BRITAIN LAUGHS AT INSPIRED TALK ABOUT EARLY PEACE

CHURCH MILITANT APPARENT AT SYNOD MEETING

PEACE TALK IS TWADDLE FOR BRITISH

Any German Overtures Would Be Thought Premature.

GERMANS MUST RETREAT

No Dealings Until They Are On Own Soil.

DECISIVE VICTORY IS NEEDED

British and French United in This, Whatever the Cost.

[BY ED. L. KEEN.]

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

London, June 17.—Although an official statement is not procurable, I am authoritatively informed that the Allies, especially Great Britain, would regard any German peace overtures at this time as premature.

Great Britain is determined to continue, at least until Germany is driven back upon her own territory. Any peace talk that has reached the United States certainly has not had its origin either in London or any other capital of the Allies.

Many Reasons.

There are several reasons why Great Britain in particular intends to prosecute the war until the German grip upon Belgium and Northern France has been shaken.

Military men here agree that the final verdict will be won, not by brilliant dashes, but by a long drawn-out endurance struggle. They base this belief upon the strength of line after line of strongly fortified works on both sides of the Flanders-France battle line.

And Great Britain is certain that the longer the struggle, the more certainly will the great resources of the Allies ultimately overwhelm the Kaiser.

The people of France unquestionably would resent an attempt at peace negotiations at this time. No other nation in Europe can boast of more whole-hearted support from its citizens, and the fiery patriotism of France demands not compromise, but decisive victory.

The British were slow in becoming aroused to the seriousness of the struggle. But once aroused, they are determined to stay in with bull-dog tenacity. There is no sentiment here for a peace agreement, no matter what it gives to the Allies, until Germany has first been decisively beaten on the field of battle.

ALLIES DOMINATE VALLEY OF FECHT

Now Masters of Commanding Line of Heights in Vosges.

GAIN GROUND TO SOUTH

Steady Progress of Past Few Weeks Is Still Being Maintained.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, June 17.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads as follows:

"In the Vosges, the progress made by us yesterday rendered us complete masters of the line of heights which dominate the valley of the Fecht River, to the north of Steinbruck and Metzerald.

"To the south also we have gained ground between the two branches of the upper Fecht and along the heights which separate the valley of the Fecht from the valley of the Lauch.

"Regarding the rest of the front, there is nothing to add to the announcement made last night."

GERMAN ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCES U-14's LOSS

BRITAIN HAS 2,550 AIRSHIPS READY TO DEFEND OR ATTACK

Some To Be Used For Beating Off German Raiders, Others To Bombard Enemy Towns Where Munitions Are Made—London and Large Centres in the United Kingdom Believed Amply Protected.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

London, June 17.—Sky battles on a scale the world has never dreamed of, will lend a new thrill to the European war spectacle before many weeks.

Within the past six months aeroplane factories here and in the United States have been turning out scores of biplanes designed to give Britain supremacy in the skies. Publication of this fact was not permitted until formal announcement from the war office in the House of Commons yesterday.

It was learned today that the British air fleet now comprises 2,500 biplanes and monoplanes, and about 50 dirigibles, equipped for bomb-hurling raids. New air pilots will include many from Canada.

Enemy Building Zeppelins.

To challenge Great Britain's superiority in the skies, German aeroplanes and dirigible factories have been working overtime since last September. Zeppelins have been turned out as rapidly as they could be manufactured at Friedrichshafen factory, but the German admiralty, according to reports received here, has placed less reliance on aeroplanes for battle purposes, and now has less than 2,000 Taubes to meet British attacks in the air.

Many of these are in use along the Russian battlefront for scouting purposes.

Defence Nearly Perfect.

Great Britain's fleet of 2,500 aeroplanes and seaplanes was recruited partly for defensive and partly for offensive action. Despite the admission from the admiralty yesterday that 40 persons were killed by Zeppelins in raids on the northeast coast on June 3 and June 15, it is believed here that the aeroplane defence of London and other large cities is so nearly perfect that Zeppelins will never be able to reach central districts.

While part of the nation's air forces will continue to patrol the coast to meet German dirigibles, it is understood here that several flotillas are shortly to join the French, who have been making successful raids on German ammunition factories and chemical works.

Factories Destroyed.

Dispatches received here today said that several ammunition factories at Karlsruhe were destroyed in the recent French raids, and that more than 200 persons were killed, including a number of guards at the ammunition works.

The Russian Sikorsky biplane, after which some of the new British machines are reported to be modeled, has done heavy damage along the German front in Poland. Because of its size and its capacity for carrying explosives, the Slavs have named it Flya Mourometz, after a fabulous Russian giant.

OFFICIAL TIDINGS THAT PTE. M'CALL IS AMONG MISSING

No Comfort For Mother in the Report Received in Parkhill.

LIVED IN THIS CITY

Member of Orient Club Was Employed by Messrs. R. C. Struthers & Co.

Mrs. McCall of Parkhill received word from the authorities at Ottawa this morning to the effect that her son, Pte. John D. McCall, was officially reported missing. Pte. McCall joined the 48th Highlanders with his brother Bruce and since April 10 no word of them had been received until this morning.

Northway Company of Toronto, and Bruce was at home in Parkhill. Both joined the 48th Highlanders (known as the 15th Battalion at the front), and were in the terrible fight which their battalion underwent, so terrible that almost the whole regiment was killed, wounded or made prisoners. The 48th were left to face tremendous odds at one time. They held their trenches to the last, and were literally cut to pieces, after they had caused tremendous slaughter among the Germans.

Gives No Comfort.

No word has been received as to their fate, the "missing" report affording little comfort to their mother, who is still unable to decide whether her boys are safe.

John D. McCall was very well known in this city, having been employed with R. C. Struthers & Co., for some time as a traveller. He was a member of the Orient Club, the St. John's Athletic Club and the Y. M. C. A., and was the close friend and companion of many young Londoners.

The Official Word.

The notification received by Mrs. McCall at Parkhill, and given to The Advertiser over long-distance by her son, Gordon, was as follows:

Sincerely regret to inform you that No. 27086 Pte. John D. McCall, 15th Battalion, has been reported officially as missing between April 26 and 29. Further information will be sent when received.

NEUTRALS OF EUROPE LIKELY TO TAKE HAND

May Have Something To Say Regarding German Submarine Warfare.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Swedish, Norwegian and Danish Ministers Consult With Lansing.

By Bond P. Geddes.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Washington, June 17.—Signs of intervention, or at least participation by European neutral countries in this Government's submarine warfare negotiations with Germany developed today. Conferences between Acting Secretary of State Lansing and Scandinavian diplomats here gave a new tinge to the German-American exchanges.

Some of Topics.

Lansing refused to divulge the subjects discussed by Swedish, Norwegian and Danish ministers. It leaked out, however, that torpedoing of Scandinavian fishing vessels and merchant ships by German submarines was one of the topics. There was well-grounded belief also that Nortnern European neutrals may be contemplating independent action against Germany in the form of joint or several protest against the destruction of their shipping.

Wilson Has Report.

Before President Wilson today were confidential reports with clippings from German newspapers from Ambassador Gerard regarding the Lusitania note's reception at Berlin. A detailed and lengthy mail report is promised by Gerard. He will also advise the state department from time to time of the progress of foreign office developments.

EMBASSIES' MAILS OPENED IN STATES

Russian Documents Have Frequently Been Tampered With—No Complaints.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, June 17.—None of the allied embasies which has experienced interferences with its mails had made any complaint to the postoffice department and none, so far as could be learned today, has any plans for doing so. In allied quarters it was said the Russian embassy has suffered most interferences, and in six specific instances has found evidence that its mail had been opened on a United States railway mail car. Mail to practically all the embassies from abroad has borne evidence of inspection, but there is no way of determining if it happened in the United States or in Europe.

Whether the postoffice department would take cognizance of the charges on its own account was undetermined.

RUSSIANS INFLICT HEAVY LOSSES ON ADVANCING ENEMY

While Losing Some Villages, They Make Price Heavy for Germans.

TRENCHES RECAPTURED

On Dniester River Fighting Continues To Advantage of Ally.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, via London, June 17.—Occupation by the Germans of additional villages in the Shavli district and further south in the region east of Mariampol is admitted by the Russians in a statement issued last night at the war office. It is claimed, however, that the invaders suffered severely in futile attacks beyond the Niemen, and that ground lost north of Przasnyz has been regained.

The great battle along the San in West Galicia is reported to be continuing fiercely, with fresh Austro-German forces constantly entering the combat. The statement follows:

Hundreds Sabred.

"German attacks for the past three days around the village of Litzkoff, near the Windau River, have been unsuccessful, and the fighting on Tuesday ended in our favor. In the region of Popeliary our troops crossed the Venta. In pursuing the enemy our cavalry sabred hundreds of Germans, and made some dozens of prisoners.

"The fighting near Shavli continues with various fortunes. Some villages fell into the enemy's hands. There have been artillery duels on the Dubysa.

"On the western front, beyond the mid-Niemen, the enemy has sustained heavy losses in the past two days in fruitless offensive attempts.

Villages Lost.

"In counter-attacks in the region east of Mariampol some villages were occupied by the enemy, and on Tuesday night the enemy began a bombardment of Ossowetz, but about 2 o'clock in the morning the fortress got the upper hand.

"Along the Narew-Omulew valley front there have been unimportant encounters.

"In the Orzyc valley on Tuesday night the enemy opened an intense artillery fire against Jedorojetz village, throwing thousands of shells within a short time. The enemy several times tried to attack our positions, but his efforts ended with the occupation of only a part of the completely destroyed trenches of our regiment.

Trenches Taken.

"North of Przasnysz, by energetic counter-attacks, we occupied all the advanced trenches which the enemy had held since his attack on June 12.

"In West Galicia the battle on the San continues with increasing fierceness, the enemy continually sending fresh forces into the fight.

"On the Dniester the fighting along the Tismenitza and the Stry continued Monday and Tuesday to our advantage.

"South of Jidatcheff, near Bereznitza and Kroulevska, we captured another 500 German prisoners, including 14 officers, and also four guns."

SAYVILLE'S REPORT.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, June 17—Via Wireless to Sayville.—According to the Overseas News Agency, a decisive battle, from which important results are expected, is now in progress all along the Russian front.

"German forces along the Rawka River (Central Russian Poland), west of Warsaw have now taken the offensive," says the announcement from the news agency. "The German battle line in Poland, Galicia and Bukowina is 1,100 kilometres (682 miles) long.

"German and Austrian forces are attacking the enemy in a decisive battle, and big results are expected."

ORDERS TO BURN WIRED TO WINNIPEG

G. N. W. Manager Admits This in Connection With Manitoba Trouble.

WON'T SHOW MESSAGE

Denies It Referred To Certain Telegrams—C. P. R. Holds Them Longer.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, June 17.—President Z. A. Lash and General Manager George D. Perry, of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, were seen this morning regarding the official order regarding the destruction of telegram files and the evidence given by Local Manager Padington at Winnipeg yesterday before the royal commission.

Mr. Perry stated that there had been no instructions to Mr. Padington, the local manager in Winnipeg, to strip the files of certain telegrams. Mr. Perry's attention was called to the question raised before the commission as to why the instruction related only to Winnipeg, Ottawa, Quebec and Montreal.

"We couldn't introduce it over the whole system at once," said Mr. Perry. "We had to find if it worked satisfactorily."

"The instruction was sent by wire?"

"Yes we use the wire more in connection with places in the west."

Would Not Show Telegram.

He declined to show the telegram containing the instructions.

Mr. Lash was asked as to the reported statement that Mr. Padington in evidence before the commission had stated that he had instructions to strip the files of certain telegrams.

"I didn't communicate with Mr. Padington," replied Mr. Lash. "I don't know what Mr. Padington said, neither do you. I have seen some newspaper reports in connection with this matter, which I myself know to be incorrect."

From whom instructions went to Mr. Padington Mr. Lash declined to say.

Contract With C. P. R.

In connection with the destruction of telegrams it is pointed out that the C. P. R., with its extensive telegraphic system, does not find it necessary to destroy telegrams so speedily as the G. N. W.'s new rule requires. The C. P. R. rule reads: "70—Each month's telegrams will be retained for a period of six months, at the end of which time, unless otherwise ordered, they will be destroyed, or mutilated in such a manner that it will be impossible for any persons to read them, providing, however, that no business should be destroyed until all outstanding error sheets are destroyed."

30,000 MECHANICS AT WORK ON WARSHIPS IN BARROW SAYS LONDON MECHANIC

No Indication of British Workman's Delinquency There.

IN SUBMARINE SHOPS

Mr. Thomas Forced To Live Nine Miles Out Because of Numbers.

Britain is rushing work in her naval shops, according to a letter received today here from D. Thomas, of Beaconsfield avenue, one of the mechanics who left London to render his services to the motherland, in just as necessary work as the private fulfils in the trenches in France.

Mr. Thomas is working in one of the submarine shops in Barrow-in-Furness. He says that 30,000 men are employed in this centre in building dreadnoughts, submarines and other fighting craft.

Secret Submarine Work.

As to the activities in the submarine shops, Mr. Thomas was not at liberty to say, but from inference it is understood that this department is rushing work also.

To offset the items of news that have from time to time appeared in the hostile press to the effect that the mechanics in Britain were dissatisfied, Mr. Thomas says, the men are putting in regular time every day, and the majority are working overtime.

Live Nine Miles Out.

To give an idea of the number of men working in Barrow-in-Furness, the writer says that he, and many other mechanics, cannot get lodgings in the town, but are compelled to take up quarters nine miles out. Every morning special trains carry them to work, and in the evening return them again.

On the voyage across the Atlantic, Mr. Thomas says that the lifeboats of the vessel they travelled in were half-lowered nearly all the time. This, no doubt, in readiness for any emergency such as the sudden appearance of a German submarine or some other enemy's craft.

SUE COMMISSION NOW FOR GLAUBITZ' SALARY

Solicitors Issue Writ Against Public Utilities to Recover Back Salary.

Meredith & Meredith, acting as solicitors for H. J. Glaubitz, late general manager of the public utilities commission, issued a writ of execution today against the public utilities commission to collect the wages they claim is due their client from the time he served as manager of the commission after his reinstatement.

The writ, previously issued for the same reason against the city, was thrown out when it was found that the mayor could not be held liable.

"The writ that was issued today is the one that dikes the place of the one issued against the city of London," said Ed. Meredith, K.C., solicitor for H. J. Glaubitz, in explanation of the situation.

"We will go through with this case now," he continued. "The writ is in the sheriff's hands, and there is no reason why we cannot collect the money."

German Soldiers Are Said To Have Slaughtered Revolting Civilians.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—The Central News publishes a dispatch from Amsterdam saying that a traveller from Ghent, Belgium, brings a report of a revolt last Tuesday on the part of the inhabitants of Malines. German soldiers fired into the crowd, and the traveller says seven hundred civilians were killed.

The Amsterdam correspondent says no confirmation of this narrative has been received.

Since this occurrence, according to the traveller, Malines has been isolated by means of electrified wire fences.

Canon Tucker Makes Stirring Address To Synod of Huron.

THE CHURCH IS AROUSED

"Scatter Our Enemies" Verse Replaced in the Hymnal.

ALL CANADIANS LOYAL

Some Members Think Declaration To the King Is Unnecessary.

That it was the duty of every able-bodied young man in the country to respond to the call for volunteers in the present war crisis was the emphatic statement of Rev. Canon Tucker in the course of an intensely patriotic address which he delivered in moving a resolution expressing the synod's loyalty to Britain at this morning's sitting of the Synod of Huron.

War, he said, was a foolish way of settling disputes, but sometimes war was unavoidable, and Britain's part in the present conflict was a matter for pride, not shame. And Canada's part in it also was a glorious one. The memory of Langemarck would be an inspiration to the children of generations yet unborn.

It should emanate from the synod, he thought, that England, who drew the sword in defence of the right against the wrong, should never sheath it until the monster of iniquity, which Germany had proved herself to be, was utterly crushed and made impotent, to repeat the atrocities of which she had been guilty since she plunged Europe into strife.

Would Defend Home.

He referred specifically to some of the authentic cases of insults and outrage offered to women, and he said: "I am a man of peace, and have never raised my hand against mortal man, but if a man came into my house and insulted or outraged my women-folk, I should try to get hold of a poker or some similar weapon and dash out his brains."

The motion was seconded by Canon Howard, who shortly expressed similar views to those of Canon Tucker. It was carried unanimously, every delegate standing and singing the two first verses of the National Anthem, the second being the one which a notice of motion given on the first day of the session suggests should be restored to the hymn, commencing "O Lord, our God, arise, scatter her enemies."

Permits Atrocities.

The bishop, before putting the motion, referred to a book which, he said, could be purchased quite cheaply, an official German war book, issued by the German general staff, which authorized the committing of all kinds of atrocities. This proved, he said, that the outrages committed by German soldiers were not isolated cases resulting from excitement and "battle lust."

A motion to cable His Majesty King George, assuring him of the synod's loyalty, gave rise to some unexpected discussion. It was introduced by Rev. W. F. Brownlee of St. Thomas, and John Ransford of Clinton immediately opposed it on the ground that the loyalty of every Canadian was unquestioned and did not need to be expressed in a cable.

Mr. Backus agreed with him, and it was suggested that, rather than have the synod divided on such a question, the motion should be withdrawn. There were those, however, who insisted that the King's name having been introduced the synod ought to go on to express itself, and the vote was taken. Mr. Ransford did not vote, and the bishop declared the motion carried nem. con.

The National Anthem.

Rev. W. J. Doherty's motion to petition the General Synod to restore the second verse of the National Anthem was put and carried after his lordship had expressed the view that the course proposed was somewhat dangerous. It was not advisable, he thought, to legis-

KING OF BELGIANS SEES INDIAN SHOW

Witnesses Wonderful Exhibition By Indian Horsemen.

WAR HORRORS FORGOTTEN

French Spectators Enthusiastic Fans at Real Gymkana.

[BY FREDERICK PALMER.]
(Who is at the front in France for The Canadian Press.)

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, June 16.—King Albert of the Belgians, who has not had many afternoons off during the last eleven months, took one off to see a show—a gymkana. He has stuck as close to his job in what remains of his kingdom as has many a desk-ridden businessman, who cannot be induced to go to the mountains or to the seashore. Whether living in their own houses, or refugees whose houses in the fighting zone have been demolished by shells, the French people in the rear of the British front have not had many afternoons off either. The women, the old, the crippled and every child who could hold a hoe had taken the place of the able-bodied men away at war. With the crops all in and the wheat ripening, word came that strange picturesque mortals from somewhere beyond the Arabian Nights' country, known as the British Indian troops, who had been refrigerating through a raw Flanders winter in French barns and outbuildings, were going to give an exhibition of horsemanship.

No Admission Fee.

Everybody was invited and there was no admission fee. It was like a free wild west show on the outskirts of a New England village, with a chance to see a heroic king, and if he was really as tall as the people had said.

The scene was a small plateau hardened by hoofs of the cavalry drill, the one space in Northern France which the industry of those too weak to fight had not made green with cultivation. Across the sweep of fields and groves which hid the trenches and batteries along the British front was an almost unbroken silence, but farther north a section of the horizon was roaring like a gigantic muffled snare-drum.

There French guns, hundreds of French guns, were busy tearing away at the German works known as "The Labyrinth". There men were being killed or wounded every minute, but those living near the front thought nothing of that. They are as used to it as is anybody living in the neighborhood of Niagara Falls to their roar.

Out of Icebox.

Joy was in the Indians' hearts, the joy of a warming sunshine to children of the sun fairly out of a winter icebox at last.

They were free of swaths, the clothing which the King-Emperor had supplied to them to keep out the Flanders cold. Sunshine had oiled their muscles under their bronze skins. Broadway and Kansas in dog-days would not be too hot for them. They would be something like India and home. And white "sahibs" said two more months—July and August—which were warmer still were coming.

Those who had survived the trench warfare were going to show how well they had kept themselves through the winter. Particularly, they were going to show how well they had kept their horses amid the mud and slush. As with the Cossack, praise their horses and you praise them.

Contrast and picturesqueness, if you please, were in the trot past of these easterners, a bit out of Dubar and Delhi in an obscure corner of Northern France, as they were reviewed by this giant, fair-haired king, with drooping straw-colored moustache, giving him a Viking air, who personified the cause for which the Allies now are fighting.

Groups of Indian officers in the watching crowd rubbed elbows with French peasants. The French of different regiments, after a greeting, referred to some comrade who had fallen since they last met.

War is Forgotten.

Then the war and its horrors were forgotten in the British love of sport. An Indian emitting a fierce, screaming yell, galloped down the field and impaled a small wooden peg, stuck in the ground, on his lance.

"Bravo," called the officers, as he rushed by at top speed. Another Indian tried the same thing and failed. "Too bad," was heard, but there were more "bravos" than "too bads" spoken in the quiet way the British express their emotions.

These officers were in India in spirit. They were the leaders who had made soldiers out of the human clay of the East, and had held them in the face of German shells as a part of the working of that extensive plant called the British Empire.

French Real "Fans."

When it came to demonstrativeness, the French were real "fans". Grandfather, mother and children were having the time of their lives. It beat the movies in town and there was nothing to pay either. They liked the way the Indians yelled. That made them seem like real, sure-enough Indians. A British cavalryman would only pick up a peg. He would not yell.

As four riders, looking as wild as any theatrical manager would desire, came tearing down the field abreast, their white teeth gleaming as they uttered their screaming challenges, picked up four of those bits of wood at the same instant and waved their lance-heads aloft, a token of their success to the King, one old Frenchman said: "I wish it had been four Germans they had speared in a charge."

It was a great day for the hard-worked French peasantry, when they could see both the hard-worked King of the Belgians and an Indian gymkana. And the roar kept coming from that distant section of the horizon where the steady hail of shells was eating its way into the German trenches with a mechanical routine of steam shovels cutting into the side of a hill.

USBORNE METHODISTS CELEBRATE 50TH YEAR

On Sunday the congregation of Zion Church, Usborne, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary and Monday a picnic was held on the public school grounds. The Sunday services were taken by two of the pioneer preachers, in the morning by Rev. Mr. Quance of Bryon and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Veal of Lambeth. Mr. Veal was the young man on that station forty-two years ago, Mr. Quance coming a few years after. The church at the time it was open belonged to the Bible Christians, and at the time of the union joined with the Methodists.

There are very few of the pioneers left. There were large crowds to hear both ministers on Sunday and also a large number attended the picnic on Monday. There were addresses given by Bros. Veal, Quance, Holms and McAllister. Solos were given by Messrs. Mills of Woodham and Saul of Kirkton; violin solo by Mr. Skinner of Elimville and singing by the Centralia Quartet. On Sunday the music was led by the Granton choir. The proceeds amounted to about $180.

