A BUSHMAN KILLS TWO OF FAMILY

Grim Tragedy Reported From the Wilds of Muskoka.

Posse After Murderer Who is Heavily Armed.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., May 21.—One of the worst tragedies in the history of Ontario was enacted yesterday morning in the bush country 12 miles east of Gravenhurst. As a consequence Mrs. Alfred Countermache and George Countermache are dead and Mrs. George Countermache seriously wounded. The perpetrator of the crime, William Ruttan, father of one of the victims, is a fugitive from justice, and it may require a small army to round him up, as he is said to have disappeared in the woods. The scene of the tragedy is in the Township of Ridout, two and a half miles from Housey's Rapids. The Countermache brothers, George and Alfred and their wives resided in the same house, Ruttan, Alfred's father-in-law, living about half a mile away.

Shot Dead at His Doorstep

George came out of the house this morning, and was cleaning some fish which he had caught the night before when his wife joined him. Ruttan, who was in hiding behind a stump, rose and fired, but apparently missed, and fired the second time, striking George just below the heart, and he dropped dead. His wife fled screaming to the house where she was being held. Ruttan ran into the bedroom of Alfred and followed her into the premises, and being unable to gain admittance to the bedroom, fired a shot through the door. The bullet struck his daughter, Mrs. Alfred, in the finger. He then fired a second shot, striking her in the neck and killing her instantly in her husband's arms.

Intended Victims Escape.

Mrs. George Countermache then broke the window and fled up the road behind the house, and Ruttan fired three shots after her, one striking her just below the knee. She took refuge behind a nearby woodpile, and escaped further injury. Meanwhile Ruttan returned to the room and fired another shot through the door, but Alfred had lain down on the floor, and the shot did not reach its mark. Alfred then escaped, undressed, through the broken window, and ran down a ravine leading from the house. Ruttan fired three shots after him, all of which fortunately escaped their mark, the murderer not being able to secure a good sight of his intended victim, owing to the rough nature of the ground. Ruttan then set fire to the stable nearby. The shots and screams had meantime aroused the entire neighborhood, and in a short time several arrived, but Ruttan had disappeared. He is supposed to have been seen by a son of Mr. Hanes, a neighbor, a few minutes after the shooting, but up to time of writing is still at large.

Armed Posse in Pursuit.

George Countermache leaves three children, while the dead woman was married just a month ago yesterday. Alfred Countermache, who married Mina, Ruttan's daughter, just a month ago, came to Gravenhurst a few days ago to lay a serious charge against his wife's father, Ruttan, the charge being referred to Bracebridge to the district officials, and no doubt Ruttan would have been arrested before the tragedy but for the fact that the officials were away attending the preliminary investigation into the Honey Harbor murder case. The neighbors are taking care of the three

WATERLAND'S TRIP

Maiden Voyage of Big Liner Had an Average Speed of 23.9 Knots.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Waterland, of the Hamburg-American line, the biggest steamer in service, arrived in New York harbor early today on her maiden voyage from Hamburg. Her run yesterday was 594 miles, and her average speed an hour was 23.9 knots.

The Waterland was launched on April 3, 1913. She is 950 feet in length, 100 feet beam and has a tonnage of 35,000. She carries one commodore and four captains, and a total crew of 1,234.
The new giant of the seas received a noisy welcome as she passed up the harbor to her pier in Hoboken, N. J.

Two Prominent Liberals Of Brantford Bolt From Party in Provincial Fight

They Were Leaders of Movement Inaugurated Last Night to Form an Independent Labor Party and Run Candidate of Their Own—Lack of Confidence in Rowell Program.

With Peter Noble, Liberal stalwart of Ward 2, as chief spokesman, and Alfred Parmenter, another well-known Liberal worker in the same ward, acting as chairman, a meeting was held last evening in the Trades and Labor hall for the express purpose of forming a branch of the Independent Labor party of Canada in this city and nominating an independent candidate in the approaching provincial contest. The meeting was well attended, and there were some outspoken remarks, especially from Mr. Peter Noble, who apparently is disgusted with his own party's planks and those who are engineering things locally. For some years past he has been actively identified with the Liberal forces in Ward 2, having been subdivision chairman.

The decision was arrived at that a general meeting of workers should be called and the whole proposition of the nomination of a candidate considered. The meeting last night strongly favored bringing a man out. Chairman Alfred Parmenter said to-day that, from the spirit of the meeting last night, it looked as if an independent labor candidate would be nominated. Mr. Edwards of the Trades and Labor Council was also one of the speakers.

Just what the bolting from the Liberal party lines of such two prominent workers as Messrs. Noble and Parmenter and others, portends might be interpreted, as far as labor is concerned, as a want of confidence in what Mr. Rowell has to offer.

Bill to Abolish Hereditary Titles

MONTRÉAL, May 21.—In House of Commons yesterday, Mr. A. W. H. Ponsonby, Liberal M.P. for Stirling, secured unanimous leave to introduce a bill to abolish hereditary titles, says a London cable to the Daily Mail. He said that all were agreed that the hereditary principle for legislators should lapse. It was a relic of the past and the main cause of the unfathomable snobbishness, sycophancy and flunkeyism in British social life. (Laughter and cries of "Hear, hear".) He concluded with the eldest sons who had no other means of support.

While the bill would not prevent the giving of honors to distinguished men, it would enable the present holders of titles to free themselves from the spurious prominence and the disadvantages and disabilities forced upon them.

BECKER IS NOT TO TAKE STAND IN OWN DEFENCE

His Lawyer Thinks That an Alibi Has Been Sufficiently Established.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The announcement of counsel for the defense that Charles E. Becker would not take the stand in his own behalf to deny the testimony of Jack Rose, Harry Vallon and Bridgie Webber that he ordered the killing of Herman Rosenthal, led to the prediction to-day that the trial would be concluded in short order, and that a verdict in the case might be expected by Saturday.

Only two or three witnesses for the defense remained to be heard to-day, and it was not thought that District Attorney Whitman would call more than three or four in rebuttal. Unless the unexpected happens, Martin T. Manton, chief counsel for the defense, is expected to be well started on his closing argument before adjournment to-day.

Becker, it is stated, was persuaded not to testify only after much argument on the part of his lawyers, who called to their aid Mr. Manton's partner, Bourke Cockran. Becker had insisted that it was necessary that he should personally deny the charge, but was finally won over to his lawyer's way of thinking.

Counsel for Becker said they believed their witness had so far proved an alibi for the ex-police lieutenant, that it would not be necessary for him to personally deny that he attended the so-called murder conferences.

Among the twenty-witnesses heard yesterday were three former aides of Becker on the "strong arm" squad, who testified that he was with them on raids when the alleged conferences were held.

UNIONISTS GAIN IN DERBYSHIRE

Former Labor Seat Lost in Triangular Contest by Narrow Majority.

LONDON, May 20.—The by-election in the northeastern division of Derbyshire, caused by the death of W. E. Harvey, a Labor member has resulted in the election of Major Bowden, the Unionist candidate, who polled 6,469 votes as against 6155 cast for J. P. Houston, Liberal and 3669 for J. Martin, Labor. Major Bowden's majority was 314 over the Liberal and 2800 over the Labor man, but on the combined votes of his opponents he was in a minority by 2486.

At the general election of December 1910, the contest was straight between the late Labor member, who was returned by a majority of 1750, the figures standing 7838 to 6088. At this election the Unionist vote has increased by 281, while the Liberal and Labor vote has risen by 1086. The result again indicates the situation caused by the lack of a working agreement between the Liberal and Labor section of the coalition party.

VILLA MAY HELP PEACE PROMOTION

His Vigorous Campaign Will Have Effect on Mediation.

Representatives of Several Nations Are Now at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 21.—There is a feeling on the part of the principals to the mediation conference here that the savage advance of the Constitutionalist army under General Villa, inevitably must have a bearing upon the settlement of the difficulties between the United States and Huerta party. When the South American mediators withdrew the invitation they had extended to General Carranza to send delegates to the Niagara Falls conference because of the refusal of the Constitutionalist leader to agree to armistice to continue during the sessions, it was stated that the conference would proceed to a consideration of questions growing out of the Tampico incident and subsequent causes of irritation between the Mexican federal army and the American military forces. Official reports coming yesterday from constitutionalist sources reciting the victories of Villa and his army in the Sattillo campaign, have convinced the Mexican representatives here that Huerta's foes cannot be stopped.

Moreover, the execution of a Federal general and his entire staff by Villa has impressed upon them the fact that leaders of the Federal army cannot hope for mercy if they fall into the hands of the constitutionalists.

That the weakening situation of the Federal forces may force Huerta's hand is recognized here. The Mexican delegates came here believing that any announcement of Huerta's

BECKER CASE IS CLOSED

Jury Will Probably Start Tomorrow to Reach Decision.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Both prosecution and defence in the case of Charles Becker, on trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, rested before noon to-day. The case will be in the hands of the jury before noon to-morrow and Becker's fate may be decided before night. But one witness was called by the state in rebuttal to-day.

