and also legally. Accordingly the law will not allow one wrong act to be an excuse for another. Hence the gross negligence which has caused a fatal collision is punishable, not only in a sober driver but also in a drunken one." It would be an excuse if the man who is drunk is in such a drunken state that he is incapable of forming the intent to commit any offence. This would apply where the intention is of the essence of the offence. In the case of manslaughter there is no intention required. Now if the Court is not satisfied that some of the essential elements have been proved, they may make a special finding whereby they would find the accused not guilty of manslaughter but guilty of reckless driving in accordance with the Road Traffic Act.

Now, you have heard the witnesses before you. There has been some contradictory statements as to the state of the accused at the material times when the offence was committed and it is up to you to make up your minds which witnesses you will believe. The witnesses were before you. They have been examined by the Prosecutor and Defending Officer and by myself and you have been able to study their deportment. It is now left to you to decide whether you believe one witness or another. You may believe one part of one witness's testimony and you may disbelieve another part. This is the province of the Court and you should use your discretion.

Now before closing I would like to point out to you that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to the accused being guilty of the offence of manslaughter or of reckless driving, the benefit of that doubt should be given to the accused and he should be found not guilty. Now what is a reasonable doubt? To warrant an acquittal the doubt must not be light or capricious such as timidity or passion prompts and weakness or corruption readily adopts, it must be such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will suggest to an honest heart - the conscientious hesitation of minds that are not influenced by party, pre-occupied by prejudice or subdued by fear.

Unless there is anything else you wish me to discuss, this will close my summing-up.

President: I don't think there is anything else.

JA: Have you anything further?

Def Offr: No.

JA: Captain Turner?

Pros: No, nothing.

The Court is closed to consider the finding.

FIRST CHARACTER WITNESS:

Capt R.W.C. Turner, 2 Cdn MAC RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.404 Captain Turner, how long have you known the accused?
A.404 Since last fall - September 45 was when I actually came in contact with him.

Q.405 What opinion have you formed of the accused bearing on his character as a soldier?
A.405 Since September, it is not very good. He has been continuously in trouble.

Q.406 His conduct sheet doesn't bear that out.
A.406 That first case of the traffic accident you will find on his NF M6.

Q.407 You have nothing specific against him?
A.407 No - specific - no.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.408 How has he carried out his duties when he didn't get into trouble?
A.408 To the best of my knowledge he carried them out. I didn't have very much to do with the man at all. I was in Headquarters platoon all the time.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness stands down.

SECOND CHARACTER WITNESS:

B.130095, Sgt Sutton, WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been reminded of his former oath, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.409 Sergeant Sutton, how long have you known the accused?
A.409 Since the Fifteenth of December sir.

Q.410 He was working under you?
A.410 He was, after Christmas.

Q.411 What opinion have you formed as to his character as a soldier?
A.411 I don't know much about him sir. Before I came back to the company I was away for five months. I came back and about a week after I took over the platoon - after Christmas. It was a month or so before I got to know him very well. I found him capable of carrying out his work but he was an excessive drinker. I never knew when he would get drunk. We had one or two disturbances with him. Then he settled down and worked for about two or three months and he was put on a vehicle. He didn't do such a very good job on the vehicle so he was taken off and he was given a job around the billets. But he kept going out on the occassional sprees.

Q.412 Then according to you his trouble was due to drink?
A.412 Yes sir, he seemed to have something worrying him and nobody could get it straightened out. The platoon officer and myself tried to get it straightened out. We talked with him and had many a discussion with him and we tried to work something out.

Q.413 In your opinion had it not been for his drinking, would he have been a good soldier?
A.413 I'm sure he would, yes.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.414 Was the accused the type of man who showed any initiative himself or did he have to be told everything that had to be done?

A.414 I would say he had to be explained and told what to do.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(8).

The witness withdrawn.

E.2

Def Offr: The Statement of Character is not correct when it says that the accused is under sentence at the present time from the Eighth of May. That's more than Twenty-Eight days ago.

President: The Court agrees with that but in view of the absence of the Adjutant who has been repatriated, the Statement of Character cannot be changed but the Court will take that into consideration.

E.3

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation:

On the MF 36 you will notice that the first charge is dated the Twenty-Sixth of September. The accused was then entitled to a good conduct stripe. Private Rolfe enlisted on the Twenty-Second of September, 43 and had two clear years without ever committing an offence.

About Christmas last year he got a letter from his wife - he is the father of four girls whom he is trying to support. His wife announced to him the birth of another child. This child cannot be his because he had left home over a year before. You can understand what a shock that was to him and as so many people do, in order to forget his troubles he took to drink. I think it is human to seek oblivion on one's troubles in anything that will produce oblivion. Drink is the most common. Sergeant Sutton is satisfied that had it not been for drink he would have been a good soldier.

More recently Private Rolfe got another letter from his wife saying that one of his girls was in hospital and she did not state why or from what illness or anything. There is an additional worry. He was quite prepared to go back home and pick up the threads again and resume his married life and to be a good husband and be a good father and forget his wife's erring ways but always at the back of his mind was the idea of an unfaithful wife. Can you blame him? - if he sought comfort in alcoholic stimulants?

I would have liked to bring in witnesses as to his good character up to the date of this last Christmas but unfortunately the people who have known him during that time have gone home. So we have to take his record that he was a good soldier, entitled to a good conduct stripe and that his falling off the straight and narrow was due to domestic trouble.

Therefore I say gentlemen, that whatever you convict him of is not due to clear-headed intention but rahter the consequences of drink and this drink is the desire to forget his own trouble.

B.130095 A/Sgt Sutton WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC CAOF, sworn, states:

I am B.130095 A/Sgt Sutton WE of 2 Cdn MAC RCASC CAOF. On 18 May 46 at 1515 hrs Pte Williams reported to me in block V.10 that Ptes Rolfe and Finnan had taken an ambulance from coy veh park and had driven off in the direction of the main gate for Alexander Airport. I then immediately got a motor cycle and proceeded to look for them. I went down town to Provost Information bureau in Oldenburg and reported the incident. I then circled around through town in search of the ambulance and when I came to the Bremen Strasse and Osnabruk intersection I stopped and enquired from two Cdn soldiers who were standing on the corner, if they had seen a Cdn ambulance. They said they had not seen on in the past ten minutes. I sat on the bike and trying to decide which road to take in search of the ambulance or to go back into town. As I was about to go back into town, the ambulance pulled up at the corner behind me with Pte Rolfe driving and Pte Finnan in the spare driver's seat. I then told them to turn around and I started to lead them back to camp. From all appearances they were under the influence of alcoholic stimulants but not to such an extent as to prevent Pte Rolfe from driving. We had not travelled more than a mile and a half through town from the Bremen-Osnaburk intersection with a jeep with a Cpl and a Pte in it pulled up along side of me. The Cpl asked me to stop the ambulance which I did. He then informed me that the ambulance had been involved in an accident and had not stopped. I called Pte Rolfe out of the vehicle and asked him if he knew anything about an accident. He said he did not remember having an accident. I then asked the Cpl to lead us back to the scene of the accidet. He led us to the main intersection where the stop lights are in Oldenburg. We parked the ambulance. We had the Cpl remain with it. I then went to the civilian policeman who was taking down information in regards to the accident. There was a small sedan which had been hit broadside and in it was a female German so was injured. In my presence she was removed from the car and taken to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital in a German ambulance. I consulted the notes that the German policeman had made. He had 2 MAC Tac No. 1345 and WE No. CA 5668660. I got all information regarding the accident from him. I then went back to the ambulance and looked for damage. There was no damage done to the vehicle but the hood and fender was covered with broken glass then led the ambulance back to the camp area and put the two men Rolfe and Finnan in the guard room. I then reported the matter to the MT Sgt.

Rolfe declines to question witness.

Q. At what time did you bring Ptes Rolfe and Finnan back to Alexander Airfield after the accident.

I am L.107047 Pte Williams WN of 2 Cdn MAC RCASC CAOF. On 18 May 46 I was on guard at Coy veh park at 1615 hrs. I left the barrier to let a TCV "on test" out. Immediately behind the TCV was an ambulance and it got out before I could lower the barrier. Pte Rolfe was drving and Pte Finnan was in the spare drivers seat. I hailed for them to stop as I knew that they were doing FP and should not be driving. They did not stop and turned right from the veh park. I got a substitute guard and went and reported the matter to Sgt Sutton.

Rolfe declines to question.

