DEATH OF REV. JOHN P. MACINTOSH.

In the death of pneumonia, following influenza, last Sunday, of Rev. John P. MacIntosh, the Presbyterian Church in the Maritime Provinces has suffered a distinct loss. Mr. MacIntosh was but a young man and his ministry gave great promise. He was born in Pleasant Bay, C. B., thirty-three years ago and received his education for the Ministry at Dalhousie University and the Presbyterian College Halifax, at which he graduated in 1912. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Halifax on April 24, 1912, and was ordained and inducted into the pastoral charge of Onslow by the Presbytery of Truro on May 16 of the same year. After four years of successful work in Onslow he accepted a call to Bridgewater, to the great regret of the people of his first charge who had become devotedly attached to him. His induction at Bridgewater took place on April 21, 1916, and the same encouraging fruits followed his labors in this field as were manifest in Onslow. His preaching was thoughtful, earnest and evangelical. He followed the apostolic injunction to "preach the word" and in his pastoral work he greatly endeared himself to the people. The suddenness of his call, (he was sick only about a week) was a stunning blow not only to his family and immediate friends, but to the whole community. He leaves to mourn their great loss a wife and two young children; also his mother and three sisters one of whom is seriously ill overseas.—Presbyterian Witness, March 1.

Mr. MacIntosh was ill only six days—carried off with a sharp attack of pneumonia following "flu."

He had been stationed at Bridgewater about three years. The funeral was held on the 25th ult. and was largely attended; and in the services the Revs. McKean and McKinnon of Lunenburg; Rev. Mr. McLean of Mahone and Rev. Dr. Hill Yarmouth, took part.

The burial was in the cemetery at Bridgewater.

The widow and her two little children, Ruth and Christia, are still in Bridgewater.

His three sisters are Mrs. Fraser, wife of Rev. E. J. D. Fraser, Missionary in Korea; Rebecca a Nursing Sister overseas and Cassie training as a Nurse at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Prof. D. S. McIntosh, Dalhousie University, is a cousin of the deceased. Mr. Howard McLellan, Noel Shore; is a brother of Mrs. McIntosh, and Mrs. R. B. McLennan of Brookfield and Miss Aletha McLellan of Boston are sisters.

A very clever and talented preacher has past away by the death of Mr. McIntosh. He was a Scholarship winner in his College course; most liberally educated and his pulpit addresses were marked with ability and scholarship and delivered with force and eloquence.

Three stores were buglarized in New Glasgow within three days.

GNR. LUDWIG V. CHISHOLM, DIED RECENTLY IN GERMANY.

Word has been received by Mrs. William Layton, McMullen Street, Truro, that her nephew, Gunner Ludwig V. Chisholm, had died in Germany recently.

The deceased enlisted with the 10th Siege Battery Halifax, and went overseas with that force.

Gnr. Chisholm, lived in Truro for a number of years. He was a gifted musician and was every ready to assist in any musical entertainment given in Truro. He studied the Pipe organ here under Professors Whitehead and Wellard.

At the time of his being called to the army, he was leader of the "Lyric Orchestra," well and favorably remembered by the music-loving citizens of Truro.

Gunner Chisholm's very many friends will sincerely regret to learn of his death in Germany.

Mr. Walter Donkin, a well known and most efficient grocery man, is now in charge of the grocery department of Brenton and Crowell's Young Street Market.

Masterpieces of the World's Great Orchestras

Do you love glorious symphonies, majestic overtures, brilliant ballet music from grand opera?

Do you know that five of the most famous orchestras in America play their wondrous music exclusively for Columbia Records? They include the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, the New York Philharmonic, the Cincinnati Symphony.

Nothing you have ever heard can compare with these masterpieces of music, interpreted by these noted groups of master musicians.

Columbia Grafonolas and Records

Come in today and let us play you some of these superb records. You will find in the list of selections everything you could desire: ballads, patriotic melodies, operas, and on through the intricate, dazzling compositions of Brahms, Gounod, Liszt.

These great orchestras have selected the Columbia as their record medium because Columbia Tone, after repeated tests, has shown itself to their trained ears to be the most faithful and beautiful.

Let us demonstrate Columbia Tone to you—in whatever musical selection you may choose.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years' experience is at your service.

LANCE CORPORAL ROBERT J. BELL, AMHERST, WON M. M.

Lance Corporal Robert J. Bell, M. M. of Amherst is one of the brave soldiers of the War, who started in with the 17th Battalion in August 1914. He was fascinated with the sea, as a youngster and had traveled half around the globe, before the war began. When the war broke out he enlisted and was soon at Valcariter and went over the ocean with Sir Sam's 33,000 men of the First Contingent. He was soon in Europe and at 20 years of age was wounded at the Second Battle of Ypres. At Vimy Ridge he was again wounded. He has been mentioned in despatches by Field Marshal Haig on several occasions. At the Somme in 1916 he was awarded the Military Medal for carrying despatches thru very heavy barrage after other runners had been killed or wounded. This brave young soldier, now in Amherst, is a nephew of Mrs. A. G. Blomquist, Smith's Avenue, Truro.

HOME AGAIN.

Lieut. Henry Dawson, M. C. who arrived in St. John some two weeks ago on the S. S. Tunisian and was on escort duty as far West as Calgary, reached his Truro home last night. Lieut Dawson went overseas with the Dalhousie Hospital. Unit under Col. John Stewart. C. A. M. C. in December 1915. He got a Commission in the 85th Bn. in July 1917, and was in lots of scraps there after with the Huns. At Lens he was wounded; two other Truro soldiers, Capt. Archie McKay, and Lieut. Stan. Smith were "hit" in the same fight. Lieut. Dawson was transferred to the Canadian Artillery in April 1918. He was still in the fight and was wounded again in September 1918. This young Officer has fought a good fight and on all sides the "glad hand" is extended in welcome to this hero soldier.

GREAT WORK OF MAYOR DR. RALPH FITCH IN THE WAR ZONE.

Expert Orthopedist From Rochester, N. Y.—Returned a Knight of Legion of Honor.

We have been favored with copies of the Rochester N. Y. Herald of January 27th, and 29th, more than a month old, by the way, in which are very detailed accounts of the simply wonderful work in France of Dr. Ralph Fitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch, of Truro, in his famous work as an orthopedist in the war since 1914. With the assistance of his noble wife he has established Hospitals and with a skill staff of experts and Nurses he has made men, "war-wrecks" indeed, to move as good as new men. He has proved himself one of the foremost surgeons and specialists in the whole war zone. He has spent more than four years in self-sacrificing service and his name will go down in connection with the U. S. A. Medical Corps in the Great War, as one of its most brilliant officers. He returns with the rank of Major and he was made by the President of France, "a Knight of the Legion of Honor." The City of Rochester has nobly welcomed and entertained this brilliant specialist; and his wonderful work has been acknowledged by grateful fellows citizens on all sides; and he receives loud acclaim as the simply miraculous results of the three Fitch Hospitals in France are brought before the people.

We here in Colchester especially in the town of Truro, are proud of his success and he has our hearty congratulations; but we also have happy felicitations for his parents—our well known and popular "Bob Fitch" and "Abbie Hyde"—that they were privileged to have in the Great War Zone, for over four years a son, who has done so much to relieve human sufferings and to make new men from War Wrecks; and to return with honors as nobly won as if he had been in the front fighting lines.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Grave's Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

AMID NEW AND PLEASANT SURROUNDINGS.

The many friends that Mr. George W. Murchy, late of Moose River, Mines, Hfx. Co., made around the Camp Fires and as a most obliging and efficient Guide in forest and over lake and river, will be glad to know that he is most pleasantly situated in connection with a model farm, owned by E. D. Morgan, at Westbury, Long Island, New York. Times got dull at the tungsten mines at Scheelite, near Moose River, so last year, Mr. Murchy took his family and migrated to the United States. He was finally settled at the place mentioned above and is employed, with most delightful surroundings, on a farm, that a New York Millionaire is developing into one of the model farms of the whole State. This well tilled farm produced last year.

12760 bushels of potatoes.
1300 bushels rye
2300 bushels corn
135 bushels wheat
260 tons hay
80 tons ensilage corn,

besides unlimited quantities of garden Vegetables of every Variety. "Guide" Murchy is assisting to make this model farm yet more productive; and he is most interested in his work but the "lure of the wild" ever and again comes up and he is lonesome for the unrivalled sea, lake and river fishing, and the lordly moose hunting of his native Nova Scotia. It has been suggested to him to tell the owners of this great model farm of the simply peerless hunting and fishing of this Province down by the loud sounding sea and induce them to take a "day off" in the proper season for the most enjoyable holiday that ever fell to mortal man.

Lemons Beautify!

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Wind and chafe, roughness, tan and redness are, warded off and those tell-tale lines of care or of age are softened away. The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart. A pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice thru a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then the lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

The delegates of the Labor Convention in Halifax have about decided on a Constitution for the Federation of Labor and the officers elected are as follows: President—C. C. Dane. 1st Vice-President—Michael Byrne, Glace Bay. 2nd Vice-President—Ralph Eisner, Halifax. 3rd Vice-President—John A. Gillis, Sydney. Secretary-Treasurer—Joseph Sexton, Glace Bay. Additional principles of the Platform are abolition of the Legislative Council's placing of union labels on all manufactures; the abolition of the labor of children under 16 years of age; abolition of property qualifications for holders of public offices; proportional representation by group constituencies; the adoption of initiative, referendum and recall in politics, and the prevention of the competition of prison labor with ordinary labor.

WHOLESALE GROCERY

It is reported on good authority that a wholesale grocery business, the personnel of which will include some of the best business men of Truro, will be started soon. We hope to be in a position to give further particulars next week. Pictou is an ideal location for wholesale groceries, being the natural distributing point for North Cape Breton, the short Line, the Magdalen Islands, and a large part of Prince Edward land. —Pictou Advocate.

STEWART-MACINNIS

A quite wedding took place at the Presbyterian Manse on Feb. 17th. When Addie Lavina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacInnis of New Minas, was united in marriage to Alexander Stewart of Prince Edward Island. The happy couple left on the 9 o'clock train for Truro, where they spent a few days, returning on the following Saturday. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will reside in Kentville—Kentville Advertiser.

A HERO HOME.

Pte. Robert Deyarmond, son of Mr. James Deyarmond, Glenburnie, Col. Co., who enlisted early in the war, arrived in the port of Halifax on the 1st. He soon got word to the "old home at home" and joined the family circle that night amid great rejoicing. Pte. Deyarmond has fought nobly for King and Country. He lost an eye in the great fight; but he fought well for the preservation and protection of his home and his homeland. He has of late been doing war work in the Forestry Battalion. He has received a serious set-back in life, but a fellow of his patriotic bilt and make-up will easily overcome the loss he has suffered in battle. Welcome home; you brave Colchester fighter.

Simple and Sure—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Used as a liniment the only direction is to rub, and when used as a dressing to apply. The directions are so plain and unmistakable that they are readily understood by young or old.

WILL ATTEND THE TOY SHOW AT NEW YORK.

Meers Tom Pattillo and Chas. Thomas, representing, T. S. Pattillo, and Co., of this town, left on the 1st for New York, where they will attend the "great Toy" Exhibition, held there this week. This big show of Toys was an annual event at Leipsic, Germany, before the war. An attempt is now being made to establish the Exhibition in New York for the future. It is claimed that the conditions are such that the great "toy-world" for the youngsters can now be operated independent of the cheap gew-gaws that came from Germany.

MR. MELVILLE SCHAFFNER DIED LAST NIGHT IN SASKATOON OF INFLUENZA.

Daily News, March 3
Relatives, in Truro, this morning received telegraphic information of the death of Melville Schaffner formerly of Truro which took place at Saskatoon on Sunday night March 2nd from Influenza. The deceased was a son of the late Col. Schaffner, of Pleasant Street, Truro. There are left his widow, formerly Miss Emma Stuart, daughter of Geo. W. Stuart, J. P., Truro, and five children. The deceased went to Saskatoon about twelve years ago and at the time of his death was the Saskatchewan representative of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company.

SUCCESSFUL RACES AT McELMONS POND.

1000 Spectators—fine ice—keenly contested Races.

The races at McElmon's Pond Tuesday afternoon March 4 were the best races pulled off in this country for many-a-day.

There were twelve "flyers" on the ice. Mr. E. C. McKenzie, who had the managing of these speeding contests in hand, did his work highly satisfactory to all interested in the day's sport.

There were fully 1000 people present, parties went from Truro, New Glasgow, Shubenacadie, Stewiacke, Tatamagouche, Great Village, Belmont, Debert, Maitland and other points.

The heavy snow on the racing course had been removed and seven half mile tracks had been prepared. Mr. Angus Chisholm, Debert had prepared this race course in good style.

The races were as follows:—

SHE TRIED THEM AND FOUND SATISFACTION.

What Mrs. McKay Says of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Gives the Real Reason Why Dodd's Kidney Pills Continue to Grow in Popularity as a Kidney Remedy.

Salt Spring, N. S.—Feb'y 21st—(Special)—"I have found satisfaction in using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I recommend them to all who suffer."

This is the statement of Mrs. Howard P. McKay, a well-known and highly-respected resident of this place. That statement goes straight to the point, even as Dodd's Kidney Pills go straight to the kidneys.

For Dodd's Kidney Pills are long past the experimental stage in Nova Scotia. For more than a quarter of a century they have been in use as a household remedy for kidney diseases and those other ills that come from sick kidneys.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have done just what Mrs. McKay says. They have given "satisfaction."

They have been used to treat rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, dropsy, sore back, gravel, and other similar ills. That they continue to give satisfaction is evidenced by their ever-growing popularity.

If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills, ask your neighbors about them.

HERE'S A MAN WHO CAN CHOP 4 CORDS OF WOOD IN EIGHT HOURS.

3718-12 Ave West, Dunbar Heights, Vancouver, B. C. Feb. 17, 1919.

Editor Truro News:
As I am a reader of your valuable paper I have read an article on wood-chopping.

For myself I have walked in the country of North Victoria, Ontario three miles in the month of January and cut four cords of green frozen maple and split it in eight hours and walked three miles back home.

I have also walked three miles in the month of June and chopped four cords of four foot wood and split it in eight hours. I also chopped another day four cords of green frozen maple and black oak and split it in less than eight hours. I am as a man, now 73 years of age and only for an accident that happened me eight years ago, I could chop two cords of maple yet, just for fun, or for money. Please insert this in the Truro News and oblige.
Yours respectfully,
G. M. PERKINS.

An Early Spring

is promised by all the weather signs. This, up to the present time, has been the most open winter we have experienced for many years, and is in direct contrast to the winter of a year ago. At that time the woods was full of ice and snow which made a very late and a very short spring.

An early spring means a better opportunity for the farmer to work his land, prepare the ground for extra large crops and a long planting season. Every farmer should be in a position to take advantage of the promised weather conditions and a long spring season.

It is not desirable to get in the crops too early as often late spring rains and a late frost will undo all the work which the early spring allows, but the farmer should have his land ready his seeds ready and his fertilizer ready which will give him an opportunity to get in a large acreage.

Whatever the conditions are from year to year the man who has the largest crop to sell at the selling season is the man who is the best off, and this is true whether the prices are high or low.

Fertilizer is a necessity and if you have not arranged for your fertilizer already, it is time to do it now, as the time when you will need it is almost here.

DETH OF HIBBARD REYNOLDS UPPER MUSQUODOBOIT HALIFAX, CO. N. S.

The deth of Hibbard Reynolds, aged 19 years, occurred on March 4th about midnight at the home of Dr. John Reid, Upper Musquodoboit, where he had been taken for an operation for appendicitis.

His death was very sudden, coming after an illness of a few days and was a great shock to his family and friends. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds, Upper Stewiacke, by one brother Clyde, and one sister, Ada, both living at home.

It is just a short time since Mrs. Reynolds received the sad news of the deth of her sister, Mrs. Harold Durning, Halifax, caused by appendicitis, also, and the loss of this son, makes the affliction doubly hard. The bereaved parents, brother, and sister, have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends, in their loss of son and brother.

PRESENTATION TO OUR TWO VICTORIAN NURSES.

After the installation of new nurses, Miss Dunwoodie will be retiring for at least a period from the Truro Local Association V. O. N.

Miss Murray leaves this week to resume her duties as Superintendent of Dr. Grenfell's Harrington Harbor Hospital.

