Dominion Subjects Likely To Loom Large In King's Speech

1,000 BERSIÈRES IN ROUNDUP

EMPIRE PREFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO BE

Foreign Policies
Also Likely Up.

NEW PACT COMING?

Daily Herald Sees Possibility of Agreement With European Nations.

By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Subjects in which the dominions have a vital interest will dominate the King's speech to be delivered in Parliament tomorrow. It is expected that the Geneva protocol, Imperial preference and the renewal of the Singapore project will be three of the main subjects, while it is expected that there will be a reference to the determination of the Government to continue to the fullest extent the principle of consultation of the dominions resident in London in matters affecting the general foreign policy of the Empire.

Approval Is Expected.
It is believed that the policy of the Government as outlined in the Royal message will meet with the unstinted approval of the overseas dominions. The hope is expressed that the speech will place the relationship of Britain to the dominions on a new basis by showing how independent the general affairs of the Empire are, and how necessary it is that it should present a unified front towards foreign powers.

The visit of Austen Chamberlain to Paris and Rome is particularly the subject of considerable discussion, there is some speculation as to whether the Foreign Minister is trying to hammer on a new European policy.

Suggests New Pact.
The Daily Herald the organ of the Socialists suggests that a pact is in prospect covering an agreement between Britain, France, Italy and Belgium, on certain technical questions such as Moscow, Turkey, Egypt, Morocco and Tunis, but it is not generally credited that anything so far as a formal pact will be agreed upon. It is generally admitted however that as a result of negotiations now going on a new understanding will emerge that will do much towards stabilizing Europe.

CATHOLICS RESENT
HERRIOT RULING

Protest Against Anti-Clerical Campaign by Procession in Quimper.

QUIMPER, France, Dec. 8.—A great demonstration of protest on the part of the Catholics against Premier Herriot's revival of his anti-clerical campaign brought tens of thousands of Bretons, dressed in picturesque costumes to Gouperon yesterday to participate in a procession and to listen to addresses by Bishop Duparc and other churchmen. In another quarter of the town there was a smaller counter-demonstration by anti-clericals.

Parade Is Orderly.

Squads of mounted gendarmes from surrounding towns patrolled the streets to preserve order. Outside the Catholic cathedral a military force was massed, ready for action in case of disorder. The Catholics, however, obeyed the order issued by the Bishop to maintain peace. The order was that the parade should be carried out in absolute silence without a single cheer, and with only men in the line. Women, with their large starched head-dresses lined the streets.

Alienist's Report is That the Prisoner Suffers From Brain Disease.

By Canadian Press.
LOS ANGELES, Ca., Dec. 8.—Those remaining of the fight fans who crowded a Los Angeles arena 20 years ago to see crazy Kid McCoy in his last big Pacific coast ring appearance, had the opportunity to watch the Kid led from his cell in the county jail for the greatest battle of his career, his trial on a charge of murdering Mrs. Theresa Mors in their apartment here last August 18.

Middle aged and "broke," no longer the boxing Beau Brummel, McCoy none the less expressed confidence in his ability to identify the "knout punch" of a verdict of "guilty."

Suicide, McCoy Claims.
"They can't turn a suicide into a murder," he declared as he waited for his case to be called. McCoy has maintained since his arrest that Mrs. Mors, divorced wife of Albert A. Mors, antique dealer, committed suicide, despite his efforts to prevent her. In despair and rage over her act, he said, he armed himself and went out to kill Mrs. Mors, falling to find Mors near the Mors shop.

Nearly 2,000 Kiddies Will Look For Gifts Through Empty Stocking Fund

There are many homes in St. John today that face a joyless Christmas. It is estimated that nearly 2,000 kiddies, every one of them now talking about Santa Claus, and anticipating his arrival on a Christmas Eve, face the heart-breaking sensation of finding, on Christmas morning, that the ragged little stocking which they hung up, was somehow overlooked. Many a poor mother is forced to wipe a tear from her eye as she turns aside to avoid the questioning plaint of a little one asking, "Mamma, do you think Santa will remember me this year?"

It was this knowledge that gave birth to the Empty Stocking Fund, and the happiness which the copiously filled stockings brought to hundreds of otherwise, cheerless child hearts last Christmas was almost unmeasurable. One of the ladies, who had the good idea of the fund, had the thought that if some of the kiddies who were provided for by the fund, and with best wishes for the year, "I'm glad that you should have your stockings full for my little ones."

DISPOSES OF STOCK

Massachusetts Institute of Technology is Chief Beneficiary.

By United Press.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Fifteen million dollars is a stiff price to pay for a psychological experiment upon one self, but that is the reason given Sunday night by George Eastman, in announcing the disposal of such a sum to various educational institutions. He sold Kodak stock to raise the amount.

"One of the reasons why I welcome the disposition of my stock," the head of the Kodak Company declares, "is that it separates me from money-making for myself. It will give me the benefit of a somewhat more detached position in respect to human affairs."

"I look forward with interest to finding out how much the changed conditions will affect my views on current events."

The institutions and the minimum amount of benefit expected to be derived by each follow:

WEEK-END DRIVE ON HERRIOT'S PLANS IS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Sixty Communists Dumped
Over Border and Rest
Released.

RADICALS PROTEST

Two Noisy Gatherings, in and Near Paris, Scattered by Police.

By L. BRADFORD
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS, Dec. 8.—More than 1,000 foreign agitators have been arrested in a sweeping week end drive against Communists, a move by the Herriot government to suppress a possible uprising. Most of those arrested were released, but 60 were taken over the frontier on Sunday.

Those expelled included 43
Italians, seven Belgians, six
Poles and one each Serb, Swiss,
Swede and German. It was not until yesterday morning that these agitators were taken to the border.

The Communists struck back, murdering a popular police inspector named Faguet in a Paris suburb, where he was on duty watching a "reef" near L'Humanit, Communist organ, is printing flaming editorials, denouncing the Government course in "house-cleaning."

The French Communist party is understood to have sent secret instructions to Moscow asking the return of comrade Suzanne Girod, a charming and seductive French woman, who occupies a high place in councils of the third international.

Allergic Communist plans which were nipped in the bud by the Government swift thrust, including seizing the city hall of Turoulog.

Demonstration Dispersed.
PARIS, Dec. 8.—The Communists continue to hold the centre of the stage in France appearing quite undiminished by the Government's repressive measures.

After a meeting at the headquarters of the Labor Federation last night a group of radicals formed a procession and marched to the eastern railroad terminus, a distance of about two miles, singing the "Internationale" along the way. They were scattered by the police who made no arrests.

Another band attended the inauguration of a local soldiers' memorial at Stains, a northern suburb of Paris, and drowned the speakers' attentions with cheers for Lenin and the Soviets, and the singing of the "Internationale." They were dispersed by police reserves.

Herriot Is Criticized.
These and other activities by the "Reds" are noted by the press, particularly the Nationalist organs, which declare Premier Herriot's measure of repression are all a farce, and that they are dangerous because they tell public opinion into less security, and encourage the Communists by their weakness.

These papers print extracts from "Humantite and other Communist sheets as well as from speeches delivered at Communist meetings to show that the revolutionary menace is a reality.

Red Leader Sought.
The government now is seeking the Communist leader, Henri Guilbeaux, condemned to death by default in 1919 under circumstances similar to those in the case of Jacques Sadoul, who was recently arrested. Guilbeaux is suspected of the intention of returning to France like Sadoul, in some quarters,
It is believed he is already here.

Orders have been given for the police and customs officers to search all trains entering France, and if necessary to patrol the front roads. The papers of all travelers are being carefully scrutinized.

REACH AGREEMENT AS TO WATERWAYS

Enquiry Into Chicago Sanitary Diversion is to be Included.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Following a recent meeting of the board of engineers representing Canada and the United States on the St. Lawrence deep waterway project, and an agreement by the board on questions for engineering study, the agreement has been turned over to the State Department here for ratification. Canadian members of the board will submit the agreement to Ottawa.

While the agreement is not given out officially, the Canadians were successful in having included in the study which is to be made an enquiry into the effects of Niagara diversion to the distribution of water on lake levels and the level of the St. Lawrence. The effect of Niagara diversion is not included, Canadian representatives objecting. The agreement, in short, is shaped as Canadian representatives of the board desired. If Ottawa and Washington sanction it, the way will be open for final and comprehensive engineering study of the St. Lawrence problem which officials here hope will lead to complete agreement for improving the St. Lawrence waterway.

If a reporter of this paper stood a day in the examination rooms of Sharpes, he could write a wonderful human interest story.

He would watch people of great confidence in their powers of sight get a pleasant surprise when the right Glasses prove how much better they can be made to see.

He would note others suffering nervous strains that cause headaches and even indigestion gain complete relief when the right Glasses life the load off overburdened sight muscles.

And, to give the story a correct happy end, he would report that the dollar deposit plan of Sharpes leaves no excuse whatever for dangerous delay or false confidence.

Brothers Were "Oxs," Now Smith

WORCESTER, Dec. 8.—Two brothers were granted the right to change their name from Ox to Smith here after one of the strangest legal battles staged in the Probate Court here for many years.

It came to a climax when Morris, the younger brother, rose to fight his younger brother Solomon's claim to the name.

Are Rivals.

They are rival shoe store owners in the town of Milford. Their feud has long caused many a chuckle among the people there which started when Morris, two years ago, restrained Solomon in the Court of Equity from using what he says is his trade mark, "Smith, the wonderful shoemaker."

After Solomon was defeated in the findings of the master in the Court of Equity, he filed a petition for the legal right to the name of Smith in the Probate Court. This was followed by another petition from Morris asking to have the legal right to the name he has used for 21 years.

Morris and Solomon shed the name of Ox and Ochs and called themselves Smith ever since their coming to the U. S. from Poland, because, said Solomon, the name of Ox makes people think of a stupid beast of burden, and no man likes to be called stupid.

In his finding Judge Forbes said that because both men were known generally by the name of Smith the common law would give them the right to the name, and he failed to admit the case of Hogan, who was prohibited some years ago from changing his name to Homans, into consideration as presented by William Murray, counsel for Morris, as an argument why Solomon shouldn't have the name of Smith.

Britain First Desires to See Soviet Comply With Ultimatum

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The Government has decided not to reply to the last note of the Moscow Government but will wait and see how far the Soviet complies with the ultimatum with regard to the spread of propaganda directed against the British Government before a reply is sent to the Soviet leaders.

Retort Caseous. Blumenthal was called to the phone one morning. "This is the bank cashier speaking. Mr. Blumenthal can't take the voice. 'I'm sorry to tell you that your account is overdrawn one hundred dollars.'"

