WILDE'S PLUCK

CAPTURED FROM
It was Like the Passing of Nelson, the Durable Dane

Urged to Give Up Contest With Villa, He Waved Suggestion Aside and Stood Up to Opponent—He Gets About $60,000.

(Canadian Press.)

New York, June 19.—Jimmy Wilde yielded his title of world's champion flyweight boxer to Pancho Villa last night in a manner that the 40,000 who saw him do it will remember while they live. They were so captivated by the exhibition of gameness the little Welshman gave that for fully five minutes after it was over they sat there mostly quiet, waiting for him to open his eyes and come back to consciousness that he might hear the mighty roar that was his sincere tribute to a genuine fighting man.

Wilde heard the greeting of those lusty throats, though he could not see a person in the crowd, for both eyes were closed; he could not about once even a faint acknowledgment, for his mouth was swollen grotesquely. His arms were tired, but he lifted them as if to shake his aching head and went to his wife, who was waiting for him in his dressing room.

Wilde, an unheard-of Filipino more than a year ago, won because he obviously was the better man. Whether now, at his very best, he is a better man than "the mighty atom" he defeated, is a matter of debate. But he proved his superiority last night by wading in at the first going and hammering away until Wilde sank in a stupor.

Recall Nelson. Old-timers who saw the battle said it reminded them of the passing of the great Dane, who was so brave that he had to be counted out on his feet. Wilde was like that last night. Beaten to the point where the crowd asked that the punishment be stopped, he stopped himself or rather he yielded not an inch.

Wilde kept pressing forward, on, on, throughout the fight. In the first round his chances to hold his crown seemed good, but when the bell rang in the second he took a wallop on the chin that flattened him, and he never got over the daze. Villa wouldn't let him. Wilde was between when the round began, and he was the loser the rest of the way, but he didn't seem to know it until he woke up.

The glorious manner of his passing, the courageous way in which he waved aside requests that he stop and he saved the indignity of a knockout, dwarfed other aspects of the battle.

Mrs. Wilde saw her husband in what probably was his last fight. She sat in a row near the top of the saucerlike enclosure. When the round ended and she saw that the end must be soon she went down to his dressing room to wait and she received him there. Those who sat close to her saw her face never changed expression throughout the fight. When the thousands around her were asking that the fight be stopped, her voice was strong and clear.

"Well, it had to happen some time," was her comment. "We shall go home now and rest."

Wilde Gets $60,000. Jimmy received about $60,000, 37 1/2 per cent of the total receipts, and Villa about $20,000, 12 1/2 per cent. The total receipts were about $160,000.

Villa occupies a peculiar pugilistic position. Though world's champion, he is not the U. S. titleholder. He won the U. S. title from Johnny Buff and then lost it to Frankie Genaro. He was matched to meet Wilde instead of Genaro because Promoter Tom O'Rourke believed the Filipino to be the better drawing card. Genaro has been assured a match with the winner of last night's bout.

"I have nothing but admiration for Wilde," Villa said. "He was one of the best."

Lava Stream Blots Out Towns; 50,000 In Italy Homeless

MOUNT ETNA CONTINUES IN VIOLENT ERUPTION; VESUVIUS, TOO, IS ACTIVE

Three Places Wiped Out and Giarre, a City of 20,000, is Threatened—Sun Darkened by Clouds of Ashes, Cinder and Stones.

(Canadian Press.)

Catania, June 19.—The eruption of Mount Etna continues unabated. One stream of lava is now threatening Giarre, a city of about 20,000 inhabitants, at the base of the volcano, and the population is beginning to leave. About 50,000 persons have already been made homeless in the area surrounding Etna. The ashes, cinders and stones emitted by the volcano are so thick as to darken the sun.

Professor Ponzal, of the University of Catania, has gone to Etna to ascertain whether a new crater opened on the eastern slope is that which was active in 1870.

Cardinal Francisca-Nava, Archbishop of Catania, has communicated to the clergy in the stricken region the faithful and paternal interest of the Pontiff in the sufferings of the population. He has also received instructions to do all he can in relieving the refugees.

Rome, June 19.—Gibriele Carnazza, Italian minister of public works, has gone to the devastated region around Mount Etna to assist in caring for the thousands who have been made homeless by the mighty mountain's eruption. Despatches early today added nothing of importance to the tale of destruction done by the volcano. Hope was expressed that Linguaglossa, which at one time yesterday appeared to be doomed by the lava stream, was out of danger. Three little towns, Piccolo, Pallamelia and Perlo, have been completely wiped out.

Refugees are pouring into Catania from the little communities that lie almost in the shadow of the mountain, and the city is doing its utmost to make the refugees comfortable. Some of those arriving from the menaced region last evening reported a continuance of the earth shocks that announced the first great outpouring of lava.

Eye-witnesses of the eruption say that not only did the lava stream of Etna break into activity, but five tall fissures appeared in the northeastern side of the volcano, contributing to the flow of lava upon the forests and fruit groves that clothed the lower slopes of the mountain. Much valuable timber, in addition to the orange and lemon orchards, has been destroyed.

Vesuvius Growing. Mount Vesuvius continues moderately active, emitting much steam and lava. This, it is remarked, is unusual for when Etna is active, Vesuvius is ordinarily quiet, and vice versa.

LATER. Rome, June 19.—The wave of lava from Mount Etna is reported advancing steadily toward Linguaglossa. Lava is flowing across the railway and has reached a point only a few hundred yards from the town. Castiglione also is menaced. The violence of the eruption is increasing.

The Minister of Public Works left Rome for Catania today to visit the places damaged or threatened.

LAVA STREAM FIFTY FEET DEEP. Rome, June 19.—King Victor Emmanuel is to leave for Sicily to inspect the arrangements made for taking care of the thousands made homeless. The lava stream threatening Giarre is two kilometers wide and fifty feet in depth.

Some Requests of U. S. Postal Clerks. El Paso, June 19.—(Associated Press.)—Dust stirred by Don Juan Onate on his way to settle Santa Fe more than three centuries ago will be on the brows of delegates here to attend the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks' convention September 3 to 7. Every state in the union will be represented.

Congress may be asked to increase the pay of postoffice clerks, if the high cost of living does not go down in the meantime, according to officials of the federation who are here making arrangements for the convention. Other legislation which will come up for consideration includes:

Credit for one hour for each 45 minutes worked at night. Double time for Sundays and holidays. An annual vacation of 30 days. Although the federation now has seven vice presidents, it is said the rapid growth of the organization demands the addition of four to eight more and this question will be voted on. Under the present rules the large cities, such as New York and Chicago, are entitled to a maximum of five delegates and as many votes, while a postoffice with half a dozen men may have one delegate and one vote. The larger cities are asking for a different basis of representation.

OTTAWA GOLFER MAKES "HOLE IN ONE." Ottawa, June 19.—Ottawa now has a golfer qualified as a member of the "Hole in One" Club. Playing over the River Mead course yesterday, Harry W. Skinner of that club, cupped the ball in a masher hole on the 18th green, a distance of 146 yards.

VERY WARM AND FIRE MARCH IN PROVINCE GROWS

Fredericton Has 88 in Shade, Country Parched

Reports from Several Sections—Situation in Quebec Has Improved—Timmins in Ontario Threatened.

(Canadian Press.)

Fredericton, N. B., June 19.—The forest fire situation in New Brunswick today is entirely dependent on wind and dry weather, it was said this morning. It is feared that similar conditions will be repeated in New Brunswick as in Quebec, where fires in the vicinity of Alexis have been reported to have broken out again following a dry spell.

A crew of fire fighters sufficient in numbers to extinguish the Libby Brook fire in the Miamachi district was reported to have reached that blaze, which has covered twenty-five acres. It was said today that the crews in charge of this fire would be removed until rains have fallen and relieved the general menace.

The action of the department of lands and mines in prohibiting forest traveling in the northern part of the province is receiving general approval. With the first heat wave of the summer, the temperature having reached 88 degrees in the shade at noon today here, the forest fire situation in New Brunswick is regarded as growing more threatening. Once more the province is in a thoroughly parched condition. Fortunately there is little wind today.

No further word has been received from the fire on Nepisiguit and conditions in Madam's Brook and near St. Quentin are considered satisfactory. The hot weather of the last two days, with wind however, makes conditions most favorable for fires, and the department is on the watch.

