"Tell Him I Loathe Him."

CHAPTER XVIII. THE MEETING IN SHERWOOD FOREST.

"How delightful!" exclaimed Bebe, clasping her small hands together beneath his chin. "And I may really help you upon it?"

"Do you not always help me, Angel, upon everything? I sometimes wonder what the critics would think of me as a plagiarist if they knew how much of my books you write for me."

"How absurd you are!" "It is true, just the same. Come, Angel! let us go out for a walk. These rooms are insufferably stuffy."

He smothered a sigh that arose to his lips, as he had learned so well how to do, kissed her, and arose.

"You are right, as you always are. Suppose I go for the beginning of the story, and we read it now in order to freshen memory?"

"Do it will be delightful! I will wait here until you return."

He pressed her hand and arose to do her bidding.

"Dear Edwin!" she murmured, as the crushing of the dead leaves told her that he was gone. "I wonder if Heaven has made me sufficiently grateful for the great good that has come into my life? He is so patient, so tender, so true! And he never loved anyone but me, after all! I think I should have crawled away somewhere and died if that had proved otherwise. I am very selfish, I know, but I could not—I could not share his love with any one upon this earth."

A sweet, tremulous smile played about her mouth. Her hands were clasped about her knees, her face turned in the direction he had taken as though listening for his return.

Surrounded as she was by the cold gray that spoke of death—the old tree against which she leaned, bare from summit to root and covered with gray lichens, even the heather and fern that formed the bed at her feet seeming scathed and hollow and old—she, the only semblance of color, the only touch of the spring like forget-me-not under the cold sky of life's winter, made a rare picture that neither artist nor misanthrope could gaze upon unmoved.

And as she sat so, a man emerged from the dense clump of trees near by. He carried with him a sketch-book, and as he glanced about him, evidently in search of something to ignite the flame of genius, his eye fell upon that picture.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

He brought her a light wrap, which he fastened with the tenderness of a lover about her, tied on her hat, crushed his own over his brows, and led her away.

Down upon the Shamble Oak they went, whereon Robin Hood hung his slaughtered deer, and sat upon the grassy mound beneath it, above which the garbled old oak spread its strangely colored, bare arms as though to protect it from the ages of tempests that had passed over.

"Why not write out here in the open air, Edwin?" she asked, as though suddenly aware of possessing an inspiration. "You do not like the room. Would this not give you a greater field for thought than cooped up there?"

"You are right, as you always are. Suppose I go for the beginning of the story, and we read it now in order to freshen memory?"

"Do it will be delightful! I will wait here until you return."

He pressed her hand and arose to do her bidding.

Got Father Morrissey's "No. 10" Just In Time To Save His Life.

Mr. Aylward's letter tells the story: Campbellton, N.B., Feb. 5, 1909. Father Morrissey Med. Co.

During the winter of 1907, while travelling on the Gaspé Coast, I contracted a severe cold which settled upon my lungs.

After I returned home I wrote to Father Morrissey explaining my case. I received a letter from him with a prescription for his medicine, which could not be filled at the time here. After one week's delay I received it, just in the nick of time to save my life.

After one month's use I felt like a new man.

Yours truly, Jno. Aylward.

There is not much time to lose when a cold settles on the lungs. Pneumonia kills within a week. With Father Morrissey's "No. 10" at hand, you don't even have to wait for a doctor. "No. 10" cures all throat and lung troubles. It is a real Lung Tonic, and fortifies against future attacks. Trial bottle 5c. Regular size 50c, at your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co. Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

While speaking, secure from her knowledge, he opened his sketchbook and was rapidly making a rough picture of her as she sat there, leaving the face to be put in afterwards, secure in the memory that he already felt sure neither time nor care could ever erase.

"I am glad that it is so," she returned. "I always feel awkward, knowing that people are pitying me, because I don't know what to say in return. I am not ungrateful, you understand, but—Ah! There is Edwin!"

The artist had not heard the step that was approaching, and turned only as the man joined them.

Chapman's eyes were fixed upon him, and as he turned a low cry escaped the lips that had already grown white as marble.

"You, Lilford Loyd-M styn!" he gasped, his voice thrilling with hatred.

"After all these months I have found you and my revenge is at hand at last!"

And then the white, startled face of his blind wife was thrust between them, and with a low cry that had in it the ring of death, Chapman sprang backward.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. It is made by mixing as much or as little of the following ingredients as you desire.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc.