On Tuesday evening of this week the President of the Order took this occasion to invite the nurses to her home to meet the ladies of the V. O. N. Executive. Miss Dunwoodie was made the recipient of a ladies' Club Bag with silver name plate, suitably inscribed from the Order. Miss Murray was presented with a brooch with Nova Scotia stone in gold setting.

These presentations had the following complimentary addresses, given in behalf of the V. O. N.

Address to Miss Dunwoodie.

Truro, N. S. March 4, 1919.

Miss Helen Dunwoodie, Truro, N. S.

Dear Miss Dunwoodie:

It was with deep regret that the Executive of the Truro Local Association Victorian Order of Nurses heard of your intended departure from our midst, and we find it very difficult to express in words our appreciation of your services.

During your connection with our Order, you have proved yourself an efficient, untiring worker and into many hearts and homes in our town, you have helped to bring brightness, good cheer and health; and there are many who think of you as a helpful friend, as well as a skillful nurse.

We wish to assure you of our best wishes for your future welfare always and hope that you may some day again come our way.

We ask you to accept this Ladies' Club Bag, as a token of friendship and esteem and which we trust you will find of value on many a delightful trip.

On behalf of the Order,
MRS. A. A. ARCHIBALD,
President.

Address to Miss Murray.

Truro, N. S., March 4, 1919.

Miss Marian A. Murray, Truro, N. S.

Dear Miss Murray:

The Executive of the Truro V.O.N. wish to assure you of their appreciation of your invaluable services at the time when the Influenza epidemic was sweeping over our town and county; also your untiring efforts in the schools.

We wish it were so that you might remain with us, but a broader field is calling, so we wish you good luck and God speed.

We ask you to accept, as a souvenir of the few months spent in this Branch of the Order, a brooch—our own Nova Scotia stone in a setting of gold. And when you "dress up" to go calling in Labrador, wear it in honor of the Truro V. O. N.

On behalf of the Order,
MRS. A. A. ARCHIBALD,
President.

The Truro Electric Light Commission have had a dispute on with the Bras' d'Or Coal Mines regarding six car loads of alleged inferior coal, for nearly four months.

On Friday the Chairman of the Commission secured the authority of the Board for the secretary and himself to meet the mine manager and endeavor to reach a settlement without defending legal proceedings. They were successful in securing a rebate of about $300.00 on the alleged poor material and gave a check for the balance in full.

THE BOYS' CONFERENCE.

The New Glasgow Enterprise on March 1, in referring to the Boy's Conference in that town from Feb. 21, to Feb. 23, said:

Friday Saturday and Sunday "The Boys Conference" met in New Glasgow. There were more than 300 boys from the different towns of Nova Scotia present. The professionals who spoke to the boys during the several meetings of the Conference, were: Rev. J. C. Robertson, L. A. Buckley, P. F. Moriarity, etc.

The boys were all billeted in New Glasgow homes and were well taken care of, and they enjoyed themselves.

At the banquet on Saturday evening and at the closing Session on Sunday evening, it was a magnificent sight to look down and see these fine enthusiastic, manly, teen age boys, while the New Glasgow Cadet band in appearance could not be duplicated in Nova Scotia.

The Eastern Chronicle and the Evening News also had kindly words of this Conference and of the good conduct of the manly group of young lads that made their home in New Glasgow for two or three days.

This is good training and such a Conference introduces the Boys to some of the conditions that they will be up against in after life. It teaches them to be men and to commence, as boys, to face some of the responsibilities that they will later run up against.

TRURO OFFICER RETURNS FROM THE FRONT.

Among the returned veterans by the S. S. Belgic, that arrived in Halifax on the 1st, was Lieut. I. Logan Barnhill, son of Conductor Barnhill, Queen Street, Truro.

Lieut. Barnhill was an officer in No. 2 Construction Battalion.

In England he was transferred to the Royal Flying Force and proved a most efficient, daring and expert Aviator.

He has done fine service and we all give him a hearty home welcome.

FUNERAL OF REV. MR. MC-GILLIVRAY.

The funeral of the late Rev. J. D. McGillivray took place at the First Presbyterian Church this forenoon at 10.30 o'clock.

Many friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to this well known clergyman.

The services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Fraser of St. Andrew's Church, Truro who gave a most sympathetic and timely address.

He was assisted in the services by Rev. E. J. Davies, Clifton and Rev. Mr. Bradley, Valley.

The pall bearers were:—
C. M. Dawson
R. O. McCurdy
H. H. Johnson
J. D. McKay.

THE LATE WILLIAM ROEBUCK.

After a long illness there past away on February 28 the well known Mr. William Roebuck of Young Street, Truro.

This good citizen was well known to many of the older citizens of our town; and came to Truro early in life from England.

In the immediate family there survive two sons, Wilfrid, Prince Street, Truro, and Alfred, Charlottown, P. E. I., and three daughters; Mrs. Robert Wooley, and Mrs. John Gazeley, Young Street, Truro and Mrs. George Logan, Park Road.

S. S. MEGANTIC FOR HALIFAX.

The S. S. Megantic sailed from Liverpool on Feb. 25, for Halifax.

There are 1,199 Canadian soldiers aboard.

For Halifax district five officers and 110 other ranks.

The Megantic should reach Halifax by March 5.

DEATH OF JAMES H. KENNEDY.

There past away at his son's residence at Middle Stewiacke on March 1, James H. Kennedy in the seventy first year of his age, after a lingering illness. He was a life-long resident of Middle Stewiacke, respected by all who knew him.

In the immediate family there remain three sons, Fredrick Frank, and Murry, all of Middle Stewiacke; his wife, Sarah Leard, predeceased him something over five years.

The funeral was held at the Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, March 4.

Send a Dominion Express Money Order. They are payable everywhere.

THE LATE JOHN P. HOGAN.

There passed away at the Dufferin Mines, Halifax Co on the 13th inst. John Porter Hogan, at the advanced age of 82. He was born at Salmon River, Guys Co., and in his young days he worked in the lumber woods and at mining and even sailed out New York as a sailor.

Having obtained a common school education, he became a school-teacher, and taught at Sheet Har. for the period of 13 yrs. and at Sherbrooke for 3 yrs. While teaching at the latter place Sherbrooke his first wife died and was buried there. After that he came to Port Dufferin, and in company with Mr. Yeyden, Eph. McGrath, and J. H. Whitman, started in prospecting on the west side of the Salmon River, but not finding the yellow color in sufficient quantity, the work was dropped. Mr. Hogan then secured a number of acres of land at the Dufferin Mines and settled there, and a few years later he married a widow, Mrs. McLellan.

Mr. Hogan, was a Presbyterian of the old class with strong convictions, which he earnestly tried to uphold. Always giving his tithe, etc. He was also a strong temperance man, and during the war, he spared neither his time nor strength, but canvassed the eastern shore many a time to raise funds to purchase Bibles for the soldiers.

Mr. Hogan was one of the oldest members of Eureka Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Sheet Har., and he always took an active part in masonry. He was buried in St. James Cemetery beside the remains of his son-in-law, George Crossman, with full masonic honors. The funeral sermon was preached in the Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Mr. McGowan, Sheet Har. who delivered a most excellent address, and paid many a well-deserved tribute to the character of the deceased. The text was taken from Rev. 14ch-13v. 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth—Yea saith the spirit that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.'

He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, and two sons, James M. of Amherst, who was present at the funeral. Chas. P. Cobalt, and three daughters;—Mrs. Wm. Hennessy (Sadie) Leadville, Colorado.

Mrs. George Crossman (Blanche) and Etta Maud, at Fernie, B. C., His son, John Ashton, was killed in Mexico, in 1903.

The heart felt sympathy of the community is extended to them all.

STODDARD-MOSHER

A pretty wedding took place at West Jeddore, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 18, when Beatrice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosh, of Ostrera Lake, became the bride of Maurice Edmund Stoddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stoddard, Rev. John Macaskill of Muscodorboit Harbor was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was becomingly aired and looked very pretty. The many friends of the young couple join in wishing them every happiness.

GRANT-MALCOLM.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Stellarton Manse on February 24th. Rev. Mr. Outbridge officiated.

The contracting parties were Miss Frances daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Malcolm, formerly of Westville, and John E. Grant of Halifax, son of Lieut. William J. Grant. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thompson of Stellarton. The bride looked charming in a blue tailored suit with black picture hat.

A sumptuous repast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Lourdes. The happy couple left the following day for their home in Truro, where they will reside. The bride is one of Westville's fairest young ladies, and the groom is one of the popular young men of Halifax.

SOLDIERS FOR FARM LANDS.

Prof. J. M. Trueman and Capt. Hugh Dickson, left for Halifax today to attend a meeting of the Board on the qualification of soldiers for settlement on farm lands. The government advances 90 per cent of the value of the farm up to $5000, also improvements up to $2000; and further up to $1000 for stock to any soldier, recommended by this Board. The stock loan must be repaid within six years. On the other items the borrower has 30 years time. In this way a farmer soldier may borrow $8,000 from the government at a low rate on long terms with minimum security.

At St. Matthew's Manse, 317 Barrington Street, on the afternoon of Wednesday, February 26. Mr. Lenard Stanley Faulkner, of Lower Selma, Hants Co., and Miss Sara Emma Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lewis, of Upper Economy Colchester Co., were united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner, after a short holiday in Nova Scotia, will leave for the West, taking up their residence in Balder, Manitoba—Halifax Chronicle, Feb. 28.

Rev. D. E. Hatt, a former pastor of the Cornwallis Baptist Church, Canada, has just published a book of poems entitled "Sitka Spruce." Mr. Hatt is a brother of F. W. Hatt, of Liverpool.

War Savings Certificate in Great Britain from Feb. 22 1916 to Jan. 18, 1919, amounted to the enormous sum of $1,435,151,000 and during these years in that same of Briton's homeland National War Bonds were sold to the amount of $8,226,688,670.

At Stellarton, N. S. Feb. 21, the death took place of Mrs. W. A. D. Morse, widow of Hon. W. A. D. Morse, aged 67 years. Three sons and two daughters survive. Mrs. A. R. Dickey, widow of Hon. A. R. Dickey, formerly minister of justice in the cabinet of Sir Charles Tupper, is a surviving sister of the deceased.

Dr. C. E. Avery DeWitt has been offered the position of Medical Superintendent of the Queen Alexandra Hospital at London, Ontario, at a large salary. The Hospital is one of the best in upper Canada and has a capacity of over 400 beds. We are glad to hear that Dr. DeWitt has about decided not to accept the position, but to remain in Wolfville—Acadian Wolfville.

George R. Sangster, well known in Kentville, Truro and Moncton, as the efficient keeper of railway restaurants, died in Moncton last week, aged 84 years.

Edward Nickerson, a Moonshiner in Yarmouth, got one year with hard labor in the county jail and fine $400 by Stipendiary Relton.

Miss Dorothy Bryan, Truro was a visitor for a few days with Miss Marion Munro, Westville.

The Anniversary services of the First Presbyterian Church Sunday were well attended and the discourses by Rev. Anderson Rogers, were most appropriate instructive and eloquent.

Sergt. William Silver Currie, who enlisted Feb. 19, 1916, in the 193rd Bn. and who was wounded in a hot scrap in Belgium, returned by the S. S. Belgic on the 1st.

Milk thieves are prowling around the premises of our citizens again. Keep an eye for them; and get them before the Stipendiary.

G. W. Publicover who has been ill for a week is out again and at his work. He is 85 years of age and has been 62 years in the painting and decorating business in Truro, at which he has few superiors.

Mr. Edward Logan has got a lease of the Clay Works, property, Pictou, for two years at the nominal lease of $1.00 a year and as soon as the wether permits he will commence making bricks.

The annual meeting of the Maritime Stock Breeders Association will be held at Truro on Wednesday March 5, commencing at 2.30 o'clock. It gives promise of being an important meeting.

A Complete portable Saw Mill with a 65 H. P. Robb Brady Bolter and 60 H. P. Robb-Armstrong Engine and other important attachments, is for sale at—Spencer's Machine Shop and Garage. Truro.

Mr. Angus McEachron, Supt. of Construction for the C. P. R., Telegraph Co., spent Sunday with his family at Riverside, Bible Hill, leaving on the same evening for Montreal.

Near Windsor the D. A. R. are putting down new steel rails; much heavier than the old ones.

Ernest L. Archibald, Walker Street, is advertising a large job lot of wall-papers at very low values. Call at once.

Mr. C. C. Cox, of Upper Stewiacke, on the 3rd was in Truro on business.

Dr. J. B. Black, went to Rothesay, N. B., Thursday evening, in response to a telegram stating the illness of his grand-daughter, Miss Katherine Longley, who is a pupil at Netherwood. Miss Longley was ill first with flu then pleurisy set in. A telegram to Mrs. Longley from her father, Sunday evening, stated that his grand-daughter was holding her own but the recovery would be slow. The many home friends join in best wishes for a complete recovery.—Hants Journal.

Mrs. S. P. DeWolfe and son, Kentville, is a guest of Mrs. I. N. Hopper, Muir Street.

A HIDDEN HERO HONORED BY HOME FRIENDS.

Pte. Jared Kennedy Receives Address of Welcome—And a Souvenir Remembrance.

At Hilden, Col. Co., on Monday evening Feb. 24, a number of the residents of the place gathered at the home of R. H. Kennedy, M. P., P., to give welcome to his son, Pte. Jared Kennedy, who returned from England on the "Empress of Britain."

Pte. Kennedy enlisted Sept. 7th 1915, in the 64th Batt. but was transferred into the 193rd Batt., N. S. Highland Brigade; sailed for England on S. S. Olympic Oct. 13th, 1916; went to France in the 85th Batt in April 1917.

After serving for some months in the trenches he received a shrapnel wound in the shoulder and was invalided to England.

After two or three months in Hospital he returned to France, but his wound rendered him unfit for active service and he was sent to the base at Rouen on clerks work. He left there in August 1917, for Hampstead, London, to join the R. A. F. and was still there when the Armistice was signed. He sailed for Canada Jan. 14, 1919.

Part of the evening was spent very pleasantly in games, music, etc. then Mr. R. H. Smith called the meeting to order and delivered a most appropriate address of welcome. At the close of his remarks the speaker presented Pte. Kennedy with a Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen, as a small token of regard from his friends.

Pte. Kennedy replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the people for the "welcome" they had given him.

Short addresses were then given by Messrs. E. H. Murdoch, Wm. Murphy and R. H. Kennedy, M. P., after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the community and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

ON SLOW MILITARY MAN WINS BAR TO HIS MILITARY CROSS.

The London Gazette has the following in regard to Capt. Hugh Dickson, who gallantly added a Bar to his Military Cross.

Capt. Hugh Archibald Dickson, 85th Bn. N. S. During the attack on the Droocourt-Quantin line on September 2, after taking its objective with his platoon, he assisted the company on front to capture the second objective and then seeing that the wave detached for the third objective had suffered very heavy casualties, he led the remainder of his men forward, and under heavy machine-gun fire assisted in the capture, after severe fighting, of the final objective. Later, he went out and brought in a wounded man under very heavy fire. He showed great courage and determined leadership.

NEW VETERINARY FOR KENTVILLE.

Dr. T. F. Hotchkis, Veterinary Surgeon of Guelph, Ont., has taken offices in Kentville. He studied under Dr. Standish at the Truro Agricultural College, and is a graduate of Ontario Veterinary College.

He has had a lot of experience, having gone overseas in May 1915, as veterinary officer to the 108th Brigade and other units. In England he was veterinary in charge of remount depot at Chester besides having to help fight the different diseases among the cattle and hogs. Having had three years experience in with the rank of Captain, speaks well for his ability.

Capt. Hotchkis was married two or three years ago to Miss Marguerite Elliott, a former Truro girl.

Mr. John Munroe, of Balmoral Mills, Col. Co was in town on the 4th on business.

FARWELL PRESENTATION AT ELMSDALE.

Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, has accepted a call to the congregation at Durham and Green Hill Pictou Co.

The people of Elmsdale, where Mr. MacKenzie, has labored so faithfully for the past seven years, deeply regret this decision, and on Thursday evening February 27, they gathered at the Hall, Elmsdale for the purpose of showing their appreciation of his services, in some tangible way, as well as to bid farewell.

Rev. Jacob Layton, of Oakfield, Rev. Mr. Burns and Mrs. Burns, Milford, Rev. Mr. Upham and Mrs. Upham, Shubenacadie, and Rev. Mr. Ross, Stewiacke, were present at this meeting and their interesting remarks were greatly enjoyed.

An address to Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie was read by Mr. Logan. It expressed the esteem in which they are held by the people.

