REPORT OF THOUSAND LIVES LOST ON THE CANTON RIVER

Steamer Akema Which Reached Victoria, B. C., Last Night Brings Tidings of Awful Loss of Life as Result of Fire on a Fleet of Chinese Flower Boats

Victoria, B. C., March 6.—(Special)—A steamer Akema, which reached Victoria last night, brings tidings of a disaster on the Canton River, costing the lives of more than 1,000 lives, following the overturning of a kerosene lamp on a flower boat, while the steamer Akema, which reached this port last night, was at Hong Kong. The boat burned to the water's edge, and the flames reaching to other boats, allowed no one to escape, owing to the difficulty of moving the cumbersome flower boats, which were lying along in an unbroken line, made fast by iron chains.

EARL GREY WAS A MINER ONCE

His Excellency Says He Got a Prospector's License in South Africa But That Was All He Did Get.

Montreal, March 6.—(Special)—The annual convention of the Canadian Mining Institute closed last night with a banquet at the Windsor. The principal speaker at the dinner was His Excellency Earl Grey, who made a humorous speech, in which he claimed to be a miner himself, as many years ago he had taken out a prospector's license in South Africa, which was about all he ever got out of active mining. How Williams, Templeman, minister of mines, was also present, and spoke briefly.

ALDERMEN WILL ISSUE PAMPHLET

Council Members Will Inform Citizens How Public Money Has Been Used.

A pamphlet is being prepared by a committee from the common council, giving a digest of the financial work of the various city departments during the past year. The document is expected by some of the aldermen to prove effective in convincing the citizens to resolve them to office. The chamberlain's report will be sent out of the printer's hands at the same time and it is desired by the aldermen that the public should be informed as to the judicious use to which their money was put last year.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, March 6.—Prices moved irregularly in the open market, with which were on a small scale.

SETTLEMENT OF THE SERBIAN TROUBLE RESTS WITH RUSSIA

The Attitude of the Czar's Government Will Go Far Towards Bringing the Dispute to a Finality

Berlin, March 6.—The situation between Austria-Hungary and Serbia arising from the efforts of the latter country to secure compensation for the annexation by the dual monarchy of Bosnia and Herzegovina, was today acknowledged to be quieting. There is, however, this advantage, the issues are more clearly defined than before.

It can be said with authority that everything now depends upon the position Russia takes in the matter. The situation stands as follows: Serbia has undoubtedly renounced all direct demands, both territorial and economic but at the same time she charged Russia to place these demands before an international conference.

Austria-Hungary is prepared to grant favorable commercial and economic compensation to Serbia if Serbia consents to negotiate direct, but should a conference be called to deal with these questions a conference should be called only to ratify agreements already made and they do not recognize the right of the powers in any way to intervene in the questions concerning two independent nations.

It is affirmed also that Turkey is inclined to hold a similar view. The Porte fears that if such a conference were held, Austria-Hungary would demand territorial compensation from Turkey.

The provisional commercial agreement between Austria-Hungary and Serbia expires, March 31, and Austria-Hungary is willing to make the new agreement more advantageous if Serbia will abstain from seeking foreign intervention and settle the question alone. Up to the present time Russia has not intimated whether or not she will accept the Serbian mandate to approach the powers. Although there is no serious anxiety regarding the eventual peaceful outcome of this controversy, a certain disquieting tension was evidenced today in official circles.

Count Forgach, the Austro-Hungarian minister at Belgrade, has been instructed to inform the Serbian government that owing to the attitude maintained by Serbia for the last month, the government of the dual monarchy, to its regret, has not been in a position to submit a renewal of the commercial treaty with Serbia, which expires March 31, for parliamentary sanction.

The Austro-Hungarian government, Count Forgach, is instructed to add, besides the confident hope, that Serbia, who is generally understood, has in accordance with the advice of the powers, decided to change her policy with regard to Bosnia and Herzegovina, will notify Vienna of this view resolution as well as of her intention to maintain peaceful and neighborly relations with Austria-Hungary. As soon as this notification is received, Austria-Hungary will be prepared to negotiate the questions of trade intercourse pending between the two countries.

SEPPELI AND AROSHA ARE SENTENCED TO DIE TONIGHT

Judge Landry This Morning Imposed the Extreme Sentence on Men Convicted of Edward Green's Murder

Arosha Made Dramatic Appeal as His Sentence Was Read, Protested His Innocence and Asked All in Court Room to Pray for Him—Seppele Was Stolid and Unmoved as His Doom Was Pronounced

Andover, N. B., March 6.—(Special)—"I go die like a good little boy. Pray for me every body in this court room. I die for nothing. Pray for me. Good bye every body. They kill me who done nothing."

Direct from the heart of Antonio Arosha came the weird, passionate cry of a man up heart that startled the vast assembly in the Andover court room this morning.

At 10.30 a. m. Arosha and Seppele were escorted to the tribunal of justice and the mandate came to stand up.

Seppele's countenance bore a very unhealthy color but otherwise he was the same stolid Italian of the trial. Arosha was "downcast" and evidently moved. Judge Landry addressed them thus:

"Antonio Arosha and Leon Seppele, you may be accused and found guilty of the murder of Edward Green. The case has been exercised in your defence and all the protection possible has been afforded to you. You have not suffered for the advice of counsel and no jury could find another verdict. You are not allowed to take notice from the bench. The importance of the protection of the laws is apparent. In the fulfilment of the sentence of death the state is filling a function necessary to the welfare of the country. Though deep sorrow and pity is expressed for you, you will be better prepared to die. You will have twenty-two months to prepare to meet your Maker. I advise you to confide in a spiritual adviser thirty days before the execution. The judgment is, therefore, that you be taken to a place of confinement in the town of Andover, and kept there until Tuesday the fourth day of May next, and hanged by the neck until you are dead."

