ROME LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent).

Rome, July 13, 1912.

An unusual good many items of universal interest is contained in the current issue of the Vatican bulletin, the Acta Apostolicae Sedis. A new diocese is erected in Hungary for the Greek Catholic rite, the liturgical language of which shall be ancient Greek; a bull is published relating to the erection of new parishes in the Roman Campagna, and several letters from the Pope to various quarters receive notice in the bulletin.

Of greater interest are the three decrees coming from the S. Congregation of the Holy Office on matrimonial questions.

The first of these lays down that the dispensation on the impediment of disparity of cult must never be conceded unless a promise to fulfil the conditions required by the Church is given by the contracting parties. In the second it is ordained that a dispensation on account of disparity of cult granted without a promise regarding these conditions is null, which nullity can be declared by the Ordinary himself without having recourse to the Holy See in this case.

The third decree ordains, in respect to mixed marriages in which the contracting parties have obstinately refused to consent to the conditions laid down by the Church, it is for the future prohibited to observe what has been prescribed by the Ne Temere considering the consent of the parties to be asked for and accepted by the parish priest as a necessary condition for the validity of the marriage.

It is ordered by this decree that the former concessions and instructions given in such cases be adhered to strictly.

Various doubts on scriptural matters are given in the same issue of the Acta for the Pontifical Biblical Commission.

While Italy is recovering from the surprises in the National Congress of Italian Socialists, which ended in the expulsion of four deputies from the Socialist Party, and a vote by a vast majority against Freemasonry, information comes from Spain which leads us to expect that Senor Canalejas, President of the Council, will have taken to the warpath in the question of the Religious Orders and Congregations before many moons have gone by.

Last year it will be remembered the Spanish Government presented to the Chamber a project of law against the Religious Congregations in opposition to which a perfect hurricane was raised all over Catholic Spain. Instead of withdrawing the measure, the Premier confided it to a special Commission, by which it was to be studied and retouched, and now the work has come to a close. But how has the measure been touched? It comes from the hands of the Commission not less hostile than it appeared before; even in some parts it has been retouched in such manner that the rights of the Church would be even more restricted than Canalejas first desired.

And so Spain in all probability will be fully launched in a short time into a struggle with the Church—thanks to the powers of masonry that have so well influenced the situation so far.

The following list of business was laid before the S. Congregation of Rites at the last meeting in the Vatican:

1. Introduction of the Cause of Beatification of the Servant of God Lucia Filippini, Foundress of the Pious Teachers called after her.

2. Confirmation of the cult given from time immemorial to the Servant of God, Pietro della Guardia, of the Order of Friars Minor, who is called "Holy" or "Blessed."

3. Concession and approbation of the Office and Mass in honour of St. Macrina, Virgin, sister of St. Basil.

One of the first reforms undertaken at the opening of the present Pontificate was that connected with the diocesan seminaries of Italy. Almost every diocese extensive or otherwise, had its little seminary in which a small body of students pursued their entire ecclesiastical course and went out into the Vineyard of the Lord. But this arrangement did not come up to the standard required by the discerning eye of Pius X. The College No. 2, where Mrs. Edward O'Dougherty and Miss Anna Cunningham of Brooklyn were hostesses, at the New York Cottage where Hon. Francis P. Cunnion was host, and at the Buffalo Cottage where Miss Katherine Hagerty of Brooklyn entertained.

The lecturer during the past week for the morning course was the famous Jesuit professor and preacher in charge of the department of Rhetoric at the Novitiate of St. Andrew-on-the-Hudson. Father Donnelly spoke on "The Method of Models in Teaching pleted at Assisi, the birthplace of St. Francis, which will serve for all the dioceses in all the province of Umbria, and in which chairs have been established for S. Scripture, Biblical Exegesis, Hebrew, Greek, Dogmatic Theology, Sacred Eloquence, Moral Theology, Ecclesiastical History, Archaeology and Sacred Art, Canon Law and Sacred Liturgy. The honorarium allotted for each professor is 1,500 francs or 300 American dollars annually, besides which neither board or lodging in the seminary will be allowed, nor any other recompense of any kind whatever.