Mix 2 cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of "Inex (50 cents) sugar" in a 16 oz. bottle and add the Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

One is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in vitamin and all the other natural cycling elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of suffering sufferers. It explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

For absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has "Inex" or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Wholesale Indents promptly executed at lowest cash prices for all kinds of British and Continental goods, including—

Socks and Stationery, Boots, Shoes and Leather, Chemicals and Druggists' Sundries, China, Earthenware and Glassware, Jewellery, Hats and Washes, Photographic and Optical Goods, Provisions and Oilmen's Stores.

Commission 2 1/2 per cent. to 5 per cent. Trade Discounts allowed. Special Quotations on Demand. Sample Orders from £10 upwards. Obligations of Trade Sold on Account.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By MITE CAMERON

Do you know of any unusual way in which a woman can earn, either all her bread and butter or just a little butter to go with the bread with which she may already be supplied? If you do, please send the good word along, so that some little sister who has not yet found her niche in the world's work may profit by it.

That there is no need for the tremendous overcrowding of a few professions by women and the consequent lowering of wages, is a burning belief with me, and therefore I occasionally devote this column to fitments as to unusual occupations in which women have been successful.

Surely in all your acquaintances there is some woman who has found happiness and profit in some unusual occupation.

Then let me know about it.

Flower-growing is an occupation which is attracting more women year after year. Those who think that simply a love of flowers is sufficient stock in trade for that business, are finding "in school of tribulation the folly of their expectations." But many women who realize that a good business head and indefatigable energy are also necessary, are making great successes as florists. Three women in a small town in New York, who are making a very good living growing carnations chiefly and other flowers as a side issue, tell me of earning very much better money than their school teacher and stenographer friends.

"I once knew a lady who made a very nice sum of money by taking care of large private libraries," writes one of my correspondents. "Her work was placing books in their correct order and dusting them and their cases at regular intervals—say once a month. She also took care of bric-a-brac and fine articles that could not be left to servants."

That reminds me of a sign which I myself recently saw hanging in an employment bureau. I do not remember the exact wording but the sense was an announcement that the woman who name was signed would clean jewelry and silverware at the owner's house. The names of several of the best known women in the city were given as references. It seems to me that such an undertaking should be a great success. I know many women who dislike to allow their diamonds to go out of their homes for cleaning at a regular jeweler's because of their fear of substitution.

"What is greatly needed," another correspondent writes, "is a companion for the many elderly ladies who for a variety of reasons although well provided with money, are more or less alone in the world. A woman who would make a business of visiting and amusing these people, and at times accompanying them to places of amusement, ought to make a good living."

Personally, I have never heard of anyone engaged in just such a business but I present it as a suggestion which some reader who is of the cheerful and lively disposition requisite for such an occupation, might work out.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y., and the advice received will be well.

Household Notes.

A little grated cheese improves chicken soup.

If a wire clothesline is used, it should be painted.

Bolled meat should always be left in its own liquor to cool.

If lemons are peeled before squeezing, more juice may be had.

Seeded raisins cut in half, will help an apple and put salad.

In making a French dressing, use twice as much oil as vinegar.

Putting vegetables to cook in too hot water destroys their flavor.

A bay leaf added to a plain tomato soup will give it a pleasant flavor.

Iron napkins first on the wrong side and then on the right, until perfectly dry.

Chamois leather should frequently be washed if silver is to be kept bright with it.

Rubbing spirits of camphor on the lips morning and night will give relief from cold sores.

Laces, embroideries and all kinds of braided work are best ironed over a Turkish towel.

When frying mush dip the slices first in white of egg. This will make the mush crisp.

Snap fasteners cut from old gloves may be successfully applied to the flackets of skirts.

If the bottom of a kettle is slightly greased in making custards, the mixture will not stick.

A waxed floor should never be washed with soap and water except just before re-waxing.

Avoid use of strong soaps and soap powders in washing fine china on which there is gilt decoration.

Silk handkerchiefs should be washed in clear water with pure castile soap to make them look like new.

Hot chocolate, unsweetened wafers and crystallized prunes form a dainty course for luncheon or supper.

Always line a cake pan with medium weight yellow paper. Grease the paper, not the pan, except the edges.