Mr. MacKenzie has been most earnest in the Master's work, and Mrs. MacKenzie, who is an efficient trained nurse, has given freely of her services in this as well as every other way, and has greatly endeared herself to the hearts of the people.

Following the reading of the address, Mr. MacKenzie was presented with a hundred dollars, Mrs. MacKenzie, with a handsome gold wrist watch, the gift of the Bible Class which she had taught so splendidly, and Miss Jean received ten dollars.

Remarks were also made by Mr. Hugh Fraser, the chairman, and Mr. Taylor. Then followed a solo "The Sunshine of Your Smile," by Miss Barbara Lucas.

At the close of the evening's program a delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

The best wishes of the congregation follow Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie, to their new field of labour.

After a drunken fight in a store in Windsor, the police arrested a man, who had no less than 12 bottles of essence of lemon on his person;—stuff to make "drunk" come. The lemon essence cost 35cts. a bottle; but when the real moon shine decoction was made, the price would likely go up to $4 or $5 per bottle.

CURED HIS RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 556 E. Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N.J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save the or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

A 103RD NATAL DAY ANNIVERSARY.

On Feb. 4th, David Kenny of Sheet Harbor Passage, celebrated his 103rd birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John W. Whitman, Port Dufferin, with whom he is spending the winter. In spite of his years, Mr. Kenny is still hale and hearty and retains his faculties to a most remarkable degree. We hope he will live to see a few more birthdays.

TRURO MAN IN PRESENTATION OF FLAG TO QUEEN.

Copies of the London Times, and Telegraph of recent date give an account of the presentation to the Queen of the first United States Flag carried into England by American born troops.

The Graphic gives an illustration of the presentation showing the three Canadian Officers making the presentation.

The official Court Circular refers to the presentation as follows: "Her Majesty who was accompanied by the Princess Mary received, Lieut.-Colonel C. Seymour Bullock, Mr. Kenneth Lee Crowell, and Mr. Andrew Johnson (of the Overseas Military Forces of Canada) to present to the Queen, on behalf of American born Ladies of Canada, the first American flag brought into England by American-born troops."

The Times adds that the "the Royal Ladies chatted for some time with their visitors."

Mr. Crowell, who took part in the presentation is Lieut. Lee K. Crowell, of the Engineering Staff of the Canadian National Railways Staff, and for some years before going overseas and at the time of his enlistment he was headquartered in Truro. He is a native of Sandy Cove, Digby Co. N. S. He lost a leg in one of the battles at Lens.

They Cleanse While They Cure. The vegetable compounds of which Parnee's Vegetable Pills are composed, mainly dandelion and mandrake, clear the stomach and intestines of deleterious matter and restore the deranged organs to healthful action. Hence they are the best remedy for indigestion available to-day. A trial of them will establish the truth of this assertion and do more to convince the ailing than anything that can be written of these pills.

March 3.—A large and lively crowd of young people, as well as many of the older folk of Hilden, got gathered at the home of Miss Jennie Tupper on Tuesday evening last, for the purpose of giving her a pleasant evening in the form of a "surprise party". Before she left for Sydney, C. B. the games, music and songs of the evening were of such a nature that all could take part, and this added to the pleasantness of the evening.

When the time was ripe, Mr. R. H. Smith, in a humorous way addressed all present; and after extending to Miss Tupper the best wishes of her many friends, presented her with a well filled purse, as a token of their appreciation of her unselfish and ever-faithful services as organist at Church.

To this a very fitting reply was made by Miss Tupper. Later in the evening ice-cream and cake were served. Therewith the singing of some popular songs and other old time songs, the company broke up and departed to their homes.

On Thursday morning, Miss Tupper, left for Sydney, C. B. where she will proceed with her studies in music. At a recent Pie Social at Hilden, the sum of $82.70 was realized.

PRESENTATION AT WEST PUGWASH.

Pugwash, March 3, 1918. On Monday evening Feb. 24th. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell received quite a pleasant surprise when a large number of the members of St. Matthews congregation gathered at their house to express their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell's untiring devotion to the work of the Church.

For 30 years Mr. Mitchell has been the efficient Secy. and Treas. of St. Matthews congregation.

He has been Supt. of the Sunday School for a long term of years and is also Clerk and Treas. of the Session.

Mrs. Mitchell has been a faithful helpmeet and a good worker in the W. F. M. S.

After a pleasant evening spent in music and social conversation, Rev. J.R. Millen read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and presented each with a fumed oak chair upholstered in leather.

The address was as follows:— Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mitchell:

When the time was ripe, Mr. R. H. Smith, in a humorous way addressed all present; and after extending to Miss Tupper the best wishes of her many friends, presented her with a well filled purse, as a token of their appreciation of her unselfish and ever-faithful services as organist at Church.

Pugwash, March 3, 1918. On Monday evening Feb. 24th. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell received quite a pleasant surprise when a large number of the members of St. Matthews congregation gathered at their house to express their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell's untiring devotion to the work of the Church.

For 30 years Mr. Mitchell has been the efficient Secy. and Treas. of St. Matthews congregation.

He has been Supt. of the Sunday School for a long term of years and is also Clerk and Treas. of the Session.

Mrs. Mitchell has been a faithful helpmeet and a good worker in the W. F. M. S.

After a pleasant evening spent in music and social conversation, Rev. J.R. Millen read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and presented each with a fumed oak chair upholstered in leather.

The address was as follows:— Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mitchell:

PRESENTATION AT WEST PUGWASH.

Pugwash, March 3, 1918. On Monday evening Feb. 24th. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell received quite a pleasant surprise when a large number of the members of St. Matthews congregation gathered at their house to express their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell's untiring devotion to the work of the Church.

For 30 years Mr. Mitchell has been the efficient Secy. and Treas. of St. Matthews congregation.

He has been Supt. of the Sunday School for a long term of years and is also Clerk and Treas. of the Session.

Mrs. Mitchell has been a faithful helpmeet and a good worker in the W. F. M. S.

After a pleasant evening spent in music and social conversation, Rev. J.R. Millen read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and presented each with a fumed oak chair upholstered in leather.

The address was as follows:— Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mitchell:

We assemble tonight to show in a small way our high appreciation of your valuable services in St. Matthews Church, Pugwash.

We recognize in you a quality most attractive and inspiring it is the quality which submerges self and concentrates soul and being for the good of others.

Through the storms of winter, mud of spring and fall and the heat of summer, you have at all times been ever ready to help in all that tended to the upbuilding of the Church in this congregation.

In the Sunday School you have always earnestly and faithfully worked.

In the Prayer meeting and other Church services your place was very seldom vacant.

In the houses where help was needed you were always ready to lend a hand and speak a word of encouragement.

For thirty years you have been the efficient Treasurer of this congregation, and you have discharged the important and responsible duties with entire satisfaction to all.

In no ordinary degree are you both beloved and respected and trusted by this congregation and whole community. You have to a very large measure contributed to the social betterment and spiritual welfare of those who have come in contact with you.

It is impossible to express our appreciation of the good work done by you so nobly assisted by your estimable wife, and we pray that you will both be long spared to remain with us to carry on the Master's work.

We now take pleasure in presenting you with these chairs, and we feel sure you will long treasure them, not for their value alone, but for the high esteem, warmth and good feeling that has prompted this presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were taken completely by surprise, but replied in a few well chosen words, thanking their friends for the beautiful gifts and for the kind words expressed in the address.

The Ladies then served a delightful lunch after which "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" were sung and the company dispersed at their respective homes.

YELLOW JOURNALISM.

Over the Continent press wires have carried the senseless story that the Halifax Herald with a group of persons of the same ilk had decided that the criminal code of the country would permit the Willard-Dempsey fight to the finish, that was being arranged for July next, to come off in the city of Halifax and these "Tailors of Tooley Street" had offered Halifax as a fighting ground!

No more visionary flouting of "Yellow journalism" ever came from our contemporary's office; and even the "Devil" around that plant knows that this is a bit of sensationalism that has only flung out to do business at the news stands.

Those behind this heavy-weight championship "mill" are

Mr. W. W. Smith, City Foreman for the New Brunswick Telephone Co. at St. John, paid a visit to his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Smith, and his sister, Mrs. Angus McEachron Bible Hill, returning to St. John, Monday evening.

PEMBROKE, COL. CO.

Murray Graham, Burnside, is visiting his brother, J. D. Graham, Pembroke.

Mr. Burpee Millar is hauling logs for Church road mill which is to set up in the near future.

Spruce Lodge Academy" has been closed the past week on account of the illness of our teacher, Miss O. A. Blaikie.

Mildred Fulton and friend Lucy Allan spent a few days at 'Mildred's' home here.

The Messrs. Fraser have been busy "sapping" and are now waiting for it to moderate.

The induction for our new minister, Rev. J. A. McKeen, was held in Spring-side Church, Tuesday 25th. We all wish him and Mrs. McKeen many years of happiness in their new field of labor.

Mr. Lewis Fulton is working on the Church Road for Hamilton and Creelman.

Mr. Fred Fraser has gone back to his work at Mr. D. Creelman after being home, getting out his supply of wood.

Use Miller's Worm Powders and the battle against worms is won. These powders correct the morbid conditions of the stomach which nourish worms, and these destructive parasites cannot exist after they come in contact with the medicine. The worms are digested by the powders and are speedily evacuated with other refuse from the bowels. Soundness is imparted to the organs and the health of the child steadily improves.

EARLTOWN, COL. CO.

March 4th. Last week we had the biggest snow storm of the winter. We have about 12 inches of snow here while at West Earltown they say 18 inches fell Wednesday night and Thursday. There are three feet of snow on the mountain.

Adam MacDonald is moving his mill from Summit to J. T. Gunns, where he has a big brov of logs to cut.

Mr. H. R. Brown, Superintendent of Cow Testing, and Mr. Robert Stuart of the Scotsburn Creamery, attended a dairy meeting here Wednesday night; the object of the meeting was to encourage Dairying and Cow Testing. Some of the Farmers here are getting quite interested. There is a testing station started and ten day tests are being taken and tests made at the end of each month. This venture should be successful, as this is one of the best grazing districts in the county with a good supply of pure water and other conditions better than in most place. We hope to see dairying carried on here to an unbounded success.

On Monday Mr. Frank MacKinnon in the employ of Mr. James MacLellan, was passing behind a vicious horse, the animal kicked knocking Mr. MacKinnon unconscious for a short time. He was not as seriously hurt as at first feared, as he was able to go to his home near Brule a few days after.

Miss Margaret MacIntosh, who has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. MacIntosh, North Earltown, left for Boston last Monday.

William Sutherland and daughter, Miss Lizzie, drove over the mountain to Truro Saturday.

BACK HOME.

Mrs. Wallace Hopper, who has been spending the past week in Kentville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Publicover, returns to Truro Saturday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. S. P. DeWolfe. Mrs. Wallace Hopper delightfully entertained the "Jack Tars" Navy League Club, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Publicover, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hopper was formerly one of the most valued members of this club, and has been greatly missed since her removal to Truro. She is gladly welcomed home by her many friends during her visits here—Kentville Advertiser, Feb. 28.

HICKEY.

Truro and Stewiacke had another lively game of hockey in the Stewiacke Rink Monday night, when Truro won 4 to 1. But Wilson was timekeeper. The ice was somewhat soft, with a little water in spots.

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

Quebec Postmistress Suffered for Four Years But Her Pain Vanished Before A Short Treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

L'Anse a Brilliant, Gaspé Co. Quebec, Mar. 2nd (Special) Mrs. Geo. Briand, the Postmistress here, is a sworn friend of Dodd's Kidney Pills. And like a host of others she has a reason.

"I had a pain in my left side for four years." Mrs. Briand says in giving that reason. "It never left me for one single instant.

"But after using two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, with two o Diamond Dinner Pills, the pain ceased, and in over a year now it has never come back.

"I have recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills to the patrons of this P.O. for I keep the post office here, as the best medicine I have ever used."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure all They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They are credited with cures of sore back, rheumatism, lumbago, heart disease, diabetes, and Bright's disease. The reason for this is that all these trouble sprang from diseased kidneys.

Dodd's Kidney Pills acting directly on the kidneys, put these organs in condition to do their full work of clearing the impurities out of the blood and the diseases vanished with the impurities.

LONDONDERRY STATION, COL. CO.

March 3.—Mrs. F. George, Mrs. J. A. and Mrs. A. L. Peppard spent the evening of the 26th in Truro at the play "Half the World."

Laurie McCulloch, who has been employed with J. C. Giddens at Tatanagouche returned home on the 25th. J. Sullivan, who has been visiting his brother at North River, returned home on the 1st.

Mrs. S. McLean spent the night of the 25th ult with her sister, Mrs. F. Lightbody, Belmont.

A number of our ladies attended Red Cross at Londonderry on the 28th ult.

It was decided at that meeting to hold a reception for returned soldiers on Friday 7th in the evening. Mrs. R. O. Shatford and Mrs. N. Stevens are committee to manage this affair. Mrs. Love and Miss Jessie McLeod were made committee of decorations and Mrs. Williams entertaining committee. These ladies will choose assistants and it will be a successful affair.

The sum of $13.00 was handed into the Society by Mrs. R. O. Shatford as a donation, it being the funds left over from the Tennis Club of a few years back which had disbanded. It was decided to go on knitting socks and scarfs for the present.

Pte. Roy L. Carter arrived home on the 25th. Before going overseas Pte. Carter held the position of tankman here which has been temporarily filled by Stewart McLean during his absence. As soon as Pte. Carter gets his military discharge and the necessary transfers have been through with each of these railroad employees will resume their respective occupations as arranged at the time of Pte. Carter's enlistment.

Corp. J. A. Peppard is expected home and all will receive a glad welcome, and may be just in time for the Red Cross reception on the 7th.

A pleasant gathering took place at the home of Pte. Joseph Smith, East Village, when his friends of that place arrived on the evening of the 28th ult. to give him a welcome home. Pte. Smith recently returned from France and to do him honour these friends had come. During the evening Pte. Smith was given a little present in gold. Ice cream was served and a jolly evening spent. Pte. Smith was taken by surprise but entertained his friends quite jollily.

Mrs. R. O. Shatford was here on 22nd en route to Guysboro, returning on the 26th to her home at Londonderry.

It was reported at the Red Cross meeting that Kenneth Fisher a young soldier of Londonderry had died quite suddenly. The Society has had number of very nice letters from this young man and extend sincere sympathy to his relatives.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of meeting a former young Londonderry man on the train recently. Mr. Goldie Johnson; he was on his wedding trip. Mr. Johnson has an important position on the Maritime Express and his many friends here and elsewhere will join us in wishing him and his bride a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. W. W. Giddings is on the sick list. Mr. George Murphy met with an accident one day last week; while chopping logs his ax slipped cutting his knee.

H. McLean and Stephen Langille Folly Mt., spent Sunday here.

Apples are so scarce that it is almost impossible to get them. Mr. M. Currie has some nice winter rhubarb which is greatly in demand just now. It makes excellent pies.

Cheer Boys, Cheer, the Great War Now Is Over.

Tune: "Cheer Boys, Cheer, etc. etc."

Cheer boys, cheer, the Great War now is over.

Peace 'lights again upon our smiling land.

Long, long, and hard has been the giant conflict.

Victory and Peace now greet us, hand in hand.

With God's good help, our armies and our navies

Have put the proud oppressor and the tyrant down,

And a world renewed and freed from slavery's fetters,

The valor and endurance of our Flag will crown.

Cheer, boys, cheer, our Royal Newfoundland Regiment.

"Better than the best!" No foe could say them Nay.

Thru shot and shell and wire entanglement

They cool and dauntless hewed their onward way.

Cheer, boys, cheer for the comrades left behind them;

They sleep in Glory's Grave in Gallipoli and France.

The flight of time will all the more endear them,

And their fair fame and sacrifice enhance.

Cheer, boys, cheer our Sailor Lads so merry.

They swept the Huns, like chaff from off the open sea.

Thru storm and cold, 'spite mine and swift torpedo,

They made the world the country of the free.

Cheer, boys, cheer, our lads will soon turn homeward.

Wounded or sick, or sound, how welcome they will be

Cheer boys, cheer, they wear no empty honors;

They faced grim Death right off for you and me.

Hr. Grace, Nov. 11th, 1918.

AN ANSWER.

By J. E. HOGG,

Rest now in peace, ye Flanders dead.

With each a cross to mark his bed Where poppies grow.