With that activity which is a mark of masonic activity in every part of Europe the secret society has decided upon getting the women of Italy into its meshes. Where they can enter the can. Where they are powerless she is omnipotent, and hence the decision in the respect come to at the International Masonic Congress held in Rome last September. With this end in view the Grand Orient has set itself to the task of studying "a feminine lay organization which will act according to the directions of masonry and which will eventually assume the initiative itself."

And so masonry would have the women of Italy yoked to its plough! Success has often set upon the pale-green banner of the secret society, but this time failure and disappointment will visit it. Strongly Catholic to the core the women of Italy will redouble the efforts they are now making against enemies of religion and morality in this country. Of course, the scheme will meet with the approval of masons' wives and a few crack-brained individuals such as the anarchist, Maria Rygiel—who spends half the year marching up and down Italy delivering wild harangues and the rest in jail doing penance for her conduct, but no more damage can be achieved by those enemies of Church and State.

Cliff Haven, July 26.
Before an audience that taxed the capacity of the spacious Auditorium, the opening minstrel show of the season was put on by the members of the College Camp at the Catholic Summer School on Thursday evening.

Following a well built list of minstrel repertoire, graced with catchy local hits, and enlivened with good singing and tuneful parodies. There was a screaming burlesque on "The Merchant of Venice." The latter number was ably taken care of by the cast in which there was more than fifty of the record breaking number quartered at the Camp this summer. The production was under the direction of Joseph J. Stutz, while the lyrics were written by Walter Atkinson, a New York playwright sojourning at Cliff Haven. Figures of prominence in the performances were Charles Miller, of Mount Vernon, William Smith and Ralph and Vincent Seller, of New York City.

The appearance of Miss Eleanor K. Payez, of Brooklyn, the noted pianist who has been called the American Carcano, has just closed a series of piano recitals that constituted one of the ablest musical events in the history of the Champlain Assembly.

Miss Theresa Cantwell, hostess of the Jersey Club, gave a card party at that institution on Thursday afternoon, which took the form of a reception to the guests at present sojourning at this cottage. On Monday evening Miss Henry L. Ugbetta, of Brooklyn, tendered a dance to the guests of the Summer School at the Champlain Club. The affair was given as a farewell reception, as Mr. and Mrs. Ugbetta with their family on Tuesday closed a month's sojourn at Cliff Haven before a Canadian tour prior to the opening of their summer home at Allenhurst, N. J. More than 300 guests were in attendance.

With the steady influx of guests during the past week, that brought the attendance close to 700, indications are that the next few weeks will see a record crowd at the Summer School, and the extensive lists of reservations at all the cottages points to an attendance of more than 1500 guests for the Lady Day fête on August 15.

Card parties are in greater vogue than during any other season, and each week finds several of the cottages gayly colored with lively scenes that attend the popular bridge and euchre affairs. Events of note in this respect were card gatherings at Almonde Cottage No. 2, where Mrs. Edward O'Dougherty and Miss Anna Cunningham of Brooklyn were hostesses, at the New York Cottage where Hon. Francis P. Cunnion was host, and at the Buffalo Cottage where Miss Katherine Hagerty of Brooklyn entertained.

The lecturer during the past week for the morning course was the famous Jesuit professor and preacher in charge of the department of Rhetoric at the Novitiate of St. Andrew-on-the-Hudson. Father Donnelly spoke on "The Method of Models in Teaching

A VETERAN OF THE BOER WAR

TESTIMONY AS TO THE EFFICACY OF BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS FOR THE CURE OF BOILS

Mr. D. M. McMillan, Niagara Falls, Ont., writes:—"It is with pleasure I testify to the sterling qualities of your Burdock Blood Bitters. After the Boer War, through which I served in the 1st L. I., I suffered from boils, constipation, and sick headaches. I tried many preparations, but none relieved me until I got Burdock Blood Bitters. To say I got relief is to tell the truth. I made my myself again, and a man who knows what it is to be sick, and what has been, and is still, an athlete.

English Composition" and gave a masterful exposition of the subject to which he has given his life work. Beginning with the history and nature of models, the lecturer dealt with his topic in delineation of the employment of models for the elements, kinds and types of composition. Father Donnelly was also the preacher at the high mass on Sunday morning, when he spoke eloquently on the development and education of character. The famous lecturer was again heard by the guests of the Summer School on Sunday evening when he gave an address at the family gathering where he was accorded a hearty welcome and gratulation. The evening lectures during the week were by the Rev. Patrick J. Healey, S. T. D., of Washington, D. C., who spoke on "Asceticism and Early Monasticism." Taking up first Christian asceticism, Father Healey later dealt with the early Egyptian monasticism together with the growth of the system East and West. The morning lectures during the ensuing week will be given by the Rev. Charles B. Brush, Ph. D., of St. Francis Seminary in Wisconsin, who will give a series of five talks on "Social Reform and Socialism."

