

"JACK" ROBERTS WAS CAPTURED BEN BLACKSTOCK A DETECTIVE

Prisoner Who Escaped From London Jail Was Arrested at Detroit.

EX-DOG-CATCHER WORKED A GAME

Slept With Prisoner in Detroit and Finally Gave Him Up to the Police.

Chiefly through the efforts of Ben. G. Blackstock, late dog-catcher of this city, would-be hangman, and now amateur detective of Detroit, the immigration authorities of the City of the Straits have placed under arrest Jack Roberts, the jailbreaker, who made his escape from the county jail here some weeks ago in company with Joseph Steadman, of Philadelphia.

Sheriff Cameron has received a telegram telling of the capture of Roberts and Miss Hattie Levesley, said to come from Mount Brydges. Both will be deported as undesirables. Roberts had just been sentenced to a three-year term for burglary, when he and Steadman succeeded in securing a delivery from the local jail.

A Love Affair. It is reported that Roberts was to have married his lady friend, who paid frequent visits to him in Detroit.

Some time ago Blackstock, who is now living in Detroit, came to London and visited various officials at the county jail.

He met an Advertiser reporter, and spoke in a very mysterious manner of the great information he carried.

It now develops that he met Roberts several times in Detroit, and he claims to have slept with the escaped convict.

The police, who had already received a tip, believed that Roberts was in Detroit, and the dog-catcher's story was taken as a confirmation.

Another Burglary. Shortly after leaving this vicinity Roberts burglarized a factory in a small village near Bad Axe, Mich. He will be sent back to Bad Axe for a hearing, and will then be deported, and handed over to the sheriff of Midland.

As a great deal of "red tape" must be unravelled before Roberts comes to London, he will not be back in this city for about two weeks, it is said.

EXTRA ROOM PROVIDED IN RICHMOND ST. SCHOOL

Move Was Made Necessary By the Overcrowding at St. George's.

An extra room in the Richmond street school has been opened by order of the board of education. This was made necessary by the overcrowding of St. George's school, which is now filled to capacity. At a meeting of No. 1 committee this morning Chairman Graham reported that he had investigated conditions with Inspector Edwards, and had opened the room. Miss Fleming of the Aberdeen school, had been placed in charge, while Miss Hayes, of the Princess avenue school, had been transferred to Aberdeen. The committee approved of the action of the chairman, and the transfer were authorized.

Manual Training. It was also decided to install a manual training department in the Princess avenue school. There is a vacant room there, and as all the necessary equipment is in possession of the board it was deemed advisable to open the room. The salary of the relieving principal, Mr. George Copeland, was placed on the same basis as the principal of a ten-room school. The minimum is $1,300 and the maximum $1,500. Chairman Graham and Inspector Edwards were named a committee to purchase pictures for the public schools.

The application of Mrs. Gled, of West London, to allow her children to attend the Empress avenue school, was referred to Inspector Edwards to report on.

Those present were Chairman C. M. R. Graham, W. W. Gammon, John M. Gunn, Dr. Mugan, G. N. Weekes, Inspector Edwards, and Secretary McElhannon.

A DANGEROUS PASTIME. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, Ont., Sept. 29.—A small boy, who resides in Ingersoll, along the road leading to London, makes a habit of running before automobiles, it is said, and unless stopped will surely be injured.

Yesterday he deliberately ran in front of a machine from London, and his life was saved by the fact that the auto was moving very slowly and the driver made a sensational stop.

Several people witnessed the affair. The lad is about six years old.

PASSED FORGED CHECK IS CHATHAM CHARGE

Man From the States Arrested by the Maple City Police.

[G. N. W. Dispatch.] Chatham, Sept. 29.—Frank Smith, aged 33 years, was arrested at the C. P. R. Hotel at 2 o'clock this morning charged with passing a forged $10 check on W. G. Hannon, of Miles Hotel. According to the charge Smith Saturday bought $4 worth of goods from the Stone Company, tendering a $10 check, apparently signed by John Johnson, a farmer, of Harwich, though the check was irregularly made out Stone cashed it. He then, at Smith's request, showed the latter how to fill out a check properly. Smith took the check filled out by Stone, and went to Miles Hotel, where he ordered supper and bed, giving Stone's check in payment, and taking the balance in cash. His arrest followed failure to return that night. Smith claims to come from Aurora, Ill., and Batavia, N. Y.

GAS ENGINES READY FOR A TEST NOW

Pumping Plant On Horton Street Is Nearing Completion.

The gas engines and pumps of the Horton street plant will be ready for a test early next week. They are installed, and when some minor matters of detail are arranged they will be tested. The big 18-inch main serving the down-town districts is also about completed, and when that is finished the water will be turned into it.

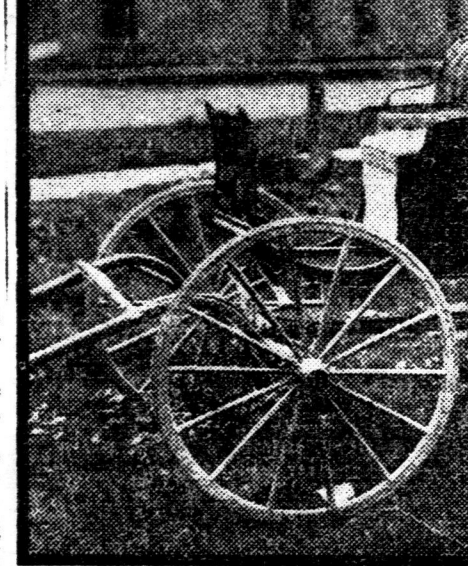

These pumps have a capacity of 2,500,000 gallons for 24 hours, and this amount of water will be poured into the mains for a short period. It is expected that a test of the pressure will be made when the other tests are being made.

"The gas pumps are about ready," said Chairman Pocock, when questioned about the matter. "There are some little details of connection and the like to be made, and they will be ready by use."

"We will probably test them some day early next week. It is our intention to run two or three million gallons of water into the new mains, and we will then see what difference it makes in the pressure."

SENT TO KINGSTON. Toronto, Sept. 28.—Melville Dempster, a young English bank clerk out from the old county less than six months, was sent to the Kingston Penitentiary for three years today for forgery. Dempster cashed a check for $10 yesterday and the forgery was discovered before he could escape. He has two other forged checks in his possession.

MR. FIELDING'S ILLNESS NOT A SERIOUS ONE

Minister of Finance Will Be in the House as Usual This Session.

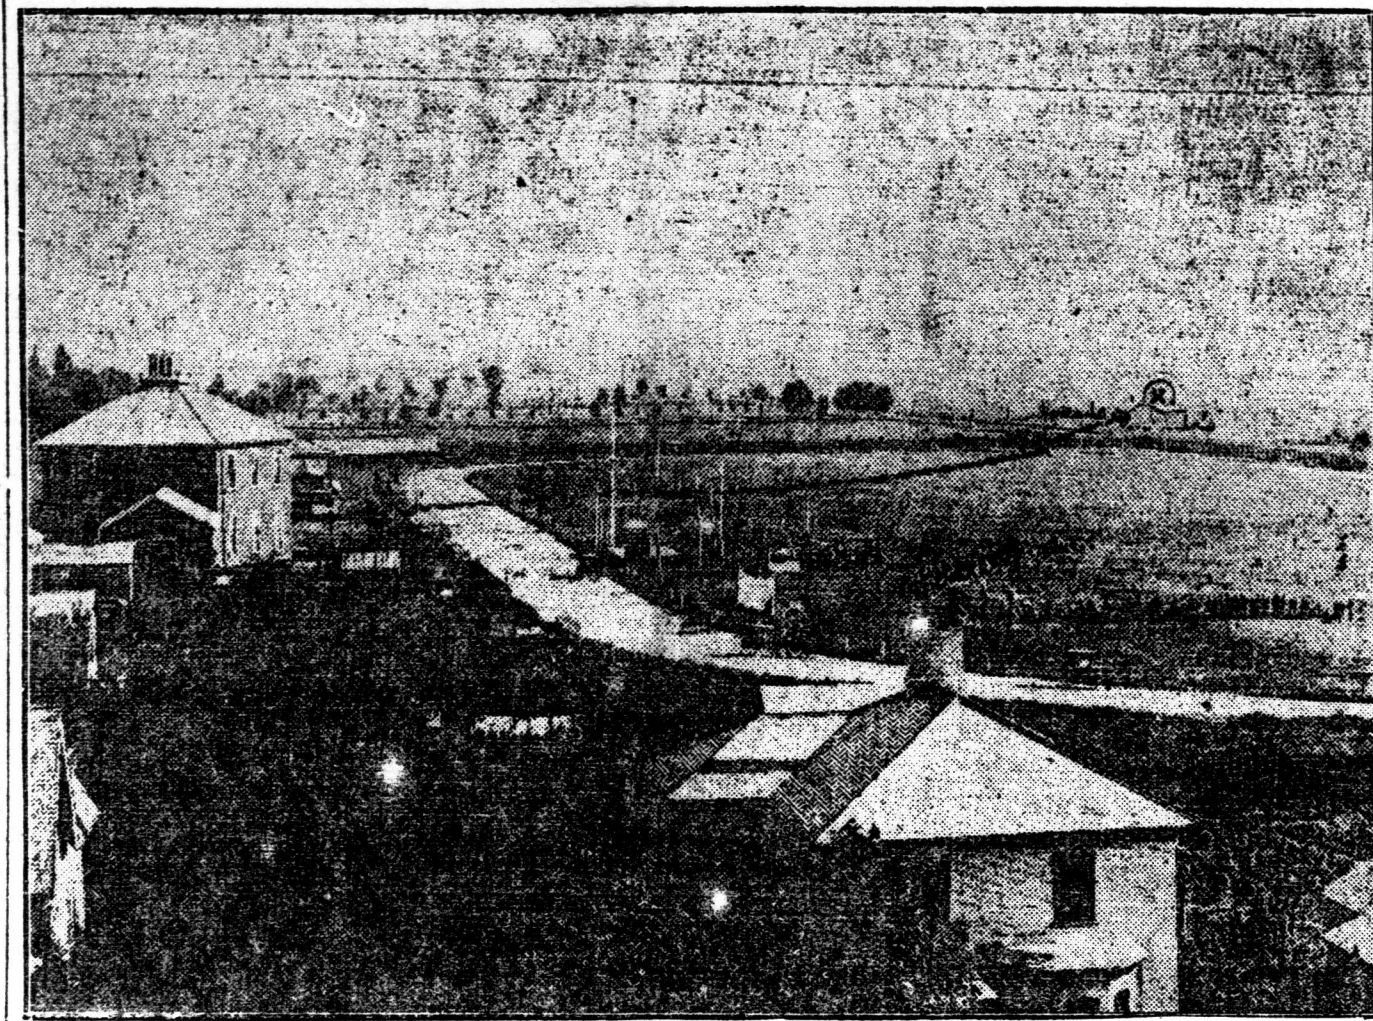

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Sept. 29.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, finance minister of Canada, arrived at Ottawa at 11:45 this morning, with his wife and Miss Edith Fielding, and drove to his home on Metcalfe street.