The boastful Hun Who thought by might of sword and gun

To win the world, his quest has fled Ye noble dead,

The fight ye led is won, And peace is round us shed.

We live and love because ye bled "In Flander's fields."

Your cause has triumphed 'gainst the foe,

To us in vain ye did not throw The torch;

With pride we hold it high, And freedom's light shall never die.

Sleep then in peace, Where poppies blow,

"In Flander's fields."

PREMIER MURRAY SUPPORTS THE WAR SAVINGS SCHEME

Nova Scotia's Premier Calls attention to need of thrift among Canadians especially at present time.

Premier Murray of Nova Scotia is a firm believer in thrift, seeing in it the means through which Canada is to recover herself financially. He heartily recommends the War Savings Plan pointing out its special advantages to the person of small means. In a recent statement to the public he says—

"Two principal objects are aimed at in the endeavour to interest you in the purchase of War Savings Stamps. These are, first, to collect the necessary funds with which to carry on the work of reconstruction in Canada and, secondly, to inculcate the habit of thrift amongst all classes of our population."

"Money is still needed by the Government although the war is over. Our country cannot be fully demobilized until the peace terms are signed and, in the meantime, our soldiers must be fed and clothed and paid. Moreover, most of our men are still overseas and must be transported home. The Pension Fund and the Soldiers' Re-Education Fund must be maintained and strengthened. Important public works, long delayed, must now be undertaken, Government expenditure will necessarily continue for some time to be very considerably larger than in pre-war days."

"Money for these expenditures could, of course, be borrowed from large financial interests. Instead, every citizen, no matter how small his means, is given the opportunity to invest his surplus earnings conveniently and profitably through the purchase of War Savings Stamps. By curtailing useless expenditure it is estimated that a sum as large as fifty millions of dollars could be raised by our Canadian people in one year. It is the duty of every citizen to watch his expenditure closely and invest his savings where they will be abundantly safeguarded and utilized to the greatest advantage."

"Many people cannot afford to invest in bonds, but they can save by thrift small amounts and ultimately these accumulated savings will amount to the value of many bonds. Particularly will this apply to children, to young people, to those starting out in life and earning small amounts; to all, in fact, in every walk of life who cannot make large investments, but who would feel more secure in their old age did they have some little sum to fall back upon. This method of saving should appeal particularly in Nova Scotia to many classes of our population that are not in direct touch with the market centres."

AN IMMENSE FUND FOR MEDICAL RESEARCH

According to Science, the will of the late Captain J. R. WOMAN'S RIGHT TO GOOD HEALTH.

Most Troubles Afflicting Women Are Due to Weak, Watery Blood.

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of every ten suffer years of agony, usually from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak, suffering women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy attractive women. This new, rich, red blood is supplied in abundance by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found a prompt cure when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, rheumatism, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer. There is no part of this broad Dominion in which you will not find some former sufferer who has regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among the thousands of women who bear testimony to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, is Mrs. W. Ferguson, Plattsville, Ont, who says: "After the birth of my second baby I was left very weak, and was steadily growing thinner and more bloodless. As time went on I became so run down that my friends thought I was in a decline. I tried different medicines, but none helped me until I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them, and was not long in finding that they were helping me, and by the time I had taken a half a dozen boxes I felt like a new person. I had increased in weight, my color returned and I was again enjoying my old-time health. You may be sure when opportunity offers I will gladly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

For your children's injuries nothing is equal to Zam-Buk—it ends pain so quickly! Children know this and when they have once had it applied will cry for it again.

Mrs. T. D. Ruston of the Children's Aid Society, Belleville, Ont., says: "We never use anything but Zam-Buk for our children's cuts, burns, bruises, etc. We have found it superior to all other remedies for ending pain and healing, and we have also found, by experience, that an injury treated with Zam-Buk never festers. With so many children in our Shelter, we really could not afford to be without Zam-Buk, not only for their injuries, but also for their sores and skin troubles."

Mothers! Be sure to keep a box of Zam-Buk on the medicine shelf. It will save you much needless anxiety as well as expense. Zam-Buk does not deteriorate with keeping, but retains its strength and purity to the very last. For eczema, ringworm, boils, pimples, ulcers and rashes, Zam-Buk is equally good. If you have not already tried this herbal balm, cut out this advertisement, write across it the name of this paper and send it with 1c. stamp to pay return postage to Zam-Buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto. We will then send you a free trial box. All dealers 50c. box.

ACTION TO GET ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The ratepayers of Bible Hill, at the meeting on the 24th, decided to take steps to secure electric lighting. They will ask the Provincial Legislature for the necessary legislation when over 50 per cent. of the taxable property of the School section by signatures of the tax-payers has assented to the proposition.

The payment for this lighting to the Truro Electric Light Commission is to be made by $1.00 per year poll tax on all male persons in the section between 21 and 60 years of age; by $75 from the Government Farm and the balance on equal assessment on all taxable property in the section. The School Board of this Bible Hill School Section No. 2, has this matter on hand.

WAR SAVINGS.

Universal commendation is given to Mrs. Chinnell, the Dominion organizer, Women's Division, National War Savings, Movement, for the impressive and exceedingly clear manner in which in all her addresses she has put the matter before our citizen. The work is being well done and the policy and principle of "saving" are most cleverly and pointedly put before the public.

Let the local committees do their bit of work and then "War Savings" will be a decided success in this "Hub" of the Province, and vicinity.

TWO MONTHS OLD BABY HAD BAD COLD.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP SAVED HIS LIFE.

It takes the life out of a mother to see the child—the idol of her heart—slipping away, succumbing to the cruel cough that all the remedies she has tried won't cure.

There is nothing so good for children's coughs, or colds, croup, whooping cough, or bronchitis as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is pleasant to take, and it cures so quickly and thoroughly that the heart of the mother is delighted.

Mrs. Angus McKinnon, Richmond, P.E.I., writes:—"Last winter my baby was just two months old, when he took a bad cold. He could not keep anything on his stomach with the cough. I tried doctor's medicine, but it gave no relief. I told my husband I would try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and I must say it saved his life. I just used four bottles and now he is perfectly cured, and I can't help but express my thanks to you for curing my baby."

Two years ago I used it for one of my girls. She had a cold and cough, but the doctor's medicine was no good for her. I got six bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and it gave her a perfect cure. I can not praise it half enough."

The genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been on the market for the past 30 years. Don't accept a substitute and perhaps endanger your child's life.

WALLACE BAY WELCOMES RETURNED HEROES.

Pugwash Feb. 26, 1919. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tuttle Wallace Bay, was invaded on Friday evening 21st, inst. by a host of friends who gathered from the whole countryside to extend a cordial welcome to Capt. C. E. Tuttle and Corpl. C. L. Foster, recently returned from France.

The evening was very pleasantly spent with music games and in looking over a large and interesting collection of War Trophies, brought home by Capt. Tuttle.

At 10 o'clock the assemblage was called to order by Rev. A. Lund.

The hymn, "O God our Help in Ages Past," was sung after which Mr. Lund, offered Prayer.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. R. Mullen, sang very sweetly a solo;—"O God has brought you safely to our arms again," and responded to an enthusiastic encore.

Rev. Mr. Lund, then read an address to the returned men and presented each with a handsome Club Bag.

The address was as follows:—

To Captain Charles Tuttle and Cpl. Charles L. Foster.

We, the citizens of Wallace Bay, desire to extend to you our heartiest congratulations for the service you have so nobly rendered us, and our Empire in connection with this great struggle for righteousness and liberty which has been brought to such a successful issue.

You heard the call to enlist in your Country's service and like true patriots you responded. In doing so you were embracing what has been called a great privilege. Everything that true men hold dear was at stake and you, like many others, were found ready to defend the rights of free nations, weak as well as strong. A great cause called and regardless of the cost, you went forth to win the world for righteousness and to cleanse it of its shame.

We have not been able to follow you through all your wanderings nor have we been able to form any clear conception of the hell through which you have passed. The life of a soldier in war times is no sinecure but while you have gone forth unwatched by us we can rejoice that you have come safely through, Canada is one of the brightest jewels in the British Crown and to you has been given the opportunity of adding lustre to its brightness and we doubt not but that you did your duty like men and upheld the fair name of our Dominion.

We recognize also that your response to this call has brought you into association with the best men of our Empire, the autocracy of Heaven—and we cannot help being a little envious of the good fortune that has been yours in this respect. Many of these have gone to swell the ranks of the immortals.

"On Fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread, And glory guards with solemn round The bivouac of the dead."

but to you has come the further duty of helping to develop those great national and international ideals of justice, mercy and brotherhood, for which so many have died. One sings of how "This sweet to die for one's country."

while you have not had that honor we do not forget that on the day you took that solemn oath of allegiance to King and Country you were in reality sacrificing your life, with all that life holds dear in this world. To take a step like that was no light thing and however much you may have thought of the far-reaching import of your course of action we know that to you, and to such as you, we owe a debt of gratitude we can never repay for like a great wall of living, fighting suffering dying men you come between us and the once cruel, dreaded Hun.

While we are conscious that we are unable to pay you for what you have done, or even adequately thank you, we nevertheless desire to impress you with the thought that we appreciate your service and so are asking you to accept a slight memento from us. Its worth in money is only a bagatelle but it will at least serve to remind you of the high esteem in which we hold you. Long may you live to use it and long may you live to perfect the Democracy for which you fought.

Both gentlemen responded thanking the people for the splendid receptive tendered them and also for the beautiful gift.

Rev. J. R. Millen, was called on and delivered an excellent address. The programme concluded the ladies served a most delicious luncheon which was prepared and served in the excellent style characteristic of the Ladies of the Bay.

After singing "Auld Lang Syne" and "God save the King" the Company repaired to their respective homes.

Capt. Tuttle enlisted and took out a Lieutenant's commission at Amherst in Jan. 1915.

After further training in Halifax, he sailed from Quebec in October 1-15 for England where he spent six months. He crossed to France and was soon in the firing line.

He received his first wounds at the Somme in Sept. 1916, and was sent to England where he spent six months in Hospital.

Returning to France was soon in the game again and was slightly wounded in Sept. 1917.

Again at "Cambrai" in Oct. 1918 he was quite seriously wounded in the leg.

Capt. Tuttle was a good Officer. He won the "Military Cross" and was frequently mentioned in Despatches for conspicuous bravery. He was promoted to a captaincy in the summer of 1918.

Corpl. Foster enlisted early in the war and served in a Railway Construction Corps in France. Tho not a native of Wallace Bay his welcome was none the less welcome.

ROYAL SYMPATHY.

Mrs. John Robert Murray, Lower Truro, has received the following Royal Message:

The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and The Queen, in your sorrow. Secy. of State for War.

Col. Ralston's Letter on the D.C.M.

In the Field (Belgium) 24th January 1919.

Mrs. J. R. Murray, P. O. Box No. 192, Truro, Nova Scotia, Can.

Dear Mrs. Murray:

We all experienced a sober but very genuine pleasure at the news we received that the DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL had been awarded to your late husband for gallantry in action at Amiens on the 10th August, 1918. It comes as an official recognition of what we all knew to be most distinguished service, and, although it could not increase either our opinion or yours of the absolute devotion to duty of your hero husband. At the same time it does show that his splendid services have been recognized as well by those in authority.

I have asked that the Medal be sent to you direct. I am sure it will be a cherished memento of one who has honored not only you and your children, but his Battalion and his Country as well.

Sincerely yours,
J. L. RALSTON

Commanding 85th Canadian Infantry Battalion (Nova Scotia Highlanders)

GOT PROMOTION

Cpl. H. A. Reynolds of Minville, in the Royal Canadian Regiment, France, has received the promotion of Sergeant. The enlisted in the 112th batt., at Windsor, June 13th 1916 arriving in France March 4th 1917. During the next winter, he was made a lance-corporal and promoted to lance-corporal during one of the big drives of 1918; in this battle he went in as Sergeant in charge of a platoon. In this battle he was wounded by shrapnel, but not severely. Before the close of the war, he won the military medal.

In one of his letters to a correspondent, dated France, Nov. 28th 1917, he made the following statement: "We are out here to do "our bit" and we are going to do it; a more cheerful bunch you never met than a bunch of Canadian soldiers behind the line, and if you want to know what they go in the line for ask the Germans after the war."

GLENMORE, HFX. CO.

Feb. 24—Mr. Guy Brown was called home last week to attend the funeral of his father-in-law. Mrs. Arthur Bates was the guest of Mrs. Lewis Bates on Friday.

James Cox and Sidney Murphy, of South Branch, Col. Co., are employed with J. P. Brown, and Son, hauling deal.

Mr. James Graham was here on a business trip last week.

Mrs. Arthur Bates and family drove to South Branch on Saturday, calling on Mrs. Roy Fleck.

W. L. Bates, who lately returned from overseas, is doing some repairs on Lewis Bate's house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fleck and two daughters spent Sunday with Mrs. Alex Fleck. Mr. Roy Fleck and A. C. Bates, are still employed with J. P. Brown & Son.

Maurice C. Kaulback and Wendell White are hauling wood to Masquodoboit.

Mr. A. C. Bates reports seeing a snake on the road way on Saturday.

Mr. Roy Fleck was home two days last week getting out his wood and by the looks of it, he don't intend to be cold next winter. George Fleck is still employed at Zwickers and Lawson, filing saws and shoveling snow; this man can turn his hand to most anything like the song—"A very handy Many man in winter or in summer"

GUESS WHO?

High Tension Work

To understand the work of the girl at central is to sympathize with her—for hers is a continuous high nervous tension.

At these critical times, when help is so scarce and the wires so busy, the task of the telephone operator is made doubly trying on her nerves.

How like her own nervous system is the complicated electrical equipment which she manipulates.

The central station may be likened to the brain, and the cables and wires, which go out from it, correspond to the spinal cord and intricate nerve fibres which branch off to the members and organs of the body.

The electric current is similar to the nerve force in the human system, for without this nervous energy the human mind and body would be just as dead as a telephone system without electricity.

The continuous strain to which the brain and nerves of the operator are subjected exhausts the nervous energy at an enormous rate, and starved nerves cry out for nourishment with headaches, neuralgic and sciatic pains, nervous indigestion and sleeplessness.

The functions of the vital organs become weak and irregular, as is shown by the feeble action of the heart and the tardiness of the liver and bowels.

It is comparatively easy to restore exhausted nerves if Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is used regularly when these early indications of trouble are apparent.

This food cure is also effective in the treatment of nervous prostration, and even in many cases of locomotor ataxia and partial paralysis, but when these ailments develop it is usually necessary that considerable patience and persistence be applied, as recovery must necessarily be a tedious process.

On this account we always like to look on Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as primarily a preventive treatment—a means of restoring feeble, wasted nerves while there is yet a foundation to build on.

Rest, gentle exercise out of doors, cheerful companions help the sufferer from nervous exhaustion, but there must be additional nourishment supplied to the nervous system, and the ideal way to supply the essential elements is by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Ed. Hanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., on the box you buy.

AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY NEEDED IN FRANCE.

Careful estimates have made out the following machinery needed in France:—

81,000 plows, 56,000 cultivators, 30,000 mowing machines, 115,000 farm wagons, 88,000 harrows, 50,000 rollers, 48,000 hoes, 36,000 seed drills, 3,000 fertilizers, 16,000 beet extractors, 21,000 winnowing machines, 8,000 horse-drawn rakes, 32,000 reapers and binders, and 53,000 root cutters.

THE WILD BEASTS WON.

In India in 1917 the following were the numbers of persons kild by wild animals:

1009	by tigers.
339	by leopards.
280	by wolves.
89	by hyenas.
459	by pigs, crocodiles, etc.
23,918	by snakes.

In that great country the Government paid for the killing of 19,476 wild animals.

—Just think of it. In the Recorder of Nov. 27, 1819—one hundred years ago—the following adv. appeared. "The public are informed that a constant supply of all kinds of wrapping paper may be had at the subscriber's office, from the Acadian Paper Mill Hammond Plains." The adv. was signed by A. H. Holland, the proprietor of the Recorder at that date. It may also be mentioned that the Recorder was printed in 1819 on paper manufactured at the same mill. One hundred years have elapsed, and now the newsprint is imported from the Upper Provinces.—Acadian Recorder.

of NOVA SCOTIA for NOVA SCOTIA

IT would be difficult to imagine Nova Scotia without its efficient telephone system, so intimate and necessary a part of the Province's commercial, social and official life has the telephone become.

Why should not the people of Nova Scotia supply the necessary capital required from time to time to extend and improve their own telephone system?