The prisoners are sentenced to the forest near from the bench, when Seppele to the fore and Arosha slightly to the rear, the men marched toward the gall underneath. Just as he turned and confronted the audience, Arosha clasped the railing of the dock and gave vent to his heart-rendering plea. "Practical everybody in court broke down completely, as with one hand raised toward heaven, he implored them to pray for him. The judge, however, was unmoved and the ground of youth and it is alleged, is being led to the crime. His honor did not waver in the hour of decision. From today until August a death warrant will be maintained. Green's stock was to be taken care of by an administrator.

CAUGHT DIPHTHERIA IN A COLLEGE "GYM"

Five Cases of Suspected Diphtheria in Brown University Believed to Have Been Contracted in Gymnasium Swimming Pool

Providence, R. I., March 6.—Believed by his physician to be suffering from diphtheria, James M. Adams, a member of the junior class of Brown University, was taken to the Rhode Island Hospital today. This makes the fifth case of suspected diphtheria at the university since yesterday morning.

Three of the five men at the hospital are members of the swimming squad and the theory is advanced that the men contracted the disease from the swimming pool. The swimming team with Amherst and Williams at Amherst, Mass., today has been called off.

BIG SHOE FIRM FAILS

Lynn Mass., March 6.—After a thorough examination of the books of Luddy and Currier, shoe manufacturers, who failed a short time ago, the assets of the firm are placed by expert accountants at $86,070, and the liabilities at $87,018. These figures do not include notes payable to the estate of B. W. Currier, amounting to $98,000.

The firm conducted a large shoe manufacturing, wholesale and retail business, with factories at Dover, N. H., and headquarters here. It also had a chain of retail stores in many large cities throughout the country.

MONTREAL STOCKS

Montreal, March 6.—(Special)—Stocks were irregular today. Steel and Power were weak and Steel and Quebec Railway strong. Steel rose to 32 for common and 110-12 on the steel. The conciliatory attitude of the Dominion Coal Company in the pending settlement, Quebec Railway stood up to $6. Scotia and Power are both under pressure the former touching $5 1/2 and Power 110-12.

Horseholders of Saxony must pass a public examination before they are properly qualified.

LIVELY BIDDING AT AUCTIONS TODAY

Large Crowd Assembled at Chubb's Corner and a Number of Properties Were Offered for Sale

The crowd that gathered on "Change, Ghiblin's corner" today, to attend the auction sales was the largest seen for some time. Quite a number of properties were offered for sale, and the bidding at times was quite spirited.

Auctioneer V. L. Potts sold a $1,000 0 per cent city water bond, due 1911, for 254 per cent premium.

Three properties belonging to the estate of Ambrose S. Perkins were offered by Auctioneer T. T. Lantulum. The first, a 112 story residence, was at 13 Colburn street, occupied by Thomas Patton, was knocked down to B. T. C. Knowles for $2,500.

A lot No. 12 Dorchester street, with a coaching stable, under lease to John Glynn, was secured by the house for $1,225. The lot and building 103 and 107 Prince William street, extending back to Wales street, was sold for $2,200.

Rumour had it that this building would likely be acquired by the Standard Publishing Company, as a home for the new Conservative paper.

The property belonging to the William Erickson estate, in the parish of Springdale, Kings county, was bid in by George W. Fowler of Sussex, for $1,850.

A number of properties owned by the estate of the late Robert Power, situated in the Parish of St. John, were disposed of.

A lot of land containing about 1,281 acres, known as "the Milliken lot," was purchased by George T. Power for $100,000. The lot was situated in the Parish of St. John, and was bounded by the St. John River.

Lot 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 in the north-west range of the first range were withdrawn, several protests were made on behalf of other parties, who claimed to hold a title to certain of them. F. T. Wilby stated that Susan Kibbidge held a title to lots 41 and 42, and William Quinn claimed lots 43 and 42.

LIVELY DEBATE IN MANITOBA HOUSE

Proposal to Guarantee $3,000,000 of Canadian Northern Bonds Causes Prolonged Discussion

Winnipeg, March 6.—(Special)—The government's measure to guarantee three million dollars of the Canadian Northern Railway bonds for terminals, caused a lively scrap in the legislature yesterday, and the debate was still in progress when the house rose at 6 o'clock. It will be resumed today. The bill also proposes to guarantee bonds for terminals, ranging from ten to thirteen thousand dollars per mile. The government previously had issued a guarantee of a million dollars for terminals. There will be consolidated in the new vote if the house sustains it, as it no doubt will.

ANNEXITY BILL PASSES THE CUBAN SENATE

Havana, March 6.—The general amnesty bill which was among the first measures which was intended to signalize the restoration of the republic, passed the senate yesterday. The measure provides for the release of practically all prisoners sentenced since January 28, except those guilty of murder, homicide in the commission of robbery, or crimes of exceptional atrocity.

PROMINENT POLITICIAN DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Burlington, Iowa, March 6.—Joseph Willard Barba, general solicitor of the Burlington Railroad system and state leader of the Republican standpatters, died today of heart disease while on a hunting trip at Wapello.

TITLES FOR THE WRIGHTS TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

Cleveland, O., March 6.—The little plot of land in Collingwood which stands the ruins of the schoolhouse which burned a year ago and sufficed the lives of 170 children, will be purchased by the state and will be held forever as a public school site. The legislature yesterday at Columbus made this possible yesterday. The final page of the Schaefer bill, which now waits the governor's signature.