Leather-covered furniture can be cleaned with pure milk rubbed on with a piece of flannel. Rub gently until dry.

Pots and pans to which foodstuffs cling will soak much more effectively if filled with cold water than if hot is used.

If silk ties or waists are wanted stiff, iron them while quite damp; if they are wanted soft and silky, iron when almost dry.

Revealed Heroism in Sleep.

A boy talking in his sleep has led to his being rewarded by the presentation of a testimonial from the Royal Humane Society. Some boys were bathing in Portmadoc Harbor, Eng., and 12-year-old David Evans was carried into a whirlpool eight feet deep near the harbor flood gates. Teddy Williams, who is only 13, swam to his rescue, and, after a hard fight, brought him ashore. The boys resolved to say nothing about the incident. The secret, however, leaked out through Evans, who had not missed school for eight years and had received a silver watch for regular attendance, being too unwell next day to attend school, and through Williams waking up, shouting, "A rope, a rope, to save David."

Keir-Hardie Openly Preaches Revolution.

Brussels, Oct. 10.—Revolution was openly preached to the Egyptian Nationalists by Mr. Keir Hardie, Socialist member of the British House of Commons.

Mr. Keir Hardie is extremely fond of preaching revolutionary doctrines to the various peoples who live under British Government, but it is seldom that he is quite so outspoken, as he was yesterday. For three days he has listened to much seditious talk from the Egyptian members of the National congress. His own chance came yesterday, and he evidently thought that as a member of the British House of Commons it was his duty to put the sedition of the native speakers in the shade. In this he succeeded.

"People ask me why I support the Egyptian Nationalists," he shouted. "It is because England who, have a sense of honour share these views. Mr. Gladstone's and Lord Salisbury's pledges about evacuation must be respected."

"LONG LIVE EGYPT!"

"Sir Edward Grey, Mr. Roosevelt, and Mr. Balfour are a powerful triumvirate, speaking for finance. We speak for humanity. Egypt must be freed, but this can be done by neutralisation."

"I am not concerned with the means, only with the ends. Your movement must be revolutionary. Formerly you waited for evacuation, but Sir Edward Grey says no evacuation must change with the situation."

"Fight for a national system of education. Do not be sectarians. Do not cry, 'Long live Islam!' but 'Long live Egypt!'"

"Be concerned with your army; you will need it. Show you are ready for self government. Be united and strong."

Mr. Keir Hardie explained that he attended the congress to show that after the French interdiction all friends of the Nationalists should flock together.

"The interdiction violates all generous French traditions," he declared. "The friends of liberty in France regret it as showing that the idea of liberty has a tendency to disappear before the invasion of finance and capitalism."

"But do not lose courage," he concluded. "The young Egyptians will one day see the statues of Mustafa Kamel and Farid Bey in the streets of Cairo."

Mr. Keir Hardie speech was very much to the taste of the delegates, who cheered him long and loudly. When the cheering had subsided an Irishwoman rose and in a shrill voice proposed that a united congress should be held of Irish, Egyptians, and Indians. "We should thus have a united congress of the victims of Great Britain," she declared, and again the delegates cheered.

All Bey Jahmy Kamel, brother of the late Mustafa Kamel, in a long speech pictured the condition of Egypt under British rule, summing it up by declaring that "in every domain British rule has been infamous and unjust."

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

Six resolutions were proposed and carried unanimously. They were as follows:

The occupation of Egypt by Great Britain being illegal, evacuation must take place immediately.

The Constitution must be restored. The Press Law must be abolished. The Deportation Law must be abrogated.

Control over the Debt must be maintained so long as Egypt is the debtor of Europe.

The treaty of 1898 between the Khedive and Great Britain regarding the partition of the Sudan is void.

Open Session of Licensing Board.

We have already commended the action of the Licensing Board in inaugurating this year the practice of holding public sessions. The advantages of that course became evident last night during the discussion in open court of the merits of the applications for licenses against which objections have been raised. That discussion between contending counsel and members of the Board made manifest grave defects in the Act, which could not have been brought to light so strikingly in any other way. In the interest of both the licensees and the community further legislation is necessary.

Last night the Session opened at 8 o'clock in the Central District Court Room. Mayor Ellis presided and with him were Messrs. Martin and Blackwood. The Board followed counsel closely, and advanced points and queries for the expression of their views. Mr. Blackwood was particularly active in this direction.