I am Mrs Frida Fricke, living Oldenburg Kaiserstrasse 2, being duly sworn in, state the following:

On Saturday the 18 May 46, about fifteen thirty hours I drove with the PKW Old 14090 from the Staulinie in direction Heiligengeiswall. When I arrived at the crossing the traffic light showed red, I stopped and drove on when the light showed green. When I was at the crossing I saw on my right a short distance from my vehicle a heavy truck arrive at full speed. As far as I remember I tried to swerve away or get past the vehicle but it was too late for that. I suddenly felt a very heavy push and felt my car going out of its direction. I had the impression that my vehicle turned over. But it only turned around so that it came to stand pointing in the direction of the Heiligengeistrasse. I hit the left window with my head, and therefore saw my way about only after a little while, then I noticed that my co-driver Mrs Rohse, Oldenburg Kaiserstrasse 2, was hurt. The vehicle was also heavily damaged the body on the right side was smashed and the motor was also damaged. I could not make sure of more details.

The witness Hermann Mueßlenbrock, Oldenburg Heiligengeistrasse 77, had noticed that an LKW of the unit 1345 with the end number 60 was concerned. This LKW stopped, returning, at the Staulinie so that the exact number of this vehicle could be ascertained. The accident was caused through the LKW passing the crossing at high speed with the red light. The PKW had to be towed away.

Additional Summary

On the 18 May 46 I was standing at the corner Langestrasse - Heiligengeiststrasse (at the Oldenburg Versicherung Building) at about 1530 hrs. The PKW No. 14090 stood before the red signals, and when the green came this vehicle drove in the direction Heiligengeiststwall at relatively slow speed. At about the height of the crossing the PKW was rammed by an Allied vehicle, which had not observed the signal. The PKW was dragged to the corner and then pushed back to the height of the Central Cafe entrance. The Allied vehicle had room enoughto swerve to the left, and drove, without bothering about the accident, away.

Police-sergeant Boedecker stopped an Allied vehicle to take up pursuit. In the meantime the policeman had ordered a civilian to call an ambulance by telephone. The ambulance appeared after a short while. The police sergeant tried to lift Mrs Rohse from the vehicle, which he did not manage from the side of the driver. He then tried to open the door from the other side. With this two British officer, who came by, helped hi.

About 1600 hrs the Allied Red Cross wagon was suddenly at the corner Staulinie again. I recognized the vehicle at once again. The operators were identified by a British motorcycle driver. The motorcycle driver and the Allied Red Cross wagon drove off in the direction Pferdemarkt. (The PKW was then standing in the direction Pferdemarkt.)

Oldenburg, May 29. 1946

I, the undersigned Wilhelm Rohse, Oldenburg, Kaiserstrasse 2, state under oath that I visited my wife, after she suffered injuries in the traffic accident, at the Peter Friedrich Ludwig Hospital as well as on the day of the accident, May 18. in Oldenburg, as on the following days (sunday and monday) several times and spoke to her. It is without doubt that I recognised my wife on Tuesday forenoon and Tuesday afternoon, also on Thursday, after she was laid into the coffin, because she was little or not at all disfigured.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Doktor Theodor Kiess, Surgeon, Peter Friedrich Ludwig Hospital, Oldenburg, Germany, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor, through the interpreter:

Q.1 Doctor Kiess will you give your name and your occupation?
A.1 Theodor Kiess, Surgeon at the Peter Friedrich Ludwig Hospital, Oldenburg.

Q.2 Now Doctor Kiess, will you tell the Court just exactly what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.2 Frau Rohse was admitted to the hospital in the surgical ward on the Eighteenth of May at about sixteen hours. She suffered through an accident pretty heavy injuries. When admitted to the hospital she was unconscious, the pulse was bad, her face pale, and the breath slow. I could find the following injuries: Heavy concussion, fracture of the left shoulder blade, fracture in the right elbow joint and abrasion of the chest. She was treated immediately, I looked at the shoulder and the right elbow was fixed. The left arm and the left shoulder was bandaged and put in order. On the head she had an ice pack. She got injections for the heart.

Q.3 Doctor Kiess, did Mrs Rohse die from the direct injuries received in that accident?
A.3 Yes sir.

Q.4 And what time did she die?
A.4 On the Twenty-First of May 1946 at Ten-Fifty in the morning.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.5 Doctor Kiess, were you her ordinary physician?
A.5 I am the chief of the hospital.

Q.6 Yes, but did you treat Frau Rohse ordinarily as her family physician?
A.6 No.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.7 Do you remember who took the patient to the hospital? Who accompanied her?
A.7 No, I don't know.

Q.8 Did you see her husband at the hospital?
A.8 Yes sir.

Q.9 Would you recognize her husband?
A.9 Yes sir.

Herr Wilhelm Rohse is brought before the Court.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.10 Do you recognize this man?
A.10 Yes sir, that is Herr Rohse.

Herr Wilhelm Rohse retires.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.11 Was Frau Rohse unconscious all the time - from the time she was admitted to the time she died?
A.11 Yes. Some times she was not in such a heavy unconscious state as at other time, but she never gained consciousness again.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(3).

The witness withdrew.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

B.130095, Sgt Sutton, WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.12 Will you give your name and number and rank and unit?
A.12 B.130095 Sergeant Sutton, WE 2 MAC, RCASC, CAOF.

Q.13 How will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May 46?
A.13 At Three-Fifteen on the Eighteenth, Private Williams reported to me that Private Rolfe and Private Finnan had driven off in an ambulance from the company vehicle park. I went and got a motorcycle and proceeded to look for them. I reported the incident to the Provost information bureau in Oldenburg and then went in search of the ambulance. When I came to the Bremen-Osnabruk corner I stopped and I asked two soldiers there if they had seen an ambulance. They said they'd not seen one go by in the last ten minutes while they were there. As I was sitting there on the motorcycle trying to decide which way to go to look for them the ambulance pulled up at the corner. Private Rolfe was driving and Private Finnan was in the spare driver's seat. They couldn't get by me because of the way I was turning around. Then I started to lead them back to the camp and about a mile from where I had picked them up, a jeep came up and the driver told me to stop the ambulance and that it had been in an accident. I stopped them and asked Private Rolfe if he had been in an accident and he said didn't know anything about an accident. I then took them back to the scene of the accident and got the information of the accident and took them back to camp. When I got back to camp I placed them in the Regimental guard house about Sixteen-Ten hours. It was about three-quarters of an hour from the time when I went out until I got back. They had been drinking but not enough to affect Private Rolfe from driving.

Q.14 When you picked the ambulance up, was there any damage done to it?
A.14 There was no damage done to it that I could see. Actually I inspected it closely and I noticed that the front end was scretched - some of the paint was scratched and the front was peppered with broken glass.

Q.15 Rolfe was definitely driving when you picked them up?
A.15 Yes, Private Rolfe was driving.

JA: Captain Turner, try not to put your questions in such a leading manner.

The Prosecutor continues with the examination of the witness:

Q.16 And approximately what time did the ambulance drive up behind you?
A.16 About Fifteen-Forty-Five sir.

Q.17 Fifteen-Forty-Five?
A.17 Fifteen minutes before Four.

Q.18 When you got to the main intersection, where the traffic lights are, what did you see there?
A.18 The centre of the road was covered with broken glass and a car was facing the wrong direction on the right-hand side of the road. When you are going from the Beaver Club towards the intersection, the car was on the right-hand side of the road heading in the opposite direction. The right-hand side of the car was damaged and both side windows were out. They had lifted the lady out that was hurt and put her on a stretcher and an ambulance took her to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital.

Q.19 Were there any civilian police there at the time?
A.19 Yes, one civilian policeman there.

Q.20 What was he doing?
A.20 He was taking down all the information and he was measuring the road from where the accident happened to where the car had stopped and taking down the particulars of the vehicle and the owner of the vehicle and all the necessary information.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.21 Sergeant Sutton, you say the accused had been drinking. What made you think so?
A.21 Well when I questioned him whether he had been in an accident or not I could smell liquor on him. That's the only way I could tell. I just could smell it sir.

Q.22 There was no other evidence of him being drunk?
A.22 No sir, there was no other evidence.

Q.23 To your knowledge - -- did any witness at the scene of the accident identify him - did any witness at the scene of the accident identify the vehicle that Private Rolfe was driving as the vehicle involved in the accident?
A.23 The civilian policeman did, sir.

JA: What's that question again?

Q.24 Did anybody at the scene of the accident identify the vehicle that Private Rolfe was driving as the vehicle that was involved?

JA: I don't think the witness is capable of answering that unless he did it himself. He wasn't there.

Witness: When I brought the vehicle up, the policeman told me that was the vehicle.

JA: This is hearsay evidence. We'll have the witness himself.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.25 Can you identify Private Rolfe?
A.25 Yes sir, that's Private Rolfe there. (Witness indicates accused)

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.26 I would like to know why this was reported to you?
A.26 I was the closest sergeant that Williams found sir.

