CUSTOMS PROBE OFF UNTIL AFTER ELECTION

NEXT SITTING OF BODY TO BE HELD IN P. E. I. LATTER PART OF SEPT.

Suggestion by W. F. O'Connor That Distillery Operations Be Looked Into Now in Ontario Not Considered

RUM RUNNING ON RIVER, SAYS LUCAS

R. C. M. P. Officer Advocates Mobile Force, Properly Equipped, Be Stationed at Five Central Points in New Brunswick; Syndicates Operating, Says R. M. A.

THE customs probe was ordered discontinued until after the elections by Sir Francois Lemaux, presiding judge, at the end of the morning session today, with the next sitting of the Royal Commission in Prince Edward Island, the latter part of September. W. F. O'Connor, K. C., Ottawa, counsel, suggested that the inquiry might continue its sittings in Ontario, looking into the findings of auditors regarding the operation of distillery companies, but His Lordship declined to consider this.

Lack of cohesion between the departments combating rum-runners and the recent growth of smuggling up the Saint John river, coupled with a suggestion that a mobile force of men be stationed at five key positions in New Brunswick, acting under the direction of a chief officer for the province, featured the evidence today by Detective Sgt. Fred Lucas, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Mr. Calder made a statement this morning to the effect that C. B. Lockhart, Collector of Customs here, said he wished to correct his evidence in regard to his advocacy yesterday of a reduction of the duty on liquor. Mr. Lockhart said he advocated a reduction to $2 a gallon and not by that amount.

FILES LETTER. Miss Frances Alward, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association in New Brunswick, filed a letter with the commission, declaring that she was of the body that smuggling of goods on a large scale was carried on by syndicates in the United States with consequent depressing effect on trade in New Brunswick.

ONE HEAD FOR N. B. Witnesses this morning strongly recommended appointment of an acting head for New Brunswick. As an instance of difficulty encountered arising from this lack of control, Sgt. Lucas told of one case where he received a telegram in code from Ottawa to endeavor to make a seizure of two vessels of Lepreau. He secured two customs officers and motored down there at night. Meeting one auto, he recognized Mr. Lynott, from St. George's, and another car, which was detailed to watch the same case. Further along the road, he met a car containing Mr. Davies, another officer, on the same job. None of the three knew about the others and had they not recognized each other, it is quite likely they might have spent some time chasing each other.

SMUGGLERS USE FORCE That men in the smuggling business would not stop even at using force and intimidation to achieve their nefarious ends was brought out in the testimony of William J. Carr, now of the C. P. R. staff but formerly engaged in patrol work along the American coast. Giving one instance, he said he was ordered by the railway to proceed to a northern point in New Brunswick where a car had arrived but with no person known there to whom the bills were addressed. It was found the car contained 4,000 gallons of denatured alcohol. The first night it was opened but the thieves were chased away. He was on duty alone the next night and was told by the sub-collector at the place that the gang would be there at 1:30 o'clock to unload and that he desired to wash his hands of the entire affair. Soon after midnight, the station door was kicked in and he was assaulted by one of the men. He, however, placed him under arrest and the others decamped. Later, he had the freight car taken to Saint John but it was followed from St. Leonard's through Grand Falls to Aroostook by seven men in a car. He managed to secure an engine and rashed the car to Woodstock, outwitting the pursuers.

WRITS WERE QUESTIONED At the opening session today G. Percy Stewart, customs officer, was recalled and produced his writ of assistance. He gave three cases where his writ was held to be insufficient and the cases dismissed. The registrar was instructed to write for copies of the judgment in these cases.

FISHERMEN IN BUSINESS John J. McDonald, inspector of customs for the eastern section, concurred in suggestions made by Inspector Hoyt yesterday. He told of fishing vessels being engaged in carrying cargo to shore from rum runners, and said that the clearance regulations sid-

Opening Ceremonies of Saint John Exhibition Saturday Evening; Mayor Chief Speaker

TOMORROW night will see the culmination of the efforts that have been put forth for weeks by the members and officials of the Saint John Exhibition Association to prepare for the big fair of 1926. The doors of the newly constructed entrance to the main buildings will be thrown open and the turnstiles will begin to click as patrons pass through to participate in the opening ceremonies. These will take place at 8:30 o'clock in the main building.

The chief speaker will be His Worship Mayor White. There will be other addresses and a program of orchestral and vocal numbers. Preparations are coming along very fast, it was said this morning by H. A. Porter, general manager of the exhibition, who was busy at the fair grounds getting things in order for the opening. Exhibitors were asked to have their goods ready at the fair of previous years with their exhibits, Mr. Porter said.

OPENING PROGRAM. The official opening will take place tomorrow evening in the main building, commencing at 8:15 o'clock and the program will consist of speech making and orchestral and vocal music. F. A. Dykeman, president, will preside and the fair will be opened by His Worship Mayor White. The province will be represented by Hon. Lewis Smith, Minister of Agriculture. No arrangements have been made as yet with the local bands in regard to furnishing music at the fair.

INVITATION BY RADIO. Tonight there will go through the air from Moncton, a call from Saint John to the people of the Maritime Provinces to make this city their objective next week, and participants in the pleasure and the educational features of the big exhibition of 1926. The call will be broadcast by President F. A. Dykeman of the Exhibition Association, who will speak from the C. N. R. radio station. Mr. Dykeman will leave here this afternoon for Moncton to carry out this plan, which was approved by a novel manner of reaching many people in outlying places with an invitation to come to Saint John for the week of the fair.

GOOD ANIMAL SHOW. The live stock exhibit this year is attracting a large number of visitors and there is expected to be a good exhibit of the beef class and better competition in the hogs than ever before. The swine department has also attracted many entries, attention being paid particularly to the bacon hog. A good entry list has been received for the exhibition and poultry departments and the attention is given in the latter to the classes for registration and approved performance points.

AMUSEMENTS. In regard to the amusement features, special acts have been secured that will provide thrills, laughter and general entertainment for the large crowds. The midway will have many features, it was said, and there also will be dancing in the dining hall each evening, the tables being removed to provide the space for this form of entertainment.

250 DOGS TO BE SHOWN. There will be about 250 dogs in competition at the annual show of the N. B. Kennel Club which will be held in conjunction with the exhibition. The entries closed last Monday and the supplementary list last night. There will be between 40 and 50 outside dogs here and the competition for the Canadian Kennel Club cup given for the best dog or bitch is expected to be keen. The cup has arrived here and is a handsome trophy. There also will be a cup for the best of each breed, in all about 44 cups, valued at $800.

Australian Movie Star Seeks Divorce. SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 2.—Louise Lovely, a well known film actress, has taken action for divorce against her husband Wilton Welch, to whom she was married in 1912. Miss Lovely, who was Australian born and now considerable fame in the United States, returned here in 1924 and has since made a few films under her husband's direction.

2 Shot, 1 Wounded in Battle With Gunmen. GARY, Ind., Sept. 2.—Two men were shot and killed and a patrolman received terrible injuries and was taken to a hospital yesterday. The shooting was probably a result of a pitched fight with police ended a series of hold-ups by two youthful gunmen.

RUM-RUNNER TAKEN. Evelyn D., Bound For Nova Scotia, Captured Off Miami; Jail Released. MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 3.—The auxiliary schooner Evelyn D., of Spanish registry, with 1,000 cases of liquor aboard, was brought into Miami harbor under escort of a coastguard patrol boat. The captain, Ernest Haycock, and the crew of seven, were put in jail.

Eight Killed in Michigan Crash. Interurban Cars Collide on Curve Near Monroe; Injured Total 26. MONROE, Mich., Sept. 2.—A death toll of eight has resulted from a head-on collision of two Detroit, Monroe and Toledo Shore Line interurban cars, near here yesterday, and additional deaths are feared from the list of 26 persons injured.

TORRENTIAL RAINS DAMAGE CROPS IN WEST. Rivers Turned Into Ragging Cataracts; Highways Inundated. BRIDGES WRECKED. Many Districts in Manitoba and Alberta Flooded by Heavy Downfall.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 3.—Several bridges washed away, irrigation ditches flooded, many highways inundated, rivers turned into raging torrents, and a week's delay to harvesting operations, constitute the toll of torrential rainfalls which prevailed in practically all districts of Alberta the first half of this week. Southern districts reported cloudbursts, with resultant damage to crops and highways. A six year record has been broken by the heavy deluge.

ONE WEEK'S DELAY. It will be early next week before harvesting can be resumed in Manitoba. Conditions are much more favorable for resumption of harvesting operations in Saskatchewan. This province has not experienced the continuous rainfall of the other two western provinces. Reports from Edmonton early today, said that the Macleod River, west of the capital, was a raging torrent, and that several bridges in the city districts, had been washed away. Coal shipments were at a standstill, while railway gangs were in an effort to relieve traffic.

BUBONIC OUTBREAK ADDS TO DISASTER. Two Die of Plague in Azores; Quake Razed 1,500 Houses; Killed 25. HORTA, Azores, Sept. 3.—There have been four cases of bubonic plague and two deaths from the disease since last Tuesday's disastrous earthquake, in which it is estimated 1,500 houses were destroyed and at least 25 persons were killed and several hundred injured. The governor of the islands, who also is a physician, said today that the general situation was satisfactory and that the two remaining bubonic victims had been isolated.