A highly interesting list is scheduled for the evening lectures of the same week, when the Rev. F. R. Duvernoy, S. J., of St. Francis Xavier's College, New York City, will give four talks illustrated with stereopticon slides. The topics are Paris and Ireland.

The performances of the Cliff Haven Dramatic Company on Saturday evening included "Cape Cod Romance" and a farce called "Mixed." Both numbers were skilful presentations.

The guests of the Summer School learned with grief during the past week of the original illness of the Hon. M. E. Bannin, second vice president of the Champlain Assembly.

The Vice Regal Visit.

A Right Royal Welcome—The Duke, Duchess and Princess Enthusiastically Received.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, accompanied by their Royal Highnesses the Duchess and their daughter, Princess Patricia, received a right royal welcome from the people of this Province on the occasion of their visit, just terminated. The enthusiasm of the greeting was manifested by the outpouring of the people, the wealth and extent of the decorations, and the all pervading loyalty sentiment.

Their Royal Highnesses and suite arrived at Summerside on board the Government steamer Earl Grey at an early hour Sunday morning last. About 11 o'clock the Royal party landed and were met by Mayor Morrison and other gentlemen and driven to the Anglican Church. After the service in the church they returned to the steamer. In the afternoon they again came ashore and were driven through St. Eleanor's and other suburban points, escorted by the Mayor.

At 9 o'clock Monday forenoon the official programme was entered upon. After landing from the steamer the party proceeded to Dominion Square where Mayor Morrison read and presented the following address:

To His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught.

We the Mayor and Councillors of the Town of Summerside on behalf of the citizens of this County Town beg to extend to you a most cordial welcome.

Never before have we had a prince of the blood to preside over the political destinies of our Dominion. It is therefore with special joy and the highest satisfaction that we salute the arrival among us of your Royal Highness.

Since the former visit of your Royal Highness to Prince Edward Island it has become a Province of Canada. This country extending over a vast and largely fertile territory with its mineral wealth its forests and fisheries, its systems of transportation by land and sea is now the home of many people from the mother country and is destined in the near future to be the home and adopted country of many millions of people from Great Britain, other countries of Europe the United States and other parts of the world.

In presenting our homage to your Royal Highness, the New Governor-General of Canada, we welcome you most heartily to this country of present progressive activities and great possibilities, and wish not forget that you, our esteemed Governor-General, are at the same time the son of our late august Queen, and brother of the lamented Sovereign King Edward VII. We are highly grateful to you in accepting this position and coming to take charge of the Government of our Country. Your presence here as head of the Government your experience and wisdom, will shed new lustre upon our Country and intensify our aspirations as citizens of a Great Empire.

These Your Royal Highness are the sentiments we express in the name of the Town of Summerside. Permit us to join to them our respects and best wishes for the good welfare and happiness of your noble wife Her Royal Highness, The Duchess of Connaught and your esteemed and lovable daughter, Princess Patricia. May the sojourn of Her Royal Highness and daughter, like your own, be always agreeable as our wishes for your happiness are earnest and the assurance of our welcome sincere.

JAMES A. MORRISON, Mayor. For Self and Councillors, NEIL McQUARRIE, Recorder.

After the Duke had replied to the address, the school children sang the "Maple Leaf" and "O Canada," the Royal visitors were then conducted to a couple of the fox ranches outside the town, where they manifested much interest in observing the denizens of these enclosures. The next item on the programme was the formal opening of the new Prince County Hospital.

When the party arrived his Royal Highness was handed a golden key by Judge McLeod, and with this the Duke opened the door of the hospital, which was then declared ready for business. The Royal party were then escorted to the special train in waiting and started for Charlottetown.