Q.27 You weren't a duty sergeant?
A.27 No, not at the time sir.

Q.28 Do you know who the man in the jeep, the jeep that you met up with, were?
A.28 No sir, I don't.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.29 On what corner did you first come into contact with the ambulance?
A.29 On the Bremen-Osnabruk crossroads sir.

Q.30 And who was driving the vehicle at the time?
A.30 Private Rolfe [redacted].

Q.31 Were there any tactical signs on the vehicle?
A.31 Yes sir.

Q.32 What was it?
A.32 1345 on white letters on a red and green Army Service Corps

background, on the driver's side of the vehicle. On the off-side was a blue patch with a gold maple leaf and the white edge.

Q.33 Did you notice the WD number?
A.33 Yes sir.

Q.34 Will you give it to the Court?
A.34 CA 5668660.

Q.35 Who was in the ambulance with the driver?
A.35 Private Finnan was sitting in the off-side seat.

Q.36 Who drove the vehicle from there?
A.36 Private Rolfe sir.

Q.37 Did you ask him to follow you?
A.37 Yes sir.

Q.38 Now, did you notice any damage at all on the ambulance?
A.38 Outside of the paint being scratched sir and the broken glass - after I inspected the vehicle I couldn't see any great damage. There was no metal pushed in and no headlights' broken.

Q.39 On what place on the ambulance was it scratched?
A.39 On the off side of the vehicle - on the left-hand side as you are sitting in it.

Q.40 Had you seen Private Rolfe at 2 MAC that afternoon, before?
A .40 No, I hadn't seen him before that.

Q.41 And other than the smell of alcohol, he looked normal to you?
A.41 He looked absolutely normal. He showed no physical signs of being intoxicated, outside of the smell of drink on his breath.

Q.42 And he drove the ambulance back to the unit?
A.42 Yes sir, he did.

Q.43 Following you?
A.43 Yes sir.

Q.44 In what condition was the other man, in the ambulance?
A.44 I don't know, sir.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.45 What is your official capacity, sergeant?
A.45 I was a platoon sergeant, sir.

With the permission of the court, the following questions are asked by the Defending Officer:

Q.46 Did Private Rolfe get out of the ambulance and walk?
A.46 Yes sir, he did.

Q.47 And he could walk.
A.47 Yes sir.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(8)

The witness withdraws.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

L.107047 Pte Williams, WH, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.48 Will you give the Court you number, rank and name and unit?
A.48 L.107047, Private Williams, WH, 2 MAC.

Q.49 Do you know Private Rolfe if you saw him?
A.49 Yes sir.

Q.50 Is he in this room?
A.50 Right there sir. (Witness indicates accused)

Q.51 Now, will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.51 I was on post at the company vehicle park and I opened the barrier to let a TCV that was on test out and right behind the TCV was an ambulance. Private Rolfe was driving and Private Pinnan was with him. I hollered for them to stop because I knew they were doing FP but they didn't stop so I immediately went and reported it to Sergeant Sutton. And that's all.

Q.52 And when they left the vehicle park what direction did the ambulance turn?
A.52 It turned right, towards the town.

Q.53 You didn't notice the number on it?
A.53 No, I never noticed the number of the ambulance.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.54 Had you seen Private Rolfe before, that afternoon?
A.54 No, I hadn't seen him all afternoon, sir.

Q.55 Did you see the ambulance come back later?
A.55 No, I never seen the ambulance come back.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(3)

The witness withdrawn.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Frau Frida Priebe, Kaiserstrasse 2, Oldenburg, Germany, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor, through the interpreter:

Q.56 Will you give your name and your residence?
A.56 Frida Priebe, Kaiserstrasse 2, Oldenburg.

Q.57 Now Mrs Priebe, will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.57 I came at about Fifteen-Thirty hours with my car to the crossing Heiligengeistrasse. I wanted to go on in the direction of Heiligengeiswall. The light showed red and I stopped and waited until the green light came on and then I started off and when I came on the crossing I was in the centre and I saw a big truck come from the right-hand side in a very fast speed. The truck was only a very short distance in front of my car. I tried to get past it but it was too late. The next moment I felt a rather heavy jerk and I felt as my car was pushed aside I always had the feeling that my car was turning over. My car was pushed on by the other car some metres and in this manner my car was turned around and the front showed to the Heiligengeistrasse. I then found out that the right side of the body work got the heaviest smash and through this the heavy injuries of Frau Rohse. There was some trouble in the engine as well. In the meantime I found out that the repairs are not too heavy. The right-hand door of my car has been renewed but the car is still under repairs. That is all.

A.58 I can't say that for certain.

Q.59 And what is the number of your car?

A.69 That I do not know.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.61 Mrs Priebe, will you describe the vehicle that collided with yours?
A.61 I have only seen the front. It was a big high truck. When he came back on this way I was told by the policeman --

JA: Don't say that. Tell her the policeman will come before the Court.

The Defending Officer continues with the cross-examination of the witness:

Q.62 You have no evidence that the vehicle that came back was the vehicle --

JA: The Court didn't allow that.

The Defending Officer continues with the cross-examination of the witness:

Q.63 You say that your car was pushed three metres?
A.63 I said "some" metres.

Q.64 At what speed was that vehicle travelling?
A.64 Mine?

Q.65 The other?
A.65 That I cannot say.

Q.66 What speed were you travelling?
A.66 I just started off. I had the car in second gear.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.67 Mrs Priebe, the vehicle that hit you, was it fast or slow?

Interpreter: Would you repeat that, please sir?

Q.68 The vehicle that hit your car, was it going fast or slow, or what?

A.79 Herr Rohse.

Herr Wilhelm Rohse retires.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.80 Are you positive that the light was green and not orange when you started your car?
A.80 Yes.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

At 1115 hours the Court is adjourned.

At 1125 hours the Court is re-opened, pursuant to adjournment, present the same members and Judge Advocate as upon adjournment.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrawn.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:

Oberwachmeister Dietrich Boedecker, Oldenburg, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor, through the interpreter:

Q.88 Will you tell the Court your name and occupation?
A.88 My name is Oberwachmeister Dietrich Boedecker, born on the Three-Two-Ten. I work at the Police Station.

Q.89 Will you tell the Court just what happened on the Eighteenth of May?
A.89 On the Eighteenth of May from Fifteen to Sixteen hours I was on duty at the crossing Ullmann. At about Fifteen-Thirty-Five hours the following accident happened. The car 14090 came from the Staulinie and drove in the direction Heiligengeiswall. From Heiligengeistrasse in the direction Langestrasse came a Canadian ambulance number 1345. On the crossing this ambulance collided with the car which had already gone on the crossing. The ambulance touched the car on the right-hand side near the door and pushed the car about sixty metres in front of it so that the car came pointed with its front end to the Heiligengeistrasse. I myself stood at this moment in front of the house Heiligengeistrasse 2. As I saw the accident I went immediately to the car which was driven by Frau Priebe. Beside her sat Frau Rohse as passenger. This person was injured through the accident. I immediately asked two men to phone the First Police Station and also for the ambulance of the Fire Service. From the First Police Station the criminal police was notified. The second man informed the Provosts. I myself first looked after Frau Rohse and at this time the ambulance stopped for a very short time and immediately went on again in the direction of Langestrasse. I wanted to free Frau Rohse out of her position but I could not do it as the right door was pushed in completely. With the help of some Canadian soldiers the door was broken open. I tried to help Frau Rohse and Frau Rohse was laid on to the stretcher. In the meantime had arrived the ambulance of the Fire Service and Frau Rohse was taken to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital. The witness Muehlenbrock saw the end number of the Canadian ambulance --

JA: Is he a witness?

Pros: He is coming.

Def Offr: It's hearsay and I object to it.

JA: Just tell the Court what you saw and not what you heard.

The witness continues:

A jeep immediately trailed the ambulance. After this I started taking up investigations of the accident. As I took up the different things of the accident a driver of the Provost came along and I asked him to go. In the meantime stopped the ambulance on the Staulinie. I finished taking up the different information and investigation of the accident and went back to the Police Station in order to write out my report. I have finished.

Q.90 Did you draw this?
A.90 I have drawn this. This is a sketch of the accident.

JA: Any objections?

Def Offr: No.

The sketch of the scene of the accident referred to in the evidence of the witness above, is marked Exhibit 'E', initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q.91 Just how long did the ambulance stop?
A.91 It stopped very shortly. I cannot give the exact time, and drove on again.

Q.92 Did the driver get out?
A.92 I didn't notice it.

