Second Step in Pilgrimage of Peace Initiated by Lord Haldane—On King's Trip to Germany Announcement of High Importance is Expected

(Times' Special Cable). London, Eng., May 16—The official explanation of Viscount Morley's visit to Berlin must be read with the deepest scepticism. The first suggestion, that he went to arrange ceremonial details regarding the forthcoming royal visit, by Lord Haldane, is likely to be more plausible but equally improbable.

Presque Isle, May 16—An overpowering sense of impending calamity weighed heavily on Mrs. Zebulon Fields' mind for several weeks past, according to statements which she has frequently made to members of her family and her neighbors. On Wednesday morning her worst fears were realized. Mrs. Fields was burned to death in a fire which started in her husband's barn, a mile out on the Houston road, and the entire set of buildings was consumed. The fire started at 1:30 o'clock and, when Mrs. Fields was found to be missing, a party of neighbors commenced searching the woods in that vicinity for her. It was her absence that her charred body was found in the smoking ruins of the barn.

TWO BRANCHES OF C. M. B. A. PREPARE FOR ANNIVERSARIES

Numbers 133 and 134 Are To Celebrate Next Week

A Glance Backward to the Time of Organization—Four Branches Now in City With Some 800 Members

Two of the branches of the C. M. B. A. in the city, 133 and 134 will celebrate the twenty-third anniversary of their founding on Tuesday and Wednesday next, May 21 and May 22. Both are in a very satisfactory condition, with increasing membership, and bright prospects. The members of the city branch, 134, will observe their anniversary with a smoker at which a programme of music, drama and other amusements will be enjoyed. Of the several who formed the membership on the charter roll, few are now surviving either in the Carleton or city branch, but those who are still numbered as charter members retain the hearty interest and activity which they displayed on joining. It was in 1890 that several Catholic men met in the office of Hon. John L. Carleton, then a rising young barrister, and now judge of the county court of Carleton county and discussed the matter of introducing a Catholic benefit association into the city. A few of the bodies then in existence had a sick benefit, but none provided for insurance protection. The Catholic Union in London had for years labored to provide such a scheme, but for various reasons had failed, at the meeting in question it was decided to establish a branch of the C. M. B. A. here. T. P. Tansey, of Montreal, was delegated to come here and on May 28 instituted branch 133 in Carleton, with the late P. J. O'Keefe president, organizing branch 134 in the city on the evening following, with J. L. Carleton as president. Two years afterwards the association in Canada left the American body, on which it had been dependant and under which it had been governed, and became a distinctly Canadian association.

Under the guidance of Judge Carleton the association grew rapidly, and on the late P. J. O'Keefe being elected a member of the grand council he entered into the work most heartily, and in a few years branches became well established throughout the Atlantic provinces. Today there are four branches in St. John with about 800 members, with branch 134 leading with nearly 400. More than 75,000 death claims have been paid to widows or orphans of deceased members. The organization has been heartily endorsed and supported by the hierarchy of the church, many of whom are enrolled upon its membership register, and branch 134 has the distinction of the membership of His Grace, Archbishop Casey, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, and nearly all the priests of the diocese. It is now in a state of health and prosperity and since January alone its numbers have been swelled by more than forty. The lecture series instituted a couple of years ago and continued by the branch has been effective in keeping it prominently before the public, and the reputation of the lectures with the excellence of their subjects have greatly tended to cultivate one of the chief objects of the association, the advancement of the intellectual interests of the members.

The smoker to be held on Wednesday evening next is expected to be well attended, and the committee in charge, the chairman of which is Louis E. McDonald, is making every effort to have it a success.

The vigor of the digestive system is promptly restored, and the food taken into the body is properly digested and nourishment supplied to the whole system.

LOCAL BLACK FOX STORY

It was said some weeks ago that a black fox had been seen on the Sandy Point road, but whether this is correct or not is not known. For the last few weeks, however, there has been a fox den not so very far from the city limits watched with close interest by a local huntsman, who was so sure of the inmates being black in color that he sent to the states and procured the latest patented equipment for their capture. He set the apparatus about the den, and lay out for the greater part of a night recently in the hope of capturing one or more of the animals, but evidently the little creatures had become suspicious of his being so frequently in the neighborhood and had migrated to other quarters. At any rate the equipment was tried and worked successfully except for the fact that the foxes did not come out, for they had already fled, and thus a nest-sized fortune may have been lost. The woodsman in question is very well experienced in the craft of the fox and is a firm in his conviction that the animals which had used the den during the winter were black.

