FACED HIS OWN RECORD

Men. G. E. Foster Doesn't Turn Corner On Autonomy Bills.

After Three Trials He Declares He Will Never Again Hold the Rights of the Minority Supreme as Against the Great Force of Public Opinion—Sir William Mulock Replies in Vituperative Speech.

Ottawa, March 30.—The Hon. George Foster was heard yesterday on the great question of the session, the autonomy bill. He spoke from 3.30 to 6 o'clock and left on the pages of Hansard what many good judges believe to be the best speech he ever delivered on the floor of Parliament.

Faced His Own Record. He faced the question courageously and as manfully faced his own record as one of the leaders of the remedial bill. Many wondered how he would turn the corner. The truth is that he did not attempt to turn any corner. He declared that he acted in accordance with his honest convictions in 1896, and that under similar conditions his judgment would be precisely as it was in the stirring days of the historic crisis. On that occasion the Conservative Government, knowing that it was politically inexpedient, attempted to confer on the minority in Manitoba the rights which a high judicial decision had conceded to them.

The Present Bill. It had been urged in defence of the autonomy bill, he said, that 41 per cent. of the people of Canada demanded the legislation. Where was that 41 per cent. he asked, in 1896 when the Conservative Government was attempting to serve it? In the elections of 1896, again in 1900, and once again in 1904, it declared against the party which endeavored to give it what was, he believed, to be its just dues, and in the face of these decisions, Mr. Foster said, he would never again hold the rights of the minority supreme as against the great force of public opinion. Mr. Foster gently but forcefully dealt with the alleged tolerance of Henri Bourassa. M. P. He showed up the Quebec leader and denied that the privileges enjoyed by the Provincial Government.

Mulock Speaks in Defence. Sir William Mulock had been glaring at Mr. Foster all through the latter's speech. When at 9 o'clock last night, private bills were disposed of, Sir William took up the debate and by way of preliminary amenities accused Mr. Foster of trying to sow the seeds of discord to the great injury of his country. It must be extremely elevating, he said sarcastically, for Canada to take its ideas of political morality from such a source. Sir William searched Mr. Foster's political record, dwelling on what he termed the latter's treachery to Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his conduct generally in the crisis of 1896. Mr. Foster had tried to create the impression that Quebec was being given a stone instead of bread. His object was to envelop the whole Dominion in one huge religious conflagration. The school question, he declared, was being settled on a fair basis, instead of being allowed to remain open and stop Canada's progress.

A. E. Lancaster replied with a vigorous speech. He said the Postmaster-General had wasted the time of the House abusing Mr. Foster and Dr. Spruille. No passionate speeches had been delivered from the Conservative side. The new provinces, Mr. Lancaster declared, should be left to deal with the school question as they thought fit.

Mr. Demers (St. John and Iberville) moved the adjournment of the debate. By a majority of 24 the House passed the bill giving the Ottawa Electric Co. power to absorb the Consumers and Metropolitan concerns.

The Vacant Portfolio. Mr. Borden asked when the announcement would be made of the Government's intention in regard to filling the vacant portfolio of the Interior. With his usual smile Sir Wilfrid replied, "probably to-morrow."

G. T. R. Gives Running Rights. Ottawa, March 30.—The G. T. R. has decided to give the Intercolonial Railway running rights over the Canada Atlantic, which the G. T. R. recently acquired. It is understood the Government railway is to pay nothing for the privilege.

Robinson Declines Liberal Nomination—Conservative by Acclamation. Toronto, March 30.—The Liberal executive of Centre Toronto met last night and tendered a unanimous nomination to T. C. Robinson, but he declined. "Will the nomination be offered to anyone else?" he was asked. "I think not," said Mr. Robinson. "That ends the matter as far as we are concerned."

Then the nomination will go by acclamation? "Yes; unless the Toronto Reform Association decide to call a convention."

Demers is Dying. Quebec, March 30.—L. J. Demers, M. P. for Levis, who has been severely ill for some time at Levis, is in a critical condition. He made a slight rally last week, but yesterday suffered a relapse, and his physicians hold out little hope of his recovery.

Prohibition of Cigarettes. Madison, Wis., March 30.—The Wisconsin Senate yesterday, after a long debate, passed the Evans anti-cigarette bill. The bill, which absolutely prohibits the sale or manufacture of cigarettes or cigarette paper, now goes to the Governor.

WERE LOSSES ALLOWED FOR?

Member for East Kent Will Ascertain why Ross Government Neglected Claims of Kent Farmers

Mr. Bowyer Asks Concerning Returns to Fruit Growers for Destruction by San Jose Scale

Toronto, March 30.—At last night's evening session of the Provincial Legislature Philip H. Bowyer, M. P. for East Kent, gave notice that he would to-morrow make enquiry of the Ministry with a view to investigation and action as follows:

What amount, if any, was appropriated by the Government last session towards compensating the farmers and fruit-growers for the destruction of their trees and orchards by the San Jose scale inspectors some five or six years ago?

The circumstances alluded to in Mr. Bowyer's question are familiar to residents of this county. At the time an immense quantity of fruit trees in this district were ordered destroyed by the inspectors. The compensation allowed by the then Government was not fair or just or what had been agreed upon, and in some cases it was alleged that it was never forthcoming at all and the farmers suffered a total loss. It is understood that the energetic member for East Kent will endeavor to have the matter thoroughly investigated with a view to having justice done to those who suffered as severely.

GAME WARDEN

Thamesville Man is Mentioned as Successor to Chas. Qualins Removed for Partisan Activity

The announcement is made that, at a meeting of the Provincial Cabinet held yesterday afternoon, W. D. Wigle, of Thamesville, was appointed game warden for the district, which comprises the counties of Essex, Kent and Lambton. Mr. Wigle formerly lived in South Essex and is a cousin of Mayor Wigle, of Windsor.

Charles Qualins, of Windsor, who has held the position for the past seven years, is relieved. It was established that he always took an active part in politics after his appointment to office. Qualins has been very busy since the elections in January trying to square himself, without avail. Essex County, it is understood, made a strong bid for the appointment, but it was deemed to be due to East Kent.

MURTON WAS IN TROUBLE.

Was Wanted in Berlin on a Charge of Fraud.

Toronto, March 30.—Coroner Orr yesterday held an inquest on Arthur W. Murton, whose body was found near the railroad tracks at High Park on Tuesday morning. As there was no evidence to show how the fatality occurred, and nothing to indicate foul play, the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death.

There is no doubt that deceased was in a worried state of mind, and was in financial difficulties of some kind, as the following Berlin despatch shows: "A. W. Murton was wanted here by High Constable Huber on a charge of obtaining $100 under false pretences from Jacob Respeler, manager of the Molsons Bank at Waterloo. A warrant for his arrest had been issued, and the authorities at Guelph, Toronto and other points notified."

W. E. Respin has two good heated rooms to let, over his office, 115 King street, suitable for offices or living rooms, all modern conveniences; also house to rent in Riverside Terrace, heated by furnace, hot and cold water, gas and modern conveniences. Also nice small house, and lot on Murray street, $700, full particulars on application.

ANOTHER DUEL SLATED

Japs and Russians to Be At Each Other's Throats in a Week.

Column of Japanese Moving Against Kirin With the Intention of Isolating Gen. Linevitch's Army From a Valuable Base of Supplies, the Usuri District—Negative Peace Terms from Russia to Japan.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Another duel between the two opposing armies in Manchuria may be on the program for the coming week. The Russians, according to the Associated Press' Harbin correspondent, are now strongly fortifying their positions at Sipinghai, against which the Japanese are reported to be gathering in force. The reported Russian retirement from Sipinghai to Chaoumiaodzi was incorrect, due to a telegraphic error in the confusion of similar names. Chaoumiaodzi with Shuannyaotzi, south of Sipinghai, from whence the Russian advanced force retired to the fortified line at Sipinghai. The Japanese followed to some extent, but a border of twenty miles of detached ground still remains between the two armies, even which the Japanese probably will not advance until they are ready to attack.

To Cut Him Off. Equally important news is that a column of Japanese is moving against Kirin, perhaps with the intention of turning the position eastward and striking at the Vladivostok line of communication with the double purpose of isolating the fortress and separating Gen. Linevitch's army from a valuable base of supplies, the Usuri district.

There has been no fighting of importance lately. Reconnaissances establish the fact that the Japanese are gathering in heavy force twenty miles south of Sipinghai, evidently intending to attack the Russian position at Sipinghai. The Russians are strongly fortified there and apparently expect to make a stand. The country between is comparatively clear of Japanese.

