1. While on Active Service, Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer.(A.A.Sec 9(2).

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: A.11200 L/Sgt Grant G.E., The Perth Regiment, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am A.11200 L/Sgt Grant G.E., No.16 Platoon, 'D' Company, The Perth Regiment, C.A.(CMF). At approximately 1230 hours on 12 October 1944 I ordered Pte Robins to clean out a latrine. He said he would not do it till 1.30. I told him that it was an order and he replied again that he would not do it till 1.30. I then told him that the order came from the C.S.M. Pte Robins did not clean out the latrine, and said, "you can tell the Sgt-Major to kiss my ass." I placed him under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(A.11200 L/Sgt Grant G.E.)

Question by officer detailed to take this summary:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

SECOND WITNESS: A.105161 Pte Robins, R.L., The Perth Regiment, C.A.(CMF) having been duly sworn, states:

"I am A.105161 Pte Robins R.L., No.16 Platoon, 'D' Coy, The Perth Regiment, C.A.(CMF). At approximately 1230 hours on 12 October 1944 I was sitting in my room reading a newspaper when Sgt Grant came in and ordered me to clean out the latrine by one-thirty. I told him I would not start to do it till one-thirty. He told me it was an order from the C.S.M. and I told him it made no difference, I was still not doing it till one-thirty. Sgt Grant left the room and about five minutes later Cpl Shimmick told me I was under close arrest. I was taken to the guard room."

(A.105161 Pte Robbins R.L.)

The accused declines to call witnesses in his behalf.

Rules of Procedure 4 have been complied with.

1st Witness — Lt G Fawcett RCOSc, FCA 31 GH. in the field, sworn states — I am 3rd Offr. on the NG. On the 15 inst, I returned to camp at 1330 to detail a lorry to go out on job. Whilst in camp I noticed the Austin motor lorry, came back into bldg & went out on business, returning about 1500 hrs. On return the ordly Offr told me that Austin lorry MS 39 7813 had been involved in accident. I proceeded to scene of accident between Ashtead & Epsom. On arrival I found a Leyland lorry CT 2717, had gone off road, through a fence & was up against a tree. MS 39 7813 was off the road, upon the sidewalk between a lamp post & fence, about 20 feet past the other lorry. P. Constable [illegible] keeping of Ashtead Police was at the scene & had taken most of the info. PC Robins was also there & Sgt Macdonald. I got the log book [illegible] out of the glove compartment of the Austin, there was a work ticket in log book, which I now identify as Ex A. I did not authorise anyone to take this vehicle in the afternoon. The Austin had been detailed in the A.M. to draw petrol & this journey was finished about 1115 hrs, after 1200 hrs no trips were authorised.

Cross Exam — Cpl Hallet was the signatory of the last entry in the work ticket. The log book & work tickets were returned to me before lunch by Capt Roderick. There was no ground on the copy sheet from 1200 hrs on. This Austin could be driven without a key. It is possible for anyone to come in car park & take this car. I never saw MC at the scene of accident.

Jos. G Ford — In my opinion this was not an authorised trip.

being duly sworn ~~and~~ states as is my I met the Robbins in the car park in company with Sir Anglis + another soldier. We went for a ride to Epsom, dropped off the other soldier at Epsom station, + on the return journey to L'Head at about ashtead between ~~the~~ ~~and~~ we were overtaking a coal lorry, + subsequently the front fender.
Both lorries then left the road. Then the Robbins asked the civilian driver if he was hurt + he said no. I asked a civilian to notify the ~~and~~ police
+ I then called up H.Q. + asked for an officer. + saw a Br. PR before + after the accident. At the time of the ~~accident~~ collision I ~~saw~~ noticed a unlit approaching well over on his side of the road. At the time we were about to pass the lorry, the lorry was proceeding with its right wheels on the white line.

Cross Exam

Ques - When was the last time you were level with the lorry?
Ans - about 30 yds about.
I did not notice the civil lorry ~~swerve~~ out. The driver had fair good vision out of his left hand side window.
We were travelling at about 30 m PH at the time I ~~accident~~
In my opinion, the cause of the collision was the approach of the car.

being sworn, states:
On 15 Aug. at approx 1330 hrs I left the carpark accomp. by PC Robin & Sgt Macdonald + another cdn soldier. We proceeded to Epsom station, then turned + came back. At Epsom + ashtead there was a coal lorry ahead of us + we were about to pass when it ~~had~~ I noticed a rope coming towards us. ~~It was not taut & under the~~ coal lorry, as it seemed to be out of control, as one end left wheel was over the front right
one. The left wheel was over the rope wheel. The coal lorry proceeded into the rope & fence + struck a tree. One car struck a lorry post on its right front side cross spar. The reason for taking the soldier to Epsom station was that he told us he had just enough fare to go from Epsom to Croydon.
~~Egham~~
In my opinion it was the approach of the rope that caused the accident
The lorries was side by side when I saw the rope appearing. The rope was travelling at about 30 MPH at the most.

at about 1430 hrs on 15 Aug 44 I attended the scene of road accident on the Lane Rd ashleaf. I saw Wireless vehicles, one a motor lorry, & Ford England GT 2717 & a mil veh 4533978C3 both vehs were on the near side of the road facing Ashlind, the mil veh in front. Both vehs were off the roadway. The lorry had broken through a fence on the near side of the road & had come to rest with its radiator ag a tree. The mil veh was on the near side pavement & had come to rest with front of radiator ag a lamp standard. I saw at the scene the following tire marks, 2 made by a motor lorry, one being 6 feet long 2 feet out from near side rear wheel, the other 40 ft long 7 feet out from near side rear wheel made by off side rear wheel. One mark made by mil veh off side front wheel was 62 ft long & 12' out from near side curb Width of road 21', width of pavement 5', scene of accident top of road gradient to left hand (N) hand. I saw at the scene C 4656 Pte Robins & also informed me that he was driver of mil veh, & F 14323 Dvr MacDonald GB & F 9194 Dvr Taylor who told me that they were passengers in mil veh. I also saw Mr Frederick Lewis of 1 Brook Cottage Pudsey Rd Farnham Surr who informed me he was dr. of civ lorry. I also saw 1856140 Sapper Greasley James of 241 Fld Co RE who told me he had witness accident ~~as a result of engine~~ ~~I inspected~~ on the off side front wing of civ lorry I found ~~blood~~ paint & dents. On near side rear wing of mil veh, I also found dents. These marks would be consistent with mil veh having collided with civ lorry, or vice versa. The marks indicate that civ lorry was in its proper road or road

Cross exam -

Do you know how far back the tire marks were from the top of the gradient? No.
There were no road signs. I have no idea of the gradient.
Would a motorist 50 x from top of gradient notice a cyclist coming round the bend & half way up the gradient? I don't know.
The marks I have referred to are the marks, not skid marks. The 40' & the 62' tire marks finished on the near side pavement. I estimate the middle of the lorry at 7'. There would be room for both cars & the cyc to pass

Mr. Frederick has [illegible] been duly sworn states
At about 1450 I was proceeding along main road & came to a slight incline which necessitates my changing down into 3rd gear - speed about 16 MPH came to a slight bend to my right. I was about 2 to 3 feet from near side. I saw a motor cyclist approaching at a normal speed, the next thing a veh. struck my off side front wheel & knocked the steering completely out of my hand, causing me & mot. cycle to part, strike a fence, & hit a tree head on. I was shaken & got out of car & near side & walked round to rear of veh & saw a policeman who advised me to go to hospital. I was treated for shock. The other soldier in the ambulance smelt of liquor - he had a cut on his head.

Lorry is 7'6 wide & weighs 15 tons loaded. It was loaded at time. There was no warning given by ind lamp. He hit me first on off side front wheel.

At about 1430 or approaching a bend in the road at approx 30 mm, I noticed 2 vehs approaching, one large, the other small. The large veh was well on the near side of the road & the smaller veh was alongside & close to it. The vehs were in contact with each other, the small veh coming into contact with the front offside wheel of the large veh. Both vehs swerved to left & went off road. The large veh finished up on its left & the smaller on a few yards ahead of it. I was about 60 yds away when vehs collided. I am certain that I would have got off the road & left a clear passage for the 2 vehs.

I came to the car park about 1320 hrs. There was a taken soldier there that wanted a ride to Epsom station as he only had many except to take him from there to his destination by train.
So I said that I would take him to the station. The duster car was the only one there that had a radio key. Pte MacDonald & Pte Hughes were in the car park & said they would go along for the ride so we went to Epsom station & on the return trip we came across this Leyland lorry. It was on a sharp corner, so we followed it around till it came to a straight piece of road. Then I overtook
it. As I got even with his right front wheel
I noticed an army nut coming up the grass towards us. I didn't know whether he would be room for him to get by or not so I slowed down & braked the duster which pulled me to the left. My rear left fender came in contact with his right front fender. My vehicle mounted the pavement, we ran into a lamp standard & came to a stop about 20' ahead of the Leyland. I got out & asked the driver of the civilian lorry if he was hurt, he said just shook up a bit. A civilian that lived nearby called a civilian ambulance. The coast looked over the accident & decided the driver of the civilian lorry & Pte Hughes should go to the Hosp so he phoned for an ambulance. They were picked up & taken away. Capt Yates, going to London, stopped as he passed Unit HQ, then Pte MacDonald phoned HQ. Mr Jarrett came out & took me back in the car. I was travelling at approx 30 MPH - I have not driven that car before. The speedo was 30 to 60.
ahead of me when I first saw him.

The duration pulled to the left when I applied the brakes,
& I found myself in contact with the hydrant.
There was no jamb in the car pole when I left.
There was a work ticket in the glass compartment of the car.
Cross examn
I did not attempt to pass the hydrant on the inner.
I was quite sure there was plenty of room to pass, on the straight bit of the road.
By Court.
I had no authority to take this vehicle from 29 Pk.
or NCO. We stopped at a public house for a beer.
I kept about 10 ft from hydrant while attempting to pass. When I noticed me, I slackened off & put on the brakes. I never used the brakes hard before. I never gave any warning bell the lorries were making too much noise. I only think it customary to give warning.

I am S and T, First Cdn Army Service Increment Group H.Q. and as such responsible for all vehicles at this H.Q.. On the 15th of August at about 1330 hours I went to our vehicle park in back of the Crescent Building to detail a driver and lorry for duty. I noticed that Austin Utility vehicle, M5397823 was in the car park. At 1500 hours. I was informed by my clerk that a message had been received from Capt. Swystun, R.C.A.S.C. that vehicle No. M5397823 was involved in an accident on the Epsom Highway, MR 63857885. I could not understand this as I had not detailed vehicle for any trip in the afternoon. I drove out to the scene of the accident and inquired who was the driver. Pte. L.H. Robbins whom I now recognize said that he was. He also stated that he did not have any authority to be in possession of the vehicle. I found vehicle C.T. 2717 a Leyland Coal lorry off the pavement and jammed against a tree after obviously having destroyed a section of the wooden fence. The Austin M5397823 had jumped the curb and was jammed between a lamp post and fence abouttwenty feet beyond the coal truck and facing in the same direction. Police Constable B.C. Keeping of the Ashtead Police was in the process of making investigations. Also at this time F-14323 Gnr MacDonald J.B. was present at the scene of the accident. I obtained what information I needed for the accident report and detailed MacDonald to guard the vehicle until the wrecker came to tow the vehicle in. I took Pte Robbins back with me to Leatherhead and placed him in the custody of GHQ and L of C Increment. Lieut Piercy R.C.O.C. assessed the damage to the Austin at £3.8.0d A.B. 412 and work ticket A.F.G. 3518 Exhibit "A" were found by me in the glove compartment of the vehicle.

SECOND WITNESS:

F-14323 Gnr MacDonald J.B., R.C.A., First Cdn Army Service Increment Group H.Q., being duly sworn, states:

On the 15th day of August at 1330hours I went to Epsom in company with F-9194 Gnr Inglis, A.T., R.C.A. First Cdn Army Service Increment Group H.Q., in W.D. vehicle M5397823 driven by C-4656 Pte Robbins, L.H.. On the return journey while overtaking a vehicle * we side-swiped its right front fender. This vehicle was a Layland coal lorry driven by a civilian. Both lorries left the road ours hitting a lamp-post, theirs a tree. Approximately sixty feet of wooden fence was damaged and both vehicles were slightly damaged. There was another civilian in the vehicle besides the driver. Neither of the civilians seemed to be hurt and stated that they were not hurt. I did not know whether this trip was authorized or not. I went along for the ride.

THIRD WITNESS:

F-9194 Gnr Inglis, A.T., R.C.A., First Cdn Army Service Increment Group H.Q. being duly sworn, states as follows:

At 1330 hours on the afternoon of 15th day of August in company with Gnr MacDonald and in a W.D. vehicle M5397823 driven by C-4656 Pte Robbins, L.H., I went to Epsom. On our way home while passing a coal lorry our vehicle seemed to go out of control and we collided with the coal lorry. We continued on into a lamp post. I was cut about the head and my memory of what took place is vague. I was taken to the Hospital. I went along on the trip for the ride as we were giving an old Canadian soldier a lift. I noticed a D.R. on a motorbike who was coming towards us at the time of the collision.

FOURTH WITNESS:

P.C. 286 George William Keeping of Surrey Joint Police Force, Ashtead, being duly sworn, states:

At approximately 1450 hours on the 15th of August 1944, I attended the scene of a Road Accident on the Epsom road Ashtead. I saw two vehicles, one a commercial lorry No. C.T. 2717 Layland, 8 tonner and a Military vehicle No M5397823 on the nearside of the road facing Ashtead. Both vehicles were off in the roadway facing Ashtead, the military vehicle being in front. The lorry had broken through a fence on nearside of road and had come to rest with its radiator against a tree. The military vehicle was on footpath and had come to rest with offside of radiator against a lamp standard. I saw the following tire marks which were clearly visible. Two tire marks made by lorry, one six feet long commencing two feet out from nearside curb; the other forty feet long commencing seven feet out from nearside of curb and finishing on pavement. One tire mark made by offside front wheel of military vehicle sixty two feet long commencing twelve feet out from curb and finishing on pavement. Width of road twenty-one feet, width of pavement four feet. About sixty feet of wooden fencing was damaged. Khaki paint and dents were found by me on the offside front wing of civilian lorry. On the nearside rear wing of military vehicle I also found dents. These markings would be consistent with the military vehicle having collided with the civilian lorry. I saw at the scene No. C4656 Pte Robbins, L.H. who informed me that he was the driver of the military vehicle and No. F-14323 Gnr MacDonald, J.B. and No. F-9194 Gnr Inglis, A.T. who said that they were passengers. I also saw Mr Frederick Laws of 1 Bush Cottages, Putney Bridge Road, London, S.W. 18 who told me that he was the driver of the civilian lorry. He appeared to be shocked so I despatched him to hospital. I also saw at the scene No 1886740 Spr Greasley, James of 241 Field Coy, R.E., Hertford, Hertfordshire who told me that he had witnessed the accident. I ascertained that the owner of the civilian lorry which was extensively damaged to be William Hampton LTD 394 York Road, Wandsworth, London, S.W. 18. The lamp standard which the military vehicle hit and damaged is the property of the Wandsworth Gas Company Fairfield Street, London S.W. 18. The owner of the fence is Mrs Beswick of North Lodge Epsom Road, Ashtead.

FIFTH WITNESS:

Mr. Frederick Laws of No. 1 Bush Cottages Putney Bridge Road, Wandsworth, SW 18 being duly sworn states:-

I am Frederick Laws employed by William Hampton LTD 394 York Road, Wandsworth, London, S.W. 18. About 1450 hours on the afternoon of the 15th day of August I was driving Leyland Hippo Lorry No CT 2717 on the Epsom Leatherhead Road, approaching Ashtead. I was proceeding in third gear at about 16 miles per hour. I was approaching a small incline on a slight curve. I could see ahead of me for at least 50 yards. My vehicle was about two feet from the curb. I noticed a motorcycle with a soldier on it proceeding towards me at normal speed. As the motorcyclist drew level with me I was hit by an overtaking vehicle. The impact occurred on my offside front wheel, causing me to loose control of my vehicle. The steering wheel was completely knocked out of my hands. This caused me to mount the pavement and crash through a wooden fence. I collided head on into a tree. I was pretty well shaken up and my right arm was hurt. I noticed that an Army S.D. Vehicle was the car that collided with me. A police constable despatched me to the hospital, Leatherhead Emergency, where I was treated for shock. A soldier who was at the scene of the accident and who said he was a passenger in the vehicle which hit me, came to the hospital. This soldier was cut on the head and smelt of drink. I realize that my vehicle could not be moved and was seriously damaged.

I am a sapper motorcyclist of 241 Field Coy, RE, and on the afternoon of the 15th day of August I was on duty. At about 1430 hours I was proceeding on my motorbike along the Epsom Leatherhead road, towards Epsom. My bike was new so that I am sure that I was not exceeding 30 mph. Upon approaching a bend in the road I noticed two vehicles approaching me. One was large and one was small. The larger vehicle was well over on the left hand side of the road which was his correct position. The smaller vehicle was alongside of him and appeared to be overtaking. I noticed that the two vehicles were rather close together. Then the vehicles came in contact with each other. The smaller vehicle seemed to come against the offside front wheel of the larger vehicle. Both vehicles immediately moved to the left and went off the road. The smaller vehicle ended up a few yards in front. It didn't seem to me that anything very serious had occured, only the civilian driver seemed a bit shaken.

The Order convening the Court was read in the presence of the accused.
The accused was asked the following question:-
Do you object to be tried by the President or any members of the Court, whose names you have heard read over.
Answer - No.
The President, Members and Interpreter were then duly sworn.
The charge was then read to the accused.
The accused pleads not guilty.
The accused was then asked the question at the end of page 2 of A.F.A. 2, and his answer is recorded beneath the question.
The prosecutor makes no opening address.

1st Witness. P48745 C.Q.M.S. Parent, G. O. having been duly sworn states:-

Prosecution. Tell the Court what happened on 21 Jan 41.
Witness - I am in charge of "A" Coy mail. every day I go to the regimental Post Office for mail for "A" Coy, Royal 22e Regiment. I came over to Regtl.P. O. for mail at 1730 hrs. on 21 Jan 41. When I reach "A" Coy Orderly Room I register all the parcels in the special book used for that purpose. Then the Orderly Room Clerk took over charge of the parcels and anyone calling for a parcel must sign in the book.
I came back from town at 2200 hours. I heard a rumor that a parcel, the property of Pte. Guillemet had been stolen from "A Coy Orderly Room.
On 22 Jan 41, I reported the incident to Major Trudeau, my Company Commander, he detailed me to make an enquiry. First of all I was told by Cpl. Giguin that the name of Roberge was appearing in the book in which we keep record of the parcels. I went to the Orderly Room to see the book. I noticed Roberges name as entered by himself, because I recognized his signature, checking it with Roberges signature entered in my books at the C. M. Stores. After comparing the signatures, I went to the Regimental P. O. to see if Roberge had a parcel addressed to him on 21 Jan 41. I found out that there was none addressed to him on that date.
I detailed an escort to take Roberge to his billet. I also went myself and asked Roberge for the parcel containing 300 cigarettes that he had stolen from "A" Coy Orderly Room on the 21 Jan 41. Then Roberge handed me over 2 pkgs of cigarettes of 25 each. He said it was all he had left. I had him sent to the Regtl. Det. Room.
Prosecutor. You mention the name of Roberge, who is he?
Witness - He points to the accused. He is here.
Prosecutor No further questions.

President. Does the defence wish to cross examine the witness?
Defence. I have one question.
Defence. Where exactly in the book did Roberge sign his name?
Witness. There was an entry made to the list, made in such a way as to intimate that Roberge was to receive a parcel himself.
Defence. How do you know that Roberge made that entry himself?
Witness. I know pretty well Roberges signature, he is a very good writer, good hand, and when I look over in the list I said in front of the Orderly Room Cpl. to be sure of that. I took my book from the Stores to the Company Office and I made a comparison of his signatures. If you had put carbon paper under them would be the same.
Defence. Do you know of anyone being in the office when Pte. Roberge was supposed to have made that entry?
Witness. No.
Defence. Thats all Sir.
President. All right Mr. Durant.
Prosecutor. No further questions Sir.
After the evidence was read over the Witness makes further statement.
Witness. The book, on one side when we receive the parcels we enter the Rank No., rank and name of the soldiers, on the other side the soldiers have to sign when he gets the parcel from the C. P.
Defence. I would like to see that book.
Witness. We change the system, I keep now all the parcels in the stores the old book must be at "A" Coy Office.
Defence. Will you get it for us.
Witness. I call over at "A" Coy Office.
The book was produced to the Court.
2nd Witness. E 4679 Cpl. Sigouin, J. Royal 22nd Regiment having been duly sworn states:-
Prosecutor. Will you tell the Court what happened on 21 Jan'41?
Witness. I was coming down the stairs of my billet when Pte. Roberge was coming up with a parcel. I saw him if it was cigarette parcel. He answer me yes. Then I ask him if he have any to sell. He answer me it was all promised. The next morning I hear about the parcel was gone [redacted] and I look at the book where we sign when we receive a parcel and I see Roberges' name and I ask the clerk of the office if he made Roberge sign the book for a parcel. He told me no and I ask three runners and they all say no.
Prosecutor. Tell what you actually saw and did.
Witness. I went to the C. O. M. S. with the book and the C. O. M. S. see the signature in the book and he put it against his own signature, Roberges signature, and they both were the same. Pte. Roberge was over there in the C. Q. Stores. I ask him who gave him the parcel, he answer me the Orderly Sjt. I went to the Orderly Sjt.
Defence. Who was the Orderly Sjt.
Witness. I/Cpl. Boudreau.
Witness. I/Cpl. Boudreau answer me "No". Pte Roberge went up to the room. Me and the C. O. M. S. went up to him, to Roberge, and ask him for the balance of cigarettes that was left from the parcel the night before. Pte. Roberge give the two packages that was left to C. O. M. S. Parent. I ask Roberge what he done with the envelopes of the parcel. He answer me I burn it up. Then we put him under close arrest.
Prosecutor. Who is Pte. Roberge?
Witness. Turns around and points to accused.
Prosecutor. How many cigarettes in the parcel you saw him with on the stairs?
Witness. The package was the size of 300 cigarettes.
President. Any questions by the defence?
Defence. Who else besides the clerk could get to them?
Witness. They were not under lock and key.
Defence. Who could get to the inside of the boundry made by that table
Witness. Only Officers and N. C. O's and the runners.
Defence. Thats all Sir.
President to Prosecutor. Have you any other witnesses to call?
Prosecutor. No Sir.

President to Defence. Have you any witnesses to call?
Defence. Yes Sir one.

Evidence for the Defence

1st Witness. B-9188 Pte. Bernatchez, H. R.R.R. Regt. having been duly sworn states:-

Defence. Do you know this man?
Witness. Yes Sir.
Defence. Do you know the circumstances of the case?
Witness. I heard of it.
Defence. What do you know about it?
Witness. I saw L/Col. Boudreau with Buckingham cigarettes, thats all I know about that case.
Defence. Thats all Sir.
Prosecutor. No questions.
President. Does the accused wish to make a statement?
Defence. He wishes to make a statement.
Accused. I was in my room when L/Cpl. Boudreau came to me and say you have a parcel. I answered O. K. About five minutes after I go get my parcel. L/Cpl. Boudreau was there. He say, heres the book sign your name. I did and after I got out of the Office he came back and told me the parcel was not mine. L/Cpl. Boudreau was explaining to me that the parcel was not mine when someone came along and told me to go to my room and L/Cpl. Boudreau came to my room and say open the parcel and says everything is all-right. Pte. Godbout, R.R.R. was there when I gave him half the cigarettes. All evening I smoke with my friends, Next morning the C. O. M. S. came to me and ask me how many I have left. He put me under close arrest. When I go to the Coy Office with L/Cpl. Boudreau the Orderly Sjt. he told the two runners to walk out of the room. He sent one runner to No 7 Plt. and the other one to see if the C.S. men were on Parade. Thats all.
President. Does the accused wish to call witnesses as to character?
Defence. No Sir.
President. Does the defence wish to call any more witnesses?
Defence. No Sir.
Defence. A charge of stealing in my opinion, is not applicable as the accused had been led to believe the parcel was his and only found later that they were the property of someone else and the fact that the Orderly Sjt. told him everything would be all-right should have some influence on the case.
Thats all.
President. I declare the Court closed.

President.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

E 4849 Pte Roberge P., Royal 22e Regiment,

1st Witness
for Prosecution.

P 48745 C.Q.M.S. Parent G.O. having duly warned states:-

"I am in charge of the mail in the company. On the 21st of January 1941 at about 1715 hrs, I brought the mail to the coy O.R. The O.R. clerk registered the parcels in the mail register. The next morning, I was notified that a parcel addressed to Pte Guillemet containing 300 cigarettes was missing.

I checked the register and found that no one had signed it for Guillemet's parcel but noticed that Roberge had entered his name in such a manner as to lead to beleive he himself had received a parcel.

I went to the unit P.O. and checked the list of parcels and found out that Roberge had not received any parcel on that date.

Having reasons to beleive that the accused had got that parcel I detailed two escorts, brought him to his billet and asked him to give back the cigarettes he had taken in the Coy O.R. the previous day. Roberge handed me two packages of 25 cigarettes saying that it was all he had left."

FIRST WITNESS - FOR THE PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

BY THE COURT

Q.3. "Have you any documentary record to show the articles charged to the accused?"
A.3. "I have no record of the accused ever being charged with any of the articles. I just took it for granted he should have had them as they were what every soldier is supposed to have."

Case for the prosecution closed.

FIRST WITNESS - FOR THE DEFENSE

H.17529 PTE. ROBERGE, S.L., on the strength of 6 C.I.R.U., THE ACCUSED having been duly sworn, states:-

Q.1. "Tell the Court before you went A.W.L. where were you?"
A.1. "On the 5 Nov 43 I was admitted to hospital and my equipment never did come up to hospital when I was admitted. Three days later my Regiment left for Italy so when I was discharged from the hospital, I had no equipment with me. At the time I went A.W.L. I had not been issued with a new kit, and when I came back to No 6 CIRU, I had a kit inspection and was charged with loss of the stated kit."

Q.2. "What were you sent to hospital for?"
A.2. "I was sent first for an X-ray, and found my wrist broken so I never returned to the unit."

Q.3. "When you left for the hospital where was your kit?"
A.3. "My kit was loaded on the truck ready for the train, and my personal kit was in the barrack room."

Q.4. "Did you have any kit when you went A.W.L.?"
A.4. "No, sir."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q.5. "You were in the hospital for a few days. When you came out, did you immediately go A.W.L.?"
A.5. "No."

Q.6. "Did you try to find out where your kit was?"
A.6. "Yes, but I could find no trace of it. I had to buy towels and shaving kit to use while convalescing. I reported the loss to Major McGinn, in charge of convalescent hospital."

Q.7. "Are you absolutely sure that you tried to find your kit?"
A.7. "Yes, sir, I was over one and a half weeks trying to find kit before going A.W.L."

Case for the defense closed.

No closing address by prosecuting officer.

Closing address by defending officer:-

"The accused is not guilty of the charge. He went to the hospital and his kit was not forwarded to him there, which was a unit responsibility. The kit was lost before the accused went A.W.L. and not due to it. The prosecution only proved that the accused did not have certain articles, but never proved as they must that those articles were on his charge at some previous specified date or that they were lost through the accused neglect."

Plea of mitigation of defending officer by written submission.

Defending Officers Plea of mitigation.

Gentlemen;

I have only few words to say, but I would like to bring to your attention certain facts which I am sure you'd give a great consideration. The accused is a very young soldier. He enlisted in the army in 1940 and has been over since two years. He was as many other very anxious to go into action, but unfortunately, three days before his regiment went to Italy he had an accident which brought him to hospital. — Then he stayed alone behind without friends and was separated from his brother who went with the same draft. He was very anxious go to Italy for another reason which he already had another brother fighting in Italy. When feeling alone he get discouraged and went A.W.L.

I would like too to bring to your attention that the accused is at his first court martial and secondly, he is fit and willing to go into action. He certainly be more useful for the army in action than in detention cells. When I am positive, if we give him a chance, he will become a very good soldier and will always make his duties very well in action or anywhere else in the army.

For these reasons, I ask a minimum of sentence

Yours Faithfully
President.

Plea of Mitigation in the Case of H-17529 Pte Roberge, J.L.

This Case is one of those unfortunate cases in which further further punishment would lead only to the discouragement and possible ruination of a potentially good soldier.

This man has been in England about three years. He came over with his Regiment in the hope of going into action with them. Unfortunately he met with an accident and was in hospital when his Regiment went into the theatre of Operations, and he, being a shoemaker, was retained in that capacity at this Unit. As a shoemaker he was accorded trades pay.

Despite the fact that he was here on trades pay he requested to be sent into action, one of the reasons being, that his two brothers are in action, and he naturally wished to be with them. He was ready and willing to give up his trades pay in order to leave for action. It may also be stated here that Pte. Roberge is a Category "A" man medically, and is certainly of more use to the Canadian Army in action than in a detention camp. Further, I think the court will agree that the man appears very intellegent and clean-cut and capable of becoming an efficient soldier if given a sufficient chance at this time.

Finally, it is pointed out that the discouragement resulting from his failure to be sent into action was the sole reason for his misconduct, and that further punishment would only tend to discourage him all the more, thus depriving the forces of a potentially good man.

For the above reasons I respectfully would ask the Court to deal mercifully with the case of Pte Roberge.

W.E. Delaney, Lieut.
Regiment De La Chaudiere, 8 C.I.B.H.
Defending Officer.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:

~~Evidence duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.~~ Gnd 9

In the case of Lt Robert I feel that a great deal of explanation is not required as it is simply a straight forward case of AWL; but I would like to explain to the court first a system which is now at the CTS in connexion with offrs applying for leave of any nature. I understand it is an unusual system not carried out in other units and it would clarify the situation considerably if I explain it. An officer requiring absence of leave, either overnight, 48 hrs or privilege leave, must fill out a pro forma - which is supplied by the school - and a supply is kept on hand in the Wings. He fills in the particulars requesting absence of leave for a period stated on the form. This form is signed by his Wg Comd or 2 IC, from there it is passed on to HQ, entered in the Leave Book and the Comd of the School or his 2 IC then approves his application. It is the responsibility of the offr concerned to see that the particulars of his request for leave are entered in this Leave Book and have been approved before he actually proceeds on leave of any nature. Now, that in a few words is the outline of the procedure in vogue at Cdn Trg School. I cannot give the reason for this, but there are orders issued explaining this procedure and every officer who comes to the School can read the instructions concerning the procedure for a request for absence of leave in the school at any time for any period. Now I hope to establish from evidence and from witnesses just what occurred and, in the case of Lt Robert, the time he left Bks to the time he returned to Bks and also the fact that this procedure was not followed through.

1st Witness for Prosecution) Lt SA Singer, RCA, 1(OCTU) Wg, CTS, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Lt SA Singer, RCA, attached CTS, Admin Offr No 1(OCTU)Wg.
Q.2 As Admin Offr for 1(OCTU)Wg, CTS, are you familiar with the procedure in connection with requests in connection with leave?
A.2 Yes sir.
Q.3 I understand Lt Robert approached you....

J.A.- That may or may not be a question of proof. Let us have him identify Mr Robert and ask him whether he did approach him. We are not going to understand that he did anything - we want to prove it.

Q.4 Do you identify Lt Robert - you have heard the Charge read?
A.4 I haven't heard the charge read sir.
Q.5 Can you identify him?
A.5 Yes, sir, this officer sitting on my right (witness indicates the accused).
Q.6 Lt Robert is charged with being AWL, will you explain to the court what took place when Lt Robert approached you in connection with permission to travel by rail?
A.6 Mr Robert asked me for a pass with permission to travel by rail.
Q.7 You issued his pass?
A.7 I gave him a pass and signed it.
Q.8 Was this the usual pass for absence of leave from CTS?
A.8 It is a normal pass AB 925.
Q.9 Is it recognised as authority for absence of leave for an officer at the CTS?
A.9 It would be recognised as authority for leave - it is a normal Army pass which is recognised as leave pass.
Q.10 You stated that you were familiar with the procedure at the CTS for requesting absence of leave?
A.10 I did.
Q.11 Then the type of pass which you issued, is that the usual type of pass an officer has when he goes on leave?
A.11 An officer doesn't usually have a pass because it is not generally required to be used.
Q.12 As I explained to the court, the CTS has an unusual procedure, but there are instructions issued as to what procedure is to be carried out in requesting absence of leave and you admit that you know of this procedure. Now I want you to tell the court whether the pass you issued is recognised as authority for absence of leave....

J.A.- I think in fairness to all concerned and to the witness, who is displaying rather peculiar diffidence about it, why not ask him what the procedure is.

Q.13 Will you explain the procedure for officers applications for leave?
A.13 So far as officers go they normally make out a request on Form CTS 3 and that is approved by the Wg CO or, in his absence, myself as Admin Offr, or the 2 IC of the Wg. This is sent to School HQ for approval by the Comd or the 2 IC of the School.
Q.14 Was this procedure followed out in the case of Lt Robert?
A.14 I do not know whether it was or not, sir.

Q.15 Well then in connexion with the pass that you issued to Mr Robert, you know full well that that was not authority for absence of leave at CTS? Is that true? In other words, it did not conform with the instructions laid down at the CTS for the requesting of absence of leave?

A.15 The pass in itself may not have conformed with regulations - the pass as such was issued as authority to travel by rail.

Q.16 Only? That is all it was issued for, just go give permission to travel by rail and not as leave of absence, is that correct?

A.16 Perhaps I could explain that to the court if I gave a little preamble to my answer. Some two wks before Xmas before the issuing of Passes, the Wg Comd expressed his wish to me and left it to me to execute that all personnel in the Wg who could possibly do so would be sent on leave. The personnel of our Wg included 50 Other Ranks, 60 Cadets and abour 15 Officers. I put a notice on the Board asking for applications for leave from Cadets and Other Ranks or all personnel of the Wg. Many of these were turned in and I made out passes, all of which I crossed in red ink and signed on behalf of the Wg Comd, and the only officer's pass that I had occasion to sign was Mr Robert's, when he asked me for a pass to travel.

Q.17 He asked you for a pass to travel only?

A.17 No, he didn't ask for that specifically.

Q.18 Did you explain to him that it was only permission to travel and not authority to be away from Bks and that he would have to put in the usual application for leave?

A.18 No I didn't.

JA to Prosecutor: Have you got this pass?
Prosecutor: No, we haven't got it - it was just a normal Other Ranks pass.

Q.19 Lt Robert we will assume applied for permission to travel by rail. He received this permission and it stated on this pass the time he was required to be away. You gave Lt Robert this pass which granted.....

President: But there isn't such a thing as an officer's pass?
Prosecutor: At the CTS you have to submit an application for leave.
President: That's a different thing.
Prosecutor: In this case Mr Robert asked for permission to travel and the permission was made out on a normal pass.
President: It doesn't matter what it was made out on.

Prosecutor continues to examine the witness:-
(Pass marked Ex 3, initialled by President, attd to Proceed'gs)

Q.20 This pass that you issued for permission to travel by rail, is it considered authority for leave of absence at the CTS.

A.20 So far as officers are concerned it probably isn't, but it was the most convenient form.

Q.21 Mr Robert doesn't have the normal form for permission to be absent?

A.21 It is the most convenient form of signifying that he had permission to travel by rail.

PRIVILEGE, 48 HOUR, WEEK-END AND OVERNIGHT LEAVES

Officers proceeding on leave of any nature or duration will submit the appropriate C.T.S. form, properly completed, including telephone number when available, to the O.C. Wing. These forms will then be forwarded to the adjutant's office where they will be entered in the Officers' Leave Book, for submission to the Commandant or 2 i/c. It is the PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY of the individual officer to ascertain BEFORE proceeding on leave that details of address, phone, etc, are correctly entered in the Leave Book and that the leave is APPROVED by the Commandant or 2 i/c.

J. A. Conklin Lieut. Pro Tem.
Asst/Adjt C.T.S.

Q.22 But he didn't submit application to be absent from Bks in the usual manner according to the instructions at CTS, which is shewn on Exhibit.....

J.A. - But this Exhibit hasn't been submitted yet.

(The Prosecutor shows the witness Memo No 14 re privilege leaves)

Q.23 Will you explain to the court what that is?
A.23 That is a memo to the Officers' Memorandum Book in connexion with leave. It is the instructions regarding the filling out of leave applications. The procedure that officers have to follow in applying for leave.

(Memo marked Exhibit No 1, signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings)

Q.24 In accordance with these Instructions, known as Ex.1, did Mr Robert submit the usual application?
A.24 He did not submit it to me.
Q.25 To the best of your knowledge had he in the past submitted an application for absence with leave in the proper manner?
A.25 So far as I know Mr Robert was never out of Bks on weekend leave or any other leave. I have only known him a matter of 5 or 6 weeks and during that time he was present in camp practically continually.
Q.26 So it is quite possible to the best of your knowledge that Mr Robert was not familiar with the procedure?
A.26 Yes sir.
Q.27 Do all applications pass through your hands?
A.27 No sir.
Q.28 Do you recognise this?
A.28 Yes sir.
Q.29 Will you explain to the court just what it is?
A.29 The Officers' Leave Book, which is kept by the School Adjt.
Q.30 How does this fit into the picture?
A.30 In view of the fact that this is not my Book and the only time I have seen it, is since Mr Robert's incident arose, I think it is the School Adjt's responsibility to produce this, is that so, sir?
President: Quite right.

Prosecutor to the Court: What I want to bring out to the court is that Mr Robert has quite recently applied for leave in the normal manner.

J.A. - You undoubtedly have a purpose in mind, but we are concerned now with prima facie proof as to whether or not Lt Robert was away from the CTS and whether that was with permission or not, and whether or not he overstayed any permission he had. Now, procedure doesn't enter into the picture. I think what you're doing is attempting to anticipate a possible defence, but I suggest you wait until that defence is disclosed. I would think you have got a witness who can prove certain points of your charge, but so far he hasn't proved a thing. He has given evidence as to procedure. Now then, if this witness can tell you if this man left the CTS and if so for how long....

President: I think the whole court is clear on the procedure.

Prosecutor continues to examine the witness:-

Q.31 On this pass that you made out for Lt Robert what was the period of time?

A.31 The period of time I think was from 1700 hrs 24 Dec 43 to 2359 hrs 26 Dec 43, which was the period the Wg Comd suggested we allow all personnel out of the Wg to be away. I might add that he acted on a letter from School HQ that we turn in the number of Officers, Other Ranks and Cadets who would be likely to be in camp over Xmas and I took it for granted that School HQ were planning to allow as many as possible to be away from the School.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q.32 Did the permission to travel by rail which you issued to Mr Robert state Lt Robert as having permission to be absent from his unit from 1700 hrs 24 Dec 43 until 2359 hrs 26 Dec 43 for the purpose of proceeding to London?

A.32 Yes sir.

Q.33 Did you sign it?

A.33 Yes sir.

Q.34 Did you specifically warn Robert that the pass did not constitute leave?

A.34 No sir.

Q.35 Did you specifically warn Robert to go and get leave in the proper manner?

A.35 No sir.

Q.36 Did Robert leave his address with you?

A.36 Yes sir.

Q.37 Do officers usually do that?

A.37 I will answer that indirectly. This is the first occasion that I have had to obtain addresses from officers on leave. The Wg Comd and others left theirs and because of that Mr Robert left me his.

Q.38 But it isn't essential?

A.38 No sir. Perhaps I could explain to the court why these addresses were left with me....

Defending Officer: No we have enough.

Q.39 Are you authorised to deputise for your CO when he is away.

A.39 For the Wg Comd, yes sir.

Q.40 Is it the custom at CTS for officers returning on time from leave to report back?

A.40 No, sir, they merely return at any time within the period of their leave, up to the termination of it, and they subsequently appear on duty.

By the J.A. -

Q.41 Am I correct in assuming that permission for an officer to have leave at this period had to come from School not from Wg?

A.41 Generally it is the School matter, and it is laid down that it is a School matter, but in this case the Wg Comd expressed his wish.....

Q.42 I know, but has Wg got authority to let an officer go on leave at the dates that you have in this period?

A.42 Yes, I believe Wg can grant leave taking the responsibility.

Q.43 Here is a man who is on the staff of a Wg, is that correct?

A.43 Yes sir.

Q.44 If School said this man is going to stay on duty over Xmas could Wg give him permission to go?

A.44 No, I do not think so, sir.

Q.45 In other words the over-riding authority was School?

A.45 Yes sir, that's correct.

Q.46 Was that known by Mr Robert?

A.46 I don't know sir.

Q.47 Was it a matter of information to all officers?
A.47 Yes, that is the purpose of the Officers' Memo Bk.
Q.48 And is it part of the duty of every officer to read it?
A.48 It should be.
Q.49 What have Standing Orders to say about it?
A.49 I don't think there is anything in Standing Orders about it, sir - anything about officers going on leave.

Prosecutor to Court:- We have an Officers Memo Bk in which orders affecting subjects only are published. That is notified in Part I Orders.

J.A. - But you haven't given us any evidence of that or that this Memo Book has been read by all concerned.

Prosecutor - It is not considered a Standing Order but this is something separate for officers only.

J.A. continues to examine witness:-

Q.50 This piece of paper which you signed on Xmas Eve, what authority did you have to permit Mr Robert or any officers going on leave for the period indicated?
A.50 I had my Wg Comd's authority for that.
Q.51 And that is all the authority that that man required to be permitted to go on leave?
A.51 Yes sir. Mr Robert asked for the pass and I obtained his address from him.
Q.52 And that permit allowed him to go on leave for the dates mentioned?
A.52 Yes I think he may have concluded that.
Q.53 But is that officially?
A.53 Yes.

Prosecutor: I object to his answer. I will raise the point that at no time has Instructions been issued.
J.A.: You will have to bring evidence to prove that.

J.A. continues to examine witness:-

Q.54 This piece of paper indicated to you that he was due back at 2359 hrs on 26th Dec?
A.54 Yes sir.
Q.55 If he didn't arrive back until 0900 hrs 27th Dec how would you know?
A.55 The only means I had of knowing if he had not come back would be if I was looking for him or required his presence for any purpose - which I didn't because he was unemployed.
Q.56 You say that an officer returning does not have to report?
A.56 No sir.
Q.57 So you have no idea when he returns?
A.57 No sir.