Mr. Fielding seemed cheerful and energetic. His attack of facial paralysis was indicated in his appearance only by a patch worn over the left eye.

The paralysis developed about a week ago at Chester, Nova Scotia, and has been pronounced by Montreal specialists as of a light and temporary nature, and due entirely to a severe cold, contracted a week ago when going by boat to Mulgrave.

Hon. Mr. Fielding's mental vigor is unimpaired, and while he may find it advisable to take a rest after some weeks, it is understood that for the present he will remain in Ottawa and attend to the business of his department as usual. It is not yet known whether he will care to immediately undertake the heavy work of conducting reciprocal negotiations with the United States. The preparation of estimates, the revision of the bank act, and many other important things

WELLINGTON LIBERALS IN FIGHTING SHAPE

Mr. Nichol Jeffrey Given the Party Nomination Yesterday.

P. Downey. Mr. Jeffrey asked time to consider the wish of the convention, and assured the delegates of a decision vitally interested by the cause, and predicted the redemption of the constituency.

BROOKINS FAILS TO BREAK RECORD

Is Making Long Distance Flight, Chicago to Springfield.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Walter Brookins started from here at 9:16 a. m. in a Wright biplane for Springfield, 187 miles away, in an attempt to break the sustained flight record of the country.

He stopped at Gilman for oil at 11:38. The stop precludes the making of a record for sustained flight, as Gilman is but 81 miles from the city of Chicago and 75 miles from Washington Park, the actual starting point of the flight.

NIAGARA POWER MAY BE BARRED MICHIGAN CAPITAL AGAINST IT

A Washington Dispatch Says That a Bill Will Be Brought in Which Is Designed to Meet the Wishes of the Electric Men of the District.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The General Electric Company and the other elements of the so-called water-power trust, which has gained control of most of the water power of Michigan, is seeking the aid of the administration to prevent the invasion of Detroit and Michigan by water power transmitted from Niagara by Canadians.

The war department has been called upon for an opinion as to the meaning of the legislation regarding Niagara under which Buffalo is permitted to import and use power generated on the Canadian side of Niagara. The contention is that the law was meant to allow importation of Canadian power only in the immediate neighborhood of Niagara, and that Detroit and other far-away places were not intended to have the benefit of the law.

BISHOP FALLON MAKES PLEA FOR FUNDS TO HELP IRELAND

Roman Catholic Bishop of London Made an Address at Buffalo Which Was the Feature of the United Irish League Convention.

Buffalo, Sept. 28.—The fifth biennial national convention of the United Irish League closed this evening amid a remarkable scene of devotion to the motherland and fealty to the leaders of the Irish Nationalist movement who have attended the gathering. A resolution was passed, that $100,000 be subscribed to the work of the Irish parliamentary party for the next two years, was raised to $150,000 by the committee on resolutions. The latter report was unanimously adopted, and within half an hour a total of $151,000 had been paid in or pledged. While the secretary was recording the amounts given, the delegates in their enthusiasm several times doubled and trebled their original subscriptions, many of which ranged from $1,000 to $20,000.

The demonstration by the 850 delegates was renewed when Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, accepted a reelection as president of the league.

John O'Callaghan, of Boston, national secretary, and Thomas B. Fitzpatrick, of Boston, national treasurer, were also re-elected by unanimous vote. The following vice-presidents were elected: Continued on Page Nine.

ALL THE KINKS WILL BE STRAIGHTENED

There Will Be No Trouble Between Electrical Department and the Fire Chief.

There is not likely to be any difficulty between Fire Chief Aitken and the city electrical department, in spite of the chief's letter to No. 3 committee last night.

Both Chairman Pocock and Manager Dark state that everything will be properly arranged in a short time.

"This is the first time I have ever heard of any trouble," said Chairman Pocock. "The work is almost completed now, and Chief Aitken should have said something to us about it long before this. When the line was in an earlier stage of construction complaints should have been made if there was any trouble. This is no time to mention the matter."

"All the kinks will be straightened out in due time," said Manager Dark. "At the present time, we are going ahead as rapidly as we possibly can in order that the work shall be completed. When that is finished, and we have supplied our customers with power, especially for lighting, we will then straighten out the tangle. There will be no difficulty."

The water commissioners will deal with this matter on Friday evening next.

C. P. R. HAS COMMENCED WORK HOUSES BOUGHT BEING VACATED

Building Operations On a Large Scale Will Soon Be Commenced in the North End of East London—Houses Are To Be Razed Or Moved Away.

The C. P. R. have commenced operations in the north end. The contractors have already arrived, and the work of making the improvements will be hurried through. All the houses purchased last summer will be vacated at once. Mr. Frank Westbury, 920 Elias street, got orders to move out last night, and today his furniture and belongings are being taken away. The other residents along that street have all been notified, and they will all be removed this week. The houses will all be razed or moved off, and the property prepared for the buildings to be erected on it. Several large deals are in contemplation, and the C. P. R. will shortly announce the extent of the improvement likely to be made by them in the near future. They will be greater than first dealings upon, and will be of great advantage to the city.

TAFT IS ANXIOUS TO OPEN A TALK ON RECIPROCITY

Washington Dispatch Says Uncle Sam's State Department Awaits a Move By the Dominion Government.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The department of state, under President Taft's direction, has made all preparations to act as soon as word is received from Ottawa indicating the intentions of the Dominion Government concerning the proposed reciprocity negotiations. With the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the various cabinet ministers to the Canadian capital, and with the recent arbitration at The Hague eliminating the Newfoundland fisheries dispute from all controversy, the way have been cleared for negotiations for commercial agreements between Canada and Newfoundland, respectively, one on each side, and the United States on the other.

Knox Sends Word. U. S. Secretary of State Knox four months ago advised the Ottawa Government, through the British embassy, of the readiness of the United States to negotiate in accord with the understanding reached when Canada was granted minimum tariff rates, and in turn, conceded to the United States intermediate tariff rates.

The formal negotiations were deferred on account of the absence of Premier Laurier, on a trip through the Northwest and Minister of Finance Fielding on a trip to England. It is suggested here that the Ottawa cabinet has not yet had time since their return to consider reciprocity negotiations, but may take action shortly. As to Newfoundland, an informal interchange of views indicates a probable satisfactory agreement, now that the protracted fisheries irritation has been removed.

SMALLPOX QUARANTINE MUST BE OBSERVED IN LONDON

A policeman has been stationed to guard the house on Adelaide street quarantined for smallpox. There are quite a number of boarders there, and they have been difficult to handle. They have gone out repeatedly, and the neighbors have been considerably alarmed at the actions of the parties in quarantine. Dr. Hutchinson, M. H. O., was notified, and immediately investigated. He had a policeman stationed at the house, and he will prosecute the first inmate found outside the limits.

ITALIAN'S FACE WAS SCRATCHED

Boarded a G. T. R. Car at Clinton and Caused Suspicion.

PUT OFF AT HENSALL

Police Are Now Attempting to Locate the Man—May Have a Goderich Connection.

The crew of a Grand Trunk way freight coming down the London, Huron and Bruce line on Tuesday evening discovered a ragged Italian, whose face was torn and scratched, riding the bumpers. He had evidently boarded the train at Clinton, and his ride was terminated at Hensall after a vain attempt had been made by the conductor and brakemen to learn where he had come from.

The matter was not reported to the police, it is said, despite the fact that the crew suspected that the stranger had come from the scene of the murder of Lizzie Anderson at Goderich.

Boarded a Car. The train, in charge of Conductor Wheeler, of this city, stopped at a number of places on the line of the Bruce, and while picking up speed on the way south from Clinton, the Italian emerged from the woods and boarded a freight car.

He was discovered by a brakeman shortly after, and was ordered off at Hensall after an effort had been made to learn where he had come from. He would not say where he was going or where he had been, although the curious crew questioned him repeatedly. His face was scratched and torn, and he bore every evidence that he had been in a desperate struggle.

No Clue. The police and detectives working on the case in Goderich have as yet failed to secure a clue that might lead to the arrest of the perpetrator of the brutal murder.

As the crime was committed on the days of the fair when the town was filled with strangers, the authorities have encountered a great deal of difficulty in learning of any persons against whom suspicion might be directed. This latest story will be investigated, and every effort made to locate the mysterious individual with the torn face.

BLOOD ON RUG GAVE NO CLUE

Police Completely Baffled as to the Slayer of Lizzie Anderson.

SMITH WAS SEEN AT SEAFORTH

Inspector Greer Believes That Murderers of Girl Were Persons of the Locality.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Goderich, Sept. 29.—The body of little Lizzie Anderson, the victim of the mysterious murder committed here on the night of Sept. 20, was removed from Undertaker J. Brophy's establishment to the home of the parents at Seaford, a mile and a half distant.

A service was conducted at the house this morning at 9 o'clock by Rev. Mark Turnbull. At 9:30 the procession started for the Duncannon Cemetery, ten miles away, where the remains of the murdered girl will be interred beside several brothers and sisters, to the majority of whom a hard fate also meted out violent death.

