Unusual Values

Hundreds of shoppers were waiting at the doors yesterday morning for the store to open at eight o'clock, and all through the day we were as busy as could be serving those who came to share in the special values we put out for the day or while the goods lasted. To-day we expect as big crowds, for prices are just as tempting as they were yesterday. For Wednesday this list tells the story in part. As we never play with words in describing goods, and never juggle with prices, you can tell by reading these items just what to expect and how much you will be in pocket buying at these prices. Better be an early buyer, as we can't promise that what you want will be here all day.

We cannot guarantee to fill Mail or Telephone Orders at these prices, and a limit for each purchase will be placed on every line.

A ROW IN THE CAMP

Dr. Courtice has taken exception to our report of the meeting of the Executive of the Dominion Alliance, held on Saturday. We print his letter, as requested, on the first page of The World this morning. When analyzed, the doctor's repudiation of our report has little to justify it. We maintain that our report was substantially correct. Nor does Dr. Courtice deny this. He says the official report handed to The World reporter was quite a different one from the report published in The World. This statement only goes to prove that the official report was not an accurate synopsis of what took place. The World's report was correct. The report Dr. Courtice thinks we should have published was colorless and misleading. The only direct imputation of the veracity of our report is in regard to our statement that Premier Ross had written Dr. Courtice two letters, in which certain promises were made that were not fulfilled in the referendum. Dr. Courtice says this statement is untrue, but he does not state where it is untrue. If there is any untruth in the statement it is a purely technical error. We have since learned that Dr. Courtice received the promises from Mr. Ross verbally, and not thru two letters, and our reporter was apparently misled in this particular. But, on the whole, our report was correct, and Dr. Courtice's admission that he has in view a conference with Mr. Whitney is a substantial confirmation of the report and of the fact that there is a big row in the camp. One of the chief difficulties that the prohibitionists have to contend with is the split in their own ranks. There is apparently a large number of them who hold party before principle, and these are trying to help Premier Ross out of his dilemma. But just how this can be done is a conundrum. In whatever direction Premier Ross may turn he is up against an impracticable situation. It seems to us he must adopt one of two courses. He must either espouse prohibition as a government measure, drop the referendum, and go to the country on prohibition as a party issue, or else he must resign on the ground of his unwillingness or his inability to carry out his pledge, publicly made to the temperance people to give them prohibitory legislation.

THE REFERENDUM IN ILLINOIS

If the referendum is to be made a part of our constitution, the principle should be adopted by the legislature and incorporated in the provincial statutes. We ourselves are in favor of the referendum on general principles, and we have advocated its use, in a limited way, in the administration of the affairs of the country. Premier Ross would make the referendum idea popular if he would only apply it to the settlement of such matters as it is specially suited to deal with. The referendum would be the proper method for settling questions involving the principle of public ownership, and Premier Ross might very advantageously enact such a bill as was passed last year by the Illinois State legislature, known as the Initiative and Referendum Act of 1901. This bill provides machinery which enables the municipalities of Illinois to settle all questions of public ownership for themselves. The city of Chicago has just taken advantage of the Act, and it has arranged for the taking of a referendum on the question of the city's retaining its own hands the street railway franchises, which are about to expire. The matter is to be settled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the electors voting on such proposition.

The Referendum and the Gas Plant

Premier Ross may have an opportunity within a day or two to place himself on record in regard to the efficacy of the referendum. The City Council is now discussing a resolution endorsing the purchase of the plant and business of the Consumers' Gas Company by the city. The resolution will very likely be passed by

Coughing? PROPOSAL TO BUY GAS PLANT CAUSES NOISY COUNCIL MEETING

Start at once for your drug store for some cough medicine. If you meet your doctor on the way, tell him you are going after a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he has anything better to offer you, get it. We want to help you, and so do your doctor.

THE REFERENDUM AND THE GAS PLANT

There was a bear garden session of the City Council yesterday afternoon, and the gas question came in for another juggle, which will be continued at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Civic ownership of the gas plant was discussed as a straight proposition that the city offer to buy the business at practically the present market price of the stock. This proposition was embodied in a resolution presented by Ald. Oliver and Urquhart without apparently attracting any large degree of popularity with the Mayor, Ald. McMurrich, Ald. Hubbard, Ald. Sheppard and a few others, while Ald. Spence and Ald. Curran on the question made a strong fight to have the resolution carry with a few minor changes.

What the Resolution Caused

The feature of the meeting was the attitude of the Mayor to frost the resolution and the persistence of Ald. Hubbard and Ald. Sheppard to annihilate the attitude. His Worship had numerous technicians, who he calculated sufficient to kill the resolution, but had nearly four hours of disorderly conduct, the gas question was laid down till to-day.

PROHIBITION AND THE POOL ROOM

Editor World: As at this time the prohibition question is of great interest to the public I would like to make a few remarks with regard to our pool rooms. In the pleasure of playing pool or billiards there is no harm, but it is the association with it which is the trouble. Young men get that rule, I might say, their future prospects. There is no mental or physical cultivation in the pool room. With regard to the prohibition question, I would like to say that a large majority of our young men who have started to drink have taken their first step when they entered the pool room. It is easier to go into a pool room than to go into an hotel or barroom.

