OF THE

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT RELATING TO THE CHURCH, SYNODS, ETC.

CHURCH TEMPORALITIES ACT.

[Royal Assent promulgated 3d December, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is desired on behalf of the United Church of England and Ireland, in the Province of Upper Canada, that provision should be made by law for the internal management by the members of the said Church of the temporalities thereof, and also for allowing the endowment thereof, and it is just and expedient that such provision should be made: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the soil and freehold of all Churches of the communion of the said United Church of England and Ireland, now erected or hereafter to be erected in the said Province, and of the Church-yards and Burying-grounds attached or belonging thereto, respectively, shall be in the Parson or other Incumbent thereof for the time being; and that the possession thereof shall be in the Incumbent for the time being and the Church-wardens to be appointed as hereinafter is mentioned, by whatever title the same may now be held, whether vested in Trustees for the use of the Church, or whether the legal estate remains in the Crown, by reason of no Patent having been issued, though set apart for the purposes of such Church, Church-yard or Burying-ground: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to affect the rights of any other Church or body of Christians to any landed property or Church now erected, but that the same shall remain as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all pew holders in such Churches, whether holding the same by purchase or lease, and all persons holding sittings therein by the same being let to them by Church-wardens, and holding a certificate from the Church-wardens of such sitting, shall form a Vestry for the purposes in this Act mentioned and declared.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a meeting of such Vestry shall be holden on Monday in Easter week, in each and every year, after due notice thereof given during Divine Service on the morning of Easter Sunday, for the purpose of appointing Church-wardens for the ensuing year; and that at such meeting one Church-warden shall be nominated by the Incumbent of the Parsonage or Rectory to which the said Church belongs, and the other shall be elected by a majority of those present and entitled to vote at such Vestry meeting, as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that in case of such Incumbent declining or neglecting to nominate a Church-warden, then both of the said Church-wardens shall, for the current year, be elected in the manner aforesaid; and in case the members of such Vestry shall neglect to elect a Church-warden, then both of such Church-wardens shall, for the current year, be nominated by the Incumbent: Provided always, that if from any cause a Vestry meeting shall not take place at the time aforesaid, such appointment of Church-wardens may take place at any subsequent Vestry meeting, to be called in manner hereinafter provided; and in case of the death or change of residence to twenty miles or more from any such Church, of either of the said Church-wardens, a Vestry meeting shall be thereupon called for the election, by the said Vestry, of a new Church-warden, in case the one deceased or removed had been elected by the Vestry, or for the nomination of a new Church-warden by the Incumbent, in case the one deceased or removed had been nominated by the Incumbent.

AN ACT VESTING THE RIGHT OF PRESENTATION TO RECTORIES IN THE CHURCH SOCIETY.

Reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure 30th Aug., 1851.
The Royal Assent given by Her Majesty in Council on the 15th May, 1852; and Proclamation made thereof by his Excellency James, Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, in the Canada Gazette of the 9th June, 1852.

WHEREAS the recognition of legal equality among all religious Denominations is an admitted principal of Colonial Legislation; And whereas in the state and condition of this Province, to which such a principal is peculiarly applicable, it is desirable that the same should receive the sanction of direct Legislative Authority, recognizing and declaring the same as a fundamental principle of our civil polity: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, "An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby declared and enacted by the authority of the same, That the free exercise and enjoyment of Religious Profession and Worship, without discrimination or preference, so as the same be not made an excuse for acts of licentiousness, or a justification of practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the Province, is by the constitution and laws of this Province allowed to all Her Majesty's subjects within the same.

II. And whereas the provisions of the Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, passed in the thirty-first year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," whereby the erection of Parsonages or Rectories in this Province, according to the establishment of the Church of England, the endowment of such Parsonages or Rectories out of the Clergy Reserves, and the presentation of Incumbents or Ministers to such Parsonages or Rectories, is vested in the Government of this Province, have been found to give occasion to doubts and apprehensions which it is desirable should be removed by the repeal of the same under the power for that purpose vested in the Provincial Parliament by the provisions of the said Imperial Act—Be it therefore enacted, That the thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth and fortieth sections of the said Act shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that from henceforth, no Letters Patent shall be issued in this Province by the Crown for the erection of any such Parsonages or Rectories, or for the endowment thereof, out of the Clergy Reserves or the Public Domain, or for the presentation of any Incumbent or Minister to any such Parsonage or Rectory: Provided always, that neither such repeal, nor anything herein contained, shall in any wise affect any proceedings heretofore had, whereby certain Parsonages or Rectories were erected and endowed, or supposed to be erected and endowed by the Authority aforesaid, or whereby certain Incumbents or Ministers were presented, or supposed to be presented, under the same Authority, to such Parsonages or Rectories, or any of them, but the legality or illegality of all such proceedings shall be left open to be adjudicated upon and determined as if this Act had not been passed: And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to limit or in any way affect or interfere with the provisions of the twenty-seventh section of the Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Session thereof held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the disposal of Public Lands."

III. And be it enacted, That in the event of its being judicially decided that any of such Parsonages or Rectories were erected according to law, and until a judicial decision shall be obtained on such question, the right of presenting an Incumbent or Minister to such Parsonage or Rectory shall vest in, and be exercised by the Church Society of the Church of England Diocese within which the same shall be situated, or in such other person or persons, bodies politic or Corporate, as such Church Society, by any By-law or By-laws to be by them from time to time passed for that purpose, shall or may think fit to direct or appoint in that behalf.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ABOVE ACT.

[Assented to 16th August, 1858.]

WHEREAS doubts exist whether in the Act passed in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An act to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in Canada, to meet in Synod," sufficient provision is made for the representation of the Laity of the United Church of England and Ireland in the Synods by the said Act authorised to be held; and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

I. For all the purposes of the aforesaid Act, the Laity shall meet by representation; and until it shall be otherwise determined by the Synod in each Diocese, one or more delegates (not exceeding three in any case) may be elected at the annual Easter meetings in each Parish, Mission, or Cure within the Diocese, or in cases where there may be more than one congregation in any Parish, Mission or Cure, then in each such congregation, or at meetings to be specially called for the purpose by each Clergyman having a separate Cure of souls; and all laymen within such Parish, Mission or Cure, or belonging to such congregation, of the full age of twenty-one years, who shall declare themselves in writing, at such meetings, to be members of the United Church of England and Ireland, and to belong to no other religious denomination, shall have the right of voting at such election. Each delegate shall receive from the Chairman of the meeting a certificate of his election, which he shall produce when called upon to do so, at the Synod; and the first meeting of such Synod shall be called by the Bishop of the Diocese at such time and place as he shall think fit; provided always, that no business shall be transacted by the Synod of any Diocese unless at least one-fourth of the Clergy of such Diocese shall be present, and at least one-fourth of the Congregations within the same be represented by at least one delegate.

II. All proceedings heretofore had in any Diocese under the aforesaid Act, which have been conformable to the provisions of this Act, shall be held to be valid, as if the same had taken place after the passage of this Act.

AN ACT INCORPORATING THE SYNOD OF THE DIOCESE OF ONTARIO.

[Assented to 9th June, 1862.]

WHEREAS Her Majesty, by Her Royal Letters Patent, bearing date at Westminster, on the eighteenth day of February, in the twenty-sixth year of Her Majesty's Reign, was pleased to divide the Diocese of Toronto into two Dioceses, the one to be called the Diocese of Toronto and the other the Diocese of Ontario, in the manner and with the limits and boundaries in an Act passed in the first year of Her Majesty's said Majesty's said United Church of England and Ireland, in the Dioceses which are and in such manner and in such manner constitutions and for the appointment bearing office the Crown to the orderly management matters relating to Synod of the Diocese of England and Ireland as hereinafter facilitate and promote above recited Act, powers hereinafter mentioned: Therefore the Legislative Council

And whereas a Synod of the Diocese of Ontario hath recently been constituted, and hath prayed that the Bishop, Clergy and Laity, members of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the said Diocese of Ontario, be incorporated as hereinafter mentioned; And whereas it would tend greatly to facilitate and promote the purposes of the said Synod, as set forth in the above recited Act, that the said Corporation should be created with the powers hereinafter mentioned, subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

THE DECLARATION,
CONSTITUTION AND CANONS OR BY-LAWS
OF THE
SYNOD OF THE DIOCESE OF ONTARIO.

DECLARATION.

We, the Bishop, the Clergy, and Representatives of the Laity of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the Diocese of Ontario, assembled in Synod, and intending, under God's blessing and guidance, to consider and determine upon such matters as shall appear necessary for the welfare of the Church in this Diocese, desire to make a declaration of the principles upon which we purpose to proceed.

We desire that the Church in this colony shall continue, as it has been, an integral portion of the United Church of England and Ireland.

As members of that Church, we recognize the true Canon of Holy Scripture, as received by that Church, to be the rule and standard of faith; we acknowledge the Book of Common Prayer and Sacraments, together with the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, to be the true and faithful declaration of the doctrines contained in Holy Scripture; we maintain the form of Church government by Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, as Scriptural and Apostolical; and we declare our firm and unanimous resolution, in dependence on Divine aid, to preserve those doctrines and that form of Church government, and to transmit them to our posterity.

In particular, we uphold the ancient doctrine of our Church, that the Queen is rightfully possessed of the chief government or supremacy over all persons within her dominions, in all causes whether ecclesiastical should continue

7. To regulate the Church.

8. To provide, within the Diocese into period.

9. To procure for the execution of laws, which

These are subject to our Synods, and the in this Province impeded with.

In conclusion, we may be with us, and whether ecclesiastical or civil; and we desire that such supremacy should continue unimpaired.

It is our earnest wish and determination to confine our deliberations and actions to matters of discipline, to the temporalities of the Church, and to such regulations of order as may tend to her efficiency and extension; and we desire no control or authority over any but those who are, or shall be, members of the said Church.

We conceive that the following, and such like subjects, may fitly come under our consideration, and lead to action on our part:

1. To frame a Constitution for the Synod, and to regulate the time and place of its meetings, and the order and manner of its proceedings.
2. To provide for the proper exercise of ecclesiastical discipline, in regard to both Clergy and Laity.
3. To provide for the extension and temporal well-being of the Church, and the support of the Clergy and schoolmasters, for the maintenance of public worship, and the diffusion of a sound religious education.
4. To promote and regulate the building and consecration of Churches, and the erection of Parsonages and school-houses.
5. To provide for the division of the Diocese into Parishes, with regulations for future sub-divisions.
6. To provide (with consent of the Crown, where needed) fit regulations for the appointment of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons.
7. To regulate the fees for marriages and other offices of the Church.
8. To provide, with the consent of the Crown, for the division of the Diocese into new Dioceses, either forthwith, or at any future period.
9. To procure from the Colonial Legislature any laws, or modification of laws, which the circumstances of the Church may require.

These are subjects which will supply abundant employment for our Synods, and they are such as the circumstances of the Church in this Province imperatively require the Clergy and Laity to deal with.

In conclusion, we humbly pray that the God of unity and peace may be with us, and so chasten our affections, purify our motives, and guide our judgment, that we may be enabled to contribute to the efficiency, concord, and stability of the Church in this land.

And in the event of the erection of a new parish or cure, or of a vacancy occurring in the number of representatives of any parish or cure, either by death or otherwise, the ministers of the said parish or cure shall in like manner and within the same period proceed to hold a new election to fill such vacancy, and the voters at the last election shall be entitled to vote at such new election without further registration.

7. Clergymen who have been members of the Synod, from whom the Bishop has not withdrawn his license, and who have become superannuated or incapacitated in consequence of age or infirmity, may continue to attend the meetings of the Synod, and vote thereat.

8. The Synod shall meet annually, or oftener if required ; the time and place of meeting being appointed by the Bishop, who shall adjourn, prorogue, or dissolve the Synod, as may appear to him most for the welfare of the Diocese.

9. A quorum of the Synod shall consist of not less than one fourth of the whole number of the Clergy, and one fourth of the congregations within the Diocese, represented by at least one delegate, and no business shall be transacted without a quorum.

11. There shall be a Treasurer, who shall receive all moneys received for the Synod, and shall render accounts thereon.

12. A Finance Committee shall be appointed by the Synod, to prepare the assessment for the next year, and to report thereon to the Synod. The current expenses of the Synod shall be provided for by joint authority of the Synod and the Finance Committee.