There were a fair number of clergymen, publicans and the general public present and most of them remained till the Session was adjourned at 11.15. Among those were Rev. James Bell, Rev. J. K. Curtis, Rev. J. Bartlett, Lieut.-Col. Rees, Staff Capt. Cave and Editors Robinson and Lord.

The applications of A. D. Rankin &

Co., Fred Collins and Elizabeth O'Reilly were the first group taken.

A. D. RANKIN & CO.

Under this name an application was made for a license in respect of the premises of the late Mr. A. D. Rankin who held a license for many years. Sir J. S. Winter was instructed to oppose the application on behalf of the C. E. T. S. The objection was based on the contention that the Board had no power to grant this application. The original licensee died during the currency of the annual license. The license expired on his death, and Sir James argued that the only power possessed by the Board was to make an order such as would meet the merits of the case for the unexpired balance of the year for which the license ran, but that the Board had no power to grant another Annual License at the annual Licensing Session.

Mr. A. J. W. McNeilly, K. C., appeared for the applicant. He submitted that the Act recognized a quasi moral right to have a license already granted renewed, and that the latter part of section 16, viz., "In case of the insolvency or death of the person licensed, a Magistrate or the Board may make such order thereon as shall suit the circumstances of such case" expressly empowered the Board to continue not only for the unexpired balance of a year, but at the Licensing Session from year to year, a license in any case where the widow, orphans or other persons dependent on the estate of the deceased licensee would be deprived of support by the discontinuance of the license. In this case Mr. A. D. Rankin was dependent for support on the continuance of this license. The facts of the case were: Mr. Rankin was disabled by illness and could not carry on his business. He applied to the Board for a transfer of his license to A. D. Rankin & Co., under the management of Mr. Mulcahey, so that he and his might derive support from the business. The Board made the transfer. Later

A. D. Rankin & Co. for a consideration transferred the lease to Mr. Mulcahey who still traded under the firm name of A. D. Rankin & Co. Under the agreement Mr. Mulcahey can surrender the lease in the event of a discontinuance of the license without his fault or of the passing of local option. Under the agreement the widow and orphans of Mr. Rankin receive from Mulcahey $800 a year. In the event of the Board discontinuing the renewal Mrs. Rankin and her children will be deprived of their income. The spirit of the Act did not contemplate the perpetration of such hardship. Indeed it expressly provided against such a contingency.

F. COLLINS AND E. O'REILLY.

Sir James Winter opposed the applications by arguments similar to those he adduced in the former case. The original licensees were dead and the Board could not grant the applications of these applicants. Mr. W. J. Higgins appeared for the applicants. In addition to the arguments advanced by Mr. McNeilly in the Rankin application, which applied equally to these cases, he pointed out that the premises were among the oldest licensed premises in the city. In no sense could the application be regarded as new licenses within the meaning of the Act. The applicants were occupiers of the premises and the continuance was such as could be granted under Section 16. It would be a terrible hardship to deprive the next of kin of the deceased licensees of their means of support by refusing to continue the license.

MARY J. FLYNN.

Sir James opposed the application of Mary J. Flynn. The present holder was her husband. The license was granted to an individual and not to premises. The Board could only make a transfer in case of death or insolvency of licensee. This application came under neither head. The Board had no power to grant it.

Mr. Furlong, K. C., appeared for Mrs. Flynn. He said it was an old license held for very many years by the family of Mary Flynn. She herself had held the license for a great number of years. She had thought it better to have the license in the name of her husband for convenience of trade, but she had always owned the premises and stock. This year her husband had left the city and had not made an application for the license as usual. To retain her means of support she made the application in her own name for a license that had always been virtually hers. It would be a monstrous injustice to deprive her of this license and her means of living.

JOHN KELLY.

Sir James Winter opposed this application on the ground that Torphy's was practically a new premises, and such as in the contemplation of the Act would mean a transfer to another premises, and that it could be made on the expiration of a lease. Mr. Furlong for the applicant said Torphy's was not a new premises. Alterations had 250 yards of a building had been done, but there was a law decision which he cited which showed that the licensing law did not regard such an alteration and rebuilding as constituting a new premises. It was strange that at one time Sir James Winter contended that in one application a license was personal and in this case that the person counted for nothing, it had all to do with the building. Sir James replied that the license was personal in regard to a particular premises.

