Sixteen Got Away.

By Canadian Press.

HALIFAX, Feb. 16.—Racing for Gloucester Mass, her home port, with 50,000 pounds of fresh halibut, the schooner Republic, Captain Peter Bunskey, was struck on the port bow, at 8 o'clock last night, by an unidentified three masted schooner. Forty minutes later, she plunged to the bottom. Sixteen of her crew of eighteen men, are known to have got away from the sinking schooner in four dories, five minutes after the collision, but it is not known that Captain Bunskey, and one man Samuel Cole, were among the number. Of the three masted schooner, the life saving station at Cape Sable Island early this morning with 12 men.

Four For Four More.

The Horta dory with four men known to be aboard, is thought to be safe and will land along the shore, it is hoped, east of Cape Sable Island during the day. Survivors at the Cape Sable Island life saving station, report that the Republic was bowling along at a fast clip with all sails set, before a southwest wind last night, five miles east of Nova Scotia when a big three masted schooner suddenly loomed out of the haze and stove in her port bows. There was considerable tide running at the time, and when the helm of the Republic was put over, the three masted stave swung off and disappeared stern first in the dark. In the excitement of the moment, none of the crew was able to identify her. The schooner Republic was an auxiliary schooner of 99 tons built at Essex, Mass., in 1915. She was owned by the Gordon Peck Company of Gloucester.

PYTHIANS HEAR RINGING WORDS FROM PULPIT

Addressed by Rev. James Dunlop at Annual Church Service

SEES WORLD RISING TO BRIGHTER LIFE

Present Time Great One of Opportunity—Exhorts Hearers to Duty.

In his ringing challenge to the members of the Pythian order at their annual service yesterday afternoon, Rev. James Dunlop declared that it was not enough for them to be faithful members of their order but there rested on them also the obligation to carry forward Christ's Kingdom in these Maritime Provinces and to be worthy followers of the splendid pioneers who labored here for Christ.

The annual service was held in Centenary church, which was thronged in auditorium and gallery by the vast congregation that attended the service and the Knights of Pythias with the Pythian Sisters who were seated in the main body of the church numbered about 600. The music was greatly impressive with Miss A. G. Hes, organist of the church, directing and the choir taking part. "The Trumpet Shall Sound" was sung as a solo by William Lanyon and the choir rendered the anthem "For All the Saints," Mrs. L. M. Curran being the anthem soloist.

Assisted at Service. Mr. Dunlop was assisted in conducting the service by Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson and Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the church. The offertory, as is customary at the Pythians' annual service, is to go to the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage and it will be a few days before the total amount given is known, as a number of contributions are still to come in.

Best of All Ages. As years of opportunity, Mr. Dunlop declared, the present years were the best of all the ages and he spoke of the changes in China and India in this connection. But the greatest hope lay in the fact that Christ was alive and every movement that worked for Christ must succeed. It was Christ who had won men for God's greatest gift to the Church was manhood. He was making men to be the leaders in this new world of opportunity and the leaders were the thinkers for always the men who were thinkers would govern the men that were workers until the workers began to think for themselves.

Mr. Dunlop closed with his exhortation to the members of the order to carry forward the Kingdom of Christ. The Pythians present represented the Lodges New Brunswick, No. 1, Union, No. 2, St. John, No. 30, Carleton Tower, No. 31, and the Sisters represented Loyalist Temple, No. 18 and Moulton Temple, No. 14.

Pilgrim children learned their letters from hornbooks, books made of a piece of cardboard covered on one side with a thin sheet of horn.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 16, 1925

UNITED AND NON-POLITICAL.

All of those who put the public welfare before anything else, and who recognize the breadth and strength of the Maritime campaign and the national benevolence which will flow from it, must regard with keen satisfaction the action taken on Saturday at a meeting of representatives of the Common Council, the Council of the Board of Trade and the Port Committee.

At that meeting further arrangements were made for the organization of the great delegation, a thousand strong or more, wholly non-political, but embracing without respect to politics the business interests of the Maritime Provinces, to go to Ottawa towards the end of this month and place before Parliament the urgent necessity of limiting the British preference to goods entering Canada through its own ports direct, and the carrying into effect of other measures and policies for the benefit not only of the Maritime Provinces but of the Dominion at large.

The meeting very wisely placed itself on record as determined to keep this movement free from party politics, and to found it upon the broad grounds of public benefit. It is recognized as representing the united sentiment and interest of the Maritimes, while at the same time it presents measures and policies which have already command widespread approval not only in these provinces but from the Quebec to the right through to the Pacific Coast.

This is a campaign which was non-political in origin, and Saturday's meeting rightly regarded it as bigger than any party consideration. National traffic considerations are not political. Railways, piers and ships are not political. They work for the whole country, regardless of party.

This movement will have the support of the ports of Montreal, of Quebec and of other Canadian ports, all of which would benefit directly and richly through the right use of the British preference. Furthermore it is known that it always was the intention to employ the British preference to build up our own ports and railways after the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Transcontinental had been completed, and it is obviously that course which the preference is long overdue.

The movement started in the Maritimes has impressed the whole country by its gathering force, and by the soundness of the principles advocated. It is realized everywhere that it is carried forward by a great wave of public sentiment which will insist upon results in the very near future.

WHAT DO CANADIANS READ?
Suggesting that while all talk of physical annexation is groundless, Canada is nevertheless being annexed culturally by the United States, the Ottawa Citizen confronts the people of this country with the fact that during the first nine months of last year, we bought $1,285,996 worth of newspapers, quarterlies, monthlies and semi-monthly magazines and weekly literary papers from the United States, while during the same time the value of the publications we bought from Great Britain was $4,792.

These are somewhat startling figures, and the vast amount we spend on American publications, contrasted with the trifling sum which we pay for the work of British writers, may well be the cause of a lot of thinking in this country. The Citizen, which has made some investigation and which produces convincing statistics, says recently that four leading American magazines have in the Dominion a monthly circulation of 430,000, compared with 90,000 a year in the case of the most widely read magazine of Canadian origin. "Is it any wonder," the Citizen asks, "that Canadians are talking, thinking, and in everyday life behaving like Americans?"

Notwithstanding the surprising quality of the Citizen's figures, most Canadians will be slow to accept as true, or as of general application, the statement that they talk, think, and behave like Americans. Nor will Canadians generally accept the assumption that there has not been created in this country a vigorous nationalism which is sufficient to overcome "the constant and enormous flow of ideas from the United States" through the $1,285,996 worth of publications which we import.