Blumenthal thought for a moment. "Tell me," he said, "how much did I have on deposit one month ago today?" The cashier referred to the books and replied, "Three hundred dollars."

"Well," demanded Blumenthal, "did I telephone you about it?"

What Do They Scrub? "Guess my girl in college has changed her mind about basketball. She is evidently going in for something more useful."

"How so?"

"Now she writes that she has made the scrub team."

MILK REDUCED

Commencing Monday, Dec. 8th, the price of milk is reduced to 12 cents retail and 10 cents wholesale per quart. This is not an economic price, and is brought on solely to meet competition on account of agitation for cheaper milk.

At the old price our net profit was .52 cents per quart, slightly over 1-2 cent per quart.

The present prices mean that we lose on every quart of milk sold 2 cents per quart. How long such an absurd situation will last we do not know, and can only last until someone is financially ruined, and driven out of business.

We have a large investment in the community, and are large employers of labour, and are entitled to a fair return on our investment.

We, however, do not intend losing one single customer, and hope to be in the ring at the finish.

BAD FOR THE COMMUNISTS

Germany appears to be following the lead of Britain and France in dealing with the Communists. On Saturday this newspaper presented some comment upon the fact that Premier Herriot of France, and Austen Chamberlain, British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, had agreed after a short conference that their countries must show the Reds, the Bolsheviks, and all of that kind, that their attempt to spread revolution and to destroy the liberty, the security and the happiness which flow from stable government must be checked; that their presence and their activities would be no longer tolerated either in Britain or in France. Here one perceived fresh and welcome evidence of a desire to keep the Entente intact, and to grapple unflinchingly and sternly with a world menace.

This morning comes news of the general election, showing strong gains by the social democrats, thus strengthening in the Reichstag the parties favorable to the execution of the Dawes plan, and uniting in that assembly all those who are really opposed to the Reds. Germany has formulated a revolution or two in the past in the line of convincing the Allies that she was unable to pay war reparations. That was rather wretched poker playing.

General Dawes and former Chancellor McKenna, when they formulated what is now called the Dawes plan, soon convinced the Allies and the United States Government that Germany could pay if she were given a reasonable chance to pay, and then were held firmly and sternly by the mark.

There followed, it is due largely to a new German financier of high intelligence and courage, an immediate stabilization of German currency, and Germany then had—and knew she had—her last chance to escape a more extended military occupation of the most vital part of her territory.

It takes a long time to beat sense into the head of the Prussians, but if the school master is both patient and strong it can be done; sometimes the process involves considerable expenditure of blood and treasure. France, militant France, was ready for that more extended occupation. France stood ready, with her own sword, to retrace the one thing that was lacking at Armistice. That one thing was that Berlin had not been occupied by allied troops. We know now why it was not occupied. Germany was bested fast. But the allied troops were exhausted. Millions of them had seen years of hard fighting; naturally they wanted to go home. They would have followed Foch to Berlin, but Foch said no. He knew, as Halig, as Lloyd George and Clemenceau knew, that the Allies were not all of one mind, that the difficulties had at one time been grave, and that a decision to bring the German capital under Allied military control might mean danger of further difficulties, and that while in the military sense Berlin was the obvious objective, there were other considerations at the moment which could not be lightly ignored. The Allies had won the war, beyond all question; they had crushed the Prussians. They held him safe. Their first consideration, therefore, was, at Armistice, to strive for united action during that trying period while terms were being agreed upon. These terms were dictated. The complications which subsequently arose among the conquerors of Germany need not be reviewed here.

So much by way of explanation. If the German Government of the day is sincere in its decision that Bolshevism must be handled with an iron hand, then so much the better, for Britain and France are already leading the way in that matter. If Germany follows, well and good; so far as the British Empire and the French Empire—because France is an Empire—are concerned they will tolerate no attempt to destroy free government, whether the attempt come from within or from without.

Those who have read "The Scarlet Pimpernel" and its companion books will find to-day's news about "Mr. A." unusually diverting.

Odds and Ends LINCOLN

After Lincoln's speech was delivered at Gettysburg, some of the newspapers of the day said it was a rather crude and disappointing utterance. Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews in "The Perfect Tribute" tells of Lincoln stilling up all night with a dying soldier, while the famous utterance and any how he needs no help. Here it is in blank verse form.

Four score and seven years ago
Our fathers brought forth on the continent
A new nation,
Conceived in liberty,
And dedicated to the proposition
That all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war,
Testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated,
Can long endure.
We are met on a great battle-field of war,
To dedicate to us to be here dedicated,
Can long endure.

As a final resting-place
For those who here have given their lives
That that nation might live; and that the world might be better for their sacrifice.
It is altogether fitting and proper
That we should do this.

But, in a larger sense,
We cannot dedicate—
We cannot consecrate—
We cannot hallow—
This ground.
Who shall here
Have consecrated it far above our poor power?

To add or detract.
The world will little note nor long remember
What we say here,
But it can never forget
What they did here.

It is for us, the living rather,
To be dedicated here to the unfinished work
Which they who fought here have nobly advanced.
It is rather for us to be here dedicated,
To the great task remaining before us.

Than for those honored dead
Who take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion;
That we here highly resolve
That these dead shall not have died in vain;
That this nation, under God,
Shall have a new birth of freedom;
And that government of the people,
By the people, for the people,
shall not perish from the earth.

Don't Do It, They Cry

An announcement recently by Dr. T. P. Wall of St. Andrew's University that he had perfected apparatus for experiments in splitting up an atom copper foil, and would undertake the experiment soon, filled many of his neighbors with apprehension and brought him scores of letters pleading that he abandon the enterprise. The apprehension appeared due to the fact that for many years scientists have looked on this sort of experiment as fraught with unknown possibilities, and some have said that there is sufficient latent energy in a single atom to demolish the whole world.

To calm the nerves of his correspondents Dr. Wall announced that when ready for the experiment he would wear a heavy coat of lead, and be surrounded by a sufficient amount of anything alarming happening he would then escape and think of his correspondents.

While some of the letters in Dr. Wall's mail bag were fierce, others were very kind. Among them were these:

"Dear Sir,—Please don't blow up the atom. I am terrified. Please, please, leave things alone. One Who is Frightened."

Another letter read:
"Having read of your wonderful invention for blowing up the world on a Wednesday, kindly make it Thursday or a Sunday, after we have had our usual half holiday and drawn our salaries.—A Believer in Inventions."

A father wrote thus on behalf of his children:
"I regret to see you are determined to carry out your experiment. Perhaps if you were a married man with children, and not so callous, you would not be so keen on the possible destruction of the whole human race. You must be hard to have no pity for those who love you. May God curse you if you carry out your experiment!—A Married Man."

British Liquor Legislation

(Exchange)
Synchronizing conveniently with the general election in Great Britain came the annual report of the United Kingdom Alliance. This organization put forth its best efforts to impress on the electorate the evils of the drink trade. One illuminating piece of information in the report was the fact that in the last government, in the voting on the Welsh Temperance Bill, second reading, only eleven out of 180 Conservatives voted for it; 91 Labor for and 87 against; 100 Liberals for, and only four against.

In Moderation?
(Observer in The Observer, London)
There is, I suppose, no such thing as a moderate drinker, and the proposal (from New York) to illuminate golf courses by searchlight so that they can be continued at night, will, no doubt, secure support. As the non-golfer seems, in its excess of enthusiasm, to invite some such course as that of insisting on "when that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink."

On Going to Church.

Some people imagine that the church is an omnibus where, with the vicar as driver and the curate as conductor, all they have to do is to take a comfortable seat and pay a penny.—Rev. W. R. Harland

WESTERN FLIERS MAKE RECORD TIME

Pull in Ahead of Time on Both Eastern and Western Journeys.

MONTRÉAL, Dec. 8.—Smashing all records for regular passenger traffic service between Toronto and the prairies, the "Winnipeg Specials," the new Canadian Pacific trains Nos. 97 and 98, which set out on their respective runs between east and west on Thursday last, completed their trips well within their scheduled times. No. 97 drew into Winnipeg yesterday morning at three minutes to nine, three minutes ahead of time, having completed the run from Montréal in 98 hours and 47 minutes and the trip from Toronto in 88 hours and 12 minutes. The train set out on a stop in Windsor Station here just 80 seconds before 1:30 p.m., at which time it was due.

Had Clear Run

Conductors of both trains reported a clear run through and both trains were met by groups of the company's employees at the trains on arrival. Standard sleeping cars, compartment and observation cars, express, baggage and mail cars. The runs included the making of a record for the movement of mail between eastern Canada and Winnipeg.

Letters to The Editor

Vocational and High.

The Editor of The Times-Star.

Sir,—The matter of the Vocational School being again under discussion, would it not be well that the public should have a clear understanding of every phase of the situation? Comprehensive presentation of the entire situation would be illuminating.

Various patriotic groups are making a plan in one relating to the High School. It is stated that the latter building is being financed by the citizens of St. John. No contributions therefrom will be forthcoming. The city alone must bear the burden.

The question immediately arises as to what that outlay would represent, also as to the consequent annual outlay required for interest, and provision for sinking fund.

The claim, however, is advanced that construction of a vocational school will obviate the necessity for an addition to the high school. If that statement can be verified, would it not be advisable to compare the monetary outlay (with annual interest) involved in the alternative of addition to High School building at the city's cost alone? It is not at all clear that the city inevitably faces a large outlay. No escape is possible, it seems, for heavy expenditure of money—and that is a disadvantage of the vocational school being abandoned.

Here a definite and clear exposition by persons qualified to furnish accurate and reliable information is essential as to the complete burden involved in each case.

Possessing that knowledge the public will be in better position to appreciate the correctness of the decision rendered in April last, in voting for construction of a vocational school.

It would seem to be shown that in so far as actual financial outlay is concerned the high school addition has the advantage, and that the proposed extension, against continuous contributions towards original expenditure and the maintenance of the building, recall the days gone by when their sons and daughters gathered around their festive board, and their merry chatter gladdened their hearts. If they could only realize that their presence would be the greatest gift possible many would now be consulting timetables and planning on spending Christmas at the old homestead. Of all times in the year when parents long for their family it is Christmas. The recall years gone by when they decorated a little tree just for their baby; the toys, candy, etc., that they placed in the little stockings; the cry of delight that echoed through their home in the early hours of the morning when the treasures were discovered; and now with memories alone they plan to pass Christmas.

If the hundreds of thousands of citizens would only go back to those happy days and then put themselves in the beloved parental place they would long since have known just what train they were going to take, how long it would be before they arrived, and the little remembrance they would take along with them.

