

ITALIANS CAPTURE MONTE LUGNA IS REPORT TO-DAY

Italians Score Another Success--Strongly Fortified Position Taken--Valentine is Occupied--Austrian Line of Communication Near Gorizia Cut.

Verona, Italy, June 14.—Details of the capture by Italians of Monte Lugna, situated approximately four miles northeast of Ala, reached here today from the battle front. The position was strongly fortified and surrounded by strong wire entanglements and three lines of trenches. A platform had been built upon it for cannon. The position comprised also two large barracks which are reported to have cost $800,000 and which possessed the most modern equipment. Rome, June 14.—An Italian official statement concerning the progress of the campaign against Austria says: "From Tonalé to Carnia all the enemy's attempts against the positions we captured have been successfully repulsed. In the Nola sector in Carnia we occupied Balentina.

"Friday night our heavy artillery cut the railway from Gorizia to Malfontoon in vicinity of the Sadgro railway station. HUMANITY UNDER ARMS. Verona, Italy, June 14.—The Italian Government considering the poverty and miserable condition of the inhabitants in the districts just conquered, has decided to give the families of Italians serving in the Austrian army from those districts the same allowances as the families of Italian soldiers, it is said. This will be announced in the new districts to-day. TRIESTE THREATENED Rome, June 14.—The governor of Trieste has transferred his residence to Adelsberg. The chamber of commerce has been transferred to Vienna and the Trieste treasury has been sent to Lebiana.

PEACE—PERHAPS.

Washington, June 14.—Attention of Washington officials was again focussed to-day on the military situation in Mexico, where there was a possibility of important developments which might bring ultimate peace in the southern republic. Chief interest centres in the outcome of the prospective battle between Carranza troops and Villa forces for the possession of Mexico City, now in the hands of Villa's men.

THOROUGH WORK.

London, June 14.—David Lloyd George is completing the organization of his munitions ministry. He has appointed Leonard Llewellyn as director of materials, Mr. West of Armstrong, Whitworth and Comany, shipbuilders, as director of metals, and Sir Guy Granet as director of railway transport. The Assessment Commissioner at Winnipeg estimates population at 212,889.

ZEPELIN RAID TOOK LARGE NUMBER OF CIVILIAN LIVES

Some Details of Damage to Homes and Industrial Plants—Two Tramcars Full of Dead and Injured.

New York, June 14.—"A large number of persons were killed and wounded in the west end of London in the Zeppelin raid on May 31," declared H. D. Watson, representative of a New York automobile company, who returned on the American liner St. Paul yesterday. "The Zeppelins passed over South Kensington, the richest section of London. I went there the next morning. The porter of the Hotel St. James told me he had assisted in filling two tramcars full of dead and wounded. How many were killed and injured I do not know."

W. R. Stevens, 3 Kingsland road. The family was at supper and did not know that their house had been struck until a policeman rushed in. The bomb had struck the bedroom of the house. A bomb fell in St. Mary's Church, Whitechapel, causing one of the beams to fall and damaging the interior of the church. Two others fell in Page's boot factory, which was destroyed. Another more destructive, and ap-

SENSOR SUPPRESSED STORIES

The London papers sent proofs of long accounts of the raid together with many photographs of the havoc wrought to the official censor, but they never returned. Instead an official statement was issued by the Government by publication in the issues of June 1, briefly announcing that there had been a raid, and the papers were warned against publishing anything additional. The statement was amplified by another one, for publication on June 2, in which it was stated that four were dead, a number injured and that several fires had followed the dropping of the bombs. The following is an account of the scenes in the east end of London the morning following the raid and the stories of the raid itself: All the people were bright and cheerful. One girl, the daughter of the keeper of a public house, told how when a bomb dropped on the roof of the hostelry, she gathered up her pet dog and the day's receipts and succeeded in making her escape. Names were all about her before she got away, but she saved the money and the dog, as well as her own life. Samuel Keuben, a little boy of nine years of 15 Cannon street road, Commercial road, East, was killed while playing in Christian street. His body was at the London Hospital, where eleven of the injured were also taken. Seven bombs were dropped in Whitechapel and Shoreditch. A woman, Mrs. McGuinness, was passing up the stairs of her apartment when a bomb struck the building. BOY A MASS OF FLAME At that moment her little son rushed out a mass of flame. A bomb dropped on the home of

LT. COCKSHUTT IS AGAIN ON WOUNDED LIST

Brantford Officer Has Been Again Hit While on Duty.

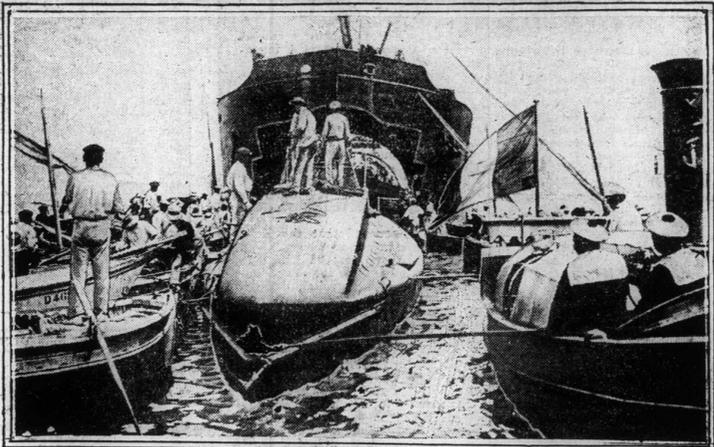

The latest official casualty list issued at Ottawa contains the following:—

WOUNDED. Lieut. William A. Cockshutt, 172 Chatham street, Brantford, Ont. (previously reported wounded, but at duty) In connection with the above the following telegram has also been received here from Ottawa:—"Sincerely regret to inform you that Lt. William Ashton Cockshutt, 10th Battalion, formerly reported wounded but at duty, now officially reported wounded. Further particulars when received will be sent you. ADJT.-GENERAL." From the above it would seem as if Lt. Cockshutt had again been hit. Relatives and friends will anxiously await further details. LATER. Mr. Cockshutt received a cablegram this afternoon from his other son, an active service, Lt. George Cockshutt, relating regarding Ashton, "Left arm badly wounded."

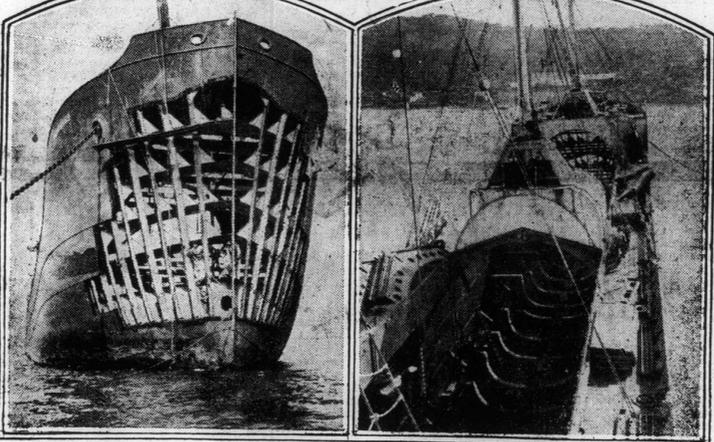

BELGIANS FORCING A RETREAT --GERMAN LINES ARE DRIVEN BACK ALL ALONG THEIR FRONT

By Special Wire to the Courier. LONDON, JUNE 14.—"THE GERMAN LINE NEAR WESTENDE, IN THE REGION NORTHEAST OF NIEUPORT, MANNEKENSVERE AND SCHOORE (ALL BELGIUM) HAS BEEN DRIVEN BACK BY STRONG BELGIAN ATTACKS IN THE PAST FEW DAYS," SAYS THE AMSTERDAM CORRESPONDENT OF THE MORNING POST. "IMPORTANT GERMAN TROOP MOVEMENTS HAVE BEEN NOTED ALONG THE DUTCH BORDER."

AN ODD CRAFT THAT SWALLOWS SUBMARINES AND THEN DISGORGES THEM AFTER CROSSING OCEAN

SUBMARINE ENTERING THE KANGAROO

INTERIOR VIEW OF THE KANGAROO

Many a startled skipper rubbed bewildered eyes when the Kangaroo, the oddest looking craft which has entered New York Harbor for some time, slipped by on her way to anchor off the Statue of Liberty, in the upper bay. A sheer, high riding envelope of steel, she is devoid of superstructure save for a tiny deck house perched aft. Behind the deck house looms a pudgy smokestack, and at intervals there rise three great white masts, surrounded by circular houses of steel. The Kangaroo, which arrived from Bordeaux, France, is the only vessel of her kind afloat. She was built to transport submarines. Her bow is removable, and the submarine, after being floated into the vessel, is carried in her hold until the point of destination is reached, when the bow of the Kangaroo opens again and the undersea terror is disgorged. She was the result of much experimenting, and the building of such a craft was hailed as a remarkably clever feat of marine engineering. In a calm sea it takes two days to remove the bow plates and load a submarine. Captain Felix Gerhard, her commander, says. She left Bordeaux in December for Rio de Janeiro, carrying her last submarine, delivered it and went back to Bordeaux with a general cargo. She arrived at New York in ballast, to return with 3,400 tons of general cargo. Her total carrying capacity is 3,600 tons.