Every Death Sentence Must Have the Kaiser's O.K. Now

AMSTERDAM, June 16, via London—Every sentence of death by a court martial in Belgium must hereafter be indorsed by Emperor William before the prisoners are executed, according to a telegram received today by the Tyd from its correspondent at Maastricht.

The writer of the dispatch intimates that Emperor William telegraphed these instructions on learning that eight citizens of Liege had been executed for alleged espionage, and that twenty others were in prison charged with the same offence.

There was great anxiety as to the probable fate of the twenty until Emperor William's order was posted alongside the list of names of those who had already been shot.

British Capture Nearly Mile of German Trench

Also Occupy Part of Second Line East of Ypres, But Forced To Abandon Mile of Front at Festubert After Taking Possession.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, June 16, 10:50 p.m.—For the first time in weeks there has been heavy fighting over a comparatively extensive line of the British front in Belgium and France. The Berlin official communication makes note of it and describes it as an Anglo-French movement synchronizing with the Russian reverses in Galicia.

To win a mile of front and then to lose it before terrific German counter-attacks was the experience of the British on Tuesday night near Festubert. In a statement, frank if brief, Field Marshal French records this incident, but does not state the losses, which must have been heavy on both sides.

The Germans are as frank in conceding the loss of ground near Ypres, but they make no mention of having been forced, even temporarily, to yield a mile of their Festubert stronghold.

Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British forces in France, reports that the British troops captured and then lost a line of German trenches at Festubert, but that the British have occupied the German positions to the north of Hooge for a distance of 1,000 yards.

SIR JOHN FRENCH'S REPORT.

The report says:

"Last week there was no change in the situation. The enemy exploded five mines on different parts of our front, but none of these caused any damage to our trenches and only one caused any casualties.

"Yesterday evening we captured the German front line trenches east of Festubert on a mile front, but failed to hold them during the night against strong counter-attacks.

"Early this morning we successfully attacked the enemy's position north of Hooge (to the east of Ypres). We occupied the whole of his first line of trenches on a front of 1,000 yards and also parts of his second line.

"By noon today 157 prisoners had passed to our rear. The German counter-attack was repulsed with heavy losses."

IMPORTANT GAINS IN THE VOSGES; RHEIMS CATHEDRAL SHELLED AGAIN

PARIS, June 16.—10:30 p.m.—The French communications today announce the capture and subsequent loss by the British of a mile of German trenches, west of La Bassee, the capture of a German airship near La Ferte Milon, the renewed bombardment of Rheims and an important gain in the Vosges.

The following official communication was issued tonight:

"To the north of Ypres the British troops have occupied a line of German trenches. The gains made to the west of La Bassee have not been maintained.

Gains North of Arras.

"In the sector to the north of Arras we have gained ground at divers points, notably to the east of Lorette, to the southwest and south of Souchez and in the 'Labyrinth.' We took 300 prisoners and several machine guns.

"To the south of Arras the Germans violently bombarded the positions which they lost in the region of the Toutvent farm, but without delivering an infantry attack.

"At the Quennevieres farm, after having repelled several counter-attacks by the enemy, we extended our gain to the northwest of the trenches already captured. We made about a hundred prisoners, including two officers.

Rheims Bombarded.

"The town of Rheims has been bombarded. The enemy has thrown about a hundred shells, several of which were of the incendiary type, and about a dozen of the projectiles fell on the cathedral.

"In the Vosges we have realized important progress on the two banks of the Upper Fecht. On the north bank, more particularly, we have taken possession of Braun-Kop. The enemy left in our hands 340 prisoners, not wounded, of whom four were officers, and a large quantity of material comprising a number of rifles and 500,000 cartridges.

"Yesterday several bombs were dropped on Nancy, St. Die and Belfort by German aeroplanes operating singly. At Nancy only several civilians suffered by the attack."

GERMANY ADMITS LOSS OF GROUND.

BERLIN, June 16. — Via London, 7:45 p.m.—The German Army Headquarters today gave out the following statement:

"In consequence of the Russian defeat, the English and French again attacked many points on the western frontier with strong forces. The English succeeded in forcing back to some extent our positions near Ypres, to the north of Bellewaarde, where the battle continues.

"To attacks made by four English divisions between the Estaire-La-Bassee road and the LaBassee Canal failed, our Westphalian troops and divisions of the guard completely repulsing the assaults after desperate hand-to-hand fighting. The enemy sustained heavy losses, and left several machine guns and bomb throwers in our hands.

"Since the defeat of June 13-14 the enemy has made no further venture against the strong positions near Lorette Hill, held by Baden troops, near Moulin-Sous-Toutvent fighting continues.

"An attempt made by the enemy to break through our lines in the Vosges between the Facht and the Lauch Valleys failed. Fighting continues there only to the north of Metzeral and Hilzenfurst. Otherwise all the attacks were repulsed."

STOLEN INGERSOLL HORSE IS FOUND AT COURTLAND

Light Wagon Evidently Traded for Old Buggy by Thief.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, June 16.—The horse stolen from Bonesteel's Livery was located today in the vicinity of Courtland. It had been turned into a farmer's pasture field, while an old buggy was found nearby in a bush. The light wagon hired with the horse has not been found. It is supposed the wagon was traded. The stranger evidently secured the outfit as an easy means of travelling, and as soon as he considered an effort would be made to trace him he abandoned it.

The drygoods business carried on for some time by W. Surplise & Co., has been purchased by the Wright Drygoods Co.

MEMBERS OF SYNOD PROTEST AGAINST THE 'DRY' CANTEEN

Singling Out Troops Deplorable, Says E. G. Henderson.

INJUSTICE, SAYS ANOTHER

Charles Jenkins of Petrolea Says He Is Bitterly Opposed to Act.

"I don't think the Government has any moral quality to commend itself, if you get down to the moral point of view," said Charles Jenkins of Petrolea yesterday afternoon, in a discussion following an amendment to the report of the moral and social reform committee's report, which was to the effect that the Synod of Huron express its appreciation to the Government in enforcing the dry canteen. The amendment lost, but it caused a great deal of discussion on the evils and benefits of abstinence, as seen by the different members, lay and clergy, of the diocese.

Canon Craig, who seconded the amendment which Matthew Wilson, Chatham, entered, took exception to the words of Mr. Jenkins, and said it was his personal conviction that the liquor traffic should be tied up as tight as it was possible to tie it, and that this conviction was growing within him more and more.

Mr. Jenkins assured the canon that, in his mind, the act of the Government in discriminating against the soldiers was an uncalled for act of injustice, and he, for one, was bitterly opposed to it.

Matthew Wilson, Chatham, stated that the Province of Ontario had legislation along temperance lines far in advance of any other province in Canada, and he thought that the Government's action in causing the dry canteen to be put into force was commendable.

Appeal Against "Dry" Canteen.

E. G. Henderson, Windsor, made a strong appeal which greatly disfavored the action of the Government in causing the establishment of the dry canteen. "It is popular to speak of temperance and the dry canteen," he said, "but I, for one, am not going to win my way to popularity so. I consider the singling out of the soldiers and removing from their reach in the canteen the privilege of drinking beer and ale, to be a deplorable thing. I don't think I represent the intemperate element. When the soldiers cannot get their beer and ale in a canteen they are surely going where they can get it, and this leads them to the hotel. There the stronger drinks are within their grasp, and many in this way become intoxicated, when otherwise they would not. If you recommend the dry canteen for soldiers, why not recommend like treatment for all of us?"

J. B. Fotheringham, Goderich, convener of the committee that drafted the moral and social reform report, was strongly opposed to the passing of the amendment in relation to the dry canteen, and urged upon the members of the synod the necessity of passing the report as brought in, without amendments.

"The law of free will is greater than the law of compulsion," he said, "and if a man knows he is set apart and refused what his brother may get, the chances are ten to one he will also go out of his way to get this thing. This doctrine of might is right should not creep into our country. We are fighting this very idea now. The Church of England has always stood for right and justice and ever will. I don't think the Government's action in reference to the soldiers and the dry canteen is just. If we pass this amendment we shall be denying ourselves and all we stand for."

John Ransford, lay secretary of the synod, made a stirring plea against compulsory prohibition, stating that if he were at the front and wished fifty men to rush a German trench he would prefer to have at his back men who had been moderate drinkers than fifty teetotalers. Compulsion drives the soldiers to the hotels, he said.

Condemns Liquor Traffic.

J. M. McElheran, London, voiced his feelings when he strongly condemned the liquor traffic in toto, as did also Rev. C. Miles, Aylmer, who stated that allied generals in the field were strongly in favor of no drinking, stating that the total abstainer made the best soldier.

Rev. H. E. Brag, Thamesford, was of the opinion that the dry canteen law was put into force simply as a sop thrown to the W. C. T. U.

"I'm a temperance man," he said, "but I think the women of this country have tried to put on the shoulders of the legislators what should have been accomplished within the four walls of their own dwellings."

O. E. Fleming, Windsor, thought the report should be left as read, without the amendment. When a vote was taken the amendment lost.

The Report.

The report as brought in and adopted reads:

The committee on moral and social reform begs to report:

We desire to place on record a recognition of the good work done by the Government of Ontario in its dealing with the liquor traffic during the past year. Your committee seeks to draw the attention of the synod to the following resolution adopted by the House of Bishops on 14th of April:

"The bishops of the Church of England in Canada strongly recommend all members of the church, throughout the Dominion, to abstain entirely from the use of alcoholic liquors, as a beverage, during the present war, and also to refrain absolutely from treating others. And further, they urge the Provincial Governments to take immediate steps to shorten, considerably, the hours during which the sale of liquor is at present permissible."

We strongly commend this resolution to the members of the church. In this time of national crisis, self-denial should be the rule of all citizens, and every effort made to promote the success of our arms.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. B. FOTHERINGHAM, convener.

Rev. A. E. Hiltz, general secretary of the Sunday school work of the Anglican Church in Canada addressed the members of the synod, placing before them, in concise manner, the work of that department during the past year. He said the work was in splendid shape and doing better each year. The report of inspector of Sunday schools, as read by Canon C. R. Gunne, chairman, was passed as a whole.

The report of the committee on the Anglican Young People's Association was read and adopted as a whole.

The members of the committee on memorials to deceased brethren were named as follows: Ven. Archdeacon Richardson, convener, Archdeacon Hill, Rev. W. Low, W. Swaisland and Dr. Moorehouse.

Evening Session.

At the evening session, Rev. J. W. J. Andrew of Berlin read the missionary report, which was adopted. The sum raised on apportionment for missions for Canada during the past year was $165,282.52, an increase over last year of $14,827.73. This is the first time the M. S. C. C. total would be over $200,000, and this despite the war. Of this sum Huron raised $19,292. Missionary meetings in deaneries were urged with the end in view of stimulating parishioners in missionary work and givings.

The apportionment for missions for 1915 had been found a hard task. However, of the total of $177,892.33, $164,824 had been set aside for foreign and Canadian missionary work, and $13,068.33 for parish work in the Dominion. Of this amount Huron will be expected to raise $21,535, $20,115 for Canadian and foreign missions, and $1,420 for Jewish missions.

"Patriotism," concluded Mr. Andrew," demands that the church strengthen herself in new parts of the Dominion this year."

Matthew Wilson, in seconding the acceptation of the missionary report, said that it was the true part of Canada as her duty in the present great world strife waging in Europe to give of men and money and to keep on giving until the result looked forward to was attained, but that this giving should not be at the expense of missionary work among the heathen and in Canada.

Work in India Progressing.

"We are reaping part of the benefits of our work in India in the way these people have rallied to the British flag in the present horrible war in Europe," said Charles Jenkins of Petrolea. The spirit of the German people is not the spirit of Christ, their barbarities and atrocities are absolutely opposed to the teaching of the Great Man of Peace. Germany needs Christianizing."

The Bishop in summing up the various remarks of the speakers said that it behooved all to bestir themselves in missionary endeavor, particularly since the awful state of affairs engendered in Europe, a Christian continent, so-called. The bishop also made a strong plea for rural deaneries to organize missionary deputations who will make themselves responsible for missionary work in the diocese and see to it that the duplex system of envelope in the church work be carried out. Four resolutions to this effect were introduced by Bishop Williams.

J. Y. Ormsby, Toronto, spoke of the duplex envelope system and said the system has proved very successful wherever used. Missionary purposes and parochial both benefited through the use of this system, he said. The necessity for an every member canvas every year on this duplex envelope was urged.

W. C. Brent also spoke shortly on the ultimate effect of the work of the Laymen's missionary movement through the introduction of the duplex system. Mr. Brent also tendered to the good wishes of the Toronto Synod to the London Synod. The possibilities in the duplex system were unbounded, concluded the speaker.

In the discussion which followed these men took part: Rev. Canon Craig, W. H. Backus, H. O. Owen and Canon Tucker.

3 TORPEDOES SEEN DASHING ON LUSITANIA

Seamen Say They Saw Wash of Two On Starboard Side.

ANOTHER FROM THE PORT

Sir Edward Carson Believes Two Submarines Waited For Liner.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—The investigation into the sinking of the Cunard Line steamer Lusitania, May 7, by a German submarine off the coast of Ireland, with a loss of over 1,100 lives, was resumed in London today under the direction of Baron Mersey.

Sir Edward Carson, the attorney-general, expressed his conviction that a second submarine was lying in wait on the Lusitania's port side. Sir Edward made this statement in reply to an argument put forward by Baron Mersey, who said he thought a mistake had been made by Mr. O'Neil, one of the witnesses before the court, who testified he had seen the wash of a torpedo passing the stern of the Lusitania from the port to the starboard side immediately after the liner had been hit on the starboard side. Mr. O'Neil was formerly in the navy. He is positive that he recognized the wash of a torpedo, although he did not see the submarine which fired it from the port side.

Saw Wash of Others.

This testimony of O'Neil's was corroborated by another seaman witness, who testified also that he saw the wash of two torpedoes from the starboard side. These came forward in parallel lines until they almost reached the ship, when they parted at a slight angle, first one and then the other striking the Lusitania.

Capt. W. T. Turner, who was in command of the Lusitania at the time she went down, was recalled to the stand today and asked why the collapsible boats had not been freed from their blocks on entering the danger zone. He replied he feared the boats would slide about when the ship listed and sweep passengers into the sea. The captain admitted further that some boats were strapped on the tops of others.

No Advantage.

When asked by Baron Mersey if the increase in the number of small boats on liners since the Titanic disaster was of any advantage, Capt. Turner answered that he did not think so.

Chief Steward Jones declared that he had not seen any lifeboats on the upper decks of the Lusitania after the liner had left New York.

Chief Carpenter Robertson said the condition of the lifeboats was good when the Lusitania left New York. In reply to the statement of the attorney for a relative of one of the victims that a certain lifeboat leaked so badly that all but two of the occupants were drowned, the chief carpenter replied that he was unable to throw any light on this statement, but said it was possible for the hot sun to have warped the boat's sides.

Told Ship Was Safe.

The evidence showed that Staff Capt. Anderson countermanded the orders Capt. Turner had given previously to get the women and children into the boats. A number of witnesses testified that they got into the boats, and had to leave them later on orders from Capt. Anderson, who was heard shouting, "The ship is safe."

It was also testified that no life belts were available on deck during the voyage. Betram Jenkins of New York, a saloon passenger, said he had remarked several times to other passengers on the absence of life belts.

Doubts Their Lack.

"That you did not see them I well believe, but that they were not there I cannot believe," commented Baron Mersey.

A woman witness also told the court she was unable to find life belts. Another passenger said he helped to launch a lifeboat full of women and children, unassisted by the crew, but the boat leaked so badly that it sank a few minutes after touching the water. / Baron Mersey asked whether the boat was damaged in being lowered, as it was on the port side. The witness replied that if the boat bumped against the hull as it was going down, he was unaware of it.

D. A. Thomas, known as the "British Coal King," who was on the Lusitania, was of the opinion that some members of the crew did not obey the captain's orders to attend first to the rescue of women and children, but attempted to save themselves first.

CARDINAL MERCIER DEFENDING POPES

Denies As Calumny Reports That They Favored Belgium's Enemies.

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, via Paris, June 17.—A pastoral letter just issued by Cardinal Mercier, archbishop of Malines, Belgium, has been published by the Corriere D'Italia. In it the cardinal says in part:

"Since the commencement of the war, designing persons have persistently spread the report that Pius X and Benedict XV favored our enemies financially and morally and had, by their weakness, failed to recognize the right of the Belgian people.

This is a calumny. The simple and magnanimous heart of Pius X was incapable of any complacence toward injustice; Benedict XV has done for the Belgians all that he could. His first pontifical benediction was for us. He himself charged me to say to you in his name that twice, notwithstanding his slender resources, has he made generous gifts to Belgium. He has had the paternal kindness to send us two comforting letters, and especially one letter to support our courage in the difficult moments in January."

Mr. Gibbs in a neat speech told of the high regard in which Miss Carrothers was held by the oter teachers, and Miss Pigot made the presentation. Miss Carrothers made a fitting reply and thanked all for the gift and the happy relations that had existed between herself and other members of the sta during the time she had labored among them.

SHOULD BE A SUCCESS.—The patriotic garden party and band concert to be held in the grounds of the Western University this afternoon and evening in aid of the soldiers' comforts, promises to be a great success. The 34th band will supply music this afternoon, and tonight the 7th Regiment band will be in attendance. Ice cream, candy and other refreshments are for sale both afternoon and evening, and dancing will be indulged in tonight, when the grounds will be well lighted for the occasion. The entire affair is under the management of the Alumnae and students of the university.

MOTHERS' CLUB ELECTION.—The Victoria Mothers' Club held its closing meeting on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Carson presided during election of the following officers: President, Mrs. H. B. White (re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. T. B. McKim (re-elected); secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. W. MacDonald (re-elected); assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Shosenburg. Mrs. Carson gave a short address of very helpful advice. It being mothers' night, there were a number of interesting discussions on various topics, interspersed with several splendid instrumental and vocal selections by Mr. Bishop. Light refreshments were served.

PICNIC A HUGE SUCCESS.—The annual picnic of the R. J. Young Company's staff was celebrated in royal style at Springbank Park on Wednesday afternoon. The merry-makers indulged in a lengthy program of athletics of all kinds, each event being hotly contested, and for which, through the generosity of the firm, suitable prizes were awarded. The ball game was unusually interesting, and the married men again demonstrated their superiority, the score being 22 to 2 in their favor. At six o'clock all interest centred around the festive board, and never were the needs of hungry, happy people more carefully catered for. When all, numbering over sixty, were seated, rousing cheers were given for the firm and all hands sang "They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Austrians Driven From Forest and Ambushes

Splendid Work by Alpine and Other Italian Troops—Successes Reported Along Whole Front — Hundreds of Prisoners Taken.

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, June 16—Via Paris, June 17.—Italian success at various points on the battle line are claimed in an official statement issued tonight at the war office, which says:

"Fighting to our advantage is reported from all along the front, notably at Seugnatorta and Brentonico in the Adige valley; at Fedaja Pass and Montepiano in Cadore along the line of crests from Valle Piccolo to Valle Grande in Carnia, where the enemy has redoubled his efforts in the past few days, and at certain points along the Isonzo our troops are making secure successes already obtained.

Alpine Troops Splendid.

"Special importance attaches to the action developed in the Monte Nero zone by our Alpine troops, to whom had been intrusted the task of dislodging the enemy from ambushes among the rocks which buttress the summit on the northern side. It was begun at night by a daring and difficult escalade of the crags. The action was continued at dawn by impetuous attacks, which were drowned with complete success. Up to the present the capture of 375 prisoners, including 14 officers, has been announced, but this is only the first instalment."

POSITION STORMED.

[Canadian Press.]

Geneva, via Paris, June 17.—Dispatches received here from Laibach by the Geneva newspapers say that the Italian Bersaglieri have stormed an Austrian observation post near Buche in the Cadorra Alps, and that the strong Austrian detachment defending it was either killed or made prisoners.

The dispatches add that the localities around Manfalcone have been bombarded by Italian artillery and that the Italian advance guards have now reached Komen. Three lines of railway are declared to have been partially destroyed by the Italian troops.

Hundreds of Prisoners.

The Austrians also have been driven from the forest of Ternova, according to the dispatches and several hundred Tyroleans have been made prisoners.

Italian forces operating along the Gail River in Carinthia are said to have captured in the environs of Kellerwald, a major and five other officers of an Austrian Alpine regiment, which had been shelled out of strongly-fortified positions of high strategic importance with heavy loss.

MORE OCCUPIED.

[Canadian Press.]

Verona, Italy, June 17—Via Chiasso and Paris.—News received here from the front to the effect that the Italians have virtually occupied the town of Mori, advancing from both the south and the east. Mori is about 20 miles from here and about five miles from Rovereto. The way between Mori and Rovereto is, however, most difficult. Fortifications have been erected on virtually every commanding position in this district, and to move forward out of Mori will necessitate the dismantling of many trenches.

DUEL CONTINUES.

[Canadian Press.]

Udine, Italy, June 17—Via Chiasso and Paris.—The artillery duel between Austrians and Italians in the Carnic Alps is continuing day and night. When darkness falls searchlights and rockets are brought into play to make fighting successful in bringing powerful artillery against the positions in these mountains held by the Italians.

Up to the present time the Italians would appear to have been able to maintain their superiority.

Surprises Succeed.

Italian troops, customs guards and the Alpine men have made successful surprise attacks upon the enemy, compelling them in several cases to surrender without fighting. It is their custom to advance upon the enemy in trenches considered impregnable over little-known smugglers' trails and win their fight by the suddenness of their appearance. In this manner the mountains to the west and to the south of Malborgeth have been occupied, as have also certain heights dominating the plateau of Gail.

A paralytic stroke is thought to have been the cause of death. Surviving are two sons and one daughter: Lorne, of Denver, Col.; Clayton, at home, and Mrs. George C. Hopperton, Cleveland, O. Funeral arrangements are not yet completed.

Death of C. L. Papst.

Christopher L. Papst, husband of Sarah, 181 Clarence street, died early this morning at Victoria Hospital, after a long illness. One son, Martin, of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Flett, of this city, survive. The funeral will be private, and will be held on Saturday at 2 o'clock to Woodland Cemetery. Services will be conducted at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. Canon Craig, rector of St. John the Evangelist Church.

ESTEEMED LADY DIES

Mrs. Downs, of Goderich, a Graduate of Victoria.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Goderich, June 17.—Sarah Griffith, wife of Thomas Davis, the well-known liveryman, died at her home early this morning.

Mrs. Davis was a former London lady, being the daughter of the late John R. Griffith, who was a well-known artist of London. Mrs. Davis came to Goderich several years ago to take charge as superintendent of Alexander Hospital, and held that position until her marriage about two years ago.

She was very popular, and had received much credit for the able manner she had conducted the hospital. She leaves her husband, a baby girl, a few days old, several sisters, Miss Eliza, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Adams of London, Ada and Lew, one brother, John of the City Creamery, London.

The funeral will take place on Saturday, with services in St. George's Church.