There can be no excuse today that the distance is great and travel difficult. The Canadian Pacific Railway with their luxuriously fitted coaches, sleeping cars, comfortably heated, and containing every convenience, can accommodate all and touches all points throughout Canada. The Canadian Pacific will get you there in good time and in good spirit.

Rough Weather is Reported—Several Brides are Passengers.

After experiencing boisterous weather for eight days the C. P. S. liner Metagama arrived here late Saturday afternoon with 61 cabin and 141 third-class passengers.

The Metagama carried 100 bags of mail and one car of express matter in addition to 600 tons of general cargo. The steamer docked shortly before 6 o'clock and the passengers left here on a C. P. R. special for Montréal at 7:45 p.m.

Goose Across Canada.

Among the passengers on the Metagama was J. R. Finney, of Lobnitz & Company, Renfrew, Scotland, who is on a large dredging contract. Mr. Finney will supervise the erection of a number of dipper dredges which were manufactured by the firm of Lobnitz & Company for work at Japan's big port.

The contract for these dredges was awarded the Brewster company before the earthquake disaster at Yokohama about a year and a half ago, but the project was abandoned because of the damage which was caused that splendid harbor.

Special Dredges.

Although an Old Country firm is supplying the dredges for the Yokohama contract, a Canadian, Mr. Robinson, of Quebec, designed the special type of dredge which will be used in Japan.

The Metagama is in command of W. Henderson, and the officers are J. McCallum, chief officer; J. R. Nelson, chief engineer; Thomas Taylor, purser; G. M. Farrell, surgeon; Duncan McIntosh, chief steward; Miss R. Heath, special correspondent; and J. M. Lelms, special correspondent.

Among the friends who St. John welcomed yesterday was Duncan McIntosh, the jovial chief steward of the C. P. S. Metagama, who during the winter season of late years has made a host of friends and countless acquaintances among the people of the city.

For 40 years Mr. McIntosh has followed the sea. Hardly a country on the globe is unknown to him. During that time he has had many countless experiences and has met countless people of every race, color and creed.

Since entering the C. P. S. passenger service, he has seen to the comfort of thousands of passengers, and it is a strange voyage in which some does not add to his list of interesting experiences.

His courteous attention in his scrap book, one of his dearest possessions.

Being a Scotch musician, song and poetry have been in him, and like many of his fellow countrymen he has given expression to his thoughts in verse. The contributions during the early years of his life at sea were few and far between, but during the past 20 years he has been gradually adding poem after poem, until today he has had them printed and bound into a book to which he has given the title "The Travellers Companion."

On several occasions when in port Mr. McIntosh occupied the pulpit in the Sault Ste. Marie Baptist church, but this time his injured ankle will prevent him from performing what he terms a pleasure.

Minnedosa In.

Encountering exceptionally rough weather during her eight days' passage, the C. P. S. steamship Minnedosa docked here on a C. P. R. special Sunday morning from Antwerp, Southampton and Cherbourg.

The Minnedosa ran into severe seas throughout the entire trip, and one day made but 28 miles. The storm was so heavy at one stage that the steamer was stationary for over three hours.

There were 97 cabin passengers on the Minnedosa, and 383 third class, while the steamer also carried 101 bags of mail, 121 bags of parcel post packages and 1,200 tons general cargo.

Among the Passengers.

Included among the passengers were Mr. W. J. Brown, of St. John; H. E. Waugh, of Winnipeg, son of R. D. Waugh, Canada's representative on the Sault Ste. Marie Commission; J. C. Campbell, director of publicity for the Department of Interior, and R. Gault, of Montréal.

Dr. C. Rae, of Toronto, returned after three years of post graduate work in London, Edinburgh and Vienna, and will enter the practise of his profession in his native city.

On a Vacation.

Dr. F. Parney, of Montréal, who was recently appointed assistant to the director in charge at the Canadian Government Immigration offices in London, arrived on the Minnedosa to spend a short vacation at his home in Montréal.

The only Maritime people among the cabin passengers were Mrs. H. Molins and Miss Hazel Molins, of this city.

Mennonites Here.

About 180 Mennonites, who are en route to Rosheim, Sask., also arrived on the Minnedosa Sunday morning. They were garbed in their native costumes and naturally attracted much attention in the immigration sheds at Sand Point.

The passengers left St. John by C. P. R. special, shortly before noon on Sunday.

The Minnedosa is in command of A. H. Nobley, R. D. R. N. R., and W. A. Hutcheon is chief officer, and H. Tear, chief engineer; J. Smidell is purser and C. B. McMurrich, surgeon, and H. Monkhouse, chief steward; Miss M. Martin is conductress and J. T. Campbell chief rail agent.

Brides Arrive.

The Minnedosa is still the "bride ship" of the C. P. S. R. lines.

For many years the palatial C. P. S. steamship has been the most popular liner with the bushing maidens who are about to leave the ranks of the spinsters, and on the trip which ended here Saturday afternoon, when the Metagama docked at Sand Point, no less than four brides-to-be were among the cabin passengers.

In addition the third class passenger list included a half dozen or more brides, who with a payment of $821.313.13, showing a yearly income of between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, the steamer was really the founder of all his wealth.

Fortune In Idea.

While playing the trombone one night Foster was struck with a brilliant idea of using certain trombone notes as an automobile warning signal. He patented the idea and started to manufacture the signal, using the air from the engine exhaust to "toot the horn." The idea caught on at once and Foster began to pile up riches.

Then someone invented the electric horn and this threatened to deprive Foster of a good part of his business. His nimble mind was working, however, and he devised a new idea in shock absorbers, the so-called "mud-bumper."

It was put on the market and soon its sales and profits far exceeded the original horn profits.

Now from the two inventions the former trombone player is shown by the tax returns to make more actual cash in a year than any other person in Cleveland.

Favorite Colors.

One of the season's favorite color combinations is red, black and gold with the black predominating.

C. H. Foster Gets Idea and Becomes Cleveland's Largest Tax Payer.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 8.—The people of Cleveland got quite a surprise from the publishing of the income tax payments. It was found that C. H. Foster, only a few years ago a trombone player in a Cleveland vaudeville theatre, has the payment of $821,313.13, showing a yearly income of between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. The trombone was really the founder of all his wealth.

Private Enterprise The Backbone of Progress!!

The experience of the two great English-speaking industrial nations—Great Britain and the United States—in the matter of public ownership of electrical utilities is of great interest and importance to St. John.

Great Britain has, always been regarded as a strong believer in public ownership.

Some 60 p.c. of public generators, and some 65 p.c. of the electrical railway mileage, in that country, is publicly owned.

In the United States, only 5-1-2 p.c. of public generators and only 2 p.c. of electric railway mileage is under public management.

Presenting recommendations on the development of a nation-wide electrical system in Great Britain, the committee of electrical engineers and business men, under the chairmanship of ex-Premier Lloyd-George, comes out emphatically against public enterprise.

Evidently, experience of many years has proven it is not the thing.

And, when steady thinking Englishmen see a reason to change their mind, that reason must be a substantial one.

The Lloyd-George Committee recommends that the whole executive management of the proposed nation-wide system be placed in the hands of private companies and adds:

"Whether we make the right use of this heaven-sent opportunity for remedying the mistakes of the past, depends on whether we use, from the outset, wise methods of regulation and control without sacrificing the driving power of private enterprise."

As regards the United States, Secretary Hoover, in a recent address said:

"We have found the true road of advancement in these enterprises through sustained initiative and equality of opportunity to our people with public control to prevent abuses."

We can supply the necessary private enterprise in St. John. And in co-operation with the City, as outlined in the Lloyd George report.

DALHOUSIE SELECTS ITS SIDE IN DEBATE

U. N. B. Will Argue For Operation of C. N. R. as Private Company

FREDERICTON, Dec. 7.—Word was received here yesterday by D. H. Fulton, secretary of the U. N. B. Debating Society, that Dalhousie had chosen the negative side of the resolution, "Resolved that the Canadian National Railroads should be run on a purely commercial basis, as though same were owned and operated on a private basis," for their side of the intercollegiate debate to be held in Halifax in the early spring.

The first issue of the "Brunswickian," the university periodical, was run off the press a few days ago. The issue is interesting and shows hard work on behalf of the editorial staff. It is the only issue that will be published this term.

The Student Christian Association held its last meeting for the term today. It was finally decided to assist in student relief work in Europe.

Distinction Sweaters. Two weeks ago the Athletic Association recommended that the Students' Athletic Councils make the special athletic distinctions harder to obtain. On Friday it was finally decided that special distinction sweaters be granted to an athlete who had played on one team for four years, or on one team for three years and two years on any other team or teams.

The last social event of the term took place on Tuesday last, when the U. N. B. A. A. gave an enjoyable benefit dance. The seven piece college orchestra was in attendance and gave excellent music. The chairmen were Professor E. A. Turner, Mrs. Stevens and Captain and Mrs. Theodore Roberts. About 865 was realized.

Freshen Vegetables. Freshen old or wilted vegetables in very cold water for two or three hours before they are cooked.

WHOOPING COUGH IS A VERY SERIOUS TROUBLE HER 5 CHILDREN HAD IT

Mrs. S. H. Craig, R.R. No. 1, Palmerton, Ont., writes:—"Two years ago, last winter, our five children had very severe attacks of whooping cough. We were recommended, by our druggist, to use which we did with the greatest of success. It cleared out the throat and bronchial tubes, and loosened the phlegm so that they were able to cough it up, and in no time I had quenched the 'whooping.'"

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

"Dr. Wood's" is put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, and has been on the market for the past 25 years. Be sure and get the genuine.

DEATHS

Mrs. A. R. McClelan. HOPEWELL HILL, N. B., Dec. 7.—Mrs. A. R. McClelan, widow of a former Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, passed away at her home at Riverside on Saturday afternoon, after a short illness of pneumonia and pleurisy. Her death has occasioned profound sorrow throughout the community where she spent so many years of her long life and where she was greatly beloved and esteemed.

Mrs. McClelan only recently passed her eightieth birthday and had enjoyed a very fair degree of health until only a little more than a week ago, when she suffered an attack of pneumonia which, while apparently not of severe form at first, proved fatal.

Mrs. McClelan was of a particularly unassuming disposition, but became well known to many of the residents of the province during her husband's term as Governor from 1896 to 1902. Her kind and sympathetic traits of character endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. To all who remember Mrs. McClelan in those days the news of her death will bring deep regret.