THE NAVAL ISSUE

By a majority of thirty-three, which is not the full strength of the combined Tory and Nationalist forces in the house of commons, the naval bill was adopted yesterday, and now goes to the senate, where Mr. Borden will not be able to resort to closure to achieve his ends. Sir Wilfrid Laurier in a great speech raised the discussion to a high plane, and set forth very clearly the importance of the issue between the two parties, and the effect which the carrying out of the government's programme would have upon the relations of Canada with the rest of the Empire. He made it clear that this was not a mere matter of party politics, but that it involved great principles affecting Canada and the Empire. He recalled the fact that in 1909, when there was no question of party politics, the Liberals and Conservatives united in the adoption of a principle governing naval defence which was satisfactory to the Canadian people, and which had also been adopted by Australia and was approved by the British Admiralty. For purely political reasons Mr. Borden had abandoned that broad policy, and adopted one which had created a serious division in Canada, and which was reactionary in its tendency, substituting a policy of contribution for that which had been adopted in 1909. Sir Wilfrid declared himself for a Canadian navy, built and manned by Canadians, and in his declaration he gave expression to the views and aspirations of the Canadian people. It is idle for the Conservatives to pretend that their gift of Dreadnoughts may be reconciled with plans for a Canadian navy. One searches Mr. Borden's speech in vain for an indication that he has any intention of establishing a Canadian navy. He talks about dry docks, fishery cruisers and matters of that sort, but asserts that nobody is prepared to establish a shipbuilding plant in this country. The answer to that is that his colleague Mr. Hazen handed back their deposit to a British firm ready to establish a plant at the port of St. John, and other great firms of British shipbuilders were willing to do the like, and are still willing. Much could be done with thirty-five million dollars, and since there is no emergency there is no excuse for not asking that sum to build up Canadian shipyards and establish a Canadian navy. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was right when he warned the government that the matter is not settled, and that a question which means so much to Canada and Canadians, to Britain and the Empire must come up again. If the senate does its duty and throws out the naval bill, Mr. Borden, unless he is prepared to violate another of his pledges, will be compelled to submit the question to the people, and he will then learn how utterly he has failed to give expression to their real sentiments with regard to the manner of Canada's participation in Imperial naval defence.

HOUSING IN WINNIPEG

The Winnipeg Housing and Town Planning Association is evidently a vigorous and progressive organization. At a recent meeting there were present no less than three ex-mayors of the city, and a large number of other leading citizens, who, in the words of Canadian Finance, "are interested in business-like and broad-spirited planning for civic growth and welfare." One subject discussed was the making of a wide and splendid avenue which will greatly improve an important section of the city. There was a strong plea for open spaces and playgrounds for children, and the housing problem came in for a good deal of discussion. The president of the Association announced that, in order to handle the housing problem for the working men of Winnipeg, it was the intention of the association, if possible, "to organize a million dollar plan which would embrace the construction of a sufficient number of homes to take care of the ever-increasing working population."

Of course Winnipeg is growing with great rapidity, and the demand for more housing accommodation is always acute. Similar conditions, however, though on a smaller scale, will very soon exist in St. John, and there will be need, not merely for the work of a town-planning commission, but of a housing association, or some organization or groups of organizations, which will undertake to meet the demand for houses for working men, to let at a low rental or to be sold on easy terms.

A CLEANER CITY.

The attempt made yesterday to clean up the city was only partially successful. That was not the fault of the civic authorities, or of those public spirited citizens who gave the use of teams and scows to help along the good work. If all the refuse from the back yards had been placed at the edge of the sidewalk, all of it would have been hauled away. So good an opportunity having been given to everybody to have their premises cleaned up, the board of health should now have no hesitation in proceeding vigorously against all who failed to do so. Nor should there be any delay. The breeding places for flies should be removed. The inspectors should make an immediate and thorough inspection of all premises, and in every case where there is work still to be done warning should be given and a second visit paid, to see that instructions are promptly carried out, or to report any cases where the warning is not heeded. No doubt the city will soon be provided with an incinerator and have a proper system of removing garbage, but unfortunately there are in every community people who are utterly careless about the matter of cleanliness, and whose premises therefore become a menace to the health of a neighborhood. It is now time for officers of the board of health to discover and list these offenders, and it is in the public interest that they should be proceeded against with vigor and without delay.

THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The entertainment which was given in the assembly hall of the high school last evening was the beginning, we hope, of a wider use of school buildings in this city for the public good. Commissioner Agar, in the course of a brief address, made some observations which are worthy of attention. He pointed out that the popular view with regard to the play of children has undergone a great change during the last decade of this generation, and it is now recognized that healthy supervised play has a very beneficial effect upon the life and character of the young people. Mr. Agar commended the work of the Playgrounds Association, and speaking as a member of the city council and of the school board, expressed their sympathy with its work. Mr. Agar also expressed himself in favor of a wider use of the school buildings for the benefit of those who have left school, and it was very evident from the applause which greeted Miss Murray's class in the various numbers which they contributed to the programme that the audience appreciated such work as she has been directing in the high school for the past months and a half. One remark which the commissioner made was especially worthy of attention. He pointed out the value to the community of having the young people come together on the supervised playgrounds and in classes in the school buildings to become better acquainted with each other, to overcome prejudices and to unite in exercises which are not only entertaining, but beneficial to their health. One of the chief obstacles to the division of the community along lines of race and creed and class, and whatever tends to bring the younger members of the different groups together, so that each may appreciate the good qualities of the other, and that all of them may be able to unite together for social service, the greater is the benefit conferred. No doubt next winter more than one school building in this city will be made available as a social centre, to some extent at least, and thus these buildings, which cost so much money, will give a greater return in service to the community.

ARRANGING AHEAD

Robert was about to have another birthday. In the past the fun-making had always been so hard and prolonged that it left him fatigued at night. So this year, before he went to bed the night before, when he had said his prayers, he began over again. His mother, surprised, asked him—"Why are you saying your prayers twice, Robert?" "Oh," replied Robert, "tomorrow night I shall be too tired to say them at all!"

A well known clergyman had introduced some changes in the forms of worship at his church which caused a lady parishioner to remonstrate with him. "I hear," she said, "that you are introducing some dreadful innovation—that you read the Ten Commandments at the Communion." "Indeed," he replied, "we have introduced a far greater innovation than that." "What is it?" asked the alarmed lady. "We try to keep them!" was the reply.

BOILS—PIMPLES—ABCESSSES

All Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition

When the blood becomes thin, poor, debilitated, nature cries out through such external and often painful evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mary Lang, of Altoona, Pa., says: "Ever since childhood, I have been delicate, and my blood poor, thin and vitiated. Nothing seemed to help me until I took Vinol, and it has built me up and made me strong."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case, we will return your money.

USES OF OLIVE OIL

Not every one realizes the uses of olive oil. It is quite true that the machinery of the body needs oiling occasionally, like any mechanical machine which is constantly in use and olive oil taken internally will be exceedingly beneficial. A tablespoonful will aid the digestion and ease liver trouble.

This oil should be served frequently as a dressing, and is not only pleasant on vegetables but serves as an appetizer as well. Taken internally either with salads or alone it is beneficial for catarrh, either of the stomach or throat.

Beri Olive Oil is the finest olive oil in St. John.

BIG ADVANCE IN THE PRICE OF FOXES

(Montreal Star)

Fox farming has become one of the principal industries in Eastern Canada, and numerous highly-capitalized companies have been formed in this connection.

It would appear that in 1911 and 1912 all available foxes were sold for breeding. The manner in which prices have been advancing will be illustrated by the following:

In 1910 a pair of foxes sold at $8,000, and others at $4,000.

In 1911 the price was $5,000 a pair.

In 1912 a pair sold at $8,000 for pups, and a month later sales took place at $11,000, while two months later, in December, the ruling price was about $12,000 and $13,000. Old proved breeders sold at about the same time at $18,000 to $35,000 a pair.

To bring the necessity of Canadian natural resources under further tribute to commerce the first essential is transportation facilities and for the purpose of extending these, the investing public of Europe appears to be willing to furnish the funds. FINE PROGRAMME BRINGS TO CLOSE MISS MURRAY'S COURSE FOR PLAYGROUND TEACHERS

The entertainment last evening which concluded Miss Murray's course for playground teachers, was a great success. There was a fairly large audience in the High school assembly hall, and the programme was an excellent one. Miss Murray's class provided six numbers, including Norwegian, German, Hungarian, Scotch, Irish, Spanish and Swedish folk dances, which were very heartily applauded. The High school orchestra played three selections, Miss Scully gave a reading and was compelled to respond to an encore, there were vocal solos by A. J. Belding and E. A. Belding, a violin duet by Mrs. Gunn and Mrs. MacMillan, with Mrs. Gordon Dickie as accompanist, and violin solos by Mrs. Gunn and a member of the orchestra. Miss Murray told two playground stories in a delightful manner.