Q.93 Would you recognise the driver?
A.93 No, I cannot recognise him.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.94 Am I not right in saying that the traffic lights do not work at that corner some times?
A.94 No, it sometimes happens that some of the lights burn out.

Q.95 At the time of this occurrence are you sure that the lights were working?
A.95 Yes sir, I am quite sure that all the lamps were in working order.

Q.96 And did this ambulance go against the light?
A.96 As the light was red the ambulance passed the corner.

Q.97 On Exhibit 'E' you put down a number of one vehicle. What is your evidence that that number is right?
A.97 As I was sitting in the car of Frau Priebe questioning her after the accident somebody brought the ambulance around the corner on its way back and then I took the number which is CA 5668660.

Q.98 That's the number of the vehicle that came back?
A.98 Yes sir, it is the number of the car that stopped there.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.99 How many did you see in the ambulance at the time of the accident?
A.99 I cannot say how many were in it, the accident happened at such a speed that I first looked after the injured. I could not say.

Q.100 Approximately what speed was the ambulance going?
A.100 I cannot say the exact speed of the ambulance.

Q.101 Fast or slow?
A.101 Fast.

Q.102 Did you notice anything particular about the ambulance at the time of the accident - any signs?
A.102 No, I have not noticed anything on the ambulance.

Q.103 No number or tactical sign or anything?
A.103 I could only see that it had a red cross on it and it was a very big truck.

Q.104 What injuries did Frau Kohse suffer when you saw her in the car?
A.104 I could not notice any injuries at the moment. She was not conscious but was not quite unconscious.

Q.105 You said that you saw an ambulance later, some time after the accident. Did you notice any damage on that ambulance?
A.105 No. I only saw the ambulance halt on the corner Staulinie - Heiligengeistrasse. As I went there myself he drove off.

JA: I didn't quite get that.

The witness remains:

I sent a motorcyclist over, I think he was from the Provost but I cannot quite say so. I asked him to go after this ambulance which had stopped on the corner of Staulinie and Heiligengeistrasse.

JA: That's right after the accident. My question was - he saw an ambulance - you saw an ambulance come back later?

Witness: I never saw one come back I only saw one stopped on the corner Staulinie - Heiligengeistrasse and the witness Muehlenbrock told me "This is the ambulance."

Q.106 You didn't examine the ambulance then?
A.106 No, I have not examined it.

Q.107 Do you recognize these photographs? Tell the Court what they are.
A.107 These pictures are made by the Criminal Inspector.

Q.108 What do they represent?
A.108 (Exhibit 'A') This photograph where the X is on the photograph it shows where the car collided with the ambulance. This is the spot where the glass was lying. The second X a bit further up on the top left-hand corner that is the spot where the car stood turned around facing towards the crossing again. This picture was taken from upstairs from the last floor of the house on Langestrasse which is the corner house.

(Exhibit 'B') This photograph has been taken as the driver of the ambulance would have seen it coming along. The view of the driver coming along from Number Two Police Station.

A.112 I was standing right here. The policeman stood on the same side but further back - about three metres further back.

Q.113 Will you continue?
A.113 Then the light was red from Staulinie to Heiligengeistrasse. On the Staulinie facing to Heiligengeistrasse stood the car OLD 14090 and the light was red. At the green light the car started in the direction of Heiligengeistwall. As the car was at the second half of the street came a British Red Cross car from the direction of the Wehrgemacht and passed the red light and collided with the car on the right-hand side of the door and pushed the car along and turned it around so that it faced in the direction of Heiligengeistrasse and then the ambulance stopped a very short time and drove on again. Then the Oberwachmeister stopped a British car and asked him to trail the ambulance which had gone off again. Then the Oberwachmeister turned his attention to the car which was in the accident and tried to get the woman out of the car from the side where the driver sat. He could not manage it and then he tried to get the door off the other side. He could not manage it on his own and then came two British officers and they together ripped the door open and in the meantime Oberwachmeister Boedecker had told a civilian to inform the Fire Service in order to get an ambulance. The ambulance arrived in a very short time. They lifted the woman carefully out of the car and then took her to the hospital. About Fifteen-Fifty hours this particular ambulance stood again in front of the red light on the Staulinie.

JA: How do you know it is the same ambulance?

Then a motorcyclist - I cannot describe the motorcycle - which was an Allied soldier drove up to this ambulance and took the particulars of the driver. I also saw how the driver showed his papers to this motor-cyclist. He took the papers out of his pocket and put them back in his pocket. Then the motorcycle and also the ambulance drove off in the direction of the Wehrgemacht.

Q.125 And that was back or front?
A.125 On the back.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.126 How many were in the ambulance at the time of the accident - in the front?
A.126 I cannot say. I could not see so quickly.

Q.130 Oldenburg?
A.130 Oldenburg.

Q.131 And will you also tell us the name of your wife?
A.131 Martha Rohse.

Q.132 Will you explain to the Court of your visit to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital - how many times you saw your wife?
A.132 At half-past seven I was informed of the accident that had happened to my wife. I then went immediately to the hospital and found my wife in room Sixty-Six. I was told that my wife had concussion and a double fracture of the left shoulder bone and also injuries to the elbow joint. I could not speak to my wife very well because she could not breathe properly and she also could not speak properly. I then asked to put my wife into a room on her own because in her room she was in were quite a number of people and there was quite a lot of disturbance. On Sunday morning I visited my wife again and found her in room number Fifty-Seven. He condition was not worse than the day before but she had pains. On Sunday afternoon I went again with her for one and a half hours to two hours. On Monday morning I visited her again and I did not like her looks. Her fingers had the colour bluish-grey. Then I was told by the surgeon, Doktor Keiss that the condition of my wife was more grave than it was thought before. According to the doctor my wife got internal injuries at the collision. On Monday afternoon I went again to my wife. I then saw that the hard breathing eased off a bit. Her speech was better than in the morning. I asked her if she felt better and she said 'yes'. She always wanted something to drink. She was very thirsty. I said good-bye to her at Seven and I told her that I would be there the next morning between Ten and Ten-Thirty. I could not go at this time but only came at Eleven o'clock next morning. I was too late. My wife died ten minutes before. I don't know anything else.

Q.133 Mister Rohse, before the accident was your wife in good health?
A.133 No, my wife had to many white blood parts - anaemia and she was for two and a half years under treatment. She got some kind of injections in the arms and legs. According to the statement of Doctor Schulte, the patient was better at the last.

Q.134 And the several times you saw your wife in the hospital, was she conscious or semi-conscious when you spoke to her?
A.134 She was always fully conscious. Only once I noticed that she was not very clearly spoken. For a few minutes before her death she was fully conscious. My son was with her.

A.137 Half past seven.

Q.138 The accident is alleged to have taken place at Three-Thirty. Can you account for the delay in informing you?
A.138 I cannot understand. I was ill myself. My wife wanted to get some - a few things from the bakery and such like which I myself usually did. At this Frau Priebe offered to my wife to take along my wife in order to get her home quicker back to me.

Q.139 You said that your wife was conscious while you visited her. Did she say anything about the accident, or the circumstances?
A.139 No, she could not because she could not speak very easily. It was very difficult with her to speak and she had very great pains and it was very hard for her to get her breath. I have only exchanged a few words with her and I never touched the subject of the accident. When my son was there, which came at Ten-Thirty on the Twenty-First to see my wife he was told by the sister that the condition of his mother was not very good. Just before she died she said to my son that he should sit down and suddenly she said a few seconds later everything was getting darker and she just laid back and a few minutes later she was dead.

Q.140 How long had your wife been driving a car?

JA: She wasn't driving.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.141 What time did you last see your wife before she went to the hospital at half-past three?
A.141 The accident must have happened just before that. She left just at half-past three and the accident must have happenkd two or three minutes later after this. She waved to me from the car and said to me "I shall be back in half an hour"

Q.142 Who was driving the car?
A.142 Frieda Priebe.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE:

Capt Y.N. Pieuse, RCAMC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.310 Captain Pieuse will you tell us whether it is possible for a man having imbibed say half a bottle of gin and a bottle of schnapps during a morning to be in possession of his physical ability but not of his mental faculties?

A.310 Did he take only one bottle?

Q.311 And a half a bottle of gin.

A.311 He took that in the morning?

Q.312 Yes.

A.312 It is possible.

Q.313 What would be the effect on a man to drink half a bottle of gin and a bottle of schnapps between the hours of Nine and One o'clock. What would be the effect on his physical ability and mental faculties at say Three-Thirty in the afternoon?

A.313 It depends on the man.

Q.314 To be more specific could a man absorb that much and be able to walk straight and still not know what he is doing?

A.314 Yes sir.