She was formerly Miss Anna B. Reid, daughter of the late William Reid, who was collector of customs at Harvey, Albert county. Her mother was a member of the well known Robinson family. After her marriage to the Hon. Mr. McClelan she resided at Riverside until the time of her death. She always took a deep interest in the welfare of the community and was an active member of the Red Cross Society, the Baptist Women's Missionary Society, the Union Sunday school. To her many good works she brought great devotion and unusual ability. In her own home she greatly enjoyed the informal companionship of her

Bedford Man Hears Burglar But Thinks Sound is Made by Rats

Canadian Press Despatch. HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 7.—George Jackson, Bedford, hearing a suspicious sound in his bedroom in the early hours of a frosty morning, was about to get up and investigate but the window was up and it was cold and he was sleepy and he thought it was only rats between the partitions, so he went back to his slumbers.

$400 Gone. When he awoke this morning he discovered that a burglar had accepted the invitation of the open window and relieved him of $400 that he had left in his trousers' pocket. This afternoon George Locke, hailing from parts unknown, was notified by the police to be making an unseemly display of money and he was taken into custody charged with stealing Jackson's four hundred.

Rev. Mr. MacLachlan returned for his services yesterday. The illness of this eldest member of the family was caused by a fall.

Rev. Robert G. Fulton, pastor of Centenary church, was the preacher in the Central Methodist church, Moncton, yesterday, exchanging with Rev. Val Tilton, pastor, who preached here in Centenary at both services.

Rev. E. Val Tilton, of Moncton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Orange street, during his week end stay in the city.

Miss Edna Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Riley, Dunham street, completed her course in dietetics in the General Public Hospital successfully on Saturday. Her many friends are extending congratulations and wishing her success in her chosen work.

Canadian Press Despatch.
MONCTON, Dec. 7.—Schooner Lena, Capt. H. B. Carey, arrived here tonight from Kingsport, N. S., with a cargo of apples, after a perilous voyage of 12 days that in fine weather can be made in 80 hours or less.

The Lena lost her deckload on Thursday last and Captain Carey, in telling the story of his rough passage, said he thought his vessel would be lost in the storm. Strong northeast gales and heavy seas were encountered all the way.

United Press Despatch.
LONDON, Dec. 7.—Unless the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley is radically improved, and many new features are added, the British public will not patronize it in the hundreds of thousands that must attend if it is to be put on a paying basis.

This is the opinion generally expressed in spite of the official enthusiasm exhibited today, and it is openly predicted that the excursions from the northern industrial centres, which flocked to Wembley last year in such enormous numbers, will not repeat their journeyings next year.

No Word From Canada.
In an interview on the prospects of the great exhibition next year, Major Toimle told your representative, "So far I have had no official communication from Ottawa with regard to Canada's participation next year, but we have already gone ahead with our plans for a complete reorganization of our action, although the Dominion is

DEATH OF VETERAN TAMMANY MAN RECALLS WAYS OF OLD POLITICIANS

Plunkitt, of New York, was Creator of "Honest Graft" Phrase.

In George Washington Plunkitt, the eighty-two-year-old veteran Tammany politician, who died a few days ago, says the New York Times, was a picturesque character that in these days seems to belong to the realm of fiction rather than to chronicles of fact.

It appeared too good to be true, for instance, to find a political leader carrying on his activities from a booth black stand in the rotunda of old Boss Tweed's New York County Court House. He was not a boothblack, though. The eminence of the shoe polisher's chair served as a throne from which Plunkitt garnered patronage—generally fulfilled those promises.

There he received reports from his personal lieutenants, and heard and adjusted complaints from members of his following. This was his office. His filing cabinet was the sweatband of his hat. And between affairs of state he kept an eye on passers-by, with whom he exchanged just the correct salute reserved for judges to a nod or a wave of the hand for lesser fry.

If Senator Plunkitt had never done anything else in his life, he should achieve immortality for the creation of that euphemistic phrase, "Honest graft." This distinction between old-time "crooked" political bribery as such and financial forethought due to inside information, which its practitioners hold to be "honest," is accurately revealed by George W. Plunkitt's place in Tammany Hall history.

The days of his power bridged the gap from the Tammany Hall of Tweed's day to the Tammany of the present. "There's no warmth in politics nowadays," he complained, viewing the modern Tammany from the sidelines. "The leaders don't get after the boys the way we used to."

Respect for the Law.

As for the old Tammany days, Plunkitt would have none of them. "Never monkey with the Penal Code," he advised, out of his rich experience of the past. "I've not gone in for dishonest graft, blackmailing and collecting from gamblers and saloon keepers."

"I don't own a dishonest dollar," he maintained. "If my worst enemy had the job of writing my epitaph when I am gone, he couldn't do worse than write: George W. Plunkitt—He Seen His Opportunity and He Took It."

He was perfectly frank about his activities. "Everybody's talkin' these days," he said, when first voting, twenty years ago, his now famous phrase, "about Tammany men growin' rich on graft, but nobody thinks of drawin' the distinction between honest graft and dishonest graft. The only difference in the world between the two."

Dishonest graft, according to the Plunkitt code, meant running foul of the law.

"As for honest graft," he went on, "I am an example. You know it works. I have made a big fortune out of the game and I'm getting richer every day. I might sum up the whole thing by sayin': 'I seen my opportunities and I took 'em.'"

"Just let me explain by examples. My party's in power in the city, and it's goin' to undertake a lot of public improvements. Well, I'm tipped off, say, that they're going to lay out a new park at a certain place. I see my opportunity and take it. I go to that place and I buy up all the land in the neighborhood. Then the board of that or that makes the thing public and there's a rush to get my land. Always perfectly honest to charge a good price and make a profit on my investment and forethought? Of course it is. Well, that's honest graft."

"It's just like lookin' ahead in Wall street or in the coffee or cotton market. It's honest graft, and I'm lookin' for it every day in the year."

Thus Senator Plunkitt outlined his political livelihood. The only difference, it appears, between him and some of his contemporaries is that Plunkitt spoke up frankly as to his activities. His quoted defence of "honest graft" and his attacks, which were constant, upon civil service laws were subjects for debate in the United States Senate and supplied the text for lectures upon municipal government in many colleges.

Although he was a power in Tammany and, until 20 years ago, when ousted by The McManus, the leader of the Fifteenth Assembly District, Plunkitt's official glory lay in having been Assemblyman, State Senator, Police Magistrate, County Supervisor and Alderman. In these days when Controller Craig seeks the official head of Murray Hilbert, president of the Board of Aldermen, because he also holds a State office which draws no pay, it is interesting to note that one of Senator Plunkitt's boasts was that he filled four public offices at the same time and drew pay from three of them.

One of His Days.

But, as he admitted, the chief source of his livelihood was as district leader. In this job, as long as he held it, Senator Plunkitt could have yielded local color to many novelists. The following record of one of his typical days of 23 years ago, as head of his district, shows better, probably, than anything else, how Tammany, year after year, kept its faithful.

2 a. m.—Aroused from sleep by his doorbell ringing; a barkeeper at the door asking Plunkitt to go to the police station to bail out a saloon keeper arrested for violation of the excise law; bail furnished and back to bed at 3.

8 a. m.—Awakened by fire engines passing his home; hastened to scene of fire, according to the custom of Tammany district leaders, to give assistance, if needed, to fire sufferers; found several tenants burned out, took them to a hotel and arranged for temporary quarters until they could rent and furnish new apartments.

8:30 a. m.—Went to police court to look after constituents; found six "drunks"; by timely word with the judge secured discharges for four; paid the fines of the two others.

9 a. m.—Appeared in Municipal District Court; paid the rent of a poor family about to be dispossessed and gave them a dollar for food.

1 p. m.—Home again and found four men waiting for him who sought jobs with public service corporations; spent nearly three hours fixing things for the four men and succeeded in each case.

3 p. m.—Attended an Italian funeral and hurried back to appear at the funeral of a Jewish constituent; went conspicuously to the front in both the Catholic church and the synagogue.

7 p. m.—Went to district headquarters and presided over a meeting of district captains who told of voters within the district who were in need or in trouble.

8 p. m.—Went to a church fair; took chances on everything; bought ice cream for the young girls and took their fathers out for something down at the corner.

9 p. m.—At headquarters; spent $10 on tickets for a church excursion and bought tickets for a baseball game between two teams in the district; listened to complaints of police persecution from dozen pushcart prisoners and assured them he would take the matter up at Police Headquarters in the morning.

10:30 p. m.—Attended a wedding reception, having previously sent a handsome present for the bride.

Midnight.—Bed.

A Practical Leader.

"The way to hold your district," said this practical politician, "is to study human nature and act accordingly. Reformers are only morning glories. A reformer can't last in politics. This is as much of a regular business as the grocery or the dry goods or the drug business. You've got to be trained or you're sure to fail. I've been studying the political game for 45 years, and I don't know it all yet. I'm learning something all the time. How, then, can you expect what they call 'business men' to turn into politics and all at once make a success of it? It's just as if I went up to Columbia and started to teach Greek. They usually last as long in politics as I would last at Columbia."

"This is the system, the old-time Tammany boss said, that made 'the Hall' the only lasting democracy while 'reform' flourishes awhile and then withers. 'New democracies,' he said, 'can be produced cheap. I've looked into the industry and can give rock-bottom figures. Here's the items of cost of a new democracy:—

A dinner to twelve bone hunters... $12
Speech on Jeffersonian Democracy... 1
Proclamation of principles (typewriting)... 2
Rent of headquarters, one month... 12
Stationery... 2
Twenty second-hand chairs... 3
One second-hand table... 2
Sign painting... 3
Twenty-nine cuspidors... 9

Total... $50

"Is there any wonder that 'democracies' spring up all over when the municipal campaign is coming on? If you land even one small job, you get a big return on your investment. The New York papers tumble over one another to give columns to any new organization that comes out against Tammany?"

The end, he said, was the same in every case—as happened in his district when the Citizens Union opposed him for State Senator.

"One election," he said, "the Citizens had 400 enrolled voters in my district. They had a lovely headquarters too. If I was accused of having contributed to fix up a nest for 'em I wouldn't deny it. Well, election day came. The Citizens Union candidate for Senator against me polled five votes. I got 14,000. What became of these four hundred Citizens Union voters? Some people guessed that many of them were good Plunkitt men all the time."

"The Citizens Union kind of young man, I love 'em. He's the daintiest morsel of the lot and he don't often escape me. I'll tell you frankly how I capture some of them. I have a plan that never fails. I watch the City Record to see when there is a civil service examination for a good thing. Then I take my young Citizens Union man in hand and tell him about it. I don't bother him any more. It's a cinch he comes back to me in a few days and asks to join 'Tammany Hall.'"