Oyama Names a Date. The number of Chinese bandits is constantly augmenting. Chinese continue to report that Field Marshal Oyama has issued proclamations fixing the date for the occupation of Harbin as April 10, but this prediction seems apparently improbable of fulfillment.

20,000 Prisoners in Japan. Tokyo, March 30.—Twenty thousand Russian prisoners captured in the battle of Mukden, have already arrived in Japan.

A revised unofficial estimate of the Japanese casualties in the battles of Mukden and Tientsin places the number at 57,000. Flags captured at Mukden have been presented to the Emperor.

Gen. Mayeda, who was wounded at Mukden, is dead.

NEGATIVE PEACE TERMS.

What Russia Will Do to Gain Peace—No Concession of Territory.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The Associated Press is in a position to announce that a step in the direction of peace has actually been made. Russia has indirectly made known to Japan the negative conditions upon which peace may be concluded, viz., no concession of territory and no indemnity, leaving Japan to determine whether negotiations can be begun upon that basis.

No reply from Japan has yet reached the Russian Government.

The above report presents practically all the facts obtainable. Denials Which Really Are Not. Officially the authorities continue to deny stoutly that Russia has made any proposals to Japan.

This is literally true, as Russia has only made known the negative conditions, leaving the intermediary to convey these conditions on its own responsibility to Japan. Diplomats in St. Petersburg are convinced that some thing is in progress, but none of those in a position to know will acknowledge that they are aware what has actually or is being done.

Tried to Commit Suicide. Paris, March 30.—An unconfirmed rumor from St. Petersburg is published here this morning to the effect that Emperor Nicholas made an attempt to commit suicide and wounded himself in the hand. The rumor further says that the Emperor's design was frustrated by the intervention of his mother, the Empress Dowager.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Gen. Batjanoff, the new commander of the 3rd Manchurian army, is one of the old school of the Russian army, having commenced his military career in 1853. He served with distinction in the Crimean war and in the Russo-Turkish war of 1878.

Stopped by Japs. Seattle, Wash., March 30.—Japanese cruisers twice stopped and boarded the British tramp steamer Ocean Monarch, which arrived here yesterday, twenty-six days out, while she was in the Japan Sea, on her voyage to this port from Kobe. After examining the vessel and her papers, the boarding officers allowed her to proceed. Her officers say the coast of Northern Japan and Siberia is so thoroughly guarded that it would be impossible for a successful attempt at blockade running.

Over a Hundred Wounds. St. Petersburg, March 30.—Baron Von Nolken, the chief of police, who was wounded by the explosion of a bomb on Sunday, is improving. He received 120 separate wounds, cuts and scratches.

Socialist Demonstration. St. Petersburg, March 30.—The funeral yesterday of a student named Yakovlev, who on his liberation from eight months' solitary imprisonment Reforms for Poland. St. Petersburg, March 30.—Emperor Nicholas has instructed M. Maximovitch, Governor-General of Warsaw, to elaborate the reforms necessary for the prosperity of Poland.

MINISTER OF MINES.

Liberal Member C. N. Smith Favors Appointment of Mr. Gurney or Mr. Smyth—Address Debaters.

Toronto, March 30.—To-day will see the end of the debate on the speech from the Throne. The House yesterday listened to a good speech from C. N. Smith, the Liberal member for Sault Ste. Marie, who promised to hold up the hands of the Government in every effort to promote the prosperity of new Ontario. He expressed decided preference for Mr. Gurney or Mr. Smyth as head of the proposed department of mines, and said the people of New Ontario, irrespective of party, would not be satisfied if the minister was not a resident of that section. The other speakers were Dr. Lewis, Evan Fraser and Dr. Nixon.

On motion of the Premier, the following committee was appointed to assist Mr. Speaker in the care of the library: Whitney, Foy, Matheson, Fyne, Hendrie, Lucas, Ross, Harcourt, Graham and Preston, of Brant. The adjournment was moved by Geo. Pattinson (North Waterloo). There is a general disposition to conclude today. Mr. Gurney was desirous of being heard, but will not come on until the debate on the budget.

Opposition Cautious. A caucus of the Opposition members was held yesterday. Mr. Harcourt presiding. C. M. Bowman was elected chief whip and J. B. Tudge assistant. Matters of policy were discussed in a general way, but no action was taken.

Private Hospitals Get No Aid. Hon. Mr. Hanna has decided that none other but public hospitals may share in the grants made by the Province toward hospitals. The rule will be strictly adhered to, he says.

The grant has been $110,000 per year, divided amongst the hospitals on the basis of the aggregate number of days spent in hospitals by patients. Sixty public hospitals are now partaking of the grant. Only half a dozen private hospitals will be affected by the new rule.

Enforcement of Fisheries Act. The Commissioner of Public Works received a deputation from Collingwood and Meaford asking for the better enforcement of fishing regulations in Georgian Bay, beset by poachers to a large extent. Consideration was promised by Hon. Dr. Reame.

BEAUTIFY THE CITY.

Some one may ask: But what difference does it make whether a city, town or village is beautiful or not? Many answers might be given. One might point out that the value of culture, the stimulating, and ennobling influences of art, its importance as an educational medium, and its effect in increasing the economic productivity of the laborer; but the person who would ask such a question in this day will appreciate but one answer—it pays. There is competition between cities and towns, just as surely as there is competition between business men. Every town strives to attract to itself the wealthiest, brainiest and most progressive men in the country. Its future growth and influence depend upon its success in doing so. If it offers superior advantages and attractions, it succeeds. Now, one of the determining factors is the appearance of the town itself. If it is beautiful, men prefer it, if it is unsightly, they go elsewhere, and with them go their wealth, influence, business and ability. This is true of all cities and towns, but it is particularly true of smaller centres. A metropolis has many other advantages to offer; the town or small city has few and therefore must utilize every one to its full extent.

Civic art pays more directly. It is said that tourists annually leave Italy a sum of money equivalent to the interest upon the whole national debt. Many of the towns in Italy and Greece would be desolate and forgotten to-day were it not for the wonderful masterpieces of art handed down from ages long past. The thousands of Americans who visit Paris every year go there largely because Paris leads the world in civic art, and the sums spent there play no small part in the city's budget.—Milo Roy Maltbie, in the "Chatauquan."

DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

One of the most important announcements made in the Speech from the Throne was the proposed creating of a Department of Mines, points out the Guelph Herald. Mr. Downey dwelt at considerable length upon this feature of the Government program. At the outset he showed the immense territory that the Crown Lands Department now administers. The area of the Province, according to Dominion surveys, is 260,000 square miles. Of this territory, 49,000 square miles lie south of the French River, Lake Nipissing and the Mattawa, leaving an immense tract of 211,000 square miles embraced within what is known as New or Northern Ontario.

In the settlement of the Crown lands and the administration of our forest domain—the chief source of Provincial revenue—many complex questions arise and the labors attendant thereon are sufficient to tax the energies of a single department. On all sides it is therefore admitted that it is business wisdom to make the Mines a separate department.

New Ontario will constitute the principal arena for the labors of the Department of Mines. Much has been accomplished in the exploration and development of the mineral wealth of that country within a limited area. As a matter of fact, nearly all our explorations and all of our successful workings have been confined to the territory opened up by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The building of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Temiskaming and other roads north and south, will unquestionably widen the field for easy and successful operations. The time thus appears to be opportune for the forward step announced in the Speech from the Throne.

That New Ontario is rich in economic minerals there is no reason to doubt. She has a virtual monopoly of nickel—certainly the richest deposits in the world. Iron ore has been found in many parts of the country and in many places the development has been surprisingly successful. Some of the richest deposits of silver—varying cobalt and nickel—ever discovered, have recently been located. In fact there is scarcely a known mineral that New Ontario does not possess.

