This is Rev. Mr. Penick's
Deserved Tribute to Mr.
H. S. Clements M. P.

NORTH BUXTON SOCIAL

The Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church, North Buxton, gave a splendid and successful lawn social at the magnificent home of George Cromwell, of that place, last evening. In spite of the fact that the harvest season is now on, there was a very large attendance.

One special feature of the social was the presence of the two parliamentary representatives for Kent, Mr. Clements and Mr. McCog. Both made addresses and were warmly received. Politics was barred for the occasion, and the two gentlemen had to confine themselves to other subjects, such as church work, the crops, the weather, oil, and sundry other things.

Mr. Clements received a hearty burst of applause when he was announced, and the popular young member acquitted himself in a creditable manner. Mr. Clements has always professed to have the interests of all of his constituents at heart, no matter if he be Liberal or Conservative. As he said last evening, he is the servant of the people of his riding, and they have a perfect right to call upon him whenever there is any service that he can give them. In a speech made in North Buxton before his election he promised to do all in his power to advance the interests of all classes. His recent speech in the House along the lines of the interests of the colored people has proclaimed him to be a conscientious man who keeps his pre-election pledges. The people have confidence in him that he is just what he appears to be—a servant of the masses. He is not restricted by party ties, and he has no private axes to grind. He has a free hand as it were, to support whatever he believes to be in the interests of the people at large, and his actions have shown that personal interests do not figure in his public actions.

Last evening Rev. Mr. Penick, pastor of the North Buxton church, paid a great tribute to Mr. Clements. He said: "I do not know Mr. Clements personally, but I have followed his actions in the House, and from that I know him to be a man who has the interests of his constituents at heart. I want to congratulate him upon the speech he made in the House the other day in the interests of the colored people. I want to tell him that what he said on that occasion coincides with my views on the subject exactly. His actions have met with my hearty approval. He is a man who is not always saying, but he is doing."

His remarks were met with a spontaneous burst of applause. As far as the supper was concerned, the good ladies of the church fairly outdone themselves. These ladies are known far and near for their excellent socials, and they are to be congratulated upon the success of the one last evening. No better place could have been chosen for an event of this kind than the lawn of Mr. Cromwell. There are few lawns in the city that can equal it for neatness and beauty.

After a supper had been served, the following program was given: Chairman's address—W. J. Shreeve. Opening chorus—The choir. Prayer—Rev. Mr. Penick. Selection—The choir. Address—Mr. Carey. Song—Chas. Cromwell. Address—A. B. McCog, M. P. P. Recitation—Miss P. Morris. Song—R. W. Angus. Address—Rev. Mr. Penick. Drill—by 14 young ladies of the church. Speech—W. Rhue. Song—W. Carey, of Merlin. Address—H. S. Clements, M. P. Solo—Miss L. Morris. God Save the King.

A CHALLENGE

Claims Agent Archie Skirving, of the Pere Marquette, on reading in The Planet last evening that Springer J. W. White had a grievance, and that that gentleman thinks he was hardly treated fairly at the P. M. foot races last Saturday, said that a new proposition would shortly be made to Mr. White whereby he might recover his lost laurels.

According to Mr. Skirving, Mr. Roberts of Windsor, is willing to run a fifty-yard dash with Mr. White for $50, $100 or $500 a side—as high as Mr. White's backers care to go. Mr. Roberts' supporters believe that as Mr. White is now professionalized, he should have no further scruples about running for money.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. John Richmond desire to thank the matron and nurses of the Public General Hospital for the kind services rendered their daughter, Cassie, during her late illness, and also to thank the numerous friends and neighbors for the many expressions of their sympathy at her bereavement.

THE TANK BLEW UP

A Sad Drowning at Erieau—Narrow Escape of Others in Launch Party

Blenheim Correspondent to The Planet.

July 26.—A sad fatality occurred on the Eau yesterday about 11 a. m. The gasoline launch of Messrs. A. Nichol and M. Reynolds had a boatload of excursionists from Dresden, and when within a mile from the Government Park docked the engine stopped, and in starting it the base of the engine exploded and blew Archie Nichol into the water. He sank and did not rise to the surface at all. In the meantime the gasoline ignited and spread along the boat, terrifying the people, many of them jumping overboard and clinging to the side of the craft.

W. R. Fellows, Jr., who also had an excursion party on board his boat and another boatload in tow, as soon as he sighted the catastrophe cut the tow-line and made for the burning launch, and succeeded in rescuing all the passengers, leaving the launch in a mass of flames, which sprang to the storage tank, and in a few moments the tank exploded and the boat immediately sank.

The body of Mr. Nichol was not found until late in the afternoon and was taken to Ford Bros. & Hunt's undertaking parlors. The funeral arrangements have not been completed. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood, the young man being highly respected by all who knew him.

A number of Chathamites were in the party and several of them were badly burned by the gasoline. Clifford Halbert, Geo. Taylor, Chatham's veteran barber, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gant and young Clark were in the launch.

The event was the annual excursion of the A. M. E. and First Baptist Sunday Schools of this city. Nichol was running excursions to Government Park. He was warned that his boat was not running right, but he paid no attention. He was smoking a cigar. When a couple of miles out the wheel got caught in some weeds. While reaching over to get the weeds off, the fire from the cigar got in the gasoline.

REASON FOR SUICIDE

Montreal, July 25.—More light was thrown on the suicide of the fur merchant, M. F. St. John, by the discovery in his office today of nearly $5,000 worth of furs. The furs are believed to be part of the goods sent from Chatham, which are stated to have been stolen in New York.

GHOUL PROOF CASE

Financier Sage Laid Away—Arrangements Cost Nearly $25,000.

Troy, N. Y., July 26.—The body of Russell Sage, financier and multi-millionaire, was laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The same simplicity that characterized the deceased in life was apparent in the transfer of the body to its last resting place.