Hand in hand with "reform" as object of this Tammany old-timer's scorn was civil service. Time and again he brushed against it and found that it had as many teeth as a buzz-saw.

"The Civil Service law," he complained, "is the biggest fraud of the age. It's the curse of the nation. There can't be no real patriotism while it lasts. I know more than one man in the past years who worked for the ticket and was just overflowing with patriotism, but when he was knocked out by the civil service humbug he got to hate his country; and became an anarchist."

Must Have Spoils.

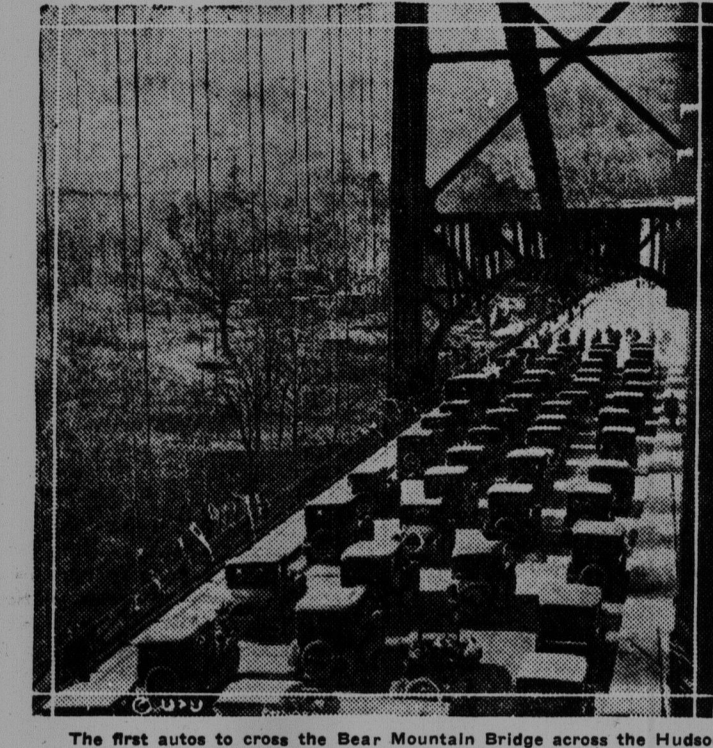

"When parties can't get office they'll bust. They ain't far from the bustin' point now, with all this civil service business keepin' most of the good things from them. How're you goin' to keep up patriotism if this thing goes on? You can't do it. Before, when a party won, its workers got everything in sight. That was something to make a man patriotic. Now, when a party wins, and its men come forward and ask for their reward, the reply is: 'Nothing doing unless you can answer a lot of questions about Egyptian mummies.'"

"Now, I'm for municipal ownership on one condition—that the Civil Service law be repealed. It's a grand idea, the city owning the railroads, the gas works and all that. Just see how many thousands of new places would be for Tammany workers! Why, they'd almost be enough to go round—if no Civil Service law stood in the way! My plan is this: First get rid of that infamous law, and then go ahead by degrees and get municipal ownership."

These political principles, expressed so frankly by Senator Plunkitt from his "office" in the New York County Court House, where echoed once in phrases full of meaning by the late Charles T. Murphy in a eulogy he made of Plunkitt two decades ago.

"Senator Plunkitt," he said, "is a straight organization man. He believes in the government; he does not indulge in cant and hypocrisy and is never afraid to say what he thinks. He is a believer in thorough political organization and all-the-year-round work, and he holds to the doctrine that, in making appointments to office, party workers should be preferred if they are fitted to perform the duties of office. Plunkitt is one of the veteran leaders of the organization. He has always been faithful and reliable and

Accused of Theft of Bonds
in N. S. and Automobile in N. B.

AMHERST, N. S., Dec. 7.—The extradition of Burnley Smith and Alexander Ross from Pavlovsk, R. I., will be commenced on Wednesday. The two young men, who are supposedly traveling under fictitious names, are charged with the theft of $2,000 in Victory bonds from Alexander Ross, tailor, of Oxford, N. S., as well as two racoon coats and a cloth valued at nearly another $1,000.

A car that they are said to have obtained from the Oxford garage, the property of the W. H. Goodspeed, of Fredericton, N. B., was abandoned in Port Elgin, and in its place the high-powered roadster owned Hon. Fred Magee was taken.

Depositions were taken at Oxford yesterday by James A. Hanway, K. C., Crown prosecutor for Cumberland, and these depositions have been forwarded to the State of Rhode Island, where they will be used in the extradition proceedings.

TO STOP ABUSES IN COAL TRADE IN MONTREAL

Coal wholesalers and retailers in Montreal have organized the Montreal Coal Association Inc., with the object of stopping malpractices in the coal business, says The Star.

So far practically all of the wholesalers and many retailers in the city have joined, there being in all some 100 members on the books.

An endeavor will be made to cope with the practice of giving short weight. It has been suggested that reliable firms shall be given a special emblem so that the public will know where to deal. The city will be called on to provide more public scales as, under the present law, which states that all loads over 200 lbs. have to be weighed, some dealers have had to haul over six miles to a public scale.

ARRESTED AFTER TEN-YEAR SEARCH

Pole is Taken in Montreal on Charge of Attempted Murder

Canadian Press Despatch.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—Ten years search by the local police ended on Saturday when detectives arrested Andre Bockna, a native of Poland, aged 40, on a charge of attempting to murder a fellow-countryman, Yasi Carral, here, on the night of April 19, 1914. The arrest automatically started another search for Carral who, after recovering from his wounds, left Montreal and is nowhere to be found.

Bockna is meanwhile being held at detective headquarters. He will be arraigned tomorrow.

Crime Followed Party.

According to the police the attempted murder followed a party in a house, where Carral then lived. Liquor was consumed in large quantities and Bockna and Carral became involved in argument over some small matter. Words were followed by blows, and then, it is alleged, Bockna drew a revolver and fired three times into Carral's chest.

Dawes Plan Gains Strength Through German Elections

EXTREMISTS OSE STRENGTH IN THE BERLIN REICHSTAG

Communists and Extreme Nationalists Each Reduced by 18.

SOCIALISTS GAIN

Ludendorff's Anti-Semitic Party is Practically Wiped Out.

Canadian Press Cable. BERLIN, Dec. 8.—Strong gains by the Social Democrats, with consequent strengthening of the action favoring adherence to the Dawes programme of reparations, together with the losses for both the extreme right and the left, are the features of the returns from yesterday's Reichstag election.

Provisional final results, compiled shortly after noon today, gave the Social Democrats 127 seats, a gain of 29 as compared with last May's election.

Liberal Parties Gain.

The Centrists (Clericals) and the German Democratic party, the other Liberal parties represented in the Reichstag, not only held their own but each increased its representation, the Centrists by two seats and the Democrats by three.

The Bavarian People's Party added three members to its strength, the German Nationalists two and Stresemann's German People's Party, six.

The Communists and extreme Nationalists lost 18 each, and General Ludendorff's anti-Semitic party, was practically wiped out.

Communists Lose Ground.

The Socialists, who will enter the new Reichstag as the strongest party, made their gains chiefly at the expense of the Communists, while the German Nationalists appear to have picked up the defections from Ludendorff's party.

How Parties Stand.

Provisional final results, as completed shortly after noon today, were as follows: Social Democrats, 127 seats. German Nationalists, 104. Centrists (Clericals), 67. German People's Party, 60. Communists, 44. Economic party, 31. Bavarian People's Party, 19. Extreme Nationalists, 14. Farmers' party, 4. Hanoverians, 4. Other parties, 8.

Score of Persons Arrested For Jeering at French Premier

ROUBAIX, France, Dec. 7.—Premier Herriot ran into a hostile demonstration of whistling, jeering and booing when he arrived here today to attend a banquet of the Congress of the Federation of Lay Societies. The authorities had an imposing police and military force along the line traversed by the Premier and soon put down the hostile demonstration. A score of persons were arrested.

Offers Reward For Assailant's Arrest

ELLSWORTH, Me., Dec. 8.—Herbert R. Holmes, who was assaulted by an unknown man while he was going from his home to his store Monday night, has handed to County Attorney William E. Whiting the sum of $300 as a reward for information leading to the arrest of his assailant. The county attorney has deposited the money in Liberty National Bank.

ACQUIT MINORS OF MURDER OF WOMAN

Two Boys and Two Girls, Still in Teens, Are Freed by Jury.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Two boys and two girls, still in their teens, have been acquitted by a jury of a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Bessie Gaenssen. The youthful defendants had admitted that they strangled the woman to death as a preliminary to ransacking her home to obtain money they claimed she owed them. They denied that they intended to kill her.

The defendants were Lucille Marshall, Peggy Valanis and her brother, Anthony, and William Lydon.

SPECIAL EVENTS MARKING JUBILEE

Methodist Services in Many Parts of Canada—Incidents of Note.

The Methodist missionary centenary has stimulated all this year the celebration of special historical occasions in widely-scattered and representative communities. Church centenaries were held in Ontario at Cobourg, Merrickville, Newcastle and Hamilton.

Kananga, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Peterboro, Aylmer and Sarala held important festivities. All have been marked rather than a church, for the first time, Hamilton, although at least two New Brunswick churches and the smaller congregations at Donagay, Forest, Newcastle and Bowman's have contributed much historical material typical of pioneer days in Upper Canada.

Notable ceremonies were carried through at Hay Bay church, but this is a shrine rather than a church, for no regular services are held in this historical landmark of the Bay of Quinte.

Incidents Grave and Gay.

Appealing incidents, both grave and gay, abounded at such occasions in this centenary year.

At Warwick jubilee in Lambton county, Ontario, there was recited a poem written 80 years ago to celebrate the building of Newburg church in a day.

The 75th anniversary of Queen's church recalled Capt. Thomas Webb who lost an eye with Wolfe at Louisbourg but went on to the Plains of Abraham and later preached as one of Wesley's men in England and New York.

At the placing of a tablet in Bowman's Chapel, Ancaster, by the Hamilton district Rev. William Smythe, 64 years in the active work, instead of lamenting the great days of old, cried: "These are great times to be living in."

Concluding the jubilee at Central church, St. Thomas, Dr. H. W. Crews said that he had come from Principal Warner, who lay dying but said: "All the people that Jesus is dearer now."

The reunion of former members of Reunion street church in Toronto's old "Cabbage town" for the diamond jubilee proved the aptness of the church's name. Such a galaxy of local politicians had not been seen at Sunday school in 80 years.

Old Time Dry Resolution.