The elevation of the Bureau of Mines—which, under its very capable director, Mr. Thomas Gibson, has been doing excellent work—to a separate department, would do much to advertise Ontario as a mining Province. We are scarcely second to British Columbia in the value of our annual output, and we are only on the threshold of mineral development. With the creation of a new department will assuredly come some needed reforms. The encouragement

Cured Forty Consumptives

The Post-Graduate Hospital of New York reports that more than forty cases of consumption were cured by that institution alone during the year 1904. Many of these cases were treated at the homes of the patients. This proves conclusively that consumption can be cured and cured at home. Not every one can go to Colorado or spend weeks or months in a hospital, neither of which is necessary, but everybody can get Scott's Emulsion, and that is necessary. It has been proved that pure, fresh air, light exercise, nourishing food and

SCOTT'S EMULSION will come pretty near curing any case of consumption if there is anything to build on. Thousands of people have been restored to health by Scott's Emulsion alone. The advantages of Scott's Emulsion over the plain oil are shown in the ease with which Scott's Emulsion is accepted and retained by the stomach; the quickness with which it passes into the system; its almost immediate benefit to the affected organs, and its absolute uniformity of quality and purity.

of prospecting and development work, the securing to the prospector of every discovery he makes by a prompt and easy system of local registration, and the discouragement of the holding of mineral claims unless development work is proceeded with, are some of the changes most urgently required.

In the selection of the new Minister it is not likely Hon. Mr. Whitney will go outside New Ontario. A man in close touch with the basic industry of that country, who appreciates the conditions that have hampered it in the past, and the reforms necessary to promote its development in the future, will unquestionably have the honor and the responsibility of being the first Minister of Mines in the Province of Ontario.

SACHEL OF THE SATELLITE

I was glad to see that the B. Mistake stated last night that L. E. Thorne, the provincial auditor, had never been in the employ of the Standard Oil Company. Therefore, there could be no possible truth in the B. Mistake's editorial in regard to this matter. Now it is I sit down with a Buster Brown smile and cheerfully wait for the B. Mistake's apology to Provincial Secretary Hanna, James Clancy and Auditor Thorne.

The B. Mistake is suffering from an acute attack of spring fever and an uncontrollable desire to display its ignorance. By means of this paper I call attention to the foolish "Robin nuisance" utterance of the paper down the line. In the first place, the editor shows his ignorance of the law. He doesn't know that under the statute a man is at perfect liberty to shoot the birds that are stealing his fruit if he wants to. David Smith, of Raleigh Township, is one of those who is disgusted with the B. Mistake's appeal for the destruction of our feathered summer visitors. He says, "I probably raise as much fruit as any man in Kent County, but the birds can have it all sooner than one of them should die. It is scarcely probable that I would have any fruit if it wasn't for the birds." Another friend of the birds points out that they are not living on fruit now and cannot possibly eat fruit for a couple of months. For the benefit of the B. Mistake's editor, because some foolish persons may take it seriously and the death of at least one robin may result.

WENT TO FLETCHER

Archie Park and John Park, of the firm of Park Bros., were out at Fletcher on Tuesday. They started out Queen street but turned back. They started out Park avenue but turned back. They got through by the River Road. It is hard to turn a Park back once they get started. The water was running across the big concession near Wm. Irwin's like a mill race. Mr. Irwin said that in the morning it was quite dry. Park Bros. drove from Fletcher to Chatham in an hour and a half. The roads were very good.

City Engineer Jones says that the water began to fall at two a. m., just two hours later than a year ago.

CLOSE CALL

Young Englishman of Unsound Mind Tries to Strike Employer with Sledge—Entered Another House.

Highgate, Ont., March 28.—What might have been a tragedy this forenoon was averted by the timely help of willing hands. Percy O. McIntyre, an Englishman, who worked four or five weeks during the winter for Maurice Eastlake, came to the home of the latter this forenoon, where he met Mr. Eastlake, who was trimming the hedge in front of the house. He stated that he was going to work for S. S. Wright, and after a short chat started for the house. Mr. Eastlake did not like his actions, and started for the house, too. Mr. McIntyre was going toward the barn and Eastlake said "it was as near to go the road." McIntyre began using profane language, and looked for the axe, but not being able to find it went into the summer kitchen and got a 18-pound sledge, with which he struck at Eastlake. The latter had followed him, and dodging the blow, clinched, but was unable to hold him. Mrs. Eastlake ran for help, where Mr. Wm. Spear and his sons were cutting wood. McIntyre was bound with ropes, and Constable Teetzel sent for. When McIntyre found he was tied he wanted some of the men to knock him in the head with an axe. He told Mr. Spear that he intended to murder the Eastlake family and burn the barn. He would be sorry to burn the cattle, but the barn would make a good bonfire.

"What grudge have you against Mr. Eastlake?" asked Mr. Spear. "None whatever," said McIntyre. On being searched two large pins, belonging to a horse blanket, were found in his pockets, which were recognized by Mr. Hastings, who had been at the home of his son-in-law since Monday morning. He went over to his house and found that someone had broken in and enjoyed a good meal and written a note signed P. O. M. About 11:30 last evening McIntyre walked into the home of S. J. Attridge, lit the lamp, and by low tones, as though talking to someone, attracted the attention of the inmates.

He was brought here and placed in the lockup. He is very reticent about his home or his people, but the note left at Mr. Hastings' shows he has a very good education. He told Mr. Eastlake, while working for him, that he was in jail once in Liverpool and once in Canada. Magistrate Watson is sick and the prisoner was taken to the lockup.

McIntyre was given a hearing before C. A. Watson, J. P., here this afternoon, who sent him to Chatham for trial. The general opinion is that McIntyre is insane. He claimed he did not know either Eastlake nor Spear today. He has been in Windsor and Chatham of late, and has caused considerable trouble in both places. He will be taken to Chatham to-night.

PUSSING ABOUT HEALTH.

A famous physician upon being asked recently what is the chief cause of ill health replied: "Thinking and talking about it all the time." This ceaseless introspection in which so many of the rising generation of the nervous folk indulge is certainly wearing them out. When they are not worrying as to whether they sleep too much or too little, they are fidgeting over the amount of food they take or the quantity of food they never give themselves a woman's peace.

The man who knows how to bestow compliments is sure to be popular with women.

Some men solicit consideration in a way that brings a speedy refusal.

value he has given the patient, but he expects to prove his worth and show positive and satisfactory results before he asks for the fee. So, the patient, while the doctor, when he cures the patient, has given him what is worth much more than money—he has given him his health back. Dr. Goldberger is the first specialist in the United States or Canada, who has had sufficient confidence in his ability to cure the afflicted that not a dollar need be paid until cured.

There is no guesswork, no experiment about his method. He is a known expert in his chosen specialty, and offers you the best, and only the best treatment. When your life or your health is at stake, inferior treatment (which leaves after-effects worse than the disease itself) is dear at any price.

Dr. Goldberger has 14 diplomas and certificates from the various colleges and state boards of medical examiners, which should be sufficient guarantee as to his standing and ability. It makes no difference who has failed to cure you, it will be to your advantage to get the doctor's opinion of your case free of charge. He wants to hear from patients who have been unable to cure the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney troubles, blood poison, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, stomach trouble, etc., etc. Indications for patients are presented in each individual case. He will send 14 booklets on the subject, which contain the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. All booklets for Canadian patients sent from Windsor, Ont. duty and transportation prepaid. Address him simply, Dr. S. Goldberger, 206 Woodward Ave., Suite 511 Detroit, Michigan.

GAINED POWER OF SPEECH.

Teaching the Dumb to Speak in William Morris School.

After 12 months' tuition a boy in the William Morris School for Deaf and Dumb Children at Walthamstow has regained the power of speech, and been transferred to the ordinary schools, says Lloyd's London Weekly. His name is Ernest Palm Proudfoot, and he is not yet 10 years of age. He is not deaf at all, though an uncle of his is both deaf and dumb. He is a strong, healthy boy, and his recovery of speech has been a source of great satisfaction to his mother and his teacher alike.

The latter is Mr. Smith, whose methods of training are particularly interesting. The children are taught to watch the lips of their teacher—half the secret of success lies in this language. The other half consists in voice vibration. As the teacher utters a peculiar sound the child's hand is placed against his throat. The child feels the vibration, and tries to imitate it, until he, too, can sound the same letter.

Deaf mutes have a particularly fine sense of touch, which is an invaluable factor in the system of training; certainly without it their progress would be very slow indeed. But as it is, they make astonishing progress in the art of articulation, and, as in the case of Proudfoot, they pass from letter to words, to phrases, to the complete sentence, and so learn to talk.

Amongst the institutions founded for the welfare of the deaf and dumb a unique position is held by the East End Social Club, the only Jewish club of the kind in the world. A new feature has been introduced at the club in the form of evening classes, which have been opened under the control of the London County Council. The younger members receive once a week lessons in reading, writing and arithmetic. A needlework class also meets weekly, and the members, in addition, attend classes at various schools in the neighborhood for gymnastics, wood-carving and wood-work. A club entertainment was given on Saturday last at Aldgate Avenue, when lantern views were explained by means of signs and lip-reading.