The south of the province has escaped any serious fire, so far, but the conditions are again becoming threatening. Care is advised on the part of all.

The big fire which extended from Redwood to the Nepisiguit, is thought to have covered thirty miles, on a frontage of six miles, and is 125 square miles, which gives an idea of the terrible destructiveness of the fire. It is possible that all the territory has been burned, and that there are really two fires, with unburned land between them.

Quebec, June 19.—The forest fire situation in Quebec was reported as having improved this morning. It was greatly improved this morning. The fire in the vicinity of the Abitibi was the only section where new forest fires had been reported and generally all the other fires were under control.

In Temouca where the fire caused enormous losses, the South Shore Protective Association was informed that the improvement of some land but the conditions are still menacing on account of the drought.

From Riviere du Loup comes the news that already material for the reconstruction of the destroyed villages of Sully and Les Etroits is available and that in two months the necessary shanties will have been erected. The destruction of the Sully parish church is said to mean a loss of more than $100,000, with no insurance carried.

After several days of worry, relatives of residents of the townships of Temouca were advised today that no loss of life had taken place. The damage done by the fire is estimated at several million. 400,000 acres have been burned over in a month as compared with 600,000 all last year.

Timmins Threatened. Timmins, Ont., June 19.—Reports received last night told of serious forest fires threatening the town of Timmins from the south and southwest. Gangs of men were out all day yesterday and last night fighting the fires. Rain is badly needed throughout the entire district, but the prospect is reported to be good.

International Falls, Minn., June 19.—Fanned by a stiff breeze which at times assumed the proportions of a gale, peat fires in this vicinity got beyond control yesterday, and working into the mixed timber growth, have placed this section face to face with a new forest fire danger. Almost the entire population of International Falls last night was scattered along the fire lines.

The fires broke out first in the neighborhood of Manitowish west of here and swept by the strong wind soon were on the outskirts of the town. The post office and one other building were burned to the ground before the fire could be shunted around the town. No rain has fallen in this vicinity for several weeks.

NEW YORK MAYOR FAILS TO ACCEPT FIGHT CHALLENGE

Hylan an Comptroller Craig Have Spirited Battle, But It Ends With Words.

New York, June 19.—Comptroller Craig yesterday challenged Mayor Hylan to a fist duel, but failed to get an acceptance. The challenge was marked at the weekly meeting of the board of estimates, which almost invariably is the scene for caustic debates between the two officials.

Yesterday's clash was more heated than usual, the Mayor and the Comptroller calling each other liars. The trouble started during a discussion of sewer assessments, the Mayor referring to a remark made by the Comptroller, saying:—"Your statement shows what kind of a liar you are."

"You can't call me a liar," shouted the Comptroller. "You are a liar," the Mayor insisted. "Now I ask you to step outside," yelled Mr. Craig, leaping to his feet. "We can settle it in the hall."

Hauled back into his seat by other board members, Mr. Craig cried: "I say you are a dirty liar when you say what you do."

The gist of a remark about the Mayor's "friends" down in Wall street was lost in the ensuing uproar.

After the Mayor had called the Comptroller a liar once more and the Comptroller had failed to get action on a motion to adjourn "to give me a chance to make good," presumably with his fists, the excitement simmered down and business was resumed.

(Special to The Times.) Ottawa, Ont., June 19.—Building permits in New Brunswick during May this year, showed a considerable decrease as compared with the same month last year, according to the monthly report just issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The estimated cost of building work as indicated by building permits for May, 1923 was $119,555, as compared with $308,585 for the same period last year, with $114,850 for April 1923.

"Hiram," cried The Times reporter breathlessly to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I have had a thrilling and altogether startling experience."

"Well," said Hiram, "if it made you turn a hair it must have been something fierce. You newspaper fellows don't often get that way."

"I know it," said the reporter. "But this was so unexpected—so utterly unexpected—'T is in's' queried Hiram.

"No," said the reporter—"not yet."

"I think you are," said Hiram—"an to Doc Anglin—an the police. It might be all right for an old crier like me to take a feller up in my wagon—but for the proud owner of a limousine to pick one up inated o' rinning him down is against all reason an' all the rules—By Hen!"

Lancelotti's body was found in the woods, a razor and automatic pistol beside it. He had been cut and shot in several places.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH SO MANY COMPLEXIONS? Body ills are often due to a wrong diet—indeed, what we eat has largely to do with good or bad health. But there is one disorder that we can definitely trace to faulty food, a pimples or erupted skin. Even beauty culturists admit the cure must come from within—balms, lotions, ointments being external agents to relieve but not to banish.

Especially in summer, must the diet be watched. White flour, meats, sweets and refined cereals are "Excess Acid," and "Excess Acid" foods cause acid blood. Acid blood is the direct cause of unsightly complexions.

Roman Meal is the natural corrective of this skin condition, because it is the richest in alkalis of any grain product. In fact, it is the only alkaline grain product now sold. This is because it contains the dark flour from three whole grains, and the dark flour is the part of grain that carries these alkalis. The white, dainty, refined flour and cereals have these mostly refined away, hence acid blood and unsightly skin conditions. In hot weather, acid foods are especially baneful to the skin, because the skin is then so active in throwing off blood acids through the sweat glands.

Roman Meal corrects blood acidity, soothes, heals, and clears the skin. For hot weather, try cold BROSIO, CHOCOL-O, JELL-E, made with Roman Meal, are especially delightful. With milk, cream, whipped cream, honey, preserved or fresh fruits they are all hot-day treats made in ten minutes. Prevents indigestion, relieves constipation. All grocers.

Independence of Hydro Commission Urged By Mr. Yates

That the civic hydro commission as at present constituted was too large for the efficient transaction of business and that it lacked that degree of independence essential to its functioning with dispatch was the statement made yesterday by P. B. Yates in an address before the members of the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday.

Mr. Yates was convinced, he said, that the distribution system could be built at the estimated cost of $600,000; that a market awaited the full capacity of Musquash and that there was no reason why the civic project should not be a complete success. To attain the greatest degree of success, however, businesslike management was essential, and he felt that it could not be attained under the present cumbersome system.

In his introductory remarks Mr. Yates referred to his experience in hydro-electric matters in Ontario, remarking that he had been connected with the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission since February, 1908, and as engineer in charge of the municipal department had surveyed a great many municipalities to determine their market for power and had estimated the costs of the distribution systems. On this account he felt justified in giving an opinion in these matters.

The city, he said, was building a system at an estimated cost of $600,000. It was quite an investment, quite an undertaking, quite a proposition to make pay. From experience he was convinced that the system could be constructed at the estimated cost. There would, of course, be developments and extensions as the market expanded. These, however, would be looked after out of the earnings, the extensions being made to pay their own way.

Big Market Awaits Development. The market was here in this city for a large amount of power. In the city and vicinity 12,000 horse power was being generated by steam or otherwise by the N. B. Power Co.

The facilities for hydro-electric power at low cost would develop a still larger market. There should be no difficulty in getting all the load that could be carried. Steam power could not compete with water power in the long run. The city now had 8,000 consumers signed. Many more could be signed and others were ready to sign so soon as the power was available. Success depended on good construction, management and business like administration. The proposition was a big one and must be handled in a big way. He was used to seeing such things handled by a small commission of business men.

High School Closing In The Imperial. It has been decided to hold the High School graduating exercises this year in the Imperial theatre on the morning of June 29 from 11 o'clock until 12:30.

The change was made so that more people might have an opportunity of attending. The accommodations at the High School auditorium of late years have become inadequate. W. H. Golding, manager of the theatre, has spared nothing in making arrangements and said last night that the management would be glad to co-operate with the High School authorities for the holding of the exercises there as long as was desired.

The arrangements for the exercises have been in the hands of the principal of the High School, W. J. S. Myles, and a committee of the school board consisting of Hon. H. A. McKeown, G. H. Green and H. Colby Smith, in cooperation with Mr. Golding.

Seating Arrangements. It has been planned to have the members of the graduating class who will number in the vicinity of 100, seated on the stage of the theatre and members of seats will be provided, similar to the seating plan arranged for the Paulist choristers. The members of grade XII will be seated in one of the boxes. A section of the auditorium will be ribboned off and will be reserved for the accommodation of the other pupils of the High School numbering about 400, who will march to the theatre from the school building.