And the re-researches of St. Paul's church, Aylmer, dug up a temperance resolution passed and written into the church minutes of 1824, the stewards and members mutually agreeing to have "no more liquors or beer at our meetings."

Dates were also told of the banning of an organ at Forest, the founding of Winnipeg's second Methodist church at Old Point Douglas, the first services in a residence a century ago at Newcastle and in an atheist's paint shop at Aylmer. Several churches in the Cobourg and Peterboro region of central Ontario could trace their origin to the autumn of 1824, when Rev. Amos Green made the rounds of the three Smith's Creek circuit.

He built Cobourg church at that time and there the earlier Hamilton Chapel, two miles from town, as a place of pilgrimage.

George street church, Peterboro, seized the occasion to hold fine concerts, produce original plays and pageants, and to raise $12,000, when $7,500 was asked to finish paying off a debt. The congregation erected tablets to the memory not only of its remote founders but in recognition also of the vision of its members who 50 years ago built the present edifice.

Little noticed by the outside world, the centenary of Merrickville church in eastern Ontario was devoted to missionary gatherings with an interdenominational flavor. Neighboring churches rallied to congratulate the celebrants, and Presbyterians and Methodist missionaries from Glitsa gave addresses.

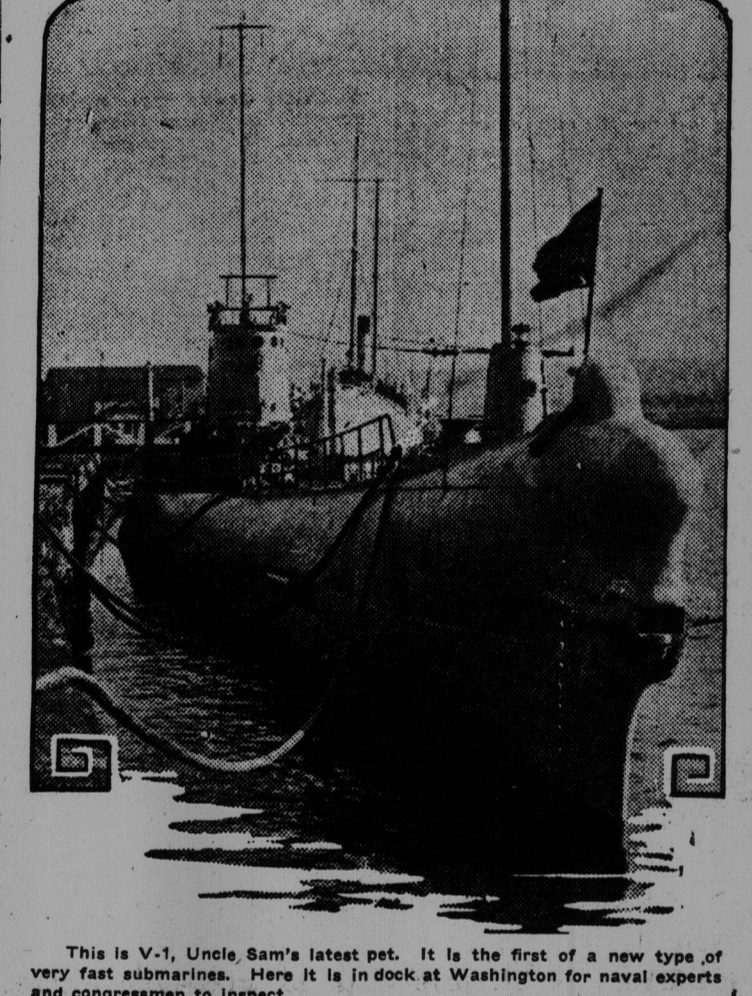

For Community Service.

Magnificent equipment for Sunday school and mid-week activities is becoming the order of the day in Ontario town churches. Grace Methodist church, Brampton, has just raised $50,000 for a building comprising lecture hall, gymnasium with shower baths, ladies' parlors, men's club rooms and 25 class rooms. Lusk Hall of Oakville Methodist church, built last year at a cost of $40,000, is similarly equipped.

MARITIME PROVINCE ASSOCIATION ACTIVE ON THORNTON SUGGESTION

President McMahon Prepares to Call Meeting of Local Representatives at Moncton in Near Future—Hopes to Have Commission Function Early in the New Year.

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—A. E. McMahon, president of the Canadian Maritime Provinces Development Association, has been in Moncton for several days conferring with officials of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways regarding the commission Sir Henry Thornton suggested should be appointed to investigate Maritime problems. President Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Railway has already publicly endorsed the idea and pledged the active cooperation of his company.

Mr. McMahon left for Nova Scotia today. He expressed as being entirely satisfied with the result of his negotiations here and stated that on his return to the Maritimes no time would be lost in getting the various local interests behind the movement with a view to having the commission fully organized and ready to start functioning early in the new year.

Mr. McMahon pointed out that the development association was the logical organization to take the lead in this matter. It is a truly Maritime body, designed to represent all interests and it has a larger measure of authority behind it than any other organization for it operates in the name of and by the authority of the Maritime Board of Trade.

To Be Held Soon. Mr. McMahon intends to invite the various Boards of Trade, agricultural, industrial, commercial, financial, legal, railway, steamship and labor organizations and the larger towns to appoint representatives to attend a conference to be held in Moncton in the near future for the purpose of considering the best method of appointing the commission and raising the funds necessary to enable it to function.

Mr. McMahon's idea is that the various interests should each name a representative to act on the commission and points out that this is the only way to ensure that the work of the commission will have the interest and support of the public.

Under Development Association. The chairman of the commission will be appointed by the members of the commission elected by the various interests. The commission will function under the auspices of the Development Association and the expenses involved will be met by that body. The various Governments will be invited to contribute to the fund and the commission will be rendered jointly to the various Governments and to the association.

The Development Association will be continued after the work of the commission is completed to ensure that the recommendations made are given due consideration.

and today they are worth above 18 million. Will he now consent to their sale? Some people say that he will not. If he refuses on the grounds that national defence requires national ownership of the Persian oil-fields, just as the U. S. navy was driven to acquire its own oil reserves, then there may be an open rupture between the Premier and the Chancellor, with far-reaching political effects.

And the U. S. is in it, too! Those groups in the "City" which want the Government to sell its shares to the Shell Combine, assert freely that the Standard Oil Company is behind the opposition. They declare that the Standard Oil, in its anxiety to keep the Shell Combine from waning any greater, is sending out indirect propaganda against the sale.

English financial papers have already begun to discuss the issue, and it promises to be the paramount question of the day.

Goes To Bottom With Automobile Cargo

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 8.—The freighter Lakewood, bound for Indiana Harbor with a cargo of automobiles, sank 10 miles off Sturgeon Bay, it was announced by officials of the Inter-City Radio Telegraph Company here, who despatched aid to the crew after picking up an S. O. S.

The freighter left the Sturgeon Canal early in the morning suffering from a bad leak. Ten miles out the pumps refused to function properly, and she filled.

The Ann Arbor Railroad Ferry No. 6 stood by and took off the Lakewood's crew.

FUNDAMENTALISTS TO BE IN CONTROL

Important Presbyterian Conference Will Open in Chicago Tomorrow.

British United Press. CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Open condemnation of moderate religious training and its exponents, by the Presbyterian Church, was predicted by leaders arriving here today for the National Presbyterian Conference, which will convene tomorrow night for a four day meeting.

Dr. Clarence Edward McCartney of Philadelphia will sound the orthodox battle call in the keynote address of the conference. Dr. McCartney was a leader in the fundamentalist attack on Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick of New York that resulted in Dr. Fosdick's resignation, which becomes effective Mar. 1.

This controversy rocked the church to its foundation and a notable representation of fundamentalists are in attendance at the conference ostensibly to direct action intended to preclude the possibility of future revolts against orthodox Presbyterian teachings.

Bryan In Fight. William Jennings Bryan, vice-moderator of the church and a staunch fundamentalist will take his place in the ranks headed by Dr. McCartney in the fight to a finish on modernism.

Every parish in the nation is expected to be represented at the conference. Dr. William Cralmer Crook, rector of the First Presbyterian Church, Chicago, will preside.

The lineup of leaders as seen by those familiar with their tendencies is calculated to be overwhelmingly orthodox. If a group sympathetic to the cause of Fosdick masters additional strength, however, a floor fight on the question of evolution and other modernistic contentions is highly probable, in the opinion of observers.

The conference is confronted with all church business which has accumulated since the general assembly.

Decide on Budget. The conference will decide the amount of the benevolence budget for the entire church for the coming year to be expended in education and missionary work in the United States and abroad. This fund, which is fixed by the general council of the conference, will probably be $16,000,000, according to official estimates.

The promotion of the work of the individual church is among the objects of the conference programme according to Rev. Dr. Charles L. Overstreet of New York, executive secretary.

In Foreign Lands. Dr. Robert E. Sperry, New York senior secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will present a report tomorrow of the church's projects in foreign lands. He will also have charge of the morning worship and will speak at the closing popular service Friday night.

Former Moderator Rev. Henry Chapman Swearingen, St. Paul, Minn., will present the General Council's programme of organization tomorrow afternoon. "Christian Education" will be the theme of an address to be delivered by Dr. Covert tomorrow night.

Girl, With Court's Aid, Wins The Husband She Wished, Despite Mother's Complaint

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Antoinette Terocco's gray eyes wept, partly because she had been taken from her sweetheart and herself called incorrigible because she loved him, and partly because it looked much as though after all she would marry the man three times her age, her mother had picked out to marry her. And then, as if that weren't enough, it is dreary sitting in a police cell in a wedding gown, on the day you hoped to marry.

Something of this showed in a moisture in Antoinette's eyes as she walked in her wedding finery into the court room at St. George, Staten Island, to see whether the law would call her incorrigible, as her mother had because she refused to marry the man three times her age, her mother had picked out to marry her. And then, as if that weren't enough, it is dreary sitting in a police cell in a wedding gown, on the day you hoped to marry.

Magistrate Croak dismissed the charge against her. Every neighbor who testified declared Antoinette a good girl far more suited to Thomas than to Salvatore.

BACK TO LAND IS CRY IN ENGLAND

LONDON.—(By mail to United Press.)—"Back to the Land" is today's slogan in Britain.

The downward tide is ebbing. The swing of the pendulum is not a mere exit of week-enders, but a flow of metropolitans desiring to take up rural occupations. And a lot of the "Heavenly" lads and lassies brought to the cities by wartime work in the factories and the army are getting homesick.