After both sides rested court was adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when, it was announced, Martin T. Manton, Becker's chief counsel, would begin his address to the jury. At 8 o'clock to-night District Attorney Whitman will make his closing address. He will conclude probably about 11 o'clock and court will be adjourned until 10.30 o'clock to-morrow morning, when Justice Seabury will deliver his charge.

This will occupy about an hour. The jury will then retire to determine whether Becker, as a lieutenant of the "strong arm squad" conceived the plot that resulted in the murder of the Tonderlin gambler, who "squealed" to the district attorney, and for which four men have paid the death penalty.

AMERICANS OUT OF GOLF TOURNEY

SANDWICH, England, May 21.—Charles W. Evans, Jr., of Chicago, and Harold Weber of Toledo, the only two American players who had fought their way to the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship, met defeat to-day at the hands of two Scotsmen, C. B. MacFarlane and Captain Cecil K. Hutchison, respectively.

Harold H. Hilton, the holder of the title, shared their fate, being beaten by Edward Blackwell, another prominent Scottish player.

None of the Americans looked like a winner at any period of to-day's matches with one exception, when Evans made a splendid effort in the last third of the round. He had, however, already handicapped himself too heavily to make his revival anything more than a forlorn hope.

Real Row Is Quelled By Police Against the Militants In London

Mrs. Pankhurst and Others Were Placed Under Arrest—Lively Skirmish Took Place When Women Attempted to Interview the King—Crowds Gathered Early on Constitution Hill.

LONDON, May 21.—The police today broke up a large column of militant suffragette raiders who were attempting to march on Buckingham Palace for the purpose of handing a petition to King George when the women reached the top of Constitution Hill leading to the palace, the police dispersed them and arrested Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and several other leaders.

The skirmish between the police and the suffragettes outside the gates of Green Park was very lively while it lasted.

Mrs. Pankhurst surrounded by a bodyguard, consisting of several hundred suffragettes suddenly appeared from the portal of a residence opposite the park, crossed the roads to the gates and attempted to march down the drive leading to the palace.

Mounted police then barred their progress and the women who were armed with sticks attempted to cut their way through the lines of patrolmen. They fought with vigor using their sticks with such force that the police charged. Several women were injured in the struggle and the raiders were finally driven back, but left Mrs. Pankhurst and a number of her lieutenants in the clutches of the police while on the ground was a considerable collection of remnants of garments which had been torn off the women in the hand-to-hand fighting. The police also suffered some casualties during the fierce onslaught made on them by the women.

King George himself was an interested spectator of earlier movements of his protection which he watched from a window of Buckingham Palace.

Park Was Crowded LONDON, May 21.—St. James' Park and grounds of Buckingham Palace were crowded with police from an early hour this morning, the mobilization of 1,500 men having ordered for the purpose of opposing the projected attempt by militant suffragettes to present a petition to King George.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader of the militants had announced that she would lead a great procession to the royal residence, but it was said that she probably would be arrested under provisions of the "cat and mouse act" if she put in an appearance as she was released from prison only provisionally.

The police formed a complete ring around the palace and its grounds as the women had threatened to scale the high walls enclosing the gardens. All the detectives from police headquarters at Scotland Yard were on duty and a body of 1,000 more patrolmen were held in reserve in case of emergency.

THE BIG LINER BREAKS AWAY

The Waterland Was Too Big a Load for Tugs to Handle.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The giant liner Waterland broke away from tugs conveying her to her dock to-day and began drifting down the Hudson carried by the tide. At times she swung broadside across the river.

When the Waterland was headed in for her pier, more than fifty tugs had her in charge. As her bow neared the pier the strong ebb tide caught the vessel at the stern and began to swing her around, heading her straight for a wooden pier nearby. There was a shouting of orders, and the big whistle on the liner boomed, and the hawsers on the tugs were let go.

The vessel began to back under her own power and was soon out in the stream again almost in the path of the Lackawanna ferry boats. The tugs began to manoeuvre about her again, but the big liner slowly drifted southward. In the grip of the strong ebb tide the big steamship was seemingly almost helpless. She was carried steadily down stream toward the Battery.

EXCITEMENT AT CALGARY

CALGARY, May 21.—The city continues to seethe with excitement over the oil situation. Fully 200 brokerage offices have been opened. These offices were thronged yesterday with buyers. New issues snapped up quickly. One company selling out in two hours. One prominent company closed a spectacular campaign at 9 o'clock last night with a total subscription of over $300,000.

CARSON HAD A MESSAGE INTERCEPTED

Nationalists Warn Against Ulsterites.

Provincial Government When Home Rule Passes.

DUBLIN, May 21.—The Catholic clergy of the south and west of Ireland are not hesitating to express their approval of the Irish Nationalist volunteer movement, thus counterbalancing the pulp activities of the Protestant clergy of Ulster.

At a volunteer inaugural meeting at Tipperary, Monsignor Ryan, apologizing for his inability to attend, sent a message full of sympathy, though asserting the arming was only intended to keep the shores of Ireland inviolate, and not a fight against the Boyne, Monsignor Kilkenny, at Clare Morris, said the menace to Home Rule would lose force if the Orangemen were confronted with an army of trained and armed Nationalists, and then the Government would not have any excuse to fritter away the value of the Home Rule bill by concessions.

Throughout Munster numerous corps are being formed, invariably with the approval of the parish priests. In Derry a number of ex-naval men have joined, sufficient to create a naval corps, the first in Ireland. The Nationalists in Derry, through Commander McGilchey, have telegraphed to Premier Asquith an absolute guarantee that Carson's provisional government cannot be established there, and that National volunteers are prepared to co-operate with the policy of the military in upholding the law of the land.

How the "Plot" Was Unearthed.

LONDON, May 21.—Light has now been thrown upon the message sent the Premier by the Nationalist volunteers to prevent the establishment of a provisional government. These volunteers claim that they have discovered a plot on the part of the Orangemen to set up a provisional government immediately on the passing of the Home Rule bill next week. It is said that the Ulster volunteers were to receive directions from the Belfast headquarters to seize within the next few days certain populous centres in the province.

This plot came to light through an accident to a Carsonite emissary whose motorcycle skidded. Good Samaritans who helped the injured man became possessed of information which he was carrying which taken into conjunction with the great activity of a number of covered automobiles to take instant measures to meet the situation. Enrollment proceeded vigorously, reaching 3,000 men on Tuesday. Then it was decided to communicate with the chiefs of the party in Westminster, asking them to inform the Government that their organization in Derry was strong enough to defeat any attempt to establish a provisional government at Derry. Definite information concerning Carsonite plans to hold up Ulster is lacking, but interfering with transport communication services is apprehended as one of the principal moves.

Several thousand men attended a convention at Nationalists at Tyrone yesterday, when the proceedings were held within closed doors, but it is understood that they dealt with the threatened coup by the Ulster volunteers.

BRITAIN KEEPS SECRET OF SAFETY AEROPLANE

The King is Enthusiastic After Witnessing a Flight—Problem of Safe Landing Still to be Solved.

LONDON, May 21.—It is stated that the Government wishes to maintain the secret of the new safety aeroplane which is the property of the War Department. While this would give a great advantage to the British army aerial service, it is pointed out by some that it would be against the interests of humanity in the conquest of the air. The King is enthusiastic over the new machine. After witnessing a flight at Aldershot he exclaimed: "Why haven't you a hundred of these in the army?"

Col. Seely, Secretary for War, in an interview said the invention of the machine was due to the brains of many men. Four organizations had played a part, namely; the National Physical Laboratory, the Advisory Committee on Aeronautics, the Royal aircraft factory and experimental fliers.

"The new aeroplane," he said, "is inherently not automatically stable, that is to say its stability depends on the shape, not on any mechanical attachment. The secret can be applied to the monoplane as well as to the biplane. The new aeroplane, which is all British and all the product of British brains, except the engine, has been put to all manner of trials. It has been flown in a gale, flung at air pockets and eddies, and banked steeply, and has proved stable in all ways. A novice can quite safely control it in the air, but still the greatest problem of all remains to be solved—that of safe landing. I have flown hundreds of miles, and know that this is one thing that is checking the advance of flying."

HOME RULE BILL BECOMES LAW ON TUESDAY NEXT

That Is, If It Is Adopted by the House on Its Third Reading.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

LONDON, May 21.—Irish home rule bill entered on its last stage in the House of Commons to-day. The vote on the third reading of the measure is to be taken on May 29th, after which it passes it will become law under the provisions of the parliament act as it will have been passed three times by the House of Commons in three separate sessions.

Premier Asquith to-day declined to state the terms of the proposed amending bill at this stage and reiterated from the position that any suggestions which might render its proposals in regard to Ulster more acceptable. As there was no precedent, however the government insisted that it must have the firm judgment of the House of Commons on the main principles of the bill. The government he concluded, would never recede an inch from the position that the bill was wise and statesmanlike.

The premier announced that the amending bill would be introduced in the House of Lords and the Commons would have the last and determining voice in the matter.

The sitting of the House of Commons was suspended until tomorrow in consequence of the persistent disorderliness of the Opposition members, who thus succeeded in forcing an adjournment; the motion for which had just been defeated by a vote of 286 to 176.

