and the production of papers, so that prosecutions at the Assizes and Quarter Sessions may not be unnecessarily delayed or fail through want of existing proof that might be secured ;

To institute and conduct prosecutions at Quarter Sessions.

Secondly—To institute and conduct on the part of the Crown, prosecutions for felonies and misdemeanors at the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County he is appointed to, in the same manner as the Law Officers of Crown institute and conduct similar prosecutions at the Courts of Assize, and with like rights and privileges, and generally to attend to all criminal business at such Court of Quarter Sessions,—to perform also the like duties in the Recorder's Court in those Counties wherein such Courts are or shall be erected ;

And Recorder's Courts.

To watch over certain cases brought by private prosecutors.

Thirdly—To watch over the conduct of cases at the Court of Quarter Sessions, wherein it is questionable if the conduct complained of be punishable by law, or where the particular act or omission presents more of the features of a private injury than a public offence ; and without unnecessarily interfering with private individuals, who wish in such cases to prosecute, to assume wholly the conduct of the case where justice towards the accused seems to demand his interposition ;

To deliver papers connected with criminal business at Assizes to Crown Officer.

Fourthly—To deliver to the Crown Officer all papers connected with the criminal business at the Court of Assize, on or before the opening of the Court ; to be present at such Court, and if required, to assist the Crown Officer in attendance with the Criminal business of the Court, and in the absence of the Law Officers of the Crown and of Counsel appointed by the Attorney General, the County Attorney to represent the Crown himself, and take the charge and conduct of the criminal business to be done at such Court of Assize for his County ;

To institute and conduct summary proceedings before Magistrates where the Public Revenue, &c., is concerned.

Fifthly—To institute and conduct proceedings before Justices of the Peace (under the Statutes conferring summary powers to convict) for offences in relation to the Public Revenue, the Public Property, the Public Domain, the Public Peace, and the Public Health, and in relation to any other matter or thing made punishable on summary conviction before Justices of the Peace, provided he shall be required so to do by the general regulations touching his office to be made in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter contained ; and the County Attorney is hereby empowered to institute such proceedings, on a complaint in writing, or as Public Prosecutor in cases wherein the public interest require the exercise of such office ;

To advise Magistrates at their request.

Sixthly—To advise and instruct Magistrates in respect to criminal offences brought before them for preliminary investigation or for adjudication, upon being requested by any such Magistrates so to do, such request to be in writing and to contain a statement of the particular case ;

Seventhly—To perform all such duties and services as the Governor shall by regulations in Council from time to time prescribe and direct for carrying out the provisions of this Act or any Act to be hereafter passed imposing duties upon County Attorneys, and also touching the office of County Attorney and the prosecution of offenders against the criminal laws of this Province ;

To perform duties to be assigned by Regulations in Council.

Eighthly—To perform all the duties which are now performed by the County Treasurer in each County as “ Receiver of Fees,” and in relation to the collections, receipts and disbursements for and in respect to the County Court, Court of Insolvent Debtors and Division Courts, in his County ;

To act as Receiver of Fees for County.

Ninthly—To perform such duties as Auditor of Accounts the payment whereof is charged upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governor in Council ;

To audit accounts under Orders in Council in that behalf.

Tenthly—To perform all such other duties and services as may be required of or imposed upon County Attorneys by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament or hereafter to be passed.

To perform duties to be assigned to him by any Act.

VI. Every County Attorney, before he shall be qualified to act as such, shall take before some County Judge the following oath, that is to say :

County Attorney to take oath of office.

“ I do swear that I will truly and faithfully according to the best of my skill and ability execute the several duties, powers and trusts of County Attorney for the County of _____ without favor or affection to any party. So help me God.”

The Oath.

VII. In every case of misdemeanor tried at the Court of Quarter Sessions in which costs are or may be ordered to be paid by a Defendant, the County Attorney shall be entitled to fees as Attorney and Counsel for services rendered in such case, to be taxed by the Court according to the scale of allowance in the County Courts as nearly as the nature of such services will allow, such fees in case of conviction to form part of the costs payable by a Defendant. And in all cases of felony tried as aforesaid and in all cases of misdemeanor in which no costs have been ordered to be paid, or, if ordered to be paid, cannot be made of the Defendant, the County Attorney shall be entitled to receive for the services rendered by him in each case the sum of Twenty-five shillings, to be paid upon certificate of the Chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and to form a portion of the expenses of the administration of Criminal Justice in Upper Canada.

Fees in cases conducted by him at trial, where costs are paid by Defendant.

And in cases of felony or misdemeanor when costs are not paid by Defendant.

VIII. It shall and may be lawful for the Governor in Council to make such general regulations as to him shall seem expedient

Governor in Council to make regulations as to duties of County Attorneys, &c.

dient, for carrying out the provisions of this Act or any Act to be hereafter passed imposing duties upon County Attorneys, and also touching the office of County Attorney, and for the prosecution of offenders against the criminal laws of this Province, and from time to time to alter such regulations.
