Statement in Defence of A67800 Pte. Robert Wilfred. - (Plea for Mitigation)

To Whomsoever May Concern:

I, A67800 Pte. Wilfred Robert, absented myself without leave from Camp #70, on May 21st, 1943, for a period of 90 days, 15 hrs, 15 minutes, and I hereby give the following reason for my action:

On April 29, 1941, I met in Sarnia, Ontario, the girl who is now my wife, and we soon became very fond of each other. On Sept. 3, 1941 we were married at St. Christ Parsonage and looked forward to a long life of happiness, because we were deeply in love and that love has grown until to-day we are separated, our love is even stronger than ever.

On the night of Sept. 3, 1941, we attempted to practice relations, but we could not because Florence was hurt very badly - a circumstance of which I was completely ignorant. She about which I was completely informed by sought medical advice and finds out from a Dr. Gray of Sarnia that my wife had at some previous date suffered an injury to that part of the body which made sexual relationship impossible. The question is incurable, if not entirely impossible. I could get no information from Florence at great length, but could get no information

However, on October 10, 1941, we were successful, and through that relationship my wife became pregnant. Previous to that date, I did not actually consummate relations with Florence since that date.

nor Page 2 sheet

During the period of pregnancy, my wife was attended by Dr. Harry Linking, one of his times Ontario, where my wife went to reside with my Mother & father, as I was in the Army.

On July 13, 1942 Florence gave birth to a boy in the Victoria Memorial Hospital, but she will carry the terrible memory of that experience as long as she lives, and my son, Philip, is marked for life with a scar on the side of his head.

For weeks after, Florence suffered terribly and she often expressed the wish that she could die, rather than live and endure constant pain. Dr. Livingstone warned me that if we ever again attempted intercourse, that Florence would positively not survive the ordeal. Finally, after I pleaded with Florence to tell me about the injury she had received she told me the following story.

My wife, formerly Miss Florence Rudolph of Ioco, B.C. was born at Blackpool, England on Dec. 13, 1914. In 1916, she, accompanied by her parents came to Canada and moved to Ioco, B.C. where her father obtained work with the Imperial Oil Co. Ltd.

In June, 1934, at the age of 19, Florence and her Mother returned to England for a visit with relatives. In July, the same year, she met a man named Gilbert Mitchell, a distant cousin who was 24 years of age. They became engaged, with the understanding that Mitchell would come to Canada and there they were to be married, for a reason that Florence did not make quite clear to me, the engagement was broken in November 1934, and Florence and her Mother returned to Canada in December, the same year.

3/ From that time, until Florence moved from British Columbia, to Ontario in 1941, her mother was very strict, never allowing her to have any boy friends, or to go anywhere without her consent (or in some cases without being accompanied). Florence grew tired of this strict supervision and in March 1941, came to Sarnia, Ont. to live with a cousin, Mr Ross McAfee. She was then 26 years old.

Even though I love my wife very dearly, and believe in her, the one thing that stuck in my mind was the thought that she was hiding some part of her experience while in England in 1934, probably because she thought it was for my benefit. As time went on, I became firmly convinced that that terrible ordeal was caused by someone in England during her visit - probably Gallant Mitchell. When I arrived in England on March 18, 1943, I intended to find the cause of the trouble if possible. In the weeks that followed my arrival at No. 4 C.I.R.U., I suffered terribly mentally and locating Mitchell or some of his relations became an obsession until on May 21, I could stand it no longer. I even thought that my problem was too personal and fantastic to seek the help of someone in the Army who would probably help me — hence the absence without leave

4 I have travelled a good many miles, and visited many people by the name of Mitchell, until, when I visited a Mrs. Watson at Felling-on-Tyne, - Newcastle, I found out that Gilbert Mitchell was, as far as she knew, in the forces, somewhere abroad. (Mrs. Watson is an Aunt of my wife)

But I am now firmly convinced that the anguish my wife received was caused by Mitchell, and if I could only find that to be true, my wife could possibly be cured. - otherwise, (if I am lucky enough to go home again), I will be married to a girl who is injured for life, because she will never divulge the terrible secret to any living person - therefore the cause of her trouble will not be known.

I ask the Court to take into consideration the fact that I have been under a severe mental anxiety and it was only the love for my dear Wife and Son that prompted me to such an action against the regulations of the Army.

Gentlemen, I like the Army, and nobody is more proud to wear the Canadian uniform than I am, and all I ask is that the Court will grant me leniency, in view of the Plea for Mitigation.

In the Case of
A67800 - Pte ROBERTS, W.A.A:

On 15 Jan 43, this man was promoted from Cpl to Pte. Five week later he was made a Sgt. That in itself is proof of this man's ability as a soldier.

As has already been explained by the accused, in his plea, his reasons for going absent were purely personal and it can be quite easily seen from his remarks that his mind was completely upset at the time of his going absent. We was suffering from a form of mental anxiety which was driving him crazy. We could, at the time of his going absent, see no alternative but to go and find out the circumstances surrounding his wife's illness.

This man has absolutely no grievances against the army. On the contrary he is a natural soldier. On the strength of the foregoing remarks, both by the accused, and myself, I ask the Court to give very lightly on the accused, when deciding on ~~their~~ his sentence, and by so doing keep the accused from becoming bitter against the army.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

TRIAL OF

A.67800 Pte ROBERTS WAA -------- 1 C.C.R.W.

The accused sworn, states:-

I have just two points I would like to add to the plea in mitigation. The first is this: I ask not for a light sentence, I ask for my freedom because I intend as soon as I get my freedom to clear my name through Colonel Forbes for my wife and family in Canada.
The other reason is this if I am given a term of detention after being provoked to the extent that I couldn't stand the insults any longer from men who were my former buddies. I was subject to direct and indirect insults at the Reception depot and from boys I reallyknew as good friends. If I go or undergo a period of detention now it will only make my disgrace worse and it won't be very pleasant here if they knew I went AWL after being accused of being an S.I.W. which I am not. I was found Not Guilty but the boys found it very hard to take it from there. I am prepared to go home on repat but I want Colonel Forbes to send a written statement and I would like to have my name cleared before I go home. What I want to do is to get Col. Forbes to sign a letter that I was not guilty even though they found me guilty of negligence and to send it back to my people before I arrive home, and I think he would do it. A period of detention here under the staff if they knew about this is just going to make the mental strain that much harder. I have been suffering with this for over a year. They refuse to believe that I was not an S.I.W. I would like a fine if possible sir.

Plea of Mitigation in the Case of A-67800 " Pte Roberts A.W.

This soldier came overseas as a Sgt in March 1943, and at that time was a very settled man with a wife and one son. While on the continent he received a wound in the foot, and was evacuated from his unit the 48th Nova Scotia Regt Highlanders. When charged with S.I.W. he was found not guilty, but the fact that the charge sheet had been known about the men in his unit he settled him as a soldier by talking of it.

Since then his wife and friends at home have heard of this talk of S.I.W. which is untrue to the fact that he was not found guilty. Knowing of this, and how they felt about it he has been under a mental strain to the extent he went absent to be away from accusers.

Since Pte Roberts has been awaiting 87 days for trial, he has received letters continually from his wife, she too has become grieved by the talk and knowing he is awaiting trial is cracking under the mental strain. It is very certain that she will be highly effected by the decision made on this soldier for his future, as she has been looking forward to seeing him soon.

This soldiers record up until the time of his wound was very satisfactory. His one ambition now is to get into a position to prove to his wife and parents that he did not commit a S.I.W. but that what they have heard is untrue. And to get back to his wife as soon as possible before it is too late and her life is effected also.

I wish to ask the court to be lenient with Pte Roberts and therefore make it possible that when he eventually returns to Canada, that his home will be the way he left it, and holding the respect of his friends by carrying on where he left off. As it is now he has the task of clearing his name, which talk ruined. A fine in pay would mean quite a hinderance to him but would do his character no damage

I am always thinking of you dear

Portsmouth Hosp
Nov 7. 18

Received your letter of Oct 28 yesterday. Hope by now you are back in camp and have received some of my mail, you certainly should. Know you worry dear but see it's help it. Sent a letter, registered airmail on Monday hoping and praying you got it before long, I'd like to have sent a cable but I just haven't got the money to do so. Not sure so pretty short these days, my check won't back to me yet, and though I hated the idea of going back to Nurse's this Monday 300 miles that extra no matter how small. I shouldn't be writing tonight I am in a terrible mood, I am having quite a time keeping my eyes dry enough to see to write. I have an awful feeling inside, I am fighting against it so hard but somehow it fails so hard, I am bound to break if you don't come to me soon. I felt so sick when I got your letter saying you were still in Hospital, delaying your leave, I Hope and pray now if you are back in camp they won't punish you. Your regiment starts moving in just two days, I shall go out of my mind if you aren't allowed to come with them, they couldn't be so cruel really. Every night I have prayed so earnestly that your letters with them, I don't know what I'll do if God doesn't answer my prayers this time. Each night this week I've had a terrible time trying to sleep, when I do it is fitful and you are in front of me always, I've wakened several times calling your name. Even if you aren't getting mail my thoughts waves should reach you, my tightness have been pleading, begging for you to come to me before it is too late.

If by any luck are you kept in bed if you aren't sick, that doesn't help your mood any not being able to do anything, and you not getting mail, of course I have addressed any letters to the Hospital, maybe you'll get a stack at camp. I feel my efforts are for nothing when you aren't getting them, but I am answering every letter I get and tried every way of sending them. I have ever Brides haven't any right to complain but they aren't thinking of our side of the I have heard some of them who have been here are wishing they were back in England, people aren't catering to them, handing them everything on a silver platter as they expected the Canadians would.

It's have had some snow, but it melted almost as soon as it fell. The last two days it has been so warm, too warm for the time of year, they have had some snow west of here, so I guess we can expect almost anything now. I don't mind the snow it is the fingers or high wind that gets me down. I haven't put on the woollies yet, we hardly know how to dress, first it is cold then warm. All the kids are looking for snow now for it brought some on a jar the last we had he wanted to stay in the house. He got out in a nice big puddle today. She let him go many times he may walk on it but not to splash even if his new rubber boots are lighter. I looked out of the window several times and he was going very well but the last time another boy had come along, he started

D 136750 A/SSM Artom U.S. C Sqn.

27 Edwards Sgt having been duly sworn states:-

29 rounds at 1115 hours I was I/C accused escort and ~~was~~ remained at H.Q. I dismounted from front of truck and went to rear of truck. The 2 escorts got out followed by Pte Roberts the accused and Sgt Examiner. I noticed the expression on Pte Roberts face and thought something was going to happen.

Immediately Sgt Examiner got out of truck Pte Roberts turned towards him. I moved up and seized Pte Roberts arm. He became violent and swore at Sgt Examiner I ordered one of the escorts to seize his other arm and help me take him to the block. On entering the block he became quiet and no more was said. That is all.

I am unable to repeat ~~exact~~ actual words used by Pte Roberts towards Sgt Examiner.

X- examination.

I did not hear unparliamentary language used by accused towards Examiner on 28 rounds.

I have noticed friction between Sgt Examiner and Pte Roberts-

Sgt Examiner acted at one time as Pte Roberts could be removed from the mess.

I personally objected to Mrs Vosselman being around the mess - ordered some of the other Pte's. Pte's McInnes & Jones used to be good friends – that relationship has deteriorated. Pte McInnes has become alienated from his fellow Pte's recently.

By the Court –

Pte McInnes was wearing shirt sans collar & tunic & trousers in the parade.

(R.P. 833 emphasis added)

Second witness for the Prosecution

13 41669 Pte McInnes Br. Bn. 27 Can Armd Regt. having been duly sworn deposes, – 28 Nov 45 I was sitting in Pte's mess in C. Sqn with miss ann Voorhees – who is a friend of mine. At approx. 8.45 P.m. the front door of the mess was opened. I went into hallway to investigate. There I found Pte. Roberts the accused. I asked him what he was doing there. He replied he was there to see his friend Pte Bradshaw. I told him that the mess was out of bounds so would he mind getting out. Pte. Bradshaw is one of waiters in Pte's mess. Pte Roberts was not to be employed in Pte's mess but was not on 28 Nov 45. Pte Roberts said when Pte waiter tells me that this place is out of bounds to me. That is when I will get out. I replied that it was a Pte's mess and out of bounds to Pte's so get out. At that I turned and went back into the sitting room and sat down. In a few minutes who the door by the Defendant was opened by Mrs. Roberts who looked all around. He was not about to leave when I said - this is going a little bit too far. I told you a minute ago that this was the Defendants and not 1/2 hours now get out. At this he became quite enraged - flung open the door and stepped inside. and said. "now look here - you act to me good ever walking down a ditch. I have taken enough of this from you and I am not going to take any more." At this he stepped forward and struck me with his hand on the shoulder, knocking me back about 2 ft. At this I repeated - I have told you before that this is a Defendants house and out 1/2 hours to Myers - now get out.

At this he threw down the cushion he had flung over his shoulder and knocked me half way across the room with both hands this time - his open hands hitting me on each shoulder. He followed me into the other room. We had a greater conversation there. He then left the house. We were both sober. The accused assaulted employed me the Defendants house about 1 day before this incident.

X - examination -
I have had a minor row with accused on a former occasion.
Miss Vosseler & I were sitting Defendants.
Mrs Bradshaw entered the room and asked us if we would like a cup of coffee.

Eve

We accepted and went into the Kitchen to have a cup of coffee.
There was quite a buzz of swearing etc.
I was swearing, Pte. Hobbs was swearing and PTs Carr. I decided to call a halt to the swearing. Pte Robertson replied he was speaking to his friend, would speak as he wished and if I didn't like it there was the door. I did no more. We left the Kitchen.
Accused always did what I asked him to do.
He was under me in my troop.
I had been drinking but 2½ hours ago.
I know that other Troops come to visit friends in Pte's mess.
Miss Vossler is a friend of mine none other than myself have been talking her out.
I slept upstairs in Pte's mess & then
I was suddenly aroused - walking out

At taking of original summary I didn't

I didn't know you could bring in civilians.
Miss Vossler did nothing. She was drinking but knowing she may have been drinking.
Miss Vossler and I had million miss at 6.30
She left the room on our occasion.

Prd.

She left to her after the incident.
I was aware that maj did not accompany by me bringing my girlfriend to the mess but he did I would bring her in for a little while.
I did not place the accused under arrest immediately.
I believe I did say - the mess was out of bounds to him. I meant to say the getting - room - not my room on the Summary.
My report of conversation was word for word may vary between Summary and evidence I gave today - if they may vary a bit as I find it difficult to recall exactly.
By the Court -
I was wearing my chevrons of rank at time
I arrested him Sgts. mess.

Prosecution must Prove

1- Language itself was insubordinate

2- circumstances were insubordinate

A- EVIDENCE WORDS -- No specific words in the charge have been corroborated except the words "son of a bitch". Common coarse words.

2- Are these words in se insubordinate? 3- Does Miss Voster know what insubordinate language is?

EVIDENCE CIRCUMSTANCES -- (1) Skinner did not like Roberts (2) he had placed himself on a Pte's level & must accept the consequences. (3) Roberts was in the Mess as a servant until C Sqn Mess was regimented and he was surplus. (4) Roberts was to leave 2nd time and yet it was Skinner who prolonged the encounter and gave the incident its birth.

CREDIBILITY -- 1- Skinner subject of abuse & he initiated the charge.

2- Skinner call in Miss V as evidence

3- She is an intimate friend of his and on his side. SSM did not approve of Miss V's evidence

4- Miss V is not familiar with language.

PERSECUTION Skinner persecuted Roberts because

1 He promised Roberts he would regret things
2 He picked Roberts out of a group and told him the mess was out of Bounds TO HIM. He never threw anyone else out.
3 He did not place Roberts under arrest until later.
4 He only called a civ witness when he realized that in a word-against-word statement he would not convict the accused

The defense admits that the accused is not blameless and states that he was HUMAN and was provoked under circumstances created by skinner.

Miss Mary Proctor, Otaniparkra. S
Is a nurse having been duly sworn states,
On Nov 45 I was in Sgt Mess at the time.
Pte. Roberts was in conversation with Bradshaw. Sgt. Skinner was sitting there with his girlfriend. I was there too.
He had a conversation with his girl friend and then he was swearing at large.
Pte. Roberts was speaking to Bradshaw who was writing a letter. And then Roberts was swearing. Sgt Skinner began to get mad and he ordered him to stop swearing. Roberts got irate with anger. He said if you don't like to hear it there is the door. That is all. Sgt Skinner left the Mess. His girl friend told Skinner that she didn't like his swearing and Skinner said not mine I mean if it was your children.
X. examined by Mr. Roberts I am known
I am a friend of Pte. Roberts I met him him since October. I met him in Mess here. I did not speak out with him at Gilt. I didn't like the swearing either.

Second Witness for the defence.

B148017 Pte. Bradshaw J. F. 27 CAR, C Sqn
having been duly sworn states;—
One time Sgt Skinner went on parade with duffles should by open they had been opened and left bolt behind. He also talked to forehead when he was firing rifle at Hoyos. Pvt. Roberts kidded him about this after the game of charade. Sgt Atkinson got angry. I remember we could hear Atkinson shouting. Sgt Atkinson and Pvt. Roberts got in an argument. Sgt told Roberts he would be sorry for it some day. Atkinson + Roberts have not got on well for last 4 or 5 mos.

Pvt Roberts note - Pvt Roberts placed on his uniform from the mess and taken back by me.

X- examination.

We use any entrance to the mess bldg.

We, the staff sleep in Kitchen unless we have occasion to go into mess.

I'd admit that Sgt Atkinson's and Pvt Roberts language in Kitchen was not proper to use around women.

There was bad feeling between them.

There has not always been peace and harmony between these two.

By the Court —

Pvt. Roberts had his uniform in the mess — that is all I know.

I recall when Sgt Atkinson struck a man ago last Aug or Sept back in France.

I think he was a corporal then.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED B-63163 TPR ROBERTS W T E

"I am B-63163 Tpr Roberts W T E 2/ Cdn Armd Regt. On the night of 28 Nov 45 , a Wednesday, at about 2030 hrs I had just come out of the movies. I went to the Sgts Mess of C Squadron to get my uniform which I had left with Trooper Bradshaw to dry because it had got all wet on Monday. Trooper Bradshaw is in charge of the canteen in the Sergeants Mess and I had worked with him when I was employed in the Sergeants Mess in Doetichem. I opened the door and went down the hall past the sitting room door which was closed. I went towards the kitchen door to see if Trooper Bradshaw was there. When I got as far as the kitchen door Sgt Skinner put his head out of the sitting room door and informed me that the place was out of bounds to me and ordered me out. He spoke in what I felt was a very sarcastic tone of voice. Because I had had specific permission to enter the mess, given to me by SSM Anton I turned and questioned Sgt Skinner's authority. He indicated that he had sufficient authority to order me out and again ordered me out. As I had just explained to him that I had the SSM's permission to visit my friends in the Mess I went into the kitchen and left Sgt Skinner. Tpr Bradshaw was in the kitchen and I arranged with him to go upstairs to his room in order to get my uniform. I went upstairs , got my uniform and came down. I looked in the kitchen and saw Bradshaw again to whom I bid goodnight. I went down the hall toward the front door intending to go out and press my uniform in my billet. I had my uniform on a coathanger slung over my right shoulder and held with my right hand. I had my beret in my left hand because I was in the Sgts Mess . As I passed the sitting room door I decided to look into the sitting room to see if the SSM was there to confirm for me that fact that I had permission to be in the Sgts Mess. I Opened the door and looked in,I merely poked my head around the door. I saw Sgt Skinner sitting opposite the door behind a table. Before I had time to speak or look around he spoke. He indicated that things had gone far enough and ordered me to get out. I started to withdraw my head from the open doorway and leave. He ordered me to return. As my hands were full I pushed the door right open with my foot and walked right into the room. He stood up and came to meet me and we stood about arms length apart near the centre of the room. He spoke angrily and as I was irritated by this time I replied in an emphatic manner to which I have become accustomed in the army. He indicated that I would regret my words and for some reason he grabbed my beret with his right hand. I yanked at my beret three times to free it but he would not let go. Instinctively I took a step toward him to give a better yank . He let go and backed away across the room. I also backed up about three feet. I spoke again to him because by this time he had provoked me to anger and he replied to me in an angry tone. I then left the room and shut the door behind me. I did not see Sgt Skinner again until the next day. At no time on that day the 28 Nov 45 did I strike Sgt Skinner nor did I have any intention of striking him or of offering violence. When I spoke to him I had no intention of being insubordinate because I knew I had permission to be in the sgts mess, the language I used is common talk in the army where I learned it . I fist began to work in the Sgts Mess in Doetinchem June 45 and was there until the end of October 45, I have always been in trouble with Sgt. Skinner since one day in July he got angry when I laughed at him for going on parade with the bolt out of his rifle and giving a salute to his forehead when he had his rifle at the slope. Tpr Bradshaw and Tpr Guthro were there at the time. Since then I have had several disagreements with him. In September there was a Sqn dance at Doetinchem and Sgt. Skinner's girl friend came into a room in the Sgts Mess where I was combing my hair alone. A few minutes later Sgt. Skinner looked into the room and ordered her to go with him and he looked peeved.

In August I w as going to Amsterdam with my girl friend who is a friend of Sgt. Skinner's girl friend. We went to visit Sgt. Skinner's girl friend's husband. Sgt. Skinner's girl friend afterwards wanted to know if I liked her husband . I gave her to understand that I liked her husband and that she was foolish to leave her husband and child. This may have made Sgt. Skinner resentful.

On the 18th November 1945 I was sitting writing letters in the kitchen of C Sqn Sgts' mess. Tpr Bradshaw was also there and another civilian girl named Miss Miep Fronk of Oranjestraat 5 BAARN. Sgt Skinner and his girl friend came in and sat down. He was swearing in the course of his conversation and his girl friend resented it. He offered to pay her 10 guilders for every time her swore. We all laughed as though it were a joke. A few minutes later while I was talking to Bradshaw and I also began to swear and Sgt Skinner ordered me to stop. As I had taken my leave from him I spoke to him and indicated the door if he did not like it. Pte Karr the cook came in at that moment and also swore about something. I began to laugh at the situation and Sgt Skinner banged at the table with his hands, became exasprated and left. Because of these and other experiences I believe that Sgt. Skinner does not like me and as a natural reaction I do not like him.

E&D.

The defense submits that a prima facie case has not been established on the second charge. In order to prove the second charge it is incumbent upon the prosecution to prove conclusively and with no shadow of doubt that insubordinate language was used. Proof of which may be drawn from the evidence of reliable, unprejudiced eyewitnesses. And it must also be shown that either the words themselves were insubordinate or that the circumstances under which they were used were insubordinate.

The prosecution has failed to prove this. A net of doubtful, prejudiced and unreliable evidence has been presented which proves nothing other than that there was always bad feeling between Tpr Roberts and Sgt Skinner.

Let us take the evidence of Sgt Skinner and Miss Voster. It is submitted that both are unreliable witnesses and their credulity doubtful. The first because he has been prejudiced against the accused for some time, the second because she has been on friendly and perhaps even intimate terms with Skinner for a period of time and is not likely to give evidence out-of-favour to a charge which has been initiated by her close friend Sgt Skinner. Further to this, will the Court consider the fact that we have in Miss Voster a civilian, a foreign civilian giving evidence as to what constitutes military insubordination.

Let us take the evidence itself. Was insubordinate language used? The defense submits that In Themselves the words which are claimed to have been used are NOT insubordinate, they are words which every one of us has heard used many times in the army and used by people who suffered much less annoyance than the accused and who were considered to be a lot more cultured than he. Again, the circumstances under which the words were used were not insubordinate because the accused KNEW he had permission to be in the sergeants mess and therefore he could not have had any INTENTION of being insubordinate. They are the words of a soldier accustomed to coarse language from all sides.

The entire case of the prosecution has an element of doubt and in fact may as well indicate that the accused was provoked to anger by this sergeant. Therefore no prima facie case has been proven and the defense submits that the charge be dismissed against Tpr Roberts.

Summary of evidence in the case of B-63163 Tpr Walter Thomas Edwin Roberts, 27 Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus R) Canadian Army Overseas, charged with Absence without leave, and striking and using insubordinate language to a superior Officer.

The Commanding Officer directs the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS D-136750 A/S.S.M. Anton, L.S. SSM "C" Sqn, 27 Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus R) being duly sworn states:

I D-136750 A/SSM Anton L.S. of "C" Sqn 27 Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus R), on forming up "C" Sqn parade at 1330A hrs on the 27th Nov 1945, noticed that Tpr Roberts was absent from parade. I had B-114819 Sgt Jones J.G., enquire as to his whereabouts. On failing to find him, I assumed that he was A.W.C.L. I also told the Orderly Room runner, B-147680 Tpr Harling H.S. that if he saw Tpr Roberts, to have him report to me. When I formed up the parade at 0830A hrs on 28th Nov 45, Tpr Roberts was still absent from roll call and also from 1330A hrs parade of the 28th Nov 45. At about 1600A hrs on the 28th Nov 45, D-141098 Cpl Hull J., the Orderly Room clerk informed me that Tpr Roberts had reported to the Orderly Room at 1545A hrs. At 2230A hrs that evening I saw Tpr Roberts and told him he was on charge.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS B-41669 Sgt Skinner G.G. 27 Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus R) being duly sworn states:

I, B-41669 Sgt Skinner G.G. of "C" Sqn 27 Cdn Armd Regt (Sher Fus R) was sitting in the Sgt's Mess on the night of the 28th Nov 45 when the front door was opened and I went to the hall way to see who it was. There I found Tpr Roberts. I questioned him as to what he was doing here and he replied that he was here to see his friend B-148077 Tpr Bradshaw J.F. I informed him that this being the Sgt's Mess it was out of bounds to him so would he mind getting out. He replied, "when the SSM tells me that this place is out of bounds to me that is when I'll get out". I replied that I was a Sgt and this is a Sgt's Mess and that is authority enough - now get out. At that I turned and went back into my room and sat down. In a very few minutes the door of my room was opened by Tpr Roberts who looked all around the place. I said, "now what do you want?" He appeared about to leave and I said, "I told you before that this is a Sgt's Mess and is out of bounds to you. Now get out". At this he flung open the door, entered the room and replied, "now look here, you little no good cock-sucking son of a bitch, I have taken enough shit from you and I am not going to take any fucking more. I'll kill you, you no good bastard." At this I was struck on the left shoulder and knocked back about two feet. I repeated what I had said before that this was still a Sgt's Mess, you are a Trooper, now get out. At this he threw down some clothes he had in his hand and knocked me halfway across the room. I enquired of him, "do you realize what you have done?" His reply was, "I don't give a fuck." A few minutes of quieter conversation, then Tpr Roberts left the mess.

Cross examination by the accused.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

The accused is 21 years of age. He is unmarried. He has been to Public School as far as Grade 8 in Ontario. His father, a Great War Veteran, died in 1932 and Roberts has been raised by his widowed mother along with 3 other children . His mother raised this family on an allowance of $45 per month and whatever additional money Roberts could make as a delivery boy at a store. One child ,Robert's sister, died in 1936 of a brain tumor caused through infection. At present Roberts younger brother,16,is attending school in Toronto. His sister ,16, is working at a menial job in the same city. Roberts contributes to the support of his mother from a voluntary assignment of pay and her financial straits have warranted the Dependents Allowance board giving her an additional $35. per month. Immediately prior to enlistment Roberts wasearning as much as $175. per month at Builders and Flooring Coy in Toronto. This all indicates that his upbringing although adequate has not always been easy and certainly never free from hard work and worry.

