

The St. John Local Council of Women

Moncton Lady Warmly Received — Mrs. Oman to Deliver Address — Judge Murphy Asks for Information.

A largely attended meeting of the executive of the St. John Local Council of Women was held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade room. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, president, in the chair. Miss Ryan, of Moncton, was present and brought the greetings of the Moncton Council to St. John. She was given a warm welcome to the meeting.

A letter was received from Mrs. C. J. Oman, vice-president for New Brunswick of the National Federation of Women's Institutes, accepting the invitation of the Local Council to address them, and setting March 22 as the date when she would come. Arrangements were made to hold the meeting on the afternoon of that date in the Board of Trade rooms and all women will be invited to hear Mrs. Oman's interesting and instructive address on the achievements of the Women's Institutes.

Mrs. Parsons, corresponding secretary of the National Council, wrote calling attention to the annual meeting to be held in the twin cities of Port Arthur and Fort William, June 30 to 30.

Judge Murphy—"Jenny Canuck"—wrote asking for information in regard to what was done in New Brunswick to care for the orphaned children of negroes, and the following committee appointed to secure the information and forward it to Judge Murphy: Rev. George Scott, Miss Cora Sinclair and Miss Grace Robertson.

A number of letters had been received by members of the council from overseas calling attention to the visit of Mrs. Proulx, a member of the International, who is visiting America to gather information relative to the work done on the continent and to attend the Pan-American Congress to be held in Baltimore in April. Mrs. Proulx will arrive in the city on the Melita and will be given a St. John welcome by the members of the council. The matter of having her address a public meeting was talked over and the president, Mrs. Smith, in view of the many public meetings being held and the scarcity of hall space, asked the Natural History Society to be allowed to substitute Mrs. Proulx for herself on Tuesday evening, on which date she was to lecture. Her request was acceded to and the visitor will speak on that evening at eight o'clock. After the lecture a reception will be held for Mrs. Proulx, and refreshments will be served. The committee for this part of the programme is under the convener'ship of Mrs. G. W. Campbell.

Mrs. A. W. Esey reported having received a cheque for $10 from Mrs. Herbert Phillips, for the milk fund. Arrangements were completed for the annual meeting which will be held on Friday, March 31, afternoon session at 2 o'clock and evening session at 7:30.

The matter of funds for the council was discussed and the president offered to give a travelogue, the proceeds to be devoted to the council work.

C. P. S. Corsican Here Yesterday

Had Extremely Rough Voyage — Among Passengers Were Shipwrecked Crews of Newfoundland.

The C. P. S. liner Corsican arrived in port, early yesterday morning, from Antwerp, Southampton and Hayre and docked at No. 2 and 3 berths. The steamer had an extremely rough voyage over from Southampton, and as a consequence was delayed four days in arriving at St. John. She brought 85 cabin and 277 third class passengers, all of whom were sent forward to their destinations yesterday afternoon. Among the passengers arriving on the Corsican were the crews of the two Newfoundland schooners, Optimist and Ellen Lake, which foundered in the Atlantic, during the month of January last. Both crews had had long, experiences while being tossed about on the cold waters of the Atlantic, before they were picked up by the steamers which sighted their signals of distress.

Captain G. H. Norworthy of the Ellen Lake gave a graphic account of the suffering and tortures through which he and his crew passed before they were finally rescued. The schooner was about 200 miles off the coast of Newfoundland on Jan. 29, when she sprang a leak. The men worked valiantly at the pumps but were unable to keep up with the inflow of water, and were compelled to take to their only lifeboat late in the afternoon. The cold was so intense that in the midst of their efforts to keep their frail craft afloat, George Foreman, the cook, died from exposure. The boat travelled nearly 200 miles south, and the men were on many occasions in danger of being swamped by the giant waves, at whose mercy the craft was being tossed about. On the second day, they sighted a ship, but she passed without seeing their frantic signals. Eighty hours after leaving their sinking vessel, they sighted the Belgian steamer Ferster. One of the shipwrecked crew filled a canvas bucket with kerosene, tore off part of his coat to act as a torch, and with the last match set fire to it. The signal was seen by the steamer, which went to their assistance, and picked up the suffering men. They were taken to Antwerp and given every care in St. Elizabeth's hospital in that city.