DEATH AWAITS ROOSEVELT IN THE AFRICAN JUNGLE

Sensational Chicago Professor Rushes Into Print Again—Says President Plans to Go Where Few White Men Have Dared to Venture

Chicago, March 6.—Theodore Roosevelt will never return to the United States alive if he carries out his announced intention of exploring the dark regions of Africa in quest of big game.

This is the opinion of Professor Frederick Starr of the University of Chicago, whose prophesy is based upon his knowledge of the dangers of that country, particularly the insidious fevers, and narrow expeditions to the Congo Free State.

The expedition, according to the educator, will invade a section of the country where few white men have dared to venture heretofore, on account of the fatal nature of the prevailing epidemic and the "sleeping sickness."

"His danger," said the professor, "will not be in the ferocious animals which dwell there, but in the fevers which every explorer has come to fear and which have taken the lives of many adventurers. I have visited Africa and have known the extent of these [dangers] and I have seen the dangers of that country, particularly the insidious fevers, and narrow expeditions to the Congo Free State.

The expedition has not the temperament or the temper that a man needs who would withstand the dangers of the climate he plans to brave."

MONUMENT TO FEVER VICTIMS

Ancient Order of Hibernians Will Erect a Memorial at Grosse Ile, Quebec

Concord, Ont., March 6.—(Special)—Fallon Brothers of this town, have received a contract from the Ancient Order of Hibernians for the erection of a monument at Grosse Ile, Quebec, to the memory of Irish immigrants who perished there of fever half a century ago. The monument will be 50 feet high and will be built of Canadian granite.

PANIC FOLLOWED FIRE IN SCHOOL

Buffalo, March 6.—Six young girls were badly burned in a fire which broke out in the Buffalo Parochial School here today. The children's injuries consisted principally of lacerated faces and severe bruises on the hands and arms. With one exception the children were able to walk to their homes after treatment by hospital surgeons. Helen Ostrowska, 11 years old and a special ed. child, the school accommodates about 2000 students, drawn entirely from the Polish section on the east side. Of the number 1,000 boys had been dismissed before the panic occurred. The fire was in a house adjoining the school.

YOUNG GIRL INVOLVED IN A FORGERY CASE

St. Louis, Mo., March 6.—Miss Hildegarde Hallett, daughter of Mr. M. Dwight Fortner, who is accused of forging the endorsement to a $42,000 check placed in his hands by F. A. Storr, was taken in charge early this morning by chief of detectives. Chief Smith got the young woman out of the house and explained his action, except to say that she is supposed to have been given money by Fortner to pay the latter's personal debts.

Fortner left St. Louis on February 12, and two or three days later it was discovered that the check which had been given him to close a real estate deal, had been cashed, although the deal had fallen through. The check had been made out to the order of Henry C. Tulley.

SHOT HIMSELF WHEN HE FOUND FORTUNE GONE

St. Louis, Mo., March 6.—Carlos Espinosa Saldaña, of Lima, Peru, was found dead here today in a room, following the receipt of letters and telegrams telling of the loss of his father's fortune in South America. Saldaña, who was 25 years old, was formerly a student at Columbia University. The Peruvian government is said to have paid his tuition. He came to St. Louis several months ago as a draftsman for the Missouri Pacific R. R.

A FATAL EXPLOSION

Dixton, O., March 6.—The boilers of a locomotive exploded nine miles north of this city on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton R. R. late yesterday killing the engineer, E. G. Tripp. The engine was pulling a southbound train. The engineer was painfully scalded but not otherwise hurt.

IMPORTANT TRANSFER OF A MILL AND TIMBER PROPERTY

Valuable Property of Gilman Bros. and Burden on the Pokioik River Has Been Disposed of to a New York Syndicate

Frederickton, N. B., March 6.—(Special)—It is announced today that the lumbering and milling property on the Pokioik River, belonging to Gilman Bros. and Burden, has been disposed of to a New York syndicate.

The property consists of a large sawmill, fully equipped with modern machinery and eighteen thousand acres of splendid timber land. There is also the Pokioik falls, which is undoubtedly one of the most valuable waterpowers in the province.

David Gilman, the firm's business manager, was in the city today, but beyond confirming the report that the deal had been closed with an American concern, he refused to make a statement, even declining to give out the names of the purchaser. The property formerly belonged to the late Freeman Berry and was acquired by the Gilman Bros. and Burden about twelve years ago.

Levi T. M. Wright has resigned his commission as second lieutenant in the 5th Field Police in this city, and was shot and killed while sitting at his desk in the station house yesterday by Police Constable Collier. Collier quickly entered the station, went immediately into the captain's office, jerked from his pocket a revolver and began firing at Matthews. Five shots were fired, two of them piercing the captain's head. Collier, it is alleged, had been reprimanded by Captain Matthews for a breach of the rules, and at this time argued him. The police say they know of no other reason for Collier's action. Lieutenant Sprinkle arrested Collier. The prisoner refused to say anything about the shooting. Captain Matthews was 56 years old, and for twenty years had been in the police department.

The Evening Times

ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 6, 1909. The St. John Evening Times is published at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE EVENING TIMES THE DAILY TELEGRAPH New Brunswick's Independent Newspapers These papers advocate: British Connection Honesty in Public Life Measures for the Material Progress and Moral Advancement of our Great Dominion. No Graft No Deal The Shamrock, The Rose entwines The Maple Leaf forever.