(In the opinion of the court and of the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP83(B))

2nd Witness for Prosecution) Capt A.P. Boswell, RH of C, No 1 (OCIU) Wg, Cdn Training School, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.58 Will you identify yourself to the court?

A.58 I am Capt Alan Paterson Boswell of the Black Watch, up until the 31st Dec 43 I was in comd B Coy OCTU Wg, CTS.
Q.59 Lt Robert is charged with being AWL - do you recognise the accused?
A.59 I do (witness indicates the accused).
Q.60 On 24th Dec you proceeded on leave, will you explain to the court what time you proceeded on leave?
A.60 At approx 1915 hrs 24th Dec - I was accompanied by Lt Robert, took a taxi from Havanna Bks to Farnham where we boarded the London train. I went as far as Walton-on-Thames, where I got out. Lt Robert remained in the train.

DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE

3rd Witness for Prosecution) Major G.R. Corkett, PPCLI, 1(OCTU) Wg, Cdn Training School, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.61 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.61 I am Maj G.R. Corkett, acting Chief Instr.1 (OCTU) Wg, CTS.
Q.62 Lt Robert is charged with being AWL - do you recognise the accused?
A.62 Yes. (witness indicates the accused).
Q.63 You reported certain information to the Adjt on 27th Dec, will you tell the court what this information was in connection with Lt Robert?
A.63 About 1500 hrs I reported Lt Robert as an absentee without leave on the 27th Dec.
Q.64 Did you take any steps to see if Lt Robert was in his bks?
A.64 Yes, I had the Bks searched by two Orderlies.
Q.65 What were the results?
A.65 The Orderlies failed to find Lt Robert.
Q.66 When did Lt Robert report to the Wg?
A.66 Lt Robert reported to me on the Parade Square at 0820 hrs 28th Dec.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.67 In looking for Mr Robert on the 27th did you ask Mr Singer if he knew where he was?
A.67 I am not sure.
Q.68 You made no search yourself?
A.68 No I didn't.
Q.69 So the only information is what somebody else told you.
A.69 Quite. They were Other Rank Orderlies.
Q.70 Did they walk through the Officers' quarters?
A.70 They enquired at the Officers' quarters.
Q.71 At 0820 hrs - was that a normal parade hour?
A.71 Yes sir.
Q.72 What did he say to you when he reported?
A.72 I am not altogether sure except that he came up, saluted, and said "Good morning."
Q.73 Did you enquire where he had been at that time?
A.73 I informed him that I had reported him as an absentee without leave the previous day and that instructions as to whether he would be placed under arrest or not would be given him.
Q.74 Did he make any comments?
A.74 No sir.

Q.75 Did you make any enquiry in between 1500 hrs 27th and 0820 hrs 28th Dec to find out whether the accused was in?
A.75 Yes, I asked officers at the Wg?
Q.76 But there was no thorough search?
A.76 No, I did not myself search the Bks.
Q.77 Did the School syllabus resume on the 27th or 28th officially?
A.77 The syllabus was in effect on the 27th.
Q.78 At what hour?
A.78 At 0825 hrs in the morning, sir.
Q.79 Is Mr Robert a student at the School?
A.79 Lt Robert is an instructor, sir.
Q.80 He was not being employed at the time?
A.80 He had nothing to do on the 27th or 28th.
Q.81 In those circumstances was it normal for him to report to you?
A.81 No, he was not required on that parade.
Q.82 And you do not know why he did report?
A.82 No.
Q.83 Then why did you take such an interest in him as to make a search?
A.83 Because he had been reported to me as an absentee by his Coy Comd.

(In the opinion of the court and of the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B))

4th Witness for Prosecution) Capt A.E. Burkholder, Gen List, Cdn Training School, Having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.84 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.84 I am Capt A.E. Burkholder, Adjt, CTS, Havannah Bks, Gordon.
Q.85 Lt Robert is charged with being AWL, do you recognise the accused?
A.85 Yes, sir, I do.
Q.86 On 27th Dec you received a phone call from Maj Corkett and will you explain it to the court?
A.86 Approx 1500 hrs on the 27th Dec I received a telephone call from Maj Corkett asking me if there was any notification in the Officers' Leave Book to the effect that Lt Robert had been granted a pass.

By the J.A.:

Q.87 Actually you do not know whether he was or was not?
A.87 At the time I didn't.
Q.88 Did you ever know?
A.88 I did afterwards.
Q.89 Are you in a position to state that this man was absent from the School at any time?
A.89 According to my records, yes sir.
Q.90 The ones you make yourself?
A.90 Yes sir.
Q.91 On what is your information based?
A.91 On the Officers' Leave Book and the procedure in the School, which is that any officers proceeding on short-pass will complete a Form CTS 3. In the absence of the procedure being followed out my records would, of course, show that he was present in the school.
Q.92 Can you state that he was not present?
A.92 No sir, not to my knowledge.

J.A. to Prosecutor: The best that he can shew is that the procedure was not followed by Mr Robert.

Prosecutor continues to examine witness:-

Q.93 On receiving this 'phone call from Maj Corkett you mentioned the Leave Book. Will you explain this to the court?

A.93 I receive this Form CTS 3 from each officer going on short-pass. I enter it in the Book and then send it into the Comd for approval. Until it is approved no officer is supposed to leave the School. It is up to each officer to see that his name is in the Book and that the Comd has approved it. Otherwise, so far as we are concerned, he is AWL.

(Page of Officers Leave Book marked Ex.2, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings)

J.A. to Prosecutor: What does this prove?
Prosecutor: To show that he had not been granted absence with leave - it is not entered in there.

Prosecutor continues to examine witness:-

Q.94 To the best of your knowledge are there Instructions laid down in connection with the procedure for applying for leave?

A.94 Yes sir, they are laid out in the Officers' Memo Book.

Q.95 Do you recognise this (Ex.1).

A.95 Yes sir. It is always kept in my office and so it is available for officers to review the memos and there are about 27 memos in the Book so we leave it out so that they may check up from time to time and if in doubt they can always come up and check up.

Q.96 You state that this Book is available in your Office so that all officers joining the School may make themselves familiar with procedure?

A.96 Yes sir.

Q.97 To the best of your knowledge did Lt Robert read this order?

A.97 Yes, sir, he did.

Q.98 Will you prove it to the court?

A.98 His initials FSR, or, sir, the procedure is that every officer arriving at the School is given copies of a Form for going to the QM, Dental, Medical etc and when the Form is completed he comes to the Adjt's office where the Asst Adjt will check up his identification card, his clothing coupons and whether he has seen the Officers' Memo Book and, at the same time, if he is being TOS, he is granted an interview with the Comd.

Q.99 Did Lt Robert pass through this procedure?

A.99 To the best of my knowledge, yes.

Q.100 Do you recognise this Form?

A.100 Yes sir, that is the Form used at CTS for all officers just joing the School.

Q.101 Did you see this man sign this memo book?

A.101 No sir.

(The Defence agrees to have it put into the proceedings as an Exhibit).

JA: I think I appreciate what you have in mind, but this is a GCM and the result of it may have a great effect on the career of the officer who is being tried and I think you should consider before you go so far as to admit anything. But I am not prepared to say what effect that admission will have. It would go so far as to say that the accused knew that he did not carry out the procedure laid down, that he knew that he didn't have proper permission to leave and that he wilfully disregarded that Rule and went off for a period on his own.

Defending Offr: In view of the warning, with your permission, I would have it withdrawn.

JA.: The admission of a certain exhibit in the trial of an Other Rank makes the difference of one or two days' detention. But in the case of an officer it may mean the complete end of his Military career.

The Prosecutor continues to examine the witness:

Q.102 In connection with instructions issued for applying for a pass was there any amendments to that Order.
A.102 Not that I know of.
Q.103 In other words all officers proceeded on any type of leave if they had the approval of the Comd or 2 IC of the School.
A.103 Yes sir.
Q.104 As Adjt of the School have Wing Comds authority to grant such leave?
A.104 No sir.

EXAMINED BY THE COURT:

Q.105 You have made a definite statement as Adjt of the School that the Comd or his 2 IC are the only people empowered to grant such leaves. Have you ever known of an occasion when the Comd has told the Wg Comd that he might use his own judgment?
A.105 No sir, never.
Q.106 Is it laid down in writing?
A.106 Yes, sir, in the Officers Record Book. The only exception of that, sir, is of course the officers that come entirely under the Wg Comd - I am speaking now of PE staff.
Q.107 You have stated that, to the best of your knowledge, Lt Robert had read this Memorandum dealing with the method of obtaining approval, on what do you base this opinion?
A.107 He signed the Form and my practice was to point out the Officers' Memo Book to the officers.
Q.108 Could you ensure that he did read it through?
A.108 I would say that on the basis of my signature being there that he did.
Q.109 Do you normally ensure that they do read it or do you just give them an opportunity?
A.109 Oh yes.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B))

PROSECUTION CLOSED

Judge-Advocate: The case for the Prosecution having been closed it is my duty to advise you as to your rights at this point. In the first place you may be sworn and give evidence yourself - in which case you will be subject to cross-examination. If you don't wish to do that you may stand in your place and make an unsworn statement, in which case you will not be questioned by anyone; or you may make the same statement in writing - the same applies - you will not be questioned. But if you are to be heard the court is bound to give more heed to what you say if given under oath.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

The accused is charged with an offence of being absent without leave from 1915 hrs Friday 24 Dec 43 until 0820 hrs Tuesday 28 Dec 43. The Defence intends to prove, firstly, that between 1915 hrs on Fri 24th and 2359 hrs Sunday 26th the accused was on leave; and, secondly, that the accused was absent between 2359 hrs 26th and 2030 hrs on the 27th, but that such absence was caused by Xmas rush traffic congestion beyond the control of the accused. That the accused has no duty to perform until Tuesday the 28th and that before the conclusion of his leave on the 27th he telephoned School Orderly Officer explaining that he had missed his transportation and would be back. Thirdly, that the accused between 2030 hrs on the 27th and 0820 hrs on the 28th, (the termination of the charge) was not absent.

1st Witness) The accused, Lt F. de S. Hubert, R de Mais, Cdn Training for Defence) School, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defence:

Q.110 Were you aware of the CTS procedure for obtaining leave?
A.110 Yes sir.
Q.111 Did you obtain Xmas leave in this way?
A.111 No sir.
Q.112 Why not?
A.112 Because I had not intended to go on leave until Xmas Eve when I felt rather "home sick" and knowing it was too late to apply for leave I saw the Adjt of No 1 Wg.
Q.113 Why did you consider that you might get it through him?
A.113 Because since it was too late to go through the usual channels, the Wg Comd wasn't there and the Adjt was the only one there at that time.
Q.114 You stated that you thought it was too late to get it through the usual channels at School?
A.114 Yes sir.
Q.115 What time in the afternoon?
A.115 Past syllabus time - at about 1645 hrs.
Q.116 Did you make any attempt to obtain permission?
A.116 I checked all over the Wg to find an authority there.
Q.116 Had you made out the normal application form in order that it could have been signed by Mr Singer and forwarded to HQ?
A.116 Yes, sir, I applied to Mr Singer for leave because it was too late to go through normal channels.
Q.117 Did he say so?
A.117 No sir.
Q.118 Is there anything written down in the instructions as to what time applications must be submitted?
A.118 Yes sir, I think so.
Q.119 Did you see this. (Witness showed Ex 1)?
A.119 Yes sir, some time ago.
Q.120 In those instructions it mentions no time at all, it simply states that you must obtain the approval of the Comd or the 2 IC before proceeding on leave?
A.120 I would have to re-read it to see that.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.121 Can you remember a School Order stating that no leave applications would be entertained unless it was in within 3 dys?
A.121 It is in the Memo Book, but I do not know the number, and it states a special time for which one must apply for leave.

A.142 He is serious, a good worker. His physical fitness was a great asset to our Sports organization and he often trained the men after parade hours by giving them road walking or swimming when we were in Petworth.

PROSECUTION DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE

(In the opinion of the court and of the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B))

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE:

To refer back to my opening Address. Firstly, the period on which we contend to have proved that Robert was on leave. He had made his mind up at the last minute to go on leave. It was Xmas and most of the officers were away and he had no duties to perform. He thought that under those circumstances he might get leave from his Wg - which he did. He missed his transportation back - a rather difficult bus ride from the suburbs of London, and he followed the proper procedure by phoning the School and telling them he had been delayed and would be a day late. He knew that his first duty was on Tues 28th and took the trouble to find out if that had been changed or not. He found out that it wasn't and asked the Orderly Officer to tell the Coy Officer he would be in the next day. It isn't customary for an officer coming back,(and this was brought out by Mr Singer) to report in from leave; but he reported straight to his Comd on the 27th. He didn't realize that he was considered absent without leave.

THE PROSECUTION MAKES NO CLOSING ADDRESS.

SUMMING-UP BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE.

I want to make it clear that my function is separate and distinct from that of the court. Mine concerns the Law only and the court is concerned with the facts - and on those matters of facts they are the sole and only judges. The usual principles prevail. The accused is innocent until proven guilty. He must be proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, and if any reasonable doubt exists in the minds of the court then they must give the benefit of that doubt to the accused and grant an acquittal. On the facts as they have been brought out today, there is only one comment I have to make - that is that a certain specific procedure is laid down with which the accused is familiar according to his own statement. He did not follow that procedure. Therefore, he must have known when he left at 1915 hrs on 24 Dec that he did not have proper permission to be away and I think perhaps the crux of the whole matter is in the remark by the Defending Officer in his closing address when he said that the accused made his mind up to go on leave, and if you emphasise the words "his" and "go" you have the crux of the matter. He didn't make up his mind to apply for leave; but made up his mind to go. There is, however, on the other side of the slate the fact that the accused was present in his quarters at 2030 hrs on the 27th Dec, which is different from the Charge - which states his first appearance was 0820 hrs 28 Dec. Are there any points that either the Defending Officer or the Prosecutor wish to raise, otherwise.....

Defending Officer: From the Defence point of view your comment that he made his mind up to go on leave, we feel very definitely that if that impression has been given then it is a mistake.

Judge-Advocate: No, I think that that impression was not given. The man knows through the procedure that he must apply to his Sjt (that is the man in the Platoon) and undoubtedly he will get his pass. He knows that if he wants to go on leave he tries to get permission to go.

Defending Officer: May we contend that that is not a similar comparison. This officer decided not to go on leave at first. We mentioned the fact that on the 24th Dec he had the first drink of his life. He had been "home sick" and had not decided to go on leave, but on that late date he made up his mind very definitely to try and get some leave.

Judge-Advocate: ~~But he did not get the permission that he~~ himself knew was required.

Defending Officer: We hope to have shown the court that it was too late to do that. He knew it was too late to do that, but he considered that he had no work to do and that he could get sufficient authority from his Wg and I feel, as his Wg Comd, that we should stand by that pass, admitting that the pass should not have been issued. But I feel in all sincerity that the fault is not Robert's.

President: I feel the court is in a position to make up its own mind. I think that is not a fact, but simply an opinion.

Character Ref. Lieut. F. de S. Robert, R. de Mais.

I have known Lieut. Robert for well over two years. During that time I have lived and worked close to him both in Canada and Overseas for a year and a half.

In that time I have always known him to be a straightforward, hard-working and conscientious officer. To my knowledge he has never taken a drink of any alcoholic beverages of any description. His associations with the opposite sex in this country to my knowledge have been nil.

His general knowledge and his knowledge of infantry are very sound and of great value to the army at the moment.

It has come as a very great surprise and shock to me to hear that this officer is in trouble. Knowing him so well I find it most difficult to believe.

A year afterwards I was posted to B Company as 2 i/c and Lieut F de S Robert through his own request was also posted in B Company as a Pl Comdr which he proved to be a good officer in a rifle Company and liked by his men and the officers he worked with.

1st Witness for the prosecution | M 105 176 Pte Dodd W. W. 1 S Coln
Spec. Employ. Coy duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

On the night of 3 Nov 44 I was on guard duty on the East Wall of Canada Bks. At about 1930 hrs that night a kit bag and blankets came over the wall of Canada Bks. There were I believe 8 blankets, being issue of both Cdn. and American types. There were also a couple of pairs of trousers and a greatcoat. I didnt examine the articles. I dont know what the kit bag contained. I went and got Pte Durham and we waited about 10 yds from the blankets. About 5 min. later two men came along the path by the wall and started to gather up the blankets. The two men were the accused whom I recognized in Court. We arrested them and took them to the guard room. There Sgt McLatchy took charge of them. I watched the kit from the time it was thrown over the wall to the time it arrived at the guard room.

Cross-exam
I dont know who threw the bundle over the wall. The people who picked up the bundle came along the path.
The path was a common thoroughfare.
The people could use the path with honest intentions.
I'd pick up kit I saw on the ground and take it to the guard room if I were walking along the path and found it lying there.

Re-exam
As far as I know the path is not out of bounds.

By Court
I was on the outside of the wall.
You could see about 50 yds at the time.
The blankets and kit bag fell right beside me.

By J.A.
I was standing on the path.
The kit bag was on the path some of the blankets were on the path and some were off the path.
The B.D. was off the path.
The accused were gathering the kit up when arrested.
They were gathering up the blankets.
They never said anything when arrested.
They spoke some French between themselves on the way to the Guard Room.
The Guard Room is about 250 yds from the spot where the kit came over the wall.

2nd Witness for the prosecution | B 138 532. Pte Dirksen, U.H 18 Edm Spec. Employ: Coy duty sworn. is examined by the prosecution.

On the night of 3 NOV 44, I was employed on the north wall of Canada Bks on guard duty. My duty was to keep stuff from coming over the wall and the Italians from going over it. At Pte Dodds request I went to help him on the east wall. I met as I arrived a kit bag came from the inside of the wall to the outside. There were some blankets, kit bag and BD. trousers came over the wall. Dodds and I laid down and waited until the accused arrived. They all in court and I recognize them. They came from the south along the outside of the wall. They walked up to the kit and as they touched the first blanket I stopped them. I made them pick up the equipment and carry it to the guard room. The kit was turned over to Sgt McLatchy. At about 2100 hrs I accompanied Sgt McLatchy to the same place where we picked up a pair of B.D. trousers. The trousers were taken to the guard room where Sgt McLatchy took charge of them.

Cross-exam

I don't know who threw the kit over the wall. The accused came along the path in a normal manner.

When the accused arrived at the point where the blankets were, they only touched a blanket. I didn't give them a chance to turn them in on their own.

By Court

There is no gate in the east wall of Canada Bks.

To get out of the Bks you have to go through the South gate.

There is just a footpath along the east wall - it leads to an Italian house.

The wall is about 16 ft high.

By J.A.

I was on the outside of the wall.

The blankets were over the wall before I joined Pte Dodds and the kit bag came over just as I joined Pte Dodd.

I was at the corner of the North and east wall when Pte Dodd called me.

He didn't call very loudly - the kit bag hit him on the head just as he called.

I didn't know exactly whether he was calling me or talking to someone.

The noise of the bag hitting the ground was quite loud.

Both Pte Dodd and I were outside the wall.

Neither the accused said anything to me when I stopped them.

They said something to me between the place they were stopped and the guard room about a quarter of a mile away.

They were talking in French.
The kit came over the wall at about 1930 hrs 3 Nov 44.

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

Court adjourned at 1200 hrs.

Court reassembled at 1400 hrs. The same members being present.

The prosecutor informed the Court that K 51350 Pte Pamiter N.S. a witness on the 4th and 5th charges was not available.

D 4. Def. Offr. Submission.

The Def. Offr submitted that there is not a prima facie case established by the prosecution. No evidence which would tend to point to who stole the goods or as to who was in possession of them. The accused were not allowed to pick them up. The accused were given no chance to turn the articles in. No evidence of any statements being made by the accused - they were within their legal rights in not making statements. Not sufficient evidence submitted on charges 2 - 7 to place the accused on their defence.

Prosecutor's Reply.

The evidence submitted as to the actual taking is common tactics. While this evidence is not as good as that of eye witnesses it is sometimes better. The fact that they came along the path and the guard arrested them and that they made no vehement denial of the transaction. The first thing an innocent man would do when accosted by a guard would be to say "I have just found them". The time between the "bit coming over the wall and the arrival of the accused at the bit would take about the time suggested by the witnesses. This would indicate the guilt of the accused. If you should find that the accused threw the kit over the wall it is up to them to explain possession of the kit. No evidence can be offered on the ownership of the goods mentioned in the 4th & 5th charges due to the absence of a witness.

6 DMR

D.J. Offr.s Reply

The case is supposed to be tried according to the evidence. No evidence directly or indirectly incriminates the accused. No evidence as to who stole the articles. They merely touched ~~the~~ a blanket at the time of their arrest no one can state but that their actions were honest.

Re-consideration of Punishment of Robert R

First of all I would like to sum up briefly the events of this case. He is a foreigner who came to England to serve his country he was employed as an apprentice to a pattern maker. He was by occupation so employed and he arrived here 3 years ago.

Now I would ask the court to be lenient with this man on compassionate grounds. He stayed with his wife during the war in Dublin he only did what any honorable man would do. As his previous record has not been any thing good to proceed that he would not get leave in order to fix things up. And as soon as things were more or less settled he returned to take his punishment. From his sworn statement I think that he has had plenty of trouble already. He and his wife & children are not catered at home and as he was married his wife back after leaving home was what he could not afford to pay the £1.0.0 a week which he was being charged. In view of all this I hope no reflection in asking the court to be lenient with Pte Roberts.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE (CONT'D)

BY ACCUSED for the DEFENCE

I stayed at home with her to see how she would be getting on, but her father come home one day on leave, and started picking on her right away, using foul language, which I told him to stop or there would be trouble. My wife told me to go out for a walk so I wouldn't cause any trouble in the house. I stayed out for a couple of hours and then on my return I went into the house and saw my wife. Her father had beat her up pretty bad in the face, I did not see the father, as he went back to camp that night. I then stayed around the house waiting for him to come on leave again. I stayed around for about 15 days, which made me absent about 38 days, so I told my wife that if he did not come back the following day that I would have to go back and report at camp which I did."

FIRST WITNESS for the DEFENCE

The accused, D 77223 Tpr. Roberts, A., 32nd Cdn. Recce Regt. (RMR), on the strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states,

"I went A.W.L. on 2 Jun 43 till 2329 hrs 16 Jun 43. I went down to my wife's place at 8 Hill dale Road, West Sutton, Surrey. I had no intention of staying A.W.L., but I found out from my wife that she was having a very bad time at home. Her father had threatened to put her out of the house which he did when I was A.W.L. We were turned out about 11 o'clock at night and had no place to go, but my wife thought of some friend's place where she might be able to stay a week or so, but before we went to this place, we had to stay in shelters, we had our baby daughter with us which was only 4 months old. We slept in shelters for about two days, then the baby took pretty sick, so we then had to go to her friend's place. We got there and the lady gave my wife a room. I did not want to come back till I found out that the baby was going to get better. She got better about the 15th of Jun and then I decided to go back on the 16th, which I did. On 19th Jun 43 I was put under open arrest not thinking about going out, I went down to Woking to a show. I got in just after 11 o'clock but I did not report in the Orderly Sgt., so he had me marked out for 8 hours. I then went A.W.L. again 20 Jun 43 till 1000 hrs 24 Jul 43. I went down to my wife's where she was staying at 88 Church Lane, Chessington Surrey. I learned from her that she was not getting along very well there and that she wanted to go back to her mother & father's place, but of course I did not want her to go because she does not get along with the family, but she insisted on going back, so I took her home.

FIRST WITNESS for the DEFENCE

I stayed at home with her to see how she would be getting on, but her father came home one day on leave, and started picking on her right away, using foul language, which I told him to stop or there would be trouble. My wife told me to go out for a walk so I wouldn't cause any trouble in the house. I stayed out for a couple of hours and then on my return I went into the house and saw my wife. Her father had beat her up pretty bad in the face, I did not see the father, as he went back to camp that night. I then stayed around the house waiting for him to come on leave again. I stayed around for about 15 days, which made me absent about 32 days, so I told my wife that if he did not come back the following day that I would have to go back and report at camp which I did."

FIRST WITNESS for the DEFENCE

The accused, D 77283 Tpr. Roberts, A., 53nd Cdn. Recce Regt. (RHA), on the strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states,

"I went A.W.L. on 2 Jun 43 till 2329 hrs 16 Jun 43. I went down to my wife's place at 8 Hill dale Road, West Sutton, Surrey. I had no intention of staying A.W.L., but I found out from my wife that she was having a very bad time at home. Her father had threatened to put her out of the house which he did when I was A.W.L. We were turned out about 11 o'clock at night and had no place to go, but my wife thought of some friend's place where she might be able to stay a week or so, but before we went to this place, we had to stay in shelters, we had our baby daughter with us which was only 4 months old. We slept in shelters for about two days, then the baby took pretty sick, so we then had to go to her friend's place. We got there and the lady gave my wife a room. I did not want to come back till I found out that the baby was going to get better. She got better about the 15th of Jun and then I decided to go back on the 16th, which I did. On 19th Jun 43 I was put under open arrest not thinking about going out, I went down to Woking to a show. I got in just after 11 o'clock but I did not report in the Orderly Sgt., so he had me marked out for 8 hours. I then went A.W.L. again 20 Jun 43 till 1000 hrs 24 Jul 43. I went down to my wife's where she was staying at 68 Church Lane, Chessington Surrey. I learned from her that she was not getting along very well there and that she wanted to go back to her mother & father's place, but of course I did not want her to go because she does not get along with the family, but she insisted on going back, so I took her back

FIRST WITNESS for the DEFENCE

I stayed at home with her to see how she would be getting on, but her father came home one day on leave, and started picking on her right away, using foul language, which I told him to stop or there would be trouble. My wife told me to go out for a walk so I wouldn't cause any trouble in the house. I stayed out for a couple of hours and then on my return I went into the house and saw my wife. Her father had beat her up pretty bad in the face, I did not see the father, as he went back to camp that night. I then stayed around the house waiting for him to come on leave again. I stayed around for about 15 days, which made me absent about 32 days, so I told my wife that if he did not come back the following day that I would have to go back and report at camp which I did."

PLEA IN MITIGATION for

D-77223 Tpr Arthur ROBERTS, 9 Bn, 2 CBRG

Defending Officer

Sir as you have the NPM.6 of the accused in front of you I would like to explain that I have known this soldier both in the Army and in civilian life and I would like to explain the reason for the offences up to date in mitigation of the punishment. When he joined the Army he was a pretty good soldier and had very little if anything against him before coming Overseas. Shortly after he came overseas a women got ahold of him and knowing this soldier and knowing the woman I can well understand Roberts getting into trouble. She encouraged him to go AWL. It is unexcusable and I admit it is unexcusable. This girl has had a baby and they were married in Apr 43. After marriage she was turned out of home. The baby was born in Feb 43 prior to marriage. Owing to their financial condition the baby has been ill and unable to get proper care. On Apr 28,44 Roberts was posted to 9 CBR Bn and unfortunately he was unable to be granted 48 hrs leave to go and have his wife looked after. She had no place to stay and was living in air raid shelters, I know this to be a fact. Roberts got a letter to say that she was living in Cheam, Surrey and when his leave was refused he took it anyway. After looking around for a while he got a room for her in Hill Dale, Sutton.

Knowing the soldier as I do, if the cause of his trouble was away from this country I am quite sure the soldier would be a pretty good boy and I have made arrangements through the Padre to have her sent to Canada. She is willing to go and if she goes I am sure Roberts will settle down. I have known him at home and in the RWRs. We had some trouble with him but it was all through his wife. The Padre of the RWRs has taken this up with him before and assured me that if the wife went home to Canada he would settle down. She did not want to go at first but she has now agreed to it when passage can be arranged. Accordingly she should be on her way in a couple of months. I ask the Court to consider the circumstances of the case. The accused had this on his mind when he went AWL, his wife walking the streets and no money. It should award a light sentence rather than a heavy punishment. The woman is entirely at fault and he has been a victim of circumstances through out his time in the Army. Tpr Roberts is a bit easily lead and always has been and if the cause of grievance is done away with by sending her to Canada where his parents will look after her he should be able to settle down. Under the circumstances if the punishment for the crime is lenient so that Roberts can get back on his feet again he will be an asset to the Cdn Army.

PROSECUTION

1st Witness, Mr Alfred Trinder, Liverpool Arms Hotel, Haywards Heath having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecuting Officer:

Q. 5 Have you any occasion to recall the evening of 18 Feb?
A. 5 Yes, I have.

Q. 6 Would you tell the Court your account of this evening?
A. 6 I was at home and sitting in the back room with some of my friends and about 9.45 my wife came to me and asked me to come out as there was trouble brewing. I came through into the big room and I saw a man I know as Wilson trying to cause a row with a Sgt of the RCASC. I got there and tried to separate them and asked them not to quarrel in my house. The Sgt was definitely not quarrelsome and said he did not want a row.

Q. 7 Had the fight actually begun when you went in the big room?
A. 7 No, sir.

Q. 8 What was going on at that time?
A. 8 Wilson was definitely agitating for a row.

Q. 9 What did he say?
A. 9 He was using violent and foul language and the next thing I saw was the man Wilson striking the Sgt and then the fight began.

Q. 10 How many soldiers were in the pub?
A. 10 About 7 or 8.

Q. 11 How many civilians?
A. 11 2 or 3.

Q. 12 And when the fight started, did all the soldiers join in?
A. 12 No, I tried to get in between Wilson and the Sgt when I saw a chair coming towards me.

Q. 13 Who had the chair?
A. 13 Clements.

Q. 14 How long did this fight last?
A. 14 About 5 or 6 minutes.

Q. 15 Who, in your opinion, caused the fight?
A. 15 Definitely Wilson.

Q. 16 By striking the Sgt?
A. 16 Yes.

Q. 17 Did the entire number of soldiers ultimately join in the fight?
A. 17 No, some got out of the house, that is some RCASC chaps. I saw the accused fighting in the same room. In the fight itself there was a tremendous lot of glasses broken and three chairs in the big room. I got in behind the bar and told my wife to phone the police.

Q. 18 In connection with the breakages, did you see anyone in particular, do any damage?
A. 18 The damage was done during the fighting.

Q. 19 Did you see anyone do any damage?
A. 19 Well I saw Wilson push the counter stand over.

Q. 20 Describe the counter stand?
A. 20 It is a brass stand with 2 brass brackets with a big long plate glass ½" thick, with a glass top where our glasses stand on. This was broken after I got in the big room. I then told my wife to phone the police. Wilson pushed the stand over and said "I'll break your fucking pub up".

Q. 21 You mention the accused was fighting. Did you see him fighting at any other time?
A. 21 He was fighting down at the bottom end of the room.

Q. 22 How many was he fighting with?
A. 22 I don't know.

Q. 23 Was he fighting near the door?
A. 23 No he was farthest away from the door. The accused did not push over the brass stand.

Q. 24 Did you see anyone else besides Wilson cause any damage?
A. 24 Only Clements with the chair and I think where the accused was fighting there were quite a few glasses broken.

Cross Examination by the Defending Officer

Q. 25 You have stated that you got to the scene of the disturbance at quarter to ten?
A. 25 Approximately that time.

Q. 26 Were you in the saloon or bar prior to that, that evening?
A. 26 No, I was in the back room entertaining some friends. I had been in the bar early in the evening but previous to the time when these soldiers came in there.

Q. 27 Where were you when you observed this disturbance?
A. 27 Part of the time in the big room where it started and e eventually back of the bar.

Q. 28 Did you see the accused break any glasses in the large room?
A. 28 I think I have already stated that the mix-up was so great I could not say who broke the glasses in the big room.

Q. 29 With regard to the stand, was it quite a strong fixture?
A. 29 Yes, it was and it had been on that bar for over 60 years.

Q. 30 You saw Wilson break it down?
A. 30 Yes, I definitely saw him push it over.

Q. 31 When Wilson commited this act, was there any other person present in the bar?
A. 31 My wife.

Q. 32 Just the three of you--you, your wife and Wilson?
A. 32 I believe there was another person in there, a man known as Mr. Keene.

Q. 33 Did you, while you were in the bar, have anything in your hands?
A. 33 No, but I picked up the stand off the floor.

Q. 34 What was your intention?
A. 34 To put it out of the way so we could start to get the pub cleared out.

Q. 35 Where did Wilson grasp this stand?
A. 35 He pushed it over.

Q. 36 During this time the other 2 Cape Bretons were in the large room?
A. 36 I saw Clements go out before the stand was pushed over. I would not like to make a statement that he was there.

Q. 37 You mentioned that you got in when the row was starting?
A. 37 I was called in just previous to the row starting.

Q. 38 Would you say it had started when you arrived?
A. 38 No, it had not, but it was on the point of starting when I arrived.

Q. 39 Did you hear the accused make any remark?
A. 39 I heard some very funny remarks and some foul language. Who made them I could not definitely say.

Q. 40 Did you attempt any force against Wilson?
A. 40 I attempted no force against him.

By the Judge Advocate

Q. 41 When did you first see the accused in your house that evening?
A. 41 When I went in the big room. The first I noticed him was when he started fighting.

Q. 42 Then you saw the accused start to fight?
A. 42 Yes.

Q. 43 With whom?
A. 43 That is difficult to say.

Q. 44 With another soldier?
A. 44 Yes.

Q. 45 Did you see him after that?
A. 45 Yes, I saw him leave the pub and I saw him with Wilson when the police were there.

Q. 46 Did you hear the accused say anything?
A. 46 I never heard Roberts talking at all.

Q. 47 Who would you say started this fight?
A. 47 Definitely Wilson.

Q. 48 Then the accused joined in?
A. 48 Yes.

Q. 49 After that the general fight started?
A. 49 Yes.

Q. 50 Could you tell the court the actual damage occasioned to you as a result of the man Wilson pushing over this stand?

A. 50 I should imagine the cost of the stand and the glasses to be about £9 or £10.

Q. 51 How do you arrive at these figures?
A. 51 By a rough estimate. The stand is broken beyond repair. I can only make my own rough estimate as the stand was in the place when I came there. The glasses are quite a high price now.

Q. 52 Could you itemize the various items which you claim were damaged?
A. 52 No I can only give a rough estimate. In my £10, I included the chairs, tables and a number of glasses which were broken in the big room. I can only give an estimate There were 30 to 35 glasses on this stand. The stand was practically full as the house was very quiet this evening.

Q. 53 You estimate the damage done by Wilson as about £10?
A. 53 Yes.

Q. 54 Do you recognize Wilson?
A. 54 Yes.

Q. 55 Do you recognize the accused, Roberts?
A. 55 Yes, there. (Points to the accused).

By the Court

Q. 56 When you were intervening between Wilson and the Sgt were you struck by that chair?
A. 56 No I managed to dodge it.

Q. 57 Did your friends join in the fight?
A. 57 My friends were in the back room and never came in the bar.

Q. 58 Did you attempt to strike any of those who were fighting?
A. 58 No, sir.

Q. 59 Concerning the glasses, you say there were six or seven soldiers and two or three civilians. Were they coming and going all evening?
A. 59 Yes.

Q. 60 Is it a custom for your customers to bring their glasses to the bar to get them refilled?
A. 60 Yes, sir it is.

Q. 127 You are in Sp Coy of the C B Highrs?
A. 127 Yes, sir.

Q. 128 You remember the evening of Feb 18, 1943?
A. 128 Yes, sir.

Q. 129 Why do you remember that night?
A. 129 I was arrested that night.

Q. 130 Will you tell the Court why you were arrested and the facts leading up to your arrest?
A. 130 Wilson, Clements and I went to Haywards Heath on 18 Feb. Wilson and I went into the Heath Hotel and Clements left us. We had a few beers and then Clements came later on. He was with two women. We had a beer or two and then went to the Liverpool Arms Hotel and we had a beer there and shanty for the women. There was another woman there and we started talking to her and an ASC fellow came over and butted in. He and the woman started talking and Wilson went up and bought a few drinks. Then on his way back, this ASC fellow asked Wilson what the Jesus was he looking at, so the accused replied "Not Much". Then they had a little argument and I think Clements broke up the argument. Then Wilson, Clements and the two women played a game of darts. Then we decided to leave. The two women went out ahead and Clements followed them. This same ASC fellow stepped in front of Wilson and started the argument again. There was another fellow behind Wilson so I asked him why he was going to hit him and the fellow Wilson was talking with came after me, took a punch at me and then me and him started to fight and Wilson tried to keep the rest back. I heard him say distinctly "Give them a fair chance". After that we made our way for the door and tried to get out. When it broke up, the five of us were in the other room leading out. We all went out together and walked down the street. Then I and the accused went back later on as I had lost my Glengarry and to see whether I could find it. We did not go in the pub. A fellow outside handed me my Glengarry. Then the police came along and took us both to jail and later one of our trucks came out and took us to the guard house.

Q. 131 Where was the proprietor when the disturbance started?
A. 131 He was behind the counter. I did not see him in front of the counter. He stayed there during the fight.

Q. 132 Could you see him during the fight?
A. 132 No one of us looked. I did not see him while I was fighting.

Q. 133 Were you close to Wilson while you were fighting?
A. 133 Yes, sir, He was right beside me.

Q. 134 Did you succeed in staying close together?
A. 134 Yes, sir.

Q. 135 Where did this fight take place?
A. 135 In the big room.

Q. 136 Did you remain close together until it ended?
A. 136 Yes, I tried hard to keep close to him and get out of the pub with Wilson.

Q. 137 Did you see Wilson do any damage in the pub?
A. 137 No, sir, I did not.

Q. 138 Did you do any damage in the pub?
A. 138 No, sir, all I did was fight my way clear.

Q. 139 When violence started, who struck the first blow?
A. 139 This fellow I was fighting with swung first and I clinched with him and started to fight.

Q. 140 During this fight were you close to the part known as the bar?
A. 140 No, sir, I was away from the bar.

Q. 141 How far?

A. 162 Clements, Roberts and I went to Haywards Heath and went to the Heath Hotel. Clements did not come along to the hotel but went to meet his girl. Roberts and I had a few drinks of beer. About a half hour after, Clements and Miss Harwood came in the Heath Hotel as also my girl friend. We drank there until about 8 o'clock and from there went to the Liverpool Arms Hotel.

Q. 163 When you came to the Liverpool Arms Hotel, who was there?

A. 170 Yes.

Q. 171 Then what happened?
A. 171 The girls and Clements left and the accused and I were drinking our last half glass of beer when an ASC fellow jumped in front of me and said "You are pretty saucy". We started arguing back and forth. Then the next thing I saw was the fellow I was arguing with hit the accused.

Q. 172 Why did he hit the accused?
A. 172 He was standing in front of me and when he swung I dodged and he hit the accused who was standing beside me. We all started to crowd around the accused and I saw one fellow with a chair.

Q. 173 Who had the chair?
A. 173 An ASC fellow.

Q. 174 What was he doing with the chair?
A. 174 He had it by the back. I asked him what he was going to do. He told me to keep the hell out of it or I would get hurt so I hit him and he and I got into a fight then. While I was fighting with him an ASC fellow tried to hit me with a chair and the proprietor was trying to hit me with a brass pipe about two feet long. I was knocked against a table and happened to knock some glasses to the floor.

Q. 175 These glasses were on the table in the big room?
A. 175 Yes, sir.

Q. 176 Will you go on?
A. 176 The fighting got quietened down and they stopped. They all started to go out. We came in the big room and Clements was there. The accused and I went in the big room and came into another little part of the pub. Clements, Miss Harwood and Miss White were standing out there. We went out together. We got half way up the lane and the accused had lost his cape and we went back with him.

A. 179 No, sir.

A. 181 No, sir, I never noticed any.

A. 183 Yes, sir.

A. 207 I don't know sir.

Q. 208 You and he have not been bad friends?
A. 208 No, sir.

By the Court

Q. 209 In Mr Trinder's evidence he made a statement that he had tried to separate you. Is that so?
A. 209 I never saw him from back of the bar.

Q. 210 You had been drinking a long time. You knew what you were doing?
A. 210 Yes, sir.

A. 211 No, sir.

Q. 212 If Mr Trinder had come up and spoken to you, you would have known it?
A. 212 Yes, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

The Defence is closed.

The Closing Address by the Defending Officer is on a separate sheet, marked "X" and attached to the proceedings.

The Closing Address by the Prosecuting Officer is on a separate sheet, marked "Y" and attached to the proceedings.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate a summing up by the latter is considered unnecessary.

The Court is now closed to consider the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it and the findings on the second and third charges of 'Not Guilty' are pronounced.

The charge to which the accused pleaded 'Guilty' is read to the accused.

President to accused

Q. 213 Do you desire to make any statement of the circumstances in reference to the charge to which you have pleaded guilty?
A. 213 No, sir.

Summary of Evidence is read aloud, in the presence of the accused, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

President to accused

Q. 214 Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A. 214 No, sir.

Q. 215 Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call witnesses as to character?
A. 215 No, sir.

Statement of Character and Service and Field Conduct Sheet, signed in the manner required by A.A. 163 (1) (h) and purporting to refer to the accused by his number, rank, name, and Corps are produced to the Court, read, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

President to accused

Q. 216 Do you wish to address the Court on the Statements of Character, Service and Conduct and in mitigation of punishment?
A. 216 Yes, sir.

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation of punishment:

"The accused has pleaded guilty to the first charge and my remarks will be confined to mitigation of punishment.

The field conduct sheet of the accused discloses a number of crimes all of a petty nature. Most of these were committed while the accused was in Canada. He enlisted as a volunteer and came overseas in November of 1941. Since coming overseas he has had only four crimes or convictions of a very trifling nature.

The accused has built up quite a reputation in this regt as a boxer and this affects to some degree, the offences under consideration. The accused was promised leave on the 29 Dec as his privilege leave came due in that month. Due to the interregimental tournaments at that time, the accused did not get his leave. He went on a course and on returning he felt that he had not received very fair treatment with regard to leave and decided to go A.W.L. He belongs to my platoon and I know he is a capable soldier."

The Court is now closed to consider the sentence.

CERTIFIED A TRUE RECORD OF THIS TRIAL, this 15th day of April, 1943.

G Mellonson Captain
Judge Advocate

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

There are three charges against the accused. The first is a charge of A.W.L. for a period of 39 days to which the accused has pleaded guilty.

The second charge is under Sec 40 of the AA is with regard to causing a disturbance in a hotel--the Liverpool Arms. In connection with this charge, the evidence for the prosecution was evidence given by Mr Trinder, the proprietor. He did mention that he saw the accused fighting. I submit that there was no evidence brought out to show that the accused actually caused a disturbance. The accused, on his own admission, states he did take part in the disturbance, but did not cause it.