The famous list of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Association's examinations held recently was announced last night as follows:—General subjects, W. B. Campbell, Sussex; J. R. Miller, Hartland; Henry Surlet, Moncton; C. A. Steele, St. John; Howard Smith, St. John.

A simple compound is reported to have been perfected that will counteract the effect of poison gas.

A GREAT ASSET.

President C. C. Avard of Sackville urges every citizen to join the New Brunswick Tourist Association. He asks those who live in the country and are prepared to accommodate summer visitors to send particulars to Secretary C. B. Allan.

A WARNING EXAMPLE.

Of the total population of the United States, 33 per cent. is of alien birth or of those with one or both parents foreign born. We are told further that the various states are spending about $21,000,000 annually for the care of foreign-born defectives of all types, and this element, combined with the inmates of foreign stock in the second generation, comprises 44 per cent. of the whole institutional population of the country.

British Columbia is said to find tourist traffic more profitable than its fisheries. This is an amazing statement and one to attract universal attention. Discussing the question of tourist business in general the Financial Post says:

Some provinces and states are organized for tourist traffic, and they are reaping the harvest. The State of Maine is estimated to have $45,000,000 a year spent by tourists and sportsmen. Quebec province was shown in this column recently, is organizing in a big way for still greater trade.

The times has referred in former issues to what Nova Scotia and Quebec are doing to attract tourists. New Brunswick is not able to do much this year, and the tourist season is now on. Next year should find this province early in the field and with a policy clearly in the field and with a policy ready to get results.

A LIVE QUESTION.

In his address before the Rotary Club yesterday Mr. P. B. Yates referred to a matter with which the citizens must soon deal. Now that civic operation of hydro is settled, the question of permanent administration must be discussed and settled. It is perfectly obvious that we cannot indefinitely have a Civic Commission subject to a hold-up at any and every turn by the City Council or one of its members.

Prof. Robert M. Yerkes, who was in charge of the U. S. Army mental test, says: "The results justify the belief that a country which encourages, or even permits, the immigration of simple-minded, uneducated, diseased or criminal persons because it needs cheap labor seeks trouble in the shape of public expense. It might almost be said that whoever desires high taxes, full sidewalks, a constantly increasing number of schools for defectives, of correctional institutions, penitentiaries, hospitals and special classes in our schools should by all means work for unrestricted and non-selective immigration."

All through the period when she was traveling herself as the refuge of the downtrodden and the outcast and the seekers after freedom the United States was sowing seeds of national degeneration. Upon reading such statements as those here quoted one is not surprised that today our neighbors have a problem of assimilation that baffles solution. We in Canada have erred to some extent in the same way in our eagerness to get settlers; but hereafter the mental test for immigrants should be applied with a determination not to lower the mental standard of the Dominion.

Mr. J. E. Ray, Canadian Trade Commissioner in Manchester, lays his finger on one of the troubles of the Maritime Provinces. It is lack of capital to develop industries and an export trade for which there is opportunity. Money from these provinces has been flowing west for many years, but the capitalists in the larger provinces have not deemed it worth while to turn their thoughts this way or regard these provinces as other than a market for the protected products of their own region.

Opposition to pasteurized milk is opposition to the highest medical authority and to that which it has been clearly proved will reduce infant mortality. Money from these provinces has been flowing west for many years, but the capitalists in the larger provinces have not deemed it worth while to turn their thoughts this way or regard these provinces as other than a market for the protected products of their own region.

When Mrs. Arthur Connolly, of Toronto, saw an auto with two men in it crash through a wire fence and fall down an embankment to the G. T. R. tracks, she grabbed a bottle of peroxide with one hand and a pillow of the clothes line with the other and rushed to the rescue. After bandaging the men's cuts she flagged an approaching train with the remnants of the cloth. The photo above shows Mrs. Connolly and the spot where the accident occurred.

JUNE.

Somehow or other to me it just seems The month that approaches nearest my dreams Is June. The fairest of days, the finest of nights, The fulfillment of hopes and fancy's flights, Is June. The month of flowers, of birds and of brides, Bugs and mosquitos and fishing beside.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

Two little boys were playing one spring day when Johnnie said to Willie: "Let's play you get down and wallow in the mud, and I will sit upon the fence and yell." "Willie thought that would be a good game, so he wallowed about in the mud for a while, then, thinking he would like a change, he said: "Now you be the pig and wallow in the mud and I will sit upon the fence and yell."

THE BANFF-WINDERMERE HIGHWAY.

The formal opening of the Banff-Windermere highway across the central Canadian Rockies on June 30 next will mark the completion of a notable achievement in the history of western engineers. The new highway opens up the glories of the rich scenic region which lies within the Banff and Kootenay national parks, which includes the famous resorts of Banff and Lake Louise.

De Courville's Losses Included $16,000 on "Hullo Canada." London, May 27.—(By mail).—A sitting was appointed to be held in the Bankruptcy Court yesterday, before Mr. Registrar Hope, for the public examination of Mr. Albert de Courville, theatre manager, who was adjudged bankrupt on December 8 last. A statement of the bankrupt's affairs had been lodged showing liabilities of $71,565 and assets valued at $220.

"TIGER" TIM HEALY.

It never mattered to "Tim" Healy whether he struck friend or foe. He owed his opportunity and his rapid advancement to Parnell, and when Parnell came under even the "Tiger" Healy was the first to desert him. He cooked his goose with one of his biting epigrams. "Tim" put the finishing touch to Parnell's political career with "Parnell has hung to the breeze his standard—the petticoat of Kitty O'Shea."

BOTULISM EPIDEMICS.

Botulism is due to a poison secreted by certain species of bacteria that are common in some parts of the United States and Canada, but that seem to be nearly harmless unless they are given a chance to produce their poison in foods that have been imperfectly preserved and have been sealed in air-proof receptacles. They cannot live within the animal body and consequently cannot produce their poison there.

CAMPS ALONG THE ROAD.

The new road, which was built by the engineering division of the Canadian Parks Branch of the Department of the Interior, is 125 miles long and runs throughout the entire distance through wild and extremely mountainous country, crossing two mountain ranges in its length. This is virgin country where many of the peaks as yet have not even been named and owing to the absence of towns other settlements, special provisions for the needs of the motorist had been necessary.

HOW TO LIVE.

(London Public Opinion.) At Lincoln last week Mrs. Jane Lister, England's oldest inhabitant, died at the age of 107. The deceased lady maintained all her faculties to the end, and on the occasion of her birthday in February entertained friends to tea. She last year refused an offer of £100 a week to appear on the stage.

NURSING AS A PROFESSION.

(Buffalo Courier.) Today nursing is the second most popular profession for American women. There are 168,868 graduates engaged in the work, and more than 80,000 preparing for it in training schools. These students outnumber the students in all the medical colleges and the women students in all American colleges. Only a few days ago the place of nursing was still more stably fixed by the announcement of Yale University's plans for establishing a training school.

From Sir Basil Thomson, former head official of Scotland Yard, we have received the following statement made in regard to automobiles in comparison with congested conditions in the latter country: "In England the number is drastically regulated by an annual tax of $5 per horsepower, which amounts in the case of a Ford car to $110 a year—nearly one-third the value of the car. Automobile owners in England have also to pay anywhere from 50 to 60 cents a gallon for their gasoline, and the automobile is therefore beyond the means of a poor man. The police in large cities are quite obtuse about parking and owners who ride to their offices in automobiles have to take a chauffeur with them to bring the car back."

ANTI-RUM FORCES REPORT PROGRESS IN ARGENTINA. Buenos Aires, May 14.—(A. P. by mail).—The Rosario branch of the Argentine Anti-Alcoholic League has made notable progress, according to Dr. Benito Velasco, president of the institution, who told his hearers at a crowded meeting in Rosario recently that the wave of alcoholism, so noticeable all over the world since the close of the war in Europe, had threatened Argentina, but that thanks to the efforts of the league it was being successfully combated in the great cities of the republic. He cited statistics to show that drunkenness was on the decrease and urged his hearers to continue the work of propaganda which had proved so beneficial in this respect. THRILLS AND PEALS OF LAUGHTER MIX

Harold Lloyd's Latest Comedy "Safety Last" at Imperial Keeps Audience in Uproar.