A SLOW CONVERSION The conversion of Dr. Daniel, M. T., is a slow process. He cannot be convinced that the Grand Trunk Pacific will seek an Atlantic port. He evidently expects it to end in the woods. Most people expect that this great transcontinental road will carry freight, and this freight must have eastern ports of entry and shipment. St. John is the most desirable port in the maritime provinces, and the company has declared that Courtney Bay is eminently suitable for its terminals. These matters are not, however, settled in a day. Thanks to the minister of public works, borings have been taken which proved that Courtney Bay may easily be dredged and converted into the terminus of a great railway system, and also secured questions on dredging, which will be proceeded with in due time; for the G. T. P. will have terminals here. Dr. Puley has cleared the way for prompt action when the time comes. Dr. Daniel brought the matter up in parliament yesterday, and with the feeble aid of Mr. Crockett tried to make a point against the minister. The attempt failed, as usual.

WOMAN'S AID In connection with the local campaign against tuberculosis, there is much that is of interest in the reports in today's Times, copied from the Detroit Free Press, of the meeting of the state association in the Michigan city. Especially notable is the reference to what the women have done for the cause. The tribute paid to them is a very high one, and is suggestive of the importance of securing the organized aid of the women of New Brunswick in connection with the new association formed here. The attention of the Times has been directed to the fact that the women were overlooked in forming the general executive, but that is not a serious matter, nor should it in any way dampen the ardor of the ladies in laboring for the cause. They have the happy faculty of being able to compel recognition wherever there is an intentional omission, and there was, of course, none in this case. As the work proceeds all available forces will be drawn together and it is immaterial whether men or women direct the campaign so long as it is well done. What the women of Michigan have done the women of New Brunswick may do with equal zeal and energy. In Michigan they have their own organizations.

CLEAN UP THE CITY "Until every householder, and the owner of every business place in Victoria, determines not only to put his or her premises in order, but to keep them so, the city will not be really clean. This could be done without overworking anybody if we only possessed the public spirit so conspicuous in any city that is really well managed. If in addition to this individual effort, the powers that be insisted that every owner of an empty lot should either put it in order or pay for doing so, the city might, before the beginning of summer present a far neater, and what is far more important, a cleaner appearance." The Times commends to its readers the above paragraph from the Victoria Colonist. Spring is at hand. There is never any concerted action in this city to clean up the streets and alleys and make the whole place put on a bright appearance. Beside one of the leading streets yesterday, and for many days previously could be seen a barrel overflowing with garbage that should not offend the eyes of the passer-by even on one of the public dumps. St. John needs an inspector who will go about with his eyes open and report violations of the ordinary rules of the board of health. The Colonist writes well says: "Pure air, pure water, clean milk, unadulterated food, and houses and streets free from any suspicion of filth, with scrupulous personal cleanliness are now insisted upon by every book of hygiene and by every one who pretends to a knowledge of the science of health. How in large cities, or indeed in small ones, that degree of cleanliness needful for health can be secured is a problem that has engaged in solving." The Colonist suggests one method of solving the problem, which is worthy of attention because it has proved successful elsewhere. We quote: "The plan taken by Colonel Waring, the first street commissioner of New York, is being adopted in other cities with good results. He formed the school children into juvenile leagues whose duty it was to prevent, observe and report any neglect of sanitation in their several districts. The children entered upon the work with enthusiasm and soon the street lanes and yards, as well as the health of the citizens showed a marked improvement. Whenever the appearance of the city becomes a matter of concern to every man, woman and child all things that offend the eye of the senses will be removed and put before. With this removal most of the sickness among the children will disappear. There is no more need for the pupils in our schools to suffer from scarlet fever, diphtheria or even mumps, measles or whooping cough than there was in past centuries for whole countries to be desolated by the plague or cholera. The day has gone by when men believe that these diseases and their like were due to the visitation of God."

St. John, it has been well said, is a city without front yards or back yards. Such of the latter as there are do not present an inviting appearance. Neither do many tenement houses, the alleys, or even the streets. It is in the interests of the public health if the citizens could be persuaded to make a united effort, the spring, perhaps by inaugurating a general cleaning up day, such as they have in some American cities, when every householder would endeavor to do something toward making his or her premises more healthy and attractive. Filth breeds disease, and the first step in the cure of disease, or the prevention of it, is the cleaning up process.

WAVE OF EXTRAVAGANCE The Boston Transcript is not so much impressed by the demand for increased army and naval expenditures as by the national deficits these involve. It sees a world-wide of extravagance where others see only necessary precautions. We quote: "Three of the great powers, the United States, Great Britain and Germany, are about to wrestle with the deficit question. The British Liberal government, which has a reputation for economy, is now faced with a deficit of more than $100,000,000. Congress keeps right on as if there was no such thing as inadequate revenues. In all three countries the big military and naval appropriations are largely responsible for the excess of expenditures, though in neither Great Britain nor Germany is the proportion of the taxpayers' money devoted to fleets, pensions and armies as great as in our own. Not even adversity teaches economy to these three nations, which are in the front rank of civilization. We have passed through hard times in the last two years, in which Germany has also had some unfortunate experiences, while Great Britain is suffering from 'unemployment,' which is simply another word for business depression. A wave of extravagance seems to be sweeping over the great national legislatures, and between 'military' preparedness and 'social' experiments, the taxpayers appear to have nothing else to do but to grin and bear it."

It is not surprising that there is a controversy between the two schools of religious thought in Toronto. The advanced school has so many graduates in Canada that the conservatives must sooner or later be attacked and sold to the defense of their cherished beliefs. The history of these controversies indicates very clearly what the result will be. The old cry that the earnest man who dared to think and give expression to a new thought was destroying the foundation of faith has lost some of its force. There is a larger faith than was demanded in earlier times.