Roberts joined the army in 1942 at the age of 18,trained at Bradford,Camp Borden Canada, and came to the United Kingdom in June 43. He was posted to the Grey and Simcoe Foresters and when they were broken up he was sent to #2 CACRU. If any members of the Court can recall the training and administration of #2 CACRU at that time you will all realize why it was that Roberts was pegged about five times on petty offences under AA Sec 40. His record shows that he was punished several times for being in bed after reveille, which will indicate to anyone who has gone through #2 CACRU that he must have been a common-sense soldier who, unfortunately, got caught.

He finally came to this unit as a Driver I/C Tank and on the 15 June 44 was posted to C Sqn in Normandy France. He fought with C Sqn in the battles of Buron,LaPtlie,Chateau de Franqueville,the Assault on Caen,the Crossing of the Orne,the capture of Fleury sur Orne and Ifs. During an attack on St Andre sur Orne his tank was knocked out and he was wounded by mortar fire after he had bailed out. He was evacuated to UK and received a low category because of deafness. There he remained until March or April 45. Finally he rejoined the regiment at Toldijk Holland in May 45 and has been with us since that time. His record in battle and on active service is good. His record of crimes has been negligible. He has never been in any serious trouble with any other NCO in the regiment until now. He has a repat score of 86 points and is scheduled to return to Canada with this unit by what is hoped the end of January 46.

Even his awl charge is due to the fact that he resented the way he was ordered to report on a certain parade by this same NCO but nevertheless he does not attempt to deny that he was wrong in deliberately going away without permission. It would seem that this trooper has acted this way because he has been under stress for some time past and finally could not contain himself any longer because he felt that he had reached the limit of a normal man's endurance. If he receives a dire punishment he will ~~respectfully~~ consider that the army is not taking his home and his past record into consideration . I therefore ask ~~xxx~~ the Court to be lenient with this man who has been Court Martialled on a charge ~~xiii~~ under which his Commanding Officer had not the powers to award punishment.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea in mitigation of sentence:

Sir, I was disappointed in being sent out to a Field Unit instead of abroad. Arrived 23 Dec 43. Asked for a pass on 25 Dec 43, overnight. I was drinking and did not return within the limit of the pass. I was drinking off and on and was afraid of the consequences on returning, and did not return until 1500 hrs, 11 Jan 44.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

"I am CSM of the 30 Can Fd Coy, of which Pte. Robertshaw is a member. At approx. 1400 hrs on 25 DEC 43 I issued a pass to B39563 Pte. Robertshaw, L.E. The pass was signed by Lt. H.C. Lane of this Unit and terminated at 0900 hrs on 26 DEC 43. I checked the kitchen where Robertshaw was to report at 0900 hrs on 26 DEC 43 and he was not there. I left orders with the NCO i/c guard to have Robertshaw report to me as soon as he returned to camp. He returned and reported to me at 1500 hrs on 11 JAN 44. At that time I questioned him re his absence, to which he replied, he had been drunk. I placed him under close arrest at approx. 1500 hrs 11 JAN 44 and informed the Adjutant of this action immediately. I have personally made a daily inspection of the Unit lines during the time Robertshaw was alleged to have been AWL and he has not been in the lines."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was warned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

A. I don't care to answer that, Sir.

Pleas in Mitigation Gnr. Robertson, D.R.

The accused was born in Tabusintac, N.B., the son of a poor laborer. He went to school till the age of 14 and then he went out & worked for 2 years as a sawyer in a lumber camp. He earned $50 per month, $20 of which he sent home to help support his family. In June 1941, one month after his 16th birthday, he enlisted for active service.

He did his basic training and 2 months advanced training at Petawawa and then volunteered for an overseas draft. He came to England in Nov. 41 with the 7 LAA Regt. But in July 42 he was sent from the Regiment to 3 CARU because they had discovered somehow that he was underage. In Sept. 43 he was sent out to the 1st LAA Regt. and in Oct. 43 he landed with them in Sicily. He stayed with the Regt. till March 44 when he developed a case of jaundice and was sent to the hospital. He stayed in the hospital till about May and again they discovered that he was underage and he was sent to X-8. By Aug. 44 he was back in 2 CARU. He immediately went before the SPO & demanded to be sent to the Infantry, but this was not done. At the time the accused felt that he was better suited for the Infantry & could do a more important job than. With the 7 LAA he had been a DR which job he had liked. But with the 1st LAA he had been merely an ammunition numbe & that made him feel very insignificant. He didn't like the job & he developed a distaste for the Artillery generally. It wasn't suited to his nature + temperament.

My

Since he has been in 2 CARU he has been made to take foot drill + rifle drill + TOET's. Doing this work after 3½ years of soldiering aggravates the accused's condition of boredom + restlessness. He tries to stick it for awhile + then finds it unpossible. That is why he has been going AWL from time to time.

The truth is that this soldier, at an immature age has shouldered a greater burden than his country expected of him. He took on this burden + responsibility before he was psychologically prepared for it. He is only 19 years old now + has already soldiered 3½ years + seen action. Can we blame him then, for having acted at times in a slightly irresponsible manner? I submit, sir that it is our duty to appreciate the feelings of an immature person under the impact of a strenuous life, + we must not forget that this person has already made a contribution to given greater service than his country asked of him. To say he is browned off is to put it crudely. He has reached a state where he finds it difficult to continue soldiering. I suggest, sir that the accused is suffering from mental fatigue now that he has been placed in the confines of a holding unit + made to do work which seems to him, at this stage of the game, a phase waste of time. I respectfully submit that this case be judged + determined from this point of view.

Court Martial of Pte Robertson of 1 Can. Admin Troops Coy.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence.

The prisoner has pled guilty to the two charges but I would submit that more than ordinary consideration be given to his case. It is admitted that most AWL cases receive little consideration inasmuch as those against whom proceedings are taken for this crime are prevented to indulge in it by motives well known to us all and quite inexcusable. Concerning Robertson none of the familiar motives can be discerned. We does not know why he gave AWL but has stated to me that when he does commit this offence he is in a state of mental depression. I have had various conversations with him and it is my conviction that he is sincere and I might inform the court that on the 24 Sept he underwent an examination by an army psychiatrist. Robertson is 43 years old and at an age when it is not easy for a man to orient himself to army life or to mix with young men very much his junior in years. On joining the army a middle aged man might expect because of his considerable experience, some recognition and promotion. When he discovers that a military life is essentially a young mans game (at least serving in the ranks) and that young men are likely to achieve promotion more quickly than he then his reaction might very well be one of the utmost disappointment leading to a sense of inferiority and thus to frustration. This, I am sure, has been Robertson's experience. And the cause of his many offences is an inherent if unhealthy sense of his own inferiority which I submit is not so reprehensible a cause as the usual ones i.e. women. In fact I do think that it does say something in Robertson's favour when he will take his situation in the army seriously enough to become humble.

Therefore I would plead with the court to treat this case as one out of the ordinary and to consider it in the light of the foregoing remarks.

Punishment must not be vindictive but corrective, and in sentencing a man it must not be forgotten that the serving of his sentence should deter the average soldier from further wrongdoing and result in his becoming a more reliable soldier. I am doubtful if this desirable result would be achieved if Robertson was sent to a detention camp. I would ask the Court to seriously consider the possibility of sending this man before a Rehabilitation Board.

STATEMENT ATTACHED

Dear Madame

Re Pte Robertson A224 R.C.A.S.C.
No 1 Transport Coy.

I am very sorry to feel obliged to report to you on this mans behaviour, but think that in view of the following you should draw your own conclusions in the interests of other lads.

His first appearance at my house was at 6.15 a.m. on Saturday morning smelling very strongly of Whiskey + not 'altogether' master of himself, + almost his first request was as to whether I had any spirits in the house - obviously the reply was 'no' (though this was incorrect) he declined an offer of breakfast but went to bed until 10 o'c when he arose, didn't trouble to wash, asked to be lent a £1 note as he had lost his money + wanted to telegraph for more, got it + went out.

Returning early in the afternoon fairly reeking of spirits he declined food + again went to bed. Later in the afternoon Mrs Agar prepared a bath for him which I believe he took, going out again immediately afterwards, returning again at 9 p.m. obviously "tipsy".

After some persuasion I managed to get him to have some supper after which off he went to bed.

During the night he explored the dining room for a glass + repairing to his room drank more beer which he had evidently brought in.

I called him on Sunday morning took him in some tea at about 9 o/c he stayed in bed until 10/30 then got up declining breakfast but wanted another 10/- until tomorrow" the request was not complied with, so out he went coming back after closing time still well "soused" was persuaded to eat then once again he went to his room to drink more.

He left the house at about 5 p.m & to the time of writing (10 p.m 30th) has been seen no more; whether he will come again remains to be seen.

We feel very very disappointed at our luck but feel that you have been misled as to his desirability but I am sure you will agree that it is galling to me to have my home regarded as merely a sort of hostel by a service man whom we had wanted to help & to whom to give a really nice holiday.

News & gossip travel if anything faster than lightning in Villages in Rural areas & talk is well on the go - this does not worry me in the least as far as I am concerned but the unfortunate part is that Robertson behaviour will probably have the effect of deterring others from proffering their hospitality on others, even though they may be all deserving, lest perchance they too get 'let down'

I do assure you that my observations are quite unbiassed for I cannot claim to be a teetotaler myself; I fully appreciate your kindly efforts on behalf of these men, but feel as you no doubt do that it is these few who spoil things for so many, that being so I think you should decline in future to do any more for this man.

Yours sincerely

W. Dyer

Chudleigh Knighton. Station. 'H' Division.

7th, September, 194 3.

Subject Absentee from Royal Canadian Army Service Copp; apprehended at 9p.m. 4/9/43 at The Square, Chudleigh.

Sir,

I beg to report that on Saturday the 4th, September, 1943, at 8-45p.m. I was on duty at Chudleigh Police Station, when I received information that a soldier with the word 'CANADA' on a tab attached near each shoulder seam of his tunic was walking about the town and it appeared that he had no idea of his whereabouts.

I at once proceeded to Fore Street, Chudleigh, where I made enquiries to ascertain if this man had been seen in licenced premises, etc, but without result. At 9p.m. I was in the Square when I saw a soldier dressed in Khaki battle dress, cross the street and walk towards the White Hart Hotel. It was dark and I was unable to see details of his uniform. I overtook him as he was about to enter the public bar and on turning my torch light onto him I saw that he had the word 'CANADA' at the top of each sleeve. I asked him for what reason he was in Chudleigh. He said:-"I'm on leave, I have my Pass here". I asked him to produce his Leave Pass and he then said:-"I was going to come along to you fellows after I had had a drink. I want to give myself up". I asked him for what reason and he stated he had been absent without leave from his unit since 31st, August, 1943.

I took him to Chudleigh Police Station where he produced his Army Identity Card with his photograph thereon and facimile of his signature and Pay Book, No. A, 1 particulars of which I noted and are as follows:-

IDENTITY CARD:-Name-Private No.A-294, John Lloyd ROBERTSON of No.1, Canadian Administrative Transport Company, A.C.A.S.C. Born 1904. Ht; 5'7". Brown hair-greying. Eyes blue. Scar right of chin.

I searched him and in his possession were the following articles:-Small electric hand torch, Comb, Pencil, Cash:-5½d, Book of Matches, Nail file, Handkerchief, 1-Note of Introduction from Knights of Columbus War Service recommending Pte John Lloyd Robertson on leave pass to Mrs. Ayres, 'Hazeldene' Bishopsteignton, Nr. Teignmouth.

I interrogated ROBERTSON and by his replies and the fact that he had nothing of any value in his possession, I was satisfied that he had not committed any crime. He stated that he had become depressed on the termination of his leave and that he had bought and drank a bottle of Methylated Spirit just to

Plea for Mitigation of Punishment

In mitigation of Punishment, I ask that the Court take into consideration the good conduct of accused during his army career to date. The accused is a young man of 20 years of age and not of the same stability of mind as a mature person when under action, should have due consideration given to this fact. The accused has seen approximately seven months of action in Italy, some of which was of the toughest nature.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

I am the administrator of "Algemeen

Gulden from Wallwijk to Oilberg to pay to another sickfund in Oilberg by which we are reinsured. On arrival at the office in Oilberg I saw my brief case which contained the money and papers was lost from the handle bar of my bicycle which I had been carrying it. I reported the loss and went back the part of the way I had come. Then I rode to Oilberg. As a result of information received there
I went to a civ army billet on the Sportlaan. There I saw Mr Hannes a civilian and a civilian policeman.
I reported my loss to Capt Rowlands who sent for civ. police. I had got the 30000 G. from the bank in Waalwijk.
and put it in brief case

Pte

I identify the brief case and the papers and documents in it and the £9000 Gt. as part of the property lost by me.

The notes now in the case EX 1 are part of the same notes I lost. I identify them by reason of the paper bands and writing thereon and my recollection of same.

I was informed that Klerk had lost 30000 Gt. and it had been found by Homes and turned into "B" Pl by a soldier. Enquiries revealed that gate guard was the accused. He was off duty and away. He had been on guard from 1230 - 1400 hrs that day. About 1600 hrs

He rctd to 'B' Pl and I interviewed him. He had been shopping and had purchased a few trinkets and toilet articles. He was searched and the following articles found which I now produce.

on 18 Jan 45 about 1.30 12 pm I was coming out of army Car Coy bldg. I saw this brief case beside road. Mr Homes picked it up. He mumbled something and went up to accused. I went back, Homes was holding out this case, indicating for me to take it. I takes case up to my room put it under pillow which was on floor at head of mattress. I then went for hair cut. When I came back I went to room and looked in brief case. Thats first time I was looked in it. On my way out of room I met Robertson accused. He said he was going down town [illegible]

By that time I told him there was money in brief case and I gave him a small package of 25 £. notes. Then I went down on duty. After supper I was coming up to my room and found an investigation. Lieut Johnson SIS searched my kit and found the brief case. I did not tell him how it got there. I was excited and nervous at that time. 5 or 10 mins later I picks up the papers which had been in brief case and went down to Lieut Johnston and gave myself up.

I went on guard from 1230 - 1400 hrs 18 Jan 45 about 1 - 115 pm Mr Homers came up to gate with dark leather bag. He started talking to me in Dutch which I did not understand. Just at that time a sch was coming out gate. I checked sch out. When I was finished Pte Thompson was talking to Homers. Homers gave Thompson the bag and he went upstairs with it. I went off duty at 1400 hrs. I went up to my room and came out in hall and met Thompson. He told me there was money in the bag and he gave me a package of 25 £ notes. He went on duty at that time. I went down town and done some shopping. I come back to camp about 4 pm and Pte Hergott told me that Johnston was looking for me. I had not realized what I had done at that time. I was frightened and wanted to give money to Hergott but he would not take it so I gave it to Duquette. I went up to Lieut Johnston and gave him a statement.

I have been with this unit for about 5 weeks & lately I have been doing gate duty, started yesterday, on guard in the day time. The other man who is on with me is H 58566 Pte Hergott, E.J. also of Car Coy. We take different shifts & today I was on duty at our gate at 1200 hrs till 1400 hrs. checking vehicles in and out of the gate. At about 1245 hrs a civilian came along, an old chap with a black coat & started talking in dutch. He had a bag, a dark leather case under his arm. [illegible]

A cook took the case from the civilian & brought it in through the gate about 10 minutes later he came back & said there was money in the bag.

When I was going at about 2 o'clock 1400 hrs, he took me up to his room, he saw me passing down the hall & called me in his room & took a case from the front of his bed & took a packet of 25 guilders notes out & gave them to me.

I went down town & did some shopping, bought a money wallet, tooth powder & a bottle of hair cream.

I bought a bottle of cognac for 11 guilders also the Evening Chronicle also a cigarette lighter.

I gave the bottle of cognac to Lad from 2 Corps & the rest of the evening & told him to keep it for me.

I led him going from one store to another by changing 25 guilder notes - that's why I had so much money on me.

I have read over the above statement & it is the truth. J W Robertson

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

DEFENDING OFFICER'S

PLEA OF MITIGATION

Sir:

The accused has pleaded Guilty but before the Court considers sentence there are two or three points I would like to make on behalf of the accused.

I. About the middle of November 1944 the accused began receiving letters from relatives in Canada regarding the behaviour of his wife in Canada. At the time she was living with another man. This plus the fact that the accused was in a foreign country with strange customs & different moral standards caused such mental strain as to change an efficient soldier (see MFM 6) to an irresponsible person.

II. The accused surrendered himself to the Provost. He was not apprehended.

III. The accused has had to wait over two months for trial through no fault of his own. This has meant two months of mental anguish, two months of confinement without trial. Surely the term "due process of law" cannot be applied to this undue period of suspense.

I ask Sir, that the Court sincerely consider these points when deliberating sentence.

Q. 1 - S/M Will you give the Court your number, rank and name?
A. 1 - P.5631 RQMS Weir, J., 2/13 Cdn Fd Regt RCA
Q. 2 - Now, will you tell the court please what you know about Pte Robertson?
A. 2 - Sirs, I am the RQMS of the 2/13 Cdn Fd Regt. Pte Robertson was a cook employed under my jurisdiction since the formation of CAOF. During that period of time the man has managed the kitchen for me and I have had no cause to chastise him or in no way has he caused me any trouble. The man has been exceptionally good as a cook, an exceptionally good manager and a good caterer. To the best of my knowledge this is the first crime he has had to CAOF.
Q. 3 - Has he conducted his duties with a responsible bearing?
A. 3 - Yes, sir, he was caterer in the Sergeants Mess

Q. 4 - S/M Will you give the court your number, rank and name please?
A. 4 - M.4100 BSM Richardson
Q. 5 - Now, will you tell the court what you know about Pte Robertson?
A. 5 - Well, Pte Robertson joined the Regiment on the 15 Aug and during that time I have had considerable contact with him carrying out my regimental duties and have always found him to be reliable, honest and efficient in his duties. He has never given me any trouble whatsoever during that time and I believe that it was through circumstances not under his control that he absented himself this time
Q. 6 - He has shown no qualities which would lead you to believe that he would go on such a stretch of a.w.o.l.?
A. 6 - No, sir, I have in the past twice authorized passes for him and he has always returned at the time stated

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. 7 - He was under your command for roughly one or one and half months since he came under your command?
A. 7 - Yes, sir and he was on leave to Holland and also the UK and he turned up when he was detailed to
Q. 8 - How long has he worked for you?
A. 8 - From the 15 Aug until he absented himself on 20 Sep sir
Q. 9 - S/M, you said that he had reasons for being a.w.o.l. by something to that effect. Can you give them to me?
A. 9 - Well, the prisoner has asked me not to divulge that, sir

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.93(2)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr. President and members of the court in pleading for some mitigation of the sentence of Pte Robertson I have this to say in his interests. The court has heard RQMS Weir and BSM Richardson testify as to the good qualities of the man and from my own investigation (I have not known him myself or come in contact with him in the past) but I have found out that he is an excellent worker and an excellent craftsman in his trade. There are several difficulties in connection with this case and I think you should know of them.

In the first place Pte Robertson has had no letter, telegram or communication from his wife in three years. He expects to return to Canada and try and pick up the threads of a broken marriage that had started to go to pieces when he left Canada. Also Robertson has seen a great deal of action in this War with very little respite. From a period six months before he went into action in Cicily he had no leave. He went through Italy up to Germany and in Holland had one privilege leave, one leave during that entire series of campaigns. These factors plus the fact that the man is worrying about his marriage are a bit too much for anybody which I think should be taken into account.

There is something further. During the seventy-two hour leave which Pte Robertson was granted in September he found himself in a position which would be found extremely difficult for any man with any honour. He went to Amsterdam and found that a very young person whom he had known and for whom he bears the highest regard was in trouble. When he got to Amsterdam he found that his friend was in greater or unusual trouble owing to complications. Robertson decided to stay and see his friend through. In doing that he fully realized all the time that he would be charged immediately he got back and was prepared to pay the penalty. His friend was in what I might say was a critical condition - in fact it was a case of life or death. He decided to stay and see his friend through for better or worse. He realized what he was doing and that he was doing wrong. Now, from the Army point of view he did the wrong thing. From a human standpoint I think he did something any man would do, perhaps not, but I think he did the honourable thing, the decent thing. I think he has qualities which are worthy of some consideration from this court.

At JEVER AIRPORT CAMP, GERMANY, on the 24 Sep 45, I was aware of the fact that Pte Robertson was going on a 72 hour pass the next day. I have been on duty daily in the Sgts' Mess Kitchen since the 24 Sep 45, and this morning is the first time I have seen Pte Robertson since that time."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

This pass was presented to Capt V.C. Morrison of the 2/22 Bty for signature. Capt Morrison was the senior officer available, as the balance of the Regiment was away on Operational Duty. He signed the pass, and it was given to Pte Robertson."

THIRD WITNESS(Cont'd)

Summing up Prosecution

I regret that during the insinuations of the defense it has been made to appear that Cpl Robertson had excuse for ignorance of Coy orders and also that the defense has confused the court as to the consent or authority for use of an m/c:

a) Cpl Robertson stated he could give consent but no permission

b) Cpl Robertson says he thought pte Currie was too poor a soldier as to come to him directly for the use of a m/c without authority.

Currie has stated his purpose was to use the bike for lunch or pleasure. Surely Cpl Robertson believe that was the type of trip his officer would authorize. The evidence shows that pte Currie had any authority from his officer for the use of the m/c

c) The defense brings out the weakness of Cpl Robertson's statement to effect that Cpl Robertson had authority to authorize movement of any of the vehicles on or about 30 June the date in question.

These statements are all almost contradictory. The court will surely not be able to believe them all. The defense has produced no documentary evidence that Cpl Robertson had authority to sign work ticket necessary for any movement of vehicles and I don't think the court will believe for a moment that Pte Lindsay so falsely stated he had authority Cpl Robertson, in saying he could consent but not give permission for the use of a m/c has at best admitted that, in fact he had no such authority.

2) Defence has attempted to declare that Cpl Robertson is financially but not criminally responsible, in connection with this incident. I submit he is jointly responsible with the Accused for disobedience to any order and especially in view of his position of authority as an N.C.O. and the weight that his word carries.

Orders are only effective so long as they are carried out, obeyed and respected by those in authority and this includes every training officer. For example if an order on a training syllabus states that Cpl Robertson shall be assisted by an LCpl and a Cpl in charge of the duty or training, or tells him that they can take a spare period, with the written order or training ~~directive~~ has lost its effect owing to disobedience of the N.C.O. that is precisely the situation with which we are dealing here.

According to the evidence:
Cpl Robertson was on duty
He took no steps to satisfy himself Currie had a work ticket
He was aware pte Currie had never been employed for M/C or despatch duty in the platoon.
He made no comment on the request for a motorcycle - to use his own words he merely "consented".

I suggest that that consent carries with it a ~~the lack~~ want of respect or disobedience to a Company order ~~under which no order as~~ in a manner that nullifies that order in the eyes of any Private Soldier. Does the Court agree that that consent led to the use of the M/C by pte Currie.

3) ~~The defence has stated that Cpl Robertson did not~~ ~~consider so~~

The defence has endeavoured at some length to excuse the ~~reading of orders~~ failure to read orders by Cpl Robertson on the grounds of his absence on leave at the time of this particular order, 4 June, and the general inaccessibility of orders. Now I don't think the Court will listen to this insinuation that "A" Platoon, any more than any other unit in the Canadian Army can proffer a valid excuse for failure to read daily orders. As to being absent at the time, any ~~good~~ soldier will immediately read over ~~the~~ daily orders that have been published in his absence, immediately he gets settled back in his platoon lines. Cpl Robertson's duty was as Admin. N.C.O. in his platoon orderly room.

In fact, as the second witness brought out in his evidence all ranks in that platoon are ~~expected~~ permitted and expected to enter the orderly room for the business of studying orders.

Ignorance of orders is no excuse (M.M.L. P436)

4) I would ask the Court to read over this Part I D.O. of 4 June 1943 (para 5) and note that it is designed for the "protection" of motorcyclists.

The charge for which the accused has been brought before this Court martial is "neglect to obey a company order". ~~But~~ the question before the Court is simply: did the accused or did he not, display neglect in regard to Coy Part I order 4 June 1943 when he as a Cpl gave his consent to the use of his motorcycle by Pte Cairns?

The prosecution closes.

Defence – Closing address

Accused to receive benefit of doubt because –

1. (1) misapprehension re work to docks on schemes and other operations.
   (2) Accused never saw this particular part I Order until 28 July/43.
   (3) Cpl. Robertson did not know that Pte Carbis was taking the W/C without authorization from an Officer.
2. Inference from part I Order of 7 Aug/43 that this instruction needed corrections
3. Accused is being held criminally responsible for improper use of W/C. According to M.T. Dirs. Regs. he is only responsible financially.
4. M.M.L. Ch VI, page 72, para 12
5. M.M.L., Ch. V, page 58 para 67 & 68
6. A transcript of proceedings of this N.C.O. is convicted.
7. Accused is being tried on Part I order of June 14/43.
8. A.A. 11, Note – No neglect proved. He is charged with "neglecting to obey an order" which was never seen by him until 28 June/43. He should have been tried under Sec 9 AA.

AJH

9. The prosecution failed to establish that Pte Carrie was not guad. as a malingerer.

10. Pte Carrie was receiving D/R trng. at any time he took sick out.

11. The charge made in the field "implying that the alleged act of neglect was committed on active service.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

G-7346 Corporal Warren Grant ROBERTSON, of the No 45 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken under oath.

The accused, having had his rights upon the taking of a summary explained to him in accordance with the Rules of Procedure, the evidence is taken in his presence:

First Witness: A-9989 Private G.A. Currie, of the No 45 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC, having been duly called and sworn, states:

"I am A-9989 Private G.A. Currie of the No 45 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC. On the 30th June, 1943, at or about 1200 hours, I asked the accused, G-7346 Cpl W.G. Robertson, whom I now recognize, for permission to ride his motorcycle, Cdn Army vehicle No. CC 1038180 to lunch. He gave me permission to ride the vehicle. Cpl Robertson did not question the fact as to whether I had a work ticket. I then took it to the mess hall which is about half a mile from the billets. I was not in possession of a work ticket signed by an officer authorizing me to make the journey. At that time I was aware of some order which laid down that a motorcyclist must be in possession of a work ticket signed by an officer authorizing a journey to be made.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Second Witness Lt K.H. Pudney, of the No 45 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC having been duly called and sworn, states:

"I am Lt K.H. Pudney, of the No 45 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy RCASC. G-7346 Cpl Robertson, W.G., the accused whom I now recognize, is a section corporal in my platoon. On the 30th June, 1943, Cdn Army vehicle No. CC 1038180 was involved in an accident when ridden by G-64415 Pte Mills, G.H. also of my platoon. Upon investigation I discovered that the aforementioned vehicle, a motorcycle in Cpl Robertson's charge had been lent to A-9989 Pte Currie, G.A. by Cpl Robertson and subsequently borrowed without authority by Pte Mills. It was further discovered that neither Pte Mills or Pte Currie had been in possession of a work ticket authorizing them to make a journey signed by myself or any other officer. The whole situation was extremely irregular, and contrary to orders published by Coy H.Q. and my own instructions re-iterated again and again. I have frequently warned my platoon against driving Government vehicles without proper authority. I herewith produce Company Part I Order No. 120 dated 4 Jun 43 in which it states in para 5, "The unauthorized use of any Government vehicle is strictly forbidden, every motorcyclist must be in possession of a work ticket properly authorized by an officer; no matter how small the journey." This order was placed on my platoon notice board and was available for the information of all ranks of my platoon. Cpl Robertson's action in permitting Pte Currie to ride his motorcycle was definitely contrary to my instructions and to the provisions of the aforementioned Company Part I Order."