T. J. ALLAN.

Sir James Winter opposed the application on the ground that the applicant had been convicted three times under the Licensing Act. Mr. Furlong for the applicant pointed out that the case of the conviction under the Licensing Act of 1906, and that the law did not empower the magistrate to withdraw the license. It would be an act of injustice if the Board exacted a forfeiture which the law itself did not contemplate. The offence was not personal and was not the fact that Mr. Allan's health had not permitted him to exercise such a personal supervision as he could exercise now that he was in better health.

ELLIS & CO.

Sir James Winter opposed the application for a grant of a license of last year on two grounds, viz., (1) there was no notice as required by the Statute; and (2) the premises were without interest and a deprecation of value. He contended that the applicant had wrongfully obtained the license, either by wilful concealment of facts, or in some way the Board had been misled. In any case the Board acted ultra vires in granting the license, and should not continue it.

Mr. Furlong pointed out that Sir James was acting in a charge of fraud, and that it was incumbent on Sir James either to withdraw the charge or to proceed to prove it. He was prepared to meet and combat such a charge. Here ensued a long discussion. Mr. Furlong contended that Sir James was inviting the Board to interfere in making a course in suggesting that the Board should review the decision of last year. It would introduce a precedent for a future review of existing licenses. From this would ensue a feeling of uncertainty as to the continuance of all existing licenses, and a disturbance of interest and a depreciation of value. The Act contemplated the continuance of original grants of licenses, which should not be disturbed unless there were compelling reasons for doing so. The power of veto in such a case was like that of the Governor. He was empowered to veto all of any bills presented to him, but could only exercise that extraordinary circumstance.

Mr. Squires appeared for the Methuens and opposed the application. He contended that this application stood apart from all others. From the first knowledge of the granting of the license by the Board, opposition had been made. His position had been continued and had never ceased. It was not so in regard to other applications. This case was not like the others. The precedents established in this case would not affect the others. A monstrous wrong had been perpetrated in granting this license. It was an ever increasing irritation, and sore throat. Put one in the mouth before going out into the cold air, and you will enjoy immunity from the disagreeable effects of the same. Price 25c. a box.

Zymoite Tooth Paste is coming forward as a candidate for public favor. It has a distinct aroma and taste which is asserted by users to be very pleasant. It will not harden in the tube in ordinary winter weather. Price 25c. a tube.

The Mayor announced that the Board would consider all the cases carefully and if further evidence should be required the parties and their counsel would be notified. The Court adjourned at 11.15 p.m.

Men in Danger.

By the schr Lydia Gertrude which arrived here yesterday from Groasis Island, we learn that on Saturday last in the storm, while a high sea was running, two men named Jas. Clements and M. Broderick, narrowly escaped being drowned. They were coming from Conchoe to the Island when their boat was overtaken in the high sea running and both were left struggling in the water. They managed to cling to the inside of the boat but sea after sea swept over them and how they were not drowned is a mystery. For fully an hour they clung like this to the upturned boat and though men from the schr. saw them they could not put out in such a sea. Eventually man Leo Fitzgerald and Peter Brownie could not remain on the boat and were left in a perilous position. They were in a desperate plight when taken on board the boat, some of their nails were almost torn off from gripping the side of the boat, and several times the sea almost beat them clear off her. So weak were they after the rescue that they could not stand and had the men who rescued them, they were almost both would have been drowned. When they went in the water both men had overcoats on but managed to get clear of them. They had thought of a schooner's compass. Later their boat drifted ashore and was beaten in pieces.

Becomes Suddenly Ill.

Mr. King of the schr. Polino K. of Fox Hr., was in excellent health and spirits all the forenoon but just at 12 o'clock after he stepped his coat and was about to go to the office, he suddenly fell and fell as if shot, on the wharf. The man almost instantly became unconscious and his comrades feared he was dying. Phone calls for a doctor and priest were sent from Balne Johnson & Coy. office and Dr. Stafford was quickly on the scene following by Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan. The medico prescribed for the man, declared him to be in a bad state and ordered that he be sent later to a boarding house where he would be comfortable and properly cared for. He revived after a while but again had another attack. Once again his condition was serious. Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan administered the Last Sacraments of the Catholic Church and remained with the helpless man for some time until he was removed to a hospital. He also disordered of the heart, at 1 p.m. he had considerably improved.