The new immigration laws of Mexico are now in force. The laws are similar to those of the United States and prohibit the admission of persons with incurable or contagious diseases, trichinosis, gangrenous ulcers, and persons likely to become public charges. The laws, it is stated, will greatly aid the United States border officers, who have had much trouble in the past because of undesirable foreigners flocking to the Rio Grande border through Mexican ports.

The Victoria Colonist says: "Vancouver is very happy over the announcement that in future all Alberta wheat for export will seek an outlet via that port, and that the C. P. R. will provide all the terminal facilities required in the vicinity of Vancouver. Vancouver has excellent reason to rejoice at the magnificent outlook. It is destined to be a very large city, and this conviction is shared by the people of Victoria, who have none but the best wishes for its success."

The speed with which the New Brunswick Conservatives are demolishing their minister of public works indicates that they have a steady job, which grows larger as they proceed.

The Prince Edward Island legislature will prohibit the solicitation of orders for liquor in the province. Any other course under prohibition would be very incon-

PROVINCIAL NEWS New Brunswick It is understood that Dr. Borden has about completed arrangements to erect a stone wing to the ladies college at Sealville this summer. It will, if the present plans are carried out, occupy the site on Langley Hill. L. G. Irons, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been transferred from the general manager's office, Toronto, to Quebec, N. B., and is opening a new branch of the bank in that town. John L. Hicks, of Middlebury, has a large crew of men wintering the woods near Cookville. Nearly a hundred men and 20 teams are employed.

Nova Scotia The Robb Engineering Co. of Amherst, who have been practically idle in many departments, report that they are now working steadily five days a week and expect to put their men on full time again. Rhodes, Curry & Co., Ltd., held their annual meeting last week, the reports being most favorable. The usual dividend was declared. This concern is now working at full capacity, and have sufficient support to keep it up until September 1st. Their pay roll for the two weeks ending February 27, amounted to about $20,000. Mrs. Mary McCormick returned from Dorchester, Mass., Wednesday, via S. S. Lamont, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Kathleen Smith, of that city. They are the guests of Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Wright, at the Hotel de Montreal, and Andrew Meriel, of the St. John Sun, spent Sunday with their mother in Digby. Both crossed the Bay to St. John Monday, the former en route to Montreal. George Waring, at one time chief engineer of the S. S. Prince Rupert, arrived here yesterday from St. John to put a new propeller on the tug, Clayton-Digby (Conroy).

Rev. Samuel Howard, of St. John, will deliver a lecture in the Methodist hall, at Digby next Tuesday evening, the 9th inst. His subject will be "Here and There in Switzerland." E. M. Archibald is at present engaged in preparing plans for the Canada Iron Corporation for their Torbrook iron mine development in Annapolis Co. They purpose developing for an output of 1000 tons per day at present. Mr. J. M. Miller, of St. John, is visiting Miss Jubien, Brenton street, Halifax. Councillor C. E. Armstrong of Digby is bringing action for a letter which appeared in the Digby Courier over the name of "Judah," in which he claims his character has been damaged. The writer of the letter has apologized to Mr. Armstrong for writing the letter, and the editor of the paper has apologized for its appearance. Notwithstanding this writ has been served on H. A. Westhaver, the writer, the Digby Weekly Courier, O. S. Dunham, editor, and Major John Daley, proprietor of the paper. The plaintiff is suing for $10,000 damages. A movement is on foot to establish a first class hotel at Pughash and a prospectus has already been issued with the aim in view of securing $20,000 for this purpose. E. D. Woodcock has made a splendid offer to the gentlemen, who are at the head of this movement and it is hoped that the hotel will be built. Noble Crandall, of Wolfville, left on Friday last for St. John, where he will spend a few weeks visiting his son, Chas. S. Crandall, editor of the Sun.

WANTS BOOKS FOR THE EVERY DAY CLUB LIBRARY To all my friends, the dear public: You have often heard about the Every Day Club, the good it is doing, and has done, and is going to do, for it has come to stay. The club is offered by some of our best citizens, who give their time, money, and labor to keep it up and support it. I've seen a few clubs, and it's the best I've seen in its moral tone. A visit to its headquarters will convince anyone of its usefulness. The club exists, as you well know, to help men to be men; and in order for you to help others to be better you must be good yourself.

LUMPS LIKE IRON ON HIS FINGERS Peculiar Trials of a Westerner That Neglected His Rheumatism. This is no ordinary case—five doctors endeavored to relieve and cure Mr. J. E. Germaine, but failed. He had all failed to bring in this awful suffering even temporary relief. "I am over sixty years of age," writes Mr. Germaine, "and as far back as I can remember I have always suffered from rheumatism. It was principally on the large knuckle of my back, but extended to my limbs and made me quite a cripple and I found it very difficult to get work. I am a grain shoveler and my work seemed to make matters worse. I did very little towards a cure till last fall when my case became very acute. I was unable to stand the chilling winds and outdoor exercise as I had been used to do. My muscles and joints stiffened, ached intensely and hard lumps came out on the tendons of my fingers and wrists. In blank despair I went to the drug store and got five bottles of Nervine. I paid one dollar for the five. I took internally and used it outward as a rub. Two days made a change—a week saw an improvement—four weeks saw no more. I was cured, free of stiffness, pain and suffering. Nervine did it all—how I do wish all other sufferers would use Nervine also. I'm sure it will cure them, all cases.