Clues Peter Out.

Inspector Greer and the local police are still as active in the search for the perpetrator of the crime as they were the day the hunt started. But the provincial detective has seen one clue after another peter out under investigation, and finds himself as wholly baffled by the strange nature of the circumstances as when he arrived in Goderich to take up the case.

Bloody Rug Explained. The Italian first suspected has shown himself to be innocent, the blood-stained rug in a livery rig, which was returned to the barn on the morning following the disappearance of the girl, has been fully explained.

SOUTH AMERICAN SPAT. Bogota, Colombia, Sept. 29.—The Venezuelan minister, who was said to have received a notice of recall recently, has now received word to remain here pending further instructions. The delicate situation which arose is believed to have been due to the refusal of the Colombian Government to re-mark the frontier, in accordance with the Spanish award. Venezuela is said to be anxious to obtain the San Faustino territory in Colombia, adjoining the Maracaibo region of Venezuela. This Colombia refuses to cede. Public feeling over the dispute is rather bitter, and the local press calls upon the Government to withdraw its legation at Caracas immediately.

Sarnia, Sept. 28.—An appeal on behalf of Capt. Thomas D. Gibson, former master of the steamer James B. Wood, which sank the Goodyear with a loss of 18 lives last May, was begun yesterday before Supervising Inspector Westcott.

After an investigation into the accident, Inspectors Stewart and Van Liew, of Port Huron, revoked the licenses of Capt. Gibson and Mate Donald McLaughlin, of the Wood. Attorney Brown, of the firm of Brown, Ely & Richards, of Buffalo, is representing Capt. Gibson and Mate McLaughlin in the appeal against the decision of the Port Huron inspectors. Much sympathy is felt among lake captains for Capt. Gibson, many of them saying that he was no more to blame in the accident than the master of the Goodyear, who was left off with a short suspension. His friends expect that the strict ruling will be alleviated by the supervising inspector after a hearing.

PUZZLED

Hard Work, Sometimes, to Raise Children.

Children's taste is oftentimes more accurate in selecting the right kind of food to fit the body than that of adults. Nature works more accurately through the children.

A Brooklyn lady says: "Our little boy had long been troubled with weak digestion. I could never persuade him to take more than one taste of any kind of cereal food. He was a weak little chap and we were puzzled to know what to feed him on."

"One lucky day we tried Grape-Nuts. Well, you never saw a child eat with such a relish, and it did me good to see him. From that day on it seemed as though we could almost see him grow. He would eat Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper, and I think he would have liked the food for dinner."

"The difference in his appearance is something wonderful."

"My husband had never fancied cereal foods of any kind, but he became very fond of Grape-Nuts, and has been much improved in health since using it."

"We are now a healthy family and naturally believe in Grape-Nuts."

"A friend has two children who were formerly afflicted with rickets. I was satisfied that the disease was caused by lack of proper nourishment. They showed it. So I urged her to use Grape-Nuts as an experiment and the result was almost magical."

"They continued the food and today both children are well and strong as any children in this city, and, of course, my friend is a firm believer in Grape-Nuts for she has the evidence before her eyes every day."

ROOSEVELT AGAIN SLAMS MACHINE

Has More Triumphs in the New York Republican Convention.

STINSON IS NOMINATED

Colonel Also Puts Through Platform as Drawn Up by Progressives.

NEW YORK G. O. P. TICKET. For Governor—Henry L. Stimson. For Lieutenant-Governor—Edward Schoenrich. For Secretary of State—S. S. Koenig. For Treasurer of State—Thomas F. Fennell. For Attorney-General—Edward R. O'Malley. For Controller—James Thompson. For State Engineer and Surveyor—Frank M. Williams. For Associate Judge of Court of Appeals—Irving G. Vann.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The Republican state convention this evening nominated Henry L. Stimson, of New York, as its candidate for governor. The nomination of Mr. Stimson was one more victory for Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who personally led the fight for the nomination of his candidate, completing the unbroken series of triumphs from the moment the convention was called to order yesterday afternoon until its final adjournment. The vote for governor stood as follows:

Henry L. Stimson, 684.
William S. Bennett, of New York, 242.
Thomas B. Dun, of Rochester, 38.
James B. McEwan, of Albany, 23.
Scattering, 23.

The slate was made up this morning by Col. Roosevelt, Senator Root and their advisers went through without a hitch. With the exception of the nominations for governor and controller there were no contests.

Roosevelt to Stump. Rep. Bennett, who has been conducting the only open campaign for the nomination for governor, kept up the fight to the end. His persistence and his strength with the New York delegation threatened this afternoon to break the slate.

It is understood that Col. Roosevelt will stump the state for the ticket. He is reported to have said today that he would.

At the close of the convention James S. Wadsworth, jun., speaker of the assembly, announced his withdrawal from the legislature. He said this determination was reached some time ago and was due entirely to his personal views as to the length of time during which a member of the assembly should be a candidate for speaker, and if successful hold that important and difficult office. He has been speaker five years.

Mr. Wadsworth would not say that his retirement was due to the victory of the progressives in the convention. The close of the convention found the Roosevelt forces in complete mastery of the situation. It was the election of Col. Roosevelt as temporary chairman yesterday over Vice-President Sherman which decided the issue between the colonel and the organization, but the Old Guard kept up its fight grimly until the end.

Following the first rout of the organization came Col. Roosevelt's dramatic and successful battle for the adoption of the platform of the progressives, and his final victory in the nomination of Mr. Stimson. At the time the vote was taken the strength of the organization had been dissipated badly, having no candidate for whom to make a determined fight, the organization threw the bulk of its vote to Mr. Bennett. As a rule the voting on the gubernatorial candidates followed the same division between progressives and the "Old Guard," as the vote for temporary chairman. There were some important exceptions, however. Monroe's 38 votes were cast for State Treasurer Dunn and Albany's 23 for Mayor Jas. B. McEwan. Mr. Bennett received 99 votes from the New York delegation, or more than half, whereas Mr. Sherman had only 26. William L. Ward's delegation of 33 from Westchester County voted on the Stimson bandwagon.

On the vote for state comptroller, Thompson received substantially the full progressive strength in addition to about half of the Old Guard forces. Mr. Thompson was opposed by Senator John B. Kissell.

Just before the convention came to an end the new state committee was announced. The list contained several new names, and it was assumed that the progressives would have control, turning over to Roosevelt forces the party machinery of the state. Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, who failed of re-election in his own district, was elected from the second district.

The election of a chairman from the progressives in place of Mr. Woodruff is expected, although no idea could be gained as to who the new chairman will be. It is customary to hold a meeting of the state committee for the election of a chairman directly after the state convention adjourns. Chairman Root announced, however, that no such meeting would be held tonight.

It is understood that this situation arose on account of the fact that no agreement has been reached as to the new chairman. Lloyd C. Griscom and Cornelius V. Collins both have declined to serve.

$150 RING PAWNED FOR IC

A Curious Case Comes Up in an Old London Police Court.

London, Sept. 28.—A cat's-eye ring, valued at £30, and said to be 400 years old, figured in a charge at West London police court recently. The ring belonged to Miss Violet Helen Nicholson, who has a studio at 39 Holland Park road, Kensington, and in the dock was Edith Maud Jones, aged twenty, a domestic servant, who was accused of stealing the jewel.

Accused, who pleaded guilty, admitted having pawned the ring for £15. She had been a "morning girl" at the studio, and Miss Nicholson was willing to take her back into her service and give her another chance.

The magistrate, Mr. Garrett, observed that the defendant was fortunate in having so kind a mistress, and bound her over in £5 to come up for judgment if called upon.

HUNDREDS INJURED IN BERLIN RIOTS

Woman Hurls a Lighted Lamp From Window at Police.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Greater violence than that of last night characterized the collisions between police and rioters in the Moabit precinct this evening. Many were injured on both sides. The district presents the aspect of a besieged city.

Thousands of strikers and their sympathizers gathered in the streets as soon as darkness fell. A strong force of police, numbering 700 mounted and 500 afoot, armed with revolvers and swords, was stationed at various quarters. The officers were under orders from the commissioner to exercise severe repressive measures and to use the sharp edges of their sword instead of striking with the flat.

The rioters, about 9 o'clock in the evening, began the trouble, which increased as night advanced. Excited men and women dashed from place to place, smashing street lamps and the windows of stores. Several stores were sacked of valuable contents, but the tradesmen for the most part had taken the precaution of lowering the iron shutters, and thus prevented damage.

The police charged time after time, wounding many.

Men and women stationed at open windows of houses hurled bottles, bricks, coals and stones at the police, who replied with revolver shots. Commissioner von Helldorf drove in an automobile through the precinct about 10 o'clock, when the riot was at its height. Crowds of furious strikers and their sympathizers, among whom were many women, hurled imprecations on the police commissioner and his men, while flower pots, various household articles and other missiles fell in showers from the windows.

The police entered several flats in Waldand Strasse, from one of which a woman threw a lighted lamp with terrific force against an advancing squad, burning several of the men.

DIVERSITY NO BAR TO UNITED ACTION

President Bryce's Address to the Royal Society at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—In his address to the Royal Society this evening, the president, Rev. Dr. George Bryce, enunciated the belief that diversity of language did not interfere with unity of action, and was entirely compatible with Canadian unity. Nor was this unity in any way inconsistent with religious differences, unless these were fierce, unreasonable and un-Christian. Liberty of conscience, within the limits of national safety, was the right of every Canadian. Experience proved that religion must be an element in the national life of every strong people. A nation of atheists could not continue to be a great nation.

The great national unifier, said Dr. Bryce, was the public school and the college. This was, of course, debatable ground, but the speaker was not dealing with the system, but was looking at education as a means for the building up of a united and powerful state. The fact that the English language was taught in the schools of every class in the west was a proof of the importance of education as a unifier. There were probably four thousand foreign children, speaking some twenty different languages, in the Winnipeg schools. The University of Manitoba, too, formed by a union of religious bodies, under the aegis of the state, found some of its best students among these foreign immigrants.

