Appointed Chief Engineer

M. J. M. R. Fairbairn has been appointed chief engineer of the C. P. R. system, replacing Mr. J. G. Sullivan, chief engineer, who is retiring to enter private practice. The announcement is the announcement by special circular issued by Sir George Bury Vice-President, and approved by Lord Shaughnessy, the President.

Too much credit cannot be accorded Mr. Fairbairn, whose rise has been the result of sterling service rendered to the company since he joined them in 1892. Mr. Fairbairn was born in Peterborough 45 years ago. He entered the Toronto University, where he graduated.

Following a short private practice in British Columbia, Mr. Fairbairn joined the Canadian Pacific Railway in June, 1896, in the Engineering Department and became Assistant Engineer at Montreal, August, 1901, and Resident Engineer at Ottawa 12 months later. After three years in the Ottawa Division, he returned to Montreal as Division Engineer, and was transferred to Toronto some months later, from which place he returned to Montreal in November, 1907, in a similar capacity. It was in October, 1908, that Mr. Fairbairn was made Principal Assistant at Montreal, two years later being promoted to Engineer of Maintenance of Way, and in June, 1911, was made Chief Engineer of Eastern Lines, a position he occupied up to the time of his present promotion, which is the highest railway position attainable.

MR. ALEXANDER MUNRO

R.R. No. 1, Lorne, Ont.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. During that time, I had treatment from a number of doctors, and tried nearly everything I saw advertised to cure Rheumatism, without receiving any benefit.

Finally, I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Before I had used half a box, I noticed an improvement; the pain was not so severe, and the swelling started to go down.

I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place".

Baby's Great Danger During Hot Weather

More little ones die during the summer months than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and stomach disorders, come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the short delay too frequently means that the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the home, where there are young children. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will cure the baby. Mrs. Chas. Anderson, Minda, Alta., says: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine for little ones who are suffering from stomach troubles. They cured my baby and have made her a fine healthy girl." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

On Sunday, the 18th., inst, there passed away at her home in Canning, Mary Ann Hicks, beloved wife of Phillip Brown Esq. at the advanced age of 83 years. Previous to her last illness of about six weeks, she had enjoyed remarkably good health her intellect being of the keenest until the last, and she will be sincerely missed by a large circle of friends and relatives for her genial whole hearted presence in her home.

The funeral services on Tuesday afternoon were very largely attended, Mr. Prosser of Canard, Baptist and Mr. Wright, of Kingsport, Congregational Churches officiating the comforting words of the former clergyman upon the text—"We spend our lives as a tale that is told" were very appropriate as was also the prayer by Mr. Wright. The Canard Male Quartette rendered several beautiful numbers of music. The occasion was especially sad, as news of the decease of the eldest son Fred Brown, of Vancouver, had been received shortly before the mother's death, enlisting in his Country's Service he had contracted pneumonia which had terminated fatally.

Mrs. Brown leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband, three daughters, Mrs. Avory, at the home in Canning, Mrs. Newcombe, of Lubeck, Mrs. Laura, wife of Councillor Meek, Canning, and one son Samuel who for years has been in business in Lubeck, Me. but was able to be with his mother during her last days as were also the three daughters. The family will have the sympathy of the whole community in this bereavement.

The interment was at Habitant in the old Cong'l Cemetery.

Launching at Hantsport

Saturday, last was a memorable day in the history of Hantsport. It was a celebration of the revival of the industry of former days when Hantsport, was a boom town and shipbuilding and sailing brought good returns.

Saturday, an immense crowd came from all parts to witness the launching of the 1000 ton schooner Margaret Dick, built there by Foley & Farquhar. The launching was most successful and the four masted schooner proudly rode on the water presenting a handsome appearance. She has been sold and will load a cargo of one quarter of a million feet of lumber for Africa.

in a Thrilling Play of the Paris Underworld

The Devil's Wheel

In this wonderful production Miss Brockwell portrays a girl of noble birth, sweet tempered and well bred, and then a girl of the Apache underworld. It is the story of her fight for her father's system to win at roulette. The scheme is stolen. In the fight for possession of it Miss Brockwell is rendered unconscious. She wakes up in an Apache den, having no knowledge of her previous life. She becomes so vicious she is known as the "wildcat." An operation restores her, but leaves her Apache life a blank.

Gentleman,—Ever since coming home from the Boer war I have been bothered with running fever sores on my legs. I tried many salves and liniments, also doctored continuously for the blood, but got no permanent relief, till last winter when my mother got me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT. The effect of which was almost magical. Two bottles completely cured me and I have worked every working day since

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Came to this Woman after Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Her Health

Ellensburg, Wash.—"After I was married I was not well for a long time and a good deal of the time was not able to go about. Our greatest desire was to have a child in our home and one day my husband came back from town with a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wanted me to try it. It brought relief from my troubles. I improved in health so I could do my housework; we now have a little one, all of which I owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. O. S. JOHNSON, R. No. 3, Ellensburg, Wash.