A ST. JOHN WOMAN'S ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

(Detroit News Tribune.)
Parmenter club met with Mrs. Eaton, 50 Atkinson avenue, on Monday, and listened to a talk by Mrs. Clara B. Arthur on "Equal suffrage," in which she employed convincing arguments and indisputable statistics, with pleasing illustrations and humor, in presenting the subject. Mrs. Arthur related the incident that when Thoreau was in Concord jail because he refused to pay taxes, Emerson called upon him and remarked, "Henry, I am very much surprised to see you here!" Upon which Thoreau replied, "And I am very much surprised that you are not here." "In an assemblage of club women," continued Mrs. Arthur, "I often recall that little incident. My club friends are surprised that I champion woman suffrage, and I, in turn, am astonished that they, too, are not here. Who are with me? The names include those who have become illustrious in all civilized countries. The ballot has always proved a mighty uplifting element in the life of man, and so I believe it will in the life of woman. Celt, German, Slav, Italian and Spaniard; ignorant and brutalized by despotic governments, the black man weakened by generations of slavery have all been touched by the little paper ballot in the United States into a higher grade of manhood. They have caught a certain public spirit. So it will be with woman. With the ballot will come more ability to protect herself from the brutalizing degradation of cheap labor and shop tyranny, and with the ballot will come that interest in higher things, that sense of responsibility for civic righteousness that will benefit her sex as no other influence in modern association. The object of the woman suffragist is not the ultimate subjection of man. It is a movement for co-operation between men and women, and this is surely the keynote of our civilization, and while it rests not on woman to prove her right to the ballot, but rather upon man to show why she should be deprived of it, woman patiently attempts it."
Mrs. Clara B. Arthur referred to in the foregoing is a St. John lady and a sister of Miss Mabel Peters of this city.

In the Spring Those Little Soldiers

In your blood are as weak as your blood is impure. They are the millions of white blood corpuscles, whose duty is to protect the red blood corpuscles and bodily tissues from disease germs, to which you are more exposed at this season than at any other.

Make them strong by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla—the medicine that purifies the blood as no other medicine does. Do this without delay.

Thoroughly Exhausted.—“I would just as soon think of going without bread in my house as without Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many years ago I learned what a good medicine it is. When spring came on I was thoroughly exhausted and obliged to take my bed. I thought I would rather die than be so tired. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon noticed a change for the better, and before long was perfectly well. Since then spring has never come without my having Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. A. CANALS AND BRIDGES ARE DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE

World's Best Engineers Will be Engaged on Plans for the Quebec Bridge—Specifications for the New Structure Will be Ready in the Autumn.

Ottawa, March 5.—The commons today dealt with the canal estimates and some information of Canada's waterways was elicited.

On a vote for the Welland canal, Hon. John Duggan said that during the recent election Sir Wilfrid Laurier had made a statement at Niagara that he was in favour of deepening the Welland canal and of building the Georgian Bay canal. He thought that it would be well if the minister of railways would make a statement of the policy of the government with respect to this feature of the development of Canada's transportation system.

Hon. Mr. Graham said he believed that if the Welland canal were deepened to twenty-two or twenty-five feet, it would provide facilities not only for the trade of Canada, but also it would have the effect of diverting to Canada a considerable portion of the trade of the United States. Though he held this opinion in regard to the Welland canal, he was not prepared to understand as expressing an opinion against the Georgian Bay canal.

There were a great many conflicting opinions regarding the Georgian Bay canal but he thought its geographical situation was such that the time would come when the demands of the commerce of the west would require this to be undertaken. He thought that Canada's trade would develop that both the Georgian Bay and the enlarged Welland canals would be required.

The enlargement of the Welland canal was the less costly of the two proposals. Owing to financial conditions the government did not enter upon any new works at the present time that would involve the country in the expenditure of a large amount of money. However, as these conditions changed, as they would, the government would take a more aggressive position regarding the development of water routes.

Dr. Chisholm asked if it was true that the engineer who had surveyed the route of the Hudson Bay railroad had reported that the Winnipeg canal could be connected with Hudson Bay by canal.

Hon. Mr. Graham said that in reading the report of the engineer he had been staggered to find an opinion that a canal could be made which would enable ocean vessels to take cargo at Winnipeg. He did not think the work would be entered upon without a good deal of further investigation.

On a vote of $104,000 for the railway commission, Hon. Mr. Graham paid a tribute to the work which that board had done for the railroads and the people of Canada. He said that the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Thomas Greenway would be filled by the appointment of a western man after the return of Chairman Mabee from the west.

On a vote of $10,000 for the preparation of plans for a new Quebec bridge, Hon. Mr. Graham said that three of the leading engineers of the world were at work on the plans. They had been given a free hand as to style of structure except that it must be safe, as economical as was reasonable, that the former plans were to be examined and a report made as to whether any of the material of the old bridge could be utilized. After making the plans they were to be responsible for the erection of a bridge that would stand the traffic. The names were Messrs. Vautlet, Fitzmaurice and Modjeska, and they were each being paid $1,000 a month. The present proposal of the government was that when the plans were finished and approved of only Mr. Vautlet, the Canadian, would be

THE HIGHEST TYPE OF ENTERTAINMENT IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD. Famous Educator Praises Motion Picture Shows. "Attracting Millions to an Uplifting"

PROFESSOR FREDERICK STARR, OF CHICAGO UNIVERSITY, one of the foremost educationists in America, whose opinions are considered golden by those interested in matters that pertain to the welfare of the people, in the course of a recent lecture, made the following references to motion picture entertainment:

