

ENEMY HOPES TO CAUSE BIG HAVOC

Destruction of Million Tons of Shipping Monthly Counted Upon.

ESTIMATE EXCESSIVE

Capt. Persius Throws Dash of Cold Water on Prediction.

Berlin, Feb. 1. Via London, Feb. 2.—Expectations in official circles here that as a result of the unrestricted submarine campaign the amount of tonnage sunk each month can be increased to about 1,000,000 tons are based on available figures showing the total amount of British tonnage which is estimated at 11,000,000 to 12,000,000 tons. This is believed here to be the gross registered tonnage upon which England can count for the import of necessary supplies, wheat, ores, munitions, etc., and for the export of coal to her allies.

Statistics are cited showing the actual, not theoretical, tonnage in British ports from July to September amounted to 6,750,000 tons, carried in British vessels. In addition, it is reported that the neutral and enemy vessels, other than British, entering British ports during that period brought the total tonnage up to approximately 10,750,000 tons.

It is asserted that grain shipments from Australia to England are making steadily increased demands upon this tonnage, which also must transport from Denmark 60 per cent. of England's butter supply, and from Holland virtually all of her margarine supply. Any considerable reduction of this tonnage, it is claimed, would limit England's supply of breadstuffs so critically as to force peace within a few months.

On the other hand, if the United States should be drawn into the war, the official critics foresee a protracted campaign, and as a consequence, Europe completely exhausted and America weakened, while Japan's military strength would be greatly increased and her financial resources vastly increased.

Capt. Persius, in the Tegeblatt, throws a dash of cold water upon such reasons, which include some of his colleagues among the naval writers, by declaring that British military strength undoubtedly will be greatly increased during the war by the building of new bottoms. He also is optimistic against the prospect of achievement of German submarines and means of counter-measures upon which, he asserts, the British admiralty undoubtedly is jealously working.

BARRED DR. BELAND FROM DYING WIFE

Letter Throws Fresh Light on Hun Brutality in Belgium.

Quebec, Feb. 2.—A letter received here today announces that the wife of Dr. H. S. Beland, of Beauce County, a Belgian noblewoman, died recently in Belgium and that her husband, Dr. Beland, a prisoner of the Germans in Berlin, was refused the supreme consolation of attending his wife at her deathbed.

Dr. Beland was with his wife in Belgium when the war broke out, but refused to leave for England, staying behind to attend to his wife. He was captured by the Germans in Antwerp before the fall of that city. Some time ago, he was imprisoned by the Germans in a camp, and although successive appeals were made to high German authorities, he was always refused a permit to see his ailing wife or to die some days ago without seeing her husband.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

many deprived them of their coal and iron fields, and, it is said, the mineral production of the allies is less than the mineral production of Germany. The allies therefore have to derive their surplus production of Germany from the United States. If the United States went to war with Germany and began to raise a large army it would cut into the allied sources of supply in order to find the material to equip the new forces. The allies, who are about to launch their general offensive against Germany, require all the material obtainable, and any interference with the supply would, perhaps, foil their offensive and give Germany another year to intrigue for peace or a division in the alliance.

Quite a contrast has developed between the stories of German agents at Washington about the shutting of the British Isles off from the world and their starvation in thirty days, and the most sanguine calculations of German writers at home. The most these count upon is the increasing rate of destruction to a million tons a month. Col. Persius throws cold water on these figures, and he points out that the British navy can develop counter-measures to keep down the ravages of the submarines and that British ship yards will turn out a large amount of new shipping.

A despatch from Holland says that the new German submarine campaign has increased the prospects of Holland's entry into the war on the side of the allies. This news recalls a recent interview given out by Viscount French. He said that grave danger now menaced the small neutral states bordering on Germany, for Germany was in urgent need of labor to construct trenches and other field fortifications in order to delay an advance, and to get the labor she would not hesitate to attack and overrun any small country like Denmark, Holland or Switzerland. Then she would impress the inhabitants into her slave gangs.

The British food controller has called for reduced consumption of food in the British Isles. The home office will rely on the honor of the nation and for the present it will not promulgate any compulsory regulations. Frugality for all, he says, will ensure a sufficient supply, despite any efforts of the enemy.

On the Somme front in France the British carried out a successful enterprise against German trenches northeast of Gueudecourt last night and took 58 prisoners. Clearer weather has stimulated aerial activity and the British machines did much useful work yesterday. The British beat off a German attack on a post near Commercourt. The French also beat off a German attack on a post in the region of St. Georges, Belgium. Their artillery shelled with great destructive effect the German organizations in Apremont forest, St. Mihiel region.

York County and Suburbs

SHORT LOAN CREDITS FOR COUNTY FARMERS

Reeve Wells, King, Wants York Council to Approach Provincial Government.

Reeve Wells of King Township wants the county council to approach the legislature at the coming session with a view to getting the county ably disposed toward government assistance to farmers who want short loan credits on growing crops. He charged that the bank rate for short loans was too high, and that farmers were under great disadvantage, especially during the summer months in not being able to get an advance on their growing crops or for the purchase of live stock for feeding purposes.

Reeve Silverthorne of Etobicoke proposed the scheme as being unworkable, and that the county council should not do it. A vote to set aside the $10,000 for the building of good roads in North and South York was carried, and the county council is now in a position to take some action in the legislature.

At the noon hour luncheon council were the guests of the Arts and Letters Club, and were addressed by Sir William Mulock and others.

HEALTHIEST ONE IN THE FAMILY

No Sign of Dropsy and Kidney Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives."

HATTIE WARREN.

Port Robinson, Ont., July 8, 1915. "We have used 'Fruit-a-tives' in our house for over three years, and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with kidney disease. The doctor said she was threatened with dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. A short time the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives,' and would never be without them again."