Why should not every telephone subscriber be a telephone shareholder? Why should the people of other Provinces, or the United States, or England supply the money for our service and control this great Public Utility, when we can not also supply the Capital? We Nova Scotians already supply the earnings—why not also supply the Capital?

Full information to interested parties regarding this company's new issue of 7% stock, with earnings stabilized by legislation, will be gladly furnished on application.

2 Cakes Cuticura Soap and 3 Boxes Ointment

Heal Two Weeks Old Baby Of Skin Trouble.

"When about two weeks old my baby turned blue, and in a couple of days broke out in a rash. Then she turned sore around her ears and on the top of her head, and on her arms and legs. The skin was red and she scratched till she made it bleed. She could not sleep. I wrote for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It was a great relief, so I bought more, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment when she was healed." OBITUARY.

The death occurred on Saturday morning Feb. 15, at his home in Tamagouche of John Bonyman in the 76th year of his age. He had been in failing health for over two years and suffered a severe shock at the loss of his wife eleven months ago, so death did not come unexpectedly but as a blessed relief from sorrow and care.

He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church until loss of health prevented him from continuing his duties.

Mr. Bonyman is survived by four sons, George of Prince Edward Island, now in Halifax, who was present at the funeral; Ross, in Saskatchewan; Norman and Sidney at home; also two daughters Ada, who returned from Boston in the early fall and faithfully cared for her father until his death and Mrs. Henry Swan, Milburn.

The funeral took place on Monday 17th. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Coffin and were largely attended by friends and relatives of the family to whom deep sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

THE LATE JOHN MUNRO.

The death occurred at Asphalt, Stellarton, Friday morning, February, 21st, of John Munro, aged 64 years. Deceased had been in poor health for a number of years, but bore his intense suffering with Christian patience.

He leaves to mourn a widow, who at the present time is seriously ill, three sons, Thos. W., in Colorado; John R. overseas with the 85th Band; and Charles of Inverness, One Kemptown, Col. Co., and a brother Thomas Munro, in Washington, U. S. A.

The funeral was held on Sunday and was largely attended. Rev. D. M. Matheson spoke feelingly of the upright Christian character of the departed. The services were under the auspices of Chosen Few, L. O. L. of which he had long been a member. Among the beautiful floral offerings was a pillow from the brother and sister, a wreath from Chosen Few Lodge; Gates Ajar, from Arch Degree, L. O. L.; Stellarton; bouquet, Mrs. John R. Munro; wreath, Norman and James Ferguson.

To the aged widow and sorrowing family we extend heartfelt sympathy.—Evening News, New Glasgow, Feb. 24.

Basket Social followed by a dance, will be held in the Lower Nine Mile River Hall, on Friday evening, March 14, 1919.

DIED IN VERMONT

Rev. I. A. Rose.

Rev. Isaac Adams Rose, pastor at East Burke, died Saturday morning, Jan. 24, of pneumonia following an attack of the influenza. Mr. Rose was born in So. Maitland, Nova Scotia, Nov. 17, 1871, was graduated at the Congregational College in Montreal in 1905 and after a year of study in Bangor Seminary took a pastorate in Lee, N. H. From there he came to South Hero, and later for a year to Irasburgh, entering on the pastorate at East Burke, in 1915. His work in the state endeared him to the people of his charges where he proved himself a faithful and energetic pastor. He was one of a group of men who came from over the border to take charge of some of our leading pulpits, all of whom made good, some displaying traits of exceptional brilliancy. Among them he was marked by sterling qualities of character and winning personality.

Shortly before entering upon his early pastorate, Mr. Rose was married, to Miss Leora Fuller, who with one daughter survives him. Both lie seriously ill with the influenza. In consequence services were held in private on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 28, at the parsonage, conducted by Rev. J. J. Hutchinson, of Lyndonville, local pastors serving as bearers. A public memorial service will be held later.

The above obituary from the "Vermont Missionary" will be read with sorrow by those who knew Mr. Rose and his family. Mrs. Rose, as mentioned above, is the daughter of Mr. J. W. Fuller, who resided in Kingsport, moved to Wolfville. Mrs. Rose and her only daughter were in Kings Co. a year ago last summer and stopped at Kingsport. She and her little girl have been graciously restored to health since the death of Mr. Rose, and the two with Mrs. Rose's father, Mr. Fuller, will return to Nova Scotia, next month, and will place the remains of the departed one in the cemetery at his former home at South Maitland and will then take up their future home in Wolfville.—Windsor Tribune.

WEDDING BELLS

Blair-Donkin.

At Truro on Feb. 11th, 1919, Miss Bessie L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Donkin, of Folly Lake, was united in marriage to Gilbert S. Blair, of the same place. Rev. D. H. McKinnon was the officiating clergyman.

The happy couple one of the most popular young couples of this place, was accompanied to Truro by the bride's sister, Miss Jennie M. Donkin, all returning to Folly Lake, by the evening train where they were entertained by a party of serenaders at the bride's home.

After much enjoyment supper was served and music and songs were on the program.

On the evening of the 22nd, friends both young and old numbering about forty, again visited the bride's home for a "surprise" party. Many pretty and useful gifts were received by the bride and groom showing the esteem in which they were held. Dancing and games were the chief amusements until about 11.30 o'clock, supper was served after which all departed for their homes, wishing, Mr. and Mrs. Blair many years of happy wedded life.

TRUE AS GOSPEL.

The Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, in Parliament on the evening of Feb. 26th, said;

"the greatest menace which confronts Canada today is the politician abroad looking for votes." This good Liberal, he affirms he is still a Liberal tho for the time being in the Unionist Government, gauges the political outlook correctly.

We have seen this menace, perhaps a cloud, no bigger than a man's hand in the sky at present, but it is in existence.

When we hear men in Parliament commencing to squeal over the loss of "political patronage"—then look out—the menace is commencing to operate and it is the part of good citizens to do all in our power to counter-act and nullify this menace.

PREVENTION OF CRUELTY.

D. A. Moser, agent of the society, and Dr. P. A. Gough, who have just returned from a place in King's County, report they found there twenty-eight head of cattle in starving condition. They say that they had never seen such a terrible case before. The animals had to be put on their feet, and it was difficult to get them up after they once fell down. The agents of the Society gave them good feed and care and they removed them from the care of the owner. A great many other cases throught the country have been demanding the attention of the Society.—Digby Courier.

This is simply shameful in a country of wide extending hay fields and rich grass lands.

If those animals had been turned out into the neighboring forests they would have fared far better than in this starvation stable.

We are, indeed, thankful for this noble S. P. C. Society.

SAMUEL JAMES KENT FORMERLY OF LOWER TRURO DIED FEB. 4. IN FLORIDA.

The Miami, Florida, Daily Metropolitan of Feb. 15, 1919, has the following obituary:—

S. J. Kent of Coconut Grove passed away at his home at 9.45 o'clock last night, his death following a short but severe illness. Mr. Kent was born in Lower Truro, Nova Scotia, on December 29, 1864, and came to Coconut Grove nearly seven years ago.

In his immediate family, eight are left to mourn Mr. Kent's death, a widow, five sons and two daughters. The sons are; Arnold H. Kent, of the Electric Garage; Seldon Kent, a student at the University of Florida, and Alexander, Leith and Frank Kent.

The two daughters are Miss Olga, attending the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee and Miss Avis, at the homestead.

Mr. Kent is also survived by one sister, Miss May G. Kent, of Ninth Street, Miami, and by three sisters in California; Mrs. Frank Hosteller, Mrs. Margaret Whytal and Mrs. George W. Moon. Mr. Kent will be missed by hundreds of friends in Florida and in his native province.

The funeral was held on Sunday Feb. 16, from the Union Congregational Church, Coconut Grove, Rev. Geo. B. Spalding, pastor of the Church officiating, in which church the deceased was a member of the board of deacons as well as of the board of trustees.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The deceased was a son of the late James Kent, Esq., Lower Truro, and Colchester relative and other friends will regret to hear of his death.

Luther Reid, Truro, had the pleasure of meeting one of his "pals" at the station on February 17th, Corporal George Pickering 3rd Battalion Toronto, who arrived on the S. S. Juliana, and was on a troop train going home. Cpl. Pickering was a prisoner of war in Germany for over three years, and made his escape into Holland and soon after Pte Reid. They had many interesting experiences together, in different prison camps. Canada is proud of them and gladly welcomes home "her boys."

THE RECEPTION TO THE COLORED VETERANS A GRAND SUCCESS.

The reception given the returned colored soldiers in the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening was most enthusiastic. A large number being present to extend a welcome to the men. Rev. W. Constantine Perry, was in the chair, and in his opening remarks, he touched upon the relationship of the colored soldiers to the wars in United States, the gallant soldiers who fought under Napoleon, and the part played by the colored men in the Great War for democracy, over the successful termination of which we had all rejoiced. Mr. Perry reminded the men of the principles for which they had fought and strongly exhorted them to live true to the selfsame principles.

A solo was then rendered by Mr. Alfred Kenney, Miss Gibson was the accompanist.

The Chairman then called upon Mayor Coffin to speak. The Mayor, in opening, remarked that it was the first time he had been called to speak in his official capacity and emphasized the pleasure it gave him to extend an official welcome to the returned colored soldiers of our community. The speaker then recalled some impressions of the training days and the departure of our colored battalion for overseas. He saw an earnest of the civic character of the men in the fact that in the recent riots in Halifax no colored soldiers had taken part. He congratulated the men on the part, they had taken in the great War.

A solo by Miss Gibson, then followed.

Mr. W. S. Kennedy, Solicitor for the Great War Veterans Association of Colchester, then spoke of extending his welcome to the returned soldiers gathered there, he recalled some of the great names in the history of the African race. He complimented the men on their part in the war for democracy and their conduct, consistently good throughout. He was pleased to see Mr. Jerry Jones in the audience and referred to the Military decoration won by Mr. Jones as a cause of pride for his fellow-citizens.

Mr. Kennedy's remarks were aptly enforced with verse and wittily illustrated with anecdote. He felt sure the men before him would exemplify in their civic life the principles on which the G. W. V. A. was founded and for which our Soldiers have been fighting in France and Flanders for the past four years. As Kipling has it "If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you, all men count with you, but none too much, you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty second's worth of distance run, Yours is the earth, and everything that's in it, And which is more—you'll be a man, my son."

A duet then followed by Miss Paris and Miss Palest. Mr. S. W. Chambers, President of the Truro branch of the G. W. V. A. was the next speaker. Mr. Chambers welcomed the men back to Truro and told them he wished to see all of them members of the G. W. V. A. giving also some strong reasons why all returned men, should stand together and work together for the good of all. He thanked the members of the Zion Church for the cordial invitation, extended to the G. W. V. A., to attend their social evening. Mr. Chambers' address was loudly applauded.

A solo by Mr. Samuel Reece was well rendered. Rev. Mr. Knott, and Rev. Mr. Hartley then gave short and pithy addresses, full of hearty welcome to the soldiers. After the speeches all the returned men and the many visitors partook of an enjoyable feast which was daintily prepared by the ladies of the Zion Church.

All present pronounced the social evening an unqualified success and look forward to many more of the same nature.

LETTERS TO MRS. HOWARD MACDONALD REFERRING TO CORPORAL WALLACE MACDONALD'S DEATH ON THE BATTLEFIELD.

Lieut. Harold F. Beattie, of "A" Company Writes as Below.

France, October 18th, 1918. Dear Mrs. Macdonald: It is with deep regret that I address you in this your hour of sorrow, but I feel that I must write to express the heartfelt sympathy of all of "A" Company over the loss of your son.

Personally I was down the trench at the time the shell landed, and all I can say is that I believe his end was not painful. We did all that we possibly could for him; but when I went down to see the Doctor subsequently he told me he feared that the case was hopeless, and so, alas, it proved to be. Corporal Macdonald was a universal favorite in the company, with which he had put in so long a period of first-class service. Always efficient, always willing, he was a hardworking, able soldier, second to none in his own line of signalling; and he set a splendid example of cheerfulness and good temper to all ranks.

I wish his commission could have gone through, but it was not to be and he gave his life in the execution of the duty to which he had so willingly devoted himself.

I know where his grave is, and shall take an early opportunity of visiting the cemetery. If there is any further information that you desire it will, no doubt, be furnished, by the Canadian Records Office, Green Arbour House, Old Bailey, London.

We shall miss him greatly in the Company and can in some measure feel for you in your great sorrow.

Assuring you of the deepest sympathy of all the officers and men, I am,

Yours sincerely HAROLD F. BEATTIE, Lieut.

Note From Capt. Daniel.

29th Vancouver Battalion. Mrs. Howard Macdonald, Dear Madam:

I am in receipt of your letter with regard to the death of Corp. J. W. Macdonald. Corp. Macdonald was wounded by shell-fire on the 8th October. He was standing at the time outside his "funkhole" and was evacuated to the Field Ambulance as soon as possible after being dressed by the stretcher bearers, from there he was taken to hospital, and we are advised by the hospital that he died of his wounds on 8th October.

He was one of the few original members of this Battalion, who was still left with us, and his death is deeply regretted by all the members of the Battalion.

The Commanding Officer wishes me to express his sympathy to you in your loss.

Yours truly, (Sgd.) E. H. DANIEL, Capt. Adjutant.

Sympathy From General The Hon. S. C. Mewburn.

Dear Mrs. Macdonald, I desire to express to you my very sincere sympathy in the recent decease of No. J 75693 Cpl. John Wallace Macdonald, Canadian Expeditionary Force, who in sacrificing his life at the front in action with the enemy has rendered the highest services of a worthy citizen.

The heavy loss which you and the Nation have sustained would indeed be depressing were it not redeemed by the knowledge that the brave comrade for whom we mourn performed his duties fearlessly and well as became a good soldier, and gave his life for the great cause of Human Liberty and the Defence of the Empire.

Again extending to you in your bereavement my condolence and heartfelt sympathy.

I am, Yours faithfully, (Sgd.) S. C. MEWBURN, Minister of Militia and Defence for Canada.

TRURO IS THE PLACE FOR THE ODDFELLOW'S HOME.

The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. are contemplating Maritime Home for aged Oddfellows.

This is a praise-worthy movement and will no doubt be carried to a successful issue. The matter of location has not yet been seriously considered, but Truro, will certainly be favorably considered, when the time comes to seek a place for this new Home.

There are several good properties in, or near "Hub" that with a little remodelling would make ideal buildings for this contemplated Home.

Let the Truro Oddfellows keep this matter prominently before those in the grand Lodges, who are in charge of this business.

A YOUNG TRUROIAN IN LOS ANGELES SAYS WE WANT MORE BOOSTER WORK IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Hotel Ingraham, Los Angeles, February, 17, 1919. Editor Truro News:— I enclose you some clippings from today's Los Angeles papers, showing how they boom the wonderful climate of California.

We had an earthquake yesterday morning that made the chairs rock in our rooms and the beds move endways but we saw no notice of that fact in the papers this morning.

It is a pity we have not more booster in Nova Scotia, for if we had one tenth part of the "boost" circulating for our "Peerless" Nova Scotia, that we hear in the West we would have more things doing there than ha e been.

Sunday was a marvellous day, not a breath of wind and beautiful sunshine. There were probably at least 100,000 automobiles travelling on the thousands of miles of perfect roads of Los Angeles County alone.

As for ourselves, we went to church but notwithstanding that the many Christian Churches and numerous kinds of fake religion meeting places, were tolerably well filled; there were probably more people "worshipping" in the open.

One of the first things we need in Nova Scotia is a permanent concrete road of the best construction from the New Brunswick line to Halifax. The people of Nova Scotia have the millions of dollars required to build this road and will gladly lend it to the Government for that purpose.

The enormous benefit that will be derived from the construction of such a road can hardly be imagined by the most optimistic resident that you can find in our choice little province. If the province is small, that is no reason that our people should not be big and bold and up to the times.

The great benefit of good roads in this day of the tractor and the motor truck will come to the farmer directly to say nothing of the immense increase of the value of all kinds of real estate and the great benefit accruing from the expenditures of the tens of thousands of tourists that will be immediately attracted to the unrivalled beauties of our province as soon as we have a reliable road by which they may enter the country.

As to California to give an idea of what the people think of the value of the good roads; notwithstanding that California has at present more completed good roads than any other country in the world according to his population, the state legislature is now contemplating the expenditure of thirty million dollars more for additional permanent roads.

HEART PALPITATED

FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS. WOULD FALL DOWN IN FAINT.