With regard to the third charge referring to causing damage to the extent of £15, in the evidence given by the hotel proprietor, as I recall it, there was no mention made to any actual damage done by the accused. This is concurred in by Miss Harwood's evidence. She was in a position to watch the accused and did not seem him commit any damage.

The question of the amount. The soldier is charged in that he in company of 2 other soldiers caused damage to the amount of £15. There is nothing in the evidence to show that damage to the amount of £15 was caused. The witness, Mr Trinder was unable to produce any list or statement of actual damage. Therefore, in connection with these two charges, I submit that there is no evidence that the accused caused a disturbance in regard to the second charge and in regard to the third charge, there is no direct evidence to show he actually did any damage.

Gwm.

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

So far as the second and third charges are concerned, I agree with the defence that the evidence in support thereof is very slight, indeed. At the same time it is obvious that a fight of this kind, in which a number of men are involved can hardly be the fault of one man and therefore I suggest that the court decide the amount of damage so that Roberts can pay a reasonable portion of the £15 mentioned in the charge.

On Roberts' own admission, he was fighting in the Liverpool Arms Hotel on the 18 Feb, in company with two other members of his own unit. This is supported by the rest of the evidence and is not disputed by the defence. It all indicates that Roberts was a partial cause of the disturbance at that time and as I have already said, a disturbance of this kind cannot be blamed on only one man. All who participate are responsible for the results.

If Miss Harwood is an answer to anyone's prayers, she certainly is not to a prosecuting officer. Her evidence is contradictory and as a matter of fact was a witness for the defence in the case of Clements. It is true that Miss Harwood did not see any damage done, but she was not in a position to see what went on regarding the glass stand on the bar and that is the chief item of damage of which Mr Trinder complains. I, therefore, feel that the second charge is substantiated by the evidence and that the third charge will also be substantiated and think that the accused should be found guilty of causing some of the damage.

So far as concerns the self defence aspect of the accused which was brought out on his behalf, there is no evidence to disprove that, and it may be, in part, correct, but I feel that no man would be on the defensive continually and could easily have got out of range of the twenty or thirty men who were in the pub. I do not think that self defence is a plea for the defence.

Statement of Miss Margaret Hawood

I am Miss Margaret Hawood, of 36 Weston Road, Haywards Heath. Dr 14 Feb 43 in Haywards Heath I was out in the same party as Pte Wilson J.R. & Pte Roberts, A.A. We were all at the Liverpool Arms Hotel around 8.30 pm in the evening when Pte Wilson & Roberts started arguing with some Service Corps chaps. Around 9.30 the Elements, with whom I was, left the others & went out. As they didn't follow, Pte Clements went back to get them. A few minutes later I went back into the Hotel when I saw Pte Wilson & Roberts fighting with the Service Corps chaps. I saw Wilson knock some glasses off a table during the scuffle. The glasses were smashed. Both Pte Wilson & Roberts and Roberts, A.A. are members of the C.B.H. Dated & signed this 12th day of April 43.

trial by Court Martial

D.I. Mac Donald Maj

Medical Officer 4 Cdn Rft Bn. Capt

1st Witness for Defence I-1

Lieut O K H Keane North Staffs Regt 4 CBK

Sworn, having been duly sworn states:

I knew the accused Pte Roberts when he was a Base Gunner in my platoon. I knew him for 4 years 45 with 4 A.A. 45.

The Japanese Platoon Cmdr gave Pte Roberts a good recommendation and while he served with me he was an excellent Base Gunner, and I was delighted to have him with me and his Branches as a soldier.

R.P. 43(b) complied with.

Plea of mitigation in the case of 52764 Pte ROBERTS, C. R. charged with an offence under AA 15(1)

The soldier joined the army on 6 Jul 42 and proceeded to the U.K. on 8 Jan 43. He came to France on Aug 44 and went to his unit - the NORTH SHORE REGT on 6 Oct 44 where he served as a rifleman, an infantry soldier of the line until 4 Feb 45. He fought with his regiment through some of the toughest fighting of the war, the clearing of the SCHELDT. He went with the regiment into GHENT. He showed all the qualities of a good soldier. He had no crimes of any kind and worked hard. When he came to GHENT his first wish was to get back to his regiment. This could not be done so he was forced to remain in GHENT. I beg to point out to the court that the contrast between fighting and living under front line conditions and living in any large Belgian city with its many diversions is considerable and it is apparent that these diversions proved too much for this man. He went absent with no intention of evading action, on the front line but rather because he took a chance on seeing a bit of the brighter side of life. This man is not, essentially, a bad soldier. He fought hard and well and wishes to do so again. I trust that in view of this man's past conduct and his past records as a soldier, along with his sincere desire to serve with his regiment again that the court will view his crime with as much leniency as is possible.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... [5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... [1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.[1]

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?[1]

Lieut O K H Kearns N Shore Regt 4 CBR Bn having been duly sworn states:

I knew the accused, Pte Roberts, when he was a Bren Gunner in my platoon.

I knew him from 4 Jan 45 until Feb 45.

The former Platoon Cmdr gave Pte Roberts a good recommendation and while he served with me, he was an excellent Bren Gunner, and I was satisfied as to his work and his character as a soldier.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

Plea of mitigation in the case of F5716* Pte Roberts C R charged with an offence under AA 15(1)

This soldier joined the army on 6 Jul 43 and preceeded to the UK on 8 May 43. He came to France in Aug 44 and went to his unit the NORTH SHORE REGT on 6 Oct 44 where he served as a rifleman, an infantry soldier of the line, until 4 Feb 44. He fought with his regiment through some of the toughest fighting of the war, the clearing of the Scheldt. During his time with the regiment he showed all the qualities of a good soldier. He had no crimes of any kinds and worked hard. When he came to GHENT his first wish was to get back to his regiment. This could not be done so he was forced to remain in GHENT. I beg to point out to the court that the contrast between fighting and living under front line conditions and living in any large Belgian city with its many diversions is considerable and it is appare nt that these diversions proved too much for this man. He went absent with no intention of evading action in the front line but rather because he took a chance on seeing a bit of the brighter side of life. This man is not, essentially, a bad soldier. He fought hard and well and wishes to do so again. I trust that in view of this man's past conduct and his past record as a soldier, along with his sincere desire to serve with his regiment again that the court will view his crime with some degree of leniency.

Statement in Mitigation

Re: C. 20125 Pte. Roberts, D.E.A.

Sir:

I joined the Army on September 5, 1939 at the age of 19 with the Camerons of Canada. On July 7, 1940, I landed with my regiment in Iceland where I remained for 10 months. Then I arrived with the regiment in England on May 2, 1941. Since the time I joined in Sept, 1939 until about two months ago I was with the Camerons, a term of nearly four years. I was No 1 Medical Runner with the Camerons until Nov 1942, when I became a clerk in the Company Orderly Room. I was sent on a clerk's course on Feb 1, 1943 for seven weeks, after which I was sent to # 5 C.I.R.U. where I worked in the Records Office for 12 months. Then I was suddenly warned for draft and sent to 1 C.B.R.D, where I was informed of my being a reinforcement with the H. and P.E Regiment. This made me sore for I had been with the Camerons for nearly 4 years and had made many friends in the regiment. I became fed up and went A.W.L particularly when we were confined to barracks every week-end for 5 weeks. Had I known that the H+P.E Regiment were going to Sicily I certainly would not have gone A.W.L.

(over)

THE CO. DIRECTS THAT EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH:

FIRST WITNESS

L-91137 SQMS Clunie G.E.A. 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On Sunday 5 Nov 1944 as Sgt Major of the camp, with permission from the O.C. I laid on one lorry to transport personnel of the unit from camp to Antwerp for recreational purposes. The lorry was due to depart from camp 1300 hrs and to depart from Cdn Car Park Antwerp 2300 hrs the same night. The N.C.O. in charge of the lorry was told to advise the men the time of departure of the lorry from Antwerp. The accused declines to cross examine.

(Sgd) G Clunie, SQMS

H-64695 Cpl Wilson R.G. of the 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On the night 5 Nov 44 I was in charge of the recreational lorry despatched from the camp to Antwerp. The accused Pte. Roberts was one of the passengers. All personnel travelling in the vehicle on debusement at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp were warned that the lorry would be leaving Antwerp to return to Camp at 2300 hrs. At later than 2300 hrs three men of whom Pte Roberts was one were not present. We waited until approximately 2325 hrs and these men still did not show up so we departed from Antwerp for camp. I reported the absentees to the Sgt. Major on the morning of the 6 Nov 44 before morning parade.

Witness cross-examined by the accused;

Q. What kind of a night was it ?

A. It was definately a dark and rainy night making it difficult to get around in a strange place.

Q. Did the vehicle leave the same gate as it went into the Car Park ?

A. There is an "In and "Out" gate at the Park and the vehicle left by the "Out" gate.

(Sgd) R.G. Wilson

THIRD WITNESS:

H87118 Pte Mower G.E. 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

I was a passenger on the recreational lorry from camp to Antwerp the night 5 Nov 1944. Pte Roberts the accused was also a passenger when the lorry left Camp for Antwerp. When we arrived at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp we were warned that the lorry would depart for camp at 2300 hrs. The lorry did wait for 5 or 10 minutes because of personnel who had not arrived. I am not sure actually the length of time it waited because my watch is not always correct. I am not sure of the personnel who did not arrive before the lorry departed because I was one of the first two men in the lorry.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Was there any roll call in the lorry after 2300 hrs ?

A. No.

Q. What kind of a night would you say it was ?

A. I would say it was a very bad night, rainy and very dark making it difficult for one to find his way.

(Sgd) G.E. Mower

C41224 Cpl Howland R.E. of 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk, RCOC sworn states:

On 6 Nov 44 I was Orderly Cpl of the 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC. On morning parade at 0815 hrs there were three men absent of which Pte. Roberts was one. The Sgt. Major was aware ofthe fact that these men were absent as he had been told by Cpl Wilson that morning in my presence. Shortly after 1400 hrs I met the three absentees including Pte Roberts outside the kitchen, they had not been on the noon parade. I immediately informed the Sgt Major who told me to place the men under open arrest which I did.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Cpl. Howland we were looking for you were we not ?

A. I would say that you were looking for someone and when you saw me you informed me that you had arrived.

(SGD) R.E. Howland

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The accused sworn states:-

. . . "On 5 Nov. we were allowed a vehicle to proceed to Antwerp for recreational purposes. At about 1830 hrs there we left the veh in Antwerp we were warned that the veh would leave at 2300 hrs that night to return to camp. The vehicle was to leave from the Cdn Car Park Antwerp. At approximately 2230 hrs two oth r soldiers and myself started for the Car Park. The other soldiers were Pte Coldridge and Pte Lavesque, both of Ord Fd Pk. It was very dark and rainy and only the second time I had been in the city. We had difficulty in finding the Car Park. Knowing the three routes in the city I went to the "London" route and followed the "Cdn Car Park" sign down to the Park. Looking through the park we could not findour veh. I could not say what time it was then. From the PK We went back to the main "London" Route and stood for about two minutes when a lorry came by which was from our own unit. We yelled and whistled at them but no one seemed to hear. We stood around at that corner in the city on the "London" route for about half an hour trying to get a ride - not being able to get a ride we spoke to some American soldiers who took us to their camp until morning. This camp was about 4 miles on the other side of the Antwerp tunnel. In the morning we had breakfast with them and left immediately for camp. Not knowing that transportation was free on street cars and buses we walked from the Moerlook to Putte - this would be about 88 miles - then we got a ride from there to our unit arriving there between 13 0 and 1400 hrs."

No Cross-examination.

PLEA IN EXTENUATION

OF

[redacted] D.E., R.C.O.C.

President and Members of the Court:-

Pte Roberts the accused joined the Cdn Army (Active), as a volunteer on 26 Aug 1939 and embarked for overseas duty on the 25 Jan 1940. He was stationed in England until July 1944 when he landed in Normandy with his present unit, 4 C.....D.....

Pte Roberts is married in Canada and has onechild, now 6 yrs of age. He has not seen his wife or child since 1940 and is very much concerned over this unfortunate incident, which, he believes, may hinder his opportunities should leaves be granted here in the near future, for long serving personnel.

True, he has been sentenced for numerous other offences against Military law, which in all probability can be laid at the door of inactivity, such as we all know with regards the Canadian Army, activities as a whole up to "D" Day. Since "D" Day he has been awarded imprisonment once on a like charge with regards the charge he is now being tried for. Pte Roberts pleads guilty of that charge, but would request the court to take into consideration that the unfortunate affair could have happened to anyone. He had no malicious intent of going A.W.O.L. That thought was farthest from his mind, otherwise, he could have quite easily absented himself for days and possibly weeks before being apprehended.

The D.A.C. in charge of the vehicle debussed his passengers at the car park in Antwerp and stated all personnel would be at the car park at 2300 hrs to return. As this park is quite extensive and there is an "Out" gate in it, it is possible for a person to have slipped and a lorry in the darkness of that night, especially when no specific point was given in the car park, where the passengers would be picked up.

When Pte Roberts and the other two men realized their transport was not in the park theyendeavoured to intercept it on the main street and actually did see their own truck go by. It did not stop in response to their yells and after trying several other units trucks for a ride back without success, they stayed in Antwerp the night with and American Unit. They immediately set out the following morning for their unit.

In view of the foregoing Pte Roberts would like to state that he did not wilfully absent himself and he fully realizes the seriousness of the charge against him. He expects just punishment for this misadventure and places himself at the mercy of the Court.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE: In the case of B-88048 Pte Roberts, D.R. 4 Cdn Armd Division Ordnance Field Park RCOC Cdn Army Overseas charged with:

CHARGE
AA SEC 15(1) The accused B88048 Pte Douglas Roy Roberts, 4 Cdn Armd Division Ordnance Field Park RCOC a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas: While on Active Service absenting himself without leave in that he in the Field on the 5th Nov 44 absented himself without leave from 2300 hrs 5 Nov 44 until 1400 hrs 6 Nov 44. (Total time absent 15 hrs).

THE CO. DIRECTS THAT EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH:

L-9137 SQMS Cluie G.E.A. 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On Sunday 5 Nov 1944 as Sgt Major of the camp, with permission from the O.C. I laid on one lorry to transport personnel of the unit from camp to Antwerp for recreational purposes. The lorry was due to depart from camp 1300 hrs and to depart from Cdn Car Park Antwerp 2300 hrs the same night. The N.C.O. in charge of the lorry was told to advise the men the time of departure of the lorry from Antwerp. The accused declines to cross examine.

(Sgd) G Clunie, SQMS

H-64695 Cpl Wilson R.G. of the 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On the night 5 Nov 44 I was in charge of the recreational lorry despatched from the camp to Antwerp. The accused Pte. Roberts was one of the passengers. All personnel travelling in the vehicle on debusament at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp were warned that the lorry would be leaving Antwerp to return to Camp at 2300 hrs. At later than 2300 hrs three men of whom Pte Roberts was one were not present. We waited until approximately 2325 hrs and these men still did not show up so we departed from Antwerp for camp. I reported the absentees to the Sgt. Major on the morning of the 6 Nov 44 before morning parade.

Witness cross-examined by the accused;

Q. What kind of a night was it ?

A. It was definately a dark and rainy night making it difficult to get around in a strange place.

Q. Did the vehicle leave the same gate as it went into the Car Park ?

A. There is an "In and "Out" gate at the Park and the vehicle left by the "Out" gate.

(Sgd) R.G. Wilson

THIRD WITNESS :

H37112 Pte Mower G.E. 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

I was a passenger on the recreational lorry from camp to Antwerp the night 5 Nov 1944. Pte Roberts the accused was also a passenger when the lorry left Camp for Antwerp. When we arrived at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp we were warned that the lorry would depart for camp at 2300 hrs. The lorry did wait for 5 or 10 minutes because of personnel who had not arrived. I am not sure actually the length of time it waited because my watch is not always correct. I am not sure of the personnel who did not arrive before the lorry departed because I was one of the first two men in the lorry.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Was there any roll call in the lorry after 2300 hrs ?

A. No.

Q. What kind of a night would you say it was ?

A. I would say it was a very bad night, rainy and very dark making it difficult for one to find his way.

(Sgd) G.E. Mower

G41224 Cpl Howland R.E. of 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk, RCOC sworn states:

On 6 Nov 44 I was Orderly Cpl of the 4 Cdn Armd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC. On morning parade at 0815 hrs there were three men absent of which Pte. Roberts was one. The Sgt. Major was aware ofthe fact that these men were absent as he had been told by Cpl Wilson that morning in my presence. Shortly after 1400 hrs I met the three absentees including Pte Roberts outside the kitchen, they had not been on the noon parade. I immediately informed the Sgt Major who told me to place the men under open arrest which I did.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Cpl. Howland we were looking for you were we not ?

A. I would say that you were looking for someone and when you saw me you informed me that you had arrived.

(SGD) R.E. Howland

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The Accused: "I have nothing to say at this time".

The accused declines to call witnesses in his own behalf.

I Certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

The accused sworn states:-

"On 5 Nov. we were allowed a vehicle to proceed to Antwerp for recreational purposes. At about 1830 hrs where we left the veh at Antwerp we were warned that the veh would leave at 2300 hrs that night to return to camp. The vehicle was to leave from the Cdn Car Park Antwerp. At approximately 2230 hrs two oth r soldiers and myself started for the Car Park. The other soldiers were Pte Colridge and Pte Levesque, both of Ord Fd Pk. It was very dark and rainy and only the second time I had been in the city. We had difficulty in finding the Car Park. Knowing the three routes in the city I went to the "London" route and followed the "Cdn Car Park" sign down to the Park. Looking through the park we could not findour veh. I could not say what time it was then. From the Pk we went back to the main "London" Route and stood for about two minutes when a lorry came by which was from o r own unit. We yelled and whistled at them but no onesseemed to hear. We stood around at that corner in the city on the "London" route for about half an hour trying to get a ride - not being able to get a ride we spoke to some American soldiers who took us to their camp until morning. This camp was about 4 miles on the other side of the Antwerp tunnel. In the morning we had breakfast with them and left immediately for camp. Not knowing that transportation was free on street cars and busses we walked from the American to Putte - this would be about 28 miles - then we got a ride from there to our unit arriving there between 13 0 and 1400 hrs."

No Cross-examination.

OF

B86048 PTE ROBERTS D.R., R.C.O.C.

President and Members of the Court:-

Pte Roberts the accused joined the Cdn Army (Active), as a volunteer on 26 Aug 1939 and embarked for overseas duty on the 28 Jan 1940. He was stationed in England until July 1944 when he landed in Normandy with his present unit, 4 C.A.D. O.W.I.

Pte Roberts is married in Canada and has onechild, now 6 yrs of age. He has not seen his wife or child since 1940 and is very much concerned over this unfortunate incident, which, he believes, may hinder his opportunities should leaves be granted home in the near future, for long serving personnel.

True, he has been sentenced for numerous other offences against Military Law, which in all probability can be laid at the door of inactivity, such as we all know with regards the Canadian Army, activities as a whole up to "D" Day. Since "D" Day he has been awarded punishment once on a minor charge.With regards the charge he is now being tried for, Pte Roberts pleads guilty of that charge, but would request the court to take into consideration that this unfortunate affair could have happened to anyone. He had no malicious intent of going A.W.O.L. That thought was furthest from his mind, otherwise, he could have quite easily absented himself for days and probably weeks before being apprehended.

The N.C.O. in charge of the vehicle debussed his passengers at the car park in Antwerp and stated all personnel would be at the car park at 2300 hrs to return. As this park is quite extensive and there is an "Out" gate in it, it is possible for a person to have missed a lorry in the darkness of that night, especially when no specific point was given in the car park, where the passengers would be picked up.

When Pte Roberts and the other two men realized their transport was not in the park theyendeavoured to intercept it on the main street and actually did see their own truck go by. It did not stop in response to their yells and after trying several other unit's trucks fora ride back without success, they stayed in Antwerp the night with and American Unit. They immediately set out the following morning for their unit.

In view of the foregoing Pte Roberts would like to state that he did not wilfully absent himself and he fully realizes the seriousness of the charge against him. He expects just punishment for this misadventure and places himself at the mercy of the Court.

Plea In Mitigation

B88048 Pte Roberts, D.R., R.C.O.C.

President and Members of the Court:-

Pte Roberts, the accused, joined the 16th Army (Active), as a volunteer on 26 Aug 1939 and embarked for overseas duty on the 25th Jan 1940. He was stationed in England until ~~the~~ July 1944 when he landed in Normandy with his present unit, 1st C.A.O.C.

Pte Roberts is married in Canada and has one child, now 6 yrs of age. He has not seen his wife or child since 1940 and is very much concerned over this unfortunate incident, which, he believes, may hinder his opportunities should leaves be granted home in the near future, for long serving personnel.

True, he has been sentenced for numerous other offences against Military law, which, in all probability can be laid at the door of inactivity, such as we all know with regards the Canadian Army, activities as a whole, up to "D" Day. Since "D" Day he has been awarded punishment once for a minor charge.

With regards the charge he is now being tried for, Pte Roberts pleads guilty of that charge, but would request the court to take into consideration that this unfortunate affair could have happened to anyone. He had no malicious intent of going A.W.O.L. That thought was farthest from his mind, otherwise, he could have quite easily absented himself for days and probably weeks before being apprehended.

The N.C.O. in charge of the vehicle disbanded his passengers at the car park in Antwerp and stated all personnel would be at the car park at 2300 hrs to return. As this park is quite extensive and there is an Out gate on it, it is possible for a person to have missed a lorry in the darkness of that night, especially when no specific point was given in the car park, where the passengers would be picked up.

When Pte Roberts and the other two men realized their transport was not in the park they endeavoured to intercept it on the main road and actually did see their truck go by. It did not stop in response to their yells and after trying several other unit's trucks for a ride back without success, they stayed in Antwerp the night with an American unit. They immediately set out the following morning for their unit.

In view of the foregoing Pte Roberts would like to state that he did not wilfully absent himself and he fully realizes the seriousness of the charge against him. He expects just punishment for this misdemeanour and places himself at the mercy of the court.

L-9137 SQMS Clunie G.E.A. 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On Sudnay 5 Nov 1944 as Sgt Major of the camp, with permission from the O.C. I laid on one lorry to transport personnel of the Unit from Camp to Antwerp for recreational purposes. The lorry was due to depart from camp 1300 hrs and to depart from Cdn Car Park Antwerp 2300 hrs the same night. The N.C.O. in charge of the lorry was told to advise the men the time of departure of the lorry from Antwerp.

The accused declines to cross examine

SECOND WITNESS:

H-64695 Cpl Wilson R.G. of the 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:-

On the night 5 Nov 1944 I was in charge of the recreational lorry despatched from the Camp to Antwerp. The accused Pte Roberts was one of the passengers. All personnel travelling in the vehicle on debussment at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp were warned that the lorry would be leaving Antwerp to return to Camp at 2300 hrs. At later than 2300 hrs three men of whom Pte Roberts was one were not present. We waited until approximately 2325 hrs and these men still did not show up so we daparted from Antwerp for camp. I reported the absentees to the Sgt. Major on the morning of the 6 Nov 44 before morning parade.

Witness cross-examined by the accused;

Q. What kind of night was it?

A. It was definately a dark and rainy night making it difficult to get around in a strange place.

Q. Did the vehicle leave the same gate as it went into the Car Park?

A. There is an "In and "Out" gate at the Park and the vehicle left by the "Out" gate.

THIRD WITNESS:

H37112 Pte Mower G.E. 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states;

I was a passenger on the recreational lorry from Camp to Antwerp the night 5 Nov 1944. Pte Roberts the accused was also a passenger when the lorry left camp for Antwerp. When we arrived at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp we were warned that the lorry would depart for camp at 2300 hrs. The lorry did wait for 5 or 10 minutes because of personnel who had not arrived. I am not sure actually the length of time it waited because my watch is not always correct. I am not sure of the personnel who did not arrive before the lorry departed because I was one of the first two men in the lorry.

Cross Examined by the accused:

Q. Was there any roll call in the lorry after 2300 hrs?

A. No.

Q. What kind of a night would you say it was?

A. I would say it was s very bad night, rainy and very dark making it difficult for one to find his way.

Major was aware of the fact that these men were absent as he had been told by Cpl Wilson that morning in my presence. Shortly after 1400 hrs I met the three absentees including Pte. Roberts outside the kitchen, they had not been on the noon parade. I immediately informed the Sgt. Major who told me to place the men under Open Arrest which I did.

Cross examined by the accused;

Q. Cpl Howland we were looking for you were we not?

A. I would say that you were looking for someone and when you saw me you informed me that you had arrived.

R. E. Howland

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The accused:

"I have nothing to say at this time."

The Accused, Sworn, States -

"On 5 Nov. We were allowed a veh to proceed to Antwerp for recreational purposes. At about 1830 hrs when we left the veh at Antwerp we were warned that the veh would leave at 2300 hrs that night to return to Camp. The veh was to leave from the Pde Car Pk Antwerp. At approx 2230 hrs the other Soldiers and myself started for the Car park. The other Soldiers were Pte Eldridge and Pte Levesque, both of 2nd 78 Pk. It was very dark and raining and only the second time I had been in the City, we had difficulty in finding the Car park. Knowing the three routes in the City I went to the "London" route and followed the "Pde Car Pk" sign down to the Park. Looking through the park we came & not find our veh. I could not say what time it was then. From the Pk we went back to the main "London" route and stood for about two minutes when a Lorry came by which was from our own unit. We yelled and whistled at them but no one seemed to hear. We stood around at that corner in the City on the "London" route for about half an hour trying to get a ride - not being able to get a ride We spoke to some American Soldiers who took us to their camp until morning. This camp was about 4 miles on the other side of the Antwerp tunnel. In the morning We had breakfast with them and left immediately for camp. Not knowing that transportation was free on St cars and busses we walked from the American Camp to Putte - this would be about 28 mile - then we got a ride from there to our unit arriving there between 1330 and 1400 hrs."

B.88048 Pte Roberts, D.R., R.C.O.C.

President and Members of the Court:-

Pte Roberts, the accused, joined the Cdn Army (Active), as a volunteer on 26 Aut 1939 and embarked for overseas duty on the 25 Jan 1940. He was stationed in England until July 1944 when he landed in Normandy with his present unit, 4 C.A.D., C.F.P.

Pte Roberts is married in Canada and has one child, now 6 yrs of age. He has not seen his wife or child since 1940 and is very much concerned over this unfortunate incident, which, he believes, may hinder his opportunities should leaves be granted home in the near future, for long serving personnel.

True, he has been sentenced for numerous other offences against Military law, which, in all probability can be laid at the door of inactivity, such as we all know with regards the Canadian Army, activities as a whole, up to "D" Day. Since "D" Day he has been awarded punishment once on a minor charge.

With regards the charge he is now being tried for, Pte. Roberts pleads guilty of that charge, but would request the court to take into consideration that this unfortunate affair could have happened to anyone. He had no malicious intent of going A.W.O.L. That thought was farthest from his mind, otherwise, he could have quite easily absented himself for days and probably weeks before being apprehended.

The N.C.O. in charge of the vehicle debussed his passengers at the car park in Antwerp and stated all personnel would be at the car park at 2300 hrs to return. As this park is quite extensive and there is an "Out" gate in it, it is possible for a person to have missed a lorry in the darkness of that night, especially when no specific point was given in the car park, where the passengers would be picked up.

When Pte Roberts and the other two men realised their transport was not in the park they endeavoured to intercept it on the main street and actually did see their truck go by. It did not stop in response to their yells and after trying several other unit's trucks for a ride back without success, they stayed in Antwerp the night with an American unit. They immediately set out the following morning for their unit.

In view of the foregoing Pte Roberts would like to state that he did not wilfully absent himself and he fully realises the seriousness of the charge against him. He expects just punishment for this misadventure and places himself at the mercy of the court.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE: In the case of H-88048 Pte Roberts, D.R. 4 Cdn Arm'd Division Ordnance Field Park RCOC Cdn Army Overseas charged with:

CHARGE AA SEC 15(1) The accused H-88048 Pte Douglas Roy Roberts, 4 Cdn Arm'd Division Ordnance Field Park RCOC a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas: While on Active Service absenting himself without leave in that he in the Field on 5th Nov 44 absented himself without leave from 2300 hrs 5 Nov 44 until 1400 hrs 6 Nov 44. (Total time absent 15 hrs)

THE CO DIRECTS THAT EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH:

L-9137 SQMS Clunie, G.E.A., 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On Sunday 5 Nov 1944 as Sgt Major of the camp, with permission from the O.C. I laid on one lorry to transport personnel of the Unit from Camp to Antwerp for recreational purposes. The lorry was due to depart from camp 1300 hrs and to depart from Cdn Car Park Antwerp 2300 hrs the same night. The N.C.O. in charge of the lorry was told to advise the men the time of departure of the lorry from Antwerp.

The accused declines to cross examine

"G.E.A. Clunie" SQMS

SECOND WITNESS:

H-64695 Cpl Wilson, R.G., of the 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On the night 5 Nov 1944 I was in charge of the recreational lorry despatched from the Camp to Antwerp. The accused Pte Roberts was one of the passengers. All personnel travelling in the vehicle on debussment at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp were warned that the lorry would be leaving Antwerp to return to Camp at 2300 hrs. At later than 2300 hrs three men of whom Pte Roberts was one were not present. We waited until approximately 2325 hrs and these men still did not show up so we departed from Antwerp xxx for camp. I reported the absentees to the Sgt. Major on the morning of the 6 Nov 44 before morning parade.

Witness cross-examined by the accused:

Q. What kind of night was it?

A. It was definately a dark and rainy night making it difficult to get around in a strange place.

Q. Did the vehicle leave the same gate as it went into the Car Park?

A. There is an "In and "Out" gate at the Park and the vehicle left by the "Out" gate.

"R.G. Wilson"

THIRD WITNESS:

H.37112 Pte Mower G.E. 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

I was a passenger on the recreational lorry from Camp to Antwerp the night 5 Nov 1944. Pte Roberts the accused was also a passenger when the lorry left camp for Antwerp. When we arrived at the Cdn Car Park Antwerp we were warned that the lorry would depart for camp at 2300 hrs. The lorry did wait for 5 or 10 minutes because of personnel who had not arrived. I am not sure actually the length of time it waited because my watch is not always correct. I am not sure of the personnel who did not arrive before the lorry departed because I was one of the first two men in the lorry.

Cross Examined by the accused:

Q. Was there any roll call in the lorry after 2300 hrs?

A. No.

Q. What kind of a night would you say it was?

A. I would say it was a very bad night, rainy and very dark making it difficult for one to find his way.

"G.E. Mower"

FOURTH WITNESS:

G.41224 Cpl Howland R.E. of 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC sworn states:

On 6 Nov 44 I was Orderly Cpl of the 4 Cdn Arm'd Div Ord Fd Pk RCOC. On morning parade at 0815 hrs there were three men absent of which Pte Roberts was one. The Sgt. Major was aware of the fact that these men were absent as he had been told by Cpl Wilson that morning in my presence. Shortly after 1400 hrs I met the three absentees including Pte. Roberts outside the kitchen, they had not been on the noon parade. I immediately informed the Sgt. Major who told me to place the men under Open Arrest which I did.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Cpl Howland we were looking for you were we not?

A. I would say that you were looking for someone and when you saw me you informed me that you had arrived.

"R.E. Howland"

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused:

"I have nothing to say at this time."

The accused declined to call witnesses in his own behalf.

"D.R. Roberts"

I certify that R.I. 4 has been complied with.

Taken by me in the Field in the presence of the accused this 8 day of November 1944.

"W.M. Crossen" Lt.

Accused, sworn, states:

"On 5 Nov. we were allowed a Veh to proceed to Antwerp for recreational purposes. At about 1830 hrs when we left the Veh at Antwerp we were warned that the Veh would leave at 2300 hrs that night to return to camp. The Veh was to leave from the Cdn Car Pk, Antwerp. At approx 2230 hrs two other soldiers and myself started for the car park. The other soldiers were Pte Coldgie and Pte. Levesque, both of Ord Fd Pk. It was very dark and rainy and only the second time I had been in the city. We had difficulty in finding the car park. Knowing the three routes in the city I went to the "London" route and followed the "Cdn Car Pk" sign down to the Park. Looking through the park we could not find our veh. I could not say what time it was there. From the Pk we went back to the main "London" route and stood for about two minutes where a Lorry came by which was from our own unit. We yelled and whistled at them but no-one seemed to hear. We stood around at that corner in the city on the "London" route for about half an hour trying to get a ride. Not being able to get a ride we spoke to some American soldiers who took us to their camp until morning. This camp was about 4 miles on the other side of the Antwerp tunnel. In the morning we had breakfast with them and left immediately for camp. Not knowing that transportation was free on Street cars and busses we walked from the American Camp to Putte - this would be about 28 miles - there we got a ride from there to our unit arriving there between 1330 and 1400 hrs."

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

Captain V.C. Stilwell having been sworn is examined by the Prosecution.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the Court.
A.1 I am Captain V.C. Stilwell Second-in-Comd 'A' Squadron, 18 Canadian Armoured Car Regiment(12th Manitoba Dragoons).
Q.2 Do you recall the night of 3 June 44.
A.2 Yes Sir.
Q.3 Where were you that evening.
A.3 I was at a dance held in Tunbridge Wells in the Drill Hall. I was one of the first ones there and was there about 1930 hours until close to 2345.
Q.4 Do you know the accused.
A.4 Yes Sir. I recognize him as Major Roberts.
Q.5 Did you see Major Roberts that evening.
A.5 Yes Sir.
Q.6 When did you see him.
A.6 The first time I saw him was about 9 o'clock upstairs in the officers bar. Later I saw him when he came down on the floor and he was talking to Major Farmer.
Q.7 Were you able to hear the conversation.
A.7 No I didn't hear very much of it except that it was rather heated and I asked them to leave the floor.
Q.8 Will you explain what you mean by "heated".
A.8 They seemed to be talking rather loud and were in the middle of the floor. I gathered there was some kind of argument and so I asked them to leave.
Q.9 Where were they standing.
A.9 They were standing fifteen to twenty feet out from where the orchestra stand was and about thirty feet from the wall fairly close to the centre of the floor.
Q.10 When you asked them to leave,, did they go.
A.11 Yes.
Q.11 Where.
A.11 Behind the stage doors to the first landing.
Q.12 Did you go up.
A.12 Yes I went up.
Q.13 What took place up there.
A.13 There I requested them not to fight here. I asked them to settle their dispute some other time. They seemed agreeable to that and then Major Roberts requested that his pistol be given back to him. He seemed very determined.
Q.14 What happened then.
A.14 I went and followed Major Farmer into the officers bar where he had evidently placed Major Roberts pistol before hand. I emptied the rounds out of the pistol and handed the pistol to Major Roberts open. I said I'd keep the rounds till to-morrow or words to that effect but he did not seem satisfied with this and said he wanted the rounds back.
Q.15 Did he get the rounds back.
A.15 Yes I gave them back to him.
Q.16 Why were you reluctant to give the rounds back.
A.16 I thought it safer not to give him the rounds. I think he had been drinking a bit and that it would be safer if he had an empty pistol with him.
Q.17 You say you think he had been drinking. Would you care to say why you thought so.
A.17 Well, from his appearance.
Q.18 What about his appearance.
A.18 When you see a man who is drunk or has been drinking he does not appear quite normal, his conversation is not quite as coherent and he does not seem to think as quickly as a man does if he hadn't had a drink.
Q.19 Why then did you return the rounds.
A.19 I thought he was going home and was sure if I didn't give him the rounds there might be trouble.

A.23 No
Q.24 Did you see any officers there.
A.24 I could not identify any of them.
Q.25 Did you see anyone around the truck.
A.25 No. I told the driver to stay where he was until I made further inquiries and I again tried to get information as to who let the round off. At that time I was quite under the impression it was accidentally discharged.
Q.26 Did you notice any pistols or other weapons about the truck.
A.26 There was at least three officers in the truck with holsters.
Q.27 After you had called into the truck for the second time, what then took place.

A.34 All of them - sixteen.

A.38 I would not like to say. It is a blueprint which has been in my possession since marching in here.

The court ruled that the document of the witness will not be admissible as evidence.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.39 This shot that hit the brick wall - can you give me any idea how high off the ground it was.
A.39 No, I heard the charge hit the brick work behind me but did not know then what part of the wall it hit.
Q.40 Did you examine the wall in the morning.when it was light.

A.7 No. I saw him several times during the evening as I went about the hall.
Q.8 At any time that you saw him, was anything unusual taking place.
A.8 Yes, on the landing leading to the small room upstairs being used by the officers. There was some sort of argument going on between Major Roberts and Major Farmer.
Q.9 Were you present when the argument took place between Major Farmer and Major Roberts.
A.9 Yes

A.11 No.
Q.12 What else did you see.
A.12 Captain Stilwell and Major Farmer walked towards the officers room and when he returned he had a pistol with him.

A.13 Well, I could tell that he had had something to drink at some time during the evening.
Q.14 You say you could tell. How. What indication was there.
A.14 It is a bit difficult but I think he was a bit unbalanced and was speaking much louder than he normally would be.
Q.15 Did you see Major Roberts early the next morning.
A.15 Yes, I saw him just shortly after midnight somewhere about 0030 hours.
Q.16 Where was he.

Q.18 Were you standing or sitting.
A.18 Sitting.
Q.19 Where in the vehicle was Major Roberts.

The witness at the request of the Prosecution and with the approval of the Court draws a diagram of the inside of the lorry.

The witness is ~~XX~~questioned by the Court

Q.20 Where were you in the lorry. Mark with an 'X' and initial. Where was Major Roberts. Mark with an 'R' and initial.
Q.21 Do you know Cpl Bowden.
A.21 Yes. He was standing in the lorry.
Q.22 Approximately where. Mark with a 'B' and initial.

At the request of the Prosecution this diagram is admitted as evidence and marked "Exhibit 'H'".

The Prosecution resumes his examination

Q.23 Who else was in the lorry besides ~~XXXX~~ Cpl Bowden, yourself and Major Roberts.

A.23 Hone
Lieut Caswell, Lieut Chaplin, Lieut ~~XXXX~~ and Cpl Downie.

Q.24 Besides Major Roberts, were these all the officers in the veh.

A.24 Yes, as far as I can be sure.

Q.25 Did any of the other ranks have weapons.

A.25 No.

Q.26 After you got into the lorry, did anything unusual take place.

A.26 There was some sort of disturbance going on ~~XXXXXXXX~~ in the rear of the lorry. I recall Major Roberts and Cpl Bowden having an argument.

Q.27 Did you do anything about it.

A.27 Yes. I moved over there and sat on Major Roberts' lefthand side, immediately next to him.

Q.28 What was the argument about.

A.28 The argument concerned a pistol. Just as I sat down Cpl Bowden asked for the pistol Major Roberts had in his hand and he took the pistol from Major Roberts and emptied the rounds from the pistol onto the floor of the lorry. Major Roberts ordered Cpl Bowden to pick up the rounds that were on the floor of the lorry and to give him back his pistol. Cpl Bowden refused to give him back his pistol.

Q.29 Did you do anything.

A.29 Yes. I took the pistol from Cpl Bowden and placed the pistol beside me on my side.

Q.30 On what side.

A.30 I was sitting on Major Roberts' left and placed the pistol on my right.

Q.31 Did that end the argument.

A.31 The vehicle stopped in a few moments to pick someone up and Cpl Bowden got off the vehicle. It seemed best that way.

Q.32 Do you recall any of the words used in this argument.

A.32 No, not the actual words. The argument definitely concerned a pistol between Cpl Bowden wanting to keep it away from Major Roberts and Major Roberts insistent on getting it back.

Q.33 What sort of argument was it.

A.33 It could be heard throughout the entire lorry.

Q.34 Did Major Roberts threaten to strike Cpl Bowden when he refused to return his pistol.

A.34 That is when I took the pistol and in order that such a thing might not take place, Mr Caswell and I restrained Major Roberts. It was a physical restraint. I placed my hands on Major Roberts' shoulder and Cpl Bowden assisted.

Q.35 What would you say was the condition of Major Roberts at this time.

A.35 I would say that he had been drinking but by no means drunk. It is a hard word to define. I think he had been drinking. He was tipsy and unruly. I know him well enough to know that if he had not been drinking, he would not be arguing with one of the NCOs.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.36 Going back to the dance hall, in the summary of evidence you make the statement that "I followed him(referring to Capt Stilwell) and found him talking to Major Roberts about a pistol". In the examination by the Prosecution you stated they were having an argument. Why did you use the word "argument".

A.36 There was actually an argument going on and by "argument" I mean two or three people talking at once and talking about this pistol in louder voices than usual.

Q.37 How do you account for Major Farmer saying in his evidence that he and Major Roberts were having a discussion but that at no time was it considered an argument.

A.37 I would say as far as Major Farmer was concerned he was right. Captain Stilwell was talking more loudly in his effort to find out what the trouble was and Major Roberts wanted his pistol and was insistent. Capt Stilwell was making as much noise if not more than anyone else.
Q.38 Had you been drinking yourself during the evening.
A.38 Yes
Q.39 Very much.
A.39 No.
Q.40 Did you feel you had had near your capacity.
A.40 No

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.41 You mentioned Cpl Bowden taking the pistol away from Major Roberts. Was it necessary to use force when you did this.
A.41 No, not really, merely a physical restraint.
Q.42 Did Major Roberts resent the taking of the pistol.
A.42 I do not think Major Roberts realized what Cpl Bowden was doing until he found the pistol gone.
Q.43 Are you able to define when a man is drunk or sober.
A.43 I should say I am unable to define the word. I can tell when a man has been drinking.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 87(b).

A.30 I was standing beside Major Roberts and he raised his right arm with the pistol in it and I immediately spoke to him and said we were close to the Home Guard place to takeit easy and he lowered his arm for the time being.
Q.31 Was there anything further?
A.31 As the vehicle rolled on about 100 yds further he raised his armd and fired.

Q.38 Did you stay where you were?

Q.39 Did anything further take place?
A.39 Later on I heard a scuffle in the back of the lorry and I did not know what was up so went to find out and there was Cpl Bowden in one corner and Major Roberts and both were standing up and there seemed to be a heated argument taking place so I stood in front of Cpl Bowden andtried to stop it.