"Mary" Writes,

And Gives Some Valuable Hints on How to Build up a Town. Practice What You Preach.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir, — I had just finished a shirt for Tom which (shirt) I had on dock for repairs, and to which I had added a new body, sleeves and tail, when he (Tom) returned from the Public Meeting held in the Court House last night. Now, Mr. Editor, as a prelude to my remarks, I guess the word is all right as I heard the minister use it in his sermon. I might say that the Public Meeting of citizens was for the purpose of suggesting to the members and the Government some way of giving employment to the fishermen who made such a poor season's work. It was thought by many people about town that as the Government had so kindly promised us a $50,000 public building, and as the one now in use could be made do for some years yet, the Government if approached might be induced to give the town some sewerage and other improvements in lieu of that expensive building, which was, so I am informed, to have spring doors, spring chairs and other comforts for the public servants. Well, as I was saying, I "got legs under Tom" to go, for I wanted to hear the news, so as to send them to your

WHAT'S THE USE

To keep a "Coffee Complexion." A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, muddy and yellow but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl."

"I was induced to try Postum by a friend, who had suffered just as I had suffered, from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum, that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again."

"There's a reason." Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Veritable Musical Feast

A very large and select audience attended the concert given by Organist King in the Methodist College Hall last night. His Excellency the Governor graced the concert with his presence, and was accompanied by Lady Williams and Miss Dean. It was anticipated that the concert would be one of the character of which would be highly pleasing to the tastes of the people of the city, and in this none were disappointed. Indeed, it is safe to say that it was one of the most brilliant concerts heard in St. John's for some time. Songs from the great composers were given with the expression and feeling which only a master in the "Art Divine" can impart, and often the audience were enthralled with the beautiful melody which filled the spacious building. Seven selections were given by Mr. King. These included four organ performances, viz. Sonata in C sharp minor by Liszt; Harp Solo; "Tormozzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni; Gavotte (Mignon) by Thomas, and an Overture by Mozart. All these were beautifully rendered. Three beautiful themes were heard from Mr. King on the piano. His manipulation of both instruments exhibited the skill of the true musician and each selection was received with well merited applause. Miss Johnson gave several beautiful selections on the violin and played with the finesse of a virtuoso. Her efforts brought her hearty applause and she concluded her concert and at once became popular with the audience. She is the possessor of a very sweet voice, sings with ease and expression and is a vocalist who the music lovers of St. John's will always be glad to hear. The "Blackbird's Song," a pretty morceau was one of her best selections last night and demonstrated the excellence of her vocal powers. The concert in its every feature was successful and highly enjoyed by all who attended it.

Mr. J. T. Woods who formerly worked the linotype at the Daily News Office, is now very ill at Halifax.

Yours, etc.,
Mr. Grace, Oct. 19, 1910. MARY.

DAWSON, Oct. 19. The steamer La France, the last river boat of the year to sail from Dawson for White Horse, got away last night crowded with hundreds of passengers. All way freight of far away points was refused as the boat has a race against ice. Pelly and Stewart rivers are thick with ice and large floes are running past Dawson.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19. Several of the ten balloons, which left here Monday in the International Race, are believed to be in the air in Canada. They were last reported from Northern Michigan, near Lake Huron. One, the Busseldorf 11, is taking a more northerly course than the others. The trip across Lake Michigan was made safely by eight of the entrants. The balloon St. Louis No. 4, was forced to land near Tallman, Michigan, after travelling 655 miles, because of lack of ballast to negotiate the flight across Lake Huron. With the Million Club aerostat down the hope of the U. S. winning over several in the America 11, piloted by Allan R. Howley. The third balloon down is the Condor. Like the Million Club balloon did not attempt to cross Lake Michigan and landed at Wisconsin yesterday. The record made by the later Oscar Erbebeck in the 1907 race of 573.4 miles, it is believed will be broken.

