A Government Telegraph.

Thanks to the enterprise of the Canadian Pacific railway company, the telegraph monopoly is likely to get a shaking in Canada before long. But over the border the telegraph companies have the country's business by the throat, as it were, and nothing less than the strong arm of the government will suffice to set the country free.

The Conspiracy Case.

The Mail of yesterday shows a complete change of front in regard to Kirkland. When the paper was casting round for a scapegoat, "the Yankee" was seized on. It was easy to see that the money came from Kirkland and his principal, Peters, said the Mail.

The Morrison Tariff Bill.

From Washington we hear that interest in the Morrison tariff bill has somewhat subsided of late, owing to an impression that it cannot possibly be passed this session.

The Cause of the Decreased Reform Majority.

Some questions have lately been asked as to why the reform majority in the local house was reduced at the last election. No one who remembers the contest but remembers the explanation given at the time.

To the Editor of the World.

Sir: Some questions have lately been asked as to why the reform majority in the local house was reduced at the last election. No one who remembers the contest but remembers the explanation given at the time.

Mr. Irving Tells a Good Story.

From the Cleveland Herald: The queen, as he who knows may read, has often made visits, both of pleasure and policy, to her estates in Scotland, being at such times more than heartily welcomed by the canny Scots, who, almost without exception, highly reverence her and likewise all that she does.

Goldwin Smith Explains.

Prof. Goldwin Smith writes to the Evening Telegram: Sir: The case of Mr. Kirkland, the member of an American lumber firm, who has been arrested for conspiracy and for whom I have become bail, has been identified in the public mind with other cases of a more political character.

Very Hard to Please.

To the Editor of the World: Sir: Last evening the celebrated prophet of Bond street, delivered a peculiar tirade against the ladies and fashion in dress. Has the reverend gentleman no idea that silks and satins, pearls, jewelry and what not, are placed in the reach of the denizens of this sphere by an all-wise providence to gratify and please the curious tastes? Or would the doctor like to see ladies (as it were) insult the almighty by dressing plain as a pike staff and wear nothing but brown Holland, cotton, or duck—and leave off wearing jewelry, etc.?

The Coming Sportsmen's Convention. The convention of sportsmen to consider proposed amendments to the game laws will meet at the city hall to-morrow night. Already a number of delegates have arrived in town, and the prospects are that the gathering will be a large and important one.

The Toronto gun club has named the following gentlemen as delegates: Alex. McGregor, E. Martin, W. Buzz, C. Pickering, J. Young, J. Humphrey. The club met last night and concurred in the amendments proposed by Capt. Harston with the exception of the clause abolishing shore shooting of duck. The club supports this clause as far as grouse, pheasant, prairie fowl, partridge, woodcock, snipe, water fowl known as grey duck, mallard, black duck, wood or summer duck, pintail, snipe, woodcock, quail and shoveler are concerned, but in regard to other duck, swan and geese it proposes that the clause should be from August 1 to September 1. In regard to wild turkeys or quail, the club suggests that the close season shall be from January 1 to October 15. These are the only alterations the delegates will propose in Capt. Harston's amendments.

The Dominion kennel club will be represented by Mr. Cassella, Mr. Spooner, Mr. Tanning, Mr. Howard, Mr. Hunter and Capt. Harston.

Mr. F. C. Lewis, an old sportsman, has arrived as the delegate of the Dunville gun club.

A Knotty Point. At many Irish regattas it is customary for a sum of money to be added to challenge cups given for amateur races, such money to go to the funds of the winning crew, not one of the crew gaining the slightest pecuniary advantage. The question is as to whether a crew by competing in such races forfeit their amateur status in now causing some stir on the other side of the Irish channel, and efforts are being made to have the matter definitely settled one way or the other. In our opinion a crew should have just as much right to compete in such a contest as a team of gentlemen have to play a football match in which their club takes the whole or part of the gate; but it must also be considered that if such races are allowed they may be used as a method whereby money prizes may eventually find their way into the hands of the competitors. Under these circumstances the amateur rowing association is quite justified in making every kind of race for which money forms all or part of the prize no matter what the ultimate destination of such money may be. -Bell's Life.

Houses Without Kitchens.