"The industrial exodus from the towns is definite," says a report of a commission on development of village and rural life. "As more houses are built in the countryside its pace will increase."

Small country industries are being encouraged in order to absorb workers during the slack seasons of farm work.

Attempts Flight With $15,000; Shot

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 8.—Leon Edward Grow, 28, said to be the son of a well known Utah family, and great grandson of the builder of the Mormon Temple, was shot and killed after he attempted to escape with $15,000 in cash from the Kent National Bank at Kent, near here.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—That there is etiquette, if not honor, among things so gross, was evidenced in court here in the trial of John J. Slattery.

"Thank you," murmured Slattery when Judge Lewis J. Smith sentenced him to death for the murder of Ernest L. Whitman of the First National Bank of Bellmore, last April.

SPECIAL EVENTS MARK SUNDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Congregations at Centenary Methodist Celebrate Anniversary.

PASTOR'S FAREWELL

Rev. W. P. Dunham Goes to Hampton—Temptations of Youth.

Centenary held its 85th anniversary yesterday with Rev. E. Val Tilton, B. D., of Moncton Central Methodist church, preaching heart-searching sermons both morning and evening. Rev. Henry Penna, now a supernumerary of the church, assisted in the prayers and the announcing of the hymns.

The large choir, led by Miss Alice G. Hea, organist, furnished good music, the singing of The Te Deum, by Woodward, at the morning service being especially fine. The trio, by Mrs. L. M. Curran, Aubrey McKee and William Lanyon, was sung with fine expression. At the evening service the music was exceptionally well sung, the anthem being full of grand harmony.

World's Challenge. Rev. Mr. Tilton took for his morning text "He Knew What Was Man," the theme being "The world as Jesus saw it and its challenge for today." The speaker pointed out that Jesus saw what was in man but was neither a pessimist nor an optimist. He was a realist with a leaning toward optimism.

"If men had through the years sought earnestly to know God's will, the world would never have passed through the terrible world war," said the speaker.

He went on to show that when men were touched with God's spirit, as in the D. L. Moody revivals, they did not go far enough, but rested upon the first experience and so Christian development was dwarfed. Jesus saw above all the discouragements of His ministry "God," and today those who would be firm in their efforts to serve must see and know that above all is God.

Christ's Leadership. In the evening Rev. Mr. Tilton followed up the thought of the morning, looking at the text from the text from Hebrews 12:17. The theme was "The Emerging Leadership of Christ." In the things that can be stated or referred to (Continued on page 11.)

JUDGE REFUSES TO TRY LIQUOR CASE

Says He Had Good Times at Man's Place in His College Days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—Federal Judge Partridge has refused to preside at the trial of Dennis Heaferty, 88, charged with bootlegging. The judge in announcing he would transfer the case to another court said, "We used to have our parties at Dennis' place when I was a student at the University of California. One of the most famous parties ever given there was when Frank Norris, the author, then a student, published his first book."

According to Judge Partridge, Dennis never sold liquor, but a request for a bottle of catsup would bring a bottle of beer.

"New Brunswick and the Maritime Provinces generally should make better known their resources in the way of hunting and fishing through a publicity campaign that would undoubtedly attract hundreds of Old Country sportsmen to this country during the next few years," declared J. C. Campbell, director of publicity for the Department of Interior, who returned here early Sunday morning on the C. P. R. liner Minnetonka.

"The opportunity for development of tourist traffic between the Old Country and Canada is one that we should hasten to grasp at this time," continued Mr. Campbell, "and I think that starting next year we will see a great influx of tourists to Canada from Great Britain. I believe we should make special efforts to encourage tourist trade of this sort. The immigrant will always follow the tourist."

Says Wembley Good Ad.

Mr. Campbell was one of the Canadian Government officials in charge of the Dominion exhibit at Wembley. He reiterated the statement that the Canadian exhibit was by far the most elaborate at Wembley and declared further that this exhibit had gone a long way towards impressing upon the people of Great Britain the possibilities of Canada and to disabuse their minds of the idea that the Dominion was only a land of ice and snow.

An example of the benefits of advertising was shown in the tourist traffic that South Africa has been able to secure from the Old Country, Mr. Campbell explained. South Africa continued to advertise the hunting opportunities of that country, and as a result hundreds of big game enthusiasts flocked there annually.

"It requires a three weeks' trip by water to get from Great Britain to South Africa, and the opportunities for big game hunting are certainly not any greater than in the Maritimes, particularly New Brunswick," said Mr. Campbell, "and we have the added advantage that it requires but one week's trip by steamer to land the hunters in Canada."

Pictures Well Received.

According to Mr. Campbell the motion picture reels showing the possibilities of big game hunting, as well as the fisheries of the Maritime Provinces, made a big hit in England. These films were shown at the public or preparatory schools in England, and thus the advertising was circulated among the clientele most interested in tourist travel, he said.

"This preliminary work we did at Wembley will go a long way towards making Canada's resources better known in Great Britain," said Mr. Campbell. "We have numerous inquiries from prospective tourists regard-

In spite of his sixty-odd summers, he is enjoying himself immensely. It's forty years since he first learnt to dance, yet he is not a whit less agile now than he was then, and his zest has in no way diminished.

Everyone likes the dear old fellow, for his beaming face, kindly heart, and happy infectious laughter. Men younger than himself cannot but envy him his health, his popularity, his untiring vigour, his whole-hearted capacity for flinging himself into the joy of the dance and extracting every ounce of pleasure from it. They marvel that at his age he should always be fit and well.

What is it that makes him seem as young as the youngest there? It is the healthy Kruschen habit that he acquired years ago, and has always kept up. Every morning, in his breakfast cup of coffee or tea, he takes a pinch of Kruschen Salts—as much as will cover a 10 cent piece.

HALIFAX, Dec. 7.—Five Italian sailors from the French steamer Franca made a spectacular display of their objections to returning to their vessel Saturday when one gashed his wrist with a stiletto and two others jumped over the ship's rail into the icy harbor, as evidence of their avowed intention to commit suicide if forced to sail with the Franca.

The Franca came into port a week ago with the remains of a large liquor cargo brought from Hamburg, and reported having been unsuccessfully boarded by hi-jackers off Rum Row some days previous.

Desert Vessel.

While the vessel was in port five of the foreign sailors deserted and tried to make their way to the United States. Halted and detained by immigration officials they gave out an alarming tale of being shanghaied at Hamburg and treated brutally all the time at sea.

The two were fished out of the water with difficulty and the man with the self-inflicted wound was not seriously hurt. Before the ship sailed the captain reported that the men refused to work and offered to pay for their deportation, to which local authorities agreed.

The fact appeared to be somewhat battered, indicating that the man was apparently struck by the ship's propeller as he went into the water. CHATHAM, N. B., Dec. 6.—Earl McCarville, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCarville, today succumbed to burns which he received when scalded yesterday. The boy's mother had been washing and while he was absent from the house for a short time the child fell into a tub of boiling water on the floor. He was immediately rushed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital, but owing to the severity of the burns it was impossible to do anything to save the child's life.

A sad feature is that the child's father is in Quebec and so far it has been impossible to get into direct communication with him. He left here last week to work in the Quebec woods. Much sympathy is being extended to the family in their sad bereavement.

SPORTS NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

JIMMY COX, "FIGHTING RISHMAN," FORMERLY RESIDED IN ST. JOHN

Clever Welterweight Will Meet George Fifeild of Toronto in Local Armory Next Friday Night.

Although Friday night's big bout at the Armories will officially pit Canada versus the United States, there is a peculiar local interest in the United States entry. For the "Wild Irishman," now the pride of Worcester, spent part of his boyhood in St. John. Cox lived here with his parents, who were residents of St. John for about eight years. He was born in Ireland, his parents leaving the old sod to settle in Canada. From Canada they removed to the United States. For a time Cox represented New York in the ring, but for the past two years has been living in Worcester, with an exception of a very successful boxing tour of Great Britain.

GIBBONS-NORFOLK BOUT TOMORROW

St. Paul Boxer is a Strong Favorite Over the Negro Champion

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Two leading boxers who are tagged as undesirable in most of the managerial note-books, meet tomorrow night in the most important bout of the year.

Tom Gibbons, universally recognized as the best light-heavyweight in the world, will meet Kid Norfolk, the Negro champion, in Madison Square Garden in a contest promised as the most interesting match of the year.

Tex Rickard nearly fell in his chair as the Garden tower when he succeeded in making the match for the committee in charge of the bout.

For two years he had been trying to get a first-class opponent for Gibbons, and for the same length of time he had been trying to get some one who would be interested. Gibbons and Norfolk were too tough, Rickard was told in said talk.

Gibbons, next to Dempsey, is the least drawing card in the ring and the committee looked upon him as the best boxer available to make a sure financial success of the show. Gibbons accepted the offer which he was approached and agreed to fight anyone in the world.

Mike McTigue, Gene Tunney, Jack Remault, Louis Firpo and Harry Williams were offered the match and they turned it down. Rickard knew that to be fact, but it was not proved publicly until the New York Boxing Commission took a hand.

When the permission of the commission was asked to stage a Gibbons-Norfolk match on the ground that Norfolk was the only one who could be found to meet Gibbons, the commission suggested that it might be able to use its influence in getting a better attraction than Norfolk.

The commission summoned Williams, Remault and Tunney, as outstanding heavyweights, to a conference. "Those fellows all want to fight Dempsey, but they won't fight Gibbons," Rickard said before the conference.

The commission found that to be the situation. Williams declined on the ground that he hurt his hand in the Firpo fight and wouldn't be able to work for two months.

Remault said he had a sore thumb and couldn't accept the match although he didn't explain what effect the sore hand would have on a match against Romero-Rojas in Boston before the Gibbons date.

Tunney didn't show up at all and when he was approached later he said he would fight Gibbons, only after Gibbons had challenged him. The point being that Gibbons, as a challenger, would have to accept 12 1/2 per cent. of his share of the purse.

If Gibbons had challenged Tunney it is quite possible that Tunney would get a sore finger or that he would hide behind the rule giving him six months in which to accept the challenge.

Although he is one of the finest characters that has ever been connected with the boxing racket, Gibbons has been picked out for many attacks by managers of other boxers. Gibbons was penned all over the country for fighting set-ups. His defense that he couldn't get any one to fight him was laughed down as the bunk and a lot of book challenges were tossed at him.

When he went fifteen rounds against Dempsey and was strong enough to sprint almost a mile from the ring to his cottage, the mugs said that Dempsey had carried him. Anyone who really knows Dempsey knows that he wouldn't pull a punch against his other in the ring.