TWO LOCAL SOLDIERS ON CASUALTY LIST

Corp. Walker and Pte. Davis are Reported to be Wounded.

Two other Brantford soldiers are this morning reported on the casualty list of the 4th Battalion. Both men are Englishmen, though they have relatives living in the city. In the casualties issued last night the name of Corp. Charles Walters appears, an ex-soldier of the Cape Mounted Police, who has had a chequered and exciting life.

PTE. H. DAVIS The second man, it was intimated by wire from Ottawa to Mrs. Davis residing on Spring street at No. 80, that Pte. H. Davis had been wounded in action on the 4th June by a gunshot wound in the arm, and was now in the general clearing hospital, Versailles in France.

Davis, whose brother is a popular ex-sergt. of the Duffs, previous to his enlistment, was employed as a rough carpenter on contract work by his father throughout the city and served

FOURTH ACTIVE SERVICE MEN LEAVE ON 23RD

Under Command of Captain F. E. Hicks of the 38th Duffs.

The active service section, which has been drilling at the armories every day, will leave for Niagara Falls under command of Captain F. E. Hicks, Wednesday, June 23rd. Colonel Gienk stated this morning that several more men were needed, and that any one wishing to volunteer should do so immediately. It will be too late in a few days, so it is up to the brave recruits to fill up the ranks of this contingent.

IN THE WHITE SEA London, June 14.—The British Steamship Arndale, of 3,583 tons gross has been sunk as the result of striking a mine in the White Sea. The British steamer Arndale was built in 1905 at Sunderland. She was 240 feet long, 48 feet beam and 23 feet deep. She was owned by the T. Smailes & Sons Steamship Company, Limited, of Whitby. The Arndale presumably was carrying a cargo. Abel Miller, the only important Russian seaport on the Arctic Ocean.

BRANTFORD MEN ARE DOING WELL AT NIAGARA CAMP

Interview With Sergt. Major Bolt Who Says "They Could Not be Better"—Fine "Esprit de Corps" of 36th is Everywhere Remarkd Upon.

Visiting in the city over the weekend on leave from Niagara was Com. Sergt. Major "Billy" Bolt, the popular ex-colors of "A" Duffs Battalion.

Smart, erect, tanned and every wit with the spirit of the boys, he has all good things to say of the way in which Col. E. E. Ashton is managing to make into a service unit, the material assembled at his command.

The company officers who left the city to get with this unit have more than justified their choice, and are daily gaining the esteem of their men, until it is no exaggeration to say that "Ashton's" Own is one battalion of the third contingent remarkable for its esprit de corps. Camp routine is not over severe, in fact when one is in good hard trim he avers it is quite easy.

Talking of the spirit of the boys, he says: "Nothing could be better than the march through rain and mud they accomplished the other day, when the battalion in heavy kit hiked to Brock's Monument and returned, soaked through but swinging along with a good gait and not a murmur. Everybody takes the work as sport, and show a dare devil carelessness that will count volumes in future. The daily routine commences at 5:30 in the morning, when "revally" sounds, and everybody tumbles out in a hurry. No ration of coffee and biscuit is issued, and after the morning parade for roll call, the men go back to their lines and clean up kits, roll up canvasses and numerous domestic duties till the quarter bugle sounds warning for "cookhouse."

This parade is answered by the mess orderlies for the day, who rush with their receptacles to the galley where the steaming odors of coffee, etc., make a fine smell for hungry men. DINE IN MARQUEE The Brantford platoon, with another, dines in a marquee, each man having his place at table and is supplied with a plate and bowl, bringing his own knife and fork with him. It is counted a more economical way and is much appreciated by the men, having advantages of cleanliness and comfort absent from the tent method of "Dixies" mess tins and grab as much as possible before the other fellow system until lately used at camp. On Saturday the Ontario Brigade held a brigade drill at Niagara camp, and Col. E. C. Ashton acted as Brigadier. The high place for efficiency which the ex-doctor holds with the brigade is a matter of pride to Brantford citizens, as well as soldiers. The recent heavy rains caused a little discomfort, but as the men have been provided with a suit of ducks to wear in camp, they can now change from wet clothing with a degree of comfort hitherto unknown. Only one khaki cloth suit is issued and that has to be used for all work besides being the walking out dress sanctioned for use on leave. GOOD SHOTS. Shooting has made considerable progress, the grouping system being in vogue and the rifles new, are in the best of order. One company per day

EASTERN FRONT IS STILL OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE

Allies in the West are Continuing Their Advance, But the East Overshadows All the Fields Where the Teutonic Allies are Seeking to Crush Russian Offensive.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, June 14.—Although the French would appear to be unrelenting in their offensive work which is netting them slow progress in north-eastern France, the situation in the eastern arena of the war, where the Austro-Germans are straining every nerve to deliver a crushing blow to the Russians, remains of the utmost importance. No confirmation has yet been received of the report that the Austro-Germans have re-occupied Zurawna, but further to the south they are across the River Dniester and on Russian soil in Bessarabia. Not for months past has there been such a general activity on the eastern front. Checked at the centre of the Galicia line, the Austro-Germans have developed an offensive on both wings at the same time, and they are starting another battle in Poland to the north of Przasnysz. There is confusion fighting going on at the same time in the Baltic provinces, so it may be said that the contenders are at grips once more from the Baltic to the Roumanian frontier. The stand which the Russians have been making recently in Galicia indicates to British observers that their shortage of ammunition has been overcome. It was this shortage, according to the belief here, that enabled the Austro-Germans last month to sweep across the country and take Przemysl in such record time. In Greece the followers of former Premier Benizelos, who resigned because Greece would not enter the war on the side of the allies, seemed to have the upper hand judging from the early returns of the general elections held in that kingdom. Endorsement of the policies of M. Venizelos may have a bearing on Greece's future course of action.

VON MACKENSEN IS REPORTED TO HAVE OCCUPIED ALL LINE

By Special Wire to the Courier. BERLIN, JUNE 14.—VIA LONDON—OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE HERE THIS AFTERNOON THAT GENERAL VON MACKENSEN HAS OCCUPIED THE RUSSIAN POSITIONS ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT IN THE EASTERN ARENA OF THE FIGHTING FROM CYERNIAWA TO SIENIAWA.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

Paris, June 14.—The French War Office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads as follows: "There is nothing of real importance to add to the announcement given out last night. Belgian troops threw a battalion over to the east bank of the Yser, to the south of the railroad bridge going to Dixmude, and organized themselves on the ground thus gained. Also they destroyed a blockhouse of the enemy in the vicinity of the Chateau of Dixmude. "In the sector to the north of Arras yesterday saw the development of various infantry actions. At the end of the day one of these advances made us masters of a German works to the east of Lorette. Another engagement resulted in our losing, after a violent bombardment, a portion of the trenches occupied by us during the afternoon at a point at the north of the sugar refinery of Souchez. "There has been nothing to report from the remainder of the front."

LAWN TENNIS

The tennis tournament continues to attract considerable attention over the week-ends, and the games on Saturday were no exception. Dufferin club is the most favorably placed in the schedule, and they show strength, as might be expected, beyond the other clubs, although they have not called upon their first class men yet. Bell View is apparently possessed of a strong and a weak team, for in B table they lead, while they hold the cellar securely in A.

The games on Saturday were as follows:
 Bell View vs. St. Marys.
 G. Waterhouse vs. J. D. Ansell. Singles won by Ansell of Bell View, score 6-1, 6-1.
 W. Phillips and G. Waterhouse vs. N. Littich and J. D. Ansell. Doubles, won by Littich and Ansell of Bell View, 8-6, 8-4.

Bell View vs. Y. M. C. A.
 G. Kew vs. G. Koper. Won by Koper of Y. M. C. A., 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.
 T. S. Moyer and N. McLeod vs. Styles and Beck. Won by Moyer and McLeod of Bell View, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Laid to Rest

EDITH MAY BROWN.

With all due solemnity the remains of the late Edith May Brown were laid to rest in Mount Hope cemetery on Saturday, when the funeral took place from the residence of her husband, 10 Drummond street. Impressively the Rev. Jackson of the B.M.E. church conducted the last services, which were attended largely, many family friends and relatives being present. The pallbearers were W. Saunders, C. Morey, W. Curtis, Tom Murray, Jasper Smith, Harry Turner.