NO FEARS THAT BARS WILL STAY

The temperance people have appointed a committee which will meet the members of the license commission when they come to London to look over the premises of the four hotels slated for oblivion. This was done last night when the members of the Men's Federation and other allied organizations got together and formulated plans, whereby the endeavors of the liquor element will be frustrated, if it is at all possible to do so.

The temperance people are not in the least alarmed at any possibility of the four licenses cut off being renewed. They say that if the license commissioners take a new tack now, after having given their word that the four places should go, then it would do more harm to future work of the commission than anything else could.

IRISH POLITICAL TRUCE IN DANGER

People Consider Ulsterites Have Too Much Say in Cabinet.

APPOINTMENTS DISLIKED

Political Organization Advised To Get Ready for Emergencies.

[Canadian Press.]

Dublin, Ireland, June 17.—The political truce established in Ireland during the war is seriously endangered because of the preferment given the Ulster leaders in the new coalition Cabinet. Resolutions condemning the appointment of Carson, Bonar Law and F. E. Smith are being passed in all provinces, except in the northern and Protestant end of the island. Not only societies and political organizations, but city and local councils join in the protest.

The opinion of the Irish parliamentary party that the political organization in the country should be got ready for any emergency is becoming popular.

Besides pulling out her hair, Dorishook's had beaten her, when he came home drunk last night. He was mad because she had garnisheed three months wages due him. Neither of the principals in the case could speak English, and their evidence was given through interpreters. Dorishook was fined $1.85 costs.

Five first-time drunks presented various excuses and were discharged.

Field Ambulance, who is the London recruiting officer for the battery as well as for the additional men needed for the Field Ambulance Depot, believes that the necessary men will be secured without the slightest trouble.

Six have already been signed up for the A. M. C. unit, and one for the battery, but there have been a number of applications for both. It is believed that the full complement will be recruited within a few days.

TWO ATTEMPTS BY SUBS. REPORTED

Canadian Transport and a C. P. R. Liner Said To Have Been Attacked.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, June 17.—The Canadian Pacific liner Montfort arrived here last night and reported being attacked by a submarine when one day out from Avonmouth. The Montfort's officers thought they were due for destruction when the destroyer Demara came up and shelled the submarine, causing it to dive. Before it dared come up again the C. P. R. ship had made good its escape. So hard did the engineers push the Montfort that her machinery broke down the next day. She was thus seventeen days on a trip ordinarily covered in ten.

CAPTAIN DENIES.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, June 17.—The story of the attempt on the Montfort by a German submarine is denied by the captain of the vessel.

MISSED CANADIAN TROOP SHIP.

[Canadian Press.]

Quebec, June 17.—A letter received in Quebec today from a member of the 2nd Canadian Contingent says that as the steamer Saxona, with troops from Canada, neared the Irish coast on her last voyage, she was attacked by a German submarine. A torpedo was fired, but went awash, racing on the surface of the sea some forty feet behind the transport.

TEMPERANCE MAN PRAISED MR. McAVOY

Albert Grigg, M. P. P. Says He Respects Hotelman Whose License Is to Go.

P. J. McAvoy, proprietor of the Hotel Windsor, stated this morning that he desired to correct an impression given by a report of the appeal made to the provincial license commission on behalf of the three hotelkeepers whose licenses will be abolished unless the appeal is successful.

The report said that Albert Grigg, M. P. P. for Algoma, who was license inspector in the district for four years, wrote, stating that he knew the London hotels to be well-conducted places, although he was a temperance man.

The fact is that Mr. McAvoy formerly kept a hotel at Bruce Mines, in the Algoma district, while Mr. Grigg was inspector. He received a letter from Mr. Grigg, stating that while the former inspector was opposed to the whole liquor business he had learned to respect Mr. McAvoy, and had found him to conduct a hotel on proper lines.

Mr. McAvoy says that he has never had a conviction for breach of the law recorded against him, and that he believes he has improved the Windsor since coming to the city. He said that he had never taken a dishonest cent over his bar and had often saved the money of intoxicated men who came into his place.

LIGHT WEIGHT BREAD

Ald. Summers Says It Is Being Sent to County.

At a meeting of No. 3 committee last evening Ald. Summers reported that local bakers are sending light weight bread out into the county and selling it. The committee asked Inspector McCallum to look into the matter and report.

The committee will visit various sites which have been mentioned for new stables for the garbage department on June 29, and report later.

Fire Chief Aitken and Ald. Wilson were named as delegates to attend the Fire Chiefs' convention at Ottawa, on August 24 to 27.

The request of the Trades and Labor Council that all electrical wiring men be required to pass an examination was favorably dealt with and a bylaw will be prepared.

A request from the Royal Bank that part of the pavilion on the market be removed while improvements are being made to the bank building, was referred to the city engineer.

The market clerk was instructed to charge fruit sellers, who desire to rent spaces on the market, a rental of $25.

BROKER PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO THEFT.

Montreal, June 17.—Alfred J. Estes, of the brokerage firm of H. A. Estes & Co., 118 St. Francois Xavier street, was arrested this morning at his office on a charge of the theft of $2,000 in cash and a bond certificate of $1,000 from Fred Cuck, which he is alleged to have converted to his own use. Estes is charged with running a bucket shop. Estes appeared in the courtroom and pleaded "not guilty."

BISHOP'S AUTO FIGURES IN CASE

Chauffeur Is Charged With Driving Past Standing Car.

HIS LORDSHIP'S DENIAL

Magistrate Says Chief Williams Can Look Over Street Car.

Rt. Rev. M. F. Fallon, bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of London, was a witness in the police court this morning in the case laid by the police against his chauffeur, Ed. Smith, who was charged with a breach of traffic laws.

Patrolman Rose, who was on traffic duty at Dundas and Richmond streets on June 4, swore that the bishop's car was driven west on Dundas street past a standing street car, which was waiting for passengers just east of the Richmond street crossing. The street car had been standing for two or three minutes before the auto passed, he said. A large number of persons were alighting at the rear and entering at the front of the car, the policeman said. His testimony was borne out by Lewis Parker, a ticket seller, who was stationed at the corner.

The Bishop's Auto.

Bishop Fallon in the box stated that his car had come west on Dundas street beside the street car, which was still in motion when his auto stopped, with the hood two or three feet in advance of the rear of the street car. He was positive that the street car was still in motion when his auto stopped, and that nobody was either getting on or off at that time. He went into the Bank of Commerce, and in the meantime the policeman spoke to the chauffeur and took his name.

A. H. Marshall Graydon, counsel for Bishop Fallon, argued that from where the policeman was standing, at the intersection of car tracks on Dundas and Richmond streets, he was unable to see clearly the position of the auto in relation to the street car, wherein lay the point of the case.

Made the Experiment.

Chief of Police cross-questioned the witness. He declared that it was an easy matter to view an auto in the position described. "I know, because I've taken the trouble to make the experiment myself," he said.

"But you could look over the street car," the magistrate remarked. Judgment was reserved in the case for one week.

EVERY ABLE MAN

late in panic, and at the present time no one in the Empire was able to think quite calmly concerning the Empire's enemies. The verse concerned had been deleted after mature and long deliberation, and, after peace was restored, perhaps its reinstatement might be regretted. All were apt to do and say things during war time of which we would be rather ashamed after the war was over.

Deceased Members.

The report of the committee on deceased members was presented by Archdeacon Richardson, who reported that three of the senior clergy of the diocese had been removed by death during the year. They were Rev. S. E. G. Edelstein of Glanworth, Rev. Joseph W. Beaumont, M.D., D.D., of London, and Rev. Canon Downie, D.D., of Port Stanley. A short obituary and review of the life and work of each of these were read.

Principal Waller, who presented the report of the council of Huron College, pointed out that the number of professors and instructors had been materially increased, and that the college now was splendidly equipped for its work.

The report showed that 41 students were actually attending classes during the past session, with a view to holy orders. Two of last year's class had enlisted with the first contingent, of whom Sergt. W. C. Brady had died of wound, and Pte. F. Lewin had been promoted to the rank of corporal for good services in action.

Six had enlisted in the third contingent and two others, whose applications had been received, were known to have enlisted.

The profit and loss account showed a net shortage for the year of $505.11, bringing the total deficit up to more than $2,000. The bishop, however, pointed out that the year's shortage was due primarily to causes which had been totally unexpected. Twelve students had gone to the war and this had meant a loss of revenue amounting to about $500. In addition to this an unforseen need of repairing the drainage system had accounted for an outlay of a similar amount. It was evident, therefore, that but for these two unlooked-for circumstances the balance would have been on the other side of the account. He hoped that next year a net gain might be shown.

As to the total shortage, he pointed out that this dated back a number of years, and that it had not grown materially in the last few years.

Proud of Standing.

Canon Howard, of Chatham, in commenting on the report, declared that the synod had reason to be proud of the good standing of the students of the college. One of them had taken first place in the Western University examinations and others had done remarkably well.

It also should find cause for self-congratulation in the fact that so many young men had relinquished their college courses to take up arms in defence of the Empire.

He paid a tribute of praise to Professor Wright, who, as indicated in the report, had done splendid work in connection with the Ember penny scheme. Up to April 30 he had visited 53 parishes and missions in this connection, and the total contributed was $437.56.

A. H. Backus, Aylmer, also thought the patriotism of those young men who had enlisted in the overseas contingents was something of which the college and the synod had reason to be proud. He urged that the bishop give instructions that the synod's appreciation of their loyalty be sent to each individual man. This will be done.

Dr. Moorehouse of London declared that the Western University was beginning to receive the recognition it deserved. There was a good chance that it would receive a grant of $30,000 from the provincial treasury, and he hoped that the time had come when the provincial authorities would give full recognition to the university. It now could offer to students, so far as the arts courses were concerned, he said, as complete and as good instruction as the greatest university in the country. This was not the case in science, because the cost of the necessary equipment and its maintenance was too great.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, June 17.—There was a good supply of money available today. Discount rates were firm on the poor bank return and the belief that the authorities will soon make an effort to raise the market rates.

The stock market was moderately active. The war loan was the most active issue, and copper shares were good, but gilt-edged securities were easier and Kaffirs and oil shares off color.

In the American section a fair amount of activity developed in United States Steel, Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper, but the other shares were neglected. The closing was steady.

News of Men In Training For Great War

THOUSANDS CROWD PARK TO SEE STIRRING SIGHT AS HUGHES GIVES BATTALION COLORS TO THE 34TH

Major-General Hands Flags to Bearers Amid Ringing Cheers.

AN IMPOSING SPECTACLE

Silent Khaki-Clad Ranks, at "Present," Applauded By Throng.

"CANADA LEADS EMPIRE"

Minister of Militia Lauds Wave of Patriotism, Sweeping Dominion.

One of the striking incidents of yesterday's ceremony in Victoria Park snapped by an Advertiser camera man. Lieut.-Col. Douglas, senior major of the 34th, is just presenting Major-General Hughes with the King's colors after unfurling them. The furled regimental colors are seen to the left and rear, although Major Head, junior major of the battalion, cannot be seen. Immediately to the right and rear of the major-general is Major Kircaldy, and beside him Capt. Dansereau, two Canadian officers who were wounded at St. Julien and who were invalided to this country. They came to London yesterday as aides on the staff of Gen. Hughes.

In the centre of a huge square, three sides of which were lined with the soldiers of the Canadian overseas forces, Major-Gen. Sam Hughes yesterday afternoon presented to the 34th Battalion the colors given that regiment by C. E. Freer of Guelph.

The presentation took place in Victoria Park, and of all the historic events that have transpired there, yesterday's ceremony will go down as one of the greatest. There were gathered there possibly the greatest number of regular soldiers in the history of London, an even greater gathering than in those old days gone by, when Victoria Park was the parade ground of the British regulars that garrisoned London.

An Imposing Spectacle.

The khaki, only brightened by the red of the staff officers, made a sombre but none the less imposing background for the spectacle of presenting colors to a Western Ontario regiment that will leave shortly to support those Canadians who have already made the land of the maple leaf a noteworthy name in the bloody history of the present European war.

Thousands crowded the park, and it is safe to say that none of those, many of whom had come from out of town to see the presentation of the colors, was not thrilled and thrilled again by the sight of the even ranks of bronzed men who have volunteered their services, and even life itself, for King and country.

What It Meant.

There is always a thrill and a patriotic engendering feeling at the sight of any military spectacle. The blare of the bands, the measured tramp of soldierly feet, and the long level lines of rifle barrels, with the flash of the officers' swords, seems to stir any latent patriotism that lies beneath the surface. But how much more so was the sight of yesterday! It was no church parade, no military gathering to commemorate victories of the past. It was a gathering of men sworn to serve their King on the battlefields of Europe, battlefields that have already drunk deep of the best blood of Canada and of the empire.

It semed impossible to feel that many of the stalwart volunteers, standing in their dust-colored ranks, would possibly never return from the front. There was present that touch of sadness that always is present at any leave-taking, but withal there was a feeling of almost glorification that these men stood ready to lay down their life for the cause and for the empire.

Cheers for Men in Khaki.

The actual presentation of the colors was an awe-inspiring ceremony. There were cheers and there was applause as the ranks swung by into position. First came the Mounted Rifles, that took up a position to the north of the park bandstand, and formed the northerly side of the square. Then in marched the 33rd Battalion, headed by its bugle and brass bands, under the leadership of Sergt.-Bugler Nanfan. The 33rd took up the southerly position of the square and formed into line just north of the soldiers' monument. Two companies swung up to the north, and between these and the lines of the 7th C. M. R., the 34th Battalion took its place.

In the centre of the square were piled the drums of the 33rd Bugle Band, and it was on these that the cased flags were placed by the color escort of the 34th, that, with fixed bayonets, marched in from the east side of the square, under the command of Regimental Sergt.-Major A. Caunt.

The parade was under the command of Lieut.-Col. A. J. Oliver.

Just prior to this Gen. Hughes and his staff, accompanied by the officers of divisional headquarters here, came in from the other side, and were greeted by cheers.

Receive Flags, Kneeling.

The ceremony itself was started when Brigade Chaplain Capt. H. D. Peacock of the 33rd Battalion dedicated the flags with the Church of England ritual. Then as Lieuts. Peat and McAdams of the 34th knelt, Gen. Hughes placed the colors in the sockets of the shoulder color-belts these officers wore.

Lieut.-Col. Douglas, second in command of the battalion, took the King's colors from the drum, unfuried them and handed them to Major-Gen. Hughes, who presented them in turn to Lieut. Peat, assistant adjutant of the battalion and senior subaltern. Major Head, second in command of the 34th, took the regimental colors from the drum in like manner. They were given to the junior color-bearer, Lieut. McAdams.

Gen. Hughes Addresses Crowd.

When, amid cheers, the officers and the guard of honor had again taken their places in the ranks, the general addressed the assemblage, directing his remarks to the men and to the crowd as well, and not forgetting to turn the usual compliments to the ladies, making a patriotic speech.

"Men of the overseas forces, let me congratulate you on your splendid appearance," said the general in his introductory remarks. "Only a short time ago you were pursuing your ordinary avocations. Today you are being trained by officers who have led the men who whipped the Germans. You are fit for the firing line.

"The titanic struggle in which we are now engaged is familiar to all, and I will not dwell on that aspect of the case at all. It is a struggle for humanity that has called the British race to arms.

157,000 Canadians Ready!

"In Canada there has been a wonderful rally to the colors. There are now 73,000 men overseas, upwards of 35,000 like yourselves, ready to go, and another 35,000 enrolled. There are, either under arms for overseas service or on duty here in Canada, upwards of 157,000 men, or just four times as many soldiers as had the Duke of Wellington at Waterloo.

"It is remarkable that such a little country as Canada has been able to raise such an army, and your comrades who left last October have taught the world what Canadian soldiers, led by Canadian officers, can do.

"For the first time in the history of human warfare the enemy is using the diabolic scheme of gas-poisoning, and murdering our men, but our Canadian soldiers have fought every device that humans can devise. They stood to their guns at St. Julien, and in that battle wrote their names on the history of the world.

The Spirit That Wins.

"There are with us today two officers severely wounded at that fight (referring to Capt. Dansereau and Major Kircaldy, who came here as his aides). They are anxious to return, as you are to get to the firing line.

"As I predicted last October, and as I told the forces then about to leave, and the whole world, the Canadians are the best shooting men in the world. I was jeered at then, and told that it was impossible, that we would have to have a standing army to accomplish anything such as that. But I knew that the intelligent Canadian youths, who have always been dependent on their own ingenuity, who have the pluck of a young country behind them, would make that showing, and they have. The prediction has been fulfilled.

"No one could believe their valor against overwhelming odds. There were at that engagement 20 to 1 against them, but they held on.

Thanks Canadian Mothers.

"As Minister of Militia, and on behalf of Sir Robert Borden, premier of the country, I want to thank the good women of the country for the way they have encouraged the cause. They have cheered on the boys, these splendid women of Canada, when they have been wounded, and they have encouraged them to enlist.

"Then the clergy, too; I want to thank them. Instead of going around finding fault with what we have been doing, they have come to the front. Many of them are in the ranks. Many are serving as combatant officers, and others are serving as chaplains.

"Those that have not entered the service are doing wonderful work out of it. They are the best recruiting officers we have in the country.

Canada Leads Empire.

"The manufacturers and those men who are too old to serve or who have families dependent upon them, are doing their duty by manufacturing the munitions of war. Canada today leads the empire in the production of munitions of war. Already 650,000 shrapnel shells have gone to the front, and 200,000,000 are being constructed here.

"Canada in every quarter is doing its duty, and doing it well.

"I have faith in you men. When you go there will be one record for you to uphold, and that is the standard set at St. Julien. When you return it need not be said that you will be given a royal welcome.

"Your life has not been a bed of roses. You have been anxious to go, but, one and all, during these long months of training, you have borne yourself like true British soldiers."

Cheers for the King.

At the conclusion of his address Gen. Hughes called for three cheers for the King, that were given with lusty goodwill. Then he called for three more for Mr. Freer of Guelph, the donor of the colors, afterwards asking him to come forward and address the battalion. Mr. Freer responded.

"It has been a great honor to give these colors, and when you come back I hope to see inscribed on them 'Prussia' or 'Berlin,'" said Mr. Freer.

A man sitting on the bandstand stairs injected a little comedy into the ceremony when he called for three cheers for "General Sam." The idea caught the crowd, and soldiers and civilians gave three hearty hurrahs and a tiger.

At the request of the ladies, conveyed by Mayor Stevenson, three cheers were called for by Gen. Hughes for Major Kircaldy and Dansereau.

Immediately after the ceremony Gen. Hughes and staff left for their special car, and went immediately to the Niagara-on-the-Lake mobilization camp.

Reviews Veterans.

After he had addressed the men of the overseas forces, Gen. Hughes reviewed veterans of the Northwest rebellion and Fenian raids, who were drawn up opposite the men in uniform.

Gen. Hughes is a veteran of the Riel rebellion. He greeted the veterans by saying: "Old comrades, I am glad to see you again," and shook hands with each man as he passed along the line.

The veterans present were: Charles M. Small, M. Baldwin, E. Fitzgerald, Walter Fairbairn, John Dawson, Jas. McLean, Jacob Scandrett, John Heaslop, Thomas Scott, R. R. Nelson, Robt. Wonacott, E. D. Griffith (who wears medals of 1860, 1870 and 1885), Alex. Shambleau, J. L. Sangster, Squire Chittick, George Sicily and William D. Mills.

GOSSIP OF THE CAMP

Sergt. R. G. Allan, of the 28th Perth Regiment, has been taken on the strength of the camp. He is the signal instructor that is assisting Major Talbot Hennessy in the training of five men from each company of the overseas battalions in signal work.

A new class of non-coms. was started today under Sergt.-Instructor Prouse. The non-coms. of both infantry battalions are being put through a course of general drill.

The special equitation course for the officers of the 33rd and 34th Battalions has been indefinitely postponed.

Hours of guard mounting have been changed from 6:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. The change goes into effect today. The field officers' and medical officers' duties will be from reveille to reveille in future.

Lieut. Townend, of the 7th Regiment, joined the 33rd Battalion today as a supernumerary officer.

Capt. H. D. Peacock, chaplain of the 33rd Battalion, is securing the names of all Church of England members of the battalion. Every Anglican in both 33rd and 34th will be presented with the special prayer books given by the Synod of Huron. Bishop Williams signs each of these books personally.

The N. C. O.'s of the 34th Battalion, who formed the escort to the colors yesterday afternoon, were: Regimental Sergt.-Major A. Caunt, Company Sergt.-Major J. Polley, of C; Company Sergt.-Major J. A. Brown, of B Company; Sergt. J. Barr, of the Special Detached Company; Sergt. R. Howe, of D Company, and Sergt. D. Fletcher, of A Company.

The following officers have been granted leave of absence: Capt. O. V. Jewitt, of 33rd, from June 18 to June 21; Capt. W. W. Muir, 33rd, from June 19 to June 20; Lieut. G. W. Waldrond, 33rd, from June 18 to June 21.

The brass band of the 34th Battalion is playing this afternoon at the garden party of the Western University Alumnae.

The fact that the bayonets of the color escort of the 34th yesterday afternoon were all tipped with corks caused considerable comment among civilians and the soldiers themselves. The explanation of the phenomena is simple. The bayonets were tipped so that the colors, if blown against them, would not be torn.

As both battalions of the overseas forces now here have the added dignity of brass bands, the duty bands from now on will be the brass ones instead of the bugle bands, as heretofore.

Additional recruits in the 33rd Battalion and the companies to which they have been posted are:
Russel Fenner to B.
Arthur Brown to A.
Frank Smith to A.
Frank Miller to A.
E. W. Wilson to A.
William Danbrook to A.

NO RECRUITING ORDERS

Authorization of Infantry Battalions Not Yet Given From Ottawa.

Although Major-Gen. Hughes yesterday confirmed the report, given out last week, that there would be two additional infantry battalions raised in this military division, no authorization has yet come through from Ottawa to start recruiting. The orders are expected to be sent on as soon as the Minister of Militia has returned to the capital.

REPUTED HORSE THIEF IN WINDSOR CELLS

Bruce Lowrie Caught at Rondeau—N. W. M. P. Officer Coming for Him.

WINDSOR, June 16.—Said to have a police record in the West and to have disappeared following a sensational theft of three good horses, which were driven some distance and, after the brands had been obliterated, sold for big prices, Bruce Lowrie, aged 21, was arrested at Rondeau about midnight last night by provincial policemen and brought here on the early train this morning. A member of the Royal Mounted Police is now on his way from the Maple Creek, Sask., headquarters of that organization to take Lowrie back for trial.

PORT BRUCE'S LARGEST PICNIC.

AYLMER, June 16.—The Ford picnic at Port Bruce today was a monster affair and a great success. Fully 2,500 people attended, and it was easily the largest crowd ever collected at Port Bruce. Of 225 autos around the grounds, 173 were Fords.

The Aylmer Citizens' Band gave an excellent program.