HAYAMA, Oct. 19. Relief trains are being sent into Fimar Del Rio which bore the brunt of the recent storm. The reports show that the property losses through that Province were enormous. The greater portion of the Province which forms western Cuba is being inundated and nearly all of its towns suffered severely. Hardly a house has been left standing in the country districts, and tobacco farms everywhere were ruined. It is impossible to estimate with a certainty the monetary loss but it will total millions of dollars. The loss of life was apparently much less than at first feared, and occurred chiefly in the town of Consolacion where 12 persons were drowned. It is expected that other cases of drowning will be discovered when relief trains penetrate the devastated regions.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Oct. 19. In a bloody battle between a company of rurales and a band of mounted national police of Mexico, and a strong band of robbers near Huacantan, on San Juan, yesterday night, according to a telegram received to-day at the War Department, a sergeant and a corporal of the rurales and 3 of the robbers were killed. Among the dead outlaws was the notorious Santanon, whose daring raid of isolated haciendas have caused a reign of terror through portions of Vera Crusa "correct." During the last ten months five rurales were seriously wounded. The bandits had been hotly pursued for several days and were "surrounded" in the bush. They made a desperate resistance but surrendered only after the death of their leader and half of the band.

LONDON, Oct. 19. The prosecution continued its case against Dr. Hawley H. Crippen charged with the murder of his wife the actress Belle Elmore to-day, by introducing the testimony of Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard who pursued the Dr. and his companion, Elsie, to Clare Le Neve across the Atlantic from Westbury, Wilts. Elsie was arrested in the lower court. While Alfred Aspinall Tobin, chief counsel for Crippen was cross-examining Dew with the object of showing that the defendant exhibited no trace of anxiety or nervousness during the police investigation, the witness returned to his home, one of the jurors fainting, and the court was adjourned for 2 hours.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19. With Walter Wellman and the crew of his dirigible "America" all accounted for, and the airship last seen adrift in the air far to the south, some wireless jokers in this city are apparently amusingly himself by sending messages in Wellman's name. The following was received early to-day from the Belle Isle Wireless Station via Cape Race, Nfld: "At 12.15 o'clock the Belle Isle Station received a communication from an unidentified source apparently not far away and supposed to be from the Wellman airship. The message said: 'We are sailing with you on our way to the west, but have been unable as yet to obtain exact position.'"

NEW YORK, Oct. 19. Walter Wellman and the members of his dirigible "America" expedition in the dirigible "America," who were rescued from almost certain death at sea 360 miles east of Cape Hatteras yesterday, believe that a voyage across the Atlantic yet may be accomplished. The Wellman party are aboard the steamship Trent when rescued, their position was desperate. A heavy fog held back the Trent this morning. At 9 o'clock she was about 20 miles east of Sandy Hook proceeding slowly. The Trent will dock this afternoon, although the object of Wellman's venturesome trip was not accomplished he succeeded in creating a new world's record for dirigible being between 70 and 72 hours in the air and covering, according to Wellman, a thousand miles over rough seas.

KITTERY, Me., Oct. 19. Eighty employees of the Portsmouth Navy Yard on the way to begin their day's work were injured to-day, possibly fatally in collision between a trolley and a motor car on the Atlantic shore line railway at Portsmouth. Falling leaves had made the rails slippery and the first of two cars mounting the hill crashed into another car, a similar accident occurred at the same spot six years ago.

One Dose Makes Indigestion Go.

Heartburn, Gas, Headache and other stomach misery vanishes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating; if eruptions of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which coats your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat, does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store, the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfit, all of any kind of food you eat.

Here and There.

Madam Marony, a distinguished pianist, and Signor Stagiolo, the eminent violinist, will assist the great singer, Marie Narette, who will give two concerts in the Methodist College Hall next week.—ad. 11—

Induction Service.

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The ceremony of the induction of Rev. J. S. Sutherland as pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, this city, was conducted last evening at that edifice by the Rev. R. Johnston, B.A., Moderator of the Halifax Presbytery. The local clergymen who assisted him were Rev. P. S. Coffin, of Harbor Grace; Rev. J. M. Allan, of Bay of Island, and Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite, this city. Rev. Mr. Johnston began by reading the lesson from the second chapter of Timothy. Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite then offered prayer. The offertory followed and then came the sermon by Rev. Mr. Johnston, whose text was "Evening and morning and noon when I pray." It was a masterly effort well worthy of the occasion and one that will not soon be forgotten by the audience. The preacher dwelt on the fact that the duties of religion should be regarded in a practical and earnest manner, especially the duty of prayer and the regular attendance at Divine worship. After the sermon the induction was proceeded with. Rev. Mr. Coffin first made the formal announcement that Rev. Dr. Robertson, the late pastor, had been called to Toronto, and that the one chosen as his successor was Rev. J. S. Sutherland. The call had been sustained by the Halifax Presbytery and had been accepted by Dr. Sutherland. The new pastor acquiesced in all the conditions laid down by the Rev. Moderator. Thereupon followed addresses by Rev. P. S. Coffin and Rev. M. Allan on the pastoral duties of the new minister, who after he had closed the sermon by imparting Benediction, delivered a very learned address to the congregation. Music specially prepared for the occasion was rendered by Mr. Alfred Hall, the new organist, who made a very favorable impression on the judges of good music among the congregation.