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give any evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED: "I have nothing to say, sir."

The accused declines to call witnesses in his own behalf.

I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (c)(d)(e)(f) and (g) have been complied with.

E-14529, Pte. Robertson, C.J., No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Bordon, Hants., on the 20th day of May, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. W.D.S. Careless
Defending Officer - Lieut. L. Ruddell

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

It is discovered that Lieut. W.G. Brown, No. 2 Det. R.C.O.C., has not held his commission for a period of one year and the President of the Court makes the following announcement:

President - You are not eligible to sit as a member of this court-martial, however I wish you would remain for instruction. We are still left with three qualified members of the Court and under R.P. 18 I rule that this Court is of the opinion that in the interests of justice, and for the good of the service, it is inexpedient to adjourn this Court and that this Court will proceed accordingly.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 -Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Not guilty, sir.

Prosecutor - If the Court please, on the charge-sheet, where it says the accused was apprehended at home, that is a typographical error and the words "at his home" should not appear. If the Court agrees, I believe the defence will have no objection to those words being struck from the charge.
President - The Court has the power to strike any inconsistent thing out but we cannot increase a charge. We can make it read "In Campbellton, N.B."
Defending Officer - I have no objection.

Prosecutor - The evidence for the prosecution in the case of Pte. Robertson is documentary evidence. I have here a letter signed by L/Cpl. Mann of the military police and marked on the summary of evidence as an exhibit.

The prosecutor reads the statement of evidence of L/Cpl. Mann, No. 17 Provost Company, and the same is accepted in evidence by the Court and marked Exhibit 1.

Prosecutor - I have further documentary evidence to produce in the form of a letter from Capt. W.J. Ryan, D.A.P.M., M.D. 7.

The prosecutor reads the letter referred to and it is accepted in evidence by the Court and marked Exhibit 2.

Defending Officer - The Court will note that the accused has been classified as a deserter.

Prosecutor - The prosecution understands that the defence is willing to admit the time of absence and the date of absence as in the accused's own statement. I also understand that that is all they are willing to admit in that statement -- merely the time of the man absenting himself.

Defending Officer - The defence admits the time of absence without leave mentioned in the charge; also the place and nature of his apprehension.

Prosecutor - The case for the prosecution is closed.

Q4 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A4 - Yes, sir.
Q5 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A5 - No, sir.

First witness for the defence, E-14529, Pte. Robertson, C.J., No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q6 - On the date in question you were part of a draft which was proceeding overseas from Canada from Camp Borden, is that so?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - On February 12th you were part of a draft proceeding to England?
A7 - Yes, sir.
Q8 - You had been on board at Halifax waiting to proceed for some days; seven I think?
A8 - Yes, sir.
Q9 - On the 12th February the boat was brought back to the dock and a certain amount of the troops on board were given passes until midnight?
A9 - Yes, sir.
Q10 - You in company with two other boys, Caissy and Ross, went together into Halifax and visited a number of taverns?
A10 - Yes, sir.
Q11 - While there did you meet any of the sailors from the ship?
A11 - Yes, sir.
Q12 - What did you ask them?
A12 - How long the boat would be there.
Q13 - What did they reply?
A13 - Six or seven days.
Q14 - Had you had any embarkation leave?
A14 - No, sir.
Q15 - You have a wife and two children?
A15 - Yes, sir.
Q16 - They live near Campbelltown?
A16 - Yes, sir.
Q17 - Did you then decide you had time to run home and see them?
A17 - Yes, sir.
Q18 - You came to the conclusion you would do that?
A18 - Yes, sir.
Q19 - Tell me what you did when you got to Campbelltown?
A19 - As soon as I arrived in Campbelltown I took a branch train and went to New Mills to see my wife and kids before I came across. I stayed there for a day and the next morning came back to Campbelltown.
Q20 - Why?
A20 - To meet the other two boys.
Q21 - Had you previously arranged to meet them?
A21 - Yes, sir.
Q22 - For what purpose?
A22 - To get back in time.
Q23 - To get your boat; is that what you meant?
A23 - Yes, sir.
Q24 - What happened there?
A24 - As soon as I arrived in Campbelltown a military police was waiting for me at the station and when I got off the train he asked for my pass and when I gave it he told me it was due and he put me in the civvy jail with the two other boys.
Q25 - Did you have any conversation with the policeman?
A25 - No, sir. He just asked me for the pass and took me down there.

Q26 - Did you tell him what you were trying to do?
A26 - Yes, sir.
Q27 - What was that?
A27 - That we were trying to get back to Halifax. The three of us talked it over and we handed him money to send a telegram to Halifax.
Q28 - Why was that?
A28 - To try and get there.
Q29 - Who were you sending it to?
A29 - Captain Grant.
Q30 - With a view to acquainting him with your predicament?
A30 - Yes, sir.
Q31 - Did he do it?
A31 - No, sir. We didn't hear anything after that so we concluded it hadn't been sent.
Q32 - What happened then?
A32 - They put me in jail until Sunday and then brought me to St. John and put me in there in detention for two days and two days after they brought me to Fredericton and I was there in detention.
Q33 - When you left the boat, or Halifax, had you any intention of coming back?
A33 - Yes, sir.
Q34 - Why did you join the army?
A34 - To fight for my king and country.
Q35 - Don't be afraid to mention sentimental things, those are things we respect in this court. You joined up to fight for your king and country. You have been in detention ever since?
A35 - Yes, sir.
Q36 - Did you think you had done everything in your power to get back under the circumstances?
A36 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q37 - On the 12th February, 1941, you received a pass?
A37 - Yes, sir.
Q38 - For how long was that pass good?
A38 - 2359, sir.
Q39 - And at 2359 did you report back?
A39 - No, sir.
Q40 - And you were apprehended by the military police in Campbelltown?
A40 - Yes, sir.
Q41 - And on what date was that?
A41 - The 15th.
Q42 - The same date as mentioned in the charge-sheet?
A42 - Yes, sir, I got home on the 14th and it was the next day.

Defending Officer - I think the evidence before the Court will, although we made a prima facie case of this by admitting the a.w.l., I think the prosecution has been quite inadequate in proving desertion. By that I mean there is no intention shown on the part of the accused. On the evidence on oath by the accused he shows his conduct to be that of an unthinking soldier who, on proceeding overseas, wished to see his wife and family. He had had no embarkation leave and, although he had no justification in going, he did it with the intention of saying goodbye. The fact that he had returned to keep the assignation with his friends and was picked up in Campbelltown proves he had every intention of returning to his unit. Also he endeavoured to get in touch with the officer in charge of his draft to acquaint him with his predicament and to get back before the draft went. I think we are right in assuming that had he not understood the boat would not be leaving for a week he would not have gone. The case may rest there, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

President - Counsel for the accused has handed to me two return tickets from Moncton to Truro. He said one was given to him by the accused, Robertson, and the other by Ross. If counsel for the prosecution and accused in both cases agree that they will waive any irregularities I propose to re-open each case on this basis. We will take the Ross case again and the same with the Robertson case, but as we are on the Robertson case now we will take it first.

E-14529, Pte. Robertson, C.J., No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q43 - Do you recognize this? (Shows accused ticket)
A43 - Yes, sir.
Q44 - Can you tell us what it is?
A44 - It is my return ticket, sir.
Q45 - From.....?
A45 - Moncton to Truro.
Q46 - When did you buy it?
A46 - The 13th February.
Q47 - For what purpose?
A47 - To go home.
Q48 - But this is a ticket from Moncton to Truro, this is not towards home.
A48 - To go back to Truro again.
Q49 - Where were you going?
A49 - To Halifax, sir.
Q50 - That was your intention?
A50 - Yes, sir.
Q51 - How did you get from Halifax to Truro?
A51 - By taxi, sir.
Q52 - And how did you get from Moncton to Campbelltown?
A52 - I bought a one-way ticket.
Q53 - Why a one-way ticket?
A53 - I couldn't buy one on the train and I got on right away and they don't sell return tickets on the train.
Q54 - How far is it from Halifax to Truro?
A54 - Sixty miles.
Q55 - And you bought, or hired, a taxi?
A55 - Yes, sir, between the three of us.
Q56 - You say you purchased this ticket on the 13th February. Would you read to the Court what date is inscribed on the back?
A56 - February 13, 1941.

Defending Officer - I produce in evidence a return railroad ticket Moncton to Truro and a single ticket, Moncton to Campbelltown.

The tickets are accepted by the Court in evidence, the return ticket being marked Exhibit 3 and the single ticket Exhibit 4.

Q57 - This is marked a furlough ticket that is a concession given to troops on the railways in Canada. Is there any difference between the single fare and the furlough return fare? If you had bought a one way ticket would it have cost you any more? Is the furlough return fare the same or more than an ordinary xxxxxxxxxxxx soldier's single fare, do you know that?
A57 - No, sir.
Q58 - If you had bought a single ticket from Truro to Moncton without return, not a soldier's ticket, would you have got it cheaper than you had to pay for this soldier's ticket there and back?
A58 - No, sir.
Q59 - Would you have to pay more for a double than a single?
A59 - No, sir.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor

Q60 - You say that you went by taxi from Halifax to Truro, a matter of sixty miles?
A60 - Yes, sir.
Q61 - How many were in the taxi?
A61 - Four; us three and the taxi driver.
Q62 - How much did you pay?
A62 - Ten dollars.
Q63 - To be divided between you, or each?
A63 - Between us. He had to come that way anyway so he said he would bring us for ten dollars.

Lieut. W.D.S. Careless, No. 1 R.C.A.S.C. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q64 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A64 - A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.

Q66 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A66 - Yes, sir.
Q67 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A67 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q68 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A68 -(Defending Officer) We have in the accused a soldier who joined up as everybody else did, to do his bit for his country, and on the way to England he was part of a draft. He, like all others, had a desire to bid adieu to his family and he had not been given that privilege. He took that privilege and carried out that intent, but with every intention of returning and carrying on with the job he originally joined for. I would like the Court in considering sentence to take into consideration the character of the accused. He has a clean conduct sheet and has never been in any trouble and as far as that document shows he had, until that time, been a perfectly good soldier. I would ask the Court to take that fact into consideration of sentence.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

I enlisted on October 15, 1940, in Quebec City, Quebec, with 2nd Div. Amn. Coy, R.C.A.S.C. I was sent to Camp Borden, Ontario, where I remained until February 2, 1941, when I was put on draft to proceed overseas. I remained on board ship in Halifax harbour for nine days and then was given a pass until 2359 hours the same day to go ashore in the city of Halifax. I went to New Mills, N.B. to see my wife and children. When returning to the ship at Halifax, three days later, I was arrested by an M.P. at Moncton, N.B. I was taken to Saint John, N.B. for one day and then to Fredericton N.B., where I was held for 48 days. I was then placed aboard a ship at Halifax and brought to Bordon Camp, England. I have been in detention from the time I was placed aboard ship at Halifax until the present time.

1. You were President of a F.G.C.M. convened to try the m/n soldier at Bordon,Hants on 20 May 41:

2. It appears in the proceedings therein that the court purported to amend the charge upon which the accused was arraigned. It is within the power of a court to amend a charge only insofar as it applies to the description of the accused: R.P. 73A. This amendment, therefore, must be considered a nullity.

3. The patent error here may be cured by the court recording a special finding under R.P. 84n.

4. For these reasons you are now directed to re-assemble your court for the purpose of revising the finding in this case.

5. Attention of the court is drawn to A.A. sec 54(2) and R.P. 52, outlining procedure and powers of a court on revision.

IN THE CASE OF

Plea witnessed as R.P.
Ans

C.8840 Cnr David Ralph ROBERTSON -- 4 (Gen Rft) Wing, 1 Cdn
Repat Depot

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused volunteered for Active Service as soon as he was able to get away with it. He was only 18 years of age. He was sent to Sicily in Oct 43 and went into action in Jan 44 near Ortona. He came out of action in March 44 after nearly 4 months continuous action when he had been laid low with yellow jaundice. While he was hospitalized was when the army found his proper ageand he was returned to England considered too young to be in an Active theatre of operations. During the following 18 months which he spent in England he was continually trying to be sent to France and it was a result of being over disgruntled by revised and revoked promises of being put on draft to the continent that he went first A.W.L. which is his first Court Martial previous to the present offence. The accused has spent three months doing absolutely nothing in a holding unit. We all know the result of such inactivity and here is another case of it. He was on leave and I believe that he on that leave he didn't feel up to it to come back to the inactivity and no-one seemed to require his services in camp. He didn't intend to stay as long as he did. As to this civilian charge it occured while he and three of his friends were drinking. They made an illegal entry, he had money in his pocket and he can't understand why he did it or why his friends discussed it with him, however in view of the fact that the only damage that was sustained by anybody was one sma l window being broken. I feel that 9 months was an extreme penalty for that offence. I ask the court to consider those 9 months spent behind bars and the months of voluntary service under fire when sentencing this young man.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL
COURT MARTIAL HELD IN THE FIELD
ON THE 23 rd day of October 1942

The President and members assemble at 1000 hours.

The Court is convened in accordance with RP 22, 23 and 106.

The Court is opened at 1010 hours and the Defending Officer, Prosecuting Officer, accused and escort and witnesses appear.

The medical certificate is submitted to the Court by Prosecutor

OPENING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR

" As the exhibits as shown in the Summary are not available, the Prosecution will produce witnesses to prove that such exhibits did exist but are not now available. I also submit to the Court a field service cap as exbibit "D" "

1st witness for Prosecution- B-88057 QMS Banks T.E. is sworn- This witness established identity of articles found on 17 Sep as W.D. property and belonging to unit P.A.D. stores. One parcel of underwear had been marked "for return to DADOS" and that notation was on the parcel shown to the witness.

The Defending Officer declines to cross examine this witness and accepts the proof of exhibits and identity.

2nd witness for Prosecution- Lieut. H.R.B. McInnes is sworn- Stated that he was in possession of the exhibits on the 24 and 25 Sep when the Summary was taken and again saw them on 6 Oct when questioned by Major Fraser regarding them being in the room where unit G 1098 stores were kept. On 6 Oct further evidence became available and after taking an addendum to the Summary went to put another exhibit with the others and found them to be missing.

3rd witness for Prosecution- Lieut. R.G. Green is sworn- This witness gave evidense of finding the articles in a tin shack on the premises and of detailing S/Sgt Hesk and Sgt. Long to watch the shack from a barn opposite. About 1800 hours S/Sgt Hesk brought the accused to witness who placed accused under open arrest.

Q. by Defense:
" How long have you been with the unit ?"
A. " Since 9 Aug 42 "

Q. by Court:
" What articles did accused have in his possesion when brought to you ?"
A. " Some large towels"

4th witness for Prosecution-B-28152 Sgt. Long T.W. is sworn- Stated that he joined S/Sgt. Hesk at the barn at 1750 hours and that at 1810 hours a Spr Soper was seen to go into the shack and select some articles. He was then joined by Spr. Robertson who was carrying a bundle wrapped in an army shirt. Soper and Robertson were joined by Spr. Stephenson and the three strted towards the road and were then stopped by S/Sgt Hesk. Witness then joined Hesk and they took the three men to the guard room where they were placed under open arrest by Lt. Green.

Q. by Defense:
" Where does the road to which you refer lead ?"
A. " It leads out of the camp and also to the main bldg"

5th witness for Prosecution- B-28059 S/Sgt. Hesk G. is sworn-
This witness confirms the evidence of Lt. Green and Sgt Long up to point of apprehension. Here witness asked the accused what he had in the bundle that the accused was carrying and was told that it was laundry. The witness examined the bundle at the guard room and found it to contain five W.D. Hospital towels.

Q. "How long have you been in the w/shop section ?"
A. " Since Dec 1939. I have been senior NCO since Aug 1940"
Q. " How long have you known the accused ?"
A. " Since I joined the army "
Q. " Can you tell if the accused carried the same bundle when apprehended as he did when he joined Soper at the tin shack ?"
A. " I did not see it change hands "

The Defense again brings out the point in cross examination that the road on which the accused was apprehended led to the main bldg as well as out of camp.

6th witness for Prosecution-B-29399 Spr. Stephenson W.F. is sworn-" On 17 Sep I left my hut to go to the village and when walking along the path I was called to a tin shack by Spr Soper and asked for the loan of a shirt to wrap some things in. I went back and got the shirt, gave it to Soper with a reminder that I wanted it back and started up the path with Robertson. We were stopped by S/Sgt Hesk who asked Robertson what he had in the parcel. After finding out what was in the parcel we were taken to the guard room and placed under arrest.
Q. " What did Robertson reply to the Q by S/Sgt Hesk?"
A. " That it was laundry "

Q. by defense:
" Will you repeat any conversation that you had with the accused before you went to the tin shack?"
A. " Before leaving the Misson hut Spr Robertson told me that he had found some stuff and that he and Soper were returning it to the QM Stores. I was asked if I would give them a hand and I refused.
Q "Are you quite sure they said they were taking them to the QM Stores ?"
A. "Yes"

7th witness for Prosecution-B-28121 Cpl. Feldcamp G.F. is sworn-
This witness gave evidence of finding a cap in the PAD stores about three weeks after the accused was placed under arrest. He identified the cap in possesion of the Court as it was marked with the regimental number and initials of the accused on the inside flap.

The Defense brings out in cross examination the exact location of the hat in the stores i.e. the hat was in a large tin and fell with it when the door was opened.

The Court adjourned at 1210 hours

The Court opens again at 1335 hours.

8th witness for the Prosecution-B-28096 Spr. MacAtamney J is sworn-
This witness confirms statement of Cpl. Feldcamp as to the finding and identification of the cap but gives the date of finding as 9 Oct 42.

Q. by Defense:
"Are you sure of the date ?"
A. "Yes"

9th witness for the Prosecution-B-28057 CQMS Banks T.E. is warned that he is still on oath before the Court-
This witness describes layout of QM and PAD Stores and that by locking the QM Stores it closed off the PAD Stores. The date of finding the cap is given as 10 Oct 42. Gives reason for Cpl. Feldcamp going to the PAD Stores.

Q. by Defense:
"What did the CRE say about the Stores on his inspection?"

A. " They were the worst he had ever seen "

The Prosecution is closed.

Opening Address by Defending Officer

" I propose to show that the case against the accused is built up not by adverse facts but by the adverse interpretation of an act of minor stupidity. The witnesses can offer an acceptable explanation of not too brilliant conduct but never the less was honest in intention. The accused can confirm his motivation by the evidence of witnesses who are credible and whose evidence must bear weight. It will be shown that there is nothing in this man's record to indicate dishonest trends of character.

1st witness for the Defense-B-28109 Spr. Robertson E.P. is sworn- The accused takes his stand at the place at which other witnesses give their evidence.

" About 0730 hours on 17 Sep I went to the shack to get some straw when I found the articles mentioned. As I was leaving on an early trip I only saw one HOO at the time. At supper I was talking to a chum and he said he wanted to see it. He said that we had better return it to the stores. I did not want a yone to see us carrying it to the stores. We were stopped by S/Sgt Hesk and he asked me what was in the bundle I was carrying. I told him it was laundry. I did not tell him about it. At the guard room I told them that I had found the stuff and I was placed under arrest.

Q. "Why did you not tell an officer ?"
A. " He was a new officer and I did not know what he would do about it so I decided to take the articles to the QM stores"
Q. " Will you explain the matter of the hat ?"
A. " About 10 days before moving to this area I left my cap in the mess hall and when I went to get it, it was gone. I reported it to the CSM "

Q by Prosecution:
" How long have you been in the army ?"
A. " Since Sep 1939"
Q. " Did you carry a bundle out of your hut ?"
A. " Yes "
Q. " What was in the bundle ?"
A. " Towels "
Q. " Where did you get them ?"
A. " The shack. I had them in my hut from 1630 hours "
Q. " What time did you return from the trip you made early in the morning of 17 Sep ?"
A. " At 1400 hours. I helped unload the trucks and then went to the shack and got the towels at 1630 hours. They were on top of the pile. I took them to my hut, wrapped them in a shirt and left them on my bed. I went to the mess hall for supper and then back to my hut."
Q. " Why did you not take all the articles to the Stores ?"
A. " It was too much"

2nd witness dor the Defense- B-28501 Spr. Hayward F.K. is sworn- This witness confirms fact that accused lost his cap in the mess hall before moving to present area.

The Prosecution declines to cross examine this witness.

3rd witness for the Defense- B-28080 Spr. Carey V. is sworn- This witness states that he asked accused for the loan of his cap in their old area and was told that the accused had lost it. Witness identifies cap in possesion of the Court as one that he used to borrow from the accused to attend pay parades.

Character witness- Capt. E.A. Ballantyne is sworn-

Q. "Will you please tell the Court whether or not, to the best of your knowledge and belief, the accused has ever been found guilty of or charged with an act of dishonesty ?"

A. "To the best of my knowledge and belief-none that I know of"

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

" The defense admits that no evidence has been produced to prove the offense of stealing. With regard to the fact of possesion, it is felt that no evidence has been produced which directly or even by implication would show dishonest intention. Rather, the evidence of the accused supported by the spontaneous corroboration of Spr. Stephenson indicates good intention i.e. that the accused, even though in a dilatory and bungling fashion, had in hand the return of W.D. property which he had accidentally found to its place of proper repository.

" Thus interpretation becomes the decisive factor in this case and not the proof or refutation of facts. And in interpretation the principle of reasonable doubt should, in my opinion, be afforded its usual free exercise.

" Though it is not within my compass to weigh the importance of circumstantial evidence, it might reasonably appear from the evidence of the accused and that of Sprs. Hayward and Carey that exhibit "D" i.e.the cap, and the circumstances of its discovery are things of little relevancy and of no importance.

" The Defending Officer feels that due to several factors, this man has been brought to trial under misapprehension. It is admitted that he was dilatory in returning the articles but in his own statement excuse can be found i.e. he was called on duty soon after his discovery and further, with whatever poor reason, he was afraid to report his find to his senior NCOs and unacquainted with the character of a strange officer.

" It is my hope that the Court will believe that this man was at worst slovenly in his actions or neglects, probably himself ill advised, certainly a little stupid. That a charge was laid at all must be attributed to these little personal shortcomings rather than to any improper intent on his part; and this I believe the evidence to show.

" I would refer the Court to the provisions of M.M.L. Chap III para 33 and 37 which defines the elements necessary to constitute an offense of stealing.

" As to his general character for honesty, may I refer the Court to Chap VI para 19 page 75 lines 6 and 7. There has been only positive evidence submitted as to character for honesty and my recollection tells me that the Court will find no documentary evidence to the contrary.

" To summarize, there is no evidence to prove stealing and every reasonable doubt that his possession of the articles was improper "

ADDRESS IN REPLY BY PROSECUTION

" A few points have arisen worthy of mention. The articles were found at 0730 hours, were forgotten all day until prior to supper when the accused removed the towels.

" The accused would not tell his NCOs about the articles for fear of getting into trouble. His NCOs, especially S/Sgt. Heck are men who have been in the ranks with the accused and if he does'nt trust them, he has something to hide.

" When he left the ~~xxxx~~ with the towels wrapped in a shirt on a well meaning mission to return them, he was stopped by S/Sgt. Nesk and in spite of his good intentions, lied to that NCO.

" I would like to bring up a point regarding the weight of those articles. Robertson is a perfectly normal, healthy person and though the distance is only a matter of 300 yards, he could still only stagger up with five towels.

" There are some amazing coincidences about the loss of the cap. But the most amazing one, if we believe the evidence, is that the cap was lost in Horam and never turned up until found in the P.A.D. Stores in Mountfield. These stores are like barrack stores and are held within the unit and no one goes near them.

" Yet the accused had five towels from these stores in his possession. In my mind that constitutes evidence that Spr. Robertson stole those stores by entering the P.A.D. stores to get them. I need not dwell on the seriousness of such offenses in the army and there is only one way to stop such offenses "

The Court is closed to consider a Finding.

The Court is opened again and a finding of NOT GUILTY on the 1st charg is read in the presence of the accused.

The Defending Officer in his PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE brings out the facts that the accused did neglect to tell an officer or NCO about the property of the PAD stores that he found for reasons as given by the accused in his evidence, and that the accused had not been charged with or found guilty of a similar offense.

The Court is closed to consider sentence.

The accused is warned that he will remain in close arrest pending promulgation of sentence.

The Court deal also with the sentence on a soldier tried by the same Court two days previous on the same charge.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

R-28109 Spr. Robertson, E.E. 2nd.Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy.RCE.

By direction of the Officer Commanding the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

Lieut. H.G.Green, 2nd. Cdn. Fd.Park Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states;-

"I am Lieut. H.G.Green, an Officer of the 2nd. Cdn. Fd.Park Coy., R.C.E. I was in charge of the rear party when the Company was away on Exercise "Spinach". At about 1530 hrs on the 17 Sep 42 we were beginning to run short of cement on a job that was in progress. After having obtained the permission of the Head Gardener I went down to a shack where I knew there were four or five bags of cement. On removing one bag of cement I found some socks and paper parcels containing underwear. After my find, I placed the articles in the truck and drove up to the gate where I sent for Sgt. Long and S/Sgt Hesk. On their arrival I showed them what I had found. We returned to the shack and I replaced the articles back in the same spot I had found them. I had the Head Gardener come over and with his permission obtained the use of a barn opposite the entrance of the shack. I instructed Sgt. Long and S/Sgt. Hesk to keep and eye on the shack from the barn from 1700 hrs on. At about 1815 hrs I was out at the cookhouse when Sgt. Long, S/Sgt. Hesk, Sappers Soper, Robertson and Stephenson walked up to me and said they wished to speak to me at once. I followed them into the guard room and they told me what had happened. After I examined the goods I identified them as the goods I had placed in the shack earlier in the afternoon."

Questioned by the Court.

"Can you identify this property as the property you found in the shack?"
"Yes, Sir, it is the same."

Signed H.G.Green
(H.G.Green) Lieut.

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

B-28152 Sgt. Long, T.W., 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E., having been duly sworn, states;-

"I am B-28152 Sgt. Long, T.W. of the 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E. In the afternoon of 17 Sep 42 Lieut. Green told us he had found some articles that were hidden. We went down to the shack with him but decided that we would leave them there and watch who came to pick them up. Spr. Soper was seen to go and take several articles from the hiding place and left the rest. Spr. Robertson came along and they talked for awhile. Spr. Stephenson came along and was asked by Spr. Soper to loan them a shirt. We then brought them up before Lieut. Green who placed them under open arrest."