"I HAVE SEEN NIAGARA THUNDER over her gorge in the noblest frenzy ever known by man. I have watched a Queensland river under the white foam of a destructive flood whirling and swirling through strange lands lurking with bandit and kangaroo; I have watched an English road train draw into a station, take its passengers and the chug away with its stately little engine through the Yorkshire Dales, past old Norman abbeys, silhouetted against the sky line, while a cluster of century-old cottages loomed up in the valley below, through which a yoked drove of flocks of Southdowns; I have beheld fat old Rajahs with the price of a thousand lives bejeweled in their monster turbans, and the price of a thousand deaths sewn in their royal nightgowns as they indolently eyed in golden howdahs, borne upon backs of grunting elephants; I saw a runaway horse play battleship and shuttles with the citizens and traffic of a little Italian village, whose streets had not known so much commotion since the sailing of Columbus; I know how the Chinamen live, and I have been through the homes of the Japanese; I have marvelled at the daring of Alpine tobogganists and admired the wonderful sky jumping of Norwegian sky jumpers; I have seen armies upon the battlefield and their return in triumph; I have looked on the dances and outlandish frolics in every quarter of the globe, and I didn't have to leave Chicago for a moment.

"No books have taught me all these wonderful things—no lecturer has pictured them—I simply dropped into a moving picture theatre at various moments of leisure, and at the local theatres we can witness perhaps two performances of a visit from the moon. I have learned more than a traveller could see at the cost of thousands of dollars and years of journey. "Neither you nor I fully realize what the moving picture has meant to us, and what it is going to mean. As children we used to dream of a journey on a magician's carpet to the legendary lands of the East. Nearly two-thirds of the members of the house are now members of this committee. Col. Worthington (Shebrooke) announces he will ask for a select committee of the house to investigate the expenditure of the militia department since 1903, other than the amounts voted for annual drill, and to inquire as to the wisdom of these expenditures. Mr. Gordon (Kent) has given notice of a resolution providing for the adoption of the British method of having estimates submitted to a select standing committee of the house for examination before being dealt with by the house. This opinion, Mr. Gordon believes, would facilitate the passing of estimates and would prevent great waste of time in the commons, where every item now comes in for a close scrutiny. At a meeting of the banking committee this morning Hon. Mr. Fielding stated that the government would, on Monday next, introduce its amendments to the Dominion Insurance Act. A bill was presented to extend by two years the time for the organization of the Bank of Vancouver. Hon. Mr. Fielding raised a question of policy on this bill. He said when a bank was granted a charter it was expected to have ready the capital necessary to fulfil the conditions of the Banking Act and to take out its certificate from the department of finance. There was a question as to the advisability of extending the time of banks to qualify, unless the very special circumstances could be shown. Mr. Fielding said that he was willing to listen to any special circumstances connected with the present case. Mr. Cowan said the men behind the enterprise were sound and able. They had been ready to put up the money, take out the certificate and open for business when they were hit by the stringency in the money market. Hon. Mr. Fielding said that the explanation was satisfactory to him and the bill was reported.

Patrick wants either his liberty or death. Convicted Murderer of Millionaire Rice Argues in Support of His Plea Before Brooklyn Court.

New York, March 5.—Before the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn today, Albert T. Patrick, who was sentenced to death for the murder of William Marsh Rice in September, 1900, argued dramatically for nearly four hours for his liberty. The principal points of his contention were that his conviction was the result of a "colossal conspiracy" by the justice at his trial, and the authorities who prosecuted him, and that Gov. Higgins had no legal right to commute the sentence of the court of life imprisonment, inasmuch as he had not consented to such commutation. Decision was reserved by the court and two weeks were allowed the retrial in which to file a brief. In the meantime Patrick will be taken back to Sing Sing prison and given all the facilities he needs to prepare his brief. Assistant District Attorney Robert G. Taylor, who appeared to oppose Patrick's motion, will file a brief in reply and there will be no further proceedings in open court. The scene in court while the condemned man pleaded his case with all the legal agility and fervor of a trained lawyer was sensational. State Detective Jackson, who had brought the prisoner down from Sing Sing, sat behind him at the lawyer's table and Patrick's wife sat just behind him. Patrick declared that life imprisonment was a more severe sentence than the electric chair under the original sentence. He contended, however, that the governor's action in commuting his sentence without his consent had the effect of a pardon, because no other legal power was vested in the state in the case of a man sentenced to death. Assistant District Attorney Taylor in reply, that Patrick should either accept the sentence of life imprisonment, but if he did not accept it, the only thing left to do would be to execute him. Evil of Substitution-Exposed ARE LIQUOR LICENSES TO COST MORE MONEY?

A dealer substitutes because he makes more profit on an inferior article. A local citizen was induced to take a substitute for Putnam's Corn Extractor, with the result that the substitute burnt his toes and failed to cure. Putnam's contains no alcohol and is guaranteed. Always get Putnam's or no other. There is reported among the liquor dealers a feeling that the government propose to raise the license fee. A number said they were expecting that this would be done and that the effect would be that the number of licenses would be reduced. The liquor dealers are preparing to present their case to the government. Several meetings have been held and an organization, which includes a number of wholesale dealers and hotel license holders, has been completed. A delegation will wait upon Premier Hazen to discuss with him their views on the amendment to the act. It is said they will object to a changing of the condition which makes it necessary to have a majority of the voters on the list before no license can be carried. Applications for liquor licenses must be filed with Inspector Jones by the 25th inst. Mr. Jones said yesterday that he has received fourteen applications, already. Eleven are for retail establishments, two for wholesale and one hotel.

COURTENAY BAY PROJECT THE SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Dr. Daniel Seeks to Misrepresent Hon. Wm. Pugsley's Statements in Regard to Dredging, but He Was Foiled—Item of $475,000 for St. John Harbor Improvements is Passed

Ottawa, March 5.—A vote of $475,000 for improvements at the harbor of St. John, created some discussion. Dr. Daniel wanted to know in what manner it was proposed to spend the money.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley replied that it would be devoted to completing wharf extensions on the western side of the harbor and to dredging work. Dr. Daniel asked whether any of the money would be spent on Courtenay Bay. Dr. Pugsley said he was not certain. That would depend on the National Transcontinental Railway's action.