Immediately after the vote had been taken the Unionists started the refrain, "Adjourn, adjourn." The uproar was long and loud. The speaker finally arose and asked A. Bonar Law, the leader of the Opposition, where he assented in the demonstration. Amid shouts from his supporters of "Don't answer," Mr. Law refused to reply, and the speaker declared the sitting suspended, saying there was nothing else he could do, as Mr. Law declined to assist him in maintaining order.

Premier Asquith and his colleagues in the cabinet, who remained in their seats, were fiercely assailed with abusive epithets by the Opposition, to which the ministerialists replied with cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs.

Yanked by Derrick.

An incident occurred on the Lake Erie and Northern railroad which has a peculiarly humorous phase to it. While a gang was working beside the golf links a landslide of several tons occurred, and the men were buried to different degrees, but one foreigner, although only embedded in his waist, could not be extricated by the efforts of his friends, and as shovels would have been of little avail, a derrick was brought into use and a rope was fastened around the imprisoned man's waist, and he was gently and bodily hauled from his uncomfortable position, yelling in his mother tongue, which was not English. He was none the worse for his experience.

John Wellington of Lindsay was killed by the Grand Trunk Flyer from Peterboro' at a level crossing. The Duke of Connaught spent the first day of his Toronto visit in varied activities attended by large crowds. The peace conference opened at Niagara Falls. The scene of the Irish Home rule fight has shifted to Ulster for the Whitsuntide recess.

Jarvis Family Hold Reunion

A very interesting family reunion was celebrated yesterday in the parlors of Russell and Company, when the ten members of the Jarvis family gathered to celebrate the 42nd anniversary of the birth of their brother, Mr. Fred Jarvis, who resides at 38 Gilkinson street. About three hours were spent in the spacious parlors, and after a sumptuous repast had been served by Mine Host Russell, Mr. Fred Jarvis was presented with a signet ring by his brothers and sisters. A remarkable fact about the Jarvis family is that for the past 56 years there has not been a break in the family. The youngest member, Mrs. R. Wonch, of this city, is 38 years of age, and the oldest member, Mrs. F. H. Kitchen, of Paris, is 62 years of age. All the family are married and have children, in all 45 nephews and nieces. There are twenty-two grandchildren, of which Mrs. E. Mosher, Dayton, Ont., has eleven.

Another remarkable fact about the family is that their weights average only one pound each. Only three of their number weigh less than 200 pounds. Their father and mother, who are both dead, were also big people.

The following is the family, their ages and weight:

Mrs. F. H. Kitchen, Paris, 62 years, 260 lbs.

Mrs. E. Mosher, Dayton, 58 years, 240 pounds.

Mrs. I. Reed, London, 52 years, 210 pounds.

Mr. H. E. Jarvis, Hamilton, 40 years, 210 pounds.

J. W. Jarvis, Waterton, 54 years, 145 pounds.

Grant Jarvis, city, 49 years, 190 pounds.

Wesley Jarvis, city, 47 years, 200 pounds.

Fred Jarvis, city, 42 years, 200 pounds.

Mrs. J. Morian, city, 45 years, 210 pounds.

Mrs. R. Wonch, 38 years, 150 pounds.

Their combined weights amount to 2015 pounds. The family is a strictly temperance family throughout.

Deceived.

"Mr. Chumpley," he presently said, "what is a popinjay?"

Sister's beau wrinkled his forehead.

"Why, a popinjay is a-a vain bird."

"Are you a bird, Mr. Chumpley?"

"No, boy, I'm not."

"That's funny, Ma said you was a popinjay, and pa said there was no doubt about your bein' a jav, an' sister said there was small hopes of your poppin', and now you say you ain't a bird at all. That's funny."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sir James Laughs At Election Talk

TORONTO, May 21.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals in the Dominion Government was in conference with the Ontario cabinet this morning. He members were in session for nearly two hours and a persistent rumor spread that something definite had been done in the way of an election. All the members refused to discuss the question, but the visit of Hon. Frank Cochrane was significant. It is the man who organized Ontario's forces for the struggle against reciprocity in 1911, and it was hinted that his visit had much to do with the deciding of the date for the election. But he in the confidence of the government will not even consent to say that there will be an election. The Premier and the other members of the cabinet regard the subject as a good joke on all the newspapermen and when the matter is broached they laugh and condescend to ignore an immediate election.

"An election?" ejaculated Sir James Whitney this morning when interviewed to-day. "An election did you say? Who said there was going to be an election? I haven't heard of it." "Have you any information for the public at all either one way or the other?"

"If there was anything to be said about an election then I would be quite willing to talk," replied the premier. "I don't know anything about the matter, and haven't heard about it," and Sir James passed on chuckling to himself.

Inspector Is On Life And Death Mission

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

TORONTO, May 21.—Chief of Provincial Detectives Joseph Rogers received notice over the phone of the terrible crime committed yesterday in the bush country ten miles from Bracebridge. This morning Inspector of Provincial Detectives Greer left Toronto for the scene of the double murder. The case and the responsibility for the capture of Ruttan, the murderer, has been left in the hands of Detective Greer, and the officer will shoot Ruttan on sight should the farmer not be captured before his arrival.

It was feared by the officers at Toronto, that the desperado would end his life in the bush sooner than be captured. Chief Rogers realized that he was sending Detective Greer on a very dangerous mission and he warned the officer to take no chances with his man. The heads of the department in Toronto have been warned that Ruttan is a man who would kill anybody sooner than allow them to lay hands on him.

The question of the right to shoot murder is not being discussed just now, but in view of the terrible crime he is alleged to have committed, it is more than likely that Detective Greer and his posse will shoot first and ask questions afterwards.

The formation of a Canadian Naval Reserve of twelve companies, one hundred men each, in Atlantic, Great Lakes and Pacific divisions, has been provided for by order in Council.

VILLA MAY HELP

attitude toward proposals looking to a settlement of the Mexican trouble would be left to them to announce, and their strongest card was believed to be authority given by Huerta to agree to his effacement conditional upon the selection of a temporary government acceptable to the interests represented by him.

All this has been changed by Villa's successes. The Federal forces on Tuesday exhibited no love of fight, and the leaders are not expected to offer the stubborn resistance that marked so many of the engagements with the army steadily advancing upon the Mexican capital. As a result, Huerta's supporters fear that he dare not await the outcome of the mediation. It was because of this feeling that all principals of the conference yesterday accepted unhesitatingly a despatch from Mexico City, saying that Huerta himself had confirmed reports that he was willing to retire if his resignation was necessary to peace. Later it was learned that there had been an error in transmission and Huerta had not authorized such a statement, but this did not materially did not change the situation. It was evident that some such announcement was not unexpected.

If Villa and his forces are kept out of Mexico City, according to belief here, it will not be because Huerta is strong enough to deny entrance to his enemies. Such an advent can be avoided, it is said, by speedy solution of the problem confronting the A. B. C. mediators, and few believe this to be possible except through the prompt and complete capitulation of Huerta to all of the demands of the Washington Government. With the solution of this problem and the Republics of Central and South America in accord concerning the future policy of Mexico, the mediators believe that Carrenza, Villa and their associates would subscribe to their findings, and blood shed would end.

With the arrival at midnight of Eduardo Suarez, the Chilean minister, who had been delayed in his journey from Washington, the mediation conference was ready to proceed with its personnel completed.

The mediators planned to meet late in the afternoon with the three Mexican delegates, and as the case of their conference with the American representatives last night, it was expected they would informally outline to them their views of the situation as a basis for more formal procedure. Although no definite program was announced, it was thought possible that later in the day there would be a full conference of both sides of the controversy for an exchange of views that might lead to first definite working basis of negotiation.

The Holidays.

"Certainly it is lazy always to go to the same place, just as it is lazy to look at the outside of the last new epoch-making novel and then, with a happy little groan, like that of a dog settling into his basket, turn to 'Vanity Fair' or 'David Copperfield.'"—Times.

A Substantial Two-Story House

DESIGNED BY CHAS. S. SEDGWICK, ARCHITECT.

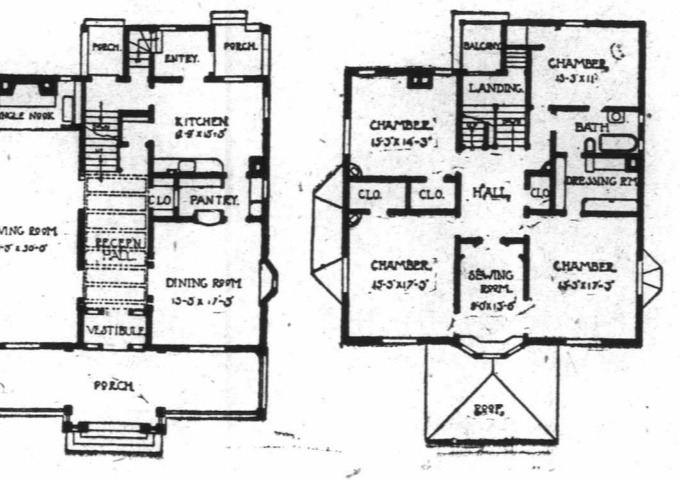

The plain substantial house illustrated is built on colonial lines, "a square house" with rooms of liberal dimensions and designed with a symmetrical front, with wide central entrance porch and extended terrace on each side. A liberal sized vestibule with outside and inside glazed doors with sidelights opens into a wide hall extending through the center, with the main staircase carried up at the rear of the same. The living room on the left is 15 ft. by 30 ft. with a wide projected bay window at the side and at the end of the room a wide open fireplace with book shelves on either side.