Q.315 He could even driver a vehicle?

A.315 Yes sir.

The witness is cross-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.316 But then on the other hand it could be absolutely reversed. He might be physically incapable and mentally capable?

A.316 Yes sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine the witness:

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.317 Would the use of alcohol over a period of time harden a man to such an extent that he could drink more and retain his capabilities?

A.317 If he is used to drink he can usually take more than a man who takes drink only once in a while.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.318 Supposing a man in that condition, who had lost his mental ability, would it show on his person if he were met by an absolutely sober man. Would this man be able to form an opinion that the man was lacking in his mental ability?

A.318 If he speaks to him.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.319 Could a man under these circumstances be lacking his mental ability and in possession of his physical ability over a period lasting as long as three hours?

A.319 In my opinion it should be for just a short period.

Q.320 You state that three hours is too short a period?

A.320 That is a long period - three hours.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.321 What would be the next reaction after that? What would happen to that man?

A.321 He would feel sleepy after a depressing period.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.322 Do you think that if a man is kept at work during that period he would regain his mental faculties?

A.322 If a man can do his work.

Q.323 I believe the question that was asked to start with was whether a man could retain his physical ability and carry on and lose his mental ability.

A.323 Yes, for a short time.

Q.324 If that man - I ask now if the man, having reached that condition was kept at work during the better part of those three hours -

A.324 If he is fit to carry on for three hours he would not be in that condition.

Q.325 In other words if he had reached that condition he would not be able to work for three hours?

A.325 No.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(3).

The witness withdraws.

JA: Are you calling any rebuttal evidence?

Pros: Yes sir.

A.377 M.1278 Lance-Corporal Hildebrand, H, 2 WSC RCASC.

Q.378 Corporal will you tell the Court just what you know about the Eighteenth of May?
A.378 On the Eighteenth of May when Private Rolfe was brought into the guard room at approximately Sixteen-Ten hours, I just couldn't be sure of that but he asked me - of course I smelled that he had been drinking liquor and I locked him up in the guard room. That's all I know about it.

Q.379 What time did the prisoners go to their dinner that night?
A.379 Their dinner I think it was Four-Thirty or a Quarter to Five.

Q.380 And did anybody visit them in the guard room?
A.380 Not that I know of sir. I left the guard room after that. I was in the building down below.

Q.381 Would you say that he was drunk?
A.381 Well, they had a drink but I don't know - they were walking back to their cell when I told them to. That's the only thing - I never spoke to them myself.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.382 You have no evidence that they were drunk but on the other hand you have no evidence that they were sober?
A.382 I didn't talk to them. I smelled their breath of liquor and I locked them in the guard room sir.

Q.383 They could have been drunk and you not know it?
A.383 Well they were walking when I told them to go in the cell.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

A.384 Sergeant Sutton, sir.

Q.388 Around what time?
A.388 Around Four-Thirty to Five. I'm not sure exactly.

A.396 D.24817, Corporal MacLennan, M, 2 Demob Depot.

Q.397 Corporal, will you tell us what you know about the Eighteenth of May.
A.397 The Eighteenth of May sir, it was my day off. I was RP at the airforce guard room and I got up at approximately a quarter to four in the afternoon and I went out and I was asked by the Corporal on duty if I would take the prisoners over to eat supper at Four-Thirty. I told him I would. I was in charge of the party and I didn't notice anything wrong until after when Captain Turner was in and he was talking to Rolfe and Pitman and making them walk a straight line up and down along the corridor. And that's all I know.

Q.398 That was immediately after supper?
A.398 At approximately Five o'clock, sir.

Q.399 Did they walk the straight line?
A.399 I didn't see anything out of order at all sir. I sat across from Rolfe at the supper table and I didn't notice anything whatever wrong.

Q.400 You can't say that he had a drink or maybe two or maybe ten?
A.400 Well sir, I have no reason to believe that he was drunk.

Q.401 Would you repeat your last statement? You have no reason to believe he was drunk?
A.401 That's right, sir.

Q.402 You have no evidence that he was in full possession of his faculties?
A.402 I couldn't say whether he had been drinking or whether he hadn't sir.

A.403 I don't know anything about the case at all sir.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrew.

At 1610 hours the Court is adjourned.

At 1640 hours the Court is re-opened, pursuant to adjournment, present the same members and Judge Advocate as upon adjournment.

The accused is brought before the Court.

The Defending Officer makes the following closing address:

Mister President, we have heard a lot of evidence that Private Rolfe was out in the afternoon in a vehicle and also evidence that an accident took place in Oldenburg, but no evidence has been adduced to connect Private Rolfe with the accident. The vehicle involved in the accident may or may not have been the one that he took out but there is no evidence at all that he was driving that vehicle or any other vehicle at the time of the accident.

As to his movements during the afternoon, nothing tangible has been produced because no evidence could be found to testify as to his movements. He had been drinking and we have had an expert witness to say that it was quite possible for a man to be in possession of his physical ability and to lose for a period his mental faculties. Now the period that is a blank is from the time he turned the corner about Fifteen-Ten hours until he pulled up behind Sergeant Sutton - a period of Thirty-Five minutes and according to Captain Piese's evidence that is entirely possible. That Private Rolfe be convicted of reckless driving I would not contest because he was drunk and was seen driving out of the camp at Fifteen Hundredd hours. There was ground for a charge there, of reckless driving because he was under the influence of liquor but I contend that there is no ground to convict him of the charge that is laid against him so on that basis gentlemen, I see no reason why Private Rolfe should be found guilty as charged.

As to his state of mind, Corporal Buck said that he was all right but then on cross-examination he says that he doesn't remember and when he was asked what he was doing he said he was playing cards. Well, could he swear that? No, he couldn't but that's what the people usually did at noon and that was on what he based his statement that they were playing cards and that is no testimony.

I saw that Private Rolfe was not driving the vehicle which was involved in the accident.

The Prosecutor makes the following closing address:

The Defence has brought up several points - who was driving the vehicle? There were two men seen going out in the vehicle at Fifteen-Fifteen hours. Rolfe was driving it. The same two men were picked up in that vehicle within ten minutes of the accident, the glass still on the front of the vehicle. There is a faint possibility but it is almost impossible that these two would get some other individual to drive and then be involved in an accident and the switch over after the accident.

As regards the number of the vehicle, 1345 is the - 2 MAC is the only unit with 1345 and Hermann Muhlenbrock saw 1345 and he also saw the first figure of the 60 number and the last two. Later, Sergeant Sutton, shortly after the accident, within ten minutes, picked up the vehicle and given the whole number, the first number being 5 and the last two, 60. I think there is enough evidence that he was driving the vehicle at the time of the accident and that he kept on going.

Now his claim is that he doesn't remember. It seems to me that he remembers what he wants to remember and doesn't remember what he doesn't want to remember.

The Defence has brought in an MO as a witness that a man can be physically capable and mentally incapable. But he also says that the reverse is true, that he can be mentally capable and physically incapable. The accused admitted to me that he didn't remember walking a line and that was about Five o'clock in the afternoon so that the period of blank was considerably longer than Forty-Five minutes.

As to the statement of Corporal Mack about playing cards. I think if the evidence was read that that was at noon. He periodically went downstairs to the QM Stores and these two men were working with the QM Staff.

Taking these points into consideration I maintain that Private Rolfe is guilty of the charge and is not guilty of being as drunk as he is trying to make out. KR(Can) says that drunkenness is no excuse for crime but if he is drunk it should be brought out. Nobody has proved that he was as drunk as he would like us to think.

The Judge Advocate makes the following summing-up:

Mister President and members of the Court, it is now my duty as Judge Advocate to advise you as to the law applicable to the case you have just heard. My presence here is merely in an advisory capacity and I have no saying whatsoever in the decision that you will be called upon to make as to whether the accused is guilty or not of the offence with which he is charged. If I have expressed any personal opinion as to the facts during the trial or if I do so during my summing-up, it is your duty to disregard it. You alone are the Judges of the facts and the decision rests entirely upon you.