A wealth of floral tributes, with their messages of sympathy and condolence, were offered.
 DAVID VANNATTO.
 The funeral of David Vannatto took place on Saturday from the residence, 19 Greenwich street, to Mount Hope. Numerous friends and relatives attended the ceremonies, which were conducted by the Rev. North. The floral tributes were numerous and received from many quarters.

The opponents of prohibition in Alberta have a blind orator, J. B. Osborne, talking for them.

Obituary

BENJAMIN GODFREY.
 Benjamin Godfrey passed away this morning at the age of 58 years, after a short illness. He had for many years resided at 135 Terrace Hill street, and in that district he leaves numerous friends to regret his demise. He was a machinist by trade. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his loss. The funeral takes place on Wednesday to Mount Hope.

Brave Slav Lass in the Fighting

According to a Russian paper, a Kieff girl of eighteen, Alexandra Ephemova Lagereva by name, has received a commission in one of the regiments of Don Cossacks. Her promotion from the ranks was a reward of special services. During one of the battles in the Suvalki Government, the detachment to which she belonged was surrounded by superior numbers and captured. From certain remarks which the Germans let fall, and from the way in which they looked at her, it was evident that they had guessed the secret of her sex. Perhaps this was the reason that, when the other prisoners were divested of their property, she was allowed to retain her watch and compass. The prisoners were locked up in a church, outside which a sentry patrolled.

During the evening the party was visited by several German officers, who seemed to take a lively interest in Alexandra, and smuggered a good deal among themselves. When all was quiet the prisoners broke a window and clambered out, and Alexandra managed to fell the sentry with a stone. The refugees succeeded in recovering their horses, and picked up one or two stragglers, who increased their number to seven. In this force they attacked a German patrol of eighteen Uhlans, and captured them all.

The lieutenant in command of the patrol, on discovering the number of his captives, flung off his hat and tore his hair with rage. He was found to be carrying documents of importance, and these were brought to the Russian commander by Alexandra, who seems to have been the virtual leader in the whole affair.

She is described as being of medium height, slender and graceful, and talks of her experiences of war very much as an ordinary girl of her years might speak of a tea party.

The only two strikes of workers in Saskatchewan last year were at Saskatoon and Battleford.

Cricket

Grimsby cricketers could only compile 53 runs against the Brantford batsmen, who only needed eight men to count that aggregate. The game was splendidly contested and the spirit of sportsmanship evident throughout, was a testimony to the gentleness of the players. F. Scattergood led the locals with 21 runs, while G. B. Johnson got a useful sixteen. C. Uniacke and J. Smiley each received a duck.

The score was as follows:

WOMENS' HOSPITAL AID IN SPLENDID CONDITION

The June meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid, which was held on Friday accompanied by good wishes to the Library, was more largely attended than usual and full of interest and enthusiasm.

The minutes and the treasurer's report were read and approved: Membership fees were received from Miss Watkins, Terrace Hill, $5; Miss Jones, North Ward, $3; Mrs. Crouch, West Brantford $2.25; Mrs. Mitchell, centre of city, $6; Mrs. G. Taylor, Paris 75c.; Mrs. Gress, Echo Place $10, and tea money from Mrs. Bruce Gordon, $5.00.

Mrs. James G. Cockshutt was, on motion of Mrs. Watt and Mrs. V. F. Cockshutt, made a life member in recognition of her generous donation of $25.00 on Hospital Day.

The treasurer was empowered to pay outstanding accounts during the summer months. Letters were read from Mr. Stentford, Halifax, thanking the ladies for their resolution of sympathy and stating that, in compliance with their late mother's request, her yearly donation at Easter would be continued by the family: From Mrs. T. J. Mansell, a life-member, now living in Cincinnati, expressing her warm interest in the work of the W. H. A. and enclosing a donation of $2, and from two other staunch friends, Mrs. John Stratford and Mr. G. H. Muirhead of Toronto, each of whom sent $5 for Hospital Day accompanied by good wishes for its success, and it was moved by Mrs. Nelles, seconded by Miss Wye, and carried "that a vote of thanks be sent to these out of town friends of the auxiliary for their kind remembrance and donations."

The thanks of the W. H. A. were also extended to all who assisted in making Hospital Day successful, particularly to the following: Mr. Tremaine, for the use of his store as headquarters.

M. E. Long and Company for tables and chairs.
 Pursell and Son for screens.
 Duncan for carpet.

The Bell Telephone Co. and Mr. Dixon for use and installation of a telephone.
 Mr. Phillips and the Woolworth Co. for decorations and arranging the windows.

City Street Railway management for free use of cars by collectors.
 Barber-Ellis Company or donation of 300 boxes for collectors.
 The Chief of Police for special police protection.

Mrs. R. S. Schell for 400 arm bands.
 Mr. Lindsay Spence for ornamental signs.

All who loaned motors, and to the general public who gave their contributions so liberally and cheerfully. Heads of districts, convents and collectors, in both city and county, also received special thanks.

Mrs. E. L. Gould and Mrs. A. J. Wilkes, visitors at the hospital during May, reported having made weekly visits, taking up magazines, flowers, fruits and various dainties.

Mrs. Colquhoun and Mrs. G. D. Wait are the visitors during the current month, and Mrs. Madale and Mrs. Mitchell are appointed for the month of July.

Miss Forde, who was present, addressed the meeting, and expressed her thanks for having made weekly visits to the patients by the ladies. The new dishes and silver were now in use, and the ward presented by Mrs. Bates through the W. H. A. will soon be in readiness. An interesting account was also given of the wards and hallways recently furnished through the kindness of Mrs. Peter Wood. There is no need for dressing gowns, sox and slippers for the men's public wards and more wheel chairs are needed for the hospital generally. The ladies decided that these matters be left in the hands of the Executive, and that wheel chairs and other things be purchased if funds proved sufficient.

Moved by Mrs. Cockshutt, seconded by Mrs. Foster and carried unanimously, that Mrs. Bates be tendered a vote of thanks for her donation of the furnishings for a private ward.

The Patriotic League was reported on by Mrs. Henwood, who mentioned, among other things, a plan to have their members each contribute a small sum monthly in order to create a fund. The report was favorably received.

There was no report from the J. H. A., but Miss Forde stated that their ward was now in use and filled a great want.

It was announced that the Busy Bees of Dufferin avenue, who had been so successful on Hospital Day, had now decided to work for the Children's Ward at the hospital, through the W. H. A., and were planning for an entertainment in the near future for this purpose.

It was moved and seconded that the W. H. A. extend their thanks to the Busy Bees for their work on Hospital Day and for what they propose to do for the Children's Ward in the future.

In answer to a question, it was stated that all money contributed on Hospital Day will be used solely for the benefit of the Brantford General Hospital.

The meeting was then adjourned until September.

FRENCH ADVANCE TO NORTH OF ARRAS

Fortified Positions Taken—Belgians Attacked With Gas—Enemy Repulsed.

Paris, June 14.—Two important gains near Souchez, in the sector of Arras, were announced by the War Office last night, and it now seems apparent that Souchez itself is soon to fall into French hands.

The German positions on the heights north of the Souchez sugar refinery were captured by assault and held despite a furious artillery bombardment. These heights dominate the town of Souchez and will afford the French forces a great advantage in attacking the town. In addition the station of the railway leading into Souchez was captured.

Three lines of German trenches south-east of Hebuterne were captured by French troops yesterday in a single charge, the force of which carried them over the first two lines and into the third. One hundred prisoners were made.

The French artillery fire has created a terrible havoc among the German troops in this locality during the past few days, according to German prisoners. A German officer, while speaking to an officer of the French general staff paid the highest tribute to the dash and courage of the French infantry, who had charged, he said, in perfect order and with absolute courage.

French troops made further progress north of Lorete Saturday, while the Belgians have been directing a violent bombardment against the positions held by the French, in an endeavor to prevent them from organizing the new trenches.

GAS ATTACK ON BELGIANS

The Daily Mail correspondent in North France says: The Belgians experienced their first gas attack on the night of June 9. The Germans, after a severe bombardment of Dixmude, launched the gas. They took a Belgian advanced position and crossed the Yser, and captured three or four lines of trenches. Large reinforcements, including a British regiment, charged vigorously and drove the Germans back across the Yser, compelling them to take up a new position. They had occupied previously. Fierce fighting continues in Dixmude, half of which is held by the Germans and half by the Allies.

Germans and Belgians in Civic Dispute

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Montreal, June 14.—The Gazette has the following from Rotterdam: "The first report of what seems to be an extraordinary affair at Malines, with Cardinal Mercier against a central figure, comes from the Wolff-Bureau to-day (Sunday)."

"It purports to record a collision which took place between the inhabitants and the German guard at Malines, a town which has been cut off by the governor-general from communication with the rest of Belgium because its inhabitants refused to work in the arsenal. The statement says: 'On Thursday Cardinal Mercier desired to leave Malines with a following of a hundred persons who came into collision with the German guard. The cardinal wished to go on foot to Brussels, and the commander of the guard asked him for his passport. It was not possible to allow him to pass with so great a crowd. One of the priests in the cardinal's following protested against this action, and the cardinal and a small number of his followers were allowed to pass out of the town. The cardinal entered a carriage that had been sent from Brussels and went his way.'