Imperial Theatre's orchestra—fourteen men strong though it is—was absolutely drowned out last evening at both crowded shows by the shrieks and excited laughter of men and women as Harold Lloyd pulled the most remarkable series of thrilling stunts ever recorded by a camera. The vast assemblage of people simply screamed with tingling fear and fun as the expected comedian climbed from storey to storey of the twelve-floored building and met with heart-stopping adventure every few moments. Of all the pictures shown in St. John this is the thrilling and—well, some people couldn't stand the strain, they left the building to forget it.

The Imperial's thrill comedy is mostly twelve stories above the street. Clinging to the side of the building, two-thirds of the way up, with a dozen pigeons roosting on his head is Harold Lloyd. The crowd below, amused but frightened, watch breathlessly while the comedian continues his upward climb, overcoming the most difficult and hilarious obstacles.

And what a comedy! Never has an audience given voice to such uncontrollable laughter. There have been riotous two-reel comedies produced in the past by master comedians, but never before has one been seen in seven reels that moved at such a fast pace.

How Harold Lloyd performs his thrill stunts is a mystery. It is certain that he did them himself, for his face is seen plainly in every hazardous predicament he encounters. When a young man attempts to climb the side of a twelve-storey building in the place of a real "human fly" and meets hilarious trouble every foot of the way up the result is a continuous run of uproarious laughter.

But the comedy is not all thrills. There is a real story—a beautiful story with pretty little Mildred Davis—now Mrs. Harold Lloyd—the young lady in the case. We don't like to tell too much of it, but Mildred is the cause of everything—as has been with women through the ages. The first scenes of the comedy take place in a department store, in the Big City, where Harold has gone to make his fortune. His trouble commences when the girl, thinking he has acquired a fortune already, comes to town to marry him. And what a time Harold has! The haughty floor-walker in the store glares while Harold tries to get his lady love out of the building and at the same time pretend to her that he is the General Manager. But I must not give away too many secrets.

As the Boy, Harold Lloyd is at his best, he has a huge bag full of new tricks up his sleeve and a recklessness in facing danger that is amazing. Mildred is sweetness personified. Then there is Noah Young, well remembered

AT QUEEN SQUARE

Jimmie Evans and Company Begin the Fifth Week of Sprightly Entertainment.

Jimmie Evans' popular musical revue opened its fifth week last evening in Queen Square Theatre, to a capacity house, and scored another big hit in one of the best bills yet. The programme included a long list of specialties, all of which were well received. Jimmie Evans and Sam Lewis were as funny as ever, and kept the audience in an uproar. Burt Ryan, as usual, scored in putting over two excellent numbers. Danny Cavanaugh, assisted by the chorus, received several encores with "Down the Old Church Lane." Miss Florence Phipps also scored with one of her good violin selections, Roy Ellis sang "Carolina in the Morning," and also gave a dance. Mr. Elter, as usual, scored with his dancing, which will not be a new act. Gus Nelson, a popular comedian with this company, also came in for her share of applause. She had to respond to several encores. Miss Jolyne and Miss Whitney offered a double toe dance which was one of the features of the show. Jimmie Evans and Danny Cavanaugh stopped the show with their "Kitty Fraser." Miss Parr added much to the musical excellence of the bill. Special mention should be made of the chorus. The music, scenery and costumes were the best yet. The same play will be offered tonight and Wednesday with a complete change of programme for the last three days of the week.

THE UNIQUE

Zane Grey Story, "Golden Dreams" and Other Good Subjects.

Beauty in distress, noble purposes, unadorned honesty, villainy at first triumphant, but later brought low, are the elements that make the exciting Benjamin B. Hampton-Goldwyn production "Golden Dreams," at the Unique.

The story is by Zane Grey, and the setting is a mythical Spanish state in America. The leading characters, however, are Americans. "Golden Dreams" is excellent melodrama. It carries conviction, is excellently directed, and was acted as an unusually good cast. The leading woman's part is played by the beautiful Claire Adams; while the hero's trials and joys fall to the lot of Carl Gauwroort, a two-fisted fighter and a double-armed lover. Bertram Grassby is a finished young villain, adroit and abetted in his crimes by Frank Leigh. They are a hard combination to beat. Mme. Rose Dione, the former protegee of Mme. Sarah Bernhard, plays an important role with unusual distinction and dramatic power. "The Valley of the Missing," a two-reel feature, tells a clear cut story of the Canadian Northwest. "The Detective" featuring Jimmy Aubrey, a popular Vitagraph comedian, piles up laughs by way of thrills in his very latest comedy. The whole programme offers capital entertainment.

CLIMATIC EFFECT ON HUMAN HEALTH

Report Made on Interesting Experiments With Ultra-Violet Light.

London, May 21.—(By mail)—There has assuredly never been a time in human history when men and women were not conscious of the great effect of the state of the weather on their feelings and temperaments. Strangely enough, however, it has proved a difficult task to relate such sensations to actual, measurable, or demonstrable weather conditions.

For this reason very great interest attaches to a series of experiments described in the annual report of the Lister Institute, which has just been published. Some time ago in Vienna, while working on the influence of light on rickets with Dr. Chick, Miss Margaret Hume made the observation that ten minutes' daily exposure to ultra-violet light enabled rats to grow normally for some two months when denied of fatty food—i. e., of the so-called Vitamin A.

Miss Hume subsequently made what is described as the "rather astounding" discovery that it is not necessary that the rays of the ultra-violet light should fall directly on the rats. If empty jars were irradiated and the rats introduced to them immediately afterwards the same beneficial effect upon growth was secured.

In other words, the air in the jars derived from the rays some quality which it gave out later on to the rats, enabling them to remain healthy and to grow. This observation obviously required careful confirmation, and new

Giant of the Ocean Away From Boston Today on a Special Trip To Cuba

Ship is well named—The Leviathan, shown in dock for renovation which has just been completed.

The Leviathan to Take Two Hundred Guests on Trial Trip Cruise After Being Re-fitted at Cost of Millions—The Story of the Huge Steamship—Splendidly Fitted—Some of the Supplies She Carries.

(Associated Press.)

Boston, Mass., June 19.—The Leviathan, the world's largest liner, rebuilt and refurnished at a cost of $2,000,000, is to sail on her trial trip to Cuba today. With flags flying and whistles blowing the great ship will steam down the harbor with 200 guests of the United States Shipping Board, on one of the most luxurious trips ever made.

FACTS ABOUT THE LEVIATHAN. Launched "Vaterland," Hamburg, 1914. Troopship "Leviathan," U. S. N. 1918. Carried 200,000, one trip 13,000. Rebuilt, Newport News, Va., 1922. up-to-date kinds of equipment. The linen, the china, the glassware and cooking utensils are counted by the thousands and tens of thousands. To take care of the baking for the 5,000 passengers and crew there are four complete bakeries. With all these luxuries and all this service the lucky two hundred will sail for Cuba surrounded by stewards and mechanical devices which will extract from life every need for effort. The day will be one round of pleasure or pleasure seeking, unadorned by any necessity to do anything but walk from stateroom to deck, from deck to dining room, from dining room to palm garden or smoking room. For amusement there will be swimming, deck games, dancing, card playing and making trips to the engine rooms to look at the rough bunks, cramped close together, which served the doubloons on their way to France, are large bedrooms furnished in homelike comfort or combination, with their own wardrobe and thick carpets. There is nothing left to bring back to memory the days when camouflage, sped stealthily out of the harbor, lying low in the water with the weight of human freight. A Ritz-Carlton restaurant will serve those who prefer not to enter the common dining saloon, which itself is far beyond that of the ordinary ship in splendor. Also, cabins can be obtained with private breakfast rooms. A tea room furnished in Queen Anne, with old English color prints by Morland and others, will serve as a retreat during the hot part of the late afternoon when the patrons have come up from the tiled swimmingpool. An orchestra will furnish music for those who want to dance, while others can go to the oak paneled comfortable lounge and savor iced drinks, lemonade and soda. Here cards and making up a pool on the day's run will occupy the time until dinner. Those who go on the Ritz-Carlton will find a restaurant furnished in the style of the empire. All the woodwork is of carved mahogany, the ornaments of cut metal in a dull-old gold finish, the chair coverings of plum color and old gold. Under all this magnificence, this quiet luxury are the great turbines, oil burners of 60,000 normal horsepower and an emergency horsepower of 100,000. There are four shafts, working at 248 pounds pressure from 46 boilers, 124 ventilating systems, 312 pumps, a plant to run 15,000 electric lamps and two emergency lighting systems. In the seven galleys are the most over the turbines and annoy the engineers. Among the stores carried to feed crew and patrons on a single trip are: 100,000 eggs, 600 boxes of apples, 15,000 pounds of butter, 20,000 pounds of preserves, 20,000 pounds of cabbage, 12,000 quarts of milk, 156,000 pounds of fresh meat, besides tons of tobacco, tea, coffee, fruit and other supplies.

