THE FAIR AND FIFTEEN.

BY HOWARD OLVERSON.

She is the best just ready for the sun. Her hair is a mass of curls, her cheeks are flushed with the pink of health, and her eyes are bright with the light of joy. She is the fairest of the fairest, and her beauty is the envy of all eyes.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

A disgruntled Milwaukee fisherman offers a chronicle to every fish that will take the bait.

James calls the chapter in a new novel, over which his wife wept profusely, a watering place.

"Excursion tickets to participate in the festivities attending the execution of Jim Davis" are advertised at half price in Texas.

It costs the country about $20 per day during the heated term to supply the House of Representatives in Washington with food and lodgings.

A Pennsylvania gentleman, aged 81, walked to New York for a bottle of medicine and back, a distance of nine miles, in three hours. He didn't want the medicine for his own use.

Some men never lose their presence of mind. In Milwaukee last week a man threw his mother-in-law out of a window in the fifth story of a burning building, and carried a feather bed down stairs in his arms.

Clergymen are late worshippers. "Glad to see you, sir, come always glad to see those here late who can't come early." Late worshippers to clergymen. "Thank you, would you please favor me with the text?"

The Italian Government is busily engaged in unearthing the foundations of old Rome. The Forum Romanum has been cleared out down to the pavement, the Via Sacra and the Coliseum partially so, and the sum of $10,000,000 has been appropriated for continuing the excavations.

Among the notable articles contained in the last two weekly numbers of Littell's Living Age, are the following: The French Press; Lamartine; Some Old-fashioned Fancies; English Foreign Policy; Eccentric English; The Indian Family; Our First Great Novelist; Mendelssohn; The Women and the Universe; The Revolutions of Twentieth Century; The Tale of the South Downs; and an installment of "A Rose in June," and the Story of Valentine and his Brothers," poetry and miscellany.

California pea pods are far superior to orange peel for throwing the unwary pedestrian into the gutter.

A woman who had been married for some time, and who had a large family, was one day walking through a park, and saw a man who was carrying a basket of fruit. She called to him, and he said, "What do you want?" She said, "I want a basket of fruit like yours." He said, "I will give you a basket of fruit like yours, if you will give me a basket of fruit like yours."

"Doctor, what will cure the fever of love?" "The chill of wedlock, methinks."

The Jewish World says a reference to the sacrifice of Isaac has been discovered in the Assiutian tablets. Here is the text: "The first lady doctor in Holland has just passed her examination. The candidate was Miss Jacobs, and she has obtained her diploma as a physician."

Bayard Taylor describes a child's plaything in Egypt which is 4000 years old. Children ought to give up playthings which are 4000 years old.

The coach line from London to Dorking is patronized by the aristocracy.

"Cast Iron Sinks," is written upon the sign of a Hartford plumber. "Well, who (he) said it didn't" chuckled an inebriate man, after reading it over three times.

"Matrimony," said a modern Benedict, the other day, "produced remarkable revolutions. Here and there, in fact, in ten short months, changed from a sighing lover to a loving wife."

Mr. Blackburne, the celebrated blind-fold chess-player, lately contested eight simultaneous games against members of the London Chess Club, without seeing any of the boards. At the close of the first sitting he had won four and lost one, three being unfinished.

Cyrus W. Field is confident that the San Francisco moneyed men will take stock and advance money for laying the Pacific cable to Japan as soon as the survey is made. The stock will be owned in London, New York, and San Francisco, and will amount to about $20,000,000.

Bringing the Serpent.

They may talk as much as they please about the degeneracy of the human race, but, in our opinion, Mrs. Eliza Wilson of Cooperstown, Tennessee, has proved her point in pluck and wisdom much superior to her great-grandmother Eve. The serpent didn't get the better of Mrs. Eliza, not he! On the 2nd of last month the matron "went into a neighboring grove to get a tooth brush, and was in the act of breaking a twig, from which we learn the interesting detail that fish in Tennessee twigs are used for tooth-

The Daily Tribune. J. L. STEWART, Editor. THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 18.