NEW METHOD OF Reducing Fat

A news item from abroad informs us that the American method of reducing a slim figure is meeting with astonishing success. This system, which has made such a wonderful impression over there, must be the Marmol's Prescription, a method of reducing fat. It is safe to say that we have nothing better for this purpose in this country. Anything that will reduce the excess flesh, two, three or four pounds a week, without injury to the stomach, the cause of wrinkles, the help of exercising or dieting, or interference with one's meals, is a mighty important and useful addition to civilization's necessities. Just such a catalogue of good results, however, follow the use of these pleasant, harmless, and economical little fat reducers. We say economical because the Marmol's Prescription (made in accordance with the famous prescription) can be obtained of any drug store for a few cents. GOVERNMENT BUYS MORE ROSS RIFLES

That the Ross rifle had been a subject of controversy in Canada for over years, it was undoubtedly a good target rifle, but had proved itself unsuitable for active service conditions. The contract between the government and the Ross Rifle Company, however, was so framed as to give the company the right to manufacture rifles for the government indefinitely. The company could only be required to manufacture a different type of rifle after one year's notice.

Deliveries Delayed. At the outbreak of the war, he said, the Ross Rifle Company, at request of the government, began to deliver rifles to the Canadian contingent in the British Expeditionary Force. The British Expeditionary Force had been ordered to the front in June, 1915, and the Ross Rifle Company had been ordered to deliver 100,000 rifles to the British Expeditionary Force. The Ross Rifle Company had been ordered to deliver 100,000 rifles to the British Expeditionary Force. The Ross Rifle Company had been ordered to deliver 100,000 rifles to the British Expeditionary Force.

However, the government did not consider the Ross rifle as a decisive weapon. It was not until the publication of the French report as to the Ross rifle that the government decided to re-arm all Canadian troops with the Lee-Enfield. The British Expeditionary Force had been ordered to the front in June, 1915, and the Ross Rifle Company had been ordered to deliver 100,000 rifles to the British Expeditionary Force. The Ross Rifle Company had been ordered to deliver 100,000 rifles to the British Expeditionary Force.

The government had no choice, but to fulfill the contract with the Ross Rifle Company by taking and paying for the rifles already ordered, and to be replaced by the Lee-Enfield. The government had no choice, but to fulfill the contract with the Ross Rifle Company by taking and paying for the rifles already ordered, and to be replaced by the Lee-Enfield.

Mr. Carvell asked why the Fourth Canadian Division was sent from England to France, and why the Ross rifle after the British Government had undertaken to rearm them with Lee-Enfields.

He could throw no light upon this beyond the assurance that they had been rearmmed with Lee-Enfield rifles after landing in France. The Ross rifle after the British Government had undertaken to rearm them with Lee-Enfields.

Hon. Frank Oliver made a savage attack upon the government for rearming the Ross rifle. He said that the government had rearmmed the Ross rifle after the British Government had undertaken to rearm them with Lee-Enfields.

Thousands slaughtered in France because their government put in their hands an inefficient weapon. Sir Robert Borden said that the Ross rifle had been created and developed by the Laurier Government of which Mr. Oliver was a member. If all he must now be suffering from a sense of his responsibility.

Who Killed Ethel Forman? WATCH The Forman Mystery

The thrilling new serial which commences in The Daily World shortly. A story teeming with love interest and tense situations.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open slices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headaches, stuffy from a cold, hot tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can instead, both look and feel as daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of red hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleanses out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast, and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

Already Sporting Her Straw Hat, Madame New York Seeks a Spring Suit

And Lo! She Finds She Must Change Her Whole Silhouette—Must Assume an Elliptical Effect, Narrow at the Shoulders, Narrow at the Ankles, and Broadening Out Midway With Pockets, Pleats and Flying Panels.

"The Scribe" Writes From New York Concerning the Coming Styles

NEW YORK, Feb. 1st, 1917. —Here it is not being called the barrel silhouette.

When Paris created the curved line of latest mode she saw that it resembled nothing so much as the homely wooden cask, and straightway, with characteristic nativity, cried "tonneau!"

But American fashionmakers are apparently of a more idealistic turn. Perhaps they feel the harshness of the term to be incompatible with the atmosphere of chiffons.

Possibly they are troubled by visions of Diogenes in his barrel spurning the world and the vanities thereof. At any rate, few of them are applying the French nickname to the new silhouette.

With arms and legs at the feet of the skirt and the inward turn which a straight skirt will naturally take at its lower edge.

Pockets Big as Knitting Bags

In the new suits 'tis their coat pockets and the immensity of them that first catch your attention. They are universal, and know no bounds as to what their style and size may be, ranging in variety from miniature saddle bags to the long Gothic-looking pouches used sometimes for the church offertory.

Net only the jaunty sports suit is thus equipped, but the dignified model for ceremonious afternoon wear.

Charming, indeed, are the materials employed, combining, as they do, a delightful elegance of finish with a practical sturdiness of weave—Poiret will, gabardine and tricotine, which bear a strong family resemblance to one another; gunniburi, which is a refined quality of homespun; burella, which is gunniburi with a brush finish; French serge, and, for the ubiquitous and irresistible sports suit—wool jersey, silk jersey, khaki-kool and To San, another crepey edition of Rajah silk.

Grey, Putty and Navy Blue

These are the three all-conquering colors in suits for street and dress wear, blue, rose and yellow illuminating all models of a sportsy nature—patterning the fabric itself in spots as large as bull's-eyes, zigzag stripes, and the odd designs of Indian needlework. In fact, wool and silk embroidery is lavishly used, not only in bright colors, but in subdued and self tones. It is the dominant idea in the way of ornamentation in gowns, suits and blouses.

Plain Tailored Suits Return

Supplementing the costume of silver grey gabardine, putty color (will or fine navy serge, the hints of Fifth Avenue on a fine afternoon, or of the sheltered depths of the silk-lined limousine, is the swagger knock-about suit of heather tweed or the rough burella cloth—the suit familiar on the well-dressed English woman at the old-time shooting party. It is to be one of the big features of the season, developed with straight skirt, plain sacque coat, mannish collar and bone buttons, indulging occasionally in the "pinch" back by way of departure from absolute severity. Rookie browns, tanbark tans and stone greys are the favorite colors for this type of suit.

