And what does the impresario do but select London—from whence she has declined many tempting offers during recent years—in a time when her services are demanded most by the concert managers of her own country.

There is great wealth in those countries and trade with them should be cultivated. Mr. Hudson said that Mr. H. J. Logan had done valuable work in directing attention to the northern markets.

Mr. Wright, of Oxo Co., Ltd., said all their trade was carried on through Canadian ports.

Mr. Tossi, of P. Pastene & Co., Ltd., in the Italian trade, said they now use Canadian ports altogether. Formerly their business was done through Portland. With as good service and as low rates, they prefer the Canadian ports.

Mr. Thompson, for William Davies Company, Ltd., said their business is all done through Canadian ports, except shipments to Germany or ports where there is no Canadian service.

Mr. Andrews, speaking for Bovril Limited, said they had to get supplies from South America via Boston, as there was no Canadian service, but their imports from England come to Canadian ports, including Saint John in winter. Mr. Andrews said he had heard that local purchasers of material for boxes had been offered Russian lumber, if they could make up orders for a cargo, at less than the material could be got from Gaspé. This item interests the Maritimes as well as Quebec.

MR. Boudreau, representing the Holland Varnish Co., Ltd., said they imported some goods from the Orient via Seattle, but apart from that had no ocean trade. The C. P. R. got this traffic for the land haul east.

Mr. McEneaney, sales manager for Brandram, Henderson & Co., said they were keenly interested in whatever pertained to the welfare of the Maritimes. All their trade is routed through Canadian ports. He is a strong advocate of a steamship service to Cuban ports, believing it would develop a good business. The like is true of South American ports, he says, and in this he confirms the views held by others with whom he has talked on that matter.

Mr. Bowden, speaking for John W. Peck & Co., Ltd., said strict orders were issued to send all their goods from the Old Country to Canadian ports, and they would allow no deviation unless an urgent order could only be filled by using an American port.

A. Black, speaking for J. & S. Sons, said they used Canadian ports altogether, except in the importation of cocoa beans from places where there is no Canadian service.

It will be noted that lack of a Canadian steamship service, or an adequate service is responsible for the diversion of considerable trade to American ports, and that this applies to various lines of imports and exports.

TEN ARRESTED IN STOLEN MAIL CASE

Lackawanna Employees Accused of Thefts of Between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000.

BUFFALO, Sept. 17.—Postal inspectors believe they have solved the mystery of the disappearance of parcel post packages worth between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 over a period of several years. Ten men employed by the Lackawanna and Western Railroad to load parcel post mail into trains are under arrest and large quantities of alleged stolen merchandise has been recovered in the homes of the suspects.

Post Office Inspector Jennings of New York has announced that he will ask the United States Attorney to seek indictments against each of these men on three or more counts, each of which has a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $2,000 fine.

The investigators believe a large quantity of stolen mail, which has not been recovered, has not been disposed of, but is stored somewhere in this vicinity.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Any hope of reduction by the Canadian member lines of the North Atlantic Conference of the transport rates for cattle to British ports have again been blasted.

GRADUATE UP GRADE DECLARES JUDGE LINDSEY

Says Statistics Appalling But Predicts Early Downward Curve

SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF PROBATION SYSTEM

Reports Show 80 Per Cent. Thus Deal With Made Good Citizens.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—"Crime, the failure of education and religion, the breaking up of homes, the dependency of children, divorce, non-support and desertion—all are decidedly on the increase," and nobody knows the whole truth about crime in this country, according to Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the Juvenile and Family Court of Denver, Colo., in his leading article in the current issue of The Family, monthly bulletin of the Association of Grand Jurors of New York county.

The bulletin, in an editorial under the caption "Thinking Down On 'Thugery,'" agrees that, from murder down, available crime statistics are "appalling," but predicts an early downward curve in the crime rate.

"I believe that delinquency among children in some cities is decreasing—at least in proportion to the increase in population. It is true that most of the crimes against property are committed by young people. But what about the failure of jails, and prisons, however necessary we all admit they are for some cases?"

"I believe in the probation system, and when properly administered, I am confident that in this country, it furnishes a more acceptable form of justice, protection for society and the redemption of the particular individual dealt with."

"Twenty years ago, when I first investigated jails, I found that about 75 per cent of the boys brought to jail were returned to jail within a few years for other and generally worse offenses. I believe the records so probation may be safely counted on to show that 80 per cent of those thus dealt with return to good citizenship."

"But as to the records of men who cannot always depend on statistics. Thousands of criminals are dealt with unofficially, or are not brought into contact with the courts. I have met eight youths in his employ had stolen money from him and had not been prosecuted, but merely discharged. A principal in an Eastern High school told me there were seventeen boys in that school who had been guilty of stealing automobiles or accessories, and not one had been taken to any police authority or court. He said the courts were jammed; that it took so long to get anything done, and that then it often was unsatisfactory."