RIGHT HON. GEORGE WYNNDHAM.

Sketch of Recently Retired Chief Secretary for Ireland.

The retirement of Right Hon. George Wyndham, Conservative member in the British House of Commons for Devon, from his post of Chief Secretary for Ireland, is calculated to seriously embarrass the Balfour Government, and with its relatively small and fluctuating majority. Mr. Wyndham has not yet personally explained his reason for retiring, but Premier Balfour, in the House, explained that his principal reason lay in his belief that the recent controversy inside and outside the House respecting his Local Government schemes had greatly impaired, if not entirely destroyed, the value of the work he could perform, as Chief Secretary for Ireland. He was appointed to that post in 1900. Mr. Wyndham has represented Devon since 1889, and was private Secretary to Mr. Balfour from 1887 to 1892. From 1892 to 1900 he was Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for War, and entered the Cabinet in 1902. He is also a director of the London, Chatham & Dover Railway, and is a Captain in the Cheshire Yeomanry. His recreations include fox-hunting, shooting and cycling. Mr. Wyndham's mother was a granddaughter of Lord Edward FitzGerald, the great Irish rebel of '48.

Russia's Popular Assembly.

If the smoky sobor works out political reform in Russia it must get to work with more energy and have wider scope than the assemblies of the past. Ivan the Terrible called the national representatives together in the sixteenth century. During the next hundred years the Assembly met several times, but its chief claim to historic importance lies in the fact that it founded the Romanoff Dynasty. In the seventeenth century Catherine II. summoned a commission made up of all classes in the Empire, including soldiers, militiamen, peasants and representatives of the tribes not included in the general society of the land. This Assembly numbered 652 delegates and spent two years in deliberations, which produced little result beyond the explosion of much fine sentiment inspired by the Emperor, who was a pupil of

Such is the experience of Miss Lizzie Watling, 177 King William street, Hamilton, Ont. It should come as a message of hope to thousands of Canadians. ## AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

How Much Does Thought Weigh?

An interesting experiment was recently performed in one of our colleges. A student, who volunteered, laid himself down flat on his back on a long, narrow board, and was fastened to it by straps in such a way that he couldn't move a muscle. Then the board was laid on a suitable support and carefully balanced, as shown in the illustration. A difficult problem in mental calculation was proposed to the student, and as he endeavored to figure out the answer required, the end of the board on which his head lay began to descend. It was necessary to add several small weights to the balance to restore the equilibrium. This phenomenon is due to the fact that the brain requires much more blood when it is working hard. Sometimes the brain will get nourishment at the expense of the rest of the body, for we occasionally see a great mind in a puny, emaciated frame. This is not natural. Nature demands an equilibrium and sooner or later equilibrium is maintained. If we can supply pure blood, rich in nourishment, as organs will flourish at the expense of another. A hearty, happy old age will be assured.

Improper food is taken into the stomach, and the lack of vitality, lack of proper "blood-balance" does not permit of good digestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery assists the digestive functions, assimilating the food and taking from it what is necessary for feeding the blood. As a tonic and reconstructive during and after the influence of grip the "Discovery" will prove of particular value. It has been extensively used as a re-builder after the severity of a rheumatic attack. It is especially adapted in all diseases attended with excessive tissue waste especially in convalescence from the various winter and spring fevers whether of a malarial or typhoid character.

NEW ADDITION

The 2Ts Have Now One of the Most Up-to-date Stores in Western Ontario.

The enterprising and popular firm of Trudell & Tobey are setting a pace among the Chatham merchants for up-to-date and attractive stores. The Two T's, as this establishment is better known, have grown up with the city during the years they have been in business, and each year sees their trade more prosperous and their stock of goods larger. This is accounted for by the fact that Messrs. Trudell & Tobey are experienced men in the gent's furnishings line and are men with whom it is a pleasure to deal with both in a business and social way. In their store may be found everything that a man needs for his personal comfort, and all of their goods are up-to-the-minute in style and quality and sold at the very lowest price possible.

During the past few months they found that their store was too small to accommodate their increasing patronage and for the benefit of their customers they have, under heavy expense to themselves, made an extension to the rear of their store, thereby enlarging their clothing department. This addition is a very up-to-date affair, consisting of a splendid fitting room, large reflecting mirrors, and an elevated office, the woodwork of which is all finished in quarter cut oak.

This firm has now doubled their stock of ready made clothing and have established a rule that every suit of ready made clothing sold must be tried on and, if necessary, altered before it leaves the store, in order to insure a perfect fit for every customer.

The rest of the store has also been improved. The walls and woodwork have been retinted and repainted and a new system of gas lighting has been installed. Several other up-to-date ideas have been utilized, making the store one of the most up-to-date gent's furnishings establishments in Western Ontario. One feature of the addition is the extra lighting provided for the store. At the top of the store at the rear are a number of windows which throw the whole store during the day time, making it cheery in appearance and perfectly lighted.

The renovations were started six weeks ago and were just completed yesterday. Messrs. Trudell & Tobey are to be complimented upon their enterprise, for their store is a great credit to the city.

BOURASSA'S "OT STUFF"

Made Up of Ludicrous Gesticulations and Extravagance of Language—Picturesque, But Weightless.

Ottawa, March 29.—Henri Bourassa, M. P. for Labelle, proved a drawing card to the patrons of the Parliamentary galleries yesterday. He was expected to say something "hot," and this expectation in a measure he fulfilled. His denunciation of the Orangistes was not notable for its mildness and his appeals for "justice" to the minority were marked by anger rather than solicitude. There was no "body" to the speech. What was not the froth of rhetoric was the empty rage of prejudice. In argument he was pitifully weak and but for his ludicrous gesticulations and extravagance of language his speech would have been very flat.

He denounced the Opposition for its policy of depriving the minority of its privileges and bestowed a few whirling epithets on certain unnamed persons, whom he charged with being responsible for the modification of the school clauses in the bill. Bourassa found passion and prejudice seething in Ontario and in fact in all parts of Canada outside of the paradise of the Province of Quebec. He will vote for the autonomy bill, but with considerable misgiving, that Sir Wilfrid allowed Sifton and a few other bigots to emaculate the original clauses.

Blain Was Forceful.
Richard Blain, of Peel, followed in a speech which brought out some very forcible arguments against the bill. In the evening Solicitor General Lemieux was the champion of the rights of the minority. His speech was reasonably moderate in tone, though he had some very harsh things to say concerning Ontario papers which have done much to discredit the autonomy bill. Mr. McCarthy, of Calgary, criticized the bill very effectively and gave the House a clear appreciation of western opinion in connection with the school clauses.

Petitions For and Against.
Mr. Bourassa presented twenty petitions praying that the autonomy bill be passed without amendment. Several of the petitions asked for the minority in the new Province the same privileges that are allowed the Protestant minority in Quebec. Altogether 50 petitions regarding the autonomy bill were handed in. With the exception of Mr. Bourassa's list all the petitions are against the proposed legislation.

Centre Toronto Election.
Mr. Foster asked when the Government would take steps to give effect to the Speaker's writ for a bye-election in Centre Toronto. The Premier replied that the Secretary of State was already making arrangements for the manhood suffrage lists. Mr. Oser thought this an unusual proceeding. He promised to give a fuller statement to-day.

Mr. Sproule wanted to know when a Minister of the Interior would be appointed. The Premier did not assign to answer.

Halifax and Esquimaux.
Ottawa, March 29.—The action of the Imperial authorities in withdrawing the Imperial naval forces from Halifax and Esquimaux was discussed from various standpoints in the Senate yesterday. The prevailing opinion expressed was that Britain's admirals knew best how the fleet could be most effectively disposed of, and, furthermore, that even if the new arrangement was unwise, Canada, having contributed nothing to naval establishment, had no right to pose as a critic.

Mr. Clements, for Mr. Foster, moved the adjournment of the debate and the House rose at 7:15 p. m.

—WILLIAM GORDON—

PIONEER GONE

On Sunday morning Mr. Francis Xavier Ouellette, one of the pioneers of Tilbury East, passed away at the ripe old age of 72 years, after two years sickness.

He has always resided on his present farm which his father owned, except for two years when the high water which covered the plains for nearly all that time, over 40 years ago drove all the residents to seek other homes. Although so old and a sufferer from paralysis his memory was unclouded and his friends found much pleasure in listening to his accounts of his earlier days.