And, really, yes, inevitably, skirts are longer—brought down by a decree of Fashion to within seven inches at least of the ground.

The Daisy and Dresden Designs by the Wm. Rogers Manufacturing Co., at the Very Low Prices Listed Below.

THE NAME of these well-known manufacturers bears such a reputation for good quality and excellence of workmanship that there is no need to enlarge upon these merits. That the silverware is in graceful, well-balanced designs is shown by the illustration, and since every article is silver-plated on a heavy, substantial base, and marked much below its usual price, the values are worthy of special emphasis.

The Daisy is the pretty floral design sketched, the name taken from the three little flowers to be found at the tip of the handle, the edges being finished in a thread pattern. Special prices are:

BIBLE STUDY COURSES.

National Boys' Work Committee Will Outline Plan for Religious Education.

A meeting of the national boys' work committee was held yesterday afternoon, presided over by Taylor Statten, boys' work secretary for the national council of the Y.M.C.A., when the various items of the budget for the year were under discussion.

Provision was made for the issuing of special booklets to be sent to the 5000 boys who have made forward steps at the boys' work conference sessions through the Dominion. Another provision made in the budget was for the publication of Bible study courses for the older teen-age boys that will bring out the teachings of the Scriptures relating to the four-fold development of Canadian boys: F. L. Farewell, principal of Ontario Ladies' College, has been asked to prepare this course of study.

THEFT IS CHARGED.

The Kingston police authorities arrested Lieut. E. Decamp yesterday afternoon, on a charge of theft, preferred by John C. Kelly, 158 Closs avenue, Toronto. Decamp was attending the provincial military school at Kingston, and it is alleged that while in Mr. Kelly's company he stole a club-bag containing certain private papers. The bag alone is said to be worth $50. Detective Taylor left last night to bring Decamp back.

OUTLINE DUTIES OF DEPARTMENT

Special Committee of Municipal Association Wait on Premier Hearst

LIMITATION OF DEBT

New Bureau Should Be Given Large Powers—Establishment Expected Soon.

Outlining their ideas for a municipal department of the provincial government, a special committee of the Ontario Municipal Association waited on Premier Hearst yesterday. It was composed of E. W. McKay, St. Thomas; A. Farland, Cobalt; A. E. Bunnell, Brantford, and S. M. Knott, city clerk of Hamilton. They had not come to point out to the premier the importance of the department they said, for they were well aware that the government had expressed its approval of the idea and had expressed its intention of putting it into operation as soon as the financial situation warranted such a move. On the other hand, they wanted to point out that there was no time like the present. Such a department as that suggested would be of splendid service in preparing for conditions after the war. One of the most useful functions of such a department would be in the limitation of the debts of municipalities. It should be given some control over municipal debts. The delegation pointed out that such a department would be able to give a lot of information on a number of topics which would be of material assistance to the municipalities and would have the effect of avoiding the annual crush of municipal legislation at the last moment. Also it would stimulate municipal officers in the performance of their duties.

Present System Unsatisfactory. Mr. Kent confirmed these sentiments, saying that the department should go into the whole matter of municipal government. He was of opinion that the present system was not the best that could be imagined. The people were not satisfied with it, but no one knew of a better system. A municipal department could study the question and advise the people. He thought that its staff should include an engineer capable of keeping records of water works and roadway construction, so that the experience of one municipality might be of service to all others.

Mr. Bunnell thought that the present system of compiling municipal statistics was not worth the time and the money expended on it.

Premier Hearst, in replying to the committee, said that the policy of the government for such a department was agreed to its establishment would be at the earliest possible date. The necessary legislation and information would be in process of completion. He hoped that they would have everything necessary at the earliest possible date.

He doubted, said the premier, if the department could go so far as some of the speakers had suggested. The voters would have to take some of the responsibility for the government of their municipalities. Otherwise he was well inclined to concur with the sentiments expressed. The government would make every effort to secure the right person for the job. Legislation was to be made as soon as possible, and efficient as possible, said he.

Hon. W. D. McPherson said that he hoped that the necessary legislation would be ready at this session of the legislature, but he was not sure that it would be.

Other representatives of the association waited on the provincial secretary earlier in the day and laid before him resolutions adopted by the association. Many of them had been advanced by the speaker at his own suggestion or another.

PALE, FEEBLE GIRLS

Weakness Generally Comes on as Womanhood Approaches.

Girls upon the threshold of womanhood often drift into a decline in spite of all care and attention. How often one sees girls who have been strong, healthy and happy, suddenly become pale, depressed, irritable and listless. It is the dawn of womanhood—a crisis in the life of every girl—and prompt measures should be taken to keep the blood pure and rich with the red that of health. If the blood is not healthy at this critical stage, the body is weak, and a grave disorder follows. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved thousands of young girls from what might have been lifelong invalidity or early death. They are a blood-builder of unequalled richness, strengthening weak nerves and producing a liberal supply of red, healthy blood, which every girl needs to sustain her strength. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved their great value over and over again to young women whose health was failing. Miss A. Sternburg, Halesbury Road, New Lakehead, Ont., says: "I have much reason to be grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they restored me to health. I, indeed, they did not save my life. In 1914 I began to feel run down, and the doctor who was called in said that mine was a bad case of anaemia. I lost flesh, always felt tired, and I got so nervous that I could scarcely hold a cup to take a drink. My heart would flutter alarmingly. The doctor did not seem to be able to help me at all, and I was in a ceiling and could not recover. I was in bed for some weeks when an aunt came to see me and urged that I try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My father got a supply, and by the time I had taken three boxes there was a noticeable improvement, and from that on I steadily progressed, and my health recovered. I continued with the pills for some time longer, and they restored me to my old and healthy strength. I shall never cease to praise this medicine, and to urge all weak, run down girls to give it a fair trial, as I have proved in my own case that it is the great merit." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or you can get boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 3.