OFFICERS RETURN

Those Who Took Special Musketry Course Back In Camp.

The officers who took the special musketry course at the Rockcliffe ranges, Ottawa, have returned to London. Those who will take the course that starts today left yesterday afternoon.

Lieut.-Col. Douglas, second in command of the 34th, and Lieuts. Cullen, Rutherford and Moore, of that Battalion, have reported for duty after the course. Capt. Mercer, adjutant of the 33rd, and Capt. Ashplant, of the same battalion, have also reported. Major Rance and Capt. Sloan will report this afternoon.

STRATFORD, June 16.—"We, the jury, find that Herbert Moore came to his death on the farm of Thomas Aitcheson in the Township of Downie by being accidentally buried by a mass of gravel caving in from the face of the pit in which he was working."

The foregoing verdict was returned this afternoon by Coroner Rankin's jury inquiring into the fatality of June 11.

Dr. Robertson, who performed a post-mortem, declared death was due to suffocation.

CHLORINE TEST OF NEW "RESPIRATOR"

Russian Inventor Makes Test of Device at Health Institute.

STOOD GAS SIX MINUTES

Rabbit In Chlorine-Filled Room Still Alive After 27 Minutes.

Paul Newman of Toronto, a Russian inventor, who came to London yesterday to demonstrate a new respirator for use against the German gases, gave a demonstration of his scheme at the Institute of Public Health yesterday afternoon. The inventor saw Gen. Hughes at Carling's Heights in the morning, but the Minister of Militia's time was too much occupied to allow him to personally conduct an inquiry, he said, so he deputed Major A. V. Becher, medical officer of the 33rd Battalion to make the investigation and report him.

Stood Test for Six Minutes.

In a room filled with chlorine gas, the inventor, with his machine fixed over his face, stayed for six minutes, while the doctor and others watched from the outside. Newman relaxed, and as the respirator, his first model, did not fit closely over his nostrils, he inhaled some of the deadly fumes and had to come out.

In spite of this fact, the test impressed those who saw it, and another will be arranged at Ottawa, where the demonstration can be made before the major-general and other militia authorities.

Rabbit Stiffened Out.

A rabbit that was placed in the chlorine-filled room when the inventor entered, stiffened out in a minute, and though still alive at the end of 27 minutes, was breathing with difficulty.

Dr. Fidlar of the institute declared that as animals of the rabbit type never coughed, it was possibly the reason it was still alive.

"In a human the irritation of the throat would bring on coughing, with the result that the breathing would be deeper and more and more gas drawn into the lungs," said the doctor.

Major Becher gave it as his opinion that the deaths in the trenches were not from the actual gas-poisoning, but from pneumonia and the after-effects.

Eve of Waterloo 100 Years Ago Today! Napoleon Faces Wellington for Historic Battle.

ONE hundred years ago today, June 17, 1815, two rival armies bivouacked on the plains of Belgium for the last sleep before the most famous battle in the world. It was the eve of Waterloo.

Eleven days before the French army of Napoleon Bonaparte had marched out from Paris to meet and crush the Duke of Wellington and Blucher. Five days before Napoleon himself had joined it.

Only a few months before Bonaparte had made his historic return from exile in Elba, arriving on the coast of France with a handful of followers and sweeping toward Paris with the army of King Louis XVIII. rushing to his standard by regiments and brigades. Louis fled and Napoleon found himself again the emperor, and had himself crowned as such.

Goes To Face Wellington.

But Europe did not intend to permit the world conqueror to resume his activities, and denouncing him as a brigand, all nations armed against him. On the march early in June were 1,100,000 men—Russians, Prussians, English, Hollanders, Austrians, in fact from almost every state of Europe except the Spanish peninsula.

Napoleon abandoning his plan to permit them to advance into France and defend Paris against them, went out to meet Wellington. His plan was to crush the English, then Blucher's Prussians and so on, catching each army separately before it could effect communication with any other and present an allied front. Napoleon had 122,400 veterans, none too well equipped, but marvelous warriors—their business had been war for a dozen years—with which to meet the million or more of the allies.

The Emperor's advance northward was along the line of Charleroi to Brussels. This movement begun on June 13, and a day later the forces were at Beaumont. On the afternoon of June 15 the first shots were fired, the French moving on Ziethen's position at Charleroi and forcing him back. Other engagements occurred on the way to Quatre Bras, on the main line of communication between Blucher and Wellington.

Blucher Is Wounded.

On June 16, Ney assailed Quatre Bras, but reinforcements failed to join him, and he was thrown back. At the same time at Ligny the French attacked the Prussians, and after hard fighting routed them with a charge of the guard. Blucher himself was wounded, but escaped.

Napoleon then assumed that the Prussians were crushed, but in reality the main body was on the way to join Wellington. At noon on June 17 he detached Marshal Grouchy with 33,000 men to pursue the supposedly fleeing Prussians. When Grouchy received this order Blucher was nearer to Wellington than Grouchy was to Blucher.

That order probably did more than anything else to spell defeat for Napoleon on the morrow. Separating the great force under Grouchy considerably weakened the main command that was to experience the next day the most spectacular battle in world history.

For it was Blucher's rifles—not the men of Grouchy—on whom the sun shone in the distance the next day during that terrific hour of carnage when a few thousands of fresh men would have turned the tide of battle either way. The luck was with Wellington. Blucher connected with Wellington while Grouchy with a third of the Emperor's army was conducting a wild goose chase.

Wellington's Strategic Retreat.

Shortly after giving this order, Napoleon joined Ney to follow Wellington. He soon sensed Wellington's plan—his retreat to connect with Blucher and present a united front to the French. In desperation he sent messenger after messenger to Grouchy ordering him to return. But that commander, no longer an active young man, hesitated. And his hesitation spelled the doom of Bonaparte.

Even when he had almost decided to return a courier dashed up with a report that Blucher was nearby, and he set out to find him, leaving his Emperor to fight the battle of his life unaided.

Wellington retired to Waterloo, and in the evening Napoleon overtook and bivouacked opposite him, preparing for the great battle he knew would ensue next day. At midnight he had finished his plans for battle and inspected his sleeping men—the last sleep on earth for tens of thousands of them.

NEXT BRITISH BUDGET TO BE MOST TERRIFIC INSTRUMENT OF TAXATION YET PRODUCED

LONDON, June 17.—2:54 a.m.—The Government appears to have abandoned, at least for the present, any idea of resorting to compulsion in the organization of industries for the production of munitions of war.

Mr. Lloyd George's conferences with the trade union leaders has resulted in an agreement upon a bill which will be introduced in the House of Commons next week and passed with all possible speed. This bill will give the Government power to prohibit strikes or lockouts prejudicial to the national interest in controlled factories and provide that all questions of wages and conditions of employment be settled by a specially-appointed tribunal.

The bill contains no provisions for compulsion or even compulsory registration by the male population, but will enable the opening of rolls of volunteers who are prepared to work in any factory controlled by the Government for a period of six months. In all such controlled establishments producing munitions, all restrictive rules and the practices of the trade unions will be suspended and the profits of the employers limited.

It was announced in Parliament yesterday, on behalf of the Government, that it was intended to impose a special tax on war profits, and that a measure with this object in view was being considered. As far as is known, the employers generally are not offering open resistance to this plan, which probably will form a part of the first budget of the new chancellor of the exchequer, Reginald McKenna.

This budget, according to the Times, promises to be the most terrific instrument of taxation in British fiscal history.

"Members of Parliament," the Times adds, "are steeling their nerves to face not merely a surtax on war profits, but an increase in the income tax which was not dreamed of a year ago. These sensations will probably mature in the early autumn."

TRYING TO FORM LEAGUE OF PEACE

Distinguished Men Gather at Philadelphia To Discuss Plans.

ONE RAPIDLY EVOLVING

J. B. Clark of Columbia University Says the Time Is Coming.

[Canadian Press.]

Philadelphia, June 17.—Men distinguished in many walks of life gathered at historic Independence Hall today at a conference to consider the adoption of proposals for a league of peace, and to decide upon steps to be taken with a view to obtaining the support of public opinion and of governments. The meeting was called by the national provisional committee, which includes in its membership well-known publicists, educators, peace advocates, editors and economists, and was presided over by former President William H. Taft. The plan was largely the idea of the former president, and is understood to have the personal though unofficial indorsement of President Wilson.

Likely To Be Weak.

The morning session of the conference was limited to formal addresses, among the speakers being John Bates Clark of Columbia University, Theodore Marburg of Baltimore, former United States minister to Belgium, and Edward A. Filene, representing the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

In addressing the League of Peace conference, John Bates Clark of Columbia University declared the demand for such a league is universal, but that opinion prevails that only a weak league is possible, and that the prospect of securing even that is doubtful.

One Rapidly Evolving.

"The entire movement has, in many minds, the color of Utopianism," Mr. Clark said. "In view of this I wish to express the audacious opinion that something having the characteristic of a league of peace is rapidly evolving, that it is highly effective, and will have ample force at its command, that at the close of the war it will probably need only a minor modification to enable it to prevent for an indefinite time a recurrence of a great war on the Continent of Europe."

NOW TRIES TO SETTLE STRIKES OF BUILDERS

Chicago's Mayor Invites Union Leaders to Conference.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, Ill., June 17.—With the strike of Chicago's 14,000 street car men ended by the acceptance of arbitration, Mayor Thompson laid plans today to settle the building trade strikes, which have forced 150,000 workers into idleness since April.

The mayor opened negotiations to bring the 16,000 striking carpenters back to work by asking James Kirby of Indianapolis, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, to come to Chicago for a conference.

Leaders of the local unions had planned to meet Mayor Thompson today to discuss the situation.

In addition to the carpenters, there are 10,000 painters, 1,200 structural ironworkers and 900 lathers on strike.

WORK CONTINUES ON BAGDAD RAILROAD

War Has Not Caused Stoppage—Tunnel Completed.

Constantinople, June 17, via London.—The war has not interrupted the work on the Bagdad Railroad, which, when it is completed, is to run from Konia by way of Adan, Mosul and Bagdad to Basra. A bridge over the Euphrates River having recently been finished, another important link in the line was made today with the final blast in the Bagtsche tunnel, running through the Amanus Mountains and connecting the Plain of Cicilia with Alepho. This tunnel is three miles long, and has been four years in building.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK WITH 22 OF HER CREW

German Submarine Stands by Without Attempt at Rescue.

LONDON, June 16.—11:26 p.m.—The British steamer Strathnairn was torpedoed today off the Scilly Islands, and sank. Twenty-two members of the crew, including the captain, were drowned. The crew was composed of nine Englishmen and 24 Chinamen, and of these only one Englishman and ten Chinese were saved. These were landed at Milford Haven.

The torpedo struck the steamer, and blew up one of her boilers. Four of the ship's boats were hastily launched, but two of them capsized, while another was smashed against the steamer's side. The other boat with the eleven survivors in it was picked up later, and the men taken to Milford Haven.

The survivors say that after the Strathnairn was torpedoed the periscope of a submarine was seen nearby, but that the under-water boat made no attempt to rescue the drowning men.

The Strathnairn, which was a vessel of 4,336 tons, was bound from Cardiff for Archangel, Russia, with a cargo of coal.

PRINCETON GIVES ROUSING WELCOME TO HERO OF WAR

Major Donald Sutherland Tells Tales of Battles—Canadians Are Noble.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PRINCETON, June 16.—The village of Princeton, decorated with flags, banners and bunting, and thronged with people, tonight gave welcome to one of their sons who has taken part in the great service rendered by the Canadian troops in France and Belgium, in the person of Major Donald Sutherland, who returned home last night from the firing line, on three months' leave of absence, following wounds received in the now famous battle of Langemarck.

On the Governor's road, the major, escorted by nearly a hundred autos, and preceded by the 22nd Regiment band of Woodstock, motored into Princeton to the town hall, where a crowd of over one thousand residents of the county of Oxford gave him a rousing reception.

Recounts Thrilling Deeds.

When the cheering had subsided, and following the chairman's address of welcome, Major Sutherland acknowledged the warm welcome he had received, and, omitting reference to himself, recounted in vivid terms some inspiring incidents of the battle in which he received a shattered elbow, and through which, he stated, Lieut. James Ross and the other Oxford members of the contingent conducted themselves as Canadians always will when need arises.

Many Speeches.

Following the guest of the evening, were J. R. Shaw, E. W. Nesbitt, K.C., M.P., Col. McMullen, Major Pattullo, Judge Wallace and last, D. R. Ross of Embro, who has sent three sons to the Empire's cause and who made a strong plea for the young men of Oxford to enlist. All of these speakers referred to Dr. Sutherland in warm terms of eulogy.

During the speeches the band rendered patriotic music and suitable vocal numbers were given. The night's program was brought to a close with the singing of the National Anthem.

BERLIN'S RECEPTION OF NOTE FRIENDLY

Ambassador Gerard Cables First Information to American Authorities.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., June 17.—First official news as to the reception accorded the last American note to Germany in official quarters in Berlin, cabled by Ambassador Gerard to the state department, gave renewed hope to officials here today of a favorable outcome of the issue between the two countries.

The ambassador's note, in addition to giving his own account, contained German press comments which were friendly in tone. His comment bore out press reports of the favorable impression made by the note, and said sentiment seemed to be that it afforded a basis for an adjustment of the controversy.

STRONG APPEAL TO MUNITIONS WORKERS

French President Says More Force Excellent, But Material Strength Needed.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, June 17.—"A crowning victory will be the reward of moral force backed by material strength," was the assence of discourses by President Poincare to the munitions workers at establishments in Tarbes, Toulouse, St. Chamond, Creusot and other places, of which he has just made a tour.

The President everywhere insisted upon the great importance attaching to the manufacture of guns and munitions on a larger and quicker scale.

"The moral force of our troops and people is admirable, and the enemy will never break it," said M. Poincare, "but we most ceaselessly increase our material power. All wo ald in that patriotic task deserve the encouragement and the congratulations of the nation."

GREAT LAKE VESSELS MAY GO TO ATLANTIC

Owners Considering Offers From Companies for Coast Service.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 17.—Reports that some of the Atlantic steamship companies are negotiating for the purchase of steamers now plying on the Great Lakes were supported today by an admission from the offices of the Erie Railroad that the company had under consideration offers for the transfer of some of its large vessels. It was said that bids for four of these ships came from men who are seeking steamers to be used in the Atlantic coast service. The Pennsylvania, New York Central, Lackawanna and Lehigh Valley railroads also, it is said, are considering offers to purchase their Great Lakes steamers.

AMERICAN CONSUL'S GUEST ARRESTED

Strong Protest Sent to Vienna Against Internment of Italian.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—The American consul at Triest has protested strongly at Vienna, according to a Geneva dispatch to the Daily Express, against the arrest of his guest, the Italian vice-consul, Signor Canova, in the American consulate. The Italian vice-consul has been interned, despite assurances given to the American consul by the governor of Triest that his liberty would be respected.

TURKS SAY BRITISH BATTLESHIP ASHORE

Aviator Reports One of Agamemnon Type in Kefala Bay.

[Canadian Press.]

Amsterdam, June 17—Via London, June 17.—A dispatch has been received here from Constantinople saying that according to official announcement a Turkish aviator reports having observed a British warship of the Agamemnon type aground in Kefala Bay, Island of Imbros. The deck of the vessel is almost completely submerged.

The Island of Imbros is off the entrance to the Dardanelles straits. A warship damaged in the straights might well take refuge there.

A story was published recently that the British battleship Agamemnon had been sunk by the Turks, but this was categorically denied by the British Government.

RUMORED CHANGES IN PARIS CHAMBER

Reports Say Ministers, Including Premier, Will Resign—May Be Gossip.

By William Philip Simms.

Paris, June 6—By Mail to New York.—The Chamber of Deputies here, like the House of Commons at Ottawa, would not be the chamber without its gossips and its rumorists. The corridors nowadays are particularly buzzing.

One hears, for instance, that an important change in the make-up of the cabinet is due shortly: that Aristide Briand, now minister of justice, but formerly prime minister, and Minister of Public Works Marcel Sombat are not satisfied to remain in the ministry unless radical changes are made, and that Minister of War Alexandre Millerand, Minister of the Marine Victor Augagneur, Minister of the Interior L. J. Malvey, Minister of Agriculture Fernand David and Minister of Commerce Gaston Thomas, may resign. It is said that M. Briand would take the portfolio of minister of war.

Another large-sized rumor has it that Prime Minister Rene Viviani may give way to Leon Bourgeois or Alexandre Ribot, one or both of whom may enter the cabinet, Viviani remaining in the ministry with other duties.

Whether all this talk is mere corridor gossip remains to be seen. But there is considerable affirmative evidence at the chamber, notwithstanding.

SOON WILL BE WORK FOR THOUSANDS OUT WEST ON BIG CROP

Mayor of Moose Jaw Discusses Conditions—Unemployed Problem.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, June 16.—Mayor Pascoe of Moose Jaw was in town today spending a few hours with his cousin, Richard Rogerson. Mr. Pascoe is on his way home after going with the deputation of mayors of western cities to Ottawa, where they waited upon the Dominion Government relative to the unemployed situation. Describing conditions in the West, Mayor Pascoe admitted that business had been rather seriously affected by the money stringency, but he believed that eventually the country would regain its prosperity on a more substantial basis.

Why West Is Hit.

The money stringency he said was largely due to over-speculation. He also explained that many of the men out of work at present in the West were originally brought to the country as homesteaders. Offered high wages in construction work by the railways and other corporations they had given no further thought to farming, with the result that when thrown out of employment they could not rely upon their own resources.

Expects Bumper Crop.

Thousands of them, he believed, would be employed this season in harvesting "a bumper crop." Mayor Pascoe also stated that it should not be the duty of the towns and cities to look after all the unemployed. Each place, he said, had its own permanent residents to look after without giving attention to the thousands brought in by the Government. This was why the large deputation of mayors had waited upon the Dominion Government.

INSURANCE AGAINST AIRSHIP RAIDS NOW WORRYING MERCHANTS

British Firms Will Not "Gamble," So Government May Take Charge.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—The problem of insurance against damage by aircraft raids has become a serious one for merchants in London and other commercial towns near the east coast. The insurance companies have been besieged with applications for insurance against fires started by Zeppelins, but the companies doing fire insurance busines cannot take such risks. Insuring against Zeppelins is a pure gamble, since there is nothing in the way of experience or probabilities on which any sound system can be based. Consequently the British Government will be obliged to take charge of the matter, as it did of insuring merchant ships in the earlier days of the war.

It is probable that the Government will bring in a scheme this month by which the situation will be remedied.

ST. THOMAS SIGNALMAN WOUNDED IN FRANCE.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, June 16. C. J. Fawcett, a former Michigan Central signalman, has been wounded in the fighting in France.

P. A. Honsinger today received a postcard to this effect. Pte. Fawcett was attached to the Royal Canadian Engineers, and enlisted at this place, being shortly afterwards transferred to London. He states that he has been admitted to the base hospital. He resided at 21 Elgin street, and was well known. His next of kin lives in England.

Knight, had been slightly wounded in the leg by a small piece of shell. The communication further states that they were in the reserve trenches at the time.

WILTON GROVE MAN AMONG THE WOUNDED.

WILTON GROVE, June 16. — Pte. Allan Currie, son of John Currie of Belmont, has been wounded in action, according to official word received by his relatives. THREE OF BAD GANG AER SENTENCED IN OWEN SOUND COURT

Magistrate Says Men Could Be Charged With Shooting.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OWEN SOUND, June 16.—Norman J. Ryan, who was captured by the police after a long chase some days ago, and who was convicted of breaking into two business houses here, was today sentenced to eight years in Kingston Penitentiary, while William John Turner, also captured and convicted on the same charge, was sentenced to two years at Kingston.

The woman, Kate O'Donahue, convicted of complicity in the crimes, was sentenced to one year in the Mercer Reformatory.

In sentencing Ryan, Magistrate Creasor took into account his criminal record, which began in 1907, when he was convicted on two theft charges in Toronto. Since that time he has been in the industrial school, and has already served three and a half years in Kingston Penitentiary. The magistrate said that Ryan "appeared to be the leading scoundrel." Although Ryan had led a criminal life, there was no indication that this was so of Turner until recently.

Mercy Plea for Turner.

The crown attorney read several letters from men in Toronto for whom Turner had worked, stating that they had always found him trustworthy and dependable, and expressed surprise that he was in trouble in Owen Sound. They asked for leniency.

The magistrate took this into consideration in sentencing Turner. He pointed out that charges might have been laid against both men for shooting with intent to kill, and also with attempting to break jail. He thought Turner had got into bad company, and that was the cause of his downfall. The two men left in charge of Constable Carson on the afternoon C. P. R. train for Kingston to serve their time.

Frank Doyle Again Arrested.

Frank Doyle, the young man who was arrested last week in connection with the charges against the others, but who was acquitted on a charge of aiding and abetting, was arrested again today on a charge of vagrancy. He was hanging around the court house this morning before the trial, and as the police had been informed that he had said he would help the other men to escape, they decided it was wise to take him in charge, so he is now in the cells.

OIL TANKER SUNK

Desabla Sent to Bottom by Submarine —Under British Charter.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, June 7.—The oil-tank steamer Lasabla, under charter to the British Government, was sunk by a German submarine off the north coast of Scotland Monday, according to a cablegram received today by Robert Mitchell, treasurer of the General Petroleum Company, from Andrew Weir, a British oil financier.

The Desabla was built in 1913 for the General Petroleum Company and was operated for a time on the Pacific coast.

The vessel was of 6,000 gross tonnage. It held a charter from the Bank Line, but was rechartered by Weir to the British Government.

London, June 17.—The British steamer Trafford, of 234 gross tons, and owned in Liverpool, has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. The crew was saved.

WATCHING CARRANZA

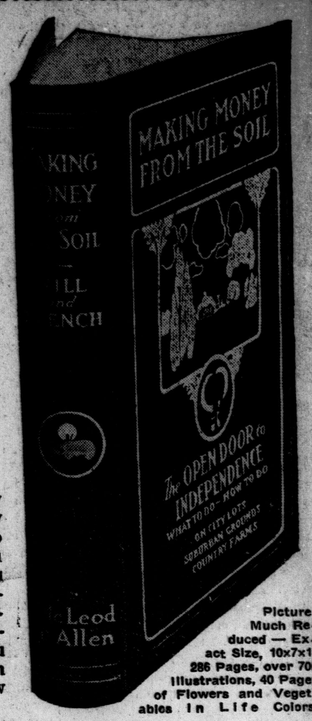

Washington Anxious to See How He Will Meet Peace Overtures.

Washington, June 17.—Considerable speculation was being indulged in here today as to whether Gen. Carranza would continue his course and fight on or modify his attitude in view of overtures for peace in Mexico by Gen. Villa. Some definite word from the Constitutionalist chief as to whether or not he will accept Villa's proposals was awaited here with much interest, as upon his answer probably hinges the next move in the situation.