Best He Could Do. The funeral cortege proceeded from the Union Station to Oakwood, where a large number of persons had gathered at the Sage family lot. After a brief service, read by Rev. Dr. Andrew Hageman of New York, the body was committed to the ghoulish-proof vault of chilled steel, ready for its reception. The grave is beside that of Mr. Sage's first wife. The words which are to be engraved on the Sage monument are: "I have done the best that I could by the light of the day."

Ghoulish-Proof Case. The body of Russell Sage was enclosed in a hermetically sealed copper envelope within a mahogany coffin, and placed in a chilled steel case four inches thick, riveted with steel bolts and locked with a lock which can never be opened. The steel case weighs three tons. It is seven feet eleven inches in length, two feet six inches in depth and three feet six inches in width. Immediately after the steel box and the contents were lowered into the grave, electrical connections were made and strung, so that an immediate alarm would be given if any attempt is made to tamper with the remains. The extraordinary efforts to thwart attempts by grave robbers were taken at the instance of Charles L. Medley, sexton and funeral director of the Collegiate Church, Troy, N. Y., and were sanctioned by Mrs. Sage. The coffin cost $1,000, and the steel case, with its unpickable lock, $22,000.

All to Mrs. Sage. New York, July 26.—The World today says: "Every dollar of Russell Sage's great fortune is left to Mrs. Sage by a will, made in 1901, except an insignificant bequest made to Mrs. Fannie Chapin of Oneida, N. Y., an only sister, who died two years ago. The fortune of Mrs. Sage amounts to only about $60,000,000."

Our obligations are of many kinds, but they all may be paid in the coin of love.

WHO WILL GET

THE REWARD?

Agar & Neff Have Strong Claims For Twenty Five Hundred Dollars

THE FUR STEALING CASE

This morning, as Will Hartwick, of The Planet, was walking up King St. to work, he was surprised to find a cheque for $3,000 blowing about on the sidewalk near Jacques' harness store. Mr. Hartwick was, of course, greatly surprised at his find. The cheque was made out in favor of Agar & Neff, the local furriers. The maker's name is withheld for obvious reasons, the cheque being intentionally a bogus one.

A Planet reporter afterwards took the cheque to Mr. Agar, one of the members of the local fur firm, and was told by him that it was a bogus cheque made out purposely to aid in gaining evidence against the fur thieves who were recently rounded up by the police. The cheque was used as a ruse to get Sammy Kovinski to disclose the hiding place of the stolen furs, as he was anxious to dispose of them to Agar & Neff. The little piece of paper was followed in the excitement that followed and must have blown out of the window and down to the street.

Messrs. Agar & Neff now feel confident that they will secure the $2,500 offered by the Sifter Co. for information which would lead to the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

It appears that there is another claimant to the reward in the person of M. M. Sloman, of Detroit, who claims to have notified the Detroit detective department of the presence of the thieves in Chatham on July 16. This man gained his information through Mr. Nelson Stringer, of this city, who was over in Detroit on the day, and had told Mr. Sloman how the suspected parties had tried to dispose of a portion of the booty to him. Mr. Sloman immediately telephoned Detroit detective headquarters. Mr. Sloman claims to have been notified that he and Mr. Stringer are entitled to the reward. Mr. Stringer was seen this morning, but said he knew nothing about the matter except what Mr. Sloman had told him in a recent letter.

P. C. Dezella returned at noon today from Montreal with the prisoner, Futzler. He found in Montreal 1,100 ermine skins and 494 mink in the building occupied by St. John, the man who committed suicide, and also 290 more skins in a tannery.

Montreal, July 26.—Four thousand dollars worth of the stolen New York Chatham furs, found in M. F. St. John's office yesterday, probably furnishes the best clue to the unfortunate man's suicide, although it is not yet known for certain that the dealer's furs really were stolen. There is a strong presumption that he did so for the man arrested has made no statement.

St. John wrote a letter to Mrs. Baker, with whom he boarded on Leval avenue, giving her $500 for her and her husband's friendship, and that lady speaks in the best terms of the man who took his life in so tragic a manner. It transpires that his real name was Axlerod, and he was an Austrian by birth. He will be buried to-day in the Jewish cemetery.

FLAG HALF MAST

Some Wag Has a Joke on Scheme Promoted by a Former Chatham Man

Windsor, July 25.—Things have gone awry at Fighting Island, which was being fitted up as an amusement resort to be known as "Golden Gate Park." Albert Jacobs, a former resident of Chatham, was the promoter, but he has fallen into deep water financially. The park scheme has collapsed, and some wag has placed a British flag at half-mast on the island.

Neveux, Clinton & Baxter, a local hardware firm, had a big chim against Jacobs, and when they failed to secure a settlement they had a special tug visit the island. All the material they could recover was placed on the tug and seized. Now it is stated that a rival hardware firm claims part of the goods seized and litigation may follow.

Contractors, workmen, grocers and an Amherstburg butcher are all seeking ways and means to collect bills from Mr. Jacobs.

Fighting Island is situated below Sandwich, and is owned by the Palmes estate. Several years ago Gilman & Barnes ran a summer resort there, but pulled out about $200,000 "to the bad."

A LARGE FUNERAL

The Remains Of The Late Cassie Richmond Reverently Laid To Rest

One of the largest funerals from Dover Township took place last Tuesday afternoon, when all that was mortal of Cassie Richmond was reverently laid away in Maple Leaf Cemetery. The circumstances were peculiarly sad as the deceased had only been ill a few days, and it is only ten months since her brother Delbert was drowned in the Detroit river.