Building Activity

While all kinds of opinions are vented as to the dulness or the briskness of business after the war, there is one infallible sign of good times which has its tokens out for prosperity ahead. This is the building trade. In spite of high prices for materials, scant labor, and a preoccupied money market, there is the happiest prospect for building in Toronto this year, and various authorities confirm this view.

One of the infallible signs is rents and house values in general. Those who wish to buy find it exceedingly difficult, as comparatively few houses are for sale, and very few have been built for two years past, except for special orders. Builders can sell houses before they are finished when taking speculative work on hand.

At the city architect's office records have been broken already, the permits to date showing an advance over last year of $2,749,322. The fact of the overcongested population of Toronto should be kept in mind in this connection, as the forced high values thus brought about make it more difficult to build the class of house most in demand without going outside the city limits. There is a general complaint that land is too high in value for the moderate sized house required.

This can only be remedied by widening the boundaries of the city, a policy which the land-leeches within the city limits, and especially in central districts, receive with howls and yells. One result of this congestion is the passing of the home as it used to be in Toronto, the apartment house taking its place. While this may suit the professional property owner, it is not a beneficial thing for the community, for the family and least of all for the children. Access to the suburbs, cheap land, fresh air, comfortable independent homes are not considered in the program of the land-leeches.

Hydro's Final Success

With five years of successful operation and a net surplus of $351,833, Sir Adam Beck is able to present the annual report of the Hydro-Electric Commission with the confidence that the principle for which he has worked so long is now firmly rooted and established in Ontario. It is amusing to recall the wild prophecies of disaster of ten or twelve years ago, when all kinds of bogus experts foretold the bankruptcy of every municipality that had anything to do with it. Sir James Whitney was fond of relating in private how the hostile financial interests got a London expert to come over from England to threaten him and Ontario with exposure and the ruin of the provincial credit if he persisted in his mad course. Sir James' narrative of how he showed him the door has never been published, but it indicated no lack of confidence in Ontario credit. Such an authority as Professor James Mavor has more recently been delisted into writing thirty-nine articles—or was it thirteen?—about the hydro-electric failure, but the only thing that has failed about hydro has been the hydro-electric critics.

The total receipts for the year ending Oct. 31, were $2,038,792.32, and the expenditure $1,686,958.33. Of the net surplus $184,701.77 will be placed to depreciation reserve account. For the Niagara district this reserve now amounts to $970,542.

Besides the good showing for the whole system, the several municipalities have also been highly successful. As an example, the Severn system shows a surplus of $40,000. The Port Arthur system has a surplus of $20,862.

With this splendid and successful record it will be a continual source of regret that the wider and bolder policy had not been adopted of taking over all the generating plants and transmitting lines in the Niagara district from the first. It would almost seem to be incredible that there are still doubters, but they are sufficiently bold, and can only be explained on the theory that they belong to the same class that Sir James shoved out of his office. They have selfish personal interests and not the benefit of the people as a first consideration.

There need never have been any hesitation about embarking on the hydro-electric project, nor upon the hydro-medial plans, nor upon the city street car business. Private interests have always fought these projects, and always will, and will no doubt continue to misrepresent and distort the circumstances surrounding any attempt to obtain control of these public utilities. The main plan of campaign is postponement with the hope of smothering a renewal of franchises, and hoodwinking the public by apparently favorable terms. The only real safety is in public ownership and all delays are dangerous. The enemies of public ownership, and the secret workers for the renewal of franchises will be found united in their attacks on all who would make public ownership a certainty.

While the hydro-electric system is a success, its final success will never be put beyond peradventure until all the electric systems in the province, including the Toronto services, lighting, power and traffic, are in the possession and control of the people.

success, its final success will never be put beyond peradventure until all the electric systems in the province, including the Toronto services, lighting, power and traffic, are in the possession and control of the people.

Hospital Ship Threats

Germany's charge that British hospital ships were used to convey troops and munitions, and that, therefore, they would sink all such vessels hereafter on sight is accepted in England as a characteristic form of superfluousness, which Germany may think will terrify the extreme allies into submission. The British authorities have been most scrupulous not to allow anyone on board hospital ships, but those who are in care of the sick and wounded. Officers who have gone aboard hoping for a speedy trip home have been sent ashore. A collection of curious including some Turkish rifles were thrown overboard when discovered, although the property of a general. The Germans, it has been suggested, had always the opportunity to stop such vessels and search them. This they have not done. The reason they did not do so is merely because they did not want evidence of that kind. They preferred to invent mis-statements for the consumption of their decided people. An allegation of this kind about the Mauretania was met by having the boat put into Naples, where she was examined by the United States, Danish and Swiss consuls, who signed a declaration that neither combatants nor munitions were to be found on board.

Another mis-statement of the Germans is that they have conclusive proof of the misuse of hospital ships by Great Britain, and that such evidence was furnished with these proofs. The British Government absolutely deny the correctness of this statement or that any such proofs were ever submitted. These are matters of fact and can be established, but when Germany's bare word is in question there are few who will need anything more to overturn it than Britain's denial. Germany has not taken pains to establish a character for veracity.

CHANGES OF HEART.

Editor World: In his recent speech in the House, Sir Sam Hughes expressed his aversion to becoming a follower of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He also observed that it would grieve him to leave his old cronies in the Tory party. The writer is amazed at the obtuseness of Sir Sam. Why is he so dense? Does he not know that there is really no Tory party today? That the old men in the so-called Tory party are all ex-Grits? Let me remind Sir Sam that Sir Robert Borden, Sir Thomas White and Sir Sam himself have all been Grits. It is also a significant fact that the gentlemen named are all Sir Sam's old cronies. It may also be mentioned that the chief of the Tory organ, The Evening Post, is Sir Sam's old cronie. And so it might continue indefinitely. But enough. Is it not a grotesque spectacle to see these Sir Sam's knights, who have all deserted their old principles, magnanimously now as the real Simon pure Tory brand? And these are the chaps, too, who rise up in holy wrath when some real Tory in private expresses a little independence. If he dares so he is looked upon as a stray dog who should be impounded or shot. T. M. Humble.