Commissioner Agar gave a pleasing address, commending the work of the class, and expressing the hearty sympathy of both the city council and school board with the work of the Playground Association. He declared himself in sympathy with the wider use of the school buildings. A. M. Belding, who occupies the chair, told of the plans of the association for the summer, paid a tribute to the work of Miss Murray and her assistants, and thanked all who had aided in the entertainment.

NEW BRUNSWICK TELEPHONE COMPANY ANNUAL MEETING

Fredericton, N. B., May 15.—The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Telephone Company was held here tonight. The report of President S. H. White showed that the business of the company had expanded during the past year. In that time 1,024 additional telephones had been installed, bringing the total number up to 12,915.

Referring to the heavy expenditures on capital accounts, the report stated that such had been due to the expansion of business. The construction of toll lines in various parts of the province had been made necessary. During the year 114 miles of rural circuits had been constructed. It is pointed out that the large amount credited to depreciation in the financial statement does not represent a surplus, but expenditure that has been absorbed into the actual value of the plant.

The net revenue for the year was $88,080.38, and $14,478.68 is carried forward on the year's business surplus. The old directors were re-elected and are as follows: S. H. White, Sussex; Hon. F. P. The directors at a meeting held this afternoon decided to establish an exchange at Gagetown. The exchange will include thirty-five telephones. BABY FELL ON STOVE

Postmaster Says: "Zam-Buk Acted on the Burn Like Magic"

Whenever you—or the children—sustain a burn apply Zam-Buk! Takes the fire out of your burn like magic!

Mr. J. Sumner, Postmaster of Gloucester, N. B., writes: "I would like to bear testimony to the wonderful healing properties of Zam-Buk. I have used it for some considerable time for cuts, bruises, etc., with excellent results, but the most wonderful cure in my experience happened recently when my little boy (two years old) fell from his chair on to a red hot heater!"

"One side of his face and his ear were just fried. I dressed the burns liberally with Zam-Buk every day, and within two weeks the burns were healed. I was afraid my boy would be disfigured permanently, but the skin has grown beautifully, and there is no scar left. I always recommend Zam-Buk to my friends, and would advise everybody to keep a box handy."

Zam-Buk is just as good for cuts, bruises, poisoned wounds, scratches, ulcers, eczema, piles, festering sores, barbed wire scratches, etc., and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box. Druggists and stores everywhere or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. Have your tried Zam-Buk Soap? 25c. tablet. Best for baby's tender skin.

BUILDING LAW AND THE THREE DECKERS

Local Men Who Have Studied Conditions Are Against Repeal of Bye-Law
The arguments in favor of the repeal of the by-law limiting wooden buildings to two stories are discounted by local men who have made a study of real estate conditions and the housing problem and who say that three story buildings are not needed either to house the population or to keep rents within a reasonable figure.

It is said that there is sufficient land within easy reach of the centre of the city to provide for all the present population and for a very large increase and that all that is needed is the erection of new homes in these districts. Figures submitted by contractors and substantiated by recent experiments show that self-contained cottages can be erected and sold or rented at prices which compare very favorably with the rents charged for the third stories of buildings in congested districts. At the same cost the householder can have a self-contained house with modern conveniences on a lot of his own with a lawn and garden and all the fresh air and sunlight there is. For the average head of a family, especially if there are children in the household this should prove much more attractive.

The present-day movement is towards the expansion of a city towards the suburbs and the encouragement of separate homes which make for better health and better citizenship. The street railway extensions now under way and under consideration will provide easy access to large areas on the outskirts of the city where land can be secured at reasonable cost and if attention is turned towards the development of these districts as residential sections it is believed that the housing problem can be solved easily and better homes can be offered for the increasing population.

FOR TWO YEARS SUFFERED SEVERE PAIN IN THE BACK

Many people fail to understand the significance of a lame, weak, sore or aching back.

When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Take notice to the warning and cure the backache on the first sign, for if you don't do this, serious complications are sure to arise and perhaps develop into Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the back and prevent any further trouble from the kidneys.