Rev. Mr. McNeally conducted the services at the family residence, 6th concession, Dover, and made very touching reference to the valued services she rendered to the church, of which she had been a consistent member. She had lived a life of Christian faithfulness to her Saviour, and at her death she trustfully passed away with the beautiful hymn upon her lips, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

The beautiful floral emblems showed the esteem in which deceased held: Broken wreath from members of family; wreath, Peter McKellar; spray, Mrs. Smith; Mrs. Steen; wreath, St. Andrew's S. S. choir; spray, McCog & Son; harp, Thompson family, Detroit; spray, Mrs. Burke; gates ajar, Ladies Assisting Society New St. Andrew's and Willing Workers; sickle, Mrs. A. H. Dolan; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Rahneke; spray, Miss Doyle. The pall-bearers were Ed. Urquhart, Jas. Hardeck, R. Burke, D. Millard, D. Hind and Alex. Ross. The deceased's family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

HAS PROVED A GREAT SUCCESS

There has never been in the history of Chatham a really enterprise that has proved such a success as the King street, handled by Rothwell & Company, real estate dealers, of Detroit. The amazing part of it is the largest sales have been made to outside parties, a gentleman from New Mexico having purchased 17 lots, another from Winnipeg, Man., five lots, one from New York three lots, and a doctor from Brandon, Man., two of the choice King street lots, which shows that outside people have great faith in Chatham. Really life, with the liberal use of printer's ink, and the very best residential location in the city, made the sale the success the property deserves.

"NAUSEATING NONSENSE."

Under the above caption the Brantford Courier comments on the amount of rubbish appearing in the United States papers with reference to Mrs. Longworth, daughter of President Roosevelt. It is the opinion of the Courier that it is sickening. The newly married couple are now in the old country, and here is a sample special despatch from London which is going the rounds of the United States press:—

"It is so like Englishmen to be angry because an American man is willing to allow his own personality to be sunk in that of his wife. They are furious with Nicholas Longworth because he looks so thoroughly happy when he sees his wife fussed over from morning till night. Englishmen still like to fancy themselves the lords of creation, and to see one of their own sex perfectly happy in a back seat when he is certain that his wife is having a royal good time, has made them so thoroughly irate that they have said things about him for which they should be sorry. Longworth is a veritable revelation to English women, and it is not too much to say that his absolute admiration of his wife and pride in her success has made him conquests by the score among women of all nationalities. One of the richest bohemian women in England, who has refused more offers than she can count, remarked at Mrs. Bradley-Martin's party 'I always said I wouldn't marry the angel Gabriel if he came out of heaven and wanted me to, but I certainly would marry Nicholas Longworth if he were a free man and popped the question. The way he treats his wife is so ideal.'"

This enthusiasm was the outcome of an unheeded incident which took place previously between Longworth and his wife. Leaving a party they were waiting in a porch together for a carriage to draw up. "Alice," he said, "I must insist on your putting that lace around your throat. Otherwise you will catch your death of cold."

"Don't be a foolish child," returned her royal highness. "I am roasting with the heat."

"You are going to do what I tell you, princess," he replied, "or my name isn't Longworth. Is it likely that I would let you run any risks?"

"As meekly as possible the lady did as she was told. Now, every woman has an admiration for a man who can hold his own, and it was quite clear that this fair damsel, who has been enthused over more than a queen, is no exception to the rest."

President Roosevelt has always proved himself to be a plain spoken, and sensible man, and such utter trash must be as painful to him as it is reflective upon the estimate which papers across the line put upon public intelligence.

The "Arctic" has set out on another expedition in the direction of the North Pole. What equipment in the way of "Laurier cigars" and "old crusted Port of 1878" she may have taken will not be known until we see the Auditor-General's report of next year. So far the "Arctic" has cost between $200,000 and $300,000 and accomplished nothing. On her first trip the expedition amused itself in a well known Hudson Bay harbor for a broken windlass, and then returned with a winter windlass. This time the ship ran into another boat as she was leaving Quebec and is at present undergoing repairs.

The death of Russell Sage robs the American people of a synonym for parsimony and a picturesque anti-these of the tendencies of the times. For a good many decades now it has been the profitable duty of the paragrapher, the lyric-writer and the librettist to sneer at this man whose thrift, industry and frugality have amassed millions. It must at least be admitted that Russell Sage stands out conspicuously among the masters of "high finance" of these days a worker of the simple methods of the old school which made industry and frugality the prime element of success.—Detroit Journal.

It is said that Harry Thaw never never done a day's useful work during his thirty-six years of life, while the man he killed has left many enduring monuments of his industry and genius. White may have done much good, says the Stratford Herald, but apparently he did much evil. Thaw, many believe, is as bad in impulse as White was, and has less control over himself. Had he been compelled to work for his living he would have been a better and happier man. Wealth is good when properly used. When it is made the medium for licentiousness it is a curse to its possessor.

The Brantford Examiner complains that grammar is not properly taught in the Public schools; that the "inaccuracies of speech with which one meets these days are appalling. The people of Ontario should be taught that such expressions as 'the don't,' 'I seen,' 'I have went,' 'each of two are,' and like combinations are grammatical atrocities."

FASHION HINTS

LADIES' SEVEN-GORED SKIRT.

No. 4169.

Panama cloth is used for the model pictured here and the skirt is shaped with seven gores, and inverted pleats at the front and back give added fullness to the bottom of the skirt. The closing is at the back in regular style. A stitched trimming band ornaments the skirt, but may be omitted if desired as well as the girdle. Plaid, being so much in vogue, a skirt made in one of these patterns will look well with a coat of contrasting color. Serge, cheviot, mixed goods, Scotch, homespun, linen, taffeta and voils are recommended for making.

The quantity of material required for size 26 is 8 1/4 yards of 36-inch goods. Pattern No. 4169 is cut in sizes 22 to 30 inches, waist measure. Mailed postpaid on receipt of 10 cents, name, size and address to the Fashion Department of C. Austin & Co.

LITTLE POCKET PHYSICIAN

Hymel Inhaler That Never Fails To Cure Catarrh.

Thousands who have been cured by Hymel, call the inhaler that comes with every outfit "The little pocket physician," as it is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

Prior to the discovery of Hymel, statistics showed that at least 97 out of every 100 persons in this state were suffering from catarrh in some form. The remarkable results following the use of Hymel are shown by the smaller percentage to-day of people suffering from catarrh.

A complete Hymel outfit consists of "the little pocket physician," a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hymel, and costs only $1, while additional bottles of Hymel can be procured for 50 cents, making it the most economical, as well as the most reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

Do not delay longer the use of Hymel, if you have catarrh. This is a purely local disease, and Hymel goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, destroys them, soothes and heals all inflammation, and makes a permanent and lasting cure.