13. There shall be a Moderator, who shall preside over the meetings of the Synod, and shall be assisted by ten Clergymen, who shall be elected by the Synod, and shall continue till their successors are elected. The Moderator, the Moderator-elect, the Bishop, the Moderator of the Executive Committee, and the Clergymen shall be called the Moderators, and shall have the right to bring forward any business, and to print such reports, and to countermand any resolutions, claims, and applications, and to issue a circular, or other lawful application, and to issue a circular, or other lawful application, in place of meeting, and to issue a circular, or other lawful application, in which it will be stated that each Clergyman shall be present at the next meeting of the Synod.

14. The business of the Synod shall be conducted by committees, and shall be reported to the Synod before the meeting.

15. No act or resolution shall be passed by the Synod without the concurrence of the Clergy and the Laity present. Any dispute between the order and the Laity shall be referred to the consideration of the Synod, and shall not be referred to the Executive Committee.

16. Any proposal for the amendment of any of the rules of the Synod shall be referred to the consideration of the Synod.

11. There shall be a Treasurer of the Synod, who shall disburse all moneys received and paid under its authority; and two Auditors, who shall annually inspect and report on the condition of the accounts.

12. A Finance Committee shall be appointed annually, to fix the assessment to be levied from each parish for the ensuing year. The current expenses of the Synod shall be defrayed under the joint authority of the Secretaries and the Treasurer.

13. There shall be an Executive Committee, to be nominated and presided over by the Lord Bishop, and to consist of twenty members, ten chosen from the Clergy, and ten from the Lay representatives; of whom seven shall be a quorum, and whose office shall continue till their successors are appointed. In the absence of the Bishop, the committee shall elect a chairman. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to prepare in due form all such matters as the Bishop, or any other members of the Synod may desire to bring forward; to receive reports of all other committees; and to print such reports or such parts of them as they may deem expedient; to countersign or endorse by their chairman all cheques, claims, and applications made by any board or committee; or any other lawful applications on the Treasurer of the Synod; and to issue a circular, under the Bishop's direction, stating the time and place of meeting, the business for the ensuing Synod, and the order in which it will be discussed: which circular shall be forwarded to each Clergyman and Lay representative, one month before the meeting of the Synod.

14. The business to be submitted to the Synod, and all reports of committees, shall be sent to the Executive Committee six weeks before the meeting of the Synod.

15. No act or resolution of the Synod shall be valid without the concurrence of the Bishop, and of the majority of the Clergy, and of the Laity present; and if a difference should be found to subsist between the orders after a vote is taken, then the subject under consideration shall stand over to the ensuing Synod. This rule not to refer to the election of a Bishop.

16. Any proposition for an alteration of this constitution, or of any of the rules of order, or the canons, shall be sent to the Executive Committee, and by them laid before the Synod, to be considered at the ensuing meeting; and, if approved by the Bishop and a majority, shall lie over to the next meeting of the Synod; and if again approved by the Bishop and a majority, consisting of two-thirds of both Clergy and Laity, it shall be confirmed.

2. After divine service on the first day of meeting, the Lay Secretary shall attend at the place of meeting of the Synod, to receive the certificates of the Lay representatives, which shall be examined by the Secretary and a committee of two to be appointed for that purpose. No representative shall be permitted to act as such until the assessment upon his parish is paid.

3. The Clerical Secretary shall then call over the roll of the Clergy, to be furnished by the Bishop, and mark the names of those in attendance; and the Lay Secretary shall call over the names of the several parishes and their representatives, marking those who are present.

4. The election of Secretaries shall then be made by the Clergy and Laity respectively; and a Treasurer and two Auditors shall be appointed; all of which officers shall hold their respective offices until their successors shall be appointed.

13. Whilst any question is being put from the chair, the members shall continue in their seats, and shall not hold any private discourse ; and when a motion is so put, no member shall retire until such motion is disposed of.

14. When a division takes place, the votes of the clergy and laity shall be taken separately, if required by the Bishop or four members of each of the respective orders ; and the lay representatives shall in all such cases vote by parishes, and when so voted, the majority shall be considered as the vote of the parish.

15. In voting, those who vote in the affirmative shall first rise, and then those who vote in the negative.

16. A question, being once determined, shall not again be drawn into discussion in the same session, without the special sanction of the Bishop.

17. No protest or dissent shall be entered on the minutes of the proceedings ; but, when required by any one member, the number of affirmative and negative votes shall be recorded.

Upon each member of the Synod depositing his vote, a mark shall be placed opposite his name on the roll by the Secretary of the order to which he belongs; and upon the requisition of any three members of the Synod, the number of votes deposited shall be compared with the number of those who have voted upon the occasion. The scrutineers shall hand over the votes to the Secretaries of the Synod, whose duty it shall be to preserve them until the election of Delegates shall be completed, and then to destroy them at the end of the session.

5. In case of a vacancy occurring in the number of Delegates after the election, and before the meeting of the Provincial Synod, the vacancy shall be supplied on an appointment by the Lord Bishop, under his hand and seal.

That if the Commissioners shall report that there is sufficient prima facie ground for instituting proceedings, and if the Bishop of this Diocese or the party complaining shall thereupon think fit to proceed against the party accused, articles shall be drawn up by the direction of the Bishop, or at the instance of the party complaining, and, when approved and signed by a barrister-at-law, shall, together with a copy of the depositions taken by the Commissioners, be filed in the Registry of this Diocese; and any such party, or any person on his behalf, shall be entitled to inspect without fee such copies, and to require and have, on demand, from the Registrar, (who is hereby required to deliver the same), copies of such depositions, on payment of a reasonable sum for the same, not exceeding two-pence for each folio of ninety words.

7. That a copy of the articles so filed shall be forthwith served upon the party accused by personally delivering the same to him, or by leaving the same at the residence house belonging to any preferment holden by him, or if there be no such house, then at his usual or last known place of residence; and it shall not be lawful to proceed upon any such articles until after the expiration of fourteen days from the day on which such copy shall have been so served.

8. That it shall be lawful for the Bishop, by writing under his hand, to require the party to appear before him, either in person or by his agent duly appointed, as to the said party may seem fit, at any convenient place within the Diocese, and at any time after the expiration of the said fourteen days, and to make answer to the said articles within such time as to the Bishop shall seem reasonable; and if the party shall appear, and by his answer admit the truth of the articles, the Bishop or his Commissary specially appointed for that purpose, shall forthwith proceed to pronounce sentence thereupon, according to the ecclesiastical law and the statutes of this Province enabling the members of the United Church of England and Ireland in Canada to meet in Synod.

9. That every notice and requisition to be given or made in pursuance of these canons shall be served on the party to whom the same respectively relate, in the same manner as is hereby directed with respect to the service of a copy of the articles on the party accused.

10. That if the party accused shall refuse or neglect to appear and make any answer to the said articles other than an unqualified admission of the truth thereof, the Bishop shall proceed to hear the cause, with the assistance of three Assessors to be nominated by the Bishop, one of whom shall be his Chancellor, or a barrister of not less than seven years standing, and another shall be the Dean of his Cathedral Church, or one of his Archdeacons, and upon the hearing of such cause the Bishop shall determine the same and pronounce sentence thereupon, according to the ecclesiastical law and the statutes of this Province enabling the members of the United Church of England and Ireland to meet in Synod.

11. That all sentences which shall be pronounced by the Bishop or his Commissary, in pursuance of these canons, shall be good and effectual, and binding on all parties concerned therein; and that said sentences may extend to the deposition, deprivation, or removal, as provided for in the said Statutes of this Province, in the preceding section mentioned.

12. That in every case in which, from the nature of the offence charged, it shall appear to the Bishop that great scandal is likely to arise from the party accused continuing to perform the services of the Church while such charge is under investigation, or that his ministrations will be useless while such charge is pending, it shall be lawful for the Bishop to cause a notice to be served on such party at the same time, with the service of a copy of the articles aforesaid, or at any time pending any proceedings before the Bishop, or in the Diocesan Court, inhibiting the said party from performing any services of the Church within this Diocese, from and after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of such notice, and until sentence shall have been given in the said cause: provided that it shall be lawful for such party, being the Incumbent of a Benefice, within fourteen days after the service of the said notice, to perform all such services which such party shall be required to perform. The Bishop shall determine the performance of such services, and they shall be performed by them accordingly. The Bishop shall make such provision, and such remuneration, and such remuneration, if any, shall be such as he shall also, that it shall be lawful for him to revoke such inhibition.

13. That it shall be lawful for the Bishop, if he himself is aggrieved by any sentence or appeal from such sentence, to appeal to the Court of Appeal of the Province.

14. That it shall be lawful for the Bishop, or more of the Clergy, or the Bishop, or for any other person, to cause the execution of such writs, process, or writings, or to cause the same to be executed.

15. That every witness who shall be sworn to these canons, shall be sworn by a solemn affirmation, instead of an oath, and the same shall be administered by the Bishop, or the Assessor of the Court, or such witness who shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

16. That every person who shall be guilty of any offence against the Holy Orders, for any offence against the provisions of the Canons, or any offence commenced within this Diocese, in respect of which the offender shall have become publicly notorious, that whenever any sentence shall be pronounced in respect of an offence the said notice, to nominate to the Bishop any fit person or persons to perform all such services of the Church during the period in which such party shall be so inhibited as aforesaid; and if the Bishop shall deem the person or persons so nominated fit for the performance of such services, he shall grant his license to him or them accordingly, or in case a fit person shall not be nominated, the Bishop shall make such provision for the service of the Church, and such remuneration to the party performing the same, as to him shall seem necessary; and to provide for the payment of such remuneration, if necessary, by sequestration of the living, provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Bishop, at any time, to revoke such inhibition and license respectively.

13. That it shall be lawful for any party, who shall think himself aggrieved by any judgment pronounced by the Bishop, to appeal from such judgment, and such appeal shall be to the Court of Appeal of the Metropolitan.

14. That it shall be lawful, in any such inquiry, for any three or more of the Commissioners; or in any such proceeding, for the Bishop, or for any Assessor of the Bishop, to require the attendance of such witnesses, and the production of such deeds,* evidences, or writings, as may be necessary.

15. That every witness who shall be examined, in pursuance of these canons, shall give his or her evidence upon oath, or upon solemn affirmation, in cases where an affirmation is allowed by law instead of an oath, which oath or affirmation respectively, shall be administered by the Judge of the Court or his Surrogate, or by the Assessor of the Bishop, or by a Commissioner; and that every such witness who shall wilfully swear or affirm falsely shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

16. That every suit or proceeding against any such Clerk in Holy Orders, for any offence against the Laws Ecclesiastical, or against the provisions of the Statutes constituting the Synod, or against the Canons, Rules and Regulations of the Synod, shall be commenced within two years after the commission of the offence, in respect of which the suit or proceeding shall be instituted shall have become publicly known, and not afterwards; provided always, that whenever any such suit or proceeding shall be brought in respect of an offence, for which a conviction shall have been obtained in any Court of Common Law, such suit or proceeding may be brought against the person convicted, at any time within six calendar months after such conviction, although more than two years shall have elapsed since the commission of the offence, in respect of which such suit or proceeding shall be so brought.

17. That, unless it shall otherwise appear from the context, the term "Preferment," when used in the foregoing canon, shall be construed to comprehend every Deanery, Archdeaconry, Prebend, Canonry, Office of Minor Canon, Priest Vicar, or Vicar Choral in Holy Orders, and every Precentorship, Treasurership, Sub-Deanery, Chancellorship of the Church, and other Dignity and Office in any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, and every Mastership, Wardenship, and Fellowship, in any Collegiate Church, and all Benefices with Cure of Souls, comprehending therein all Parishes, Perpetual Curacies, Donatives, Endowed Public Chapels, Parochial Chapelries, and Chapelries or Districts belonging to, or reputed to belong, or annexed, or reputed to be annexed, to any Church or Chapel, and every Curacy, Lectureship, Readership, Chaplaincy, Office, or Place, which requires the discharge of any Spiritual Duty.

IX.—FOR THE REGISTRY AND SAFE CUSTODY OF ALL DEEDS RELATIVE TO CHURCH PROPERTY.

1. That the Bishop of the Diocese shall nominate and appoint a Registrar.

2. That the Registry Office be kept at such place as the Bishop may select, and that suitable books be provided for the purpose of registering all said documents.

3. That it shall be the duty of all Rectors, Incumbents, Churchwardens, Trustees, or other persons having legal custody of all grants, conveyances, or wills, or parts thereof, in any way relating to land or property granted, conveyed, or devised, for the benefit of the said Church of England and Ireland in this Diocese, to transmit the same to the Registrar.

4. That it shall be the duty of the said Registrar to enter in the books so provided a full and exact copy of every such grant and conveyance, and land or property the witnesses thereof the same is proved.