A.7 When I saw him the first time he was talking to Major Farmer and at that time he was demanding he be given his pistol.
Q.8 Did you hear the conversation?
A.8 I could not repeat it word for word, I did hear him demand his pistol and I tried to stand aside not to bring notice, then I heard Major Farmer say lets go upstairs where there was a little room used for the officers bar.
Q.9 Did they go upstairs?
A.9 They did, I preceded them and they went up to the landing and stopped there and Major Roberts insisted he be given back his pistol andhe removed his webe belt and pointed to his empty holster and said it is not there. Capt

Stilwell stepped in between them and said there is to be nofighting here, if you want to do any fighting do it some place else.

Q.10 What would make him make a statement like that?
A.10 I believe it looked like Major Roberts might take more action to get his pistol back, because Capt Stilwell had motioned to me when we were downstairs for me to stay near by.

Q.11 What would you say was thecondition of Major Roberts?
A.11 I would say he had obviously been drinking.
Q.12 What made you think this?
A.12 Well, he seemed to be thinking only of one thing, could not see Major Farmer's points as to the danger of having a loaded pistol in his hand, but I could not say as to his exact condition.

Q.13 After thedance where did you go?
A.13 I left the dance around 12 o'clock, Capt Stilwell had asked me to take charge of the vehicle taking some ATS girls home and I wnet to their camp then returned to the drill hall.

Q.14 What time did you return?
A.14 I am not sure, it must have been in theneighborhood of 12:30.

Q.15 What did you find when you got back?
A.15 When I got back I intended to take the vehicle into the grounds on the driveway but a civilian car wasblocking the way so left the vehicle on the road and walked in and found another one of ourvehicles loading or loaded and blocked by the civilian car.

Q.16 Did you do anything about theother vehicle?
A.16 Yes, I walked down to the gates and then went back and found out who owned the civilian car and it was the Adjt of the Home Guard who said.

Q.17 Was the accused present at the time?
A.17 No, he was on the truck.
Q.18 After this conversation with the Home Guard was over what did you do?
A.18 I climbed on the vehicle and asked who had fired a shot and inside I saw Major Roberts, Mr. Caswell and Mr. Chaplin

Q.19 As far as you recall were these the only officers you saw on the truck?
A.19 That is all, then I spoke to Mr. Chaplin and asked him to give me a list of theofficers there, then the Adjt of the Home Guard removed his vehicle and the vehicle loaded with personnel pulled out.

Q.20 Did anything else happen?
A.20 Yes, I remember hearing two shots, one when I was talking to the Adjt and one on theroad, and I directed my driver to follow the other truck but heard no further shots fired.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.21 The first time you saw the accused with Capt Stilwell was it much of an argument?
A.21 Major Roberts was speaking quite loudly, not shouting.
Q.22 Was Capt Stilwell speaking quite loudly at this time?
A.22 No, he was very insistent in what he did say, but he was not talking loudly or shouting.
Q.23 Would you say Major Roberts had been drinking much that evening?
A.23 No, I would not say he was drinking much, I saw him sitting quietly in theofficers mess.
Q.24 Had you been drinking?
A.24 I had a few drinks, yes.

Questioned by the court

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

The Prosecution states that he proposes to call Lieut J.H.C. Hone, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt who did not give evidence at the summary of evidence, but that he had sent a message to the Defending Officer the previous day, stating briefly what his evidence would consist of.

Questioned by the court

Q.1 Have you received notice as to this witness?
A.1 Yes, I received notice and I have no objection to him being called.
Q.2 Do you wish to apply for an adjournment, you understand under R.P. 76 you are entitled to an adjournment?
A.2 There is no need of it in this case.

Tenth Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut J.H.C. Hone having been sworn is examined by the Prosecution:

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the Court.
A.1 I am Lieut J.H.C. Hone 18 Canadian Armoured Car Regiment, 12th Manitoba Dragoons.
Q.2 Do you recall the night of 3 June last.
A.2 Yes.
Q.3 Where were you.
A.3 I was at the Squadron dance.
Q.4 After the dance was over, where did you go.
A.4 After the dance was finished I remember going and getting into a 60-cwt truck outside the hall. I was on a 24-hour leave of absence and remember getting out of the truck just on the outskirts of town very close to where I was staying.
Q.5 Do you know the accused.
A.5 Yes I do.
Q.6 What's his name.
A.6 Major Roberts
Q.7 Was he in the truck you got into.
A.7 Yes he was.
Q.8 Did anything unusual happen when you were in the truck.
A.8 Yes, I remember hearing some shots. I don't know how many but I remember hearing one in particular that was quite loud.
Q.9 Did you at any time after you left the dance hall or after you got into the truck remove your pistol from its holster.
A.9 No. As a matter of fact I was not wearing my pistol. Upstairs in the drill hall a room had been set aside for officers. I, as well as nearly all the officers at the dance, put my pistol and holster in a little sort of cupboard in this room. When I was coming out from the dance I went with my lady friend and got my pistol. She kept the pistol and gave it to me when she met me when I got off the truck. I was not wearing my pistol in the truck.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b).

Eleventh Witness for the Prosecution

D.77435 Cpl Bowden J having been sworn is examined by the Prosecution.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the Court.
A.1 I am D.77435 Cpl J Bowden 18 Canadian Armoured Car Regiment, 12th Manitoba Dragoons.
Q.2 Do you recall the night of 3 June 44.
A.2 Yes.
Q.3 Where were you that evening.
A.3 At the Squadron dance.
Q.4 After it was over, where did you go.
A.4 The dance had just been over and I left the dance hall and after I came out I heard a shot.
Q.5 Tell the story in your own words.
A.5 I heard a shot and I investigated. I looked around the area to see if I could find out where it came from. I couldn't tell at that time where it came from. I then heard another shot which I thought came from the truck around there. A Home Guard Captain yelled. I got into the veh by the front end and I yelled to the rear and heard another shot and could tell it came from the rear of the vehicle. I yelled to the rear of the vehicle and I saw the Major and he had a pistol in his hand.
Q.6 Do you recognize this officer in the court room.
A.6 Yes sir right there, Major Roberts.

I looked at Major Roberts. He was the only one in the truck with a pistol out. I said "Isn't that enough Sir" and he answered back "Do you know how long we've got to go". I asked him for the pistol, took it and broke it open. Six rounds fell to the floor of the vehicle. I handed the pistol back to Major Roberts and he said to load it. I asked him if that was an order, and he replied "Yes". I told him I was sorry but would not obey the order. I handed the pistol backbut do not know whether or not Major Roberts received it. He made a grab for me and the truck stopped. Someone suggested that I leave the vehicle. I did so and walked home.

Q.7 What is your opinion of the condition of Major Roberts.
A.7 Well, Sir, I cannot say for sure. He seemed in a bad mood but that is all I can say.
Q.8 Do you know the accused very well.
A.8 No

The witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.9 The statement was made a moment ago to the effect that when you broke the pistol open you found it fully loaded - six complete rounds, live rounds in the cyclinder. How many rounds does a pistol hold.
A.9 Six, Sir.
Q.10 Did you not say you heard a shot when you were coming out of the building that was before you broke the pistol open in the truck.
A.10 I heard a shot as I was coming out of the hall.
Q.11 Was the pistol warm.
A.11 I can't say.
Q.12 Did you hear another shot after you broke the pistol and took the rounds out.
A.12 No Sir.
Q.13 Do you know who you gave the pistol back to.
A.13 No Sir I don't.

The witness is questioned by the Court.

Q.14 Where did you say you first got into the truck.
A.14 On the right on the driver's side on the running board and into the front end.
Q.15 Were you sitting in the cab all the time.
A.15 No Sir I was standing in the truck.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b).

Motion by the Defence as to no prima facie case

I wish to make a motion under note 1 to Sec 40 MML on the question of a Prima Facie case in respect to the third charge (Charge is read) and it is the submission by the Defence that the Prosecution in this case has not brought forth any evidence to support a charge in this connection. There have been certain witnsses come forward who say that there was a discussion on the dance floor in between dances and again on the landing. We have heard the witnesses and there is a lot of controversy as to what this discussion constituted and I can see no where where the discussion interfered with the dance itself. We have Major Farmer, and Major, Roberts, and Capt Stilwell all talking and the talking was loud. Major Farmer states it was not an argument, he was quite clear on that nor is there any evidence in this case that there was an argument, The accused is charged with creating a disturbance, which is conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline and I maintain you have to read the two together in connection with this disturbance. It was not a military affair and the argument or discussion was not the type that bothered people, and to create a disturbance as charged, it must be conduct both to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, and I submit that the third charge should be dismissed on these grounds.

Reply by the Prosecution

Gentlemen, listening to the arguments of thedefence, I feel they have forgotten a vital part of theevidence on this charge and that is the evidence of Major Roberts having a loaded pistol out of his holster and in his hand in a dance hall or canteen, which was part of the drill hall andthat in itself is enough to cause a disturbance. It bothered theladies who were present. The other evidence of distrubance was the argument and although the evidence was not 100% straight forward , I still feel there has been sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case. At this time you are not finding whether or not the man is guilty or not guilty but whether there is sufficient evidence to find him guilty if he did not provide a reasonable explanation.

Summation by the Judge Advocate

It is my duty toadvise you as to the law on this point. Let me make it clear that my function is merely to advise as to the law and although I may have to refer to the evidence briefly in summation, the facts are within your own responsibility and you are the sole judges.

This is a motion that no case has been made out by the Prosecution in relation to the third charge. The rule of law is that a prima facie case has been established when sufficient evidence is adduced where a person is or must be put to his defence. That is known as a prima facie case. Obviously if there was not sufficient evidence brought forth sufficient to have the accused take the stand in his defence then there is no case. On the other hand if you feel there is some evidence which would require an explanation by the accused then the motion should be disallowed. This is a matter for you to decide. I might saw this that in all cases theburden of proof lies upon the prosecution. The Prosecution may discharge this by showing a prima facie case.

There are three instances you may consider in this case, first, the incident in the men's canteen, we have heard evidence that Major Roberts was there with his pistol out and in his hand. This pistol was subsequently taken from him and found to be loaded. The second instance took place in the dance hall and the third instance took place on the landing. You have heard from the witnesses of these three instances and it is for you to decide. One thing further, as the Defence has brought out, in order to constitute a crime it must be donduct to the prejudice of both, good order and military discipline. You are the sole judges of these facts and in the light of your own military knowledge as to whether they come within that definition.

The court is closed to consider the motion

The court is re-opened and the President announces that the motion has been dis-allowed.

You will now proceed with your defence

The Judge Advocate explains

You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross examination. You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross examination. But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the court the same weight as sworn testimony. You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidenceor make a statement or do neither.

Q.1 You have had an opportunity to discuss you defence with your Defending Officer?
A.1 Yes sir.
Q.2 You understand your rights?
A.2 Yes sir.

First witness for the Defence

The accused, Major F.A. Roberts 1E Cdn Armoured Car Regt(12th Manitoba Dragoons) having been sworn is examined by the Defence.

Q.1 Will you give the Court in your own words the events as you remember them on the day and night of 3 and 4 June with relation to the charges that have been placed against you.

A.1 Well Sir, we have been working very hard on waterproofing of vehicles all week and on the morning in question I was up early and working hard all morning and did not even take a break for lunch and in order to facilitate the transportation of personnel to the dance to which I was invited I picked up the lady I was taking to the dance about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. We came into Tunbridge Wells where I had arranged for her to change into evening dress and while there ran into many friends who were also coming to the dance and we had several drinks together. Between 6 and 6:30 that evening we telephoned for a taxi and proceeded to the dance. We did not have any dinner as we were not able to make any arrangements for dinner at the hotel. I got to the dance and when I got there there were a good many of the NCOs and men of my old Squadron whom I knew. They asked me to come into the men's bar and have some drinks with them. I went in there and I recall having one drink with L/Cpl Albone, Sir and I have no recollection of anything else that may have taken place. There are spotty things. I can recall vaguely trying to get my pistol back and I remember asking for it but I have no further recollections of what transpired other than that.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 67(b).

Second Witness for the Defence

Major P.C.R. Black having been sworn is examined by the Defence.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the Court.

A.1 I am Major P.C.R. Black, Second-in-Comd 18 Canadian Armoured Car Regiment.

Q.2 How long have you known the accused.

A.2 Since 1937.

Q.3 How long with present unit.

A.3 He came to the unit approximately June 43.

Q.4 Will you give the Court any comments you may have as Second-in-Comd as to his ability.

A.4 Since I came to the unit last September and I have observed his work, it has been very good from the point of view of training the Squadron and I feel the Regiment owes him considerable in that respect.

The Defence addresses the Court.

Q.5 Gentlemen, there is one point I would like to bring up. There is a document on the course the accused attended which was destroyed by fire ready to proceed on this next exercise. Major Black can give us some indication as to what it contained. We didn't have time to have a copy sent down from the RAC TC. May Major Black give us the contents of the report.

Q.6 Is it a confidential report.

A.6 Yes

The Judge Advocate addresses the Court and the Defence

It is my view that if the Defence considers the document in question will carry any weight with the Court, then it should be heard by the Court and the accused should not be prejudiced in any way on producing this evidence.

The Defence continues his examination.

Q.7 Will you tell the Court what you know about this document.

A.7 This was a report which was forwarded to the unit from the R.A.C. T.C. which was a good report. I cannot remember the exact wording in it but I consider it a good report.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b).

Closing Address by the Prosecution

Considering the evidence in this case, I would like to consider the second and third charges and their relation to the first charge the evidence of which tends to run through the evidence in the second and third charges. The second charge is conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he at Tunbridge Wells on the night of 3-4 June did display a pistol loaded with ball ammunition in a lorry where other officers and soldiers were present. Now there is no one giving evidence who actually states he saw Major Roberts fire the first pistol shot but there are two witnesses who actually recall seeing Major Roberts fire successive shots. Now it is rather difficult to prove from the rounds fired that ball ammunition was used but I think it is a logical conclusion that can be drawn from the fact that ball ammunition was in the pistol at the time it was emptied in the officers bar at the drill hall and that that ammunition was given back to the accused. After the pistol had been fired when it was subsequently reloaded according to Cpl Bowden it was reloaded with ball ammunition. There seems to be no other conclusion to draw and there is the evidence in Capt Jones' evidence that the rounds struck against the wall and is certain in his own mind that it was ball ammunition. I see no need to go into that in great detail. There is no mentioned of any other type of ammunition and it is known who fired the weapon. I believe that is all that need be said about the second charge. The accused was seen loading and firing the pistol in the lorry by other officers and other ranks and the ammunition to the best of knowledge must have been ball amn. The Third charge, at Tunbridge Wells on the night of 3 and 4 June in a drill hall when a dance was in progress created a disturbance. In relation to that charge there are three separate events to consider. The first event was in the men's canteen when he pulled out a pistol and while he may have done nothing but hold it in his hand, it was sufficient to make several of the ladies present a little frightened and it certainly was out of place. The second event was in the form of an argument with Major Farmer in the middle of the dance hall floor while a dance was in progress. The third event took place on the landing to the officers bar where a further argument ensued. There is no doubt that he had been drinking. He must have had a considerable lack of control when a senior officer conducts himself in this manner in what must be considered a fairly public place. There is the evidence of several witnesses giving their opinion as to why they considered him under the influence of liquor. The evidence is strongest at the point when he is about to get into the lorry when the dance was over. I refer to the evidence of Lieut Caswell who seems as clear as he possibly can be about events that night and from his evidence he had as clear a mind about the events of the night as anyone. He says when he first saw the Major into the lorry he got into the truck in a [illegible] staggering manner and actually fell into the truck. The evidence of many witnesses is mostly concerned with his speech. He spoke extremely loudly and the argument which subsequently took place with Cpl Bowden also tends to show he was making a mountain out of a very small matter and must tend to show that there is strong evidence that he was drunk at that time.

Closing address of the Defence

With the charges we have no argument, the only one was the third one and a submission was made. The evidence has been quite clear. The only thing I would like to bring to the attention of the court is a question of law and the Judge Advocate who is present at this trial will give you the law. Anything, I bring forth is my interpretation. The accused in this case came before the court under oath and stated that he had a number of drinks then went to the dance hall, had no breakfast or dinner and went direct to the dance hall which was a rather warm place and then had a drink with someone there and from then on his mind was an absolute blank. He mentions that he does not remember anything about the dance with one or two exceptions, just a vague recollection of some instances. At no time does he have a clear recollection of what was happening that would be sufficient to give him the intent that is necessary to commit the crimes with which he is charged, other than the first charge, and it is my submission that the general rule of law commonly known as McNaughtons Law comes in to this case (Reads from page 105 MML paras 6 & 8. I refer the court to MML page 10b Chap 7 Sec 9 (This is read) I submit that in this case the accused was effected by drink that he did not know the nature and quality of his acts. We have evidence that the accused did not recognize one of his own brother officers. We have again, evidence brought forward by Major Farmer that he went into the room and took the pistol from the accused and the accused saw nothing. It is my submission therefore that the accused cannot be convicted of the third and second charges due to the fact that he did not know what he was doing and his mind was such he was not capable of knowing the quality and nature of his acts. He was more or less in a mental fog and did not have the intent to carry out the acts for which he is charged.

Address in Mitigation by the Defending Officer

The court has heard the evidence that has come forward today and has seen the witnesses and have some idea of the offences for which the accused has been charged. In the first instance I wish to draw the attention of the court to the Sec of MML which deals with the maintenance of discipline page 60 sec 68 second para (This is read). I ask the court to keep that in mind, when they come to the point of making a finding. The second point is Sec 48 Chap 3 MML and deals with drunkenness.(This is read) In this case we have the first offence and the offences which accompany it (Reads second and third charge) It is my submission in the case at bar that the act of firing the pistol and causing a disturbance can be quite serious, but the fact that the accused had been drinking and was not aware of what he was doing minimizes that. I want to point out that at the time the accused was not on duty merely at a social event and it was without malice it was merely something done on the spur of the moment. I would ask the court to take into consideration the army's attitude towards drunkenness. You have all had men before you and have heard the facts of that particular case before making an award and every man is allowed his first drunk. I would ask the court in this instance to think of the circumstances that surround this case in which the accused has been brought before you today. In the first instance he went to the Sqn dance of the Sqn he had previously commanded, was invited and knew the people there. The affair itself was not dry in that the officers themsevles had seen fit ~~ak~~ to open a bar of their own on another floor. There was also the men's canteen in the building and the officers mixed with the men and drank with them, which was something the accused did. I submit that these circumstances may have some bearing on the case in question. The accused working hard all day came to the dance, had nothing to eat and the building was very hot, and the drinks he had had effected him and he became under the weather. It is my contention that all these events arose out of theone thing, drunkenness and must be taken in to consideration. The accused has not been up on any charge at all and theyhave laid down a system whereby it is merely a fine.in respect to other ranks in cases of drunkenness and I submit that the rule in this case of an ordinary soldier should becarried out and in the maintenance of discipline it would be of little difference..

To deal with the accused himself he is a man of 33 years of age, married with his wife in Canada and two children, one seven the other nine. In private life he is an accountant with an Insurance Company. His army career is rather a lengthy one. In 1935 he was in the N.P.A.M. in the Governor Generals Horse Guards and was commissioned in that unit. On the 30 Aug 39 that particular unit was mobilized to defend the Welland Canal and the accused as a Lieut joined up and became active. Later they were given the opportunity of going back to N.P.A.M. or active service and the accused transferred to the R.C.A.P.C. who took him in immediately. He came overseas in Jan 40 with the 1st Div Fd Cash and then in Mar 42 transferred to the R.C.D. which were more suited to his temperament and love of adventure. In Jun 43 he worked himself up to be 2 i/c of a Sqn and as he had a brother with the 18 Cdn Armd C Regt the accused transferred tothat Regt to be with his Brother who was then 2 i/c of the unit. He also felt that his training with the R.C.Ds would make him quite beneficial to the 18 Cdn Armd C Regt and would help his brother and the unit in training. His brother later became CO of the unit. His courses have been confined to two due to lack of time. He was at the C.T.S. Gas course and came back with a distinguished. The second was with the Royal Armd Tank school and his record there was a very good record and had a good written report as Major Black has stated. His record is clean and there are no entries on his conduct sheet. I submit that the accused is an excellent soldier, fully trained in a unit xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx and it would be quite a blow for a unit to lose a man of this calibre. It is my submissionthat the court should take all these circumstances into consideration and ask the court to be lenient as possible in this case for the reasons I have stated.

Closing address by the Judge Advocate.

Gentlemen, I have already explained to you my functions so I do not refer to that again other than to point out that you are to be sole judges of the facts. In so far as the law is concerned it is your duty to be guided by my views as to the law and you should not disregard these views except for the ~~most~~ weightiest reasons. As to the charges themselves, The first charge being one of drunkenness is a familiar charge to you all. It is simple drunkenness, not drunkenness on duty or when warned for duty. No satisfactory definition for drunkenness has been evolved so far as law courts are concerned. If someone can tell me where a horse's tail begins and his backbone ends, then I can tell when a man is drunk or sober. Drunkenness will be regarded by a court of law in the ordinary meaning it would have in civil life. The fact that a man is incapable of performing his duties in the normal manner does not mean he is drunk. You should consider from your experiences in ordinary life whether the accused was drunk in the sense that drunkenness is known in either civil or military life. In so far as the second and third charges are concerned, in general, the court in order to find the accused guilty should find that his conduct was both prejudicial to good order and prejudicial to military discipline. Proof of one of these elements without the other is not sufficient. In so far as the facts are concerned you have heard the witnesses, the Prosecution officer and the Defending officer and I am sure that you have these facts well in mind. It will not be necessary for me to make a formal summary of these facts. You will judge them according to the weight to which you consider should be attached to the witness and you are the sole judges of these facts. I will, of course, refer to a few of these facts to illustrate the principles of law concerned in the main defence of the accused.

I will now deal with the principle defence of the accused. in relation to the second and third charges. A crime consists of two elements. Firstly the act itself and secondly the intent which accompanies that act. Proof of the act is usually made through the verbal evidence of witnesses, what they saw and what they heard. Proof of the intent, however, is more difficult to show as the thought of man being an intangible thing is not subject to accurate proof. In arriving at the intent of the accused the law has laid down the principle that a man is ~~XXXXXX~~ presumed to intend the natural and probable consequences of his act. Accordingly, if a man is seen to strike another it is presumed that he intended to commit the act. This intention, however, may be rebutted showing that the striking was accidental. In certain instances a man is incapable because of some dissability to form the intent necessary to commit an act. The case of insane persons is a good illustration of this. Extreme intoxication may be another instance. However the test that you will apply is this, when the accused committed the act did he understand the nature and consequences of the act or did he understand the distinction between right and wrong. That is a rough definition of the defence raised by the accused.

You should examine the actions of the accused throughout the evening very carefully to determine whether or not he knew the nature and consequences of those acts or whether he knew the difference between right and wrong. If you find that he knew these things or knew what he was doing then if you feel that the acts alleged in the charge sheet are proved beyond reasonable doubt you should find him guilty. On the other hand if you feel that the accused did not have the necessary intent which has been outlined to you he was incapable of committing the crime and accordingly you should acquit.

In considering whether the defence of the accused has been proved you may refer to all the evidence in the case and not confine yourselves to that given by the defender alone. In arriving at your verdict you should give the accused the benefit of any reasonable doubt which arises in your minds. This is not a fantastic doubt. It is the doubts which are readily apparent to reasonable men.

I certify that this is a true transcript of the evidence taken at the trial

Summary of Evidence in the case of Major Frederick Alexander Roberts, 18th Armoured Car Regiment (XII Manitoba Dragoons), an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, charged with drunkenness and an act to the prejudice of good order and mil discipline

The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

P 1078 Sgt Heymans, A H'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, a Sgt of 5 tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here. I was sitting in the canteen at the dance on 3 Jun 44 and noticed Maj Roberts had his pistol drawn at rest posn. He had it drawn for several minutes. The place was rather crowded and some of the people were getting a bit nervous so I went out of the canteen and told Maj Farmer. I asked him if he would come in and speak to Maj Roberts. Maj Farmer came in and took Maj Roberts' pistol. I then left the canteen.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

A. Heymans. Sgt
(A H Heymans) P 1078

Second Witness

Maj K P Farmer, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, sqn leader 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here as the accused. At approximately 2045 hrs at my sqn dance in the Drill Hall, Tunbridge Wells on 3 Jun 44, I was dancing when Sgt Heymans approached me and said that Maj Roberts had a loaded pistol in the men's bar and said, "I think you had better do something about it." I went to the men's bar immediately and saw Maj Roberts sitting on a bench near the door. He had a pistol in his hand which was beneath the table pointing towards the floor. I unhooked the pistol from the lanyard and placed it in a cupboard in the offrs' bar. The pistol was loaded. When I took the pistol away from Maj Roberts there was no sign of any disturbance in the men's bar and I did not say anything to Maj Roberts at the time. It was obvious Maj Roberts had been drinking but as I did not speak to him, and I am not prepared to state whether or not he was drunk, about 20 minutes later Maj Roberts stopped me on the dance floor and asked me to return his pistol as he was going home. I was reluctant to give it to him. We discussed the matter for a few moments and then moved off the dance floor and upstairs where the discussion continued. Capt Stilwell joined us and suggested that Maj Roberts get his pistol as he was leaving the dance. Maj Roberts gave no indication of creating trouble or wanting to fight but was quite insistent that his pistol be returned to him. I finally agreed and Capt Stilwell followed me into the offrs' bar. I took Maj Roberts' pistol from the cupboard where I had placed it and gave it to Capt Stilwell to return to him. I don't remember seeing Maj Roberts for some time afterwards but recall seeing him upstairs in the passage way outside the offrs' bar when I was on my way home at approximately 2345 hrs. Maj Roberts at the time was with L/Cpl Albone and others. There was a good deal of talking and fooling and good natured pushing about between Cpl Albone and Maj Roberts but everything seemed in good order so I passed on and left the building for home.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Third Witness

Capt V C Stilwell, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still 2IC 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here as the accused. I was at the Drill Hall, Tunbridge Wells on 3 Jun 44 from 1930 hrs until 2330 hrs attending my sqn dance. I was sitting in the offrs' bar at approximately 2100 hrs when one of the men, I am not sure now who, came up to me and asked me to come downstairs as Maj Roberts and Maj Farmer were having an argument. I immediately went down and saw Maj Roberts and Maj Farmer talking together. They appeared to be in a rather heated discussion. I went over to them and asked them to leave the centre of the dance floor. I took them upstairs to the landing on the first floor and on the way up asked Mr Henry and Mr Clacy to accompany me. It was apparent that Maj Roberts had had considerable to drink. I asked them not to fight there but go elsewhere if they wished to fight. Maj Roberts then told me that Maj Farmer had his pistol and that he was going home and wanted it back. I asked Maj Farmer to get the pistol and I followed him into the bar where he took it from a cupboard and gave it to me. I then returned to Maj Roberts who was waiting on the landing. The pistol was loaded when I received it but I removed the rounds before offering it to Maj Roberts. I said to him, "I have the rounds, Sir, and will give them to you tomorrow", or words to that effect. He said, "No", and that he felt he wasn't wanted there and he wanted the rounds back and that he was going to leave. He then went down the stairs and I thought he left but Mr Clacy informed me at approximately 2230 hrs that Maj Roberts was on the dance floor. I left the dance hall at 2345 hrs when the dance was over, in the sqn H.U.P. and came back to camp.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

V.C. Stilwell
(V C Stilwell) Capt

Fourth Witness:

Lieut C E Henry, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, tp leader of 1 tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am well acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here. I was present at the sqn dance in the Drill Hall, Tunbridge Wells, Saturday, 3 Jun 44. At one time during the evening Capt Stilwell who was running the dance stopped me on the dance floor and asked me to come with him. I followed him and found him talking to Maj Roberts about a pistol. Maj Farmer was also there. I heard Capt Stilwell say, "I don't know what the trouble is but this is a sqn dance and we don't want any trouble here." Maj Roberts replied but I didn't hear what he said. Capt Stilwell then said, "Alright, I will go and get your pistol." I left them there and returned to the dance floor. I did not see Maj Roberts again until approximately 0030 hrs when I hailed a passing lorry which stopped and which I mounted and found to be one of our sqn vehs. There were about 15 men and offrs in the lorry and I moved well up to the front where there was a vacant seat. I heard an argument going on at the rear of the lorry and moved down to see what it was. I heard Cpl Bowden of 'A' Sqn asking Maj Roberts for his pistol so that he could empty it. Maj Roberts refused to give it to him and a further argument ensued. I saw Cpl Bowden take the pistol from Maj Roberts' hand and eject the rounds from it. Maj Roberts ordered him to pick the rounds up and Cpl Bowden refused and said, "You may have the pistol but no rounds." I then took the pistol from Cpl Bowden and placed it on the seat beside me out of either of their reaches. Maj Roberts threatened to strike Cpl Bowden but was restrained by Lieut Caswell and myself. The next time the veh stopped Cpl Bowden got out and into another veh. Maj Roberts wished to follow him but was prevented fromdoing so by our veh moving off. It was apparent that Maj Roberts had been drinking considerably and was under the influence of liquor. We next stopped at a cross roads 100 yds from 'A' Sqn camp where I alighted and when the veh was clear of everyone who wished to get off I gave Maj Roberts his empty pistol and returned to camp.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(C E Henry) Lieut

Fifth Witness:

Lieut R N Caswell, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, tp leader of 4 tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am well acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here as the accused. I attended the sqn dance in the Drill Hall, Tunbridge Wells on 3 Jun 44. I saw Maj Roberts there and everything seemed normal and I saw nothing unusual happen at the dance. After the dance outside the Drill Hall I was helping to load the last lorry. I saw Maj Roberts sitting on a low wall about 20 yds in front of the drill hall entrance. I went to him to tell him that the last lorry was ready to go back to camp. He stood up and staggered over and got into the lorry. I heard a pistol shot come from the lorry. I climbed into the lorry and looked around to see who had fired it. Just then Capt Jones, Adjt HQ Home Guard came up and asked who had fired the shot. I climbed down to speak to him and told him I didn't know. He replied that he would have to call out the guard and did so. The lorry moved to turn around within the grounds during which time another pistol shot was fired. The Adjt Home Guard stopped the lorry on the way out and again spoke to me and asked me again if I knew who had fired the shot. I answered, "No", and he replied "I will have to report this to your Colonel." I climbed into the back of the lorry and he allowed us to proceed. I noticed Maj Roberts sitting in the left rear corner of the lorry with his pistol in his lap and as we were going out the driveway he raised it as if to fire. I asked him not to and he didn't; but after we had turned along the highway and gone a short distance he did fire a round and fired again two more within the next half mile. All shots were fired straight up into the air. I tried to get him to put his pistol away but could not reason with him owing to his condition. In my opinion he was drunk. He then unloaded his pistol and threw the empty cartridges over the tailboard. The lorry halted to pick up Cpl Downie and Lieut Henry. Then I moved up to the front of the lorry. The next thing I knew there was an argument going on at the rear of the veh. I pushed my way to the back and heard words being exchanged between Maj Roberts and Cpl Bowden, J of 'A' Sqn. I don't quite remember what was said but I could see that tempers were high and that there was going to be trouble so I stood in front of Cpl Bowden who was standing up in the right rear of the veh. Shortly after that I saw Cpl Bowden climb out over the tailboard on to the street. The veh had stopped at the time. Lieut Chaplin also got out there and I asked him to go to the driver with orders to move on quickly. The lorry moved off and left Cpl Bowden on the street. Nothing else out of the ordinary happened on the way back to camp.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(R N Caswell) Lieut

Sixth Witness:

Lieut H W Chaplin, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, tp leader of 2 Tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am well acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here as the accused. I attended the sqn dance at Tunbridge Wells on 3 Jun 44. I saw Maj Roberts at the dance and spoke to him twice during the evening and noticed nothing unusual. At the completion of the dance I was outside the dance hall. No tpt was available at the moment. I returned inside the dance hall to the office of the Home Guard to phone for a cab. This being unsuccessful, I returned outside. A 60-cwt was parked at the entrance and while I was collecting everyone to get aboard I heard the sound of a shot. I then got on the truck and saw Maj Roberts seated in the truck at the back left hand corner, with a pistol in his hand. I asked him to put it away. He said "No". Maj Roberts was not his normal self. In my estimation he was drunk and not aware of what he was doing. He was holding the pistol down by his side pointed at the bottom of the truck. I stood beside him for a short time and as he was sitting quietly I moved into the centre of the truck. I spoke to the dvr to move off but there was a car parked in front of the lorry on the driveway and he was only able to move a short distance. When the lorry moved Maj Roberts raised his pistol and shot 1 round up into the air. Someone called call out the guard. Mr Clacy asked me to make a mental note of the offrs on board. The civilian car blocking the drive was moved out of the way and I ordered the lorry dvr to adv. We drove out on to the main rd and turned towards the town. When we were a short way down the main rd another shot was fired from the rear of the truck. Further down the rd another shot was fired. Following this an argument started in the rear of the truck. I could not make out what was said. We continued down the rd to the cross roads at the post office, where I stopped the truck and got out. Lt Hone got out with me and I also saw Cpl Bowden dismount. Then I told the dvr to adv.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

H W Chaplin
(H W Chaplin) Lieut

Seventh Witness:

Lieut C E J Clacy, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, tp leader 5 tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize as the accused. I was present at the sqn dance at Tunbridge Wells on 3 Jun 44. I saw Maj Roberts at the dance. At approximately 2200 hrs I was talking to Maj Farmer on the dance floor when Maj Roberts approached and asked Maj Farmer for his pistol. A discussion followed whilst I stood back and I did not here all that was said. I then heard Maj Farmer say, "Well, let's go upstairs." Capt Stilwell had come up by this time and motioned me to stay close by. When I saw them moving to go upstairs I preceded them and when they reached the landing they stopped again and Maj Roberts was very insistent that he get his pistol back. I noticed him take off his belt and holster and Capt Stilwell stepped in between Maj Farmer and Maj Roberts and I heard Capt Stilwell say to Maj Roberts, "There is to be no fighting here. If you want to do your fighting, do it somewhere else." Then Maj Farmer said he would give the pistol back and everything seemed to be settled. I was in charge of one of the lorries transporting personnel from the dance. I had delivered one load and returned with the lorry to pick up others. There was a civilian car blocking the drive so I walked in to the entrance of the Drill Hall where one of our other lorries was parked and loaded. I was met by the Adjt Home Guard and he informed me that the car in the drive was his and that he would not let the lorry out until he found out who had fired the shot. He also said he had to fall out the guard which I noticed lined up behind the veh. I asked him to let me take the responsibility of seeing that no more shots were fired. He agreed and arranged to have his car moved out of the drive. I then climbed up on the lorry and asked that no more shots be fired and requested Lieut Chaplin to note the names of the offrs in the lorry. The lorry then moved on to the main rd towards TUNBRIDGE WELLS and I heard two more shots fired as it moved down the rd. I got into my lorry and instructed the dvr to follow. The veh ahead stopped twice on the way back to camp but there were no more shots fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

J B Clacy

(C E J Clacy) Lieut

Eighth Witness:

D77435 Cpl Bowden, J, 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and still am a rft increment Cpl att to trg tp 'A' Sqn 18 Cdn Armd C Regt. I am acquainted with Maj Roberts whom I recognize here. I was at the sqn dance in TUNBRIDGE WELLS on Saturday 3 Jun 44. I did not notice Maj Roberts during the evening but he was in the lorry which I got in, to come back to camp after the dance. When I came out of the dance hall I heard a shot fired and looked around about the area to see if I could locate the person who fired it. I could not determine from where the shot came. There was a second shot fired and the Capt of the Home Guard called the guard out. Then I climbed in the front of the truck.

There was another shot fired and I determined it came from the back of the lorry. I moved to the back of the lorry and saw Maj Roberts with his pistol in his hand and he was loading it. I then said to him, "Isn't that enough, Sir?" He answered back, "Do you know how long we've got to go." I asked him if I could have his pistol and he gave it to me. I opened it and it was fully loaded. I unloaded it and the rounds fell on the floor of the veh. I then handed him back his empty pistol. He handed the pistol back to me and told me to load it. I asked him if that was an order and he replied, "Yes." I said, "I am sorry, Sir, I'll have to refuse to obey this order." I then handed him back his pistol in his general direction. I do not know whether he received it or another party. He got quite agressive and made a grab for me. Someone intervened and the veh stopped to let off some passengers, and I was advised by someone, I do not know who, that it would be a good idea if I got off the veh. I thought so too, and did so. I walked home.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

J Bowden. Cpl

Ninth Witness:

Capt W E Jones, Capt H G, 22 (TUNBRIDGE WELLS) Bn Home Guard, sworn, states:

I was on 3 Jun 44 and am still, Capt H G Adm Offr to 22 (TUNBRIDGE WELLS) Bn Home Guard. I do not know or recognize the accused. I returned to the Drill Hall, St Johns Rd, TUNBRIDGE WELLS at approximately 0015 hrs on Sunday, 4 Jun 44 to ascertain whether the hall was cleared after a dance. On arrival at the maingate I stopped to allow a truck to back out into the road. I then drove in through the gates to find a second truck which was being loaded blocking the drive. I switched off the engine of my car and was getting out of the car when a shot was fired from the truck. I saw the flash and heard the report, the whine of the bullet, and the flash as the bullet hit brick or stone work. Thinking that a round had been let off accidently I climbed on to the truck and asked who fired. No answer was forthcoming. I therefore turned out the guard in case of trouble. When an offr of the Canadian Dragoons (unknown by name to me) stated that he would see the truck off the premises I instructed the driver to proceed. A second shot was fired before the truck left the premises, this shot into the air. A third shot was fired when the truck was some 100 or more yds away from the Drill Hall proceeding along St Johns Rd in a southerly direction. The sky was overcast when I climbed on to the truck. I would not be able to identify any of the occupants. I quite thought the first shot was accidentally discharged, as I saw no reason for anyone to fire at me or my car. It was the lack of confirmation of accidental discharge that caused me to take a serious view of the situation.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

I was duty dvr and was in the men's bar sitting with two lady friends whom I had met there. Maj Roberts was sitting at the end of the same table as I was sitting at. I had just come back from the bar when I passed Maj Roberts. He had his pistol in his hand. As I went to sit down I put the beer on the table behind Maj Roberts. He turned around rather suddenly knocking the glasses over with his pistol. He immediately got up and said, "I am sorry." I then got up and left the bar.

PLEA OF MITIGATION 14 Mar 45

Gentlemen,

In my plea of mitigation on behalf of Pte Roberts, there are several points I would like to bring to the Court's attention.

1. Pte Roberts enlisted in the Cdn Army at the age of 20 on the 29th of May 1940. He went overseas with his Unit (The 48th Highlanders of Canada) in August of the same year and served with them in the U.K. There he met and married an English girl in April 1943. The Unit left the U.K. - Pte Roberts with them, and landed in Sicily. There he fought with his Unit in action until October when he contracted malaria. The malaria re-occurred four times and prevented Pte Roberts from joining his friends. From October 1943 until July 1944 the accused spent most of his time in various Convalescent Depots and Hospitals.

2. He was then posted to 2nd Echelon and served continuously and faithfully until now. He was in the Records Section and there were no complaints against him. At this time, I would have brought forth character witnesses on Roberts' behalf but unfortunately they have left the theatre.

3. However I would bring to the Court's attention the accused's MFM 6 which shows no crimes from April 1943 until now. His record of two years without a mark against him is exceptional and shows the type of soldier that Roberts can be.

I hope the Court will take the above points into consideration when making its decision and will of consequence let Pte Roberts off with a short period of detention.

W. A. Davis Lt.
Defending Officer.

trouble in either military or civilian sense. In pleading guilty to these charges he admits his guilt. May I suggest to the court, L/Cpl Roberts, as the charges shown are aggravated and brought on by drunkiness. Roberts should have been charged with drunkiness and his first offence would have been admonished or reverted to the ranks. Since landing in Normandy he has been working under trying conditions with very little or no recreation. On the day in question he had on his own admission partaking of spirits, as you may know some of the French wines and liquors can especially to the novice prove quite fatal. This is what has occured in this case. Under these circumstances and the fact that the man has a clean crime sheet after four years service and that he has spent 14 days under close arrest for which on conviction he automatically loses 14 days pay. It is my humble opinion that reverting to the ranks, the 14 days loss of pay and the mental lession this man has learned is [redacted] punishment enough for this offence.