If you cannot obtain Hymel of your dealer, it will be forwarded by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price. Write to-day for consultation blank that will entitle you to services of our medical department without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Hymel Building, Ithaca, N. Y.

JUST A LITTLE BIT OFF THE TOP

It looks much as though those New York fur thieves were trying to work a skin game.

LITERARY

In the matter of illustration and appearance, the August McClure's sets a high water mark. Its cover design is by Maxfield Parrish and it has a generous number of pictures and colors—a dramatic front-piece showing a hold-up by Montana road agents, painted by Wyeth, four powerful pictures by E. L. Blumenschein all in four colors; two full pages by Andre Castaigne illustrating Kipling stories; drawings by Frederic Carr, Skeels, Glackens, F. Walker Taylor and Alice Barber Stephens.

The July number of Good House-keeping opens with "Domestic Life in the Azores," which is a most interesting article profusely illustrated. There are recipes for many new cooling summer drinks that will be much appreciated. Special attention is given to canning and preserving in this number. There are many other interesting papers that will be of value to readers. Published by Clark-Clary Publishing Company, Boston, Mass.

"Little Folks" for July has many sweet little poems and stories for the youngest readers. "Deila's Nature Studies," "The Beautiful Story of Doris and Jack," and "The Kiddest One" are continued. "The Old Stone Chair" is a one syllable story for children who are learning to read. Published by S. E. Cassino Co., Salem, Mass., at $1 a year.

The July number of What to Eat opens with "How to Detect Food Adulterations," a paper that deals with simple methods by which tests may be made to detect adulterations in articles that are in every day use, such as milk, butter, eggs, coffee, etc. We pride ourselves in Canada on our pure foods, but anyone who is in doubt will find a method by which they can test most kinds of food. "Green Corn Ways" give many new ways of cooking this popular vegetable. Many original ideas are given for summer entertaining. These are only three points in this excellent magazine.

"The Treason of the Senate," though probably the leading article of the August number of the Cosmopolitan, will not appeal to the American readers as it will to the Americans, though we cannot but admire the fearlessness of the attack. "Cause of the Great Earthquake" is most interesting and is finely illustrated. "Angelo's Visit" needs no further recommendation than to say it is by W. W. Jacobs. "In the Days of the Comet" and "Story of Andrew Jackson" are continued, besides which there are numerous articles of interest.

The July number of the Quiver contains an interesting and profusely illustrated sketch of Lord and Lady Aberdeen. "Midway and Its Activities" is the Christian work that receives special attention this month. The serial stories, "Helen's Love Story" and "The Woman of the World" are continued, and there are many other papers of interest to both old and young.

The August number of Keith's Magazine opens with "Typical American Homes." "The Home-making of Two Lone Women" is concluded in this number, and those who have read it will concede that the home made was most artistic, and the ideas are all practicable. "Wall Decoration" by H. P. Keith continues the study of this most difficult part of interior decoration. "Designs for the Homebuilder" give the plans, elevations and descriptions of houses of various prices and styles. The usual departments are full of appropriate subjects that are dealt with in the clever and interesting manner that is characteristic of this live magazine, which is published by the Keith Publishing Co., of Minneapolis, at $1.50 per annum.

SOLDIERS VS. SAILORS.

Four Privates of R. C. R. at Quebec Locked Up on a Probable Charge of Murder.

Quebec, July 25.—Shortly after 11 o'clock Monday evening three soldiers in khaki uniform made their appearance on the cross wall at the Dalhousie street and challenged some of the sailors on the schooner J. M. Taylor, from Barbadoes, unloading molasses at the wharf, to come up on the wharf and fight. The soldiers carried their insults to such a point that some of the crew went ashore. A general row then started on the wharf, in which the soldiers used their belts and buckles to advantage. One of the latter gave a whistle and several other soldiers put in an appearance. The sailors then ran towards the schooner, probably to get help, and as they did so, one of them, Thomas Powers, was stabbed in the back between the shoulders, and fell into the water, between the schooner and the wharf.

Another of the crew, William Tyor, also fell in, as well as a sailor from the Empress of Britain. The two former never rose, but the sailor from the Empress was picked up by James Finn, a young sailor from the Arctic. Powers and Tyor were pulled out later, but were both dead. Powers hailed from Ireland, while Tyor was a resident of London, England.

At 3.30 the detectives arrested Privates Dominick Corrigan, 32 years of age; Peter Walsh, 24; Edouard Lapointe, 18, and W. Higgins, 29, all members of the R. C. R. Corrigan has a fresh cut in the forehead. Most of the sailors of the Arctic are held as witnesses of a fatal row here, and the ship's departure for the far north is again delayed.

Better Than Spanking

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. J. M. Summers, Box 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

"Old Bullion's" Arrogance.

"Thomas H. Benton was a most remarkable man," said the late Colonel Switzer, "in some respects the most remarkable I have ever known, but he could not begin a career at this time. The people would not tolerate him. He would impress even a stranger by his appearance. He walked as if he owned the earth. With head raised at an angle of 45 degrees and hands behind his back he would stalk with measured tread down the street, looking neither to the right nor to the left, recognizing no one. If he had an appointment to speak at 2 o'clock, promptly at 2 o'clock he would arrive. He would come in his carriage unattended. He would permit no one to introduce him, but, passing through the crowd, he would make his way to the rostrum and begin, 'Citizens.' Never did he say 'Fellow citizens.' Those before him were no fellows of his. And when he had concluded he would make his way back to the hotel without personally addressing a soul in the audience. He refused to recognize the right of any constituent to ask him how he stood on any subject."

HOW IT SPREADS.

The first package of Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, the infallible Pile Cure, that was put out went to a small town in Nebraska.