Mr. Ouellette was born June 19, 1822, and was married Oct. 6, 1848, to Julie Primeau, to whom eleven children were born, of which only seven survive him. A widow is also left to mourn his loss. The children are Gilbert, of Detroit; Frank, G. T. R. agent at Stoney Point; Caroline, wife of Thomas King, ex-Reeve of Dover; Fannie and Julie (now Sister Mary and Sister Julia), of Hotel Dieu, Windsor; C. F., on the homestead here; and William, G. T. R. agent at Welland.

Mr. Ouellette and family are all devout members of the Roman Catholic church. He was also a life long Conservative and the last vote he polled was for Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P. The remains were interred in St. Peter's cemetery on Tuesday and was largely attended. The pallbearers were six grandsons. The deceased had forty grandchildren.

He was a very successful farmer and was very highly respected by his friends and neighbors.

A BRIGHT YOUNG MAN

Chas. Jenkins, chief of the rectorial staff of the News, has severed his connection with that journal and accepted a more responsible position on the Brantford Express.

He left this afternoon to assume his new duties.

Mr. Jenkins is a bright and clever young man. His pleasant manner and unfailing urbanity has made him popular with a large circle of friends.

Charlie is the affable sort of conferee that one can appreciate and not the sort of a fellow to say nasty things and think them smart.

Secretary for Scotland.

The Marquis of Lintithgow, K.T., who has been appointed to be Secretary for Scotland in the place of Mr. Graham
Murray, the new Lord Justice General, will be best remembered as the Earl of Kippenhead and the first Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia.
says The London Star. Before the federation was established he filled with marked success the office of Governor of Victoria, and for a short period he was Lord Chamberlain in the late Queen Victoria's household. Since his return from Australia he has made a large profit by the sale to the Government of the necessary land for a naval base at Rosyth on the Firth of Forth.

THE WORST KIND.

After Piles have existed for a long time and passed through different stages, the suffering is intense—pain, aching, throbbing, tumors form, filled with black blood.
Symptoms indicating other troubles
may appear to a thoroughly Pile-sick person.

This is when Dr. Leonhardt's Hemroid, the only absolute Pile cure, brings the results that has made its name.

It will cure the most stubborn case in existence and a bonded guarantee to that effect goes with each package.
It is to be had for $1.00 at the drug store, or from The Wilson-Fyle Company, Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Housekeepers Who Worry.

Lamb with worry sauce is no better than lamb without mint sauce, and neither can compare to lamb with a nice dressing of chopped vegetables.
Nor are the pies any better for the fact that they are worried into the pan and worried out and worried even to the table.

Instead of fretting invent a new dish and study the cookery pictures and try to get up something like them. That is the best and most original way to set a good table.

Did You Know This?

Did you know that you must put your right arm first into the sleeve of a new gown? This is to insure admiration the first time you wear it. The girl who didn't know that ambitiously slipped her left hand first into her sleeve the other day, thereby greatly shocking her dressmaker. "I thought every one knew that," remarked that personage pityingly. "My goodness, but isn't it strange how people can go through the world and still not know the simplest things!"

Paper Bags.

Keep all your small paper bags for slipping on the hands when the hearth has to be tidied. You will find them very useful, for they are slipped on in a moment and when soiled can be burned. They are better for the purpose than housemaids' gloves, for the latter soon get grimy and therefore are apt to soil the hands a little as they are put on and off.

Ink Stains.

If the ink happens to be overturned upon household linen loss no time in placing a blotter beneath the stain to soak up as much as possible and press another from above. Then immerse the article in a deep vessel containing sweet milk. Wash well with soap and bleach in the sun.

Wash and Macaroni.

Wash one pound of butter, then cream it, adding gradually one-half of a pound of powdered sugar. Work into this two beaten eggs, one pound and a half of grated nutmeg, and one pound of sifted flour. Roll out into a thin sheet; cut into small cakes. Brush each with the yolk of egg beaten with a spoonful of powdered sugar and sprinkle with coarse granulated sugar mixed with a little cinnamon. Bake in a moderate oven.

Meat and Macaroni.

Cut the meat in small, neat dice. For a pint break one cupful of macaroni and boil in salted water until tender, then drain. Prepare a pint of tomato sauce, turn into it the meat and macaroni and draw to the side of the fire for fifteen minutes or until the meat is very hot through. Serve on toast—
Table Talk.

One of the New Cures.

In coiffures the prevalent Paris fancy is for the unwaxed back hair to be carried straight up to the top of the head and dressed in a knot or twist. Hardly a stray curl is to be seen, and the front hair, also unwaxed, but styled, is brought in a becoming puff very low over the forehead nearly to the eyebrows.

Little Wrinkles For the Cook.

In making mince pies it is unnecessary to pare the apples. Core and quarter them after a thorough washing and put them through the meat grinder.

Boiled apples are almost as good as baked ones and can be cooked more quickly. Prepare them as for baking and add plenty of sugar when half done.

Instead of blackening a chicken or fowl by singeing over burning paper use a very little alcohol poured into a plate and lighted. It is safer to set the plate in the sink.

Cream suitable for whipping should

CROCHETED GOCART ROBE.

A Convenient and Pretty Arrangement For the Baby's Outfit.

Make a chain 21 inches long of white
German tow.

First Row.—Three d. c. in 1st chain, skip 3, 3 d. c. in next stitch and repeat to the end of the row, finishing with 1
s. c.

Second Row.—Three d. c. in each middle chain stitch between the clusters and fasten at the end of the last cluster with s. c. Turn and in the middle d. c. of each cluster of the 1st row make 3 d. c., fastening again at the end with s. c. Repeat until the work is 35 inches long.

With blue German tow make 1 row, then 3 more of white, 1 of color, 3 of white, 1 of color and 3 of white. The work should then be 39½ inches long.

Fold over the work to the depth of 15 inches. Baste the sides lightly together and work a row of s. c. down them, taking up the stitch through both front and back of the loop.

Catch the white wool in the end and make a border across the top of the blanket thus:
Eight d. c. in middle of 1st cluster, 1
d. c. between 2d and 3d cluster, 8 d. c. between 3d and 4th cluster. Make alternate shells and s. c. across the top of the blanket at a right distance to keep the work flat. Break the wool.

Begin at the same end as before with blue wool. Ch. 3, wool over, pull up the loop in the first stitch of the shell;
wool over, pull through 2 stitches;
wool over, take up the loop in 2d d. c.
of shell; wool over, through 2 stitches.

Repeat the same in 3d and 4th stitches of the shell, wool over and pull through all on the needle. *Ch. 3, take up a stitch as before in each space between first 2 shells; 8 in all; wool through all;
Ch. 3; catch down with s. c. on top of 2d shell. Repeat from * across the row, ending with a half shell like that at the beginning. Break wool. With the blue catch wool in end with s. c., Ch. 3 and make a shell of 4 in the center of the half shell of the preceding row, 1 s. c. in s. c. of preceding row, 8

d. c. in center of shell of preceding row. Repeat across, ending with a half shell. Repeat last 2 d. c. in white, ending with full shells instead of half to make work square. Repeat with blue wool.

Turn the work back in the opposite direction from the bottom so the pocket will be underside and the border folding over on the outside; folding at the first row of clusters in color.

Then with the color make a row of scallop borders on the three edges, thus:
1 s. c. (skip enough sts. to make scallops lie flat), 8 d. c. in next, 1 s. c. in next, etc. Catch through the first border as well as through underneath part.

Fasten a cord and tassel about an inch from the edge on the top of the blanket to tie on the carriage strap, and if desired cords may be placed on the under part (see illustration) to tie around the baby to prevent slipping.— Delicatore.

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought

My family physician told me an operation was my only hope, doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me

THE LABYRINTH PUZZLE.

See if You Can Trace the Course Taken by the Tourist.

If you were suddenly placed at the center of the earth, provided with the accompanying chart and told to start on a pilgrimage around the world you would pursue a tangled course before reaching your home city. A man, so runs the story, started to make this trip around the world. His starting point was the black spot on the chart. He wanted to stop at some big city.

THE LABYRINTH PUZZLE.

but could not decide whether that city should be London, Paris or New York. At last he decided on the city he would first visit and set out at once. The twisted, snarled lines in the picture represent his course. Do you want to know what city he went to? Then take a pencil and follow the line of his travels from the black spot and you will find yourself at last at the city he chose, for the line ends abruptly at that city. Try this and see how unconfused you can keep your brain in tracing the wanderer's travels.—New York World.

A NEAT LITTLE TRICK.