A dean of girls in a big high school told me twenty-six girls under her personal care had gone wrong, but none of their cases had been taken to any court.

"What we do know is that enough, but no one knows the whole truth about crime or immorality in this country. But how can we expect crime decrease when we are making more laws to be broken, creating more desire and temptations every day, producing more weaknesses and falling so often to check the real causes of crime?"

Editorially the bulletin states there are a thousand and one causes of crime and equally as many theories of prevention. It laments the lack of accurate, collated statistics and comments on the new national crime commission for its proposal to obtain such statistics throughout the nation.

Body Is Found In The Bay of Fundy

DIGBY, Sept. 16.—The body of an unknown man was picked up in the Bay of Fundy this morning about two miles from the Point Prim lighthouse. Several fishing parties who left early in the morning were bound out to the fishing grounds when the occupants of one of the boats, Bruce and Arnold Turnbull, found the body which was so badly decomposed that it was impossible to tell the age of the man or his identity. The arms and one leg were missing.

AGED MAN LEAVES WILL ON PETTICOAT

Testament Giving Nurses Legacy Void; Another Bequeaths Daughter $1.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—A will written on the wide hem of a woman's white petticoat and disposing of a $300,000 estate, including valuable real estate in Los Angeles, was filed with the Probate Department here. It is the strangest legal document ever filed here and consists of the flimsy undergarment in its entirety from shoulder strap to hem.

It is the second will filed over the estate of George W. Haseltine, wealthy old man who lived for fifty years in a small adobe house on North Broadway, and which he bought years ago when Los Angeles was a pueblo. Haseltine died last March at the age of 87.

The will leaves "to each of my two nurses, Madeline Higgins and Lillian Polkey, each $10,000, and the remainder of my entire estate to go to my great-grandniece, Loraine Mason, present address unknown." It consists of barely more words than those quoted, together with date, signature of Haseltine and the nurses.

H. B. Redwine and W. H. Anderson, attorneys, filed the will. They said Loraine Mason is Mrs. Loraine Moody Richmond.

Redwine said:

"Mrs. Madeline Higgins, one of the witnesses to the will, is the proprietor of the Westlake Convalescent Rest Home of this city, and is a woman of high standing; and Mrs. Lillian Polkey, the nurse who wrote the will at the dictation of Mr. Haseltine, bears a splendid reputation; and both of the witnesses were informed by the attorney they consulted before the will was received by the attorneys for Mrs. Richmond, under our statute, the bequests to them are void, and they, therefore, have no interest in the case except to tell the facts."

An Outdoor Theatre.

(Rose Henderson in New York Times.) No garish tint of thick walls we To mirror the sharp gold of joy and pain.

But this earth space, this leafy garden close With tint of stars, with kiss of wind and rain.

Here gleams a shrine for ecstasy and tears, For all of passion that man ever knew, The pride of youth, the dignity of years, Beneath this curving tent of attic blue.

Muscle will pipe here, and the eerie grace Of Ariel will steal out unafraid, Caught, fragile-footed at this earth-warm place

To leap and laugh within the purple shade, Wisdom will step forth from some dusty pile

Of ancient monuments to prate and peer, Old loves will flame, old griefs will throbb, the while, Electra walks, and Juliet and Lear.

Fair Playhouse, take the dreams of all our hearts And weave of them your gorgeous pageantry— Brave roles we never dared and lovely parts

Our fumbling lives have only half set free, Here your bright folk will speak their winged words, Rapture will bloom here, rapture and desire,

And youth forever say as flashing birds, Will mock the falling flower, the waiting fire

Lead round Comedy with elfin airs Scatter our petty cares, our brooding hates

Lead us with laughing courage to defy The human stings, the nagging, envious bats

Let stumbling toil forget its heavy hours, And keep Ambition pensive to smile, and weave

With serene obedience of Summer flowers

The changing melody of our make-believe, But most of all, let radiant beauty burn

Within our souls, that deep-pledged, Whose radiant things we are becoming, May lose themselves and dance their glorious turns,

Painting their glow upon Truth's lift, To flame down the horizon of the years, Spreading a path of rapturous gold light.

Though for us creeps the choking mist of fear, As the close curtain falls, and it is night.

IN LIGHTER VEIN. No Need to Worry. Nervous Traveller.—"But suppose there is an accident and the train is derailed, please?"

Forster (cheerfully).—"No need to worry, Sir. The company's got plenty more trains."