It cured a case of Piles that was considered hopeless. The news spread, and although this was only two years ago, the demand prompted Dr. J. S. Leonard, of Lincoln, Neb., the discoverer, to prepare it for general use. Now it is being sent to all parts of the world. It will cure any case of Piles. There is a month's treatment in each box. It is for sale by druggists, or by The Wilson-Eyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

A French Verdict.

All jurics have a way of tempering justice with mercy and strict logic with good or bad sense. French jurics excel in these practices. A Mme. Canaby of Bordeaux was accused of having forged two prescriptions and of having thereby obtained large quantities of poison, some of which she administered to her husband, who nearly died and was only saved by his doctor, who suspected something wrong and took him away. The prisoner completely failed to give any plausible explanation as to why she wanted the poison—enough, as the chemist said, to kill two regiments. Nevertheless the jury found Mme. Canaby guilty of forging the prescriptions, but not guilty of attempting to poison her husband. Perhaps the jury thought the husband unpoisoned was punishment enough in himself for one crime.

THE WHALE'S SENSE.

Ability of the Ponderous Animal to Hear Under Water.

It seems perfectly evident that whales must hear when in the water, says the London Fig. This inference is confirmed by the comparatively small development of the other sense organs. The eye, for instance, is very small and can be of little use even at the comparatively small depths to which whales are now believed to descend.

Again, the sense of smell, judging by the rudimentary conditions of the olfactory organs, must be in abeyance, and whales have no sense organs comparable to the lateral line system of fishes. Consequently it would seem that when below the surface of the water they must depend chiefly upon the sense of hearing. Probably this sense is so highly developed as to enable the animals in the midst of the vibrations made by the screwlike movements of the tail or flukes to distinguish the sound (or vibrations) made by the impact of the water against the rocks even in a dead calm, and in the case of piscivorous species, to recognize by the pulse in the water the presence of shoal fish.

Falling in this explanation, it is difficult to imagine how whales can find their way about in the semidarkness and avoid collisions with rocks and rockbound coasts.

Explorers After Treasure Buried in a Sacred Lake—The Votive Tributes to An Indian Deity.

In a small city office situated in London-wall news is anxiously awaited from a man who sits on the edge of a mountain lake in Colombia, Central America, waiting for rain.

Heavy rain may mean for him and for those in the city office in London-wall, the recovery of treasure worth, so experts say, at least $500,000,000. The hero of the vigil is H. Knowles, managing director in Bogota of Contractors, Limited. The story of the company is one of the most amazing romances of treasure-seeking in history.

The Lake of Guatavita, in Colombia, lies in the basin formed by the cone of an extinct volcano. It stands 9,000 to 10,000 feet above the sea level, and is but a few miles from the thriving little coal city of Bogota. Many centuries ago it was the Sacred Lake of the Chibchas, a race which at the time of the Spanish conquest numbered over 1,000,000 individuals.

The Chibchas worshipped the "Gilded Man," and devoutly believed that their deity made his home at the bottom of the Lake of Guatavita. The story of the Chibchas has many times been investigated by travelers, and all agree in believing that the lake contains untold treasure. Humboldt, the famous traveler and historian, was one of those who estimated its value at $500,000,000.

An Early Failure. Quesada, the Spanish conqueror of the Chibchas, was told the story of the treasure, and succeeded in reducing the water of the lake, then 214 feet deep, to fifteen feet. Then the sides fell in, and all his labor was wasted. Further attempts were abandoned, and the lake regained to a very large extent its former depth.

Where the great Spanish administrator failed, however, Contractors, Limited, a prosaic British syndicate, formed just over six years ago, has determined to succeed.

The syndicate was formed for the purpose of exploiting a concession obtained from the Colombian Government to drain the lake and recover for their own use the treasure believed to be hidden by its waters. Among its directors are R. J. Price, M.P. for the Eastern Division of Norfolk, chairman, and C. J. de M. Knowles, its capital was originally $150,000, and was increased to $175,000 in 1903.

After six years of hard work, however, some of those connected with the company are beginning to believe that the "Gilded Man" is still at the bottom of the lake guarding his treasure. Encouraging finds of isolated gold and silver gods and jeweled goddesses have from time to time supported the tradition of the treasure.

First the lake was drained. It was not an easy task, for it is some nine miles in length, and unforeseen difficulties were continually confronting the workers. The most harassing of these was the constant rain, which, winter and summer hardly ever ceased.

At last, however, toward the end of 1903, the welcome news reached London that Mr. Knowles and his staff of engineers and workmen had succeeded in cutting through the basin of the lake, and the water had been drained off successfully. There was great jubilation, and preparations were made for the large contents of gold, silver and jewels which might be expected to arrive by the next boats.

Unfortunately, however, the water is not the only barrier on which the "Gilded Man" has to rely for the safe-keeping of his treasure. The jubilation in London was summarily ended by a cablegram stating that twenty-five feet of solid mud, or some 30,000,000 cubic feet in all, still lay over the treasure-seekers and their quest. But what is $500,000,000 is at stake? A new engineering feat was decided on—the construction of a great dam across the hole made in the side of the basin terminating in a shaft through which the mud should be washed and carried off. The jubilation in London was summarily ended by a cablegram stating that twenty-five feet of solid mud, or some 30,000,000 cubic feet in all, still lay over the treasure-seekers and their quest.

But what is $500,000,000 is at stake? A new engineering feat was decided on—the construction of a great dam across the hole made in the side of the basin terminating in a shaft through which the mud should be washed and carried off. The jubilation in London was summarily ended by a cablegram stating that twenty-five feet of solid mud, or some 30,000,000 cubic feet in all, still lay over the treasure-seekers and their quest.

For over three years the engineers had worked in the rain, in such a downpour, indeed, as was unprecedented in Central America. As the water ran from the lake, how the rain had stopped, and a drought, equally without a parallel in the history of the country set in. For more than two and a half years not a drop of rain had fallen at the scene of the operations, and when the engineers had completed the construction of the dam it was only to find the mud had baked the 30,000,000 cubic feet of mud into the consistency of hard rock.