5. That it shall be the duty of every such grantor, or grantee, to execute a duplicate of such register, and to deliver the same to the party from whom

6. That the said grants, conveyances, and wills, shall be kept in a safe and secure place, and shall be deposited in a safe and secure place, and shall be deposited in a safe and secure place,

7. That on application made to the Registrar, he shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon, and shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon,

8. That the Registrar shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon, and shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon,

9. That the Registrar shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon, and shall be bound to issue a duplicate of such instrument, on payment of the fee thereon, reasonable tariff of fees.

X.—ON THE C

Whereas there are many persons who, by reason of their being members of the Congregation of the direction of the said property, or other necessary business, have passed in the nineteenth conveyance, and a copy of the clause in every will devising such land or property, together with the date thereof, and the name of the witnesses thereto, and if a probate, the court in which the same is proved.

5. That it shall be the duty of the said Registrar to endorse on every such grant, conveyance, and will, or probate thereof, a certificate of such registry, and to return the same forthwith to the party from whom he received it.

6. That the said Registrar shall keep indices showing the grantees, grantors, and Parishes or Churches mentioned in the grants, conveyances, and wills registered.

7. That on application by any member of the Church of England and Ireland, the said Registrar shall furnish a copy of any such instrument, or permit a search and examination thereof, upon payment of the fee hereafter to be arranged. And whereas it may be desirable to deposit the originals of such grants, conveyances, and wills in a safe and secure place, it is further enacted,

8. That the Registrar shall retain such grants, conveyances, and wills, as the parties transmitting may be desirous of having so kept, and shall deposit them in some safe and secure place of deposit, to be appointed for the purpose, and approved of by the Bishop of the Diocese, and in such cases shall furnish copies thereof certified, and shall state in the certificate that the originals are so deposited, and in case the parties desire to withdraw the originals, the said certificate to be produced and cancelled.

9. That the Bishop of the Diocese be authorized to establish a reasonable tariff of fees to be paid to said Registrar.

X.—ON THE CONSTITUTION OF VESTRIES FOR FREE CHURCHES.

Whereas there are many Churches in this Diocese in which, by reason of there being no pews or sittings held by the members of the Congregation thereof, no vestry can be legally formed for the direction of the said Churches, the management of their property, or other necessary matters:—And whereas, by the Act passed in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty's reign, entituled, "An Act to enable the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, in Canada, to meet in Synod," authority is given to the Bishops, Clergy and Laity, members of the said United Church of England and Ireland, meeting in Synod, to "frame constitutions and make regulations * * * for the convenient and orderly management of the property, affairs, and interests of the Church,"—be it enacted that in all such Churches in this Diocese, where by reason of the seats being free no vestry can be formed, the members of the congregation of each said Church shall have the power and authority to constitute and form a vestry; and such vestry shall consist of such members, being of the full age of twenty-one years, as shall declare themselves in writing, in a book to be procured for that purpose by the congregation, to be members of the United Church of England and Ireland, and habitually attending worship in such Church. And being so formed and constituted, such vestry shall have the same power and authority, and do, and perform such matters and things as are possessed and done by vestries formed of holders of pews or sittings in other Churches, provided always that such vestry shall have no power or authority to interfere with, alter, or change any right, rule, or custom existing in such Church by virtue of any gift, endowment, or regulation of the Bishop of the Diocese, or right or interest unreserved by him; such right, rule, custom, or reserved right or interest being set forth and recorded, either in a deed of gift or endowment, or by order of the Bishop, in the book hereinbefore directed to be provided for the enrolment of the members of the vestry; and which record shall be duly authenticated by the then incumbent of such Church, and by the majority of the members of the congregation then enrolling their names.

XI.—ON BUILDING AND REPAIRS OF PARSONAGES.

1. That it shall be the recognized duty of every Parish or Mission, where no Parsonage at present exists, to erect, as soon as possible, a suitable Parsonage, with Out-houses, for the accommodation of the Clergyman; and that until such buildings are erected, it shall be the duty of the Parish or Mission to rent a suit-

2. That in the event of the Parish seeking aid from the Synod towards the erection of the Parsonage, such aid shall not be granted until the Synod is satisfied that the proposed new Parsonage will be one suited to the circumstances of the Parish; that, thereupon, the plans of the proposed buildings (which shall be of brick or stone, if such materials be suitable to the position and means of the Parish), shall be previously submitted to the inspection of the Archdeacon having jurisdiction; and the approbation of the Archdeacon shall be a sufficient guarantee to the Synod that aid may, with propriety, be extended to said Parish.

3. That when the Parsonage and Out-houses are erected and finished, or when, in the event of a change of incumbency, they are put in the possession of the Clergyman in a state of good repair; it shall then be the duty of the Clergyman to keep and maintain the same in as good repair and condition, ordinary wear and tear of the same excepted; and if the Incumbent shall, by wilful negligence, by any act of commission or omission, suffer the said buildings to go out of repair, so that they are in danger of being seriously damaged thereby, he shall be held responsible for the same, and it shall therefore be the duty of the Churchwardens to point out such dilapidations to the Incumbent, and request him to provide a remedy for the same; and should he decline or neglect to repair the same, the Churchwardens may, after a reasonable space, employ a suitable mechanic or mechanics to execute the necessary repairs, and the certified expense thereof they may deduct from the Clergyman's annual salary paid by the Parish. But should the Clergyman feel aggrieved by such contemplated action of the Churchwardens, he may appeal to the Archdeacon having jurisdiction, who shall (if he see fit) appoint a committee who shall examine into the merits of the case, and report thereon to the Archdeacon, who shall then give an authoritative decision on the subject, pending which decision the Churchwardens shall suspend the contemplated action.

4. Should, however, any extensive improvements or repairs become necessary from the lapse of time, such as new roofings, external painting, or new fences, to protect the premises, the expense of these and all similar improvements or repairs shall be borne by the Parish. And it shall be the duty of the Clergyman, when such repairs are required, to lay a detailed statement of the same, with an approximate estimate of the expense, before the usual Easter Meeting of the Vestry, having previously given notice of his intention so to do, or before a Vestry Meeting especially convened for the purpose; and should the members of the Vestry sanction the same, the Churchwarden shall forthwith proceed to effect the necessary repairs, providing for the expense thereof from the funds of the Church, by Parochial subscriptions, or by any other mode determined upon by the Vestry, save that in no case shall the property of the Parish be so encumbered by the debt or mortgage as to lead to the probability of its being ultimately lost to the Parish, nor shall the expense of such improvements be defrayed from any funds appropriated to, or pertaining to the support of the Clergyman. But should the Vestry decline to sanction the necessary repairs and the expense of the same, or should the Churchwardens neglect to accomplish the required repairs (when sanctioned) within a reasonable period, the Clergyman may then appeal to the Archdeacon, who may appoint a committee, as aforesaid, to inspect the premises and report upon the necessity of the proposed alterations or repairs; and as far as sanctioned by their report, the Archdeacon shall require the Parish, through its Churchwardens, to effect the same; and in case of non-compliance within the time specified by him, then the Incumbent shall have authority to accomplish the same by means of money borrowed for the purpose, the amount of which, together with the interest on the same, shall be discharged within a limited time named by the Archdeacon; and in default of payment being made at the time specified, the Incumbent shall notify the same to the Archdeacon, who shall then take such further action in the premises as he, in his wisdom, may see fit.

5. Should an Incumbent, as may sometimes happen, desire to make additions, alterations, or improvements, which neither he nor the Churchwardens may regard as absolute necessities, but which, nevertheless, the Vestry (after being consulted) may not object to, provided the Incumbent will, in the meantime, procure the means of effecting the same, it shall and may, in all such cases, be lawful for the Incumbent, to employ such sum of money as may be necessary for the expense of such repairs, and the amount of which, together with the interest thereon, shall be repaid by the Incumbent in case of his death, providing that the interest of such debt for every year shall not have been enjoyed by the Incumbent, or the balance of the same, after the payments of not more than the borrowed or advanced sum, shall be in balance; and no successor of the Incumbent shall be liable for the money as aforesaid.

6. If, however, the salary of the Incumbent is less than £200 per annum, and the amount of the salary assigned to the Incumbent exceeds the amount of the salary of the Incumbent, the amount of the salary assigned to the Incumbent shall become a debt of the Incumbent, and shall be paid in the same manner as the salary of the Incumbent, and shall be liquidated, as aforesaid, for every year's enjoyment.

7. If a Clergyman, who is the Incumbent of a Parsonage and who has been in possession thereof, and yet shall have been absent for at least one year, shall not be returned to his family, or shall be otherwise absent, for at least one year, the Parsonage shall be returned to his family, or shall be otherwise absent, for at least one year.

8. The Parsonage shall be returned to his family, or shall be otherwise absent, for at least one year, if it by fire would prove to be a total loss, and shall therefore be returned to his family, or shall be otherwise absent, for at least one year, if the buildings constantly be lawful for the Incumbent, in conjunction with the Churchwardens, to employ a suitable architect or mechanic to estimate the expense of such improvements or additions, and the Churchwardens may, if they approve of the same, sanction such expenditures, the amount of which, certified by the bills and receipts of the contractors, shall be regarded as a debt due by the Parish to the Incumbent in case of his removal, or to his family in the event of his death, provided that 10 per cent. of such outlay, together with the interest of the money borrowed, shall be deducted from such debt for every year that the benefit of the said improvements shall have been enjoyed by such Incumbent, or by his family, to whom the balance of the outlay shall be paid by the Parish in annual payments of not less than 20 per cent. of the sum originally so borrowed or advanced, together with the interest due on such balance; and no part of such debt shall become a burden upon the successor of the Incumbent who so advanced or borrowed the money as aforesaid.

6. If, however, the Parish should have an endowment of not less than £200 per annum, enjoyed by the Clergyman, independent of the salary assigned by the Parish; and should the expense of the aforesaid additions or improvements not exceed one year's proceeds of such endowment, the expenditure shall then be borne by the Incumbent desiring to make the same; but should the expenditure sanctioned as above exceed the full amount of the year's income from the endowment, then the expenditure above that sum shall become a debt due by the successor of the Incumbent, and to be paid in the same manner as in the former case, if not already liquidated, as aforesaid, by the annual deduction of 10 per cent. for every year's enjoyment of the same.

7. If a Clergyman shall subscribe liberally towards the erection of a Parsonage and Out-houses, or towards the cost of additions thereto, and yet should not live to enjoy the benefit of the same for at least one year, such subscriptions, less 10 per cent, shall be returned to his family by the Parish.

8. The Parsonage being the property of the Parish, the loss of it by fire would prove a serious calamity to the Parishioners, it shall therefore be the duty of the Churchwardens to keep the buildings constantly insured in some respectable office, and in default of their doing so, the Incumbent may effect such insurance, and make the expense a charge against the Parish.

9. If there be pine, elm, cedar, or any other marketable timber upon any glebe or glebes, or any quarry or quarries of stone, pits of sand, or other valuable building materials, more than may be absolutely required for the use and improvement of the same, the surplus may be sold by the Incumbent and Churchwardens, and the proceeds thereof be applied to the building, repairs, additions, or improvement of the Parsonage and Out-houses, and not otherwise.

XII.—ERECTION AND DIVISION OF PARISHES AND SETTLEMENT OF THEIR BOUNDARIES.

1. That the Clergymen and Churchwardens of each settled Cure now established, do, when necessary, hold a conference or conferences with the Clergymen and Churchwardens of the adjacent Parishes or Cures, and by mutual agreement arrange and define the boundaries of their adjacent Parishes, and do report the same to the Archdeacon having jurisdiction for his consideration, who shall submit the same to the Lord Bishop, with his remarks thereon; and should His Lordship approve of the same, then the boundaries so arranged, approved, and declared, shall be the boundaries of the parishes or cures aforesaid.

2. That in cases where the boundaries cannot be arranged by such mutual agreement, then that the Archdeacon be requested to issue a commission to two Clergymen and to one Lay representative, none of whom shall be locally connected with such parish or cure, directing and authorizing them to investigate the merits of the case, and to decide thereon, and report their decision to the Archdeacon for his consideration, who shall submit the same to the Lord Bishop, with his remarks thereon; and should his Lordship approve of the same, then the boundaries so arranged, approved, and declared, shall be the boundaries of the parishes or cures aforesaid; and further, that the expenses attending the commission be borne by the parishes interested, in such proportion as the commissioners may deem just, and the amount of such expenses is to be determined and fixed by such commissioners.

approved, and declared, may not be disturbed within the space of five years, except in the case of new parishes, and that every new and distinct parish that shall be erected as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed, and is hereby declared, to be a parish or benefice with the cure of souls, and that the right of presentation upon avoidance to the said benefices, unless legally vested in some other person or persons, shall vest in and be exercised by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, and that after collation, institution and induction, by the Bishop, the person so appointed to any such benefice shall be styled, and to all intents and purposes deemed the Rector of the said parish.