Scuttled Warships Will Be Salvaged

Definite Arrangements Made to Begin Operations at Scapa Flow. Glasgow, May 31.—(By mail)—Definite arrangements have now been made to begin salvaging operations shortly at Scapa Flow, where the German fleet was scuttled in June, 1919. A. G. McBean, B. A., Glasgow, has carried through the purchase from the Admiralty of a portion of the sunken fleet on behalf of a company, headed by J. W. Robertson, convener of the County of Zetland, who is to direct the salvaging operations. The vessels sunk, it will be recalled, comprised ten battleships, five battle cruisers, five light cruisers, and twenty-nine destroyers, their total tonnage being 416,000 tons. All the destroyers, it is contended, can be floated and broken up, but the raising of the capital ships, with the exception of the mighty Hindenburg and the Seydlitz, would not be a commercial success, as in practice they would sink in less than 24 hours, an impossible depth for salvaging unless tremendous sums of money were expended.

When a patrolman questioned her she is alleged to have admitted that, in a huff, she drank the iodine after she quarreled with her husband's mother, Mrs. Hale Edwards, who lives next door.

JURY DRINKS, THEN CONVICTS

Consumes Nearly Entire Quart of Newark Liquor Evident. New York, June 19.—A jury doubting the Government's analysis of liquor used as evidence against three defendants drank nearly a whole quart of Scotch whiskey to "confirm" the analysis before returning a conviction before Federal Judge Charles F. Lynch of Newark. It was a bottle of imported Scotch. The jurors retired to sample the liquor. When they filed out the bottle was nearly full. When they returned it was nearly empty. But the jurors were convinced it was liquor, for they returned a verdict of guilty against Harry Linden, Chester Philbrook and Ross L. Coode of Highlands, N. J., who were arrested last March 29 in a liquor-licensing motor boat off Sandy Hook.

PIANO RECITAL

Miss Jean McLaughlin and Miss Helen Morgan, two pupils of Miss Muriel McIntyre, were heard in a piano recital yesterday afternoon in the Northern piano room in Germania Hall. They were greatly delighted that those who were privileged to be present. Their sympathetic and brilliant interpretations of the difficult and varied compositions which composed the pleasing programme reflected high credit both on their own talent and on their teacher. Their memorizing was perfect and their touch delicate and firm. The members of the audience extended heartfelt congratulations to pupils and instructor. Miss Audrey Mullin, as singer, and Miss Marjorie Johnson, graduate of Mount Allison Ladies' College of Oratory, assisted the pianists and their numbers were enthusiastically received. Miss Mullin is a gifted singer and Miss Johnson has rare and most pleasing power of expression. Hearty applause was given each number and the applause was well merited. At the close of the programme refreshments were served and the two pianists and their teacher, Miss McIntyre, were assisted in leaving by Miss F. Dunlavy and Miss M. Haysward.

FOSTER REFUTES UNFAIR CRITICS OF THE LEAGUE

Points Out That League Has Succeeded in Settling Disputes in Several Instances Where Council of Powers Failed. (Canadian Press.) Ottawa, June 18.—Defending the League of Nations from the criticism that it had been a failure, Sir George Foster, who presided at the afternoon session of the annual meeting of the League of Nations Society in Canada today declared that to assert the League was a failure was to make a false assumption. To be on safe ground in making such a criticism it was necessary to decide what was the province of the League. It was not founded for the purpose of making peace in Europe. The Paris conference had made the peace there. There were some people, he said, who thought the League had been lax in not having modified or arranged the difficult relations between nations which had arisen since the war. But it should be remembered that the League had succeeded in several instances where the council of the great powers had failed. It had gathered about it an increasing number of nations. There had been no falling off of its adherents, but on the contrary it had increased its membership. Starting with fourteen nations it had grown to fifty-two nations subscribing to its aims and represented at its councils and others were waiting to come in. Officers were re-elected.

CIRCLED BY FIRES, RANGERS ESCAPE WITH DIFFICULTY

(Canadian Press.) Quebec, June 18.—A telegram received this afternoon was to the effect that some of the forest rangers in Kamouraska county had been circled by the fires and had difficulty in making their escape. In fact several of them had to remain on Lunette, Neigrette, Carleton and Caswell Lakes, which are situated in Kamouraska. Later they were joined by some residents of the township of Maopas, Lunette and Neigrette and several others, men who had found the conditions anything but safe. At St. Blaudens at noon today the settlers had left their homes and were pushing towards other sections while the parish of St. Anaclet was being seriously menaced.

New York, June 19.—In view of the fact that Tex Rickard has insured Jess Willard and Luis Angel Firpo against injury and illness for $100,000 with Lloyd's of England, he was asked recently whether he intended to insure the bout against the weather. "No, I am not," Rickard asserted. "It is a kind of insurance with me. I try not to think of bad weather in advance of a big bout. I'm afraid that if I think about bad weather it will be bad. There is another reason as well. It has to rain a certain amount in order to collect. It is impossible to insure against cloudy weather and sometimes a cloudy day would be as disastrous from the box office viewpoint as if it rained."

FOR HEALING. Zam-Buk is the last word in healing. Its rare medicinal power derived from certain valuable herbs here utilized by science for the cure of WOUNDS & SORES and other skin afflictions. CASSED OVERSEAS SHELL SHOCKED and RHEUMATISM

Mr. F. M. Blaquiere, Monteville, Alta., writes—"After three years' service overseas I returned to Canada almost a complete wreck. I had been gassed, and was suffering from shell shock and rheumatism, and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. I tried many medicines and doctors, but none of them did me any good for any length of time. I got so bad, in the fall of 1918, my hands were so shaky I could scarcely hold anything, and it seemed as if I had a steel band pressing on my head. The least excitement would almost drive me into fits, and my whole system seemed to be in disorder. I had cramps in my legs nearly every night, and hot and cold chills running up and down my back nearly all the time. One day I decided to try Milburn's Electric Nerve Pills, and after I had taken six boxes I began to feel better. I kept on using them and after a while I was completely restored." PARLEYS MAY END

Allies Admit They Have a Treaty That May Never be Signed But Apparently Fear to Adopt Ultimatum Attitude.

(Canadian Press) Lausanne, June 18.—The Near East conference shows signs of dying from inertia. The conference has practically ceased work; everything has been adjusted except concessions and the Ottoman debt, but the solution of the latter is not in sight. Otherwise, the treaty is set in type.

The delegations are simply sitting around waiting for something to happen; the Allies admit that the treaty may never be signed unless Turkey meets the Allied views on the payment of the interest on the debt. The Allies feel they are being forced into presenting a treaty to Turkey with a demand that it be signed, but apparently fear to adopt an ultimatum attitude because they are not sure that it would be effective. They remember that the Turks refused to sign in February when this was done, and no one wants the responsibility of a rupture, particularly as the Turks and the Allies are really not far apart.

The Allies assert that Turkey is diverting into its treasury revenue that should go to the debt council to pay interest and that what little funds reach the council are eaten up by the cost of maintaining the council.

M. Venizelos is also worried, fearing that peace between Greece and Turkey may become impossible if a general treaty is not signed. Venizelos and Ismet Pasha are exchanging mutual reproaches charging that each is guilty of offenses against the other's nationals.

$10,000 NECKLACE
FOUND CUT UP

Mrs. Wm. E. Corey's Pearls Recovered, but Mystery of Disappearance Unsolved.