Without any idea of brushing aside the figures—for they warrant more than momentary or flippant treatment—the average Canadian, it may be said, will feel confident, or will hold the inner conviction, that Canadian nationality is too robust and Canadian patriotism too deep to permit us to regard with the Citizen's alarm the admittedly too great flow of American publications across our boundaries.

For while by far the greater portion of this material is food we import at great cost, it is by no means admirable, and we must not forget that Canadians buy it mainly for amusement, for their lighter moments, and that also it is bought to a great extent because our lack of population and of wealth has hitherto prevented us from producing in our own country a great range of publications suitable for our instruction as well as for our diversion. This stream of American publications which we buy undoubtedly is unduly great, and it is little to our credit that we should be so dependent upon a great neighbor for our popular reading; but while this is true, it is necessary to recognize also that while the tendency of this reading may be to give us some of the American flippancy, this extensive invasion of Canada by American publications does not mean that we are taking on mentally the American character, philosophy or attitude toward life. Indeed nine-tenths of the American publications we buy have no serious purpose and are employed here and elsewhere merely to occupy dull hours. That these hours might be much better employed may be true enough, but we are disposed to resist the assumption that we are in danger in any sense of being reduced mentally to the level of the cheaper American publications because they have too extensive circulation in the Dominion.

We think too highly of the Canadian character, of the spirit of Canadianism, and of our regard for British ideals and the Empire to regard the matter so gravely as the Citizen does. It has been suggested by some Canadian publishers that a tariff stiff enough to exclude American periodicals is advisable. That would scarcely be a cure for the situation, for in reality the Canadian public, or that portion of it which has fed itself consistently upon the American product, will probably continue to do so until what is regarded as a satisfactory substitute has been provided at approximately the same price. We shall not be annexed mentally, or culturally, or physically through the penetration of American capital or of American "ideas." We must all regret that we spend so great an amount of money to the profit of American publishers considering the nature of nine-tenths of the publications we import from that source, but we must not forget that there are many excellent American publications, and above all we must surely feel that the intellectual and patriotic fibre of our people is altogether too sound to permit of any form of national disaster through American influences.

Many thousands of citizens read this morning with a sense of shock and of sorrow news of the death of Charles H. Jackson, who since the death of Chief Blake had been Acting Chief of the Fire Department. Mr. Jackson, who enjoyed an exceptionally wide acquaintance in the city, who had a host of friends, and who was a popular and efficient fireman, had been in the department since he was a boy. As a youth he helped to fight the great fire of 1877, and subsequently enlisted in the department, rising to high rank and enjoying the confidence and esteem of his comrades and of the citizens generally. It is both sad and extraordinary that twice within a fortnight the civic flags have been at half-staff because of the death of heads of the fire department. The bereaved relatives of Mr. Jackson will have the sincere sympathy of a very great circle of citizens who appreciated his worth.

The electric hobby-horse that President Coolidge rides for exercise was bound to appeal to the American sense of humor. A Kentucky Congressman insisted upon reading in the House of Representatives last Friday a terrible piece of verse entitled "Cal's Hobby-Horse," notwithstanding the protest of a Massachusetts representative, who insisted that the reading would "cast ridicule on Mr. Coolidge." It was finally agreed that the verses should be heard, and that if they proved objectionable under the rules, they could be stricken from the record. The subject was undoubtedly enticing, but the poetry was rather wretched doggerel. Here is a little of it:

"The Hobby-Horse, 'tis easily seen,
Is as silent as its master;
It trots and canters in one spot,
The jockey urging it faster."
"In Homer's day, we will recall
During the famous siege of Troy,
A wooden horse within the walls
That city did destroy."
"It would not be very strange, indeed,
If history should repeat,
Discovery of the White House steed
Should encompass Cal's defeat."

There was no motion to strike this poetical crime from the record, and not even a motion to shoot the author.

Pie, and More Pie

(The Cheerful Philosopher in Manitoba, Free Press.)

Pie—whether it be the honest apple pie, or the merry mince pie, or the luscious lemon pie, or the popular pumpkin pie—pie, I say, has a warm place in or near the heart of every true Canadian. Content as I am with a single slice a day, and never asking for a second, except on feast days and holidays, I still consume some sixty pies per annum. This, I am sure, is far below the average, and with a population of eight million our yearly total must approximate 500,000,000.

The subject, then, is not so trivial after all. These figures remind one of the wheat crop and the cost of government, Pie may not be the "staff of life," but most of us will gladly lay aside our staff of life when there is pie in sight. "Why don't they eat cake?" inquired Marie Antoinette, when she was told that the common people had no bread. Alas, there was neither cake nor pie for Jacques Bonhomme, but we in Canada are safe from revolution so long as the pies hold out.

When we consider the value of pie, we must not think only of the five or ten cents it costs per slice, or of the number of its calories and vitamins. Pie has historical, social and aesthetic values, values national and international. A nation is known by its food, the Briton by beef, the Scot by oatmeal, the Irishman by potatoes, the Italian by spaghetti, the German by sausage; and the people of the northern part of this continent are known as eaters of pie. When an American crosses the line, he makes his way to a hotel, and on the menu he sees the old familiar names of the pies he has loved at home. Then a lump comes in his throat—several lumps, as fast as he can put them there. His eyes fill with tears. He knows he is among friends. Pie is a bond of union. You cannot tell a Methodist pie from a Presbyterian. On fundamentals they agree. Both pies and churches require fire as a firm foundation, and then—to be well filled. All pies are not apple pies. Good fruit is of many kinds, and a judicious blend of two combines the virtues of both.

There is danger in the making of pies. The paste may be soggy, the ingredients wrongly mixed, the pie may be burnt. It is enough to emerge safe, its danger is the greater. It will be heaved in pieces like Agass-devoiled as Daniel might have been devoured by the lions. A peculiar danger of apple pie is that the flavor of the fruit will be disguised with cloves; of cherry pie, that it will be made of raisins and cherries. A peculiar danger of the pie that will turn out to be only saakatoons. Dangers of all pies are: (1) that we shall eat too much; (2) that there will not be enough to go around; (3) unfair-division. Of these three dangers, the first has compensations; the second is more apparent than real (there is never any shortage in the kitchen); the third alone deserves discussion.