Palpitation of the heart is very often accompanied by weak, faint and dizzy spells, and is generally caused by some sudden fright, or associated with conditions of a nervous breakdown, but whatever the cause, it is of considerable importance that the heart should be strengthened, and brought back to its regular beat.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy to do this for you. Mr. Henry Fawcett, Killam's Mills, N.B., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for heart trouble. I was very weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, I would take faint and dizzy spells, and sometimes I would fall down in a faint. I started to take your pills and I must say they have done wonders for me. I will always speak a good word for your Heart and Nerve Pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Paint Without Oil
 Remarkable Discovery That Cuts Down the Cost of Paint Seventy-Five Per Cent.

A Free Trial Package is Mailed to Everyone Who Writes.

A. L. Rice, a prominent manufacturer of Adams, N. Y., has discovered a process of making a new kind of paint without the use of oil. He calls it Powderpaint. It comes in the form of a dry powder and all that is required is cold water to make a paint weather proof, fire proof, sanitary and durable for outside or inside painting. It is the cement principle applied to stone or brick, spreads and looks like oil paint and costs about one-fourth as much.

Write to Mr. A. L. Rice, Manufacturer 282 North Street, Adams, N. Y., and he will send you a free trial package, also color card and full information showing you how you can save good many dollars. Write today.

PALM BEACH FROCKS.
 Organdie, New Silks—Summer Furs and Present Styles Silhouette.

New York, Jan.

When so many prominent women lived most of the time in their uniforms, or in informal home attire, little attention was given to joyous attire. With the Armistice and Peace in the offering, there is a rebound toward normal prettiness and pleasure, and everywhere here one sees frocks and other things that suggest festivities. The showing for the Southern resorts is especially attractive, and presages what we all will be wearing next season, or in the immediate present for special occasions that call for our newest and prettiest attire.

Organdie in Pale Tints.

Organdie in clear delicate pinks, blues, yellows and lavenders or orchids, are shown make up in the daintiest possible styles, with fine lace inserts and edgings. The accepted silhouette, narrow at the foot, bulging at the centre, and collarless for the most part at the neck. Sleeves are anything you fancy from none at all in many evening frocks, to long close fitting buttoned up styles that follow every contour of the arm to well above the elbow and show little fullness above that point. There are demure, Quakerish, half sleeves kimono cuts, and every variety of "Angel" flow in tulle and draperies. No one style predominates. The essential point is that the sleeve just harmonize with the lines of the frock, and bring out the best points of the wearer.

Transparent Fabrics and Others.

Very many of the more pretentious frocks have sleeves of georgette or chiffon, but this is not by any means invariable. Some very smart models are made with sleeve matching the dress in fabric as well as in color. One trend that is notable is the extensive use of a sort of bib yoke, more or less transparent to match the thin sleeve. This is usually quite plain with a picot finish at the neck, or perhaps a narrow binding of satin, if this in the combination. Taffetas are coming to the fore again, and are shown

HAD PIMPLES ALL OVER HIS BODY.

The nasty, unsightly little pimples that break out on the face and other parts of the body are simply little irritating reminders that the blood is out of order and requires purifying.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for the past forty years, and its reputation is unrivalled as a medicine to drive all the impurities out of the blood, thus eradicating the pimples and leaving a bright, clear complexion.

Mr. T. W. Steward, 165 Avenue Road, Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with pimples all over my body. I happened to mention it to a friend who advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I am now using the third bottle, and I am very pleased with the results. I have no more irritation and feel a whole lot better in every way. Your medicine seems to have fixed me in general."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. M. M. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. See that their name appears on the wrapper.

In especially fetching types in black—but as a rule color is introduced in these somber frocks just as it is in the majority of black hats.

Evening Dresses.

Black evening dresses of pailletted or jetted lace, need little in the way of color to lighten them. The use of transparent trains of transparent fabrics is increasingly observed, but as a rule these, tulle or lace "trains" are carried over the left arm. The are only dropped where they are not apt to be defaced or torn, and are really prettier held up as an additional drapery. Quite a number of women have these scarf like trains arranged so they can be detached at will.

Everything that sparkles and glitters in the way of fabric or trimming is just now in the lead in fashionable favor, and brocaded silks and embroidered fabrics are especially modish if they are woven with tinsel threads in very striking designs.

Wraps and Summer Furs.

Wraps for evening wear are especially gorgeous in these striking fabrics, and are luxuriously collared and often lined with fur.

It is predicted that white foxes will be the distinctive fur next summer, but for the present little of it is seen here. Probably the small coats of fur that have made such a hit, will be worn late in the spring when a all fur coat is too warm for comfort. Many of them can be converted into loose capes by loosening the snap at either side.

All furs have taken the customary fall in price at Shaynes this month, so that with money to invest one can find lovely pieces, or coats, at greatly lessened cost just at the time when the coldest weather of the winter is due.

Necklaces.

Now that it is modish to dispense with the white neck dressings, necklaces have assumed an increased vogue.

They give the needed color relief and soften the rather trying dark outlines, in a way that makes for style and becomingness. Beads of all sort are liked, especially in the three-quarter-length graduated string, and white coral that shows just a touch of pink is especially liked for day wear. Very brilliant colorings in blue, jade, green, amber, and flame are worn as well as melanges of color that match those used for bead bags. Jet and pearl are, as always, in the running.

VERONA CALRKE.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR CLOVER SEED?

Every farmer knows something of the extreme value of clover in its double role of a most nutritious fodder for cattle, horses and other live stock; and a very effective agent in enriching the soil in which it is grown. Unfortunately the year 1918 was a bad one for producing clover seed. Supplies all over America are short, with the inevitable result that prevailing prices next spring will be more than double the pre war figure. No doubt this fact will discourage some farmers from buying seed, not, however, the man who realizes the importance of a soil improving crop. Fortunately, a few farmers have no occasion to worry over high prices for clover seed; and there hangs a tale.

Some years ago the Department of Agriculture bought a clover hulling machine which it offered to send to any point where farmers made an effort to grow clover seed for their own use. The employment of this machine one year led to a private party, aided by the Government bonus for the purchase of farm machinery, buying a machine for that locality. Elsewhere clover threshings depends on the single Government owned machine.

The summer of 1918 was a very poor season for maturing clover seed. But, in order to indicate that it is possible to grow it successfully in Nova Scotia, it is worth noting that there is a substantial amount in the vicinity of Mabou in Inverness Co., grown in 1918 by a very few farmers. Field men of the Dept. who have inspected it say that this seed will be the very best to be had, and believe that the successful results of the current year and the opportunity of threshing with the machine, should pave the way for farmers not only in this locality but elsewhere growing seed in this Province.

It is not probable that the price will long remain at the present level, but it is always high enough to make it a profitable crop. Perhaps the most important consideration is that those who have used it claim that the home grown seed is much more dependable than that which is imported, a conclusion that seems very reasonable when it is remembered that the imported article is grown in warmer climates. Hundreds of farmers in Nova Scotia should plan to grow clover seed. For information regarding methods, write to the College at Truro.

Mother! Give Child "Syrup Of Figs" If Tongue Is Coated

It Cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty its bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mother give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

W. G. YORSTON, C. E., RETIRES FROM PROVINCIAL HIGHWAYS BOARD.

The Provincial Highways Board was in session at Halifax on the 12th and the annual report of the Board to the Minister of Highways was fully considered.

The Provincial Government must vote a much larger sum of money than heretofore, if any great permanent work is to be done.

Chief Engineer to Retire.

Owing to the ill health of Mr. W. G. Yorston, the Board very reluctantly were compelled to accept his resignation as Chief Engineer, but regard themselves as particularly fortunate in being able to retain his services as Consulting Engineer for the year 1919. The following is a resolution placed upon the minutes of the Board in recognition of the services rendered by him to the Board and the high esteem in which he is held by them:

"In accepting the resignation of Mr. W. G. Yorston, C. E., as Chief Engineer of the Provincial Highways Board the Highways Board desires to place on record its high appreciation of Mr. Yorston's services, both as Engineer and as an administrator, and it is with the utmost reluctance we are compelled to accept his retirement as our Chief Executive Officer.

"They have, however, been fortunate in retaining Mr. Yorston as Consulting Engineer for the year 1919—thus securing to the Board the benefit of his services during that period in which the new appointee is becoming acquainted with his duties, and permitting the operations of the Board to be carried on without the usual difficulty attending changes in the Executive. This feature we regard as extremely fortunate as well as absolutely necessary for the reasons aforesaid.

"They trust, with the relief afforded Mr. Yorston in shifting the burden of responsibility in a large measure to other shoulders—and allowing him to devote his time and energy to the solutions of those problems regarding which his long and valuable experience qualify him to speak with authority, may result in restoring in full measure his old-time vigor."

John W. Roland, C. E., has been appointed as Chief Engineer.

Mr. Roland comes to the Board with the very highest recommendations. He is a Nova Scotian—a graduate of Acadia University and of the Boston School of Technology—has had wide experience in railway problems in the United States and in connection with the building of the Panama Canal. Since his return to Nova Scotia, he taught for a period of years at the Technical College at Halifax, and more recently his services have been sought after by the largest contracting firms in the Province.

A SPLENDID MEDICINE FOR THE CHILDREN.

Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can give her little ones. They are a mild laxative which quickly regulate the bowels and stomach and are guaranteed to be entirely free from any injurious drugs. Concerning them Mrs. A. D. West, Loreburn, Sask., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets have given me more satisfaction than anything else I have ever given my children. They are easily taken; always work well and though I have given quite a few to my baby they seem to work as well now as at first, which is something other laxatives seldom do." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cleanses Your Hair Makes Thick Beautiful, Glossy, Wavy.

Try This All Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it directed.

FORECAST THAT WENT WRONG.

The following cutting from the Kolnische Keitung, published during September, 1914, supplied by a correspondent, makes interesting reading just now:

"There will be no such country as Great Britain at the end of the war in existence. In its place we shall have little Britain, a narrow strip of island territory, peopled by loutish-football kickers, living on crumbs that Germany will begin to throw to them. Whatever this war may bring in its train, certain it is that the laughable and childish military system of Britain will shortly fall to pieces. Then the once mighty Empire, with her naval strength represented by the few old tubs which Germany will have left her, will become the laughing stock of nations, a scarecrow at which children will point their fingers in disdainful glee."

SIDNEY KEIGHTLEY, NAVAL OFFICER, H. M. S. "CALYPSO" SENDS BOLSHEVIST SOUVENIR TO HIS SISTER, MRS. ARTHUR GILL, TRURO.

Praises The Women folk For Their British Hearts of Oak Exhibited During the Great War.

Mr. Sidney Keightley of the Cruiser "Calypso" of the Royal Navy—12 days, after the signing of the Armistice, wrote a letter to his mother, who has husband and four sons in the war, that has such a true British bulldog ring in it that, tho never intended for publication, we cannot refrain from giving an extract or two to our reader, especially as the writer has all thru the War, been in a cruiser, that was carried many a Canadian thru the Mediterranean and other waters to the scenes of active fighting. Well here goes for a passage or two from the letter referred to:—
H. M. S. Calypso.
November 23, 1918.

My Dear Mother:
"At last I am able to give you the good news that it is really all over. We have been very busy for the past fortnight, but it has been the proudest period of my life. "We were the squadron selected to escort the German Cruiser "Koenigsberg" across with the Hun plenipotentiaries, and now yesterday, we gathered in their High Seas Fleet; and have them all safely in our harbors. "You can perhaps understand our jubilation. Last evening, we all had Thanksgiving Service on board, and I suppose that there never was a more impressive service. "Whilst we were bringing in their mighty fleet, we could not help offering up our prayers, of thankfulness for the intervention of Providence in preventing what would otherwise have been a day of awful carnage."

(The mother to whom this letter was addressed had her husband in the Navy—been there for years—and four sons were in the Great War, all giving their services voluntarily. To this noble wife and mother, this proud fighter in the Royal Navy, after speaking of the sacrifice of his "Dad" and his brothers in going into the fight, thus writes—)

"The best of all, though, has been the moral help we have derived from your own wonderful letters. In spite of your own grief and anxieties, you have always sent us cheerful words of hope and comfort, which have proved a great source of encouragement. "We feel that the most wonderful thing of the war has been the splendid fortitude of our womenfolk. "You have indeed earned the heartfelt gratitude of your family, and I pray that God will grant us the privilege of your and Dad's presence with you for many years and that you may both live to enjoy the happy times which you have so well merited."

This sailor-boy nobly utters the truth, that has been enunciated again and again that the women at home have been heroes equal with the gallant lads in the fighting line.

A little further note of the Cruiser "Calypso" will come in well. The London Standard of November 30, 1918 had a despatch from Copenhagen telling about the great British fleet that had just anchored off Copenhagen harbor. In this great fleet was the Cruiser "Calypso."

The fleet got a grand reception. The business of this squadron was to supervise the details of the opening of the Baltic Sea to British ships as had been stipulated in the armistice conditions. The Danish Monarch, King Christian, has one who witness the assembling in Danish waters of this powerful British squadron.

Calypso Captured Two Bolshevik Destroyers.

Soon after this visit to the port of Copenhagen, the British squadron sailed east and the cruiser "Calypso" captured two Bolshevik destroyers, one at the time was engaged in bombarding light houses in the vicinity of Revel. One of the captured Destroyers was the "Afritoil" and a "Button", belonging to a Bolshevist Naval Officer, of this Destroyer, sent by Mr. Keightley, to his sister, Mrs. Arthur Gill, Church Street, Truro can be seen at the Truro News.

It is a unique souvenir, considering its source and the way it was obtained and it is the nearest thing to a Bolshevist that has ever been in or around the Truro Daily News Office.

SPORT CLOTHES FOR THE SOUTH

Hints That Help Advance Planning Tunics—Smocks—Sashes and String Girdles—Material

New York February.

The woman who needs a new afternoon frock that will do duty for as long as it wears, is wise if she chooses Georgette for its material, for notwithstanding its dainty appearance, this has excellent wearing qualities, and admits of any desired style of treatment in line and trimming. Bead embroideries, while not new—remain fashionable, and tucks, frills with picot edges, and all sorts of combinations in silk or satin find happiest development in this type of frock Long shawl collars, especially becoming to full figures, with pretty vestes that finish the low square neck are pretty and modish finishes for the bodice, and sleeves in bell shape, or long close fitting styles are equally well endorsed. All over printed fabrics in either silk or cotton textiles are well liked and these need no other trimming than the lines of their graceful draperies, and some sort of effective circle or sash. On plain fabrics a touch of embroidery or braiding, or a combination of the two makes a trimming unequalled for modist elegance.

Buttons and Fringes.

Buttons covered in self material or matching the trimmings are responsible for emphasizing long straight lines at the back, hip, or sleeve that make for height and slenderness of effect. All over figured silks in foulard, and other weaves are often partly veiled by chiffon or georgette in becoming ways that soften the lines of the scant skirt that fashion favors.

Drapings and Peplums.

Drapery has come to the fore for day wear, but lines are kept long and fullness is confined to the sides for the most part, with flat effects front and back. Sashes wide enough to form flat panels and even trains are among the notable points. An evening dress of black net made gorgeous with blue spangles, has the black velvet sash prolonged into a supple train lined with red that shows with every movement of the wearer.

String girdles from one inch to two in width tie wherever there is need to lengthen the line of the silhouette, and often end with fringe or other weightings. Smocks of all sorts are prominent in the new showings, not only the cotton utility kinds, in gay colors, and in embroidered unbleached muslin that is a new fad, but in all the more elaborate materials that belong for afternoon or evening wear.

These latter are all lengths and often of the sleeveless, slipover variety, in gay stripes or any sort of fancy figured stuffs. Silk, satin, velvet, lace, or beaded and spangled net, are all employed for these peplum bodices, that top handsome skirts effectively and transform a too plain, tight fitting satin frock, so that even its owner hardly recognizes its identity. Many of the prettiest of these sleeveless, or kimono sleeved tops, are simply long lengths of goods doubled once, with a cut out for the neck, and caught together to suit the style of the figure, or the frock they are to improve.

TRIBUTE FROM COL. J. L. RALSTON.