Second Witness

K52992 L/Cpl Royston, R.A. No.2 Cdn Provost Coy Cdn Provost Corps having been duly sworn states:

I am K52992 L/Cpl Royston R.A. of No.2 Cdn Provost Coy Cdn Army Overseas. While on duty on the 11 Aug 44 at approx 2100 hrs on highway patrol, duty between DAUPTEVILLE SUR LAIZE and PONT DU FARSEMY moving the 6th Cdn Bde up to forward positions, riding a motorcycle and travelling north on the above mentioned highway one of the 5 cwts went past and an officer yelled that there was a three ton lorry following him full of drunken soldiers: to stop it and place them under arrest. He gave me the number of the Veh. The road was narrow and the convoy was being held up so I wrote the number down. I proceeded on north to endeavour to find the veh and came across it at map reference 035945 approx. The lorry had stalled. I asked who was in charge of the veh and B84380 L/Cpl Roberts, F.... whom I later identified, said that he was in charge. Pte Miles whom I now recognize was wandering about the rear of the truck waving his arms, apparently under the influence of liquor. I gave the Cpl in charge an order to move the veh off the road into a driveway and was informed that the starter was broken. I stopped an 8th Recce Regt Gun Carrier and had the lorry towed and started. I went behind the veh to guide him in and Cpl Roberts climbed on the side of the veh and the veh pulled ahead. I hollered for them to stop but the lorry kept going leaving Miles behind. I went over to my motorcycle to catch them and as I turned my motorcycle about Pte Miles got in the road saying: "You are not going up the hill," Miles continued "if you go up the hill I am going with you," with those remarks he climbed on the rear of the motorcycle. I ordered him off, he didn't obey so I stopped the machine and got off. Pte Miles did likewise. I told him to get away from me which he did for a moment until I started up the motorcycle again and pulled away, with this he jumped on the back of the motorcycle putting his arms over my shoulders seizing the handgrips and twisting the throttle full on. I tried to stop the motorcycle as it was careening from one side of the road to the other picking up speed all the time finally ending up against the bank on the opposite side of the road. I got up from the machine and Miles followed suit. Across the road there were three personnel from the 8th Fd Regt RCA. I ordered them to hold Miles under close arrest until I returned. I couldn't locate the lorry so returned to the 8th Fd Regt RCA. On my return I could locate neither the accused nor the escort. I contacted L/Cpl Cederstrand in the village about 300 yards away. He informed me there was a drunken soldier behind one of the houses whom he was trying to catch. The soldier was finally caught and it proved to be Pte Miles. He became objectionable desireous to fight. He was soaking wet evidently having been in water up to his waist. At this point one of my Coy's 5 cwts appeared with Cpl Ford in charge and I explained the circumstances to this N.C.O. Cpl Ford said he would take over the custody of Pte Miles and ordered him into the 5 cwt. Pte Miles got in the front and proceeded to toss out the signs that were in the rear of the car. Miles proved more troublesome so L/Cpl Cederstrand proceeded with Cpl Ford and Pte Miles. From where I stood I watched the car proceed for about 500 yards where it came to a stop. Another 5 cwt of our Coy in charge of Sgt Mitchell came alongside Cpl Ford's veh. They loaded Pte Miles into Sgt Mitchell's 5 cwt. Sgt Mitchell with Pte Miles drove down to where I was standing in order to turn and at this point Pte Miles kept kicking the gears and attempting to grab the steering wheel. It was decided to tie Pte Miles up. The Sgt and Cpl Ford and L/Cpl Cederstrand tied him up and laid him across the hood of the 5 cwt with Sgt Mitchell walking on one side holding his head and L/Cpl Cederstrand on the other holding his feet. I reported the above occurrences to the orderly sergeant on my return at approx 2300 hrs to my unit. On the morning of the 12 Aug 44 I was detailed to proceed to 75 F.D.S. to obtain full particulars re Pte Miles. I was informed that during the night Pte Miles had broken close arrest. I then proceeded to 33 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy RCASC and contacted the adjutant telling him of the circumstances. In company with the adjutant and L/Cpl Cederstrand we proceeded to "B" pl of 33 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy RCASC. I saw Pte Miles again ordered him into close arrest. This was done. We then proceeded to the Admin lorry and asked the pl Sgt as to who was the driver of lorry No. CL 4236662 and was informed that L/Cpl Roberts was the driver. L/Cpl Roberts was sent for and I recognized him as the soldier who on the previous night told me that he was the N.C.O. i/c lorry No. CL 4236662. He was not the soldier who drove the lorry. L/Cpl Roberts stated he could remember nothing of the previous evening except that he went out in his lorry and was in the vicinity of CAEN.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question 1 Did you tell us to go up the road to the nearest field and park?

Answer 1 No, I told you to pull ahead from the wall so you could back into a larger driveway on the other side of the road.

B84380 L/Cpl Fredrick Roland ROBERTS 33 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy RCASC having been duly sworn states:

I am B84380 L/Cpl ROBERTS F.R. 33 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy RCASC. Ptes Miles, McGee and MacDonald and myself were drinking in the field adjoining "B" Pl lines. The next thing I remember I was standing on a box between the cab and the body of the vehicle. The left side of the vehicle was up against a wall. I jumped down and saw a Provost there. The lorry was stalled and the Provost hailed a Bren Carrier and he towed us up a side road. I was walking behind the vehicle and the Provost Cpl told me where he wished the vehicle parked, showing me a small lane up the road. I told the Provost Cpl that we would be unable to park the lorry in that lane at the same time noticing that it was my lorry. I asked if we could take the vehicle up to the next field and park. I climbed on the running board and looked back at Pte Miles talking to the Provost. We pulled into the field, parked and waited about three minutes whereupon the Provost Cpl came up. I walked over with the Provost Cpl to his motorcycle which was leaning against a post leaving Ptes McGee and MacDonald with the lorry. I then understood the Provost Cpl to say to go on home. I got in and presume somebody cranked the lorry and I drove back to the platoon lines arriving at about 2200 hrs. I went to bed in my tent having been sick. On the morning of the 12th August carried out my maintenance on my vehicle and noticed a broken shackle reporting it to my D.M. and Fitter. A 1056 was prepared and I drove the vehicle to workshops telling workshops that the vehicle had been driven over a slit trench thereby causing the broken shackle. I returned for dinner and was called for by the adjutant and the Provost Cpl of yesterday night. I was placed under arrest.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER.

In the Case of H 17388 Sgr Roberts G.

This Soldier has been in the army since 28 May 1940, and overseas since the 2nd Sept 1940. In that time he has successively been with the Edmonton Regt, the R.C.E. and the Pioneers, and in his words he has never been able to settle down and Soldier. Sgr Roberts has told me that he has not heard from his family in over six months, and is convinced that there is something wrong at Home. Although this is not given as an excuse for his lapse from duty - it is a Situation that could quite easily prey on anybody's mind, so that a Soldier could lose some of his sense of Responsibility, and I am convinced in this last lapse it has been so - I may add in this connection that this matter is being taken up through our Unit Padre, and that the accused will have some definate word in the near future.

I would also like to point out to the Court that this Soldier voluntarily gave himself up at Borden.

When I turned the corner of the building I had two other men go to the kitchen together to pick up a barrel of garbage. While my back was turned, Pte. Roberts jumped off the truck and drove into the rear by the bushes. I saw him with my own eyes as I turned from the corner driving into the bushes, but couldn't apprehend him on account of having two other men with me.
Q18 - Was Roberts a prisoner in detention?
A18 - Yes, sir, he was a prisoner of No.1 Detention.

Cross-examination by the Defending Officer .

Q19 - What were your orders at that time?
A19 - I was given orders to take three men on a garbage team.
Q20 - Were there any orders given to keep them in hearing?
A20 - I had no specific orders as to the three together. That would be impossible to do at that job. At the time there were no specific orders given that the three men were to be kept together.

Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

Fourth witness for the prosecution Lieut Mills, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q24 - Your are Assistant to the Adjutant of No.1 C.I.H.U.?
A24 - Yes, sir.
Q25 - In performance of your duties did you have anything to do with the letters written by the accused?
A25 - I censored all letters.
Q26 - Had you any occasion to censor any letters written by the accused?
A26 - I had, that last one being Tuesday last.
Q27 - I produce to you a letter containing a envelope addressed to Messrs. D. Dore. Wil you tell me if that is the letter?
A27 - Yes, sir, that is the letter.

Prosecutor proceeds to read the letter.

Defending Officer - Roberts admits that that is his signature on the letter.

Prosecutor - We have evidence that he has been on the 19th of February, apprehended in Southport in civilian clothes. He went to South Ireland and got a job there working on a farm, then he returned back to Southport. He didn't intend to return. I submit that there is evidence, first of a.w.l., and sufficient evidence before you to infer that he had no intentions of returning to his unit.

Defending Officer - In the first charge just completed there are several points to show that the accused did not intend to desert. First he took a number of passes with him. He put his own name on them, and signed some name on the bottom. He didnot try to misrepresent himself as a soldier. In regards to working he had to do that. He didn't stay long in Ireland. When he came back he got a job in the Naval Dockyards. During that time he apparently tried to joined the Army. He worked at a job that required man-power. They would not take him in the Army at that time. He wasn't trying to desert. The other point is that he used his own name on all occasions. When he was apprehended by the Police he didn't try to conceal his identity as a soldier and also he intended to come back at a later date. The job ended in July so he had to stay on.

Q26
Court - When did he attempt to join the Army?
A28 - Defending Officer - 10th of May. We have no evidence except the accused on statement. There is another point, and that is that the accused always had his paybook.

Prosecutor - This fact should be proven by a statment from the accused.

The accused A.WOM4, Pte. Roberts, G., No.1 C.I.H.U., is duly sworn and examined by the Defending Officer -

Q29 - You tried to join the Army?
A29 - In the first place I tried to get into the R.A.F, but they turned me down. They turned me over to the Army. I went to join the R.A.C.
Q30 - Are you at present in any military force?
A30 - No, sir.

Prosecutor cross-examines -

Q31 - You tried to enlist first of all in the R.A.F., and again in the R.A.C., is that the only two units you tried to enlist in?
A31 - Yes, sir.
Q32 -
Court - Any further questions?
A32 - Defending Officer - One point in his examination proves the fact that he didn't try to desert.

Prosecutor - It is proven that he had no intention of coming back to the Canadian Army. Whether he intended to join the R.A.F., or the R.A.C., he obviously intended to desert the Canadian Army, and to me that is the only Army I am interested in at the present time. His own statement proves that.

Defending Officer - If he does leave the Canadian Army and joins the British Army he is not deserting his Majesty's Forces.
Prosecutor - He is deserting his Majesty's Canadian Forces.

Fifth witness for the Prosecution in relation to the third charge, B.73290, Pte. Durham, R.F., No.1 C.I.H.U., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q33 - What is your regimental number, rank, name and unit?
A33 - I am B.73290 Pte. Durham, R.F., No.1 C.I.H.U.
Q34 - Pte. Durham, were you on the 25th of July, a member of the Regimental Police of No.1 C.I.H.U.?
A34 - Yes I was, sir.

Q35 - Was the accused at that time a prisoner there?
A35 - Yes, sir.
Q36 - Was he under your care during that time?
A36 - Yes, sir.
Q37 - Did anything happen at the time he was under your care? When he escaped?
A37 - Yes, sir.
Q38 - Will you tell the Court the circumstances? How did he get the opportunity to escape? First of all what time was it?
A38 - About 6.30 sir.
Q39 - Where were you at that time?
A39 - I was in the compound back of No.9 Detention Barracks.
Q40 - What were you doing? Were you by yourself?
A40 - No, sir, there was myself and six others besides.
Q41 - What were you doing?
A41 - My job was to watch them.
Q42 - Will you tell the circumstances of Roberts' escape?
A42 - On the evening band from 107 Camp was playing at the change of the guard.
Q43 - Were they playing at 6.30?
A43 - Approximately 6.30.
Q44 - What happened?
A44 - All the prisoners under escort were at the end of the compound.
Q45 - That is to listen to the band?
A45 - Yes, sir and also the guard marching back. When my back was turned at the top end of the compound. Pte. Roberts went behind me and over the wall.
Q46 - When did you first notice his escape?
A46 - It was called to my attention that someone was running through the woods.
Q47 - At about that time?
A47 - Yes, sir. I took immediate action to see who was missing.
Q48 - It was Roberts?
A48 - Yes, sir.
Q49 - He didn't return that night?
A49 - No, sir.

Cross-examination by the Defending Officer -

Q50 - This wall is about eight feet high?
A50 - Yes, sir.
Q51 - You had your back turned to the prisoner?
A51 - My back was turned to the end of the compound.
Q52 - Where were the prisoners?
A52 - All down at one end sir. This end facing the main road.
Q53 - You had only six prisoners?
A53 - I had seven counting Roberts.
Q54 - The point is where were you in regards to the prisoner?
A54 - About the centre.
Q55 - If you had been in the rear of the prisoners watching, could you not have prevented Roberts escaping?
A56 - Yes, sir. When the band came up we moved up to the fence. The natural thing to do would be to put your hands up on the fence which would bring the prisoners level with me.
Q57 - In orders words you gave Roberts by getting close to the fence, you gave him his method of getting away?
A57 - It was quite accidental sir.

Re-examination by the Prosecutor -

Q58 - What dress was he in?
A58 - He was in fatigue clothes.

Lieut E.J. Rider, third witness for the prosecution is recalled - and produces A.F.C. 1612 relating to A.[illegible] Pte. Roberts, G., No.1 C.I.H.U.

Prosecutors closing address - In respect to the first charge sir, this documentary evidence before you shows that he was absent without leave for a period of time for which he is charged. I ask you to infer from the evidence before you that he didn't intend to return to any military corps. Notes Section 12---reads---I ask you to infer that sir from the evidence before you. We have first of all the following facts from which you can adduce that inference. First the fact that he was absent from 19th of February until he was apprehended on the 6th of July. The fact that he was in civilian clothes at the time of his apprehension. We have too the fact that when he absented himself he had two stolen passes which would assist him in his escape. Then too he went to Ireland and stayed there working on a farm. There is no statement as to why he left, but he did come back to England, in the early part of April, 19[illegible]1 and there he got a job at Southport, which again is very strong evidence that he had intentions to desert. Then in addition to that we have his own statement here in the letter---reads---Obviously from that letter it is adduced that he had no intention at that time of returning to his unit. We have some vague statement that he wanted to join the R.A.F. or the R.A.C., and here again if he had joined one of those units he could still be charged with desertion from the Canadian Army. I have not gone into the enquiry. He intended to desert from the Canadian Army can be proven because he had tried to join some Imperial Unit. These are the facts which I adduce inference and which are quite sufficient for you to pass a conviction of desertion. The third charge there is no evidence that he intended to desert other then the fact that he escaped while in confinement. He went back to the same place and again was picked up there in civilian clothes. If he had intention to desert the first time, it is only natural to infer that he had intention to desert on the second time.

Defending Officer - The Prosecutor mentioned that the accused had two stolen passes on him. The point is were they stolen. It is not in the charge at all. It is definitely not the charge. The man is being charged for desertion. I ask that that fact be struck off the Prosecutor's statement.

The Prosecution is closed.

Q59 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A59 - No, sir.
Q60 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A60 - No, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Prosecutor, Lieut F.S. Weatherstone, is duly sworn.

Q61 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A61 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M.C.
Q62 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A62 - Yes, sir.
Q63 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A63 - Yes, sir.
Q64 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A64 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Q65 - Do you wish to address the Court?
AQ5 - Defending Officer - I have known Roberts for a long time in "A" Company, and I might mentioned the fact that the C.S.M. of "A" Company, R.C.R., at that time found him to be a good clean soldier and had no trouble with him. I met him first in Valcartier Camp. He was a clean soldier and a good soldier. He left Barossa Barracks in Aldershot and I didn't see Roberts from that time until I met him in Aldershot again one day. He was wearing Corporal stripes. Apparently he had seem fit to be made a L/Cpl and then a Corporal. He had a good job. He committed an offence which was contrary to regulations by breaking out of prison. It must remember that he has a wife. We know that a man will do anything to help his family out. He went absent then and got a job. He went to Ireland. He also came back to England and got a job in the Naval Dockyards. It must remembered that through all this he took his wife with him and supported her. He could have waited and saw his Commanding Officer, but the point was that he had lost his promotion and he thought everything was against him and he just didn't know the seriousness of the act he committed. It must be remembered that he did work at a government job, and with the act he committed first started these charges you have in front of you now. He went absent for the first time; the reason for going absent was he had not enough pay to support his wife. His wife was in need, and at the time he had no money to carry it out. He made no pretence of not being Roberts when apprehended. He made no pretence of not being in the Canadian Army, and also while he was working in the dockyards he was working for His Majesty's Government. He was afraid to come back; naturally he would be. These two escapes he made, both of them he was left open. He just took the bull by the horns and made a get away. In the first case he was left on the truck. The second case the guard went forward to the gate and let him get behind. It was only human nature. I would like to apply for leniency on the grounds that the stretting off of this thing was thinking about his wife, and also that he had to support her.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Geo. Roberts.....

I went absent without leave from my unit at Witley Camp at the end of February, 1941. I had about £5-0-0 in cash and two blank passes in my possession. I filled out the passes for seven days leave on each one for the purpose of proceeding to ROSSLARE, Irish Free State. I used my own name on the passes and signed the name of an officer - I dont remember the name - and added Major to it. I had enough money to buy my ticket to Rosslare.

The civilian clothes that I am wearing were some that I had purchased about seven months before for the purpose of wearing on leave and I had them checked at the Sailors' Home at Aldershot. The same day that I left my unit, I went to the Sailors Home and changed from my uniform into the civilian clothes. I then wrapped my uniform, steel helmet and respirator in a parcel and when I got on a train at Reading the same night I threw the parcel out of the train window between Reading and Fishguard.

I went straight from Reading to Rosslare where I got a job on a farm doing ordinary labour. I worked at the farm until the early part of April, 1941 and then returned to Fishguard and from there to Southport where I went to the labour exchange and applied for an unemployment card. I was asked for my Identification Card I told them that I had just come from Ireland where I had been working on a farm and had not been in England on National Registration Day and therefore had not been given a card. I was then given a slip of paper which stated that I had applied for a National Registration Identity Card by the Registration Bureau where I had been sent by the Labour exchange. At the Labour Exchange I was then given an Unemployment Card and sent to work for COSTAINE's Limited, Contracting Firm from Liverpool, at the present time at work on a Naval Barracks at Southport.

While I was in Southport I stayed at my people's home at 18 Hall Street, Southport. I told them that I had been discharged from the Army for being medically unfit and had just come back from Ireland after having been sent there for a rest.

I stayed at this job until the Registration Bureau made enquiries and not being satisfied, called in the civil police who made further inquiries and discovered that I was an absentee. On the 9th July 41, at about 18.00 hrs. I was arrested and held for the arrival of the escort from the Canadian Provost Corps.

A.7. No Sir.

Pros: Mr. President and Members of the Court there are four charges against the accused but two are in the alternative, that is the accused can only be found Guilty on two of the charges.
The evidence will be that while the prisoners, Sapper Gibbs, Sapper Last and Private Barrett were in the Cells the accused entered the cell of Gibbs and asked him to let him "Suck him off", and also attempted to force Gibbs to agree to this by getting hold of his testicles. The Second two charges are similar to the First and will show that he entered the cell of Private Barrett and made a proposal to Barrett with precisely the same words used in the case of Gibbs and in addition stroked the throat of Barrett and it will be shown that it was the accused who was Sergeant of the Guard who entered the cells on that night.
In addition to the Witnesses mentioned I proposed to to call the Corporal of the Guard who is not shown on the Summary of Evidence, but I have advised the Counsel for the accused and understand there is no objection.

A.28 On January 16th. I was in No.1. Cell, S.S.N. Guard Room and went to bed, Sapper Last was in the same cell, my bed was on the right hand side of the door. We had both gone to bed and were lying awake and about one thirty at night the lights went on and Sergeant Roberts came in. Sapper Last asked him what time it was and he said about one o'clock and he came in between the two beds and offered me a cigarette and put his arm over my left shoulder and lit my cigarette and asked me if I wanted to have a good time and I said No, and he put his hand under the blankets and took hold of my testicles and he tried to coax me and I said no, and he gave them a squeeze, and then said that he would be back in twenty minutes and that I was to be ready to move to the big Detention Room where we could have a good time. As he was going out he said something about washing off the walls, and he then went along the corridor and we heard him go into No.2. Cell and then into No.3. Cell. Shortly after this we heard footsteps coming along the corridor again and pass our cell. About half an hour later I turned and faced the wall and tried to go to sleep and Sergeant Roberts came again over to my bed and sat down on it and rubbed my face I pretended I was asleep and he then twisted my ear and told me to wake up, and I told him to go away and leave me alone. Then Sapper Last told him to leave me alone and get to hell out, and Sergeant Roberts went out and locked the door and we then heard No.2. cell being unlocked again and then I think he went to No.3. Cell and went he came down the corridor Sapper Last shouted out to him to put out our lights and after that I went to sleep. Sometime later, I do not know how long, I awoke and found Roberts sitting on my knees and I told him to get out and let me go to sleep.

Q.29 You were both in the same cell?
A.29 Yes Sir.
Q.30 And as Roberts came in you were in the bed on his right?
A.30 Yes Sir.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENCE:

May it please the Court: It now becomes my duty to address you on behalf of the accused. You have listened, if I may say so, with the greatest attention, to a considerable volume of evidence, both for the prosecution and for the defence and, of course, I need not emphasize to this Court the very serious nature of the offences with which my client is charged and, of course, what it means to him if you should come to the conclusion he is guilty of only one or all of them.

My learned friend was frank enough to admit that the charges as they are before the Court are in the alternative, so the two charges I imagine I have to meet mainly is the first one, which accuses my client of committing a civil offence-- indecent assault on a male person-- and the person mentioned in that particular charge is Sapper Gibbs, a male person.

Now, you have heard Gibbs give his evidence and you have heard his record. It is always extremely unpleasant, but a duty which has to be performed, to attack a man's character, particularly a man who has volunteered to come many thousand miles away from his own country to help us in this great war; but, unpleasant duty as it may be, one is forced to take that line when the Court has got to consider his credibility as a witness. On one hand you have Gibbs, with his record and on the other hand you have Sgt. Roberts, concerning whom I was able to call witnesses as to character. You have heard as to his past; you have heard the clergyman whom I called, who has known him as a boy, and when he was on the local town council for years; that he is a qualified solicitor of the Supreme Court. Not only has he never had a blemish against him in any way, shape or form-- as far as I know his army sheet is completely clean, so that before you you have a man with an unblemished record, against a man who has been before the Courts on innumerable occasions, dating back from November 1928, convictions for theft, vagrancy twice, breaking and entering, burglary, possession burglar's tools and instruments-- twice in possession of burglar's tools, the last conviction being in Toronto in 1939, and then there is an army offence of being absent without leave in Aldershot in 1940. Now, can you attach the slightest importance to the word of a man of that character, when you consider that you are dealing with a man of unblemished record. It is very obvious, indeed, sir, that with all the hundreds of men in this camp, and all the times my client has been on guard, that the only complaint issued against him during his long experience here, has been lodged against him, should be lodged against him-- I am now dealing with the case of Gibbs alone-- by a man like Gibbs. It is hardly worth the time it takes to take the evidence.

That brings me to this point of this class of crimes-- sexual cases, whether it be a man concerned, or whether it be a girl concerned, there has been a well-established practice, going back for many years, in such cases as this it is highly desirable there should be corroboration of the complainant's story. Corroboration, even where the complainant is a man of absolutely unblemished reputation, in order to save any possible miscarriage of justice, for over and over again Judges have warned juries trying this type of case that it would be dangerous to convict a man on the uncorroborated evidence of a complainant, be he or she a person of the highest integrity. Experience has taught judges and anyone experienced in this class of work that it would be dangerous to convict, and I am going to adopt that view very strongly in dealing with this case, because if in the same class of cases a jury has got to be warned that it is dangerous to convict, I am going to ask you to adopt the same principle exactly, and I suggest to you that if you convict my client on this very serious indecency assault charge, without any corroboration you would be doing what is termed a dangerous thing, not that I doubt you are preapred to do many dangerous things in connection with the war.

But to convict a man of a criminal offence, involving his liberty and his living after this war, I venture to suggest that you are going to hesitate a long time before you indulge in doing dangerous things. In this connection, therefore, I am asking you to be good enough to see if there is any corroboration of Gibbs' story, because if there is none, I submit my task is strictly a simple one and that you wouldn't dream of convicting my client.

That brings us to the degree of corroboration required. A little fantastic suggestion isn't good enough. Case after case has been quashed because matters have been suggested as corroboration which are not, in fact, corroboration, so while we are dealing with the point of corroboration, it is necessary that I should remind you that corroboration has got to be something more than suspicion. I personally have heard Lord Chief Justice Ewart direct a jury in these terms: "in testing the rule the test is, is the corroboration of such a nature as to make an independent case against the accused, leaving out the complainant's story. You may think that that is a rather high test, and that brings me to the next point: what sort of corroboration does the prosecution rely on today ? Now, it is very significant on that point. It is very significant, because you have one complainant seeking to corroborate the other and there is ample authority against it; that is only mutual corroboration, which cannot be accepted, because you would have one complainant, "A", surely a man of bad character, corroborating "B", who is in exactly the same boat as "A", and here you have two men of bad character each corroborating the other, and on this evidence they seek to prove the complainants' case against this man of exemplary record. That brings me to the point, you can't have mutual corroboration. You can't have Gibbs corroborating Barrett and Barrett corroborating Gibbs, so what do we find; we find this rather extraordinary thing in this case. We have in the charges which were before the inquiry, when the summary was taken, we have a man in this charge named Last and you will remember he was called here as a witness, and the charge says, "At Morval Barracks, Cove, Hants," and so on and then it gives the names of the witnesses, Last, Gibbs and Barratt. The summary was taken and Last gave evidence at the inquiry. When my friend opened the case yesterday and indeed a few hours before that we knew there was no longer a charge in respect of Last. Now, these incidents are alleged to have taken place on the 16/17 January, and we didn't hear until Sunday last, when my client is given a new list of charges. We don't hear what the charges are which will come before this Court Martial, but we find there is no charge in respect of Last at all, but Sapper Last is introduced, I suppose, to support the evidence of Barrett and Gibbs, in the position of being the corroborative witness. That won't do, in my submission to you. I am sure my friend is quite incapable of trying to secure a point against the defence of an unfair nature, and he probably wouldn't appreciate the position, but I am putting it to you that it is patently clear that if Last remains a complaining witness, as he was on the summary, he can't then be put forward as a corroborative witness of Gibbs and Barrett. The charge having gone, Last is then put forward as some sort of corroborative witness. That won't do. You can't drop a complaining witness and make him a corroborative witness by dropping a charge on which he was a complainant for weeks. He did appear before the inquiry and his name is down as one of the witnesses at that inquiry and there is a charge in respect to him, which are in the charges before the inquiry, and therefore I suggest to you that you ought to treat Last as a complainant and not as a corroborative witness, because he was a complainant. He gave evidence on oath as a complainant, and then when he comes before you we don't find Sapper Last any longer as a complainant, but put forward to you as a corroborative witness and you can't have corroboration of that kind, because you are getting to the mischief of the mutual corroboration. A case on that point is the case of Rev x Madison.

And what does Last's evidence come to? He says he could hear them speaking in the room because he occupied a cot in the same cell as Gibbs; they were talking quite a lot and he heard footsteps coming down the corridor, and then he heard him, ~~xxx~~ two or three minutes later coming back. And Gibbs said in the summary it was half an hour elapsed between the time ~~xxx~~ when Sgt. Roberts is said to have entered the cell on the first occasion, and yesterday, if my recollection serves me, he said a few minutes, ten minutes. I am not pinning Gibbs down to a few minutes in the night when he is awakened, but you might think that it is very significant that the man is prepared to swear on oath that it wasn't half an hour, when Last is brought in as a corroborative witness. And then Last says-- what is the worst Last says? He says he saw him put his hand under the bedclothes, that is the wors that Last says.

In my respectful submission to you that is an extremely unlikely story, because here you have two men, Gibbs and Last in the same cell, Last listening, or trying to listen to a conversation in a subdued tone, which he says he can't hear. You might think he must have some suspicion of what is going on, but he takes no steps whatever to prevent it, nor does Gibbs, which you heard so much about yesterday. He could have adopted a very simple course of action of pushing a bell and having as much assistance as they needed. Neither of them did anything, and you may think I may have laboured the point unnecessarily, but it is, of course, a matter of such grave importance to my client, but one does know this, that when there is a complaint of indecency, the one thing the Courts always look for is what was the attitude of the alleged complainant at the time? Was ~~x~~ he a willing partner to it; did he acquiesce in it, did he become an accomplice in it, or did he resent it?. I might emphasize this point as hard as I can. You would have expected if Sapper Gibbs and Sapper Last had been respectable men that they would have done something to stop that beastly behaviour, if it be beastly behaviour, and my client took part in it, but not a thing did they do. They could have called the Cpl. of the Guard, they could have struck out, they did nothing. And then you have Gibbs, a man whose word I suggest to you you can't rely on for a single moment. He says that ~~xxx~~ Sergeant Roberts was holding his testicles. No doubt you gentlemen have taken part in sports, and you will know that the slightest touch of a testicle causes considerable pain, and you will know that Gibbs is telling a flagrant lie when Gibbs says he squeezed his testicles harder, and he eventually says he let out a bellow. It is significant that this is supposed to have happened in the cells, with other people about and not a soul has been called to say they heard the slightest commotion for one single fraction of a moment during the night between 12 and 4-- 2400 and 0400 hours, according to the original charges, and according to the latest charges between 2300 and 0400 hours. You see the charges are different now; the times are different; the complainants are different, and coupled with that, we are faced yesterday with having to go into this case with a new set of witnesses, with four or five witnesses who don't appear in the summary at all-- that is a most unusual proceeding to come to a Court Martial and you find that the summary is most unreliable and that you have to meet several other witnesses. I know it was put to me that you can have an adjournment to meet it, and therefore please don't think I am mentioning this point as a greviance; I am not, but it is a matter where in the summary one witness appears as a complainant and then he is brought in as a corroborative witness at the trial. But, you will appreciate, that seven weeks of this [illegible]rge hanging over my client, with all it means to him, is enough for [illegible]an and I wasn't going to agree to put him through the ~~xxx~~ again
[illegible] for another fortnight while this case was pending, but I do say [illegible]ittle unfortunate, that by their desire to be very fair and [illegible]l the rules that allow you to see that everybody gets a square deal-- it is a little unfortunate for this reason, too, that where we had time to look into the matter about Gibbs and Barrett, otherwise Zurack, we found out a good deal about them; so far as Bakke was concerned, a newcomer to the hearing, we had no time to look into his antecedents at all. For allwe know he may be a man of blameless character. If we had been in the same position at Court with Gibbs and Barrett we should have only known their Army crimes and you might have considered these two complainants as ill-treated, very respectable young men who wouldn't be likely to tell a lie, and fortunately the time allowed us to cable and we got the information from Canada, a matter which I attach very great importance to, because their evidence is not even worth challenging in Court.

Now, the next point. You have had called before you Gibbs and Barrett. The first charge deals with Gibbs; the second charge deals with Gibbs, so I rank these two together. The third charge deals with Sapper Barrett. Now, he was the man, he was in the single cell, No. 2, you will remember. He was on his own in this cell2. There is a push bell, you observe, in that cell and I think he said in answer to me that he knew it, and he goes along and he says the sergeant said "I will suck you off," and Barrett's supposed to have said "no, I am sick" and then he says "get out of here and let me sleep" and then he says "get out or I will tell the R.S.M." The same remarks apply to him as they apply to Gibbs. There is no one in the cell with him, but he has ample opportunity of getting protection if he needed it; there is no evidence that he even called out to the two men in the adjoining cell, and what was to prevent him calling out to stop, and members who were in an adjoining cell, merely separated by some compound like papier mache-- ordinary conversation, almost, could be heard, I should think, leaving out the question of shouting. He didn't call out at all. He didn't complain first thing in the morning, and then because after he and Gibbs had met and made some notes they complained. And who are the people who are complaining? Barrett has a criminal record going back as far as April, 1927, charged under the name of Paul Zurak, Moosomin, and then at Regina in 1936, he is charged again and fined $10 in the same name and then he is sentenced to a year for forgery and then again in 1936 at Regina he is sentenced to three years for forgery and uttering, and then in 1939-- it couldn't have been very long after he came out of prison-- he was sentenced to 18 months for uttering. Private Barrett is a forger. He didn't seem very ashamed of it. A man who wouldn't hesitate to forge the name of another-- a man who wouldn't hesitate to draw a cheque, when he knew it to be a forgery-- a man who is quite willing to adopt the somewhat British name of Barrett in the place of his real name-- Zurak. Are you going to rely on the evidence of a man like that. I say you would be adopting a highly dangerous principle in, for one moment, thinking of convicting my client on the word of Barrett and I should think it is obvious that you couldn't possibly act on that sort of complaint, particularly when you know there was ample opportunity of getting assistance; there was ample opportunity to ring that bell; there was ample opportunity of communicating with his comrades in detention in the next cells, and kx his reaction to it all is he just turns over and goes to sleep. The next morning, have you any doubt at all, that Gibbs, Barrett and Last compared notes before they made the complaint to the R.S.M.?

Now, the only other witnesses that you might deal with-- there were Gibbs and Barrett and Last, and then there was Farrell, Brailsford, Baake, Archer and Bird. Now, so far as the Court is concerned, I don't think they carried the matter much further. My friend though, despite the fact they weren't in the summary called all these witnesses and he also called Lieut. Mason, the Assistant Adjutant. I don't think I need occupy your time regarding these men. You heard their evidence-- they merely go to times, and in this casethe defence are at some little disadvantage, because the complainants here are so hazy about the times that there is no satisfactory evidence before the Court at all when these alleged incidents did happen, if they happened at all. But Brailsford, and I make this point about him-- his evidence must have been available when the summary was taken, but he doesn't make a statement to my learned friend until apparently just a little before these proceedings started, and then just ~~x~~ before we come into the room I am told he is going to say that Sgt. Roberts saw him in the Guard Room and he said something about having a good time and he touched his face. Are you going to go on flimsy evidence of that nature? He said quite fairly, if I remember rightly, that he didn't attach any importance to the matter and he didn't tell anyone until just before this Court Martial began.

Now, sir, that is really all I have to say about the prosecution, although the charges are in the alternative, anyone of them, if there is a conviction on any one of them there is enough to ruin my client for life.

As far as the defence is concerned, and ~~xxx~~ may I just remind you of this before I pass on/the the defence, that, of course, in this case, if ever there was any case, the onus of proving to your satisfaction, without a reasonable doubt, is on the prosecution. It starts with the prosecution, remains with the prosecution and never leaves the prosecution, and if you have any reasonable doubt about it please don't adopt the view that the accused should be given the benefit of any doubt-- that is an old and hackneyed phrase, which has done duty for many years. It is no question of benefit. It is a question of law, and as a matter of law he has a right to be acquitted.

The only way to look at it, if I may suggest very respectfully, is, if you think they have set up a case of sorts, with the evidence available, then go on to consider the defence, if you are satisfied in your mind there is a case, but I should think that it wouldn't be necessary to consider the defence in this particular case, and that you could quite fairly and quite properly come to the conclusion that my learned friend, with all the skill and judgment he has exercised in this case, and his desire to be fair, because of the tained evidence at his disposal, has failed to establish a prima facie case. If, on the other hand,when the prosecution have got so far as to establish a case of sorts, then please consider, as I am sure you will, the character of the evidence I have called for the defence, and first and foremost is the defendant himself. Now, I put it and I put it quite deliberately, before ever he gave evidence, I was able to call the Rev. Mr. Morgan, who has known him since boyhood, who told you how he had joined the local Council, been a judge of the council, became a solicitor, succeeding to his father's practice and obviously is very respected in Lancashire, and if a man is respected in Lancashire, I submit he is to be respected anywhere. He goes to Canada for a holiday and comes back in the Forces, comes to this Camp, been on guard over and over again, mixes up with the lads here, and until this night of the 16th/17th January, I challenge anyone to say there was a single word against him, either as a civilian or while he was in the Army. I put his character right in issue. He could have been shot at and you have got to accept him as a man whose integrity is of the highest, and he tells you what happened on that night. He went out and had one or two beers and was in the Sergeants' Mess, and then I was able to call the Sergeant-Major and Private Gale. These two witnesses, in my submission to you, virtually dispose of this case in favour of the defendant, if you accept their story, because ~~xx~~the time is set much earlier here and we have him in the Sergeants' Mess just before one o'clock; they had had some special occasion and the Sergeant Major and Private Gale are both certain that Sgt. Roberts was in that bar until a few minutes to one, and then we called Bra~~x~~sford and Arnold, and the only thing I desire to make about these two witnesses is that neither of them heard any complaint in the night-- neither of them heard any commotion at all. One gave us a statement, but despite that he was interviewed by the prosecution and he said he saw the Sergeant go into the corridor by the detention room cells three times during that evening, somewhere around 11 or 12 o'clock. Well, he didn't tell us a word about that. You saw him in the box. He is a man I don't think whose mentality is very high, and we had very little time to check up on him, and he gave his evidence, I submit, in a most unsatisfactory manner. And my submission to you is that it would be very unwise to take much notice of him at all. Arnold merely deals with the time.

I am fortunate to be before a Court which I know do appreciate to the full the gravity of the issues which are to be decided here. It is a day which my client, of course, will never forget. It is a day on which you have to decide whether his arrest finishes today and he goes on with his normal duties as a soldier, a volunteer, or, on the other hand whether he has got to be put in detention and possibly be struck off the rolls by the Law Society. I don't ask you to allow these matters to weigh the judgment of the Court, and it has been a very unpleasant task for me to have to accuse volunteers in the way I have done but I considered it my bounden duty.

But if I may summarize my points for you as shortly as possible and I venture to suggest you would be good enough to consider these points in my case, it should, at least, raise doubt in your minds.

The first point I desire to make is that in my submission the prosecution have failed to make out their case, because two of the complainants are absolutely unreliable witnesses and their credibility has been attacked. Secondly, that the desirability of corroboration in this case is overwhelming and in practice it is required and I submit that no judge and jury would convict on the evidence of the two Complaints, Gibbs and Barrett, without ample corroboration setting up an independent case. The corroboration point I desire to suggest is that the corroboration relied upon is unsatisfactory. In the first place, I suggest Last's evidence is valueless as corroboration because he was originally a complainant. Secondly, if you are against me on that, his corroboration doesn't amount to corroboration at all, in law.

The next point is where you have men of bad character deposing in evidence against a man of good character. More credence should be applied to the evidence of a man of good character, because if ever a man stands in a position as this man is in today, the fact that he is a man of good character, ought naturally to weigh the balance in his favour. You appreciate, sir, that you must have proof; suspicion is not enough, and in my submission to you the proof is lacking here to justify you in convicting my client on any of these charges, and I very respectfully suggest to you the proper verdict is one of not guilty.

THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE: On the question of corroboration. My understanding is corroboration is required in the case of offences against women and young children and in the case of accom--plices. Do you argue that it extends to cases of this kind? Have you definite authority for that?
THE DEFENDING COUNSEL: Yes, I have ample authority, if necessary. I think it is highly desirable and has become a practice which becomes almost a rule of law and judges always warn juries in these cases that it is dangerous to convict in a case of this kind without corroboration.
THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE: Would it be an improper thing in a court of law that a jury should not be so charged?
THE DEFENDING COUNSEL: In every case where there has been no such warning the verdict has been quashed by a Court of Appeal.
THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE: I have got to go farther than my previous understanding. I have to say that it not only applies in cases of females and children, but also in cases between male persons of indecency.
THE DEFENDING COUNSEL: I can assure you that is right and I can assure you that where the warning has not been given the cases have been quashed.
THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE: That is, in these particular kind of cases?
THE DEFENDING COUNSEL: Yes, I have been in such cases myself.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE PROSECUTOR:

I think the defending counsel is attempting to put the complainants in the same position as accomplices which, of course, they are not. I am quoting here from Phippson's Manual of Evidence, 5th Edition, page 239: "Where corroboration is required by law, a Conviction obtained without it will be quashed, where required merely by rule of practice the judge must caution the juryxxxxxxxxxx"

Now, all that refers merely to accomplices and that is the rulex the defence counsel has been quoting and these men are not accomplices, with all due respect to my learned friend, I don't think that rule applies in this case. In the address the defending Counsel made he referred first of all to a charge originally involving a complaint made by Last. I would like to make it quite clear to the Court that as far as I am concerned I am not attempting to conceal anything. I never knew until it was mentioned that any such charge had been made. The only charges I have ever seen are the charges that are before the Court now. The defending counsel also said that he was surprised by the fact that five more witnesses were going to be called by the prosecution and I would like to point out to the Court that the defence had statements from four of these witnesses. Pte. Baake he didn't have a statement from, and had no opportunity of investigating the man. I endeavored to have all the persons who were in the guard room at that time called as witnesses, but unfortunately two of them weren't available. It was only in an endeavour to have all the best evidence before the Court that Pte. Baake was called. In the address of the defending counsel he stated that Barrett admitted that there was comparison of notes between Barrett, Last and Gibbs before the complaint was made. If I am not mistaken, I think that that was one thing they all denied and there was no evidence called at all to show that they, at any time made any comparison of notes or talked about it before they made their complaints to the Regimental police. And going on with the matter of making complaints, the Sgt. Major admitted that if the regimental police were called on the night previous to see what the prisoners wanted, they might not have paid much attention to them, and the prisoners no doubt knew this and I submit that when the regimental police came in the morning that that was the first opportunity they had to make their complaints at the first possible time.

If the Court please the evidence that has been called by the prosecution, I submit there is ample evidence to substantiate the charges that are at the present time before the Court. It is quite true that there are serious discrepancies between the evidence given by Gibbs, Last and Barrett, which involve the matter of time and the number of times in their cells, but the Court must remember that these men had been sleeping and were awakened rather suddenly, and if their story is true that which happened must have been rather unsettling to them and it is only to be expected that they wouldn't remember these side details clearly. I also submit that it shows that they didn't compare notes and that they didn't concoct this story together; otherwise, if they had done they would have settled all these details as to time, the number of times of entering the various cells, etc. But what they all do agree is are the main points in issue.

However, it is true that Gibbs and Barrett have had former criminal records. These records don't involve such offences as perjury. They gave their evidence very frankly. The defence, other than the sergeant, didn't adduce any testtimony which showed that either of these men, or Last, were lying and I think it is the experience of everyone that men who go to Church and serve as Town Councillors, if necessary, will lie just as easily as men who will steal motor cars or forge cheques and do other crimes, and in that respect I would like to point out there were two very important items in Sergeant Roberts' testimony that he was contradicted on, not only by the evidence offered for the prosecution, but by his own evidence He said the bells were rung but he didn't bother about them. There was not a single witness called who said a bell was rung at any time that evening that they heard, other than Sergeant Roberts, who was also very explicit that he didn't enter the cel or the cell corridors between the hours of a quarter to eight and one o'clock and while we have the testimony of Bird, who told the Court that he saw the sergeant come from the cell corridor about 1130, or 2330 hours; the testimony of L/Cpl. Murihead, who said he was awakened by Sgt. ~~Roberts~~ Roberts closing the door from the cell block and then we have the evidence of Pte. Brailst, a witness called for the defence, who says that Sgt. Roberts went into the cell block three or four times between 11 and 11:30. I submit that from the frank manner in which the evidence was offered by Gibbs, Barrett and Last in this particular case they should be believed much more than Sgt. Roberts, whose evidence has been contradicted in two very important items.

However unpleasant the consequences may be for Sgt. Roberts it is the duty of this Court to arrive at a verdict on the evidence and they shouldn't take into consideration the consequences that their verdict may bring about. If corroboration is required to the degree suggested by the defending counsel there is corroboration in the evidence offered by Sapper Last, by Pte. Baake, who gave evidence that somewhat similar propositions were made to him at the same time, but Privates Bird and Brailsford, who saw the accused in the cell block, and although Pte. Porosnik wasn't before the Court one of the witnesses stated that Pte. Prosnik made a complaint in the morning that similiar suggestions had been made to him by Sgt. Roberts. There was some attempt yesterday in the suggestions made by the defence that Gibbs, Barrett and Last had a motive in that they were annoyed with Sgt. Roberts, and had deliberately concocted this story in order to get revenge on Sgt. Roberts. Part of the motive suggested was that the Sgt. had split up Gibbs and Last, when the Sgt. himself admitted that that wasn't done until the afternoon of the 17th, after the complaint had already been made. The other suggested reasons were that the sergeant wasn't satisfied with the way in which these men did their cleaning up and work. Well, the Sergeant hadn't been on duty before the night of the 16th, since the 3rd of January, 11 days prior and these prisoners hadn't had to do any particular work on this particular occasion before they made their complaints and I don't think there is really much ground for these suggested motives and apparently the defending counsel doesn't think so either, as he didn't mention it in his summing up.