Now, the accused before you is charged with manslaughter which is defined as follows: It is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either express or implied. There are two kinds of manslaughter, one voluntary and the other one involuntary. The case before the Court would fall in the latter category. Involuntary manslaughter is that which is committed by a person who brings about the death of another by acting in some unlawful manner but without any intention of killing or committing an act likely to kill. This act, in its nature, may be lawful but nevertheless may be done so recklessly as to result in the death of another person. The type of manslaughter arising out of motor car accidents is usually caused by negligence. Where death results in consequence of a negligent act it would seem that to create criminal responsibility, the degree of negligence must be so gross as to amount to recklessness. That is what you will have to consider once you are satisfied that the death of Frau Rohse was definitely caused by the collision of the car in which she was a passenger and the ambulance and once you are satisfied, also that that ambulance was the ambulance driven by the accused. You must be satisfied that the negligence of the driver of the ambulance was so gross as to be reckless. Now, in explaining to the juries the test which they should apply to determine whether the negligence in a particular case amounts to gross negligence, many epithets are used such as 'culpable', 'criminal', 'gross', 'wicked', 'clear', 'complete'. But whatever epithet be used and whether an epithet be used or not, in order to establish criminal liability, the facts must be such that, in the opinion of the jury, the negligence of the prisoner went beyond a mere matter of compensation between subjects and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and conduct deserving punishment. Another test that we find is in Kenny's Outline of Criminal Law as follows: "That the prisoner by his conduct be deemed to have intended to cause bodily harm to someone or to have been indifferent or reckless as to the obvious risk of bodily harm to which his conduct was exposing someone." Now, this is the law on what a manslaughter consists of and the type of negligence to be proved in order to find a man guilty of that offense.

In this case as you know, the onus is upon the Prosecution to prove the offense alleged against the accused. The following evidence has been brought out by the Prosecution. The accused was seen driving out of the camp area in company with a fellow corad; he was driving an ambulance. There is no direct evidence connecting the accused with the scene of the accident. One witness however, who was an eye-witness to the accident stated that although he could not identify the accused as being the driver of the ambulance, he saw on the ambulance the tactical number 1345 which number as it was brought out was the tactical number of the ambulance which the accused was seen driving out of the camp and later also was seen driving, shortly after the accident. That witness also saw part of the WD number on the ambulance, that is the first and last two figures. These figures also corresponded to the figures - the WD number of the ambulance which the driver took out of the camp and which he was driving shortly after the accident. This is not direct evidence but you may interpret it as strong circumstantial evidence. Another item of circumstantial evidence was adduced by Sergeant Dutton who stated that a very short time after the accident he came in contact with the accused, then driving an ambulance, and he noticed on the front of the ambulance that the paint had been scratched and that there was some broken glass. The report of the accident as you have heard it, is that the ambulance came in contact with the right-hand side door of a car. From this you would naturally expect some broken glass of that window to be found on the front of the ambulance. This is also circumstantial evidence. Now, in order to find the accused guilty of manslaughter, apart from the type of negligence I have just mentioned, not only must you be satisfied that it is the ambulance driven by the accused that collided with the civilian car but you must also be satisfied that the death of Frau Rohse resulted from the collision. On the latter point you have evidence that she was taken to the hospital immediately after the accident where she received proper medical attention and that she died at that hospital a few days after the accident. Unless her death was a consequence of the accident there could not be any manslaughter.

The Defence alleged that the accused was drunk on that afternoon from approximately one o'clock till some time in the guard room around Five o'clock. This was corroborated by another witness for the Defence who apparently was in the same state; the latter even remembers less than the accused himself. Drunkenness as you know, is no excuse for crime. A man intends the natural consequences of his acts and if he goes and gets drunk he is responsible for whatever ensues. "Intoxication, whether produced by alcohol or by drugs, is ordinarily no excuse for the commission of a criminal act, even though it have produced for the time great aberration of mind. For unlike insanity, it has been produced voluntarily and to produce it was wrong, both morally and also legally. Accordingly the law will not allow one wrong act to be an excuse for another. Hence the gross negligence which has caused a fatal collision is punishable, not only in a sober driver but also in a drunken one." It would be an excuse if the man who is drunk is in such a drunken state that he is incapable of forming the intent to commit any offence. This would apply where the intention is of the essence of the offence. In the case of manslaughter there is no intention required. Now if the Court is not satisfied that some of the essential elements have been proved, they may make a special finding whereby they would find the accused not guilty of manslaughter but guilty of reckless driving in accordance with the Road Traffic Act.

Now, you have heard the witnesses before you. There has been some contradictory statements as to the state of the accused at the material times when the offence was committed and it is up to you to make up your minds which witnesses you will believe. The witnesses were before you. They have been examined by the Prosecutor and Defending Officer and by myself and you have been able to study their deportment. It is now left to you to decide whether you believe one witness or another. You may believe one part of one witness's testimony and you may disbelieve another part. This is the province of the Court and you should use your discretion.

Now before closing I would like to point out to you that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to the accused being guilty of the offence of manslaughter or of reckless driving, the benefit of that doubt should be given to the accused and he should be found not guilty. Now what is a reasonable doubt? To warrant an acquittal the doubt must not be light or capricious such as timidity or passion prompts and weakness or corruption readily adopts, it must be such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will suggest to an honest heart - the conscientious hesitation of minds that are not influenced by party, pre-occupied by prejudice or subdued by fear.

Unless there is anything else you wish me to discuss, this will close my summing-up.

President: I don't think there is anything else.

J/A: Have you anything further?

Def Offr: No.

J/A: Captain Turner?

Pros: No, nothing.

The Court is closed to consider the finding.

FIRST CHARACTER WITNESS:

Capt R.W.C. Turner, 2 Cdn MAC RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.404 Captain Turner, how long have you known the accused?
A.404 Since last fall - September 45 was when I actually came in contact with him.

Q.405 What opinion have you formed of the accused bearing on his character as a soldier?
A.405 Since September, it is not very good. He has been continuously in trouble.

Q.406 His conduct sheet doesn't bear that out.
A.406 That first case of the traffic accident you will find on his MF NG.

Q.407 You have nothing specific against him?
A.407 No - specific - no.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.408 How has he carried out his duties when he didn't get into trouble?
A.408 To the best of my knowledge he carried them out. I didn't have very much to do with the man at all. I was in Headquarters platoon all the time.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness stands down.

SECOND CHARACTER WITNESS:

B.130095, Sgt Sutton, WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC, having been reminded of his former oath, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.409 Sergeant Sutton, how long have you known the accused?
A.409 Since the Fifteenth of December sir.

Q.410 He was working under you?
A.410 He was, after Christmas.

Q.411 What opinion have you formed as to his character as a soldier?
A.411 I don't know much about him sir. Before I came back to the company I was away for five months. I came back and about a week after I took over the platoon - after Christmas. It was a month or so before I got to know him very well. I found him capable of carrying out his work but he was an excessive drinker. I never knew when he would get drunk. We had one or two disturbances with him. Then he settled down and worked for about two or three months and he was put on a vehicle. He didn't do such a very good job on the vehicle so he was taken off and he was given a job around the billets. But he kept going out on the occasional sprees.

Q.412 Then according to you his trouble was due to drink?
A.412 Yes sir, he seemed to have something worrying him and nobody could get it straightened out. The platoon officer and myself tried to get it straightened out. We talked with him and had many a discussion with him and we tried to work something out.

Q.413 In your opinion had it not been for his drinking, would he have been a good soldier?
A.413 I'm sure he would, yes.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

The witness is questioned by the Court:

Q.414 Was the accused the type of man who showed any initiative himself or did he have to be told everything that had to be done?

A.414 I would say he had to be explained and told what to do.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule of Procedure 83(B).

The witness withdrawn.

R.2

Def Offr: The Statement of Character is not correct when it says that the accused is under sentence at the present time from the Eighth of May. That's more than Twenty-Eight days ago.

President: The Court agrees with that but in view of the absence of the Adjutant who has been repatriated, the Statement of Character cannot be changed but the Court will take that into consideration.

R.3

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation:

On the SF 36 you will notice that the first charge is dated the Twenty-Sixth of September. The accused was then entitled to a good conduct stripe. Private Rolfe enlisted on the Twenty-Second of September, 43 and had two clear years without ever committing an offence.

About Christmas last year he got a letter from his wife - he is the father of four girls whom he is trying to support. His wife announced to him the birth of another child. This child cannot be his because he had left home over a year before. You can understand what a shock that was to his and as so many people do, in order to forget his troubles he took to drink. I think it is human to seek oblivion on one's troubles in anything that will produce oblivion. Drink is the most common. Sergeant Sutton is satisfied that had it not been for drink he would have been a good soldier.

More recently Private Rolfe got another letter from his wife saying that one of his girls was in hospital and she did not state why or from what illness or anything. There is an additional worry. He was quite prepared to go back home and pick up the threads again and resume his married life and to be a good husband and be a good father and forget his wife's erring ways but always at the back of his mind was the idea of an unfaithful wife. Can you blame him? - if he sought comfort in alcoholic stimulants?

I would have liked to bring in witnesses as to his good character up to the date of this last Christmas but unfortunately the people who have known him during that time have gone home. So we have to take his record that he was a good soldier, entitled to a good conduct stripe and that his falling off the straight and narrow was due to domestic trouble.