RENT PRIVATE PROPERTY TO TENT WOUNDED MEN

Action of the Military Hospitals Commission is Only Temporary.

Owing to the Spadina Military Convalescent Home being full of returned soldiers, the military hospitals commission is renting private property in the vicinity in which to care for the additional patients. W. K. George, director of the hospitals commission, for this military district, states that this action is only temporary. "We expect in the near future," he said, "that the new Ontario institution at Whitby will be available for use, and accommodation will be provided for 600 patients almost at once. When another part of the institution is finished, another 600 will be provided for. And when the three sections of the institution are completed we will have accommodation for 1,800 patients. They are new buildings splendidly equipped."

GROW VEGETABLES ADVISES PREMIER

Starts Vigorous Campaign to Increase Use of Home Gardens.

AND KEEP CHICKENS

Department of Agriculture Ready to Give Advice to Householders.

"A vegetable garden for every home in 1917."

This is the slogan of the campaign inaugurated by Premier Hearst, working thru the officials of the department of agriculture, planning to encourage attention to vegetable gardens during this summer.

The plans as outlined yesterday include advertising in the papers of the province, daily, weekly, and monthly. The advertisements will be directed towards advising city people that the government is prepared to supply plans for kitchen gardens, literature regarding the best crops to sow, and the best methods of raising them. Other literature which the government will supply will show the best methods of preparing the soil and of cultivating the crops.

In cases where churches, societies or manufacturers will guarantee an audience, the department will send out a speaker to address that audience on these topics. Another feature of the campaign is that directed towards encouraging people living in small towns and villages to keep a small flock of hens. The policy of the department in this direction is that the people should buy pullets in the fall, eating them after the first year, when their laying capacity lessens. It is pointed out that by keeping hens much household waste of foodstuffs could be avoided. George Baldwin of the Toronto Vacant Lot Gardening Association, visited the department recently and received the assurance of the officials that they stood ready to assist the movement as far as they were able both here and in other towns of the province.

SOLDIERS DOWNED BY THE RIVERSIDES

Champions Scored Eight Goals in Senior Fixture—Khaki Boys Blanked.

The Riversides had no trouble in beating the 22nd Battalion in their senior O.H.A. fixture at the Arena last night.

It was a lifeless fixture with the champions always best. They only scored in the first period, ran in five in the next session and were satisfied with two in the last twenty minutes.

The Riversides were without the services of T. Barr and Ernie Parker, but still had their good combination and checked out all the time.

AURA LEE VICTORS OVER THE STUDENTS

Local Youngsters Came Strong in Third Period at Kingston.

Special to The Toronto World. Kingston, Feb. 2.—As in every game Queen's have played this season the team here tonight took the short end of an 8 to 3 defeat to Aura Lee.

The game was interesting and closely contested, but could hardly be termed good hockey.

The bottom dropped out of the temperature with a record of sixteen below zero.

The hard ice did much to help fast playing, and this with the six-men hockey played for the most of the third period.

The students continued to play until the last, while the visitors made their eight by expert long shots.

The crowd was small with few spectators conspicuous by their absence.

For the winners the honors for industrial work must go to Watson, who played a consistently good game.

He was also good. Pahey and Purvis were lively clean with few penalties.

The line-up: Aura Lee (S): Goal, Wilkinson; defence, Watson, Wagener; rover, Dye, Keane; centre, Muston; wings, Dye, Keane.

Queens (S): Goal, Lees; defence, Spence, Pahey; rover, Purvis; centre, Paul; wings, McQuade, Keady.

Referee: G. V. Horn.

TIED UP THE GROUP.

Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Ont., Feb. 2.—By a score of 4 to 3 the juniors defeated the Stratford team here tonight and tied for district honors.

Which will be broken by a sudden-death game, likely in Preston, next week.

MORE DIPHTHERIA BUT LESS FATAL

Efforts of the Department of Health Have Reduced Mortality.

HEALTH RETURNS

Scarlet Fever More Prevalent Than Last Year—Deaths Same.

The most interesting feature of the health returns for last month, published yesterday, is that the number of cases of diphtheria is materially increased over the corresponding month last year, yet the percentage of fatalities is reduced by the efforts of the department of health from 14.1 per cent. to 6 per cent.

The cities reporting the greatest number of cases are: Toronto, 127 cases, 4 deaths; Hamilton, 39 cases, 2 deaths; Ottawa, 33 cases, 4 deaths; Windsor, 33 cases, 1 death; and London, 5 cases. The returns for London the last week in January were not received in time to be included. The total number of cases reported, as may be seen from the table, are 388, the cities contributing no less than 242 of this, or 62 per cent.

Measles have increased from 419 cases in December last to 1,180 for January, but the number reported may be considered small compared with the epidemic of January, 1916, when over 3,000 cases with 59 deaths occurred. Smallpox cases were reported in the following places: Windsor, 1 case; Brook Township, 2 cases; Madoc village, 2; Huntingdon Township, 1; Plantagenet South, 1 case; Caledon Township, 1 case.

Scarlet fever cases are more prevalent, but the deaths are the same.

Following is the comparative table:

OPPOSE POWER COMPANY AT RAILWAY COMMITTEE

Continental Heat and Light Co. of Montreal Wants Dominion-Wide Powers.

Mayor Church has advised the board of the company to be presented at Ottawa before the railway committee of the commons in opposition to bill No. 7, which is an act to incorporate the Continental Heat and Light Company. The mayor says there are a lot of Montreal men in it, including Sir Herbert Ames.

