PROVINCE GUARANTEES ON 50 MILES OF NEW TRACK A MILLION FOR C.N.R.

Step is Taken to Protect Government
Security on Loan Made by Ross in 1904, Premier Explains.

LOAN IS TO COVER
COST OF SPUR LINES

A guarantee of $20,000 a mile on 50 miles of Canadian Northern Railway track was announced to the legislature last night by Hon. Mr. Matheson. In 1904 the former government guaranteed the debt of the C.N.R. for 50 miles of the line at the same rate of $20,000. The guarantee at that time was secured by a mortgage on the mileage. The present guarantee is secured by a first mortgage not only on the proposed lines, but as it is proposed to guarantee the expenditure on terminals also, to the extent of 65 per cent., the whole not to exceed $1,500,000. The whole guarantee past and present will then be included under one mortgage, which will cover not only the track but the valuable terminal property. There was no question whatever, thought Col. Matheson, that the provincial security would be immensely improved over the previous arrangement.

E. J. B. Pense criticized the government for bringing down such a bill at the last moment when they had been wont to protest so strongly against the practice in years past.

"We are bringing down this bill in connection with a scheme which we ourselves opposed," said the premier. "We found this mortgage on our hands, but we found the valuable part of the property left out of the mortgage, and to protect our security we were compelled to take this course by the action of hon. gentlemen opposite themselves."

Col. Matheson further explained that the money would be paid into the bank to be paid over on progress estimates being furnished. There was a cash bonus from the Dominion of $900 a mile. The government made sure that enough of the old money was left to finish the road.

The securities will be payable June 30, 1908, and bear interest at 3 1/2 per cent. The lieutenant-governor-in-council will make arrangements for supplying the money necessary to fulfil the requirements of the guarantee.

The spur lines run from the main line to Key Inlet; from the main line to Moose Mountain Mines; from this spur to Garson Mines; and from the main line to Orillia. The terminals include the lands on Eastern-avenue, Front-street, Cypress-street and Trinity-street; land north of Eastern-avenue; lands on the belt line; the Don River and lands and water lots at Key Inlet. These lands being included in the mortgage strengthen the security very materially.

Col. Clark Objects.
Hugh Clark (Bruce) regretted having to do what he then proceeded to do, he declared. He announced that four years ago he had opposed the guarantee at that time. He was not going into the merits of the case, and did not know any more of it than he had just heard, but recorded his protest against the bill before his second reading.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.
Alex Daisson Says He Saw Noah Strike the Blow.

LONDON, April 9.—(Special).—The adjourned session of the spring assizes started here this afternoon when Thos. Noah, the Chippewa Indian, charged with having murdered another Indian, Absolon Fox, on May 23 last, came up for trial.

Evidence for the crown showed that Noah had been seen with the murdered man at the dance where the murder occurred. One witness, Alex Daisson, claimed to have seen him strike the blow. The knife used was also recognized as having belonged to Noah. The case was adjourned at 6:30 o'clock to open at 9 o'clock to-morrow.

E. Sidney Smith, K.C., of Strathroy, is acting as crown prosecutor, while Ed. Meredith, K.C., conducts the defence.

In the evening two civil cases, that of McEwen v. Patterson, and Smith v. Brenner, were entered upon, but as some of the evidence was not on hand, both cases were adjourned.

At a meeting of the water commission to-day Mayor Stevely submitted a proposition to use Cronyn, White and Kilworth Springs for the present, and to ultimately install filtration plant and use water from North Branch.

IF DR. REAUME RETIRE.
La Presse Would Nominate Napoleon Champagne.

MONTREAL, April 9.—(Special).—If the Hon. Dr. Reaume has to retire on account of ill-health, La Presse nominates Napoleon Champagne of Ottawa as his successor in the Whitney government. This paper this evening says: "We do not desire the retirement of Hon. Dr. Reaume. We would rather see his health so improve that he may remain a long time yet as the representative of the French-Canadian element in the cabinet of Ontario. If, however," adds The Presse, "he is forced to retire, we would heartily welcome as his successor, Napoleon Champagne of Ottawa. He was an unsuccessful candidate in the federal elections for 1896, 1898 and in 1904, but as Ottawa is to be divided into distinct electoral divisions, we believe that Mr. Champagne can be elected to the legislature without any difficulty. He is a self-made man and Mr. Whitney would find in that gentleman an energetic and conscientious colleague."

ERIE IS NOW HARRIMAN'S

Advances $5,500,000 in Cash to Prevent Road
Going Into the Re-
ceiver's Hands.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Following the action of E. Harriman in providing $5,500,000 yesterday for the payment of maturing notes, it was said to-day in Wall-street that the Erie road will shortly pass under the absolute control of Mr. Harriman and his associates, who stand ready to spend under certain conditions from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 for improvements in terminals, tunnels, trackage and rolling stock. If those plans are completed Mr. Harriman's long-cherished plans of a perfectly equipped transcontinental road, with Erie as the eastern outlet, will have been realized.

In addition to furnishing yesterday the necessary money to take care of the maturing notes, Mr. Harriman, it was stated, will himself take $5,000,000 of the new 6 per cent. notes, so as to provide the company with funds to meet immediate needs.

Startles Wall-Street.
While the destiny of the Erie Railroad was trembling in the balance yesterday afternoon, the road's bankers having refused to meet its maturing short term notes in cash and the board of directors being in session to decide the company's future, E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific, stepped to the front with a personal offer of $5,500,000 in cash to save the Morgan property from default and a consequent receivership.

Wall-street was electrified by the announcement that Mr. Harriman had thus entered the camp of his rivals in the guise of a rescuer. While Mr. Harriman is a director of the Erie Railroad, several of the directors are distinctly factors in the so-called Morgan group of financiers. They include James F. Baker, James N. Hill, Norman B. Reed, Charles Stetson, Francis Lynde Stetson, H. McK. Twombly and William Pierson Hamilton, several of whom are members of the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co.

As the Morgan group is closely affiliated with James J. Hill's Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railroads, and has had stirring financial conflicts with the Harriman coterie of financiers, who control the Union and Southern Pacific systems, the two camps have come to be regarded as permanently hostile.

Sees Realignment of Powers.
So in financial circles and the railroad world the step taken by Mr. Harriman was regarded as an unprecedented incident which presaged a change in control of the historic Erie Railroad and a realignment of the country's great financial and railway interests.

From an inactive member of the Erie board, E. H. Harriman suddenly disclosed himself as the dominant factor. He is accredited with having made a personal fight against a receivership or reorganization of the Erie for the last three weeks, in the face of a willingness on the part of the road's management to accept the inevitable.

Mr. Harriman furthermore has loomed up as a heavy stockholder in the Erie. He advanced $5,500,000 in cash to save the company yesterday. A week previously he entered a syndicate in which he pledged himself to take $2,000,000 of the company's short term notes, and he also offered a loan of $5,000,000 to permit the company to continue its improvement work. In all his commitments with regard to the Erie thus far, up to $12,500,000, exclusive of his stock holdings, a position which easily gives him a leading voice in the management of a property that has been a Morgan possession for many years.

EXCHANGE DROPS RATES.
Governing Body of Montreal Reduce From 7 to 6.

MONTREAL, April 9.—(Special).—The governing committee of Montreal Stock Exchange met at 12:30 to-day and decided to reduce the minimum rate charged clients from 7 to 6 per cent. The change will go into effect next Monday.

The reduction will be very popular among the many who are carrying stocks on margin, as they have felt for some time past that the 7 per cent. rate was excessive.

It was explained by brokers this afternoon that they have not maintained the high rate longer than was necessary, but now that money is working easier they are in a position to charge less.

Several large bank loans were made yesterday at 5 per cent., also some banks are still charging 6 per cent. Private money is also offering here at 5 per cent., and it looks now as if the long predicted period of easy money had set in at last.

THE SAP STILL RUNNING.
This week has seen the finest flow of sap this season in the Donlands sugar bush. They boiled 30 gallons of syrup on Monday and 20 yesterday, and there is promise of a fair run for a day or two more. Michie's will have a fresh supply on to-morrow morning. It is the best yet made, and every one who has tried Donlands maple syrup comes back for more.

LABOR PARTY HAS A BRAND NEW PLATFORM

Public Ownership is One of the Planks — So is Asiatic Exclusion
and no Senate.

The Independent Labor Party last evening constructed a platform of the following planks:
Free compulsory education.
Legal working day of eight hours, with Saturday a half holiday.
Government inspection of factories, shops and all industries.
Abolition of the contract system in all public works.
A minimum living wage based on local conditions.

Public ownership of all franchises such as railways, telegraphs, telephones, waterworks, lighting, etc.
Tax reform by lessening taxation on industries and increasing it on land values.

Abolition of the Dominion senate.
Exclusion of all Asiatics from the country.

Restricted immigration and the abolition of government assistance.
Abolition of property qualification for all public offices.

Voluntary arbitration of all labor disputes.
Proportional representation with grouped constituencies and the abolition of municipal wards.

Direct legislation thru the initiative of referendum.
Prohibition of prison labor in competition with free labor.

They came near adding the plant of women's suffrage as well. Before the gathering broke up, however, they decided to defer the question of universal adult suffrage to the next provincial convention, should one be called.

Power was granted the executive to recall any candidate from parliament who should be discovered violating the party's principles.

FAILURES IN ROSS RIFLE DUE TO FAULTY PARTS

Condemnation in Report of Major
Helmer, Inspector of Musketry, on Series of Tests.

OTTAWA, April 9.—(Special).—A voluminous return, called for by Colonel Worthington, covering the record of the Ross rifle in Canada in actual use, was tabled in the house by the minister of militia.

There are official reports of accidents and failure to both the Ross and Lee-Enfield rifle for over a period of about five years. A fair summary is that while casualties have not been at all confined to the new arm, failure in the case of latter have been traced to faulty parts and defects of construction to a far greater degree than in the case of the British-made rifle.

