The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par la première page et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par la seconde page, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

EXTRAORDINARY.

Mercury Office, 15th December, 1837.

MONTREAL, (Courier) Dec. 13.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—The long expected movements upon Grand Brulé is at last made. This morning the force destined for the expedition left town, consisting (with those already posted at St. Martin) of the Royal Regiment, under Lieut. Col. Weatherall, K. H., the 22d Regiment, under the Hon. Lieut. Col. Maitland, the 88d Regiment, under the Hon. Lieut. Col. Dundas, a strong force of the Royal Artillery with 6 guns, under Major Jackson, and a strong force of Volunteers, both horse and foot.—Lieut. Gen Sir John Colborne, Commander in Chief, leaves town at two o'clock, to take command of the expedition.

The strength of the expedition shows the reason of the apparent long delay that has occurred before sending it out. The rebel force at Grand Brulé is completely hemmed in. Behind them are the two companies of regulars at Carillon, and the loyal Volunteers of St Andrews and the Seigneurie of Argenteuil. The force that now attacks them in front is such as to leave them no chance of momentary success. The body of armed men in their rear takes from them the poor hope of escape.

We shall lose no time in publishing the earliest authentic information, that can be procured of the progress of the expedition.

Six companies of regulars remain in garrison, belonging to the 24th and 66th regiments. Besides these, we have a great part of Lieut. Col. McCord's Volunteer Brigade, consisting of the Artillery, and some of the Rifles and Cavalry, Lieut. Col. Holme's Montreal Light Infantry, the three entire Battalions of Loyal Volunteers, and the greater part of Lieut. Col. Dyer's Volunteer Militia.—Lieut. Col. Hughes of the 24th, is in command of the garrison.

Dr. WOLFE NELSON of St. Denis, M. P. P. one of the ten persons for whom £500 reward has been offered, is just brought into town, as a prisoner.

We are informed that he was taken yesterday, in the township of Stukely, in company with a man named Celestine Parent, of St. Pie, a servant of G. Drotet's, and ordered to accompany him, by a party of men, four of Colonel Knowlton's militia, who handed them over to the charge of a detachment of Missisquoi Volunteers, and by them they were at once brought into town. They were making the best of their way to the States, under the guidance of an Indian, who also has been brought into town with them. They are said to have been 7 days in the woods, and are wretchedly worn out with fatigue and exhaustion. It is not quite so easy now to cross the line either way, as the rebels could wish. Will the N. Y. Express still continue sure that Col Weatherall was defeated at St. Charles, and that Montreal accounts are not trustworthy. The inmates of the Montreal Gaol would tell quite another story.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM UPPER CANADA:—REPORTED DEFEAT AND DISPERSION OF THE REBELS UNDER M'KENZIE AND LOUNT.

HALF-PAST TWO, P. M.

The Upper Canada mail has just come in. We have received only the Kingston Chronicle of Friday, which contains nothing later from Toronto.

An endorsement on the Mail Way Bill, by the Kingston Post-master, is in this words:

"The Cobourg Mail just arrived. The rebels are defeated—25 killed—several prisoners—not a Constitutionalist hurt."

A private letter received by a gentleman in town, written, as we are informed, from Toronto, and mailed at Cobourg, confirms the above account, with the addition, that the rebel force was totally dispersed.

Another letter from Cobourg which we have heard read, and which is dated December 7th, states that a schooner had just been seized with some 300 or 400 new rifles on board, destined for the use of the rebels. The mail from the westward, it is added, had been stopped and rifled, the night before. Messrs. BIDWELL, ROLPH, SMALL, and BALDWIN, are mentioned in it, as having given in their adhesion to the government and taken arms in defence of Toronto. The latest news however, is not given in this letter.

We are told that another letter from Cobourg makes the number of rifles taken in the schooner to be 800.—The next mail may be expected, to bring full particulars of the whole transaction. In the meantime, there is no reason to doubt the correctness of the above information.

We subjoin all that we find of interest in Kingston Chronicle.

We learn from Cobourg, that Ebenezer Perry and his brother, Peter Perry, Esq. together with Wilson S. Conger, Esq. have already proceeded with a strong volunteer party to Toronto, to join the Royal Standard. These gentlemen have been long known as reformers of the first water. It is now gratifying to observe, that notwithstanding their reforming notions they are true and loyal men.

DEFENCE OF KINGSTON.—On Wednesday last on the arrival of the startling intelligence from the seat of Government, that Toronto was in danger of being attacked by the rebels—the Magistrates convened in the Court House where a large concourse of the inhabitants assembled, and prompt measures were adopted for the protection of Kingston. The town was divided into four sections, and a strong patrol headed by a Magistrate perambulated during the night—these precautionary steps have since been continued—and we are now happy to inform the public that the Block Houses, Nos. 3 and 4 are to be placed immediately in a state of defence by the Commandant of the Garrison, and placed forthwith under the care of Lieuts. Harper and Clarke, of the Royal Navy, who are to have a strong and effective Marine Corps under their command.

Colonels Markland and Raines have called out their respective corps, viz: the 1st and 2d Regiments of the Frontenac Militia.

A letter received in town, written in Toronto just as the messenger was leaving on Wednesday evening, states that Mr. Sheriff Jarvis' beautiful residence in the vicinity of the city was then in flames.

Extracts from a Letter dated Cobourg, Dec. 7.

"On Tuesday night a Courier arrived here post haste from Toronto, with orders for the Volunteers to proceed immediately thither. About 500 from this place, Fort Hope, and the adjoining county, left this day for active service. The last accounts from Toronto, are by the steamer Traveller, which arrived here last night, on her way to Kingston for stores, arms, artillery, &c. Last night the Western mail was taken as it was going into Toronto, and destroyed by Mackenzie; and the mail made up at Toronto for below, was also taken, a few miles below that city.

"All the leading reformers of Toronto, Bidwell, Baldwin, &c. are under arms with the Government party.

"Two Schooners with about 500 men have arrived at Toronto, from Niagara and Hamilton.

"Mackenzie's party is variously stated, it is said that he has 500 blacks, besides a large number of Indians." [So much for rumor.]

"Since the Volunteers left this to-day, accounts have been received by two farmers that numbers of Mackenzie's party are in ambush between this place and Toronto, waiting for them, and that this information was given to the volunteers when they met them, so that they might be on their guard. This, I have no doubt is the case, as the last stage that arrived here was stopped and the trunks of the passengers opened and searched, but nothing taken.

"A schooner from some part of the States with several hundred rifles on board, for Mackenzie, was taken the other day going into Toronto."

An Extra from the office of the Toronto Patriot, announces that the house of Dr. Horne, was burned under the inspection of McKenzie who ordered the same process on the property of Sheriff Jarvis; but General Lount would not allow it in return for a personal favor conferred on him by the Sheriff.

Col. Wells was taken prisoner, and his house plundered of the whole of his plate. Col. Cameron and his son have also fallen into the hands of the rebels. Sheriff Jarvis and Mr. Cameron, with a small party, had a skirmish with a detachment of the rebels, one of the latter was killed and two wounded.

Dr. Morrison, who filled the different offices of Adj. Gen. Paymaster General, Spy, and Physician to the forces, and the notorious Kennedy have both been made prisoners in McKenzie's dwelling house.—The Printing establishment of McKenzie, was taken possession of by the authorities. He has in company with 50 other ruffians robbed the western mail within a few miles of Toronto.