4. When any of the parishioners residing in any parish or adjoining parishes shall desire to have a new and distinct parish erected, the said parishioners shall present a memorial to the Archdeacon having jurisdiction, stating fully the reasons moving them thereto, also the proposed boundaries of the contemplated new parish, and whether the Rector or Rectors of the parish or parishes aforesaid be a consenting party, and when the said Archdeacon shall be satisfied that the provisions of the XVII. Section of the Church Temporalities Act have been complied with, or that the means for the worship of God have been provided, that then the Archdeacon shall report the same to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, who shall, on approval, declare said portion of the parish to be a new parish. In cases where the Rector of the existing parish or parishes withholds his or their consent from the preliminary memorial, that he be required to state his reasons in writing, within one month, to the Archdeacon, who is to decide on their validity.

5. That the boundaries of every parish, erected under the authority of these canons, be entered and registered in a book to be kept by the Registrar of the Diocese for that purpose, and that a copy thereof be furnished to any person applying, on payment of the fee of twenty cents.

XIII.—ENDOWMENT OF PARISHES.

GENERAL PAROCHIAL ENDOWMENT FUND.

1. That a fund be established in connection with the Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Ontario, to be called "The General Parochial Endowment Fund," to which all persons be invited to contribute, and from which the per centage hereinafter, in the ninth section mentioned, shall be paid, and from which the poorer parishes may be otherwise assisted.

2. That the Episcopal and General Endowment Fund Committee of the Synod be managers of all money or property given to the said General Endowment Fund.

3. That the proceeds of the said General Endowment Fund shall be apportioned, with the sanction of his Lordship the Bishop of this Diocese, by the said committee, and be paid through the committee.

4. That the said committee shall annually render a full and correct report to the Synod of all such apportionments, and of all other matters and things connected with the administration and distribution of said fund.

5. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the committee to keep a full and detailed record of all the proceedings of the said committee, as far as may relate to the General Endowment Fund, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and to file and carefully preserve all applications for aid and all other papers connected with the fund.

PAROCHIAL ENDOWMENT FUND.

6. It shall be regarded as the duty of every parish where no adequate endowment already exists, to commence as speedily as possible "A Parochial Endowment Fund," to aid in the support of the incumbent of said parish.

7. That such fund be at once commenced in each unendowed parish, by taking up a collection for the purpose in each church, and at each station within the same, inviting, moreover, subscriptions, donations, and bequests of land or money for the promotion of the fund.

8. That such collections and such notices be repeated annually, until a sufficient endowment fund shall have been secured.

9. That in order to encourage and assist rural congregations in forming such endowment fund, it shall be recommended to the Synod to grant aid to such rural parishes, in proportion to the amount contributed within the parish, by adding ten per cent. to the amount so contributed.

11. That all such subscriptions, donations, collections, and bequests of personal property shall be vested in the Bishop or the Synod, in trust, and shall be allowed to accumulate until the sum of $1,000 be thus secured, after which the principal only, and all new collections, subscriptions, &c., shall be invested, and the interest shall be annually appropriated towards the incumbent's support, and to that purpose only.

12. That for the better management of each parochial endowment fund, in the name of the Bishop or Synod in which the same shall be vested, there shall be a Board of three Trustees, resident within the parish, to which such fund shall belong, and chosen as follows, namely: one by the incumbent of such parish for the time being, one by the Bishop or Synod, according as such fund shall be vested, and one by the Vestry of said parish, at a meeting convened for that purpose; which trustees so chosen shall have the management of such fund, in the name of the Bishop or Synod, as the case may require, and shall invest the same in such name, to the best of their judgment; and such trustees shall furnish to the annual vestry meeting of such parish, at Easter, a written statement, in detail, of the exact state of such fund, and how the same is invested: and any two of such trustees may act in the management or investing of such fund, as effectually as if they all were present and agreed. Any vacancy in such board of trustees, occasioned by death, removal from the parish, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled by the appointment of another trustee, by the incumbent, or by the Bishop or Synod, or by the Vestry, as the case may require, by whom the trustee was appointed, in respect of whom such vacancy shall have occurred; and such trustees shall respectively hold their seats at such board during the pleasure of the person, synod, or body by whom they shall have been respectively appointed; and any appointment of a trustee, according to the provisions hereof, by any such person, synod, or body, shall annul and render void every former appointment of a trustee which shall have been made by the same person, synod, or body.

13. And for the greater security of the said fund, the trustees appointed as above shall respectively enter into covenants to and with the Bishop, or Synod, as the case may require, for the faithful administration of the said fund as above, and of all moneys belonging to it which shall come to their hands, and also for the prompt and faithful surrender of all moneys in their hands, with all papers and documents referring to said fund and moneys, to their successor or successors appointed as before named.

14. That whenever it shall be deemed advisable by the incumbent, churchwardens, and congregation in vestry assembled, the moneys and other personalties of the fund may be appropriated to the purchase of a glebe, or piece of land adjacent or near to the parsonage, as an endowment appurtenant to the same, and for the benefit of the incumbent, and in such case, Section XI., as far as it relates to the accumulation of the fund, shall be dispensed with, so that the whole of the fund may, if necessary, be applied to the said purchase, but that with such exception, no portion of the fund shall under any pretence whatever be alienated or appropriated to any other object than for the support of the incumbent as aforesaid: provided, however, that in the event of the future division of the parish the endowment fund thus created shall likewise be subject to division, in accordance with the rules and regulations which may from time to time be adopted by the Synod of the Diocese, for the division of parishes and of the endowments thereunto pertaining.

6. That the committee shall pay to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, by quarterly instalments, the interest, dividend, and proceeds of the Fund, now amounting to $40,000, and of such sums as may hereafter be added to it, except so much as shall be necessary to defray the incidental expenses incurred by the committee.

7. That the said committee shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be requisite to carry out the provisions of this Canon.

8. That the duties of the committee, so far as relates to the General Endowment Fund, are set forth in the Canon establishing such fund.

9. That the Mission Board shall elect a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary to carry out the efficient management and working of the Board, and shall meet at the city of Kingston on the second Wednesday of February, May, August, and November, and whenever the chairman may find it necessary, they shall report at the annual Synod on the first day of meeting.

10. That the Board of Missions shall have power to make such rules and regulations to carry out this Canon as they may deem necessary.

XVII.—STATISTICS OF THE CHURCH.

In order to ascertain, from year to year, the exact Status of the Church of this Diocese, and to be enabled to compare its present with its past position, and thus to judge of its growth and increase, it is hereby ordained, as a Canon of this Synod, that every Clergyman having a separate cure of souls within a Parish or Mission shall annually submit, after a form to be prepared by the Executive Committee, a correct statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages and Burials, within the same, during the year; of the number of actual Communicants within the said year; of the number of times that the Holy Communion has been publicly celebrated during the said year; of the number of Churches within the said Parish or Mission; the number of public Services performed within the same; the number of Sunday and Parochial Schools, with the number of children and teachers attending the same respectively; the amounts collected at the general offertory; the offertory on Communion Sundays, and at the special collections; also the amounts expended on Parochial objects, as for the Church, Parsonage, &c.; all sums contributed to Church objects, external to or beyond the Parish, and generally any items of annual interest; all which shall be as briefly condensed as possible, and inserted as an appendix to the Journal of this Synod.

PART I.

MY REVEREND BRETHREN AND BRETHREN OF THE LAITY:—

I meet you to-day, grateful to Almighty God for His goodness in enabling me to congratulate you on the completion of the work by which a new See and Diocese are constituted in this Province. A vexatious delay occurred in the issue of the Royal Letters Patent; a delay which has been of great injury to the Diocese, but one which it is to be hoped will never occur again; as His Grace the Duke of Newcastle informs me that he has taken measures by which the necessary formalities will for the future be abridged, and expresses regret for the inconvenience imposed upon this Diocese.

To-day, then, we meet together as an independent Diocese, to review the past and deliberate for the future; and may the Holy Spirit direct and prosper all our consultations, so that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may attend the efforts of the first Synod of the Diocese of Ontario.

Since we met together last June, the Church in this Diocese has suffered a severe loss, in the death of one of the ablest and most respected members of the Synod. The melancholy death of Mr. David Ford has deprived me of a steady friend, the Church of a consistent member, the Synod of a sound counsellor, and society of a good example. He was a member of the Church, not for appearance or fashion's sake. He had investigated her claims and respected them accordingly. The duties he owed her, he performed with punctilious care, devotional without hypocrisy, charitable without ostentation, and to the Church faithful without bigotry. In him were conspicuous the graces of the Christian gentleman, and affection for his memory prompts this tribute of esteem from his old Pastor, in the presence of that Synod of which I had hoped God would have spared him to prove a valued member.

It may have occurred to you, my Brethren, that this Synod would have been summoned with more propriety after the Easter Vestry Meetings, now so near, but I felt that no time should be lost in applying to the Legislature for some Act of Incorporation. The emergency indeed appeared to some members of the Church in this city so pressing that they framed a petition to Parliament, requesting an Act of Incorporation for a Church Society of the Diocese of Ontario. I was not consulted as to the propriety of framing such a petition, but I was asked for my signature. This I refused to give, inasmuch as I think just cause of complaint would have been afforded to the Diocese were a few incorporated members of the Toronto Church Society to act in behalf of this Diocese. Indeed, I should have thought myself guilty of great presumption, and a disposition to carry measures with a high hand, were I on my own responsibility to impose on the Diocese any species of Incorporated Society without first calling a public meeting of Churchmen, or advising with you, the true Ecclesiastical Legislature. What, therefore, I in my capacity of Bishop hesitated to do I could not think of allowing private members of the Church to succeed in effecting, as my aim has been to take no steps myself towards organizing an Incorporated Society without obtaining your sanction and support. It now becomes my duty to consult with the Synod as to the best course to adopt in applying to the Legislature for corporate powers. Two modes of proceeding suggest themselves. First, to apply for an Act of Incorporation for a Church Society for this Diocese similar to that possessed by other Dioceses. Notices did appear in the newspapers indicating that application would be made for such Act of Incorporation but by whomsoever inserted (and with whatever good motive), they were not authorized by me. In fact I have grave doubts as to the expediency of our having such a Society. Bearing in mind that our Church is and must continue for generations to be a Missionary Church, and that therefore all our legislation must be made subservient to the great object of establishing a Mission Fund, and recommending the same to the 81,000 Church members of the Diocese in the way most likely to prove popular and effective—with this in view, I think it a very serious question whether we should or should not deviate from the plan hitherto adopted in Canada of leaving to a Church Society the control and management of our missionary funds. It will scarcely be denied that such organizations as Church Societies would never have been thought of had the Church possessed Synodical rights from the beginning in this Province. It was the total absence of any machinery by means of which she could hold and manage her property in a satisfactory manner that of necessity prompted the idea of a Church Society, which in some degree filled up a blank in our system, and has accomplished a considerable amount of good. But under our present circumstances the Synod seems to me perfectly competent to perform all the executive functions demanded of us, and needs no supplementary agent such as a Church Society. The question has been often asked, and seldom I think answered satisfactorily, What, after a time, will be the functions of the Synod? When organization shall be complete and canons enacted, if the Synod do not manage the funds and temporalities of the Church, what will be its special province? If the Church Society takes the temporalities of the Church into its care, and the Provincial Synod regulate all the important Church movements of a spiritual character, there is little left for the Diocesan Synod to perform. These views pressed upon me so strongly that two years ago I seconded a motion in the Toronto Synod which was moved by the Rev. Dr. Patton, "That a petition be presented to the Provincial Parliament for an Act of Incorporation of the Synod." An amendment was moved, "That the resolution be referred to a Committee to consider whether such measures cannot be adopted under the Constitutions of the Synod and of the Church Society as shall provide for the harmonious working of the two bodies without the necessity of an appeal to the Legislature; and if such measures cannot be adopted, then to apply for an Act of Incorporation if they shall deem it advisable." Under the special circumstances of the then Diocese, I did not think it prudent to press the motion. I was aware that, if the Synod obtained corporate powers, the Church Society would gradually become of less and less importance, and finally sink into insignificance, while I also felt that many in that Diocese were attached to an old institution, and timid as to change. Accordingly the motion was withdrawn and the amendment carried, the result of which is the present amalgamation of the two bodies by making members of the Synod members of the Church Society also, during their year of office, on the payment of one dollar per annum—a privilege, however, of which few delegates have availed themselves.