But the most sweeping condemnation of the Ross rifle is contained in the report of Major Helmer, inspector of musketry, upon a series of tests made with that arm at Petawawa Camp last August. As a result of these specially ordered tests, Major Helmer finds that for all practical purposes the rifle was accurately sighted. It was, however, when the test of magazine fire was applied under practical conditions that the rifle signally failed. With deliberate use the cartridges jammed and the extractor failed to work.

The test was to be made of firing five shots each at four ranges, the five men advancing in skirmishing line. When the third range was reached the sights became so heated that even hardened hands could not handle them. Some of the micrometer rings of the sights were so bound that they would not turn and firing at four ranges had to be abandoned.

The mark III. rifle firing showed the same defect in this regard as did the other Ross rifles.

A DASTARDLY CRIME.

Man Fires House to Burn His Wife and Child.

DAUPHIN, Man. April 9.—(Special).—Apparently a most dastardly effort at revenge has been made at Pine River. Owing to domestic trouble a Galician named Andrew Wanger, 24, separated from his wife. The latter with her child returned to her parents, named Galan.

During his absence Galan alleged that Wanger went to Galan's house, and fastening the door with a bolt on the outside, set fire to the house. The flames speedily gathered headway and only with great difficulty did the mother, wife and child escape thru a solitary and small window, and that not unscathed.

Wanger disappeared, but his arrest is a matter of time, as the police are on his trail. The house and contents were completely destroyed.

HANNA MAKES DEFENCE OF THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE CITES CHURCH PROCEDURE

Results of Attempts to Repeal
Bylaws Once Passed a Vindication of the Government Demand.

If it is possible the legislature will close its work this evening, but after eleven last night there seemed only a slight chance of this. The government will sit to-morrow to conclude this week if possible. In that case prorogation will take place on Tuesday. Should the session close by six this evening the house will be prorogued to-morrow.

There have been a number of very important and very contentious matters brought down in the last hours, and there are signs of a lack of unanimity on the government benches. Col. Hugh Clark openly protested against the Canadian Northern guarantee. J. S. Gallagher absented himself from the three-fifths clause division. There are ominous rumors abroad about doings in caucus. A telegram from Port Arthur indicates alarm lest the government yield to corporation influences and hold up the Dog Lake legislation by delaying its assent until proclaimed by order-in-council. The payment of $130,000 to the LaRoe Mining Co. is regarded in many quarters as too bad to explain to the country and sufficient to sully the virtue of the most upright politician even had it not been left till the eleventh hour.

British or American?
But whatever the government may be it is confronted by a weak opposition. The three-fifths clause debate showed this both as a matter of fact and of argument. T. H. Preston (Bran) moved to substitute majority for three-fifths in the local option clauses. The motion was defeated by 59 to 21. Mr. Preston's speech sounded suspiciously like a bid for the liquor interest, paradoxical as it may appear. The whole issue is a paradox as it happens, for the results of the three-fifths legislation as Hon. Mr. Hanna conclusively showed have been to strengthen the local option position in every case.

Varying the former complaint that it was un-British, Mr. Preston declared that the three-fifths plan was un-American.
"So are we un-American," challenged Premier Whitney. There was a hot time immediately. Mr. Preston pointing out that only the previous day the government had adopted Massachusetts legislation respecting cinematographs and sent a prison commission to the States whose methods were recommended in the subsequent report. The province had not sought local option previously, but provincial prohibition, until the present government came into power when the three-fifths clause was found to block the way.

Mr. Hanna Replies.
Hon. Mr. Hanna, said when the government came into power they set about very seriously determining what could be done for the temperance cause and for the better enforcement of the liquor law. As a result they adopted the three-fifths rule. At that time local option was only in force in five or six localities where it had survived the first opportunity to repeal it. That

28TH YEAR

JUDGE POURS OUT HIS WRATH ON THE JURY

Administrators Stingy Rebuke When Percy
Bowin is Declared
Not Guilty of Murder.

DETROIT, April 9.—(Special).—Wearing the suit of clothes that he purchased with Mrs. Cornelia Welch's diamond earrings, Percy Bowin walked from Judge Phelan's court Thursday noon free, thanks to a verdict that Judge Phelan characterized as "The vilest miscarriage of justice ever perpetrated in this community." A sympathy with the youthful defendant and his weeping mother, distrust of the methods of Capt. McDonnell and the detective department, unwillingness to send Bowin to prison for life for a crime the full consequences of which he did not contemplate—these are the motives behind a verdict that was a bold defiance of the law.

As the words "Not guilty" fell from Foreman Schroeder's lips, Judge Phelan stood as the paralyzed with astonishment. He went white with anger and then he recovered his speech and poured his wrath upon the twelve men standing before him.

Denounced the Jury.
"You should be ashamed to go back into the streets of the City of Detroit and admit that you were on the Bowin jury and not find this man guilty of murder," he thundered. "You may be discharged; you should be. You have simply opened the gate for this man to go back to the life that he led, and the probabilities are that he will commit another such act. You men should be ashamed of yourselves, and I have no hesitation in telling you about it. It is the most brutal verdict I have ever heard."

Ovation by Riff-Raff.
Bowin showed no special manifestations of joy at the verdict. He sat in the prisoners' dock until told to go. Then, with his mother and her friend, Mrs. James Rorrick, he crossed to the jail to collect his belongings. He was accorded an ovation by the riff-raff that hangs about the municipal buildings and in whose eyes "Percy is a hero. After getting his possessions from the jail he walked to Graciot-avenue with the two women and boarded a car still followed by the hero-worshipping rabble.

"Old Phelan seemed kind of sore, didn't he?" remarked Percy. "Well, I suppose he didn't like the way things are running over there. They were three acquittals in the recorder's court since I've been here, and I expect he didn't like it. Was I surprised at the verdict? Naw! They didn't want much thing on me. What else could the jury do?"

Bowin called at police headquarters later in the afternoon and asked for his suitcase from Capt. McDonnell. He was told that he would have to consult Detectives Downey and Fox, who had charge of his case. As they were not in Percy announced that he would return Friday morning.

Mrs. Bowin was almost worn out by the long trial. "Of course I was much pleased by the verdict," she said. "I suppose the jury was right. I was much pleased by the verdict, she said."

The Question of Time.
A survey of the testimony in the case reveals the astounding fact that the question of time, the one which the jury considered of more importance than all the mass of evidence that the prosecution had gathered against Bowin, was never once mentioned by either the prosecution or defence during the trial. Mr. Kennedy, Bowin's attorney, did not even consider it of enough importance to mention it in his address to the jury.

From things that we have all of us heard of from the evidence, I was much heard in this case, we were inclined to believe that Capt. McDonnell resorts to unfair methods to obtain confessions," said Juror Bates. "Then he blurted out a manifestation of the feeling against Capt. McDonnell, the anti-murder against the police department which is responsible for yesterday's travesty on justice."

Bowin returns to Woodville, Ont., on Friday.

LIFE MIGHT HAVE BEEN SAVED

If Car and Fender Had Been Up-to-date, Says Jury.

"We find that Thomas T. Gibson came to his death by accident and exonerate Motorman Sharpe and believe that with an up-to-date car and fender his life might have been saved."

This verdict was delivered by Coroner McDonnell's jury at the Ossington-avenue police court station at an early hour this morning after hearing the evidence in the case of the boy who was killed by the car of the 8-year-old boy in Bloor-street, near Bathurst-street, last week.

ST. LOUIS, April 9.—(Special).—Mrs. Sadie Collett, who has been claiming that she was defrauded out of a $20,000 estate from her grandmother, Mrs. Annie La Depeux of Fort Erie, Ont., to-day jumped four storeys to her death.

DOUKHOBORS ON PARADE INNOCENT OF CLOTHING

Magistrate Falling Sentences the Lot to Six Months—They Come to Toronto.

FORT WILLIAM, April 9.—Six months was the sentence handed out by Magistrate Felling this afternoon to 19 of the local Doukhobors who this morning attempted to hold another parade, devoid of any wearing apparel, and were stopped by the police before they got up town.

The prisoners were found guilty of committing an indecent act in public. The sentence is to be put in by the men at the Central Prison, Toronto, and by the women at the Mercer Reformatory.

The parade and arrests of the pilgrims this morning was very dramatic and an immense crowd of curious citizens viewed the spectacle of the 19 arrests. Nine were women and ten were men. The prisoners all took their arrests in a calm manner and continued their weird dirge through the entire proceedings.

NEW ACTING DETECTIVES. Five Appointments Which Go Into Effect To-Day.

By an order of the chief of police issued yesterday five new acting detectives assume duties in various police divisions to-day.

This follows upon the appointment of three of the previous acting men as full-fledged detectives and giving a special man to each of divisions 5 and 7 in the north and west, which have heretofore been in the hands of one.

Harry Armstrong, who has been doing plainclothes duty in No. 1 division, is now acting detective in that division.

David McKelvey continues as acting detective in No. 3 division.

In No. 4 division P.C. Oxlend (82) is appointed out of the ranks of that division. P.C. Miller (17), attached to No. 2 division, will be acting detective in No. 5, and P.C. George P. Dickinson (34) will be acting detective in No. 6, from No. 3 division.

P.C. Mahoney from No. 7 division will be acting detective there.

All of these men are young and energetic.

WANT CONTRACT DEFINED. Stratford Council Passes Resolution on Power Question.

STRATFORD, April 9.—(Special.)—The city desires some changes in the hydro-electric contract. At least it would appear so from the following resolution passed in the following meeting: "That the city solicitor be instructed, in acting with the solicitors of other cities, to satisfy himself that the interests of municipalities are adequately guarded in the proposed contract with the hydro-electric power commission, and to advocate the insertion of provisions with regard to obligations toward initial expenses of municipalities joining the scheme at later periods securing to municipalities control of their local market both against invading producers and the commission itself; a declaration as to reduction to initial municipalities after the transmission line is paid for and the use of said line, including the guarantee that the cost of power to Stratford shall not exceed a rate of $24.50, as voted on here, and the commission be declared to be trustees for the municipalities paying for the transmission line."

After Good Roads System. The county council to-day decided to raise $20,000 for a good roads system. A delegation from Tavistock applied for incorporation and it was recommended that such be granted under certain conditions.