B-28059 S/Sgt. Hesk, G., 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states:-

"At about 1400 hrs on the 17 Sep 42, Lieut. Green told Sgt. Long and myself that he had discovered some W.D. articles hidden in a small shack. We went with him down to the shack and decided to leave the articles hidden. We obtained permission from the Head Gardener to use a near-by barn as a look-out post. I entered the barn at 1645 hrs and was joined by Sgt. Long at 1750 hrs. At approx 1810 hrs Spr. Soper came to the shack and turned back the cement and the straw under which these articles were hidden and made a selection. He was joined by Spr. Robertson who ~~picked up~~ a bundle with an army shirt wrapped around it. Spr. Stephenson came along and Spr. Soper borrowed a shirt from him and wrapped some articles in it. I left the barn and intercepted them as they were headed for the road. On examining the parcels the one carried by Robertson was found to contain 5 W.D. hospital towels and the one carried by Spr. Soper contained a bundle of W.D.socks and 2 bundles of W.D.Underwear. I was joined by Sgt. Long and ordered the three men to accompany us to billets. We reported to Mr. Green and the three men were placed under open arrest. The remaining stores in the shack were brought into the Q.M.stores and contained another bundle of socks and one of underwear."

We missed the underwear first then Sapper McAtamney said it looked as though there were quiet a few pairs of socks missing.

Questioned by the Court

"Can you positively identify these articles as belonging to the Q.M.Stores?"
"Yes Sir."

"Do these towels belong to the P.A.D. stores?"
"Yes, Sir."

"I am B-28057 C.Q.M.S. Banks, T.E. C.Q.M.S. of the 2nd Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E. On my return from operations with the unit I was shown certain articles that had been removed from the Q.M.stores in the absence of the largest part of the unit. The stores concerned were very definitely part of the Company's clothing. The woollen socks were an exchange issue recently received from Ordnance. The Cellular shorts were bundled and ready for return to Ordnance as access clothing which had previously been replaced as outsize. The bath towels are part of the P.A.D. stores which are awaiting shipment to Ordnance and duly recorded on an issue voucher. The two flannel shirts with this clothing do not form part of the Q.M.stores, also the haversack and kit bag are not recognized as being stores property."

Questioned by the accused

"We have been charged with stealing from the Q.M.stores. Can the C.Q.M.S. absolutely identify these stores as being taken from the Q.M.stores of the 2nd. Cdn.Fd.Park Coy?"
"Yes, definitely."

"I am B-29399 Spr. Stephenson, W.F. of the 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E. I came out of my hut at approx 1810 hrs and I was on my way to town. These chaps were at the little hut. They had some bundles of clothes with them and they asked me for a loan of a shirt. I got one for them and they dropped some bundles in the shirt and we started toward the road. I told them not to forget to return my shirt. We were then stopped by the senior N.C.O.s."

Questioned by the Court.

"Did you recognize the goods as W.D. property?"
"I saw that the socks were W.D."

"Where were the three of you going?"
"I was going to town, but I don't know where they were going I wasn't with them at all. I then heard that some W.D. goods had been found, and was being returned to the R.M. stores."

"Then what were they going towards the road for?"

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. B-76210, Cpl. J. Gow, Toronto Scottish Regiment (MG).

Q - You are B-76210, Cpl. J. Gow, Toronto Scottish Regiment (MG).
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 01:00 hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of H.16519 Pte. Thomson, R.A., P.P.C.L.I, CASF. Would you please just repeat the evidence you gave this morning, so much as has to do with the charge against Robertson.
A - I didn't see Robertson, sir.
Q - You don't know what Robertson was doing?
A - My back was turned to him.
Q - So far as you were concerned, Robertson didn't strike you or take part in the struggle at all.
A - No, sir.

Defence Counsel declines to cross-examine witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution } Mr. Samuel Davis, night booking clerk, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Q - You are Mr. Samuel Davis, night booking clerk, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 01:00 hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of H.16519 Pte. Thomson, R.A., P.P.C.L.I. Will you tell us briefly exactly what occurred in relation to Robertson without the story of the others.

A - After I went to the assistance of Cpl. Gow, Robertson came behind me and jumped on my back and pulled me off twice.
Q - You say he pulled you off twice while you were attempting to assist Cpl. Gow. Are you sure in your own mind it was Robertson?
A - Definitely.
Q - There is no doubt in your mind?
A - No doubt, sir.
Q - Did anything else occur? Did he say anything?
A - Not two onto one.
Q - What happened then?
A - Cpl. Gow cautioned him to get away and asked me to assist him.
Q - You are absolutely sure of that.
A - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination of witness by Defence Counsel.

Q - You identify this man, I understand, because you recognized him by his hair. You said it has a touch of auburn in it.
A - Yes, sir, it has a touch of auburn in it.
Q - You wouldn't be prepared to say that there wasn't another man in the club with auburn in his hair?
A - No, I wouldn't say that.

Third witness for the Prosecution) Mr. Charles C. Smith, night superintendent, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q - You are Mr. Charles C. Smith, night superintendent, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 1:oo hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of H.16519 Pte. Thomson, R.A., R.A.O.C.I. I want you to tell us the story in so far as it concerns Robertson.
A - Mr. Davis went to assist Cpl. Gow and Robertson got hold of him around the waist and through him on one side.
Q - You saw that?
A - Yes, it was in front of the bar.
Q - Mr. Davis then went to Cpl. Gow's assistance again?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - What happened?
A - He jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
Q - There is some doubt as to whether that was Robertson. Are you prepared to swear on oath?
A - I am satisfied that he is the man I identified on Waterloo Station.

Cross-examination of witness by Defence Counsel.

Q - You want to be fair in this matter, don't you?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We can all make mistakes?
A - I suppose so, sir.
Q - You would say that as far as your recognition went, that was the man.
A - Yes, sir.
Q - If, as in these present circumstances, a man is charged with one offence and admits he is the party who did the job possibly he would be the man who would jump on the back of Mr. Davis?
A - I know this man and the other came to the bar when they first came in. The other man I didn't see at all myself.
Q - There were a number of other soldiers in the room?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - The two men came in together. What sticks in your mind is two men were at the bar. You saw them, you recognized this man as the man you saw at the bar.

A - That is the man whom I recognized.
Q - You identify this man now and were certain of an entirely different man this morning.
A - I had just come in out of the sun. My eyes are none too good. I can recognize him now allright, that is the man.
Q - This occurred about a month ago, the 24th of May. There is a possibility of your having seen this man on three or four occasions.
A - I don't think so, sir.
Q - If the other man had been there this morning, would you have pointed out the right one?
A - I am pretty well certain.

Defence Counsel - This man is charged with hindering the arrest of Pte. Thomson and is accused of jumping on Mr. Davis's back. Cpl. Gow, the first Crown witness, says he didn't see Robertson as he was fighting with Thomson. Davis gives an identification that would never be accepted by any Court in the land. There may be anyone of a number of men who might have jumped on his back. Martin, you heard this morning admit he pointed out an entirely wrong man and was certain that was the man. Again no court is going to accept that evidence. He finally ended up by saying he was pretty well certain. There is no definite sworn evidence. That is not good enough. He must be absolutely definite and swear to it. There is no evidence against this man whatsoever, and I therefore request dismissal on the grounds that no evidence has been produced.

Prosecutor - I think it is stretching one's imagination a little too far to suggest that no case is made out. There is very definite evidence, definite identification, that Robertson jumped on Davis's back and is the man who prevented Davis from assisting Cpl. Gow. Davis is absolutely certain. He saw him. He said: "I am sure that is the man". Martin is just as certain, in fact he didn't even see Woods. How could he possibly make a mistake if he didn't see Woods? There certainly is a case for the Crown.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. yes

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

First Witness for the Defence — H-85302, Pte. Woods, F.C., Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, C.A.S.F.

Q - Woods, you were at the Union Jack Club on night of the 24th May, 1940.
A - Yes, sir.
Q - There was a struggle there between this man Thomson and Cpl. Gow?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Would you tell us exactly what part the accused, Pte. Robertson, took in that struggle.
A - All I saw of him was in his place behind the table and I didn't see him until later outside of the club.
Q - Evidence was given that someb dy jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
A - Yes, sir, it was me.
Q - Have you anything to gain?
A - No, sir.
Q - How often did you jump on Mr. Davis's back?
A - About two or three times.
Q - You pulled him off?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Did you say anything to him?
A - Where we come from, it's one to one instead of two to one.

Prosecution declines to cross-examine witness.

Second Witness for the Defence — H-16519 Pte. Thomson, E.A., Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, C.A.S.F.

Q - You remember this incident in the Union Jack?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Will you tell the court what part the accused, Pte. Robertson, took.
A - Yes, sir. I came in company with Pte. Robertson and we were having soup together in front of the bar, and Robertson was with me went we were asked to produce the passes.
Q - Did Robertson take any part in the struggle?
A - No part at all, sir.
Q - There is some evidence that someone jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
A - That was Pte. Woods.
Q - Two or three times?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - But Robertson took no part?
A - No part, sir.

Prosecutor proceeds to cross-examine witness.

Q - Mr. Davis was on your back?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Were you able to see what was going on behind you?
A - Not very far, but enough to be able to glimpse Mr. Davis.
Q - All the while you were battling with Cpl. Gow?
A - While we were struggling.
Q - You and Robertson came in together and Woods came in in time to jump on Mr. Davis's back?
A - No, previous to that, sir. Just when Cpl. Gow and I got to struggling.
Q - Where was Robertson while this was going on?
A - Robertson was behind the table standing by.
Q - Between the bar and the table?
A - It was a table running at right angle through the bar. He was on the left of it.
Q - You are quite sure in your own mind that Robertson took no part in the struggle.
A - No part whatsoever.

Fourth Witness for the Defence } H-16536 Pte. Robertson, G.R.,
Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, CASF.

Q - You were present at this affray on the 24th May?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - What part did you take in the struggle?
A - None at all, sir.
Q - You have heard evidence given as to who climbed on Davis's back.
A - That was Pte. Woods, sir. I saw him pull Mr. Davis off.
Q - Where did the struggle take place?
A - The struggle took place on one side of the table, I was on the other.
Q - What did you do while the struggle was going on?
A - I stayed until the struggle went across to the bar.
Q - What did you do then?
A - I walked around and took Wodds by the arm and took him out of the club.
Q - You say Woods was definitely in the struggle?
A - He pulled Mr. Davis off Thomson's back.

Counsel for Defence - I don't think I can much more. I feel strongly about the evidence given. There has been no evidence from Cpl. Gow. Davis can say all he wants:" That is the man", he must give some reason, his statement is not enough. He identifies him for such and such a reason, a touch of auburn in his hair. Martin has said he was pretty well certain. That cannot be accepted. The Crown must prove its case. The Court's mind should be sure. I specifically asked Woods, my friend brought out from Mr. Davis, and Mr. Davis said the words 'not two for one' had been used, and so I specifically asked him what he had said and he used exactly the same words. He hadn't heard Mr. Davis make that statement. I suggest on the evidence before you that the case be dismissed. Three men swear positively it was Woods. There is going to be another charge against him, and this evidence will be used against him in a few minutes. I can't see why he would say I am the guilty party to save Robertson. No doubt, my friend, has some reasonable suggestion. On the question of identification and on this question of the statement made by Woods on Davis's back, I would say Robertson is not guilty of the charge placed against him.

Prosecution - I want to be fair and impartial in this thing as possible. I don't know which one of the men it was. I don't suggest anyone is telling what is untrue. It is certain that it was one of the men there. Personally, I am inclined to believe that Davis is more accurate than Woods or Robertson. It is a difficult thing to answer. I would hesitate to suggest to the Court which one it was. I have my own opinion, perhaps I am incline to take the evidence of the others. Perhaps the charge under Section 40 is less than under Section 8. I leave it entirely to the Court.

Defence Counsel - In view of that very fair statement, there is a reasonable doubt in my friend's mind. I must, therefore, ask that the charge be dismissed.

A - None at all, sir.
Q - You have heard evidence given as to who climbed on Davis's back.
A - That was Pte. Woods, sir. I saw him pull Mr. Davis off.

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question.

*Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No.

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked C, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. } B-76810, Cpl. J. Gow, Toronto Scottish Regiment (MG).

Q - You are B-76810, Cpl. J. Gow, Toronto Scottish Regiment (MG).
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 01:00 hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of H.16819 Pte. Thomson, R.A., P.P.C.L.I., C.A.S.F. Would you please just repeat the evidence you gave this morning, so much as has to do with the charge against Robertson.
A - I didn't see Robertson, sir.
Q - You don't know what Robertson was doing?
A - My back was turned to him.
Q - So far as you were concerned, Robertson didn't strike you or take part in the struggle at all.
A - No, sir.
Q -

Defence Counsel declines to cross-examine witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution } Mr. Samuel Davis, night booking clerk, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Q - You are Mr. Samuel Davis, night booking clerk, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 01:00 hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of H.16819 Pte. Thomson, R.A., P.P.C.L.I. Will you tell us briefly exactly what occurred in relation to Robertson without the story of the others.

A - After I went to the assistance of Cpl. Gow, Robertson came behind me and jumped on my back and pulled me off twice.
Q - You say he pulled you off twice while you were attempting to assist Cpl. Gow. Are you sure in your own mind it was Robertson?
A - Definitely.
Q - There is no doubt in your mind?
A - No doubt, sir.
Q - Did anything else occur? Did he say anything?
A - Not two onto one.
Q - What happened then?
A - Cpl. Gow cautioned him to get away and asked me to assist him.
Q - You are absolutely sure of that.
A - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination of witness by Defence Counsel.

Q - You identify this man, I understand, because you recognised him by his hair. You said it has a touch of auburn in it.
A - Yes, sir, it has a touch of auburn in it.
Q - You wouldn't be prepared to say that there wasn't another man in the club with auburn in his hair?
A - No, I wouldn't say that.

Third witness for the Prosecution } Mr. Charles G. Smith, night superintendent, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q - You are Mr. Charles G. Smith, night superintendent, Union Jack Club, Waterloo Road, London?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We are now concerned with the charge against Pte. Robertson of committing acts, conduct and disorder, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he did, on or about 24th May, 1940, at or about 1:00 hrs, hinder and obstruct the arrest of 14619 Pte. Thomson, R.A., R.A.O.C.I. I want you to tell us the story in so far as it concerns Robertson.
A - Mr. Davis went to assist Cpl. Gow and Robertson got hold of him around the waist and threw him on one side.
Q - You saw that?
A - Yes, it was in front of the bar.
Q - Mr. Davis then went to Cpl. Gow's assistance again?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - What happened?
A - He jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
Q - There is some doubt as to whether that was Robertson. Are you prepared to swear on oath?
A - I am satisfied that he is the man I identified on Waterloo Station.

Cross-examination of witness by Defence Counsel.

Q - You want to be fair in this matter, don't you?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - We can all make mistakes?
A - I suppose so, sir.
Q - You would say that as far as your recognition went, that was the man.
A - Yes, sir.
Q - If, as in these present circumstances, a man is charged with one offence and admits he is the party who did the job possibly he would be the man who would jump on the back of Mr. Davis?
A - I know this man and the other came to the bar when they first came in. The other man I didn't see at all myself.
Q - There were a number of other soldiers in the room?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - The two men came in together. What sticks in your mind is two men were at the bar. You saw them, you recognized this man as the man you saw at the bar.

A - That is the man whom I recognised.
Q - You identify this man now and were certain of an entirely different man this morning.
A - I had just come in out of the sun. My eyes are none too good. I can recognize him now allright, that is the man.
Q - This occurred about a month ago, the 26th of May. There is a possibility of your having seen this man on three or four occasions.
A - I don't think so, sir.
Q - If the other man had been there this morning, would you have pointed out the right one?
A - I am pretty well certain.

Defence Counsel - This man is charged with hindering the arrest of Pte. Thomson and is accused of jumping on Mr. Davis's back. Cpl. Gow, the first Crown witness, says he didn't see Robertson as he was fighting with Thomson. Davis gives an identification that would never be accepted by any Court in the land. There may be anyone of a number of men who might have jumped on his back. Martin, you heard this morning admit he pointed out an entirely wrong man and was certain that was the man. Again no Court is going to accept that evidence. He finally ended up by saying he was pretty well certain. There is no definite sworn evidence. What is not good enough. He must be absolutely definite and swear to it. There is no evidence against this man whatsoever, and I therefore request dismissal on the grounds that no evidence has been produced.

Prosecutor - I think it is stretching one's imagination a little too far to suggest that no case is made out. There is very definite evidence, definite identification, that Robertson jumped on Davis's back and is the man who prevented Davis from assisting Cpl. Gow. Davis is absolutely certain. He saw him. He said: "I am sure that is the man". Martin is just as certain, in fact he didn't even see Woods. How could he possibly make a mistake if he didn't see Woods? There certainly is a case for the Crown.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. Yes

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

First Witness for the Defence } K-88802, Pte. Woods, F.C. Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, C.A.S.F.

Q - Woods, you were at the Union Jack Club on night of the 24th May, 1940.
A - Yes, sir.
Q - There was a struggle there between this man Thomson and Cpl. Gow?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Would you tell us exactly what part the accused, Pte. Robertson, took in that struggle.
A - All I saw of him was in his place behind the table and I didn't see him until later outside of the club.
Q - Evidence was given that somebody jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
A - Yes, sir, it was me.
Q - Have you anything to gain?
A - No, sir.
Q - How often did you jump on Mr. Davis's back?
A - About two or three times.
Q - You pulled him off?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Did you say anything to him?
A - Where we come from, it's one to one instead of two to one.

Prosecution declines to cross-examine witness.

Second Witness for the Defence } H-16619 Pte. Thomson, E.A. Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, C.A.S.F.

Q - You remember this incident in the Union Jack?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Will you tell the court what part the accused, Pte. Robertson, took.
A - Yes, sir. I came in company with Pte. Robertson and we were having soup together in front of the bar, and Robertson was with me went we were asked to produce the passes.
Q - Did Robertson take any part in the struggle?
A - No part at all, sir.
Q - There is some evidence that someone jumped on Mr. Davis's back.
A - That was Pte. Woods.
Q - Two or three times?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - But Robertson took no part?
A - No part, sir.

Prosecutor proceeds to cross-examine witness.

Q - Mr. Davis was on your back?
A - Yes, sir.
Q - Were you able to see what was going on behind you?
A - Not very far, but enough to be able to glimpse Mr. Davis.
Q - All the while you were battling with Cpl. Gow?
A - While we were struggling.
Q - You and Robertson came in together and Woods came in in time to jump on Mr. Davis's back?
A - No, previous to that, sir. Just when Cpl. Gow and I got to struggling.
Q - Where was Robertson while this was going on?
A - Robertson was behind the table standing by.
Q - Between the bar and the table?
A - It was a table running at right angle through the bar. He was on the left of it.
Q - You are quite sure in your own mind that Robertson took no part in the struggle.
A - No part whatsoever.

I specifically asked Woods, my friend brought out from Mr. Davis, and Mr. Davis said the words 'not two for one' had been used, and so I specifically asked him what he had said and he used exactly the same words. He hadn't heard Mr. Davis make that statement. I suggest on the evidence before you that the case be dismissed. Three men swear positively it was Woods. There is going to be another charge against him, and this evidence will be used against him in a few minutes. I can't see why he would say I am the guilty party to save Robertson. No doubt, my friend, has some reasonable suggestion. On the question of identification and on this question of the statement made by Woods on Davis's back, I would say Robertson is not guilty of the charge placed against him.

Prosecution - I want to be fair and impartial in this thing as possible. I don't know which one of the men it was. I don't suggest anyone is telling what is untrue. I would hesitate to suggest to the Court which one it was. I have my own opinion, perhaps I am incline to take the evidence of the others. Perhaps the charge under Section 40 is less than under Section 8. I leave it entirely to the Court.

Defence Counsel - In view of that very fair statement, there is a reasonable doubt in my friend's mind. I must, therefore, ask that the charge be dismissed.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Address in Mitigation by the Defending Officer

Tpr Robertson is charged with and has pleaded guilty to this charge of taking a veh without authorization. In mitigation I would remind you of the statements of his officer, his Sgt and his Cpl. These are only a cross section of the statements we could have obtained. It is found in general that he is thought of very highly and is respected as a soldier. Further in mitigation I would point out that evening, and on his evidence and evidence of the witnesses in the summary he had a great deal to drink. A veh contrary to regulations was left outside H mess, which is very close to the Cat Inn, and was not immobilized. I suggest that the temptation was very strong indeed and that some of the responsibility for this crime could equally well be shared by the dvr or offr in charge of this veh, particularly since the veh was not immobilized. He is a young man and a volunteer and has been in the army for 3 yrs and 6 months and during that time he has been charged only four times and only once since coming to England. The point I am trying to make is that Robertson is not a habitual offender, he is not a criminal from a military point of view, he made a mistake any soldier is likely to make by yielding to temptation. I submit that the punishment in this case should be as lenient as possible and it will serve its purpose as far as Robertson is concerned quite effectively. He is a good soldier who has slipped once and I think should be given a second opportunity to prove his worth.

STATES:- I left camp at about 1900 hrs 2 Dec 43 and started walking towards "Cat" pub. I was picked up by a D.R. who brought me almost to the ~~camp~~ "Cat" pub. I went into the "Cat" and had a few drinks, then after finding out there was no bus for East Grinstead I went to "B" Mess and took a vehicle. 8 cwt. I drove to East Grinstead and parked the truck on some side street, went to a pub and had a few more drinks. I left the pub and met some of the boys on the street. One of the boys and I went back into the pub and had a few more drinks. We both left the pub and went to the hospital where there was a dance. We stayed at the dance, had a few dances and some more beer. The boys I met ~~at the party and on the street~~ were Birch, Shirt, ~~and~~ Ferguson and Royle. When I left the dance I went and got the truck and took Birch Shirt and Ferguson and started for home. Shortly after leaving the dance I smashed up. I think I must have had too much to drink and may have been travelling faster than I realized and could not make the corner. As a result of the accident I got a bump on the left forehead and skinned the left leg. I was a bit dazed with the knock on the head. ~~After the accident I walked back to the camp with Shirt arriving there early next the morning.~~ III - I have read over the above statement and it is true.

RE: ACCIDENT ON 3 DEC 43 AT EAST GRINSTEAD INVOLVING W.D. VEHICLE NO CZ-4209324, FORD V-8, 8 Cwt., SERIAL NO 40. WHITE ON BLACK. FORMATION SIGN, GREEN & DARK WITH GOLD MAPLE LEAF. ON CHARGE TO H.T. SECTION, 4 CDN ARM'D DIV., H.Q.

Sir:

1. On 3 Dec 43 at approximately 0410 hours a telephone call was received at this office from East Grinstead Civil Police Station. The call was to the effect that a Cdn Vehicle had been involved in an accident at the junction of SHIP STREET and DUNNINGS ROAD, EAST GRINSTEAD, and the vehicle was left unattended and in a dangerous position. The civil police asked for assistance in having the vehicle removed to a safer position. In view of this request I detailed K.97751 Cpl. AVERY, D.S. to proceed to the scene and ascertain whether or not the vehicle could be moved. On his arrival he learned that the vehicle could only be moved by an L.A.D. Breakdown Lorry as the front wheel and spring was broken and the vehicle would have to be hoisted. As the vehicle could not be moved, traffic lamps were placed around it to warn traffic and pedestrians.

2. At approximately 0 400 hours, 3 Dec 43 I proceeded to the scene of the accident and after inspecting the vehicle, I phoned the H.T. Section, 4 Cdn Arm'd Div and made enquiries concerning the m/n vehicle and learned from C.92035 C.S.M. ROY, H.S. that the vehicle was on charge to his unit. I informed him of the condition and location of the vehicle and requested that he call for the vehicle at the earliest possible time. I then returned to the scene of the accident with a view of ascertaining how the accident had occurred.

3. Judging from the position of the vehicle and the tracks on the road, apparently it had been proceeding down SHIP STREET at a terrific rate of speed and when it approached the intersection of DUNNINGS ROAD it failed to make the curve and collided into a brick wall approximately 3 feet in height and 2 feet in width. It ran along the wall for a distance of approximately 15 feet, then about turned and slide across the road, finally resting on the sidewalk 30 feet from the point of impact and facing in the direction it had come from.

4. The tracks mentioned above were not skid marks but that of a tire gripping into a frost road in making a curve. To the best of my knowledge, judging the road, the driver did not apply brakes. The road at this point is approximately 18 feet wide, and the surface is first class. The brick wall had several blocks of concrete knocked out and for a distance of

6. As it would be some time before the evacuation of the vehicle would take place I returned to my section H.Q. and waited until approximately 1100 hours when I again patrolled to the scene of the accident. On my arrival there I found C.S.M. HOY, 1/c Transport, 4 Cdn Arm'd Div, Capt. Philips, A/Adjutant, H.Q. Squadron, 4 C.A.D., and a group of personnel from the M.T. Section. I interviewed C.S.M. Hoy and learned that the driver of the vehicle concerned, Tpr. DASTI No B.118241, Batman-Driver for Major O'NEILL, R.C. Padre, had left his vehicle parked in a mobile condition in front of the CAT INN, WEST HOATHLEY at 2100 hours, 2 Dec 43 and when he came out for his vehicle at approximately 2145 hours, he found same gone. C.S.M. Hoy further stated that the driver had reported the loss of his vehicle at approximately 2200 hours and a search of unit lines failed to find the vehicle.

8. I then interviewed Capt. Philips who stated that he knew nothing of the vehicle until it was reported to him by the M.T. Section and that he was present at the scene to obtain the necessary particulars of the accident.

7. As no one present knew the name of the person who had driven the truck and had been involved in the accident, I decided to search the vehicle. In the cab I found a black beret cap but there were no markings on it at all. Also a pair of drivers gauntletswith the number 264 on the inside of each cuff. I then inspected the rear of the vehicle and found blood marks right at the end of the tail gate and on the sidewalk. The position of the blood marks would make one think that someone had been riding in the back of the truck. The log book and work ticket were found and S/T showed the vehicle was not authorized to be on the road.

8. Whilst I was examining the vehicle, Capt. Philips made enquiries as to the ownership of the brick wall that was damaged and learned that same was the property of Mr. WRIGHT, A.C., 'The Croft', Dunnings Road, East Grinstead. Capt. Philips obtained a statement from Mr. Wright but there was nothing in the statement that would point out who had been driving the vehicle or how the accident occurred. Mr. Wright stated that he heard a crash, came outside, saw the vehicle and then returned inside.

9. I detailed K.97781 Cpl. AVERY, D.S. to patrol to the Civil Police Station and phone all hospitals and F.D.S in the area with a view of learning if anyone had been admitted or treated for cuts and abrasions. Cpl. Avery returned and reported that all hospitals and F.D.S. had been contacted and they stated that no one had been admitted or treated during the night.

10. As there was little or nothing more that we could do in this connection, I informed Capt. Philips that I would submit a report stating what information I had obtained and returned to my section H.Q. I also informed Capt. Philips to notify the claims office at once.

On 3 Dec 43 I arrived in East Grinstead with C58308 Tpr M.H Ferguson, and K37641 Tpr M.L Sherk at about 1930 hrs. The three of us went to a pub and had several drinks and became feeling good. Then we walked to the dance and there met D20129 Tpr J.C Robertson. He also appeared to be under the influence of liquor. We then tried to enjoy ourselves at the dance but we got fed up. During this time we had several more drinks. Then we all agreed to go home and Tpr Robertson said he would give us a ride home in the truck he had outside. We went outside and Tpr Ferguson and myself got in the back, Tpr Robertson and Tpr Sherk got in the front; Tpr Robertson drove. We had'nt gone far before I felt the truck begin to sway. The next thing I knew I felt myself coming out of a daze caused by an accident to the vehicle. I then got out of the truck to see if anyone was seriously hurt but no one was. Then Tpr Sherk and I proceeded to walk back to camp where we arrived early in the morning.