The dining room on the right-hand side connects through the pantry into the kitchen. All of these rooms have liberal dimensions. The finish of the first floor is in oak, with a beam ceiling in the hall. The second story has four large chambers and a sewing room with bath room and ample closets and dressing room opening off from one chamber. This floor is finished in white enamel with birch floor.

The third story has large space that may be finished in rooms, but is not included in this estimate. The basement is full and complete under the whole house, with ample space for laundry, heating apparatus, fuel, etc.

The exterior of the house is covered with narrow siding and the roof shingled. All shingles stained green and the exterior of the house painted a light cream tint, with all sash white. The estimated cost is $8,000 to $8,000, not including heating or plumbing.

motherless children of George Countermache, and also of Mrs. Alfred, who is in a delicate state of health. Feeling is at a high pitch in the neighborhood, and it is understood the reeve is swearing in a number of constables to assist in the capture. Dr. McLeay, the coroner; Dr. Grant, and Chief Sloan went out in a car and swore in a jury. A verdict was returned stating that death resulted from shots from a gun in the hands of one William Ruttan. The shooting was done with a combination double-barreled gun, shotgun and rifle. Ruttan, who is known as "Black Bill," lives a life entirely in the woods, is a crack shot, and is greatly feared by the entire community. No doubt the action of his son-in-law had enraged him to such an extent that he determined to annihilate the entire party.

Mr. Asquith's Dress.

Mr. Asquith may be the greatest parliamentarian of his age, but his habits of dress must be a constant source of pain to political dandies. For some unknown reason his tailor invariably allows him to wear his waistcoat too short. The result is that when Mr. Asquith is speaking on a platform the reporters at the Press table are always fascinated by white shirt line between the top of his trousers and the waistcoat. And the Premier's trousers are as baggy as those worn by Sir George Alexander in "The Two Virtues."—Daily Sketch.

Valuable Properties For Sale by Tender

Tenders will be received, addressed to the undersigned, for the purchase of the following mentioned valuable properties, up to and including Saturday, the 30th of May, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon:

THE BRITISH SITUATION.

Notwithstanding the pessimistic reports being received from the O.I.L. Land day after day, and stories of two rival armies being drilled in Ireland, the outlines of a broad and honorable settlement of the Home Rule Controversy can be plainly discerned.

During the year the following questions were addressed to District Representatives: 1. The percentage of farms mortgaged and per cent of mortgage on value of farms, and whether increasing or decreasing.

2. The extent of deposits by farmers in savings banks. 3. Whether the loans are on the purchasing of land only or for financing farm operations.

The answers elicited the fact that about 45 per cent of the farms of the Province are mortgaged to some extent. This means that mortgages against farm property in the Province represent only about 15 per cent of the total value of farm property, which must be taken as a very encouraging sign.

All the reasons now urged against Home Rule, were urged against the Irish County Councils measure—intolerance, incompetence, extravagance. Lord Salisbury went so far as to state that it would be worse than Home Rule.

In the matter of deposits of farmers there was also a unanimity of opinion that these had increased materially in recent years. In one County the bankers estimated that the deposits had increased from 20 per cent to 30 per cent in the last few years.

SOME FARM FACTS.

The annual report of the Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, discloses some interesting facts. It is pointed out that at the last Session of the Federal Parliament an Act was passed at the instigation of the Federal Minister of Agriculture setting aside the sum of ten million dollars to be spent for agricultural instruction and demonstration through the Provinces, covering a period of ten years.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Since Villa is reported to be illiterate, the A.B.C. peace-making business ought to be of advantage to him. The supreme advantage in forming a "Bull Moose" party lies in the fact that the leadership is never in doubt.

A man named Dolittle was sent to jail for doing nothing. Sometimes the English language seems hardly emphatic enough. The city is your home, your house is where you sleep. When cleaning up the place where you sleep, don't overlook your home.

It is announced that the gas area of Lambton County is growing big. The Ottawa area was also going strong at last accounts. The man who gets a Liberal nomination in Ontario these days feels just about as cheerful as most people do when they are handed a large and juicy lemon.

of the South Riding of Brant

A meeting of the Conservatives of the South Riding of Brant will be held at Conservative headquarters, corner of Dalhousie and King Streets, in the City of Brantford, in the County of Brant, on Thursday, May 21st, 1914, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Provincial Legislature of the Province of Ontario.

All Conservatives invited. Only those will be entitled to vote who are duly elected delegates.

W. M. CHARLTON, President. GOD SAVE THE KING

The ANNUAL MEETING of the Conservative Association of the North Riding of Brant will be held in the Conservative Club Room Paris at 3 o'clock, on Saturday, May 23 for the election of officers and general business.

Nominating Convention

A nominating convention to select a candidate for the Provincial Legislature will be held immediately afterwards. Some member of the Government, together with the local representatives and others, will be present and address the meeting.

Everybody Welcome GOD SAVE THE KING Dr. F. H. Johnston, L. A. LaPierre, Pres.

certainly making all kinds of an exhibition of himself these days. When he was impeached by Parliament, President Yuan Shi-Kai of China dismissed it. There is always a way out of these little difficulties if one thinks hard enough.

It begins to look as if the advertising manager of the Panama-Pacific Exposition had engineered the attitude of England and Germany to the big show for business purposes. If Premier Asquith and President Wilson could only steal away some day and listen to the discussions in some of our smoking compartments or boarding house tables, what a lot of worry would be saved!

A former Londoner who has just returned from Mexico where he had ample opportunity to study Villa at close range, states that he is big, strong, good-natured and the possessor of a wonderful personality. Starting a very few years ago with a sprinkling of outlaws, he has developed an army which is well drilled and he is the idol of his men. He adds: "Villa is illiterate, having no education whatever, but he has a genius for war." As to that more than one military figure has lacked knowledge even with regard to the three Rs.

In the matter of deposits of farmers there was also a unanimity of opinion that these had increased materially in recent years. In one County the bankers estimated that the deposits had increased from 20 per cent to 30 per cent in the last few years.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

The Arabs did not wait to learn the identity of the oncomers. With a parting volley, as they dashed by the position which Tarzan and Abdul were holding, they plunged off along the road toward Sidi Aissa. A moment later Kadour ben Saden and his men dashed up.

"Why did you not tell me that you contemplated ambushing those fellows?" asked the sheik in a hurt tone.

"We might have had them all instead of killing only two if the seven of us had stopped to meet them." "It was to prevent the transfer of my own quarrel to another's shoulders that Abdul and I stopped off to question them. Then there is your daughter. I could not be the cause of exposing her needlessly to the marksmanship of six men."

Kadour ben Saden shrugged his shoulders. He did not relish having been cheated out of a fight. "The little battle so close to Bou Saada had drawn out a company of soldiers. Tarzan and his party met them just outside the town. The officer in charge halted them to learn the significance of the shots.

"A handful of marauders," replied Kadour ben Saden. "They attacked two of our number who had dropped the bows, but when we returned to them the fellows soon dispersed. They left two dead. None of my party was injured."

"This seemed to satisfy the officer, and after taking the names of the party he marched his men on toward the scene of the skirmish to bring back the dead men for purposes of identification if possible. Two days later Kadour ben Saden, with his daughter and followers, rode south through the pass below Bou Saada, bound for their home in the far wilderness. The sheik had urged Tarzan to accompany him, and the girl had added her entreaties to those of her father; but though he could not explain it to them, Tarzan's duties were so peculiarly large after the happenings of the past few days that he could not think of leaving his post for an instant. But he promised to come later if it lay within his power to do so, and they had to content themselves with that assurance.

During these two days Tarzan had spent practically all his time with Kadour ben Saden and his daughter. He was keenly interested in this race of stern and dignified warriors and embraced the opportunity which their friendship offered to learn what he could of their lives and customs. In his head revolved an idea that when he had completed his mission he would resign and return to live for the remainder of his life with the tribe of Kadour ben Saden.

The front of the Hotel du Petit Sahara, where Tarzan stopped in Bou Saada, is taken up with the bar, two dining rooms and the kitchens. Both of the dining rooms open directly off the bar, and one of them is reserved for the use of the officers of the garrison. As you stand in the barroom you may look into either of the dining rooms if you wish.

It was to the bar that Tarzan repaired after speeding Kadour ben Saden and his party on their way. It was yet early in the morning, for Kadour ben Saden had elected to ride far that day, so that it happened that when Tarzan returned there were guests still at breakfast.