BOARD OF HEALTH PLANS FOR SMALLPOX HOSPITAL

Assessment Commissioner Requested to Take a Census of Children of a School Age.

HAMILTON, April 9.—(Special.)—At the finance committee meeting this evening Ald. Nicholson asked Mayor Stewart if he had succeeded in getting a full statement of the fund raised by Miss Jeanette Lewis for the Sick Children's Hospital.

The mayor said there were still some accounts outstanding, and he thought the committee should make an examination of the accounts, but he held that he and the other trustees, John Billings, had been appointed only to see that the money turned in by Miss Lewis, was credited to the fund. On the motion of Ald. Dickson and Nicholson, it was agreed to ask the trustees for a statement of the fund up to date, to be handed over to the city auditors for a report.

A sub-committee will meet the Board of Health Council next Saturday to discuss terms of annexation for a district on the mountain, near the head of Wentworth-street.

The board of health submitted plans for a $5000 smallpox hospital. They were requested to submit the tenders received at the next meeting of the committee. On the appointment of two new members of the cemetery board was deferred until next meeting.

Ald. Farrar complained that the assessors were not doing their work satisfactorily, but other aldermen took the opposite view and no action was taken. School Additions.

The board of education this evening endorsed Trustee Allen's scheme to spend $250,000 on improvements to school property. This year eight-room additions will be made to the Sophia and Pictou-streets Schools. The contracts for the Sophia-street School were let this evening. They total up to $38,000. Although the board had hoped to do it for $35,000.

The city council will be asked to issue debentures for $45,000 to cover the cost of the Sophia-street addition and fire escapes for the Queen Victoria and West-streets Schools.

A resolution was carried recommending to future boards the advisability of re-constructing the Victoria-avenue, Cannon and Murray-streets Schools. New uniforms for the cadets will be bought.

Assessment Commissioner MacLeod was requested to take a census of all children of school age.

A burning oil tank at the Commercial Oil Co.'s premises on West Jackson-street gave the firemen a run today afternoon. The damage was slight.

Canada Life's New Agent.

David Kidd, local agent of the Canada Life, has resigned and will be succeeded by G. D. Burns.

The majority report of the conciliation board says that John Theaker broke various rules of the company, and that his dismissal was fully justified. The board also found that the agreement existed between the men, company maintained an attitude of strict neutrality between the warring unions. This finding is signed by William Bell, K.C., and Judge Murray. G. O'Donoghue makes a minority report, in which Theaker is vindicated. Theaker was a member of the Street Railwaymen's Union, and has been appointed to a government position since his dismissal by the company.

Hon. Adam Beck, who was expected here to-day, telephoned that he was unable to come to-day, but would be here early next week, to discuss the power scheme with the aldermen.

Fears Son is Dead. William Lewis, 25 Steven-street, father of Harry Lewis, the missing telegrapher of the Beamsville branch of the Bank of Hamilton, said to-day that he never expected to see his son again, as he believes the youth met with foul play. Lewis left Beamsville for Niagara Falls on March 28, and has not been heard of since. He is about 17 years of age, five feet six inches in height, thick set and stout, and has a boyish expression.

The street railway is buying about a dozen second-hand cars. One of them has arrived. It is equipped with air brakes.

It is claimed that the police knew that some robberies were going to take place in the market hall, and did nothing to prevent them. Chief Smiths says there is no foundation for such a charge.

The Brunswick Balke Collender Co. has issued a writ to set aside the deed of the billiard academy, King William-street, from Chas. Alkine to George E. Mills, as giving fraudulent preference. The company has a bill of about $1000 against the place.

Verdict Against the Evidence. OTTAWA, April 9.—The charge at the assizes before Judge MacNelson, wherein three men were indicted for manslaughter in a wreck when the C. P.R. train hit it at a crossing, was discharged before the case went to the jury, and they found the street car conductor, Ernest Southerly, and Motor-man Herman Fligel, not guilty. The judge said the verdict was against the evidence.

TOT KILLED BY A CAR

LITTLE SISTER ESCAPES

Tragedy on Bathurst Street Which Costs the Life of Norman McKeown.

Standing at the front window of her home at 819 Bathurst-street, but unable to render aid or even give voice to an audible warning, Mrs. Thomas McKeown watched Bathurst-street car No. 1212 crush out the life of her 6-year-old son, Norman, and severely bruise and cut her 4-year-old daughter, Elsie, shortly after noon yesterday. This is the second child life claimed by street cars in that locality within a week.

The car was in charge of Motorist J. Dilton, 17 Saunders-avenue, and Conductor D. Irwin, 33 Turner-street. The children crossed the street behind a northbound car which obscured them from the view of Motorist Dilton, and they, too, failed to observe the southbound car approaching.

The car struck them, going at a fast rate and the children went down. The fender, a self-operating one, failed to work, and Norman was rolled beneath the wheels of the car.

The girl was struck away by the fender.

The boy was carried to Dr. A. J. Harrington's office at 819 Bathurst, but nothing could be done to save his life. The death was reported to County Crown Attorney Drayton, and Coroner R. J. Wilson opened an inquest last night, which was adjourned till April 15.

Said to Have Burglarized West End Dry Goods Store.

Charged with theft of a quantity of hosiery and cloth, taken from the store of Robert Fawcett, 1512 West-Queen-street, several weeks ago, John Wasey, 21 years, 202 Lisgar-street, a laborer, and Harry Dewberry, 24 years, 119 Dovercourt-road, a laborer, were arrested by Police Constables Cronin and McArthur as 10:30 yesterday morning.

The men are locked up at the Agnes-street Station. Acting upon further information Detective Murray made his first arrest since his promotion to a detective rank. He locked up Harry Wry, 23 years, a bartender at a Yonge-street hotel, at 4:30 in the evening. He also found a quantity of the cloth and hosiery with the theft, of which the other men were charged.

The other men are also charged with theft of a quantity of boots from a Junction store.

ROYAL COMMISSIONS.

Pense Deplores the Practice of Resorting to Them.

E. J. B. Pense moved an amendment on going into supply in the house last night regretting the practice of resorting to commissions by the present government, with the result of unusual charges under this head. He referred critically to the several commissions and hon. J. J. Roy pointed out the value of having the record of evidence kept. Hon. Mr. Hanna also dealt with some of them. He owed the house an apology for the Vanzant Commission, for with their present knowledge he would have gone out without any commission. Without any injustice he could say that the charges against him had been established to the hilt.

The motion was negatived on the same division.

Don Quixote Blain, Peel, Resumes His Attack on Tobacco Windmill by a Circuitous Route.

OTTAWA, April 9.—(Special.)—When some weeks ago Mr. Blain of Peel endeavored to get the government to declare itself on the evils of cigarettes and to introduce a bill for their prohibition Sir Wilfrid Laurier sidled to the foot of the list, not to be reached again this session.

To-day Mr. Blain saw his opportunity when the Inland Revenue Act amendments were before the house. After much urging by Mr. Blain, Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose. His argument was that it would never do to deprive a mature man of the pleasures of the cigarette just because tobacco in this form is harmful to the youth.

Mr. Templeman's bill to amend the inland revenue act was discussed in committee. The bill carries out changes in excise duties embodied in Mr. Fielding's budget statement.

Mr. Blain deemed the time opportune for the government to state its intentions in regard to the suppression of the manufacture and sale of cigarettes, but he could get no other reply from Mr. Templeman than that he was in "sympathy" with the idea, while Mr. Brodeur also was sympathetic, but could not promise legislation just now.

Wanted More Than Sympathy.

Mr. Foster dilated upon the deleterious effects of cigarette smoking, and thought that as Mr. Blain's motion had been shot off by a device well known to the government, the promoter of that legislation was within his right in asking the government to do more than express sympathy.

After more to the same effect the prime minister was urged to give his view. Not using tobacco in any form himself, he was disinterested, and if he followed his own inclinations he would prohibit the sale of tobacco of all kinds. He said that the use of cigarettes by immature youths was harmful, but if that were so, why should mature men, to whom the use was innocuous, be prohibited from smoking cigarettes?

If innocuous to mature men why should they be deprived of that comfort? Tobacco was a luxury for the poor man, and Mr. Blain was radical in moving to prohibit its use by men to whom it was innocuous.

Mr. Foster said his motion was that cigarettes were less noxious to mature men.

"At all events," replied Sir Wilfrid, "I have never seen evidence to satisfy me." Continuing the argument, the chief in the cigarette was its cheapness. He believed that tobacco in any form was injurious to immature boys, but did Mr. Foster think cigarettes were more harmful than tobacco in other forms?

"The boy, yes," answered Mr. Foster.

A Rebellious Boy.

The prime minister related that recently in Quebec he took a cigarette from a boy on the street.

"What did the boy say?" J. G. H. Bergeron asked.

"I'm sorry to say the boy was rebellious," returned the prime minister.

Finally Sir Wilfrid declared he would not take away from grown men the privilege of smoking cigarettes in order to keep them from boys. Provincial legislation dealt with the sale of cigarettes to minors, and more could be done by domestic education than in any other way. Spanking was the remedy he suggested.

Dr. Sproule combated the prime minister's statement that cigarettes were not more harmful than tobacco in other forms.

It was well-known that tobacco for cigarettes were treated with narcotics, such as opium and belladonna, and had the same effect as the use of opium had upon the Chinaman. He pointed out that parliament had spoken with unanimity in its vote against the sale of cigarettes, and he took it to be the duty of the government to carry out the views of the house so expressed.

"It," suggested the prime minister, "cigarette tobaccos were treated with narcotic poisons, the remedy would be to make this a criminal offence. That was a consideration that ought to be looked into."

Mr. Templeman said that an analysis of cigarette tobacco had been made, and no such condition had been found.

"That," put in Dr. Sproule, "had to do only with Canadian-made cigarettes. Mr. Blain concluded the debate on this point by pointing out that the government had been playing with the question of cigarette smoking since last session promised to support such legislation. Mr. Blain thought full grown men who used cigarettes would be willing to forego the pleasure to save the boys. Referring to the clause abolishing distinguishing stamps on cigars, Mr. Foster said Toronto cigar-makers were hostile to a change in stamps.