The evidence having been read to him the witness does not desire to make any alteration.

K37641 Tpr M.L. Shenk, HQ Sqn 4 C.A.D., having been duly sworn states,

On 3 Dec 43 I was at a dance at East Grinstead in company with K37765 Tpr Birch, E.D and C58308 Tpr M.H. Ferguson. At approximately 2200 hrs we arrived at the dance from the pub after having had quite a few drinks. There we met D26129 Tpr J.E. Robertson, and had a few more drinks with him in the dance hall. After a little while we decided to go home as the party was pretty dull. D26129 Tpr J.E. Robertson then said he had a car outside and would take us home. I sat in front and Tpr Birch and Tpr Ferguson sat in the back of the truck which was an 8 cwt. On the way home we had an accident but no one appeared to be hurt other than being shaken. At the time I was fairly drunk and shaken and was not very observant. I lost my hat in the accident. Then Tpr Birch and I walked home.

On his evidence being read to him the witness does not desire to make any alteration.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

No. D26129 Pfc. Robertson T.E.

of H 3C A.C.R.U

Station Field

Date March 31/44

Statement E-3.

In Mitigation of Sentence.

I D 26124 Trooper Lynwood Eddy Robertson states as follows:-

I came to 3 C.A.C.R.U. Jan 31st 44. I had last had a leave on 8 Nov 43 and I applied for a leave to commence March 15th as a young lady in the A.T.S. whom I expect to marry was getting her leave on that date. In the meantime I was employed on a gunnery course.

About March 2nd I received a letter from a woman I had once known accusing me of causing her pregnancy. I was positive that I was not responsible and I was most anxious that no knowledge of the situation come to the notice of my fiancée in the A.T.S. I therefore arranged for a friend of mine to do maintenance on my guns on Saturday morning and tried to obtain a 48 hour leave for the weekend. I found that I was unable to get leave because I was on course and it was not possible to get away Sunday because our squadron had a compulsory church parade on that Sunday. I had been in the C.A.C.R.O. only a few weeks and I did not know any officer well enough to approach about this situation. I therefore decided to go to London without leave in order to see this woman.

I went to London and was able to convince the woman who had written me, that I was not responsible. My situation then was that if I returned to the C.A.C.R.O. I could expect that I would not be granted leave on March 15th. I was most anxious to have this leave with my fiancé and felt that I could not carry on unless I saw her. I therefore remained away until my fiancés leave was ended when I returned to the C.A.C. R.O. and surrendered myself.

I enlisted in June 1940 and came overseas with the Grenadier Guards in October 1942, employed as a Driver Mechanic. In December 1942 I was transferred to H.Q. Sqn. 4 C.A. Div. and while employed Have obtained the trade qualification of Operator C.A.C.

In respect to my crime sheet I would like to say that my last previous offense, of taking a car, occured while I was under the influence of liquor.

I am very anxious to return to a field squadron and feel, with the trade qualification I have obtained, that I can have a good future in the army.

I am twenty-one years of age.

Signed.

Q. 7 Will you tell the Court in your own words the events of the evening Tuesday 15 Dec. 42?
A. 7 On the evening of 15th December which had been pay day, at tatoo I did my usual routine of calling the hut orderly into my cubicle to make the usual alterations in the roll call of the departures and new arrivals and then as usual I took a stroll up and down the hut to make sure that everybody was present. Pte. Robertson's bed was not even made down ready for sleeping in and his equipment was still piled on his bed and I assumed that he had a late pass and I did not check up any further. I went to the orderly room to turn in my report and in checking up on the passes, found out that he hadn't any, so thinking he might be around somewhere, I turned in my report without reporting him absent. The moment I got back to the hut I checked all over and he was not around, so I made the hut orderly notice that he was absent and the next morning I took it up with the Sgt. Major and he told me to report him absent from the time I was sure he was. That morning I got up very early and I noticed that Pte. Robertson's bed had not been slept in and the equipment still laid out as it was the evening before and I brought this to the attention of the hut orderly. The next time I saw Pte. Robertson was about 1000 hours the 16th December. As I walked into the hut, he was just coming back from the washroom with a towel in his hand. When I asked him what he had been doing, he answered me, "How did I know I was going to get drunk", and then I told him I was going back to the orderly room to report him present. Both reports of absence and presence were made to Sgt. Formos."

PROSECUTOR:

Q. 8 Do you recognize the accused Pte. Robertson in this room?
A. 8 Yes sir, pointing to accused.

DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q. 9 When did you check ~~the~~ to find out if Pte. Robertson had a pass?
A. 9 Between 10 and quarter past ten when I turned in my Tattoo Report.
Q. 10 Did you still turn in a report showing him present?
A. 10 Yes sir.
Q. 11 Did you look anywhere other than in that hut?
A. 11 No sir, not that evening.

(C.Q.M.S. Rochette was duly sworn as interpreter as Pte., Perrault could not speak English)

Q. 12 What is your number, name, and rank?
A. 12 A. Perrault, D.128545, Private.
Q. 13 Ask him to tell the Court anything he knows concerning this case?
A. 13 I am in room 29 and I take a report of all men who come in and go out and hand it into the Corporal at 2200 hours each night, and that night the corporal pointed out that the bed of Pte. Robertson had not been slept in. The next morning the Corporal indicated to me that the bed had still not been slept in and I saw this to be so."

A. 14 Between 0630 and 0645 hours.

A. 17 I do not remember where I was in the hut but the Corporal brought me over to show me that the bed was not made down.

_____ Pte.
(A. PERRAULT)

DEFENDING OFFICER:
At this point I submit that the prosecution have not made out a case against this man as charged. He is charged on the Charge Sheet as absenting himself without leave from Martinique Barracks and we have no evidence to show that he absented himself from Martinique Barracks.

PROSECUTOR:
The circumstances surrounding this case are such that I don't know whether they should be brought to the attention of the Court, but the man wouldn't take the Colonel's punishment as he had been with the Colonel's unit. As such the point brought up by the defence must stand.

PRESIDENT:
In that case we are prepared to acquit the accused under R.P. 40 in that the charge as laid has not been proven.

THE COURT CLOSED AT 1530 HOURS.

A. empty. I expected that he might have a late leave pass so checked the pass book at the orderly room, there was no pass shown. Instead of showing him absent I handed in a report of present thinking him about somewhere. I went back to the hut and checked but did not find him, I then spoke to the hut orderly Pte. Perreault. At 0645 hours, 16 Dec. 42, I checked Pte. Robertson's bed and found that it had not been slept in. At 0800 hours I went back to the hut and watched with Pte. Perreault until the main No. 2 Company parade had [illegible] and there was no sign of the accused. Next I reported the absence to S.M. McAdam after morning parade at approximately 0900 hours and then reported the absence to Sgt. Formoe, orderly room Sgt. of No. 2 Company.
About 1000 hours in course of my duties I returned to hut 29-E and found that Pte. Robertson had returned. I asked Pte. Robertson why he had not come back in time and he replied "Did I know I was going to get drunk."
I then reported Pte. Robertson's return to Sgt. Formoe at the Company Orderly Room.
On Thursday, 17 Dec. 42, Pte. Robertson was paraded before Capt. McColm, his Company Commander and at this time he stated in this connection "True I have not slept in my bed but I was on the parade at 0800 hours."

On Tuesday night 15 Dec. 42, I gave this list to Cpl. Savigny and he checked the beds, I stayed with him while this was being done and saw Pte. Robertson was not in his bed.
I got up at 0630 hours on Wednesday 16 Dec. 42, and Pte. Robertson was not in his bed at that time.

Statement in reference to the charge and in Mitigation o f Punishment in the trial of B33249 Sigmn Robertson, J.S.

Sir.

I wish to make to the court a few statements in reference to the charge and in mitigation of punishment. Although I have known the accused only since May 8th, as his Section Officer, I have x, at his request investigated fairly deeply into his personal problems, and for my own satisfaction, sounded out several men and NCO's of his Unit in order to get a broad view of his conduct, and difficulties.

The whole story is so complicated that I can touch on only a few salient features. One fact however prevades every aspect of the story, namely that Signalman Robertson was x before the time xxxx of his going AWL and has been since, up to the present time under a strain of worry brought about by his social relations, financial relations, and by the personalities involved, which is sufficient to crack down the judgement and the will xx of a strong man. It is not our position here to judge his social conduct, and we do not know how strongly he may have been lead astray, but we must consider the force of these circumstances upon his actions, and the weight of his worries upon his reason. Further we must consider the effects upon the personalities involved, of a severe punishment and of a loss of xxx.pay.

Signalman R. is a married man with a wife in Canada, and a baby daughter whom he has never seen. To be harshly brief, his troubles involve a second woman in London England. Robertson has been AWL more than once to go to London to see this xxxxx girl. Previously to the final time for which he is now on charge, his absences without leave were at first short, and taken more or less deliberately at the cost of minor punishment. Later as he became more involved, they were longer, and punishments more severe. It was before the last time of AWL however that he learned from this girl that as a result of their xxxxxxx relations she was going to have a baby. In her distress, the girl sent R. urgent phone calls and letters requesting him to come to London. At the same time he got letters from home stating that his mother was not well and was greatly worried over his relations with this London girl. Robertson's record being none to good and always held against him, he was unable to get many passes to go to London. Money was required, and more would be required to pay doctor and hospital bills. The girl who lives with her sister and mother is not well off. Furthermore she was forced to stop work on account of her condition. At this time, Robertson was in a state of great mental stress. Ordinarily, the fact that ax man comes from a good family does not have much bearing on a case of AWL, but in this case YES for it added to his worry to think of the shock to his mother, and it magnified the gravity of his plight in his own mind. I submit reference of character written fo r and as directed by Capt Otter, Senior Officer Canadian YMCA Overseas xxxxxx by W.J.D. Macdiarmid in the absence of the formen due to sickness. Capt Otter was quite thoroughly familiar with the case.

(read the reference)

(H)

Signalman Ris father was a minister and well known to Capt Banfster the Padre of Canadian Corps Signals.

Through Capt Otter of the YMCA Robertson received money from home, which he kept for a considerable length of tiem. F nally he went AWL with the intention of giving xxxx the money to the girl. Actually in his distress, he merely wandered about London, in a xxxxxx depressed state, and ended up in Nottingham where he surrendered himself.

This was away back on the 28th of January when he gave himself up. In the four months which follow his record has been clean. This four months has been spent in and out of hospitals for a bewildering number of ailments, and in open and close arrest. Once he was sent to a Neurological hospital, for advice as well as examination, and for a time he was in the 1 Cdn Signals Reinforcement Unit From these various hospitals and from the Reinforcement Unit he was granted several passes, after explaining his troubles to the Officers concerned. The fact that he got the passes bears witness to the fact that other officers appreciated the stress under which he laboured and the value to be gained by giving him this priviledge.

Naturally I can not submit proof of all these statements without going into ax great details, and I merely submit them as the story as I know it having a bearing on the charge.

I have talked to Capt Bannister our Padre, who is acquainted with the case, and who knew Robertsons Father, I have talked to Mr Macdiarmid. I have had a private interview with the Sister of the girl, and I have it dierctly from her that she and her sister and mother are in financial difficulties even now before the baby has been borh, and that they expect Robertson to hel p. Already the sister is behind some twenty pounds xx with her income tax.

What ever the punishment awarded to Robertson today, he is left with these problems to solve. I would urge however that the punishment be made as light as possible from a financial point of view, nad from a human and enlightened point of view.

Finally I wish to make a recommendation that Signalman Robertson be transferred to 1 Cdn Signals Holding Unit as an instructor in wireless and operating. While at the holding unit he was used as such and so far as I know proved [illegible]

I certify that the above is correct to the best of my knowledge

Family History-Mother alive--age 66-varicose veins and losing her vision, "Brights Disease". Father dead-53--(1930)--"heart failure". Siblings-1 dead in infancy.

No family history of Tbc., Cancer, or allergic disease. Says that his mother has been hospitalized several times for "nervous breakdown". Insanity in one grand uncle, with alcoholism. No history of jail records or fits.

Personal History--Born Toronto Ont. 1915, of Scotch Canadian parentage.

School-Completed High School ate age 19, and one year later took one year of Shaws Business Course. In elementary school was an average student, mixed well and played games. In 4th year high school he "got in with a faster crowd" started going out nights and playing hockey from school. Just managed to pass the grade, and similary in his fifth year of high school . On leaving high school he went, by his own desire to Manlins Military College, Syracuse, a training school for West Point and universities. Passed the academic subjects, but had Walter Hagen's son for a roo-mate as a result of which "discipline didn't mean a thing"--just like a one year vacation?

Returned to Toronto and went to Shaw Business College, passed out with a good grade, then went to work in Toronto General Trusts for 1yrs. saw no future in it, started a Commercial Radio Course, one year, passed ou with a good grade, 1938.

Work-First job was with the Toronto General Trust, did well there, but saw no future in it and quit at the end of a year and a half, with a good recommendation. Following the radio course there was an interval of about 2-3 monthsduring which time he looked around for a suitable opening, rejected by the Air Force because of his legs,and finally enlisted in the Signals in Sept. 39.

States that when he enlisted he was well qualified for wireless and liked it very well. Given the choice of line work or wireless work in the corps, he chose wireless, but was put on line work, and kept on it ever since. He finds the work very monotonous, being mor interested in wireless, and has not had enough work to keep him busy--estimated one week of real work in two months. He has repratedly tried to transfer to wireless work, but unsuccessfully. Has always been credited as being a operator, and recently worked as an instructor in the holding unit.

Crime sheet was clear for the first 6 months in the army. Since then he has had 10 crimes, all A.W.L., from 1 -11 days. States that every time he has gone A.W.L. he has asked for leave first and only went A.W.L. when it has not been granted. He has had only 2 or 3 A.W.L.'s in the last year. He has done detention twice--10 and 28 days. At present he is possibly facing a court-martial for his last A.W.L.

Marital-Married 1939, age 24, to a girl age 21, that he had known for 12yrs., against the wishes of both familys. Wife alive and well,. one child age 2. Married three months before coming overseas, and has never seen his child. States that his marriage was a happy one, but that one year ago he met an English girl with whom he went steadily, and about three months ago she notified him that she was pregnant. States that he does not intend to doge his responsibilities, and the situation, therefor, has given him a lot of worry lately.

Social-Has always been a good mixer--sometimes "too good"--has smoked moderately, heavier recently. Drinks very little, and none of his A.W.L.'s have been associated with alcohol. His hobby is radio, had an amateur station that he built in Canada.

Family-Mother has not been well for last 12 yrs., since his father died. She has had Brights Disease and failing vision. Prior to that she was i n good health, and was not nervous. His father was an Ed- M.D. and D.D. taught treology at McGill, and when he died he was the General Secretary of the Board of Religious Education of Canada. He was one of the founders of the United Church. (Rev. Dr. J.C. Robertson).

Pt. states that his father was his ideal, and left nothing to be desired as a parent. His home life was a very happy one up till the time of his father's death 12 yrs. ago, since then it has been somewhat strained as he has been"on the loose" more than his mother liked, although his ties with his mother still hold.

Functional His tory

Eyes--some blurring at the movies recently.

ENT--neg. Resp-neg. Cv.-neg. G.I.- neg. G.U.-neg.G.C. 1936-otherwise negative. CNS--In the last month has had severe right sided headaches, assoc. with "little coloured spots" before his eyes, and followed by vomiting. Usually start in the evening and keep him awake all night.

Skin-neg. (Impetigo and scabis 2 weeks ago).

On examination this patient seemed of higher than average in intelligence. His general appearance, motor activity, speech and thought content appeared normal. He has an open and frank personality, and has good insight.

Routing physical examination revealed dental carus x2. The head and neck thorax and abdomen were otherwise negative. There is a fresh healed linear scar in back injuial area (venous ligation) with satisfactory thrombosis in the superfical veins of both legs, extending down to the lower third of the leg on each side. There is moderate tenderness overlying the thrombosed veins in the region of the knee. Physical examination otherwise negative.

Neurological exam -was negative.

Summary: --A 27 year old man whose hereditry and environmental background are fair. At about high school age he showed tendencies of an agressive and impulsive nature, but was otherwise stable, and successfully completed his education in business college and wireless work.

Since enlistment his ambitions and capacity for work have consistantly met frustration, mainly due to the experiences of the service. For the first six months in the army his crime sheet remained blank, but since that time he had had ten A.W.L.s unassociated with alcohol or with other crimes. It is noted that in the last year he has had only two A.W.L.s

At the present time he has the additional worry of an impending illegitimate offspring, and he has been for some time deeply dissatisfied with his work. His insight is good, and he serves the blame for his present situation on no one but himself.

He also presents, as minor complaints, a history of recent headaches that are fairly typical of migraine, and some vague visual disturbances and both of these would appear to have been precipated in part at least, by his recent worries.

It is my impression that this patient's present situation is the result of maladjustment in an aggressive and impulsive personality. I believe that he can be used to good purpose, but that is not likely in his present position station. He is anxious to transfer to the merchant navy, as a wireless operator, for which he is best suited by training, and it is my impression that nothing short of this or equivalent transfer will settle this problem.

Capt. C.E. Gould

Impression- (1) Mental Instability. (2). Migraine.

17 April 42 -Agree with above. This man's agressive determined, and restless characteristics are mild and within an average range, so that I do not think he should be designated as psychopathic. Transfer and careful rehabilitation are very necessary. Suggest that he be interviewed by a member of the Portsmouth Selection Board re. details of possible transfer.

J.C.R.

By Col. H.M. Hyland
20/4/42 -Pt. states that the real reason he went A.W.L. so much was to see the English girl. Although the work he was doing was not his preference yet he denies that it upset him in any way. He now regrets that he has such a bad crime sheet but at the times he went A.W.L. it seemed worth while to do so. He has been in a vicious circle recently because he can't get leave having been A.W.L., so goes A.W.L. etc. The past record does not indicate any anticsicial tendencies and I agree we cannot diagnoise a psychotic personality. His judgement is rather poor however and he is impulsive in his behaviour. It will certainly be helpful if a transfer can be arranged but his previous record is likely to interfere. He apparantly went over the head of an officer in his unit in requesting transfer and has made his position more difficult as a consequence.

I think we will have to send him back to face punishment as N.A.D. (psychiatric).

Lt. Col.H.M. Hyland.

20 April 42--In the summer of 1935 for a period of about two months, while acting as M.O. at Y.M.C.A. camp in Ontario I knew this man, who who was of the boys at the camp acting as a Junior leader. As I remember him he was a pleasant, impulsive, unreliable sort of youth, who had a good deal of ability in many directions, but never utilized it because of lack of ambition or fixity of interest. He frequently go into mild "scrapes" due largely to his impulsiveness, and had at least one episode of the same as a military A.W.L. He was a good worker when available but seemed completely unreliable unless under mor or less continuous-surviliance, as he might disappear to pursue some idea or pleasure of his own on completion of the immediate taid rather than follow the routine , ~~rather than~~ of the camp which the other boys did. To my knowledge he was never harmful or a bad influence in any way other than by his unreliability, impetuousness,and thoughtless independence.

A.C.R. M'Conigle Capt.

Final Note:
27 April 42-Nothing further can be done here to help this man in his present predicament. His lack of judgment has been explained to him, but with what result is problematical. A letter will be written to the Personnel Selection Board (Copy to Unit) re. transfer.

He is being returned to the Holding Unit, and it is suggested that he be given a day or two of leave from the Holding Unit to give him a chance to try and straighten out some of his tangled affairs, as he is returning to a charge in his unit.

Plea in Mitigation in the case of M 100919 Cfn ROBERTSON L C

The accused is 28 years old and married.
He joined up in Canada approx June 1942 and came overseas, to England in July 1943.
He is a blacksmith in the RCEME
He came to France with his unit towards the end of June 1944 and served with them continuously until 2 Jan 45.
In the latter part of November when his unit was at Fort 4 outside Antwerp the accused one night got involved in a fight with two other Cfn from his own unit and some other soldiers. They had all been drinking. The CSM from the Wksps entered and placed the three of them under arrest. The next day the CSM had the three of them paraded before him with their hats off in front of the remainder of the unit and reprimanded them in fron t ot the other men and ordered them to be confined to barracks for three days. Since this time the accused has always been in trouble with the CSM and eventually went absent.
The accused wishes at the conclusion of his punishment to drop his trades pay and go to the infantry or if he is needed as a tradesman and this is not possible he wishes to go to any other workshop but not 2 Cdn Adv B Wksp.
As the accused has a practically clean crime sheet and this is his first serious offence of any kind and as further he went a-absent from a base unit and not from the line I ask that the court see fit to award a mimimum sentence.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No.(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Plea in mitigation in the case of M100 919 Cfn ROBERTSON, L.C.

The accused is 28 years old and married.

He joined up in Canada approx June 1942 and came overseas to England in July 1943.

He is a blacksmith in the RCEME

He came to France with his unit towards the end of June 1944 and served with them continuously until 2 Jan 45

For the latter part of November when his unit was at Fort 4 outside Antwerp the accused one night got involved in a fight with ~~one~~ two other Cfn from his own unit and some other soldiers. They had all been drinking. The CSM from the Workshops entered and placed the three of them under arrest. The next day the CSM had the three of them paraded before him with their hats off in front of the remainder of ~~the unit of~~ the unit and reprimanded them in front of the other men and ordered them to be confined to barracks for three days. Since this time the accused has always been in trouble with the CSM and eventually went absent.

The accused wishes at the conclusion of his punishment to drop his tradesmans pay and go to the infantry or if he is needed as a tradesman and this is not possible he wishes to go to any other workshop but not 2 Cdn Adv Base Wksp.

As the accused has ~~no conduct sheet~~ a practically clean crime sheet and this is his first ~~crime~~ offence of any kind and as further he went absent from a base unit and not from the line I ask that the court see fit to award a minimum sentence.

I applied for a compassionate bus pass on 7th May and got it. My wife went in to the hospital on 8th May. She came out of hospital the same day but on Sunday she got worse. My pass expired at 2359 hrs the same day. I could not have left and I sent a priority telegram on Monday morning asking for an extension of a 48 hours. (Exhibit C) I did not get a reply, but I received news that the extension was granted. The doctor said that my wife could not be left alone. I sent a letter to the C.O. of "A" Coy explaining my absence Exhibit D. I got no reply to this letter. The doctor gave me a letter to send me to draw rations. Then I wrote another letter to the C.O. of "A" Coy enclosing a doctor certificate Exhibit "E". I got no reply to my second letter.

Later on I received a letter from the C.O. "A" Coy Later and picked me up. Just before he called, my wife fainted and I came down stairs and gave my self up. I being ill took over the certificate from Dr. Shaw and a letter from the Field Officer. I gave them to the Corporal of Kamloops Det. but I've not seen them since.
The civilian doctor told me that his certificate would explain my absence.
I do not know as Exhibits "C", "D" & "F" were passed in to the Court Orderly Room by my defending officer.

Cross-examination

5 people live in the same house as I do. I did not make any attempt to return when my additional extension had expired. It would take about an hour to get to 5 C.I.R.H. from where I live. I never intended to stay away without permission. When I did not hear from my C.O. I came to the conclusion that they were satisfied with my explanation for my absence.

Re-examination

The doctor said my wife could not be left alone. I could not get any one to look after the home. I could not afford to get any one. No 5 C.I.R.H. knows what my address was and I was always available. I thought they were satisfied when I did not hear from them.

The Prosecutor makes a final address (attached hereto)

The defending officer makes a closing address. (attached hereto)

The Court is closed for consideration & finding

The Court is re-opened and the accused is pronounced
"Not Guilty".

Address by Lieut O.H. Lenthall made on behalf of His Excellency, Lord Harry #C-5641 Hunting and Miss Edward Pigment on the strength of #5 Case by Court Mart. to order of the Army Bureau, in connection with a charge laid against him for absenting himself without leave.

I would like to point out to the Court that during the 28 days of the accused's absence he made repeated attempts to get in touch with his O.C. without success. During all this time he received the same address and no attempt was made by the authorities to enquire in any things they were aware of his whereabouts. The prosecutor stated that the accused could have employed the services of someone to communicate his wife which he returned to his Unit. Putting ourselves in his place I am sure that perhaps we would act similarly to him, if we too were suffering from a degree of mental anguish if our wife were seriously ill. I don't believe that for the purposes of discipline anything will be achieved by punishing this weak for this offence but rather that discipline will be lost when he has made every effort to carry out his duty properly.

Taking of Evidence in the case of:

A-21407 Pte. Lyle Harmon ROBERTSON,
H.Q., 4 Cdn Inf Bde., C.A.(A.F.)

1st Witness for the Prosecution., Pte. Pickering, H.Q., 4 Cdn Inf Bde., having been duly sworn, states:

Question: Tell your story, in your own words, what you know about the loss of your cigarettes.

Answer: On the afternoon of 24th of December last, at about 1500 hrs I received nine hundred cigarettes in three cartons of three hundred each.

Question: Can you identify this carton as one of the ones you received?

Answer: Yes, sir; that is one of them.

Question: Continue with your story.

Answer: I placed the cigarettes on my bed and covered them with a sweater. Pte. Foote was in the room at the time, and said that he would be in the room all the time, that he was not going out, and that he would watch my cigarettes. I went out and came back in about five o'clock, there was no one in the hut, and one packet (carton) of cigarettes was missing. In about fifteen minutes Ptes. Foot, Beckerton, and Chrisner came into the hut. I said that one carton of cigarettes was missing, so Pte. Foote said only oneother man was in the hut. That was Robertson. So we went through his kit-bag. We found there was a fatigue jacket on top of the carton. I told him not to touch the cigarettes, and went to report it to CSM Nettleton.

Question: Where is your bed?

Answer: It was two beds from the accused's bed, sir.

Question: What happened after you reported it?

Answer: It was then that he came in.

Question: Do you know anything else?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: Since that time has the accused said anything to you about the cigarettes?

Answer: No, sir.

Cross-Examined by the Defending Officer.

Question: Where were you when you got the cigarettes?

Answer: They were given to me at the Sergeant's Mess.

Question: Was the accused present at the time?

Anser: Yes, sir.

Question: Did he make any comments?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: Nothing about it being a wonderful Christmas, and about Sanat Claus being very good?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: Is this the first case of cigarettes missing from that particular hut?

Answer: Pte. Robertson missed some cigarettes about ten days previous to this case of mine.

Question: Did you ever loan cigarettes to the accused?

Answer: Yes,sir.

Question: When did he pay you back?

Answer: On the twenty-fourth of December, at about noon.

Question: Did you ever loan any money to the accused?

Answer: No, sir; but there was a gambling debt that he paid back to me on the same day.

Question: On the day in question, was there any drinking about four o'clock

Answer: No, sir.

Question: Do you remember sharing a bottle of beer in your quarters?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: When you placed the cigarettes on the bed, how well did you cover them?

Answer: I just put the sweaterover them.

Question: Were the three cartons placed in such a manner as to form a small pile?

Answer: They were placed close together, and the cardigan just placed over them.