As his casual glance wandered into the officers' dining room Tarzan saw something which brought a look of interest to his eyes. Lieutenant Gernois was sitting there, and as Tarzan looked a white-robed Arab approached and, bending, whispered a few words into the lieutenant's ear. Then he passed on out of the building through another door.

In itself the thing was nothing, but as the man had stooped to speak to the officer Tarzan caught sight of something which the accidental parting of the man's burmose revealed—he carried his left arm in a sling.

CHAPTER IX. Numa "El Adrea"

ON the same day that Kadour ben Saden brought Tarzan a letter from D'Arnot which had been forwarded from Sidi-bel-Abbes. Here is the letter: My Dear Jean—Since last I wrote you I have been across to London on a matter of business. It was there but three days. The very first day I came upon an old friend of yours quite unexpectedly in Henrietta street. Now you never in the world would guess whom. None other than Mr. Samuel T. Philander. But it is not in this story that I am interested. Nor is this all. He insisted that I return to the hotel with him, and there I found the others—Professor Archimede, the wife, Miss Porter to contemplate the awful death of his father's death. It is to be a very quiet affair—only blood relatives.

While I was alone with Mr. Philander the old fellow became rather confidential; said Miss Porter had already postponed the wedding on several different occasions. He confessed that it appeared to him that she was not particularly anxious to marry him at all, but that she was doing so out of respect for her father and only spoke to them of your present affairs.

Miss Porter was especially interested in everything I had to say about you and asked many questions. I am afraid I look a rather unchivalrous delight in picturing your desire and resolve to go back eventually to your native jungle. I was sorry afterward, for it did seem to cause her real anguish to contemplate the awful dangers to which you wished to return. "And yet," she said, "I do not know. There are more unhappy fates that Tarzan. At least his conscience will be free from remorse. At times I long to return there, for I cannot but feel that the happiest moments of my life were spent there."

There was an expression of ineffable sadness on her face as she spoke. Clayton appeared nervous and ill at ease while you were the subject of conversation. He wore a worried and harassed expression, yet he was very kindly in his expressions of interest in you. "I wonder if he suspects anything about you?" "Tennington came in with Clayton. They are great friends, you know. He is about to set out upon a tour of his interminable estate in that yacht of his and was urging the entire party to accompany him. Tried to inveigle me into it too. In thinking of circumventing Africa this time. Yesterday I met the Count and Countess de Coude at the races. They inquired after you. Doesn't appear to harbor the least ill will. Olga is as beautiful as ever. But a trifle. She asked me to tell you that Nikolaus had left France. She paid him 20,000 francs to go away and stay. She is congratulating herself that she is rid of him before he tried to carry out a threat he recently made her that he should kill you at the first opportunity he had.

Have been ordered back to my ship. She sails from Havre in two days under sealed orders. If you will address me in her care she will write you as soon as another opportunity presents. Your sincere friend, PAUL D'ARNOT.

"I felt," mused Tarzan, half aloud, "that Olga has thrown away her 20,000 francs." He read over that part of D'Arnot's letter several times in which he had quoted from his conversation with Jane Porter. Tarzan derived a rather pathetic happiness from it, but it was better than no happiness at all. The following three weeks at Bou Saada were quite uneventful. Gernois, never cordial, kept more than ever aloof from Tarzan since the episode in the dining room of the hotel at Adrea. His attitude on the few occasions that they had been thrown together had been distinctly hostile.

"That he might keep up the appearance of the character he was playing Tarzan spent considerable time hunting in the vicinity of Bou Saada. Once, probably because of the fact that he rode alone, he was likely to have lost his life. He was riding slowly through a little ravine when a shot sounded close behind him and a bullet passed through the cork helmet he wore. Although he turned at once and galloped rapidly to the top of the ravine, there was no sign of any enemy, nor did he see aught of another human being until he reached Bou Saada.

"Yes," he soliloquized in recalling the occurrence, "Olga has indeed thrown away her 20,000 francs." "One night he was Captain Gerard's guest at a little dinner. "You hunting has not been very fortunate?" questioned the officer. "No," replied Tarzan. "I think I shall move on farther south and have a try at some of your Algerian lions." "Good!" exclaimed the captain. "We are marching toward Djelfa on the morrow. You shall have company that far at least. Lieutenant Gernois and I, with 100 men, are ordered south to patrol a district in which the marauders are giving considerable trouble. Possibly we may have the pleasure of hunting the lion together. What say you?"

Tarzan was more than pleased, nor did he hesitate to say so, but the captain would have been astonished had he known the real reason of Tarzan's pleasure. Gernois was sitting opposite the ape-man. He had not seen so pleased with his captain's invitation.

PERFECT CURE FOR THE KIDNEYS

Suffered For 10 Months With Terrible Kidney Trouble Until He Learned Of GIN PILLS

"I suffered misery even when under treatment from the best doctors for ten months, and nothing seemed to do me any good or relieve my painful condition. My trouble was Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder. I finally determined to go to the Victoria Hospital, Halifax, for treatment. Two days, however, before my intended departure, a neighbor called and happening to have a GIN PILL in his pocket insisted on my taking it. I did so, and six hours after derived very simply nothing short of miraculous. Instead of going to the hospital, I sent for a box of GIN PILLS, I recommend GIN PILLS to everyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Troubles." LEWIS MACPHERSON.

He took up the study of mining engineering and coming to Canada at the age of twenty was appointed Engineer and Land Company, a position he held for five years. He then became a government inspector of mines for a short time and later went into the hardware business in Victoria, B.C. His interest in the militia brought him into some prominence and he rose to be the commanding officer of the British Columbia Brigade of Garrison Artillery, also acting as commandant of the Canadian Biscuit Team in 1890. He entered the House of Commons in 1883 and held seat there until 1904.

THE VOTING REMEDY

If nothing could make us joyous we'd all be gay as geese; no troubles would ever annoy us, and there'd be no end of peace. The orators of implore us to vote for some certain jay, and then all the woes that bore us will wither and blow away. We vote as we are requested, the jay to an office goes, and still we are all infested by numerous griefs and woes. We list to the language jammers, who labor with tireless jaws, when we should be out with hammers or axes or plows or saws. I look on my home—it's paid for—my garden, with beans and peas; my ponies, you'd like to trade for—and voting brought none of these. I look on my well-settable with beefsteak, and pie and cheese, and 'twould be a measly fable to say that my vote brought these. I look on my pile of stovewood, which says that I shall not freeze, and marry a fruitful cove would say voting brings sticks like these. My pipe dreaming neighbor hollers, "Come in, for the voting's fine!" I labor and earn the dollars, and pickle the same in brine. My load I am daily toting with chores instead of tears; that is better than all the voting you will do in a thousand years.

Oil for Streets

City Official Thinks a Trial Would Result in Big Economy.

The opinion was expressed to-day by a city official that the city council should give street oiling another trial in this city. He pointed out the great saving in money it would make and also better results would be accomplished with less work. At present the water wagons go over the same ground four to six times a day and fifteen minutes after they pass the streets are dry and the dust is as bad as ever. With the oil the roads do not need to be gone over more than twice all summer.

When the oil was given a trial here before, a great objection, which was raised to it was the disagreeable odor which arises from it. This odor according to the official, has been taken away from the street-oil which is now used.

In his opinion the city should give the oil another trial and a great number of the citizens would stand behind him should anything be done.

With the City Police

George Good and John Symons had a few words on Thursday last week and John Symons is alleged to have used threatening language toward Good, at whose instance he was charged with that offence. Since then they had met and Good agreed to withdraw the charge, but he did not appear at the police court this morning to confirm this, and the case was adjourned for a week.

Florence Blanchard charged three young women with damage to property, but the magistrate did not think the damage was malicious, and therefore he had no jurisdiction. Complaint said her new carpet had been scorched and marked with grease, and a table cloth had been spoiled. The girls said they had offered to pay the damage, but they had never been given a chance to settle.

Mabel Tysoe claimed $11.83 as wages owed to her by Harry Stayley late manager of the Empire Theatre. He did not put in an appearance this morning, but he has written to the magistrate and said he will answer the charges against him. He says that he has some money coming to him, but as yet it has not materialized. When Miss Tysoe heard this, she said that she had no faith in that story, as e had always told her the same tale.

Peter Maracle gained the magistrate's sympathy when he was charged with being a vagrant, this morning. His parents at Chippewa had ill-treated him, and he had run away from home. Maracle, who is an Indian youth of nineteen, is almost blind, suffering from cataract and was found asleep in the gore park. Major Smith saw the youth this morning, and will make enquiries in the case, and in the meantime Maracle will be looked after in the town jail, where special arrangements will be made for his comfort.

The city marked a $2,500,000 bond issue in Toronto at a price equal to par in Britain.

EARL GREY IS UNDISPOSED

He Left Winnipeg Against the Advice of His Attending Physicians. WINNIPEG, Man., 21 - Suffering from indisposition brought about by a chill contracted on the railroad journey from Vancouver and acting against the advice of the house surgeon of the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Earl Grey left Winnipeg for the east last night. Pressing engagements in the east necessitated his leaving. His lordship was wheeled from his room to the train in an invalid chair. He is not accompanied by a medical adviser. During the afternoon Sir Douglas Cameron and Premier Roblin waited upon his lordship. It was Earl Grey's intention to attend a function at government house, but he was unable to be present. Accompanying Earl Grey on the trip are the Countess of Grey, Lady Sybil Grey, Lady Evelyn Grey and Lawrence Jones. The party will sail from Montreal next Thursday.