Pies are cut into six pieces, because it is not so easy to cut them fairly into five. There may be some who follow the advice of Ecclesiastes 11:2:

Letters to The Editor

THE GREATER ST. JOHN.
To the Editor of The Times-Star:

Sir,—St. John will become a modern, progressive city when the new modern, up-to-date hotel is completed; when the projected bridge connecting the East and West Sides has become a reality; when proper encouragement and attractions are offered our present industries, and new ones which might be induced to locate here; when we have a new Depot appropriate to the requirements of a modern railway terminal and important commercial centres; when the port is nationalized and under government control; when our representatives, independent of party politics, will stand together and insistently demand Maritime rights and the welfare of this port.

These seem to be the main stepping-stones toward a modern, progressive city. The new hotel is nearing completion, and the proposed new depot is now being heralded as a not far distant reality. Mr. Beidling, as special representative of The Telegraph-Journal and The Times-Star, has gone a long way within a short time in placing the issues fairly and conclusively before the Maritime people. He is favorably commended by all classes for his zeal and interest in the cause, which is bound to bring about a better understanding and favorable results. R. G. T.
St. John, Feb. 14, 1925.

A Suggestion.
To the Editor of The Times-Star:
Sir,—Allow me a little space in your paper to ask a question. If the governments of the provinces and the Dominion Government were to get serious on the vacant farms in the Maritime Provinces, why don't they send back some of those families who left the country in war time? There are hundreds of families today in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia who would gladly go back to the farms, but they have nothing to start a farm with. And these men and women know how to work the farms, and are used to the climate and can do well if given a little aid. And it would help out the employment question a lot and make food cheaper for the poor of the cities. Thanking you for space, A. VOTER.

STRIKE ABOUT OVER.
Canadian Press Despatch.
TORONTO, Feb. 15—According to Sol Polakoff, organizer of the striking ladies' garment workers, the strike operators is now practically over. Workers in about a dozen shops are still out, involving about 300 people, he said.

At the services in the church two Special Music.

The church of today, Dr. Thomas said, was not exerting the authority it should and he spoke specially of the Lord's Day. Dr. Thomas addressed the Sunday school at a special session when about 112 were present and William McCavour, president, was in the chair. He used loaves of bread containing a flask, to represent liquor, a package of cigarettes, cards, had literature and the Bible to show that the first four had a corrupting effect and the Bible was the way to eternal life. Miss Edna Shaw was the organist for the Sunday school. Miss Margaret Rice and Miss Mabel Ryan furnished violin accompaniment for the singing and the selection by the junior quartette, composed of Margaret Stout, Harold Stout, Doris Margaret Rice and Donald Rice, called forth a special tribute of praise from Dr. Thomas, who prophesied a great future for the young singers.

ORGAN CHIMES ARE HEARD AT TRINITY

Gift to Church in Memory of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Coupe.

Organ chimes of great beauty have been presented to Trinity church as a memorial to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Coupe, devoted members of the church, and are the gift of their two sons, Robert S. Coupe and George F. Coupe. The chimes were recently installed by Cassavant Freres, of St. Hyacinthe, Que., who overhauled the organ about 15 years ago and installed the fourth manual, making it a complete organ for which it is claimed that it is one of the best in St. John.

The dedication of the chimes is being deferred until April 5, when His Lordship Bishop Richardson will be in Trinity church to conduct a confirmation service and will dedicate the chimes. Games Played.

The chimes were played for the first time in public at the close of the evening service in the church yesterday and the congregation which filled every seat in the auditorium was thrilled by the glorious harmonies which James S. Ford evoked as he played a number of varied bell themes. His master touch produced in turn majestic music in which the bells pealed clearly forth and lighter airs in which the bells were softly interwoven.

The chimes are a complete chromatic scale of two octaves starting at tenor G and consist of 25 notes. They can be operated from the solo, swell, great and pedal organs and have been played at the church since they were installed. Even to Mr. Ford's fastidious musical ear they are absolutely perfect.

67TH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVANCE BEGUN
Fairville Methodist Church Holds Special Service—Rev. Dr. Thomas Speaks.

Services were conducted yesterday in the Fairville Methodist church in observance of the 67th anniversary. Rev. Dr. H. E. Thomas, of Sackville, editor of The Wesleyan, was the preacher and the services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Rice, B. A., the pastor. The surprised choir under the direction of the leader, H. M. Stout, furnished excellent music and Miss Audrey McColgan was at the organ. In the morning Dr. Thomas spoke of the "More Abundant Life" and his text was John 10-10. In the evening he based his sermon on the story of the healing of the lunatic boy, found in the ninth chapter of Mark.

The church of today, Dr. Thomas said, was not exerting the authority it should and he spoke specially of the Lord's Day. Dr. Thomas commended through organization within the church yet he pointed out that men and women must come into contact with Jesus before they could better conditions in the world.

The Jewelry Men Like
Men have a hankering for jewelry in a modest way. You'll see one man as proud of a certain Watch Chain of long green gold links as of anything he owns. Another will have a Charm he is ready to bet money you cannot equal.

A third will possess a set of Cuff Links that prove him a judge of good things. Or it may be a Scarf Pin of particular design. So the list goes to Signet Rings, Fraternal Emblems, Watches.

When a man has bought one of these well he comes to consider it part of himself. The Senior Jewellers aim to keep plenty of choice in the various items of Men's Jewelry that make a man feel and look good in owning.

Healthy Children
WHAT a joy there is in the laughter of children. How quickly that laughter dies when constipation—that great enemy of healthy bodies—coats the tongue and dulls the appetite of your boy or girl.

Mothers often fail to recognize in the bad breath, the coated tongue and fretfulness, the danger of disease that lurks like a shadow ready to throw its black mantle over the loved one.

DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN relieves the cause—constipation—and should be in every home. You will be astonished how quickly this great family remedy will put laughter back in the eyes of your child.

It is a safe, mild laxative especially suitable for children, pleasant to take, with no cramping after effects. It contains no narcotics or mercurials.

THOUSAND MEN OF HOLY NAME AT SUNDAY RALLY

Members of Four Branches Assemble for Service in Cathedral

STRIKING SERMON IS DELIVERED

Rev. M.P. Howland, Formerly of St. John Preaches—Other Gatherings

Fully 1,000 men of the Holy Name Society gathered in the Cathedral last evening at a notable rally of the branches from the Cathedral, St. Peter's, St. John the Baptist and Church of the Assumption. Pontifical vesters were sung by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Striking Sermon.