The Contest is King. There is always a spice of uncertainty about the result of a King's County election that gives a peculiar flavor to the contest.

After scouring everybody in Canada Mr. Anglin turns his attention to the United States in the following style: 'Except in all the acts of villainy, in frauds and Legislative corruptions and great crimes it is true of the whole people of the United States that they have sunk to a very low level of mediocrity or low mediocrity, and Ireland, a few Sundays ago, the Rev. Mr. Moran having thought proper to substitute for the expected sermon on the Gospel of the day some remarks on the pending election, was rudely interrupted by the adherents of a political candidate, who cried "Out," and rushed from the building in a body. Many persons were injured in the crush.'

A lady in Florida has hit upon "a mission." She means to agitate the important matter of changing the name of America. "Columbia" she says, that she will lecture, print tracts, call conventions, petition Congress and so on to represent the different States. She has undertaken a little too much. Such matters arrange themselves. "How long is it to your apple tree?" For how it did look. No wonder some nerves were shocked so much as to cause head breaks in the procession.

Little Joe was the medicine man of a tribe of Indians near Big Pine, California. Sapsy had a fever, and Little Joe killed him in a clumsy effort to cure him. The tribe were indignant at the malpractice, and as a result Little Joe was killed with the medicine that had killed Sapsy. The doctor did not die of his own poisoning, but he was killed by the medicine that he had used to cure Sapsy. When people are sufficiently enlightened to think for themselves such appeals to their passions and prejudices will not be made.

The editor of the Telegraph made a correction of the falsehood which he published yesterday about the Tribune, and after he retired for the night, one of his wicked associates tackled a Jesuitical tail to it in reference to what we said about the 'Trib' election. It is too good to be true. The Tribune is just to his fellows should be brought to naught in this way.

Mr. J. P. Cragie, formerly Superintendent of the St. Stephen Branch Railway, died in St. Stephen on Friday last. Chanfrau, the actor, offers to contribute $1000 toward presenting a splendid play to be put in evidence, but the proposition was rejected by the board of directors. The Duke of Connaught (Prince Arthur) appeared in the British House of Commons last night for the first time and participated in the deliberations of that body.

Mr. J. H. Flowering was a member of the Assembly for four years, and with the respect and esteem of his fellow members and of the occupants of the Reporters' Gallery. He was no ordinary member, but a sensible, thick and good working member. No man questioned his uprightness or doubted his ability to decide intelligently on bills before the House.

Mr. Robert E. McLeod, the other number of the ticket was never a candidate before and did not become a candidate until the Convention forced the honor on him. He is a leading farmer, one of the best representatives of the farmers of the richest agricultural County in New Brunswick, is largely engaged in manufacturing enterprises within the County, and will make a representative of whom the County may be proud. Intelligent farmers make the very best representatives, and far too few of them find seats in the Assembly. No man who believes in free-school should fail to go to the polls and deposit his ballot for the candidates of his party. The ticket represents the learned professions, and the commercial and agricultural interests of the County, and should be accepted by every man who believes in the taxation of property for the support of schools.

On the Rampage. The Freeman is as savage, this morning, as the Telegraph has been for a month, hitting right and left with a sort of blinding wrath. The Tribune is called "one of the Free Non-Sectarian Common School Organs, ready to join in any cry that will delude the majority." But this is mild. Here is its complimentary notice of the members of the new House of Assembly: 'We would willingly do much to get an honest, respectable Government. That, however, is out of the question. The next House of Assembly will not afford material for such a Government, and he is no true friend of the Province who, by doing any effort to pull down the present rotten fabric will compel the Government to buy more islands, pay more obsolete unfounded claims, purchase more shagging machines and buy more votes at a higher price than they would otherwise be compelled to do. The Province has had enough of that sort of thing. Let us, if possible have no more of it. The members of the new assembly who will talk independence will only mean that they desire to get a larger share of the public plunder.'

records, and change their political principles, for the sake of obtaining the object of their ambition? Is none of them more ambitious of a good name than a fat office?