Dr. Bryce expressed hope for the future of the Doukhobors, notwithstanding the vagaries of a fanatical minority among them. The second great problem was the influx of Americans, but the situation seemed to be fore-shadowed by the fact that without exception they had taken kindly to Canadian laws, and almost all of them had become British subjects.

SOLD STALE EGGS

Hamilton Magistrate Scored For Giving Light Sentence.

Hamilton, Sept. 28.—At the board of health meeting this evening, Thomas Jutten severely criticized the action of Police Magistrate Jelts in allowing to go free a woman who had been taken to court on a charge of health offence for selling stale eggs on Central Market. Mr. Jutten considered that the woman, who admitted that the eggs were stale, should have been summoned and taught a lesson. He also pointed out that there was too much fraud on the market, as faced fruit and unwholesome potatoes, together with stale eggs, were becoming altogether too common. Inspector Shain was instructed to continue confiscating food unfit to eat, and to start prosecutions when possible. The board requested the medical health officer to appear before the board of control to urge the insertion in the milk act of a clause providing that measure must be kept at least fifty feet from the places on farms where milking is done. Until that clause is passed by the council, the board will have no authority to deal with the case of Adam Inch, who was ordered to put his farmyard in a more sanitary state, and who complied to a limited degree only.

NO GROG-TUB FOR CANADIAN FLEET

Niobe Leaves for New Berth in Dominion Minus Liquor Supply.

London, Sept. 28.—Marking the inauguration of a Canadian fleet, the cruiser Niobe has been transferred to the Canadian Government, and the Rainbow already has arrived at Halifax after her voyage from English home waters. But what has chiefly aroused discussion among the officers and men of Britain's fleets has been the fact that the Rainbow departed for her new field of service without having a "grog-tub" for the benefit of the crew. The Dominion navy, so far as official dietary is concerned, is to be run on teetotal lines.

Curiously enough this departure from English custom appears to have occasioned no regret among the men who have volunteered for service in the Niobe and Rainbow. They are represented as bidding goodbye to that time-honored institution, the "grog tub," without sorrow. Speculation is rife as to what may be the result of the example set by the Dominion.

The proposal is once more made that the Bank of England shall issue £1 notes, and among financiers there is likely to arise keen controversy as to the probable effects of such an issue.

Shiloh's Cure quickly stops coughs, cures colds, heals the throat and lungs. 25 cents.

TAMMANY ON THE WAY

Big Delegation Leaves for Democratic Convention at Rochester.

New York, Sept. 28.—Five trainloads of Tammany braves drew out of the railroad terminals today with bands playing and colors flying bound for the Democratic state convention at Rochester. Nearly 1,400 supporters of the wigwam were on board the special train, the delegation being the largest sent by the organization in years to a state convention.

Besides the Tammany delegation 250 members of the New York County delegation of the State Democratic League left on a special train. Two other special trains carried the Kings County delegation of about 400, and the Queens County delegation of more than 200. In all the special cars received approximately 2,500 political enthusiasts.

LONDON, THURSDAY, SEPT. 29.

LONDON AND THE CANADIAN NORTHERN.

The Canadian Northern Railway Company is looking over the electric traction field in this portion of Ontario.

The story in yesterday's Advertiser was not based upon mere rumor. An actual offer was made by the Canadian Northern for the controlling interest in the London street railway, and agents of the company have inspected the London and Lake Erie Traction line. Whether the Canadian Northern has secured an option on either property, the Advertiser has not yet been able to ascertain.

Mackenzie & Mann have been developing the eastern portion of their transcontinental system, but hitherto have made no extension in Southern Ontario, west of Toronto. They may believe this territory is adequately served by steam railways, and that electric traction offers the only opportunity, or they may be disposed to acquire electric roads as feeders for a projected steam line through this district.

The London street railway and the London and Lake Erie line would fit into their other electrical schemes, which are based upon their control of the Electrical Development Company's plant at Niagara. Mackenzie & Mann supply the power which lights the city of Toronto and runs its street railway system. The latter is also a Mackenzie & Mann property. A line from the Falls to London and Port Stanley would provide a larger market for their Niagara power concern. Trolley lines run all the way from Niagara Falls and Hamilton to Brantford and Paris, and the London and Lake Erie has a charter for an extension from this city and Brantford. Mackenzie & Mann may be planning to fill in this gap.

The city will be fortunate if it is brought within the scope of a Mackenzie & Mann enterprise. The system would naturally be extended west of London, perhaps to Windsor or Sarnia, and any increase of railway facilities in the neighboring counties would redound to the city's advantage. Nothing would do more to improve London's position as a purchasing and distributing centre than the multiplication of radial roads.

Great corporations like the Canadian Northern do not throw their cards on the table when they are contemplating a business game, so that the motives behind the overtures to the London street railway are to outsiders still a matter of conjecture. The next move will be watched with lively interest.

A PROBLEM OF EMPIRE.

The elastic nature of the tie which binds the various parts of the British Empire is illustrated in the relations between India and South Africa. Indians of the trading class, many of them well educated, have been expelled in large numbers from the Transvaal and Natal, often in circumstances of great hardship. The Indian Government, on the motion of the most eminent of the native statesmen, Mr. Gokhale, has retaliated by prohibiting the emigration of coolies to Natal. The planters of that state depend chiefly upon cheap coolie labor from India, so that they will have to look for fresh sources of supply or make terms with the Indian Government. Englishmen must be humiliated when they recollect that Kruger's treatment of Indians who were British subjects was one of the offences imputed to him as justifying war, although it was milder than that practiced under British rule in the Transvaal. The canny phrase about "equal rights for all civilized men south of the Zambezi," says the London Nation, "remains to keep fresh the memory of our insincerities."

Hindus—British subjects—have been clapped into prison in British Columbia for the crime of setting foot on Canadian soil. Every incident of this kind is given wide publicity in India by the native press. The intelligent Indians know perfectly well that their British citizenship gives them no advantages in the British Empire outside of India. British rule in the Indian Empire is based upon justice and integrity, but the natives are made to feel the stigma of racial inferiority. A special correspondent of the London Times in a series of illuminating letters, dwells upon this factor in the problem. The attitude of the whites toward the natives is habitually one of contempt, and is condescending when it is not insulting. Even highly-cultured Hindus choose not to travel in the same railway cars as whites, in order to avoid the atmosphere of race prejudice. It is this fundamental antagonism that is at the bottom of the unrest in India. Constitutional reform will not be a panacea. Sympathy and the spirit of brotherhood must accompany the concessions of political power to the native population. Britons are admonished to "think imperially," but they are prone to leave their brown brethren out of the circle of their thoughts.

CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.

Our American cousins have accepted with good grace their reverse in the fisheries dispute. The submission of the case to arbitration was in itself a neighborly act, a token of a new attitude toward this country. It would not be meeting them in this spirit to bang and bolt the door against their overtures for reciprocity. In consenting to at least discuss the matter the Canadian Government commits itself or the country to nothing. The Washington Government knows that Canada occupies a strong position, and can neither be wheedled nor threatened into concessions. For the first time in over half a century Washington is disposed to give as well as take. For the first time in half a century Canada is able to exact full return for any favors. The Government of Canada has no intention of committing suicide by making a present of the Canadian market to American manufacturers. Canadian interests have been carefully conserved by the Laurier Government in any dealings with the United States, and will not now be betrayed. Liberals at least ought to trust their leaders. If an agreement favorable to Canada cannot be reached, there will be no agreement at all. To say to a friendly president and a friendly cabinet that we will even refuse to talk business would chill the growing warmth of feeling between the countries. It would not be good business, good neighborhood, good manners, or even good imperialism.

The British preference takes precedence of reciprocity. The one does not exclude the other. Those who say that it does have no desire to argue the matter fairly.

It was once a common boast that Ontario had the best educational system in the world. But the system has not progressed with the times, or with the needs of the province. We have had to look to the Federal Government to supply the deficiencies of the provincial administration. The technical education commission is really a reproach to Ontario.

Mr. Foster has recovered his health and is ready for work. He has fallen from his high estate, but it is probable that he will be more interesting than ever during the ensuing session. He had always the faculty of making it interesting for the opposite party. Now he may do it for both.

Bourassa advises French-Canadians to boycott English banks. Mr. Bourassa is fast losing any claim to the respect of English-speaking Canadians. Happily they will no more judge French-Canadians by his ebullitions than they would care to be judged by the anti-Quebec vapors of Sam Hughes or Dr. Sproule.

"Canada was clubbed into making tariff concessions to the United States a few months ago because this country had entered into a trade agreement with France," London Free Press.

We venture to assert there is not an intelligent Canadian who believes such rubbish. Anyone who says that Canada was overreached in the recent negotiations is disqualified for discussing the trade question at all.

Sir Alfred Mond is roundly abused by the Toronto News. His offence consists in defending the trade policy of Great Britain, and in asserting that Canada will serve the Empire best by pursuing her own interests, whether by reciprocity with the United States or otherwise. Sir Alfred is visiting Canada, and will address the Toronto Canadian Club. It is hoped the club will furnish a better illustration of Canadian hospitality than the News.

A FALLEN STAR.

[New York Sun.]
A fallen star was Francesco Pozzi, a street sweeper, who died suddenly in Trieste, Austria, from heart disease while wielding a broom on the steps of the stock exchange.
At one time Pozzi gained renown as a baritone, and was a member of the Scala Opera House in Milan. He went to America and made much money. But he spent the money as fast as he got it, and in a few years he was penniless and friendless. He then lost his voice and went under. He was only 55.

A PROMPTER.

[Washington Star.]
"Why do you always put a pitcher of water and a glass on the table before an orator?"
"That," said the chairman of many reception committees, "is to give him something to do in case he forgets his place and has to stop and think."

BOYS' BLUNDERS.