Treaty Disposed of

Washington, Feb. 17.—Mrs. Charles Purdy has returned to Toledo from the Klondike with a fortune. During her four years' residence in the Klondike, she kept a boarding house and hotel, she bought and sold claims aggregating $1,000,000, and when she finally came away it was with over $1,000,000 in gold dust.

Don't Marry

Almost everybody remembers the celebrated advice of the London Punch. "To those about to marry. Don't." There is in that advice the expression of the feeling of many a mother who says, "I hope my daughter will never marry and suffer as I have."
In ninety-eight cases in every hundred there is no need for this suffering. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the womanly diseases which cause wifely misery. It cures female weakness, it invigorates the womanly organism, it tranquilizes the nerves, it gives the mother strength to give her children a healthy start.
Do not allow an unscrupulous dealer to sell you something in place of "Favorite Prescription." Here is guaranteed "just as good." There is nothing just as good for women as "Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Chase's Talks Anemia

Put your finger on it. It bleeds more than you think it should, and seems a long time in healing. You notice it when you get up in the morning, and find your face pale and bloodless, and the inner eyelids without color. What can be the matter? You are anemic. There is a deficiency in the quality or quantity of the blood in your body. The tissues wasted by worry, over-exercising or disease are not being replaced, and you are gradually losing in flesh and weight. When you come to think of it, there is other evidence of falling health. Loss of appetite, lack of interest in the affairs of the world, feelings of languor and fatigue, impaired digestion, shortness of breath, dizziness and fainting, and a general feeling of weakness and listlessness.

OWEN SOUND AND VICINITY

Owen Sound, Feb. 17.—L. Duckworth, furrier, of Toronto and Owen Sound, who occupies a store in the "Beir block," was in town Saturday, and arranged for a lease of the premises owned by George C. Brignell, and occupied by him for many years as a butcher shop. Mr. Brignell has purchased a house on Division-street, where the business will be continued by his son, H. R. Manders & Co. who shortly open a hardware business in the premises of the LePan estate, formerly occupied by LePan & Co. in the same line.

SAYS J. F. GROSS, M.L.A., WELLAND

Opposes Public Ownership of All Power Under the Development at Niagara Falls.

Before an open meeting of the local branch of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers last night in Richmond Hall, J. F. Gross, M.L.A., for Welland, delivered an interesting and instructive address on the bringing of electric energy from Niagara Falls.

In his introductory remarks he assured the workers that he would support any measure introduced in the legislature that would benefit the workingman.

In speaking of electric energy, he described the machinery and plant of the Niagara Power Company, which supplies electricity to Buffalo, Tonawanda, Lockport and several other places near-by. This plant generated 40,000 horse power, but was doing a progress made by the company on the Canadian side to install a plant. Over in Niagara district, said the speaker, there is much dissatisfaction that the development of the new company was not started soon.

"The Canadian company up to date had let contracts for $2,000,000, and before the plant had been fully completed the cost would amount to $3,000,000. When such extensive preparations were being made, the speaker declared that there was no local market to support them. The Mayor wanted to lay the resolution on table, and get this tangled affair off his mind. He got into another altercation with Ald. Spence, who retorted and warmly reprimanded the remarks of the Mayor.

Numerous motions to adjourn were made, and by Ald. Graham to adjourn the debate was almost passing when Ald. Urquhart and Spence shifted the question to a further adjournment of the Council to continue the debate a definite time, and after some more work on both sides, this afternoon was called upon.

TRADE WITHIN THE EMPIRE

An Important Movement Will be Discussed by Premiers.

London, Feb. 17.—The Mail's Sydney correspondent wires: "I understand that at the coming meeting of premiers in London on the occasion of the King's coronation, the question of reciprocal trade within the empire is likely to be considered."

The question will be discussed between Mr. Barton, the Federal Premier, and the Canadian, whereby goods from the present will be allowed a rebate of customs in each country.

It is maintained that such a step is quite feasible without the violation of the most favored nation clause.

On behalf of New Zealand, Mr. T. J. Seddon, the Premier, approves the idea.

TEMPLEMAN IN CABINET

Will Have No Portfolio at Present—Selection Endorsed.

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—The Premier invited the British Columbia members to meet him in his office this forenoon to hear their views on the question of cabinet representation for British Columbia. The matter was talked over in the presence of the Premier and Sir Wilfrid's position already stated to take Senator Templeman into the cabinet shortly.

On behalf of New Zealand, Mr. T. J. Seddon, the Premier, approves the idea.