Our position, however, is totally different. We are here to-day to organize de novo. We have no artificial obstacles nor real difficulties such as the existence of a long established Society presented in the Diocese of Toronto. I feel therefore great responsibility, but at the same time a strong persuasion that I ought to lay before you some reasons why it seems advisable that we should apply to the Legislature for an Act conferring on this Synod all the corporate rights and privileges possessed by any Church Society incorporated in this Province. And first, I would remind you that from the time Synods were first contemplated, their incorporation was anticipated also. In the indentures made between the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto and the Clergy who commuted their salaries in February, 1855, a clause was inserted to the following effect:—"And in the event of the Synod of the said Diocese being legally invested with corporate powers, so as to be able to carry out the trusts aforesaid, the Church Society shall and will transfer and assign the said commutation money and any securities in which the same may be invested, and all interest and proceeds then unappropriated arising therefrom, to the said Synod, by whatever corporate name called, upon the same trust and interest." Hence it appears that the Church Society and the commuting Clergy considered it more satisfactory to all concerned that provision should be made (in case of the Synod receiving corporate powers) that so large an amount of money as the Commutation Fund should be held and managed by the Church through her representatives in Synod, rather than by the Church Society. Again, the expediency of the Synod managing the property of the Church is acknowledged, and the right to do so conferred by the Statute "enabling the Church to meet in Synod," which gives this Synod a quasi incorporation. It is enacted as follows:—"The Bishop, Clergy, and Laity, Members of the United Church of England and Ireland in this Province may meet in their several Dioceses which are now or hereafter may be constituted in this Province, and in such manner and by such proceedings as they shall adopt, frame constitutions, and make regulations for enforcing discipline, &c., and for the convenient and orderly management of the property, affairs, and interests of the Church." Thus you perceive that my suggestion is one which has not been suddenly started, but that, on the contrary, the idea of incorporating the Synod was from the first contemplated.

I now proceed to give my reasons for suggesting that we should apply for an Act incorporating the Synod of the Diocese of Ontario. In the first place, we require strong arguments to prove the utility of two organizations, when, to all appearance, one seems altogether sufficient.

There might be plausibility in maintaining the utility of the Diocese having two bodies working in different ways for the good of the Church, if the two bodies had different fields of labour, or were independent of each other. But a Church Society cannot for the future be independent. It must obey the canons and yield to the expressed wishes of this Synod, for should it disobey, it would lose the confidence of the Church and receive no contributions. Simplicity, therefore, will be gained, and expense saved by the employment of one well appointed and general machinery. In the second place, it must be remembered that a Church Society is a close corporation, not a representative body. It seems quite unreasonable that all the funds of the Church, including the Commutation Fund, which in our Diocese will probably amount to $300,000, shall be controlled and managed by a corporation which does not fully represent the Church; the members need not be communicants, their only qualification being election by ballot and the payment of $5 per annum. But the Synod is a faithful and liberal representation of the 81,000 Lay members, and includes all the licensed Clergy. A Church Society, however useful in past times, and for certain purposes, can lay no claim to be a representative of the whole Church, while the misfortune is that the Church suffers by any failure of a Church Society to answer public expectations. It is unreasonably supposed that the receipts of the Society are the receipts of the Church, because in the opinion of the public the Church Society and the Church are thought to be identical, an error which might perhaps have been avoided had the name of the Church Aid Society been originally adopted. In the third place, I am not afraid to confess that the Church Society has not answered reasonable expectation in this portion of the former Diocese of Toronto. The Society, from whatever cause arising, is not popular in the Diocese of Ontario. In many parishes the very name of Church Society is suppressed, and the annual parochial meetings are called missionary meetings. When we take into account the numbers, wealth and intelligence of the Churchmen of the Diocese, the smallness of the means contributed to meet the requirements of the Society is unaccountable and disheartening. It is argued that this disinclination to contribute has arisen from discontent with the tendency of such Societies to centralization, by means of which all management rested with a few persons in Toronto. If this be the cause of failure, then I fear the same result in the Diocese of Ontario. Similar jealousy of centralization in Kingston will arise, for the same reason, on the part of distant Missions on the Ottawa. But I cannot altogether attribute the unwillingness to contribute to the Society to centralization. It is easy to find pretexts for non-performance of duty, and Church Society meetings largely partake of such ingredients. Churchmen in Toronto cannot plead centralization as an excuse, and yet out of the seven parishes in that city four are from their paroch probably the large of Kingston could this winter were t cese, and nothing branches for anoth congregations in t tributed by the Ch Church Society.

Now, the vast m whole Church wor thrown by us on th to be dependent on Church expects eve zation which must Church member. members only; the Rules directing th enacted by the th Bishop, Clergy, and lunge the obedience and Ireland. in that city four appear, from the last Report, as having remitted nothing from their parochial branches, one of them being the Cathedral Parish, probably the largest and wealthiest in British America. Again, the city of Kingston could not have dreaded centralization, as funds subscribed this winter were to be expended in salaries to missionaries in this Diocese, and nothing more can be expected from the several parochial branches for another year; and yet the whole amount paid by the three congregations in this city amounts only to £76, of which £18 was contributed by the Clergy. From these facts I argue the unpopularity of a Church Society.

Now, the vast missionary work before us cannot be done unless the whole Church works as a unit. It is too solemn in its greatness to be thrown by us on the precarious charity of isolated parishes, or allowed to be dependent on the popularity or unpopularity of a society. The Church expects every parish to do its duty. We need, then, an organization which must command the moral support of every bona fide Church member. The by-laws of a Society bind its members, and its members only; the canons of the Synod bind every Church member. Rules directing the missionary work of the Diocese which shall be enacted by the three branches of our Ecclesiastical Legislature, the Bishop, Clergy, and the Representatives of our 81,000 members, challenge the obedience of every loyal adherent of the Church of England and Ireland. Any system of missionary effort solemnly ratified in Synod, is coextensive with the whole Church. No Clergyman nor Layman, under ordinary circumstances, can escape the responsibility of disobeying Synodical law. I need not say how different an aspect our organization will assume in the eyes of the Diocese if we entrust our missionary work, which is our very life, to a voluntary association within the Church, but itself not the Church. If, on the other hand, our Synod be itself our Church Society, and elect a Mission Board, and frame by-laws for its efficient working, those by-laws become binding in foro conscientiæ, and any parish which, without good reason, shall neglect to carry out the spirit of the Church rules here enacted, will be liable, through its Clergyman and Lay Delegates, to be interrogated as to the cause of its neglect at every session of the Synod.

The only objection of any apparent force which has struck me as capable of being urged against the incorporation of Synod, is the probability that very many worthy members of the Church who would wish to have something to do with the administration of her affairs, will be unable to do so, election to the Synod not being possible to all who would or could qualify themselves for incorporated membership of a Society by the payment of $5 per annum. To this I reply that the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto is, by its laws, prevented from having more than 300 incorporated members in addition to those names mentioned in its charter, and I believe that at no period of its existence has the Society had its permitted number of members duly qualified by the payment of their subscriptions. But at the present moment this Synod is composed of fifty-six Clergymen, and the Lay Delegates of 50 Parishes, thus giving a total of 206 incorporated members should the Synod be incorporated, while the probable increase in the number of our parishes will, in a few years, give us a list of incorporated members greater than that of any Church Society in the Province, with a further advantage, that these members will not be taken from any particular localities, but fairly distributed over the Diocese.

I shall now recapitulate the advantages derivable, in my opinion, from an incorporated Synod.

Firstly—A Church Society will be quite unnecessary, and thus simplicity will be gained in the administration of the Church's temporalities, and a saving of expense will be effected in the salaries of Secretaries and in printing.

Secondly—The Synod, if incorporated, can manage the funds of the Church as was contemplated by the Synod Act and the Indentures made between the Church Society and the Clergy; but if unincorporated, a Church Society must manage the funds of the Church, while the Provincial Synod will probably legislate for its most important spiritual interests, and thus little or nothing of practical utility be left for the Diocesan Synod to perform.

Thirdly—The missionary efforts of the Church will not be left to a voluntary association, but will emanate from the Church herself, which, as a Society, is in Synod fully represented.

Fourthly—The Commutation Fund is too large a sum of money to be entrusted to a Society of Church members not necessarily communicants, but it will be paid over to the Synod if incorporated.

Fifthly—A Church Society has not hitherto succeeded in winning its way into the affections of the Clergy or people so effectually as to warrant us in establishing one without urgent cause, while there is a strong probability that both Clergy and Laity will feel bound to co-operate with any system of missions authorized by the Synod.

Sixthly—All excuses for withholding aid from a Mission Board constituted by Synod, on the score of centralization, will be avoided, as all parishes will be equally represented in the Synod.

For these reasons, I venture to recommend that we petition Parliament for an Act of Incorporation similar to that given to any Church Society heretofore in this Province, and that a committee be appointed to draw up such a Bill as we require, and that the members of the Synod who are also members of the Legislature, be requested to procure its speedy enactment.

may be framed differing very little from those which regulate the Church Society. As the standing committee of the Church Society is the Mission Board, so the executive committee of Synod can perform the same function. This committee, hitherto nominated by the Bishop, I would suggest, should consist of twenty-four members—eight clerical members, to be elected by the Clergy, eight lay members, to be elected by the Laity, and eight to be nominated by the Bishop—the dignitaries of the Diocese being ex-officio members. As the Clergyman and Churchwardens form a parochial committee under the Church Society's rules, so the Clergymen and Lay delegates may form a parochial committee under an incorporated Synod. Rules admitting associated members and requiring parochial meetings and reports may still be maintained, and an Annual Report be published by the Secretary embodying the parochial statistical returns; and when the Synod meets for the purpose of legislation, the great annual public meeting may be held when the whole Church is present by her representatives, and the cause of missions be specially advocated. As the Synod meets ordinarily but once a year, a greater discretionary power must of course be allowed to the Mission Board than is conceded by a Church Society which meets quarterly; but should necessity require it, the Synod may be called together twice a year. This, however, is not a matter of much consequence, as the Synod can lay down by-laws for the direction of the Board and require a careful and elaborate report at each session. Sub-committees of the Mission Board, or independent committees of Synod, may be elected to administer any special funds or trusts of the Church, such as the Widow's and Orphan's Fund, Divinity Student's Fund, and the Book and Tract Fund.

These details I throw out merely as suggestions, and to show that the incorporation of Synod will not change our aims nor our usual mode of business, but will give point to those aims and vigor to that business rendering the work in hand more popular by making it more directly an emanation from the Church itself. I disclaim all intention of dictation to the Synod, as whatever may be your decision I shall energetically strive to carry it out most effectively. Accordingly I now leave the matter in your hands, feeling that I have conscientiously endeavored to arrive at a right conclusion and relieved myself from responsibility by plainly expressing my convictions.

PART II.—DELIVERED ON THE FOLLOWING DAY.

