IF YOU PATRONIZE The Everyday Bargain Store YOU LEARN TO SAVE MONEY.

Value for Both Sides of YOUR DOLLAR!

The art of spending money is greater than the art of making it. Yet far more has been taught, written and lectured on the subject of the making of money than about the spending of it. This doubtless inspired the old adage that "a fool and his money are soon parted." Today the world is too busy to stop and study the best ways of spending it. Price is not the same as value; for price is what you pay for an article, while value is what you receive in merchandise—plus service.

Years ago I began studying to make both sides of my customers' dollars represent value to them when spent with me, and today it is recognized that our merchandising represents value.

Daily all my efforts are toward making a bigger and better organization to back up the policy, and while today I am giving the best I know how, tomorrow I hope to make it better. Try the Everyday Bargain Store.

MUSICAL NIGHTS FOR HARTLAND?

The efforts of the band to furnish clean, healthful amusement for our people on Friday evenings during the Summer is worthy of recognition by the people of Hartland. They have leased a portion of Burt's flat for the season and on fine nights, once a week, will delight the people with free concerts, while those who go in for exercise in bowling, throwing the ball at the dolls, etc., can do so at a nominal cost. There is plenty of room to stroll around in a good healthy atmosphere while listening to the music of the band, or those so desiring can sit on the benches which were used for the refreshment tables at the picnic, and which have been left in position for possible use later either by the band or others who wish to hire the grounds for picnic purposes.

All the efforts of the band to entertain the people of the village and advertise the place as being something more than a "sleepy hollow" have not cost the people here one cent in direct contributions. At the outset it was decided that the members would finance their own organization, and when they asked the public to part with any of their coin they would give value for it. This has been strictly adhered to, the members having purchased their own instruments and music, paid their leader for his services, and will shortly appear in natty new uniforms—all accomplished in about a year and a half.

In other places, some of them not as large as Hartland, the merchants provide a fund to pay their band for weekly concerts in a business centre, where the people from outside the place, as well as the citizens, can enjoy the music and incidentally put money in the pockets of the storekeepers "between the acts." These business men find that it pays to have these weekly concerts. Not only do they do a rushing business on concert nights, but they also advertise their town and set in motion a tide of trade that they would not otherwise get.

The man who lays in a stock of goods, opens his doors and waits for trade without letting the people know he's alive won't require a large staff of clerks to help him dispose of his stock. He wants to make a noise—if he can't make it himself, then hire the band to do it for him. This, in connection with other advertising, will aid him to do a paying business—otherwise, in the words of the song, he will "fade away and gradually die." This principle applies to towns and villages as well as to individuals, and if the merchants of Hartland would get together and arrange for weekly concerts by the local band they would be surprised at the business they would do on these musical nights. Arrange for a special night each week, advertise the fact widely, then look for results—and you will get them.

P. B. General Conference.

The Primitive Baptist Annual Conference convened at Temple, York Co., July 3. First meeting was called at 10:30; service led by Rev. Uriah Kilcollins was much appreciated.

At 2:30 the regular Conference meeting began, service led by

PILES

Moderator C. H. Orser. A large number of the members of conference were present and took part in the service.

Sunday at 9:30 the regular prayer and praise service was conducted by Bro's Wm. Cogswell, and J. M. Mallory. It was a place where God's children met on a common level. Motives actuated by the Holy Spirit made the service one of blessing. At 11 Rev. P. J. Quigg addressed the people for a short time from words found in John 11:45. The address being clear and thoughtful proved a blessing to the audience.

Again at 2:30 service was resumed and led by Rev. Archibald Hatfield, text Heb. 12:28. Many healthful things were said relative to the Master's Kingdom; such as, when, and where established, also laws governing. At close of this service the Lord's supper was observed, when a very large number of loyal followers of Christ gathered around the table in remembrance of Him who gave his life for them. This service was exceedingly solemn and impressive.

Sunday evening a memorial service led by Rev. C. H. Orser. Many helpful things were said by the speaker that will help the young and rising generation to cling close to the one who has led us as a denomination through 40 years of struggle. Although very few of those that composed the first Conference are alive today to enjoy the fortieth anniversary, yet we believe the people of the present generation will be true to the principles of faith, and platform laid down by them. Therefore breaks down the argument of some people that when a certain few are gone, the young will fall in line with some one else. God forbid.