"The reason of this demonstration was that Malines had been cut off from railway and other vehicular communication."

"No account of the affair has yet come through from Belgium, but the fact that Wolff should circulate the story, suggests that the collision was more serious than is allowed to appear."

Walked to Their Work in Chicago

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Chicago, June 14.—Chicagoans—approximately 1,500,000 of them, walked, motored and used steam roads to their work to-day.

The strike of 14,000 street car employees went into effect at midnight last night. Not a wheel on the 1310 miles of tracks of the surface and elevated lines turned after four o'clock this morning when the last crews took their cars into the barns. It was the first time in a generation that all street car service in Chicago was completely tied up.

The strike was carried out without any disorder, according to early reports.

Orders to strike were issued after an all-day conference yesterday of union leaders, transportation company officials, and Mayor Thompson in a vain attempt to bring about arbitration. Neither side would yield. The strikers had demanded a guarantee of a wage increase, which the companies refused.

The sale of war tax stamps added $1,600 to the May receipts at Regina post office.

THE SITUATION.

In Galicia it continues to be German ahead one week, Russians behind the next, then both together recording successes, and so on. Grand Duke Nicholas now reports 348 officers and 15,431 men, with war munitions, captured in a stiff fight with Von Linsingen's army, but at the same time the latter's troops have crossed the Dneister river, and the check evidently proved of only a temporary nature.

The French continue their successes, although in this great war even a trifling advance has to be recorded as that. They officially report the taking of a railway station and a sugar refinery. Berlin, on the other hand, claims "good progress" for the German army.

The Italians still seem to be going ahead with comparative ease, but this condition of affairs at the present stage should not by any means lead to the idea that they are going to have one long triumphal march. There is severe work ahead for them all right, just the same as for the others.

Nothing much has been heard from the British just lately, but it is announced that Kitchener now has one million more men ready to send across the Channel, and their arrival should lead to some doings. The fact is undoubted that the French consider that John Bull has been a little slow in his land support, but then he was totally unprepared, and his navy work has been one of the tremendous factors in keeping matters as well as they are.

LIBERAL PAPER PAYS TRIBUTE TO HUGHES.

No one in Canadian public life has for months ever been more evidently or persistently abused than General Sam Hughes. The man, as head of the Canadian Militia Department, had, when war broke out, a responsibility suddenly thrown upon him without parallel in Canadian records, but he tackled the job with promptness and efficiency. Made mistakes, of course, but in the main did wonderfully.

Take the output of shells as one evidence of his foresight and activity. General Alexander Graham, who has been prominently identified with this branch of Canadian contribution, recently told the story which is summarized as follows:—

247 factories, in 78 Canadian cities and towns, making war munitions. 70,000 mechanics given employment. One million dollars paid weekly in wages.

50,000 shells per day will soon be the rate of production. Component parts, including steel, mainly produced in Canada.

Copper to be refined in Canada shortly. Every effort being made to have the industry self-containing and independent of outside contingencies.

Trinitro-toluene, a high explosive, now being made from by-products of reaction, N.S., coke ovens.

650,000 shells already shipped from this country.

The Ottawa Free Press (Liberal) in commenting upon the above facts, says, during the course of a lengthy article:—

"This paper has poked fun at General Sam Hughes, but always with the underlying idea that behind all this idiosyncrasies there was real competency and merit. To-day we take off our hats to him. His critics, including ourselves, have been confounded. He stands revealed a genius. And the evidence is an array of startling, cold facts presented by an unimpressible, calculating, practical, mechanic, calm business man, able captain of industry, and military officer of distinction—for that is the way General Bertram can be correctly described.

At the very outbreak of war General Hughes had the vision to realize what in a very short time would be the Empire's greatest need; he had the courage of his convictions; he had the ability to select just the right men to work out his vision; and he had the force of character, enthusiasm, and energy to inspire those men to achievement.

It was on September 2, only four weeks after the general outbreak of the war, General Bertram tells us that General Hughes called the meeting of experts at which he outlined his idea of the Empire's great need and his vision of how Canada could help to meet that need. His program startled his hearers—it seemed impossible. General Bertram says he himself was a doubter. The difficulties, and obstacles to be overcome seemed insurmountable, the limitations of Canada's manufacturing resources appeared to be an insuperable barrier. But General Hughes' courage was indomitable.

We ask readers of the Free Press to read the cold, unvarnished tale told by General Bertram, and when they have done that we believe they will like us, to take off their hats to General Hughes and General Bertram."

During the period of his tremendous war responsibilities, General Hughes should, of all others, have been free from a lot of yelping at his heels, but he has calmly continued on his way, which the Free Press is now manly enough to admit, has been excellent. Will the Expositor and other Liberal sheets be honest enough to do a like thing?

CANADIAN TRADE RETURNS.

The war has already changed trade channels everywhere. This is of necessity has proved the case for the reason that prior to hostilities Germany stood second among the great trading nations with Great Britain first, the United States second and France third. The Fatherland in its effort on behalf of world conquest has alienated her best customers and not only that, but with John Bull boss of the seas, couldn't ship any export orders even if she had the customers. As the result, there has been an all round shake-up and readjustment and Canada stands to do excellently in connection with the new condition of affairs.

Canadian imports from Germany reached their high point, $18,379,764, in 1913. The following year they declined to $14,276,000. Last year, with only six month trading prior to the war, our German imports dropped to $8,449,186. Canadian exports to Germany have usually been about three times less than our imports from that country. Our exports in 1912 were $3,814,000 and in 1915—the trading practically ending in July—the exports were $2,162,000.

As the Monetary Times points out, aside from the bullion movement, Canada's total trade, that is imports and exports of merchandise, last year was valued at $903,813,000, of which imports accounted for $445,371,000 and exports for $458,442,000. The exports were therefore $16,000,000 in excess of the imports. Canada has thus for the first time in a great many years, a favorable trade balance.

The effect of heavy war orders is seen in the past fiscal year's exports of manufacturers increased from $57,000,000 in 1914 to $35,000,000 in 1915 and animal product from $53,000,000 to $74,000,000. Last year, mineral exports showed the heaviest decline in the list, dropping from $59,000,000 to $51,000,000. Mineral production, however is likely to be increased during the current year in certain lines.

APPROACHED FROM HOXLEY. The raiders approached the city from across Hoxley. Starting from this central point, they reached the railway yards, where a number of bombs were dropped without, however, causing much damage.

They spied some lumber yards and dropped inflammable bombs into them. Many fires were started, and the engines were hurrying in all directions. Next they crossed another road. They evidently aimed at a church, but missed, and the bombs fell into a number of little cottages."

A police report says that the airships then made off in a southwesterly direction.

WHITECHAPEL CEMETERY. In Whitechapel Cemetery two bombs were thrown up and close by in Union street was a third, weighing twenty pounds. They were among many found which had not exploded.

SIR HENRY LUCY

What Leading Political Critic Said at Time of Coalition Government Discussion.

Very rarely indeed has a Ministerial crisis burst upon the country with such unexpectedness. For some weeks there has been loose talk of a coalition Government. But it has been in character academic rather than practical. Last week the Prime Minister was questioned on the subject. He curtly replied that there was no foundation for the current rumour, adding that, according to his belief, the idea of a Coalition Government or of any other persons to the week ago nothing was further from the thought or intention of the cabinet. The bolt falling from the blue was hurled from the admiralty. Relations between the First Lord and the Prime Minister, increasingly strained during the past month, reached the breaking point and Lord Fisher placed his resignation in the hands of the Prime Minister.

FISHER AND CHURCHILL

The personal connection thus terminated began under the most friendly terms. At the outbreak of the war I quoted a private letter addressed to me by Lord Fisher, in which he warmly extolled Mr. Winston Churchill's action in the emergency. He specified three points of admiration: First was the mobilization of the fleet under cover of a visit from the king, a step which enabled it to be at its post in the North Sea on the day war was declared. Secondly, he applauded the appointment of Jellicoe, a comparatively youthful admiral, to supreme command; and lastly, he commended the prompt purchase of two men-of-war approaching completion in English dockyards on the commission of Turkey, which he claims to be national gratitude which can never be overlooked. Winston, on his part, recognizing in Lord Fisher, the man to whom the country is chiefly indebted for the proved supremacy of the navy in time of peril, seized the opportunity presented by a vacancy at the admiralty to secure his colleague Fisher at the post of First Sea Lord.