THE DIARY OF MARS

The campaign against the Russians, on which the Germans are now concentrating their offensive efforts, is developing another phase in a violent attack in Russian-Poland. At the same time the Germans are pushing back the Russians in the Baltic provinces, and, with the help of the Austrians, in Gallicia.

An official communication from Petrograd contains the admission that the Germans have occupied additional villages near Shavli, in the Baltic region, but states that the Russians regained lost ground near Przasnysz. It is in the vicinity of Przasnysz, which lies to the north of Warsaw, that the Germans apparently are making their most determined effort on the Polish front, although the fortress of Ossowetz is again being attacked. The Galician campaign has reached a critical stage, in view of the continued successes of the Austrians and Germans. The Petrograd communication says little of the battle along the San, but states the Russians have won some advantages in the fighting further south, in the Dniester region.

Official advices from the Italian army headquarters represent the Italians as gaining advantages all along the front, particularly in the Adigo Valley, which leads to Trent. On the Isonzo front, where centres the battle for possession of Trieste, Italian successes also are claimed.

The Turkish forces on Gallipoli Peninsula have also taken the offensive.

An official statement from Constantinople says heavy losses were inflicted upon the French and British, but an announcement from London is to the effect that the Turks were repulsed in an attempt to recapture lost trenches.

According to Constantinople, a Turkish aviator has seen a British warship of the type of the Agamemnon aground near the entrance to the Dardanelles, her decks almost submerged. Official denial was made at London yesterday of reports that the Agamemnon had been sunk.

EVEN YAQUI INDIANS INCLUDE GERMANS IN LIST OF ENEMIES

Declare War on Them, Mexico and United States—Latter Sends Force.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, June 17.—Admiral Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, was under orders today to proceed immediately to Guaymas, on the west coast of Mexico, with three hundred bluejackets and three hundred marines, and to dispatch this force twenty miles inland, if necessary, to protect Americans menaced by the Yaqui Indians. The Indians had threatened to annihilate all foreigners.

Orders to Admiral Howard to proceed to Guaymas were sent by the navy department, following a conference between navy and state department officials.

State department advices said that the Indians had declared war on Germany, Mexico and the United States.

ICELAND GIVES IN TO DANISH DEMANDS

[Canadian Press.]

Copenhagen, June 16—Via London, June 17.—The long-standing difference between Iceland and Denmark regarding the flag and constitution of Iceland have been settled by the cabinets of the two countries. The agreement involves no concessions to Iceland from Denmark.

The provisional government of Iceland resigned last December, after it had declined to submit a bill for a new constitution for ratification by the King of Denmark, on the ground that it could not agree with the King's demands that the Danish state council should have the right to "discuss" the affairs of Iceland, the right to "discuss" the affairs of Iceland, permit the flying of a special Icelandic flag until the differences were settled.

DETECTIVE CHARGED WITH IMPERSONATION.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 17.—A detective employed by the United States Government has been subpoenaed as witness in the conspiracy trial on Monday of David and Maxwell Slade, the lawyers who figured in Rae Tanzer's 50,000 $breach of promise suit against James W. Osborne, formerly assistant district attorney of New York County. It is understood that the Slades allege that the detective represented himself to be the mysterious Oliver Osborne, who admitted that he was the man for whom Miss Tanzer had mistaken James W. Osborne.

[Canadian Press.]

Los Angeles, June 17.—Presentation of the report of the committee appointed to frame a model civil service law for adoption by all of the states was expected to precipitate today the first lively debate at the eighth National Assembly of the Civil Service Commissioners.

Committees have been working on this law for several years, and it has been an important subject for discussion at every meeting.

BRYAN OPPOSED TO STATES PREPARATION ON MILITARY LINES

Second Statement on "Causeless War" Says Preparedness Provokes War

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, June 17.—Asserting that preparedness provokes rather than prevents war and the upheaval in Europe was a result of the false philosophy that "might makes right," Former Secretary of State Bryan today in the second of his series of three statements on 'The Causeless War," submits an argument against military preparation by the United States, and praises the course of President Wilson in the international emergency.

No Excuse for U. S.

"If any nation is without excuse for entering into a mad rivalry with the belligerent nations in preparation for war it is the United States," says Mr. Bryan. "We are protected on either side by thousands of miles of ocean, and this protection is worth more to us than any number of battleships.

"The leading participants in the present war are the nations that were best prepared, and I fear it would have been difficult for us to keep out of this war if we had been as well prepared as they."

In preliminary discussion of the cause of the European conflict, Mr. Bryan, in analyzing the situation, argues that it is no war of race, religion or families.

CONDUCTORS REFUSE TO INITIATE WOMEN

Plan to Have Latter Run Trams in Birmingham Abandoned.

[Canadian Press.]

Birmingham, Eng., June 17.—The proposed employment of women as 'bus and tramcar conductors has been abandoned here, the men having refused either to teach the women their duties or to move the vehicles on which they were engaged. The committee in charge of the movement therefore has decided to employ youths under 18 years of age and men over the military age as conductors.

"TWILIGHT SLEEP" STRONGLY CONDEMNED

Physician Declares Children Are Born Partly Asphyxiated—Patients Unmanageable.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, June 17.—"Twilight sleep" condemned by a score of physicians attending the National Eclectic Medical Association here, was expected to be a topic of discussion today.

According to Dr. W. N. Mundy, of Forest, Ohio, "twilight sleep does not produce the insensibility to pain claimed for it. It merely induces," he said, "a loss of memory and generally renders the subject so unmanageable as seriously to hamper birth."

He said that 85 per cent of infants born under "twilight sleep" were born in a state of partial asphyxiation.

THE UNDERCURRENT.

THE solidarity of German sentiment in favor of the war has seemed to outsiders something unexplainable. That a people, who, from our experience of them on this continent are domestic, industrious and peaceful, could so cordially support a militarist government in a war of aggression by the most barbarous methods seems too inconsistent to be credible. But there are observers who assure us that the voice of the common people in Germany is unheard, and its real thought cannot be expressed.

Prof. Hedrick of Missouri, a graduate of a German university, enters a plea in the New York Evening Post for the intelligent but non-military German, who, he declares, is unable to give expression to his real opinion, or to take any active steps towards suppressing a government of which he disapproves. He can scarcely write a letter to anyone outside the Empire, criticizing it. And yet, in spite of the risks of letter writing, letters do get through occasionally, the contents of which, if known to the government officials would result in heavy penalties for the writer.

Another indication of this undercurrent of dissatisfaction is given by a Mr. Gordon-Smith in the New York Tribune. This is in the shape of a review of a book published in Switzerland, the author of which, we are told, is not only a German, but a Prussian. His condemnation of the course pursued by German authorities, both before the war commenced, and since, is as severe as though the writer were an Englishman or a Frenchman. He declares that the war was plotted, prepared and begun by Germany. He denounces it as most unnecessary, because Germany was enjoying an unexampled period of progress and prosperity, and was recognized as one of the most powerful nations in the world, and free from the slightest danger of aggression on the part of any of its neighbors. But the ruling militant party wanted a still wider extension of imperial power, and a world dominance, and thus precipitated a war which the common people did not want.

How much truth there may be in these statements, how strong may be the undercurrent for peace, we have no means of knowing. It may exist. We certainly think it would exist, and be very strong, if the people knew the facts. But it is not difficult to keep them in ignorance. The Government controls the press. Nothing is made public except what the authorities desire. The other side of the story is never told. They are led to believe that the war is one for the defence of the country against a foreign aggressor, a war to maintain their liberties, and preserve their territory. And so long as they remain in ignorance there will be a patriotic fervor developed that will keep them up to the fighting mark. And even though there should be a strong undercurrent of dissatisfaction it has no opportunity for a free vent. In Britain hostile critics of the Government can say what they like. In Germany that is not permitted. It would require a revolution to effect a change in the Government's policy. And the militant force is too strong for a revolution to gain any headway. Before anything could be done the leaders would be shot.

It will take time for the true condition of affairs to be impressed on the German mind. When the youth and manhood of the country has been slaughtered in war, when the old men and the children are drafted into service, when famine and pestilence afflict the homes of the people, and the sound of mourning is heard in every house, then the popular disaffection may grow, and spread into the ranks of the army. When soldiers and civilians alike are awakened to the iniquity of the Government it will fall, and the people will be free.

HEADED FOR BAGDAD.

THE CAMPAIGN of the British in Arabia and Asiatic Turkey, like those in various parts of Africa, are under a partial eclipse, overshadowed by the great conflict in Europe. At long intervals we hear that the British Indian expedition is making good progress up the Tigris, now skirmishing with nomads, now routing a force of Turkish regulars. The engagements may seem trivial and unnecessary in a region so remote from the main zones of the war, but there is a very real importance and plenty of justification for the expedition which is headed for Bagdad.

When the war opened, down the coast of Palestine rushed a Turkish army for the invasion of Egypt, and there was a danger of this force being made overwhelmingly strong by accessions sent by way of Bagdad, which is a junction or the German-built railway system, one arm of which stretches west to the Mediterranean. To get control of this was of vital importance, so by way of the Persian Gulf a British Indian expedition was sent up the Tigris. The collapse of the Turkish invasion of Egypt and the defeat of the Turks in the Cacasus have removed permanently the menace, but the British have marched steadily on for Bagdad, and for very good reasons. In the settlement which will follow the fall of the Ottoman power, Great Britain is determined to control the short cut overland from Constantinople to the Indian Ocean and the front door of India. Germany, through Turkish concession, was rapidly securing a strong hold on this section of Turkey in Asia. The Kaiser dreamed of a route to the east for his merchandise and his armies that would be independent of the Suez Canal. This splendid plan vanished when he madly declared for war, and the British Government intends that no other power shall be able to menace the Empire's eastern possessions by holding the right of way to the Persian Gulf.

As well, there are vast commercial possibilities in these desert regions that will be developed once the slothful Turk has been ousted. Mesopotamia, a large section of which should fall to Great Britain, is rich in mineral wealth that has hardly been touched, and the land when irrigated will yield immense crops of tobacco, cotton, coffee, indigo, rice and barley. A desirable possession in every way is the country that the British are winning through on their way to the ancient capital of the Caliphs.

VON TIRPITZ'S PROPHECY.

THE Washington Times draws attention to a prophecy made by Admiral Von Tirpitz in 1900, which, because of the developments of this war, are of unusual interest. At that time Von Tirpitz, who was then, as now, at the head of the Kaiser's navy, was agitating for a fleet so powerful that it would place the Fatherland on an equality with Great Britain on the seas. To drive home the necessity for such a navy he declared that after an unsuccessful naval war with Britain for only a year the German fleet would be bottled up, that Germany's commerce would be destroyed, that disastrous consequences would follow in the economic and social life, that Great Britain could make good the losses while Germany couldn't.

That is pretty much just what has happened. Von Tirpitz was given the power to build up his mighty navy, and of course Great Britain saw to it that the disparity between the two navies was maintained. So that when the Kaiser decided for war such of his ships as were not swept from the seas were bottled up, the nation's commerce abroad was wiped out, Germany was cut off from replenishing food stocks and war material from America, while her rival can secure all she desires, and there are rumblings from the interior of Germany which indicate that economic and social disasters are near. In view of some of the criticism that is aimed at the British navy at home and abroad, it is well to know that the very things Von Tirpitz feared from the British navy have come to pass.

ALL I ASK.

[Los Angeles Times.]

When I revert to that dumb dust
From which my frame was wrought,
Returning all I hold in trust,
This life, that came unsought;
It cannot matter that my name
Shall scarce outlive my breath,
For I would have small use for fame
When I am cold in death.

Time mocks those tardy crowns we place
Upon the martyred head,
When we, to cover our disgrace,
Make idols of our dead;
The stately monuments we rear,
The unctuous praise we give,
Are less to them than one true tear
Wept for them while they live.

So I desire no storied stone,
To stand my grave above,
From life I ask one gift alone,
The constancy of love;
For being loved, and loving well,
Is kingly happiness;
If crowned in living hearts I dwell,
In death I'll not be less.

IN THE ENEMY'S LINES.

By Crittenden Marriott.

The moon was a mere cusp low down in the western sky, but the great southern stars, swinging high overhead, cast a soft radiance on the broad ribbon of the river. Along the banks deep shadows lay, threatening and ominous. Out of them a shining trail shot for a moment across the rippling waters; then it vanished as the current rolled smoothly down, and the oarsman rested on his paddle and let the boat drift.

For a while neither he nor the woman with him spoke. Each seemed engrossed in thoughts that would not bear expression. But the world spins; the fates are busy with the lives of men; and speech is forced on all at last.

It was the woman who broke the silence.

"Philip!" she said, and her voice was without a tremor. "Philip! How does it feel to be a spy inside the enemy's lines?"

Even by the shadowy starlight she could see his face blanch; but his self-control was good. In tones as calm as her own he answered—an answer indifferent, evasive, impersonal.

"I should think," she went on, "that it would be worse than death. The constant effort to play a part; the incessant strain to remember all the small details, forgetfulness of which spells death; the certainty that sooner or later the end must come—all must breed a lingering horror that must finally drive a man to long for the inevitable click of the trap behind him. Only a fool or a very brave man would venture to play the spy. which are you, Philip?"

She leaned forward. He could see the glimmer of her eyes and the flash of her white teeth, and could trace the well-remembered features that framed them.

"Why do you ask?" he said. "Can it be that you think I am a spy?"

"I know you are. Do not trouble to deny it. It would be useless. I know! We all know!"

The man straightened himself and looked around. Nothing stirred on the broad bosom of the river; but the shadows lay thick along the banks.

"How did you find out?" he asked.

"What does it matter? Didn't you know it was only a question of time? Didn't you know you must be found out some day? And then—the end!"

The man nodded.

"Yes!" he agreed. "Then—the end. Yes, I know it must come some day!"

"Then, why—

"Someone had to take the risk—why not I as well as another? But you? I have no right to ask, of course; but—but I have loved you. Love gives even a spy some rights. Was it you who found me out?"

"No!" Slowly the girl shook her head. "No, I did not find you out. I did not know till tonight. I did not believe it when I was told. You—you have been suspected for a long time; but there was no proof. It would not do to make mistakes, so they gave you rope. I offered to help—to prove your innocence. That was why I asked you to bring me out on the river tonight. And you yourself have just forged the last link in the chain."

"Yes?"

"Yes! When you signalled with your lighted cigar a little while ago, you did not guess how many were reading the message. You say you love me, yet you have used me, not once but many times, as a blind to enable you to signal to your friends—my country's enemies. Is that fair?"

"'He that putteth his hand to the plow and turneth back—'" the man quoted softly. "This is war! The fate of my country may turn upon even me. I cannot betray it—not even for love—not even for you! I suffered — but I went on; and this at least is true—I love you! I can tell you—now."

"And I you!" The girl spoke softly, but there was no invitation in her tones. "I, too, can tell you—now. I have never loved any man but you!"

The man bowed his head. For the first time a quiver came into his voice.

"To die—now!" he muttered. "To die now, when—"

"You are not to die!"

"Not?" The man glanced quickly around him. "The river-banks are guarded, I presume. I saw the flash of an oar in the shadows just now. I shall fight, of course—"

"No, you cannot even fight. Your revolver is not loaded; the cartridges have been drawn. Sharpshooters are covering you from the banks. If you make a single suspicious movement, they will fire."

"Then, how—"

"Listen! You have one chance, and only one. Kick off your shoes and loosen your coat so that you can throw it off quickly. Drop your revolver; it is useless—and heavy. When you are ready I will capsize the boat. You must swim up-stream, keeping beneath the water as long as you can. I will scream and divert their attention—if I can. It' is your only chance. I give it to you. I am not like you! I am only a woman; I put my love above even my country. I betray its trust for you. If you die, it will at least be a man's death—not a dog's, by the halter, in the chill dawn."

The man shuddered.

"And you?" he asked.

"I shall cling to the boat till I am picked up. I shall be in no danger. I can swim like a fish. Are you ready?"

"One moment! This is not good-bye. War does not last forever. I will come back! Rather, may I come back?"

"As you please." Intense weariness spoke in the girl's voice. "As you please! Are you ready? Then—"

"You are sure you will be safe?"

"Quite sure. Good-bye!"

As the boat turned, the man dived into the water, ripping off his coat as he went. Deep he went; then turned and oared himself up-stream against the sluggish current, quartering across the channel toward the northern bank. On he swam with frantic strokes that forced him ever downward, downward, beneath the shielding water. Sparks flashed before his staring eyes; there was a thundering in his ears; his laboring chest heaved, bursting for air, air, air. Then, at last, when he could bear no more, he turned upon his back and floated upward till he saw the round stars flaring through the opaline water, and drew deep breaths into his throbbing lungs.

The river was alive with men; voices rang in his ears; swells from rushing boats slapped across his nostrils; the crack of a rifle shattered through the air; and down he sank, once more to rise, until at last the tumult died behind him, and he could head toward the northern shore.

The girl had watched him go as she herself plunged downward. Once she came up and screamed aloud—a scream that drew the hurrying boats the faster to her side, a scream that gained for the man the single blessed moment that he needed. Then she screamed no more.

The boats quested up and down the river, only to abandon the search at last.

"It's too bad! It's too bad!" muttered the grey-haired leader. "I didn't want her to take the risk. The evidence was really sufficient already; but she insisted, and I consented at last.

"How did the boat come to capsize, sir?" queried an officer. "I couldn't see. Could you?"

"She threw it over herself. I saw her do it. She must have known it was almost certain death for both of them. Neither of them could swim at all; she told me so herself only this afternoon. Both must have gone straight to the bottom. Why did she do it?"

But the one man who might have guessed the answer was far away, struggling through the bushes, heading north, dreaming of days that could never come.

GAY LIFE IN THE CITY

[Deckerville, Mich., Recorder.]

It's about time to put the kibosh on all this talk about keeping the boys on the farm. Why should a boy or young man want to stay on a farm when he can go to the city, and, after tramping through the heat, or cold, or rain, or snow for five or six weeks, land a fine, fat, easy, soft snap of a job as a motorman? Then all he will have to do will be to get up at about five a.m., winter and summer, swallow a boardinghouse breakfast that a hog on his father's farm would spurn, dash merrily to the car barn, take the abuse of a slave-driving car-starter, and go gaily to work. Ah, what pleasure to stand all day in a vestibule that is perfumed with the smells of the unwashed bodies of just-over immigrant laborers, on their way to work in a sewer! Think of the fragrance of all grades of tobacco in cigars, in cigarettes and in pipes of many degrees of strength. It is simply great to breathe this spicy air all day. In the meanwhile one hears the sweet compliments of the ladies and gentlemen who do not happen to think of signalling when they want to get off, but who rightfully feel that the motorman should have known, if he was not such a fat-headed lob, and who do not hesitate to tell him so. Oh, yes, it's great. Every farmer boy ought to leave home at once and dash to the city. Think of the wages he'll get! Why, at the end of a month, after paying for board, room, laundry, clothes and uniform, union dues and assessments, he'll have almost enough left to go to a movie show. But he probably won't go, because he'll be so all-in and so full of the poisonous reek that he inhaled all day, that he will tumble into bed to forget it until the alarm clock calls him to begin all over again.

Our Poets of Western Ontario

OUR FAIR CANADA.

[By Mrs. W. B. Pannell, Strathroy.]

A sturdy little maiden
Is this Canada of ours,
Her arms with treasures laden,
Her forehead decked with flowers;
In robe of woven sunshine,
Cincture of virgin gold,
With maple and the beaver
Upon her banner scrolled.

Her eye is bright and shining,
Her step is light and free,
As over hills and valleys,
She runs from sea to sea;
Her voice rings out with vigor,
For justice and for right,
While freedom's horest sceptre
She bears aloft in sight.

She hails the years advancing
With peace and plenteous stores,
Unlocks her hidden treasures,
And lavish fullness pours;
She threads the streams and mountains,
And girdles hill and plain,
And flits with magic footsteps,
Across from main to main.

As sturdy as the breezes
That swell her oceans' tide,
Till richly freighted argosies
Within her harbors glide,
Step forth among the nations,
Stand hand-in-hand with them,
Our fair and young Dominion,
And wear thy diadem.

AEROPLANE VERSUS DIRIGIBLE.

[London Chronicle.]

It is at least conceivable that a country with a sufficient supply of aircraft could so harry the enemy's factories, stores and railway junctions as to affect decisively the issue of a war. None of the combatants is at present in a position to do this; but it is satisfactory that the aeroplane to which the French and ourselves mainly trusted has so far proved much more efficient for such purposes than the costly and cumbrous Zeppelin.

A NATIONAL LEAD.

[London Daily Express.]

Owing to the limitations of democratic government, the new ministers are necessarily politicians, but it will be well for them to remember that the suddenly awakened country is in no mood for politics. No one cares a rap for the controversies that in normal times are insistent and exciting. All that matters is that we should preserve the freedom and the greatness that have been inherited. In so far as the Government works with a single eye to that end, unhindered by jealousy, unhandicapped by adhesion to moss-grown doctrines, it will succeed.

French Officer Describes Battle

A French officer describes the following, the taking of Notre Dame De Lorette, in which he took part:

"On Saturday, May 8, at 7 o'clock in the morning we set out from Hersin. For two days we had known that our battalion and the Chasseurs would be ordered to assault the famous plateau of Notre Dame De Lorette, and a sudden delirium took possession of every man among us. At last we were going to rise from our torpor.

"We were happy and light-hearted when we left Hersin. When we arrived at Bouvigny we left our haversacks in the woods, and the commandant assembled us and sketched out our task.

"Your Duty, My Children!"

"There were no superfluous words. 'Do your duty, my children. The job is a hard one, but we have got to take the plateau. We shall take it.'

"At 1 o'clock in the morning we reached the trenches facing the Boches by way of tunnels, and while waiting for the ball to begin, we lay down, but not to sleep.

"At 6 o'clock a well-known sound came rushing overhead; it was the ranging fire of our artillery. Our nerves were on edge.

"Then at 8 o'clock, as though at the turn of a magic ring, the attack burst forth in all its fury. Heavy guns, mountain guns, the savage barking of the 75's, air bombs—everything at once. The earth veritably trembled on the plateau. One might have believed it was a cataclysm.

"Deafened by the bursting shells and strident whistling of the shells, we were standing with fixed bayonets, waiting and breathing hard until the storm should cease, for our part of the business to be played.

Our Turn at Last.

"For two hours it was a tempest of fire over the Prussian positions, and at last, at 10 o'clock, it was our turn. At last, at 10 o'clock, it was our turn. "We took the first trench with a single bound. Reaching the second line and finding nobody there, we rushed on to the third.

"Earthed up like foxes, the Prussians were still there. 'Kamarades, Kamarades!' they called to us, and at the same time fired with their revolvers at us at pointblank range. We spitted them on our bayonets.

"Other companies arrived behind us to clean up the captured trenches and make prisoners, and then a handful of us restarted to the assault of the fourth line of defence. This was soon abandoned by the enemy, and fell into our hands.