Dr. Daniel—What action? Dr. Pugsley—The fixing of their terminals in the Maritime Provinces. The National Transcontinental authorities have stated to me that Courtenay Bay is the only suitable place where they can establish their terminals, so far as St. John is concerned.

Dr. Daniel—What will the minister do with the contracts which he stated had let in Courtenay Bay? Dr. Pugsley—I do not state I had let any contracts in Courtenay Bay. The honorable member is drawing upon his imagination.

Dr. Daniel quoted from "The Telegraph" report of Dr. Pugsley's speech at Little River on Oct. 21, which contained the following: "I have asked for tenders for carrying out this great work, and it will be complete shortly." I am authorized to call for tenders and to let contracts."

Dr. Pugsley—You said I had let the contracts. Dr. Daniel then referred to another paper containing a plan of the proposed harbor work and stating that a contract for dredging 10,000,000 cubic yards in St. John had been awarded by the Minister of Public Works, and that work would be commenced immediately. Dr. Daniel asked if the statement was true.

Dr. Pugsley—I said in St. John exactly what was the case. Dr. Daniel was very skeptical about the possibility of dredging Courtenay Bay. I think he intended the dredging that it would take fifty years to do it. The Minister of Public Works said that Dr. Daniel had apparently been misinformed. "What I told the voters of last year," said Dr. Pugsley, "that the vote of last year was for harbor improvements."

LIVELY SESSION IN TRIAL OF CARMACK'S MURDERERS

Lawyers for State Are Vigorously Tearing to Pieces the Fabric of Evidence Created by the Defence.

Nashville, Tenn., March 5.—This was the state's day in the trial of Colonel D. B. Robin Cooper and John Sharp for the murder of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack. Not only did it tear to pieces what was left of the testimony of J. B. Bunting, the defence's mysterious witness, who said he saw the shooting, but it challenged the right of the Coopers to be on the stand at all on the day he was on the stand. It did this by impeaching the testimony of the governor and others who asserted that the Coopers were invited to the mansion and that while on their way they met Carmack and a street duel followed.

The attack on the case of the defence began early today when two witnesses swore that Banning the night of the tragedy said to them: "If I had been five or ten minutes earlier I would have seen the killing." Later in the day the state introduced evidence which showed that the defence gave for being on the street, Carmack must traverse to get to Governor's mansion. This reason was that Governor Patterson had sent for the colonel and Robin accompanied his father. Assistant General Brown, Judge Bradford, Colonel Cooper and Robin Cooper testified that after Colonel Cooper left Bradford's office just before the shooting, General Brown recalled him to talk to the governor over the telephone and that it was in obedience to the governor's command that the men were on Seventh Avenue on which is the executive mansion when they met Carmack.

Two witnesses swore that after Colonel Cooper left Bradford's office he neither returned voluntarily nor was recalled to the telephone by anyone. And one, Miss Daisy Lee, declared that instead of the governor calling the colonel, the colonel called the governor at the capitol. The latter testimony, however, was not permitted to reach the jury.

In rebuttal, too, the state attacked Judge Bradford. Miss Lee swore that he told her he could have shot Carmack himself with as little remorse as he would have a rattlesnake. She also swore that Paul Davis, another witness for the defence, declared to her that he would perjure himself to get on the stand.

When the day was over the state announced that it would have but two or more witnesses to complete its case in rebuttal tomorrow. The defence has not announced its purpose yet, but it is safe to say that these arguments will begin next week. No time limit will be put on either side. There are a score of lawyers in the case and the speeches doubtless will last several days.

Soon after court adjourned, the state's attorneys went into conference. At 8 p. m. they emerged and Attorney General McCann held warrant for the arrest of S. J. Banning on a charge of perjury. The specific allegation is that when he testified that he saw Senator Carmack twirling the cylinder of his revolver, he swore to a lie. The warrant was served at once.

HAMILTON, ONT., HAS ANOTHER MYSTERY

Hamilton, Ont., March 5.—The police here tonight are busy with a brand new case. Police-man Smith and Citizen Hanley last night in a way connected with the murder of Ethel Kinard,
 one week ago yesterday.

"Nothing in the nature of a childhood friend," said the police, "was killed by the murder of Ethel Kinard,
 one week ago yesterday."

Inspector Campbell, who is in charge of the investigation of last night's shooting, was equally sure there was nothing to the theory.

What was the purpose of the thing in attempting to steal from the Kappela house a motley collection of clothing and odds and ends, which was found in a little canvas bag which he dropped in his flight? This is another problem to deepen the mystery in the Hamilton police and detective force.

There was some intruder living in the empty house who had snatched up mat-terials for disguise at the last moment when he was disturbed? Was he some one in hiding who was wanted for some other crime?

The police today are trying to discover if anyone who saw the fugitive's hurried departure over fences could furnish a description of him.

The mission band of Leinster Street
 Baptist church held a successful concert last night in the vestry. There was a large audience. The following programme was much appreciated: Chorus, the band;
 piano solo, Dorothy Waterbury; recitations, Myrtle Evans, Nellie Malloy, Margaret Carter, Willie Dixon, Harold Preston, Archie Gillies, Laura Hoyt, Florence Wilkins' solos, Master Anderson, entry including the time required to earn homestead patent, and cultivate fifty acres.
 Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $200.00.