How to Make the Silver Quarters Drop into the Hat.

A very neat trick may be performed by any boy with a hat and a silver quarter. The quarter may be brand new, just from the mint, but at least one that its owner is not very particular about, for it is likely to get a little rough handling.

It must be of the pattern known as a "stovepipe," either silk or beaver. Lay it on its side on top of a glass tumbler, and on the upper side of the hat place the quarter.

Now what you ask one of your little friends to do is to knock the hat from under the quarter so that the latter will fall into the tumbler.

Every one that tries it will be sure to strike the hat on its brim, but that will only send it across the room and the quarter somewhere on the floor. When the feat has been pronounced impossible you make a few feints as if you, too, were going to strike it on the brim, and then suddenly you give it a smart tap on the inside of the crown, when it will jump quickly out and let the coin fall directly down into the tumbler.

Ethel's Letter to Cecile.

Dear Little Cecile Valory had promised to pay a visit to her friend Ethel, and Cecile was such a sweet little girl that her visits always brought pleasure. But when the day for the visit came it poured rain, and of course Cecile could not go out. So she wrote a little note of apology to Ethel, who sent the following letter in reply:

Dear Cecile—I am so sorry it rained and you could not come to see me. I missed you very, very much. Do come just as soon as you can. Our baby broke my big doll's face and pulled the little doll's wig off. So you can see that my poor children are not very well. I hope to see you very soon. Your loving friend, ETHEL.

Don't you think it was too bad for the rain to have kept those two little friends apart, and don't you think that Ethel wrote a nice little letter to Cecile?

Dolls in Ancient Greece.

The dolls the classic Greek children played with were made of wax and clay decorated with bright colors. As these children married when they were very young they played with their dolls until just before their wedding day. Then they made a sacrifice of all their toys, dolls and clothes included. They dedicated them as a pious offering to some deity. If the little girl died before she was grown up her dolls were buried with her. Thus it happens that we have been able to learn the kind and fashion of dolls which comforted these ancient children.—New York Press.

Took Them by the Hand.

Philip had gone to bring in the new kittens to show them to a visitor. His mother, hearing a shrill meowing, called out, "Don't hurt the kittens, Philip!" From the hall came the reassuring answer: "Oh, no. I'm carrying them very carefully by the stems."—Youth's Companion.

Wanted—A Twin.

If any little boy who reads is five years old today And likes to look at picture books and dearly loves to play And doesn't care to sit on chairs, but much prefers the floor And measures just as high as me upon our kitchen floor And isn't frightened in the dark, but feels a little queer— As if he'd like to cuddle up to some one very near— And means to be a soldier just the minute he's a man, Right with bears and Indians and pirates, if he can— Then there's a boy like that I wish that he would please begin right now to rack his toys and come to be my little twin!—Nathaniel W. Donald in Youth's Companion.

A CAUSE OF HEADACHE

One Very Common Cause, Generally Overlooked.

Headache is a symptom, an indication of derangement of disease in some organ, and the cause of the headache is difficult to locate because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom; derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble, kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain, or ill fitting glasses all produce headache and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter.

However, for that form of headache called frontal headache, pain back of the eyes and in forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head, and most; when the headache is located in back of head and neck it is often caused from catarrh of the stomach or liver.

At any rate catarrh is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure is the simple use of a prompt disappearance of the headache.

There is at present no treatment for catarrh so convenient and effective as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as a new internal remedy in tablet form, composed of antiseptics like red gum, blood root which act upon the blood and cause the elimination of the catarrhal poison from the system through the natural channels. Miss Vera Ainsley, a prominent school teacher in one of our normal schools, speaks of her experience with catarrhal headaches and endorses Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as a cure for them. She says: "I suffered daily from severe frontal headache and pain in and back of the eyes, at times so intensely as to incapacitate me in my daily duties. I had suffered from catarrh, more or less, for years, but never thought it was the cause of my headaches, but finally became convinced that such was the case because the headaches were always worse whenever I had a cold or fresh attack of catarrh."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets were highly recommended to me as a safe and pleasant catarrh cure and after using a few fifty cent boxes which I procured from my druggist I was surprised and delighted to find that both the catarrh and headaches had gone for good."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at fifty cents per box, and the guarantee of the proprietors that they contain absolutely no cocaine—found in so many catarrh cures—no opium—so common in cheap cough cures—nor any harmful drug. They contain simply the wholesome antiseptics necessary to destroy and drive from the system the germs of catarrhal disease.

Brief and to the Point.

"He asked me if I couldn't learn to love him."

"And what did you say?"

"I said I couldn't."—New York Life.

Hardly.

"What you want is a little change," said the doctor. "Go to Europe."

"But a little change won't take me to Europe, doctor."—Yonkers Statesman.

THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE.

Owing to the faulty actions of the kidneys and liver, the blood becomes filled with disease germs that impair health. The first warning is a backache, dizziness, headache and lack of vitality. Act quickly if you would avoid the terrible ravages of chronic kidney complaint. Get Dr. Hamilton's Pills to-day; they cure kidney and liver complaint for all time. No medicine relieves so promptly, nothing in the world of medicine cures more thoroughly. For good blood, clear complexion, healthy appetite, the proper treatment is Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box, at all dealers.

THE ARCH-FIEND OF THE AGE.

Not war, more deadly than this modern butchery—but Catarrh, which leads to consumption and usually kills more than famine and war combined. The doctors now successfully fight catarrh with a remedy that never fails—"Catarrhose," it's death to every kind of catarrh. It destroys every root and branch of the disease so thoroughly that a relapse need never be feared. If troubled with colds, nasal or throat catarrh, or subject to bronchitis or asthma use Catarrhose and you'll be cured forever.

The Limit.

"Would you rather be right than be president?"

"You bet I would. Why, Wright has just inherited half a million."

If we were half as wise as we think we are we should know at least twice as much as we do now.

ENLIGHTENING WENTWORTH

By Keith Gordon.

Copyright, 1904, by Frances Wilson.

It was with some misgivings that Wentworth took the third floor of Mrs. Manice's house. Had she not told him that she was almost an invalid? And when the mistress of a house is an invalid! He had half a mind to go back and tell her that he had reconsidered; that he feared, after all, that the rooms wouldn't do. He slackened his pace, turned, then went on. Perhaps things would be all right, but a fellow did so hate household discomfort.

On the second morning after his arrival, when he sat like a bewildered monarch among a piled up, shapeless mass of books, pictures, tables and chairs—wondering why under heaven he had ever acquired them—there came a knock at his door. At the moment he was perched upon a step ladder, smoking a short pipe and taking a rest before he fatigued himself by beginning to arrange things.

"Come in!" he roared, without moving, expecting to see a servant. Then, at a slight hesitation on the part of the person—a hesitation that he rather than saw—he turned toward the door.

"Oh! Ah! I beg your pardon!" he apologized with alacrity, laying down his pipe and jumping from his perch. "You see I'm a bit flustered. I'm—"

He paused rather helplessly, waiting for his caller to explain herself, though he felt vaguely that she was welcome. He thought she had dropped from the clouds, so frank was her gaze, so free, so utterly womanly her face.

"Mamma sent me," she explained. "I'm Miss Manice, and she thought perhaps the maid and I might be able to help you out."

She looked about the room inquiringly; then, as her eyes came back to the new lodger's blank, helpless face, she caught her lower lip between her teeth, thus holding back the smile that struggled to escape.

"Have you ever moved?" he asked ruefully, surveying his better skelter possessions with fresh aversion, and at the question she laughed out a laugh so girlish and infectious that Wentworth laughed, too, catching for a moment the point of view from which his dilemma was funny.

"What the world needs," he went on plaintively, "is automatic, self-arranging furniture—furniture that, placed in the room, will adjust itself and save its owner all trouble."

"That's what we will have when the millennium comes," answered Miss Manice gayly, "but meanwhile, if you really loathe the task of arranging your things and will leave it to me!"

She paused questioning, while Wentworth gazed at her very much as if she were the straw and he the drowning man. Again her face dimpled.

"You wouldn't—not really?" doubted he, with the shamefaced air of a person who has taken a palpable jest in earnest.

"I'd just love it—that is, if you think I can arrange the room to suit you. You might give me a general idea of how you like things, and—"

Wentworth cut her short. "If you can give me something of the look of that little drawing room of yours," he said warmly, "I shall be more than satisfied. The fact is, you have saved my life."