Therefore I say gentlemen, that whatever you convict him of is not due to clear-headed intention but rather the consequences of drink and this drink is the desire to forget his own trouble.

B.130095 A/Sgt Sutton WE, 2 Cdn MAC, RCASC CASF, sworn, states:

I am B.130095 A/Sgt Sutton WE of 2 Cdn MAC RCASC CASF. On 18 May 46 at 1515 hrs Pte Williams reported to me in block V,10 that Ptes Rolfe and Finnan had taken an ambulance from coy veh park and had driven off in the direction of the main gate for Alexander Airport. I then immediately got a motor cycle and proceeded to look for them. I went down town to Provost Information bureau in Oldenburg and reported the incident. I then circled around through town in search of the ambulance and when I came to the Bremen Strasse and Osnabruk intersection I stopped and enquired from two Cdn soldiers who were standing on the corner, if they had seen a Cdn ambulance. They said they had not seen on in the past ten minutes. I sat on the bike and trying to decide which road to take in search of the ambulance or to go back into town. As I was about to go back into town, the ambulance pulled up at the corner behind me with Pte Rolfe driving and Pte Finnan in the spare driver's seat. I then told them to turn around and I started to lead them back to camp. From all appearances they were under the influence of alcoholic stimulants but not to such an extent as to prevent Pte Rolfe from driving. We had not travelled more than a mile and a half [illegible] down from the Bremen-Osnabruk intersection with a jeep [illegible] Cpl and a Pte in it pulled up along side of me. The Cpl asked me to stop the ambulance which I did. He then informed me that the ambulance had been involved in an accident and had not stopped. I called Pte Rolfe out of the vehicle and asked him if he knew anything about an accident. He said he did not remember having an accident. I then asked the Cpl to lead us back to the scene of the accidet. He led us to the main intersection where the stop lights are in Oldenburg. We parked the ambulance. We had the Cpl remain with it. I then went to the civilian policeman who was taking down information in regards to the accident. There was a small sedan which had been hit broadside and in it was a female German who was injured. In my presence she was removed from the car and taken to the Peter Friedrich Ludwig hospital in a German ambulance. I consulted the notes that the German policeman had made. He had 2 MAC Tac No. 1345 and WE No. CA 5668660. I got all information regarding the accident from him. I then went back to the ambulance and looked for damage. There was no damage done to the vehicle but the hood and fender was covered with broken glass then led the ambulance back to the camp area and put the two men Rolfe and Finnan in the guard room. I then reported the matter to the MT Sgt.

Rolfe declines to question witness.

Q. At what time did you bring Ptes Rolfe and Finnan back to Alexander Airfield after the accident.

A. At 1610 and I put them right in the guard room.

I am L.1704407 Pte Williams WN of 2 Cdn MAC RCASC CASF. On 18 May 46 I was on guard at Coy veh park at 1515 hrs. I left the barrier to let a TCV "on test" out. Immediately behind the TCV was an ambulance and it got out before I could lower the barrier. Pte Rolfe was driving and Pte Finnan was in the spare drivers seat. I hailed for them to stop as I knew that they were doing FP and should not be driving. They did not stop and turned right from the veh park. I got a substitute guard and went and reported the matter to Sgt Sutton.

Rolfe declines to question.

I am Mrs Frida Pricke, living Oldenburg Kaiserstrasse 2, being duly sworn in, state the following:

On Saturday the 18 May 46, about fifteen thirty hours I drove with the PKW Old 14090 from the Staulinie in direction Heiligengeiswall. When I arrived at the crossing the traffic light showed red, I stopped and drove on when the light showed green. When I was at the crossing I saw on my right a short distance from my vehicle a heavy truck arrive at full speed. As far as I remember I tried to swerve away or get past the vehicle but it was too late for that. I suddenly felt a very heavy push and felt my car going out of its direction. I had the impression that my vehicle turned over. But it only turned around so that it came to stand pointing in the direction of the Heiligengeistrasse. I hit the left window with my head, and therefore saw my way about only after a little while, then I noticed that my co-driver Mrs Rohse, Oldenburg Kaiserstrasse 2, was hurt. The vehicle was also heavily damaged the body on the right side was smashed and the motor was also damaged. I could not make sure of more details.

Additional Statement

On the 18 May 46 I was standing at the corner Langestrasse - Heiligengeistrasse (at the Oldenburg Versicherung Building) at about 1530 hrs. The PKW No. 14090 stood before the red signals, and when the green came this vehicle drove in the direction Hilligengeistwall at relatively slow speed. At about the height of the crossing the PKW was rammed by an Allied vehicle, which had not observed the signal. The PKW was dragged to the corner and then pushed back to the height of the Central Cafe entrance. The Allied vehicle had room enoughto swerve to the left, and drove, without bothering about the accident, away.

Police-sergeant Boedecker stopped an Allied vehicle to take up pursuit. In the meantime the policeman had ordered a civilian to call an ambulance by telephone. The ambulance appeared after a short while. The police sergeant tried to lift Mrs Rohse from the vehicle, which he did not manage from the side of the driver. He then tried to open the door from the other side. With this two British officer, who came by, helped hi.

About 1630 hrs the Allied Red Cross wagon was suddenly at the corner Staulinie again. I recognized the vehicle at once again. The operators were identified by a British motorcycle driver. The motorcycle driver and the Allied Red Cross wagon drove off in the direction Pferdemarkt. (The PKW was then standing in the direction Pferdemarkt.)

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No Sir.(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Plea in Mitigation of Sentence in the case of: F-28928 Spr. Rolfe N.S.

The accused enlisted at the beginning of the war in Sept 1939 and he came overseas in Jan 1940 with 1st Fd Coy RCE He attained the rank of A/Sgt. in 1942 and held that rank for 14 mos. until he reverted to the ranks in order go on draft to this campaign.

Spr. Rolfe has a wife and five children in Canada who are dependant on his army pay and whom he hasn't seen for 4½ years. It is understandable that after such a long seperation a man will become despondant and 'fed up' and allow his better judgement to temporarily lapse. It was during a drinking session with some american airmen that the accused was persuaded to take a plane ride. When he came to his ~~proper~~ senses he found himself in Algiers where he surrendered himself to the military authorities forthwith.

It is felt that the accused is at heart fundamentally a conscientious soldier and that the court would be justified in dealing with this offense with a most lenient sentence.

~~Owing to the fact no other officer or senior N.C.O. is available who has previously known the accused I wish to submit the following character statement.~~

Sgt. Rolfe has been known to me for over 10 months. He was a sect. Sgt. in my Coy. at the Eng. P.U. in England for more than 3 months. In Oct. 1943 he reverted to the ranks at his own request in order to proceed on overseas draft. This was done against the wishes of the directorate staff who valued Rolfe's ability as an N.C.O. and as an instructor.

During the time that the accused was in my coy. he gave excellent service at all times and he was a dependable and reliable N.C.O.

Court addressed by Defending Officer

In this case the Defence have attempted to prove that the accused was suffering from a physical disability at the time the alleged desertion occured. We have also shown that the accused had been subjected to extremely heavy and direct shell-fire, on the four days previous to the alleged dessertion. We submit to the court that the reason, of the accused, was temporarily derraigned by these two factors.

Closing Address by Prosecuting Officer

Evidence has brought out the fact that the accused, returned from the MIR, shortly before the noon meal on the 19 Dec 44; but that the accused did not appear on this noon meal, and his absence was established at 1300 hrs. At that time nothing has been brought up in evidence to indicate that a route march was imminent, and in fact the Coy did not move off until dusk that night. I suggest to the Court, that the accused did not give his Coy officers the opportunity to excuse the accused from the march.

CLOSING ADDRESS - PROSECUTOR

In the case of: C102000 Pte. Rolland, D.R.

If a man deserts, and afterwards regrets of his action and returns to his unit; even if that unit is still in a forward area, it does not alter the fact that his original intention was to desert, nor that he did, in fact, desert. In this case, the evidence of the first two witnesses proves that the accused absented himself from his Coy. in a forward area with intent to avoid service, and that he did avoid such service. I submit to the Court that a prima facie case of desertion has been established.

Question: On the mornings of 18th or 19 Dec 44 did you receive a sick report from your Pl. Stretcher-bearer?

Ans: I received a verbal report that Pte. Rolland had been on Sick Parade on the morning of the 19 Dec 44; I took it for granted that it was for a former complaint (chaffed crotch).

Question: Was Pte. Rolland excused any duties on account of this?

Ans: On the days previous to this Pte. Rolland had been excused marching Question: When did you know, for sure, that the Coy was moving forward?