LIKE HIS FATHER. Unfortunately hereditary tendencies beset Mr. Churchill in the direction of making him a real person to deal with. It is not the first of his name to break up a powerful ministry, because he could not have his own way at a particular turn of affairs. Lord Randolph's son is, like his father, as headstrong as a mule. He found his match in "Jack" Fisher. Suave in manner, modest in estimation of his own qualities, the first Sea Lord once driven into an attitude of resentment is an exceedingly tough person to deal with. Naturally gratified when amid national plaudits the dropped pilot was picked up again, he gave himself up heart and soul to administering the affairs of the navy he had created. All went well for some months. The success of the navy in casual encounters with the enemy and in the great task of keeping sea-room open for itself and its allies testify to unity of capable direction at headquarters. Unfortunately, hereditary instinct asserting itself with his chief, the First Sea Lord believing his appointed domain was being systematically encroached upon cut the painter, the admiralty barge got hopelessly adrift, and before he quite knew it he was in the hands of the minister found, added to overwhelming duties and responsibilities, the task of reforming his ministry.

APPROVAL OF COALITION. The idea of a coalition government which Disraeli truly described as repugnant to British taste, has been received alike in the House of Commons and the country with unexpected approval. It cannot be said that save with a single exception the present government will gain in personal weight by the contemplated changes.

The presence of Mr. Balfour on the Treasury Bench will undoubtedly be a notable accession of strength to an already individually and exceptionally strong government. Apart from that taking man for man, there is nothing to be gained by the substitution in Ministerial office of members of the Opposition in both Houses whose names are currently mentioned to the displacement of cabinet Ministers. Some of them, including Mr. Balfour were members of the Administration which after a long term of office found themselves faced by the outbreak of war in the Transvaal and mismanaged it in fashion that dismally proved nothing had been learned in high places since the dismal days of the Crimean War.

WHAT WILL BE GAINED. What will be gained—and this anticipation is at the root of public approval of the contemplated step—is that at this hour of national peril we shall have at the head of affairs a government representing the varied normally divergent views of political parties throughout the country. Since the war began thanks to the patriotic conduct of Leaders of the Opposition in both Houses this happy condition of affairs has practically prevailed.

Except in one or two London newspapers the party faction has been dumb. Ex-Ministers, notably Mr. Balfour and Mr. Chamberlain have personally associated themselves with the working of Departments of the State. On the whole it is well that this undesirable state of things should be regularized, and that by sharing office with its present incumbents the Opposition should accept responsibility as well as power.

DREAMS OF THE KAISER

It is probable that the bitterest drop in the cup daily drained by the Kaiser is the loss of the Colonies he, throughout his reign, has annexed to the German Empire. In this, as in matters of supremacy of naval force and of range of foreign trade, he has with jealousy and secret hate followed in the footsteps of Great Britain. Wherever the British flag float over a colony, whether long created or recently acquired, the German flag has, under more or less favorable circumstances been hoisted. This is especially the case in South Africa, where the subjection of native tribes opened up fresh fields for colonization. For thirty years with increased intensity during the last decade, Germany has been alert to every opportunity of getting her share in partition of the country. The Kaiser dreamt of nothing less than making himself the paramount power in the Dark Continent. The culmination of his desire and hope was to drive England out of Egypt and so threaten Rhodes. He keenly appreciated Cecil Rhodes' passionate desire for a railway from the Cape to Cairo. Only he intended that it should be completed and administered under German control.

Liner St. Paul Was Convoys by Destroyers

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, June 14.—To-day's New York Tribune says: "Great Britain made certain by a convoy of destroyers that Colonel L. M. House, President Wilson's personal representative, would not be molested on his way out of the war zone and his arrival here yesterday on the American liner St. Paul was likewise safeguarded by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port. "It was said that these precautions were due to the fact that Col. House bore important messages and reports for President Wilson from London and the British foreign office was determined they should not go away through German undersea interference. "The personal representative, however, had despatches from Berlin also, and it was reasonably sure that Germany would not do anything to prevent their delivery. Moreover, the St. Paul is an American ship, she carried several hundred Americans, and the possibility of her being torpedoed was unlikely. "The St. Paul left Liverpool, June 5. It was not generally known on the

PARIS WOMEN KEEP ACTIVE.
In spite of the many calls during the past months since the war broke out, the women of Paris have again risen to the call of humanity. Last week a request went out for linen, old cotton, bandages, etc., for surgical dressing. The basement of St. James' parish hall was used as a sorting and packing depot for the bundles for the ladies, which the members of "B" Troop, Boy Scouts, gathered from all over town. Saturday three large packing cases and one box were shipped to the Red Cross depot at Toronto for the Base Hospital.

"MAC" WRITES HOME.
Word was received from Captain Colquhoun on Saturday by two short letters from the trenches dated the 3rd and 26th of April, in which the gallant officer states that they had now been in the trenches for five days without a relief and did not know when they would again return to their billets. No Brantford men had been lost since the fighting at Langemarck, and though the lines they were holding had been severely shelled they were well under cover and had suffered not at all from its effects.

AT SYDENHAM ST. CHURCH.
The public generally is taking considerable interest in the situation at Sydenham street Methodist church, caused by the stationing committee of the Hamilton conference, returning Rev. A. I. Snyder as pastor, against the protests of the board. The attendance at the morning service was fair, and a number of people evidently were there out of curiosity. There was no choir, however, the organist and choir leader, Mr. Knott being alone, save for two young men who assisted with violins. The attendance at night was small, Miss Gladys Garthman singing two solos in good voice. Mr. Knott has tendered his resignation to take effect according to the terms of his contract. He says he is practically out of a job as he has nobody at present to lead. The choir is composed of over thirty members, some of the ordinary occurred during the service.

Showing an increase of $91.45.

Friday of last week in 1914 was the occasion of the visit of a circus to the city, and on that account the receipts were at least $100.00 over the normal. Therefore, it may be safely stated that the revenue for the last week has $191.45 increase.

GOOD SIGHT DEPENDS ON HOW THE LIGHT ENTERS THE EYE AND IS DIRECTED THROUGH THE EYE TO THE RETINA.

Glasses become necessary when mal-formation of the eyeball mis-directs the rays of light. To direct the light properly glasses must be right in every detail—strength, adjustment and position.

As much depends on the selection as the fitting of spectacles. If you will let me select and fit your spectacles there will be no livid, unsightly marks on your nose. I carry every good make and style.

Glasses fitted now, by me, will correct that slight error of eyesight and give you every detail sharp and clear.

DRAINAGE DEMONSTRATION.
A very successful drainage demonstration under the auspices of the District Representative, R. Schuyler, was held on the farm of Albert Richardson just south of Cainsville, Friday afternoon, June 11, when over one hundred farmers gathered to see the large traction ditcher work and to hear Prof. H. H. Day from Guelph speak on the subject of under drainage. Mr. Schuyler each year surveys over twenty-five miles of ditches free of cost to the farmers of Brant and he expects this will stimulate a greater interest in this important work. The men in charge of the ditcher report that they have now received sufficient orders to keep them busy throughout the fall.

FELL OVER BRIDGE ON WAY TO CAR.
Hamilton Man, Mr. Galvin, Meets With a Nasty Accident on Saturday.

On Saturday night while John Galvin, a son of Mrs. J. Galvin of Galvin Hide Company, Hamilton, was rushing for the 6.50 radial car to the Ambitious City, he met with an unfortunate accident, in descending the steps at Victoria bridge. Missing his footing in the descent he spun round and toppled over or through the railing on to the car platform below. A call was rung into Hunt and Colter, and the emergency ambulance picked up Galvin, who was severely cut about the face and head, and removed him to the American Hotel. Dr. Bier was called in and dressed the wounds but after a restless night it was deemed advisable that he be removed to the hospital and at 10.50 on Sunday morning he was conveyed to the General Hospital. Galvin rested easier overnight but has had a severe injury and it will be some time before he is able to be about again. He had some ribs fractured.

Mr. Arthur Ames escaped with only a few scratches. There was a bad motor smash on the Hamilton Mountain Road, late Saturday afternoon, in which some Brantfordites participated with surprising luck. Indeed, the scene of the accident leaves one to marvel how any of the party escaped with their lives, or how a car after such a mishap was able to be driven home under its own power.

It would appear that a party including Messrs. Arthur Burnley, Samuel Burnley, and A. Hart, were being taken by Mr. W. Biggar to Niagara on the Lake, and were proceeding at an easy clip down the mountain side. The passenger was coasting at the turn of the bend, when Mr. Biggar, to maintain his control, placed his foot as he imagined on the brake and in so doing pressed hard, on the accelerator by mistake, immediately the car answered and with a bound cleared the highway and dropping them through the air 20 feet, landed them on the road beneath, overturning on one side as it did so. The passengers were thrown out in various directions and contused in many ways by the fall, Mr. Biggar being seriously injured, and is now lying in the Brantford hospital, where he was resting easily last night.

The Keeton Company agent hearing of the mishap, immediately left for the scene, and the car on being righted and tested came back to Brantford at a good pace. Beyond the buckling here and there of splash boards, etc., the car appeared to have suffered little from its experience.