MINERS MAKE FIRST MOVE TOWARD PEACE. Authorize Executive to Submit Proposals for New National Agreement. BRITISH UNITED PRESS. LONDON, Sept. 3.—Now that the striking miners have decided to take advantage of Churchill's friendly gesture and have made the first move toward peace by authorizing their executive to submit proposals for a new national agreement, the likelihood of public peace is thrown upon the attitude of the mine owners, they still insist that they must have district agreements varying with the requirements and capacity of the various mining areas.

CELEBRATES CENTURY. CHICOPEE, Mass., Sept. 2.—Mrs. Almatia Bennett will be 100 years old September 8, and on that day will keep a six year date with an aviator to fly over Portland, Maine in celebration of the event.

VAUDEVILLE GIRL GOING STRONG IN CHANNEL SWIM. Mrs. C. Corson. "Miss Maclaren" of London, is Out to Beat Gertrude Ederle's Record. BRITISH UNITED PRESS. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The theatrical producers who have signed a contract with Mrs. Clemington Corson, the second woman swimmer of the English Channel, announced that she will make her first American public appearance Sept. 17 in a New York vaudeville theatre.

UNITY OF EMPIRE AT STAKE WHEN IMPERIAL CONFERENCE MEETS, IS FRENCH VIEWPOINT. London Daily News asserts that this is interpreted in Australia as a "straight from the shoulder declaration of Australia's attitude toward any move that will weaken the links of the Empire."

EMPIRE AND DECLARES, "IT CANNOT BE SAID TOO OFTEN THAT THE UNITY OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE IS AT STAKE." In the same article Quotidian says, "the Canadian Liberal party, which includes half the adult male population of Canada, wishes to limit or rather to annul the prerogatives of Dominion Governor-Generals and also asks that each Dominion shall have its own diplomats and shall not be involved in international affairs except upon its own will and motion."

Did It For Her Kiddies

Miss Maclaren, may claim superiority in the matter of endurance swimming. Scores of men have attempted the swim from the French coast to Dover, or vice versa. Of this large number but five have navigated the stretch successfully when Mrs. Corson succeeded.

THE Canadian Bar Association at its final business session here this morning, re-elected for the eleventh consecutive time, Sir James Aikins, lieutenant governor of Manitoba, as president. Sir James thus has the unique honor of being the head of this organization ever since its inception.

THE association today also declined to take any action on a proposed resolution expressing regret that the Canadian Parliament had passed a resolution requesting His Majesty the King to confer no more titles or like honors on Canadian subjects. In the absence of Hon. Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Judge J. A. Forin, of Nelson, B. C., presided at this morning's session.

ULTRA-FEMINISTS SCORED. An address of interest, punctuated by frequent humorous passages was delivered by Miss Mary P. Lathrop, of Denver, Colorado, a member of the bar of that state and the first woman member of the American Bar Association. Her talk had to do with the law affecting women and children and during its course she expressed her hearty disapproval of the ultra-feminist movement in the United States and scored the many societies which had adopted it.

BEHIND THE RESOLUTION referring to titles, the resolutions committee decided not to report one which recommended.

AIRPLANE BURSTS INTO FLAMES; 2 DIE

Man and Woman Fatally Burned in Accident at Leatherhead, Eng.

LEATHERHEAD, Surrey, England, Sept. 2.—A small airplane nosedived and burst into flames at Bookham, near here last night. Of the three occupants, a man and woman were burned to death, and were unrecognizable. The third, a man named Keene, received terrible injuries and was taken unconscious to a hospital. Nothing is known as to the identity of the airplane.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 3, 1926.

TAXATION AND ASSESSMENT.

It will be assumed that the Mayor and Commissioners had definitely decided upon a thorough investigation of the present system of assessment, taxation and collection before the presentation on Thursday of the petition signed by more than 3,000 citizens asking for an enquiry of this sort.

When the Mayor and Commissioners are urged to show enterprise in promoting the expansion of the city in various directions, to make greater public improvements, to give a lead in placing Saint John on the front street, they naturally consider the long continued outcry over taxation and ask where, under such circumstances, the additional money is to be found.

SMUGGLING—WHY NOT?

If we are to judge by the evidence heard at the Saint John session of the Royal Commission investigating the Customs Department with particular relation to smuggling, it may be assumed that one of two things is certain either that the preventive forces must be increased in number and greatly sharpened in efficiency, or that smuggling, already a most formidable enterprise, will grow and flourish exceedingly.

Whiskey is purchased in Scotland for perhaps fifteen dollars a case and whiskey legally sold on prescription in the Maritime Provinces costs from $4.50 to $6.75 a quart. The margin of profit to be made on smuggling whiskey brought in by sea is so great, and the risks of conviction under the present system are, generally speaking, so slight, it is inevitable that not only large numbers of shrewd, elusive and adventurous men should be engaged in smuggling, but also that such operations should be financed on a great scale.

In Canada, and to a still greater extent in the United States, the smuggling and distribution of liquor has attracted millions upon millions of money seeking a high return, money controlled by gentlemen who are not at all particular as to the color of the transactions in which they engage so long as the prospects of high profit are good.

Not long ago the Dominion Government appropriated an extra $350,000 for the purpose of controlling smuggling. If we are to judge by the evidence before the Lemieux Commission, the additional machinery set up by reason of this amount was by no means effective, to put it mildly. It is quite clear that five times $350,000 would prevent extensive smuggling unless the army of defence so organized were of much higher calibre than that at present engaged, and unless it were able to employ much more advanced methods by sea and land. This question naturally arises: If the Federal Government, in its desire for easy revenue, continues to put a high premium upon smuggling, what is the use of spending that revenue, and perhaps more, in seeking to counteract the effect of the premium so established?

Fame cuts both ways. It must be nice to be acclaimed a cross-Channel swimmer, but surely it takes the gift of the gingerbread for a girl to be told that amongst the factors contributing to her success are "flat, broad feet that are almost as good as fins, enormous broad shoulders, a flat back and large hands," and further, "besides this she is fat!"

If arrangements can be made so that traffic congestion at the corner of Charlotte and Princess streets would be relieved by rounding off the north-west angle, the Cameron garage proposal would take on a much more inviting aspect. As a matter of fact, traffic, which has increased very rapidly in density within the last two or three years, and which is bound to go on increasing, already calls for the rounding off of corners not only at Princess and Charlotte but in many other parts of the city, and public safety demands close consideration of this whole problem.

Professor Albert Edward Wigman says: "Beautiful girls make the best wives. We need to educate our boys to know real beauty, to go beneath the paint and powder and look at features, the shape of the face, the poise of the head. We ought to teach them to know real beauty like a houseman knows a thoroughbred. When a woman has a beautiful face and figure she is sure to be healthy and intelligent." And just after he has worked the lads up to an enthusiastic agreement with him and got them registering vows to forego their usual diet of lipstick and talcum, he lets them down flat with: "Beautiful figures are becoming obsolete today and a real beauty is as rare as a genius. There is only one truly beautiful woman in every 4,000." Assuming the professor to be accurate, why tantalize the men left inconsolable by each beautiful woman who becomes a wife? Or does he advocate polyandry?

Odds and Ends

Work (Henry Van Dyke in Public Opinion.) Let me but do my work from day to day, in field or forest, at the desk or loom, in roaring market-place or tranquil room. Let me but find it in my heart to say, "Then vagrant wishes beckon me astray. This is my work; my blessing, not my doom; Of all who live, I am the one by whom This work can best be done in the right way." Then shall I see it not too great, nor small, To suit my spirit and to prove my powers; That shall I cheerfully greet the laboring and cheerful turn, when the long shows fall! At eventide, to play and love and rest, Because I know for me my work is best.

Kept Them Separate. The smart young man with the Oxford accent went into a tailor's shop in the west end of London and ordered six new suits of clothes. After fitting he had been fixed the tailor said: "As this is the first time you have dealt with us we shall require a reference."

Leaders Wanted Now (Financial Post.) Surely Canada is not lacking in the ability to breed statesmen of equal calibre to solve the problems of sixty years after. Surely we have leaders to enforce upon our sluggish minds the second confederation that is needed; a union of Canadian thought to make more effective the union of Canadian peoples that the leaders of '67 gave us.

No Need to Worry (Toronto Globe.) The secretary of labor of the United States has warned western Canada against the administration of Orientals. He need not fear, however, that the next generation of them will knock at Uncle Sam's door as Canadians. Unless the Canadian authorities change their population classification they will still be Orientals.

Golfers' Dangers. A man who had grown suddenly rich was going around the Walton Heath golf course accompanied by his wife. He got into a bunker, and after his forty-seventh shot his wife said: "If yer go on like this, every one'll think yer workin' 'em."

"But the raven, never sitting, Still is sitting, still is sitting!" —From the Weekly Dispatch, London.

Queer Quirks of Nature

GOOSE-FISH IS A GLUTTON.