The letter below from the ever-thoughtful Col. J. L. Ralston is a tribute to three brave Nova Scotians, who gave their lives for the principles of Democracy:—
Sergt. Robert Murray, formerly of Earlton, but just previous to the declaration of War, a resident of Lower Truro; Sergt. Leo Horne, a native of Enfield, and Sergt. Leo Baine, of West River.
It was men such as these, who made the Battalion, which they were

Conservation Department,
Glacis Barracks, Halifax, N.S.
My Dear Sgt. Smith:—

I was very glad indeed to hear from you, and I am sorry that all my efforts to get information you asked for in reference to that photograph of late Sgt. Bain, have not been successful. I could not find out who it was who went to Edinburgh with Sgt. Bain. The Company Clerk has made the most careful inquiries and this man must have been among our casualties.

You say you wrote Sgt. Murray. I presume you heard by this time the sad news that Sgt. Murray was killed in action on the last day of the last battle in which the Battalion was engaged in the war. His D. C. M. came through shortly after his death. He and Sgt. Bain and Sgt. Horne were three wonderful men and they have all gone. I don't think the loss of any trio in the Battalion could have hit us harder.

I am very glad indeed to hear what your abilities are being made use of in, what I would think would be, a very fitting position for you would fill admirably.

I suppose you knew that we lost your successor—Sgt. Gasper just a few days before the Armistice was signed. The Town in which the Battalion was billeted, just near Valenciennes, was shelled and he was instantly killed. Cpl. Morine, who you will remember used to be in "B" Company, is now our Sgt. Cook and is doing splendid work. Our cooks, I think are excelling themselves in trying to make the very most of what is given them, and in producing as great a variety as possible. They all have their bake ovens and they are working them day and night.

We are about 15 miles South of Brussels at a little place called Rixensart. Coal is a bit hard to get, but there is considerable wood in the neighborhood and you can readily believe that that source of fuel supply is not being neglected. I will be glad to hear from you any time and will appreciate your writing me. I only wish I could give you the information asked for. My kind regards and best remembrances to any of our chaps you may run across,
Sincerely yours,
J. L. RALSTON.

FASHION CARNIVAL.

Opera Audiences a Kaleidoscope of Brilliant Hues—Avenue Crowds in Fancy Hats—Jewelry and Ornaments in Demand.

New York February.
Every fashionable audience here reveals an orgy of color and glitter. Pastel tints are lost in the blunze of brilliant primary hues in combinations not redone even in the far east. Blue and red in regulation flag shades are combined fetchingly to strike the patriotic note, not only in evening and dinner dresses, but in the smaller dress accessories. Sport hats of Paris origin, made of blue and red ribbons boast an effective white cascade reproducing the tricolor of France and America.

Dresses of blue georgette have patterns embroidered in white beads and a touch of red in collar or girdle. An evening frock of blue spangled draped collar of white fur, and in count less other ways this color motif is used attractively.

Hat Styles.

The big crowned tams, that overhand their bands after the fashion set by the visiting French "Blue Devils" are being succeeded by flat crowned Watteau shapes picturesque and becoming to women of all ages. According to the way they are trimmed, and their pose they are rakish, or demure practical or very dressy in transparent, jet embroidered models, some of them with chin straps.

Very coarse pineapple straws, and the old time rough-and-ready make many stylish runabout hats, combined with satin or silk, white finer straws are used for entire hats of more ornamental types. Veils with heavy embroidered borders in silk or chenille that hang loose to the shoulder are gaining in prestige, and very coarse irregular meshes are liked for closely draped arrangements.

Color runs riot in headwear, especially in draped turbans and toques, and irregular brim lines continue popular.

Bodices.

Kimono sleeves are back in favor and responsible for considerable variety of line achieved by new bodices. Cut in one with the side forms of a waist there is opportunity for smart combinations of material, in novel affects. In some models one sees the shoulder line dropped so that the sleeve is set on half way between the shoulder and elbow. In all models however the natural narrow line of the shoulder is preserved and the tendency to flat effects in yoke or other forms continues at the top of the bodice. Waistcoats allow for touches of stylish contrast in color, and for embroideries and other decorative flat trimmings. Braids make many of these most attractive styles and buttons play an important part in trimmings, either self covered or bone, Pearl or fancy styles in crochet—trim wash frocks effectively.

with a spasmodic effort stood up on end, resting his front paws on Royal's knee. 'Pug is as glad to see you Roy as I am,' said Aunt Ida, tears twinkling in her eyes as she spoke; then, with an evident wish to take refuge in common places, she drew his attention to the red glow of sunset through the trees. 'There's a bit for an artist now! Just look at that ruddy gold tint; you ought to have your palette here, sir.'

'So Royal is an artist,' thought I to myself, demurely taking in the artistic points of his costume. All the men that I had hitherto seen in London were given to tall hats and frock-coats; and I thought the dead-leaf colored velvet with a red rose in the button-hole, and the loosely knotted scarf, a picturesque and agreeable change.

'You and Miss Vansinstart must come and have tea at my studio, Aunt Ida, and look at some bits that I picked up in Egypt and along the coast of North Africa. I've got one sunset that looks like—well, I hardly know like what, but certainly very unlike reality, and yet I rather under than overdid the vividness of the tints.'

'Don't look at Roy as if you thought he had dropped from the clouds, Nell! put in Aunt Ida, impatiently.

'Or as if I were a dog-stealer with a herring in each tail-pocket,' added the person in question, stroking his silky beard with a marvellously well-shaped hand whereon was one ring only, a crest cut in lapis lazuli.

Terence, coming in at this juncture with three tiny blue china cups and teapot to match, looked as if he were about to drop china, tray, and all; so in pity at the honest fellow's confusion, we said no more upon the subject of the supposed unprincipled one with baited pockets.

'Indeed, I have not dropped from the clouds, Miss Vansinstart,' said Mr. Drew as I took my place at the round table by the hearth that was now filled with ferns; 'the fact is, I have been in disgrace haven't I, Aunt Ida?' and he bowed his handsome head as if his sins pressed heavily upon him.

'You are forgiven now Royal,' said the old lady with a tremble in her voice; then she held out to him a little black-mitted hand which he reverently and tenderly raised to his lips.

Chivalry in a man never fails to make him attractive in the eyes of a woman; and as I handed Royal his tea I felt that I was glad he was not only a penitent but a shriven one. I thought too how charming it would be to go and see that wonderful sunset of which he had told us.

I did not know it at the time, but I

GOT UP IN MORNING WITH HEADACHE AND SICK STOMACH.

Mr. P. M. Phelps, Stanbridge East, Que., writes:—'I have been taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills with such good results I thought I would write you. I had stomach and liver trouble, and would get up in the morning with a headache, stomach sick and feel dizzy. After taking two vials I was cured of these troubles, and constipation was well.'

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes wilful disregard of nature's laws will put the system all out of sorts. The stomach becomes upset, the bowels clogged, and the liver inactive. To bring the system back to its normal state must be the object of those who wish to be well. This can quickly be done by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They live on up the liver, get the bowels back to their normal condition and tone up the stomach, making the entire system sweet and clean.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Toronto, Ont.

was taking the first steps down a flower strewn way that it is given to most women to wander in once in their lives though oftentimes the flowers have thorns and the path is trodden at last with bleeding feet.

When Royal left the pug who persisted in standing whining at the gate with his snub nose dolorously elevated had to be fetched in by Terence who was far too subdued in spirit even to rebuke the perverse ness of the creature's conduct; indeed the beast might have been guilty of almost any enormities without fear of retribution for the rest of that day.

Leading off the hall in my new home was a tiny many-cornered room that Aunt Idumea called her 'snuggery.' The room that is often frequented by one person takes to itself an individuality suggestive of that person; and I really think that even as a stranger I could not have been five minutes on this snuggery without thinking of Aunt Idumea. It was certainly not meant for a large party to be snug in; indeed three friends filled it well and a partie carree would have been a tight fit. A lamp hung from the centre of the ceiling its light softened by a shade painted with Watteau groups in sylvan glades after the manner of that most graceful of masters; a low couch with double ends—a very valley of poppies—stood at one side of the low open fire-place and so placed as to be within reach of the occupant of the couch was an ebony bookstand wherein reposed plainly bound editions of Aunt Ida's favourite authors—Chaucer, Spenser, Shakespeare, Dryden, John Bunyan, De la Motte Fouquet and many others. There was a copy of Evangeline that had been a revelation to me. It suggested to you that some appreciative reader had been so vividly impressed that as he read here and there vignettes encircled with daintily etched flowers and foliage had sprung into life from his pencil and that inspired by the word-painting of the poet he had given shape and form to the visions called up in his own mind. Nor was there wanting among Aunt Ida's books that written friends' as she was wont to call them the book that written by the child of the wild Yorkshire moors made the world mad. The name of Charlotte Bronte was still unknown when from the pages of Jane Eyre I drank deep of the mental wine of analytic thought and gained a knowledge of passion's influence on a woman's heart and life. I should think few women are likely to forget their first perusal of Jane Eyre; assuredly I for one can never do so. Deep chords in my nature that had been untouched—that had never vibrated to the thought of how a woman may have to suffer for and through the love that is at once her crown and her martyrdom—how she must set herself to help not hinder the man she loves—now quivered beneath the touch of a master hand. I contrasted in my own mind the love that clung to Rochester blind and poor with a passion and tenderness unknown in brither days with the love that had died at the approach of selfish fear, the poor mean pitiful love that had left paa to die alone! True love I thought shines out brightest like a lamp in the dark; but false love flickers and falls as the shadows deepen.

But I am wandering very far from Aunt Idumea's snuggery and have forgotten to finish my description of its many delights. Vis-a-vis to the valley of poppies was a chair—such a chair! a perfect haven of rest wide and low and spreading outward at the sides without any definite arms yet yielding the most delicious support to the elbows. The room held no large table only a Chippendale or two tall and slender; and on the walls were in ebony frames a few rare engravings; flowers on brackets three or four choicest blossoms in specimen glasses made the chamber fragrant tonight the night of the day on which Royal Drew came from wherever he had been while in disgrace. They grew out the scent of the more lavishly because the first fire of autumn glimmered on the hearth and its warmth drew out their sweetness.

'Doesn't the very first fire after the summer seem cosy?' I said to Aunt Ida as I cuddled up to the blaze and thought how pretty the dancing light made the snuggery look; 'after all there is no season so nice as autumn.' Auntie made no answer; she was holding a screen of crimson feathers between her face and the fire and from the rapt expression of her face might have been reading her fortune in the gently stirring plumes.

At my side stood a work-stand; it was formed like a cup supported on a grippod filled with skeins of wool and last pet Tabitha a little puss as white as milk just come to that time of life when her tail was a puzzle to her. Now she sat a compact patch of white fur upon a bed of crimson wools evidently in a state of no small wonderment as to the fluffy tip that persisted in following her everywhere, now and then stirring itself gently as if to provoke her to make a dart at it with a venturesome paw.

'Isn't it a funny thing, pussy?' I said laughing; 'if I were you I'd bite it.' Auntie wouldn't talk to me, and I did want some one to chatter to; I could not have told anyone, not even myself, why I felt so light of heart. Suppose that in the midst of a dull grey day you were wandering through hill and vale, and all at once the sheen of the sunshine gladdened the world and you with it; would you not like to sing as you went on your way? Well, something bright had shone out for me—a smile like the one I had lost; a pair of blue eyes that told me they found me fair. So, in the gladness of my heart, as I had no one else to talk to, I talked to Miss Puss. Presently she clambered on to the edge of the work-basket, and gave a little piteous mew as it dawned upon her that beyond its limits were perils innumerable. I lifted her on to my knee, from which she slid, and took to wandering about the carpet; but in came Terence with the coffee, and in a moment pussy was on her back with four little white paws in air and claws extended, while Pug stood over her triumphantly, and Frizzele, danced round the two.

The din roused auntie from her fit of musing, and soon poor puss was bashed, and Pug was sat seep serenely basking in the luxury of the fire, his tongue out, looking defiantly at every now and then, as much as to say, 'I never did tolerate a cat in the house, and I'm not going to begin it now.' 'Well, child, and what do you think of R. Foy?' The question made me start, for just at that moment I was thinking with all my mind of the individual in question, in fact, I was wondering when he would come again; if he would paint pussy's portrait for me with a blue ribbon round her neck; if he always wore a velvet coat with a rose in the button-hole, or if he attired himself upon occasion in the usual costume of the ordinary male mortal of western London, together with many other wonders of like kind.

Aunt Ida smiled at my confusion. 'Curious, my dear, like all our sex, I see,' she said, slowly waving the scarlet feathers to and fro; 'you've been puzzling your little head all day I suppose, about my adopted son who dropped from the clouds like a meteor?' 'I was a good deal surprised, Aunt Ida, because I didn't know there was such a person.' 'Quite so; well, you know it now, child; you'd have known more about your old auntie long since if she hadn't been such a quarrelsome old woman all her days.' In a moment I had pushed Pug out of the way, and was down on the white furry rug with my arms on her knees and my hands holding hers. 'She's not a quarrelsome old woman; she is the dearest kindest, best!' I cried, kissing the little black mittens as tenderly as ever Royal himself could have done. 'God sent her to me comfort me when I lost all I had!—when I kissed papa's dead face, pray, in that God would let the same swift death take me away from the world that was so lonely without him!' 'My darling child!' she said, looking not one whit less dignified for the tears that chased each other down her cheeks. 'I am a silly old woman tonight instead of a quarrelsome one; the sight of Roy's blue eyes has set my thoughts running on the past. Nell—would you like to hear a love story?' From the training that had been mine love was to me no vulgar jest, but a sacred mystery. From the day I had read Ivanhoe and suffered with the Jewish maiden as she bade farewell to Rowena, daring to say no parting word to the man both loved, to the day when the deeper pathos of Evangeline's patient, enderness and Jane Eyre's passionate devotion spoke yet more me a sacred thing; but these creations were, after all, but phantoms; now I was to hear the real love story of a real person—to be told of things, not that might have been, but that had and did. Here auntie stopped a moment in her story, and I felt the hand that nestled in mine grow chill. 'In the days that followed I gathered the roses of life eagerly enough; but they were set thick with thorns, thorns, Nell, and the thorns tore my heart. It is not a very new story I have to tell you, child; the thing has happened often before, and will happen often again, that a woman should believe herself loved when all the time she is only trusted. I fancied I was the heroine of a romance, and I was only playing the role of confidante. I have said that I was vain of my beauty, but love, if it "casteth out fear" also casts out vanity. I cared not to read in any other eyes than Roy's blue ones that I was fair, and shrank from the notice of others as something that desecrated the new sweetness that was shining for me all over the world. Alice and I were always together, always loving as of yore, but there was one name we seldom spoke—the name of Royal Drew. No woman can speak glibly of a man she is learning to love with her whole heart; for her the very walls have ears to catch the tremor of her voice as she speaks his name; the very daisies in the field are like a thousand eyes spying out her secret. I dreamt my dream; I strove to be worthy of the gift I fancied was my own; I read the books that Royal loved; I fought with the crazy German characters that I might study his favorite authors, Goethe and Schiller; no task seemed too hard if only I might render myself a fit companion for a highly cultured man. The end came at last. Over there, under the trees with the soft May sunshine filtering through the tender green of the young leaves, Royal told me that he loved my friend. He said that he had seen my sympathy for him, that he knew I had read his heart from the first. He was so full of thoughts of gentle Alice that—God be thanked!—he hardly looked at me. He held my hand close in a brotherly clasp as he told me, the tale of the last few weeks of hopes, and fears, and lovers' fancies. His voice came all blurred and indistinct to my ears. He seemed to be speaking from somewhere a great way off; I could not see the sunshine, and the trees were but a dull mist of green. "You are glad, Ida, are you not? You have always been my friend, I know—nay, more, you have been like a sister to me who am so strangely without kith or kin—are you not glad, with me, and for me?" I heard, Nell, this time, clearly enough; and God gave me strength to look up into his face and say, "Yes, I am glad—Royal." I had my face down on auntie's lap by this time, Oh, was saw was this love story that she had set herself to tell me! And yet, unhappy as her love had been, I felt it was her woman's crown—the love that never found its earthly close" was still divine, nay, the very crown and joy of her life. "Alice and Royal were married in the summer that followed that spring, and as he had just obtained an Indian appointment they passed away from my ken. That they were happy together I have never doubted, but it was a happiness that did not last thru the second year. By one mail I had a letter from my friend full of the very sunshine of content—in the papers the birth of her son and the record of her death. Roy was free—and I had lost my friend. The first time I passed under the turret window after I knew Alice was dead, I dared not glance up, lest I should see the golden hair among the ivy, and a shower of ghost-flowers should come fluttering down at my feet. To be continued.

NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS. Colchester County Branch.