I hope the time will come when we shall have outgrown the barbarity of having a kitchen in every house. If you stop to think of it just a little, it indicates a lack of civilization, such as it would if a man had a bootshop, a hatter and a tailor shop in his own house, and everything else as primitive, barbarous man did. The time will come when we shall have co-operative housekeeping, when men of year-long training, and understanding this physical life of ours, will furnish us with food. -Rev. J. M. Savage.

The Bonanza Queen.

Truth says that Mrs. Mackay has given pain "to all right thinking persons in Paris" by appearing in a dress of white velvet trimmed all over with the wings of robin red breast, and, to complete this barbaric toilet, her shoes of red velvet were entirely covered with the toes of the little robin. The dress is made in the princess shape, with a wattleau back and a comet train of portentous length, and the corage is flagrantly décollete, and is bordered with red feathers, with which all the train is edged.

Third, it is the cheapest in the market. Many more could be given, but this should be sufficient. For sale by all grocers. Lowden & Co., Wholesale Agents for Toronto. 24-6.

Disease gathers strength as it advances. Annihilate it at its birth. When the bowels become sluggish, the digestion feeble, or the liver torpid, they should be aroused and stimulated with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, a medicine foremost in usefulness among alternatives. It should not be abandoned if an immediate cure is not effected, but be used as it deserves, systematically and with persistence. It will then prove that it is thorough.

Real ice worth shawls, hand made, worth $2.50 wholesale, in all shades, for one dollar at Farley's.

The B. C. C. show.
All the arrangements for the opening of the great bench show in the Horticultural gardens are now as far advanced as they can be. Mr. Jackson, the honorary secretary, has worked early and late, night and day. In fact so diligent has he been that sleep and he have almost come to be strangers. But if his efforts are only to be crowned with success as they will assuredly be—he will be amply rewarded for his labor of love. There will be little or no ceremony about the opening of the exhibition. The dogs will be allotted their positions to-day, and to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock the doors will be thrown open to the public. To avoid unnecessary confusion exhibitors are requested to be as early as possible at the pavilion to-morrow morning. It is estimated that the dogs on show will be worth close on $100,000.

Hans and Gretel.
Tickets are out for this operetta, and are already selling rapidly. When it was given in Buffalo the Express gave the following criticism: "Buffalo against the world for the support and encouragement of home talent, as now so far advanced last evening at St. James' hall, the occasion being the first performance of a new operetta entitled Hans and Gretel. The hall was completely packed, every available space being filled.
The operetta is of a kind that is sure to please, and the manner in which it was put on the stage is simply wonderful. Many professional artists have met with far less successful results than did our amateurs last evening."

Ladies, don't fail to see those new stylish spring mantles for about half price at Farley's.

Baby Carriages.
Harry Collins, Yonge street, offers the handsome line of baby carriages in the trade. Mothers who wish to give the little totty-wooties a comfortable vehicle for out of door exercise should patronize Harry. Comfort, elegance and cheapness are combined in one. A baby looks his very best in one of Harry's conveyances, and mothers should bear this in mind. No matter what the baby is like, whether a big or little fat, or thin, dark or light, rosy or ugly, he will look well in Harry's carriages.

The Marston Remedy Fraud.
A victim of the "Marston Remedy Co." writes to the Agents' Herald of Philadelphia: "I have sent twice for their remedies which came in at over $80, and am to-day no better than when I began. They are the smoothest talking frauds I ever saw. Many others have been similarly swindled. The same frauds have an agency in Toronto, carrying on a similar business."

If you want lace curtains in white, cream and cardinal, less than the cost of importation, go to Farley's.

Frightful King Street.
Why don't the city commissioner get a gang of men on King street at once cleaning off the ice and mud? It would pay the merchants for each one to go his own way from the commissioner is unequal to the task. They are losing business by every day's delay.

Very wide skirting embroidery, worth 65 cents a yard, for 25 cents, at Farley's.

The Truck System at Weston.
To the Editor, Sir: You gave the account of the weavers' strike here very correct, but there is one thing you forgot. How are we paid; in money or goods? The firm keep store, and we are subject to all evils of the truck system, so much in vogue among the pauper labor of the old country. Sincerely,
Weston, March 22.