[Chicago Record-Herald.]
The boy who defined the Salic law as one that ordained that "no woman or descendant of a woman could inherit the throne of France," other boys who respectively defined "republican" as "a sinner mentioned in the Bible"; "equestrian" as "one who asks questions," and "crozier" as "a staff carried by a Delty," have all earned the gratitude of English-speaking people. A greater distinction must be given to the boy who defined "demagogue" as a "vessel containing beer and other liquids." He has in him the making of a future Josh Billings. But the English boy, unchronicled by Twain, who wrote the Cromwell essay, takes precedence, by sheer blundering audacity, of all his fellows. "Oliver Cromwell," he wrote, "cut off his King's head and usurped the throne. Afterward he was stricken with remorse, and when dying exclaimed, 'Would that I had served my God as I have served my King!'"

WANTED NO MORE.

[London Opinion.]
Professor—Have you heard my last composition?
Gruff Critic—I hope so.

WHEN THEY ARE TWO.

[Chicago News.]
Little Willie—Say, pa, a man and his wife are one, aren't they?
Pa—Not always, my son. When they are negotiating for board or railway transportation they are two.

EXPLANATION WANTED.

[Judge.]
"Oh, are you Mrs. Blizzer?" asks the vivacious and beautiful woman on being introduced to her. "I have often met your husband. I must congratulate you. He is always such a happy-looking man. I have noticed that particularly every time he has chatted with me."
That evening Mrs. Blizzer says calmly but sternly to her husband: "Will you be so good as to tell me what makes you look happy when you are talking to other women?"

JOKING AN ARTIST.

[Washington Star.]
A fashionable painter, noted for his prolific output, was discussing, at a studio tea in New York, a recent scandal in the picture trade.
"Look here, old man," said G. Innis Kerr, the etcher, "do you paint all your own pictures?"
"I do," the other answered, hotly, "and with my own hands."
"And what do you pay your hands?" Mr. Kerr inquired. "I'm thinking of starting an art factory myself."

BY DOCTOR'S ORDERS.

[Judge.]
Visitor—What brought you here, my poor man?
Convict—Bad medical advice, sir.
Visitor—What?
Convict—Yes, sir. De doctor told me to take iron, and when I tried to take some from an boiler factory they sent me here.

STRANGE HE MISSED IT.

[Fliegende Blätter.]
General (to newly-jointed lieutenant)—So your name is Lichtenberg?
Lieutenant—No, sir.
General—Lichtenberg in Hohenstaufen?
Lieutenant—No, sir.
General—No? How's that?

SELF-MADE HIMSELF.

[Answers.]
"Yes," said the self-made man, proudly. "I was born without a cent in my pocket."
"Well, you haven't any the best of me," replied the home-grown cynic. "I didn't even have a pocket when I was born."

WHEN HE ASKED FOR FOOD.

[Louisville Times.]
Mayor Maddox, of Atlanta, said at a recent "shad breakfast":
"This glorious weather is bringing out the flowers and the tramps, particularly the tramps."
"A tramp knocked at a lady's door the other morning and said:
"Lady, I am starvin'." For the last forty-eight hours not a morsel of food has passed—"
"Oh, you poor fellow!" said the lady. "My husband has an old pair of boots upstairs. Wait and I'll get them for you."
The tramp hit his lip.
"Pardon me, ma'am," he said laughingly. "I know my chin whiskers is gettin' long, but none the less I ain't no goat!"

NO FIT PLACE.

[Christian Register.]
Harper's Round Table professes to have found in some cook-book a recipe, at the end of which, was a note in suspension, "Compound and baking, the reader is bidden to sit on the front of the stove and stir constantly." The final clause, if not tautological, is at least unnecessary.

GETTING EVEN.

[M. A. P.]
He—Why not give me your reply now?
It is not fair to keep me in suspense.
She—But think of the time you have kept me in suspense.

THE PRICE OF CORN.

[M. A. P.]
Farmer Hayseed—Just returned from church, George? What was the sermon about?
George—Something about Joseph going down to Egypt to buy corn.
Farmer Hayseed—Did the parson say what corn is worth down there?

SYMPTOMS.

[The Sketch.]
The victim (describing certain palpitations)—At times I think it's the heart, and then I think it's the spasm, and sometimes I think it must be the lodger upstairs.

MODESTY.

[Judge.]
Moggs was returning to the clubhouse when Wilson met him.
"Well, how did you get on today?" queried Wilson.
"I never saw better golf," said Moggs. "My opponent got away every drive, he hit every brassie clean, he approached up to the hole perfectly, and he never missed a putt."
"How much were you beaten by?"
"Beaten! I wasn't beaten. I won!"

TROUBLE IN THE HOUSE.

[Bourassa.]
"Madam, I deceive no one; I am not two-faced."
"Fortunately, my friend. One like yours is quite enough!"

THAMESFORD.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
[Thamesford, Sept. 28.—Mrs. (Rev.) James Munro and daughters, Margaret and Ethel, of Oakville, visited with Mrs. E. A. Dundas one day last week.
Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Creighton, of Red Cloud, Nebraska, are spending a few weeks with the doctor's sister, Mrs. W. Kester.
Mr. John Newton, apiarist, is at St. David's, helping his brother-in-law, Mr. Ellis, in shipping peaches.
Several of the ladies of the village are showing the latest fashions at the fall fairs, and the number of red tickets they get is a fair indication that they are successful competitors.
Last evening a congregational social was held in St. Andrew's Church to bid farewell to Rev. T. A. Watson and family. After a social tea prepared by some of the ladies, they repaired to the body of the church, where a lengthy programme was listened to with rapt attention. In the course of the evening Mr. Watson was presented with a check for $100 in gold, and Mrs. Watson with a cabinet of cutlery and spoons.
All will be sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. John Patience, but hope for a speedy recovery.
The typhoid patients are all on the road to recovery. Harry Woodman was able to walk to the village the former part of the week, and Evie McCarty has returned from the Ingersoll sanatorium. Mr. George Matheson, of the 11th concession at Niagara, had a serious loss on Saturday morning, when five valuable horses strayed onto the railroad track and were injured so that they all had to be shot. Mr. Matheson's farm adjoins the C. P. R., and by some means the gate leading to the road was opened. The loss is estimated at about $1,000.
Rev. T. A. Watson preached his farewell sermon on Sunday to large congregations.

CHEAPEST DEPUTATION IN LONDON'S HISTORY

At Least, This Is the Way Ald. Jeffries Referred to It

The deputation to Detroit to inspect the auto engine in that city cost $6.35. Ald. Ashplant, Ald. Jeffries and Chief Aitken made the trip.
At the meeting of No. 3 committee last night the bill was presented and passed for payment.
"It hardly seems enough," commented one alderman.
"Where did you spend it all?" asked another.
"Did you spend all that money in one place?" queried another.
However, Ald. Ashplant explained that he paid his own fare, and he had cost the city nothing.
"That is the cheapest deputation that ever went out of London," declared Ald. Jeffries.
At which the committee smiled.
"I mean, the deputation cost the least," he added.
After the members had a good laugh, the bill was certified and will be presented to the council.

STUDENTS' ROOM IS TO BE MODERNIZED
Hospital Trust Met Yesterday and Took Action Regarding the Matter.

The hospital trust will fix up the students' room at Victoria. A communication was read from Dr. Vaughn, registrar of the Western University medical department, informing the trust that $200 would be given towards the proper repairs of this room. The offer was accepted, and the trust decided to add $100 to this amount and make the place in keeping with the rest of the institution.
The work will be commenced at once, the house committee being empowered to go ahead with it at once. The month showed that 132 patients had been admitted during the month, 48 males, 79 females and 35 children. During the same period 185 had been discharged, 59 males, 73 females and 53 children. There were 13 births, 9 deaths and 53 operations. The cash received amounted to $3,669.50.
Allan King & Son were awarded the contract for building an eight-foot fence on the west side of the grounds for $150.

City Architect Nutter submitted a plan for installing a new boiler at the isolation hospital, and it was approved.
Present were Mr. Jos. C. Serecution, T. G. Turnbull, Geo. B. Harris and Secretary Heard.

DEPUTATION WILL BE NAMED FOR OTTAWA
Important Meeting of the Board of Trade on Friday Night.

A meeting of the board of trade will be held tomorrow evening in the board room to discuss some very important matters.
The subject of the greatest interest locally will be the appointment of a deputation to wait on Hon. Wm. Dunsley, minister of public works, in connection with improvements to the Port Stanley harbor. There is no doubt a strong delegation will be sent. The members will be accompanied by Reeve William Jackson, of Port Stanley, and Mr. Nate Cornell, of the same place. Mayor Guest and a deputation from St. Thomas will also attend, and the county council of Elgin will have representatives.
A number of the members of the Toronto board of trade, headed by Mr. A. Wright, will pay a visit to the London board of trade to discuss the local organization of the necessity of giving Toronto loyal support in asking the Government to widen and deepen the Welland Canal. It is likely that the board will entertain the Technical Education Commission, which will hold a session here on Oct. 17 and 18.

LONDONER RECOVERS STOLEN CATTLE
But Thief Who Drove Off Mr. Westby's Animals Made His Escape.

Seven head of valuable cattle, the property of Mr. W. T. Westby, stolen from lot 18, concession 2, London Township, a week ago yesterday, have been recovered, although the thief has made good his escape. He was last seen driving them near the town line, and it is supposed that he took fright and decamped.
The animals wandered onto the farm of Mr. Turner, of the 7th concession, where they were kept. Mr. Turner immediately notified the police, and having notified the owner that he was taking care of the cattle.

"The Girl From Rector's" Tonight.

Back of the enormous success of The Girl From Rector's, the title role in "The Girl From Rector's" there is an interesting story. Paul M. Potter, the author of the play, had worried for weeks about the selection of a woman to fit the role. In the company of the producer, the stage manager, and knowing friends, he visited theatres in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, in the hope of being able to hit upon an actress who could handle the lines. Some were pretty but they appeared to lack grace; some had both beauty and grace but lacked fire; others had fire but it seemed there was always something lacking. One afternoon he saw Miss Phair in "Rector's" and knowing that she was the style of actress he desired he secured an introduction and finally closed a contract with her.