Unfair to Smokers.

Major Beatty declared that smokers bought cigars on the strength of the label, and it was unfair to smokers to permit deception.

Mr. Cocksatt was willing to encourage Canadian tobacco, but it ought to be done above board. Instead of attempting to deceive the smoking public he would increase the duty on foreign leaf.

Mr. Clement, who favored the change, remarked that no other country branded tobacco in cigars as was done in Canada, while Mr. Monk thought the government was removing a grievance.

The inland revenue bill went through all the stages at the evening session and Mr. Oliver's amendment to the Immigration Act also passed without discussion.

Col. Sam Hughes, who on Wednesday afternoon an amendment to extend the British soldiers from its provisions, was not present to press it.

Three other bills were passed. Mr. Aylesworth's Bill to Amend the Act, Aylesworth's Bill to Exchange Act, and Mr. Oliver's Land Titles Act.

A New York despatch says the merriest passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which arrived to-day was an 84-year-old man. The father of the editor of The Hamilton, Ont., Times.

WANT TECHNICAL SCHOOL

St. Alban's School Site and One on Brunswick-Avenue Suggested as Alternative to One Bought.

Can the difficulty in regard to the site of the new technical school be solved by the board of education acquiring the grounds of St. Alban's School, just north of St. Alban's Cathedral?

This was the only new suggestion made at a conference in the board of education rooms last night, at which the board of education was represented by Trustees Ogden, Hawke, Kent, Rawlinson and Houston; the O. M. A. by G. A. Howell, S. H. Wickett and J. P. McKay; the board of trade by J. P. Watson, J. F. Ellis and R. S. Gourlay; the Engineers' Club by A. F. McCallum; and the District Labor Council by James Simpson and William Glocking.

The suggestion in regard to the St. Alban's grounds was made by Mr. Rawlinson. It was only a suggestion, because all Mr. Rawlinson could say was that he believed that if a reasonable offer were made, the cathedral authorities would be willing to sell.

C. H. Bishop, superintendent of school buildings, suggested several other possible sites, and after a ballot was taken, the choice was left between the St. Alban's grounds and the property running north from Sussex-avenue to the lane south of Bloor-street, between Brunswick-avenue and Borden-street.

Any site other than that purchased on East Bloor-street, near Church, and the gentlemen present agreed that the organizations they represented would support the board of education in asking the board of control for the necessary additional funds.

The Bloor-street site is by far the most convenient one, being passed by Bloor Line and Church-street cars, and a block from Bloor and Yonge-streets, with three other car lines available.

DEFAUDING CREDITORS.

Charge Against Tobaccoist Which Brings $100 Fine.

James A. LeBar, who formerly kept a cigar store at 131 Church-street, was fined $100 and costs of 60 days in jail for having disposed of a part of his stock after having assigned.

He was arraigned in police court yesterday morning, charged with defrauding creditors. It was charged that he had approached a traveler for Scales & Co., wholesale tobaccoists, mislating him for another party, and quitted that he had hidden a portion of his stock in the cellar and would use it to pay off his claim in full to the detriment of the other creditors.

When a warrant was issued he disappeared and it was only a few days ago he was found.

AFTER CAR THIEVES.

Windsor Police Conducting Vigorous Campaign.

WINDSOR, April 9.—(Special.)—Local police are pursuing an active campaign against a gang of car thieves. Three railway employees are now under arrest on the charge of robbing the Marquette cars. To-day William H. Morgan was taken into custody as a result of further investigation. Morgan admitted having some crates of eggs from two of the railways companies now under arrest, and told the police he was given two of the crates for allowing the whole lot to be stored under his house.

Morgan was remanded for five days, and he insisted that his wife be sent to jail with him. The couple occupied two cells in the station, and the woman made life miserable for the police by sobbing almost continuously.

Festival of the Lilies.

The fourteenth annual Easter Monday concert under the auspices of the Methodist Social Union will be given in Massey Music Hall on Monday, April 20, and will be conducted by Mr. Llew. Rees. The program will be spoken with selections by a special choir of one hundred voices, a quartet, solos by Mr. Arthur Blight, and will include an epic recitation (pre-arranged) under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Somers, with selections and accompaniments by the band of the Royal Grenadier Guards.

All seats will be reserved at 50c and 25c each.

Plan will be opened on Monday, April 13, at 9 a.m., in Massey Music Hall. The plan will be divided into two sections, and the tickets for the sale section will be found in the box office of the east side of the hall, and that for the west on the west side.

Locomotive Explodes.

ANSON, Conn., April 9.—A freight engine on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad blew up early to-day at Wheeler's Farms, a point about three miles below Derby. Two men were badly injured, one of whom may die, and another painfully hurt. The locomotive, one of the new mogul type, was completely destroyed and the roadbed torn up for a considerable distance.

Wreckage, the removal of which will probably require most of the day, is strewn over the tracks.

Charged With Smuggling.

WINDSOR, April 9.—(Special.)—Fred McMann, 20 years old, formerly bartender in Walkerville, was arrested at Adrian, Mich., in company with three Chinamen, whom he is accused of transporting to the United States via the famous underground railway. McMann was found with the Chinamen in a box car containing a horse consigned to Chicago. He pleaded not guilty to the smuggling charge.

Altho threatened with legal proceedings, the finance committee of the city council will recommend that the minutes of the committee be not open to the press or public.

Y.M.C.A. CONVENTION.

Did Not Complete Business—Further Sessions To-Day.

STRAITFORD, April 9.—(Special.)—The Y. M. C. A. Convention has found it impossible to finish business to-day and will hold further sessions to-morrow.

This morning's session opened with an address by Fred B. Smith on "The Joy of Saving," followed by an interesting discussion on a paper introduced by Elmer Davis of Kingston on "The Importance of Business Method in the Young Men's Christian Association."

The afternoon session was a busy one. One hour was spent in prayer, after which several conferences were held on the work of the different departments, led by J. M. Dudley, T. H. Billings, A. Culens and J. W. Hopkings.

The report of the provincial committee was submitted and adopted. Among the features recommended were: That efforts be made to live up to same; that the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railways be highly commended for their co-operation; that the Niagara-on-the-Lake Conference for Students be considered a valuable feature and trust that it will be an annual event; that the maintenance of an efficient staff of secretaries is highly recommended; that every association should place in their budget ten cents per member as a contribution towards the provincial committee work.

The following were appointed to fill the vacancies on the provincial committee: John Penman, Paris; James Brebner, University of Toronto; C. M. Roger, Peterboro; A. L. Breithaupt, Berlin; A. L. Patterson, Montreal; W. H. Scott, Toronto; Henry Leigh Brantford, F. Leigh, Toronto; W. S. Leslie, Montreal; H. C. Hunt, Belleville; J. L. Laidmond, Toronto; Dr. Frank A. Adams, McGill, Montreal; J. Ernest Miller, Montreal.

The question of where the next convention is to be held was left to the provincial committee.

Mrs. Leigh of Brantford, president of the Women's Auxiliaries in Y.M.C.A. work, submitted an encouraging report, showing that $7651.09 had been raised in the work last year.

ORDER OBNOXIOUS.

Indignation Among Business Men of Windsor.

WINDSOR, April 9.—(Special.)—Indignation is rising among business men of this city owing to the departmental order that no imported goods should have the customs at the ferry landing until the entry shall have been made.

A score or so of merchants and manufacturers waited upon Chief Inspector McMichael to-day and loudly protested against the order.

It appeared from the discussion that it was impossible to carry out the chief inspector's instructions. Mr. McMichael tried to defend himself by saying that the order did not come from the department, and intimated that H. W. Allan, local inspector, was responsible. This aroused Allan, and he gave indignation denial and placed the blame on the chief inspector. It is expected now that the order will be rescinded.

PHONE BILL KILLED.
May Be Matter for Federal Legislation—Committee Work.

In the municipal committee of the legislature yesterday the Bowyer bill to prevent absolute telephone monopolies will be further considered. Hon. Mr. Hanna thought it a question for federal legislation. It needed the chairman's vote to put it over.

The committee dropped James Duff's bill to elect township councillors on the same "A" and "B" principle that it is proposed to adopt in the legislative elections in Toronto.

Dr. Preston (Lanark) had his "Assessment Act" amendment reported. This means that in towns of less than 500 income up to $1000 will now be exempt.

In the legal committee Hon. J. J. Foy announced that the architects' bill to establish examination in law to be over until next session. Dr. Snellie's bill to restrict the sale of cocaine without a doctor's prescription was reported. "Craig's bill to permit judges to have rect errors after the completion of the voters' lists was thrown out.

Hoyle's bill to amend the law respecting landlord and tenant was reported. This protects the lessees of premises against liabilities for charges in cases where the premises are damaged by fire, lightning, tempest, or other uncontrollable cause, until such time as the premises are either renewed or repaired.

VANCE NOT GUILTY.
ST. CATHARINES, April 9.—(Special.)—Vance was charged with causing the death of James Patterson by striking him on the head with a stone, was to-day declared not guilty by the assizes jury.

Strengthen the Garrison.
TIFLIS, March 12.—Fifty-six heavy guns, destined for the fortress of Kara, on the Russo-Turkish frontier, have passed through here by railroad from interior Russia.

This strengthening of the fortress is due to a memorandum of several officers of the garrison on its weakness, in view of a possible attack by the Turks.

Killed by Playmate.
BARRIE, April 9.—A playmate falling upon the 11-year-old son of Mr. Graham of Saurin yesterday afternoon, while at play, caused his death from internal hemorrhage.

Fred Warren, one of Barrie's most popular and best known business men, died this evening. He leaves a widow and two children.

London plays here on May 11 and 12, the Cuban Giants on May 7, 8 and 9, and he is also trying to book the Cherokee Indians for May 13 and 14. He reports that he has signed Elmer Murray, Philadelphia for the Guelph team. Murray played last year in the Southwestern League of Pennsylvania. He is a pitcher with a good field. Jack Murray of the St. Louis Nationals.