(Special Cable to The New York Times.) Paris, June 14.—All of Mrs. William E. Corey's pearls have been found. The mystery of the disappearance of the necklace, which has occupied the police of London and Paris for a week, is not quite cleared up, but at least the wife of the New York millionaire has the satisfaction of knowing that none of the precious trinkets has disappeared.

Following discovery of the larger part of the necklace in Mrs. Corey's automobile, there has come the discovery of twelve of the largest pearls in the possession of Paris jewel merchants. By whom the gems were stolen still remains to be learned. According to a statement of Mrs. Corey she locked them safely in her jewel case before she went to London last week.

In London she discovered her loss, and immediately telegraphed to her servants at her chateau. For three days the pearls were sought in vain. Then a chauffeur found a broken string among the cushions of an automobile in which he had driven Mrs. Corey to the station in Paris before his departure.

During these days the automobile had been in a repair shop. When found the necklace was cut and the dozen biggest pearls in the string had been abstracted. By whom and when is the problem which Paris police have now to discover, but their task seems to have been considerably facilitated by the discovery of the purchasers.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson last night administered the sacrament of confirmation on a class of twelve candidates at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville.

Chilean Girls Are Pretty and Up to Minute in Style Greater Freedom Granted Young Women of Southern Republic Than in Any Other Latin Country.

London, May 28.—(By Mail)—"Chile is the most delightful of the South American republics. The climate is perfect, the people are hospitable, living is reasonable, and there is no income tax," writes Arthur Mills in "The London Daily Mail."

When disputes arise over nitrate deals and other matters British traders complain that the Chilean Government favors the German, who, living in that country to evade his war debt, has become a wealthy and powerful member of the community. This fact has repeatedly been brought to the notice of both British and Chilean Governments, but nothing is done about it.

The social and commercial life of Chile is divided between Valparaiso and Santiago. Valparaiso still bears traces of the terrible earthquakes of 1906; it is linked with Santiago by a pretty stretch for railway running through the foothills of the Andes. As through the foothills of the Andes, a city Santiago is not so fine as Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo or Buenos Ayres, but there are many splendid new buildings springing up.

"During the summer months Chilean society foregathers at Vina del Mar, a fashionable seaside resort near Valparaiso. None of the hotels or houses is on the seashore and the sea is so gradually cold that only the hardiest set foot in it.

"Nevertheless, Vina is delightful. Here British and Chilean society intermingle in a way to be found nowhere else in South America. The Chilean sense of good family is not only very pretty, but also most emancipated. At Vina, at the Gran Hotel, on dance nights it is quite a common sight to see cheery dinner parties of two or three young Englishmen and two or three Chilean girls—a state of affairs inconceivable in other parts of South America, where Moorish and Inca traditions still regulate social life.

"Chile's prosperity depends on her ocean-going trade and she is the paramount sea power in South America, if not in actual tonnage, then certainly in naval armament and fighting efficiency. The Chilean is a born sailor, whereas neither the Argentine nor the Brazilian takes kindly to the sea.

GERMANY HAS MARRIAGE BOOM

License Clerks are Doing More Business Than Before the War.

Berlin, May 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—(By mail.)—Fewer babies are being born in Germany now than before the war and fewer people are dying, but the marriage license clerks are doing more business than during 1913. The Germans say there is a boom in the marriage market "after every war."

Essex, has been sold by the parish church authorities, to whom it was made over when the new school was erected, to the Society of Old Felsteadians for a museum and meeting place. The building, which stands in the centre of the village, opposite the church, in which is a stately memorial to Lord Riche, remains intact and the interior is decorated with the names of generations of scholars. The purchase money is to be devoted to the building of a war memorial hall for the parish.

On the prettier teeth you see everywhere today

Do you realize how many prettier teeth you see in every circle now? And how many smile to show them?

Why teeth discolor
Film is what clouds teeth—that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, stains crevices and stays. Food enters, etc., discolor it. Then it forms sticky coats. Tartar is based on film.

Watch it for a week
A test of Pepsodent will prove a revelation. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-costs disappear.

THE INDIVIDUAL IS RESPONSIBLE
Message of Rotary Delivered by International President Havens
A Striking Address—Civilized Society Needs Spiritual Help More Than Material Increase—Business Men Should Assume Leadership in World Friendliness.

The following is an abstract of the annual address of Raymond M. Havens of Kansas City, Mo., president, Rotary International, at fourteenth annual Rotary Convention.

The revolution in business has taken place. Formerly the law was "let the buyer beware." Now the seller must beware lest he misrepresents. The doctrine of the irresponsibility of the individual is false as hell! It contains the germs of moral decay. Rotary is for the individual and the individual is for the betterment of all men. His strength is in his individual responsibility for his business or profession, for his community, his country, his civilization.

modern British power got its force from the steam engine and the coal mine. What was the great event in American history? Was it not the westward sweep of the empire in its march toward the setting sun? Some day, higher than all other monuments, will stand some artist's vision of a man with his gun and ax, with his dogs and his oxen, and his prairie schooner bearing his wife and children plowing into the unknown, to sow and plant for the glory of the world! Was it that caused modern civilization to leap forward in one hundred years—mainly in the last fifty years—until we possess knowledge, arts, and tools of which the Roman golden age did not dream, or Greek philosophy even guess? Did we do it? Did we create this marvelous era of transportation, machinery, of electricity, of magical communication, of enormous manufactures? The age of business! Was it Edison or Luddendoff? Certainly it wasn't Luddendoff! Most of us here are business men. We should be inspired by the fact that the philosopher, the writer, the educator, the astronomer, the chemist, the artist, all thrive upon the universal exchange of the products of human work and human brains, which we call business. When did philosophy an science ever have such a wide world to address as today? When did literature and art ever have such tremendous machinery to project themselves? Never before! Whence does it come? What process is it? The answer is the business of selling the products of genius to the people and our free public schools which would be irresponsible except for the taxable values of property created by business. No system of supplying human needs and demands that was ever known, or tried in the world before, can take the place of modern systems. Smash the wheels, close the banks, nail up the shops, and see! It has been done. But not in the country! Too many of us are prosperous! Rotary International offers another plan. It offers the equality of doing right, the only equality that stands upon rock bottom. It is sending its members as ambassadors to their own craft organizations to plead for the adoption of codes of correct business practices. We do not plead for sentimentalism. We demand rock bottom principles. And to start this great ball rolling it is vital that we, ourselves, shall be known to practice what we ask our fellow business men to practice. Sentiments are emotional, principles are realities; and the principle of Rotary—that friendliness and co-operation are fundamentals of doing right—cannot be overturned. Reverse the order of the words and the meaning is the same.

Peace and proper social intercourse of men cannot be estimated in coin. The advance of humanity is slow and often passes and retrogrades. Determine your own future conduct, anticipate consequences, take wide views and lay down definite rules for constant guidance. My last word is that the individual is responsible!

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News Toronto, makes the following comment in its June 14 issue:

Some of the companies which have been either closed or operating on a much reduced basis since the war have opened up again this spring.

The re-entry of the railroads into the market for steel equipment has resulted in the placing of several very large orders.

If the amount of iron production in the United States is to be taken as the measure of trade revival and business activity, then the returns for the month of May would leave little doubt of the situation.

April had already broken the record, but last month's average daily output ran 8,440 tons, or nearly 5% per cent. beyond the April average.

The average buyer in this country has no cause to "tighten up," as conditions under review speak well for a continued period of consistent activity.

Although the average orders being received are for small tonnages, there are many indications that their size will increase instead of decrease, as is the attitude of some makers are voting at the present time. Inquiries are more numerous now than at any time this year and a greater percentage of inquiries are being converted into fair orders.

PRIZE DAY AT THE COLLEGIATE

Headmaster Deals With the Rothesay Memorial Building

Pays Tribute to A. C. Skelton—A Word for the Old Boys—Year was a Good One—Prize Winners.