Half a dozen wild ducks make a good meal for him. By AUSTIN H. CLARK. USUALLY from three to four feet long and weighing up to 45 pounds, rarely even as much as 70, the dark brown goose-fish is familiar to all who live along our shores from the Gulf of the St. Lawrence to North Carolina.

The Political Fray

Liberal (Edmonton Bulletin.) Hon. Hugh Guthrie invites the public to forget the $22,000,000 per year which the Robb Budget chopped off the tax bill and fix attention on the important fact that the Robb Budget was a failure. Every man to his liking. If anybody would rather snuff at something that smells bad than consider which party policy is the better for the country, that is his privilege. The choice is free and the opportunity ample. The report on the administration of the Customs department was prepared by the official employees of the Mackenzie King Government for that purpose. The nature of the report is all the evidence needed that it was intended to disclose the facts, not to whitewash anybody's record. All Mr. Guthrie and his friends would not negotiate with the United States for terms that would enlarge the market for Canadian products is a proof of weakness and unreasonableness that should not commend itself to the manufacturer any more than it does to the agricultural community and those dealing in the natural resources of the Dominion. The United States is one of the largest if not the largest potential markets in the world. Every other country but Canada is eager to gain admission to it on terms that would give an advantage over trade rivals. But Mr. Meighen, the acting premier of Canada, is not willing to do this. He is not willing to do this because he is not willing to do this coming from that country. He wants it to be known that while he is premier this country does not stand ready to do business with all-comers.

MEIGHEN AND THE U. S. (Toronto Star.) At Mr. Meighen's Calgary meeting the Conservative leader was asked whether the United States was not willing to negotiate a trade treaty with Canada. His answer was: "I am not making trade treaties with the United States. On trade matters Canada should hold her own row."

LIBERALS AND PROGRESSIVES (Toronto Mail and Empire.) It appears from Mr. King's speeches that when Progressives supported him in Parliament they were guilty of "dishonest co-operation," and when they supported the Conservative party in Parliament they were guilty of "dishonest co-operation." The logic of the argument will be more apparent to Mr. King than to the electorate.

KING AND PROGRESSIVES (London Free Press.) Last election Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King was busy on many platforms denouncing the Progressives. Now there is nothing but honeyed words for the Progressives. What do the thousands of Conservative farmers in Ontario, who honestly joined the Progressive party, think of the efforts to make them a tool to elect Mr. King premier?

POEMS I LOVE

"On a Fly-Leaf of Burns," by Frederic Lawrence Knowles.

THIS poem has always captivated me. No one could have said it better—a remarkable criticism of Burns in rhyme. One whole volume of the Harvard Classics is made of the poems and songs of the Scottish singer. It is possible that not all of them deserve to live as true classics; yet it would be hard to cast out any of them. Thus Burns goes on, while earlier and later poets perish, a weaver of songs that appeal not only to intellectuals but to the lowly common folk of all nations whom Burns loved.

These are the best of him, Paths and jest of him; Earth holds the rest of him. Passions were strong in him—Fardness of him; Hark to the song of him!

DINNER STORIES

MR. MILLERTON, who is a great deal of a hypochondriac and enjoys looking forward to the end, was in an especially depressed mood one evening when he gave some thought to the question of a second marriage for his wife.

"Harriet, my dear," he said, gloomily, "when I am gone from this vale of tears, you must marry again. It is my dearest wish."

"William," observed his wife, with a faint smile, "no one will marry an old woman like me. You ought to have died fifteen years ago for that."

HERB'S another version of what Pat said to Mike: "Begorra," said Pat, "why do you feed your pigs one day and starve them the next?"

"Shure," said Mike, "an' don't I loike a strake of fat equally divided with some lean?"

THE newspaper headline writer entered his home and was greeted portentously by his wife and little son. "George had been a naughty boy today," said his mother. "I am obliged to ask you to punish him."

The headline writer turned a reproachful glance upon his offspring. "My boy," he began, "this hurts me more than—"

But son interrupted: "Probe me, pa, before you say me!" he cried. "Lad, Nine, Scents Plot in Mother's Charge. Hints at Conspiracy. Fears Clash."

Just Fun

IRATE FATHER—"You impudent puppy! You want to marry my daughter? And, tell me, do you think you could give her what she's been used to?"

The Sultor—"Er—yes, I think so, sir. I've a very violent temper myself."

LOQUACIOUS BARBER (after a good half-an-hour of it)—"And what would you like on your hair, sir?"

WEARY customer—"My hat—just as soon as you can manage it!"

MORE power to you," said the farmer, as he dropped the raisins into the cider barrel.

"A H, dry up," said the dish wiper to the dishes.

"HOPE you liked those queer little Chinese backscratchers I sent you, dear."

"It's that what they are? Mercy! I've been making my husband eat his salad with them."

CHEMISTRY THE MAGICIAN (New York Evening Post.) Are the world's supplies of raw materials running short? Never mind, chemistry will find the substitutes. Synthetic rubber from petroleum is to relieve the worries of the tire-makers and the automobilists. Exhaustion of the forests has no terrors for these folks. The impending dissolution of the atom is going to solve the world's power problems. All this sounds fantastic and visionary; but there is a solid foundation for most of these speculations. Dorothy Dix Isn't It Strange? Most of Us Will Do Anything for Our Families and Friends Except Write to Them—Yet All of Us Delight to Receive Letters We Never Answer.

CONCERNING letter-writing, our sins are those both of omission and commission. Perhaps the greater of these is the sin of omission. At any rate, it is the more frequent. It is strange how most of us hate to put pen to paper and what an ordeal we consider writing a letter to be. Rather than do it we will risk losing friends and alienating the affections of those who love us.

DOROTHY DIX

As long as our friends are within speaking distance of us we are quick to express our sympathy with their misfortunes and our happiness in their good luck. But if we have to write a letter of condolence it is another pair of sleeves. We are as silent as the grave, and they might have as many troubles as Job or break the bank at Monte Carlo without getting a line out of us.

Indeed, it may be said of most of us that we will do anything for our friends and families except write to them.

WE WILL help nurse them when they are sick. We will take care of their children when they go off on a trip. We will go miles out of our way to haul them around in our cars. We will take a success, we will show our interest and love for them in any manner except by corresponding with them. If they move away where we have to communicate with them by mail that ends it all.

In the first spasm of being parted we may nerve ourselves up to the heroic effort of writing a letter or two, but our morale soon breaks down and we cravenly succumb to our old dread of the ink pot, in which is drowned so many a friendship.

WE SAVE our conscience by thinking that we will write to Mary or John or the Smiths or the Browns tomorrow, but we never do. Not because we are not just as fond of Mary and John and the Smiths and the Browns as ever, and as eager for news of them, but because we can't get our courage up to writing to them.

If, as the proverb says, "Hell is paved with good intentions," then the land of lost friendships is covered over with the letters that were never written.

IT IS pitiful to think how much love is lost for the sake of a two-cent postage stamp. It is humorous to think that we will gladly spend hours in serving our friends when they are present, but we will not devote ten minutes to writing to them when they are absent. And it is strange to think that we so hate to write letters and are so dilatory about writing them when we adore getting letters ourselves and are so appreciative of even a line that is sent us on some anniversary or a note of condolence or congratulation, while a long newsy letter when we are away from home makes us feel as if we had been presented with a diamond tiara and filled us with commensurate gratitude.

The real criminal sinners among the nonletter writers, however, are the men who never write to their mothers. There are men not otherwise cruel or hard or callous who do not write to their mothers once a year. Some who never write. And strangely enough they do not seem to realize how heartless they are.

THEY are busy, absorbed in their own affairs, and somehow they do not remember that there are lonely old women in dull little villages or on isolated farms, whose chief interest in life are the boys they have sent out into the great world, and that these gray-haired old mothers watch day by day, week by week, with a hopefulness that never dies, for the letters that never come.

They would be satisfied with just a line to say that their Tom or Bob was well. They would cherish even a brief dictated note that showed that Tom or Bob still remembered them. But a real letter written by their Tom or Bob telling what he was doing, full of love, warm with memories of his boyhood, would make them feel like queens. They would read such a letter over and over again. They would brag of it to their neighbors and they would keep it between the pages of their worn old Bibles until the next one came.

Chief among the unforgettable sins that many a man will have to answer for at the judgment bar is the fact that he made his wife write all of his letters to his mother.

SOMETIME, letter-writing seems to be one of the things in which it is difficult to strike a happy medium. You seem apt to take it too much or leave it entirely alone, and you are either afflicted with pen paralysis or else you are cursed with a flowing fountain pen that never knows when to stop.

The sin of commission in letter-writing is perpetrated far oftener by women than by men, and especially are women prone to the vice of writing love letters, than which there is no greater folly on earth.

Let a woman sit down with a fair sheet of paper under her hand, a good pen and unlimited quantities of ink, and the things she will write to a man for whom she has no real affection, to whom she is not engaged and of whom she knows virtually nothing, make her guardian angel turn away his face and throw up his job.