Mrs. D. J. Melrose, Carleton, P.E.I., writes:—"For two years I had a severe pain in my back. It was so bad that when I would stoop down I could not straighten up for quite a time. I got a little relief from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me so I kept on using them until I had used three boxes, and now I am completely cured. I think they are the only remedy for disordered kidneys."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents a box, 25c. per box, at all dealers or direct from Doan's Kidney Pills, The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

Pre-season orders indicate that the widespread demand for Dunlop Traction Tread Auto Tires has likewise taken hold of Dunlop Traction Tread Bicycle Tires.

Remember all the bicycles worth pinning your faith to are using Dunlop Tires as their standard equipment for 1913, and remember, again, that the foreign-made tire is just as much an unknown quantity as the foreign-made bicycle.

I. N. ROGERS HAS TOOTH EXTRACTED IN A NOVEL WAY

Came Through Nasal Passage While Under Treatment For Trouble of Years Standing

In a way which is believed to be unique in the annals of surgery J. N. Rogers of this city has been given relief from a source of trouble which has caused him great inconvenience and pain from childhood. He has suffered from some mysterious trouble in his face for years and has never been able to secure absolute relief, although at one time a piece of bone was removed in an effort to remove the trouble.

Recently the pain has become worse and he has been suffering almost continuously. He has been under Dr. A. P. Crockett's treatment for some time and a large gathering of patients in the neighborhood of the nose and has been draining this. On Monday he found what seemed to be some foreign substance near the nose and extracted it through the nasal passage. It proved to be a good sized double tooth. The removal of the cause of the trouble has been a tremendous relief to the patient and Mr. Rogers' health and spirits have greatly improved since the operation.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authenticities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Uana, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and that this microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. They claim that nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Rezell "88" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Uana, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than any other oil can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair, and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Rezell "88" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we do do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00.

You can buy Rezell "88" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store: Wasson's 3 Rexall Drug Stores King St., Main St. and Baymarket St.

There is a small store in nearly every town and city in the United States, Canada and Great Britain, where a different brand of Rezell "88" Hair Tonic is sold. In each of these stores you will find the name of the store in which it is sold.

Ottawa, May 15—The naval bill was read the third time at 10 o'clock to-night by the Commons of Canada, and next week will be before the senate for its decision.

Sir Wilfrid's motion for the rejection of the bill was lost by an adverse majority of 34 and the premier's motion for third reading was carried by a majority of 101.

BACKACHE IS A DANGER SIGNAL

Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, Rheumatism and Serious Diseases Follow

There are other symptoms, such as pain in the region of the kidneys, nervousness, dizziness, tired and worn-out feeling, weak bladder, or urinary troubles, which are just as dangerous, for the slightest kidney derangement if neglected may develop into the deadly Bright's Disease, Dropsy, or Diabetes.

It is not only dangerous, but needless, for you to suffer, and endure the tortures of these troubles, for the new discovery, Croxone, promptly ends all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism, than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It sends acids into the kidneys, through the walls and linings, cleans out the clogged up pores, neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter, that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drives it out of the system.

Three doses of Croxone a day, for a few days, is often all that is ever needed to relieve the worst backache or overwork, disagreeable urinary disorders, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly reach the worst case of kidney, bladder trouble, or rheumatism.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without result. An original package costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

First Friend: "I've heard a lot about Pebeco Tooth Paste. Just how does it differ from other dentifrices?"

Second Friend: "I can tell you. Pebeco Tooth Paste will do everything the best ordinary dentifrice will do—and THEN SOME."

"It cleans, polishes and whitens teeth beautifully. But that's not all. Pebeco Tooth Paste protects the teeth from mouth-acids—the principal cause of tooth decay. See the difference? It neutralizes acid-mouth."

Pebeco Tooth Paste takes the one big step forward in the modern scientific care of the teeth. It corrects the cause of tooth decay. This means long life for the teeth—real tooth protection.

And besides, Pebeco Tooth Paste leaves a wonderfully refreshing and clean feeling in the mouth.

majority of only 33-101 members voting for it and 68 voting against it.

Five of Premier Borden's Quebec followers voted against him on each occasion, and Col. H. H. McLean, of Queens-Sunbury, voted with him.

It is expected that the senate will have considered and disposed of the measure before the end of next week. Opinion is divided as to whether the bill will pass or will be rejected by the upper house.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose amid intense enthusiastic Liberal cheering, and said: "I rise now simply to offer a last protest, to voice as we on this side of the house understand it, the sentiments, nay the conviction of Liberalism. I make this last protest not, alas, with any expectation that it will in any way influence or affect the decision soon to be recorded by the majority. That decision will not decide the complicated problem of naval defence. The question must come again. (Liberal cheer.)