The preacher was Rev. Miles P. Howland of Kingsclear, formerly of the Cathedral, who gave a sermon of striking force and eloquence on the dignity of the Catholic man's position and on his great destiny—Heaven.

At the outset he condemned cursing and swearing and blasphemy. He then went on to speak of man from the natural and supernatural viewpoint. He showed man elevated above all creation by the gift of reason and illustrated this by reference to great inventions of the age.

But, God had done more for man than this, for He had given him a soul and destined him for heaven and had provided him with the supernatural gift of grace, through which he might attain this destiny. This help was to be obtained by prayer and the sacraments, particularly the Blessed Sacrament.

Reverence Holy Name.

Father Howland concluded by saying: "Always and ever have a great love and reverence for the holy name of Jesus, that sweeter and beautiful name which came from high heaven and at the sound of which every knee in heaven and on earth and under the earth should bow."

A procession of the Blessed Sacrament in which His Lordship the Bishop, the assisting clergy, the altar boys and the prefects and officers of the Holy Name societies took part, was followed by Pontifical Benediction. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, officiated at both vespers and benediction and was assisted by Rev. William M. Duke, as deacon; Rev. T. O'Sullivan, C.S.S.R., as sub-deacon; Rev. Father Mullins, C.S.S.R., as high priest; Rev. James Brown, Rev. Charles Boyd and Rev. Miles P. Howland, were in the sanctuary.

Rev. William M. Duke concluded service by thanking the men for attending and hoping that in the future other similar rallies would be held.

Father Howland sang the 11:30 o'clock mass on Sunday.

DEBATE ARRANGED

Y. M. C. I. Plans Other Activities—Ernest Stirling to Continue Instructor.

At a largely attended meeting of the Y. M. C. I. yesterday afternoon plans were made for a toboggan party to be held on Feb. 20 which would be the last party before the Lenten season. It was announced that Ernest Stirling, who was contemplating retirement from the position of physical instructor, had decided to remain and would be in charge as usual.

A committee was appointed to take that gets in its way." The delegation was not going "with hat in hand," but to make specific and definite demands of the Government.

ENDORSE HALIFAX RESOLUTION

Keen interest was taken in the report of the recent conference held in Halifax at which a strong resolution was passed endorsing the movement, and the vigorous manner being pursued by the Halifax Board of Trade to ensure a strong and representative delegation. The Halifax resolution was read and unanimously endorsed.

It was decided to send out invitations at once to the mayors of all cities and towns of New Brunswick, and also to all wardens and secretaries of municipalities. In addition to these, the meeting desired it known that any individual business man caring to accompany the delegation to Ottawa would be welcome, and that all information could be secured from the secretary of the St. John Board of Trade.

TO INVITE BOARDS OF TRADE

It was further decided to solicit the Boards of Trade of Moncton, Fredericton, St. Stephen, Woodstock, Hartland, Chatham, Newcastle, Bathurst and Campbellton, for the purpose of obtaining as large a representation as possible from these towns.

G. Bruce Burpee, district passenger agent of the C. P. R., and A. J. Gray, general freight agent of the C. N. R., were appointed to arrange the details for transportation of the New Brunswick delegation.

ADVANCE PARTY LEAVES TODAY

Meanwhile, J. D. McKenna, president of The Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star, and W. S. Fisher, former president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, leave today for Quebec, where they will meet Mayor Murphy, of Halifax, and arrange for a Quebec delegation. The party will then proceed to Montreal, where it will be joined by George S. Campbell, president of the Bank of Nova Scotia. A strong delegation will be sought from the Montreal Board of Trade.

The appointment for the meeting between the monster delegation and Premier King and his Government will be made by the two Maritime members of the cabinet, Hon. E. M. McDonald, of Pictou, N. S., Minister of National Defence, and Hon. A. B. Copp, of Westmorland, N. B., Secretary of State.

HOPE MEETING THIS MONTH

It is hoped to arrange the meeting for the last week of February, but no definite date has been set as yet. Details of procedure and demands to be made of the Government are also in course of determination.

HALIFAX COUNCIL VOTES $1,000

Halifax, Feb. 14—The sum of $1,000 was voted by the City Council in special session yesterday to defray the expenses of the Halifax delegation that will accompany representatives from other parts of Canada to Ottawa, where it is proposed to urge upon the Government the necessity of confining the British preference to goods imported through Canadian ports.

Mayor Murphy and G. S. Campbell were chosen yesterday to represent the Halifax Board of Trade on a delegation from the Halifax and St. John Boards to visit the Quebec and Montreal Boards of Trade in the interests of the formation of an All-Canadian delegation to press the needs of the Dominion on the Federal Government at Ottawa.

WILL SPEAK IN TWO CITIES

This has been done in accordance with a suggestion brought to Halifax last week by Col. Massie and T. H. Estabrooks, of the St. John Board.

Mayor Murphy will leave tomorrow morning for Quebec and will be joined by W. S. Fisher, and J. D. McKenna, St. John members of the delegation. Mr. Campbell will join the party at Quebec and they will address the Quebec Board Tuesday afternoon, and the Montreal board Wednesday. It is anticipated the All-Canada delegation will go to Ottawa Feb. 26.

change of the pool tournament which would be run in two series and another to prospect the field of both junior and senior baseball.

A debate will be held on Sunday, Feb. 22, at 4:30 on the subject, "Resolved that Maritime union would be beneficial to the Maritime Provinces." The affirmative will be upheld by Fred D. McGuire and Charles Campbell, and the negative by Messrs. Robichaud and LeClair.

NEW AIR LINE PLANNED.

GENOA, Feb. 16.—A new aerial line from Genoa to Barcelona, Spain, is planned. Planes will be equipped for 10 persons. The journey will consume but five hours, as compared with 36 by the fastest train.

PROMISES AID TO MARITIMES

General Odium referred to the great number of New Brunswick people in British Columbia (there are said to be 30,000) and said that while they were most valuable citizens, he regretted the necessity that sent them away from their native province, which needed their ability and skill.

Many Have Left B. C.

It was most important to all Canada that the Maritime Provinces be made prosperous. These provinces, however, have not been alone in losing people. While Vancouver is now forging ahead and is certain of great growth this year, with millions to be spent on public works and commercial blocks and new homes, I was told of a recent banquet in Seattle where all of the 250 guests were former residents of this city. Our provinces all suffer from the lure of the great country to the south.