THE hankering for high faluting writing, the desire to be sentimental and romantic, is too much for her, and so she pens burning billet doux which a man shows to his fellows to prove what a sheik he is, which chambermaids read with scowls and which often the girl's father buys back at a high price.

There are two letters which should be kept on ice for twenty-four hours after they are written. One is the love letter and the other the letter that you write in wrath. Then neither would be mailed and much repentance saved.

ANOTHER sin of commission is to write doleful letters, letters telling your troubles. They are killers that bring unnecessary gloom to those who receive them. Yet there are those whose idea of an interesting letter is to recount every death, sickness, failure and scandal in their community. Don't write while you are in a black mood, for your correspondent cannot possibly know that by the time your letter has reached its destination you have cleared up and are as jolly as a sand boy.

THEY say that the art of letter-writing is becoming a lost art. It is a pity, for next to the voice of those we love is the letter that comes straight from their heart and which often the girl's father buys back at a high price.

PASSING THE DUCK

SEE SAWING ON BROADWAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—An obscure Italian woman died in Manhattan's crowded East Side the other day. Outside a tenement encompassed area of a few blocks her name was unknown. And yet the funeral cortege was one of the most elaborate this great city has witnessed.

It required 100 men to carry the floral tributes and if stalwart youths to bear a single huge decoration for the grave. What then had this unknown done to receive from a humble, squalid neighborhood such tributes as adorn the caquet of a Valentino?

Just this—Marie Longobardi, "angel" of Sullivan street, owned 15 East Side tenements and had never once raised her rent.

Several times organized campaigns have been undertaken to rid the business of this class of harp, whose Shylockian methods are incomprehensible to one who has not been a victim.

Menus for the Family

By Sister Mary

THIS may seem anti-climax to one who sits reading in his comfortable library or living room. But the milling millions of the New York tenement belt come to view some landlords as giants and dragons were viewed by the folk of legend and fairy tale. Here the bare problem of living presses hard. An entire family, with its offspring of cousins and aunts cluttered together in a couple of rooms. Every able-bodied member of this group must work and bring in his and her portion. In late years rents have been boosted along the tenement lanes and highways, as elsewhere. The little savings set away for this item dwindle and leave nothing for the rainy day.

What then when there is someone who seeks only a minimum rental; who does not press for collection upon the first of the month; who helps the needy ones within her dwelling, who becomes known for charity, rather than greed? Rarely, indeed, does it happen, but when it does all the East Side, with its babel of tongues, hears of "an angel" and "a fairy princess."

And such was the obscure Italian woman who died on Sullivan street.

THE East Side, as a matter of fact, is always lavish with funerals and weddings. The family may plunge itself into debt for years to come but a mother, wife or child is buried with due elaborateness.

The living may not eat well for many a month, but the dead are certain of pomp and dignity, well beyond the means of all concerned.

Many are the "absters" funeral practitioners who have taken advantage of the East Side's poor, literally binding

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaels

Be sorry for the other chap when troubles come his way, be sorry when he meets mishap and cares that vex his day. Be sorry when he falls to gain the prize that was his goal, be sorry if his forces wane, his nerves lose sure control. Your kindly word may lend him aid, may lift him up again when he has faltered, sore, dismayed, girt round with doubt and pain. Your cheer may be the touch he needs, the bit of tenderness to heal the open wound that bleeds, to lessen living's stress. Be sorry when he meets mishap or lacks for friends or fails, be sorry for the other chap, but never for yourself! Deny it not to friend or foe, grant it to Satan's self, give pity as through life you go, but never to yourself!

BEHIND THE SCREEN

By DAN THOMAS

DOROTHY Phillips is returning to her first love—the stage—via 5,000 feet of celluloid film. She is playing the role of a vaudeville knife thrower's wife and stage partner in "Upstage." Upon this story of life behind the footlights hinges Miss Phillips' future. Its success means hers—its failure, also hers. That Dorothy senses this crucial moment is evidenced by the manner in which her publicity campaign is being conducted.

Until a few weeks ago Dorothy never had posed in a bathing costume. This sort of art didn't appeal to her and she declined to use it as a means to advance her position in screenland.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

But recently photos of Miss Phillips in a tight fitting bathing suit were given to her press agent. One feels an air of desperation. The publicity is so essential, it must be obtained—even in a bathing suit.

The name Dorothy Phillips was heard by the public for the first time in 1908 when she made her debut on the stage as Modest in "Evergreen." She spent three years behind the glare of the footlights and then moved to Hollywood and the still brighter glare of Kiegor.

Personality is Dorothy's strongest asset. Her cheerful smile and frank eyes are captivating. It is this quality upon which the most depend to a large extent, although her beauty is not to be spurned—not by any means.

SCREEN BEATS STAGE

They were working on the set as we talked. Little Lorraine Rivero, age three, her daughter in the picture, was executing a fell from a balcony. She was caught in a blanket in mid-air but yet was timid about taking the tumble—and what three-year-old wouldn't be?

Personality is her greatest asset

But Lorraine has a true movie streak in her—she loves applause. It was because of the acclamation given her by all on the set that she gathered courage for the fall.

Contrary to most persons who have played on the stage and in pictures, Miss Phillips prefers pictures. "I like pictures because they permit more home life," she says. "Except in rare cases I have my evenings free. There is none of that on the stage. Of course there is a certain glamour and excitement about stage life that I like here. But the additional home life is worth it."

Let us wish her success.

SIR D. HAZEN DENIES THAT MARITIMES DESIRE SECESSION

APPEALS TO BAR ASSOCIATION TO FOSTER UNITY

250 Guests Dine at Admiral Beatty; 11th Annual Dinner

"THERE is no truth whatever in the statement that the Maritime Provinces desire secession, that they want to break the ties that bind them to the rest of the Dominion," thundered Hon. Sir Douglas Hazen, K. C., M. G., Chief Justice of New Brunswick, at the eleventh annual dinner of the Canadian Bar Association, held in the Georgian ballroom at the Admiral Beatty last evening, at which Sir Douglas was chairman.

The speakers of the evening, seated at Sir Douglas' table, were: Rt. Hon. Lord Darling, of Langham; Rt. Hon. Hugh P. MacMillan, of Edinburgh and London; Hon. Charles S. Whitman, president of the American Bar Association; Maitre Georges Chrestell, representative of the Bar of Paris; Stuart Jenks, K. C., of the Nova Scotia Bar and M. L. Hayward.

BALLROOM DECORATED.
The ballroom was lavishly decorated for the banquet and upwards of 250 baristers of the Association, distinguished guests, and prominent citizens of Saint John were in attendance. During the dinner a rousing chorus, accompanied by a three-piece orchestra under the direction of M. Courtright Ewing, were sung. At the conclusion of the dinner, the baristers were joined by many ladies. Earl Spencer, Canadian barister, and Dr. Henry Dunlop was accompanied. Sir Douglas, in his opening remarks, spoke of the honor he held the council of the association had conferred upon him by asking him to preside at the banquet. He reviewed the Canadian bar's former meetings of the Canadian bar and said that none was more successful than the one which was to come to a close today. He remarked that the association was a powerful agency for good in the Dominion, and that it had helped tremendously to bind the various parts of Canada together. Sir Douglas said he would join with Mayor White in extending the most cordial of welcomes to the delegates.

UPHOLDS TITLE BAN
TORONTO, Sept. 2.—"I think that the abolition of titles was one of the best things the Canadian Parliament ever did," Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general of Ontario, declared today in commenting on the resolution deploring the ban on titles for Canadians which was adopted by the Canadian Bar Association convention in Saint John. It was on the motion of Hon. Mr. Nickle, then federal member for Kingston, that the Dominion Parliament in 1919 petitioned the imperial parliament against the bestowing of further titles on Canadians.

NEEDS FOR REMEDY.
"There are things in the Maritime Provinces, and indeed in Canada, that need to be remedied," Sir Douglas said, "and one of them is that there is no truth in the statement that the Maritimes desire secession. There is no part of Canada that is more loyal to the British flag and His Majesty the King than the Maritime Provinces." This called forth continued applause from the audience.

Sir Douglas briefly reviewed the history of the separating of New Brunswick from what is now Nova Scotia. He referred, in a few words, to the history of the Supreme Court in New Brunswick and said that the founders of the court in New Brunswick had fought wholeheartedly for the crown. The chairman reminded his audience that the standard for admission to the New Brunswick Bar was now as high as that of the other provinces. He paid a glowing tribute to Sir James Aikins, president of the association, and to Lord Darling, whom he then introduced.

LORD DARLING SPEAKS.
Lord Darling spoke briefly but his characteristically witty remarks delighted his audience. He was greeted with deafening applause when he rose to speak. Lord Darling spoke of the intense pleasure it had afforded him to be present at the convention and wished its president and the association itself many years of continued prosperity and happiness.

In introducing Hon. Charles S. Whitman, president of the American Bar, Sir Douglas compared his eloquence and statesmanship qualities to those of former President Taft, of the United States, who addressed the Bar Association at a former annual gathering.