Hidden Wealth. Then, metaphorically speaking, the engineers sat down and wept. The rock like substance still lies as an impenetrable bomb-proof lid over the golden gods and the silver dishes and ornaments, to say nothing of the jeweled goddesses and their glittering hand-maidens.

The few natives in the regions, remnants of the great race of Chibchas, occasionally visit the scene and smile cheerfully at the downcast Englishmen. "It is all the work of the rain," they say, and they plainly hint that when the rain comes—if ever it does come—to soften the mud, some other obstacle will defeat the desire of the treasure-seekers. Letter after letter from Mr. Knowles to the little office in the city dejectedly refers to the determined opposition Nature has placed in his way.

"I regret to say rain absolutely refuses to fall here," he wrote in one of his letters. "This is the worst of it, for here hoping against hope, hearing the thunder and seeing the storm pass us by, which is an awful trial, as you can imagine."

"We really ought to get all the water we want in May," he wrote again. "So far his pessimism has been justified. The 'Gilded Man' is taking care of his own."

Inebriety and the Eating of Fruit.

There is but one sure cure for the drinking disease or habit, and that is the simplest of all. The cure consists in eating fruit. That will cure the worst case of inebriety that ever afflicted a person. It will entirely destroy the taste for intoxicants and will make the drunkard return to the thoughts and tastes of his childhood. No person ever saw a man or woman who liked fruit and who had an appetite for drink. No person ever saw a man or woman with an appetite for drink who at the same time had an appetite for fruit. There is no room for both of them in the same human constitution. One will surely destroy the other. What to Eat.

A Horrible Custom. Writing from Abyssinia, a correspondent says: "Quaint customs prevail in these parts. A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is poisoned with poisons which come from a disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood, the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents. The enormous popularity of Golden Medical Discovery is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of it by the unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class with the use of unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. The Girl of Other Days.

Once I loved a little maiden in the days of long ago. She was just my kind of people. And I think I told her so. But, alas, apart we drifted. She to school and I to bliss. And our brief romance was ended. But I wonder where she is.

We would wander in the meadows When the weather wasn't rough Planning how we should get married Soon as we got big enough. When the shades of evening lengthened Homeward slowly we would flock Lest we should get spanked for staying out till after eight o'clock.

No one knew our tender secret. No one guessed we were engaged Or that underneath our jackets Such a fiery passion raged. For we kept it under cover Lest the boys and girls should cry: "He's her feller!" "She's his honey!" As they saw us passing by.

It was in the sober autumn—Or perhaps it was in May, For I cannot quite remember When her parents moved away—That we parted, vows exchanging, Down beside the old mill dam. But I often idly wonder Does she wonder where I am.

Interfering With Their Soap. Americans who stroll over into Mexico looking for treasure or most anything that looks like a second cousin to easy money sometimes bump into other things besides gold and copper mines. As long as the natives consent to dig holes in the ground and shovel ore from them into a box car life is sweet and sunny for the prospector, but when the natives get tired of digging and go on vacation or the warpath things are not so pleasant.

When the American miner gets up in the morning and finds his favorite engineer, who had not been complaining the day before that he needed ventilation, shot full of holes he is apt to say unpleasant things about the government and to express a wish to his private secretary or his favorite mule that his great and good friend, Uncle Sam, were the powers that be on that side of the line.

Of course he can get another engineer, but a fracas of that sort is apt to alarm his friends, who are grabbing mining stock as a hungry fish goes after a piece of liver.

WOULD NOT BE COMFORTED

She Sat On The Bridge At Mid-day and Tears Flowed Copiously

ALL CLEARED UP NOW

Despondent and distracted, and with her head bowed low in abject grief, a young girl possibly 18 or 19 years of age, sitting on Fifth street bridge at noon to-day, attracted considerable attention from passersby, who wondered what was the matter with her. She was apparently in great distress and was weeping bitterly.

Several kind-hearted persons approached the young woman and endeavored to find out what was the matter with her, but her questionings only brought forth fresh outbursts of grief. She evidently intended to keep her secret to herself, and could not be induced to leave the bridge, where she sat bareheaded in the hot sun.

While on his way home to dinner, Fire Chief Pritchard noted the girl sitting to the side of the bridge, but did not pay particular attention to the incident at the time, but when he saw her still sitting there on his return, he decided that there was something wrong. He approached the young woman, but she would give him no satisfaction as to what was the matter. On going back to the department he notified the Chief of Police by phone, and he and the Chief went back to make an investigation.

In the meantime the forlorn young woman was joined by a smartly gotten-up and well-dressed young man, who was evidently the man in the case. He made strenuous efforts to induce her to leave the bridge, and go to some less public place. She seemed only conscious to her grief, whatever it might have been, and stubbornly refused to leave. Some persons claim that she wanted to throw herself over the bridge, but this has since been denied by the girl and the young man.

Later, when the Fire Chief and the police arrived on the scene, she had been induced to come away, and she was taken to the police station by a nearby hotel. When the police arrived, she was reclining on a sofa and the young man was sitting at her head.

She was rather a good looking young woman, with large, dark eyes and pretty face. Her eyes bore evidence of incessant weeping, and between her sobbing she told the officers that there was nothing very much wrong, only that they had had a quarrel. She said that lies had been told about her, and that was what made her feel so badly.

The net earnings for the five months ending May 31, this year, were $86,088. Guarantee of $3,360,000
For Canadian Northern Railway

TEMISKAMING PROEITS

Toronto, July 26.—The following statement was issued yesterday from the Parliament Buildings: "The execution by the Government of the Canadian Northern Railway Co. (formerly the James Bay Railway Co.), at a rate not exceeding $20,000 per mile of the company's line between Toronto and Sudbury, a distance of 268 miles, the total amount of the guarantee being $3,360,000. This guarantee stock is payable on July 10, 1906, and bears interest at the rate of 3-1/2 per cent. per annum. The company's line is almost completed between Toronto and Parry Sound, and 70 per cent. of the grading on the balance has been completed, in addition to bridge work, etc. The guarantee was given under the authority of chapter 30, Ontario Statutes, 1904.