SUMMATION BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE

In the first place I should point out that the duty of the Judge-Advocate is to give instruction to the remaining members of the Court in matters of Law and that his function is in no sense to influence the Court in deciding their finding as to the facts.

In this particular case the accused has been charged with four charges; the first is laid under Army Act Section 41, committing a civil offence, that is to say, indecently assaulted a male person, contrary to Section 62 of the Offences Against the Persons Act, 1861; the second charge is laid under Army Act Section 18(5), as follows: "...disgraceful conduct of an indecent kind, in that he, at Morval Barracks, Cove, Hants, while acting as Sergeant of the Guard, did, between the hours of 2300 hours 16 Jan 41 and 0400 hours 17 Jan 41, enter the cell of B 25192, Spr. Gibbs, C.W.L. and took hold of the testicles of Spr. Gibbs and endeavoured to persuade Spr. Gibbs to allow him to take his penis in his mouth for perverted sexual pleasure."

It is not open to the Court to find the accused guilty on both these charges; that is true because they are laid in the alternative and relate to the same set of circumstances, so that if the Court finds him guilty on the first charge they are bound, as a matter of law, to find him not guilty on the second. The same remarks apply to the 3rd and 4th charges.

With respect to the first charge "Indecent Assault"-- now an assault is defined by our Manual of Military Law as follows:

> "An 'assault' is a movement which attempts or threatens the unlawful application of force to another person without his consent..."

An indecent assault is an assault accompanied by some evidence of evidence of an immoral, disgraceful, perverted character or intention.

In support of that charge the Prosecution has brought evidence of Spr. Gibbs, in the first place that the accused entered his cell at or about 12 o'clock, midnight, the hour having been ascertained by what the accused is reported to have said to Spr. Gibbs, sat on the edge of the bed, with his right arm across the bed of the witness Gibbs, and that his left hand, according to Gibbs, laid hold of his testicles and endeavoured to persuade him to allow him to suck him off, to use the exact words of the witness, and that when the witness, Gibbs, demurred, that he squeezed his testicles. I can instruct the Court that if they believe that evidence, it is an indecent assault. Also, for the prosecution, Spr. Last, who occupied a bed on the other side of the ~~xxii~~ cell in which Gibbs was detained, gives evidence which corroborates to some extent the evidence given by Gibbs. He states, for example that the accused was in the cell at or about the time stated and was sitting on the bed of the witness Gibbs.

The prosecution has also offered evidence by the witnesses, Pte. Barrett, Private Bakke, and the Cpl. of the Guard and sundry members of the Guard. None can offer direct evidence as to what went on while the accused sat on Gibbs' bed at the time and place that the offence is alleged to have been committed.

The defence, on the other hand, offers evidence, first of bad character and unreliability of the witness, Gibbs. I can instruct the Court that where a criminal record of a witness, as this one is shown to have, it should properly be taken into consideration by them in deciding as to his credibility, and that where evidence can be adduced to the contrary by a more reliable witness, that the evidence of the more reliable witness in that respect, should carry more weight than that of the less reliable witness. The defence offers that as one excuse, because the accused himself has denied the truth of what Sapper Gibbs has said and no evidence has been produced to impeach the previous good character of the accused, although his character was put into issue by reason of evidence of good character having been given by the defence. The defence also offers evidence of bad character of Last and of Barrett. They state that they are not reliable witnesses.

Another defence offered by counsel for the defence is the fact that a push bell is found in the cell and it wasn't used by Gibbs when he said he was assaulted, within the meaning of the terms of the first charge.

The gentlemen of the Court are at liberty to use their own military knowledge in considering matters of general military affairs. As officers, they will know what the effect of a military prisoner pushing a push bell-- when that message was received in the outer guard room-- and what measure of assistance a prisoner would be likely to obtain from the guard and what the duties of that guard would be when a prisoner did signal for such assistance. They know the conditions of service of Canadian troops here and the general conduct of affairs in guard rooms generally.

There is evidence-- well there is conflicting evidence-- that several bells were rung on the evening in question. The accused states that several of them were rung. Other members of the guard don't recall having heard bells rung. If the Court concludes that by ringing the bell the witness Gibbs would be acting more reasonably by seeking assistance, when having been treated as he said he had been treated, they can take that circumstance as being in favour of the accused, because there is no ~~xixx~~ evidence that at the time of the alleged assault that the bell was rung, as a matter of fact there is direct evidence to the effect that it wasn't rung.

The accused also offers the defence that he wasn't during the period from approximately 1120 that evening until between 10 and 5 minutes to one o'clock in the morning, in the guard room in question and that consequently he could not have been in the cell at 12 o'clock when the accused is said to have been there by the witness Spr Gibbs. Spr. Gibbs, however, states that that time was given to him by the accused himself and that he had no direct knowledge of the time, such as by looking at a timepiece himself. The Court, if it believes the fact offered in evidence that if the offence was committed at 12 o'clock, and also believes that the accused wasn't in the guard room at that time, will, of course, acquit the accused on both the charges.

It will be necessary, along that point, to state that the offences referred to in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th charges were all reported to have been committed very close to the same time; therefore, if they believe the story of the alibi as to the time and the story of the witnesses Gibbs and Barrett as to the time, then they must of necessity acquit the accused.

The accused also offers evidence that ~~the~~ accused Gibbs and Barrett weren't on good terms with him. There again the Court can use their general military knowledge of soldiers and take what would be called in a civil court "judicial notice" of the general conditions of sergeants and men and the general relationship existing between the sergeant of the guard and a prisoner. I think it is fair to say that prisoners don't usually entertain very high regard or a very friendly attitude towards the sergeant of the guard in whose charge they are detained, and the worse the prisoner the more difficult the sergeant of the guard's job becomes, but evidence has been given by the accused that the previous n.c.o. in his position on the guard followed the practice of permitting prisoners to remain in their cells with the doors unlocked and prisoners took advantage of whatever that privilege entailed, and he has given evidence, also, that when he became sergeant of the guard he wasn't satisfied with the arrangements and insisted upon the prisoners being locked up in their cells. That, I imagine, wouldn't be a very well liked turn of events or developments as far as the witnesses Gibbs and Barrett were concerned and might, by itself, antagonize them and colour their evidence against him, if, of course, the Court believes the evidence of the accused.

The substantial difference between the 1st and the 2nd charges is that in order to find the accused guilty of the 1st offence you must find him guilty of an assault, as I have defined it, but in order to find him guilty of the 2nd offence you are not bound to come to the conclusion that an assault was committed. The charge laid under Army Act Sec. 18(5) is laid under a wider section and includes and "disgraceful conduct of an indecent or unnatural kind." That may or may not be an assault. Beyond that the particulars set out in the charge must be proved specifically by valid evidence. An assault can, of course, be disgraceful conduct of an indecent kind, so that the second charge will include an assault and the Court need not be hampered by any consideration on that point.

With respect to the matter of corroboration, raised by counsel for the defence. He has assured me that the rule as to corroboration in regard to indecent acts as they affect young children and female persons, also applies as to indecent acts when they occur between grown men. I hope that counsel for the defence will correct me if I misquote him. In the light of his assurances to me I am prepared to direct you that it will be unwise for you to convict the accused unless you can find some corroboration of Spr. Gibbs' story as to the guilt of the accused. When I say corroboration, or corroborating evidence, I mean evidence which directly implicates the accused and not mere suggested evidence, such as might be gleaned from the evidence of somebody in the next room who, perhaps, might have given evidence as to the state of mind of the accused at the time, but doesn't directly implicate the accused in the particular offence at the time and place stated. You must find evidence directly implicating the accused, otherwise you cannot consider it as being corroborative. Such corroboration must be found with respect to the four charges upon which the accused is now being tried.

With respect to the 3rd charge, the accused, according to the evidence of Barrett, came into his cell and stroked his throat and made sundry improper proposals to him, which the Court no doubt remembers and there is no need for me to recapitulate them here now. If the Court believes that the accused can be found guilty under Section 11 of the Criminal Law Amendments Act, 1885. The same remarks apply to the 4th charge. One appears to be just as wide as the other and I can detect no real difference between them, as far as the elements go to prove them are concerned. Corroboration will be necessary, as I have said, with respect to both of them.

I think that sums up as well as I can the evidence and the issues which the Court must consider. I should point out, in conclusion that the accused is an innocent person until such time as he has been proved guilty, and that if, upon the whole of the evidence which is given before the Court, they entertain any reasonable doubt as to his guilt, then the accused shall be given the benefit of that doubt, and that he is entitled to it, because the prosecution shall have failed to have established the burden which is upon them to do.

Is there anything that either of you gentlemen wish to comment upon or wish me to include in this summary?

NEITHER THE PROSECUTION OR DEFENCE REPLIED.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE ACCUSED IS BROUGHT IN

THE PRESIDENT: The Court finds you not guilty on all charges.

In the case of L-132850 L/Sgt. Roberts, Geoffrey Bamford

S. Sask. R., C.A.S.F.

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

The three charges were read to the accused.

1st. Witness B-35192 Spr. Gibbs, C.W.L., 2nd. Fd. Coy. R.C.E., having been duly sworn states:

"About midnight of January 16, 17, 1941 B-35192 Spr. Gibbs, C.W.L. which is my name, was in number one detention cell of the S. Sask. R. where I was serving my sentence for being A.W.L. I was in the cell along with Spr. Last of the 11th Fd. Coy, R.C.E. The cell is approximately six by nine feet. My bed was on the right hand side as you went in the door, and Spr. Last's bed was on the corresponding left hand side almost infront of the door which opened on the said left hand side as you enter the cell. At the head of the two beds which is furthest from this door and between them, was a plain wooden chair. I was undressed, in bed beneath three blankets. Spr. Last was undressed and likewise in bed. The lights were out in the cell and the door was locked. I was awakened by the light of the cell being switched on. The light is switched on from outside the cell. I heard the sound of the key in the lock of the cell and the door was opened and Sgt. Roberts, the accused, walked in. The door in opening struck Spr. Last's bed and the accused had to work his way past the bed and the door which he closed. He then came in between the two beds a distance of about four feet. As he was coming between the beds Spr. Last rolled over and asked him what time it was. The accused replied: "It is going on for about one o'clock". Spr. Last then turned over again on his right side and faced the wall. The accused then took out a package of Export Cigarrettes and handed me one and sat down on my bed. He struck a match and gave me a light. He asked me, "Do you want to have a good time". I at this time was lying on the flat of my back. He put his right arm which carried his cigarrette across my body. I then asked him, "What do you mean by that". The accused replied, "You know what I mean". The accused slipped his left hand beneath the blankets and grabbed both of my ~~pppppppp~~ testicles. At about the same time he replied, as above. The accused then said, "I will suck you off". I attempted to turn toward the wall when the accused squeezed my testicles which hurt me and made me fear that if I continued turning he would squeeze them harder. As I was turning I said, "No". The accused retored, "Oh yes you will". He then told me that he was going to go out for about twenty minutes and that I was to be ready to move my blankets and go to the big detention room where we could have a good time. I told him, "No". At this point I raised my voice above a whisper and he gave my testicles another squeeze. Then Spr. Last turned his head towards us and the accused got up and said, "Oh yes tomorrow we will have to wash these walls off". Then he went out. He did not lock our door but just closed it. I saw his head through the peep hole in the door. I saw him turn in the lighted hall and go toward number two cell. I heard his foot steps. I heard him open number two cell door. There were no other foot steps that I could hear in the guard room.

(signed) Spr. Gibbs C.W.L.

-- About two or three minutes later I heard number two cell door opened, closed and locked. I heard footsteps go down toward number three cell in the corridor and heard number three cell being unlocked. About two or three minutes after that again, I heard this cell door being opened, closed and locked. I then heard ~~feetses~~ footsteps come along the corridor and pass our cell door and I saw through the peep hole Sgt. Roberts head go past. I then turned over on my left side and faced the wall. The lights were still on. Approximately half an hour later the accused came back into the cell. He came over to my bed, sat down on it and started rubbing the right side of my face with his right hand and then twisted my right ear, I know it was his right hand by the way his thumb came around the lobe of my ear. I pretended that I was asleep. I shook my head to loosen his grasp on my ear. He then grabbed the loose hair at the crown of my head and raised my head off the pillow saying, "Wake up". /I shook my head and/ He released my hair and I then shook my head and said, "Leave me alone". He bent down towards my head and said, "Kiss me". I told him again to leave me alone. He then got up and I heard the paper on the chair crackle as though he were sitting on it. About a minute or so later I heard Spr. Last say, "Get to hell out of here and leave me alone". I then heard the accused get up, and go out of the cell, and I heard the door being locked. All this time I kept my face toward the wall. I then heard number two cell being unlocked again and footsteps go in and out of the cell. I heard number two cell being locked and then the accused went down to number three. I heard number three cell being unlocked, the sound of footsteps going into the cell and a minute or so later going out again. I heard footsteps coming up the corridor from number three cell and I heard number one cell being unlocked again. I heard Spr. Last call out, "Don't open that door, turn the lights out and let us get to sleep". I then went to sleep after that as the accused did not come in. Sometime later, how much later I do not know I awoke and found the accused sitting on my knees. I was at that time laying on my right side with my back toward the wall and my knees were ~~p~~ drawn up toward my chin. I then let a bellow out of me, "Get to hell out of here and let me go to sleep", which he did. I then heard him lock the door, go out in the main guard room and that is all.

The accused ~~he~~ declines to cross examine this witness.

2nd. Witness

A-20106 Spr. Last, R., 11th Fd. Coy. R.C.E., after being duly sworn states:-

"I t was between 12 and 1 o'clock of Friday morning, 17 January 1941, the lights of our cell went on. I was awakened by the rattle of the key in the door and he came in, that is the accused, and shut the door behind him. I do not definitely know from my own knowledge what time it was. He came in between the beds, sat down on Spr. Gibbs bed on the edge of Spr. Gibbs' bed and gave Spr. Gibbs a cigarrette, and started to talk to Spr. Gibbs in a low whisper. I was laying on my back and looking over and was trying to hear what the accused was saying, but I could not understand him because it was too low a whisper. Every time I looked over the accused, who was doing something which I do not know, and who was watching me, and every time what he saw me looking at him he moved his hand - his left hand which was down around the covers of Spr. Gibbs bed. I do not know whether it was under the covers or not. His right hand was over Spr. Gibbs body somewhere on the upper part. I could not see where. I asked him if he would go out, and then he got up and said, "The walls are dirty". I replied, "That the man had been around and cleaned them". Then the accused said, "We will have to clean them tomorrow". So then he went out, closed the door behind him and locked the door. He went to number two cell, unlocked the door. I heard footsteps go in. I heard some sound I do not know what and a few minutes later I heard footsteps go out and the door being closed. I could not say whether it was locked or not and then I heard footsteps going to number three cell. I don't know what he did then but two or three minutes later he came back to our cell and came in and I was sitting up in bed. He came over and sat on Spr. Gibbs bed and I laid down on my back and did not pay any more attention to what he was doing. I heard Gibbs say I cannot tell you the exact words but the gist of it was he wanted the accused to go out and let him get to sleep. He stood up and stayed there for a while and I watched him not knowing what he was going to do so I asked him to go out myself and let us go to sleep. So he went out, closed the door but did not lock it. He went out to the main guard room. I do not know how long he was out there but he came back and went passed our cell down the corridor again towards number two and three cell. I was laying there looking over at Gibbs as these footsteps were coming back. He came to our door and as he did so I shouted out, "For Christs sake lock the door, turn the lights out and leave us alone". He did that and went out of the corridor and then the lights went out and then I fell asleep. Something woke me up and he was sitting on the chair at the head of the bed and had hishand on my forehead. He got up and sat on my bed so I rolled over and put my back to him. I felt his hand or hands on my hip, I do not know, and then he tried to get them under the covers but I had them wrapped around me and he could not do so. Then he got up and sat on Gibbs' bed so I just lay there and went to sleep. I do not remember hearing anything more. When the accused first came in the cell I asked him what time it was and he said, "One-thirty".

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

3rd. Witness

L-12722 Private Barrett, P.P., S. Sask. R. after being duly sworn states:

"I was sleeping in cell number two and I was awakened by the sound of the door opening in my cell. The lights were on when I awoke and the accused came in. He came up to me and sat on my bed. He said to me, "You are very fond of women Barrett, aren't you"? I said, "Oh I don't know". Just before this he had asked me how I ~~fl~~ felt and I said, ~~f~~ I felt sick and sleepy. Then he asked me asked me the question above, and after I had said, "Oh I don't know". He asked me if he had ever treated me badly and then I said, "Oh I don't know". Then he said to me let's have a bit of fun and then I asked him what he meant by that. Then he said I will "poof"? you and suck you off. I said no I am sick. Then I asked him to take his hand,which was on my throat,off of it. Then he said it was good to have something cold around your throat when it was sore and after a few more remarks he left the room and then entered cell number three. After some commotion in there I heard the remark of get out of here and let me sleep. Then he entered cell number one and stayed there for some time. Then he came into my cell again and this time the lights were out and he again sat on my bed, and then he put his hand on my throat again and asked me how I felt and then he said come on I will "poof"? you,it won't take long. I said no I was sick to leave me alone. Soon after he got up and left. Every time he left my cell he locked the door. He then went to cell number three and again the remark of get out of here and let me sleep, can't you. On the second time that he came in the light in my cell was out but the light in the hall was on. After he had gone to cell number three he went to cell number one again. Sometime after that he tried to come in again and I yelled keep out or I will tell the R.S.M., he came in about four feet and then went out and locked the door. Sometime later he came in about two feet, looked at me,turned and walked out. On the first time I heard Gibbs tell the other Spr. that he was trying to suck him off, in answer to the question of the other Spr. with Gibbs, "What did the Sgt. want".

Spr Roberts

Case for Mitigation of Sentence

Spr Roberts went AWL because he was worried by a series of troubles which gradually built up until his sense of proportion was lost. He is by nature shy, and not given to confiding his troubles to other people, nor to asking for help. His troubles over the last three months have been as follows:

1 Although married in London, he has become involved with an English girl who is to have a baby which she says is by him. Spr Roberts doubts this but is by him. Spr Roberts doubts this but could see no solution to the problem

2 Although he has received a letter from his wife every two months from her he has received no parcels or cigarettes for over six months; his wife assures him in each letter that they are being sent regularly (1 parcel and one 25 parcel per month), but none have arrived. Money and a wristwatch were to have been sent in this way, and have not been received.

Roberts

3. Roberts have a dog which until recently he kept with civilian friends. When people could not keep the dog any longer, as Roberts brought the dog home to the Unit the platoon reacted very favourably to the dog, and would not [illegible] the animal near the platoon.

4. He had worked a great deal with motors in civilian life. In the Army he was passed as an Eng Mot "B" in Canada, but retrade tested and England and failed. He considers the test in England not hard enough in the workmanship and not hard enough in the Engine Performance part but too difficult in the Electrical part. He is mechanically inclined and does not experience things be a trade test board easily.

The trade test board told Roberts however that he would have no difficulty in passing a trade test as Driver Mech C or Mot Mech B. He gave Sgt Kerr of (Transport Sgt) the info, but was not called for trade test in this unit and saw no chance of being called.

WJP

5th January while on leave he left his overcoat at a YMCA near Rouen Upon when he asked his boss to ~~had~~ had no time to return, and his excuse how trying to recover the coat by himself, but with no success.

In each of these troubles Roberts could have had given assistance by either his Platoon NCO's, his HQ officers, or the Company Welfare Officer. The non-receipt of parcels is being looked into by the orderly room but the information will not come through for some time.

Due to his nature he kept the rest of the difficulties to himself. They increased in severity until finally he went ~~AWOL~~ AWOL in a futile "to do something about it" gesture.

I have submitted letters from his wife with portions underlined, giving reasons for the doubt in his mind about her fidelity. He was an orphan, and married a girl who was already the mother of two children, the youngest at the time being 6 months old. Upon my asking him point blank why he married - he said "I never had a mother as a home". From his "M.F.M.6, and the evidence I see in the man before me, and judging from the type of girl he married I suggest the man is definitely weak in character, and inclined to resent what he considers unjust treatment, continually being frustrated.

His wife was ill this spring and one of her letters bore the postmark FONORA, Alberta, and he asked me if I thought she was an inmate there. I pointed out that he would have been notified in that case. Apparently he has not applied to go back to Canada, lacking the push necessary to ask for help from the welfare authorities. From one of his wife's remarks re "the inspectors always being around" he believes she is 'horsing around'.

I would also point out that this man has no drunkenness charges against him.

From the increased frequency of his offences, I submit that the Army is not helping him, nor is he helping the Army. In view of the already heavy debit hanging over him, I apply, under 139(3), for suspended sentence, in view of the fact that he is guilty of going A.W.L. under mental stress, and would suggest that he be examined by a psychiatrist, and his case troubles be his domestic affairs, by the proper authorities.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit,* notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Aug. 13th 43.

TO

The Court (Martial)

Sir:-

The accused, Pte. Robert, J. D77725 pleads guilty to all charges and places himself on your mercy. I plead for leniency on his behalf for the following reasons.

(1) He is a soldier and wants to be transferred to the R.M.Rs. a fighting unit. His request for this transfer has been disregarded. When it was submitted to the Regimental Officer of his unit No. 2 Sub Depot CBOD he was told to be "a good soldier and his request would be considered." He explained at the time of his request that he wanted to be with his brother in the R.M.R's.

(2) He has never heard of the Army Act, even after two years service in the Canadian Army. This act has never been read or explained to him strange though it may seem.

He cannot read English although he understands spoken English very well indeed. Even when in custody he simply walks off to see his brother. He does not know any better, he has never been told (incredible!) There are hundreds of men in a similar position in the army. They never even heard of the Army Act.

(3) His offences, when looked at in full view of the circumstances, are not serious. No one has been hurt. He is a victim of the misunderstanding and lack of sympathy which must inevitably exist in such a large and so quickly organized body.

(4) His association with the woman in the case only aggravated his inclination to go astray.

(5) I plead that he be not confined for any appreciable period, as his services i.e. the services of an A.1 man who has volunteered for service overseas and is anxious to be transferred to a fighting unit, may be urgently required in the near future. I plead for leniency and this Court, I feel certain, will show what mercy can reasonably be expected in what may at first sight be an indefensible case.

I am,

Respectfully,

Your humble servant,

W.S. McFarlane Lieut.

Defending Officer N.D. Theobald Major.

Supplementary Summary of Evidence in the case of D-77725 Pte. Robert, J. No.2 Sub-Depot, 1 Canadian Base Ordnance Depot, R.C.O.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army (OS)

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence shall be taken on Oath.

Third Witness For the Prosecution.

L-64088 L/Cpl. Dexter,E.F. No.1 CACRU a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states as follows.

"I was on duty in No.1 CACRU Guard Room from 0200 hrs till 1200 hrs (noon) on 7 Aug 43. Along with the other prisoners in the guard room I woke the accused Pte. Robert at 0600 hours. At approximately 0615 hours two of the prisoners were taken to breakfast by L/Cpl. Abraham and I remained in the guard room on duty. I thought that L/Cpl. Abraham had also taken the accused Pte. Robert with him to breakfast. The rest of the prisoners were accounted for with the exception of the accused and the other two that L/Cpl Abraham had taken to breakfast. L/Cpl. Abraham then returned with the two prisoners from breakfast and the accused was not with them. We looked around the guard room for the accused, but he could not be found. Then we looked in the compound where we found what we thought were his dishes and we thought that the accused had escaped over the wall of the compound. We proceeded to No.2 Sub-Depot 1 CBOD and reported the details to Sgt.Daniels in charge of the Regimental Police of the depot. L/Cpl. Abraham and myself searched the camp but could not find the accused. We then reported the matter to the Woking Police.

Signed L/Cpl. Dexter, E.F.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth Witness For the Prosecution

Frederick Arthur Messenger,Detective C.I.D. Surrey Joint Police Force,Woking, having been duly sworn states as follows;

"During the morning of Saturday 7 Aug 43 while on duty at Woking Police Station I received information that Pte. Robert had escaped from detention at Inkerman Barracks. I was furnished with full particulars of his description. At 4 P.M. (1600 hours) the following day I accompanied Sgt. Daniels to No. 105 Courtenay Road, Woking, with a view to obtaining information likely to assist in the apprehension of Robert. We interviewed Mrs. Margaret May Baker at this address and she made a complaint that between 7.10 (1910 hrs) and 8.20 P.M.(2020 hours) on Tuesday 3 August 1943 while she was temporarily away from her dwelling house the following property had been stolen;-

1 (one) gold bracelet
1 (one) gold locket
1 (one) pair chromium plated dress-making scissors
1 (one) gold signet ring with initial "N" thereon

(cont'd over)

N.D.Theobald Major.

The total value of this property she stated was seven pounds (£7-0-0). Together with Sgt.Daniels and other police officers I made inquiries in the Maybury,Woodham and Woking Districts with a view to apprehending Robert but we were unseccessful. At 2.30 P.M.(1430 hours) on the following day the 9 Aug 43 in consequence of certain information received at Woking Police Station I organized a search party comprising civil police and Regimental Police from Inkerman Barracks. As a result of searching the woods in the neighbourhood of Monument Road, Maybury, the accused was apprehended at 1530 hours by P.C. No. 213 John Willian H.Cable and taken to Woking Police Station. I saw the accused at Woking Police Station at about 1545 hours and cautioned him. I said to him." I am making inquiries regarding the theft of a gold locket, a gold ring ,a pair of scissors and a gold bracelet from the dwelling house of Mrs Margaret May Baker at 105 Courtenay Road Woking. I understand that you sold the locket to Mrs Morris at 107 Courtenay Road where you had been living. I also understand that you gave the bracelet to a child living with Mrs. Morris" The accused replied - "All lies- the bracelet belonged to my daughter in Canada and the locket to my wife"
I then saidfand I showed him the ring and scissors when I said this to him)

"This signet ring and this pair of scissors which are amongst your personal property are similar to articles stolen from No.105 Courtenay Road and I shall charge you with stealing the whole of the property from the swelling house of Mrs. Baker"

The accused said;- "The scissors are my own property, the ring is mine too. I had it given me at the barracks three or four weeks ago"

The accused was then detained in police cells. At 1245 hours on the following day the 10 Aug 43, the accused asked to see me in his cell and he said he wished to say something to me. After caution he said -"I will play ball. I did take the stuff from the old lady's house. I got through the open window at the back. I gave the gold bracelet to Patricia Taylor where I was stopping and the locket I sold to Mrs. Morris for ten shillings but she hasn't paid me for it yet. The ring and scissors I had in my property when I was arrested are what I got from the old lady's house. I plead guilty to this job but I swear I know nothing of any other offences in Woking"
I now produce the pair of scissors marked "B" which I have referred to in my testimony. I also produce the gold signet ring marked "C" which I have referred to in my testimony.

Signed.F.A. Messenger.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

N.D.Theobald Major.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

Margaret May Baker, 105 Courtenay Road, Woking, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

I have seen the accused frequently at the house of Mrs. Morris who lives at 107 Courtenay Road next door to me.
On Tuesday August 3, 1943, at about a quarter past seven in the evening (1915) I left my house to go to the Goldsworth Arms Slate Club. When I was going out I saw the accused standing at the corner of Courtenay Road. He said "Good evening!Going for a stroll?"
I said "Yes, but not for long; I have to go to my slate club".
When I got back home at about twenty past eight (2020 hrs) I saw that a chair near the kitchen window was disarranged and not as I had left it. I looked for a pair of scissors but could not find them. I needed them for some work I was doing.
On Thursday morning, 5 August 1943, I said to Mrs. Morris - "Have you lost your helpmate?"
She said "Yes, he gas gone back."
I said "I am very glad Mrs. Morris, I do not trust that man."
I did not see Mrs. Morris again until Saturday 7 August 1943.
On Saturday morning between 0800 and 0900 hours I went down to the gate at the end of my garden; I saw the accused near the gate. He asked me if I knew if Mrs. Taylor was about. I had forgotten her name and I said "Mrs. Taylor, who is that? Do you mean Vi?"
I said "It's Johhnie, isn't it?"
That was the only name I had heard the accused called.
I said "Why don't you go to the house yourself?"
He said, "I don't want to".
I said, "I'll call her for you".
That was the last time I saw him until now.
On Saturday evening 7 August 1943, Mrs. Morris said - "Mrs. Baker I want to show you Pat's birthday present."
I said "When is her birthday?" and she said "Last Wednesday".
Mrs. Morris showed me this bracelet marked "D".
I said "That is my little Reta's bracelet. Come with me and I will show you where it is kept."
She came up to my daughter's bedroom where I took the lid off a jewellery box and found the bracelet missing.
Mrs. Morris said "Don't upset yourself Mrs. Baker. If it is Reta's you shall have it back."
I looked in a dressing table drawer in a ring case where a signet ring with the letter "N" is kept and found the ring gone. When Mrs. Morris said goodnight to me the same night, she said "Mrs. Baker, did Enid ever have a gdd locket?"
I said "Yes".
She showed me this gold locket marked "E" which belonged to my daughter and which was kept in a small box with some other trinkets in the same drawer as the ring. Mrs. Morris stated that she had obtained the locket from "Johnnie" the name by which the accused was known. Mrs. Morris returned the locket to me.
I identify the ring marked "C" as the signet ring with the letter "N", removed from the ring case in the dressing table drawer at my house.
I identify the scissors marked "B" as those which I tried to find when I returned home from my Slate Club on Tuesday evening 3 August 43.

(Margaret May Baker)

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

N.D.Theobald Major.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

The accused elects to give evidence on oath.

D.77725 Pte. Robert, J. No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 Canadian Base Ordnance Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

After returning from detention in May I wanted to transfer to the R.M.Rs where I have two older brothers. About the middle of June while appearing before the Regimental Officer on a charge, I told him that I wanted to transfer to the R.M.Rs. He told me that if I were a good soldier the application would be considered. I did not fill out any application forms as I was not given any to complete. I was feeling discouraged and "browned off" for this and for other personal reasons. My wife has been sick in bed at home for the past five months and I have been worried about her. As a result of all these discouraging facts I went A.W.L. on 19 June 43 and did not return to my unit until 5 August 43. On 6 August 43 I got mail which included a letter from my wife and one from my brother who had just recently come overseas. On the morning of August 7, 1943, at about 0610 hrs I walked out of the guard room at No. 1 C.A.C.R.U. and left the barracks. I went to Aldershot by train from Byfleet to see my brother at No. 7 C.I.R.U. I found that my brother was away on leave so I stayed overnight at the unit. On Sunday 8 August 43, I came back to Woking by train. I stopped in to see Mrs. Taylor at 107 Courtenay Road. While I was in the house she went out and phoned the R.Ps. This was about 1500 hours in the afternoon. I left the house while Mrs. Taylor was phoning. Mrs. Taylor is known to me as "Vi" as her name is Violet. I had intended to return to barracks that afternoon but when Mrs. Taylor phoned the R.Ps I knew I would be picked up before I got back so I tried to cross the canal but there were several R.Ps on the bridge. I hid in the bush beside the road until midnight and then went up to the Wheatsheaf intending to follow the canal along to Saint Johns and thence back to barracks. The civilian police were at the Wheatsheaf so I had to stop over the rest of the night in a civilian house near the Wheatsheaf. On Monday I could not get back because the police were watching all the roads and bridges. I decided that if I could not get back Tuesday I would give myself up. I spent Monday in the civilian house and Monday night as well. On Tuesday the police were still watching and I could not get back so I gave myself up to one of the civilian police and they took me to Woking Police Station. While a.w.l. from 19 June 43 till 5 August 43, I lived in a civilian house at 107 Courtenay Road with Mrs. Taylor whose mother is Mrs. Morris. During this period, Mrs. Taylor suggested that I should take some valuables from the home of Mrs. Baker in order to raise money. So while Mrs. Baker was out I went into her house through a back window at about 1900 hrs or 1930 hrs on 3 August 43. I went upstairs and took the articles marked Exhibits "B", "C", "D" and "E" and left the house the way I had entered. I returned next door to 107 Courtenay Road where I sold the locket to Mrs. Morris for ten shillings but she did not pay me for it. The bracelet I gave to the children. The scissors and the ring I kept in my possession until I gave myself up to the police.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). El. Statement of Character Witness:
A17103 TBSM Dennis G.F. – 4 Can Fd Regt RCA
having been duly sworn, states.

"The accused came to my Tp in March 43 – he was a very efficient No 1. Several times he reported severe headaches and experienced difficulty in carrying out his duties efficiently. I considered him to be more than a good No 1.

Second Character Witness
Capt J.L. Drewry – 4 Can Fd Regt RCA
having been duly sworn states:

"I have known the accused for about 2½ years during which time he served in the same Bty as I did and performed his duties capably. He came from Holding Unit about 3 years ago as a WO but as there was no vacancy for him he reverted at his own request to the rank of Bdr. He had periods when his work definitely deteriorated due to his health.

Ex "C"

I, A28012 L/Sgt Roberts J., have had continuous service in the artillery since May 1928 when I enlisted in the 29th(H) Bty N.P.A.M., then re-enlisted on 6 Sep 39 arriving in England Feb 1940 and subsequently being transferred to the 4th Field Regiment in Nov 1940.

Apart from periodical intense headaches due to sinusitis, I have had normal health until July 1942 when I was admitted to hospital with conjunctivitis. Major DeLane in charge of the case reported that it could be due to or caused by sinusitis. I was discharged from hospital in Aug 42 to No. 1 CARU where I became an out patient taking treatment for sinusitis. Major McCart I/C case reported that the dampness of this English climate aggravated such a complaint as was mine, also that I would never be definitely cured while remaining in England. He, Major McCart, instructed me to report back to him should the headaches become consequential again. Being in the field I was unable to do so but I fought against it which did get out of control some times.

While on strength of No. 1 CARU recently I was interviewed by a S.P.O. during which time I considered it my duty to tell him of the restless nights, sore eyes and headaches which I found to be detrimental to the full discharge of my various duties. I also expressed my desire which has become almost a craving to be sent home as a P.O.W. escort if necessary, because my own ill health combined with a series of domestic troubles have kept my mind in a constant turmoil. Very often I find my mind wandering to Canada, worrying and thinking of things at home, so much that it has almost become an obsession. It was during one of these attacks that was more prolonged than usual that I took the path of least resistance.

I confess that I do feel bitterly homesick which shows no sign of improvement, consequently I suffer mentally and physically, but if I could get home if only for a little while I feel sure that I would be able to restore tranquility to my little family and regain my own peace of mind.

I would like to remind the court of the countless hours even days that I have sacrificed time and effort to the betterment and increased proficiency of my own particular sub-unit, primarily, and unit as a whole, secondly.

The Accused when arraigned pled Not Guilty to each of the charges. The Question when R.R 39A was asked. The answer, "no", was recorded.

1st witness for the Prosecution.

Lieut. J.C. Tappin 1 C.A.S.C.R.U. being duly sworn states:

I produce A.F.B. 115 with respect to the accused relating to him (marked Ex 1) I produce A.F.O 1618. relating to the accused (marked Ex 2)

The Def. Officer declined to Cross-examine.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution.

Detective Leslie Stapoley of Met. Police stationed at Croydon being duly sworn states:

I recognize the accused. On 13 Sep. at about noon I entered the Dog and Bull Public House, Croydon. In the public Bar I saw the accused in plain clothes. I thought he was a Cdn soldier whom I had seen some time before in uniform. I called him out. I identified myself and asked for his Identity Card. He produced one which I now produce (marked Ex. 3) Copy is also produced compared and certified for this ~~court~~ court. The witness requiring the Original for proceedings in civil court). The witness continues — I gave him the usual caution

Arraigning "you are not obliged to say anything unless you wish but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence" I made no threats or promises his statement which he made appeared to be voluntary.

I object to the admission of the statement
The Justices retired. The D.C. of Appeal asked that accused be sworn to give evidence respecting the admission
The accused very duly sworn states when the detective, the last witness applied me for my I.D. duty card I gave him the one I do it. He said you're a Colonial soldier? his card doesn't belong to you. He didn't caution me at this I said "O.K. the jig's up" I did not at any time represent myself to be the man whose name was on the card.
To the best of my knowledge this detective did not caution me at any time
2nd witness for Prosecution Detective
Superintendent Staples
I expressly gave the accused the caution which I gave this reporter to this court immediately after I produced the identity card. I have had 12 yrs service with the Met. Police during which time I have been taking statements for the last 8 years
I am acquainted with the Judges Rules and Regulations respecting admissions. I always comply with them and did in this case.
The Court is aware of the Court Proceedings
The President answered that it would accept the admission.
The witness Detective Superintendent Staples after cautioning him I said "Is your name Harris" He said "Yes. It is on the card. I then said "I believe you are a deserter from the U.S. Army" and again gave him the same caution He said "Yes you have got me. I took the identity card for 7-4-0. I have been living in Croydon with my wife on the money for months

I left that. I then took him to Croydon Police Station where he was charged with desertion and cautioned again in the same words in my presence. There was no one present with him when I saw the accused at the Station. There was no conversation between them. At the station the charge was read to the accused and he said "O.K." He appeared before the Justices at Croydon Borough
Petty Sessions and was remanded to await Military Escort. The accused made after statements to me before I cautioned him which I am not applying in evidence.
Cross Examined by Defence Officer
I was on this Pub. as a matter of routine duty not in connection with respect to Identity Cards particularly. At the time I called out the accused from the pub I also called out two soldiers who was known to me and was sitting by the accused. He also spoke with a Colonial accent. He was not under arrest in any way of the Police and was not in custody charged with larceny and with the charge of selling the Identity Card No 3 to the accused.
Their conversation between myself the accused which I have detailed. I took about 3 yds down the passage. He handed me the Identity Card

I did then caution him as deputy provost & had read up to me said that he was a deserter. I had known him for a considerable time prior to this as a steady customer of this Pub.
Case for Prosecution is closed.
The Prisoner elected to make a statement
Note 2. K.R. 40.

The accused made a statement not on oath as follows
at noon on 17th Sept I was in The Swan
Public House & then went to the Dog
& Bell. Cullum was in with me when I met Stapeley & asked for my Identity Card. I gave him the one I had & he said This Card does not belong to you - You are a Canadian Soldier I said
"Yes You've got me. The Jig is up."
Then held myself out to be the rightful owner of that Card as to be with him & then went drinking the previous Saturday. After I got home
I found the Identity Card and I was short £4-0-0. I had no intention as to this Card. My Army
Clothes are in Croydon at 23 Tamworth Road. I asked Provosts to take me to get them but they refused I have been with him since.
The case for the Crown is closed
The Prosecutor addressed the Court on the finding saying accused away 236 days and was apprehended the day showing his intent not to return. He had identification Card as a Canadian. He was in Canadian Uniform

William Flood

A Field General Courts Martial held at #/ 6Inf. A.S.C. R.A. on the 20 Apr 43 in the matter of one, F 34801 Pte Roberts, John.

Sir,

Re the 1st charge I would but draw your attention to page 19 relating to the essentials to prove a charge of desertion. An absence without leave can only be desertion if the prosecution shows positively that the accused had at some time during his absence formed an intention to never return to the Army. This the Prosecution has failed to do and I therefore respectfully submit that the court cannot find the accused guilty of desertion.

Re the 2nd charge the Court is well aware of the conflicting evidence adduced. The Court heard the accused under oath say that at no time did he hear the Constable caution him. Further that he did not at anytime hold himself out as the owner of the identity card. The Constable swears that he asked the accused for his identification card and upon the accused producing one, immediately and without further ado cautioned the accused as to statements Despite the long service of the constable and his apparent meticulous adherence to the small details, I respectfully submit that the constable is playing upon the credulity of Counsel and the Court when he suggests that he starts his conversations out with a caution. There is ~~through~~ a very definite doubt as to what actually did happen but through it all the straightforward evidence of the accused while under oath comes though as the most logical. Then therefore being a doubt it must be given to the accused. I therefore respectfully submit that this Court is in duty bound to dismiss this charge.

I am, sir, your obedient servant

R B1 Br. S&S Rs.

Counsel for accused.

Plea in Mitigation

In answer as to which finding I must plead to in charge number one - desertion or AWL - I am at a distinct disadvantage and must therefore speak as if a finding had been made of desertion. His Conduct sheet shows other AWL charges in some of which he has been apprehended while in others he has given himself up. I suggest that he had no intention of not returning to the and therefore I would ask that the Court deal leniently with the accused.

On the second charge in as much as a similar case brought in a civil court would bring a fine as a penalty I would ask that in view of the inability of a F.G.C.M to award a fine that this Court deal leniently with the accused.

I am, sir, your obedient servant

1. When soldiers are apprehended in uniform near their quarters it is considered that as a general rule 5/- is a sufficient reward. Not more than 10/- will be allowed in any case where the soldiers were in uniform.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

3. The reward of 20/- should be strictly reserved for cases where superior intelligence has been displayed in apprehending men in plain clothes, or under difficult or exceptional circumstances.

Rewards and expenses attendant upon apprehensions will be paid by the Command Paymaster of the Command or District in which the soldier's Unit is stationed.

4. No reward can be authorised if the Deserter or Absentee voluntarily surrendered, or if it shall appear that he was in collusion with the person who apprehended him, or if the apprehended man was not a Deserter or Absentee.

The refund of expenses incurred by the Police applies only in the case of the Police authorities in Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Counties of Orkney and Shetland.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit.* The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

* (5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps. In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

* NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters apprehended by the civil police ; e.g., such personnel will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military Unit or the O.C. Troops at the nearest military station. (A.C.I. 480/1940).