Something of a mystery surrounds the death of William Ellis of 80 Davenport-road, West Toronto, whose body was found about 6 o'clock last night in the ditch beside the C. P. R. tracks, where they are crossed by the northern division of the G. T. R.

The body, lying face upwards, was found by Bob Ellis, a son. He telephoned for assistance and Drs. Clendenan and MacNamara arrived on the scene and pronounced the man dead. There were no indications that he had been in any play. The body was removed to Speed's undertaking parlors, West Toronto, and Coroner's office.

denian will hold an inquest in the police court room this evening.

Dr. MacNamara examined the body about 8 o'clock and concluded that death had taken place about two hours previously.

Deceased was 47 years old, and leaves a widow and grown-up family, four boys and three girls. He resided in West Toronto for about seven years and was employed for some time as teamster for the Baldwin Lumber Co.

He was a member of Loyal Orange Lodge No. 302.

He had been drinking for some days past.

BARRISTER ARRESTED.

Detective Kennedy left for Chesley, Ont., at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, to bring back A. D. George, barrister, of that place, who was arrested there at the request of the city police.

George, who is 30 years of age and has a considerable practice at Chesley, is charged by Edward E. Hale, room 64 Rossin House, with the theft of three certificates for 300 shares of stock in the Silver Bar Mining Co., in the month of November last.

Hale's story to the police is that he left the certificates with George for safe keeping, but was unable to secure possession of them again, and that the Toronto Exchange at a price, in his mind, greatly below their value.

He charged George's bookkeeper with the act, and that individual, he says, admitted knowledge of the sale, saying that he himself had endorsed the certificates and the cheque received in payment for them, which he had then given to George, being paid it for the deal.

George will be arraigned in police court Saturday morning, when officers of the Toronto Exchange will be subpoenaed to produce their books to show the transaction. Mr. Hale contends that the sale is invalid owing to the forgery of his name, and will take action to that effect.

No warrant has been issued for the arrest of the bookkeeper.

THE REAL GERRYMANDER.

Former Whitney had little difficulty in exposing the hypocrisy latent in the opposition cry of gerrymandering. The figures he quoted conclusively showed how effectively the Liberal government of the time had succeeded in dividing up the constituencies so that a minority of the electors might elect a large majority of the members of the legislature. He rightly said that it was impossible to do anything more for a party that had achieved so much for themselves. Any alteration, however proper and necessary, could not but upset the artificial arrangement of boundaries necessary to give a minority a voting strength so greatly in excess of its proper representation. The only real thing about the situation is that after an historical gerrymander so monstrous and flagrant the Liberal party should have invited its recall by granting the expectation that its anomalies would be retained.

GERMANY AND BRITISH PATENTS.

Very instructive as well as amusing are the comments made by the German press on the new English patent law compelling foreign patentees to work their monopolies in the United Kingdom under penalty of forfeiture. For many years foreigners taking out British patents, while under no obligation to manufacture the articles protected in the country, could and did use their legal rights to prevent infringement by British manufacturers. Among the more important commodities affected by this curious preference given the foreigner were artificial indigo, cellulose, soda and boot and shoe and electric machinery. These and other industrial products protected by patent were really foreign monopolies. They were manufactured abroad, entered Britain duty free and were sold at monopoly prices, the dogma of buying in the cheapest market being of necessity inapplicable of application. The evident absurdity and folly of the situation compelled the attention of the present German government, and Mr. Lloyd-George, president of the board of trade, carried an act thru parliament last session enabling British patents worked exclusively outside the United Kingdom to be revoked.

The act came into force this year and a large number of foreign patentees are either negotiating with British manufacturers to work their patents or have acquired sites for the erection of manufacturing plants.

The act came into force this year and a large number of foreign patentees are either negotiating with British manufacturers to work their patents or have acquired sites for the erection of manufacturing plants. Among them are the allied companies of the Hoechst Farbwerke and Messrs. Cassella & Co., the market value of whose joint capital is over $40,000,000, who have secured land on the Manchester Ship Canal for the manufacture of indigo and a number of artificial colors. Another large German concern, the Elberfeld Farbenfabriken, carrying with its associated companies a capital of over $65,000,000, has purchased 30 acres of land at Port Sunlight from Lever Brothers for the purpose of turning out all the products covered by their British patents. The United Shoe Machinery Company of Boston, U.S.A., is also negotiating for land on the banks of the Manchester Ship Canal; large electrical engineering works are to be set up on the Thames, and other extensive plans are in contemplation in London and Manchester. Thus many industries hitherto exclusively foreign will become British, will provide additional employment for British workmen and aid British commerce.

This result of a simple act of parliament has caused intense irritation in the German press. Both Conservative and Radical newspapers denounce what they describe as the "protectionist tendency of the new English patent law."

Towards the end of last month the Kreuzzeitung, published a bitter denunciation of "this act of hypocrisy of a Liberal government in practicing a protectionist policy while professing free trade principles." "England," it goes on to say, "continues to pursue a policy of protection under a free trade mask and she chooses methods of so doing which must be described as unfair, in view of the fact that German interests are seriously affected thereby. There are grounds to fear that the hostility between Germany and England will again be intensified if the British do not check their protectionist tendencies and if they persist in putting into operation this new patent law, which is incompatible both with free trade and a fair commercial policy."

This distributive reads very fully when the high tariff policy of Germany is recalled and it also shows the fear with which any departure from Britain's free trade policy is regarded. The situation discloses, too, how powerfully legislation can assist national industries and is thus a valuable object lesson for Canada in dealing with her vast natural resources of timber and minerals.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE AND PUBLIC FRANCHISES.

Among the matters recently investigated by the New York grand jury was a sum of $600,000 contributed in 1900 to the campaign fund raised to secure the re-election of the late President McKinley.

Kinley. The payment was made, according to the statement of Thomas Fortune Ryan to the jury, by five men who, at the request of William C. Whitney, each gave $100,000. They were Mr. Ryan himself and Messrs. Whitney, William L. Elding, Peter A. B. Widener and Thomas Dolan of Philadelphia and it was part of the arrangement that later on the Metropolitan Street Railway Company or its allied concerns should reimburse the contributors.

The way in which the reimbursement was accomplished through a valuable sidelight on the dealings of high financiers with public franchises and reveals the nature of that private enterprise which is so often pronounced worthy of large pecuniary reward. The five cheques were drawn in January, 1900, but it was nearly two and a half years later that the opportunity came to get back the half million dollars necessary to repay the philanthropic contributors. In May, 1902, negotiations were on foot for the sale of the Wall and Cordant Street Railway Railroad Company to the Metropolitan corporation. This company was a paper concern and the $500,000 plus five per cent. interest, percentage and brokerage expenses, was added to the price. Each of the contributors thus received $111,000 in repayment of his cheque and interest.

The Metropolitan's gross income last year was $2,874,630, its operating expenses amounted to $1,233,000, and its gross profit thus in round figures is $1,641,630. Yet it did not pay, and the general manager is out with a demand that free transfers between the Metropolitan system and the old Metropolitan be permanently abolished.

In order that the street railroads may make money, as these systems are in the hands of separate receivers, free transfers are meantime suspended, but the cause of the bankruptcy of the Metropolitan Holding Company was not not free transfers, but over-capitalization. The company has outstanding $52,000,000 of its own stock and $42,500,000 of its own bonds, besides $20,000,000 stock of the New York City Railway, $30,000,000 stock of the Metropolitan Securities Company, and its guarantees of $41,943,000 bonds and $15,995,800 stock of the Third Avenue and its further guarantees of the stock and bonds of the Hudson River Railroad, 21 per cent. on the Eighth Avenue, 9 per cent. on the Second Avenue, 7 per cent. on the Sixth Avenue, 10 per cent. on the Broadway and Seventh Avenue, 9 per cent. on the Belt Line, 8 per cent. on the Central Crosstown and Christopher, and 18 per cent. on the Twenty-third and Forty-second.

The New York World editorially says that "to pay these excessive guarantees, interest and dividends would require not only the abolition of free transfers, but an eight-cent fare instead of a five-cent fare." Yet the whole street railway systems affected could be replaced today for $100,000,000 as against a capitalization of two and a half times that amount. And the difference went to the masters of "high finance" who engineered the deals. A truly generous reward for private enterprise exercised at the expense of innocent investors and the general public.

PREMIER MAY TAKE HAND.

Said to Be Ready to End Coal-Steel Fight.

MONTREAL, April 9.—It is more than probable that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will take steps to settle the coal-steel difficulty.

For some time back members on both sides of the house have been urging the government to interfere in the controversy between the Dominion Coal and the Dominion Steel Companies, and have the case, with all its collateral issues, referred to arbitration.

The ground upon which the government is asked to take this course is, briefly, that the companies are greatly beholden to parliament for the duties and bounties which save them from foreign competition, and so far as the steel company is concerned, furnish them with a dividend, this company having in the calendar year 1907 drawn $1,220,000 in bounties from the federal chest, or over three per cent. of its capital of $36,000,000.

The Dominion Coal Company, on its part, enjoys the protection of the tax on American coal all the way from Montreal to Winnipeg.

Cheap Fuel, 7 Cents Per Day.

We ask you to try a sample ton of our improved Comfort Coal to-day at $3.30. If you like it we guarantee you ten tons more of the same coal at the same price in August; if you don't like it we have lost money in selling you the sample ton at that price this time of year, but we take the risk and it is not likely under the circumstances that we will send you bad coal.

In regard to coke screenings the conditions are different. We are not trying to work up a steady demand for these because, altho we have a steady supply, most of it goes to regular customers on contract. To-day (Friday), while the available supply lasts, you can buy one ton at the same price as we sell 100 tons for. To-day, then, one ton coke screenings for $2, sufficient to heat a ten-room house for a month at a cost of 7 cents per day. J. S. Dignam, 4 East Queen-street, Main 543.

Mr. Marshall Not a Candidate in Monck.

Thomas Marshall, Dunville, has written Hon. R. R. Harcourt that he is not responsible for newspaper rumors about opposition to Mr. Harcourt in Monck. He says: "Your long and faithful service to the Liberal party here and every consideration on the part of our friends. I hope you may long be spared as the representative of Monck." It was stated that Mr. Marshall would be a candidate.

