Beware of Imitations.

The Bell Organs having become so popular among musicans, some manufacturers in Canada lave constructed an instrument which they earl the "Bell Organ," and are endeavouring to force it upon the market in place of the world reconvel "Wim. Bell Organ," "That its rament, however, while it, in build, is somewhat similar to the "Wim. Bell Organ," is a much inferior one, and possesses none of the finer points of the Celebrated Organ. Every one of the "Wim Bell Organ," is a six trade mark—TWO BELLS—painted upon it, and NONE ARE GENVINE WITHOUTTHIS MARK.