How Money Will Be Paid. "One of the sections of the act provides that the purchasers of the securities shall pay the money directly into a bank approved of by the Government, to a special account in the name of the Treasurer of the Province. The Treasurer has the authority to pay out the money from time to time to the Railway Co. on the certificate of a Government engineer, due regard being had to the work done and materials furnished, and to that portion remaining to be done or provided. It is only upon completion and equipment of the line of railway that any balances are to be paid to the railway company."

$1,500,000 Already Subscribed. Another $150,000 of the new province-aided 3-1/2 per cent. loan has been subscribed, making $1,650,000, and many other applications are on file. Those who wish to get the benefit of the July interest, which is worth $3 on the thousand, must mail their applications on or before Tuesday next, the 31st inst.

Sevengala—July 30-Aug. 4.

SEVENGALA IS COMING.

Manager Briscoe announces to the patrons of the Grand Opera House that he has secured, through the International Amusement Syndicate, the King of Funmakers, Sevengala, for one week, commencing Monday evening, July 30th. He comes to our city highly endorsed by press and public, and if advance press notices are any criterion to go by, he must be a wonder. The following is a clipping:

Sevengala opened a week's engagement Monday to one of the largest audiences of the season, his reputation having preceded him. He gave one of the most finished, scientific and amusing exhibitions that has ever visited this city. A special feature was telepathy, which alone is worth double the price of admission. —Duluth, Minn., Herald.

The tourist season is now in full swing, and boats are going out from all Canadian ports well filled. Any person intending to take advantage of any of the summer tourist trips, and there are many advertised by W. E. Rispen, City Passenger & Ticket Agent, Grand Trunk and Wabash Railways, should have their barths secured, as otherwise it may be difficult to provide accommodation. He can give intending tourists choice of summer tours to all the Great Lakes and Rivers by all Steamship Lines, and has some particularly choice trips to Muskoka Lakes, Lake of Bays, Georgian Bay, Lake Superior and River St. Lawrence, and Sea Coasts.

VARICOCELE CURED
NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.
Confined to His Home for Weeks.
"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope, but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little better than rogues. I was then advised by a friend to try the New Method of Dr. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had taken treatment from them himself and knew they were square and skillful. He wrote them and got the New Method Treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I am earning $21 and never lose a day. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment."

Premier Stolypin's Instructions to Russian Governors.

Ordered to Strike and Spare Not the Enemies of Society—Events of the Day Show That Government Includes Among These Not Only Socialists and Revolutionists But Also Educated Members of Constitutional
Democratic Party—Court Camarilla's Plot.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—War to the knife and the knife to the hilt, the revolution, was proclaimed yesterday by Premier Stolypin in a telegram addressed to the division governor-generals, governors and prefects throughout Russia, and to the viceroys of the Caucasus, who are ordered to strike and spare not in efforts to preserve order and crush the enemies of society.

Included in this category, as shown by the events of the day, are not only Revolutionists and Socialists, but also the educated Liberal and landed classes represented in the Constitutional Democratic Party, whose clubs everywhere have been closed, and all the progressive newspapers which are not permitted to lift their voices anywhere throughout the entire land.

Premier Stolypin's telegram is as follows: "In conformity with instructions received from the Emperor with the view to securing full co-operation between the different local authorities, I hereby inform you that the Government expects you to exercise your vigilance and untiring supervision over your subordinates so that order may be promptly and definitely restored."

Must Be Put Down.
"Disturbances must be suppressed and revolutionary movements must be put down by all legal means. The measures you take must be carefully considered. The struggle begun is against the enemies of society and not against society itself. Consequently wholesale repression cannot be approved. Of impudent and illegal acts are likely to give rise to discontent instead of conducing to calm and cannot be tolerated."

Intentions of the Czar.
"The intentions of the Emperor are immutable. The Government firmly desires to assist in the enforcement of legal procedure and the laws hitherto enforced which no longer serve their purpose. The old regime will be regenerated, but order must be fully maintained. You must act on your own initiative, as you are invested with responsibility. Firm and vigorous steps taken on these lines will doubtless be upheld by the best part of society."

Anxious For Strike.
The railroads are anxious to have the general strike declared at once. Members of the Railway Employees' Union, with whom the Associated Press correspondents here and in Moscow have talked, declare that they were ready to walk out at the first call from the League of Leagues, with which the union is federated.

Arranging Secret Caucus.
The Constitutional Democratic Club and two other political clubs were closed last night by the police. A caucus of Constitutional Democrats was being held at the time. Prince Paul Dolgoroukoff, chairman of the central executive committee appointed at Viborg on Monday, has called a meeting of that committee, which will arrange a secret caucus to-day, to discuss further tactics.

Meetings were held last night in a dozen houses here and just across the frontier railway employees, peasants, Socialists and Revolutionists are discussing the best plan of action to throw the whole machinery of the Government out of gear.

Agriarian disorders have broken out near St. Petersburg.

For Military Dictatorship.
The way has been prepared for a military dictatorship by a proposition now under consideration at Peterhof to create an advisory council to assist the Emperor. The plan, which is foredoomed to failure, seems to be a deliberate plot of the Court Camarilla to induce the Emperor to entrust the direction of affairs to an advisory council, and while nominally the council would retain the authority the camarilla would gradually absorb its power and exercise a virtual dictatorship, as did Count Loris-Melikoff's Committee of Public Safety during the terrorism preceding the assassination of Alexander II.

Douma Members Home.
Most of the members of the outlawed Parliament arrived here yesterday from Viborg. A popular demonstration was prevented, but the members were not molested. On the train it had been arranged that the members of the various groups, if not arrested, should hold a caucus last evening and confer on the next step.

Before leaving Viborg, it was arranged, through underground revolutionary channels, to distribute the address to the country, hundreds of thousands of copies of which have already been surreptitiously printed. The members of Parliament, therefore, have already opened an alliance with the purely revolutionary organizations.