My regret is exceedingly great that I feel bound to address you on a subject most embarrassing and painful to myself, but a sense of duty forbids my evading it. I mean the controversy that has arisen regarding Trinity College. I should gladly have avoided the topic did I not know that the interests of our Church University are of paramount importance, and that the members of the Church have a right to look to their Bishop for such explanation as may satisfy their consciences and calm their alarm. There is indeed something melancholy in reflecting on the futility oftentimes of the best intentioned endeavors to do permanent good. Troubles arise where we least expect them, and certainly when Trinity College was established amid the congratulations and thanksgivings of Churchmen, it was scarcely anticipated that within a few years a severe blow should be aimed at the Institution by Churchmen themselves, who would strive to damage its character by arousing party spirit against its teaching. The Venerable Prelate to whom we owe the existence of Trinity College is entitled to our prayerful sympathy in this to him severe trial, but they who know him best will feel assured that he will bear the blow with his usual undaunted firmness, and continue to devote his great abilities to remedying the evil that has befallen our University. Not Trinity College alone, but the whole Church, has been affected by the recent agitation. Never has a Church enjoyed greater internal harmony than the Church in Canada hitherto. Nothing marred the peaceful and happy intercourse of the great body of the Clergy. Differences of opinion existed, but they were not boastfully obtruded, much less made a ground of offence. Men imbued with very different views regarding predestination have ever been in the Church for 1400 years, and the Canadian branch contained its share of such men; but no practical difficulty had arisen. Indeed there is no reason why trouble on this score should ever arise. Calvinism or anti-Calvinism can certainly be always detected in their respective adherents; they tinge more or less men's feelings, and sermons, and tastes. But Calvinism is itself essentially unpractical. The most rigid Calvinist will admit that though you believe in the fact that God has unalterably fixed your destiny from all eternity, yet it should not affect your conduct a whit; you are to demean yourself as though God had not done so; you are to "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," as though this Predestination were unknown or untrue. Hence a doctrine which leads to so little practical consequence may be held without causing offence. But alas! the less the practical difference, the greater the warmth in maintaining it—a warmth which has long existed in the Church, but which through God's grace has been kept from developing itself into strife till the late attack on Trinity College, which has been denounced as a dangerous Institution, in my candid opinion, ostensibly on the ground of its having a tendency towards Rome, but really because it has not a tendency towards Geneva. The attack on Trinity College is an outbreak of that party spirit which has afflicted the Church since the time when Augustine gave to the world his daring speculations on God's predestination. In his old age, when renouncing the Manichean heresy of his younger days, he propounded those stern doctrines which have since been welcomed by gloomy and ascetic minds, but which were received by the Church in preference to the Church in preference to defended the ten existence of such sity of acquiescence came to the Laity matic way in which salvation, and by and Switzerland or tion or difficulty with wonder and a to have been admitted gave the result of Heaven. His influence from Rome's great lent opponents, the from consideration supremacy of the C however, reforming word and a return naturally refused to were never received by the Western. The tenden in proportion as it u compared with God th of anything but his appeared of second-rate result appeared in th which disgraced the C

but which were unknown to the early Christians, and have never been received by the Church of the East. The great schoolmen of the Roman Church in pre-reformation times with great subtlety and dialectical skill defended the tenets of Augustine, but the laity scarcely knew of the existence of such belief, and at all events never acknowledged the necessity of acquiescence in it. What Augustine was to the Clergy, Calvin became to the Laity. He seemed to glory in startling the world in the dogmatic way in which he asserted the doctrines of predestined damnation and salvation, and by his powerful genius founded the reformation of France and Switzerland on this basis. The daring courage which knew no hesitation or difficulty captivated the imaginations of multitudes, who viewed with wonder and accepted with joy the lucubrations of a man who seemed to have been admitted within the penetralia of God's providence, and who gave the result of his revelations with the authority of a confidant of Heaven. His influence reached Britain, and his views, though borrowed from Rome's greatest doctors, were eagerly adopted by Rome's most violent opponents, the Puritans, who were perhaps led to this strange alliance from consideration of the fact that the doctors of this school advocated the supremacy of the Civil Magistrate in civil affairs. The English Church, however, reforming herself on the great principle of an appeal to God's word and a return to the practices of the first three centuries, rightly and naturally refused to adopt as a part of her creed those subtleties which were never received by the Eastern Church, and only partially and recently by the Western. From that day to this, efforts have been constantly made to represent the Church of England as committed to a belief in Calvin's "horrible decree," but in vain. While history remains, the reader will be informed of the exertions made in this direction, even to the attempt to force on our Church the Lambeth Articles—a tacit acknowledgment that our Articles do not go far enough to please Calvinists. During the Commonwealth and the suppression of the Church as established, Calvinism reached its highest stage of development, and after the Restoration continued to exercise a remarkable influence on our Church. During the 18th century, that dark age of the Reformed Church of England, the harvest, the seed of which had been so widely sown, was reaped. The habit of viewing our salvation as the pre-determined decree of God the Father, who elected a fixed and unalterable number from all eternity, by degrees drew men away from considering in its due significance the work of God the Son. The tendency in the human mind to disparage part of a system in proportion as it unduly magnifies another part, developed itself. As compared with God the Father's election of men to salvation irrespective of anything but his own arbitrary decree, the work of God the Son appeared of second-rate importance, and gradually receded from view, till the result appeared in that widely spread Arianism and open Socinianism which disgraced the Church in the last century. A reaction set in—Wesleyan Methodism arose, and served as a protest against Calvinism; attention was aroused to examine what was then lightly esteemed, the Prayer Book of the English Church. Even Wesley commenced his religious life by an effort to illustrate the principles and practices of that book. The Church roused herself to love and to good works. While no attempt was made to exclude any from the Church on account of their Calvinism, it was argued that all might work together for the good of Christ's Church, especially as the prevalent views concerning God's decrees were admittedly not to influence action; we were to act as though God had not so decreed the number of the saved or damned—a strong proof, one would imagine, of the improbability of the doctrine, since God does nothing in vain.

From this rapid review of the debate in the Church respecting the subtleties advanced by Calvin, we detect the reason why the Church framed its 17th Article for the special purpose "of avoiding diversity of opinions," and was so far successful at the time, that his Majesty's Declaration informs us that "even in those curious points in which the present difficulties lie, men of all sorts take the Articles of the Church of England to be for them." While this is the case, and while we can all use the language of the Liturgy respecting our redemption by Christ who made upon the Cross, "by His own oblation of Himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world"; so long as we can subscribe to the language of the 2nd Article, that Christ suffered "to be a sacrifice not only for original guilt, but also for all actual sins of men;" so long as we all believe that Christ Jesus "came into the world to save sinners," and that the word sinners is coextensive with all human beings; so long as we are all persuaded of these truths and use the same Formularies, it would seem that this well-meant and comprehensive system of the English Church should secure her members from being charged by each other with holding dangerous doctrines regarding election. Human nature, however, is not altered. Nothing is more wonderful than our slowness in learning toleration. A comparison of our Church with the Reformed Continental Churches will show that ours is the only Protestant Reformed Church that has made any way since the Reformation. When Luther died the Reformation had gained an ascendancy in Europe, to which it has never reached since. The Reformed principles of England's Church, though sometimes under a cloud, have never retrograded, and to-day they stand more exalted than ever. May not this, under God, be attributable to the wise comprehension that distinguishes her? A great Church cannot have narrow tests. A happy characteristic of our Church is the slight interference with the private opinions of her members; and however varied may be those opinions, it is consolatory to know that men are never so good or so bad as their opinions. "Who can doubt it?" says John Wesley, "while there are Calvinists in the world, asserters of absolute predestination? For who will dare to affirm that none of these are truly religious men? Not only many of them in the last century were burning and shining lights, but many of them are now real Christians, loving God and all mankind. And yet what are all the absurd opinions of all the Romanists in the world compared to that one, that the God of love, the wise, just, merciful Father of the spirits of all flesh, has from all eternity fixed an absolute, unchangeable, irresistible decree that part of mankind shall be saved, do what they will, and the rest damned, do what they can." Our great business is clearly to refute, instead of attempting the useless task of frowning down opinions probably absurd but certainly harmless, neither interfering with the daily duties of life, nor preventing the holders of them from conscientiously using our Formularies. The least we are entitled to expect from the vaunted enlightenment of the times, is "to think and let think," for it is vain to hope that we shall obliterate opinions which divided the Latin Doctors for 1000 years after Augustine—which drove Luther to write his violent book on free will, concerning which the Divines of the Council of Trent wrangled in vain, and the Synod of Dort enacted its useless anathemas: in short, opinions which divide two great Protestant denominations—Methodists and Presbyterians.

Now, the teaching of Trinity College has not been Calvinistical. Hence, I believe, the denunciation of its Theology. No pains are taken to bias the students in favor of the doctrines of absolute decrees, nor do the lectures probably tend to infuse a love of dialectical subtleties regarding free will and reprobation. Because of this absence of Calvinistic theories the College is charged with a tendency towards Romish error, though, as we have seen, a belief in predestination to life or eternal death is quite compatible with communion with the Church of Rome. That the specific charges of dangerous teaching, which are urged, are not the real cause of the attack, appears from the facts stated in the last charge of the Lord Bishop of Toronto, namely, that Trinity College was opposed by some through the whole of its progress, before any Professors were appointed, and from the fact that the charges themselves are so wretchedly unsupported by good evidence. From the readiness and easy way in which the controversy glided into its natural channel, namely, a debate on the subject of Calvinistic Churchmanship, I infer that there must have been a foregone conclusion against the College, and a determination to urge at once objections that seem doubtful rather than wait for the chance of more substantial ones hereafter.

I shall not refer to the mode in which the agitation was first set in motion before an opportunity was offered to the Council of redressing any supposed wrongs or remedying any alleged false teaching. I had the honor of being a member of the Council of Trinity College, and, to my utter amazement, the first intimation I had of anything having been laid to the charge of the College was information gleaned from "the Globe" newspaper. On this grievous treatment I shall not dwell, but proceed to give you my reasons for having expressed, by my vote in the Synod of Toronto Diocese, my confidence in the teaching given in the College. It was my good fortune to have had personal intercourse with many of the Graduates of Trinity College, and I naturally inferred that if the teaching of the College had been so dangerous, some traces of the danger incurred and the errors embraced would be visible. But I found those men by no means imbued with extreme views, and remarkable for sober-mindedness and the avoidance of all novelties in religion. This inconsistency with the charges against the Professors who had instructed them, I of course remarked; and judging of the tree by its fruit, I required strong evidence before I condemned the Provost. Another consideration which held me back from giving too ready credence to the charges laid against the Provost was the fact that all the Divinity students who applied for Holy Orders were examined and approved by the Rev. H. Grasett, a gentleman of views I believe identical with those held by the opponents of Trinity College. I never for a moment could endure the supposition (which was the only alternative) that the examining Chaplain was dissatisfied with his candidates for Holy Orders, and yet presented them at the most solemn occasion of their lives as "apt and meet for their learning and Godly conversation to exercise the office of Priest duly to the honor of God and the edification of His Church." The supposition is so odious that my apology for alluding to it is the fact that the Rev. Mr. Grasett being Examining Chaplain, inspired me with confidence that extreme views in a Romish direction were not apparent in the Divinity Students, and thus helped to make me suspicious of the truth of the charges against the Divinity Professor. It became my duty, however, to examine into the evidence itself, and to my surprise and sorrow I find that it is made up of second-hand extracts supplied from an Apochryphal Catechism by anonymous and disaffected students. Here I would observe that when such grave charges were laid against the Provost, the proper course to adopt would have been to present him for unsound teaching in the Bishop's Court, or to have transferred the case by letters of request to the Court of the Metropolitan. We should then have had the names of the witnesses, who would be examined on oath: we should have been able to satisfy ourselves of their integrity and the animus of their opposition to the College; we should have seen whether their witness agreed together, or whether they could not be contradicted by others, who, forming as they do the great majority of former Divinity Students, have come before the public in a more manly way, and over their signatures denied the truth of the charges against the Institution. I therefore acted wholly in a spirit of fairness which will ever prevent my considering a man guilty till he be proved so. I went to the meeting of the Council of Trinity College, held last February, for the purpose of taking the whole question into consideration, with my mind made up to no course but that of urging a fair and critical investigation into the charges against Provost Whitaker. The Lord Bishop of Huron moved a resolution which in my mind would have had the effect of condemning the Provost unheard. The Chief Justice of Upper Canada moved in amendment to the effect that we refrain from condemning the Provost till we had the charges in writing. I seconded the amendment, which was carried by the votes of all the members of the Council except the members from Huron Diocese and that of the Rev. Mr. Grasett. During the conversation that ensued on the motion before the Council, the Lord Bishop of Huron openly and manfully declared that he did not charge the Provost with having taught anything heretical nor anything contrary to the doctrines of the United Church of England and Ireland, but he did charge him with teaching doctrines dangerous in the extreme. On this admission the Council felt more than ever convinced of the propriety of acting with great caution, and refraining from condemning the Provost without formal trial. It was finally arranged that the charges against the Provost should be put in writing and submitted to him for inspection and reply, and the feeling of the Council, which I share, is in favor of submitting both charges and reply to the Metropolitan of Canada, who should associate with himself the Bishops of British North America, exclusive of Upper Canada, and that the decision of these arbitrators be final. I regret to say that the proposal to submit the question to such arbitration was not favorably received by the members from Huron Diocese, who refused to abide by such an award. This seems to me the more unreasonable, because the Lord Bishop of Huron once proposed to submit the whole case to the Lord Bishop of Rupert's Land for his decision, and also because the Council of Trinity College, composed largely of Laymen, would naturally feel incompetent to decide so nice and intricate a point as would be involved in the examination into doctrines dangerous in the extreme, yet not heretical or contrary to the doctrines of the Church of England.