Another tale of the hazards which beset mariners at sea was related yesterday, on the arrival of the Corsican, by Captain John Evans of the schooner Optimist, which was also lost at sea. The Optimist sailed from Bonaville, Spain, on Jan. 1, with a cargo of salt for Newfoundland. On Jan. 14 a strong wind sprang up and continued with terrific fury for several days. During that time most of the rigging of the vessel was torn away, and she lost her rudder. By Jan. 22 the vessel was leaking badly and it was only by superhuman efforts at the pumps that the schooner was kept afloat. On Jan. 26, a heavy sea broke over the ship and wrecked the lifeboat, damaged the cabin and shifted the cargo. This necessitated the men being lashed to the rigging to keep from being washed overboard, and it was not until late on that day that they could make an effort to shift the cargo. That same night, they sighted the steamer City of Naples and she stood by for several hours, at the weather being so bad as to prevent an attempt being made to take off the schooner's crew. The Optimist notified those on board the City that another vessel was rushing to their assistance, and continued on its way. On the morning of Jan. 28 the Ampetco reached the scene and the crew of the schooner were taken off and conveyed to Antwerp, where they were well taken care of.

Both crews are on their way to their homes in Newfoundland, and will probably leave for their destinations today.

Dr. William McIntosh Elected President

Curator of Natural History Society Chosen Head of Acadian Entomological Society — Annual Meeting Yesterday.

Dr. William McIntosh, M.Sc., curator of the Natural History Society, and Provincial Entomologist, was elected president of the Acadian Entomological Society at its annual meeting yesterday.

The society which has been meeting in the Natural History Society rooms for the past two days, opened its morning session yesterday with a business meeting. This was followed by the election of officers, and throughout the rest of the morning and at the afternoon meeting, a number of technical papers concerning scientific research along various lines in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia were read. A banquet was held at the Royal Hotel last evening, following which the members enjoyed a theatre party, and then assembled at the residence of Dr. McIntosh, Union Street, where they were delightfully entertained by their hospitable hosts, Doctor and Mrs. McIntosh.

The election of officers at the morning meeting resulted as follows: Dr. A. H. MacKay, superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia—Honorary President.

Dr. William McIntosh, St. John—President. Professor W. H. Brittain, Truro, N. S.—Vice President.

A. B. Baird, Fredericton—Secretary. W. E. Whitehead, Truro, N. S.—Assistant Secretary.

Dr. Edna Mosher, New Mexico—Member of Committee. The place of the next meeting will be in Nova Scotia, at either Truro, or Annapolis. A resolution was passed thanking the governments of the two provinces for their financial aid, which enabled the society to continue its work.

The papers read yesterday included: "Some Properties of the Lead Arsenates"—A. Kelsall, Annapolis, Royal, N. S. "Insecticide Investigations in New Brunswick"—G. P. Walker, Annapolis, Royal, N. S.

Some notes on the Female Reproductive Organs in the Hymenoptera—A. B. Baird, Fredericton, N. B. At the afternoon session Dr. McIntosh gave an interesting account of the work of the museum of the Natural History Society and detailed the several valuable collections available for a study of the natural resources of the province.

A. Gordon Leavitt read a paper on the Experiences of an Entomologist in the vicinity of St. John. Mr. Leavitt enumerated the various collecting grounds about the city and cited the Nerepis Valley between Westfield and Welsford as that to be preferred above all others because of the great variety of plant life, and the consequent variety of insect life.

Other papers read were: "The Production of Alatae in certain Aphididae"—Professor W. H. Brittain, Truro, N. S.

Life History and Natural Control of the Pine Leaf Scale—R. P. Gorham, Fredericton, N. B.

Losses caused by "the recent outbreak of the Spruce Budworm in New Brunswick"—Dr. J. D. Tothill, Fredericton, N. B.

In The Interests Of Better Roads

S. L. Squires of Canadian Good Roads Assn. Visiting Maritimes on Important Business.

S. L. Squires of Toronto, chairman of the executive committee of the Canadian Good Roads Association, arrived in the city last evening from Fredericton. Mr. Squires is paying a visit to the Maritimes in the interests of better roads, with the purpose of securing uniform legislation, regulation and taxation, for the highways in the different provinces throughout the Dominion.

In a conversation last evening Mr. Squires emphasized the importance of securing the fulfillment of his mission. "Roads a few years ago, he said, "performed a purely local function, but the advent of the motor car has caused them to function inter-provincially, and even internationally, as well."

"These questions will be taken up at the next meeting of the association to be held in Victoria, B. C., June 12th next, which will be attended by delegates from every province of the Dominion and at which all the provincial governments will be officially represented."