HOUSE WILL RISE FOR THE EASTER VACATION

Prime Minister States That Investigation Into Marine Department Will Start Soon.

OTTAWA, April 9.—(Special.)—On motion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when the house adjourns on Wednesday next, it will stand adjourned till Tuesday, April 21. Mr. Emmerson thought the holiday should extend till Wednesday, but the prime minister and Mr. Foster thought that period too long.

Mr. Foster enquired if, when Judge Cassels would commence his investigation of the marine department, he was to be confined to two cases of wrongdoing by officials mentioned by the civil service commissioners and whether it was proposed to have also a department investigation.

The prime minister said the commission had been issued, and he supposed the investigation would be begun at once. He vouchsafed no answer to the other questions.

Postmaster's Guarantee.

Mr. Christie (Huron) was told by the postmaster-general that $102,470 had been collected by the government from assessments on postmasters to form a guarantee fund against losses, and the losses had been $334. The question of reducing assessment has not been considered.

Mr. Christie was informed by Mr. Patterson that number of cattle exported from Canada to Great Britain was: 1904, 148,845; 1905, 153,078; 1906, 148,991; 1907, 170,164. The number imported from Britain was: 1904, 34 duty paid; 1905, 161 for improvement of stock; 1906, 72 and 60; 1907, 149 for improvement of stock; 1907, 12 and 231.

Answering Mr. Monk the prime minister said there had been no correspondence of any kind in connection with the all red line or a faster steamship service across the Atlantic. Having been shocked by theatrical posters on the bill boards of Ottawa, Dr. Barr was moved to ask what steps were being taken to enforce tariff provision against them. Mr. Patterson told him that the attention of the local authorities had been directed to the question, and the customs officials were instructed to co-operate in the suppression.

A Liberal Education

Medill McCormick, publisher of The Chicago Tribune, was in Toronto a few weeks ago. He was called the foremost daily newspaper publisher in America. He is.

The Toronto World has had some correspondence with him recently and, acting on his advice, has undertaken to publish in this paper a series of apt talks on advertising, that will be to our subscribers a veritable liberal education in advertising.

In a recent letter to The Toronto World Mr. McCormick says:

We are telling merchants to advertise—to advertise properly. We are proving why they should advertise; we are showing them how to advertise properly; and by proving it, are increasing our business.

The more intelligence you can get into copy, the more results the advertisers are going to get out of it. In proportion to the results the local merchant obtains he increases his space.

We are showing merchants what circulation means; the difference between flabby circulation and sinew circulation—between bulk and pulling power. We have helped our paper because we have helped the men who spend money with our paper.

We are teaching them to put more energy on their side and are, therefore, developing more energy out of our own paper. We have made every merchant in the city look to our paper because he can learn something about his business from its columns.

The present series of Talks on Advertising by Herbert Kaufman have cost us more money than a "Kipling story." We did not think of the expense, however, but of the profit we could obtain by bringing new advertisers into the field and showing the old advertisers why bad advertising fails and good advertising holds.

What we are doing in our city you can do in your city; not only for the sake of immediate returns, but also for the sake of the future attitude of your advertising patrons, and for the sake of having them view advertising from its proper standpoint.

Take a dose of your own medicine.

You ought to know that good advertising creates business. If advertising in your own columns only placed in the mouths of your solicitors answering arguments to the old cry that the newspaper publisher believes in advertising only when other men insert it, it would pay you.

The first of these Kaufman Talks will appear in Saturday morning's paper. Make no mistake, publicity is the watchword of the hour. Read Kaufman's Talks and become conversant with the concrete principles of publicity.

Trouble With a Tenant.

Proceedings have been begun by Clara A. Eakin against James F. Gilles, claiming $254 rent of 12 Madison Avenue, damages for deficiencies and non-repairs of furniture, etc. Included in the account is the gas, water and telephone bills and also $23, the price of preserved fruit purchased, as agreed between the parties.

Overpaid a Lumber Account.

A writ has been issued by John H. Eyer of Toronto against S. L. Purdy of Coe Hill to recover $400.33, alleged to have been overpaid by Eyer on the purchase of certain lumber.

Claims Partnership Was Dissolved.

Douglas K. Ridout and Walter D'E. Strickland, trading as Ridout & Strickland, have been made defendants in an action brought by A. F. Jones asking for a declaration that a certain partnership has been dissolved and for an order requiring the defendants to deliver to Jones the books relating to his business.

Ontario Bank v. Coskburn.

Application was made to Master-in-Chambers Cartwright on behalf of defendant McKay for particulars of certain paragraphs in the statement of claim in the suit of the Ontario Bank against Coskburn. His lordship reserved judgment.

Claims an Accounting.

An action has been begun by Annie Oakes of Toronto against Jas. Stephens of West Gwillimbury and T. W. W. Evans of Bradford, executors of the estate of Francis Bell, deceased, claiming an account of the partnership in connection with the business carried on at Yonge-street, Toronto.

Run Into by Street Car.

George M. Milligan, cigar manufacturer, of Toronto, on the 28th of April last year was being driven by his coachman, George W. Westley-street, when crossing Church-street was run into by a street car. The horse was injured, the carriage wrecked and Mr. Milligan thrown out and hurt. Action was brought against the company and at the trial Milligan recovered $1000 damages. The company yesterday applied to the divisional court. Judgment was reserved.

Action Against Bank Dismissed.

Application was made to Hon. Mr. Justice Clute in single court to continue the injunction in the action of Isabella Switzer against Irvin Switzer and the Bank of Hamilton, restraining the defendant from withdrawing or in any way dealing with certain moneys now in the Bank of Hamilton. His lordship continued the injunction and directed the bank to pay the money into court, whereupon the action against the bank will be dismissed.

Motion to Quash Bylaw Fails.

Mr. Justice Clute has given judgment on the application of James H. Mitchell of Campbellford to quash the local optional bylaw of that municipality. The principal question involved in the application is the finality of voters' lists. Counsel for the applicant contended that he had a right to enquire into the qualification of voters and that on a motion to quash a bylaw of this kind the lists are not final. His lordship is of opinion that the qualifications of voters are fixed by lists from which there is no further appeal. The motion to quash was dismissed with costs.

As a sequel to the story of domestic differences between Jacob Sapiro and his wife already made public, the latter yesterday issued a writ against Sapiro claiming breach of promise of marriage.

She says a license was secured in this city, and that in October last they were married in Cleveland, Ohio, but that his promise to marry her in Canada, according to Canadian law, has not been fulfilled.

Run Into by Street Car.

Action was brought against the company and at the trial Milligan recovered $1000 damages. The company yesterday applied to the divisional court. Judgment was reserved.

Action Against Bank Dismissed.

Application was made to Hon. Mr. Justice Clute in single court to continue the injunction in the action of Isabella Switzer against Irvin Switzer and the Bank of Hamilton, restraining the defendant from withdrawing or in any way dealing with certain moneys now in the Bank of Hamilton. His lordship continued the injunction and directed the bank to pay the money into court, whereupon the action against the bank will be dismissed.

Motion to Quash Bylaw Fails.

Mr. Justice Clute has given judgment on the application of James H. Mitchell of Campbellford to quash the local optional bylaw of that municipality. The principal question involved in the application is the finality of voters' lists. Counsel for the applicant contended that he had a right to enquire into the qualification of voters and that on a motion to quash a bylaw of this kind the lists are not final. His lordship is of opinion that the qualifications of voters are fixed by lists from which there is no further appeal. The motion to quash was dismissed with costs.

As a sequel to the story of domestic differences between Jacob Sapiro and his wife already made public, the latter yesterday issued a writ against Sapiro claiming breach of promise of marriage.

She says a license was secured in this city, and that in October last they were married in Cleveland, Ohio, but that his promise to marry her in Canada, according to Canadian law, has not been fulfilled.

The motorman did not stop, and the poor brute dragged itself nearly a block by its fore legs. Then some one got an ax and killed it. On Dundas-street a chicken got partially beneath the wheels, and had its side badly mangled, but was left alive beside the rails.

On Arthur-street a dog was run over and decapitated.

TWO SYRIANS ARE MISSING REWARD OFFERED FOR THEM

SOL ARABEV.
The local Syrian colony has renewed its excitement, begun in February last, when two former members, Solomon Arabev and Isazid Isedene, disappeared from Paisley.

Now it is announced that a city arm, which it is alleged has been defrauded by the missing men, has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to their arrest.

A fellow countryman is also offering a reward. He is A. Nassar, who is looking for Arabev to collect the balance of $350 loaned to him by Jos. Nassar, out of his savings from peddling for the last ten years. Nassar had set Arabev up in business, and all that he has paid back to his benefactor is $385.

The store went on for three and a half years. It is reported that he got into trouble with a woman and assigned his business over to his brother Charlie. The three slept over the store, but a week before a fire occurred the brothers had moved to a private house. The night of the fire Charlie and Isedene went to Southampton to witness a hockey match. Sol and two companions played checkers. After the game he sent his companions out, while he closed up.

Arabev conducted a general store at Paisley, and left that town on Feb. 12 for Toronto. He was in the city up to Feb. 13, rooming at 203 Jarvis-street. He was last seen on Richmond-street, near the Temple Building, by Mrs. Pella Parison, 106 West Richmond-street, with whom he once roomed some years ago. He left his clothes and other belongings at the boarding house, which were removed by his brother, who is now in the Soo.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION FOR THE FIFTH CLASSES

Subject to Be Optional—Approved by Inspectors and Will Be Referred to Parents.

Inspectors Hughes and Chapman forwarded to the management committee of the board of education yesterday their approval of the suggestion "that the course of study in the fifth classes of public schools be enlarged to include a course in technical education analogous to that now given in the same classes in commercial education, and that each course be optional."

In order that a full report be made upon the best plan for making this effective, it was decided that a circular be sent to all the parents of children in the senior fourth book classes, explaining the suggestion, so that the number preferring technical work and those preferring commercial work may be perfectly ascertained.