BRANTFORD'S FINE NEW BUILDING

Formal Dedication on Thursday Should Prove a Notable Event.

The formal opening of Brantford's fine new public building on Thursday of this week promises to prove a notable event.

Hon. Mr. Casgrain, Postmaster-General, writes that he will leave Ottawa on Tuesday night for Toronto, where he spends Wednesday and leaves there Thursday morning at 9.30 by C. P. R. for Brantford, arriving here (T. H. & B.) at 11.31. He will return by the 7 p.m. train, reaching Ottawa again the same night. Mrs. Casgrain will accompany him.

Proceedings will take place inside the structure at 12 o'clock noon. A small platform will be occupied by invited guests and speeches will be made by the Minister, Mr. W. F. Cocksbutt, M.P., and Mayor Spence.

At 1.30 a luncheon will be given in honor of Mr. Casgrain at the Y. W. C. A. and later in the afternoon there will be a tea at the golf club.

Owing to the fact of the war, preparations have been made of a more or less quiet nature, but it is to be hoped that there will be a large turnout of citizens. The handsome building is theirs, and the event is one which should be heartily and suitably observed.

BRANTS BROKE EVEN IN SATURDAY'S GAMES

BRANTS STARTED REGULAR SWAT-FEST IN FIRST GAME—CLOSE AND MULLEN SMASHED PILL OVER CENTRE FENCE—HELD SAINTS TO THE SONG OF 14-2—ONLY ONE HIT MADE BY BRANTS IN SECOND GAME.

A fairly good crowd attended the double-header played on Saturday afternoon, behind the dyke, and witnessed the best game of the season. The Brants started a regular "Swatting bee" in the third innings of the first game, and continued smashing the pill for doubles and homers in the fourth, seventh and especially the eighth innings. If the Brants had staided down in the ninth, they would have shut them out to the song of 14 to 0.

This game will long remain in the memory of fandom, for there were two home runs, seven doubles, and seven singles walloped out. They hit too strongly, and didn't save any of their hits for the second game. But it was a treat to see the home team do some real hitting, and the surprised fans certainly showed their appreciation. The cheering was heard all over the city. Manager Warner certainly has the brains, and it will not be his fault if the game is not lived up to for the remainder of the season. Brantford will soon be on the upward path if the good luck continues.

Warner's changes in the batting order appeared to be wise. Now that the team has started working as one unit, the prospects for the pennant are beginning to look good. Close and Creswell, who were sent out to mound by "Slab", both showed up well. Close proved himself to be a hitting pitcher by his home run and double. He didn't allow any of his Saintry opponents to walk either, while Creswell walked only one, and struck out nine.

FIRST GAME St. Thomas—Kopp smashed a bouncer out to Dunn making first safely, stealing second on next ball pitched. Stewart made first on Close's error. Hadley struck him out. Todd rolled to Mullen and was also thrown out. No runs. One hit. One error. Brantford—Dunn rapped a grounder to Todd, out at first. Foran singled, but was forced out by Ivers, Forgue to Hadley. Burrill slammed out a double to right field, Mullen out, pitcher to first. No runs. Two hits. No errors. Second Innings—St. Thomas—This was the Saints' first of a number of poor frames. Inker flied to Burrill.

BRANTFORD'S NEXT GAMES AT HOME

Table listing Brantford's home games: Monday, June 14 vs Ottawa; Tuesday, June 15 vs Ottawa; Wednesday, June 16 vs Ottawa; June 24 vs St. Thomas; June 25 vs St. Thomas; June 26 vs St. Thomas.

Forgue popped to second and Harris rolled to Ivers. No runs. No hits. No errors. Brantford—Dunlop singled to short left, making second on Fried's walk, but was too far off the base and was put out by Todd. Fried tried to steal from first, but Harris pegged a fast one to Hadley, who touched him out. Lamond struck out. No runs. One hit. No errors. Third Innings—St. Thomas—Wilkinson struck out. Kopp out Fried to Ivers. Stewart drove out a single, but spoiled it by trying to steal second, Ivers throwing him out, to Fried. No runs. One hit. No errors. Brantford—Close opened by fanning. Dunn singled to short left. Foran rapped out a hot one to long centre, making second base, and driving Dunn home. Ivers grounded past first, but was put out by Wilkinson, but allowing Foran to make third on the play. Burrill walked, managed to steal second. Mullen forced Stewart to chase after a fly to deep centre, making second base and driving in both Foran and Burrill. Dunlop made a foul, which Harris caught. Three runs, Three hits. No errors. Fourth Innings—St. Thomas—Hadley knocked up a high fly which Lamond caught. Ort smashed a roller to Ivers. Todd popped to Close. No runs. No hits. No errors. Brantford—Fried rolled to Todd. Lamond cracked a fly out to Kopp in left field. Close rapped a long drive over centre field fence, scoring an easy homer. Dunn singled and through his fastness, stole second. Foran walked, Ivers knocked out a sizzler to long left, making a double on it, and driving in Dunn and Foran. Burrill grounded to short stop. Three runs. Three hits. No errors. Fifth Innings—St. Thomas—Inker was hit by a pitched ball and took his base. Forgue flied to Burrill. Harris smashed over a fly to the same spot, Burrill eating up both. Wilkinson singled past first. The frame ended with Matty's fine catch of Kopp's foul. No runs. One hit. No errors. Brantford—Both Mullen and Dunlop were struck out. Fried popped to Todd. No runs. No hits. No errors. Sixth Innings—St. Thomas—Stewart popped to Dunlop, out on first. Hadley fanned. Close gave Ort a soft fly to short, which Dunlop easily handled. No runs. No hits. No errors. Brantford—Lamond rolled a hot one to Forgue, who couldn't hold it. Todd grabbed it up and threw Matty out. Close slammed out a beauty to deep centre, and made second. Dunn popped to Todd. Foran drove out a hot single to centre, allowing Close to score. Ivers rapped out a difficult one to Forgue, and almost beat it to first. One run. Two hits. No errors. Seventh Innings—St. Thomas—Todd flied to Dunlop. Inker was an easy out on his roller to first. Forgue struck out. No runs. No hits. No errors. Brantford—Burrill smashed a fly out to Inker in right garden. Mullen drove out a hot one over the fence, and scored. Dunlop sent a grounder to Hadley. Fried drove out a double, scoring on Todd's wild throw to first, when Lamond rolled to the shortstop. Close flied to Inker. Two runs. Two hits. One error. Eighth Inning—St. Thomas—Harris out to short. Wilkinson bunted, but was thrown out by Lamond. Kopp struck out. No runs. No hits. No errors. Brantford—This frame was the eventful one for the Brants. Everyone had a turn at bat. Dunn was hit by pitched ball, took his base, and stole second. Through the wild throw of Todd, when Foran singled to him, Dunn scored. Ivers went to bat, and Foran stole second. Ivers sent a roller to Forgue, made first base and allowed Foran to score. Burrill drove a clean double, driving in Ivers, who had stolen a base. Mullen smashed out a long drive to centre and made first, while Burrill scored. Dunlop rolled to Wilkinson, who threw him out. Mullen made second on the play. Fried singled and Mullen sprinted home. Lamond was put out, Forgue to Ort and Close. Todd to Ort. Five runs. Three hits. Two errors. Ninth Inning—St. Thomas—Stewart singled to centre and scored on Had-fore Harris struck out. No runs. One hit. No errors. Brantford—Foran cracked a roller out to Ort. Ivers was thrown out by Hadley. Burrill grounded to the box. No runs. No hits. No errors. TORONTO SECURES MORRIS RATH. Toronto, June 14.—A despatch from Kansas City states that the Toronto ball club have purchased infielder Morris Rath from Kansas City. As both President McCaffery and Manager Clymer are in New York, the report could not be verified. Rath last year playing for Kansas City had a batting average of .338 for 167 games in the American Association, and was second in the averages for the second baseman with .964. Late in the season he was shifted over to third base, which position he has been playing this year. Rath is no stranger to Toronto fans as he played for Baltimore for several years.

CLEVELAND AFTER TORONTO FRANCHISE Toronto, June 14.—Harry Shannon of Cleveland, was in the city Saturday getting details regarding the sale of the Toronto professional franchise, and it is understood he will make a bid for it, providing he is able to get the sanction of the N. H. A. to transfer the franchise to that city. The series of games played by Toronto and Shamrocks last Spring at Cleveland took greatly with the Cleveland fans, and if Shannon purchases the franchise the Cleveland rink will be enlarged.

Seen and Heard at Double-Header The eventful eighth innings will long be remembered in fandom as the first time they have seen such a swat fest this season. But the Brants got out of the hitting mood during the next game, and only made a weak single.