"Wait until you see the rooms," she cautioned as they parted, he to go to his office with a burden on his shoulders and she to confide to her mother as she got into a great apron that covered her from neck to ankles.

He seems a nice, grateful lodger man, another mine. Perhaps it won't be so tedious to have a stranger in the house after all. And think of the money!

When Wentworth opened the door of his sitting room that evening quick approval flashed into his eyes. All the inanimate objects that had huddled together so incongruously in the morning, as if there wasn't an ounce of self respect among them, now faced him with serene dignity, once more clothed in the beauty for which he had bought them.

Awestruck at such insight, he passed into his bedroom, half fearing that here the charm would be broken, that convenience would have been sacrificed to "looks" and that he would have to dive into a pocket nailed to the closet door for one slipper and then dive again for the other. At the sight of them standing openly and demurely beside the fireplace Wentworth voiced the highest praise to be spoken of woman.

"Bless her heart!" he said softly.

"She ought to be a bachelor's wife!"

During the three months that followed this conviction grew more and more fervent. His admiration for the skill with which Ethel Manice (at other times a merry, companionable girl) ran the household, reducing friction to the minimum, making life a continual joy, grew into a sort of religion to him. And it was something of this sort that he said to her one night, scarce knowing that he was saying it and adding to it a humble request that she marry him.

She looked at him oddly for a moment. Then she laid her hand upon his arm and said half kindly, half mockingly:

"What you want is a housekeeper, Mr. Wentworth, not a wife." Then, a little more earnestly: "Please let me not resemble Mrs. Manice."

ing more discomfited than he cared to admit to himself, did his best to obey her.

After this life flowed smoothly on for another six months, the ripples closing over the night when Wentworth was rejected and leaving no sign.

It seemed sometimes as if his latch-key admitted him to another world where all was order, simple beauty and good will, where every hour made him stronger and better. Little by little he had become a part of the small family, often making a third in their cosy drawing room—sometimes talking, sometimes reading and again scolding or advising Ethel with the freedom of a big brother.

His appreciation of the delightful homeliness and ease led him into his second blunder. It was a blustering night in November. On her couch Mrs. Manice, who had been less well than usual, lay sleeping, while Ethel, who had been playing Schubert with dreamy unconsciousness, wandered off into some improvisations of her own.

Presently Wentworth laid down the book that he was reading with an almost suffocating sense of the dearth of it all. Then suddenly Ethel stopped playing and rose from the piano. The action seemed significant. Wentworth was jarred by the thought that just as abruptly might the slender thread by which he held this utterly delightful home be snapped. Mrs. Manice might grow worse; Ethel might—

He gave a sharp sigh. He would not suffer the thought, and again from the fullness of his heart he spoke.

"Ethel," he pleaded, "is it so impossible? I can't tell you what all this is to me. How could I ever get along without you?"

But again he was stopped by that odd, impenetrable glance. Again with a smile, half kind, half mocking, she looked up at him, half answered, "You want a companion, not a wife." Again they gravely agreed not to remember.

And soon after the illness of a married sister called her away. The weeks came and went, and her stay prolonged itself dimly, it seemed to Wentworth, though under Mrs. Manice's direction things went on as smoothly as usual. Apparently everything was the same, and yet he smarted under an intolerable sense of difference. All the creature comforts were there and pleasant companionship, yet the soul of things had fled. And then suddenly he understood, and the knowledge made him strong and humble.

It was on the evening of Ethel's return that he found himself alone with her for a few moments.

"Dear little girl," he said brokenly, "I'm not asking you to marry me. I'm not mad enough to do that again. But I want to tell you this—that I love you with my whole heart; that I shall always love you; that I would rather have loved you in vain than—"

Two slender arms were about his neck, and a soft voice was saying: "At last, you darling, I really believe that you want a wife."

DROPPED ALL OTHERS.

"I dropped all innumerable but Nerviline, because I found Nerviline the quickest to relieve pain," writes E. S. Benton, of St. John's. "If my children are crampy or sick, Nerviline gives them relief. If case of cramps or stomach ache turns up, Nerviline is ever ready. We use Nerviline for neuralgia, rheumatism and all kinds of aches and pains; it's as good as any doctor." The great Canadian remedy for the past fifty years has been Polson's Nerviline—nothing better made.

KILLED AT HAMILTON BEACH.

W. H. Hoyt, G. T. R. Brakeman, of Toronto, Met Horrible Death.

Hamilton, March 30.—Yesterday morning W. H. Hoyt, of Toronto, a G. T. R. brakeman, met a horrible death on Hamilton Beach. While running along the top of his train he fell between the cars and the rest of the train passed over him. He was 32 years of age. The remains were taken to Dyne's Hotel, where an inquest was opened last night by Coroner Thompson and adjourned till next Monday. The dead man's friends have been notified, but they have not claimed the body yet.

Mrs. Thompson Died Also. #### BRITISH OFFICER IN SCANDAL.

Capt. Salmon and a Doctor Accused by Capt. Spain, of Ottawa.

New York, March 30.—Capt. O. G. V. Spain, of the British navy, stationed as a harbor wrecker at Ottawa, Canada, appeared in the Jefferson Market Court yesterday afternoon as complainant against Capt. Reginald Salmon, a captain in the British army, who is charged jointly with Dr. Andrew Fulton, of No. 370 Fifth street, Brooklyn, with causing the serious illness of the wife of Capt. Spain two weeks ago.

It is alleged that Capt. Salmon and Mrs. Spain left Canada at the same time and that Capt. Spain learned through his fifteen year old son, who corresponded with his mother, that the latter was in this city.

Capt. Salmon and Dr. Fulton were arrested yesterday morning where Capt. Salmon lived for some time, and where, it was said, he was known as Capt. Spain. Mrs. Spain was in court. Both prisoners were held in $2,000 bail for a further examination to-day.

A man seldom loses his confidence until he loses his money.

In His Own Defence. At the afternoon session Loney was put in the box and swore he had never been ruled off and never struck a man with the purpose of hurting him. He received a blow on the face from Laurin which dazed him and he remained in that condition until some time later when he was struck on the back by some one.

His Lordship addressed the jury at considerable length, explaining the law in regard to manslaughter. He held that the only excusable homicide was that was purely accidental or what was done to protect life or prevent grievous bodily harm. His charge to the jury seemed to be unfavorable to the prisoner.

Verdict is "Not Guilty." The jury, after being out about four hours brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury in their report strongly condemned the tendency to rough play and brutal tactics in hockey, lacrosse and football, which frequently

LONEY IS "NOT GUILTY"

Jury's Verdict Arrived At After Four Hours' Deliberation.

How Laurin Was Killed Told by Defence Witnesses at Cornwall—Testimony to Show It Was an Accident—The Judge Unfavorable—Grand Jury Condemns Rough Hockey Play and Places Press Under Ban.

Cornwall, March 30.—The first witness for the defence in the hockey manslaughter case yesterday was George Chalmers, of Maxville. He was at the hockey match on February 24, and was behind the Maxville goal. When Laurin and Loney met Loney got the puck and shot it up the ice. Laurin hit Loney across the legs with his stick. Laurin turned and put up his fists. They separated. Loney returned to his position, followed by Laurin. Loney's stick was up over Laurin's head. When the latter made a quick move Loney's stick struck him one the head. Loney was at one time working with the witness, and he believed that he was one of the finest young men in the city.

Laurin Struck Loney. Edward Burke, of Maxville, an employee of the Bank of Ottawa, was next. He said Loney took the puck from Laurin, who then struck Loney twice in the face, putting his head back two feet. Loney then struck Laurin on the head. When his stick was broken Laurin should have returned to his position, instead of following up Loney. Cross-examined witness said that Loney was still facing Laurin and was only turning to return to his position. When struck, Loney seemed to lose his balance.

Loney Was Followed. Cecil Wages, of Maxville, corroborated the two previous witnesses, and added that when Laurin followed Loney he struck at the latter with the broken handle of his stick. When Loney turned around after Laurin fell he had his hands on his face.

Cross-examined, the witness, although only 16 years of age, said he had on three or four occasions seen men knocked down and out with a hockey stick. J. A. Wagon, cheese buyer, Maxville, was next called. His version was much like that of previous defence witnesses. Loney's head, when first struck in the face, went back about three feet. Loney seemed to be unsteady on his feet, and while balancing himself he brought his stick down on Laurin's head. Afterwards some one came up and struck Loney twice from behind.