This was prize day at the Rothesay Collegiate School and, as ever, an interesting programme was provided. Headmaster's Report. The report of the head master, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, M. A., D. C. L., contained a review of the work of the school year and dealt at some length with the plan for the erection of the memorial building now in course of construction. A high tribute was paid to A. C. Skelton and great regret was expressed at his removal to another sphere. The report was as follows: Today marks the close of the 23rd year of the school on its present site and the 46th since its foundation. Undoubtedly the most notable feature of the school year was the beginning of the erection of our Memorial Building. The first sod was turned last July and on October 26 the corner stone was laid by His Lordship the Bishop with fitting ceremony. Construction has been carried on during the winter and spring and, as you can see much has been accomplished. What may be called the living quarters of the building are now nearly completed and we confidently hope to have the dining hall and adjoining offices ready for occupation when we open next term and the chapel a little later on. Certain changes will be made in the South House, where the present dining hall is, so that practically the whole of that house will be used for dormitories. The room in the top story of the School House which we have been using as a chapel, will be converted into additional class rooms. Thus the handicap which we have undergone in the past owing to lack of adequate room space will, I am happy to say, be removed. Shortage of Funds. The project of expansion at this time is a venture of faith which I feel confident will be justified in the future by the growth and increased influence of the school. The most serious question is that of the funds necessary to carry the undertaking to a successful issue. We are erecting the building for over twelve thousand dollars, less than the first estimate called for when building prices were even higher than they are at present, but this does not mean that anything of importance either in the construction or the future usefulness of the building, has been sacrificed though several economies have been effected. Competent judges who examined the building, also the specifications and plans, have stated that we shall have, when completed, one of the best buildings of its kind in the province. To raise the necessary funds for the building is, however, a serious undertaking. At present a little more than fourteen thousand dollars has been subscribed by Old Boys and other friends, but unless we can raise at least twenty thousand in this way it will mean that too large a part of our revenue each year will have to go to defray interest and sinking fund charges. It is not an easy matter as things are at present to finance the running expenses of the school, and though we expect naturally to increase our revenue by being able to take a larger number of boys, yet our running expenses will in consequence go up and I shall feel very anxious until the pledges reach the total which I have mentioned. Since this time last year the subscriptions have been increased considerably, but there are still a good many who have promised subscriptions yet have not stated definitely the amount which they are prepared to give. Old Boys' Response. One of the most encouraging features in connection with this endeavour to raise funds was the response to a circular letter sent out to the Old Boys last autumn suggesting that they should contribute to this object making monthly payments of one year. Over a thousand dollars in small sums was raised in this way of which amount about three quarters has already been received. The payment of these monthly subscriptions meant, I know, real self-denial on the part of many and I would take this opportunity of thanking all those who responded so readily to the appeal. There is one outstanding feature of this undertaking which cannot be over-emphasized. The building is being erected in memory of all our former members who gave their lives in the Great War and to commemorate as well the part taken by all of our Old Boys who enlisted. Had it not been for this most worthy object, I, for one, would have favored some less expensive mode of expansion; but for this object, one building was decided upon, nothing but one of a permanent and dignified nature could be considered. Pias for Interest. There is another matter to which I referred in my report last year and which I would speak again, and that is to ask for the active support and interest of all our friends, and especially of the Old Boys, in all that pertains to the life and welfare of the school. Practically all our Old Boys come to us either through the interest of present boys and their friends or through that of Old Boys who recommend the school. I would especially appeal for your support in this way now when we shall presently have room for some thirty more boys than we have been able to take in the past. A few years ago, when times were good, it would have been an easy matter to fill these places quickly, but now that business is depressed it will not be so easy; yet if the Old Boys and our friends and patrons generally will show their interest in the school in an active and practical way, I feel sure that we shortly fill up these prospective vacancies. A Good Year. I have dwelt at length on the erection of the new building and matters pertaining to this, so I must mention but briefly other events of the year. There were in all eighty-six boys in the school of whom eighty-one were in

He's Back Again With Bags of Gold to Make Princess Out of Mabel

PRINCE MOHAMMED ALI IBRAHIM IN A DANCE STEP WITH CONNIE TALMADGE AND MABEL WITHEE HIS ENAMORATA.

New York, June 19.—Isn't it funny what a difference just a year can make? A year ago Prince Mohammed Ali Ibrahim, nephew of the Khedive of Egypt and heir to a rich principality, came to New York and fell in love. Like many another promising young man, he first felt Cupid's fatal dart while sitting in a box at a Broadway musical show. The young woman who set a-beating the heart of one of King Tut's descendants, was Mabel Withee. The prince demanded an introduction. He bought her a diamond and platinum lavalliere. He fed on mushrooms and humming-birds' wings. But the "shick" craze had not yet struck the girlhood of the country, and Mabel could not see it. It is reported on good authority that she made a date with the prince, and then "stood him up." In no uncertain manner, she gave him "the air." The prince, heartbroken, set out for Hollywood and combed himself trotting around with Mable Normand and fox-trotting with "Connie" Talmadge. But he was never the same afterward. The experience of being "shucked" put such a dent in his princely dignity that he could not get over it. But, being a fighter as well as an Egyptian princeling, Mohammed Ali Ibrahim never knows when he is whipped. He has just landed back in the States again, without his trainer, "Billie McCloskey, whom he is said to have knocked for a row of signposts. Has he spent the last year training to win the winsome Mabel? Will he use his fistic prowess to row down the row of stage-door Johnnies who wait valiantly, nightly, for Mabel? And will Mabel see her ducky suitors differently now that Rudolph Valentino, Ramon Navarro, et al, have set the style?

Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. "The Torch of Verified Circulation"

Lights up the way for the Advertiser

The Telegraph and The Evening Times, with a combined daily net paid circulation exceeding 30,000 copies, are the only A. B. C. (Audit Bureau of Circulation) papers in the province of New Brunswick. These newspapers alone give the advertiser a verified circulation whose extent is absolutely known and established beyond question.

Mr. Advertiser, do you realize what this means? All of the principal Canadian dailies are members of the A. B. C. That is, they give their advertisers, present and prospective, circulation figures which are audited, certified and approved by an independent court whose standing is recognized in business circles throughout Canada and the United States.

Mr. Advertiser, Look at this:

The Following Canadian Newspapers are members of the A. B. C.:

- St. John—The Telegraph and The Evening Times (the only A. B. C. papers in New Brunswick). Halifax—The Chronicle and Echo, The Herald and Mail. Charlottetown—The Guardian. Quebec City—LeSoleil, L'Evenement. Montreal—The Gazette, The Star, The Herald, La Presse, La Patrie, Le Canada, Le Devoir, The Standard. Ottawa—The Citizen, The Journal, Le Droit. Toronto—The Globe, The Star, The Mail and Empire and Sunday World, The Telegram. London—The Advertiser, The Free Press. Brantford—The Expositor. Brockville—The Recorder and Times. Fort William—The Times-Journal. Hamilton—The Spectator. Kingston—The British Whig, The Standard. Windsor—The Border Cities' Star. Winnipeg—The Manitoba Free Press, The Tribune. Saskatoon—The Star, The Phoenix. Regina—The Leader, The Post. Calgary—The Morning Albertan, The Herald. Edmonton—The Bulletin, The Journal. Vancouver—The Province, The Sun, The World. Victoria—The Colonist, The Times.

Mr. Advertiser, in that list you have the chief newspapers of Canada. They give you an independent audit of their circulation by a universally recognized authority.

"Net Paid" circulation does not mean old lists of doubtful value. "Net Paid" means that every subscriber included in the figures is either paid in advance or does not owe for more than six months. The Telegraph and Times, remember, have a combined "net paid" daily circulation of more than 30,000 copies.

Figuring by circulation The Telegraph and Times rates are the lowest in the Maritime Provinces.

By putting the same ad in both papers you cover the city of St. John and the province of New Brunswick as with a blanket, so far as prospective buyers of your goods are concerned, for these two papers reach to a really wonderful extent the people in this city and this province who are in a position to purchase the goods that local or national advertisers offer for sale, be these goods bonds or toothpicks, razors or mowing machines, diamonds or medicines, shoes or silks.

Think over the facts, Mr. Advertiser. Just ask yourself quietly and thoughtfully what that chain of leading Canadian newspapers means. Their verified circulation is their greatest advertising solicitor. Think about "the torch of verified circulation."

New York, June 18.—(Associated Press).—An official eligible list of 204 golfers for the 1923 national amateur championship, to be held beginning September 10 at the Flossmoor Country Club, near Chicago, is made public by the eligibility list committee of the U. S. Golf Association. The list is headed by the present national title-holder, Jess W. Sweetser of the Sitwa-consists of 175 former amateur Pinchot Awarded Decision.