Intends to Spend Millions.
It was announced yesterday that the Harbor Commission will spend $2,000,000 this year on port improvements, to include an addition of a million bushel capacity to one of the grain elevators. The city will expend $1,250,000 on water works extension. Municipalities of Greater Vancouver will also make large expenditure. One of the city's ambitions is to establish industries which will find a market for their products in the western section of the Prairie Provinces.

New Brunswick Potatoes.

A carload of New Brunswick potatoes arrived here yesterday and is offered to the trade at 85¢ per ton. Stocks of potatoes are light here. In Calgary last week a lady complained to a dealer that some potatoes delivered to her were small and poor. He replied that they were from New Brunswick and he now had better ones from another source of supply.

This city has a large tourist programme and the keynote is co-operation. Through the kindness of G. N. Harvey I attended on Friday a luncheon of the Publicity Bureau. It collected $60,000 from business men last year, all the service clubs joining in the canvass. Of this $36,000 is still in hand.

Conducts Publicity Campaign.

The city is expected to grant $30,000 and Friday evening civic representatives of each of the surrounding municipalities in Greater Vancouver pledged a grant, most of them larger than last year.

The central organization conduct the publicity campaign. So great was the rush of tourists last year that a great enlargement of camp sites must be made to accommodate this year's visitors. There is also an association of five cities, Vancouver, Victoria, Bellingham, Tacoma and Seattle, each paying on a population basis, to advertise in California and Oregon. Speakers? Friday told of American tourists who came and invested and others who, after coming, decided to make their homes here.

Necessity of Co-operation.

One speaker declared the tourist business would soon be the largest revenue asset of the province. California now claims to get $250,000,000 a year from this source. The bureau gave me time to present the case for the Maritime Provinces and Canadian trade through our own ports and several members remarked upon the similarity of our problems and those of British Columbia.

Emphasis was also placed by them upon the need of thinking nationally and working for national co-operation in solving those problems.

SUCCEEDS DR. MILNER.

HALIFAX, Feb. 16.—Dr. J. D. Logan, of Halifax, lecturer on Canadian literature at Acadia University, Wolfville, has been appointed archivist for the Maritime Provinces, in succession to Dr. W. C. Milner, retired.

Durable Floors for Busy Offices

Dominion Battleship LINOLEUM

All things considered, the floor is the part of the building subjected most to wear and tear and therefore most liable to depreciation. The increasing popularity of Dominion Battleship Linoleum for public and business floors of every type is therefore significant—and the answer is not far to seek.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum assures walking comfort. Its soft, springy resilience means restful quiet. No jar, no noise, and it withstands the hardest wear. Years of service under the severest traffic tests, in departmental stores, banks and busy offices have proved its durability.

Dominion Battleship Linoleum, the permanent, modern floor, cuts janitor and upkeep costs. Light mopping or brushing keeps it spotlessly clean and sanitary. Expensive refinishing and replacement vanish from the picture. Dominion Battleship Linoleum makes a floor worthy of any surroundings, smooth, seamless, odorless and non-absorbent but above all, economical and comfortable.

Made in four standard shades—brown, green, terra cotta and grey. Special colors for large contracts. Send for free samples and literature.

Expect Much Of Campaign

BEAR RIVER, Feb. 15—Members spoke in complimentary terms of the action of The Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star, of St. John, in prosecuting the campaign for Maritime rights in the east of Canada when the Board of Trade met here on Friday evening. In J. D. McKenna, M. L. A., and A. M. Belding the newspapers had chosen two very able proponents of the Maritime case, it was agreed. Members appeared to be very optimistic over the results of the new awakening and expected to see a revival of trade in both New Brunswick and Nova Scotia on account of it.

When the Maritime viewpoint had been explained to fellow Canadians in the west, the members agreed, better relations and a better understanding would exist. Industries now closed down in the Maritime Provinces should be revived and young men and women, who had left the east for the United States in search of work, would be coming back in increasing numbers.

The matter of Maritime rights was considered to be of such importance that it was decided to bring it up again at a special meeting of the board early this week.

Fables On Health

WATCHING THE WEIGHT. MANY folks fail to appreciate the service scale companies render to health by placing free scales at available places, says Mrs. Mann of Anytown. At least scales afford a means of checking up on one's weight, and this often leads to a diet or a series of exercises to get the weight up, or down to normal. If one is overweight the logical thing to do is cut down on bread, butter, sugar, cream, oil, or any other fatty or starchy foods, and walk or take other forms of exercise. If this does not cut the weight down within the bounds of safety, consult a physician to find out whether the increasing pounds are the result of some physical condition, needing treatment. Death records prove that the overweight person has less chance of long life. Do not allow superfluous flesh to accumulate about the neck. Remember it is much easier to prevent growing fat than it is to grow thin, after the mistake has been made.

GET OFFER FOR PLANT.

AMHERST, N. S., Feb. 15—James Cumberland and Amos Eiter, owners of the Victor Woodworking Co. plant, a property which they purchased several months ago, have received an offer from a firm in Stewiacke for the entire plant. In a recent appraisal, the buildings and machinery were valued at $40,000. Frederick the Great settled all the affairs of state in a couple of hours daily, spending the rest of his time reading and writing. John Bunyan, author of "The Pilgrim's Progress," was a mender of pots and kettles.

Trimmed With White Fox

White fox fur and black duff crepe make this attractive spring coat that is lined with white crepe de chine. It has the smart flare at the hemline and the smooth, close fitted effect about the hips. The fur bands coming from the hemline to waistline are decidedly new.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. PEG LEG THE PEDDLER.

Nancy and Nick, the Twins, sat up in their beds and rubbed their eyes. The sun was shining through the curtains and outside a bird was singing. Instead of the bird singing, "Tweet, tweet, tweet!" it was saying words. It was saying: "Wake up, wake up and look under your pillows." Nancy made a dive under her pillow and brought out a paper. "See what I found!" she cried. It has writing on it. "Dear Twins," said the letter—that's what it was! "Poor Peg Leg, the fairy peddler, needs some help. Can you two children do something for him. All you have to do is to go where he goes and coax people to buy. He is trying to get enough money to buy a new peg—the old one is nearly worn out. "Lovely yours, the Fairy Queen."