The train included No. 11 coach, packed out in grand style. Engine No. 25 was arrayed in royal style, under the direction of Master Mechanic McQuaid, the work being done in a manner that reflects great credit upon Messrs. I. McCoubry and Charles Simmonds and their assistants. Red white and blue were the predominant colors, while festoons of beautiful flowers lent a splendid effect. The engine had upon it the words "Caed Mille Failthe"—a hundred thousand welcomes—and on the tender is the word "Welcome" in large letters.

Conductor John McDonald was in charge of the train, with Engineer John Hunter as driver and E. Brown fireman, while the brakemen are Messrs. Frank McDonald and Arthur Byrne. On board, besides the Royal Party, were the following: Hon. Senator Yo, Premier and Mrs. Mathieson, Hon. J. E. Wyatt and Miss Wanda Wyatt, Hon. James A. McNeill, Hon. A. E. Arsenault, John Richards, M. L. A., Dr. P. C. Murphy, John Agnew, Superintendent McEwen.

The train made the run from Summerside to Charlottetown in two hours, arriving here at 1.20 p. m. Immediately upon the arrival of the train the Royal Party were escorted to a gaily decorated pavillion near the track. They were greeted by his Honour the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Rogers, and Sir Louis Davies. His Worship Mayor Lyons was then introduced who read and presented to his Royal Highness the following address:

To Field Marshal, His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught, K. G., etc. Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of Canada.

May it please your Royal Highness: In the name and on behalf of the citizens, we the Mayor and Council of the City of Charlottetown, extend to Your Royal Highness a most cordial welcome on this your second visit to our city. When you first visited this city as Prince Arthur, 1869, our citizens were most enthusiastic in their greeting; thus manifesting their love and respect to your royal person and emphasizing their loyalty and devotion to your illustrious Mother Queen Victoria, then happily reigning.

Now, in the maturity of your manhood, having achieved fame and distinction in the profession of arms, you come to us as the direct representative of our beloved Sovereign, His Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth.

The Fathers of Confederation expressed the hope that some day Canada's Governor-General would be a Prince of the Royal Blood, and we, in common with all loyal Canadians, rejoice that this hope has been realized in our time, and that we are privileged to greet as Canada's Viceroy the son of 'Victoria the good', and the brother of 'Edward the Peace-maker'. In no part of this great Dominion will Your Royal Highness find more loyal and devoted subjects of our beloved Sovereign than in this City and Province, so closely associated with the names of your royal ancestry and noble kindred. Our city is called after Queen Charlotte and our Province bears the name of your illustrious Grandfather Edward Duke of Kent.

To their Royal Highnesses the Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia we tender our homage and respect. It affords us special pleasure to include them in the hearty welcome extended to Your Royal Highness. We rejoice to know that the Duchess is restored to health after her recent serious illness. We sincerely trust that Your Royal Highness may enjoy every moment of your stay in our Garden Province and that you may carry away with you pleasing memories of your visit.

In conclusion, we beg to express the hope that your term of office as Governor-General may redound to the happiness of Your Royal Highness, the glory of His Majesty the King and the lasting benefit of our beloved Canada. (Signed.)

at an auspicious time, when the opening up of new industries, the enlargement of existing ones, and the early prospects of much more constant and efficient communication between this province and the mainland of Canada have awakened new hopes and a general feeling of satisfaction and contentment. We have an abiding faith in your wisdom and matured statesmanship; we feel assured that in the administration of your high office the best traditions of the Empire will be followed and exemplified, and that your presence at the Capital will shed new lustre upon the Dominion and will contribute to its welfare and progress.

We sincerely regret that your present visit must necessarily be of such limited duration, but we cherish the hope that it may be of such interest and satisfaction to yourself and the members of your family, that we may again enjoy the honour and pleasure of welcoming you to this Province in the not distant future.

J. A. MATHIESON, Premier. Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, 19th July, 1912.

H. R. H. the Governor General replied as follows: Mr. Mathieson and Gentlemen. I beg that you will accept for the Government and people of Prince Edward Island my heartfelt thanks for your most loyal address of welcome, and also for your greeting to the Duchess and to my daughter. I am very pleased to renew my acquaintance with the capital of Prince Edward Island, and to recall the memories of my former visit.

When I visited you in 1899, the conference at which the project of Canadian confederation first took definite shape had but a short time before been sitting here in Charlottetown. I am sure that you must feel legitimate pride in thinking that the members of that conference drew some part of their inspiration from their surroundings, and that your city, therefore, played a by no means unimportant part in the binding together of the provinces which form your great Dominion.