"We were only about thirty 'poilus' who had escaped the fire of the machine guns. We gazed at one another, but not for long. Suddenly from the flanks and the front, the Boches furiously counter-attacked. Without a word each one of us took his place on the parapet and opened a deadly fire on the enemy.

Hurricane of Steel.

"A hurricane of steel passed over our heads without moving us, and, knowing the importance attached to our corner, we held on grimly, and at last the Boches retreated, leaving many dead on the field. Sixteen only of us were now left.

"During the next two days we were desperately counter-attacked, but each of us was imbued with the will to win. Everyone of us had, without bragging, determined to sacrifice his life.

"From our advanced post we saw the battle progressing in the plain. What a fantastic night, what unforgettable hours we passed there on the conquered tableland, with its view of the plains of Lens as far as the eye could reach! Victors, we were happy.

"I was wounded at 1 o'clock on the morning of May 11 and it was with a heavy heart that I left my comrades of whom I had taken command.

"It was painful for me to leave this dearly-won corner before the complete rout of the enemy, especially as I had so many dead comrades to avenge. But now, Notre Dame De Lorette is ours, and the long nightmare of this winter campaign has vanished.

Chest Protectors.

The following is an extract from a letter from one just landed in England who has been all these last months in Germany:

We all feel quite happy to be where one can eat as much white bread as one wishes. In Germany each person is only allowed a bit more than half a pound a day of the blackest kind of rye-potato bread. The Germans are very keen on putting everything to some use for the war; so they have bought up lots of cats. These cats wear collars with "K.K.K." printed on them (Kaiserlich Koeniglichh Katse—Imperial Royal Cats). They are kept in the grain warehouses to ward off mice. By Government order, all other cats are to be killed, and their skins used for making chest protectors for the soldiers. So much is demanded of peaceful pussies.

The hatred against England is indescribable. They give afternoon teas, where the women knit for the soldiers, and everyone who does not say "Gott strafe England" instead of "Good-day" and "Good-bye" has to pay a fine. I asked a friend in the German army whether they intend to keep Belgium, and he was quite indignant that I ever asked such a question. "Of course," he replied, "and also Calais when we take it"; and then he added, "We also expect to take and hold a bit along the coast of England."

PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES.

[Washington Star.]

A theory is like a man
By nature prone to shirk,
Though promise marks his every plan,
It's hard to make him work.

THE PERFECT CURE.

Mother—Ella, what has happened to your doll?

Ella—The doctor says it's nervous breakdown, and he has prescribed mucilage.

WAITING UPON BULGARIA.

[New York Sun.]

The entrance of Roumania into the war, and the consequent widening of the ever expanding area of conflict may depend not entirely upon the question of the acquisition of territory, although such may be the impression conveyed by the reported offer of the Italian King to act as an intermediary between Roumania and Russia in the adjustment of their future rights in Transylvania and Bukowina. The attitude of Bulgaria is likely to be a strong factor in the decision, for with risk of a rear attack from the "Prussians of the Balkans," neither Roumanians nor Greeks are in a position to hazard their fortunes on the side of the Allies.

EASIER TO SPELL.

[Harper's Magazine.]

Young Arthur, the pride of the family, had been attending school all of six weeks, and his devoted parent thought it was high time he should find out how things were running. So he asked, one afternoon:

"And what did my little son learn about this morning?"

"Oh, a mouse. Miss Wilcox told us all about mouses."

"That's the boy. Now, how do you spell mouse?"

It was then that Arthur gave promise of being an artful dodger. He paused meditatively for a moment, then said:

"Father, I guess I was wrong. It wasn't a mouse teacher was telling us about. It was a rat."

WONDERFUL BILIOUS REMEDY ACTUALLY PREVENTS ATTACKS

There are two great causes of biliousness—they are constipation and defective liver action.

When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are taken, they are not only to correct constipated bowels, but act upon the liver as well.

Quite unlike ordinary medicines which purge and give temporary relief, Dr. Hamilton's Pills remove the conditions which cause biliousness, and thus permanent cures are effected. No person who occasionally uses Dr. Hamilton's Pills will ever suffer from the headache, bad stomach or bilious complaint. Get a 25c box today.

WHEN MILKING-TIME IS DONE.

When milking-time is done, and over all
This quiet Canadian inland forest home
And wide rough pasture-lots the shadows come,
And dews, with peace and twilight voices fall,
From moss-cooled watering-trough to foddered stall
The tired plow-horses turn—the barnyard loam
Soft to their feet—and in the sky's pale dome
Like resonant chords the swooping night-jars call.

The frogs, cool-fluting ministers of dream,
Make shrill the slow brook's borders; pasture bars
Down clatter, and the cattle wander through—
Vague shapes amid the thickets; gleam by gleam
Above the wet grey wilds emerge the stars,
And through the dusk the farmstead fades from view.

—Charles G. D. Roberts.

ROUND-SHOULDERED.

The round-shouldered girl is always with us. She was not so very prominent until last year, when the "debutante slouch" (whatever that is) and fashion book illustrations encouraged this attitude.

It is really too bad that our fine, straight Canadian girls should endanger their health and ruin their appearance for a mere passing fad. The hunched-up shoulders and prominent abdomens of last season were most unpleasing, and fickle fashion has changed her decree. This year the straight, upright figure is in style. The influence of the military fashions is showing itself in a most commendable way.

But in some cases the problem of the round-shouldered girl remains. Corsets, braces and all such surgical arrangements are of no use; the girl herself gets tired of them very soon and throws them aside. She must be taught, first, to breathe properly, and second, to stand correctly.

For instance, when we breathe in, the sides of the body at the edge of the lower ribs should push outward. Few women will find they can do this, because their clothes are constraining.

This is a serious defect and the organs of the chest and lungs will be affected sooner or later. This is the interior result; the exterior result is the slouching, inelegant figure.

To stand properly let the arms hang naturally at the sides, taking care that the spine maintains a vertical position, so that a line drawn from the shoulder to hip would be straight up and down.

Now raise the chest, keeping the chin close to the neck and the abdomen retracted, and your round shoulders will disappear. This proves that the shoulders are willing to do their part and are not the offenders—the offender is the girl herself.

If you are dealing with a round-shouldered girl, don't say anything to her about her shoulders, but induce her to wear the proper clothes, allowing freedom to the waist muscles, and to breathe deeply. Then the problem of round shoulders is solved forever.

Spare minutes are the most fruitful for good or evil, for they are as gaps through which temptation finds easiest access to the garden.

HOW TRAVELLERS' AID PROTECTS WOMEN AT GREAT EXPOSITION

California T. A. S. Organized For Protection of Women Visitors.

An evidence of the splendid results afforded by organized effort is given in the excellent arrangements of the Travellers' Aid Society of California, at the expositions in San Francisco and San Diego. Londoners already know somewhat of the value of Travellers' Aid work through the Young Women's Christian Association of this city, whose official, Miss Lang, has been daily meeting trains at local depots for some months now. It will, therefore, be easy to appreciate the benefit, and, in fact, vital need for an organized protection of young women and girls traveling alone, and reaching the exposition cities unaccompanied.

Safeguarding Girls.

The Travellers' Aid Society of California is a non-sectarian, non-political organization, incorporated under the laws of California. Special arrangements are being made to safeguard women and girls travelling alone and in need of assistance in any form. A systematic plan of co-operation between the different counties of California has been organized so that protection may be also insured in the cities and even smaller towns of the state. Representatives of the society are marked by a badge bearing across the top the word "California," and beneath, the inscription "Travellers' Aid" under a gold star. Offices are located in various parts of the exposition grounds, covering the four general divisions of the exposition—the state buildings, the exposition buildings, the service buildings which are the head of all the business of the exposition, and the amusement zone. The main rest room is in the Palace of Education, where there is a telephone, kitchen and dining-room, with electric stove, rest couches, register, etc. One or two of these offices are open until 1 o'clock at night, and that in the service building is open all night.

Send on Name.

Members of women's organizations in Canadian cities have been asked to lend co-operation to the California Travellers' Aid Society in informing women visitors to the exposition of the work and privileges of the society. Information and assistance of all description will be gladly supplied to all such, and a list of safe lodging-houses may be procured from the society, whose headquarters are in the Ferry Buildings, Rooms 6, 7 and 8. If a postal card, letter, or telegram is sent to these offices, with a brief description of the coming traveller, and the hour at which she expects to arrive, an official of the society will meet her at the railroad, boat, or ferry dock, at any hour of the day or night. The Travellers' Aid Society of California is indeed doing all possible to insure the safety of women travellers.

Betty Brown Says: Black and White Garb By No Means Sombre: It Suggests Gayety Rather Than Grief.

Monte Carlo, the only place on the face of all Europe where Gaiety and Fashion reign and take no heed of war, has set the fashion for black and white.

Black and white may be "second mourning," but nevertheless it's very striking—more vivid than the gaudiest of colors and lends itself to effective combinations far from sombre.

One of the few fashions we have borrowed from Europe this spring is the black and white costume—stripes are very popular, but the combination is often effected by wearing a fancy jacket of black over a dress of black and white.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Chart of Waterloo.

Dear Miss Grey,—Can you tell me where I could secure some guide books to the field of Waterloo. I don't mean a description of the battle, but rather a description of the field and the monuments there. Do you know who is the publisher of "A Voice From Waterloo," by Sergeant-Major Cotton?

Thanking you in anticipation,

BILLY.

Ans.—If you inquire at the public library, in the reference room, you will see clippings of an illustration of the field of Waterloo, showing monuments, standing of the armies during that battle, and so on. Doubtless, too, in the library, you would find books on the Napoleonic wars which illustrate the subject.

2.—No, sorry, but I don't. If any reader could supply it, I should be very glad.

Reply to Condolence.

Dear Miss Grey,—Could you tell me how to answer a letter of condolence from a club or society, written by the secretary, and how long after being received should they be answered. Is it necessary to answer all such letters?

Thanking you for your trouble, I remain,

A READER.

Ans.—1. Answer the letter any time within a week or ten days. Something like this would be suitable, you can alter it to fit your case: "Dear friends of the —— Club: I cannot say how very much I appreciated the thoughtfulness and sympathy expressed to me in my bereavement through your letter, which I received Monday. It has been a very hard trial to bear, and the loving words of friends seem to make the burden much easier. I cannot tell you how it helped me, just to know that the members were sympathizing with, and thinking of me in my sorrow. Yours sincerely——,"

This form would answer not only for club friends, but for individual friends as well with slight alterations. Yes, better to answer letters of condolence, even though but a short note, like the above, is sent.

Birthstone for Ring.

Dear Miss Grey;—Will you please answer the following questions at your earliest convenience:

1. Could you or any of the readers supply me with the words of "The Baggage Coach Ahead?" I will send stamps for same.

2. Don't you think that one's birthstone is all right for an engagement ring?

3. Also, what are the meanings of these names: Albert, Annie, Arthur, Herbert and Viola?

Hoping I have not troubled you too much, I remain, Yours truly,

"CROOKED STICK."

Ans.—1. I have a copy of the poem at hand, and will be glad to mail it to you in the envelope you sent.

2. Yes, several times I have suggested it to girls who did not wish their sweethearts to buy a diamond.

3. Albert, all bright; Annie, grace; Arthur, high or noble; Herbert, glory of the army; Viola, a violet.

In answer to your other query, better stay in the house; the young man should attend to the horse.

Reply to Lonely.

Dear Miss Grey: I have never dropped a note in your Mail Box before, but could not say I have never taken anything out of it, as I am a constant reader, and find many useful hints, but could not keep quiet when I read "Lonely's" letter.

I hope he doesn't think it is worth the price to change his ways to be popular with the girls. It is he who is more to be envied than the giddy type, and no doubt there would be more happy people, especially fathers and mothers, if there were more boys like "Lonely."

"Lonely" doesn't really need to be popular to enjoy himself with the young ladies. They are not all alike. There are some that do not care for the type that seems so popular, just as the giddy girl doesn't care for the more quiet gentleman, and I think that if "Lonely" keeps his good ways and his eyes open, there will be a day dawn to him that will cover his past loneliness. Remember, "Lonely" it is you that has to take the first step, not the lady.

Will close, hoping you don't think this too long and silly.

P.S.—When "Lonely" writes again I think he should sign his right name and address, along with "Lonely," so we could get better acquainted with him.

1. What is the latest way for a girl of nineteen to dress her hair? Are bandeaux still worn?

2. Is it possible to publish a fashion for a good dress for a girl of same age, also for a middy suit?

Recipe.

Kisses—Whites of 3 eggs beaten to a froth, 1 large cup of icing sugar. Place in double boiler, let cook till crust forms on bottom (stirring all the time), take off and add 1 heaping tablespoon corn starch, 2 cups of shredded cocoanut, flavor with vanilla. Drop on buttered tins and bake in a moderate oven.

I am sure if "Lonely" tasted these he would feel like changing his name.

LAUGHING WATER.

Ans.—1. Drawn back from the ears and tucked into a tight roll at the back of the head is a favorite style. Others prefer the very high styles of dressing. Best wear it as becomes the shape of your face best. Bandeaux are not much in vogue now except among the younger girls.

2. Sorry but we do not have a pattern of a middy suit in the Pattern Department, although one may be added later. A neat and stylish design is No. 1329 and 1330, which appear today or tomorrow.

The recipe sounds excellent indeed. Others besides "Lonely" will be wanting to sample the dainties.

The Magic Word.

Dear Miss Grey: Have just noticed an inquiry from "Another Who Is Lonely" as to how to get rid of ants, and as I have been successful along this line hasten to pass along the "magic word." Get 5 cents worth of tartar emetic from a druggist, and with this mix the same quantity of sugar and just enough water to nicely cover. Set this in low dishes so the ants can get at it, on your shelves, and I think you will find they'll soon disappear.

Hoping this will help, with best wishes, "BETTY BROWN."

Ans.—Your magic word, Betty, is very much appreciated, and I am more than glad to pass it on to our inquirer. Call again if we can help you.

Sent to Readers.

A prescription for indigestion has been returned from the reader to whom it was mailed, and now sent on to "Daughter of Albion" and "Another Sufferer."

It may have the bolero with or without the skirt piece or collar. The waist may be finished with long sleeve or in short length. The skirt has a smooth-fitting yoke over the front and sides, and the back is shaped to form a panel. Gingham in a pretty plaid or checked pattern, or ratine in a new sand shade, would be nice for this, with the waist of dotted crepe and a touch of a contrasting color on the bolero collar. The waist pattern is cut in six sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. The skirt is cut in six sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure. It requires three yards of 36-inch material for the waist, and 4¼ yards of 44-inch material for bolero and skirt for a 36-inch size.

This illustration calls for two separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents for each pattern, in silver or stamps.

"THORNWOOD" SCENE OF GARDEN PARTY FOR WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

Delightful Event at Residence of Mrs. Becher—Mayor Present.

No scene could have been fairer than that presented yesterday afternoon on the beautiful grounds of "Thornwood," the residence of Mrs. Becher, St. George street north, when Mrs. Becher entertained members of the Women's Canadian Club at a lawn party. The delightful lawns and gardens were looking their best, and the bright June sunshine which favored the event but served to enhance the joys of the shady walks and leafy stretches. Mrs. Becher, always a most charming and gracious hostess, received her guests, assisted by Lady Beck and Mrs. Donald McLean, the president of the club. The minutes quickly passed in visiting the grounds and in informal chat, music by the Cortese harpers adding to the enjoyment of all.

Afternoon tea was poured by Lady Beck and Mrs. Frank Leonard, from a table prettily adorned with flowers. A bevy of young ladies who assisted in serving included Mrs. Gerald Pearson, Miss Nancy Niven, Mrs. Archie Becher, Miss Robinson, Miss Gardiner, Miss Brown, Miss Mona Wilson, Miss Janet Dusty, Miss Dinty Cox, Miss Nora Moore and Miss McTaggart.

Roses for Mrs. Betts.

A pleasant feature of the afternoon was when Mrs. McLean, expressing the delight of all to be present, and thanking Mrs. Becher for her kindness, extended to the retiring president, Mrs. F. P. Betts, the warm appreciation of the club for her splendid work. A handsome bouquet of palest pink roses was presented to Mrs. Betts as a slight mark of the club's esteem. Mrs. Betts in reply expressed her thanks for the kind words, wishing the club every success and progress in the coming year.

Mayor Speaks.

Mayor Stevenson, who was present, spoke briefly, congratulating the members upon their fine work along patriotic lines. He especially commended them for their efforts to send Belgian relief supplies, and also for the interest they had evidenced in providing soldiers' comforts for the sick and wounded men at the front.

Many of the members present were glad to welcome Mrs. M. W. Rossie of Port Arthur, a former energetic member of the executive, and now a visitor in town.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

KOMOKA W. I.

The Komoka Women's Institute held its summer meeting in the town hall on Saturday afternoon, June 12. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Laura Rose Stephen, Huntington, Quebec, gave an excellent and instructive address on, "My Country, My District, My Home." Miss Foster and Miss Muriel Price favored the meeting with piano instrumentals, and the solos rendered by Miss Norma Sussex and Miss Amy McEwen of Byron were much enjoyed. Roll call was answered by a patriotic sentiment. At the close of the meeting a dainty lunch was served by the girls of the institute. A pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent by all.

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless). It's cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

ECKSTEIN AND REISLING BAT LONDON TO VICTORY

Both Came Through With Triples When Men Were on Bases, Eckstein Getting Two and Being Nabbed at Plate Each Time Trying for Home.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

HAMILTON, June 16. — London won the last game of the series here today, or rather a person by the name of Eckstein won it for them. The Cockneys' left fielder starred in every department of the game. He made two catches that gained him rounds of applause when he walked back to the bench and two of the four runs the visitors got were the result of his leaning on the ball extra hard. He had two three-base hits and there was a man on each time, but he was nailed at the plate each time, in trying to stretch his clouts into homers. In the seventh inning, he made a spectacular one-hand catch off McGroarty's long drive that seemed to be easily good enough for three bases. He had to run back, and run fast, and managed to grab it with the glove hand just as his team mates had given the ball up as lost. He ran over to the bleachers in the fourth inning and pulled down a fly of Westlake's that made him jump over the railing in order to get it. It was a great day for the speedy outfielder and his good work was certainly appreciated by the fans even if it did beat the locals.

London Looked Different.

The London team, as it played today, appeared to be an entirely different aggregation. The men stood up well behind Hammond and gave him excellent support with the result that the Hams were allowed but five hits, their run coming as the result of a walk.

Schroeder was lucky that the Cockneys did not score earlier in the game, as he allowed three men to walk in the first inning and six more after it. Hammond was steady at all times.

In the first inning Lamy went out on an infield fly and Reidy walked. Eckstein also travelled over the free route, but Reidy was caught on third, when a double steal was attempted. Whitcraft also walked, but Schaffer could not hit the ball out of the diamond and Schroeder's wildness gained the visitors nothing. He walked the first man to face him in the second inning and repeated the trip in the third, but neither was able to advance far.

London's First Run.

Schaffer was the first visitor to connect for a safe hit when he laid one down in the fourth and beat it out, only to be caught trying to steal second. The first run crossed the plate in the sixth when Lamy started the inning with a single to left and advanced on Reidy's sacrifice. Eckstein sent one to left centre that Cristall tried hard to reach, but could not and Lamy had only to jog home. Eckstein was nailed at the plate trying to stretch his effort into a circuit clout.

Reisling walked for the second time in the seventh, but was forced at second and no good resulted to him. In the eighth the Cockneys scored a run in the same fashion that they got their first one. After Hammond, flew out to McGroarty, Lamy made his second single to left and stole second, reaching third on Reidy's infield out. Eckstein hit one to the right field fence and it looked good for a home run, but for the second time he got nailed at the plate in the attempt to stretch the swat.

Another base slam in the ninth had fatal results for the Hams. Whitcraft singled over second and advanced on Schaffer's sacrifice. Then "Doc" Reisling got his optic glued on the pill and sent it to the right field fence, scoring Whitcraft and coming home later, on Hammond's hit to centre, making a total of four runs that were earned by clean and healthy clouting.

Kelly Harris managed to get a free trip in the first inning, after his namesake and Linneborn were easy outs, and he stole second. In the attempt to catch him off second Whitcraft failed to handle the throw from Hammond and Harry got to third but died there when Tiffany hit an easy one to Hammond, and did not attempt to reach first.

How the Hams Scored.

Cristall hit one to Whitcraft in the third and beat it out, but none of the three to follow could advance him an inch. Kelly Harris got a life on Meyer's error in the fourth and went to third on Tiffany's single. He was caught at the plate when trying to reach home on a double steal. A double play spoiled Schroeder's hit in the fifth, and the Hams failed to get a man on after that till the eighth, when Cristall drew a pass and Schroeder made his second bingle of the fray. M. Harris advanced them by a sacrifice and Cristall scored when Linneborn went out, Whitcraft to Reisling. The fans prayed for a rally in the ninth, but it came too late. Tiffany and Woods both went out by the Whitcraft-to-Reisling route and then McGroarty put life into the dying embers of enthusiasm by hitting into the crowd in the bleachers, and getting two bases. A wild pitch advanced him to third, but the little rally was crimped when Westlake failed to get the ball past Hammond.

OTTAWA, AIDED BY ERRORS, BEAT BRANTS BY ONE RUN

Several Times Brantford Had a Chance to Win the Game, But Necessary Hit Was Lacking.

[Special to The Mercury.]

BRANTFORD, June 16.—Benefitting by two errors the Ottawa Senators won the last of the series today behind the dyke, when they took the third by three to two. Ross, pitching for the visitors, twice got into holes, only to get out when the Brants failed to connect with the bases full. Cresswell twirled supperbly, but lacked support.

Twice the visitors took the lead and the Brants tied the game, but they were unable to get ahead, a final rally ending when [illegible] swatted into a double play. Score by innings—

EVERS AND SMITH WERE BANISHED BY UMPIRE

CHICAGO, June 16. — Batting Cheney hard in the fifth inning, Boston won its first victory of the season over Chicago, 4 to 3, today. Smith was banished from the game and Evers from the field for arguing with the umpires, and early in the game most of the Boston substitutes who had been sent out of the grounds Sunday and Tuesday voluntarily left. FORMER LONDON PLAYER STARRING WITH DAYTON

URBAN MacGONAGLE, the New Lexington, Ohio, boy, who was with the London Canadian League team in the spring of 1914. "Mac" is now playing with the Dayton Club of the Central League, and is making good. He was with the Buckeye League until it broke up a few weeks ago, and then Dayton grabbed him. MacGonagle is only a youngster, but Dayton papers predict a great baseball future for him. While with the London Club, MacGonagle played good ball, and was the sensation of the spring training trip the team made through Southern Ohio. However, he could not beat Eddie Linneborn out of a job, and Reisling let him go. He was in the Wobbly League for a time with Galt.