Bright Comedy.

"A man who can write so smartly and so gracefully, whose sense of humor is so hearty and wholesome, whose gift for whimsical philosophizing is so delicate, is bound to do something of lasting significance." The above was written of W. M. Fletcher, the author of William F. Mann's newest attraction, "The Vulture," which contains a bright vein of refined comedy, and a heart interest that holds the audience. It will appear at the Grand Opera House Friday.

A Well-Known Opera Conductor.

Carlo Nicosia, the conductor with the Aborn English Grand Opera Company, was one of the conductors with Hammerstein's companies at the Philadelphia Opera House last winter, when the same impresario sent his opera company organization on a limited tour, Nicosia was selected as its maestro also. Before that he was with a number of noted grand opera organizations coming to this country, first for the famous French Opera Company's presentation in New Orleans, where he remained for two seasons.

He has conducted in a number of noted opera houses in Italy as well as St. Petersburg, Athens, Constantinople and Cairo. The Aborn English Grand Opera Company comes to the Grand for two performances Saturday, Oct. 1, presenting "Lucia di Lammermoor" at the matinee, and "Faust" at night. Seats now selling.

"A Winning Miss."

There are three big features of "A Winning Miss," which comes to the Grand Monday, Oct. 3. One is Max Bloom, the comedian, who made everybody laugh when he played in "The Sunny Side of Broadway." Another is the catchy music in the piece, and the third is the beautiful chorus.

The company comprises sixty people, the costumes and scenic effects are beautiful, but the three outstanding features are those enumerated above. Seats selling tomorrow.

"The Travelling Salesman."

Of interest to theatregoers is the approaching engagement of Henry B. Harris' production of James Forbes' comedy, "The Travelling Salesman," which will appear Tuesday, Oct. 4, at the Grand Opera House.

TO INVESTIGATE

BI-LINGUAL CHARGE

Government Looking Into Complaints Made by Grand Orange Lodges.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—The complaints are being fully investigated by our department. The minister of education, Hon. Dr. Pyne, made this statement in reply to a question in relation to the charges of the undue prominence of the French language in the public schools of Eastern Ontario. These were laid before the ministers during the last session.

of the Legislature by representatives from the Grand Orange Lodges of Western and Eastern Ontario, who declared that in many cases the French language had entirely superseded the English; that French teachers were employed in English schools; that the Roman Catholic religion was taught in some of the public schools, and other conditions covering the bi-lingual situation in the counties of Glengarry, Russell and Prescott.

LEE—SOUTHCOTT

A Very Pretty Wedding Occurred in South London.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Southcott, Maryboro Place, was the scene of a very happy event Tuesday evening when their second eldest daughter, Miss Edith Maud, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Lee, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. A. Graham, of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, the bridal party standing under an arch of white flowers and smilax, the home being decorated with numerous bouquets and house plants.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in white Indian mull. The wedding march was played by Miss Alice Calver. After a daintily served luncheon the happy couple took the midnight train for Portland, Montreal and other eastern points, the good wishes of their many friends following them, and expressed in showers of confetti and rice. The bride's going-away costume was green, with French-made hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will be at home to their friends at their residence on McClary avenue, after Oct. 1.

DETECTIVES MAY GO

TO UNITED STATES

It Is Rumored That Mahoney and Campeau Will Accept Offers.

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 29.—People here were somewhat surprised at the tone of an interview with Supt. Rogers, of the provincial police, appearing in the papers. No one here made any specific charges against either Rogers or his men, though the Enos murder mystery was left to unravel itself so far as the provincial detectives were concerned.

It is rumored that neither Detective Campeau nor Detective Mahoney will return to the provincial force after being suspended, and having their salaries cut by the department. It is understood both have been offered better jobs on the other side. These two men were about the only police protection available for the rural sections along Western Ontario's border line.

LOST IN THE WOODS.

Kenora, Sept. 28.—Grave fears are entertained for Charles Jones and J. McCann, both C. P. R. switch foremen, who left on a hunting trip in a motor launch on Sept. 20. When they did not return on Friday, as expected, a search party was organized on Sunday, returning Monday night, having found Jones' launch with his coat and all provisions in it, except probably sufficient for a couple of meals. They found no other signs of the men, but the canoe they had is missing, the men having evidently started from camp in it, so there still is hope that they will turn up safely.

HUNTERS MAY SECURE RELEASE FOR DOGS

Provincial Secretary Removes Objections of Ontario to Hunting in North.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—If the Federal Government can be persuaded to allow hunters in York County to take dogs from the "rabies zone" into the north country to hunt deer this fall, the Provincial Government is not likely to raise any objection. A large and influential deputation of hunters was informed to that effect by Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, at the Parliament Buildings yesterday.

Giant Petition Sent Down.

A big petition, containing at least 500 names, is being sent to Ottawa this evening to Hon. Sydney Fisher, begging that hunters in Ontario counties where no cases of rabies exist be allowed to take their dogs to the north country in the coming hunting season, the animals being muzzled and crated.

Yesterday's deputation urged their claims vigorously upon the Provincial Secretary. It was argued that the fear of hunting dogs from this section, inflicting the wild animals of the north and thus spreading the disease beyond all control was without a sane basis of probability.

No Chance of Biting.

A hunting dog, it was stated, would not only have no chance of biting a wolf seriously before it was killed, but would not dare attack a wolf or even follow its scent. Instant death would be served out to a mad dog if it found its way into the wolf country. Should any wolf become infected the only probable effect would be the death of a few of the species and no general spread. Mr. Hanna was told that very few, if any, of the so-called rabies could be proved to be genuine. The last authentic case was in February.

Part of the petition being sent to-night reads as follows: "If you can see your way to modifying the order to this extent you will confer a great boon on a large number of hunters. We do not ask that the muzzling regulations be changed, simply that dogs muzzled and crated in crates be allowed to be taken to the hunting grounds for the hunting season."

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all dealers.

CALL FOR TENDERS FOR AN AUTO ENGINE

No. 3 Committee So Decided at a Meeting Held Last Night.

At the meeting of No. 3 committee last night it was decided to call for tenders for a 700, 800 and 900-gallon automobile fire engine, and for a steam engine of 1,000 gallons capacity. Tenders will be received at the earliest possible time, and the engine purchased as soon as possible.

Ald. Asplund thought the whole council should be called together, and discuss the question further. Mayor Beattie did not consider this necessary as they could be called together when there was something of a definite nature to present to them.

Fire Chief Aitken submitted a report on the trip to Detroit, and explained the good points in favor of an auto engine. He was well pleased with what he had seen in Detroit, and he thought such an engine would be a success in London.

CORRESPONDENCE

Queen's Park for the People.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: Absence from the city prevented me from tendering you at an earlier date a few words to say how heartily I concur with your editorial commendation of the improved condition of the Western Fair this year, particularly the absence of the Midway, with its vulgar fakir and dog-grading features. Legitimate exhibitors, and all persons with the best interests of the community at heart, should cordially support the management in respect to the future of the fair, excluding for the future the row of noise and vulgarity. The fair board exchequer may be increased by the sale of such privileges, but no monetary return deserves consideration when the educational influence is wrong. If an added air of "diversity" to that portion of the grounds is desired, there is a popular and easy way of providing it in the shape of a tournament or superior programme of band music, rather than concentrating everything before the grand stand, the quality of which might with advantage be raised in standard, judged from what I heard during and since the exhibition in the way of public comment. The Western Fair is a paying concern, and a good thing for London; by all means let it be kept clean and progressive.

Intimations are being made from time to time that the needs of the exhibition are outgrowing the grounds. Just how far this may be true now or in the future I am not prepared to say, but as a London and Western Ontario exhibition, there are limits to which it can be wisely expanded, and a policy of conservative compromise has a good deal to commend it from the standpoint of the city taxpayer. Hints are being thrown out as to what might be made by the closing of old Queen's Park and its sale in lots for building purposes, but who knows what outlay would be involved in the plotting of new grounds and buildings? In any event, I am distinctly opposed to the destruction of this beautiful tree-clad park for the loss of which no cash balance would be an adequate compensation. I protest against it on behalf of the workers.

ing people of this growing city, as an act little short of vandalism. It will not be long before from Rec-tory street, eastward there will be a couple of miles of town packed with fac-tories and dwellings. On the illusive pre-text of making some money, are we to deny the preservation of this rare bit of breathing space for the pleasure and healthfulness of the people and their children? The well-to-do can own ex-pansive grounds, and the central portions of the city have Victoria Park. Are we to despoil the East End, where the city is destined to grow, of one of the finest bits of natural park to be found in Canada?

It is painfully evident that most of our school grounds are too cramped for the well-being of the youth, and we have been neglecting to preserve portions of land for public use here and there which add so much to the charm, healthful-ness and charm of many cities. Instead of being destroyed the park should be preserved practically intact, beautified, and made more accessible to the people and I believe this view will commend itself to the best judgment of London and prevail in shaping a policy for the future. BROOKINS SOARS ABOVE CHICAGO

Flies Over Skyscrapers and Lake Michigan With Reporter.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Chicagoans were treated to another novelty in aviation today, when they saw an aeroplane flight in Grant Park, by Walter Brookins, accompanied by a newspaper reporter as a passenger. Brookins made four flights today for the de-lection of Chicago, which has hereto-fore been denied what most every other city in the United States already has.

In the flight last today, with a passenger, he soared above the city's lake front and out over Lake Michi-gan, swung about over the edge of the skyscrapers and brought his Wright bi-plane to earth easily. It was the fifth of the last two days, and the first with a Chicago passenger. He made a sixth flight just before dark today.

During the first flight today, Roy Smith, watching from the top of a skyscraper chimney, lost his footing and plunged down 60 feet into a heap of soot within the chimney. There he was found by firemen, who dug through the brick. He is only bruised and scratched.

Brookins' flights thus far are pre-liminary for an attempt tomorrow to break the American sustained flight record, and thereby capture the Chi-cago Record-Herald prize of $10,000 for such a feat. A special train on the Illinois Central Railroad will race the aeroplane.