Question by the Court.

Question: When examined by the Prosecutor, you stated that you did not recall anyone being in the room. Was the accused in the hut?

Answer: There were three men in the hut at the time.

Question: What led you to go to Robertson's kit-bag?

Answer: Foote said that there was only one other man in the room, and so we went to that kit-bag.

Witness Retired.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution. Pte. Foote, C., being duly sworn, states.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Question: I understand that you are a member of H.Q., 4 Cdn Inf Bde. How are you employed?

Answer: I am a driver, sir.

Question: Do you know something about the circumstances of this case?

Answer: Yes, sir.

Question: Tell the Court what you know of it in your own words, and not just what you have heard others talking about.

Answer: On the afternoon of the twenty-fourth of December, Pte. Pickering came into the hut with three cartons of three hundred cigarettes. He asked me if I would look after them. He placed them on his bed, and put a brown sweater over them, and asked me to watch them for him. I went out with a small bucket to fill the coal bin. At that time Robertson was standing at the side of his bed. I went out for the coal, and when I came back in, he was away from his own bed, and standing between Pickering's and Bickerton's beds. He had nothing on him, by that I mean he only had a shirt on. He had been drinking, and I hadn't paid much attention to him. I went out for coal another two or three times, and when I came in the last time, he was gone. Around five o'clock I went for my supper. When I came back, Pte. Pickering was there, and he told me that three hundred cigarettes were missing. I went through Robertson's bed. We found the carton under a fatigue uniform in his kit-bag. Pte. Pickering said don't touch them, but leave them there; I'll see the Sgt. Major. The Sergeant major came in, and he told us that if Robertson came in, not to say anything to him. Later Captain Wilkinson, the Sergeant Major and Sergeant Thompson came down, and took the cigarettes out.

Question: Who took the cigarettes away?

Answer: Captain Wilkinson.

Question: Was anybody else in the room when the cigarettes were placed on the bed.

Answer: Pickering, Robertson, and myself, but I can't say definitely.

Question: On these trips you took to get coal, how long did you take?

Answer: About three minutes.

Question: How many times did you go for coal?

Answer: About three or four times, sir.

Question: Have you, since the cigarettes were missing, been talking to Pte. Robertson with regard to the cigarettes?

Answer: Not with regard to the cigarettes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Question: Where were you between five and six o'clock?

Answer: At five o'clock I went for my supper.

Question: And Pte. Pickering, too?

Answer: I can't say, sir.

Question: Had you seen him at the hut?

Answer: No.

Question: That was before you went to supper?

Answer: No, sir.

Question: At what time did the accused come into the room that afternoon?

Answer: Shortly after the pubs closed, at about two or two:thirty, sir.

Question: At about what time di he go out?

Answer: At about four o'clock, sir.

Question: How was he dressed?

Answer: I didn't see him go out sir,

Question: At what time did Pickering come in with the cigarettes?

Answer: About three o'clock, sir.

Question: How close is the Sergeant's Mess from your hut?

Answer: About fifteen or twenty feet, sir.

Question: Does the person in charge of the mail give the mail out at the Mess?

Answer: I can't say, sir.

Question: Was Pte. Pickering by himself?

Answer: Yes.

Question: Was Robertson present when Pickering came in?

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Question: Will you tell the Court in your own words your personal knowledge of this case, and not what you have heard others say.

Answer: On the afternoon of the twenty-fourth of December, I was driving in the petrol truck. I came into our hut just at about supper time, went for my supper, and when I returned, I had stopped to make out my work ticket, and when I came into the hut, they were discussing three hundred cigarettes that had been missing, and discovered in Robertson's bag. They found the cigarettes under a fatigue uniform, and Pte. Pickering left to get the C.S.M.

Answer: Yes, sir.

Question: Did the accused receive any cigarettes?

Answer: I am not sure. But I do know that he paid back some cigarettes.

5th Witness for the Prosecution, B-66552, CSM, Bettleton, T., H.Q., 4 Cdn Inf Bde., having been called and duly sworn, states:

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Question: Tell the court in your own words what you personally know of this case.

Answer: Sir. Atabout five o'clock on 24th of December, forty one, I was in the Sergeants Mess. I had just arrived after doing some shopping for the mess at Bde HQ, and I was called into the kitchen by the cook, who said that Pte. Pickering wanted to see me. I went into the kitchen, and Pickering reported to me that he had some cigarettes missing, so I went into their Nissen Hut and investigated. The nissen hut, sir, is about ten or twelve yards from the mess building, and in the hut was Ptes. Foote Beckerton and Chrisner. Pickering told me that he had received three cartons of three hundred cigarettes that day and had placed them on his bed, and asked Pte. Foote to keep an eye on them. Pte. Foote said that he had located the cigarettes in Pte. Robertson's kit bag. I asked him where Robertson's bed was, and he showed me. I noticed the kit bag, and found the cigarettes in the kit bag under some denim. I went back into the mess, had my supper, and then reported the matter to theStaff Captain at Brigade Headquarters. He in turn turned it over to Captain Wilkinson, and Captain wilkinson was told what I had been told. Captain Wilkinson jumped into his car, and we went back to the nissen hut. On the way we picked up Sgt. Thompson. When we got into the Nissen hut, we showed Captain Wilkinson where Robertson's kit bags were. I showed him how I had found the cigarettes, and he proceeded to take an inventory of the contents of the bag. He then closed the bag, and took the cigarettes away with him. I went then to the Sergeants Mess, and Captain Wilkinson went to the Officers Mess.

Question: When was the accused put in close arrest?

Answer: At about nine oclock on the twenty-fifth. TheStaff Captain phoned me at the Sergeants Mess, and told me to put Pte. Robertson under close arrest. I detailed the Orderly Corporal to find an escort and place him in close arrest. I then went down to Headquarters, and later I saw Pte. Robertson arrive in a truck with an escort, and he was placed in what served us as a guard room.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Question: Next morning, when you saw Pte. Robertson being placed in the Guard Room, did you have any conversation with him?

Answer: Yes, sir. Pte. Robertson got out of his truck, came to me and said "Why am I being placed in close arrest?" I told him that he would be told the nature of the charge later. He made the comment "I don't want to be sent to jail for something I have not done".

Witness Retired.

EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Question: What is your job at Brigade Headquarters?

Answer: I am Transport Sergeant.

Question: Tell the Court in your own words what you know of this case?

Answer: At about five fifteen Captain Wilkinson came into the Transport Office, and said something about missing cigarettes. He told me to go with him for we were going to the nissen hut. We looked at Pte. Robertson's kit bag, and I saw the carton of cigarettes with a fatigue uniform on them. I was told that the cigarettes belonged to Pickerling. (Identified exhibit.)

Question: During the course of the afternoon, did you see the accused?

Answer: Not until about five thirty, and then he came into the Office and stayed there until about ten after six. He was wanting to know what he would be doing with the water waggon laid up. I told him that I would probably be putting him on a 30-cwrt, and he said that he would like that.

Answer: Yes.

Question: How was the accused dressed?

Answer: He had a greatcoat, and no gaiters on at that time.

Question: He was there how long?

Answer: Until about six ten.

Question: Is there any communication between your office and Headquarters?

Answer: We are rightat H.Q. And there is no telephone communication.

Question: Is it possible to get communication from the hut to your office?

CASE FOR THE DEFENCE.

1st Witness for the defence, A-21407, Pte. Lyle Harmon ROBERTSON, H.Q., 4 Cdn Inf Bde., having been called and duly sworn, states:

EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Question: Tell your story to the Court.

Answer: I went to dinner with Chrisner, and shortly after dinner I had a wash. We went down to the pub to buy some beer. In the pub we met Beckerton and played darts. Then Chrisner and I caught a bus back to billets. Foote was in the billets, and then we went to the Sergeants' Mess and had a few drinks, and sang a few songs. Then Staff Sergeant Robison came in and ordered us out. Then we went back to our billets, and I went over and had a wash, and shave. Foote was bringing in some coal. He was the only one there. When I came back I went over to where the light was good to comb my hair, and I noticed the cigarettes were on the floor. I threw them over on my bed, and then when I went back to get dressed, I put them in my pack. Then I went ack to to my bed, got dressed, and caught a ride down to supper. I was kind of late for supper, and when I had a bite to eat, I went to see Sgt. Thompson in the Transport Office. I hadn't given the cigarettes to anybody, or told anybody about them, for there was no one around, and I was in a hurry and didn't want to miss the pass truck. I met Pte. Chrisner at Tunbridge Wells. We had a few drinks together, and he had a dance, and we came back on the pass truck together, and I went to bed. I had just got up the next morning when two guards came in and told me that I was under arrest. I was put in the guard room, and was then taken to The Royal Regiment of Canada.

THE CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — W.J. DAVEY, shop assistant, having been duly sworn, states:

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Will you tell us exactly what happened on the night of 22 Feb 41 in connection with this case?
A. On Saturday February 22, I was in Latty's on High St. in Redhill when two Canadian soldiers came in and asked me for shoe black and toilet soap and wine. I told them that we hadn't any of these articles. When they had left the shop, I found that the hospital box, which was tied round the till, was missing. I informed the proprietress, who informed the police.

Q. Do you recognize the accused as one of the two men in the store?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was it he who was later brought back into the store and you identified him?
A. Yes sir.

Questioned by the Defending Officer:-

Q. Had these two men been drinking?
A. I thought they had sir.

Q. You couldn't say for sure?
A. No sir.

Q. Was there any conversation while the men were in the shop?
A. They were talking to each other.

Q. Do you think that they came in deliberately to rob that box?
A. Yes I do. They were looking at it all the time and one put a penny in the box and as soon as they had gone the box was missing.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q. How long was it after the soldiers left the shop that you noticed the box had gone?
A. Right after they had gone.

Q. There was no chance of anyone else coming in?
A. No sir.

Q. Why did you want to get them out of the shop?
A. They were acting drunk and generally acting up.

Re-Examined by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. When you say acting drunk, did you mean that he was unable to walk or take care of himself or was he just feeling playful?
A. He was perfectly capable.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

John Hidout BOWLES, Detective Constable, Reigate Borough Police, having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on the night of 22 Feb 41 in connection with this case?
A. I was on duty at Redhill Police Station at 7:50 p.m. on Saturday, February 22, when in consequence of a telephone message received, I patrolled along London Road Redhill in company with Cpl. King and L/Cpl. McCardle of the R.C.M.P. In a road, known as Station Road, Redhill, I saw the prisoner, Robertson, accompanied by another soldier. We stopped them and I said to Robertson, "Have you been in to a confectionery shop just previously?" He replied, "No, we want to catch a bus to Bletchingley." I asked him to accompany me to the shop in question, which he did, also in company with two R.C.M.P.s. On the way I observed him make an attempt to get away but he was held back by one of the officers, L/Cpl. McCardle. From his condition I observed he had been drinking but in my opinion he was not drunk. As we entered the shop I heard money falling to the ground beneath Robertson and 9½d was recovered from the floor. I felt in his right overcoat pocket when inside the shop and found it to be full of money, which I later found to amount to 15s. comprising mostly pennies, half-pennies, farthings and a few sixpences. In consequence of what the shop assistant, John Davey, told me I caused the prisoner to be taken to Redhill Police Station by police car. His behaviour was then of a person drunk and incapable and he would neither speak nor stand up. At the Police Station he was searched and detained. The following morning, Sunday 23 Feb 41, at 10 a.m. I saw the prisoner and said to him, "It has been alleged that you went into a confectionery shop in High Street, Redhill, about 7:50 p.m. last evening and stole a hospital collecting box from the counter." He replied, "Yes sir, that's right." I then cautioned him and he made a statement which I took down in writing, read over to him, and which he signed in my presence. I made further enquiries in the course of the morning and at 1 p.m. the same day I again saw Robertson and charged him with the theft of the hospital box and contents amounting to 15s. 9½d. from the shop in question the previous evening. He replied, "I don't think there is anything more I have to say."

(A copy of signed statement which Detective-Const. Bowles took from Pte. Robertson was submitted as evidence by the Prosecuting Officer and is classed as Exhibit "B")

Q. Did you recover any liquor from Pte. Robertson?
A. In his possession was found one quart bottle Ruby wine full and another almost empty.

(The two bottles were submitted for evidence and are classed as Exhibit "A")

Q. You say that when you took Robertson into the store he became incapable. How did this come about?
A. It was very sudden sir.

Q. When it came over him did he have the usual symptoms of a man who passes out? Did he become unconscious?
A. We had to carry him and he didn't recover at all that night.

Q. Was he normal before this happened?
A. Yes sir, he was noisy but in possession of full faculties.

Questioned by the Defending Officer:-

Q. It appears that there was a second man with Pte. Robertson. Was this man standing with Robertson at the bus?
A. They were heading towards the bus.

Q. Was he placed under arrest?
A. He was asked to accompany us to the shop but he escaped.

Q. Did you have anything further to do with this man?
A. After seeing Robertson, I made enquiries at various Units in the locality but was unable to trace him. About 3 o'clock on the Sunday I did see the other soldier at Redhill Police Station.

Q. Why wasn't he arrested?
A. He was questioned by me and other officers and it appeared from the evidence that Robertson was the guilty party.

Q. Was Picketts an accomplice?
A. He was present throughout. He denied having any knowledge of the box until they got to the public lavatories. For that reason we gave him the benefit of the doubtand took proceedings against Robertson only.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q. When you questioned the accused on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, what condition was he in?
A. Perfectly sober sir.

Q. In spite of the fact that Robertson was allegedly drunk the night before, did he have full recollection of taking the box?
A. Yes sir.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

C.42013 Corporal King, A.W., No.1 Provost Coy. R.C.M.P., having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Will you tell us what you know about this case which happened on the night of 22 Feb 41?
A. On the night of 22 Feb 41 I was in charge of the Redhill-Reigate town patrol. At approximately 7:50 p.m. a telephone call was received by the Redhill Police to the effect that a hospital box had been stolen from 11 High Street, Redhill.

Accordingly, I accompanied Detective-Constable Bowles and L/Cpl. McCardle to investigate. As we approached the stop lights at Redhill we observed two soldiers approaching the intersection. We stopped these two soldiers and we were about to take them to 11 High Street to have them identified as the men alleged to have stolen this hospital box. On the way one of the soldiers escaped in the blackout. The other man, Pte. Robertson, was taken to 11 High Street and identified as one of the men who was alleged to have stolen the box. As we were entering the shop door, Pte. Robertson threw a small handful of pennies on the sidewalk. This was recovered by L/Cpl. McCardle.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q. You actually saw him throw this on the floor?
A. No sir. I didn't actually see the money leave his hand.

As we were in the store, he removed from his right hand pocket a bottle of wine, containing approximately five ounces. Inside his great coat we found a forty-ounce bottle of wine. In the great coat pocket we found a large quantity of pennies and silver. As we found this money the accused slipped to the floor and we were unable to question him any further. He was taken to the Redhill Police Station by L/Cpl. McCardle.

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. How many years have you been in the R.C.M.P.?
A. 15 years.

Q. What condition was Robertson in when you picked him up?
A. He had been drinking but was not drunk. He didn't stagger.

Q. Did you see this man make an attempt to escape?
A. No sir.

Q. Have you any idea how small the silver was?
A. It was just pennies, half-pennies, and six-penny pieces.

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q. Where is the money at the present time?
A. It was taken over by Detective-Constable Bowles.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

C.42019 L/Cpl. McCARDLE, J.E., No.1 Provost Coy. R.C.M.P., having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Will you tell us what happened on the night of 22 Feb 41 in relation to this case?
A. I was on duty stationed at the Redhill Police Station. At 1950 hrs. a telephone call was received at the Police Station that a charity box had been stolen from 11 High Street and that Canadian soldiers were responsible for it. Accompanied by Cpl. King and Detective-Constable Bowles of the Reigate Borough Police I proceeded down town towards 11 High Street. At the traffic lights we were stopped by two soldiers who wished to know where they could get the bus for Blatchingley. As one of these soldiers answered the description we received of the men who were in the store, they were asked to accompany us to High Street where the store was. At the Wheatsheaf Arms Hotel, one of the soldiers escaped. Robertson made an attempt but was stopped and taken to the store on High Street where he was identified as the soldier who was alleged to have taken the box. On the way into the store I found it necessary to let go of Robertson's arm. He put his hand in his pocket and he pulled out some money which he threw on the sidewalk. This money I subsequently recovered. It was a sixpence four half-pennies, a penny, and a farthing. In the right hand coat pocket there was a quart bottle of wine, containing approximately five ounces, and inside the great coat on the left hand side was a full bottle of wine. In his great coat pocket there was a sum of money, 15 shillings, made up of sixpennies, half-pennies and farthings. As I asked this man for his pay book, he fell on the floor and nothing could be got out of him. The police car came down and he was taken to the Redhill Police Station and turned over to the C.I.B. I retained the wine.

(L/Cpl. McCardle identifies the two bottles of wine)

Q. When you first took Pte. Robertson into custody, in what condition was he?
A. He had been drinking but knew what he was doing.

Q. He tried to get rid of that wine. In what way did he do this?
A. He asked to get rid of the wine.

Q. Was he quite capable of walking?
A. Yes sir.

Q. In your opinion he was in full possession of his faculties?
A. Yes sir.

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q. Did Robertson make a break to get away?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he at anytime offer any resistance?
A. No sir.

Q. When did he make the attempt to break away?
A. Not until after Pte. Picketts had gotten away.

5th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

L.2215 Pte. Picketts, L.J., 1 Cdn. Recce. Bn., having been duly sworn, states:

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on the night of 22 Feb 41 in connection with Robertson?
A. We left our billets at 1 o'clock and went to Bletchingley. We stayed there for half an hour. We went to Redhill. About 2:30 we bought a bottle of wine. We drank this wine and walked the streets. About 6 o'clock we bought another bottle of wine. We drank about half of it and knocked around. About 8 o'clock we went into a confectionery shop. I bought some gum. When I was getting my change, Robertson went outside. I joined him there and we went down to the public lavatories where he pulled out this box. We both went into a cubicle and opened it. He took the money and put it in his pocket. We left and went to the wine store again and bought another bottle of wine. We left there and just came out the door when some M.P.s and a plain clothes man stopped us.

Q. Did he give you any of the money?
A. No sir.

Q. What happened to the third bottle of wine?
A. We drank all of one and half of the other.

Q. Did you pool your money to buy your bottles of wine?
A. We already had money.

Q. When you were being escorted back by the police to 11 High Street, you broke away?
A. Yes sir.

Questioned by the Defending Officer:-

Q. Are you a friend of this man Robertson?
A. I have known him for about three months. This is the first time I was out with him.

Q. Would you say that Robertson was drunk?
A. Yes sir. He drank a lot more of the wine than I did.

Q. You went into the store and bought a package of gum. Did you see or notice Robertson's actions in there? You didn't see him steal the box?
A. No sir.

Q. Then you met him outside?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was there any conversation outside?
A. No sir.

Q. You say we went into the cubicle. Did you see him open the box?
A. We both opened it sir.

Q. Why didn't you take some of the money?

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE

There were no witnesses for the Defence.

Defending Officer:-

I wish to state in closing that I think this man should receive consideration, not only for his age which is rather young, but that I cannot bring myself to say that the crime was premeditated. I wish to bring forward that I think influence was exerted on this man by Picketts. There is something there and I believe Picketts does exert an influence on the Accused. These three things I would like the Court to consider when considering a verdict: The man's age, the fact that the crime was not premeditated and the fact that Picketts does exert an influence on the Accused.

Prosecuting Officer:-

When he found the money in his possession and went into the lavatory, broke the box open and put the money into his pocket and then walked up to a store, there certainly was time there to return it to the proper people.

The Case for the Defence is closed.

(THE COURT DELIBERATES)

There were no character witnesses produced by the Defence but the Defending Officer wished to give evidence as to character:-

During the time that I have been with the Accused, he proved perfectly satisfactory and didn't distinguish himself in any way except that he was a good soldier.

A Certified True Copy of the M.F.M.6 (Conduct Sheet) of the Accused is produced.

The Accused declines to make a statement.

On the way one of these soldiers escaped in the darkness. We took Pte. Robertson to the shop where he was identified as one of the soldiers who had been in the when the box was stolen. As we entered the shop doorway this man dropped a quantity of pennies on the sidewalk. When searched a large quantity of pennies and small silver was found, there was also a quart bottle of wine and another quart bottle containing a few ounces. Q. 3. Why then would a man slide to the floor?

A. 3. I don't know why, but before we entered the store you were very anxious to get rid of the two bottles of wine.

C 42013 Cpl. King, A.W.

C 42019 L/Cpl. McCardle, Having been duly sworn states;

On the evening of 22 Feb 41 I was on duty in the town of Redhill, stationed in the Redhill Police Station, between 1900 and 2000 hrs. At 1950 hrs a phone message was received at the Redhill Police Station that a saving box had been taken from the counter by two Canadian soldiers. Accompanied by Cpl. King and D.C. Bowles I patrolled down High St. and on Station Rd. two soldiers were stopped. These men asked us where they could get the bus to go to Bletchingly. Noting a bottle of wine in the overcoat pocket of one I took him into custody, escorting him to 11 High St. At the Wheat Sheaf (Station Rd.- High St) this man made an attempt to escape, taking him by the arm and and coat collar I escorted him to 11 High St. going through the door I let go his arm. The soldier putting his hand in his pocket pulling out some money which he threw on the side walk. This I later recovered made up as follows:- 1 sixpence, 1 penny, 4 half-penny and a farthing. I then entered the store took another bottle of wine from the inside of his great coat and from the outside pocket of his great coat.I took 15 shillings made up in pennies and a few sixpences. From his tunic pocket I took his pay book from which I obtained particulars and found his name to be Pte. Robertson, Sask L.I. (M.G.). I then turned this man over to D.C. Bowles.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

Officer Taking Summary

John Ridout Bowles, Detective Constable, having been duly sworn, states:-

"At 7.50pm on Saturday, 15th February, 1941, in consequence of information received at Redhill Police Station, I patrolled London Road to the Town, accompanied by two Military Police officers. In Station Road West, we saw two Canadian soldiers, one of whom was the prisoner - Robertson.

I said to prisoner - "Have you been into a Confectioner's shop in High Street just previously".

He replied:- "No, we want to catch the bus to Blechingley".

I asked him to accompany us back to the shop which he did and at the Wheatsheaf Corner he tried to get away, but was held by one of the Military Police officers - L/Cpl. McCardle. I noticed that Robertson had been drinking, but he was not drunk.

As we were entering the shop I heard money falling to the ground. We took him into the shop and on feeling in his right hand overcoat pocket, I found it to be full of money which amounted to 15/- consisting of coppers, halfpennies, farthings, and a few sixpennes. I also recovered 9d from the floor of the shop.

In consequence of what I was told by the shop assistant - John Davey, I caused the prisoner to be taken to Redhill Police Station where he was searched and detained. It was noticeable that he was now behaving as drunk and incapable; it was impossible to rouse him, nor would he stand up.

At 10.0am on Sunday, 23rd Feb. 1941, I saw the prisoner at Redhill Police Station.

I said to him:- "It has been alleged that about 7.50pm last evening, you entered a Confectioner's shop in High Street, Redhill, and stole a Hospital Collecting Box from the counter".

I cautioned him, and he replied - "Yes that's right", and made a statement which I took down in writing at his dictation, read over to him, and which he signed in my presence.

After making further enquiries, at 1.0pm the same day, I cautioned and formally charged him with the offence, and he replied:- "I don't think there is any more I have to say".

I produced to him a Hospital Collecting Box which I had recovered from the Public Lavatories, Redhill, which he agreed was the one he had stolen."

At approximately 2330 hrs. 28 May 44 there was an unschedule halt in the railway yards on the outskirts of Glasgow. It was fairly dark at that time. 5th Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. A. C. Fowler, R.C.A.M.C. attached to H.Q. No. 1 Canadian Forestry Group, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states,

I remember K 41221 Pte. Robertson, T.E. coming on sick parade a day or so before leaving Carron Bridge Camp and his complaint was pains in his lower left chest and after examining him he said he also had a cold. There was nothing very definite about the pain in his chest so there was no treatment given for that, but I think I prescribed either medicine or nose drops for the cold. After that K 41221 Pte. Robertson, T.E. announced that he had ulcers and T.E. and if he wasn't X-rayed that day he would go to Edinburgh. I asked why he wanted to go to Edinburgh and he said he wanted to get properly examined. I then told him to return to his duty.

A few hours later that morning I contacted Major P.W. Belson of No. 30 Coy Canadian Forestry Corps and after considering the case of K 41221 Pte. Robertson, T.E. we decided that he should be seen by Major Robillard, P.S.O. On or about the 1st June 44 I contacted Major Robillard at Beauly with the idea of having him see K 41221 Pte. On the morning of June 2nd, 1944 I examined K41221 Pte Robertson, T.E. I found his chest and lungs clear, no bony abnormalities and found no reason why an Xray should be taken. I contacted Major Watkinson and through him contacted Major Robillard and asked both Major Robillard and Major Watkinson to examine K41221 Pte Robertson, T.E. Major Watkinson examined K41221 Pte Robertson, T.E. on Saturday morning, 4 Jun 44 and Major Robillard examined K41221 Pte Robertson, T. E. on Tuesday, 6 Jun 44. The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4(E) elects to give evidence on oath.

The accused No. K41221 Pte. Robertson, T.E., No. 30 Coy Canadian Forestry Corps, Canadian Army Overseas having been duly sworn states:-

The day following skin inspection of the company at Carron Bridge Camp I reported on sick parade because I was spitting blood the previous day. I asked the Medical Officer if I could be sent to have an Xray taken. The M.O. asked me why I did not report earlier when I was closer to where an Xray could be taken and refused to take any further action. I then told the M.O. that I would go to Edinburgh on my own accord and have an Xray taken.

The following day while marching to Thornhill Station to embark on the train, the wearing of the large pack caused pains in my chest and back. When the train stopped at Glasgow I decided to go and have an Xray taken. A few hours after leaving the train I was taken into custody by Canadian Provost and didn't get a chance to have the Xray taken. Later I was returned to camp under escort and reported on sick parade but no results.

TRIAL OF : M. 3266 Pte ROBERTSON, W. D.

1st Witness Prosecution

B 144912, Sgt Donaldson, R.M.

having been duly sworn, states:

I am Sgt Donaldson R.M. 3 Coy ~~Coast~~ Army. I recognize the accused as being in my sec. On May 17 I detailed Robertson to get Coca-Cola for my sec. He was to send it and buy dinner; he then could go on leave. Driver brought back 50 cases of Coca-cola; I unloaded it.

Exhibit 1 – receipt for 50 cases of coca-cola admitted & Defending Officer does not object to it.

This is the only errand I issued

X-exam. – No written authority given to purchase Coca-cola. I gave no money to purchase Coca-cola. Robertson had charge of sale of Coca-cola in my section

By the Court – Robertson took money from the sale to buy the next lot. He was supposed to buy ~~Coca-Co~~ 50 cases this day, the 17th May 46

R.P. 83 (B) complied with

2nd Witness for Prosecution

Mr. J. Bokestal, having been duly sworn, through Interpreter, states:

Dem. Mr. J. Bokestal, I work at Coca-Cola factory as a mechanic, No 5 Valseroweg, Amsterdam. On afternoon in question A Cdno came with a motor car to get Coca-Cola. I recognise Defendant as one of them. They had 27 empty cases with them & wanted 150 full cases to take with them. As I was not authorised to deliver these, I consulted mgr. As a result I took the empty cases & gave 100 full cases because 150 cases could not be loaded on truck at once. Then they drove away & said they would return for remainder. After about 1 hr. they did come back & took remaining 50 cases away. I do other work when people are away. A soldier was Cdno. I don't know exactly who asked for the "Coke". The cases were specially marked for the Cdn Army. I would not make delivery to all Cdn soldiers; only those who gave empty cases in to factory. Amongst each other, the soldiers were handling money after their return from the 1st trip. They went into garage & divided the money.