MR. WHITMAN SPEAKS.
Hon. Mr. Whitman lauded the speakers who had appeared before the convention. He administered the two nations, Canada and the United States, to be true to themselves and the world, showing the world, he said, the magnificent spectacle of two glorious peoples united in righteousness and fair play.

Learn To Dance "The Valencia," Latest Dance Craze

HERE is the Valencia, the newest and most popular dance, which is rapidly replacing the Charleston in ballrooms and on the stage.

Want to dance it? Of course you do. These pictures show you how.

The pictures were especially posed to illustrate the distinctive steps of the Valencia for NEA Service and The Times-Star. Prof. Robert Burns of Cleveland, one of the country's leading dancing masters, tells just how to do it, according to the pictures. Read his instructions below, check them with the numbered illustrations above, turn on the radio, get your partner and try it. Here goes—

1. Start the dance in the ordinary closed position, the man with his left foot advanced; the woman following with her right. Go into an ordinary dance walk.

2. After three or six steps of the walk, the man kicks forward with his right foot well clearing the floor. His partner kicks back with her left foot, and both balance for an instant. As they swing back to the floor, they turn upon the balls of the feet on which they balance.

3. This brings them to the first half of the "balanced turn." This position can be maintained for a few steps, if desired.

4. In the second half of the balanced turn, the dancers go back to the normal position through the medium of the walk. This is done naturally. Then they resume as they did at the start of the dance.

5. After a few steps of the walk the kick step is repeated; this time, however, the feet on which the dancers balanced before are raised. The dancers should poise only long enough to assure their equilibrium, then return to the floor.

6. With a little practice, the dancers will then be able to swing directly from the kick into the "balance back" of the familiar tango. If preferred, however, two intermediate steps may be taken before going into this position.

7. With the feet in place, the dancers then sway the other direction and balance forward as in the tango. From this they go into the normal position—and they have completed the steps of the Valencia.

insupportably loyal to eternal justice, the justice of God. Mr. Whitman was rendered tumultuous applause on resuming his seat.

PARIS DELEGATE TALKS.
Maitre Georges Chrestell, of the Paris Bar, was introduced to the gathering by Sir Douglas as a man of proven merit, both in the arts of peace and the arts of war, as shown by the presentation of the Croix de Guerre to him during the recent Great War.

RECEIVES OVATION
Rt. Hon. Hugh P. MacMillan, former British advocate-general, received an ovation when he rose to speak. He said he was very grateful to the Bar Association for their wonderful entertainment at their social functions and the liberal education he said he obtained at the business sessions. "I shall take home with me a very great sense of my indebtedness to you all," he said, "and my strongest wish is that your country and mine become even better known by each other."

M. L. HAYWARD SPEAKS.
M. L. Hayward, of Hartland, N. B., kept his hearers in a continual state of mirth as he sketched, for nearly half an hour, the wit and humor of the New Brunswick bar.

seconded that Sir James Aikins be authorized to request and name three members of the Quebec Bar for the purpose of bringing in a report on the Trustee law of that province, so that there will be before the Association a complete statement of the law of all provinces as to the laws governing trustees.

MR. JUSTICE MELLICHAMPE
Hon. Mr. Justice Mellichamp, of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, addressed the session on "Some Phases of Admiralty Law." In his opening remarks he said that he had always looked forward with most pleasant anticipation to these annual meetings of the Canadian Bar Association.

MR. JUSTICE MELLICHAMPE
Mr. Justice Mellichamp dealt briefly with the question of maritime salvage. Francis King, K. C., Kingston, Ont., submitted a statement of the work done at the conference of Commissioners on Uniformity of Legislation in Canada, held prior to this annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association.

D., Prime Minister and Attorney-General of New Brunswick, also spoke at the luncheon.

PREMIER SPEAKS
Premier Baxter in a brief address said that he trusted that the visitors had felt the welcome extended to them a spontaneous one and had prospered to some extent by their contact with this part of the Dominion. He spoke of

MR. STEWART SPEAKS
Hon. Mr. Stewart, at the conclusion of President Whitman's address, referred in highly complimentary terms to the ability of the American visitor and moved that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered him for his excellent address. He also moved that the distinguished visitor be made an honorary life member of the association. The motion was seconded by R. J. McLennan, K. C., of Toronto, and passed unanimously.

U. S. BAR GREETING

President Whitman's admirable address and said that his presence at the convention had added much to the pleasure and brilliance of the various association functions.

Following the luncheon and before the afternoon business session began, moving pictures of the delegates were filmed in front of the hotel.

"By Appointment" Losing Exclusiveness

LONDON, Sept. 2.—(United Press)—London dealers sometimes secure quite easily the coveted seals of the King, Queen or Prince of Wales, displayed in store windows following patronage of the shop by these members of the royal family.

The Prince of Wales, who always chooses his own cigars and cigarettes, recently went to a shop near St. James street and made several purchases. His orders were completed and he was leaving the shop when an idea struck him.

"By the way," he called out to the shopkeeper from the doorway, "if it would do you any good to hoist those three feathers over the doorway, you're quite welcome."

The astonished owner lost no time in displaying the seal of the Prince of Wales with the inscription—"By Appointment."

BEAUTIFUL GIFT.

Among the many handsome gifts received for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Clarke and forces Harold Speight, was a beautiful silver service, which was presented to the bride by her former associates in the employ of the New Brunswick Telephone Company.

A COMPLETE SERVICE

The Art of Illustrating

In these modern times, there are so many things to design or illustrate—so many styles of art that can be used—that no artist could hope to be expert in them all.

To a company such as The Gazette, that gives a complete service, the answer is, a number of artists, each an expert in certain techniques.

From a simple mechanical design in black to a beautiful painting in oils—no matter what it is to be drawn, no matter what medium is asked for—The Gazette has the best artist for the type of work you specify, at its disposal.

If the finished work is to be in keeping with the illustrations, fine art needs fine engravings; the printing, electrotyping and book-binding must be of high standard also.

When The Gazette is entrusted with the complete preparation, the master craftsmen in every department work together, keeping in mind the perfection of the finished work.

Result?—You expect better work—and get it.

Gazette representatives are trained and have an intelligent knowledge of Gazette service. Write or telephone, and one will call upon you.

Girls Who Work

A GIRL who earns her living—whether in store, office, factory or home—realizes the necessity of regular attendance at her place of employment. For this reason she works on day after day. She is exposed to all kinds of weather. Her feet are often wet. She suffers from such minor ailments as headache, backache, cramps or pains in her side. When these things are allowed to continue, some more serious ailment usually develops.

Do you know that thousands of girls have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just the help they need? It relieves pain and congestion, strengthens the system, and restores the girl to a normal physical condition which makes her fit for work. These two women testify to that fact.

Healthy, Strong Now
Salem, Oregon.—"I am writing to tell you how much your medicine has helped me. Beginning when I was 14, I suffered for five years with cramps. I had pains in my back, both sides and in my limbs, and my stomach was always upset at those times. I had to lay off from work for four to five days, almost every time. I was doing canning work, ransing, sealing, etc., but had to quit work when sick as I would be so weak I could hardly walk across the room. I tried all kinds of medicines without help, so a woman friend of mine told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have found relief every time while sick and it helps me more each time. Every one says I am a healthier and stronger girl. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to all my friends."—JULIA SCHMIDT, 652 North Front Street, Salem, Oregon.

Like a New Person
Newark, N. J.—"I was troubled with pains in my back and was tired and drowsy with sick headaches. When I was sick I would have dreadful dragging-down pains, and I must have looked badly from what they told me. I was single at the time and had to give up work. At that time I ran a sewing machine in a shoe factory. I doctored with some of the best doctors in Newark, and they advised an operation. My cousin told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after I had taken five bottles of it my troubles were gone and I felt like a new person. Now my daughter is taking it for similar troubles and I recommend it whenever I can."—Mrs. H. BRACON, 512 15th Avenue, Newark, New Jersey.

Such letters should induce all women who need it to try this famous medicine. Sold by druggists everywhere.

MEANS TO PREVENT SMUGGLING IN N. B. REVEALED AT INQUIRY

Witnesses Tell Royal Court Customs Staff Here Is Inadequate

REVELATIONS of a startling character regarding means taken to protect New Brunswick's indented coastline from smugglers with the existence of rum rows off the Wolves, Shippegan, Miscou, Buctouche and Port Elgin coupled with many instances of where orders were received from Ottawa to release seizures made and take no action with no reasons given whatever, were made before the Royal Commission investigating the customs department of Canada yesterday in the Court House here with Sir Francois Lemieux, Chief Justice, presiding.

How Moses Aziz, whose name figured prominently at the customs inquiry at Ottawa, handled all the correspondence for customs preventive officers on the North Shore, although at the time twice convicted for smuggling and once convicted under the prohibition law was given the Commission by G. Perley Stewart, special customs officer in charge of the counties of Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland, Kent and Westmorland.

So many irregularities cropped out in the evidence of the customs officers that Mr. Calder casually remarked that he was trying to give His Lordship an idea of the situation to which Sir Francois promptly replied that if counsel stopped where he was he had amply informed him of the real conditions.