A NEW FACTORY

Brantford Scale Company is Making Splendid Progress in This City. The Brantford Scale Company, Limited, is one of the smaller local concerns which in the past year or two has gone rapidly ahead. The quarters on Dalhousie street have become altogether too small, and recently it was decided to increase the capital stock to $150,000 and to erect a new factory. Property has been secured on Grey St., and a two story building will be erected, 50 by 130 feet. There are now some twenty hands employed, and in the new structure it is expected that this number will be speedily increased to 40 or 50. The scales turned out have many important features, the invention of Mr. Howard, the manager, and they have a very ready sale.

A BROKEN RIB

Tyrus Cobb Will be Out of the Game for Ten Days or More. [By Special Wire to the Courier] DETROIT, Mich., May 21. - A despatch received here from Boston says Tyrus Cobb, the Detroit outfielder, has a broken rib, and will be out of the game for a week or ten days at least. The injury was received Monday in the game with Boston, when Foster hit Cobb with a pitched ball. An X-ray examination made disclosed the fracture. Although Cobb is in considerable pain, the break is said to be not serious, and is expected to heal rapidly. This is the first time in the Georgian's major league career that he has been out of the lineup because of an injury.

HON. PRESIDENCY ACCEPTED BY DUKE

Letter Received by Mr. Cockshutt, M. P., from His Royal Highness the Governor-General. The following letter explains itself: Government House, Ottawa, 18th May, 1914. Dear Mr. Cockshutt: In answer to your letter of May 15th, I am commanded by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught to inform you, as President of the Bell Telephone Memorial Association, that he will be very glad to accept the office of Honorary President of the Association in question in place of the late Lord Strathcona. As regards the suggestion that His Royal Highness should unveil the monument to be erected in Brantford, he desires me to express his regret that this will be impossible, as he will not be in Canada at that time. I return you the photographs of the memorial with very many thanks. Yours very sincerely, (Signed) F. FARQUHAR, Lieut.-Colonel, Governor-General's Secretary. W. F. TAYLOR'S FINE WORK SHUT OUT THE YANKS

Score Was 3-0—Red Sox Played Particularly Brilliant Ball During the Series.

Whoopee—Wow! Three in a row! Some ball team for Brantford. Very much to the mustard were the Red Sox yesterday afternoon when "over the dyke" they took the third and last game from the Erie Yankees. The Sox played a class of ball which delighted the fans to the utmost. Bang-up fielding and hitting when it meant runs, featured. One gent, by the name of Edward Taylor essayed to dish up slants and shoots for the Yanks to taste, and the said Taylor was not to their liking. Mixed with slippery elm and saliva, the ball slid over the plate and dropped into LeCroix's dishpan. True, on seven different occasions the pill was propelled with force and velocity to parts of the house where no one was home, but never once did the gent who did the propelling arrive at the pay station. Five of the elongated representatives of the Stars and Stripes in this league were left stranded on the paths while the remainder never did see first base.

Manager Smith, once of Buffalo, but now too old for baseball sent in another of his lambs to the slaughter, this time it being a slim fellow bearing the cognomen of Brown. Mr. Brown or Brownie was as "wild as a crow," which he readily admitted. When he didn't grove it, the bats of the dyke-boys looked as big as telegraph poles. Nine good healthy walruses including one extra base hit by second, was productive of one run. His error also helped materially. Sandusky hit safely and was sacrificed to second by Honeck. Brown heaved wildly to first and both men were safe. Bill Roth here ejected another sacrifice and LeCroix was passed. With bases thickly populated Taylor forced Sandy at the plate, but there were still three on when Bill Burns knocked Brown for a pass, scoring Honeck.

Clean hitting in the sixth was responsible for another run. Honeck and Roth both singled to left and LeCroix's out at first advanced the runners a peg. Here Eddie Taylor showed himself to be a pinch hitter of repute by banging out a single to left, scoring Honeck. Errors had a lot to do with the third and last run. Wagner opened with a hit and advanced to third on Rube's hit and Gygli's error. Dolan's out at first scored Wagner with the last run of the best game of the series.

Umpire Bedford again did good work although he let one or two slip.

What You Don't Read On The Score Boards

Roth continues to hit the ball hard. Taylor bingled one to left scoring a run.

Now for St. Thomas for the rest of the week.

Eddie Taylor, the most valuable man on the team!

Offensively and defensively the Red Sox look pretty good.

Centerfielder Dolan looks like a good boiler maker and then some.

The Red Sox fielded brilliantly. There was not the sign of a bobble.

Daniels of Erie who is a fine little receiver, is reported to have lost his arm.

Erie beat Peterboro, Brantford beat Erie, Ottawa beats Peterboro then what happens?

Quite a lot of fans right away would like to see Brantford stack up against Ottawa.

Erie left last night for Ottawa, sorry that such a place as Brantford had been put on the map.

When it comes to repulsing the Yanks, the braves of the "Big Chief" are here and then some.

There were several occasions where a base hit would have tied the score, but Taylor was on the job.

Chief Tomahawk! Tom Nelson is delighted. Hail Kor-on-yah-ke-hoop, Big Chief Fire Eater Tom!

Connell, on form and by precedent is due to pitch to-day against the Saints. A victory would do him a lot of good.

Just now our highest ambition is to make those Ottawa sport writers concede Brantford a good chance for the pennant.

Heartfelt sympathy to Bobby Crab Salad of the Spec, whose pets have been beaten three straight. Directors meeting right off.

Well, Brantford is ahead of Hamilton, and as far as we are concerned, they will get nothing but dust for the rest of the season.

The Red Sox showed a world of confidence behind Taylor. If Brantford fans don't like this player it will be phenomenal.

The only extra base hit off Taylor was a slow hit ball by Dawson on the left field foul line. It rolled out several feet. This happened in the first.

Umpire Bedford looked pretty good, although he robbed Dolan of a hit. This was on a smash which hit first base and Dolan got there. Gygli neglecting to touch first base.

ish. Would suggest enlargement of directors' jury box on field at Hamilton. Message sent "collect"—unkindest cut of all.

The Erie team led by Geo. Smith positively the dearest bunch ever. They looked just like the old Guelph team for all the world.

Manager George Smith of Erie looks too much of an old timer for the league. One of the Red Sox remarked to Smith on the field that he ought to be in some "Old Soldiers' Home."

Dolan, said to be a Scandinavian; according to his cognomen (this is denied strenuously), looked like the hitter that he is alleged to be. Deneau has added one more rung in Dolan to the pennant ladder.

Roth made a beautiful one hand pick up and threw to Deneau for an out. Deneau threw to third catching Kelly Harris by a block. This was a really brilliant play and Roth got a great hand from the crowd.

With Amateurs

West End Won.

The West Ends won, defeated the Climbers (known in the latter City League as the Y. M. C. A.) in a slug-gers battle by a score of 7 to 5. Jackson, the West End's first baseman, got the first hit of the night, putting it over the right field fence. Lester got one two-bagger and three singles. O'Connor also got one two-bagger. Carener made a great catch in the last inning with two on and one out, making a double out of it. Hester alone scored three runs. Umpire, Cleary. Batteries—W. E. Collins and Simpson; Climbers, Smith and Beckett.

Carl Brown who worked for Erie yesterday is some pitcher. Owner Nelson made a desperate effort last year to get Brown but failed by inches. May be Brown wouldn't fit in nice this year.

The sports editor of this paper has a $5 hat with Bobby Robinson of The Spectator that Eddie Taylor wins more games than he loses as a pitcher. It will be the best, and yet the cheapest lid we ever wore.

The following wireless was despatched last night to Spectator sports editor: "Sincere condolences on lack of class exhibited by Hamilton Athletics. Your friend Taylor (Mr. Wisenheimer) pitched and won to-day for Brantford. Didn't have a thing except a shut out to his credit at the fin-

Heathers Are Ready For Opening Monday

Greens Are in Excellent Shape—Scotch Doubles Will be Held on the Ninth of June.

The games committee of the Heather Bowling Club has arranged the program for the 1914 season, as far as possible, and the members are assured that there will be something doing all the time. The Heathers had a most successful season last year, but the outlook for 1914 is specially bright. The greens have wintered well and are in excellent shape already. Twenty new members have been received and added to the roll. The formal opening of the green for this season will take place on Monday, May 25th, at 10 a.m., when the regular President vs. Vice-President match will be held.

It has also been decided to hold the annual club Scotch doubles tournament during the month of June, instead of at the end of the season, as has been the custom in the past. The club rink tournament for the Crouch trophy will be held in July, and the club singles in September. This will allow the players to take part in the Brant county rink tournament in August and the doubles in September. A members' night will be arranged once a week, and dates have been set for several games with other clubs, both at home and away.