Laurin Broke His Stick. Thomas J. Johnson, section foreman on the C. A. R., said that Laurin broke his stick over Loney's leg, afterwards following up the Maxville player and striking him in the face. While recovering himself Loney struck Laurin, and the latter fell. Then Leo Laurin came up and struck Loney on the back. Loney skated backwards 18 or 20 feet, followed by Alcide Laurin, before the fatal blow.

Dr. C. J. Hamilton, of Cornwall, said that he had listened to the evidence of Drs. Macdonald and McLennan and said that the part of the skull fractured would be very thin and unprotected. A fall on a hard projection or a hard blow from a fist on this part of the head might cause a fracture. Cross-examined, Dr. Hamilton said he did not purpose contradicting the doctors who had performed the post-mortem. He was simply stating what had happened in other cases.

Was It An Accident?

Wm. Doucett, merchant, Maxville, saw Laurin break his stick on Loney's leg and followed this with a blow in the head. Loney's head went back and when he recovered himself his stick struck Laurin. Loney then swung around and put his hand to his face. He thought that the blow struck by Loney was accidental.

Loney was called by the defence. He was just opposite the spot where Laurin met his death. Loney having taken the puck from Laurin, the latter struck Loney with his stick and struck Loney with his fist. Loney three times in the face with his fist. After the third blow Loney struck Laurin.

Cross-examined witness said that Laurin struck Loney twice in the face. Laurin after the fatal blow, fell full length. To His Lordship he could not account for Laurin's failure to ward off the blow, although he had his hands up.

Prisoner's Sister in Box.

Miss Loney, sister of the prisoner, saw blood on her brother's face just before Laurin struck Loney on the back; at this time her brother was stooping and his nose was bleeding.

Laurin's Hands Were Up. R. A. Rothwell, of Maxville, the Government cheese inspector, prepared the plan of the Maxville rink produced as an exhibit, and he also saw Laurin break his stick on Loney and strike Loney with his fist, as he recovered his balance Loney's stick struck Laurin.

Cross-examined, witness saw Loney stagger, but did not see Laurin's blows land on Loney, neither did he see Loney's stick when it fell on Laurin's head. The latter, in his opinion, was a quick blow, but not heavy or with a great deal of force. Laurin still had his hands up when Loney struck him.

In His Own Defence. At the afternoon session Loney was put in the box and swore he had never been ruled off and never struck a man with the purpose of hurting him. He received a blow on the face from Laurin which dazed him and he remained in that condition until some time later when he was struck on the back by some one.

His Lordship addressed the jury at considerable length, explaining the law in regard to manslaughter. He held that the only excusable homicide was that was purely accidental or what was done to protect life or prevent grievous bodily harm. His charge to the jury seemed to be unfavorable to the prisoner.

Verdict is "Not Guilty." The jury, after being out about four hours brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The grand jury in their report strongly condemned the tendency to rough play and brutal tactics in hockey, lacrosse and football, which frequently resulted in painful and permanent injuries and sometimes death to the participants. They criticized the press for giving so much prominence to sporting news, and held that the press was largely responsible, in a moral sense, for the results, as the reports fired the imagination of hot-headed spectators, who encouraged and incited excitable players to deeds of violence.

The hinting of rough players had reached such a stage that unless there was a change made it might be necessary to have such sports prohibited by legislation and placed in the class with bull fights and cocking mains.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

Insane Farmhand Tries to Kill His Former Employer.

Ridgetown, March 30.—Frustrated in an attempt to burn the barn of Geo. M. Eastlake, a well-known Oxford farmer, for whom he worked last summer, Percy McIntyre, a young Englishman, made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt on the life of his former employer.

McIntyre, who is said to be insane, bore a grudge against Eastlake, and when the latter saw him crossing the yard toward the barn he ordered the Englishman off his grounds. McIntyre then turned toward the house and entered at the kitchen door. Eastlake followed. When Eastlake crossed the threshold McIntyre stood with a sledge hammer, ready to strike, but taking advantage of the weight of the weapon Eastlake rushed in upon him and the two went down.

Shouted to Wife to Get Aid. Eastlake was uppermost, but was unable to hold his assailant, and shouted to his wife to get aid. Mrs. Eastlake returned after a few minutes with a neighbor, and the prisoner was bound hand and foot.

McIntyre was locked up and appeared before G. A. Watson, J. P., yesterday afternoon. He will be taken to Chatham for trial. McIntyre admitted that he had intended to burn down the barn, but felt that it was a shame to burn the cattle. The prisoner has recently caused considerable alarm to the police in Windsor and Chatham.

A DANGEROUS HABIT

Gladstone's Physician Gives Warning Against a Growing American Custom.

The growing habit amongst Americans of taking a mint tablet or some other so-called digestive after eating a hearty meal, is something that Sir Andrew Clarke, Mr. Gladstone's physician, advises strongly against, saying: "It is absolutely dangerous to take into the stomach remedies which are popularly supposed to aid in the digestion of food."

There is nothing known to the science of medicine that can perform the work of the human stomach. Drugs do not and cannot digest. The food they simply decompose it. What can be more revolting or disgusting than the thought of taking something into the stomach that is going to turn the good food you have eaten into a mass of corruption?

The only way to overcome indigestion and its evil effects is to remove all irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines, and Mi-o-na is the only agent known that will do this.

When a Mi-o-na tablet is taken before each meal every trace of irritation and inflammation is removed from the stomach and digestive system, and those organs will extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound, healthy body. If you suffer with headaches, indigestion, flatulency, spots before the eyes, vertigo, or dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, or any stomach trouble, get a fifty cent box of Mi-o-na from C. H. Gunn & Co., one of our most reliable drug firms, whose faith in the remedy is shown by their offer to return the money if Mi-o-na does not give complete satisfaction.

LORD NORTON DEAD.

Under Secretary for the Colonies Under Lord Derby.

London, March 30.—Lord Norton, who as Sir Charles Adderley, took an active part in the establishment of colonial self-government, is dead, aged 80 years.

Lord Norton, the Rt. Hon. Sir Charles Bowyer Adderley, K. C. M. G., the eldest son of the late Charles Clement Adderley, of Harris Hall, Warwickshire, and Norton, Staffordshire, was born in August, 1818. He graduated as B. A. from Christ Church in 1838, and was elected to the House of Commons as a Conservative in 1841 to represent the northern division of Staffordshire, which seat he retained 27 years. He became Under Secretary for the Colonies under Lord Derby, and was made K. C. M. G. in 1869. In 1874 he was appointed President of the Board of Trade. He took an active part in the establishment of colonial self-government and in the introduction of reformatory institutions, and was the author of works on education and penal discipline, and other subjects connected with colonial interests. He was raised to the Peerage in 1872, and took his title from Norton-on-the-Moors in Staffordshire.

BRIDGES IN DANGER.

Big Hole Torn in Dam at Hespeler—A Sawmill Burned.

Guelph, March 30.—R. Harwood's sawmill near Speedside was burned out on Monday night and a large quantity of lumber in the yard was destroyed. The loss will be over $2,000. No insurance.

Wm. A. Kries, ex-M. P. F. Hespeler, was in the city yesterday. He states that the ice above the dam of the Canadian woollen mills went off Tuesday night and tore out a hole in the stone work thirty feet wide and twelve feet high within a couple of feet of the dam, which is fourteen feet high. There are fears that the dam will break. If it does some ten bridges between there and Galt will likely be swept from the Speed into the Grand River.

"PARISIAN" WAS NOT MOVING.

Halifax, March 30.—The preliminary investigation into the Parisian-Albano collision commenced Tuesday. Four witnesses were called—Capt. Johnston, First Officer Collins, Third Officer Griffiths and Rev. Dr. Kirkpatrick, of Cambridge University. The gist of the evidence was that the ship was at a standstill at the time of the collision. The condition of the Parisian is unchanged, except that she has become slightly bogged. The agent of the German steamer labelled her yesterday for $60,000.

The hull of the Allan boat has been made tight and the pumps will be started towards morning.

Mineral Baths

Chatham, Dec. 18, 1901.

To CHATHAM MINERAL WATER CO.

For some years I was so badly used up with rheumatism in my hip and leg that I could not walk without suffering severe pain and finally got so bad that I was confined to my bed. I tried almost every kind of patent medicines beside consulting physicians, but obtained no relief. At last I was persuaded to try the mineral water and used it in liberal quantities. From the first I felt a decided change for the better, and now I can say I have entirely recovered. I cannot recommend the mineral water too highly and am pleased to such a magnificent establishment erected for the treatment of cases like mine.