This company in 1897 got somewhat the same powers given the Toronto and Niagara Power Company. They are now coming before parliament to ask for an amendment of the charter by which they can do business all over Canada.

The mayor proposes that the city should line up its force before the standing committee on railways in parliament and add a modern clause of municipal consent, defining the city in which the company is to operate. It will also be a good chance, he says, to test the feelings of parliament on the Toronto and Niagara Power Company bill.

The mayor is taking the matter up with Sir Adam Beck, the attorney-general and the city's legal department.

CITY HALL NOTES

Work commenced yesterday on the new Imperial Forgings, Limited, steel plant at Ashbridge's Bay. Two pilot drivers started to put in the sheeting, and work will be rushed with a view to having the whole work completed by July.

Mayor Church does not agree with City Auditor Sterling that he is entitled to fees for auditing the books of the Hydro-Electric Commission. The city, he says, pays him for everything he does, and it is a bad principle to add fees for outside work.

Street railway receipts for January show a decided increase over January, 1916. The figures for last month are $510,052, as compared with $473,774 last year. The city's share this month is $76,507, or an increase of $7,651 over January, 1916.

The first case of smallpox in Toronto in months was discovered by civic officials yesterday. A father and daughter, living on Marchmont road, are the victims, and to take care of them the Swiss Cottage Isolation Hospital, which has been closed since August, has been reopened.

There will be no more dilly-dallying with the Ontario Railway Board about overcrowding on Toronto street cars, says Mayor Church, and instead of accepting the board's offer to reconsider the request of the city that 200 additional cars be ordered, the city will place its case directly before the legislature. This is in direct defiance of the advice of the city legal department, which believes Toronto will prejudice its case by not going again before the railway board.

Among the matters which Mayor Church and the board of control will discuss with the Ontario cabinet ministers on Tuesday next is the annual election of school trustees and the transfer of the medical inspection over to the city. "We intend seeing," said Mayor Church yesterday, "if the school board intend carrying out the will of the people or not. We will find out if the school board will oppose our bills, and if they do we will have spokesmen from 21 ratepayers' associations to urge the case of the citizens."

Must Lead Agriculture In Their Communities

Forty young farmers from Haldimand County who have taken the short course here, visited the parliament buildings yesterday. They were addressed by Premier Hearst, who emphasized the importance of agricultural education, telling his hearers that they must go back to their home communities prepared to be leaders in agricultural advance in those districts.

He had taken over the portfolio of agriculture, said the premier, that he might be more closely in touch with the work of this department, so that he might be able to render more efficient service to the people of this province.

Three Years' Course Arranged In Religious Education

At the meeting of the committee of the board of directors of the Toronto Institute of Religious Education held this week, the plans for 1917-18 were perfected, when it was recommended to hold a course covering three years' work. The various courses will include "the Bible," "the pupil," "the teacher" and "the school," and a student who has taken a complete course will be entitled to the diploma of the institute. It was also recommended that the courses offered be in excess of the number required, and that the student be made clear that while there is a measure of option, there are certain restrictions regarding the selections.

VETERANS CO-OPERATE.

G. T. R. FAILS TO REMOVE COAL

to take steps to force the Grand Trunk to use all the power obtainable to clear this congestion.

The Toronto dealers were, he said, losing money in order to fulfill their obligations.

Some dealers had bought coal at the mines as high as $9 per ton.

Critical Time Ahead.

F. W. McClain, of the civic property department of Toronto, was in Buffalo today endeavoring to locate and secure the delivery of several cars of coal, especially anthracite, in order to keep the city's buildings supplied.

While coal and railroad men agree that unprecedented conditions have faced them this winter, both in regard to the amount of freight that has had to be moved and the coal required, they agree that next winter will be even more serious.

Demand for Anthracite.

Samuel Stanley, of the Lehigh Coal and Supply Company, while stating the case in the most favorable light for the Canadian railway, said that anthracite coal operators had lost track of the idea of selling coal but were endeavoring to keep people from freeing.

When the G. T. R. failed to take away the cars placed for them it might be on again at the time he was speaking.

Toronto Not Alone.

While Toronto was badly off for coal, there were other Canadian and American points that were in the same position.

He stated emphatically that there was no discrimination against Canada, which received the same consideration as American states but with the mining of coal cut down for some time, the railroad business was not now in a position to meet the emergencies of the situation.

Dealers Lose Money.

Asked if it were possible, as had been alleged, that Canadian dealers might take advantage of the situation to reap larger profits, he said the Toronto dealers were in most instances losing money.

The Toronto dealer pays the extra freight, almost a dollar a ton, stores the coal and delivers it in bags which are dumped into the consumer's coal bin.

Labor was very scarce in Toronto, and what could be obtained was highly paid and the hours were shorter.

Under the system of delivery in Buffalo, many more tons of coal could be handled by the same labor than in Toronto.

DENONCED RACING AND TRACK OWNERS

Speaker at Social Service Congress Bitterly Arraigns Prominent Citizens.

TREMENDOUS EARNINGS

Club Franchises Are Returning Huge Profits on Small Investments.

Bitter arraignment of some of Ontario's most prominent men, including the lieutenant-governor, Sir John Hendrie, for their conduct of the race tracks of the province, and implication of sinister acts for financial gain, marked the afternoon session of the closing day of the Social Service Congress at Convocation Hall yesterday.

He charged that it was obtained on the pretence of "thorough interest," a patriotic duty to furnish remounts for the British army, and "the political standing of men prominently associated with the Toronto, Hamilton and Montreal Jockey Clubs."

Profits Were Large.

Mr. Hendrie, he said, had told the committee that his family had made sacrifices in the interest of horse racing, and that his whole income from this source, he told them, was his director's fees and what he received on the shares of stock in the club owned by him.

Gave Stock Bonuses.