WHOOPING COUGH IS A VERY SERIOUS TROUBLE HER 5 CHILDREN HAD IT

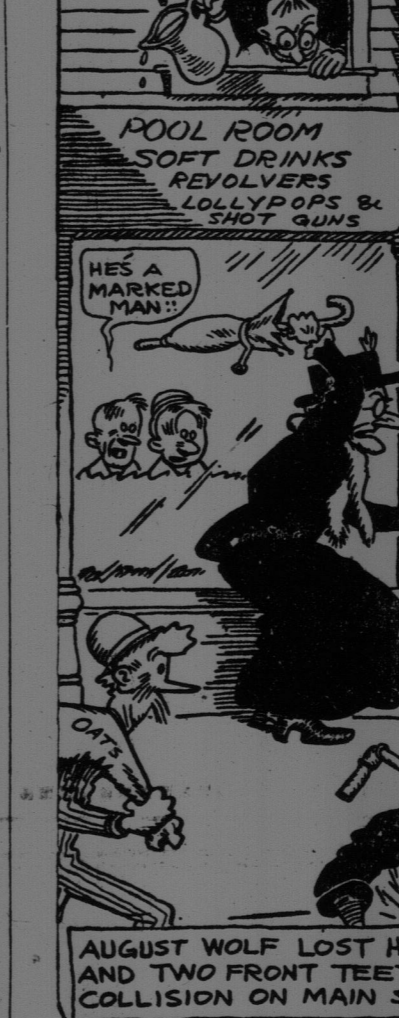

Mrs. S. H. Craig, R.R. No. 1, Palm-croft, Ont., writes—"Two years ago, last winter, our five children had very severe attacks of whooping cough. We were recommended, by our druggist, to use which we did with the greatest of success. It cleared out the throat and bronchial tubes, and loosened the phlegm so that they were able to cough it up, and in no time I had quenched the "whooping."

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

St. Andrew's Church C. G. I. T. Group Takes Lead In Singing

Rev. J. S. Bonnell Gives Sixth Sermon Series.

The C. G. I. T. group of St. Andrew's church occupied the choir loft at the morning service yesterday and led the singing. The girls were dressed in their neat middie blouse suits and while the offertory was being taken they sang the C. G. I. T. hymn most effectively.

ing sermon spoke specially to the C. G. I. T. members and the young folk of the congregation. His subject was "Why Did Jesus Die?" Mr. Bonnell said that all the records of the life of Jesus showed that the whole trend of His life was towards Calvary. He was deliberately accomplishing a set purpose from which He could readily have escaped had He willed it.

STOCK MARKET IS UNSETTLED IN EARLY HOURS

Bethlehem Steel, Chesapeake and Ohio, Seaboard Air Line Are Weak

NEW HAVEN ADVANCE IS ONLY EXCEPTION

Atlantic Sugar Goes to New High Record on Montreal Exchange.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Weakness of several varied issues including Bethlehem Steel, Chesapeake and Ohio and Seaboard Air Line preferred, unsettled the stock market at today's opening and turned the general trend of prices downward. American Cotton dropped a point and Mack Trucks fell 3/4. New Haven was an outstanding exception, responding to announcement that the road refunding programme had been successfully completed.

Quiet in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Early trading on the local stock market this morning was quiet, the only interesting change being an advance by Atlantic sugar to 30, a new record high. Sugar was easily the most active issue. It was followed by Laurentide and Winnipeg Railway, which were up a half and a quarter to 84 1/4 and 39 1/4 respectively. The only other change worth mentioning was a decline of a half to 107 in Union Bank, the balance of the list receiving little attention.

Acting Head Passes Away Soon After Chief George Blake

PYTHIANS WILL CONDUCT FUNERAL

Veteran Had Been Active in Local Department 47 Years.

The city was greatly shocked today by the news that Charles H. Jackson, acting chief of the fire department, had died suddenly at midnight on Sunday at his home in Hospital street. He had not been in his usual rugged health for some time and on Saturday afternoon was seized with a heart attack. He was poorly all day Sunday and that night another attack proved fatal.

Mr. Jackson had been 47 years in the fire department. As a youth of 17 he helped battle the great fire of 1877. He then became a hook and ladder man and rose steadily in the ranks to district engineer and since the sudden death of Chief George Blake, he had been acting chief. He had been asked if he desired promotion to the position of chief and had replied in the affirmative, as he wished to go into his long term of service in the department. His father and his brother had both given good service as well in combating fires in St. John.

Says Prospects At Refinery Brighter

The efforts being made by the Maritime Provinces to secure better freight rates are being followed with interest by L. J. Seidensticker, Montreal, president of the Atlantic Sugar Refinery Corporation and formerly superintendent of the plant here. The local plant, he said, had been hit by these high rates as had almost every other manufacturing industry in the east. He declared that the sugar market in Europe was picking up and prospects were brighter for the future. The local plant, he said, employed 500 hands and discharges a half million dollars annually in wages, exclusive of stevedoring charges. Mr. Seidensticker was here to confer with the manager, A. F. Blake.

He was worth $40,000—and didn't know it

John Parsons earned $2,400 a year. He carried $20,000 life insurance. He didn't realize it—that his earning power was that of an invested fortune of $40,000.—that, on the day of his death, his family's assets would be reduced from $40,000 to $2,000. How long could they exist on $2,000? What would they do after it was spent? John Parsons answered these and other disquieting questions that arose in his mind with a North American Whole Life Policy.

ST. JOHN GROUP SHOWS UP WELL AT PLACID DIAMOND TROPHY MEET

BOYS DID NOT HAVE ON SKATES FOR SIX DAYS BEFORE EVENTS

D. J. Corr, Secretary of St. John A. S. A., Who Attended Meet, Says Ice Conditions Were Poor. Logans Due Home Tomorrow

St. John's banner at the Diamond Trophy championship meet at Lake Placid, concluding yesterday was ably maintained by the group headed by Charlie Gorman, and although no championship titles from the meet come to the city, the work of the local boys competing on foreign ice and against the fastest in North America was of a high calibre and will go a long way toward stimulating interest for next year's big meet here, according to D. J. Corr, secretary of the St. John A. S. A., who returned home this morning after witnessing the big events.

"Conditions for the meet," Mr. Corr says, "were very bad, lack of ice handicapping the boys to a big extent. From the time they left Saranac Lake until they stepped on the ice for the first bell at Lake Placid, none of them had had a pair of skates on. The thaws had worked havoc with the ice. All told, the boys had to kick their heels in idleness for six days without a skate, yet, despite this, I think they did very well."