Anglers were boasting at dinner of the size of the fish they had caught. As the wine followed the size of the fish increased. Eventually when leaving the club one of the diners said a policeman with outstretched arms holding up the traffic.

"You're a big fish," said the policeman. "You're a big fish," said the policeman.

The Hero (in his big role).—"Will you miss me?"

Teacher.—"Tell me, Betty, who helped you with this arithmetic?"

Betty.—"Nobody, Miss."

Teacher.—"I want you to tell me the truth. Now, was it your sister?"

Betty.—"No, miss. She did not help me with it; she did it every bit herself."

FORKE DENIES LIBERAL PACT

Says Party Fusion Would Postpone Attainment of Regombs

Declares Progressivism is as Virile Today as it was in 1921

WINNIPEG, Sept. 16.—Romors of a Progressive Liberal election pact in Western Canada definitely were negatived today by Robert Forke, leader of the Progressive group in the Federal parliament.

He declared before members of the Provincial Progressive Executive and Manitoba's Progressive ex-members that "absorption of the Progressives by the Liberal party, whether in or out of office, and under whatever guise effected, would postpone for a generation attainment of necessary reforms, the reshaping of national policies and the infusion into Canadian public life of that moral courage and idealism which slavish partisanship has well-nigh destroyed."

Urging the alleged failure of Progressive movement to fulfill its mission within the life of a single parliament should not be made the occasion for retreat or the excuse for abandonment, Mr. Forke declared Progressivism was not less virile today than it was in 1921.

Quits Misunderstood. Speaking of lady smugglers—the other day a noted movie star had to pay a tidy sum to the government for her efforts in that line—w recall the following story:—A woman, who was caught trying to smuggle in some silks had to pay the duty and a fine and was also threatened with criminal action. Her son-in-law went to the customs official, "Is it possible," he asked in a severe tone, "after my mother-in-law has paid the duty on the stuff and her fine, that you contemplate criminal action?"

"We are considering it," the official replied gravely. "If and if my mother-in-law were to be convicted, as she probably would be, she would have to go to jail."

"I think so," "Do you mean to tell me you intend to do this to a woman—a woman who had already expiated her fault and recompensed the Government?"

"I do. But look here, my friend, don't take this too hard. We've got to do our duty, you know. Don't feel so badly about it."

"Buddy," exclaimed the son-in-law, "My dear sir, this is the first gleam of sunshine that has entered my home in a dozen years."—Boston Transcript.

Immortalized Bridget. Professor (to his old cook).—"You have now been in my service for 25 years. As a reward for your true and faithful service, I am naming a new bacterium after you."—Klods Hans (Copenhagen)

A traveler in Scotland observed an elderly couple arguing in the road, and asked the cause of the dispute. "We're no disputin' at all," answered the man. "We're bathin' of the same pooch, an' she thinks she's no goan to get it—an' I think the same."

Teacher.—"Tell me, Betty, who helped you with this arithmetic?"

Betty.—"Nobody, Miss."

Teacher.—"I want you to tell me the truth. Now, was it your sister?"

Betty.—"No, miss. She did not help me with it; she did it every bit herself."

She was at an agency trying to engage a servant for her country house. When she had given particulars, the proprietress of the agency turned to a row of girls, and remarked languidly, "I have got if any of you girls would care to spend a day or two in the country?"

PREPARING FOR ROYAL WEDDING

Italian Princess and Hessian Prince to be Married Next Week.

Difficulties Over Mixed Marriage are Removed by Vatican Negotiations.

Canadian Press. RACCONIGI, Italy, Sept. 17.—With the marriage of Princess Mafalda, second daughter of King Victor Emmanuel, and Queen Helena, to Prince Philip of Hesse, only a week away, preparations for the event are being pushed forward with alacrity.

A "MIXED MARRIAGE" It is learned that negotiations with the Vatican over the fact that the Italian princess is a Catholic, and her intended husband a Protestant, have smoothed away all difficulties and that the ceremony is to be carried out along the lines laid down for "mixed marriages." Princess Mafalda will be one of the first Catholic princesses since Protestant reformation to be married to a prince of the House of Hesse without renouncing her Catholic faith.

MANY PRESENTS A great profusion of rich presents already has been received here from sovereigns and princes of foreign lands and from members of the blood royal and nobility of Italy.

YOUNG STOWAWAYS ARE SAVED BY DOG Unable to Climb From Below Decks, Hungry Men Rescued as Animal Barks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Four lean and emaciated young men stood on the deck of the Pea-American liner Western World when it pulled into port, praising nature for having produced a dog with a nose and a bark. It didn't matter to them that they had been discovered as stowaways and were certain to be sent back to Buenos Ayres. The thing that counted with them was that they still were alive.