Monday 9:30; sat in business session. After preliminary part of service over, and moderator in the chair, meeting was then declared open for business. At roll call two elders were absent, Elder Hartt who is in Nova Scotia, and G. E. Orser on the sick list.

Minutes of last year read and approved. Some new changes in Conference officers: Rev. P. J. Quigg associate Chairman, J. M. Mallory assistant clerk, Earl H. Giberson, assistant treasurer. The old staff of executive officers still remain.

Rev. A. Hatfield, delegate to Nova Scotia Conference. The following resolutions were unanimously passed by the Conference:

Resolved that this Conference use its influence with other religious denominations, and societies to have total prohibition while the war in Europe continues.

Resolved that the members of this Conference seek to help enforce as best they can the principles of the "Lord's Day Alliance."

A purse of money was made up at this session and sent to our sick brother, G. E. Orser.

Monday evening service led by Rev. A. Hatfield.

Thus closes once again our General Conference. As we review the work, we can report progress in the different departments. Another new church this year. The members of baptisms by our ministers have increased over last year. Prospects of more workers. Death rate not high among our church members.—A. H.

Rev. J. McP. Scott, of Toronto, was in Perth on Tuesday on his return to Plaster Rock, where he had been spending his summer vacation when called home by a railway accident resulting in the death of several of his parishioners. Mrs. Scott and family have been at Donald Fraser's fishing lodge.

THE H.T.C. DRAWS FIRST BLOOD

The first tennis game of the season in Hartland was played Saturday afternoon and evening. It was scheduled as "The Hartland Tennis Club against 'all Comers'" and the club won out by a score of 18-30. The court which the club has in preparation, not being quite ready, the sample room of the Exchange hotel was requisitioned and a bevy of charming young ladies did a boom town real estate business selling ice cream, cake and candy. The place was nicely decorated with flags, bunting and flowers, the goods on sale were of the very best, the service was all that could be desired and it was a pleasure to part with your money under the influence of the bewitching smiles of the fair waitresses. At the closing of the evening there was nothing to take away but the decorations—and the money—a member of The Observer staff removing the last vestige of eatable cake at 11 p.m. by the post office clock. The ladies were pleased with their efforts, the public was pleased with its purchases, and everybody was happy. The money realized will go toward putting the club's court in shape.

Those in charge of the sale were: Misses Tressa and Helen Aiton, Laura Curtis, Elsa Sipprell and Anna Murdock, assisted by Misses Helen Plummer and Clara Hagerman.

The colors chosen by the club are blue and grey, and they hope to have a brush with some club from the nearby towns shortly.

DEATH OF GEORGE E. BAXTER

An old and highly respected resident of Andover, passed away on Thursday evening in the person of Mr. George E. Baxter. Mr. Baxter had been in poor health for several years, and his death was not unexpected. Nevertheless it was heard of with deep regret by a wide circle of friends. He was in his seventy-fifth year. Mr. Baxter was born at Norton, King's County. For several years he taught in the Albert School St. John West. About twenty years ago he settled in Andover, where for awhile he filled the office of Indian Agent, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all with whom he came in contact in a business and social way.

The late Mr. Baxter was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and a lifelong Liberal. He is survived by two daughters: Iva, of the manual training staff of the Normal School, Fredericton; and Miriam, who lived with her father; also two sisters, Mrs. McVey, and Miss Amelia Baxter of Haverhill, Mass. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

Riverside Camp Meeting.

Riverside Camp Meeting will be held Aug. 6-16. Rev. Geo. J. Kinney of Syracuse, N. Y., will preach twice daily. A large number of ministers and workers will assist in the services. The largest attendance ever known at Riverside is expected. Board $3.50 per week; 75 cents per day. Furnished rooms 50 and 75 cents per day. Admission to grounds free.

An Arcootook Junction boy has won unending fame on the field of battle, being specially mentioned in despatches, in the person of Sergeant Guy G. Turner. Word to this effect was received recently from England.

PUNISH THE GUILTY.