London Gets Infielder From Chattanooga Club

Second-Baseman Lusk, Recommended To Reisling By "Kid" Elberfield, Will Arrive Today or Tomorrow — New Catcher Coming Saturday.

(BY BERT PERRY.)

An infielder by the name of Lusk, who has been with the Chattanooga club of the Southern League since the opening of the season, will report to the London club today or tomorrow. Lusk was let out by Chattanooga only because that club had to cut down to a players' limit of fifteen men. He comes to "Doc" Reisling highly recommended by "Kid" Elberfield, the former big league star, who is playing second base for Chattanooga at the present time. Lusk and Elberfield have been battling for the position, and only the latter's greater experience has landed him the berth. Elberfield and Reisling are great friends, and the former has recommended many good players to the London manager in the past.

When Lusk reports, it is likely a shift will be made in the London infield. Schaffer will go to second base and Lusk will be played at third. Schaffer is a good second sacker, and he will speed up the infield at that position.

A new catcher will also report to the London club this week. "Doc" expects him in not sooner than Saturday. He is an experienced player, and Reisling is confident he will add considerable strength to the London club. "Doc" is not trying any experiments, and the new men he is signing up are coming here with good reputations and the assurance that they will make good.

The pitching staff is getting into better shape every day. Hammond is in good form again, and Graham and Dillinger will be able to take their turn in the box regularly. Reisling is making an effort to secure "Red" Juel from the Chicago White Sox. Juel has been working out with the Sox owing to being a Chicago boy. Good reports have come from Chicago about him and Comiskey is trying to place him with a good minor league club. Reisling and Comiskey are old friends, and the London manager is going to make a bid for the former Northwestern University star.

SNELGROVE'S RINK WON PRIZES AT LONDON CLUB

Yesterday's matinee at the London Bowling and Rowing Club was largely attended. The greens were in excellent condition, and those present had a most enjoyable time.

Twelve full rinks competed, and the games were keenly contested. Play commenced at 4 p.m., and was adjourned at 6:30 for refreshments. After the bowlers had done justice to the lunch provided by Chairman Jack Trebilcock, play was resumed and continued until 9 p.m. Skip W. J. Snelgrove's rink carried off the prizes, with a score of plus 31. The winning rink was composed of V. Jackson, C. B. Chapman, J. M. Farrow and Skip Snelgrove.

Matinees will be held on each Wednesday during the balance of the season, and all city bowlers are invited to attend, as these events provide plenty of good bowling.

The spring tourney is well under way and the night bowling is proving to be very popular.

SAINTS ARE HERE FOR THREE GAMES

"Doc" Reisling May Pitch Against Them Today.

STEWART'S TEAM SKIDS

Reilly Will Likely Be Sent to Pitch for St. Thomas Outfit.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

After a rather disastrous trip to Ottawa and Hamilton, the London Canadian League club returned to this city last night and will endeavor to take a few games from "Dad" Stewart's Saints over in Tecumseh Park during the remainder of the week. The series opens today. St. Thomas comes here from Guelph, where Knotty Lee's Leafs used the section hands as a sort of doormat on which they wiped their feet before stepping into the top attic of the Canadian League standing. Stewart's pitching staff is not going any too good at present and the loss of Louis Bierbauer and Catcher Carland Nevitt waswrf and Catcher Garland Nevitt has crippled the team considerably. Bierbauer will be out of the game for two or three weeks yet.

"Doc," May Work Today.

Reisling will probably work the first game of the series today himself. Dillinger may be in shape to go into the box, but unless he is right, it is hardly likely the southpaw will be used. Reisling has been pitching good ball this season and he beat Stewart's men once before this season. Wilkinson or Reilly are due to work for the visitors. Reilly is always pretty effective against the London club and he will probably be selected.

Switch May Help Some.

Yesterday's win at Hamilton was the result of good clean hitting. "Cuz" Hammond is fast getting back into shape, as his work in the box against the Hams testifies. The switch in the batting order seems to have helped some also. With Merritt back in the game, the team will look much better. Reisling is still after an infielder and Hartsell, who was with the Cleveland-American League club for a time, may be secured. A couple of good pitchers are being communicated with and one of them may report here next week.

Tomorrow is Ladies' Day and it is likely a big crowd of the fair sex will turn out.

BOSTON WANTS A TEAM IN THE FEDERAL LEAGUE

New York, June 17.—President James A. Gilmore of the Federal League announced here last night that in company with several of the league's club owners he would go to Boston on Sunday next to meet a group of Boston men who wish to establish a Federal League Club in that city for next season.

AVIATOR NILES MAKES NEW FLYING RECORD

New York, June 17.—Attendants at the aeroplane hangars at Hempstead Plains, Long Island, asserted today that Charles F. Niles, of Rochester, N. Y., had set a new American record by flying upside down and looping-the-loop with a passenger. Both feats by Niles were performed with a new monoplane at Hempstead yesterday. In both cases the aeroplane carried 585 pounds of useful load, including the aviator's oil and gasoline. Niles and his passenger flew upside down four times, and looped the loop twice.

TWO LOW SCORES MADE AT SHORT HILLS TODAY

Short Hills, N. J., June 17.—After the dizzy pace set by Gil Nicholls, the Wilmington, Del, professional with his qualifying score of 147 yesterday, the winner of the recent open tournament at Shawnee, Pa., was the most talked of player today of the 63 who began the long, 72-hole test for this year's national open golf championship. Showers during the night had deadened the Baltusrol Club's course a bit, and when the day's play began the outlook for fair weather was anything but promising. Thirty-six holes' play was today's schedule.

Short Hills, N. J., June 17.—Robert C. MacDonald rimmed the cup for a 71. His card was 36, 36—72.

The western open champion, James M. Barnes, Marsh Valley, Pa., who arrived next, with B. Battell of Flushing, N. Y., equalled the record, with 38-33—71.

SNOW MARTEN IS FIRST IN NEW OAKES STAKES

Newmarket, Eng., June 17.—The New Oaks Stakes, a war-time substitute for the Epsom Oaks Stakes, of $25,000, for 3-year-old fillies, was run here today, and won by Snow Marten. Bright was second and Silver Tag was third. Eleven horses, including Herman B. Duryea's Flash V., started.

Guelph Beats Saints Twice and Takes the Lead

Ort and Harris Were Fined and Chased From Park By Umpire Bedford.

GUELPH, June 16.—The Leafs took both games of a double-header this afternoon from St. Thomas, winning the first by 8 to 1 and the second by 9 to 2. Both games were won by hard hitting. Ort and Harris abused Umpire Bedford until both were fined and chased off the grounds. In the opener, Kirley pitched a fine game, allowing but four hits. Howick was touched up for 15 hits in the second game. Scores:

GUELPH RINKS WIN TROPHIES AT GALT

Both Events Were Won on the Final End.

TOURNEY A BIG SUCCESS

Big Event Will Be Held in Guelph Next Year, W. Mahoney Being New President.

GALT, June 16.—Guelph today won the two big events of the Central Ontario bowling tournament, which closed this evening. H. B. Hoover's rink won the coveted Seagram trophy in a close game from Earl Hetherington's Galt rink, by a score of 14 to 13. Skip Hoover's running shot in the fifteenth end was responsible for the Royal City quartette's victory.

Besides obtaining possession of the cup, the winners received silver entree dishes, and the runners-up, club bags.

The final of the consolation saw a great finish, the Guelph rink, skipped by W. H. Jones, scoring 3 points in the final end, which gave them the event by the small margin of one point, 12 to 11, over "Scotty" Cleghorn's Berlin rink. It was a hard-fought game throughout. The winners received silk umbrellas and the runners-up club bags. The bowling today was exceptionally close. This evening the Scotch doubles and singles were run off. The scores:

Bringing Up Father — By George McManus

IMMENSE ARMY IS ROLLING BACK RUSSIAN FORCES

Seventy-One Austro-German Army Corps On Long Front.

MAY MOVE ON RAWA

Berlin Says Russia Is Bringing All Available Forces Into Galicia.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, June 16, 8:07 p.m.—Reuter's Petrograd correspondent says the Russian military critics estimate the total Austro-German forces operating against the Russians at not less than 45 German and 26 Austrian army corps (about 2,800,000 men).

It is asserted that fourteen or fifteen German army corps (560,000 to 600,000 men), are operating on the Lubaczowka-Wisznia front in Galicia, in addition to the Austrian troops, while it is believed probable that the Germans have seven army corps (280,000 men), in the Baltic provinces.

The correspondent adds that the Rech says it anticipates that the Austro-Germans will attempt a direct advance from the west upon Lemberg, combined with a wide sweeping movement to the northeast in the direction of Rawa.

GERMANS REPORT ADVANCE.

BERLIN, June 16, via London, 9 p.m. —Special dispatches from the Austrian headquarters report that the Teutonic allies are pushing the Russians vigorously from the San River to the Bessarabia frontier. The latest operations are said to have resulted in bringing Gen. Mackenzen's force in contact with Gen. Linsingen and Gen. Pflanzer.

Heavy fighting is proceeding along the whole line in Galicia, but the maximum apparently hits not yet been reached. The Russians are bringing all their available forces, consisting partly of fresh recruits, to resist the advance of the Germanic allies.

German army headquarters gave out the following today:

"Russian attacks against the German positions southeast of Mariampol, east of Augustowo and north of Bolimow all were repulsed. Our attacks along the Lipowo-Kalwarya front gained further ground, several positions being recaptured. We made 2,040 Russian prisoners and captured three machine guns.

"On the north of the upper Vistula our troops repulsed an attack on the positions we took from the Russians on Monday.

"The defeated Russian armies attempted on Tuesday along the whole front between the River San, north of Sieniawa, and the Dnicster marshes to bring the Teutonic allies to a standstill. In the evening the Russians everywhere had been driven from their positions near Gieplice, north of Sienawa, in the Lubsyow-Zuwadowka sector, southwest of Niemerow and west of Sadowa-Wiszenia. The enemy is being pursued.

"Gen. Mackenzen's army has captured upwards of forty thousand men and 69 machine guns since June 12.

"Between the Dniester marshes and Zurawna the Russians have gained some ground, but the general situation there has not changed."

VIENNA TELLS OF VICTORY.

VIENNA, June 16, via London, 10:40 p.m.—The following official communication was issued today:

"In Galicia the Russians, despite their obstinate resistance, could not withstand the general attack by the allied armies. Hotly pursued by our victorious troops the remainder of the defeated Russian corps are retreating across Newkow, Lubaczow and Javorow.

"South of the Lemberg railway the army of Gen. Boehm-Ermolli Tuesday night stormed the Russian positions on the entire front, driving the enemy across Sadowa-Wisznia and Rudki.

"South of the Dniester the fighting is proceeding before the bridgehead. The troops of Gen. Pflanzer yesterday captured Nizniow.

"From June 1 to June 15 our total war booty has been 108 officers and 122,300 men, 53 cannon, 187 machine guns and 58 munition wagons."

FRENCHMEN'S BOMBS DESTROYED PLANTS MAKING GUN SHELLS

Damage Wrought at Karlsruhe Very Heavy—Headquarters Damaged.

LONDON, June 17.—3:56 a.m.—A Rotterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company reports that the damage done at Karlsruhe by the air raid of the French squadron of aeroplanes was much greater than the papers were allowed to state.

"Two hundred persons were killed," says the correspondent. "Fifty bombs were dropped, one of them almost destroying one of the ducal palaces used as headquarters by the Karlsruhe commandant. Others destroyed a number of factories engaged in manufacturing shells. A great panic was caused, and the victims will be buried secretly at night.

"The people are ignorant of the utter failure of the anti-aircraft measures and they complain that no signals of the approach of the French aviators were given."

FINDS CANADIANS WELL CARED FOR ON FRONT

Col. Ryerson Completes Tour of Inspection—Sails Home June 26.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

LONDON, June 16.—Col. Ryerson, president of the Canadian Red Cross Society, who came over to make an official inspection of the society's work at the front, has now completed his tour, and sails for Canada on the 26th of this month.

In company with Mons. Grabriel Anatole, French secretary of state for foreign affairs, Col. Ryerson last week covered the whole battle front in France and Flanders, and made thorough inquiry into hospital conditions, particularly as affecting Canadians wounded.

With one or two startling exceptions connected with ambulance organization during fierce engagements at Ypres, in which Canadians lost so heavily, the official report which he handed to Premier Borden will be found quite satisfactory. Canadians, both in hospital and field, he said, are being well cared for in every particular.

TORONTO BOY DROWNED; DESPERATE STRUGGLE

Nearly Strangles Employer Who Makes Effort to Save Him.

TORONTO, June 16. — After a desperate fight for life, a youth named Alex. Balmer was drowned on the waterfront here today. He was washing one side of a boat and fell out. The proprietor of the boat saw him fall overboard, and when the boy appeared threw him a fishing rod. The drowning boy grabbed it. After a frantic struggle to reach the boat he became exhausted and let go. The proprietor threw a life-preserver to the boy when he came to the surface again. Balmer managed to get a leg through it, but before he could be reached he fell from the preserver and disappeared again.

The proprietor, Welsman, then jumped into the water, secured the boy and started for the boat. Frightened to the point of desperation, Balmer took a strangle-hold on his rescuer's neck, and nearly drowned him. Welsman, in order to save himself, had to let the boy go. Balmer never came to the surface again.

WAS TROUBLED WITH CHOKING SPELLS AND SHORTNESS OF BREATH

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, and dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

Many men and women drag along with weary step, and become worn out and haggard, when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first signs of heart or nerve trouble. On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be given a fair trial and you will find that they will soon correct both these organs.

Mr. James Leard, Tryon, P. E. I., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had choking spells, and was troubled with weakness of the heart and shortness of breath. I tried three doctors but they all failed. A neighbor recommended me to try your pills, so I got a box and they helped me so much I have taken six boxes. I highly recommend them to all who are troubled with their heart and nerves. I was not able to do any work for over two years; now I can do quite a bit."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BRITAIN BUILDING GIANT AEROPLANES TO MEET ZEPPELINS

Under-Secretary of War Tennant Tells Commons That Numbers of Aircraft Have Been Increased Tenfold in Past Few Months.

LONDON, June 16.—Giant aeroplanes of great carrying capacity are in process of manufacture for the British Government, according to an announcement made in the House of Commons this afternoon by H. J. Tennant, under secretary of the war office.

This statement was made in reply to the suggestion by a member of the House that machines of this character were needed adequately to deal with raiding Zeppelins.

Tenfold Increase.

The Government is now manufacturing a giant aeroplane similar to the Russian Sikorsky, which carries five men and five times as much explosive as the ordinary biplane, Tennant announced. Within the past few months the number of British aeroplanes for war purposes has been increased tenfold and the number of trained aviators fivefold.

"British aviators have demonstrated their superiority over the Germans," said Tennant. "Since February there has been no shortage of high explosive bombs. On the contrary we now have a reserve supply ample for all purposes."

Forty Injured.

The following official statement regarding the Zeppelin air raid was issued tonight:

"Further inquiries show that the casualties in connection with the visit of a Zeppelin to the northeast coast Tuesday night amount to 16 killed and 40 injured.

"It is now possible to state more exactly the casualties resulting from an airship raid on another portion of the northeast coast on the night of June 6. The number of deaths there was 24, comprising five men, all civilians, thirteen women and six children. There were also 40 cases of more or less serious injuries.

"The principal fires were in drapery establishments, a lumber yard and a terrace of small houses."

HON. DR. MONTAGUE IS SERIOUSLY ILL

WINNIPEG, June 16.—Hon. George R. Coldwell will be put into the witness stand before the royal commission tomorrow. He will be examined on the evidence given by William Salt and V. W. Horwood in Minneapolis, the notes of which have now been transcribed. Mr. Coldwell will be followed on the stand by Hon. James H. Howden, who, in turn, will probably be followed by Sir Rodmond Roblin.

Hon. Dr. W. H. Montague, it is reported, is seriously ill, and the commission will not require him to take the witness stand again until his physicians give their consent.

Duma Chairman Greets England By New Wireless

Powerful Station Erected In Russia Talks With Ally.

LONDON, June 16.—11:32 p.m.—A new and powerful wireless station erected in Russia since the outbreak of the war transmitted the first messages to England today in the form of a greeting from the chairman of the Duma to Right Hon. James W. Lowther, speaker of the House of Commons. Mr. Lowther acknowledged the message by wireless.

WASHINGTON HAS NO CONFIRMATION OF TRICKERY CHARGE

Would Like To Know If Germany Worked a Hoax.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary Lansing received word late today, from sources which he regarded as reliable that the man who sailed for Germany with a safe conduct, carrying messages to the foreign office at Berlin from Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard.

Doubt had been cast on the identity of the German ambassador's envoy by published reports that the safe conduct in Dr. Gerhard's name was in reality obtained for Dr. Alfred Meyer, chief of the supply department of the German army who was said to have been buying supplies in the United States. Another story was to the effect that Dr. Meyer accompanied Gerhard.

State department officials today expressed much curiosity over the reports, but instituted no formal investigation. From one of the editors of a New York newspaper, an American citizen, came word that he knew both Dr. Meyer and Dr. Gerhard, and that he personally saw the latter on June 3 take the boat for Norway.

While the state department would examine any evidence that might be brought to it, nothing thus far indicates, it was said officially, that there is any foundation for a charge of trickery.

GERHARD SURE OF PEACEFUL ENDING

Easy To Pacify States Where German-Americans Are Loyal.

NO BELLICOSE FEELING

Declares Conflict Between Bryan and Wilson Is of Old Standing.

LONDON, June 16.—6:47 p.m. — A peaceful settlement of the questions which have arisen between the United States and Germany is predicted by Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, who is on his way from the German embassy at Washington to Berlin to explain the situation to the German Government. An interview accredited to Dr. Meyer-Gerhard is published by the Frankfurter Zeitung and forwarded to London by the Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company. The interview was obtained yesterday at Christiansand, Norway, when the steamer United States, on which Dr. Meyer - Gerhard was a passenger, touched at that port.

"The conflicting views existing between Berlin and Washington regarding the Lusitania affair, rest on a misunderstanding and will be settled peacefully," Dr. Meyer-Gerhard is quoted as saying.

An Old Story.

"The conflict between President Wilson and Secretary Bryan is of old origin and arose from quite different causes than the Lusitania affair. The breach was rendered inevitable by the independent procedure of the President, who rejected the counsels of his responsible minister and drafted the latest American note to Germany according to his own ideas. As President Wilson framed this reply to Germany without even consulting Mr. Bryan, the latter had no other recourse but to request that he be released from office.

"The tension between the two must, therefore, be regarded as entirely a domestic affair. The feeling of the American people and Goverment towards Germany is not at all bellicose; on the contrary, there prevails an absolute desire for peace.

"It is not true, as trumpeted abroad, that the American fleet has been concentrated for participation in the European naval war.

"The feeling among German-Americans is splendid. Their love for the Fatherland is strong, their joy in our mighty successes in all theatres of war affecting."

GERMAN PROFESSOR HATES WILSON REGIME

Says Kaiser Is Hourly Insulted by Lies in Press, Too.

AMSTERDAM, via London, June 17, 2:39 a.m.—Professor Phillip Zorn of the Chair of Law at Bonn University and who was a member of both The Hague conventions, attacks the administration of President Wilson in an article in the Cologne Gazette, a copy of which has been received here.

"We have a clear conscience as far as international law is concerned," says Prof. Zorn. "But has the Wilson Government an equally good conscience? I answer, no. The feelings of the German people are bitter against America, not against the American people, whom we consider our good friends, but against the Wilson Government, which is neutral only in form.

"Hourly our army, our people and the Kaiser are insulted in the meanest, most lying fashion by the American press. Is that honorable neutrality? The war would have been over except for American supplies. We accuse President Wilson before God and the world of guilt for the continuance of the fearful murder. That is the neutrality and Christianity of President Wilson and his Government."

PRIEST IS DECORATED.

BRESCIA, Italy, June 16.—The Rev. Eduardo Gilarde, a Roman Catholic priest, who is serving as a chaplain in the Italian army, has been decorated with a silver medal for conspicuous bravery under fire.

Doctor Said Only Hope Was in an Operation

Was Skeptical When He Began the Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment —Relief Came Quickly.

Here is a plain, honest statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Ointment. Between the lines of this letter you can read the gratitude which its writer feels. One does not suffer from annoying, distressing piles for ten years without appreciating a cure when it is obtained.

Almost every mail brings the report of someone who has been cured of piles by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Such statements are never used without the permission of the writer, and until we are satisfied that the cure is genuine and the writer a person of responsibility.

You may believe in operations for piles, and think there is no other cure. Write to Mr. Ingles, inclosing stamp, and he will gladly verify his statement. He will tell you that the pain, the expense, the risk of an operation are quite unnecessary. That relief and cure come with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Ernest W. Ingles, Penticton, B. C., writes: "I suffered from piles for ten years, and though I tried all kinds of ointments and injections I really had no permanent relief until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. When I began this treatment I had absolutely no faith in it, for I had been examined by a well-known physician in Vancouver, and he said that an operation was the only thing that would benefit me. It was surprising the relief I obtained from the very first box, and now after using four boxes I am practically cured. My case was so exceptionally bad that I received no relief day or night, and for this reason the results are wonderful."

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Ointment from any dealer at 60 cents a box. If you do not want to risk this much send a two-cent stamp to pay postage, and mention this paper, and we shall send you a sample box free. We are so certain that any sufferer from piles will obtain relief by using this ointment that we do not hesitate to make you this offer. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Graves of Canadians Tenderly Cared For by Women of France

FLOWER DECKED MOUNDS

Praise of This Journal Is Bestowed by Boys on Firing Line.

News of the promotion of Capt. Eaton, former A. D. of S. and T., at local divisional headquarters, and who left London in command of No. 4 Depot Unit of Supply, is contained in a letter received by a member of The Advertiser staff from Roy McLeod, an Advertiser man who enlisted with the No. 4 Depot, and has been in France ever since the first Canadians landed there.

Capt. Eaton is now in command of the Army Service Corps in the district "somewhere in France," where the London unit is now stationed.

Here We Are Again.

Pte. McLeod writes:

"In the words of the popular song, 'Here We Are Again,' and I guess we are here to stay. Well, I have not much news to tell you this time, but will try and make my letter as interesting as possible—censor permitting.

"We have had very fine weather out here recently, the climate of this country being very similar to that of Canada. This all serves to bring back pleasant memories of bygone days.

"At present we are employed in supplying meat to the troops, it being conveyed from this base direct to the firing line. Capt. Eaton is in full command of the Canadian Army Service Corps stationed in this district.

Nephew of Sir Wilfrid.

"We have been reinforced lately by members of the —— contingent, drafted from ——. One recent arrival is a nephew of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is a welcome addition to our unit, as being a native of Quebec he speaks French fluently and acts as unofficial interpreter, translating and composing our love letters to the French girls in this district. Thus we manage to keep him busily employed and, like a good Canadian, out of mischief.