Barking Dog Saves Them For five days and five nights they waited. At the end of that period, which seemed eternity to them, they gave up hope and agreed to give themselves up to the ship's officers. Weak from fasting, they attempted to scale up the ventilator—a distance that seemed so easily covered when they went down. It was too much for them, and not one was able to reach the top. One got to a ledge near the opening, but try as he would he could not make his weary muscles carry him beyond.

WELL SAID (Jay E. House, in Philadelphia Public Ledger) The fellow who first said, "The more I see of men and women the better I like dogs," helped unnumbered thousands to quip and retort and made them, to that extent, his beneficiaries. But his judgment of humanity and dogs was poor.

DRESSING FOR HEALTH (Chicago Journal of Commerce) The canny Scot and his bare knees, braving the chill winds of the hills, was wise in his partial nakedness, if we may believe an English physician's address at a medical conference in Bath. He stoutly defended low necks, short skirts and tight stockings for women, and short trousers for men. Gallant sailors expose their necks and chests to the winds, and continue in health. The English doctor flatly declares that "man and woman alike there is nothing better than exposure of the lower leg to sunshine and cool air." Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party left by automobile for their homes.

CHATHAM, Sept. 16.—A pretty wedding was solemnized with nuptial mass in St. Michael's Cathedral here this morning when Miss Adeline Duplessis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duplessis, was united in marriage to Joseph Kinsella, of Saint John. THE COMMONS CARPETS. Even the strips of carpet which run along the floor of the House of Commons in London have a history and a reason, remarks "The Dearborn Independent." These strips are located near the front benches and were placed there originally to prevent the danger of members fighting with each other. The carpets were introduced in the days when members wore their swords, and a rule was made that no member was to stray beyond the edge of the carpet on his side of the House when speaking.

Ivory carving, glazing and other arts were pursued. It seems likely that this culture was imported by immigrants from an Asiatic center.

Man of Ninety-Nine Oldest To Cross Sea. LIVERPOOL, Sept. 17.—An American "Old Man of the Sea" is visiting in England today. He is Patrick Ferris, an American Civil War veteran 99 years old, who says he "still feels like a boy." Ferris served through the Civil War as an artilleryman under General Grant. He was wounded four times. He came to England to visit a sister at Newport, Monmouthshire. While enroute to England, he came to be known among the passengers as "The Old Man of the Sea" as he was the oldest man on the ship's records to have made the trans-Atlantic trip.

WALL STREET FIRMER NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Speculation for the rise was resumed with increased vigor at the opening of today's stock market, with the motors again the vanguard of the advance. Chrysler opened 3/4 points higher at a new record top of 100 1/2, and General Motors showed an initial gain of 1 point at 100 1/2, also a new peak. Equipments were again in good demand in reflection of increased railroad buying. Gimbel Brothers continued its rise to a new high ground.

Morning Stock Letter NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The market gave every sign yesterday that Tuesday's selling move was only a temporary reaction. New high prices were made and the market looks like going higher. W.M.O. and F.M.O. will see the extra dividends on both before the end of the year. If Chandler can be put above 40, there will be a lot of short covering in it. Steel stocks set well. Expect Steel Common to work higher. Republic looks like an excellent speculation. Sosa will probably see higher prices. Canada is reflecting further accumulation and we expect it to sell above 100. We are still bullish on the specialties. Oil is a purchase for the long pull. Rails do little at this time, but higher prices when earnings start to come out.

Brokers' Opinions NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Hornblower & Co., Bull and Reading, Buy G.M.O., S.T.C., Dodge, Pfd., White and Mack Truck. Bache & Co.—Anacosta, K.V. B.O., Am. Sugar and G.M.O. are favored with special buying. Block Machinery—"On dull spots you can buy the market again. Give preference to high-grade stocks." Oils are favored with special buying. Roseman & Co.—"In our opinion the market is at a stage where reactions will be more frequent and it will not be necessary to have special news in order to create them."

Current Events NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Ann. Peta Institute estimates, domestic crude oil output week ended Sept. 15, averaged 2,183,000 barrels, against 2,182,000 barrels from preceding week. Regular dividend declared $1, pay Oct. 31, record Oct. 1. Bank of England rate 4 1/2 per cent, unchanged. Reading regular 3 per cent common dividend. American Car and Foundry denies purchase of control of Packard Motors of California. American Foreign Power subs. July net 145,234, against 122,197 July 1924. World's Biggest Horse Still Gaining Weight WISNER, Neb., Sept. 17.—"Lubber," said to be the largest horse in the world, has added more than 200 pounds during the past year, thereby strengthening his claim to the heavy-weight championship, according to A. E. Pouton, of this city, its owner. The giant horse stands more than 20 hands high and weighs 8,000 pounds. He is five years old and has not completed his growth, according to Pouton. Lubby is making the rounds at the county fairs of Nebraska this fall, but has not yet found anything in his class for competition. The horse is a cross between a Shire and Belgian. He is sound and exceedingly active for his weight.