Ans: At the Coy Commanders "O" Gp at approximately 1430 hrs.

Question: On the 19 Dec 44, Pte. Rolland then was not excused marching?

Ans: Not to my knowledge. There was no report to me, of his being excused duty, on that day.

Ques: Do you recognize the accused?
Ans: Yes Sir.
Ques: Would you tell the court what you know of the past character and conduct of the accused?
Ans: I was the Pl Sgt of the accused from 10 Feb 44 until approx. the end of Jul 44; and during that time the accused carried out his duties, a little above the average soldier. He was put 2 i/c (acting) of a section at different times, and did a very conscientious job. During that time I had no trouble whatsoever with the accused. We went through the static line on the Ortona front, plus the Hitler line, and during this time the accused has proved very trustworthy and reliable.

Plea of Mitigation in the case of:-
C102000 Pte. D.R. Rolland, L Edmn R.

In this case, the defence has attempted to prove that the accused was suffering from a physcial disability at the time the absence occured. We have also shown that the accused had been subjected to very heavy and direct shell-fire on the four days previous to the absense and that this direct shell-fire had a very noticeable effect on the members of the platoon in which the accused was serving. The past conduct of the accused has been good as shown by evidence of the character witness. I submit to the court that the physcial disability under which the accused was suffering and the nervous strain imposed on the accused in the previous action led him to go absent. He has shown in the past that he is capable of fulfilling his duty as a soldier. Therefore I would ask the court to take these matters into consideration and be lenient with the accused so that he may be returned to his unit as soon as possible.

By Young. Will you tell the court what the general character of the accused?

Good.

I came to know Pte Pollard while in the Platoon I was in command of from the time I joined the Platoon until the 23rd May. He was a good soldier and never caused me any trouble

By Prosecution

Sir it is definitely proved by the two witness of the prosecution that Pte Pollard R.H. left the Platoon during an attack, [illegible] leaving Pte Pollard on what he was doing and had no reason what ever for leaving the line as he was not wounded in any way, I therefore ask that the court should find the accused guilty of cowardice.

By Defence

It is laid down by K. R. Regs. in 440 that I quote, "Officer Commanding units will ensure that every soldier is acquainted with section 4 to 44 of the Army Act", in this case the Lee did not do and as ignorance of the law is no excuse the accused has not had any opportunity of knowing the law, the onus of the charge is really untrue and as I submit it is admitted that a person is presumed in law to have intended

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. H.Q. 1772-39-480

Mr. President, Members of the Court:

You have heard the charge against the accused, Pte Rollings, and you have heard his plea of Guilty to the charge as read. As his defence counsel, I wish to make a plea of mitigation on his behalf, putting before you the extrenuating circumstances of this case leading up to his period of A.W.L.

The accused joined the army at the age of 18 years, and on his arrival in this country was transferred into the infantry, and after only a few days in the country was sent to Italy as reinforcement for the Irish Regiment. About this time, he received word that his brother in the R.C.A.F. had been killed and it was quite a shock to him.

On top of this unwelcome news, came word that his father was ill and was forced to retire from business.

Just as if this young boy, only nineteen, had not enough trouble, he was taken prisoner of war in December and was held in a concentration camp until liberated by the Americans in April. Five long months in a filthy P.W. camp is not a good experience for a boy of his age.

On his release from the P.W. camp he was promised speedy repatriation to Canada, presumably by some irresponsible person who was at error. On his return to England, he was informed that he could not be repatriated to Canada as he had only five months as P.W. against the necessary 6 as laid down, so was held at a C.I.T.R.

On top of this, he received futher news of his father who had been completely broken up over the death of one son and the other first missing and then a P.W. His grief and worry had left him an old and broken man forced to retire from business and lead the life of a helpless invalid.

This prompted the accused to apply for compassionate leave to Canada. Months passed and no word of his compassionate application. In the meantime, he had been posted (not voluntary) into the Canadian Provost Corps in which he had no desire to serve.

Do you think his morale would be awful high? He was kept in ignorance as to the outcome of his request for compassionate leave and was lead to believe that it had not been approved. Do not the above facts show very poor man management on the part of this man's officers and N.C.O.'s?

He received leave and went to Manchester. Here is one thing that is a bit unusual in the history of a Canadian soldier's A.W.L. There was no young girl friend mixed up in it.

Pte. Hollings stayed with friends, an elderly couple, who gave him the friendship and home care which he had been missing for so long. Can't you see what an impression that the friendliness and the homely attentions would make on any boy whose mind was tortured as his must have been.

The accused has served his country well. Previous to this he has never had a charge against him. His M.F.M.6 is clean and his military record excellent.

In closing, I would like to ask you to bear in mind the extenuating circumstances of this case, taking into consideration the extreme youth of the accused and the lack of proper supervision when it was most needed.

This boy is not a criminal and he has suffered enough through his own folly.

While he was A.W.L. his compassionate application was approved by N.D.H.Q., but he could not be contacted. This in itself shows that Rollings had cause to worry and had some one during the long period of waiting, given him encouragement in the outcome of his compassionate leave, I firmly believe that this lad would not be on charge to-day.

My case now rests with the court, who I hope, will be as lenient as possible and not cause further unnecessary hardship to the accused.

THANK YOU, GENTLEMAN!

The accused has served 26 days awaiting trial.

Plea of Def'g offr.

Mr. President and Members of the Court:

May it please the court to consider the following factors in arriving at a decision in the case of Gnr. Hollins,N.H.

The defendant became ill while on leave from NETD, suffering from severe neuralgia as a result of having been wounded. He visited a doctor, an ex-Naval Surgeon, who advised him to remain indoors until his condition had cleared up. The defendant requested the doctor to write to NETD explaining the case. He assumed that the letter would act as an application for extension of leave, and returned to the residence where he had been spending his leave. While there he had the attention of a trained nurse. There was no reply to the application [illegible] he remained there until he was well enough to travel. He then returned to NETD and turned himself over to the Regimental Police. I believe that his absence was not intentional, but due entirely to his illness. THE ADDRESS OF ACCUSED WHILE AWAY IS GIVEN ON THE BACK OF THIS LETTER.

The defendant was discharged from hospital to NETD to be returned to Canada for further medical treatment. He has to have further plastic surgery before he will be well again. In his present condition it is necessary for him to be on a special diet. I suggest that in that condition he is not fit to carry out any period of severe punishment.

The defendant has been in the army since September 1939 and has been overseas since September 1940. During his 5½ years of service he has an excellent record.

Therefore, I ask the Court, on behalf of the defendant, that these factors, first, his illness while on leave and circumstances regarding his absence and voluntary return, secondly, his present physical condition and the necessity for further surgical and medical treatment, and lastly his long service be considered, and that his case be dealt with in the most lenient manner possible.

At approx 2020 hrs 11 Jul 44, I was reading by the side of my carrier when I heard a yell coming from the direction of Sgt Feeney R's slit trench. I glanced over and saw Sgt. Rollo making a dive headfirst into the trench, and Sgt. Feeney dodging out. Thinking they were only fooling, I didn't take much notice until I heard he and a couple of the other men calling to Rollo to "Put that gun down" and stop fooling. Suddenly there was a burst of fire, and I saw Sgt Feeney make a lunge at the trench for the weapon, and just as he grabbed it, another shot was fired. The sten was taken from Sgt Rollo and he was pulled from the trench and part way to his own, which was about 10 yards away, struggling and muttering threats. I ordered him to get into his trench and sober up which he did after a bit more talk. At the time his speech was slightly thick and I consider that he was drunk and incapable of performing his duties.

On 11 Jul 44 at approx 2020 hrs I was in my slit trench at CAEN. I saw Sgt Rollo creeping towards my slit trench about 10 yards away. Then he got up, made a mad rush at the slit trench I was in. When he was almost on top of the slit trench I side stepped and Sgt Rollo fell into the trench.

At this time I thought Sgt Rollo was fooling. I went to my bike, got my steel helmet and sten gun and when I returned to the slit trench I saw Sgt Rollo moving about as though he was in a daze. Sgt Rollo moved from one end of the trench to the other and picked up a sten gun which was lying there. He crawled nearly out of the slit trench. I roared to him to put the sten gun down and just as I gave this order he fired a burst. I made a dive for the weapon, I got my hands on it and just then another shot was fired. I removed the weapon from his hands and called for Sgt Adams to help me get him to his slit trench. He put up a bit of a struggle and kept on shouting threats. Then Lieut Christie appeared and ordered him to his trench. After a few minutes of roaring and struggling he got into his slit trench and quietened down. I consider that he was drunk and incapable of performing his duties.

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex B respectively.(3)