Crack

X-Adams: On this particular day, I was a stock-helper. I only made entries in stock-book downstairs; money is handled upstairs; we only have a slit opened. When people come in with empties, office phones down instructions as to deliver full cases. I had seen 2 of the 4 Cons before. The 4 may have come all together. I can't say exactly. I can't say which one ordered the cases of Coca-Cola. The first thing that happened is that as far as I know that original order was 150 cases; I was ordered to load as many as I could on truck as I could the rest later. I could identify some of the others there that day. (Hans Sealtiel produced by Defending Officer + identified by witness as having been there) I can't say definitely if Sealtiel asked for 150 cases instead of 50 cases. I've not had dealings with Sealtiel before; he had been there before to load Coca-Cola. 4 Cons dressed 3 complete with uniforms + the 4th had a kind of vest; he was Sealtiel. They didn't talk much to me at all. I had seen Sealtiel before at the factory.

By the Court: The date of this was 1st election day in Holland, sometime in May. Sealtiel + the accused divided the money in my presence. No one seemed to be in charge.

P.I. 8.3.63 Completed exhibit

3rd witness Prosecution: Mr. E. Kappert, Holten, having been duly sworn through interpreter states:

I am E. Kappert of Holten, Holland. I worked as a cook for Cdns. at Holten for about a year until about 3 weeks ago. I recognize Robertson, the accused. I got a days holiday on the day in question; I can't remember the date exactly; it was the 17th May 46. We came to Amsterdam & stopped at Soest for a beer. While in Cafe, a Dutch soldier came in & the Dutch soldier & Robertson talked together, I didn't understand it. We proceeded to Amsterdam Coca-Cola plant. At the factory, they talked with a fat man. Then 100 cases of Coca-Cola loaded & they we drove away to a shop in Amsterdam & cases unloaded. We returned to the factory & Dutchman got in front of truck & had money in his hand. I was on left side of truck, Dutch soldier, 1st name Hans, gave me 50 guilders & made me accept them. Another 50 cases loaded & we returned to Holten with them. I'm not quite sure if he asked for money from me to pay for the Coca-Cola.

R.P. 8 & B) consulted with

~~Hendrix~~ When I first went to the plant, Robertson was talking with a man. I didn't hear the order for Coca-Cola because I stayed with the truck; I think that when we arrived at the Plant, Hans came running along. At the shop where the Coke delivered, they started unloading at once. Everyone got out of trucks at the shop + unloaded the truck. I didn't hear anyone ask where to get the Coke.

By the Court:- No discussion with Robertson at Holten. Truck coming to Amsterdam to get coke. When truck unloaded at shops, 4 of us over there, myself, Hans, Robertson + the Dutch soldier. Hans gave me 50 guilders, Robertson + Hans ~~others~~ Dutch boys; I can't definitely say if he gave them money but they all had money in their hands. Nothing said about when I'd get my money after the sale at the shop. Riding in Army vehicle, I was present when coke paid for at the shop after unloading, stopped at a cafe; can't locate it. Hans was driving the truck. I don't know exactly when the others went while loading the coke at the plant. They walked to + fro. I didn't see anyone go into the office. I remember going into Germany. It may be that Robertson asked for the money at the Plant; I couldn't say exactly now good who asked me.

R.P. 83(D) complied.

4th witness
Prosecution: Johannes Willem Gerrets, having been duly sworn, through Interpreter, states:

I am, Johannes Willem Gerrets,
Beethovenstraat 91, Amsterdam Café owner
Chevalier d'Or. I don't recognise anyone in the Court-room. Sealtiel came to me + offered me 100 cases of Coca-cola for sale.
I accepted + paid him 500 guilders. Coke was delivered. Someone else was present when I paid but don't know who it was.

X-exam: I told Sealtiel I would invest in my name; I asked for it from Sealtiel
+ he said things went wrong + that I'd get it later. I had previously purchased Coke from Sealtiel on more than one occasion.

By the Court - I received the coca-cola, I think in April but I'm not sure. Coke was delivered in a warehouse in town. Man with Sealtiel were Cdn uniform. I didn't see any special marking on the cases. I wasn't present when coca-cola delivered.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

5th Witness Lieut J. R. Hogan 3 Can Const Unit.
Prosecution having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut J.R. Hogan 3 Can. Const Unit in charge of sections constructing Cemeteries in Holland. I recognize the accused Robertson. I investigated alleged sale of 100 cases of Coke. I went to the Plant & checked the Coke, this ~~found that~~ I received certain documents from the the Plant & was present when it made. I submit the document as exhibit "2" as the one I found but not as to the truth or otherwise of the contents of the document & this is agreed to by the Defending Officer.

By the Court: Invoices of the purchase of Coke is the only kind of Coke purchased by the Section I have no personal knowledge of the 100 cases having been delivered. I made a count about 19th May & did not find 100 cases in the Camp. There were approx 60 cases.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

6th witness Prosecution Hans Seal tiel, Oppeldorn, Holland, having been duly sworn, ~~[illegible]~~ states:

I am Hans Seal tiel, Oppeldorn Holland, interpreter with Coca Cola; at present unemployed. I recognize the accused from Holland. I was in Holland beginning of May & met Robertson ~~[illegible]~~ who was Cook in "Y" etc. 3 C.C.C. I had a talk with him about Coca-Cola & we decided on a deal sometime but arranged to meet each other at Oppeldorn when Robertson went to draw Coca Cola in Amsterdam. I waited & saw the tug pass by & I hitch hiked & caught the tug in Sluis. I went on to the Cape & saw Robertson & another one named Hank & Mr. Kappert there. We all went to Amsterdam & stopped at back of Chevalier D'Or. I ~~[illegible]~~ tried to see the mgr.; he not in. We went to Plant about 12 noon at the Plant, we did not load because not out of deal. We went to town for lunch Robertson left us & I left because no money to pay for lunch. After lunch Hank, Kappert & myself went to Chevalier d'Or & I went in & made arrangement with owner to deliver 100 cases of Coca-cola at his carpenters shop in town. When I came out truck had left

Hack

+ I rode out to the Plant + when I arrived they already had started to load the truck with Coca-Cola. Started to 12 o'clock for me I now they started to load 50 cases for own unit + I was asked by Hand + the others if we could sell coca-cola for loaded 100 cases, paid for it + went back + delivered at the carpenters shop. From shop went to Chevalier d'Or, collected the money. Robertson + I went on together to get the money from the mgr. From there to the Plant + loaded 50 cases of Coca-cola + then went to town + in the evening ~~after dinner~~ Hand, Kappert + I returned to Holten, I can't recall if Robertson returned with us or not. At Holten about midnight; unloaded coca-cola next morning.

At Socst, when I asked why they didn't pick me up, one of them told me that they hadn't seen me. I divided the truck to the Chevalier d'Or. Hand, Robertson + I discussed the sale of Coca-Cola. The profit was to be divided 3 ways + Hand decided to give Kappert 10% + 30% to each of us. ~~Received 855 guilders~~. I believe we received 9 guilders a case. Got 855 guilders. I got the money + took cost of coca-cola away + kept a profit of about 165 guilders each + 55 guilders to Kappert.

Granberg came into the deal in the Cafe at Soest; Robertson said to Granberg "Oh! I beat you out!" Tells the man who knows about a coca-cola deal." Granberg didn't know anything about it previously, as far as I know. Down at the Plant the first time it was agreed that Granberg would share in the profit. Robertson brought this up; he asked me "what's in the deal for Hank?" or words something like it.

X-Exams: I told Coca-Cola to Chevalier d'Or before. No dealings with Robertson before. I knew I could sell coca-cola there. I needed a fund to move the coca-cola. When I first saw Robertson, he was in the kitchen at Holten. I don't recall talking with him during the card-playing. He found pass me at Eyckdoorn. When we went to the Chevalier d'Or, they kept matches. Hank didn't know anything about ~~it~~ the deal at first. I think they ordered 50 cases when I got to the plant the second time. I talked to one of the men at the Plant; ~~one~~ I made the arrangements with the mgr of the Chevalier d'Or & received the money. Granberg got his cut because he gave me a hand, he was down & out. I had no money; got it from Granberg, Kappert & Robertson. Fellows at the Plant spoke a little English. Robertson & I paid the bill - very little talking on the office. I don't know who handled the money across the Counter.

[redacted]

Re-examination: I did not draw for myself in my own name.

By the Court: I did not order any Coca-Cola for myself. Company delivers to a Co. Unit. Bill made out but didn't see it. At Geraldton I phoned 2 or 3 times to see where the truck was. I was beside the road when truck went by. I was left at Chevaliers 1 or 2 after lunch as truck left because it was a dangerous place. I was asked how I made out + I said "we can sell 100 cases at that price." I don't who ordered the additional 50 cases on the 1st loading. Arrangements were made to get 150 cases.

Truck was a 15 cwt belonging to Co. Army. It had a Co. sign on it. It had been previously arranged that we would meet in Geraldton on day in question. No arrangements to meet the truck at the Plant after leaving me at the Chevaliers 1 or 2. I was asked for a bill in name of Mgr + I said I couldn't get it.

Defending Officer - ADDRESS

The accused is charged under A.A. c. 40 with conduct to the prejudice in that he was concerned in the improper obtaining of 108 cases of Coca Cola for sale to a Dutch civilian.

The essence of this charge is that he was concerned in the improper obtaining of this Coca Cola and not that he was concerned with any further dealings with it.

Evidence has not been brought before the Court to show in what way the purchase of was improper. There is no evidence that anyone who could buy an empty case could not buy this product. If the prosecution wishes to suggest this then proper evidence should have been submitted to establish it.

The evidence clearly indicates that Scottish was the instigator and organizer of the whole deal. He merely used Robertson, Gramberg and Koppert to provide him with money and with a vehicle to transport the Coca Cola. He heard after them on three occasions when they had gone away without him. They tried to avoid him but through their persistency he involved them in the affair.

Scottish had been dealing in Coca Cola before. It appears that all he needed was a vehicle to move the cases. That is why the others were needed. He only part played by Robertson & Brantley was in the attempted use of a military Vehicle and Robertson is not charged with that. His offence rather it seems is that he was paid a few guilders for helping to load and unload the Truck and in consideration of a loan.

The evidence does not indicate that he had anything to do with the actual purchase of the Coca Cola. Indeed the evidence points the other way for he had already started to load the 50 cases he was to buy for the unit. Scottish I suggest did not need his help to buy 100 cases. Scottish had previously sold Coke to the Chevalier d'Or and would at appear have his own way of obtaining it without cases from the plant. Scottish was very evasive, his memory lapsed, on the subject of who ordered the 100 cases and who paid for them but there is no evidence that he had Robertson order or purchase these cases or deal in the matter in any way.

In the absence of any evidence against the accused on this point and in the absence of any evidence to show that the purchase of the Coca Cola by whatever it was done was in any "improper", I respectfully submit that the accused must be acquitted on this charge.

Lt Col Judge Advocate.

Plea in Mitigation

Attack

M 3266 Pte Robertson W. D.

Gentlemen: You have heard all the evidence with respect to this case and I do not feel that I need to labour the point to show that the offence committed by Robertson is not a serious one. Further I feel that the evidence showed that the part played by the accused was a very secondary one. He was being used by Scottie and only because of weakness was he finally involved. Certainly the evidence indicated that he and Stenberg tried to avoid this man Scottie who was the instigator of the whole deal.

Robertson has now six years of army service. His M & M shows a few very minor charges of AWL. spread over the whole period. There is nothing of a serious nature. This is his first offence on any other charge and I feel he should be treated leniently.

He has been in custody already for a period of 31 days and I feel that this is more than sufficient punishment for this man.

I would ask that the Court take this fact into consideration and that the sentence be a merely nominal one.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE AND ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Plea in mitigation of punishment by the Defending Officer attached hereto:-

My Statement [illegible] by the accused:

I was supposed to go to another regiment, and I did not even belong to it, so I went A.W.L. I was in the North Shore Regiment, I was sent to Bowe on a signal course, and I was transfered to the Carleton & York. Regiment. I went to Reading, and met a fellow from the R. 22nd. Regiment, and I traded (OVER) tunics, and he gave me his pass. That is how I came to have the R. 22nd. flashes and the pass. I changed the pass by using a crust of bread.

The charges against the accused are of a relatively serious nature but the acts are not ~~of the same~~ serious do not fall into such a ~~serious~~ Heavy category.

This person goes A W L and while away changes ~~tunics~~ and picks up a pass from another person. I suggest to the court that he did not realize that he was doing anything of a very wrongful nature when he took this other tunic. I do not believe that he ~~knew this was really a prohibited~~ really appreciated just how the Army looked upon such actions.

The accused did not plan ~~this forgery~~ to create a ~~a~~ false pass and make away with it. Rather it was the act of a boy who has started something that gets worse as he goes along, almost inevitably leads him to further mischievous acts.

~~As for the document the attempt was clumsy and the effort weak.~~

I suggest to the court that he did not realize that he was doing something very wrong. ~~I would~~ I hold at the thought to the court that not very much mental process — not much mental process — was involved in these haphazard and random acts. This record is not that of a real recidivist one.

Finally, realizing his needs at this time, ~~I ask for the consideration of the court~~ I ask the court to ~~for~~ for the accused in not taking up ~~your~~ the time of the court ~~time~~ with idle or fallacious pleas.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. G19337 Private Edgar Joseph ROBICHAUD, of the Carleton & York Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas) on the strength of 7 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Sgt. G. Wilding, 159 (H.Q.) Provost Company, C.M. Police, states:

I have to report that at READING on the 8 Feb 43 at about 1415 hours I was on duty at Military Police H.Q. where I saw G19337 Pte. Robichaud, E.J., Carlt. & York R, of 7 C.I.R.U., who had been detained by No. 5880427 Cpl. Faulkner, H., C.M.Police.

He was wearing the Regimental Flashes of the Royal 22nd Regiment but enquiries revealed that his correct particulars were as above and that he was an absentee.

In his possession he had a diary in which there were a number of private addresses. When questioned about these he stated that these were the addresses of girl friends. Not being satisfied with this, I arrested him and he was conducted to the Civil Police Station, Reading to await the arrival of an escort, and for further enquiries by the Civil Police in regard to these addresses.

It was ascertained that these addresses were of Irish girls working at the Burghfield Ordnnance Factory. I also found in his possession a Ministry of Food Form F.B.12 (Ration card issued to service men) bearing the following name and number: C2694 Laronde, which he stated had been given to him by a soldier in the Royal Canadian Engineers.

(Signed) G. Wilding Sgt.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans NO - SIR (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

1 You will note that this soldier has been in the army about two and a half years. He got along without too much difficulty until the year 1943. He has had four Courts-Martial, one in February, one in June, one in August and one in Jan 44. He is perfectly friendly, harmless looking young fellow. Either he is not being handled correctly or he is suffering from mental disability. I would respectfully suggest that he be examined by a psychiatrist at an early date.

PLEA for Mitigation.

IN RE:

C-19337. pfc. Edgar Joseph ROBICHAUD.

1. The accused is 20 yrs of age. He is single and a cat..
2. He enlisted on 1 Aug 41 at the age of 18 - and presumably on 12 Jun 42..
3. He attended gr. VIII school.... has no special trade in civilian life. He is righthanded in the Army.
4. He is young, fit physically and single - and is anxious to get into action with his friends & pals..
5. He was examined by a psychiatrist at P C Gen. on 14 Jan 44. The reason for examination is not known to the undersigned but it is felt that this being his 4th Court-martial might have a bearing on same. Would it be too much to ask of the Court that they get in touch with H & C. Gp. Hosp. and find the results of this psychiatrist's report? Evidently there is something wrong with this accused's judgement if one is to judge by his actions. He looks pleasant, clean-cut - and willing but just seems to be getting in the Army all the time. It is self-evident that he suffers from an inferiority complex and persecution complex - and the report from a psychiatrist might help guide the Court in its decision..
6. It is also evident from his AF W 6 that the accused is more of a liability than an asset to the war effort in his present employment which, so far, has been merely confined to a detention barracks.. Evidently, punishment does not appear to have any appreciable results. Whether this is due to his youth or to his brains - I believe that a psychiatrist's report would decide.

Respectfully submitted,

W/O Clerk Engr.
Defending Officer.

Sir,

At Cardiff on 6 Jan 44 about 0130 hours I was on duty at the Church Army Hostel, Queen St., where I saw the above named soldier who was wearing Corporals chevrons which are attached. I asked him if he was on leave to which he replied, "Yes.,from convalescent Depot Bath". He was unable to produce a pass. I challenged him with being absent to which he replied, "Yes that's right" I arrested him. I observed that his respirator haversack was being improperly used, it contained cleaning materials. He was not in possession of his respirator face piece. I pointed this out to him and he replied, "Oh. thats back at the unit".

He was conducted to Mainly Barracks where he was handed over to the M.P.O. i/c Guard to be detained, pending the arrival of an escort from his unit.

Sir, I was sent from Canada to No. 1 C S R U & I went on a course there & they sent me to Whitley Holding Unit. I showed my papers to the Major & asked him for a transfer & he didn't say much more about it then. On my papers it said North Shore Regt, & I had always wanted to go there & they never let me go. I would like to get to my own Regt. I am 21 years of age, and worked on the Section gangs for the C.N.R. I went to grade 9 in school & I am single. When I last came out of detention I asked for a pass & was not given one — not even a weekend.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). I have known the accused who has been in the same coy as myself during the last four years. I have always formed him to be a very good worker has always carried out all orders given him. He was with me in Italy & out to hospital there.

R. P. 83(B) complied with.

E3 Statement in Mitigation of Sentence of the accused F 91610 Sapper Gerald Francois Robichaud

The accused has served with 1 Fd Coy R.C.E. 1 Canadian Division from November 1939 till approx 10 March 1944. Spr Robichaud has proven himself as a Canadian Soldier in that he was in the invasion in Sicily and again in the invasion of Italy. During this time he was away from his unit for approx 3 weeks while confined to hospital.

Spr. Robichaud left the Division on or about 10 March 44 because he had reported sick and was sent to an M.D.S. in S. Vito. From there he was sent to 4 Bn and finally to 7 Bn 2 C.I.B. R.D.

Spr Robichaud did not commit this crime in the front line but only after he had given his services as a true soldier.

The MFM 6 of Spr Robichaud appears on first glance to be bad but on closer examination shows all his crimes to be of minor nature.

In view of these facts sir we plead for leniency and put ourselves at the mercy of the court.

SUMMING UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE in the case of G.57541 Pte Ovila

OBICHAUD, R de Chaud

Desertion is absence Without leave plus the intention to either (a) quit the Army altogether or (b) avoid a particular service. A soldier is absent without leave when he is absent without leave from the place where his duty requires him to be. The particular service may be service such as an operation, movement, or serving in the front line. Now, in this case you have evidence that the accused did, in fact, avoid a particular service, i.e. an attack on the enemy.

The accused in giving evidence states that he was unable to continue. It is for you to decide whether the accused was physically or mentally unable to continue on the evidence presented to you.

I remind you that the accused is innocent until proven guilty and as such is entitled to the benefit of all reasonable doubt. However, it must be a reasonable doubt on the evidence and not a doubt conjured up in your own mind or fanciful doubt. However, if you have reasonable doubt you should give the accused the benefit of that doubt.

In this case, the accused is charged with desertion. You may bring in a verdict of guilty of desertion or you may bring in a verdict of guilty of absence without leave, or you may decide to acquit the accused.

SUMMING UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE in the case of G.57541 Pte. Ovila ROBICHAUD, R de Chaud

Desertion is Absence Without leave plus the intention to either (a) quit the Army altogether or (b) avoid a particular service. A s ldier is absent without leave when he is absent without leave from the place where his duty requires him to be. The particular service may be service such as an operation, movement, or serving in the front line. Now, in this case you have evidence that the accused did, in fact, avoid a particular service, i.e. an attack on the enemy.

The accused in giving evidence states that he was unable to continue. It is for you to decide whether the accused was physically or mentally unable to continue on the evidence presented to you.

I remind you that the accused is innocent until proven guilty and as such is entitled to the benefit of all reasonable doubt. However, it must be a reasonable doubt on the evidence and not a doubt conjured up in your own mind or fanciful doubt. However, if you have reasonable doubt you should give the accused the benefit of that doubt.

In this case, the accused is charged with desertion. You may bring in a verdict of guilty of desertion or you may bring in a verdict of guilty of absence without leave, or you may decide to acquit the accused.

No.22 Pte Raymond RABICHAUD
West N&B

1. As there is some doubt as to the intelligence and mental capacity of the marginally named soldier, I recommend that Pte Rabichaud should be examined by the psychiatrist before the sentence of this court takes effect.

2. This soldier is considered in his unit to be mentally deficient and I consider that to carry out the sentence without first ascertaining that this soldier can be held responsible for his action would have a bad effect on the discipline in the unit.

Investigation of Sentence by Lieut Rogers A. W.

The B.M.O. has reported on the dull intellect of the accused and the petty crimes are by proof of same to be not sufficiently alert and intelligent to be a good soldier of certainly being his co-accused has never treated him particularly on the times he has been up before him as the Unit Orderly Sergeant has reported that the accused is not quite up to standard - in my case not quite responsible for his petty ~~misdemeanours~~ crimes. I am quite certain that he would not know the steps to take in a case of finding lost articles. -

Due to his illiteracy he has made no progress as a gunner. On several occasions he has asked for a transfer to the Pioneer Corps. but nothing was ever done about it. As a result, he feels everyone is against him. However, he wants to be a good soldier & might be one in a unit where his abilities could be used.

Field General Court Martial of G.18938 Pte. Rene ROBICHAUD, 7 CIRU held on 1 Feb 44

It is noted by the court that the prosecutor is a lawyer. The defending officer states that he has received verbal notice to this affect and waives notice in writing under RP 89(2).

The accused on being arranged states that his regimental number is not G.19838 but G.18938. It is noted that he is referred to in the convening order under No. G.18938. The number in the charge sheet is amended to read G.18938 under RP 33(A) and the amendment initialled by the President.

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER attached herewith.

301.

1 Feb 44.

G18938 Pte. Robichaud R. - Negligently
Loading pistol - Sec 40 AA.

The accused has pleaded guilty to the charge and therefore the remarks following are made with a view to mitigation of punishment.

The accused is 31 years of age. He is a longshoreman from N.B. Brunswick. He has been in the army for nearly three years. His Documents testify to the fact that he is a good soldier. In three years of service he has not committed a single offence. He was eligible for a good conduct stripe. He has served overseas since December of 1941. and is months of this service has been with the A.D. About 2 weeks before the unfortunate incident in question the accused was issued with a pistol. This was the first time he had ever handled this type of weapon. He received only one period of instruction on the weapon at which it was stressed that to become a good shot he should practice with drawing and firing in his spare time. On the evening of the accident the accused placed the round in the pistol and thoughtlessly forgot to withdraw it. Continuing his practice a few minutes later without pointing the pistol the round was accidentally discharged and penetrated the arm of Cpl. Goodwin.

The accused has been badly worried over the result of his thoughtless action which in itself has been a punishment.

The accused has a Mother in Canada Saint Francis who is 65 years of age and who has no dependant on him. Half of his pay is assigned to her.

These facts are submitted in the hope that they will weigh in favour of the accused when Sentence is considered by the Court.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of G19838 Private Rene ROBICHAUD, Carleton & York Regiment, on the strength of 7 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — F50154 Cpl MacDonald D.B., Nth NS Highrs, on the strength of 7 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit having been sworn states:

I am F50154 Cpl MacDonald D.B., Nth NS Highrs, on strength of "A" Company, 7 CIRU. On the night of 8 Jan 44 at approximately 1730 hours I was in Hut D5 sitting on a bed and sewing a tassel on my hat. The accused, Pte Robichaud, whom I now recognize, had a .380 pistol, pointing it at me. I said "Go away and don't be so foolish". He said "You count". Just then the shot went off. I knew that I was shot and I started out toward the door. I was going to the R.A.P. When I got as far as the door I saw that I could not make it, so I went back to the bed. I told the boys to go for the M.O. Pte Robichaud, R. went for him and came back with the medical orderly who bandaged my arm. A few minutes later the M.O. came in and changed the bandage. Later I was taken in the ambulance to 8 Cdn Gen Hospital.

D.B. Macdonald ------Cpl

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — F50232 A/Cpl Mawdsley J., North Nova Scotia Highlanders, on the strength of 7 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit having been sworn states:

I am F50232 A/Cpl Mawdsley J., Nth NS Highrs, on the strength of Regtl Police, 7 CIRU. On the evening of 8 Jan 44, at approximately 1730 hours I was in hut D5. I noticed Cpl MacDonald D.B. and Pte Robichaud whom I now recognize as the accused, sitting on one of the beds. Cpl MacDonald was sewing his cap and Pte Robichaud was playing with a pistol. I saw Pte Robichaud point the pistol at Cpl MacDonald's back and I heard the accused say "Money or your life". Cpl MacDonald answered "You'll have to take my life as I have no money". After this Pte Robichaud, the accused, snapped the pistol a few times while it was still pointing at Cpl MacDonald. I then saw the accused get up from the bed and walk toward his own bed. After two or three minutes he returned to the bed on which Cpl MacDonald was sitting and sat down. As my attention was diverted elsewhere I did not watch the accused further, but shortly afterward I heard a shot fired. I turned around and saw the accused holding the pistol pointing toward the floor. Cpl MacDonald got up and asked Pte Robichaud to go to the Guard Room with him. They went as far as the door and Cpl MacDonald said that he could not make it. He went back towards the bed and fell on it. He asked for a drink of water which I got for him. When I gave him the water L/Cpl Baltzer was cutting the sleeve of Cpl MacDonalds sweater and I saw the blood on Cpl MacDonald's arm and realized he was hurt. In the meantime the accused had gone to the R.A.P. and a few minutes later returned with a medical orderly named Pte MacDonald H.D. who administered first aid. Very shortly the M.O. arrived and treated Cpl MacDonald until the arrival of the ambulance.

They were talking and laughing. I saw a pistol in the accused's hand and I heard Cpl Mac Donald tell him to put it away. Shortly after that I heard a shot and Cpl MacDonald fell on the bed. Plea in Mitigation by Defending Officer.