Never burn kindly-written letters, the mere utterances of those afar, yet dear, whose faces you may never look upon again. Remember how many a little motion in nature they will never see. It isn't only children, it seems, who feel their angry passions rise. Somebody in Cincinnati, who had been troubled by children pulling the door-bell, rashed out and poured scalding water into the faces of a little boy and girl that were passing. Of course they were the wrong ones, and there has been an apology, but the children are likely to be permanently blinded. In the Catholic Chapel of Castletar, Ireland, a few Sundays ago, the Rev. He is a leading farmer, one of the best representatives of the farmers of the richest agricultural County in New Brunswick, is largely engaged in manufacturing enterprises within the County, and will make a representative of whom the County may be proud. Intelligent farmers make the very best representatives, and far too few of them find seats in the Assembly. No man who believes in free-school should fail to go to the polls and deposit his ballot for the candidates of his party. The ticket represents the learned professions, and the commercial and agricultural interests of the County, and should be accepted by every man who believes in the taxation of property for the support of schools.

On the Rampage. The Freeman is as savage, this morning, as the Telegraph has been for a month, hitting right and left with a sort of blinding wrath. The Tribune is called "one of the Free Non-Sectarian Common School Organs, ready to join in any cry that will delude the majority." But this is mild. Here is its complimentary notice of the members of the new House of Assembly: 'We would willingly do much to get an honest, respectable Government. That, however, is out of the question. The next House of Assembly will not afford material for such a Government, and he is no true friend of the Province who, by doing any effort to pull down the present rotten fabric will compel the Government to buy more islands, pay more obsolete unfounded claims, purchase more shagging machines and buy more votes at a higher price than they would otherwise be compelled to do. The Province has had enough of that sort of thing. Let us, if possible have no more of it. The members of the new assembly who will talk independence will only mean that they desire to get a larger share of the public plunder.'

Personal. Charles Duff Esq. has received notice that the Catholic appeal against the School Law will be argued before the Privy Council on the 9th of July. He leaves for England on Monday, sailing by a Cunard steamer from Boston. Mr. Fred Peters, son of T. W. Peters, Esq., left this morning for British Columbia. He goes by the Panama route, and at this season, will have a delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walcott arrived at the Victoria Hotel last evening. Next week this popular actor and actress appear at the Dramatic Lyceum. Capt. Arnold and Corp. Fatten, New Brunswick's quota of the Wimbledon Team, left yesterday morning for Quebec, from which place they sail on the 25th inst.

Messrs. Melick & Jordan, shipping merchants, are about dissolving partnership. Mr. Jordan intends moving to the United States, and going into business there. His many friends will regret to hear of his going away, and the Portland Water Council will lose a popular and hard working member. Mr. John Boyd, a leading merchant of St. John, N. B., and the most popular lecturer in the Province, will favor the young people of the Beach Street Church with a free lecture, "My Old Home in '69," this evening.-Boston Journal, 18th.

Chiropractor.-Dr. J. Lindeman, the Surgeon Chiroprast, now stopping at the Victoria Hotel, is making some wonderful cures in Corns, Bunions and Bad Nails. Remember he cures without pain or drawing blood. Remember he will only remain a few days. His charges are moderate. The very worst cases of Nails cured. 31

Brevities. From early morning yesterday and last night the rain poured down in torrents. In the city, where a rain storm is so unpleasant, the people are content to endure it for the benefit of their country neighbors.

Lendman, the York Point homicide, was arraigned in Bangor on Tuesday before U. S. Commissioner Hamilton, on complaint of Chief Marshal. The necessary steps were taken to procure his delivery to the authorities here under the Extradition Treaty.