"It is a question which means much in its wide significance to Canada and Canadians, to Britain and the empire. And I would, speaking for those whom I have had the honor to represent for so many years, earnestly and with all sincerity seek to give counsel. Is it not well, still at the threshold, to determine the landmarks which should guide us this day and in the future years?"

"There has been expressed in some quarters," continued Sir Wilfrid, "surprise at the strenuous character of the opposition to this measure. I should have been disappointed in Liberalism if it had failed to do what it has done. (Prolonged Liberal cheering.) With the submitting of a measure at variance with the historic progress and development of the country since confederation, the people of Canada had the right to expect their rulers in parliament to treat them with frankness and candor, to tell them where they were being led, and to consult them directly as to the decision.

"I charge the government in this respect with being remiss in its duty, unfaithful to its great responsibility, and delinquent to the trust imposed upon it. I arraign the government before the people of Canada, and the first indictment I charge against the administration is that the basis upon which this measure was proposed presented to parliament and the country had no foundation in fact. Little perhaps thought the government when it presented its proposal to the Canadian parliament and the Canadian people, on the ground that there was an emergency in Britain, that before the matter was finally disposed of we would have in our hands, all of us, indisputable evidence of the falsity of that assertion.

Empty Ships for an Emergency.

"Emergency! Emergency! Britain in the throes of an emergency! Were it true, then what?" exclaimed Sir Wilfrid in one of his dramatic outbursts. "The people of Canada should do their part by contributing $35,000,000 in money to build three of the greatest warships that money can buy and science devise. Let the Canadian people—loyal British subjects that they are—reflect on the cold mockery of such a proceeding. Britain facing an emergency, and Canada proposing to buy three empty ships to put on the firing line. If emergency had existed this policy would not have presented the sentiment and the spirit of Canadians. (Cheers.) But, thank heaven, the emergency did not exist.

"Liberalism stood as it stood in 1909 for a continuance and development of that policy which had had the unanimous endorsement of Canada's parliament, a policy which had had the endorsement of the admiralty. "This is where Liberalism stands today, just as it stood in 1909," reiterated Sir Wilfrid. "Canadians realize their responsibility to the wider constituency of empire and are eager to take up their share of the burden. But they want to do it in the manner adopted unanimously by the house when free from party prejudice in 1909." (Cheers.)

On the government side it had been claimed on behalf of the present proposal that Canada owed a debt of gratitude to Britain. "So say I," declared Sir Wilfrid, "but I do not place the basis of our gratitude on the childish argument that Britain has lent us money. But I base it on the higher ground that Britain has given us our liberties, and let us become a self-governing nation within the empire. If gratitude be the basis of this contribution, then whoever heard of paying a debt of gratitude with a loan of empty ships?"

"Because Liberalism has stood constant by a policy of autonomous development and had remained faithful to the Canadian navy idea, unanimously adopted by parliament in 1909, it was, forsooth, now attacked by the double fire of Nationalists and Imperialists.

Then again, he continued, he had been branded as a separatist because he had preached the doctrine that the Canadian parliament should at all times control its own provisions for defence. That was a doctrine for which he had no apology. The voice and views of the Canadian people through their parliament must always prevail. The great mistake of the present government was that they were not willing to trust the people.

In conclusion, the Liberal chief declared, amid enthusiastic cheers from his followers:

The Liberal Policy.

"We are a nation within the British Empire. It is one of the greatest glories of Britain that her colonies have grown into nationhood without weakening the imperial tie. We are proud to claim our rights of nationhood within that empire, it is our duty to take up all the responsibilities of nationhood. This policy of make-shift and expediency which the government now advocates is based on no broad or permanent principle. It takes no root. It leaves no residuum.

"We believe that the $35,000,000 should be applied to a Canadian naval service, built, manned and equipped in Canada, and in close co-operation with the imperial fleet. We stand by that policy in opposition as we stood by it in office. For these reasons I beg to move, seconded by Hon.

George P. Graham, the six months' hoist." (Prolonged Liberal cheering.)