Appeal to Army.
The members of the Group of Toll and their allies, the proletarian organizations of St. Petersburg, were in active consultation Monday night and yesterday. While they fully endorsed the Parliamentary address to the country, so far as it goes, they consider that it should be followed up by an appeal to the army, preparatory to an uprising, which they consider inevitable, in the cities and country. Such an appeal will probably be issued immediately.

The Polish members of Parliament has issued a formal statement, expressing full sympathy with the struggle for a constitutional regime on a Democratic basis, but adding that they preferred to consult their constituents before committing Poland.

Papers Suppressed.
No word of the proceedings of the members of Parliament at Viborg, or of the address adopted, has been permitted to be published. Telegrams from the provinces, telling of the universal indignation aroused by the dissolution and even those from abroad, outlining public opinion in foreign countries, have been emasculated or suppressed. The editions of The Rech, Strana and The Twentieth Century (formerly The Russ), were confiscated as they left the press yesterday morning.

Cossacks Refuse to Fire.
At two meetings Monday night the Cossacks sent to disperse them refused openly to do so, and fraternized with the workmen. This is partially confirmative of the revolutionists' boast that the troops will not fire again upon the people.

Death Sentence.
Proclamation announcing that the death sentence has been imposed on the Emperor, Gen. Treppoff, M. Pobledonostseff, who was procurator-general of the holy synod, Gen. Orloff, the "pacifier" of the Baltic provinces, and others, have been scattered over part of Peterhof. The terrorists are said to have succeeded in nailing copies of the sentence on the doors of Gen. Orloff and Gen. Treppoff's quarters.

Singer Factories Wrecked.
Simultaneously at noon Monday bombs were thrown into four stores of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., located at Sosnowice, Russian Poland, at Bendzin, at Zalwerze and at Czenstochau, wrecking each of the shops and wounding many persons.

Jews Leave Odessa.
Odessa, July 25.—Serious disturbances took place in the remote quarters of Odessa last Monday night. The Jews sought refuge in the centre of the city, many of them leaving Odessa altogether. Two Jews were killed and eight were wounded in Stepoval street here.

Two Already Arrested.
Viborg, Finland, July 25.—During Monday night the members of the outlawed Russian Parliament received word that two of their number had already been arrested, namely, Father Koyarkoff, at Voronezh, and a Cossack deputy, M. Kharlamoff, at Rostov on the Don.

Mutiny of Artillerymen.
Warsaw, July 25.—A band of mutinous artillerymen from the fortress at Brest-Litovsk (130 miles south of Gresno) Monday fired on the officers' Club, where there were many officers gathered. The officers exchanged shots with the mutineers and two of the former were killed. The mutineers finally were surrounded by infantrymen and arrested.

Fourteen More Arrested.
Moscow, July 25.—Fourteen more yesterday attempted to capture all the delegates to the Workmen's Council, but succeeding in capturing only fourteen.

FUR BUYER DRINKS POISON.
Stolen Goods Were Sent Him and He Feared Arrest.

Montreal, July 25.—M. F. St. John, jewelry importer, manufacturer's agent and fur buyer, was found dead in his office at the Temple Building, St. James' street, at 2 o'clock yesterday. Prussic acid seems to have been the means taken by the dead man to put an end to his existence.

Some days ago, Chief Carpenter received word from the chief of police of Chatham, Ont., stating that some stolen furs had been shipped from there to a man by the name of M. F. St. John, 227 Temple Building. The chief sent a man to St. John's office to make some enquiries into the matter, and although the detective did not try to arrest him, the man was very nervous in his presence and gave him reason to believe that in some way, he was connected with the fur shipped from Chatham.

Later, he received another wire from the Chatham police chief, asking for the arrest of A. Furtall, West Notre Dame street. This man, Furtall, was the one wanted for the theft of furs at Chatham, and he is who had shipped them to St. John, who had been arrested yesterday, and it is believed that the fear of arrest led St. John to make away with himself, before the officers came in upon him.

THE INSURANCE INQUIRY.
Commission Begins Work At Winnipeg On Great West Life Co.

Winnipeg, July 25.—The Royal Insurance commission opened an investigation here yesterday into the affairs of the Great West Life Co.

Nothing sensational developed with regard to the methods of organization, the election of officers and distribution of profits or investments.

The salary of President Brock is $15,000 per annum. He maintains that no actual rebates are allowed by the company and that the funds are safely invested in securities paying 7 1/2 per cent.

The investigation will be continued to-day.

Thos. G. Blackstock, K. C., Dead.
Toronto, July 25.—By the death of Thomas G. Blackstock, K. C., which occurred last evening, there is removed one who enjoyed the respect and affection of a large circle of friends in Toronto and elsewhere.

Brilliant in law, he devoted past years rather to the management of business affairs, including the Gooderham estate and the King Edward Hotel, having been president of the hotel company and closely identified with its management after it was opened. Mr. Blackstock suffered from Bright's disease. Mr. Blackstock was born at Streetsville, in 1851, his father being the Rev. W. S. Blackstock, whose death occurred some months ago. In 1880, he was married to the eldest daughter of the late George Gooderham who survives him. The children are three sons and four daughters. George Tate Blackstock, K. C., is a brother.

Honorary Presidents.
Rio de Janeiro, July 25.—At yesterday's session of the International American conference, Baron de Rio Branco, the Brazilian Minister for Foreign Affairs, and United States Secretary of State Root were elected honorary presidents. Conference will reconvene July 26.

To Punish Puljanas.
Manila, July 25.—Governor Ide has requested military aid to punish the Puljanas in the Province of Leyte. A battalion of the 4th and 5th Infantry have been sent to the assistance of the constabulary.

A Great Heat Radiator
"Sunshine" furnaces have a large, heavy sheet-steel dome and radiator, with a wide space between them for the circulation of air.
This gives an immense radiating surface, and means that every atom of heat from the fire is used for heating purposes, and forced through hot-air pipes into the house.
If you need a furnace, you should examine the "Sunshine"—it will save you untold expense, worry and work.