Gorman To Pittsburgh.

Mr. Corr says that the Pittsburgh authorities had not definitely settled as to the dates of their holding the international indoor meet and for that reason he could not say as to certainty regarding Gorman's future plans. If the meet is held this week, Gorman will attend. If not, he will return home at once. Freddie Logan is due in Montreal tonight, Mr. Corr said, in charge of the younger skaters including Willie Logan, Francis Logan, Clement O'Connor, Ed Snodgrass, Tommy Tebo, and George Fowler. They are expected in tomorrow at noon.

Mr. Corr says when he left the boys were in good shape and feeling fine. Respecting the events, he said Allen caused a big surprise by capturing the 220 event from Gorman. No one figured Allen for this but he caught Gorman in a pocket at a turn and before Gorman could make up the distance, the Chicago youth had flashed over the line a winner.

In the seniors at Lake Placid, Gorman finished second with 805 points, being tied with Valentine Bialis, a member of last year's United States Olympic team, Francis Allen, the sensational youth from Chicago crowning a year of remarkable work by scoring 120 points and taking the title of "Skating Ace of North America." This is Allen's second year in senior competition and he justly deserves the honors he won. He scored first in the 280, 880 and mile, finished second in the 440 event, which was won by Gorman, as usual, and added another 10 points for good measure by coming third in the 2-mile event. Mighty consistent work.

Gorman Second in 3-Mile.

Gorman made up his total by winning the 440, placing second in the 3-mile and the 220, and getting the 880. The pestiferous Joe Moore, from New York, robbed Charlie of the Maxwell Trophy by finishing third in the 440. Moore scored 310 points in the race for this trophy while Gorman piled up 800. A scant margin of 10 points kept the beautiful cup from traveling to St. John. There is not much doubt that had Charles Jewtraw, Lake Placid, desired to win this cup, he would have experienced little trouble in doing so, when the meet opened on Friday, Jewtraw had 270 points on the cup.

Logan and Snodgrass.

Willie Logan scored 50 points and Ed Snodgrass 40 in the 18-year-old competition. Carl Parody, Lake Placid, won this section with 60 points. Logan won the mile and was second in the 440 while Snodgrass won the 880 and finished third in the 440. Clement O'Connor scored 20 points by placing second in the 220. Tommy Tebo scored a third in the 440 on Saturday while George Fowler in the 18-year-old class got a second in the 220 and third in the 880.

Saturday's Summary.

American Diamond trophy, 880 yards—won by Francis Allen, Chicago; second, Valentine Bialis, Lake Placid; third, Charles Gorman, St. John. Time 1 minute, 19 seconds.

Maritime Amateur Boxing Championships Start Tonight

Along the Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

AFTER reading so much about big boxing attractions all over America the time has arrived when St. John fans will have an opportunity to actually witness some stellar amateur championships will be staged in St. Vincent's Auditorium under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and judging from the list of entries the programme should be one of the most sensational in the history of the game in these parts. Nixey Kennedy and Reg. Harper are a stellar attraction in themselves and their meeting in the Olympic trials will be recalled as one of the most sensational amateur bouts ever staged in this city. It is only natural then that fans will eagerly await another go between them. It is doubtful if these stars will be eliminated in their trials unless some "dark horse" has entered who possesses a real punch and knows how to use it. In amateur bouts the competitors are not matched, but draw their opponents and as a result Harper and Nixey may find themselves lined-up tonight. There should be something doing in every bout on the card as the classes are well filled and some clever boys are out eager to win the titles. The St. John representatives have been working hard and are expected to make a strong bid for some of the class championships.

ST. JOHN baseball fans will be interested in an announcement that Dick Burras is out to beat Stuff McNelis out of his job as first baseman with the Boston Braves. McNelis is known to many local followers of this great summer pastime and the efforts of the minor league star to relegate him to the "has-beens" will be awaited with more than ordinary interest. Stuff has been in the big show for 16 years and those who watched him perform last year had to admit that he was slowing up. He is still one of the brainiest infielders in the majors and some of his plays at the initial sack are of the thrilling variety. However, it is a fact that "Father Time" is camping on his trail and sooner or later will stretch out his hand and put him out of the running. Six years ago Burras endeavored to prove to Connie Mack that he was a better man than Stuff in his balmy days. Connie was greatly impressed at first, but later decided he had made a mistake and let him out to Columbus in the American Association. He remained there three years and then went to Atlanta. Last fall he was drafted by the Boston Braves and is to be given a try-out at the spring training camp. It is now up to Stuff to make a supreme effort to offset the invader who threatens to beat him out of a job. McNelis for many years has been considered to be the greatest first baseman in the majors.

TIGER FLOWERS, the sensational Georgia middleweight, who is to meet Louis Bogash in Boston tonight, has staged a most sensational comeback since his defeat at the hands of Jack Delaney. In his bouts he met formidable opponents and succeeded in stopping them all. He knocked out Tommy Robson in eight rounds, stopping Jack Savage in three, the Jamaica Kid in eight and later bested Ted Moore of England. Saturday night he scored a technical knockout over Frankie Clark of Allentown, Pa., in the fifth round.

Everything is all ready for the skating meet to be held in the Victoria rink on Thursday night, under the auspices of the Police Association. The programme is lengthy and the list of competitors is one of the largest for many years. The following are those entered in the different events:

Under 12 years, 220 yards—Harold Jenner, Archibald Caldwell, Douglas Skinner, Ronald Crowdy, Harold Joseph, Wilbur Atcheson, Edward Murray, Edward Coughlan, Edward Hunter, Gordon Sands, Leo Stanton, Charles Hamilton, Kenneth Watson, Holly Pearson, James MacCarthy, George Ricketts, Kenneth Knowles, William Lennox, John Burgess, Donald Myles, Harrison Crawford, Jack Landry, Joseph Golding, Charles Lynch, Alward Patterson, Michael Bows, T. Gregg, Charles Burgess.

Under 10 years, 220 yards—Earl Corbett, Donald Kent, Gerald Fowler, Joseph Hoppe, J. Coffee.

Show shoe race, two laps—Cornelius Rogan, Barney Francisco, Harry O'Brien.

Nurmi Covers Two Miles in 8.58 1-5

NEW YORK, Feb. 15—Paava Nurmi, great runner of Finland, last night accomplished what had been considered an impossible task for a human being when he ran here to new world record of 8 minutes 58 1/5 in a two mile race.