FREIGHT CUT FOR CITY INDUSTRY

Pender Co. Secures Lower Rate for Nails to Jamaica

Employees' Free Overtime Work Factor in Securing Steamship Concession.

A substantial reduction in ocean freight rates on wire nails that will enable James Pender & Co., Ltd., a Saint John industry, a subsidiary of the British Empire Steel Corporation, to make a strong bid to export their nails to Jamaica in competition with manufacturers of European countries, has been granted by Pickford & Black, Ltd., of Halifax, which operates a line of steamships to Jamaica. The announcement was made last night by William F. Knoll, superintendent of the Pender plant, on his return from the Nova Scotia city, where he concluded the agreement with Walter Black, a director of the steamship company. Several orders from Jamaica and the West Indies have already been received by the Pender company.

FOR REDUCTION. Another factor operating to obtain the reduction, Mr. Knoll said, was the good office of J. P. Doherty, a former Saint John man, now traffic manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine with offices in Montreal. The Government operating vessels to Jamaica in the winter but not during the summer season, so the C. G. M. M. is a competitor of Pickford & Black for part of the year. Mr. Doherty, when acquainted with the circumstances of the case, wrote to the Halifax people stating that in his belief the reduction was justified, and that it might still carry on in the West Indies. According to the terms of the agreement, the reduction was to be in the proportion of 75 and 25 per cent, respectively. For weeks now the men have been working several hours overtime.

REDUCE COMMISSION. The steamship companies, the men and the firm are not the only parties to the cooperative endeavor, however, Messrs. T. Geddes Grant, Ltd., the Jamaica and West Indies agents of the manufacturers, volunteered to accept a reduction of 38 1-2 per cent in the commission they have been getting for handling the nails. The Pender company has accepted this offer.

Mr. Knoll said last night that he had received letters from men in many lines of business who wrote to express their appreciation of the generous position which the employees of the Pender Company had taken in this effort to hold old markets and win new ones. This rather rare experiment in industrial relations in Saint John seemed to have met with approval everywhere, he said.

EUROPEAN TRADE RELATIONS BETTER

Confidence in General Situation is Expressed by U. S. Administrator.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The European business world is "more and more returning to the cordial relations which existed before the war," Basil Miles, United States administrator at the headquarters of the International Chamber of Commerce, at Paris, asserted in a report made public here last night.

The election of Germany to membership in the International Chamber, he said, was proof of "the better atmosphere that prevails in international business." He also cited as reasons for confidence in the European business situation the British efforts to regain their position in the export trade, and the decrease in unemployed in Germany.

Experts state that practically all of this was consumed in liquid form.

Deer Herds Menace New Zealand Farms CHRIST CHURCH, New Zealand, Sept. 17.—American deer hunters would find a hunting paradise in New Zealand. This will be the first gold to leave Japan since 1917, when an embargo on gold shipments was proclaimed in a governmental edict. Other shipments to the United States, are expected to follow, and will provide funds here to strengthen the Japanese exchange, preparatory to the definite re-establishment of a free gold market in Japan.

SCHOOL FOOTBALL SCHEDULE TO BE DRAFTED HERE ON SATURDAY

GEORGE McAVITY OF SAINT JOHN DONATES CUP

Laurence Smith Is Appointed Manager of High School Squad

GEORGE McAVITY, president of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., has offered a cup for inter-scholastic football competition and it is probable that the generous offer will be accepted at a meeting of representatives of Saint John High, Fredericton High and Rothesay College here in the Y. M. C. A. building at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday of this week.

ALTHOUGH the school period is hardly under way, Saint John High candidates have been out practicing nightly on the Allison grounds. There are about five or six of last year's regulars to pick from this year and thus some fine opportunities to distinguish themselves are presented to the younger boys.

Out at Rothesay, the boys are not saying much but have been out regularly limbering up for the opening games. It is learned that Rothesay is situated about the same as Saint John High in regard to last year's regulars, but this year the college boys are extremely fortunate in having a competent football coach in the person of Selwyn Coster, former captain of Saint John High and a star for several years on the King's College team.

FREDERICTON HORSE TAKES 2.17 EVENT

Opening Day of Capital Meet Produces Seven Heats on Fast Track

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 16.—The opening day of the Fredericton exhibition harness meet produced seven heats and good racing on a fast track. The heavy week-end rain did not do any lasting damage to the track and the one day's shift of programme gave an opportunity to dry out. Rain threatened but did not fall.