The following resignations were accepted: Misses Ida A. Hastings, teacher in Cottingham-school; Abbie Veir, Hospital for Sick Children; Mabel A. James, kindergarten assistant in Sherley-street school; Miss A. H. Beisport, transferred from Roseville school to the Hospital for Sick Children; Miss C. E. Wheatley, now on leave of absence, was assigned to Withrow-avenue school.

The following were appointed to the temporary teaching staff: Miss J. C. Scott to Cottingham-school; Miss M. Nelles to Roseville school; Miss P. M. Creighton to Sackville school.

An additional room will be opened in Sackville school, also one to Withrow-avenue. A list of books for juvenile supplementary reading will be procured from I. M. Sorensen, Montreal, at 25 per thousand, 450 Apsley Park, 750 Nursery Tales, 350 Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, 200 Nursery Rhymes, 250 More Nursery Rhymes, 500 Stories from Hans Andersen, 250 Stories from Grimm's Fairy Tales, 500 Eyes and No Eyes, 400 Our Mother Queen. Also 2000 copies of First Book Royal Readers, Part I, at one cent each, and 2000 copies of First Book Royal Readers, Part II, at one and one-half cents each.

The accused pleaded guilty and the school was instructed to purchase a reflectoscope lantern.

REQUESTS ARE MADE FOR TWO FIRE STATIONS

Riverdale and College Heights Residents Are Anxious for Additional Protection.

The request that another fire station be established in Riverdale east of the G.T.R. tracks on Queen-street, was contained in a letter from the Riverdale Business Men's Association held before the civic fire and light committee yesterday.

The letter stated that the apparatus from the Bolton-avenue station were held up by trains at the Grand Trunk crossing at Queen-street while on the way to a fire on Morse-street, allowing the flames to gain headway.

The College Heights Association sent a communication renewing the request that a fire station be located in that district.

Chief Thompson, who was asked to report in each case, said afterwards that he considered the recommended adequate for the city's needs.

The chief will report also on the request of the Toronto Island Association that a fire reel be placed in the fire hall on Chippewa-avenue.

Repairing Lake Shore Road.

The board of control yesterday voted $8000 for repairs to the Lake Shore road, $5000 being for a rubble wall and $3000 for the roadway itself.

The works department has arranged to begin repairs on the sidewalk and road.

Dr. Sheard, who returned from Atlantic City yesterday, says that the report that he would prefer to relinquish control of the street-cleaning and scavenging department without foundation.

Another snailbox sufferer has been removed from the house in Eastern-avenue, from which four patients had previously been taken to the Swiss Cottage.

All That Is Left.

The remnants of the city's bill will come before the committee of the whole house to-day.

Dr. Sheard will recommend the appointment of a special bread inspector to carry out the new law respecting bread.

TELLS HOW THE HOME MIXTURE IS PREPARED

Simple Prescription Which is Easily Mixed at Home to Cure the Kidneys and Bladder.

A large health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles, receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and one after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and back, neck, bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings in just a short while.

A well-known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them the power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, which is the cause of rheumatism.

Cut this out and hand to some sufferer which would certainly be an act of humanity.

Will Drop the Case.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 9.—In view of the refusal of the French Government to grant the extradition of Paul E. Roy, the husband of Gladia Calla, who is accused of the murder of his brother-in-law, George A. Carkins, at Newington, three months ago, it is improbable that the authorities of Rockingham County will make any further move at the present time.

Prisoner Kidnapped Constable.

ANNISTON, Ala., April 9.—J. C. West, a white man, was acting as a special deputy sheriff, was kidnapped by Will Cunningham, a negro, whom he was attempting to arrest near Newington, this state.

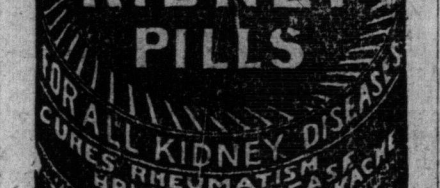

While West was reading the warrant, the negro seized the deputy's revolver and marched him toward the Coopers River.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The United States Senate to-day passed the Employers' Liability Bill as it came from the house.

ALL ONTARIO WILL VOTE ON ONE AND SAME DAY

Premier Halts a Rumor—Criminal Law Enforcement Fund—Woman Suffrage.

Premier Whitney was quite emphatic yesterday in the legislature about the uniformity of election dates. The opposition feared from a clause in the Statute Law Amendment Act that the Northern Ontario elections would be postponed. Hon. Mr. MacKay asked if they would be held on the same day as the rest.

"They must be," was Mr. Whitney's reply. "I say, and I want to be understood as saying, there is not the remotest suggestion, hope, wish or desire they should not."

He pointed out that if no means were left of postponing an election the event of an accident or error the election might be altogether canceled.

"I accept the assurance of Premier Whitney that the elections will be held on one day," said Hon. Mr. MacKay.

R. R. Gamay added the assurance that one in the north wanted any delay.

It had been reported that the government had some intentions of delay, and that the matter was settled in caucus.

Auditors Untrammelled.

Richard Harcourt, in a point in objecting to a clause in the government bill which was intended to muzzle the auditor, that official insists on having a voucher for every dollar spent in criminal investigation, and those who know anything of criminal prosecution know that the publication in the public accounts of every detail of detective operations is in the last degree impracticable. But the law says the auditor must have a voucher for every dollar spent in the last degree impracticable.

But the law says the auditor must have a voucher for every dollar spent in the last degree impracticable.

Mr. Harcourt would not suggest for a moment narrowing the power of the attorney-general, but he would have no objection to the liquor law enforcement fund being set aside, but Mr. Harcourt held they were "not on the same footing. The liquor informer was a private citizen, while the public sympathy followed the detection of ordinary crime."

The act provides a salary of not less than $200 for police magistrates who do not practise the profession of law directly or indirectly or engage in any business of any kind, in cities having a population of 25,000.

Woman Suffrage.

John Smith (Peel), reiterated his loyalty to the principle of woman suffrage, and the second reading of his bill in the legislature yesterday to give a vote in the provincial elections to women and spinsters owning property.

"Why discriminate?" interjected Premier Whitney.

Mr. Smith was assured of the wide interest taken in the question from the letters that came to him from all over the province. "Women, from the experience gained in other countries, gave a more intelligent and independent vote than most men. He was in his 77th year, but he still hoped to live to see the principle adopted."

Premier Whitney appreciated the motives of the hon. gentleman. He did not, however, understand why he brought his bill up again this year, after having divided the house upon it last year.

It was utterly impossible at this stage to deal with the bill on its merits. Mr. Smith could not have expected it or he would not have confined its operation. At no period of the history of the country had any great drastic change taken place without some evidence of a desire for it. Not a petition or a letter or anything had been presented to show any feeling, but the most undoubted apathy.

Sturdholm an Advocate.

Allan Sturdholm was surprised at the premier's view of Mr. Smith's insistence. When Mr. Whitney was defeated he did not give up, but came back again and again until now we sat again a big majority behind him. The principle of woman suffrage was as true and noble as any held by Premier Whitney and had been recognized in New Zealand and other countries and proved successful in application.

It was all very well to say that woman's place was in the house, when they were driven by thousands to work in stores and factories. Talk of heroes, said the labor member, but he could think of none greater than the mother leaving her child with a sick husband to go out and scrub office floors to keep the family. A man ought to be willing to give a woman what he wanted for himself. If Premier Whitney would not do it another would.

"I would rather vote for a good woman than for any man I ever saw," he concluded.

The bill was lost on a division.

Murderer Smith Will Recover.

MONTREAL, April 9.—It was stated to-day that John Dillon, the book agent, who killed Constable Shea and seriously wounded two other officers Monday night, was still making good progress, and he does not appear to worry over Monday's exciting incident, tho he is conscious that on his dismissal from the hospital he will be put on trial for his life.

His manner towards the nurses and doctors in the hospital is very dignified and pompous at times and again he is being quick to fly into a passion.

Quiet at Lisbon.

LISBON, April 9.—Quiet reigns in this city to-day. Quil regains in the restoration of order, and expressing the hope that the necessary restrictive measures would be continued.

Letter Men Fined.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—Fines aggregating $32.25, were to-day assessed against 23 letter men and six others who were arrested some weeks ago, charged with conducting the Kentucky lottery contrary to law.

Railway Pleads Guilty.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 9.—In the federal court to-day W. R. Regg, general counsel for the Great Northern Railway, entered a plea of guilty in the rebate against this company, and Judge Paget Morris imposed a fine of $3000.

TORONTO JUNCTION

CAUSE OF POOR PLUMBING.

Argument is Made That Organization Ensures Thoroughness.

The Plumber and Steamfitter says editorially: The appearance of a Toronto plumber in the police court last week, charged with installing a kitchen sink to which was attached a dummy vent, unconnected to any soil pipe, and the job being done without any permit, brings to light an evil which should be vigorously attacked in the interests of the trade as a whole.

Enquiry discloses that the case referred to is by no means an isolated one—the practice seems to be common amongst certain plumbers. Further, it has been shown that the inspection of plumbing in Toronto is by no means as thorough as it should be, as a pure accident made possible the discovery of the poor job on St. George-street.

When the trade in Toronto was regulated by a strong Master Plumbers' Association there were few more than one hundred master plumbers doing cut to pieces, each firm aiming to do good work and trying to secure an average net profit of about 30 per cent. But organization on the whole, we wish to point out, was a benefit to the community by enabling the plumber to get a living profit and do a good, safe job in return.

With the passing of the Master Plumbers' Association the number of registered master plumbers firms in Toronto practically doubled in a short time. Prices were cut to pieces, and in consequence, the quality of the work was lessened. For example, the story is told of sixteen tenders being turned in on a job of installing the ordinary plumbing fixtures in twelve houses. Under old conditions, with the trade getting a profit and doing good work, the whole cost of the material alone would have been about $175 per house. The job, however, it is said, went to the lowest tenderer at $115, although the wholesale cost of the material alone is present low figures will be about $97. Add the cost of labor and the contract price is considerably below cost.

Right here is the cause of poor work. Lax inspection may encourage breaches of the by-laws, but the chief cause is the low price received for work done.