WITNESSES EXAMINED. Witnesses examined yesterday included Mr. Lockhart, Inspector A. L. Hoyt, L. W. Simms, president of the Saint John Board of Trade; F. W. Roach, A. Fred deForest, F. W. Coombs, G. Perley Stewart, J. E. White, William P. Dawes, Charles H. Lynott, Alexander Crawford and W. L. McFarlane.

THE CHARM OF YOUTH Resinol lingers in a clean skin. Experts advise soap and water. Let your soap be Resinol.

Drayton on Inquiry. Canadian Press Despatch. OTTAWA, Sept. 2.—"I have not seen Sir Francois' statement," remarked Sir Henry Drayton, acting premier, today.

He was asked to comment on the utterances of Sir Francois Lemieux, chief justice of Quebec, who is conducting a continuation of the customs probe. Sir Francois is said to have protested against requests that he carry the customs investigation forthwith into various parts of Canada and to have added that "during the turmoil of an election campaign is not a proper time to hold such an investigation."

"Sir Francois is right in saying that this investigation should not be held for political ends," added the acting prime minister. "I believe and hope that it will not be. That is all I can say at present."

AIRPLANE PARACHUTE IS SUCCESS

The latest invention for aircraft safety, a monster parachute to support the entire airplane as well as the pilot, was tested and proved a success at Inglewood, Calif., by R. Carl Ouse, who flew to a height of 6000 feet and then let the parachute bring his ship down. The upper picture shows the parachute in action; below are J. M. Russell, inventor of the device, B. Doucett, U. S. navy official, and Ouse, after the test was completed. The stunt was financed by Jesse Lasky, head of the Famous Players-Lasky moving picture organization.

large scale was evidenced by the story of witness after witness. As in the Nova Scotia hearings the smuggling of liquor was the main feature of the hearings yesterday, but evidence of the illicit traffic in American cigarettes was offered by one witness. A. F. deForest, of Saint John, declared to the commissioner that cigarettes from the United States had been offered to him at less than the amount of the duty which should have been paid upon them. He described how people brought American plug tobacco to him to be cut up for pipe use.

SYMPATHY IS ANTI-DRY. The commission was offered a variety of evidence in regard to the liquor traffic. One witness declared that the sympathy of the people of Canada was against prohibition enforcement, and consequently customs officers found it difficult to enforce the law.

CUSTOMS REWARDS. In his evidence at the afternoon session, Inspector Hoyt recommended that in order to properly protect the frontier that in addition to the officers now stationed, there should be an automobile patrol service in the summer and a mounted police service in winter.

AUTO PATROL SUGGESTED. Asked for suggestions to improve matters, Inspector Hoyt recommended that in order to properly protect the frontier that in addition to the officers now stationed, there should be an automobile patrol service in the summer and a mounted police service in winter.

MR. SIMMS TESTIFIES. L. W. Simms, president of the Saint John Board of Trade and also head of the T. S. Simms Co. Ltd., told of an experience he had had on the Woodstock-Houlton highway last week when it was with difficulty he found the Canadian customs officer to which to report. The officer there did not even examine the car, Mr. Simms said.

SERVICE UNDER-MANNED. F. W. Roach gave it as his opinion that the preventive service was greatly under-manned and that there should be a mobile force patrolling the frontier and sea coast. He said he did not think collectors should be called on for preventive service.

TOBACCO SMUGGLING. A. Fred deForest, tobacco merchant operating three stores in Saint John, told the inquiry that there was quite a widespread trade in smuggling of tobacco. He told of offers being made to him to buy cigarettes and tobacco at rates much below the duties. He said the inroads on his trade were considerable and said he believed the smuggling was done by the coming ashore from schooners. It has been acute since the excise tax was raised, he added.

CARS SNEAKED IN. F. W. Coombs, automobile dealer, told His Lordship that he had seen

BEAVERBROOK SCHOLARSHIP TO WEST END BOY

Harold J. Williamson One of Five to Receive Awards

The trustees of the Lord Beaverbrook scholarship, Hon. Mr. Justice Crockett, P. B. Ellis, with S. D. Simmons, secretary, held a meeting on Thursday to consider the 81 applications for five scholarships, each of the value of $250 a year for the full college term of four years.

The awards were as follows: Miss Doris M. Saunders, Fredericton; Harold J. Williamson, West Saint John; Lawrence E. Coffey, Moncton; Robert M. Jennings, Newburg Junction, Carleton county, and Adelaide S. Geldart, Riverside, Albert county.

Lawrence Coffey will take his college course at Dalhousie. The other four will attend the University of New Brunswick.

Lord Beaverbrook first awarded these scholarships in 1920 and the five now named make a total of 86 awards, a special having been included in the 1924 awards.

To date 20 of the scholarships have been given to boys and sixteen to girls.

Mr. Williamson is a son of J. Stafford Williamson, 228 Charlotte street, West Side, and a graduate of the Saint John High School.

Miss Georgia C. Hayward, formerly of Saint John, but now of Ashville, N. C., is spending a few weeks in the city.

son and that in these cases, seizures had been smuggled into the province without payment of duties. This was particularly heavy in 1923, most of the cars being stolen and many of them with forged papers.

SEIZURE OF 'KING DANIEL'. Being recalled, C. B. Lockhart, collector here, referred to the seizure of the "King Daniel" here in 1921. This was where liquor was loaded on board with an undertaking that it would be landed at Nassau. Some days later, the vessel was seized and the collector demanded double duty payment from a local exporter but later instructions came from the Minister of Customs to discontinue action against the Saint John exporter. The ship, however, was fined $300.

ARCH-CRIMINAL FREED. Mr. Calder remarked that here was a case where the arch-criminal, as it were, got off free, while the man he had hired paid the penalty. "This is one of those matters to be taken up at Ottawa later to reduce these proceedings to logic," Mr. Calder said.

LIQUOR SMUGGLING. G. Perley Stewart, special customs officer under the chief preventive officer, W. F. Wilson, said he had been given charge of Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland, Kent and Westmorland counties, although the officers there reported direct to Mr. Wilson. He said the run-runners came in schooners lying about three favorite spots, off Shippegan, Buctouche and Port Elgin. The cargo was brought ashore in motor boats at thinly populated spots and from there carried inland in automobiles. He suggested these waters be made territorial waters. There were four men watching about 400 miles, he said. This liquor comes from St. Pierre, Miquelon, and Newfoundland.

AZIZ FIRED. The interesting feature of Mr. Stewart's testimony came when he told of being approached by Moses Aziz, well known in connection with customs inquiry at Ottawa, and told by him that he was handling the correspondence of a customs preventive officer on the North Shore. Mr. Stewart said he had promptly reported the matter to Chief Preventive Officer Wilson at Ottawa with a result that the secretarial duties of Mr. Aziz were brought to a close. At that time Aziz had been convicted twice of smuggling and once under the prohibition law. He said that in several cases it was held that he was not an excise officer owing to the wording of his commis-

Two Boys Are Hit By Automobiles

About 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon Charles, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alward, Sydney street, when riding on the rear of a wagon, jumped off near the corner of Sydney and Broad streets and ran in front of a Searle Taxi Company automobile, driven by Bert Best. The driver applied the brakes quickly but before the car came to a stop the little fellow had been hit. He received severe bruises on the side of the face. Dr. D. C. Malcolm was called but found that, other than bruises, the boy was not seriously injured.

At 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a small boy ran from the German street curb in front of an automobile and conveyed immediately to the General Public Hospital. A report from the hospital was to the effect that the boy was only slightly injured.

ONE WAY ST. PLAN TRIED LAST NIGHT

South Side King Square Traffic Condition is Given Another Test

Last evening at 8 o'clock, before the squad of police left headquarters, an order was read by Inspector Thomas Caples from Chief Smith to the effect that the south side of the King square would be made a one-way drive last night with entrance at Charlotte and no entrance from Sydney street. The new order was given Sergeant McLeas and Police Constable McMillen, who was placed as traffic officer on the corner of Sydney street and the south side of the square.

There was a program of music on the King Edward bandstand and as usual automobile traffic was large.

For several nights during a band concert Chief Smith had witnessed considerable congestion of cars in this section of the city and as a consequence gets 90 cents as share. J. E. White, acting collector of customs at Bathurst, told of activities in his district. He said once he seized a ferry boat plying between Shippegan and the mainland for carrying contraband liquor.

This ferry was subsidized by the Provincial Government. The seizure was made in 1924, Mr. White said. He said he visited this section and went to see the ferryman who told him he could not speak English. He stayed there and later seized three 10-gallon kegs of rum, he received exactly 90 cents as his share. The share should have amounted to at least 25 per cent.

The informer got nothing while the boat later was ordered released without deposit by Ottawa. Incidentally, witness said, he paid most of the expenses out of his own pocket.

LIQUOR CAMOUFLAGED. Charles H. Lynott, St. George, told of liquor being camouflaged and sent away in cars as laths, Christmas trees and sardines.

Alexander Crawford, former prohibition officer and now of the customs branch, said smuggling interfered with enforcement of the prohibitory law and gave instances.