SAID IN DEFENCE BY DEFENDING OFF. 33-1-4 -J-

Mr President & Gentlemen

Capt Patton stated that his wife & the managers of the Ball in the Clifton hotel & that Roberts was drunk in the Ball room. Also that he (Capt Patton) remonstrated with Roberts for ill treating his wife & later followed him down some steps. He also admitted having taken a drink or two himself and that he knew the customs of the Army regarding Officers in relation to soldiers under the influence of liquor. Not withstanding all this he placed himself in such a position that he alleges that Roberts struck him. The Prosecution has not produced any evidence in contradiction of this statement.

The 3rd & 4th Charges relate to Roberts striking Capt Stone who has sworn that he did not strike him. Therefore I submit that he cannot be found guilty of these two charges. There was no other evidence to support the charge. You may however if you consider the evidence justify it find him guilty of Offering violence.

Roberts has given his evidence under Oath and unfortunately cannot remember being in the Clifton. Had he been in a condition to remember his actions would certainly have been different & these charges would therefore not have been laid.

STATEMENT OF CHARACTER BY LIEUT. COL. J.F. SCOTT, O.C. THE CALGARY HIGHLANDERS, C.A.(O).

TO PRESIDENT OF THE COURT:/

I had hoped to appear as a character witness for C.S.M. Roberts, J.W. (M.11117), but owing to the Cdn Corps Study week, which has been necessary that I attend, I am submitting this Statement of Character to the Court.

M.11117 CSM. Roberts, J.W. is an excellent soldier and his M.F.M. 6 is clear of any entry. He is a natural leader of men and his conduct has been exemplary. On the 25th December, being the day after the charge was laid against C.S.M. Roberts, M.10928 RSM E.V. Stanley was injured in a motorcycle accident and was admitted to hospital. RSM Stanley has been acting in the capacity of RSM ever since this Unit mobilized in 1939. After he was admitted to hospital it was necessary to appoint an RSM and the best NCO capable of handling this position thoroughly and efficiently was CSM Roberts, J.W., and I would have promoted him immediately as A/RSM without hesitation. He is well thought of by all members of this Unit, officers and Other Ranks. He is a disciplinarian, and I cannot speak too highly of him.

1st Witness
Capt. W.G. Stone

On the evening of Dec. 24th, 1941, I was at the Clifton Hotel at approximately 2215 hrs. Capt. Paton of the Gordon Highlanders came to me and said that there was a C.S.M. of the Calgary Highlanders causing a disturbance in the saloon bar, I proceeded with Capt. Paton to the saloon bar , where I found a C.S.M. of the Calgary Highlanders whom I now recognize as C.S.M. Roberts. He was drunk, and in a very excited condition. I tried to reason with him, and persuade him to leave the premises but he grappled with me and we fell to the floor together. A little later some other ranks succeeded in getting C.S.M. Roberts out of the hotel and he was brought home by two members of the Provost Corps.

At 2130 hrs. I was in the saloon bar of the Clifton Hotel, drinking with two friends of the Air Force, when a C.S.M. of the Calgary Highlanders whom I recognize as C.S.M. Roberts, Suggested to me that he wanted to fight. I suggested to him that there was only one person we wanted to fight and that was Hitler. I remonstrated with him for some ten minutes, and left the bar to find an officer of the Calgary Highlanders. On my return to the bar I found him assaulting two R.A.F. friends and at that moment they all fell down the stairs to the billiard room. I followed, and told the R.A.F. men to go upstairs which they did. I reasoned with C.S.M. Roberts for some further ten minutes, and helped him up the stairs, and endeavoured to persuade him to go outside, on reaching the exit door he turned and struck me. I closed with him and endeavoured again to persuade him to keep quiet. He quietened down, and I again left the bar to search for a Calgary Highlanders officer. I found Capt. Stone who informed me that he was attached to the Calgary Highlanders. We both returned to the bar where we further remonstrated with the C.S.M. who then struck both Capt. Stone and myself. Capt. Stone and the C.S.M. fell to the floor, and I went to the assistance of Capt. Stone. The C.S.M. was then arrested by two members of the C.R.A. that I did not know, and bodily removed. After ten minutes fighting outside the Provost Corps were phoned for and the C.S.M. was removed by them.

At about 2300 hrs. I received a phone message from the civil police, saying that there was a disturbance at the Clifton Hotel. I went to the Winter Gardens and picked up Cpl Sands and the rest of the patrol and then proceeded to the Clifton Hotel. On arriving there first thing I noticed was several people standing around the main entrance and when I got out of the truck I noticed a soldier lying on the side walk. An officer that I recognised as being from the Black Watch asked me if I was from the Provost Corps. I said we were, and he told me the soldier on the sidewalk was C.S.M. Roberts from the Calgary Highlanders and that the C.S.M. had assaulted two officers in the hotel. He then asked me if I would come inside so that he could give me the particulars as he knew them. I told Cpl Sands to take care of the C.S.M. while I went inside with the officer. Soon as we got in he told me he was Lieut. Motezfeldt of the Black Watch and that he was their I.O. Another officer then came up and Lieut. Motezfeldt told me that this officers name was Capt. Paton, who had been assaulted by the C.S.M. At the same time he told me that another officer had been assaulted and Capt. Paton said this officer was Capt. Stone of the Canadian Scottish attached to the Calgary Highlanders. Lieut. Motezfeldt then gave me the names of three more officers of the Black Watch, their names were Major Weir, Lieut. McLaurin and Lieut. Boswell. I then arranged with Capt. Paton and Lieut. Motezfeldt for a meeting on the 26th Dec. to get a statement. I then proceeded to the Civil Police station and told the station Sergeant that I had attended to the matter. I then took the C.S.M. to the Calgary Highlanders H.Q. where Mr. Heyland took charge of the C.S.M. I told Mr. Heyland the facts of the case as I knew them.

Upon arrival at the Clifton Hotel I was told by Sgt. Hills to look after a soldier who was lying on the sidewalk, and appeared to be drunk. I noticed he was a C.S.M. from the Calgary Highlanders. With the assistance of L/Cpl. Nelson I carried the man on the truck. After that I went into the hotel and informed the Sgt. that the man was on the truck, and to my way of thinking there was nothing seriously wrong with him apart from being drunk. Sgt. Hills then told me to stand by until he had obtained particulars, which I did.

Plea in bar of trial by the defense.

The defense states there is no case against the accused F 40-05 Pte Ribeiro M.J on the grounds that the summary of evidence taken down in this case has no bearing and brings no proof in the charge laid against the said soldier

Closing Address by Defence

I would like the court to take into consideration the following fact:- At time of arrest the accused did not make any sign of guilt. He has sworn to the fact that he took said blanket for the purpose of going on a picnic. I would like to bring to the attention of the court the fact that soldiers billeted in this area have no places to bring their women friends. It is known that barracks are out of bounds. By the order a soldier has no place whatsoever to go. The charge against Pte Roberts is that of ~~taking a blanket and being~~ in improper possession of a blanket. If the court feels that there is any offence in what the accused has done I would like to point out that the charge sheet is a very light and elastic one. It is also pointed out that the prosecution has failed to bring out any order to the fact that blankets should not be taken out of barracks.

Closing address

The prosecution owes the evidence on the following (1) first element proved in that exhibit A as public property

(2) That the possession under the circumstances indicated was improper. It is not a question of the intention of accused when regards of dealing with trust property is concerned. It has been proved that at the unit issuing the camp with a blanket is not permitted. It was also to note that items of equipment lost & were accounted for this manner and that do soon as a soldier goes beyond the intended use of property immediately he becomes in improper possession and his responsibility right to said property is automatically violated. (The question then seeks whether in matter of military practice the use of the blanket in the manner indicated by the evidence is improper.

CASE OF

E-1 B-41024 Private ROBERTS, M.A. 8 CITR

CHARACTER WITNESS

Capt GOFF, G.H., Transport Officer, 8 CITR, sworn, states:-

The accused has been working for me for some time, for approximately five or six months. I have always found him very efficient in his job and very reliable. To my knowledge, I had never had any trouble with him before.

I do not know any officer who knew him before he came to me.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RT 93 (B).

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B41924 Private Martin Alfred ROBERTS, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of No 8 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS — For the Prosecution

D131578 Pte Cockman, T.H., Cdn Inf Corps, on the strength of No 8 Cdn Inf Trg Regt, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am D131578 Pte Cockman, T.H. and am a Driver i/c on the strength of 8 Cdn Inf Trg Regt. On 25 Feb 45 after some discussion, Pte Roberts, M.A., the accused, whom I now recognize, Pte Quesnelle and myself left for Brighton at approximately 1500 hrs in a Military 5 Cwt No. CM 4230994. We spent the afternoon and evening in Brighton and left at approximately 2200 hrs for Horsham. About seven miles out of Brighton the accused mentioned a turn in the road to Pte Quesnelle, J., who was driving. The lights of an oncoming vehicle blinded Pte Quesnelle, J. and we were part way across the intersection before noticing it. We swung hard to the right in an effort to make the turn, but hit the curb on the left side of the road, ran up along the shoulder for some distance and finally ran into the ditch. The approximate speed of our vehicle was 35 miles per hour. I was taken by a civilian ambulance to Sussex County Hospital and removed next day to No 13 Canadian General Hospital and was discharged on 3 March 1945.

(D131578 Pte Cockman, T.H.)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS — For the Prosecution

B155138 Pte Quesnelle, J., Cdn Inf Corps, on the strength of No 8 Cdn Inf Trg Regt, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am B155138 Pte Quesnelle, J. and am a Driver i/c for 16 Cdn Inf Trg Bn, 8 Cdn Inf Trg Regt. On 25 February 1945, after some discussion, the accused, Pte Roberts, M.A., whom I now recognize, Pte Cockman, T.H. and myself proceeded to Brighton in a Military 5 Cwt Number CM 4230994. After spending the afternoon and part of the evening in Brighton we left at approximately 2200 hours for Horsham. About seven miles out of Brighton we were traveling at approximately 35 miles per hour when the accused mentioned a right turn ahead, so I immediately took my foot off the accelerator and slowly put on the brakes. Suddenly bright lights of an oncoming car flashed up and I could not see the road. I did not see the intersection until I was about half way across and I then made a sharp turn to the right. I hit the curb on the left side of the road, ran up along the shoulder of the road for some distance and then ran into the ditch. I noticed that the left front wheel of the vehicle was off and the left windshield was cracked. I helped the accused and Pte Cockman, T.H. into a nearby house and seeing that they were taken care of, I hitch hiked to the nearest phone, which was at Henfield. There I phoned

4. BOUNDS

No other ranks will leave the Area within 5 miles of Camp without a properly signed pass.

Passes are not required by Other Ranks under command of this Unit when proceeding to places after duty, within bounds as laid down in the above paragraph. "After duty" is defined as the period between 1700 hrs and 2230 hrs each week day, and between 1200 hrs and 2230 hrs on Saturdays and Sundays. In the case of Sgts., S/Sgts., and Warrant Officers, 2359 hrs will apply.

Passes are essential at all other times outside of the Unit lines for all other ranks.

Nothing in this order is to be construed as granting permission for personnel to leave the Unit lines when required in the Unit lines for parades or other duties.

The NAAFIs are out of bounds to defaulters and other ranks under "open arrest" except between 2000 hrs and 2100 hrs. The NAAFIs are out of bounds for other ranks receiving medical treatment, i.e., "Excused", "Light" or "Medicine and Duty" during parade hours. Company Orderly Sergeant and the Provost Sergeant will see that the Canteen NCOs have a list of these people before the Canteen is opened.

'B' Company, 48th Highlanders of Canada, soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Prior Witness Prosecution

D.78898 Sergeant FLEMMING, J.A., "B" Company 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

I am platoon sgt of 18 Platoon, "B" Coy 48th Highlanders of Canada. On 28 July-a t approximately 2330 hrs I was getting into bed on the second floor "B" Coy Sgt's Mess. Sgt Johnson called me and said there were some men downsta irs raising a rumpus. I got up and got dressed, came down to investigate. Just as I stepped out the door a soldier made a grab for me. I put him down on the ground and found it was Pte Roberts of my platoon. I let him up and told him to go to bed. All he said was he wanted to fight. I got him again and tried to talk some sense and go home. Just then sgt Major came out and I let him go. Next thing I knew he was wrestling with the Sgt Major. Shortly after we had some men in to do the accused took to his cilleys.

Q1. What was the accused's condition?
A1. He had been drinking.

Q2. Could you elaborate?
A2. He could walk around although I could not say he staggered. He could jump around pretty well.

Q3. You say jump. What do you mean by that?
A3. He made a grab for me.

Q4. What was his speech like?
A4. Pretty well when he spoke to me.

Q5. What do you mean by that?
A5. He spoke clearly as I remember.

Q6. Do you know if the accused knew where "B" Coy Sgts Mess was?
A6. Yes. I saw him around the Mess sometimes myself.

Q7. When he was doing this jumping around what were his motions like? Like a man who was dead drunk?
A7. I could say he had been drinking to a certain extent. He was not that drunk.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q8. How long have you been in the Regiment?
A8. For 18 months.

Q9. How long have you known the accused?
A9. One month.

Q10. Did you ever have any trouble with him before?
A10. No.

Q11. He was a good soldier before that?
A11. Yes. He was in my platoon and seemed to be.

Q12. As a matter of fact he was pretty drunk?
A12. He had been drinking.

Q13. He not only had been drinking he was very drunk?
A13. He was moderately drunk.

Q14. I have twelve men who will swear he was very drunk and passed out.
A14. Those twelve men did not see Roberts when he came to the mess.

Q15. Is it fair to say he would be doing this if he were not drunk?
A15. I have seen sober soldiers trying to pick fights.

Q16. You were not wearing rank when you came out?
A16. That's right. I was not.

Q17. This was in the street or Sgts yard?
A17. In the Sgts yard.

Q18. Would he know you were a Sgt?
A18. He called me by name.

Q19. What time was this?
A19. 1130.

Q20. Were you having a party in the mess?
A20. No. We were not.

Q21. Are you prepared to swear that 15 Sgts sat down and drank only 1 bottle of liquor?
A21. Yes I am. There was only one bottle gone. I got to the mess at 1000 hrs I left 0 hours and they drank one bottle while I was there. I dont know what they drank before that.

Q22. How much did you drink?
A22. Two drinks.

Q23. During the scuffle you had with Roberts did you hit him?
A23. No. I just held him.

Q24. How did he get the bruise on his face?
A24. I do not know. RP 83(b) is complied with.

SECOND WITNESS
Prosecution

B54005 Sergeant JOHNSTON C.F., "B" Company, 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

Q1. What is your position in the 48th Highlanders?
A1. Supernumerary in "B" Company.

Q2. What is your memory of the disturbance?
A2. I was going to bed and I suppose that the light attracted the attention of someone who shouted something about fighting.

Q3. What did they shout?
A3. I do not remember perfectly but it was something about wanting to fight or come out and fight.

Q4. Do you remember any other remarks?
A4. No. Just the one invitation.

Q5. What did you do?
A5. I called Sgt Pietroniro.

Q6. What happened next?
A6. We went downstairs and out the front door. Sgt Pietroniro was the first out. I went out myself and saw this fight taking place. Sgt Pietroniro was wrestling around the yard. I did not know who he was wrestling with but found out later it was Roberts who is sitting right there. Sgt Pietroniro was trying to get the fellows back to their quarters. They did not comply with this order.

C&K

Q7. What happened next?
A7. I did not have a great deal to do with it. I remember the CSM yelling out the window to stop the noise. Then he came down himself. We were all out on the road in front of the house and the next thing the CSM and Pte Roberts were wrestling.

Q8. Did you hear any remarks by Roberts?
A8. Not exact words but to the effect that Sgts were yellow and afraid to fight. He called us yellow cock-suckers and bastards.

Q9. What was the condition of the accused?
A9. He had been drinking but could still take care of himself. His remarks were given in a clear manner not slurred. He was very belligerent.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q10. Have you ever had any trouble with Roberts?
A10. No. I did not know Him before. That night he had been drinking but was quite capable of handling himself.

Q11. How drunk was he?
A11. A little better than a little drunk, moderately drunk. Not drunk enough to pass out, sufficiently drunk to be very belligerent.

Q12. You were not wea ring rank?
A12. It was 1130 and I was not.

Q13. Were you having a party?
A13. We had two new men come in the Mess. I was there alll evening. The rest were not. We drank the one bottle of liquor up to ten. We had started at 6.30. It was not a drinking party.

Q14. Sgt Pistroniro tells us about a bottle which was drunk after 10 o'clock.
A14. I do not know. I was on my way to bed and not to my knowledge was anymore consumed. We were sitting around the Mess. I think right now you could still find 11 bottles in the Mess.

Q15. How much did you drink?
A15. Five very short ones. I was the only one there all night. The CSM would be about the same as he was there all evening.

Q16. You said these soldiers challenged you to fight?
. Did you accept and go out?
A16. It was more on account of the noise and it was very loud and obscene language. We did not go out to fight. I called Sgt Pistroniro because his was the only other light on in the place. I believed we could get them home with no trouble.

Q17. You knew that the soldiers were drunk and that they had yelled for the Sgts to come out and fight so that when two Sgts did go out the soldiers would immediately think they had come out to fight them?
A17. It could be interpreted that way. I also hoped we could talk them out of it.

Q18. I suggest that you as an NCO are obliged to stay away from a soldier when he is drunk in case he might strike you, not knowing what he was doing?
A18. Yes in certain circumstances.

CSM

Q19. Why did not you call the provost or get some other men.
A19. It would be necessary to go out anyway to telephone but I guess it could have been done.

Q20. I suggest that since you are not allowed to touch a private soldier and vice versa that you should have got some men from the platoon billet next door to look after these drunken soldiers instead of doing it yourself.
A20. It is practically necessary to go outside at any rate.

Q21. Did you call the CSM to come out?
A21. No I did not;

Q22. Where did this fighting take place?
A22. Directly in front of the house and moved to the road.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecution.

Q23. When you sit around your Mess do you keep touch of everything you do hour by hour?

A23. No.

Q24. Do you remember every detail on this particular night.

A24. No.

Q25. What bottles of whiskey did the Sgts Mess consume?
A25. One bottle as far as I know.

Q26. You say you still have 11 bottles left. Was there any reason forthis?
A26. Yes. A Sgts dance this Saturday night. It was supposed to be held last Friday but was postponed.

Q27. In other words there was a real reason why you saved 11 bottles?
A27. We hoped to get permission from the C.O. to hold a party in the Mess.

Q28. What would be your duty if there were a disturbance in your Coy area?
A28. To quiet it.

Q29. Do you think that you acted on that evening as a normal NCO?
A29. Yes. I have seen men under the influence of liquor before and they have been reasonable.

Q30. When you were in your room and you heard the noise did you know the people were drunk?
A30. I supposed them to be.

Q31. Did you actually know?
A31. No sir.

Q32. When you hear a disturbance what is your first normal reaction?
A32. I investigate it.

Q33. Did any of these alternatives suggested by Defence Counsel inter your mind?

A33. No sir.

Q34. Did Sgt Pietromiro suggest it?
A34. No sir.

Q35. How long have you been a Sergeant?
A35. Since March 1942.

Q36. Do you think you know the duties of an NCO?
A36. Yes.

Q37. When confronted with a disturbance to you think you act as an normal N.C.O?
A37. I think so, sir.

Q38. There was considerable shouting. If you joined in would the noise have stopped any sooner?
A38. I do not think so.
RF 86(b) is complied with.

THIRD WITNESS
Prosecution

B.73033 C.S.M. WIGMORE F., "B" Company, 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

Q1. What is your position?
A1. Company Sergeant Major of "B" Company.

Q2. What do you remember about the disturbance?
A2. I was going to bed at 1130 and I heard a disturbance on the road outside. I could see people down there so I went down myself.

Q3. Did it occur to you to stay in your room?
A3. No.

Q4. Can you give us a reason?
A4. The idea was to go down and get the fellows moving.

Q5. When you went down do you think you acted normally?
A5. Yes.

Q6. Where did you think it was coming from?
A6. Just outside the Sgts Mess.

Q7. When you got down what happened?
A7. I could see two fellows from the Coy. I walked over to Roberts whom I recognised. He took a swing at me and I ducked but he hit me on the side of the head with his fist. I got hold of him and we both fell over.

Q8. How long has Roberts been in "B" Company?
A8. Two months approximately.

Q9. Did you have much to do with the men in "B" Coy.
A9. Normal duties and a drill period every morning.

Q10. Do you give the orders on drill parade?
A10. Yes.

Q11. What was the condition of Roberts after you had subdued him?
A11. He had been drinking and his speech was normal. Nothing unusual in it.

Q12. Do the men know where the Sgts Mess is?
A12. They should know. They have to come to the Mess for NAAFI issues but about three weeks ago we tried to cut out this practice.

Q13. Is there a phone in the Sgts Mess?
A13. No sir.

Q14. How long have you been an NCO?
A14. Since 26 Oct 1939.

Q15. In the more than 5 years you have been an NCO did any alternative as to wha t to do about such a disturbance occur to you?
A15. No sir.

Q16. Do you think you acted the way a normal N.C.O. would have?
A16. In this case, yes.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defence.

Q17. Haveyou had any trouble with Roberts before?
A17. No.

Q18. Did you say that he had been drinking that night?
A18. Yes.

Q19. As a matter of fact he was very drunk?
A19. Not that drunk.

Q20. How drunk do you think he was?
A20. This affair happened very quickly but he looked definitely like he was drinking but he was only a little drunk.

Q21. How drunk were you?
A21. I wasn't.

Q22. How much had you had?
A22. About 4 glasses of whiskey.

Q23. How many bottles were there drunk in the Mess?
A23. I think about two.

Q24. I suggest that he would not have done what he did if he were not drunk?
A24. I suppose not.

Q25. You were pretty mad and drunk and swearing?
A25. Not that I remember.

Q26. You said afterwards that you had hit him to overpower him?
A26. I do not remember.

Q27. He did not call you by name and you were not wearing any rank?
A27. Just my armband.

Q28. Did you hear these men when they first came along?
A28. No sir. It was later and all I wanted to do was get people going. I went out to clear the road.

Q29. I suggest that it is now your job to clear roads. You have 120 men under you.
A29. It was the only way I could do it quickly. Yelling takes a long time especially at night.

Q30. You know it is a serious offence for a private to strike an N.C.O. and vice versa . You know that a soldier when drunk is liable to do anything, so you have an obligation to stay away from a drunk?
A30. In this case the Sentry was up at the Sgts Mess and we would have had to go out anyway to get help.

Q31. I suggest that it would have been better if the Sgts and yourself had stayed in.
A31. I do not think so, as much as I know it had already happened. I think that if we had not gone out the fellows would have come inside. At a glance I could not see what was going on and by the time I found out it was too late.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecution.

Q32. When you fell to the ground you cut your lip?
A32. Yes.

Q33. Could the accused have suffered a bruise on his face the same way as you?
A33. It is possible. I think it was an accident whatever it was.

Q34. When you looked out the window could you tell if anyone you new was drunk?
A34. Not from the window.
Q35. Who finally subdued Roberts?
A35. One of the Sgts or Ptes.
Q36. Did you leave with them for Roberts's billets?
A36. I went to the Orderly Room to phone for a truck with CSM Stock, E.
RP 83(b) is complied with.

FIRST WITNESS
Defence

B.98245 Private George Charles EDWARDS, "B" Company 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

Q1. You are B.98245 Pte George Charles Edwards and you are in "B" Coy, 48th Highrs of Canada? Do you remember the night of 25 July, Edwards?
A1. Yes.
Q2. Will you tell the court everything you remember about the 25 July at approximately 7 p.m?
A2. Yes.
Q3. Who is Roberts? Will you point him out to me?
A3. He is in here. We had two bottles of cognac. One bottle we left in our billet and the other bottle we took down the road and sat on a bench and finished that bottle. We came back for the other one and then we drank some of it and that is the last I remember until we woke up in the guardhouse.
Q4. Did you drink the first bottle of cognac between the two of you?
A4. Yes.
Q5. Do you remember if you were drunk then?
A5. I was telling pretty good.
Q6. After that you said you started to drink the second bottle?
A6. Yes.
Q7. Do you know if the accused Pte Roberts has ever had any trouble with the CSM and NCOs in B Coy?
A7. Not as far as I know.
Q8. Have you ever had any trouble?
A8. No.
Q9. Are you in the same platoon as Roberts?
A9. Yes.
Q10. Do you know if Roberts dislikes any NCOs or has any grudge against them?
A10. No.
Q11. Have you any grudge against them?
A11. No. I have got along fine.
Q12. Do you drink very much?
A12. No I do not.
Q13. When you do drink do you find that you are affected by liquor very easy?
A13. I have never drank cognac before and I did not know how it affected me.
Q14. How did it affect you?
A14. It just hit me all of a sudden and I blacked out.
Q15. Do you know if Roberts drinks very much?
A15. Not that I know. I have just been with the company for about a month.

Q16. How did the cognac seem to affect him?
A16. I could not say, sir, I got drunk myself.

Q17. The accused Pte Roberts is being charged with having struck an NCO and is also being charged with creating a distrubance that evening. Do you know if he did that?
A17. I could not tell you. I do not remember.

The witness is cross-examined by the prosecution.

Q18. Edwards, you have just told us you do not remember anything about the night 25 July.
A18. I remember the first part before I drank some of the cognac after that I do not remember.

Q19. What you mean is that you do not remember the events.
A19. I do not remember.

Q20 Can you explain to us, Edwards, why it was, if you were so completely befuddled that you could recognise NCOs and said repeatedly that Sgts were yellow and afraid to fight?
A20 I do not remember.

Q21. Do you think a chap who is so dead drunk that he could not remember what happened could step over a fence?
A21. That is hard to say. I figure that a man could be drunk and not know what he was doing and still go about his work and walk around.

Q22. Still go about his work. Do you mean to say a man could appear drunk on parade and still go about his duties?
A22. No. He could still be drunk and still walk around.

Q23. How long have you known Roberts?
A23. Approximately a month.

Q24. You did not know him when he was in D Company?
A24. No.

Q25. You do not know anything about his record with D Coy?
A25. No.

Q26. Were you ever in D Coy?
A26. No. I transferred from QOHs to 48 Highrs and straight to B Coy. The only Coy I was ever in was B Coy.

The witness is examined by the President of the Court.

Q27. Did any one else have any drinks from the first bottle of cognac?
A27. No.

Q28. Did any one else have any drinks from the second bottle of cognac?
A28. I do not remember. After I drank the first bottle I could not tell you.

RP 83(b) is complied with.

SECOND WITNESS
Defence

B.55365 Private ROWLING D.H., "B" Company, 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

Q1. You are B55365 Pte Rowling D.H. "B" Coy., 48th Highrs of Canada?
A1. Yes.

Q2. You are in 12 Platoon?
A2. Yes.

Q3. Do you recognise anyone in this court?
A3. I recognise Pte Roberts the accused.

Q4. Is Roberts in 12 platoon too?
A4. Yes.

Q5. Do you remember Roberts the evening of 25 July?
A5. Yes. I was at a civilian house and Roberts and Edwards came walking in with a bottle and the lady gave him a cup to pour it in and he dropped the cup and I thought we better get him out.

Q6. Why?
A6. Because he was pretty drunk. So I took him outside and came back to get my coat and I heard them going up the road singing.

Q7. Did you go home with him?
A7. No. I did not. They seemed alright. They sounded happy. About 20 minutes or half an hour later, I had to pass the Sgts mess and I saw Roberts. I took Edwards home and Roberts was in the house and came down the stairs.

Q8. In order to clear this up, you, Roberts and Edwards sleep in the same house?
A8. Edwards sleeps downstairs and Roberts upstairs.

Q9. Did you take Roberts home too?
A9. No. I just took Edwards home.

Q10. Now tell us all you know about Roberts.
A10. When I got in the house, Roberts came downstairs. Someone had taken him up and put him to bed and I tried to coax him to go back up. Finally, I got him up and I had to undress him. He passed out.

Q11. Was he very drunk at that time?
A11. He was stupid drunk.

Q12. Do you sleep in the same room as Roberts?
A12. Yes. I sleep with him. We have a big mattress.

Q13. What is the next thing that happened?
A13. The Provost came and said that Roberts had to go so we dressed him.

Q14. What was he doing then?
A14. He was very drunk and he was talking silly. He thought that he was driving a truck.

Q15. How many Provosts were there?
A15. There were two.

Q16. Anyone else with the Provost?
A16. The corporal of the hut came once and he came back down stairs.

Q17. You said we got Roberts dressed. What happened after that?
A17. We got him downstairs and out into the truck. When I was down the Sgt Major was downstairs.

Q18. Sgt Major Wigmore of "B" Company?
A18. Yes.

Q19. Now what was the condition of Sgt Major Wigmore?
A19. To my estimation, he was drunk.

Q20. What makes you think so?
A20. He staggered a little and you could smell it on his breath.

The witness is cross-examined by the Prosecution.

Q21. Do you know who is being tried here?
A21. Yes. Roberts and Edwards.

Q22. Do you know what Roberts is being tried for?
A22. Yes. For hitting an NCO.

Q23. In other words we are not trying today any NCO or anybody except Roberts?
A23. No.

Q24. No NCO is being accused of anything on this charge in this Court?
A24. No sir.

Q25. Have you got anything against Sgt Major Wigmore?
A25. No sir. Nothing.

Q26. How long have you been in D Coy?
A26. Since March.

Q27. Have you had any crimes since then?
A27. No.

Q28. How long have you known the accused?
A28. A little more than a month.

Q29. Did you know him when he was in D Coy?
A29. No.

Q30. Do you know anything about his record in D Coy?
A30. No.

Q31. When you first met Roberts on the evening of the 25th why is it you did not go home with him?
A31. I went to get my coat.

Q32. Why didn't you catch up to him?
A32. They were merry. I figured they would be alright.

Q33. In other words, you thought they were capable of going home on their own power?
A33. Yes. They were staggering but I thought they would get home alright.

Q34. In other words they were not blind dead drunk?
A34. No.

Q35. Are you a good friend of Roberts?
A35. I am a good friend of all soldiers.

Q36. When you go home at night to No. 12 platoon billet do you normally go past the Sgts Mess?
A36. No. I do not.

Q37. I am suggesting to you that when you go home to 12 platoon billet, you do not normally go by the Sgts Mess?
A37. Yes but everyone has his own mind.

Q38. In order words, if you were going back to 12 platoon billet could you instead go past the Sgts Mess. Would you be going out of your way?
A38. There are two routes and the way that does not go past the Sgts mess is the shortest.

Q39. Did you see anybody hit Roberts that night?
A39. No. I never.

Q40. When you woke him up when the provost came, you said that he was muttering about driving a truck, right?
A40. Yes.

Q41. He did not happen to say that it was the D Coy 15cwt did he? Was he talking in his sleep?
A41. No.

Q42. When did he say these words?
A42. When I woke him up when he was in a daze.

Q43. In other words, he spoke these words when he regained consciousness after being asleep?
A43. Yes. When he was in a daze.

The witness is re-examined by the Defence.

Q44. Will you describe the route frm the civilian house to your billet?
A44. When you come out of the house, you turn left and go straight up the road until you come to a "T" intersection. You turn left to go past the Sgts mess to go to 18 platoon or you can go right and to 18 platoon through the woods. At the end of the road is a house and the next house is the sergeants. To go right you pass fr m 80 to 85 feet from the Sgts house. This is the short way. The other way you pass right in front of it.

Q45. Describe both routes to me?
A45. The one I go, is the 11 and 10 platoon house, out the back through the woods and the other road you go, you turn right and go straight up the highway past the Sgts mess.

Q46. Do you walk the highway all the way home?
A46. You turn right again at the top at the intersection.

Q47. Do you walk the road, the highway?
A47. The bicycle path.

Q48. How much longer is this route by the bicycle track than the other?
A48. About 100 feet but it is the best way when it is raining.

Q49. Which is the better way when it is dark?
A49. The highway.

THIRD WITNESS
Defence

RP 83(b) is complied with.

B.31168 A/Cpl C.[illegible]LL G.A., "B" Coy., 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

Q1. You are B31168 A/Cpl Campbell G.A. You are the Orderly Room Corporal of "B" Coy 48th Highlanders?
A1. Yes.

Q2. Do you recognise anybody in the court-room?
A2. I recognise Pte Roberts.

Q3. Do you remember Cpl Campbell the night of July 25-26?
A3. Yes.

Q4. Will you tell the court what happened during that night?
A4. I returned to camp about 10 to 11 and I sat down at my desk to do a few odd jobs that had to be done before parade next morning. Around 1130 a man whom I do not recognise came in, whom I gather is in B Coy as he said that he had been given a message from the Sgts mess that I was to phone for tpt and it happened that just then a L/Cpl from the tpt was in the room on other business. He told me that he was duty driver and that he would return as soon as he finished his other trip. He left then and I he heard nothing more about it for perhaps 10 or 20 minutes. Then CSM Wigmore, CSM Stock and someone else whom I don't know came in and at approximately the same time the tpt returned. CSM Stock sat down in the chair and said nothing and CSM Wigmore asked me if I had ordered the RPs. I told him that I had not been told to ask for the RPs, merely to ask for a truck which had then arrived. I said that if he wanted me to I would phone for the RPs then. He told me not to bother. He sat down by the telephone and phoned for the RPs. I could smell some sort of liquor on his breath as he was sitting quite close to me, and he seemed to be rather heavily under the influence of liquor. He finished his call to the RPs and then turned and started telling everyone in the room what had occurred. He said that there had been a fight with two men who were drunk causing a disturbance outside the Sgts mess, and that he had been fighting with Pte Roberts, the accused. He said that blows had been exchanged and at this point began using profane language.

Q6. Can you remember his exact words?
A6. He then started to recount the details of the fight and started pounding on the table. He said, as clear as I can remember, that this man had picked on the wrong man and that each time he struck the table, he said I hit him in the nuts like this. Shortly after this, Cpl Jearr of the RPs and one or two other RPs arrived and they went to 12 platoon and I know nothing further.

Q6. Was he talking loudly Cpl?
A6. Quite sir.

Q7. Did he say anything else?
A7. Nothing that I recall other than what I have told you. There was a great deal of talk about trivial matters one way or the other.

Q8. Did he mention any names of the soldiers?
A8. Yes. When I was telling my story I said that he said that he had been fighting with Pte Roberts and then he went on to describe how he had hit him in the nuts.

The witness is cross-examined by the prosecution.

Q9. Cpl. Do you know who is being tried and for what?
A9. Pte Roberts is being charged and I have an idea of what the charges are because I typed the charges for the Company Commander's orders.

Q10. In other words, this court is not investigating the conduct of any NCO in B Coy.

A10. No.

Q11. Cpl Campbell. You have told us that you heard CSM Wigmore talking over the phone. Can you remember as much as possible what he said?
A11. It is difficult. I did not pay much attention to what was being said. I believe he asked for a couple of RPs to come up.

Q12. Did you notice anything peculiar about his speech when he was talking over the phone?
A12. I have difficulty in understanding the CSM at any time due to his speech and that is when is perfectly sober.

Q13. Did he have any difficulty getting his idea across to the MPs when he was talking over the phone?
A13. No.
Q14. Have you any idea as to what his total service is in the Army?
A14. No. He wears a number of campaign ribbons.
Q15. Have you ever noticed the second ribbon he is wearing the second one from the right?
A15. I have. I do not know what it is.
Q16. This is the Mesopotamian medal. I just wanted to bring out that he has been in the Army for a long time.
Q17. I think you admit Cpl that alcoholics affect various people to agreater or less extent?
A17. Yes.
Q18. You have already stated that Wigmore had no difficulty talking over the phone?
A18. No.
Q19. You have stated that you were sitting in the Coy Orderly Room at your desk?
A19. Yes.
Q20. Let us suppose there were no phone in that Orderly Room.
A20. Yes.
Q21. You hear a disturbance outside what would you do?
A21. I would go out and investigate it.
Q22. Do you know whether the accused was ever treated for any injury to the testicles?
A22. No. I do not. He was out from the company from then on and I do not know.

The witness is re-examined by the Defence.

Q23. You made a statement that in your opinion Gnr Wigmore was under the influence of liquor?
A23. Yes.
Q24. On what do you base your opinion?
A24. On his general manner, his breath.
Q25. Was he staggering?
A25. No sir. He did not seem to be.
Q26. Was his speech not normal?
A26. Not entirely. Most of the time he seemed to be speaking fairly clearly but once or twice he slipped.
Q27. Was it his customary manner when excited?
A27. I cannot recall having seen him excited. I had known him only for a week.

R.P. 83(b) is complied with.

The Court grants the ruling on behalf of the accused. The accused will not be questioned as to his character.

FIFTH WITNESS

Q19. You have drunk cognac there?
A19. Yes sir.

A21. It was not the first time.

Q22. You say you were so completely blacked out that you do not remember where you were, who you saw or what you did. Can you explain how in the Q22. presence of these NCOs, and remember it was a dark night, you were able to say to them, you Sgts are a bunch of cocksuckers and yellow bastards?

A22. No sir.

Q23. You have been sworn on oath to tell the truck and you say you did not intend to strike CSM Wigmore?

A23. That's right sir.

The witness is examined by the Court.

Q24. What time did you first leave the billets?

A24. About 7 o'clock.

Q25. What time did you go back for the second bottle?

A25. I have no idea. It must have been around 8 o'clock.

Q26. Did anybody else get drinks from that bottle?

A26. They may have, sir.

The Prosecution makes the following statement:

Gentlemen, the accused is charged with the following two offences:

1. Under Army Act Section 6(8), When on active service striking a superior officer, in that he, in the field, at approximately 2300 hrs 25th July 45, struck on the side of the head with his fist 6930B3 CSM Wigmore F. 48th Highlanders of Canada.

and

2. Under Army Act Section 40, When on active service, Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, in the field, at approximately 2300 hrs 25 Jul 45, created a disturbance by being engaged in an affray outside "B" Coy Sergeants' Mess 48th Highlanders of Canada.

Let us consider these charges and the evidence that the prosecution has produced in support of them.

The first witness, you will remember, was Sgt Pistroniro. Sgt Pistroniro told us that about 2300 hrs 25 Jul 45, Sgt Johnston called saying there was a rumpus outside the Sgts Mess. Sgt Pistroniro immediately went downstairs to investigate as any proper NCO should. The moment he stepped out of the door of the Mess he was grabbed by the accused, Roberts, whom he recognised immediately. Roberts said that he wanted to fight. Sgt Pistroniro ordered him to go home and go to bed. Roberts, instead, tried to fight Sgt Johnston who had also come out.

Coming to the evidence of the second witness, Sgt Johnston, you will remember that Sgt Johnston said that he heard Pistroniro give definite orders to Roberts to go home to bed. Roberts, on his part, made absolutely no attempt to comply with this perfectly lawful command. Several times Johnston heard Roberts say, "You Sergeants are all a bunch of cocksuckers and yellow bastards",-which constitutes absolute definite proof that Roberts knew he was dealing with non-commissioned officers, he knew their rank. Moreover Sgt Pistroniro informed us that he had once seen Roberts at the Sgts Mess before which means that the accused knew where he was at the time of the disturbance.

Now let us take the evidence of the third witness, CSM Wigmore. Within a few seconds of coming out of the Mess to investigate the rumpus and without the slightest provocation whatsoever, the accused struck the Sgt Major on the head with his fist. A perfectly glaring example of striking a superior officer. I suppose that a CSM is probably the best known man in a Company. He had repeatedly drilled the whole Coy on parade. He was wearing his badge of rank stripped on his arm. There is absolutely no question of Roberts not knowing whom he struck.

Gentlemen on the evidence as produced by the prosecution, if any man ever struck a superior officer, that man was Roberts and, if any man ever created a disturbance by being in an affray, that man was Roberts. He was the aggressor throughout and without the slightest provocation. He attacks Pistromiro the moment he came out of the Mess, right in the Sergeants' own front yard. He yelled foul and obscene words directed towards his senior officers. He knew who they were and where he was.

Now let us examine some of the theories put forward by the Defence. It is alleged that these NCOs should have crawled, battle-drill style, as though they were facing the Hun, along the ground and over the fence to gain help from the nearest platoon. I submit that this is utter poppycock and everybody here knows it. There is not one responsible, trustworthy NCO in the Canadian Army who would not have done as B Coy Sergeants did that night and to suggest that their conduct was wrong is utter nonsense.

Now we will consider the principal defence put forward, that of drunkenness. I refer you to page 106 of the Manual of Military Law. We have the evidence of three very responsible NCOs, Gentlemen, that the accused had been drinking but that he could speak clearly and distinctly and that he did not stagger when he walked. In other words he was not drunk, and knew what he was doing. This is proved by his recognition of his superiors as Sergeants even though they were not wearing their badges of rank. Remember that the fact that a person is influenced by alcohol is not sufficient to absolve him from a crime he may commit. He must be so completely, so absolutely dead drunk that he is incapable of formulating any intent at all. No man who acted the way the accused did, who carried on so energetically the way the accused did, who spoke so clearly as the accused did, who recognised his superior officers as easily as the accused did could be described as dead drunk.

Gentlemen, this period of waiting through which all we in the Canadian Army Overseas are now going through is a very difficult one. The men are restless and resentful with rancied grievances and grudges. The burden of enforcing discipline in the Army now chiefly falls on the NCOs. They are the shock absorbers between order and chaos. They bear the brunt of maintaining elementary order in our Army overseas today. Gentlemen, Roberts has obtained a notoriety far more than he deserves. He is known throughout the 48th Highlanders today as the private who socked a Sgt Major. To some weak minds in this battalion he is already a hero.

You have heard many witnesses in this case. You have heard for the prosecution three NCOs without a blemish on their character. Their evidence is unimpeachable because of their record and because they have never had a grievance against the accused. When you make your decision you should not only weigh the straight-forward facts given by them, but also consider their quality as witnesses as against the quantity of those produced by the Defence.

The Defence makes the following statement:-

Mr President, and Members of the Court. First of all I would like to make it clear that I do not want what anything I shall say shall be considered by you as an admission of guilt or that the accused should be held responsible for my words.

As I see the circumstances, they are very, very simple indeed and amount to this. Two soldiers start out to drink two bottles of cognac which is quite normal. I mean it is normal for two soldiers to drink. They get drunk; and that, definitely, is normal. A great many soldiers get drunk every week, as do many officers. This drunkenness in itself is no real offence and no one objects. It is only after you get drunk that people object, and quite properly so. The accused and his friend get drunk and, as it appears they are not used to drinking, they get dead drunk and do not remember what happens during the rest of the evening. It is quite normal, when drunk, to forget what you have been doing. As to whether or not they were very drunk, I think there can be no doubt in your minds about that as we have had as many as ten witnesses to swear that they were dead drunk. Not only the accused and his friend but eight other unprejudiced, unbiased witnesses who testified they had to be carried home, undressed and put to bed and, even after having been asleep, they were wakened and were still so drunk they could not dress themselves. A soldier is pretty drunk when he cannot dress himself.