CUT 16 MILES THRU ICE.
OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 9.—The steel double-end ice crusher and car ferry steamer Charles Lyon, built at Toronto for the Canadian Pacific, to ferry cars between Ogdensburg and Prescott, Ont., has arrived.

After leaving Lake Ontario the steamer crushed a passage thru 16 miles of ice.

War Correspondent's Death.
NEW YORK, April 9.—Langdon Smith, newspaper man, war correspondent, and one of the best known special writers in New York, died last night of malignant erysipelas, at his home in Brooklyn, aged 50 years. He served as war correspondent in Cuba during the Cuban insurrection and also throughout the Spanish-American war.

Five Killed in Collision.
CHICAGO, April 9.—Four occupants of a carriage were instantly killed and the driver fatally injured when the vehicle was struck by an electric train near Maywood. The carriage was one of a number that were returning from a funeral.

The driver died a few hours later in a hospital.

CHILD LABOR MARKET AROUSES INDIGNATION

Annual Recurrence of Vile Customs on Frontier of Austria, Switzerland and Germany.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, April 9.—The annual recurrence of the century-old child labor market on March 31, which many local journals describe as only a slightly disguised selling into temporary slavery, has again aroused a storm of indignation in the frontier provinces of Austria, Switzerland and Germany.

In the market place of Friedrichshafen between 300 and 400 boys and girls from 11 to 14 years of age, whose homes are in the outlying districts of the Tyrol and the Vorarlberg, are contracted yearly for seven months, from April 1 to the end of October, to farmers from South Bavaria, Wurtemberg and Baden.

Little consideration is given to the wishes of the children, most of them being sent into service against their will and in order to satisfy the avarice of their parents.

In the Market Place. The children, generally in the charge of their parents, reach Friedrichshafen on labor market day. Here they are drawn up on the market place and then brought forward for inspection by a crowd of farmers, who look them over, feel and poke their limbs, meanwhile discussing loudly their physical merits and demerits.

Gradually all are disposed of and those in charge of the children then sign with the farmers' representatives the seven months' bondage and the sums decided upon are handed over. This generally amounts for the entire period of seven months to $12.50, but some times it attains $20.

The terms of the contracts provide for all sorts of work about the farm, regardless of sex, including "cattle herding, housework and stablework." According to a local newspaper, which has conducted an enquiry, many children return home partially crippled or totally wrecked in health owing to the brutality of their masters.

Heartrending scenes are witnessed when the children part from their parents and are handed over to their masters, to be taken away.

CATTLE SUFFERED.
And a G. T. R. Official Was Called to Court.

During the cold days of the past winter Robert J. Stead of Warton shipped a car load of cattle to Toronto. The bovines went for some 25 hours without food or water, and the case came up before Magistrate Kingsford yesterday afternoon. Lorne McDonald, the Grand Trunk freight agent here, was the defendant.

It appears that Stead, who was following the stock on a passenger train, had been assured by the Palmerston agent of the company, Mr. Shea, that the cattle would go right thru. This was not true, hence the charge of cruelty. Mr. Shea denies having made such a statement, but the magistrate is inclined to take the view that the Grand Trunk is liable. The case was adjourned till called on.

Prosperity and the Exchange.
Any of the big grain handlers of any exchange will tell you that about fifty per cent. of the year's production is sold before the market opens. The first four months following the gathering of the crops, if they are honest, they will tell you that only the presence of the open world's markets prevents a gigantic combine among buyers, and a lowering of prices from ten to twenty-five per cent. to producers while the rush of marketing is in progress.

Once the grain is accumulated at the big centres, this same combine would be able to sell the grain at a price higher to consumers. It needs no special insight into trade conditions to know that the open market, which the exchange makes possible, is the only barrier to the formation of the great trust this country ever dreamed of.

This is the day of the gentle in medicine. Cascarets have supplanted physics. They act in a natural way, not with harshness.

Most of our dull days are due to inactive bowels. Nearly all of our minor ills could be avoided by a little candy Cascaret.

Also, half of our greater ills. Isn't it foolish to suffer, when there is such a pleasant way to avoid it?

Cascarets save the hours. They save the time that we waste if we are not at our best. They bring good cheer. For the blues and ill temper rarely occur when the bowels are properly helped.

They make the breath sweet, the complexion clear, the eyes bright. All this for ten cents per week.

In the old days, people let matters run until they needed a large dose of physic. Then they took something severe—like castor oil, salts or cathartics. That meant abuse to the bowels.

These are the days of the gentle and natural—the days of Cascarets. Carry a box always with you. For the right way to take them is one at a time—just as soon as you need it.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with C.C. on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and Emigrants Warned.

LONDON, April 9.—Commissioner Combs of the Toronto branch of the Salvation Army, in addressing a large party of emigrants, told them that there was no room in the cities. People should not go after work on farms and be content with brown. Unless they were ready to work and guided thereto. There would be no change in the conditions in the cities until after the presidential election. The United States was over and the financial stringency had let up. A letter from the first girl farmer in Canada, which appeared in "Women's Employment," said that she was a resident of Whitewood, Saskatchewan, and that the right woman with capital can succeed.

Eva Foster of Yorkville-avenue is asking the court to grant her $7,000 in alimony against her husband, John Foster. She is also asking for interim costs.

Invalid Ladies This Is For You.

There are thousands of females who suffer untold miseries common to their sex.

This is largely due to the peculiar habits of life and fashion, and the improper training of girlhood. Then, too, the physical changes that mark the three eras of womanhood (the maiden, the wife, and the mother) have much to do with her sufferings, most of which are endured in silence, unknown by even the family physician and most intimate friends.

To all such whose hollow cheeks, pale faces, sunken eyes, feeble footsteps, indicate nervousness, palpitation of the heart, weak, faint and dizzy spells, we would earnestly recommend a course of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. J. A. Sharp, Brighton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, weak spells and nervous trouble, and found no relief until advised to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got one box and that helped me so much I sent and got five more. I am now cured completely."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TRIBUTE TO SOUTHWORTH.

Editor World: I learn that exception has been taken to the choice of Mr. Thomas Southworth for the position of superintendent of parks for the city, because, it is claimed, he is technically incompetent.

Having a warm love for tree life, not only in the forest, but in general, and indeed having only lately completed a book on the Care of Trees in Street, Lawn and Park, I have taken a lively interest in your city trees and parks. "Being only a late comer to your city, hence without any other interests than to see its street, tree and park management in competent hands, will you allow me to point out that in such management and in the superintendent especially there is much more need of common sense and administrative ability than of technical knowledge. The latter can be had by calling in from time to time expert advice, or by employing technical assistants, but the administrative ability is the more important factor.

I have watched with interest Mr. Southworth's development in administering an office, the subject matter of which lies nearer to my interests, a subject on which he was originally perhaps less informed than on park management, and I have admired the sagacity and intelligence with which he grasped such technicalities as it seemed necessary for him to be familiar with and the absence in his writings on forestry matters of the usual amateurishness.

Since I have become acquainted with the gentleman this general intelligence and ability of grasping and applying common sense to situations has impressed itself upon me.

I have no personal interest in Mr.

Southworth's promotion to the responsible post and merely write in the belief that every honest man should express his opinion on matters of public interest in which he is entitled to an opinion.

WEST TORONTO WATER IS AGAIN IN QUESTION

Mayor Baird Suggests Some Plan for Filtration—Annexation is Urged—County Notes.

WEST TORONTO, April 9.—Dr. Gilmore, M.H.O., reported to the board of health to-night that there were ten cases of scarlet fever in the city and two of diphtheria. One of the diphtheria patients had died. Apropos of a resolution moved and seconded by Messrs. Ryding and Woodburn requesting that the council take immediate steps to improve the water supply, Dr. Gilmore stated that the water used for drinking purposes should be boiled. The mayor outlined a proposal by which the water could be purified by a system of filtration. An expert, he said, had informed him that the water should be filtered through gravel into reservoirs, before entering the pipes for distribution.

The Music Temple on Balsam-avenue was utilized for the occasion. The Ladies' Aid at the outset in the history of the handsome new Kew Beach church voluntarily assumed an obligation of about $1200, of which all but some $400 has been secured. To-night's concert will realize fully $80.

Farmers are Fortunate.

John MacInnis, the York Township assessor, and one of the best known farmers out there, met with a mishap on Parliament-street, which was fortunately unattended by anything more serious than a severe shaking up. Mr. MacInnis, accompanied by his son, was delivering some farm produce at the store of Chas. Meach on Parliament-street, when the team took fright and dashed madly away.

The wagon was turned upside-down with Mr. MacInnis beneath, but the team was caught, and Mr. MacInnis found to be little the worse. He was able to proceed to his home.

SHOOTING THE SUN.

The average transatlantic traveler displays very little interest in the navigation of the vessel, beyond watching the ship's officers, sextant in hand, making observations, says a writer in Travel Magazine. Very few have any idea of the process by means of which the modern navigator is enabled accurately to place the ship's position at a stated time on the chart. Out of sight of land, a ship's geographical position is determined either by keeping a careful record of the course steered and the distance run—known as dead reckoning; or by the combined use of chronometer and sextant—that is, by observation of the heavenly bodies. The operation of finding the latitude and longitude of observations can be performed in a number of ways, of which the simplest and most convenient is by measuring the altitude of the sun above the horizon at noon, as indicated on the vernier of the sextant and spoken of at sea as "shooting the sun." An arithmetical computation by the aid of logarithms is thus quickly made which shows exactly how far the ship is north or south of the equator, or, in other words, the latitude.

Finding the longitude, however, is a somewhat longer process. An observation is made either in the forenoon or afternoon, the chronometer time and the horizon contact of the sun's image being noted. A calculation is then made which gives the exact time at the spot where the ship happens to be, and where the chronometer carried aboard shows the exact time at Greenwich, the prime meridian longitude, the difference between the two expressions in hours and minutes (easily converted into degrees and miles) the distance east or west of Greenwich.

Having thus, roughly speaking, found the latitude and longitude, a dot placed on the chart at the exact point where the lines of latitude and longitude cross denotes the ship's position.