Saw Picture in Advertiser.

"By the way, I noticed in a recent edition of The Advertiser a cut depicting French peasant women caring for the graves of British heroes somewhere in France. Perhaps you can remember the illustration referred to. At any rate these graves are situated in a pretty little cemetery about two miles from here, which I visited not long ago.

"It occurred to me that many of these wooden crosses meant sorrowing homes in the land of the maple, there being a special plot reserved for Canadian lads. All graves are constantly cared for by the French peasants, fresh cut flowers being brought daily and the grass being neatly kept in trim.

"I receive The Advertiser quite regularly, and it is a treat to us London boys, as we can always see how things are going on at home, and incidentally review the situation out here.

War News at the Front.

"It may seem strange, but the majority of the war news we receive is derived from newspapers. However, we receive the English morning papers in the evening of the same date, so we are not far behind the times.

"The London Advertiser seems to be in great demand out here, and when we have perused its contents we pass it on to the Canadian hospital, where it is no doubt enjoyed by the Canadian wounded.

"One day last week I met a sergeant of the Postal Corps, whose home is in London. Upon learning my identity he exclaimed, 'O you are the fellow who receives The Advertiser so frequently. You know I have often been tempted to steal a glance at the good old 'Tiser now and then, but hesitated.'

Now Helps Himself.

"I told him in future to help himself and by the appearance of the paper of late he isn't the only one who has been tempted. But we should worry so long as we got some home news now and then.

"We were supposed to play a game of baseball with the Canadian Hospital, camped in this district, but it has been indefinitely postponed. Business before pleasure, you know. However we have had some good practice in the churchyard nearby, which was greatly enjoyed by our distinguished French audience. At least it seemed that way, although the small boys persisted in kicking the ball when it came their way. As it was harder than their feet, one kick each was sufficient.

"I received some smokes from you fellows recently, and wish to thank you all.

"I am quite well, and trust all at the office are the same. I will write again when possible, and hope to hear from you soon. With best wishes.

"ROY McLEOD."

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL TAKE PARTY

Pacific Coast Trip Will Attract Many Ladies.

TEACHERS WILL BE THERE

Nothing To Bother About—Whole Time Given Up to Pleasure.

It will be good news to some of The Advertiser readers to know that a limited number of ladies can arrange to accompany the newspaper party on the special-train trip to the Pacific Coast. There are several teachers and others who have inquired if this could be done, and to a certain extent the answer is in the affirmative.

Those who would like to travel on the newspaper special train through will have to be prompt in making their applications, as less than twenty can be accommodated, and this allotment will be divided up among the various papers interested in the undertaking. They should communicate with the circulation manager of The Advertiser at once regarding the matter, and they will be given complete information about the trip, the cost, etc.

A special reason why many ladies have desired to know if they can accompany the party is that there are quite a few such who would like to make the trip to the Pacific Coast, but do not have anyone to accompany them. They do not care travel alone, but by going with this party will have agreeable and pleasant company throughout the entire trip. Also they would be on a private train, and not have to mix with crowds on the regular trains.

They appreciate that they would have no bother about baggage, hotel accommodations or such things, and would have no worry on their minds regarding arrangements, but could give themselves up to the pleasures of the trip.

The party will attract a great deal of attention while en route, and many receptions are being prepared in their honor in the western cities, all of which will make this a memorable and very pleasant outing. School teachers or other ladies who wish to join the party should not lose any time in making their wishes known, and if it is not too late they can complete the arrangements to go on the private train, leaving about the 17th of July.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK FLAT

Woman and Man Shot Dead—Latter Blamed by Former's Husband.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 17.—Carman Cornelius, a well-to-do merchant, summoned neighbors to his apartment in E. New York today with the announcement that a burglar had shot and killed his wife. Those who returned with Cornelius to his suite found his young wife, Barbara, dead in bed with three bullet holes in her head. Nearby on the floor was the body of a young man, who had been shot through the temple.

The intruder, whom neither the police nor Cornelius could identify, still clutched a pistol. Cornelius declared that the man entered his bedroom to commit robbery and fired a shot at him which killed Mrs. Cornelius. The police, after two hours questioning, could not get Cornelius to change his story.

TRIED TO BITE THE HAND THAT HELD OUT FOOD

A tramp-like looking individual, carrying a bundle of old umbrellas, presented himself at the front door of the home of a prominent King street citizen the other evening at six o'clock.

"Got any umbrellas to mend?" he inquired of the maid, who in turn passed the question along to the mistress of the household.

"I'm sorry, I haven't anything to give him to do," was the reply sent back.

But the man still hesitated. "Any scissors to grind?"

The family scissors were all in good condition.

Still the itinerant healer of maimed umbrellas and lame scissors lingered.

The lady of the house herself appeared, and to her he told a woeful tale of hunger.

"Go round to the kitchen and I will see that you get some supper. We never send anyone away hungry."

Is House Marked?

(The lady of the house wonders if their place is marked in any way. They get twice as many tramps as their neighbors.)

But he still had an objection. "Lady, I couldn't accept food without doing something to earn it. Haven't you anything at all you could let me do?"

Anything to ease his conscience and preserve his self-respect!

There was a big pair of scissors in the kitchen, used for cutting the rind off bacon. Tinkering them up would at least afford him occupation.

"He's drunk. I wouldn't give him anything," declared the maid, who watched him lurch through the gateway leading to the back door.

"It's all right. No one goes away from here hungry. Anyway, the poor fellow is anxious to work to earn his meal."

Seated on the step outside the scissors grinding began to the accompaniment of muttered comments.

He Was an Expert.

"Man no good who sharpened these scissors last. Must have been a blacksmith. I'm not just sharpening them. Overhauling them and making them all right."

Five minutes later the maid announced to the group gathered around the dinner table: "Mrs. ——, that man won't eat his supper. He says he didn't want any tea. He wants 25 cents for making the scissors as good as new. Won't you come out and speak to him?"

The manner of the scissors' grinder had undergone a transformation. He was taking the situation in his own hands.

"I done my work. It's a good job, and I want 25 cents," he declared, threateningly.

"But I didn't want the scissors sharpened. I gave them to you simply because you told me you were hungry and wouldn't eat without paying for a meal in some way."

Power of the Press.

"If you don't give me 25 cents I'll put your name in the paper. I'll let everyone know how mean you are," he stormed.

The lady had an inspiration.

"How much good will it do to put the name of the chief of police in the paper?" she said.

He was startled for a moment, but his bad nature again predominated.

"Don't care whether it's the chief of police or not. Going to put your name in the paper anyway, and let people know how mean you are. I want ten cents. I fixed those scissors good as new, and you ain't honest enough to pay for them. I'll let everybody know about it. I tell you I don't want anything to eat. Want my money for my work. I——"

"What's all the trouble about?" came a masculine voice from some place beyond the kitchen.

"The chief will speak to you himself," smiled the mistress.

But the bullier of women stood not on the order of his going. He seized his bundle of old umbrellas and went at once, calling back, however: "I'll put your name in the paper."

TURKS REPULSED IN DARDANELLES

Fail in Attempt To Recapture Trenches Lost on June 12.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—Turkish troops in the Dardanelles have been repulsed in their attempt to recapture the trenches lost by them to the British and the French on June 12, according to an official statement on the situation in the Dardanelles made public here today.

TURKISH STORIES.

[Canadian Press.]

Constantinople, June 16—Via London (Wireless), June 17.—The following official statement was issued tonight at the Turkish war office: "Our artillery has caused the enemy heavy losses at Ari Burnu.

Our coast batteries successfully bombarded the enemy's transports, camp and airship sheds at Seddul Bahr."

German Leader Killed.

The text of the announcement follows: "On the night of June 15, a party of the enemy, led by a German officer, made a gallant attack on the trenches occupied by one of the British brigades. A few of the enemy were killed on the parapet, but the majority of them fell before reaching our trenches. Fifty dead were counted, including the German leader and his Turkish subordinate.

Dublin Fusiliers.

"These trenches were captured by us on the night of June 12. After a strong attack the Turkish positions were enfiladed by our machine guns from right to left. The Dublin Fusiliers attacked with the bayonet. When the trenches were occupied they were found to contain 200 dead Turks. Twelve prisoners also were taken. Our casualties were very slight."

Bavarian Taken Fighting Italians

Shows That German Troops Are Now Aiding the Austrians.

Verona, via Chaisso to Paris, June 17.—A report received here from Lago di Misurina says that among the prisoners captured in a bayonet attack made by Bersaglieri on the Austrians in that district was a Bavarian, and this is regarded here as indicating that German soldiers are fighting with the Austrians.

The report says that the Bavarian, although taken in the rear, drew two knives and stabbed a corporal, but in turn was bayonetted. Both men, badly wounded, are now in a hospital side by side.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, June 16.—Cold weather all over the Canadian west and the Dakotas, and wet weather in the United States winter wheat belt, drove prices higher today. Futures opened ⅞c to 1⅛c higher, and at midday were 1⅛c to 2c advanced on the opening points. Trading was light and confined for the most part to speculative shorts covering. Oats were also high and strong, while flax opened strong and weakened later.

Private advices late in the day strengthened prices, after a sign of sagging. In the export department in the early hours there was a moderate demand for Nos. 1, 2 and 3 grades of wheat, and a little changed hands. Later the inquiry was off. All grades of oats were wanted, while there was little or no inquiry for either barley or flax. Export business is practically at a standstill.

Total inspections on Tuesday were 216 cars, against 592 last year. In sight today were only 60 cars.

Wheat futures closed 1⅞c to 2½c higher; oats, ½c to 1c higher, and flax, ½c to 1c lower.

Cash grain:

Wheat—No. 4, $1.10; No. 5, $1.03; No. 6, 98c.

Oats—No. 2 Canadian western, 55c; No. 3, Canadian western, 53½c; extra No. 1 feed, 53½c; No. 1 feed, 52½c; No. 2 feed, 51¼c.

Flax—No. 1 N. W. C., $1.54½; No. 2 Canadian western, $1.51¾.

Chicago, June 7.—Although wheat today scored an advance on account of stormy weather in Kansas and Nebraska and of frost in Minnesota, the gains were soon wiped out. The reaction was due to reports that foreigners were trying to cancel purchases of new crop wheat here. Selling was led by one of the largest concerns in the trade. After opening ⅜ to ½ to ¼ to 1⅜ higher, the market receded to below last night's level.

WALL STREET.

New York, June 17—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Firmness ruled at the outset of today's trading, leading issues adding to yesterday's late gains. United States Steel gave promise of resuming its former prominence, opening with sales of 2,000 and 1,000 shares at a material fractional gain, while the preferred rose a point. New York Central was the strongest of the railways, with a 1-point advance. Coppers and motors were moderately higher, but war specialties were variable, Westinghouse declining over a point on extensive offerings. Prices reacted before the end of the half hour.

ADD WALL STREET o.tT!v..

Noon.—The market showed a tendency to harden after the early reaction, but heaviness in coppers, which followed a sharp break in quotations for the refined metal in London, caused another reversal and gave partial confirmation to reports of price cutting in this market. Metal shares were less heavy, however, than certain of the more standard issues, Union Pacific, Reading and Pennsylvania falling back a point each, the latter on fairly large offerings. There was a moderate revival of pool operations in minor specialties, with extreme dullness elsewhere. Bonds were steady.

EVERY BOY AND GIRL IN SCHOOLS TAUGHT TO SWIM

This Is Intention of Board as Foreshadowed by Pool at Princess.

NO SCHOOL WITHOUT ONE

All To Be Constructed Will Have Swimming Tanks in Future.

The decision of the board of education to place a swimming pool in the new Princess Avenue School was commented on most favorably by citizens today. The plan of the board is to have every boy and girl taught to swim under the direction of a competent instructor. The new school will be the first in London to have a swimming pond, but the board expects that from now on it will be demanded by others.

Every Pupil Taught to Swim.

"It is certainly a step in the right direction," said Chairman A. E. Silverwood, of the building committee, to The Advertiser today. "The swimming pond at Princess avenue will not be an elaborate affair, like some of those we saw in Rochester, but it will fill all requirements. It will be heated in the winter from the same system that is used to heat the school. Every class will have its regular time for using the bath, and we plan to teach all the children to swim. This is invaluable, and when extended to other schools should go a long way toward preventing the loss of life each year from drowning accidents. It is remarkable the number of persons who cannot swim.

Pools For All New Schools.

"I think the last school in London has been built without a swimming pool. From this year on the public will demand them when they see the benefits. We had planned to put one in the new north end school, but had to change our plans, owing to room requirements. We have left the building, however, so that when an addition of four rooms is required, which will not be long at the rate the north end is growing, a swimming pond can be constructed in the basement."

"SLIPPED ONE OVER" ON HIS OPPONENTS

Mayor Knew Council Took Glaubitz Salary Out of His Hands.

Mayor H. A. Stevenson will stand by his decision not to sign any pay checks for H. J. Glaubitz to the last. He was prepared to fight the matter to a finish, but the recent resolution of the council has taken the matter out of his hands, and as judgment has been secured the judge can now order the Bank of Montreal, the city's broker, to pay the amount.

Had the council left the matter in the mayor's hands he could have put in an appearance when the case was called. The board of control members, however, and certain aldermen by their vote rendered it impossible for Mayor Stevenson to take any further action.

The mayor's stand all the way through was most consistent, and had the council stood behind him as many ratepayers expected they would, it is claimed that Mr. Glaubitz would not have been able to collect the amount he asked for. The mayor's claim was that so far as his vote on the utilities commission was concerned he never permitted Mr. Glaubitz to remain in the city's employ.

ADVANCED PUPILS GIVE RECITAL

Mrs. Francis-Vining's Class Heard to Advantage.

The artistic playing of advanced pupils of Mrs. Lotta Francis-Vining, of the London Conservatory of Music staff, delighted a large audience in Heintzman Hall last evening, when the program included such difficult numbers as the Bach Concerto in C minor; "Les Deux Alouettes," Leschetizsky, a tarantelle by the same composer, and the Schubert-Tausig Marche Militaire.

Miss Margery Talbot, soprano, a pupil of Miss Brown, afforded much pleasure by her singing of "More Regal in Low Estate," from "The Queen of Sheba." Mr. Fred Bartlett, violinist, a talented pupil of Maurice Poure, also assisted in the program, in which the following took part: Miss Margaret Johnston, Miss Gwendolyn Scandrett, Miss Mary Weston, Miss Mary Ashton, Miss Marguerite Mann, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Mildred Baker and Miss Kate Lancaster.

MAYOR RIGHT IN NOT DEFENDING GLAUBITZ CASE

Council's Action Prevented Him From Putting in an Appearance.

CITY SOLICITOR'S ADVICE

Controllers Think It Time To Call Halt on Local Improvements.

At a meeting of the board of control, yesterday afternoon, City Clerk Baker read a letter from City Solicitor Meredith, stating that as judgment had been obtained in the Glaubitz suit, a writ of execution could now be issued.

"It is no use to recommend payment of the account," said Mayor Stevenson. "The council's resolution prevented me from putting in an appearance at the court. I asked Mr. Meredith about that matter and he told me." This was a slight surprise.

It was decided to file the letter.

The board appointed Controllers Rose and White a committee to report on ways and means of operating the comfort station at a more reasonable cost and to give better service.

The matter of local improvements came up and Controller Moore thought it was pretty nearly time to call a halt.

Controller Gammage agreed with him, as the work now in hand is nearing the $200,000 mark.

The question of going on with a pavement on York street and Talbot stret as recommended by the board of works came up, and the board decided to call for tenders instead of letting the contract to the Ottawa firm, which is doing some other streets at the same rate. This course had been suggested by No. 2 committee.

The recommendation from No. 2 committee, that Ridout street at Grand avenue be raised a foot and a half, was filed, the board being afraid to go ahead with the work fearing suits for land damages.

Treasurer Bell reported that $1,000,000 had been received from the new debentures and that the Bank of Montreal had been paid $800,000. Mr. Gilpin of Toronto, who sold the debentures was given $500 for settlement of his claim.

The matter of the West London breakwater came up and Ald. Manness, who was present, suggested that the clinker from the incinerator, tons of which is available, would be splendid for the work if put in a strong crib-work and slush cement poured in. Controller Rose said it would not mix. The matter will, however, be investigated. Mayor Stevenson and Engineer Brazier are going to St. Catharines Saturday to get pointers from some of the big work being done in connection with the new canal.

HOLDS OPTION ON GINSBERG HOUSE

L. and P. S. R. Commission May Use Property for Freight Depot.

The London and Port Stanley Railway commission has secured an option on the house owned by Ginsberg Bros., at the corner of Bathurst and Clarence streets, for $5,000. It is the plan of the management to use it for freight purposes, and it is likely that further property owned by Ginsberg Bros. in the south end of the city will be taken also.

MRS. FRANCIS LOVE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Widow of Police Magistrate Love Passes Away at Her Home.

There was very sincere general sorrow in this city when the late Francis Love, police magistrate, died. At that time Mrs. Love was seriously ill and she has been continuously a sufferer since. She endured her prolonged illness with great courage and cheerfulness. About ten days ago her illness took a serious turn and death occurred last evening.

Mrs. Love was the eldest daughter of the late Donald Currie, one of London's prominent early Scotchmen. She was born in this city 57 years ago. She was educated at the Central School and at Hellmuth Ladies' College. In 1876 she married Mr. Love, and leaves a family of two sons, William D. of Winnipeg and Purdom of this city, and five daughters, Mrs. Capt. F. B. Ware of this city, Mrs. E. J. Archibald of Montreal and Mary, Jessie and Sterling at home.

Mrs. Love, like her late husband, possessed the faculty of making and keeping friends. She was a genial, kind, loyal friend and an ideal wife and mother. She will be much missed and mourned by many in this city. Her father's family are scattered. Her brother, Cameron Currie, in Detroit, William H. Currie, in New York and her sisters, Mrs. A. P. Clausanthue, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mrs. W. J. Christie in Winnipeg and Anna Currie in San Francisco, California.

Mrs. Love, before her marriage, was a member of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, and for many years has been a member of St. Andrew's Church in this city. The funeral will likely be held on Saturday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery.

Her family will have the sincere sympathy of all in their irreparable loss.

Fruit-growers will find John Sharman, representative of E. D. Smith, nursery stock, etc., at Darch & Hunter Seed Company, Market entrance, Thursdays and Saturdays. ywt

MAYOR WILL SEE THAT UNION WAGES ARE PAID ON LINE

After Best Possible Scale for L. and P. S. R. Crews as Promised.

KEEP WITHIN ESTIMATES

Dr. Stevenson Says Needless Expenses Are Being Eliminated.

Completing his first six months as chief magistrate of the city, Mayor H. A. Stevenson, during his address to the members of the trades and labor council at their meeting last night, received quite an ovation when he announced that he would do all in his power to have the standard wage paid to the employees of the London and Port Stanley electrified road.

Mayor Stevenson said he was not hurrying ahead with the wage rate until he had ascertained just what the standard wage was. He was attempting to get the men the best possible wages, he declared.

Delegate Hollins said that the council should get busy immediately and take an active part in the wage question of the electric road, which was to be operated shortly.

"I think that we should get a Toronto street car union man, and get the men organized," asserted Delegate Joe Dean, as some of the members announced that they thought it would be the best plan to see what wages the management were going to pay before they took an active part in the matter.

Stop to Department Meddling.

"Another thing," said the mayor, "meddling with the city employees must stop. The heads of the different city departments are now responsible for their branches, and with all working in harmony at the city hall, and nedless expenditures eliminated, we will this year live within the estimates."

President James Hussey then passed a vote of thanks to the mayor amidst rounds of applause, and his worship was also invited to attend future meetings of the Labor men.

Ald. M. Lerner spoke for some length on his municipal coalyard proposition, with the result that the labor men will attend a city council meeting and go into details with the aldermen to find out just how feasible the plan is.

Mr. White has been sales manager for the Greene-Swift Company, and goes to Philadelphia to enter the employ of A. B. Kirchbaum, who was recently elected president of the Clothing Manufacturers' Association of the United States.

Besides his London friends a number from Toronto, Hamilton and other cities were present to wish Mr. White good luck. During the program of the evening many kind words were said of his excellent qualities as a citizen and a business man.

BETTRIDGE—DEEGAN.

Forest, June 16.—The marriage of Miss Ella Deegan, daughter of Mrs. J. Deegan, Prince street, and C. L. Bettridge of Guelph took place this morning at the Roman Catholic Church, Forest, Rev. Father Hardy of Sandwich officiating. The bride wore a handsome gown of ivory satin, and veil with orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister Margaret, who was gowned in pink silk crepe. The bride carried cream roses, and the bridesmaid pink roses. J. J. Collins of Guelph Junction was the groomsman. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace with pearls and diamond, his gift to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsman monogram cuff links. After the wedding breakfast, served at the home of the bride's mother, the happy couple left on the 10:15 a.m. train for Sarnia, the bride travelling in a navy blue tailored suit. They will spend their honeymoon on a trip down the St. Lawrence, and on their return will reside in Guelph. Many choice gifts testify to the esteem in which they are held.

MACDONALD—BOWIE.

One of the prettiest events of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowie, twelfth line, Brooke, on Wednesday, June 2, when their eldest daughter, Hilda Mae, became the bride of Ernest R. MacDonald, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald of Metcalfe.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. K. M. Esson, pastor of Napier Presbyterian Church, of which the young couple are both members.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will be at home to their friends after June 23, at their home, Park Lawn, Metcalfe.

AWAITING RESULT DR. HILL'S EXAM.

If He Passes He Will Be Recommended as Medical Officer of Health.

At a conference between the board of health and the board of control yesterday afternoon, in regard to the appointment of a medical health officer for London, it was decided to make no recommendation for a few days, pending word from Toronto as to whether Dr. H. W. Hill, formerly of the Institute of Public Health, has passed certain examinations. If Dr. Hill passes successfully, he will be recommended by the board of health for the position, and the members of the board of control were unanimously of the opinion that the boards recommendation should be adopted.

Chairman Somerville, of the board of health, pointed out that Dr. Hill is one of the few D. Phs in Canada, and that the city would be fortunate in securing his services, especially at the salary it was intended to pay. The matter of an assistant, he said, need not be taken up at the present time, as the board was quite satisfied with the work that is now being done. Asked regarding smallpox, he said, there is only one case, and that not serious.

CHOIR HAS PICNIC

St. Andrew's Songsters Have Enjoyable Time at Lakeside.

Sixty members of the choir of St. Andrew's Church motored to Lakeside yesterday for their annual picnic. The first cars left St. Andrews Church about 2 o'clock, closely followed by the remainder of the choir.

Perhaps the most conspicuous feature of the event was a strenuous baseball game with the married men, on one side, and the single men on the other. The "lucky" members of the choir defeated their adversaries after a hot contest. Races and other sports made the day pass quickly, and the whole was capped off by an appetizing luncheon, prepared and served by the ladies.