Another feature about this business is this, that it is common sense that when a soldier gets drunk and does not remember what he is doing he does things he, later, regrets and when he gets that way, officers and NCOs must be very careful indeed to keep out of his way. It is an obligation on the part of officers and NCOs not to have contact with drunks. In this regard I refer you to Page 25, Section 47 of The Manual of Military Law. Not only is it sound logic to keep out of their way but it is a regulation laid down in M.M.L.

Now what happened here is that these soldiers were coming down the street on their way home and we have Rowling's evidence that when they left the civilian house, which is only about 200 yards from the Sgts Mess, "They were singing and quite happy", and he thought they would home alright, as most drunken soldiers do. The next thing we know they are mixed up in some brawl outside the Mess. We do not know actually what happened or how it started but when Sgts Johnson and Pietroniro and CSM Wigmore knew there were two drunken soldiers outside the Mess and, as is alleged, Pte Roberts said, "Come out and fight", they should not have come out, but what happens? Immediately they rush out and the soldiers think they have come out to fight which is actually what they did. It is not very nice to be sitting in your room and have someone yelling outside to come out and fight but here we have a Sergeant Major, a Warrant Officer Class II, who should have some self-respect and pride, deciding to rush out and clear the road himself. He knew these soldiers were drunk and knew they were invited to come out and fight. They knew that the soldiers would think that they were accepting the invitation.

They should have got somebody else to clear the road. In the next house up from the Sgts Mess is a house with Platoons 10 and 11. The proper course is for the senior NCO to detail someone else to clear the road. The Sgt Major was drunk that night and admitted that he had 5 whiskies and may have had more which he does not remember. I have had five witnesses swear he was drunk. They were unprejudiced and unbiased, impartial witnesses. They have nothing to gain from Roberts or Edwards and have very much to lose by testifying against their Sgt Major, but they did testify to the truth.

I said to the Sgt Major, "You were drunk and swearing", and he stated, "Not that I remember". Now isn't that ridiculous? He remembers all the details of rushing out, the striking and the calling of the fire. Every little detail. If he remembers everything else, he would remember that.

When I said to the Sgt Major that he was pounding on the table and saying, with each blow, "I hit him in the nuts like this, and this, and this", he stated, "I don't remember". Now he must have remembered. You know he must have remembered. Cpl Campbell came and he has testified that the Sgt Major was drunk and he, again, is impartial. You have seen these witnesses, that they are honest and clean cut lads. You have seen that the Sergeant Major, a Warrant Officer Class II, is drunk and goes out to clear up a road and fights with Roberts who is, admittedly, drunk. But I submit, Gentlemen, that it is a greater offence for a W.O. to strike a Private soldier, than it is for a Private to strike a W.O. It was an obligation on these NCOs to avoid the fight particularly for the Sgt Major, who is the worst of all, and should have set a good example of conduct. The Prosecution has suggested that these witnesses came because they were friends of the accused but this is simply ridiculous as there is no reason for anyone to come to testify except in the cause of truth as perjury is a very serious crime.

On the question of drunkenness, I refer you to Page 85, para 48 of the Manual of Military Law. When you read paras 47 and 48 together you see that the gist of it is that drunkenness is not a very serious offence and, wherever possible, it should be charged as an offence in itself and not in conjunction with another offence. According to para 47 the offence should be dealt with summarily. It refers quite obviously to this case.

It is ridiculous to think that intention was there and we know these two men were so drunk that they did not know what they were doing. The offence comes under para 48 and I think that the proper procedure is to charge them with drunkenness as they cannot be held responsible for something of which they have no knowledge. In the case of Roberts it is his first offence for drunkenness and he would receive only a simple fine. I suggest it is far too much to punish him with imprisonment penal servitude as it will mean he will not go home with his Regiment, which is a serious matter and will lose his gratuity which is a very serious matter indeed. You should give consideration to the facts that this case should have been dealt with summarily but is one of those unfortunate matters which happens in the Army. If Roberts is let off now, even if he is acquitted, it will be a grave lesson for him as he has already served about two weeks. He has been honest in giving his evidence and has remained so under the grueling cross-examination of the Prosecutor who is an expert at these matters being a qualified Barrister-at-law.

The Court adjourns to consider the evidence presented.

The Court re-opened.

The Court finds the accused not guilty on the first charge but sentence is to be considered on the second charge.

The AFM 6 and Statement as to the Particulars of the Character of the accused are examined and handed to the Court.

The Court asks the Defence, "Do you wish to address the Court in mitigation of sentence?".

The Defence states that he does so wish.

In the question of mitigation of sentence, Gentlemen, there is not much more I can say except to reiterate that this affair is one of those unfortunate incidents which would have been better dealt with summarily, to keep this scandal from the public.

Roberts joined the army when he was 19 years of age and has four years service, making him 23 years of age at present. He came overseas in 1942 and immediately shipped to Sicily and Italy. He has been with the 48th Highlanders for 21 months and saw a great deal of action including two of the worst "shows" experienced by the Canadian Army. I think you gentlemen know them, Ortona and the Hitler Line. He joined the Army very young, has come overseas and done a man's job or work and is now anxious to go home as everyone else is.

He is not married fortunately. On his conduct sheet there is only a minor charge under AO 40 for being improperly dressed. It would be quite proper if the sentence is very small as he had had his lesson.

The Court is terminated in the case of Pte Roberts.
The Court announces that the sentence will be published subject to confirmation.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No B55236 Pte ROBERTS, Norman Frederick, "B" Coy, 48th Highlanders of Canada, Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, Lt-Col. J.R.O. COUNSELL DSO 48th Highlanders of Canada, all evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution — D73298 Sgt PIETRONIRO, J.A., 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Platoon Sergeant of No 12 Platoon, "B" Coy 48th Highlanders of Canada. At approximately 2330 hrs, 25 Jul 1945 I had just got into bed in my room on the second floor of "B" Coy Sgt's Mess when Sgt Johnston called me saying there were some men downstairs making a rumpus. I got out of bed put on my fatigue shoes and trousers and went downstairs to investigate. As soon as I stepped out of the door a soldier grabbed me. I put him down on the ground and recognized him as Pte Roberts of my Platoon. He said he wanted to fight. I ordered him to go home and go to bed. I then let him up off the ground and he tried to join a fight against Sgt Johnston which another soldier Pte Edwards had started. I held him and prevented him from attacking Sgt Johnston. While I was still holding Roberts, CSM Wigmore came out of the Mess and I let Roberts loose. I then turned towards Edwards and Sgt Johnston and when I looked around again I saw CSM Wigmore holding Pte Roberts on the Ground. Shortly thereafter the accused was removed to his billet on the CSM's orders."

Q. What was the Accused's condition?

A. He had been drinking but he spoke coherently.

Q. Do you know whether the accused knew where the Sergeants' Mess was?

A. Yes, becau se he had been at the Sergeants' Mess before, I saw him there on one occasion.

Second Witness for the Prosecution — B54003 Sgt JOHNSTON, C.F., 48th Highlanders of Canada having been duly sworn states:

"I am a Sergeant in No 11 Platoon "B" Coy, 48th Highlanders of Canada. At approximately 2330 hrs, 25 July 1945 I was preparing to go to bed in my room in "B" Coy Sgts' Mess. My room is on the second floor facing the street. I heard a disturbance outside in front of the building. I called Sgt Pietroniro who sleeps in the room next to mine. We went downstairs, Sgt Pietroniro being the first one out. As soon as I got outside I saw Sgt Pietroniro wrestling with private soldier whom later on I found out to be the accused Pte Roberts of 12 Platoon "B" Coy. Immediately thereafter Pte Edwards came over the fence and I was more concerned with him. I heard Sgt Pietroniro, though, order both Roberts and Edwards to go home to bed. Roberts made no attempt to comply with this order. At this moment CSM Wigmore came out of the Mess and Roberts grappled with him and they both fell to the ground. Shortly thereafter both Roberts and Edwards having been overpowered were taken off to their quarters. During the disturbance which I have just described I heard Roberts say several times "You Sergeants are all a bunch of cocksuckers and yellow basterds."

"I am CSM of "B" Coy, 48th Highlanders of Canada. At approximately 2330 hrs 26 July, 1945 I was going to bed in my room in "B" Coy Sgts' Mess. I heard a disturbance outside and I looked out and saw two 48th Highlanders arguing with a couple of Sergeants. I went downstairs and outside immediately. I walked over to one of the soldiers, whom I recognized as Pte Roberts, 12 Platoon, "B" Coy and he hit me on the side of the head with his fist. I grappled with him and we fell to the ground. Roberts was overpowered and I ordered him to be taken to his billet which was done. Roberts has been in "B" Coy two months.

Q. Do the men in "B" Coy know where the Sgts' Mess is?

A. I feel quite confident that they do because the men used to line up at the window to get their EFI Issue from the Sergeants. There is also a Sergeants' Mess sign in the window. Two doors away is a big house with two Platoons in it.

The accused declines to call any witnesses in his defence.

Plea for leniency

Saturday, Nov. 24/45 a friend & myself went to Utrecht to visit friends. While in Utrecht we obtained two bottles of gin. I flew drinking both bottles I remember very little that followed. When I sobered up, I found myself driving the vehicle. I then stopped & asked a civilian for the way to Nijmegen. It was at this time that I was apprehended by R. S. M. Giles, who took me to the town guard room in Nijmegen.

I don't remember taking the vehicle, but realize I had done wrong. There was no damage done to the vehicle &

I joined the army at the age of 18, came overseas April 1942. Served in Sicily, Italy & Holland as an infantryman. I beg of you to take this into consideration & be lenient with me. I have had very little education, as I left school to join the army. I intend to take an educational course as soon as possible. I would like to gain what I have lost & settle down.

Sir:-

At approx. 2045 hrs. on the 24 Nov 45 I was proceeding from Arnhem to Nijmegen when I saw the a/m vehicle being driven in the direction of Nijmegen. Being suspicious of it as it had a Dutch Registration Plate as well as a WD No. on it, I followed it. The driver of this vehicle stopped after a while to talk with a passing civilian. I approached the driver who proved to be the a/m soldier and asked him to account for being in possession of the a/m vehicle, not being satisfied with his answers, I placed him under close arrest and escorted him to the Town Guard Room, Nijmegen. Later I warned him that a charge was being subaitted to his CO. Up to the present time the owner of the vehicle has not been located.

CASE OF

D-3 B-76331 Sergeant ROBERTS, R.J. No. 1 C.A.C.R.U.

PRES OF THE COURT TO THE ACCUSED

Q. The Court is informed that the Prosecuting Officer is a solicitor. Are you aware of that?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Is your Defending Officer one of your own choice and are you satisfied to proceed?
A. Yes, Sir.

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

B-97637 Sgt DEGROW, H.E., 9 Cdn Prov Corps Coy, sworn, states:-

Q. How long have you been in the Prov Corps?
A. 4½ years, Sir.

Q. How long have you been working with vehicles?
A. All the time I've been in the Prov Corps, Sir.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where did you see him on Apr 15?
A. At approx 2250 hours, on 15 Apr, I was in a stn wagon, driven by Sgt Meyer; we were driving along Highstreet, in Guildford, Surrey, when at some distance in front of us we noticed an army scout car swerving from one side of the road to the other. We gave chase and stopped this vehicle on the Plymouth Road, about a quarter of a mile from Guildford. Sgt Meyer first got out of our vehicle and asked the dvr for his work ticket, while I was getting out. The dvr, Sgt Robert, got out of the vehicle on the left-hand side and came around to the right-hand side in front of Sgt Meyer and myself. When he came around to the other side of the vehicle, he was asked again for the work ticket; then, he spoke to a soldier in the scout car and said, "A couple of zombies out here want to see my work ticket". I told him not to talk like that and he replied, "I will not for you Provost bastard". I told him he was under close arrest and escorted him to our own vehicle by taking him by the arm. He gave a little struggle. When he got near the vehicle, he put his right hand on the door-frame, trying to stop himself from being taken in the stn wagon. He got away from me that time. I took hold of him by the front of his tunic. Sgt Meyer opened the door to the stn wagon and I put the accused in the stn wagon where he fell on his back on the floor of the stn wagon. When I went to get in the stn wagon the accused kicked me in the stomach with his left foot. I held the accused on the floor of the stn wagon and proceeded to the civil police stn in Guildford.

Q. Did the accused ever produce a work ticket?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you notice any sign of drinking on any part of the crew?
A. I am sure Sgt Robert had been drinking and at least one of the other people in the scout car had been drinking because he was not able to get out of the car by himself; he had to be helped out; not Sgt Robert, Sir.

Q. Is there any doubt in your mind as to whom those words were addressed to when he used them?
A. No, Sir.

Q. How was the scout car being driven down Highstreet with reference to the white line in the center of the road?
A. It was zizagging down the street and the right-hand wheels of the scout car were over the centre line.

Q. You just said that the car was swerving from curb to curb?
A. No, Sir, I said from side to side.

Q. Did the left wheels of the scout car cross the centre line?
A. No, Sir, the left wheels did not cross the centre line.

Q. Then the car would not be swerving from one side of the road to the other?
A. Yes, the car was swerving from one side of the road to the other.

Q. You didn't see any work-ticket on this particular night?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you ask for the work-ticket after leaving the place where you had stopped them?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Are sure whether there was a work-ticket in the car or not?
A. Yes, I am sure that there was no work-ticket in the car.

Q. Did you look in the car?
A. No.

Q. How can you be sure then?
A. Because he couldn't produce any after the car came to the police stn. We also looked in it for a work ticket.

Q. Is it possible that there was a work-ticket in the car and that you couldn't find it?
A. No, Sir.

Q. If the accused was asked for his work ticket, what did he say in answer to your request?
A. He said, "A couple of zombies here want to see my work ticket".

Q. What did you do?
A. I told him not to talk like that and to that he answered, "I will not for you you Provost bastard".

Q. Then you grabbed him?
A. I told him not to talk like that, Sir.

Q. In other words you grabbed him before you told him he was under close arrest?
A. No, Sir.

Q. When you grabbed him and moved him towards the stn wagon, did Sgt Meyer help you?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Prior to the accused being put in the car, you claim that he broke away?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did he try to leave the scene?
A. No, Sir, he just went six feet. He didn't try to get away.

Q. You said you took hold of the accused before the door was opened?
A. That's right, Sir.

Q. Then forced him in the car?
A. He resisted, Sir, and I pushed him inside.

Q. You didn't know if the accused would have gotten in the car willingly or not.
A. He would not have gotten in willingly, Sir.

RE-EXAMINED

Q. When you were taking the accused to the vehicle, did he place his hand on the side of the vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Was there any traffic on High Street?
A. No, Sir.

Q. How far did you chase the scout car?
A. Approx half a mile, Sir.

Q. You said you stopped the scout car, how did you stop it?
A. I drove along side and waved my hand out of the window and shouted to the scout car to stop.

Q. Did the scout car stop?
A. Yes, Sir within a hundred yards.

Q. At what speed were you going at that time?
A. Between 20 and 25 miles an hour.

Q. Did you exceed that speed in chasing it?
A. No, Sir, the scout car was not going fast, Sir.

Q. Did you search the accused after he was placed under arrest?
A. No, Sir.

Q. How did the accused get out of the stn wagon upon arriving at the police stn with you?
A. When we arrived at the police stn, I asked Sgt Robert to get out of the stn wagon. He didn't move. I asked him again; he didn't move. I took him by the shoulders and his tunic and took him out of the stn wagon. He got up on his feet and walked with me in the police stn. He walked pretty good, Sir, he staggered very little if any. He went in the stn with me willingly.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

SECOND WITNESS

L-52212 Sgt MEYER, A.J., No. 9 Cdn Prov Coy, sworn, states:-

Q. How long have you been in the Prov Corps?
A. Three years and eleven months, Sir.

Q. How long have you been working with vehicles in the Provost Corps?
A. Three years, Sir.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes, Sir. I have seen him in Guildford on Apr 15 45, when I was patrolling around 2250 hrs I was driving down High Street, accompanied by Sgt Degrow, in a stn wagon, when I saw a vehicle being driven in a more or less reckless manner, swaying from side to side, from one side of the road to the other. I immediately took out after it.

After I got out of the dangerous area, I took after the car. There is a sharp turn to left about 20 yeards after I took after the accused; I waited to get by that turn before giving chase. I pulled along side and I blew the horn. I stopped the stn wagon right in front of their vehicle and walked out to the vehicle and I looked in and found the accused who was the dvr and I asked him for his work ticket. He didn't say anything and just came xmxn out of his vehicle. After he came out I asked him again to produce his work ticket; he didn't answer and yelled back towards his vehicle and said, "There are two zombies here who want to see my work ticket"; Sgt Degrow said, "You'd better quiet down", and the accused replied, "I will not for you Provost bastard"; Sgt Degrow then said, "You are under arrest" and he grabbed hold of him and tried to place him in the stn wagon but he failed as Sgt Robert struggled away. I went over to the accused's vehicle and I asked the remainder to turn out. I then walked over to our stn wagon and opened the door for Sgt Degrow to put the accused in our stn wagon. As Sgt Degrow was putting the accused in the stn wagon, the accused fell on his back on the floor of the stn wagon. I went over to the other vehicle and I asked if one of the members in this vehicle could drive the scout car to the police stn and one of them said he could and I told him to follow which he did right to Guildford Police Stn. Sgt Degrow and Sgt Robert were in the back-seat of the stn wagon.

Q. What happened when you got to the police stn?
A. The accused was put in a cell.

How far of the scout car did you stop the stn wagon?
About 20 feet.

Q. When you opened the door of the stn wagon did you see any resistance on the part of the accused?
A. I didn't see the accused get out, Sir.

Q. Did you see any sign of drinking on any of the crew?
A. There was one of the soldiers in the vehicle who didn't get out; I don't know if he was drunk or not. I told him to get out but he stayed in the scout car. Two men came out and one stayed in the scout car. He drove back to the police stn in the scout car.

Q. Was there any doubt in your own mind as to whom those words were addressed to?
A. They were for us, Sir, as far as I know, Sir.

Q. Do you say that you were addressed to?
A. Yes, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When you first saw the scout car, how far was he from you?
A. About 60 yds, Sir. We came on High Street and I had not noticed anything particular about a car that passed us but when it was about 60 yds down the road in front of us I noticed it swaying from side to side, that is when I took after the car, Sir.

Q. He crossed your front?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How far did you give chase?
A. I'd say about ½ of a mile, Sir.

Q. You've said that from the time you noticed him weaving, it was 60 yds in front of you, and that you caught up with it and crossed it in the space of ½ of a mile?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How fast did you drive your car in order to come up in front of him?
A. I wouldn't be sure about that; I wouldn't be going more than 10 to 15 miles an hour as he was travelling very slow, Sir.

Q. This whole transaction from the time you first noticed him at 60 yds in front of you until you came to a stop in front of the other car took place inside of 400 yards?
A. It was about ½ of a mile from the time I took chase, Sir.

Q. The whole thing took place inside of 400 yards?
A. 400 yds less 60, Sir.

Q. In what position was your car when you stopped in front of him?
A. Straight in front, Sir.

Q. The street by the bridge on Portsmouth is quite narrow?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. There is a white line in the centre?
A. Yes, Sir, a centre line.

Q. Did the car have both its front wheels across that centre line?
A. I couldn't see if he had both front wheels on it. The left front wheel might have been about a foot from the left side of the line.

Q. This space in which this action took place would include the bridge on Portsmouth's road?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were there any tps and people crossing the bridge into Portsmouth's Road?
A. I didn't see any, Sir. If there were it would cause the vehicle to go towards the centre line.

Q. When you came to the car you came to broad-side and blew your horn and Sgt Degrow waived them to the side?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You didn't have any trouble in passing the vehicle?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Had you seen a vehicle of this type the night previous to that?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were you looking for it?

A. I never said that, Sir.

Q. When you asked the accused for the work-ticket, did he intimate that it was in the scout car?
A. He came out of the vehicle and never said anything.

Q. Had you an idea at any time that the ticket was in the car?
A. I had no idea at all, Sir.

Q. Did you look in the car?
A. Yes, Sir, when we got to the police stn in Guildford. I looked through the car; I didn't see it and I did not go on looking for it as one of the soldiers in the car told me that the trip was not authorized.

Q. Would it have been possible to have had a ticket in the car and that you wouldn't have noticed it?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When you were in Guildford Police Stn, the accused was placed in a cell?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You wanted his Field Service Book?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Why was it necessary to get this service book from the accused?
A. I was taking down all the particulars for the four soldiers, Sir.

Q. Why did you have to help Sgt Degrow in getting the accused's service book?
A. I didn't, Sir.

Q. Were you in the cell with the accused?
A. No, Sir.

Q. You never saw anything in the cell?
A. No, Sir.

Q. When you asked the occupants of the scout car to come out, did they come out?
A. Two of them came out, Sir.

Q. When the accused was placed in the stn wagon the first time you opened the door?
A. Yes, Sir, the second time we attempted to him in.

Q. Sgt Robert fell on the floor?

A. I was on High Street.

Q. How far from the canal and the bridge?
A. I was half way up High Street, Sir.

A. It was about 60 yds before the corner when I saw him.

Q. How far around the corner was it before you stopped him?
A. A little less than a quarter of a mile, Sir.

Q. Was there more than one sway?

Q. When you said that you noticed the scout car swaying from side to side, did you mean that it crossed the whole road?

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

In regards to the 1st charge, I feel that the point has not been proven, that the vehicle was not driven in a reckless manner. It has not been proved that the dvr endangered any lives. Only one sway was noticed. On the 2nd charge, I don't think that the Pros Offr has proved that the vehicle was out without authority. Regarding the 3rd charge, the word "bastard" and "zombies" were used. Now again, it has not been proved that the words were used in an abusive or obscene way. This might have been one of the three not all of them. The word "bastard" may be used quite properly in many different ways... as a catch word which neither profane or obscene nor abusive. Regarding the 4th charge, Sir, it was brought out that after Sgt Debrow asked the accused for his work ticket, he thought that he had been called a "zombie, and that he grabbed him. It is quite normal; it is merely instinct to try and get released when you have no idea why you are grabbed. It is quite apparent that one sgt could have handled the accused. I think that the accused was manhandled. I don't think that anything has been proved against Sgt Robert.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

B-1 Sgt Robert joined the Cdn Army (Active) on 19 Nov 39. He joined the Toronto Scot Regt. On Dec 3 39, he came overseas with his regt. In Jun 40 he went into action with the same regt at Dunkirk. At that time, he was employed with the Recce Tp. After Dunkirk, he joined the 8 Cdn Recce Regt in Mar 41 and he has been with this unit up to the time of D-Day. He has spent 75 days in France with them since D-Day and was casualtied out. At this point, I'd like to bring out something about his severe reprimand in Jul 44. At that time, he was acting as Sec Sgt in a forward posn in France, for approx 2 weeks. He received his rep because he complained to the Tp Offr about not keeping contact in coming to the secs and seeing how his men were doing and getting along. When he came out of France he had injuries to his shoulders which were caused from being thrown from a motorcycle. On going to hospital, the accused was asked if he would mind letting the medical corps try a new form of treatment on him. He agreed to being used as a guinea-pig. He spent about four months in the hospital under treatment and during that time was paraded and put on show for other doctors to observe the reaction of his treatment xx and then was returned to 1 CACRU. While in France, he had received words from home by his mother that his family, his parents and his sisters, of which he has three, had been sick. During a short space of time two sisters had died and his father had died too. He applied for compassionate leave when he heard that. He also that his third sister had gone to the hospital and that there was not much hope for her.

His own hospitalization intervened and in coming back to CACNU was put on a light form of duty due to his cat, acting as permanent orderly sergeant. Now in the meantime, Sgt Robert, who has been 5½ years in England; who has been in France twice; he has had an excellent record; he has been a confirmed sgt for two years, his turn to go back to Canada came up three days ago. He would have left yesterday if it hadn't been for this CM. Now his turn will come up again in the near future but the sentence of this Court may interfere with that. I think Sir in that case that is all I have to say but to ask the Court once again to show all the mercy possible in this case.

OPENING ADDRESS

1st Charge Sec 40 - driving a veh in a reckless manner

A veh to be driven recklessly is one driven in a way in which e ther from the point of view of those in the vehicle or from those outside is being driven in a way without due care to the safetybof othersor their property. As to whether at any ne timea vehicle is being driven recklessly must be based on those who saw it from within ot watching the vehicle. In this case the prosecution will bring evidence of Provost Sgts, personnel trained in veh control and discipline in the army and within whose scope of duyt it was to watch for such things. There will be no evidence from those in the veh as to the rec less driving for reasons which will be pr duced.

2nd Charge Sec 40 driving a WD vehicle without prop r authority.

Evidence will be produced by the ## officer responsible for authorizing vehs in th s case that there was no authy and by the Provost that no ticket was produced, and by the personnel in the vehiccle, including one who specifically looked for it, that no ticket was produced at any time.

3rd Charge. Sec 40 - abusive, obscene and profane language

It is p inted out that languagein some circumstances may be abusiveand in others may not. In the case of a Sgt dealing with two Provost Sgts, suspected if not already accused of at leas one offence, would be one f those circumstances where words which by themselves have often been usedyet yet under #### such circumstan would be abusive. Other words are profane on the face f them used at any time. Evidence will be produced by the Prov st Sgts and by one of the members as to the use f s ch language. It is again noted that the reason that other members of the crew did not hear the same will be also brought out in the evidence.

MML

4th Charge. Sec 10(3) - resisting arrest.

When a manis susped d or resonably thought to ## have committe an offence it is the task ### Provost to to place him under arrest. A man resists when he physically , purposfullyattempts to prevent his arrest, whatever his m tive may have been. Evidence will be produced by the Provost, and by two of the crew that the accused actively and vigorously did so resist.

CLOSING ADDRESS

1st Charge -

On this charge we have the evidence of two Provost Sgts, trained in mov and veh control, out for the od checking veh discipline. The manner in which the veh was travelling was sufficient to draw their attention to it. Against that considered evidence of trained men experienced in this sort of thin , we have therather negative evidence that the other members of the crew did not see anything. It was brou ht out in evidence that a considerable period was spent in the Pub plus the fact thatone of the men despite all this goi g on actually never woke up till he got to the police station. Without going further into the c nditio of these ersonnel it is sug ested that p rhaps t ey were perfectly clear as t waht was said or done.

2nd Charge

On this charge there is no evidence of a work ticket ver having been in existence, any authority having been given, or even after a search b one ofthe crew

3rd Charge

The language used is of two types. The words Provost Bastards ar certainly abusive and profane on the face f them. As to the words " a couple of ZOMBIES" while it is true the expression has been much usedin newspapers and so forth yet this is one of these case where the words must be considered with the circumsta Here , used against the Prvost performing their duty it must be taken as a form of abuse and ridicule The evidence shwed that the Provost heard it and Tpr Hogg heard the word Zombie and nothing more. As stated before the reason why the others did not he is largely because the doubtful conditi n in which they w re together with the distance from the veh that a go d part of it took place

75

4th - Charge -

Here again we have the evidence of the Provost, of Tpr Hogg who saw them"hustling"the accused into the wagon Now hustling certa nly certainly implies a resistance on t the part of the accused. Now it is the duty of the Provost to apprehend the personnel breaking the law. Upon being told he was under arrest it was his duty to acc accede to their requ st, obey their instructions. Here the accused in addition to hurling profane language at the strenously objected and physically resisted to being escorted back to the station Whatever his motive may have been the fact is that he did resist and it is submitted that the proper functioning of law and discipline does not leave the choice as to how and when he should be placed un under arest up to the accused.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-76331 Sgt ROBERTS, Robert James, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on the strength of No 1 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT ALL EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH

1st Witness for the Prosecution L-52212 Sgt MEYER, A.J., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on the strength of No 9 Provost Coy., having been duly sworn, states:-

"On the 15th day of April 45 I was on patrol check accompanied by Sgt Degrow of No 9 Provost Coy. I was proceeding down High St Guildford at 2250 hrs, when I observed a vehicle ahead of me being driven in a reckless manner, swaying from side to side. I gave chase and overtook him ¼ of a mile from Guildford on the Portsmouth road and halted him. After having halted I proceeded to the vehicle and asked the driver, who was Sgt Roberts, if I could see his work ticket. He said he had one, but he did not show it to me and came out of the vehicle. After he came out, I asked him again to produce his work ticket, he then said to a member of his vehicle that two "ZOMBIES" would like to see his work ticket. He was told by Sgt Degrow to quieten down; he then said I will not quieten down for you "PROVOST BASTARDS". He was then placed under close arrest by Sgt Degrow and ordered into our station wagon. He refused to get into our station wagon and Sgt Degrow then grabbed him and made an attempt to put him in. He did not get him in the first time. I then called the remainder of the personnel of Sgt Roberts' vehicle to leave their vehicle and get into our station wagon. There were two that came out and one remained inside. I then opened the door of our station wagon and Sgt Degrow forced Sgt Roberts into the station wagon. By doing so, Sgt Roberts fell to the floor of the station wagon. Sgt Degrow looked after Sgt Roberts and I told the following personnel of Sgt Roberts' vehicle: B-137193 Cpl Lawson, J.R., B-137445 Tpr Hogg, A.R., B-134681 Cpl Reid, G.W., to follow the station wagon to the Police Station."

The accused cross-examines this witness as follows:-

Q1 About this Zombie term, wasn't it "Come on you Zombies there's a couple of guys who want to see our work ticket."

A1 No.

Q2 Were we exceeding the speed limit?
A2 Definitely not.

Q3 Was it dark at the time?
A3 Yes.

Q4 How far away were you from us when you noticed our vehicle swaying?

3rd Witness for the Prosecution — B-97637 Sgt DEGROW, M.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on the strength of No 9 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn, states:-

"On the 15th April 45 at approximately 2250 hrs, in company with Sgt Meyer of No 9 Cdn Provost Coy, while driving down High St, Guildford, Surrey, towards Portsmouth Road we noticed a Scout car being driven recklessly, weaving from side to side on the road. We gave chase and stopped the Scout car approx ½ of a mile along the Portsmouth road. The driver, who was Sgt Roberts was asked for his work ticket by Sgt Meyer. He failed to produce it, and got out of the vehicle. Sgt Meyer again asked him for his work ticket. Sgt Roberts, while speaking to some chap in the Scout car said, "A couple of Zombies out here want to see my work ticket". I told Sgt Roberts not to talk in that way and to be quiet. He replied, "I will not you Provost Bastard". I then placed Sgt Roberts under close arrest and ordered him to get into the waiting station wagon. He replied, "No, I won't get in." I tried to escort him by taking him by the arm to the wagon, he resisted and gave a struggle. At the wagon he put his right hand against the door frame and in the struggle got away from me. I again took hold of Sgt Roberts by the front of the tunic and pushed him backwards into the station wagon, the door being held open by Sgt Meyer. As Sgt Roberts lay in the station wagon on his back, he kicked me in the stomach. I held Sgt Roberts on the floor of the station wagon and we proceeded to Guildford Civil Police Station. From there he was escorted back to his own unit."

The accused cross-examines this witness as follows:-

Q1 Would you say both my front wheels crossed the centre white line?
A1 No.

A2 60 yards.

Q3 Are you sure I called you a Zombie?
A3 Yes.

They asked Sgt Roberts for the work ticket and climbed out of the vehicle and asked Cpl Reid to look under the seat for it. I was, at the time, riding in the rear left hand seat of the vehicle with the hatch open and at the time of stopping, walked down to wake up Cpl Lawson without success. "On 15 Apr 45 at approx 2200 hrs I was proceeding down High St Guildford approaching the Canal Bridge. I observed troops crossing the road and slowed down to about approx 8 mph. On crossing the Bridge, I turned sharp left out on the Portsmouth Road. On hitting the Portsmouth road I proceeded about 50 yds when a station wagon with two Provost Sgts pulled up in front of me and waved for me to stop. Two Provost Sgts got out of the wagon and I climbed out of the car. Jumping off the right hand side of the road, one of the Provost came towards me and asked for my work ticket, which I thought might be under the seat. Walking around the front of the car I yelled into the right front hand port "Wake up you Zombies, there's a couple of guys who want to see our work ticket. Cpl Reid asked where it was and I said under the seat. With that one Provost Sgt Degrow grabbed me by the hair and said "Who the hell are you calling a Zombie", at the same time forcing me to the station wagon, knowing that they had not seen my work ticket; I not knowing what I was being put into the station wagon for, I resisted Sgt Degrow and asked him what was going on. He kept forcing me trying to open the door. The other Provost came back, opened the door, and they then threw me in. Falling on the floor of the car, Sgt Degrow jumped in on top of me and Sgt Meyer shut the door. I was taken to Guildford Police station and put into a cell where I remained for some time. On the way back to camp in the station wagon I heard Sgt Meyer say, "The only reason we stopped you guys tonight was that we saw this car out lastnight and were looking for it".

I wish to bring the attention of the Court that this soldier has been repeatedly committing petty offenses. Technically speaking the offenses did not belong to time but each act was prompted by drunkness.
Realising that drunkness is not an excuse nevertheless the prompting factor in this case must appeal to the spirit for consideration
Before this case came into Court I interviewed his company commander and C. A. M. - Both of them stated that the accused was an individual that when he was on the job was a good soldier but unfortunately frequently committed petty offenses due to drunkenness.

SUMMARY of EVIDENCE

in the case of

Regt'l no. F-54886 Pte Roberts, S.,of the West Nova Scotia Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas), stationed in the Field,

By Order of

Major J.A. Webb, T/Comd
West Nova Scotia Regiment.

Evidence taken on Oath.

16 Jul 42.

First Witness for Prosecution. #F-45680 Pte LeBlanc, E.J., of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am and was at all times material hereto helper in the combined cookhouse of A, C,& D Coys. On the night of 13 Jul 42 I was on duty in the cookhouse. About 2300 hrs Pte Roberts, the accused, came in. He had been drinking. He talked with me for a minute then went out returning shortly with some meat, a front quarter of mutton with the ribs on it, and a little chunk of beef. He wanted me to roast the meat but I wouldn't do it for I didn't know where he had got it and he wouldn't tell me. The issue to our cookhouse that day had been beef and mutton, which had been placed in the shed near the cookhouse. Then Pte Skanes came in. Roberts took some stuff of the shelves and went outside. Skanes went after him, got the stuff and made Roberts bring it back. We put Roberts out and barred the door. He tried to get in and couldn't so he left the door, then we heard the crash of glass as a rock or brick was hurled through the window. I did not see Roberts again but reported the matter to Sjt Lupton when he arrived. I cannot say if any of the tinned goods are still missing. The meat Roberts had was left on the table and turned over to Sjt Lupton.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E.J. LeBlanc

Second Witness for Prosecution. #F-45598 Pte Rhodenizer, H.C., of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am and was at all times material hereto a member of #18 Pln, "D" Coy, employed as fatigue man in A, C, &D Coys' cookhouse. Around 2300 hrs, 13 Jul Pte Roberts, the accused, came into the cookhouse. He had been drinking. He had a piece of meat, mutton, which he asked Pte LeBlanc to roast for him. He did not say where he had got this meat. We had to put him out and bar the door for he was causing a disturbance, just after that the window was broken.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

H.C. Rhodenizer

Third Witness

Edward Brown Major
President

Third Witness for Prosecution. #F- 54891 Pte Skanes, F., of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am and was at all times material hereto a Rifleman of "B" Coy. At about 2230 hrs, 13 Jul I was at my company grounds and I saw Pte Roberts, S., the accused, in a trench. He was drunk and he had an armful of some kind of meat. I talked to him for a few minutes and he started back to his tent, taking the meat with him. I can't say where he got this meat. After I left him I heard an argument around the cookhouse. I thought Roberts was up there and I wanted to keep him out of trouble so I went up. He was in the cookhouse and he was loading up with some stuff from the shelves. I told the cooks to do something about it but they just stood and watched. I got Roberts outside and took the stuff from him and took it back to the cookhouse. I then got Roberts back to his lines and put him to bed. I can't say who broke the window. I was inside and Roberts was outside at the time. The meat Roberts had was left in the cookhouse.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

S.S. Ford Skanes

Fourth Witness for Prosecution. #F-39776 Sjt Lupton, W.B., of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am and was at all times material hereto Provost Sjt the West N.S.R. At app. 2300 hrs, 13 Jul 42, in answer to a complaint received I proceeded, in company with Sjt Freeman, to the combined cookhouse of A, C, & D Coys. On entering the cookhouse I received the complaint that a soldier had broken into the cookhouse with a dish of meat requesting that it be cooked for him, also a complaint that this same soldier had stolen some tinned food from the cookhouse. I investigated the complaint and as a result of my investigation I placed the accused, Pte Roberts, under arrest and had him put in the Unit guardroom. Pte LeBlanc identified the meat which Pte Roberts had as that on a table. I took possession of it and turned it over to the Orderly Officer at Bn Hq. The meat was given back to A, C, & D Coy cookhouse after investigations were completed where it was cooked and consumed to prevent wastage. The next morning in company with Sjt Potter and Pte Boutilier I went to the before-mentioned cookhouse. A checkup and weighing of the meat issued the day previous was made and it was found to be deficient over eleven pounds. The meat taken from the accused xxx was also xxxxxxxxxxx examined and found to correspond to the meat deficient in kind and weight. The tinned food the accused is alleged to have taken has not to my knowledge been recovered.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

W.B. Lupton

Fifth Witness for Prosecution. #F-41613 Sjt Potter, V.R., of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am and was at all times material hereto Sjt Cook in charge of rations of the West N.S.R. I personally supervise the weighing and distribution of rations to the Various cookhouses. On 13 Jul I issued two days rations to the combined cookhouse of A, B & D Coys. On the morning of the 14 Jul I was asked by the Adjutant if I could identify certain meat as the t which I had issued the previous day. I got My batman, Pte Scottilon, and we viewed the meat which was in the Orderly Room at Bn Hq. We both identified the meat as being the cutting of the previous day. We weighed the meat of which there were 12½ pounds mutton and 4½ pounds beef. We then checked the meat in A, B, D Coys cookhouse and found it to be short by 1½ pounds mutton and just weighed.

Fifth Witness (cont'd)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

N. R. Potter.....

Sixth Witness for Prosecution.

Pte Scottilon, S.... of the West N.S.R., having been duly sworn, stated:-

I am and was at all times material hereto the batman of Lt [illegible] of the West N.S.R. I was detailed another beef to A, B & D Coys' cookhouse. On Tuesday morning I went with Lt Potter to the Bn Orderly Room to see if I could identify certain meat that was there. I found a front quarter of mutton which I recognized as New Zealand mutton corresponding to that which I had issued out. I can tell my own method of cutting, I had cut that piece. There was also a piece of beef. We weighed the meat and found 4½ pounds beef and 12½ pounds mutton. We checked at A, B & D Coys' cookhouse and weighed the mutton there and found it 1½ pounds less than issued. We couldn't weigh the beef as it had been cooked.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C. A. Scottilon.....

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No. (5)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

Field General Court Martial of held on 3 Feb 44.

The accused pleaded guilty to charge sheet as read.

Plea of Mitigation by Defending Officer

Gentlemen of the Court. When I first spoke to the accused as his Defending Officer, almost his first words were "I don't mind the punishment, I expect that, but I want to find out what they intend to do with me, and whether I can get my nose fixed or not". We then went into his medical history, and I found that for some months he had been complaining of head pains, caused apparently by an old nose injury. Also a leg which was crushed when he was a boy, gave him considerable trouble. But, when he was supposed to have his nose operated upon, he was sent on a course. Consequently he still suffers from it. Apparently, while in 3rd Bn., a specialist had recommended an operation, but due to the course he missed it. He had been cooking for a year in 3rd Bn., without Trades Pay. He was proceeding on course, after a year of cooking (6 months of which he cooked for officers, and 6 for Sgts) in order to draw Trades Pay. He did not want to go because he knew he would most likely not get back to 3 Bn., which he badly wanted to. What worried him was the fact that his leg, after standing on it all day, bothered him considerably and he could get nothing done about it. However, he proceeded on Cooks Course, and came into C.R.U. where he was recommended for reboard. This did not materialize and having been handled in just the same desultory way several times before, he finally decided that attention might be drawn to his case. As I could find no particular facts to the case in the documents available here, I had him examined by specialists for both his nose and leg, and at the moment, he is undergoing treatment for his nose, and Xrays on his leg are being studied. It is a pity that such misunderstanding should prompt such an action. But his continued failure to obtain any treatment, after having served for a year drawing no trades pay, seemed rather poor treatment to him, and he took his own way out. It is up to you to decide how dearly he should pay for his foolish, if provoked and aggravated, mistake.

Lt. Acting Major Wilfred Archie Allen Roberts

He served his country from the beginning of the war to the end of the war. He was a very good soldier in action. On June 9th he was recommended by the adjutant of the 42nd Nova Scotia Regt. to be mentioned in despatches. He was tried this in the presence of Major Kennedy and Lt. Major Bishop both of the 42nd Nova Scotia Regt. Also he was wounded on 2 occasions while in action and was wounded to a hospital in England.

As has been testified by Sgt Roberts R.J. his record has been a good soldier while he served with his unit.

Unfortunately Maj. Kinnear of the 42nd Nova Scotia Regt is not available as a character witness in this case except the record we enjoin that he give evidence in this case.

E-3 MM/G

The record is very desirous of return to his unit in France and if I may say so, sir, I am sure that this man who has distinguished himself before should be given the opportunity to return to action. He has proven that a credit and help to his comrades when it is most needed

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED
(UNDER OATH)

On the evening of 6 Jun this year I was recommended, Sir, by the Adjt of the North NZ Highrs to be mentioned in despatches for a deed which I did that day and Maj Kennedy came over and congratulated me and said he was glad I had not let him down. Prior to going A/L I was in hospital after coming back from France where I was wounded twice.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(8).

CHARACTER EVIDENCE

F.Sgt/S/SGT ALLEN, RJ, 4 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states

I've known the accused since he came to me in Jun 44 and he was with me in my tp until a week from D-Day. During the time he was with me I would say he was a very good soldier, attended all parades promptly and did everything he was told to do and never was A/L. I wasn't with him in France but I've heard reports on him that he was doing a good job there.