Previous to his passenger flight, Brookins today caused the crowd to gasp and shudder by his sudden turn-ing. Unofficial time for one of his marvelous turns was 5 1-2 seconds, a second better than his official time for such a feat.

Between the whole press of Copen-hagen and all the theatrical managers a curious contest has started because the managers want to compel the crit-ics to write only favorable notices. The contest began when the board of theatrical managers forbade the ad-mission of one critic representing a special theatrical paper.

LONDON STREETS LIKELY TO REMAIN TORN UP

But Little Can Be Done Toward Resurfacing This Fall.

There will be little done towards paving Richmond and Dundas streets this fall. The London street railway may get their rails down, but there will likely be no attempt made to do the concrete and brick work along the track allowance. This is due to the fact that the season is late, and also because the underground conduit system will not be finished. The claim is made that the conduits will have to settle before the city or the company can afford to do the work. It is claimed that the work is not properly stamped, and consequently it will settle quite a bit. "It will be nine months more at least before the streets are finished," said a citizen yesterday. "Next August or September may see the work completed. There is no more chance of completing it this year than I have to be King of England."

REV. MR. INKSTER IN HAMILTON

Told an Interesting Story of a Famous Prizefight.

Rev. J. Gibson Inkster, B. A., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, gave an address on Monday night at a banquet in Knox Church, Hamilton. The following is clipped from the Hamilton Spectator: "Mr. Inkster gave an ideal after-dinner speech, and delighted his hearers with an account of his ramble from east to west, through the United States and back by way of the Canadian West. While travelling from Denver to Salt Lake City he and his wife found themselves in a train with few but fight fans travelling. Reno. Their next companion was a saloon-keeper from Sioux City, who strongly advised the minister to accompany him to the fight, as it would do him good. Mr. Inkster advised those with whom he was travelling to put their money on Jeffries, as he was sure to lose, but none of them would take the preacher's advice, as they all seemed to bet on the boiler-maker. "The London divine made an appeal for men to go west, remarking that there were men in his audience who were more capable for the work than those who were being brought out from England and Scotland. He was sick and tired of hearing people talk of there being no inducements in the ministry. It was true the stipends should be increased, but there never had been any money in the ministry and never would be. The trouble was men lacked today in Canada the vital personal religion. "How many of you men," he asked, "have passion for the souls of your fellowmen?" "The solution did not lie in socialism, or Christian socialism, or in anarchy, or in unionism, but in the ability of men to realize the relation between themselves and God."

STREET RAILWAY CARS JUMP THE TRACKS

The Company Has All Sorts of Troubles These Days.

The London Street Railway is having its own troubles these days. Cars jump the tracks so frequently near Richmond and Dundas streets that they are kept busy putting them back on the rails.

Yesterday afternoon the line was tied up for a considerable time. Last night, shortly before midnight, another car hopped the track, and traffic was completely tied up. A number of cars had to go to the barns by way of Central avenue and other streets.

A STREET WATERING OVERDRAFT CERTAIN

No. 3 Committee Will Be $800 or $1,000 to the Bad.

Ald. Ashplant is praying for a rainy fall. At the meeting of No. 3 committee last night, the figures for street watering were gone over, and it was found that the committee are considerably over their appropriation, and will have an overdraft of $800 or $1,000 at least.

FOSTER BACK

Says He Has Been Greatly Benefited by Summer's Rest.

Toronto, Sept. 28.—Hon. George E. Foster has returned to Toronto after spending three months in New Brunswick, his former home, recruiting his strength at the seaside after his illness during the session. "I have been taking a thorough rest, and will spend the time before the opening of the parliamentary session quietly in Toronto," said Mr. Foster. "I am feeling very much better."

Mr. Foster will be one of the chief speakers at a smoker that will be held by ward four Conservatives in Broadway Hall next month.

FIRE CHIEF COMPLAINS OF MAZE OF WIRES

Hydro-Electric Work in London Not Within Provisions of Laws.

Fire Chief Aitken is not enamored of the strangle of wires down town, and told No. 3 committee as much last night, when he sent a letter to them regarding the matter. His letter was as follows:

"I wish to draw your attention to the manner the hydro-electric poles and wires are being erected in the city, and especially in the business district. "First,—There are a number of poles they are erecting that are far too short, and do not come within the provision of the bylaw regarding the same, and when the wires are placed on them under others erected on other companies' poles, they will form a regular wire fence 20 feet or more in height in front of several of the wholesale warehouses, and which will make it impossible to put up ladders to those buildings if needed in case of fire.

"Second,—In several places their wires are in close contact with the fire alarm system, which is very dangerous in this construction. On several occasions they have interfered with and broken our lines without any notification to the department, and caused a lot of trouble with our bells. I have notified the electrical engineers from time to time in regard to the above, but they apparently paid no attention whatever.

"A Recommendation. "I would strongly recommend that your committee take such action as is necessary to compel the engineers in charge to construct their lines that they will not be a menace to the efficiency of this department, and also to the public safety."

Mayor Beattie informed the committee that there was no bylaw making it necessary to erect 60-foot poles down town. That referred altogether to the London Electric not to the city system.

"The citizens made a mistake when they voted down a bylaw to put the wires underground," Mayor Beattie claimed.

However, it was decided to send the communication to the water commissioners.

MOTORED INTO CANAL

Occupants of Auto Have Narrow Escape at Dunnville.

Dunnville, Sept. 28.—While returning to town in an automobile along the bank of the feeder to the Welland Canal, about four miles from here, this afternoon, an accident in which the lives of four people were endangered occurred. Frank Hyde, proprietor of the Victoria Hotel here, was driving his automobile, in which were his mother and brother, Sidney, of Courtright, Ont., and his niece, Miss Eva Richardson, of Detroit. Owing to recent rains, the clay road, on the banks were slippery, and in trying to avert a mudhole, Mr. Hyde steered too near the edge of the bank and was unable to stop the machine before it skidded and plunged into the water, about seven feet below, the car turning turtle with all its occupants. Sidney Hyde and Miss Richardson were thrown out when the car first tumbled over.

Frank Hyde, who was thrown into the water, reached shore, and with the assistance of his brother, turned the car over. Mrs. Hyde, who was sitting on the rear seat, was pinned down in the mud by the weight of the car for about three minutes before she was released.

Mrs. Hyde had two ribs broken besides numerous bruises.

W. LAMBTON FAIR BROKE RECORD

The Weather, Exhibitions and Crowds Were of the Finest.

AN INDUSTRIAL PARADE

Thousands of School Children and Businessmen in Mighty Demonstration.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 28.—One of the most successful fairs that has been held in the county of Lambton, and more particularly in the town of Sarnia, for many a year was held under the auspices of the West Lambton Agricultural Society here on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The weather for the opening day would all that could be desired, and as a result there were exhibitors from all parts of the county on hand early in the day with their different classes of exhibits. During the last ten years the directors have never had such delightful weather for the second day of the fair as was meted out by the weather man on Wednesday, and the crowds that thronged the grounds during the afternoon were tremendous.

The Parade. The special feature of the morning was the industrial parade, which formed in the market square at 10 o'clock in the morning, and headed by the Citizens' Band, marched through the different streets to the exhibition park. Practically every industry in the town was represented in this parade; also all the business men of the town had decorated floats. Had it not been for the 2,400 school children, which took up a place of much prominence, the parade would have been a very grand success. Children of all ages, with their teachers, carrying Union Jacks and maple leaves around the patriotism of the throngs that thronged the streets along which the parade passed.

In conversation with one of the officials of the society, our correspondent was told, and the exhibits bore out his statements, that the entries in practically every class were far beyond expectations, and were far ahead of any previous year. This was particularly the case with the exhibits of horses, which were entered by a number of animals that had carried off the honors at the Western Fair held recently.

The winners in some of the classes were as follows:

Single Roadster in harness—1. English, Petrolia; 2. Geo. Broughton, Sarnia.

Gentleman's Roadster—1. J. Lowrie, Sarnia; 2. Geo. Broughton, Sarnia.

Best single outfit owned by a farmer and driven by same—1. G. Broughton, Sarnia.

Best lady driver—Mrs. Montgomery, Sarnia.

Stakes, for the best general purpose team, not less than 2 cwt.—1. John Gilliland, Sarnia Township.

Tug-of-War—Won by Imperial Oil team.

Best pulling team—1. John Goodison.

The trotting races attracted considerable attention and held the large crowd for a greater part of the afternoon. In the 2:35 class it required three straight heats before the money was awarded. The results are as follows:

2:35 Class—1. Alfred L. (Petit), Bradshaw; 2. Winnie K. (Kettle), Petrolia; 3. J. H. B. Wilkes, (Moore Bros.) Sarnia.

2:15 Class—1. Pearl C. (Caldwell), Petrolia; 2. Little Pat (Jas. Stone), Petrolia; 3. Walter K. (Kettle), Petrolia.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Church of Our Lady of Mercy on Wednesday morning when Miss Margaret Callaghan and Mr. W. P. McGilly were united in marriage by Rev. Father Kennedy. The bride, who wore a charming gown of white silk with white overlace and sash of white, was attended by her cousin, Miss Annie Baxter, of Detroit, while the duties of groomsmen were looked after by Mr. Guy McGill, of Hudson, Mich. After the auspicious ceremony the guests partook of a dainty wedding breakfast, and the newly-wedded couple left on the 12:35 train on a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. McGill will be at home to their friends at 387 Lafayette street, Detroit, after Oct. 12.

BLOOD ON RUG

placed, and no suspicion whatever now attaches to the lawyer who brought the rig home.

Smith Went to Seaford. Frank Smith, who disappeared the day of the crime, has been found to have left Goderich early in the evening, and gone direct to Seaford, where he worked three days for the Canada Furniture Company, and then dropped out of sight again.

Inspector Greer spent several hours yesterday interviewing residents in the vicinity of the vacant house, where the body was found, and looking into the two new reports that Edward Jardine was seen with the girl at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The two women previously mentioned were absolutely sure they heard the screams shortly after midnight.