Among the fruits of the amendment, he said, were: introduction of the part of the Toronto Club from $10,000 to $20,000, so that each holder of a $100 share received a stock certificate for $2000.

The Charges Made.

"I charge," he said, "that at the time of the enactment of the law of 1910 the Toronto and Hamilton clubs had their character as sporting clubs and had become commercialized."

Without results. Finally, I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which made me feel quite well and strong.

Mrs. S. H. Clarke, 5 Sanford Street, Belleville, writes: "In 1915 I had become very nervous and run down; in fact so bad that I could not do my work. I had taken doctor's medicines

The Charges Made.

"I charge," he said, "that at the time of the enactment of the law of 1910 the Toronto and Hamilton clubs had their character as sporting clubs and had become commercialized."

At Afternoon Session.

In the discussion of "Industrial Life" at the afternoon session, Fred Bancroft, of the Trades and Labor Council stated the case of the workmen in the eight-hour day movement.

But the time had arrived, said Mr. Bancroft, when the workers ceased to believe in promises from those who hold office in the nation.

Total Prohibition.

While demanding that the federal government prohibit the manufacture of liquor, G. A. Warburton declared there was little to fear regarding the permanence of prohibition in spite of the opposing elements in both political parties. It had been backed up by a great public sentiment. The men engaged in the liquor traffic, he said, had no political principle. They were willing to turn to one party or the other as best suited their interests.

In further indicting the members of the club he charged corruption among members of the federal house and the Ontario legislature in race track matters, and that the track gambling in Canada was the greatest graft in existence.

Should Prohibit Ads.

In order that full effect might be given the temperance law, he declared that the importation of liquor into the province from Quebec should be stopped and that the publication of liquor advertisements in the newspapers nullifying the intention of the act be prohibited; also, he said, the mail should not be used for the purpose of carrying circulars from liquor dealers.

"The Dominion Government alone can prohibit the manufacture of liquor," Mr. Warburton said, "the government is advocating thrift at the present time, but I want to know how it can do so when it allows this great national waste. The responsibility for the giving of effect to the will of the people for the prohibition of liquor manufacturing rests with the government, and it will have to answer to the people. If the Dominion Government will follow the lead of the provinces of the Dominion, it will not only be doing right, but it will also be in accordance with enlightened public expediency."

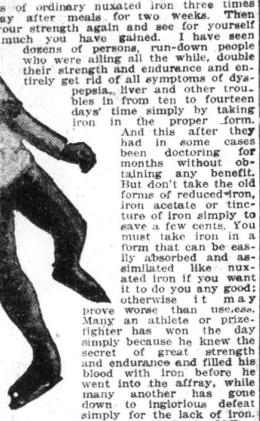

STORMY WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The stormy, blustery weather which we have during February and March is extremely hard on children. Coughs and colds are common. The best way to keep them in the house. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their little systems. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given from the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will not fail to break up colds and keep the health of the baby in good condition through the brighter days come along. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Nervous Wreck at 46—A Miracle of Strength and Vitality at Fifty—Taking Iron Did It

Doctor says Nuxated Iron is greatest of all strength builders—Often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent. in two weeks' time.

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and all the vigor, vim and vitality of a young man; in fact, a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron-nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 39 he was in bad health; at 46 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50, after taking nuxated iron, a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away habit-forming drugs and nauseous concoctions and take ample nuxated iron I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change from living tissue. Without it, no matter how much through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking. Just like you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next, take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of persons run-down and feeble, their strength and endurance and energy get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced-iron, iron acetate or ferrous sulphate. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good; otherwise it is a mere waste of money. Many an athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another, who has come down to ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron. NOTE—Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. It is the most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $1000 to any person who can show that it cannot take any man or woman under 50 who gets iron and whose strength increases 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by G. Thompson, Ltd., and all other druggists.

Now Strong and Well Without an Operation

Though Doctors Said the Knife Was Necessary to Effect Cure—Thanks Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Belleville, Ont., Feb. 2.—Unfortunately, the doctors made a mistake sometimes. The name for operations table many times when it is quite unnecessary. Instead of resorting to the knife, the medium of the blood and nerves, they seek cure by a quicker method. The risk, expense and mental suffering of the patient is not always considered. So many cases of this kind have come to our attention that we cannot help but think of the thousands of other cases who could avoid operations if they were to persistently use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food so as to enrich the blood, revitalize the starved nerves and restore strength to the weakened system. Mrs. S. H. Clarke, 5 Sanford Street, Belleville, writes: "In 1915 I had become very nervous and run down; in fact so bad that I could not do my work. I had taken doctor's medicines

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"THE GIRL WHO SMILES." No form of theatrical entertainment has fastened itself so tenaciously upon the good opinion of the amusement-loving public as has musical comedy, with its manifold diversions. It is no wonder, then, that "The Girl Who Smiles," the musical comedy which plays a return engagement at the Alexandra next week, is absorbing so much interest.

"THE FLAME." Theatregoers all over America have applauded Richard Walton Taylor's remarkable love plays, "The Bird of Paradise" and "Omar, the Tentmaker," and now the same author has written an even more entrancing love play, "The Flame," which will come direct from its New York triumph to the Royal Alexandra Theatre for the week commencing Monday, February 12.

FISKE O'HARA. Fiske O'Hara in his new comedy, "His Heart's Desire," will commence an engagement of one week at the Grand Opera House for the week including the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. The play is from the pens of Anna Nichols and Adelaide Matthews, and is said to be the best vehicle the popular young actor-singer has ever had.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK COMING. Raymond Hitchcock, under the management of Charles B. Dillingham, comes to the Grand Opera House for a week's engagement beginning Monday, February 12, and will be seen in "Betty," a musical play of the well-known Dillingham type. This is an imported attraction which Mr. Dillingham saw on his latest visit to London, where he was struck by its success, and by its adaptiveness to the taste of the American theatre-going public.