W. L. McFarlane, chief inspector of the prohibitory forces in the province, said there was no co-operation between the customs and provincial departments in regard to prevention and advocated closer relations in getting after law-breakers. This completed the afternoon session.

NOW PART OF LEGION

Carleton Branch of G. W. V. A. Takes Action—Plans For Fair Are Discussed

The Carleton branch of the G. W. V. A., last night constituted itself the Carleton branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, in conforming with the action taken by the provincial command of the G. W. V. A., at its convention held this summer at Fredericton. That convention constituted itself as the provincial convention of the Canadian Legion of the B. E. S. L., and all of the G. W. V. A. branches in the province except one voted for this movement, the Carleton branch being one of those which took this step. By unanimous vote last night the former officers were returned for the new organization. Six new applicants were received.

C. H. Cochrane, the president, laid considerable stress upon the fact that it was the duty of all returned men, both as soldiers and as citizens, to become affiliated with the new organization and it was decided to organize a membership drive. Plans were made for further activities, one of which will be the holding of a fair in the near future.

Dr. and Mrs. L. deV. Chipman, Coburg street, are leaving today on a motor trip to Kentville and other points in Nova Scotia. They expect to return to the city on Monday.

FAIR VOLUME OF BUSINESS IS REPORTED Brazilian, Still Leader in Point of Activity, Is Slightly Down PRICES AT WALL ST. OPENING IRREGULAR. Railroad Shares Continue in Good Demand; Steel, Motors Fractionally Lower

Canadian Press MONTREAL, Sept. 3.—There was a fair volume of business on the local stock exchange at the opening this morning, with stock prices generally displaying a downward trend. Brazil was the leader in point of activity, was off an eighth at 114, Shawinigan and an eighth at 116, and Laurier was off a half at 83, and Laurier at 101 1/2, was off a quarter. The Power issues were firm and unchanged, the old common selling at 48, and preferred at 50. Winnipeg Rails advanced five-eighths at 57, and Car preferred moved forward a half at 82 1/2. Alcohol was off an eighth at 20 1/2. The rest of the list was quiet.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Stock prices moved within narrow and irregular limits at the opening of today's market, continuation of the usual pre-holiday readjustment of speculative accounts. A great demand was still apparent for the railroad shares, with the Western carriers favored in the early dealing. United States steel common, General Motors and a number of other popular industries opened fractionally lower.

Brokers' Opinions NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Fenner & Smith, who have been active in the market, holds up well under considerable profit taking and appears to be headed for still higher prices. "The noted improvement in business has modified immediate signs of a reaction and there remains every reason to believe that for the time being stock prices will prevail." Clark Childs—Leading steel producers expect much larger activity in the next sixty days than they dared to predict even at the middle of August. Hornblower & Weeks—"We would take advantage of any slight reaction, that may occur by buying railroad stocks, and especially Atchafalaya, among the high-priced issues. Hold utility stocks, Brooklyn Edison, Con. Gas and Brooklyn Union Gas. Copper stocks are illiquid for an advance. Buy the leading stocks." Money market—Money is tight for a further rise in stocks. But, demand for steel exceeding any recent year for this season. Money rates easing, but not likely to go off much. High trade bills are being bought by the "knowing ones."

Ostrich Plume Prices Jump During Rush

British United Press. LONDON, Sept. 3.—Wealthy women have made a bargain counter rush on Mincing Lane, because the feathers are expected to be the fashion on women's fall and winter hats. Owing to the sudden demand for the feathers, American, British and French women outbid each other Thursday in spirited competition. Prices were sky-rocketed by these auction sale methods, the prices on the various grades jumping 25 to 50 per cent.

SNOWDEN CRITICIZES C. P. R. APPOINTMENT Declares McKenna's Acceptance of Directorship Conflicts With Banking Interests British United Press. LONDON, Sept. 3.—The criticism by the Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, of Mr. McKenna's acceptance of a directorship in the Canadian Pacific Railway Company which appeared in a recent issue of "The Banker," is arousing the liveliest discussions in financial circles here.

McKENNA SILENT Mr. McKenna, requested by British United Press today, to make a reply to Mr. Snowden's criticism, stated that he did not intend to present to any newspaper the press. It is obvious, however, that such strong criticism from former British chancellor of the Exchequer cannot pass unheeded, even though Mr. McKenna himself feels under no necessity of making a reply.

BANKER REPORTS ERA OF EXPANSION IN CANADIAN WEST

Banker Reports Era of Expansion in Canadian West. The Middle West has some 2,000,000 people where 30 years ago there was practically no one. As in British Columbia, it is obvious that the people and energetic to a degree to have achieved so much. To sum up the situation as I see it, the vital thing, for us Canadians to keep in mind is the necessity of team play. No one of the five sections of Canada can accomplish much as a separate unit. We must and we will work out some improved scheme of co-operation, so that the Dominion may achieve the best results.

SNOWDEN CRITICIZES C. P. R. APPOINTMENT Declares McKenna's Acceptance of Directorship Conflicts With Banking Interests British United Press. LONDON, Sept. 3.—The criticism by the Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, of Mr. McKenna's acceptance of a directorship in the Canadian Pacific Railway Company which appeared in a recent issue of "The Banker," is arousing the liveliest discussions in financial circles here.

McKENNA SILENT Mr. McKenna, requested by British United Press today, to make a reply to Mr. Snowden's criticism, stated that he did not intend to present to any newspaper the press. It is obvious, however, that such strong criticism from former British chancellor of the Exchequer cannot pass unheeded, even though Mr. McKenna himself feels under no necessity of making a reply.

RICH PRAIRIE PROVINCES As for the prairie provinces, they might well and without exaggeration be described as the richest of all gold mines, and the comparison is appropriate when one stops to consider that these provinces produce of wheat and other crops a total exceeding in value the world's total annual output of gold by two hundred and seventy millions of dollars. The estimated value of the field crops of the prairie provinces for the year 1925 was $600,000,000. Gold mines become exhausted, but farm lands can produce forever.

SPLENDID HARVEST Harvesting is now sufficiently well advanced in the prairie provinces to permit of the crop being estimated with reasonable certainty, and taken as a whole, it will at any rate be well up to last year in quantity, and above the average in point of quality. Further, there is reason for believing that it will command satisfactory prices and that, therefore, the returns to the farmers as a whole will again be large. It should not be forgotten, however, that while grain growing is still the chief source of revenue in the prairie provinces, and will continue to be so for many years, the farmers now have many important supplementary sources of revenue. It is worth noting that the raising of dairy and poultry, raising and even honey production are now important industries in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, so much so that not only are local wants being provided for but dairy products are being exported in increasing quantities. WATERMEN AT MONCTON TOMORROW IN FIRST OF TITLE SERIES

SECOND GAME IS CARDER HERE FOR LABOR DAY

Armstrong Likely Choice for Opening Game on Saturday

The first of the play-off games for the New Brunswick amateur baseball crown has been carded for Moncton on Saturday afternoon when the Water Department team which clinched their honors in Saint John last night by defeating St. Roses, will meet the C. N. R. team of Moncton in the opener of a three-game series. The second game of this series will be played here on Labor Day.

In their battle for honors last year, the Watermen found the going the Maritime title rather easy, save for one mark, and that was Moncton. The railway city crew gave the locals plenty of worry in both games. In the one here, Wall had the locals helpless until the final inning when Charlie Gorman's bat drove over the tying and winning runs. In Moncton they had to fight hard also for the decision. The C. N. R. team this year is a strong one and will give the locals lots of opportunity to display their knowledge of baseball.

Manager "Jimmy" McLeod has not made known his pitching choice for the opening game, but it is likely to be young John Armstrong, whose hurling has been one of the sensations of the year. Hannah will pitch here on Labor Day. This is one of the best attractions the locals could arrange for the holiday and a big crowd is expected. It is likely now that the other semifinal will be played between the winner of the Miramichi league and the York county league with the winner of that series meeting the Moncton-Saint John winner in the final. On paper, it looks like the Watermen again, while in New Brunswick it seems like either Westville or Springhill.

BRADY AND FIFIELD ARE HERE FOR BOUT

Working Out in Armories—Preliminary Card Good

Both main bout performers for Wednesday night's boxing programme have arrived in town and are reported in good shape for next week's boxing fixture. Brady, the Syracuse welterweight, who is to meet George Fifield in the final bout, came in on the Montreal train yesterday. The balance of the card looks attractive with Earl Penny, of the West Side, meeting Bobby Mason, of the East End and Gordon Paris, the sensational local welter, hooking up with the redoubtable Mickey Larraby, of Portland. Larraby comes here with an excellent record and is booked to fight on Sept. 9 at Corinna. Numbered among his opponents are some of the best welterers from in and around Portland. Jack MacKenna, of Cape Breton, is expected at the ring-side to challenge the winner of the Brady-Fifield go.

Water Department Captures City Baseball Championship

Take Deciding Game of Series by Defeating St. Roses, 9 to 5—Murphy's Pitching Ineffective—Many Fans See the Game

THE Water Department baseball team clinched matters as far as this local section is concerned by decisively triumphing the St. Roses' by a 9 to 5 score last night on the East End grounds in a game which produced as weird a combination as has been seen around here for some time. The class of ball displayed was a mixture of brilliant, good, bad and indifferent and to complicate matters, the fans were treated to warm, fine, rainy and threatening weather throughout, to say nothing of the military and stalling tactics employed by both outfits in the closing inning.