The City Councillors were next presented to the Duke by his Worship. The Royal Party then entered the coaches in waiting and started for Government House. They were attended by a Band and Military Guard of Honor and were escorted by a detachment of Cavalry of the P. E. I. Light Horse. The streets were lined with people and flags and bunting fluttered in the breeze at every point. The school children and cadets lined both sides of Great George Street from Water Street and clear up to the steps of the Provincial Building. All had small flags. These they vigorously waved and accompanied the action by lusty cheers. In this way the progress of the Royal Party to Government House was a splendid pageant.

After luncheon at Government House the Royal Party proceeded to Victoria Park. Drawn up on the Park Roadway to receive the Royal visitors were the bands, the Infantry, the school cadets and members of the A. O. H., the Knights of Columbus and the C. M. B. A., fraternal societies. Through these lines the Cavalry escort and the carriages conveying the Royal party passed. As they entered the lines, three rousing cheers were given for their Royal Highnesses. When the Park was reached, the party proceeded at once to the splendid pavillion that had been prepared for the occasion. Here Premier Mathieson read and presented the following address:

To Field Marshal, His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught, K. G., etc. Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of Canada.

May it please your Royal Highness: On behalf of the Government and People of this Province, I beg to extend to you and to Your Royal Highnesses The Duchess of Connaught and The Princess Patricia, a most cordial welcome.

No Province of the Dominion of Canada, or of the Empire, excels Prince Edward Island in its loyal devotion to our Gracious Sovereign, or in its unswerving attachment to that form of government which has been maintained in the United Kingdom and throughout the northern half of this continent from its earliest settlement until the present time. It was therefore with great satisfaction that we learned of the appointment of Your Royal Highness as Governor-General of Canada, and we accept it as a distinguishing mark of His Majesty's interest in an affection for the people of the Dominion.

In presenting our welcome and the assurance of our high regard, we recall with interest your form visit to this Province, and we cannot forget that this Island bears the name of your distinguished ancestor, The Duke of Kent; that Your Royal Highness is the son of the august Queen Victoria, of happy and illustrious memory, and the brother of our late King, Edward the Seventh whose great wisdom and powerful influence were so conspicuously devoted to the welfare of his people and the maintenance of peace among the nations of the earth.

Your Royal Highness has come to us at an auspicious time, when the opening up of new industries, the enlargement of existing ones, and the early prospects of much more constant and efficient communication between this province and the mainland of Canada have awakened new hopes and a general feeling of satisfaction and contentment. We have an abiding faith in your wisdom and matured statesmanship; we feel assured that in the administration of your high office the best traditions of the Empire will be followed and exemplified, and that your presence at the Capital will shed new lustre upon the Dominion and will contribute to its welfare and progress. We sincerely regret that your present visit must necessarily be of such limited duration, but we cherish the hope that it may be of such interest and satisfaction to yourself and the members of your family, that we may again enjoy the honour and pleasure of welcoming you to this Province in the not distant future.

Suffered With Nerve Trouble FOR TWO YEARS

IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO SLEEP

Mr. Chas. W. Wood, 34 Terrace St., Montreal, Que., writes:—"For two years I had suffered with nerve trouble, and it was impossible for me to sleep. It did not matter what time I went to bed, in the morning I was even worse than the night before. I consulted a doctor, and he gave me a tonic to take a half hour before going to bed. It was all right for a time, but the old trouble returned with greater force than before. One of the boys who works with me, gave me half Pills. I took them, and I got such satisfaction that I got another box, and before I finished it I could enjoy sleep from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m., and now feel good."

London Times Makes An Interesting Suggestion

London, July 26.—An interesting suggestion was made by the Times in an editorial today. "It would be unbecoming," it says, "for Mr. Borden to announce his policy on so large and momentous a matter as Canada's contribution to the navy anywhere but in the Canadian parliament. There are few things we can suppose which would more surely deepen the effect of his statement when it comes and do more to knit yet more closely the ties which his visit here and his conferences with ministers have done so much to strengthen, than on his return to the Dominion for two or three statesmen with whom he has taken council in Whitehall to accompany."