SHEA'S. For next week the Shea management offers as the headline attraction George White and Lucille Lovell's "A 1917 Presentation of Songs." Billie Montgomery and George Perry, as "Two Bachelors of Art," provide pleasant entertainment. Gene Higgins will be featured in Edgar Allan Woolf's amusing comedy satire, "Gowans." Bert Melrose will come equipped with a host of new material. May Curtis is a dainty singing comedienne, while the Musical Joustons are known as "masters of the xylophone." Bee Ho Gray and Ada Somerville in "A Surprise from Oklahoma"; Jack and Kitty De Maco, and Pathe's "Development of the Silk Industry," complete a well-balanced bill.

HIPPODROME. Lionel Barrymore and Grace Valentine, two clever Metro stars, will be featured at the Hippodrome next week in the newest Metro picture, "The Brand of Cowardice." Toots Peka, the beautiful Hawaiian princess, returns to the Hippodrome next week in the spectacular comedy, "On the Beach at Waikiki." Edy Brant and company in "The New Editor," have an amusing sketch, while French comedienne, Gertrude, and eccentric dancers, Eddie, Iron and Madge Douglas in "The Song Hit," the Temple Quartette, Bergick and Hart in "The Merry Madmen" and feature films complete the bill.

LOEW'S. "A Day at Ocean Beach," tops the bill at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Roof the coming week. Albert Hawthorne and Will Lester will offer their clever comedy skit, "The Undesirable." Harry Sydel, a peculiar type of comedian, will be featured on the bill. Others will be Ward and Michael Faye, who offer songs, fun and dances; Frank Gabby, a master ventriloquist; Valaska Stratton in "Jealousy," and Charlie Chaplin in "Easy Street," complete the bill.

GAYETY. "Hello, New York," which is claimed to be the most elaborate production ever made in Canada, will be offered at the Gayety commencing next Monday. For ten weeks last summer this unusual offering occupied the stage of the Columbus Theatre, New York, and succeeded in establishing a place for itself among the accepted important productions of the season.

STAR. "The Broadway Belles" Company will appear at the Star Theatre for two weeks commencing Monday, Monday. In these days, when unlimited capital has been sunk into the burlesque business, as well as in any line of commercial business, producers and managers are striving to outdo each other in magnificence of production and admiration of those who were privileged to see the best of the theatrical productions.

REGENT. Clara Kimball Young is the attraction at the Regent the first half of next week. Romantic in the extreme, "The Feast of Life" is a story replete with that element of interest and suspense so loved by patrons of the photo-play drama.

MADISON. Kathryn Williams appears for the first time this afternoon and evening at the Madison in "Redeeming Levi," an exceptionally strong drama, commencing Monday evening. Pauline Frederick's highly successful production, "Slave Market," which has been repeatedly called one of the finest and most powerful dramas of the season.

AT THE STRAND. For the first half of next week, a big double-header will be presented at the Strand Theatre. One of the two big features is "The Man of Mystery," with H. H. Sothern in the title role. The big attraction will be Charlie Chaplin in "Easy Street."

Two Local Soldiers Charged With the Theft of Motor Car. Cliff A. Hill and Howard Hance of Hamilton, both members of a Toronto battalion, were arrested last night by a Toronto police officer. They were charged with the theft of a motor car from W. Ryan. According to the police, Hill and Hance were in the car when it was stolen from Ryan's garage on the afternoon, and while on the way to the detectives' office to report its loss, they were stopped by a policeman. The men were taken into custody and charged with the theft of the car and the theft of the motor car.

BRITISH FLEET MAY EXAMINE AT SEA

Another alternative suggested is for the examination of cargoes by British agents at American, Scandinavian and Dutch ports before the departure of vessels. A third suggestion is for an examination to be made at some British colonial port, like Halifax. The latter two alternatives are not considered feasible, however, as it is believed the American Government would yield on the point of examination at home ports or in Canada.

Not Compulsory. It is pointed out that the system under which ships enter Kirkwall is not a compulsory one, but has been universally adopted by shipping as the only means of avoiding the difficulties of examination at sea. Under the present system British diplomatic representatives at Washington, Copenhagen and elsewhere issued a certificate of assurance when cargoes are shown not to be contraband. The shippers thereafter accept the cargo backed up by such certificates and stop at Kirkwall, where the certificate assures them quick examination and the avoidance of detention at sea.

But as the system is not compulsory a number of steamers continue to run the risks of not putting in at Kirkwall. One American ship recently got thru the British blockade and is now at a Norwegian port. The number of blockade runners, however, is comparatively small, and most of the traffic between the U. S., Scandinavia and Holland is carried on by three large transatlantic companies handling passengers and freight and by tramp steamers which have been consolidated under one general control in order to secure uniform observance of the blockade restrictions.

Now that there is a German blockade to the British blockade, neutral ships will be subjected to a double cordon, which is expected largely to increase the dangers and also to lead to more blockade running, owing to the increased premium for heavy risks.

DEALERS RESTRICT TRADE IN WHEAT

Chicago Market Awaits Outcome of Crisis Between U. S. and Germany.

Special to The Toronto World. Chicago, Feb. 2.—Trade in wheat was restricted today, pending further developments in the crisis in the relations between the United States and Germany. The tone of the market was irregular, and the feeling of the end was nervous on the latest developments in the Japanese land situation. Altho May got above yesterday's close at one time, it was under pressure and finished weaker, but above the bottom. That position was unaffected by the announcement by the Danes and Dutch governments of a suspension of sailings.

Heavy and well-distributed rain has fallen in Argentina and the weather in Buenos Aires was not affected by the decline in America, and closed firm and unchanged, with offers light.

"It is not so cold over a wide area in France. There is abundant snow where no planting is done, and a lack of covering elsewhere. Foreign arrivals are increasing.

"In parts of India it is dry, with some frost. Crop prospects generally are favorable, and exports offer larger."