Fastest Time.—The 224 trot went to Peter Stillwell in 2:17 trot with Tommy Raymond up after Bonnie Girl won the second heat. Her time, 2:14-4, was the fastest of the day.

The 217 furnished the sport of the afternoon and also the opportunity to speculate. The final win of the Fredericton trotter was very popular, but Nevins, the Houlton entry, had a big following. These two horses have clashed frequently on the circuit during the season.

Saint John Team Needs Only Saturday's Game For Provincial Title

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

BUCKY HARRIS, the youthful pilot of the Washington Senators, is nothing if not original. The other day we carried a story about "Goose" Goslin being fined $100 and suspended in the heat of a championship race. The swag in connection with the world series is enough to keep any one of us, our heirs and assigns from the porch for many a long day and don't let this talk about "love of the game" fool you, for those professional baseball athletes are in the game for the money.

THOSE BATHURST boys with their speed artist, Mr. Champoux, called the "Walter Johnson of New Brunswick" will be here on Saturday. Watch his smoke. The locals are after this game if they ever were after one. So look out for squalls.

RUGBY FOOTBALL should experience a real revival here this fall. The Trojans are moving toward the formation of a provincial league to include U. N. B., Mount Allison and Moncton and if this goes through, some great inter-city games will be staged. The formation of the City Intermediate League, with C. H. Cochrane at the head, is bound to spread the game here and last but not least, the inter-scholastic struggle between Rothesay, Fredericton and Saint John High can be counted on to attract as big crowds as in former years. The Allison grounds have been whipped into form in former years. This gives the city a splendid park for these games—the first time in years we have enjoyed such a boon.

THE DISPLAY of trophies won by Hilton Belyes, Willie Logan and Frank Garnett at the Exhibition was a pleasing one. We missed Charlie Gorman's. Where was his?

COLLINS AND HORNSBY IN RUNNING FOR MOST VALUABLE MAN PRIZE

Washington baseball fans are offering the name of Roger Peckinpaugh, the veteran shortstop of the champion Senators, as a candidate for election as the most valuable player in the American League. Peck, one of the most brilliant players in baseball and one of the greatest characters of the game, is a worthy candidate for the consideration of the committee of baseball players that will decide the winner of this prize. The veteran shortstop, who was cast off by the New York Yankees, made the Washington club the champion team that it was last year and the championship team it was cast off by the New York Yankees. Peck's services were not fully realized until he was injured during the world's and was on the bench in several games this season. He has been a member of a valuable player. He has skill and spirit. He is a hard worker and a thorough team player.

Hank Gowdy, scouting for the Giants, best writers in California that Kelly was the greatest player on the New York club and the most valuable man in the league. If Kelly had any kind of a personality or that much-to-be-desired color, it is entirely likely that he would be as big a figure in the National League as Babe Ruth has been in the American League.

It would be recalled that Babe Ruth, when he was giving reasons for his assertion that Miller Huggins didn't know how to manage the New York Yankees, charged that Huggins got rid of Peck because he feared that the veteran shortstop would steal his job. But the Babe said later that he was misled when he said it.

If Eddie Collins had not made such a sensational success this season as the manager of the Chicago White Sox, Peck probably would get the unanimous vote of the committee as the most valuable player. In the three years that he has been an award-winning player, Collins has consistently received a large number of votes. George Sisler, Babe Ruth and Walter Johnson are not eligible for consideration as they made no division team of a club that had failed to get any place under other management. He perhaps has more by his own credit for the White Sox than Peck has done for the Senators.

The success that Rogers Hornsby achieved as the manager of the St. Louis Cardinals will make him a candidate for the prize.

WATERMEN WIN AT BATHURST BY 7-3 SCORE

N. S. Officials Favor Suggestion by Vice-President Stirling

ONE game now stands between Saint John's senior baseball representatives and the proud title of New Brunswick champions, 1925, as a result of the Water Department's win of a rather weird ball game at Bathurst yesterday afternoon, 7 to 3. The issue will be decided here on Saturday at the same time that Springhill and West will be fighting it out for chief honors for Nova Scotia in Truro and in view of what is at stake, one of the biggest crowds of the season should throng the East Esplanade park on Saturday. It has been many a long year that a Saint John's senior amateur team was battling for the provincial title as late as September 19 and it is rather noteworthy that it is a case of North vs. South in the final wind-up as Bathurst and Saint John are at the two extreme ends of the province. Not only will a win on Saturday give the City League champions the provincial title but also the right to play the Nova Scotia winners and if this is finally arranged, it would be necessary to go back 20 years and more to find a similar situation. St. John's baseball history will be made on Saturday here.