The members are asked to reserve Monday morning next for the opening game, the draw for which is as follows:

What Happened On Canadian League Circuit Yesterday

Cy Reidy, the famous diver, who has received honorable mention in the dispatches of late on several occasions, decided that he did not care to see a nice lot of ladies and gents from this fair city miss their dinners or suppers, as the case may be, and leaned against one of the shoofs, of Mr. Dougherty, of Hamilton, in the ninth inning of the game yesterday afternoon, and the ball hurried to center. Mr. Whitcroft, who has been short, stopping for Doc Reising this spring, was pitched on second, and, taking this as a cue to hurry home, tallied a run. As this was all the home folks needed to win the pastime, the bugs and buggesses hied homewards well content. It might be mentioned en passant, as the educated folks say, that the score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Tecumsehs.

Fielded Just Like Hams.
However, his good work was spoiled by some red-headed fielding by his mates. Messrs. Gilhooley, known as "Dudley" and Red Fisher, the human sun fish, were extremely generous, and donated a brace of tallies to the home folks. There were other boos that did not help Mr. Dougherty much. When two bingles were balked in the ninth Doc Yates says his last chance to win a ball game goes a glimmering.

PETERSON HOLDS PETES; CHAMPS. WIELD ELMS.
PETERBORO, May 21—The Senators chased Tracey to the bench in today's game, and after a breathing spell went after Belting, the final count being 11 to 2 for the visitors. The Petes could do very little with Peterson.

Real Pitchers' Tug
As a fracas, it was one of the best pitchers' battles staged here this season. It was a duel of southpaws.

FOOTBALL EXECUTIVE HELD A MEETING

Mayor Spence Donates a Trophy to the League—Other Business Transacted.

The Paris and Brantford Football league executive met last night in the Y. M. C. A. when the clubs were well represented. The business, except for the donation of a trophy shield, was of minor importance, but that of length character, many of those present being given to discussion.

Mayor Spence has presented a trophy to the league to be played for in knockout competition, and E. H. Newman has given a splendid shield to be competed for, and last night the executive extended to these gentlemen their heartfelt thanks.

The principal occurrence of note was the resignation of A. Speechley, a honorary vice-president of the league. He had a slight brush with the secretary, and upon making a motion, he was told by a representative of the Scots that he had no power to take any part in the business of the league, except to express his views. The resignation followed, but it was not accepted, and upon being put to the executive, there were five against two for the acceptance of the resignation.

The Massy-Harris team wrote asking for a game with one of the league clubs, and their communication was filed.

The referees appointed to officiate on Saturday are as follows:

Holmeade vs. S. O. E.—Hollister; Duffs vs. Cockshtuts, Smith; Tutela vs. Paris, Clark; Wanderers vs. P. S. A. Mears.

The referee association wrote asking for a meeting at 9.30 that night, and a hot discussion followed, it being alleged by Fred Eastman that the meeting was out of order if it considered the referees association, whom they decided at a previous meeting not to recognize. If the referees asked them questions individually, then it would be a different matter. Vice-President Speechley said it was in order to rescind any-

They Like Roth
Third baseman Roth, Brantford's new addition, made his maiden bow behind the Dyke yesterday and he certainly must have created a fine impression. In four trips to the plate he rapped out a triple and a homer, and accepted three out of four difficult chances. This same Roth came close to being the property of the Hamilton club two years ago, but his price was too high. He looked good against Hamilton on Friday and Saturday of last week, and fills the breach nicely.—Hamilton Herald.

DENEAU SAYS TEAM WILL CONTINUE TO STICK AT THE TOP

"I consider that the Red Sox are now in an excellent place in the league standing," said Manager Deneau last night to the Courier. "After the start we had in the Hamilton games, getting up in the first division has been good going. But this is not all. The club is shaping up every day as one which will cause trouble to all and maintain its position in the league race. I think," said the Rube, "Brantford fans will agree with me that they look pretty good. The Brantford team has not done its best work yet, by any means, nor is the line-up as strong as I hope to make it. At any rate, for the present things look pretty good."

From all angles comes the report that fans are satisfied with the Red Sox as never before. One thing which has got the fans going is the life and ginger injected into the bunch this year. During the last three days, as compared with Erie, the Sox have played earnest ball. Everybody is trying all the time, and the pitchers are coaxing for chances to get in the game before their regular turn. With that kind of work the Red Sox will be a pretty hard proposition for all comers.

In Ontario, at this date about 24 per cent of wheat, 43 per cent of oats and 41 per cent of barley have been got in and 40 per cent of the total seeding was reported as completed on May 6, as against the same proportion last year on April 30. In Manitoba, 57, in Saskatchewan 79, and in Alberta 88 per cent of the spring wheat crop was reported as seeded by May 6, these proportions comparing favorably with the progress reported last year on April 30. For the five provinces of Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta the proportion of seeding reported as effected on May 6 was about 48 per cent for wheat, 23 per cent of the standard, or 103 per cent and 37 per cent for all crops.

Misite Charged With Attempted Wrecking of T. H. & B. Train.

HAMILTON, May 21.—Slentling skill guaranteed to find Sherlock Holmes' turn over in his grave resulted in the arrest yesterday afternoon of Tony Misite, at Copetown. This morning Tony peered at Magistrate Jells' from a corner of the prisoner's dock. Last Saturday morning a tie was placed across the T. H. & B. main line tracks a short distance east of Hamilton, and every wreck pointed to a deliberate attempt to wreck the fast passenger special. Fortunately the cow catcher of the engine brushed the tie from the track and the train with its precious load of human freight, sped on its way unharmed. Detective McDonald of the T. H. & B., who was deputized to investigate, called in County Constable Lumsden to assist him, and in the sandy loam about the tracks they found a clue—the imprint of a hobnail shoe. As clearly as if they were looking at the shoe itself, the sleuths counted the impression of 15 hobnails. On hands and knees they followed the trail for a hundred yards and it did not stop. Cramped and sore, the sleuths then reverted to walking, and the trail led them to Copetown and right to the door of a dilapidated little shack. Tony Misite answered the rat-tat-tat in the door, and he wore hobnail shoes, with 15 nails in the right shoe. The chase was at an end. Tony was told he was wanted by the police to explain his connection with the attempt to wreck the train. Instead of surrendering himself weekly, he grabbed an axe and attempted to tickle Detective McDonald with it. A struggle followed, and in a few short moments a shiny paid of bracelets glinted on the wrists of Misite. He was brought to the city and locked up in the police station.

Yesterday morning a remand was granted until next Tuesday. The police were not prepared to go on with the case. It is probable that Misite will be deported. He is alleged to have sought revenge because his brother was discharged from the employ of the railroad.

Too Much Ivory
 There is still a little too much ivory to suit Shag. Sam Hall is a good pitcher, but he can't field his position, and he fails to think quickly enough and some of the base running is very poor. However, it is the pitching staff whose showing is worrying Shag right now. Kubat's work yesterday resembled his work of last year—and that was far from good. The worst of it is that Kubat, on his work during the camp and at London, looked the best of the squad. He can do better and Shag knows it. Peterson was somewhat of a surprise, and Shag is tickled to see him show so well.—Ottawa Journal.

U. S. Testimony to Growth Of Canadian West

Frederick Foster, member of the Ohio Historical and Archaeological Society issues a recent issue of an American magazine.

When first I began going into the Canadian West on tours of investigation, I often welcomed the simplest diversion which might break the monotony of the prairie or the stillness of the forest. A mouse crashing through the trees, the honking of a water fowl, even the scurrying of a gopher through the grass have all been sweet entertainment. But it is different now. Old Joe Boyd, up at Giscombe Portage in British Columbia, expressed the present conditions in this fashion. "I have just got to hunt new trappin' grounds; the settlers are coming in here so fast even the muskrat is getting to be a stranger."

The trek to Western Canada began in earnest about a dozen years ago and followed closely the lines of the then one existing railway, but coincident with the building of two more transcontinental railways, the immigration increased until it has now reached the enormous total of virtually half million persons a year, largely from Great Britain and the United States, not to mention the vast movement from Eastern Canada to the West. The lure, or properly speaking lures, are identical to those which peopled our own prairies. First, land, second merchandise opportunities created by the cultivation of the land. The difference in the development of our middle West and the development of Western Canada lies largely in the difference of time and for this reason it is but natural that Western Canada's development is relatively faster. The opportunities there at present are precisely the same as the opportunities which existed in the Central United States thirty or forty years ago, but the means of converting these opportunities into money are infinitely better, as may be realized when one pauses to consider the vast improvements which have been made in transportation facilities, farm equipment and business appliances, during that period.

No Pioneering in Western Canada
 There is no pioneering in Western Canada as our fathers and grandfathers understood the word; instead it is pioneering de luxe—pioneering from Great Britain and the United States which existed in the Central United States thirty or forty years ago, but the means of converting these opportunities into money are infinitely better, as may be realized when one pauses to consider the vast improvements which have been made in transportation facilities, farm equipment and business appliances, during that period.