Mr. Goulet, one of the seven still recalcitrant Nationalists, followed briefly. Speaking in French, he declared that he had wanted to propose the same amendment but for entirely different reasons. Sir Wilfrid wanted to continue as a permanent policy the Canadian navy. He still wanted "the blood of our children." Premier Borden's policy of contribution was almost equally objectionable. Both parties had evidently conspired to prevent the plebiscite which the Nationalists demanded.

BOWLING

In Black's Alleys. In the two-men tournament on Black's alleys last evening Poshay and Howard took five points from Brown and Stubbs, 883 to 819. Burton and McLeod took all six from Sutherland and Irvine, 886 to 772. Burton's score of 94 2-5 and Poshay's average of 96 1-3 were the highest made. Tonight's games are: Cosgrove and Hurley vs. Moore and Harrison; Black and Gilmore vs. White and Beattie.

BASEBALL

City League

The opening of the City Baseball League has been postponed from May 15 to May 28 on account of the cold weather. The first game will be between the P. M. A. and Carleton teams on Monday, May 28.

Fairville League

The Tartars defeated the Athletics in the Fairville League last evening, 12 to 6. Batteries—Irvin and Engel, Melroy and O'Toole.

Players We Know

Frederick Gleaner—Art Finnamore, who has been getting baseball under way at McAdam is at home for a few days before going to Glace Bay to take charge of the team to represent the "big town" in the Cape Breton League.

Stanley Sealey is now in charge of the McAdam team, and he is endeavoring to arrange two games for May 21 with a Fredericton team, and has written to Sandy Staples in that connection.

Some of the local teams, or possibly a Marvilline nine, may make the trip.

The first player signed for the Glace Bay team by Art Finnamore is Bobby Fretz, who was with St. Stephen's Thistles in 1911 and last year was with the Houlton Reds for part of the season.

His home is in New Bedford, Mass., and he is now playing with teams around Providence.

Joe Neptune and George Wilson were the heavy artillery for the Lynn club in their game with Portland on Tuesday, which Lynn won 14 to 1. The two former N. B. and Maine League stars each hit safely for four times in the game, Wilson's list including a double and triple. The excitement of doing so much hitting was too much for Neptune, however, and he made a couple of errors. Keane played short stop for Woonsocket on last Saturday and helped to trim Whitnashville in the Inter-City League around Providence, R. I. He had a hit, scored a run, had two stolen bases and accepted five chances. He is given special mention on two of his plays.

Good Ones Passed Along

If some big league magnate could gather together all the players who were left on the supposition that their playing would not develop up to the standard, or for some other cause, what a marvelous team he would have. For example:

Catcher Archer, whom Hugh Jennings, of the Tigers, could not see.

Catcher Thomas, another backstop Jennings thought wasn't quite heavy enough for him.

Pitcher Hub Perdue, the star Boston flinger Frank Chance didn't want around the Cub bench.

Pitcher Larry Cheney, now a great Cub performer, who didn't look good to ex-Manager Fielder Jones, of the White Sox.

Pitcher Lew Ritchie, of the Cubs, the Giant tamer, who the Phils. thought was down and out.

First Baseman Chick Gandil, one of the men who put the Senators on top this last season, who ex-Manager Hugh Duffy, of the White Sox, thought was a joke.

Second Baseman Rath, of the White Sox, a player neither the Naps nor Connie Mack, of the Athletics, could discern through a telescope.

Shortstop Bridwell, of the Cubs, turned loose by the Giants to give Piskies and Orner's clubs.

Third Baseman Foster, of the Senators, one of 1912's sensations. Connie Mack thought he was too light for the job.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 15—The question of "Who is best of the ball team on the diamond?" is answered by Manager Ed Smith, of the local team in the Central League.

William Essick, its principal owner, went into the box yesterday and Terra Haute hammered his slants and shots to all corners of the lot in the first inning.

When the Terra Haute players had amassed five runs, Smith rushed over to Essick.

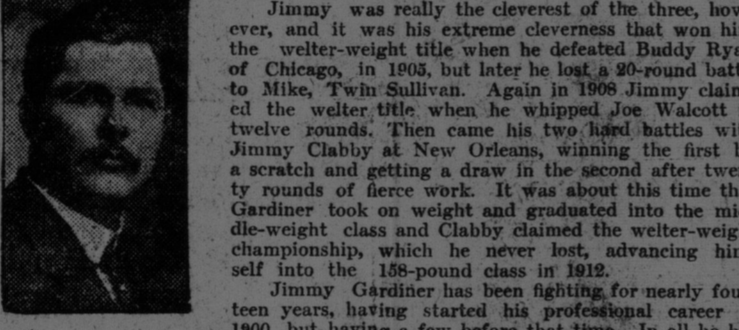

"You to the clubhouse," he ordered.