This accused has not been examined by a psychiatrist. This should be done in any event and as soon as possible. He seems a nervous type and has undoubtedly seen a long period of action, having been with his regt for 65 days when this happened.
He does not feel he would be a y use if he went back whendisposing of this case I would ask the Court to recommend further psychiatirc treatment. It may be that after obtaining same this soldier could be restored to normally and thereby anabled to vidicate himself to the best advantage. Gentlemen, you know and I know that in even more serious cases of battle exhaustion than this and in this war, soldiers have been given threamtre by our own Canadian Hospitals Theyhave worked marvels for these men. Whatever be your disposition will you please recommend to senior authority, that this man be given the benefit of such treatment. I'd like to see him given the chance to help himslef out of his unfortunate predicament.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE Exhibit A

Summary of Evidence in the case of G-3030 Pte Robichaud, R.J. North Shore Regiment, att 7 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service(AA Sec 18(2)) alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40)

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Capt W E Armour, No. 7 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC sworn states:

I am Capt W E Armour, Medical Officer at No. 7 Cdn Gen Hospital, Pte Robichaud was admitted tomy care on 8 Sep 44 from No.10 Cdn Gen Hospital suffering from a wound of the left foot incurred on 10 Aug 44 according th medical records accompanning him. The wound perforates the foot in a vertical direction slanting downwards and outwards in th region of the base of the second and third toes. There was no fracture. He is now fit to return toduty probably without change of category as far as the wound is concerned. In my opinion the wound could have beencaused by a small arms projectile from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

W E Armour, Capt, RCAMC.
Witness.

Suspected Self-Inflicted Wound.

On11Sep 44 at at approx 1600 hrs Pte Robichard R.J. came to the writer of his own free will and asked if he may be a lowed tomake a further statement. He was told that he may doso.
Thestatement is as follows:
I am Pte Robichaud R.J. and have been cautioned that I do not have to make a statement, but that anything I say may be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence.
On the 10 Aug 1944 at approx 2030 hrs we were in the attack at the time of the big drive south of Caen. We were crossing a field under enemy ifre, and there were two Jerry tanks right in front of me. We were being mortared and shelled by the tanks. I was nervous two days before the attack and I guess I lost my head when I got into action and shot my self deliberately through the left foot. My nerve was gone and I couldn't possibly takemany more. I had lost a brother on D day and had seen a lot of my chums go down . I just couldn't stand it.
In my first statement I gave to the Progost on the 12 Aug 44 I didn't know what to do, so I have come and given this statement which is the truth and wish the other be ignored.
I have re d this statement and it has been read over tome and I have nothing more to add.

C.72375 Pte Louis Frederick ROBICHEAU NNS

NOTE E.3

In the case of accused, I wish to bring before the court, Pte Robicheau enlisted in April 43. From that itme until present he has 5 crimes. All these occured while in England. He came to his unit on 13th Oct 44 during fighting in Sheld Estuary. He served with the unit until Div moved to Ghent for rest. While in Ghent with unit he decided that he would spend French money in his possesion, so crossed border to France and came back on 9 Nov to rejoin unit. The unit had moved. Accused heard that unit had moved to HOLLAND so followed but found no trace. He returned to Ghent and heard rumour, that unit was at St Deinz which is about 20 kil from Ghent. The unit had moved again so accused returned to Ghent where he stayed until surrendering on 30th Dec 44 to R.P. This story ~~that he was absent for the~~ shows that it was not intentional that he was absent for the first time, but that he made an honest effort to rejoin his unit.

Pte Robicheau is single but has dependent mother. He wishes to return to his coy as soon as possible so I offer this plea to the court, that his story be considered and that he be granted his wish.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

When I went A.W.L. this time I had an overnight pass. The day before I was in a cross country race and as I had a sore leg I was unable to get up the next morning because my leg was stiff and I stayed in bed and got up around dinner time. I knew if I stayed away a little longer that I would get no more, as I would already be marked A.W.L., than if I returned immediately. The real reason I stayed away was because I want a transfer out of the infantry. I have applied for transfer.
(over)

Q. by Court: How long ago did you make application for transfer?

A. About 9 months ago.

Q2. Have you ever been down to the Field?

A. No Sir: I was in the Provost and they told me I was too nervous to stay with them.

Defending Officer: In regard to character: I knew at one time he behaved well and then he, all at once, started going A.W.L.

The court recommends

1- As the accused has been in England for approximately two years without being with the field unit, that he be sent to the field unit.

2- That his application for transfer to the Armoured Div be checked and reported on.

In the case of E 5,197 T/Cpl Robidoux.

Statement made by his defending officer Lt Faulk.

This man that you will now judge is married in England & got 2 children. He wanted to spend his Christmas leave to his home. He was granted 72 hours leave. He failed to return to camp, not because he wanted to enjoy life with any woman he will meet in his path, but to stay a little bit longer with his wife and his children. During this period his little daughter got sick & he had to call for a doctor. Here is the certificat from the doctor.

This woman of his love, the woman with whom he is facing the life with its difficulties did not wanted him to go, so like a good husband but not like a good soldier he admitted, he stayed home to encourage his wife. At the end the soldier gained over the husband & he returned to camp. He admitted his fault, he is deeply sorry. The colonel of this camp of the 6 C.I.C.V. who was absent during this case, sympathized with it. I know that these things do not excuse him of his fault. Before you retire Honorable President & Members of the court let me tell you that in judging this man you are judging his wife & his 2 children.

Statement of Accused.

Pte Robidoux is sworn and states:

My trouble started last February 1942. I was at Whitby a full Cpl. I was paraded to the Coy Office, they told me I was transferred to the Regt and I had to revert but keep my stripes as I would be promoted again shortly after joining the Unit. I kept doing duty as a full Cpl. At the Regt I was called to Coy Office and told to take down my stripes and revert as W.E. was complete. Two months later I was promoted A/Cpl. I went on a N.C.O. course. Then I got a 24 hour pass. I came back 13 hours late due to ill health unavoidable. I was given a Severe Reprimand. Later at the Unit I asked for a week end pass, asked my reasons which I gave but on the Saturday my pass was Cancelled. I was mad and went away without leave. When I came back I got a severe reprimand. The second time I went A.W.O.L. I had 24 hours leave and went home. My wife was pregnant, she had an accident, the baby was born but died shortly. I got extra time till it was all over and came back to the Unit. When I got back I was bothered and discouraged so went A.W.O.L.

Before this time I had asked to be transferred to my own Coy but it was refused. This trouble would not have happened in my own Coy.

R.T. 53 complied with.

Closing address for the Defence.

Mr. President, Gentlemen of the Court.

I would like to ask you to disregard the record of the accused for a moment, a record which I admit is very much against him, and to consider the story of Pte. Robidoux.

Robidoux enlisted in December 1939 and proceeded overseas in February 1940. While in Canada he rose to the rank of Corporal but had to revert to the rank of private soldier upon arrival here when he was sent immediately to his Regiment the Royal 22ieme. He was a smart soldier and a good one and was thought of well enough to be selected to mount the Guard at Buckingham Palace in the summer of 1940. He was promissed a leave, just as the others had been promissed but at the last minute it was cancelled. Therefore, Robidoux took matters into his own hands and went A.W.L. His conduct went from bad to worse and he was sentenced to detention several times. When he came out in 1942 after been given a remission of seven months on his last sentence, he was determined to become a good soldier. For three months while at the Reinforcement Unit he did his best went on a battle drill course and qualified on the range and in his weapons. On three different occasions he was put on drafts proceeding to his Regiment but was withdrawn at the last moment without any apparent reasons. Thinking his Regiment did not want him and feeling pretty discouraged he again went A.W.L.

That is the charge on which, Gentlemen of the Court, you have to pass judgement, but I would ask you to take into consideration the fact that the accused still has six months to serve on his previous sentence. Also, though I do not claim the accused was treated unjustly in the past, he has'nt had much of a break which accounts for his bad conduct, and it is his greatest wish that he be given a chance to prove that he can be a good soldier again.

The accused is young, only 26 years old, fit and qualified. He would be far more useful to the army and to his country if a light sentence was imposed on him and he was given an opportunity to go into action rather than rot in jail where he would get more and more demoralized and come out a total loss to society.

Capt.

E 4836 Pte. Robidoux, J. D. (R 22nd Reinforcement), No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley Surrey, 29 Mar 41.

The Order convening the Court, the charge sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor: Lieut. Cannon.

Defending Officer: Lieut. Wallace.

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over to the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to being tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to B 88521 Sgt. James Lonergan, Royal Canadian Artillery, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The C ourt Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above-mentioned charge sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.

R. P. 35(B) is complied with by the court.

Q6 - Do you wish to make a statement in mitigation of punishment?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - You can make a statement either under oath or not under oath, But here it is my duty to informa you that if you make a statement under oath it will carry more weight with this court than a statement made not under oath. However, if you make such a statement under oath you are liable to be cross-examined by the prosecuting officer or the members of this court. Do you wish to make a statement under oath or not under oath?
A7 - I wish to make a statement not under oath, sir.

Accused makes a statement:

I wish the court to excuse my broken English. I came to this country in 1940 and was a Lance-Corporal in charge of 62 men on the ship. I was given 5 days pass but I refused to take it because I had no money, and I didn't have any friends here in this country. Later on, when I came out of the glass house I asked for a pass for 24 hours and they wouldn't give it to me. I got mad. I came to this country not to go absent but to fight the Germans. When I was absent I saw the women and children being bombed and it made me mad and I came back. I want to fight the Germans, as I am very angry with them now.

Q8 - Do you wish to call any witness as to character?
A8 - Yes, sir.

J.

Q9 - You are sure it is only a witness as to character?
A9 - Yes, sir.

F 48789 C.S.M. Alfred Hebert, No. 2 Infantry Holding Unit, was then sworn as a character witness for the Defence.

Q10 - Do you know the accused?
A10 - Yes, sir, I do.
Q11 - How long have you known him?
A10 - Since last January, sir.
Q11 - Will you make a statement to the court as to what you know of Him?
A11 - Well, sir, He was a Lance Corporal when he came over from Canada. On the parade ground he was very efficient and was a very good soldier in my estimation. He was picked for the Buckingham Palace Guard along with me in the month of May, sir.

Prosecutor was duly sworn.
Q12 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of the accused?
A12 - I produce the A.F.B. 206 and N.F.N. 4 of the accused. I swear that the entries herein are correct and that I have checked them with the original entries on the regimental books, and they apply to the accused, whom I recognize.

Q13 - Do you wish to address the court:
A13 - Defending Officer: The accused has pleaded guilty to the charges. He is 24 years of age and comes from a good family. His father is Fire Chief of No. 11 Fire House in Montreal. His uncle is Mayor of Sorel. That is a good indication of his background. He himself had the equivelent of a high school education. He has taken an active interest in the militia since 1934 and has maintained that interest, up to the present time, for he joined the Canadian Active Service Force in 1939 and came overseas early in 1940. He has told you how he had a stripe back in Canada and how he brought a draft over. He said and there is no cause to disbelieve him, that he refused his landing leave and later when he applied for a leave it was turned down and he very wrongly went A. W. L. He now states that he is anxious to do a good job. I would like to appeal to the consideration of the Court that he be given a sentence that will permit him to demonstrate that he can do a good job as a soldier. I think we can take his statement as worthy of consideration.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
In the case of

E4836 Private Robidoux, J.L., Royal 22e Regt. Reinforcement, First Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas)

Evidence taken on oath by direction of the Commanding Officer.

First Witness Prosecution — A34001 Sgt. P.J. Semple Canadian Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am a Sergeant on the staff of Canadian Detention Barracks, Witley, where the accused was serving sentence on the 27th April 1941. On that day I was in charge of the night Guard. When I took over my duties at 1700 hours, I checked the huts and found all the prisoners present. At about 1845 hours one of the prisoners who were employed in the tailor's shop reported to me that two uniforms were missing. I immediately made a check and found two prisoners missing, one of which was Pte. Robidoux. I made a search of the compound. The accused was no where to be found. When going through the tailor's shop I saw one of the windows close to the compound showing marks where the escaped prisoners had climbed over the wire. A search was made outside of the compound without any results. The accused remained absent from 27th April 1941 until he was brought back under escort on or about 21st October 1941.

P.J. Semple Sgt.
P.J. SEMPLE

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness Prosecution — Police Sergeant 130 J. Hawksworth, Cheshire Constabulary, made the following statement:

"I am a Police Sergeant in the Cheshire Constabulary, stationed at Sale. At 8.30 a.m. Wednesday 28th May 1941 I was on duty in Eastway, Sale, when I saw a man dressed in the uniform of 22nd Regiment of the Royal Canadians. I said to him:- "Can I see your leave pass?" He replied: "No." I asked him for his name and what unit he belonged to. He said: "I will tell you in some other place."

"He was conveyed to Sale Police Station where he gave his name as No. E4836 Pte. Jean Louis ROBIDOUX, of No. 1 Coy, 2nd Infantry Holding Unit, Royal Canadians, Withy Camp, Surrey. He was then cautioned and charged with being an absentee from this unit since 24.00 hours, 29th April 1941. In answer to the charge he replied:"Yes."

"He was in possession of Two, Three Bar Chevrons, and his tunic bore signs of these being worn. He was detained. At 11am 29th May 1941 he was charged before an occasional Court at Sale and remanded in custody until 11 am 31st May 1941. At 11 am 31st May 1941 at the same Court he was remanded to H.M. Prison, Manchester until 10am 7th June 1941.

"At 10 a.m. 7th June 1941 at an Occasional Court at Sale he was charged with two offences of obtaining money (10/- in each case) by means of false pretences, and five other offences of obtaining money by false pretences were taken into consideration. For these offences he was sentenced to six months imprisonment with hard labour. The offence of being absent without leave was adjourned 'sine die.'

I plead guilty to both of these charges, which are placed before you. I have no other plea because I believe that these charges where only made against me, upon my own stupidity.

morning Sgt Sheehan came & told me that he had come back for his kit. The truck that his kit was in did not get into the harbor until 1230 hrs. It had been missing since the previous day and I had been informed by Sgt Bryant to place the occupants under arrest when they returned which I did, and then helped loading radical truck (which was the one that had been missing). I then sent it to new area. Then Sgt Sheehan and I carried his kit across rd to where main concentration of Eqpt was and discussed the possibilities of him getting back to Torino, where he had been ordered to return, before his pass expired. At approx 1300 hrs I approached RQMS Turner as to advisability of taking Sgt Sheehan part of the way. He suggested that I only go as far as no 6 Highway where I could contact CMP. I asked him if he would supervise the loading of his own kit as the rest of the area was cleaned up. I was then free to leave with Sgt Sheehan which I did at about 1400 hrs. We arrived at junction of no. 6 and 85 and there were several men there waiting for lifts towards Naples so I decided to take Sgt Sheehan further as there seemed little possibility of him getting a ride further on. As I saw men looking for rides all the way along so I took him to south outskirts of Naples on the Avelino rd. I left him off there with his kit which consisted of a large duffle bag, large pack, small pack and steel helmet. I then proceeded back towards new 'B' Echelon harbor which was the same direction as I

I recognize accused. On 26 May 44 I came 'B' Ech of the regt to get my kit and I was offered a drive to no 6 highway by the accused. He drove me to the outskirts of Naples. The accused said he would take me to Naples.

No cross-exam.

To the court 'B' Ech was then located on the Volturno. The vehicle in which the accused drove me was a scout car. The highway I mentioned above was no. 85 not no. 6. I realize now it was 85.

Second witness for the pros:

B60554 RQMS Turner (KW). 11 Can Armd Regt. having been duly sworn states

I recognize accused. On 26 May 44 at about 1300 hrs I arrived in 'B' Ech after making a trip to Avelino. I was there approached by the accused as to the possibility of taking Sgt Sheehan to Avelino with the scout car. I told him it would be advisable to take him only to Route no. 6, where he could contact the CMP and possibly secure a drive for Sgt Sheehan. From Camp to Route 6 is about 2 or 3 miles but may be more.

Cross-exam - 'B' Ech had left the Camp when I returned with only a rear party there. The work had been completed there as far as I could see

To the Court - The only reason I knew of why the accused should ask me if he could take the vehicle was because I am of senior rank.

RPT 3 (B) complied with.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

Capt. J. M. Harold, 11 Cdn Armd Regt, having been duly sworn states:

I am QM of the 11 Cdn Armd Regt. At approx 0530 hrs I was leaving "B" Echelon of the unit to lead the "B" echelon of the Bde to San Vittore area. At about 1030 Sgt Bryant told me Sgt Sheehan had appeared in the old "B" Ech area to pick up kit and wished transport. I told him the unit would not supply transport as we had done so already a few days before. The occurred was general duty NCO, orderly sgt and general disciplinarian in the "B" Ech. He was in charge of the old "B" Ech area after I left.

No cross exam.

By the Court - Any vehicles left in the old "B" ech were left for the purpose of cleaning up the area and then moving forward to new area. The scout car was left behind because the regular driver of it was AWL when we left.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Fourth Witness for Pros.

B 148 31 Sgt Bryant P. 11 Cdn Armd Regt having been duly sworn states: I am Transport Sgt. Hdq Sqn of the Regt. On 27 May 44 at about 1030 hrs I was detailed to go after a scout car which had been missing from the unit. I found it in Santa Maria. The accused had told me that the scout car was approx 20 miles from our "B" Ech and that it was broken down. At the time I was escort for Sgt Robie and he was with me when I recovered the vehicle. A fitter was also with us to see if we could put the vehicle in running condition. It took him 1½ hrs to fix it.

No cross-exam

By the Court - I would say we went about 20 or 30 miles to recover the vehicle, along Highway No. 6. There was no evidence of a collision.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

B 60801 F/Sgt Isaac A. E. 11 Cdn Armd Regt having been duly sworn states: I am mech. Sgt for Hdq Sqn. I recognize accused. On 27 May 44 Scout car F 205 952 which had been recovered from Santa Maria was examined by me. It had a broken crown in the right rear bevill box. This could have been wearing for some time and could break without the vehicle being involved in an accident.

No cross-exam.

First Witness for the Defence:

The accused having been duly sworn states: At about 0600 hrs 26 May 44 I was approached by Lt M Fox who told me that I would be in charge of rear party at "B" ech and to see that area was cleaned up. All available tpt with exception of one half-ton Scout car had left at 0630 hrs for new harbor area at San Vittore. With the men left behind we cleaned up area working until appx 1200 hrs. During the had come. When about a mile south of Santa Maria I heard a noise from what I thought was the transmission of the scout car. I could not be certain what the trouble was so I left the scout car at the town square in Santa Maria. There were several U.S. trucks there and when I had parked the car I closed the sliding top. I approached a U.S. police and asked him if it would be safe to leave the car there till about 2200 hrs. This happened about 1500 hrs. I then proceeded to hitch hike back to new camp area to get a truck to tow the scout car. I had been instructed by S.S.M Fox that the new area was about 200 yds to right of where Speedy Express leaves us & but on arrival there could find no trace of 'B' Echn. I slept in a truck near there overnight and next morning continued my inquiries until CMP told me my Echn must be further down at next rd junc. Traffic was very heavy and I did not reach new 'B' Echn area until about 1030. Reported to S.S.M Fox and he paraded me to Echn Comd Maj Orr. He placed me under close arrest and I was told to go with M/ Sgt to recover scout car. I never received any orders that I could not take Sgt Sheehan.

Cross-Exam - I did not necessarily think I could get to Naples without anyone knowing. There were three men at old 'B' Echn when I left - the asst. cook and two others. The B.G.M.S promised me he would look after them.

By the Court - I figured the disposition of vehicles was under me. Sgt Sheehan was preparing to go on 6 mos compassionate leave and I thought I was given within my rights to take him. RCMS accepted responsibility for seeing that two trailers and his stores went along to new area. I did not seek a lift for Sgt Sheehan from C M P, on acct. of the men there at no 6 waiting for a lift. The vehicle was a Scout car no F205-952. It did not actually break down but I was afraid it would as it was making quite a noise at rear end. The American M P told me it would be quite safe. When we went looking for it the next day we found the U.S. provost had taken it into their enclosure. I am not sure whether the fitter tried to operate the vehicle or not. The motor was running alright. It never occurred to me to immobilize the vehicle since Provost had told me it was OK to leave it there. It was possibly 25 miles or a little better from old "B" ech to where I dropped Sgt Sheehan. From there back to new "B" ech would be about 5 or 10 miles further. It would not have been possible for me to make this trip without my absence being known. The fact that Sgt Sheehan's kit was missing when he first left, and had to return for it was one reason why I wanted to give him a lift. There was very little traffic on the road to Naples.

RP83(B) complied

Second witness for the Prosecution:

B60600 S/S M Fox R.A., 11 Can Armd Regt.

On 26 May 44 I detailed the accused to take charge of rear party at "B" echn.

No cross-exam.
RP 83 (B) complied with.

Defending Offr's summing up.
My plea is that since the accused was in charge of the rear party and in charge of the vehicles there he had implied authority to do what he did and used his discretion properly.
The Pros. offr makes no summing-up.

Summing up of J.A.
The sole issue in this case is that raised by the Def. Offr in his summing-up. Quotes final sub-para of Para 13, page 13 MML and places a charge of taking W.D. vehicle without authority in same category as examples given there. Sole point is that if according to customs of the service the accused, by reason of his position at the particular time had implied authority to use the vehicle in the manner he did. That issue is purely one of fact and is solely for you to decide. Discusses burden of proof - reasonable doubt

EXHIBIT B-1

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

NO. H63521 SGT. ROBIE, GEORGE, WILLIAM., 11 CDN ARMD REGT.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution. B60743 Sgt Sheehan, J., 11 Cdn Armd Regt., Central Mediterranean Force, having been duly sworn, states: -

I was given compassionate leave to England and was sent down to Forino, to commence my trip. Upon arriving there, I was asked where my kit was. The answer I gave, it being back at my Regiment.

I was given a special 24 hr pass to return to my Unit to gather up my kit.

Upon arriving at the Unit I gathered up my kit. I was offered a lift to highway 6 by the accused, whom I recognize, in a scout car, which I accepted. The accused drove me to the south side of the outskirts of Naples, to the junction of the Naples and Avelino road.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Did you not say that you would appreciate a lift as far as I could take you?

A. Yes.

Q. What kit did you have to take back with you?

A. 1 Large bag.
1 Big Pack.
1 Haversack.
1 Steel hat.

Q. How long did it take you to hitch-hike from Forino to the Regiment, for your kit?

A. Approximately 4 1/2 to 5 hrs.

Q. Did you have hopes getting back to Forino before your pass expired by hitch-hiking?

A. Yes. But the traffic was poor.

Q. Did you at any time suggest that I take you all the way?

A. No.

Q. Do you think with all the kit you were carrying that it would be hard to hitch-hike?

A. Yes it would, because you can hitch-hike much better free handed, minus kit.

Q. Do you think at any time did I drive in a manner that might cause damage to the vehicle?

A. No.

Q. What time did you get to Forino?

A. Approximately 2200 hrs.

Q. What time did I drop you on the other side of Naples?

A. Approximately 1700 hrs.

Q. How far approximately from Naples to Forino?

A. About 30 miles.

Q. Why did it take you 5 hrs to go 30 miles?

A. I was hitch-hiking and carrying my kit.

Second Witness for Prosecution.

B60554 RQMS Turner, H. W., 11 Cdn Armd Regt., Central Mediterranean Force, having been duly sworn, states: -

On 27 May 44 at approximately 1300 hrs, the accused, whom I recognize, approached me with the possibilities of taking Sgt Sheehan, J., to Forino.
I suggested to the accused, to take him as far as highway 6, where he could drop him off at a CMP post, where a lift would be easily gotten.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. You knew Sgt Sheehan had came back for his kit and had obtained it?

A. As far as I knew he had his kit. I didn't see it.

Third Witness for Prosecution.

Capt. J. M. Harold, 11 Cdn Armd Regt., Central Mediterranean Force, having been duly sworn, states: -

At approximately 1000 hrs 26 May 44, while in harbour area of San Vittore, Sgt Bryant informed me that Sgt Sheehan had arrived back at the Unit, and was in the old harbour. I asked Sgt Bryant what he was doing there and he informed me, that he had come back for his kit, and he wished transportation back to Forino. I emphatically stated that we would not give any transport to Sgt Sheehan and that he could get back on his own.
Sgt Bryant informed me that Sgt Robie, the accused, whom I recognize, was driving a Daimler Scout Car from the old to new harbour. Tpr Froud, who was driver of the scout car, was one of the men that was absent at the time of the move.
Immediately after lunch I left "B" Echelon to see the Adjutant, who is in A2 Echelon. On my return at approximately 1830 hrs Sgt Bryant informed me that he understood that the accused had driven Sgt Sheehan in the Scout Car, part way to Naples.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution.

B74831 Sgt Bryant, P., 11 Cdn Armoured Regt., Central Mediterranean Force, having been duly sworn, states: -

On 27 May 44 SSM Fox put the accused, whom I recognize, under arrest and detailed me for escort and to go down to Santa Maria to pick up a Scout Car, that was supposed to be there. When Tpr Rychoski and I arrived at the spot, No car was to be found. Later we found it at the American Police Post. Tpr. Rychoski checked and fixed the car and we returned to the Unit in it.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution.

B60801 L/Sgt Haase, A. E., 11 Cdn Armd Regt., Central Mediterranean Force, having been duly sworn, states: -

On 27 May 44 the accused, whom I recognize, reported to me that Scout Car F205952 had broken down near Santa Maria. One of our fitters went down and brought it back.

On 28 May 44 I made an inspection of said Scout Car and found tools correct, but a broken crown in the right rear bevill box.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. In your opinion was I responsible to this break down, of these parts?

A. No. It could happen to anyone.

Q. Did I do right by leaving the vehicle, when it had broken down?

A. Yes, not knowing what was the matter.

Q. Do you think that the damage could have been caused by this particular trip, or could it have been wearing for sometime?

A. It could have been wearing for sometime and upon examining it, it could have broken anytime.

The accused was cautioned as follows: -

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused does not call any witness for the defense.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of three pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Mitigation Plea

The accused enlisted in Nov 42 and came to France about 7 Jul 44 with his regiment, and served in action with a rifle company for about 4 months. His reason for going absent as charged was that he had asked for a pass and was told that he could not get one, although he had not had one for over a year. He went A.W.L. from 11 Bn. and stayed in Brest, and finally surrendered himself.

The court is requested to consider these facts in passing sentence.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea for mitigation of sentence on behalf of

O 101 931 Pte Robillard C.

This man is just twenty years of age & apparently at the time he went A.W.O.L. didn't realize how serious a mistake he was making. It seems that he had too much money at the time & he went out with a friend & drank too much. He did make an effort to get back but the regiment which was out for a rest at the time had left an hour or two before he arrived.

As to the second charge. The guard room he was put into had no lights & no blankets & he was induced by a friend to leave again ft.

The above six mentioned men did escape custody while under close arrest by b reaking out of improvise jail (barn), On Nov 25, 1944, 40 prisoners were given to me to keep. I (LIEUT G. BERNARD) was in chargeof the guards and these 40 men were put in the improvise jail. At all times there were 9 guards on duty. Every door and window was closely watched. Around 1730 hrs it was reported to me that some prisoners had escaped by a hole they had made in the roof of the barn (tile roof). This report was made to me by the Cpl. in charge of the guards at that time-Cpl. Olmstead. I immediately investigated and I found out that there was a hole big enough to let me through at the rear end of the barn. This hole in the roof was not there when the prisoners entered the barn. Around 1800 hrs I tried to make a roll-call to find out who did escape but it was impossible as the barn was in complete darkness and everybody was answering at the same time. No guards were put inside the barn on account of complete darkness. On the morning of the 26 Nov 44 the prisoners where brought out and I personally made a roll-call and the above six mentioned prisoners were absent.