The feat of the Flying Finn is all the more remarkable as it was the third successive night in which he had competed in New York State. Nurmi also established a new mark for 13-4 miles which he reached in 7 minutes, 52-5 seconds, bettering his old time by four seconds at this point.

To Harden Bones In Boxer's Hands

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—(United News).—Slipping a horseshoe into a boxing glove to overcome an opponent's insensibility no longer will be necessary, if a hand-hardening process devised by Dr. Alfred Beyer of the Prussian Department of Health proves as successful as Beyer thinks it will. Dr. Beyer has announced that consistent pounding with a small rubber hammer on the bones and knuckles of the hand so toughens the fist that to break the bones in a fight would be almost impossible. Kurt Prenzel, former German middleweight champion, who had to resign his crown because of shattered hand bones, will be the first professional to test the Beyer method.

The Halifax and Glace Bay boxers arrived yesterday morning on the Halifax train, and are ready and eager to get started in the Maritime Boxing tournament at St. Vincent's Auditorium, Cliff street, this evening.

Rev. R. G. Fulton Is Heard on Liquor Act

Rev. R. G. Fulton last evening at the conclusion of his sermon in Centenary church said that if the present prohibition act could not be enforced it was time a new act was passed. He considered that it would be better for the Government to be securing the revenue from the sale of liquor, if they were going to permit it. He favored a larger fine or jail sentences for breakers of the prohibition act.

MOESKOPS TO GET $10,000 FOR RACING

Pete Moeskops, the giant Holland cyclist who has held the world's championship for the past four years, will compete in the coming six-day bicycle race, which will be held in Madison Square Garden, New York, the week of March 2. Announcement of this was made by John M. Chapman, manager of the race, who stated that he had called Moeskops, accepting the Hollanders' terms. It was said that Moeskops will receive $10,000 in addition to all expenses to come to America, thus making him the highest paid cyclist ever to compete in the Garden grid. The Holland star also will compete in the special sprint races which will be held on the Saturday previous to the opening of the six-day race. Moeskops first won the world's cycling championship in Copenhagen in 1921. The following year he retained the title in Paris. Tailoring That Stands the Wet

When you pay $30 or a bit less for a made to measure suit at the Triple C Tailors, you get a fabric that looks as good a year later as when you bought it.

Triple C fabrics are a wee bit better than those of other tailors, simply because we felt we had to have them of heavier weight and quality to end any doubt raised by the lowered price.

The same careful selection of the best framework is the other important point that accounts for the way they keep their shape after being repeatedly out in the rain.

That's a good rule to go by in considering where to get your clothes—will they hold up under the weather? If they will, then you know you got what you paid for—a tailored fit and style that stay with you.

$30 is a lot of money to bring here.

Three Months Jail Option in Liquor Case—Other Charges Dismissed.

A fine of $200 or three months in jail was imposed by Magistrate Henderson this morning in the Police Court on Clement Oliver, colored, charged with having liquor unlawfully in his possession in his boarding house in Bond street. A charge of being the keeper of a disorderly house against Oliver was dismissed and a charge of being frequenter laid against Mrs. Florence Phillips, 38, George Capen James Budd, Waldon Harris, Edwin Weaver, John Dalton and Harry Allen also was dismissed. The thirteen-year-old daughter of Oliver also was allowed to go.

A little after midnight on Saturday, Detectives Kilpatrick and Saunders, accompanied by several policemen, visited the premises. Detective Kilpatrick said all the men, save Harris, showed signs of liquor. Corroborative evidence was given by the other officers.

E. J. Henneberry, who appeared for Mrs. Phillips, contended there was no evidence to show the house was a disorderly house or that Mrs. Phillips was an inmate. The charge against Oliver was dismissed and the others also were allowed to go.

RIVER ICE WEAKENS.

POLICE MAKE 3 RAIDS SEEKING CARD PLAYERS

One Visit in West End and Two in City Proper

FOURTEEN FOUND IN ONE REAR SHOP

Dismissal Asked as Search Warrant Had Not Been Obtained.

Raids by the police on Saturday in the city and West St. John resulted in a heavy docket for the police court session this morning with Magistrate Henderson presiding. Three charges of keeping gambling houses were heard; one charge of keeping a disorderly house, and one charge of having liquor unlawfully.

Two Cents on Floor.

The first gaming case charge heard was against John E. McLeod, Rodney street, West St. John. Detective Kilpatrick said in company with Sgt. O'Neill, he visited McLeod's Cobbling shop on Saturday evening and in a room in the rear of the shop found 14 men around a cloth-topped table. He said he saw no money on the table but found a pack of cards and two decks on the floor. The accused he said, told him that business was poor and admitted he was paid for allowing the men to play there. The detective said he had taken the names and addresses of the 14 men. Replying to G. Earle Logan, appearing for the defendant, he said he did not have a search warrant. Sgt. O'Neill, of the West St. John force, gave corroborative evidence.

Mr. Logan asked the charge he dismissed on the grounds that there was no evidence to show the games played were games of chance and also that a search warrant had not been obtained. The magistrate said he would like to look into the matter and set Wednesday for resuming the case.

Raid in Dock Street.

Wednesday afternoon also was set for hearing of a similar charge against Joseph Fritz, 13 Dock street. Fritz pleaded not guilty. Detective Kilpatrick and Saunders and Inspector Killen gave evidence.

Six men were found there, seated around a table. A pack of cards and $3 were placed in evidence as being found on the table. No search warrant was secured. E. J. Henneberry asked for dismissal and the magistrate set the case over until Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Case Dismissed.

A charge of keeping a gambling house against Henry Ewart, 173 Market Place, West St. John, was dismissed as the accused was not among those present when the visit was made. The magistrate said that under the evidence he could not see where Ewart had knowledge that five men caught playing cards in a barn in the rear of his house were using his property for gambling. G. Earle Logan appeared for accused. Detective Kilpatrick and Sgt. O'Neill gave evidence on the raid.

Each guest had a favor made up in a dainty basket filled with silver covered chocolates and valentines were also much in evidence. The little guests of honor received lovely concertos in valentines, wishing her many happy birthdays and best of good fortune. The guests were Ruth Kerrigan, Marjorie Mackenzie, Myrtle Lahey, Nellie Brown, Phyllis Smyth, Jean McAlister, Glane Smith, Kerr Smith and Glendon Patriguen.