W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice president, was in long distance conversation with the officials of the N. S. Baseball Association last evening relative to have New Brunswick and Nova Scotia meet in the semi-finals for the Maritime title. Stirling, who is in Bathurst this morning that these officials were quite favorable to the project. They asked for a little time, however, to consult the two Nova Scotia teams concerned, and said they would let Mr. Stirling know their decision at the earliest moment possible. If this is arranged, the series will probably be the best two out of three with the toss of a coin to settle the opening date.

WATERMEN "SHAMPOOED" Mr. Champoux, rated as having one of the fastest deliveries in the province, faced the Watermen in yesterday's game at Bathurst for six innings and after hitting four locals, issuing 6 passes in as many innings, and striking out 8, decided to retire with the score 3 to 9 against him. During his stay on the mound, Champoux allowed but three hits and caused the locals plenty of worry in dodging his fast one. He headed both Hannah and Corrigan and after hitting four locals, issuing 6 passes in as many innings, and striking out 8, decided to retire with the score 3 to 9 against him. LOBSTER BOIL Following the game, the local boys journeyed out of town to the home of William Willis where they enjoyed a lobster boil on the beach. Included in those who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. "Jerry" Stubbs and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Stirling. "Jerry" Stubbs scored the game. The team is due home on Saturday.

WALKER DEFENDS TITLE ON MONDAY

Fans Undecided Whether Both Can Make Welterweight Limit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The interest of the boxing fraternity is not centered on the tremendous heavyweight controversy, but on the coming match between Dave Shadle and Mickey Walker for the welterweight championship of the world, which is to be staged at the Yankee Stadium next Monday evening. There is going to be a good deal of betting on the fight, but yesterday the wagering revolved principally around the question of whether Mickey Walker, holder of the welterweight title, could make the prescribed weight, which is 147 pounds, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Hughie McQuillan In More Trouble Now

Hughie McQuillan, once a mighty pitcher on the Giants' staff, now under suspension and beset by many troubles was fined $750 for falling behind in the payment of alimony to his wife, who is suing him for a writ of separation. The actual charge against McQuillan was contempt of court for failing to comply with an alimony order requiring him to pay $200 a month during the baseball season. The fine, when paid, will be applied toward the reduction of Mrs. McQuillan's claim. McQuillan's lawyer said Hughie was absolutely broke but had managed to raise $400, which was accepted as partial payment of the $750 fine. Hughie will have one week to raise the other $350, but in the meantime another alimony payment of $200 will fall due.

MOVEMENT IN ENGLAND FOR FORMATION OF EMPIRE RUGBY UNION

LONDON, Sept. 17.—In a signed article to the Rugby Union Annual, Rowland Hill, ex-president of the Rugby Union, confirms the existence of a split between the English and Scottish members of the international board on the question of giving the Dominions a bigger voice in the control of the game. Mr. Hill states that the first Dominion to send a representative fifteen to the Old Country, about twenty-five years ago. The game in Canada was then supplanted to some extent, except in the Maritime Provinces and British Columbia, where the original Rugby code continues to flourish. Some efforts are being exerted this year to strengthen the game in the central provinces. At present there is no national union in Canada, although most of the clubs are playing the game as affiliated with the Rugby Union of Great Britain. They have not yet, however, been welded into a national body.

McGraw's Men Flatten Hopes of Cincinnati

Corsairs Take Stranglehold on Pennant with a Double Win

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Although the National League pennant was further beyond the reach of the New York Giants today, as the result of a double victory by the Pirates over Brooklyn, McGraw's men have made their hold on second place reasonably secure by crushing the hopes of the Cincinnati Reds. Other eastern teams in the National did not fare so well. While Brooklyn was dropping its double header to the Pirates 5 to 3, and 6 to 2, increasing the lead of the Corsairs to six and one-half games over New York, the Cards jumped into fourth place by trouncing the Phillies 5 to 3. The leading Senators in the American, idle yesterday, held their advantage of eight games over the second place Mackmen, who had an even break with the White Sox. The Yankees defeated the Indians in two games, 8 to 0 and 4 to 3. The Braves moved up to within three games and a half of fifth place in the National, by slaying a twin bill with the Cubs.

