TWELFTH YEAR.

THE OTTAWA CRISIS.

Mr. Abbott Still Resisting Chapleau's Demands.

MEREDITH FROM OTTAWA.

What Can Chapleau Do If He Retires?

Other Likely Changes—Angers and Oulmont from Quebec—Caron, Carling, Dewdney Spoken of as About to Retire—The case of Mr. McIlroy, Jr., and the Premier Acting as Secretary of State—A Settlement in View—Chapleau and The Hamilton Spectator.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—Cabinet reconstruction is going on rather quietly, on the whole, all the row and rumour seem to be confined to Montreal and Toronto. But there is no doubt that a severe struggle is taking place between Mr. Abbott and Mr. Chapleau. The Premier's position may be described as one of uncompromising resistance to the building up of demands of Chapleau. He has said nothing but resist, and what his strength of resistance is both Mr. Chapleau and his friends will soon ascertain.

What, then, can be done with Chapleau? It seems to be the question that must first be cleared away. Mr. Abbott can: (1) Concede Chapleau's demands; (2) refuse them point blank and throw him out of the cabinet; (3) keep him as Secretary of State or President of the Council; (4) send him to Quebec as Lieutenant-Governor.

The first of these will not do; to do the second, that is, to accept Chapleau's resignation, is to do one thing which would be to do one which would strengthen him from one end of Canada to the other. That would not be to the advantage of the government. It is not in mood for members of that party who would do this. The third is a compromise. It is to let Chapleau go to Quebec as the next best thing. He can hardly remain in the government, the third course open to the Premier. If Chapleau remains in the cabinet the Premier's position is not improved.

Mr. Abbott must first settle with Chapleau, and when that is done he will proceed easily with the rest of the undertaking. But the people can rest satisfied that he is going to surrender to the French-Canadian leader's demands.

The Chapleau business disposed of, the announcement may at once be looked for of Mr. W. R. Meredith's entrance into the cabinet as the Ontario leader. That is what is on the cards now.

After Mr. Meredith's entrance into the cabinet, Mr. Abbott will come from Quebec—once the Bala des Chaleurs reformation is over. The government's conduct in ordering the investigation of the already been vindicated; both by Meredith's position of the Ontario leader, and the evidence that has been adduced.

Col. Quinlan is also a likely minister from Quebec. In all likelihood, Mr. Caron will retire.

Mr. Carling does not care to retire for the present, though if his portfolio is needed he will not hesitate to offer it.

John Carling, a quiet, sensible, willing man who has not been found guilty. But Mr. Carling's resignation is not likely.

To come back to Chapleau. What are the chances of his doing the Conservative party's bidding? He can take five men or three men with him. Chapleau, in office and out of it, is a distinction which will be made, and when it comes to the final test it will be demonstrated.

The Premier as Acting Secretary.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—All doubt of Chapleau's having resigned his seat in parliament has been dispelled to-day by the Hamilton Spectator. The very first proclamation of the resignation of Mr. Chapleau, which was made at that point, it was an announcement revoking the order in council passed a couple of days before.

Following the arrest of the principal of the Louisiana case, the clerks are all to be proceeded against for sending letters matter through the mails.

It is reported from Chattanooga, Tenn., that a secret understanding exists between the ministers working in the mines, and the foreman of what is to follow.

ALBERT EDWARD BURNED OUT.

THE PRINCE OF WALES' LONDON RESIDENCE DESTROYED.

A Spark From a Fine Cane 875,000 Damage—Most of the Valuable Furniture Saved—Ten Thousand Lives Lost by the Japanese Earthquake—General Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—At 7 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the room of the Prince of Wales residence was on fire. An hour later the whole upper part of the building was in flames and in a few minutes the roof collapsed with a tremendous crash. The reflection of the flames was visible for miles around. Several fire brigades were on the scene and were assisted by hundreds of volunteers, including an engine company by the Great Eastern Railway Company by special train.

The fire was under control by 11 o'clock. In the meantime all the valuable furniture in the lower rooms had been removed to the lawn. The second and third floors of the building were gutted and their contents destroyed. The lower rooms were greatly damaged by water. The total amount of damage is estimated at £15,000.

The Prince of Wales and his family were absent at the time, but were kept constantly advised as to the progress of the fire. The Prince will come home to-morrow.

The servants were preparing the house for the arrival of the family and it is supposed that the fire was caused by a spark from a fine cane which smouldered during the night.

24,000 PEOPLE KILLED.

Harrowing Details of the Recent Earthquake in Japan.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A Yokohama despatch announces that the lowest estimate of the killed and injured by the recent earthquake is placed at 24,000. Nowhere were the effects of the Japanese officials adequate and there is little doubt that many thousands have been saved had there been anything like a systematic relief service.

Despatches from Higo, Japan, say the terrible earthquake which occurred in that district at night, destroyed the city of Nagasaki, and the surrounding country. All the public buildings and most of the smaller houses were destroyed.

Fire was started among the wrecked buildings in Nagasaki completed the work of destruction in the most crowded quarter of the town.

Many vessels are reported to have been wrecked in the vicinity of Higo and during the disturbance the waters of the lake in the surrounding country were violently agitated. A few portions of the Nippon islands escaped the earthquake and the number of Europeans who lost their lives by the terrible visitation is small.

Followers said his doctrine, and finally a decree was issued making it a capital crime to profess his doctrine. Since then fire and sword have been used by the Government to suppress the sect.

Impressed for Their Religion. LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Chronicle publishes a despatch from Tiflis, in Russian Trans-Caucasia, saying that the procurator of the Russian synod has finished his career of persecution by arrest of four chief leaders of the Protestant sect known as the "Baba," who claimed him and sent him to his death.