Villa Defeats Phillips.
Pancho Villa, of the Philippines, won the title of lightweight champion of the world, by knocking out Jimmy Wilde of England in the seventh round of a scheduled fifteen round bout on the champs grounds, in New York, last night.
Villa unmercifully punished his opponent who put up one of the gamest fights ever witnessed in New York State. From the first round Villa's terrific rushes and assault had Wilde groggy, but he gamely fought back and although spectators begged the referee to stop the bout and save him from further punishment and his seconds tried to persuade him to quit he merely shook his head and continued until he was finally dropped by a right hook.
It was five minutes before he revived.

MONCTON TEAM

Good Game in Two I League
Last Night Goes to Locals,
4 to 2.

The G. W. V. A. team defeated Moncton in the Two I League feature played on St. Peter's Park last evening by a score of 4 to 2. Kirkpatrick was on the mound for the locals and pitched a good game, keeping the sevth hits secured by his opponents well scattered. Doucett pitched well for Moncton after the first two innings, but his team mates failed to secure hits when they meant runs. O'Regan was back at third for the G. W. V. A. team and he played brilliantly. Casey proved to be a dangerous man on the paths when after securing a hit he stole second, then third and went home on a squeeze play. The box score and summary

Plans Use of Busses to Bout

Other Novel Methods Will be Employed to Reach Shelby for Heavyweight Championship Bout—Gibbons in Fast Work.

Shelby, Mont., June 19.—Apparently there is going to be more ways than one to reach Shelby for the Dempsey-Gibbons bout on July 4.
Word has reached here that busses are to be run all the way from St. Paul and Minneapolis, and Mike Shannon of Glacier Park is advertising a saddle bag party from that place to Shelby. The ultra-modern will come by airplane, the more conservative by train and automobile, the cowboys will ride their ponies and the Indians will walk. It appears now as if it will be a case of any way to get here.

Phil Campbell, who has charge of the ticket sale here, today received a letter from Thomas Scanlon of Boise, Idaho, requesting that 200 seats be reserved for a party Scanlon is organizing here. Campbell expects to give out a statement on Saturday showing the exact number of cash sales to date and the number of tickets outstanding and not paid for—in short, the present financial standing of the general office here.

Several raids by Federal prohibition agents added to the customary gaming at Shelby last night. Among the places to be "knocked over," as the natives say, were the popular Black Cat and the Main Entrance. Twenty-five cases of beer and a dozen or more quarts of whiskey were found in the sheds behind these two establishments. The Federal agents upset the calculations of the owner of the Main Entrance by coming in through the back door.

Rocco Stramaglia, until recently an unknown boxer in battle, bids fair to achieve fame in a roundabout way by acting as a sparring partner for the two men who on July 4 will meet here for the heavyweight championship of the world. A week ago Rocco created a stir by opening an old cut over Dempsey's eye and forcing the champion to discontinue training temporarily. This accident cost Rocco his job at the Dempsey camp, so he moved from Great Falls to Shelby and joined Gibbons' camp.

The St. Paul boxer has just said in his dressing room that he made it a point not to follow up his opportunities in training bouts, because it frequently cost the man in training an excellent sparring partner.

Introduces New Blows.
In his boxing Gibbons introduced two blows that he has not used in any of his previous bouts. One was an uppercut in the side-lying arm and the other was the right cross which his followers claim is his most powerful blow.
Until today Gibbons had employed his left hand almost exclusively, but his right showed to good advantage in all his bouts this afternoon. The skeptics had said he could not use his hand in training bouts, because it frequently cost the man in training an excellent sparring partner.

According to a letter received yesterday from Hilton Belyea, Canadian single sculler in champion, who is in training for the great Diamond Sculls race to be held in connection with the English Henley early in July, he is in the best of spirits and confident of his chances against Walter Hoover and the other entrants. He is down to hard training and rows as far as twenty miles a day. He has not as yet had the pleasure of meeting Lord Beaverbrook, but has been in touch with his representative.

of Two-I League Executive.

A meeting of the executive of the Two I League was held last night at which it was definitely decided to drop Dick Casey's Boston team, and also to cancel all games won from the club.
This will make a decided change in the league standing as St. Peter's had won two games, Moncton one and Fredericton one from Boston. The capital team still leads with five wins and two losses, the G. W. V. A. are in second place with four wins and three losses and St. Peter's are third with two wins and two losses.

Would Cancel The Licenses Of All Habitual Speeders

Commissioner Thornton is on the warpath against automobile speeders and those who drive their cars while under the influence of liquor and he has in mind the seeking of legislation that will provide for the cancellation of licenses in the cases of those who are found to be habitual or frequent offenders. In his department the commissioner has a card index system by which a complete record of all traffic cases is kept. In this way a man's "by-law" record is easily ascertained, and it is likely that the Provincial Government will be asked to co-operate in the war against speeders.

Adjournment was made at noon, to meet again at two o'clock, to go by automobile to Johnston's Hotel, Loch Lomond, where the business session was to be continued and a pleasant afternoon spent.

How They Stand With The Boston Club Out

Fredericton, N. B., June 19.—With the definite dropping of the Boston Club by the International Independent League executive last night at a meeting in St. John and the throwing out of all games played by that team, the standing of the league now becomes as follows: Won. FORT HOWE AS A NATIONAL PARK

It Was All Arranged Before the War—Why is it Shelved?—A Bit of History.

The present movement to have several historical monuments erected in St. John recalls the action taken ten years ago. The Women's Canadian Club, of which Mrs. E. Atherton Smith was president for five years, took up the question of having Fort Howe converted into a national park, with a tower or other memorial of Lady LaTour. Driveways were to be constructed, the hill beautified and a children's playground provided. The last important meeting held in the old Mechanics Institute was called to discuss this question. Mrs. Smith was in the chair. The history and romance of Fort Howe were dealt with by Archdeacon Rowland, Rev. H. C. Gody and A. M. Belding, and the old institute was filled with interested citizens. Mrs. Smith took the matter up with the Government at Ottawa and with the National Parks Commission. Mr. Harkins of the Commission was much interested. There was considerable correspondence and Hon. De Pughley and Hon. J. D. (now Sir Douglas Hazen) supported the project. Two landscape architects from Toronto came down to make plans and submitted them to Mrs. Smith. Through her activity a grant of five or six thousand dollars was made as a beginning, and the matter was ever spent and advanced. No money was ever spent and now an entire different proposal is made. Mrs. Smith had planned to revive the question since the close of the war and is as much interested as ever in the original proposition.

Expect Hydro Street Lights In Operation In City On July 12. Ornamental System Likely Ready by That Time as Well as Part of Distribution System—Private Fixtures Handled Over to City. The contractors on the work of erection of the ornamental lighting system for the city now anticipate having the system ready for the turning on of the current on July 12, so it was announced at the Civic Hydro Commission offices this morning. The material for the system is all either in the city on the way here and the concrete footings are ready to receive the steel poles, which are expected any day now. The task of erecting the poles for the general distribution system in Sydney street was started today and excavations are also being made in Wentworth street for another lateral line that will extend from Union street south. Germain street will be the next on the list to receive attention. It is expected that some of the street lights on the general system will be ready for use at the same time as the ornamental lights. Several of the privately owned ornamental standards in the business section of the city have been turned over to the Civic Commission. These include two from J. A. Likely in Union street, two from F. G. Spencer in front of the Unique Theatre in Charlotte street, and one each from Waterbury & Rising, Ltd., and T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., in King street. The commission plans to remove these private poles, their service to be carried out by the equipment in its regular locations. The old private standards will likely be used either in King Square or in Haymarket Square.

LETTER FROM "DICK" CASEY.

To the Sporting Editor of The Times: Sir—To correct a wrong impression regarding my withdrawal from the league I wish to say that the step was taken only after mature consideration. It was the unanimous opinion of the executive of the league that with two American clubs in the league it was giving the other teams too much baseball. Therefore, at the request of the executive and in the interests of the league I withdrew my team for the season. I still retain my franchise in the league. (Signed) DICK CASEY, Captain Moncton Baseball Team. St. John, June 18.