Opinion of Canker.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir—A few words from the shop respecting a remark in your issue would seemingly not be unheeded, as we all are at least interested in farming. Teachers take interest, and I deem it necessary that we all should study and observe the natural everyday commonplace degradation of the land. Some time ago we were startled about the canker—a dreadful potato disease which is now half as prevalent as previously reported. Although not an expert on farm work, a few notes cannot go astray. What do your readers think of the canker? My opinion concerning the canker is this: that the canker is not in the ground; it is in the seed potatoes. These words may appear as erroneous ones, yet "experience teaches," as it surely does, and it is verified. A question asked may not be unappreciated: "How did the canker get into the ground?" It didn't fall there, and it didn't grow there. But first of all it came from the seed. In one bed in another a different kind. The first bed is not marked by the canker, yet the other is. My opinion concerning the matter is that the disease comes from the diseased tubers, and after the seeds are sown a while ago tubers acquire a fungus, and so the disease spreads. It is not in the soil, but in the tubers. The area affected by the canker should be a meadow. The canker seed should be destroyed, and it is my belief that every many years go by the canker will be a thing of the past.
Impoverished ground should not be utilized for potatoes, and if fertile ground is used, the seeds do not bring satisfactory production. I don't say that canker is nothing more or less than a potato plague.

Harbor Grace Notes.

The Agricultural Exhibition opens this p.m. As we write a number of very fine cattle, horses, pigs, etc., are in Coughlin Hall grounds. The Hall is well stocked with garden produce of all descriptions, surprising many who had no idea such could be grown here.
The public meeting in the Court House on Monday night was very largely attended. A committee was appointed to represent to the Government, through the members, the need of some immediate employment, for the people, particularly the fishermen who fared so badly at Labrador the past season.
The schr. Flying Cloud, William Pike, master, will shortly leave for St. John's and bring back freight for different firms here.
Mrs. Mark French and family left yesterday for Montreal where they will reside in future. Mr. French has been there for several years.
A large number of people left by the express yesterday for Sydney, Boston, Montreal and other places.
Rev. T. S. Coffin left by this morning's train for St. John's. He expects to return on Friday.
A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Gorman this morning.

The Lamp Exploded.

At the residence of Mr. James Malone, of Logy Bay, Monday night a dangerous accident was barely averted. His little daughter was passing from one room to another with a lighted lamp in her hand when she suddenly stumbled and fell. The lamp exploded and threw burning oil around the child's person and about the room. Mr. Malone and his wife grasped some mats and rugs which were about, threw them around the child and also beat out the fire, which had ignited the woodwork about. Had the little girl been alone she might have been burned to death with the residence and its contents.

Tried to Fire House.

Yesterday Supt. Grimes was told by Mr. E. Sparkes, of Lower Island Cove, that he had a wire from his wife in which she said that a woman named Bussey, who was evidently insane, had entered her house and tried to set it on fire but was restrained by neighbours who had seen her enter the residence. Supt. Grimes telegraphed Officer March to arrest the woman which he did yesterday afternoon, and will bring her here for the Lunatic Asylum.

The Minia Arrives.

The cable ship Minia arrived here at 6 p.m. yesterday after being six weeks repairing the Anglo cable about 1,000 miles off the Newfoundland coast. The vessel left Halifax on September 9th past, and had considerable difficulty in effecting repairs to the cable as the weather has been very stormy. She picked it up twice but lost it again, and three buoys also were swept away. The ship will get supplies and coal after which she will again go out to resume her work. The ship hope up for this port on Saturday afternoon last.

Splendid Local Apples.

Yesterday hundreds of people were attracted by an unusual display of local apples displayed in the grocery windows of Messrs. Ayre & Sons new store. Several of the apples are as large as fair sized turnips, and show what could be done in the way of apple growing in Newfoundland.