Essick meekly obeyed, and Smith took the pitching role, holding his oppon-

Jimmy Gardner Will Try to Work The "Come-Back" Act

By TOM ANDREWS

Jimmy Gardner, an eastern middle-weight, hailing from Lowell, Mass., and a member of a family that boasts of three good fighters, announces that he intends to return to the ring after an absence of a year. It is seldom that one family can boast of more than one really good fighter, but in this case the Gardner family was an exception, for George was champion light-heavy-weight of the world, Jimmy champion welter-weight, and his younger brother was a good light-weight.

Jimmy was really the cleverest of the three, however, and it was his extreme cleverness that won him the welter-weight title when he defeated Buddy Ryan of Chicago, in 1908, but later he lost a 90-round battle to Mike, Twin Sullivan. Again in 1908 Jimmy claimed the welter title when he whipped Joe Walcott in twelve rounds. Then came his two hard battles with Jimmy Clabby at New Orleans, winning the first by a scratch and getting a draw in the second after twenty rounds of fierce work. It was about this time that Gardner took on weight and graduated into the middle-weight class and Clabby claimed the welter-weight championship, which he never lost, advancing himself into the 158-pound class in 1912.

Jimmy Gardner has been fighting for nearly four years, having started his professional career in 1909, but having a few before that time. In all he has had more than 100 battles and during that time he has lost only five decisions, a record that any boxer might well be proud of. Jimmy Gardner, at one time welter-weight champion, married Jimmy's sister, Jimmy decided to retire from the game, but it seems that the old love for the excitement has gotten the best of him again and he intends to take another chance in the arena. He is only twenty-eight years of age now and should be in pretty good shape, for he is a boy that has always taken good care of himself. When you stop to think that Johnny Thompson, who is nearly forty years of age, is still fighting, it does not seem possible that Gardner should be worried about the age limit, but then a lay-off from the ring sends a man back fast these days. Jimmy is not going to select a poor one for a starter, as he is to meet Tommy Bergin, who has been fighting some pretty tough middle-weight down east, late. The "come-back" bill seems to be getting hold of all the boxers, so let us see what Jimmy will do.

At Rochester—Newark, 2; Rochester, 0. Batteries—Robinson and McCarthy; Hughes and Jaclitsch.

At Buffalo—Buffalo, 6; Providence, 3. Batteries—Holmes, Jamieson and Gowdy; Moran, Lafitte and Kocher.

Must Pay O'Connor $5,000.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15—The St. Louis American League baseball club must pay Jack O'Connor $5,000, the amount he would have received in salary had he not been discharged as manager prior to the opening of the 1913 season, a jury in the circuit court has decided.

TURF

Breaks Record.

Frog Legs, a four-year-old colt, broke the world's record for running horses when he ran a mile and 39 yards at the third race on Tuesday in one minute and 39 seconds flat. The impost was 127 pounds and Jockey Peak was in the saddle. The former record was 1:39 3-5 made by Colonel Ashmead, carrying 109 pounds at Churchill Downs, on October 5, 1911.

Of the five horses in the race Frog Legs got off to a terrific start, and was followed by Billy Collins, with Cousin Pass trailing. Frog Legs, under a terrific drive won by a neck from Buckhorn with Rudolfo three lengths back. Frog Legs is owned by J. W. Schorr. He is a son of Masetto, out of Prognostic.

It is such a pity that the team of between 20 and 30 athletes will be entered. The majority of the entrants will be athletic club stars since the college track and field performers will not be available at such an early date. The team will sail about a month previous to the games.

SOME CLEAN-UP DAY INSTANCES

Although it was conceded by practically all connected with the event that "clean-up" day was quite a success there was one merchant at least in Indian-town who registered a complaint this morning because he thought that some barrels in which refuse had been stored for cartage, should have been returned to him. He expressed himself as quite indignant that the teams which had taken away the rubbish had not brought back his barrels, but it had been done in one instance it would follow that others would expect it, and there would be less effective work done.

Another man saw a fine chance of having a pile of old boards taken away without costing him anything, so he therefore deposited them carefully in the street expecting them to be carted away yesterday. He was very much disappointed however, when he found he had had his trouble for nothing, as only refuse in receptacles was carried off, and this morning the boards were still in the street.