Manitoba's new Premier has declared the first duty of his government will be "to ascertain who are guilty and do to such according to law." In New Brunswick some, at least, of the guilty stand self-convicted. All that is asked of the government is "to punish such according to law." Men who resort to such despicable thieving methods as padding pay rolls by putting children on the lists and forging receipts are deserving of no consideration. In the courts of the province their cases should be judged without fear or favor, and punishment meted out in accordance with the evidence. No political or party influence should be permitted to shield those proven guilty of wrongdoing, and no political or party influence should be used to prevent a full and complete exposure. Premier Clarke and Attorney General Baxter, as the responsible officers of the government, have a difficult and unpleasant duty to perform, and there is only one way in which it can be satisfactorily performed. The disgrace brought on New Brunswick by the exposures of the past year makes imperative the application of the only remedy that can be relied on to prove salutary. Corruption in public life will never end unless a wholesome public opinion sustains those in authority in taking both punitive and preventive measures.—St. John Globe.

Provincial Scandals

The Globe last Thursday dwelt upon the gravity of the situation in provincial affairs, revealed by the Chandler enquiry, and called upon Premier Clarke to clear his skirts and put an end to the rule of graft. The Globe could not do less, and retain its self-respect, although it has been very friendly toward both the Fleming and Clarke governments. The revelations made are of such a nature as to compel the Globe and everybody either to condemn or to openly approve of the policy of graft in the conduct of provincial affairs.

Of course the St. John Standard approves. Hence it viciously attacks Mr. Veniot and Mr. Carter, distorts the evidence brought out at the enquiry in Fredericton, and endeavors to make it appear that Mr. Veniot and Mr. Carter, in revealing the political crookedness of government supporters, are themselves committing an offence and are nothing short of public enemies. While the people of New Brunswick are shamed and humiliated by the revelations, the Standard brazenly sneers, and boasts that the Clarke government is so little disturbed that it does not even take the trouble to be represented by counsel at the enquiry where it is being shown that the provincial treasury was looted.

Now, however, the enquiry is to be brought a little nearer home. Mr. Carter has asked permission to lay before Mr. Chandler definite charges to the effect that last spring the brewers, and liquor dealers and hotel men were held up for large sums of money by a prominent Conservative, at the time the question of prohibition or amendments to the liquor license law was under consideration. This matter cannot be ignored. Mr. Carter must be given an opportunity to present his charges and his witnesses. In view of the absolute proof furnished of the truth of other charges made by Mr. Carter and Mr. Veniot, the people of the province will insist that this latest charge be also investigated. The people should know the worst, and if there has been wrong-doing in connection with the liquor legislation of last spring, and the liquor dealers have been held up as the lumbermen were when Mr. Fleming was premier, the fact should be disclosed. The time was very favorable for such a raid on the pockets of the liquor men, for there were whispers abroad that prohibition might be adopted. Mr. Carter says money was collected from these men, and that they "were called upon to pay it." Who collected the money and for what purpose—and what was done with it? These questions must be answered.—St. John Times.

The Ford Profit Sharing.

There has been a great interest manifested by Ford-auto owners and others as to whether this year's issue of profit-sharing certificates would be redeemed by the company or not.

R. L. Phillips of Fredericton, Ford dealer for this territory, was in town this week and we asked him if any information had been given out from the company as yet. He replied that the Canadian company had made absolutely no announcement at that time for the coming year. Mr. Phillips said that he expected a very interesting announcement and that he would see that the next issue of this paper had the new advertisement. Watch for it!

Probably this section never saw such good hay weather as has been continuous since July 15. The steady, fair, warm weather came just when it was needed. Hay along the upper St. John is hardly an average crop, but it is better in the northern sections of the two counties than in the southern. While some fields do not repay cutting others are beautiful—showing the good result of careful seeding and weeding. Potatoes never looked so well. They are making an excellent stand. Grain crops, until this spell of fine weather, gave a discouraging outlook. Now, however, oats and wheat look much better. There never was a real crop failure in New Brunswick, and for this let us quote the words of the hymnist: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

ISAAC MOREHOUSE BURNED OUT

The residence of Isaac Morehouse was entirely destroyed by fire at break-of-day yesterday. When discovered the fire had gained considerable headway in the woodshed and in the back part of the house. The location is about a mile from the centre of the village and entirely out of the limits, or the reach, of the fire corporation. Nevertheless the village people turned out and nearby neighbors succeeded in saving practically all the contents of the house. While The Observer has not had the opportunity of interviewing Mr. Morehouse, it passes along the unverified statement that he lost $130 in cash. While his neighbors sympathize with Mr. Morehouse in his hardship, yet he "mourns not as one without hope," for both building and contents were well covered by insurance. In spite of whatever insurance a man may have on his property, however, being burned out of his home is always a serious matter. Only last year Mr. Morehouse met an accident that laid him up for several months.