Pitcher Close showed that he had a fine batting as well as pitching eye, when he rapped out the pill for a homer and a double in five times at bat. There seems to be no doubt that Mike Mullin is a warm weather player. In his five times up, he walloped out a homer, double and a single, scoring two runs. What team can stop the Brants when they get their heavy artillery at work? The Saints cannot be blamed for going up in the air in the first game. Perhaps it was because of the change in the batting order that caused the unexpected to happen, but the rooting and support of the fans greatly encouraged "Slab's" outfit to greater achievement. During the second game which was slow and tiresome in comparison to its predecessor, many of the fans began to think of Deneau and voiced the question as to how he was faring in Ottawa, with Shag, and his Senators making it as unpleasant as possible with his ump. He managed to worry through the two games without any trouble. In the last game, the Saints fourth was a freak. The three men up hit the ball into exactly the same spot and were all thrown out by Fried.

Manager Stewart, at the beginning of the second game threatened to protest the match if two new balls were not put into play. He had to kick about something, especially after the Brants had smashed out so many in the previous game.

OTTAWA WINNERS SUNDAY AT HULL Shaughnessy's Homer Helps Beat London by a 6 to 4 Score. Ottawa, June 14.—Ottawa made it three out of four from the London club by taking Sunday's game at Hull. ### CHAPTER XXIV.

THE letter through which the blow fell was not voluminous. It was written on cheap paper in a disguised hand, and the contents covered only half a page. Loder read it slowly, mentally articulating every word; then he laid it down, and as he did he caught Eve's eyes raised in concern. Again he saw something of his own feelings reflected in her face, and the shock braced him. He picked up the letter, tearing it into strips.

"I must go out," he said slowly. "I must go now—at once." His voice was hard. Eve's surprised, concerned eyes still searched his. "Now—at once?" she repeated. "Now—without breakfast?"

"I'm not hungry." He rose from his seat and, carrying the slips of paper across the room, dropped them into the fire. He did it not so much from caution as from an imperative wish to do something, to move, if only across the room.

Eve's glance followed him. "Is it bad news?" she asked anxiously. "It was unlike her to be insistent, but she was moved to the impulse by the peculiarity of the moment."

"No," he said shortly. "It's—business. This was written yesterday; I should have got it last night."

Her eyes widened. "But nobody does business at 8 in the morning," she began in astonishment, then she suddenly broke off.

Without apology or farewell Loder had left the fireplace and walked out of the room.

He passed through the hall hurriedly, picking up a hat as he went, and reaching the pavement outside, he went straight forward until Grosvenor square was left behind, then he ran. At the risk of reputation, at the loss of dignity, he ran until he saw a cab. Halting it, he sprang inside, and as the cabman whipped up the horse responded to the call he realized for the first time the full significance of what had occurred.

Realization, like the need for action, came to him slowly, but when it came it was with terrible lucidity. He did not swear as he leaned back in his seat mechanically watching the stream of men on their way to business, the belated cars of green produce blocking the way between the Strand and Covent Garden. He had no use for oaths; his feelings lay deeper than mere words. But his mouth was sternly set and his eyes looked cold.

Outside the law courts he dismissed his cab and walked forward to Clifford's Inn. As he passed through the familiar entrance a chill fell on him. In the clear, early light it seemed more than ever a place of dead hopes, dead enterprises, dead ambitions. In the onward march of life it had been forgotten. The very air had a breath of unfulfillment.

He crossed the court rapidly, but his mouth set itself afresh as he passed through the doorway of his own house and crossed the bare hall. As he mounted the well known stairs he recalled his first indication of life in the appearance of a cat from the second floor rooms. At sight of him the animal came forward, rubbed demonstratively against his legs and with affectionate persistence followed him upstairs.

Outside his door he paused. On the ground stood the usual morning can of milk—evidence that Chilcote was not yet awake or that, like himself, he had no appetite for breakfast. He snuffed ironically at the idea struck him, but it was a smile that stiffened rather than relaxed his lips. Then he drew out the duplicate key he always carried and, inserting it quietly, opened the door. A close, unpleasant smell greeted him as he entered the small passage that divided the bed and sitting rooms—a smell of whisky mingling with the odor of stale smoke. With a quick gesture he pushed open the bedroom door. Then on the threshold he paused, a look of contempt and repulsion passing over his face.

In his first glance he scarcely grasped the details of the scene, for the half drawn curtains kept the light dim, but as his eyes grew accustomed to the obscurity he gathered their significance. The room had a sleepless, jaded atmosphere that under his own occupation had shown a rigid, almost monastic severity. The plain dressing table was littered with cigarette ends and marked with black ink and tawny patches where the tobacco had been left to burn itself out. On one corner of the table a carafe of water and a whisky decanter rested one against the other, as if for support, and at the other end an overturned tumbler lay in a pool of liquid. The whole effect was sickly and nauseating. His glance turned involuntarily to the bed and there halted.

On the hard, narrow mattress, from which the sheets and blankets had fallen in a disordered heap, lay Chilcote. He was fully dressed in a shabby tweed suit of Loder's; his collar was open, his hair unkempt and unshaven; one hand was flung, grasping the pillow, while the other hung out over the side of the bed. His face, pale, almost earthy in hue, might have been a mask save for the slight convulsive spasms that crossed it from time to time and corresponded with the faint, shivering starts that passed at intervals over his whole body. To complete his repellent appearance, a lock of hair had fallen loose and lay black and damp across his forehead.

Loder stood for a space shocked and spellbound by the sight. Even in the ghastly disarray the likeness—the expression—of Loder's face that had become the pivot upon which he himself revolved—struck him like a blow. The man who lay there was himself, bound to him by some subtle, inexplicable tie of similarity. As the idea touched him he turned aside and stepped quickly to the dressing table. There, with unnecessary energy, he flung back the curtains and threw the window wide. Then again he turned toward the bed. He had one dominant impulse, to waken Chilcote, to be free of the repulsive, inert presence that chilled him with so personal a horror. Leaning over the bed, he caught the sheet nearest to him and shook it. It was not the moment for niceties, and his gesture was rough.

At his first touch Chilcote made no response—his brain, dulled by indulgence in his vice, had become a laggard in conveying sensations—but at last, as the pressure on his shoulder increased, his nervous system seemed suddenly to jar into consciousness. A long shudder shook him; he half lifted himself and then dropped back upon the pillow.

"Oh!" he exclaimed in a trembling breath. "Oh!" The sound seemed drawn from him by compulsion. His meek tone chilled Loder anew. "Wake up, man!" he said suddenly. "Wake up! It's I—Loder."

Again the other shuddered; then he turned quickly and nervously. "Loder?" he said doubtfully. "Loder?" Then his face changed. "Good God," he exclaimed, "what a relief!"

It was indeed so intense, so spontaneous and unexpected that Loder took a step back. Chilcote laughed discordantly and lifted a shaky hand to protect his eyes from the light.

"It's—it's all right, Loder! It's all right! It's only that I—that I had a beastly dream. But, for heaven's sake, shut the window!" He winced involuntarily and pushed the lock of damp hair from his forehead with a weak touch of his old irritability.

In silence Loder moved back to the window and shut it. He was affected more than he would own even to himself by the obvious change in Chilcote.

He had seen his mood, restless, nervous, excited, but never before had he seen him entirely demoralized. With a dull feeling of impotence and disgust he stood by the closed window, looking unseeingly at the roofs of the opposite houses.

Remarkable testimony is advanced by Dr. Isabella Mears, of the Woodburn Sanatorium, Edinburgh, in a letter entitled "The Physical Soldier at the Front." It would appear that several patients suffering from consumption have passed the tests for the new army, and have gained amazing benefits from their subsequent military training and life. The first case instanced is of a man with pulmonary tuberculosis moderately advanced, who had been under sanatorium treatment for seven years ago. He joined the Territorial Force as a soldier in the new army, and is keeping well. A second case had been under observation for five years, and had recurrent hæmoptysis. After four months in a cavalry regiment doing field and trench work the man was splendidly fit, had put on weight, and found it difficult to believe that he had ever been ill. A still more remarkable illustration is afforded by a soldier who was in the sanatorium up to September, 1914, enlisted in October, and was quickly promoted to corporal, and is in splendid health. A newspaper representative, who made inquiries at the Brompton Hospital for Consumption, was informed by an official that they had no such happy results to show with respect to their patients joining the army and getting well. Indeed, there seem to be some scepticism as to the permanency of the improvements in the cases referred to, while the official expression was that there were more cases of men who had gone to the front in good health and through exposure, etc., had developed consumption.

COURIER CUP.

Results: P. S. A. 1, Tutela 0. Holmeale defaulted to Thistles. The finalists for the Courier trophy this year will be Thistles and P. S. A. This was decided Saturday when the P. S. A. club disposed of the holders and Holmeale did not appear to fight it out with the Thistles. The Thistles did not get to the grounds to contest the issue until a week and a half ago and the referee had then awarded the game to the Thistles, who had appeared ready for any event at the appointed hour. Running down the field they scored a solitary lone goal with no opposition and thereby obtained the right of contesting the final issue.