I never take a trip into Western Canada without being amazed at the progress being made. I have recently seen model towns of three, four and five thousand people which did not exist five years ago. Less than two years ago I had occasion to go to Central British Columbia. After leaving the railway I was obliged to float down the Fraser River on a scow covering more than three hundred miles in six days; then I spent another week in travelling by pack train into the Stuart River Valley. On the entire journey I passed through but one small village and the country,

RANELAGH

(From our own correspondent.)
 Owing to the wet weather the spring seeding is rather late and everybody is now on the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Wood of Norwich, and Mrs. James E. Minshall, of West. I refer to the establishment and development of towns. When the railways of the United States were built they, for the most part, linked together towns which had already been established either by accident or by design by the pioneers. In Canada all this is different; the towns are being established by the railways with scientific precision in order to give the settlers marketing, educational and social centres. It was explained to me by a prominent official of a Canadian railway that these townsites are located with a regard to the needs of the settlers who are already in the various districts. If a certain district is well settled and without adequate urban facilities, provision is made for a larger town than in a district where there is less settlement or where there are already nearby towns of importance. Once the town location is decided upon, the railway engineers survey the townsite and the plans are filed with the government, the acceptance of the plans being equivalent to permission to the company, or their agents, to place the town on the market; thus when a town is thrown open to settlement it is much like a city's sky scraper ready for the tenants to move in. To the casual observer the rapid growth of these towns is remarkable but close investigation will show that the settlers are all ready for the town and are waiting for the stores, factories, churches and schools to come.

When asked the other day by one of our congressmen how long Canada's prosperity was going to continue, I answered that in my opinion just as long as the same spirit and purpose continues to draw people from Iowa, Illinois and Ohio to Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia as drew them from England to New England. And I may add that it is no wild stretch of imagination to think of fifty million people in the Canadian West before the close of the present half century. My belief, based upon experience gathered from many trips into the Canadian west is that Western Canada is at the beginning of an industrial development which will outshine the wonderful progress made there during the past ten years.

TUMOR IN THE STOMACH

Completely Removed When She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURY, ONT., April 4th, 1913.
 "Some years ago, I was sick in bed, and thought I was going to die. I had a growth in my stomach, which the doctors said was a tumor and they said that the only thing to do was to go to the hospital and have the tumor cut out. I treated an operation although both doctors said it was the only cure. I said I would die before being operated on.

At this time, my mother in Alvinston sent me some "Fruit-a-tives" and induced me to try them as she had heard of another woman who had been cured of a similar growth in the stomach by taking "Fruit-a-tives."

To please my mother, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives" with the happy result that they cured me. I have not been to see a doctor since and my health is first class.

I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" every time I get a chance, and I will be glad to have you publish the letters as some other woman may now be a sufferer from the same trouble. "Fruit-a-tives" will cure her!" Mrs. A. McDONALD.

Tight Skirt Led To Quarrel, And That To Suicide

Young Man Did Not Like "Hobble" Skirt Worn by His Best Girl.

A lover's objection to his sweetheart's tight skirt, a farewell letter, and a returned photograph formed part of a tragic story told at Batterssea, when an inquest was held on Emma Winslow, a young domestic servant whose body was found in the Thames. The first witness called was the girl's mother, Ada Winslow, who said the girl had been out of a situation and in bad health. She was keeping company with a young man on Easter Monday the young man returned with the girl, and told the witness that he had done with her and would not come round any more. The next day Emma returned her lover's photograph, together with a letter, and later she received a letter from him and also her photograph back.

The girl went into a room and had a good cry, and after saying, "So long" to witness, went out and never returned. The coroner (referring to something he had heard): "What is this about a skirt? Do you know anything about a hobble skirt? She told me her young man did not like her in one she had. Did she say anything about any one laughing at her skirt? No. Was it a tight skirt? It was rather tight. Witness added that deceased subsequently sold the skirt. Ernest Hunt, the young man referred to, said he had been keeping company with the girl for four months, and intended marrying her when he earned sufficient.

Referring to the hobble skirt, witness said that on the Saturday before Easter Monday he noticed she was wearing a tight fitting skirt. He told her he did not like her in it, and that if she would get rid of it he would buy her another skirt. The coroner: "Did you quarrel about this skirt? No, I only criticized it."

The jury returned a verdict of suicide during temporary insanity.

WHERE YOU ARE WRONG
 "Of course, you have your little theory about the cause of the high cost of living?"
 "I have," replied Mr. Growcher "too many people are trying to make political economy take the place of domestic economy."—Washington Star.

"Our Mutual Girl" Rescues Her Protegee's Brother

Her Protegee's Brother

"OUR MUTUAL GIRL" AND ADA TAYLOR HER PROTEGEE
 On the morning after securing Ada Taylor's release from Blackwell's Island Margaret, "Our Mutual Girl," awoke bright and early. Ada was still sleeping.

"Let her stay there," thought Margaret. "A regular bed must seem very restful to her after those hard cot."

So "Our Mutual Girl" and her aunt went down to the spring fashion display at Stern Brothers' palatial new store, Forty-second street and Sixth avenue. There the beautiful models paraded a bewildering display of gowns. Margaret could not curb her enthusiasm over the wonderful advance exhibition of the clothes well dressed women will wear.

While "Our Mutual Girl" was away Ada Taylor awoke. Then began a mental struggle with herself as to whether she should further accept Margaret's generosity. Finally she decided to slip quietly away. Ada got out of the house easily enough, only to run into the arms of "Kid Joseph," her tough former sweetheart, who had heard of her release. He persuaded Ada to go back to the east side.

As Margaret and her aunt were motoring up Broadway they noticed a great commotion in front of a store. A ragged fellow whom "Our Mutual Girl" recognized as an old acquaintance, the burglar, Ada's big brother, was pursued by a crowd. Seeing Margaret, he jumped into the automobile.

"Save me, miss," he pleaded. "I just heaved a glass through the window to grab some of the money they've got on show there."

"Our Mutual Girl" for the second time saved the man, on this occasion by speeding the auto and leaving the pursuers far behind.

Arriving at home, her maid told Margaret of the disappearance of Ada Taylor. Her brother immediately sensed the situation.

"Those tough rascals from the east side have got her to go back," he said. "Now I'm going to go to it and get her away from them."

"Oh, do let me go with you!" said Margaret, but her aunt sternly put her foot down on that idea.

However, "Our Mutual Girl" was not to be denied, and a little while later she quietly disappeared to go in search of Ada Taylor.

Senator Moves That All Postal Employees Speak Both French and English.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., May 20.—On third reading in the Senate of a bill relating to wages of lower grades of post office employees, Senator Choquette moved in amendment that no person should be employed in the post office department, in either Ontario or Quebec, unless he or she spoke "both official languages," English and French.

Hon. Mr. Lougheed said that as it was a money bill, it could not be amended, and was supported in this by Senator Power.

Senator Belcourt disagreed and said that it was no more out of order to require employees to speak both languages than it would be to compel them to write a legible hand.

The third reading amendment and point of order were held over on Senator Choquette's suggestion. He announced that when opportunity arose he would move that employees of all departments in Quebec, Ontario and New Brunswick be required to converse in both languages.

ROCKEFELLER, JR., COMES FROM COVER

He Had Been Driven Into Retreat by Colorado Strike Sympathizers.

NEW YORK, May 20.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has returned to work after twenty days spent at the country estate of his father at Pocantico Hills. Since May 1, when he went into retirement, most of his tormentors, under the leadership of Upton Sinclair, have been silenced, several by being sent to jail. Sinclair is in Colorado and Marie Canz and Rev. Bouck White are serving sentences on Blackwell's Island, the latter for having broken up the services at the Calvary Baptist Church ten days ago.

Mr. Rockefeller's secretary said yesterday that he was making no investigation of conditions in Colorado. He was only a minority stockholder in the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, it was said, and whatever recommendations he could offer might not influence the officials of the company in dealing with the miners.

BOYS KILLED IN DUEL AND WOMAN IS HURT

Members of Prominent Kentucky Families Battle on Highway.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 21.—Word has reached here that Hubbard Miniard, age 17, son of the county attorney of Leslie county, and Jos Hensley, a youth of another prominent family, had killed each other in a pistol duel at Coon's creek, near Hyden.

According to the report, Miniard was escorting Miss Daisy Adams to a social affair when the couple met Hensley. Quarrel followed, both men drew pistols and the fighting ended with the death of both. One of the bullets hit Mrs. Adams, but the wound is not dangerous.

THE HEART SONGS OF 90,000,000 PEOPLE

Many of these songs cannot be found in any other collection. They came in yellow, time-worn, tear-stained sheets—that had been sacredly treasured from childhood—others were written out from memory—some were given by titles only—or remembered verses, involving a long search to obtain the whole.

Of the thousands received it is safe to say that the several hundred selected—as having the largest number of votes and the highest endorsement—represent to-day the taste of the Canadian people in their choice of music.

We believe that the distribution of this unrivalled song collection will bring more happiness into the homes of our readers, will do more to make them attractive to young and old; do more to inculcate a love for music; to soften, elevate and refine the home life; to cultivate the nobler and higher virtues of the fireside—than any other means we could adopt.