THE PROHIBITION BILL

Editor World: I think you are hardly fair to Mr. Ross if you are a sincere anti-prohibitionist. His bill makes it almost impossible to carry prohibition, and if there is a large vote polled at the first election. For my own part I am very grateful, and for the first time in my life I will use my own money to get a very large vote polled in my township without any regard to party politics. I will vote for prohibition at least one-half of a vote straight against prohibition, and the rest for the present bill. I will vote for prohibition at the 14th of October. Being more interested in a continuation of the present liquor traffic than in any other matter, I am in favor of any measure that will keep the present law in force, and I will vote for it.

MAYOR BECK'S MISSION

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—Mayor Beck has been in Ottawa for the past few days. He came, primarily, to see the opening of parliament, and incidentally to find an occupant for one of the offices at Victoria Hospital. Since coming here he has been negotiating with Miss Middleton, lady superintendent of the Protestant General Hospital, to go to London. He has been so successful that Miss Middleton leaves this evening for London, and it is understood, if matters are arranged satisfactorily, which Mayor Beck has offered her.

BEAUTIFUL HOME FOR KING

Magnificent Palace on the Riviera Where He Will Pass Spring Season.

PLANTS ARE ALWAYS IN FULL BLOOM

Groves of Olive Trees Planted By His Majesty When He Was Prince of Wales.

Paris, Feb. 17.—Among the many estates offered him, King Edward has finally fixed his choice on the Chateau de Thoreau, near Cannes, for his residence during his stay on the Riviera in March. It belongs to Lord Rendel, and is considered the most beautiful demeure on all the azure coast-leaving in the shade even the great estates of the Grand Dukes of Russia.

Lord Rendel has been in the board of management of the famous A.M. strong firm, and has a fortune estimated at over $50,000,000. From 1882 to 1885 he was Civil Lord of the Admiralty.

While Prince of Wales, King Edward was several times a guest at Thoreau. A few years ago it was rumored in the English circles at Cannes that he had offered to buy the place, but that Lord Rendel, refusing to take money and insisting on making a present of it, the then Prince had given up the idea.

The 125-acre park surrounding the estate is entirely shut in by stone walls clad in ivy and hollyhocks. The avenues and lanes aggregate 12 miles. In another superb country place—Lionel, at Guifford. He spends five or six months a year at Cannes, and has another fine residence at Fontainebleau, near Naples.

Lady Rendel has long been renowned for her exacting fastidiousness as regards the keeping of her gardens. At Thoreau she has men going nothing but looking after them, besides a head gardener, two foremen and a squad of expert gardeners.

As the park lies on a hillside, the aged Lord Rendel has been obliged to have a tiny chase, drawn by two white donkeys, and two men with rakes follow at a distance to clear the traces of the wheels at once.

Wonderful Collection of Exotics. What has attracted the King to the Chateau de Thoreau more than anything else is the wonderful collection of rare plants and flowers which Lord Rendel has gathered there.

Count's Sale Register. Credit sale of farm, stock, implements, furniture, hay, grain, etc., by the County of York, at the residence of Mr. W. H. Wainwright, on Lot 24, concession 8, Scarborough, on Monday, Feb. 24, 1902.

BEAUTIFUL HOME FOR KING

Magnificent Palace on the Riviera Where He Will Pass Spring Season.

PLANTS ARE ALWAYS IN FULL BLOOM

Groves of Olive Trees Planted By His Majesty When He Was Prince of Wales.

Paris, Feb. 17.—Among the many estates offered him, King Edward has finally fixed his choice on the Chateau de Thoreau, near Cannes, for his residence during his stay on the Riviera in March. It belongs to Lord Rendel, and is considered the most beautiful demeure on all the azure coast-leaving in the shade even the great estates of the Grand Dukes of Russia.

Lord Rendel has been in the board of management of the famous A.M. strong firm, and has a fortune estimated at over $50,000,000. From 1882 to 1885 he was Civil Lord of the Admiralty.

While Prince of Wales, King Edward was several times a guest at Thoreau. A few years ago it was rumored in the English circles at Cannes that he had offered to buy the place, but that Lord Rendel, refusing to take money and insisting on making a present of it, the then Prince had given up the idea.

The 125-acre park surrounding the estate is entirely shut in by stone walls clad in ivy and hollyhocks. The avenues and lanes aggregate 12 miles. In another superb country place—Lionel, at Guifford. He spends five or six months a year at Cannes, and has another fine residence at Fontainebleau, near Naples.

Lady Rendel has long been renowned for her exacting fastidiousness as regards the keeping of her gardens. At Thoreau she has men going nothing but looking after them, besides a head gardener, two foremen and a squad of expert gardeners.

As the park lies on a hillside, the aged Lord Rendel has been obliged to have a tiny chase, drawn by two white donkeys, and two men with rakes follow at a distance to clear the traces of the wheels at once.

Wonderful Collection of Exotics. What has attracted the King to the Chateau de Thoreau more than anything else is the wonderful collection of rare plants and flowers which Lord Rendel has gathered there.

Count's Sale Register. Credit sale of farm, stock, implements, furniture, hay, grain, etc., by the County of York, at the residence of Mr. W. H. Wainwright, on Lot 24, concession 8, Scarborough, on Monday, Feb. 24, 1902.