The house that was burned was built 22 years ago by the late Benjamin Jewett, who spent his last days there. It was later occupied by the late Judson Currie for a number of years; still later the property was expropriated by the C. P. R. and resold to A. R. Foster, who transferred it to Mr. Morehouse.

On Thursday afternoon, July 16, a number of the ladies of Waterville and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culbertson for the purpose of organizing a Red Cross Society. After tea ice cream was sold, and altogether the society collected $17.75 besides the following donations: Mrs. Diffin, Avondale, $1.00 and Mrs. H. M. McLean, Waterville, 25 cents, making a total of $19.25. Following are the officers: Mrs. A. E. Plummer, president, Mrs. John Everett, vice president, Miss Fern Culbertson, treas., and Mrs. E. C. On Wednesday of last week the people of Beaufort had a most enjoyable picnic in a delightful grove at that place. There were various games and an excellent "feed." The women of Beaufort are notably good cooks. People came from miles around and had a splendid time. A dance in the evening closed the day's festivities. The sum of $127 was netted which goes to implement the Church of England building fund at Beaufort.

Fish stories, yes, fish stories galore these days! One man drove his carriage into a creek. While his horse browsed the bushes on the bank the man sat in the wagon and fished. He caught 180 fish without changing his position. Four Bath men went to Juniper on Saturday and got 450 trout during the afternoon. Salmon fishing in Hartland pool is better than ever. Rev. H. D. Worden, a former pastor of the Baptist church here, one morning this week visited the pool and with his first cast landed a fair sized salmon. The same morning Carey Baker brought four to surface but landed none of them. Mr. Baker says one of these was the heaviest fish he ever got on a line. Every day local parties are going to Miramichi and Gumbac waters for fish. Numerous parties from Aroostook county also visit the localities.

Was Personally Attended by Dr. A. W. Chase

Before He Became Famous as the Author of Dr. Chase's Receipt Book.

Here is a letter from an aged gentleman who consulted Dr. Chase, long before his Receipt Book attained a world-wide circulation or his family medicines became known to the ends of the earth.

Like most people of advanced years his kidneys were the first organs to break down and when doctors failed to help him he remembered the physician who cured him of pleurisy in his younger days.

Mr. O. D. Barnes, R.F.D. 1, Byron, Mich., writes: "About fifty years ago, when living in Ann Arbor, Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, was called on to treat me for pleurisy. Ever since that I have used and recommended Dr. Chase's Medicines, and have two of his Receipt Books in the house. "Some time ago a cold settled in the kidneys, causing backache, frequent urination, dizziness, and affected the eyesight. My appetite failed and I could not sleep nights. Two doctors failed to do me any lasting good, so I started using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. The results have been highly satisfactory to me. Appetite improved, I gained in weight, sleep and rest well, and feel strong and well. My kidneys resumed their natural functions, and I believe that my cure was due to Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. I am 78 years old, superintend work on my farm, and can turn in and do some work myself."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. All dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

The Oliver Kiding Cultivator stands in a class by itself, by reason of the fact that it is built right, with larger range of adjustments so it can be adapted to do good work under all conditions in the potato field. Oliver quality has a name the world over.

In Aroostook County alone sixty-five per cent. of the Potato Cultivators used are Oliver. The feature of the Oliver Cultivator that appeals to all farmers who have used it or have seen it at work is the excellent work that this implement does. By an ingenious arrangement the gangs are held parallel, and therefore always cut a uniform distance apart, no matter how far they may be shifted to the right or to the left. On the Oliver Cultivator neither of the gangs leaves an uncultivated strip between the shovels, nor does one gang cut a narrower width than the other when the cultivator is shifted to the side.