Mr. Squires said that he had interviewed the government at Fredericton regarding the sending of an official representative from this province, and had been assured by the government that the province would send an official representative.

Mr. Squires spoke highly of the great good accomplished by the Federal aid grants that had been extended to the provinces by the Borden Government, some three years ago, and which was to be seen by the marked improvement in the highways of the province.

Mr. Squires leaves today for Halifax, and will also visit Prince Edward Island before returning to Upper Canada.

Next, Deputy Grand Master L. B. Wilson and Past Master George E. Ellis also spoke. Flaming music was rendered by a choir, and a solo was also given by Patsy Crutcher.

By Mr. Dickson. As to the number of motor vehicles owned by the Province, the cost of same, the number and names of employees using them, and whether or not they were used during the election year of last year and 1920.

By Mr. Flewelling. As to expenditures on ordinary or permanent roads in Charlotte County after the close of the fiscal year, and whether John M. Scriver is an employee of the Government.

I thank you for your address and beg to assure you that I entertain the fullest confidence in all your deliberations and you will be guided by a most earnest desire to promote the happiness and prosperity of the people of this Province.

Gov't. Bills Introduced. Hon. Mr. Veniot introduced a bill to amend the Motor Vehicle Act of 1915. He explained that the object of the bill was to give cities and incorporated towns and villages absolute power to make regulations governing the motor vehicle traffic within the limits. Under the old law it seems they did not possess that authority.

Hon. Mr. Meresarae introduced a bill for the incorporation of associations for co-operative marketing of farm produce. He explained that last year farmers of Westmorland, Albert and Kent in marketing poultry on the co-operative plan had experienced difficulties owing to their having no legal status which would enable them to make banking arrangements. The Department of Agriculture had to act and to had the pleasure of assisting them to carry on their operations. It was proposed now to pass an act to enable them to form an organization to enable them to place their produce on the market and make same application to all sections of the province. He would ask Honorable members to give favorable consideration to the measure which had been placed before the House.

Mr. Robinson submitted the annual report of the Chief Inspector under the Intoxicating Liquor Act of 1914.

Gov't. Bills Introduced

Mr. Veniot introduced a bill to amend the Motor Vehicle Act of 1916. He explained that the object of the bill was to give cities and incorporated towns and villages absolute power to make regulations governing the motor vehicle traffic within the limits. Under the old law it seems they did not possess that authority.

It was also proposed to give them power to make regulations governing street traffic. A clause added to the bill would give towns and cities the right to use motor busses and jitneys on the public highways of the Province.

Hon. Mr. Messersieu introduced a bill for the incorporation of associations for co-operative marketing of farm produce. He explained that last year farmers of Westmorland, Albert and Kent in marketing poultry on the co-operative plan had experienced difficulty owing to their having no legal status which would enable them to make banking arrangements. The Department of Agriculture was appealed to and had the pleasure of assisting them to carry on their operations. It was proposed now to pass an act to enable them to form an organization and make sales in all sections of the province. He would ask Honorable members to give favorable consideration to the measure which he had placed before the House.

Mr. Robinson submitted the annual report of the Chief Inspector under the Intoxicating Liquor Act of 1916.

Hon. Mr. Messersieu submitted the annual report of the Department of Agriculture.

Hon. Mr. Robinson submitted a statement of the bonded indebtedness of Carleton County and also a statement of valuation for Northumberland.

Hon. Mr. Robinson announced that the time for introducing private bills had already expired and moved that it be extended until Wednesday, March 15th.

Tax Liquor Exporters

Hon. Mr. Byrne introduced a bill to provide for the taxation of liquor exporters. He said that as Hon. Members were aware, New Brunswick had no jurisdiction on matters of trade and commerce, the B. N. A. Act having assigned matters of that kind to the Dominion Parliament. The object of the Intoxicating Liquor Act was to prevent the sale and use of liquors within the Province, except for manufacturing, medicinal and sacramental purposes. When the change in the liquor law was made recently in Quebec Province, a number of firms came to New Brunswick and claimed the right to carry on business as exporters of liquors, so long as sales were only for delivery outside of the Province. That situation having arisen, the Government took action, through the Chief Inspector, and, as a result, a large quantity of liquor was held in the yards for several days awaiting the test case to ascertain if it could be legally brought in. Later, the companies made application to Justice Grimmer, setting forth that the liquor was only for export, and His Honor granted an injunction restraining the Chief Inspector from detaining it. An application was made on behalf of the Government, for an order to dissolve the injunction, but the injunction was allowed to remain. A large quantity of liquor had been imported to the Province prior to January 18th, when the Dominion Order-in-Council, based on the plebiscite, went into effect. It was felt by the Government that Honors brought to the Province for distribution outside should pay a tax. It was proposed by the bill to

Busy Session In The Police Court

Charges of Stealing Cloth and Coal Took Up Greater Time—One Liquor Case.