P. S. A. AND TUTELA. The holders of the Cup lost their grasp upon it in Paris where they were represented by ten men, P. S. A. were all out and had lots of determination. Nevertheless they were somewhat lucky to go into the finals for had Tutela been fully represented the score, a very close one, might, possibly have been altered. The Congregationalists were nervous and lost many chances. Tutela stuck to their guns but found the disadvantage too great to be overcome with the result that they were dismissed from the competition, and the record of last year blown to the winds. Tutela will not now be able to celebrate the possession of the three league trophies with a banquet, and the club will be lucky if they can hold a single honor this year.

P. S. A. 1, TUTELA 0. The above teams met at Paris on Saturday, the game resulting in a victory for the Congregationalists. It was not what could be called a fast game, the P. S. A. had missing many chances. Tutela had only ten men out all through the game, but in spite of this they stuck well together. Fisher scored for the P. S. A., thus putting them into the final of the Courier Cup. The P. S. A. football club will hold a practice at Agricultural Park on Wednesday evening, and will hold a meeting on Thursday evening in the basement of the Congregational church.

Bowling

Dominion Day will be a great red letter affair with the bowlers, for that celebration will be held the Brant County Lawn Bowling tournament. This will be the sixth annual affair of its kind, and as it has grown steadily since its inception, this is expected to prove a banner year. Last year, one hundred and forty bowlers participated, and a splendid competition resulted, for their is keen rivalry among the clubs. This is not to be wondered at when the trophies are considered, included among which is the county trophy donated by Mr. Lloyd Harris.

The greens are in fine shape, and are said to be in even better trim than last year. All this is assured, and it was discussed at the meeting of the bowling sportsmen which took place last Saturday, of which Mr. Cohoe was chairman. A goodly amount of routine business was disposed of and the election of officers took place with the result that the following gentlemen were chosen for the season of 1915: Hon. Presidents—Lloyd Harris and W. F. Lockhart, M.P. Vice-Presidents—W. H. Biggar and J. G. Cohoe. Sec'y-Treas.—R. C. Burns. Executive—Messrs D. Adams, J. C. Spence, A. A. Lister, J. A. Laing, Morgan Harris, E. E. Plummer, Dr. Anderson, W. J. McNeilly, J. R. Inksater. Umpires—S. Armitage, Dr. Wiley, R. Inksater, H. Stone, G. B. Wilson, W. R. Turnbull, W. Lahey, T. McPhail, E. E. Tench, F. E. Sheppard, W. Gowman, A. T. Duncan.

An offer of six motor ambulances from the Ontario Government has reached the minister of militia from Hon. Dr. Pyne, acting Prime Minister of Ontario. The offer will, of course, be accepted gratefully.

THE PROBS

Toronto, June 14.—The low area which was centered in southern Minnesota on Saturday moved to Lake Superior and thence eastward with diminishing energy to the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Moderate showers were fairly general in the western provinces yesterday as good rains occurred north of the Great Lakes between Port Arthur and the Ottawa valley, while local thunderstorms occurred further south and in Quebec.

FORECASTS: Light to moderate winds, fine. Tuesday, moderate easterly winds, fine with much the same temperature.

Medical Science

Plays Great Part

"How much may a man eat on a train journey and still not have indigestion?" Such was the problem facing Mr. W. A. Cooper, Manager of the C. P. R. Dining Car System, and this problem he thinks he has solved with the aid of Dr. Harvey Wiley, the well known specialist of New York.

Here, for instance, is a recommended selection of foods for breakfast, luncheon and supper on the Imperial Limited:—

Breakfast—Cereal with cream. Fried eggs with rasher bacon. Corn muffins, cocoa, 8c.

Luncheon—Chicken bouillon. Spanish omelet. Peach and tapioca pudding. Coffee, 95c.

Supper—Mock turtle soup. Lamb chops, bread, rice pudding, coffee, $1.15.

According to Mr. Cooper, one needs on a train journey only about two-thirds of the quantity of food which would be assimilated while engaged in ordinary occupations at home, and describes the overeating on trains as due to a desire for a pleasant interlude on the train journey. This new scheme of "Dietetic Blended Menus" is therefore introduced not with the object of the railway being to secure more money, but to spend less, the object of the railway being to secure contented and not despondent travellers.

With each menu is presented a short homily on food written by Dr. Wiley to the following effect:—

"The four essential elements of food are the proteins or nitrogenous foods, the carbohydrates, such as sugar and starch, the fats, such as oil and butter and mineral matters, such as lime, potash and phosphoric acid."

"The dietetic blended foods on the Canadian Pacific dining car service menus have been arranged so that the traveller in choosing one of these suggested meals will secure a ration which is dietetic, that is nourishing and wholesome and at the same time properly blended. Thus each of these blended rations will supply all of the nutritional need of the traveller and not burden the digestive apparatus with any excess of the essential elements of food. As a result, the traveller will be better nourished, will suffer less discomfort and be in less danger from injury by overeating than he could possibly be if, without expert knowledge of the nature of foods, he should select a meal for himself."

The Charities Endorsement Bureau will abolish tag days in Winnipeg, regarding them as hold-ups.

BRITISH TROOPS TO AID SERBIA

Vast Army Will be Sent Against Austria in August.

Rome, June 14.—The plans of the allies, based on the belief that the Dardanelles will be forced within a month, provide for a resumption of the Serbian offensive against Austria next month. When the strait is forced British and French troops will be released, and it is intended to send them to the Balkans to aid the Serbians. Salonica, on the Aegean, will be the military base for these operations.

The Serbians, who reached the interior of Albania and made an agreement with Essad Pasha, the Provisional President and friend of Italy, are marching on Durazzo and Alessio in conjunction with a large force of Montenegrins. An Italian force now occupies the south of Durazzo, and it is believed that large Italian forces will be sent against Austria through the other port when the Serbian and Montenegrin armies have opened a way.

The occupation of Durazzo and Alessio is expected to-morrow, and it is believed that Scutari will be taken later.

An explanation of the Serbian movement into Albania is given by the Government at Nish in an official statement. It says Albania has been a hotbed of Austro-Turkish intrigue and that Serbia desires to obtain a strip of territory giving her the "little window on the sea" denied to her by the London conference which ended in the first Balkan War.

Scientific

Effects of the War

When the history of this war comes to be written in all its phases, not the least absorbing chapter will deal with the influence of medical science on the fields of battle.

It was with this thought that I went the other day to the Pasteur Institute in Paris to see a man whose life work has had a profound effect in the prevention of disease. This is Professor Metchnikoff, whom all scientists would acknowledge, I think, to be the greatest living bacteriologist.

I found the old man alone in his laboratory. He raised his hands when I asked him to tell me something about the health of the French army and the methods adopted to keep the troops free of disease.

"My business is not with war," he said; "I have seen nothing of that horror; and, as you see, I stay in my laboratory studying my microbes."

For a list of the great scientist spoke of the waste of human life, and this setback to civilization, I could read the meaning of his sadness. All his life has been devoted to the science of preventing disease to the prolongation of human life; but now and again men kill each other, and all the knowledge of science is directed to the means by which the slaughter may be made more rapid.

"Formerly," said Professor Roux, "the number of killed and wounded was comparatively insignificant, compared with the number of those who died or were put out of action by disease. This was seen, for example in the South African War, when the army was swept by enteric fever. But in the present war the very opposite has taken place. The number of killed and wounded is enormously greater than that of men stricken with disease."

This is a great paradox and great irony of modern science. While scientific genius has brought the machinery of death and destruction to astounding perfection, so that men are slain or wounded in prodigious numbers, so has science discovered new means of keeping soldiers free from disease and healing them after their wounds.

As far as the prevention of disease is concerned, the extraordinary immunity from epidemic of the French and British armies is a victory for the Pasteur Institute and men like Metchnikoff and Roux. The principles of Pasteur and the results of all scientific research in this great school of bacteriology have been put into practical use in this war with triumphant success.

DUEL WITH THE BAYONET

In Moonlight a Given Contest Was Fought Out Between the Trenches.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Boulogne, France, June 14.—The story of a duel with bayonets, in which both contestants were killed, is told in a Red Cross report from one of the field hospitals.

"Two miles south of the hospital," says the writer, "a French zouave got separated from his fellows when they retreated after an unsuccessful effort to take a German trench. A German soldier leaped out of the trench and charged the zouave, bayonet fixed. The zouave met his foe in like manner and an extraordinary duel took place. Neither man dared fire for fear of killing his own men."

"It was about nine at night, and the moon illuminated the grim contest. Round and round the men circled. The contest lasted for nearly five minutes, when suddenly both gave desperate lunges which went home. For a second the opponents each stood transfixed by the other's bayonet. Then they fell dead."