The real low-down on the Gibbons case was not shown until the commission tried to get an opponent for him. As a result of that attempt it is now a matter of public record that Williams, Remault, Tunney and Firpo are all findbaggers and that they have no just claim to a chance for the heavy-

O'DELL ELECTED HOCKEY CAPTAIN

Will Lead U. N. B. Sextette—Paul Fraser Awarded Special Distinction.

(Fredericton Gleaser). T. T. O'dell of St. Andrews, has been elected as hockey captain at the University of New Brunswick sextette for the 1925 season.

The election of a new captain was necessitated by reason of the ineligibility of Maurice Cain of Fredericton, who chosen by the members of the 1924 team at the close of last season in accordance with the constitution of the Amateur Athletic Association. Cain was disqualified from holding the position on account of failure to meet the scholastic requirements for eligibility in intercollegiate competitions.

The selection of the new captain took place at a meeting of the Amateur Athletic Association, when the names of Paul Fraser of St. John, football captain for 1924, Gordon McPhail of Woodstock, and O'dell were submitted in nomination. On the first ballot O'dell and Fraser were tied and McPhail eliminated. The general ballot was required, as no provision was made in the constitution of the association governing such a situation as that which had arisen through Cain's ineligibility.

Special Distinction Awards. Special distinctions for athletics have been awarded by the association to W. G. Jones, captain of the 1924 baseball team, Paul Fraser, vice-captain, and Guy D. Scott, member of the forward line, while ordinary distinctions have been awarded to the members of the intercollegiate football team as well as to Wightman, Kincaide and McCordick, who participated in exhibition games this season.

JOIE RAY WILL TRY A "COMEBACK"

Former National One-Mile Champion Hopes to Regain Laurels.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Joie Ray of the Illinois A. C., the former national one-mile champion, will make his first bid to regain his place at the head of America's middle distance runners when he toos the mark in the Rodman Wasmaker mile and a half race which will be one of the features of the two-night athletic carnival of the Millrose A. A. in Madison Square Garden Jan. 27 and 28.

Announcement that the famous runner would start in the event in which he has been a many-time winner, capturing one Wasmaker trophy outright, was made by officials of the Millrose organization.

Since the close of the last outdoor campaign which was the most disastrous experienced by the Illinois star in nearly ten years of competition, Ray has remained more or less in seclusion, enjoying a long and much-needed rest.

An aggravated case of tonsillitis which necessitated an operation early in the spring is generally conceded to have been the chief cause for Ray's many reversals last summer which included his poor showing in the Paris Olympic games and his defeat by American milers in the national one-mile championship in which he had been an eight-time winner.

According to reports received by local athletic officials, Ray, in recent light workouts, is beginning to show flashes of his old-time form and is as confident as ever that he will regain his former place at the head of America's middle distance runners.

ST. JOHN RIFLE CLUB HAS INDOOR SHOOT

The St. John Rifle Club started out Saturday night on the first indoor shoot of the season. The best part of the team was taken up sighting in new rifles and no record was made of all the scores made, although there were a few marksmen who scored 97.

Several members were admitted to the club. It was decided to have regular shooting every Saturday night, and the club intend to enter a team in the Dominion Rifle League.

City Rifle League. Plans are being formulated for a new organization, the City Rifle Club. This will comprise all rifle clubs in the city.

NEW SWIMMING RECORD. Canadian Press Despatch. STOCKHOLM, Dec. 7.—Arne Borg, the Swedish crack swimmer, covered 600 metres today in the world record time of 6 minutes 19.5 seconds. This beats the former record of 6:21.8, made by Johnny Weismuller, United States, in 1922. Borg's previous record was 6:30.

CRACK BRITISH ATHLETES RETIRE

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(By Canadian Press).—British athletics will be poorer next season for the absence of both H. M. Abrahams and Eric Liddell, winners of the 100 and 400 metres respectively at the Paris Olympic games this year.

Both of these sterling sprinters have definitely announced their retirement from active athletics, although there is a possibility of Abrahams turning his attention to the hop, step and jump events next season. Abrahams has been called to the Bar and is now attached to the North Eastern circuit.

MCMANAMA AND VAN KEMPEN WIN RACE

Reggie McManama of Australia and Pete Van Kempen of Holland won the annual six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden, which ended at midnight Saturday. They scored heavily in the closing stages and made a total of 107 points. Bobby Walthour Jr. and Franco Gergetti of Italy finished second.

Reports from Milwaukee today indicate that Mickey Walker, welterweight champion of the world, and Jock Malone of St. Paul, a middleweight, are ready for their 10 round no decision bout scheduled for tonight. This will be the second meeting of these boxers. In the first Walker was conceded a victory by sport writers.

HOREMANS WILL PLAY HAGENLACKER

Belgian Cue Star Accepts Challenge—Plans to Go West

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Eduard Horemans, the Belgian 182 ballkine champion, has accepted the challenge of Erich Hagenlacker, German champion, for a special 182 ballkine match. Horemans said that he was ready to play on the condition that a promoter would offer a suitable purse and that Hagenlacker place a side wager to go as part of the purse. Hagenlacker has assured two challenges to Horemans this season, and it was not until yesterday that Horemans showed any disposition to answer.

Horemans left for an exhibition tour through Pennsylvania, his first stop being Scranton. He plans to return here shortly before Christmas and said that he would be ready to play the match at that time. He has arranged to keep his schedule open until the second week in order to accommodate Hagenlacker.

"I never have received a direct challenge from Hagenlacker," Horemans said, "but I am aware that he wants to meet me. I am willing to play him any number of points and for any side wager he cares to post. I plan to start west in January and have so arranged my schedule that I will be in the vicinity of Chicago at the time of the international tournament. In the meantime, if Hagenlacker is serious, he can make an effort to get a promoter to bid for the match."

WILLIAMS MAY LEAD FREDERICTON TEAM

Successfully Coached Capital High School Hockey Sextette Last Season.

The expectation in hockey circles is that Archie Williams, who successfully coached the Fredericton High School team last season, will be manager of the Fredericton Hockey Club and will be placed in charge of Fredericton's team in the western section of the M. P. A. H. A. this winter, says the Fredericton Gleaser.

Negotiations towards such an arrangement have been going on for some time and some conferences have already been held between the prospective manager and some of the players, but matters have not been definitely concluded as yet—probably because of the regrettable accident which befell Manager Geo. M. Beatty of the Arctic Rink a week ago.

"We'll beat the train to it," cried the man at the wheel, stepping on the gas. The race was on. An Irishman, sitting in the rear seat, was appealed to for his opinion as to the outcome. "I don't know how it will come out," he replied. "We may beat the train or it may beat us. I don't care which. But pray Heaven, it don't be a tie."

MURRAY COUGLE IS SAVED FROM DEATH; THROUGH ICE INTO MARBLE COVE WATER

Rescuer, Named Vincent, Takes Him Home and Leaves Before Parents Have an Opportunity to Express Thanks.

Murray Cougle, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Cougle of Main street, was rescued from a watery grave in Marble Cove on last Saturday afternoon by a young man named Vincent. The boy had been sliding down a steep hill which extends from the rear of Douglas avenue to the cove, and then went on the ice. The thin layer supported his weight until he had gone out a considerable distance and then suddenly he was precipitated into the cold water.

Tries to Grip Ice.

He managed to get hold of the ice at the sides of the hole and pulled himself part way out, when he again fell back. Fortunately he had his arms extended and thus kept his head above water, but he was so weakened by his first efforts that he could not haul himself out. From that on he cannot remember what happened, and it is presumed that he was so number with the cold that he became semi-conscious. He cannot recall any person rescuing him, but remembers being with Mr. Vincent and going to his home.

Rescuer In Background.

At the time of the accident Mr. and Mrs. Cougle were in the city and did not learn about their son's narrow escape until they returned home. Mrs. Cougle's sister was at the house when Mr. Vincent brought her nephew in. In the excitement she neglected to ask him his address or details about the rescue, and thus the parents were a loss how to find the young man and thank him.

Mrs. Cougle said she had repeatedly warned her son not to go on the ice in Marble Cove, for she feared he might get drowned. Aside from a slight cold, he showed no ill effects from his experience.

He Witnesses Rescue.

A. D. Andrews, steward of the St. John Power Boat Club, was an eye-witness to the accident. He saw the little chap slide down the hill and start to walk out on the ice. He was only a short distance from shore when he broke through. The water at this place, Mr. Andrews estimated, would be about nine feet deep. The little chap kept his arms extended. Mr. Andrews started to the rescue, and saw a young man come running down the hill, throw off his coat and break through the ice until he was able to lean forward and take hold of the boy and carry him to shore.

GETS DORCHESTER SENTENCE, 3 YEARS

William Carvell, Youth, is Dealt With on Stealing Charge.

William Carvell, 18 years of age, was sentenced to serve three years in Dorchester penitentiary by Magistrate Henderson on the charge of stealing an electric testing radio set, valued at $83.75; a camera and case, valued at $25, and a set of steel letters, valued at $5, the property of John Dibble of the St. John infirmary. At the time the charge was read the defendant pleaded guilty and consented to the jurisdiction of Magistrate Henderson. He was then remanded in order that his record could be looked into.

This morning when he was brought before the magistrate he was asked how long he served in the Boy's Industrial Home and answered that he had been there for four years. He was informed that his term should have been beneficial and he should have come out better. Magistrate Henderson said he regretted that he would have to send him to Dorchester penitentiary, but under the circumstances felt that it was in the interests of justice and himself to send him there. He then announced the minimum term was two years and the maximum in this case seven. He would send him there for three years.

DEATH LIST HERE SAME IN 2 YEARS

A falling off in the number of births and marriages in the city is shown by the figures issued at the Board of Health office for the year ended Oct. 31, 1924 as compared with the records for the same period during the previous year. Coincidence is noted in the figures in that the deaths total exactly the same for both years, 733.

While the difference in the number of marriages is not large the totals being 463 for 1923 compared with 478 for this year there is a considerable margin in the number of births as 1,374 were recorded last year and only 1,249 for 1924, a decrease of 125.

RUSHTON TO HAVE TRIAL. Herbert Rushton, a former star wing player for the Springhill hockey team, is to be given a tryout with Art Ross' Bruins of Boston according to a report received in St. John. Hockey fans will recall that in 1923 Murray Jarvis, who was then manager of the St. John senior team, secured the services of Wade and Rushton to strengthen the local club for a game with the Halifax Wanderers. At that time Rushton was out of condition, due to a lack of practice, and he did not make so good a showing as expected. However, he is said to be in good trim now and the result of his tryout with the national hockey team in Boston will be watched with interest.