The prime minister and the first lord have been to see with their own eyes the position in the Mediterranean and we doubt not they have learned much by their visit. Could not Mr. Asquith and Mr. Churchill devote part of the coming recess to visit to Canada? We are confident that such a step would be taken by all the world as marking a new date in the annals of the Empire.

The Standard's Paris correspondent noting the arrival of Mr. Pelletier there announces that Premier Poincaré will preside at a luncheon given in honor of the Canadians by the Franco-American committee on Tuesday. The correspondent also sends the views published in L'Action.

FRANCO-CANADIAN RELATIONS. "England," it says, "cannot do otherwise than Foster the Franco-Canadian sympathies which is an excellent speculation for her. The more love Canada bears towards France the more ironclad England can ask, if she says that British ships will help to defend France, while some day the united forces will join in battle against a common foe."

"When the day comes and British Dreadnoughts presented by Canada thunder in the North Sea, it will not only be for the honor and interest of Old England but for the glory and safety of our own country. In building battleships for the United Kingdom, Canadians will prove faithful sons of both their fatherland, England and of their first mother, France."

The Pall Mall Gazette tonight says: "There probably exists in the mind of many people the idea that to welcome the desire of the Dominions to join in the work of naval defence relieves us from the need to make supreme efforts, which political strategical situations so obviously demand. In this matter judicious reticence is of

BECAME SO WEAK FROM DIARRHŒA Had To Quit Work

Diarrhœa, especially if left to run any length of time, causes great weakness, so the only thing to prevent this is to check it on its first appearance. You will find that a few doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will do this quickly and effectively. Mr. Jno. R. Childerhouse, Orillia, Ont., writes:—"When in Fort William, last summer, I was taken sick with diarrhœa, and became so weak and suffered such great pain, I had to quit work. Our manager advised me to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, so on my way home I bought a bottle, and after taking four doses I was cured. We always keep a bottle in the house. We have also used it for our children, and find it an excellent remedy for summer complaint." Price 35 cents. When you go to get a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" insist on being given what you ask for, as we know of many cases where unscrupulous dealers have handed out some other preparation. The genuine is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

the highest importance, a fact hinted at yesterday by Mr. Hazen in a most delicate way.

"We warmly appreciate the repeated manifestations of solidarity which naval anxieties of the past few years have called forth, but it is not for us to discuss what the Dominions will or will not do, or take their good intentions into account in estimating our duty. There is too much babble and gush over the action of Canadian ministers, to be helpful to them or agreeable to Canadian people."

The All Canadian Route To Montreal.

Via the Intercolonial Railway Maritime Express is the only All Canadian Route to Quebec and Montreal from the Maritime provinces. The Maritime Express is generally admitted by experienced travellers to be the most comfortable train in America. This is especially true in regard to the dining and sleeping car services. The diners of the L. O. R. are roomy and well ventilated and furnished in the best of taste. The most excellent meals are served. Table d'hôte at a price away below the a la carte rates prevailing on the company owned lines. The sleeping coaches are up to date in every particular, and the smoothness of the road-bed makes the long journey easy and pleasant. Being popular with a class of travellers who are generally found to be the acme of good company, the through journey is never found dull, and even during the winter months there is much of scenic interest in the day's ride through the Province of Quebec. Montreal is reached at the convenient hour of 6:30 p. m. and connections are made at Bonaventure Union Station with the through trains of the Grand Trunk Railway for Toronto, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and other points in Western Canada and the United States. Connecting train for the Maritime leaves Picton at 14.20-14.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Land Regulations.

Any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.
Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $800.00.

Margery's Return.

Margery Nelson was sitting on the boarding house stairs waiting for the postman. This was the day she would hear whether or not she had won the scholarship. Margery had found a place to work for her board and she could earn her room rent; but if she didn't get the scholarship she would simply be compelled to go home for she had no money to pay her tuition with, and no loans were made to freshmen.

A week before she had taken the examination with a number of others who were trying for the freshman scholarship. Margery felt sure if she had won the scholarship she would get the notification that afternoon; but if she had not, she would not hear until after the holidays.

While she waited wondering how she would get the money to pay her own fare home if she had failed, a long official envelope was slipped in through the lighter slot of the outer door. Margery bounded down the stairs—she knew she had the scholarship.