The losers brought their ace "Bunk" Murphy to the mound and his long hayoff did his arm no good as far as could be judged by his performance in two and one-third innings, for he was touched up for seven safeties and issued five bases on balls. It was quite apparent that his wing was in very bad shape. Ira Hannah twirled for the Watermen and pitched steady ball except in the third stanza. This session upset him pretty badly as four runs were rashed across the plate mainly through six hits, five of them very scratchy and to the infield. Only two other bingles were made off his delivery and he kept the enemy well in hand.

MILES WINS OVER HAWBOLDT IN RACE PICTOU, N.S., Sept. 2.—At the Highland Bretnar and Natal Day celebration held here yesterday, Johnny Miles, Marathon champion, demonstrated his superiority as a five-miler over Jimmy Hawboldt, who defeated Miles at Antigonish in July, in a five-mile race. Miles started at a rapid pace and maintained it throughout, double-lapping the rest of the field save Hawboldt, whom he defeated by three-quarters of a lap. Miles' time was 29 minutes 57 seconds. Charlie Macdonald, of the Wanderers Club, Halifax, established a new Maritime record for the one mile run, covering the distance in 4 minutes and 31.4 seconds. The previous record was held by Barney Francis, whose time was 4:32.

LA BARBA BESTS MILNAR PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 3.—Fidel La Barba, Los Angeles featherweight, was last night awarded the referee's decision over Paul Milner, St. Paul, in an eight round boxing bout here.

TWO GAMES NOW

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The distance between the St. Louis Cardinals and their pursuers in the National League, has jumped to a two game margin over Cincinnati and three games over Pittsburgh, as the result of one moist day. While the Cardinals were taking two games from Chicago, 2 to 0, and 2 to 1, rain halted the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati fray after three and a half innings. Thus the weather man took a hand in the stirring race for league honors and by one shake of his water bucket, doubled for the leaders the first place margin they have battled for so bitterly during the week. Rain also stopped the Boston-New York game, only other contest scheduled in the league.

HOULTON, Me., Sept. 2.—Ribbon Cane (2:03½) rather upset the talent today by outracing Bessie McKiyo (2:01½) the Fresque lile pacer in the free-for-all, the feature event of the racing at the Houlton Fair today. The Medford (Mass.) pacer outshaded the McKiyo mare in two fast finishes, having plenty of speed, showing a quarter in 80½ seconds in the first heat. El Verso (2:05½) the Fort Fairfield gelding carried the field in every heat well up to the last turn and won the last heat. Ribbon Cane getting away to a bad start.

ROTARY CLUBS OF PROVINCE WILLING TO AID

Word From Two Relative to Plan for Crippled Children

SURVEY SHOWS MANY NEED ATTENTION
 Information Received up to Aug. 25 Showed 631 Cases

H. Mont Jones of the Saint John Rotary Club has received replies from two of the other New-Brunswick Rotary clubs expressing willingness to cooperate in the proposed campaign of the Saint John club on behalf of the crippled children of the province. One of the clubs is at present lending its efforts to the institution of a public library but will take up the Saint John suggestion later.

Mr. Jones who is chairman of the Crippled Children Committee of the Saint John club has explained comprehensively to the other Rotarians of the province the scheme conceived here of making a complete survey of New Brunswick in co-operation with the Junior Red Cross and the public school authorities acting under the direction of Chief Superintendent of Education, Dr. W. S. Carter.

MANY NEED ATTENTION
 Through the medium of the schools information received by Mr. Jones up to August 26, shows 631 cases needing attention have been culled from among the school children of the province. Already 1,000 teachers of the 2,200 approached by questionnaire have replied and the summary compiled gives the following figures—Canada: 1,000; 183; speech, 86; deaf, 29; deaf and dumb, 10; tonsils, 66; mental, 82; miscellaneous, 419.

These cases are divided among the counties as follows: Albert, 18; Carleton, 27; Charlotte, 41; Gloucester, 100; Kent, 60; Kings, 86; Madawaska, 46; Northumberland, 85; Queens, 82; Regipouche, 40; Saint John, 89; Sunbury, 7; Victoria, 21; Westmorland, 45; York, 56. The figures given are for various disabilities in general and not particularly the crippled ones, though that ailment tops the list, and it is upon these little ones that Rotarian effort is being focused.

SAINT JOHN PLEDGES $1,500.
 The idea of the Saint John Rotary club in entering upon this work in conjunction with the Junior Red Cross is to give a province-wide survey of the use of the $1,500 pledged several weeks ago towards a three year campaign. It was felt such a wide survey was entered upon efficiently or economically if isolated cases only were selected for treatment. It was preferred to get behind a movement that would spread the benefits of Rotary participation all over New Brunswick and with that purpose the Saint John club is seeking the co-operation of sister bodies. It is expected the clubs throughout the province will make proportionate money grants.

THE PLAN
 The general plan as crystallized is to have the five Rotary clubs in New Brunswick work together with the Junior Red Cross in a three-year program in the hope of curing or at least helping every crippled child in the province. It is planned to divide New Brunswick into five districts, each district to be administered by a joint committee of Rotary and Junior Red Cross. The Junior Red Cross is to look after details and office work and Rotary to give personal and collective interest, financial aid and general co-operation. While this plan is still open to modification, upon conference with other Rotary clubs, it is felt it will be the lines upon which the effort will be put forth generally.

MISS LAWSON TO HELP
 Miss Jessie Lawson, provincial supervisor of the Junior Red Cross, will lend her trained effort to facilitating the plan to the Saint John Rotarians by visiting the outside clubs and familiarizing them not only with the details but with the needs of crippled children of the province as a whole.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the opening of the falls, creating a "water running up river."

At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river, that the "fall" of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

At half tide, when the level in the Bay and river are about equal, the Falls disappear entirely, and the water flows smoothly across the surface of a lake.

So fully appreciate this wonder of the world, you should see it at all stages.

The best time to view this phenomenon is:

GAME POSTPONED

First Match For N. B. Title Off Owing to Death of John Armstrong's Father

The sudden death of the father of John Armstrong, Water Department pitcher, last evening has upset plans somewhat for the series between Moncton and the Watermen for the semi-finals of the New Brunswick title. The first game was set for Saturday at Moncton, but this has been called off. The second game, carded for here on Monday, still is on, according to word late this afternoon. Reference to the matches is made on the sport page.

BUT BRIEF TIME ILL

J. Walter Armstrong, Taken Ill Last Evening, Dies This Morning

The death of J. Walter Armstrong occurred, after a brief illness, this morning, at his residence, 184 Adelaide street. He was taken ill suddenly last night and died early this morning. He was 55 years of age, and worked for many years at Christie's woodworking shop. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. Hugh Cunningham and Mrs. William Walling, both of Saint John, and the sons are Walter C. Harold F. and John R., all of Saint John. A brother, James, of Moncton, and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Letterson, of Saint John, also survive.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence.

C. Wesley Warnock Dies in Brookline

Word was received in the city last night of the death of C. Wesley Warnock at his home in Brookline, Mass. Mr. Warnock was the son of the late James Warnock and stepson of Nancy Warnock, of West Saint John. He left Saint John 35 years ago, and was located in Boston with the Gilchrist Company and by perseverance and integrity he rose from office boy to the position of manager, and later was manager of other large mercantile stores in Minneapolis and Kansas City. Of 25 years he was in business for himself in Boston. He is survived by a wife, who formerly was Miss Lillian E. Bartle, of Saint John, and one sister, Mrs. Arthur E. Harris, of Swanton, Mass.; his stepmother, Mrs. Nancy Warnock, of Saint John; also five stepbrothers, Mrs. Alexander Scott, Mass.; his stepmother, Mrs. J. S. Williamson and Mrs. Joseph Irvine, all of West Saint John, and Mrs. W. A. Tatterson, of St. Paul, Minn., and three stepbrothers, John, of Manawash road; William, of West Saint John, and Gordon, of Cambridge, Mass.

The funeral will be held from Brennan's undertaking parlors, Paradise row, tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Fernhill.

WATER MAIN BURST

A city water main under the sidewalk in front of the Royal Hotel burst this morning about 8 o'clock and flooded the boiler room of the hotel. It was said that two expensive generators were destroyed by the water. A crew of men were busy this morning pumping out the water, following which repairs will be made.

IN HONOR OF VISITOR

A number of friends of Miss Margaret Brown of Waverley, Mass., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. A. Brown, 229 City Road, held a dance on Thursday evening in her honor. Games and music were also enjoyed and refreshments were served. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. W. Brown, Miss Hazel Roberts and Miss Marion Brown.

STREET WORK

The New Brunswick Power Company is expected to start today the work of grading the street railway tracks in Ludlow street, West Saint John in preparation for the paving of the street. The civic department of public works had four gangs of men out today repairing asphalt pavements in various parts of the city.