I have now laid before you the state in which this unfortunate agitation rests, and assure this Synod that I shall watch over the teaching of Trinity College and its other interests as carefully as is possible. I was brought up in a theological school which gave no uncertain sound regarding Romanism, yet I was not taught the theory of a Churchmanship exclusively Calvinistical; on the contrary, in Trinity College, Dublin, one of the text books is the work of Archbishop Lawrence, proving the Articles of the Church of England non-Calvinistical; and I may add that the text books of Trinity College, Toronto, are used in Trinity College, Dublin. I am as jealous as is possible for me to be for the sound teaching of our youth—for their receiving such an education as will help them to resist Romanism in all its varied guises, but I affirm that I have been unable to detect in the teaching of Trinity College any tendency towards such error. I believe the Provost of the College to be a well-learned and pious man, who desires to train up the youth under his care in the old fashioned tenets of our standard Divines, who wishes to show the exact points of difference between the Churches of Rome and England, not so much in his own point of view as in that from which they were viewed by those to whom we owe the existence of our reformed faith, the martyrs and confessors of England's Church. I shall say no more, lest I seem to pre-judge a case which still may require a judicial decision, but I cannot conclude without expressing my belief that the Provost has not had such fair treatment as the teacher of any common school might justly claim from a Board of Trustees, that of "having his accusers face to face." The accusations, so far as they have appeared in print, are perhaps familiar to you. I shall not comment on them further than to say that the point in those accusations depends on the meaning attached by different persons to the same words, and that in the absence of satisfactory evidence to the contrary, I am bound as a Christian gentleman to believe the Provost, who totally repudiates the errors attributed to him. Accordingly, I feel satisfied that I have taken a correct course, and am fortified in my conviction when I find myself voting with Chief Justice Robinson, Hon. J. H. Cameron, and Justice Hagarty, on a simple question of equitable treatment; and no mere clamor shall make me waver in the belief that the true way of strengthening our Protestantism is to strengthen our Church of England principles, which I believe are honestly and truly held by those gentlemen who sit in the Council of Trinity College.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE.

ADDRESS FROM SYNOD OF TORONTO.

A deputation from the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, consisting of Rev. Dr. SHORTT, Rev. E. DENROCHE, M.A., and C. J. CAMPBELL, Esq., presented the following address to the Bishop. It was read by the Rev. E. DENROCHE, the Synod rising and remaining standing :—

To the Right Reverend Father in God, John Travers, by Divine Permission, Lord Bishop of Ontario.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP :

We, the Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Delegates of the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, desire to convey to your Lordship, on occasion of your separation from us, by your consecration as Bishop of a newly constituted Diocese, the assurance of our brotherly affection and Christian sympathy.

The separation of the Western and Eastern portions of the original Diocese of Toronto has been so long contemplated and so anxiously desired, that we can recognize in its accomplishment only a cause for deep thankfulness to Almighty God who has permitted us to witness the fulfilment of a design which we are assured is for His glory and the good of his Church.

Yet does his Providence often remind us that changes in themselves most desirable and beneficial, cannot but involve minor sacrifices, nor be effected save at the cost of individual feeling ; and we must long regret as one result of the recent division, separation from yourself and from many other valued friends among the Clergy and Laity of your Diocese, to whose wise counsels and strenuous exertions we have been so largely indebted in past years.

We rejoice, however, to know that they who laboured so zealously and so successfully in concert with us, will labour no less diligently and efficiently in their new position; and especially that in the high office to which it has pleased Almighty God to advance yourself, you are invested with special powers of doing good, and furnished with invaluable opportunities of giving increased vigour and consistency to the efforts of others.

It will be our constant and earnest prayer to our Heavenly Father that He would pour the riches of His grace upon your Lordship, the Clergy of your Diocese, and the people under you committed to their charge; and that He would grant you, if it be His gracious will, to witness through long years to come, the blessed fruits of a life devoted to His service.

Signed on behalf of the Synod,

JOHN TORONTO.

THOMAS SMITH KENNEDY,
Clerical Secretary.

JAMES BOVELL,
Lay Secretary.

ADDRESS.

We, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Representatives of the newly erected Diocese of Ontario, in the Province of Canada, in Synod assembled,—

Beg leave, most respectfully, at this our first meeting, to approach your Majesty with assurances of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and Crown, and to express the sincere and heartfelt sorrow with which we, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, have heard of the heavy bereavement with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit you by the death of the late Prince Consort, the well-beloved partner of your Majesty's joys and sorrows, the wise adviser in your councils, and the father of that family whom we trust to see continuing the beneficent rule now extending over the whole British Empire.

Your Majesty's Canadian subjects, in common with those of the rest of the Empire, have met with an irreparable loss by the removal of your Royal Consort from the scene of those earthly labors wherein he had so long and earnestly toiled for the welfare and benefit of your Majesty's subjects, of every grade and station, with an amount of energy, perseverance, and zeal, which has endeared him to all classes, and has left an illustrious example of a high and noble discharge of duty, which will be remembered amongst all nations through every succeeding generation, as one of the bright lights of history; but whatever may be the greatness of the loss to the nation, it is to your Majesty that this must in every relation as Queen, wife, and mother, be felt to be the great and lasting affliction of your life.

That it may please Almighty God to send you and your Royal children comfort and consolation in your bereavement is our earnest prayer, and further, that in the cherished memory of your departed Husband, in the love and devotion of your children, and in the affliction of your whole people, you may find some alleviation of your great distress, and that you may long be spared to rule over and be a blessing to your faithful people, until at last when your work on earth shall be accomplished, you may exchange an earthly for a heavenly Crown in the Eternal Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord Bishop then addressed the Synod as follows :—

ADDRESS OF THE BISHOP.

Reverend Brethren and Brethren of the Laity :

According to the intention expressed at the last Synod we have assembled together in consequence of the Act incorporating the Synod of this Diocese having received the Royal assent, that we may now fully organize and complete the details necessary for the carrying out, by the machinery of Committees of Synod, the various objects hitherto devolving on the Church Society of Toronto. The best course for us to adopt, seems to me, to be the appointing of a Committee, to report during this present Session, a system of rules by which Parochial Committees may be formed, consisting of the Clergyman, Lay Delegates, and Churchwardens, in communication with the Executive Committee of the Synod, and entrusted with the work of collecting subscriptions, preparing for Annual Parochial Missionary Meetings, and with power to associate with themselves such zealous parishioners as may wish to aid in this good cause.

I recommend that there be, also, a Committee of Synod, to be called The Mission Board of the Diocese, and that it consist of 12 Clergymen and 12 Laymen, with the Bishop as Chairman; and I shall endeavour to select the members as fairly as possible, so as to represent each former district of the Church Society; or, should it appear to the Synod a wiser course, the Clergy may elect eight members of such Board, and the Laity eight; while the Bishop nominates the remainder. On the efficiency of this Board will the prosperity of the Church, in a great degree, depend. We have, at present, 14 Missionaries, who look to this Committee for their annual grant of $200; while several Missionary Stations are now vacant, which cannot be filled up till we are in a position to aid them with a similar grant.

On the 7th of last May, I sailed for England, in order to make application, in person, to the two great Church Societies, which have hitherto fostered the Colonial Church, for such aid as they could afford to give the new Diocese of Ontario. On arriving in England, I found that the period when the S. P. G. makes its annual grants had passed, so that my prospect of receiving assistance this year was at first very slight; but I remained in London, and on the next Monthly Meeting of the Standing Committee I made my statement at some length. The Committee finally recommended that a grant of £500 stg. be made to me for Missionary purposes for three years. At the following meeting of the Society there was a strong wish expressed to raise the grant to £750 per annum, and it was referred back to the Standing Committee who, however, adhered to their original recommendation, but very kindly expressed their willingness to entertain any future application for further assistance.

The S. P. C. K. received my application in a most generous spirit, and on the first day of July voted me £450 stg., £300 for general purposes, and £150 for building Churches. A grant of £20 stg. worth of books for a Diocesan Library, and twelve full sets of service books for Churches were also added, with a kind assurance of the willingness of the Society to entertain favourably any future application for assistance.

I had intended to have visited various parts of England and Ireland, to bring the cause of Missions in this Diocese before the Church at home, but the great distress prevailing in the North of England compelled me to abandon my intention; indeed, so much of my time was necessarily spent in London, while urging my application on the two Societies, that I could not have done much in the short time allowed me before returning to Canada for my Confirmation tour, and the holding of the present Synod. While in London I employed myself on Sundays in advocating the cause of our Diocesan Missions, in such Churches as were offered me for this purpose; and although the time of year was that in which the various local charities of the city are usually advocated in sermons and aided by collections, and thus inopportune for my object, yet I obtained donations sent in to me after a few sermons, amounting to about £250 stg., the various items of which will be presented in our report. Before leaving England, the S. P. G. recommended to me for the Missionary work of the Diocese four Clergymen (one of whom, the Rev. T. B. Jones, has arrived), and three Candidates for Holy Orders, whom I hope to admit to the Holy Order of Deacons, at my ordination, at the next Ember Season.

I have nothing to add, but to express my hope that you may give to the grave subjects which will occupy your time during this session, your most earnest and undivided attention—on the machinery and its honest working, which we shall establish, will greatly depend the success of our missions, and the advancement of true religion and virtue. We possess, by the favor of the Legislature, what I believe to be the best possible form of organization. It is true, that as yet it is but a theory, still let us remember that the structure we are striving, as wise master-builders, to raise, will not fail to come to a successful completion, if we not only work with our understandings to make the best use we can of the Act incorporating our Synod; but warm our hearts to feel that we are the Church of the living God by representation, viz., "Members incorporate in the mystical body of His Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people."

Whereas it frequently happens that persons from various parts of the Diocese, and from other Dioceses, make application for assistance in building Churches, Parsonages, &c., to the Clergy and Laity of the Church throughout the Diocese, without any recognized authority and proof of the facts of the case for which application is made—

Resolved therefore that the Bishop be respectfully requested to establish, as a Rule in the Diocese, that no Clergyman or Layman be permitted to collect money for any Church purpose beyond the bounds of his own Mission, or to proceed to any other Diocese for the same purpose without the sanction and approval of the Bishop, given as a heading to his Subscription List, and that it be the duty of such Collector to communicate with each Clergyman before he makes a collection in his Parish or Mission; and that on his return from his collection tour, every person collecting shall present his subscription to the Bishop, and account for all moneys received.

And further, that no person from any other Diocese shall make collections within this Diocese without first obtaining the sanction of its Bishop under his hand and seal. Carried.

Mr. JAMES SHANNON moved the adoption of the Report of the Committee on the petition of certain inhabitants of the Township of Kingston, as follows :

The Committee to whom was referred the Petition of the members of the Church of England, in the Township of Kingston, beg leave to report that they did not consider it necessary to take any action in the matter, His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario having kindly stated in the Synod that he would impress upon the incoming Rector of Kingston the propriety of continuing to the several Churches comprised in the Rectory, the grants they formerly received from the late Rector.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES SHANNON,

Chairman.

NOTE.—The Bishop observed that he had not expressed exactly what the Report implied, as he would have no power to overrule the Rector of Kingston on such a point.

The Chancellor, seconded by the Rev. C. FOREST, moved the adoption of a further report from the Committee on Canons.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred the amendments and additions to the Constitution, Rules of Proceedings and of Order, proposed by the Rev. C. FOREST, beg to report the following amendments :

2. To add to Section 3, under title "Order of Proceedings," "marking those who are present."

3. To omit Sections 11, 12, and 13, under title "Rules for Preservation of Order," and substitute the following:—"An amendment to an original motion shall, in discussion, take precedence of such motion. An amendment to an amendment shall be first considered, then the amendment to the motion, and lastly the motion itself. No more than one amendment to a proposed amendment of a motion shall be in order, yet a substitute to the whole matter may be proposed and received, provided it deals directly with the subject in hand."

4. To substitute in the place of Section 2, under title "Election of a Bishop," the following:—"In the event of a vacancy in the See, the Senior Dignitary shall, within one week from the occurrence of such vacancy, memorialize the Metropolitan or his Deputy hereinafter mentioned, praying him to summon a meeting of the Clergy and of the Lay Representatives of the Synod, at the Cathedral City of this Diocese, to elect a successor to the See, such meeting to be held within twenty days from the date of the summons of the Metropolitan, and to be presided over by him or by such Bishop of the Metropolitan Province of Montreal as by the Metropolitan shall be deputed and authorized to preside

Stuart Memorial.