That was the beginning of four long happy years. To earn one's board and room rent by three hours of hard work every day outside of college, would have seemed hard to many. But not so to Margery. Now that she had the scholarship which paid for her tuition, she did not mind hardships, nor the poverty. Was not this her life-long dream to be in college? And so earnestly and joyfully did she work that she won her way to the head of her classes, and into the most coveted college circles.

At last commencement came with its receptions and flowers and nois of admiring friends.

In the midst of it Margery had a big share of the attention and admiration.

Almost everybody had heard her story, how she had worked her way and won against all obstacles. They admired her for her pluck and loved her for herself.

When the graduates had received their degrees and their friends and college mates crowded forward to congratulate them, the last in the long line that greeted Margery was a crippled girl.

She impulsively took both Margery's hands and with tears in her eyes said:

"I'm so glad, Margery! so glad! Why, it's Eleanor!" exclaimed Margery, still holding her hands.

"You entered the freshman class when I did. But soon left and I haven't seen you since. Why did you quit? And where have you been?"

The slow color crept up in her face; she turned her eyes aside.

"Oh I couldn't make it," she said.

"I want back to teaching in a country school up in the hills. I've been there ever since."

"But I'm so glad, Margery—her eyes again brightened—" that you stayed and won. I wouldn't have amounted to much even if I could have graduated. But you are so strong and splendid. You'll do great things, and the college will be proud of you. You'll do things that will make your name remembered here."

At the reception that evening Margery spoke to one of the professors about Eleanor Chalmers.

"Do you know why she left school?"

"Yes," and the professor explained.

One day the dean of the college looked up from his desk as his secretary handed him a card.

"Margery Nelson."

"Send her in at once," he said to the secretary, and smiled for he was pleased and curious to see Margery. Since her graduation five years, before, she had not been back to college.

They looked for her every commencement but she never came. They wondered about it. They had all loved her, students and faculty alike. They had all been proud of her and predicted great things for her. She must have loved the college. Why then had she never returned? Occasionally they heard of her, read of her. She was succeeding in her chosen work.

The dean was still wondering when Margery came in, buoyant and happy as ever.

"Margery," asked the dean after the first greeting, "why haven't you been back?"

"I've been too busy making money," she replied with a quizzical smile.

"Why we never suspected you of all people to become a 'money grabber,' laughed the dean. Why no mercy?"

Margery grew serious. "It was to pay a debt."

"Oh?" said the dean. "I didn't know you were in debt. I thought you earned your way as you went along."

"I did," Margery nodded. "This debt is to one who never went along. She got up and laid on his desk a draft of five thousand dollars."

"What is that?" he asked surprised.

"My savings for five years," she

"I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better and it was not long before I was cured. Have never had any skin disease since." Max Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md.

was smiling again. "I want to found a scholarship."

The dean still looked puzzled.

"You do not remember, I suppose, a cripple girl named Eleanor Chalmers who entered college the same year I did, but stayed only a few weeks?"

"Yes," nodded the dean. "I remember her."

"The day I graduated," Margery's tone was scarcely steady—"I learned that she, like I, had taken the examination for the freshman scholarship. And that she, as I had only one hope for paying for her tuition."

And that evening after the commencement, one of the professors told me that Eleanor and I had tied for the scholarship. But the committee had decided to award it to me, as I was strong and could most likely be an honor to the college.

"If I had known," said Margery, with tense emotion, "I would not have taken it. But I didn't know until then."

"Now I want to pay my debt. Here is the first five years' earnings of my life. I want to found a scholarship for crippled girls."

"And I want it named the Eleanor Chalmers Scholarship,"—Chicago Advance.

Join the Army of : : Successful C. B. C. "Grads."

Look up the records of nearly all graduates of the C. B. C. and you will find that they are holding down the most responsible, prominent and lucrative positions that an appreciative business world can bestow.

Wherever you go you will find men and women who owe their present success and prosperity to the practical business training which they secured at the C. B. C. From Sydney to Hong Kong and from Vancouver to Bombay you will find hustling, successful and enterprising people who would now be drudging at their tasks in their home town if it were not for the rich opportunities their C. B. C. training developed for them.

There's no need of staying in the ranks with the common crowd, no need of slaving away for a pittance when practical training will enable you to create your own opportunities for a richer, bigger and better future.

C. B. C. courses cover bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, business correspondence, banking, reporting, modern office practice, navigation and engineering.