The preliminary hearing in the case of Walter Northrup, charged with the theft of cloth from the C. P. R., was resumed in the police court, yesterday afternoon, and the evidence of four witnesses for the prosecution was taken.

J. Binet, checker for the C. P. S. Ltd., produced a bill of lading for goods arriving on the Metagama in December last. He testified that he had found a bale of cloth, partly open in the mess-room in No. 6 shed, on the night of Dec. 6. The room was about 50 to 100 feet from the place where the goods were being unloaded from the steamer. The witness said that the accused had been working with the gang unloading the Metagama between the hours of 7 and 11 o'clock on the night of Dec. 6.

W. Dumoulin, another checker for the C. P. S. Ltd., told of finding the cloth in the mess-room, in the condition described by the first witness. C. P. R. Sergeant Bittan testified that, as a result of information received, he went to the mess-room in No. 6 shed on the night of Dec. 6, and there found the bale of cloth open and the contents unrolled and lying about the floor. There were seven pieces cut off of the large roll, and the total weight of the cloth in the room at the time was 20 pounds less than the marking on the bale called for. The cloth was black and similar to the piece produced in court.

C. P. R. Constable Bittan said that, on the morning of Dec. 7, as the result of a telephone call received from Inspector Stevens, he went to No. 6 shed and was shown the bale in question. He opened the bale and examined the contents. He found that there were 30 pounds of black cloth missing from a comparison of the weights. He identified the cloth in court as being similar to that which was in the bale.

Hun Sook and Hum Woo, the two Chinese charged with violating the Opium and Narcotic Act, appeared in court yesterday afternoon, and were further remanded.

Thomas White and a juvenile were charged at the morning sitting, with trespassing on the C. N. R. and stealing the railway's coal. The juvenile pleaded not guilty.

It came out in evidence that the juvenile had no home, but was staying with his brother-in-law as his father had died, and his mother had married again.

His mother, who was in court, was asked if she would have any objection to the boy's being placed in the Boys' Industrial Home. She replied that the boy was being well cared for as it was. The magistrate failed to agree with her on this point, and the boy was remanded.

Weddings

Fredericton, March 10.—A wedding of interest took place Thursday, at Brunswick street parsonage, when Rev. G. C. Warren united in marriage John William Stevens and Grace Edith Carr, both of Geary. They were both unattended, and will reside at Geary.

J. B. Ganong, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. C. Saunders Young. The guests included the immediate relatives and a few friends, being about thirty in all, who awaited with eager expectation the appearance of the bride, which was intimated by the strains of the Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Della Ganong, sister of the bride. On the arm of her father, Mr. Henry Ganong, who gave her in marriage, the bride took her place by the groom. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held, after which dinner was served in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left by the evening train for a trip to Boston and other cities in the neighboring republic and on their return will take up their residence in Upper Millstream.

sub-section defining the duties of school inspectors suggested that "to advise and trustee" be included in the duties as a fact that inspectors often never visit near the trustees, although the latter certainly were in need of advice.

Mr. Richards said he agreed with the hon. member for the amendment would be good one.

The sub-section was amended as suggested.

Hon. Mr. Byrne asked that section 13 on provincial aid and minimum salaries stand, which was done.

Mr. Richards, speaking to the section relating to county secretary-treasurer's bonds, suggested that it might be considered whether surety or guarantee bonds should not take the place of the personal bonds at present required.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said the suggestion was excellent. He further was of the opinion that the bonds should be deposited with the Board of Education. The committee arose, and reported progress.

THE TALE OF WIDOW RABBIT

Widow Rabbit was a fine little rabbit. Her fur was soft brown and was always pressed and smoothed just so, while her mouth and ears were always pretty and oh, so neat!

almost dark and Trip was home eating his supper. Then Widow Rabbit put on her things and went and pulled the lettuce home. At first she wondered who it was that loved her so much that he went to all that trouble for her.

"Goodness me! I'm late again!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly, as he hurried down stairs for his hollow stump bungalow one morning. "Way didn't you call me, Nurse Jane? I promised to meet Uncle Butter, the great gentleman at 8 o'clock and here it is 9 and I have not had breakfast! Why didn't you get me up?"