Coroner Holmes expressed the opinion today that the evidence submitted in the inquest for the Jardines was largely unreliable.

Greer's View. Detective Greer still holds the view that local parties committed the crime. Outsiders, he said, would not find it necessary to kill to escape possible accusations because they would not be known to the girl.

A Fake Message. Yesterday afternoon the inspector received the following note from Seaford: "Honorable Finer, I don't want to go to jail myself. I am the murderer of the Goderich crime. Please send someone to arrest me. I live at 10 Wilson avenue. (Signed) Patrick Lipton."

The writing, which was very crude, was on a piece of ruled notebook paper, apparently torn from an account book. It was picked up on the street at Seaford and forwarded. Inspector Greer attaches no importance to the note.

Rug No Clue. The finding Tuesday night of a rug badly stained with blood in a two-seated rig in Swartz's livery barn kept Detective Greer busy until he satisfied himself that it had nothing to do with the murder of Lizzie Anderson.

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 20, the night on which the murder was committed, one of the acrobats' troupe gave a performance at the exhibition, ordered a horse and surrey at this livery. About midnight a rig similar to the one hired by this man was seen on South street, near the southern end of the town, and the figure of a woman was noticed in the rig. South street is connected with Eldon street by the south boundary road, and the fact that screams were heard about midnight on Eldon street near the house where the body was found, naturally led the authorities to follow the possible clue.

Detective Green and Chief Postlethwaite paid a visit to Brophy's undertaking establishment after a visit to Swartz's livery.

Willie Anderson says he remembered seeing a light in the tent occupied by the troupe some time between 1 and 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. There were six in the troupe on Thursday morning, two of them were ticketed by the G. T. R. agent to Brockport, and four to New Jersey.

The Lawyer's Story. M. O. Johnson, the barrister, who was reported to be the person who returned the rig to the livery barn, was seen yesterday morning and told the following story:

"Nelson, the manager of the troupe of six comedians, who put on a flat comedy at the exhibition grounds, accompanied by myself, and the figure of a woman was noticed in the rig. Nelson and one of the ladies at the British Exchange Hotel. I then prepared to take the other one home, but she induced me to prolong the drive, and it was nearly 4 o'clock when I returned to the livery barn with the rig. They tell me that blood was found on the rug and on the seat, but there was no bloodstain in that rig that night.

"Nelson hails from some place in the Eastern States. I first met him in London the week previous to the Goderich exhibition, and arranged for him to bring his troupe of five to Goderich. All the members of the troupe were whites. Nelson is a man between forty-five and fifty years of age. He is not stout, but very muscular. The ladies with us were not friends of the dead girl. In fact I do not believe they were acquainted at all."

E. R. Swartz, manager of the British Exchange Hotel, is authority for the statement that Nelson came in at 12:30 Tuesday night. He was conversing with him for some time, and remembers distinctly that he left him at 1:30 a.m. to retire. He left the following morning on the G. T. R. train. The other members of the troupe registered at the Hotel Bedford, and the manager is confident that they were all in before 11 p.m.

NIAGARA POWER

prise in order to furnish a product more cheaply to its own people.

"A duty on power would, of course, put a stop to the importation of Canadian electricity, either at Detroit or at any other point where a similar invasion may be planned, and I am told a bill for the purpose will be passed at the coming session."

Mr. Beck's Opinion.

Mr. Beck was shown the foregoing and asked for his opinion. "The Michigan electrical interests," he said, "are making an effort to save a million-dollar plant in Detroit, forgetting that fifteen or twenty millions of American money are invested at Niagara Falls. The company from which we purchase power has a lot of American capital behind it. So if they prevent the exportation of power at Detroit, they are liable to cause some trouble to the American investors at the Falls. Personally, I do not know how they are going to prevent the exportation of power at Detroit, and overlook Buffalo. The principle is the same. However, we have nothing to do with that matter."

"It seems strange, in view of the criticism of Niagara power that the Detroit General Electric, which is admittedly one of the finest steam plants in the world, should fear Niagara power when it has to be transmitted such a distance. Why should they fear us, if they can furnish cheap power? It does not look as if we need fear very much on this side the line.

The Windsor Opposition. "To return to Detroit, all the opposition in Windsor has come from interested parties. Windsor people want the power, and there are customers for the energy."

It may be that if the American Government places an import duty on power at Detroit, an export duty may be levied by the Dominion Government at Buffalo.

Mr. Beck would not discuss that feature of the case at all, and would express no opinion whatever on that possibility.

NAPLES PANIC-STRICKEN

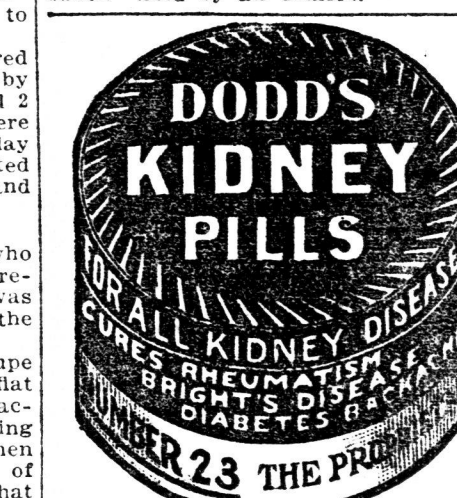

Mob Thought Strangers Were Trying to Spread the Cholera.

Rome, Sept. 28.—The official report, issued tonight, states that during the past 24 hours 15 new cases of Asiatic cholera have appeared in the city of Naples, with nine deaths; four new cases and one death in the Province of Naples, outside the city, and three new cases and one death in the Province of Bari. These do not include the so-called cases of gastroenteritis.

A dispatch from Naples says that two strangers seeking lodgings in a poor quarter today aroused the suspicion of the residents, who cried out that they were spreading the cholera. The strangers were attacked by a mob when they attempted to give change to some children, with cries of "Death to the poisoners."

They were severely injured before the police could come to their rescue.

"Can be depended upon," is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

Late Mrs. Ardiel.

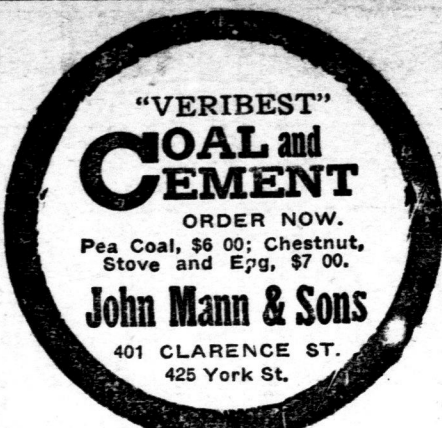

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Ardiel, relict of the late James Ardiel, was held to Siloam Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The large attendance gave evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held by her friends and neighbors. She was 89 years of age, and an adherent of the Methodist Church. She is survived by one brother, Mr. John Hasket, of London Township; one son, William Ardiel, also of London Township, and two daughters, Mrs. James H. Hodgins, of Ilderton, and Mrs. William Knapp, of this city, besides grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Shaw, of Siloam. The pallbearers were: Albert Hasket, James Hasket, John Tennant, Bert Hodgins, D. Box, and John Perkins.

Death of Mrs. Garthwaite.

Woodstock Sentinel Review: There died this morning on the 2nd concession, one of Oxford's oldest residents in the person of Phoebe Ann Briggs, beloved wife of Mr. Geo. Garthwaite. The late Mrs. Garthwaite was in her 80th year, having been born on March 20, 1831. She was born of good old Quaker stock, being a daughter of the late Spencer Briggs, of East Oxford. Later she became a Methodist, and at the time of her death was a member of the Central Methodist Church here. Besides the husband, three daughters are left to mourn a kind mother's death. They are Mrs. E. James, this city; Mrs. M. Dean, London, and Mrs. Alex. Coventry, Swaburg. The funeral service will be held at the house at 2:30 p. m., and interment will be made in the Baptist Cemetery at 3 p. m. on Thursday.

The Late Mrs. Turner.

The death took place in Woodstock at 10 o'clock Tuesday night of Elizabeth Georgina Weeden, beloved wife of Mr. Walter Turner, Chapel street, after an illness which had lasted about two years. The late Mrs. Turner had been a resident of this city for about 25 years, having lived with her husband on Chapel street ever since the time she was married. The deceased lady was born in England, but came to this country when quite young. In London she was married to Mr. Walter Turner and very shortly afterwards became a resident of Woodstock. In addition to her surviving husband, nine children are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. They are William and Roy, of Waterloo; Frank, of the Bain wagon works; Sherwood, of the Karn Morris works; Bella, of Paris, and Lena, Gordon, Marion and Howard, at

LAIRD---ADIE

Former Londoner Weds a Young Lady of St. Catharines.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Catharines, Sept. 28.—A pretty little romance, which began a year or two ago when the young people concerned were students together at the University of Toronto, culminated Tuesday afternoon in the marriage of Miss Jessie Morton Adie, only daughter of Manager James Adie, of the C. P. R. and Dominion Express Company, here, and Mrs. Adie, to John Melvin Laird, B.A., A.I.A., of Hartford, Conn., formerly of London, Ont. Rev. Dr. Geo. H. Smith, pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, conducted the ceremony at the home of the bride in the presence of numerous guests from various points. The bride was attended by Miss Doris Thompson, Toronto, and the best man was Gerald Meagon, of Toronto. After the reception the happy couple left on their honeymoon, which trip will end at Hartford, where they will take up their residence. Miss Adie was one of this city's most popular young ladies, a general favorite with all her friends.

GRAVEL BOX NOT UP TO STANDARD

Ald. Tancock Is Out With a Big Stick.

Ald. Tancock, in making a tour of investigation yesterday, found a gravel wagon that was not up to the standard as to size of load. He interviewed the contractor, and informed him that another offense would lead to his contract being cancelled. The question will be brought up in the board of works meeting tonight. There are several other matters of importance to be dealt with, and the session promises to be a lively one.