The orders of the day were here interrupted at the request of the Rev. E. DENROCHE, to allow the following resolution to be brought forward:—

Moved by Rev. Dr. BOSWELL, seconded by Rev. E. DENROCHE—

That this Synod being impressed with the conviction that it is most desirable that the memory of the late Very Reverend George O'Kill Stuart should be preserved in this Diocese, in some way that it is presumed would have been a source of godly gratification to the Very Reverend Dean in his life time, does hereby resolve that a subscription be opened in this Diocese, and extended throughout the Province, for the purpose of attaching, with the consent of the Rector and Vestry of St. George's Church, a Stuart Memorial to said Church, in which the revered deceased had so long and faithfully ministered, and that the said memorial shall be the erection of a Chancel, suitable for and to the Cathedral Church of this Diocese, whereof he was Dean at the time of his death.

Carried.

CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS.

W. ELLIS moved, seconded by T. KIRKPATRICK—

That it be an instruction to the Committee on the See House at once to collect voluntary subscriptions, also to prepare an equitable assessment on the several Parishes of this Diocese, and to submit the same to this Synod at its next session; and that in the meantime the interest of the fund already procured, or that may hereafter be procured, shall be appropriated toward the payment of the rent of a temporary residence until a See House be purchased or erected. Carried.

Incomes of Rectories.

That a committee be appointed to report on the incomes derivable from the several Rectories in this Diocese, with a view to a more equitable expenditure of said incomes, in accordance with the conditions of their endowment by the Government.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSESSMENTS.

The Committee on the Assessment of Parishes, and to whom was referred the letter from the Hon. George Moffatt, Treasurer of the Provincial Synod, beg leave to—Report, that whilst they cannot admit that the Synod of Ontario is liable for the Sixty Dollars claimed as the proportion of the expense of the Provincial Synod payable by this Diocese, the appointment of delegates having been made not by this Synod, but by the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, yet as the appointment was made for the purpose of enabling what is now the Diocese of Ontario to be separately represented in Provincial Synod, they recommend that the claim be admitted and the amount remitted to Montreal. To meet this charge, the expenses of Synod during the current year, and a sum not exceeding Sixty Dollars as the probable expense of the Provincial Synod for 1862, the Committee recommend the following rates of assessment on the Parishes, viz :—

PETITION OF CERTAIN INHABITANTS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF KINGSTON.

To the Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Delegates of the Diocese of Ontario, in Synod assembled.

The petition of the undersigned, inhabitants of the Township of Kingston, respectfully sheweth,—

1st. That by royal grant, under date 21st January, A. D. 1836, certain portions of property in the Township of Kingston (as then constituted) were set apart for the endowment of a Rectory at the Town of Kingston, in words following :—

“Whereas we, having due regard to the spiritual welfare of all our “loving subjects resident within the Township of Kingston, in the Mid“land District, and being desirous of making a permanent provision for “their instruction, according to the doctrine and discipline of the said
“Church of England, and also for the support of a Protestant Clergyman, “duly ordained according to the rites of the said Church, have, pur“suant to the provisions of the said recited act, determined to erect a “Parsonage or Rectory at the Town of Kingston, within the said Town“ship, according to the establishment of the said Church of England, we “do erect the said Rectory.”

2nd. That although the said endowment was thus expressly given for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Township of Kingston, yet by reason of the increase of the population of the City of Kingston, the Incumbent of the said Rectory has, for a great length of time, confined his ministra-tions exclusively to the City of Kingston, although the late Rector, the Very Rev. G. O’Kill Stuart, did, in declared recognition of the right of the petitioners, make a certain annual grant to the Rev. F. W. Dobbs, the only Clergyman doing duty in the Township.

3rd. That the undersigned do therefore respectfully request that the Synod will take order that a due proportion of the above endowment be assigned to the said Rev. F. W. Dobbs so long as he may continue to do duty in the said Township of Kingston, and will take such other and further steps to secure the proper expenditure of the funds thence arising, for the objects for which they were specifically granted, as to them may seem expedient.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO DEVISE THE BEST MEANS OF ERECTING A SEE HOUSE FOR HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP.

The Committee beg leave to report that the subject entrusted to them by the Synod has received considerable attention at their hands since the Synod last met. They have had several schemes or modes of action before them, but in view of important changes that have since taken place, and for other reasons which it is not now deemed necessary to advert to here, they beg to be allowed to continue their sittings until the next meeting of Synod, by which time they hope to be prepared to report definitely upon a well matured plan for the accomplishment of the object in hand.

Chairman of Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLERGYMEN'S STIPENDS.

The Committee appointed by your Lordship "to consider whether some change for the better could not be made, to ensure the more regular and certain payment of Clergymen's stipends," beg respectfully to report:—

That they have duly considered the question submitted to them by the Synod, and have found that the financial position of the Missionaries of this Diocese is indeed painfully embarrassing. Their nominal salary rarely exceeds £150 per annum, of which sum the proportion which should come from their congregations is rarely, if ever, fully paid. In many cases the amount actually paid does not exceed fifty per cent. of the sum guaranteed; in others it scarcely reaches twenty-five per cent. Trials and difficulties of a very grave character, as they affect the Clergy, have been the result.

The evil complained of, however, seems to have arisen, not so much from any fault in the principle of voluntarism as from the inadequate means whereby the Church has hitherto sought to evoke the liberality of her people. Almost the only instrumentality thus far employed to enforce a duty, which, as it respects the taught, is of solemn obligation, has been the local and by consequence interested parties, the Clergy, who, for two reasons, are utterly disqualified to press the subject of money payments:—

First, Because of the delicacy of their position in relation to this matter.

Secondly, Because the Laity are liable to make any Clerical action, on this behalf, an occasion of dissatisfaction toward the Church.

This evil is a most serious one—most detrimental to the Church at large and prolific of difficulties and loss to individual Clergymen. This is more especially the case in new parishes, in which the Missionary has perforce to enter upon a work for which the Church has provided no plan, and to urge upon the people a duty (to them hitherto unknown), and of which they have naturally little inclination to hear, viz: that of supporting the ministry of the Church of Christ.

It further appears to your Committee inconsistent with the spirit of the ministerial office that almost the first sounds which issue from the lips of a Missionary of the Cross should be a demand for, or stipulations respecting payment, particularly in places and under circumstances where, if possible, his labors should be "without money and without price."

It is, therefore, respectfully suggested that for the future all action in this behalf should, as in the Apostolical and primitive ages, emanate from the Church herself, acting through her Bishop and the Synod. And it is the belief of your Committee that, in a matter of such delicacy, the voice of the Bishop would tell powerfully where all minor utterances would fail, and thus an impress of authority would be given to the movement, which to any inferior agency would be wholly impossible.

In the opinion of your Committee the Synod is the legitimate channel for such Episcopal or authoritative intervention; and through the Archdeacons, who are the rightful ministers and guardians of all secular interests within the Church, it might, without prejudice, carry into execution any law made or provided to this end. Some such law is more than desirable—it is necessary. Yet, when enacted, it should not be restricted to unendowed places, but be impartially extended to every parish or mission within the Diocese.

The advantages at present enjoyed by most of these parishes (from the Commutation Trust Fund) must, in the due order of things, be greatly modified on the decease of present incumbents. It is important, therefore, that ere the change come, the people should be habituated not only to give, but to give agreeably to the general rule of the Diocese. Up to this date little or no provision has been made to meet this contingency. Yet the emergency must arise, and when it does the difficulty of self-support will be increased ten-fold; the contrast between the past and the present will be productive of many mischiefs, and an inheritance of poverty and sorrow will be bequeathed to the future pastors of the Church.

Against the present want of system, therefore, your Committee cannot but enter their most earnest protest.

They would further respectfully urge against it the following objections:—

Objection 1. Our people generally do not regard a subscription list as of strong moral obligation, neither do they consider its legal force to be equal to that of a promissory note.

Objection 2. It is found to be injurious without injury to the people because other parishes do not so readily shirk the duty.

Objection 3. The success depends on the consent of the people; therefore be prepared that already has occasion the Missionary Bishop of this Diocese.

In devising a plan to act with caution in the Church. And, a fully recommended.

First. The present is an efficient place in which the Church has not the means of humanly. The sacred ties which have been long and the result has been a general revival of the surest safeguard of general observance.

Secondly. The present is an opportunity for the support of the people until the people have available land, in the Missionary's support.

From some of the present beyond a life interest required that an end together with a parish Synod, prior to the parish to a successor death or otherwise Diocese.

Thirdly. That the present in lieu of them a Mission; the said before witnesses, and agreed upon by the (con) and his parish.

Objection 2. The special guarantees to a Clergyman personally are found to be inoperative, for this reason, viz., the Clergyman cannot, without injury to the Church, prosecute the best men in his cure, simply because other men less worthy are to be found who carelessly or dishonestly shirk the responsibilities of a solemn and binding contract.

Objection 3. The power of any "Mission Board" to meet its liabilities depends on the fluctuating returns from the several parishes, and must therefore be precarious. Of this ample proof has been given in the fact that already has the Board twice pleaded nulla bona, and on the last occasion the Missionaries were saved only by the kind intervention of the Bishop of this Diocese.

In devising a remedy for these evils your Committee have sought to act with caution and a due regard to the present state of things in the Church. And, as the result of their deliberations, they would respectfully recommend to the Synod the following plan:—

First. The restoration of the "Offertory" to its original Apostolic and efficient place in all our Churches. In the opinion of your Committee the Church has not gained, but lost by the substitution, in this behalf, of means of human devising for those appointed by inspiration of God. The sacred ties which bind individuals in one interest to the body Catholic have been loosened. Congregationalism has proportionally crept in, and the result has been isolation, selfishness, and poverty. The practical revival of the principle, "we are members one of another," is the surest safeguard against this evil, and to this revival the restoration or general observance of the "offertory" must most markedly tend.

Secondly. The encouragement (and exaction in some cases) of endowments for the support of Church ministrations. Your Committee are of opinion that (with certain limitations) no new missions should be opened until the people have provided an endowment of at least ten acres of available land, in addition to the appointed guarantee of stipend for the Missionary's support.

From some of the richer parishes, which have at present no endowment beyond a life interest in the Commutation Trust Fund, it should be required that an endowment equal in annual value to at least $400, together with a parsonage house, should be secured and deeded to the Synod, prior to the reception or consideration of any claim from such parish to a successor in the cure when the present incumbent shall, by death or otherwise, be removed from the ministry of the Church in this Diocese.

Thirdly. That the use of subscription lists be discontinued, and that in lieu of them a book of promissory notes be opened in each parish or mission; the said notes to be drawn in due legal form and executed before witnesses, and to be binding for such number of years as may be agreed upon by the Clergyman (acting under the advice of the Archdeacon) and his parishioners.

Fourthly. Beyond this your Committee would recommend the exaction of a substitute legal guarantee for the whole sum represented by the book of notes, from four or more reliable churchmen in each cure, and that the book of notes itself be transferred to these four or more persons as their security for the amount by them pledged to the Synod.

Fifthly. This latter guarantee should be held, not by the Clergyman, but by the Synod, and be periodically enforced by the Archdeacon, or by some officer deputed by him to that service.

Sixthly. All moneys thus incoming should form a common fund, and the Clergy be paid out of that fund by draft, under the authority of the Synod.

Your Committee do not believe that under the proposed system severe action need ever be taken. The strict legality of the whole proceeding would so impress the parties interested that the money would be paid with little hesitation or delay. In the majority of cases it is not inability to pay, but carelessness or a presuming upon the forbearance of the Clergyman that induces the evil. Some such change as this, by putting the whole matter in a stricter form, and placing the claim to payment in powerful and independent hands, would, in all probability, remove that evil. The success, however, of any remedial measure must altogether depend on the determined, energetic, and uncompromising action of the Synod.

CHARLES FOREST,
Chairman of Committee.

It shall be the duty of all Clergy holding cures within the limits of said Archdeaconry, and of at least two delegates from Lay members of the Parochial Association, to be present at such annual meeting, and, through their respective Secretaries, to give in to the Archdeacon a full and particular report of all financial operations in behalf of the Church, within their several Parishes, which have occurred within the year, together with a statement of the value, improvement, or prospects of any endowment existing, pertaining to the Mission Fund, or of the possibility of endowment, as the case may be. The reports thus submitted shall be forwarded by the Archdeacon, or condensed by him in a special report, for the information of the Synod.

It shall further be the duty of such annual meeting to appoint a deputation or deputations to visit the several Parishes to awaken them to the importance and deep responsibility of increased zeal and self sacrifice in the cause of Christ, and to adopt such measures on this behalf as may be enjoined upon them by the said annual meeting.

At the annual meetings, as aforesaid, there shall be such Church Services as shall be appointed by the Archdeacon :—

Provided also, that at each annual meeting of the Synod there shall be held a public Missionary meeting, to be presided over by the Lord Bishop.