Long Ears And The Alarm Clock

"Not because he loves you especially, but because he wants to eat you," chirped Chippy Chimpunk. Of course, Widow Rabbit wouldn't believe Chatty, and the next day she decided that she would go and call on Trip and thank him in person.

"I thought your alarm clock would call you with the tinkling bell it rings," said Nurse Jane. "Didn't you set it last night so it would awaken you?"

"What's that for?" asked the bunny. "Oh, when a bell rings that way, starting and stopping, it sounds like a telephone, or a door bell, and not like a regular clock. Some folks get so used to the ringing of their alarm clock that they sleep right through it."

Gives Billiardists Pointers On Strokes

World's Billiard Champion For 16 Years. In discussing strokes, let me emphasize at the outset that all players should begin at the earliest possible moment to employ the left hand for holding the cue ball (if the player is naturally right-handed) whenever occasion demands, and vice versa, if the player is left-handed. It will be found that in this way the use of the bridge is avoided to a marked degree, and it should be avoided whenever it is possible to do so, for the accuracy of the stroke is seldom as perfect when the bridge is used as when a natural bridge with the hand is made.

Jeff Will K. O. Devil, Says Billy Sunday

Charleston, W. Va., March 9.—"He'll knock the devil out of sinners," Billy Sunday, evangelist, declared in welcoming Jim Jeffries, former heavyweight champion, as a rival. "I'm for him," declared Billy, banging on the table. "He used to knock 'em cold in the square ring, and I'll make my reputation he'll knock the devil out of sinners on the platform. If Jeffries can hit the devil as hard as he hit his opponents in the ring, Satan will be sorry he ever left the pugilistic field for evangelism. I'm no crank on tobacco either. Some folks will get to heaven who smoke, but I don't agree with Jeffries' stand on wines."

Comedy Playlet Greatly Enjoyed

Y. P. A. of Brookville and Torryburn Presented Fine Programme in Exmouth St. Sunday School Room.

A capacity attendance greeted the performance of the six act comedy playlet, "Bird's Christmas Carol" played last night by the Young People's Association of Brookville and Torryburn, in Exmouth street church Sunday school hall. The performance was given under the auspices of the Epworth League of the church, and the play was under the direction of Mrs. H. P. Hayes and Miss Charlotte Willis.

The play abounded in good comedy, and all the members of the cast acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. The acting of Miss Charlotte Willis, as Mrs. Higgins, was particularly good, and the appreciative audience was generous in their applause throughout the performance. Pleading specialties were put on between the acts, and were also well received. These included a duet by the Misses Downey, a tableaux by Miss Myrtle Downey and Miss Le. Easton, and a Japanese song, by the Misses Downey and Miss M. Speight.

BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL HELD LENGTHY SESSION

Discussed Various Sections of Report of the Civic and Industries Committees on the Hydro-Electric Project — The Report Was Adopted.

The Council of the Board of Trade held a lengthy session yesterday, discussing the various sections of the report of the Civic and Industries Committees on the Hydro-Electric project.

Musquash-St. John Hydro-Electric. The Civic and Industries Committees of the St. John Board of Trade, who have been jointly considering the Hydro situation, beg leave to report:

In considering the problem of Hydro-Electric development, as it will apply to the city of St. John, there are three parties vitally concerned, namely the City Council, representing all the citizens, who have been offered the first opportunity to acquire control of the available power; the consumers, both large and small, who are naturally anxious to benefit individually from cheaper rates for a commodity rapidly growing in importance to industry and household economy; and who are also not unmindful of the great asset in attracting desirable new citizens and new industry that cheap power gives; and thirdly, the N. B. Power Company, hereof of which are not a few citizens as shareholders, whose interest may be vitally affected.

No approach to this problem can be expected to yield the best possible satisfaction and results to any one of those parties that does not fully admit that there is only one right solution, namely, the one which fully recognizes economic law and justice and thus yields the highest benefit to each party concerned, with no unfair advantage to any one. Nothing but the fullest degree of co-operation, with the elimination of prejudice, can ensure the realization of this goal.

The most recent contemplation of the alternatives would seem to make evident the desirability that a direct contract should be made between the City and the Government, represented by the Power Commission, to deliver to the City a stated constant amount of power at a maximum rate per h. p.

The Power Company's sole right to existence up to this time rests directly upon their undertaking to give three main types of public service to this community, namely, electric light and power, a street railway service and gas.