See The Great Lakes

Fort William Harbor

Canada's Great Lakes are not, as some geographers and geologists say they are, the oldest lakes in the world. It cannot be denied that Lakes Superior, Huron, Erie and Ontario form the most wonderful chain of inland oceans on the earth and are the oldest waterway, and for that matter also the oldest highway in North America. For it was on the waters of these great lakes that the early French explorers and adventurers, such as Nicolet, Marquette, La Salle, Champlain, and others sailed, in the first quarter of the 17th century, in search of the undiscovered Western Sea. Further, taken in conjunction with the St. Lawrence River, river stretches and canals, they form the longest navigable inland waterway in the world, the total distance from Fort William and Port Arthur, on Lake Superior, to the Straits of Belle Isle being 2,260 miles.

It was on these mighty inland seas in Canada that Joseph Howe once said in a speech at a convention at Detroit: "Yonder lie Canada's great lakes, which can furnish sufficient power to run the industries of the whole world, and within which the British Isles might be dropped and never raise the tide." Romantic enchantment and adventurous history suffuse the waters and shores of Canada's Great Lakes. To realize this one has only to recall that the European pioneers who three hundred years ago first penetrated into the heart of the North American continent did so by their waters, taking first the St. Lawrence, Ottawa, and Mattawa rivers, then through the Lake Nipissing and French River into Georgian Bay, then through Lake Huron to Lake Michigan, then through the Sault or Rapids of St. Mary's River into Lake Superior.

In these early days Canada's Great Lakes resounded only with the echoes of the paddles which propelled Indian canoes. To-day their mighty expanses are ploughed by leviathan steamships, bustled with the traffic of commerce and industry, or with the transportation of tourists and pleasure-seekers bent on taking a cool sea voyage, more interesting than an ocean voyage and equally as invigorating and health-giving. On the Great Lakes trip, taken in any one of the Canadian Pacific steamships, such as the "Assiniboia," the "Kewatin," and the "Manitoba," as palatial, large, swift and safe as an ocean liner, a tourist or pleasure-seeker can take an inland voyage of a thousand miles, and whether the voyage be from Montreal to Detroit or Chicago, and other American ports or vice versa, the tourist will experience the sense of ocean distances, but with a feeling of security and of calm and quiet, which the turbulent ocean can not give. Besides the voyage itself, the tourist will be entertained with sights of historic interest, with views of unrivalled natural beauty or with modern practical constructions that astound the mind, some of which are shown in the illustrations at the head of this article. The tourist may see, for instance, Mackinac Point, the British garrison, beautiful islands about which glide white-winged yachts and other small craft, the giant head of Thunder-Cape, the beautiful St. Mary's River and rapids, the Canadian locks at Sault Ste. Marie, the Canadian Pacific sky-scraper towers at Fort McNicholl, Georgian Bay and scores of other scenes of natural beauty and objects of absorbing interest. Truly the Great Lakes have given Canada an enviable name amongst the nations, and the Great Lakes trip once taken, will never fade from memory.

Going Aboard

Young Lady Loses Her Life in Collision At Wolfville.

A very sad accident occurred at Wolfville Saturday night which resulted in the death of Miss Flora Bishop, a young lady of New Minas. At half past ten an automobile driven by a Mr. Everett Smith, a soldier, and containing Miss Bishop, her sister, Dorothy, and a Miss McInnis, was bound for Kentville when it met a team driven by Ainsley McDow, of Gasperaux. McDow was travelling at a rapid speed, and on the wrong side of the road. As he showed no signs of turning out, Mr Smith swerved to the right. McDow did so at the same time, and the two vehicles collided. The horse mounted upon the rear of the running board of the automobile and the shaft struck Miss Bishop just above the heart, then upon the temple, killing her instantly.

stantly. The inquest held yesterday afternoon rendered a verdict of accidental death, due to careless driving.

McDow was arrested by police Crowell, and brought before Stipendiary Crawley, charged with drunkenness. He was fined $8 or 20 days.

At a subsequent trial Monday afternoon Ainsley McDow, Glen Gertridge, who was also in the team, and Everett S. Smith the auto driver, were arraigned before Stipendiary Crawley on a charge of manslaughter. The case was adjourned till Tuesday morning, Sept. 3rd at 10 o'clock. The accused were released on six hundred dollars bail each.