Messrs. Ferguson & McLean have entered into co-partnership for the purpose of carrying on business in cats, food and country produce generally. They will open in the store recently occupied by P. J. Gannon, under the Bangor House, on Saturday next.

Messrs. J. & R. Reed are erecting a brick building in Water street, adjoining their new building. The building is the same size as the one just finished, and the two form a block that adds much to the appearance of the street.

Flowers. Messrs. Hamilton Bros., Foster's corner, have arranged with a well known florist in Boston for tri-weekly consignments of roses, buds, &c., which they will sell singly or by the dozen. They will also fill orders, at short notice, for flowers and bouquets for weddings and parties. 21

Dramatic Lyceum Theatre. Notwithstanding a pouring rain there was an excellent attendance at the Lyceum last evening. The fame of Mr. Robinson, as Richelieu, accounted for the audience defying the rain to be present. Mr. Robinson seemed to surpass himself in his delineation of the character of the Cardinal. His acting drew from the audience loud expressions of their appreciation, and he was called before the curtain. The support by nearly all the company was good. This evening "Macbeth" will be played, and Mrs. J. W. Lanagan will appear for the first time in this season. To-morrow evening, for the benefit of Mr. Robinson, "The Fool's Revenge," a new drama, will be presented.

Guano Steamers. China, Samaria, Calabria, Hecla, Marathon, Batavia, Scotia, Saragossa. These first-class steamers of this popular line will leave Boston and New York for Liverpool during the next two weeks. Hall & Hamilton, agents.

A Small Schooner to Cross the Atlantic. Messrs. T. McCarthy & Son are now fitting up the schooner Annie Laurie, as tons, to load with coal and send across the Atlantic to an Irish port, for sale. The Annie Laurie is a new vessel, but was wrecked last fall and purchased by the present owners. She will be rigged with topgals and put in the best possible condition. The crew will consist, besides the captain, of a dog and cat, a boy and two men. The captain does not intend to insure his life, but will put his trust in reach his destined port in safety. The little vessel will receive her cargo and be ready to sail in a week or two.

It is saddening to see our bird blossoming for the grave too early. More especially women feel this affliction, and it is even a greater deformity to them than to men. Ayer's Hair Vigor removes it and restores the hair sometimes, but its original color always.

Mr. Morley, who was for so long a time in the employ of Mr. N. Fowles Esq., has announced the business of undertaker, etc., on his own account. (See advt.)

Common Council. The Common Council met yesterday afternoon. It was very rainy and at the opening only five Aldermen and four Councilors were called to order by his Worship, but more dropped in before the session closed. The Harbor Committee reported recommending that the communication of Capt. Field be filed; that E. Lunt & Sons' request in regard to expenditure at Reed's Point be not complied with; that A. McDermott be not granted the privilege of taking sand from the beach; that the communication of the Captain of the Batavia in reference to damage done his vessel be filed. This negative report was adopted.

The Eastern Lands Committee recommended that lot 448 be re-leased to B. Sullivan; that W. L. Prince and Charles Sullivan be allowed to purchase lot 448 for possession for $1000; and that D. Sullivan, J. H. McAvilly and W. C. Goddard also have the same privilege. Report adopted.

The Street Committee reported that they had advertised for tenders for laying sidewalks and building retaining walls. They also asked that the police be requested to take cognizance of the violation of the law relating to encumbering the streets, and the violation of the building permit law. Carried.

The Harbor Inspector called attention to the ashes of the various tug boats that were thrown somewhere, no one could tell where. He was of the opinion that they were thrown into the harbor. Referred to Harbor Committee.