EVANS IS OFFERED PRES. TOOLE'S JOB

Talk of Noted Umpire Heading International League Next Year. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—William "Billy" Evans, American League umpire, would neither confirm or deny a report here that he had been offered the presidency of the International Baseball League at a salary of $12,500. Evans said he felt that if any statement was to be made on the subject it should come from some of the league officials. He added that should an offer be made, which would be agreeable to the various club presidents and himself, he would in all probability accept it. It was learned on good authority here tonight that disension exists in the league, with officials of four clubs—Baltimore, Rochester, Buffalo and Toronto—in disagreement with those of the remaining clubs. The clubs named, it was said, are desirous of having Evans replace John Conway as league president. He added that should the differences are not learned. However, unless all the International League clubs presidents agree on Evans as its next president, he probably will remain on the playing fields of the big leagues.

COOPER IS PLEASSED WITH MAINE VOTE

Will Now Prepare Maps For Submission to U. S. and Canadian Governments.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 17.—The result of the election is a signal to the world that the people of Maine are willing and eager for development of the state.

This is the statement made by Dexter F. Cooper, president of the Passamaquoddy Bay tidal power development plan on which a referendum was taken and passed by the voters of Maine.

Mr. Cooper's plan, which was first brought to the public's consideration in the early part of this year, as a result of 12 years or more of study of the tides and conditions in the Bay of Fundy by this veteran hydro-electric engineer, involves, in substance, the construction of dams in the Bayport vicinity of Washington county for the purpose of harnessing the tides. It is estimated that the entire project will cost $100,000,000 the money to be raised by foreign banking houses.

Mr. Cooper said that he will now go about making a preliminary survey and maps for submission to the Federal government, the Canadian government and the International Joint commission. The Federal government has had this project of Cooper's under consideration since 1923 and it has been indicated at Washington. The Commercial has learned that the Federal attitude depends very largely on the granting of a charter by the people.

REMOVE "BARK" FROM DOG.
 In a clinical demonstration at Portland, Ore., conducted by the American Veterinary Medical Association, the "bleats" were removed from two goats and the "bark" from a dog, says "The Pathfinder." The operations were performed for the instruction of visiting practitioners.

According to Dr. Frederick Whipple, of Peoria, Ill., similar operations can be performed on any animal as easily as tonsils are removed from human beings. Persons interested in humane work, Dr. Whipple says, are studying the method with a view of saving the lives of dogs which have made nuisances of themselves by barking too long.

As Hiram Sees It. MONTREAL.—Well, sir—they ain't a sewin' circle in 'The Settlement' that kin match one o' these Montreal drinkin' places for gab. I was goin' along the street yesterday an' I heard noise as if fifty people was all talkin' at once. I went in—'an' sure enough that was what it was. The old bar had been torn down an' a new one was covered with little tables an' about as many men was settin' round as there was in—'an' they was all talkin' at once—'an' waiters runnin' round with glasses an' bottles of that three digit per cent beer. They wasn't nobody drunk—but everybody was drinkin' an' talkin'. I never heard so much jabberin' in my life. I didn't see no Jews there, I guess while these other fellers was celebratin' the last dollar they got the Jews was out after another one—'an' that's why they own so much o' Montreal—yes, sir.

VETERAN OF SEA DIES IN CAPITAL

Captain David Smith, of St. Martins, was Visiting in Fredericton.

Encircled World in Clipper Ship Days—Had Italian Medal for Life-saving.

Following his wife, who died early in June of this year, Captain David Smith of St. Martins passed away last night in Fredericton at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Eardley, whom he had gone to visit.

Captain Smith was a master mariner of the old school in the palmy days of the clipper ships of Saint John and during his 40 years at sea he visited all countries. For many years he was in the employ of Howard D. Troop of Saint John.

His last command was the bark "Highlands," after which, in 1906, he retired to his home in St. Martins, where he had since resided.

WON ITALIAN MEDAL. Captain Smith was the proud possessor of a medal presented him by the Italian Government for his good work in saving the shipwrecked crew of an Italian bark.

On another occasion, while his ship, the Prince Eugene, was lying at anchor in the port of Callao, Peru, that city was visited by a terrible earthquake and it was only by superior seamanship that he was able to save his ship from being destroyed by a tidal wave which followed.

He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Geo. W. White and Mrs. H. V. Davis of Concrete, Washington, and Mrs. A. E. Eardley of Fredericton; one son, David R., civil engineer, of Saint John, and one brother, William, of St. Martins. The funeral will be held on Friday, Sept. 18, at St. Martins after the arrival of the St. Martins train there.

Bolter, who will soon take up his pastorate in the Main street Baptist church, was Miss Amy Parlee, cousin of W. Parlee, of 120 Main street. Rev. Prior to going to Newton the two young men were ordained together at the New Brunswick Association of the Baptist Church in July, 1900, at Devon. They went to Newton and preached while taking their three years' course. Rev. Mr. Bolter was a graduate in arts from Bates College, Lewiston, Me. Rev. Mr. Clark was the U. N. B.