Any attempt to fulfill these obligations falls short of its responsibility that does not render the highest possible grade of service at the lowest possible cost; cost, of course, meaning every legitimate item to give returns to real capital, capable management and conscientious labor. It is merely a matter of accident that these three types of service happen to be combined under one management. Each one to be healthy, should stand on its own feet.

We are concerned at the present time with but one, namely, that of electricity for light and power purposes, and but one phase of this, namely, the distribution, not the production of electric power.

In view of the fact that the equipment owned by the New Brunswick Power Company for the distribution of electric power exists for rendering that function to the citizens of this community and that it cannot be assumed that any likely growth of said community would warrant the extension of a duplicate system or justify it as other than a waste of capital, every reasonable effort should be made to continue the use of this equipment in rendering service to the community.

The City having acquired the electric current from the Commission, a contract should be offered to the New Brunswick Power Company for the distribution of said current, based on the following conditions: Current to be furnished the N. B. Power Company at cost. Resale price to be definitely fixed by said contract; said resale price being arrived at by adding together:

First—Interest on present value of the actual equipment possessed by the New Brunswick Power Company necessary for the exclusive function of distributing power (not producing it), and which in the opinion of competent authorities of the City's selection, proves sufficiently modern or fitment to assure economical distribution.

Second—Interest on any improvements and additions to said distributing plant, which said authorities approve as necessary.

Third—A reasonable allowance for maintenance, depreciation, insurance and such other expense items as are common to such enterprises.

Fourth—Reasonable return for management or supervision.

Fifth—Adequate returns for salaries and wages to the staff directly engaged in this distributing phase of their business or part-time as may be determined.

Sixth—Contract to be for two year period, to be renewed or terminated at the end of that period at the City's discretion; a new contract entered upon, in the light of the two years experience, or the City to be free on giving four months' notice previous to the expiration of the contract.

Power Boat Club Held Annual Dance

About Two Hundred Couples Enjoyed Programme Last Night in Castle Hall.

About two hundred couples were present at the annual dance of the St. John Power Boat Club, held last evening at the Knights of Pythias Castle Hall, Union street. The hall had been nicely decorated for the occasion with flags and streamers, and on the platform was a fine cruiser all ready for starting off.

The reception committee, Commodore and Mrs. E. Brown, Rear Commodore and Mrs. Ronald McAvley and Fleet Captain and Mrs. E. Smith met the guests as they entered and extended a welcome.

Downstairs tables had been provided for those who did not dance, and they were given an opportunity to enjoy a game of cards. During the evening a running supper was served by a most efficient committee.

Several selections by the Rotary quartette—Thos. Guy, DeWitt Cairns, A. C. Smith and Dr. Spangler—were much enjoyed by the gathering.

Police Station And The Protectionists

Pietro Meyetso, An Italian, Is Leader of Protectionist League at Headquarters.

True to the programme he has followed all winter, Pietro Meyetso, the last of the "Old Originals," who started the season together, applied for protection at the central police station last evening. The old Italian is leading the batting average by a big margin in the Protectionist League.

When his turn came around, and his idleness and shiftlessness, and general good for nothing characteristics were pointed out to him, he received them all with a most cordial shrug of the shoulders and a contented smile, and appeared back next morning for more. He was finally got rid of when a doctor was called in to examine his mental condition, and the medical man prescribed "a change of air and a trip over the bridge."

Pietro's experiences have been somewhat similar to Cosmeak's in some particulars, he finds that the police station cells are the nearest approach he can secure to the sunny skies and genial warmth of his native Italy, so whenever the stormy winds do blow Pietro hies himself to the cells.

He has evidently seen better days, as he writes a very fine scholarly hand. He inscribed his name with bold and artistic flourishes the first night he registered at the station. The word went around the guard room and the next night he was asked to register again, but nothing doing. "You gotta de once" he replied and with a roughish smile proceeded on to the cell he occupied the night before.

Mayor Returns From Montreal

Tentative Proposition to be Made to N. B. Power Commission Regarding Hydro.

His Worship Mayor Schofield returned yesterday from his trip to Hall and Montreal. When asked if he had any announcements to make in connection with his offering again for the office of mayor he replied that he would be able to talk to his friends in a few days on this matter.

While in Montreal he had a conference with R. A. Ross in regard to hydro and together they drew up a tentative proposition which will be before his colleagues at City Hall on Monday and if it meets with their approval will then get in touch with the Power Commission.