Referred to Harbor Committee. Jacob Stamper, by letter, set forth that he had retired from the Carleton fire department after 15 years service, and asked the usual privileges. Granted. The Water Commissioners of the West side submitted a scheme for increasing the water supply of Carleton, to cost $25,000. They also submitted a report of the Chief Engineer regarding the works, its cost and nature, a reservoir near Filion's, and lowering the present main pipe at Moore's Hill and other places. Ald. McCordock moved that the request of the Commissioners be not complied with and the Chamberlain authorized to issue debentures to pay for the work. The motion was seconded by Ald. Kerr. Ald. Russell opposed the motion; said it was downright injustice to the people of Carleton. They did not want an increased supply and had twice said so. The Carleton people were not the subjects of the increased taxes; they were too poor. He moved in amendment that the report be laid on the table until next meeting. The amendment was seconded by Ald. Melick. Ald. Kerr spoke of the mastery man of some Carleton who were "were" were the entire Board should assist those of the Carleton members who were desirous to move in the matter. Ald. Drake said Ald. Russell had persistently refused to attend the meeting of the Carleton members to discuss the subject. Ald. Russell said he refused to attend until Mr. Perley, the engineer, was called. He knew nothing of water supply and had no confidence in the City Engineer. Ald. Peters and Lockhart favored the idea, and Ald. Melick thought they might, from courtesy allow some delay. Ald. Ferguson thought the Carleton required a better water supply. He and some other members of the board had gone to Spruce Lake. "With sticks in it." He also tested the pipe at Moore's Hill (not Maple) and found only nine inches of water in it. Ald. Duffell favored a good supply of water and would vote for the motion. Many Carleton tax-payers had asked him to vote for the larger supply. Ald. McCordock's motion was carried without division. Ald. Lockhart informed the Board that the City Engineer had authority to prosecute the Messrs. White for erecting a wooden building contrary to the City Charter. The question of increasing the policemen's pay was brought up by Councilor Martin, who moved that the pay of policemen be $1.50 and of sergeants $1.75 per day. After some discussion, in which Councilor Hann strongly urged a still greater increase, it was referred to the Police Committee, where it has been the last year, but fortunately Councilor Martin was added and a report may be expected. On motion of Councilor Clark, Edward Craft was appointed to the Carleton Fire Department. Ald. Kerr moved that the Bill Committee be instructed to prepare a bill to go before the Legislature to provide for extra pay for policemen and firemen, also to vest in the Common Council the appointment of all officers drawing money from the City Treasury. This motion was carried, after some very strong expressions of opinion on the Police force and the Chief's management. A plank walk was ordered for the north side of King street, Carleton, on motion of Ald. Drake. Board adjourned.

Nervousness. It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the benefits I have received from using Fellers' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and it has proved an excellent curative for nervousness and general debility. It is also a first-class tonic, enables a person to take on flesh rapidly and is free from the constipating effects characteristic of other tonics I have tried. HENRY JOHNSTON, Montreal.

Shipping Notes. Stranded in the harbor.-During the heavy blow last night, the bark Flying Cloud, at anchor in the stream, broke her cables and drifted on the beach at Sand Point, and stranded. Although there are no rocks where she lies, it is feared she has stove a hole near her bow, as she lies by her bow almost under water, while her stern is quite high. Her port waterways are altogether under water. The F. C. is a clipper-built vessel, upwards of 24 years old, and was being loaded by Guy, Stewart & Co. She is 1091 tons, was built at Boston in 1851, and was owned by H. S. Edwards, South Shields, Eng. It is thought that she cannot right with the tide as her cargo must be shifted. Her back is also reported broken. Ship on Fire.-A fire broke out on board the ship Magna Charta, at Havre from San Francisco, but was extinguished with little damage to the ship. Mr. C. Sparrow begs to intimate to Saint John epicures that he has engaged one of the best and most skillful cooks to be had from Boston, and he is now prepared to furnish breakfasts, dinners and suppers in the highest style of the culinary art. The public are respectfully invited to call and try his skill at the Victoria Dining Saloon, No. 8 German street (opposite Country Market.)