An Organization Meeting of the Colchester County Committee in connection with the National War Savings Movement was held in the Board of Trade Rooms on Wednesday the 26th inst., at 5 o'clock p. m. The Chairman of the Committee, Mr. A. J. Campbell presided, and there was a very gratifying attendance of the Members of the Committee. The Chairman gave a short account of the Conference of County Chairmen recently held in Halifax, stating the great necessity at the present time of raising funds to enable the Government to carry on the necessary Reconstruction Work, explaining the system of War Savings and Thrift Stamps and the wish of the Nova Scotia Division that Thrift Stamps at least should be on sale at every retail shop in the Province, and that all Fraternal Societies and other Organizations should be induced to form War Savings Societies.

The following Committees were appointed to take charge of the different branches of the Work, namely: Committee to Canvass Retail Shops to sell Thrift Stamps.

West of Post Office: J. J. Rogers, I. C. Layton, H. Chase, Percy Bentley.

East of the Post Office: R. S. Boyd, R. McG. Archibald, J. K. Fraser, George Y. Thomas.

Manufacturers' Committee: Geo. M. Kent, S. D. McLellan, S. W. McCulloch, Frank Stanfield.

Fraternal Societies: J. H. Slackford, Dr. W. R. Dunbar, Mayor Coffin, W. A. Creelman.

Railway Brotherhoods: T. A. Steck, T. W. Hennessy, Arnold MacLellan.

Schools: W. R. Campbell, D. G. Davis, Dr. Soloan, C. E. Vail.

Messrs. W. M. Ferguson and W. R. Campbell were appointed a Committee with the Chairman and Mr. H. F. Bethel the Secretary, to select Chairmen for the different Districts throughout the County.

Mr. J. D. MacKay has been appointed an Organizer for the County and proposes to visit the several districts, explaining the War Savings Movement to the respective Chairmen and assisting them in perfecting their District Organizations.

MILL VILLAGE, HANTS CO.

Feb. 24—Red Cross met at home of Mrs. Wm. Dodd, on Thursday last trying to make plans to keep on the good work we had begun as we have still on hand a small sum of money and 21 pair socks when finished. As Red Cross is not needed we decided to keep on meeting at the houses, having Parlour socials etc. until the end of the year. Proceeds will be given to Windsor Hospital, in a bed or some other way in memory of the fallen Heroes of Mill Village. Small donations will be gladly accepted.

Pte. Rex Creelman and Mrs. Creelman, and little Marion expect to make their future home in Truro for a time. A social was given them a few days after his arrival from England at the home of Mrs. Arthur Robinson. The presents were many and useful from Wash tubs to Egg-cups. Mr. Creelman on behalf of Mrs. Creelman spoke a few chosen words for kindness shown him. Pte. Creelman has been wounded twice and gassed once.

Our Division is still keeping on with several new members during quarter.

District Division met at Shubenacadie a few weeks ago.

Quite a number took in the Hockey Match at Shubenacadie Rink.

Mr. Keir Mill will soon remove from our Village; the young men that attended our Division will be missed.

Mr. Osborne Ettinger attended the funeral of his mother at Georgfield, on Sunday last. Mrs. Ettinger has been in failing health all winter. She attained a ripe old age. Much sympathy is felt for the family. Grace has always lived at home with her mother.

Mrs. Ruby Nelson has been with her in her last sickness.

Mrs. Arthur Robinson spent weekend at her home at Brentwood at Mr. Jacob Harvey's.

MINISTERS FROM NOVA SCOTIA BELONGING TO WESTMINSTER PREBYTERY, B. C.

Vancouver, B. C. Feb. 18th-19.

Editor Truro News;

While in New Brunswick in the early '80's I heard the remark that in Nova Scotia, we grew preachers and school teachers on trees as we did our apples. When we remember that we had free schools 10 years before they had, and with well occupied Normal and Model schools and five, I was about to say six, theological colleges, for although Mt. Allison is across the border, it drew many, if not most of its students from N. S., it is not surprising that the overflow from these Institutions, after supplying the home demand, should find its way into N. B., in numbers, sufficient to indicate that that province, too would soon be overstocked with the learned professors, as the St. John market was glutted every Fall with our apples.

But N. B. soon began to produce all three of the aforesaid articles for herself and now has them to spare. At some future time, I may have something to say about her school teachers, many of whom I meet here. But, if I am to talk about preachers, I must stick to my text.

In the Presbytery of Westminster, there are about 70 minister engaged in some apartment of Church work. Of these, at least 12, or over one sixth, are from Nova Scotia and 9 of these are from Colchester and Pictou Counties. I am pretty well acquainted with all of them and know something of the splendid work they have done and are doing, but my present purpose is merely to mention their names, thinking that, perhaps, some of their fellow students or members of their former congregations, who may have lost trace of them, might be glad to be reminded of them in this way.

Rev. R. J. Douglas, is at St. Edmunds, near New Westminster.

All the others can be reached thru the Vancouver P. O.

Rev. John A. Logan, D. D., Librarian, Westminster Hall.

Rev. J. H. Cameron, B. A. Coquitlam.

Rev. A. D. McKinnon, Ph. D., Kistilino.

Rev. W. H. Smith, B. D., Ph. D. in St. John's.

Rev. A. MacAulay, B. A. St. Matthews.

Rev. Jas. Carruthers, West Point Greg.

Rev. Wm. Ross

Rev. J. C. Cameron, Ph. D.

Rev. George Fosher

Rev. Roderick McKay, B. D.

The twelfth is the Rev. A. D. Archibald, B. A., son of the late Donald Archibald, High Sheriff of Halifax Co. who has lately been appointed the First Church, here. I noticed that "Western Jennie" referred to him in one of her letters a few months ago. He is the third Nova Scotian out of seven to fill this position within the last 22 years. The others were Rev. Wm. Meikel, Evangelist, and the late H. W. Fraser, D. D., both from Pictou County.

In printing "fuller details" after 20 years, of a class at Lower Stewiacke school in 1868—"I see some words have been misplaced. What I wrote was:—"Augustus Fulton, a son of the late Thomas Fulton, Fort Ellis, was the only one who did not want the four cars arrangement—saying "some of them may be dead before that time." He lived only about two years."

Fry's Pure Cocoa advertisement featuring a large illustration of a young girl holding a bowl and a tin of Fry's Pure Cocoa. Text includes: 'Fry's Pure Cocoa', 'THIS "bonnie wee thing" is a FRY'S Cocoa Girlie. Her cheeks are rosy—she's plump and strong—she's a sunny, healthy, romping little Jenny Canuck because she gets FRY'S regularly. She plays harder than most people work—but FRY'S gives her richly back all the spent energy—and more to grow on!', 'Have you any little "pale faces" at home? Liven them up, build them up now with FRY'S.', 'Nothing will do but FRY'S'

"William Pollock died in Virginia City, Colorado, I think."

Agustus Fulton died at home. I was rejoiced today to have a letter from Miss Libbie Sutherland, present address, Truro, care of L. A. Ryan. She also sent the address of her brother, William, Yorkston, Sask, Box 197 and a man well known in parts of Colchester and Pictou Co's 40 years ago looked me up, neither knowing of the others presence here, previously.

ROVER CREW OF DISMASTED SCHOONER ARRIVE IN OPEN BOAT AT YARMOUTH.

Yarmouth, N. S. Feb. 26. Captain Conrad and the crew of the four-masted Schooner George Melville Cochrane, 822 tons, arrived here this morning in an open row boat having abandoned their vessel forty five miles off this port after she had been dismasted in a gale on Monday night. They rowed twelve hours to land. The schooner sailed from St. John, on Monday afternoon for Buenos Aires with general cargo and ran into heavy weather shortly afterwards. By midnight she was totally dismasted. Brothers of Lahave are managing owners of the Schooner, which may yet be towed to port. The schooner was built at Parrsboro in 1918.

THE FIGHT AGAINST THE BROWN TAIL MOTH.

Among the many activities carried on by the N. S. Dept. of Agriculture, not the least in importance is the campaign, now in its tenth year, against the Brown Tail Moth. This work is under the jurisdiction of the Entomological Branch, and being of a more or less quiet police character, is probably little known outside of certain areas.

The Brown Tail Moth is one of the most destructive of all insects. Where it gains headway and becomes established it will devastate whole areas of fruit and other trees in a single season. The U. S. Government, after allowing it to get a foothold in New England, has recently spent many millions of dollars in the endeavor to control and extirpate this pest.

It is worth remembering that all these life forms, when native or long established, are checked to a greater or less degree by natural foes parasites which prey upon them. When carried into strange territory, however, they are apt to be immune from these foes for many years, and thus may multiply to an alarming degree before meeting any natural check. This is the history of the Brown Tail, which was imported from Europe, and failed to bring its parasites with it. The introduction of these natural foes is one method of combating it, now being carried on by the Dominion Department. But a far more effective and immediate remedy is necessary to prevent its ravages.

The Entomological Branch of the local Department, in cooperation with the Federal Department, the expense being halved has at the present moment some ten men, divided into small parties, scouting the infested areas, and destroying the winter nests. The area of infection thus far corresponds roughly with the main fruit belt in Nova Scotia, though the pest has never been allowed to gain enough headway anywhere in the Province to make it appear to many people as a serious menace. The work being done falls into two divisions, the widely ranging scout work on the outskirts of this region for the purpose of preventing its spread, and the more intensive work of carefully examining the region where it is known to be, so as to destroy every nest possible. The following table, giving the number of nests found and destroyed, indicates at once the menace to fruit growers from this source, and the success attending the efforts to overcome it.

In the year 1909—1496 winter nests.

Table with 2 columns: Year, Number of winter nests. Data: 1910-4462, 1911-8070, 1912-11055, 1913-24156, 1914-18254, 1915-14845, 1916-10019, 1917-18-3024.

The period reported on so far for 1918-19 gives a return of 413 as compared with 1400 for the corresponding period of last year. Thus the persistent effort of the Department is now showing a very gratifying result. When the possibilities of fruit growing in Nova Scotia are taken into account, the value of this piece of work is become nestimable.

The estate of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is valued at $160,000 a government annuity of $100,000 purchased by friends some years ago is in this valuation. The estate is left to Lady Laurier.

The loss by the fire at Shawinigan Falls, on the 26th is $150,000; residential property.

FERTILIZERS ON OLD HAY LANDS.

Nova Scotia farmers buy every year great quantities of fertilizers. To offset this outlay it is of the first importance that the materials used should be used to the best possible advantage. The Nova Scotia College of Agriculture has conducted a series of experiments, the results of which are very interesting and valuable.

Some 600 lbs. of a phosphoric acid fertilizer such as acid phosphate or basic slag, and about 100 lbs. of sodium nitrate were applied toan acre. Then a third of an acre allowed on which the phosphoric acid was applied alone. This alternation was carried out over a sufficient area to make results conclusive.

The crop grown was oats, the seeding being done early in June. All through the summer the plots treated with the phosphoric acid and nitrate showed a marked superiority over those receiving phosphoric acid alone.

When the crop was threshed it was found that in a number of cases the 100 lbs. of nitrate had increased the yield of oats by over 14 bushels per acre. The average increase from the addition of nitrate to the acid phosphate was 8 1-2 bushels per acre. A much more marked improvement occurred with some phosphoric acid fertilizers than with others. A fuller account of the whole experiment may be found in the 1918 Annual Report of the Secretary for Agriculture. The outstanding fact established is that a comparatively small quantity of sodium nitrate applied with any phosphoric acid fertilizer materially increases the crop returns.

A HANTS CO. OCTOGENARIAN GONE.

After an illness of about two months, directly caused by a fall, Mrs. William Ettinger of Georgfield Hants Co. passed away on Feb. 20th at the advanced age of 84 years.

The deceased was predeceased by her husband, the late Capt. William Ettinger, some 35 or 40 years ago. She brought up a large family and they remain on as follows to mourn their loss:

Mrs. Columbus Burns, Portland, Me. Mrs. Lorne Fisher, Halifax, N. S. Mrs. Ruby Nelson, Truro, N. S. Mrs. Mary Dunn, Boston, Mass. Miss Grace Ettinger, Georgfield, N.S. Albert Ettinger, Georgfield, Rufus Ettinger, Georgfield, Osborne Ettinger, North Salem. Nelson Ettinger, Georgfield.

Funeral Sunday conducted by Rev. Mr. Cooke, of Maitland. The family laid on the Casket one of Suckling & Chase's handsome floral Pillows having the word "mother" and other floral tributes were sent from friends elsewhere.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

1st Truro Troop News.

The boys were all unanimous in their opinion of last Saturday's hike. They all agreed it was the best they have had so far.

Parts of the Pioneer Badge were passed and some passed their 2nd Class fire-lighting and cooking. A game of "Siberian Man Hunt" was played. Mr. Allen was "it" and he was glad when the game was over as the boys were good shots with snow-balls.

At the Court Honour meeting held on Saturday evening, Feb. 22nd the following boys were promoted:—
Second James Thompson to Patrol Leader of the Beaver Patrol.
Scout Russell Harvey to Second of the Fox Patrol.
Eugene Moore was elected Court of Honour Secretary.

How to Identify a Scout.

A Boy Scout is easily recognized by the picturesque uniform which he wears, when not in uniform he can be distinguished by the fleur-de-lys badge worn in the buttonhole of his coat. He is always ready to do any act of kindness, courteous or good turn, that may come his way.
Every Boy Scout is supposed to do one good turn each day and his fleur-de-lys pin is not upright until the good turn is done.

News From Headquarters.

The Chief Scout for Canada, The Duke of Devonshire has received word from Sir Robert Baden Powell, the founder of the Boy Scout Movement and, Chief Scout for the United Kingdom, that he will visit Canada and the United States during May.
It is hoped that he may include the Maritime Provinces in his itinerary.

Suggestions for Scouts. A Home Made First Aid Outfit.

A handy First Aid Case can be made quite cheaply. For the case a medium sized, flat tin box such as candy is kept in would do very well.

The contents to start with are lint, absorbent cotton different sized bandages, court plaster, needles, pins and thread; also a cheap pair of scissors, iodine for burns, ammonia for insect bites. Other less used remedies can be added at leisure.

The following is an extract from "Scouting" a magazine published weekly by the National Headquarters Boy Scouts of America.

Wanted—More Boy Scouts.

What is needed in our schools, to bring up the percentage of boys continuing on thru High School?
More Boy Scouts.

What is needed in our churches and Sunday Schools to give them trained leaders?
More Boy Scouts.

What is needed in our homes to improve the discipline and lessen the burdens and create a more cheerful and progressive spirit?
More Boy Scouts.

What is needed in business life and political life and professional life in order to banish graft, jack up morale, cut down waste, and increase the percentage of efficiency?
More Boy Scouts.

What is needed in the world to hasten on the day of brotherhood and world peace?
More Boy Scouts.

Where are more Scouts coming from? From the 75 to 95 per cent. of the boys in every community who have not yet been admitted into a troop. The reason for this is the lack of leader. There is no lack of boys, the need is for men to act as scoutmasters, Assistants and Instructors.
OLD SCOUT.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

The Royal Canadian Regiment Nova Scotia, and the 42nd Bn. Quebec, sailed from Liverpool on the S. S. Adriatic.

They were given an official farewell by Col. Ritchie, Lord Mayor of Liverpool, a native of Chatham, N. B. and by tens of thousands of citizens of the city of Liverpool.

Bands played "O, Canada" "The Maple Leaf" and other patriotic airs. These 1,686 Canadians on the Adriatic included are 188 Royal Northwest Mounted Police, also 400 sent home by the British War Office, for discharge. Many have been fighting with the Imperial forces and 50 who have been in the Navy.
The Adriatic should reach Halifax on the 8th.

In South Devon, England, 27 farmers by using electrified barley seed last year made a gain of some $22 per acre in their grain field, after deducting the cost of treatment of the seed which was only a few shillings per sack.

Louis J. Mylius a former Halifax man, living in Winnipeg died in that city on the 26th. He was Manager of National Drug and Chemical Co., Winnipeg.

So far there is but little opposition to Daylight Saving in the United States. The farmers of the great West are not putting up any such "kick" to their representatives, as it was rumored they would. If the Act is not repealed in the United States it will certainly not be meddled with in Canada.

The article from the Barre, Ont. Daily Times, about the successful sale of War Saving Stamps has already appeared in the Truro News.

On motion of Councillors McLean and Wheby, the town of Dartmouth has decided to call for tenders for a motor fire and chemical engine of not less than 500 gallons capacity.
